The thoroughly mature ink drizzle pinched his chin, his eyes were vicious and embarrassing, and he spoke with him filthy words.

He said: "You let me do it once, I will promise you the conditions."

This ink rain is not the same as the ink he saw. The look is crazy, the handsome face is very pale, and the skin is not the wheat color he has seen.

"You kneel down...sell me..."

The messy sentence came from the depths of the nightmare, and there seemed to be something in the skull that was about to break. It was about to break free from shackles and rushed to the night.

He felt chilling, but he was inexplicably excited.

In his dreams, he saw that the ink burned toward him, tearing his clothes, and the sound of his clothes and shattered had never been so clear. Then, the dream suddenly turned black, like sinking into the mud.

Like countless times before, this dream is broken here.

If it was before, after the dream was broken, he would sleep well and there would be no harassment overnight. But today I don't know why, after the end of this dream, the light shimmered slowly.

Chu night would rather see the things in front of him, but the new dreams are very vague, like a layer of water vapor. He couldn't figure out the surroundings, only he felt vaguely a large scarlet.

He can't see clearly, but the sense of smell and touch is gradually clear and even sensitive as the dream unfolds. Suddenly he felt an unspeakable * desire and burning. He saw a strong body shaking in front of him and pressing on him. Chu was rather surprised, instinctively trying to struggle, but the body did not seem to be him. And belong to the dream of yourself.

He felt that he couldn't stop shaking. He could hear the man breathing heavily. The hot air spurted in his ear, and his lips touched his earrings from time to time, but he didn't kiss him.

He turned his head to the side, underneath it was a soft bed, shaking with the movements of the two, he could even smell the wild beggars of a fierce beast, and the bed seemed to be covered with hides. He wants to reach out and grab the scorpion in the sinking, but he has no strength.

The man is so fierce, so hard, it seems to tear his body, he heard the overflow of his throat, hoarse and muddy.

He shook his head desperately and wanted to break free, but the strength of that person was so large that he seemed to be able to break his bones in his hand. Chu nightning felt that the scalp was numb, and all of them were shaking in an unstoppable manner...

Perhaps this dream was too real and too tired. The next day, Chu nightning did not wake up until noon, and he woke up in bed, and he could not return to God for a long time. He turned his head and seemed to smell the smell of the animal skin in the dream, with the sweetness of the wild.

I can blink, and I am still lying on the red rosewood bed of red lotus water, everything is fine, no abnormalities.

Only...

Chu night, a stiff, slowly hangs over his eyes and looks down at himself.

"..."

For the sake of my heart, for many years, I have no intention of being pure-minded, and I have rarely had a physical reaction to the elders of Yu Heng. I found myself shameful in the morning... Bo...

Didn't the repairs of these years have been repaired in the dog's belly? !

And those dreams yesterday - what are those? How could he dream of the kind of scenes that are so bad! How come... How could this be?

Is it really just because I saw a smoldering body in the wonderful sound pool, and accidentally read the "silly" dirty book?

Chu nightning face is dark, his face buried in the palm of his hand, smashed a hand, and then lifted up, still black.

What happened to yourself?

I licked my lips and wanted to go to the cold spring lotus pond to soak a body and lower my heart's dry fire. However, the toe has not yet landed, and it has been felt that the enchantment of the Honglian otter has fluctuated.

Someone came in.

Chu nightning immediately changed color, and suddenly quilted the quilt to cover the lower body, the man walked fast, estimated that this is a light work, he heard the threshold "笃笃" rang twice.

"Master, have you got up?"

The same voice as the man in the dream. It’s just that the sound in this dream is even deeper and moister, soaking in infinite eroticism and enthusiasm.

The sound outside the door is peaceful and respectful, and even with a bit of anxiety, it is estimated that I saw that the night is so late, I have not yet woke up, and I am worried.

Chu nightning leaned on the bed, holding a quilt, listening to such a voice, the dream and the reality of the wall seems to be defeated, the lingering in the dream, the fierce impact, are lit up in the voice of the outside person Therefore, the tide of love surges, and the meaning is even more difficult.

He was about to lie down and sleep, and he heard the outside smoldering and said: "Master, you are not in the house? If you can, I will come in."

I am coming in...

Obviously it is unusual, and a simple sentence, but Chu night Ning suddenly thought of the man in the dream on his body, lips open, the male masculine heat almost burned him.

The man gasped and said, "Let's relax, I have to come in."

Chu’s face suddenly rose red, and the whole person sat on the bed in a dull manner, his clothes were messy, his heart was burning, his eyes seemed to be unwilling, but the shackles and unwillingness were like the gravel on the shoal, the winter cold fashion can Cold and sturdy, the people who don't dare to face up, but if the spring water begins to dissolve, the tides flow, these sharp teeth are all drowned in the soft and soft waves, where there is still a bit of fierceness.

He rarely had such a time of embarrassment, and he almost never had such a strong desire.

He stayed where he was, until the ink-burning door came in, and he reacted violently, waiting to sleep, but it was too late.

So when the ink burned into the door, I saw that Chu Ning was sitting on the bed, and the black ink was spread out. The face that looked like the sun was shining like a icy lake. The eyebrows and eyes of the man were very fierce. When I stared at myself, it was like a frost blade, and a few inches of cold light flowed out under the scabbard.

However, the end of the eye is thin red, so the cold light is dyed on the shackles, and the humiliation is entangled, as if who has just tortured him, and what he has done unspeakable to him, the sputum contains the suffocating and moist water color. .

The ink burned silently at him. This man was like the tender nucleus born in the thorns, which made him suddenly slow down his breathing. He only felt that the chest seemed to fall into a huge stone, and the huge waves that were overwhelming...

The author has something to say: Oh, there are several malicious brushing negative points in the text today, actively identifying for me what control I am, and enthusiastically gave me a nickname "Puzzle old and transparent", I am very strict with this title. Satisfied, thank you for scratching the scalp for the wonderful name that I came up with, how appropriate, local, poetic, and heartfelt, thank you, thank you, but I suggest that you better add a cheeky face. "Old transparency", why not, I think the eight words look more auspicious, of course, if you don't want to, you can also change to "hanging the sky paste to force the old and transparent" "Long Aotian paste for the old and transparent", hehe... Don't "step the fairy to make the old transparent"? I don’t know if the dog doesn’t mind borrowing his name from me...

Say you don't directly identify whether I am a woman? Because I feel that according to your logic, I am not a woman or maybe I have the final say, probably the researchers have said the calculations, the hands

Cough, get down to business, thank you for helping me to get back the little friends. Actually, you don’t have to leave a message under the normal chapter. Really, really, really don’t have to work hard to make up the points, too much trouble~

Finally, thank you again for helping me to submit the administrator report processing, to help clean up the little cute in the comment area, what?

Yesterday, there was a little baby who said that the younger sister and sister chopsticks, like Ximen Qingying Pan Jinlian, then the question came, is the master respected by Wang Po, or Wu Dalang?

The small theater "The title of this article can be ruined to what extent":

Chapter 134

The ink burned without talking, half awkward, and the throat was slightly twitching.

He almost seems to be in the rapids of desire, trying to climb a driftwood that does not let himself sink, thinking with sorrow:

Respect and respect him.

Respect is a respectful respect, love is a loving love, not awkward, can not be hurt, can not add extra feelings, but can not make things as ridiculous and insulting as the past life.

The lava boiling heart repeatedly recited the words four or five times. The ink burned this and barely stabilized the mind. It seemed to walk freely into the room, laughing and greeting with Chu.

"Master, you are inside... Why don't you say anything?"

"Just awake." Chu night Ning dry road.

Dry is really dry, the throat is dry, and the desire is also dry. If you accidentally fall into a little star fire, I am afraid that you can poke the original.

In the ink burning hand, holding a five-layer bamboo food box, it would be heavy when he went up. He wanted to put the food box on the table, but he glanced at it. The table was full of sickle drills, nails, and mess. Drawings. No way, he had to hold the food box and walk to the bedside of Chu.

Chu Xiaoning’s wake-up seems to be bigger than in the past. When he looked at him, he was obviously a little anxious. He said: “What are you doing?”

"The teacher is so late, there is nothing to eat in Mengpotang. I have nothing to do with it. I have done some preschooling."

Speaking of opening the food box, one by one, the top is a dish of fried wild mushrooms, then a plate of tender lettuce, then the bottom is a silver silk roll and honey sauce, the bottom of the two bowls are full of crystal White rice, and a bowl of winter bamboo ham soup.

Two bowls of white rice...

Chu nightning is somewhat speechless. I used to have such a large amount of food in my heart?

"There is a bit of chaos on the table. Is the teacher eating in bed, or am I going to clean up the table and let the dishes go?"

Of course, Chu Xiaoning did not like to eat in bed, but at this time his lower body desires did not disappear, all covered by the quilt, he patrolled between the manners and the face, resolutely chose the latter.

"There are too many things on the table. It takes a long time to pack them up. Just eat here."

Ink smiled and nodded: "Good."

I have to say that the craft of ink burning is very good. The dishes made five years ago are very delicious. After five years, it is hard to compare with ordinary chefs. And this person is inexplicably eaten and tastes his taste. He knows that he doesn't like porridge in the morning. The fresh mushrooms are made of straw mushrooms. The silver silk rolls do not contain bean paste. They use sweet potatoes. The winter bamboo shoots are all tender. The ham is thin and semi-mixed, and the color is like the red glow of the sky...

I have never asked about his taste, but everything is just right, as if I have lived together for many years.

Chu Xiaoning's comfortable, although calm, but chopsticks did not stop for a while, waiting for him to finish the last soup, looked up and saw the ink burning sitting on the edge of the bed, stepping on the wooden stand next to the chair With one hand holding the gang, it was like laughing at him with a smile.

"What's wrong?" Chu Xiaoning subconsciously took out the puff and wiped it. "Is there something in the mouth..."

“No.” The ink ignited, “I am very happy to see the teacher’s taste.”

"..." Chu Xiaoning was somewhat uncomfortable, and he said faintly, "What you do is delicious, that is, more rice, the next bowl is enough."

The smoldering seems to want to say something, but in the end it still refuses to say, the mouth smashed, and smiled like a neat tooth.

"Ok."

It’s a fool. When you encounter big things, you are very cautious and careful. In life, you are lazy and disappointing. Even the chopsticks under the food box clearly have two pairs of glimpses.

A person ate two people, actually told him that the meal was a little more, a little support...

The more I burned, the more I laughed. I couldn’t help but hold my hand gently to hold the forehead. The eyelashes hang down and twitch.

"What are you laughing at?"

"Nothing is nothing." The ink burned and feared hurting his face. He was the face of the master. It was more tight than anything. Of course, he could not be embarrassed. So he opened the subject. "Master, I suddenly remembered one thing, I forgot yesterday. I told you."

"what's up?"

"On my way back, I heard that the master of guilty crimes left before you left the customs."

"Yes, Not Bad."

"So you didn't see him after waking up?"

"No."

Ink sighed and said: "That thing can't blame the teacher for being rude. I used to listen to people outside and talk about the number of rituals. The master of guilty sins spent five years of hard work to reverence the soul. Wake up but even Xie Duo can't get it. But the master is the first to go. It doesn't always wake up to the Master. He has to go outside the Temple of Nostalgia and feel grateful. The people who chew the tongue are really annoying. Since I asked clearly, I Let the uncle mention it at tomorrow morning meeting-"

Chu night Ning suddenly said: "No."

"why?"

"...I have been evil with the master." Chu said, "I will not thank him even if I am still awakened when I wake up."

The ink burned a bit: "Why is this? I know that the Master was self-deported from the temple that year, and there is no master and apprentice with the master of guilty crimes, but he came to help when he was in danger, not... ”

When the words were not finished, they were interrupted by Chu Xiening: "I can't tell you about his affairs, and I don't want to say anything else. If others say that I have no conscience, cold blood and thin feelings, let them go. It is also true. ”

The ink is burning: "How is the truth? You obviously - you are not such a person!"

Chu night Ning suddenly looked up, his face suddenly cooled down, it seems that the dragon was touched against the scales, blood flow as a note.

"Ink burns." He suddenly said, "How much do you know about my business?"

"I--"

He looked at the bright eyes of Chu's late night, where the head was cold and frosty, and he couldn't keep up with the defense. He always lived in the city.

He has such a moment, suddenly wants to say no matter what I know, I know a lot of your things, I know, even if some of your past, some I did not know, I am willing to listen, willing to work with you Share it together. Don't you always hide everything in your heart, drop the overlapping locks, and build up layers of obstacles. Are you not tired? Not uncomfortable?

But what position does he have to say this?

He is an apprentice under his seat. He can't make a second time, and he can't be rebellious.

The ink burned eventually and was speechless.

Half a moment of silence, Chu night Ning tightened like a bowstring body finally loosened down in one section, he seemed to be a little tired, sighed and said: "People are not sages, they are even thinner before the fate of life, some things are not their own thoughts You can control the left and right. If you want to sin the master, don’t mention it to me later. Go out, I have to change clothes."

"...Yes." The ink burned down his head and silently packed up the food box. When he walked to the door, he suddenly said, "Master, you are not angry with me?"

Chu night Ning gave him a look: "What am I doing with you?"

The ink burned his face and smiled: "That's good, that's good. Can I still come tomorrow?"

"whatever."

Suddenly, suddenly thought of something, add a sentence, "I don't have to tell me later, "I am coming in."

The ink burned a bit: "Why?"

"You are coming in! This is not a nonsense?!" Chu nightning is mad, I don't know if it is pure and uncomfortable, but it is still a face that is not arrogant.

When the ink burned away, Chu nightning got out of bed, shoes were too lazy to wear, walked barefoot to the bookcase and took out a bamboo slip. He slammed the bamboo slips and stared at the words above, his eyes glaring and ignorant.

This bamboo slip is placed on his pillow when he is guilty. Jane applied a secret spell, only Chu nightning himself can play. The upper handwriting is neat and neat, and the writing is "Chu Gongzi Qin Kai".

His teacher of teaching, called him Chu Gongzi.

It’s ridiculous.

The content of the letter is not long or short. I talked about some things that Chu nightning needs to pay attention to after waking up, and spent more than half of it, "requesting" him one thing.

After the guilty master asked him to recover his energy, he must go to the Longxue Mountain near the Wuxi Temple to meet him. He said that he was very old and consciously had no time. He thought of some past events and felt awkward in his heart.

"When the old man died, he hoped to be with the king. The body still has old diseases. He is tired of being affected by this old disease. Every seven years, he needs to retreat for ten days. The old man feels awkward. If the king wants to come to Longxue Mountain, The array of healing is very good. However, the curse is very dangerous, and Jun needs to bring a disciple of wood fire to accompany the town spirit."

Old disease... Longxue Mountain...

Chu night Ning Jianmei is close, his fingers are almost in the palm of his hand.

How can I treat? What can be restored if the things that were destroyed, the lost things, in the 164 days of Dragon Blood Mountain?

I am guilty of sinfulness, can I fill in the three-pointed sores? !

He opened his eyes slyly, and the golden light in his palms, the solid bamboo slips of the bamboo scorpion, was shattered into powder in his fingers, and the smoke flew out.

He will not step into the half-step of the Temple of Nostalgia in his life.

I will not be guilty of a sin.

It’s been four days since I turned to the night, and Xue Zhengyi called him to the Danxin Temple and handed him a letter of entrustment. Shake it open and it's a simple sentence.

Chu night Ning squinted his eyes and said, "Give it wrong."

"What?" Xue Zhengyi took the letter and read it again and said, "Nothing wrong."

"..." Chu Xiaoning narrowed his eyes. "This is written on behalf of the villagers in Yuliang Village."

"can not you do it?"

"..."

Xue Zhengyi's big eyes: "You really won't?!"

Chu Xiening was somewhat embarrassed by him, so he rushed to the crown: "There is no normal, what is the evil spirits and evil spirits?"

Xue Zhengxuan said: "There has been a relatively peaceful situation recently. There is really nothing wrong with it. Oh, anyway, the children are going with you. It’s a big deal. You can sit and rest, let him go to work hard, young people, collect some rice. It’s not a trivial matter to manage the millet."

Chu night Ning has a pair of dark-browed eyes that are extremely deep: "When did the dying of life and death begin to pick up such trivial things?"

"...have been picking up all the time. The cats of the impermanent town of Wang Apo climbed up and down the tree. They were all squatting down. But there were more difficult things in the past, and they didn't bother you." Xue Zhengyi "You haven't just woken up recently, I originally wanted to let others do it, but I think you should be idle."

"Then I don't... I want to cut the rice." Chu night Ning turned a sigh of relief, but did not say "can not cut rice."

Xue Zhengxuan said: "All said that let the children help you, you should go out and let go, walk."

"I can't distract my heart without taking the task, walk?"

"It’s also true." Xue Zhengyi scratched his head. "But Yuliang Village is close to Choi Butterfly Town. The sky leak is a burning child. He is not as good as you. You have to go to see what is there. Where reinforcement is needed."

He said this, Chu night Ning finally felt that it was necessary to go, so he no longer said anything, took the letter of entrustment, and turned to the Danxin Hall.

The author has something to say: Today is a small year, to the yesterday's claws of the mushroom cool have sent 100 Jinjiang coins red envelopes, not too much, everyone is happy, with the function of batch red packets, I do not know if there is Jinjiang Missing, delayed, scratching head~

Yuliang Village is a very small village. The people living in the village are a bit old, and there are not many young people. Therefore, when the farmers are busy every year, they will ask the immortal Xianjun to take the handle.

This kind of entrustment that has nothing to do with the doctrine of the monastic is placed in other Xianmen. No one will pick it up, but Xue Zhengyi and his eldest brother started from scratch, and used to live a hard time since childhood. It is said that they grew up eating hundreds of meals, so For these requests from the old tenant, he can not only refuse, but every time he is very serious, he will send his disciples to complete.

The village is far from the shackles of life and death, saying that it is not close, it is a journey that is too troublesome to take the carriage.

So Xue Zhengyi prepared two good horses for them. After the night, Chu went down to the front of the mountain gate and saw the ink burned upright under a tall maple tree. At this time, it was late autumn, the forest was gradually dyed, the maple leaves were red, and the wind was blowing. A blow, full of frosty leaves is like a brocade, like a red hop.

In the ink burning, he held a black horse horse rope, while the other white horse kissed his cheek intimately. He was holding a silk flower to tease them. He heard footsteps. He turned back and happened to be a few. The red leaves slammed down, and the ink burned up in the leaves.

"Master."

Chu’s footsteps slowed down and stopped at the last few steps.

The sun shines through the leaves and infiltrates the stone steps of the moss. He looks at the man not far away, perhaps because of the reason for doing farm work. The ink is not worn today, nor is he wearing a disciple. The white robe that I wore when I came back.

He wore a black cloth, his wrist was tied with a hand guard, and the simple system, but his waist was long and his legs were wide, his shoulders were wide, and his body was very good, especially at the chest, because the collar of the cloth was low, you can see To the firm and tight chest muscles, the honey-colored skin swells with the breath.

If Xue Meng’s silver flashing body is called Ming Sao, it’s the peacock’s opening, the ink burns like this, it’s the sullen style, the innocent coquetry, the savage and pure coquettish – one sentence, I It’s an honest man, never arbitrarily, except that I work hard, I won’t do anything.

"..." Chu Xiaoning looked at him back and forth several times and spoke up. "Ink burns."

"Well? What happened to the Master?" The sturdy man asked with a smile.

Chu night Ning no expression: "The neckline is so open, are you cold or not?"

The ink burned slightly, and immediately felt that the Master was caring about himself. He was very happy. He put the alfalfa in the horse grass basket and clap his hands. He ran up the bluestone steps in three or two, and stood tall and handsome in Chu’s evening. In the past, I had not waited for the reaction of Chu Yuning, and I caught the wrist of Chu Yuning.

"Not cold, busy for a morning, in fact, I am very hot." He smiled without a city, with Chu Xiaoning's hand on his undulating chest, "Master respect, isn't it?"

It’s hot.

The temperature of the chest of the young man was very warm, accompanied by the heartbeat of the blood rushing, and the eyes that were as bright as the stars. Chu nightning felt a numbness in his back and hurriedly opened his hand and his face sank.

"Like what."

"Ah...has sweat?" The ink burns but it is wrong. He now thinks that Chu Lingning does not like men. After all, the past life and his own entanglement are due to his unreasonable coercion, he did not think Chu I would like to have a meaning for myself, so I only think that the dissatisfaction of the teacher is not a bit of a sweat.

I thought that Chu Xi Ning loves to be clean, so I don’t like to be in contact with people. I can’t help but sigh, and scratch my head: “I’m a slap in the face...”

If he looks carefully, he will find that Chou Ning Junxiu’s neck is blushing in the depths of his face, and the low-cold-hanging eyelashes are covered with a faint glimmer.

But he did not find it in the first moment, and Chu will rather not give him the opportunity to be aware of it. His white shoes stepped on the slippery bluestone, and walked straight toward the dark horse, turning over, getting on the horse, moving in the clouds, in one go.

In the sunshine that covers the sky, in the red leaves of the mountains and plains, he is dressed in white, riding on the blackhead, facing his face and looking down at the apprentice standing on the ground. An ice-like face looks very embarrassing, still it is sharp again. However, the elders of Yu Heng, Jun can not be more handsome.

"I am leaving, you will catch up soon."

It is said that the long legs have clamped the horse's stomach, and when they ride the red dust, they are going to go.

The ink burned in the same place. After a while, I picked up the half of the bamboo basket and fed it. After the basket was tied to the white saddle, I turned over the horse. I laughed and said: "The black horse is my horse. How to ride in a hurry... Master! Wait for me!"

The two men went straight, and when they were less than half an hour, they came to Yuliang Village.

There are dozens of acres of rice fields outside the village, and the golden spikes are rolling over. The fields are busy with 30 farmers. Because there are not many people, so young and old, they are doing work. They are holding their bodies. The trouser legs, with a sickle, and a lot of sweat on the face, it is very difficult to get on.

The ink burned immediately to find the village head, handed the letter to him, and then did not talk much, changed the hemp shoes and went to the ground. He is full of energy, energetic, and a person who is a monk, cutting wheat is nothing to say. After a busy half-day, I have already cut off two large ridges of rice.

The golden rice ears are piled on the edge of the rice field, and the sun is shining on the sun. In the mountains, the voice of the shovel and the rustling of the farmer’s farming, and the big niece sitting on the ridge, while busy picking up the tassels, sang the farm songs leisurely.

"The sun is shining, the red flowers are shining, the four mountains are red and red, the peony is singing, the love song is a red fan, and the lover is hydrangea. I am pulling the lang belt. When is it? I am not empty today. Minger wants to chop firewood, and I will come to the younger sister’s house afterwards."

This soft, small tone, shy remarks, swayed from the farmer's mouth, unscrupulously swaying between the heavens and the earth, falling in the hearts of the listeners.

"I am here today - not empty, Minger wants to chop firewood, and I will come to the younger sister's house after my childhood."

Chu night Ning did not go down to the ground, holding a hot water under the tree to drink, listening to this song, a pair of eyes chasing the far away black, hard-working figure, heart ups and downs, water falling from the throat, it seems no flow Going to the stomach, but turning to the chest, a burst of heat.

"The sound of the sound." After the water was finished, he commented four words coldly. Go back to the village head.

The village chief looked at him with some hesitation.

Chu night Ning is a bit violent and asks: "What happened?"

"...Xianjun...not going to the ground?" The old village chief was a straight man. Since he asked, he trembled, his white beard shook, and his white eyebrows wrinkled in one place. "Xianjun... is coming Supervisor?"

"..."

Chu night Ningtou once felt so embarrassed.

Go to the ground...

Xue Zhengyi did not tell him that he just had to look around and watch the ink burnt. Really want him to go down?

... he won't! !

The helpless old village chief whispered to him, and even with a few young children next to him, he also looked up and looked at the well-dressed man.

The child’s words are unscrupulous, and the child who is struggling with the shackles asks: “A grandmother, this long brother is so white, how is it going to the ground?”

"His sleeves are so wide..." Another little boy murmured.

"The shoes are also clean..."

Chu Xiaoning was said to be a thorn in the back, so awkward. Standing for a while, I didn’t have a face and I was so leisurely, I picked a sickle and the shoes didn’t take off into the paddy field. The slippery mud immediately wrapped his feet, and the cold water was not over. Ministry, Chu nightning tried to take two steps, the feeling of slippery greasy is a big frown, and tried to smash two sickles, but unfortunately the force always makes it wrong, cut very clumsy.

"... Hey, this long brother is so stupid." Two children held the donkey and saw his move under the mulberry tree, laughing at him like this.

Chu nightning: "..."

The face was black and half, and I was no longer willing to be too close to these people. Chu night would rather struggle to maintain a calm gait in the quagmire, with a handsome facial features, striding toward the distant cut rice. .

He is going to sneak a peek at how ink is burned.

The three-person line must have my teacher, he is going to steal the teacher.

For the anecdote, the ink burned obviously far more than the late night, only to see the sun, he bent down, his hand fell from the knife, and from the golden rice ear was put down, very softly fell on his wide In the arms. He received the rice in his hand, hugged a bundle, and then threw it into the bamboo raft behind him.

When he did these things, he was very serious. He didn’t see the late night, but he was honestly diligently draping the soft eyelashes. The high nose had a fuzzy shadow, and the sweat ran down his cheeks. Falling, he has a near-wild atmosphere, hot and wild, dull and passionate. In the sun, his skin is like a burning copper and iron, carrying an amazing spark of fire, as if still sizzling in the heat of the sword pool, so bright, so brilliant.

Chu nightning did not appreciate it for a while, suddenly realized what he was doing, immediately frowned and shook his head, muttered something, and continued to walk forward with a slap in the face.

He is going to steal the teacher!

He wants to see how the ink-burning hand holds the sickle, and how the tilt of the falling rock should be tilted. Why are these rice hard in their hands like a wire, but when they reach the palm of the ink, they become weak and boneless. The girl, willingly and willingly leaned in his arms.

About to stare too focused, Chu night rather did not pay attention to a frog under the feet, "hop" and jumped up, squatting on the ridge.

Chu night Ning was shocked, and he was busy with his feet, but the paddy field was too slippery. He didn't pay attention to it. The elders of the Tang Yu Yuheng were rushed forward because of a majestic frog!

"brush!"

Seeing his face will be buried in the mud, Chu night Ning also refused to cast a spell, actually subconsciously to pull the figure in front of busy.

The voice of Huanghua's niece is becoming more and more charming: "I took my lang belt - in the end -"

Coincidentally, Chu nightning slammed the ink-strapped belt and slammed forward a few steps, then fell into a fiery, masculine wide chest with a pair of strong arms. Surrounded him.

The author has something to say: Today's bib has:

Ink burning: ... oh... is that frog?

Female assists: Goodbye.

Chapter 136

The ink burned well and cut the rice. Suddenly, one hand grabbed his belt and pulled it down. This feeling was also quite shocking.

Looking back, it was Chu Yuning, and it was still quite amazed that Chu Xiaoning, who almost fell.

The ink burned and lost the sickle, and turned back to help him, but Chu night Ning was too miserable, almost half of the body had to land, and the help could not help, can only use the hug. The faint sea otter flower, together with the white man, fell sturdy in his arms, and the ink burned without hesitation, and the rice straw in the original arm was scattered.

"Master, how come you?" He was shocked. "Scared me."

Chu nightning: "..."

"This paddy field is very slippery, be careful."

The people in their arms bowed their heads and didn't say anything. They couldn't say half a word. But the singing girl is still pulling the scorpion: "I am pulling - Lang belt - 哎 - in the end -"

Chu nightning was like being touched by cold electricity, and suddenly grabbed the hand holding the ink-burning belt and stood firm. He gasped and violently pushed the man away. His posture was still calm, but his eyes were astonishingly bright. He was stunned by the waves, and he was already busy, but he was still calm.

"..." The ink burned and suddenly saw his earrings red.

Very nice color, pale skin, like a branch of peach, he suddenly remembered the taste of this earring in the past life, think of it every time, Chu nightning will trembling, even if not reconciled, In the end, it is hard to escape in his arms, and the iron bones are also spring mud.

The throat is swaying, and the burning eyes can't help but become deeper...

Partially born in the late night, Ning was angered and rushed to the crown. I don’t know who is angry. The silver teeth bite and shatter: "See what! What can be seen!"

I am fascinated and my heart is cold.

brute!

I have done things that I can’t stand up to because of my own desires. Master is so proud, how can he be willing to be female? Do not say that the female is ambush, he is such a cold person, it is the love and desire that should not have, how can you think about this big reversal!

The ink burned and shook his head again and again, like a rattle.

Chu night Ning again angered: "What do you shake your head and do! It's fun!"

"..." The ink burned and immediately did not shake, but gave him a look.

This person is obviously shameful, but habitually pulled the anger. This mask is worn on the face, and it is easy to distinguish the color in his eyes.

I am afraid that I feel that I am falling in the face of the apprentice, or because a frog that is screaming is falling, it is very shameful.

so cute.

The ink burned and couldn't help but laugh.

Unexpectedly, he laughed, and Chu Ning was even more angry. A pair of black-browed anger was so angry that he even gasped his nose: "What are you laughing at? I just don't farm, don't cultivate land, what's funny!"

"Yes, yes, not funny, not funny." The ink burned his words, and it immediately converges on the smile. It becomes serious and serious, but the smile of the lips is hidden, but the bottom of the eyes can’t cover it. Bright, can't tell the splendor.

For a long time, this thing seems to be overturned. At this time, the frog that succeeded in hitting the ridge slammed the gang, and screamed at the air. It seemed to be demonstrating.

The ink burned down the work, did not hold back, turned his face off, his hand covered under the tip of the nose seemed to cover the past with a cough.

But I didn't cover it up, but I laughed aloud.

"....." Chu nightning is simply mad, dragging the water to prepare to climb the ridge, but was shouted by the ink.

The distance between the two people is very close. If it is normal, the ink will directly pull him. But today he didn't. He still had the heat of Chu Xiaoning in his arms. The tip of his nose seemed to linger on the flowers of the sea bream on the clothes of Chu.

He felt that his heart was soft and he wanted to get rid of it.

But he did not dare to let the heart go away. The person in front of him is so good. He wants to hold him in his possession. He is respectful and respectful. He is not willing to use his own roughness to hurt him.

So he only called him: "Master."

"Why, haven't you laughed yet?" Chu Xiaoning squinted at him.

The burnt pear vortex looks great, but it is not ridiculous, but gentle: "Do you want to learn to play? I teach you, in fact, it is not difficult. Master is so smart, I will definitely learn."

When the ink-burning hand taught him how to cut the rice, Chu night couldn’t help but think that he had come to steal the teacher. How did he become a teacher?

It’s really a mess.

However, the ink-burning teaching was very serious and very careful. He looked at his clumsy technique and did not laugh at him.

His eyebrows are dark and the ink is generally deep. When the facial features are younger, he has the sharpness of the knife and the axe. This kind of appearance is originally handsome with some arrogance, but his eyes are soft and forbearing, it seems to hide a lot of thoughts, but it seems that there is no Tibetan, only because of the gentleness and depth, the years are too heavy.

"That's it, use smart, understand?"

"……Ok."

Chu Yuening would cut it as he said, but unfortunately it was not very flexible. He usually played hard wood. These soft rice stalks called him helpless.

The ink burned aside for a while, extending the line evenly, the muscles of the tight arm, helping him adjust the hand holding the sickle.

The contact of the skin is only in an instant, the ink does not dare to touch him more, and Chu Ning does not dare to let him touch more.

Obviously, there is a torrent of nowhere to vent, and one is the cognac that is almost dry. It is obvious that when he enters him, he can be entangled and entangled. He can no longer find the exit, and he can also be irrigated and smashed.

You can hide from each other and avoid each other.

He taught him behind him: "Foker down a little, be careful not to cut yourself."

One is very hard to say: "Know."

"Let's relax again, don't be so stiff."

"..."

"Relax."

The more you can burn, the tighter the back of the night, the stiffer the hand.

Relax and relax, why don't he want to relax? But it's light! The ink burned around him and talked to him. His breath even slammed on his back. The airflow was hot and heavy. He had the wild taste of this man. How did he let him relax? !

The brain is inexplicably wonderful, and I remember the shameful dream I have ever done.

The dream is almost the same gesture, the ink is also in his ear, the lips will be posted, and he will fall on his earrings.

He gasped and said: "Relax... Don't put me so tight..."

The face of Chu’s late night was red.

He struggled to get rid of such a weird recollection, but after a wave of unrest, he got rid of this, but he thought of the "Shenzhen Shengying Yingjie Size Ranking"...

Chu Xiaoning felt that his head was afraid of smoking.

It’s strange to say that the ink is burning: “Why are you so stretched? You put it—”

"I have relaxed!" Chu night, looking back, with spring water and angry flames in his eyes, he stared at him, so close, almost to become a sword, wearing a burning heart.

It is clear that both of them are heart-warming, but they are boiling and anti-profit, and they can’t hear next door unless he gets closer, unless his chest sticks to his back, unless he holds his hand and bites him. The tip of the ear, with his earlobe, gasped and said to him: "Let's relax, don't be nervous." Unless they do, they can understand each other.

Obviously, the ink will not burn, and the night will be the same.

So the ink burned a little bit, and he straightened up and said: "...the master, try it yourself?"

"Ok."

The smoldering smiled at him again, picked up his own sickle, cut the rice in his not far away, cut it twice, suddenly thought of something, and turned his head: "Master."

"What?" Chu night Ning black face.

The smoldering finger pointed to his shoes and said, "You take off your boots."

"Not off."

"It's easy to wrestle without taking off." The ink burns very earnestly. "You slip the bottom of the boot, not every time you fall, I can pull you in time."

"..." Chu Evening never thought about it in gloom. In the end, he went to the edge of the ridge, took off his shoes and socks, and threw it on the side of the grass. He returned to the paddy field with bare feet and buried the sand in the sand.

At noon, Chu Yuening finally became skilled in the use of the sickle, and the movements were smooth. He and the burnt-cut rice piled together, and made a golden hill high.

Another breath cut a piece of land, Chu night Ning was a little tired, got up and sighed, the sleeves rubbed sweat. The breeze blew through the golden rice waves, bringing a cool autumn coolness. He hit an aunt, and the ink burned back immediately. It was very concerned.

“Is it a little cold?”

"No." Chu Xiaoning shook his head. "There was just some grass ash in the nose."

The ink burned and laughed. I was trying to say something. I heard the distant mulberry trees. There was a farmer’s voice, Lang Lang, and shouted in a cage: “Open the meal – eat it – have lunch!”

"It’s the girl who just sang." Chu said that Ningtou wouldn’t return.

The burning side of the past, the hand on the eyebrow bow, looked at it from a distance, said: "It is really her. Master listening?"

"Well, the voice of people calling for dinner is so twisted and twisted, no one is there." Chu Yuning said, moving the last basket of straw to the valley, too lazy to wear shoes, anyway, it is already so dirty, go down the mulberry tree go with. The ink smiled and shook his head. He immediately picked up the shoes he had left in his place and caught up with his footsteps.

The farmer's rice was cooked in a large pot. Four or five peasant women carried three wooden barrels and uncovered them. One barrel was steaming white rice, one barrel was cabbage, and one barrel was tofu soup.

In fact, the people's livelihood in the Xiujian community is not good. The meat is extravagant to ordinary people, but the immortal prince of the dead is coming. The village chief said that he couldn't take all the vegetables to entertain people, so the cabbage was still full. In weight, cut a lot of five-flowered bacon into it.

As soon as the lids of the buckets opened, the five big and three thick villagers couldn’t help but be swallowed up by the meat.

"The dishes are not good, the two sages will be eaten." The village chief's wife is a woman with a big waist and a round waist. In her fifties, the voice of the speech is very loud, and her mouth is very big and very refreshing. "All of us." Pickled meat, kind of vegetables, don't give up."

The ink burned quickly and waved: "Do not dislike, don't disappoint." Say it was full of two bowls of rice, the apex to the master, and then took a bowl.

Chu nightning looked into the bucket of the dish and saw that the cabbage was full of hot peppers, and it was a little bun. The aunt was also very enthusiastic to recruit him and gave him a spoonful of hot soup. Juice, a few pieces of fresh and fragrant meat.

"..." For the monks who will eat spicy, it is naturally delicious. But for Chu Xiaoning, this bowl will probably kill him if he eats it.

However, the enthusiasm of the township was not good enough. Chu night was rather stiff, and suddenly one hand reached over and carried another bowl and handed it to him.

The bowl was filled with tofu green soup, although it was lighter, but Chu nighting liked it.

"Change one with me."

"...not in the way, you eat yours." Chu nightning did not pick up.

Auntie saw it, some hairpins, and it took a long time to react. She patted her head and shouted: "Oh, is this Xianjun not eating spicy?"

Chu night Ning see her, said: "No, can eat a little." Say a meal with a soup poured into the mouth.

A few silences, I saw that the face of Chu’s late night was rising more and more red in the eyes of the public, and the lines of the trembling shook slightly. Finally --

"...cough, cough, cough!!"

The cough is earth-shattering.

Who said that this world can't stand the love of poverty and sneeze.

There are also peppers.

After all, Chu Xiaoning was overestimated himself. He underestimated the Chaotian pepper. He was too late to be red-faced. The farmers around him were shocked. The children were not sensible. They hid behind the adults and laughed. Was photographed by an adult.

The ink burned down the tableware and re-cooked a bowl of soup for him. Chu nighting drank the soup, it was better, but the hot ones would only make the tip of the tongue more uncomfortable. He raised his face. It was a blushing face with a wave of eyes, so I looked at the ink in tears and hoarsely said: "More."

Still.

Chu nightning said that it is better to have a bowl of soup, but the ink burned by these eyes, this sea owl spring sleep-like face looked hot, involuntarily ran off.

For a moment, he seemed to see the man who was lying under him in his previous life. Under the urge of medicine and desire, he gasped, and opened the scorpion that was out of focus. The body shook and wet. The lips are slightly open and close, the voice is hoarse, and I don’t want to squat / squat: "Please... still..."

The author has something to say: Today, working overtime to add a dog, the message is too late to return, it is really cumbersome to QAQ before the holiday is really not doing ... but I have seen, crabs and small friends, today will not return, Let me take this overtime dog to breathe, hahahaha

The tip of the burning finger is a little trembling, and the heartbeat is too fast.

The saddest thing about men is that the desire for sexuality does not accept wisdom. Even if he is not willing to be ten thousand, the lower body is still hard and hot, and the swelling is not like words.

He whispered a curse to himself, adjusted the sitting position and did not let people see it, and then leaned over to give a late bowl of soup to Chu.

When the soup bowl was handed over, his fingers were rubbed into the late night of Chu. He was shocked. He only felt that the meaning of the numbness was like a lightning bolt across the spine. The hand shook and the soup poured out a little.

Chu night Ning wrinkled his brows, but he couldn’t care so much. He took the soup and drank it, slowing down the spicy pain between his lips and teeth. The ink burned and licked his lips with a sigh of relief, and it was soaked in blush because of the spicy, like the fresh leaves between the leaves, the branches and flowers.

It’s soft, warm, and hydrated...

"Snapped!"

The ink burns your hand and gives yourself a slap.

The crowd was stunned, and the bird was silently staring at him.

The ink burned back to the gods, and all the throats were clear, and the dumb said: "There are mosquitoes on my face."

"Oh." Suddenly a Lang Lang female voice rang and made a fuss. "Autumn mosquitoes are the most poisonous. Drinking blood to go through the winter, can Xianjun bring herbal cream?"

"Ah?" The ink burned for a moment and looked for it. The speech is a sturdy girl, wearing a black and shiny bun, wearing a bicolor scorpion, eyebrows, white skin, eyes are very bold, and when I touch the burning eyes, I immediately become more and more Passionate.

The ink burned for a while and did not react. My heart was only thinking, oh, the girl who only sang Xiaoqu.

He is slow, but the aunt who is sitting next to the girl is very awesome. She is a woman who has seven children. For those who are interested in the girl’s family, she is more exquisite than anyone else. She is as good as a flow: “Xianjun will not be in the village. I have lived for a long time, and when the farmer is busy, I will go back. How can I bring herbal cream? Linger, you go back and send a can to Xianjun."

The girl named Linger immediately smiled: "Of course it is good, I will bring it to Xianjun at night."

"..." There was nothing to say about the ink burning. The two women who were so enthusiastic had decided to make a decision for him. The ink could not help but be speechless. He turned to look at the late night of Chu, and he saw that the night was smashing the handkerchief, slowly wiping the soup stains on his hands, and his expression was somewhat disgusting.

When the ink burned was not good for women, he whispered and Chu said: "I also poured soup in my hand. After you wiped your handkerchief, I also wiped it."

Chu Yuening handed his handkerchief to him, still the piece embroidered with Begonia.

Ink burning remembers that in Taohuayuan, he used this piece of bamboo. Chu nightning looks light and cold. In fact, it is a long-lived person. He has noticed the life style of this person and the furnishings in the house. Often there will be no major changes in ten or twenty years. I just didn't expect the same with this handkerchief.

It’s been so long, the patterns on the top are faint, and the old man has not discarded it.

The ink burned his hand, and carefully licked the scorpion. Suddenly he found that the flower was delicately embroidered, but the stitches were not good-looking.

Mind, it is estimated that the teacher is stabbing when he is idle and bored. He thinks that the teacher’s face is smeared with a small needle to stab the sea otter, and the ink burns some can’t help but laugh...

After a closer look, the handkerchief was taken away by Chu.

Ink burning said: "take what you take, I will help you wash."

"I will wash myself." Chu night Ning said, picked up the tableware again. Where is the ink burning, he is willing to see him again, and quickly changed his bowl of rice and said, "I haven't touched this bowl."

The village chief's wife is also busy saying: "If you can't eat spicy, don't eat it. It's okay, it's okay."

Chu night Ning picked up his lips and squatted half-heartedly: "Sorry." He said that he had changed his meals with ink, and the ink burned his tableware. He was preparing to eat, but he thought that this was Chu Ning had already eaten. A bite, my heart is inexplicably warm and instigated.

He clipped a piece of fat and thin pork belly and sent it to the mouth. If the chopsticks had not bitten the teeth, they licked their lips...

Formerly ridiculous / swaying, what did you do with Chu Yuning? In this life, he only licked the chopsticks he had used, and his lips were pressed against the bowl he had used.

It’s just like this, the bottom/body is hard and hard.

Even if you sternly admonish yourself, you will not be guilty about his pure and correct teacher, but the heart is not like his own. He can make himself not touch him, but he can’t do it. .

He had no hatred for Chu nightning. After thinking that he had stripped of hatred, his feelings about the teacher’s respect were only respect and love.

But he seems to be wrong. When he hates the darkness of this piece of silk, it reveals that it is a moist affection, a hot love... He is floating in the sea and wants to climb the sensible driftwood, but Chu nightning's blink of an eye, an understatement, can turn him back into the abyss of desire.

He felt that he was really crazy.

Chu nightning does not like men, so even if it is dead, it will not touch him and bully him.

Then the desire burned into the sea of fire in the heart, and it became Wang Yang. He was in the deep water, and even forgot everything else. Only the clean person in front of him fell asleep into his unclear heart.

The rustling autumn wind, the sound of the rice frog, he sat next to him, this moment, the ink burned suddenly ridiculously thought, if they can stay like this for a lifetime, it seems quite good. He used to think that he was lacking anything, so he had to go crazy to grab it, but now he feels that he has everything, and he dare not want more.

It takes about half a month for the farmer to work. During this time, Chu Ning and Mo-burn live in Yuliang Village.

Although this small village is not rich, it is not difficult to clean up two empty houses. The environment is hard. The village chief's wife bit his teeth and evened out two thick scorpions, saying that they would be smothered with ink, and they were all rejected by the two.

Chu night Ningdao: "The straw is warm, you can keep it for yourself."

Ink also laughed and said: "A good man is a person who cultivates immortals. You can't use it with you."

The village chief was full of apologies, and repeatedly said: "I really can't help it. I used to have a lot of scorpions. But when I was in trouble last year, the village went out of the water, and many things..."

Chu night Ningdao: "Nothing."

Again, a few words of relief, the village chief and his wife finally trembled away. The ink burns and helps the late night to manage the bed, and the pad is covered with thicker straw underneath. I want to make the bed soft and some. It is like a dog busy with a cushioned pillow at home.

Chu Yuning leaned on the table and looked at it faintly. He said, "It’s almost done. You can lay it down again. I’m afraid I’m not in the bed, it’s in the sleeping valley.”

Something embarrassed by him, he scratched his head and said: "Today, I will catch up. I will go to the nearby market to buy a scorpion to return to the master."

"You go to buy a donkey, do you do all the farm work?" Chu night Ning gave him a look. "That's it, it's good." He said, went over and smelled, "The smell of rice."

Ink burns: "If you don't, the teacher is the most afraid of you, can't..."

"The winter hasn't arrived yet." Chu nightning frowned. "How can you say so much? You are going back to your room. After a tired day, your feet are numb, I have to sleep."

The ink burned out obediently.

Chu night Ning just took off his shoes, arbitrarily took some water from the tank, rushed his feet, ready to climb his rice bed. I heard that the threshold was ringing, the ink burned back and returned, shouting outside: "Master, I am coming in!"

"..." Chu nightning was furious. "I am not telling you, don't tell me the words "I am coming in"!"

The ink burned by him, and he smiled and took the head to open the hidden door. He really didn't have a hand to push the door. His sleeves were rolled over his elbows, revealing the honey-colored, tight-knit, * arms. With a bucket full of water, the water is steaming.

The eyes of young men are particularly bright in this mist, and they are particularly scorching.

Chu Xiaoning was shocked by his heart, but he did not know what to say.

The ink burned the heavy bucket to the side of his bed and put it down. There was light on his face, and the pear vortex melted. He said: "The master is soaking a foot, tired for a day, after I finish the bubble, I press the button and the master will sleep again. ""

"Do not……"

"I know, the Master must say no." The ink burned and laughed. "Yes. The first time you do farm work will be backache, and if you are not good at rest, you will not come tomorrow, the children in the village, It’s time to laugh at you."

The water in the barrel is very warm and hot, even slightly hot, but it is not unbearable.

Chu night Ning red / bare feet dipped in it, the toes are round, delicate, the cheekbones are extremely smooth and distinct, the skin on his feet is very white, because the sun is not seen for a long time, it can even be called pale.

I saw the ink burning, and suddenly I felt that the skin of the late night was really good, and it was more white and clear than those delicate and delicate Sichuan sisters.

If you think about it, even the woman Song Qiutong who went home in the past, there is no feeling that Chu’s feelings are good to touch it... Hey, think about it.

So Chu Xiaoning was soaking his feet, and the ink burned and sat at the opposite table to read a book.

The book was brought by himself. Some boring healing books were quiet. The room was quiet and quiet until both of them subconsciously slowed down their breathing and did not want the other party to hear. In the room with a light bulb of a bean, only the sound of the water wave of the night of the night was swayed.

"I have washed it, it is not sore, go back."

The ink burned but he insisted that he would never believe in the "not painful" and "not uncomfortable" of the late night. He had already put down the book and stumbled in front of the bed at the night of Chu, and squatted down and caught up. Chu Xiaoning wants to retract a foot, and the eyes are somewhat unacceptable:

"Take the master, I will go back."

"....." Chu nighting would like to slap him a foot, let him roll back arbitrarily, don't let his mother talk to himself in front of himself.

But the hand holding him was so powerful, some rough, the mouth of the tiger's mouth and the fingertips sticking to his flesh. His feet became extremely sensitive because of the infiltration of hot water. He suddenly felt itchy and wanted to laugh. So, the effort was spent all over the face, so I missed the last chance to pick up the majesty and drive away the ink.

The ink burned for a while, and he had put his foot on his knees, his eyes were low-pitched, and he pressed his patiently and meticulously.

"Master, is it cold in the paddy field?" he asked as he pressed.

"Fortunately."

"There are many dead leaves and rotted leaves. You see scratches here."

"..." Chu Xiaoning looked at the side of his right foot, and there was a small hole. "I have no feelings about a little injury."

Ink ignited: "I brought some plasters that hurt the wounds, and the masters waited a minute. I went to paint them for you. The aunts are especially easy to use. The wounds can heal in one night." He said The door, his cabin and the face of Chu Xiaoning face to face, only a ten-step walk in the middle of the yard, he quickly went back and brought a can of balm.

"As for this kind of emotion?"

"Where is the temperament, if it is festering, it will be more troublesome. Come, Master, and give it to me."

Chu Xiu Ning is somewhat embarrassed. He has lived for so many years, his feet are extremely private. He is always well-dressed on weekdays. Of course, he will not wander around with bare feet. This is the flesh that few people have ever seen. No one has touched the flesh.

Just because I don’t know who is fearless, just now he didn’t know what it was like to be pinched, so he burned it a few times by ink. Whoever expected it to be so sultry, the heart seemed to have ants in the bite, so again When you want to reach him, he is hesitant.

The ink burned and the pair of clear and white feet were half hidden under the clothes. The hot water finally added some blood color to them. Chu’s toes were evenly detailed, and the fingernails were like the knots on the lake in the deep winter in the south. The thin layer of ice is crystal clear, but the fingertips that have just been soaked have a faint blush.

It seems that in the ice layer, a jellyfish flower that contains cockroaches is frozen.

The ink burned down and squatted down, and the expression was gentle and respectful, holding the warm Begonia in the palm of his hand.

He felt that the sea otter shivered slightly in his hand, and the petals were smashing. He suddenly wanted to bow his head and lean over to kiss it, let it not be embarrassed, don't be afraid, let it stretch Fangfei, loosen the leaflets.

"Master respect..."

"what happened?"

He seems to hear that Chu Xinning's voice is a little hoarse, and it seems that the love is deep and the flowers are full, the flowers are almost unbearable, and the dew is dripping into the land.

The ink burned his head violently, and the candle fire burst at this time, bursting out a string of sparks, and the candle tears slowly fell. He happened to meet the eyes of Chu Yuening. In the lights, their eyes were bright, with desire/fire and spring tide.

"you……"

Chu nightning put down his two-page eyelash curtain, faintly said: "My feet are itchy, you are faster."

When the ink burned, the face was red. Fortunately, it was so dark now that it was not easy to see. He screamed "oh" and buried his face with red lipstick to give people a cream.

But I couldn’t help but whisper in the ear, "You are faster."

His throat was agitated and he looked at the delicate skin in front of his eyes.

He thought of all kinds of past life, more and more clear, he thought of the messy bed of Wushan Temple, the pillow was bright red, and the town became more and more white. They are as intensely entangled as wild beasts, breathing and low-lying, sly and sticky.

He thought that Chu Xiaoning was screaming under him, and the ice-like sound line was burned hot by the love of love and became soft water.

"You are a little faster... ah..." Chu Yuening seems to be squatting in his ear, he seems to be able to hear.

The ink burned his eyes sharply and the eyebrows were twisted into knots.

He has finally recognized one thing: he wants to be good at Chu, it is too difficult.

Far away, I am afraid that this person is not hot, afraid of taking care of him.

When the distance is near, he can't restrain the evil fire of his heart. If he doesn't pay attention to his mind, he will pay for it. He is afraid that he will make something more than the limit.

He wants to go to him, want him, even at this moment, he suddenly feels that what he wants to do is not here to apply the medicine to Chu Evening. This person is sitting in front of himself, sitting on the bed, his current strength is not much different from the past, Chu night Ning can not get rid of him.

He is eager to * him, eager to push people down in the bed, he is eager to go to the throat and thirsty, eager to the desire to swell and hurt, he wants to compactly press on the night of the night, he...

"Master, painted!" He almost shouted out loud. It was scared that Chu was a good night.

Only the ink burns knows that there is a cold sweat behind him.

Suddenly he felt very sad--why couldn't he be so good to the teacher, why can't he be honest with the teacher, why can't he get rid of those fiery desires.

Chu nightning, Chu nightning...

His master is the most lonely person in the world. If he knows that his apprentice has such a heart to himself, how much should he cast aside and how much he is guilty?

For two lifetimes.

He didn't want him to look down on himself again.

Chu nightning put on his shoes and socks. In the process, the ink burned his head and kept his head down. He didn’t talk, and he went up like a well-behaved dog. Only he knew that his heart was locked with a wolf who didn’t know how to rest. .

For a long while, the ink burned down the heat of the heart and said: "The teacher respects rest well. If there is any uncomfortable tomorrow, you should not go down. I will do two people alone."

When Chu Ning had not had time to say anything, he heard a delicate voice from outside and shouted: "Mo Xianjun, Mo Xianjun, are you there?"

The author has something to say: Today's bib has:

"Frost a sword and a meat bag" wife's New Year's super cute little master ~ (in fact, yesterday, I fooled to forget to copy QAQ face), knocking cute, want to give him a dozen red packets!嘿嘿嘿~ Then the assistant lady, very much, one is satisfied, and very beautiful! ! Nangong Temple: The manager of the pet shop, if it is not possible, the pig farm director is also possible.

Chu night Ning squinted his eyes, did not salty and looked at the ink, and said: "Look for you."

"... ah? Who can look for me at this time?" At this time, there was only Chu Yuning in the eyes, and the people in the village and the village said what they had done, and they had forgotten the country.

"Singing in the day." Chu night Ning wrote down, "It is best to see the girl in the village."

"Is it... How do I feel that the girls in this village are almost the same..."

Chu Xiaoning listened to him saying that he didn’t speak first, then he said: "When did you see you for five years, when did you marry?"

Chu Xiaoning’s tone was dull, but the ink burned his eyes for an instant, but he saw a smile on his eyes. He seemed to have a leisure time and joked with him. The ink burned and could not help but be overwhelmed.

The girl named Linger, holding a cloth bag with white flowers and white flowers, screamed at the room where the ink burned: "Mo Xianjun, ink-"

"I am here." Suddenly behind the man's low voice, Linger turned back and saw the ink burned open half of the curtain, leaning against the door and smiling at her. "Girl is so late, what is it?"

Linger was first scared, and then a joy, immediately greeted: "Fortunately, Xianjun has not slept, this is for you, I asked Sanchai to come, I told you at noon. You... you take it Look at it," she said, and handed him the cloth bag in his arms.

The ink burned open and there were three small clay pots inside.

"this is?"

"Herbal cream." Linger said enthusiastically, smiling and pointing to his cheek, "At noon in the field, you said you were bitten by mosquitoes..."

"Ah." The smoldering of this light suddenly realized, and then there was some embarrassment. He slammed the reason, the girl actually believed innocently, and really sent him a herbal cream, which made him a little shame.

The villagers in Yuliang Village are too simple...

"But the bite should not be bad." Linger suddenly picked up his toes and carefully looked at the burning face, and the smile was even more brilliant. "You can't find a mosquito block."

The ink burns and coughs: "After all, it is the person who cultivated the fairy..."

Linger smiled and said: "You guys are really interesting, especially fun. If I have talent, I also want to cultivate immortals, but unfortunately Fufu has no fate."

The two talked a few more words, and the ink burned thanked her and took the herbal cream back into the house. Chu Yuening has changed his position, sitting at the table, idling over the books left by the ink, and he looked up at him when he heard the movement.

“Herbal cream.” The ink burns.

Chu nightning said: "You are really bitten by mosquitoes? Come over me."

The color of the ink-burning face under the light is like honey, slightly deeper, but the eyebrows are more and more radiant. Chu nighting stares for a while and asks: "...package? Where?"

The ink burned and embarrassedly scratched the head: "The skin is thick, it has already disappeared." He said, putting three cans of cool herbal cream on the table of the night, "I don't need these, I respect you." Keep it, you are more likely to get rid of mosquito bites."

Chu night Ning did not set it, but said: "It is a golden sore medicine and a herbal cream. It is better to open a medicine shop than to go."

The ink burned on the nose of Ying Ting, and the smile was very subtle and very straight. Chu Xiaoning looked at it and reached out and poked his forehead and said, "Not too early, go back to your room to sleep."

"Well, Master is a good dream."

"Good dreams."

However, that night, the small yard that could be walked in ten steps, the two people lying in the old haystacks were different from each other's wishes. None of them fell asleep, they were tossing and turning, and it was difficult to sleep.

Chu nightning naturally does not need to say more, he feels that his feet are now numb, can feel the smoldering of the fingertips, grinding himself.

The ink-burning thoughts are much more complicated. He flipped over and over, his head was in the corner of his arms, and he kept clasping the bedboards. He repeatedly recited his heart: Master is a god, a fairy, no fire, no matter what happened in the past. In this life, you must never be confused again. You must not bully others. You must not mess around...

Not to mention the teacher.

Yeah, you should think more about your teacher--teacher...

Suddenly I feel even more uncomfortable.

In fact, since returning to the death and death, and seeing the teacher again, he has always felt that he does not seem to have much enthusiasm for the teacher.

Like a teacher and a protector, it seems to have become a habit without thinking. He is doing this all the time, but then?

Facing the teacher who was five years ago, she was gracious, but facing the handsome and beautiful man five years later, the ink burned her heart and grew a little stranger.

This stranger made him feel at a loss, and suddenly he did not know what happened to him. What should he do?

The next day, Chu night was a big early morning.

When I walked outside, it happened that the ink burned and the curtain came out. The two touched each other.

Ink burning: "Master is early."

"Early." Chu nighting looked at him, "... didn't sleep well?"

The ink burned and smiled: "The bed is not used to it, it doesn't matter, it will be fine for a while at noon."

They went to the field together, the morning wind filled with the sweetness of the vegetation, the four fields were empty, and occasionally they could hear three or two frogs and autumn crickets.

Chu night Ning lazily yawned, suddenly saw what he saw, could not help but laugh.

"Ink burning."

"Ok?"

One hand reached over and licked the smoldering hair. Chu nighting licked a straw from his hair and smiled faintly: "You shouldn't keep rolling in bed? Get it on your head." There are."

Mo-burning just wanted to defend, and suddenly saw a small section on the side of the night, and he couldn’t help but laugh: "The master is also rolling."

Said to help Chu late Ning pick up the golden grass stem.

As the sun rises, the masters and the masters look at each other in the golden glory that is overwhelming. It is still a slight head down, a slightly raised face.

Only five years ago, it was Chu Xinning who looked down, and the one who looked up was ink burning. Nowadays, the time is wrong, and the ink rain is no longer a teenager. At this moment, the time seems to be finally willing to settle down. In the gentle morning light, the smoldering suddenly couldn’t help but jump into the field, open his arms and smile at the people on the ridge: "Master, you come down, I will follow you."

"..." Chu night Ning took advantage of the ridge that was only half a person tall and said, "Are you sick?"

"Ha ha ha."

He took off his shoes and socks, and he jumped lightly into the paddy field. The water rippled and the feet were slightly cold. Chu night was wide-sleeved and swung, and he took a large piece of rice field into his own category: "These are mine." The rice that was cut yesterday is not as good as you. Today, I will let you admit defeat."

The arms that were burnt out were lifted up, scratching their heads, and the corners of their mouths rolled up, and a particularly nice smile rolled off his cheeks.

"Well, if I lose, I will make a lot of lotus cakes for the Master, a lot of crab lion heads."

Chu night Ningdao: "Add a lot of sweet-scented osmanthus sugar."

"Well! If the teacher lost," the ink-filled eyes reflected the faint water, like the stars, "What about?"

Chu night Ning coldly slanted him: "How are you going?"

The ink burned for a long time, and then said: "If the master loses, I have to eat a lot of lotus cakes that I have made, many crab lion heads."

After a pause, the gentler remnant fell in the breeze.

“Add a lot of sweet-scented osmanthus sugar.”

Regardless of winning or losing, I want to change the pattern to treat you.

Chu, Ning, cut rice, once again, he was a mature person. He was a person who refused to admit defeat. Yesterday, people laughed, but today they can't teach people to look down. He sighed in his heart and bury his head in the work of Shasha. By noon, the cut rice was much more burned than the ink.

Sitting in the mulberry tree, he was a little proud. Although he didn't say anything on his face, his face couldn't be seen, but a pair of scorpions always looked at the dam and saw the rice that he had beaten, and the high base became a golden mountain.

"Linger, go to Xianjun to add another bowl of rice."

Everyone sat around a group, and the aunt saw the ink burning fast. After a while, the bowl saw the bottom and said busy.

The ink burned the tableware, and it was very anxious. He smiled and said: "No, I am full, I have something to do. I have to go out of the village first, come back later, you should eat first."

Linger was surprised, and it suddenly showed some anxiety: "Is Xianjun eating this? But the food is not your taste? If you don't like it... I don't want to... I will do it for you alone..."

"No, no, it tastes good." The natural burning of the ink is not to show the heart of the girl's family, and smiled and waved his hand, striding in the direction of the horse.

Chu night Ning asked him: "Where are you going?"

The ink side is half-faced and laughing: "Go buy something and come back soon."

"Xianjun-"

"Forget it, let him go." Chu night Ning clipped a piece of fried tofu, said faintly.

Although these two immortals are coming together, whoever has a high status, who has a low status, who speaks more weight, and a discerning person are all embarrassed, not to mention the fact that the night of Ningtian’s growth is a bit cold, since he When the opening was over, the villagers would not be able to ask more questions and burned away by ink.

After using the rice, everyone is in groups of three or five, either chewing on the leaves in the ground, or squinting and basking in the sun, the peasant woman gathers a piece of woven warm clothing, the children are riding on the bamboo horse, playing a thin, not thin A few domestic cats sniffed on the ground with anticipation, the pink nose tipped and swayed, and it wanted to find some food for the belly in the cold.

Chu Xiaoning holds the hot tea, rests on a valley, and sees that the cat is so small that he is beckoning and wants to give it something to eat. Unfortunately, it is very alert to the stranger, see Chu Late Ning raised his hand and thought it was to fight it, and he screamed away.

Chu nightning: "..."

Does he grow so fierce? Cats are not waiting to see?

I was thinking about it, and I heard the sound of the copper jingle. Linger also happily held a cup of tea and sat next to Chu.

Chu night Ning turned to look at her, not much expression.

This girl is very pretty. What is even more rare is that she is not thin and she is a full-fledged woman who is rare in the backcountry. She also knows how to dress herself. She has no money to buy the accessories. She has picked up some pieces of copper and iron pieces and washed them. It is ground into a gentle ring, stringed on the clothes, and walks up and jingles. There is a brilliant light in the sun.

"Xianjun." She shouted at him, sounding like a ripe berries.

Chu night Ningdao: "What?" The sound is like a cold smoke.

Linger gave a slight glimpse of his inhumanity, but immediately decorated the Taiping, laughing: "Nothing, see Xianjun sitting alone boring, want to come to accompany Xianjun to talk."

"..."

Chu nightning does not think that he has an amiable face, the cat is probably the best evidence. But after all, people and cats are different. Cats don't count, but people may not have pictures.

Sure enough, Linger and he did not grieve after saying a bunch of some did not seem to be casually asked: "Xianjun, you are alive and dead... What kind of person should you accept as a disciple? You Look at me like this... can you?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Hands stick out."

"Ah..." She widened her eyes and then she was excited to do so. Chu Xiaoning put her fingertips lightly on her veins and then withdrew after half a mile. She said, "No."

Linger’s face suddenly turned red: “Yes, is there no Huigen?”

"I let you reach out, you know that I want to test your spiritual core, then you should have asked others before." Chu said, "The girl is shallow and shallow, I am afraid that I will not be able to build it in the year of my death." Base, empty in the mountains is only the time of gloom, or break this idea as well."

Linger didn't talk, and looked down, it was a lost appearance. After a while, I shook my lips and whispered: "Thank you for your guidance."

"No thanks."

She walked silently, and Chu Ning looked at her back, and her mood was a bit complicated. For many people in the lower cult, they will be more eager to get into the fairy door than the people in the upper cult, because the cultivator is only for the people of the upper cult, just for the ancestors of Guangzong, to make a good name.

But for those who are in the lower world, sometimes it means saving lives.

Chu nightning relied on the heap of grain and drank a cup of tea. Now the weather has turned cold, and it has not been drunk for a while, and the tea has become cold. He drank three or two, closed his eyes and thought about it for a while, but he slept too late last night, and today he was busy for a morning. This sleep became a deep sleep, and most of the time passed.

When he woke up again, the sky was already bloody, and the frogs on the treetops were mocking, and there were only neat rice stalks and falling grain between the ridges.

Chu night Ning was shocked and suddenly widened his eyes.

He actually fell to the dusk by the pile of grain, about because of his identity, and the farmers did not have the good intention to wake him up, not only because he was sleeping, but also because he was afraid of him catching cold and putting clothes on him. .

clothes……

Chu Xiaoning wanted to sit up, but the tip of his nose suddenly came with a familiar taste. He came back and looked down at the robes. The material was very thick, but the washing was clean and the needlework was lingering. The saponin is fragrant.

It is a burnt clothes.

I don’t know why, after I understood this, Chu’s action to sit up was abandoned. He relaxed his back and lay back. Half of his face was hidden under his robes, only a pair of clear eyes were exposed, slightly creased. I can't tell the unclear emotions.

It’s crazy.

He looked at the figure in the field with his soft eyelashes. He quickly found it. After all, the ink is so handsome and tall, and standing there will be very eye-catching.

The young man was helping the village chief to hold the cut rice into the cart. He was facing the night, and it was a little hot for a day. He and other farmers, both the robe and the top. Take off, bare and show a strong, honey-colored back.

In the hot sunset, his wide back snorted with heat, and the sweat slowly slid down the texture of the muscles, smashed into the waist, and reached the tight waistline...

Like a fiery iron, like the charcoal in the furnace, he burns all the tenderness and sweetness into a volatility of males and desires. Chu night is far away, and the eyes gradually fade away from all the other scenes, leaving only the person fresh. The fur, smooth as the cheetah's muscles, and half of the face that was crossed with the village chief's jokes, the pear vortex is blended, the eyes are good, and the handsome and charming.

Seems to feel the gaze behind, the ink burned back, Chu nightning quickly closed his eyes and sleep.

The heartbeat is as fast as a rain, and the ears are rumbling of blood.

After a while, he quietly opened a gap and looked down from the curtain of the eyelashes. The ink burned has turned around, and Linger walked over him from the ridge, his eyes shy, and handed him a handkerchief.

"Xianjun, wipe the sweat."

Mo-burning was carrying a straw to the car, and he said with a smile: "It’s too busy, wait a while."

Linger looked very happy, just stood next to him and looked at it from time to time. The ink burned the enthusiasm of the girl and said: "Thank you."

She is even more delighted. The tall and sturdy man around her exudes the masculine charm at his fingertips. She hears his breath, looks at his shoulders with a degree of relaxation, and involuntarily blushes, forgetting what men and women are for a moment. If you don’t kiss, you will slap the soft voice: "Xianjun, if your sweat is not rubbed again, you must go to your eyes."

The ink burned and said: "No hands, no hands."

"I am going to wipe it for you..." When she had not finished speaking, she felt a chill behind her.

When Chu Jingning did not know when he had arrived behind them, his shoulders were still covered with black and thick black robes, and his eyes were stunned with some suffocating suffocation. He said: "Ink burns."

"Ah?" The person who was still not available immediately put down the rice and turned his nose to look back. He smiled when he saw the night of Chu’s late arrival. "Master is finally awake."

Chu night Ning looked up and down him: "Is it cold?"

The ink burned and said: "Hot."

His voice just fell, and the sweatdrops between the black eyebrows smashed down, and when he was indifferent, he reached into his eyes. He screamed and raised one eye, and the other eye was bright and persistent. Looking at the late night of Chu. Of course, he was embarrassed to ask a girl to borrow a handkerchief, so he would rathernight: "Master, my eyes..."

"My handkerchief is washed."

Linger was busy saying: "That used me -"

Chu Xiaoning did not pay attention to her and went straight ahead. He looked faint, but he bullied his head and raised his plain sleeves, clutching his cuffs, and finely rubbing his eyes.

The author has something to say: Today, I found that the collection of the pre-collected pits is higher than the romance. Small theater "What does love mean?"

Master: Do not know.

Xue Meng: praise me, praise me in death, is love.

Teacher: Hey, I think that I am not a black-hearted one or a love.

Mei Hanxue: Can help me win the male number one, that is, love.

Nangong Temple: The gift only accepts Naobai Platinum. The dog who loves me is to love me.

Ye Forgiveness: ... can you like me, more than like a dog?

Dog 1.0: (biting the pen)... Hey, who has the standard answer, copy it by this seat.

Dog 2.0: I think I will soon break through the answer to this question.

Dog 0.5: ... (Impatient) What is this ghost problem? - "What do you mean by that?" Do not understand, what ghosts, take away, and roll.

Liu Gonggong: (small voice) His Majesty, this "love", do not read "acceptance."

The time when the ink burned was frozen.

The nasal breath is a familiar aroma of sea bream. Although there is not much expression on the night, but the cuffs on his eyelids are very soft and very carefully. The key is that this white man, like a snow, is so close to himself at the moment, he can even clarify the delicate texture of his lips, and he can easily kiss the lip with a little lower head. The soft tender core is contained between the lips and teeth.

"You won, but you didn't wake me up, won't win."

Chu nightning wiped the sweat from his eyebrows and suddenly said this.

When the ink burned, he smiled: "I didn't win, and the winner is the Master."

"You didn't cut rice in the afternoon?"

"No, there is not much left. I went to the market and bought some winter spending. I went around the house and walked a circle, and I lost some effort." Mo Yan said, "So it is still the master." More than me."

Chu nightning snorted without a light weight and seemed to be satisfied.

After a while, he asked: "What cost do you go to the market to buy??"?

The ink burned before he could talk, and the Linger standing next to him was unwilling to be lonely. He smiled and interjected: "Xianjun bought a lot of things, but he can exhaust the horse of the camel."

"There is not a lot, it is charcoal fire, bought some meat, and some candy."

"More than that." Linger said, "Xianjun also bought a mattress for each family. The old lady who played the cotton directly pushed the car into the village with him, and loaded a full car."

Chu nightning is a bit strange: "Where did you come so much?"

"It’s usually awkward." The ink burned and laughed. "In fact, those who sell the donkey are not expensive, much cheaper than the upper repairs."

"What about the meat?"

"Buy it, let the village head take it back and burn it for everyone to eat tomorrow."

Chu nightning changed his face and asked: "What about sugar?"

Linger smiled and smiled: "Of course, the children who bought it in the village are eating. When the ink is returned, they are given to them. There are maltose and sweet-scented osmanthus cakes. Many of the children in the village have never eaten these desserts. Don't mention how happy you are."

She paused and seemed to say something sweetly: "I also got one."

This girl belongs to the kind that comes to the event, and is naturally cooked. She intervened several times before, and Chu Ning did not mind, but after the sentence was finished, he turned his eyes and gave her a cold and faint look.

"Tasty?"

Linger mixed: "It's delicious, sweet."

Chu nightning seems to be sneer: "Then you eat more." I didn’t know where it was, and it made him unhappy. He was about to chase. Suddenly, there was a black cover in front of him. It was Chu’s robes that had been put on his face, and the ink burned, and the robes were anxiously pulled down. Looking at him.

"Master?"

"The naked figure is not like it! You are not cold, I look cold!" Chu night sighed, "put on!"

"..."

Although the ink burning is very hot, but since Chu Ning said so, still did not say a word, immediately put the clothes on it, sweat sticking to the cloth, the wetness is a little uncomfortable, he raised his eyes and eyes, suddenly Looking at each other.

Chu night Ning squatting with the sword eyebrows: "The clothes are pulled up! Who is open to see! No rules!"

"..." The ink burned the clothes immediately, and the neckline was very high. It was very strict. Now there is no half-inch skin exposed, but there is more beauty of abstinence. Chu night Ning looked, inexplicably more resentful, secretly slammed away from the sleeves, leaving a burning stupid dog in general.

The village chief and Linger were squatting beside them, all of them were confused. Linger’s heart shouted: "This Xianjun... is so fierce... I have never seen such a strange person with temper... "She has some pity, even whispering in a flattering manner."

"It’s not good for your master to treat you, but your gentleness is gentle and you can't stand it--"

She turned back and looked back, but suddenly looked at the burning of the ink, half of the words, then broken in the lips and teeth can no longer say. Because she saw that she was always smiling and very angry, Mo Xianjun suddenly looked like a blaze, and her eyes sparkled like a wolf.

She slammed her mouth, but the ink burned her face and the light changed. The color of his eyes was no longer so easy to be cleared. The heart of Linger was straight and suddenly, I don’t know if it was my own illusion, or this one. The man, who is generally stable and generous, reveals the face of another wolf and tiger leopard between the beards.

The ink burned and sighed: "Sorry, you are busy first, I don't trust him, go and see." It is a big walk.

Chu nightning stood at the edge of the river pond, flying in the sky, the sun was half immersed in the waves of water, and there was a fire burning in the river.

The ink burned and rushed, and there was some breathing when he stopped behind him: "Master."

"Where am I doing something wrong?"

Chu night Ningdao: "No."

"So why are you not happy?"

"I'm happy."

Ink burns: "What?"

Chu nightning turned back and said in a gloomy manner: "I am happy and unhappy."

Ink burning: "....."

He didn't intend to talk to Chu Xiaoning in general. He carefully licked his face and suddenly thought of something. He couldn't help but smile: "I know why Master is not happy."

Chu Xiaoning’s hand was tightened in the wide sleeves, his shoulders were not noticeable, but his face was still calm: “I said no?”

The ink burned has come over, standing under the tree, carrying his hands with a smile, the old banyan tree by the river has some thick meridians bare and exposed on the surface, like a vigorous blood vessel, slowly plunging into the depths of the soil.

He stood on the protruding root and looked even higher.

Chu night Ning Xinsheng was alert and uncomfortable, saying: "You give me down."

"Oh."

The ink burned lightly and skillfully, and the toes left the prominent tree scorpion and fell to the front of the night. This tree is entrenched in Wolong. The place where there is no rough root is a little bit like this. Chu nightning stands together, and the ink can only be especially close to him to avoid the high ground.

He lowered his head and breathed almost to shake the eyelashes of Chu's late night, so Chu Xiaoning was somewhat embarrassed and calmly said: "You give me up."

"..." The ink burned and couldn't help but smile. "Go up and go down, Master is joking with me?"

Chu nightning also knew that he was in a rage, and when he was exposed, he simply silently and silently did not speak.

The ink-burning handle sticks out from behind, I don’t know where to make a candy, wrapped in rice paper, and the flowers are green and held in the palm of my hand, piled up into a sweet hill.

"Don't be angry, leave it for you."

"....." Chu Evening was even more angry. He wanted to vomit blood. He was so angry that he pressed his sword and shouted. "Mini rain!!"

"In!" The ink burned and stood up straight.

"Who wants to eat sugar? When are you a three-year-old child? Or take me as a girl? I am at all - hehe!"

A candy was spotted to the lips and sent into the mouth.

Chu night Ning was shocked.

When the time is red, the ears are red, and the face is red. I don’t know if it’s shame or anger. A pair of phoenix eyes are rounded, and the man who is smiling at the front is stunned.

"The taste of milk is milky." Ink said, "You like it the most."

Chu night Ning suddenly became a bit dull, some powerless, like a cat that had been cut off, and the threat of fangs and claws became useless.

He had a candy with milky taste, and a small smashed hair in the forehead was just as fast as he was, and he was slightly lifted by the wind, and the grass was shaking like a soft leaf. The ink burned, and my heart felt itchy. I wanted to reach out and press down on the hair.

He is a person who likes to work hard.

Thinking about it in my heart, then I really reached out.

Chu nightning: "....."

Ink burned and said: "Everyone in the village bought some sweets and snacks, but it is best to buy it for the master. I can hide it in my sleeves. The pastry is placed in your room and I go back to eat quietly at night. Don't show it to the little guys. It's a lotus flower, it's very beautiful. If you see them, you have to ask for it."

Chu Xiaoning did not speak. After a long time, he rolled the milk candy that had been melted and rolled up with his tongue. He looked up and looked at the man in front of the old banyan tree in the aloe bush.

For a long while, the foreword throws four words without saying: "Osmanthus sugar."

The ink burned: "Buy."

"Crab powder lion head."

"Also bought."

"..."

Chu Xi Ning leaned over his head. He felt that his own majesty was lost a lot today. He wanted to pick up his own majesty and dust, so he bent his posture and his chin rose slightly. "Unfortunately, the pear is white."

He probably thought that his chin was very serious and very stressful.

However, it was the past, limited to the boyish age of ink burning, when he was not tall.

Chu Evening didn't know that he would do this now, only to let the ink burn the soft squat, the throat that was exposed after the chin was lifted, and the enamel-like neck.

He is like a very self-respecting cat. He leans the most vulnerable place under the lips of a wolf dog. He does not know what he is. He thinks that he has shocked the tiger and wolf, but he does not know that the tiger wolf just wants to put his throat in his throat. Between the tongue and tongue, kiss and swallow, and swallow it into the abdomen.

fool.

The ink burned a lot of perseverance, and then the line of sight was removed from the bottom of the chin of Chu, and then when the person in front of the eyes was looked at, the eyes were a little deep and the voice was a little low.

He smiled reluctantly, doing his gentleman and his Liu Xiahui, he said: "Yes."

Chu nightning did not react, squinting: "What?"

"Pear blossom white."

The ink burned in a breath and breathed a sigh of relief, pressing the heart of the desire, hoarse.

"Pear blossoms are white, there are also."

Chu nightning: "....."

"When you are on the road, you may think that the Master may want to drink." Mo burned, "Fortunately, I bought it."

Chu night Ning looked at the apprentice who was eager to please himself. Suddenly he couldn’t say anything. He suddenly felt that his martyrdom was boring, and it was boring to make Zhang Zhi’s hard cold.

He finally slowly released the tight body, leaning his back on the old banyan tree, looking back and forth with ink, and then said: "Ink burning."

"Ok."

"You have changed a lot."

He said this sentence, I do not know why I saw a trace of uneasiness from the bottom of my eyes, and then the ink burned with thick and long eyelashes, said: "The teacher does not like it?"

"..." Chu said, "I don't hate it."

Then he suddenly remembered something, and he stood up again, raised his fingers, hesitated in the air, or fell on the side of the ink.

The smoldering trembled fiercely, but it was unclear, but it looked at the late night.

"I saw you fighting with the Yellow River in the book." Chu said, "I am hurt here."

"……Ok."

Chu Xiaoning sighed incomparably and patted the shoulders of the ink: "You are very good now, you can be a master of ink."

"The disciple does not dare."

Chu night Ning smiled slightly, his fingertips poked the ink-burning eyebrows, and then hanged down: "Also, the heavens/coats are not running around, there is no such thing as a master. Let's go, the sun sets, go back earlier. Rest, what are you going to do tomorrow?"

I thought about it and said, "It seems to be steaming rice, and I want to make rice cakes."

Chu Xiaoning nodded and suddenly said: "Don't take off your clothes again."

The blushing blush: "Well."

"If you are hot, take a break."

"it is good."

Chu nightning thought for a while and said: "I have to remember to bring a handkerchief. Nothing is always mixed with the girl who has not married. Do you have a handkerchief?"

"...no."

"...what do you usually use to wipe your face..."

".....sleeves." The ink burns for his own roughness and feels more awkward.

Chu Xiaoning was speechless, and said: "I will help you cut a piece when you get there."

The burning eyes suddenly lit up: "Give me something?"

"Ok."

The ink burned overjoyed: "It's so good! When will the master go to the cut?"

Chu night Ning frowned: "... I have to wait for this time to finish."

"Then I... I want the kind of jellyfish, can I?"

"……I will try my best."

The ink-burning that was answered was happy all night, immersed in the joy of a candy in exchange for a handkerchief, covered with a new quilt, and turned over and over to sleep.

For five years, he has been suffering from drunken dreams.

This is the first time he has been sleepless because of his joy.

The heartbeat was so fast that it could not be calmed for a long time. Later, he couldn’t help but sit up from the bed and his window was facing the window of the room in Chu’s night. He squatted on the edge, and made a slight gap through the slightest support. The tip of the nose was the sweetness of the night in the wilderness countryside. There was a small courtyard in front of him, and the candlelight opposite the courtyard.

Chu nightning has not slept yet.

what is he doing?

Is wondering how to cut a handkerchief, or is it eating the lotus cake that he brought to him?

The ink ignited the warm yellow light from the opposite window, and looked for a long time, until the opposite light went out, and Chu night would rather sleep, and he reluctantly whispered a sentence:

"Master, good dreams."

There is another sentence in the bottom of my heart. Even if no one hears it, he dare not say it.

Late Ning.

Good dreams.

Chapter 140

By ink, Ji Jiyan, this evening, Chu nightning has made another dream, but unfortunately not a good dream.

In the dream, he returned to the day of the colorful butterfly town, but he was replaced by a man who had broken up with him.

The lead-gray sky was covered with heavy snow, and the sergeant couldn't support it. He was sneaky, and fell from the dragon column and fell into the endless snow. The ink burned over and picked up the * sergeant, kneeling at his feet, asking him to help him and save his apprentice.

He also wants to save, but under the effect of twin enchantment, he suffers from the trauma of the teacher. He is pale and his face is not a word. He is afraid that he will export, and the blood will be thrown out. They will swarm and tear them all into pieces.

"Master...I beg you...I beg you..."

The ink burned and cried, and he was decapitated to him.

Chu night Ning closed his eyes and finally escaped...

The teacher is dead.

The ink burned no longer forgive him.

He dreamed of the bridge of life and death, it was when the spring was cold, the sky was raining, the spring buds of the spring trees were moistened by the rain, and the bluestone road at the foot was long without end. He held the umbrella and walked alone.

Suddenly, he saw another person walking across the bridge, wearing a black suit, no palms, holding a book wrapped in oil paper, and coming in his direction. Chu night, I couldn’t help but slow down.

The man apparently saw him too, but the pace at the foot of the man did not slow down. He just lifted the eyelids that were drenched in the rain and glanced at him without temperature.

Chu nightning wants to call him, want to say: ink...

The ink burned did not give him any chance to speak. He held his book and walked on the far left side of the bridge, and one more inch should be turned into the river - just to leave the teacher on the right side. A little, a little further.

They walked to the middle of the bridge.

A person who used to be an umbrella, used to walk in the rain, a person who used to be accustomed to holding an umbrella, and walked in the rain.

Later they went wrong.

The head of the rain did not return to the ground, and the person holding the umbrella stopped and stood in the same place.

The raindrops slammed on the umbrella surface, and Chu Xiaoning stood for a long time, and the legs were a little stiff, as if the damp cold in the sputum penetrated into the bones.

He suddenly felt very tired and could not walk anymore.

The dream is dark.

It is heavy and cold.

It’s as cold as rain, sinking like a leg that can’t move anymore.

In his sleep, Chu Ning turned over and shrank his body very small. Something fell from the corner of his eyes and wet the pillow. He knows that this is just a dream, but why is it so true that he can feel the hatred of ink burning so clearly, the disappointment of ink burning, and the demise of ink.

But... just like this?

Is it over here?

He was not reconciled, it seems that his unwillingness to let the surrounding light light up again.

Still in the dream, it has been many months since the death of the teacher.

The smoldering temper is gloomy day by day, and the words are getting less and less. However, he will come all the lessons, but he will only listen to the class, and he will not speak more with the late night.

Chu Xiaoning did not explain why he did not save his teacher, but he looked at his eyes. He knew that things had been so far and that everything was useless.

This day's practice class, according to the instructions, stood at the top of a pine tree, exercise the collection of spiritual power.

But he didn't know why, for a sudden, his physical strength was not enough. He actually planted it straight down. Chu night couldn't think about it, rushing over to help him, but he had no time to cast any spells in a hurry, and the two fell heavily from the treetops. ,He fell to the ground.

Fortunately, the soil was very soft, and there was a thick layer of pine needles. They didn't fall, but Chu's wrists were cut by sharp branches, and the blood was smashing out.

Ink burned his wounds, and then lifted his eyes for the first time these months, without hiding his face, looking back and forth at the face of Chu.

Finally he said: "Master, you are bleeding."

Some numb tone, but to say, it is still a moderate sentence.

"I have ointments and bandages in my sacred sac, take care of it."

They sat in the thick coniferous forest, the air was filled with the scent of pine and cypress, and Chu had no snoring. He looked at the ink and lowered his head, silently wrapping his bandages for himself, round and round.

The young woman’s eyelashes trembled, and Chu’s night couldn’t see the look on his face. For a moment, he suddenly wanted to pick up enough courage and ask:

Burning, do you really hate me so much?

But at that time, the wind was too slow, the sun was too warm, and there were birds and insects between the branches and leaves. His injured hand was quietly held by the ink, and the bandages were taken. Everything was peaceful and quiet.

He finally did not ask for an exit, did not break this quiet picture.

He suddenly felt that the answer was not so important. What is important is that in this dream, after the teacher’s death, his blood, his injury, can actually change back to the sensation of ink burning, half-inch and gentle.

The next day, when Chu Ning wakes up, there is still a moment of embarrassment.

He was lying in bed and could even feel his arm faintly painful and seemed to have residual temperature. After a while, he only exhausted his face and couldn't help but laugh.

What are the things that I dreamt of?

People say that there is a dream in the night, it will not be a glimpse of the teacher's appearance today, his heart is a little depressed, actually went to the dream to vent, actually can dream of the teacher died...

It’s really ridiculous.

He got dressed and got up, washed and smashed, and soon, he left behind the little and broken dreams of last night.

Today, the village heads are going to make rice cakes.

The rice cake is the food that must be eaten on New Year's Eve in order to discuss a good color. The glutinous rice noodles and the glutinous rice noodles were ground on the first night, and then the woman and the old man needed to burn the hot stove and go to the pot to steam the powder. This process took a lot of work, but the young and strong men did not use it. It’s a little late for Chu’s late arrival, and it’s okay to go slowly.

When he got there, he saw a large pot on the big drying field. The half-high barrel was steamed, and the heat was constantly going out. The village chief’s wife stood on a short bench and filled it from time to time. rice flour. Several children were running around the stove, and from time to time, they took a string of roasted peanuts and a corn cob from the iron stove.

Something unexpected to Chu’s late night is that the ink is still burning very early. He is helping the village chief’s wife to watch the fire. There is a child who is joking and rushing. A donkey is planted on the ground and twitches several times. Cry.

"How did it fall?" The ink burned her and patted the mud on her body and said, "Is there any wear?"

"Hand--" The little girl squatted and raised her black hand that was not black and autumn.

The ink burned her, took her to the well, and washed her with a bucket of water. The distance was a little far away. Chu nightning did not hear what he had said to the child, but the little guy shed tears and twitched. After a while, he stopped crying. After a while, she broke into Laughing, looking up at a small face with a snot, looking at the ink, began to talk with the ink.

Chu nightning quietly stood at the corner and looked at him, watching him swearing, watching him take the child back to the fire pit, watching him set a sweet potato from the fire, peeling the skin finely Handed to the little girl.

He just looked at it.

It seems that I saw the five years after the light rain passed.

"Ah, is the Master coming?"

"Yeah." After a long time, Chu nightning went to the side of the ink and sat down. He looked at the raging fire under the boiler and looked at it for a moment. "What are you baking inside?"

"Peanuts, sweet potatoes, corn." Mo-burn said, "You are here, give you a candy."

"...Can candy still be baked?"

"The master can't bake, and it's burnt when it's grilled." The ink burned and laughed. "I will be better."

He said, he took another milk maltose from his pocket, went to the rice paper outside, took the tongs, took it to the hearth and bake it slightly, then immediately took it back and took the candy. "Hey, some hot. "He blew, and then handed it to Chu's lips."

"Try it."

"..." Chu nightning is not used to being fed by people, so he reached for the candy, the milky white sugar was softened and chewed, and the milk was full of fragrance. Chu night said, "Yes. You roast again." One."

The ink burned again, and Chu Ning took it by hand and ate it himself.

"One more."

The ink burned eight times in a row. When the ninth was over, a small child ran over and asked the ink to burn sweet potatoes. If the ink burned and did not come out, he could only let Chu Lingning take it.

Chu nightning picked up another tongs and picked one of the biggest ones. The ink burned a look and said: "Let's go back and take the small one next to you."

"Great is delicious."

"The big one is not cooked." The ink burned and laughed.

Chu nightning is somewhat convinced: "How do you know that you are not cooked?"

"You believe in me, I often roast in the wild. Take the little one to him, sweet."

Chu Xi Ning had to change the small one out, the child did not know how the late night Ning was in the realm of comprehension, but seeing that he was willing to pick sweet potatoes for himself, he would come over and whispered to Chu Yuning: "Big brother, I want to eat that big one."

"Speak to another big brother." Chu said, "I don't want you to eat, and he is not cooked."

The child really ran to find the ink: "Ink burning brother, I want to eat that big."

The ink burned: "If you want to eat big, wait a little longer."

"How long is it?"

"From one to one hundred."

"But I can only count from one to ten..." The child is very wronged.

The ink burned and laughed: "The penalty is that you can only eat small."

The little guy had no choice but to sigh and sigh, and he could only accept the injustice of his fate. He sweared and said: "Okay, small is small."

Chu night Ning gave him peeling sweet potatoes. When you peeled off well, the burnt candy was also baked to the softest. If you don't eat it again, you will be completely overwhelmed. So he rushed down and handed it to Chu Yuning: "Master, come, open your mouth -"

There was sweet potato in his hand, and Chu Ning did not think much. He naturally opened his lips until the ink burned the soft and warm nougat between his lips and teeth, and gently rubbed his rough fingertips at his mouth. Chu night Ning only reacted fiercely, this is the candy that the apprentice hand-picked, and the ear tip is red when it is braked.

"anything else?"

Chu night Ning lightly coughed, but fortunately the fire was warm, reflecting his face, but he couldn’t find his face. He said, "No."

The ink burned and laughed: "Just feed you, there is still the last nougat, and there is no more to eat."

Because of his relaxation, he used words to be lazy and did not consider it.

So naturally, I said the word "feeding". However, the apprentice naturally does not dare to speak with the Master. The taste of the two words is too heavy. For example, the owner feeds the darling, the emperor feeds his wife, and can even be extended to between the beds. In the above conqueror, use the hot and burning flesh to feed the female underneath.

Chu nightning was soaked in such a rough word, and he did not slow down for a long time.

After the rice is steamed, it is necessary to spread the panel. This is a physical activity. The strong man in the village must carry the rice cake with the rice dumplings. The village chief gave the ink a wooden hammer wrapped with gauze, and wanted to hand one to the late night. The ink burned.

The ink burned and laughed: "The village head, my master has not done this job, he can't fight."

"..." Chu Xiaoning was silent next to him.

He is very reluctant, even a little angry, because he is a person, from the mountain to the present, no one has been able to associate him with the word "do not do well."

In the mouth of others, what he can hear is always the request, is to ask, is "Xianjun, how can you help me?"

This is the first time someone has stopped him behind him and said, "He won't, he can't do well."

Chu night Ning is very annoyed, he wants to shake his arms and drink, you can't do it well!

But he endured it and held it back.

Because the ink is true, he really can't do it well.

In the end, they were arranged by the village head in front of a stone sarcophagus. The steamed rice noodles had been placed in the stone shovel, and they were burning outside.

Ink ignited: "Master, I will beat the cake later. You remember to turn the rice cake over every three times. Be careful not to burn your hands, don't be too anxious, don't be picked up by me. ""

"...you can pick me up with a hammer, don't fix it, go home and farm."

The ink burned and laughed: "I just said one, I am afraid of 10,000 if I am afraid."

Chu nightning was too lazy to talk nonsense with him. The side had already opened up in groups of two. He didn't want to fall too far behind, so he stood next to Shijie and said, "Come on."

The ink burned down the wooden hammer, and the first hit was very heavy. It was actually hit in the soft and hot rice noodles. The rice noodles got in and wrapped in the scorpion. He reciprocated three times and lifted up the bright. Xunzi, on the late night of Chu: "Master, turn over."

Chu nightning turned the rice dumplings over, and the ink burned down again.

After several times of cooperation, their rhythm has been well mastered. Basically, the third is lifted up by the ink, and the night of the night will be turned over. When his hand has just been withdrawn, the ink burns again. a blow. Playing rice cakes seems simple, but the strength is to be mastered very well. The people who fight must be very energetic and energetic. So they have turned over and over again. When the rice noodles are completely sticky, they are stuck and finished.

So busy for a while, the ink burned but the face was not red, but the farmers next to it were a little tired, and the thick scorpion began to shout: "One two three - one two three -" they shouted the hammer The rhythm and the burning of the ink felt a little meaning. They beat them at their rhythm and hit the rice group half-stick. The person next to them was panting, but the ink burned but there was no feeling. He smiled and said to Chu Ningning: "Come back."

Chu night Ning looked at him, the young man's forehead was full of sweat, the sun was shining bright, honey-like color. His lips are also slightly open, not as tiring as the average person, but breathing is somewhat heavy, his chest is ups and downs.

When I saw him, Chu Ning was watching him. He snorted. He lifted his sleeve and wiped his face. His eyes were like stars. He smiled. "What happened? Is it a face with rice?"

"No."

"That is……"

Chu Xiaoning looked at his hot sweaty head, but he was honestly and ruthlessly folded his clothes to the throat, and suddenly he could not bear it. He asked: "Are you hot?"

Yesterday, he asked the ink to burn "cold and not cold". Today, he asked the ink to burn "hot and not hot". This really made the ink burn very confused. The temperature of the two days was not too much. After a while, I said: "I still it is good."

"If you get hot, take it off."

"I don't like the Master, I won't take it off."

"..." Chu said, "I hate a sweat and hate it."

Since he said this, the ink burning itself has been sticky and uncomfortable. Then he put the robe and the upper skirt on the graphite next to him. Chu night is cold and cold, and his heart is getting hot. He looks at the graphite in the graphite. The bare side reveals a broad shoulder, a solid arm, and the inner layer of the inner layer can be almost smothered by the hot air. The ink burns the sweat that is suffocating, and the sun shines with the lustrous and lustrous. He turned like a mermaid from the water, turned around and smiled at Chu’s late night, handsome and dazzling.

"Two sinjun, do you want to drink water?" The village chief's wife took a cup of tea and asked him and asked them.

The ink burned back to the stone sarcophagus, picked up the wooden hammer again, and smiled: "No, I am not thirsty."

One hand reached over and took a tea pot on the tray.

In the eyes of the two people with a strange look, Chu Yuning drank a whole cup of tea and sang the tea to the village chief wife: "Let's get another drink."

"... Master, are you thirsty?"

I don’t know where to stab him. Chu nightly looked up and looked up, his eyes were burning, full of alert: "Thirsty?... No, I am not thirsty."

He snorted and drank a whole cup of water.

The ink burned at him, and I couldn’t help but wonder if the teacher’s self-esteem was so serious that he was ashamed of his thirst.

Ye Forgiveness: The gentleman upstairs, I am sorry, please cooperate with us. Since last week, this Council has received 15 alarm calls, reporting your fraud, and asking you to take a trip with me.

Chapter 141

Drinking water, the two people are busy again, can burn a scorpion, Chu night Ning knows not good.

The large movements made the lines of the young man's body more and more tense, and the sun golden light rushed over him like a waterfall spring. He ran down the * muscles of the clumps. When he raised his arms, his shoulders stretched very much. Open, the chest is smooth and firm, like a hot sun, with amazing heat and strength.

The wooden hammer was smashed in the stone sarcophagus, and it was smashed by the soft rice cake, and then brought up, even with the sticky white .....

He took a moment to force the endless strength, and the strength was so big. Chu Evening even felt that if he really said that he was unfortunate, if he accidentally touched himself, he would be under his body and become a bone. Crushed slag. The ink burned and focused, slightly breathing, the chest and the heart undulating together, his black eyebrows were sweaty, the throat was rolling slightly, and the muscles of his upper arm were relaxed. Chu nighting looked at his movements, suddenly Reconciled to recall the dream that I have repeatedly done.

In the dream, he was on the ink bed, like the rice cake in the stone scorpion was invaded, shackled, bullied and boned... He stunned, until the ink burned and shouted at him.

"Master."

Or maybe shouted a few times.

"Master, Master?"

He just rushed back, but his heartbeat was frantic, his eyes were shimmering, his throat was twitching, his eyes were a little out of focus: "Well?"

The cool eyes of the ink look down on him, because the body heat, so it is particularly hot, he said: "Master, come, turn over."

"....."

Chu Xiaoning only felt that in this line of sight, in this sentence, the dream and the reality overlap infinitely. He suddenly felt that his head was a little dizzy. He seemed to flash the scarlet light and shadow. He saw two people embroidering. Jin Feng Tenglong's red bed tumbling, a strong man pressed against the other, wanting the sea to tumbling, the red waves bursting, the man below tightened the tip of the toe, the calf bursting.

"Master, come, turn over..."

He seemed to hear the man's hot gasping, as if he were in his own ear.

"Let me look at your face and do it for you."

Chu nightning was shocked by the inexplicable glimpses of the shadows. He closed his eyes sharply and shook his head - what happened? Illusion? Still too meticulous memories of that spring dream?

In the heart, the blood is pouring, and the cold sweat is falling.

The ink burned his head and found that he was not right. He put the wooden hammer down and went to him: "Master, what happened to you? Is there any uncomfortable?"

"No." His voice made Chu late Ning's heart numb as if the insect bite the ant, Chu night Ning violently pushed him away, raised a pair of angry and phoenix eyes, the eyes were slightly thin red, he gasped, I hate my own heart, "The sun is too poisonous, and it’s just a dazzling look. You don’t stand so close to me, it’s sweat."

The ink burned down, and sure enough, the heart was upset. He knew that Chu’s love was clean and he immediately stood next to him. He was only concerned with the eyes, still chasing the man, and he was reluctant to move away.

After this, Chu Ning has been silent, until the rice cake is steamed, and when everyone is sitting around, he is no longer there.

"Oh, you asked Chu Xianjun, he said that he had some headaches and went back to the house to rest." The village chief said, "I saw that his cheeks were a little red when he left, it would not be a fever."

When I burned it, I was very anxious. I didn’t help to store the rice cake. I hurriedly ran to the small courtyard where the two lived.

When I pushed the threshold, I couldn’t see anyone on the bed, I was more worried, and I heard the sound of water coming from the kitchen. The ink burned and smashed the curtain and took it.

Then he saw that Chu’s clothes were off, and he was holding the water in the bucket and standing barefoot on the red brick floor.

At the end of October, the frost has passed.

Chu night Ning... Fucking in the cold water shower? !

The smoldering was stunned, and his face was white and red for a while, glaring at the naked master, only to feel the blood flowing in the ear, like the tide of the Qianjiang River, other voices could no longer be heard.

What did he see...

This is the first time after he was born again, it was really clear, clear and complete, and he saw the body of Chu Xinning. There is no fog, no cover, nothing, only this familiar body, this body has smashed the city defense he built, his tight memory gate, he feels that his blood is burning, like magma spray, To break free of the blood and cortex.

Everything is exactly the same as he is familiar with, and nothing has changed.

He suddenly found himself out of breath.

He saw Chu’s shoulders, the curvature and the strength of the road were just right, like pulling the seven-pointed full bow, ready to go. He saw Chu's shoulder bones swaying under the thin, thin skin.

Then he followed the water, yeah, he followed the water, the water rushed his gaze, and brought his gaze to the bottom, so he saw the late night's thin and slender waist, with two shallow waists behind it. The nest, with wine in it, is to kill those who long for him.

Further down, he saw the sturdy buttocks, like the full-bodied fruit in the autumn. He knew that he would get a feeling of ecstasy when he touched it. When it was combined, it was cool and shuddering, and the soul seemed to split. Since then, I have been squatting with people under my body.

"Mo Xianjun!" Suddenly someone called him, "Mo Xianjun, are you there?"

The ink burned and looked back. It didn't stop the curtain from being opened. Linger came in and said, "How did you rush in a hurry? My mother asked me to call you to eat sugar rice cake, you ——"

She saw that Chu Ning was taking a shower and suddenly lost her voice.

Chu nightning: "..."

Linger: "..."

"Ah!!!" The girl screamed and slammed her eyes, and Chu Ning was also very poor-faced. She was so desperate to get clothes, but where did he want to get himself to run back and chill, there would be one or two The uninvited guest squatted into his house, and it was a ghost!

He has always been casual, and when he took off his clothes, he left it in the door. Did he go naked through the whole house at this time, and went down to the clothes at the bottom of the girl's eyes?

The smashing head was overwhelmed, and the ink burned straight toward him. He raised his hand against the wall and blocked his whole person in his arms.

The ink burned and turned to Linger Road: "Go out."

"Ah! Yes! Yes!" The girl was also scared, and after a while, she stumbled out of the door and ran away in shock.

Chu nightning: "..."

The ink burned his face and it was gloomy. When I confirmed that she was really far away, I was relieved and turned back.

Just facing the night, I was a cold face.

He discovered that this action was very similar to the dog that protected the food. He screamed and scared the intruder, then slammed back and went to the hard-won food.

His hand still supported the wall. In order to cover the Chu nightning, he posted him very close. It was easy to smell the smell of Chu Ningning, and he could not help but froze...

The mind is very hot and very dizzy.

Smell is the easiest to recall people's memories and desires, just like smelling meat will feel hungry, smelling plum will think of winter snow, and so on.

The same is true for love and desire.

The ink burns only feels that it is so violent, and the walls of the will that have been built up seem to be overthrown. The body odor of Chu’s body was a little sparkle, falling in his dry chest, igniting his animality and burning him into ash.

On weekdays, I was close, even if the night dress was neat, he couldn’t help but feel the heart, not to mention the person at the moment, not to wear anything, nothing to wear...

He hated not being able to grasp the cold, cold, and smudged wrists of Chu, and twisted people back to the wall, and then directly pulled off his clothes, licked this person, picked up this person, let His back is close to his chest, so he enters in such a violent and fierce manner, just like the past life, killing and killing, all in the sweat and wheezing, turned into fragrance.

Really can't... I want him.

The ink and breathing are suddenly heavy.

He didn't talk, and Chu Ning didn't say anything.

The two men clung to the wall like this, and they stood very close. They almost had to go to a place, but the muscles of the burning arm were tight, the meridians burst, and they shivered and supported.

Can't touch him, can't touch him.

Respect him and love him.

It is no longer possible to commit a foolish job of deceiving the ancestors.

He repeatedly said to himself, mechanically repeating in his heart.

The weather was cold, but his forehead had gradually oozing fine sweat.

Can't... can't... ink burns, you can't... don't think about it...

His throat rolled, trembling, closing his eyes, and keeping his burning eyes under his eyelids, but his face was already lost...

If it is the late night of the night, how can you not see the smell of ink burning?

But at this moment, his condition is not much better than the ink, or even worse.

He looks cold, but God knows how much perseverance he has spent to maintain his position, so that he can calm down.

The burning breath is so hot and heavy, with a strong breath unique to men, almost burns him. There are also the arms against the wall, so strong and strong, strong and powerful, he has not dealt with the ink after he was born again, but he knows that if it is a single fight, do not spell, then he is in front of this arm Only a part of the broken bones.

He didn't want to see the burning eyes, and the line of sight fell down, and he fell on the ink-burning chest.

Although they didn't stick in one place, but the ink burned away from him, there was almost a line apart. He could clearly feel the male tension that was radiated from the hot chest, wide and blazing.

It is like the ability to melt the coldest ice in the world and turn it into a spring tide that is not a grip.

"Master respect..."

The young man suddenly shouted at him, wondering if it was his own illusion, and he felt that the voice of the other party was hoarse, full of moist desire/fire and heat.

Ink burned him countless times, calm, courteous, angry, joking, too numerous to mention.

But this is the first time he has heard a different "master", which is contained between the lips and teeth, mixed with the temperament of love/sex, seemingly dirty and confusing, and Chu nightning feels that the bones are numb.

Impossible, it is impossible for him to call him.

He is wrong, he wants more.

Dirty is your own heart.

He subconsciously stepped back, and the red/naked back hit the cold wall. He couldn't help but chill, his lips trembled, and he opened slightly, but he seemed a little confused.

The smoldering color is darker.

He looked at the wet, pale lips. Although he did not move, but he had already thought about it in his mind, thinking that he would bow down and kiss the lips of the late night, and the fiery tongue rudely invaded the forbidden land that had never been occupied. He imagined his own The hand grabbed the waist of Chu Yuning, vigorously groaning, and violent red marks on the skin.

How to suppress it, the blood of the burning blood is still the blood of the wolf.

The * he released was always hot and violent. He even shredded the person who went to bed with him. He had to clean the other side from the inside out, and licked the last drop of blood, one inch of meat.

He can't change his vegetarian diet.

Closed his eyes and pressed his hot lava on his chest. He knew it was not good. He knew that the man’s desire would be similar to that of the beast. He had to drive away the rabbit that he did not know before the tide could be stopped.

He closed his hand and almost hoarsely said: "Master, I am going to give you... take clothes."

The heavy breath licked the eyelashes of Chu's late night.

The ink burned and turned, striding to the door and picking up the robes where Chu Ning was thrown there.

Chu nightning still relies on the wall, but feels that after a hundred miles of running, it is breathless. He slightly picked up the phoenix eye, saw the ink burning back to himself, flipping over the clothes he had taken off, and suddenly thought of the state of his own place, stunned for a few seconds, and suddenly woke up!

When the ink burned into the door, he was facing his back in the shower, and when he turned around, the ink burned and attached, and did not look down, so he did not notice his desire.

But if the ink burns the clothes at this time, and then look back, then the elders of Yuheng I, the name of the high-definition, the image of the Qing Dynasty’s long-lost abstinence, I am afraid that it will collapse in an instant and fly away.

Chu nightning was anxious in an instant.

Seeing that the smoldering has separated the underwear, holding it in his hand, he will look back when he sees him...

There are only two choices left in front of Chu.

First, the dress suddenly hurts the leg and kneels.

Second, poke him.

He has not made a decision in these two bad options, and the ink has turned around and said: "Master, you..."

What are you?

He did not finish.

The rest of the time, when he saw the foreground image of the eye, he broke all the way between the lips and teeth, and was deeply trapped in the mire, and could no longer be pulled out.

The author has something to say: Today, the bib has "J-sudden durian can't extricate himself". The wife of the wife is 0.5x, no matter how unhappy, and another knife gives the same unhappy teacher, the nest feels The master's jealousy and blindfold treatment are very sensational~ Crabs are cute! What?

Happy New Year~ Give everyone a happy New Year~

Chu Xiaoning: Happy New Year, have difficulties, find me.

Ink burning 1.0: I wish you all a happy new year, hey, the year of the dog is better than me.

Ink Burning 2.0: Happy New Year, I have difficulty finding me for help, haha.

Ink Burning 0.5: This seat gives you a handwritten [Tiger Year □]

Liu Gonggong: ... Your Majesty, you wrote another typo...

Xue Meng: I wish the New Year is as handsome as I am.

Teacher: I wish every girl here is better than me.

Mei Hanxue: I wish Zhu Jun, peach blossoms are more than me.

Song Qiutong: I wish everyone a better skin than me~

Linger: The chest is bigger than me~

Mrs. Wang: I wish you all a person who is as painful as Xue Lang.

Xue Zhengyi: I wish everyone has money! Make a fortune! Hahahaha!

Boss: I wish you all the best every year, and take care of them next year. Don’t spray me too much, thank you.

Meat Pack: Give everyone a lovely New Year! Thank you guys! muah!

Chapter 142

It was originally in the millennium of the burning of the ink, Chu night Ning brain electric light flint, almost at the end of the must-have, the arms overlapped on the wall, leaving the other side a solid and powerful back.

This kind of smoldering can't see his front, and Chu Ning feels that he is really alert.

This fool, who does not know that he is exposed to the underburning eyelids, is a low-lying * waist, a full and firm hip tip, a pair of slender and powerful legs... He is like a rabbit that has peeled himself. The crispy yellow crispy grilled on the fire simply said, "Please eat, thank you."

The smoldering felt that the throat was dry, and the fundus seemed to have bloodshot eyes. He was forbearing for a long while, and said: "Master is this... what to do?"

doing what?

... um... this pose is a bit weird, how can you calmly confuse the past...

Chu night, the side of the face, half of the face, look cold, want to cover.

The smoldering has put down his clothes and walked towards him, perhaps because he is against the light, he always feels the expression on his face is chilling, like a wolf that has been hungry for a long time in the jungle, seeing a piece of tender meat. The meat is hung on the trap, the wolf hesitates, the hunger in the abdomen and the reason in the brain are fiercely engaged, the flames spread from the body into the eyes, the black eyes of the burning are very bright, exudes secluded Light.

Chu night Ning finally felt that something was wrong, the two words put on the bowstring, the tone was fierce, piercing the quietness of this.

"Back."

"... eh?" The smoldering sound of the ink burned in the throat, with some nasal sounds, it looked very sexy, "What?"

This is really an excuse to think of when Chu’s rushing to attack the heart, but since the sound is already in the ear, he is so hard to pull out that he has to calm down and calm down: "Since it is here, let’s go back."

Ink burning: "..."

"These days I’ve been busy, I’m sweaty, I feel uncomfortable.” Chu Xi’an tried his best to be very casual, very light and windy. “It’s always good to wash.”

He didn't know if he had cheated on the ink, and whether the lie was still natural.

But in short, the last ink burned his words, took a towel and poured it with warm water, and picked it up for the night.

Yuheng has always been wise in the night, which is really the most stupid thing he has ever done.

What is the most tormented in this world?

The person who loves is standing behind him, across a rough towel, a pair of generous hand rubbing all over his body, every place that has been touched is like sailing through the spring water, leaving a hot red mark. Although the strength of the smoldering power has converged, it is still very embarrassing. Moreover, his flesh and blood have never been so tempered by people. He only feels that the inch muscles are shuddering. He has to tighten his body to be able to barely maintain stability and stability. The person behind him saw his strangeness.

His forehead against the wall, in the place where the ink is not burning, the lips are tightly bitten, the phoenix tail is flushed with red, the desire is so hot and hot, even if the branches are thick, they are slightly moist...

He is still a person without emotions, and how, in the face of those who love deeply, endure such excitement and pretend to be high.

It’s too uncomfortable...

But if you ask about ink burning, what is the most torturous thing in the world?

I am afraid that the answer will be very different. He will probably say that the person is standing naked in front of you, his hand against the wall, his shoulders open, and the person is suspicious of himself, only handing over everything to you. With a towel that was in the way, and with a dirty mind, the hot hand passed over his body.

Of course, he knows that he is giving his master a back, but with a little effort, the person's skin is red, and he is bullied and abused.

His hand touched his shoulder blade, lingering on his waist, and involuntarily, his strength gradually became awkward. He felt the person under his body tremble slightly, but I don't know if it was his own illusion. He stared at the white fullness of the curve, restrained to see his eyes full of blood, so that he would not lose the bath towel, grab it directly, and pull it out. The red mark of the five souls.

He has already tasted the ecstasy of the people in front of him, and how, in front of this person, he swallowed his voice and became a gentleman.

It’s too uncomfortable...

The two men each suffered a long time, and then they would have to get out of the fire.

Chu nightning finally couldn’t help but screamed and said: "Well, let's go out, the rest of me will come, I will come by myself."

The smoldering was almost a sudden sigh of relief, and the forehead was full of sweat.

He sighed: "Yes... Master..."

The curtains slammed and the ink burned out.

Chu nightning has not returned to God for a long time, he is still on the wall, his forehead against the wall, his ear is blood red, and the traces behind him are not seen, do not know whether the ink burned or not.

"..."

He smashed the phoenix, seemingly because of humiliation, he bit his lower lip, hesitated for a long time, still reached out and took hold of his desire to be painful.

Originally he ran back and showered to suppress this filthy emotion.

The singer is not as good as the day, and by chance, the ink burns him into the deep sea of the sea. Chu Jingning, who has been relying on the heart and mind to resist humanity, finally can't help but relieve the * desire that is almost overflowing in the form of the most ordinary and most embarrassing mortal.

His lips are slightly open, the phoenix is awkward, his face is pitiful, and he is somewhat wronged...

He was against the cold wall, his forehead was hot, his beautiful shoulders were low, his throat rolled, and he held a deep breath and whim.

Then sin, but it is so beautiful.

Like the white phoenix butterfly that broke into the cobweb, in the tidal wave, the powerlessness trembled with its wing feathers, but never again, can no longer take off.

He is always dirty.

Dirty to the bones, dirty and so miserable, so pitiful, seductive, and addictive.

In the end, Chu Xiaoning was almost resentful. He was on the wall with a fist. He was so embarrassed, so annoyed, so unwilling, so that the force used was great, the phalanx was worn out, and blood was leaked out.

"Still."

I don't know if I am licking myself or burning.

Chu’s eyes are moist, affectionate, hateful and hateful, and stunned.

In a blink of an eye, they have been in Yuliang Village for more than half a month, and the busy farming will end.

From the day of the bathing, Chu nightning burned the ink like a snake and beast, but he did not notice the smell of ink burning, but he could not stand his own change.

A person, light and elegant for a long time, will be particularly easy to carry, or Chu night Ning before moving to dislike others to do double repairs to do what? It’s really not awkward. The elders of Yu Heng really feel that they can’t stand it. They feel tired and disgusted.

He does not look at the picture of the * palace, it is really unwilling to see, not pretend. For Chu Yuning, the things like "like" and "kiss" are acceptable, but if you get closer, such as soothing, such as intrusion, he will be blue and can't accept it.

This is like a person who has always been vegetarian. You give him a bowl of sneak peek at lard. He probably feels fragrant, but if you give him a grilled appearance with a browned-yellow skin, but with * meat inside, he is afraid Disgusting death.

After fainting and venting that day, Chu Xiaoning was awake. He gasped and looked at the stickyness of his hand. He only thought that his pocket was poured with cold water.

The face is green.

What are you doing? It was not able to be self-sustained by a young man in his early twenties, but he relied on self-soothing to calm the tide of his heart.

Chu nightning straight behind the goosebumps, so after he met the ink burning, they all shunned three feet, lest one accidentally released the savage beast in his heart, what made what he regretted.

He retired and the ink burned back.

The ink burned was also really scared. He found that his own desire for Chu’s late night seemed to be much higher than the prediction. The dam he built before was almost unable to stop the turbulent waves. The warmth in his bones was always at a time. The overflow came.

He knows that human nature and animal nature are just a difference. He is not willing to hurt Chu Yuning again because of this difference in his thoughts. Therefore, he also subconsciously evades Chu Yuning.

The distance between the two people was far away. On the contrary, there were more disciples of the disciples and the illusion of Master's charity.

The days are safe and sound.

On this day, the hunters in the village slaughtered a fat scorpion on the mountain. The villagers proposed to have a campfire at the small drying yard at the entrance of the village at night.

So each family took out some food, or cakes, or dried meat. The village head also opened two jars of sorghum, sitting around in a hot group, reflecting the bonfire and smelling the smell of roasted dumplings. Hey, eat and drink, not so happy. Chu late Ning and Mo-burn did not sit together, the two separated a little far, burning in the middle of the fire, they looked at each other across the fire, and did not want to let each other discover.

You glanced at me and thought it was quiet, but the two eyes were always in the middle of the road, so the work was just unintentional sweeping, faintly hang down, and after a while, no one was prepared, secretly climbing on the other's cheek.

The orange fire is surging, and the firewood is buzzing.

There are laughter and laughter around, and they are all intertwined, but no one can hear them, no one can see them. It’s a month in the sky, just two hearts.

The wine opened by the village chief soon saw the bottom, but the people felt that they were not happy enough.

When I remembered that there was still a good pear on the altar in my house, I greeted me and got up and went back to get the wine.

Halfway through, I heard movement behind me.

He turned back: "Who?"

The footsteps of the cockroaches immediately rang, and then a pair of green and green shoes embroidered with yellow flowers slowly smashed out from the corner.

The ink burned a bit: "Linger girl? It's you."

There is a lot of drinking of Lingering wine. The snowy jade has a blush on the cheeks, and the lips are rich and bright. She stands in the moonlight, and her heart is full of emotions. The full * are accompanied by some rapid breathing. She said: "Mo Xianjun, you wait, I have something to tell you."

The author has something to say: Start! The assistant lady is sent to the head! Sacrifice her one, happy dog and cat series! Tomorrow, the dog must understand his own heart! (In fact, I understand it soon.) Hahaha~~ Happy New Year! Happy New Year!

Today and tomorrow are in the New Year's dinner, so there is no way to reply, I am very sorry about QAQ, the day after tomorrow should be able to reply normally~ What?

Today's bib has a picture of Mrs. Tochigi's dog and Shizun's New Year, and it looks good! The dog's look is very heart-wrenching, but because they are together, so I am sweet and bubble, and the teacher's dress is thin and looks very suitable for being held in my arms. □ Bullying, ah, I am so excited, I shed nosebleeds. It’s so good to be cool and sullen, licking your feet, crabs and crabs! What?

The sound is already in the ear, powerful and difficult to pull out - from Li Bihua's "Farewell My Concubine", is not a common phrase, it is not a misunderstanding, mark the source.

The small theater "The end of this chapter is a random adaptation"

1. If Linger is the audience

Linger: "Mo Xianjun, you wait, I have something to tell you."

Ink burning: "Say."

Linger: "Let me ask, when do you drive?"

Ink burning: "..."

2. If Linger is a black guide

Linger: "Mo Xianjun, you wait, I have something to tell you."

Ink burning: "Say."

Linger: "Baked dumplings farmhouse wine a table of a total of 889, Xianjun is a card or pay now?"

Ink burning: "...not to say that the group meal is free?"

Linger: "Yes, but this is a bonfire party, at your own expense."

Ink burning: "..."

3. If Linger is a small customer service for the cat club

Linger: "Mo Xianjun, you wait, I have something to tell you."

Ink burning: "Say."

Linger: (dark 搓搓) * leopard cat, intellectual short, hot and short, alternative cat-free, as long as the Zhang Yue card, all day no bottom line Ren Jun * cat cat, Xian Jun consider?

Ink burning: ...have a white cat? You touch him, he fanned you ten.

Chapter 143

Even if the ink burns, it will be dull, and when she sees her hot eyes, there will be something unclear. Immediately, "Linger girl, you drink a lot, what will you say tomorrow?"

"I want to talk today!"

This girl is also awkward to pick up, her hair is scattered, her eyes are shining.

"..." The ink burns and is afraid of entanglement. I want to take it lightly, but the sleeve angle is pulled by her. The ink is good and funny, and says, "Let me let go."

"Do not let go." The so-called wine is strong and courageous, not to mention the guts of Linger is not small, this is not the day after the two-day, and the mind of the immortal priest is not a day, and he said aloud, "I like you, you like Dislike me?"

Ink burning: "....."

Seeing that the man did not respond, Linger was anxious.

When she came to Yuliang Village from the moment of burning, she felt that this man had a mighty heroic spirit. Later, he learned that he was the "Mc Master" who had been well-known in these years, and his heart became more and more deeply entangled.

It’s almost time for the farmer to die, and the ink will soon leave here. She is just a little girl in the lower circle. The only one who has the hand, only a pretty face and good posture, although she does not know how to burn herself. How to look at it, but if you don't express yourself at the moment, it will be very difficult to have another chance in the future. Therefore, with some alcoholic efforts tonight, she can courageously scream, and follow the ink burning, blocking his confession.

Such a torrent of courage, to be honest, some of the ink burned.

Linger has a pretty face and is very popular.

She thought that if she burned herself and promised herself, she would be fine. If she got such a handsome brother, she wouldn’t say it. If she climbed him, it would be like climbing a life and death. After that, she would not have to nest in this small broken village. Being salted and suffocating, you can live a comfortable life, just...

"Sorry, Linger girl, you still let go."

But one of his words, the air castle in her mind, was easily broken.

The redness on the face of Linger had not disappeared, and the paleness was up. It was very ugly at one time. After a moment, she hurriedly said, "I, where is it that I don't look good?"

"You look good everywhere." The ink burned very politely and gently broke her hand. "But I don't like it."

If he just left a few thin faces, then the phrase "I don't like it" can be said to be ruining and tearing her last face.

Linger’s eyelids filled with tears, and the sadness was second. Although she admired the ink, she did not have any deep roots. Instead, she wanted to be more focused, so she is more of a dream. Broken loss.

"Then you..." She replied with tears and asked, "What do you like?"

"I--"

In this sentence, she asked about the burning of ink.

What does he like?

Habitual, he felt that he liked the teacher's appearance, but when he reached the lips, he suddenly felt that it was not the case. He was too helpless at the moment and could not answer.

"You said, what do you like?" Linger stepped hard, a pair of eyes staring at the burning face, not letting him any change of look.

She is also a poor man. She has a sister on her head and married a regular cloth dealer who went to the repairing industry. She moved to Leizhou in the early years and lived a good life.

She went to visit her sister with her grandmother and carried a bunch of peppercorns in the countryside. But her brother-in-law thought that the fish was dry and smelling good, and they felt that their mother and daughter were chilling, and living in their own home was extremely shameful. Just rushed them back. This incident was deeply engraved in Linger’s heart. From that day on, she was not willing to endure her own poor days, vowed to live better than her sister, and later returned to the grievances of the year.

Therefore, she has been looking for an hero in the past few years, and she wants to commit herself to change her destiny.

She really didn't want to let the ink rain.

So she was almost anxious and crazy. Under the wine, she leaned on him. She had a soft body. In the summer, she walked across the field and the men would steal her eyes. She is In the injection, I want to use my soft body to tear open the armor of the ink master.

"Where is it wrong? I don't even want to think about it. I don't want to consider it. Just reject me like this?"

Her hot and soft flesh sticks up, but the ink burns and feels uncomfortable. She even pulls her open and her face is black.

"Linger girl, how long I have known you? How can I like you, how can I consider you?"

"You don't try to know how!"

When the ink burned, she came over again and immediately said, "Don't come close!"

"You don't like it so much?" Linger rounded his eyes and couldn't set the channel. "You are a little bit... a little bit..."

"I don't like it a little bit." Mo-burning felt that he was not clear enough. This kind of thing was completely broken, so although he was cruel, he added that "it is not a bit of a heart."

Linger is dumb.

I don't like it, she can understand.

But not heart...

There are a few men who have never been married. They can face a woman with a good face and a good body. With such a woman who is actively giving her arms, she is righteous and swearing, saying "I don't want to move"? Can you face Wenxiang nephrite, no desire?

She stayed for a while and said, "You... how can you... how can you..."

She is a bit hard to say.

She actually wants to say, how can you have no desire? This is not normal.

Mo-burn also felt her meaning from her sorrow, but he really did not want to explain more with her. He and her were just like each other, and they wanted to have a dew, but Lang did not have this idea.

What she loves, she likes it.

The low-burning ink said to her: "Sorry." She sneaked into the night.

The night wind blew his cheek, and he couldn't help but squint.

The conversation with Linger made him suddenly realize that he has always thought about love for a long time.

Linger asked him "What do you like?"

He seems to have never asked himself this question.

People who get very little warmth always have no right to choose. As long as they are exceptionally good to him, he will offer a lot of blood.

“What kind of like?”

This is a sentence he didn't dare to think about.

In fact, everyone in this world originally had their own special tastes and good tastes. When I was a child, I often heard other children pulling my parents’ clothes on the side of the road and said, “I like to eat this, this has chopped green onion.” Or “Auntie, this red lantern looks better than yellow, I like it. Red."

But he can't say that it's useless to say it. He can only eat the cheapest white noodle cake, but he has to open it, halfway with his mother.

Later, when he was in the restaurant, he would also steal the golden masters who came to listen to the drama. They watched them shake their fans and said slowly: "I like to go back to the green child, this singer, still want her. Well, delicate, sweet and sweet." This kind of sentence.

In fact, in the eyes of the ink, Tsui’s far away is not as good as Bai Rong’s, but who cares about his ideas?

No one will ever ask him "what do you like?", aesthetics, choices, these words are only related to the rich people, for the ink burning, what others give him is what, some should be grateful If there is a piece of clothing that can cover the body, it should be zero--"like"?

He is afraid that he is dreaming of idiots. Why can he like it, how dare he like it, and what qualifications do he like? He has only one commandment to struggle to survive.

After a long time, what kind of thing to get, what kind of habits to hold on to the bone marrow, and then more gold and silver jewelry entangled, Long Haorui brain smoked him to sneeze, but also failed to put this layer of his bones sour Covered.

Throughout the life of ink burning, when he was young, he fell into poverty. His emotions and sorrows are like the mud of the soles. It is worthless. So, "What do you like?" No one would ask him.

Later, he flew up, Jane was in the heart of the emperor, accompanied by the king with the tiger, his mind can only speculate, so "What do you like?", no one dared to ask him.

Just in the moment, Linger suddenly asked him this sentence, a few simple words, actually asked him.

He once thought that if he loved one person, he would have to be respectful. He would hold it in his hand and would not dare to have any mourning.

Just like he is like a teacher.

He thinks this is love, as if there is nothing wrong with it.

But at this moment, he vaguely understood, and things didn't seem to be what he thought.

Does he really like gentleness, more than like it?

He really likes harmony, is it stronger than like?

He really likes the eyes of the peach blossoms, more than the phoenix eyes, two-edge frost?

He... Does he really like Shi Mingjing? Instead of...not...

He didn't dare to think about the name, but his heartbeat couldn't help him, and the blood had become hot and hot.

The ink burned was shocked by his own love.

Love, love, love and desire are inseparable, can not be separated, are attracted by the appearance of the other party, be tempted by the voice of the other party, the smell of the other party, or even the other person’s eyes, want to encroach, want Own, I want to leave my own breath on the flesh that has nothing to do with myself, and I want to insert my own enthusiasm in the other side.

He always thinks that love is sacred, and that the one who loves is not to be embarrassed.

But how can it really be embarrassing?

When a loving, longing, and thoughtful body appears in front of your own eyes, how can you endure it without being hot and dry, not worried about the horse?

All love in the world, only love, and no clean.

It is destined to be contaminated with hot sweat, with a physical color, it is destined to be entangled, with heather's suffocation, it is related to 呻 / 吟, related to passion, it is destined to breed in the muddy wet bed The flower that wants to drip comes.

The ink burned in the night, suddenly stopped, his eyes bright and terrible, and his expression was blank.

There seems to be something broken in the skull, and he has been stalked by his stagnation, and the madness he suppressed by his stupidity has drowned him and squandered him.

He is standing in the same place.

Desire, desire.

Love.

Chu nightning...

He finally got the name out.

The sand is washed out and the treasures are floating.

It’s always Chu Ning... This kind of intimate emotion, such a fiery * desire, has always belonged to Chu Yuning!

He felt that his eyes were black and his obsessions had been shattered in his two generations. The broken brick wall was washed away by the violent tide, and he was almost breathless in his heart.

He is at a loss.

Is it true that it will be like this...

The person he likes, his so-called love, has been wrong all the time?

When the ink burned and held the pear flower back to the campfire, Linger was gone.

Of course, everyone will not notice the departure of a young girl. Naturally, no one knows how to smear and talk to her. They still make wine and cheers.

After three rounds of wine, the townsmen played a game. They used the rice stalks to make a straw ring. When someone went up to drum, when the drums went out, the grass ring was sent to whom, who would be asked a word. Can't answer.

This is the fun of the peasants who worked hard in the lower cultivators. The gameplay is simple and easy to use. Even those who are insulated from play like Chu Yunning are not difficult to integrate.

"Okay, it’s getting old! Come, come and grab it!"

Laobai bitterly squinted from the bowl of the sea, grabbed a stack of paper, and unfolded it to read it. He read: "Is it a good-looking woman, or a good-looking fat?"

A circle of people immediately sneered.

An old-fashioned old face is red, and the paper is shouting: "Which question is written by this melon?" You are a fairy board!"

"Don't." A villager smiled and took his clothes. "Don't worry about the Japanese people's board. You should answer the question first."

The old white house was also sitting underneath, staring at him with a pair of bullfrogs. The old white hair was erected, and he was stunned for a long time. "I feel that I am similar."

Someone immediately laughed and screamed: "You said a ball, lie didn't mean it! You said to me a few days ago, I think the woman with big * is good-looking, so good to raise a donkey, you don't tell the truth! Drink and drink! Fine wine!"

There was no way for Laobai. He bitterly licked his teeth and drank the wine. After he went down, he was not counted by his wife.

The late night of Chu was hidden in the crowd, and it was awkward and novel, but the problem was too rough. If he asked him, he would have no answer.

At this time, the village chief took a black cloth and said with a smile: "Change the individual to drum, change the old Zhang, let him play, who will change him?"

Chu nightning immediately said: "I am coming."

He walked over to the waist of the animal skin tied to the rough leather, took the drumsticks and sat on the floor.

The village chief carefully tied the blindfolded black belt for him, and debugged it around and asked: "Is it tight?"

"Not tight."

“Can it leak light?”

"No leaks."

The village chief smiled and said: "Then ask the singer to beat the drums. When you want to stop, you will stop."

Chu night Ningdao: "Good." He took up the wooden hammer, knocked on the leather surface, and then flexibly hit the dense drums, and cut and miscellaneous.

He was blindfolded, and he did not notice the gaze of the smoldering fire through the bonfire. It was so complicated and chaotic.

The ink burned at him, and the sparks were flying. Like the orange fireflies scattered into the night, he looked at the white man in the darkness, his eyes one inch and one inch, and the sharp knife crossed the forehead of the night, the tip of his nose, crossed His lips, chin.

Chu nighting, who was wrapped in black cloth, had an inexplicable temptation for him, but this time the ink burned without any temptation to slip away casually, he chewed and squatted carefully.

He tasted the taste of love inside.

He felt the tremor of his heart again, and he confirmed again... there is nothing wrong with it.

He has a love for Chu Yuning. That kind of love has nothing to do with the feelings of the master and the apprentice, and the kindness is even more difficult for the gossip.

He just loves him purely, longs for him, wants him.

he……

Finally, I realized that he loved Chu Ningning.

is love.

He was so confused, so paranoid, he was so stupid, so unclear.

It was only until today that he finally got to the top.

He is in love with Chu Yuning.

This section wants to be transparent. The layer of seal that has been accumulated in my mind has finally cracked. Many things that he once couldn’t understand, many of the answers he couldn’t get, are in this long-lasting love. It’s coming.

But he hasn't had time to taste it yet, and he has no time to think.

Just heard the sound of "咚", the drum sound stopped, and the residual sound spread like a dragonfly.

That grass ring was not too late, just at this time, it fell on his knees, he picked it up, looked up, saw that Chu night Ning was relieved, one hand picked off the black tied With the band, the phoenix phoenix that opened the two-month rushing, looked at it purely.

He is also curious and wants to know who the flowers are when he stops the drums.

So he was on the line of sight.

Chu nightning: "..."

Ink burning: "..."

Nothing is more embarrassing than when he was peeking at you. The two eyes are intertwined and each other is a little dodging.

However, Chu Xiaoning soon did not hide, because he suddenly realized that the ink burned the handsome and straight face, and now it was shrouded in obsessive complex feelings, crossed the bonfire of Venus, crossed the bustling crowd, so straight The ground, hot and exposed, without cover, can not hide.

Chu nightning slightly increased the Fengmu.

"Mo Xianjun is good luck." The village chief smiled and went to pull the ink up.

The ink burned hesitant for a while, and according to the rules, the braided grass ring was worn in the hair. His black box was very bright, but the people were somewhat overwhelmed. He wore the crown and carefully watched Chu Yuning. A glance. The dark-faced handsome face turned out to be red in this fire.

Chu Xiaoning was scared by his unusual behavior, so his eyes widened and he glared at him.

In the unconcealed sight of Chu Yuning, the ink burned down the eyelashes, licking the lips and not snoring, and it was a bit smooth and awkward.

It seems to be the kind of dull young man. When I was young, I was so clumsy, stupid and pitiful, and somewhat cute.

Chu nightning: "..."

If he is still scared, it can be said that it is embarrassing now.

... he is afraid to be jealous!

Otherwise, how can you feel that these five big three rough bears suddenly become so emotional, like eating the wrong medicine?

The author has something to say: Today, the bib has a "Frost, a sword, a meat bag" wife's wedding dress dog x master, from the wife made a dog to the teacher to sew a wedding dress dream (dog really Good sage, hahahaha~) The two on the picture look like a warm and happy ~~ 嘿嘿嘿~ New Year sees such a cute picture, really a satisfying ~ Crabs and Mrs. ~~ What?

Small theater "How did you react?"

Linger: Mo Xianjun, I haven't responded to you, I don't have any hidden diseases. (Don't take a look at it), do you want to ask an old Chinese doctor to show you the secret recipe of the ancestors?

Ink burning: ... girl, broken sleeves, find out.

Linger: Scared, your sleeve is broken? Then I will help you sew?

Chapter 144

The ink burned a piece of paper from the sea bowl and spread out.

When he saw the contents of the paper, he was relieved and then nervous.

“Is it?” asked the village chief.

When the ink burned, he showed the paper to him. The village chief groaned and said, "Haha, fortunately, with the emperor, there is no teacher or sister of the same class, or I am afraid to offend people."

Chu night Ning was originally very curious about what was caught in the ink. When the village chief said so, he was more curious. He stared at the note and seemed to be staring at the hole.

The ink burned and laughed. "But the village chief, you should be fouled by what you wrote on this piece of paper. Others are talking about one problem, but he is asking me three questions."

"Who is called Xianjun, I touched this one." The village head said, "If Xianjun is not satisfied, then he will lose it again."

Recapture and grasp what "the woman with a long leg looks good or the woman with a thin waist is beautiful". The ink burns and laughs: "If you forget it, then it is still this."

He said, he handed the paper back to the village head and said, "What I have drawn is to say three people who like life most."

Chu nightning: "....."

At this time, Linger’s eyes came back red, and she did not look forward. She was afraid that some people would see that she had just cried, and she was sitting at the outermost part of the fire, so she did not see her.

In fact, after the ink burned the problem, no one saw it. He felt that such a problem of excessive privacy, whoever was awkward, could not speak, so he simply stared at the fire.

The bonfire flashed in his black eyes, reflecting his handsome face when it was dark, he looked at the flame, and spent a long time, then:

"Let me talk about my mother first."

"My mother-in-law walked earlier. In fact, I don't remember her face any more. I only remember that when she was there, I could always eat something and sleep well." If she wants to say three people, she will be one of them."

The head of the village is beheading: "The feelings are deep, good, and count one for Xianjun."

"The second one is my brother. He treats me moderately. Although he is not a blood relative, he is better than his own brother."

For this answer, Chu nightning has long been expected, so no matter whether it is on the face or in the heart, there is not much wave. Ink burning like Shi Mingjing, this is a more obvious thing. At the beginning, he had already heard it in Jin Chengchi, and he was not surprised.

Just looking at the man under the night fire, he has a hard outline of a knife and axe, and he looks very handsome, and there are some gimmicks in his bones. A person's spirit is largely able to react in the eyes. The burning eyes are black and bright, extremely god-like, like a lamp that will never go out unless it is exhausted.

Those who have such a pair of eyes are destined to be extremely stubborn.

Chu Xiaoning is obsessed with such stubbornness, but unfortunately, this stubbornness does not belong to him.

The ink burned that Shi Mingjing was so good, and Chu Ning did not listen to it. He felt that the wind was a bit cold at night, so he poured a hot tea on himself and held it in his palm and slowly drank.

The tea warmed his throat all the way, fell into the stomach, warmed his flesh and blood, and even softened his heart.

He silently poured a cup, was about to drink again, and suddenly heard the ink burned the teacher, and then paused and said a sentence:

"There is still another person. The third thing to say is my master."

"Cough and cough!!" Chu nightning seems to be burned, tea smashed out, coughing again, a face rose red, he buried his head to wipe the water stains, but never looked up and looked at the ink.

The person who is so used to feelings, you pull him up from the ground, he will only panic for his own dust, want to hide back in the dark, curl up, hide.

But the smoldering apparently did not intend to give him the opportunity to escape.

This is a very boring person, but if he goes by him, he will always give you a back, a back of the head. He seems to be blazing, seemingly fierce, purple electric cream between the eyebrows, faint is the meaning of the Thunder attack, but the ink burns clearly, this is just a polished person / leather mask.

He has seen the gentle soul of Chu nightning, in the steaming water mist of Meng Potang, so poor, so helpless.

He didn't want Chu Jingning to go on like this again.

Chu nightning can no longer wear such a horrible mask. If the self-esteemed guy is not willing to pick it, then he will reach out for him.

The tea was only splashed a little bit, and it was wiped clean long ago, but Chu Ning was still washing the dry water marks repeatedly.

He used to be self-restraint, so he didn't look up.

Gradually I felt that the surroundings were very quiet, quiet and somewhat strange, and then the children were laughing and laughing, the voice seemed to be very low, but anyone could hear it.

"A Niang, Chu Xianjun is so stupid."

A Niang is busy covering her child's childish mouth: "Hey--"

But Chu Xiaoning still heard it.

stupid……

No, Yuheng in the night is insulated from the word "stupid" in his life. He is arrogant and fierce, and is -

"Master, you can wipe it again, I am afraid that the table will give you a hole."

The black cloth boots went to his case, the distance was very close, and it was almost offensive until it stopped. Chu nightning saw a dark shadow shrouded, the mountain generally suppressed him, pressing him almost breathless, pressing him a little humiliating, but also a little angry and angry.

Suddenly, he was somewhat resentful, and he was so weak as he was.

So he dropped the towel, and suddenly looked up, full of provocations, a pair of arrogant eyes with anger and smoldering ink, the end is the sword.

At almost the same time, the ink burned without respect, and said with a gentle voice:

"Master, you rationalize me."

This sentence is really like a curse. It is the same as the reaction of Chu Yuning. Only Chu Xinning knows that he is not because he burns "you rationalize me" and only looks up. This is just a coincidence.

But what is the use of this?

In addition to him, the ink is burning, and the people around him are all around. They feel that Chu Yuning quickly responded to his apprentice because of this request.

rapid.

Nothing is more humiliating than these two words, and I feel that my face is lost.

Chu nightning looks like ice, but his eyes are burning with sparks.

It can be hit, only the soft, warm eyes of the ink, like the boundless spring water, easily wrapped his anger, his sharp teeth.

Ink burns: "Master, the third answer is you."

Chu nightning nowhere to vent his anger, so he became expressionless: "... um."

His performance is really calm, really indifferent.

Very calm and calm, really worthy of the Chu Zong teacher who is fascinated by the human world, Chu night Ning secretly cheers for himself.

But the ink burned him with a funny smile.

Mo Zongshi thought, this Chu Zong teacher, afraid that it would not be a small fool.

Chu night Ning suddenly did not know that he was already in the apprentice's heart, and he posted a small fool's sign. He was more and more indifferent and proud because of his nervousness.

He said: "So? What do you want to do when you come over?"

The problem was beaten up, and the smile on his face was stiff.

Everything you want to do is burned.

But he can't do anything.

What does he like about Chu Ning? It was too late to discover, and the Sneak could not be chased, not to mention that he had spent two years chasing the footsteps of the teacher, and suddenly told him that he loved the wrong person and asked him to turn back. In fact, he was not in his own heart. Easy to accept.

If he is born again, he can understand his own mind, and maybe everything is still too late.

Up to now, this "discovery" is actually only a matter of increasing suffering.

The past life brought too much torture to the body of Chu Yuening. He used to regard the joy of the bed as the most arduous torture to this proud man.

Therefore, in fact, in the burning heart, Chu Yuening has always been a fairy-like image, not eating human fireworks, and there is no desire for love.

To destroy Chu Yuning, he has thousands of intimate methods.

However, it is better to be late to Chu.

He can't think too much.

Suddenly, I became very stupid. I only knew that I should keep a distance from the Master and hold the Master to the altar. I welcome it below.

This "like", in fact, contains a hot and secret * desire.

However, the ink can't make Chu Xi Ning aware, he can only restrain himself, use the "teachers and apprentices" to carefully disguise this love, and then submit it to the front of the night.

The ink burned and replied: "Just want the Master to know."

"..." Chu night quietly looked at him.

Ink burning said: "Just, can't help but want everyone to know..."

"what do you know?"

The ink burned, the black eyes were very bright, the flames were very scorching, and they could cover up the undercurrent of the undercurrent.

"Know that I am lucky," he said with a smile. "By the best, best, best teacher in the world."

He used three of the best, very poor, and very hard expressions.

There is quite a rough and rustic style.

Chu nightning looked at him in an unpredictable way, only the eyelashes moved.

The ink burned deeply and didn't know where the courage came from. I just thought that if I miss this time, I am afraid that in this life, there will be no more time to express myself so unscrupulously.

Suddenly he suddenly fell down and wanted to sit in front of the case with the night of the night. Unfortunately, his figure was still too tall, so he was still looking down on the master.

Can't care so much, he feels that the heartbeat is so fast, the blood flow is so urgent.

"Master."

"..." Chu night Ning suddenly felt a little bad.

The man's eyes were so anxious that he couldn't help but lean back.

After all, it’s still a good idea to wear a heart.

"I like you."

He had no way to escape, and the Meilu jumping in the forest was stabbed in the legs and feet by the Orion's arrow, so he fell down. Chu night, Ning Yu looked at him, and there was a bang in his head. Nothing could be heard, and he couldn’t see it...

Like - this word is more subtle and fuzzy.

It is not as straightforward as the "love". It can burn other people's hearts when it is exported. It has a lot of ways of understanding, giving many opportunities for obsessed men and women, and can pretend to calmly express their feelings and vent their hearts. Overflowing love.

Ink burned silently: I like you, but I won't disturb you, forcing you, you think that what I said is like a teacher and a child, so that although I have regrets for me, it is better for you. It is.

Chu night Ning silently thought: You said that you like me, because of pity, because of the feeling of giving, the grace of life, this is not the one I want, but in exchange for your good feelings now, I have done All the things I can do, I have no strength, no chips to exchange more affection for you. I can get your approval of my respect as a teacher, and I love it. It is enough. I no longer insist on it.

They didn't say more words to each other. The people around them were only exaggerated.

Only the Linger in the corner, vaguely felt that there was something wrong, she looked at the handsome face of the ink, the face had a depressed desire, and there were some enthusiasm that made her feel weird.

However, she was temperament, and the people who grew up in the small village did not even hear about the goodness of Longyang. So she just felt strange, but no matter where it was, she couldn’t say it.

In this world, there are always some people who don’t like their lungs when they don’t like it. They are unscrupulous and can walk sideways. Tianwang Laozi is not afraid.

But once you fall in love, it is the fire cooking, the heart is hot, they are always eager to find out the inner * desires of the other side, want to sink into the sea with each other, it is hard to divide.

But what if the other party really wants to discover it? They are sincere and fearful, afraid of the other side, afraid of being rejected, this is also afraid of that, but also afraid that it is the king of the king, this time is a chill on the tree called two, the gossip can not beat Things, they will think uneasily, God, the roar of the tree, really terrible, then he does not like me?

The most embarrassing love, often you guess I guess, you hide from me, you can smell the smell of sour smell through two miles.

In the past, the ink was raining, and it was the master of Mo.

Notorious, wise I.

He has been the worst evil ghost, and now he has become the best person, but this body is sour, he finally failed to escape.

What about Chu nightning?

That guy is always a fish in the net, and a little bit of love in the love can make him a headache, which makes him tangled.

You can still die to face, and scream, this is so rot, what can be talked about.

Really dead individual.

The author has something to say: today has a bib

"The coffin" wife's dog x teacher respects the morning after the morning (feeding and feeding, don't talk about it), a teacher who is exuding soft colors and hanging clothes, don't wear a shirt to hold his two dogs, ah, my The blood trough is empty, the brain fills up the dog and pushes the master in the kitchen, and the next simmering soup is how to do it, excited and full of blushing, 哎嘿嘿~ crab crab wife~

The forest is dyed and the farming is over.

The villagers of Yuliang Village prepared a number of bags of large and small, containing some dried meat, rice cakes, spices, and coarse cloth. They rushed to the late night and burned the chest.

Although there is no shortage of food and clothing for death and death, this is a piece of mind for the villagers. If it is not collected, it is not good. Therefore, the two were not polite and helped the village chief to fill the plaque.

Linger also came, holding a bamboo basket in his arms, the basket was covered with a piece of blue and white cloth, the cloth was opened, the steamed glutinous rice cake was inside, and there were ten green shells that had been cooked. egg.

Before she came to the ink-burning horse, her * and white eyes shimmered and wanted to see him, but she was embarrassed to think of her bold confession when she was half-awake and half-awake. After smashing for a long time, I smashed the past and raised the basket over my head. I said to the handsome man who had already started the horse: "Mo Xianjun, these... these are all cooked in the morning, you bring, and eat on Chuxianjun."

I don’t know what her move is, so hesitated, I don’t know if I should refuse it.

Linger understood his concerns and raised his head slyly, his cheeks were red, his eyes were awkward and a little hurt.

Although she is full of strength, she wants to climb a terrific fairy, but she is not the kind of girl who has no dignity and is refused to continue to stalk.

She said: "Xianjun rest assured that Linger has no other meaning, just want to thank this for most of the month, Xianjun cares for Yuliang Village."

The ink burned the bamboo basket. He sat on the horse and looked at her with his eyelashes. He said sincerely, "Thank you girl."

"Xianjun is polite."

When the ink burned, she could afford to put it down, and she felt some feelings in her heart, so she asked her more: "What plans does the girl have in the future?"

"Why did Xianjun ask this question?"

"I don't think girls are people who are willing to live in villages for a long time."

Linger smiled and had a grudge in his eyes: "I want to go to the repairing circles to see, I heard that the Confucian monarchs are benevolent, and they are willing to go to the world, and those of us who are in the world can only be in Linyi. If you want to get a job, he won’t leave us. I’m a good girl, I’ll cook, and I’ll always be able to mix some days.”

Of course, the most important thing she did not say - the Confucian disciples are the most in the top ten sects, the sects are vast, there are a total of 72 cities, Linyi is the metropolis of Xianmen, there are ten people walking on the road, there are five The monk, when she goes there, will find it easier to find a good husband.

Chu night Ning did not know her mind, listened to her going to Linyi, frowned and said: "The Confucianism is deep, not as simple as a girl thinks. If the girl wants to live in the upper boundary for a long time, it is better to consider Yangzhou Linling. ""

"Yangzhou can't survive, and the cost of eating and drinking is too expensive." Linger said, "Thank you for your kindness, and Linger has his own considerations."

Since she has talked about this, Chu Xinning knows that it is useless to say more, and he will do it.

The two carried a package full of Dangdang. When Chu Ning passed through the vicinity of Choi Die Town, he also paid special attention to the enchantment there. Fortunately, the spirit was abundant and everything was stable. So all the way to the horseshoes did not stop, at noon, they finally returned to the death and death.

Chu Xiaoning went to Xue Zhengxuan to exchange information. There was nothing to do with ink burning. He wandered around and bumped into a person at the bridge, and wiped the stone lion on the bridge.

I ignite my heart, I don’t know who made the mistake, and I was punished for hard work here.

The person who is punished will generally have some trouble on his face, so the ink burns he did not intend to go to the bridge. He was about to turn around, but he suddenly heard it, and the man shouted at him.

"A burning!"

"..."

Looking at it, it’s not the other person who is rubbing the lion. The ink burned for a moment, but I felt strange in my heart.

One is the stranger who is so disciplined, and actually has to be punished to wipe the bridge.

Second, it is the look of a weird teacher.

It’s been a long time since I saw my full-length sergeant, but I haven’t been able to recognize his current looks. Instead, as time goes by, I feel more and more unfamiliar, so I glance at the bridge. I saw that I didn’t recognize it.

"How are you here? Do something wrong?" Ink burned to him and asked.

The teacher looked a little embarrassed: "Well... I was fined with the young master."

"Meng Meng?" The ink burned and laughed.

This is nothing strange, Xue Meng made a mistake, not a new thing.

"What did he pull you?"

"I want to go to the back of the mountain to ban a few ghosts to practice."

"....."

"The result almost gave the enchantment crack that was sealed before the teacher walked away."

The ink burns and laughs: "Does he think that ghosts are cats, dogs and dogs? Say catch and catch, and raise and raise. You are, he is noisy, you should not follow the trouble, how can you not persuade him?"

The teacher sighed and his face was full of helplessness: "I certainly persuaded him, but it was useless. I was afraid that he would have an accident. He could only go in with him... forget it, don't say it, but fortunately it didn't matter what it was." Ah, let's talk about you. Have you been to the village of Yuliang Village with your teacher in the past few days?"

"Ok."

"How, are you still smooth?"

"Well, it's pretty smooth."

The two of them did not talk about saltyness for a while, and after saying goodbye to the teacher, a person who burned a person silently walked on the tree-lined path, and then turned back to look at it, he became more and more aware of himself. The feelings are more of a kind of obsession, a habit, not a self-righteous love.

He used to think that he looked at the appearance of the teacher, felt beautiful, and felt shocked and comfortable. This is desire, but it is not.

People always appreciate the beauty of things. He appreciates the appearance of the teacher, but carefully discerns that this appreciation does not carry any embarrassing meaning.

He likes to watch him, as if he likes to see the red leaves of the autumn mountains and the lotus flowers in the summer. In recent years, there has been almost no mourning.

He is still the same as in the past, cherishing the teacher and loving the teacher.

But it is not the same as the past. Nowadays, the ink burns, finally understands what love is all about. He is not Liu Xiahui. His love should be moist and hot, accompanied by encroachment, accompanied by physical collision, accompanied by blood. The turbid liquid spurts.

He is a wolf dog and will sniff the rose.

But the gums, really want to mouth, eat of course will not be flowers, but flesh and blood.

At dinner, Xue Meng finally compiled all the books in the second book area of the library. He was so tired that he sighed and complained in Meng Potang. Even the favorite spicy chicken on weekdays did not make him happy.

I was playing with chopsticks in a boring manner. Suddenly I saw that Chu was born into the dining hall. It was a spirit, and she shouted and shouted: "Master!"

Chu night Ning looked at him and nodded at him.

The ink burns sitting beside Xue Meng. He, Xue Meng, Shi Lang, the three people have always eaten together, but today, the night of Ning came in, but the ink burned the dishes on the table and vacated a large piece. The place is coming.

"what are you doing?"

The ink burned and smiled at Xue Meng, and stood up and greeted him with a late night: "Master, come here."

Xue Meng: "....."

Teacher: "....."

Respect is one thing, but eating together is another matter.

People who can often sit on a table and lick their bones, most of them will not be too blunt, at least have to get used to each other, pouting, and suffer from the ugly eating of the other, occasionally dysfunctional.

瞧 Xue Meng and the look of the teacher’s face, although Chu’s evenings are calm and calm, they are still not used to accepting meals with him.

For them, occasionally eating with the teacher, it is the same as the entertainment, each one has to be stretched, polite, a meal is often stiff on the back, food is not known.

Chu Evening also understood this. He looked at the ink with a sigh of surprise, shook his head, and still carried some light vegetables, and went straight to the position he used to go.

I haven't eaten in Mengpotang for five years. When I sat down, Chu nightning saw a small piece of copper on the corner of the table. The above was actually engraved with the "Jade Heng elders" six small donkeys.

"....."

Is Xue Zhengzhen sick? !

He put the wooden pallet on the table and put it down. He sat down in the evening and did not eat two. He suddenly opened the wooden chair opposite him and sat down on the "Yuheng elders seat". Just in front of the plate of Chu Xiaoning, I was very close and almost touched it together.

Chu Xiaoning raised his eyes: "...How come you?"

"There is too crowded over there." The ink burned and smiled and picked up the rice bowl. "Come and eat with the Master."

Chu night, Ning Yu, Xue Meng, on their side, some inexplicable wonder: Where is it crowded?

Not to mention that he is inexplicable, the other two people who were thrown away by the ink-burning are also complex, quietly watching the table of the night and the ink.

Xue Meng muttered: "Isn't that dog thing crazy?"

Teacher: "....."

No matter how much the ink burns, he just feels uncomfortable when he is playing with the late night. He is a late-night person who picks up his mouth and is particularly tempted by eating and drinking. Often he does not eat this uncomfortable thing, but he tastes that. Disgusting, ink burns feel that this is not good, and you will get a problem when you are older.

He used to be too lazy to eat something late in the evening, but now it is different, and does not say that he likes this kind of thing, it is out of respect for the teacher, he has to feed his master.

However, feeding Chu Xiaoning is a matter of learning, and feeding a cat, can not be a hard brain, people will not want to eat, he also insisted not to come.

Therefore, the ink-burning machine moved, and a piece of fat and thin braised pork was placed in the Chu Ning bowl.

"Master, you taste this."

Sure enough, Chu night Ning frowned: "I don't like pork belly, you take it."

The ink burned and prepared, smiled: "I heard that it is very sweet, it is Jiangnan flavor."

Chu night Ningdao: "Jiangnan cooking meat, and this is not the same."

"You don't eat, how do you know that it is different?"

"It looks like you can see it."

"But the cook said that it is Jiangnan flavor." The ink burned off the net, ready to wait for the cat to hook, smiled. "Meng Potang's cook is an old cook. He said that there is still something wrong? It is a long time for the master to leave the country." I forgot what the braised pork in my hometown looks like."

Chu night Ningdao: "... nonsense, how can I make a mistake?"

I burned a piece of ink, and it seems that I really tasted it very seriously. I said, "I think it’s really a teacher’s fault. This meat is very sweet. Don’t you believe it?”

Chu night Ning suddenly did not notice the ulterior motives of ink burning, he was not awkward, picked up the chopsticks and picked up the braised pork in the bowl and sent it to his mouth.

"How?" The ink burned and smiled, watching the big white cat on the hook.

Chu Evening frowned with a serious brow and said: "No, the star anise is too heavy. I went to the cook and said, Jiangnan's braised pork is not the case."

"Hey--" The ink burned him immediately, and he couldn't help but be speechless. Who knows that this guy will be so true? If you really want to run out and argue with the cook, can you just show up? Busy, "The master is not in a hurry. This time the cook is busy. Since the master has tasted it, it is definitely not. After a while, I will go and tell him. Let's eat the food first."

Chu night, think about it, and then sit down and continue to eat.

The ink burned again and began to figure out to lie to him, this time caught a piece of fish.

Chu Cunning’s chopsticks paused: “Squid?”

"Ok."

"Don't eat, take away."

"why do not you eat?"

"dislike."

The ink burns and laughs: "Is it a thorn?"

"...not."

"But every time the master respects the fish, he picks the kind of thornless, or the thorn is easy to pick. The master should not eat the little squid, hahaha."

He was familiar with the softness of Chu’s character, and he was very good at it. Chu Ningning was fooled again. He was a little angry and said: “It’s ridiculous.” The squid that burned his ink ate and ate. It shows that you are not a fish that does not eat more thorns.

In this way, Chu Xianning, under the scam of ink burning, unknowingly ate more dishes than usual, almost all kinds of vegetables and poultry were stained again. Originally, a meal that was eaten very quickly was overwhelmed by the bulk of the time.

When they went out to clean up the tableware, Xue Meng had already left. The disciples of Meng Potang were only three or three, and the ink burned along with the night to walk back on the tree-lined path back to the Honglian Water Margin. The sun was late, and the twilight was four. Hehe.

The evening breeze, he walked his arms behind his head and suddenly smiled.

"Master."

"doing what?"

"If you don't do anything, just call you."

"...I see you are eating at night."

The ink burned and smiled more tenderly: "Yes, good support. Master, can I have dinner with you in the future?"

Ming knows that there is no other meaning in ink burning, but Chu Xinning’s heartbeat still can’t help but miss two shots, but his eyes are still very quiet.

"Why, have you quarreled with Xue Meng?"

"Nothing." The ink swayed and waved, laughing. "It’s just that I haven’t eaten with them for a long time. After five years, I sit down again and feel a little awkward. If Master respects me, then I will be tomorrow. Also find a location and eat it yourself."

"..."

Of course, he can't say that "I feel very pitiful when you eat alone." You can't say "I want to feed you more food." These words don't need to be exported, and the ink burns knows that it won't work. He can only show his softness. He has to say that he is pitiful. He has to say that he needs someone to accompany him. He has a good heart and he will not refuse.

The smoldering can almost see the shake in his eyes, only a little bit of strength.

So I continued: "But actually, I really don't really want to eat alone."

"Why?"

The ink burns down the soft eyelashes, half of the emotions in the smile are true, and half of them are born to seduce the late night: "I don't think it is true? A person casually eats things, it is called a belly." ”

He paused, in a splendid red glow, sweeping the broken hair blown to the forehead by the wind, his pear vortex deep, and he gaze at each other again.

"If two people eat together, chat, talk, eat a taste in the mouth, it is hot in the stomach. That is eating."

"..."

"Master, can you still be with you tomorrow?"

If the little wolf dog is hot and warm, it must be really confusing.

The ink burned stubbornly, he said:

"Master, I have been outside for five years, you wake up, I am eating with you."

"Without you, I am not used to it."

"I don't eat rabbit heads, I don't eat duck necks." In the end, he smiled slyly, went to Lasu's sleeves, and played rogue. "With you, eat onion tofu, sweet-scented osmanthus, you will Promise me, okay?"

He would like to say that this is okay, one said, Chu night Ning suddenly thought of what old accounts, his face sank, and finally sneered two times, said: "Can be, but in the morning you have to eat with me of."

The ink burned still did not respond, first agreed to say: "Okay, what is the same?"

"Salty bean flower." Chu nightning is not cruel, "plus seaweed."

Ink burning: "....."

If you dare to change this or Xia Shi reverse, remember the hatred when you eat hot pot!

Chu night Ning grinds the root of the tooth, one word: "There are dried shrimps."

Chapter 146

Since that day, there has been a wonder in Meng Potang.

There has never been a "Yuheng elders seat" where idlers dare to sit, and there is a little rain.

The disciples who are visiting can always see the smoldering and the dinner of Chu and Ning, and the two people sit face to face, and the smoldering will always put some dishes into the dishes of his master.

"Hey, look, the ink brother gave the elders a piece of burdock, wow so big, I gamble that the elders of Yuheng will not eat."

Not far away, a group of disciples whispered and lowered their voices to place bets.

"I also gamble will not eat, Yuheng elders do not seem to love beef."

"Then I bet he will eat it. After all, he accepted the few pigeon eggs in front."

The group of people sneaked at the side, they held their breath and saw Chu nightning frowning, chopsticks pointed at the piece of beef, sinking his face and ink burning said something.

The distance is farther away, they can't hear clearly, but the ink burns seems to say two more words, and Chu's face is even worse.

The disciples who were not willing to eat in the evening, they would like to be happy, they looked too fascinated, and the spoons of the soup were almost sent to the nostrils.

"Look, the elders don't eat, he doesn't eat!"

"Don't yell at me with your elbows, whisper, if you are heard by the elders of Yuheng, you must make a bet, you have to peel off your skin!"

"Oh, I don't care, these twenty silver leaves are mine~"

The disciple said, he wanted to go to the silver leaf of the chip on the dinner table. When he had not touched it, he heard the person next to him lower his voice. He shouted nervously: "Wait, the outcome is not fixed. The elders moved the chopsticks again!"

"What?"

Looking at it again, it was true that Chu Ning had picked up the burdock. The gambler’s eyes looked at him and felt that his heart had been pinched up by the pair of white jade, and he couldn’t get up and it hurt.

"If you want to eat it, you have to eat it.... Twenty silver leaves, twenty silver leaves, twenty silver leaves..." The singer who sang the night will eat the burdock, and keep shaking his legs nervously. Suddenly his eyes were stagnation, and the whole person seemed to freeze. "Ah!!"

The elders of Yu Heng, even thrown the beef that had been pinched, and returned it to the burning bowl!

"....."

"Ha ha ha ha, win, win!"

"I said that the elders must not eat, come, the leaves are all for me."

The disciples who lost the bet sighed and sighed, suddenly slammed into the table, staring blankly at the head, staring at the direction of Chu’s late night.

I am wrong with the elders, I should not take your bet, I lost even the money to buy Lingshi this month!

Suddenly complaining about himself, suddenly, he saw the burning of his elbows moving, the tall body leaned forward, and he said a few words with Chu, and then the fierce disciple saw their ink brothers and brothers. I picked up the burdock, and even with some vegetables, I handed it to Chu’s lips again.

.....

This disciple was stunned - this is the intention to feed the elders directly! ?

Apparently, Chu Ning was also very unaccustomed. He unceremoniously took a chopstick and knocked on the chopsticks, and he said two words seriously.

That type is too good to understand:

lay down!

The ink burned and laughed at the chopsticks, vegetables and beef were put back, but not in their own bowls, but in the teacher's bowl, Chu night, no way, sighed, in more than ten chickens he did not notice In the eyes of the thief, they ate the vegetables in silence.

This table of gamblers has already seen stupidity. The disciples who thought they had won the battle were all stunned, and the silver leaves in their hands slipped.

However, the buddy who was languid immediately bounced up and resurrected with blood. His eyes were full of brilliance and eagerly said: "Ha ha ha, turn defeat into victory! Rebel is victory! Master brother, younger brother, can’t help, these leaves are still Got it to me, hahahaha, made a hair, and gambled tomorrow, haha, gamble tomorrow!"

There were two masters and apprentices who were unaware of it. The ink burned the chopsticks and slowly licked the rice in the bowl while watching Chu Xiaoning bow down and eat the burdock.

There was some heat in Meng Po Tang. The left arm sleeves were rolled to the elbows, showing a strong and slender arm. The muscles of the arms swayed and undulating under the honey skin. He took a bowl of soup and specially watched the night and never noticed. Add a few ribs in the bowl, the meat is at the bottom of the soup, it is not easy to see.

"Master, drink the soup, drive the cold."

"broth?"

The ink burned and blinked: "It seems to be, I didn't pay attention when I hit it, I forgot."

Chu night Ning looked at the noodle soup, floating a piece of oily cabbage leaves, smashing it up is delicious, so there is no push, take a spoonful.

"Well, drink?"

"not bad."

"Then don't waste it." The ink burned and laughed. "Let's drink more."

Chu night Ning faintly glanced at him: "Do you dare to say me? Don't play so many dishes after eating, you can't eat it, you have to share it for you."

"Haha, okay, then I will play less next time."

Seeing the late night of Chu, I nodded, and I won the soup bowl. The soup was a bit hot. He blew the noodle soup, and the heat was scattered, reflecting his resolute face was soft.

Hot soup is a very wonderful food. It is just a bowl of boiled water. It puts some meat and vegetables, but it can warm the whole person from the stomach to the heart, and drink soup with the favorite people. The feeling of satisfaction is like throwing a small stone in the water, and the layers of the lake are spread out and shining.

In the quiet of this life, the ink burned involuntarily.

The original years are leisurely, and I drink it in the mouth, just the taste of a bowl of soup.

For this bowl of soup, he used to grind his blood, kill people like numbness, and also for this bowl of soup, now he is remorseful and painful.

He holds the soup bowl and drinks it very quickly.

The inner uneasiness is also good for the uncertainty of the future, remorse and jealousy. At this moment, he is not willing to think too much. His good days are too few, so that he needs to * it day and night. . He didn't want to taste slowly, and he was very envious of Xue Meng. Because he was born rich, he was always calm.

The ink can't be calm, he has so few things, so that he always screams and screams, and the things he snatches are afraid of being robbed, so he can only eat it immediately, he is almost in this respect. Retaining the original animal nature, I feel that only by eating the food into the stomach and hiding it in the stomach can he be assured that he really has this thing and no one can take it away.

When he was young, he and other children rushed to eat.

In the last life, he and the public Xianjun grabbed a world.

In this life, he only wants to grab this bowl of soup.

He knew that he had done a lot of evil things, fearing that his fate would be liquidated with him one day, so he only wanted to * him a little bit of poor happiness, and then he took the road and ran away, leaving his destiny far behind.

And after all those who committed felony, Pan Ran repented to want to repeat the same, although the ink has been laughing, but his heart is still uneasy. He knows that "good and evil always report" is not a false statement. When it is getting cold and cold, he always feels that the peace in front of him is very fake. Just like a mirage, like a mirror, he will eventually wake up and return to the empty one. Wushan Temple, back to hell.

Therefore, he wants to grab a few more mouthfuls before the soup is cold.

In this case, if one day, he is really evil and bad news, spurned by the world, judged by fate, and once again pushed into the abyss of the cold pool, he can also go alone with this breath.

"What are you thinking?" Chu night asked him.

"Ah." The ink burned back to God, gently responded, and then smiled. "Nothing, I like to be in a daze when I am full."

Chu nighting looked at his empty bowl: "Drinked?"

"Ok."

“Do you seem to like today's pork ribs soup?”

"haha, yes."

Chu Xiaoning took his bowl and said, "I will add a little more to you."

He quickly went back and returned, and he ended up with a large bowl of broth, some hot, and after putting the bowl down, Chu Ning took his fingertips and rubbed his eartips, warming his ears and lowering the temperature of his fingers.

He sat down again and said, "Drink."

"A good bowl."

"You drink a little slower." Chu said, "I don't have enough, no one will grab you."

The ink burned by this simplest sentence, he took the soup bowl, the dark eyes fell, with a shallow nasal sound, smiled and said: "Good."

Chu night Ning did not know, in fact, at that moment, the ink burned the greatest efforts of his life, did not hold the bowl full of soup, listening to the sound "not enough, no one will grab you", fell into tears Come.

After Zhou Ning went for five years, he suffered and blamed himself for five years.

Five years later, his master told him to come slowly.

The burning heart suddenly hurts and hurts. The more he gets closer to the night, the more he feels sad. In fact, if many things are not taken care of, they can't see the affection behind them, but he now looks at it with his heart, and he sees that he is so tolerant to him, so warm and good, so good.

He has ruined such people in his life.

How can you be able to grow up with you in this life?

His heart is shaking, he is struggling with pain, and he feels that he is not worthy. He feels that he should be far away from the night, and feel that where he came from, he still has a face to smile at Chu, and is good for Chu? brazen!

However, on the other hand, he is not eagerly eagerly--is it just like this, can it be like this, they are still very long in this life, let him redeem the sins that have been committed little by little, okay?

I am guilty and return from the corpse.

I used the hand of the previous life to be full of blood, and I took the mellow and warm soup of this life.

I hope that the rest of my life will not be able to afford it. After death, I will go to Purgatory. I just hope that you will be willing to hold it.

"Master."

I don't know when, Xue Meng is here.

The ink burned back to God. In fact, after he died in the night, he was almost guilty and uneasy all day and night. Soaking in such emotions for a long time, the whole person would look heavy, for others. It's not a good thing, so he's been trying to adjust his mood all the time, and it's been a little better in the last year.

But there are occasional one or two points in life, and he will still touch him. He will still fall into entanglement and self-abandonment because of one sentence and one thing.

He looked up and looked at Xue Meng, his face was gloomy, and Xue Meng was shocked.

"Oh, what are you doing with the dog? This kind of look at me? I owe you money?"

The ink burned and knew that I had just traveled with emotions. When I couldn’t get it back, I smiled and said, "I have a bit of food. Do you have something to look for?" You said, I went out to breathe."

"Don't, don't go, you are sitting, this thing is related to you."

"Follow me? What?"

The look on Xue Meng’s face is subtle: “If you say it, don’t lose it...”

Chu night Ning said: "Well, Xue Meng, just say it."

"Oh, oh." Xue Meng, who had wanted to sell Guanzi, listened to the teacher and immediately said, "This is the case. Just received the invitation, Song Qiutong wants to be a relative."

The smoldering of the ink burned, and there was no blood in his face.

But this shudder is not due to Song Qiutong, but Xue Meng - this life is very clear that Song Qiutong is a good thing, so hate can not walk around her, he and her now than Qingshui pay off, gossip can not beat.

Xue Meng...

Why does Xue Meng think that Song Qiutong will become a pro, will he be lost?

The whole heart of the ink burned tightly. He almost instantly thought of the false hook that had been smashed in the past, and the black hand that had never surfaced and was deeply hidden.

That person is also very likely to be born again. If this is the case, then the person will clearly understand the past of the burning of the ink, and know the sins of the past!

The ink burned white face, strong calm, and looked at Xue Meng quietly: "How come about me?"

"Isn't you unclear?" Xue Meng looked a little weird and said, "Today, the Confucian style door is to send a wedding post, the Miss Song, who also specially asked someone to send you a letter. You have to meet with her. What did she write to you? Ink burning, not when I said you, when did you get rid of her?"

"....." The burning of the heart is difficult, such as the thorn in the back, half a sigh, "write it to me? It will not be wrong..."

"Can't be wrong."

Xue Meng said, he took out an envelope from the placket and photographed it on the table in front of the smoldering: "The black and white words, written by Moxianjun, Kaiqiu, can you still be wrong?"

The ink glanced at the envelope, his heart was like a drum, and there were countless thoughts in his mind.

It is Song Qiutong's handwriting is correct, but why is this life and Song Qiu Tong Ping water meet, she will make a letter to herself before the big wedding?

Xue Meng’s arms are very unhappy: “Do you want to go back to the private demolition, or are you here to take a look at us?”

"..."

The ink burned side over the head, see Chu night Ning is also looking at himself, the sword eyebrows slightly squatting.

"Demolition?" Xue was mad, but he was the most incompetent to engage in the acts of men and women, and some were aggressive.

If this is the case, it’s escaping...

The ink burned only felt violent, and the fingertips that stretched out were all cool. He did not make a sound, took the letter and silently, and broke it.

The author has something to say: today has a bib

"Do not dog bliss" wife's dog cos master, that is, during the five years of the retreat of the teacher, the dog wears white clothes, and the younger brother of Nangong is a master, and the part that screams is hit. Cute, especially looking back and pointing fingers, today is also super like a master, really crazy crying ~ but I am simply poisonous, I used to have the picture in the album, and then the goldfish head has been forgotten to send out, today turned over the album suddenly remembered, the whole People have been given to Reggio by themselves, and they have given up their wives! QAQ

"Not a koi is the king of squid", my name begins to be a daily superstition. Hahahaha, the master and the dog, the teacher looks really very pure and dignified, and wants to give him the most beautiful jellyfish in the world~ The dog boy juvenile version of fried chicken handsome, as a Yan dog, I was stunned by the Yan value burst table dog powder, hey, crab crab wife ~

Mrs. "Mumu"'s dog's head, the juvenile version of the dog, his face value can make me forgive his stupid hahahaha, can't help but download it, when I change the WeChat head with 23333, like the dog's look, There is really a clean and pure sense of juvenile, which is completely different from the later zero-snake snake disease. Seeing his slight hairiness wants to reach out and rub his hair, hahaha~ crab crab lady~

"li-ruido" wife's single master, I feel very happy~ every time I see the single-person front view of the master, I will think of the ghost dog looking for the story of the master, and then I can't help but replace it. Thinking, ah, the dog can take the drawing to find the teacher, oh~ Master is also arrogant today~ haha~ Crabs and crabs~

Ink burning: Master, drink soup.

Ink burning: Master, eat meat.

Ink burning: Master, eat fish.

Ink burning: Master, eat snacks.

Ink burning: Master, drink.

Four ghost kings: What is the difference between the protagonist and the supporting role? It’s because I’m fat when I eat it, and he’s not fat enough to eat!

Ink burning: No, you are fat because you are an orange cat, and there is not much connection with the protagonist and supporting role.

Xue Meng: And four fat, you are not a supporting role, you are just a dragon set O (∩ _ ∩) O

Chapter 147

There was only a thin piece of paper inside, and a few short sentences were written.

The ink burned a glance, and the heart fell into the stomach. It was almost a sigh of relief, and it was discovered that his cold sweat had drenched the heavy shirt.

Xue Meng also came over and saw it.

"What?" At first glance, the brow wrinkled. "How is this kind of thing?"

"... otherwise it can be said, I said that I am not familiar with her." Under the light, the ink burned is really a smile, put the letter paper on the table, "You said things so embarrassing, really true I am."

It turned out that the ink burned in the past year, and left a lot of notorious evil spirits. Among them, there is a squid fine, which is a disaster for many years. Because of its high mana and remoteness, many monks Going to fight, and finally became the white bone it used to decorate the cave.

Although Yunmengze is full of monsters, it is a place that makes it easy for the monsters to cultivate into fine, but the squid is not an attacking high animal. It is reasonable to say that the demon that is cultivated will not be so strong. The ink burned with it for more than 80 rounds, and finally killed it under the "ghost" and cut open the fish belly, which became the reason.

"In that year, the squid was fine, and there was a stone in the abdomen." The ink burned and laughed. "This spar is a thousand-year-old sacred stone. It is the best stone. It is used to temper weapons, or to cultivate spiritual cores. The choice."

Chu Xiaoning said: "She is a sphenoidal beauty seat, what do you want to do?"

"I want to ask my husband for help. Her husband is a flaming spiritual nucleus. But in these years, she has been practicing too urgently, and she is in danger of getting mad. So I don’t hesitate to pay a lot of money. I want to ask me to buy Shu Jingshi as a dowry. Her husband suppressed evil."

Xue Meng listened and nodded: "The Qian Jin San also asked her husband to be stable, and her heart is rare."

The ink burned and smiled: "Where does she come from? Isn't it a hand to ask the Confucianism, she looks so good, soft words say a few words, which brother can refuse her? Can you change? ”

Xue Meng immediately opened his eyes: "I don't want to say that I seem to be faint."

"You don't be angry, I just make an analogy." The ink burned, and the letter was returned to Xue Meng. If the letter of death and death does not reply, it usually needs to be stored in the library, and the ink is burning. "Archive it."

Xue Mengyi: "Archive?"

"Don't return? Then you burned."

"...No," Xue Meng was anxious. "There is a big marriage, ask for a spiritual stone with you, and don't ask you to discuss it. She said that she will pay no hesitation, and her heart is sincere. Why don't you sell it?"

"I don't want to sell it. It doesn't matter if I keep it, but I have already given it to you."

"Give me, give me?"

"Yes." The ink smirked and pointed to the dragon city sabre at Xuemen's waist. He said, "Isn't you given a spar in the early years, let the uncle temper the dragon city for you? The city is no longer the same, you use it well, and there is not much difference with Shenwu. You still don't thank the squid fine?"

Xue Meng opened his mouth and couldn't speak for a long time.

He only knows that when the ink burns the world, he gets a gem, but he never cares what the gem is. For the smoldering, he always sighed with a sigh of relief. Regardless of whether this person is a wicked person or a good person, he has retained a little bit of conviction and a trace of rejection.

Therefore, when he said that the gems that burned him could be promoted to Longcheng, he was grateful in his heart, but he was also very wrong. He felt that he was favored by competitors for no reason, so he didn’t want to ask more questions. He took the Dragon City and went to the Snow Palace to temper.

What the smoldering ink burned to him turned out to be the "Shu Shujingshi" worth the price. Xue Meng suddenly felt more complicated and couldn't tell what it was.

Half a day is dry: "Thank you."

"You're welcome, you are welcome." The ink burned and smiled and waved. "Catch it."

Xue Meng’s face is even more stinky, and his mouth is hard: “I’m not thank you, it’s the one that lives in the West. I thank him.”

"Hahahaha, then don't eat squid meat later, give Engong Jide."

"Humph!"

When I laughed for a while, the smoldering suddenly thought of something. The pear vortex was deep and asked: "Yes, I was forgotten by you, and I forgot to ask. Who is Song Qiutong going to be with? Who made it so big, she just It’s a small sister, and it’s enough to alarm the Confucianist’s wide-ranging invitations. Is it a marriage with Bitan Villa?”

"no."

"Isn't it with Bitan Villa? I thought that the old man of the old man was very good, and the Confucianist door had a good relationship with them. He gave him Song Qiutong." Ink burned, "Which is that? Can you and the Confucianism Climbing the family, but also a big fanfare... It’s not going to be a snow palace?"

"What do you want!" Xue Meng gave him a look. "Why do you have to marry?"

The ink burned a bit, and the smile was a little bit stiff: "Who can she still follow?"

"Nan Gong Yu! You forgot, Confucianism, the wild horse, but the age of the wedding, Song Qiutong is so beautiful, with him no loss..."

He hadn’t finished it yet, and the ink burned and he got up and said with amazement: “Namiya?”

Xue Meng was shocked: "What?"

"She...what did she marry to Nangong? How could it be..." It was so shocking that the burning heart burst into a stormy wave, and for a long time it could not be calm, chanting, "Nangong Temple..."

No wonder he reacted.

You must know that at this time in the past life, Nangong Temple has been seriously ill and died!

In the past few years, he has bowed his head in the war of the emigrants. He has not cared about the big things of the famous people. The Confucianism Gate does not have much to do with him. He naturally does not care. Until now, Xue Meng suddenly announced the marriage of Song Qiutong and Nan Gongyi with him, and he suddenly realized that - wrong.

All this is not right. The fate of this world has changed, not only on his own, but also on the Confucianism that seems to be unwilling to turn off.

The person who should have entered the coffin did not enter, but the white matter became a red matter, but he also wanted to be the wife of his last life as a wife...

The news was a bit stunned. He couldn’t swallow for a while, and he was awkward.

Also, is Nangong 驷 瞎 !! Look at such a woman?

However, the celebration still has to be celebrated. The gift is still to be given gifts. Since the head of the Nangong Palace has sent the invitations to the door, how can we not go? The wedding banquet will be held on the 15th of this month. Xue Zhengxuan arranged the sects and sent them to the two elders, who are ready to leave for Linyi.

In addition to him, in order to cultivate the truth, Mrs. Wang, Xue Meng and Mo Yan, are sure to go to the meeting. In addition, Nangong Temple specially invited Chu Yuning, saying that he was influenced by the elders of Yu Heng when he was young. Please ask the elders to show their faces, so Chu Yuning has to go.

"The Confucianist Gate is the first big faction today. Their young masters are married. People who have heads and faces all over the world are afraid that they will come to celebrate." Xue Zhengyi said, "The day of death is not a bark, but encounters such a scene. Still have to say some rules, don't want to show people jokes."

Xue Meng asked: "What rules are you talking about? I feel that I am already enough rules."

Xue Zhengxuan pulled his hair and said: "You are not wearing this crown, you wear a blonde crown."

"What happened to the blonde crown?"

Mrs. Wang softly smiled and said: "Menger, this is your first time attending a wedding banquet. Many things still don't understand. Auntie said to you, you can listen to it, and you can only kiss the whole family. The only one is the groom. Can be equipped with a gold headpiece, if you wear a blonde crown, it is to grab the pro, to make a big joke."

Xue Meng’s face suddenly rose red and screamed: “Catch the pro? No, no, no, I don’t grab the pro.”

When the ink burns, he teased him: "When you take the Song and the girl and put them in the small room, are you afraid of it?"

"You were put in the hut!" Xue Meng was ashamed and angry. "I don't wear it!"

Xue Zheng said: "I don't think you are very clear about the requirements of the wedding guests. So, I will give you a custom one, and it will be good to wear it."

He paused, especially looking at Chu Yuning, tentatively asked: "Yu Heng, can you?"

Other people Xue Zhengyi is not afraid, at most it is to make some jokes, but Chu Yuning this person, white clothes are used to wearing, if you don't mention him, it is not impossible for him to go to the wedding reception. Nangong Liu may be angry with vomiting blood, and the dying of life and the Confucianism can be tied.

Chu night Ningdao: "Yes."

On the night before departure, Xue Zhengyi gave everyone a customized wedding dress. These clothes were specially hired by Linyi's tailors. The system was strict, the lines were tight, and the appearance was very beautiful. Rao was such a picky person as Xue Meng. After receiving the clothes, they all satisfied and nodded.

The ink burned a stack of clean clothes, and went to the Nanfeng of the dead and dying, and went into the red lotus water. He said: "Master, my uncle asked me to bring this clothes to you."

He walked to the lotus pond and saw that Chu Ning was dancing a sword.

He remembered that the second weapon of Chu Yuning was a sword, but the sword was full of murderousness and had the power to destroy the earth. Chu Xiaoning never used it easily. But the knife can't be worn or not sharp, and the skill is not skillful. Even if the blade does not have any chance to be sheathed, Chu Ning will still take another sword to dance for a while from time to time.

At this moment, the moonlight was cold, and Xu was a hot sword. He took off his robe and left only a white silk shirt inside. The silk was slightly moved with the evening wind, and it was swaying and moving.

He didn't have the high pony tail that he used to comb, but he pulled his hair up and smashed a sturdy sorghum, which made him look extraordinarily spirited and thinner. The long sword contends, and the blade is like a snow. The attitude of his sword is just soft, and the feet are stretched. When the frost is rolled up, it is as light as the water. After the cold electricity emerges, it is like a dragon, a piece of relaxation. When I received it, I was at the best place. The ink was standing in the distance and I couldn’t pick it up.

Suddenly, there was a glimpse of Ning Meifeng in the late night, and the long sword pointed to the lotus pond. However, the movement was sharp and the water in the pool was divided into two by the sword. It was forced by the sword and could not be combined for a long time. ! His toes were light and pointed, and he flew up and fluttered in the air. The arms fluttered in the center of the waves. The arms were wide open, the white sleeves were surging, and the gods floated to the gazebo on the other side of the pool.

"Master!"

The ink burned, afraid that he would run away again, and quickly chased the pavilion and called him. The moon is high, the night is cool, and the tall sea otter on the pavilion is covered with frosty snow-like white petals. Chu night is on the sharp corner of the pavilion, the placket is scattered, and the moonlight leaks into the jade. He hears the movement. He bowed his head and his eyes were black and bright. He gasped and his lips had the blood of the sword, so it was rare to look very beautiful.

"How did you come?"

The night wind blew the broken hair scattered in his forehead, and he narrowed his eyes.

"Come to give you clothes, you try it, don't fit?"

Chu night Ning gently smashed, suddenly remembered that the ink burned now is respected by the world, and after he woke up, he had not been confronted with him, and he could not help but move his mind. He said: "You try to pick up my sword!"

The author has something to say: There is something wrong today, there is no way to reply, a little guilty 2333333 today, two more, the bib, the daily thanks and the small theater in the ten-point update, see you at ten o'clock~

The ink burned, I didn't expect him to come to this trick, rushing to dodge, Jianfeng rubbed the chest.

"The Master must discuss with me, so I will try the clothes first, and my uncle will wait for me to return to him."

"Learn first, then try clothes."

"The uncle is in a hurry, the tailor is still in the temple, and there must be a place where there is something wrong."

"Then it will be a quick move."

"..."

This point is that Chu Ningning and Xue Meng are very similar. They are all the masters who are hard to press with the heart of the match. When the two men talked and answered, the long sword had already brushed through the ink and burned several key points. It was worth the loss of ink burned for a long time, avoiding the flash in time, otherwise people are fine, the clothes may have to be given to the late night. Sore hundred holes.

Suddenly, the sword was spotted in the ink-burning shoulder, and Chu-night was in a timely manner. He only took the sword and slammed him. He sneered and sneered: "Mo Zongshi, is this the ability?"

The ink burned by this person could not be done, the clothes in his hand were not released, and smiled bitterly: "The teacher is not going to let me now, but is still bullying me?"

Chu night is like a bayonet, and the sword is slightly stunned: "Do you still want me to let you live forever?"

"Haha, this is not wrong."

"...Do you fight or not?"

"Well, I am playing, can I still fight?" The ink burned and smiled, shaking his head and pointing his fingers together. "Hell, call!"

Ghosts came out, but Chu Xi Ning’s hands were just ordinary weapons, so the ink burned did not infuse the spirits into the ghosts. He just took the willows, and the front was handed with a sword, and the ink burned a few feet. Out of the vine whip, entangled the sword of the late night. Chu Xi

Ning did not care, his wrists smashed, and he was free from shackles. His body shape had flashed like a ghost and quickly burned to the back of the ink. The long blade was horizontal and he resisted the neck from the back.

Chu nightning posted behind him, slightly gloomy: "You have no intentions, come back."

His soft and warm breathing lingered in the ear of the ink, the burning felt a hot, the throat was swaying under the blade, and he smiled lowly: "The teacher must not rush to say so full, then take a closer look, I have no intentions." ?"

When the voice fell, Chu Xi Ning was shocked by the burning of Liu Teng. I did not know when he had wrapped his arm around him. He actually kept him in the same place, and he could not move half an inch.

Chu nightning stared at his arm and looked at it for a long while, and suddenly his eyes lit up from a sharp light.

"Well? Yes, the foreword is recovered."

The ink burned and laughed: "Where do you want to receive it?"

"How are you staying?"

"I want the teacher to change clothes."

Chu night Ning snorted: "... decided to win and say."

He said, he will pour his own strength into the right arm, and he will be forced to retreat. Then he will plunder and smash away from the ink. At the same time, a sword flashes, and the volley swells and slams into the ink. go with.

There was no way to burn the ink, but I had to pick up the whip again. For a time, Liu Teng and the long sword creaked in the air. The two weapons did not feed the spirit, and there was no spectacular flow of the flames colliding with the flames, but one The style of the strokes is extremely high, and the clouds are flowing. The one-handed hand is still swearing to give the ceremonial robes for the change of Chu, so that the night will only use his right hand to fight with him, and see that the two have been dismantled over a hundred strokes. It is actually difficult to distinguish, it is difficult to distinguish up and down.

Chu Xiaoning’s breathing was heavy, and a drop of hot sweat smashed through his dark sword and straightened his eyelashes. But he and the ink burned harder, and he couldn’t distract him. The sweat dripped through the eyelashes and penetrated into the eyelids. He actually endured not blinking, a pair of scorpions like the night fire aurora, shining with amazing light.

The fighting spirit of Beidou Xianzun has been aroused by his own apprentice. He originally loved the fierce battle and competition, and he was indifferent and cold on weekdays, only because he was in trouble. And the ink burns like a fire, slamming, lighting up his pool of spirits, and the flames shine in the air.

After they hit the end, the long sword made an ominous squeak because of the inability to carry such a strong impact. Finally, as the two men slammed in the air, they screamed and shattered into tens of millions between the two masters. Point iron powder crystal!

"The sword is broken." The ink burned helplessly. "Is it still playing?"

Chu Jingning’s eyes are already full of smoke. He has lost his hilt, and his white clothes are slightly open, and his body is straight and straight. He is simple and powerful: "Hit."

"..."

The ink burned before he could recover the ghosts. The night of the night was very sensitive, like a full string, an arrow out, and a cheetah in the forest. The eagle in the snow rushed toward the ink. The ink burned and hurriedly removed the ghosts and raised the hand block. The two men regained their high and low levels in a new way, and they were hard to beat.

Close-family melee and war-fighting warfare are different. People with strong and tall figure tend to be more likely to take advantage of it. What's more, Chu Ningning and Mo-burning are almost the same, so this time, Chu Xiaoning obviously ate. deficit.

Ink burned: "Master, don't fight, don't use spiritual power, tell the truth, you can't beat me."

Chu night Ning angry: "Reverse arrogance!"

"If you don't arrogant, if you are angry, then I will let the Master take ten strokes."

"Ink rain!" Chu night Ning was furious and angry, and the effort on his fists was faster and more awkward.

The jellyfish flowers are falling, soft as the wind blows the snow, and the two men and the men under the tree slammed their legs and slammed their legs. After more than eighty rounds, Chu Ning gradually felt that there was some overdraft in his physical strength. He first practiced the sword for half an hour before the ink burned. Later, he used the blade and ink to burn more than 100 rounds. Very tired.

But his eyes are very bright, his heartbeat is also very fast, and a handsome face is full of spirit and glow.

The more they struggled, the longer they struggled. The strength of the fight was more glued. The night of Chu’s death was sideways, and the elbows fell to the ink-burning chest, but they were caught by the ink.

The two pressed against each other, their arms and arms were shaking...

Chu’s arm was so tightly held by the ink, and the long, slender fingers seemed to crush him and pinch his bones.

The animalism and conquest of ink burned were also burned in the slap of the flesh and meat. He suddenly used force to finally control the power of Chu’s late life, and then suddenly turned his backhand—

Chu night Ning suddenly stunned, waiting to return to God, has been firmly burned in the sweaty arms.

"Is it still playing?" The back of his body burned with a scream of laughter. His back was close to the ink-burning broad chest, and his heartbeat was ups and downs. The young man’s chest was like a hot fire, and the iron was strong, like a rock that was burning. I have to take him all in, and get rid of it. The ink-burning lips and teeth are attached to the back of his ear, and the breath of the breath is hot, all sprayed on the back of his naked and exposed neck, and Chu Yuning has a sorghum, no hair blocking, and can feel the other tiger and wolf. The breath, almost like this, put his entire male tear through the tears.

Because of the sweat, the violent stagnation is lingering, moist like spring water...

"Master, still playing?"

"..." Chu nightning bites the lower lip, and the phoenix climbs red.

Damn, he is not willing!

Just wanting to fight again, the ink-burning lips are posted at this moment, as if it was a coincidence, if there is nothing in the ear lobe, the rough and warm feeling, let him slammed a goose bump, Chu The evening cold hair is upside down, biting the teeth and cutting the teeth: "You give me away!"

Although his words are fierce, his body is uncontrollably trembling in the ink-burning arms. Fortunately, because of the fight, the ink can't tell what he is shaking because of what he is. In fact, the ink can't be self-protected. The heart found the abnormality of Chu Xiaoning.

Chu Xiaoning heard his low opening, his voice hoarse, very similar to the sound of deep feelings, with some ridiculous chuckles: "After letting go, will the Master be willing to go back to the room to change clothes?"

Chu nightning was provoked by the phoenix, and he said: "... let go!"

His evasive exchange for the more powerful and rude restraint of the other party. Chu’s arm was pinched almost to be misplaced. His body was soft and he couldn’t help but hoarse and snorted.

This sound is too much like a slap in the bed, the ink burns fiercely, and the lower body immediately reacts. The body of him and Chu Xinning is now close to him. He fears that the master can immediately perceive his own hot and hard anger. How can he let Chu Xining know? He almost subconsciously pushed away the late night, and did not dare to suppress the other side from behind.

That is to say, at the moment of letting go, Chu night would have been empty, and the end was suffocating, holding his arm that was pinched, and looking back at a whip leg, using a real force to smash the ink that could not be prevented. At the ground. Where does the ink burn, this guy will suddenly scorpion, the whole person is stunned, lying on the ground, feel that the ribs are broken, and the pain is frowning.

"Master, you are too..."

It’s a bit of a victory.

In the latter half of the sentence, I dare not say that the ink burned and swelled the painful eyes of the water vapor, and tried to look up to see the night.

He saw that his master's robes were scattered, and the white silk robes had already been wide open because of the fierce struggle, revealing a tight and smooth chest, and rushing together with the rapid breathing. Chu night, gasping, he violently pulled his scattered clothes, the amount of hair scattered, the corners of the evacuation, because the fight is fierce, he is still thin red at the end of the eye.

Chu nightning slowly stood up straight, looking down at him from top to bottom, his chin raised slightly, his eyes glazed, majestic and proud.

He calmed and said, "You lost. It doesn't matter if you are tall."

The ink burns and laughs. When you speak, there are blood bubbles in your mouth: "Don't you lose? Even the bones must be kicked off by the master."

"..."

He said that Chu Xiaoning was a little guilty. He just played very smoothly. He didn't remember whether he had the last leg. He used to lean over the chest rib that burned his ink: "Where did you kick?"

"This side..."

"Does it hurt?"

"..." The pain is affirmative, but now I am not a fifteen or six-year-old boy, and it looks like a teacher.

Chu Xiaoning saw that his face was not so good. He reached out and took the stack of clothes. The other hand tried to force the ink to stand up. He expected that his strength was too much, and the ink burned and sank. Gao, he did not pull under this pull, but the whole person fell on the burning body. He heard the pain of the person under his body, and quickly sat up, did not think much, and went to see the burned injury.

"Do you want to be tight?" Chu nightning's face is white.

The ink burned and frowned, and the hand was added: "You will come down from me first."

Fortunately, I can still speak, it seems that there is no crush.

Chu nightning was busy preparing, but the people who were offensive often didn't get up very easily when they fell down. The legs were actually soft, often not stable, didn't stand, and some fell into disarray.

This fall, not the position, is burning on the waist, Chu night Ning did not pay attention to the beginning, but he wears very little, only a thin layer of silk cloth, and this position is so embarrassing, he moved Almost immediately, I felt that there was a huge thing in the hard state, and the sword was smashed and smashed underneath.

Small theater "The way to burn the ink"

Chu nightning: Come, I will play with you.

Ink Burning 1.0: Don't don't, beat the Master, Master makes me ten strokes or beats Master QAQ

Chu nightning: Come, I will play with you.

Ink burning 2.0: What should I do if I lose? Losing me, I feel so bad. ^_^

Chu nightning: Come, I will play with you.

Ink burning 0.5: (playing eyes) still have a fight? Is it yesterday that I didn’t bully you enough?

Chapter 149

Chu nightning: "....."

Ink burning: "....."

Almost in the rushing place, Chu Yuning did not know where the strength came from, and suddenly climbed up, his lips trembled slightly, his face was white and a burst of white, like amazement, and it was as scared.

Weifeng Hehe Yuheng elders, actually, actually, really seems to be scared.

When the ink burned, he was very upset. He was stunned by the painful chest. He sat up and cautiously said: "Master..."

Chu Xiuning was stepped back like a tail, and took a big step back.

It’s really hard for him, and a pair of phoenix eyes can actually get rounded.

It seems that it is really amazing...

The ink burned and smiled: "I can't help, I am not... I..."

But I don't know what to say.

It’s the night of Chu’s thoughts in the brain, and what is it? What am I not? How does ink burn? Did you feel wrong? But if there is no response, is it usually so hard? That should be more...

Suddenly thought of the * ranking list, with four words on it.

It’s not a vulgar thing...

Chu nightning's entire face was red, and he saw what he wanted to say, and raised his hand violently: "Don't say it, you go back."

The ink burned only thought that he was irritating him, and he would stay there again. He endured the pain and climbed up. When he got up, he maintained a half-squatting posture. He said lowly: "Master, sorry, I am not on purpose."

"..." Chu night Ning looked at him intricately. It looked like he was thinking about a lot of things. In fact, he didn't think about anything. His mind was already stuck in the words "not a vulgar" and would not turn.

The ink burned away, and Chu was born in Ningyuan for a long time.

The thin hair on his arm was vertical, and the whole person looked a little sluggish and a little worried.

Suddenly I remembered that they went to Jinchengchi for swords early. When they were in the hot springs, they burned their inks accidentally. At that time, they also met their own mistakes, but the time of contact was too short. Chu Ning was not sure if he felt wrong. But just now, the ink-burning pro-mouth said sorry, not intentional, it also shows that he is really true...has a desire...not his own illusion.

Although I know that men sometimes have a desire to fire because of the sights they see in front of them, this is normal, but Chu Jingning asks himself and does not feel that he has any attractive places. The world is more than his handsome people. Is it that the ink burns like a hot sweat and a mess?

...this has something to look at.

Confused to be confused, but the touch of goose bumps between the legs can not fade for a long time, even though it is so fresh through the clothes, so embarrassing.

In all sorts of confusing thoughts, he suddenly had a bad idea.

He couldn't help but think that such a flood of beasts, if they are out of the cage, who can stand it?

Chu night Ning Yin bite the bite of the molars, but the flushing on the face is difficult to eliminate, the content of Feng Yuli is blurred and messy.

It was like a fever, and it was entangled in the heat.

After standing outside for a long time before returning to the room, Chu night Ning removed the hairpin, bite the hair band between the lips and teeth, lifted the hand and re-closed the long hair, and then tightened tightly and tied into a ponytail.

He breathed a sigh of relief and looked up at himself in the bronze mirror.

The phoenix eye is narrow, and when it is not smiling, there is always a sense of majesty and sorrow. It is not flattering.

The bridge of the nose is not too high, the curvature is soft, the outline is not too vivid, and it is not flattering.

mouth……

Forget it, this mouth and the mouth will say the same, very thin, cold color, no temperature, of course, is not flattering.

Who knows that the smoldering is what crazy, there will be such eagerness.

Chu Xiu Ning has always been very conservative and stereotyped, and he knows very little. The kind of ridiculous book is even dirty when he touches it, so he stares at the mirror for a long time, or everything. Can't figure it out.

It’s gone.

Then simply don't think about it. There has never been a love experience for the elders of Yuheng. After all, men don't necessarily have to react when they want to come. Maybe this is just a coincidence.

The next day, Xue Zhengyi and Mrs. Wang stood in front of the mountain gate early, waiting for the other three people to attend the meeting. The first person to come is Xue Meng. He used to wear the blue and silver soft armor of the dead and the old, and he always looked sharp.

But today he wore a elegant and elegant robes, his hair was combed simply, leaving only a jasper scorpion, the temperament of the whole person was somewhat different, and the end was graceful and graceful.

When I saw my parents, he was a little embarrassed and pulled his own sleeves. This is what he said: "Hey, Auntie."

Xue Zhengyi couldn't help but admire: "Menger is so beautiful, and your mother is a mold."

Mrs. Wang hangs a pair of eyes, about being praised by the husband, and her face is red.

She and Xue Meng waved and said, "Come, Menger, come over."

Xue Meng Li was in front of her, and she looked up at him for a while. Her eyes seemed to be lingering. Time flicked. After a long while, she sighed softly: "This clothes lined you, it looked white, very good."

Xue Meng laughed: "It's not good for my mother."

"You will also be poor, and look like you." Mrs. Wang said, some feelings, "I have been going for more than 20 years..."

Xue Meng seemed to expect what she was going to say next. Suddenly her smile was stiff and the subconscious stepped back half a step.

But what is the use of this half-step, or can't escape the mother's chanting.

Sure enough, Mrs. Wang took him the next moment, and she said: "Menger, today we are going to the Confucianism Gate and giving a congratulation to the Nangong Gongzi. You see, you are almost the same age as him, is it right to talk about marriage? How old is it?"

"Aunt, I haven't wanted to be a family... I don't like anyone..." Xue Meng said.

"Mother knows the people you didn't like, so this time you go to the meeting, you pay more attention to the girls of other families. You don't have to be rich and rich, the national color is fragrant, as long as people are good, you like, the mother will definitely give you Take a good look, find someone to tell you about the media."

Xue Meng’s blush: “There are still no sings in the eight characters. What did A Niang think of directly?”

"Mother is just mentioning it..."

"But I don't see anyone. Auntie, you said that the women who have seen the monks in the world have not looked good. I have to marry them. Isn't it that I am suffering? No, no, no. "I don't know what to do." Xue Meng's head shook like a rattle. Suddenly, he had a chance to move. "More, why are you only urging me? Is the ink burning one year older than me? Why don't you worry about him? My teacher respects -"

"What is the realm of Yuheng elders? Are you comparing with him?" Mrs. Wang is a little funny. "Okay, don't force you, mother is just saying this, you want to pay attention, but you really haven't seen it." If you are on the list, then you can forget it. Can the mother tie it to you?"

Xue Zhengxuan pondered for a while and said: "But I think Menger said it well. Last time, I mentioned the Taoist with Yuheng."

"Ah?" Xue Meng heard, very surprised. "Hey, you told the Master to mention this kind of thing? He didn't turn your face?"

"Flip your face." Xue Zhengxi smiled, "carry me out."

Mrs. Wang: "..."

Xue Meng haha laughed: "I will say, my teacher respects the bones of the fairy, not the gods are like the gods, like him, people have long been desperate, what do the Taoists do?"

Xue Zhengyi sighed, apparently still not reconciled, and was about to argue with his son. Suddenly Mrs. Wang covered his mouth with a sleeve and whispered a sentence: "Fei Jun, I have to say it again, the elders of Yu Heng are coming."

In the morning mist that was not scattered, Chu nightning walked on the wet bluestone plate, walked wide, robe and first, and the sleeves floated.

He wore an embroidered acacia robes, the body is a straight white moon, and the edge of the mouth is pressed against the gold thread. As the steps move, the gold line faintly sways in the sunlight, and the hair is a white jade. The appendix is inlaid with a plum flower carved into a plum, and the whole person is dyed with dignity in the net, with loneliness in the cold.

At that moment, Xue Zhengyi suddenly had some powerlessness, his mouth opened and closed.

He thought, or Xue Meng said right.

Such a person, what kind of woman should be placed next to him, can not be annihilated by his brilliance, because his momentum is dusty?

The gods went to the mortal world, stood in front of the mountain gate, frowned, and looked at Xue Zhengyi.

"Respect the Lord."

"Haha, Yu Heng, the clothes are fit."

Chu Yuning raised his hand, a thread and shape were extremely complicated sachets, shaking in the air, he said: "This sachet sent with the robes is not the same as the ordinary."

"Ah, it was played according to Linyi's rope art. What happened?"

The tall and unpretentious * of the gods, Wei Yan Jian, he said: "It is too difficult, will not tie, please respect the Lord."

Xue Zhengyi: "....."

He taught Chu tonight three times, Chu Ning still couldn't get around the knot, and finally gave up, Xue Meng couldn't stand it, took the initiative to ask the helper to respect the sachet, and put it on his waist after three or two. Chu night Ning squatting, very unexpected, praised: "Not bad."

Xue Zhengyi couldn't help but turn his mind next to him. He thought, God, if such a person does not have a Taoist, will he really not die in life and will not take care of himself?

After a while, the ink burned, and his face was not very good. Yesterday, he was too embarrassed by Chu’s night, and he was too embarrassed to find someone to heal. Others would definitely ask him who the wound was, he always Can't you say that it is thin and light, and the elders of Yuheng are being defamed?

You can only meditate on your own, and it will be better at this time. It will not be difficult to breathe your chest.

But he saw him standing next to Xue Zhengyi, quietly waiting for him. This man is wearing a white embroidered gold silk dress, the neckline is high, and the abstinence is solemn - a handsome man who is serious.

The smoldering felt that the chest was moving, and it was hard to straighten the air. It seemed to be smashed again, and it could not breathe.

"cough!"

This is terrible. He likes a man he can't like, he vows never to touch again.

The old ghost of the two generations is really like a young man in his early twenties. Young and impulsive, bloody, because of a look of a favorite person, a change in clothing, it feels like a mess in the world. From then on, happiness is related to him, sorrow is related to him, heartbeat is related to him, breathing is related to him, and even the moonlight shining into the window, an ant in the moonlight, attracting the genus of the ants. They are all related to that person.

He felt very frustrated in such a favorite, very wrong.

Because one flower and one leaf are all him, but he can't get it, he can't pick it.

Damn, it’s hard for him everywhere.

The party affairs were temporarily handed over to the elders of the wolf, and Xue Zhengyi took the invitation and took his wife to the road.

In the array of Chu nightning travel, as long as it is not a schedule, it is often a carriage, this time is no exception. A group of people are leisurely and leisurely, slowly going along the official road, all the way up the mountain to play with water, encounter some little demon mobs, but also help to get rid of it.

After doing this for ten days, they arrived at Yucheng.

Yucheng’s rouge is famous. As soon as he arrives in the city, Xue Zhengyi first takes Mrs. Wang to buy rouge. Xue Meng’s disgrace to his old husband’s wife is also greasy, and the goose bumps are not willing to keep up, and they are looking for them. I took a tea stand and waited for my mother to come back.

The revisiting of the place, the three men and the teachers have some feelings.

Xue Mengdao: "Unfortunately, the teacher is not there, or it is exactly the same as when I asked for a sword six years ago. We can go to Xuying Peak to play."

The ink burned and laughed: "You are not afraid of the fake hook Chen still stay there, see you coming, pull you into the bottom of the lake and retell the old."

Speaking of false hooks, Chu night Ning frowned: "He seems to have no action in the past five years?"

Ink ignited: "I don't think it's good. I have had a few big messes. It's all suspenseful. It's related to Shenwu. I suspect it is him, but there is no evidence."

Xue Meng played with the cup in his hand and looked at the ink and said: "I don't think those unrelated cases have anything to do with him. You think, a few years ago, he tried his best to find the essence, you are the essence of Muling, he will You are going to harm you behind you, so he should be looking for people, not weapons."

Chu Xi Ning Shen Shen said: "But in the past five years, there has been no continuous disappearance of living people."

Ink ignited the martial arts: "I have not encountered any containment or traps. But it may be that I have not been able to travel for five years. He does not know where I am."

All three people were silent and thinking, until the proprietress sent them the tea and fruit, Xue Meng only scratched his head: "You said, he should not be a bad thing to do more, do you have to burn yourself to death?"

"..."

"Don't look at me like this. Generally, the evil spells are not easy to be countered." Xue Meng screamed. "Otherwise, why haven't he had a big move for five years?"

The ink burned suddenly: "There is a possibility."

"what?"

"You see, Master has not done anything for five years."

Half of the ink was spoken, Xue Meng knocked him with chopsticks: "What do you mean? Do you suspect that the fake hook is a master?"

"...Can you wait for me to finish the words." Insinated, "I am making an analogy. I am thinking, if those suicides are not related to the fake hooks, then he really did not do anything in five years. Big things. So, is he likely to be like the teacher, for some reason, such as being injured or for other reasons, must stay somewhere and can't come out."

When he talked about it, he suddenly thought of something and slammed it.

"Master respect..."

"how?"

The ink burned his head first, and did not seem to believe in his own thoughts, but hesitated for a moment, still screaming four words: "Master of sin..."

During the past five years, other masters did not know, but apparently there was one person who was also trapped in the Honglian Water Margin as Chu Yuning, and never left in half a step.

Master of guilt.

However, this idea is too big to be rebellious. The master of guilty again said that he had also given the grace of the late life of Chu, and it was not clear what kind of emotions in the heart of the teacher’s heart were against the crime. Therefore, I really don't dare to be too rash.

Chu night Ningdao: "Don't think about it, it won't be him."

He said this sentence understatement, but there is no hesitation.

The ink burned and nodded immediately. Since Chu Xiaoning was not willing to talk about his past when he was young, he would never ask too much.

He continued to think: "Then, are there any other masters who have never appeared in five years?"

"The head of the lonely moon night is Jiang Yan." Xue Mengdao, "Lingshan Conference, all the heads are all in place, he is not sick, rarely appear."

The ink burned and laughed: "Is that your mother's brother? Do you doubt him?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Jiang Yan is very self-satisfied, never willing to live alone under the Confucianism, so since Nangong Liu became the first of the top ten sects, he did not go to any gathering, not only these five years. ”

"Then there is no more." Xue Mengdao, "Hey, forget it, don't think about it, don't think about it, the clue is too little, I think my brain hurts."

It happened that at this time, Mrs. Wang and Xue Zhengyi came back. It was already late, and five people were ready to find a place to stay in Yucheng.

Xue Mengdao: "I know that there is a special inn, and there is a hot spring pool to soak."

Ink burning: "..."

He used his toes to know which one Xue Meng said, not the stack that they stayed in when they were young?

When he was in the hot springs, he still had no brains to plant in the arms of Chu Yuning...

Thinking about this festival, he couldn't help but cough and silently twisted his face away. He didn't want to be noticed by his own eyes and expectations, but his heartbeat was involuntarily faster.

Xue Meng, this person is actually a bit exaggerated. He likes to hold things hard, and the stains can't be seen. He doesn't like things to die on, and a stick is not a chance to turn over, but the so-called Zhizi Mo Ruo, Xue Zhengyi I felt that my son’s words could only be trusted in half, and he asked me: "The inn has lived in the inn, how do you feel?"

The ink burned and coughed twice, and did not dare to look directly at the uncle: "...is not bad."

"Then go live." Xue Zhengyi made a decision. The ink burns in the palm of your hand, and the fingertips pick up slightly because of the inner movement.

He bowed his head and looked like a docile and gentle "hmm". But what I thought in my heart was: myself... can I take a bath with Shizun again like I did in the past...

He couldn't help but recall the smog in the water, and the night of Ning Yu Changjun Xiu's body, the lines are fierce and tense, full of seductive and intrusive tension.

But if it is really with the bath of the late night, the steam is blurred, can he really hold back?

After the discussion, the other people have already got up. Xue Meng finished eating the peanuts on his hands, and also patted the broken ends and stood up. He turned his head and looked at the cousin who was still sitting in the same place.

"What is it, go?"

The expression of ink burns is subtle. I don’t know if it is the reason for the sunset. His handsome face seems a bit red.

He reached out and poured another cup of tea on himself, insisting that he would not stand up, but he continued to sit a little, and said with a few cough: "...there are so many not finished, wasted, you go first I know the way, I will come over after drinking tea."

The author has something to say: cough, although some small partners should know, but it is still science, men really do not have to react when they have desire, excited, when the mood is very good, even somehow Time will really...emmmmm...

Speaking of this, I suddenly thought of an answering master. This answer is a boy. Once he was in class, he was named by the teacher. He had no distractions, recited, and then inexplicably bo. That is One summer, the boy was wearing the summer trousers of the school, it was easy to see, the answer said that he could not forget the female teacher’s sweet look and the blush on his face. Hahahahahahaha wax!

Today's bib has:

"Frost a sword and a meat bag" wife's soup four grid, what? Yesterday, there was a hair, I thought that the wife had finished painting, but the goose is wrong with QAQ, I am guilty, cut belly! A slap in the face! I think the wife's manuscript is sometimes better than the board painting. Hahaha, in fact, the pencil painting master really knocks on the beauty~~ love you! The heart is sprouting~~ Come on the dog, such a lovely teacher will feed you soup, what are you dissatisfied with, hahahaha~ Crabs and crabs~

"Not a koi is the squid king" wife's light armor Xue Mengmeng, holding the piano master and beaten the teacher 昧 (Shi Yan: Why is it that I am so strange story? Beat the teacher?) Hahahaha ~ Meng Meng knocking handsome, In fact, the beginning of my brain, the Meng Meng light armor is the clothes of Tangmen's broken guns, but the wife's painting is better to see ~ and the master of the piano is super graceful and luxurious. Ah ~ there are poor teachers, I was beaten as soon as I appeared on the scene. I was so pitiful, I wanted to give the teacher a hug~ Thank you wife~~

"Mulberry" wife's master respects the sword map, with the update of yesterday's update is better, suddenly thought of things, how to go to this poem, 23333 feels the teacher respects a sword, a child no longer talks, Hahahaha~ I have seen a lot of gentle and correct teachers, but I rarely see the masters who are aggressive and domineering. In fact, the masters are still very fierce. You should not be confused by his inner (feeding, others don’t all say not to be His appearance is confusing!) Tap handsome! Crab crab lady~

"It's better to go to eat together." The wife's salted-headed dog, poodle and the teacher who likes to curl but refuses to admit it, has a loving brain hole, and the wool-rolled dog is so cute. Suddenly I think salted eggs are also very interesting ~ and can smoke, I really want to let the dog smoke a few times! I feel that some occasions come to the root of the smoke, the scene will be particularly perfect, however... This is nitrogen fixation 233333, thank you wife for showing me a salted egg version of the two dogs, the bear also knocked the level of Meng ~ ~ what?

The small theater "I heard that Xue Mengmeng is very picky, as if there is a throne in the family to inherit, then I don't know the sexual version of the protagonist, he will not be satisfied"

Miss Ms. Yu Weiyu

Result: pass

Reason given by Xue Meng: I can't marry my cousin.

Teacher's enchantment

Result: pass

Xue Mengmeng gave reasons: beautiful is pretty, but also wise, temper is still docile, or graduated from nursing major, it is quite good, that is, the chest is not big enough, the hips are not upturned, the body is a little lacking, forget it. I will see if there is any better, but I still have a phone number for this young lady. If there is no better, I can consider contacting her.

Miss Nan Gongsi

Result: pass

Reasons given by Xue Mengmeng: This woman is definitely the most wonderful person I have ever seen in a blind date. My temper is bigger than me. I also say that my family is the first local family in Shandong. Her father is the governor of Nangong. Without the right eye, I talked to her. She managed to tease her own dog. Is there such a thing to look down on? I am also the only child of the village head of the village of Lushan. I am more and more eager to rely on me. How can such a person be able to do it, right? Nima, she still shows off her life in a circle of friends, saying that she is silly in one or three Ladi, two or sixty-six open lazy base mud, on a private jet on Sunday, it is Chen Duxiu's show that is more beautiful than the show. I endure the contempt and euphemistically comment on her: energy saving and emission reduction everyone is responsible for protecting the environment. The best girl to look at. She actually returned to me: Poor than not bother, two-way clearance. Rely on, take the customs to get off, to see who is pulling the black who is fast! hate!

Miss Ye Xiexi:

Reason: This young lady is good, her height is right, her character is smooth, her attitude is correct, her family is innocent, although she is not very good-looking, but her life is also very good. I have added her friends. I planned to ask her to go this week. Eat Mala Tang, you can eat it for 16 yuan. Don't think that I am slamming. I just want to see if she is a poor person who loves the rich. I am afraid that she likes me because I am a rich second generation. I want to install a poor ratio first. She promised me, and on the day of the date, I sent a message to Xiaoye’s sister, but I received a reminder: The other party is not your friend... emmmm, where am I doing something wrong? I only remember the night before, Chen Duxiu's show, Nangong, Jinjin, did not send the circle of friends who drove. I commented on her and dragged her down... But what does this have to do with Xiaoye's sister? Is Xiaoye’s sister the trumpet of the Nangong worshipping the golden woman? Thinking hard about QAQ

Miss Chu Yu Ning

Result: pass

The reason given by Xue Meng: My mother said that her eyes are on the eyes of a fierce woman.

Miss Mei Hanxue

Result: pass

Xue Meng gave the reason: she is very beautiful, she looks a little mixed, but I sent her photo to one of my classmates, there are more than 100 men in the group, suddenly jumped out of 80 More than that, she said that she slept with her... I was forced in an instant, the key is that she is the daughter of my father’s friend, I don’t know if I want to tell my father’s friend about this situation, let her take care of herself. Daughter, what to do, hurry, online, etc.

The above is the dating record of the straight male Xue Meng who has to inherit from the throne. The small theater in tomorrow will update the inner feelings of the young ladies and Xue Meng.

Miss Nan Gongsi: tmd is very good, this man is simply wonderful! tomorrow! Let the aging mother take a good look at this bird stuff straight male cancer! It’s really hot!

Chapter 150

Speaking of it, this town was famous for Xu Yingfeng, but it happened to be a fake hook. The weapons of Jin Chengchi were destroyed. After many years, the town gradually fell, and many supply and demand swordsmen The inn of the hotel was closed because of the downturn in business, and it was changed to a different business.

However, the inn with the hot spring pool that the mentor and the apprentice stayed together was still stubbornly alive, and because the Nangong Gongzi was married, the guests who came to the Confucianism Gate to come to Hexi would first settle in the city, and the inn actually went. Restored the vitality of the past.

Xue Zhengyi opened the bamboo curtain and stepped into the lobby: "Boss, stay in the store!"

"four people?"

Xue Zhengyi still did not answer, he heard a low voice behind him: "No, five."

It turned out that the ink burned out urgently, and it happened to be here at this time.

Xue Meng saw him and was a little surprised: "So fast?"

The ink burns first, then the face is black, secretly angry, is it slow to kill? Sitting at the tea stall and reading a few words of the Qing Mantra.

But he also knows that Xue Meng said that it is not the same thing that he thinks. It is not good to attack, but he has nodded in a rather subtle way.

"You swallowed the seeds, and the shells didn't spit."

Ink burning: "..."

"There are five guest officers, how many rooms?"

Xue Zhengyi said: "I have a room with the insiders, and there are three more good rooms, four in total."

The ink burned to the uncle to arrange this. The face was quiet and silent, but his heart was vaguely inciting. He actually secretly hoped that the dialogue with the year could be reproduced again. The boss told them that they were full and had to squeeze, so that he would...

In fact, he still can't do anything, but if he can stay in a room alone with Chu, he feels very hot, somewhat uneasy, and a little excited. He is still in the blood vessels, and he is still a wolf and a tiger leopard. Blood.

However, coincidence often does not have so many times, this time the shopkeeper is very happy to say: "Good Le, four rooms!" He turned over to the cabinet to take the key, and shouted in a long tone, "Guest, two Lou, you are pleased -"

The ink burned him with a silent look, and the eyes were a bit gloomy.

He thought, stupid things, so happy to open four rooms? What is happy! What is happy! I am so happy to make more money!

"Fire, what do you do with the table on the counter?"

"..." The ink burned back and smiled. The place where the board is facing down has been cracked by him for a few traces. I am afraid that it will be broken when I use it again. "Nothing."

When he took the key from Xue Zhengyi’s hand and went upstairs, the ink burned to the room where he belonged, and suddenly he stunned.

Turning his head, he saw that Chu Ning was also watching him.

"Do you live here?"

"Well... yeah." The ink burned for a while, first hangs the eyelashes, and then can't help but raise his eyes, the black scorpion looks at the face of Chu's late night, "Master respect still remember?"

"...remember what?"

Ink burning refers to the door of his own, saying: "When we come to the sword, the master is the room."

"..."

The ink burned carefully and looked at him. The voice was very forbearing, but he couldn't hide the faint expectation: "Master, do you remember?"

Chu night, I thought, how can I not remember.

Going up to this level, the past is coming up, screaming with the old stairs that have been in disrepair, and the decaying taste of the wood after being soaked in the years, slowly rises.

He could almost see the young boy burned open the door, with a cynical look on his face, grinning at himself, the pear vortex was very shallow, and the years were deep.

Seeing him for a long time, the ink burns seems to be a little disappointing. He hangs his eyes and says: "It may be that I remembered it wrong and confused it..."

"Yes."

The ink burned and looked up.

Chu night Ning looked at him, and seemed to smile lightly: "You remember correctly, it is this."

This sentence is like a star fire, clustered to ignite the darkness of the ink-burning fundus, and the corner of the ink-burning mouth gradually opens a sweet smile, as if eating a delicious candy, and pointing to the late night of this Room, said: "And, the Master lives today, it was my previous one."

He is very happy and said that the rate is true.

Chu Xiaoning listened to some embarrassed things, and did not laugh, and angered: "This can't be remembered."

Speaking of the path, he pushed the door into the house and shut the ink on the outside.

"....."

Hey...who is doing something wrong, making him unhappy?

It’s night, the ink does not dare to go to the bathhouse to soak in the hot springs. Some things are not afraid of 10,000. I feel that I am close to the threshold of desire. If Chu’s night is more than one-and-a-half, he does not know. I can't hold back to be a gentleman, not to pick this flower of Gaoling.

He was lying on the bed with his head on his arm. It was really boring, and he began to think about his way of getting along with Chu.

He is a less intelligent person. He feels that Chu Ning is like a big white cat. He wants to be nice to Chu, and wants to take care of this white cat, but he always picks up two hairs and exchanges for white cats. One of the claws seems to be uncomfortable and unsatisfactory.

He felt very guilty, but he really didn't know where the cat could touch, and where he couldn't touch it. He was like a man who had just raised a cat. He knew nothing about it, and only slammed the white cat in his palm.

Then I exchanged a roar and slap.

The ink burned over and blinked, it was very depressed.

Suddenly remembered, the layout of this inn, the bed in the next room and myself should only be next to a wooden wall.

When the thought came out, the ink burned even more, and he felt a bit dry.

Did Chu Ning go to take a shower? Still preparing to go?

But I didn’t hear much about the movement in his house... If Chu Ning would not go to take a bath, then at this time, is it already lying down? Then they are actually very close. If there is no thin wooden partition in the middle and they are separated by two, they are already lying together...

Lying together. This thought made the blood of the young man hot, flowing like a shallow volcano, just not squirting.

He couldn't help but sleep more inside, clinging to the wallboard, the walls of wood and clay were different after all. The planks were so thin that they were only three fingers wide.

In the ink, Chu Niening lay down three feet wide, took off his clothes, or wore only a thin coat... He closed his eyes and swallowed his throat. He felt his heart burning and burning. The whole body, burned to the corner of his eye, he did not blink, but if it opened, there must be bloodshot, flushing.

Ah, then he suddenly remembered another thing - it was too exciting, and he was taut and the blood was flowing down.

He used to lie on the bed where he was sleeping in the night.

The memory of a long time is so damp, sinful and sweet, and the ink burns to recall this thing, the scalp is hemp. He remembered that he had been in the hot springs that year, and accidentally fell into the night of Ning Huai, so that the feeling of hotness could not be eliminated. He could only rub himself on the ground, and his forehead against the wall would be like that. Want to vent out...

The ink burned slightly and half of the eyelids, the eyes were dark, the dark places were like rocks, but there were reddish melts flowing under the stones. He once again put his forehead against the wall.

The heart is like a crack, and I was so stupid in the past, clearly so bright desires and love, how can I not find it...

He put a hand on the wall and pressed it, but he couldn’t help it.

I thought that when I didn’t love, I could think of Chu’s venting unscrupulously, but I fell in love with him. He was destined to be separated from a wall in his life. He could not even make a dream. He felt dirty and Chu. The night of Ning.

Sustained desire, this is too tough for a young and * young body, his nose is against the wall, his hot body is sticking to the thin wall as much as possible, his thoughts are chaotic, His eyes are blurred, and he even has a glimpse of illusion in the increasingly lush mood.

It seems that the breath of Chu Xiaoning, the scent of sea bream on the shadow of the night, has passed through the gap of the wood grain, seeping into his bed, and wrapping him tightly.

The taste of Chu Xiaoning is seduce him, and he is pitiful.

Seduce his beast / desire, pity his humanity.

Seduce his desire / fire, and pity he can't ask for it.

In this kind of seduce and pity, the ink burned his eyebrows painfully, his hands supported the wall, the roots of the joints were distinct, and the blue veins burst into one.

Contrary to his violent look, it was his almost choking request, and he whispered softly: "Chu Ning...night Ning..."

He did not know that on the other side of the wall, Chu Xinning did not dare to go to the hot spring pool to bathe. He did lie down as if he had thought about it, and he was thinking about him and eager for him. Chu night Ning's long fingers also rubbed the cold wood, and his forehead also touched this ruthless wall.

The two of them, the misunderstandings of the past lives, are so deep that they are separated by a huge abyss. Therefore, in this life, they poured water with blood, filled the abyss into a sea of blood, and rushed to each other, but because of a barrier, they could not see the turbulent tide of each other, and they could only be flooded by their own love.

But they are so close that they have already posted.

Nearly the ink burned as if I heard the heartbeat of Chu Xiaoning, and Chu Yuning, as if I heard the breath of ink burning.

"Hey!"

I was shocked, nothing good: "Who?"

He shouted, and Chu Ningning next door was also surprised. Then he realized that the ink was really sleeping on the wall, so close to his own, that this low and hoarse voice seemed to be shouting on his pillow. of.

"..." Chu nightning could not help but pinch the fingers, and opened a pair of phoenix eyes in the dark.

"I, Xue Meng." The man outside said, "My mother said that she put me and your luggage together, you open the door, really, wait for a shower."

Eavesdropping is of course not a good thing, but Chu night would rather think that he did not eavesdrop. The board was too thin, and the room was too poorly sounded. It was Xue Meng’s too loud.

In short, he should not listen.

Chu Xianning thought this way, wrapped in a quilt and leaned against the wall.

The buzz of the bed came from the next door. After a while the door opened, and Xue Meng’s voice rang again: “Hey, how have you slept? So early?”

"I am sleepy." The ink burned a little embarrassed. "Hurry, sleep half is awakened by you, take your clothes and walk around."

"Why are you so anxious?" Xue Meng paused, and the voice brought a trace of suspiciousness. "So early, I dropped the door bolt, and I was bored in it. I told you two words and I was in a hurry. You should not It will be..."

what are you doing?

In the late night, Chu’s eyes widened, and he unconsciously thought of rubbing the edge of the lotus pond with the burnt limbs. The young man was too hot and high-spirited, and seemed to be able to take human life when he was ready to go.

A young man in his early twenties, like him, does not practice the abstinence, how many boiling magma will be hidden in his body? How long does it take to vent once? These Chu nights are all unknown, he has been ignorant for a long time, he does not understand.

Now, he wants to know a little, but it hurts his face and can't let go of his pride.

He is such a proud person, who can he ask this kind of question? I can't just pull a disciple and say, "Sorry, harassment, I want to ask the ordinary adult man, should I solve it in a few days?"

... I think that I feel perverted to be indescribable.

Of course, there is such a book related to double love and love in the life and death, but to borrow each book, you need to register and create a book. Chu nightning can't imagine the following words appear on the borrowing book:

"On the couch, the biography", "Desire of the sea"

Borrowing people, Yu Heng elder Chu late Ning.

... killed him.

The author has something to say: today has a bib

"Not a koi is the king of squid", the cat's version of the summer version of the wife, knocking cute ~~~ and the tail hahaha wants the sun he ~Q version Shizun and his mech nanny, mech people will cook Healing will also take a bath, Yuheng produced quality is guaranteed, Zhu Jun does not consider a dozen 23333 and the previous chapters of the fight master, this picture is really cool, can feel the wind flowing through the screen, feeling The sword of the teacher will be waved in the next moment! Really tap like ~ thank you wife ~~

"Shumu" wife's master swords! The color version, after the finish, the master's dignity is still there, but the Qingzheng ethos is more vivid, and there is majesty between the eyebrows, but still can't stop me from thinking about the sun. Willn't it be violently smashed by the dog?) The color matching feels very comfortable~~ There is a spring atmosphere! Hey~ Thank you, wife~~

The small theater "You know, the sexual transfer to the king's feedback on the blind man Xue Mengmeng"

Ms. Mo Weiyu: Holding the day, I feel that the matchmaker’s brain is broken. I don’t know about the relationship between the characters before the blind date. I am sitting in the cafe and drinking coffee. As a result, I see that the person who came in is my cousin, Nima. Is the rich and handsome in the mouth of the matchmaker? Hey, hahaha, sorry, my coffee sprayed him.

Miss Shi Jie, Miss: I gave him a WeChat out of courtesy, but I think I should not take the initiative to talk to him. In fact, I don’t particularly care about the height of the boy, but he is wearing a shoe that is obviously taller and more upright. I told him that his net height is one meter eight. I feel a little unacceptable... In fact, he tells the truth, I will not laugh at him. Hey, short is not a problem, but at least it must be sincere.

Miss Nan Gongsi: The old lady is a dog! ! ! After a long day, I can finally spit it out! What kind of ghost do I rely on? I just introduced the family situation in a courtesy manner. I told him that my father is the governor of Nangong. He told me to beware of fighting corruption and promoting honesty. I told him that my family opened the factory. He told me that he had recently cracked down on rectification... In the end, I didn't know to talk to him. I was afraid of cold spots. I was thinking about talking to him about my dog. As a result, he pointed to my family's Samoyed and said to me: "This Chihuahua is very beautiful in your family. "Chihuahua your head! If you don't know animals, just shut up and don't talk! It’s hard to end this blind date, add a WeChat, and I will forget about it. result! Guess what? I sent a circle of friends to the sun, and he came to comment on me to let me save energy and reduce emissions, saying that environmental girls are the most beautiful, knocking your grandmother! I haven't sent our Weihai Fortress yet! Was he asked to comment on me: "The most beautiful girl / gun girl?" Tossed, the bar is fine, does not explain.

Miss Ye Xiexi:

It looks a bit poor, but people are fine. I don't mind going to eat him for 16 yuan. Anyway, if I don't have enough, I can ask him to go to the hotel opened by our company to have a buffet. Remember to write it on my account. Ok, two people are together. In fact, it doesn't matter who spends more money.

...but I can't stand him diss the big lady of our boss.

Drag black.

Miss Chu Yu Ning:

If I don’t look at the dessert that I haven’t finished eating at a table, when I say “My mother doesn’t like the woman on the eye”, I should leave it. Then

I thought about it, why bother and the idiot, I still finished the last strawberry milk cake and then go...

Miss Mei Hanxue:

Emmmmm, this little brother is a bit familiar, have I slept on him?

Forget it, there are too many people who have slept, and I have not impressed me for the second time. Life is too short, and I can't step into the stomach. what? Say I am too swaying? Yeah, how do you know, the grouping of my WeChat circle of friends is like this: 10cm to make fun of me, 15cm to play, 20cm to play, oh right, there is a group of "not a vulgar, amazing" I am going to marry him to this person, but I have never encountered it before, oh, I am waiting for nothing, waiting for nothing.

Xue Meng: "I will endure the rest of the people. In the end, Ms. Mei, I have trouble telling you how long it is to say 20cm. 15cm is already excellent and good, 20cm are you dreaming?"

Don't burn: "...cough, there are still some, like me..."

Xue Meng: "???"

Chapter 151

I was thinking about it, and I heard the next door burning low: "Where to see you, nothing, take your clothes and roll."

Xue Meng stunned: "I see where you are?"

Ink burning: "..."

Xue Meng stared at his cousin's face for a long time, suddenly pondering the taste, not to be confused, said: "Think of what is messy! I want to say, you closed the door and locked, it should not I would like to have a lot of people in the shower room. I want to take a shower in the room myself. You are full of thoughts! I also lean on my head!"

Chu nighting in the next room was black and black.

Full of thoughts...

Xue Meng vomited heavily, slammed the ink up and down, and then said: "I didn't think of the code. You said this is to mention me, you just can't really be -"

"... aren't you taking a shower? So much!"

"No, I suddenly think that you are very suspicious." Seeing each other's tone is so bad, with a star fire in his black eyes, Xue Meng feels more and more wrong. "You just ran into the green building when you were weak." Walking around, but you don’t even have a little romantic affair. How suddenly did you turn your temper?"

"..." The burning of the ink seems to be somewhat silent. Chu Yuening is waiting in this silence. He actually wants to know how the ink will answer.

The longer he is silent, the more anxious he is. Why not snoring? awkward? regret? still is……

"Do you really want to know?"

The ink burned open, and the sound was angered.

Actually, there is still face anger.

Chu night Ning is amazed in his heart. He thinks Xue Meng is quite reasonable. There is no reason why you are not happy because people have dug your old one.

When the last one didn’t have time to finish, I heard the ink burned and said, “I’m tired, I’m tired, I feel boring. Ok, you can roll.”

Chu nightning: "....."

Xue Meng: "....."

After a long death, Xue Meng broke out a roar that the entire inn would have heard: "Mini rain, you are a shameless dog thing! Stinky!!"

"Come on, what do you say, go out, don't bother me to sleep."

"Don't touch me! Hate!"

"Where am I hate?"

"You, you--" Xue Meng said, a handsome face with a red face, he originally wanted to find uncomfortable with the ink burning, and the result was that he was expected to be burnt and shamelessly rebellious. I remembered that I was twenty years old. At this age, Nangong Temple and the first beauty in the realm of the real world became pro. The four sons of Jiangdongtang were already the shackles of three children, and the Kunlun stepping snow palace that Mei Han Xue...

Mei Hanxue has not died of flowering disease.

It seems that only himself is still a child without emotion, Xue Meng feels very wrong.

He didn't grieve because of his lasciviousness. He was actually not good at all, but he felt that he was burned down in this respect. He had ten streets and eight streets, so he was very angry. If you don't mention it, if you are ashamed of it, then Xue Meng's mentality will probably be another kind, but the smoldering of a stunned face will be thrown impatiently.

"It's tired, it's enough."

Xiao Xue’s master felt that he could not bear it, and his self-esteem was hit.

He "you and you", you have been for a long time, and finally angryly sighed with ink: "It is annoying anyway, you are not a person!"

Said to slam the door and go.

Chu nightning is also a bit stunned, although he is calmer than Xue Meng after all, he heard that the burning of the ink is the heart of bullying Xue Meng, but the heart can not help but the tide of the river, can not be calm for a long time.

The word next door is too rude, and the low-drinking scorpion is like a male lion with a tangled breath in the jungle. The low roar and rough words are combined into one, like a thick hot tongs fire stick. Breaking into his heart violently.

Chu night Ning throat swayed, his eyes were gloomy and flashing.

Before the ink burned, it was because the brothel broke through the ring. Of course, he knew that the ink was not as pure as Xue Meng. It was just the previous ink burning. It was not enough to make a sigh of relief. He couldn’t help but ponder and paint it in his mind. Scene.

But at this moment, the old things are revisited, and Chu Ningning couldn’t help but think that the sturdy body that he had seen, hot, smooth, smokey and smoldering, had been with those charming, white, tender and delicate teenagers. I was lingering and swayed in the little white face of the fine skin.

He felt that he was burning again in anger, and his heart was like a feather.

In such anger and eagerness, Chu Xinning’s eyes are slightly reddish, and in the dark, the color of a sea otter...

Xue Meng went and returned.

"Open the door!"

"……what happened again?"

"Let’s quarrel with you! My clothes!"

"Take it on the table."

"Hey!" Xue Meng walked away with his clothes.

This time it was quiet, Chu nighting heard the heavy footsteps, and then the bed was snarling. He really heard the man next door lying back on the bed, he even seemed to feel The swaying of the bed supports the hot shape of the mountains.

He felt very thirsty and thought of getting a glass of water.

But he heard the ink lie down. He knew that he was getting up. That person could certainly hear the movement here, so he couldn't move, like a piece of Danxia rock with a cold and cold appearance.

Next door, the ink burning is actually a little uneasy.

The man who wants dissatisfaction always looks violent. Xue Meng has to pick this time to disturb him. One to two, there is no control, and the one who has not been ashamed of it, I don’t know if Chu Jingning heard it.

If you didn't sleep, you must have heard it...

He lay in bed, the more he wanted to regret, turned back and forth, Chu night Ning also listened to his screaming sounds in a place separated by a wall, sharing his anxiety.

After a while, Chu Xiaoning heard a low-pitched sound: "Master..."

"!"

After all, the smoldering of the smoldering was awkward and unbearable. He couldn’t help his heart, and he tried to call Chu’s late night to see if there was any reaction from Chu’s late night.

"Master, are you sleeping?"

"..."

"Can you hear it?"

Chu night, like a drum, feels that his heart is too loud, very embarrassing, so the quilt is quietly pulled over the head, trying to use a layer of quilt to cover the heartbeat that the other party could not hear.

"Master respect..."

But this quilt, the sound of ink burning is close at hand, as if they were lying on a bed, as long as the night of the night, when you open the bedding, you can see the handsome face and the naked chest, looking sideways With him, the bright, bright eyes, like a wolf-like tiger, stared at him eagerly, and swallowed him with blood.

"Can you hear me?"

When Chu Ning made up his mind and did not hear it, he naturally knew that the smoldering was so asking, he hoped that he did not hear.

Otherwise, they will meet each other tomorrow morning.

The other party screamed at him a few times, and saw that there was no movement in the night, and he sighed softly. The ink burned really thought that Chu night was asleep, and let go of his heart, but he felt a little regret.

He wants to let him know how to marry him.

But Chu would rather ignore it, he could only rub the thin wallboard that blocked the two people. First, the rough fingers rubbed the past, closed his eyes, as if he was touching the chest of the night, and then the hot lips. Paste it, gently whisper, like the lips of Chu Yunning in the proverb.

The ink burned: "Don't bother... I only want you..."

But this sound is too light, Chu nightning did not hear, he wrapped himself in the bedding, his face and heart are very hot, after a while, he heard the slamming sound of the next bed, seems to be lying The people above were very anxious and turned up angrily.

He said: "Fuck!"

Chu night Ning suddenly had an animal-like sensitivity, and he predicted that he might hear something. He felt that his hair was upside down for a moment and he wanted to block his ears. But just the tip of the finger moved and it hangs down.

He squinted in the quilt, after a while, he heard...

He heard the low-spirited breath outside the quilt, which was rhythmic, violent and fierce. Chu’s arm had a goose bump in his arm. In such a voice, he felt that the spine was numb and soft. .

The breath of breath is so sexy, so sinful, squatting in the throat, depressed and unrestrained, he heard this voice, what else does not understand.

Chu night Ning closed his eyes, he felt uncomfortable, his lips slightly open, and some trembling.

He thought of dreams of being wet many times. In his dreams, he saw all the bodies burned and honest. So he closed his eyes, but he clearly imagined the scene outside the quilt. He felt that the ink was burning beside him, stretching his strong and strong body lying on his back, his black eyes burning, his faint luster...

(The car is driving, moving the collar)

After the release, the front of the eyes was a blur, Chu nightning did not know how he would break into the thick love network, he did not have the strength, kneeling on the quilt, his eyes blurred, gasping low.

He is rejecting desire.

But I am willing to sink into love.

When desire and love are intertwined, * seems to become less acceptable. Therefore, the venting of Yuliang Village, which was self-defeating, finally became no longer the same. He still felt ashamed, but the shame was ruined by the bottom of his heart and was swallowed up by comfort and excitement.

Suddenly, I was so eager, eager for the disappearance of the wooden wall, and the same sweaty ink burned through, undulating hot chest, sticking to his back, gasping, kissing his shoulder, neck.

Chu night, Ning, but lying down, he thought, if this is the case, then all this is complete.

Then he will be enough.

The next day, the ink ignited early.

Here is Linyi, the taste of the dishes is not suitable for eating, and there is no light dish in the inn. So he went to the West City to buy some ingredients and prepared to borrow some kitchen to cook some things for the teacher.

There are some men chasing people in this world, and thousands of tricks can be made out. It’s not an exaggeration for a full meal, but as long as you can’t catch it, you can turn your hands and turn around. There are so many beautiful people in the world. It’s impossible to spend more than half a thought on the subject.

But the ink burns differently.

He chased the teacher and spent two lifetimes.

Now that I understand my own mind, I also know that I can never have more friendships with the masters and apprentices in my life, but he is still willing and willing to be better than Chu.

Knowing that it can't be done, this point, after his death, he has not changed.

"The son, come out to buy food so early, look at this radish, buy a little go? You can be watery."

"The son, the jewelry here, the handkerchief necklace, the head flower, whatever, the craft is good."

"Come on, take a look, all kinds of spiritual stones, tempered weapons are essential, come and come -"

The ink burned originally intended to buy the food and left, but he took a basket full of Dangdang, passed through a grocery store, and saw a pile of beautiful small pieces on the table. His gaze was attracted by one of the things, and he unknowingly walked over and stopped at the counter.

There was a man standing there, wearing a hood, and looking at the dazzling array of merchants.

The man raised his hand, under the black sleeves, revealing a very pale, extremely delicate and beautiful five fingers, because these five squirrels like fingers, ink burned to notice this person.

He looked at his body and thought it was a man, but he saw the hand and felt like a woman.

So he turned his head and looked at the person's face with some curiosity, but only saw the black gauze covering, only revealing a pair of cold and cold eyes, and the eyes were also covered in the shadow of the big cap of the cloak, the sly is not so clear. .

The two looked at each other and the ink burned habitually at him.

The man withdrew his hand, which was originally intended to touch a piece of Lingshi before the booth. The smoldering light saw his thumb wearing a ring.

Silver snake pattern, scales are sturdy.

Suddenly, he felt that the serpentine on the ring was familiar. When he looked at it again, the man had already taken his hand back into the wide sleeve. He did not salty and glanced at the ink, and then turned away and left. .

"It's a weird..." Mo-burned muttered. However, the Confucian monk is overjoyed, and the wedding posts are widely distributed. Recently, it is true that some strange characters are going to Linyi. This kind of body is covered by the cloak, but it is actually nothing.

At this time, the ink burned and heard the back door of the small shop ringing, the curtains picked up, and the proprietress came out from inside.

The ink burned the black man's things behind him, smiled and pointed to one of the same spirits, and asked: "The boss, this, how to sell?"

Chapter 152

The proprietress just released the door bolt and yawned and lazily stretched out to prepare for business. She was sleepy, suddenly seeing the bright morning light, a tall and handsome man stood at the door of her shop, obviously a sturdy, straight and loose posture, should be equipped with a sword, a knife, walked coldly through the market No one is jealous.

But this handsome man, smiled and smiled, the cheek vortex was light, and the eyelashes were thick and gentle.

In the arms, still holding a bamboo basket, the basket is not a spiritual stone, not a magic scroll, but a basket of fresh fruits and vegetables, apple red, radish white fat, lettuce green onions and green leaves to explore, the top of the dew crystal drops.

Lined with his handsome face.

The boss yawned half of the yawn and froze like this, staring at the scene of the blood and tenderness in front of her eyes, squinting, and returning to God for a long time.

"The boss wife?"

"Hey, what does Xianjun want?"

"Just this." Ink burned a pair of light red spar pendants, "How to sell?"

"The son has a good eye. This pair of pendants is made of a good dragon blood crystal. It was carved by the craftsmen of Kunlun Palace. Although the materials are not expensive, the sinkers themselves are very strange. Dragon blood crystals, the son must know, will The wearer's body temperature rises and turns red..."

The proprietress said that she smiled here; "Since Xianjun is a pair, it should be a one who wants to be with the double repairer? I don't know which Xiangu is so blessed and can climb you. When you buy a pendant, you can't lose it. Go back and wear it. When you double-build it, you can have fun."

The original burning of the sinker, I only think that the dragon blood crystal is a good good product for warming the cold body. The night of the night is rather cold, and it is better to wear the cold.

But listening to the boss said, the heart can not help but move, thinking of the night of the night, the feeling of the pendant is fascinating, the pendant is bright red because of the owner's high body temperature, like the * beads on the tip of the knife.

He coughed softly: "Let's do this, wrap it for me."

In order not to let Chu Xi Ning feel strange, the ink burned Xue Meng, Xue Zhengyi and Mrs. Wang also bought a gift. After returning to the inn, he put down the miscellaneous things, and found the wrapped dragon blood from the clothes. The small paper bag of the stone, the drop-shaped pendant lying on the head has become blushing because of his body temperature, he picked one left and the other hung around his neck...

After doing this, he finished the whole coat and made sure that the sinker would not be exposed, and then picked up the rest and repacked it.

He touched his mouth and felt that his heart beat a little faster. The ridiculous things of the past life have been experienced. Now, for the sake of this intimacy hidden under the clothes, he can’t help but feel surprised.

"Give me?"

When eating, Xue Meng took the ink spike to his sword, revealing a ghostly expression.

"What do you give me this? You should not be for yesterday, would you like to apologize to me?"

When I mentioned the last night, the ink burned because I didn’t know that Chu Ning was awake at the time, and it was quite calm, and it didn’t move at all.

However, Chu Xiaoning was a little bit uncomfortable. He picked up the tea cup in front of him, his throat twitching, and concealed a few mouthfuls of herbal tea, which only picked up the look on his face.

Ink burning and Xue Meng smiled: "What do you think, you are the first to provoke me. This is what I think is good-looking, I just bought it and gave it to you."

He paused and said: "It's rare to come out together, always buy something. I bought it for Master and my uncle. They are all little things, not worth a few dollars."

"Do we have it too?" Mrs. Wang looked surprised.

"The aunt's box is the agarwood powder box, and the uncle's is the folding fan pendant." The ink burned, presented a gift, and finally gave the dragon blood spar to Chu Yuning. "There is this, it is the master."

"……what?"

"A pendant." The palm of the hand is hot and hot, and some are sweaty. "Dragon blood spar can drive the cold. Linyi is rich in this kind of stone, and buy it to warm the body."

Chu Yuning took over, this stone is not expensive, but it is very useful. He said: "Thank you."

"Don't thank, the teacher is wearing a donkey?"

Chu nightning looked at the ink, but did not see the intimate and awkward selfishness of the ink, naturally put it in the neck. The light red spar glowed brightly, Xue Meng groaned, and couldn't help but say: "Good-looking, this is good, better than my sword spike. Where did you buy it? I also want to get a wearer."

Ink burning: "No, there is only one on the whole stall. I still want it, I can't buy it."

Xue Meng was disappointed, picked up his own sword and looked at it, and turned his head to look at the dragon blood spar between the night of Ning, and muttered: "...I don't believe it, anyway, this thing is more, wait until now. Confucianism, I am going to ask Nangong, he must be a lot, piled up like a mountain..."

I didn’t care about him, but I took advantage of Chu’s late night. When I saw the night, I put on the pendant, but I didn’t put the meat in it. Instead, I hung it outside the clothes. I couldn’t help but feel anxious. I for a while, I couldn’t hold back. Said: "Master, this pendant is not hanging outside."

"Ok?"

"It's going to be inside you," he said, looking around and trying to help Chu Yuning to collect the sinker. He was too close, and he breathed the ear of Chu-Ning's ear. Late Ning pushed away.

Chu night, low-lying, low-pitched, his face is very cold, but the ink burned this time carefully, he saw Chu Yuning's ear edge with a layer of jellyfish red, both pitiful and cute, let people I couldn't help but want to kiss me, put the trembling petals in my mouth and suck.

The ink burned a little surprised, he was thinking, why did Chu nightning blush?

I don’t seem to have done anything too much. If it is to help him play with the pendant, it’s not awkward...

Think about it carefully, think of the sentence just said.

"It's going to be inside you."

The ink burned the whiskers and the face rose red. If his skin is much darker than the night, he is afraid that it will be more obvious than the late night.

He swears that he only said this sentence, really did not want a pun...

He immediately felt wrong, and he did not think about it. He would like to be so arrogant.

The ink burns and is puzzling. Until Chu night, with his ears in his ears, his face sullen, and he put the pendant into the plaque without saying a word, he did not think of it.

Last night, a three-finger wide wooden wall made Teng Xianjun miss too many wonderful things. He missed the spring and the green, and missed a late night with a * flesh and a sorrowful feeling. He didn't know anything about what happened on the bed between the walls, so he certainly wouldn't understand that at this moment, Chu Ning was still wrapped in the muddy yesterday, swaying for love and shaming for love. , sensitive to * desires.

Because of that dream, because of the hot and cold bed in his dreams, because of the thought that he did not want to be discovered, he would be uncharacteristic and think of this simple and simple sentence.

Chu Xiaoning looked up at him and felt that his heart was a little hot. Yesterday’s evil fire still did not completely fade away. He reached out -

The girders of the teapot were held by the ink.

"Less drink a little, this tea is cold and hurts the stomach."

"..." Chu night quietly silent, looking at him, his hand still stretched out, indicating that he wanted to drink herbal tea.

"I am going to give you a cup of hot."

"No need to……"

But the ink burned has gone to the shopkeeper. After a while, he took a pot of freshly brewed hot tea and poured a cup to Chu Yuning: "Master drink this."

"Yeah, Yuheng, you drink hot tea, cold is not good, really hurts."

Chu night, no way, can only take the cup of hot tea, blowing, but did not drink, put it at hand.

His heart is already very hot.

When it heats up again, he is afraid that the last layer of thin ice in his eyes will also be destroyed. When the boundless spring water overflows, he will look up and stare at him, and he will no longer be able to hide his thoughts.

Then where is the face of his Beidou Xianzun?

The group used it too early. When preparing to leave the store, a group of people came in outside.

The head of the cloak with a light blue grass and a thick cloak, covering his face, looked very low-key and would not be noticed in the crowd, but he entered the inn and saw Xue Zhengyi, but took the initiative to come over. The rules and regulations are a must.

"Shu Bo is good."

"you are……"

The man saw the cloak hat, Xue Meng saw, "ah", and stepped back, Xue Zhengyi smiled: "Oh, is this not snow?"

Mei Hanxue raised his face. His skin was white and high in nose, his eyebrows were distinct, and his throat was deep. There was a kind of handsome and beautiful beauty that was clearly different from everyone. Moreover, this person's skin is very good, even though the house is dim, it still emits a faint glare, perhaps because he grew up in the cold and cold Kunlun snow. His eyebrows are soaked with frost and snow, which is both clear and transparent. Lonely high.

All in all, looking at his temperament, no one believes that he is the flower of the world, the plum blossoms.

"There is something in the palace. I came here today. I didn't expect to meet Xue's uncle here." Mei Hanxue was too cold, although he smiled politely, his eyes were light, and he was cool. Qi, "Small scorpion will come to ask my uncle and my aunt."

"It’s very good, very good, oh, it’s good if you have such a courtesy."

Unexpectedly, Xue Meng listened to this sentence, but he was not happy. He kept his eyes on the back and launched a small poison arrow to Mei Hanxue. One was more evil than a poke.

He thought, this grandson of Mei Hanxue! A set of people in front of the set! Obviously, it was a stinking rogue that was not eaten by men and women. When I first reached out to touch his waist in Taohuayuan, now standing in front of the elders, but a serious and desperate desire to be like a sorghum, this guy can really play!

Mei Hanxue did not even look at his childhood playmate, only his eyebrows and eyes were narrow, and even the opening and closing of his lips was not large. He was extremely disciplined: "The uncle said, laughing, Xue Gongzi’s pride is Lingshan. The first leader of the conference, naturally, he has something extraordinary."

"Yeah, hey, this guy is my defeat?"

"Menger..." Mrs. Wang was quite embarrassed, and reached out to pull Xuemeng. This violent phoenix was finally screaming, but she still braved the fire in her nostrils.

Mei Hanxue said: "Is the uncle going to the Confucian Gate?"

"The time is almost the same. It doesn't matter if I used to go earlier. Anyway, the most bad thing about Nangong Liu is the room. He doesn't say that one month before and after the wedding, is there a whole city of Confucianism to give guests a foot?" Xue Zhengyi Laughing, "Let's go through it first, so that the younger generations can get more contact with each other."

Speaking of Xue Meng, the meaning of the words is to give Xue Meng to find a daughter-in-law.

Xue Meng: "..."

"Does snow not go directly to the Confucianism Gate?"

"The palace owner has explained some things and wants to buy a lot of Lingshi back, so I will stay in the vicinity of Yucheng for a few more days, and I will have time to go before the big day."

Xue Meng whispered: "You are obviously afraid that you have passed away. The girls who are disappointed by you in the famous school are playing with you and playing you as a dog."

The ink burns the tip of the ear and smiles: "What do you say about Meng Meng? What dog?"

"..."

Xue Meng snorted and hugged his arms: "Nothing, I am thinking of the law."

"Oh, what you are afraid of is the method of folding the plum."

"You talk again!!"

Mei Hanxue listened to them and you said one sentence, and finally looked at them. Xue Meng’s eyes were on him, and suddenly he was slightly stunned.

He felt that something was wrong. This plum was strangely snowy. He obviously saw him in Taohuayuan last time. The grandson’s eyes were filled with peach blossoms. The eyes were like laughing when they were angry.

But in front of this person, don't talk about peach blossoms in the eyes, not even the silk waves, the whole is cool, neat, abstinence, these eyes, as if laughing, are angry.

Xue Meng blinked, and for a moment, when he thought of the Battle of the Sky, Mei Xuexue took the snow palace disciples to help, and in front of everyone, it was also a human-like dog, and could not help but be furious. How can this guy play like this? Why are you doing this? It’s a human face! Sven scum!

"Hey, Menger, where are you going?"

"The room is too stuffy! I am going outside to wait for you, talk about you and come out again!" Xue Meng said, striding to the door, a curtain, anger went out, the arrogant son is really wronged.

He was puzzled, and the house was full of scum smell. How did he get rid of him except him?

Good luck!

Gas is returning to the air, the road still has to catch up.

After bidding farewell to Mei Hanxue, they went from the city to the city, and spent more than half an hour, finally came to the world's first big school - Linyi Confucianism.

From the name, you can understand that the Confucianism is based on Linyi. In this city, there are 72 large and small ancestral temples. Because the mansion is too big, from the front door to the back door, you need a meal for horse riding. Time, so these houses are simply called "City". The 72 cities of Confucianism have their own functions, and the system is clearly defined. . Rao is Xue Meng, who is disgusted with the upper bounds in the bones. When he stood at the gate of the city, he could not help but shake.

Tian Huanggui gnome Fengmen.

This statement is really true.

They came to the main city, which is the largest city of the Confucianism Gate. The white wall is covered with tiles. It is connected to the sky, the four corners of the building, and the north and southwest sides are surrounded by stars and stone. The main city gate is painted red and stretched. The car and the road that came out were five feet wide, and the long road that looked at the end of the road was covered with the finest refining stones. Nothing was needed to bring this kind of stone, just stand on the head and gather the spirit. Force, although not a lot of collection, but the truth of gathering sand into a tower everyone knows, so each of these stones can be sold for more than a thousand dollars.

Xue Zhengyi sighed: "It’s good to have money..."

Mrs. Wang laughed: "Would you like to have a refining road in the dead?"

"No, I have a square in each village in the Xiujian area. This stone is full of spirits. Generally, the little devils are afraid to come close. If you can shop one in each village, you will encounter the demon, and our disciples can’t catch up. At that time, I can hide and hide." Xue Zheng squatted, licking his fingers and calculating his mind, shook his head. "It's a pity that I can't afford it."

Xue Meng listened and sighed: "The sorrow of death, oh, a little poor."

"Yeah." Xue Zhengyi nodded like a garlic. "I also practiced the same way. I don't know where the Confucian Gate came so much."

At this time, Chu Evening, who had never heard anything, spoke: "The Lord knows that the ordinary disciples of the Confucianism Gate are demonized, how much is the two people entrusted?"

"I didn't ask about it, how much?"

Chu nightning extended four fingers.

"Four hundred silver?" Xue Zhengyi widened his eyes. "So expensive?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Four thousand gold."

"....."

"The wealthy merchants in the upper bounds are many, and it is easy for the Confucianism to come to the money. To honor the Lord’s entrustment of 80 silver, how can they catch up with them? What's more, sometimes the Lord does not take the text." Said, his eyes are very soft, "Go, go to the city."

The sects of the sects are often very disciplined. The ceremonial department of the Confucianism Gates waited at the gates of the city for these days. Although they smiled at everyone, what kind of guests came, how much they were, but the heart was clear.

After a small repair of a FIT, they will accompany them to visit and then take them to their homes. Some small sects of status will be led to see the elders of the Lord, and will be received by the elders.

As for the shackles of the top ten sects, the Confucianism is not on the shelf, and they are asked to rest in the warm room. When the Confucian door is in the middle of the house, they will come to the warmth to meet the VIPs.

In the warm pavilion, there is a strong scent of dragon scent, and the soft carpet can be almost trapped in half a foot. The pavilion is filled with delicate camellia, eight different colors of the same plant, that is called the Eight Immortals crossing the sea, the white petals are a little bit Blushing, it is wrapped in red makeup, the petals are stained with red veins, it is leaning on the bar, these Xue Zhengxi do not understand, but Mrs. Wang understands that each of the books here is absolutely Good top grade.

Xue Meng did not understand, see one of the white mountain tea open charm, soft petal body with a pair of black star spots, feel fun, reach out and touch.

Chu nightning said: "Don't move."

"why?"

Chu nightning did not speak, just shook his head, and Mrs. Wang sighed and said: "The treasures are charming, so one can sell 10,000 gold."

"..." Xue Meng's face was ironed and the hand was retracted, and then sat in the cushioned chair.

He thought of the ranking book he had seen in the book stall. At that time, he was angry because he did not have himself in the top 100 young people in the realm of comprehension. At the moment, he felt that the book would not deceive him.

On his forehead, he printed a * word:

poor.

But then again, the book doesn't know where to go. He hasn't had time to finish it, he lost it...

After a while, the curtains of the red coral freshwater pearls creaked, and the two delicate and graceful women’s dresses, the snowy scented clothes of the Confucianist door, floated to the left and right, and picked up the bead curtain. Coveted and knees, the sound is like a sputum.

"The head is coming to Xianjun."

The voice fell, a 40-year-old man smiled and stepped into the door. He looked plain, some books were angry, it was an ordinary appearance that was thrown into the pile of people and immediately drowned. In addition to the very white birth, there seems to be nothing. A remarkable place.

But as soon as he spoke, the ink that sat there drinking tea almost didn't spray the tea out—

"Oh, Xuezhangmen, Xuezhangmen, the district hopes the stars, the moon, every day, I hope that you can come to the Confucianism Gate earlier, you see, you are here, heroic, imposing, heroes of the world, Who can get along! It’s so good, the house is full of enthusiasm! Good! Good! Good!”

Xue Meng: "....."

Ink burning: "....."

In the face of the first party in the world, facing the top ten deaths of the top ten sects, it was spared no effort, big awards, three consecutive "good!", a louder than a loud, a louder than a loud.

He is so eager to praise Xue Zhengxuan, Xue Zhengyi is of course very useful, smiled and said: "Where, the head of Nangong is really polite."

"It's not polite, the district is sincerely envious of Xue Zhangmen, Xuezhangmen generation Yingjie, prestige, preaching, and then looking at the district, people are not interested in middle-aged, it is a dead body, empty fat, really self-proclaimed Not as good as it is."

Nan Gongliu said that the hot entanglement, Xue Zhengyi originally wanted to marry, but the peacock tail could not hold back, and some unfolded: "Don't dare to be, don't dare to be, haha, hahahaha, the head of Nangong is too modest."

In the past, when the ink burned, he did not deal with Nangong Liu. When the Turu Fengmen, the man quickly ran away. The ink was too lazy to pay attention to such a miscellaneous fish, and he did not die in the end. I still escaped and went out to hide my name for the rest of my life.

For the first time in his life, he was so close to Nangong Liu, but when he looked at his tone, he didn't like it, and he lowered his voice: "It turns out that the head of the world's first faction is wonderful."

Xue Meng heard it, and it was hard to agree with him. He whispered: "Yes, you see him open his mouth. It is really a tongue and a lotus flower. I can’t smell the flowers in the house. Oh, only Nangong Liu The sweetness of the mouth."

Nangong Liu boasted the old, and boasted.

"Hey, this is not the pride of the sky, Xiao Xuegongzi?"

The poor and the young master Xue Meng, people are not short.

He did not salty and arched his hand: "The head of the Nangong."

"It’s a hero, a young boy, handsome! Awesome! Look at this nose, this eyes, oh, spirit! Sure enough, the tiger father has no dogs!"

Xue Meng: "....."

Nangong Liu Huitou said to Xue Zhengyi: "Xue brother, the district is really smashing you, look, look at today, which son has a half-inch spirit of Ling Lang! To say me, a big comprehension, so many young leaders If the lang is called the second, then no one can call the first!"

Xue Meng was still standing, and he hated him, but Nan Gongliu did not seem to see the alienation of Xue Meng’s face. He sang a basket of enthusiasm and sighed his brain to Xue Meng, and took a good little Xue Gongzi. They all fainted, and in the end they even showed a smile.

When he whispered again to talk with the ink, he said: "Cough, this Nangong head, although exaggerated, but it is a big truth."

"What is the truth?" The ink burned funny and squinted at him. "You say that you are the second in the world, no one dares to call the first?"

"What's wrong, I am the Lingshan Conference..."

"That is the game. Many of the scattered trainings are not involved. Do you think that Yingjie in the world can really compete in that small stadium?"

"....." Xue Meng's face turned red. After a while, he did not hesitate. "Forget it, know that you envy me."

If it is young, the ink will inevitably have to laugh at him again, but now that the words are on the lips, I feel that Xue Meng is arrogant and narcissistic about this temper, and there is something to fight for, so he nodded and smiled: "Well, envy you, you are the best."

However, when I looked up at Nangong Liu, the smile at the bottom of my eyes was absorbed.

There are many kinds of wicked people in this world. Some people can’t go wrong, sin can go through the sky, and all the world can’t wait for it, and it’s quick after killing.

But some people, that can be awesome, they rely on the three-inch tongue, the ability to slap the horse, clearly rotten into the bones, but not despised by everyone.

The past life is the first kind of person, but what he hates most is not the good people in the world who are against him. He does not hate Mei Xuexue, does not hate Xue Meng, and he even admire Ye Yexi Shi, poor leaves forget.

He hates Nangong Liu most, and as long as there is a point to use, he will lie on the ground and lick the acne.

Damn, awkward.

Since the Nangong Liujin came, Chu Yuening has been standing by the window, watching the Jingfu door house outside neat and magnificent.

The high place was in a hurry, and the soft curtains covered by the window blew for a while. Chu night was standing in the raft, and the face of Nangong Liu’s face was so hot that he was condensed and quickly packed up and walked toward the window. go with.

"Chu Zongshi..."

Chu Xiaoning did not look at him, and looked faint. He said: "The head of Nangong, between you and me, is known to know the bottom."

The soft scent of spring water was moved to his face by the east wind, causing him to be impatient. He raised his hand and slammed against the annoying thing, faintly said: "You don't have to Greetings."

Nangong Liu smiled and said: "There is no other meaning in the district. I thought that I haven’t met with the master for many years. I would like to greet him. That’s all. Master, why should you reject people thousands of miles away?”

"I came to Nangong." Chu Yuening still did not turn his head. "Not for you."

"When you see you, you will be very happy. Although you didn't accept him as a disciple, you have an enlightenment for him. After you leave, he often tells me to miss you."

"..."

Seeing that Chu Ning finally did not say anything, Nan Gong Liu said: "Zong Shi, when you are in the shadow of the butterfly, you go to justice and make the world admire. Later, you got the master of sin and saved, returning to Yuanyang, but you must still Didn't recover? Confucianism has specially prepared twenty of the best souls for you, for the world's fairy, to express your heart to the master, and also ask the master to accept -"

"Nan Gong Liu."

Chu Xiaoning finally looked back at him, but the name in his mouth has changed. He withdrew his arm against the scented yarn and turned around, and the figure seemed to melt into the vast sky.

He is like a flame, his eyes are cold and frosty, his eyes are extremely gloomy.

"Don't leave me under the heights, a Confucian door in the district, how can I thank the world's fairy? Who gave you the face."

"..." Nangong Liuzui Jiao pumped, and the face laughed and finally did not fall, half smiled. "You see why this is why..."

Xue Zhengyi knows that the relationship between Chu and Ningliu is not good, and the entire comprehension community is clear. When Chu Xiening was fifteen years old, Nangong Liu worshipped him as a guest, good and good, and served like God, but In a few years, Chu night Ning suddenly turned to the face of the Confucianism Hall and Nangong Liu. Two people, you said a word, what is the "Golden Pool", "Shenwu", "the requirements of the bottom of the lake" and "moral" "Long illness", "Mrs." Anyway, people are also confused.

But everyone knows that Chu Yuening was finally furious and took the case.

"He was under Lu Wanjin at that time. He had more than a thousand pieces of Lingshi Lingfu every month, but he didn't take it. Don't take it. He stood in front of the temple, untied his waist and squandered all the money, and then returned all his money. When he did not pick up the place to worship the guest, Nangong Liu gave him the best master Yuguan, scattered long hair, and returned the jade crown to the Confucius Gate.

- This is the bridge section of many of the story-tellers who are talking about it.

"Nan Gongliu was ugly, but he still tried to make a round, so he said to Chu Zongshi: 'Xian Chang has been working for this door for so long. Even if he wants to go, the money to be settled is still to be settled. Confucianism does not want to fall. A cheap tongue.'

Chu Zongshi said: "In the past, I used to live in front of the temple, only to report the lady's meal. Now that my wife has passed away, your faction is at odds with me, and I have no intention of staying. Silver money is not necessary, I am ashamed to eat Jun. ‘The words turned around and turned away from the Confucianism. ”

Xue Zhengyi originally thought that Mr. Shuo was exaggerating the facts. Therefore, he tried to ask how the Confucianism of the late night of Chu had offended him, but he did not like to talk about people behind his back, so he only shook his head and never speak.

But now, it seems that Mr. Shuo’s words may be worthwhile.

Mrs. Wang saw the atmosphere stale, could not help but come out to play the round field, softly said: "Elder Yu Yu, you do not want to be angry, how can you be mad?" and turned to Nangong Liu, a tribute, "Namong Xianjun, your Good intentions, we have received it, but there is no shortage of Lingshizhen medicine for your life and death, and we can’t accept your soul.

"...haha, my wife said it is good, it is a district that considers a week." Nangong Liu picked up a step, and he was as good as a runner. "Yuheng elders, offended, please don't go to the elders."

The ink burned aside and looked at the heart. This person was stunned by the teacher with a cold face, but he could still laugh so calmly and really.

Thinking about it, I bowed my head and drank the sunshine tea in the mouth.

Whoever thought it was the time when he was drinking tea, and Nangong Liu smiled and came to him.

The author has something to say: the name and appearance of the camellia flower, and the introduction of Jin Yong's "Tianlong Ba Bu" twelfth "Don't get drunk", it is hereby affirmed.

The scarf was issued with 151 chapters of the removed meat. I didn't have time to get on the car. I went to eat it early, and I deleted it tomorrow. I was afraid of being reported color/love po main == hahahaha~

There is only one sentence in today’s small theater:

[Straight male Xuemeng is a brick, where is the lack of where to move]

This is very bad. This room, after Nangong Liu came in, Mrs. Wang, Xue Meng, Xue Zhengyi, immediately got up and treated each other with courtesy.

But Chu Xi Ning did not have this mood, so he was still standing by the window.

The ink burns, the Confucianist door for his life is a smashed sect by him, even if the appearance is glamorous, he knows that there is only one piece of sand in the bottom, nothing to be awesome. However, he did not really want to give Nangong Liu the embarrassing meaning, just got used to it, so he never thought of standing up.

This scene is weird.

As a master and an elder, Nangong Liu Yan, smiling with a smile, not angry, his face is still full of steaming familiarity.

As a guest and a younger generation, the lazy sitting posture of the ink was caught. He stood with his legs and leaned against the chair of the Taishi. He still had a cup of hot tea in his hand.

Xue Zhengxuan did not pay attention to the action of ink burning. At this time, he turned back and could not help but be embarrassed.

This ink is too unruly!

"This is... In recent years, the famous Mo Zongshi."

The ink did not drink, and covered the lid and raised his eyes: "Yes."

"It’s really a hero -"

The ink burned him and interrupted him. He smiled and said: "Namong Xianjun, the hero has a young boy. You have already used it on my cousin. Don't use it on me?"

He has a gentle tone and a gentle smile, which seems to be very polite. But what he said was a little bit rude. He didn't even stand up. After he finished this sentence, he restarted the tea pot. The celadon cover scraped the edge of the cup and then opened the misty mist. .

Dangling thick and long eyelashes, put your eyes on it, and drank the tea slowly.

He is young, handsome, tall and calm, and the posture is as if he is the mainstay of this Confucianism, the person standing at the peak of the whole comprehension, and Nangong Liu, but he is the next dog.

"Haha, the Mo Zong teacher said that it is good, it is only a shallow area, and I can't think of a better wording, so --"

"Where is it." The ink burned down the tea pot and raised the smile. "Nan Gong Xianjun has entered the room since he entered the house. If you say good things, you can say that if you can't talk, who can say it?" ?"

"Oh, the praise of Mo Zongshi, the district can not dare to act."

"Who said that I am complimenting you." A pair of black and bright scorpions looked at him and smiled. "It is not necessarily a good thing to talk too much."

Xue Zhengyi couldn’t stand it anymore, he whispered his voice: "Fire children!!"

In his view, Chu Xiaoning and Nangong Liu’s face are still excusable, at least for the antecedents, Chu Yuning also has this identity, but the ink burns...

The ink burned but did not pay attention to Xue Zhengyi, but to Nangong Liudao: "These compliments, Nangong Xianjun still keep talking to other younger generations, I am a rough person, I don't understand, I don't want to listen."

Xue Zhengyi: "....."

Of course, ink burning knows that he is doing this, and his uncle will not be happy, but he does not regret it.

There are too many disgusting people in the world. Chu night is very angry and tempered. He is always willing to be the first bird. When I was demonized in Luo's Fibre House a long time ago, Chu Xiening would insult a weak woman because of Chen's family. Regardless of her own reputation, she would open the skin of Chen, who is the client.

Chu, Ning Mingming did not do anything wrong, but he was always slandered by other people, saying that he was "cold-blooded" and that he was "deliberately guilty" and that he was "not close to human feelings."

Mo-burning does not want people to say that his master respects "no number of gifts."

Therefore, he would rather be more outrageous than Chu’s late night, and he would be even more overcrowded. He only used such a stupid way to protect Chu’s lateness behind him. Therefore, in this room, all three people received the flattery and kindness of Nangong Liu from the etiquette, but there was no ink.

This is not a temporary rise. Since he knew it, it was Chu Yuning who carried him and climbed back from the sea of corpse. Since he saw, the sorrow of Meng Potang, the bowl of hand. Since he went to the depths of * and rescued Chu Ningning, he swore

As long as Chu Ning is still willing, he has always stood with Chu Yuning.

Nangong Liu Yilian touched twice, and changed to be the head of another family. He had already been furious and rushed.

Can Nangong Liu did not, he only did nothing happen, and he said a few words with Xue Zhengyi, and he was very embarrassed by Xue Zhengyi. He pulled the Nangong Liu to the side and apologized. Said that he is not in charge of discipline.

Nangong Liu smiled and said: "Oh, young people, who is not bloody? I think Mo Zongshi is really a temper, very good."

After seeing Nangong Liu, the disciples of Confucianism led a group of people to go to other hospitals.

The ink burned all the way, and Xue Meng turned to look at him: "You shouldn't just be a German, just cursed by the head of the Nangong..."

"Go and go, you are cursed." The ink sighed with tears in his eyes. "I... Auntie, I can't smell too heavy incense, just the house - Auntie! The spice is really too... Oh! Too..."

"It's too bad."

"Ah, the teacher - Auntie - respect."

Chu night Ning handed a handkerchief to him, and frowned and dismissed: "Scratch, no look."

The ink burned with tears, and smiled and picked up the handkerchief embroidered with Begonia flowers: "I still feel sorry for me, thank you Master."

Chu Xiaoning was said to be a bit embarrassed by him: "Who hurts you."

"Yes!" Xue Meng refused to accept the air. "Whoever hurts you, the most distressed teacher is me!"

The ink burns a little contempt: "How old are you still more than people." Turning to the hand in his hand, the color is correct. "Look, the master promised to embroider a piece of the same before, do you have it? ?"

"..." Chu night Ning smashed the handkerchief and screamed, "Mini rain!"

Xue Meng listened to the first glimpse, and then angered: "Ghosts believe that Master will give you an embroidered handkerchief, daydreaming is not what you do, stinking."

The group of people spoke and came to the other hospital where Nangong Liu arranged for them. There were four entrances in the other house. Mrs. Xue Zhengyi’s wife entered, and the other three went into each other. The winding path in the courtyard was quiet, and the flowers were shadowy. The sound of turbulent water is endless, and the end is elegant and chic.

But the smoldering was just fine. As a result, it was the yard that I wanted to live in. The whole person was stunned. In the meantime, the eyes were unconsciously covered with a layer of ashes, and then they followed the crowd into the courtyard. When it comes to bricks and tiles, the mood is getting more and more depressed.

This is a place where the Confucianism of the previous life, which left a deep impression on him.

At this time, he was no longer able to think about it. If it wasn’t for his life, he would change his life, maybe he would still go to the old road and become the emperor, so when he came to this time, he should also be worth millions. Chess pieces, will be a generation of famous doors for the scorched earth. Thinking about this, I couldn’t help but be cold and sweaty. For a time, thousands of people rushed to the chest.

The ink burned closed his eyes, and he could hold back his emotions. It was no longer a young boy with a sharp heart, so no one saw the haze in his heart.

They each went back to the room to rest, and the ink burned in front of the other hospital that was reserved for them. They held hands for a while, but did not push the door in.

The maids in the yard were a little nervous, and asked carefully: "Is Xianjun dissatisfied with this room?"

“Oh, no.” The ink burned back to God and smiled. “I feel that this yard is very similar to a place I used to live in. It’s just a touch of scenery.”

"That's a coincidence. The slaves thought that Xianjun didn't like it. If Xianjun had another request, just say it to the slaves. The slaves should try their best to do it for Xianjun."

The ink burned and smiled: "I have nothing to do, you are busy with yourself."

When he finished, he looked up and saw that there was a thick hundred-year-old laurel tree in the courtyard. The shade of the tree was like the ghost of his past life.

His eyelashes trembled slightly, his heart stunned.

Suddenly, turned and called the maid who was leaving: "Wait a minute!"

"What else does Xianjun want to order?"

"...I want to ask you about yourself." The ink burned, and he lifted his eyes and looked like a torch. "Do you know, there is one..."

"what?"

"Forget it, don't ask this, let's ask another question." Ink ignited, "Do you know where the leaves are?"

The maid said: "Ye Gongzi is a pro-disciple of Xu’s elders. He and Xu’s elders live in a yard. If Xianjun wants to see him, it’s fine to go there.”

The ink burned the words and let out a sigh of relief. The last time he met Ye Ye, he was in the restaurant. Ye Yexiu asked Nangong to go back with him, but at that time Nangong refused, Ye said, "If it is because of me You don't want to go back to the Confucianism, then I will go."

In fact, he has some thoughts about forgetting the past. He feels that the past life has been suffering from enough. Ye Yexiu and Chu Yuning are actually very similar. They are all gentlemen who are unrepentant, but only one restrained and one blazing. They didn't get a good end.

The smoldering is remorse for what he used to be, so he hopes that he will have a better life in this life. He couldn't help but be grateful. Fortunately, Nangong Temple did not do so absolutely, and it was really a rush to leave.

The elders of Xu’s elders are called “Sansheng Bieyuan”. It is said that the meaning of “one drink Meng Po Shui, forget the three things”, Xu Chang’s wish to show that when life is in the world, the things that are forgotten will be forgotten, not Staying in my heart increases my troubles. Anyway, after I die, I will no longer remember when I go to the bridge.

It sounds like a very pessimistic person. It’s no wonder that the three sticks that have been forgotten are not able to make a gourd.

"Interesting, this parrot is really clever, come, back for a while, eat, drink, and squat in the lane..."

Please guard the night, confess to the intention, have not bypassed the wall, I heard a man lazy laughter from the yard.

The ink burned a few steps forward and saw a man in the middle of the sun standing in the early thirties. The man was wearing a piece of light clothes, and there were still a few patches at the corner of the robe. He was not wearing shoes, standing on the cold stone bricks with bare feet, holding a handful of melon seeds in his hand. Teasing a long-tailed snow-white-blue-eyed parrot.

The parrot fluttered around the wings and swayed back and forth on the shelf. It seemed to be very proud. He sang high and said: "Ah~ a sip of food~ a ladle drink~ in the alley~"

"Well, okay, yes. You are smarter than the little leaves. When you are a little leaf, you can't beat you. You can't live without it." The man fed the parrot a nut. "Come, you Lao Tzu rewards you." ""

"....."

This man and a bird claim to be Laozi...

What does it mean that he is a bird?

The man turned around and saw the ink burning next to the wall. He first licked a melon, then smashed it, and suddenly smiled. His smile was bright, but he brought some smashing taste in the bright sunshine. The whole person looks very chic.

"Ink and ink master?" He laughed. "Fortunately."

The ink burned and laughed, and said: "Fortunately."

After he smiled, he carefully looked at the man's face. He felt that there was something good. When he used to kill the Confucianism in the past, he seemed to have seen this person. He is...

"Father, why don't you wear shoes and run around?"

Suddenly a familiar voice sounded, obviously a faint sentence, but the ear is like a spring thunder.

The ink turned around and saw the leaves forget to come out after the half moon arch. He was still so long and straight, his eyebrows were warm, and he held a pair of bright yellow satin in his hand. He walked over to the youth and leaned down.

Father?

The righteous father of the leaves...

The blood in his heart rushed over the wolf, and he could almost hear the cry of the world, heard the sword colliding, and the drums contend.

"Father of the Father!!!"

In the memory, he violently turned out a * face.

It’s the leaves, the leaves are crying and crying, and the sound is cracking. When he slaughtered the Confucianism, Nangong Liu sneaked away, the seventy-two city dragons had no heads, and the time was chaotic. Later, the first method of Confucianism Xu Elders stepped forward and smashed the sand, and together they smashed the chaotic soldiers that could be destroyed in an instant, and resisted with Ye Yexi.

He clearly did not surname Nangong, but did what the Nangong head should do. He lived with the 72th city of Confucianism with the elders.

He is obviously not the biological father of the leaf, but when he is filled with the sharp knife of the spiritual flow, he stammers in the back of the leaf, and he is in front of the leaves, and he is protected by the flesh and blood. A momentary.

At the time, the ink burned and stood on the wall overlooking it. He saw this scene, and his mouth floated with a twist of laughter - God knew how much he was at that time.

There is no blood, there are people in this world who are willing to die for another person!

His narrow heart is full of shock, all the pain, he feels like crazy, his eyes are blood red.

He was thinking, good, great, Ye Hao was so lucky, he was drizzling... If there was a man in this world, except for his mother, he would be willing to die for his drizzle, then he Why are you going to this step today? !

Heaven is good to everyone, only so embarrassing to him, so vicious!

He wants to destroy all his jealous people, let all those who warm up the group roll down the hell, why only he does not have a good day, no warmth, the only person who is gentle to him, has already died.

He only has a little warmth, why should he take it away? ! !

He hates!

"....."

Looking back, I think that I only feel that I was so stupid. In this red dust, there is also a person who is willing to die for him. He missed it himself. It is his own disappointment. He does not know.

The ink burned his eyes and smashed his eyes, calming down the inner surge, and then raised his eyes again.

He knows who this man is. He is the master of Ye Forgiveness, and he is also the righteous father of Ye Forg, Xu Sulin.

On the second day of the Turu Fengmen, he died in the war to save the leaves.

The ink burned and turned around, and the heart was bitter, but I couldn’t bear to look at the smiling person in the sun.

He went to say hello to Ye Yexi.

"Ye Gongzi."

Ye forgets that this ink is standing in the distance, and he can't help but smile. "Ah, the brother of the ink has come, and I haven't seen it for a long time."

"long time no see."

In fact, Ye forgets this life with only a few faces of ink burning, not very familiar, so he continued to smile: "Is it coming to my righteous father?"

"..." The ink burned and looked at Xu Shuanglin. He was awkward and shook his head. "No, I am looking for you."

"Small leaves, how long has it not been in this yard to come to someone who is looking for you? It's not easy." Xu Shuanglin lazily smiled and stuffed a melon into his mouth. "Where did you meet the Mo Zongshi?" ”

"Taohuayuan knows."

"That's good, that's good." Xu Shuanglin smiled and threw the remaining seeds into the bird bowl and said, "You young people talk, I will go somewhere else."

Ye forgets to pull him: "Father, why don't you wear shoes?"

"Oh, forgot." Xu Shuanglin put on his shoes with a smile and said, "This is always good."

But the ink burned with the lingering light, the man slowly crossed the corner, then leaned over and took off his shoes, so he just broke into his arms and walked away.

"....."

This pair of father and son's appearance and temperament is really a violation of the law, because of the reason of the heart, Xu Shuanglin grows very young, his face will not be old when he is 30 years old, and it is like a brother who has forgotten.

Combined with the temper, this person is somewhat self-willed, not like a brother, it is like a younger brother.

So the sturdy "three-year-old hospital" plaque outside the door is funny?

Ye forgets and burns shoulders side by side, walking slowly along the avenue.

There are many flowers and trees in this yard, but at this time it is winter, Wanmu is dying, only some yellow leaves are hanging on the treetops, and the wind blows and trembles.

"Sorry, I was laughing in the last time in the restaurant."

"Nothing." Ink burned, "Are you still okay these days?"

It is a little regret to say that the export is such a thing, because the person who has forgotten the past, even if it is too bad, will not boo. Sure enough, Ye forgets to smile and says, "Yes, what about you?"

"I'm fine."

The relationship between the two is actually not so familiar. The ink is coming to him, just because he thought of the past life, he felt uncomfortable in his heart, and he wanted to see the leaf forgetting that is still alive. He really got along with Ye Yexi, but he I don't know what to say.

There are a lot of secrets about the resurgence of the leaves, but these secrets can't be said. He really has no topic to talk about. The two are dull and scattered. The leaves are forgotten and asked: "How about Xia Shi?"

The ink burned a bit and smiled: "Do you remember the name? It's amazing."

"His name is especially easy to remember."

"Haha, too, Xia Shi reversed this time, and you can see him later."

Ye forgets a little accident: "He is coming too?...There should be no door to please..."

"You still don't know who is the Xia Shi reverse?" The ink smiled. "I tell you, this thing is really long."

So he said that the late cause and effect of Chu Xiening is the Xia Si counter. After listening to it, Ye Hao sighed for a long while and sighed: "Which is so lucky, you can get this person as a teacher."

Ink burning said: "How lucky the Confucian door is, you can get Ye Gongzi as a disciple."

Ye forgets a little embarrassed, slightly smiled: "Mu Gongzi has passed."

They walked to a small floating bridge painted with mahogany. This road came along with some dead branches and leaves. Only the green and bright here, planted bamboo and arrogant snow, and the high festival did not change. The water of the Confucianist Gate exerted spiritual power and would not be frozen. Therefore, it stood at the bridgehead, and at the foot was a stream of water, and the two ends were surrounded by blue.

The ink burned back and saw the leaves lingering and staring at the crystal stream. The black eyes were constantly floating and swaying. People were still the same person, but the cockroaches on the face could be seen by anyone.

It’s too cruel for him to be a relative to him.

Suddenly, I couldn't bear it. I saw that I had paid a lot of money, but I couldn't get someone to look back at the moment. I asked him: "Ye Gongzi, it's better to be dead and dying."

"what?"

"..." I felt stunned when I spoke, and I knew how Ye Ye would answer, and the ink sighed. "I just asked, the son didn't have to be in my heart."

Ye forgets to smile, he originally laughed handsome and handsome, seven points of British, three-point beauty. But today is still the same person, still the same laugh, but the cheekbones have been slightly sunken, seven points of heroism still, three-point beauty is exhausted, only two pools are sad.

He wanted to hide, but the sadness was too deep. He used all his strength and still didn't hide.

He smiled and said: "Is it the original brother of the ink, is it to dig people for the dead?"

"Haha, yeah yeah, but Ye Gongzi should not come, so it’s just a joke."

"Well, my righteous father is still here, I will not go."

"What should I do in the future?"

"..." Ye’s thoughts seem to have a pain, but I can’t answer it immediately. What should I do in the future? He did not know that he felt that he was a moth, and that Nangong was a light. He always wanted to go with the light, even if the consequences were broken.

Can Nangong don't want him.

"Just, I still do what I should do in the Confucianism." Ye smiled and smiled, "Assisting the head, assisting the righteous father, and later, assisting the Lord."

He paused, his hands clenched into fists, and the knuckles were pale as jade.

The ink burned the heart and was shocked by the fact that Ye was able to speak out the last half of the sentence calmly. He could really say it.

"Assisting Mrs. Shao."

After he finished speaking, it seemed that he could no longer bear it. He lowered his eyes. But just for a while, he looked up and looked at the ink in a gentle and gentle manner, and his face still smiled. The whole person stood in the cold winter like a bamboo.

Suddenly the west wind started, blowing up the snow floating in the bamboo forest, like a flower flying around.

At that moment, the ink burned, no, Nangong can not be married with Song Qiutong.

The day of the wedding of the Confucianist Masters was getting closer and closer, but suddenly there was a rumor that began to spread among the guests of the major sects.

"Zhang Gongzi, when I heard about it in the near future, I felt outrageous when I heard it, but if I think about it, it’s true that ten or eight/nine is true. Do you want to hear it?"

"Coincident, I have a secret here, it is about the Confucianism, it is also shocking, it should not be the same thing you want to say."

The other party raised the eyebrows with deep meaning, meaning: "Is the secret that Zhang Gongzi knows, is it only related to two people?"

"It is true."

The two men changed their eyes, and one of them lowered their voices: "First, let me know, I heard that the leaves of the Confucianist Gate are forgotten, and..."

The other person couldn’t stand it when he heard it. The man’s demeanor didn’t go away. He laughed loudly and slammed his thighs. His eyes flashed with the glory of the gossip. He was excited: “Yes, right! Hahaha laughed at me. This is the story! The leaves of the Confucianist Gate and Song Qiutong are dyed!"

"It’s really a good thing. I don’t want to go out and go through thousands of miles. I didn’t expect anyone who didn’t like to hear the words of gossip.” But when I talked about it, the voice was lighter. Here, Linyi, wherever I can go, I can hit it. Those who are on the Confucianist door are afraid that there will be ears in the wall."

There is no ear in the partition wall, but it is hard to say, but the three are tigers. It is true. This thing is like a cotton wadding in the water. It gradually expands. Even if no one sees it, the content is more and more full. The more fragrant...

In the end, even in the small villages outside Linyi City, the civilians who did not cultivate the immortals knew it, and the fields were spreading.

"Dog brother, I tell you a secret, you don't want to talk to people."

"What secret? So careful, listen to it, I don't know if I have a tone, I will never go out."

"Then you have to listen, the Confucianism has a terrible scandal, that Song Qiutong, you know, that is the woman who is about to marry Nangong, who is really a small woman, a dog I don't know, she, she has long been carrying her fiancé, and she has been with her leaves!"

"How can this be?!"

"How is it impossible? Don't you know that Song Qiutong was taken out of the auction in Xuanyuan, that is, Ye Yexiu, she looked good, moved her mind, bought her back to double repair?"

Li dog egg is very shocked, his mouth is wide open, and he screams for a long time: "Heaven, God, how can there be such a thing..."

The cognition of the villagers' Li dog eggs was subverted. When they slept at night, they chatted with their wives and children, and said with emotion: "Spring flowers, you are still good."

The villager Zhao Chunhua blinked his eyes: "What's the matter, suddenly said this?"

"Look, you are ugly, fat, short, but diligent and able to live, unlike some women, carrying their husbands to steal the man, not to follow the woman."

Zhao Chunhua was annoyed: "Where am I ugly? I don't have a yellow face?" Then he was curious. "Which daughter-in-law broke the shoes? I don't know."

"It’s not the people in the village. It’s the gangster who drove the sword on the sky.”

Zhao Chunhua was shocked: "Who is it?"

Li dog egg said: "Who is married recently, who is it."

Zhao Chunhua did not think about going to the Nangong Temple. After a while, he suddenly understood and slammed up from the bed: "Oh my God, it’s awful! Is there such a thing? You don’t talk about it. ""

"How can I talk about it?" Li dog's egg is quite chest-high, in order to let his wife believe in himself, he vowed, "I have a friend to see, the Confucianist Ye Yexi and Song Qiutong adultery! The two people carrying Nangong Temple, I have already slept!"

The * feelings of men and women are often one of the fastest things in this world. The rich and the rich, the repairs are not true, they are willing to talk about capital. In a twinkling of an eye, the guests gathered in the Confucianist Gate know more or less the scandal, and they have been passed to the late night of the Chu, and their content has been rich in wings. Even the leaves of the past one year and the Song Qiutong meeting are depicted. It is clear that it is clear that Song Qiutong was married to Nangong at this time because he had already had a child who had forgotten his past, but he was reluctant to be ignorant and unwilling to recognize his mother and son for his own future.

"Don't believe that you are waiting for you to see if the child is born like a Nangong, or like a leaf!"

Chu Xiaoning understands Nangong Temple, but does not understand Ye Forgive and Song Qiutong, so he is not sure whether it is true or not. He only feels very annoyed, but he is a good person who is good at dealing with the well-defined evil, but for this kind of If he is erratic and involves men and women, he will be helpless and he will not know what to do.

On this day, Nangong came to visit the other hospital, and Chu Evening had beaten him once and for all, but Nangong’s words were not heard. He was still very happy to tell him that he was holding a white gold. Anecdote.

"I planted it a few days ago, and it is quite smooth. The sika demon wolf will be in the next month. I don’t know if this nest can give birth to a few wolf scorpions." Nangong smirked, "If you give birth." I have a good taste, I let my father send one to the dead."

When I heard it, I felt that this was a good opportunity. I said, "Well, I am afraid that the little wolf is not pure."

"How can it be impure? Naobai and the female wolf are all cultivated by the snow wolf, pure."

"Are you sure that the sika wolf had not been paired with other wolves before?"

Nangong stunned: "Where can you, the sika wolf is raised by Bitanzhuang, and the whole manor is one. She wants to match it, and she has to rely on our family."

Chu nightning felt that he had been very red and naked, and he understood it very well. He compared people to wolves, suggesting that Nangong驷 would pay attention to those gossips. How could Nangong驷 not understand it?

Chu night Ning thought about it, thought that he might not have said that it was too in place, and thought about it, and said: "Bittan Villa has only one demon wolf, but when it comes to Nauru Platinum, it must always be in Confucianism. Have you lived for a while? You have raised so many wolves, do you say that..."

"No, no!" Nangong smiled heartily. "The guru was worried about this? The sika and the white gold are caged, locked in a cage, and there are other opportunities."

"....."

Stupid you forget! ! !

Nangong 浑 浑 浑 浑 楚 楚 楚

Listening to him, Chu later thought that he did not understand Song Qiutong. The rumors were a bit true, and he was not sure about it. He could know more about this younger couple in Nangong. It is not a good thing.

So he nodded and stood up: "Yes, then go find her, I am waiting for you at Xiaoyue Campus."

When Nangong was gone, when he was discharged from the hospital, it happened to be in contact with the ink that came back from the outside. The two men walked together in front of the wall, and the ink burned into the courtyard. They saw that Chu was standing under the sweet-scented osmanthus tree in front of the red. The small mud stove is steaming with misty water, and there are two teapots on the stone table.

"Master, Nangong is coming to you?"

"Well, let me go to Xiaoyue Campus to have a look at the wolf he raised." Chu Yuning said, turned and went back to the house. "This dress is inconvenient to ride, I am going to change clothes."

The demon wolf is fierce, although the ink burns knows that Chu is rather able to resist, but he does not feel relieved to let him alone, so he said: "I will go with Master."

Chu night Ning heard the words and stopped, and gave him a look: "Would you ride a wolf?"

The ink burned and laughed, and the black eyes were very bright: "Why not? My equestrian is good, the analogy is bypassed, let alone riding a wolf, riding everything is good."

Chu night Ning is trying to sneer at his two sentences. Suddenly, he feels that "the ride is good at everything." This sentence is a bit confusing. Unexplained wetness, flashing through the scenes that have appeared in the dream, thinking of the two in the dream. Posture, think of the sweat of the smoldering abdomen, and the powerlessness of his own arrogance on the couch. It seems that he really became a smoldering body and he was galloping.

Chu Xiaoning’s face was red.

He whispered aloud: "I don't know shame!"

I don't know if it is burning, or I am licking myself, and I turn to the door and enter the house. Only the curtains that are half-volume outside the house are swaying, like the person hiding in the house, the heart of the trembling.

Xiaoyue Campus is a vast and innocent pasture. If it is cold today, the grass is bleak, and the green field is covered with a thin layer of frost. The winter is not salty and hangs in the sky, but it is covered by the clouds. Cold, the sun is even more perfunctory, lifeless, but it is the end of the Confucian style of the private hunting jungle, pines and cypresses, needles fluffy, looking a little golden yellow, as if the fluffy fluffy Fetal feathers.

Nangong Temple stood in front of the wooden fence and was talking to Song Qiutong. Suddenly he saw two people coming from the mist. It was Chu Yuning and ink burning. He couldn’t help but be slightly stunned, and then smiled: "Mo Zongshi, you are not I will give you the honor of your teacher, so I will follow you?"

"No." The ink burns and laughs. "I am coming, I am afraid that if the teacher encounters something that does not go well, I will not be able to catch other people's anger, and I will be angry with Nangong Gongzi, so many of them will be wronged. So I am specializing in doing it. Received by air."

"....." Chu night Ning gave him a look, coldly said, "I see you are to make a fire knife."

"Hey." Song Qiutong, who stood behind the Nangong, listened. He laughed out loudly. She lifted the soft eyelashes like the two curtains. From the fiancé, she walked out, and the end was beautiful and moving.

She squinted at the ink and the night, and smiled softly: "The long time Chu Zongshi and the Mo Zong division are deeply in love. Today, it really is."

The author has something to say: I am late, but I am not busy with the expected day, exhausted and collapsed... There is no small theater today, I just want to be a Geyou on the sofa ==

Today, there is a dog in the bib, "The coffin", the x-master, the aunt, the clothes are well dressed, but the color is full of feelings. This is how QAQ must be my illusion! It’s so nice to watch it~ I don’t have to press my head, I’m going to be too good, wow, crying thick~ Crab crab wood lady~ What?

"Qingyuan-cultivation" wife's master is so beautiful, there are players who have pictures to set up their feet, both of them are beautiful, but I prefer the monochrome one~ I feel more like it~ I like it. ! Have a gentleman's demeanor like a bamboo ah~ Crabs and crabs~ What?

"Not a koi is a squid king" wife's single dog, feeding and feeding you and the wife upstairs is a good discussion. A teacher respects a dog hahaha~ Although the wife said that the dog is too difficult to draw, no fine Hua, but I feel very fine, the evil look is also fried chicken praise, zero point five did not have to run, super handsome ~ crab crab wife ~ what?

"94 not 7" wife's dog x master, both are very good to see ~ happy ~ Xianxian 哒 ~ ~ knock carefully ~ ~ Master's clothes are elegant and elegant ~ 哎嘿嘿 ~ ~ ~ like! Crab and crab, what?

"Doubs of doublesaya" last night because I was too stupid, I forgot to send it when I was a little more, handsome swords and doubles, so I have a sense of picture~ It’s so exciting~ I don’t want to be together with the two roads, please join us. Going to fight the military lord, the military lord is not a dream. 2333 Yesterday, when I made it up again~ I will make it up again today. I am really guilty, and I am guilty of sin. Hahaha~ Crabs and crabs~~

Chapter 156

Chu Xiaoning looked at her up and down. Before that, she felt that this person had a national attitude in Xuanyuan Pavilion. At this moment, it was a fascinating scent. If the Ming dynasty reflected the sun, an ebony-like hair could shine. It’s really beautiful in the surrounding area. It’s no wonder that Nangong will like it.

Thinking this way, I couldn’t help but quietly glance at the ink and I want to know what the reaction will be.

Unexpectedly, the line of sight was opposite to the ink burning. The ink burned did not go to see Song Qiutong. It seemed that Nangong Temple stood next to the air. Instead, it was always staring at himself. The two looked at each other. The ink burned gently and smiled.

Chu Xiaoning was seen by him, but his face was pretending to be calm, and he and the ink burned for a moment, which turned his eyes away.

"The Xiaoyue campus has a lot of demon wolves. The most brave is Naobaijin. I also like it most."

Nangong驷 led everyone to the center of the empty grassland, took out the jade flute with the waist, and blew three whistles. After a moment of silence, in the distant Maolin, the demon winds are everywhere, a snow-white light and shadow is like a whirlwind, and it jumps out from the forest. Almost in the blink of an eye, a whole body of hair is crystal clear, and the claw-winged gold demon wolf leaps into the air, and the body is pulled into a smooth flow. The arc, it screams "嗷呜-", the cold winter is reflected behind it, and then it falls down and steadily stops at Nangong.

"Hey!"

Nangong squatted forward and touched its fluffy neck and smiled back: "Guru, you see, it's all so big, it was a little * when you left."

"In the year I left, it was already as tall as an adult man." Chu night Ning no expression.

"Hahaha, are you? I always think it's a small one, it's still awkward."

"..."

"Guru, you can ride and ride."

Nangong said, and he blew the flute, and called two other snow-white wolves from the woods: "Mo Zongshi, are you also playing?"

The three men turned over the back of the demon wolf. Nangong said: "Hold the rope chain or the neck hair, and the legs should be clamped. It is almost the same as riding." After he finished, he bowed to Song Qiutong and said, "Qiu Tong, you ride with me." One, I will take you."

Chu night Ning originally thought that he would not, but across the back of the demon wolf, tried to take a few steps, it also felt that there is nothing difficult, even because the demon wolf is quite spiritual, can clearly understand the rider's mind, so control Ordinary Hummer is much easier.

Nan Gongxiao smiled and said: "How? Run a circle?"

"Where can I go anywhere?"

"All right, Houshan Linyuan and Xiaoyue School, just run."

Ink burned and said: "Is this going to be a game?"

"Come to a game." Chu nightning looked at Nangong, who was riding with Song Qiutong on the demon wolf. He thought that this was an opportunity to enhance the emotional feelings of the couple, and he readily accepted it.

Nangong smirked and untied a stone bracelet on his wrist and said, "In this case, we will first go to Ganquan Lake in the north of Linyuan and catch the five groupers. The first person to return here will win. How about this chain as a color head?"

"The seven-star spirit stone chain, Nangong Gongzi shot is too wide."

“I am very happy to buy a thousand dollars.” Nangong驷 tightened the rope chain and bowed down to Song Qiutong. “You are stable, don’t fall, if you run fast, just tell me.”

The ink burned Song Qiutong and smiled. "I am afraid that the chain of Nangong Gongzi can be taken out in advance."

"Hah, I am a little boy, but I grew up on the wolf's back. Don't say that I bring one more person. Even if I bring one more, that's a little meaning. Let's go, I will start with three or two."

"Three, two - one!"

When the voice is falling, the three white light and shadows will be smashed out like a forest feather arrow. They will step on the Xiaocao grassland and jump to the end of the hunting garden and disappear into the depths of the jungle.

Chu Xiaoning also slowed down at the beginning, followed by Nangong and Song Qiutong, but then Song Qiutong’s screams came from time to time, listening to the ears for a long time, and the girl’s delicateness, he could not afford it. I couldn't help but speed up and overtake the past.

With the exclamation of "You are slower" behind you, Chu Yuening gradually felt the joy of riding a wolf. This kind of beast is really smart, he even needs a little touch of his fingertips. Platinum can understand his mind and react immediately. It is no wonder that Nangong is a rare animal.

The winter winds came from the wind, but I didn’t feel the cold. Chu night Ning looked up and looked at the mottled sunshine in front of me. It continued to sneak through, and then rushed through like a flood, rolling away, and laughed. I felt that this flight was so dripping, so he drove the white-haired blonde to run wild, and the wolf claws stepped on the thick coniferous forest and raised the dust.

Behind him, the ink burned against the black-clawed wolf, and followed closely from beginning to end, that one must, in the chest of the night, actually had a hint of comfort and peace of mind.

Suddenly he did not feel so sure that he finally had the power to move forward arbitrarily. It seems that no matter where he ran, there would be such footsteps behind him. Such a person would continue to reverberate and not separate.

Chu nightning arrived at Ganquan Lake almost at the same time as the ink burned. The blue waves were full of water, the lake was clear like Xuanjian, the water system was extremely rich, and the two sides of the lake were nourished by the spiritual stream. The flowers and trees were not affected by the four seasons. The orange trees in the winter still remained. The leaves are leafy and green, and behind the green leaves, there are countless golden fruits, and the wind is filled with a sweet citrus fragrance.

Steadyly falling to the ground, Chu nightning looked around and said: "It is a good place for Zhong Lingxiu."

The ink burned the black-clawed wolf, and came over and smiled and asked: "The teacher likes it. When you go back, you will plant a lot of fruit trees in the dead and dying. You will raise the spirits all year round, and you will pick them if you want to eat."

Chu night Ning snorted, no choice, went to the lake, raised his hand to call the day to ask.

The ink burned and didn't look right, stopped him: "What?"

"Catch the fish."

"...the master should not want to open the wind, so that the fish in the lake will be twisted up."

"What do you want?" Chu night Ning gave him a look, and he threw the golden vines on the lake, and then whispered to the lake. "Would you like to be tired?"

So said three times, Chu night Ning took the day back, the golden leaves of the leaves, there are actually a few fat head fish can not love to turn over three white eyes spit a bubble look at the sky.

Chu Xiaoning looked at it and turned to ask for ink: "Does he mean grouper?"

"Ok."

".....Do you know what the grouper looks like?" Chu said that after he finished it, he felt that it might be too sharp to ask, and he simply picked up the whole question and lifted some fish caught up to the ink. Look at it, "Is there inside, is there?"

"...I still take it for the teacher."

The ink burned ten fish and placed them in the sacs of the two wolf's necks. Chu nightning put a few fish that didn't want to live, and put them back into the water. Said: "Life is too short, bothering the kings, and forbearing for a while."

Hearing such a sentence, the ink burned only that the man was both funny and cute. He put the last stone spot and turned around. He saw that Chu Ning came from the shore of the Bishui cold pool and the lake was at He was squatting behind him, immersing his white figure in a gentle, full of embarrassment.

Suddenly, he had a strong desire to make a big step. He wanted to take a big step and hold him in his arms. He wanted to kiss him. He wanted to touch him very gently. He wanted to smash him and wanted to pull him into the orange grove. He pressed him to the tree and lifted his leg to invade him infinitely and violently.

He looked at the late night, and he was more and more close, and he was shocked that his cravings were so contradictory and so strong, the softest and the hardest were born.

Love, love.

Isn't that what it looks like?

Hard heat is to cut off your fiery blade.

Soft, it is the tenderness of your spring water.

"Nangong Temple is also true." Chu Nighting did not see the darkness in the eyes of the burning eyes. He went to the front of the ink, and looked at the sacs on the neck of Naobaijin. "Take a girl, run so slowly." ""

"May be doing something else."

The smoldering brain was a little feverish. His wolf-like gaze stared at the white-necked neck of Chu’s bow when he bowed his head. The abdomen was hot and dry, and he whispered without hesitation.

Chu night Ning stunned: "What?"

"..." This is the reaction of the ink, and I feel that I have lost my voice and coughed. Don’t go too far. "Nothing."

Chu nightning has been pondering over the taste, his eyes wide open, and then dangerously picked up, looks thin and angry: "Think about you, get on, go back!"

The ink ignited the lips, and wanted to say "not the horse, it is the wolf", but look at the late face of the Chu and the red tip of the ear, and then swallowed it.

He was somewhat sorry to see that Chu Ningning rode his hand on Naobai Platinum, and the end was unconstrained and unparalleled. He is eagerly hungry. He thinks that if Chu is rather a man, he will be soft, and he will not be able to get on the horseback. The wolf can't get on his back. He can only come to his arms.

He was immediately shocked and guilty of his thoughts, and he shook his head subconsciously.

This move happened to be seen by Chu Xiaoning, and Chu Ning asked him: "What happened? Why did you shake your head? I still said that you are wrong?"

"No, the Master is correct, and I think too much."

But I am not thinking about the break of Nangong and Song Qiutong.

The person I think is you...

Then the ink burned and thought, hey, if you can interrupt the legs of Naobai Platinum, then there is no wolf to ride on the night, maybe the face will be rewarded, and the black paw willing to go to him.

He wants to hug him again, like a person who is dying of thirst, and misses the nectar that was once ruined by himself... The ink burns in such a lingering whimsy, all the way to the night, and then back to the whistle

When I was on the school campus, I saw that Song Qiutong and Nangong Temple were already waiting there.

Song Qiutong sat on the ground, and the jade's ankles came out with blood marks on his head.

It turned out that she ran halfway, forgot that the Nangong had to tighten her legs, so she was scratched by the thorns. Although it was a minor injury, Nangong Temple would not let it go, so she would bring her back in advance.

The ink burned her legs and feet, and the feet are also good-looking, but compared with the Chu night, it is far worse, and she has quite like Song Qiutong’s feet in her previous life.

It’s awkward.

He now feels that Chu is rather good at everything, looking at it horizontally, looking at it vertically, even the pair is always cold and uninviting, and he feels that it is arrogant, it is temperament, Chu It’s so good to be late, it’s so beautiful, it’s good to die.

I saw that he was jealous, and he was jealous. He was blinded by his eyes.

"I am willing to gamble and lose." Nangong is very cool, and the chain of Qianjin is handed to Chu Yuning at random. "This is for the master."

Chu Xiaoning looked at the chain and said: "The Seven Stars are good at raising the core of the spirit. I really need it. Thank you."

The ink burned was not a taste, and somehow sighed at the side: "I will buy you a better next time."

"What?" Chu night Ning did not hear clearly, looked back at him.

The smoldering saw that his pair of phoenix eyes were so close, and his face was clearly reflected in the water, and the distance between you and me was slightly diminished.

Ink smirked: "I said, next time I see a more suitable teacher, I will buy it back."

"it is good."

Chu Evening’s crisp and conscientious promise made the ink burn more happy.

He even went to see Nangong Temple with care. The Nangong Temple did not care about this. He also tried to let the Nangong know that the teacher would accept your things. If you accept me, you will not. You see, he and I are not seen at all.

Chu night Ning said: "You remember to let the boss open a bill, I will give you the money when I arrive."

Ink burning: "....."

Ten freshwater stone spots were taken out from the Qiankun sac. Nangong took them to the hunting cabin next to the Xiaoyue school ground. There was a gray furnace in the outside, and the pots and pans were all available. Going up to the mottled old, compared with the magnificent grassland, it is not built in the same period.

Chu night Ning pointed to the fence and stopped in front of a bunch of reins on the fence. The reins had been hit by countless winds and rains, and it was no longer the appearance of the original.

Nangong took the spices and came out of the wooden house. Seeing that Chu Ning was watching the reins, he smiled and said: "That was the year when the guru left, and I was here, it was fading."

Chu nightning did not speak, just sighed softly and sat down on a low stool made of wooden stakes.

When he played for Confucianism, Nangong was only a child, and he often took him to Xiaoyue School. The hunting house was still left at that time.

The fire soon became born, and the grouper was worn on the branches of fruit trees. The fat fish fat was scented from the crispy skin and exuded with a strong meaty smell.

Nangong was divided into six demon wolves by the wooden fence, and the remaining four were sprinkled with salt and distributed to the crowd.

Song Qiutong only ate a few mouthfuls and handed the grilled fish to Nangong Temple, which had already swiftly licked a whole fat fish. He said, "I don't eat it. The son of the son divides it for me."

Chu nightning looked at them and saw that Nangong had picked up the grilled fish. He was very happy to eat the second one. I thought that this Song Qiu Tong was up and gentle, it was an individual, and the rumored red apricot. The woman who came out of the wall was like a slang, and she couldn’t take it seriously.

Thinking about it, a lotus leaf was handed over, and the top fish was finely subdivided. The main thorns were removed, and the white tender meat was hot and coke.

Chu Xiaoning was slightly surprised and turned his head. The ink burned the silver short dagger that he wore. He smiled and said: "Master, eat this."

"Where are you coming from the lotus leaf?"

"When I was catching fish at the lake, I took it with me." The ink burned the fish to him. "It’s hot to eat, it’s not good."

Chu Evening took over the lotus leaf, and his heart twitched and said: "Thank you."

He really didn't like to eat fishbone, and the treatment of good stone spots was instant. Chu nighting was eaten piece by piece, and he didn't feel tired. After all the food was finished, the tea that was hung on the fire also rolled. Song Qiutong got up. Take off the iron kettle, pour a cup for everyone, and put your hands on it.

"Chu Zongshi, please use tea."

The filigree jade hand holds a small cup of white porcelain, the arm is like a moon, and the wrist is a little bit cinnabar.

Chu night Ning suddenly remembered that when the auction was held at the "Xuanyuan Pavilion", the owner said that her wrist was spotted by a cold scale sage, and she wanted to come to this one. Since it was in the palace, Song Qiutong and Ye Forgive It’s even more nonsense to have this incident.

Thinking about this, Chu Xi Ning’s heart was finally relieved, and Nangong Temple was a purely unintentional person, like a wild horse on the grassland, like a lonely wolf, with a knife and a knife, and such a person, Chu Evening is not annoying, so he does not want Nangong to meet people.

Song Qiutong’s tea was in front of the ink, and the ink burned, but he did not drink it. He stumbled to the side and smiled. “Song girl, I have something to send to you.”

Chapter 157

He said, taking out a thin bracelet, the chain of brilliance, from the mother of the East China Sea and Zhu Rongshan's enamel and crystal string, at first glance is a valuable object.

"You have been studying books and want to ask for squid spar, but it is unfortunate that the stone has been taken by my cousin to refine the sword. I have not prepared any other gifts, bought this water chain, you should wear it properly."

"This... this is too expensive, Qiu Tong is afraid that it can't be collected..."

"Where is there a gift?" ink burned and laughed. "Not to mention the water and fire chain can also suppress the fire power, but it is only suitable for women to wear, you wear it on the body, often accompanied by Nangong Gongzi, how much can be gentle It’s a practical thing to look at his spiritual flow."

Song Qiutong looked back at the Nangong Temple and got the approval. This was the first time that he took the chain and politely performed a ceremony. Wen said: "Thank you, Master Mo Zong."

Four people drank tea and sat down for a while.

Chu Xiu Ning cares about the lifelong events of Nangong Temple, so he will pay more attention to these days, whether the details of the wedding ceremony have been arranged properly, and do not temporarily make trouble.

candles, but he never stayed in the new house.

That night, he drank too much, red candlesticks, and the account was stunned. He provoked the bride's red and shy face and stared at it for a while. Before a major ritual of life, people are always prone to flooding the ages, and the feelings of the sea and the sea, even if they are stepping on the immortal, it is no exception.

He suddenly felt so unreal, his eyes seemed to penetrate the blush in front of him, falling into the blizzard of years ago.

When he was in the cold wind, when he was in the cold... When he was about to starve and die, he was pity and looked at the rice soup that the man had brought... When he first came to life, when he was uneasy... When he picked up his toes and went to the moon to break down the sea... When he was kneeling in front of the night, when Liu Teng added...

He had thought about it, and one day he would step on all the celestial beings to respect the world.

"French, what are you thinking?" Her lips whispered, her eyes condensed, and the breath she breathed out was sweet and extravagant, just like his high status today.

He seems to have everything, beauty, status, power...

What is he still unsatisfied with now?

He couldn't think of anything unsatisfied, but he felt very empty. The whole person stood on the peak of the material, and there was only one low-lying face around him, which was ambiguous.

He walked through these charming faces, and they praised him and praised him. They welcomed him, and he married him, and they had the same face.

He heard someone calling him in a fascinating manner, and his voice was soft and tender like a peony flower: "The husband... the husband..."

He felt sick and felt disgusted. He wanted to get out of this tide of fans, but this sweet voice wrapped around him like sugar.

He violently pushed Song Qiutong away, the charming bride was rude, and fell on the red-and-red room of the scarlet cave. The gold and silver spots were shaking, the swaying, the illusion of jewels, and the burning of everything It is so distorted, so unreal, the golden light is like a wildfire, and the red candle is like blood and tears.

He feels disgusting... but he doesn't know who is disgusting, Song Qiutong? Or become such a self.

He took the door and went.

In the last life, few people in the world knew that on the day of the wedding of the Queen, the Queen Song Qiutong was left out of the cold, and the ink burned a golden red Huashang, pushing the threshold of the red lotus.

He walked in. After a while, the candlelight of the otter went out, and Song Qiutong’s newlywed husband stayed there for a whole night.

Until the twilight of the second day, Xue Meng slammed the dying of life and death, and the ink burned the door openly, tidying up the scattered dress, with a look of obscene lameness, and walked to the front hall.

What happened to the night in the red lotus water, but it was completely unknown to outsiders.

Say goodbye to the Nangong 驷 two people, Chu night Ning and Mo Yan together return to the other courtyard.

Chu night Ning suddenly did not salty and asked: "Nan Gong said that Song Qiutong looks good, what do you want to do in a daze?"

Ink burning said: "I am thinking about her wearing a wedding dress."

Chu nightning still suddenly gave birth to a burst of jealousy. He shook his sleeves and looked very cold: "I don't think about it, other people's fiancee, what can you remember."

The ink burned: "Who said that I missed her, I was thinking about her wearing a wedding dress, that's it. It's not as good as the teacher."

"....."

This is a anger to vent, but I can't help but be stunned by the little wolf dog.

Chu’s face was white for a while, and he couldn’t say a decent word for a long time. Finally, he waved his sleeves and said: “The ridiculous thing of the ghost ceremonies is not to be mentioned in the future.”

The ink sighs in my heart, I don’t want to mention it, you have to ask me, I don’t want to lie to you, praise you, and be murdered by you.

But being fierce by you, I feel very sweet.

I think that I have lost you, I just feel that you have been scolding for a lifetime, and you are like being soaked in a sugar jar.

What to do, I can't do it without craving you.

The days have passed very quickly, and one day, the day of the big marriage of Nangong is coming.

The Confucianist Gate has been filled with guests from all corners of the country, whether it is the head of the big door, or the scattered rivers and lakes, or even some wealthy merchants who have no spiritual power, all of which are not coming in advance, are salty on this day. Before the main city, for a time, Huagai Ruyun, the horses and horses weaving, dressed in costumes of men and women, the body of silk and the emerald of the anti-light of the Confucianism Street is like a galaxy inversion, the stars flow.

Xue Meng was dragged by his father all the way to say hello to those women of similar age.

"Wang Xianjun, I haven't seen you for a long time. Fortunately, I will be lucky. Oh, isn't this a small mandala? It's so big, it's so bright and moving, come, Xue Meng, come and ask your uncle Wang Bo."

Xue Meng reluctantly moved over and opened his mouth: "Wang Dabo is good."

Xue Zhengyi slaps in the back of his head, smiles on his face, but bites his teeth and says: "It is Wang Bobo, not Wang Dabo."

"Ha ha ha, the same, all the same, the pride of the sky is really handsome, raw like you, old Xue, you are blessed."

One to two, Xue Meng was pushed and "Little Man Tuo" went to the garden to hang out, Xiao Mantuo this year, sixteen, it is the twenty-eight Fanghua, the whole person seems a bit cold, and Xue Meng shoulder to shoulder for a while, Tao: "The elders push us out together, Xue Gongzi will not understand."

"Ok."

"But I said in front of you, you can take a walk, but Xue Gongzi is so heart-like, I really don't like it. So you don't think about it."

"Oh... um??"

Xue Meng was shocked. He stopped and slammed his face, waiting for the little mandala.

The small wildflowers carried the chin, quite arrogant, quite stunned by Xue Meng’s face, and said coldly: "I have my own heart, even if you are enamored of me..."

"Are you sick?!" Xue Meng froze, "I?" He pointed his finger at himself, his face stunned, "I love you?"

"Why don't you pull me away from a deserted path? Isn't it a ghost in your heart?"

"Why don't you say that there is a hole in your mind!"

Xue Meng’s tempering temper came up. He was angry and his eyes glared at the fire. He couldn’t stop repeating: “I like you? I like you? I-”

"You said that I liked what I did so many times? You are a disciple!" The little mandola was very staunch, one foot, one looking up, and a slap in the face of Xue Meng.

Xue Meng had already stunned in front of his eyes, and he was slap in the face of this pink little hand for no reason, but he was vomiting blood. If it wasn't for Mrs. Wang who had taught him to politely on a weekday, I am afraid that he had already pressed the little mandala to the ground and made it into a trumpet.

At this moment, a man with a pale twilight and a tall nose was coming from afar. When Xiao Mantu saw it, he first squatted, and then in the moment the tears filled with sorrow, and the singer said: "Mei Gongzi!" went straight to the man.

The man who came in was Mei Hanxue. He didn't think that he had gone so a remote path, but he could meet other people. He obviously stunned, but he saw Xiao Mantu flying toward him. He raised his hand and fell. An enchantment, awkwardly put the girl outside. The girl was caught off guard, and the porcelain slammed into the enchantment of the power of thunder and lightning, and she screamed and fell to the ground.

Mei Hanxue did not intend to help her, looked down at her and frowned. "Girl, you admit the wrong person."

"How can it be wrong? How could it be wrong... That year you promised me a golden sachet, and said that I will be unforgettable when I see you. When I am eighteen years old, you come to marry me, you... have you forgotten? ?"

Mei Hanxue: "....."

"Mei Gongzi..."

"You really admit the wrong person." Mei Hanxue did not say more, just shook his head, dropped such a sentence, and walked past the girl with tears.

Xue Meng witnessed this scene, only feeling good and good.

Qi is the temperament of the plum and snow, and when I put on my pants, I don’t recognize people. It’s so ruthless. It’s no wonder that I only dare to take the path in this occasion.

It’s good because he didn’t think that the little mandala likes the guy who is Mei Hanxue. Mei Hanxue is the same as his name, and he is flowerless and ruthless. It is said that it is completely two after hooking a woman and hooking a woman. Face, little mandala loves him, it really fell eight years of blood mold.

Mei Hanxue walked up to him, glaring at the light-colored scorpion, looking at him for a moment.

Xue Meng thought, what do you see? Do you guys dare to look at me like this? You are famous all over the world. I am famous for shaking Kyushu. I can't lose momentum.

Then he proudly looked up and swept Mei Hanxue with a two-five-like eye-catching tail. When he was completely wrong, he was quite majestic and screamed in a humble manner.

"How is your face swollen?"

Unexpectedly, Mei Han Xue went halfway, and did not leave. The footsteps stopped, standing in front of him, squatting in the distance, faintly watching him.

"Swelling is quite chic."

Xue Meng didn't come up in a breath, still couldn't stop the car, and proudly "snapped".

Mei Hanxue: "....."

"....." Xue Meng's face quickly rose red, suddenly turned his head, murderous, "You control me? I walked carelessly!"

"Then you will walk or look at it later." Mei Hanxue said calmly. "It is not easy to fall into this way."

Then he left, leaving Xue Meng to stand in the same place for a long while, only to anger and jumped to the foot: "Mei Xuexue! You are the grandson of the dog! You, you give me waiting! I am not with you!!"

Affected by a stomach, Xue Meng ran out of the garden with red eyes, running too fast, cold and not against a person's chest.

Xue Meng was furious and shouted: "What! Don't you walk for a long time?"

As soon as he looked up, he was a tall and handsome man in Tsing Yi. The clothes were embroidered with golden silk embroidered with Du Ruo, and the top of the head was covered with a sapphire crown. The two curtains were long and soft, and they were covered in front of the eyes. He lifted it up. In the middle of the river is the misty rain in the south of the Yangtze River.

The man pushed Xuemeng and adjusted his own dress. His mood didn't seem to be good. The slender fingers touched the front folds. Xue Meng saw the Xuanwu back armored silver ring on his index finger. For a moment, suddenly shocked: "Jiang Yan?"

The head of the lonely moon night, the world's first richest ginger!

This person is similar to Xue Zhengyi, but his mind is different. Jiang Yan’s appearance is also in his twenties. This person is rich and rich, and his appearance is extremely polite. It is indeed the darling of heaven.

At the Lingshan Conference, Jiang Yu didn't come out of the top ten heads. At that time, Xue Meng still thought about it. He didn't know what the missing guy looked like. Today, when he saw it, it was a hustle and bustle. The eyes stared at the people and looked at them.

Jiang Yan calmed his face, but he didn't have a good temper: "The name of the lord of the party is also what you can call? Ridiculous."

When Xue Meng heard this, he only felt that the humiliation was more than a hundred times better than that of Mei Xuexue. Immediately he said: "What is it? If you are older, you are not allowed to call your name. You still have to call you a head. Is it sinjun? Nangong Liudu is not as big as you!"

"Good, no rules!" Jiang Yansen said, "Who are you a disciple?"

"Why do you ask me to answer? What are you? The group of the lonely moon night listens to your order, I still have to buy your account? I will not tell you! I see you are a -"

"Menger!"

Suddenly a soft voice sounded, Xue Meng slammed his mouth, staggered Jiang Yan, looking behind him.

Mrs. Wang did not know when she came over. She probably heard the sneak peek of Xue Meng, so her face looked pale and anxious. She quickly stopped: "Menger, let’s not say, you come over, Come to A Niang."

Xue Meng glanced at Jiang Yan with a sullen look. He walked toward Mrs. Wang and bowed his head down smoothly: "A Niang."

Jiang Yan stood in the same place for a while, and slowly turned back, narrowing his eyes, and the beautiful eyes of the two Ming Mingsheng flashed with all the malicious light.

He looked at the mother and son next to the powder wall, and he said coldly: "Oh, this is the pride of the sky, Xue Zhengyi's good son, Xue Meng?"

Mrs. Wang: "..."

Jiang Yan’s eyelashes shook for a moment, then closed her eyes, and then opened it, the inside was full of ridicule: “It’s a kind of Xue Zhengyi’s kind, it’s really good.”

"You are not allowed to insult me!"

"Menger!" Mrs. Wang immediately grabbed him and pulled him behind her, then white-faced and greeted Jiang Yan with a sigh of relief. "The dog is Xue Meng, he is used to it, and he still wants to see the * head."

"Oh, Jiang Zhangmen..." Jiang Yan is like a snake. He immersed the three words in the wet lips and swallowed it for a while, then swallowed it slowly. Then he said, "No problem. He has a half of your sister." Blood, counted up, I can recognize him as a foreigner..."

"Who wants to be a foreigner! Don't look at your ugly face, let's roll it!"

"Menger..."

Jiang Yan smiled coldly and stared at Xue Meng for a moment. His eyes slowly shifted and fell on Mrs. Wang’s face. Mrs. Wang hanged her throat and said, “Please don’t bother to make another joke. It’s no longer lonely. The disciples of the moon night, and where can I still talk about the generations."

"...good." Jiang Yan nodded and said coldly. "Good, great. Today, I have to see the old man and the son of the old man. It really makes the eyes of Jiang open. I don’t know the place where the pickles are. How to raise people, good white magnolia, can also get a plaster."

"Jiang Yan! You * again! I am tearing your mouth!"

Xue Meng listened to this person in front of his face to insult his mother, when the blood rushed to the top of the head, desperate to go forward, Mrs. Wang Ladu could not hold him, seeing the situation out of control, suddenly heard a loud noise in the sky A sly fireworks exploded and the bells and drums rumbling. The singer of the Confucianism Gate spread a sentence to the seventy-two cities in a flash.

“Hundreds of home-style banquets will be held in the poetry hall at the time of the ceremony, and I would like to invite all of you to come and enjoy the light-”

Jiang Yan looked coldly at Xue Meng, and turned his sleeves and turned away.

Chapter 158

The sects of the sects, the feast for three days, the first day is to pick up the wind, held one night before the wedding ceremony, as the name suggests is to the guests to wash the dust. But the biggest excitement of the night was not at the wine table, but at the school yard. According to the rules, in the evening of the same day, before the sun sets, there will be a highly respected elder who puts three red-skinned horn deer into the Linyuan. Then the bridegroom father selects twenty-two unmarried men and women to let everyone Go to the court to compete.

Three horned deer, if a guest hunts a horse, they can get a million gold heads. In the end, it is the gimmick of the rich and fascinating sects of Confucianism and Solitude.

The poetry hall is at the height of the house, and Biva flies down and looks down from inside the temple. The hunting forest not far away is shrouded in the setting sun.

The guests arrived in Qi, and gave a gift to Nangong Liu Hexi. The Nangong Liu was a noble and noble person. They all politely returned to the ceremony and invited them to the table. They were busy for half an hour, and all the guests sat in the position. A ring of bells in the music house rang, and the night banquet officially began.

"I don't know which guests will be allowed to go to the Linyuan in the head of the Nangong Palace."

"I don't mean to arrest you. I want to say it. The luck is particularly good. You think about it. Hunting the spirit horn deer, the reward is ten million. Others who don't have hunting deer can also get the forest. Other beasts, or fairy fruits. Where else will there be better things in this world?"

It was a lively discussion, and the temple door suddenly opened. Nangong Temple and Song Qiutong were on the same floor. Lang Jun was pretty, and Jin Hong was intertwined. The two men came to the front of the palm.

Nangong Liu got up and smiled and nodded. He said with aloud: "The guests come from all corners of the country, and the major Xianmen Houses. You can come to the Confucianism Gate in your busy schedule and participate in the children's wedding ceremony. It is a great fortune."

The following guests are holding their heads: "The head is really polite."

"The younger son and the younger lady are only a rare pair of people."

"Yeah yeah."

The words of these aunts are almost exactly the same as those of the fans when they were married to each other. The ink burned and bored, and the eyes subconsciously patrolled the crowd, and soon found the leaves of the elders sitting next to the frost forest elders. .

The leaves are squinting, and they are still simply dressed. They are eating the dishes in the bowl and never look up to see Nangong.

His expression is good, his manners are all, everything is the same as usual, even more calm than usual, perhaps because he has been working hard all the time, so such people are already very clear that they are powerless to compete with their lives. Looking at him, he suddenly remembered that he liked a bunch of pagoda lanterns sold in the night market when he was a child.

The lantern is very delicate, and every tile is outlined, but the price of the old artist is not low, so the lantern is good, but it has not been sold. Of course, the ink can't afford it, but he almost waits for the night market to open and then goes to the stall to watch it for a while. The light of the bubbling lights is flowing, and Huaguang is solemn, illuminating the black eyes of the child.

Until one day, a pair of young men and women came in, all dressed in silk satin, the girl took a fancy to this pagoda lantern, only spoke like a spoiled, the man next to her took the money Lanterns are sold.

The pagoda was taken away, and the ink burned his head. He watched the old artist take it off the wooden shelf that had been hanging for a long time, and handed it to the girl’s hand. The swaying lights finally illuminate the ink. The face, and then with the pair of monks, disappeared at the end of the night market.

At the time, the ink burned and felt very uncomfortable, but it was also calm and calm.

He is the same as the current leaf forgetting. In fact, when they see the first look of the pagoda lantern, they know that such a luxurious thing is destined not to belong to oneself. In fact, every night when they are illuminated by the pagoda, they have already practiced the loss of this ray of thousands of times.

Not let go, can relieve.

From the very beginning, I was soberly aware of what the outcome would be, so I never dared to pick it up.

"Come and come, grab the shackles, grab the shackles--" The main servant of the Confucianism Gate, holding a bronze entangled scorpion, came to the front of the sacred face with a smile, and held his head to the front of Nangong Liu. At the head, Ji Shi has arrived, please also grab the door!"

"Good! Come! South Palace head to catch one!"

Nangong Liu Xiaodao said: "That district is respectful, it is better to be reverent, take twenty-two signatures, and the young heroes who have been drawn, please be sure to show your face and participate in night hunting. If anyone does not want to go, then trouble ahead Say, thank you, thank you!"

After waiting for a while, there were several martial art servants who were low-minded and courageous. They asked their parents to go up and let the Nangong head take their name away from the squat.

Xu Shuanglin looked at Ye’s forgotten eyes and smiled lazily and asked: “Do you want to go to play with small leaves? If you want to go, I will make a hand for you and open a secret door.”

"I won't go." Ye forgets, "Father, you bother to talk to the head and put my name apart."

"How come that, in case of it, there are ten million gold."

Ye Forgiveness: "..."

Xu Shuanglin’s temper is far more docile than a adopted child. He thought for a while, and his mouth curled up with a sly smile. He said, “If you don’t want to go, let me go.”

"Father... you are forty years this year..."

"What's wrong, I look young. When I go to get the three deer back, 30 million gold will be handed. The windfall is not taken, the earth is destroyed."

Xu Shuanglin insisted on his own way. He did not see the frustration of the righteous son. He pulled his shoes and smiled and went to Nangong Liu. He said a few words next to Nangong Liu, and others would only think that he would take the sign of Ye Shixi, who knows that he loves money and wants to go in and play.

Nangong Liu quickly picked out the guests who were competing.

"Shen Feng, Lin Biao, Qu Yuran..."

The elders of the frost forest stood by, took over a sign in the hands of the head, and reported them one by one, slowly and calmly; "Oh? This is a bit powerful, the pride of the sky, Xue Meng."

Soon twenty-one people were selected, and the last one was worse. The elders of Frost Forest were very thick and smiled and raised their hands: "There is another person who is me, an old bone, please advise." Knowing the temper of this elder, not obstructing, only smiled helplessly, giving everyone a fuze.

"The winners, the fuzes are the evidence, after the three voices, the three spirit horn deer are caught, and the hunting is over." Nan Gongliu said, "I will wait at the Xiaoyue campus to welcome you back. Winner, rewarding millions."

Everyone is screaming and applauding, and they are cheering for their acquaintances.

Nangong Liu said with a smile: "In addition, the children are entrusted to add another one, the first one, and the demon wolf ten. The * relationship, take home!"

Demon wolf!

Such a precious beast, the black market is a hard to find, ten!

The hall was boiling, and some people couldn't help but stand up and shouted at the chosen door: "Brother, it's up to you! If you take the first, look back at your boots and I will brush you for one year!"

I laughed loudly.

Some women are not convinced, shouting loudly: "Teacher brother, compare them all, if you win, I promise to double repair with you!"

"Wow - this is good, this is amazing, hahaha, who is so spicy?"

For a time, in the poetry hall, the laughter and the words were boiling against the sky. In the eyes of those who lacked interest, they all showed some expectation, and looked at the grand enthusiasm with the wine glasses.

The ink burned away in a laughter, and said with Chu late Ning: "Master, I will go to the hunting ground with Xue Meng, you sit and eat well, wait for me to come back."

Chu night Ningdao: "Go, take a little bit of Xue Meng, he is too rash."

"it is good."

The smoldering and the rest of the 20 people walked down the brightly lit hall of the bright and beautiful, Chu Xiaoning looked at the young and handsome men and women's handsome and straight posture disappeared into the night, the red cup of the daughter in the cup.

He feels that there is money in the next life to create an aura stone road. His apprentice, he is most confident.

30 million gold, at your fingertips.

After the birth into the forest, but in a flash, the ink burned Xuemeng have not had time to return, the sky slammed the first bright red fireworks, Nangong Liu Yan surprised, hit the sigh: "It is really powerful, I am this I haven't finished drinking tea yet. I have already hunted the first deer. I don't know who is a disciple? So brave and admirable!"

Li Wuxin of Bitanzhuang sat next to Nangong Liu, and he said with a smile: "If you have Yaxing in the room, why don't we bet on a game? These 22 young talents, who are the deer, the 50,000, Lee came out and gave the Nangong head to help?"

Everyone seconded, so the twenty-two wooden sign with the name was placed on the long list, and the red one was placed below. The people who wanted to bet went forward to write down the chips and the money.

Xue Zhengxuan turned his head and followed the night of Chu: "How does Bitanzhuang give 50,000 heads, so few, is the old man named Li very poor?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Small gambling, big gambling hurts."

Xue Zhengxuan sneered and asked Chu Yuning: "Would you like it?"

Chu night Ning looked at him with a stern look and did not say anything. Xue Zhengyi was hairy on some of his necks and shrank his neck. He said, "Well, know that you don't like it, then --"

“What do you want to do?” Yuheng elders untied the purse and photographed it on the table, with no expression on his face. “If you come, you will be hurt.”

"..."

Xue Zheng took him for a while, just like a ghost, and then asked: "How much is it?"

"Three hundred thousand."

"..... so much? What should I do if I lose?"

"Can't pay." Chu said, "Do you want to repair the stone road? If you make more money, you can repair a few more in those villages that are particularly heavy."

Xue Zhengyi: "Really? Xuemen wants to lose?"

"I won't lose, your son, you should be clearer than me."

"....."

Seeing Xue Zhengyi still uneasy, Chu night Ning very simply said: "If you lose me, win it, go."

The squadrons have been filled with names. The small sects that didn’t really want to gamble were really itchy, and they couldn’t help but spend some money to come up with luck.

Nangong squatted and felt fun. He got up and wanted to gamble. Song Qiutong called him: "French, why are you going?"

"Win some money and buy jewelry for you."

Song Qiutong didn't talk, and he was flustered with a sleek face, and his forehead was smashed with black hair, and he was particularly shy and pitiful. Chu Evening had no intention of glanced over there, saw the sweetness of the newlyweds, and felt awkward. He quickly turned his head back, so he did not see the restlessness of Song Qiutong’s face.

Nangong stunned and took the pen. He walked over before the long case. He was preparing to pick a personal selection and write a chip. He suddenly heard a sharp voice behind him. Only between the electric and the flint, Nangong’s reaction was as fast as a wolf. He squatted sideways, swept back and swept away, and a white snow smudged his cheeks and flew over, "Hey!" and slammed into the main pillar of the main hall of the golden nanmu.

Sprinkles of powder, three points into the wood!

"who!"

"There are assassins!!"

"Alarm! Blow the ring!"

The sharp whistle sounded through 72 houses in Washington, and the songs were warmed up and the happy poetry of the poetry was in a mess.

Nangong’s eyes were dark and faint, with faint scent. He slammed the blood on his cheeks and strode to the pillars and looked up.

It was just an ordinary feather arrow. It actually penetrated into the depths of the hard Nanmu. There was a small bamboo tube on the feather arrow. Nangong’s face was taken down and the bamboo tube was removed. The dog’s teeth were fierce, and the sealing wax was blown. A letter comes.

good. It was really ridiculous. I don't know who made it. I played such a bad joke. This is really..."

"What is it?"

On the corner, suddenly a low-pitched voice was heard.

Everyone is discolored, and the leaves are forgotten. Before the Nangong Temple, Chu Ning also stood up and stared at the place where the sound came.

To know that Confucianism is such a grand event, the disciples responsible for martial law are high-level disciples of this school. This person actually came to the top of the poetry hall without knowing it, and he was still unconscious when he made a sound. Obviously It is not a general generation, it should not be underestimated.

"The head of Nangong, I kindly remind you, don't let your son lick a woman with a watery lotus flower for no reason. You not only don't listen, but instead say that I am full of paper, it really makes me open my eyes."

The voice was not received, and a black shadow flashed. When others were clear, he had already held his hand in the center of the main hall and stood in the crowd of Wuhuan.

"what--!"

"Escape, run away!"

The people who were close to each other were shocked and stunned. The tides generally fell down, and a circle of people was scattered around him. The brothers and sisters guarded the younger brothers and sisters, and guarded the disciples. The young man was guarding the young.

The black man wore a sly bronze mask and a black cloak, faintly said: "What do you want to escape? If I want to hurt, this temple should have been bleed and bleed. I will stand up."

The author has something to say: Hey... I think the mystery of the first gambling game is almost already visible. 23333

Nangong Liu seems to be calm, but his forehead has already produced a fine sweat. He estimates the strength of this person in his heart. He feels that he is not guilty, and he is more and more flustered, but it is only because of the face of the world’s largest party. Hard to scalp: "Who is this? What is the intention of the night gnome?"

"I said it, I just want to mention you, don't let your son not be jealous."

When he said this, the four guests couldn’t help but look at each other.

The Confucianist Ye Yexiu and Song Qiutong have been infected with this matter. They have already spread all over the streets and lanes, and they are all well-known. I am afraid that only Nangong, who is not aware of it, and Nangong Liu.

However, the wedding placard has been issued, the marriage book has been lowered, and at this time, what is the face on the face of Confucianism? Nangong Liu’s lips shook for a while, and made a cold cry, saying: “Who is a dog, as long as he likes it, he will not worry about outsiders.”

The black man smiled and said: "The big heart of the head, there is no such thing as Song Qiutong. Is this your Nangong family, or his Ye family."

Song Qiutong was furious and his face was white. A pair of beautiful eyes screamed and shouted: "You are bloody!"

"How can I spurt blood, you and Ye Yexi, what good things have you done, is it not clear in your heart?"

Ye Ye did not want to mention himself, suddenly stunned, and for a long time, I knew what the black man was saying, but his first reaction was not angry, but he was laughing.

"What are you talking about?"

"I have never said nonsense, but it is true and true, and I saw it with my own eyes." The head of the black man said, "You have saved the Song Qiutong at Xuanyuan Pavilion, and this is what the monks know all over the world. Ye Gongzi, what is your heart?"

"Seeing it, you can't bear to wear your hand."

"A good one can't bear the sleeves. You saved her. Let her be free. What do I do when I go in and out and take her with me? Let her go back to the Confucianism with you, and accept her as a waiter?"

"Song girl is a sphenoidal beauty seat. This is also known to the world. If I let her go, she will be immediately targeted by the unscrupulous, so that she will bring back the Confucianism Gate and give her a place to stay. ”

"A good place to stay, Ye Gongzi is really Liu Xiahui, accompanied by a stunning beauty all day long, there is no such thing as abruptness."

The black man’s words are quite ridiculous, but the leaves are not sorrowful, but they say: “Ye is innocent.”

He said so, but everyone does not believe that ordinary people are always willing to measure the chest of all people with their own knowledge. Most of these people come from the upper cult, if they get the sphenoidal beauty seats, even if they have broken their blood It is necessary to protect the baby in the arms, or stew directly to eat, who will believe that the leaves are innocent?

Therefore, a group of people exchanged their eyes, and they could not help but feel indifferent. In the uneasy atmosphere, they also gave birth to some obvious pleasures.

Nangong 驷 沉 沉 : : :

"Nangong Gongzi, you really don't know the people's heart." The black man walked in the hall, he walked around, suddenly stopped in front of Song Qiutong, and smiled at her two times, opening the way, "Song Girl, your husband is so blindly trusting you, no wonder you can face your heart and not jump, stand in this place, and behave as the Lady of the Confucianism."

Song Qiutong is far less calm than the other two. She is nervous: "You have to humiliate me!"

"What is your innocence with Ye Gongzi?" The black man talked and said, "After you were saved by him, he volunteered to serve him. When you were in a private meeting, you thought no one was around, but you didn't know. I have been watching in the dark, you have to think about people, unless you are..."

Song Qiu Tong shouted and interrupted him: "You are nonsense!"

"If I am nonsense, why are you shaking?"

"I, I am angry... I..." She went to see Nangong, "The son..."

Nan Gongyi returned to her side and held her behind her. A pair of wolves were generally gloomy and cold eyes staring at the black man: "You don't want to have blood."

"Is it bloody, I will say one thing, you will know." The black man smiled. "Namong Gongzi, you Song Meiren has a drop of red dragonfly on his left leg, isn't it?"

Nangong’s words are heard: "You..."

"About the size of the rice, the color is bright, not dark red, but blood red. If I didn't see her and Ye Gongzi for fun, how could she know such details?"

"This……"

"Zongzi!" Song Qiutong was frightened and took the sleeves of Nangong, with tears. "No, no, he yells at me...he must be when I bathe..."

“What good looks are you taking a shower?” The black man was a little unhappy and interrupted her. “It’s better to go to the jade and elders to bathe and change clothes.”

The elders of Yu Heng were sneaked into the bath by the female disciples. It was also an epic sensation in the realm of the realm. At this time, everyone felt that it was a bit funny, and the courage was still looking at the night of Chu, but it was late. Ning's face was amazingly murderous, and they turned their heads down.

The black man walked around Nangong and Song Qiutong, and suddenly he thought of something. He smiled and said: "Yes, I suddenly remembered one thing. When Ye Gongzi photographed Song girl, Song girl wrist There is a sacred sandstone that the cold scale sage hand personally clicks. If the Song girl is really ice-clear and jade, and I am full of foul language and filth with her, then there must be a little cinnabar on her wrist."

He paused, and Song Qiutong, who was miserable and shivering like a sieve, smiled and said: "Song girl, if you really want to be innocent, why not take the Shougong Sand Show with everyone, how?"

Nangong stunned and turned back to comfort Song Qiutong: "Nothing, you give everyone a glimpse, you..."

But when he saw that Song Qiutong’s lips had faded from the blood, the whole face was white like paper. He shivered and couldn’t help it. After a while, some doubts: “How are you... what?”

Song Qiutong loosened the hand of Nangong Yu, stepped back, clutching his sleeves and shaking his head with tears.

"No... no..."

Nangong’s eyes were wide and wide, as if what was known to happen, he could not speak.

The black man sneered: "What's wrong? Don't you dare?"

"No, it is not like this... I don't know..." Song Qiutong fell to the ground, and suddenly the tears rained, and said, "I don't know, I don't know... I beg you... let me go. ....."

She clung to her sleeves and prevented others from seeing it, but such a desire to cover her is like telling everyone that the sacred sand on her wrist is indeed disappearing as the black man said.

She is a virgin, but she is not married yet, but the red marks on her hands have disappeared.

This time I jumped into the Yellow River and couldn't wash it.

The black man is about to say, suddenly heard a cold and chilling sound, and in the light, Chu night Ning is tall and straight, saying: "Song girl's wrist sand, a few days ago, still with you It’s said that Song Ye’s two people’s confession does not match, and it’s fearful that you will be murdered.”

The black man did not know why, and his eyes flashed a little silent, and the aggressive momentum was inexplicably turned into an invisible when he turned to the night, ":....."

For a long while, the black man sighed.

Some of you feel that you have been mistaken, and this man who has to smear his mouth to push the man to the road, seems to have some connivance in his tone.

"Chu Zongshi said that it is correct, but I just did not say that Song and Ye had been private before, but only said that the two were infected, really want to talk about private time, about a few days ago. ”

Ye forgets to mutter: "...is ridiculous..."

Chu night Ning face cold, imposing manners: "There is nothing in the air, your words are false and real, let me first trial."

"you……"

Between the words, Chu night Ning pointed to the golden light flashing, the black man's pupil stunned and gathered, sideways to avoid, the danger to avoid the fiercely out of the Shenwutian asked.

"What is Chu Zongshi doing?" The black man is helpless and funny. His body is very good. Chu Ning's rattan whip can't get rid of him for a while, he doesn't fight back, so he is so full. Liu Ning's Liu Teng chased after running. The atmosphere of the tightness suddenly became a bit funny, and there was some faintness in his faintness. "Don't hit me, I haven't finished talking yet."

"If you want to complain, why don't you pick up the mask and talk about it!"

"You want me to pick it up. I will pick it up for you. I can't do it now."

"Why not!"

"I don't look good, under the lights, I scare everyone."

The black man escaping from the sky and ran for a long time, seeing the night of the night, the law was fierce, the more fierce the war, the unsatisfactory darkness, the side flashed to the back of the wooden pillar, escaped the sky and asked for a splash of gold, and said: "Leave the past, you are not a gentleman? Today I will let the world know your true face! You buy a woman's double repair, forcing Song Qiutong to serve you, you care for the people, bullying the wife of the Lord! You - you are a clothing animal, a human face!"

Ye forgets the wrath: "What's the mess, what to say?!"

"Is it wrong? Song Qiutong's Guardian Sand is not, don't you know?" The black man hid and whispered. "She was in front of you the day before, saying that she is the unmarried of Nangong. Wife, please open the net, don't want to entangle with her again, but you insist on not listening, you still say -"

Ye forgets his face and is mad, and gnash his teeth: "What else do I say? You edit!"

"You have forgotten what you said, but I want to mention you, you said at the time," the black man cleared his throat, changed his tone, and imitated the tone of the leaves. "Song girl, I have a lot of money, But I made clothes for others. Now that you have the green eyes of Nangong Gongzi, you have to retreat from me and break with me. You think it is too beautiful."

At the end, "ha ha ha" laughed three times, that tone, full of land rogue.

Ye Forgiveness: "....."

The author has something to say: Well, everyone in the first game should know who it is~

But this person is very good at the end, why do you want to pour dirty water on small leaves? Tomorrow will open a prize~嘿嘿嘿~(It is estimated that today, a small partner can be sure what the answer to the second game is, face and face)

Today, the bib has a color version of the teacher’s sword, which is not the koi carp king. Yesterday, I was addicted to the code word. I didn’t have time to see it before ten o'clock. I am guilty! Starting today, I began to enter the Confucian Gate copy to decrypt the monsters to open the boss, the old rules, in order not to affect the rhythm, this story does not update the small theater ~ what?

The surrounding guests listened, and many people have already revealed the sorrowful color, and their eyes swayed between the leaves, the Nangong Temple and Song Qiutong.

Someone whispered: "It’s a scum..."

"Nangong Gongzi is still not angry?"

"The original Song girl was forced to helplessly, only... Hey, this is no stranger to her... She is a daughter's house, what can I do in front of the two sons who are in the limelight?"

The black man learned the love, cold and could not be prevented from being asked by the sky, but fortunately he avoided the urgency, the injury is not heavy, and was not entangled, but the cloak still broke a hole, blood spatter, he snorted, dare not Slowly, I can't hide from the late Liu Ning, but I still haven't let go of the leaves.

"Ye Gongzi, the day before, Song girl did not dare to admit, I am afraid she is worried about hurting you and the Nangong son. But the sky has eyes, the mirror is high, you are not a little shy, not planning to be in everyone Do you bow your head and plead guilty?!"

The leaves are ecstatic, but they are also ridiculous. They say, "Ye is guilty."

"You are not guilty, is it still the sin of Song girl alone? Although she did not resist, but I think it is only because of your coercion, do you still want to say that she is actively recruiting you? Instead of you forced her? ”

At this time, Nangong, who had never spoken, suddenly turned back and looked down at Song Qiutong’s eyes and reached out to help her.

Song Qiutong thought that he reached out and wanted to confirm the sand on the wrist. When she woke up this morning, she found that the cinnabar on her wrist was gone, and her heart was very flustered. However, the more the case was darker, the explanation was unclear. She thought that it would soon be a candle with the Nangong Temple. At this time, this cinnabar will disappear by itself, so it is better not to say anything in the past two days, so as not to increase the misunderstanding.

Unexpectedly, someone would splash her dirty water...

I thought that I was indeed saved by the forgetfulness of the leaves. I used to be the servant of Ye Yexi, and then I thought of my cinnabar, and the red dragonfly on my leg was clearly pointed out. It was a hundred words. The lieutenant, I don’t know what to do.

In the midst of chaos, she lifted the wet scorpion and looked at the scorpion. I saw those people looking at her in a thin and pitiful manner. They whispered in whispers, and they talked a lot, and they saw the leaves lingering and standing, and the face was pointed by thousands of people. The guests spit.

The black man was still running around by Liu Zongshi's Liu Teng, and he couldn't help but scream: "Leaves forget! You and I have been complaining for a long time. Today I will expose you. You are a hypocrite! You are confidant." Miss Lord, forcing a good girl, why is it poisonous!"

Song Qiutong’s glimpse, almost suddenly realized how to do it himself. It’s impossible to wash the charges. Listening to the tone of the black man, the person seems to be deeply enemies with Ye Yexiu, trying every means to destroy Ye Ye. The gentleman’s reputation as a gentleman.

She can't afford the sin of forgiveness, but if she follows the words of the black man and says that she is forced by Ye Forget, then at least...

She almost hysterically shouted: "It is him who harms me!"

Nangong’s hand suddenly froze, standing in the same place and staring at her. It seems that the unmarried wife was really tarnished by her father’s right arm. The whole person was shocked.

Song Qiutong hides his face and weeps sobbing and says: "Yes, Ye Gongzi bullied me, he...he forced me... I never promised..."

Nangong glared at her, the candlelight was bright and dark, his eyes suddenly and suddenly, and he was half-squatting. He put down the hand to pull Song Qiutong, his voice was hoarse, and the fire was splashing: "Do you know what you are talking about?"

Seeing his anger, Song Qiutong’s heart is even more embarrassed, crying: “The son, can’t live... I’m afraid that the son can’t let me, so...have been...had never said...I’m more afraid...more afraid When he comes out, he will let Ye Gongzi and the son of the sinister, he will be reused by the head. If you have a gap, where can the Confucianism door have a half-point?" She said, squatting down, long sleeves, slender shoulders I couldn’t help but tremble, and it’s sad and sighing.

"Qiu Tong really doesn't know what to do... I don't even dare to ask the head to be the master. I am humiliated and can only hide it myself... Gongzi, Qiu Tong has something to do with you, but... but it is true to you..."

Nangong was pale, and retreated. He shook his head and repeated in his mouth: "Do you know... Do you know what you are talking about?"

Song Qiutong's blue silk is covered with fragrant shoulders, and the light in the shadows is like a satin-like glare, which makes her whole person pitiful. She mourns and sighs: "It is not good for Qiu Tong, and I shouldn't be squatting, but I am lonely, I... ..."

Nangong 驷 suddenly violently drunk, interrupted her words: "Do you know what you said!!"

"I..." Song Qiutong was violently shaken by him, and looked up on his face. The clouds and flowers were damp, the delicate face was full of tears, and his lips could not tremble. "I..."

"Do you actually do this kind of thing? You, actually dare... you can actually do this kind of thing!"

When everyone listened to Nangong’s words, they frowned and exchanged their eyes. What's more, they couldn't help but whisper: "I have heard that Confucianism is respected by men and women are mean, but I didn't expect such a thing." The Nangong blame is not a leaf forget, but a plain-scarred Song girl, it is really chilling."

"Yeah, he really is very good."

When Chu Ningning heard Song Qiutong’s own admittance, he had already recovered Liu Teng. At this time, seeing Nangong’s reaction, he was somewhat awkward.

In his memory, although Nangong Temple is occasionally arrogant and arrogant, but still good in character, it is not such a person who is unclear. If this matter is true and correct, it should be pursued, but it should be pursued, not Song Qiutong.

But at the moment, the anger of Nangong is actually all in Song Qiutong... How can this be?

Among the guests, only Mei Hanxue, one of them sat in the room while drinking, while screaming. If Xue Meng is here at this time, he will find that Mei Hanxue and Fang Cai’s own glimpses, and they are completely two appearances. He is now in a general posture with the romantic seeds in the Taohuayuan, with the eyes in the spring and the gestures. Very awkward.

Song Qiutong was still crying, and pushed all the ugly things to the leaf. The leaf was forgotten by her identification. It was a word that couldn’t be said, only eyes wide open and squatting on this one. The woman who was photographed from Xuanyuan Pavilion.

"It is Qiutong who is weak and has no courage before Ye Gongzi is light and thin. He is self-deprecating to prove innocence. The body of Qiu Tong duckweed, all the benefits, is given by the son, now... now knowing that there is something wrong... I... The son is falling..."

After listening to her wailing, Nangong驷 raised her head and closed her eyes.

The original warm and warm light, now shining on his face, but the shadow of black swells, his eyelashes shaking, seems to be pressing what he is trying.

The two palms became fists, and there was no flesh and blood. His throat was tumbling and rolling, just like the waves in his heart. He was patient, his cheekbones were cold, his foreheads were violent, he was patient, his bones trembled, his blood was burning.

He endured, and finally couldn't help it. He screamed and screamed, and the sword slammed the case in front of Song Qiutong a few times! The cup is a mess!

"Song Qiutong, do you know... my life, the most hateful, the most hateful, the most intolerable, is to lie!!" He said with a sigh of relief, "Leaves forget!!"

"……Little Lord."

"Leave the past, you give me over!"

"..."

Looking back, my eyes are red and wet: "Come on!!"

The leaves have forgotten to go, and the people who watched the drama felt that the sword of Nangong’s next moment would have to be poked straight into the chest of the leaves, and the animals of the virtual and the snakes would be directly smashed, and the heart would be pulled to the ground. I was holding my breath and staring at all of this in my eyes.

Nangong sighed and stared at the leaves for a moment, and hoarsely said: "...you, solved the tuning."

"Transformation?" Everyone stunned and looked at each other. "What is this about transliteration?"

"Yeah, hey, but it’s strange, what does this leaf have to do with the tuning? Is his original voice terrible, will it scare others? Or is there anything he can’t see in his original voice?"

The leaves are reminiscing, but they are coveted: "There is no master, you can't solve it."

Nangong stunned and stared at him: "What do you say?"

"Ye Mou has been using the sound-changing technique since the age of thirteen, and has used this voice for ten years. The sound-changing technique has gone deep into the spiritual core." Ye forgets the news, calmly, "again I can't recover the original voice."

"..." Nangong 驷 stepped back, yelled, and after half a squat, looked up at the man who sat on the high face and muttered, "Father?"

Nangong Liu finally spoke: "Hey, this is a pity, but... It’s true that the change of voice is a voluntary decision. Now it’s unexpected. You don’t have to think about it."

"but……"

Nangong Liu walked down the high platform and stood behind the clumps of guards. He held his hand and said: "For the father, you know that you have a friendship with the leaves. I am grateful to him for his loyalty in these years. But it is a matter of gratitude. One thing, he... confession Song Qiutong, ignoring the human genius, deceiving the lord, is a crime of death."

I didn’t think that Nangong Liu actually said this, Nangong said: "Father!!"

Nangong Liu waved his hand, and a blue light flashed. Nangong was immediately shrouded in a * enchantment. He was first stunned and then groaned in anger, but the enchantment was the rule of the Confucianism passed down from generation to generation. "The enchantment", because the Confucianism Gate once happened to take the position of the uncle, so the son of the head signed a * deed with his father at an early age. This enchantment is the father’s special purpose to detain his son. Even if the Nangong 驷 force is stronger, it will not be able to break free.

When he shouted in the enchantment, he was even sealed and could not be passed outside...

Nowadays, it is better to admit that Ye Yexi and Song Qiutong have been confessed, and it is better to shake off other secrets of Confucianism. Nan Gongliu came to the black man and bowed his hands and said, "I don't know if Mr. and Ye Yexi have anything to do with the festival, but thanks to Mr. today, the district is really unfortunate."

The black man faintly said: "The Nangong head is polite."

"Come, come and forget the leaves! Go to -"

"Slow."

The black man suddenly stopped, and Nangong Liuton was uneasy, but his face still smiled and said: "What advice does Mr.?"

"I was thinking, the lang just said two things about the sound-changing technique. Why do you have to rush to imprison Ye Gongzi?"

"Cough, this is the private matter of my Confucianism, it is inconvenient to elaborate here..."

The black man smiled and said: "The head of the prince is in order to face the face of Confucianism. It is really clear what is called abandoning the car. Poor Ye girl was born and died for more than ten years, and now you are trying to preserve your own dignity. Make her innocent."

As soon as this statement came out, the others had not yet reacted, but the face of Nangong Liu suddenly changed.

Under the seat, Mei Han Xue smiled and sipped a pot of wine, took a drink, and let go.

The face of Nangong Liu looked a little sallow under the candlelight, and he smiled and asked: "What leaf girl... sir you..."

The black man’s eyes were stunned, and the voice echoed clearly and loudly in the hall, with a word and a word.

"Leaves forget, it is not a man at all."

Chapter 161

"Leaves forget, it is not a man at all."

"....."

A few silences, suddenly boiling!

The guests in the hall were eclipsed, and all the sights were concentrated on the leaves of the forgotten, and the leaves were hungry, their eyes closed and their eyes closed.

Not a man? !

This handsome and upright young man, actually... is it actually a girl?

This sentence is like dripping into the sputum. In a flash, there is a hot air wave. Some people take a breath of air, and then the screaming sound and the splashing oil are smashing.

"Is the leaf forgetting to be a daughter?"

"God... how come..."

"It's no wonder that Nancai didn't blame her. He knew this thing clearly! So Song Qiutong just..."

“It’s all about self-protection and planting people!”

"It's too sinister! I didn't do it without doing it. Why do you want to wash the charges and blame others?"

"But I still don't believe, how can Ye Yexiong be a woman? I can't get it at all..."

The cold eyes of Nangong Liuyan flashed, staring at the black scorpion exposed by the black man, saying: "Mr. Do not rumor, where is the evidence from you -"

"If you don't feel guilty, let the Nangong 驷 be released." The black man said, "Fortunately, the sage is wild, but he is still a gentleman, not as cold and ruthless as you are."

"..."

Seeing a layer of greasy sweat on the face of Nangong Liu, pinching the fist, the black man is cold and cold: "Why, you put it."

Nangong Liu Yan sleeves: "The district is not a child of discipline, but it is not possible for an outsider to dictate his hand and put it on the ground!"

He said that although he did not admit that the black people said it was true, everyone’s heart was already like a mirror. Those who did not believe in the words of the black people could not help but shake their minds and re-evaluate the leaves. The handsome face, trying to find out what she was doing as a woman.

At this time, the crowd suddenly had a personal voice: "The head of the Nangong, this is what you are wrong."

Everyone turned back, Mei Hanxue wearing a fox, graceful and cheerful, standing in a light and shadow, said: "Ye girl is a heroic, but it is a true daughter, the head of the body For the man, he should be pity and cherish the jade. As an elder, he should be generous and kind. How can he bully a girl in order not to lose the face of Confucianism?"

He said, walking slowly to the front of the temple, smiled and said: "Small sorrow is not awkward. I once had a relationship with the flower girl and the leaf girl. At that time, she felt that she was cool and heroic, and unlike the Fufeng weak willow, she loved it. The mouth is stupid, but the words are offensive to the Ye girl, which makes her heart abandon her, and has a dispute with Xiaoyan. After the coach Ye Hao’s high-profile move, she can’t help but sigh that the Confucianism is really a hero, and the female repair is also an extraordinary skill. The door secretly applauded, but today I saw the head of the monarch acting... Oh, but I feel that the Huang Feng Confucianism is not worthy of such a proud face."

"...Mei Xianjun, you and Ye Yexi have only one side of the relationship, it will be wrong to be wrong." Nangong willow face dull, but still dead and bite between the lips, said, "Read in Kunlun step For the sake of the Snow Palace, I don't care about you, so don't leave your eyes again."

Between his words, it is not as calm as calm.

The black man sneered: "The name of Mei Gongzi is famous all over the world. If he does not see that a person is a man or a woman, I am afraid that no second person in the world can see it."

Nangong Liu listened to him and said that he could not help but anger and burn hard. He said: "Mr. still only slammed the leaves and forsaw the insults of Song Qiutong. At this time, he said that Ye Yexi was a woman. So he turned upside down and wanted to disturb my Confucianism. Clear, bad, my door is famous!"

Black man said: "If I don't make this decision, how can I let Nangong son see the true nature of Song girl? If he is wrong, it is really disgusting for most of his life."

"But you only know what is said to be justified! What's more, if the leaf is a woman, how does the cinnabar on Song Qiutong's wrist disappear?"

"You ask her, ask me what to do." The black man sneered, "not to mention the fact that you have thousands of male disciples on the door of the Confucianism. If you have the heart, you can take them. One question and one question will definitely find a satisfactory answer."

This matter is related to the face of Confucianism, so everyone is silent, no one speaks, but the innocence and curiosity in the eyes can't be hidden. Nan Gongliu feels that the thorn is on his back in such a gaze. After a while, I suddenly turned my head and said, "You come over!"

"..."

"You said by yourself, did the Song girl yell at you?" Nan Gongliu stared at the face of Ye Shixi, he was betting, and he still held the most important chip in his hand. He knows that Ye Forgive has a deep affection for his son, and he does not want Confucianism to be famous. "You tell everyone, what is your identity!"

The leaves are always obedient, from small to large, the most sturdy piece on his board.

He even clearly remembered that when he was thirteen years old, he was ordered to come to the magnificent hall of Confucianism.

The temple door is close, only two of them.

He sat on the icy seat and looked down. The 13-year-old girl had not yet gotten out, dressed in a green scorpion, with a satin on her hair and a small silver bracelet on her hand.

He smiled and said to her: "Forgetting it, calling you today, I mean you already know."

Ye forgets to squat down and grows down: "Yes, respect the Lord."

"Your righteous father has been seriously injured many times before, and his bones are damaged. It is no longer suitable for the dark guards. You are his adopted daughter and the childhood sweetheart. I can't believe other people. I can only believe you."

Ye Yexiu did not get up, still quietly lie on the ground, under the bun, revealing a slender neck, like a lamb licking the neck.

Nangong Liudao: "Your talent is outstanding, the future is immeasurable. I have the heart to plant you as the leader of the Confucianism, and then lead a city in the seventy-two cities. In this way, you can both worry about your righteous father. It can become the right arm of the deaf child. Since then, he is in the dark, you are in the dark, and share the centuries-old glory of Confucianism."

He paused.

"However, if you don't want it, then it doesn't matter. How much can your father support you for a while? I will find someone who is more suitable. This is a great sacrifice for you. I have a lot of things in my heart. You don't have to reluctantly."

When Nangong Liu finished, he changed his position on the high seat and waited in a hurry. This girl has no father and no mother, and she has no support. He has full confidence in his heart. He waits for her to nod.

Finally, Ye Ye had straightened her back and she looked at him quietly.

There was such an instant, Nangong Liu felt chilling, and it seems that her own calculations and smirk were all seen by the girl, but the next moment, Ye forgets: "My life is given by the righteous father, to report the father, I Nothing unwilling."

Nangong Liu Jing had a mustache and sighed: "In the end it is aggrieved to you."

Ye forgets the silence and indifferently says: "I should thank the Lord, and my eyes will be added."

Nangong Liu Yanfeng turned: "But, Confucianism has always been male and female, and women are always weak and weak. It is the woman's benevolence. This is the only man in the world who can serve the public and be a commander." You are so smart, you should know how to do it."

Ye forgets the silence for a moment, in front of Nangong Liu's face, coldly took off the silver bracelet on his hand, smashed the ribbon, and then she removed the upper jaw, only the white jacket. After doing all this, she will release her hair and turn it into a ponytail. The sun shines in and shines on her. She has a straight back and a strong look. Although she is still young, her temperament is like a pine.

"Not bad." Nangong Liu dripping does not leak, reminding her, "I will dress like this in the future, but don't forget, there is sound."

Leaves forget to drop the eyelashes. She has already discovered it when she came in. Before she had her seat, she had already put a golden scissors in advance.

She picked up the scissors and licked them in the throat.

Blood ticks.

"The old sound is annihilated and will not change for life."

She slowly spit out the eight-character curse, then closed her eyes and threw the scissors off the front.

The blood on the scissors was mottled. Nangong Liu stared at it for a while and said, "Good, good. From then on, you are the successor of the dark city leader. It is the Ye Gongzi of the Confucianism Gate. Even if it is a nephew, I will ask him to let you three. Minute--"

The leaves are forgotten, but they are another kind of juvenile voice.

"I am sorry to ask the Lord, and I will never let the righteous father be alone. I am willing to share my worries."

Therefore, Nangong Liu is too clear that Ye is a man of this moment.

After ten years, I learned to be a man, and I didn’t leak water. When I was born, I took my secret medicine every day. I was born with a painful drug, and I became a male body.

In his eyes, she is a dog raised by the Confucianism, and she will never betray her in order to raise her health.

Ten years ago, she cut her throat and sprinkled blood forever.

Today, she will not disappoint him.

He bet on the past will help him.

As long as Ye forgets to say "I am not a woman", what can happen if everyone does not believe?

The black man obviously thinks the same way. He walked in the first two steps, standing in front of the leaves, and raised his hand to block her way. He said: "Nan Gongliu, Ye girl has exhausted the effort for your Confucianism. Now that you can't argue, can you use her for the rest of my life?"

Nangong Liu Zheng wanted to open up and argue again. Suddenly, in the distant night sky, an orange-red light spot rose into the sky and suddenly exploded. Some people also caught the spiritual horn deer.

However, in front of this Confucian secret, it is no longer important to deer who is dead. No one cares who actually got the second. Everyone’s eyes are still firmly locked in the center of the main hall, where the tables and chairs fall to the ground. Broken in half, the mysterious black master is between Nangong Liu and Ye Forgiveness. The groom tonight is trapped in the enchantment by his father, and the bride is kneeling on the floor, with tears on her face and tears.

It’s just too surprising. From accusing the confession, to the husband and wife, to the daughter’s body, now the Confucianist’s head is dead and not recognized. This is a lively event, I am afraid that after three or five years, people will talk about it in the wine cellar.

Who will manage the three poor deer?

Therefore, no one noticed a dark red mouth slowly cracking over the jungle until the sound of fireworks suddenly rang, and the forest was soaring, and fled to the depths of the night until twenty messages were heard. The fireworks burst at the same time, and the night glows into a sea of Shura.

The people of the poetry hall suddenly felt that they were wrong, and they flocked to the guardrail to see -

"what happened?"

"How do all the fireworks blow up together?"

"Look at you! Above the sky! What is that?"

"...day crack!!!"

"It's a crack!!"

In the time of the temple, there was a dead silence, followed by exclamations and screams: "Ghosts are cracking! How can there be ghosts in the upper world?"

"On the top of the hunting forest!"

"Brother! My brother is still there!"

"sister--!!"

The crowd is like a fish in the pool, and the black scorpion is squeezed into one place. The horror and shock are the baits put into the pool, causing a wave of water. At this time, I also don’t care about the martial art scandal. The secret of the rivers and lakes, Nangong Liu is probably to save the face, and screamed with aloud: "There are no secrets in the world, but a ghost in the sky, only in the Confucianism, Nangong Liu will never make guests feel bad in the fall!"

Speaking of waving his own sword, stepping on the blue-streaked hilt, Yu Jian stands in the night wind hunting.

"The five styles of the Confucianist Guards immediately went to the jungle to investigate, and the other elder disciples, guarding the poetry, and protecting the guests!"

He said that it was like trying to escape the black man's interrogation. He led five guards and hurriedly went to the Xiaoyue campus to go to Yujian. The wedding banquet was not even cleaned up.

"Well, how can this happen suddenly?"

"Yeah, there has never been a ghost in the upper world. What is going on here?"

On the floor of the jade-embellished jade, the hearts of the people who are in the upper bounds are used to the pampers. In the face of the infested ghosts, they are more afraid than the responsibility. It’s okay for them to kill the big demon, but the sky is not the same. If it’s the upper layer of hell, it’s the ordinary ghost. It’s okay, but if it’s a shocked five years ago, it’s cracked. It’s infernal **** –

They had a chill, and they thought that the masters like Chu Xiaoning died in the fight. They couldn’t help but be self-defeating. They squeezed into the vermilion and looked at the scarred cracks in the distant sky.

Chu night Ning got up and said to Xue Zheng: "Respect the Lord, this crack is not the right color. After the split, it is very likely to be several layers after hell. I don't worry about Xue Meng, I will go and see."

It was said that Bai Baihua’s clothes rushed to the ground and went straight to the front of the shackles. In the eyes of everyone’s surprise, they only sneaked on the blue tile roof next to them and quickly went away.

"Yu Heng -!" Xue Zhengyi is about to call him, but the night of Ning has disappeared into the dark night.

He snorted and wanted to jump down, but his shoulders were caught. One turn, the bronze mask on the last grin, the black man patted his shoulder and lowered his voice: "Uncle, you are here to guard the aunt, the master is there to follow me, you can rest assured." ”

Xue Zhengyi was shocked: "burning-"

The black man raised his hand and gently pressed it to his lips and shook his head.

"..." Xue Zhengyi did not think that this black man would actually be burned, and the ink burned did not wait for him to ask more questions, and he held it with one hand, like an eagle, jumping into the darkness, he The cloak swelled and rolled like ink. After a while, it disappeared behind the same vault.

"Master!"

The ink burned lightly ran halfway along the eaves, and was too slow. He summoned a sword that he had set a contract with himself. Yu Jian quickly caught up with Chu Yuning.

He raised his hand and opened his own mask. The bronze was pushed to his forehead and revealed a handsome face: "Let me."

Chu Xinning's nephew suddenly became big: "How is it?"

"Up, I took the teacher to honor the sword in the past, and then talked with the teacher on the road."

Chu nightning took the hand that he had stretched out, lifted it up and lifted it, and settled it firmly on the blade. Then he wanted to loosen the ink, but the thick and rough hand was tightened more and more. The ink burned and stood behind him. As soon as he spoke, the unique burning sensation of the young man lingered in the back of his ear, and the hot and cold night wind seemed to become hotter.

Ink ignited: "This sword is too strong, flying fast, and the master is hurrying."

The two men took the sword and took the wind. Chu night Ning asked: "Is everything on the hall of Fangcai, are you good?"

"Well. I have been walking in the rivers and lakes these years and I have heard a lot of things related to Song Qiutong." Ink burned the road. "She has no courage to do anything to kill the massacre of the massacre, but it is a full-scale descendant of the stone. She was really married to Nangong Temple, and later became the Lady of the Confucianism, I am afraid that this martial art will be much worse than it is now."

Chu night Ning said: "The Confucianist door will not be worse than it is now."

After he finished the sentence, he frowned and looked at the black cloak with his eyes burned. His heart was a doubt: "...when you say, how can you know that Ye is a girl?"

Chapter 162

"Her words, I don't know how to respect the Master. I knew it as early as Taohuayuan."

In fact, I have known it in my life, but this thing can’t be told the truth with Chu. The ink burned and laughed: "When I walked on the road, I heard Mei Xuexue and the people who stepped on the snow palace and said about her. At that time, I believed that Mei Hanxue’s eyes could not be mistaken. Later, I watched it and confirmed that Ye girl would not be a man."

"Why?"

"Isn't the Master knowing that her clothes and collars are always tall? It's the kind that covers the neck. The standard is very strange. Ordinary people have one or two pieces, and she is one."

"……Did not notice."

When the ink burned, he took the empty hand and gestured at the night of Chu: "It’s almost like this."

He said, the fingertips inadvertently ran into the throat of Chu’s lateness, and the slightly raised place was very fragile. He couldn’t help but grind the shackles there. He thought that his master was so embarrassed. Then the wildness is difficult to tame, but it will expose the weak place of the throat to his fingers, and it is too exciting for him to pinch.

For a moment, I forgot to go to see the road. The sword was very fast. I heard that Chu Jingning’s "Be careful!", it was too late to get the momentum, and the slash was so straight that it hit a towering giant wood. .

"Hey!"

The ink burned completely, but I remember to hold the hand of Chu Yuning tightly. He anxiously called the phrase "Late Ning", but the call was too urgent, and the sound of the broken forest in the ear was so noisy. Did not hear clearly.

Chu nightning is simply faint, Yu Jian Yu Jian, what sword! Is it not good to step on the eaves in a down-to-earth manner? It’s a must!

The two actually fell to the ground on the ground. The ink burned first and the back slammed into the woodland of the gravel. Although it was not broken, the pain was certain. But he was lying on his back, watching the starry sky flashing through the branches, and suddenly he felt very happy -

Haha, fortunately, the person who fell below is him, not Chu nightning.

He couldn't help but laugh, although Chu nighting hit his chest and hit his ribs, but he couldn't help but smile. He bent his eyes, opened his mouth, and dimples deep. Full of obsessive meaning.

When Chu Ning looked up, he saw him laughing like this, and could not help but anger: "What are you laughing?! Are you stupid?"

Ink burned and took him, and put him in his arms, although it was not suitable, but this time, he just wanted to raise his hand to touch the night hair of Chu.

He thought so, and he really did.

Chu night Ning said right, he probably is really stupid.

"Master respect..."

He glared at the late night's hair, and the night seemed to give him a key. The box that banned the private * desire was opened. The relatives in his words could no longer be controlled and flooded.

This voice is too irritating, and it is so tired that the night of the night is a stiff, and the heart is flustered. He rushes to pick up his own awesome majesty: "What to call? Royal sword can also fall, good ability."

The ink burned and sighed softly. Finally, he touched his hair and cleared his throat and smiled: "The teacher blames it, please ask the teacher to get up from me."

Although he thought in his heart, please ask Master to lie in my arms for a while.

But this kind of words is obviously not exportable.

Chu night Ning black face, and rose to the ground, and the ink burned along.

"How?" He asked hard, "Where is it hurt?"

"Nothing." The ink burned. "I have a thick skin and I can stand it."

When Chu Ning just wanted to say something, he suddenly found a snoring flower on the head of the ink. It was estimated that it was knocked down when it fell. It happened to fall on his top, and he could not help but squint: "Your Head..."

"Is there any injury?"

The ink burned his hand and touched it, but it was good.

"No, it blossoms."

Chu, Ning Xin, took the flower and handed it to him with no expression. The ink burns a little embarrassed, and it is quite subtle and squatting on the back of the head, and the smile is even brighter.

"..." Chu Yuening turned his head and coughed. "If it's okay, go ahead."

Ink burning said: "御-"

"Not royal." Chu night Ning suddenly looked back, glare, "light work!"

"...light work will be lighter." The ink burned and waved, reluctantly took the epee back to the shackles.

However, the deeper the forest, the denser the trees, the speed of the sword is actually not as fast as the light, and the night of the night is good, and the water is swept away.

The cool breeze hits the face, and the ink can't stand the stirring heart.

Chu Xiaoning’s voice suddenly came from the front, and his tone was very dull. He asked very carelessly: “Song Qiutong’s leg is awkward, how can you know?”

The ink burned a glimpse, and it was too late to prevent it. The "砰" sounded, and the master of the genre Hehe Mo once again slammed into the pine tree.

Chu nightning: "... Are you blind at night?"

"Oh, no." Ink ignited, "Sorry, I have a snack today."

Chu nightning slightly frowning, then seemed to think of something, furious: "Song Qiu Tong's squat on the leg makes you not think about it? The person who cultivates the Tao is the most important, and you are so eager to see the beauty." What are you still doing?"

The ink burned for a while, but I thought that Chu Yuning said that it was very reasonable. However, Chu Yuning made a mistake. The beauty of his greed is not Song Qiutong, but the temper in front of him is like a snow leopard. Angry man.

He sighed and looked at Chu's eyebrows very softly: "Master, I don't like the look of Song girl. You think too much. There is a mole on her leg, that is the person I used to listen to Xuanyuan Pavilion. Said, not by the eyes, the master should not be angry."

"What kind of gasiness do I have?... Well, I ask you, since Ye Yexi is a woman, how did the cinnabar in Song Qiutong’s hands fail? This should not be a coincidence."

"It is no coincidence that Master respects still remember, I gave Song Qiutong a string of bracelets before?"

"Ok."

"There is a technique on the chain, which is what I created." The ink burned. "It took four days to create a bad one, but within a short time, as long as Song Qiutong wears the chain, it can cover it. The cinnabar that she fell on the hand of the cold scale."

"....." Chu nightning does not speak, but the look is not good.

He felt that there was something burning in him.

The burning of the ink has changed a lot in the past years, and I have learned the temperament of my own 70% of my nosy, but the so-called idle things, that is, the road is not fair, and I help each other. This is a lot of trouble, even when it is too much to create a small spell to expose someone's true face and prevent her from marrying the Confucianism.

Unless Song Qiutong and the ink burn have a big holiday, or if the leaf forgets and the ink burns, then this guy should not do this.

In this silence, the ink burned, and he also felt the mood of Chu Yuning.

He flew over the distance behind the night in Chu, and said: "Master."

"How." Chu night is faint.

Natural things can't be said in the past, but the ink does not want to be uncomfortable in Chu Xinning's heart. When he thinks about it, he decides to tell half of his heart the true feelings of Chu Zhongning: "Master, Yeh, she is a A particularly good person, she spent a lot of money at Xuanyuan Pavilion, and saved a woman she had never met. You know this too."

"Ok."

"But the leaves forget the Nangong Temple, and the Master is not worth it?"

"... okay, I can see it tonight."

"It’s good to see the teacher. I know the true identity of Ye girl, so I always understand her heart. Besides Song Qiutong, she didn’t know that Ye was a woman, so she just feared her. However, there is no mourning. But if she is married to Nangong Temple, then the Confucianism will not necessarily keep this secret for her. With the heart of Song Qiutong, she must regard the woman who likes Nangong as the eye."

When the ink burned, he thought of the past life. Song Qiutong felt his private love with Chu and Ning, and hated it in his heart. He even took advantage of himself to be in the palace and unplugged ten nails from the night.

What would a woman like this fall into her hands? The answer is self-evident.

The evils that Song Qiutong did were the same as nail-nailing. It would not be too sensational enough to hide her behind other people’s evil deeds, enough for her to linger in the bad habits of others.

This world, like doing good and doing evil, is the sky that falls down high, and the most kind people, such as Chu, are pushed out by the hands of a pair of weak people. First kill the most vicious people, such as stepping on the immortal, the world is altogether, and thousands of people kill.

However, if it weren't for the pile of little evils piled up, the torrents of the years, if not one of the wicked people who were not sinister and wicked, slashed a knife and a scar on the burning body.

Then, in this world, will it really breed the rain of the immortal monarch?

Chu night Ningdao: "Do you have to be afraid of getting angry?"

Mo-burn also knows that this time his own sharp edge is too strong.

However, Ye Forgetting is the blood of his past life. In this life, even if the Confucianism, the glory and the rise and fall of the Confucianism are not related to him, he also owes a leaf to a human life, so even if it is outrageous, even if it is doubtful, he will go without hesitation. Did it.

Not only is he late at night, he wants someone who has been treated badly in his previous life to have a better life. He still hopes that he can make atonement.

"I am afraid of it," said the ink. "But I know the truth and always want to be safe."

Although Chu Evening still feels that this is too aggressive, but listening to him, he did not think much more. It happened that at this time, a strong sweet smell came from the wind, and it was still with him. There is some kind of strong spiritual flow that suddenly comes up in front.

Not yet, the reaction of the late night, the ink burned has changed color, he whispered: "Not good. Is the chess game!"

"In that direction."

In the thick night, the hurricane filled the wind, and the ghosts in the sky had climbed out of the ghosts. The ground raised five towers of skylights, which were the five roads of Jinmushui, which was exactly the same as the color of the town.

Chu night Ning eyes cold and said: "It is him."

The ink burns naturally knows who he is talking about, Jin Chengchi, Taohuayuan, Caidie Town... Five times to stop, and now come back, is the person who has been behind the scenes, the fake hook Chen!

However, there is a vague feeling in the burning heart. This time, the chess game is completely different from the previous ones. There is no disguise, no disguise... That person seems to feel that winning the prize is in the grip.

The birds in the forest were startled, fluttering and fluttering. The ink burned and rushed, and Chu Yuning rushed to the sky.

Closer, seeing the fascination in the cracks, the ink burned and said: "Infernal hell..."

This time, as in the case of Choi Die Town five years ago, it is still hell!

The ink burned almost eagerly looked back, grabbing the arm of Chu Yuning: "Master, don't go over!"

"...don't talk silly."

Inkburn also knows that this is a stupid thing, but he has seen two lives in his life, and the consequences of the two days are like a nightmare. Now, seeing this for the third time, how can he not Worried?

But "you don't want to go", what is the use?

A person's heart is extremely difficult to change. The person like Chu Xiening, even if he gives him the opportunity to choose thousands of times, he will not turn around in the face of the disaster, so he looks at Chu Ningning. I don't know what to say.

Chu night Ning looked at him and said: "Reassured, I will act cautiously."

After the words, raised his hand and called out the sky to ask, the golden Huaguang swayed between his slenderness, and the fire spattered.

The ink burned tightly on the eyes of Chu Yuning, and finally sighed, and also a glaring brilliance in his hands. He was smashed out of the air, holding his fingertips at the fingertips, and the flaming red glow and the golden light of the heavens reflected each other. When the weapons are seen in the world, they are all stable and strong, and they are irresistible.

"... well, I know, I don't advise you. What the Master wants to do, I am with you."

The light of the spirits is reflected in their eyes, the fiery red is burning with gold, and the gold is smudged with red.

"I am with Master."

Chu Xiu Ning looked at the appearance of fighting with his own, and felt that it was warm and incompetent. There were too many emotions in the eyes of the ink, and some seemed to be no longer a teacher or a man, but he did not Dare to determine what the extra feelings are.

So he raised his hand and poked his ink on his forehead and said, "No reward."

The ink burned for a moment, and when Chu Ning’s hand was pulled down and held in the palm of his hand, he tried his best to restrain himself from getting to his lips. He smiled and said: “Well, there is no, let’s go.”

The martial arts of the gods is like the shadow of the night, and the golden red gradually rises to the core of the hinterland of the hunting jungle.

Ganquan Lake.

Chu nightning and ink burning rescued, hiding in the orange grove, looking over there. The spiritual stream that feeds the lake is cut off. In the harsh cold night, the lake has a thick layer of ice, surrounded by four formations, each with a sleek weapon.

Chu Xiaoning whispered: "Four martial arts with different attributes?"

The smoldering was a glimpse first, and then the following: "The martial law was stolen in the past five years, and it really was related to him..."

"But when he was in the town of Choi Butterfly, he used to be a living heart. How did he suddenly change his position?"

What is the name of the ink burning, but the mouth is stopped by the night of Chu: "Beep, look over there."

Followed by his gaze, the smoldering saw a group of Confucianist Guards walking slowly in the distance to the lake, and the young monks who had been hunting in the jungle were also among them. Their chests were drawn from a steady stream. The flow, toward the different attributes of the martial arts gathered together, these powerful pure spiritual power to let the light of the martial arts continue to enhance, the light straight through the Han, and then in the night sky to open a huge crack, the mouth of * is crazy The ground bite open.

The ink burned his eyes: "What are they doing?"

"It seems that these guards have lost their senses, and it seems to have been manipulated by the Zhenqi chess game." Chu night Ning's eyebrows are tight, his face is full of gaze, his eyes glanced in the crowd, suddenly stopped. His face suddenly became pale, and it was an uncharacteristic, holding his inky shoulders tightly and his fingers trembled.

"..."

"What's wrong?" The ink burned and turned. After a while, he saw a familiar figure walking in the crowd and said: "Xue Meng?!!"

Chapter 163

As one of the more than 20 young people who competed in the forest, Xue Meng was buried in a precious chess piece. He was walking around the lake, his eyes were empty and the ghosts in the sky, he and Others swarmed up, brave and fearless, as if they were not afraid of death and fear of death, and those ghosts were shackled under the sword to prevent them from destroying the formation, but those who escaped to the periphery and fell into the night, they were sleeved. Regardless of.

The purpose of these pieces is obvious, they are guarding this five-line array.

Chu nightning sees the apprentice being restrained, and for a moment, he can’t stand it. When he sees it, he will get up and pluck out, and the ink will slam him.

Chu nighting bites his teeth, whispered: "Let's go."

"Don't go out, wait -"

"How do you wait? That is Xue Meng!"

Chu’s strength was too great, and the one-handed one couldn’t hold it. He had to hug him, and the whole man was crushed into his arms. He grabbed the mouth of Chu’s late life and let him struggle in his arms. Die did not let go, the ink burned in his ear, and the hot breath sneaked in his ear.

"It’s too aggressive to go out at this time. Don’t be so arrogant, listen to me. Ah?”

Responding to him is a backhand elbow, burned and burned, Chu night Ning opened his hand and took a breath, Fengfeng was full of anger, his voice was low: "The treasures of the game, the spiritual loss Quickly, here are all ghosts. If there is a mistake, he will be dead!"

"Will not."

"..."

The ink burned his hand, his eyes were blazing and firm: "I understand the chess game, you believe me."

Chu night, seeing him so harsh and awe-inspiring, can not help but sigh, breathing slowly slowed down. At this time, there was a strange whistling in the distance. They suddenly turned back and saw a goblin bursting out and rushing toward Xue Meng.

"brush!"

The dragon city curved knife reflects the frost of the moon, Xue Meng is as light as a swallow, and the blade will instantly smash the ghosts!

"In the living of the precious chess pieces, the spiritual power is gradually depleted, and it is not as good as it used to be. But he is under controlled time and will not have anything for a while."

Chu night Ning turned to look at him, his eyebrows rolled a mark: "Why are you so clear?"

"...you can see it."

The evil spirit fell, and soon broke into ash. Xue Meng smashed the dragon city scimitar in his hand, and the black blood beads continued to flow down on the blade, dragging the traces of the twist on the snow.

The moon shines on his face, his face is cold and his face is dull.

The burning heart is tight.

Xue Meng has never been sinned as a chess piece in his life. Who is it...? !

Suddenly there was movement in the distance.

The ink burned back to God, whispering: "It seems that someone is coming."

In the forest, two people came along, and along the frozen lake, they came to the eye. At that time, there was a radiance of green eyes. One of them had a sacred martial arts in his hand, but because of the angle, the smoldering did not see what the martial arts were.

The man slammed the ice layer and put the gods into the eye. In an instant, the center of the eye was shining, the clouds were moving away, the moon was exposed from the thick clouds, and the cold light shone on the ice. Illuminated the figure of the two people who stood in the eye.

A Chinese dress is inlaid with gold silk, and it is graceful, but he is covered with a thick shackle, wearing a bucket and can't see his face. The other is cold and barefoot, and it is not too bad.

The man looked up and looked at the sky.

The ink burned and widened his eyes.

"how is this possible!"

- Xu Shuanglin? !

It was extremely shocking and shocking. Xu Shuanglin... Frostforest elders?

He is the righteous father of Ye Forgetting. It is the good man who died in the front of the world with the flesh and blood, and died under the knife. How could it be him? !

Chu nightning did not know the horror of the burning, he patted the shoulders of the ink, whispered: "Up."

"Why didn't he appear?" The person wearing the fight around Xu Shuanglin spoke, and the ink burned, it was the sound of Nangong Liu.

Nangong Liu’s tone has obvious anxiety and sorrow. He can’t help but curse: “Damn, are you mistaken?”

Xu Shuanglin said: "Let's wait and see."

"Come faster! Tear this day more and more, I don't know when those guests will send people to come over, it will be too late!"

"I know that you are in a hurry, but can you not tear the cracks bigger? Isn't it clear? The last time in the town of Choi Butterfly was because of the urgency of the situation, so that the situation was out of control, and the top ten sects came to you. You can't stand it. If you are angry, you will still lose your weight."

"……Ugh!"

Xu Shuanglin closed his eyes and said: "Hey, you can't easily find the five martial arts of different attributes, you can absorb the aura of the cumulative monks, so you have to endure for so many years, where is this short one night. ""

"You said it is good." Nangong Liu took a deep breath and sighed. "I have been waiting for five years... No, it’s five years. From the day I became the head of Confucianism, I have been Waiting..." He rubbed the finger in his sleeve and his eyes flashed in the dark night.

Nangong Liu Mutter: "I have been waiting..."

"Don't wait."

Suddenly a fierce male voice rang in the empty lake, like a thunder and lightning, and the two men on the lake looked up.

When the moon is empty, Wan Hao Song Tao, a slender man stands on the treetop. He is holding a long, narrow phoenix eye, and the moon-white smock is rolling over. The dark coat lining his face is like a condensed jade in the ice. The bone is oozing in the middle.

"Nan Gongliu, it is here."

Nangong Liu was shocked and then gnashed his teeth: "Chu Ning...!"

It’s rumored that the golden light is blasting in the sky, and the scorpion of the late night is sullen, and the whole person is more and more dangerous.

"A good night, Yuheng, Beidou Xianzun, how did you not let you die in the colorful town of Caidie, now it is bad for me, and the animals!"

Chu night Ning Yi, a low eyebrows, sighed: "The original disaster five years ago, what is yours?"

Nangong Liu saw things ruined, and it was unintentional to hide. He sneered: "What is it?"

Chu nightning lifted the sky and asked for the finger to pass through the willow. The rattan whip was polished one inch and one inch at his fingertips, and the light was almost platinum. He is like an eagle: "...In the beginning, you Jincheng pool for swords, the spirit of the pool will be exchanged for your wife's spiritual core, and you will kill the heart and throw it into the lake. I was sick at the time. In the bones, I hate to kill you, but you said to me, Nangong is still young, can't live without a father... You said that you are a moment of fascination, remorse... You also said that from now on, when you are Confucianism No longer evil, you..."

The willow rubbed to the last tip, and the golden light burst.

Chu night Ning silver teeth bite: "Nan Gong Liu, you hate it, why is it poisonous!"

"Quiet me?" Nangong Liu suddenly smiled in a low voice. "How does Chu Zongshi not blame himself for being young and young? At that time, he was still a fifteen or six-year-old boy? It was very naive, and I was a few words, a few tears, and then I took a scorpion and made a scorpion, and let me leave my feelings. Oh, why don’t you think about it, I have today, and you can’t get away with your network?”

The voice has not been received, and the hurricane has arrived.

Tian asked to break the dark night, and went straight to the place where Nangong Liu was standing. In a moment, the dragon danced, the flame broke through the sky, and the whole frozen lake was half-in-a-half, and the ice was broken!

And Nangong Liu screamed: "Everything!"

The group of people who had been walking around the Lishui Lake had a look of light. They turned back and rushed toward the direction of Chu’s late night. Xue Meng’s fighting power was the best.

clang!

Longcheng and Tianwen slammed into each other, and Chu night was afraid of hurting Xuemeng. He was evacuated in time and swept a few feet. He looked at him: "Nan Gongliu, you take someone else to make a wedding dress, what is the skill?!"

"Hah, let you have nowhere to start, kill me, this is my skill." Nangong Liu laughed. "You fight, they are all living people, just in my precious blacks, Chu Late Ning, this little Xue Gongzi is your apprentice? Can you go to the hand? You can’t do anything, you sit and wait, you are like Jin Jinchi, more than ten years ago, you can’t do anything, you can only let me go, you——"

Suddenly, you can't go down. The smile on your face is like a sudden drop of cold water, and the black charcoal fire is carrying residual smoke.

- Chu nightning's eyes are too calm.

He stared at Chu Yuning, and the calmness on the man's face made him suddenly uneasy, shuddering, and Nangong Liu's lips twitched, and it seemed to be a little guilty: "What do you want to do..."

Chu night Ning did not talk nonsense with Nangong Liu. He was in a cold place, raising his hand and waving the sky, and shouted: "Heaven, thousands of people!"

Dozens of golden vines rose up and locked the shackles of the cherished pieces. A huge and powerful giant vine was like a dragon rising from the ice in the ice lake, and the ice crystals splashed. The night flight was sitting on the ancient vine. Wu took the wind and the clothes fluttered. He raised a long, powerful hand and made a word.

"Nine songs, call."

Silk enamel glowed from his palm, and he gathered in his knees into a black guqin. The guqin's tail was rolled over like a tree with vitality, the tails were leafy, the flowers were blooming, and the roots were rooted. The strings are clear and ice-white, and the strings are constantly chilling.

Shenwu nine songs.

The most common trick used by Tian Qiao is "wind", it is a killing trick, and the most common trick of Jiu Ge is "颂", which is the trick of healing the heart. Chu nightning only gently plucked a few strings, played a small section of "颂", those who were ridiculed in the chess game revealed a confused look, they were still asking about the vines Struggling, but at this time, looking around, it seems that some are confused.

Nangong Liu was angry, and his mouth cursed and meditated. His forehead was violently violent, and he competed with Chu’s night, and he couldn’t support it. He looked back and angered: “Shuanglin, to interrupt his piano!”

"...I? Oh, okay."

Xu Shuanglin sighed, quite helplessly wanting to fly toward the top of the giant wood where Chu Yuning was located, expecting a black shadow to flash into the air, the ink burned in the wind, raised his hand and whip, stopped his Going on the road.

"Frost forest elders, please advise."

Xu Shuanglin blinked and suddenly laughed and said: "Block me? You are really a teacher and a person, I am moved."

Chu nightning is playing against the ink and burning: "enchantment."

"All set up."

It turned out that there was no ink burning, and it was ordered to add an enchantment barrier in a circle around Lishui Lake. Although this day's crack is not as exaggerated as that of the butterfly town in the past, but the * is imprisoned in the infinite hell, the devils and demons who have lost their minds and lost their minds. It is better to escape three or five. If there is more escape, then the red dust may be afraid. It is also a * hurricane, and it must not stop for a long time.

The ink burned and the frost forest handed over the hand, and the two eyes were dismantled in the blink of an eye. The ink burned said: "The elders of the frost forest always try to run to my master. The person you should deal with is me."

"What?" Frosty Lin suddenly laughed. "Is this a fight to force the object? Isn't I saying that young people, you are too fierce, uncle is too old, afraid of not being as rude as you can."

Ink burning: "..."

"Come with you, you have to be broken." He smiled. "Little brother is forgiving, let me water, let me play with your master?"

In fact, I don’t know how to face Xu Shuanglin. He has seen Xu Shuanglin’s death in his previous life. He knows that he should not be a wicked person. He suspects that the people behind this life, in addition to Nangong Liu, actually have his own, and at one time, there is no way. So silent, just focus on the trick with him.

Hell has the same ability of interrogation as Tianqian. As long as he stalks Xu Shuanglin smoothly, it is not difficult to ask him what he really thinks, but Xu Shuanglin’s body is light, and between the advance and retreat, he is more and more savvy than Nangong Liu. Swinging, like a paper basket flying above the fragmented ice lake, the red light can only hit him, but can not firmly lock him.

What's more, because he is the righteous father of Ye Forgetting, before the things are not made clear, the ink-burning man can't help but leave a three-point feeling...

Xu Shuanglin suddenly and sighed with a sigh of relief: "Almost, Mo Zongshi, I can't tell you first."

I don’t know why he said this, he said: "What?"

"Because I want to bully your master."

Xu Shuanglin raised his hand, his fingertips flashed light and shadows, and a white practice screamed in the direction of the high place Chu late Ning Fuqin.

The most ignorant of the burning of the ink was late, and suddenly distracted. Xu Shuanglin was dark, and the other hand pulled out the waist and folded the fan. He handed it to the ink and throat.

"brake--"

霎 血 血 血

But this thought only flashed through the ink-burning brain. When he saw the martial arts floating in the air, he never thought of it again. The whole person was like a whips, standing stiff, saying no. Half a word.

Because the eye-catching weapon that brings together the attributes of wood is actually...

Stepping on the sinister blade of Xianjun - Shenwu does not return! !

The ink burned and felt a bit of pain in the chest, and the eyes were black and black, and there seemed to be some sort of slang that he could not hear. He couldn't breathe. He only felt that the blood of his previous life was smothered from the night, soaking him all over. He was disgusting, dizzy, and his heart was mad...

Seeing that Xu Shuanglin took what he was going to do, he couldn’t think too much about it, raised his hand and wanted to recall Shenwu. However, when the spiritual power explored it, he heard that the sound of the piano in the late night was suddenly stopped. He suddenly felt that he was not right, and he endured the inexplicable sorrow and went back.

The pupil collapsed.

"Master!!"

How did he forget it! ? Chu Lingning's spiritual core is fragile. As early as Xuanyuan will come out, there is Langzhong said that it does not seem to have some kind of rejection force with Chu Xiening. It will counteract the late night, which will make Chu Xiening originally weak. The spiritual core is even more unbearable.

How can he forget it!

The ink burned off the connection between himself and the non-return, flew over the giant vine, and leaped forward at the moment before Ling Teng, and hugged the painful pale night, and fell with him. Next to the orange grove.

At the same time, Chu Tianning’s call for the masses of people has broken down, but fortunately those who have been tempted have been confused. Although they have not fully woken up, they no longer listen to the instructions of Nangong Liu, one by one. Suddenly standing, his face is a dreamlike look.

"Master!" The ink burned and was anxious and remorseful. He was kneeling in the snow, holding a cold-eyed Chu nightning, and constantly stroking the face of Chu Yuning. "How are you?"

He saw that there was * oozing out of the mouth of the night, and he was so distressed that he wiped his hands and wiped it with his hands. When he wiped it, he suddenly thought of the past life, and the night was so lying in his arms, at the foot of Kunlun Snow Mountain. Seven bleeds and died. And as he is now, he wiped the mottled blood, but he couldn't wipe it clean.

Such as a cone into the heart.

His eyes are red: "Is it very painful?"

Chu nightning was too much affected by the suffocation of the suffocation. He felt that the suffocation was flowing to his chest in an instant, like to cut his chest.

Even worse, there seems to be a lot of broken illusions in his eyes that are twisting and shimmering.

He shook his head and tried to open up the ambiguous illusions, struggling to see the Nangong Liu, and only glanced at him, and the last blood on his face suddenly faded and quenched.

He didn't know where the strength came from, and suddenly grabbed the ink-burning arm, dumbly said: "That, beware!"

The ink burned his face like gold paper, and a pair of scorpions flashed with great shock, reflecting the fire...

Fire?

He turned back, and there was no longer a little ghost in the cracks, but a * of lava, and the ground fire blew from the sky. The ghosts that escaped at the same time were all burnt in this raging evil fire, and even the screams of sorrow were too late to be sent out, and they turned into a burst of blue smoke.

How is this embarrassing situation?

Hell lava hanging in the sky, like a magnificent golden red waterfall, slowly and calmly flowing, sinister and magnificent, lava flowing to the lake, the ice and the lake are actually lit with firewood, and began to burn. Standing at the forefront of Nangong Liu and Xu Shuanglin, the most powerful water curse was opened, so that it would not be swallowed up by the fire.

Although the flow of flames is slow, it will soon be burned to those who stand in the dead and have a good game.

The ink burned and slammed, and the hand was printed, but he was unfamiliar with the water system. He was half-closed. He was holding his hand in the middle of the night, and his face was pale. "The knot is wrong. I am coming."

The ink burned him, let him sit up on his own, but stopped his hand: "Don't move again, you teach me."

Although Chu Yuening has hesitation, he also knows that his spiritual power is damaged for a while, and he may not be able to apply spells. The matter of human life cannot be vague. So he took the ink-burning hand, put his ten fingers one by one, put it in the right position, and then hoarsely said: "The curse."

The spirit flow overflows from the fingertips, quickly opening the enchantment in the air, forming a blue wave of water, wrapping the lost minds of the mind.

Chu night Ning was a little relieved, trying to boast a few words, and squinting the eyelashes, and seeing the light of hell, the handsome face had a wet tear.

He... how did you cry?

Who is it?

Chu nightning is a bit stunned.

Shi Yi is not here, Xue Meng is not injured, other people do not know the ink, so, can he rush to greedy, ink this tears, for himself?

"...don't cry."

The ink burned back to God, and it was almost rushing and rubbing his face indiscriminately.

"It’s such a big person, like what it looks like."

The smoldering eyes only looked at him wetly and asked him: "Is it painful?"

Hearing this, Chu night Ning stunned, and then the pain did not put out the chest, a sudden softness like the warmth of hot spring water. Sadness and gentleness are intertwined, sour and painful, sweet and awkward. For the first time in his life, he was born with a personal relationship related to the catastrophe. It is out of place, but it can't be stopped.

"A little bit of injury, probably only summoned two gods at the same time, the spiritual loss is too great, so the old disease attack." Chu night Ning raised his hand, hesitated, touched the ink burning hair, "don't worry, I don't It hurts."

Then he turned his head and went to see the fire of * in the Haohao soup, the flame red lotus.

The twilight gradually sank, the bottom of the eye hurts and the eyes are calm and steady.

"You have seen what Nangong Liu will do and find a good time." He paused, and then no more when he spoke, "kill him."

Chu night Ning eyes are extremely hateful, and there is more remorse.

Nangong Liu said that it was good. In the Jincheng pool, it was the 14-year-old who was involved in the red dust. He didn’t know the world. He let go of Nangong Liu, who had already revealed his demon face, even to take care of the stability of the upper circle. In order not to let the young aunt know, he did not let Nangong Liu give his wife the truth to the world.

It was his innocent innocence when he was young, too much goodwill, which made him into a situation of the present, and he put the tiger back to the forest, and provoked the red lotus industry at this moment...

What does Nangong Liu want to do!

Chapter 164

Like responding to him, in the rolling melt, suddenly a huge lame foot is taken. The nail is as wide as the rut. This foot falls in the Ganquan Lake, and half of the lake is filled. Then the other foot fell again and stepped on the countless orange trees on the shore.

A huge roaring roared out of the sky, it turned a stiff skull, screamed in the sky, and screamed nine times, then held a shackle of a sharp axe, "嗬————" slammed ashore.

A huge axe into the soil, stirred up layers of heat waves, mud and stone rolling, grass and wood fold.

Seeing Xue Meng standing in the place will collapse, and suddenly a blue light, actually Nangong Liu holding a pair of swords, throwing out the aura and resistance. Only heard a bang, two forces collided, and the mud and broken wood burst. Xu Shuanglin supported the water system enchantment next to him and said: "Hit him between the two ribs! Have you seen it?"

"I have seen it." Nangong Liu gnawed his teeth and slashed his teeth. It was a soft appearance of the singularity of the singularity of the singularity. The ink burned and fixed, and I saw a fire in the chest of the skull. The shadow in the flame was a human figure that was tied. He wants to see it again, but it is not really because of the fire and the violent movement of the giant gong and Nangong Liu.

It is reasonable to say that Nangong Liu summoned this one from the * to pay tribute to this one, and how to say it should be to let it be ordered by himself. But looking at Nangong Liu’s current posture, it seems that he has been forced to work hard with this thing.

This is really weird...

But there is no time to think about it, Xuemeng is still standing in the same place, and then it will be affected by this fight. The ink burns recalls the signing gesture of Chu Yuning, and he sighs low: "Hell, people!" The ten red willows came from all sides, and the pieces on the shore were wrapped up and then retreated to the periphery.

"Yes, you use it well."

The words of Chu Xiaoning definitely make the ink warm in the chest. At this moment, the people who like it are around, and the people who want to protect are also sheltered by the martial arts. The ink burns this time and they watch the battle, and the mind is more stable. .

He found that Nangong Liu’s attacking method was not able to get on the table, but the evasive and defensive are first-class. I don’t know if this person is not a child who prefers to practice this kind of spell. It’s no wonder that he used to kill Confucianism in his life. The head of the escape is faster than the rabbit.

Although the giant squad's offensive was hot, but due to the shape of the body, the action was sluggish, but for a time did not hurt the Nangong Liu half points, Nangong Liu along its forest skeleton is getting higher and higher, his robes show, the red tassels of the fight Fly - he stood on the chest ribs of the giant python, and through the white bones, he saw the person hanging in the heart position...

Nangong Liu Xian was a big drink, like a person who was relieved after the extreme suffering. The voice was twisted and twisted, and then he laughed loudly: "Ha ha ha... hahahahaha! I found it! Finally... I finally found you!!"

His twinkling eyes were bloodshot in the depths of the fight. He was angry and ecstatic, and said: "I found it!"

Wrapped in the flame is a man with a close look, who is thin and fragile, without a look that is too colorful, and a face that is easy to forget.

Nangong Liu constantly murmured, almost mad: "I found it, I found it... haha, hahahahaha... I found you... I found you..."

He jerked his sword in the blue light, and smashed toward the core of the giant python, the sleeping man!

Unexpectedly, at this moment, the dead man was suddenly looking up and suddenly opened his eyes. Xu Shuanglin shouted in his head and yelled: "Don't look at his eyes! My mother told you not to look at his eyes!" But Nangong Liu and the man are too close, he is almost unprepared and the man Four eyes are opposite, Nangong Liu only had time to see the eyes of the dog-like round eyes, the pupils were scarlet, flowing out of blood and tears, and then they felt the tears in the body.

He shouted "ah" and slammed down from the sky and fell to the ground. If Xu Shuanglin would hold up an enchantment to protect him, he would be able to break his muscles.

Xu Shuanglin walked quickly, and a pair of bare and bare feet squatted on the ground: "What do you think of him? Didn't you tell him about it, will you feel the suffering of his soul? You..."

Half of the mouth was spoken, and Nangong Liu staggered from the ground, and his fight fell, revealing a mess of hair, and messing with the next pair of panicked eyes.

"Ah...ah!"

The moonlight shone on his face without any cover. He rubbed his fingers and glared at his face with great pain, but it was useless. All the skin exposed to the moonlight night quickly began to split, burst open, and rolled out bright red. The tender meat, the blood does not flow down.

"what!!!"

Nangong Liu screamed and tried to cover his face with his sleeves, but this made his hands and arms also exposed in a panic, where the flesh began to tear quickly and flesh and blood mottled.

The ink burning and Chu nightning looked at the distance, they are unbelievable - what happened to Nangong Liu?

He actually... can't directly shine into the moonlight?

The robes were smashed, and the eagle-winged hunting shook. Xu Shuanglin took off his robe, and covered his face on the face of Nangong Liu. He covered him tightly, and he stood in a white coat and stood in the winter night. Also don't feel cold at all. His clothes were slightly open, and his head was strong and his chest was slightly undulating. When he saw Nangong Liu soft as a squatting squat sitting on the ground, he was annoyed at the moment, picking up bare bare feet and kicking his head in disrespectful manner. One foot: "When you sit and do something, you can't get it! If you have gathered up the spiritual power, you haven't killed it yet. You shouldn't think about it in your life!"

Who knows that Nangong Liu’s wasteful glutinous waste snacks, even a nose and a tear sitting on the ground, cried: "I am so dead... I am not as good as death, I am really as good as death... I have blood on my face... ...the hand is also... I can't stand it... Frost Forest, I can't stand it... You are for me..."

"I am for you and me for you, everything is for me!" Xu Shuanglin was so angry that he slammed his face on his face. "Why don't you just give me the position of the head, let me take it for you." Forget it!"

"Do you think I don't want to!" Nangong Liu was thrown to the ground and squatted. "Do you think I don't want to! I have been tired! The curse left by Luo Fenghua has killed me forever! He made me here. You can't take off in the eternal world! You come! I can't wait for someone to replace me! I just hate to pick up the ring!"

“Luo Fenghua?” The ink burned low. “This name is so familiar, like where I heard it.”

"...that was the door of Confucianism before Nangongliu." Chu Yuening listened to the dialogue between the two of them, and his eyebrows were very tight. "Only two years later, he died of malaria."

The ink burned a bit: "The Confucianist generation was inherited by the Nangong family, and how could there be a name for the family? Shouldn't it be Nangong?"

"Normally, it should be surnamed Nangong, but Luo Fenghua is the leader of the Confucianism through the right to seize the right."

Listening to Chu Yuning’s saying, the ink burned up and remembered that a book he had read earlier actually mentioned this person when he recorded the history of the Confucianism, but there was not much ink, but because of the history of the Confucianism Huge chaos, the enmity and grievances involved in it are too many, and there is really no interest in watching this family book. Therefore, when reading, he only turned it over and did not go into it.

He slightly widened his eyes: "The Confucianist Gate was shackled?"

"Well. Because this thing is not glamorous, and involves the current head, so few people will mention it now." Chu Xi Ning said, "Nan Gongliu is a hard-won position. When he was young, his father went into flames. He died. Although he was appointed as a successor before his death, Nangong Liu had a younger brother. The younger brother was very proud and unbelievable. He refused to accept this decision. He won the Confucianism and the ring on the night of his father’s death, replacing the Nangong. Liu, become the master of one."

"The person in the position should also be his younger brother. It should also be called Nangong. How can it be surnamed Luo?"

"You listen to me." Chu Yuening looked at the distant Nangong Liu Yan to climb up from the ground, draped the clothes given to him by the Frost Forest elders, and once again went to the flames of the giant chest to continue Dao, "Nan Gongliu’s younger brother was * and brutal. After just three months of taking the position, he killed two of the masters of the upper monk, saying that it was because of the Lingshan Conference. These two people were because of the Confucianism. I gave him a little shoes to wear, and did not judge the outcome fairly.... Later, it was a mischief. All the people who condemned him were arrested and pulled to the square of the Confucianism, and they dug their eyes one by one. I did not see it. I have seen the catastrophe, but there are books on it. The eyes he dug down were loaded with three carriages before they were all shipped away."

The ink burns in the heart, silently.

At this time, he should be angry with a few words to be normal, but what position does he have to export?

In the rest of his life, Chu Xiening did not know what he had done in the past. He burned the people of the city of Confucius in the 72nd city because of his own private sorrow. He also hanged the city owner of one of the cities with Lingqi. In one breath, he tortured him for a whole year before he let the man die.

In fact, this time I came to the Confucianist Gate, and I also tried to avoid the face of the city owner. The hatred of him and the man was too deep.

He is afraid of seeing him, and he will make something mad.

Until now, there is still fierceness.

What qualifications does he have for others to be * and brutal?

Over there, Nangong Liu stepped closer to the core of the giant python, and once again went to the burning flame. The closer he is, the closer the sword is in his hand.

Chu night Ningdao: "Luo Fenghua is the master of the man, and he is unacceptable to his atrocities. He and the Nangong Liu are transformed together. The two men started their troops one night and successfully drove the man off the door of the Confucianist door. However, under the power of power, Luo Fenghua held the palm of his hand and did not hand it to Nangong Liu..."

The ink burned: "Is he wearing it himself?"

"Not bad." Chu said, "Every martial art door is attached with a powerful spiritual bonus. These tokens recognize the Lord, and the ring of the Confucianist Gate is the same. Whoever wears it is, unless the sects change hands. Otherwise, only death can be broken."

"...Now Luo Fenghua died in power for two years. Is it because Nangong Liu killed him in order to regain his position?"

Chu night Ning shook his head: "The Confucianism is saying that Luo Fenghua is sick and dead. After he died of illness, Nangong Liu regained his finger, but the truth is, no one can say it. You see Nangong Liu Fei trying to lead this monster. Coming out of the fight, swearing in the mouth and cursing something... I am afraid that things will not be that simple."

The smoldering also felt that things would not be so simple, but he still had a question in his heart: "What about the younger brother? The younger brother of Nangong Liu, after being ousted from the stage?"

"Dead." Chu Xi Ning said, "On the night of the transformation, Luo Fenghua cleared the portal and personally understood the life of his apprentice. It is said that it was a thousand knives and became a meat."

Ink burning: "....."

He couldn't help but burst into a vain heart. If his heart was done in his previous life, he would know that he would have to clean up the door. He would also want to clean up the door and smash him into pieces. ?

I was thinking about it, and I heard a loud bang. The sword of Nangong Liu stabbed the man wrapped in the python, and screamed at the moment, causing a very painful roar, the giant bones of the white skeleton. Stepping on the ground one after another deep pit, it angered and waved, slaps a large piece of orange grove, the golden fruit rolled down and was crushed.

In this sigh of blood and fruit, the giant python suddenly stood still, and then slammed on the ground, the lava splashed, and its white bones turned into powder, and the smoke disappeared...

Nangong Liu took out a long sword and grabbed the man who fell from the giant clam. He said with ecstasy: "I did it! I am free! The curse is broken - the curse is broken! Hahahaha!"

He fell down the wind and landed on the ground. At this time, a group of distant sights were not right. The monks who came from the poetry hall also came to Ganquan Lake.

On the night of the lonely moon, Jiang Yan saw the roaring magma. The face of Qingjun’s solitary face was amazed: “There is no fire?” He immediately raised his hand and lowered a layer of water powder on each of the people behind him. The spell skills of a martial art defense are different. Generally, they use enchantment, but they can use the spirit powder to protect against the blaze.

After doing all this, Jiang Yan looked back and angered and asked: "Nan Gongliu, what is going on?!"

Nangong Liu did not answer, he clung to the man who came out of the giant clam, the flame wrapped around the man's body had disappeared, and there was power and consciousness lost. He did not blink again, but There is no difference between ordinary dead bodies and weak powers between the claws of Nangong Liu.

Xue Zhengxuan saw the ink burning and Chu nightning, immediately rushed over, anxiously shouted: "Chun children, Yu Heng, are you okay? Meng... Menger?!!"

The ink burned and appease him: "Xue Meng is fine, he is there -"

Xue Zhengyi looked at the place he pointed to. Seeing that Xue Meng’s whole person was wrapped in a huge rattan, only a pale face was exposed, and he could not help but change. He stumbled and went to Xuemeng. . The ink burned him: "Uncle, he is only temporary and will be good. It will be better in a while. He will be safer in the vine, you don't go, you stay with us."

Xue Zhengxuan hurriedly said: "What happened in the end?! It seems that there are ghosts coming to the world, the head of Nangong..." He said, looking back, seeing Nangongliu standing in the lava, and his arms The lifeless dead body, the voice suddenly stopped.

He suddenly felt that something was wrong, that dead body, how familiar?

It seems that a long time ago, it was really too long before... He seems to have seen this man’s face...

This person's five senses are too ordinary, it is easy to drown in the past years, Xue Zhengyi can not remember for a moment. But he didn't think it was right. It was all wrong. At this time, he saw Nangong Liu suddenly raised his face, his face was * and his mouth was wide open.

Nangong Liu laughed haha, and his eyes shone with strange brilliance, which was completely different from his usual charming and welcoming appearance.

There are leaves in the crowd who have arrived, and there are also Nangong Temple.

Nangong whispered: "Father..."

Ye Tsang has seen Xu Shuanglin next to him, and he said: "Father?!"

Xu Shuanglin glanced at the leaf and shook his head, indicating that she would not come over. In the fiery lava, his clothes were slightly open, and the loose white blouse swayed with the wind. His face was covered with a lazy smile, and his chin was slightly lifted, looking at the lively hustle and bustle of the eyes, the red lotus hell.

The bare bare feet stepped on the ground, the rounded toes moved, and the sparks of the stars were stepped on, then he lowered his head and seemed to be waiting for something. The fire reflected in his eyes, like a golden red squid from the dark night pool. Midstream.

"Yeah!!"

Suddenly, a female repair in the crowd burst into exclamation.

Xu Shuanglin did not look up, just smiled. He certainly knew what had happened, and he had heard the sound of chewing on flesh and blood.

Behind him, Nangong Liu hooped the man's shoulder. Under the moonlight, he tore the man's neck and greedily sucked the plasma juice.

After that scream, no one made a noise, no one accused, and everyone didn’t understand for a moment what happened in front of this scene. Everyone was shocked...

The world’s first Confucianist, the head of the palace, Nangong Liu, actually so stunned and licking a corpse?

How can this be……

"father!!!"

Nangong Temple was the first to collapse. He went crazy to Nangong Liu, and Ye Ye couldn’t hold him. He ran with him to Nangong Liu.

"Father, what are you doing? What are you doing?"

"Head -"

Nangong Liu was not smug, still chewing, and the clothes he used to cover his face had long since fallen. The red flesh of the flesh was rolling over under the moonlight, causing him to become more and more painful. The more pain he suffered, the more he went to chew. The flesh and blood of the corpse, as if it was a sweet spring, is a bitter medicine, and he is unreasonable.

Some monks couldn't stand it, and the voice of vomiting came from the crowd. Some people whispered in a powerless way: "How could this be..."

"Crazy... crazy..."

"Disgusting……"

The moonlight slowly moved, and it was photographed on Nangong Liu. The Nangong Liu first bowed his head, and the mouth was drowned with water and pus, and then he suddenly looked up and opened the mouth of the sticky blood basin. He trembled and screamed: "Ah!! !!啊啊啊!!!"

The flesh and blood on his face did not heal because he had eaten the man's body, and the pieces were still split in the moonlight.

He was full of blood, only white in the eyes, he threw the body on the ground, stepped on his feet, and slammed back to Xu Shuanglin's clothes, the animal snarled: "What happened? Why? No use... no use!"

His meridians and roots burst, his hands trembled, his eyes were covered with bloodshot eyes, and large teardrops rolled down because of severe pain.

"Pain... hurt me... hate can't die... hate can't die!!" He sipped low, almost desperate, suddenly he thought of something, and released Xu Shuanglin, bowed his head to the heart of the man, " Spirit nucleus! It must be that power is not enough... I want to eat his spiritual nucleus! Spirit nucleus... Spirit nucleus..."

He sneaked into the swordsman's chest, and he couldn't help but rub, full of blood, almost mad.

At this moment, a claw clawed into the back of him, and he pierced his chest rib!

Blood arrogant!

When Nangong Liu was awkward, it seemed that he had not reacted to what had happened, and he did not feel pain. He looked back so slyly.

He stared at the bloodshot eyes and saw Xu Shuanglin carrying his face with a clean, refreshing face with a smile.

"What to eat? You are a waste of this kind of person."

Chapter 165

The claws that infuse the spirits are plucked back, bringing out a large piece of bright red.

Nan Gongliu’s lips opened and closed, and they closed together. They couldn’t say a word for a long time. He didn’t seem to think that Xu Shuanglin would open a hole in the back. After half a squat, he spit out a big blood. Straight down to the ground.

"爹-!!!!" The screams of Nangong's screams teared the sky.

"Head!!"

"...!" everyone was shocked.

Xu Shuanglin calmly and calmly down, and casually took out a fruit from the sacred sac, stuffed it into the mouth of Nangong Liukou, forcing him to swallow it.

The ink burns the tip of the eye, and suddenly changes color: "Ling Chi fruit?!"

Xu Shuanglin fed to Nangong Liu, it was at that time in Taohuayuan hanging feathers a sigh of relief, let people survive can not ask for death Linghao fruit! When Nangong Liuton was in pain, he didn’t want to give birth. The whole person was like a shrimp, and he was huddled with enthusiasm. Xu Shuanglin looked at him, his eyes reflected in the fire, and his eyes were very warm.

"He said, I have pity that you have lived for most of your life, but after all, it is still a waste of people."

Ye forgets the truth and says: "Father?!"

"Father...you let go of my father! You let go of him!" After all, the blood is thicker than the water, even if Nangong Liu is unbearable, seeing him so terrible, Nangong is still unable to bear the heart, angered the crown, he attacked Xu Shuanglin However, Xu Shuanglin was out of the world with a single hand.

Xu Shuanglin turned his eyes and gave him a cold and cold look.

"Elders talk, what are the younger generations, give me a sigh!"

Said to stop the volley, a finger, Nangong 驷 only feel that the back fell a thousand pounds, actually standing can not, dead bite the teeth and endure the shackles, still heavy knees.

"Auntie," Ye was forgotten to protect her in front of Nangong. She couldn't hold a sword against Xu Shuanglin, nor could she stand by and watch her. She felt pain and sorrow for a moment. "Father, don't hurt him..."

"Who wants to hurt him, what is he?" Xu Shuanglin turned his gaze back and landed on Nangong Liu. Then he lifted his foot and kicked the cheeks of the Nangong Liu blood flesh. "After many years, now in the world." I can’t help but talk about it with this person.”

Nangong Liu Yan coughed up a large mouthful of blood: "Syrian old? Narrative old! You didn't tell me, as long as you recall Luo Fenghua's soul from the infernal hell, the curse he imposed on me can be broken? I can recover from healing. No fear, no fear of the night. You lied to me... you actually... you lied to me..."

Hearing this sentence, the young monks have not responded, but Xue Zhengyi’s generation is all discolored, and Xue Zhengyi slams into the young corpse.

"Luo Fenghua?"

"It’s Luo Fenghua!"

Lying on the ground, it was the master of the Nangong brothers many years ago, and the short-lived leader who once took power to seize power, the only surname of the Confucianist door, and the body of Luo Fenghua!

"You think it's too beautiful." Xu Shuanglin laughed. "The curse is broken. You killed him personally. Now you drank his blood and ate his flesh. You are so cruel, actually want to curse and break? You It’s so naive.”

"Don't I drink his blood and eat his meat?! Although I took the power to send him to die early, but he left a curse on the head ring before he died, let me wear it - this More than ten years! No day... Keke, no... No day... I can have normal days at night! I... Don’t... Don’t...”

"It should be." Xu Shuanglin said with a blank expression, "It should be too." Suddenly twisted and laughed, he simply squatted down and lifted the face of Nangong Liu, saying: "You are doing very well, no one can do it. Better than you, better, more obedient... no one can be more stupid than you."

He smiled wickedly and summed up: "Waste."

After Xu Shuanglin finished, slowly got up, it was a warm and peaceful smile with a solemn and peaceful face. He spread his arms and said to everyone: "All the guests, the dinner was finished, and Xu had a snack after dinner. Please have a taste together."

Someone yelled: "Xu Shuanglin! What are you going to do?!"

"In fact, there is nothing, but I would like to invite you to share some interesting things. The Confucianist martial arts cultivating the real world for centuries, the stinking scandal is too numerous to enumerate, and one of them, Xu has waited for more than ten years, today is in the whole world. The face is made public."

He said here that the sound is gentled by the sorghum.

Then he gently said: "This is probably the Confucianism, the last secret history."

Nangong Liu listened to him, and suddenly there was a strong fear in his heart. He screamed sharply, his lips trembled, and he could hardly speak. Only one pair of eyes stared straight at the melt. The person on the top: "You...what are you...who?!"

Xu Shuanglin turned his face and smiled a little, not answering.

Suddenly a radiance appeared in his hand, and a dagger appeared in his palm. He gripped it hard and cut the flesh. The blood rushed out of his hand. He licked the blood and drew a pattern on his arm. Then I gently blew and said: "The West Window is a flat boat, and you will come to the dream."

Then he turned back and smiled: "Hey, if you want to know who I am, after reading these things, you will know."

The ink burned to resist what he did, and was gently stopped by Chu Yuning.

"Master?"

"It's not a curse, it's a dream enchantment. It's very similar to the kind of magic of the Taohuayuan Yumin. It is a spell that allows everyone to see his memories." Chu said, "Let's wait, see him." What to say."

Xu Shuanglin’s brilliance of the brilliance of the wind in the wind, the higher the flying, the more the expansion, the moment the entire Lishui Lake was enveloped. The shredded memories are like sand powder, which slowly falls from the sky, and the lake is quickly covered by Xu Shuanglin’s memory...

Just like heavy snow, the ground was replaced with new clothes. As the power of the FDC continued to overflow, the scene changed.

Although everyone still stood around the Lishui Lake, the grass and lava in front of them disappeared, and eventually became the appearance of the Confucianism.

The Fei Yao platform in this illusion is empty, only two people sit and stand.

Standing people are barefoot, dressed casually, and their hair is not well combed. Some crowns are worn and even worn, it is Xu Shuanglin. The person sitting in the dark red robes, the face is white, is Nangong Liu.

Nangong Liu stroked the palm of his hand on the thumb, and his face sparkled with excitement and anxiety.

"The five gods are ready?"

Xu Shuanglin said lazily: "You have already asked the ninth time. If you ask me the tenth time today, I will not let go."

Nangong Liu was unbearable because of his heart, and he couldn’t help but shake his legs: "Well, good, then wait for the guests to arrive, wait for the day of the big wedding.... You will give me a look at the list of sacrifices, I will see Seeing that the number of people on this roster has not come yet."

Xu Shuanglin threw him a book, and Nan Gongliu couldn’t wait to turn it up. His eyes were very fanatical. Like a thirsty man drinking water, he slammed the book. He counted it again, not worrying, and the second time, the finger poked on the page, as if to poke a book out of a hole.

"All come together." Xu Shuanglin saw him mad at the words, and said, "Twenty-five lines of pure people, and count the five-line spiritual guards you have compiled these years, the power of these people." Together, with the help of Shenwu, the power is not as good as the direct use of the essence of the spirit, but it is enough. Guaranteed to open the door to hell."

Nangong Liu Yan tightened the book and couldn't help but nod: "Good."

"But this is the last opportunity. If you mess up again, if you want to break the curse, I am afraid it will be more difficult."

"Never swear!"

Xu Shuanglin lazily said: "You should say, never swear."

"Well, it will never be embarrassing, and it will never be embarrassed." Nangong Liu Dunton, and again, "Shrimp Forest, I am still not at ease, let's plan again?"

"... Big Brother, you have been right ten or twenty times."

Nangong Liu does not care: "More than a few times, it is always good to be cautious."

Xu Shuanglin seems to be helpless: "Oh, follow you."

Nangong Liu will calculate: "When the grandmother is on the eve of the wedding, all the guests will come to the poetry table. I will arrange for the arrest and take out the 21 signatures that have been marked in advance." He looked up to see Xu Shuanglin. "The next time it's your turn."

"...well, I will ask for the same." Xu Shuanglin had no choice but to be with him. "After entering the jungle, I led the sacrifices to the edge of Ganquan Lake and planted them with precious pieces. Let them obey and give spiritual power to Shenwu. After this event is successfully completed, I will manipulate everyone, launch fuzes in the air, and tear open the cracks in hell."

"Good, good!" Unlike Xu Shuanglin's laziness, Nangong Liu appeared very excited. He talked on paper. "After seeing the fireworks, I led the five guards to take the lead in rushing to the hunting forest. You meet, and then we make the five guards into a chess game and sacrifice it!"

Xu Shuanglin nodded and concluded: "There should be no mistakes."

"Never any mistakes can be made." Nangong Liu clenched his fingers and his face turned blue. "I have had enough, I am fed up..." He murmured for a moment, jerked up and asked Xu Shuanglin, "Shrimp Forest, no need." Is there really no problem with the essence of the spirit? In case the power of the gods is not pure enough..."

"You can rest assured that these five gods are the best of the best. The peaks in the peaks, the ability to move mountains and reclamation, and the success of the spirits."

"In case? I said that in case, the gates of * can't be opened, and in the same way as the town of Choi Die, someone came out to hinder... You see that Chu night Ning!" Nangong Liu Yandao, "What night jade Hengbei Dou Xianzun, nosy! In the last time in the town of Choi, beaten and killed him, this is a big good thing, who knows that the old vulture has the ability to let him come back to life - hate!"

When I saw this, I was not angry in my heart: when the town of Choi Butterfly was shocked, Confucianism also sent a large number of monks to chaos, and more than a hundred Confucian disciples also died in the scuffle, and both of them were well aware. .....

So who is the fake hook?

Is Nangong Liu, or Xu Shuanglin? !

"Chu nights should not be killed." Xu Shuanglin in the illusion said, "He is a capable person, it is easy to die, it is a pity."

"How can I have the ability? I can't understand his face that is proud of going to heaven!"

"Oh, let me say that, I think of it, the head of the fairy, you have seen Chu night in the past few days, how, death and resurrection, has his spiritual strength been damaged?"

"How does the spiritual power do not know, but the temper is not reduced." Nangong Liu hates hate, "The high is on the top, no one in the eyes. I am in front of him * like a dog that has been rolling in the mud!"

Xu Shuanglin laughed: "The metaphor of the head is interesting."

"You don't mention it, but I will be angry with you! I am the lord of the world's first major door, and I will count on the late night of Chu, and I will look at his apprentice's face. His apprentice is amazing. Master Mozong, there is no rules, and the temper is worse than his master."

He sighed and his eyes glowed with a malicious glow.

"A good spirit of wood, I only hate that I can't give up the martial arts. I don't have to use it. Just like the original plan, take his flesh and blood as the pillar of the people to sacrifice the heavens! Go to tear the door of hell!"

"Jinchengchi, Taohuayuan, failed twice." Xu Shuanglin said, "He later spent five years alone. In five years, we could hardly find his whereabouts. The only time he lured him to be fooled, he was seriously injured by the Yellow River otter, but that The boy was born with great fate, and was saved by Jiang Yan who passed by. Now the ink-burning wings are abundant, and it is not the 16-year-old boy who was in the first place. We can’t move him. The essence of the spirit is not working. ""

"Wait!" Nangong Liu said, "When I break the curse, I will increase my skill. Whenever I am a master of Chu or a master of Mo, I have to kneel in front of me to listen to my command!"

Xu Shuanglin listened to him and said that he just smiled and did not answer.

Nangong Liu himself was calm for a while, and gradually calmed down. He sighed and stared at the ring in his hand. Suddenly said: "Shrimp forest, five years ago, you gave up looking for the essence of the spirit, not only because of the burning of the mountains, Where is the whereabouts?"

"..."

His eyes slowly moved from the ring. Nangong Liu said: "Because, if you check it out, you find that the earth spirit is a leaf forget, right? You are reluctant to give up your adopted daughter. She is yours in this world. The only relatives..."

"I don't have any relatives in this world." Xu Shuanglin interrupted him with a blank expression. "Moreover, you know that the fire attribute is the lang, even if I am willing to forget the past, can you be willing to give up?" ?"

"But it." Nangong Liu waved his hand and looked awkward. "Since Shenwu can be replaced, there is nothing to say, don't say it, just like this."

"What if the gods are irreplaceable?"

Nangong Liu was shocked: "What do you mean?! Don't you say that there is no flash?"

"Why should the head be nervous? I am only suddenly curious. If only the five living human spirits are used in this world, and the sacrifices made by the children can successfully make the door open, and the Lord will make choices. Continue to endure. The curse of the curse, or..." He sneered at the corner of his mouth and did not say anything.

Nangong Liu did not answer. After a long time, everyone thought that this recollection would end like this. Nangong Liu whispered softly and said: "People don't do it for themselves, they are destroyed."

"!"

Hearing this, everyone has rippled on his face, especially Xue Zhengying, who loves his son. He is completely unable to understand the choice of Nangong Liu. He is angry. "Aridly... Tiger poison is not eating. Son, in order to survive, sacrifice your son? It is ridiculous!"

The Nangong 驷 僵 站在 站在 站在 站在 , , , , 南

The scene is black, and the crystal memory fragments are once again swaying and slamming, making the shattering sound of the wind chimes.

When the illusion lights up again, the sky is high and the sky is wide, and the snow-capped mountains reflect the white light. Some people exclaimed: "Is it a gold pool?!"

Chapter 166

It is Jin Chengchi, and the inscription on the side of the pool is "difficult to travel" and the writings are powerful and the writing is bright red.

There are still only two living people in the scene, Nangong Liu and Xu Shuanglin. The reason why there are only two living people is that there are countless dead people lying on the ground.

Or it can be said that there are some dead monks.

"Quicker, and then seal the road to prevent other monks from going up the mountain, I am afraid it will cause doubt."

"It's all right." Xu Shuanglin stuffed a scorpion into a black box, and then meditated on the curse. The monk staggered from the ground and walked up to the two, and slammed back. The golden pool that floated with ice was in the pool. Xu Shuanglin said: "I am not skilled in this ban. If I am more sophisticated, I don't need to feed them one by one. If I volley a little, I can follow the order and let me send."

"so smart?"

"Otherwise, how to call it a ban. Even if it is cultivated to that extent, it is just a fur. I have seen someone..." Xu Shuanglin suddenly said nothing, smiled. "I mean, I saw someone in the book. It is possible to preserve all the consciousness of the creatures, and at the same time let them be willing to listen to them. That is very powerful. I can only control the flesh, but I can’t control the spirit, and it’s still far away.”

Nangong Liu nodded. "You don't have to practice too well. It's not a good thing to attract attention."

"The Lord said it."

"But you want to come up with this method - to unlock my curse, you need to open the door to hell, and open the door to hell, and you need the golden wood, the fire, the earth and the five elements. The essence of this world is not easy to find, We can't always test the past with a door, but you have the ability to change the Jincheng pool to the ground. Those who are seeking the sword are the spiritual cores, and all of them will honestly tell you that it is a good thing to enjoy."

As he spoke, he took out an orange from the cockroach of the horse next to him, peeled off the skin, and sighed while eating: "The frosty forest, the golden monsters of Jin Chengchi can't fight you, you can really resist."

Xu Shuanglin smiled and said: "Jin Chengchi is an ancient vestige, but after hundreds of millions of years, the power of Gou Chengong has been cut to a very small extent. Otherwise, I can take advantage of it by my ability. The Lord respects it."

Nangong Liuhaha laughed: "Well, how can I reward you?"

"I have nothing to ask for."

"Oh, no, you have to say one."

"The Lord rewards me with half of the oranges."

Nangong Liu Yizhen, then smiled: "What is this?" But still peeled the orange, handed to Xu Shuanglin, "The whole is for you."

"Half is good." Xu Shuanglin smiled faintly. "I don't want much."

"You guys are really weird. That half is half."

Nangong Liu said, handing over the orange meat, Xu Shuanglin's fingertips have blood, not convenient to pick up, directly from the Nangong Liu fingertips to eat, and sighed: "sweet and juicy, tastes good."

At that moment, Xu Shuanglin’s smile seemed to be awkward in the sun. The orange juice smudged some of the mouths that stopped at the corner of his mouth, and he stole his tongue and smothered the poisonous snake.

Nangong Liu suddenly felt a little scared, and immediately took his hand back, but his face immediately revealed an annoyed and confused look, and he did not seem to understand what he was afraid of.

Xu Shuanglin suddenly said: "Look at that."

"What?" Nangong Liu Wenzhi looked, after he had to squat, his eyes widened, and a slightly fat face showed a very complicated look. "Yes...it..."

"Cannibalism." Xu Shuanglin smashed the dead squid, fell on the sandstone shoal and leaned over to look at it. The lion-faced fish monster licked his mouth and showed * mottled canine teeth. A pair of gray-black eyes burst into the air, and there was no light inside.

Xu Shuanglin licked a little of his blood and smelled it. He couldn't help the bare feet of the underground consciousness, frowning: "Vo, really stinky."

He stood up and kicked the squid: "This should be a rare evil beast in the Jincheng pool. Although it was a sacred beast that stayed in the pool to keep the martial arts, it was a long time to change a lot of things. The devil can be detached, and the gods can fall, not to mention a beast."

Nangong Liu said: "It was that year... I want to offer the heart of Rong Rong..."

Everyone outside the illusion heard awkwardly. Except for Chu Yuning, who already knew the truth, the rest of the people were even more surprised: "What?!"

"Let's... that's... that's..."

Someone is chanting, and some people have looked back at Nangong, and they are both wrong and pity: "That is his..."

Nangong was first stunned, and then all began to tremble. He squatted back and the whole person fell to the ground. A face was paler than the dead, more terrible than ghosts.

"Mother? Impossible... impossible!"

Ye forgets to endure the tears: "Auntie..."

"Impossible!!" Nangong tends to be mad. His handsome face is distorted by fear and anger, grief and horror. The facial features are almost dislocated. He can't listen to anyone's words, and no one can hear anything." Impossible! My mother died when she killed the monster! My father told me that she was dying when she killed the monster!"

Then he suddenly shocked and muttered to himself: "There is no heart... I am dying..."

He didn't cry, his eyes were rounded, his eyes were cracked, he couldn't stop hoarsely, from whispering to low drinking, from low to simmering, from screaming to mad roaring: "Take your heart!!! !!"

The memory flashed back.

That year, he was still very young. His parents and his party set off together and went to Jinchengchi for swords. He remembered very deeply. On the first night, because of his fun, and Naobaijin was so crazy in Houshan Linyuan, he was sneaked back into the house and wanted to pretend to endorse, but he did not know that his mother had been after dinner. I came to see him, I wanted to give him a new embroidered cloth quiver, and I found a circle. I didn’t see anyone at the Gongzi Mansion, and I knew that he had stolen and went out to play.

Rong Rong is a very cold-skinned woman who has never been intimately loved by Nan Gong. When she came to Nangong’s bed again, Nangong was holding a roll of “Easy Travel” and shook her head and read it. Rong Rong let him stop and asked him: "What did you do after dinner?"

Nangong Temple did not know that Rong Rong had already discovered that he had touched the fish, put down the book, and scratched his head and smiled: "Mother, I, I endorse."

"Is it always back?"

The child is afraid of being punished, and he is still swearing, still nodding: "Hmm... um!"

Rong Rong slightly lifted Xiuyi's neck, raised his chin, coveted, and his eyes were cold: "Lie."

Nangong was shocked and blushes: "I don't."

Rong Rong did not say much. After taking his bamboo slips, he asked: "What is the previous sentence without the world?"

"And...and the world...and..."

"And the world is acclaimed and not persuaded!" Rong Yuxiu is close to the eyebrows, and the bamboo is simply taken to the case, and Li Xiang, "Nan Gongyi, how does the mother teach you on weekdays? So late, how can you still learn to lie now?!"

"mother……"

"Don't call me!"

Nangong saw her annoyed and couldn't help but panic. Compared with his amiable father, he actually feared his mother, who had always been pretending to be in and out.

"You are too disrespectful."

The little child couldn’t help but be blinded. For fear that she would blame herself again, she would argue with a trace of luck: “I, I didn’t come back too late, just after eating for a while and playing outside for a while.”

Tolerant of him, the mother who had not been so flamboyant, was increasingly disappointed and increasingly angry in the sophistry of his son's brains.

"I will return when it is dark -"

"Snapped!"

A loud slap in the face interrupted the words of Nangong.

Rong Rong’s chest ups and downs still maintain the posture of raising his hand, and he screams with anger: “Nan Gong驷! Greed, swearing, killing and looting, it’s my Confucian gentleman’s seven, can you learn where you have gone? Still want to lie to your mother?!"

Nangong was beaten by her. After a while, she returned to God. When she was in tears, she was full of eyes. He also grievances and shouted: "If you are not so fierce, I, what should I do to deceive? You If you don't move, hit me and yell at me... You, you are not good at me! I don't like you! I like you!" Then he ran out to find Nangong Liu.

"You stand for me!"

Rong Rong slammed him and his face was extremely ugly. She pointed a finger at the nose of her son with a finger of fresh red cardamom, and her eyes raged.

"What are you looking for? You are a singular singer, you have to slap a horse, he is a waste. Can you not learn from him?! Give me a seat!"

"I don't want it! I don't want it!"

Rong Rong bites the silver teeth and drags the continually struggling Nangong 驷 back to the seat, but when she let go, the Nangong 驷 ran again, and finally Rong Rong had to raise his hand and slammed a ban and tied him all. Nangong fell to the ground, but it was humiliating and annoyed. It was like a trapped beast in a cage, and he kept breathing.

"You let me go! I don't want a mother like you! You...you never said anything to me, you never care about me, you will only marry me...you will only marry me!"

Rong Rong's face was red and white, and his lips trembled slightly. He said, "You give me the honesty to stay in the house, and let me go out and read it. I will check it tomorrow. If it is stubborn, I will..."

She said that in the end, it was a bit stunned, what happened? She didn't really know that she had always been a * wrist, and her temper was fierce. Even if she faced her weak husband, she could unscrupulously reprimand in public and give him a color look.

But Nangong驷... What can she do?

She stood there for a while, but it was sour and resentful. She was sad and helpless. She was irritated and attacked. She could not help but cough. She was an old person who coughed and coughed. However, she didn't care. When she was not seen in Nangong, she wiped it with her hand and then hoarse and sullen.

"Hey, you are still young, this is right or wrong in the world, and it is often not seen by your eyes. Sometimes people who are tolerant of you may not expect you, the people who are harsh to you, too I don’t necessarily look at you bad. You are weak and incompetent, let alone...” She paused, didn’t say it immediately, thought about it for a while, gave up the sentence, and said, “Mother does not want you to be like him in the future. The monk became the head of him."

Nangong licks his lips and does not speak.

"You are stubborn, you don't have to worry about your studies. These are not big things, but how can you learn to lie and deceive? I have always been a gentleman of the Confucianism, and I have always adhered to the gentleman's style, and I have a face that is based on the celestial beings. I never teach you seriously, but I am your mother. If he doesn't tell you, let me talk to you and repeat it with you once and for all. Even if you don't listen, even if you think I am harsh, even if you hate me."

"...I don't tell me, it's because he treats me as a child, he makes me happy, he is happy, what about you?!" Nangong yelled, "What kind of mother, you only use me as a Confucianist The young master, when the head of the future! I am with you, there is no good day! I don't listen to what you said!"

Rong Yu was very annoyed, and there was a trace of abnormal flushing on the white cheeks. She covered her face with a mask, and she coughed for a while, then she gasped for a long time and then severely said:

"Okay. If you don't listen, I will always talk to you and tell you that you will understand it one day."

"..." The child was so bad that he simply grabbed his ear.

Rong Rong sat in the chair and slowly calmed down, but her heart still burst into pain. She remembered the injury she had suffered when she was demonized in her early years. Although she drew medicine every day, she still turned to sinking and became sicker. Heavy, and then look up at the look of the child under the lamp, and closed his eyes.

For a long while, she was a little slower and said, "Hey, my mother can't stay with you forever. I will not be able to stare at you any more, I can't wake you up anymore, I just hope that you can understand it later..."

She suddenly did not say anything more.

Because she saw Nangong squatting on the ground, her little body huddled together, crying in her forbidden curse, her child, the child who had been happy, happy and bright, playing in her In the middle of it, I cried and cried.

For a long time, I stood up slowly and walked up to the forcing enchantment. I raised my hand and tried to untie it. I wanted to lean over and hug, touch his red cheeks and kiss his forehead.

But she endured, she was still standing still.

She slowly finished the second half of the sentence: "You must know how to blame, blame, kill, and rob, it is my Confucian gentleman."

"I don't understand, I don't want to understand, I... I..." Nangong驷 raised his tearful eyes and cried out to the mother who had cursed the curse. "I hate you! I don't have a mother like you!" ”

"....."

At that moment, outside the forbidden curse, Rong Rong’s face was so pale, and the face of cold and cold was like heartbroken.

That face, how many times in the past 20 years, appeared in Nangong’s sleep, when the pillow was already wet, when I was like a poisonous scorpion, waving a chee, squeezing the vicious juice Into the mother's heart.

Pain, really pain.

After a lifetime, it will not be released, and you will never be able to reconcile with yourself.

On the third day, Rong Rong did not come to the house to see him. He only asked the maid to send him a quiver embroidered with camellia and a letter.

The letter on the mother's notes is solemn, there is not much good language, only to know that the child has been martial arts in recent days, loves the bow and arrow, embroidered a rucksack, and used it for him. He also said that he would go to Jin Chengchi with his father. After he came back, he would take another "Easy Travel" and hope that he would not be willing to play again.

What about him?

How did he do it?

He was full of anger, and he was filled with resentment. He took a knife and slashed his mother’s sewing sac into several pieces. He threw the mother’s letter into the fire pit and burned it into ash. He tore up the free ride on the case. The young and middle-aged children who are divided and divided feel very happy.

He retaliated against her.

He hates her.

He wants to let her know that he will never listen to such a bad teacher's teachings, he will never compromise, he...

His fangs and mouths were extremely vicious, and he was struggling to build up the walls.

He waited for his mother to bow to him, admit his mistakes, or maybe... at that time, he was only using his pitiful malicious, wanting to exchange a soft word, a hug.

But he didn't wait for anything.

Admit mistakes, hugs, remorse, gentleness.

He waited eagerly, waiting to declare war on the woman again, then -

He waited for her bones.

"The Confucianist Gate was attacked by the night forest, and his wife was guarded by his body and died through his heart."

When Fusuke came back, Nangong was standing on the edge of the city hall where the Confucianism gates smashed into the sky. The white plaque and the paper money were scattered. He was the only nephew, standing at the front and waiting, according to the custom, the elders fell, The lady’s beggar can cross the fire pit and be carried back into the martial art. At this time, the scorpion must cry and cry, and grab the land to meet the mother's spiritual return.

But Nangong can't cry.

He feels so ridiculous, everything is so false, it seems not true. The sun shone on the ground and stunned the white light. He was dazzled and disgusted.

not true.

……not true! ! !

If so, what should he do? How can he accept... In this life, the yin and yang are separated, and the last sentence she said to him is "gracious grievance, murder and looting, and it is my Confucian gentleman."

And what did he answer her?

He didn't want to remember it, but it was so deep that he hated that day, and the shouting was so boneless. The face of the mother was so sad and sad outside the enchantment.

pain……

It hurts really.

He said that in his life, the last sentence to his mother... He said...

I hate you.

I don't have a mother like you.

The coffin helped, and the elders broke the porcelain pot next to them. Thousands of people cried in tears. The father was already crying beside the coffin, and Nangong was just standing there, his hands clinging to the tea flowers that he had cut. Arrow sac.

The bright red petals, the yellow peony, the flowers covered with snow, proud of the snow, as if her warm fingertips just touched the noodles, and opened this purple. I don't know if she had a hunch before her death, or it was a coincidence. She embroidered very carefully, and the flowers were vivid, as if to embroider the love that she did not say, embroidering all the shackles and squats of her life. In the first line, locked in this small cloth quiver.

Nangong Temple is holding it tightly.

That is his mother, his mother, the one left to him in this life, the last thing.

Chapter 167

The illusion does not disappear because of the pain of Nangong, and it is still cruelly continuing, spreading the vulgar truths of the year to everyone.

At the edge of Jincheng Pool, Nangong Liu used his feet to grind the face of the cannibal, and looked around and said: "The beast."

"The beast wants the lady's spiritual core, and the Lord can not give it." Xu Shuanglin said, "But the Lord is for the martial arts, or sells his wife."

"What sells and sells, don't say it is so ugly. Rong Shijie was originally poor, and invited the best doctor of Lin Lingyu to see it. She said that she is running out of time. If she is healthy, how can I? Willing to dedicate her to this evil beast."

Xu Shuanglin raised his brow and did not speak.

Nangong Liu stared at the cannibal for a while, and suddenly he was angry and complained with anger: "The fate is unfair."

It seems that he did not expect that his fame and fortune would still blame his fate. Xu Shuanglin was a bit surprised and laughed: "What?"

"I said that the fate is unfair."

"..."

"Why do some people ask for a god, and what the beasts are asking for is a song of sings and sings. When I am here, I am calling a beast, but I want my wife's life. How can I?" How can I choose?"

Nangong Liu looks very angry.

"When I was in Jin Chengchi's request for Shenwu, you also saw it. With the silence of the servant, the master accused. The Chu nightning... Mom, a fifteen or six-year-old boy, even dared to violate me, full of morality and morality. It looks like... I really stand and talk without hurting! I don’t believe that if he is to make a choice, he will choose the former in a wife who is dying and a powerful and powerful!

Xu Shuanglin smiled: "That can't really be said. You don't look at me like this. I mean, they are the kind of gentlemen, you can never guess what you think."

"What else can you think? It’s nothing more than a name for the history of the world. Can I not know them?"

Nangong Liu Yue thought more and more wronged, cursing and kicking the squid.

"Since I became the head of the game, I really suffered aggrieved, the curse did not say, I had to smile at the smile all day long... I also lost my voice, I could suffer the humiliation, or I was afraid to ask for a sword. That year, I had to die in the hands of Chu Yuning."

"You said it is good." Xu Shuanglin actually smiled. "I also think that Chu Ningning really wanted to kill you. But I didn't expect you to persuade him to move, not only from his day." After a death, he sealed his mouth so that he did not publicize what you did at Jincheng Pool. To say that the life-saving ability, I still admire the head of the king."

"He also knows that Confucianism can't be chaotic, and how can he be angry again." Nangong Liudao, "Why, I still have a child, let him think that his mother is a deceased and killed, but it is more than his true stimulation." It is much smaller."

Xu Shuanglin sighed and nodded in a fair position: "No wonder he has to go. If I am him, it should be disgusting."

"Do you think I think? I have a choice? I said it--" Nangong Liudao, "The fate is unfair."

When I saw this, someone quietly looked over to Chu Yuning, and said: "Is it true that Mrs. Rong actually knows about it?"

"He knows that he still helps the Nangong Liu, and he doesn't even tell the world."

"He is probably afraid of things. He was only fifteen years old. If he really offended the Confucianism, he couldn’t eat and walk."

Someone whispered to Chu Yuning: "I don't think so. He just lost it because of the small loss. You didn't say that Nangong Liu didn't say it. Chu Zongshi didn't tell / the truth. It was because Nan Gongyi knew it was sad."

"But he is a little bit different. Is it important for a child to be a child, or is it important to be a master of the school? Hey, if he said it earlier, the Confucianist door would not be in the present situation."

"If you can't say this, if he really said it in the past, I am afraid that there will be a big chaos in the upper repairing world.... In short, everyone has their own choices. If you change to you, you will not be willing to stand up."

"Oh, that may not be, it is me, I will definitely come out immediately to break the true face of Nangong Liu. This kind of thing, you have to stand by, it is equal to accomplice."

Their voices are small, but their ink is good, and a few words float into his ears. When he is angry, he is about to talk about it, but his sleeves are pulled.

"Master!"

Chu night Ning looked faint and shook his head: "No need to say anything."

"This is not the case at all! They didn't understand it? In that case, how can you make things public? Who can't tell the priorities? Clearly-"

Chu night Ning faintly: "Im?"

The ink nodded.

Chu Xiaoning said: "What do you have to do?"

The ink burned and nodded.

Chu night Ning said: "Yes, then you help me with an ear."

"..."

"I don't want to argue with it, but I don't want to hear it. You help me, wait until they don't say it, and you let go."

The ink burned really went to the late night of Chu, and raised his hand, one side, holding his ear. He looked at the people in front of him and only felt very angry and very distressed. He really couldn't understand why he had done everything so well, and would someone be dissatisfied? This person's two generations seem to be living for others. I have never been selfish for a day. Why is it that as long as one thing is controversial, as long as one thing is not so black and white, it is necessary to be poked by so many people. ?

It seems that things are always like this. People are used to being grateful for a good deed of the wicked, and biting a bit of a good man's fault.

The predecessor stepped on the immortal murder of countless people, and the wrong medicine was given on a certain day, and the masters of the Wushou Temple were given 10,000 gold each, so they were praised by people. They all said that they stepped down to form a knife and became a Buddha. During that time, people were in the mouth. Because of this little good deed, because of this little good deed, it is full of dazzling brilliance.

And what about Chu Ning? Chu Yuning is an undisputed guru, a fairy who is the best in the world, so if he is a star or a half, he will be inadvertently speculated.

How many times are the case.

Chu nightning is doing things, and some people roar him cold-blooded.

When Chu’s work was soft, some people questioned him for fear.

During the five-year tour, the ink-burning people even heard someone talking about the outside of the coloring town of Chendie, and there was a voice that Chu Xianning was trying to seduce the public, so he whip his employer and hurt the mortal.

"He is a wood man without conscience, or you look at it. Where do normal people have no friends?" Look at this late night, at the age of fifteen, he rebelled against the master of sin, and later he has been alone. Big, who wants to be his friend?"

"Yeah, in the same year, the Chendie of Caidie Town, how is it wrong, it is also the employer, Chu nightning is so heavy, then regardless of the face of the sect, regardless of the rules of the fairy door, I think he is lonely for a long time, and my heart is somewhat distortion."

Psychological distortion?

Who is distorted?

Isn’t this person paying enough?

Is it really necessary to squeeze out his blood, chew the meat, and even sacrifice the bones to go out, is it right, is it good, is it a veritable Chu Zong teacher?

The ink burned his ears, and Chu was rather tall and slender, but standing in front of the current smoldering, his head was only to his chin. Chu Evening was not a weak and weak person, but the ink burned his eyelashes and looked at him, but suddenly he felt very pitiful, could not help but give birth to unlimited love and softness.

He wants to hug this person more than ever before.

Without love/desire, just want to hold him, and want to give him a warmth in the flesh and blood between the heavens and the earth, nothing more.

For these questions, but the question of the export, and the words "If it is me, how must I, how?", Chu Evening is more than the burning habits, it seems very dull.

At this time, Jin Chengchi’s memories were over, and the memories were re-collapsed and reorganized. Chu Yuening turned his eyes away and landed on Nangong Temple.

Nangong squatted at him, kept groaning and never stood up again.

Chu night Ning sighed softly.

He and Nangong Temple, although there is no name for mentoring, but there are masters and apprentices. If you can, he really hopes that Nangong’s life will be that he is unfortunately killed when he killed the monster. For so many years, the paper was still penetrated by flames and burned to ashes.

In the eyes of Chu Xiaoning, the Nangong Temple, now squatting, and the child who was in the hall of the temple, overlapped in this way.

The child was awkwardly carrying a sneak peek, but his back was very raw, and he couldn’t even get up. He wiped his tears and slowly turned his back to his mother.

"There is a fish in the north, and it is called 鲲. The big one, I don’t know how many thousands of miles. It’s a bird, it’s called Peng...” He groaned, every time he stopped, his young and tender face There are pains that should not be suffered by this age. "And the world... reputation... without persuasion, the world...not...not adding...frustration, it must be ... inside and outside, Debate..."

The soft voice of the child came to an abrupt end. He didn't carry it down. The little body was trembling gently, like Puliu in the wind. He finally covered his face and couldn't stand it anymore. He burst into tears.

"A Niang... I am wrong, my nephew is wrong... You wake up and wake up well, A Niang... I am no longer playing, you wake up, you teach me again, okay?"

Later, Xiaoyao Tour became a essay written by each of the early lessons of Nangong Temple, accompanied by him, from coveted children to the genius of Confucianism.

Mrs. Rong left and could never teach him.

Soon after, Chu Yuening also left, and did not look back.

Nangong Yu has never been a teacher. He relies on this old sac that is patched by the seams. With the phrase "gracious grievance, murder and piracy, it is my Confucian gentleman who can't do it." In the first door of the world, he grew up to be a different person from his father.

At this time, the death of Mrs. Rong has passed for nearly fifteen years.

The illusion once again gathered. This time, in front of everyone, it was the sleeping hall of Nangong Liu. It was the night of the full moon. The Nangong was huddled on the bed, and the mat was covered with a mat, and Mrs. Zhu was obviously summer. However, Nangong Liu was wrapped in several layers of thick scorpions, constantly shaking, and his lips were blue.

Chu nightning shot the hand that burned the ink: "Let it loose, I want to see it."

Ink ignited: "You can also not watch, I will tell you." He still didn't want to put down the hand that licked the ears of Chu, but he was shot twice by Chu Ning, but he knew that he had to hang his hand. On the one hand, he was still very gloomy and swept around. He wanted to say who is going to say that he was not in the middle of the night. He stamped himself in his mind and went back to find these people alone.

In the illusion, Xu Shuanglin walked in through the doorway and walked a slap in the same place. There was no rule. However, Nangong Liu seems to get used to it, and did not care. His eyes were bloodshot and he asked: "Shrimp forest, medicine? Medicine?"

"With it, it failed."

Nan Gongliu shouted "Ahhhh

"It's already closed. Today is the full moon. Even if you don't go out, you will feel pain." Xu Shuanglin said, "It's useless, you can't escape."

"No - no! Medicine?" Nangong Liu is a bit mad. "Pharmaceutical medicine!! You can say it! I believe you! Medicine!"

"I read through the scrolls again. I can't match it. The evil in your body is too poisonous. You have to have one thing to unlock."

"What?! I can give anything you want!! Just give me medicine! Give me medicine!!"

Xu Shuanglin said: "I want to cast a man's spiritual core."

"!"

Nangong Liucha was pale in the face.

"Spiritual nuclear... you want... you want his spiritual core?"

"Have it?"

"How can there be!!" Nangong Liu snarls, hair is scattered, mouth drooling, "You know who cursed me! My good teacher, that waste... pustules... gentleman! Luo Fenghua! He married me The position, when I drove him off the throne, he had already smashed his corpse! I also pressed his ashes into the * pool of the feng shui, sending him the soul into the hell, never surviving! His bones are ruined! You want me to find his nucleus? How do I find it? How do I find it!?!"

Xu Shuanglin calmed for a while, waiting for Nangong Liu Yan to finish, gradually becoming desperate, and his throat was sobbing, he slowly said: "I still have a way, just hard to do. Do you want to listen?"

"Say... talk, you are going to say!"

"Luo Fenghua is dead, but you should know that the ghosts that broke into the infernal * have been recorded in "The Dead", although they can never be super-life, but they can aggregate the three souls and seven scorpions, giving birth to the skin and flesh of life, forming a ghost, the more It is the tragic death of a ghost, the stronger it is, and some even grow a giant python outside the ghost, protecting the soul."

"What about that? I can't go to * in hell."

"You can't go, but he can come." Xu Shuanglin smiled slightly and looked very peaceful in the candlelight. It seemed to be talking about which friend to go to drink tea tonight. "Ghost and Yang are enchanted. Barrier barriers, as long as the aggregation to the pure five aura, can tear open the gap of hell."

"Tear open... the gap in hell?"

Xu Shuanglin smiled and said: "Yes, tearing open the gap, and attracting Luo Fenghua's ghosts. The ghost is exactly the same as the body before birth. There is also a nucleus. You eat his flesh and blood, and then take out his spiritual core, not cursing."

He paused and said: "It’s just that the five auras are a little difficult to gather. It is best to need the best spirit of the best... Don’t worry, let me think about it."

Nangong Liu opened his mouth and wanted to say something more. What he could send out was a terrible mourning. He swayed and slammed on the bed.

"Is there really such pain?" Xu Shuanglin sighed. "Your master, I must have hated your sorcerer, and it would be a pitiful curse on the ring. It is really pitiful."

"Hey..."

"Okay, forbearance, it won't hurt if it's dawn." Xu Shuanglin said, sitting down on the bed, his legs crossed, one hand holding the shackles, one hand licking his feet, "I am accompanying You, talk to you, distract and distract, you are not so painful."

The whole man of Nangong Liu arched into the depths of the quilt and snorted and gasped.

Xu Shuanglin said: "Hey, what are you talking about?...Do you want to talk about it? He is also a child who is not easy. The natural spirit is violent and it is easy to get rid of the evil spirits. This seems to be the dysentery of the Nangong family. I heard that he was a great-grandfather. Is there something wrong with this?"

The Nangong squash was under the quilt and swallowed: "Well."

"What are you going to do?"

"What to do." Nan Gongliu’s voice was fighting. "His illness is better than mine, so much better. After he married his wife... all of them can pass the double repair and suppress the flow of the spirit. You, Still... still care more about my curse..."

"I don't always care about your curse? But the more you think, the more painful you will be." Xu Shuanglin turned his head again and smiled with his toes. "But this double repair will not be right. The body of the companion is so good? I heard that my great-grandmother went to a young age."

"Waste, nonsense."

"Oh, I just asked casually. I didn't think she was really dead because of the double repair." Xu Shuanglin exclaimed, "The Confucianist door is really deep, and the head is actually going to take the wife's life to help him through the disaster."

"Women's life... this is... useless."

Xu Shuanglin smiled and said: "So look down on women."

"Too much training, you don't understand."

"I don't understand, what did the head say?"

"The Confucianist Gate, when you are a gentleman."

"Yes."

"What is a gentleman? Is it a man, do you understand?"

"...hey, it’s disrespectful. The head, you misinterpreted this sentence, fearing that you should live too hard from the hero."

Nangong Liu Yan said: "You haven't married your wife, you don't understand. Women... It's useless, only to pass on the family, it's their responsibility. Grandmother can sacrifice for her grandfather, and she is willing..."

"Is willing?" Xu Shuanglin smiled. "So, do you have to find someone who is willing to do it with him and kill him?"

"...has already found it..."

Xu Shuanglin said: "What? Who? Who and who?" He looked very gossip, climbed into the bed and almost climbed out of the quilt. "Yes, you have even the Confucianism in your heart." The lady of the young master has a choice, then you will talk to me soon."

Nangong Liu wrapped his quilt in the depths of the bed and endured it for a while. He was hoarse and said: "You are a righteous woman, and the leaves are forgotten."

"!"

Chapter 168

In the picture, Xu Shuanglin’s eyes widened, and most of the people outside the picture were caught.

When the ink burns here, I feel that something is wrong.

He is a person who has lived for two generations. This conversation is connected with some of the things of the past, and he has to ponder some intriguing details.

He knows that Ye’s reluctance to Nangong’s friendship is not just because Ye Ye’s death was before he was asked to bury it with Nangong, but because in the last life, the female identity of Ye’s resignation was very early. In the world, Nangong Liu Qin points her and lets her marry Nangong.

This section now seems to be completely a father who is looking for a double repair to his son, but not long after the marriage agreement, Nangong 弛 毙 毙 , , , 叶I don’t think that it’s just a coincidence that Nangong’s death was in that year.

He doesn't think so.

On the screen, Xu Shuanglin's fingers clenched into fists, although his face still smiled, but the tone had some coolness.

"Do you want a little leaf to marry an aunt?"

"Well, she is the best."

“Where is it right?” Xu Shuanglin laughed. “You used to cultivate her as a Guardian, and made her look like a man and a woman. Now she says she wants to give her a nephew. You are not afraid of you. Abandon her."

"He really is not happy. I originally saw him often talking with Ye Yexi, laughing and laughing, waiting for her, and thinking that he can accept it. But I told him about marriage, but he was furious, saying that he did not I like leaf forgetting, the reason why she cares for her, because she is a girl, it is not easy to mix in the dark city. He refuses to accept this marriage."

Xu Shuanglin: "..."

"How can I compromise? He will have a big fight with me. I said that I don't respect his determination. I deal with his lifelong affairs at will. I can't avoid it, and I am indifferent to it. The more I tell him, The worse his attitude is. In the end, he even felt that I was ignorant of the leaves. I really didn't know what to do." Nangong Liu Yandao, "Does he not disapprove of her not looking good?"

Xu Shuanglin is quite fair: "...If the first door suddenly makes you yell, you don't like women, can you be willing? I think this is really not a good problem, you really don't respect him."

"He is superficial! His wife wants to be useful, good, if he likes a beautiful girl, after the body is stabilized, can't he be satisfied again?" Nangong Liu sighed, "Hey, this blames me for the first time, coughing, No... In time, I didn’t take the leaves to forget the thoughts of my nephew. If she was still the same, she would love her.”

"You are too ridiculous." Xu Shuanglin said, "I don't accept it."

"Unless he doesn't want to die. It's very painful to be a double-educated person with such a nuclear tyranny. If you are an ordinary woman... I am afraid, I am afraid I can't stand it..." Nangong Liu breathed a sigh of relief. She is willing and able to withstand it."

"How could she be willing?!"

"I asked her."

"……what?!"

"I asked her, I have already told her about this," said Nangong Liudao. "She is afraid of being awkward and better than being afraid of her death."

"..." Xu Shuanglin didn't talk, his head was hanging down, and he didn't know what he was thinking. He said, "She is really a fool."

Seeing this, the ink burn can almost be determined - where is the Nangong Temple in the last generation? Ten or eight/nine is Xu Shuanglin’s own killing.

Nangong is dead, and Ye will be able to survive.

The reason why Nangong Temple is still alive in this life may be because of Song Qiutong’s business. Song Qiutong is a sphenoidal beauty seat. It was originally a perfect fit for a double-education. She married her to Nangong, and her father’s nature has nothing to say. She even thinks that it’s a drop in the sky, and she will not force Ye and the Nangong. I am married.

Since the marriage contract between Ye and Yu is invalid, Xu Shuanglin does not harm Nangong in this life, and that is completely true. However, there is still a bit of ink burning and puzzling - Xu Shuanglin is now smashing up, it is simply a maddening devil, but such a devil, why is it so important to see the leaves forget? It’s just a foster daughter... who is horrible and indifferent, what is he obsessing?

What is it asking for?

This period of memory is not long, and it will soon end. When the illusion lights up again, the time is a lot earlier.

Nangong Liu Yan went up obviously younger than now, and has not been blessed. In his hand, he flashed the small objects of the bluish brilliance, and everyone looked at it and found that it was the ring of the door of the Confucianist door.

When the ring was put on, it could not be taken until the day when he left, and the Nangong Liu in the picture had not yet worn it, so he proved that he had not become the true master of the Confucianism.

There was a servant who came in and squatted, and the robes on the servant were still stained with blood. It seemed to be a battle. In this memory, it should happen that Nangong Liu Yanshi regained the night when he was in charge.

"Head, Luo Fenghua's body, what should I do?"

Nangong Liu turned the ring and thought about it: "I am buried in a hero, he is a good man with my mentor, giving him a personal return."

"Yes!"

I left with the waiter.

The ink burned slightly and frowned. He felt a little strange. According to the memories he saw only, the Nangong brother’s master, Luo Fenghua, was clearly smashed by the Nangong Liu, and the sacred blood pool was turned into a ghost. Hell, never eternal life.

But how do you say that Nan Gongliu buried his master in a hero?

In the illusion, Nangong Liumo glared at the ring of the door of Bi Yingying. The complex flashes of complex and strange luster seemed to be somewhat fearful but full of desire.

His throat was agitated, and finally he slowly raised his hand, reflecting the candle, and putting the ring on his thumb.

He stared at his hand, looked back and forth, and his mouth slowly swelled up, seeming to burst into a bright and happy smile, but the smile spread was not half, and it stopped.

Nangong Liu shouted, suddenly planted from the throne of the throne, and all of them were shaking.

"Ah-! Ah!"

"Head!"

"What happened to you?"

I was busy helping to help him. I expected Nangong Liu to look up, but it was blood on his face. Only then did the end face suddenly tear open countless tiny mouths. Those mouths were torn and immediately healed, healed and immediately torn open, blood is not The ground stopped from the mysterious scars.

"What happened!" Nangong Liu panicked, "pain... it hurts...how...how is this? How is it going?!!"

Footsteps came from outside the door.

A man against the moonlight, with a pair of smooth feet, stepping on the cold bricks and stones, came to the front of Nangong Liu, a robes, half a squat down.

This person is Xu Culinlin, who is younger than he is now. He leaned over and pinched the face of Nangong Liu, and Nangong couldn’t help but wheezing, tears and nose mixed with blood. Xu Shuanglin seems to be a little disgusting, frowning, and then asks: "How come suddenly?"

"I don't know... Dao... I don't know... Mr. Frost Forest... Mr. save me..."

At this time, Xu Shuanglin was only a helper of Nangong Liu, so Nangong Liu called him Mr. Frost, not an elder.

After some investigations, Xu Shuanglin grabbed the right hand of Nangong Liu, looked at the shining ring, and changed his face: "Is this attached to the murder?"

After hearing the name around, the pros were all taking a sigh of relief. Only Nangongliu was actually awkward. I didn’t know what the curse of life and death was. I only looked up with tears and couldn’t hold my nose. A crystal nose ran out, and blood stained, dripping on the floor tiles.

"Ah, what is that?"

"Death curse."

Xu Shuanglin's face is very unsightly.

"This ring was Luo Fenghua's death curse. After he cursed a person wearing a ring, as long as he shined on the moonlight, his skin would split and he would die like death...night."

"what?!"

"More than that." Xu Shuanglin's hand stroked the jade of the ring, and felt the turbulent flow of the head. "In the fifteen-month round, even if you don't leave home, the walls are sealed, and the night is not coming in. Still feel the pain of a thousand knives, and escape is inevitable..."

He opened his eyes and looked at the uninhabited Nangong Liu, who slid to the ground, and whispered.

"To the end of the dead."

Under the thick and stinky blood, the pupil of Nangong Liu suddenly gathered, and it looked like a stunned squirrel, and a poisonous snake in the black cave.

He twitched in a funny way and murmured: "Is it dead?"

"Ok."

"Broken, can't break?"

"Can't break." Xu Shuanglin said, "At least I can't think of any way to crack at this moment... only later..."

He still didn't speak, and Nangong Liu broke his hand. He screamed and climbed down the steps. He dragged a * stamp on the cold and smooth floor tiles. He screamed and laughed, his voice hoarse and twisted. Extreme, sharp like a needle, and many people outside the illusion can't stand it, blocking his ears.

"Ha ha ha - curse me? Do you curse me?"

"Luo Fenghua! You took the seat of my Nangong family. I will oust you from the stage and leave your whole body. It is already... It is a matter of course! You actually cursed me? How can you bear it - how do you have a face! !"

"I am reading you... the grace of the profession... I am buried in... I am buried in a hero... Ha! Hero! You have to make me suffer from night and night, and my skin is fleshy - to death!" Roaring, one inch and one inch moved to the entrance of the main hall, crouching in the dark shadow cast by the red bronze door of the main hall. The fingers twitched and slammed, and could not help but hit the ground.

"To the dead, how can you worry! How can you care? Animals! Animals! You ruin me forever!"

"Head of the door..." He couldn't bear it. In the past, he wanted to bring him back, but Nangong Liu screamed and sipped, and he was crazy.

This group of * and fuzzy faces has always been weak and incompetent more than any other color, but today is not the same. His face has a bitter hatred, wildfire jumping in the pupil, burning the reason and the coke, the grass is not born.

Nangong Liu Xiasii said: "Through me... the first... the order..."

Listen to the order with the aunt.

"The former generation of the boss Luo Fenghua, sinful ... evil ... ... unforgivable! The fate will be his will ... thousands of knives ... broken, corpse, million, paragraph -!"

Xu Shuanglin stood quietly beside him, listening and listening, not seeing any expression: "....."

At this time, a new round of tears came, Nangong Liu couldn’t stand it, collapsed and collapsed, but he cried again, but while he was crying, he was still the first command to put him on the throne of the Confucianism. One word and one sentence, all squeezed out from the back molars: "Sinking... blood pool..."

You curse my flesh and blood to the dead.

I sink you into the infernal purgatory, and never live forever.

At the end of this illusion, Nangong Liu smashed his empty eyes, his voice was like a broken pottery, extremely hoarse, and he murmured: "Luo Fenghua, the beast... you are a beast..."

The memory debris began to collapse like a snow flake. The secret of the Confucianism that was revealed by this inch of light made almost everyone see the gods in the presence. Some people, such as Ye Forget and Nangong, were because of their personal affairs. I have to watch, and more people have been provoked a kind of pleasure to see other people's hidden diseases.

He is one of the most ugly emotions in the world. How many of those who were invited to participate in the Nangong Palace’s marriage were really sincerely obedient to Confucianism? How many have passed through the magnificent three-out, through the aura of inch-inch gold, to see the seventy-two cities in the sky, the heart is only admire, no red eyes?

The taller the towering loft, the more it collapses, the more it will attract people to watch. The melon skin is full of land, and the spit star is splashed three feet away.

The pain of others is always the street, the best talk after a meal.

Some people are reluctant to look at it again, but this matter is very doubtful and matters. Although Xu Shuanglin's memories are no problem, he can explain the changes of Jin Chengchi and Taohuayuan, but he still feels that there is something uncomfortable.

He always felt that something was wrong in this memory.

……what is it then?

He raised his eyebrows and thought about it dullly.

But suddenly there was a glimpse of the light, and there was a flash of light in the distance. But since there is an illusion that is going on here and again, no one will look outside the forest, so I have not noticed it -

The ink burned for a moment, and then his face suddenly changed, shouting: "Hog!"

Everyone heard the words turned around: "Hidden fire? Where is there a fire?"

"Over there - over there!"

"No! There are also here!"

No one thought that when they looked at Xu Sulin’s memories, the Confucianist’s all directions and the seventy-two cities ignited a raging scarlet fire. The fire was still far away, and the jungle they were in was deep. If you don’t pay attention to it, you don’t know.

The robbery is one of the fierce fires. Unless it rains heavily, it will be extinguished with nectar. Otherwise, it will not stop if it does not burn the grass that burns around.

The thick smoke was born, the fire was like the water splashing on the surface of the water, and it quickly smudged around. It is far from the seventy-two cities that there are a few meteors flying to the four fields, but look carefully, where is the meteor? It is clearly a Confucian disciple who escaped from the sea of fire and flew out of the sword.

When everyone in the forest saw it, many of them suddenly lost their color and shouted: "What happened?"

Some people immediately turned to the poetry hall and screamed at the name of the companion. Xue Zhengxuan is also a face change, because Mrs. Wang is still there, she will not be the sword of the sword...

"A burning! Yu Heng! Menger will be handed over to you, I will go to my wife -"

The ink burned also was very heart-felt, nodded: "The uncle is going, leaving the aunt to leave, there is us here, I will never let Xue Meng have something."

Xue Zhengyi patted his shoulders hard and swept away from the poetry hall where the fire rushed.

Seeing the sudden chaos of this group, Xu Shuanglin quietly stood in the same place, suddenly opened a very bright smile, and he smiled and said: "The good tree is a scene of disappointment."

Looking back at the ink, see Xu Shuanglin hit a ring, let the radiant memory fragments like millions of snowflakes, gathered in his palm.

Surrounded by a sea of fire, the sky in the sky is still not closed, or the golden red melt is constantly flowing, spreading to the forest at a very slow speed.

The ink burned and stared at Xu Shuanglin, and suddenly felt chilling.

This person, the * in the eyes, the rhyme is not right, this kind of eyes is too familiar with the burning...

In the past life, he was at the top of his life. He was in the empty Wushan Temple. After he died in the night, he often looked at himself with such a horrible eye.

Filled with madness and blood, self-destruction, want to let everyone bury their eyes for themselves.

"Do you want to ruin the Confucianism?"

When I heard the ink burning, Xu Sulin’s reaction was that the two toes were intertwined with each other.

Then smiled.

"What about it? I ruined my own home, and I got you in charge?"

"Your own home..."

Xu Shuanglin stepped on the melt stream and walked to Nangong Liu. He grabbed his back collar and picked him up from the ground. He raised his eyelids and said, "Yes, my own home."

He forced Nangong Liu to face his face, then raised his hand, in the face of Ling Qiaoguo sighed, the face of Nangong Liu, who was not as good as death, raised his other hand, slowly, one inch and one inch, from Start under the neck, slowly tear it, little by little...

Oh.

In the end, it was only a soft sound, and a delicate human skin mask made of a hundred years of snakeskin painting was uncovered, revealing the back, a face that Fang Hua no longer.

Nangong Liu first was shocked, and then trembled and shivered sharply. He was a sigh of relief, but he still struggled to pull a little bit of noise from his throat.

"You... are you...?! You... no... dead? You turned out... you turned out to be..."

"I am not dead, you are still alive, how can I die one step ahead of you." Xu Shuanglin said with a smile, "I have to force you too much everywhere, including the number of lives, you are rotten, I will live well." How? You and I haven't reunited for a long time, happy to say nothing else?"

He gave birth to a fire, and burned the skin/mask freely. The flame spread and burned to the tip of his finger. He didn't care, didn't feel pain, rubbed his hand and pressed the black fingertips. The lips of Nangong Liu, the girl said with a smile.

"The head of the king, I haven't seen it for a long time...or, I should call you... brother?"

Chapter 169

"Nan Gong floe!"

Among those who did not leave, there were people who were older and eagerly reacted and exclaimed: "Is he?"

"It’s Nangong floe..."

"Is he not already dead already?!"

"Luo Fenghua killed him personally... How did he... how could he still be alive?"

Ye forgets the stunned, a handsome face pale and pale, lips stunned, half a tear with tears, shaking his head back: "father..."

Xu Shuanglin glanced at the leaves and smiled at her. "Small leaves, come to the righteous father, the righteous father will not hurt you."

"You can't touch her again!!" Someone screamed, and the leaves of the leaves were caught by a hand. She turned her head back. The Nangong scorpion was filled with endless pain and dripping blood. "Leaves forget, you go behind me." ""

Xu Shuanglin smiled: "My good deaf, how does your temper look like you, just like your mother?"

"You shut up! You don't deserve to mention me!"

"How come I don't deserve it?" Xu Shuanglin said slowly. "Do you know that your favorite person, Auntie, is not you, but me?"

"!"

Seeing the wrath and nausea of the twisted and coiled youth face, the madness and pain in the eyes, Xu Shuanglin felt that he enjoyed it. He seemed to be nourished by the hatred of such bones, and he could not help but laugh.

"You smashed my fame and took everything, but what about it. Confucianism door... Confucianism door - still in his hands, went to the end of the evening. Hate me, boy, hate me - big brother Hahahaha - do you think that the pitiful Nangong floe was so dead? I thought I would lie in the grave and see that you are so happy in this world?"

The smile tightened fiercely, he shouted.

"dream!"

He said, in front of the Nangong Liu's body, which was not smashed, but picked up his brother's clothes, just like picking up a mud.

"Huang Huang Confucianism, falling into the hands of such waste, what can be used? Head ... Oh, ridiculous! As the head, not so many years have been turned around by me. I said what I want, just like a dog What did you look for with your ass?" He smiled and patted the * cheeks of Nangong Liu, smiling at his relatives, but his eyes were shining with gloomy light. "Big brother, you are really a pustule, a waste snack."

On the side of the lonely moon night, Jiang Yan said: "Is your picture, is it just to destroy the Confucian style of the century-old foundation?"

Xu Shuanglin turned around and blinked: "A hundred years of foundation? What is it? If the foundation is ruined, you can come back again. After the 72nd city is burned out, you can build it again. Only when someone is dead, it will become gray and wind. When you blow it, it will be happy." He paused, but he was so cute:

"I want to ruin the hearts of all of you."

This sentence is not yin and yang, coupled with his face full of spring, the end of the chilling. Others have not yet responded, but Nangong is no longer able to stop.

His eyes burned with endless fires, filled with desperate coke, only hatred and madness in those eyes, no bit of desire, jade flute, a three-person high demon hurricane breaking waves from the forest , leaping to the South Palace 驷. Nangong smashed his back and the man was not sitting still.

"Man Tuo, call!" With his sipping, a shining sacred martial arts bow appeared in his palm. Nangong smashed the wolf, riding on the wolf's back, his body straight and his arms open. Yu bow mandala, his face flashed with crazy hatred, in an instant has been three arrows bursting, stabbing Xu Shuanglin's key.

Xu Shuanglin smiled and said: "Hey, you are very naughty."

He escaped two arrows and saw that the third arrow could not be flashed, but he was not in a hurry. Instead, he smashed his soft, half-dead body and blocked the arrow.

After all, it is his own biological father, even if the other party is inferior, for Nangong Temple, the blood is still the habit of carving into the bones, he can not help but tighten, the temple suddenly jumps, the dog teeth have already bitten the lips The blood of the lips...

"Do you want to play with your uncle?" Xu Shuanglin was very affectionate and said with a smile, "The uncle is with you."

"Nan Gong floe!! I killed you!!"

"Children's family, shouting and killing what to do?" The words are relaxed, and Xu Shuanglin's movements are not slow, and he is taken apart from his nephew.

It was only a few tricks. His fierce skill made almost all the monks around him stunned. Some people couldn’t help but think about it - no wonder that Nangong Liu took over as the head of the year, when his brother’s mentality was distorted - the brothers’ spells Spiritual power is simply a world apart, and the difference between the clouds and the mud, when the brother's shoes for the younger brother are not enough to see.

"impressive."

"Isn't Nan Gongbu not stealing his brother's spells? How could he have such a skill?"

There were a few people who wanted to help Nangong to attack him. At this time, they converge on the battle, and they are more sensible. The heart of the Confucianism is no longer solvable. run. This kind of mentality is very fast, and in a short moment, those monks who have not gone are running, scattered, and even refused to be the same brothers who were previously made into chess pieces and have not recovered their minds.

There are few people left in the hunting forest in the twinkling of an eye. When I look at it, I only have oneself, and I have never left, but I have never left.

No, there is Jiang Yan.

This is not expected. Jiang Yan is the world's richest man, the head of Lin Lingyu, the world's most business-oriented businessman, and the leader of the largest martial art in addition to the Confucianism.

I didn't expect him to be willing to take care of this unrewarding stall.

"Ginger head..."

A shivering trembling of the microstrip made the ink burn even more shocked. He looked back and saw that he had not noticed that the orange tree was still shrinking behind him. Although his face was gray and his lips were shaking, he was still strong. Stayed without walking.

Li Wuxin? !

As the head of the martial art at the bottom of the upper repair circle, Li Wu’s throat swallowed, and the rice-shell-like oily face was covered with fine sweat. He looked at the remaining few people with certainty: “Are you together?”

Jiang Yan did not answer immediately, his eyes quickly swept through the rest of the people, and then he decided to kill: "Li Zhuangzhu, you come with me, I will save those sleeping pieces, you are responsible for Yu Jian to them Take all the places to the full place."

"good good good good."

"As for Chu Zongshi and Mo Zongshi..."

Chu night Ningdao: "Ink burns, you go to help the Nangong Temple, I will fill the sky, I will help you immediately."

This sky crack is not the same as that of Choi Butterfly Town. There are not hundreds of ghosts and swells, and some have only the golden red * melt flow, so it is not dangerous, but the tearing mouth is huge, it is still It is more appropriate for Chu tonight to repair.

The ink burned out and the ghosts were smashed. The more than 20 young monks who were used as chess pieces fell softly on the ground. The * and blue sleeves were smashed, and the medicine powder was squandered in an instant to stabilize the weak state of these people. And then he turned his back to Li: "I am bothering you."

Li Wuxin nodded, and an epee with a flash of green brilliance came out. He silently cursed, and the epee, which could only carry two or three people, suddenly spread a few dozen feet and was half suspended in the air. Jiang Yan put those people on the hilt, and the last one was Xue Meng, but Li Wu’s weapon could not support it.

Li Wuxin said: "Without moving, there are too many people, and I will come back when I am here."

Jiang Yan looked at a distance, the strong confrontation and fire spattered, the spirit flow became more and more horrible, and the surrounding orange trees fell down and destroyed, obviously will soon spread here.

He couldn't help it. He looked down at Xue Meng with a look of disgust and said, "But you go, you leave this waste with me."

After the words, Shen Sheng called the sentence: "Snow phoenix, call."

At the foot of his feet, there was a silver-plated sword with a blue glow. The sword "Snow Phoenix" was extremely luxurious and exquisite. The hilt was slender and the decoration was exquisite, but at first glance it was not good at carrying weight. But fortunately, the weight of the two people can still be eaten, Jiang Yan is holding the unconscious Xuemeng, remembering how this person had spoken before himself, and the son of Mrs. Wang and Xue Zhengyi, he could not hide his disgust The meaning of disgusting is written on the face.

Li Wuxin: "..."

Look at the head of Jiang, this way, it will not be half of the sword, pick the highest point and throw the young master of death and death into the meat, right?

"Look at what, not fast. Go out early, you still need to come back to help." Jiang Yan sullenly said, "I can't really let the Confucianist door fly away."

The two gods took the wind and carried the young people who were fascinated by the spirits and flew away in the distance.

At the same time, Chu Yuening has sealed the * to the last paragraph, and the battle between them and Xu Shuanglin has become hot. The strength of the ink burning is strong, and the Nangong Temple is even more devastating. Although Xu Shuanglin has a good way to go through the sky, it has become a bit of a parry under the circumstances of the two.

In the midst of an elbow, Xu Sulin Lin shouted at the leaf: "Leaf, what are you doing? Really depends on your father-in-law's death? Don't come to help me!"

The leaf forgets to pinch into a fist, and the expression is painful. The whole person is shaking in detail, but never goes forward. Instead, it is step by step.

"Do you really want to stand by? You forgot who brought you back from the orange grove when you were a child, raised you up, gave you a name?"

"...not."

She almost collapsed, but she was strong because she was young, her head was good, and the elders all took her as a man. Now she has encountered such a change. She still habitually insists that her back is still straight. Although the face is red and bloody, it is not like the ordinary girl who usually burst into tears.

But her flesh and blood seems to have shattered. At this time, it seems that anyone who touches her gently, her skin and muscles will be peeled off from the bones and crushed into mud.

Xu Shuanglin saw her like this, and she snorted, but she did not force her again. Instead, she turned her head and fought more fiercely with the other two.

"Hey!"

The sabre in his hand suddenly sounded a harsh metal sound. The best weapon from the Kunlun Snow Palace could no longer be supported. The ink-burning Liu Teng slammed and fell to the ground.

The ink burns coldly: "What else can you play?"

Xu Shuanglin’s heart was not good. At this moment, he heard a loud scream from the top of his head like a roar of ancient times. He suddenly looked up and saw that Chu Ning had completely filled the sky crack. The night sky on the hunting forest was restored and lost. The * lava of the Infernal Spirit flows in a flash of golden red, like the fireflies in the forest.

The stars are all over the sky, and the nights of the night are falling from the night sky. His dark robes are hunting and swaying in the hurricane, and the face is white as a porcelain tire. The eyebrows are handsome.

But even if it is beautiful, it can't hide his murderousness.

"Mom." Xu Shuanglin gritted his teeth and cut his teeth.

An ink master is enough for him, and then a master of Chu, the two men work together, looking at the entire realm of cultivation, who can fight with them alone?

Xu Shuanglin stepped back and slammed his knife into his palm, squeezing the blood and smearing a curse on his forehead. He whispered: "Don't come to save me? When will it be dragged?"

Then, raising his hand and volleying, his nails suddenly increased by a few inches. His "squeaky" smashed the body of Luo Fenghua lying on the lake, dripping his spiritual blood out of his mind, and then plunged into his arms. After jumping, I was squatting at my half-dead brother, taking off my enchantment and jumping into the Ganquan Lake. A fierce man went straight to the bottom of the lake...

Ink burning immediately returns to the gods - the bottom of the lake is inserted to open the Hell of Heaven to use the gods "do not return"!

Xu Shuanglin is very water-based, and barefoot, swimming fast, even if dragging a living dead, he immediately caught the dark knife in the lake, and just in the moment he emerged, the sky suddenly appeared again A crack.

Chu night Ning Meiyu low pressure: "Day crack?"

He said that it is not certain that the crack is very small, only one person is high, and the ordinary ghost world is not the same, there is no yin in it.

Xu Shuanglin glared at the splash of water, plunged up, holding his own brother in one hand, holding the hand in one hand, and slamming a sword with the blade of the gods, forcing the three people who wanted to chase him to be stagnation. . He took this opportunity and swayed up, and suddenly a beautiful hand came out of the narrow crack, and he gripped Xu Sulin's arm tightly.

"...Time and space are dead!"

In the brain, the electric light flint, Chu Yuning’s eyes widened, and he was calm and calm. Even if he saw the Zhenqi chess game, he would not be so shocked, but at this time his blood on his face faded in an instant, and the sleeves were pinched. It’s hard to be a fist.

The ink burned like a cold water in his pocket. He turned his head: "What?!"

How can this be? !

This is actually the strongest of the three major bans. It is rumored that it can tear the time space, so that people in different time and space can reverse the sky and simultaneously appear the spells - this is the forbidden refusal of the comprehension continent. ban--

Time and space are dead!

Chapter 170

A dazzling effort, Xu Shuanglin has been dragged into the space by the hand that stretched out from the door of life and death. Nangong wants to chase, but it is impossible. The crack in the space climbs in the whole person in Xu Shuanglin. The moment was immediately sealed and slammed shut.

Nothing left in the night sky, only a small piece of Xu Shuanglin's clothes horn, did not have time to bring in before the closing of the life and death door, at this moment fluttering, in the dead, falling into the lake, the white cloth was quickly taken by the lake Soaked, slowly sinking into the lake...

"How is it possible?" Mo-burning muttered, "How can anyone in this world really master the time and space?"

As a past generation of stepping Xianjun, he is very clear that there are three bans in the world: Jane Chess, Rebirth, and Time and Space.

Although the first two bans are difficult to learn, they are not unheard of in the real world. For example, the past self, such as the master of sin, more or less someone can cast these two spells.

There are only a few records about the time and space of life and death. The most recent one happened thousands of years ago. Once a great master died because of his love of a woman, he opened the door and wanted to live. Another daughter in time and space brings back her own world.

However, his actions were perceived by himself in the space and time. He also became a father. How can the "he" of the world allow the girl to be taken away? In the desperate confrontation between the two, the cracks in the time and space that opened were distorted and eventually They took their daughter into the crevice and squeezed it into shards...

After the master returned, he collapsed. From then on, the seal was banned in the Yandi Shenmu, and he became a long river in the long years. The last one completely mastered the "time and space".

Since this ban has not been squirted for a long time, more and more monks have believed in these years that there is no such thing as a time-space-distorting spell in this world, but it is the smoldering of the past life. He is boundless by the law, but with the residual in his hands. The volume, with one's own strength, tore a similar gap -

However, the gap only completed the movement of the space, and it was extremely unstable. Mokang tried to throw a rabbit in and wanted to move it to a place thousands of miles away. The rabbit biography was passed. However, because the crack is unstable, when it comes out, it is all inverted, and the internal organs are turned outside. The fur is wrapped in the inside, and it becomes a * and fuzzy group. The heart is still jumping.

Later, the ink burned and tried many times. There were always five or six times in a hundred times. The situation was extremely disgusting, split, fragmented, and even the head appeared soon, but the body was half a night later. The time was spit out by the crack.

But even then, in the realm of comprehension, it is enough to make a big uproar. Almost everyone feels that the ink burns and recovers and is proficient in "time and space," but he is not sure: he has not seen the first thousand years ago. Forbidden, but as far as the records in the historical materials are concerned, he feels that the spells he has re-enacted are far from the real time and space.

Chu night Ning plunged to the surface of the lake, raised his hand and picked up the half piece of fabric left by Xu Shuanglin. After a slight sense, he felt a little relieved, but then became more and more gloomy.

He shook his head and said: "It is not a complete time and space. The person should only have half of the broken volume. According to the spiritual power left on this fabric, it should only be a space door, not a space-time door."

"What do you mean?"

"That is to say, there is a big difference between this spell and the real ban." Chu said, "The remnant of spiritual power that I can perceive is only spatial, that is to say, Nangong is swayed by someone through this space. I was pulled to another place."

The ink burns the heart, is this not the same as the life and death gates that have been restored in the past? If this is the case, it is not impossible.

But there was a heavy shadow in his heart. He asked: "If it is the real first ban, what will happen?"

The feeling of Chu’s lateness did not know why it became subtle. After a pause, he said: "If it is a real time and space, what can be done is not only the tearing of space and space, it can even bring Nangong to go to another A red dust."

However, when I heard this sentence, the ink burned but the look was slightly changed, and then I licked my lips and did not make any more noise.

He didn't have much knowledge in his previous life, and the collected literature did not know how credible. For the rumor that the big master tore open the cracks in time and space and bring back the daughter of another world, he didn’t feel too much in his heart. reliable.

Nowadays, the mouth of the late night, the ink is finally fully convinced, but this kind of conviction brings him a chill.

——In the five years when Chu is not in the middle of the night, the ink burns through the classics. In fact, the mystery in my heart is eccentric to my own mystery.

He had never seen a real rebirth in his previous life. He thought that the so-called "rebirth" should be like himself, returning to a certain month before death, and everything has come from the beginning.

However, in this life, I saw that the master of guilty crimes personally displayed this ban, and it was puzzling that there was a place where the ink burned. The master’s rebirth was to let the soul of Chu’s late return from the land and return to that. There is no decay, no serious damage to the body, and then continue to survive in this world.

This kind of rebirth is not the same as what I experienced.

If you say that in your life, after you have died, someone has used the same method of rebirth as the master of sin to save yourself, then you should be born again in the Wushan Temple, or you will be fascinated by the emperor, Chu Yuning, Shi Hey, uncle and aunt... These people should still be dead, no one will be by their side.

He then guessed that the method of rebirth in this world may be more than one, so the way he and Chu Xinning are born again is not the same, but at this moment, I heard that Chu Yuning affirmed the most incompetent of the three major bans. Knowing "the time and space of life and death", he suddenly came up with a very terrible idea -

Will he not only be reborn, but also be influenced by the time and space of life and death, so that the sinful soul that should have suffered in another time and space, tearing time and space, came to everything has not happened, still have time The year that turned back.

If this is the case, then what he is doing, will not be in the sight of the man behind the scenes? Everything, including his rebirth, isn’t that the person planning, and watching it behind the scenes?

The ink burns and feels chilling.

However, he did not think deeply, and he suddenly heard a loud noise from the burning place in the distance.

Chu night Ningdao: "Look at the past."

The voice did not fall, the seventy-two cities that were burning in the Confucianism Gate seemed to have been robbed of fire to the kind of utensils that Xu Shuanglin had left before leaving. It suddenly became a fire, and it was tens of feet high, and the fire went straight to the Han!

At this moment, even if the ink burns them, they will not rush, even if they are hundreds of miles away from the Confucianist door, they can see this raging fire that will burn out in the dark night.

Xue Zhengxuan had taken Mrs. Wang out of the sea of fire. At this time, looking back, I suddenly saw the fire coiled into two bodies that were entangled in enthusiasm. One man and one woman gradually formed. Xue Zhengyi was shocked: "This is... what happened?"

Mrs. Wang came from a famous name and saw much more about the treasure. Immediately, her look changed. She said: "It is a kind of drawing axis that can record memories. This kind of drawing axis does not require any spell support. It is pre-wired by the operator, as long as it is robbed. Ignite, the memories that are sealed inside will appear in the fire, the flame will not go out, and the memory in the drawing axis will always reverberate."

"Is always reverberating?" Xue Zhengyi couldn't stand it anymore. Looking at the Confucianism door swallowed up by the robbery, his eyes showed a bit of pity.

When others reveal the old end, they are looking for a few witnesses. They can talk a few words together and throw a few more evidences. This is almost the end of the matter.

What about Xu Shuanglin? It was a madman, and the memories that I had collected from all over the world were made into reels, and a big fire burned to the sky, so that all the world would see how dirty the house was. He used the magnificent sea of fire as a canvas, and used the technique to expand the whispers of those unspeakable whispers to thunderous bangs, and hate to let the scorpions hear these sounds.

"This Xu Sulin, what are you going to do?" Xue Zhengyi sat on the enlarged iron fan, and Mrs. Wang’s sword was in the air. His face was darkened by the flames of the sky, and he muttered. "Is it difficult to become a ruin of the Confucianism, he has not revealed enough, and must be revealed?"

Mrs. Wang: "..."

"Enough, it's enough. The Confucianist door has been torn by him so much, so why don't he let go of the jokes of the real world..."

But as a woman’s voice rang from the sea of fire, the monks who escaped the red lotus purgatory and watched the show in the air stunned.

Xue Zhengyi also stunned.

"Liu Ge, the tricks are so old, you, why are you not so serious... um..."

With the softness of this sound, the two blurred figures in the sea of fire gradually became clear, and the robbery of the seventy-two cities of the Confucianism gates spread the two bodies of the red strips, and the woman’s white arms were above. The five-bar tattoos of the bats were enlarged to the size of a pavilion, and the bat feathers depicted on the top were clearly visible.

Everyone was stunned and turned to look at Jiangdongtang, one of the top ten sects in the world.

The disciples of Jiang Dongtang were even more stunned. One by one, they had a big bell, and they looked at the female director of the martial art.

This short-lived female head is covered in earthy, wood-carved clay standing on the sword, standing in the night wind.

On her arm, it is clear, and it depicts the ornamentation of the five-bar flower...

She did not think that she and the Nangong Liu's private / communication / * / love, were all seen by people, and made a reel of memories, now red and red, no cover -

Public to the public.

Her brain was paralyzed in an instant.

The same thing is the ink burning, almost the moment of the naked phantom of the big head appeared in the air, the ink burned the eyes of Chu nightning.

"Don't look."

Chu nightning: "..."

This is almost a subconscious move. He is full of possessiveness to Chu Ningning. He once wanted to take possession of this person's body, possessing the person's breathing, 呻·吟, the broken whimper between the lips and teeth. Today, he wants to have a clean and pure heart.

"Don't look, it's especially dirty."

Is it not particularly dirty? Chu night thinks. What if you keep your eyes open? The ears are still clearly echoing the hum of the love of men and women.

Chu Xiaoning was silent, and his hands were stacked in front of his eyes, and he wanted to make a calm, but his face did not consciously become slightly hot.

"Ah... fast, hurry... still, still... um..."

Ink burning: "....."

Chu nightning: "....."

Perhaps the eyes are covered, and the rest of the senses become clearer. The squeaky squeakiness of the palm of your hand is like a finger with tiny fluff, climbing up the spine of the person, and picking up where it is. Itchy numbness. I don't know if it is deliberate. Her voice is full of eager eroticism. For her, the aggression of a man is like the thick roots of giant wood. It is deeply buried in fertile soil. The spring water under the mud is inserted in the air. It seems to be contaminated with a layer of heavy rain.

This movement makes the ink burn very anxious and very overwhelmed.

He wanted to continue to be blinded by the eyes of Chu, but wanted to cover his ears.

I want to raise my hand to the ears of my late night, and I don’t want to take my hand off my eyes.

Even worse, in this suddenly fragrant atmosphere, the smoldering suddenly felt that what he was most eager in his heart was neither a slap nor a blindfold. There was a violent tiger wolf in his chest. The tiger wolf whispered, 怂恿He drove him.

Although it was not suitable for the time, he suddenly realized that what he wanted most was actually holding a late night from the back, and holding this person who was not wary of himself into his arms, and sharply rubbing his back. He sucked his earrings eagerly, then licked his face and held him in a fierce kiss.

His eyes were dark, and he stared at the late night, and he couldn’t help but watch his breath gradually become less comfortable.

Although Chu Lingning is strong and fierce, but his body is no longer his own opponent, if he has saved his heart and wants to do something bad for him, just like the last life, then Chu nightning has no chance to resist, this stubborn man accumulates. All the strength can only be used in the shackles between the lips and the teeth.

Tolerate the limit, but can not escape the fate of his smashing dawn.

The person in front of him didn't know what the ink was burning at the moment. It seemed that in order to slow down such awkwardness, Chu Xiaoning whispered aloud: "It's not like words."

“Yeah.” The ink-burning throat is dry, but the eyes are very moist, and the urine is low. “It’s very disappointing.”

"Tian Liang Ji, clearly a married woman, her husband is dead, she took over the seat of Jiang Dongtang, who knows that she turned her head and Nangong Liu will do such awkward things." Chu night Ning is very thin , succinctly, "absurd."

"Well." Although he knew that it was inappropriate, but his inner desire was uncontrollable, he did not notice that his lips were getting closer, almost behind the neck of Chu. He is absent-minded. "It is ridiculous."

He faintly swept his eyes, and the live spring palace of Nangong Liu and Yan Liangji was still fierce.

Vaguely remembered, Yan Liangji seems to be much older than Nangong Liu. Her husband is the right brother of Nangong Liu. According to the seniority, Nangong Liuhe should respect her.

I don't know how these two seemingly innocent people got together.

Just thinking about it, the rumbling voice of Nangong Liu’s hoarseness came from the robbery. Looking up, these two people who were not shy and ignorant changed their postures in love. Nangong Liu intentionally lured her and said, “If you want, Just call a brother."

"?" The ink burned was a little shocked.

Can you... like this?

But she is obviously so much bigger than him, how can I call his brother?

Stepping on the fairy is probably the ability of Nan Gongliu, and also looked at the face of Yan Liangji. This woman is about to be mad, and she is not shirking, breathing and groaning: "Brother... brother... you can Don't grind me anymore...ah..."

"..." Rao is burning this thick skin like the wall, can not help but turn red.

At this moment, Chu Xiaoning's soft and long lashes trembled slightly in his palm, as if he knew the heat and itch in his heart, and wanted to use this little sway to scratch the numbness in his bones.

But the two eyelashes are too light and too soft, and they move a little. The itch does not scatter, but the reason is that they can’t stop. The ink burned for a moment. He looked at the man's back neck in front of him. Some pale skin seemed to have some tiny peaches in the night.

He blinked and his heart was like a drum.

I dare not look again, the ink burns down the eyelashes, and the scorpion is dark under the curtain, like the ashes burned, with blazing temperatures.

Underneath the darkness, the layers of the Sparks were pressed, waiting for the night of the night to give him a scent of love, and the sparks would burn out from the embers.

The ink burned suddenly regretted a little -

How could he not have the bad eyes of Nangong Liu in his previous life?

If he saw such a gameplay earlier, he should have opened the night of the night, let the high-ranking man lay under him, gasping in a low voice, calling him, brother.

Then he thought again, in this life, Chu nightning actually called his brother, not only called his brother, but also called "teacher."

Only then did I not know the true body of Xia Shi, but also the younger brother is a younger brother. Looking back now, my heart is hot.

He is daring to bear the ambition of the wolf, knowing that it is impossible, but he can't help but think about it.

Xiao Xiangchu was lying on the bed at night, his forehead smeared with fine light, a few sweaty hair, slightly squatting on the phoenix, only looking at himself with a gaze, and there were grievances and restraints in his eyes, and then The desire to burn up, burned out the grievances and shackles, and became a thin wet red eye.

Chu Xiaoning’s lips were half open, enduring to bite, but eventually reopened, humming and hummingly calling him: “Shi Ge...”

Ink burning: "....."

I don't know when the hand has let go of the other party. I know that I will cover his eyes so closely. I really can't help but make a big mistake.

Love is the most difficult emotion to press, let alone the ink has been tasted, knowing how it is the taste of ecstasy.

Chu nightning looked back at him, his cheeks were red, but he subconsciously raised his chin, his eyes bright and clear, showing a bit of pride.

"what happened to you?"

The ink burned his lips and coughed, don't overdo it: "Nothing."

"The tone of the matter, have you explored the elders under the door?"

After the lingering, Nangong Liu stroked the hair of Yan Liangji and asked lazily.

Yan Liang Ji Kai opened his eyes and said: "Which thing?"

"You see you, you know clearly, but you always love me and bend around." Nangong Liu said, "What else can you do? Before you said to me, when you become the head, let’s start Is Jiangdong Hall incorporated into the Confucianism Gate?"

"You said this." Yan Liangji smiled. "Don't worry, I haven't been in the position for a long time. The ring is still not hot."

"You can get faster, wait for the two factions to be one, and I will let you be the first guardian of Confucianism. At that time, under one person, above 10,000 people..."

Nangong Liu said, and could not help but touch her thin waist.

However, Yan Liangji seems to be somewhat unhappy. Although his face is red and charming, raising his hand has hindered his move: "I will not climb the position of the head. You will not let me stay for a few more days. What is good for the law?" You don't take my Ming media up and let me be a Confucian lady."

Nangong Liu Yandi: "You also know the temper of the nephew, I want to continue the string, he will not agree. Not to mention the status of you and me, the wedding is not a private matter, falling in other populations, do not know will say something What awkward words come."

“Difficult to listen?!” Yan Liang’s eyes were thin and angry, and he looked up and yelled at him. “You are not afraid of hearing, I am not afraid? Have you forgotten how my husband died? You thought that I just replaced it with the palm of Jiang Dongtang. Gate? Nangong Liu, I am waiting for you since childhood, you know clearly!"

"Well, don't be angry, don't be angry."

"How can you make me feel mad at you? You used to let your deceased old man stand for you, and yelled at the little monk! I... I missed my head and married my brother. Now it’s hard to take him. Both are dying, you, are you just thinking about the merger of the two factions, let me be a guardian?"

"Liang Ji..."

"I don't care! Who cares who loves to go when you go, you must win me! Your son Nangong, the wild is difficult to tame, and Rong Yu that the monk looks like, you can't really make him to succeed him? "Yu Liang Jiwu cut off, "I am not afraid of the world's long mouth, we are now a widow, a coward, how is it a kiss? Who is it? I will not only marry you, but also give you ten sons and eight sons." Nangong Liu, do you want me and your child, or do you want the monk to leave you a deaf child?"

Chapter 171

Nangong Liu was obviously forced to retreat by her, and she had to say: "Okay, of course, I am hurting you, but this matter needs to be long-term, we still said that we are good, you first let the head of the order, let Jiangdong The court seeks to be shaded by the Confucianism Gate. After the two parties merge, we will..."

"No!" Yan Liangji said, his eyes were a little red. "I was... I just believed you, what happened? You turned your head and went to swear... This time is not! You have to give me a quasi Then, don’t you marry me?”

"....."

Seeing him hesitate, she is even more annoyed, she shouted: "Nan Gongliu, how long do you want your mother-in-law? I can kill my husband for you and me - you?? Don't you dare to point? !"

"what!"

Seeing this, everyone is ashamed.

Xue Zhengyi was also extremely surprised. He whispered to Mrs. Wang: "Is the front door of Jiang Dongtang actually killed by her?"

This Jiangdongtang is also missing the sky. Although the former head is dead, there are still many old subordinates in the martial art, not to mention his two brothers. When he rushes up, he will fight with Yan Liangji.

"Big brother is you killing?"

"You, how can you bear it! If you are too long, you are ten years old, but it is very good for you, you - you are a snake woman! You are still my brother's life!"

There is a fight in the quarrel, but the fire is still there, and a pair of shocking and smashing fragments are broken and unfolded. In the infinitely bright light, all the past will be stinking and invisible. Now in front of the world. These things are not only related to the Confucianism, but also to almost all the martial art in the upper cult, and countless related to the overhaul of the famous scholars who came to the meeting.

After Jiangdongtang, Wushou Temple, Huohuangge, Bitanzhuang... Even the Kunlun Snow Palace, which has always been dusty, has the high-level disciples and elders’ scandals lit up one by one. In addition to Nangong's own memories, and the memories he has collected all these years, he is naked and naked in front of everyone.

Among them, even the collusion of the predecessor of Nangong Liu and Wuxi Temple in the past was recorded.

"Master, tomorrow is the Lingshan Conference. Winning and losing is extremely important to me. My father is too stupid. If I lose to my younger brother at the event, then I am afraid... I have no connection with the head. ""

"The Nangong donor does not have to panic. Before the old man handed over your spell scroll, can you remember it?"

"Remember."

Master Zen Zen does not need to laugh: "That day, you don't have to worry about winning or losing. Just try to make the spells on the scrolls one by one, and the younger brother will not be your opponent."

Nangong Liu did not understand: "The younger generation is dull, please also show the master."

"The magic scroll is the secret of the secret of the South Palace, and it is determined to work hard at the Lingshan Conference."

"Ah." Nangong Liu was extremely surprised. "Since it was created by the younger brother, then I...how can I use his spells to defeat him?"

Master Tianzen smiled slightly: "Nangong is a lonely man. After studying this method, he never wants to communicate with others. He hides in the cave day and night. He said that this spell is his own, who believes?"

"..."

"You are not the same, Nangong donor. I am insured with the four palaces of the Snow Palace. As long as we all say that you have seen this spell, you will kill it again. This technique is the result of your study. Even if the younger brother can't escape the lotus, he can't escape the 'stolen brother's unique fairy law', this crime."

The master of heavenly Zen is self-satisfied.

"When the reputation is dirty, it is the meaning of the thousands of people. There is never a day to turn over. What is the use of winning the conference?"

"It turns out that..." Nangong Liu Yan’s eyes widened, like a squatting, holding a fist, "Thank you for the master's guidance! After the younger succession, the covenant will be covenant with the master. After the event, the Confucian martial arts and the Wushou Temple - Make a good year!"

The rolling scrolls that followed the night, all the people hated by Xu Shuanglin, all those who offended him, teared the sores in front of everyone. Both the monk and the people near the Confucianism Gate were attracted by the fire that flashed the picture, and saw all the scorpions buried under the Chinese robes and stinking.

When the door of the ghost world was cut, Xu Shuanglin Zeng could smile and said:

"I want to ruin the hearts of all of you."

Until now, the porridge porridge talents understand, what is the real meaning of his sentence.

Nangong is known as the elder of the frost forest. It has been so many years of ruined Confucianism. It is not only the destruction of the 72 cities of Confucianism, but also the foundation of the century.

What he wants to destroy is all the people he can't understand.

All those who have taken him, smearing him, for the sake of public and private interests, to force him to the road.

And his brother Nangong Liu, just in this revenge festival, the first person to order. After that, one head, one elder -

As long as they have angered Xu Shuanglin, no matter who they are, they will not escape the blazing punishment.

In the endless night of the fire, Chu Yuning suddenly remembered the * young boy in Luo’s memory, and Zeng Xiaoyu said a word.

There are men in Linyi, and twenty hearts are dead.

A spy group of talents, talented teenagers, have never been treated fairly, calculated, murdered, and excluded by their own family. The spells created by the pains are swallowed up, and those who swallow his spells will end up hitting him and refer to him as a thief.

What a ridiculous thing is this...

Twenty hearts are dead.

On the Jincheng pool, between the peach blossoms, Xu Shuanglin’s white son once laughed and said that he is a ghost who climbed out of * and wanted to live to the living.

Chu Xi Ning looked into the eyes and went to the various factions in the world. It was a heart-wrenching, chaotic, so-called tree collapsed, and stopped the Confucianism.

Xu Shuanglin used his last half life as a firewood to ignite this fire of revenge.

he made it.

"boom!"

Suddenly a loud bang, the seventh city of Confucianism, the direction of the dark city, suddenly burst into a purple sky, so that everyone can not open their eyes.

When the leaves are forgotten, the Jianmei is upright: "Not good!"

When I said that I was going to the Imperial City in the direction of the dark city, Nangong grabbed her, and the unruly face seemed very embarrassing in a short night, almost collapsed. But he still clung to the shoulders of the leaves, hoarse and said: "Don't go."

"But the evil spirits under the Golden Drum Tower are coming out. The Confucianism Gate has held thousands of evils in the past 100 years. If they have broken the seal and come to this world..." Ye said that he had not said it, but he felt chilling.

Nangong said: "What is the use of you?"

"I……"

"Leaves the past, you are the Confucianist, you have done enough." Nangong looked empty, his hand lifted up, for a moment, seems to want to wipe the mud off the cheeks on the cheeks, but ultimately Just moving, nothing was done.

"Don't waste any more effort," he said. "The Golden Drum Tower needs to be tied to the door and the power of the Ten Elders to be stable. You go and die."

"I know it is to die, but even if it is sent to death," Ye forgets the news, and looks very painful. "Even if it is sent to death, I don't want to stand by. If the Golden Drum Tower breaks, the group demon comes to the world, the Confucianist door... ...must be pointed out by thousands of people...you..."

"Do you think that the Golden Drum Tower is not broken, will the Confucianism Gate not be pointed out by the thousands of people?" Nangong sneered, his lips were stained with blood that had dried up, and his smile became more and more desolate.

"Don't be stupid, Confucianism has come to an end. Are you alive, are you? Because I really..." Nangong closed his eyes, his eyelashes trembled, his throat choked. "I really don't want anyone to die for this martial art." …… not worth it……"

In the raging fire, Ye Ye was eagerly looking at the Nangong Temple, and he was anxious to say something in the future. He suddenly heard the sound of the turbulent pagoda in the direction of the dark city. She turned her head and saw thousands of bright whites. The streamer fluttered from all over the golden drum tower and disappeared into the night.

The leaves are forgotten and the blood is lost: "The Golden Drum Tower... is going to fall..."

"boom--"

The earthquake trembled, and the land at the foot began to be torn apart. With the suppression of the Great Demon in the Confucian Golden Drum Tower for hundreds of years, it turned into a strong blood red glow, and the red light was like an amazing big fish. The tail is like a red lotus in full bloom, and the big fish makes a groaning sound. The sound waves shook thousands of miles away and the trembles trembled. It rushed to the direction of the East China Sea, and the smashing pagoda burst into 10,000 bricks. Broken tile, the place where the sword is too close to the pagoda, was slammed by the big demon's air, and it was photographed in the burning fire. Even the screams were too late to be sent, and it was burned to coke.

"what is that?"

"Hey!!"

The people next to him smelled the air and hugged their own swords. The demon winds were not slammed down, and they shouted: "What do you want to roll? Why do you want me to roll?"

"What is rolling? I said this is '鲧'-! One of the ancient beasts! Legend of the first door of Confucianism, Nangong Changying once surrendered to the beasts in the East China Sea, and made the Golden Drum Tower prisoner - I can't think of... I don’t think it’s true!”

The beast was born, although the vitality has not been restored, and the town has been under the pagoda for a long time, there is still a lingering priest to the Taoist, so he did not stay for a long time to escape to the East China Sea, but the rolling wave that it picked up is not to be underestimated, burning The robbery of the Confucianist Gate was almost a few feet high by this wave, and the original safe place was instantly slammed into flames.

Xue Zhengyi passed through the battlefield and immediately shouted: "Run fast!! Run fast!"

For a time, the bricks and sands fell, and he finished the sound. The iron fan carried Mrs. Wang and shunned away in the distance. The rest of the monks also fled, but they also played in full swing, and you lived and died, such as Yan Liangji and his own martial art. The elders, they didn't have time to get out, and they didn't even want to get out of the way. The moment they were swallowed up by the fire, the eyes of their eyes were still shining, and the two sides shone with deep hatred...

In this regard, the fly is gone.

Nangong 驷 翻 翻 跃 跃 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 瑙 南

"If you can't move, let's go first."

"but……"

When the ink burned off, he told the Nangong: "Go! I will take the sword and go out!"

Seeing the fire has been horrible, the speed is getting closer and closer, Nangong screams, and hugs the leaves from behind, and disappears into the night with her wolf.

The trees are falling down, the orange forest burning and screaming, the wind is filled with a citrus sound, and there is no time to delay, the ink burns to call for a long sword, and together with the Chu nightning, the fire has not burned in front. Avoid the place.

Behind him, the Tianhuang of the Confucianist Gates is splendid, and the centuries are splendid, just like the tens of thousands of heels of the corridors and the fierceness of the pastures. They are all in the flames that are rolling in the tide, and they are destroyed overnight.

Chapter 172

As the raging waves helped the storm, this robbery burned almost halfway through. Originally, the monks who came to the meeting fled to the Quartet, but the flames had been pressed against the back, and they were chasing after them. Countless monks who lost their spirits lost their battles and were swallowed up. .

They flew along the road to the villages and towns near the Confucianism Gate. Those people did not know what happened. Seeing the fire in the direction of the Confucianist Gate approached, the family dragged and ran and wanted to run away, but where can the flesh and blood legs? Have you escaped a melt-like fire?

"father!"

"Auntie - Auntie!"

Wherever he went, he cried a lot, Xue Zhengyi and others had expanded their weapons to the maximum, and they were filled with the upper-class people who were brought up.

Mrs. Wang calmly pacified: "Don't cry, don't cry, sit inside, be careful, pull each other, don't fall down..."

But the iron fan will expand again, and it will only be so big. There are so many people in the passing town that can’t be saved. Xue Zhengyi is in front and leans over and wants to pull another crying child, but only then. With a force, the iron fan couldn't stand it and swayed violently. He had to loose his hand and watched the tear-scarred eyes, and the face filled with hope was thrown away at the bottom.

Rao is the tough guy of the iron skeleton, and can't help but cry: "Why? Why? When a person is wronged, is there so many innocent people to bury him?" Xue Zheng couldn't help but choke, tears rolling And fall, "Isn’t it not enough at the end of the day? People who are dying... Isn’t it enough?..."

Mrs. Wang’s eyes were also red, and she was holding two children who were rescued. The parents of the two children put them on the iron fan and they couldn’t come up. They were eventually swallowed by the fire. The child was crying. Madame Wang, holding them, stroking their hair and trying to comfort, but I don’t know what to say.

She looked back, and there were more than a dozen monks behind them. Many of them had already been caught up by the flames. Others fled in the other direction from the beginning. Chu Ning and Mo was not here. She With tears in his eyes, he silently prayed for peace between the two.

Not far away, Xue Meng, still unconscious, was held by Jiang Yan, and the fire shone on his facial features. Zhou Hao’s gorgeous sword was not good enough to sizzle under his feet.

Jiang Yan looked at Xue Meng with a disgusting look. He had sprouted the thought of simply throwing the kid down and burning it. But when he saw the eyes of Mrs. Wang’s begging on the iron fan, he still had a sullen face and licked his lips. Did not let go.

Xue Zhengxi cried, and wanted to pull a child who was younger and perhaps able to carry the child, but although he had the heart, the iron fan could no longer do anything about it.

When he once again released a hand that had already been held, Xue Zhengyi almost collapsed. He was kneeling there, squatting, and hurting the liver due to the thinness of his own strength... However, at this time, the silver-red streamer flashed. Jiang Yan waved his hand and flashed his brilliance in his sleeve. He mentioned Xue Zhengyi’s girl who was unable to carry it on his sword.

The beautiful long-sworded sword and phoenix screamed louder.

Jiang Yan didn't have any good temper. He lifted his leg and licked it. He screamed: "What are you calling? You have to plant, don't stand for me, wait for the fire to burn you."

Snow phoenix did not ring, carrying Jiang Yan and the other two, flying forward silently, but the slender hilt looked really laborious, as if it would break at any time.

Jiang Yanfei flew to Xue Zhengyi, and he gave him a very disgusting look. He said: "What can a man's husband have to cry? If you can save it, you can save it. If you can't save it, why bother?"

Mrs. Wang: "Senior brother..."

"How, I said wrong?" Jiang Yan sneered, although he is extremely handsome, but the curvature of his mouth is mean and vicious, it is particularly unappealing. "If you didn't go with him that year, stay in the lonely moon night, now it is not good. Without the power of the chicken, you can't even have your own sword. If you vacate your position, your husband, the full-fledged hero, can save one more person."

Mrs. Wang seems to have been stabbed, and she suddenly lowered her face and slowly closed the eyelash curtain. She never said a word again.

In the opposite direction to them, in the distant place, the long sword of the ink burned also expanded to a great extent. Except for the late night of Chu, the upper head was also filled with the ordinary people who were rescued.

Those people groaned and swayed, staring at the homeland and being swallowed by the sea of fire, flattened to the ground. The flames reflected the tears of their eyes, closed their eyes, and wept.

In such a dignified atmosphere, the ink burned silently and there was no snoring. He is not like Xue Zhengyi, he has not done extra struggles, knowing that he can no longer carry more people, and he will no longer go to the feet and rush to pass, crying in the village.

"The front is the sea." The eyebrows twitched slightly. "Master, where are we going?"

"Go to Feihua Island, can you hold it?"

Feihua Island is the closest island to Linyi in Linyi. The ink burned and nodded. He said, "I can hold it, but I am not familiar with the East China Sea. It takes a lot of effort to find it. Master, you look at them. Let them wake up, the sword is too crowded, and if they fall asleep, I am afraid they will fall."

Chu night Ningdao: "Good."

The ink burned the sword for more than one hour. When the sea level raised a thin light of the sun, when the first sun rose, they broke through the clouds and saw a circular island that was not too big on the sea.

Feihua Island is finally here.

Although the island is under the jurisdiction of the Confucianism, it is deserted and sparsely populated. Most of them are scattered fishermen who depend on the sea for their livelihood. There is only one large family. They glimpsed the fire of the Confucianism Gate in the sky across the sea, and they felt awkward. I don’t know what happened. Many residents looked at the yard, fearing that there would be a vision in heaven and they would not sleep.

When the dawn dawned, the vision did not affect them, but the sword with a handle carried a group of people, and the black scorpion fell on the wet tidal flat. The head was a tall, handsome man with some mottled splashes on his cheeks. The blood is obviously going through a bad battle.

There are no monks in Feihua Island. They live in ordinary people. Therefore, when they see him, they are all afraid. I don’t know if he is good or evil. Why come here?

"Oh, how are they black on their faces..."

Someone whispered, looking at the men, women and children after the ink burned.

"It seems to have escaped from the fire... Is it from Linyi?"

A sturdy fisherman bravely approached and asked, "You... are you a Confucianist?"

"The death of life." Mo-burn handed the child in his arms to Chu Yuning, the child is too young to support, in order not to let him be squeezed, the ink burned on the way to Yu Jian has been holding him "There are some things in the Confucianist Gate. These are all residents of Linyi. The fire is too strong, and the weight of the sword is limited. It can't save too much, I..."

He talked half-heartedly and looked up to see the fishermen look like they were stunned. This was how they reacted too quickly.

Those people on these flying flower islands, where is it clear what fires are, what kind of swordsmanship?

So he licked his lips and said in a warm voice: "I can't help you, I will talk to you later." He looked back and looked at the crowd behind him, and he was so embarrassed. "Can you give them some food first?" And water?"

A cowardly child who lost his parents was horrified, slowly slammed into the ink-burning leg, and stretched out his hand and rubbed his robes helplessly.

The ink burned his head and touched his hair and said to the fisherman: "I am really embarrassed and disturbed."

Most of the residents of Feihua Island were very good, and soon people came to tea and snacks and sent them to them. The ink burned the story from the beginning and the end to the islanders. Those people kept their mouths for a long time and stared at the endless waves of the Haiping line.

"The Confucianist doors... are all burned out?" Someone is unbelievable.

"Is the head of the Nangong Palace lost?"

Ink ignited: "It’s not the death of the gods. It was taken down by Ling Yueguo and was taken to other places."

"What is Ling Xiaoguo?"

"That is..."

Chu Xiaoning stood by, watching the ink burned slowly and explained to the fishermen, but they did not come forward.

He looks a little inhuman, his eyes are naturally dyed with frost and snow, and he is asked to negotiate with the villagers. The result will not be better than the ink.

In the arms, the sleeping child woke up and saw a cold man who was holding himself. He couldn’t help but scream, and then he cried, and he didn’t have a sigh of relief when he was burning his arms.

Chu nightning looked at the ink and saw that the ink was still surrounded by the villagers. He couldn’t get out of it, and he was a little helpless. He used to say to his child on the floor and said, “Don’t cry.”

The child yelled louder and yelled, and he couldn’t stop shouting in his mouth: "Hey, A Niang... I want to be awkward, I want to be a mother."

"Don't cry." Chu nightning screamed hard. "You, don't cry."

"Wow - A Niang... A Niang..."

There is no way for Chu tonight, holding him in one hand and trying to lift it up and touch his hair. He expects the child not to touch him, and leans his head backwards. A small red face is covered with tears and snot: "I want A Niang, I want to be jealous, I want to go home..."

This is really a no-brainer. Chu Ning has never had a child. He didn’t know what to say. He couldn’t help thinking about what he should say. He could comfort the little guy a little, but when he fell into meditation, he didn’t realize his brow. Wrinkled up, lining the whole person is like a squat in the water, black iron cold.

The child was crying very uncomfortable. When he was struggling, he couldn’t help but see the face of Chu’s late night. He suddenly stopped, and he was scared to say no more than half a sentence. He just bit his lip and his tears were like broken beads. Fluttering down.

Chu night Ning suddenly thought of something, one hand untied the Qiankun sac, from which he found a glutinous rice candy, peeled off the sugar paper and handed it to him.

"..." The child with tears, twitching in a funny way, looking at the night, and looking at the candy in his hand.

When he was a child, he told him a bunch of stories about children obedient. There were many vicious and terrible monks. They should dizzy the disobedient children and take the refining of Xiandan.

The child snorted silently and stared at him, and suddenly he was terrified.

Chu night Ning did not know what the other party meant. Some of them looked back at the child with a stunned look and held the glutinous rice candy in their hands.

He is a phoenix eye, his eyes are slightly biased, his eyes are long and slender. Although this kind of scorpion looks good, but when he is not laughing, he has his own attitude of arrogance and judgment. Even if he smiles, these eyes will add a few points to him. The spur of the rose is full of provocation and arrogance.

But not everyone can suffer this arrogance, so Chu Xiaoning's face is handsome, but he is not born to like people.

More do not like children like it.

"Eat." When he was on the sword, he saw ink burning with candy to appease a few little guys. He did the same, but he did not understand why it was unreasonable.

The child clenched his lips, hesitating, shaking, then slowly shook his head.

...he should not be made into an elixir...

"you……"

When he hadn't finished speaking, the child endured the limit, and he was so scared that he woke up, crying and shaking his heart and shaking the mountain, causing people around him to look at each other.

Chu nightning did not react, still holding the glutinous rice sugar, whispered: "...very sweet."

What he wants to say is that the sugar is sweet, but the child connects the half of the "you" that he said before, and it becomes "you are very sweet". The little head ponders a circle and thinks this Taoist It must be that I have to use my own alchemy, and I have to make myself into a very sweet elixir, and I am so scared that I cry very fiercely.

Chu night Ning froze: "....."

Chapter 173

He is like holding a hot potato, I don't know what to do, see more and more people look at him, his ears are stunned and red. At this moment, one hand reached over and took the child from his arms. Chu night was relieved and turned back: "Ink burning?"

"Yeah." The ink burned the child into an arm bend, holding it, and the other hand vacated, licking the hair of the late night, he looked calm, and saw the bitter sight of Linyi. There was a hint of gloom in the eyebrows, but when he looked at Chu Yuning, he tried to smack his mouth and not let his expression look too ugly.

The way he laughs and laughs is not as handsome as other times, but he is inexplicably warm.

"You all said it to the people on the island?"

"Well, let's say it."

"The fire in Linyi is probably not extinguished for four or five days. Before that, we have to stay in Feihua Island. There are not many houses on the island. We have brought so many people..."

"Asked the village head, saying that they are squeezing and squeezing, they still live."

There is nothing wrong with igniting this kind of problem. He knows more about how to communicate with people and what to look for. When I think about helping the harvesting of rice before, the girls in the village look at his eyes and know that he is more than happy. More.

Chu night, quietly thinking for a while, did not know what it was like, nodded, said: "Working hard."

"Don't talk hard with me." The ink burned a look at the candy in his hand, and he was in a good mood. He turned his head and smiled at the child who was still in the doldrums. "Why, why are you crying?"

"I want A Niang... I want to..."

The ink burned him to see that he was still so small, and he walked still and groaned. The mother-in-law was killed in the fire, and couldn’t come back again. She couldn’t help but sorrow, and took her forehead and rubbed his face. He whispered softly: “爹爹阿娘...some Things, it will take some time to come with you. You have to be jealous, they will be happy when they see you..."

He held it for a while, and the child gradually settled down a lot. Although he was still twitching, he never shouted again.

The child who burned his eyes and looked at the tears of the eyelashes, Chu Ningning took the candy and stood quietly beside him.

The man's side is very beautiful, the lines are tough and crisp. If you put it in the ink, it is the bones and bones, and the pen is sturdy. The book is straight and straight, and it is easy to tell a handsome face.

His edges and corners are very tough, his eyelashes and eyes are soft, like a spring leaf stretch.

Chu nightning is somewhat ecstatic.

So when the ink burned his head and bit the candy on his fingertips, Chu night Ning slammed his hand and stunned his eyes and asked, "What?"

The glutinous rice sugar is so small, the man's head is close to it and quickly smashed away. Naturally, the lips will touch his fingertips. Even the warm and moist tongue tip accidentally hits his fingertips. Chu nightning only feels a numbness. The quick and tiny intimate contact is enough to make his spine pick up the crisp/itch, just like the sprout breaks the seeds, opens the silent soil, and pushes the stuffy land to the softness...

The ink burned with candy, smiled at him, turned his head and blinked at the child.

As soon as he looked up, he rolled the candy into the mouth, rolled his throat, and said to the child, "Look, it's not a terrible drug, it's sugar."

Chu nightning: "..."

He had just been swimming, not paying attention to what the little child and the ink burned.

At this time, I regained my gaze on the child. The child was stunned, but he stared at the ink and looked at it for a while. He whispered for a long time and said, "Oh, it’s really sugar..."

"Yeah." Ink smiled and said, "This fairy brother is so good, how can you catch you to alchemy?"

Chu nightning again: "..."

Because there were too many things happening the night before, it was too stunned. The ink burned was not sleepy. The men, women and children who had been rescued were settled. The sky was already bright. He walked alone to the beach of Feihua Island, in the morning. The coastline will return far away, revealing the tidal flats that are not visible when the tides rise.

When I was alone, a lot of thoughts came up, and the cage was in his eyes, which became a lingering haze.

He took off his shoes and walked slowly along the wet coastline. His footprints stepped on the wet sand, leaving behind two traces of twists and turns behind him.

In fact, about Xu Shuanglin, there are still many places he can't understand, such as why the cold weather, the guy does not like to wear shoes, always willing to walk around with bare feet.

Ink burning is a person who has hidden a lot of past and is never treated well.

Perhaps because of this, he can clearly understand that Xu Shuanglin does not hesitate to ruin the Confucianism, want to destroy Jiangdongtang, and even disturb the mentality of the entire upper bound.

Being crushed and being squeezed out is not the most painful.

The most painful thing is that people who are close to each other are betrayed. The most painful thing is that they have not done anything wrong. They have always had a passion for blood and want to make great efforts to become a master, but they are the first important "Lingshan Conference" in the realm of cultivation. On the other hand, he was accused by thousands of people, saying that he spent all his own efforts to create a unique spell, but to steal his brother...

Being ridiculed with white eyes, you can't turn over forever.

Mok burning knows that after this catastrophe has passed, the comprehension will face this reshuffle. For those sects who are traumatized both on their faces and on their bodies, they will think: Xu Sulin is really a madman.

Perhaps only the ink rain that once smashed the blood and kills people, will only be able to think about it while walking quietly on this quiet and long coastline.

Xu Shuanglin, what kind of person is it?

This madman, when he was young, was also arrogant. He practiced swordsmanship in the orange forest. After the night fell, he was tired and satisfied to go back. He took a fresh sweet orange in his sleeve and brought it to himself. Is the total lazy brother eating?

At that time, he did not know that his brother had nothing to do, but he could rely on the three-inch tongue to let himself nowhere in the realm of cultivation.

This madman, has also buried in the magic scroll, thinking hard, squinting seriously, writing a slightly green view, and then dissatisfied, biting the pen, and then fell into deep thought?

At that time, he was not clear. In fact, no matter how hard he tried, the final result was stigmatized and hopeless.

The ink burned closed his eyes, the sea breeze blowing his face, the sun falling on his eyelashes, and a layer of gold rim.

He thought of Sansheng's hospital, drinking Mengpo water and forgetting the three things. Xu Sulinn took this name for the place where he lived. Is it just casual?

There is also the past life, the former Xu Chunlin crouched in the Confucianism Gate, and should be the same purpose as this life, but that time, he was in the bonfire for the Ye Forgiveness to die...

Leaves forget.

This name was also given to her by Xu Shuanglin.

Forgot what?

Has he ever tried to forget the years of injustice and unfairness, forget the hatred and glory of the past, and forget the ugly face of that face?

There is also Xu Shuanglin's hard work, the corpse towed from hell, Luo Fenghua's body.

What does he want this corpse to do?

In the illusion, Xu Shuanglin and Nan Gongliu said that only the curse of the curse can be used to completely break the curse on the ring, but from the final result, Xu Sulin's real purpose is not to help Nangong Liu unravel the curse.

Space cracks, Jane Chess, rebirth...

And the last hand that protruded from the crack.

The smoldering faintly felt that there was something wrong with it. He was very worried and thinking.

Suddenly, he blinked blindly.

He thought of one thing -

At the time of Jinchengchi, when the old dragon died, he once said: "The mysterious man, in Jinchengchi, has the power to pick up the heart and cultivate the two secret techniques. One is the rebirth, and the other is the chess game."

At that time, it did not mention "time and space."

That is to say, for Xu Shuanglin, he only cares about rebirth and cherish two spells. It is not necessary to say more, it is for the convenience of manipulation and manipulation of chess pieces.

Reborn?

Who does he want to be born again?

I thought about it and thought that there are two answers. One is Rong Rong and the other is Luo Fenghua.

Listening to Xu Shuanglin's words, the person whom Rong Rong once loved was actually him. Later, because of some variables, she finally broke off with Xu Shuanglin and married his brother.

But after careful inference, I feel that it should not be her.

If Xu Shuanglin really loves Rong Rong, she loves to do her best to rehabilitate her. Why can she kill her only son in her life?

More importantly, this guy has long been squatting at the side of Nangong Liu as "the elder of the Frost Forest". If he wants to resurrect Rong Rong with the rebirth, then at the Jincheng Pool, why not stop her directly? Was it sacrificed?

Not tolerant.

The ink burned over and looked at the sea that was reddened by the sun. The waves of the smashing waves continued to spread. The tides were rising with the speed of the naked eye as the sun rose, and the world was brilliant.

It is Luo Fenghua.

The ink burning can almost be trusted, and the person who wants to resurrect Nangong is Luo Fenghua.

The Confucianism is far from being as simple as the surface, like the tides, the broken shells, the dangerous starfish, all covered in the waves at the dawn of the sky.

The sea water rose quickly, and the fine sand and gravel was washed by the waves and spread to the beach where he strolled.

Suddenly, the foot was suddenly cool, and the ink burned lower, and the spray had already rushed up, flapping his instep.

"哗-"

He moved the smooth toes and felt a little cold. He wanted to walk back to the beach and wear shoes. When he turned back, he saw that Chu Ning came to him from the sky and the red sky, with a faint look, one hand squatting He casually threw the shoes and socks in the sand and handed it to him.

"How barefoot, such a cold day."

The ink burned as he walked up to the height of the sand slope, sat down on the shore of a rocky beach in the boulder, shook the sand on his feet and put on his shoes again. Suddenly he felt a little relieved. Although he was destined to be the kind of love he wanted in his life, he was still the best teacher in the world, and he would care for him and take care of him.

Seeing him walking around barefoot, he will worry about his cold.

"What do you think of the Confucianist door?"

"not that simple."

"I think so too." Chu Xiaoning's brow has barely stretched since last night. Even though there is a short period of peace and tranquility at the moment, his eyebrows are still smeared with sorrow. He looks at the smoldering shoes and socks. Fu will cast his sights on the sea.

Xuyang, which rises in sea level, burns a piece of gorgeous golden red, and it is very difficult to divide each other with the fire that is not extinguished in the far distance.

"While Xu Shuanglin was pulled by the space crack, it is hard to check." Chu said, "If he does not want to let people know, it will disappear, I am afraid no one can catch him for ten or eight years."

The ink burned and shook his head: "He can't help it for ten or eight years. After the energy is restored, there should be some movement."

"How to say?"

Mo-burning told his own guess and Chu Yuening again, and said: "Luo Fenghua's body is not the real flesh, is the 'prosthetic limb' rebuilt in the infernal purgatory, leaving the ghost world, lacking yin to support, very It will soon be stabbed and decayed. So I guess for up to a year, even if he is not prepared, there will be new movements."

Chu nightning did not make a sound.

He is always cautious when he is doing things or thinking. For such an inconvenience, he will not be as bold as the assumption of ink. But listening to the assumption of ink burning is no problem.

"What about that hand?" Chu said, "The last hand that took the Nangong smuggling, what do you think?"

"..." The ink swayed and shook his head. "The first ban, I know too little, I don't know, I don't know."

This sentence is not true, although the ink does not want to lie to the late night, but there are some things, he really can't talk with the late night.

He dare not say.

Really, from the time he remembered, there have been few pitiful days of peace and stability. If you add up for two generations, I am afraid that it will not last more than one year.

A man who had been displaced for decades, suddenly let him sit down, gave him a pot of hot tea, and a bonfire, how he was willing to get up again, how to be willing to break this good dream.

So he can only say, don't know.

But my heart was restless, and he was almost certain that the owner of the hand would not be that simple. Otherwise, why did the former Xu Xulin not do so quickly to collect the five spiritual bodies and want to slaughter? If someone who is born again is not instructing him, confuse him, and develop according to normal things, Xu Shuanglin should not have thought about how to resurrect Luo Fenghua at this time...

What's more, when Jin Chengchi and Xu Shuanglin controlled the white son once said to Chu Ningning: "If you think that there are only one person in the world who knows the three major bans, then you may not live for too long."

The ink burns that Xu Shuanglin must be clear, and some people who should not have survived in this world have come to this world. But at the same time, he felt that although Xu Shuanglin knew that he had a rebirth, he did not know that he was born again.

Otherwise, why did he not directly expose his old bottom when he was shot at the Confucianist Gate? His memory scroll, as long as he got some memories of ink burning, put it in the fire, and Rao is a late night to treat himself better, I am afraid that this apprentice will not be needed again. Then everything is over, and his drizzle will never turn over.

Why didn't Xu Shuanglin do this?

Two possibilities:

First, he could not do this for some reason.

Second, he still doesn't know his own cards.

But in either case, the ink is very passive at the moment, and the clues he has in his hand are too few. If the other person is cautious and no longer reveals clues, then he may only stand in the bright spot and wait for that one. Put a cold knife on his back at any time.

The ink burned up the lips, and the deep eyelashes fell and trembled.

I can't manage that much. In the last life, he lived in hatred, selfish, and did crazy things. In this life, no matter what the outcome, he wants to go through every day as much as possible, try his best to make up for those who owe it, try his best to protect the teacher, the teacher, the Xuemen, and protect the life and death.

Try your best to keep this moment of warmth that you have never wanted.

When the fishermen rushed to the scene, they shouted to the ink and burned them: "Not good, two Xianjun, something went wrong!"

The ink burned, the arm was on the ground, and immediately jumped up and asked, "What happened?"

"The big head of the island went to the sea a few days ago. Just came back this morning. She and her listened to the village head and said that things went through. They were very dissatisfied with the disposal of the village head. They were angry and said that they would not let those elderly children live. In the empty room. At this point she has driven everyone out, and the people you brought are standing outside."

The fishermen have a good heart, and when they say that they are blind, they are a little moist.

"It's pitiful, this cold day, even the clothes quilt are not willing to give... the big head of the household still said..."

Chu night Ning also stood up and his face was gloomy: "What did she say?"

"She also said... Only those people who came to Linyi, ate the dry food of Feihua Island, drank the water of Feihua Island, and wanted to clear the money with them. If they didn't pay it, they would... When the slave... stayed on the island to call..."

His words have not been finished, Chu nightning is already angry, the moon white robes flew, and went to the island heart village.

Chapter 174

Although Feihua Island is poor, the big head of the household is obviously rich in money and has a very rich life.

She wore a bat-patterned gold satin tweezers, and the cover was the best snow gauze coat made by Kunlun Tengxue Palace. The black-and-white half-mixed long hair was extremely smooth and sturdy, and the top was covered with green beads and the eyebrows were used. Wait for the snail to be thick, apply powder and grease, and blush on the lips. Leaving a circle of warm and moist pearl chain on the neck, two gold-plated earrings hung in the ear, inlaid with the ruby of the pigeon egg, and the ear * were heavy.

She is a woman who is over half a hundred years old. Fanghua is no longer there, her body is slightly bloated, her face is wrinkled, and if she is dressed up, she obviously thinks that the more expensive things she wears, the more she can look herself. It is very beautiful, so it is trapped in this pile of sparkling pearls, like a red-green old man.

The old man sat on the ground of half of the whole flying flower island. When she spoke, the village chief did not dare to scream.

At this moment, the sun rises, this red flower with the green leaves of the old man Shiran to the square, sitting in the red rosewood bat deer chair that has been prepared for her, looking at the people who came to Linyi.

“How do I accept it?” She turned up the heavy, greasy eyelids and glanced at the head of the village. “I didn’t pay for the silver, what did they do for the house? How much did it eat?”

"I didn't eat much...there are people in the village who have left their own homes and can't eat them." The village chief shouted.

The old man snorted and said: "That must pay. This rice wheat is not all planted from the land of my grandson. This year's harvest is not good, I also opened a warehouse to help each household on the island. Ten pounds of barley flour, a pot of oil. It doesn't matter to you, it's all your own, but you can take Sanniang's food to help Linyi's refugees, I am afraid it is not good?"

"The three ladies said it." The village chief lost his smile. "But you see, these little old man's heads, the pitiful of the cold, you are the heart of the bodhisattva, or not."

The old man said with a small eye: "How can you forget it? Money is money."

village head:"……"

“How much does each family take for them to eat?” asked the old man. “I just let you go to bookkeeping, remember?”

The head of the village did not know what to do. He only said: "Remember, just figure it out." He said that he handed a booklet to the hands of the old Sun Sanniang. Sun Sanniang raised his hand and only nine hands were worn on the right hand. Bracelet scorpion, gold and silver jade of various gems, almost covered her half of the arm.

"Yeah." She read it lazily, put a book in the book, and said, "You guys are pigs, you can really eat, just for a while, actually smashed the island’s twenty-six gimmicks. Our big girl is really big, it’s not too much for you to collect 90% of the silver. In addition, I drank half a tank of fresh water, which was all shipped back from Linyi. Linyi sold me three gold and one cylinder. I have to count the toll loss and sell. I will give you four gold and one cylinder, half a tank is two gold, a total of two gold and ninety silver. Right, Zhang Jie."

The good-faced woman who was pointed to the name shook and looked up: "Ah, San Niangzi."

Sun Sanniang smiled and said: "The best thing you can do with your * is to eat the pork slab in the face."

"This... steamed ten steamed buns and only one lard with a big pea. How do you count it?"

"Why don't you count it, a lard of ten taro peas, converted down, I received a copper plate, not too much."

"..."

"This is two gold, ninety silver and one bronze." Sun Sanniang said, "In addition, you sleep in the house on my land. Although the house is not mine, but the land is mine, you have slept for half an hour. The cost of half an hour is seventy copper per person."

She said, turning to ask the things around me: "How many people do they have?"

"Back to Sanniang, a total of forty-nine."

"No, didn't you say fifty-one before? Are there two more?"

The voice did not fall, and I heard a gloomy voice saying:

"it's here."

Although Chu Evening has no white shirts, but a deep white robes, but still fascinating, there is frost and snow, a pair of scorpions flying up slightly, the scorpion is clear, but cold and proud, like a sheath Sharp bayonet.

Sun Sanniang is an ordinary person, but when he sees a monk, he is not afraid.

She has been working for most of her life, although she must be nitpicking, but she does not commit anything, and she sneers at the side.

Therefore, she did not hesitate: "It turned out to be a fairy, no wonder you don't have to sleep. These people are all saved by you? It's just right, he is a little bit, give money."

The village chief whispered: "Sanniang, these two are not the Confucianist, the immortal prince, you don't have to..."

"Which martial art I am in charge of, I don't recognize people."

Chu night Ning glanced at the huddled together, the cold shivering sluts, raised their hands, dropped a golden red enchantment to dispel the chill, and then turned his head: "How much do you want?"

"Two gold, ninety-three silver, four hundred and thirty copper."

Although Sun Sanniang is disgusting, but at this time they have nowhere else to go. Chu nightning knows that if she offends her, she is a group of people who bring her own, so although her face is very poor, she still takes out the purse from the sac and throws it away. she was.

"There are about eighty gold in it." Most of his money was placed in Xue Zhengxuan. Now there is not much money left in his body. "We have to live for about seven days. You can order it and see if it is enough."

"not enough."

Where is Sun Sanniang's own hands, he will hand over the money bag to his men and let his men count next to him.

"The eighty gold is only enough for you to live for three days, and has not yet calculated the meal."

"you--!"

"If Xianjun is not convinced, I can calculate this account with you. The businessman can calculate the money, and I can tell you a head from every pen."

At this time, the smoldering came, and there was not much money on his body. Together with Chu Yuning, he barely managed to eat for fifty-two people for four days.

Sun Sanniang received a soft, smiling lips with bright red lips: "Leave you for four days, after four days, if there is no money, I will not let the fire go out, you have to leave immediately."

In order to save money, this evening, Chu nightning did not eat, he threw the sea bream into the river, tried to get in touch with Xue Zhengyi, and then returned to his temporary house.

This house is more simple than when I was busy in Yuliang Village. Because there are not many rooms on the island, everyone needs to squeeze. Chu night is not used to living in a room with strangers, and can only sleep with ink.

At this moment, the lights in the room are lit, but the people who burned the ink are not there. I don’t know where to go.

Chu nightning took off his robe. Although the robe was luxurious, the material was not better than the white he wore. The upper part was stained with ashes and blood stains. He poured a bucket of hot water and was preparing to clean it, and the door opened.

Chu night Ning picked up his eyelids and glanced at him: "Where are you going? Come back so late."

The ink burned into the house. He brought back a bamboo lunch box. The outside wind was a little big. It was very cold. He put the lunch box in his arms and raised his eyes. His nose was frozen and red. He smiled. I am going to have dinner at the girl’s house."

Chu night Ning Yi: "You go to dinner?"

"Just kidding." Ink ignited, "I brought some food back."

"What to eat?"

"Taro." The ink burned a little embarrassed. "There is a bowl of fish soup, a bowl of braised pork, but unfortunately there is no dessert. The Sun Sanniang stared too hard, the people in the village are afraid of her, no one dares to give me something, I Go to her house to find her, take a silver-made dagger with her to change with her."

Chu night Ning frowned: "She is too black, you know the silver scorpion, and there is a stone in the top, how can I change something?"

"More than that, I bargained with her, changed fifty-two, everyone has it, and took it out in the kitchen." The ink smiled and said, "So you don't have to worry about others, you are arrogant." Eat it."

Chu Xiaoning was really hungry. Sitting at the table, he drank a few hot fish soups, then picked up the steamed buns and smashed the braised pork. Sun Sanniang, the meat is not much, and most of them are very fat, Chu night rather than love to eat, but licking the broth to chew the hoe, the taste is not bad, he smashed one, and went to the second.

The ink burned a bucket of steaming heat and asked: "Masters are going to wash clothes?"

"Ok."

"Gentle only, I help the teacher to wash it."

"No, I go by myself."

Ink burning: "It's okay, I just want to wash, just by the way."

He said, he went to the bed and picked up some of the pieces he had lost before, and then went out with a wooden barrel.

The moonlight in the courtyard was clear, and the ink burned his head and looked at it. The heart did not know how Xue Meng and his uncle were doing, and where Ye Zhixiu and Nangong Temple went now. Look at the robbery on the other side of the sea, still rolling like a bloodstream, day and night, burning burnt smoke.

Song Qiutong, and... that person.

The person who hated it in the past, and killed the entire Confucianist door.

I am afraid that I have been buried in the sea of fire.

The ink sighed and no longer thought about it. He put down the barrel, exchanged the cold water in the water tank, rolled up his sleeves and began to wash clothes.

Chu nightning this guy, doing mechs, writing scrolls, are all methodical and meticulous, but once he is allowed to do some laundry and cooking things, it is always a mess.

For example, before the ink is completely immersed in the water, it will habitually check the Qiankun bag and the dark bag first, so as to avoid any important things entering the water, but Chu Evening often does not remember to do this step.

"....."

In the face of a pile of piecemeal gadgets that came out of Chu’s robes, the ink burned into silence.

What are these?

Jellyfish handkerchief.

Fortunately, it is still normal.

Various medicinal herbs.

There is nothing wrong with it.

a handful of sugar...

The ink burned a little bit, and looked carefully, as if I was buying the nougat for him when I was in Yuliang Village.

Haven't finished eating yet?

Turning down again, the ink burned.

... detonation?

The ink burned his face, and the paper that was soaked in half of the water and wet, almost stunned.

How wide is the heart of this person? Can you put the detonator directly on the body without any imprisonment? Although the possibility of igniting self-destruction is very small, but it is too dangerous, is it a joke?

The ink burned frowning, and he carefully checked his clothes carefully and carefully, and cleared all the detonators, frozen characters, and soul symbols. He found that the dragon that was painted with the dragon was also Chu. Late Ning fell carelessly inside.

If you don't look at it, these papers have to be soaked, and a large part of them are useless. Chu Yuning is really...

The ink burned his head and shook his head. He said that the clothes of the masters must not be allowed to wash himself.

Just thinking, suddenly a small, white thing slipped out of the pocket. I don't care about the ink, I think it's a magical spell, and I pick it up and glance at it.

In this regard, he stunned.

It was an old kit, embroidered with acacia flowers, and the leaflets were eclipsed, not bright at first.

Some doubts, but also a bit stunned, he vaguely felt that this thing is very familiar, must have seen where, but the time has been separated for too long, he can not remember.

The ink burned this little kit, the black eyebrows were locked, and the eyes were bright and dark. The past has flowed quickly, and he tried to find the source of this acacia bloom in the rushing years.

Light and cool fabric, the color that fades away.

He took it in his hand and looked over it, but he couldn't remember it. He was worried that there was something dangerous like a "detonator" inside, so he opened it and took a look.

"..."

It is a strand of hair.

No, take a closer look, it is actually two.

They are tied together, twisted together, and the nets are seamless. In the rush of time, they have been entangled, accompanied each other, and they thought it was a bundle. In fact, these two colors of ink have long been difficult to distinguish.

"hair?"

The ink burned and the ground flashed a little more clearly.

He murmured: "The kit...there is a kite..."

Suddenly, he remembered a past event. Then the thing blew in the heart like a flame, and the burning chest was hot. His eyes were instantly widened by horror.

Ghost master.

He remembered it.

Jin Tong Yu female color butterfly town and the 巹 巹 交

From then on, the two souls are accompanied by each other.

He... remembered.

He remembered it! !

In the middle of the movie, Ghost Master of the Butterfly Town, when he and his wife were married to each other, the two children's hair cut by them were collected in the Hehuan gift bag and handed over to the hands of Chu.

This is the kit.

"how come."

The ink burned in the brain, the blood flowed, and it was necessary to smash.

"how is this possible……"

He was close to the kit, his hands shivering slightly, his eyes leaping and shining, shining with surprise, stunned, unbelievable, utterly ecstasy, ecstasy and even sad.

Master respects... Chu nightning...

He, why is he... Why should I keep this?

Chapter 175

When Chu Ning had the last hoe, the door behind him opened, and the ink burned a bunch of things and came in, putting those things on the bed.

"Master, there are some pieces of paper in your robe that have not been taken out. I have placed it here for you."

When he finished, he lowered his head and went out.

He is really embarrassed to take the kit directly to ask Chu Yuning, always feel that no matter what the other party back, the atmosphere will be very embarrassing. What's more, Chu Xiaoning's cheeks are so thin, his mouth is stupid, and if anything is wrong, let him be upset, how to be good.

The ink burned his lips, and the black eyes flashed with radiance, some confusion, and it was very stunned.

He suddenly gave birth to a thought that made him feel incredible -

Is it Chu Yuning...

Did you like him?

The ink burned was shocked by his own daring mourning. He shook his head and whispered: "It is impossible impossible..."

The so-called ignorance of the true face of the mountains, only in this mountain, said that is probably the case.

If this kit belongs to a person who doesn't care about ink, such as a female repair, then the ink burns and sees, and certainly knows well, and instantly can determine the other's heart.

- If you don't like it, who will be carrying a kite with another person, how long has it been?

Things were originally so simple.

But when it hits the night, it burns. People are like this. The more you care about it, the easier it is to think about it, the more stupid it is, the hands and feet don’t know where to put it, the other person’s eyes can be scratched and tangled for a long time, the other side is silent, can In the silence, dig three feet, carefully dig out the meaning behind the pause.

In this way, even if it is a simple matter, he will repeatedly ponder, slowly chew, and taste a lot of seven turns and eight bends.

Did you make a mistake yourself?

Did you misunderstand?

Was it late for me to forget to lose it?

This kind of use of the toes can give a question of denial. He can worry about it for a long time. As he screamed, he absently washed the clothes in the bucket. The more the water washes, the colder it is, and the heart becomes hotter.

The ink burned and couldn’t help but look up, looking out over the room, the window-shaped back-shaped old wooden window, revealing the golden candlelight, the candlelight swaying, one dark and one bright, even with the ink burning in the chest The young sprouts are also softly shuddered and shaken.

If Chu Xiaoning really likes him...

It was obvious that it was such a thick and thick emperor, but he only thought about this sentence halfway, and his face was red.

The ink burns a little hot and a bit thirsty.

It was a thirst that could not be hydrolyzed, and it was able to heal the heat that was hot, only the one in the house. Only the sweetness of that population can give him great comfort and a moment of peace. Only that person, the man he vowed to cherish, to guard, to respect.

When I think of "to be respectful," the blazing chest seems to have been splashed with a glass of water. In the past, he couldn't control himself. When he had a strong desire for Chu Ning, he would wake himself up and blame himself.

But it is different tonight.

The kit tonight, like the burning of his heart, added a piece of dry wood filled with pine oil, which fueled his ambition.

Be respectful.

He kept saying to himself, but the idea of a glass of water, the last thing that could be ruined, but at the moment, it was aggressively burned up, and the cold water poured into the steam was steamed in the blink of an eye.

So the ink burned and shocked to find that "to respect" this spell, for himself, finally completely and completely - failed.

In the house, Chu Xiaoning's last * was under the hood, and he wanted to wipe his finger, so he went to the bed and took the jellyfish handkerchief from the pile of debris.

He sighed and said that his own memory is really bad. Before washing clothes, he did not know to take out all the things inside, but let the ink burn the jokes, and he did not know him...

"Ok?"

I haven't finished it yet. Suddenly, under the cover of a pile of paper, I saw a thin red rope.

Chu night Ning’s heart groaned, reaching out and trying to take the red rope out to look at it, but the finger was in the air, but he did not dare to go forward, hesitated for a moment, he took his hand and explored the clothes to touch his heart closest to the heart. position.

Under the touch, it suddenly changed.

His acacia flower kit is really not on the body!

Chu Yuning’s face suddenly became extremely ugly, and he felt stiff for a long time. He remembered that the kite that the ghost master had received, he had been collecting in the shackles on weekdays, but Xue Zheng’s ceremonial robes were The pockets of the shirt were slightly tilted, and the kit was silky. He was afraid that he would get rid of it accidentally, so he put it in the bag of the coat.

Looking at the pile of debris, he is even more like a thunder.

Small things like candy are placed at the top. Below is the paper. Only the red line is hidden in the bottom. The people who hide it seem to be blushing, and they waved and said: I didn't see it, I didn't see anything."

"..."

After a long while, Chu night Ning took a breath, with a glimmer of hope, holding the red thread and pulling it out of the messy paper.

……really.

The red line of the kit has moved, and the way he is used to it is completely different.

Rao is calming again, the white cheeks are still rapidly rising red, and the roots of the ears are more red like bleeding. He opened the kit with the red thread tied, and the two black inks that had been entangled for many years, like the thoughts that have been entangled in his secret for many years, are so unobstructed and fall in the warm yellow candlelight. Refers to the soft room.

Ink burned his kite!

After reading it, there is no silver in this place, and the kit is buried in the bottom of the sundries!

This cognition made Chu Xinning's head bang, blood flow, and the heart could not be calm again. The whole face and the charcoal fire that burned red were hot.

What should I do?

Did you burn your own deep thoughts?

... is over.

If you know that you are affectionate to him, you will definitely scare him. The gentle and soft relationship between the two of them will fall apart. Panic, holding the kit in his hand, it was only a little calm for a long time.

He hopes that the ink will not know.

Gambling on his good reputation for years of ignorance, he hopes that nothing will be discovered in the ink-burning--saying that a long secret crush can be known to a loved one day, it is a good thing, a relief. But for Chu Xiaoning, this may not be the case.

He is already thirty-two years old and has long been used to being alone.

In the smoldering sorcerer's fascinating scent, the age of enthusiasm, Chu nightning is a person who came over, he did not think about more than 30 now, but also have the opportunity to accompany the love. The expression of the heart is undoubtedly the beginning of a relationship, but it does not end in failure, and return.

Chu Yuning re-collected the kit and walked back and forth in the room, eventually stopping in front of the bronze mirror.

He lifted his eyelids and glanced inside. The mirror had been useless for a long time, and a thick layer of gray was placed on the head, only to take a rough shadow. So he raised his hand and wiped the mirror, revealing a not perfect face in the dust.

There was a scratch on the bronze mirror, which was unbiased and fell right in the corner of his eye. Chu night Ning blinked and looked at himself.

"It's ugly."

He was very angry and frustrated at the people in the mirror.

"How can I... grow into this?"

He knows that the smoldering likes a gentle, beautiful, slender and beautiful young man.

And oneself, one did not.

Although he does not have wrinkles, but the heavyness of the years in a person can not be hidden, Chu night Ning Ben is a young man, and now there is no one-and-a-half-point heat, how can you talk to the young people about love, not to mention that person still Your own apprentice.

If you pass it out, don't say yourself, it is ink burning, it is the shackles of life and death, all faceless.

What's more, when I sleep for five years, Shi Ming's net out is more and more sturdy, and the wind is perfect. When I don't laugh, my eyes are filled with burning peaches, and then I look at the person in the mirror.

There is only a sigh of arrogance and arrogance in the eyebrows.

If you look at it, you will choose yourself.

Chu Xiaoning looked at the faint bronze mirror. He thought, if the time is reversed for ten years, let the ugly guy in the mirror love one person in his 20s, maybe he will still have a blood It’s okay to confess with rashness, even if it’s broken.

But he is now in his prime.

He is already in youth, leaving only wolverine, vigilant, mean, and a fierce face that a child will scare to cry.

The ink is burning and the wind is glory.

And he is just a ugly guy who is no longer young. He doesn't dare to ask anything, just want to hide.

He only wants to be safe and steady. He can't even think about it. He can allow him to wishful thinking and allow him to crush a person, allowing him to be justified in the name of the teacher and to be good to that person.

He felt enough.

Very satisfied.

At this moment, there was a "Oops" coming from behind, and Chu Ning did not look back. From the bronze mirror, he looked at the ink burning in the wooden barrel and entered the house.

None of them spoke, and the bronze mirror was still a little fuzzy. Chu nightning could only see a tall figure standing at the door, but couldn’t figure out what the figure was, and what kind of color wave was flowing in his eyes.

Even though he repeated himself a hundred times to calm down, Chu Xinning’s heartbeat did not come very quickly. He didn’t want the ink to burn out his own cockroaches, so he broke open the high horsetail and bite the hair between the lips and teeth, bowing his head. The trick is to reattach the hair in front of the mirror.

He feels that he is really smart, biting his hair band, there is no reason to say hello to the other party, then -

Suddenly a hand touched the back of his ear, Chu night Ning's body trembled, suppressed, but still unable to suppress, shivering slightly.

He didn't often have physical contact with people, and he was not used to it. Not to mention the people who met his earrings were still burned. The large palms and the delicate skin of the ears were only a moment, and the back was hemp. .

Chu night Ning still hangs his eyes, he suspects that he is looking up at this time, even if the light is dark, even if the bronze mirror is dim, people behind him can see his red abnormal face.

He only bit his hair band and tried to calm down and said, "Have you washed?"

"Ok."

The man's voice is low and dumb.

Chu Xiaoning felt that he was coming back, so close. The body has the coolness brought by the cold night, but it can't cover the male's flaming scent. This breath makes him dizzy, the thoughts are blurred and slow, and he can't turn.

The ink burned while he was holding the broken hair that slipped down next to him, and the words were still resting: "Master, I just..."

"..."

What is he going to say?

Chu nighting bites the hair band, squinting, and the heartbeat stalls.

It seems that the things to ask are too difficult to talk about, and the ink burned, and finally turned to the front: "Forget it, nothing. So late, still licking hair?"

Chu night Ning did not answer, only felt that the body behind him, the stickers are too close.

So hot.

"Is it going to go out?"

Chu night Ning said: "No, just go out and wash a bowl."

"I'll help you."

Chu night Ning said: "I have hands and feet."

The ink burned behind him and smiled. It seemed to be a sly smile without a word: "There are good hands and feet, but the master is also clumsy, afraid that it will be picked up."

Chu nightning: "..."

Seeing that he didn't talk, he thought he was not happy. He burned and smiled and said seriously: "The outside is cool, you remember to go out with a hot end."

Chu night Ning should have a voice, a bit like "Hmm", and a bit like "哼", the ambiguous nasal sound, but very good to listen, falling in the ear of the ink, reminding him that the buds in the chest are more and more claws . His throat was slightly twitching, his eyes were dark, and he fell on a pale neck from the edge of his clothes when he was bowed.

He felt more thirsty, swallowed subconsciously, but tried to put the sound as light as possible and didn't want to be heard by Chu.

The ink burned deep and took a deep breath, and said with a strong smile: "This mirror is a good paste."

"It’s too long."

"The teacher can't understand it, send it to me, I will comb your hair for you."

Chu nighting bites the snow-blue ribbon, but I haven’t had time to refuse it. The ink burns the hairband in my hand. In this case, I’m not good enough to bite again, I have to loose my mouth and burn. Helping himself to ponytail, while still pretending to be cold and screaming: "Would you like to tie it? It’s not good for me to come back."

"Master, you forgot? In Taohuayuan, I am worried about what I am giving you."

Chu night Ning was speechless, Xia Shi reversed his shameful past, he did not want to mention it again, he closed his eyes, frowned, and burned him by the ink.

It’s just that the palm of the burning ink always feels uncomfortable if it is not rubbed into his ear. The scalp is numb and the throat is slightly thirsty, so the brow is even tighter.

"How is it still not good?"

The ink burned and smiled lowly: "You, always, so urgent. Don't worry, it's fast."

His voice seemed to be closer than it was, and it was attached to the back of the ear, and the hand that was hanging in the sleeves was not tight.

I don't know if it is my own illusion. He always feels that the breath of the ink seems to be a bit heavy. The heavyness of the beast before he rushes to eat is so heavy that it gives him a stinging sensation. He even thinks that he will be behind him. There was a tiger and a wolf smothered, and he was kneeling in front of the bronze mirror, eager to bite his throat with hunger and thirst, sucking the blood in his blood vessels.

The perception of human beings is sometimes surprisingly accurate. It is only that Chu Xi Ning feels it, but because of inferiority, he can’t believe it.

Where is he clear, if he raises his head at this time, he will see the twins in the mirror, the burning and the darkness, the desire and the reason in which the confrontation, the fire and the splash, the smoke.

The ink burns the slippery silk hair band, and the clear self is in control of the body, and the nightly lingering is done in the right way, while the other half of the dark soul is all anxiously thinking -

What are you doing?

Hair band?

This hair band is clearly tied to the wrong place!

He felt that he should be ruthlessly squatting in front of the old and ruined dressing table, using his hair band to hold his eyes, the other hand around his front chin to hold his chin, eagerly kissing him, densely He pressed him on the ground to pick up the sweetness in his mouth and * his soft tongue. He clearly should violently grind the ear side of Chu Yuning, and the drop of fine hair behind the ear should be breathing heavily, sticking it to the ear of the night, and asking him if he lowered his voice.

"Chu Ningning, my good teacher. Why do you want to hide that kit?"

"Late...night Ning... Are you...like me?"

The heart he longed for was like to tear open, the blood was hot, the eyes were hot, red.

Chapter 176

Chu night Ning tied the horsetail, went to the outside to wash the dishes, three bowls, washed for a long time and did not see him into the house.

The ink burned on the bed, some of them were restless, and the fingers unconsciously rubbed the bed along the seams, and looked at the window from time to time.

How to do.

He is thinking.

How do you sleep this evening?

This is a seemingly simple problem that is really terrible.

The ink burned was not allowed to be late in the heart of Chu, and he was even more engaged in war, and desire and reason were in full swing.

At this time, the warm curtains picked up, Chu night Ning folder with the chill outside, holding the washed bowl back to the house. He glanced at the ink sitting on the edge of the bed, and the candle was burning. His eyes seemed to be subtle, but the next moment he fell, the ink burned again and he never had time to clear it. He had turned his back to himself and sat at the table. side.

"Master is still not sleeping?"

When the words are exported, they feel that they have lost their words. How to listen to it feels like a man who is thirsty and can no longer be thirsty. He is eager to invite his lover to go to bed.

Chu nightning did not look back, said faintly: "I still have something to do. You are sleepy and sleep first."

"I am not sleepy." Ink ignited, "What do teachers want to do? I will help you."

"You can't help, I want to do more condensed jellyfish flowers tonight." Chu said, as soon as he raised his hand, his fingertips swelled together, condensing a golden and tender sea otter, and placed it at the table.

This kind of sea otter is made up of Chu Lingning's spiritual power. It can contain short words for communication. This is his unique secret, and others can't follow suit.

But the ink burned a little puzzled. He came to the table, pulled out a chair and sat down. The strong arm rested on the back of the chair, and the chin rested on his arm.

"What does Master do to do this?"

"Take it for sale."

"Ok?"

Hearing the slightest surprise in the burning sound, Chu night Ning picked up his eyelids and gave him a faint look: "Our money is not enough to stay on Feihua Island for seven days. Is that Sun Sanniang not doing business? Then I also do it with her, conglomerate Haishu, unbeaten all the year round, golden light, you lick her gold and silver jewelry which is not shining, I think she just likes the sparkling thing. Well done, I will go to the street tomorrow, I see if she wants it."

The ink burned and couldn't help but smiled: "The teacher wants to... sell flowers?"

Chu’s face changed slightly. He didn’t want to put himself and the big girls who sold white orchids in the alley. It’s very hard to say: “The flowers made by the spells can’t be counted.”

"That tomorrow I will go shopping with you."

Chu night never snorted, bowed and quickly condensed four or five, and then muffled: "With you, as long as you are not too shameful."

"Where is it shameful?" The ink burned one of them, smelled it, the flowers were light, and there was no fragrance. Huaguang’s flowing appearance was very graceful and chic, and Jinguang reflected his handsome face and dark eyelashes. He smiled. "The Sun Sanniang is afraid to cry and ask the teacher to sell it to her. How much does the master plan to sell?"

"One hundred flowers can't spend too much spiritual power, sell three copper plates, how about?"

Ink burning: "....."

Chu night Ning looked at him again, slightly frowning, hesitating: "More?"

The ink sighed, didn't say much, didn't say less, only said: "Tomorrow's teacher will not ask for the price, I will sell it."

"Why? I made the flowers, I price myself."

"Three copper plates." The ink burned out three fingers in front of Chu Xiaoning and laughed and shook. "Master, you are the Beidou Xianzun, this is your night sea otter, the real world can not ask for anything, Do you sell three copper plates?"

"No one asked me if I want it. This thing is good-looking, it can be transmitted, and there is no other use. I think this price is almost the same."

The ink burned him with a smile: "That, you sell it to me, okay? I will give you money at this time."

Chu nightning stopped, a half-baked sea bream flower lost the support of the spiritual flow, and fell a golden flower petals, he actually really stretched out his palm, faintly said: "transaction."

"..."

The ink burned silently for a long while, to touch the money bag, it was only after thinking that the money left by himself and Chu Xinning had been squeezed out by the old man, and could not help but be slightly embarrassed.

Looking up, I saw that Chu night was like laughing and laughing at myself. I couldn’t help but feel embarrassed. "The teacher has long known that I have no money, and that..."

Chu Xiaoning felt that he was funny, and said: "You boast of Haikou, saying that you want to buy me."

"I……"

Half said and silently swallowed.

Because I suddenly felt that there was some ambiguity in the words of Chu.

Chu night Ning originally supposed to say "buy my flowers", but it was lazy, and the words didn't finish. It sounded like the man who burned the silver and bought the silver. The ink-burning heartbeat was a few quick shots.

He didn't go to the eyes of the late night, for fear that the other side would see some of his own big thoughts. But looking at his hand for a while, suddenly found that the night of Ning Fang was only washed outside the bowl for a long time, hard to wash the hot water into ice water, the tip of the finger is frozen red.

I didn't have time to think about it, almost inertia, and I held the five fingers on the table.

Chu night Ning was shocked. He was calming down, and he extended his hand to ask for money. The money didn’t come, but he suddenly fell into a warm and generous palm. The temperature of the palm was just warm, but he was like The iron was hot and slammed open.

"doing what?!"

"..."

Originally, there was no sorrowful thought in the ink burning. He really just wanted to warm the night of Chu, and felt distressed.

I can meet such a big reaction, but it is not expected, and I am still alive.

The two looked at each other under the dim candlelight, and suddenly they burst into tears and gave a loud noise, breaking the dead silence.

Chu Xiaoning knew that he was sensitive and over-the-top, and he became obsessed with it. He no longer snorted and licked his lips.

The ink burned his silent voice, and the young seedling in his heart grew stronger and stronger, trying to lick his thin body and scratching his chest.

"Master respect..."

Chu nightning: "..."

"Are you..." When he said half of it, he stopped. He didn't know what he was waiting for in front of him. He finally let him leap on the cliff. He didn't continue to talk.

But Rao did not ask him, and Chu Ning was still in a hard state: "No."

Ink burns: "What is not?"

"No matter what you say, the answer is no." Chu night Ning squinted, erected a sharp thorn, like a cat licking his mouth to defend the cat in his territory, not letting the living close, "hands open."

The ink burned the handle and took it on the back of the chair, which was very honest.

Chu nightning continued to condense the flowers, and the sea otter that had dropped a petal was completely condensed. He was somewhat angry, and the anger contained more trouble. After a while, the ink burned: "Master, actually I just, Just want to ask, are you cold, want to give you... warm hands."

"I am not cold."

The hand that deceived, only to touch, is clearly ice.

I think that the two of them are sitting in such a way, Chu nightning said: "If you have nothing to sleep, take you to sell flowers tomorrow."

"..."

In the past, he often said "take you to practice" "take you to meditate" and "take you to read books."

Take you to sell flowers...

The ink burned and tried to endure, but it was not too tolerant. The black eyes contained a smile, reflecting the people in the candlelight. The nasal voice was shallow, but it was not moving.

"Go to sleep."

The ink burned and looked at the bed.

He decided that he couldn’t sleep better than Chu.

Since you can't eat the bed or hit the floor, look at the meaning of Chu Yuning. If he sleeps in the position inside, obviously make a place for himself, then sleep in bed.

If Chu Xiaoning is lying in the middle of the center, then...hey, then he will be honest.

The ink burned like a bad idea, but his face was red: "I don't sleep first."

"What are you doing sitting?" Chu nightning frowned.

The ink burned and raised his hand, and the slender five fingers and one combination, actually volleyed with a spirit, and pulled out a red butterfly.

Chu nightning: "....."

"Selling money." The ink burned and laughed. The fingertips flicked, and the fiery red butterfly flew up. It fell to the pile of sea bream in the evening, and sneaked in. The pollination generally fanned the fluorescent winged butterfly wings. In and out of the flower, "I am more expensive, I am black, one gold."

Chu night Ning took advantage of the blind eyed butterfly to fly around, stopping on his jellyfish flower, holding the delicate powder core.

Chu's face is dark.

"Mini rain!!"

"……what happened?"

He is too angry to know what to say, what to say.

In the end, I was so depressed that I said nothing but hoarseness: "There are no more than three copper plates."

The ink burned and laughed.

After laughing for a while, he took out a flaming butterfly and handed it over. The butterfly gently fell on the jellyfish flower of Chu’s fingertips.

"I sell it to others is ten gold, I think this price is very suitable."

"Then you sell it to me!" Chu night Ning sighed with a sigh of relief, "I will sell it again, in short, it is not more expensive than my sea otter."

After thinking about it, I added another sentence: "But I don't have any money, I will return to the top of my life and give it to you."

The ink burned and laughed, and the third butterfly was pulled out. He sighed softly. The butterfly danced around the night, and the ink burned on his strong, wheat-colored arm. He said gently, "What are you talking about?"

"...Do you still want to say that you don't know what to do." Chu nightning raised his chin slightly, his eyebrows were still angry and damp, but his expression was very proud. He thought about it. If the ink burned, he would dare not say it, then You must take out the teacher's instrument and take care of this man who doesn't know how to be tall.

I don’t know that the man who is tall and thick is smiling more clearly. He has a deep vortex and a shallow nasal voice. He said, “No, I want to say...”

what you want to say?

The late night of the Chu Dynasty was awaiting a sigh of relief.

"You buy me." The man did not know whether it was intentional, or unintentionally, but also saved the word "Lingdie", so the words became so vague and embarrassing, he put his arm in his arms, and all stared at Chu Yuning seriously. Gentle smile, "I sell it to you, don't want money."

Nothing is expected to be such an answer.

Under the night of Chu, the face was red.

The night is already deep, and the nymphs and sea otters are full of houses, which have long been sold. But none of them got up and went to sleep.

I don’t have to say anything about the burning of the heart. He plans to watch Chu’s sleep method and see the machine. Although Chu Evening did not know his plans, he was not stupid. He had no idea in his heart and wanted to know what to do with the burning of the night.

He will sleep on the bed... or a bed?

Although this man made him feel more and more dangerous, if the ink burned really went to bed, he did not intend to drive him away.

He could even perceive the mysterious hope in his heart, hoping to see the ink burned up and sleepy, saying "sleepy" and then lying on the bed.

- Why is he still not sleeping! !

Chu nightning and ink burning, while holding flowers and butterflies, while thinking anxiously.

Go to sleep, you lie down on the bed first, I will...

"Master."

"Ok?"

"Are you tired? It's too late, do you have to rest first?"

"No, I am used to it."

Then another hour passed.

"Ink burning."

"Ok?"

"How are you still sitting?"

"I will condense some more butterflies. If the master is sleepy, go to sleep first, then I will wait."

Chu nightning tried to endure the desire to yawn and restrained the back molars, because he could not sleep for two consecutive nights, his eyes were red, and he still said: "I am not sleepy."

Ink burning: "..."

I don't know how long it took. The butterflies and sea otters in the house were piled up into the ocean. The gold and red were intertwined and smashed. The ink burned some groggy and looked up suddenly.

Chu night Ning is too tired, has fallen on the table and fell asleep.

His fingertips were still condensed with half of the unfinished jellyfish flowers. The petals trembled with the breath, and the ink burned away. The half of the residual flowers were taken off gently, resting on the table, and then he was picked up. ——

Chapter 177

Chu Xiaoning had not closed her eyes for two days, and she slept very hard. The action of ink burning was soft, so when he was lying in the warmth of his arms and was taken to bed, he was still not disturbed.

The smoldering put him in the middle of the bed, his hands on his neck, resting on the pillow, and then covering him with a quilt.

After doing all this, he did not leave, only obsessively staring at the face, from the dark eyebrows, one inch and one inch down, to the thin lips.

good looking.

His master, his lateness, how can it look so good.

It’s good to see death, so I can see that I’m so soft and my body is hard.

His scalp was slightly numb, and his temper was pulling his neck. He knew that it was wrong, but Chu’s face was close to his face, and his faint sea bream was like a lot of soft fingers. His cloaked seduce, seduce him naked, and went to the hotbed.

Perhaps it is because the blood flowing in the ink-burning blood vessels is like a river tide, or maybe the heart can't stop, but perhaps his eyes are too hot, and he wakes up the sleeping people.

In short, Chu night Ning opened his eyes and suddenly woke up.

"..."

For a time, no one made a sound, and the ink burned in the same place. Chu nightning turned from a faint moment to a horror, and a pair of phoenix eyes smashed, and it was hard to burn on the ink.

Chu night Ning suddenly warned: "What are you doing?"

The look of the handsome young and powerful man's face is difficult to teach people to see clearly. He slowly leaned down and bowed down, and he won't dare to move.

"you--"

The closer you are.

The heart beats.

"Hey."

The bed was soft, and the light around it was dark, and it fell into a more awkward atmosphere.

The ink burned down and tightened the bed, straightened up, sitting at the bedside.

He looked down at Chu Yuning lying in bed, his voice was low: "I saw the master sleep, I wanted to help you put the bed down, I didn't think, I still woke you up."

Chu nightning did not make a sound, leaning on the pillow, slightly over the head, looking at him.

The dark yellow crepe that had just been loosened from the head of the bed was swaying after the ink burned, and the candlelight outside became so blurry, like the condensation of water on the winter window. Too dark, the young man's handsome face can hardly be clear, only one eye in the night is burning and bright, like a broken star.

The ink burned suddenly called him: "Master."

"Ok?"

"There is something, I want to ask you."

"..."

Through the darkness, the courage of being an apprentice seems to be getting bigger.

Chu nightning is very tight inside, heart: Does he want to ask that kit?

He was not shocked on the surface, but the waves in his chest surged.

——Is it sleepy at this time, is it still too late?

Ink burning: "Where am I sleeping?"

Chu nightning: "....."

So busy and tangled for most of the night, this night, the ink burned or hit the floor shop -

"The bed is too small." He actually regretted it after he had just asked him, and his * body had just eaten the body of the marrow, but it is better not to fall asleep with Chu. He can’t know how terrible a man’s desire can be.

"I still sleep."

"...How many beds are there?"

"There is a bed."

"It won't be cold."

"No, I will lay more straw."

When the ink burned, he went outside to take the straw, took a bunch of it back, and laid it on the ground. Chu nightning was so tossed by him, and for the time being, he didn’t sleep. He leaned his head and leaned his head, squatting on the bed with one hand, silently humming the man, and giving himself a quick thunder. A single couch has been laid.

"..."

"Sleep, the teacher respects the dream."

The man lay down in his clothes and pulled himself on the quilt. A pair of dark eyes looked at the night of the bed gently and steadily.

Chu nightning: "Well."

瞧燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃燃楚楚楚

The room was immersed in silence, and there were two men and women who were worried about the things under the bed, looking at the brightly blooming Begonia flowers and butterflies in a long night.

"Master."

"What happened? You still can't sleep?"

"Sleep." The sound of the ink is very mild. In the night, it is especially soft. "Just suddenly want to tell you something."

Chu night Ning licked his lips, although there was no such thing as the first time when he guessed, the heartbeat was fierce, but he still couldn’t help but dry his throat.

"I want to say... the master sleeps, don't have to be so cautious, always sleep in a corner."

There was a smile in his voice, low, but very nice.

Chu nightning: "...I am used to it."

"why?"

“The room was always too messy. Before I fell over and fell, I was scratched by the sickle on the floor.”

The ink burned, and it didn't make a sound for a long time.

Chu nightning waited, no movement, he asked: "What happened?"

"No." The ink burned, but his voice seemed to be closer. Chu Yuning turned his head and crossed the curtain. Through the blurry and soft curtain, he saw that he had pulled the ground closer to himself by the fluorescence of the sea otter and the butterfly.

The ink burned down again and smiled and said: "When I am there, the Master does not have to worry, it will not be tied when it falls."

He paused and seemed to say casually: "I have it."

"..."

After a while, the man who heard the ink on the bed snorted softly and said: "The meat on your arm is so hard that you have to get it, not necessarily much better than a sickle."

The ink burned: "There is still harder, and the Master does not see it."

What he originally wanted to say was the chest muscles, but when the voice did not fall, he suddenly realized the thick smell in the sentence. I’m stunned and busy:

"That is not what i mean."

Chu Jingning originally listened to the first sentence and was very silent and embarrassed. When I heard the second sentence, the atmosphere between the two people was incurable and fell to the abyss.

Of course, he knows that there is a harder and hotter blade in the ink burning. It is more chilling than the son's knives that make mech, and I don’t say that I’ve seen the ghost’s comprehension. He is also wearing his own clothes. I have no intention of feeling it. It was a terrible enthusiasm that was trembling and numb.

Chu night Ning Jiao said: "Sleep."

"……Ok."

But how can I sleep?

The lava of love and love is smashing the two of them, licking the heat to the split chest. The room was too quiet, I could hear the weak breathing of the other side, and I could hear the movement of the toe and the reverse.

The ink-burning handle was placed behind the head, squinting, looking at the red-hot butterfly flying in the room. A nymph fell silently and stopped on the bed bill, and the curtain was a gentle red.

In such a quiet silence, the ink burned up and remembered one thing -

In Jin Chengchi, the person who rescued himself from the topping of Liu Mengyu faintly said a word in his ear.

At that moment, the knowledge was vague, and he was not sure whether the sentence was his own illusion. But now I want to come, but suddenly I feel that it may not be wrong.

Maybe it is true.

He heard Chu Xiaoning at that time and said: "I like you too."

The heartbeat of the ink burned faster and faster. In the past, some of the fine details that had not been noticed sprouted at this moment, turned out the fresh leaves, and then nourished by his wolf ambition, and grew into a prosperous tree.

He sizzled in his head, and his eyes were dizzy. The more he thought, the more he felt wrong...

"I like you too."

I like you too……

If this sentence was really wrong, if Chu had never said it, why did he not want to admit that the person who saved him was himself after Jin Chengchi’s dream?

Unless he has not heard it wrong!

Unless Chu Xiaoning really said it at the time -

The ink burned and slammed up, and it was so excited that it was hard to suppress himself. He said: "Master!"

"..."

Rao is the person in the curtain, there is no movement, and the ink burns or asks: "I am picking up something when I wash my clothes today, is..."

The curtain is very quiet inside.

"Do you know, what is it?" When the words came to his lips, suddenly he was in love. He was so stupid to ask Chu Yuning.

The other party has not promised for a long time.

The ink burned and hesitated, his eyes were moist and dark: "Master, are you still awake?"

"Have you heard me talking..."

On the bed where Luo Wei was lightly covered, there was no movement in the night, and it seemed that he was really asleep. The ink burned for a long time, not reconciled, and several times I reached out and tried to open the curtain, but it was frozen.

"Master."

He groaned and lay down again.

The sound is very light and somewhat soft.

"You reason about me."

Chu nightning certainly will not care about him.

His whole person is chaotic, and the clear-minded mind that has always made him proud has risen. He was lying on the bed, squinting at the dark creases, thinking slowly and stiffly: What do you want to do?

He thought a lot and made all kinds of incredible speculations. He didn't dare to guess the most obvious answer. He didn't dare to guess the ink and love him.

This is like a hungry person who has a fragrant and crispy patties. Because it is hard to come by, it is especially cherished, so the outer layer of the cake is lighted, but the last remaining meat stuff is half-day reluctant to go down. mouth.

Chu nightning listened to the gentleman who was outside the account, but with an anxious whisper.

Quietly pull the quilt up, cover the chin, nose and mouth, only revealing a pair of bright eyes.

Then he covered his eyes and the whole person hid inside the quilt.

He certainly heard it, but he didn't know what to answer -

The heart beats and the palms are sweaty.

He has a sense of embarrassment that has been forced to a dead end. He hates to sit up and scream and scream: "Yes, my mother is hiding the kit. I like you to be satisfied. Let's not sleep!"

He was awkward and embarrassed, and his heart itched badly.

"Master?"

"..."

"Is it really asleep..."

After a while, Chu nightning heard a sigh of softness.

He was quilted, in the darkness, he was mournful and heart-wrenching, nervous and sweet, five flavors, miso, bitter and sweet, he secretly persuaded himself to calm, but his cheeks were hot. I couldn't help but stole a quilt.

Chapter 178

Early the next morning, Chu night Ning got up with dark circles. He didn't sleep well at night, so the whole person looked extraordinarily gloomy. A face that was originally very cold was covered with thin ice, and there was no heat.

He pushed the door out and saw that the ink was washing clothes outside.

Why do you want to wash your clothes in the morning?

Didn't it be washed last night?

Seeing him coming out of the house, the smoldering seemed to be a bit embarrassing. On his cheek, he splashed the foam from the saponin. He turned his head and greeted him with a late night: "Master."

"Ok."

"Sun Sanniang was still trustworthy, and received the money. She sent the family who had eaten in the morning. I was on the small stone table in the yard, and the master would go eat it."

"how about you?"

"I have eaten it." The ink-burning arm was soaked in the waves of water, and the lines were strong and refreshing. "When the Master used it, we will sell butterflies and flowers together."

Sun Sanniang's food is very monotonous, but the amount is not small, there are actually three.

He sat in the small courtyard and slowly licked the noodles. The rising sun rose, and the sun shone through the vines that climbed on the vines above his head, cutting them into mottled lights on the table.

He looked back and looked at the high back of the ink, and the ambiguous enthusiasm of his heart surged.

He bit hard and bit a big hoe.

When the golden sea otters and the red nymphs appeared, they provoked an uproar in the unchanging, lazy market in Feihua Island. The fishermen on the island flocked to see, even if they didn’t plan to visit the market today. , have been attracted to -

"There is a flower!"

"What's strange about flowers, haven't you seen flowers?"

"Golden sea otter! Spiritually made! Open all year round! You can also voice!"

"Wow!! Where is it?"

So there is a wave of waves.

"There are butterflies!"

"There are some beautiful things about butterflies, and a lot of springs."

"Red! Spiritually made, you can drive the evil spirits! And especially good-looking, very obedient, not running, just flying around you!"

"Ah! Really? Where is it?"

There is another wave of Wuhuan.

Sun Sanniang was lying high in the middle of the house, and she got the news in her leisure time. She couldn’t help but go to the market with a few followers. Before I even walked to the door, I saw a crowd of gold and red brilliance in the distance. Some people were amazed.

Her heart was like an ant, and she turned away from the onlookers and walked over to see.

I only saw the two immortals who came yesterday, a smile, and there was a trick to attract the bees to attract business. The other face was expressionless, and his face stood in the cold under the tree, and he said nothing, silent.

"Selling butterflies, selling butterflies--" The handsome man turned back and smiled at another man with a meager face. "Master, why don't you drink?"

Drink?

Chu night Ning heart cold.

He didn't know how to write these two words. Is it necessary for him to be ashamed and screaming like the rough man of the ink rain, shouting in the eyes of the public: "sell flowers, sell sea bream flowers"?

Don't even think about it.

"How do you sell butterflies?" I feel that such a fairy must be very expensive, and everyone has been stunned for a long time. Finally, there is a bold daring to ask for price.

Ink burning: "Ten gold one."

Chu nightning coughed behind him.

Ink burning: "...three copper plates."

"So cheap?" The people around them were shocked. They all came forward to buy them. They burned a butterfly to the left and handed a flower to the right. They were busy, and they saw a ragged girl in the distance licking her fingers. I am eager to see the lively scene here.

The ink burned and laughed, and did not say much. He suddenly said that the five fingers were one and the other, and a very beautiful phoenix butterfly was condensed. When the light was blown, the butterfly was separated by the sea and floated to her side, falling on her hair. on.

The girl stunned, looked awkwardly, walked a few steps hesitantly, then stopped again and shook her head.

She has no money...

Not to mention three copper plates, none of them.

The ink burned her hand at her, and said "send you" with her mouth, then blinked, smiled and turned her head away, and continued to be busy.

Sun Sanniang watched the beautiful golden spirits that were bought, and the beautiful girl who wore the beauty of the sea was wearing the black hair between the black hairs. When she was full of hair, she was full of brilliance, and she could not tell the extravagance. She couldn't help it anymore.

"These butterflies and flowers, I have to."

The ink burned and raised his eyes, and the smile did not go out: "I would say who is so big, it turned out to be Sanniang."

"How many left? If you count, I will take it back to the house."

"This can't be done." The ink burned and laughed. "Everything has to come first and then come. Others come earlier than you. They haven't bought it yet. I can't give it to you first."

Sun Sanniang looked at the crowd of crowded villagers. When she was on the scene, she was anxious. She was afraid of selling out and said, "Then I will increase the price."

"I can't do the Lord." Mo-burn said, "I just help to get the job, the price, you have to ask my master."

Sun Sanniang went under the tree and found a face that was cold and prosperous.

"Xianjun, your flowers and butterflies are sold to me, we are all businessmen, and the price is good."

Chu night Ning cold mouth: "Ten gold one."

Next to the ink, I couldn't help but laugh out loud. I turned my head and turned to the black phoenix that was late in the night. It was a little soft and soft, and I couldn't help but scratch my head. The appearance is very beautiful.

Sun Sanniang was so rich that the money was not a small amount for her. Soon she directed the family to take those night sea otters and phoenix butterflies away.

Back to the house, she immediately combed a stilt with a stilt, and inserted more than 50 golden flowers on the top, let the butterflies dance around themselves, and the family glared at her, looking far away. It was like a burning candle, and it was funny, but it was a master of his own family. He had to squat and ribs were broken. He finally did not laugh.

Sun Sanniang didn't have fun for too long, and someone came to report it, saying that the two Xianjun sold something else in the market. She was shocked and screamed at the clouds of Huaguang, and was surrounded by mad bees and rushed to the market.

"Selling butterflies - selling butterflies -"

Sun Sanniang squeezed over and angered with a fork: "I wasn't all bought by me? How come?"

Burning eyes: "Newly done."

"Since I can do it new, why should I sell me ten gold?!"

The ink burned: "You think, you get up in the morning, go to a fried bun shop in front of a lot of people to buy raw fried food, others are waiting in line, you have to line up, the treasurer will tell you, you must eat first, but Is there anything wrong with paying you?"

Sun Sanniang said: "You, you profiteer, you..."

I was thinking about how to refute this person's nephew, and suddenly I saw the fairy who had been snoring next to him. Chu late Ning pointed to a flash of light, and actually condensed a pair of Begonia flowers.

Although Sun Sanniang was annoyed, he was also attracted to pay attention and asked: "What is this? How is it different from the previous one?"

"This kind of sea otter has a rejuvenation technique. It is placed on the bed before going to bed. It can be radiant the next day, and the effect is about fifteen days." Chu Xi Ning casually handed the flowers to the ink, the ink igniting "Go sell it, one hundred gold one."

"Slow," Sun Sanniang feared that these two people would have to say what the other team had to add money. Although they were very angry, they said, "Don't take it, this one I want. You can still Do you have a few? I have to!"

Chu nightning said: "The same spells don't want to be applied too many times, only three."

"Then three hundred gold, give it to you."

"Ink burns and collects money." Chu night Ning said, bowing down the other two, and handed it to Sun Sanniang, and then began to condense the fourth.

Sun Sanniang is not happy: "You are not saying that only three?"

"This is a wonderful sound." Chu night Ning faintly said, "With the body, can make the woman's voice become beautiful."

"..." Although Sun Sanniang is greedy for money, but she is more greedy, she is stunned by the dying prince of the dead and dying to sing a wonderful hazelnut flower, hating teeth, but can only say: " Good, I buy, I buy."

In the evening, I went back to close the door. The mentor and the teacher sat at the table and counted the money. I found that enough people to bring them to the table and eat them well until the fire on the other side was extinguished. Chu nightning pushed half of the silver to the ink. Half of the good, said: "When you leave, return the rest to Sun Sanniang."

Ink burns: "Why?"

“Feihua Island is far away from Linyi Road and has poor materials. It is extremely inconvenient to eat and wear. But is it strange to see the fishermen on the island, who can afford to have enough food and clothing?”

"... um," he said, and the ink burned and he thought it.

Chu night Ningdao: "I will know when I go to a little inquiries. When I cleaned up the stalls today, I went to the village head and asked him some things. In fact, this Sun Sanniang was originally a Linyi Confucianist because she was talented. Not high, Master did not manage her, and after five years of worshipping the teacher, it still only shows swordsmanship."

The ink burned a little surprised: "She is a Confucianist? Did the Master see it?"

"No." Chu said, "The village head said that when she was seventeen years old, she followed the monks of the Confucianism to come to Feihua Island to collect new disciples. Those famous monks took the road far away, and the island was full of mortals. It’s impossible to bully and rush to the Confucianism to ask for sin, so during that time, the islanders were guilty of blasphemy, eating white food, stealing money, and even..."

"even?"

"Even slutty boys and girls."

"..."

Chu night Ningdao: "Sun San Niang, but they argued with the brothers and sisters, she was frivolous, but her temper was fierce, offended the same door, and finally she was concealed. After being stabbed by one of her brothers, she was again Push down the sea cliff."

The ink burned and muttered: "Is this the case? No wonder before listening to the village chief to persuade her to say something, not a Confucianist, I did not expect... uh..."

"Well. Her life is big, and the sword is not stabbed. After she fell into the sea, she was caught by the fishermen who were fishing. The fisherman had two daughters on the knees, and they went early, and after saving her, they collected She is a righteous woman, teaches her to fish and hunt, teach her to do business. Later, when her father passed away, she took on her clothes and gradually became the largest household in this Feihua Island."

Chu night Ning paused and said.

"You also heard it. She said that this year's harvest on Feihua Island is not good. Every household is open for her business. Although Sun Sanniang's business is fine, she only strips money from the monks, never takes the islanders a little, even Will subsidize poverty."

The ink burned without sound, but I remembered the little girl who was eager to see the flowers in the market during the day.

Such a shabby dress, dirty look, at first glance is lost.

But it is not thin, the cheeks are bulging, and the eyes are clear. If no one is helping her, such a small child will take a fortune to eat for a living.

"Sun Sanniang went to the sea more than 20 times a year. Every time she went back and forth, she had to go seven or eight days. It was counted that she spent most of her life at sea. You see her house is luxurious and rich, so why is it half a hundred years old? Want to come and go in the wind and waves? Every year, I will work hard to take the things on the island to Linyi to sell the money, and then go to Linyi to bring the materials back to Feihua Island?" Chu Xi Ning Road, "She clearly has no money."

"...I know." After listening to the ink, I felt uncomfortable in my heart. I immediately got up and picked up the half of the money. Chu nightning called him.

"where to?"

"I am going to give her more money and return it to her."

"sit down."

Chu night Ning faint.

"How are you so stupid."

"Ok?"

"Look at Sun Sanniang, this person is very strong, and it is very strong. She hates the monk most... You said that you gave me money in the past, she will not chase you out of the house."

"..."

When I thought about it, I felt a little pain in my back and could not help but sigh and asked, "What should I do?"

"I told the village chief, before we left, give him all the money and let him find a chance to hand it over to Sun Sanniang." Chu said, "We were all gone, and the money will eventually be allowed." She will not want to do something better on Feihua Island."

The ink burned and thought for a moment, then nodded.

"The teacher said that he would do what he said."

Chu night sighed and said: "There are always many things in this world. You can't just make a decision on the surface. Sometimes, the layer below the surface is not necessarily the final truth. I always tell myself. You need to sink your heart, judge people or things, you need to be cautious, but sometimes you can't help it."

In his remarks, the ink that is said is not a taste.

Just look at the surface and make a decision. It is a matter of right and wrong. It is not the right thing that he once did to Chu Ningning.

Except for him, most people who travel between the red dust are extremely difficult to maintain a pair of clear eyes in front of fierce emotions, a calm heart, to think about it, to see the truth covered under the dust.

He was born in Chu, and Nangong was married to his mother. They were not blinded by emotions, blinded by appearance, and eventually cast a fault that could not be looked back.

Perhaps only Chu Zhongning, a person like this, seems to be indifferent and inhuman, but persistently leaves a place for everyone to change, trying not to do everything with the greatest maliciousness. Therefore, the more you learn about him, the more you will find that the Beidou Xianzun, who is more violent than anyone else, has a heart that has not been suffocated.

Under the arrogant face of this person, what is hidden is actually a soul of kindness and tolerance.

Because of this kind of soul, he became more and more pitiful, and he had a strong desire to protect. Perhaps it is because of the * blood from the corpse of the corpse, so he is more and more able to understand that there is nothing in this world that is more valuable than a heart of a child.

That is the flute in the smoke, the flowers in the trench.

Therefore, the emperor who once blamed the world, in front of such a soul, silently thinks -

If one day, the teacher needs it, then even if it is bruised and bruised, blood and tears will drain, even if there is no dead body, the smoke will disappear, even if you want to sacrifice your own head and the ruined soul.

He must protect this clean Beidou Xianzun.

"What are you thinking?"

"Oh, nothing." The ink burned. "It’s just thinking about something small."

"Little things?"

When the ink burned his lips and suddenly remembered going to the market in the morning, Chu Ningning said to himself that he wanted to learn the skills of Yu Jian, and he said: "Master, you come with me."

Chapter 179

The two came to a sea cliff on Feihua Island, where the rocks were smashing, and the bottom was the rough sea. The waves crashed into the rocks and they were shattered into tens of thousands of snow. There was nothing around them, only the rest of the sea, a new round. month.

The ink burned the sword that was bound to him, and then turned to ask Chu Yuning: "Why doesn't the Master respect the sword?"

"Not not." Chu Yuning said, "I am not good at it."

“How is it not good at law?”

Chu Xiuning waved his sleeves and looked a little more proud, but his ears were red: "I can only fly not far from the ground."

There is some surprise in the ink burning. The sword is one inch away from the ground and one hundred meters away from the ground. The spiritual power consumed is the same. Since Chu nightning can fly not far from the ground, it is unreasonable not to rise to the sky. Go, then say: "Master, you give it a try, I will see."

"..." Chu nightning did not call the sword, but the face was ignorant. "I don't want to be a sword on weekdays. I feel that the weapon needs to be respected after all, and it is not appropriate to step on it."

"?"

I don't know why he suddenly explained it, but the ink burned and nodded.

"The teacher said it was good....but...we can't lie on the sword, or hang on the sword and fly."

Chu nightning was a slogan, but when he looked up, he saw the man in the moonlight. The man smiled and glared at himself. He couldn’t help but hate and said: "On weekdays, if there is an urgent matter, I will fly with the ascension of the Dragon."

The ink burned slightly: "That little dragon?"

"It can get bigger." Chu night Ning Road, seems to have recovered a little face, but soon a little embarrassed, "But when the Confucian door changed the fire, it was completely useless. It was afraid of fire. ”

The smoldering stunned: "So the master must learn the sword, think -"

"in case for need."

The ink burned and snorted, and there was a thick smoke in the air, and the fire was raging, killing a lot of life. At that time, Chu night was standing on his own sword, watching the mortals below being swallowed by the fire, and the clusters were burned to ash, and even the broken bones would not be left, but the sacred fairy could not do anything. I can't use the sword to carry any one person. What kind of mood would it be when I was late at night?

It is no wonder that this person who prefers to take a horse-drawn carriage and is too lazy to be a sword will suddenly make such a request with his apprentice.

"I know, Master does not have to worry, I must teach you well."

Listening to him, Chu Ning did not say anything, but he didn’t know what he was thinking, but he finally sighed and said: "Waisha, call."

A golden light suddenly condensed, and the ink burned in this quiet and serene sea and moonlight, once again saw the martial arts that appeared in the past life and his life and death confrontation.

Chu nightning's blade of killing -

Huaisha.

It is a long sword that looks very late at night. I am afraid that there is no second person in this world. It is better suited to be the master of the sword than the late night. It is faintly decorated, and it is full of gold, because the golden light is too glaring, even pale. The light is constantly flowing, and it flows calmly from the sword, falling in the night, like a burning fireworks line, like a white sand falling down.

"This is Huaisha." Chu night Ning looked at it and said, "You haven't seen it, it's too heavy, I don't use it."

The ink burned in a complicated mood, and nodded a little, and said: "It is a good sword."

At night, the ink burned on the blade of his own sword, and the toes were slightly moved. The sword was slowly and steadily lifted up, several inches from the ground.

The ink burned back and said to Chu Yuening: "The teacher also tries."

Chu Evening also stood on Huaisha, and Huaisha also rose a few inches in a steady manner, carrying a circle around the night.

"Isn't this very good?" Mohburn said, "Try some more." He said, the sword had flew to a position of about five feet, and he bowed his head and smiled at Chu, "Come here."

"..."

Chu night Ning licked his lips and raised Huaisha to the position where he was flush with him.

Ink burning: "No problem, Master, are you not? We are again-"

He slammed his mouth, because he suddenly noticed that Chu Ningning was pale, the lines of the whole face were very tight, and a pair of falling eyelashes and trembling in the wind seemed to be trying to bear something.

The ink burned down and looked at it five feet away from the ground.

Looking up again, I was incredulously stunned by Chu.

There was a very ridiculous thought in his heart.

Master will not be a sword, it will not be because... afraid of high? ?

Ink burning: "..."

This is very embarrassing, and he also feels incredible. This is a very good person in the late Qing Dynasty. When the building is said to be on the top, it will be down, and the toes will be a little more than a few feet. How can such a person be afraid of heights? However, observing this person standing on the sword is indeed ugly, his eyes are free, even if he tries to press it, the eyebrows still reveal some thin and bleak.

Ink test: "Master?"

Chu Xiaoning’s reaction was a bit fierce. He suddenly looked up and the night wind smashed his broken hair, but he did not raise his hand to plunder, and a pair of hanging feathers flashed annoyed, screaming after the chaotic hair. Vigilant fireworks: "Well?"

"Cough... oh."

"Why are you laughing!!!"

"I am a scorpion, coughing."

The ink burned hard and laughed. He thought, didn't run. It turned out to be really high. It's no wonder that I just explained so much, I just want to leave some face for myself.

Since the masters have to keep their faces, the apprentices must of course be accompanied by the masters.

Ink burning: "The sword is indeed the harder it is going to go higher. I started from the beginning, but I can't go up to five feet. I have to practice more."

"You haven't been able to go before?"

"Ok."

For the first time, Yu Jian took off the drizzle of the air and gently nodded.

"There is no five feet, I don't dare to go to the ground, so probably... three feet? In short, Xue Meng can easily kick me down."

Chu Xinning’s heart was slightly fixed.

Yu Jian is afraid of this kind of thing, he has not been very embarrassed to say to anyone, but now it seems that there is nothing to be shameful.

"Master, you should try not to look down."

"Ok?"

"You look at me." The ink hangs over it, thinks about it, and drops it down again. "Don't worry about how much it has risen, just think about flying to the position that is flush with me."

Chu Xiaoning bit his teeth and rose a little. The narrow and smooth blade was stepping on the foot. The original and sturdy night wind at this time was also as cold as a snake. He broke into his clothes and screamed.

"Don't look down, don't look down." The ink couldn't stop and patiently repeated, and he reached over to him. "Come here, grab my hand."

Chu Xiaoning learned to concentrate seriously and said: "No, I can."

There is no more reluctance to burn him, and Chu’s temper is clear. When this person wants to come by himself, if it is not a big event, it is best to be by him.

A person who is used to the towering giant wood is not used to relying on people.

Stay with him and compare with him to make him comfortable and comfortable.

Although he really wants to turn Chu Ningning into a soft vine, he plunges into his rough torso and breaks him into his own blood. Like most men in the world, he always has some unrealistic and terrible possessiveness for those he loves.

This is nature and instinct.

The aggressiveness of the male instinct made him eager to lock up the late night, and endlessly lingering with himself and swallowing all his enthusiasm.

Desire that he is lying high on the hotbed all the time, Ruiniujin beast, fragrant and fragrant, will not be seen by his second person.

Longing for him to be his own body for a lifetime, the warm body will always wrap him.

He is eager for his bruises and kisses, and he will grow up into a beastly desire. He will use his most passionate and passionate love every night to fill his mouth and feed him.

However, love makes the ink burnt in the heart.

Love makes him want to respect Chu Xi Ning, want to watch him arrogant, light hoof fast horse, want to see him smashing the sword out of the red dust, shaking his sleeves and falling snow.

I want to condone him to grow arrogantly in the jungle, to be merciful to cast a shadow, to indulge his leafy, and to allow him to be wounded in the wind and rain.

Therefore, love instinctively puts a shackle on his instinct, puts a * on his beast/destination, and lets him drop his eyes and press the burning breath to become a regular one.

Let him live in this life, he would rather lock his nature and pull out his teeth.

He was possessed by love and became selfish, and now he is forgiving because of love and becomes selfless.

So he will not be like the last life, trying to ban Chu Xi Ning, trying to change the Chu nightning.

This lateness is pure love, so that the former emperor is willing to surrender, willing to use his life, only to accompany the people who are late.

The sword climbed up a little bit. After reaching a certain height, even if the night would rather not look at the ground, the tip of the finger could not help but tremble slightly under the wide sleeve.

His scalp is numb.

The ink burned out his nervousness and said: "Don't be afraid, this is the same as light work."

"Not the same." Chu Xi Ning said, "Light work is by yourself, Yu Jian is..."

"The sword is also on its own."

"The sword is a sword!"

Ink burning: "..."

He has some understanding of why his teacher is first-class, but he is afraid of the sword. Chu nightning is never used to relying on anything. He always relies on himself, so he only depends on himself. He will feel the most peace of mind.

This perception makes the ink burning heart sour, I feel very distressed.

He said: "It doesn't matter, Master, you have to believe in Huaisha."

However, the night of Ning’s appearance is calm, but the anxiety and fluster in his eyes are hidden. The ink burns and sees his forehead oozing out sweat, and his feet are beginning to be unstable. His heart is not good, and he can’t go on like this. If Chu Xiaoning fell from the sword at this time, I am afraid that the shadow will be deeper.

Immediately said: "Let's go first."

Chu Yuening could not ask for it. The two fell to the ground. He slowed for a while and asked, "How high is it?"

When the ink burned more and reported more, he said, "Fifty feet."

Chu night Ning was really surprised, and widened his eyes: "So much?"

"Yeah." The ink burned. "The Master is so powerful. If you fly next time, five hundred feet will not be a problem."

"..."

When I heard five hundred feet, Chu nightning had some whitish faces that became more and more ugly. He waved his hand and did not scream, staring at the sofa.

Ink burned and thought, saying: "This way, Master, I will take you to fly a circle, then adapt to adapt."

"You don't have to take me, you haven't taken it."

"But before, Master did not look at the ground on the way to Yu Jian."

This made him say it. Every time he took someone else's sword, he always tried to look at the person's back, or some other point, trying to think that he was still on the ground.

The smoldering once again called his sabre, and made it a little wider. He stepped on it first, then turned his head and said to him, "Come, come up."

Chu nightning secretly bite his teeth, still plunging, and fluttering on the hilt.

Ink ignited: "Standing steady." A little bit of tiptoe, the sword got the order, and suddenly swung up and went straight into the sky. When Chu was late, he closed his eyes habitually, but when he heard the laughter burning in his ear, he suddenly woke up and began to look down.

This does not look okay. At first glance, the cold hairs of Chu’s body are all erected.

The ink burned this grandson and took him to the depths of the sky at a very fast speed. Feihua Island was left behind and became more and more distant. The ear was the whistling sound of the wind, the robes. They were all chilled by the cold at night, and there was no dependence on the sword in the foot. They flew over the sea. The blue and black water at night was like a giant beak that opened the black hole and swallowed the soul.

The cold eyelashes trembled in a finely smashed manner. Chu nightning had to close his eyes subconsciously, but he heard the ink burned behind him and said, "Don’t be afraid, there will be nothing."

"I... no fear." Chu nightning face white as paper.

The ink burned: "Well, don't be afraid if you are not afraid. If you feel cold or boring, you will tell me, I will take you back to the island."

Chu night Ning did not say anything, he knew that the ink was to leave a face for himself.

After all, a fairy who shivered on the sword was more powerful than a fairy who shivered on the sword.

When I saw that he couldn’t stand it, he refused to speak and died. He said: "I will make the sword bigger."

He raised his hand and extended the sword to five or six laps, enough for him to stand side by side with Chu.

"Master, in a few days, Linyi's robbery will also go out, we will go back to life, but those who bring it, what should I do?" He spoke, trying to relax Chu Lingning this tension Bowstring.

Chu night Ning is also really powerful, actually can still think, he said: "Bring to the middle."

"Ok?"

"First take it to the middle of the shackles. After the looting of the fire, it is a scorched earth, can not live."

Ink burning: "Good."

He looked at the pale face of Chu, and after a while, he really felt distressed and asked: "Will you go back?"

"hold on."

The ink burned and the sword was expanded a few more times. He let Chu Xiaoning sit down and sit and watch it better than standing. He opened the enchantment, and Chu Ning turned to ask him: "What are you doing?"

"It's just a colder enchantment." The burning eyes are very mild. "It's too high, it will be cold."

Chu Yuning also went by him.

The enchantment and its own line are very similar, even the brilliance between the film is also the jellyfish flower, but it is gold, ink is red.

With this layer of translucent enchantment, although I know that there is no effect except for the cold, I suddenly feel that there is more protection around, or perhaps the ocean that is seen through this enchantment is no longer black. In short, the body of Chu’s stretched body gradually relaxed, and the breathing gradually stopped.

The ink burned sitting beside him and smiled: "Master, you look over there."

"what?"

"Have you seen it?"

"..." Chu Yuning looked at him in the direction he pointed for for a long time, and said, "Nothing but the moon."

"It's the moon."

Chu night Ning gave a slight glimpse and said: "What is good to see? The same is true of the earth."

The ink burned: "This is the first time I sat down with the Master to enjoy the moon."

Chu nightning did not respond. After a while, when the ink burned that he would not say anything, he suddenly whispered: "I have not seen it together."

"……what?"

The ink burned some accidents and turned to look at him.

Yuehuadu is on the face of Ning Qingjun in the late Qing Dynasty. His skin is like the white petals in the cold night. The two eyelashes with deep shadows are under the eyes, and there seems to be more deep memories than the sea.

"It’s been too long, you should have forgotten it." Chu said, "Nothing."

I don’t know what to say when I’m burning. The years he lived are longer than the nights in front of him. Many of the past events are no longer so angular, so that the past is not always hidden in the past. In my heart.

He looked at the side of the night, and felt embarrassed, but he couldn't help but breed a sweet glimpse of it. He couldn't help but think of the kit and remembered what he was going to ask yesterday. Chu nightning kept their hair, and kept a lot of memories, why...

Choi Butterfly Town, Jin Chengchi...

When the sky cracked, it saved a life to save yourself.

why.

He didn't dare to speculate before, and felt that he was brave and brazen.

But these two days, the discovery of that inch is igniting the ambition of his wolf.

--why.

"Master."

"Ok?"

The blood in the chest is surging and it is very hot. He was very thirsty in his throat, and his eyes were very bright when he stared at Chu. He suddenly wanted to go over and kiss his face. He was very courageous to ask him if you were... I liked me.

Above the sword, between the heavens and the earth, gave the ink a vague illusion.

It seems that the two of them have nothing left in this world, and the past love, hate, and hatred have not happened. Everything is as quiet as the moonlight through the clouds.

He felt that the tender seedlings in the chest had finally become a big tree, and the rough ribs opened up the dead soil, turning out the deep suffocation in the depths of the earth.

When Chu, he saw that he had not made a sound for a long time, he turned back and asked him: "What happened?"

The ink burned without answering, he was dizzy, he was eager to possess him, hug him, kiss him.

He involuntarily leaned on the past.

Then, he suddenly realized that after the enchantment was opened, Chu Xiaoning was slightly slower, but he still had his white lips and his face was very poor. He held his arms in his arms, and his slender fingers shook his arms subconsciously, clutching the cold cloth.

When Chu Evening was afraid, he was not arresting others, but himself.

The ink burned a bit.

Then, the aggressive light of the fundus was extinguished, and it turned into a small piece of light, like a fishing fire.

very gentle.

Originally wanted to rashly kiss his lips, slightly picked up, with a soft and bitter smile.

Originally, I wanted to go to the Tang Dynasty to hug his hand and stop. After a while, I touched his cold hand.

"You..." Chu was rather surprised. The pale face was filled with a tinge of color, but he was low and dumb and alert. "What are you doing?"

He wanted to take his hand away, but the ink burned and he was not willing to let go. Chu Xiaoning only felt that his five fingers frozen into ice fell into a very warm big hand, from the palm to the fingertips, were wrapped tightly and fit together.

"Don't always rely on yourself." Ink said, "I am here, you can rely on me."

If you say that you can still be calm and calm, then after hearing this sentence, even if he is slow and hesitant, he will not be able to feel the affection.

Moreover, there is such a pair of dark eyes that have taken human life, solemn and solemn, gentle and gazing at him. Chu Xinning’s heartbeat was in a hurry and the torrential rain was lingering, and it was tapped between his souls.

He didn't dare to look at the burning eyes again, violently turned his face and lowered his head.

too hot.

How can it heat up like this?

He has always been proud and calm, but at this moment it seems to suddenly step into a territory that he does not know, the armor of his body has been stripped, and the sharp fingers have been cut. In the face of the sudden blitz of ink burning, Chu’s usual use of the demolition seems to be invalid.

The man opened his clam shell hotly, looking straight into the shivering flesh in the eyes. The pearls that contain light, and the sweet flesh, are all naked/naked in the eyes of men.

This arrogant and calm person, he lost his helmet and abandoned his armor, and suddenly felt anxious and helpless.

How to do……

What should he say?

he……

He realized that his hand was still held by the ink, and it fit tightly.

He didn't know what to do, he was anxious and nervous, his eyes were a little red, and he was trying to take his fingertips away.

But just moved a bit, it was caught by the ink.

The man's palm is sweating and moist.

"Don't take it."

"..."

His strength is so big, stubborn and stubborn, I don't know why, Chu night Ning suddenly felt that his words seemed to be sad.

Ink burned his eyes and stared at him for a long time, low and hoarse: "Chu night Ning..."

"...What do you call me?"

"...I am wrong."

Chu nightning's body is now stretched tighter than before. The heartbeat is faster than the early Yushi. He is not used to it, too unaccustomed.

He tried to pick up his own position and then broke into the abyss before making the last dying struggle.

He lowered his eyes and said, "Well, knowing that you are wrong, it is not without medicine..."

The ink burned very hot, and finally he did not think about it and blurted out: "Late."

save.

The last word, Chu Xiaoning has not had time to talk about it.

When I heard this soft voice with a sigh, the squeaking sound in his mind was blank.

This last word can no longer be said.

No medicine is saved.

No medicine is saved -

They hesitated for a long time outside the quagmire of eroticism, and finally couldn’t help but step into it and fall into it. From then on, they would enter the bones.

The smoldering voice was low and dumb, and he stared at him: "Late, in fact, these days, I have a word, I always want to ask you."

"..."

The heart was very hot, and the ink burned tightly against the hand of Chu Yuning. The fingers were shaking: "No, I won't ask you."

Chu night Ning was just a sigh of relief, but he heard the next sentence.

"I don't ask you anything, I just want to tell you."

The ink burns and cuts the iron, never looking back.

In one breath, I have exhausted all my courage.

"I like you."

The heart is shaking violently.

"I like you, not the apprentice's like to the teacher, is... I am daring, I... I like you."

Chu nightning closed his eyes, fingertips in the hot and humid warmth of the man, by the trembling, gradually, gradually return to stop.

how come.

how come……

He must have misunderstood, he is so ugly, so fierce, then he can't talk, then there is no fun, he is a fool at all. Who would like him?

"I like you."

After he had been stunned for a long time, he really didn't know what to say. He was awkward and had no rules. He felt bitter and fearful. He was almost blank in his mind. He wanted to be like before. The shackles of the shackles are "noisy" and want to say "ridiculous". They think a lot, but they are all in the throat and can't speak.

After a long period of stiffness, Chu was rather hoarse, and said nothing: "...I have a bad temper."

"you treat me well."

"I, I am getting older."

"You look smaller than me."

Chu nightning is almost anxious, he is helpless and helpless: "I am so ugly..."

This time it was the ink that burned. He widened his eyes and stared at the handsome man in front of him. He didn’t understand why such a good-looking person would be self-defeating.

Chu night, seeing him not snoring, his heart is even more confusing, bowed: "I don't look good."

"..."

"No, you look good."

This silently recited, suddenly the cheek was touched by a warm hand, he heard the sigh of burning, more gentle than the moonlight tonight: "Would you like to look at my eyes?"

Chu nightning: "Your eyes...?"

The smoldering eyes were warm and reflected, reflecting the figure of a white man. He said, "Is it? It is the best person in the world."

Chu night Ning glared at him, although the heart is already turbulent, but the face of the frozen three feet is not too much expression on the face.

The ink burned his palms and sweated.

He whispered again: "I like you."

Chu nightning seems to be stabbed a bit, his fingers tremble, after a moment, he bowed his head slyly, "I like you" like a sharp knife, plunged into his heart, so bloody, uncontrollable. Chu nightning's eyes are red, probably waiting for too long, he did not know that he heard this sentence, it would be such a reaction. He was very anxious and almost cried. He said, "I am not good. I have not... I have not been liked."

I have not been liked.

No one has ever been happy, proud, and precious because he has me.

Thirty-two years.

No one likes it.

When I heard this sentence, I looked at the man with his head down and his face that he was not willing to lift. He suddenly felt so painful and sore, his heart was chapped and his muscles were broken.

That is his treasure, but it has been dusted for nearly half a lifetime.

He didn't know what to say, but he didn't know what to say.

In the end, he was just clumsy, holding the hand of Chu Xiaoning tightly. He could not help but say: "Yes, some."

someone likes you. I like you.

You are someone who wants, you have something to ask, don't be so inferior, don't be so stupid, and say that the best and the best you are worthless. fool.

Fool Chu night Ning.

I like you.

After a long time, the ink burned him: "What about you?"

"……what?"

The ink squinted, the eyelashes said: "I... I am so stupid, so ignorant, so unreliable, I... I have done a lot of unforgivable mistakes."

He paused and whispered: "Do you like me?"

Chu night Ning had already lifted his face. When he heard him say this, he was flustered and sullen, and he did not know where the strength came. He violently pulled his hand out and did not look away. .

He did not nod and did not shake his head.

No sure, no denial.

However, the ink burned clearly and clearly saw that the ear of the late night was red, and the red was the neck of the flowery branch.

"That kit..."

"Don't say." Chu night Ning suddenly sullen, this is the whole face is red, "Do not say."

The ink burned and looked at the night of Chu, rather than being ashamed and ashamed, angry and stunned, the light and shadow in the water flowing, the moonlight lingering.

He sat down and re-stretched his hand and caught Chu’s fingertips.

Chu night Ning is shaking, the fingers burning in the ink are also trembled, he is covered with Chu Xiening's fine fingers, and then stacked one by one in an unprecedented way -

Ten fingers clasped, palm fit.

Chu night Ning blushes and opens his face.

This time, he did not earn him any more.

So the ink burned the hand of Chu Yuning, and finally realized it later, and he was uneasy to confirm.

Chu nightning ... also like him.

He finally knows.

Chapter 180

For Chu Yuning, this is the first time to stick to the palm of the hand, the ten fingers interlock.

He felt that it was enough, too much. Fortunately, there was no more move in the ink, otherwise he probably could jump from a hundred feet and escape.

Fortunately.

As for the ink burning, this is the first time he did not know the second time with the Chu nightning palm, the ten fingers.

He didn't think it was enough, too little, but fortunately he didn't have more moves, or he would like to kiss if he took the hand and then wanted to ask for more.

It's really bad.

But even then, the ink burned still can be perceived, Chu nightning seems to be at large.

On the same day, they landed on the sword. Chu night Ning did not say that he turned and ran, and ran two steps. He felt that the pace was rushing and he slowly slowed down.

After slowing down, there were no two steps. I heard the ink burning behind him, and when I was in a hurry, I began to sneak again.

"..."

The ink burned as he strode over the meteor, and his heart was itchy and painful, hot and soft.

Seeing that Chu Ning was burying his head toward a big tree, the ink burned immediately: "Be careful -!"

"boom!"

Still hit it.

He was busy and asked: "Are you hurting? Let me see."

Chu night Ning snorted his forehead without snoring, after a while, went forward.

I want to follow the ink, and he listened to him and said, "Don't follow me."

"I... I have to go back to rest."

"You stand and blow for a while, blow it cold and come in again."

Blowing cold?

Ink burned, how to blow cold?

Holding your hand, this night, the heart is hot.

But he was still obedient and did not continue to follow. He stood under the cold moonlight and watched the night of the night, until he disappeared behind the wall, and then walked to the tree where the late night was accidentally hit, quietly for a moment, sticking his forehead to the trunk. on.

The tree is rough and he closes his eyes.

Chu nightning...

like him.

Flying flowers, the island is like spring.

When the moon is empty, the clouds are covered.

The tides are dark and the water is full of color.

No matter how good the world is, it’s better than nothing. Chu nighting likes him.

Rao is that he is lack of words, and his qualifications are stupid. This moment is also a heart-warming, Wensiquan. Love can make the simple and straight wood of the ink rain become a poet, Chu night Ning likes him, Chu night Ning... Chu night Ning likes him!

He grinds the bark with his forehead, wants to calm down, wants to be forbearing, wants to "cool down", wants...

No, I can't do it.

He couldn't stand anymore, couldn't help it, couldn't help it, and he couldn't cool down. His closed eyes were shaking slightly, and the gap between the eyelashes was soaked with tenderness and ecstasy. His mouth curled up and the dimples on his cheeks grew deeper and deeper. The honey is more and more overflowing.

Chu nightning likes him.

like him.

Yes...the one who is in love with him, the best person in the world, the one who wants to linger in his arms for the rest of his life, is the late night of Chu...

In front of the Tang Emperor, the Emperor of the Emperor, the master of the real world, is actually in this wild and uninhabited white sand, against a tree with a stalk of leaves, with his eyes closed, his shoulders tremble, and laughter .

Because Chu Xiaoning likes him, the wind he smells is sweet, and the sound of the waves is sweet.

Chu night, like him.

He smiled low, but smiled and cried.

He licked his mouth like a madman, shed tears, sweet, but his heart hurts.

Chu nightning...

like him.

From the town of Choi Butterfly, they secretly licked their hairpins.

like him……

He suddenly wondered when it was from the time that Chu Yuening had been standing behind him, silently waiting, waiting silently, waiting for him to turn back, waiting for him to reach out and wait for him to turn around and see.

How long has it been waiting for Chu?

In this life, last life.

Stacked together, twenty years?

More than twenty years.

He is a drizzle of light and rain, knowing that the most priceless thing in the world is the years.

Under the power, turning over the clouds for the rain, any treasures of treasure, beautiful honey, will continue to come, only the years, the dead like Sichuan, can not be chased.

One person, willing to exchange you for two thousand gold, that is desire.

A person, willing to change you with a bright future, that is love.

And a person, willing to use twenty years of years, the best years to change you, to wait for you.

And don't say anything, don't ask for a return, and don't ask for results.

That is stupid.

Really, it’s really stupid.

The ink burns the throat and condenses, and the bitterness spreads over the tongue, and it surges into a tide. He thinks -

Chu nightning, you really... too stupid.

how so? How can this be?

I can't help you with the slightest rain.

You are the best person in the world, and me?

Full of blood, death is not enough, people are reviled, never super-born.

I bully you, hate you, disappoint you, I killed you.

You don't even know what I have done...

You don't even know! !

The ink burned the tree, and the choked cry fell into the roaring sea breeze. What did he do...

In the eyes of Chu Xiaoning, go chasing the back of another person.

In the eyes of Chu Xiaoning, I was waiting for another person to look back.

In the illusion of Jin Chengchi, he personally said to Chu Yuning, Shi Yan, I like you.

He took a knife and cut the heart of Chu Ning!

But what about Chu Ning?

Silence is like a meteorite, the river does not turn, the knife is in his heart, and he is as good as nothing, taking care of him, tolerating him and accompanying him.

Until the death.

... until death.

He laughed, he cried, and he was alone in the moonlight. No one could see it. He was crazy.

Chu Yuning, two generations, two generations of life did not let the ink burn know his own mind, this proud person has done the most humble thing in his life, that is, like a person.

For that person, he did everything he could, but he was already waiting for a long time, knowing that the other side would never have his own position. He knew that the other party would not like himself. Do not disturb, choose not to be alarmed, do not give others a little bit of trouble.

Choose, leaving the last dignity.

In the last life, when he died, he only said one thing. It’s me who is thin, and I don’t complain.

In this life, he confessed to him, Chu is so good, so proud, but said: "I am not good. I have never liked anyone."

Stepping on the fairy... Ink rain... All... What did you do...

What have you done! ! !

Is it eye-catching, or is it faint?

Why can't you see why?

Chu Xiaoning was lying on the bed, the curtain had been laid down, and he was smashing through the smoldering shadows of the smoke, watching the lights outside the account.

His face is very hot, his heart beats quickly, his thoughts are condensed, and his flow is very slow.

Compared with the outside, because of the evil spirits of the soul, and unable to appreciate the pure sweetness, Chu nightning seems so simple and clean.

He stretched his fingers and showed them in front of his eyes. When he returned to God, he found that he had covered the back of the other hand with one hand, and the palms overlapped with the back of the hand, just like the one who was holding him.

"..."

Responding to what he was doing, Chu night Ning stunned, and then became angry and angry, hating himself would be so heart-wrenching, actually obsessed with the power of the talented person and could not take off.

No interest!

He loosened his hands in disgust and slap his right hand with his left hand.

"Oh."

The door suddenly opened, and the night wind that was involved in the wind swayed.

Chu night Ning suddenly turned over and pretended to sleep. He heard the man walk into the room and walked to the bed. The tall figure covered the faint candlelight. Even through the curtain, he could feel the dim light, and the shadow of the ink burned on the bed, oppressing him and making him Some are out of breath.

"Master, are you already asleep?"

The sound of ink burning is very gentle, I don't know why, with some hoarseness, it seems to be soaked in the bitterness of the sea.

Chu night Ning did not answer.

The ink burned for a while, and then he seemed to be afraid of waking up the night, and then he was sleeping in the place where he slept yesterday. He honestly gave himself a floor and then blown out. The candlelight.

When the house was smashed into darkness, even because there was no full house of butterflies and sea otters, this black was deeper than last night, it was so irritating and oppressive that it was fearful of what would happen in the night and looked forward to it. What can happen in this dark night.

But the ink burned nothing, this person who used to go to the kiln to make a name for himself, suddenly became so dull, cautious, pity, and courteous.

He lay down in his coat.

Chu night Ning loosened his breath and vaguely gave birth to some embarrassment, but he had not had time to be ashamed of his embarrassment, and he heard the ink burned and rose from the ground. Then Luo Xiao moved, he opened his bed curtain.

Chu Xinning’s heart mentioned the eyes of the blind man. He did not move, he still curled up and slept, and tried his best to mix his breath, hoping that he would not be surprised by the other party.

He didn't know that the smoldering suddenly got up and wanted to do something.

He did not end the Taoist, did not break the Qing Dynasty, his only sexual related cognition, all from the inexplicable absurd dreams.

He is like a person who has never been to the water. He is afraid of the raging waves and is more than eager. He would rather find a small water pool to the waist. If he wants him to face the tide of the river at once, he is afraid that he will die in the whirlpool.

Therefore, he is actually very afraid that there will be more moves in the ink.

However, I don’t know if it’s because of the sorrow of his sorrow, or if he heard his eager rush, and stood quietly for a while, then he leaned over—

The bow is a bit low, and Chu Ningning can almost feel his hot and sturdy breath, and the hot chest seems to be pressed down.

However, it was only so low that he looked at him for a while, and smashed his smashed hair behind his ear, and then he was shackled. He helped him cover the warm quilt.

Chu night Ning was slightly determined, satisfied and dissatisfied. But in this case, the smoldering is always honest...

The word "人" is still in the brain, and the old man burns and then bows his head. Chu nightning only has time to feel the soft and warm touch on his cheeks, and his head slams into the waves and screams. To the shore of the boulder, splashing thousands of snow.

The breath of ink burned around him, smoked him, and smashed him.

He kissed his side face.

There are a few people who can face the sleeping face of a loved one. They just look at their sleeves and just cover the quilt. It’s just good night.

The ink rain exhausted all restraint and endurance, and the chain was deeply plunged into the flesh of desire, and the other was caught, but the soft and soft kiss was misplaced.

Blood rumbling, poor night Yuhua Hengming Shenwu, I calmly calm, stepping on the heroic posture, but in the low heat of the ink and rain, the cheeks are hot, palms and night sweats.

He couldn’t think about anything for a moment, he couldn’t realize anything, his breath was holding it, his heart was jumping so fast that he no longer belonged to himself, and there was nothing between the heavens and the earth, as if nothing was left, and he seemed to be in the belly. A fire was ignited, and the light spots scattered around the eyes flashed. In dizziness, he can barely realize one thing:

The ink burned and kissed him.

Although it is only a side face.

As for other things, such as how long the ink has been kissed, he has no spare time to think about it. His fingers are pinched under the shackles, sweating hot, his eyes are shaking and shaking...

Fortunately, the night was very dark, and he couldn’t help but see that the eyelashes were not seen by the ink.

Fortunately, the face of Cunning Ning was too hot, and the whole person was groggy, so he did not feel it. When he kissed, a drop of warm tears slipped from his cheeks and slid between his neck.

Chapter 181

On the second morning of the confession, Chu Xiaoning woke up very early.

But he didn't get up, because he quietly looked out from the curtain and found that the ink was still asleep, simply paving, next to the bed.

Seen through the curtain is not so real, Chu night Ning pressed for a moment, did not press it, he reached out and wanted to open a little curtain, but the hand did not touch Luo, it was replaced by a finger, with fingertips, Just open a little bit.

It seems that as long as it is a little bit, it is not a sneak peek.

The clear shovel came in from the window paper, and the red enamel had a golden glow, and was cut into a long and narrow silhouette, shining on a handsome face.

Chu nightning has not seen his sleeping face for a long time, he is quietly groaning, very careful, gazing for a long time.

It was so long that he couldn't help but think of the year when Mo Zheng was brought back to death by Xue Zhengyi. Some awkward teenagers can burst into flames when they are happy. If they are okay, they will stick to themselves, say something, and worship themselves as a teacher.

I can’t catch up.

When I saw the Tongtian Tower, Chu Xiening insisted on not accepting the disciples, because it was ridiculous and untrustworthy to think that "he is the gentlest, I like it most."

To this end, he dried the ink for fourteen days.

Hearing people said that in order to find a way to enter under his door, Mo Weiyu asked Mr. Xue Zhengyi, Mrs. Wang Mingjing, including Xue Ziming.

In the end, I don’t know who gave him the bad idea, let him learn the snow, and stand outside the red lotus. In the morning, when I went out, I asked Ann, and asked the teacher to go back. At night, I went back to Nanjing, and continued to ask Ann, and asked the teacher to be so stormy, and dripping water could also wear stone.

Chu Evening’s reaction to this action is: Oh.

Turn a blind eye and leave.

He does not like others to chase fiercely like this. He, a person who has a weak feeling, is only willing to cope with those emotions that are equally peaceful and meager.

I don't know if it was caused by the environment in which I was young. The teenager is very good at observing the color. He feels the coldness of Chu Yuning. He only stalked for two days, and he did not chase after the late night. .

However, he still came to Honglian Water Margin every day. For the night, the night leaves in front of the courtyard were cleaned up. When he saw the night, he bounced his broom and scratched his head. He smiled: "Yuheng Elder ""

I don’t say that I’m getting up early in the morning, and I don’t ask for a good time.

Just a simple sentence, Yu Heng elders, and then just laugh.

Chu late rather did not look at him, and he left himself without hesitation. He was behind him, sweeping the leaves.

In this way, after ten days of peace and quiet, one morning, about because the lotus flower of the red lotus water bloomed more than ten times overnight, the fragrance was so full, so that the late night was very good.

He shouted out and saw the winding and winding mountain trails. The young boy burned his head down, concentrated on the level, sweeping the leaves, and a leaf was stuck in the stone crack, which was especially difficult to clean. He leaned over and picked it up, ready to throw it into the grass.

When he looked up, he found that Chu Ningning stood in front of the mountain gate. He snorted and then grinned. The half-sleeve arm was exposed outside. He held the dead leaves that had not been thrown away. Waved -

"Yuheng elders."

The sound is very clear, with fresh fruit sweet and clear, but it does not seem to ring, but it seems to reverberate between the peaks and peaks. A cloud of white clouds flows away, the sun is pouring down from the clouds, wearing the forest through the leaves, the bamboo forest is windy, Sorrow Xiaoxiao.

Chu night Ningyuan stood for a while, Huanren was suddenly amber in the dazzling morning light, he narrowed his eyes, and instantly felt that the dead leaves in the juvenile hands did not seem so dead, and became smiling with that. The people are generally gorgeous and dazzling.

He walked down the stone steps quietly.

Ink burning has long been accustomed to his coldness, and does not care, just as usual, consciously set aside, waiting for Chu night to pass.

On that day, Chu Yuning stepped down from the first step and walked past him as usual.

Then, suddenly, slightly sideways, looking back at the teenager, the sound is as clear as a spring, quiet as a lake.

He said: "Thank you."

The ink burned for a moment, and then the eyes lit up, and he waved his hand and said, "No, no, it is what the disciples should do."

Chu night Ning said: "...I did not intend to accept you as an apprentice."

But the tone of voice is no longer determined than at the beginning.

After he finished speaking, he turned and continued to move forward. At the end, he did not know why. He felt that he couldn’t bear it, and looked back at it.

As a result, I saw that the teenager did not feel the heart blocked. He jumped a few steps in excitement with the broom. The young face was full of vitality and exudes endless light and heat.

... It turns out that this guy didn't care about the latter half of the sentence. He only heard a thank you, is it happy to be like this?

It’s been a few days since the day, and one day it’s raining.

The rain is not too big, and Chu Ning has always been a person who is too lazy to take an umbrella and is rare to open an enchantment. It is estimated that it is only a time to go to the good and evil, but it doesn’t matter if it is wet. Just fine.

He pushed the door out.

The ink is still burning.

However, he was not sweeping the floor today. The broom was put aside by him. He held a paper umbrella and squatted on the ground. He was facing away from the night, and he was concentrating on something, and his shoulders shook slightly. He is short, squatting is smaller, the umbrella is big, or it is dark brown. It is very funny to go up, like a mushroom in a spring rain.

Chu nightning endured a faint smile, walked behind him, coughed and asked: "What are you doing?"

"Ah." The boy was shocked. He turned his head and looked up at him.

The first sentence is "Elders of Yuheng."

I haven't waited for the late night, but he widened his eyes and said the second sentence: "Why didn't you have an umbrella?"

Before he answered the answer, he stood up, picked up his toes, tried to raise the oil-paper umbrella in his hand, and said the third sentence: "This is for you."

But he was still too short, and the steps were lower than that of Chu, and it was very hard. The umbrella barely covered the top of Chu’s night, but the strength was not stable, the wind was blowing, the hand was not taken. Live, the umbrella is tilted instantly, and a string of water beads fall into the neckline of Chu’s neck and flow along the neck.

So, I haven’t waited for the sound of Chu’s late night, and the ink burned and said in a hurry: “I’m sorry, sorry!”

Chu nightning: "....."

When the ink burns the first sentence, he can answer "Yeah."

When the second sentence of the ink burns, he can answer "No."

When the third sentence of ink burns, he can answer "You keep it yourself."

But the ink burned the fourth sentence. I was sorry for the sound of the sound. I was so speechless, and I was stunned. I couldn’t see whether the look was faint or gloomy. In the end, I just sighed and took the ink. The umbrella in the hand was just right, hitting the top of the two.

He lifted his eyelids and looked at the ink, thought for a moment, and then circumvented the original sentence.

"what are you doing?"

"Rescue."

Chu nightning thought that he had got it wrong, frowned and asked, "What?"

The ink burned and laughed, the dimple was deep, very cute, and he scratched his head in a stunned manner, screaming: "Save, save."

Chu Xiaoning lowered his eyes, his eyes fell on the hand that was smoldering in the ink, and the palm of his hand held a branch, and the drips of the water fell to the ground. It should have been picked up from the ground. Looking further ahead, there was a stupid cockroach lying on the stone steps, slowly squirming.

"When the rain stops, these cockroaches that run out of the mud should be dried up." The ink burns a little embarrassed. "So I want to get them back into the grass."

Chu night Ning faintly asked: "With branches?"

"……Ok."

When I saw that the color was cold, the ink burned about worrying that the elders of Yuheng looked down, and they hurriedly said: "I, I am not afraid of the hand, that is, when I was a child, I told you that I can’t catch it with my hands. Rotten meat..."

Chu night Ning shook his head: "I am not talking about this."

He said, he raised his hand slightly, his fingertips were volleyed, and he saw a soft golden willow branch from the gap of the long stone of the bluestone. The willow wrapped around the dragonfly lying in the waterhole, holding it. Put it back in the nearby haystack. The ink burned wide eyes and was very surprised: "What is this?"

"Day to ask."

"What is the day?"

Chu night Ning gave him a look and said: "It is my weapon."

The smoldering is even more amazed: "The elder's weapon... so...so..."

"So small?" Chu nightning said the exit for him.

Ink burning: "Hey."

Chu night, a sleeve, looks indifferent: "It naturally has a fierce time."

"Then, can I see?"

"It's best not to see you forever."

At that time, the ink burned did not understand the meaning of this sentence. He turned his head and looked at the slits in the cracks of the stone steps, and the cockroaches that were soaked in the rain all rolled up. , sent back to the moist soil, gradually revealing the look of envy.

Chu night Ning suddenly asked: "Want to learn?"

The ink burned, and then slammed his eyes wide open, wondering what to say, and finally nodded, and a handsome little face rose red.

Chu night Ningdao: "After the morning repair, go to the bamboo forest behind the good and evil platform, I am waiting for you there."

When he finished, the white silk stalked on the wet stone steps, clinging to the oil-paper umbrella, and walking down the mountain. The ink burned his back with the wind and the wind, and after a long while, he suddenly reacted to the late night. The meaning of the words, the face rose reddish in an instant, the eyes are surprisingly bright.

He no longer cares for the wet tide on the ground, immediately degraded the dagger, and the tender voice is full of enthusiasm and joy.

"Yes, Master!"

"..." This time, Chu had never agreed, and did not stop it. He only stood in the same place for a while, and then continued to go far. The raindrops were knocked on the umbrella, bit by bit, just like a glimpse.

Until his back disappeared, the ink burned from the ground, and it was only then that he realized that his head had not opened a golden translucent barrier, flowing five-flowered flowers and covering him. Going to the fine wind and rain.

Chu Xiaoning remembered that when Xue Zhengyi learned of his decision, he was relieved and surprised. He asked him: "Yu Heng, how are you willing to accept him?"

At that time, he sat on the high seat of the good and evil platform, and he threw the oil-paper umbrella that was burned to him by his ink. The slender knuckles were worn out, and the stalks of the ancient shackles were honed. Finally, he said: "Convenient He saved the disaster."

Xue Zhengyi screamed, and the leopard looked round and sloppy.

"What to save?"

Chu Xiaoning did not answer any more, but just looking at the green bamboo umbrella bones, and gradually got a little smile.

In a blink of an eye, it has been so long.

The boy who was accepted as a disciple in the past, he was guilty at the beginning, and he followed the wrong path, but he was fortunate. In the end, the boy grew into a sinister prince who did not teach him disappointment.

A little white fingertips explored Luo Wei, and Chu Yuning was stunned from the tiny gaps.

The boy is now a handsome and tall man. The facial features are more profound than before, and the eyebrows are a steady and mature atmosphere.

Just like the original, when the ink burns asleep, the eyebrows will always squat slightly. This is how he beats the small ones. The two rows of eyelashes are very low, as if they are about to be lifted by the heavy heart.

Chu night Ning feels a little funny, and the heart of this person is young, where is it so much?

Just thinking about it, I suddenly saw the long eyelashes of the smoldering curls moving slightly, and the eyes slowly opened.

"..."

Chu’s fingers were suddenly stiff, and they wanted to take their hands back and sleep.

However, this person is very strange. He does not have the young people's temper, but instead some older people have some factions. In other words, he is sober.

And inexplicably, he seems to have a keen instinct for the subtle changes around the sleeping environment - as if he is in danger of assassination all the year round, moving one step at a time, like a thin ice.

Chu Xiaoning had not had time to pull the tip of his finger back from the gap in the account, and the sight of the ink burned had exactly fallen on the fingertip.

Chu nightning: "....."

It was related to the face and the reputation of the elders of Yu Heng. When the millennium was in the air, Chu’s movements turned over and the whole hand stretched out, and the whole hand stretched out on the bedside.

It seems that it wasn’t just stealing the curtains, but the sleeping person turned over and stretched his arms, inadvertently exploring the curtain.

Where can I think of the seriousness of the smoldering? I can think of this idea easily, and I was easily confused. I was afraid of awakening the night, so I got up lightly.

But did not go immediately, but caught the wrist of the night of the night, and carefully put it back between the bedding. After doing this, after a while, Chu nightning heard the sound of the threshold.

The ink burned out.

Chu nightning slightly stretched his eyes and looked at the skylight that came in through the door, and the * who had been out for a long time.

Perhaps it is because he never expects to be with the ink burning, even the imagination has never been specifically imagined, so even after a night, at this time, he still feels that all this is like dreaming.

In the impression, the smoldering is clearly obscured by the teacher. In these years, he stood alone behind them and made everything clear.

Look at the smoldering on the teacher's clear smile, see the ink burning for the teacher to clean the face, see the smoldering secretly help the teacher to complete the delegation, hi-like look, I think no one knows.

In fact, these things are clear to Chu.

For this reason, he had been envious, had a bonfire, had a hard time, and had been unwilling.

I thought I had been relieved.

In fact, it is so easy to relieve, even if it is impossible to know, but also refused to look back at the neck, hard to scalp and do not want to leave.

In these years, Chu Evening himself has also asked himself whether it is worthwhile to wait for a fruitless wait, so whether or not the obsessive waiting is squatting. But since I have asked countless times, every time the answer is gone.

He was late to watch the ruthless people who were obsessed with men and women. The most unfortunate thing was that they couldn’t understand why they were so painful. They also forced to hold a relationship in their arms, and they were brutally wounded and refused to discard. He didn't understand that only when the blameless fire broke into his heart, he finally knew -

The friendship and affection in the world are sincere and true.

Can be put down, but it will never be abandoned.

For this reason, I don’t understand how much I am confused and hesitant about Chu’s true thoughts. He didn't understand what made the ink burned and was willing to take his eyes away from Shi Mingjing and turn to his slightly embarrassed face.

Um... because grateful?

Because?

Want to emulate the female ghosts to pay tribute to the demon, so I am willing to do it?

...Mom, it’s not going to be a confession with the teacher, and it’s rejected by the teacher...

Chu night Ning was stunned, and the brain was empty. For a time, the ghost girl, Tian Luo, and Chen Shimei, moved in love, and did not want to get angry. I finally got more and more angry, got up, and no one saw it, and smashed the ink last night. The ground is paved with two feet.

Chapter 182

Guessing guesses, before the conclusion, Chu Xianning would not want to think more, lest he should add to his own.

It’s just that he has some reservations about this sudden feeling. Therefore, when the robbery finally went out and the group was preparing to leave the sword, Chu Ningning did not intend to take the ink-sword.

Of course, the elders of Yuheng who could barely fly at a low altitude of 20 feet did not intend to step on the vast sea in Huaisha, so when everyone stood on the side of the rocky beach, they were smashed by the ink and the sword became bigger. Chu late Ning took out his own dragon symbol.

The fingertips dripped blood and placed on the dragon scales. The noisy little paper dragon suddenly came alive from the picture, vacated, turned several ribs, and then shouted around the owner.

"Oh, I am late, I haven’t seen you for many years, I miss you very much. What time do you ask this seat to help you?"

"Take me to the other side."

"Hey! This seat is the first dragon of the first true king of the eternal life of Hongmeng. How can you do the work of the scorpion, no load, no load!"

In the eyes of the public, this little paper dragon with a big palm is shaking his head and swaying his tail. Although his body is weak, his voice is loud. When a child listens to it, he can't help but laugh.

Chu’s face was so depressed that he lifted his palms and slammed a golden flame. He said: “If you don’t carry it, you will burn it.”

"..." Xiaolong gasped up and fell straight on the beach, his teeth and claws, blowing his eyes and blinking. "Where are you, fierce, unreasonable, shameless and shameless, no wonder you see you every time for so many years, you are A person!"

The ink burned and turned back. It seemed to be what I wanted to say, but I thought about it. There were so many people around me, and Chu Ning had to face again, so she still didn’t say anything, just shook her head with a smile.

Chu night Ning angered: "Just you have more words!"

Speaking of a wave of palms, the fire in the palm of the hand went straight to the dragon on the ground, but Chu Xiaoning did not really want to burn it. The fireball was very loud, but the dragon had to fall on the shoal reef, and the dragon was scared. Wow, yelling at the sky, squatting straight, fat paws patted his beard.

"The tail of this seat! The need for this seat! This seat... The head of this seat! Still? Still!"

"There is no more squatting." Chu nighting gnawed his teeth and cut his teeth, and the palms gathered in the golden brilliance, "get bigger."

"...hey!" Xiaolong stunned for half a day, and was holding his paws and slashing the tears that didn't exist. The mung bean eyes suddenly smashed into the eyes of the late night. I couldn’t help but chill, and the rest of my voice suddenly ended with a funny “嗝!”.

It climbed up from the ground softly. This time it was like a paper dragon. It was boneless and pulled. It made another slap, and said with grievances: "This time, it is not an example."

"According to your."

Anyway, when it is multiplied back, it is also said.

The paper dragon opened his four feet and seemed to be stretching his muscles. Then he made a sharp squeaking sound between his throat. A golden light swelled out from its thin and thin body and dissipated to the surroundings. The golden light became stronger and stronger. Finally, the paper dragon is completely swallowed up.

"Roar--!!!!"

Suddenly, the sharp and small sound of the paper dragon's throat suddenly turned into a horrible roar of roaring anger. In a flash, the golden light flashed through the purple electric thunder, the wind swelled around the coast, the coast smashed, and everyone was stabbed. If you don't open your eyes, you can either bow your head or cover your face with your sleeves.

Chu night Ning squinted, long ponytail and wide robes were stunned by the wind blowing hunting. When the golden light is extinguished, everyone looks around, but sees that the little dragon has disappeared, and the beach is quiet, nothing.

“Hey? I’m gone?”

The daring little child was surprised and surprised, but when the voice did not fall, he heard the sound coming from the top of the head to stop the cloud, the sound of the sound of the nine waves, the sea of anger, and the storm.

The crowd raised their heads in horror, and a few silences. Suddenly, a thick cloud of clouds rushed out of a mighty dragon. It was glaring and screaming, and the claws were strong. Only the dragons had a thick tree for centuries, and it circled between the clouds. , tigers and tigers, suddenly it rises upwards, and then swoops from the ground violently!

The hurricane is everywhere!

"Yeah!!"

"Auntie!"

The child who lost his parents was scared, or habitually cried and shouted, and the ink burned him up and sighed softly.

Chu Xiaoning probably didn't think that he scared the child again. He stunned and saw the dragon rushing down. He immediately said, "You are slower."

“Hey?”

The huge dragons heard the words, and they gave a sigh of sighs, and then they slammed on the rocky beach and slowly hanged down.

This dragon is very large, sitting on it is not much different from sitting on the land, it is no wonder that Chu night rather does not like Yu Jian, but is willing to ride the dragon.

The smoldering intention is to let the night of the night, and then the child in the heart: "Would you like this brother to sit on this dragon?"

The child did not want to bury his face in the ink-burning shoulder and whispered, "Speak quietly, I don't like him..."

Moeburn also said to him: "Speak quietly, I like him."

"Ah?" The child snorted, but after all, pure and innocent, and quietly asked, "Really?"

"Hey, don't tell anyone."

The child immediately laughed, covered his mouth and nodded again and again.

"What are you talking about? Can you still go?" Chu Yuning did not intend to take a ride with everyone, and then gave them a faint look, and then Yulong leaped up, and suddenly rose to a hundred feet high and disappeared into the clouds.

Because the sword was on the people, they couldn't fly too fast. In the evening, they arrived in Wuzhong Town. They were able to land earlier than them and greeted the big ones in the town. Wuchang Town is the most visited town in the life and death. As long as Xianjun speaks, they will try their best to do it.

The victims from Linyi were taken back by several big heads of the family. The child who was holding the ink while he was leaving was still reluctant to turn back and wave with him.

"Meng Gong brother, see you later."

"Well, see you later." The ink burned and laughed, standing in the sunset, watching them go far.

Chu nightning is tired of this kind of separation, standing for a while, turned and left. The ink burned and followed the past, and walked back to the sect with him.

The two walked silently to the front of the stone steps of the mountain gate, step by step to pick up the level, the tree shadow swaying, the twilight brilliant. The ink burns thinks that when Chu Lingning used to run out of spiritual power, he squatted back to the foothills, and then he can still stand by himself and walk with himself. He can’t help but feel mixed. .

Between bitterness and sweetness, he reached out and gently grasped the fingertips of Chu’s late night.

"..."

Even if he had already taken a hand before, Chu Yuening still seemed so blunt, so clumsy, so uncomfortable. He tried his best to calm his face, making himself seem very indifferent and very self-conscious.

Unfortunately, the people he faces are smoldering.

Knowing his roots, knowing that he is dirty, knowing that his ears are sensitive, the feet are chilly and cool.

None of them spoke first, but it was burned to see that he did not take his finger away, and he wrapped the whole hand of Chu Xinning in his palm.

Long long, he longed for this road to be so long that he could hold his hand, longer and longer.

Far from the long-term, he is eager for this road to be shorter. If it can be shorter, when he is carrying the pain of his late home, he will be less, and less.

Just walking to the foothills, the Lushan Gate is clearly visible.

Suddenly, a long figure wearing a white silver fox cloak appeared in the shadow of the mother-in-law. When the two of them saw it, they heard the man scream.

"Master?!"

Chu Xiaoning was slightly shocked, almost immediately took his hand out of the ink palm, hanging between the sleeves, then stood still and raised his head.

The sergeant walked down from the steps of the higher level, and the next sunset was clear, and the face was clear and bright, and the radiant and radiant photos were eclipsed.

He is really beautiful.

The teacher did not see the hand that the two were holding. He looked very surprised and smiled: "Great! You are finally back!"

I didn’t expect the ink to meet him suddenly. Some of them were embarrassed and asked: "Is the teacher going out?"

"Well, I am going down the mountain to buy something for the Lord. I didn't expect to see the Master and Ah Burning. A few days ago, the Lord received the message of the Master, but he didn't see anyone, and he was always relieved... ”

Chu Yuning said: "I have nothing to do with the ink. What about the other people in the party?"

"There is nothing wrong with it." Shi said, "The younger master is obsessed with the sunspots, but fortunately, the control time is not long, and the heart is not damaged. These days, the elders of the wolf have been carefully healed, and they have been able to get out of bed this morning."

Chu night Ning sighed: "That's good."

The teacher smiled and looked at the ink, then gently fell down and said, "Although I really want to talk for a while, but the medicines sent from the lonely night, if you don't take it again, you should let the person who sent the medicine for a long time. Wait. I need to take the first step, Master, Ash, and see you at night."

"Well, let's go." Chu said, "Let's go back."

After the teacher’s robes were hunting, the figure gradually became more and more, and Chu’s night turned around. Although he could feel that he was not swaying, he was arrogant, but he did not know why he was annoyed, and his knife-like scorpion was evil. The cellar glanced at the ink and turned his sleeves away.

Ink burning: "....."

The two of them went to the outside of the Danxin Temple. When they pushed the door, they were shocked by the situation in front of them. They were speechless.

I saw the head of the main hall of the dead and the dead, densely covered with gold and silver satin, treasure tree coral, and magical stone. From the end of the high block all the way to the door, so that the night of the Ninglian door can only be pushed halfway. Half of it has been blocked by a pile of shiny refining spar, completely unable to move. In addition to these things, I don’t know what the odd reasons are. There are still more than 30 beautiful and beautiful women in the temple.

And Xue Zhengyi, he is laughing and laughing in a fire-fighting disciple wearing a light red shirt.

"No, this is really not good, others can be collected. These singers still ask you to bring them back and return them to the owner. We really don't listen to the little songs here, nor do we like to watch dancing. Thank you."

The ink burned along with the late night, and the thirty girls stood by the door. There was a strong smell of fat powder immediately. He was sensitive to the fragrance, and he couldn’t resist it. I beat four or five sneezes.

Xue Zhengyi was busy looking back and saw two people.

"A burning, Yu Heng! You can count it back! Come on, help me to persuade this... oh... this envoy."

Chu nightning raised his eyebrows slightly: "What makes the festival?"

Before Xue Zhengyi answered, the disciple was full of laughter and turned back. He said eagerly: "In the next fire, the disciples of the Huangge Pavilion, in the order of the chief of the cabinet, special alliance with the dead and the dead."

Chu nightning: "..."

It is certainly impossible to arbitrarily align this kind of thing. The three people together tried to persuade the person for a long time before sending the person away. Xue Zhengyi looked at the back of the envoy, and sighed heavily, rubbing his forehead and sweating: "You know What are the people in these heavenly worlds who have come to the world to say that they will be repaired with the dead and the dead. I have not had much to do with them in the past few years. In the past, I was willing to take care of them, that is, the Kunlun Snow Palace, this time three The five of them all rushed to give gifts, suddenly became so enthusiastic, I don't know how to deal with them."

Chu night, Ning heard the eyebrows and asked: "What time is the situation in the upper quarter?"

Xue Zheng sighed: "Thirty years of Hedong, thirty years of Hexi."

"How to say?"

"The chaos." Xue Zhengxuan said, "Xu Shuanglin's madman, the reel of the reel has so many grievances, even if he knows that this is his vengeful heart, but what can change? Confucianism Needless to say, Jiangdongtang has been torn apart, and the night of the moon and the snow palace have completely ruined evil. Now it is the enemy who meets the eye, and there is no sad temple..."

When he said this, he suddenly remembered that the master of guilty sin was the master of Chu Xinning, and he could not help but live his mouth.

Chu nightning is only a touch of faint: "There is no empty street in the empty gates of the temple, but the former presiding has been involved in the battle of the Confucianism, and the sinister intentions have naturally become famous."

"Ok……"

Listening to his unrequited love of his own teacher, Xue Zhengyi and Moburn are subconsciously looking at Chu Yuning.

Chu night, Ning Lips no longer speaks. After a while, he asks again: "What about Nangong?"

"I don't know, after the fire was extinguished, I didn't hear him and Ye Gong... Ye girl's news."

The ink burned the words, and the low and low "ah" was heard, and the face was sorrowful.

Is it two generations, these two pure gentlemen, still can't get the end?

Seeing his look is different, his eyes are stunned, Xue Zhengyi turned to look at him: "What happened to the burning children?"

The ink can't tell the truth, only to say: "I was thinking, Xu Sulin's whereabouts is still undecided. The two of them are deeply involved and worried that they will be implicated."

"You don't want to worry too much. All the sects have sent people to thoroughly investigate all the different sources of magic in the realm of cultivation." Xue Zheng said, "Unless Nangong has no big moves, otherwise it will be caught." Nangong Gongzi and Ye girl may be temporarily trapped in the mountains, which is not convenient for external contact."

Ink burning: "Well, I hope so."

They continued to ask about the variables that occurred in the past few days. Although Xue Zhengyi had a message from Haishu, they knew that they had previously lived in Feihua Island, but there were some unclear follow-ups, so they also asked them some recent developments. . Chu nightning has one answer, one has two answers. Only when it comes to something related to ink burning, it will be paused and deliberately opened.

And Xue Zhengyi, he would not think of what happened between Chu and his burning.

Because these two people have removed their appearance, everything is too bad.

Age, identity, character.

Even skin color, eating taste, sleeping posture, and all of these kinds are the same.

Over the years, Yuheng has always represented Gao Jie in the night, and Beidou Xianzun has always represented the coldness. Chu Zongshi is indifferent, and the most cherished is his own skin. How can he and his apprentice come together?

The most daring words are not dare to write this. If there is a storyteller who can tell such a paragraph, it is estimated that someone can pour a large bowl of tea with melon seeds and smash it into the bottom of the table.

However, love has only been born.

In the dimly lit, uninvited corners, a secret flower is opened. Although not full, the incense has been smashed.

Since I returned to the dead, I went to Meng Potang to eat at night.

Pushing open the door of the red lotus raft, I suddenly saw the trail of the bamboo leaves bleak, and the bluestone long steps, quietly standing alone.

When he heard the movement, the man turned around and Mao Xingguang smacked the ink behind him with impunity, and traced his handsome cheek to a layer of Phnom Penh.

The ink burned and said to Chu Yuning: "Master."

Chu night Ning Jie white silk stalks, the memory suddenly overlaps, it seems that I saw the first year of the burning of the ink, the daily will stand in front of their own door, watched their own go out, waiting for their return.

However, the boy is no longer alive, and the elders of Yuheng in the past have already become the masters of his mouth that have been called for thousands of times.

Respectfully, there are a few enthusiasm that is very restrained, and gentleness that is not so restrained.

"What are you doing here?"

"Wait to eat with you."

Chu nightning’s gaze fell on a food box in his hand and said: “I want to go to Meng Po Tang today. I haven’t been there for a long time. I don’t want to stay in the water.”

The ink burned slightly, and then he came over. He smiled. "The teacher misunderstood, this food box is empty. I just went to give Xue Meng some meals. He has a bad appetite. He borrowed a small stove and cooked it for him. A bowl of noodles."

I didn't think that the burning of the ink would actually give Xue Meng something to eat. In the memory of Chu Xi Ning, these two people have never been embarrassed. Although they are cousins, they can fight together without a fragrant effort.

I don’t know when it started, maybe it’s five years of sleep, I missed too much, and maybe it’s the age of burnt and Xuemeng’s age. In short, when Master’s unconsciousness, the relationship between the two has long been The ice spring began to dissolve and gradually eased.

Although she is far from the brothers and sisters, at least Xue Meng will remember to pinch an ugly ink, and the ink will burn a bowl of noodles when she is sick. He is on the couch.

Chu night Ning sighed: "How is he? When I went to marry him, he was still asleep."

"This time I have already woken up, I ate it, and I want to go out and walk. I was forced to go back to lay down." Ink burned the road, "The Jane chess game is no better than the other, the sunspots, even if they are not controlled." Deep, but also take a good rest for a while."

"Ok."

Although Chu Xiaoning should be there, there are some doubts in my heart.

... This is an understatement. The speaker is unintentional. The listener has a heart. He suddenly feels that there is something uncomfortable. It seems that the burning and selling of the chess pieces is too clear and too light.

"Master?"

Chu nightning returned to God, and smiled and asked: "What are you thinking?"

"...nothing." It should be a matter of self-consideration. It’s also a master of ink burning. It’s not surprising to know about the ban.

He opened the subject and said, "Where to eat? I don't want to go outside."

"I didn't want to go outside to eat." The ink burned his nose, smiled low, and the voice was warm and elegant. "Just want to be with you, you can eat anywhere."

Chu Xiaoning would not admit that he was somewhat motivated, but he could not help but see the eyes of the pair of dark and warm eyes.

The eyes are red, bright, reflecting the glow, and their own reflection.

Very simple and very clean.

He couldn't think of any reason to reject such a pair of eyes, so he finally came to the lively dining hall with the ink.

Perhaps the thin layer of window paper was finally smashed. In the past, the smoldering would give him a dish without any scruples. Even when he saw some soup stains on the corner of the night, he raised his hand and smiled and wiped him. Drop it. But now both people have become serious about it. Under the eyes of the public, even the eyes are shy.

A meal was polite and the end of the meal, Chu night Ning got up to take the tray away, but the ink burned him: "Master, wait a minute."

"what happened?"

The ink burned out and the fingertips were about to touch the moment of Chu’s face, but stopped.

He took it back and clicked on his mouth and smiled. "You have a grain of rice here."

"....."

Chu night Ning was stiff in the same place for a while, then put down the tray, as if the handkerchief had wiped the rice grain very calmly, and then rubbed his lips, whispered: "Is there still?"

The ink burned and said: "No, it's very clean."

Chu nightning, this time, he re-opened the plate and walked away. In his heart, he is both awkward and embarrassed, but he also vaguely has a sense of loss that he is not so willing to admit.

Before the ink burned, he raised his hand directly. This man suddenly followed the rules and made him feel uncomfortable.

This was the case for a few days.

It was obviously a person who had no taboos, but now he is like a haired boy who started his temper. He only tried his best to treat him well, but he did not do anything too radical. The smoldering seems to be scared to him. Every step of the way is to be cautious. Sometimes Chu Ning Ming Ming sees the burning passion in his eyes, but the man’s eyelashes will silently fall. Then, the generous palms wrapped the fingers of Chu’s late night.

When I lifted my eyes again, my desires in my eyes were covered with gentleness.

But that is too gentle, and sometimes Chu will rather have a vague illusion.

It is as if the smoldering is a clay potter who is re-bonded after a fragmentation, and if it is too big, it will be crushed into * and pinched into powder.

Chu night Ning feels that this is not the case, calm and uncomfortable, not ill, the fire in the dream is very exciting, but this kind of thing can be dreamed, if it is true, he may not be able to stand it.

But how to press the 再, then how to follow the steps of love in accordance with the rules, there will still be end.

On this day, he finished his dinner as usual, took a peach and was ready to leave. The peach had not bitten two, and his hand was caught. Chu was so surprised that he looked up and burned, and whispered:

"what are you doing--"

Chapter 183

No one around, ink burned him, took him to the alley behind Meng Potang, the alley was very small, he went in, and then stood a burn, there is no more space left.

Chu night, Ning, holding a peach, staring at him.

It was a continuous restraint, and finally the man with a * temperament was somewhat moved. His chest was slightly hurriedly undulating, his dark eyes staring brightly at Chu Ningning, and suddenly he reached out and held him in his arms.

"My peaches -!"

It’s too late to say that the fruit of the plump water is knocked out, and the bones roll into the corner and stop moving.

"Master." The hot scent of the man lingered in his ear, so torment, so eager, but his tone is still clear, boiling in the sorrowful meaning, his voice is smoldering / fire sizzling, But he still has no more moves.

He just hugged him and held him in his arms, low and hoarse.

"I feel terrible."

Chu night, Ning Hao, his eyes widened: "What's wrong, where is it uncomfortable?"

The ink burned first, then laughed. He caught Chu’s hand, who wanted to explore his forehead temperature, and put it on his lips and kissed it.

Chu night Ning Emei anxiously said: "If you are sick, you have to look for the elders of the wolf."

"Looking at that winter pickled vegetables is useless." The ink burned helplessly. "Look at the little cabbage."

Chu Xiaoning reacted to this, and the face was stretched in an instant. He was angry and angry: "Who are you talking about cabbage?"

The ink burns and laughs: "I am wrong."

After a pause, I stared at the night with the wet dark eyes.

"But Master, I miss you."

Chu Xiaoning was stunned by him, and was looked at by such a pair of eyes. The anger of being called "little cabbage" would have nowhere to vent, but turned into a thin red ear. Half a sigh: "...we only eat at a table."

"These are not counted."

"..."

"Master, I want to stay with you for a while. Every time you finish your meal, you will walk away and walk in the crowd. I can't touch you when I touch..."

There are some weak grievances in the man’s voice.

"Keep me a little longer, don't go back."

Chu nightning was remembered by his cheeks getting hotter and more flustered. What's more, his breath was so blazing, so majestic, so eager, he was held tightly by him, and in the end, he couldn't say a word.

The ink burned and muttered: "Master, let me hold you for a little longer..."

For both of them, it is not so easy to be alone in the natural life. In particular, the number of visits by major sects has increased significantly during this period. Chu Zhongning has often been dragged down by Xue Zhengyi to make suggestions, so there is less time to gather.

I can sit close to me when I am eating, but I always have to worry about the crowds around me. I'm afraid that if I'm not careful, I will let the disciples of the eye see what is different, so since the confession, they have the opportunity to take hands. Extremely rare.

For a long time, it is no wonder that the ink will not endure.

The twilight gradually deepened, and more and more people came out from Mengpotang. A group of female practitioners who were joking and joking walked past the alley, and accidentally met the fire-breed rat, the tail-burning little mouse. The hustle and bustle caused everyone to laugh, and Chu Ning was upset in such a hustle and bustle, and he pushed the ink.

"Go out."

"A little more..."

"It's time to come and go out."

In the end, Chu Jingning is a person who is used to cleaning up. He does not give him a real color to look at. He is not confused, he will not be fascinated. The ink sighed and sighed. As he wished, he released his arm and hugged him. Chu nightning immediately walked out of the dark and narrow alley, then looked back at him.

"What are you still doing there?"

The ink burned and coughed, it seemed to be awkward. He said: "The teacher will go first, I will stand for a while."

Chu night Ning was puzzled. Just wanted to say something, but he saw that the handsome face of the burning wheat color seemed a bit red, and the black eyes were also flashing, like the stars in the clear night sky.

He suddenly understood what had come, and his eyes moved unconsciously. When he saw a certain part, his ears squeaked, and suddenly he was smashed by the scorpion. He was red-eared and equator: "You... you are... When he didn't finish his words, he slammed his sleeves and left, angrily, and he seemed to be smoking blue smoke.

This kind of dodgy day has passed for ten days, even if the smoldering wolf is docile, the blood in the bones is getting more and more fierce, and the meaning of the mountains and rains is full of wind. Daily morning repairs, in the province, he stared at the elders of Yu Heng above the high platform, the desires in his eyes were unstoppable, and day by day.

When I am obsessed with a person, even if I try my best to hide my love, I can’t hide it.

Sometimes Xue Meng has no intention of sweeping his eyes, he will be scared. He looks at the ink burning, and then look at the night of the night, the phoenix has a rib, and there is no way to think about it, so the more you look at it, the more you look at it. I don't know what emotions are flashing in my eyes.

Xue Meng only felt uncomfortable subconsciously, but he couldn’t say where he was uncomfortable.

One day in the morning, Xue Meng looked at the people around him and shouted his voice and shouted: "Hey, I am asking you something."

"what's up?"

"Is the teacher respected?"

The ink burned: "How do you say this? Where does the teacher know?" Why don't I know?"

"You don't know?" Xue Meng touched his chin. "It's weird, then how do you always look at him recently, and you always have a look of care."

"..." Listening to Xue Meng said that the ink burned out and understood. He coughed and cried. "What do you want? Don't curse the master."

"I didn't curse him." Suddenly, he murmured. "What do you always stare at?"

"You got it wrong."

"I am not jealous."

"You see."

"I am? You are a dog!"

Two big men in their twenties were in a childish disappointment. On the high stage, Chu, Ning heard that there was a change in this side, and looked cold and cold. The two men shut up slyly, and they bowed their heads and squatted their hands. The herbal dossier, just the elbows are still against each other in a dark contrast. When the ink burned and he arrived for a while, he suddenly relaxed his strength and pulled his hands without warning.

Xue Meng used too much force, suddenly lost the obstruction of the ink burning side, actually directly slammed into the ink burning body.

The ink burned his legs and laughed: "Ha ha ha ha."

Xue Meng was extremely angry, and he did not care about the quiet atmosphere around him. He said, "You don't want to face! You are yin!"

"Ink rain, Xue Ziming." Seeing his apprentice and tearing his eyes, Chu nightning is a little angry, lifting the eyes of the phoenix, holding his eyebrows, and sulking. "To quarrel outside, don't disturb everyone here." ”

"Yes, Master." The ink burned immediately.

Xue Meng did not want to live. However, he was still a little angry. He felt that he had fallen a little bit and fell into a face. After thinking about it, he cut a small piece of paper and wrote several large characters on it. The group got up and threw it on the burning table.

"Hey."

I didn't expect the paper group to lose her head. A slender and greasy hand picked it up from the spread pages. The teacher untiedly unfolded the crumpled paper and glanced at the words written on it.

——

"You are staring! Do you have any intentions? Do you want the teacher to pass on your own mind!"

I also drew a dog below and hit a black fork.

Teacher: "....."

After the morning repair, Xue Zhengyi found Chu Yuning, saying that it was a few investigations in Linyi, and determined that because of the robbery, no one could live any more in five years, so the people who came from the upper training circle Nowadays, they need to be placed in the towns and villages of the dead.

"The ones I brought back, have already started to help people in the town of Wuchang, Fenghe Town, Baishui Village settled. And those you brought back with Ah," Xue Zhengxi said, "the impermanence of the town is not so much." People are stationed, or take half to go to Yuliang Village, where there are also young people."

工具 楚子宁

Xue Zhengxuan nodded gets his head: "Jade is not far away. You go early, there are a lot of people to resettle. These kinds of rice and oil are not clear. I let the teacher go with you. He can help. busy."

Chu night Ningdao: "...good."

For the villagers in Yuliang Village, Chu Yuening and Mo-burning are considered old knowledge. The village chief got the news of Xue Zhengyi two days ago, so he waited at the entrance of the village early in the morning and waited for the immortals of the dead. arrival. The Linger girl is also there. She hasn’t seen it for a long time. She has become more and more slick, and when she sees the ink, she is busy greeting him.

The ink burned some accidents, but still smiled: "The girl did not go to the repairs?"

"Don't go, but fortunately, I didn't go. If I ran to Linyi, I was afraid that I couldn't even have a life." Linger took a slap in the face of his full chest. "I still wait in the next round, and the village is also in this period of time." It’s getting better and better... Once upon a time, we were looking forward to going to the upper bounds. This is the first time. I saw people from the upper bounds coming to us. Don’t leave, don’t leave.”

"Yeah." Someone heard her words and followed the road. "Everything is a mountain that doesn't turn around. There is Xue Zun's master. I don't know if it will be another ten or twenty years. Let's run here."

The gentleman said: "There is a hundred years of hard work in the lower quarters, but the so-called Jiang has the other side, and the sea has one side. It is not always that we have been suffering all the time. It is time to live a good life."

As he spoke, he took the herbal cream that Mrs. Wang had ordered him to share with everyone. The ink burned and took a can of fine look. He found that there was a snake-shaped coat of arms on the moon, and he was surprised: "This is... Cold scale holy hand medicine?"

"Well, a few days ago, Jiang Zhangmen sent someone to send it."

Chu Jingning listened and said: "Jiang Yan will send things more than the Huohuangge. There are many ghosts and evil spirits in the middle of the battle. The most lacking is the magic bullet. Sending these, the Lord is smiling."

"Isn't it?" Mo-burned muttered. "It's all the remedies made by the cold-scale sacred hand. It's exaggerated. The bones of the dead and the dead are not in the words, hehe..."

"唉" and the second half of the sentence did not say - hey, Jiang Yan is really rich.

At that time in Xuanyuan Pavilion, Chu Xiangning bought a few bottles of musk dew, the asking price is 2.5 million, the result is that Jiang Zhangmen waved his hand and sent it as a carriage.

The ink burned the jar back in the air, and sighed secretly. The heart of the Confucianism is indeed finished, but the next one is obviously a lonely moon night. I am afraid it will take hundreds of years.

Busy for a long time, in the evening, the food and clothing of the Linfen old people were arranged, the houses were also cleaned up, the three men and teachers were ready to leave, but the village chief insisted on leaving them to eat together. In a sentimental, but disrespectful, they followed the village head and went to the ancestral hall of Yuliang Village.

The village ancestors always do some important red and white events, New Year's Eve to eat New Year's Eve, Lantern Festival to see the big drama, are also in this scorpion, or in the courtyard outside the ancestral hall. On this day, because many old people who went to the upper bounds came to live in Yuliang Village from now on, the villagers prepared more than 30 tables of banquets, cooked sheep and slaughtered cattle, steamed rice and noodles to entertain everyone.

The village chief actually remembered that Chu night would rather not eat spicy food, and specially arranged a table of light dishes. Please ask the elders of Yu Heng and Linyi who are not familiar with the spicy people.

Those people were rescued by the smoldering and Chu Ningning. When they were flying, they already knew the cold singer, but they knew it and sat down with him to eat. A table was very nervous. Out of courtesy, they couldn't get up and change positions, so a meal was very embarrassing, and other tables were laughing and drinking. This table is a boring head and silently chopsticks, no one snoring.

The ink-burning technique is good, and I help in the house. When the last dish comes up, he comes out from the kitchen. The honey-colored face is covered with thin sweat, his eyes are very bright, his nose is very strong, and the crowd is handsome and eye-catching.

"The soup is buns -!" The aunt held a large squat, which was filled with small steamers, and the slamming of the door was loud. "Every table, every table, twelve per table, six leeks Six kinds of mushrooms and fresh meat, you have to eat hot!"

The ink burned and smiled, helping the big girl to send the dumplings to the table.

"Thank you, ink fairy!"

"Thank you Xianjun!"

Even more familiar with the burning of children, the child is crisp and groaning: "Thank you for the rainy brother!"

Linger’s eyes were around him, and he couldn’t move, even though he knew that this person didn’t like himself and wouldn’t like himself, he still couldn’t help but want to look at him—

Oh, it doesn't matter if you look at it anyway.

"Thank you, Mo Xianjun." To her table, her lips were like a sigh, and she said softly.

The ink burned and smiled at her. It was a bright smile that didn't dodge, and didn't bring any ambiguity. Instead, she made a little embarrassed to Linger, who wanted to take the opportunity to steal the eye, and suddenly lowered her head.

The last two tables were not delivered. There was a late night in a table, and there was a teacher at the table. The two of them had different tastes, so they didn’t sit together. The ink burned first to the table at the night of Chu, Ning Xiaoning. Emei said: "Don't be busy anymore, the rice is cold."

When the teacher gave the table, the teacher smiled and said: "A burning is a skill, thank you."

"Haha, okay, I just helped the big man to get started."

When the ink burned, he turned and turned back. The teacher thought that he was going to take the bowl, and he vacated some empty seats on the bench. He said, "Sit here, I have only one bowl for this table. You don't have to take it. ”

The ink burned for a moment, then scratched his head and smiled: "I sit on the table."

"...when are you not going to eat spicy? There is no spicy food to go there."

"Quited."

The teacher was silent for a long while, and the bottom of the darkness was dark, but he suddenly smiled: "I heard that drinking alcohol, quit smoking leaves, I have never heard of someone wanting to quit peppers."

"In fact, it is not a ring. If you don't eat for too long, you don't want to eat it." The ink-burning priest waved his hand and smiled and ran to the kitchen. "Take the bowl, you sit and eat, no more soup." The bag is cold."

Chapter 184

He quickly went back and returned. In addition to his own bowl full of rice, he also took a food box and sat next to Chu.

Chu Xiaoning had some accidents and hesitated: "You... don't you go to the table?"

I burned a sigh: "Why should I go to that table?"

Listening to him saying that Chu is rather happy in his heart, he covets and coughs: "I thought the dishes over there would suit your taste."

The ink burned his eartips reddish, and suddenly realized that Chu Xiening would not be jealous, right? His heart swayed, and Yan smiled, whispering in his ear: "Where are you, where is the taste."

Chu nightning this time the whole ear is red.

He had his knees on his knees, and he felt sensitive and wanted to move away. The ink burned but did not want to, through the cover of the table, touched the legs of Chu Yuning.

"you--!"

This sound caught the attention of others: "What happened to Xianjun?"

Chu nightning knows his words and insists on calming and saying: "Nothing."

The ink burned and laughed. He thought that Chu Ning was really interesting.

In fact, he did not want to do anything ridiculous and lascivious. After all, this is a matter of killing the enemy five hundred and ruining himself. He just did not want to be so far away from him.

So he took advantage of Chu’s legs and took him back in a naive way, asking him to lean on himself.

Chu nightning moved away again, and he came back again.

In the end, Chu Ning couldn’t stand it anymore. He smashed him under the table, but he finally stopped.

The ink burned and laughed.

Chu night Ning said: "You are a sick person."

Two people have dinner.

The ink burned first looked at the night bowl of the Chu, and it was only a few simple vegetables, a piece of tofu, and the cage soup had already rushed to eat the other unfamiliar children on the table.

The ink burned and handed him the bamboo snack box.

"what?"

Ink burning small channel: "Small cage, six crab yellow, six shrimp, I am dedicated to you... Hey, don't make a sound, eat it soon, I know you went to the table, never grab someone else."

"..."

On a table, I was eating a small stove. This is too obvious. Chu Xiaoning felt a little shameful and unwilling to move. But when I saw the dark eyes of the ink, I looked at myself seriously and sincerely, and I still had some flour crumbs on my cheeks. If I refused, I couldn’t say anything.

What's more, the one that is specifically for you, it sounds very exciting.

Chu nightning did not speak, after a while, silently opened the food box, and then erected the bamboo box lid, where there was no silver and three hundred places to eat the delicious crab meat cage, the thick hot soup was blown The bullets are broken and the heart is warm.

"Is it delicious?" The man looked at him with hope, and he hoped to receive a look of appreciation.

Chu nighting bites and bites the chopsticks and says, "Not bad, you also taste one."

"I don't eat it, it's for you." The ink burned, and the black eyes were light and hot. "You like it, take a shrimp look?"

The man has no worries, and the flour on the cheeks is lined with a pair of black eyes, which makes people feel pitiful and cute.

Although Chu Evening still has some choices that are ignorant of ink burning, he does not understand why he would turn away from his teacher and turn to himself. But at this moment, the burning eyes are too pure and too determined, and no more is allowed. Let anyone who is stared at him feel at ease.

After dinner, the village chief invited everyone to go to the ancestral hall to watch the play. The stage was set up on the riverside. The gongs rang, Hu Qin plucked, and the table was born, the horns, the raw horns, the painted faces, the ugly corners, and debuted to the lively place. The dance, the face is shocked, the corner handcuffs go to the golden fire lock, the mouth contains the rosin nozzle, and the head drums screaming with anger and a spray, the fire is burning, the face of the bead is shining, and the audience is cheering. Cheer.

This kind of trick is not to be seen in the late Qing Dynasty. First, because the mortal drama is too boring, he can see through the mystery at a glance, and he loses a lot of fun and excitement. Second, because the people watching the movie are shoulder-to-shoulder, the scene is lively. Extraordinary, so that he has no blessings.

He was not interested, and the teacher did not have any interest. Both of them planned to leave. They did not speak, walked beside them, and finally looked back at the stage.

The teacher said gentlely: "Go, go back too late, and the Lord should be worried."

"Ok."

There is not much speech in the ink, and I keep up. However, after a few steps, I heard that Chu Xi Ning faintly asked: "Do you want to see?"

"It’s very interesting to play Wang Hao and Shi Chong Dou Fu."

He didn't say that he wanted to see it, and he didn't say he didn't want to see it, but Chu Xiaoning quietly listened to him saying this, and said: "Let's go back and watch it."

The teacher said: "Master, staying for dinner has delayed the delivery of the appointment, if you stay to see the show..."

Chu night Ningdao: "Look at this, go and read."

The teacher was very gentle and smiled and said, "Okay, listen to the teacher."

The three then returned to the stage and squeezed into the crowd that was buzzing. Many of Linyi’s people who had been away from the country had never been to Sichuan and Sichuan. They did not pass through the Sichuan opera. They were stunned by the flying sleeves and the sullen face. The little children could not see the table, and some were held by the adults. On the neck, some climbed onto the table and looked at them with their feet.

"Wang gave me the coral eucalyptus tree, the glory of Huaguang -"

On the stage, "Wang Hao" and "Shi Chong" squatted and climbed the rich and glory, blushing their necks and pressing the other side down.

"Fifty miles of purple silk shop back, who can be?"

"Good! Hahaha, come again!"

Everyone in the movie was full of light, and the children stuffed their cakes in their mouths, freeing their hands and slap the slap with the adults.

This is not a martial arts practice. No one is stupid enough to sit and watch a movie. It is a cold and cold scent of jasmine tea. The waiter pinches his back, the niece palms, and the air-conditioning under the stage forces the singers on the stage to sing. The taste is sorrowful, and a tyrant, Bie Ge, sounds like Wang Ba.

These people are so ugly and full of enthusiasm, all standing and applauding, squatting, rude, and lively. Chu Xiu Ning stood in the wave of the front chest and back, but did not know how to deal with it. People like him, who are boring like this, would rather sit in the upper circle and listen to Wang Ba, and would not like to watch Wang Qidou in the crowd. Shi Chong's.

Like him, there is another person who does not like this intense emotion.

The teacher stood for a while, it seems that the voice of the beggar shook a little headache, but still tempered to stand in the same place, until a big man next to him saw the "crushing the coral tree" and the blood was boiling, jumping off When I slammed it, I accidentally bumped into the tea that another man was holding, and the hot tea was all splashed on the front of the teacher.

"Oh! I can't help it! I can't help it!"

"Xianjun, I am really embarrassed. You see me as a big hand."

The teacher was busy: "It doesn't matter, it doesn't matter."

But the clothes were dirty and wet, and he sighed. Some helplessly said to Chu Ningning: "Master, or I will go back first, go back and change clothes, and then talk about the result of the appointment with Zun."

Chu night Ning said: "Well, be careful on your own path."

The teacher smiled and greeted the ink, and left. Chu night Ning thinks that he is good at getting rid of this technique, or is he looking for a personal collision? This way, you don't have to be overwhelmed by the crowds. I was thinking about it like this, and I heard that there was a burst of joy and joy around him. He looked up and looked up on the stage. It was the corner that dressed up as Wang Hao, and he played the anger, and the air was blowing, including the fire pack. Suddenly spit a huge heat flame on the river.

"boom--"

The river ripples and the waves are immersed in orange-red.

"Wow! Good!"

"Spoke again! Come again!"

"..." Chu Xiaoning did not understand some, this is what looks good... Let Xue Meng come over, you can burn a hundred times without a fire pack.

In the absence of interest, I suddenly saw the smile on the side, the tall man did not need to step on his feet, so he stood calmly, no one could block his sight. His handsome face was illuminated by fire, the dimples were deep, his eyes were soft but deep, and there seemed to be flashing people who were not really thinking.

Perceived the look of Chu Yuning, he turned back, but smiled more clearly, black eyes seemed to be a little moist, and there seemed to be nothing, just the illusion of Chu Yuning.

"When I was a child, I often went to the theater to listen to this. Every time I couldn’t wait for the show, I was driven away by the uncle who was in charge of the matter." The tone of the ink burned casually and peacefully. "This is the first time that the whole listens to the whole audience." ...I don’t like the teacher?”

"..."

Chu night Ning looked at his nephew and finally said.

"Well, not bad."

The ink burns and smiles, and the night seems to be bright. The stage sings and sings, and when it comes out, it rises and rises, and the eyebrows are like smoke, the feathers are rustling, the king is full of enthusiasm, and why?

"Oh, Farewell My Concubine." The ink turned and looked at him and smiled. "Let's go, Fighting is finished, I am satisfied, let's go back."

"Look at it for a while."

"Ok?"

“It’s not boring, it’s fine to have a few more.”

The ink burned slightly and raised his eyebrows. It seemed to be a surprise. Then he smiled and said: "Okay."

Biechi, Jinshan Temple, sentenced to double nails, sitting on the floor to kill.

One after another, no one left, and as time went by, people became more excited and spirited.

There are old grandfathers who are following the grandmother on the stage: "Good words, three winters, and bad words hurt people in June -"

In the fierce place, Song Jiang violently murdered, won the full house applause, applause even overshadowed the aria of the stage, Chu Ning was drunk and the villagers smiled and shook their shoulders, but the end is no way to retreat, and It’s not easy to attack. It was just when it was difficult, a pair of warm hands clasped his shoulders.

He turned his head and was facing the burning eyes. The man did not know when he had stood behind him, smiled and brought him over, letting him lean on himself and no longer be disturbed by the people around him.

For a time, those laughter sounds, the drums sounded well, and they all became so far away. Chu night Ning’s ear was slightly hot, and the ink burned for a moment, eventually turned his face and refused to marry him.

It’s just that the temperature behind it is so hot, the breath is so hot, the strong chest sticks to him, and the big fingers with his knuckles are close to his shoulders. When the leather drum is denser, the fire-breathing scene is out again, and people's eyes are attracted, screaming and slap.

Chu Xi Ning also wants to take a hard shot and follow his hand to make a calm decision.

But the hand has not yet lifted up, and the whole person has been smoldered from behind. Perhaps it is because I feel that no one will notice it, or it may be the tighter fit by the people around me, or perhaps just because in such a grand excitement, I would like to be closer to the intimate person, and closer. Hate can not be integrated into one, blood and blood.

In short, the ink hangs down, hugs him from behind, puts him in his arms, his arms are in his arms, and the back side faces his face, and at the moment when the fire on the stage reflects the night, he kisses Chu. Late Ning's ear roots.

The flames burst into flames, reflecting the face of the play and burning into the hearts of the guests.

"Thank you for accompanying me." The ink burned in his ear and said that the voice was low and dumb, very gentle. "I know, actually, you don't like it."

"...I want more, I like it."

The ink burned and smiled, no longer talking, holding him tighter, and his chin was between his neck.

The fire flashed, and Chu Ning suddenly wanted to ask a word, so he said: "Ink, why are you..."

"Ha ha ha, good!"

His voice was weak and he was swallowed up by the screaming voice.

Ink burning asked: "What?"

"...nothing." Chu Xiaoning's face was reddish and covered with thin anger. He didn't want to ask the second time, and he exhausted all his strengths. He felt very annoyed at the moment. Do not want to speak again.

The ink burned for a while. He didn't actually understand the problem of late Ning, but suddenly said: "The person I like has always been you."

"..."

The heartbeat suddenly became intense.

"It’s always been you, I’m too stupid, I can’t tell my mind.”

Hey, the heart is like a drum, and the buzz on the stage seems to be covered by the reverberation in his chest.

"Sorry."

"..."

"I have let you wait for a long time."

There are fireworks in front of you, and the ears are ringing, everything can’t be heard, and the sky is spinning. I don’t know if the foot is on the ground or in the clouds. Only the person behind him is real. The wind has no color and no trace. Nowadays, it has become the smoldering atmosphere of the nose.

Chu nightning does not actually want to hear too much explanation. What he wants is affirmation of the person who loves it. At this point, I suddenly got this affirmation, and I couldn’t find out everything around me. I felt dizzy and felt that everything was full of colors. He couldn’t think, couldn’t move, and was immersed in this fierce oily color, eventually losing five senses. .

Chapter 185

When the consciousness came back and could barely perceive what they were doing, Chu Jingning vaguely felt that they did not know when they had gone out from the crowds, and in the nearest wood they could find, they were kissing intensely. Breathing each other is hot and rapid.

Thirsty.

They are all eager for the long-awaited person. The way to kiss the lingering is radical and anxious, and even some crazy, the throat is rolling, swallowing, screaming and licking, and even some blood, but no one can detect it, no one stops. Come down.

The smoldering put him on the tree, the rough wooden lines cling to his slightly trembling back, and there seemed to be a string of sounds coming from far away, but that was not important, all the sounds were broken regardless of distance. The only thing that is separated is the breathing of each other.

The lips and tongue are moist, rough and squeaky, and entangled and tumbled.

I don't know shame...

Chu nightning is not willing to lose, but he has always abstained from desire, and the desire of the other party to suddenly appear is so horrible, almost fierce beast, to bite his throat and eat his flesh and blood.

He didn't know why he would become like this. When he got to this point, he didn't know if he was right or wrong, and then what to do.

This ritual, abstinence, restraint, loneliness, and every step of the way will be the one hundred steps of the man, as if it was torn at this moment, was destroyed.

Only his reluctance to engrave into the bone marrow, the sea is still supporting his driftwood, he refused to show weakness, even if the back has long been numb, the soul is like taking time, he is still willing to take the initiative, not to do a soft to break The things in the palm of your hand.

Unfortunately, although the ambition is sufficient, the skill is extremely poor.

It was worse than the ink burned more than once by his lips and teeth, the strength did not converge, biting the tip of the tongue, it was sweet blood, the worse the breath, the redder the face, the more difficult the breathing is.

At the end of the ink, I laughed. I only felt that I was hard-working and had no level of truth. It was really a pity to teach people.

His once chilly heart was turned away, and it became a spring water, a lake full of thousands of golden waves, and a soft golden wave.

When they are separated, there are sticky water filaments between the lips and tongues. Their lips are red and wet. The eyes are full of tenderness and desire. The sound of the ink is hoarse and the water vapor is very heavy. He looks down at the night. The scorpion, the rough fingertips, rubbed the cheeks of Chu’s lateness.

Chu Evening also knows that his level is so bad that he is irritating, but he is unwilling to think. He narrows his eyes and is actually a coercive tone asking: "What are you laughing at?"

Seeing that the ink does not answer, but the bottom of the eyes smiles deeper, he is more annoying.

"I don't do it... isn't it?"

The smoldering smile finally floated on the corner of his lips. He hugged him again. This time he was facing each other face to face. The same tall and straight man’s body was held together, and there was no such thing as a man and a woman. Strong flames, heavier sparks.

"Which is wrong, it is very right." The smoldering relatives rubbed his hair top, and the back ears pondered, "Master is the best..."

"Then you still laugh!"

The ink burned and smiled low, the chest was hot and hard, but the heart was softer and softer.

"My reaction is not just a smile."

Chu Evening has not understood this deep meaning, and the deeper his posture with the ink burns, from the close-up of the upper body to the overlapping of the whole body, he suddenly feels that this person’s swordsmanship is extremely fierce and enthusiasm fits with himself. Breathing is slightly moving, it feels so exciting, so intense, so lively, scalp tingling, heartbeat stall, chilling, but throat tight, dry.

This thing made Chu Xi Ning suddenly realize that this seemingly gentle man in front of him is actually aggressive, how aggressive, and how violent it is, so that a blood and a flesh can make people's lives and tear the organs.

His hair was upside down and he wanted to push him away, but his hand had not yet lifted up. The shape of the ink was full and the hot lips were kissed again. It was hot and hot, containing his lips and sucking. kiss. The man breathed and blazed, and together, his fierce body was constantly attached to the Chu-Ningning through the clothes. Chu nightning was lost because of this terrible eagerness. The hot and hot tongue had invaded his mouth. He was hungry and thirsty, and kissed him in obsessively. He smashed him. At the end, Chu’s mind was blank. They are all soft and numb...

He shook a little, because of the excitement, because of the strange feeling of powerlessness, because of the hard heat, because of the burning passion of burning.

On that day, Chu Evening didn't know how he was going back to life. What he did was like a stupid, no gods. The only thing I remember when I was in front of the Honglian Water Margin, they wheezed in the night. I have been hugged and hungry for a long time. I can’t help but devour my lover and eroticism. How is it enough...not enough...

Between the blurs, he remembered that the smoldering whispered him, and let him allow him to sleep to the red lotus water tonight. Chu nightning was basically using the last Qingming, only to gasp, reluctantly call back some rationality, no answer.

He doesn't know why he doesn't agree. It may be inexplicable self-esteem. It may be that he has been unable to adapt for too long, or he may be ruthless. He feels that all this is ridiculous. Although it is infinitely attractive, it is too late to prevent it. It is too fast. .

It’s hard to break free □□, break free from smoldering, and Chu 宁 扉 扉 , , , 楚

He knows that his strings have been stretched to the extreme. If you look back at this moment, I am afraid that you will lose weight, and you will not be able to push the people in front of you.

They will be burnt to ashes, and there will be no residue left.

When I went back to bathe and change clothes, Chu nightning found that her trousers were moist, and the smell of sweet squeaking made him blush, and he was overwhelmed. Even the cold phoenix tipped red, thin and thin sea otter Color.

He stayed in the same place for a long time, he couldn't help but think, how could this be like this? How is this happening?

In his life, he has never been so ruined, so passive, never.

Damn, what should he do?

In the past, Chu Jingning encountered any problem that was difficult to solve. His subconscious reaction was to seek a solution in the book. Therefore, he had read a lot of books since childhood, and his mind was full of enthusiasm.

This is the first time that the file that is full of enthusiasm cannot give him an answer.

So he caught it, and he didn’t know what to do.

Fortunately, the smoldering seems to understand him very much. After being rejected once, he will understand the sorrow and anxiety of Chu’s heart, and will not continue to venture.

But the intimacy between them is no longer limited to holding hands. They will kiss intensely in the alley behind Meng Po Tang. After nightfall, they will go to a deserted forest where no one is in love. The ink is a person with few love words. Sometimes even if he asked what he asked, he would answer anything, but his eyes would speak, and there would be sweet words and tender feelings, but he was stupid, not expressive, and not well expressed.

Many times, compared to the mouth hanging, ink burning is more willing to do it directly.

And inexplicably, Chu nightning thinks that he always feels good about what he wants, obviously they are just together, but occasionally Chu will rather feel that the ink seems to have used this identity and stays with him. Years.

As the days drifted, the time they kissed and hugged together became longer and longer, but they also became more and more unsatisfied with the desire/fire. Almost every time they separated, they were all inexhaustible, and they were all swelled.

Chu nightning is still good. After all, he has been repairing for many years. He is very capable, but the ink is not the same. He and Chu’s late life are not the same kind of mind, let alone young people, bloody, really Every time the meeting is over, he has no way to get up and go back.

Too obvious, the clothes can't be blocked, and people will be embarrassed.

He really endured too much pain.

On this day, after dinner, they entangled a small half hour in an inaccessible place near Houshan, but there was a gathering of elders in the evening. Chu nighting counted the time and felt that it was almost the same, and said that he had to leave. But the ink burned the time, and felt that it was too late to let him go -

The way he refused was rather rude, not to say, but to go directly to him.

There are some abandoned landscaped mountains and rocks in this wood. The ink burns on one of the stones. He holds him and faces him and sits on his lap. This position is usually slightly shorter. For the person sitting on the lap, but the original burning of the ink is high, so that it coincides with the late night of the Chu, not showing any disadvantage.

He kissed it for a long time, from the lips to the neck, biting the throat of the night, and hearing the other person's low and depressed breathing, the burning of the ink was even more uncomfortable.

Chu nightning can not stand, he wants to get out, he wants to go, but the waist is soft, legs and feet are actually not listening. This hug posture has been very popular recently, so you can look at him intimately, and it is a tingling tension. Chu Evening can even imagine how it would be heartbreaking if there is no dress as a screen. Sight.

Perhaps it is really near the threshold, even if the intense kiss can not relieve the desire, but the oil on the fire, the more burning.

When the smoldering loosened the wet red lips, his eyes were all tidal. He gasped deeply and his throat rolled sexyly. He concentrated on gazing at the late night, seemingly want to say something, but in the end he said nothing but just again. I bite it up.

It's really biting up, and Chu's night feels painful, but it's very irritating, and the needles are sore and shuddering.

The man is trapped by love, and there is a whisper of wrinkles in his throat. He embraces the person in his arms and strokes the dark hair. He only feels that his master is so good, he can't wait to be heartbroken. I feel that I am a temptation to be a teacher, to make people want to swear, and bully hard...

In the quiet air, the original breath is getting more and more heavy. Chu nighting is looking up and shaking his eyes, it is very difficult to receive. This kind of hug and kiss is already itching. He is so uncomfortable, let alone hold this one. Young man.

The end of the ink burning is red, slightly moist.

He whispered quietly, his voice was hoarse, some were forbearing, and he was wronged: "Master..."

"..."

"Please, I can't stand it..."

Can't stand it, what do you want to do? Chu nightning thought of those broken and fuzzy dreams, the tail vertebrae slammed on the squall, he did not make a sound, the ears were red, and could not stand it... What is it going to be...

Before the ink burns again, he has been kissed by the wet red lips. Chu nightning whispered, almost unspeakable: "That... don't be here."

Don't be here, you can have more, in other places.

The ink burned his head and slammed his head. It was almost a surprise, and then he kissed him awkwardly, trying to hold him up.

Chu nightning only felt shame to the extreme, and the anger could not be stopped: "Let me let me down!"

The ink burned him down, but he did not forget to kiss him: "Where does the teacher want to go?"

When Chu Ning was still able to speak in the future, he heard the noise of the grasshoppers in the vicinity. He was shocked and shocked. His mind was suddenly clear and clear, and he suddenly pushed the ink off.

The two were separated, and they saw a man coming from the darkness of the bamboo forest, carrying a swaying wind lamp in his hand, and the clothes were swaying in the wind.

The man was silent for a long time, and his voice sounded, even if he was depressed, he was full of horror and stunned.

"You... how are you here?"

Chapter 186

The appearance of the person is beautiful, the black and white eyes are round and the wind is shining on his face.

Xue Meng.

Chu Xiaoning couldn't speak for a while. He didn't know how much Xue Meng saw, how much he heard, and after a few silences, it was the first to break the silence.

"I have something, I am talking to Master."

Xue Meng slightly narrowed his eyes, and he just came over and vaguely heard the low gasping sound in the woods. He thought that it was a pair of disciples who did not know how to be insulted and ruthless.

This kind of thing is reasonable to say that Xue Meng is not qualified to manage. The top ten sects except the Wushou Temple and the Shangqing Pavilion, no one is forbidden to talk about love and double repair. Although there is a so-called "obscenity / quit" in the life and death, it also means "not allowed to visit the kiln" and "the relationship is not allowed to be awkward."

But who is Xue Meng?

He is a disciple of Chu Xiaoning, the chief disciple.

For so many years, Xue Meng has always regarded the things that Chu Yuning said and done as his own benchmarking principle. Since Chu Xiaoning does not like to see other people privately accepting and receiving, pulling and pulling, then Xue Meng does not care about Sanqi 20. Also followed by contempt for the pair of Taoist hands, tired of the pair of love and double repair.

Houshan is a place where ghosts and enchantments are easily damaged. In such a place, Qingqing, me, what is the system? Xue Meng was not happy at the moment, carrying lanterns to find fault.

He never imagined that under the flashing lights, the two people would be illuminated.

Xue Meng was stunned and stunned. So he didn’t even say hello to Chu’s greetings, but he blurted out – how are you here.

This place is not broken and does not need to be repaired.

There are no vanilla flowers, no scenery at all.

Being in a remote location, you can’t stroll around here.

If you usually ask Xue Meng: "There are two people, the black light is bonfire, the silence is everywhere, the swaying Yangguan Road is not gone, and the bird garden is not sitting in the back garden of the flowery mountain. You must go to a secluded place to be secluded. The place to talk, the Lord, what do you think?"

Xue Meng will sneer and say, "What can you say in that place? Love?"

If you ask him again: "These two are men, have known each other for a long time, are unmarried, and their status is quite similar. What do the Lord think they are?"

Xue Meng will definitely turn his eyes and say: "What is the relationship? Longyang's shackles, broken sleeves, disgusting."

At this point, he said to him again: "Haha, the Lord is not saying what is wrong. In fact, these two people are a pair of apprentices.

Xuemeng Bacheng will not listen to the words, and he will scream and scream, saying: "Awful! What kind of body is it?! Which is a pair of animals that are ruthless? I immediately expelled them from the gates and drove them out of death!" ”

But this time just tell him that this pair of mentoring, one called ink rain, and one called Chu nightning, then Xue Meng must, must, will hold it, flashing all kinds of colorful colors on the surface Finally, I sat down on my forehead and said, "What, what I said before is not counted, you, you, you, you have to ask the same paragraph again, start from scratch. I think there must be a second possibility. ”

- That's it.

Xue Meng is absolutely not, and it is really impossible to bring Chu Yuening and any chaotic, unruly and careless things together, so he immediately felt that he had just got it wrong.

But he still felt a mess in his head and muttered to himself: "Is there anything to say here?"

Chu night Ning is trying to explain, but the ink burns under the cover of wide sleeves, gently pinching his hand and motioning him not to speak.

If this person is lying, the three-year-old child can't lie, but it is better to come by himself.

Then the ink burned: "I found a sweet-scented osmanthus cake here before the evening."

Chu nightning: "..."

Xue Mengdi: "What?"

“A sweet-scented sweet-scented osmanthus rice cake.” The ink burned a serious saying, “It’s only about ten inches high, with a lotus leaf on the head and a tail, and a blue light on the tail.”

"What kind of monster is this? I have never seen it in the illustrations."

The ink burned and laughed: "I have never seen it, so I wonder if it will be the ruin of the town demon pagoda of Confucianism in the past few days, and let out some of the already extinct monsters, take the teacher to see."

Listening to him, Xue Meng was relieved. He didn't know why he felt relieved in his heart. The face that was stretched from the moment was finally revived. He walked over with the wind, and looked around and asked, "Have you found the rice cake strange?"

"No."

Xue Meng stared at him: "I didn't ask you again, I asked the teacher."

Chu night Ning said: "...not found."

The ink burned and laughed: "The sugar rice cake is afraid to see the master, and I am afraid that it will be eaten by the teacher after the meal, and I will immediately hide."

Chu night, a glimpse, and then angered: "Mini rain! You want to go to the library to copy books?"

So much trouble, Xue Meng's feeling of uneasiness gradually disappeared, and he sighed in his heart, he was really, just now there is such a moment, the fuzzy will feel that the teacher and the burning guy are somewhat unclear. Guage... It’s ridiculous, how is it possible.

His master is the coldest of the world, the holy water, no one can touch it, and no one can defile him.

At this time, the ink burned him: "Tell so much, talk about you, what are you doing here?"

Xue Meng said: "I am going to find a vegetable bag for my mother."

The ink burned Yang Meiyu: "Is the fat cat that Xinyi came back?"

"Ok."

"Orange, there is a king pattern on the head, only the one that eats fish without meat?"

"Yeah, have you seen it yet?" Xue Meng sighed and looked very helpless. "So fat, but can run very well. I found the back mountain from the former mountain. I can go everywhere where people can go. Its shadow..." He suddenly thought of something, squinting his eyes and wondering, "Ah! You said it would be eaten by the rice cake blame?"

"..."

In fact, I really want to laugh, but I still hold back and turn it into a light cough: "This, my sugar rice cake is so small, although it is only a monster, but it is useless. If it is a vegetable bag, it should be worried." It’s not the orange cat, it’s a sugar cake.”

Xue Meng touched his chin and thought about the size of the dish. He agreed: "Yes... you are right..."

Chu night Ningdao: "The mountains are dangerous, don't go any further, I will help you find them."

Xue Meng is busy waving his hand: "Don't dare to work hard."

Chu night Ningdao: "There is nothing left to do, look for you for a while, then I will go to the Danxin Temple to go to the Presbyterian Church, and burn together, find it faster."

Ink burning: "..."

He is very convinced and late, and Chu Xiaoning thinks that his body is like a fire. If he wants to burn it, he wants to put it out and put it out. Actually, let him stand up and look for a cat at this time? ... he has not yet disappeared.

Xue Meng saw that he did not move, and his face was different, he asked: "What happened to you?"

Ink burning: "Nothing, I have been uncomfortable since I just started. You should find it first. I will come soon."

Chu night Ning gave him a look, then I realized that the clothing of the ink-burning is not the same as myself. The ink-burning habit is wearing a black-gold blouse that fits evenly. It looks very strong and crisp on weekdays, and is also very suitable for fighting. But the defects are also very obvious. If there is no cover on the outside, it will be obvious once the lower body reacts fiercely.

"..." Chu nightning did not speak again. In the darkness, a teacher’s cold and cold face was red, like the evening glow on the clear ice, the cold and the warmth merged, and the smudged crystal clear Huaguang.

From that day on, Chu Yuning said that he would not like to sneak into the shackles of death and death.

It happened that I was busy all the time. The sects felt that Xu Shuanglin lived for one day. They turned to "Tianyin Pavilion" - that is a public review organization independent of the top ten sects. It is good at investigating and dealing with difficult problems. However, Xu Shuanglin's work is too ruthless, leaving no clues. Tianyinge said that he can help.

At the end of the month, Li Wuxin couldn't stand it anymore. He sent a hero post and invited the head of the big martial art. The elders of the main event went to Lingshan to discuss.

Chu Xiaoning and Xue Zhengyi naturally went.

The last time the group gathered together in Lingshan, or when Xuemeng Nangong smashed their swords, the pattern of the cultivation of the realm changed dramatically. The seat that originally belonged to the Confucianist Gate was empty, and the Fire Phoenix Pavilion was also devastated. The new head was a speech. After the birth of the 磕巴, shrinking in the pile of people does not scream, the masters of the mourning temple of the mourning temple are cautious, and do not preside over the ugly things...

Xue Zhengxuan recalled that the day when the heroes arrived, the scene of harmony and temperament felt as if they were separated from the world, and they could not help but give a low lament.

Sitting on it, Jiang Yan was pushed to be the first master, and he will be supervised by him. This person is completely different from the former first Nangong Liu. Nangong Liu smiled all day, regardless of his status, he was polite and did not like to offend people.

What about Jiang Yan?

The head of the public only showed the result of the singer's vote, and asked him to preside over it. He was already cold and faint, and he sat down uncomfortably on the former Nangong Liu sitting in the respect of the position.

Before Nangong Liu sat in this position, he tried to quit, but Sanfan did, and how much always made the modest and courteous play. After sitting up, he even said the words of the crown of half an hour, and he could see it. More to carry, there is a lot of mistakes, and spit.

Jiang Yan has three words.

"It should be."

He actually said that this position should be where he sat.

Jiang Zhangmen, rich is really rich, madness is really mad, bad temper is really bad, the skin is really thick.

Xue Zhengxuan suddenly remembered one thing, and whispered and sighed at night: "He didn't come to Lingshan Conference, more than once."

Chu Yuening did not understand these disputes, and he was slightly embarrassed: "How do you say?"

"I mean, since Nangong Liu became the first master, Confucianism was recognized as the first big faction, and Jiang Yan did not come to any head meeting..."

Chu Xiaoning looked at Jiang Yan for a while and said: "This person is very proud and can not help but fall under the waste."

Xue Zhengyi is a bit embarrassed: "I am not willing to stay under the waste."

Chu night Ning smiled lightly: "Respecting the Lord is forbearance, not counting."

As I spoke, there was a lonely moon and night with the waiters, stopping at their desks, making a ceremony, and then holding a box.

Xue Zhengxuan turned back and said, "What is it?"

The shooking head, pointing to the ear, and pointing to the mouth, was a servant who could not speak or hear the sound.

Chu nightning watched him back and forth, and found that this person is different from the ordinary solitary night disciple, with a silver snake-shaped collar around his neck.

"The cold scale holy hand...?"

The dumb servant found that Chu Ning was looking at his collar, nodded and groaned again, and raised the box over his head and presented it to him.

There was also a delicate snake-shaped coat on the box. Xue Zhengyi saw it and said to Chu Yuening: "He should belong directly to the cold scales."

He said, he went to sit on the side of the lonely moon night, and he saw the world's first medicine master, the cold scale holy hand, Hua Binan, wearing a veil hat, revealing a pair of eyes, quietly staring They are here.

Chapter 187

Seeing that Chu Ning turned his head, Hua Binan seemed to have a smile in his eyes. He extended a white and delicate hand from the broad blue-panel silk gown sleeves, gently spread the stalls forward, indicating Chu Yuning. The box in front of the hand.

Chu Xiaoning nodded and said to the dumb servant: "Thank you."

The dumb servant saw him take the box, and this was low and a sigh, and went back to the master.

Xue Zhengyi was surprised: "Yu Heng, do you know the cold scales?"

"I don't know." Chu Xiaoning looked at the box in front of him. "I don't need to spend 2.5 million gold in Xuanyuan to buy his musk dew."

"What does he give you this?"

"I don't know." Chu said, "Let's open it."

The brocade box was opened, and the inside was neatly tidy, and five bottles of warm and lush musk dew were also available, along with a letter.

Chu Xi Ning opened it and read it. The content on the letter is also simple. It is said that Chu Zongshi spent a high price on the Xuanyuan Pavilion and took the dew. He felt that the fragrance was not worth the price. He always wanted to drink five bottles, but he never took the opportunity. Meet the guru, and now Lingshan will be alive for a while, and Wang Jun will accept it.

Xue Zhengyi immediately said: "I think he wants to make you."

"..."

This kind of gift, if it is not received, is to smash the right side, Chu night Ning Yao has thanked Hua Binan, but gave the box to Xue Zhengyi.

Xue Zhengxi said: "Give me?"

"...to the elders of the greedy wolf." Chu said, "I always feel that this Hua Bingnan is a bit strange. Xuanyuange shoots so many high-priced drugs every year, it is all high, he can compensate one by one. ?"

Xue Zheng said: "I don't think it's strange. After all, high prices are there. High is as outrageous as you are. I heard it for the first time."

Chu night Ning noodles have a thin anger, said: "But there is nothing but what is outrageous. In short, you give these five bottles to the greedy wolf, I think there is no poison here, but it should be no, but let the greed The preparation of some musk deco is not a waste."

"You don't need it?"

"I……"

It is also strange to say that those absurd and real dreams have become less and less recently. Except for the few days just coming out of the Confucianism, occasionally dreaming of some fragmented scenes, the rest of the night is a good dream.

Drinking the fragrant dew, it is also a violent thing, Chu nightning feels no need to keep such a good pharmacy.

Lingshan stayed for two or three days, and when it came back to death, the ink burned out.

Xue Mengdao: "Besides the demon."

Chu night Ning's eyebrows have a thin mark: "There are demon? The nineteenth this month."

"It’s all run out of the Confucianist Golden Drum Tower." Xue Meng sighed. "A lot of people have been caught in our Tongtian Tower, but the Tongtian Tower is no bigger than the Golden Drum Tower. The tower is small and inlaid with a stone charm." There is no such thing as a Confucianist door. If you continue to do so, it is afraid that the tower will not be able to withstand it."

Xue Zhengxuan said: "The next time Li is unwilling to come again, let him take a little to the Bitan Mountain Villa, the town is in his Holy Spirit Tower."

Xue Meng smiled: "This is also a good idea."

Xue Zhengxuan said: "You can also divide a little moon night. I heard that their star-tower is bigger than the Golden Drum Tower of the Confucian Gate..."

This time, Xue Meng did not want to, with his black eyebrows, angered: "Don't!"

"what happened?"

"I don't like the * dog. He hates it. I don't want to give him the monster he is holding in the door!"

Chu night Ning shook his head and refused to listen to their father and son again, and then left.

He went to sleep and fell asleep, and it was really a good night's sleep, no old dreams, and when he woke up, it was already bloody, and the night was full of half a day, only a trace of blood in the evening was left in the sky.

At this time, Meng Potang had no food, but he was a little hungry, packed his clothes, pushed out, prepared to go to the impermanent town and take a snack.

As a result, it happened to see the ink burned away from the demon, and walked on the long-term bluestone leading to the red lotus.

When I saw him, the ink burned: "Master, listen to the uncle saying that you are sleeping, just want to wake you up."

"Is there something?"

"Nothing," he said. "Just want to come to you and walk together."

It’s a coincidence that Chu Yuning felt a little joy because of the coincidence between them. In the affection, a little bit of a vote is worthy of a comfortable mood.

"Where to go?"

But they are asking together.

Chu night Ning stunned, and the ink burned.

Then he said: "Listen to you."

They are all said together.

Chu’s ten fingers were slightly pinched in the sleeves, sweating in the fingers, black eyes and hot eyes, but calmly and calmly watching the ink.

The ink burned and couldn't help but grin.

"All is good."

Chu Xiaoning is actually very happy, but he is still accustomed to faint, even if his happiness is not light, very rich, like the Xiqiao Begonia flower with pale branches.

He said: "Let's go, go to the town to see, eat something."

He didn't even ask how the ink burned out the demon, and it didn't go smoothly. They were now intentional and deliberate. They were tacit. When he stood outside the bamboo pole, he sang in black and hunted, and the edge of the dark golden grass was in the night. With a glimmer of light, he understood that everything was well, no need to say anything.

They came to the town of impermanence together.

These years, the impermanent town is getting better and better, from the original Sanheng Street, three vertical streets, to today's Liuheng Street, five vertical streets, almost a whole circle.

"When I first came to the top of my life, the house was closed yet, and the house was closed. The incense ash was sprinkled outside the courtyard. The gossip mirror was hung on the door, and the soul bell was attached to the temple." Chu Yuening looked at the people coming and going. The scene of the first light of Hua Deng said, "Now the name of this town has not changed, the rest will soon be recognized."

The ink burned and laughed: "There is a life and death, and it will only be better in the future."

The two walked along the bluestone main street that had been re-paved in the town, blowing sugary people along the way, pulling the shadows of the movie, spending the stalls selling snacks and grilling, eating the shabu-shabu, dazzling, boiling against the sky, hanging on the street. Rows of lanterns, according to the night market, lively fireworks.

The ink burned the stall of the shabu-shabu, and remembered that he, Xue Meng and Xia Shiru had once eaten here together, and then laughed and took Chu Yuning: "Master, eat this, this family has you the most. Love to drink soy milk."

They were seated on the squeaky bamboo chair. It was very cold, but the master chef of the side dish was very hot. He was shirtless and sweaty. He moved over and asked: "Two sages, what do you want?" ?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Shabu-shabu."

The ink burns: "The mushroom soup pot."

"... don't you want to eat spicy?"

The ink burns and smiles, and the voice is gentle and gentle: "I want to quit."

Chu night Ning stunned, vaguely understand why the ink burning suddenly refused to eat spicy, it seems that there are fish swimming in the lake, and in the heart of the pool, a bubble, the water waves.

"You don't have to quit..."

Ink burning: "No, I just like it."

"..."

"Likes the ring, I want to quit." He looked at the night, and the thick lashes swayed and fell on the reddish ears of the other, laughing.

The latter part of the sentence never said anything again -

Want to be like you, when eating hot pot, two pairs of chopsticks can reach into a lively pot, no longer a red and white, clear and distinct.

The ink burned and ordered some stir-fried dishes. Unfortunately, the delicate dessert was not made on the small stall. He ordered three soy milk bottles filled with fat porcelain pots, and then sat down and waited for the dishes.

Surrounded by people who eat, men, women and children, black hair hoarfrost, the steam of the soup pot is rolled up, the fire of the pot is rising, sipping and punching, jokes and lusts, all in this hot fire, the wine Warmth gathers into the gentleness of a lake and a sea.

The world is so ordinary, the red dust is so lively.

Before the fifteen years old, the hunger was hard to eat, and they could not eat these good wines.

After the emperor's emperor, the 10,000 people, but still can not get this kind of true peace.

It’s all there now.

Suddenly, the fire tongue swelled up. It turned out that the man with the spoon was simmering in the pot, and the fire was rolled up from the cauldron. The shirtless man was covered with a layer of delicate copper oil, and the oil and salt sauce was in turn. The muscles are shaking, and a plate of stir-fry is ready to go out.

It was the time of the heat, and I immediately came to the table.

"The oil bursts double crisp!" The younger brother who smashed his hand shouted.

In the past, the stepping of the fairy king, all kinds of good food can not please, but I do not know why, was actually ridiculed by this "oily double crisp", he slender ten fingers overlap, point the line of smooth chin, a pair of long and deep The eyelashes are slightly moving, and the brilliance of the five lakes and the sea are gathered at the moment on the two curtains of ink, and the darkness is dyed brightly.

Chu night Ning asked: "What are you laughing at?"

"I don't know, I am very happy."

Chu Xiaoning did not speak, but the smile of the handsome man opposite the fascinating, inexplicable, let his heart also brighten up.

After eating, I looked up at the sky and thought it was going to rain, but the people underneath seemed to carelessly, and they still used this brilliant night in an orderly manner.

They walked through a lantern shop, and the ink burned and stopped, standing there and watching.

Chu Xi Ning looked down at his gaze. It turned out that the old craftsman was carefully smeared with a pagoda lantern. Another one was very similar, and it was already done. There was a seat underneath, a river lantern.

"Old man, trouble, please give me this pagoda lamp."

I didn’t ask for a price, and I didn’t ask if I didn’t like it.

Chu Xiening walked over and handed the golden leaves to the old age, squatting at the old man who was seriously doing the light, and then handed the river lantern to the disciple standing behind him.

"Hold."

The ink is stunned and happy, and even a bit stunned: "Give me?"

Chu night Ning did not speak, carrying half a pot of wine that was not finished at dinner, looked around, and his eyes fell on the side of the small river, he walked over there.

The lights were bright and dark, and the fire was shining and shining, and the lights were dazzled.

The ink burned the river lantern and muttered: "I want to put it once when I was young, and I have no money every year."

"Yeah." Chu night Ning looked at him faintly. "You are the poorest."

The ink burned.

The river flows quietly and quietly, and Chu nightning is not willing to go down to the stone steps. He is lazy, so he is so leisurely holding his arms under the covered bridge. The white road is leaning against the dark black bridge pillar, holding the tie. The jug of fresh red tassels took a sip on his head and then turned his face slightly. The red lanterns of the horns were sprinkled on the delicate face of his porcelain jade. His expression was light, but his eyes could not hide the temperature. Then look at the happy man on the bank of the river, holding a river lamp, awkward hands and feet.

Fool, this is fun.

But still eyes stunned, slammed into the river, whispering a lot of words and pagoda lights, and finally leaned over and gently put it on the river, a golden glow reflected in the Weihe River In the middle, the ink burned the two waters and sent them to the float.

On that day, the ink burned for a long time along the dark river.

Not a holiday, except for him, there are no other people on the river to put lights.

Only a small pagoda lantern, exuding a faint and stubborn glory, traveled far and wide in the infinite long night cold water, and then became a little stunned starburst, finally swallowed by the darkness and disappeared.

The ink burned silently standing there, and no one knew what he was thinking.

He saw the last.

Until the river, no more light.

It’s raining, thunderstorms.

Raindrops hit the duckweed, knocking on the wall and smashing the tiles.

Everyone laughed and shouted, and there was little sudden and heavy rain in the winter. The stall vendors rushed to cover the pots and pans used to make the living, the tools and utensils, and pushed the small carts in a hurry. Escape, to hide this heavy rain.

Chu nightning was also a bit sloppy at the moment, although the horror was not far away, but it was not winter at this time, and the rain was too anxious.

He stood under the covered bridge, the rain hit the wind, only wet his little clothes corner, but the ink rushed from the bottom of the river beach, the clothes were wet, his face was wet, his eyes were wet, very black.

Looking at him, some gentle, and a little embarrassed smile.

"Open a spell and dry it yourself."

"Ok."

Such heavy rain does not prevent the immortals from traveling, especially the masters of the ink-burning and Chu-nighting, a small enchantment can be cleanly returned to the dead.

But none of them opened the enchantment, but stood side by side under the pillars and waited for the rain to stop.

After waiting for a long time, the rain did not mean to weaken, the world was foggy and eager, and the extraordinary night market was just disappearing, like the watercolor that was diluted by the cold rain, wet ink painting.

The ink burned: "This rain does not seem to stop."

Chu night Ning faintly said: "This rain is like, it is sick."

The ink burned and laughed, smiled for a while, turned to the head and said to Chu Ning: "What to do, can't go back."

"..."

Chu Xiaoning knows that he should answer him "Do you not practice the Tao?" "Would you open an enchantment?" "Why can't you go back?"

But he was silent for a while, but he didn't know why but didn't say anything, but he didn't have peace of mind. He just looked up and looked at the rain.

His palms are slightly hot, and there are some sweats between the fingers.

I was thinking about how to answer, but my hand was caught by the smoldering, his slight tremor, the slight heat, the slight sweat, and the unsettled, all fell into the ink Hands.

The ink burned at him, half a sigh, and the throat was moving: "Master, I, I want to talk to you..."

When I talked to my mouth, I couldn’t say it, but my heart was numb and I couldn’t swallow.

At the end of the day, he was wet and hot in the black box. In a word, he said that he was eager and subtle, concealed and embarrassed. He whispered: "I mean... the rain is too big, don't go back tonight, road So far, it will catch cold."

Chu nightning did not react, and said a moment, "I am not cold."

"So are you hot?"

"I am not hot..."

The ink burned and the breath was hot, and the chest was ups and downs. Before he answered the words, he held his hand and put it on the beating heart. He whispered, "I am hot."

Rain hit the duckweed.

But Chu Xiaoning saw the fire from his eyes and saw the melt flow and midsummer.

This young man is almost pitiful and very cute.

His voice was a little hoarse: "Let's go to the nearest inn, okay? Go now."

Chapter 188

Chu Xinning’s heart was tightened.

What rain is too big, what is so cold and hot - obviously can go back, but just use the reason that both of them feel lame, take him to the inn.

The meaning of this, Chu Evening is even stupid, but also understand.

The smoldering is in his veins, exploring his mind.

If you shake your head, the ink will not be reluctant, but if you promise, you will default to be willing to work with him...

What did he do with him?

Chu night, I don’t know, even if I know, I don’t want to think about it.

He only felt that his face was burning very hot, and it was the heat of heavy rain.

He was very nervous. He didn't know what to answer. He had to take a narrow neck of the jug and wanted to take another sip. The inside was nearly empty. Finally, a trace of cool, thick pear blossomed into the throat. He bowed his head. Fresh red tassels have more and more fair and thin fingers.

He didn't say anything, and the atmosphere was awkward.

Ink burning is a person who doesn't like drinking alcohol. When he looks up and drinks, he suddenly asks him: "Is there still?"

"Gone."

"...you are so anxious, drinking is so fast." The ink burned, bowed his head and gently kissed his lips. "Then I can only taste the taste."

The pear blossoms are white and mellow, with a subtle osmanthus fragrance.

However, in the 30th year of the year, Chu nightning passed away. The ink burned on the roof for a whole night. When I finally drink it, I feel that there is no taste at all. It is bitter.

Later, after the rebirth, the ink was not willing to touch the wine again.

too bitter.

He kissed Chu's cool lips, which was scorned at first, carefully touched and then separated, and then carefully kissed.

The rain is rumbling and the sky is bleak.

There was no one under the gallery, and the rain curtain became a natural credit. I don’t know when it was, they hugged together, kissed each other, and rubbed their lips and wetly. The smudges of the blushing heartbeat during the intense kiss were hit by the rain. The sound was drowned, and Chu Evening couldn’t hear more sounds. The sound of the torrential rain slammed the heartstrings like a drum bang.

Unlike the icy raindrops, the burning breath is so hot, his kiss moves from the lips all the way to the bridge of the nose, his eyes, his eyebrows, and then to the side of his lips, the rough, moist tongue sticking out to him. The auricle, Chu nightning can not stand such stimulation, body tight, * into a fist, but not willing to speak.

He confronted him with a neck, ink burned his earrings, and honed the tiny seal behind his ear...

Chu nightning shivered slightly in his arms.

The smoldering hugs him, holding it tighter, wanting to crush him all over his body, crushing it in his body and breaking into the flesh and blood.

His voice was low and hoarse, and he whispered in the night of Chu’s ear: "Master..."

Respectful, the hand is very careless, caressing the person in his arms, this young man is sullen in the pot and stacked with a dense cover to suppress the eagerness, and finally overflowing, the boiling boiling water is tumbling with foam, water It’s going to burn out, it’s going to be cooked, and the firewood is getting more and more prosperous.

Tormented them.

"follow me……"

Probably the ghost is fascinated. He is actually holding his hand tightly by ink, and rushing in the rain, so absurd.

The rain is extremely cold, but it is hot on the body. None of them have opened the enchantment and did not buy an umbrella. It is like a mana loss, like the most ordinary ordinary person, letting the wind and rain hit. In a hurry, follow the red lantern swaying in the heavy rain and ran into an inn.

The inn's second child is yawning, about to think that such a big rain, so late, there is no traveler to come back to stay, so see the two wetly rushed in, shocked. The ink burned tightly on the wrist of Chu Xinning, and the palm was so hot that it seemed to be steamed out.

He wiped a drop of water that went straight down the handsome face, and he said with some anxiety: "Stay in the store."

"Ah, good, good, this is the key to two rooms, altogether..."

"What?" Hearing the burning of the two rooms, he was more anxious. His throat was twitching, his long fingers were squatting, and he knocked on the table. "No, we only need one." Xiao Erge took a look. Look at the burning of the ink, and look at the late night.

Chu night Ning violently turned his face and burned it badly. He quietly broke his hand from the palm of his hand and then said: "There are two."

The younger brother is hesitant and understands: "If the money is not enough, one is OK."

"I want two." Chu night Ning 斩 斩 截 , , , , , , , , , , , 楚 楚 楚

He glanced at the couch and only felt that his throat was very dry, his face burned so badly that he didn't dare to look at his second eye. He only stood in the middle of the bedroom, and there was no point in the lights and candles. I don't know what to do.

His mind is still faint, and he feels that it is so ridiculous, abrupt, and unprepared.

How could this be……

How can I stand here, how can I get here by the rain, how can I...

He hadn't finished yet, and the door opened behind him, and the ink burned in.

Chu Xinning's body suddenly stretched tightly, and the ten fingers squeezed into a fist under the wide sleeves. He tried his best to know the slight trembling in the bones, but did not.

For the first time in his life, this was so utterly frustrating that he handed the kite's lead to another person's hand.

His palm does not know whether it is rain, or sweat, it is very moist.

"咔哒", the door bolt was dropped, clearly audible, and the cold hair was upright, as if the knives of the executioner were between the neck and the iron scent. Like the cheetah tiger wolf's sharp teeth will bite the prey, * smell.

Chu night Ning suddenly, suddenly, actually, gave birth to a fear of wanting to escape.

Fortunately, his face will not show up.

The ink burned and spoke, the sound was still gentle, not too arrogant, restrained, but somewhat hoarse: "Why don't you light a candle?"

"……forget."

The ink burned the wooden tray on the table, and handed a hot bowl of steamed bun to the hands of Chu Yuning: "Ginger tea, you want it, drink it hot."

Speaking of walking to the window, go to the candlestick next to the west window.

The outside wind was raining and the house was very dark, but the window with the vines was open, and the lights outside the house were blurred and fainted.

The ink burns in front of the open window, the beautiful slender crane bird copper candlestick side, the white rain curtain lining his tall figure, the silhouette looks tall, handsome, well-defined, fiddle with the fire knife, fine curly eyelashes It looks very distinctive, like two black butterflies.

He is a monk, he has a fire, but he is not so troublesome, but he is willing to be like the most ordinary person, in the most common way, to go to the light and quietly, let the heart and darkness Light up, the wax torch is soft and tears.

The flint was polished, and I was about to scrape it up.

"Don't light up."

The ink-burning hand was too late to look back at him: "What?"

When Chu Ning did not know what to say, he had to repeat it bluntly: "Don't light."

The ink burned for a while, and then I looked at the stupid person in the darkness, and my heart slowly understood.

Even if Yuheng is late at night, there will be fears when there will be fearful things, and there will be areas that are unknown.

Those who have had a pillow in the past life, whether they are male or female, are willing to step on the face of the emperor. No one has ever asked for the light to turn off the lights. Photo, so that you can do all sorts of tricks, all kinds of courtesy, infinitely charming, come to Bo Jun half-inch love.

Ink is not in love.

Whether it was the beginning of the nine, and later Song Qiutong, it was strange to say that they were petting them, and they stubbornly felt that they were like a teacher, so staying with them is almost a play-like obsession. But I never like to look at their faces in bed.

They just let them face themselves, don't kiss, and don't like to touch, in the boring and repetitive movements, the mind is even clear.

I even suddenly felt that it was very boring.

Really boring.

He couldn't remember the smiles under the candlelight, the welcoming, high/tidal, blushing face.

Nowadays, those who love, have nothing to do with "happiness", and have nothing to do with "love". Instead, they seem to be trapped in the chaos of the chaos, breaking into, making themselves appear more dirty, deeper, self-destructive, hate not to sew their own bones Both are black.

When you are black to the extreme, you will no longer be eager for light. If you want to redeem, you will not be afraid to hold the last fire in that world.

great.

But why not give up.

No matter how you tell yourself that you don't fall in love, don't fall in love, tell yourself that life is hopeless, the world is dark, or you will be in the stormy Wushan Temple, in the tangled and tormented, sticking to the trembling fingers, violently grabbing the late night of Chu The neck, pressed on the icy stone pavilion, on the bluestone platform in the courtyard of the Qing Dynasty, in the messy quilt of the pillow, in the snow, in the hot springs, even in the high seat of the temple, the temple, the most solemn and solemn The most respected place.

Defile him.

Looking at his face, kissing his neck, cheeks, lips, calling his name.

Shred him.

In fact, those times, Chu nightning also wants to be dark, to turn off the lights.

A little light does not want to have.

But at that time, Chu did not say anything, he would not say anything, and he would not ask for anything.

I want to come, he has been under house arrest for eight years, and Chu Ning has only asked him two things at the beginning and the end.

The first one was to ask him and let go of Xue Meng when he stepped into the Wushan Temple.

The second one is to ask him and let him go before he is ever.

If it’s not cold, how can it be...

The ink burned down the fire knife and the flint, and did not speak for a long time.

After a long time, Chu Ning slightly relaxed the body that was stretched because of tension. After a long time, he was quietly asked him: "What happened?"

Ink burns: "...nothing."

The sound is warm, moist and salty.

He walked over and hugged the man standing in the darkness, and there was some rain on his body. He smothered him and said, "Late."

"..."

For a moment, he suddenly wanted to tell him all the things in the past, but he had a sore throat and a fishbone-like stalk. He couldn’t say it.

Really, I really can’t say it.

It’s not easy to get this hard-won warmth now, it’s too difficult for him or for the late night. Even if you are guilty of sin, you can’t say it, you don’t want to say it.

Don't want to wake up.

Just want to be good, dreams go on.

Until the dawn pierced the throat.

There is no light, no fire, in the darkness, the ink burns him to kiss, the kiss is very focused, and gradually lingering.

The house is very quiet, the rain can't disturb the quiet, they can hear each other's breathing, heartbeat, lips touch, and the subtle moist sound when switching angles.

Chu nightning strongly tried to make his breathing as usual, but it was useless. Under the touch of ink burning, the ups and downs of his chest gradually became urgent. He is a tall, well-proportioned man, but the ink can easily cage him, cover him, the mountains are as tall and tall, this man puts him in his hot arms, scorns and kisses at first, and then asks for deeper .

He opened the lips of Chu's late night, and the hot and cold tongue stalked in, rubbing and entangled, like a thirsty person, drinking nectar, and people like a fire burning want to lead water to turn off the fire, but The breath of Chu's late night is not cool water for him, but pine oil, poured in the fire, burning endless, smoldering wolf smoke.

More and more blurred...

Until you can't see...

It is an illusion, an illusion, like a fake, or a fake.

It is the superposition of dreams, not the hustle and bustle.

But the feeling of being against the sky and invading the strong is so clear. Is it supposed to... do this?

The late night of the Chu dynasty, almost squatting in the middle of the phoenix, whispered: "Come in..."

I was shocked!

Chu nightning knows what to do?

How can he know?

This person who has not seen the picture of the * palace, a clean white paper, how can he know?

"Yes...should be...so?"

He blushes like a drip, muttering, so he asks the man who is pressing.

"Where are you from... Where did you hear it?"

"..."

Chu nightning is of course embarrassed to say dreaming, so that he seems to be more debauched, more shameless, he said vaguely, "the library has accidentally seen it..."

I hurried to add another sentence: "Someone misplaced the book."

The ink burns naturally and does not doubt him, but the heart is slightly sent, but it is also slightly moving.

He kissed Chu’s lips and nose, and then said, “It’s too urgent.”

"...!"

anxious.

Who is anxious? !

Immediately, the blood surged, and it was annoying and shameful. You can sneak up on him and lean on his chest.

He touched Chu’s hair, and said softly, “It hurts.”

"...then, don't." Chu nightning is to take a face and smash the railroad.

The ink burned and smiled softly, and the low and dumb voice was very mellow.

He said: "You don't care about me, tonight..." His voice gradually faded.

Chu night Ning blinks.

How about tonight?

But see the dark, strong arms propped up, staring at him above him, then slowly sit up and move down.

This is something that has never happened in a dream. What is he going to do?

"Tonight, just want to make you comfortable."

Finally, the ink burned over and touched his face. The man's eyes were red, some beasts, but still blazing, gazing softly at him.

"I love you."

Really, really, really love you.

It is the ambition of the wolf, and the prodigal son is turning back, carrying the guilt and sin, but he is not willing to give up, selfish, desperate, enthusiastic, and eager.

love you.

Chapter 189

The room was very quiet, the sounds of heartbeat and wheezing were very clear, and the smell in the air was slight, but sweet.

Lying in bed, the ink burned a posture, and he held him in his arms from behind, gently glaring at his eyes, his neck.

They all have sweat on their bodies, the temperature of their bodies is hot and amazing, wet and close together, honed and entangled, Chu’s mind is still dizzy, and even dare not think about it. What, everything is so ridiculous.

But the heart is warm and hot.

The warm water rushed under the chest and wanted to break through.

Suddenly the person in his arms whispered: "What about you?"

The ink burned a bit: "What?"

Chu night Ning light cough: "You..."

He didn't talk anymore, turned over in the darkness, and a pair of bright scorpions slowly looked at the burning eyes. Even though the surroundings were faint, the ink burned and felt like he was blushing at the night. "You still..." Chu night, Ning, a half, still can not say, and finally only drop the eyelashes, said, "I help you."

The ink burned and understood. He only felt that it was sweet and sweet. He held him and said, "How are you so stupid? It doesn't matter, I will talk later."

"...I am not stupid." Chu night is hard to say that he is stupid, he is not willing, "Isn't you a silly person? You are so... not uncomfortable?"

"Cough, I am waiting for you to fall asleep, go take a shower..."

Chu nightning insisted: "I will help you."

"No!" The ink burned to stop him.

"..." Chu nightning no longer speaks, seems to feel that his awkward appearance in bed is very inferior, probably won't let the ink burn and refresh, say what to take after a shower, but actually just leave some for yourself Face only, the implication is that the hand is better than your own skills.

He pondered like this, his face cooled a little bit, and finally said: "You don't want it, even if it is."

The ink burns slightly, because the emotions and the aftermath, the sound of Chu Xinning is not as impeccable as usual. It is not as irritating as the weekdays. The meaning of being unwilling and unruly is too heavy, and it is clear and legible.

How is this person so stupid?

Where does he want to be? He thinks very much, hate can't last forever, the rainstorm never goes out, hate can't always be bored with death in this inn, and can't hide the inside and outside of the middle-aged person into the belly, blending with his body. The souls intersect.

He still wants to see Chu Xi Ning being bullied by him to choke, thinking that his body has his breath in his body.

But it will be uncomfortable.

He had done it in the past and Chu night, and he knew how long the high fever had been in the late night, and the face with pale lips was cracked, and he could not forget it until now.

He just wants to take it step by step. It doesn't matter if he endures hard work. He wants Chu Ning's first time to be comfortable. After that, he can feel the excitement and enjoyment. He can taste the marrow and sink with him.

But Chu Jingning is obviously misunderstood.

The ink burned and kissed his forehead, and he muttered: "Why don't I want it? What do you think about?"

"..."

"You don't look at what I am doing now." The man's indulging breath is on the side of his ear, his voice is moist. "Whatever it becomes, you still feel that I don't want you... fool."

Chu night Ning anger: "You say another fool, believe it or not, I unloaded your head! You - oh..."

The hand was caught by the ink, and brought to a certain place, Chu night Ning was shocked and could not say more words of guilty guilty, only feel that the top of the head is braving the heat.

"It’s all like this, it’s all you guys."

In the dark night, he kissed his eyes again, and then went down, holding his lips, obsessed and intoxicated, sucking, squatting and honing.

After a while, both of them were somewhat restrained, and the * desires in the house became more and more heavy. They were sucking and licking each other, unable to make their own entanglement, closely fitting the friction, and the love was almost visible to the naked eye. In the mood of confusion, the ink burned and heard that Chu Yuning said lowly, some were unwilling, and some were awkward, still a stubborn tone: "I also want to... make you comfortable..."

The last tail was almost trembling, and shame drowned him.

"Late Ning."

He heard the ink burned behind him and called him, so gentle, so lingering, so embarrassing.

After the desire to vent, the two people, breathing back, panting, smothered him, kissed him, grateful to him, circle him in his arms, the treasures are generally guarded.

Chu night was rather faint, and his back was sweating. He leaned on the thick and hot chest, and slammed it for a while. He finally closed his eyes and slept.

The next morning, Chu nightning woke up, and the skylight slid into the house through a window of window. He heard the sound of raindrops hitting the tiles, and the rain was heavy and there was no stop.

He felt a bit of pain in his head. The shards that flashed past last night were like the squashed scales in the sink, flashing mottled and sticky light, floating and sinking.

He wants to recall, but the scales are deeper and deeper, and finally completely engulfed in the darkness.

Then he thought of what he had done last night and ink burning. The whole body was stunned and his face quickly burned red. He thought of getting up, but the sturdy arm still held him behind him, his chest still sticking to his back, evenly undulating.

The ink burned still not awake.

He waited like this, I don't know how long it took, the time is not so clear in this dark bedroom, but it should be a long time.

I have some numbness in my arms for a long time.

The heartbeat that has been rushing for a long time slowly slowed down.

It’s no longer so embarrassing.

Chu night Ning finally turned over, face to face, to see the burning face.

Very handsome, the rare and handsome appearance in the world, whether it is eyebrows, nose, lips, are the best.

It’s just that the eyebrows are slightly squatting, and there seems to be a strong mind, not open, heavy.

Chu Xiaoning was facing this face again and silently stunned for a long time.

For a long time, he finally couldn't help it. For the first time, he kissed the ink-burning face.

Then he gently removed the ink-burning arm, sat down on the edge of the bed, put on his trousers, and went to get a white coat. There was a fascinating crease fold on the shirt, and Chu night tried to smooth it, but it didn’t help.

He had to wear it like this, and secretly hoped that people who would not be seen by the dead and the sorrow would see any strangeness, while thinking about it, while going to the stack of clothes.

Suddenly someone hugged him from behind.

Chu night Ning was shocked, although the performance was only a slight movement of the hand.

I don’t know when I’m awake, got up, hugged him, kissed his earrings.

"Master respect..."

I don't know what to say, the first time I can honestly meet in this life, Chu nightning will be forgotten, and the smoldering will also give birth to some newly-married Yaner-like shyness and embarrassment.

"early……"

"Early, it is very late." Chu nightning did not look back, wearing clothes on his own.

The ink smiled slyly, with a shallow nasal sound, and then extended his hand, finishing the pendant hanging between the neck for the night.

"This cold, you have to put it on your body, or it won't work."

Chu night Ning seems to suddenly think of something, look back at him.

When I was in love last night, I felt that there was something in the neck of the ink. But at that time, I was dizzy and not too embarrassed. At this time, I looked carefully and was actually a dragon blood crystal pendant paired with myself.

"You..." Chu Xi Ning said, "When you were at the Confucianist Gate, didn't you say that this pendant has only the last one? How?"

He shut up slyly.

Because I saw the ink and smiled at myself, the pear vortex was melted and my eyes were soft.

He suddenly understood the selfishness of the ink burning at that time, suddenly it was a little hot, turned his face away, sullenly stopped talking, only buried his head to organize his clothes.

"Go back early." In the end, I didn't dare to look at the smoldering. I only said, "I am afraid that someone will be thrown out later."

The ink burns and tampers: "All listen to the teacher."

But it was quiet, but suddenly and ambition did not die, blood is not cool. Pulling through the boots and getting ready to stand up, Chu Ningning, and then leaned over, his lips gently kissed him on his lips.

"Don't be angry, I have to endure when I go back. I want to keep my mourning." The ink burned and smiled, and the fingertips pointed to the lips that the night was rather to talk. "Master, you are so good."

Because of this sentence, you are so good, until you go back to the mountain gate, Chu night Ning is still a bit embarrassed.

He feels that good is not his own, but ink. This young man is handsome, gentle, and lovingly loving himself. Sometimes he even makes Chu Xiaoning feel very unreal. He thinks this person is too perfect, how can he belong to such a dull self.

Those who belong to a decent sentence will not speak of themselves.

But when the smoldering stared at him, his expression was so serious, there was no half-falsehood, and when he burned and kissed him, it was so emotional, and the breathing seemed to be controlled by Chu, and everything was handed over to him.

Even if I was clumsy in my last night, my words were boring, and sometimes I was distracted...

But the ink burned didn't feel disappointing. He woke up in the morning and was willing to kiss his lips and said, "You are so good."

"..."

"Master."

"Ok?"

Looking back at the gods, but glimpsed under the red sea otter flower enchantment, ink burned and smiled at him: "Where to go? Go here, there is the red lotus otter, we first go to Meng Potang to have some food, Go back."

In Meng Po Tang, the ink burned or sat in front of him, but the people around him came and went, noisy and noisy. They were not as comfortable as they used to be, and they ate their heads and ate the food in the bowl. The disciples who loved to take a bet late, couldn’t help but whisper.

"How can the elders of Yuheng not talk to the ink brothers today?"

"Not only don't talk, I don't even look at him."

"It’s strange that the ink brothers don’t give the Yuheng elders a dish. It’s not quite a knot. What happened to them, quarreled?”

"... Will you continue to sit at a table after you have finished with your teacher?"

"Haha, that's what it is."

The orthogonal head stalked, and suddenly Chu was standing up late, and then holding a bowl to add some porridge to himself. The white clothes fluttered past them, and the group of good people did not speak, burying their heads and buns.

After Chu’s staying back, they’re talking about it again.

"Do you think that the elders of Yu Heng are a bit strange today?"

Someone nodded immediately: "Yes! Just can't say where it is strange, it seems to be clothes?"

Five or six pairs of eyes sneaked for a long time, and suddenly a little disciple snorted and said: "It seems to be too wrinkled, not as meticulous as usual."

He said this, everyone found out that it was true, but no one thought about it. After a long time, I felt that the elders of Yu Heng should go to the back of the mountain to ban the land last night, except for some evils, and make up some small days and so on. .

These disciples admire him and look up to him. At most, they only think that he is interesting, but no one will really treat him as a flesh-and-blood, desire-seeker, so even if the ink-burning and Chu-nighting do not stay so much. Traces, even if there are a lot of clues revealed, they did not pay attention, did not pay attention.

When a person is carried to the altar by everyone, then he can only not open, do not move, break the desire, clear and cold, otherwise the chess is a step, it is wrong.

So later, when the feelings of Mo Weiyu and Chu Yuning were made public in the world, many people felt that their gods had collapsed. They felt that anger felt disgusting and felt uncomfortable.

But they all forgot to worship a person in a high place, forcing him to go every step of the way according to the expectations of the people, forcing him to live from head to toe for the sake of everyone, not allowing him to give birth to a little bit of lust. It is a very cruel and powerful thing.

Chapter 190

After this day, Chu Ningning and Mo-burning had no chance to meet privately.

The heavy rain in the middle of the river is like a demon, and there are a large number of dead fish and dead shrimps in the rolling rivers outside the Baidi City. There are many water beasts in the folks, and the elders of the dead are all going to the villages and towns. Demon slayers, Chu Yuning and Mo-burn are extremely powerful because of their respective mana. At this time, they will not be arranged to waste their strength. One went to the Three Gorges port and one to Yizhou.

Confucianism has a hundred years of foundation, and there are countless monsters in the Golden Drum Tower, which have been regrouped and destroyed.

In addition to the shackles, Yangzhou, Leizhou, and Xuzhou, which were originally in the Taiping area of the Shangxiu world, also frequently gave birth to the tragedy of killing the beasts and killing the civilians. At one time, they divided the human rights of the public to explore the whereabouts of Xu Shuanglin. It is even slower.

The ink-burning spirit is amazing. Now it is more stable. It took only four days to quickly stabilize Yizhou. When I returned to the dead, I heard that Chu-Ning had returned, and I couldn’t help but rest. I just want to go to Honglian Water to find him.

As a result, the water gate closed, and again, Xue Zhengyi said strangely: "Retreat, did Yuheng not tell you?"

"Closed again?" The ink burned and was shocked. "Is the teacher respected?"

"What hurts, isn't it the reason for the heart? He has to close once every seven years. When you go back to the retreat, you have to look after him. Why have you forgotten it?"

Xue Zhengxuan said this, the ink burned suddenly remembered, there is such a thing - at that time he just worshipped the late night as a teacher, only after half a year, Chu night Ning said that he was practicing youth when he was young. Going forward, there are old diseases, although there is no serious problem, but every seven years, they must retreat for a long time.

On the tenth day and ten days, in the tenth day, the master of Chuzong was a faint, almost mortal, and he needed to meditate and rehabilitate his body. During this period, he only had one hour a day to recover his knowledge, to get some water, to eat a little something, and the rest of the time must not be disturbed, and even more can not be injured, so Chu nightning will pre-elect the most powerful around the Honglian otter. Enchantment, only Xue Zhengxuan, Xue Meng, Shi Yi, and the ink-burning four entered, and the disaster was caused by safety.

Not long ago, the last time he retired, he had just had a contradiction with Chu Xiening because of "picking flowers." After he was punished by Chu, he was somewhat disheartened. Therefore, he was retired on the 10th. He did not accompany him for one day. Instead, he ran to help his uncle organize the library.

Thinking about the year, the burning heart was uneasy, and immediately said: "I will go see him."

"You don't have to go. He said it before entering the customs. Like last time, let Xue Meng stay in the first three days, the teacher will guard the middle three days, and you will accompany him in the last four days."

"I just want to give him a look..."

"What's the good thing about this." Xue Zhengxi said with a smile. "The last time I crossed this pass, it wasn't that the teacher was accompanying him. What else do you care about? What's more, when you passed, Menger saw you, I have to talk to you, it’s not good to make a joke."

When I thought about it, I promised that I didn't go. I didn't fall asleep that night. I thought that Xue Mengzheng and Chu Yunning were alone in the red lotus water, and I felt so sad, especially not taste.

Of course, he knows Xue Mengchun, and he has no interest in men. But he is uncomfortable, that is, he is awkward, and he has tossed and turned to the opposite side. When he was polished, he barely slept for one or two hours.

After waking up, I don’t think it’s ok.

He still couldn't help it. He wanted to see Chu Yuning, even if he was far away.

Although the door of the Honglian Water Margin is closed and the enchantment is full, but the ink is the apprentice of Chu Yuning, the enchantment will not stop him. As for the Qinghai bamboo, the firewood is even more a decoration. , it fell smoothly in the courtyard. Every time I meditate in the practice of Chu, I am used to a green bamboo pavilion in the depths of the lotus pond. This time should be the same.

Sure enough, I saw the smoke wave pool far away, the lotus leaves from the middle, the elegant bamboo pavilion swayed on all sides, and Chu was quietly sitting on the ground, and the white clothes were laid out.

Xue Meng stood next to him, feeling that the outside was bright, so he bundled the snow on one side, so that the Master can also get some warm sun. The morning sun in the winter flowed into the pavilion, shining the slightly pale face of Chu night, and felt the warmth in the meditation. His face gradually had some blood.

After a while, Chu Yuning was caused by the cycle of Zhou Tian, and his forehead gradually pulled out the fine sweat. Xue Meng took the white towel to wipe him off. After rubbing it, he couldn’t help but look up. He said: "It’s weird, how do you feel that someone is staring at me..."

Ink is not a slap, it is a stare.

Looks like a calm, in fact, the heart is arrogant.

He felt that Xue Meng had a handkerchief and wiped the night of the forehead of Chu, and the distance was a little longer. The distance was a little closer, and his eyes were awkward. In short, all kinds of unwarranted crimes were all thrown to Xue Meng. He was unhappy and depressed. . The sullen and sullen, the burning of the ink can not stand, do not want to stay here to live sin, intend to leave.

But he didn't control it, and his voice was a little louder. Xue Meng immediately took out a plum blossom dart that was full of spiritual power and shouted: "Who?!"

Plum blossoms were a trivial matter, but they caught it with bare hands, but listening to him shouting, the ink burned his heart and quickly mentioned the eyes of the blind man, busy plucking out from the bamboo forest, passing through the lotus pond, and leaping gently into the bamboo pavilion. .

Xue Meng’s eyes widened and he said, “What are you—”

"Lightly." When the ink burned, he held his mouth and lowered his voice. "How do you call such a loud noise?"

"Hey-hey!" Xue Meng struggled for a long time, violently earned from the burning of his hands, his face was red, and he snorted and smashed a scattered hair, angered, "Do you still say me? What do you like to hide in the bush like a thief?"

"...I am afraid that you are as embarrassed as you are now."

"I can't hear the teacher!" Xue Meng said, "The voice curse, you haven't seen the master who has already given himself a curse? Unless you give him a curse, or you are facing him. The ear shouted that he couldn’t hear what you were talking about..."

He groaned, and the ink burned for a moment: "The curse of the voice? How did the uncle say that I was afraid of coming over to you?"

"I blame him for thinking that you have just come back from Yizhou and are tired. I want you to rest first." Xue Meng said without words. "He also believes in his words. He doesn't know how to think about it first. It’s not the first time I applied this curse to myself. It’s convenient for us to be comfortable and comfortable. You don’t mind, it’s stupid to die.”

Ink burning: "..."

Seeing the burning of the ink and preparing to sit down in the pavilion, Xue Meng was busy pulling him: "Hey, what are you doing?"

Ink burning: "In this case, I will keep it."

Xue Mengdao: "Who wants you to keep it, I said that I have kept it for the first three days. You have to sell it with the Master. Walk around and don't grab my job."

"Are you taking care of him alone?"

"How can I take care of it? I am not the first time to take care of the teacher."

Seeing Xue Meng's anger, ink burning is not good to say anything, hesitating for a while, is preparing to go, suddenly seeing the tea pot on the table, the leaves are wide, the color is deep, and there is a slight fragrance of smell, then ask: "Kunlun The cold snow tea produced?" "Hey? How do you know?"

"..." How could he not know that this tea is Xue Meng's favorite drink, Xue Meng is always willing to give his favorite things to the master, but did not think about these things. Not suitable, like it or not.

"The cold and fragrant nature of the snow is cold, and the master is originally a cold physique. You can give him this tea. Can he be comfortable?"

Xue Meng stunned, his face was a little red, and he was embarrassed to explain: "I didn't think so much. I only know that the cold fragrance is good tea, I..."

"Go for some rose tea, add two spoonfuls of honey, wait for him to wake up and then give him a drink. I will make some snacks and send them to you later."

Xue Meng wants to save himself a face, busy: "Diners can not eat, this ten days to find the valley."

"I know, but my uncle said, it is okay to eat a little." The ink burned, and waved his hand, and went out of the bamboo pavilion and walked outside the otter. "See you."

Xue Meng looked at his back, slammed, and went out for a while. When the ink burned away, he lowered his head and couldn’t help but look at the neck of the teacher - the point he had no intention of seeing yesterday.

Light blue and purple traces. Under the sun, it is clearer, not like the traces of mosquito bites, nor the wounds. Xue Meng is not a 14-year-old now. Some things have not been experienced, but it does not mean that he knows nothing. The traces on the neck of Chu’s night make him very restless.

He thought of all the details, especially the movement he heard on the back hill that day. He has been telling himself that it is the wind, the wind.

But the vague haze in my heart seems to be caged again. Under the inexhaustible smog, there seems to be something strange and faintly revealing the original appearance.

In the warm sun, Xue Meng did not know why, suddenly felt very uncomfortable, involuntarily shuddered and frowned.

Because of this restlessness, Xue Meng made a decision on the sixth day of the retreat of Chu.

He intends to follow the ink in the dark.

This is the last day of the teacher's service of Chu Yuning. The shift should have been at midnight, but the ink burned the dinner in Mengpotang early on the day, and brought a box of snacks, and went straight to the red lotus water. Xue Meng didn't expect him to go to the division to change the teacher's time. The rest of the meal was no longer eaten. The cat followed him up and followed him to the red lotus water. The ink burned from the main entrance. He slowed for a while, followed the example that had been done before the ink burned, and turned over the wall into the door.

At this time, the setting sun has not fallen, the crescent moon has already come out, and the sky scorpion unloads the makeup of the overflowing streamer. Only the remaining tail of the eye has not been wiped out. The magnificent sunset is a faded lead, the fat powder is greasy, and it is dark and heavy. The night is engulfed, and the stars are like water. The ink burned the food box. When he saw the teacher facing his back and walked into the bamboo pavilion, he did not seem to hear the movement of the ink burning, and stopped in front of Chu night. The ink burned and smiled. He was planning to say hello to him, but he suddenly saw a faint flash of light in his hand, pointing to the late night of the meditation, the ink burned a bit, the brain was flashing, and shouted:

"Teacher!"

The back is cool and the hair is upright.

In his two lifetimes, there have been too many lives and deaths, so that today, with a little bit of wind and grass, he can be a soldier. The so-called one was bitten by a snake for ten years, and this red lotus otter once parked the body of Chu Xinning and parked for two years until the day he died.

He doesn't really like it here. When he steps into the otter, he can always think of the last period of his life. He is lying in the lotus flower, and he is never angry. Therefore, he subconsciously felt that the red lotus water shovel was a disaster-stricken area, and there was a deep and dead bottom throat that would swallow up the last fire in the world.

The teacher turned back and he lowered his hand, and the silver light was hidden in the sleeve: "A burning?... How come you?"

"I--"

The ink burns heartbeat and frenzied, and does not come up in one breath. Nothing is taken care of. The black eyebrows stand: "You are in your hands..."

"Hand?"

The teacher stunned and raised his hand again. He saw that he was holding a comb in his hand, casting it in sterling silver, and the broken back stone was inlaid with a smooth and meridian.

There is some language in the ink, and it’s half awkward: "You... are you combing your hair?"

"... um, what's wrong?" The teacher looked at him up and down, and then picked up his beautiful eyebrows. "The face is so ugly, is there anything out there?"

"No, I am just..." I said halfway, I couldn't say it, but my face was pale and reddish. Fortunately, the night was dim and I couldn't see the truth. After a while, the ink burned his face slightly and coughed: "Nothing."

The teacher still looked at him silently, and then seemed to understand what it was. He looked awkward and hesitated and said: "Do you think..."

The ink burned busy: "I don't have it." After all, the teacher is also a very good person to be treated by him. He is a person who regards him as a relative. The ink is also shocked by the misunderstanding of his moment. He only feels very sorry. Oh, so the words "I don't have" blurted out.

The teacher did not speak for a long time, and said: "A burning."

"Ok?"

"I haven't said the second half yet." Shi Yan sighed softly. "Why are you so anxious to deny?"

This statement undoubtedly shows that the teacher has already understood the moment of the moment, and the ink burned the silver comb in his hand as a murderous blade.

Although this is due to the fear of the death of the late brothers of the late Qing Dynasty, no matter who is facing the ink burning station, Xue Meng or Xue Zhengyi, he will probably give birth to the shudder of the beggar. But in the face of the teacher, the ink burned down, and my heart is still uncomfortable.

He coveted: "...sorry."

In memory, when a teacher encounters a person, it is always gentle and broad, and there is little time to be cold or to blame others. But this evening, next to the lotus pond, the teacher looked at the ink, but he never made a sound for a long time.

Windy, full of lotus leaves rolled, red lotus light dance.

Shi Yan said: "People are not as good as the old ones, but Ah Burning, acquaintance for nearly ten years, I am in your heart, why is it so unbearable."

His voice was soft and calm, and there was not much anger and anger, and there was no grievance from crying. The ink burned into his eyes, and the two clear waters seemed to have seen everything, but they didn't want to care about anything. They didn't want to say anything more.

The teacher handed the comb that had overflowed with silver light to the ink-burning hand, faintly said: "Before the master looks at the meditation, let me put it on for him. Since you are here, I will hand it over to you. ”

"Teacher..."

However, the man with a long and beautiful beauty has crossed his shoulders and his footsteps are gentle. However, he never turned back and left the red lotus water of Wanye.

Chapter 191

The most important person in the world for ink burning, except for the late night, is the teacher.

I used to swear that I was a teacher, but I found out that it was not, but I did not change his mind and cherish his mind.

Although I gradually feel that the teacher is strange, I feel that this tall figure is like a man with a charm. Although the original bowl of hand-to-hand was only ordered by the teacher, it was sent to Chu Xiening, but in any case, Shi Mingjing was the original teacher.

It was in the darkness and stumbling, smiling at him and reaching out to his companions.

It is a brother who is accompanying him and willing to give him comfort when he is lonely and unwilling.

I think that the teacher is also an orphan. In this world, there is no longer a relative. Xue Meng is also very proud. Although he has a good relationship with the teacher, but for so many years, the teacher has not called Xue Meng’s name, but Bi Gongbi respected him as a young master.

If you can really call a teacher a "friend", you will only have yourself.

As a result, he also hurt his heart.

Xue Meng was hiding in the bamboo forest. He held his arms and arms for a long time. He saw the ink burning and stayed there, playing with a silver comb, and seemed to have something to worry about.

After waiting for a little half an hour, there was no movement, Xue Meng began to feel like an idiot -

What do you think of yourself, how do you feel that the relationship between the teacher and the ink burns? Is the brain broken? The more he stood and the more he felt, the more he felt that he was inexplicable. At the end, Xue Meng turned and wanted to go, but it was the same brother. He and the ink burned almost the same mistake.

Relaxed for a while, did not control the footsteps.

The ink burned up and sank through the gauze curtain: "Who?"

"..." Under the moonlight, Xue Meng reluctantly, unscrupulously smashed out, his eyes dodging, and a light cough.

The ink burned a bit: "What are you doing?"

"Only the state official set fire, do not allow the people to light up?" Xue Meng did not dare to look at the burning eyes, his eyes flickered, but it was plausible, but his face was red, "I just want to see the Master."

The ink burned his mind and moved, vaguely understanding that Xue Meng followed his own possibility, and could not help the ground color to stagnate, but he quickly adjusted his own look and recovered his calm before Xue Meng was aware of it.

"Since it is here, sit for a while."

Xue Meng did not quit, followed by the bamboo pavilion.

Ink burned him: "Want to drink tea, or wine?"

"Tea." Xue Mengdao, "Drinking will be drunk."

On the table, there is wine and tea. The ink burns a red mud stove. The flames in the night light up. According to his clear outline, he cooks the eight treasure tea on the stove. The two brothers sit in the bamboo pavilion.

On the bench, one leaned against the pavilion and waited for the water to boil.

Xue Meng asked him: "How come you are so early? Originally, you should be worth half a night."

"There is nothing left and right, I will come over." The ink burned and smiled. "Are you not?"

Xue Meng thought, it seems that it is.

The smoldering should be the same as oneself, but it is only concerned with the teacher. After all, after the war, the smoldering gradually changed. Nowadays, it has passed, and he and the younger boy who was in the first place are very different. The apprentice saved by his life has finally grown into a man who is upright.

Dropping the eyelashes, Xue Meng indulged for a moment and smiled slyly.

Ink burning asked: "What?"

"No, I remembered the last retreat." Xue Mengdao, "At that time, you were not convinced by the Master, for ten days, you came to see him, and then said that he could not bear enough, afraid that he could not serve him. I ran to pick up the books there. I was still sulking in my heart at that time. I didn’t think that after seven years, you would become like this.” The ink burned for a while, then said: “People will change. ""

Xue Meng asked: "I want to give you another chance, let you go back seven years ago, you still can't run?"

"What do you say?"

Xue Meng really thought about it seriously, and then said: "I am afraid that I will think about ten days and ten nights, and I will be with my teacher."

The ink burned low and laughed.

"Hey, what are you laughing at." Xue Meng changed his position. One foot rested on the bench of the bamboo pavilion, and the elbow rested leisurely. The head and neck leaned back slightly, and his eyes flowed to the end of his eyes, glaring at his own church. Brother, "Now you and I have the same mind for the Master, what do I think, you should not be too much."

The ink burns: "Well."

Xue Meng passed the scorpion and looked at the wind chimes at the pavilion. He said, "It's very good. At the beginning, the teacher respected his body. I blame him for changing his life with his life. But today, you are not all." conscience."

I don’t know what to say, but it’s "hmm".

Bells, jingling in the wind.

A few silences, Xue Meng couldn't help but turn his head, his eyes were burning, his eyebrows were slight, and he suddenly asked him: "Cough, what, actually, there is something, I want to ask you."

"You said."

"You tell me the truth, that day in the mountains, you guys..."

In fact, Xue Chen always knows that Xue Meng always wants to ask this question.

Seven bends and eight times around, still have not escaped. He waited for him to go on.

However, Xue Meng was a half-day, his face was white and red, red and white. In the end, he couldn’t say the sentence. He only fixedly looked at the ink and said: "You really... are you looking for sweet-scented yoghurt rice cake? ?"

The water is open, and the steam of steam is so long in the cold night, and the polymerization is dispersed.

The eyes of the two meet, Xue Meng double smashed is anxious, flashing the hot flame, the dark eyes of the ink burned the ancient well without waves, deep bottomless.

"You can drink tea."

Xue Meng grabbed his arm and stared at him: "Are you really looking for sweet-scented osmanthus cake?!"

"..."

The ink burned for a moment, earned his hand, and went to the table to get a dark cast iron pot, one cup full, full.

Then he narrowed his eyes and said: "If we are not looking for sweet-scented osmanthus cake, what else can we do?"

"you--"

"Master can't easily marry you, you don't believe me, you always have to believe him."

Xue Meng seemed to be a small snake that was pinched by seven inches. The hand resting on his knee was slightly stunned, and then he bowed his head and said: "I didn't believe him."

"Then drink tea." The ink sighed. "What do you want to think about all day? It’s all there is nothing." He bowed his head and blew the steam of steam, and his face looked so hot. Handsome, but somewhat ambiguous, such as the mirror of the water, teach people can not really cut.

The Babao tea is warm and tastes salty. Xue Meng slowly drank a few mouthfuls. He felt that the hot stream made the frenzied heartbeat calm down. He finished drinking the tea, and the remaining temperature in the cup was still scattered. Hot air.

Xue Meng bowed his head and suddenly groaned, as if he was talking about ink, and he said to himself: "I really care too much about him, I think so much, a little bit of wind, I am..."

"I know." Mohburn said, "I am the same."

Xue Meng turned his face and looked at him.

The ink burned against the pavilion, the tea in the cup was not exhausted, and he drank another bit, and then said: "Because of this, I have misunderstood the teacher, you are at least better than me, not so impulsive."

Xue Mengluoqi: "No wonder he saw that he left with you without two sentences. What did you misunderstand him?"

"...not to mention it." The ink burned and smiled. "I can think more than you."

Xue Meng wrinkled his nose: "He is a poor man. People in the famine are easy to eat. If they are not saved, he will become the meat in the hungry pot. The teacher has been waiting for you, you are good. Don't bully him."

Ink ignited: "Well, I know, I was excited for a while, and I won't be in the future."

The two guarded Chu Yuning in the pavilion, saying a word, not salty and not talking.

This feeling is very wonderful, ink burning in the moonlight, Xue Meng that Zhang Junxiu, some natural arrogant face, this person in his previous life opened a hole in his chest, and later each time accompanied by tears and blood.

I did not expect that they could talk so calmly, and in the lotus pond under the moon, cooking tea and cooking.

Yes, cooking wine.

After the tea was finished, Xue Meng did not intend to leave.

When the ink burns, it has a hot pot of wine, a few drinks, and the right words, as long as you are not drunk, it is harmless.

But he seems to have looked at Xue Meng's drink.

They have four mentoring and apprentices. The ones that don’t fall for a thousand cups are Chu Xiening, and they are also okay. The amount of wine in the division is very poor, but Xuemeng is the most incurable. Two small cups of pears were white, and this person was a little dizzy and speeched.

The ink burned and worried about getting into trouble, and he was busy collecting the wine and not giving him any drink.

Although Xue Meng’s consciousness is chaotic, but it has not been completely lost, it is still clear, blushing, smiled and said: “It’s good to collect, I... I can’t drink any more.” “Yeah.” "You go back to rest, can you go now? Can't take my voice and let my uncle come over."

"Oh, don't need him to come over, don't need him to come over." Xue Meng smiled and waved his hand. "I can go back and recognize the road."

The ink burned and didn't worry, put a finger in front of him: "What is this?"

"One."

Also refers to Chu nightning: "Who is this?"

Xue Meng smiled: "God fairy brother."

"……speak politely."

"Haha, Master, I know." Xue Meng smiled at the pillar.

The ink burned and frowned, and the amount of Xue Meng’s drink was worse than the year. He was still uneasy. He also asked himself: "That, I see, don’t make a joke, who am I?"

Xue Meng stayed for a while.

Time seems to overlap with the old shadow at this moment. In the New Year's Eve of Meng Potang, Xue Meng was also drunk, recognizing the face of the teacher, saying that Chu Ning is a * elder brother, and then slammed with ink, haha smiled and said that the ink is a dog.

The ink burned and looked at him calmly. When he prepared to speak a dog again, he secretly slammed Xue Meng and then called Xue Zhengyi to bring the little drunk back.

However, Xue Meng looked at him and looked at it for a while. His face didn't know what it was. He finally opened his lips and twitched slightly. It seemed to be a "dog" sound. Ink burning is going to reach out to his mouth. "brother……"

The hand that had not yet been raised froze, and Xue Meng looked at him with gaze, slowly and whispered, and shouted: "Brother."

The ink burned a bit, as if it had been smashed by a bee, the sting was filled with severe pain, and the pain was sore because of the poison. He blocked his throat and couldn't say a word. He only looked at Xue Meng's face, young, arrogant, and arrogant.

On this face, ink burned to hate, anger, and inferiority.

I have never seen his look at the moment.

Xue Mengmo glared at the Dragon City Sabre at his waist. It was the smoldering of the great demon charm, and won the best spirit stone, and sent it for him.

Without this knife, he might not be able to win the first place in the Lingshan Conference. Without this knife, he might only be a monk who was named as an unknown and bears the wound of Zhong Yong.

When he was awake, for reasons like this, out of self-respect and face, he never said a word of praise with ink, but he was actually very uncomfortable - when he wiped the dragon city every day, it was a mood. Thousands, mixed feelings.

Especially after the return of the Confucianism Gate, it was known that the smoldering saved himself from Xu Shuanglin’s men. Xue Meng was even more tormented. After waking up, I heard that the ink burning and Chu Yuning were still missing. He burst into tears and everyone thought he was Just crying for his master, only Xue Meng himself knows that that night, he was holding a dragon city sabre, lying on the sickbed, looking at the darkness, hoarsely said:

"Brother, sorry."

Where are you...you and the master... are you ok?

The ink burned and said nothing, and the whole person could not move. The whole person was settled, so he stood in the same place.

Yesterday, all kinds of waters have passed, and they have passed by.

He thought of the life and death of the past life, Xue Meng alone went up the mountain, standing in the cold Wushan Temple, red eyes and asked him the fall of Chu Yuning.

Xue Meng said: "Ink rain, you look back..."

He thought that after he stepped on the emperor, Xue Meng and Mei Hanxue ambushed the assassination. In the blue sky, Mei Xueshi blocked his way. Xue Meng was screaming, his face twisted and twisted, the scimitar pierced his chest, and his blood was arrogant.

Xue Meng said: "No one can save you from the rain, this world can't hold you!"

He thought of a pile of pieces of hatred, angry, fiery, dragon snake dancing.

He thought of the day when he was born in the middle of the night, Xue Meng screamed and snarled and slammed him on the wall. The cervical artery violently snarled and roared like a beast: "How can you say that he does not save you... How can you Say he won't save you!!"

Suddenly, my heart flashed, and there was a shimmer in front of my eyes.

Perhaps it is such a rigid stand of ink burning, it really stood too long, and reminded him of the earliest, earliest, most vague memory.

He seems to have seen two teenagers, a thin and powerful, horrified, like abandoned dog that was used to being beaten, squatting in front of the small table in the disciple's room, kneeling on the bench, the little hand clinging tightly, protecting Knees, no movement, it is himself.

There is also a teenager, like a snow jade, pretty and cute, like a small ostrich with a bright and dazzling wings, he stands with a beautiful machete around his waist, stepping on a chair with his feet, black and round His eyes glared at him.

"My mother asked me to come see you." Juvenile Xue Meng shouted, "I heard that you are my cousin?... It looks so cold."

The ink burns without snoring, bows his head, and is not used to being stared at like this.

Xue Meng asked: "Hey, what is your name? Ink... that ink... Hey? Tell me, I don't remember."

"..."

"Ask you, why don't you say anything?"

"..." "Are you dumb?!"

After three times, the teenager Xue Meng laughed: "I said that you are my cousin, seeing you are only unassuming, thin and unbearable, the wind blew and ran away. I have such a shameful brother, it is a joke."

The ink burned lower and he refused to pay attention to him.

So silent, suddenly a bright red in front of him, handed him this bright red person is too rude, almost poked to his nose, ink burned for a while, only to find that it is a bunch of candied fruit.

"Give it to you."

Xue Mengdao.

"I can't eat anyway."

He took a box of snacks, and he was still on the table at random, with a charismatic attitude, but the ink burned and looked at him. He only thought that he was very lavish and generous. No one had ever given him so much. There is no demand.

"Here……"

"What?" Xue Meng frowned. "What do I have to do with me? What are you talking about?"

"I can eat this string?"

"what?"

"In fact, as long as one is enough... you can't eat, I will..."

"You are sick? Are you a dog? Eat the rest of others?" Xue Meng's eyes widened and he thought it. "Of course it's all yours! This whole series, this whole box is yours." !"

The lacquered wooden dice are exquisitely crafted, and the cranes and clouds that are painted with gold powder on the top are the atmospheres that the ink has never seen before.

He didn't dare to reach out, but his black eyes had been staring at the blind man. He saw that Xue Meng had some hair, and he raised his hand and opened the snack for him. The rich milky fragrant fragrant bean paste was mixed in one, three horizontal and three vertical. A total of nine, some golden crisp, some pink and soft, and some of the skin is crystal clear, blown can be broken, faintly can see the soft red bean paste inside.

Juvenile Xue Meng did not look at it and pushed the whole box of snacks to him. He was impatient and annoying: "Come on, if it is not enough, I still have it, I can't finish it, just give it to you." ”

This little son has a bad attitude and a bad tone. The black and white rounded scorpion is still turned upside down, and a pair of nostrils look down on the human virtue.

But the dessert fruit handed to him is sweet and soft.

Through the bitterness of the two worlds, bloody, a little bit of sweetness, it seems to return to the tip of the tongue. In the moonlight, Xue Meng was drunk, and Xue Meng also sewed his throat and stared at him. After a while, Xue Meng smiled, drunk, and did not know what to laugh at.

He loosened the column he was holding, and seemed to want to slap a shot of his shoulders, but he was unsteady and groaned, and he fell into his ink.

"Hey... brother..."

The ink burned, and then slowly lowered his eyes, gently patted Xue Meng's back, the night wind boasted, his broken hair covered half of Zhang Jun face, no one knows what kind of look is ink burning, After a long time, Xue Meng, who was in poor drinking, fell asleep in his arms. At this time, the ink burned hoarsely.

"Xue Meng, I am sorry, I am not worthy of being your brother..."

Chapter 192

On the day when Chu’s retreat ended, the undead guests came to the death.

"Hey."

Early in the morning, the door of Honglian Shuiyu was anxiously sizzling.

Mo-burning is serving the late night of Ning, and this person’s practice has just ended. Ten days of meditation is empty, the whole person is somewhat confused, and when he hears the sound of the door, he said quite calmly: "Please come in."

Ink burning: "Hey."

"……Why are you laughing?"

"The teacher respected the enchantment at the door. Who can come in except for me and Xue Meng?"

Chu Xiaoning remembered this and raised his hand to untie the enchantment. Outside the fire, there was a disciple who was rumored to be a messenger. He was full of alcohol, like a headless fly: "Yuheng elders, not good, there is a big demon at the door of Danxin Temple!"

The two looked at each other and immediately rushed to the Dan Heart Hall.

In the long distance, the smoldering glimpse of a huge gourd is spinning around the square, and a group of elders and disciples are watching and laughing.

Ink burning: "...big demon?"

Fat gourd: "Hey."

Seeing the late night of Ning and the ink burned, Xue Zhengyi’s eyes lit up and patted the thigh: “Ah! Yu Heng! It’s time to wake up! Saved and saved, come!”

Chu nightning is still a bit embarrassing, but he grows cold in the sky, even if it is awkward, his face is still very inscrutable: "Well?"

"It is another monster that escaped from the Golden Drum Tower." Xue Zhengyu bitterly, is also good-natured, and funny, "Let's not go here - wine gourd!"

Chu night Ning raised his eyes to see the big gourd running all over the mad, two tall, exuding the mother-of-pearl shine, the gourd mouth smashed with pink smoke, and burst out of the simmering wine, it was the rumored wine-colored gourd Demon.

Chu night Ningdao: "This demon does not hurt people."

"But it fills the wine!"

This is true, the wine-colored gourd squats with a group of young disciples running around, as long as they catch up with one, they immediately split a hole and start to spray into the mouth of others, while spraying and sending out an unclear "咕噜咕噜啵!"

Chu nightning: "..."

"I heard that it only serves people who are better than it." Xue Zhengyan was stunned. "Yu Heng, look..."

Chu Xiaoning had some headaches to help the forehead, plundered the field, called out the day to ask, across the wine gourd.

"Don't run," he said. "I will accompany you."

The fat gourd was overjoyed and swayed back and forth. The cracked mouth immediately rose, and a small arrow of wine pulp squirted toward the face of Ning Qingjun of Chu, and he was able to avoid the flash and calmly escaped the wine. Everyone saw only the golden light, and the fat gourd had been tightened by Tian.

"Change the way, do you have a cup?"

"Hey!" A small gourd scoop was spit out in the crack of the fat gourd, and the clear wine was full of wine, "Hey!"

Chu Xiu Ning was under the watchful eyes of everyone, sitting on the ground and taking care of the wine-colored gourd.

"咕噜波波波!"

"Yes, let's take another look."

"Hey!"

"Is there a pear white?"

"Hey!"

Xue Zhengxuan was shocked and said: "Yu Heng, do you seem to understand it?"

"Yeah." Chu said, "I can always understand a little bit of this kind of monster."

&nbs wine color gourd: "Hey!"

The ink burned and laughed: "Master, what did he say this time?"

Chu nightning: "I am chatting with me and saying that it has not been sunburned for a long time."

The wine-colored gourd looked very happy. It didn’t know why. He obviously understood the words of Chu’s late night, and then he kissed him intimately and gave him a big scoop of wine.

"This time is pear white?" "Hey!" "I don't love daughter red."

"Oh..." The wine-colored gourd slammed the wine down and changed it again.

Everyone was shocked, and they couldn’t speak.

Seeing this person, a demon from the morning to noon, people are not drunk, demon happy, everyone is stunned, more and more people gather at the entrance of Danxin Temple.

Xue Meng and Shi Yan also came.

When the ink burned, he saw the teacher, remembered the misunderstanding before, and felt guilty in his heart. He wanted to take the initiative to apologize to him. He told Yu Guang to see him and turned and left.

When Xue Meng came out of the doorway, he took his elbow and smashed his ink: "He seems to be still angry. You misunderstood him last time."

There is some sorrow in the burning of ink: "What should I do?"

"Talk to him, you are like this, I am not in the middle of the folder." Xue Meng said, "Go, anyway, there is nothing wrong with you here."

The ink burned a look at the night of the wine with the wine gourd, and felt that there would be no problem for a while, just to Xue Mengdao: "Then I will go to him first, you don't go here, look at the master. If there is anything, let me know."

It didn't take much effort to catch up with the teacher. The ink burned him in front of Wu Jianping: "Shi Yan!"

"..."

"Teacher!"

The teacher stopped and turned and looked at him quietly: "Is it burning for me?"

"No..." The ink swayed and squinted. "I came to tell you that the last thing was really bad for me."

"What are you talking about?"

The ink burned for a moment, and it was slightly wide-eyed: "What?"

The teacher’s look is still mild and gentle, and he has smashed his broken hair: “I’m in the red lotus water, you misunderstood what I want to do to the master. Or when you eat together in Yuliang Village, you are not Sitting at a table with me. Or earlier, when the Master wakes up, I am going to give you wine. You haven’t told me a few words from beginning to end. Which one?"

I didn’t think that he would mention the things that were so long ago, and it’s been a long time ago. After a long time, “You...had you been so angry?”

Shi Yan shook his head: "I'm not angry, but I will care."

"..."

"A burning, since the teacher respects life, you have been deliberately alienating me."

The ink burns without words. He is indeed deliberately alienating the teacher. The two of them have been so close, and they are close to the night, and they are clearly seen. Just because I always felt that something was missing. When I was young, the layer of window paper between them was not broken. Later, when I burned my mind, I didn’t know how to deal with the relationship between the teacher and the teacher.

He had thought about talking to Shi Yanming, but he felt that it was inappropriate.

He has never expressed his sympathy with the teacher, and he does not know what kind of feelings he has in his heart. If he rushes over and says that he wants to clear the relationship, it is too abrupt and too self-righteous.

So what he finally thought was that he slowly faded.

The teacher stared at him quietly. After a while, he said, "When you first came to life, I told you that I have no father and no mother, and there are not many friends. Since then, we are a family. ”

"……Ok."

"Then why did you change?"

The burning of the ink is very sad. He suddenly has some confusion in his heart. He does not know why he should be so alienated from his teacher.

Since returning from the ghost world, what has he said with the teacher, can it add up to more than one hundred sentences? The two people who used to be inseparable, but now they are gradually drifting away, and they are hesitant to hesitate. They have done too much.

He said: "I'm sorry."

"...nothing is so good, sorry." Shi Yan turned his eyes away. "Forget it, that's it."

"You don't get angry. You are angry, I... is not good, you have always been good to me."

The teacher finally smiled a little: "I am very good to you, is that better than the teacher?"

Ink burning: "This is not the same."

The teacher looked at the distant mountains and said: "I remember you told me before, I am waiting for you, it gives you a lot of warmth. What about the master?"

Ink burning: "He gave me life."

The teacher did not answer for a long time, and finally sighed: "Furu is also."

When he looked at him like this, his heart became more and more uncomfortable. He said: "There is nothing to compare, people and people are different, you-"

The teacher did not wait for him to finish his words, facing his face, against the wind, raising his hand and taking a look at the burned chest: "Okay, you don't have to say it. I know what you mean, in fact, I am not such a person." But you have misunderstood me like this before, I am really sad."

"Ok……"

"Flip it, no one thinks anymore."

The ink burned black and warm, and nodded a little, almost gratefully: "Good."

The sergeant was slender and leaned on the jade bar of Wujianping. He looked at the leaves below, and after a while -

"Let's go back."

"What did you want to say that year?"

Almost at the same time, the ink burned a bit: "Which year?"

The teacher said: "The day of the day."

It was only when the ink burned that it was remembered that the color of the butterfly town was cracked, and that one of his unspoken confession was stagnant.

The teacher said: "You didn't finish talking to me at the beginning. I don't know what you want to say. Can you ask me now?"

The ink burned just wanted to answer, and suddenly heard a loud noise from the Dan Xin Temple.

He and his teacher’s face are all changed, and the ink burns: "It’s the master!"

The teacher also chatted innocently and said: "Go back and see."

Together, the two men rushed back to the main hall and went to the front of the Danxin Temple. They found that there was another second fat gourd on the big square.

The ink burned and said: "What is this again?!"

Xue Zhengyi hides his face: "The wine is a gourd."

"How many?"

"Two, one wine, one color. They are both twins." Xue Zhengyi was about to blow up. "It’s just a younger brother who fights with Yuheng. This is just a brother."

The ink burned my eyebrows and twitched. After a while, I reacted: "The wine gourd likes to fight with people, that color gourd..." His face turned blue and turned, glaring at the dripping pink fat gourd.

Xue Zhengxuan is not swearing: "The color gourd can do the best in the world, it only listens to the orders of the most pure people."

The ink burned and turned: "Xue Meng!!"

The teacher snorted and said: "Why is Xue Meng not there? Where have you been?"

Xue Zhengyi pointed at the color gourd: "...has been tested in the gourd, he said that he wants to worry about Yuheng."

The ink burned a sigh of relief: "That's okay, if there isn't even a pure Xue in this world, then there is no pure person."

When the voice just fell, I heard a burst of "砰".

Xue Meng's whole person was sprayed out of the gourd mouth of the color gourd, and fell heavily in the center of the crowd. The movement was so big that everyone looked at it, and even Chu Ning, who was drinking with the wine gourd, followed his head.

The teacher said: "What happened?"

Others were surprised: "It won't be even less than the Lord..."

"Cough and cough." Xue Meng blushes and swaying from the ground, a pair of scorpions are angry and shy, shouting toward the color gourd, "You - you enchanting, you, you, you stinky face!!"

The ink burned back and forth, and Xue Meng did not know when he had changed into a set of golden red robes. He only thought it was funny and curious: "What is going on?"

Xue Zhengxuan is only helping the amount, and he can't speak.

Shi said: "I have heard that this color gourd is not a lust, but an infatuation. It wants to find the cleanest and most infatuated person in the world. There is no one in the heart who is married. It is said that people who are absorbed into the gourd, Will be in a new room."

"……and then?"

"Then the * of the color gourd will become the bride or the groom, but regardless of the bride and groom, they cover their faces and wait for the other person to uncover them."

Ink burning: "Uncovering is the color gourd deity?"

"Nature is not. Uncovering what you see will vary from person to person. If you have a sweetheart, you will see what your sweetheart looks like. If you don't have a sweetheart, but you are lascivious, it is said that you will see..." Some sly, "There is no one who is the best man or woman. Only the most pure person can see the body of the color gourd."

Something turned incredulously and looked at Xue Meng, who was angry with the smoke in the same place: "What did Xue Meng see?"

He really can't believe that Xue Meng can be a good person, but he can't believe what Xuegang's beauty or beautiful man can see in Xue Meng's eyes.

However, Xue Meng was really thrown out by the color gourd, and the color gourd jumped and rolled to the unbearable look. Obviously, Xue Meng was a joke.

The teacher couldn't bear it, and played a round for Xue Meng. He said: "It may be that the color gourd misjudged..."

When he hadn't finished speaking, he listened to Xue Meng's out of the dragon city, referring to the coloring gourd roaring: "You * actually turned into my own illusion to confuse me! You also let me wear women in the illusion!!! You Your dog breaks the gourd!! You dare to humiliate me!!!"

"..." Many disciples of the dead and the dead, including the ink burning, silent, want to endure, but did not hold back, all hahaha laughed out loud.

The most narcissistic Xue Ziming, the peacock opened the screen of the narcissus, the new marry of the color gourd, Xue Meng a hijab, seeing the face is actually his own makeup -

"It's reasonable." The ink burned as much as he could, not letting himself laugh too exaggerated, and nodded in a hurry. "Xue Meng is a girl, it should be very beautiful."

He was still not happy, he heard Xue Zhengyi shouted a headache: "Yu Heng, do not wait for the wine gourd, this color gourd, you also help to cure?"

Chapter 193

There are three of the most lonely and purest people in the dead.

Xue Meng.

Greedy elders.

Chu nightning.

Xue Meng has been thrown out by the color gourd. The elder of the wolf is not the body of the room. He used to marry a wife in his early years, but the woman was weak and soon died after marriage. It is said that the elders of the wolf are studying medicine and are unwilling. Look at someone around you who left because of illness.

So only the night is left.

"The elders of Yuheng can definitely settle."

"Yeah, the Lord is not good, you can only rely on the Master of the Lord."

The ink burned on the side and heard the fire, but there was no way to do it.

In the midst of nothing, the ink burned and rushed to the doctor, and actually said to Xue Zheng: "Or, let me try?"

Xue Zhengyi looked at him back and forth, quite euphemistically said: "The burning of children, to surrender the color gourd, the first requirement is that there has never been a love story."

Ink burning: "..."

Over there, the wine gourd has been dizzy and turned to the night, and finally slammed into the ground, the blue smoke scattered, became a small jasper gourd, lying quietly on the ground. Xue Zhengyi came forward to collect the wine gourd into the sacred sac, and said: "Haha, it’s really a jade, come, color gourd."

Chu night Ning looks as usual, but the eyelashes are falling down, and I don’t want to look directly at Xue Zhengxuan: "Don't go."

Xue Zhengzheng, let alone he is jealous, and the elders around him are stunned.

"Yes, why?"

"... Drink too much, tired."

Xue Zhengyi is not stupid, and a thousand cups are not drunk and late, this sentence is not a false statement.

He stared at the cold, cold white man, squinting, and looked at Chu Ningning impatiently, and turned his sleeves. Xue Zhengyi suddenly stunned, and for a moment, he blurted out: "Yu Heng, you should not -"

Chu’s ear is red, and he looks back in anger. Feng Yan is like electricity: “What about nonsense?”

Xue Zhengyi’s “not a room” has not been said yet. I can’t stand it anymore. How can my heart be possible? Who is Chu Xiening?

Late night Yu Heng, Beidou Xianzun, if he had any dew love, who believes?

Xue Zheng hurriedly patted his legs: "Then you, then you try it, otherwise the gourd has been wandering here, although it does not hurt people, but it is also troublesome to die. And this wine color gourd hard, I am afraid to spend three years five It can't cut off a layer of skin."

"..." Chu Yuening's gaze passed over the crowd, and all the disciples looked at him eagerly. Only the ink burned in his heart, and some shy and difficult to hide and stare at himself.

Chu night Ning's heart is dark. But at this moment, I am in a dilemma. If I go to this, I am afraid that I will be a tongue in the future. If I think about it, I will say, "That I will try."

The color gourd turned the night into the gourd belly, and then shook his head and shook his head. The disciples of the dead and the sorrows are not suspicious. They all believe that Chu will go in and go, and the color gourd will be able to be surrendered by him.

The most innocent fairy in the world, has been on the rainy night not long ago, in the dark little inn of Wuchang Town, above the bed of lips and teeth.

I was soiled by myself.

Chu night Ning opened his eyes.

There is no heaven and earth in this gourd belly, and it is a dream.

As in the legend, the color gourd is really red and the candle is low. Go forward, but see a red rosewood bed with thick quilts, sprinkled peanuts and red dates, and felts are all available.

One person who saw that the gourd changed was standing at the door of the warm room. He smiled and smiled, and his head was full of green and long hair. She opened her mouth and even the teeth were blue and blue.

Chu night Ning knew that he could never surrender the color gourd, and he was too lazy to talk nonsense. Then he went up to the old woman and said, "Grandma, you just send me out, don't let me cover my head."

The old woman and Yan Yue opened her mouth: "Uh-huh."

"..."

I did not expect that this old woman could not understand the language, and there was no such thing as a wine gourd. I could not understand the meaning of Chu Yuning. There was no way for Chu, but he had to sigh and walked to the bed with his scalp.

There is a person sitting on the top of the bed, the black color of the top of the bed is embroidered with dark dragons, and the next one is embroidered with feathers, and the foot is red, and the hijab is covered.

The old woman walked calmly and calmly, and the smoke in her hand swelled, and a sapphire came out, and she handed it to the hands of Chu Yuning, and then made a move.

Although Chu Evening couldn’t accept the appearance of wearing a bridal gown, I thought it was a little disgusting, but I thought that when I dressed up as a bride in the town of Choi Butterfly, I felt that it was ugly, not looking at it. .

"..."

Yes, that's right. Nausea is disgusting, not looking at it.

Chu night Ning Qing stood face for a moment, took a deep breath, and then stepped forward.

The old woman urged: "Well, uh."

"Know, don't worry."

Ruyi, red silk fell.

Chu Xi Ning slightly widened his eyes: "You are..."

Between the phoenix candlesticks, a man wearing a nine-pronged beaded squinted, light and shadow flowing on his pale and handsome face, a pair of black scorpions sneer, he slightly lifted his chin and smiled at Chu’s late night. .

Chu nightning could not help but hold it -

This person is not burning, but the face is really sick and white, his eyes are also embarrassing, the whole person's look is quite odd.

"Oh, it seems that I am late in my heart, I still can't forget the seat." Seeing him squatting, the man reached out and slammed the arm of Chu Yuning. His fingertips were cold, staring at the eyes of Chu Yuning, and he was ashamed and sly, like a eagle.

The ink burned and opened his mouth, laughing, but the smile was not warm, but the white teeth.

"This seat is very gratifying."

...what is messy!

Chu nightning is also good and funny, and the heart of this gourd is afraid to be stupid in the Golden Drum Tower, and the people who have changed are so inexplicable.

"release."

The ink burns without letting go.

Chu night Ning turned to the old blue-haired lady: "Let him let go."

The voice did not fall, the "bride" smoldered to stand up, Chu nightning only had time to see the beads he was wearing was shaking, the waist was a tight, turning around, waiting for him to return to God, has been pushed in the golden red On the bed, the ink slammed over and pressed him tightly, and he was going to lick his face.

"It seems that this seat gives you the taste, you enjoy it?" The man's hot breath sprayed on his neck, "so that you forget to forget me..."

Chu night Ning Emei avoids flashing, and the words cursing the coloring gourd in my heart are simply ridiculous.

The ink burned him to be gentle and polite, and he was very disciplined. How could he talk to himself like this? He was embarrassed and funny, but also annoyed and helpless. So he avoided for a while and made a messy mess.

Suddenly, between the electric and the Flint, Chu’s late night squinted and stared at the golden brocade, and suddenly remembered something – dream.

He stumbled.

Then the face was red.

This is the dream he has done.

The ink in the dream is like this. The mouth speaks mean and stimulating words, and the movements are very rough, and you don’t pity.

So this is not the illusion that the color gourd is free to give birth, but the delusions that are unspeakable in his own heart? This thought was too shameful, so that Chu’s late night was awkward and shy, and even the tip of his ear was hot.

"baby……"

Suddenly, it was hot and humid, and in the night of the night, the ink burned and kissed his earrings, greedily and evilly, and explored the tongue between the ear vortex.

"what……"

When Chu was late, he was so stunned that he was soaring and screaming in this sudden and intense stimuli. This sound was hoarse and moist, full of water vapor. The sound has been exported, it is even more shameful. I don't know why, the scene in front of me is too real. It seems that I kissed him like this in a long time, and I was entangled. Chu nightning was made on the bed, and I couldn’t help but kiss his neck, cheeks and ears. On the side, the action is violent.

He was anxious and angry, and even his eyes were red. He wanted to struggle, but he couldn’t take off until the "burning" lips were about to fall on his lips.

"boom!"

Suddenly, "ink burning" seems to be perceived. He jerked a bit, and unfortunately glared at the late night.

Taking this opportunity, Chu Xiening pushed him away, the golden light in his hand, and the day’s questioning was ignited, and he went down to the "ink burning" in this illusion.

Seeing the light that day, the "ink burning" is even more shocking, blurted out: "You actually... you turned out to be..."

The willows fell and the fire broke.

"Ink burning" hurts, but does not add resistance, but the horror of the eyes wide open, after a few, a thin smoke.

The old lady with blue hair disappeared, and the "burning" disappeared.

In the warm room of the candle, a strange young man with a cyan hair, pointed ears and a handsome appearance.

Chu night Ning Yu anger has not disappeared, got up from the couch, grabbed his open cloak, a pair of flirtatious and angry phoenix screaming at this guy, his voice is low and dangerous, like an angry tiger leopard.

He gnashed his teeth and said: "Hey animals."

This young man is the * of the "color gourd". The color gourd stares at Chu Yuning. His face is already unmanned, and he is shocked and afraid:

"It is you..."

Chu night Ning was annoyed and turned his head and yelled at him: "What is I you?"

The color gourd has been shivering and shivering, and slammed into the ground, and repeatedly gimmicks: "The younger generation does not know..." He seems to even say that the name of the late night is fearful, and he trembled and continued to forcefully beheaded. "Please Xianjun forgives sins, please Xianjun forgives sins."

"..."

In the early years of the night, the Ning 斩 斩 demon enchanted, surrendered a lot of strange ghosts, "Heavenly question" in the cows and ghosts and snakes and gods have a Hehe Wei name, once there was a little enchanted see him, he was scared to move and did not dare to move.

But did not think that this color gourd is also the same virtue.

Chu night Ning received the heavenly question, sullen face, rose from the couch, staring at the young man who could not hold the hoe, silently and said, "Give me out."

"Yes, yes!" Where the color gourd still dared to neglect, immediately chanted the curse, only heard a "squeaky" sound, the original smoke began, Chu nightning was so confused that the fog could not open his eyes, until the fog dissipated, When he could see the things in front of him, he had already returned to the square in front of the Dan Heart Temple.

There were a few people around.

"Master, is it okay?"

"Yu Heng, you have packed up very well!"

"The teacher respects the master, is there any injury?"

The smog had some smog and rotten smell. Chu nightning was smoked a little dizzy. After a while, I noticed that the color gourd had disappeared. On the bluestone board in front of me, there was a small pink husk lying quietly. gourd.

Chu night Ning thought about the illusion of the bottom, still a little shame, not willing to say more, only to the unpredictable and said to Xue Zhengxuan: "Receive these two gourds, put them in the town demon tower ""

Xue Zheng said: "Good... oh..."

However, his gaze stopped at Chu Ning, and he came back and forth, quite hesitant.

Chu Xiaoning was stared at him: "What?"

"……It's nothing."

However, Xue Zhengyi’s expression is definitely not saying “nothing”, and Chu night Ning suddenly found that, besides him, a circle of people around him were secretly looking at him with a curious and funny look. Chu nightning turned his head, even the ink burned and looked at him a little slyly, the wheat-colored face was a little red.

"how……"

This time, "I haven't asked for an exit," Chu will rather know the reason.

He bowed his head and saw his clothes.

I didn’t know when it started, about the moment I entered the belly of the color gourd. The dress on his body was replaced with a golden crown robes that resembled Xue Meng. The clothes that should be worn only. Chu nightning: "..."

Yu Heng’s elders and kimonos were degraded, and soon they became a topic of dying.

What the disciples are most keen to discuss is - "I don't know who the elders of Yu Heng are in the stomach of the gourd."

Some people do not think that their lives are short, and they are happy and eloquent: "It must be a fairy-tale beauty."

Some people suspect that they are long-lived, and they are squinting: "Maybe be a god-like man?"

Some people cherish their lives, they said in a serious way: "The elders opened their hijabs and saw the color gourd itself. If you see something else, the color gourd will not be happy, and he will not be able to surrender this monster. ”

Everyone disliked this cherished life, and they felt that he was not interested. He shook his head and dispersed.

However, there is one of the most heroic warriors who are not afraid of death.

On this day, the weather was gloomy and the morning repair was suspended. The ink burned the snacks quietly in the early morning, and the monks did not pay attention, slipping into the red lotus water and tired of the night.

The two had eaten, and the "Tian Xianmei" and "Tianjinmei" in the crowd were laughing and holding the hand of Chu Yuning and asked: "Master, you are in the color gourd, but have you married me?"

Chapter 194

Chu nightning eats a little support, and anger rushes: "What are you, you are a big man, you are not harmful when you say this..."

The ink burned and smiled more clearly: "That, since you are not jealous of me, is that I am jealous of you?"

Chu nightning is even more angry, not only angry, but also shame.

He couldn't tell the ink burned when he was killed. The color gourd turned into a dream that he had dreamed of, and the skin was somewhat pale. Not to tell the smoldering, in the dream of the past, how do they entangle themselves, sweating and fiercely doing / love.

The so-called person wants to face the skin, one of the most important things in this world is the face of his elders.

Therefore, Chu night Ning 拂 sleeves said: "If you talk nonsense, go now, do not allow you to stay here."

This ink burned out, and licked his lips, it seems to be a little wronged, but it is still a clever duty, the black scorpion looks at him, and takes the tip of his nose to lick the cheeks of the late night, very soft and spoiled. Meaning: "Oh, then I don't ask anything, good teacher, don't drive me away."

"The teacher respects the teacher, don't add a good one." Chu Xiaoning was soft and soft in his heart, and some of them couldn't, but they pushed his head, and said, "Do not scream."

"But if you only call the teacher, you are not close."

"Have it?"

Ink burns and follows: "Look, I used to call you a master before you go alone. If you call your master when you are alone, that's boring, right?"

Chu night is not fooled: "No."

"..." The ink burns a trick and fails to change a trick. Pulling the night of the night, Ning keeps calling, "Master, Master, Master." Each call is sweet and greasy, so that Chu Yuning The back is hairy. At the end of the night, I couldn’t bear it, and put a book next to it on my face.

"shut up."

The book is very thick, but it is very light and not painful.

The ink burned and laughed and took the book down, revealing the handsome face behind him: "I am afraid that I will call my habits like this, and people will accidentally call the teacher before. So, I still want to call them individually."

Chu night Ning Meifeng picked up: "You call other names, can you not get used to it, go to people to call?"

The ink burned and sighed: "Why don't you always bite the hook."

"..." was stabbed by the description of the bite hook. When Chu Ning became unhappy, he looked down at his book and ignored the apprentice who blew his eyes on the table.

This kind of peace of mind has nothing to do for a while, the smoldering is very lost: "I want to ask some from the Master."

"Ok?"

"Shi Yi and Xue Meng are called you Master. I also call you Master, there is no difference, I, I really don't want much, I want to discuss something different... Only I can call."

Chu Xiaoning stopped his movements and straightened up and looked at him.

"I don't call it often." The ink burns thick and long eyelashes and lays a thin shadow on the nose. "Occasionally... isn't it?"

"..."

"It can't be done." The ink burned more and more. "If you don't call it, you won't call it."

In the end, Chu Ning gave way.

It’s about a long time, and it’s ten years old. It’s still hard to hold back the young people’s soft and hard foam, and spoiled.

After looking at himself and nodding his head, the handsome man who smiled brilliantly suddenly felt a little deceived.

He seems to have been fierce all the time, clawing his teeth. But the final result is often that he is compromising, and he is steadfast in the ink.

He fished this fish for a long time, and finally he was still confused, biting this hook called ink burning.

"What should I call you?" asked the hook.

Chu night Ning Yu: "Any."

"How can I be free? This is a very important thing."

The ink burned for a long time, but the brain was scarce, and even a little rough, so I only had to say: "Baby?"

Chu Xiaoning immediately thought of the dream, and some could not stand it: "No."

"Chu Lang?"

Chu nightning is actually a bit disgusting, and sullenly asked: "...Do you need me to call you a burning girl?"

"Hahaha, it's not very good." The ink smirked and smiled for a while, and began to frown, but he always tried to force something too hard, so it was still very bad, "Chu Lang baby?"

After I finished speaking, I couldn’t stand it anymore. I held my forehead and I was desperate.

Chu night, seeing him like this, couldn’t help but smile: "Don't think about it, what do you mean by thinking hard, but it's awkward."

Mo-burning thinks that what he said makes sense, but he is not willing, and finally laughs: "When I wait, I must think about it and think of the most suitable for you."

After a pause, he pulled the night of Ning, who was standing next to the book, and climbed the back neck of Chu Yuning, letting him sit on his lap and staring at Chu’s night for a while.

Chu nightning is a little uneasy: "What?"

The ink burned and sighed and said: "No matter how many times you look at it, you can't help it."

"What mess is seven... oh..."

The words have not been finished, the lips have been caught, the soft, moist lips of the ink are touched, sweet and fragrant, he hugs the person on the leg, and the two are intimately in the chair. It was raining outside, and the sound of rain covered the sticky and shy sound of the lips and tongues.

When they came apart, Chu nightning slowly opened his wet eyes and wanted to see the ink, but he did not dare to look at it.

The ink burned and laughed, knowing that his face was thin, he couldn't help but hold him into his arms, stroking him, and his heartbeat was intertwined.

"In fact, it is good to call you anything."

"Ok?"

"Nothing." The ink burned and laughed, and finally, "The Master is the best."

Chu night Ning fell on his shoulder, this feeling is very sweet, but it makes him feel overwhelmed.

He sat on the ink-burning leg and could clearly feel the hard and hot thing. He felt that his head was smoking.

For a long while, he whispered: "How come you..."

"Cough, nothing."

"...I help you..." After saying this, Chu’s face was hot and feverish.

The ink burned busy: "No, I will go to the Presbyterian Church for a while."

Chu Xiaoning looked at the hourglass: "There is almost a time for tea, it should be..."

Ink burns: "Not enough."

"Ok?"

"...can't get it out."

Chu night Ning took a look, and then reacted, and his face was even redder.

He was busy getting out of the ink and stepped back.

After the retreat, I was a little annoyed. I felt that I was weak and I took a step forward.

The ink burned and looked funny. He sat in a chair and didn't hide it. Even though the clothes were covered, the place of desire still looked awkward and could kill people's lives.

"Don't tease you." The ink burned and finally pulled his wrist. He wanted to pull him over and kiss his lips, but the taste of Chu Xi Ning was so confusing. He was afraid that he would get caught up. Can not help but indulge, so in the end just holding the hands of Chu Yuning.

He took his hand to his lips and looked at the night, and then dropped the curtain and dropped a kiss. Very religious.

At the end, I gently licked the back of Chu’s hand.

"Master, you are so sweet."

The rain in the middle of the squad continued for half a month. This day was finally cleared and I saw the sun.

The ink burned on the deep and shallow water pool and walked among the bamboo forests. Today, I resumed the morning repair, but Chu did not come. I heard people say that he went to the back hill and went to teach a few stupid disciples to throw plum blossoms.

Before I even walked to the shooting range, I heard the cold voice of Chu’s late night: “The hand should be relaxed, the plum dart is caught in the index finger and the ring finger, and the spiritual force comes out from the fingertips, causing it to scatter at the fingertips. When the golden light is emitted, throw it at the target again."

"sand--"

Listening to the sound, the ink burned know that the disciples were empty again, and they all lamented.

"God, it's really hard."

"Elder, can you demonstrate it to us again?"

Chu night Ningdao: "When the golden light is scattered, the plum blossoms will be slightly hot, feel carefully, don't look at it with your eyes."

"Can you vote without looking?"

Chu Evening has not answered yet, just listen to a voice with a smile behind him: "Of course it can be approved."

Chu nightning turned back: "How come you."

The group of new disciples said: "Mr. Brother."

There is also a very delicate and lovely female disciple, and her face is red, and she clenches her fists with her hands.

The ink-burning disciples did not pay much attention to the disciples, but went straight to the front of the night, and said: "Is it better to be blinded to the teacher?"

"……it is good."

I got the permission, the ink burned off the hair band on my head, the three fingers wide, wrapped around the front of the night, the hair band is tight, but not the person, the silk touch is like running water, the hair band is micro-tip Hunting in the wind.

Chu night Ningdao: "Mei Dart."

The elders of the elders came up and handed their own plum blossoms to Chu Yuning.

Chu night Ningdao: "Three."

"Ah?" The disciple, though puzzled, still took two more from the dark sac and presented it to him. Chu night Ning's slender and cold fingers rubbed the plum blossoms with the cold metal texture, rubbed his lips, and then did not say a word, did not stop, only to see his fingertips, between the electric and the flint, the darts have been from him Sweep between the finger gaps -

"Hey! - Hey!"

The humming sound is crisp.

"Oh, hit! The bulls are red! But there is only one."

Chu night never snorted, and the ink burned lightly: "There are two more targets behind you."

The disciples who were new to the beginning of the news did not believe, and they turned back to look at it. At first glance, they were ashamed. The remaining two iron darts are left and right, deeply embedded in the target in the opposite direction, centered on the red heart.

In the sand bamboo forest, the morning lingering, the disciples of the scorpion were shocked and unable to speak, and Chu Yuning raised his hand and picked up the snow-blue ribbon of the blindfold. The phoenix was slightly stunned and the eyelashes were moving.

He returned the hair band to the ink and said: "The first sound of the square is the sound of the three plum blossoms colliding in the air. If the spirit is well controlled, two of them will be repelled. To attack, when you are in the war, you can often get out of it, so you have to take the lead."

All the disciples face each other, suddenly there is a young age, screaming with a sullen face: "Elders, this, how should I practice? Is there a flaw?"

Chu nightning said: "The ink burns, your hand gives them a look."

The ink burned and smiled and reached out. The young disciples gathered around and clamored to see what mystery was on the ink. The result was that for a long time, nothing came out, but the woman looked at it, in her heart. The deer smashed and the waves flowed.

She and a few sisters are just getting started, and my heart is still very quiet. I often go to the mountains to buy some free books. I have seen the "Unknown Clouds" that I have seen before in the evening. They have also circulated in private. The little girls were shy and surprised when they saw the size rankings. They laughed and laughed at each other, but they also whispered about it in the disciple room.

"I heard that the longer a man's finger is, the more powerful it is." There is a big sultry sister who said that he has a big chest. "The next time I have a chance, I will go to Mengpotang to eat, and I will squeeze in the ink." After the brothers, I want to see how big his hand is."

Later, the sister-in-law was really crowded. In order to make a meal after the ink burned, the running hurriedly hurriedly, and accidentally knocked over the soup bowl and poured half of the hot soup on him.

The little mouth of the girl grew up slightly, and she was sluggish and embarrassed. She didn’t know what to do. She saw a slender and symmetrical hand and walked away the bowl of hot soup in her bowl. Put it back on the countertop and then change it to a new bowl.

"Don't overturn, how wasteful it is."

Hearing his low magnetic voice, the sister did not even dare to carry it, his face was red, and his head was hot with the soup in the bowl.

From the beginning, she dared to sneak a sneak shot, aiming at his waist, the lines were strong, aiming at his clothes, his chest wide, of course, the most targeted is the hands...

"The best." After she came back, she couldn't tell the praises. In the end, she could only use these two words to describe it. At that time, all the younger sisters in the house didn't say anything, pouting, and their hearts were full of heat, full of thoughts and ambiguous thoughts.

Suddenly a cold voice interrupted her memories -

"What do you see?"

A disciple said: "The elders forgive sins, and the disciples are dull, they can't tell."

"Is it very powerful to go up the hand of the ink brother?"

Everyone was screaming, and it was her turn. She was blushing and nervous. She blurted out and said: "The fingers are very long."

"?"

The ink burned for a moment, and I didn't know what they were observing. I simply took back my hand, scratched my head, and looked back at Chu.

Although Chu Evening doesn't know what the finger length represents, but he is not a dull person, he glances at the look of the female disciple, and the vagueness in his heart is definitely not a good thing. His face is getting darker and his sleeves are cold. Road: "Is looking at something that is not there."

Seeing his faint anger between the eyebrows, the disciples were shocked and could not help but bow their heads.

The smoldering felt the stagnation of the atmosphere. He didn't want Chu to be said to be inhuman. Afterwards, he smiled and took the initiative to say, "Yes."

After he finished this sentence, he looked at Chu Yuning and said:

“The fingertips are worn out, crusted, and worn out. Repeated nearly a hundred times, you can accurately control the spiritual power. There is no shortcut.”

With them at noon, most of the disciples can master some of the roads, and Chu will rather stay more. It doesn't matter if someone else's apprentice makes a little bit of it, but if it is taught too carefully, it will not necessarily make the elders comfortable. Chu nightning is not a fifteen or six-year-old boy who has just left the mountain. These people are so sophisticated, he finally understands some.

He and the smoldering together took out the bamboo forest and came to the bridge.

They walked very close, shoulder-to-shoulder, under the sleeves of the fallen down, the back of the hand would always be honed, and the hearts of each other would be soft and soft, like spring buds sprouting.

No one was in the air. The ink burned and finally reached out and clasped the fingers of Chu’s lateness. Although it was quickly released, both of them had a thin red tip and a thirsty throat.

Speaking of the last night in the town of Wuchang, the chances of being alone can be pitiful.

Occasionally, the red lotus water has closed the door and entangled, and I have to worry about whether Xue Zhengyi will suddenly visit.

In fact, nowadays, only a short touch of fingers and fingers makes the fire in the chest. He whispers: "Master, can we go tonight..."

When the words were not finished, the front suddenly rushed to the individual, and the ink burned immediately stood up straight, and licked his lips, standing on the side and no longer talking. The man did not notice the strangeness. He came all the way and saluted: "The elders of Yuheng have urgent things to do, and the Lord asks you to go to the Danxin Temple."

Chu night Ning asked: "What happened?"

"The guests came, and brought important news. It was related to Xu Shuanglin. Xue Zhangmen couldn’t make up his mind. When all the elders were called in the morning to discuss it, they would be worse."

Chu Xiaoning heard the words of Xu Shuanglin, and then refused to be warm, and immediately went to Danxin Hall.

After the ink burned, he said, "Wait for me, I have played with Xu Shuanglin, maybe I can help."

The two of them quickly passed the light and rushed, and soon they arrived at the Dan Heart Hall.

Pushing the door into the temple, full of silence, in addition to Xue Zhengxi and the elders, there are two people in the hall standing with blood.

The sight of the smoldering fell on the sword behind one of them. I felt a little familiar. After a while, he squinted his eyes and his face changed abruptly: "Leaves forget?!"

Chapter 195

Hearing someone calling him, Ye recalled the past. Although her expression is embarrassing, her spirit is not as bad as the imaginary imagination.

Seeing the burning of the ink, the leaves are forgotten, and with him a gift, it is still the number of men's rituals - she can't change this habit and said: "Mu Gongzi."

The ink burned and looked at her, and looked at the Nangong Temple next to her.

He could not help but ask: "You... this is where you came from, how is this body blood..."

Ye forgets the road: "We started from Linyi, and we encountered evil spirits on the way. It is inevitable that the dress is not perfect, sorry."

Ink burning is about to ask again, Xue Zheng said: "The fire is coming? Yeah, let's talk about it."

When Chu Ning entered the house, he stopped looking at the ink, but sat down on his own position, rectifying the dress and looking at the Nangong Temple.

Although he and Nangong Temple did not have the name of mentoring, they also had the enlightenment. He saw Nangong for a moment, and his heart was inevitably sour, but the export was just a simple sentence: "... Are you all right?"

Since the death of the Confucianism, this is the first time someone has seen them and will ask them if they are doing well.

Nangong’s eyelids were a little red. He slammed his head down, and he squeezed his fist into a fist. He closed his eyes for a long time, and then restrained the urge to cry in front of Chu’s night. He said: “No, nothing, Still have a good time."

Chu night Ning gently sighed and hung down, no more words.

He did not believe in the words of Nangong, and Linyi Road was far away. How could the two young people feel like they were not suffering?

Xue Zhengyi was very distressed and helped explain: "Yu Heng, you have not come, it is like this. Nangong Gongzi and Ye girl found some clues and came to tell us."

"I heard, is it related to Xu Shuanglin?"

"Ok."

Chu night Ningdao: "Sit down and talk."

The ink burned and moved to the chair, but Nangong and Ye Jingxiu felt that they were dirty and stinky, and they were not willing to sit down. Chu nightning did not force them, and for a while, asked: "Where did you go there, where did you go later?"

Nangong Shu Road: "I and Ye Forgether were forced to sneak into the Weishan Mountain, which was separated by a river." Suddenly, continued, "Weishan is in a remote situation, it is inconvenient to subpoena, and Ye Yexi was injured again. So after the fire went out, we took a rest for a while before we returned... I returned to the Confucianist Gate."

Nowadays, listening to Nangong驷 mentions that the martial art that he first entered the red dust is already a human being. Chu Evening also couldn’t tell what it was like, half a sigh, sighed: "There should be no grass in the grass."

"The guru said it was good. It was true that the grass was not born, but there was something in the ruins."

Chu night Ning was asked: "What?"

"These bugs."

Nangong 驷 opened a * pocket in front of him, opened half, half hidden, filled with worms, green shells with black spots, three big two small and five spots, the insect tail scattered Light * suffocation. Most of these worms are still in the bag, seemingly afraid of light, but a few have already flown out, parked on the wall of the Danxin Temple, on the colonnade, the place where the climb climbed out another blood mark.

The ink burns the worm, the soul worm.

This kind of worm lives only in the blood pool near the Confucianism Gate of Linyi. It is a kind of worm that lives and does not die. It depends on eating human flesh and soul.

Almost all the elders felt that the worm was extremely disgusting. Lu Cun even took the mouth and nose directly from the sputum, and he could not stand the stench.

"We found these soul-eaters in the ruins." Nangong said, "I thought it was the worms in the nearby blood pool that were attracted, so I flew some here, but later I found out."

"How to say?"

"There are too many insects. I and Ye Ye have walked through the 72nd city of Confucianism, the bricks, the mud, the ashes, the densely numb. These are the soul-eaters. We feel that something is wrong. After careful inspection, we found that not only Adults, and larvae.... The master should understand what I mean."

Chu nightning did not understand the locusts, but at the beginning there was some embarrassment, but then I thought about it and I figured it out.

The blood pool is next to Weishan, and there is a big river separated from Linyi. The power of the soul-sucking wings is weak. The adult smells the breath of the dead. It can barely make sense, but what about the larvae?

How can the larvae squat across the river with their legs and cross the mountains and rivers, how could they come to the scorched earth of the Confucianism Gate.

Chu night Ning Emei said: "Is anyone placed here in advance?"

"Well, I think so."

The elders of the greedy wolf listened at the side, and suddenly realized: "This kind of soul worm can store spiritual power. After the catastrophe, the grievances are everywhere, and there are many monks in the Linyi. The worms eat the soul of the monks, and they become one and the other are stored differently. The seed of the attribute Spirit. With these thousands of seeds, even if you don't need your own spells, you can drive most of the arrays."

So who is the person who puts the bug? Who can predict the disaster in Linyi in advance? Who needs outside spiritual power?

No one answered, but the answer is self-evident.

Xue Zhengxuan said: "So, during the period of up and down the boundary, I have been relying on the traces of the spell to find Xu Shuanglin. As a result, he is not using his own power, but the worm?"

Nangong said: "Well, it is true."

Xue Zhengyi said: "Hey...Detecting spells, you can only detect people, and you can't detect the traces of the beasts. If Xu Shuanglin used this method, it can hide the traces for a long time."

He also asked the greedy wolf: "Can you track the worms and find the whereabouts of Xu Shuanglin?"

The greedy wolf said: "Impossible, the soul-eating worms go through the gloom, and after eating the soul fragments, they all go underground, and they can't find out."

Hearing here, Xue Zhengyi suddenly remembered something and said: "Since going to Nether, why not ask a master of guilty? He should be able to know the ghosts."

Chu nightning immediately said: "You don't have to ask him."

"why?"

"It is useless to find him." Chu said, "He doesn't want to get involved, nothing will be said."

Chu nightning was once a pro-disciple disciple of sin. At this moment, he said this sentence with such ulterior motives. Although everyone is puzzled, it is always difficult to say more, and the hall suddenly falls into silence.

For a long while, Xue Zhengyi muttered: "How is that good? Since Xu Shuanglin can use locusts Spirituality avoids hunting and hunting, how can we check it is useless, is it because of him? ”

Chu Xiaoning proposed: "If you change your search and find ideas, can you do it?"

"How to say?"

"Respect the Lord, when Xu Shuanglin walked away, he took away three things. What kind of things do you remember?"

Xue Zhengyi slammed one by one: "Luo Fenghua's Linguin, Nangong..." He glanced at Nangong and sighed in his heart, letting his voice lighten. "The head of Nangong, there is also a god."

Chu night Ning said: "Well, there is always a purpose for a person to do things. When he is rushing to escape, he still insists on taking away these three things. It will never be idle and boring. Xu Sulin, this person, take his brother what to do?"

"Well... revenge?"

"Then he took the martial arts, what is it for?"

Xue Zhengxuan thought for a moment: "Resist the cracks in the ghost world by five pure spiritual powers."

"Tearing the cracks in the ghost world is to get the spiritual core of Luo Fenghua." Chu said, "I don't have to tear open the second time."

"What is it for?" Chu Yuning said: "I think there is a possibility, he is for the rebirth."

Xue Zheng sighed a bit: "But the rebirth...you don't need five kinds of pure spiritual power to perform, can you not show your master of sin?"

Chu Xiening shook his head: "The crime of sin has said that the law of rebirth in the world is not exactly the same, so the Lord does not have to use his display as a reference."

The greedy wolf heard this and sneered: "The jade elders have no idea, how can they dare to speculate, Xu Sulin is doing these to cultivate the rebirth?"

Chu night Ningdao: "With the last thing he took, Luo Fenghua's spiritual core."

Among the halls, Chu’s voice was steady and low, and methodical.

"A few years ago, I had tried a dying girl in Choi Butterfly Town. When she was young, she had a madman who was covered in blood. She gave her oranges to eat. She also said that her eyes look like herself. The old man, the madman finally said a word - Linyi has a man, twenty hearts are dead."

At the age of twenty, it was the Nangong bat that was planted and slammed by everyone for the age of eternal life.

At that year, Lingshan Conference, he was full of enthusiasm and arrogance. He felt that as long as he relied on his own talents and worked hard for his life, he would have fairness and justice and possess all the things he deserved.

However, he did his best and got only one name.

The sharp edge of the hand, the ambition of the heart, the enemy is not even the brother tongue lotus, slipping to shoot the horse.

He hates.

There is nowhere to be heard in the depths. Everyone is laughing at him, accusing him and spurning him.

In the end, the living person became a dead person, and the dead became a devil.

The devil has climbed out of the blood of the ruined mountain, and wants to go to all the righteous gentlemen in this world to recover the justice he deserves.

"This madman doesn't have to say much now, it's Xu Shuanglin, then who is it? Who is Luo Sui's eyes like?"

"It looks like a similar name and has a surname..." Xue Zheng said, "Isn't that Luo Fenghua?"

Chu night Ningdao: "I think it should be Luo Fenghua. At the bottom of Jincheng Lake, Xu Shuanglin tried to cherish the game of chess and rebirth. The chess game is for manipulating others, who is born again? He took away two bodies in total. The head of the Nangong, Luo Fenghua, is not always for the head of the Nangong."

Xue Zhengyi muttered: "But what did he do to resurrect Luo Fenghua? Isn’t Luo Fenghua not someone who has framed him?"

"The heart is unpredictable, can't be rumored." Chu said lately, "But he took Luo Fenghua's body, except for resurrection, I can't think of other uses."

Everyone was silent, and they thought about it. They all thought that Chu’s analysis was really good, but it was still unfounded. After all, these are only their inferences. The answer to this question is probably that Xu Shuanglin, who does not know where to hide at this moment, can answer himself.

After the meeting, the ink burned for a long time, and that night, he went to the warm cabinet to find Xue Zhengyi.

Xue Zhengxuan is reviewing the classics and looking at some of the contents related to "the soul worm", hoping to get some clues to trace the whereabouts of Xu Shuanglin.

"uncle."

"Fire? Is it so late, not going to sleep?"

"I can't sleep, there is something I want to ask my uncle."

Xue Zhengyi raised his chin and motioned him to sit down. The ink burned and hesitated. He asked the uncle to ask: "Uncle knows, Luo Fenghua...that is, Xu Shuanglin’s master, what kind of person is it?" "Luo Fenghua." Xue Zhengyi frowned, thinking hard for a long time, Shaking his head, "I have very little contact with him. I can’t say it. It’s probably...justice, fortitude, fairness, ignorance, but the temper is actually very good. It’s also a good thing to do things. It’s not going to drag the water. He is a Confucianist. At the time of the head, he also sent disciples to practice the demon and demon."

Ink burning: "In short, in addition to the position of the head of the Nangong family, he has no criticism in other places, right?"

Xue Zhengyi sighed: "Yes, there is no criticism. He is a good person. I don't want to understand. People like him can make such a heavy curse on their apprentices."

The ink burned for a moment, suddenly said: "Does the uncle think that you are only a person like Luo Fenghua?"

Xue Zheng stunned: "You want to say Yu Heng?... Got it, Yu Heng temper is good."

"No, it's another person."

"Who?"

Ink burning: "Leaves forget."

"Ah..." Xue Zhengyi slowly, the tiger's eyes were round, and the three words were chewed silently between his lips and tongues, and then he whispered, "Leaves forget..."

This person is kind and resolute, tough and unyielding, and Luo Fenghua, who only spent a year or so in the memory, is very similar.

"looks like?"

"...like." Xue Zhengyi was a little surprised, because Ye Jingxiu and Luo Fenghua were different in gender, and the age difference was big, and the status of Confucianism was different. So he did not put these two people before. I have compared them together, and at this moment, I was so ignited by the ink, I was surprised that these two people were just a model carved out, exactly the same. Xue Zhengyi was more and more surprised, and the long-lost memories appeared. He could even vaguely remember that when Luo Fenghua was only a Confucianist, the clothes he wore and the ones he used to wear were very similar. There are also two people who talk and behave in a speech.

Even the way to pull the bow -

When he was young, he also saw Luo Fenghua's bow, which was to celebrate Nangong Liu Shengchen. Confucianism also invited Xue's brothers. Xue Zhengyi remembered that the snow was in the sky. Luo Fenghua only had three fingers and bowstrings. From then on, the arrow smashed out of the air, scratching the smudges, and a snow-eyed rabbit outside the hundred steps fell to the ground.

Around the people are boasting that he bowed, Luo Fenghua just smiled softly, casually put the bow and arrow back, squatting on the left arm, fingertips subconsciously rubbing the body.

It is a set of movements that are flowing, and the final ending is not the same as the mighty and powerful of others.

Xue Zhengyi looked around and felt amazing, and he remembered it.

Suddenly at this moment, when the Battle of the Heavenly Cracks, the Ye Forgets and the Nangong Temple together made the bows and arrows, and the feathers of Nangong Temple were sharp, but Xue Zhengyi did not have much impression, but the leaves were forgotten, and a round of flying feather arrows was used up. It is always customary to slap the bow to the left arm and leg, and the backhand is also a pull, and the fingertip is subconsciously rubbing the bowstring.

I couldn't help but look at it at the time. It seemed that I felt that it was gentle and smooth, and the chic and self-contained posture was like someone.

He slammed his head and said, "Oh, really... really really! It’s just like it!"

The ink burned and raised his eyebrows: "What is the same?"

"The way the archery looks, Luo Fenghua is just like the forgetfulness of the leaves, exactly the same, exactly the same!"

The ink burned and watched Xue Zhengyi marveling again and again, and could not help but smile, but he said: "The uncle said this."

"Ah? Where is it wrong?"

Ink burning: "The cause and effect is wrong."

"Causal?"

"Well, it’s not Luo Fenghua’s like a leaf forgetting." Ink sighed, "It’s a leaf forget, like Luo Fenghua."

When he said this, the luster of his eyes was very bright. He felt that he could finally be sure this time. He must have not guessed wrong: Xu Shuanglin’s rebirth is to resurrect Luo Fenghua.

Although he did not know how many secrets of Confucianism in the past, there were still many secrets hidden in the past, but for the rest of his life, Xu Shuanglin of the last life can die for the sake of Ye, and this world will not only bear her, but why?

He does not think that Xu Shuanglin is simply because Ye Yexi is his own righteous woman, and he can't bear to start.

Xu Shuanglin, this person, seems to be very free and easy, saying "Linyi has a man, twenty hearts are dead", and the place where he lives is named "Sansheng Bieyuan", and one pair must forget the past in the past. After the virtue, even the name of the righteous woman, take the red and naked.

Forgetting.

Forget the old self, the old man, forget the hatred and kindness of the past.

However, Xu Shuanglin unknowingly cultivated the leaf forgetting into a reflection that could not be forgotten, and raised this abandoned orphan to another person.

This eagerly hopes that I will forget all the past, but perhaps from the beginning to the end, I live in the mud of memories.

At this point, there is a vague speculation in the burning heart, probably because he has been crazy in the dark, he feels that his prejudgment of Xu Shuanglin's behavior should be more accurate than others. However, his thoughts are not very convenient to say to others, you can only estimate it yourself and wait and see.

On the second day, the people who had been recalled by Xue Zhengyi, who had no results in the classics, said: "The poisonous insects are the strengths of the lonely moon night. It is better to find the soul-eaters on the site of the Confucianism Gate. It is better to inform Jiang Yan first."

&n璇玑 agrees: "The world's first pharmacist's cold scale holy hand is under Jiang Yan, let him find a way to check, there should be no mistake."

But Chu Xiaoning frowned and asked Ye Yexi Shi: "Ye girl, you grew up, have you ever seen your father raised any poisonous poisonous beast?"

"No."

"So what about medicine and animal training? You can have been involved."

"He...had only raised a parrot. Others said that it was a strange animal. It was a common puppies. He didn't have the mind to take it in. The medical skills were even weaker." To Xue Zhengyi said: "Do not tell the lonely moon night," "Why?" "If Xu Shuanglin is not good at medical skills and is not good at animal training, then it is not necessarily him who feeds the locusts. And most of it is the hand that sticks out in the last crack." "You are doubting the lonely moon night..." "The conclusion cannot be left." Chu said, "But caution is always right."

Chapter 196

As a result, you can't rely on the lonely moon. After the meeting, Xue Zhengxuan asked the wolf to go to the flower house with her own to find Mrs. Wang to discuss the tracking method. The so-called specialization of the industry, to this step, Chu night Ning can not help, finally can be idle for a while.

In the evening, he stood by the pontoon of the Honglian otter to see the fish, and the door was slammed. Chu Yuning said: "Come in."

The moonlight illuminates the face of the youth, and the comer is Nangong Temple.

"Master called me?"

Chu night Ningdao: "I heard that you will leave the dead and the dead after the day, and where are you going?"

Nangong 驷 drop eyelashes: "We are going to go to Lushan."

Lushan is a stronghold of Confucianism outside Linyi, and is a very important place for Confucianism. According to legend, the first generation of the Confucianism Gates had been settled in a dragon. After the death of the dragon, the bones became a mountain. Since then, the Confucianists have been buried here. This mountain guards the soul of the Confucianist door generations. If there are invaders and squatters, they will be killed in the mountains, and there will be no dead bodies. Every year, during the Qingming winter solstice, the head of the Confucianist Gate also goes there to sacrifice, so to say that Baishan is the ancestral hall of Confucianism.

"I am..." Nangong’s eyes seemed to be a bit bleak, and then he said, "I told you that the Lushan Temple has the savings left by the heads of the past, in preparation for future generations. I think Now it’s time to get them out."

He did not have any reservations and precautions against Chu Xiening, and naturally said the location of the treasure. They are not the same as Xue Meng. He is not so close to Chu Ningning, but he always has a thousand connections. It is just a yin and yang, and he did not become a disciple of Chu. Sometimes Nangong will think that if the mother did not die at the beginning, and Jin Chengchi did not have the cruelty of replacing his wife with his wife, then now, should he call Chu Yuning a "master"?

Chu night Ningdao: "The road to Lushan is far away, and I heard that it is respectful. We must fasten the valley for ten days before we can smoothly enter the mountain. Otherwise, it will be rejected by the spirits. Since it is going to be done, it is better to finish it after death. Fast, then start."

Nangong swayed and shook his head: "Now everyone in the cultivating world hates me and Ye forget, hate can't be followed by it. We have been here for a long time. If we teach people to know, we will only be tired of Xue, not leaving. ""

"What do you say stupid."

"..."

"It’s dangerous to go to the valley on the 10th. If you go outside, what if you are found by the enemy?" Chu said, "Why, Xue Zhangmen’s heart is very generous, and it won’t let you both leave. Listen to me, Don't go."

Nangong 惫 惫 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 南 南 南 南 南 南 南 南 南 南 南 南 南 南 南 南

He slammed his head and said: "The Grand Master, Nangong is not afraid to forget."

"Stay for a few days and talk about kindness." Chu said, "In addition, I am looking for you, there is actually one more thing."

"Guru, please."

"Before listening to Xu Shuanglin, you said that your body is overbearing, and it is easy to get mad. This disease, you can go to see Mrs. Wang."

Nangong stunned a bit, and then smiled bitterly: "The Nangong family has been plagued for generations. Before the head, he asked the cold scale sage of the lonely moon night to give me a sigh, saying that there is no way to suppress it, it can only be developed by it. The first holy hand in the world is not good, how can Mrs. Wang have a good law?"

"The cold scale sage may not be a doctor, or you may not want to be a doctor." Chu said, "The sects have too many interests, and it is normal for him to have reservations. As for Mrs. Wang... she is trying to suppress the violent core. Deep, maybe you can help."

Nangong is quite puzzled: "Why should she study this?"

"...coincidence. Don't ask too much, go."

After Nangong Yu thanked him again and again, he left the red lotus water shovel. Chu night Ning looked at the place where he left, and could not help but sigh.

&n He thought that Nangong Temple was originally a person who was so eager to fly, arrogant, arrogant, and very happy when he was in a good mood. When he smiled, his eyes were bright, like the glow of the morning glow.

I don't know when I can see it again.

I was preparing to go back to the house. Suddenly, the threshold of the water was slammed again. Chu Yuning thought that Nangong had something to go back and said, "Come in."

The door opened, but the person outside was not the Nangong, but the ink burned. He was holding a tub and hesitated. He didn't seem to want to make himself look too rash. He coughed and said: "Master."

Chu Xiaoning’s feelings are different: “Is there something?”

"Nothing, just ask if you want to take a shower together."

Chu nightning was actually being shackled, his eyes wide open, and he coughed a little and asked: "Where?"

The ink burned hesitated, and said: "The sound pool."

"..."

The sound of the sound pool is nine bends and eighteen bends. It is difficult to distinguish five fingers. It is not easy to find a hidden place, no matter what you do.

I did not expect that the ink burned him to invite him to take a bath there. Chu nightning was almost a bit worried, and this person was really shameless.

The shameless ink sings: "Xue Meng just took a shower and said that there is no one in the sound pool..." He said, his face was a little red, and he felt that his expression was too red and bare, and he said again. "It’s too cold, I think if the master is washing in the water, it might catch cold..."

Of course, it is impossible to catch cold. If Chu is rather willing, he can open an enchantment that warms the surroundings. This will not be known.

He knows, but he also invited Chu tonight to go to the wonderful sound pool to bathe, this is clearly the heart of Sima Zhao, actually dare to say that he is afraid of cold, too shameless.

The shameless smoldering eyes looked at him with black lacquered eyes: "Master, go?"

"..."

Chu night Ning clear, at this time if he nodded, it is to tell the ink burn, know his wolf ambition, but also willing to enter its mouth.

Into its mouth...

When I thought of it, I suddenly remembered the night of infatuation in the inn, and the ink burned without hesitation, giving him the eternal sensation that he had never had before. The eyes are gentle and hot, and the water of love is fascinated. When I look at myself, my heart is soft and dissipated.

"Stay with me."

"... Are you five years old?"

The poor-hearted person smiled from the good, and the voice was mild: "Well, it’s getting dark, I’m afraid of ghosts. I’m going to take my night with my brother.”

Oh, really shameless.

But Chu Xiaoning still went.

The disciples of the dead and the dead are all bathed after the late repairs. At this time, there are really few people in the wonderful sound pool.

The ink burned open the soft gauze, and the bare and bare feet stepped on the rain stone road. In the steam, he smiled at the side of the night, pointing to the distance, and then walked over.

Chu night Ning sneered in the heart: Are you not afraid of ghosts? How to go faster than me.

Wonderful sound pool is divided into lotus pond, Meichi two pools, planting fairy grass, abundance, most disciples love to bathe in these two pools, but there are also some unknown small pools, those places are very common, except the bathhouse is crowded When the place goes, no one will be willing to bathe there.

Elder Yu Heng looked cold and abstinent, and walked alone on the path. Yu Guangjian saw several vague shadows in the hot spring pool, but he couldn’t see the facial features. He could only hear the voices of those disciples. No, gossip.

When I got to the front, I was close to Meichi, and the fog was thicker, and I could barely reach my fingers.

Suddenly, a big hand reached over and took him from behind. Chu's back ridge is affixed with hot and strong chest, perhaps because the stickers are too close, and there are few clothes. He can clearly perceive the desire of men to wait.

Chu night Ning was shocked and said: "What are you doing? Don't mess around."

The ink burned against his ear and smiled: "Late Ning brother, don't go any more, there are ghosts in front."

"..."

Chu Yuening was hesitant between "Ghosts you" and "You are a big man", and finally whispered: "Let go."

The ink burned, but gently smiled: "It's hard to let go, I can't do it."

"are you crazy?"

"Well, it's really sick." The ink whispered, "Don't believe you look at me."

Chu night Ning 斩 斩 截 , , ,

The ink burned and smiled, and the voice was a little dull: "That's good, it's all yours."

However, the man’s words were very good, but the hand was completely another matter. The gravel’s fingertips rubbed through the throat of Chu’s lateness, slowly slipping, and then grabbed his chin.

"You don't... noisy!"

The fog was lost in sight, while the other senses were clearer than usual. Chu night would feel the smoldering down on his face, and the hot and humid breath was buried between the necks, causing him to tremble involuntarily.

"Why is the late brother who is shaking? Is it afraid of ghosts?"

"Don't scream!"

The ink burned gently, and hugged him from behind, kissed his neck, and said with respect: "Listen to you, don't scream. Then... Master, let the disciples serve you to bathe and change clothes." ,good or not?"

"..."

It seems to be worse.

Somehow couldn't stand it, the steaming hot spring mist burned up and burned his body and mind. He felt embarrassed without any reason. He still had some humiliation and his eyes were reddish. He said: "Don't wash, I am gone. ”

Mo-burning knows that his face is thin, but he also feels that this person is so cute and funny when he is retreating. He asks: "When the Master respects it, go out? What if he is hit by someone?"

Chu night Ning calmly said: "I bump into a collision and it is better to be bitten by a dog than to make trouble with you."

"Bite by a dog?"

"……what happened?"

The ink burned and laughed, because the desire burned, so the eyes were dark, not as warm as usual. He showed a white tooth in his face and leaned over to the back of the night.

Chu night Ningyuan thought that he had to say something messy and sullen, just wanting to be angry, but he heard the man gently and extremely dangerously said in his ear: "Hey...hey."

"...What do you mean?"

"Isn't it like learning?" The ink burned with sincerity and sincerity. "I used to have a blue-eyed, three-fired milk dog. That's what it is called."

Chu night Ning has no words: "Unheard of it. What's more, what do you want to learn about dogs?"

The ink burned and laughed: "What do you say?"

"..." Chu nightning did not react.

The ink burned and kissed the back of his ear, buried in his neck, and whispered: "They are called, it is the teacher said, and would rather be bitten by a dog."

Chu night, Ning, stiff, must-have, blood boiled and burned.

But the person has to add a sentence: "Can I bite you now, Master?"

Not as much as he replied, a strong and hurried kiss was pressed.

Intense entanglement, ear honing, ink burning originally wanted to taste it first, but did not expect that it was drinking and quenching thirst, Chu night Ning is his poison and medicine, can destroy his reason, and evoke his desire for the original.

It’s not enough to make a taste of it, but it’s still impossible to stop.

Can't stop becoming a breathing that is getting hotter.

When the lips and teeth were separated, the phoenixes of Chu’s late night were somewhat out of focus, but they did not forget the business: “I am here to take a shower, take a shower first...”

The ink burned gently, a bit like "Hmm" is also a bit like "哼", very * and hoarse voice, so close distance to hear, Chu night Ning Hao self-strength, but understand that his spine is like lightning In the middle, the squad also ignited the heat.

The wrist fell on the palm of the ink, and the man took him into the hot pool, and the waterfall collapsed, hiding the two people's breathing too fast.

Chu nightning still can't stand it. When he was holding him and he was going to kiss him, he barely raised his hand and stopped. He whispered: "Is there really no one?"

"No, I have read it all over." The sound of the ink-burning voice is hot and slow, and it is hotter than the hot spring water wrapped around the legs and feet. It is more scaly. "Master, you touch, am I really sick? How is it so hot?" ...so...hard."

"..."

Chu’s face brushed up a bit, and it’s really shameful. The hand was held by the ink, and it was not allowed to break free. The tentacles of the tentacles made his head bang, almost numb, he wanted to withdraw, but the strength of the ink burned was too great, and the palm of his hand hurt, almost like Broken in his palm.

The young man’s breathing is so rushing, hot, warm and almost cute, surrounded by smoke, everything is not really cut, only the handsome face that is close at hand is clear, the dark scorpion is moist because of love, also It is hot because of love.

The smoldering throat was swaying, staring at the face of Chu Yuening, and whispered low: "Master, help me..."

Then again, I caught the lips of Chu Xiaoning Wei Zhang.

Chu nightning has been trembled in detail and shivered in his ink, and the trembling caused by comfort and stimulation was not controlled by himself.

The ink burned him, stroked him, and whispered in his ear: "Is it very comfortable?"

"..."

"Next time... if you are ready..." The sweaty skin is close to him, and the ink kisses him. "We come to the real, okay?"

Although I was prepared, but I heard this sentence from his mouth, and then added the horrible roar that I saw before, Chu nightning was involuntarily numb, and the whole person was tense.

When the ink burned his tiny muscles, he kissed him more and more gently.

"I won't make you hurt, I will make you cool..."

Passion has not retreated, they are screaming in the depths of the waterfall.

The smoldering voice is full of love and beast/desire, low: "It will make you like, really... there may be a little bit at the beginning, but I will control..."

Chu nightning only feels shameful and wants to take the road, but his legs and feet are soft and numb.

"do not talk……"

It’s about to understand that he is not really disgusted, but the ink is hard to be disobedient, not depending on him. The wet lips are still attached to the earlobe. I am very tempted: “I will do it well... Master, if you are afraid of pain, With a little medicine, I will buy it... You believe me, once I get used to it, it will be very comfortable."

I have seen you in the past life being * to the soul.

But then, it was because of hate, because of punishment.

In this life, I just want you to hold me, to be one with you, and not to separate, I want you to like it, to be comfortable, to forget you.

He kissed him and his eyes looked like a fire from the wet wood. In a word, the evil spirits are said to be gentle, and they are really embarrassing, lingering and fierce.

Chapter 197

Because of the ink-burning sentence yesterday, Chu Xiaoning felt ashamed to the extreme. After the wonderful sound pool, he was reluctant to take care of the ink and left without going back.

People want to face the tree to skin, he is boring, this kind of mixed account, how is the face burned? Is it that the burning of the air actually thought that he would nod?

This kind of thing is just fine, why bother to ask him!

On the second day, the elders of the history of the history of the doctors were sick. Xue Zhengyi let Chu Xiening go to watch the students endorsing the books. The history is a big lesson, and there are many disciples. He can’t control them alone. Also come to help patrol, answer questions.

There are four masters and apprentices, and the number of teachers and ink is the busiest. The reason is very simple. The gentleman is gentle and beautiful, and the ink is good and good. It is very similar to the younger brothers and sisters, especially the teacher, the waist is narrow. The eyebrows, the youthfulness of the youth, is completely a beautiful man, with a good temper and a good voice. Both men and women are easy to have a good impression on him.

As for the burning of the ink, it is trapped in the group of female disciples.

"Mr. Brother and Brother, I don't understand this sentence. Can you help me?"

"Mr. Brother, the difference between these two curses is not particularly understandable. Can the brothers teach me?"

"Mr. Brother -"

After the ink burned to the ninth smiling little sister, the "Wan Tao's returning curse" was exactly the same as the original founder's painting. After that, Chu Xiaoning finally couldn't stand it anymore. He frowned and cold. A few rows of disciples, faintly, looked at the ink.

The ink burned him from the side of yesterday, but in fact, there are some grievances in my heart.

He used to be rude in his previous life, and he cherished it in his life. Therefore, every step of the way I want to see if Chu is rather unhappy, he does not know where he is doing wrong, is it not to ask that sentence?

Or call the wrong, you should not ask "My good teacher, can I go in next time?" and should ask: "My good baby, can I go in next time?"

Unexpectedly suffered a cold encounter, at this time suddenly noticed the eyes of Chu Yuning - even if he was fiercely screaming at him, the ink burned is still like the white cabbage that was watered with water, and immediately came to the spirit and smiled at him.

"..."

This person did not understand the question of where the Yan Yanyan came from.

Do they not understand? I really don't understand, the founder of Wan Tao's returning to the curse is standing here. Why don't you ask Chu Yuning, who wants to turn around and bend their "Mr. Brothers"?

Chu night is not happy, but does not say, only cold and silent looking at the ink.

Looking at it, the ink burned and felt that it was wrong. It happened that there was a tenth younger sister who eagerly waved at him: "Inkmaster~"

"Sorry, I have something." The ink smiled and pointed to Xue Meng. "Ask you Xue Xuexiong."

Then he went to the night of Chu, and left the little teacher who had the head of the ball to show his disappointment. He bit his pen and sighed.

"Master, what's wrong? You don't seem too happy?"

Chu night Ning licked his lips, did not say straight, Shen Yan said: "I am a little tired, that circle let Xue Meng go to patrol, you will help in this film."

The ink burned and he did not doubt him. He nodded and walked up with him. It is strange to say that he walked around the night of Chu, and suddenly felt that the number of people asking questions was a lot less. Is this disciple smarter than that one?

I couldn’t hear the "Mr. Brother", or the more troublesome "Mr. Brother". Chu Yuning’s mood was better, but he still looked expressionless and recited in the public. The young disciples paced and walked, and suddenly heard the dialogue between the two young disciples.

"Brother, brother, I told you that there is a fox in the sound pool."

"Ah? How do you say this?"

"I took a shower in Meichi yesterday and prepared to go back. I heard that there was a faint sigh in the distance... oh... there is that kind of movement..."

The brother looked very surprised. His mouth opened for a moment and hesitated: "Which pair is the same as the door?"

"Who is so courageous, it is impossible. This kind of thing is done privately. If you go to the wonderful sound pool, if you are seen by the elders of Yu Heng or the elders of the wolf, the legs must be interrupted! It is absolutely impossible. Disciple in the door!"

"It’s also true."

"It must be that the fox is in Yinyang. I will call a few brothers and sisters to see it this evening. See if I can catch the little fox. It’s also a credit. It’s not good to let her go. To seduce our door, right?"

"There is nothing wrong with it, but do you see who the same door she was hooked up yesterday?"

"...the sound of the sound pool is so big, it is necessary to go to the bottom of their eyes to clear the five senses. I don't want to go. I am still a boy. If I am looked at by the fox, I will take care of me and her." "The younger disciple stunned, and suddenly he saw that his brother's face was not right. He reached out and pulled it. "What? Suddenly this expression."

"..."

The younger disciple finally felt the coolness behind him. He looked back and saw the elders of Yu Heng face an inscrutable face, and the gas field stood extremely behind him. He was scared of "Oh," and said: "The elders forgive! ”

"The book is recited in the book, and it is said that the ghosts are fascinating, but also double-education." Chu night Ning Yin sullenly face, "You think it is pretty beautiful. Read a book, then talk nonsense, punish."

This conversation was also heard, and I couldn’t laugh, but I was chasing the back of Chu’s lateness. I thought about this serious person, how would I love myself? How would you be willing to be with yourself...

In his chest, it was warm and bitter, mixed with sweet and sour. After the class was over, he couldn’t help but hug the Chu Yunning who was packing up the books, and held the people in his arms. Kissing.

Chu night Ning was angry, took bamboo slips on his head, and knocked and said: "It's all a good idea you want, wonderful sound pool... This is good, what am I going to be?"

The ink burned and laughed, and the tip of his nose glared at the root of his ear. The voice was low and gentle, and he knew clearly: "What is the teacher's respect?"

Chu night Ning did not think that he was so shameless, could not help but widen his eyes: "You -!"

The pear vortex must be made into honey, and the ink burned and kissed him. He smiled and said: "These brothers are really pulling, foxes? Picking... What? Haha, picking Yin?"

"You say I killed you." Chu Xiaoning almost put the bamboo in his mouth.

The ink burned and laughed: "Hey... can you choose the method of death? It’s also a good thing to be robbed by the fox of the wonderful sound pool."

"Mini rain!!"

Since then, Chu Yuening has never been willing to go to the wonderful sound pool with ink.

In a few days, Mrs. Wang called the ink to the front, took him and asked him one thing.

"Fire, have you seen a strange girl in Snow Valley when you were outside in the past few years?"

"What girl? What a strange method?"

"She should be born very white, there is no blood on her face, she loves to wear red clothes, she always holds a basket in her arms, and she will talk to passers-by in the snow valley..."

The ink burned: "Oh, is the aunt talking about snow?"

Mrs. Wang was surprised at first, and then rejoiced: "Do you know that Xue Qianjin? Such a monster, I have not read it before, but also specifically want to describe it to you... I didn't expect..."

"There is a note on the Master, I just watched it." Mo burned, "Auntie asked me what to do?"

"This is the case. Nangong Gongzi came here a few days ago. I gave him a pulse. I feel that the yang and Yang interest in his body is not unstoppable, but the materials needed are extremely rare. The hardest thing to find is the ice squid in the snow basket. "Mrs. Wang sighed. "Nangong Xiaogongzi and Menger are similar in age. Now that the tiger is in Pingyang, I can’t bear it in my heart. I always want to help, but the snow is extremely difficult. Someone in the snow valley twenty years ago. I met her and went back to it. It was the record of the Kunlun Snow Palace a hundred years ago, so I want to ask you, take a chance."

After the ink burned, both hi and sorrow, hi is because Nangong 驷 是 炎 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 南

Worried is that he has been in the snow valley for more than a year. He has never seen the legendary snow and gold. He is very mixed with the joys and sorrows. He said to Mrs. Wang: "After the things of Xu Shuanglin are settled, I personally went to Snow Valley. From the foot of the mountain to the peak of the danger to find it again, perhaps you can get a clue."

After the ink burned, because the heart was happy, I was going to tell Nangong Temple immediately. Mrs. Wang said in the back: "Hey, you don't go so fast, I have already said to Nangong Gongzi, you don't have to... ”

But the ink burned was not heard at all, and it was already far away.

He found a circle and found that Nangong was on the edge of the bridge of death and death, and was preparing for the past, but he saw a person walking on the other side of the bridge. When the ink burned, it was discovered that the leaves were forgotten. When the heart moved, they did not call Nangong, but stood in the distance and looked at them.

Ye Yexi is still very handsome, and it is difficult to see too many characteristics of women on her face. The practice and practice she has trained have made her and men very different. In fact, these years, if not in my heart, Nangong’s secret love, she may have forgotten that she is a daughter.

Nangong sees her coming, coughs and gaze, and her eyes are turned to the meandering river.

"The son calls me?"

"... ah..." Nangong 似乎 looks a little embarrassed, ten fingers overlap, pillow on the stone lion of the Naiqiao, half a slap "Han".

"Is there a problem?"

"Also, there is no." Nangong snarled, he did not dare to go to see the leaves, the fingers rubbed the lions of the stone lions, "that is... there is something, I want to give you."

Ye forgets the truth and says: "What?"

Nangong squatted his head and slowly dispelled a piece of the waist. On the other side of the leaf, he couldn't understand it for a long time. Then he finally got it down and handed it to the leaf. A light cough: "Thank you for so many years... Forget it, I don't know what to say. I don't have any valuable accessories now. Only this is for you. I have been with me for many years, not the best jade. but……"

He didn't talk anymore, his eyes narrowed and his face was red.

He has never dared to go to see Ye Yexi, after a while, see Ye Yexiong did not respond, suddenly felt very sad, very abrupt, very awkward, hesitant to take the phoenix totem from the leaves of the past Yu Pei took it back and muttered: "I, I know this is not good, you don't like it... just give it back to me, it doesn't matter, I, I won't mind... After reviving the Confucianism, I I will find you the best one, I..."

Ye forgets to linger for a long time, then laughs, her clear eyes, there is a daughter's soft beauty, lined with her eyes, it seems that I have never had a rouge thin color.

She was born with flaws and scars. It was not as delicate as a woman's hand. She took the piece of jade, rustling, and the leaves were bleak. Ye said, "This piece is enough.

Thank you, son. ”

Nangong’s face was redder, and he said to him: “You, you like it... I am... oh... I don’t know what to say.”

Ink burning: "....."

He heard in the bamboo forest that he wanted to hold the head of Nangong Temple and hit the stone lion.

Does this person not do anything other than raising a little wolf dog? How did it go around for a long time and it became "I don't know what to say?"

Nan Gongyi suddenly said inexplicably: "Mrs. Wang told me that the violent nucleus in my body can be suppressed, and perhaps it does not need to be double-repaired." Ye forgets the past, but then it seems to be wrong. Meaning, she gently "hmm", lowered her eyelashes, did not speak.

If there is no need for double repairs, then Nan Gongyi can be with her, she may no longer have the reason to stay with him brazenly, she also has dignity, do not want to ask Nangong to love her, pity her. Nangong驷 used this piece of jade to make a break, and he could leave a thought later.

"You understand... um... I don't understand what I mean?"

"……Ok."

Nangong 驷 言 转 , , ,

He sighed twice in a sigh, and at the end he couldn't stand it anymore, sighing and sighing: "My God, what am I talking about?"

This time it was the turn of the leaves, she looked up, she looked up suddenly, suddenly as if she understood something, her eyes were very small, and then a thin * face appeared on her face.

On the bridge, the bamboo leaves flew, her clothes swayed gently, Yupei was moist, and the bright red ears were floating between her fingers.

After a long while, Ye Yexi hesitated, tempted, and whispered a loud voice: "Auntie?"

In the twinkling of an eye, I don't know if it is an illusion. Nangong actually felt that her voice that was distorted by the voice-changing spell could no longer be restored. In the vague wind, there was some softness and some softness. He looked up at the face, looking at the face of the forgotten face, the sky was like a brocade, reflecting her eyebrows, she smiled, still familiar with the British, correct appearance, but slightly in the eyes of the eye There was a shimmering light shining, she did not hold back, and finally the tears rolled down, from the face she smiled, but squatted.

Nangong looked at her and looked at the face. The vague impression of a young woman returned to her eyes.

It was a little girl, green, tender, cheeky red, and the eyelashes were long, very sweet and sweet.

At that time, the leaves were forgotten, and Nangong Liu sent to the dark city to practice the mind. She had just been returned by Xu Shuanglin not long after, and followed the Nangong Temple to learn some basic spells.

On that day, in order to train them, Nangong Liu let them go to the simplest fantasy of the Confucianism Gate to test the knives. The illusion is not difficult, but some horrible. They are all dying ghosts. They can’t go inside, the hairs are scattered, and the hair is faint. whimper.

At the beginning of the Nangong Temple, he did not intend to pay attention to the leaf forgetting. He only managed to swear by the devil. Who knows that walking and walking, but found that the leaves have not kept up, a little girl, curled up in the ruined temple of the illusion, does not dare to move.

He glanced back at her and snorted, preparing to leave, but suddenly saw a hanged ghost behind her, sticking out a bright red tongue to roll her throat -

"what--!"

When the little girl noticed that it was too late, she was scared to scream, but she couldn’t do anything. The sword in her arms didn’t go too far.

But nothing happened.

When she blinked, she found that Nangong stood in front of her. The hanged ghost had been repulsed by a sword, and it was affixed with lightning and spirits. I looked at her and wanted to blame her for a few words. However, the girl’s look was so pitiful. Like a frightened cat, with her round eyes, she couldn’t hold back, and the tears burst out.

Nangong’s stunned, and he said, “You, why are you so useless, even the ghosts are afraid...”

"That's a ghost!" Ye Qingxiu cried. "If I don't even be afraid of ghosts, what am I afraid of?"

Nangong said: "...how are your girls so useless?"

"Then I want to be useful too!" The pretty little girl cried and screamed and ran nose. "Who wants to drag your hind legs, I want to help, but you go so fast, you are not Waiting for me... I... I’m afraid of ghosts...”

"Uh……"

Nangong Temple had no choice but to kneel beside her, and she wouldn’t be stunned. She just stared at her crying. She had not experienced the darkness of the dark city, like the most common girls, tears. Fight straight down.

Crying and crying, choked: "What do you look at?"

"...I see when you are crying."

"..."

"When you are crying, let's go together, who makes you so weak." Nangong sighed, raised his hand and played the little girl's white forehead. "Follow me, I will protect you."

Cloud steamed Xia Wei, Tiandi Jinhui, at this time recalling this past event, Nangong Temple suddenly realized that in the original fantasy day, he actually lived to this day, the only time he saw Ye Jingxi as a girl, crying because of fear .

Later, she became iron, iced, and suppressed all emotions under the light face.

Repressed to the depths, not to say that Nangong, even she herself forgot what kind of person she was, just remember to follow the back of the Confucianism master, from child to teenager, to his son, and she spent No longer.

She is like this, no tears, no hind legs, silently followed him, followed for twenty years.

Chapter 198

After 10 days of fasting, Nangong Temple and Ye Jingxiu can depart for Lushan. Naobaijin was injured, and his vitality was greatly damaged. Therefore, he could no longer take advantage of his master’s long journey. This huge demon wolf turned himself into a young cub, and the one with a big palm was squatting in the quiver of the Nangong Temple. A fluffy head came out.

The ink burned the two to the mountain gate, touched the mane of the horse, and smiled: "The road is far away from the mountain, and the sword is also physically exhausted. These two horses are sent to you. They are grown up eating grass. It’s a thousand miles, although it’s not as good as Naobai, it’s still worth it.”

Nangong 驷 驷 墨 墨 墨 , , ,

"Hey..."

The ink burned slightly and narrowed his eyes and said: "Cat?"

On the other side, Ye forgets to go to Nangong and walks down the mountain gate. There is still a deserted path to the town of Wuji, and the sun shines from the mottled branches and leaves. The horseshoes step on and smash the shattered rays into dust.

Looking at the leaves, Nangong’s side looked at the leaves and was about to say something. The white gold that had already been drilled back into the quiver was a head of the cluster, revealing the two claws of the white and gold with gold, “嗷——嗷—— The cellar called twice. Nangong was shocked and slammed the horse and said, "Be careful!"

The voice fell, the rain-like nails had come from all directions, the horses were long, the Nangong Temple and the Ye Forgets almost simultaneously took out the swords. The two had practiced together at an early age, and they were very tacit, only to see them. One left and one right long, and the south palace squats on the left side of the sword dance. The leaves are forgotten to the right side of the sword dance. After the smashing of the jingle, the poisonous pear needles have been dropped, and then the leaves are forgotten. Throwing the paper, the enchantment came out and caged him.

Nangong screams: "Who?!"

The sun is bleak, but it is not obscured by the clouds. Instead, a person stands on a slender branch. He has a wide sleeve and a large sleeve. He must fly, stand against the light, and look down with hatred.

The cousin of Jiang Dongtang’s former head, Huang Xiaoyue.

He stood by the branches, the bones of the fairy wind, did not say anything, only staring coldly at the face of the leaves, and then, the sound of rustling came out in the jungle, more than a hundred Jiangdongtang disciples walked from the forest. Out, each head has a bright red forehead, all of whom are elite disciples of Jiangdongtang.

Huang Xiaoyue said: "Two people, do you have to wait for the rest of your life? You have to hide in ten days and ten nights before you come out. It really takes the old man to wait."

Nangong is furious: "Huang Xiaoyue, how are you?!"

"What happened to me?" Huang Xiaoyue was cold. "The revenge of Jiang Dongtang and Confucianism, you know it well."

Nangong gnawed his teeth: "From Linyi to Suizhong, repel your four attacks, and chase? What kind of enmity, you have finished? Xu Shuanglin through the bottom, your brother killed your brother, repeatedly twice Come and pay attention to us, what is your face!"

"Face? The old man looks at the little son is really not to face." Huang Xiaoyue sullenly, "It is clear that your Confucianism has hurt me Jiangdongtang, and it has fallen apart. Do you dare to deny it?"

Ye forgets the road: "Even if you want to revenge with the Confucianism, you should be as good as the public, and the assassination of the eye, what is the act."

"Shut up. The man speaks, and you can't turn a slap in the mouth." Huang Xiaoyue squats. "Don't think that your beast and son are raising you as a man. You are really a man. The yellow-haired * is always a yellow-haired hoe, and the woman should be there. Cooking in the kitchen to cook, you are a woman, what qualifications are there, and glory in front of the old man?"

Nangong angered: "Huang Xiaoyue, you speak something!"

"It’s very good, the old man will tell you the reason and calculate the general ledger." Huang Xiaoyue said, he ordered a little bit of Nangong, and he said: "You care about shame, confess the wife of the husband, and make the venomous woman Kill my own brother and seize the power. As for the one next to you -"

He took a little bit of forgetting the past: "She is the daughter of the beast, and her righteous father has put my Jiangdongtang private affairs in the world, which has damaged my reputation in Jiangdongtang. The old man is now the leader of the company." Waiting for a small one, just to return to Jiangdongtang, but also a fair in the world!"

He waved his hand, and the hundreds of disciples who were stunned immediately swarmed up and attacked. They just smashed out of the forest. The sky suddenly burst into a bursting flame, violently hurricane, and the disciples were killed. Out of the feet.

Nan Gongyi was shocked: "Mo brother?"

The coming person is ink-burning. He holds Liu Teng, standing on the top of a tree opposite Huang Xiaoyue, and coldly glaring at each other.

Huang Xiaoyue didn't think that the ink burned would appear, and his face became very ugly in an instant. When he touched the skin for a long time, he slowly said, "How did the Mo Zongshi come to the mountain to see the excitement?" "Then should ask the disciples of the guru, how? Good people don't do it, they want to hide in the woods and learn to call me."

Huang Xiaoyue’s face was very gloomy, and his face was almost exactly the same as his last name. He said with amazement: “What does this mean?”

"This sentence should be asked by me to ask the predecessors of the Yellow." Ink burned, "In the land of my life and death, the guests who died in my life, the yellow predecessor is that my mountain gate is too clean and tidy, I want to sprinkle some blood on the ground. What?"

"Since I have gone out of the mountain gate, I will not be able to take care of you. I will avenge my death for the dead, and I don’t need the sect of the Mozong!"

Ink burning: "The predecessors of the Yellows said that they are good, personal grievances, out of the mountain gates, and indeed do not return to life."

Huang Xiaoyue snorted: "The master is still not allowed to open?"

The ink burned didn't let it go, and the ghost blood was even worse. The willow leaf on the top almost became a string of blood beads. He said, "But if I want to manage it myself?"

"you--!"

Huang Xiaoyue will not be unclear about the strength of ink burning, but he will not be reconciled if he is not vengeful. He has to be angry and threatened: "Mr. Mozong, are you going to be an enemy of Jiangdongtang?" "I don't mean this, I just want to Let me send your guests safely to leave the shackles. As for Jiang Dongtang to stop me, or Jiangxi Hall to stop me, they are the same."

Huang Xiaoyue raised his eyes, and the hatred in the brown scorpion could almost be turned into a tangible fire, burning the smoldering wood with his sylvester.

"Do you insist on covering the embarrassment of these two Confucianists?"

“How do you say Yu Yu?” The ink burned coldly and asked, “I asked the predecessors, Jiang Dongtang’s regrets, how much Ye girl and Nangong Gongzi participated.”

"..."

"Is it planning the internal change of Jiangdongtang? Or is it shaking out the scandal of Jiangdongtang?" The ink burned Huang Xiaoyue. "Is it the killing of the former head, or is it to participate in the murder of the younger brother?"

"But what about it!" Huang Xiaoyue angered, "Father debts! Heaven is righteous!"

"A good place is righteous." The ink burned lightly. "Okay, I don't have to think about it with the predecessors of the Yellows. I have to say something about weapons."

Huang Xiaoyue was very angry and angered: "Mini rain! You are not reasonable!!"

"Is it interesting, who is unreasonable?" At this time, there was another voice in front of the trail. Xue Meng held the dragon city slowly out of the forest, the knife handle was cold and the sun was shining, and the thorns almost barely opened his eyes.

"Call and drink in front of my house, killing and killing, Jiang Dongtang is dead and dead? Looking for death?"

If he said that he had only burned a person in the past, Huang Xiaoyue couldn’t beat him, but with a lot of people, he might be able to take it away and take advantage of the enemy’s enemies. But at this moment, the phoenix Xue Meng stepped out, he was pulling The pride of the day at the Deling Mountain Conference, the fierceness of the dragon in the hand, who does not know who is not known?

The two brothers appeared in front of the mountain gate at the moment. To protect the palace and the leaves, Huang Xiaoyue would never find a chance to find a hole.

When the ink burned, Xue Meng came, and his face turned pale. He said to Xue Meng: "Go back."

"let me help you--"

"This matter has nothing to do with the death and death, it is my self-help, you don't intervene." The ink burned his eyebrows, wondering if this younger brother is stupid? Although Jiangdongtang’s strength is no longer, but after all, the deadly camel is bigger than Ma, and it is still a part of the nine major factions. The prostitute of the Jiangdongtang old church and the master of the fire-fighting pavilion are the Taoist, and they have married. . If Xue Meng came out to help, it would be that in the name of the dead and the dead, all of a sudden and the two masters of the martial art tore face.

Never do this.

Ink burning: "Go back soon."

However, Xue Meng’s thoughts are simple, and he does not understand the subtle differences. Instead, he is not angry with him. He does not want to help him. He is deadlocked. He suddenly sees the dust in the distance, and the white horse on the horse is just around the corner. Snow, beautiful appearance, carrying a pipa, but the Kunlun stepping snow palace of the fairy.

"Urgent report! urgent report -!" That fairy aunt squinted, quickly screaming, shouted.

The dust was flying, turning a corner, but seeing the scene under the mountain, she slammed the reins and slammed it on the horse's back, blinking her eyes.

"Anxious - hehe... you are... what are you doing?"

Because the female officer of Kunlun’s Snow Palace suddenly arrived, the frame of the ink burning and Huang Xiaoyue was not made. Huang Xiaoyue was invited by Xue Zhengxuan to enter the death and death, and even with the call back, there was Ye Jingxi, Nangong Temple. Two people.

The fairy priest of the Snow Palace was set up in the Dan Heart Hall, and the lips were merged and made a ceremony. Then he said:

"The urgent report, Xu Shuanglin has fallen."

As soon as this statement came out, the face of the forgotten face suddenly changed, and the blood was completely absent.

That’s the aunt’s road: “I sent out more than 10,000 Yudie stalks to trace the traces of Xu Shuanglin. I finally returned two this morning and found a magical spell near Huangshan. The palace owner guessed that Xu Shuanglin should be hiding here. I waited until the major sects sent an urgent report to discuss the business."

Xue Zhengyi was shocked and happy: "Is this found?"

Xiang Gudao: "I can't be sure, but the return of the butterfly, the * atmosphere around Huangshan has been faintly lingering, and it has not been scattered all the time. There is a vision, and it should be inseparable."

Xue Zhengqi hits the festival: "Well! Since there are clues, don't delay, the soldiers are very fast. What do you mean by the palace owner?"

"The palace owner and the head are similar, she also feels that it is not too late, should go there early to explore."

"Too good!" Xue Zhengyi turned his head and said to Huang Xiaoyue, "Is it a good way to go together with Huang Daochang? If this is the case, Xu Culinlin, the culprit of the culprits, can kill the brothers."

Huang Xiaoyue’s heart is stunned. He knows very well that his chances of Xu Shuanglin’s hand are very small, and the so-called revenge and hate, but a blind man. In fact, how much does his brother’s death have to do with the two juniors of the Nangong Palace?

He yelled at the slogan of revenge for his brother, but in his belly, he played other savvy abacus - knowing that Jiangdongtang had a catastrophe, the strength was declining, and he had already heard that the Confucianist Gate had a rich treasure, and he figured out It is necessary to wipe out the leaves and the Nangong Temple and force them to spit out their ancestors and use them for their own purposes.

The palm of the hand under the sleeves of Huang Xiao’s robe was tightly squeezed, weighing a half-baked, and squeezing out a wrinkled orange-like, yellow-brown smile. He said: "Is it true that Xu Shuanglin is not above Huangshan, let alone Jiang Dongtang and Confucianism. The beam of the damper has been set, this is not my own private enmity, it is a matter of closing the face of the sect, and it must be liquidated."

"It’s right, too." Xue Zheng said, "Let’s find Xu Shuanglin’s private enemies first, and then find the Confucianism to clear the grudges?”

"Shu Palm Gate said that the Confucianism is now a scorched earth, and you let me go to account."

"I don't know this, I want to ask Huang Daochang himself." Xue Zhengyi said with a smile, "Why is there only a brick and a brick left in the Confucianism, and the Taoist leader is still anxious to kill the two future generations."

"You-!" Huang Xiaoyue Shen Rong's sleeves, shouted, "This is a private matter of Huang."

Xue Meng smiled and said: "Fangcai still said that it is a face of the sect. It is a big event. This is a private matter. Jiang Dongtang is listed as one of the nine sects in the world. How can it be so casual?"

Huang Xiaoyue knew that he was losing money, but he did not know how to defend himself. He simply did not speak. He glanced at Xue Zhengyi and shook his sleeves. He led a wave of disciples in Jiangdongmen. He slammed the door of death and death, and took the lead to go to Huangshan Yujian.

Ye Forgiveness is extremely apologetic, and Xue Zheng said: "Xue Zhangmen, I really can't help, we --"

"The chicks are in the net, and the hunters don't kill." The people who watched Jiangdongtang went away. The smile on Xue Zhengxuan's face slowly disappeared. His eyes became cold and he said: "It is too much to deceive Jiangdongtang. ”

He looked at the sky outside the hall, his eyebrows were very low, and a faint crease in the middle, half a sigh, he sighed: "Go, go to Phoenix."

The road to Huangshan is far away, and everyone chooses the sword. When they arrived in Huangshan, a large group of monks had been confined at the foot of the mountain. The remaining nine factions in the comprehension community had arrived, and a vaguely blurred face came and went, busy, like a river, I don't know what I am busy with.

Chu Yuning was the first to come down from the sword. When he came down, he was slightly unstable and his face was very pale. Fortunately, this person had no good color when he was white, and others would not see anything. It’s the same, but the ink burns. He walked over and looked at the unmanned surroundings, gently rubbing the back of his hand.

"Master, you fly very well."

"Ok?"

The ink burned and smiled: "Really."

Chu night Ning lightly coughed and turned his eyes away.

Looking up, the top of Mount Huangshan really has a layer of almost identifiable evil spirits. The other eight heads have arrived. They are standing at the forefront of the mountain, in front of the enchantment barrier of the sky, raising their hands and pouring them in. Spirituality, Xue Zhengyi also immediately rushed over to help.

The dead and dying people arrived in succession. After a while, Xue Meng also arrived. He steadily fell on the side of the two people. As soon as he saw the situation, he immediately frowned. "What is this doing? Why not go up the mountain?" ?"

When the ink burned him, he explained to him: "Not not, but not up."

Xue Meng is quite confused: "Why?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Huangshan is one of the four evil mountains in the realm of cultivation. This mountain is very weird and it is not so easy to break in."

Xue Meng was a little surprised: "I only know that there are four great holy mountains. Is there still four evil mountains? Which four big?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Lushan, Jiashan -"

Xue Mengyi: "The Rock Hill?"

"...the basaltic armor."

"Oh, oh." Xue Meng blushed, "Well."

"Lushan, and this one, Huangshan."

Chu night Ning paused, and then said, "This is the * past in the realm of cultivation. Nowadays, it has rarely been mentioned. Only when I go to some complicated books, I can read the records of the four evil mountains. ”

"Then why is there something like evil mountain?"

Chu Evening did not answer directly, but asked Xue Meng: "The first time of the Confucianism Gate to surrender the evil past, you can still remember."

"Remember." Xue Mengdao, "The East China Sea has a dragon, because he defeated the dragon, sealed the Golden Drum Tower, and then signed a * contract with the dragon to make it for his own use. After the death of the first generation of Confucianism, evil The dragonfly became a hill, the dragon's rib became a mantle, the dragon's blood became a river, the keel became a rock, and the dragon became a tree. This mountain, the tomb of the Confucian disciples, has been guarded for generations. Oh, also known as Lushan."

Chu night Ning dagger: "Yes, so Lushan is the evil spirit of Qinglong. You all know that the four stars of the Rui beast are the Qinglong Zhuque Baihu Xuanwu, but under the four stars, there will be a malignant change, and there will be waves everywhere."

Xue Meng slowly understood: "So, the rest of the, like the Lushan, is the spirit of the evil beast turned into?"

"Ok."

Xue Mengdao: "That is Huangshan... is it Suzaku?"

He jerked his head to look at the behemoth-like mountain that was shrouded in the haze, and he found that the middle of the mountain was towering and flattened twice, like a phoenix that was necked and smashed.

Chu night Ningdao: "Yes. In addition, the four evil mountains, each with evil laws. For example, Lushan, it only allows the Houyi of the Confucianism Gate to lead others to enter, and those who are accustomed to it will be dragged by the vines In the mud, burying and dying. This phoenix is the same."

"But it's weird." Xue Meng turned to look at the head of the one spell, and his old man also helped. "Yushan is the mountain of Confucianism. Everyone knows, what about Huangshan? Just put It’s not enough to drag on the sect of the scorpion evil spirits."

The ink that has never been snoring speaks at this moment: "The man died unexpectedly not long ago. If she is still alive, she can do so."

Xue Meng stunned: "Do you know who it is?"

"Know." The ink burned faintly. "It's a woman, we all know."

Chapter 199

"Ah, who is it? Only she can order Huangshan alone? To surrender the other heels of Suzaku evil spirits?"

The ink burned did not directly answer him, but said: "Before the millennium, the song of the Suzaku evil spirit called Song Qiao, the word star moved."

Xue Meng was shocked and screamed out: "Hua Bi Zun, Song Xing Shi?!"

"Ok."

"He, he is the last sphenoidal beauty seat in the history of comprehension to be a master!"

There was no expression on the face, and he said, "Yes, so the last person who can open the gate of Huangshan Mountain has died in the fire of the Confucianism. It is Song Qiutong."

Xue Meng’s mouth was involuntarily enlarged, and he was about to say something. There was a sudden commotion in the distance. The forefront of the foot of the Huangshan Mountain suddenly surrounded a large group of Qingyi monks in Bitanzhuang.

"Li Zhuangzhu!"

"Zhuangzhu!"

Chu nightning changed slightly, and the eyebrows fell into the blaze. He walked over there. He opened the crowd and saw Li Wuxin being helped by his disciples. His face was like white paper, his mouth was bloody, and his stinky blood was stuck in his flower.

White beard, white lips, double eyes turned up, already unconscious, trembled: "It is the first... Yes... is the first..."

Because Li was unwilling to pull off, the remaining enchantment counters that the heads suffered were even stronger. Huang Xiaoyue was the main post of Jiangdong Hall, and the mana was lower than other heads. At this time, he could not stand it. It is difficult to even turn your head.

It was Jiang Yan, but his face was white, but he still had the heart to look at Li Wuxin, and he said: "He has a Phoenix nightmare."

The phoenix enchantment attached to the phoenix curse. Once someone wants to tear open the crack and try to go up the mountain, it is very easy to be swallowed by this nightmare.

This is similar to the illusion of Jin Chengchi's picking the heart, but the Phoenix nightmare can hardly be removed, and the people in the middle of the stroke often wake up again.

A group of disciples in Bitanzhuang saw the land grow, and even more, they burst into tears: "Zhuangzhu! You wake up, the owner-"

Li Wuxin was laughing in the dream for a while, and then swearing for a while, suddenly broke away from holding his disciple, Ming Ming, lying on the ground and dancing, laughing! "Get the first! It is the first! It is the first!"

In the other disciples who were behind, some people whispered: "What is the first?"

Li Wuxin did not answer them. He was immersed in the joy of the nightmare, opened his mouth and exposed two rows of teeth with thick blood and saliva. He smiled so intoxicated. After a while, it seemed like a dream, he was dead. The old face is so stiff that it is out of anger.

"No - you can't do this! You can't do this! Say good to return the swordsmanship of Bitanzhuang to me! How can you quit!"

After a while it became a face of mourning.

This is really chilling. Li Wuxin has always been an old Taoist who wants to face, and he is also a master of the village. He has never had such a face before him.

Not like a head, not like a long road.

Not even like a man.

He squinted and mourned twisted in the folds, as if he was trying to put his dignity into the wrinkles that were all over his face. He was pleading: "The eight billion gold is really too much. It’s Bitanzhuang’s. It’s my master’s. At that time, the sects were lost. There is no money left. There is no way to sell them to you... the head... I beg you, less...”

Everyone listened to each other around.

Eight billion gold?

Sword spectrum?

Then some people suddenly remembered that the front door of Bitanzhuang was spleen and spleen, and it was bluntly convinced that many of the martial art in the cult of the cult of the sect had been confronted with one side and had a great difficulty. No one left or right was willing to help. After that, The entire mountain village of Bitanzhuang was under the sun, and even the remaining money of the subsidized disciples could not be dispatched for three consecutive years. Later, somehow, it suddenly became rich again, but inexplicably, since that generation, Bitanzhuang originally had the earthquake of Kyushu. The water-breaking swordsmanship was lost, and later disciples could not make the essence of it.

To this end, there are always people on the rivers and lakes who laugh at Li Wuxin, saying that it is not good for him to teach, so that the former Jianshen Zhuang Bitanzhuang will be the end of the upper revision.

But now, everyone is surprised that things may not be as simple as they thought before – is it the big difficulty of Bitanzhuang that was actually sold by the swordsmanship?

Such a profiteer who was robbed by fire, someone immediately thought of a lonely moon night, and many eyes quietly swept over Jiang Yan’s face.

"It won't be a lonely night..."

"Probably the master of Jiang Zhangmen..."

Li Wuxin was still struggling in the ground, rolling, and he couldn't hold him. He cried for a while, then he just climbed up and squatted around, blood and nose falling down together.

"Give it back to me, I have raised most of my life, and I have a total of 511 billion yuan." Li Wuxin mourned, "There is only 511 billion gold... I really want to do what you want, really is not so More money, two, I can't kill, go grab, do the bad things and get money?! You send money to the day, but Bitanzhuang really doesn't have that much money... please..."

When I heard that "you have sent thousands of dollars to the day," those who did not look at Jiang Yan before began to glance at Jiang Yan. Jiang Xuan's Xuanyuan Pavilion, that is the biggest black market in the realm of cultivation, not him, who else?

There are young disciples of Bitanzhuang, but they are already red-faced and smashed toward the ginger: "Jiang Jiangmen! It turns out that the three most important volumes of the water-cut swords of Bitanzhuang are actually on your lonely night. ?! You export 8 billion gold, you... how can you be so shameless!"

Jiang Yan has not spoken yet. There is one person on the left side, hoarsely: "The truth is not clear, do you dare to add a sin to Jiang Jiangmen?"

The person who spoke was actually Huang Xiaoyue, who couldn’t breathe.

The old guy's hand holding the enchantment is shaking, and he still wants to tell Jiang Yan that he is loyal and what he is playing. It is really clear.

The disciple of Bitanzhuang was very annoyed. When he rushed up, he would smash Huang Xiaoyue, but he was firmly held by the same door. The same door advised: "Hey, don't provoke them."

Hearing the name, the ink burned.

In the past, he might think that the name is as smart as it is, and it makes people laugh at the big teeth. At this moment, he looks at the bad old man who can't help but squat in the mud, and suddenly feels bitter.

I can't smile at all.

"Five billions can't be...that...that's five-fifths?" Li Wuxin was crying, and the sleeves were smeared with tears. "Five-five billion, I went to Yizhou Changshi to buy and sell, and then sell. Some of the magical stones, but also the five, five billion... the head, you do a good job, send a compassion... just give me the sword."

He squatted and squatted, and the last forehead was broken and blood flowed.

"The broken water sword is the soul of Bitanzhuang..." He cried. "Before the first teacher emerged, the only wish was to let me redeem the sword. I have tried my best in my life... for a lifetime, from Black hair, turned into white hair, and the person who asked for it has changed from you to you... I also asked Luo Fenghua..."

"what!"

The crowd was suddenly eclipsed.

Luo Fenghua? !

Li Wuxin asked Luo Fenghua? !

Not a lonely moon night... yes... yes...

Looking back, no one was moving around, but immediately allocated a way, because almost all the martial artists were turning to look at the Nangong Temple in the corner, and the leaves were forgotten.

"It is the Confucianist!"

This time you don't need to whisper. Someone shouted out.

"Don't shame!"

"It is said that the swordsmanship of Confucianism has suddenly soared so many times in the past few decades, and even the legacy of Juggernaut! Beasts!"

"The Lingshan Conference in the past gave the third to Nangong. The stolen swordsmanship is a skill!"

"It's really disgusting!!"

Nangong stands in the same place, and looks sorrowful. Of course he does not know the sin scandals of these Confucianists. The evils of his father and ancestors should have fallen on the 72nd city of Confucianism. Now he wants him. People come here.

He did not escape, nor snorted, his face was gray, and he stood so silent.

Ye Tingxi wants to hold his hand, Nangong’s hand is quietly pumped away, and he stands in front of the leaves.

"He still has a face..."

"He is so alive, what do you think the son can be good?"

The people in Bitanzhuang were most indignant and shouted at them: "Go! Don't you still roll?!"

"The top ten sects have no place for Confucianism! What are you doing here! Roll!"

"Dog men and women, shameless!"

Everywhere around, the sound of passionate worship, the resentment, the curse, the hatred on the faces are so clear.

Suddenly someone rushed over and Biyi rolled over. It was a disciple of Bitanzhuang. The man grabbed the clothes of Nangong, and the leaves were forgotten: "Auntie!"

Nan Gongyi only pushed her away between the electric fire and the flint, and then the underground disciples of the Bitanzhuang were pressed down, the fists fell like rain, squatting on his face, chest ribs, abdomen, punching and punching. Force, but the fist is dull, fierce, and mad.

At this time, suddenly there was another cold voice, and screamed: "Stop."

A heavy blow was not received, and on the handsome face of Nangong, Nangong slammed a * cough, his hair was scattered, lying on the ground, muddy.

The angry disciple had to throw his fist again, but his arm was pinched.

He looked back in anger and shouted: "The beast! Don't you -"

Did not speak.

Because the person standing in front of him is the first master of the world, Chu nightning.

"stop."

Chu night, like a cold spring, overlooking him, the expression on his face can't tell what it is, it seems that there are many emotions, and it seems that there is nothing.

He just held the boy's arm tightly, licking his lips and yelling: "Don't fight."

Nangong was coughing up a blood on the ground, and Ye Ye was busy trying to help him. He was swayed by him: "Don't worry about me, the responsibility of the Confucianism, I should accept it for my father."

The boy was even more angry, struggling to get rid of Chu’s hand and want to beat him.

Chu night Ning Jianmei stood vertical: "Don't fight!"

"Don't you! You are the one who lives in the dead, this thing can't be taken care of by you!" The boy was also crazy, and he said to him, "Why are they doing this to my master? Why? What is this about Bitanzhuang?! Bitanzhuang has been doing the horse for the Confucianism for many years!! Why? Why?!"

He picked it up.

Behind him is Li Wuxin’s bursts of sorrows and sorrows.

Li Wuxin is still asking for his own consciousness. In fact, Nangong Liu, who does not exist at all, asks: "Luo Fenghua said that he is willing to change the sword for me... but he does not know where it was placed... You promised me... ...you promised me..."

"I am seventy-nine years old this year, and I can live for a few years. I haven’t been able to repair it in this life. Maybe I can’t understand it as a fairy. I can’t see my teacher... But the only thing he told me, I can’t do it. Ah." Every word of Li Wuxin is like a blood clot dug in the throat. He is also stunned. "I can't do it, the head... give it to me... Put the things of Bitanzhuang... Give the old man..."

"please……"

The disciples of Bitanzhuang were shaking, and Chu’s hands were shaking slightly.

There were tears in the eyes of the boy, hate, and puzzled.

But he couldn't get rid of it. In the end, his slobber vomited on Chu's cheeks. He said, "What guru is a beast."

"Master!"

"Ink burns, stand still, don't come."

Chu nightning loosened the boy's hand, the young man got the freedom, and immediately went to beat the Nangong Temple, which had been bruised and bruised, but unexpectedly a golden light fell, the sea otter swelled open, and the Nangong Temple and the leaves were forgotten. Protected in it.

Chu night Ning was originally half-squatting on the ground. At this moment, he slowly got up, and he looked at those ambiguous and screaming faces.

At the end of one end of the crowd is him, and at the other end, Li Wuxin, who is full of blood and tears.

The voice of Li Wuxin’s old voice came, it was the branch of winter, and the roots pierced into the sky: “Isn’t it worth five billion?...”

This old man is still trying to bargain with Nangongliu in his dreams.

Humble and dead.

Very humble.

Humble to an old face, it has become a sediment.

"5.8 billion?"

His voice is shaking.

Chu nightning closed his eyes.

His hand was also distorted and trembling under the wide sleeve. But still said one word at a time: "Nan Gong Yu, is the son of the old man, the son of Mrs. Rong."

Before the vast Huangshan, more than a thousand people, quietly only heard the innocence of Li Wuxin, and the sound of the cold night of Chu.

At one end, Li Wuxin said: "The 5.8 billion, can you always? It’s just three swords..."

On the other hand, Chu Xi Ning said: "When I came out of the mountain, I didn't carry silver two, and I didn't know how to ask for it. It was Mrs. Rong's meal, and left me to stay in the Confucianism Gate."

He paused, so only Li’s heart was crying.

"Mrs. Rong once asked me to accept her son Nangong as a disciple. Because of my young age, I am afraid that I will not be able to do it. But that year..."

Chu night Ning Wei side of the face, looked at the Nangong Temple down the ground. He finally slowly, the truth that the Nangong Temple did not remember, was made public.

"In that year, Mrs. Rong had brought her younger son and worshipped me in front of the Zongmiao Temple. She said that the Nangong ancestral rites had been completed. If I would like to live in the Confucianism for a long time, Nangong 驷 should be treated as a teacher."

Chu nightning raised his eyes.

"Nan Gong Temple is my apprentice."

Hearing this statement, Xue Meng’s face is instantly blue!

The smoldering and the sergeant's face were not very good, but they didn't talk, looking at the night.

"If the father's debt is not wrong, then one day is the teacher, and the whole life is the father. Since I have received the three worships of Nangong, he can call me a master." Chu Yuning said, "He The Master is still there. So, it’s good to seek revenge, and to fight. I am here, there is no resistance.”

"Master!"

"Master -!!"

The ink burned, Xue Meng and the teacher fell together, and Nan Gongyi struggled to get up from the ground. His blood was not stopped, he only muttered: "No... I don't worship... I didn't worship... I don't have a master...no master..."

However, at this time, Li Wuxin suddenly made a long shout, and he looked up to the sky, and had to blow like snow, squinting his eyes, and blood continued to flow from his eyes.

He groaned loudly, crying, choked, and expected Ai Ai.

"The 5.9 billion, can you always? The head of Nangong... 5.9 billion... More out of that, you should be poor and pity, this old man, give me some money to fight coffins... well, Ok?"

He used a neck-like posture, and finally nicknamed, the blue veins burst.

"All right!!"

Three in a row, Li Wuxin suddenly vomited blood again, blood mad, dead.

Then he plopped down on the ground.

This is the last sect of the upper sect. During this lifetime, I have been deliberately wooing every sect that may be handed over, and the ugly old man who wandered around. This has spent most of my life, still inactive, and even three big jokes that can't be redeemed.

A waste, mediocrity.

Just squinting in this way, fell in the dust of the gray.

died.

Whistling, the faces of all beings are different, and no one speaks.

It’s just that the smoldering suddenly remembers that there is a treasure in Mount Lu, which is enough to reinvigorate the martial art. This is what Lianjiang Dongtang knows.

Bitan Zhuang and Confucianism are so close, they don't understand what it means.

After the death of Nangong Liu, how many big factions are chasing and squatting to catch Nangong and Ye forget, saying that it is for revenge, and the heart is playing, but it is the idea of Jinshan Yinshan.

But Bitanzhuang did not.

Bitanzhuang is just awkward, thinking of stupid ways to make good friends and make good nights, and hope to be able to take care of each other in the future.

The gold and silver treasures of the Confucianist door, Li Wuxin did not even think about it.

It is obvious that he was the one who was crushed by Confucianism for a lifetime.

Perhaps, just because he has been bullied for a long time and has been crushed for a long time, this old man will understand in his heart that money is desirable, but it is not desirable.

The ink burned away in the dust of Li Wuxin, dirty, dirty and even ridiculous old face.

He suddenly understood why the Confucianism door was shocked that day, and everyone rushed to panic and fled, and the old man tried to escape, but he did not go away with timidity. Obviously, there is no big skill, but the scalp is hard and stays in the sea of fire.

A sword, saved dozens of lives unrelated to him.

People say that Bitan Zhuang's grandfather has a set of water-cutting swordsmanship, which can break the water and break through the sky. The history is called Juggernaut.

Li Wuxin lacked three books, and he couldn't learn the swordsmanship.

What he can do is, in the end, use a sword that has become bigger, and in the flames of the ocean, send those who he does not know, even the disciples of the Confucianism, out of the sea of fire, one by one, brought back to the world. .

Chapter 200

The disciples of Bitanzhuang would not have thought that the battle of Huangshan had not yet begun, and the life of their owners would be required.

Although Li Wuxin’s age is already high, he has gradually revealed some old ways, but if he is not shackled by this evil door, the meridian is retrograde, why shouldn’t it be so violent.

A few silences, Bitan Zhuang, a piece of Tsing Yi, have squatted.

The mourning sounds, everyone is lost. The disciple who had to settle with Nangong’s account also refused to take care of it. He cried and climbed back to the old Zhuangzhu’s side, tearing his tears with his sleeves and tears.

Suddenly, the huge enchantment in front of Huangshan made a shrill scream, and Jiang Yan changed his face and sighed: "Come personally fill in the position of Li Wuxin, otherwise we will all die here today!"

Xue Zhengyi simply turned back and shouted: "Yu Heng! Come and take the handle!"

Chu nightning does not need them to say the second time. What he is best at is the technique of enchantment. The whistling is the curse left by the phoenix evil spirits. It can touch this layer of curse, indicating that the elders are ripped apart. The enchantment barrier is not far away, and it can be completed. If it can't be done, this curse will be reversed. There is a force to relocate the mountains and reclamation. I am afraid it will be more difficult to escape than the robbery of Confucianism.

He immediately swept away, his eyes as sharp as a bayonet, waving his sleeve and raising his hand, slamming into the empty space left by Li Wuxin.

When I touched it, Chu night was shocked and immediately went to see Huang Xiaoyue standing next to him.

"..."

He saw Huang Xiaoyue sweating all over his head, his body trembled, his face flushed red, and it seemed to make the power of the nine cows and two tigers in the game of power - the other heads obviously think so. However, Huang Xiaoyue deceived others, but he deceived the enchanted master Chu Yuning.

When Chu Ning received the burden of Li Wuxin, he immediately felt that the anti-killing power of this position was extremely fierce. That is to say, Li Wuxin had just suffered the evil of two heads. This kind of situation is rarely seen in this kind of joint force, and in this case, there is only one possibility that the next-side operator has not given any power at all -

Huang Xiaoyue is actually just pretending!

Chu night Ning angry, black eyebrows cold vertical, sigh: "You ... how dare to play!"

"What, what..." Huang Xiaoyue gasped and gasped, and the whole person seemed to be dying and dying. The surrounding heads heard the movements, but those who had spare energy also looked at them.

"What is the guru saying...what is the drama..."

"What do you play in your own heart! Don't you give me a roll?!"

Xue Zhengxuan couldn't help himself, and said: "Yu Heng, what are you murdering against the ecliptic? You can't say anything when you see him. What's wrong with it? Open the enchantment and talk about it!"

Huang Xiaoyue’s eyes drifted, and he only stunned Chu’s night, and he was shocked by the chilly scorpion that was so cold.

He didn't have the strength to open the phoenix enchantment. The reason why he rushed to help, just to fight for a face, afterwards, let the upper repair circle know that Jiang Dongtang's strength is still there. He still has two brushes for Huang Xiaoyue.

Unexpectedly, Li Wuxin, a pustule, couldn’t afford the evil of two people. He was actually stunned by the phoenix and died directly next to him. If he died, he would be the one who filled his position.

This is a smashed Chu Zong teacher!

Huang Xiaoyue's greasy face is covered with sweat. These sweat beads are no longer hard to come out, but cold sweat. He is constantly sweating.

He is thinking, what should I do?

At the end of the crisis, Huang Xiaoyue made a sigh, slammed his tongue, and a * sputum, he let the saliva mixed with blood to seep in the lips.

"Guru... It’s really a misunderstanding of the old man... After Li Zhuang’s main withdrawal, the old man is really...more...more...

He coughed up sharply and coughed * stars.

"The old man really can't stand it..."

Where will the Chu nightning be fooled?

Li Wuxin and Huang Xiaoyue, the strength of these two individuals is stubborn and weak, so there is no need to say more, if both of them do their best, how can the first fallen person be Li Wuxin?

He sullenly swayed his sleeves and asked one hand to ask for the day. He slammed Huang Xiaoyue over a dozen feet.

"roll!"

"Ah!!"

The disciples of Jiang Dongtang were surprised and rushed to the wall.

There are also many people who glare at the night of Chu: "How does Chu Zongshi not make sense?"

"The ecliptic is doing its best, why do you say that the whip is a whip, and you can lose your temper when you lose your temper!"

"Look at yourself to have the ability, so bully people?!"

These anger and shouting words, Chu night Ning Ruoxing, his chest is full of anger, a pair of Ling Li Feng Yan almost flashing the color of frost, perhaps the red light of the enchantment reflected in his eyes, his cowardly even a little scarlet.

"Give me a roll."

The sound is not loud, but it is extremely gloomy.

Anyone who knows a little about Chu's late night knows that he is angry and scolding, and there is still room for discussion, but once he becomes the present state, it is cold and oppressive. Then no one can stop him.

Who stopped, and when asked about anger, I am afraid I will have the life of that person.

Xue Zhengqi murmured: "Yu Heng... What happened..."

"Huang Xiaoyue, do you really want to open the phoenix enchantment, do you have half an inch?" Chu Yuning’s hand on the enchantment even provoked the anger by the anger, "Li Wuxin can't bear it by your side." At the time, did you really share too much for him?!"

"what are you talking about!"

The female disciple of Jiangdongtang screamed.

"We all vomited blood, and you actually said that he did not try his best? Is it necessary to see that he is as dead as Li Zhuang, are you satisfied?"

Chu night Ning black eyebrows and blazing, is about to say again, suddenly in front of the Tongtian enchantment sent a general, violent fluctuations. The palms of the heads of the hands were wrapped in a blood-red light.

Jiang Yan immediately said: "God! The last layer! Just tear it!"

"..."

Chu Evening had no intention of arguing with the group of madmen. He looked back and condensed himself, and his hands were placed on top of the enchantment. The majestic spiritual power was filled with raging flames and violently placed in the crack. A loud bang.

Earth shakes.

The phoenix enchantment splits a huge gap, which is eight feet high and can accommodate five people side by side.

Xue Zhengxi said: "Opened! The enchantment opened!"

He was close to the rip, and immediately probed to see it, but he couldn’t help but feel a black and red sigh of relief. He couldn’t help but scream: “How is it so stinky?!”

Other monks also refused to take a look at Bitanzhuang and Jiangdongtang.

The mysterious abbot of Wushang Temple is the most sensitive in this way. When the rosary is turned in the hand, he sighs: "It is the land of corpse. The corpse and resentment on this phoenix mountain is probably more than we think. many."

Jiang Yanyin said: "It seems that Xu Shuanglin’s passing the street mouse is really nestled in the broken hill." He said as he turned back: "Everyone listens. Before the injury, hey, no. Used, pretending."

When he said that he was pretending to be pretending, the sly scorpion passed through Huang Xiaoyue, who was lying on the ground, and then sneered at the slightest invisible.

"These people are all staying at the foot of the mountain. The rest, follow me up the mountain."

Xue Meng saw that the night had entered the crack, and immediately he was eager to keep up, but found that the ink was not on his side. He looked around and found a commotion in the place where Nangong was located. It turned out that after the grief of the disciples of Bitanzhuang, the hatred became more and more, and they all wanted to find Nangong. Although there was an enchantment that Chu’s late fall, even in this case, Nangong was still surrounded by a group of twisted faces, and each bright red tongue was cursed and reviled.

Xue Meng anxiously said: "Ink burning, what are you doing there? Everyone is going up the mountain, keep up!"

"You must go first, protect the teacher and the teacher, if there is no support, immediately fly to report me."

Xue Meng had no choice but to leave first.

At this time, only the people of Bitanzhuang and Jiangdongtang were left at the foot of the mountain. The ink burned his eyes back from Xue Meng's back and said: "I know the mood, but the sword score is not the work of the Nangong Gongzi. If you want to liquidate, at least wait until you catch Xu Shuanglin."

"This is two things, Xu Shuanglin, Nangong, or one can't escape!"

"Yes! They both have to pay the price!"

Yan Ming is considered to be somewhat sensible in these people. He is red-eyed and swearing: "Mr. Mozong, now you are a master. Your master is also a master. Are you two masters, so that you are guilty of sinners? ”

Ink burning: "I only want you to talk about the public. If you really want to make this thing clear, you should send Xu Sulin and others to Tianyin Pavilion after the matter has subsided. The big sects have been discussing each other to make justice. Now that I am rushing up, I plan to smash a man who is not going to fight back. What is it?"

Description: "..."

Someone shouted: "What ten sects? Nine! Confucianism can still be a martial art?"

Yu Ming suddenly said: "It's eight." There was blood stain on his face. After wiping it for the teacher, he wiped his tears and left it on the face. The blood stains made him look very ugly and very stunned." It is eight sects....Bi Tan Zhuang is also without the Lord."

"Brothers..."

He did not care for the sorrows of the younger brothers, and turned his head slowly, watching the smoldering: "After the battle of the celestial division, the master said that the sorrow of death is still a fair sect. Now it seems that he is wrong. You guys."

Ink burning: "..."

Yan Ming asked: "Mr. Mo Zong, you must protect the two beasts of Confucianism today?"

If the ink burned has not yet been answered, I heard the Nangong hoarse and hoarse: "The ink burns, you go away."

The leaves are half-baked in the side of Nangong, and it is really difficult for her to help him. There is no crying, no help, but the voice is also dumb: "Mu Gongzi, go up the mountain, this matter has nothing to do with you."

On the side of the burning side: "When you worship my master, is it Baibai? Since it is my teacher, how can I have nothing to do with me?"

Nangong Temple: "You -"

The ink burned and turned to look at the face of Yan Ming. At this time, he was already more than the people of Bitanzhuang. The disciples of Jiang Dongtang also looked around.

Under the support of two female disciples, Huang Xiaoyue was stunned. He gasped, rolled his eyelids and scorned the ink. Then he left the two disciples, and the dead wood fingers slammed a little, saying: "The old man has been immersed in the justice of the upper class since childhood, so he can sit and watch!"

The ink burns cold and cold: "The ecliptic is really a model of the upper repairing world. It has just been lingering, and a scent of fragrant and kung fu is not enough. It can actually stand up and jump up and start to do the heavens. I admire."

"You - cough and cough!!" Huang Xiaoyue seems to be extremely angry and attacking his heart, coughing his chest and fainting. The play was very full, but the ink burned and even the eyes were too lazy to marry him.

The Tsing Yi of Bitanzhuang and the purple clothes of Jiangdong Hall made a group of three people together, step by step, but no one started. Everyone knows that this trick falls, it is difficult to cover the water.

Yan Ming said: "Mr. Mozong, I will finally ask you again. Do you really let it go?"

"what!!"

The ink burned yet to answer, and suddenly a sharp voice came from the front, and I didn’t know which woman was repairing it. Then a bunch of fuzzy black-grey mudstones rushed from the enchantment gap of Huangshan Mountain. Out.

Huang Xiaoyue said: "What? Landslide?"

The ink burns and narrows your eyes.

Not a landslide.

The crowd quickly became clear, and they all sighed.

From the crack, there is a wave of zombies burnt into coke! ! These zombie arms are glued to the arm, the flesh is sticking to the flesh, and they are still drinking thick water, barely able to see some of their faces.

"Wow--" Someone couldn’t stand it anymore, bowing and vomiting.

"This is also disgusting for his mother..."

"Is this something on the mountain?"

"How many dead bodies should there be?"

The smoldering was also a shock. At this time, a heavy muffled sound was heard in the sky. The enchantment that several elders had just torn apart, actually moved again at this moment, slowly, seemingly to close-

This enchantment is actually self-healing! Not long after the tearing, it will close again, preventing more people from entering it!

The ink burned anxiously: "Go up the mountain first, and then complain back. Xu Sulin is on the mountain. Isn’t this the culprit not to catch?"

The people in Bitanzhuang hesitated, but Huang Xiaoyue did not need to sneer and said: "The masters of the whole world are almost all on the hill, and they can't catch Xu Shuanglin. But the two small dolls of Confucianism are slippery, running with The mud is as fast as it is. If it is misplaced, there will be no chance in the future."

"...Huang Xiaoyue." The ink burned anger, the red light flashed in the hand, and the ghost was called out. "Are you enough?!"

More than a hundred people in front of him, see him summoning the gods, all pulled out the blade, lifted the weapon, and stared at him with extreme caution.

In this case, I can’t escape a fierce battle. I don’t have anything to do, but according to the thoughts of these people, I am afraid that I will count my own battle today into the gimmick of death...

However, at this time, he suddenly heard a cold voice behind his voice.

"Please go up the mountain, Nangong is waiting here, never flee."

Huang Xiaoyue said: "It’s easy to talk to a little doll. Why do you believe in it? If you can’t really make it to be a prisoner, if you don’t leave, you won’t leave?”

Nan Gongyi looked at him coldly and stood up from the ground. Then he raised his hand and then threw the leaves to the enchantment set by Chu Xiening.

"Auntie!"

This enchantment, only the people inside can go out, but the outside people can't get in.

Nangong Temple stood alone and slowly pulled out his own sword. The bright sword light, one inch and one inch, illuminates his face.

Chin, lips, nose tip.

Eyes.

Ye forgets that he has understood what he is going to do, hammering it on the enchantment and shouting, "Don't be fooled!"

"When the ancestors set up the school, they had the training: grievances, murder, murder and robbing, it is my Confucian gentleman who can't do it." Nangong said, "My father is not good, I have this training. But I am twenty-six years old." Although there is arrogance, I have never been tempted. These seven cannot be done, I am worthy of my heart."

With a bang, the sword is like a running water.

"No!"

The ink burned also knew what he was going to do. He tried to solve the enchantment set by Chu Yuning, but the enchantment was firm and it could not be eliminated for a while.

He muttered: "South Palace..."

Nangong Temple did not go to the leaves to forget the past, but also ignored the ink. He said: "Today, the kings refused to believe me, and I have no other way. Fortunately, I learned the technique of imprisonment. Therefore, please don't be innocent. I am in Nangong, painting the land as a prison, waiting for you to return."

"Namong!!"

The sound is not gone, the blood is arrogant.

The sword of Nangong Temple was nailed into the ground for a moment, and there was no soil.

At the same time being nailed to the ground, there is the left hand of Nangong Temple -

He actually nailed his hand, like a seven-inch snake, to the ground. The sword was on the thunder and the curse of the curse was turned around.

Ye forgets the time and she squats before the enchantment.

The blood of Nangong Temple ran down the hilt and stained the ground.

No one can see the expression of the leaves, she hung her face, only one hand clung to the enchantment of the brilliance of the brilliance, the knuckles roots pale, sly.

This is a cursed beast, a smashed ghost, and a curse of the animal. The masters of the upper revisions will be used by almost everyone, and everyone can know.

Nangong used this curse and nailed himself.

His painful lips were blue, and he couldn't stop, but he didn't cry. After a long time, he raised his face, his eyes were scarlet, and he had a word.

He said: "Go."

"..." There is very little time when the ink is burnt and cannot be said.

In the past, only the leaves have been done.

In this life, he saw the people who Yeh’s favorite.

He used to be confused about where Ye Zhongxi had liked Nangong, a girl who only wanted to look at her face, like a beautiful girl, and had no brains.

But at this moment, he saw another leaf forget.

Kneeling, insane, blood, but in the bones.

Nangong Temple.

"Go!" Nangong yelled. "What else is not at ease?! Want me to nail my legs to the ground! Go!!"

Yu Ming was the first to turn around.

He returned to the head of Li Wuxin's body, and organized the body of the head to be solemn, hugged, and went back.

"Brother!"

"Brother, don't you stay?"

"Sister? Are we leaving like this? Is it necessary to let them go like this?"

Yan Mingdao: "What are you going to do? I don't know how long I have to play on the mountain, so that the head is lying on the ground like this, even the individual face is not there, wait?!"

The disciples of Bitanzhuang looked at each other and they lowered their heads one by one, no longer snoring.

When Ming Ming walked to the side of the ink and burned his shoulders with the ink, he said, "Mr. Mozong, you remember what you said. After this war, we will see you."

"Fortunately. There is also Tianyin Pavilion in this world to be able to preside over justice." There is a red eye of the individual, which is the disciple who spit out the sorrow and sorrow, and he is behind the brothers, and there is no hate. Will act impartially, so that our teachers can pay attention."

"Ink burning, Nangong 驷... you wicked people, you are waiting! You will all have retribution. Let's die!"

Chapter 201

Bitan Zhuang left, and Huang Xiaoyue wanted to stay, and there was no reason to stay.

He can only go up the mountain.

The ink-burning hope is quick and fast, and one horse is currently rushing into the phoenix enchantment. The people of Jiangdongtang then follow. As soon as I entered the enchantment, the ink burned well, but the people in Jiangdongtang all screamed out.

——

It is dead.

There are dead people everywhere.

Full of land, full of trees, lying on the ground, hanging on the treetops, densely packed, all dead bodies. Moving, crawling, twisting, and coming to each living person at a very slow speed.

Huangshan has become a whole corpse!

Huang Xiaoyue saw it. One person was currently pulling out the dust and slamming forward, and the heads of four or five dead bodies were rolled in the blink of an eye. The ink burns have not yet reacted, why did the old man suddenly become so

When he was brave, he heard him screaming "ah" and fell to the ground in an extremely flamboyant posture. His eyes turned white and he coughed the bleeding foam.

Ink burning: "....."

Jiang Dongtang disciples are busy: "Yellow predecessors -"

"senior……"

"No problem, although the old man is injured, he still has some strength." Huang Xiaoyue struggled to get up, but climbed two times, his knees were soft, and he fell back to the ground, and kept panting.

gas.

Those disciples will be anxious: "Predecessors still go to rest outside, there are too many evil spirits here, I am afraid it will damage the heart."

"Yeah yeah."

Huang Xiaoyue first tried to quit, while whispering, while vomiting blood, blood still mixed with sticky saliva, can not tell the nausea, so after two times, Huang Xiaoyue led the Jiangdongtang University

The half disciple made a very regrettable appearance. All the people, like the cross of the river, screamed out of the phoenix enchantment.

This enchantment stopped people from entering, but did not stop people from fleeing. Soon Jiang Dongtang would have few people left. At this time, a young man suddenly fell down the mountain, and the young man’s long hair was dark.

Oh, look cold.

He saw each other with ink and burned, and each other was slightly stunned.

The ink burned first came over: "...Mei brother?"

Mei Hanxue nodded and didn't like words coldly.

The ink rushed to ask: "Do you see me respecting them?"

"It’s just ahead." When he said this, a dead body climbed up from Mei Hanxue, and the ink burned waiting for a reminder, but he saw Jianguang a cold, Mei Hanxue had called out

The sword, the head does not return, the backhand will smash the hole in the chest of the dead body.

He slammed the sword out, and there was a black effusion on his head. The plum and snow looked cold and cleaned the blood on the sword. He said, "Go up, go straight ahead, the first mountain ridge."

The mouth is to the left, there are too many dead bodies, and the road is being cleared. Everyone is there. ”

I’m thankful and I’m trying to catch up. Mei Hanxue stopped him.

"and many more."

"Is there something about Mei brother?"

"Well. The palace owner and Mrs. Rong are deceased, she can't worry, let me fold back to see the two of the Confucianism. How are they, are they still outside?"

The ink burned the words, the heart was wide, and said: "They are still waiting outside, Nangong 扌丁 has given himself a binding spell. But Huang Xiaoyue went out, I am afraid it will make something difficult for them.

Love, please also take care of you. ”

Mei Hanxue licked his lips, no more words, a little point, and the person has disappeared at the end of the enchantment.

The ink burns no longer delays, and immediately rushes to the large forces.

Strange to say, he originally thought so many bodies, he should always see his own will, but there is no, there are corpses that are smashed, rotten flesh, disgusting

Disgusting, but not mixed with the remains of any monk.

Is it because all the leaders are bringing elite leaders?

He didn't have the time to think more, and he immediately went into battle with the mountain. If he just came along the place where everyone has already played, those zombies have already

It was cut off without any fighting power, so at this moment he felt more embarrassed when he got started.

too easy.

He felt that he was not fighting with the evil spirits at all, and it was like an ordinary person who was killing the hands of a chicken.

This situation made him uneasy, and he vaguely had a terrible speculation...

"Drinking -"

Suddenly, a zombie was hung on the big tree in front of him, and the head was shed, and his hand was about to go to the neck of the ink. The ink burned back and swept back, and the zombie immediately turned his head, his nostrils twitching, one

Only grabbed his shoulder and put the rotten face together.

The smoldering sorrow was terrible, but he took the opportunity to observe it first, then lifted his ankle and smashed it into the corpse that had come up, and even knocked down several carcasses that had come over.

"Ink burning!"

At this time, Xue Meng also called, and he leaned back against him. Xue Meng gasped, and some black blood splashed on his cheeks. His eyes were like electric power. Shen Sheng said: "What happened? These bodies are noisy.

For play? Playing sea war? How is it so weak! ”

The smoldering eyes are cold and chilly. In the past, he stepped on the sorcerer and read the sorcerer. He had a vague guess in his heart, but the clues were not enough at the moment, he could not conclude.

The ink burns and bites the back groove: "These are not the body of the monk. It is ordinary people."

"What?!" Xue Meng was surprised, asked sideways, "People are * black and gray, one by one, how can you see if it is a monk? I * even they are Men are women are not clear! ”

The ink burned did not answer directly, but said: "If I fight with you, I can't get out of the way, and you will grab your shoulders. What will happen?"

"...how do you expose your shoulders to me? This is a big fight. The eleven-year-old disciples will not make such mistakes."

“Why is it taboo?”

"The nucleus is close! Grab your shoulder, which is equivalent to grabbing half of your nucleus, and the other hand will be able to decide to live and die immediately after breaking into your chest!"

Ink burning: "Well, just a zombie has caught me like this -"

Xue Meng said: "How are you so careless? Don't you die?!"

The ink burned his words: "It didn't move."

"Ah?" "So close, it didn't even think of another hand attacking my nucleus. For the person who cultivated the truth, protect his own nucleus and attack him when he is close.

The spiritual core of human beings is already a habit of deepening the bone marrow. As you said, the 11-year-old Xiao Xiu will do this. Even if you turn into a zombie after death, the habit of fighting melee will not change.

Changed, but this body did not do this. ”

The ink burned and sighed.

"Why don't you do it? Two possibilities. Can't do it, can't think of it."

Xue Meng: "..."

Ink burning: "The hands and feet are sound, the chances are rare, it is impossible to do it. So I can't think about it.... These bodies are mostly ordinary people when they are alive, and they will not be dead.

These elite champions, so hit now, no one injured. ”

Xue Meng was shocked: "How could this be? What does Xu Shuanglin do in Huangshan when he wants to pile up so many ordinary people? He has this power, why not control the monks?"

Ink burning: "There is the same as the talent, two kinds, can't do it, can't think of it."

"How could he not think of it!"

"So there is only the last one. Can't do it." The ink burned his eyes, and the smoldering star fire splashed in his eyes, like the burning iron water falling into the night, "Xu Shuanglin's spiritual power,

Not enough to control so many monks with the Jane Chess. ”

"Then it is useless to control these soft-footed shrimps?" Xue Meng stepped back and retired a bunch of zombies. He was so sad and crying, "What can I do? What can I stop?"

The ink burned no more, and the speculation in his heart became more and more clear.

He looked at the zombies who were fighting with everyone. Soon, he found a very strange phenomenon: those bodies that were cut off, cut their heads, and fell on the ground immediately.

The tiny vines came out and pierced directly into their chests, and then slammed the chest meat, and together with the heart, slammed into the ground and disappeared.

This is a very easy thing to find, but the chaos is so crowded that everyone can’t take it, the vine is small and

Suddenly he flew up and grabbed the neck of a zombie, turning his hand over the hidden weapon dagger and stabbing the heart of the zombie.

Black blood suddenly splashed his face!

Xue Mengdi

Big mouth, two steps back, actually can't speak.

He thinks that the smoldering must be crazy...

The ink ignited half of the well-defined face, and quickly twitched and shattered the dark gray heart of the zombie, revealing the inside.

A black chess piece comes.

This is nothing to be surprised. The phoenix corpse is obviously controlled by the Jane Chess, and this will be the case for the tiger.

This piece of chess - he rummaged through the blood, endured a strong stench.

Xue Meng couldn't stand it anymore, bowed and wowed out.

"You! Are you sick?... This is too disgusting... vomit..."

The ink burned him, his fingers fiddled in the blood clot, and he quickly found the thing he was looking for.

I saw it on the back of the chess piece, crouching with a small worm, reddened - soul worm.

At the same time, the ground suddenly picked up dozens of soft vines, straight to the blood of the blood

Both hands are coming! He swiftly avoided it, and the vines rushed faster and faster, swearing to wrap the pieces together with the bugs into the heart of the earth.

At this moment, the ink has completely understood Xu Shuang

Lin's intentions and practices. He was covered in cold hair and his blood was cool.

Because this world, in addition to the previous generation of stepping immortal, no one would want to get this evil

Secret door!

Just like Wan Tao’s return to the waves is the same as that created by Chu Yuning. In front of all this, this piece, this soul-eating corpse, these corpses, all sorts of arrangement, point to a familiar and familiar array. :

A heart of the array.

This is the battle he created in his life!

If you still guessed before, then the re-emergence of this formation is equal to giving him a stick, and its world should undoubtedly have two things:

First, in addition to himself, there must be another person in the world.

gave birth.

Second, the rebirth, must be familiar with the number of ways to step on the emperor.

The ink-burning hand trembled slightly, and the black blood stained constantly dripping from the fingers.

The black chess piece and the reddish bug were clenched in his palm. He avoided the vines that came from the attack, but his mind was in chaos.

Chaos and horror

He suddenly remembered the broken things of his life -

At the beginning, he was only 19 years old.

At that time, the ghost world had just been filled, and the teacher was mourning, and he was carrying all the people. The practice of secretly practicing the chess game was almost half a year, and it has been ineffective and failed repeatedly. Until that day.

19-year-old ink drizzle

Sit with your legs and slowly open your eyes.

Spreading his hands, there are two dark pieces in the palm of his hand - that is the first time in his life, the cherished chess.

Good text,

Before that, he tried thousands of methods, but all ended in failure. He couldn’t understand the confusing sentence on the forbidden

Son, but he can't ask Chu Yuning. In fact, during that time, he was not very willing to talk to Chu Xiaoning, and the death of the teacher became a gap that they could never fill.

This pair of teachers and apprentices has long existed in name only.

In the last few months of his demon's face, he walked on the road and occasionally met the white man who was on the opposite side.

But every time he meets, he will do it as if he didn’t see it.

In fact, several times in Naihe Bridge, the two passed by, and his afterglow noticed that Chu was rather like

I want to say something to him. It is a pity that the dignity of Chu Yuning did not allow him to take the initiative to call his apprentice. And if you burn it, it won’t give him more time to hesitate.

The sample will leave and never look back.

The wrong shoulder.

In the absence of help, the ink burned for a long time, only to read and understand the meaning of the forbidden wounds.

I also know the most important point of the game:

All the pieces, whether they are sunspots or even more powerful, can be sympathetic to the sorcerer.

The spiritual power is condensed. Every time a piece of chess is condensed, the spiritual power to be consumed is very amazing. The spiritual power of refining a sunspot is enough to display hundreds of big moves, and to refine a white child.

It is almost impossible to use the spiritual power of the masters of this class at the end of the night.

That is to say, if a person is clever and smart, for the chess game

Knowing that it has reached its peak, it is useless, and there is not enough spiritual power. It can only be discussed on paper. Although the ink is full of talents, the spirit is abundant, but after all, it is a 20-year-old

The young man who did not arrive, so he exhausted all his efforts, failed several times, and finally only condensed two sunspots.

Lying in his palm at the moment.

The ink burned on the two sunspots, and the eyes shone with a strange luster. There was only a burning candlestick in the dark room, shining on his face.

he made it.

At that time, he did not care about the number of pieces, but he was ecstatic because he successfully condensed the black chess. he made it!

Obviously such a handsome person, but suddenly there is

The appearance of some beasts.

He walked out of the darkroom of the practice, his mind was dizzy, half because of bliss, and half because the two pieces had exhausted all his spiritual power. His whole person was collapsed, and he went outside and was dazzled. The sun shone, suddenly dizzy, breathless.

His face was red for a while, white for a while Shaking the blurred scene, he saw far away, and there were two disciples who were dead and dying. The only thing he has to do is to hide the two sunspots into the Qiankun bag as soon as possible.

And the back foot was soft, planted on the ground, fainted.

Half-awake, he knew that he had been taken back to the disciple room and was lying on a bed that was not spacious. he Slightly opened his eyes and sat alone by the bed.

He has a fever, his head is very painful, he can’t see the person’s appearance, only when he can blur the eyes and look at himself, then Concern, so focused, so gentle, even seems to take responsibility.

"division……"

His lips are moving, his voice is dumb and he can’t say complete words, but tears first.

Knocked down.

The white figure paused, and then the burning felt a warm hand on his face, the tears on his cheeks were wiped, and the man sighed softly.

And said, "How come you cry?"

"..."

Teacher, are you coming back?

Can't you go... don't die... don't leave me alone...

Since A-Niang left, there is no second person in this world. I will treat you as gentle as you, treat me well, without a second person, I will not abandon me, I will be willing to stay with you.

I……

Teacher, don't go...

The hot tears couldn’t stop, and he felt that he was very unprofessional, but he was crying all the time, sleeping in his dreams and crying all the time.

The man sat on his bed and accompanied him. He then held his hand and did not speak. He was so awkward that he had not left the place for a while, accompanied him.

The ink burns the two precious pieces in his own pocket. He also knows that it is the source of sin and the seed of the devil.

But it is also after he asks for it, and then fights with the sky.

And the chips with the ground.

What is needed to refine the chess piece is not only the spiritual power, but the last sacrifice will be the soul that he was still clean.

The smoldering smoldering, under the wet eyelashes, his gaze, looking at the phantom of the teacher, he said: "I'm sorry... if you are still, I also..."

I don't want to, take this road.

But the latter part of the sentence, but no longer have the strength to say, he fell asleep again. When he woke up again, the white man had already left, and the ink burned it even more.

It is a sight that I dreamed of when I was faint. Only he remembered that there was a furnace of incense in the house. It was Xue Zhengyi who gave him peace of mind. The fragrance was good, but he didn't like it.

The incense has gone out.

A long coil of incense, not burned, was annihilated.

Who has been here?

He sat up and stared at the incense burner. He thought for a long time and didn't think about it. In the end, he simply didn't want to. He saw his clothes and accessories, and he was placed on the table, and the Qiankun bag was also.

He returned to his heart and quickly took his bare feet and took his own bag.

Opened, okay, the three knots that he deliberately stunned before, or the three, no one moved.

The ink burned out and turned the bag. He saw the two black-and-white chess pieces, crouching in the corner, like two unscrupulous eyes. Want to swallow him

Get rid of it.

He stared at the two pieces for a while.

This is probably the fate - if Chu Xiaoning turned over and smashed the sacs around him, everything would change.

But Chu Xi Ning will not arbitrarily flip other people's things, even if he has pockets, he will not go to see more.

The ink burned the pieces out. His throat is swaying and his heart is like a drumstick.

What should I do now? How should he use these two pieces...

This is the weapon he first condensed, he can't wait to try it.

Try - but who to look for? The electro-optic flint in the brain, suddenly slammed up is a very crazy idea.

Chu nightning.

He wants to put the pieces into the body of Chu Xiaoning.

After he got in, the man who was ruthless and ruthless, wouldn’t he be obedient to him from now on? Is it because he is kneeling, he will never stand?

Can he let Chu night Ning Yi apologize in front of himself, let Chu Xi Ning fall to his feet, he can let Chu night Ning call his master can sting him to bite him! !

Extreme excitement caused the light in the burning hole to start to distort.

Yes, torture him...

How can this most be the most painful? The most shame?

Shame him...

The ink burned tightly on the two pieces, and the tongue dried up, getting hotter and hotter.

He is caught in a strong stimulus and anxiety, he is jealous

I lick my own cracked lips. He couldn’t wait to do this, he wanted to see Chu’s neck hanging down on his own pale neck, then he reached out and touched it, feeling the thin battle.

Li, then...

Pinch his neck? Crushed his bones?

I don’t feel so happy.

He felt empty and did not feel satisfied.

Good text,

It’s too boring to let Chu night die. Even if he imagined, he would not be happy. He wants to see him crying, wants to see him, wants to see him is not as good as death, shame and anger. He always felt that there was a better way to vent his anger.

He put a piece of chess on his lips, his cold touch on his lips, and he muttered low.

"You can't stop me, Chu is late. There will be such a day soon, I want you to..." Good text,

What about you?

He hadn’t thought about it at the time. He still didn’t know that a large part of his rushing desire was the desire and sexuality/destination of Chu’s late life.

But he already has that terrible male instinct.

I want to bury the first demonized demon seed in the body of Chu.

He wants to stain him.

He got up and pushed the door out -

Chapter 202

However, after a few rounds of patrolling outside the Honglian Water Margin, the ink burned down and did not make such crazy things.

Too dangerous.

This is his first time to refine the chess, and the effect has not been tried. If you take the risk, you will start with the first division. I am afraid that it is too long.

So hesitantly and repeatedly, the ink burned and controlled his impulses. He left the red lotus. After careful consideration, he finally chose to put these two cherished sons on two younger brothers who were born and died - he needed more trials, and picking up the unstable young disciples was the safest choice.

It was a cool night, the night was shrouded in mountains, and the ink burned out very quickly. I watched the two young men who were still playing in the riverside game, and he was nervous and even shaking hands. The pupil is shrunk fine. The moon lit his pale face, and he rubbed his lips and his fingertips moved slightly, stepping out.

That was his first time using this heinous ban, he was excited and nervous.

"吵-"

The two suddenly slammed, and the ink burned like a bird of surprise. It was like a murderer who had just killed a person. A little wind and grass had his life. He immediately hid in the bush next to him, and his heart seemed to jump out of his throat.

Hey.

After a long delay, he saw the two men squatting in the ground, and they were motionless, and a mad heart finally calmed down.

His coat has been soaked by cold sweat, and his scalp is numb.

He went out.

Stand in the moonlight again, along the gravel of the river.

This time he was finally calmer than his head, although he still didn't dare to breathe, cautiously like a snake in the night.

The ink burned and looked down at the two younger brothers.

The two people who had just been playing in the hip-hop had no color on their faces. The calmness was like stagnant water. They squatted on the ground, and they stared at them. They didn’t look up, so they groaned.

"..."

The ink burned and tried to move his fingertips to spur the spell.

The two younger brothers squatted down and then got up and turned their eyes. In the two pairs of black lacquered eyes, the smoldering saw his reflection.

The reflection is not too clear, but I don’t know why, the ink burns that I am clear, and the sly autumn will be present, and the dripping water will not leak.

He glimpsed a ghost against the moon, pale, and red in his eyes.

The smoldering heard his voice, trembling, and hoarsely tempted: "Report it."

The answer to him is the gentle sound of two ancient wells without waves: "The name is not for me."

The burning heart is beating vigorously, the blood is in the body, and the throat is squirming. He continues to whisper and ask: "Where is it?"

"The land is not for me."

"What day is it?"

"I don't want to be old."

There are three low-level sunspots that are successfully controlled by Zhenqiqi. There are three things that are not for me: why the name is not for me, where is not for me, and why not for me this year.

- are determined by the owner.

This is exactly the same as that contained in the ancient books of the residual volume.

The ink burned, and it was strange to say that in the face of two pieces made by oneself, his most feelings were not ecstasy, but fear.

What is he afraid of? He didn't know, but his heart was very chaotic and he was very chaotic.

He knows that he is standing on the edge of the cliff - no, he has fallen off the cliff, the darkness below is the endless abyss, he can't see the end, can't see where is death, where is the end, where is the fire, where It is the end. He felt that there was a soul in his body that was groaning in pain, but it broke quickly, broken into powder and broken into pieces.

He trembled, reaching out and touching the cheek of one of the pieces.

He swallowed, but there was no spit in his mouth, his lips were cracked, his handsome face was distorted. He stared at the little teacher and asked the last question: "What is it asking?"

"What you ask for, for the chess piece, the broken bones, do not hesitate."

"..."

The ink does not shake.

Everything around me suddenly became very quiet, cold and quiet, like ice.

He made two pieces, two, which made the two younger brothers who didn't even know their names become the lines of his men. He wants them to go east, they will not go west, he wants them to kill each other, they will not open the side.

He is their master.

Jane Chess is the worst controllable dead object, the most powerful and controllable.

The ink-burning spirit is naturally overbearing and fierce, and it is extremely talented. He first started, and the chess pieces he had been able to control two living monks, although they were only two young, just-introduced monks.

After the initial fear, the smoldering suddenly felt extremely exciting and extremely exciting. There seems to be a grand picture of his paintings slowly unfolding in front of him. The sound of the dogs and horses on the top, the flowers are clustered, everything is pinched in the palm of his hand, everything is his.

He can hold it tightly.

Anything he hates can be crushed into powder.

The ink burned very excited, his heartbeat is still very fast, even faster, but not because of stunned, but because of excitement, Jane chess game! Three major bans!

Sneaky, failed tens of thousands of times, but he will finally... He finally succeeded... He did a great job.

The world will be his bag!

With these sunspots, he can do many things that he could not do before. He can make his minions from Mobei to Jiangnan!

In front of the eyes, the glory is extremely impressive.

It seems that everything can be done, everything can be done, he...

"Ink burning."

Suddenly a familiar cold voice interrupted him.

Like a basin of cold water, those Zhulou high stations seem to collapse in an instant, he seems to fall from the cloud on the chilly ground, falling back to the oppressive reality.

The ink burned slowly and looked back, his eyes were scarlet and sly, facing the moonlight, and the cold white man standing on the gravel floor.

"..."

He never had any time, and he did not want to see Chu Xiening more than this moment.

"What are you doing here?"

The ink-burning hand was secretly punched into a fist, and the lips were licked, and there was no immediate answer.

There are still two rare pieces behind him, and it is not perfect. If Chu Ning is close to seeing it, he will find out that it is different, then everything is revealed.

With the character of Chu Xinning, I am afraid that he will smoke his ribs, interrupt his legs, abolish his spiritual core, and then copy the ancient books from the forbidden area of the library.

Seeing that he did not make a sound, Chu nightning slightly frowned, and the white silk stepped on the sandstone and took a step forward.

But it is also true, just taking that step. Then he stopped and looked at the two disciples who were standing behind the ink.

No matter what else, the ink burned the little fingertips, but almost used all the will, screaming in the heart, finally let the two disciples move as he wished.

A disciple laughed and said: "This is too close. I just got it all at once, and I am definitely farther away than you."

"You can blow it, anyway, you...ah, Yuheng elder!"

They acted as usual, just like before, they saw the night, and even sneaked a bit. Then the two of them went to the night of the night, and they looked at them in the evening, and they felt that something was wrong. But it is not so clear. "Ask the elders."

"Yuheng elders."

The two disciples converge with a smile, and they greeted Chu and later, and intend to leave here.

Chu nightning frowned, his brows did not loosen, his eyes kept watching the two pieces coming from the river beach, approaching himself, walking by mistake, walking toward the bamboo forest... He stared at the two people for a long time, This turned around and turned his eyes back on the ink-burning body. The ink burned and sighed. As a result, the tone was still half-lost, and I heard that Chu Ning suddenly said:

"stop."

"..." The ink burned his face slightly, and the nails actually had a red mark in the palm of his hand, but he didn't say anything, he said nothing. He quietly observed the subtle expression of Chu Xiaoning and observed Chu Xiaoning. Every move.

Chu nightning said to the two stupid standing: "Come back."

There was no way to burn the ink. I had to bite the scalp and let the two pieces obey the command. I slowly walked back from the end of the bamboo forest and stood in front of the night.

Light clouds move, and the moon is coming out.

Under the bright moonlight, Chu Xiaoning looked at the faces of the two disciples, and suddenly raised his hand, and the fingertips covered the neck of one of them.

The ink burned and stared at the look of Chu Yuning, not moving, but the heartbeat was frantic.

He knew that Chu Ning must have noticed something wrong, so he suddenly reached out to explore the pulsation. It is necessary to know that those who begin to learn the chess pieces can only control the dead bodies, but not the living ones. Although these two people are directly made by living people, but the ink is not sure that they are really perfect, and they are not sure that they have killed them in the heart of the two.

"..."

I don’t know how long it took, and Chu Ning finally hangs her hand, then smashes her sleeves and says, "Let's go."

The smoldering knife only felt that the knife hanging over his neck had been removed - Chu nightning did not notice. The sky has eyes, so that he can steal under the eyes of Chu nightning.

When the two disciples left, Chu Jingning looked at him and said, "So late, how are you here?"

Ink ignited: "passing by." His tone was very good, and there was no ghost because of his heart, and he suddenly became more comfortable with Chu. It may be that he is so cold and rebellious, so that Chu, who should have been skeptical, would rather lick his lips and talk for a moment.

He didn't want to stay with Chu nightning for a while, his eyes moved away and he went forward. But when he was going to be wrong with him, Chu night Ning suddenly said a word, let him tighten in an instant.

"The library is forbidden. Some people have recently sneaked in."

"..." The ink burned without looking back, but there was a fine twist in the pupil.

"You should know that there are some forbidden weapons that are held by the top ten sects."

The ink burned and he said, "I know."

"One of the most important remnants of the volume has obvious signs of being turned over."

The sneer sneered: "What does that have to do with me?"

He is hard-pressed. He knows that as long as the day is asked to come out and he is interrogating him, then his sinful acts and sprouting demons will be exposed to the eyes of Chu.

His big dreams, his ambitions, are all over.

Chu night Ning silent for a moment: "Ink burning, when are you going to pick up?"

There is resentment between the voices.

"..." The ink does not answer, but it can almost predict what will happen next.

I expected that the flash of the sky would ask Jinguang.

I expected Chu’s face to be a gentleman’s face and questioned why he had to do something as bad as a beast. Anyway, in the eyes of Chu’s night, it’s always the same –

"You don't know how dangerous it is at the moment?"

Incurable.

He still tried to finish the four words dry.

Then almost turned around a little. Looking at the moonlight, Chu nightning's face.

His face was pale, and under the eyebrows he suppressed the faintness of restlessness. A pair of holes looked at him with a scorpion, but he did not see anything, and he could not see anything.

"If the ban is really practiced, it will kill. You don't sleep at night, go to this remote place, do you want to give your life in vain?"

"..."

The sound of Chu’s lingering voice is low, almost biting the roots: “There are so many people who died in the Battle of the Sky. Haven’t you taught me how to succumb? If you know that the wreckage has been stolen, how can you sit back and relax?”

The ink burned silently, and the dark brown scorpion stared at each other.

His forehead was full of sweat, and at this time he slowly calmed down and the wind was cold.

His body was relaxed in a section, and there was no such thing as a strange taste in his heart. At the end, the ink burned almost a smile: "Master..."

The eyes of Chu’s phoenix flickered slightly.

After the death of the teacher, the ink burned never smiled at him, and he rarely called him.

The ink burned and smiled and asked: "Are you caring about me?"

"..."

The smile is brighter.

Bright to like a bayonet, white knife into, red knife out, slammed into the chest, blood beads on the blade. He slowly opened a bite of white teeth, like a poisonous cheek of the scorpion.

"The Battle of the Sky..." He smiled. "The Master can mention the Battle of the Sky. It’s really good. It’s not important that I learned what it was. The key is that Master respects people who are distressed. Yeah."

Seeing the light in the eyes of Chu Xiaoning trembled, it was struggling, but it could not escape, and there was no way to retreat.

The smile on the face is more exaggerated, cozy, cruel.

He invaded him and bit him. He chewed the throat of Chu’s late night. He suddenly felt so happy and burst into laughter: "Ha ha ha, good, great, really a good deal, a book The unnamed disciple changed the conscience of Chu Zongshi, and Chu Zongshi always remembered the life and death of the people around him. Master, I finally felt that today, the teacher died."

Rao is the person who calms down the coldness of Chu, and he is also shuddering in his ridiculous laughter.

"Ink burning..."

"The teacher is dying, the value of death, the righteousness of death, and the death!"

"Ink, you..."

Don't laugh.

Don't say it again.

However, he said that he couldn’t speak. He didn’t say that he couldn’t say anything. He couldn’t make a sigh, he couldn’t make a request, and he couldn’t do it. He’s blaming the apprentice who is close to the madness, saying, “You’re wrong, I don’t want to save him. It is my heart that I have no intention of. I also suffered the same injuries as him. After spending an extra inch of spiritual power, I will become a bone in the middle of the body.

He said no.

Perhaps I feel that such confession is too weak.

Or maybe it feels that, probably in the burning heart, even if this master is dead, it is not enough to mention it, but it is better than waiting for his gentlest teacher.

Therefore, Chu Yuening eventually tried to suppress the trembling in his voice, and he squeezed it down in a word. He said, "In the light rain, when are you going crazy?"

"..."

"Give me back."

The angry flame cooks grief, and the throat is bitter and salty.

"Shi Ming's death is not a madman in exchange for you."

"The teacher respects this difference." The ink burned and smiled. "Why is the death of the teacher, how can it be me?"

He is like a snake, like a bee like an ant, biting the heart.

"He is dead, and he is changed back. It is clearly a teacher who respects you."

The bee stings into the flesh.

Looking at Chu's face, his face was white, and he felt a painful pleasure. He didn't want to irritate him in general, sarcasm him, he broke his liver and intestines, and he was not as good as death.

great.

They went to * together.

"I want to go back too." The ink burned calmly and smiled. The pear vortex was deep and brewed with alcohol. "I don't want to wander around in the middle of the night. But my house is across from his house."

The ink burned did not say who he was, he used a "he".

Among them, relatives, so that the late night is more torment.

"The lights in his house will never shine again."

Chu nightning closed his eyes.

The ink burned and laughed for a long time, and the expression gradually calmed down: "I want to discuss a bowl of hand-to-handed food, and I can't find it again."

For a moment, Chu nightning eyes trembled, lips slightly moving, seems to want to say something.

However, Mo-burn did not give him the opportunity to export, nor did he give him the courage to export. The ink burned and ridiculed: "Master, copy this kind of thing, the best in the middle, the red pepper and pepper, all indispensable It’s all you hate. When you want to cook another bowl for me, I’m attracted to you. But what you do, I don’t have to know, there is only one word to describe.”

Chu nightning is still not blinking, his eyebrows are slight.

It seems that you can escape the sword of the tongue.

"There is not much reading. Fortunately, I just heard Xue Meng say it a few days ago. I feel that it is suitable for the master's copying hand."

What is it?

What is your heart?

Vain?

Chu Yuening looked for confusion in his consciousness, like busy finding a fit armor, finding the most ugly words and picking them up first, so as not to be too insulted.

Not worth a word?

There was no opening in the ink, and the word was immersed in his lips and teeth.

Yes, nothing is worth it.

Chu night Ning Xinxin could not find a more chilling word than this.

He calmed down.

Until he heard the smoldering heart and said: "East effect."

He almost opened his eyes with some stunned eyes.

He didn't even think that the other person would be vicious, and his hands were shaking under the sleeves.

Noodles, seasonings, glutinous stuffing... Facing the "Ba Shi Food", I seriously looked at it with a word, the face was covered with flour, and the hand-wrapped hand was twisted from the seven to the round.

He has been learning all the time and has been trying hard to figure it out.

Just changed the four words.

East effect.

At night, the beach was flooded with silver, and the ink burned at him. Chu stayed in the night for a while, suddenly disappeared and turned away.

I don't know why, the burning of the ink always felt that the day he left was a little faster, and he was no longer as calm as he used to be - like defeating, like fleeing.

He didn't know why there was a faint uncertainty in his heart. He frowned and looked at the back of Chu's backing. When the back was about to disappear, he finally screamed: "Wait!"

Chapter 203

But Chu Xiaoning did not stop and did not look back.

He can't get back.

He gritted his teeth, but his tears still collapsed.

It’s really aggrieved.

But what can be done even if it is wronged?

excuse?

Angry?

It’s already this step, how can he still have a face to tell the ink to burn the truth. Do you want him to explain it when he burns and blames him for ridiculing him? Still want to make a "鸠 鹊 鹊 nest" after the "East Shi effect"?

he left.

That night, the bridge, the spring of Huangquan, the dialogue between the master and the teacher, I wonder if it is following the rolling rivers, the mountains and rivers, the rivers, and the intrusion into the Yincao.

And the gentle, like a young boy, if he had knowledge of the spring, and heard such a dialogue, I wonder if it would be sad for the embarrassment of the teacher.

Mocha stood alone on the beach for a while, he thought, this may be due to fate.

—— Chu Yuening suspected others, but he did not doubt him.

It was also a coincidence that the day was so late. When Chu’s day of the night was inspected in Houshan, he was called out for use because he met a little devil. Later, he did not take it back, so he hung it over his waist.

The golden day asked to shed light in the white robes of Chu, and this can set out his truth, killing the later vine whip of the emperor, who has been shining.

However, Chu Xiaoning did not take it down and did not examine him.

The ink burned away from the sky and asked, a man slowly left, went to the depths of the bamboo forest where the rustling, and went to the strongest place in the night, and finally was completely swallowed by the darkness.

Since then, he has been premeditated to secretly refine the pieces, two, four, ten.

more and more.

He planted them one by one into the disciples of the dead and the dead, and made them their own eyes, ears, and arrows.

After the initial joy, the smoldering began to become irritable and gloomy. He became more and more irritated, more and more violent, and more and more contented.

too slow.

He is not enough.

He was afraid that Chu would rather notice something moving, so he didn't dare to spend all his strength to make Jane Chess like the first time. He only does one at a time, leaving half of his energy, and he is no longer arrogant. Instead, he finally puts his fingers away and returns to the seat of Chu Yuning, following the practice of Chu.

He calculated that he thought that he would help him improve his cultivation as soon as possible, and lay the next step for him to step out the first step of the human bones. Why not?

On this day, he practiced too hard, exhausted, and accidentally fell out of the slender treetops and fell straight.

Only in a moment, Chu nightning white clothes passed, he hugged the ink, but for a moment he could not shoot to summon the enchantment, the two fell together under the tree. Chu night Ning was burned by the ink, and it was sore and painful. The ink burned and opened his eyes. He saw that the hand of Chu’s lateness was rubbed, a * mouth and fleshy valgus.

The ink burned and stared at the mouth. The heart was actually cruel and excited. At that time, his heart was beginning to be distorted. He did not feel too much gratitude and embarrassment. He only thought that this blood was really good, but it was better.

But he knows that it is not the time, he can't reveal the sullen face under the hood at this moment, so he helped Chu nightning to wipe the wound and help Chu nightning.

No one of them talked, and everything was white, and the white gauze was wrapped around many roads.

At the end, the ink burned meaningfully: "Master, thank you."

This sudden and unexpected thankfulness made Chu latening feel very surprised. He raised his eyes and looked at the burning face. The sun shone and shone in the face of the ink. The brown light was very light.

At that time, the smoldering of the ink was actually a bit curious. What kind of opinion did Chu lateing thank for his own voice?

Finally, the prodigal son turned back?

Finally started to ease?

But Chu Xiaoning said nothing, just dropped the eyelashes and put down the cuffs.

The wind is up, the sun is just right.

In the past life, he never understood his master, just as his master also misread him.

Later, the burning power of the ink is getting stronger and stronger. He has a surprising talent. The pieces that can be made by half of the spiritual power are changed from one to two, and later become four.

But not enough.

What he wants is a million soldiers, who can take the shackles of death and death and put the power of Chu nighting under his feet.

The ink burnt count is not good, this person who is about to become the emperor of the immortal, holding the abacus, is beating the beads at the table.

When Xue Meng came to see him, he happened to bump into this scene and curiously went over and asked: "Hey, what are you doing?"

"Accounting."

"What account?"

The ink burned for a moment, his eyes were dark, and he smiled and said: "You guess."

"Can't guess." Xue Meng walked over and took the book in front of him and looked at it. He looked at him and said, "One... three hundred and sixty-five days... three hundred and sixty-five... four... three hundred Sixty-five days... What's the mess?” The ink burned and said: “I want to buy sugar.”

"sugar?"

"The best candy in a month, you have to pay a penny. If you buy a copper plate every day, you can buy 365 sugars in 365 days. If you can lay down four copper plates every day, That is..." He lowered his head, rubbed his fingers, couldn't figure it out, and shook his head again. He slammed an abacus. "It's a thousand..."

Xue Meng’s mental arithmetic is faster than him, and Lili said: “One thousand four hundred and sixty sugar.”

The ink burned and looked up for a moment, and suddenly said: "You can count really fast."

Xue Meng was rarely praised by him, stunned, and then he laughed and said: "That is not, after all, since childhood, Auntie called medicine."

The ink burned down and smiled. "It’s not clear whether it’s left or right. It’s better to do it, help me to calculate it?”

After the death of the teacher, the ink has not been so calm and long since, and Xue Meng looked at him against the sun, and there was some subtle pity in his heart.

So he nodded, opened the chair and sat down next to the ink.

"Come on, let's talk."

The ink burning temperature channel: "How many sugar can you get in a year?"

"Three thousand six hundred and fifty, this is not too expensive. It is too simple."

The ink burned and sighed and said, "Add some more, one day fifteen..." I thought about it and felt that the chess piece was over the limit. I asked, "Twelve in a day. How much?"

"Four thousand...four thousand three hundred and eighty."

"I want five thousand, have to wait a few more days?"

"I have to wait again..." Xue Meng scratched his head and thought it was a little hard, so he asked, "What do you want to do with this polysaccharide? You can't eat it."

The ink burned down the eyelids and covered the gloomy eyes of the eyes. He said: "The next year, the death and death will be set up for 30 years. I want to give everyone a sugar to eat, and always save it from today."

Xue Meng stunned: "You have such a mind..."

"Yeah." Ink smiled. "What's the surprise? You also have a share."

"I don't have to." Xue Meng waved his hand. "I don't want you to eat this sugar. Come, let me help you, and see how long it will take before you can buy more than 5,000 candy."

He said, he took the abacus and, under the backdrop of the flowers and trees at the window, seriously burned the ink. The ink burned and looked at it, and the bottom of the eyes was lustrous. After a long while, he chuckled and said, "Thank you."

Xue Meng snorted, and he was very focused, and he did not care too much about him.

In his eyes, there are only black beads that are smashed, two pieces, like black pieces, one by one, a little bit more.

At that time, Xue Meng probably couldn’t think of it. It’s not sugar at all, but a life force that overthrew the life of the dead.

He wouldn't know that it was probably because he was helping at the window, faintly touching the only remaining good thoughts in the heart.

Therefore, the five thousand sunspots, the ink burning in the end is to take into account the old feelings, and ultimately did not give him a glimpse.

"It takes so long?" Finally, looking at the number that Xue Meng wrote, the ink shook his head and shook his head. "It's been too long."

Xue Mengdao: "Do you want me to borrow money?"

The ink burned and smiled: "No need."

After Xue Meng left, he thought about it again and again, and turned some reels in seven seven eight eight eight, and gradually got a plan in his heart - and this plan became the prototype of the "community of the heart" that was later created by Teng Xianjun.

This evening, the ink burned ten pieces, and the pieces were incomplete. They didn't use all their strength, they couldn't control the living, and they couldn't even control the more powerful bodies.

He took the ten pieces and went down to the town of impermanence, taking a little song and coming to a place on the outskirts of the town:

Crane back to the slope.

People died by the crane and returned to nine days. This is a beautiful and simple illusion of a mortal. It is said that this hillside is a cemetery. The people who died in the town of Wuchang were dragged to the mountain to be buried. This is the hometown of the town. There was no delay in the burning of the ink. He walked between the rows of tombs, and his eyes swept over the words on the stone. Soon, he stopped at a brightly lit, with a fresh grave in front of the tombstone. Raise your hand, tighten the five fingers, smash the ground, and reveal a simple coffin in the sand.

Because of a certain experience when he was a child, Mo-burn was not afraid of dead bodies, and he had no fear of the dead bodies. He jumped up the raised mounds, called a strange knife, and smashed the nails, and then thinned the feet. The cover is opened.

The moon shined on the face of the body. The ink burned the head, and the pork was fined, looking at the body lying inside.

It is an old thing, newly buried, wrapped in shroud, dry face, depressed cheeks, because the tomb environment is not good, there is no money for anti-corrosion, so there is a strong smell of sputum, some flesh has begun to rotten I gave birth to a mole.

The ink burned frowning, endured stench, and put on metal gloves, grabbed the old man's neck and lifted him out of the coffin. The old man's head fell steadily, his eyes burned cold, and his hands flashed, and the precious sunspot had already been punched into his chest.

"It’s smashing." The ink burned like a relative touching the face of the dead. Suddenly, he took a slap in the back of his body and smiled. "What are you doing?" Standing straight, my baby is a grandson. ”

Although the incomplete blacks can't control the strong body, it is more than enough to control an old man with a thin leg and a hemp.

The body squeaked, and a pair of tightly closed scorpions suddenly opened, revealing gray eyes.

The ink burned said: "Report it."

"The name is not up to me."

"Where are you?"

"The land is not for me."

"What day is it?"

"I don't want to be old."

The ink burns and narrows the eyes, and counts the remaining nine fragments in his hand. Sure enough... If you only control this level of corpse, you don't need to spend so much spiritual power to make such a pure sunspot.

He grinned, and the pear vortex was deep, and he opened a very handsome smile. He slowly asked the last question:

“What are you asking for?”

The old man hoarsely said: "What you ask for, for the chess piece, the broken bones, do not hesitate."

The ink burned and laughed. He was very satisfied with the result. He used the remaining pieces to make another nine bodies. He picked all the fresh, just buried bodies. At the very least, there was a complete flesh hanging. Not being eaten away. These corpses, old and weak, were ruined, and the wind fell down. There was no power at all, but the ink burned them, but the eyes flashed with madness and excitement. He took out ten small boxes from the Qiankun sac and opened one of them. He saw two red-blooded worms curling up inside, and the male and female biting their tails.

"Well, cool is cool enough, bothering you to be suitable, and it should be used for me." The ink burned lazily, then fiddled with fingers and pulled the two bugs in the cross. The male was taken out and said to the old man who was made into a chess piece, "Man, excuse me, open your mouth."

The old man opened his mouth smoothly, revealing the rotten tongue inside. The ink burned the male into his mouth and said, "Come on."

No resistance, no hesitation.

The body slammed the soul-eating worm into the stomach.

The ink burned in the same way, and all the males in the box were fed into the mouths of these bodies, and then they said, "Go, lay back, rest."

On the second day, the ink burned another ten sunspots, which were also damaging and did not consume too much spiritual power. After the refining, he glued all the remaining female larvae to the chess, and then quietly entered some low-level disciples. Those disciples only felt that there was some itch behind them, but there was no special feeling. The ink was not worried. He was waiting -

When the female larvae lay their eggs, in the hearts of these disciples, the larvae that echo the males are left behind.

In this way, two unrelated pieces passed through the adult and larvae, becoming a one-to-one counterpart.

This is like flying a kite. The weak bodies are the kite line, one is holding the ink, and the other is holding the more powerful Jane. The smoldering only needs to give the order to the corpse that hides the adult worm, and wraps the other corpse corresponding to the young child, and will make exactly the same move.

It is a common heart.

This trick is a smoldering of himself. Before him, all the masters who could get in touch with the chess game were the great masters. Those people did not lack the spiritual power, and they did not feel so mad that they wanted to make thousands, tens or even dozens. There are thousands of treasure pieces, so they don't need to think about this kind of opportunistic approach.

At that time, I was fascinated by the smoldering of the sorcerer, and I did not realize that he had done a terrible thing that no one had ever done in tens of thousands of years.

Make a sorcerer that can destroy the earth and destroy the land, and everyone can get started.

Everyone can do it.

"brother!"

Suddenly there was a bang in the ear.

The ink burned and awake, and a * light flashed in front of him.

The phoenix evil spirit buried in the heart of Huangshan Mountain has turned out more vines than before, and it is swiftly killed. The Phoenix is the beast of good flying, the speed is extremely fast, the ink burns away, and the shoulders are slammed open. The mouth is suddenly * and arrogant. Xue Meng was shocked: "How are you?!"

"Don't come over!" The ink gasped and gasped, his eyes cold, staring at the tentacles on the ground, ready to pounce and then carry out the second wave of * vines, and slammed Xue Meng, "Quick, go to Master Talk to him, stop! Let everyone stop!"

The blood drips and sighs, he is holding the heart in his hand, and the piece.

The mind is spinning fast, and Wan Nian is in the heart.

This is a mistake of the concentric, even better than his past life. But how to improve, the principle is here, only the mother of this side can be maintained, and the other side of the body can exert its power.

The ink burns the hand and holds the chess, and the whole person is still trembling finely, not because of the pain in the shoulder, but because of the chill and fear that spread from the soles of the feet.

It is no doubt that someone is born again.

Then, the person who is born again, do you know that he is also a ghost of heavy life? If you know, then...

Suddenly cold in the back, the ink burned suddenly desperate.

In front of me, it seems that the pale face of Stepanjun is emerging. The nine-necked crown is covered with sullen eyes and sneer.

He is tall, and he is sitting on a dragon chair, he is cold and joking -

"Mo Zongshi, you flee, where can you escape?"

The ghosts and shadows come up, the tides are general, they are the people he killed in his previous life, the debts he had owed in his previous life.

He saw the * teacher, and saw the bloodless Chu nightning, and saw the hanged woman dragging the three-footed white scorpion to see the man who had broken his belly and succumbed to the ground.

Come and ask for his life.

"You can't hide in the morning and evening."

"Someone already knows what kind of souls are in your shell. You can't live forever."

The ink burns and closes the eyes.

If the person behind the scenes really knows that he is also born again, if that person shakes his past, then... what should he do?

He didn't dare to think about it anymore.

Chapter 204

On the other side, Xue Meng has already ran to the fierce area of the melee, and shouted: "Stop! Stop! Don't fight! Useless!"

In fact, before he came, these people felt that something was wrong.

More than a thousand elites battled tens of thousands of corpses with no rules. The scene seemed to be magnificent and heroic, but everyone was more and more confused, because it was not like the appearance of a fierce battle.

All the people killed all the way here, except that two people were slightly injured, and the other monks were not hurt in the autumn. So Xue Meng shouted, everyone stopped and turned to look at him.

"I……"

For the first time, so many people watched at the same time, and many of them were big men and elders with heads and faces. Xue Meng actually stunned for a while.

Chu nightning asked: "What happened?"

Hearing the voice of the Master, Xue Meng was only slightly determined. He pointed to the place where the ink burned in the fierce battle with the vines and the vines. He said: "It seems that you know what is going on here. You should have nothing to fight with these zombies. effect."

Everyone looks at each other, and several of them are not vegetarian. When they are willing to listen to the guidance of a junior, their faces become very ugly. Jiang Yan’s face was the deepest, saying: “The ink burns a young boy in his early twenties, and he can know something.”

If other people are talking, Xue Meng may be more polite, but this person is Jiang Yan, Xue Meng will come to see him when he comes to the air, and he will be angry when he is 20: "When you are 20 years old, you still need to drink milk, not to mean everyone else. It’s the same as you! You can’t forget it!”

This is still true, the public is embarrassed to Jiang Yan, the disciples of the lonely moon night can not stand, and they are angry and reprimanded.

"What are you talking about?"

"Xue Meng, put your mouth clean!"

Xue Meng was uncomfortable when he was staring in silence. When he encountered this situation, he was not afraid of it. He and the smoldering fight for so many years, the most accustomed is to provoke and be provocative, immediately a handsome eyebrows, said: "Why, I said something wrong? It is your Jin Jiangmen big thing before the matter, what? It’s time, let’s take the age to talk about qualifications!”

Jiang Yan is also a temper tantrum, the respect of the door, a fairy, and actually narrowed his eyes, in front of everyone, and a younger generation of swords.

"The age and qualifications are linked. When you get to this age, you should understand a truth - talk to your elders, and the number of gifts is first."

Xue Meng angered: "Can you be an elder in the heart of Jiang Jiangmen?"

"Well, Menger." Xue Zhengyi frowned. "Don't say it again. Where is the burning child? Take us past."

Although Xue Zhengyi stopped Xue Meng in time, Jiang Yan had no way to care about it, but he still left the sentence: "Xue Zhengyi, you are really a good teacher."

Xue Zhengxuan’s face was blue and green. It seemed to be what he wanted to say, but it was about obstructing the face of the first master of the world. After all, he did not say anything, and went straight to the mountainside.

When I reached the mountainside, I saw a black smear in the black, flying around. He had half of his sleeves and blood. He held the piece tightly on his hand. The vines behind him had been burned. There was no new cockroach. come out.

When he saw that he was injured, Chu Xiaoning and Xue Zhengyi’s face changed. Xue Zhengyi was busy: “Fire, how are you? Healing... Healing, come to the individual! Teacher! Come and help. !"

The teacher also seemed to be shocked. He looked at the blood-stained arm and his face was pale. He was in the same place for a while and did not move.

It was the cold scale of the lonely moon, the first step, only the sleeves scorned, the burning of the pain felt the pain in the wounds to ease, he nodded to Huabi Nan, said: "Thank you for the Holy Hand."

“Polite.” Hua Binan’s voice was cold and faint. “I don’t know what the Mo Zong teacher found, what do you want to say to everyone?”

The mood of the ink burning at this time has actually fallen to the extreme. He is very clear that if he shakes out the "community of the heart" at this moment, he will inevitably be suspected and guessed by some people.

However, he did not care so much. He knew that if the chess game appeared on the rivers and lakes in large numbers, what kind of * hurricane would be set up. It was himself, and he would not want to see it.

"look at this."

He spread his palm and showed the blacks in his hand to everyone.

Jiang Yan smiled and said: "Zhenzhen chess? I didn't know it long ago. Is this the discovery of Mo Zongshi? If it wasn't for Jane Chess, how could these bodies be arbitrary?"

The ink burned his lips and said: "It is not the chess, it is the soul-hitting insect on the chess piece."

He showed everyone: "It's here."

Jiang Yan held his hand and said nothing, only looking at him coldly: "..."

Xue Zhengxuan got together recently and went to see the bug, but after looking at it for a long time, he couldn’t figure out what to do. He asked, "What happened to this bug? Is there anything wrong with it?"

"Every piece has it." Ink said, "This is a simple game, not as simple as you can see."

A pair of eyes were staring at him, and he swept that pair of eyes.

He certainly knows what he is doing.

Tell everyone what they know, in order to stop a catastrophe.

But what is the price, he is also very clear -

This is actually the place where the black hand is behind the scenes. If the person is not sure if the smoldering is a reborn, the heart of the mind is undoubtedly the best bait.

Unless the ink burns, the heart will not open, and the disaster will come. As long as he pointed his finger, it was undoubtedly exposed to the message of the person behind the scenes.

Stepping on the emperor will be born again.

But there is no choice but to burn, but I can only think about it: "I don't know if you have seen the opera."

Someone replied: "... of course I have seen it. But what do you say about this?"

"I have also seen it, but when I was young, I was short and I couldn’t squeeze into the front row. I could only stand behind the counter and listen to one or two from behind the scenes." Ink burns, "So I can watch the game." The people are not the same. What you see is the story of the performance on the stage. Several cloths appear on the stage, killing and killing, talking and singing."

Jiang Yan is impatient: "What do you want to say? Can you say something concise?"

"No." Ink burning, "Not everyone understands the speed as fast as Jiang's head. I want everyone to understand."

"..."

Seeing Jiang Yan’s sullen face no longer snoring, the ink burned and said: “Will the cloth on the stage move?”

Xue Zheng said: "Of course not."

"Then how did they move? Do you want a few people to kneel under the table, holding wooden ropes and manipulating them?"

"Yes."

"Good." Inkburn said, "I have an idea... I don't know if Xu Shuanglin thinks this way, but I think it should be inseparable. The 'Phoenix Mountain' where we are now is like the bottom of the stage. These soft zombies are like the people who control the puppets under the stage - these people naturally don't need too much energy, as long as they move with the bun, it is enough."

Jiang Yandao: "...go down."

"If this is the case, Huangshan is actually just a backstage. The real drama is not going to be here, but it will be on the stage." Mo Yan said, "Xu Shuanglin is like the leader of this troupe, he issued Who will give an order?"

Xue Zhengyi said: "Of course, the person who is behind the curtain and carrying the rope."

Ink burning road: "Yes. This is the truth. On the Huangshan Mountain, the person carrying the line, Xu Shuanglin told them the instructions, and they led the puppets in their hands to stand up and act."

After listening to Jiang Yan, he narrowed his eyes: "What you mean is that in addition to Phoenix Mountain, there is a place with a mountain of corpses, the place is called the 'stage,' and the bodies are so-called 'Puppet'?"

"Ginger palm is very savvy."

"You don't have to flatter me." Jiang Yan said, "I want to know that what you said in this passage seems to be a cluster of flowers, the head is the road, but in fact it is whimsical, and the sky is empty. The ink master, the empty mouth has nothing to do, what is your basis for these remarks? ”

"...I don't have much basis." Ink ignited, "The reason why I can think of this is because I accidentally found this piece with a soul-sucking insect in the body."

The dark piece in his hand was still * and dirty, and the soul-sucking insects were not so close, and they were still dead, and they were softly squatting.

The ink burned for a while, and raised his eyes. It wasn’t Jiang Yan, but the cold-scale sacred Hua Biannan behind Jiang Yan: “The holy hand should be the clearest, and what kind of adaptability the soul-snake has.”

"The insects have a lot of adaptability. Which one is the ink master?"

Ink burning: "Imitation."

Hua Bi Nan said: "This is naturally clear. The soul worm, the larva is very good imitation, connected with the male mind, will imitate the male every move until adulthood."

Ink burning: "Well, then what if I cast the larvae corresponding to this piece into another person's body?"

"..." Hua Binan's look changed slightly, saying, "What is the body here, the body there will do as well."

"How can I solve it?"

"Unable to solve, except the insects die."

The ink ignited and nodded, saying: "You are all scattered, be careful, look."

His voice fell, and the bottom of the cockroaches suddenly chilled, and he violently slammed his hand on the chess piece. At this time, the earth suddenly trembled. Before that, the fine mantles were suddenly pulled up, and once again they rushed toward the ink-burning. Everyone was shocked, but the ink burned quickly and succumbed to their own killings, and avoided a round. The attack of vines. He sighed and stood up with one hand and stood in the same place. He said, "I have seen it. Phoenix Mountain is deliberately protecting these soul-eating worms and not letting them be easily killed. If anyone still wants to say this worm It’s just a coincidence that it’s just on the chess board... or just a decoration, then I have nothing to say.”

A few silences, almost everyone is thinking, are digesting this speculation of ink burning.

Bold to almost outrageous speculation.

But I don't know why, I can't find any loopholes at the moment.

The idea of ink burning is crazy, but he said that his eyes are hard.

It seems that for Xu Shuanglin's thinking and thinking, every move, he has a ten-tenth grasp of the general, he is trying to convince them.

But this kind of conviction is terrible. In the crowd, even the night of Ning is slightly uneasy. He frowned and looked at the pale face of the ink. He suddenly felt a kind of heartfelt feeling. He felt that something was showing a little bit of clue and a little bit of fangs.

To tear it open.

Probably only Xue Zhengying, who thinks and thinks about it is relatively simple. He doesn't care too much about how the ink burns in such a short period of time. He can think of such a strange "manipulation method". He just pondered it. After a while, suddenly shot his head: "So, Xu Sulin is not here at all?!"

Ink burning: "I don't think so."

The elders care about the point and the people are not the same. He frowned. "Along the way, there are no tens of thousands of zombies killed. How many bodies did he come from? If there is any place where suddenly many people die, no The reason will not alarm the top ten sects."

The ink sighed and said: "Just died. Have you forgotten?"

"Where did you die?"

When the ink burned and everyone saw it, he said two words in a concise manner.

"Linyi."

"impossible!"

Someone immediately refutes him.

"Linyi was in a sea of fire at the time, and the fire was raging, and it was all burnt to gray. How could there be a dead body?"

"Because there is a space crack." Ink burns, "In addition to Xu Shuanglin, he also has a companion who will have space cracks."

No one has refuted this time. Not because of believing, but because it is too ridiculous, it is ridiculous.

For a long while, Jiang Yancai said: "That was the first big ban that had long since lost..."

"The first major ban is a crack in time and space." The ink burned, "It is not space."

"There are thousands of people here, not Xu Shuanglin alone." Jiang Yan's face is very cold. "How much capacity can you have to send thousands of people to Phoenix before they are swallowed by the sea of fire?"

"Ginger's head is worse than thinking about it." Ink burning, "I think that these people were not sent when they were alive, but after being burned to death, they did not turn into ashes. This kind of transmission, pass It is much easier for the dead to pass on to the living."

Jiang Yan did not like to be led by the younger generation, some awkward, he narrowed his eyes, but did not speak, a pale and slender hand caught him. The cold scale sage, Hua Bi Nan, smiled slightly and looked at the ink: "Mo Zongshi, you said so calmly, just like seeing it with your own eyes, what credentials?"

I didn't think that the drug lord would stand up and talk, and then he said, "The meat of these zombies is burnt or rotten. No one will be clearer than Hua Zong." Hua Binan glanced at the distance. The zombie, who had fallen on the ground and had his legs cut off, could no longer climb, and then turned his gaze back. He said faintly: "Even if it is burnt, can it be determined that it is a hard-hitting corpse?"

The black eyes of the ink burned and stared at him without hesitation. He said, "Let's make a guess. If the Huazong teacher feels ridiculous, then he can say a different way, let Xu Shuanglin unconsciously, under the eyes of the sects. , transported thousands of bodies to Huangshan."

Hua Binan smiled and said: "I don't know how to sing, this can't be guessed."

"..."

No one has spoken for a while.

The words of the cold scale holy hand can be regarded as poked in the hearts of everyone.

From the use of the singularity of the soul-sucking insects, many people feel horrible in their hearts and feel that the cold hair is straight.

There is a saying that is good, what kind of person you are, what kind of things you can see in your eyes.

Many people present are not innocent characters. Naturally, the key to thinking about the problem at once is the fact that ink burning can be such a terrible but thorough guess in such a short period of time.

He will naturally not be the party's feathers of Xu Shuanglin. If so, he will never pick up this conjecture.

So, does this mean that the Mo Zongshi, who has always been a "clean" person, has secretly been involved in this evil spell, or how many have been studied? The veil on Hua Binan's face was scornful and smiled. "In the end, if you want to guess Xu Shuanglin's mind, I feel that it is better than the Master of Mo."

There was a moment when the ink burned and I wanted to refute it. I suddenly felt that I was so untenable. I couldn’t just say it. I was just guessing. I am not good at magic.

At this time, I heard a cold and cold voice: "Hua Zongshi, why do you have a shadow of the sand."

"Ah." Hua Binan smiled. "Chu Zongshi."

Chu night, white clothes like snow, standing under the moonlight, the expression on the face is extremely faint: "The position of the individual is different, and the thoughts and thoughts will be different. The people on the seat can only see the drama on the stage. But some people can only squat behind the stage, and they are the ordinary people who are behind the table. Hua Zongshi, do you understand what I mean?"

Hua Binan smiled and said: "Be forgotten."

"Ink burns his own insights." Chu night Ning coldly said, "He is my own disciple, I hope you are careful, don't make more speculation."

This kind of trust makes the ink burned in the throat, he murmured: "Master..."

Hua Binan looked at the night of Chu, and wanted to say something, but in the end, she did not say it. She smiled and then went back to the queue of the lonely moon night.

Jiang Yan picked up his face, but his expression was still very difficult to see.

He said coldly: "In any case, go to the top and discuss again."

Everyone went to the top of the mountain, where it was empty, and there was only a huge array of spells, and a red light group emerged.

When the ink burned, the bottom of my heart sank and the fingertips were cool.

Sure enough, it is a battle of the heart... It is the reconciliation of the chess pieces, and the combination of the soul-eaters into the chess, will be used.

The owner of the Snow Palace Palace frowned and looked at the strange totem of the array. He said, "What is this? I have never seen it. Xue Zhangmen, you have seen more, have you seen it?"

Xue Zhengyi looked over and shook his head: "No."

Ginger's brown-eyed eyes flashed in the light, and he blinked for a while, reaching out and slowly detecting the past. He was the most proficient in this method of refining medicine. He explored the time of touching a fragrant incense, suddenly withdrew his hand and turned his head and said to the ink: "Do you have other ideas?"

His reaction is equivalent to telling everyone completely, that the guess of the smoldering is not the same, it is right!

Ink burning: "...Yes."

Jiang Yandao: "Say."

"Since it is a childworm, then as I said earlier, one is on the stage and the other is on the stage. So, how many treasures did Xu Shuanglin do here, how many bodies will rise up, and he will listen to him. "The ink burned, and the most crucial point was made. "But in that place, the accumulated zombies will never be the unruly ordinary zombies. I am afraid that they are all extremely powerful people. Wills."

Xue Meng was shocked: "This is why Xu Shuanglin has killed so many ordinary people? In order to better control the monks of his men?"

"I am afraid it is."

"..."

Xue Meng looked back at the mountain, the scorpion's * sea, the blood on his face was all there, I don't know because it was too disgusting, or because I thought of another place, they would have to face the same number of monks. dead body.

Perhaps both, Xue Meng seems to have some sway.

Suddenly someone shouted: "Look here! There is a body here!"

There is no tall shelter in the top of the mountain. There is only one bush, and the person with the sharp eye finds that there is a white coat on the head.

Chapter 205

Several people walked over to explore and drag it out of the bushes. It was a dark body, burning too obvious, and I was able to struggle in the fire before I was born. Its face has been completely viscous, can not see the five senses, can only be judged by the body type, as well as the snowy clothing outside the fire, she should be a woman before her lifetime.

Chu nightning hangs his hand on it and looks at it, then says: "There is no trace of the chess piece."

Someone murmured: "It’s strange, Xu Sulin has done a whole game of the whole mountain. Is this what he missed?"

Someone immediately retorted: "Which corpse you have seen leaked will be left alone on the top of the mountain?"

The ink burned and went back and forth, and carefully looked at the female body. As a person who is the best in the past, he certainly knows some of the ban on this spell, so he has a more confident guess about the identity of this female corpse, but he needs some evidence.

The evidence was quickly found.

The ink burned a string of blackened strands from her hand, wiping off the grayish black on it, revealing some reddish Lingshi.

He handed the chain to Jiang Yan and said: "Song Qiutong."

"...how are you..." Jiang Yan asked half, took the chain and reacted. "Do you recognize this chain?"

"I gave her a new wedding gift." Mo Yan said concisely, "Song Qiutong is the descendant of Song Xing, and the sphenoidal beauty who surrendered the phoenix evil spirits is the key to unlocking this banquet."

Someone asked: "Xu Shuanglin killed Song Qiutong, took her as the key and opened the gate of Huangshan?"

The ink shook his head and stared at Song Qiutong's face for a long while. It was not pity, but the mood was subtle and complicated. Inkburn said: "No, I am afraid that when he takes her up the mountain, she is still angry."

"How to say?"

This time, the ink burned and did not speak. Jiang Yan first spoke. About to save his face, in the face of such problems that he can easily answer, Jiang

Yan did not intend to let the younger generations show off the limelight, but faintly said: "In order to order Huangshan."

The ink burned him and looked at him. The heart is so best. If anything is said to be said by himself, it will be harder to argue if he is suspected in the future. So I went to the side and gave the position to Jiang Yan and let Jiang Yan talk.

Someone asked: "Order? Song Qiutong, a weak woman, what order can I order?"

"She is weak, but her ancestors may not necessarily be pustules. Phoenix's phoenix evil spirits will only obey the bloodline that has surrendered it." Jiang Yan is not confused, saying, "Song Qiutong is this. The last descendant of the bloodline."

The man took a sigh of coolness: "Ah, is it the sphenoidal beauty seat to surrender the phoenix evil spirits?"

"Not bad."

"This is unheard of..."

Jiang Yandao: "I have never heard of it is normal. The four evil mountains are not guarded, and there is no other role. So can we open it, and whoever starts it, everyone will not care too much. Song Qiutong was displaced before and was used as an auction. I don’t know if I can hide on the Phoenix Mountain... She should have never heard of the past of her ancestors surrendering the Phoenix evil spirits."

"So...so is Xu Shuanglin bringing her?"

"It should be like this." Jiang Yan continued. "At that time, the Confucianism door slammed into fire, and everyone fled, and no one would return to the main hall to take care of the woman who had no power to bind her. The only person who can take care of her, Only Xu Shuanglin, or the same person behind Xu Shuanglin."

Xue Zhengyi was thinking next to him and nodded. "Since the people behind the scenes can tear apart the space cracks and take Xu Shuanglin to other places, it is just a matter of raising a hand to bring a Song Qiutong. We might as well make an idea - he put She brought to Huangshan, Song Qiutong's nature is a trend of inflammation, seized this life-saving straw, only the fate is from. Then this time, that person only needs to bring her to Huangshan, let her order Huangshan She won't refuse."

Someone asked: "But why doesn't he use his chess pieces to control Song Qiutong?"

"Because the Phoenix evil spirits can identify whether the ordered person is under control." Jiang said, "You must live, and you will be willing, this mountain will listen to its orders."

Everyone slowly pondered over the taste. Some people were shocked and said: "What are we doing here? Not all of them have gone to his "behind the scenes", but because of this * Huangshan cellar, there is no way to clear it. These soul-eaters... what should I do now?"

Jiang Yan frowned, and seemed to disregard the metaphor of "the front of the stage" and "behind the scenes" of the ink-burning, but still said: "Find the 'front of the stage' and directly destroy the fabrics of Xu Shuanglin."

"Mo Zong Shi."

After Jiang Yan finished speaking, he suddenly called a piece of ink, and the original burning arm was listening to him. He listened to him and said that he could not help.

"Well? What happened?"

Jiang Yan secluded: "Fang Cai Mozong's analysis of the head is the road, then, Jiang also wants to ask Mo Zongshi again, where is the station, how to find?"

Ink burning: "...try hello?"

"try what?"

The ink burned and coughed, and the palm of the hand ignited. Liu Teng suddenly smashed out. He said, "This is it, it is called a ghost."

Jiang Yan: "..."

Like ghosts and heavenly questions, there is the power of interrogation, which can examine the living, to judge the devil, and to examine the dead body of the soul. The difference lies in the trial and the corpse, which is to let them speak, and to judge the ghost, it is to communicate directly with the soul.

Song Qiutong has been dead for more than a month, and the soul has long since disappeared, but fortunately, Huangshan is full of yin and the body has not rotted. Ink whispered: "Hell, go to trial."

With a slamming sound, I saw the ghost immediately obeying the command, stretching the branches and leaves, and smashing the body of Song Qiutong three times, her body began to shine red.

The red light swayed in the bottom of the ink, and he tried to ask, the voice was low: "Take you here, but Xu Sulin?" @无限好文, in Jinjiang Literature City

Song Qiutong's black face is difficult to distinguish, and there is no movement at the moment.

"...is it not working?" someone whispered.

The ink burned and squinted again, and asked again: "Take you here, but Xu Sulin?"

Still no movement.

Jiang Yandao: "It seems that the Master of Mo is still too young, it is better to change your master."

However, at this time, Song Qiutong’s neck suddenly moved! Her movements were stiff and extremely slow, but it was undoubtedly extremely shaken.

Xue Zhengxuan was shocked: "Not Xu Sulin?"

The ink burned tightly to the devil, and the meridians on the back of his hand were slightly convex. He asked: "So, who brought you here, have you ever been clear?"

It was a little silence, Song Qiutong suddenly opened his mouth, but she did not answer, but the mouth was pulled out, but it was a thick and sticky snake, which fell on the ground and dragged away.

The disciple who had a lonely moon night immediately recognized: "There is a swallow in her stomach!"

Swallowing snakes, evil beasts, non-toxic, covering the armor with the body, can survive in the human stomach for more than 20 years.

This kind of viper is also used by many martial art cults, which are specially used to let the dark guards swallow. From then on, the dark guard can answer the truth in addition to the owner of the swallowing snake, and the rest can wait for whatever they ask, they can only Answers, or true and false, or the venomous snake will wake up from sleep, instantly shred the host's internal organs, cut off the throat, and tear the tongue.

The red light of the ghosts was extinguished. Song Qiutong shivered and shook his head. The mouth overflowed with a large group of scarlet blood clots, and the chopped organs and organs, as well as the tongue and throat...

No more telling the truth.

Everyone was amazed, and some people suggested: "If you can’t say it, let her write it?"

When the ink burns and sees the snake, it is already clear that the people behind the scenes are thoughtful and very well-achievable. But still go forward, lifted Song Qiutong's hands and looked carefully.

Xue Zhengyi asked: "How?"

The ink shook his head and shook his head: "The bones and bones have been cut off, and nothing can be written at all."

It’s getting closer, and there’s a smoggy wind, and there’s a sigh of laughter in the mountains and forests. There are zombies’ mourning in the distance, and the atmosphere of the mountains is soaring to the extreme. The owner of the Taoyuan Villa is Ma Breaking this dead silence, he said: "Then, the clue is broken?"

No one snorted.

The ink burned back the ghost, and Song Qiutong’s body had fallen softly to the ground.

Soon, the vines of Huangshan climbed over and carefully coiled up the owner's body, wrapped her in her arms and dragged it into the bushes, as if she were to keep her with this small bush.

He didn't really understand why Xu Shuanglin didn't directly kill Song Qiutong, and then she took her to the torch. She also took the trouble to pick up the meridians and feed the swallows. But when I saw this scene, I suddenly understood it -

Huangshan obeys the sphenoidal beauty seat, from birth to death. As long as her body is in Phoenix Mountain, Phoenix Evil, will not allow others to burn its owner and burn it to ashes.

I don’t know how it feels when I burned it for a while. He suddenly thought of himself in his previous life. He died, no one gave him a corpse, and he had to lie in the dig before he swallowed. In fact, that doesn't make much sense. Later, those who fought on the mountain, did not blame him for splitting the five horses.

I was afraid that my life’s death would be more bleak than that of Song Qiutong. When I came to the head, there were no vines who were willing to guard him.

Many people around are muttering, talking to each other, frowning and discussing how to deal with it next. And some people are thinking about it, such as Jiang Yan, such as Chu Yuning.

The ink burns also closes his eyes, combing all the things that happen in front of him in the heart, so * means, and he is similar to his previous life. Perhaps because of this, Mo Shen felt that it was not so difficult to guess what Xu Shuanglin thought and did.

He seems to see Xu Shuanglin in his three-year-old courtyard, barefoot, pacing back and forth, Xu Shuanglin thinking, asking himself: the spiritual power is not enough to control the corpses of monks in the group, what should be?

Then he came up with the idea -

The use of the concentric array, killing the same number of ordinary people, a monk corresponding to an ordinary corpse, like a marionette, for him to drive.

Where is the safest thing to do?

Four evil mountains.

What can I do if I can't open the Phoenix Mountain Enchantment?

With the body of Song Qiutong.

A little bit of clues are quickly connected in series, and the ink is dark and dark, and I think about it.

Where is the body of the people coming?

- Linyi robbed the fire and paid for it.

Although they are all speculations, but each one can be right, the luster in his eyes is scattered and separated, and he can even feel that he is Xu Sulin, Xu Sulin is him, standing on the top of Huangshan Mountain, his eyes are almost crazy. Watching the rushing corpses under the mountain.

It became clearer and clearer, until suddenly, Caton was at a point.

If he is Xu Shuanglin, after doing this, is it necessary to set up a "front stage" to perform a play that he has painstakingly arranged?

Where is the "before the stage" election?

Where can I find a strong and a considerable number of monks?

If you are not found, you can be sheltered...

The gradually prosperous skylight suddenly darkened.

"蛟山..." he murmured.

Jiang Yan looked at him: "What?"

The burning face changed. He looked at the East. He suddenly became a little angry: "蛟山! Heroes! - He was looking for a hero in the mountains before the stage! Linyi was robbed, and the victims were mostly untouchables, Xu Shuanglin Can get so many people's corpses, but they can't get a more powerful monk's body! - Heroes!"

Jiang Yan also reacted: "You mean, Xu Sulinlin's call for summoning is the sacred bones of the heroes in the centuries of Confucianism?"

The ink burned and he was too lazy to talk nonsense with him. He snorted and rushed out and rushed down the mountain.

Xu Shuanglin is really a madman! The hero is buried in the head of the Confucianism for generations. Even the corpse is the first generation of the immortal. It is okay to control the general monks with the unity of the heart, and control these people?

Once Xu Shuanglin's mana can't support it, these powerful bones will break away and break free. At that time, Xu Shuanglin will be countered and violently killed, and the corpse with the strongest fighting power of Confucianism in hundreds of years will run out of control.

That would be no less than a big disaster in the infernal hell.

Chapter 206

The ink burned over the rolling corpse and went straight to the foot of the mountain. Out of the enchantment, his eyes immediately fell on Nangong Temple.

At this time, the imprisonment of Nangong Temple had been solved, and Ye Yexi had one knee on one side and wrapped him with a wound. Mei Hanxue is cold-eyed, quietly sitting between Jiangdongtang and Nangongyu, sitting in front of him, his fingertips moving gently, the sound of running water.

It is necessary to know that Mei Hanxue is the master of the Kunlun Snow Palace, and it is said that this person is a ghost, his body is extremely embarrassing, and the number of roads often changes. After a while, he can’t be serious, and then it’s a confusing door. effort.

To his blessing, Jiang Dongtang’s group of people hated not being able to live in Nangong, but they still had no choice but to sit on the stone next to them and blink.

Seeing the ink burned down, the sound of the plum-containing snow slammed, and the piano was picked up, and he nodded slightly.

One style of work is extremely dignified Zhou Zheng.

"How is the mountain?"

Ink burning: "It's all fake."

"Fake?" Mei Hanxue slightly frowning, Jiangdongtang people heard it, but also surrounded them, Huang Xiaoyue still lying in the pavilion next to him, let several disciples give him a slap in the shoulder, make a breath The sly look of weakness, but the words can not help but pick up a slit in the eyes, erect ears to listen.

Ink burning road: "Xu Shuanglin is not on this mountain, I am afraid it is in Lushan. I-"

He hasn't finished yet, and the Nangong Temple has been pale and slammed into the ink: "Xu Shuanglin is on the mountain?"

"Maybe, but not fully grasped."

Nangong lingered for a while, murmured: "...Impossible, Lushan only listened to the orders of the Nangong family, Xu Shuanglin him..."

What he remembered, suddenly slogan, and then the last bit of blood on his face faded, a pair of bright eyes staring at the burning face.

He forgot for a moment, Xu Shuanglin, originally also named Nangong.

The Nangong family, a Liu Yixue, was once a young Yingjie who was praised by everyone. Everyone felt that the Confucianist Gate would once again be in the hands of the brothers, such as the sky. Who can think of the ending of this brother and the Confucianist, it will be the situation today.

Nangong stunned his eyes and stopped talking.

At this time, other people have also come down from Huangshan. Thousands of people are like swimming fish, crowded and returning to the mountains.

Chu Yuening came over, Xue Meng and Shi Yi were behind him. He looked at Nangong: "How did the hand hurt?"

"I don't get in the way, it's my own plan." Nangong said, "Thank you for the great master."

Xue Meng sighed: "Teacher is a master, what is the master, really, the face that the master respects you, you still don't, you..." @无限好文, in Jinjiang Literature City

"I didn't worship Master." Nangong's dry lips were slightly open and closed: "The students learned and never mastered the master. When they were young, the masters did not have to be on the mind."

Chu nightning: "..."

"Sorry. But I didn't remember the three worships of the year."

When Chu Ning had not spoken, he saw Jiang Yan and several other martial art heads coming over here, followed by the 7788 enthusiasts. He was not used to speaking private words in front of so many people, and he licked his lips. He did not say much more. He only handed him a small pot of medicine in his bag.

“External daily application, three days to be cured.”

He simply said this, and the others have already arrived.

Huang Xiaoyue was also helped by the trepidation from the pavilion. This cup of 羹, Jiang Dongtang is undoubtedly not to be missed.

Today, the lonely moon night is the head of the public. In front of the big event, it is reasonable to speak by Jiang Yan. However, Jiang Yan looked at Nangong Temple, and at the same time he was not sure what attitude he should be most suitable for him --

The Confucianism has been rampant for so many years, and many martial arts have accumulated enmity. These enemies have nowhere to vent, and they will eventually fall into the Nangong.

But what is wrong with Nangong? The swordsmanship of Bitan Mountain Villa was not taken by him. The price of the sky was not something he did. He didn’t even know where the sword was.... His father Nangong Liu was very guilty, and he died when he died. Everyone now says that the father’s debts are repaid, but if they are all paid by the father’s debts, how many people are there, can they be clean and clear?

What's more, this young man is still the only blood of the Nangong family, and the key to opening the gate of Lushan.

"you……"

Jiang Yan opened his mouth.

Just said one of you, I heard a sudden whispered next to someone saying: "Nangong donor, you have to go with us, the so-called ringing bell still needs to ring the bell, the ruin of the Confucianism gate, you million Don't let go, don't let go, stand by."

Jiang Yan saw that it was the master of the abbot of the Wushou Temple. He couldn’t help but sneer in his heart. The old vulture was not clean, but he also wanted to pick some beams to come.

However, this is just right, anyway, he is not good at socializing, he lazily closed his mouth, standing next to him, watching the master of the mysterious mirror holding the staff, Amitabha and Nangong 驷 大道.

Nangong驷 heard a few words and said: "Yes, I am going to Lushan with you."

Master Xuanjing did not think that he would be so pleased to help open the enchantment of the Lushan Mountain. After a while, it was only ten: "Amitabha, the donor can understand the truth, the Buddha knows, and the sin is reduced."

Nangong had a moment to seem to want to say something, but he did not say that Naobaijin screamed in his quiver and wanted to climb out, and he was stunned back.

"I went to Lushan, I don't want Confucianism to be a hero for hundreds of years, and I am a slap in the face of the tiger." Nangong said, "I am grateful to the Master for his kindness and pointing me the way."

In this way, the key to open Lushan will be there.

However, the four evil mountains, each mountain's adaptability characteristics are very different, and unlike Huangshan, if you want to go to Lushan, whether it is the Nangong family or any foreigner brought in by the Nangong family, you must do two pieces. thing--

First, fasting for ten days.

Secondly, when you go to the Longshan Mountains to which Lushan belongs, you must walk on foot. You can't ride a sword. You can't ride a horse. With one foot, you can turn over the first three mountains to show your heart.

Xue Zhengyi counted the time and said: "From here to the dragons and mountains, if you are riding a horse, it will take about ten days, just to complete the fast. I don’t think there is anything important for the princes, and they don’t have to rush back to their respective sects. Going to the valley, let's go together."

The main road of the Snow Palace: "Also, if you go together, you can negotiate the next countermeasures."

Xue Zheng said: "It’s just that we have 3,000 people here and there are some horses that are hard to find..."

At this time, a weak voice came from the crowd, and one hand was lifted up. It was a scorpion, depicting a wretched man wearing a red robes, embroidered with a black night cat totem on the edge of the robes: "My Villa There is, it should be enough."

"Ma Zhuangzhu?" Jiang Yan's eyebrows picked up.

This person is the head of the "Taolu Mountain Villa" of the nine martial art schools in the upper cult, and he is ranked third in the "Unknown" list that Xue Meng bought, but now Nangong Liu Yiming screams, On wealth, he should be able to rank second.

Compared with Jiang Yan, Ma Rong appears to be more grounded, and some businessmen look like. However, after all, the two people have different ways of collecting money. Jiang Yan is fierce, the road is wild, the treasure is much, and the black market is done.

Ma Zhuangzhu has set up large and small stations in the realm of repairing, to undertake the delivery of various parcels, the rental of Xianma, Xianzhou and Lingli carriages. Their villas are good at making all kinds of flexible boats and raising a large number of strong cattle and horses. Therefore, Ma Zhuang has an nickname, called "receiving the horse."

In the face of the cold face and sorrowful Jiang Yan, the pick-up horse looks awkward and shrinks the neck. He said: "Would you like to go to Lin Lingyu? The horse on the Jiangzhangmen House is definitely more than the next one." ""

Everyone: "..."

Jiang licked his smile with a pleated face, silent for a moment, saying: "I just feel that the Ma Zhuangzhu generously helped, and there is no other meaning. This place is close to the Taotao Mountain Villa, Ma Zhuang is willing to borrow everyone to mount, naturally It’s no better.” @无限好文, in Jinjiang Literature City

The Mazhuang owner heard a sigh of relief and smiled. "Then please take a step to go to Xinzhuang. It’s too late. It’s better to stay overnight in Zhuang, and start the next day.”

Taotao Mountain Villa stands on the bank of Xizi Lake and is built on the top of Gushan Mountain. However, this lonely mountain is a mountain. In fact, it is just a small hill. When climbing to the top of the mountain, it only takes half a hour.

"Come on!" Ma Zhuang was eagerly standing in front of the majestic red mountain gate, raising his hand and removing the guardian enchantment. "Please come in, please come in."

Huangshan and his entourage, or the heart of your head, or anxiety, is also worried, but Ma Zhuangzhu can quickly be like a lover, but he can still hold a steaming smile. Everyone looked at each other and smiled, but they didn't say anything. The head was the first, the elders followed, and the pro-pass again. Later, the disciples of Haohao Tangtang entered the enchantment gate of Taotao Villa.

Xue Meng and the ink burned and said: "What kind of ghost is this pick-up horse? I laughed and got a goose bump. He shouldn't be with Xu Shuanglin. Is this going to invite you to join us?"

"...not."

"Are you so sure?"

Mo Yan said: "The lords and leaders of the Nine Gates are here. Now everyone is a soldier. If he is an associate of Xu Shuanglin, he can't do anything, but he will expose himself."

"What is he so happy to do?"

The ink sighed and said: "He is happy to make a fortune."

"Is it a fortune? What he did is obviously a loss-making business." Xue Meng's. Like him, he has no business mind. It is said that when he was a child, Mrs. Wang gave him a silver leaf and let him go to the hawker. As a result, he gave back a small kite and three greasy copper coins. The pit was extremely miserable, but I still felt that the kite looked good. I bought a happy one and it was worth it.

Where is such a person, where can he know the mind of the pick-up horse?

So after thinking for a long time, I was still embarrassed: "Are you wrong? He just said that he would borrow our horses, not renting our horses. He did not take the penny, he-"

At this time, the low-level disciples who were responsible for the hospitality of the guest house came to meet, and the ink set aside, indicating that he would not say it again. The maid, wearing a pink sable, smiled and led them to the temporary residence tonight. .

This row of courtyards relies on the mountain edge and can accommodate six people in one hospital. At dusk, the ink burned in front of the window of his own room, overlooking the mountains and the waves of the West Lake.

After coming down from Huangshan Mountain, the ink burned has been very anxious and extremely uneasy. At this time, the door was closed, and he finally revealed this kind of depression. He rubbed the window with one hand, and the other hand subconsciously played some kind of warmth in the palm of his hand.

The scenery in Jiangnan is always beautiful, but at the moment he does not appreciate it. The setting sun is faint. If someone sees the face on his face at this moment, he will not believe that he is the sinister ink master.

This is a face belonging to the predecessor of the emperor.

Haze.

The sun broke into his light brown eyes.

In the twilight, the ink drizzle changed.

The reborn person behind Xu Shuanglin made him shudder. He felt that he had a knife on his neck. The blade was attached to his skin, piercing his flesh, and the blood had leaked out.

But the man didn't have to cut it down, and he couldn't get back. He couldn't see who was standing behind him, and he would have his life anytime, anywhere.

He was very confused in his heart. He always felt that his reborn life could not last for too long.

If the day of the final battle is the day when the truth is revealed, what should he do?

What would an aunt's aunt look at him? What does the teacher think of him? How does Xue Meng see him?

There is also Chu Ning.

Chu nightning...

If the past events are exposed, will Chu Ning hate him more? Will it be afterwards that I don’t want to marry him even if I look at it?

The ink burns in a mess, the more you think, the colder you feel, the colder you are in your bones -

"...hey."

Suddenly, the thing that I played in my hand fell on the floor.

He picked it up and squinted.

There was some dust on the gadget. It seems that this courtyard of Taoyuan Villa has not lived for a long time, and it is not diligent to take care of it. The ground is gray.

Stayed.

The burning face was violently pale.

He suddenly realized what he was playing -

Lying in his palm is a black and warm piece.

Jane Chess! !

The ink burns and changes!

In his previous life, he developed a habit in the last two years before his death. Every time the mood is extremely complicated and extremely irritating, I can't help but gather the spiritual power in my palm and condense into a little sunspot, and play it over and over.

His habit, at that time, made many of the attendants in the palace horrified, and the ink burned the palace people to discuss this matter. They all felt that he was angry, and when he was angry, he would make a chess piece. To kill, you must refine your living beings into jealousy.

"Would you be afraid to throw your * out of your hand at any time."

"Really, I would rather watch him play the skull of the dead."

"What are you afraid of? I am a close friend of my majesty. God knows how many times my legs are soft. How much spiritual power does it take to make a chess piece? Can he always play it? He must have purpose. Or vent... If I vent to me, what should I do..."

The smoldering is very speechless, but it is a bit funny.

He did not understand what these embarrassing palace people thought, and based on a certain attitude, to speculate on his heart.

In fact, he did not make any sense to make these pieces. This is just a private hobby of the Emperor, it is as simple as that. However, since he heard the opinions of the palace people, he sometimes played with his heart. He tried to fight the plaques in his hand and screamed at a certain scorpion, scaring those people to sue again and again, his legs were like sifting, he was on the face. As cold as it is, I feel amused in my heart.

That was the only fun of the last two years of his life.

He hasn't condensed Jane Chess for a long time.

It seems that subconsciously wants to be separated from the former self, and since the birth, the ink has never been cast this spell.

In the blink of an eye, seven or eight years have passed. He thought that he had to forget the set of minds and the set of mouths.

But he couldn’t escape it at all -

Sin is planted in his soul.

The ink burned and stared at the black child, and the palm of his hand could not tremble...

He suddenly looked desperate -

He suddenly did not know who he was. Is stepping Xianjun? Or is it a master of ink?

He suddenly didn't know where he was... is it at the West Lake? Or in front of Wushan Temple?

Suddenly he couldn't tell the difference between dreams and reality. He was shaking and couldn't stop shaking. The little black child was in his eyes, like a heavy nightmare, like a black smudged blood. He had a flaw in his head. The voice couldn’t help but laugh, screaming:

"Ink rain! Ink rain! You can't escape! You can't escape! You can only be a wicked person, you can only be a devil! You are a disaster star! Disaster star!!"

Throw a sound.

"Oh." Suddenly the door was ringing.

The ink burned and woke up, cold sweats. He held the piece in his hand and turned his head back: "Who?"

"It's me." The outside man replied, "Xue Meng."

Chapter 207

The ink burns open the door.

Not fully open, it was a narrow slit. He saw Xue Meng bathed in the sun, followed by a teacher in a green shirt.

Xue Meng said: "We have given you some medicines to come over... What are you doing? The door opens and let us in."

The ink burned for a moment and loosened the hand holding the door frame. The two entered the house, Xue Meng went to the window, the probe went out to look at Xi Xixia, and then retracted, said: "You have a good view of this house, I have just a few big banyan trees outside, all blocked Anything is gone."

The burning heart is not shouting: "You want to like it, I will change it with you."

"No, everything is put down, and I will say it casually." Xue Meng waved his hand and walked to the table. "Let the teacher give you medicine, the wound that was cut by the vine on your shoulder, no. Handle the suppuration."

The dark brown eyes look at Xue Meng. If Xue Meng knows the things of the past life, know what kind of soul is hidden under his cousin's shell, and he will smile at him and give him medicine. ……

Xue Meng was stared at him with some worry and asked, "What's wrong? Is there something on my face?"

The ink shook his head and sat down at the table, falling down.

The teacher stood on the side and said to him: "Take off your shirt, I will show you the wound."

The ink burned in my heart, and I didn’t think much. I raised my hand and solved my shirt and said, "I am bothering you."

Shi Yan shook his head and sighed: "You, I don't know how much attention. Follow the teacher, if you don't learn bad, there is danger in the front, and you always get hurt." It makes people feel uncomfortable."

As he said, he took out the contents of the medicine box, carefully wiped the sores, applied the medicine, and wrapped the gauze.

After doing all this, the teacher said: "Don't enter the water recently, don't have too much movement, the vine is poisonous, the wound is not very easy to heal. Also, the hand sticks out, I have a diagnosis."

The ink burned and stretched his arm to him.

Shi Shi's ten fingers are as soft as white jade, and he has been sitting in the pulse for a while, and his eyes flashed a sorrow.

The look was flashing, but it was burnt and unintentionally glimpsed: "What happened?"

The teacher returned and said, "Nothing."

“Poisoning is very serious?”

Shi Yan shook his head and hesitated for a while. He smiled a little at him: "There is nothing more, remember to cultivate more, or you will leave behind."

He said, bowing his head and packing up the medicine box, and said: "I still need some medicine to clean up, go first, let's talk." The door was covered behind him.

Xue Meng looked at where he disappeared and frowned slightly: "How do I feel that he is not in a good mood recently, strange, like something."

The mood of the ink is not very good, and said: "After the diagnosis, I found that I am coming to the limit, sorry for me?"

"Hey, the crow's mouth." Xue Meng yelled at him. "Why is there such a curse on my own? What's more, I told you seriously, the teacher is always very low these days."

This is a bit of concern, he stopped the action on his hand and asked, "Is there?"

"Yes." Xue Meng said with certainty. "I told you that he was in a daze several times before. I called him two or three times before he reacted. You said he would be..."

"What is it?"

“Like someone?”

Ink burning: "..."

Does the teacher like someone? If he changed to eight years ago, Xue Meng told him this way, he was afraid that he could turn the vinegar jar and jump up and swear. But at the moment, I only felt a little horrified. Looking back and looking for some clues, I found that my attention to the teachers in the past few years was really too little.

"Don't ask me, anyway, I don't always like it, I will be right." The ink burned, pulled on his open placket and put on his clothes. "What's more, the things of other people's feelings, what do you do so much?" ""

Xue Meng was a little embarrassed, blushing and coughing: "Where I am in charge! I just said it!"

He screamed fiercely, glaring at the guy who was dying, dressed and groaning, and suddenly felt as if there was something wrong.

After carefully reading it again, his gaze fell on the tight chest of the burning muscles and stopped.

Ink did not care, casually said: "What are you doing with me? Like me?"

"..." Xue Meng did not say anything.

The tone of ink burning is still alive and dead: "Don't watch, we are not possible."

Xue Meng was only blushing, turned his head away, and made a calm decision: "Hey, you think it's beautiful."

But he was as good as a drumstick - he saw the ink on his neck, the place where he was hanging, and a crimson spar pendant, which was extremely familiar, and he seemed to have seen exactly the same place. He couldn't remember for a moment, but the goosebumps didn't know why they suddenly got up and screamed in their heads.

Where have you seen it?

When the ink burned on the clothes, he suddenly found some medicinal stains on the table. He asked Xue Meng: "Is there a handkerchief?"

"Well?...oh, yes." Xue Meng returned to God, turned out a piece and handed it to him. "You don't always remember to bring a piece."

"I'm not used to it."

Xue Meng said with a smile: "The last time I said that the Master will send you a piece, and the bragging is not so blown."

I remembered that I had been begging for a late night, and asked him to send him a piece of jellyfish handkerchief. I don’t know if Chu was rather forgotten or lazy, and he never gave it to him. He couldn’t help but feel awkward and coughed a few times. He said: "This is not busy recently, and the Master is not free..."

"There is no idle master who will not only give you one person to do." Xue Meng sneered, "I definitely have a share. Maybe who... who is in Nangong, he has a share."

Speaking of the Nangong Temple, the burning of the original is not so good, the mood is more and more caged. "Have you seen him?"

"No, I went to see what he did." Xue Mengdao, "He and Ye Yexis, living next to the old ghost of Jiang Yan, I can't wait to leave there for a hundred thousand miles away, and I don't want to go."

The ink burned and nodded: "On the other side, Jiang Yan's temper is bad, and there are many problems, but the left and right are still a reasonable person, and they should not be embarrassed."

Xue Meng was discouraged: "He? If his dog thing can understand things, I can follow his surname, not Xue Meng, called Jiang Meng."

Ink burning: "..."

Xue Meng always has such ability, arrogant and arrogant, and the upper and lower mouths touch, hurting people without a little bit vague. But perhaps because of his noisy, the burning of the air felt a lot of warmth in the room.

The horrible nightmare of the past life finally faded a little.

Xue Mengdao: "Speaking, Master will not really want to accept Nangong as an apprentice?"

"Before the Master is definitely not willing." Mo Yan said, "But now, you and I can't stop him."

Xue Mengyi: "Why?"

Ink sighed: "I asked you, before Li was indifferent to Nangong, obviously an elder, but never dared to say anything to Nangong, why?"

"Because he is very powerful, the head of the first martial art in the realm of cultivation, this is still used."

"Well, I will ask you again, for those who are now Huang Xiaoyue, and those who simply can't even name their names, dare to bully him, why?"

"...because of enmity?"

There was no words in the ink, and I thought that only Xue Meng could tell this kind of words.

He suddenly became very beautiful. He thought that although Xue Meng had more than 20, but sometimes he still thought of being like a child - "like a child" is a very subtle description, because the most obvious feature of the child is pure. Simple, straightforward, but it also means that a person does not grow up, is immature, and sloppy.

But for the ink burning, he felt that he had lived for twenty years, and the eyes of this red dust are still extremely clean. This is a miracle.

He looked at the miracle in front of him and then smiled and said:

"Where there is so much enmity."

"The Confucianist door shook out so many things in the world..."

"That is Xu Shuanglin's shaking, how much relationship can he have with Nangong?" In the air, "not to mention the secrets of the original shaking, is Nangong 不是 not one of the most injured people? He learned that his mother is He was ruined by his father. He was not the initiator, but a victim, a victim."

Xue Meng opened his mouth and wanted to say something. There was no snoring in the ink, waiting for him to say that Xue Meng was so open-mouthed, and he was closed for a long time.

He does not know how to refute.

For a long while, he reluctantly asked: "What do you think is because of this?"

"First, look at the excitement." The ink ignited, "The thing of the Confucianism, the big guy looked at the stimulus is too late. Bullying a difficult son is far more fun than bullying a small flower."

This is the same as the previous Xuemeng. After the phoenix's chicks were in trouble, what kind of exclusion was suffered? Xue Meng did not know, but the ink burned clearly.

In order not to be guilty of stepping on the emperor, no one is willing to take him, no one is willing to cooperate with him. He has been rushing around the world, requesting large and small heads, hoping to smash the ink and not make more crazy. The matter, teamed up to overthrow his tyranny. That was the first year of ink burning.

Xue Meng ran for nine years, lobbied for nine years, no one listened to him, and finally reluctantly gave him a place to live, and only Kunlun stepped into the snow palace, willing to help him, and only Mei Hanxue.

Xue Meng, who is lucky enough to be in this life, no longer has to suffer this humiliation.

Xue Meng suddenly did not know, asked: "What about the second?"

"The second one is to think that it is the best way for heaven."

"How do you say this?"

"Do you know what our gods will do when they deal with the crimes of the real world?"

"The public shows the crowd, first hang for three days and three nights." Xue Meng said, "You asked me what to do, you have not seen it, you have just come to death, there will be a recidivism I am going to go to the public trial. You and I don’t bother with it. You also watched it when you executed the sentence, but your courage was really small at the time. After reading it, you were scared to have a high fever, four or five days. Only then disappeared..."

The ink burned and smiled, and said: "No way, that is the first time I saw the dig of the core."

"What are you afraid of, no one will dig your spiritual core."

Ink burning: "The world is unpredictable."

Xue Meng had some mistakes, raised his hand to explore the forehead of the ink: "There is no fever, how to say silly words."

"Dream dreams have passed, dreaming of a personal sword stabbed to the heart, and then a few inches, the heart and the nucleus are destroyed."

"..." Xue Meng is speechless and swings his hand. "Get it, although you are very annoying, but it is my cousin, who wants to dig your spiritual core, I am the first one to be polite with him."

The ink burned and laughed, and the dark scorpion was deep in the bottom, with light inside, shadow, light and shadow shaking, and thousands of thoughts.

Why did he mention the past of Xue Meng Tian Yin Ge?

Perhaps Xue Meng did not pay attention to it at all, but those faces, but in the burning heart of the year, left a strong reflection.

He still remembers that the case was a woman, twenty years old, very young.

In front of Tianyinge Square, a large group of people watching the crowd, men, women, old people, children, monks, civilians, everything, they all looked up, squatting on Xingtai, tied with fairy rope, fixed soul lock, volt The woman with the three magical instruments wrapped around the chain whispered. "Is this not Mrs. Lin?"

"I just married a famous door. What crimes I committed, I was alarmed by Tianyin Pavilion..."

"You still don't know? The fire of Zhao's family is what she put! She killed her husband!"

"Ah..." Several people around heard it, and they took a sigh of relief. Someone asked, "What can she do without thinking about it? I heard that her husband can be very good to her."

In a whisper, Tianyinge’s main step went to Xingtai, holding the scrolls, and first greeted everyone in the audience. Then he opened the scrolls unhurriedly and began to read the guilt of the woman named Lin.

The guilt was very long, and I read a small half hour. The fundamental point is that this woman named Lin is not the lady of the family that Zhao had wanted to marry. She is just a substitute, a shackle wearing a man/skin/mask, close to the real purpose of Zhao Gongzi, for the murder of this private affair, and the one who was originally married to Zhao’s family has long been It became the sorrowful ghost of the Lin girl.

"A good raccoon cat is changing for the prince." Tianyinge finally judged in abruptly, "However, Skynet is not leaking, Lin girl, you should tear off your mask, let everyone take a good look at your original It looks like it."

The person/skin/mask was uncovered in public and thrown to the ground like a snake. Under the scattered hair of the woman on the stage, another pale and sullen face was exposed, and the disciples of Tianyin Pavilion held their chins and asked them to show them.

The audience immediately picked it up and someone shouted: "A woman who is so poisonous!"

"The killing of the innocent daughter, is also ruined by the family, just because of their own private enmity?"

"Kill her!"

"Get rid of her eyes!"

"Let's delay her! Cut her skin one inch down!"

The crowd is made up of independent people, but they end up with the same head, like a dull beast that can't be smashed, flowing in the water, roaring and groaning.

This ugly thing thinks that it is only a beast, it can represent the blue sky, the next can represent the emperor, and it is righteous in the world.

The screams under the stage were getting louder and louder, and the eardrums burned by teenagers. He was amazed at the anger of these people. It was like a woman under the knife, and Zhao Gongzi, who was not born, became theirs at the moment. Relatives, friends, sons, mistresses, they hate to be able to get justice for their loved ones, sons and sons, and hate to rip off the sinner named Lin.

The smoldering eyes widened and slammed: "Condemned... Shouldn’t it be set by Tianyin?"

Xue Zhengxuan comforted him: "Don't be afraid of burning children. It is set by Tianyinge. Everyone just looks at it. They are all talking about it. What the last thing is, of course, it is by the Tianyin Pavilion. Indications to conviction. Fair and just, don't worry."

But things don't develop as Xue Zhengxi said. The content of crowd shouting is getting more and more crazy and more and more exaggerated.

"This 婊 / child! Indiscriminate killing innocent! How can we let her die easily? Wood Court Lord! You are the justice of the real world, you must judge her, give her ten times the pain! Let her have Eat good fruit! Get the punishment you deserve!"

"First tear her mouth, pull out her teeth one by one, and cut her tongue into countless pieces!"

"Dry it on her body! After it has dried up, tear it down and connect it with a layer of skin! At this time, take the pepper water and pour her, kill her! Kill her!"

More old-fashioned daddy came to see the excitement, she licked the melon seeds, and then smiled and smiled: "Oh, tear off her clothes, shouldn't such a person be naked? Put a snake in her lower body, stuffed with mud, Looking for a hundred men to take care of her, then it is worthy of sin." In fact, these people's anger, really all come from their own righteousness?

At the time, the ink was sitting next to Xue Meng. He was more stimulated and shivered slightly. In the end, even Xue Zhengyi noticed his uneasiness. He was about to take him out of the stands. Suddenly, the station uploaded "砰" There was a loud explosion, and I didn’t know where the crowd was. Someone threw a detonator on the head and was thrown at the woman’s feet. This is unruly, but the people of Tianyinge didn’t know if they could stop it. I didn’t want to stop it at all. It’s always that the detonator quickly blasted, and the woman’s legs and feet were blown away when the flesh and blood were blurred – “Uncle –!”

The ink burned tightly on Xue Zhengyi’s clothes. He shook too much. He shook too much...

"it is good!!"

There was a burst of screams in the air below, and the heroes slap and slap.

"Play well! Punish evil and promote good! Come again!"

"Who threw it? Don't throw it." The disciples of Tianyin Pavilion shouted two scorpions on the stage, and as the people went, they threw various things, leaves, stones, eggs, and knives. Those who have made an enchantment themselves, stand by and watch, as long as they don’t want her life immediately, they won’t stop. Tianyin Pavilion has always been so arrogant that it will not pass the people who are doing justice.

When I remembered this, I only felt that my heart was so bad that I didn’t want to think about it anymore. He closed his eyes and opened again.

"Look at it, Xue Meng. If Nangong refuses to admit that he is an apprentice of the teacher, then he completely loses the barrier in the realm of comprehension. When the Lushan line ends, if they really bring Nangong to the sky In the auditorium, you will see the same scene as the year.” Xue Mengdao: “It was a trial at Tianyin Court. Everyone was so angry, just because the woman killed someone, so...”

"So the knife is in the hand, how do you want to swear, how is it wrong, right?" The mood of the ink burned more and more, and the latter half of the sentence, he did not say.

How many people in this world, through the banner of "excellence of justice," in the vicious things, the unsatisfactory life, the violent, crazy, amazing suffocation in their chests are vented in such places.

After drinking the tea, I chatted for a while, and when the sun was getting late, Xue Meng left. The ink burned to the window, took out the Jane chess that was only collected in the sleeve, stared at the beggar, and the * injected the force, and when they slammed, they became ashes.

The wind was blowing, all the leaves were shaking, and the people in front of the window were shaking. He slowly raised his hand and covered his face. He was almost exhausted, and he was on the window. For a long time, he turned and left, went to the depths of the house, and was swallowed up by the darkness.

He sat in the dark room for a long time, thinking about it, thinking that the whole person was broken and collapsed. He really didn't know what to do. He felt that some things might be said by himself, but said It may also be more chaotic and even more out of control. What should I do?

he does not know……

The more he thinks, the more unwilling he is, the more he wants to be more confused. He is jealous, he is suffering.

He thought about the black hand behind the scenes behind him.

He thought of the worship and superstition of the gods in the realm of the truth.

He thought of the woman who was interrogated, his legs were bloody.

The ink burned like a beast in the room, paced in the room like a madman, and the shadows of the fairy and the ink masters appeared on his handsome face, one swallowed one.

In the end he finally couldn't help it, he stood up.

Push the door and go out.

Late at night.

Chu nightning is ready to fall asleep, and suddenly someone knocks at the door. He opened the door and saw the ink burning outside, a slight glimpse.

"How did you come?"

The smoldering only feels that you are going crazy, and it is mad by the catastrophe that will come anytime and anywhere. He took the courage and wanted to explain everything that was ridiculous. But when he saw the face of Chu Xiaoning, his courage was broken into dregs, became mud, and became selfish and weak.

"...master..." The ink burned, and the nasal sound was slightly heavy. "I can't sleep. Can I go in and sit down?"

Chu, late, let it go, the ink burned into the house, and the backhand closed the door. Perhaps it is because his uneasy atmosphere is too strong, so thick that even if he does not say a word, Chu night Ning can perceive his inner anxiety. He asked: "Is there something wrong?"

There was no snoring in the ink, and he looked at him silently for a while, then suddenly went to the window, folded his hands and closed the only window door.

"I..." The ink burned an opening, the voice was hoarse and screaming, and suddenly the mood surged, fueling the crazy impulse. "I have something, I want to tell you."

"About Xu Shuanglin?"

The ink shook his head, hesitated for a moment, nodded again, then shook his head again.

The light of the candlelight reflected in his eyes, like a poisonous snake with a letter, a bright red tongue, twisted and coiled, his face was too chaotic, and the light in his eyes was very faint. Chu nightned for a while, lifting Start, want to touch his face.

But the fingertip touched his face, and the ink burned his eyes sharply. His eyelashes were shaking and his throat was rolling. It seemed to be smashed by the scorpion. He turned and vaguely said: "Sorry."

"..."

"Can you turn off the lights." The ink burned, "... see you, I can't say it."

Although Chu Evening didn't know what happened, he never saw such a smoldering fire, which made him sweat upside down. It seems that there is a ruined thing that is about to fall, crushing each of the following. people.

Chu night Ning did not speak again, stood in place for a while, nodded. The ink burned and went to the candlestick. He stared at the candle for a while, then raised his hand and wiped out the last light.

When I was in the house, I fell into a darkness.

However, the ink burning only stared for a long time, and the illusion of the candlelight was still shaking from the orange to the five colors, from concrete to fuzzy.

He stood in the same place, facing back to the late night of Chu, and he was not urged by Chu, but he waited for him to speak.

Chapter 208

The ink burned several times and wanted to talk, but only moved his lips. His temples are almost painful, the blood is rushing, and the horse is screaming, but he feels that his blood is not hot at the moment, but cold, ice, and he is still a little bit cold in his struggle. through.

"Master."

"..."

"Actually... I..." He finally spoke, and when he spoke, he only said three or four words, and then he was chaotic and collapsed.

Why is he saying?

It was a thing of the past life. He had already slandered at the Wushan Temple. He was already dead. He just took the memory of his previous life... Why do you still want to say it.

Say it, your conscience is happy, but is it really the right choice?

How good is it now, Xue Meng will laugh at him, Chu night is his, the uncle and aunt are all alive, the teacher is still alive... Nothing is more important than this, even if he goes down for a lifetime, he will be a fugitive in his life, he I also don't want to destroy all of this in front of me.

But he thinks this is what he should say.

Now it has been determined that the people behind the scenes must have experienced a rebirth. Only they can raise people and make everyone ready. This is his chance to atone for sin. Maybe he will let him die once, but he still keeps his memory, so that at this moment, someone can stand up and stop the storm.

Even if you pay for your life.

The ink burned and closed his eyes, he was shaking, and there was a dampness between the eyelashes.

He is not afraid of death. He is a person who has already died once, but in this world there is actually something more terrible than death. He has had enough in his life, just to escape from those things, he chose to kill himself. In these years, especially after his death in the middle of the night, he has been running all his strength, trying to get rid of the invisible behemoth, but now he is forced to a dead end.

Its claws hung in his throat.

The rebellious and dear, the world is reviled.

He can't escape... he can't escape...

The ink burned and cried, but the tears slammed down and slammed into the ground.

He tried to suppress the trembling in his voice. He said, "I'm sorry... I... I don't know what to do... I actually... I..."

Suddenly a pair of strong and well-balanced arms surround him.

The ink slammed openly, and he realized that it was Chu Yuning who came over and hugged him from behind.

"If you don't want to say it, don't say it." Chu Xiaoning's voice came from his shoulder. "Whoever has his own secret... will also do something wrong."

The ink burned.

Chu night Ning actually understood.

He already understands... Also, how can Chu Xiaoning see through? He has seen ink-burning too many false admits, sincere, false, unwilling, and earnest.

Although he did not know what was wrong with the ink burning, he knew that the smoldering must be to confess what was going on, and to confess something that he did not want to say.

"Master respect..."

"If that thing makes you very upset, you want to tell me, then let me know, I am listening here." Chu said, "If you feel that it is painful to say it, then you don't speak, I don't." Will continue to ask.... I know that you will never do the same thing again."

The ink is burning like a knife.

He shook his head slightly, no...

Not as simple as you think... far less simple...

I am not a flower that I shouldn't fold. I killed someone, bleed and bleed, and I was ruined. I ruined most of the real world, and I ruined you.

He collapsed again.

I ruined you, Chu nightning!

Why do you want to comfort a scorpion... Why should you comfort the person who puts the knife into his heart? Why do you ask me before dying, let me go?

Why didn't you kill me when you were...

He was shaking and trembled, and Chu was rather stunned. Suddenly he felt a warm drop of water falling on his back. He whispered: "Ink..." "I want to say it."

"Then you said it."

The ink burned very chaotic. He shook his head. He said again: "I... I don't know what to say..."

His voice was always well controlled, and it was only then that he finally choked.

"Really... I really don't know what to do..."

"Then don't say it." Chu nightning loosened him, took him and let him turn around. In the dark night, he rubbed his cheek, and the ink burned in the dodge, but Chu Ning still firmly touched him and took his face. Wet, it is tears that have been lingering for a long time.

Chu nightning said: "Don't say it."

"I……"

Suddenly, the sea scent was so close, and Chu Ning kissed him. It seemed that he was the first to kiss the ink, oysters, and clumsy. He stuck his lips, and contained it bit by bit, and opened his bitterness. In the mouth, the tongue slides in, stirs and wraps around.

Chaos, restlessness, madness.

Ink burning does not know why this is, about love is to escape from all the painful harbor, about people are the same as the beast, in the cross can be left behind, in the sinking of this desire, only joy is real.

Give helpless people and pity.

For the desperate, with a moment to breathe.

No one talked anymore, kissing to the lingering place, Chu nightning felt the desire of ink burning because of himself, and he was healed through his clothes. He hesitated for a moment and reached out to touch him, but the ink burned his fingers. Live and become a ten-finger deduction: "This is enough."

He held him in his arms, only the eyes of the people, can kill his pain.

Can clean his soul.

"You don't have to do anything else, that's enough..."

Chu Xiaoning raised his hand and touched his face. He felt very distressed without any reason: "How so stupid."

The ink burned and held his other hand, so that both hands were tightly connected. He resisted Chu’s forehead: "If I was so stupid earlier, that would be good." He couldn't persuade him, and he didn't know how to say something softer. He had to clumsily rub his cheeks, his nose, and finally gently covered his lips. When he did this, it was clear that the tip of his ear had turned red, but he tried to make himself look calm and calm. Business nurturing and shining, greet to hug and to do things that were not used to do it.

"Master..." The ink burned and the breath was slowly rushing under his kisses. "No, don't."

"It’s always been for you to do this." Chu nightning broke his hand and grabbed his neck. "You listen to me today."

"Master respect..."

Chu Xiaoning looked at his dog's warm and moist eyes. After patted his brain, he was never relieved and gentle: "Hey."

No lights, so they kissed and caressed by the wall, kissing from gentle to fierce, from intense to thirsty, from thirst to lingering, full of male beasts / desires and urgency. "Shi Zun...night Ning..."

The ink can't stop calling his name, pity, love, crazy, and commonly.

As long as Chu Ningning gave him a star-and-a-half love, it was the most powerful drug in the world.

He finally stopped thinking more. He pressed Chu Yuning to the wall and reached him. He kissed him slyly and yelled at him. The last two people gasped again and again, and their heartbeat was fierce. He was crazy, his eyes were red, and Chu Ning was squinting in his kiss: "Lights..."

"Isn't it already gone?"

He continued to kiss him, kissed his earrings, neck, and he heard that Chu Ning had endured his desire to squat/吟 in his ear and whispered, "No, light it..."

The ink burns.

Chu nightning said: "I want to look at you."

The lights are on.

The darkness is gone.

Chu Yuning's phoenix is bright, clear, sturdy and firm, with a layer of desire, cheeks seem to have a frosty day, but the roots of the ears are red, full of color.

He said: "I want to look at you."

The smoldering suddenly felt that the heart was dying. His dirty, riddled, once cold heart, how can he live in such a look?

He hugged him, kissed him, and put Chu Xinning's hand on his chest, pulsating position.

He said: "Remember this position."

"..."

"If one day, I am guilty of sin." The smoldering whispered, the tip of the nose rubbed the tip of Chu's nose, "kill me by hand, from here."

Chu night Ning suddenly shocked and stared at him incredulously: "Do you know what you are talking about?"

Ink smiled, and there was the beauty and sincerity of Mo Zongshi in the smile, and the evil spirit and madness of stepping on Xianjun.

"My spiritual core is formed by you, and my heart is yours. If one day I have to die, these two things should be attributed to you, I can..."

He did not say anything.

The horror and fear that never happened in Chu’s eyes made him unable to say anything.

The ink burned and finally fell down, and said with a smile: "Cute you. I say so, just want to tell you..."

He hugged him tightly.

I don't know how many times there are such opportunities.

"Late Ning..."

I love you, I want you, I can't live without you.

There are a lot to tell, but like the things of the past, there is no way to speak.

Chu Yuning is still between the stunned and the wrong, he does not know how much a person has to make a mistake, in order to say such a thing.

But the ink burns and kisses him, his consciousness falls apart in chaos. He is not a person who is so badly determined. Perhaps this should not be blamed for the burning kiss, but he is not willing to think deeply.

There is despair in the enthusiasm, like a drop of oil into the flame.

Later, the entanglement tends to be primitive and crazy. When I haven't reached the bed, the clothes have been removed. Most of the nights are burnt on the bed, and there is no first time between the pillows and the feet. The request for desire is simple and rude.

His robes were quickly untied, and the smoldering smothered him, screaming at him, and sometimes he raised his eyes to see the lights, and the night looked like a sigh of relief, leaning against the neck and breathing slightly.

How many times does this lingering?

twice? once?

I am going to Lushan soon, and I may see the person behind the scenes immediately. If the person really uses the Zhenqi chess game, the person who can quickly crack it is only himself.

Everything is gone.

Between the entanglements, he swears at his master, and he is almost desperate. He said that there are still many opportunities in the future.

They will always be together.

Just like the lover of love, from night to day, he wants to bully him many times a night, sleeping in a connected position, entangled with each other, and at dawn, the dawn is light, he wakes up in his gentleness, in the bed Daytime prostitution, dirty to the extreme, love to the extreme, to the extreme.

The ink burns them together and touches them together.

The eyes of Chu nightning are full of desire and fog. With the action of ink burning, the lips are slightly open and wheezing, and the eyes are gradually confused and blurred.

Being drunk, I heard someone knocking at the door.

Chu night Ning slammed back, the blood color faded, the ink burned his mouth immediately, did not let him speak, the room was quiet, but his other hand was still anxious and fiercely stirring, Stimulating yourself and stimulating people in your arms.

Chu nightning wants to shake his head, but the power of ink burning is too big, and it is suppressed. He can't move, only revealing a pair of phoenix eyes, refreshing and painful, hateful and sad.

"Master, are you there?"

Hearing the sound, Chu Xiening became more and more angry and slammed with ink, and one hand tapped on the bed.

The ink burned and swallowed, the throat was swaying sexyly, and the voice was low and dumb: "Well. I know, Xue Meng."

"Master?" Wait a moment, no one promised, Xue Meng muttered, "Weird, the light is on... the master?"

It seems that there is no intention to pay attention to him, but he is still immersed in the late night, immersed in the desire of love. The room was too dark, and he even regarded the blink of an eye of Chu’s night anger as a moist tide. "Master?"

The outside disciple did not intend to leave, and the apprentices on the bed did not intend to stop. Chu Yuning was ruined by the two of them. There was no way to make a fuss. He bit his ink and burned his fingers. The ink burned and he took his hand away. There seems to be a slight grievance in the eyes.

His voice is low and slow: "You bite me hurts..."

"It hurts you to forget." Chu night breathed a sigh of relief, glanced at him, and then said to the door, "I am already in bed, what is it?"

"Ah, nothing is all right." Xue Meng said, "I am... I can't sleep, I have some thoughts, I want to tell the teacher..."

His voice gradually faded down, and it was almost imaginable that the phoenix outside the door pulled down his head.

Chu nightning: "..."

what happened? How do you both have a heart tonight?

Chu night, rather than rest assured, patted the ink that was still pressing on him, whispering: "Get up, wear clothes."

The smoldering eyes widened and the dog-like look: "You want him to come in?"

"He sounded something wrong when he listened..."

"what about me?"

"..." Although Chu Evening was embarrassed, he still said, "You wear clothes and go to the bottom of the bed."

Chapter 209

The smoldering of the ink is also stunned. Xue Meng is really very powerful. If there is such a trouble, what the past gloom said and did not say, there is still a half shadow. He is now full of grievances and desires and fires. He can't understand whether Xue Meng has anything to do when he comes to find a late night to talk about it - is it so busy?

But he couldn't help but be late, but he still got up and looked down at the bed. He straightened up and kissed him. He said, "No."

"you--"

"Don't be angry, don't listen to you." Ink burned, "But the bed is too low, I can't go in."

Chu nightning: "..."

"There is no wardrobe in this room, and the window is only one outside the door. I have no place to go, let him go."

Chu night, think about it too, only have to say: "What is going on tomorrow, I have to sleep."

"Sit for a while, is it?" Xue Meng's voice was grievous and humiliated, and there were some nasal sounds. "Master, I am really confused in my heart. Some things, I want to ask you in person."

"..."

"Otherwise, I can't sleep until tomorrow."

The ink burned was upset by his soft voice, but he also wanted to know what Xue Meng had to say tonight, so he got up and looked around and suddenly thought of a way. He said that he and the eared night, Chu nightning's face immediately blacked out: "You are so...is ridiculous."

"Then let him go."

Chu Xiaoning said that he would stop talking, but he heard the sound of Xue Meng playing the leaves in the sand outside the door. When she thought that Xue Meng rarely insisted on sticking to himself, Chu Jingning snorted and pushed away the ink, saying: "The next is not an example. ... In addition, hide the clothes on the ground, don't miss it."

Xue Meng waited for a while and saw that Chu Ning still did not agree. Although it was uncomfortable, he still insisted on calling: "Master?"

"...I heard it. You come in."

With permission, Xue Meng pushed the door. When he entered, he frowned. There seemed to be a faint smell in the room, but it was too light. He also said that it was not what it was. In short, He smells somewhat familiar.

Chu Yuening had already slept, and the thick curtain on his bed had been laid down, covering the scene inside. When he heard the movement of Xue Meng, he raised his hand and opened the small curtain to reveal a sly Sleeping, half-squatting, seems to have just woken up, still very sleepy, the eyes are slightly wet and thin red, he looked at Xue Meng.

Xue Meng was a bit stunned and shouted: "Master, can't help, disturb you to sleep."

"Nothing, sit down."

Xue Meng was sitting at the table.

Chu night Ning asked: "What do you want to say to me?"

"I..." Xue Meng looked very tangled. After he returned, he thought about it for a while, and suddenly thought about why the necklace on the neck of the burning neck was familiar. On the way to the Confucianist Gate, Mo-burn once bought one for Chu Ningning. At that time, he also grabbed it and saw it himself. I feel very beautiful and I want to follow.

At that time, I was told by the ink-burning person that it was the last one.

This thing made him think more and more, and the more he thought about it, the more uneasy he was. He was a man who couldn’t help but talked about it and said nothing, and suffered a lot. He finally couldn’t help but came to this place.

However, in the face of Chu's gaze, Xue Meng hesitated, and he really did not know how to express it.

After brewing for a long while, Xue Meng just sighed: "Master, do you feel smoldering... Is he a little weird?"

As soon as this statement came out, Chu Xinning and the heart of the ink burning were all screaming.

Chu nightning changed his face and asked: "What happened?"

"Isn't the teacher respected?" Xue Meng was very difficult to talk about, and he was so arrogant that he finally got out of the way and hardened his head. "I think he seems to be... oh... I am particularly eager to please the Master."

Of course, Xue Meng did not dare to say "in pursuit of the Master", but he sneaked into the night, and he was worried and awkward.

Chu night Ningdao: "...what is this?"

"In fact, this is the case, I am today..." Xiong Meng hardened his head and said, "I am today... I saw something on his neck today."

The ink burnt behind the curtain of the bed suddenly stunned, raising his hand and touching the spar pendant hanging between his neck, slightly changed his face.

Chu Xiaoning still did not respond to what Xue Mengyu saw, still frowning at him, waiting for him to go on, waiting for a while, did not wait for Xue Meng to scream, but there is a warm big hand touched the leg.

Chu night, Ning, 眸 一 , , , , , , , , , , , , , 楚The chain reminds him with a mouth shape.

Chu Xiaoning suddenly understood.

He took a moment to say: "Are you burning on the body and seeing the same chain as me?"

"No, no, I don't mean anything else!" Xue Meng was anxious and shy, and waved his hands again and again. "I just feel a bit strange, I..."

"No problem." Chu Yuning said, "The chain is what I gave him back."

"Ah, is the Master still giving him?"

"If you don't feel well, you will pay him back."

Xue Meng was relieved. When he had been pale since his face, he finally had some blood. He smiled and said: "I said what happened. He clearly told me that it was the last one. I thought he was ....."

He turned upside down so many times, and finally took a shot of his forehead, frustrated: "The Master is not mentioned in anything. My mouth is too stupid, I don't know how to explain. Hey, I am a fool."

Chu nightning doesn't know how to lie, so I don't know how to persuade him. In fact, there are a lot of consciences. If you just say a word, you can burn the ink and your own relationship. Xue Mengtu is nothing more than this sentence.

As long as Chu Xiaoning said "no", even if the facts are in front of Xue Meng, he will choose to believe in his master. It is this kind of total trust that makes Chu Yuning say that he can't export, so he can only watch Silence in such a silent way that he is distressed in front of himself, scratching his head and sighing.

He didn't want to say too much.

Looking at Xue Meng, he couldn't help but apologize. He said that he was too stupid and ventured. Chu night Ning suddenly felt very distressed, although the look on his face still did not change much, still the ancient well has no waves, but he said slowly: "Xue Meng..."

Xue Meng slammed his mouth and waited for him to speak.

What should I say?

Say "I'm sorry. I hope you will not disappoint me at the end, I hope you will always recognize me as a master"? - He said no to export. This is too soft, too greasy, and too cruel.

He asked Xue Meng to be willing to recognize him no matter what happened. People will face gathering and dispersing, and their growth will change. Just like bamboo shoots are drawn high, the outer layer of bamboo shoots will peel off sooner or later, with yellow and mud.

Xue Meng’s life has been going on for decades, and not many people can accompany another person to finish these decades. Past events, old people, will become the snake's shackles, bamboo shoots.

Xue Meng left and waited for the right, could not wait for the following, uneasily glaring at the round eyes, muttered: "Master?"

"Nothing." Chu night Ning said faintly, "I think you seem to be a bit more thoughtful, just want you to go to the elders of the wolf to discuss two bottles of musk dew."

Xue Meng: "..."

"Is there anything else else?"

Xue Meng thought for a moment and said, "Yes."

"what?"

"Is Shi Zun really planning to accept the Nangong as an apprentice?" This incident also happened to Xue Meng for a while. "That, then, is he not my master?"

"...Do you care about this?"

"Yeah." Xue Meng stunned the corner of his clothes. "I used to be the first one. If you count him, I won't..."

Look at him like this, Chu Yu Ning's heart is slightly lighter, can't help but smile slightly.

When Xue Meng was a child, she loved and Mrs. Wang spoiled her. After the ink came, she loved and burned her in front of her mother. I didn’t expect it to be in her twenties. This habit can’t be changed. A Nangong will take his The peacock tail feathers are all agitated, actually for the first and second, and I am pregnant now.

Chu night Ningdao: "There is no difference, it is the same."

"That won't be done. I don't want him to be a master. Although he worships the earliest, he is recognized by the teacher the latest. I don't mind if he enters the division, but can he let him go to the end, be a younger brother. "Oh," Xue Meng was very serious about this. "I will call him Nan Gong’s younger brother in the future."

"...all with you."

Xue Meng was happy again. He was happy, but he didn't want to leave.

The ink burned in the bed and waited more and more irritated. I thought how this guy’s words were so much, how could it not roll and roll.

Xue Meng does not roll, Xue Meng said: "I still have something to ask the Master."

"Yeah." Chu nightning is very indifferent, "Let's talk."

Ink burning: "..."

"It’s the ink burning today that told me that the teacher had promised him before, and he was going to give him a handkerchief..."

Chu night Ning asked: "That ah... um, but I haven't done it yet, do you want it?"

Xue Meng’s eyes immediately lit up: “Can I have it?”

"I was going to give you each of them." Chu said, "I have been delayed, and I have been in trouble."

Hearing this statement, Xue Meng was pleasantly surprised, and the ink burned completely.

No... isn't it only him?

The smoldering moment was wronged, but Chu nighting and his face were chatting with Xue Meng, and he did not notice the dark and uncertain look.

Over there, Xue Meng swept away the haze, and happily talked with Chu Ningning about the look of the handkerchief he wanted. The more he burned the ink, the more he didn’t want it, especially when he looked at Chu and his relationship with Xue Meng. Even if you know that they are nothing, the chest is still not a taste.

"Du Ruo is difficult to stab, if you want Du Ruo, I will go back and ask Mrs. Wang."

"Is it difficult to stab?" Xue Meng snorted. "Then it will not be troublesome. The sorcerer will be good, and the teacher will be the best?"

"...In fact, the flower and bird ornamentation is not very good at it." Chu nightning is a little embarrassed, a light cough, "the best thing to stab is the Prajna Paramita."

"???"

Chu Yuning said: "When I was young, I was in the Temple of Nos, I... taught me to sin. I..."

His words had not been finished yet, and suddenly his eyebrows twitched, his face changed slightly, and he licked his lips.

Xue Mengyi: "Master, what happened to you?"

"..." Chu Xi Ning actually hesitated for a while, only said, "Nothing, do you have anything else?"

"Well, some, there is one, but I forgot all about it, let me think about it..." Xue Meng thought about it with his head down. After he fell down, Chu Ning was almost unstoppable and gasped, and a pair of angry eyes slammed into the depths of the bed.

In fact, the smoldering of the smoldering was to make some small moves. I wanted to let Chu Xiening rush to Xuemeng as soon as possible. He expected that he would look back at this time, his eyes were reddish and irresistible, but he was stunned in his heart. A big fire broke out.

He is a man who has a strong possessiveness and is extremely barbaric in one aspect. The reason why he is so restrained and restrained is that he loves Chu, and he is too embarrassed. This love and jealousy seem to have caught his natural collar. Let him never make any excessive moves in bed.

But at the moment, the irritability and arbitrarily melted the neck ring, his wet black eyes stared silently and dangerously for a while, and suddenly made a hot thing.

He leaned over, and in the place separated from Xue Meng, he plunged into the quilt and climbed along the long legs of Chu Xiuning and climbed all the way.

The surroundings are all black, and all the light is covered by the shackles, so the senses become more and more exciting. He could clearly feel that Chu Ning was shaking slightly, suddenly stopped his shoulder with one hand, and the fingers were hot, climbing his strong shoulders and pushing him to the side.

This is what Chu Yunning can only do to stop him under the quilt.

Instead, the ink burned the heart and shattered his desire.

Xue Meng is still talking, but what he said is not important. The ink is only listening absently. Hearing what he said, "It doesn't matter if the teacher is stabbing anything, I like it." The ink burns more and more anger, his The breath was already in the sensitive part of Chu, and he knew where the pitiful desire was, but he did not touch it.

He turned his face and his eyelashes twitched. He kissed the delicate skin that was not exposed to the people in the late night, leaving traces of cockroaches that were destined to fade.

Chu nightning trembled even more, and he must have regretted the decision to leave his ink burning at this moment. His fingernails fell deeply into the burnt shoulders, but could not stop the madman.

"Master, are you listening?"

"Ok……"

The ink burns waiting, his lips are lying in a place not far from Chu’s desire, he is waiting for a crazy and exciting opportunity.

Then he waited, Xue Meng asked something, it didn't matter, the ink didn't mind, so he didn't understand it, but Chu Xiaoning had to answer him. In the moment he opened his answer, the ink burned in the cover of the quilt. Going through the past, almost greedyly contained him.

"...!"

Chu nightning was tightened in an instant. His throat was twitching and his fingers had already scratched the burnt flesh, but the ink burned it. He was excited by Chu’s reaction and grew up in the dark. Excited and excited, he certainly knows the endurance of Chu Yuning, even if he goes in now, he will never make a sound, so the ink is unscrupulous.

Chu Xi Ning sighs and oppressively answers Xue Meng’s question. His strength, whether in this life or in his life, is equally amazing.

He was able to suppress it very well, but the sound was slightly slower than usual, and the speed of speech was slightly slower. The rest, if it was not in the air, he could not believe that this man was enjoying the ultimate pleasure. With stimulation.

Finally, Xue Meng nodded and said, "I know."

"If you know, just go back soon." Chu said, "I don't want to think again, it's not too early."

Xue Meng got up and said: "That Master, I am gone... Yes, the lamp helper has been extinguished?"

"……it is good."

It happened to be a deep throat, and Chu Ning opened his lips slightly, never panting. But he frowned, his eyelashes trembled, his face was slightly red.

Xue Meng hesitated: "Master, do you have a fever?"

"……No."

"How can your face be a little red." Under the worry, Xue Meng did not think much. While getting up, he raised his hand and explored the forehead of Chu.

This is what Chu Zhongning did not expect. On the other hand, he was forced to make such a thing with ink burning. On the other hand, his forehead skin was touched by another unsuspecting apprentice. In front of him, Xue Meng’s concern is that the beggar is waiting to be burned by the ink. The feeling of refreshing is almost overwhelming, and the shame is almost overwhelmed. He has to use every bone and restrain himself in every inch of flesh and blood. Don't let yourself wheezing/snap out.

"There is no heat..." Xue Meng murmured. "Master, do you feel uncomfortable?"

I want to burn my heart, not comfortable? How can it be uncomfortable, your teacher is afraid to be comfortable and dead, you are here, I can not make him more cool, why are you still not fast?

When his heart was gloomy but deeper and deeper, Xue Meng was finally sent away by Chu, and Xue Meng was very dedicated. He extinguished the lights for the teacher, poured it, and then went out.

As soon as he heard the sound of the door closing, he was so mad. He slammed the quilt and smashed the smoldering hair, forced him to come over, and then gave him a lighter weight. Slap, press down the voice and reprimand in the darkness: "You are a git... Hey!"

Responding to him is an eager sigh of breath, confusing black eyes, most men are beasts in front of their desires, and they go to bed with their beloved ones. I didn't feel any pain. Instead, I held his hand, pressed it on the bed, and then tore his last clothes. When the skin and the skin were attached, they couldn't help but scream.

Chapter 210

In the middle of the night, Chu nightning woke up from the shallow shackles, the ink burned out of bed, and the clothes were already worn. He sat at the table, lit a bean lamp, and was bowing his head with a pile of objects.

Before those uneasiness and helplessness, they became so light in the lingering light and the lingering aftertaste. Chu Xiaoning almost looked at him lazily for a while, then said: "What are you doing?"

"Master Wake up? Is it too bright..."

"No." Chu Yuening asked again, "What are you doing?"

The ink burned his lips and smiled a little embarrassed.

Chu night Ning got up, put on his robes, barefooted, squatted to him, leaning against the table. It turned out that the table was with his own sea otter handkerchief, and the ink burned three other plain white scorpions, which were stabbing against the ornamentation.

"You are embroidering a handkerchief?"

"...I want the teacher to do it, just give me a person." The ink burned down the needle thread, and took the waist of the night, and pasted it, kissing his chest.

Chu night Ning Xinkou has a saying.

Chu nightning did not say the reason for this blasphemy, the ink burned will not ask.

Just when the skin is intimate, subconsciously, often kiss this place with pity.

Inkburn said: "Other people's handkerchiefs, I will be stabbed. Anyway, they don't know who did it..." He said, picking up an embroidered piece and laughing and asking, "The teacher." Look at it, follow the thorns, and look like yours?"

Chu night Ning sighed: "You don't have to look at it."

How can this person's possessiveness be so strong?

Chu nightning touched the ink that burned the ink, and the ink burned and smiled and looked up at him.

The lamp was too dim, and the ink burned and the eyes hurt a little. When I raised my eyes, there was some bloodshot, but the face and smile were gentle and brilliant.

Chu night Ning asked: "I still want those who have nothing?"

The ink burned and then whispered: "I don't want to."

"Yeah." Chu said lately, "That's good."

"Let's go with the flow of it..." This sentence, the ink burns like to say to himself, but also like Chu Yuning said.

Let it be natural.

There are too few and too few such days.

He is not a * of light, he is just a red duck, a duckweed that is small and small. People are selfish, giving a cup of water to someone who is about to die of thirst, only to take a sip, and then the person will take the initiative to dump this cup of water, choose to thirst and die - this is really too difficult Almost no one in the world can do it.

Think about it, drink a little more rain.

If you re-enter Purgatory in the future, it will not hurt.

There is a clear past, enough to comfort the peace.

On the second day, everyone gathered outside the villa and set off for Lushan.

Ma Zhuang’s subordinates gave each of them a strong horse. In front of the black gold saddle, there was a Qiankun bag embroidered with a night cat pattern. Xue Meng rode on the horse and took a look at the bag. Immediately wrinkled his nose.

Suddenly, someone was laughing at me: "The taste of this Mazhuang master is really flattering. It is not enough to embroider a big cat on the Qiankun bag. It is also embroidered with a red "horse" on the back. It is interesting."

Xue Meng looked back and saw Mei Hanxue riding on a white high-headed horse, and he was playing with the bag. He lifted the light blue eyes, and smiled at Xue Meng with a smile. The drop-shaped spar hanging from the forehead exuded a warm luster, and the face became more and more charming.

Xue Meng gave him a look and whispered: "Scum."

The scum just smiled slightly and narrowed his eyes. He said that he was not angry at all. Instead, he said: "Xue Gongzi is coming today, his color is not very good, is he not sleeping?"

"..."

"There is a blue halo in the bottom of the eye, and the Yintang is still black. I have some herbal creams that help me sleep..."

"Is it a leisurely me?" Xue Meng for a moment, found that he couldn't help himself, and looked back with anger. "Take the Snow Palace to drive you out of the division? What are you doing here?"

"My teacher let me come over." Mei Hanxue still smiles and does not change. "Give you a point to send the hidden weapon that he wanted yesterday."

"Then you have finished the roll."

Mei Hanxue is still not angry, smiled and said: "Well, this is rolling."

"???"

Xue Meng thinks that this person is sick. He saw him several times. It is not like a soft girl. It is like a cold stone. He hit him in the Confucianism Gate last time. He also runs on his own skin. Today is the day. I changed the face of the good man, "You hit my left face, I sent my right face up." Xue Meng couldn't help himself. He turned the horse and stared at the handsome man on the horse.

"No, Mei Hanxue, I have no hatred with you?"

"No."

"So, am I familiar with you?"

Mei Hanxue smiled, but he didn’t answer very quickly, but the light-colored eyes were condensed with fine shimmering light, and the wind blew, his shattered long blond hair shook under the hood, and it was illuminated by the sun. More gentle.

Xue Meng did not really want to hear his answer. He frowned and said: "After sending the hidden weapon, you will go to the other sects. I can’t control it. Don’t think about making a good relationship with me to fish in troubled waters. I’m dirty, my little sisters.”

"...hey." Mei Hanxue didn't hold back, laughed out loud, but then he squeezed into a fist and covered his lips and coughed. It was interesting to look at Xue Meng for a while and said, "Okay."

He took the horse, and the white bell was attached to the white wrist. The wind blew and creaked.

Mei Han Xue laughed and looked at him: "Go."

Xue Meng yelled at him: "Come on? Is it difficult for me to give you firecrackers to see you off?"

Mei Hanxue really went away. The horseshoe stepped on two steps. Suddenly he remembered something and turned his head and said, "Yes, there is one more thing."

Xue Meng didn't want to hear, but Xue Meng was curious, so he did not ask with enthusiasm: "What?"

Mei Hanxue smiled slightly. A long, white finger was on the lips, and the end was a scum of the savage beast. He whispered: "You are really hot."

Xue Meng’s face instantly bursts green!

"You...you-you!!" He was completely disgusted. You have been out for a long time, but you are not coming out halfway down. This is the team in front of the team who is in the order to assemble, ready to leave, Mei Han Xue waved his hand at him with a smile.

When the ink-burning horsebacked to the side of Xuemeng, Mei Xuexue had disappeared into the sea of people, and the ink burned to see Xue Meng’s straight-legged chest in the original place, and retching again and again.

The ink burned a bit: "...have you eat bad things?"

"Voice - don't talk to me now, I am * early in the morning, I ate a dog and yelled at me..."

Ink burning: "... Although the valley is very hungry, you are not hungry to eat shit..."

"Roll!!!" Xue Meng pushes the ink on his chest and pushes the ink to the person. He is so angry that he is as good as a Buddha, and he blushes in the distance and smacks in the distance. —! Shit! You are so fucking!”

For a while, thousands of people set off from the lonely mountain and headed for Lushan. This scene is very rare. After all, everyone goes out on the weekdays. Even if they have assembled a large team, they will arrive in a short time. There are very few such monks riding horses.

There are a lot of people here who haven’t been riding horses for so long. The first day is okay, and the back is a bit unbearable. Fortunately, there are everything in the Ma Kun’s Qiankun bag, refreshing pills, and small fragrance. Fans, and even a few books made of enamel, are printed with the price and suitability of various novelty products in Taotao Villa.

Xue Meng took advantage of the Ma Zhuang who was squatting in the shade of the tree when he was resting. The second richest man in the world was elated and spared no effort: "All the princes of the princes, what do you think of the goods, it is good to hook up in the booklet." After I return to the horse, I will deliver it to the government one by one. On the 7th, I will return it. On the 15th, I will change it. The fairy will be settled by the kings, and then I will pay the money two--"

There are quite a few people who really have nothing to do, and the Ma Zhuang master is absolutely deliberate. He has a big bag and has only thrown these books in it. He wants to see nothing else.

Staring at it for a long time, there are always one or two pieces that can impress my heart. Even Xue Meng can't help but mention the pen in the "old and young, good taste, good taste, superior materials, and great spiritual power - Nanpingshan Lingyan bird's nest cake "Draw a circle on it."

He can finally know how the "making money" of the ink burning is how to earn money.

On the 7th of the road, Ma Zhuang’s main earned was full, and everyone was tired. On this evening, they finally arrived at the Longshan Mountains.

"The dragon has arrogance and hopes to respect it."

Xue Zhengyi looked at the huge rock standing in front of the Longshan Road. He read the words on the rock and asked Nangong: "Namong Xiaogongzi, what do you mean?"

Nangong Ramp: "It means that all the following roads must be walked, and from the time of entering the mountain, until the opening of the Lushan enchantment, you must not swear words, or you will be condemned."

Since Nangong驷 warned, the heads of the public will pass on immediately. However, each martial art has different ways of communication. The singer of the Snow Palace has picked up two jade flutes from the waist. The master of the Mirror has shaken the silver bell in his hand. Jiang Yan stood still, and it was the news that Hua Binan passed for him. Hua Binan waved his sleeves, and a group of black smoke emerged from his sleeves. After a closer look, he discovered that it was not smoke, but hundreds of small flying insects, one by one stopped at the ear of the lonely moon.

Xue Meng was disgusted and said: "The cold scale sage is really abnormal. Isn't he worms on his body?" Suddenly remembering something, he turned his head and said to the teacher: "Speak up, you still went to Lin Lingyu to study. Didn't you touch Hua Binan? Don't you come up with bugs at the time, that's enough for me to drink a pot."

The teacher turned his head and smiled and said: "...the Lord is really worried."

At this time, the shackles of life and death began to be subpoenaed. Other sects had some meaning of screaming skills. Xue Zhengyi was good, shouting with aloud:

"After entering the valley, don't talk swearing! If you can't control yourself, plug your mouth in advance with a swearing spell! Have you heard it?"

The large-scale big gongs echoed in the mountains and forests, and the sounds of the forests, the sounds of the clouds, the echoes, and the lingering

"Have you heard it? Did you hear it? Is it there?"?

Masters: "....."

The author has something to say:

"Xue Meng is straight"

Mei Hanxue: I have no legs with Xue Meng.

Jiang Yan: I am not possible with Xue Meng.

Ink burning: I met Xue Meng with a ghost.

Chu nightning: I have no future with Xue Meng.

Teacher: Who did I attack with Xue Meng?

Nangong Temple: Xue Meng is not beautiful enough.

Xue Meng: ... Have you considered my feelings?

Chapter 211

Abandoning Ma Jinshan, the first day was safe and sound. On the second night, when everyone was meditation on the spot, an accident occurred.

There was a monk who went to the middle of the jungle to solve the problem in the middle of the night. After the water was released, he felt itchy legs. He looked down and saw a huge poisonous mosquito parked between his legs. He was drinking blood and drinking. The monk slaps the worm and kills the worm. At the end, he habitually swears: "His mother, dare to marry your grandfather."

As a result, the voice fell, and I heard strange noises from the surrounding trees. The monk was shocked and suddenly remembered the words reminded by Nangong in front of the mountain. The scared trousers had no time to mention it. He ran away and shouted: "Help, Master! Help!"

It turned out that this person is a disciple of Jiang Dongtang who was accompanying Huang Xiaoyue. This crying and shouting mother’s big trick is like a huge stone entering a secluded pool, causing a thousand waves. People who were all quietly meditating have risen. I saw a Jiangdongtang monk rushing from the distance.

This person is stunned, squatting, and screaming while running. Behind him was followed by at least a hundred black snakes, and several of them had been wrapped around his legs and feet.

Huang Xiaoyue was shocked: "Apprentice?"

Nangong Shu Road: "Don't go over!"

The disciple cried and rushed over, but more and more snakes climbed. He eventually fell to the ground and shouted: "Master! Master save me!"

Huang Xiaoyue originally wanted to help, Nangong said: "This snake is the dragon of the evil dragon. If you kill one, he will become two. The more you kill, the more you will retaliate. If you are not afraid of Huang Daochang, Just go up and fight."

When Huang Xiaoyue heard it, he immediately stunned, but his mouth chanted: "The overall situation is heavy, and the overall situation is heavy." The disciples licking their disciples were swallowed up by the tide-like black snake. The man tumbling in the snake tide and twisting painfully To twist, the snake tide has completely covered him, and it has become a group of black low hills. This group of low hills has been smashed at a speed visible to the naked eye. When the tides are scattered, in addition to a pool of blood, the roots are all roots. Nothing left...

When this happened, no one would say more nonsense on the last day.

There are many words to lose, this is the truth of everyone.

Xue Zhengyi even gave himself, and by the way, he gave Xue Meng a curse, not for anything else, just because the father and son were too refreshed, and in case they slammed a "dog thing", they feared that it would be a blink of an eye. Become a belly meal of the snake group.

Everyone was cautious, and finally in the middle of the night on the third day, through the mountains of Xiaolong, came to the hero of the Confucianism Gate - under the mountains.

The Lushan enchantment is different from the phoenix mountain. The dragon is detested, so the enchantment is transparent. Without any obstacles, the mountain can be seen clearly from the outside.

Jiang Yan looked at the situation in front of him and asked: "Is this the place where the Confucianism era generation Yingjie is buried?"

The moonlight was on the face of Nangong, and he was silent for a while and said, "Yes."

Lushan, the demon dragon, after the first generation of the Confucianism Gate surrendered to this dragon, instead of setting a blood deed, it turned into a mountain, guarding the souls and treasures of the Confucian style, the ancestral temple and the temple.

This mountain, Nangong Temple, has been remembered since the beginning of the winter solstice. When he came, he could see the majestic and magnificent white marble steps. The dark city guards who had already stood up were guarded by the mountain roads, and the clothes were fluttering.

"Welcome to the younger son."

The ear can still hear the rumble, and everyone falls. As he walks up the mountain road, he can see the father who is already preparing for the sacrifice at the top of the ancestral temple.

"Nangong Gongzi, it will be saved if you hurt the spring and fall in the autumn. The war is not to be delayed. You will open the enchantment as soon as possible so that we can go in and swear."

Nan Gongyi turned his head and the person who spoke was Huang Xiaoyue.

In the heyday of Confucianism, even if this kind of person was a whim of Nangong, there was no reason to reward him for a slap in the face, and he did not dare to repay his mouth.

Today, in front of his ancestral grave, he can win his eyes and glory.

Nangong squatted and he had to bear it.

The bite of the caries bite hurts, and you must endure it.

"It’s all a little back." He said, he came alone before the mountain gate.

There is a town tomb with two evil spirits cast on the left and right, and the toes are as big as a child of five or six years old. These two gods are three-faced, or kind or angry. They are armed with arms and arms, but the strange thing is that this kind of * is usually a leopard, but they are closed. With an eyebrow, it looks a little embarrassing.

Nangong’s eyes were not blind, the sleeve arrow pierced the tip of his finger, and he painted a spell on the evil spirit stone. Then he said: “The seventh generation of the Confucianism Gate blood family, Nangong Temple, worship.”

Rumble -

Earth shakes.

There are rare and strange people exclaiming: "Blink! The statue!"

The ink burned in the crowd and looked up.

If it wasn't for the situation, he really wanted to say to the man: not the statue, the two statues.

One of the left and right town tombs opened their eyes, the eyes were amber, and the scorpion was narrow and narrow, like the eyes of a snake.

The statue on the left slowly speaks, and the sound is like a Hong Zhong. There is a lot of noise: "Nan Gong Temple, you can memorize, the Confucian style seven rings?"

Nangong Shudao: "Greed, blasphemy, murder and piracy, it is my Confucian gentleman who can't do it."

Later, Huang Xiaoyue was sneer: "It’s better to say than to sing."

Not only Huang Xiaoyue, many people are chanting in their hearts, these seven can not be, really is the greatest irony of today's Confucianism.

The statue on the right follows the opening, and the sound is far and wide. It seems to be from the ancient times: "Nangong Temple, there is a mirror hanging high, there is a sky and a yellow spring, and it is in the world, can you be innocent?"

“Innocent.”

These two paragraphs are questions and answers from Nangong to the big story. No matter who is in the Nangong family, as long as they step into the heroes, they must first pass these two questions and answer these two answers.

The first ancestors of Confucianism Gate set up these two questions. In fact, they hope that the descendants of the family can remember the teachings of the ancestors when they go to the mountains to worship, and they can reflect on themselves.

At this moment, Nangong couldn't help but think that his father came to worship this winter solstice. When answering these two questions, has there been a touch of touch, a guilty guilt?

Or really just take this question and answer as a machine key, as a check-in to open the enchantment of the Lushan, nothing more.

The enchantment is open.

The two standing stone statues suddenly and slowly vibrate, changing their postures, and eventually became the one-left and one-left knees.

"Please, the owner is in the mountains."

Nangong’s back to the crowd stood for a while, and no one could see the look on his face.

Only Naobaijin choked in his quiver, and the white paws came out and licked the edge of the quiver: "Mi Mi, Mi Mi -"

"come in."

Nangong Temple finally dropped the three words of this simple and concise, and then took the lead and stepped into the mountainous area of Lushan.

Xue Zhengyi untied his own curse and asked: "Do you still need to pay attention to this carefully?"

“No,” said Nangong. “Be careful, it’s done in the area of the Longshan Mountains. In fact, it’s also to prevent some people who are malicious about the Confucianism from entering the mountains. At this point, Xiaolong decided that the visitors should not be enemies. Then there will be no more words and words."

But even if he said so, many people still have a guilty conscience, refused to make more words, and only sullenly followed Nangong to the mountains. Three hundred meters per line, there are two totems of the twelve zodiac stones, first and foremost, male and female, and then male and female, tiger, rabbit... from the mountainside, it is the land of the heroes of Confucianism.

These heroes follow the contribution of their lives, from low to high, in turn, and sleep in the mountains.

The first thing they came to was the bottom layer of the bones.

There is an eight-foot-high white jade standing on it, with a colorful scent. The engraved ones are all personal names. There are four handwritten books on the top.

"I heard that the burial is the loyal servant of the death of the Nangong family." Xue Meng whispered and said, "There is always a thousand."

He said it was good. This mountainous area is full of graves, and you can't see the end.

The teacher was worried and said: "If these thousands of servants are all up, what should I do? The servants of the Nangong family are not bad, I am afraid I can wrap around for a while."

Xue Meng was busy licking his mouth: "Hey, you are crazy, hurry, don't crow -"

The ink burned in the dark side: "I am afraid it is really not a crow mouth."

"Hey, dog stuff, where are you going?"

The ink burned did not go to Xue Meng. He left the big army and walked to the front of a loyal soul. He squatted down and looked carefully.

The heroes of Confucianism are not the same as ordinary funerals. There is no tomb to seal the earth. It uses a translucent jade. Like thick ice, half of it sinks underground, and the face is directly exposed. Therefore, the burial place is a piece of jade belt, which radiates a brilliant brilliance in the moonlight.

This kind of cold jade is similar to the dead corpse of the Temple of the Dead, and it can save the body from being corrupt and immortal, just like before. The ink burned down and looked at the coffin in front of him. The mass graves would not be taken care of too carefully. Therefore, a thick layer of ash was accumulated on the surface of the jade, and the ink burned only to see the following. The outline of the deceased, can not see the five senses, look at the body seems to be a woman.

He stared at the woman for a moment, and his gaze went round again.

He felt that this coffin was somewhat wrong.

But the specifics are not right, he is not quite right.

He looked around, staring at no one paying attention to himself, putting his hand on the face, closing his eyes, and feeling carefully...

Suddenly the palm of my hand shook.

The ink burned open and the face was extremely ugly.

There is indeed evil in this place, but it is not rich, and the chess piece is not inside... Is it wrong?

"Ink burning!" Xue Meng, they have to go far, shouting at him in the distance.

Ink whispered to himself: "Immediately."

His slender hand smashed the face and rubbed the thick ash, trying to see the woman's appearance more clearly without squatting.

He rubbed it, and suddenly the light saw a detail and suddenly stopped.

He knows what is wrong.

Ash.

The accumulation of this coffin is wrong!

Except for the place he had just wiped, the smoldering suddenly found that there was still no place in the dust. On the side of the cockroach, there were four different lengths of ink. He hesitated for a moment and reached out to compare it. He found that it was just A person climbs out from inside, except for the thumb, where the other four fingers will reach!

The ink burned and changed. Just wanting everyone to stop the steps of going up the mountain, I suddenly felt a cold and cold chill in front of me.

He jerked his head up and couldn't help but face the white face on the body.

A woman in a shroud crouched behind the tombstone and was glaring at him.

The author has something to say: Today there is a small theater in Mu, because starting tomorrow, it is necessary to enter the decisive battle decryption volume, so there are only some warm tips to think about ~

1. There is a lot of reversal in the decisive battle volume. Almost every character has a secret to be announced. I hope that before you can see the ending, you should not easily decide on any role, and you may have to turn it over.

2. There should be four copies of the decisive battle volume, but it is not excluded that there may be a deletion or increase in the later qaq.

3. There is a knife in the final battle. There is no difference in the main supporting role. The protagonist is sure to he, and the supporting role is not good, but at least in the supporting column, except for the boss group, it will definitely not die. The supporting actors who are not written on the supporting column can only ask for their own blessings.

4. If you die, it will be fine. If you finish writing, you will also open a reincarnation or a foreign government. When you are old, you will feel soft. Even if Li Wuxin wants to open a foreign house or reincarnate, he will give a good ending (smile and cry)~~

5. The decisive battle volume is still in the process of editing and depositing, because there are a small number of plots out of the outline, so I don't know if it will be retained. Today's words cannot be completely calculated and may be revised.

6. I am going on a business trip for 20 days. I have been working very hard recently. I will try my best to take the time to reply. However, because the work of the manuscript has been accumulated recently and I have to rewrite the text, I may not be able to reply one by one during this time. I am really sorry.

7. Thank you.

8. Cognac, don't let me make a 8?

Chapter 212

"Don't go forward! Go back! Go back! Go to the foot of the mountain!"

Cold and violent, everyone turned back and saw the darkness of the black clothes rushing to the ground. Behind him, a female corpse chased and rushed, and the mouth made a terrible roar.

Xue Zhengxuan was shocked: "Fire? How? What happened?!"

"Retreat! Go back!" Under the black-browed eyebrows, a pair of eyes like a bayonet out of the sheath, he shouted at the South Palace, "Nangong! Falling in front of the stone of rejection!"

Nangong Temple immediately rushed to the top - on the grave of the loyal soul group, it was the grave of the high-ranking disciples of the Confucianists. In order to prevent future generations, a long wall was set up between the two mass graves to block Use.

He rushed to the ground, and Ye Yexi was close behind, but before he reached the wall of resentment, the pace of Nangong’s scorpion suddenly stopped:

I saw the upper end of the mountain road, and slowly walked down a group of people, each wearing a Tsing Yi crane, flying with a sling, and glanced at it, as if the Confucianist door had not been extinguished, Hao Hao Tang Tang came to a group of heroic disciples. The end is a grand momentum, amazing.

But Nangong knows that it is wrong.

The leaves are also clear.

There is a difference between these Confucian disciples and their previous days and nights, that is, everyone's eyes are covered with a blue ribbon embroidered with crane shadows.

It seems to be a very small difference, but the people in Nangong’s family understand what it means—the living person will never tie this cover ribbon. This is the funeral worn by the division door before the burial of the Confucian disciples. It means that the eyes cover the clouds, drive the cranes to the West, and grow to the endless...

The downhill is all the dead of the Confucianist! !

Nangong squatted back, raised his hand, and subconsciously stopped the leaves.

He didn't look back, only whispered: "You go down."

"..."

"Go! Go and tell Mo Zongshi, it's too late." Nangong驷 took a deep breath and spit out a trembling of microstrips. "The high-level disciples of the Confucianist dynasty have all corpses and are pushing down the mountain."

"how about you?!"

"I stopped for a while, you hurry." Nangong 驷 侧 侧 , , , , 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 南

Ye forgets to bite her lips. She knows that there is no place to look back. The last thing she can do is to solve her own quiver and throw it to Nangong, Shen Sheng: "Next. You don't always remember to take more."

When she rushed to the mountainside, there was a fierce battle. The former sorcerer of the Confucianist servant was coming from the bushes and behind the rocks. All the locusts that could be hidden were coming out and rushed to the facing monks. . These corpses are all dressed in shrouds, pale, and mixed in the different monks of the costumes, like snow and waves, far from seeing is spectacular, but the price of this spectacular is too great, the time of the mountain screams, shouting one slice.

Ye forgets to see a few cockroaches that have been smashed by the spirits in the fierce battle. There are only clothes and a rough figure. Her righteous father is like a rabbit, leaving them with a calm and loyal "loyalty." In fact, the corpse of the scorpion has been summoned out and hidden in the dark, just to wait for them to go to the highest place, to mobilize the "high-ranking disciples" in front, killing in front, and smashing in the back.

He laid the net, they are the fish in the net.

Ye Forgetting found a smoldering in the melee: "Mo Zong Shi!"

The ink was fighting with the five dead bodies, and when he heard the sound of the leaves, he jerked his head and said, "What?"

"Sample" has not been said yet, and I saw the face of the leaf, and I know the answer.

The ink burned and slammed, and it happened that a zombie had bitten his arm. He couldn’t get rid of it. In his anger, he simply put his hand into the zombie’s mouth, his eyes twitching, his hands working hard, and the zombies The slippery tongue is torn out!

"Hey!"

The black blood splattered, and the zombie couldn't bite him anymore. He was elbowed on his chest and fell to the ground.

The ink burned black and horrible, and looked awkward. When she looked at the leaves again, she even made a cold greeting. But she immediately stabilized herself and said: "Auntie let you retreat as soon as possible, and retreat to the foot of the mountain to wait for him!"

The ink ignited a nod, and the sound of the arpeggio spread his voice throughout the film.

"Don't be in love, go to the foot of the mountain, and all go back to the foot of the mountain."

Huang Xiaoyue was in a hurry: "We have already prepared for a life and death with Xu Shuanglin. This scene is expected as early as possible. How can I retire now?"

The ink burns no matter what he is, the man is a dead bird for the food and death, Huang Xiaoyue wants to rush to the top of the mountain, to find the treasures hidden in the Temple of Heaven in the Confucianism Temple. That is the old man’s own business, he is still Speaking resoundingly: "Don't want to die, go down the mountain! Immediately! Go on!"

Although the corpses of these servants are not strong, they are not the civilian bodies of the hands of the arrogant mountains. They are amazing, and they are not afraid of pain. The former servants are coming up, and when the people retreat to the foot of the mountain, they have already More than a dozen monks died in the war.

Of course, Huang Xiaoyue also retreated. He also knows that with his own ability, it is impossible to kill the peak alone.

But he sneered with a beard and said: "Mr. Mozong, this is good. The person who wants to come to Lushan is you. Half of it, the person who let us back is also you. You can really be able to do it. What should I do now? If you want to start, let us follow you slumber and quit the enchantment?"

This grandson’s life is not enough for the Emperor’s shoes. It’s not enough to kill him. In this life, it’s because the ink is no longer the master of darkness, and it’s a clear and correct master, so you can’t be a big man. The next fan is the ear scraper.

But the ink can choose to ignore him at all.

Huang Xiaoyue wants to say it again. Suddenly, there is a burst of smoke in front of him. It’s actually Nangong’s riding a re-enacting real demon wolf, white gold, and a blast like a high-ranking disciple behind him, Huang Xiaoyue’s glance Go, shocked: "Oh, it’s awesome! Count!"

The ink burned and narrowed his eyes, and the old things finally reacted. I know that this is the ambush under Xu Shuanglin's cloth. It is not stupid.

However, the second half of Huang Xiaoyue is: "Nan Gongzhu! You are so courageous! I actually gathered in the Lushan Mountain, and I want to fight against the rest of the sects?"

Ink burning: "..."

The Nangong crouched low above the demon wolf, robbed the road, and Naobaijin was as fast as the arrow of the string, and the corpses chasing him behind him went further and further. At this time, Huang Xiaoyue responded that he had misunderstood him, but he did not have any slightest embarrassment. Instead, he looked at the zombies that were approaching the tide line and approaching them. The throat was moving.

Nangong rushed into the crowd, leaping from the demon wolf, stuffing the quiver into the forgotten arms, and breathing: "There are still left in the arrow, first you, you take everyone, evacuate ""

The leaf was originally heard in the first half of the sentence, and my heart was slightly loose, but the latter part made her suddenly raise her head and stared at Nangong’s face: “What are you going to do?”

"A little thing."

On the side of Huang Xiaoyue, the high-ranking disciples of the Confucianism Gate are getting closer and closer. Seeing that they will fight against the ancient Confucianism Gate Yingjie hundreds of years ago, he has a night of sweat and tears and shouts his head: "Nangong Yu! You are a very harmless thing!" Why are you like this! Why do you want to bring these monsters to us? Want us to kill the enemy for you?"

Seeing Nangong, I don’t look at him, and I don’t say anything. Huang Xiaoyue is extremely angry and trembles. “Well, I finally know what you are playing. You are afraid that one person will not go to the top of the mountain. To the treasures that your Laozi has left for you, so we will lead our people to your broken hill and open the way for you! Nangong驷! You are so poisonous!"

Seeing that he was talking more and more, Xue Zhengxi, standing next to him, couldn’t help himself, frowning: "Well, Huang Daochang, you will say less."

"Less what? Why should I say less?" Huang Xiaoyue did not put the next revision in his eyes. He would probably calm down on weekdays, taking into account the face of Xue Zhengxuan, but at the moment of crisis, where is he still pretending? Mind, pointing to the Nangong Temple, he said, "Sure enough, the son of a scorpion, the heart of the tiger and wolf! You actually use such a famous hero to clean up the roadblock for you! Where are you coming from?"

Nangong Temple: "..."

Huang Xiaoyue still did not give up, roaring: "People like you should have died to thank the world, but you actually escaped from the corpse, you also brought these animals to us, you -"

"Snapped!"

A very loud slap in the face, squatting on the face of Huang Xiaoyue.

The gentleman's wind leaves the past, still maintaining her slap in the face of Huang Xiaoyue, shaking slightly, panting, staring, staring at the person who fell to her.

"brute."

She whispered open.

"My Confucian hero is in front of me, I want you to speak out loudly!!"

The crowds of Jiangdongtang began to draw swords, pointing to the leaves, and a middle-aged woman under Huang Xiaoyue’s head was screaming at her: “You are a man who is not a man or a woman! Do you dare to start with the elders? It is a beast! The running dog of Confucianism!"

She yelled, and she was about to rush to clean up the leaves. Ink burning is about to help, and suddenly the rattan whip is heard, and the air is pumped away.

In a dazzling Jinhui, Chu Yuning came out from the crowd, and asked the day to pick up the eyes.

He turned his back to the leaf and faced Jiang Dongtang.

"I said it." He said one word at a time. "Nan Gongyi is my apprentice. If you don't want to go through the Tianyin Pavilion, then if you want to give pointers, please come to me first. On justice, or on justice. A fist."

In the silence, he dropped the last half of the sentence -

"To accompany the end."

The atmosphere has stagnated to the extreme.

Jiangdongtang is not in, not retreating, retreating, his face is dull, entering... Can they really shake Beidou Xianzun Chu tonight? What's more, they really should have a good relationship with Chu Yuning, and have they been dead?

The corpse is still close, getting closer...

Someone couldn’t help it, shouting: "Don’t argue! What are you going out to say! Think about it! What should I do!"

"Hit?"

“Is it so straightforward? Why do you have to retreat to the foot of the mountain? What is the difference between playing with the mountain?”

Yes, the ink can't help but think, what is the difference?

Although he understands what Nangong is doing, it will not be purposeless. As the last descendant of the Nangong family, since Nangongyu let them retreat to the foot of the mountain, they must have plans.

He couldn't help but look at Nangong Temple, who hadn't heard from the beginning, but suddenly found that the man's eyes were shining with an unclear light.

A kind of light that makes him shudder.

"Nangong!"

He snorted, but it didn't work. Nan Gongyi had been silently meditating on a curse from the past. He had been observing this curse from Huang Xiaoyue when he pointed at his nose.

It is too late to be aware at this time.

Numerous vines burst into the ground, rising from the ground, ink burning, leaves forgetting, Xuemeng... Everyone was almost entangled by this willow at the same time, and then immediately smashed out of the enchantment and took out the mountain. Mountain range.

The leaves are forgotten: "Auntie! What are you doing?!"

She wants to break in again, but Nangong raises her hand and slams her hand - the two tombs of the two towns stand up and stand up, falling into the stone powder, and they lift their left and right hands respectively. In a flash, a new translucent enchantment enveloped the entire Lushan Mountain Pass, blocking the way for everyone to enter the mountain.

Nangongyi stood alone in front of the enchantment, facing a thousand corpses, facing away from everyone after the enchantment.

He said: "There is a vine in the mountains, but it is a dragon rib. It can pull everything into the ground. But you can't be inside. - As long as you don't care about the blood of the Nangong family, once I use this method, I will use it. The vine will not be divided into the enemy, and all of you will be plunged into the soil and buried alive."

Ye forgets the sorrow and anger, and drinks with anger: "Nangong 驷! Do you know that you are a person!" She slammed her hammer, but she could only call him outside the enchantment: "Nan Gong 驷!"

"How come you are alone." Nangong squatted half of his face. "Is there still you?"

"..."

Then, as if he suddenly thought of something, he actually grinned.

The smile was splendid. After the Confucianism slammed the door, there was no glare in his face. It was flying and smashing, and it was like madness. It seemed that many years of temperament had returned to the face, and in a pair of alums, the horse was swayed.

Nan Gongyi and many years ago, when he and Ye Yexixi first entered the trial illusion, they squinted and smiled at her face with a sword.

"But your girls are really useless. In the end, I still want you to protect you."

After all, he turned and strode toward the corpse that was rolling.

step.

Two steps.

Three steps.

stop.

Nangong smashed the sword into the soil, untied the gauze on the hand, and slashed it along the sharp sword.

Blood slid down, along the blood trough of the blade, into the moist soil of Lushan.

Nangong’s eyes are cool and look straight ahead, without fear.

He didn't know that at this moment, standing in the smoldering eyes outside the enchantment, his figure was overlapping with the leaves of the past, and he was the same person, and it was difficult to separate.

"The blood sacrifices the dragon, and it has the bones and bones." Nangong snarls, "The array opens -!"

Countless trees and vines broke through the cracked ground, and the sand was all down. The tree vines and the previous traps of the people, completely throwing out the crowd is different, it is a scarlet vine, without any branches of leaves. It can even be said that it is a rough blood vessel, which rises from the depths of the Lushan Mountain and instantly climbs each body controlled by the Zhenjiang Bureau.

Nangongyi used one person's power to drive thousands of dragons to unearth. In an instant, it consumed a great aura. He sweated on his forehead, and the hand of the sword shook slightly. The roots of the meridians on the back of the hand burst into the roots. Cracking, blood is more cross-flow...

"Shen Zhi!"

His face was pale, trembling, and the final order was made.

The thousands of dragons began to pull the corpse down to the ground fiercely, but the zombies apparently would not sit still, and they were screaming, roaring, and struggling.

At this time, Nangong Temple shared the spiritual strength with the dragons. The thousands of zombies were working hard. When they were twisting, they had to squeeze more power. They sacrificed blood to the underground and urged the dragons to use stronger power. , pull the corpse down.

Ankle, calf...thigh...

The zombies in the mountains and plains are screaming, leading to the neck and flowing.

Nangong is breathing, thighs... still thighs...

He can feel that his spiritual power is almost exhausted, but he has not yet sunk those zombies into the soil. They are still writhing their bodies in angrily, supported by both hands, and want to break free.

More, to the waist... at least to the waist...

In this way, the enchantment can be solved and the outsiders can come in, so that these zombies will not be able to break free and turn the situation instantaneously.

at least……

A little more...

The spiritual power is exhausted and it is transferred to the consumption of the overdraft core.

Nan Gongyi only felt a dull pain in the heart. He had a slight tremor in the chest. He clenched his teeth, but the blood still slid down his lips.

A little more.

waist……

Very good, they are extremely difficult to move, but they are not the most stable. The strength of the zombies will be greater than when they are alive. If they are buried here, they may break through.

A little more!

"Cough--!" The power of the nucleus was once again sacrificed. Nangong 驷 only felt dizzy in front of him, could not support the squatting on the ground, vomited blood, and dripped the black soil.

Nangong swayed his eyelids and shook his eyes. He saw the corpses being dragged to the deeper places by the scorpion, and almost all of them had buried their chests.

These monsters are temporarily unable to move.

Nangong licked his lips and blood red, and laughed.

He heard the leaf forgetting shouting outside: "Auntie! Enough! Open the enchantment! You will open the enchantment!"

Xue Zhengyi also shouted: "Open the enchantment, Nangong! Let us help you!"

"Nangong, open the enchantment! Open the enchantment!"

The number of shouting people has gradually increased. In this world, not all people with no conscience.

Nangong smirked and smiled. After the Confucian style was extinguished, he suffered so many grievances and he did not cry. Suddenly, he was crying at this moment.

He choked and hoared and muttered: "...I know, I opened it...and opened it..."

He raised his trembling hand and prepared to remove the enchantment of the mountain that blocked everyone. However, the ground suddenly flicked and then began to vibrate slightly -

Nangong Temple was obviously aware of it. He jerked his head and then looked up and looked at the scene in front of him, revealing an unbelievable look.

Those who only obeyed his instructions, dragged the zombies to the depths of the earth, suddenly loosened them one by one, and then wrapped them around the chest of the bodies, pulling them one by one, out of the mud...

"Impossible..." Nangong said, "This is impossible!"

How can Lushan not obey the master's orders?

Even if Xu Shuanglin had the opposite instructions, these dragons would never be obeyed again, because the descendants of the Nangong family are the same for the evil dragons who are sleeping here.

If the two Nangong descendants gave the opposite order to Lushan, Lushan would only stop the current action, and no one would help and turn to neutral.

unless……

Nangong Temple suddenly had a layer of goose bumps, and he thought of a person.

This thought made him tremble, the heart's pain seemed to be better than before, he gasped, slowly looking up, he followed the long white marble steps, along the dense corpse tide, to the top.

A man with a majestic face and a tall and tall figure is slowly moving down along the long line.

He wore a luxurious robes, embroidered with dragons and dragons on the top, and the clouds and seas tumbling. Every step, the gold and silver wire cast on the cloth will emit a luster like water in the moonlight.

Above his nose, the end of the nose is tied with a ribbon that the deities of the Confucianists will wear, covering their eyes, but the ribbon is not blue, but black. The embroidered on the top is not a crane, but a dragon with a flame and a thin finger.

Nan Gong’s face was white and paper-like. He stared at the step by step, and the man who stepped down the steps, widened his eyes incredulously, whispering: "How... how could it be... too much head..."

The moonlight emerged from the leaves of the forest, illuminating the handsome, well-defined face of the man with a knife and axe.

It's him.

The only thing in the world that can make Lushan defy the Nangong family's posthumous command, can surrender the demon dragon, and can suppress the ancient evil beast "鯀" under the tower, and create the man who has been the first fairy-tale group for hundreds of years.

He was the first great master of the world hundreds of years ago. He was the first person to surrender and enter the gates of heaven when he was alive. He was the first generation of Confucianism.

Nangong Changying!

The author has something to say: Today's bib has:

"Honey tea j" wife's big white cat riding a two-dog blanket, the flying carpet dog just laughed and I couldn't breathe. Hahahaha, the two dogs can be said to be quite wronged, 23333 crab crab wife, what?~

"The third world is the first pity," the younger brother of the wife, the soft and cute Xia Shidi is really high in value. Don't want to be so handsome~ Hey! Crab and crab, what?

"Moe Huai is the sail of the sails", the wife's nine-color version, Rong Xiaojiu after the finish is still beautiful, * little beauty, I have twice the price of the dog to pack him! I will hold a sign! ! ! Crab crab wife~ What?

"Seriously my dead guy" wife's little leaf sister, in fact, the little leaf sister is such a reason "people tend to love heroes, but if they can live a stable and happy life, how many people are willing to do that "The hero of the wrist", the gentle and feminine look of the young lady in the crab crab scroll, the crab crab, what?

The four cats, who are unwilling to be named, are called Zhou Yuning, Chu Zaining, Chu Goodnight and Chu Zhou. I think the real purpose of my wife may be to laugh at me, so that I can inherit my ants. Huayuan 233333 crab crab wife, what?

"Qing Feng Yu" Mrs. Mei Xuexue's little brother and Xue Mengmeng's little scorpion, one is a flower radish, one is a sweetheart, and I want to say that they are really too good, although both are straight men. Although 2:00 is tall and mighty, but still likes to be with the teacher, not to mention the soft cute Cute young version of the puppy, hahaha ~ milk dog and young masters are knocking on the beautiful, crab crab wife ~ what?

"Oce of the head"

Nangong Temple: Xu Shuanglin! ! You dig my grave! You move me too much! ! ! You are shameless! ! ! I love your ancestors! ! ! !

Xu Shuanglin: Don't make a big noise, your ancestors are also my ancestors.

Nangong Changying: ... I knew that you were so noisy, I should choose cremation instead of burial.

Nangong Temple & Xu Shuanglin: So why did the Taishou Gate have to be buried?

Nangong Changying: I want to be Snow White, I feel that I can sleep in the crystal, and I can still be awakened after five hundred years.

Popular science angels burn: Please do not believe the above dialogue, the custom of this world is the burial after death, and most of the heirs will hope to keep the ancestors' bodies intact, which is the most common in the realm of the Central Plains. Ancient customs are the same 哒~~

Although Changying’s head is a long-established person, his portraits are painted on many scrolls in the world. The Confucianist sages are the majestic jade carvings of the first generation. Therefore, the leaves are almost instantaneous. Reaction: "Auntie, open the enchantment! You can't beat him!"

Of course not playing...

Who can play it?

I am afraid that it is difficult to win the battle with the most powerful master of the current comprehension, Chu Yuning.

Nangong is shaking, but not because of fear, but an extremely strong sorrow and anger - too much head... Xu Shuanglin actually made the widow of Taishou Gate a precious piece!

crazy……

Really crazy!

That is their ancestor, the soul of the Confucianism, the root of the Confucianism, and the * of the generations who have been respected for generations.

It is Nangong Changying!

At the neck of the Nangong Temple, the blue veins violently jumped, and he made a twisting roar, like a tiger's hill: "Xu Shuanglin!!... No, Nangong bat!!! You give me out!! Come out!!!"

The sound is like a coil, and it won’t linger for a long time.

No one answered him, and Xu Shuanglin certainly would not come out.

The only reaction was the Nangong Changying, whose eyes were blindfolded. He turned his face slightly, his pale fingers swept the scabbard, and the burial sword went out, and the dragon was shining.

He took the sword and slowly walked down one step.

At the same time, Nangong Yu took a step back and he murmured: "Too much head..."

Nangong Changying walked steady and the sword tip was on the jade step, making a harsh scraping sound. His eyes were covered, and this sling was tied to the spell after death and could not be picked up. Therefore, he could not see the road ahead. He could only rely on the sound and smell to judge the position of Nangong Temple.

"Who is it?"

Suddenly, a low-pitched voice sounded.

It’s actually Nangong Changying talking!

“Why are you good at this place?”

Hearing the ancestors of hundreds of years to speak, even as a piece of precious chess, is extremely shocking.

Nangong sputum swallowed and said: "Too much, I..."

"..."

He suddenly loosened the long sword he was holding and bowed his head: "The younger generation is not Xiao, the seventh generation of the Confucianism is passed down, and the Nangong is worshipped."

"The seventh generation... oh..." Changying’s body slowly and numbly repeated the words, then shook his head and raised the sword, only saying a word, "kill."

The swords are connected!

Under the attack of Nangong Temple, he only felt his arms numb. The strength of the ancestors was amazing. A corpse face was approaching, and the air was like ice.

"I am good at killing people."

"Too much!"

The swords and flowers are chaotic, the swords are all amazing and amazing. Under the collision of the iron blade and the iron blade, the fireworks are splashed and the snow is smeared.

Xue Zhengyi had a fist in the enchantment, and Li Ran said: "Is it crazy? How could it be played?"

Who doesn't know the bravery of Nangong Changying? According to legend, his power is amazing, even if he does not use weapons, he can shoot rocks into pieces with one hand.

Deal with him?

I am afraid that the ten Nangong Temples are not enough for their ancestors to play.

Nangong’s mind is almost blank. He couldn’t think of himself one day. He would actually be with the first generation of the Confucianist’s door in the mountains. Under the collision of the first sword, he was violently repelled to ten feet. If you don't slap the sword in time, I am afraid that he is already in the grass.

Nangong Changying raised his sword and slowly approached.

He repeated the instructions in a low voice: "kill..."

At the moment, outside the enchantment, Xue Zhengyi continually hammered this film with annoyance. Jiang Xiaomei’s heart was tight and his lips were not spoken. Ma Zhuang’s master simply covered his eyes.

“Hey, ah” I dare to look at it, Huang Xiaoyue is secretly surprised and glad - fortunately, I didn’t catch Nangong in the first place. If I really tied Nangong to come to Mount Lu, it would be the person who faced the first generation of Confucianism. I am.

Only Chu Xiaoning was staring at Nangong Changying's move, and he felt that something was wrong. It was really wrong.

Who is Nangong Changying?

Just look at the two evil beasts that he surrendered. One is a dragon and the other is a scorpion. They are all ancient evil beasts. How terrible is this man's spiritual power? Even if his soul is already out of the body at this time, the only thing remaining in the world is a body. Many spells can't be displayed, but fighting obviously should not be affected.

So to what extent is Nangong’s fighting skills?

Near the Feiji Island in the East Pole, there is a relic of the Confucianism Gate, a fascinating relic - an island in the lake.

The lake is not big, it is not small, and it is stagnant water. There is no magnificent scene. It takes about half an hour to walk around it.

However, everyone knows that this lake was not a lake, but a small hill. When the Nangong Changying and the battle were in the past, several times, the dragonfly used this hill to cover up and avoid the flash. Nangong Changying was fighting. In the middle, dozens of heavy punches fell on the rock. As a result, the last punch actually shattered the stone of hundred feet high, collapsed and collapsed, and the landslide broke. From then on, the mountain was no longer raining, and the rain accumulated into a pool. A lake.

Therefore, it is not the late night of the Chu Dynasty, but he feels that when Nangong Changying’s first sword and Nangong Temple are on the opposite side, Nangong Temple should fly out of the 100 feet, and there is absolutely no chance to get up.

This corpse is flawed.

Chu nightning's gaze is like a sharp blade scraping through every inch of musculature in Nangong Changying.

Suddenly, his sharp eyes condensed and fell on the arm of Nangong Changying's sword. He paused, and in the brain suddenly polished a fire, he suddenly realized what was wrong. ——

Over there, Nangong was struggling with his sword and staggered and stood still. Like his wolf dog, he could lose, but he would never escape. He wiped the blood on his lips with his sleeves and was about to fight again. He suddenly heard a familiar voice behind him and said, "To his left, his left arm meridians have been picked."

"Chu Zongshi?"

"Don't go to God." Chu night Ning stood outside the enchantment, a pair of brown scorpions stared at the two men's demolition, "even if Nangong Changying broke his left arm, can not be taken lightly."

I heard that Chu Yuning said that the surrounding heads had fallen on Changying’s left arm and found that the left arm of the corpse was weak and weak. Xue Zhengyi was shocked: “Chang Ying’s head is dead. Was it actually picked up the meridians? Who did it?"

.....

No one answered.

However, people who are familiar with the life of Changying, such as Ye Yexi, have quickly understood.

Who did it? Who in this world will pick up his meridians, and who can pick his meridians?

Nangong, who is fighting with Nangong Changying, is staring at the face of his ancestors, and the face of the Xianxiantang jade carving is as good as the Nangong Changying is still living in this world, never going to death.

If he is still alive, if he really does not die, if these centuries of years are written off, then at this moment, is he accepting the test of the first generation of the head, accepting his trials, his advice?

"Nau Platinum! Come over!" Nangong's consciousness gradually returned to the body. He screamed at the wolf, turned over and leaned on the left arm of Changying's head, attacking at a very fast speed.

I flashed through the scene of my childhood.

Standing in front of the magnificent jade carvings of Xian Xian Tang, he looked at the statue of the first generation.

The child’s perspective is always strange. He suddenly turned his head and said to Rong Rong: “Auntie, this statue is not doing well.”

"Why didn't you do it?" Rong Rong dragged the luxurious robes, covered him with a slap, coughed gently, and squatted to the child, looking up at the statue of Changying's head. "Not very good? It’s life, it’s lifelike.”

"...I don't understand."

Rong Rong sighed. She was an acute child. She hated not to learn the knowledge that others had to spend for twenty years. In two years, she was stuffed into her son’s head: "It’s like a living person, every detail. Very vivid. Didn't these two words teach you all the time?"

Nangong licked his mouth and said, "But the carving is wrong."

"What's wrong?"

"Auntie, look." He pointed to the left arm of the first generation and pointed to the right arm. "The left arm is thicker than the right arm. I stared at it for a long time. Fine, a little asymmetrical, wrong!"

He said, he also raised his two arms to look at Rong Rong, and seriously told his mother: "My arms are as thick as the two sides, and the mother is also, the sly is also... so this is wrong Let the craftsmen reshape one!"

"It turns out that this is what it means." Rong Yan shook his head and said, "This is not the fault of the craftsman, but the head of the head is too poor."

“Why? Is it born?”

"Nature will not be born." Rong said, "Taizhang is used to the left hand. The strength of his left arm is much larger than that of the right arm. It will grow longer and longer, and gradually the left side will become thicker and stronger than the right side. So, say this. The craftsmen of the statues were not mistaken, but they were very careful and noticed the nuances."

"Hey-!"

The two long-handled blades are on the opposite side, and Nangong Temple and Nangong Changying face are very close, and they are struck by the other side's teeth.

Losing the left-handed Nangong Changying, against the scars, but exhausted the last trace of the Nangong Temple. This is a battle of melee.

Xue Zhengyi had the idea of letting himself breathe a sigh of relief: "The meridian of his left arm, isn't it... isn't he breaking himself?!"

In fact, not only Xue Zhengyi, but also many people in the enchantment appearance war, there is gradually such a guess:

From the high-level disciples, after the burial, the eyes of the Confucianists must be covered with spiritual powers, and it’s really just “walking by cranes and watching the sky”.

Is it possible that Nangong Changying also expected a hundred years of human life, and the vicissitudes of life changed?

Therefore, when he founded the Confucianist Gate, he had already thought of the end of the Confucianism. The reason why he covered every burial disciple’s eyes was that he could not exert the most powerful combat power. It is a disaster.

Therefore, the * Wu who accompanied him for a lifetime was not in the embarrassment, he only took a long sword.

Therefore, before he died, he broke all the meridians of his left arm. Even if there were really unjust people in the future, holding his corpse and making waves, he could not get all his fighting power.

But the answer is ultimately unknown.

More than a dozen rounds were handed over, and it was fierce. Nangong suddenly saw the eyebrows of Taishangmen whispering and muttered: "Nangong...驷...the seventh generation..."

Outside the enchantment, the ink condensed God stared at Nangong Changying's every move. As a stepping emperor, he is different from all the decent people in the field, and he can accurately perceive something that people who have never played a game of chess are hard to find immediately.

In the view of ink burning, this corpse is obviously different from the rest. He seems to have been struggling to pick up his own consciousness before his death.

This is also the worry before the ink burning - although the chess game is one of the three major bans, but there is no magic in the world will be perfect, if a person's willpower is particularly strong, then the operator must continue to Apply a stream to it to suppress the resistance of the piece.

Once the skill supply of the surgeon is not enough, the Zhenqi chess piece will run out of control, and sometimes even reverse the operator. This is why many people in the history of the chess game have suddenly died of malaria, or directly through the veins. Retrograde, violently killed.

The ink burned in the face, and the eyes followed the movement of Nangong Changying.

He can almost conclude that Xu Shuanglin could not fully control Nangong Changying.

"boom!"

A fierce slamming sound caused the ink to smother the five fingers on the enchantment, and the veins were prominent.

The difference in strength is still too big.

Everyone present was able to see clearly, even if Nangong Changying broke his main arm and forced his strength, the master is still a master. Even if he has pulled out the sharp claws, this empty body can still be with Mei Hanxue and Xue Meng. This level of juniors is tied.

Really want to suppress him, I am afraid I still have to let the head and elders at this level of people move.

But the heads and elders can't get in, the enchantment is sealed, and the inside is the territory of the Nangong family. Those who rushed into the city will cause the spirit of the mountain to rise, and then they will help.

This is the civil war of Confucianism, no one can intervene.

If it is a full-fledged Nangong Temple, it is probably possible to rely on one's own strength to pose the corpse in front of the plane, but his previous suffering has been too much. It was another heavy blow. Nangong Temple could have flashed smoothly. However, when the neck ring of Naobaijin was turned over, it was torn by the palm wound, and it was temporarily pulled off and not pulled.

"呜嗷-"

Naobai’s blond screams, and the sword in the hands of Nangong’s scorpion is shot down and flies down to the edge of the enchantment.

The ink burned and saw that the hilt was stained with the blood oozing from the heart of Nangong’s palm...

"Auntie! Don't fight! Come out! Let's think of another way!" Ye forgets to shout at him again.

People are always like this. Ye will not beg for mercy, but Nangong is her weakness.

She is crying and crying.

In the past, I have never seen her cry like this. She can really have some girls’ shadows at this moment. The two brothers of Nangong Liu and Nangong are out of selfishness, and they are embedded in a cold and cold face. mask.

This mask she always felt that she couldn't pick it up in her life, but when she saw the sabre that was full of mottled blood, it was gone.

"Auntie..."

The hit was too heavy. Nangong licked his teeth, sweating and licking, and he didn't want to hold it up from the ground, but a cold light flashed through it, and the sharp edge of the snow reflected on his side.

Nangong sighed slightly and raised a face similar to that of Nangong Changying. He looked up at his ancestors through the bright Jianguang.

The sword of Nangong Changying has been hung directly above him.

Inside and outside the enchantment, the time is dead.

Chapter 214

The ink-burning hand is pinched in the dark, his heart beats like a drum, and the veins at the temple are twitching. He stares at all the arrogant things in front of him. There is a crazy thought in his heart - Nangong Changying will always want The life of Nangong Temple. And is he really going to stand like this? Can he really stand up so calmly? !

He was shaking, he was suffering, but fortunately no one saw his strangeness. The line of life and death in the enchantment had been as good as the fine sand, gathering all the gaze.

The sword will be * at any time.

Wanmu was stunned, and the ink burned the hidden weapon in the sleeve. The fingertips rubbed on the edge of the sharp sleeved arrow. He wanted to do one thing, but that thing made his fear grow like a weed.

Suddenly, the body of Nangong Changying trembled.

This trembling is too obvious, and everyone can see clearly.

Xue Zhengxuan was shocked: "What happened?!"

Nangong Changying could not see the specific position of Nangong, and his position of the sword was actually somewhat biased. However, Nangong Temple can't make a sound, a little voice, and a strange flow of wind can make Nangong Changying react.

He stared blankly and reluctantly on the face of his ancestors, licking his lips, and his lips were full of blood.

"You are... Nangong... eh?"

"!!!"

This time, don't say Xue Zhengzheng, how many people who stood in front of the words heard a cold greeting.

- Nangong Changying is conscious? ! ?

The smoldering face also changed abruptly. The cold light flashed in his sleeve, and the dark arrow that was about to come in hand was taken back by him. His back has been soaked in cold sweat and his heart beats wildly.

It’s dangerous... I’m almost exposed myself...

He felt lucky for not having to shoot, but then he was disturbed and disgusted by the luck he had born.

In front of this mountain, the two souls of his past life and this life are fighting in the dragon, constantly biting and entangled, tearing each other bloody, biting flesh and blood.

He doesn't know how long he can support.

"Nangong...oh...the seventh..."

In the enchantment, the sword of Nangong Changying’s high hanging is slightly offset.

A little bit, one inch...

Xue Zhengyi was shocked: "Is he really conscious?"

No, not conscious.

It is to restore recovery consciousness and restore the remaining consciousness in this body.

Mo-burn knows that Xu Shuanglin, who is hiding in a corner of Lushan Mountain, is like a poor pipa performer. He has never danced such a huge and huge puppet, and he is almost unable to hold it.

Nangong Changying is about to break free from him -

"brush!"

The ink burns in the future, and the sound of the sound that penetrates the flesh makes his scalp numb and the pupils shrink.

In an instant.

Bloody madness!

A few silent, suddenly a twist into the extreme shouting in the ears, a sword frost, straight puncture periosteal - "Auntie!!!"

"Ye girl!"

"Leaves forget!!"

Left and right clamped the eyes of the red-eyed red-eyed madness, lest she do something radical, but people soon discovered that it would be more than one thing, what can she do? She is not a member of the Nangong family. How can she be left and right? In front of Lushan, she is just an outsider.

She can't get in.

Nangong Changying’s sword ruthlessly penetrated the shoulders of Nangong’s shoulders. If he could look at his eyes, he was afraid that he had already opened a hole in the chest of Nangong’s chest.

Nangong squatted and seemed to want to say something, but Changying immediately pulled the sword and splattered the blood. The Nangong, who fell to the ground, spit out a large amount of blood. Even supporting himself was hard to do, struggling several times, and finally Suddenly fell in the mud.

I don't know what Xu Shuanglin did, perhaps to donate the power of the nucleus, or perhaps to control Nangong Changying with all consciousness.

This body, which was about to restore the consciousness of God, suddenly became the doll of the killing decision. He carried the sword, and there was blood in the fine sword groove, which was ticking on the ground, glaring at the moonlight, gathering. Into a small beach, dark and uncertain.

Nan Gongyi once again wanted to climb from the ground, but failed. He was in the mud and barely raised his face.

The ink burns the eyelashes and closes the eyes.

He would rather Nangong to not let people see this face, an original proud, flying, never clean, handsome face, only blood and mud at the moment, almost can not see the five senses, wolf enough to make anyone who has a conscience Feeling sad.

Although Nangong’s eyes are not sad.

There is still fire in his eyes, there is still light.

Nangong Changying wants to make up another sword, but a white light smothers and fights with him. Naibaijin screams and screams, murderous, regardless.

"Auntie..."

Ye Yexi has almost collapsed, and Nangong Temple does not look at her. He only stares at Jiang and can't help but see, * lips and teeth open and close.

He couldn't make a loud noise at the moment, but Jiang Yan understood his lips, he held his hand, and a pair of brown eyes stared at the shaking of Nangong's lips.

Nangong Temple is finished.

Jiang Yandao: "...good. I know."

"Hey..."

It was a blunt sound, and Naobaijin was shot with one hand by Nangong Changying. The movement of it was far greater than that of its own owner. Pang Shuo’s snow-white body wrestled between the trees and leaves, and pressed a large piece. branches and leaves. Then its spiritual power could not support it. "There was a smog in the original place. The smoke had not yet dispersed. There was a fluffy white milk dog in it, but it was not in the palm of the hand. Big, very hard to bite the clothes of Nangong Changying.

That is the prototype of the larvae of Naobai.

Nangong tweeted and whispered: "Go, go."

"Hey!!" Nai Platinum does not go.

But this point of strength, biting in Nangong Changying, just like mud cows into the sea, never go back, Nangong Changying is too lazy to pay attention to it, he moved his fingers, smashing the mountains and shaking the mountains, those who were previously bound by Nangong Thousands of corpses that lived were pulled out of the ground by the vines.

Pulling the mountains.

Destroy the dead.

In the eyes of Nangong, there was a fierce luster in his eyes. He actually put his hand on the ground, and there was a pain in his chest and a smash! !

He used his own practice for more than 20 years of spiritual nucleus, using his own hard work of more than 20 years of cold winter heat, desperately throwing and never looking back and bloody: "Shen Zhi!!"

crack.

He can clearly feel the core of the heart that has been with him for twenty years, and it bursts in an instant.

Very light, like the wind blowing over the spring lake, blowing ripples.

Very heavy, like the broken mountain, rolling earth and stone.

In the end, it turned into powder.

At that moment, Nangong was vaguely a little relieved. It was this taste that the original nuclear power was broken. Although it hurts, it is not a heartbreaker.

Then, when A-Ning died, she should not suffer too much.

It’s all there is no need.

The spirit of the dragon was really trembling because of his sacrifice. The blood vines that were supposed to be loosened suddenly closed again, clinging to the zombies that were about to be broken. Nangong Changying slightly raised his chin, and he lowered his voice "Hm?" and then walked to the front of Nangong and stood still.

At this time, Nangong was unable to move in one step, lost the spiritual core, and he was no different from ordinary people.

He can't even recall his own sword.

He gasped and looked up at his face, reflecting the moonlight in the eyes, and reflecting the face of Nangong Changying against the moonlight.

"Too much head..."

Nangong Changying’s eye-catching ribbon hunt in the cold wind. He stood there for a while, his fingertips moved again, but the spirit of Lushan was sacrificed to the original owner’s body because of the sacrifice of Nangong’s spiritual core. The instructions could not be immediately reacted, so those blood vines still had no movement, and even slammed the corpses of the riots and continued to sink to the ground.

However, Nangong knows that he can't support it.

As long as Nangong Changying has the heart to swear to order, Lushan finally obeys the instructions of the first master, and he can't change it.

However, although it cannot be changed, he will still pay such a price and do his best.

Innocent in my heart.

Outside the enchantment, the ink burned and clenched the lips and teeth, and the sleeves and arrows were at the fingertips. The lines of his face were stretched to the extreme, and his hands trembled slightly under the robes.

Inside the enchantment, Nangong said: "Too masters... I can't help, I still...what... nothing has been done..."

The ancestor's sabre was lifted again, and Nangong was trying to close his eyes.

Suddenly, just as he was about to squat on the neck, he saw Nangong’s long and narrowly turning his neck. Difficult, from the socket of the alveolar, squeezed out the sentence, “You...called... Nangong...驷?"

Nangong squatted and hoarsely said: "Too palm? You, are you conscious? You... can you understand my words?!"

The latter sentence can't be heard, but everyone can see that the action of Nangong Changying's men suddenly slowed down, and his lips slightly open, apparently talking to Nangong.

"I...should not... fight with you..."

The sword of Nangong Changying is still hanging, but his throat is intermittent and makes a very slight sound.

"My heart still exists... I remembered in the past... Before I died, I was worried that there will be changes in later generations..." He just regained his consciousness, his words were not clear, and he was hoarse. "I don't think...I have it today."

Nangong Chang Yingdun paused and resumed: "Nangong... Hey. For a while... After me... After I finished the curse... You immediately... Take the bow and arrow... I..."

Bow and arrow?

What bows and arrows?

Nangong’s brain creaked, and there was no reaction at the moment, but Nangong Changying had a long sword, brushing the ground and scratching the ground, and making a long-distance like a dragon. Then he swept a few feet back and the clothes fluttered like a fairy.

Nangong Changying is shaking, and at this moment he is forced to get rid of the control of the man. Every time he speaks a word, he will lose a lot of power.

"Wear, cloud, call, come."

Almost every word, I finished this sentence. In the hinterland of Lushan, I suddenly heard a long and clear scorpion. The land in front of Nangong Temple burst open, and the deep blue corner bow could not be heard. It sounded and it was a long night.

Everyone is ashamed, even the people who are so cold in the evening, are slightly discolored.

The legendary martial arts of the first generation of the Confucianist Gates

Wear the clouds!

"Fast, take away!" Nangong Changying dumbly, he trembled fiercely, as if he was confronting the invisible spider thread, trying not to let himself go up and pick up his * bow through the clouds, "wearing The arrow of the cloud can burn the flesh and blood...burn."

Nan Gongzhen actually understood what he meant, but the stimulus was too big. He couldn't believe it, so he said dryly, "What is it burning?"

"I!" Nangong Changying suddenly angered and violently drunk.

"Too much!"

"Don't let my body... make... I was alive... the most hated... things."
Nangong Changying grew up in a sturdy position, and Xiaoyi, the last word after a hundred years, "burned."

Chapter 215

In the thousands of years of comprehension, Yinghao has come forth in large numbers, and now only ten people can be listed on the "Xianjun Spectrum". Nangong Changying is one of them.

Once upon a time, the ink burned was not taken for granted. He used a little finger to crush the 72 cities of Confucianism. He only thought that there were hundreds of waste pustules in the city, and the knife had not been put on the neck. Shouting pain, the sword has not yet squatted and began to beg for mercy.

As the last generation of the child leaves the past, he said before the death, the Huang Dynasty Confucianism seventy cities, Ning no one is a man.

In the eyes of the ink, the Confucianist Gate is a loose sand, and the Nangong Changying, who is gathered in this scattered sand, can be a great figure?

The blood is mottled, and the centuries-old foundation was razed to the ground by the latecomers. The dead bodies were everywhere, and the crows licked the belly of the dead. When he stepped on the stage, he had no expression on his face and pushed the door of the Xianxian Hall.

He wore a black cloak on the ground and passed through the gallery with the heads of Confucianism and the portraits of the elders, and finally stopped at the end of the Xianxian Hall.

Stepping on the face, the cloak was added, under the hood, couldn't see his entire face, only to see his pale chin, the arc was fierce and arrogant, slightly raised, with a gesture of judgment, looked The statue that is taller than the real person.

It is a statue carved by the white jade stone. It is a young sage with a wide robes and wide sleeves. It is set up with a bow and a bow. The craftsman's artificial pen is sturdy, and it is ingenious. It is set with crystals inlaid with crystals. Applying the crown, the * morning light fell from the skylight behind the statue, causing him to squat up like a scent of the nine-day god.

The half face under the hood of the fairy hat, suddenly revealed a smile, revealing the white teeth, sweet dimples.

He sorted out the dress and made a long glimpse, then lifted up the face of Qing Jun, and said with a smile: "Long time, Nangong fairy."

The statue naturally does not speak, only the black spar flows with luster, as if gazing at the coming.

Stepping on the fairy is also very boring, no one cares about him, he can still play for a long time: "The younger generations are drizzling, today is fortunate to meet, Nangong Xianchang is really good-spirited."

He laughed and laughed and talked for a long time, and the living person was nervous about the statue.

"I have seen your Xuan Xuan Xuan Xuan..." He licked his fingers and sighed. "I can't figure out. Who knows that you are the first generation of nephews. I have seen you who don't know the first generation." Hey, you don’t know the first generation of apprentices under your seat."

Then he smiled: "But now they have become my knife, so if you haven't reborn, you have already seen them."

"Unfortunately, I didn't see your Xuan Xuan Xuan Xuan grandson. The guy fled before the city broke. I don't know if it is dead or alive, how much regret."

He was happy again, Pi Liyang and the statue relatives talked for a long time, and then said: "Right, I heard that Nangong Xianchang was also a generation of people, and everyone went back. Wherever they went, there were people who swear allegiance to follow. There are even fans who are called emperors."

The ink burned and smiled: "Isn't that just as good as I am today? So I came here, the first thing I said was nonsense, I just had a question - I wonder why Nangong Xianchang did not refuse to go to the base in the past?"

He paused and walked a few more steps. At this time, his sight fell on the warning monument standing behind the sculpture of Nangong Changying. In fact, this monument is so big. He saw it early in the morning, but he has always been Over.

The stone tablet was the 96-year-old Nangong Changying. It was carved with a sword. It was primitive and unpretentious, but later it was added with gold powder and silver. Now it’s a brilliant glow.

The ink burned and stared for a while, and smiled and said: "Oh, I understand. 'Greedy, murder, murder, thief, is my Confucian gentleman seven can't do it?' Xian Chang is really good."

He held his hand and continued: "But the fairy is white, the world is clear, and he is taught to the later generations. He is very curious, but I am very curious. Did the fairy think that one day, the Confucianism will become Today's situation?"

He said here, licking his lips, seems to be thinking of a suitable wording, and then he thought of it, so he smiled and said: "A nest of squirrels?"

When he finished, he laughed, and his smile was so happy and pleasant. He was pure and evil. He echoed in the empty and solemn Xianxian Hall for a long time. His voice was like a crack, like tearing the piece of the shaft that was slightly swaying with the wind, shredding. Portraits of Confucianism Yingjie in the past...

The laughter finally berthed in front of the icy sculpture of Nangong Changying, and stopped abruptly.

The ink burned no longer smiled. He converges on the smile and slowly condenses a layer of ice on the surface.

His dark eyes stared at the front sages of the opposite side of the Wu belt, staring at the same person as him, who could also order the world and step on the celestial beings.

It seems that time and space meet here, and the first sages of the two eras are squatting in the torrent of years.

Finally, the ink burned softly: "Nangong Changying, your Confucianism is a pool of dirty water, I don't believe you will be clean."

He slammed his sleeves and turned around, striding out of the Xianxian Hall. Suddenly there was a gust of wind, blowing down the hood of the cloak, and finally revealing the crazy face of the Emperor.

He has the handsome and handsome appearance of the world, and is a well-deserved beauty man, but this face, but the fierce and sinister eyes of the world, like a rotten food.

The black robes are like thick clouds and ink, rolling down the long steps.

He is a ghost of the world, Shura of the red dust, he looked up, there are dead bodies of Confucian disciples everywhere, lack of arms and broken legs, stepping Xianjun does not accept the soldiers, except that the woman named Song can still be kept, the rest , rush to kill.

At that moment, the burning heart was filled with cruelty and enthusiasm. He looked at the radiant glow of the sky, the sun pierced the clouds, and a dazzling golden light was on his pale face.

He closed his eyes, took a deep breath, and squeezed his hands in his sleeves, shuddering with ecstasy and excitement.

He used to be such a life-threatening person. When he was young, he used to eat food in Linyi. He had seen his mother starving to death. He didn't even have a straw-covered mat. At that time, he asked a monk of the Confucianism, could he give him a coffin, the thinnest and the worst, but the man said a word to him -

The monk said: "Which person should be worthy of a fight, hitting three feet, you can hardly ask for a shot."

He had no choice, so he wanted to bury his mother on the spot, but the control of Linyi was very strict. The nearest mass grave was outside the city, and it was reached by turning over two hills.

He dragged his mother's body, all the way to the disgusting, inferior, surprised, sympathetic eyes, but no one helped him, he walked for 14 days, a child dragged a woman's body, fourteen days .

Fourteen days. There is no one who is willing to help him.

At the beginning, he would kneel on the side of the road to beg, begging for a gentleman, a groom, a farmer, can take him and Aunt with a wooden cart.

But who would be willing to put a mortal body on his car?

Later, he did not plead, just biting his teeth, dragging his mother, walking step by step.

The body was stiff, softened, and began to rot. There was stench and corpse oozing out. The passers-by shunned him three times and covered his nose.

On the fourteenth day, he finally reached the mass grave.

There is no smell of living people in him, and the corpse smells into his marrow.

He didn't have a jealousy, he used his hand to plan a shallow hole under the mass grave. He really didn't have the strength to dig a deep pit. He dragged himself to the unrecognizable A Niang and dragged it into the pothole. Then he sat next to him.

After a long time, he said stiffly: "A mother, I should bury you."

He began to smash the earth, only took a handful, sprinkled on the mother's chest, he collapsed, he cried.

It’s strange, he thought that the tears had already drained.

"No, no, you can't see it when you bury it. If you bury it, you won't see it." He climbed into the pit again, crouching on the rancid body, tears rolling down. When the mood was a little slow, he went to the earth again, but the soil seemed to have some smell that could open the lacrimal gland, and he collapsed.

"How can it be so bad... It’s all like this..."

"Why didn't even have a mat..."

"A Niang... A Niang..."

He took his face to marry her. He didn't dislike her dirty. She stinks. She is a dead man. She doesn't have a good skin under her body. She has pus and blood, and she crawls on the mites.

He fell in her arms and burst into tears. Every voice of the pharynx and heartbreaking lungs seemed to be dug out of blood in the throat.

Finally, the mourning of the funeral post echoed his whining, the voice was distorted and hoarse, ambiguous, sometimes like a cry of people, but more often it was like a cry after the young beast lost his mother.

"A Niang... A Niang!!"

"Come to the individual...Is there anyone...I have buried me personally...and buried me..."

In a blink of an eye, twenty has passed.

The ink burned back to Linyi, standing on the hill of Qionglai, the wind of the Confucianism, and standing in front of the * sea.

At that time, the scorpion of the body had become bright and fangs sharp, and he blinked his eyes again, and the brilliance and brilliance of the brilliance flashed in the scorpion.

Today, he is standing here, who dares to tell him that he is hitting three feet, is it hard to ask for a sigh?

absurd! He wants ten feet, a hundred feet, and wants to be perfect!

He wants them to ask everyone in this world to kneel down and kneel to the ground and present his millions of millions of feet to the top -

Step on all the celestial beings, respect the world! ! !

He has entered the Xianxian Hall and met Nangong Changying. He has more and more determined his own desires and ambitions. Yes, he has done all the best in the world, and he can hold everything in his palm. live.

He will never be the child who screamed and screamed in the past. He will never let his favorite person die in front of him. He will rot in front of him, and his skin will be white and bones.

No more.

A hundred years later, he will also become a * like Nangong Changying, who is enshrined in the mountains, and the white jade is the word of the golden powder.

No, he will be better than Nangong Changying. His life and death will be far better than the original Confucianism, and he, the first king of the comprehension, will also be able to afford the hypocrite that Nangong Changying can’t afford. More teach people to admire, more teach people praise.

Sin?

He does not believe that Nangong Changying is not guilty. Can someone who can make a monster like Confucianism, how could it be a self-satisfaction and a good-natured gentleman?

Isn't it a "gracious grievance, murder and looting, is it that my Confucian gentleman can't do it?" Who wouldn’t say beautiful words? Before he died in the rain, he could find someone to come up with some wonderful things for him. It is a singular slogan that can be used to write a history book for him, and he has written off the past in the dark. The Lord of the Holy Spirit, "The heart is the eternal life of all people, and the ambition of one's own industry."

It’s really great.

There is no ending, it will be better than this.

"Greedy, murder, murder, smuggling... is me... Confucian gentleman... Seven...not for..."

A faint whisper is like a thunder, screaming.

The ink burned from the muddy memories, but he was still in a mess of stars. He looked up and looked at the enchantment. He was used by Nangong to wear the Nangong Changying, who wore the arrow of the cloud.

The same face as the jade carving of that year.

Some people are exclaiming: "Nangong Temple is hurt like that, how can you pull through the cloud bow?!"

"Is that bow already prepared?!"

"Oh, there is spiritual power attached to the bow...not the South Palace! Yes, yes..."

No one said it.

But everyone knows it.

It is Nangong Changying.

The person who can control the bow of the cloud can only be controlled by Nangong Changying.

On the bow and arrow, there is the last spiritual stream left by the death of Nangong Changying.

The fire spread rapidly in the chest of Nangong Changying, and the arrow of the cloud was tied in his atrium, and the fire spread to the whole body instantly.

But the body is painless. The body of Nangong Changying looks so tall in the flames, and the face looks so calm and calm, even calm.

The ink burned and heard that Xue Zhengyi was muttering: "He had expected it?... He... Has he expected such a day?"

Do not……

It won't be expected early, it's just a coincidence.

The ink burns and the pupil is twisted into two slits -

This is just a coincidence!

But how can he convince himself? Can break away from the control of the precious pieces, the long-broken meridians, and even buried in the mountains, the martial arts that have not been buried, and the arrows that are filled with spiritual power.

... If you don't arrange it carefully, how can you do this step?

He took a step back.

He used to think that they were the same. He thought that all the legendary heroes in the world had not given birth to a pair of hands that could cover the sky. They could wipe the stains of their lives and put on a clean shroud, leaving a piece of white. He thought that Nangong Changying and the Confucianism Gate he had seen were just like a watch, but they were just wearing a beast!

Is he wrong?

He looked at Nangong Changying, who was wrapped in a splendid fire. Hundreds of years ago, like him, the spirit was amazing, and there was a long-lasting power.

Is he wrong? ? !

Nothing can be overwhelmed by sin, and the history of writing can be crowned with imperfections, and the mouth of the long-term can never be blocked.

Nangong Changying is the best person, refuses to seek hegemony, and does not fly up - he thought that it was just the power of the peak of the people to paint and hide themselves.

Is he wrong?

Nothing can bury the truth, just like the snow that will be frozen in the winter will melt away. After the white sky fades out, the earth reveals a sloping face, and all the dirt in the wrinkles is nowhere to escape. The sun shines down, they are all Screaming in the white screaming.

He... is it wrong...

The ink burned his head slowly. He stared at Nangong Changying. Nangong Changying also raised his face. He still bears the black ribbon embroidered with the dragon's ornament. No one can see his eyes. I can’t see you either.

But I don't know if it is my own illusion. I think that Nangong Changying seems to be laughing. Under the black ribbon, there are laughter lines, the fire is not exhausted, the water can't be washed away, nothing can cover the shallow veins. The smile, he is standing in the sea of fire, in the warm light, standing quietly.

If he can, he also wants to be selfish, leaving this remnant, often accompanied by Castle Peak, and later heroes.

The world is so beautiful, no one wants to go.

However, he also knows that sometimes he does not go, so he has already planned to cut the bow. It is not necessary to use it for the future.

The world is so beautiful, it is enough to have flowers, and it should not be infected with blood.

"Too's head..." Nangong held the bow of the cloud and squatted on the ground. The fire reflected his young face and also reflected the tear marks on his face. "The younger generation is not good..."

The fire of the clouds burned the precious sunspots in the body of Nangong Changying. He was about to be burned to ashes, and the whole body was getting lighter and weaker in the fire.

Nangong Changying, who was completely free, asked Nangong a sentence: "How many years have passed since the establishment of the Confucianism Gate?"

He is just a corpse, and the soul is gone.

There are not many memories and consciousness that can exist in the flesh, so you can only ask such simple things.

Nangong驷 did not dare to neglect, sobbing and answering: "The Confucianist door has been built for 421 years."

Nangong Changying licked the hoe, and now he even smiled at the lips.

He said: "Long time."

The voice was stunned, like the wind that passed through the mountains and forests.

"I thought that it would be over two hundred years." Nangong Changying's voice is gentle and generous, flowing through the leaves of the mountain. "There are lifespans in all things in the world, and the number of lives is up, non-manpower can be continued. What's more, aging has one after all." The day will be replaced by the young, and the day will be replaced by the new one. When it is used for a long time, it will become dirty and become old.

Some people will discard it and overthrow it. This is a good thing. You don't have to blame yourself."

Nangong squatted and raised his head. He was too * and looked like a white paper. His voice trembled: "Too much!"

"In fact, how long the Confucianism Gate has survived is not how many disciples are kept in the martial art for a few years." The shadow of Nangong Changying is almost invisible, and the voice is getting farther and farther. "And there are still people in this world who remember, Greed, blasphemy, murder and piracy, is my Confucian gentleman’s seven.

He said, the sleeves were scorned, and the mountains and trees were shaken in an instant, and the vines were all four, and the corpses that were about to get rid of the clamps were sunk into the depths of the earth.

"Remember it, the fire has been accepted."

After saying this, the body of Nangong Changying was in the fire, and it was broken and turned into a little bit of sputum, and the golden red starlight floated between the mountains.

The torso has disappeared, and the remaining sound has not been scattered.

In the enchantment, Nangong Temple had already been crying, and outside the enchantment, Ye Yexi had collapsed. She was paralyzed, and some people continued to kneel down. I was Changying, and Nangong was long.

After death, they are all heroes.

The author has something to say: It is not a common reference to hit a three-footer. It needs to be explained. I want to find the original source, but I can't find it. I have to say that this is a sentence that I don't know which ancestors, not my original, scratching my head.

Chapter 216

The vast mountains of Lushan returned to calm, and the blood vines disappeared. The corpses were also sunk into the depths of the earth. Nangong Changying finally gave a death order to the spirit of the dragon, even if it was his descendants, he could not reverse it.

The white wind is clear, and it is full of mess.

The wearing of the Yungong in the hands of Nangongyu was also shot after the last arrow. Because of the loss of the spiritual power of Nangong Changying, it gradually became dull and eventually sealed. He dribbled to the ground, almost at the moment when the enchantment was untied, and Ye Ye had rushed over and squatted beside him: "You don't want to move, don't move." Her voice is trembling, "I Healing for you..."

"Forget it, I could still be alive and kicking, and you will be treated. I am going to see the head of the house." Nangong 弧 gently coughed, pushed away the leaves, and the black scorpion looked at Jiang Yan, "Ginger Palm Door, still bother you..."

Jiang Yan first said: "I am coming."

He is the lord of medicine, and he is willing to help him, naturally it is beyond the reach of others.

Jiang Yuyu's white fingertips were placed on the wrist of Nangong's shackles. Almost immediately, his scorpion was slightly shrunk, and the latter words were not sent, and Nangong 驷 looked at each other.

He can clearly feel that the spiritual core of Nangong Temple has been shattered. From then on, there is no difference between ordinary people and ordinary people. They can no longer cast spells and use spiritual power.

This thing Nangong 驷 himself could not be unclear, but Ye was in the past, so he looked at Jiang Yan and shook his head slightly.

"How? Jiang Jiangmen, how is he?"

"..."

Jiang Yan silently withdrew his hand, and then took a shallow enamel bottle from the Qiankun bag and handed it to the leaf forgotten: "Nothing serious. The wounds are not harmful, the girl can rest assured. It is applied to the affected area every day for up to ten days and it will heal."

After Jiang Yan finished, he also condensed his spiritual power on his fingertips. He successively passed several acupuncture points on the Nangong Temple. Finally, the palm covered the sword, and the blood stopped. After doing all this, Jiang Yan got up and said to everyone: "This place should not stay for a long time, or threaten to change, go up the mountain."

He turned and left, and the conversation behind him and Nangong was still falling into his ears.

He heard Nangong whispering to the leaves: "It’s all right, it’s just a few days, what are you crying? Hey, it’s so useless, okay, not so much. What about a small injury..."

Jiang Yan closed his eyes.

He thought that in the enchantment, Nan Gongyi thought that he had said a few words to himself when he was hanging on the line. He sighed and led the crowd to the long white jade steps leading to the ancestral temple.

From the foot of the mountain to the top of the mountain, you need to go through three levels. You need to be smeared with the blood of the Nangong family to pass. However, at this moment, Nangong Temple does not need to cut the blood of his fingers. He is already an injury. Anyway, he can dispel the enchantment.

All the way up, no more obstacles.

When Nangong was smeared with blood on the longan of the white jade carving dragon, the last heavy stone gate slowly and solemnly sank into the ground, and the Tiangong of the foothills of the mountain was displayed in front of everyone.

It is a fairy palace, there is a dense forest outside the palace gate. They are standing outside the forest at the moment, separated by flowers and vines, and they can see the long-distance of the sky. The 95,000-90 level, the steps are so high that the top of the Ancestral Palace, such as lying in the clouds, can only see the shadows of the sacred shadows, and under the infiltration of the moonlight, the Yingying Huaguang, such as the Guanghan Palace Like Ling Xiao Temple, I don’t know the heavens and the earth.

Almost everyone saw this ancestral hall at a glance, and was shocked by its majestic and majestic work, and then it was anger, jealousy, greed, coveted... a variety of different feelings came to mind.

The most incomprehensible of these is the Ma Zhuang.

He took a forehead and screamed: "My mother, such a long step, this mountain can not be a sword, when will it go with your feet? This is another mountain!"

Huang Xiaoyue smiled and said: "The old man is not malicious, just a joke - according to the old man, the Nangong Chang Yingxian really does not have to fly, he can create such a heavenly palace, in the world and in the sky, what is there? What about?"

Suddenly, someone heard cold and cold: "The Confucianism Gate sacrificed the Heavenly Palace, which was built in the third generation of the head of the Nangong reputation. It was completed in the second generation and was completed in the fifth head of Nangongxian. This Tiangong, together with Nangong Changying No involvement."

Huang Xiaoyue: "..."

He turned his head back, and it was a very cold face of Chu's late night. When you look at this face, you know that Chu Ning has almost endured the limit. Just add another fire. I am afraid that the old things of the people can be repeated.

Chu night Ning said coldly: "As Huang Xianchang, I did not admit any malicious advice. Before the book is read, it is best to learn to be careful."

Huang Xiaoyue has always been face-to-face, in the presence of the younger generations, and was so unwilling to break through the lateness of Chu, and it was extremely embarrassing. The lips were waiting to say what counterattacks came. I heard Jiang Yandao: "Huang Xiaoyue, the reputation of Nangong Xianchang Are you jokes?"

Jiang Yan’s speech, status and position are self-evident. Huang Xiaoyue’s face is as earthy, but he still calmly and calmly laughs twice: “Why should Jiang’s head be taken seriously, the old man said it, not malicious...”

"Is it because you said that you are not malicious, will you condone your malice?" Jiang Yan turned his eyes coldly and squinted at Huang Xiaoyue. He didn't even want to give him his eyes. "Is it because of your aging, Bear your ignorance and ignorance?"

"..." Chu Zongshi is a master, but in the end, he has only the ability and no real power. However, Jiang Yan is not the same. Today, it is a solitary night, coughing, and the comprehension community must be shaking with three shakes. Huang Xiaoyue is cold and sweaty, and he dares not say anything more.

Ginger smashed his sleeves and walked into the woods, heading for the long steps at the end of the woods. The rest of the heads were either scorned or sympathetically glanced at Huang Xiaoyue. Of course, they also completely ignored Huang Xiaoyue. They all followed up and left. The abbot of Wushang Temple also sighed "Amitabha". If it is not forced by circumstances, it will burn. I can really laugh out loud.

They walked in the forest, but did not take a few steps, Nangong 驷 "Hmm?"

Jiang Yan asked: "What happened?"

"Orange tree..." Nangong Temple looked around, orange trees everywhere, and white orange flowers. "How can it be orange trees? The original plants here are all dragon girls."

"Look over there!" His voice did not fall, and suddenly there was a small tip of the eye pointing at the distant springs and whispering, "There is a person there!"

The people followed his fingers and saw that next to the spring of the mountain, under a leafy orange tree, a man was sitting back to them, burying his head.

Xue Zhengyi frowned: "Is it a ghost?"

Ink burning: "I will go see."

His light work was excellent, but he rushed past, but he was quietly and silently concealed in the nearby trees, and then carefully walked around and rolled to the side.

He is stunned.

Because he saw the man's face.

That is the father of Nangong Temple, the last generation of the Confucianist Gate.

- Nangong Liu.

what happened? Was Nangong Liu not fed the Lingqi fruit? ! It was supposed to have died after three hundred and sixty-five days of torture, but why did he seem to have a complete flesh at the moment, the old * is there, even in a good mood, sitting next to the clear spring...

Wash a basket of oranges? ?

Qingquan opened a round of wave of light, the silver moon is shattered in the spring water, according to the face of Nangong Liu, he took a near-dreaming look, humming the little song, draining the washed oranges one by one, and then Put it in the back of the back.

"The weak crown is the best, the light hoof is fast, and you can see the world."

Nangong Liu sang softly, his sleeves were high, and his arms were immersed in clear water. His arms were intact and he did not swallow the mottled scars of the people who had the lingering fruit.

The ink-burning eyebrows are twisted into a Sichuan word. He can clearly perceive the wrongness of Nangong Liu. This person has obviously been made into a chess game, and the bodies in the tomb are different. Nangong Liu is obviously kept very much. A large part of his own consciousness, just looking at his behavior, is not much different from a normal living person.

"how about it?"

Xue Zhengxuan saw that the ink burned quickly and returned, and immediately asked anxiously.

The ink burned first looked at Nangong Temple, and then whispered: "It is Nangong Liu."

There were many people in the scene who had hatred with Nangong Liu. On the spot, there was a monk brushing the sword: "The beast! I will kill him!"

Nangong’s eyes are dull, his face is burnt, and his head is dull: “...”

Ink ignited: "There is a sigh, this Nangong Liu is obviously controlled by the Zhenqi chess game, but the strange thing is that he did not swallow the scar of Ling Xiaoguo. I don't think it would be better to slam him."

After the late night, Chu said, "Is it possible to eliminate the effect of Lingqiuo?"

This kind of problem is best at the lonely moon night, the cold scale saint: "It can be, it is more trouble. I think Xu Shuanglin will not give him a lingering effect, and then he will help him to unravel the curse of the fruit." It doesn't make sense to do so."

Jiang Yandao: "In any case, Nangong Liu is here, Xu Sulin should be in the palace of the ancestral temple, this time we have not run again."

He was saying this, Yu Guang suddenly saw a shadow in the distance, Jiang Yan turned his head, others followed his gaze and saw the front door of the Confucianist door carrying a basket full of oranges, from When he came out of the woods, he still had a scepter in his hand, and he slammed the ground and walked briskly. When he was close, he could see that his face was still laughing.

Nangong驷 had already made up his mind not to look at it, but he still couldn’t hold back. He looked up at his father, and his eyelashes were like a gust of wind. He couldn’t tell if he was at the moment. What do you feel, hate? Distressed? Still something else?

He didn't know, he wanted to look away, but the figure was like a hook, and it was impossible to loosen it when it was hooked.

At this time, suddenly there was a violent sigh of people who couldn’t help feeling: "Nan Gongliu! Today, you will be asked for blood debts!"

With a bang, the feather arrow is off the string and straight to the back of Nangongliu.

Others are waiting to stop it, but fortunately, the bowman's bow is not good, but the screaming long arrow plunges into the back of Nangong Liu's body and pierced several rounded oranges.

Suddenly, many people are secretly concealing in their hearts. It is not good for people. It is always mixed with so many silly things that mix the water, but at the moment, it is meaningless to think about which idiot puts the cold arrows. What is important is that Nangong Liu has already noticed their existence and slowly turned his head.

I saw so many people standing in the forest, Nangong Liu first stunned, and then walked towards them, his face is still the kind of illusory color.

As he walked closer and closer, many monks had already exposed the swords at the waist a few inches, and both eyes were extremely alert to stare at him. Nan Gongliu seemed to feel some pressure under the gaze of thousands of eyes. He stopped at a slow pace and stood between the swaying trees.

"You..."

As soon as he opened his mouth, his death was broken. There were dozens of people who couldn't resist it. He stepped forward and stepped forward. Several people even had their swords.

Nan Gong Liu suddenly smiled, this smile, standing at the front of the array of several heads are very familiar, this is the kind of charming and warm smile of Nan Gongliu once faced everyone.

Take a trip to the palace of the Snow Palace: "This..."

Several palms face each other, I feel that this piece is too strange. I don’t know what medicine is sold in the gourd. At this time, I saw the Nangong Liu Yan’s left and right sleeves, and the sleeves were all down, and then they actually doubled. Kneeling, a respectful voice was made to hundreds of monks.

"Oh, the slaves Nangong Liu, this court is courteous, all the guests come from afar, there is a far-reaching welcome, there is a far-reaching welcome-"

As he licked his head, the orange bones behind his basket rolled out mostly, and all sprinkled around.

Nangong Liu Yan finished his head and squatted on the ground. He put down his back and licked the oranges without any sorrow. Under the gaze of the crowd, he sorted the oranges again and then smiled and said: "You are a guest, but you have to Go see your majesty?"

His Majesty? !

The smoldering moment started a goose bump. After all, he was called by him for nearly ten years. He heard the word "陛下" and actually habitually felt that he was calling himself.

The other few heads are confused. Look at me, I look at you, Xue Zhengyi even laughs, and no one even picks up.

Nangong Liu saw everyone ignore him, and some scratched his head, and cautiously asked: "Hey, you are expensive, but you have to go to see you?"

Jiang Yan: "..."

Nangong Liu was slightly discouraged, but he repeatedly asked: "Guests, but are you going to see your majesty?"

"..."

"You are expensive -"

The ink burned quietly and asked him: "Who is your majesty?"

"Your Majesty is His Majesty." Nangong Liu see finally got someone to care for him. He looked very happy and said, "If you want to see your Majesty, you must go up all the time, but he is very busy, but he does not necessarily have the time to take care of you. He has great things in the world. Take care of it."

Xue Zhengxuan finally couldn't help himself. Rao was such a arrogant atmosphere. He couldn't help but laugh. "What's the big thing in the world? Haha, what's the big thing in the world? Manage a dead man on the hill, play chess with himself, play Playing the line, this is also called the world big thing? Hahahaha Xu Shuanglin, this person, he too, too funny."

There was a layer of restless haze between the ink-burning eyebrows. He then asked: "It means that he is in the Heavenly Palace at the moment. Although it is very busy, we can go see him, right?"

"Yeah." Nangong Liudao, "Of course you can go see him. If he closes the door and thank you, you will wait in the city. If you are finished, you will come out. If you don't say it, don't say it, I have to go to the top, and the oranges on the top are finished, so I have to make up soon, or I will be angry when I am a little late."

He said, the path has been gone, and everyone who stays is facing each other.

"How to do?"

"Go up?"

"Is there any fraud?"

However, the ink burned on the ground and he rushed to the ground. He quickly stalked the Nangong Liu, who was carrying a man and climbed up the orange, and left everyone behind.

He eventually gasped and took the lead to reach the Heavenly Palace. Standing in front of the main hall, he looked up and found out how magnificent the palace was. Only the two palace gates have the potential to cover the sun, and the reliefs from Huangquan to the blue sky are engraved on the upper side. The left side of the gate is the dragon to swallow the sun, the right side is the fire and the moon, the sun and the moon, the glory, the dragon, the dragon The scales of the scales are filled with melted pure gold, and the momentum is amazing. The tails of the phoenix are inlaid with pearls and gems. There is a whale oil bronze Chiba lamp hanging from the dome of the palace. The lights are not extinguished for thousands of years. Under the reflection of these thousands of candles, this Tongtianmen is even more beautiful and beautiful.

The burning of the ink thought that this door was heavy and difficult to open. However, the finger touched the facade, but it was just a touch. With the thunder of the rumble, the dragon and the phoenix did not eliminate him and used a little effort to slowly Retracted...

Just as I saw the moment in the front hall of the Temple of Heaven, the whole person burned in the same place.

This... What exactly is this awkward sight? !

Chapter 217

He walked on the long axis walkway in the front hall of the Temple of Heaven. Every brick and stone at the foot was light, and it was like a thin ice, reflecting his figure.

Hey. Hey. Hey.

Step by step, the empty footsteps echoed in the hall alone.

But the ink is not lonely. He is not alone. He is standing at the end of the trail where the Confucianism is not seen at the end of the pilgrimage. The two sides are full of people, men, women, old, young, and a look. Different faces.

He stood in the middle. It was like a small city. On his left hand side, the corpse of the Confucianism Gate, the people who were sorry for Xu Shuanglin, became despicable people, were delayed, were separated, and executed in various criminal laws. Then he resurrected and revived and executed. On the other side, the song and dance are flat and free.

He even saw Luo Fibre, it should not be the real soul, but the appearance of other dead bodies with illusion, controlled by the sunspots, and the same as the Jin Chengchi.

Luo fibritated and rolled up, at the moment with her husband Chen Bozhen, two people squatted to ease and leisurely.

He also saw the little daughter outside Chen’s staff, sitting next to his brother and nephew, and talking to them with a smile. And Luo Fibre is leaning against Chen Bozhen. When she hears interesting things, she covers her mouth with her sleeves and smiles with a big brow.

This kind of scene is beautiful and dreamy, but it can be seen that the back of the ink is cold.

He paced in this long walkway. Half of the hell, half of heaven, the good and the evil are clearly divided. He is laughing and laughing on the left and suffering on the right.

He walked forward, as if he was walking through the water and the fire, the light and the shadow. He looked to the left, and the hundred butterflies flew in a cluster of flowers. A stream of water came out from behind the pillars. The inside was smashing the wine, next to the wine river. While reading a book leisurely, some people are making poems in poetry, children are laughing, and women are drunk and lying.

He looked to the right, Ding Hao hot, hot cooking oil, a writhing body was poured on the oil, was pulled out of the heart, people cursed each other, biting each other, eyes flashing like a beast .

He also saw the former abbot of the Wuxi Temple, the old monk who planned the blackout of the Lingshan Conference. He was surrounded by three people. Everyone held a small rusty knife in his hand and cut him separately. Faces, legs and brothers, one knife and one knife, the cut flesh quickly recovered, so the old monk couldn’t stop screaming, but only the unspeakable roar - his rumored tongue It has already been ripped off.

The more the ink burns, the more chilling.

He didn't even want to look at both sides, crying, laughing, angry, hi.

On the left, there is a woman who is softly saying: "Life and death, lonely life. Some lovers can't call a lover should..."

On the right side, a woman was bitten by a bad dog and screamed in a scream.

Half of his afterglow sees the light, and half sees the darkness. These light and darkness are absolutely absolute, like the chess pieces on the board, black and white, and clear and clear.

The ink burns only feels a headache.

He stood in the middle, and he simply stopped and squinted his eyes, not willing to see the scene of the nine days of integration with purgatory.

He was in the same place, waiting for his footsteps to catch up with his fast troops.

"The leaves are scared and the dreams are gone..."

"No! Don't do this to me any more! Please beg you! Save me... save me..."

But the sounds on both sides are endless, like an arrow, three points into the wood.

He heard Luo fiercely and gently said to his husband: "Chen Lang, the orange flowers in the courtyard are all open, I will lead you to see, okay?"

He heard Jiang Dongtang’s forefoot door, Qin’s sorrowful laughter: “Tong· rape? Hahahaha, yes, I am a traitor with Nangong Liu! I am a slut, a woman, I am One □□□□□—— —— —— —— —— —— —— ——
—— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— ——
—— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— ——
—— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— —— ——

Everything is gathered together.

Live, dead.

Real or fantasy?

Is it black or white, is it good or evil?

The sound around it is getting like a tide. The tides and waves are ups and downs. He seems to see two giant dragons breaking out of the water. The moon shines on their frosty scales.

Is that two dragons?

No, that is the two souls of oneself.

I started fighting again, and I was snarling in the spurt of the dragon.

The ground shakes the mountain.

The ink burns can't stand this crazy noise. He grabs his ears, but he still can't stop the two complicated voices. Finally he can't stand it. He has to raise his hand and drop the curse of the snoring.

He slammed his eyes open.

The surrounding scenes have disappeared.

The ink burns.

He is kneeling in the ground - what happened? How did the surrounding scene disappear?

where is he?

Why is it everywhere black, an endless black...

Is it the illusion set by Xu Shuanglin?

The ink burns around and there is nothing. One is dark.

He took a few steps and tried to scream: "Master?"

"Xue Meng?"

"Someone is here?"

No one answered him, black, dead black.

Rao has seen countless storms, and this black is still awkward. He walked forward, his goose bumps on his arms, and he went forward...

Suddenly, he saw a faint white light shining far away in front of him, which seemed to be an exit.

He went to that place.

Suddenly there was a shadow around him, and the faces were not so clear, but he heard the slang of those people, and the tide generally slammed him down.

Those people are squatting, their voices are low, and they converge into a river.

"Congratulations to step on the emperor, life and heaven."

Stepping on the emperor?

no no!

He groaned, he trembled, and he shuddered. He went all out with all his strength, but it seemed that there were thousands of hands coming in from all directions to catch him.

"His Majesty--"

"Tai Xianjun Ze is eternal."

"The life is endless, and Fulu is not."

The smoldering was forced to be a little crazy. He tried to break the pair of invisible hands. He ran toward the line of light: "No, not me... walk away... go away!"

"Tai Xianjun..."

But those voices follow the shape, lingering, and the ink burns to see if Xu Shuanglin is smashing the evil spirits of the ghost world. At this moment, they all come out and take him away.

"Why are you going to leave?"

"Emperor, Emperor..."

The ink burned his feet, and his eyes flashed with blazing light. He wanted to go, but all the grievances were trapping him. He was forced to be trapped. He had no way to hide, so he was furious and he turned his head. Suddenly, the sword was squandered, and those illusions were broken into broken darkness.

He looks like a wolf like a leopard.

"Roll!!" he muttered. "Take all the seats! Roll!"

The voice fell and his face was awkward.

He heard someone muttering around and snickering: "This seat?"

"He said this seat... yes... he is talking about this seat..."

"Emperor, where are we wrong? You should also know who you are in your own heart, where did you come from, you can't escape."

The ink burned back with the sword and shook his head: "No, no... not like..."

The black smoke that had been smashed by him was re-gathered, and a vague shadow fell in front of him, and he stepped forward toward him.

The shadow said softly: "What is it?"

"I am not stepping on Xianjun!"

"How come you are not stepping on Xianjun?" The voice is soft and soft, like the thin smoke rising in the summer gauze. "Of course, you have a debt, you can only escape, you can't escape... ..."

"But it's over!" The ink burned staring at the dark shadow. "It's over! Stepping Xianjun has already died in front of the Tongtian Tower. He entered the tomb and has nothing to do with me! I am just... I am just..."

The shadow smiled softly, and the flower was as delicate: "What are you?"

Ink burning: "..."

“Are you just a returning soul?” it asked. “I just saved a memory of the flesh? Are you just an innocent life living under the shadow of the fairy? Or... Are you just a dream?”

If you say that you are still angry and fearful, when this sentence comes out, the emotion of burning is like ice, and the blood around you is frozen.

He was almost a bit stunned. He didn't react. He tried to talk, but he couldn't say a complete sentence for a long time. Later, he spoke, his voice groaned, and the hollowed out pipe only dug a broken word: "……dream?"

"You always think that you have been born again, but who can say it right? Do you think it is true? Is it true that you or me?" The smog is surrounded by him, and the more it gathers Clearly, "You said that you died under the Tongtian Tower, but you are now standing here lively... Are you really dead?"

The ink burned the black smoke.

He no longer trembled, he only felt cold, like an ice cave, and stepped into the abyss.

It’s so cold.

Did he really die?

The chill of Wushan Temple seems to be still immersed in the bone marrow. The fire of the top ten sects of the uprising is like a long snake smashing his neck from the foot of the mountain.

Xue Meng seems to have just stood in front of him, with nothing, tears, and all said: "Ink, put my master, return it to me."

Did he really die?

He remembered that he had taken it down, and he was very devastated. He came to the Tongtian Tower and used his last strength to climb into the tomb and lay in the coffin.

The jellyfish blossoms are very gentle, faintly fragrant, and the sky is full of clouds and shadows.

He closed his eyes...

"Then you open your eyes. You returned to the age of sixteen, and when you get back to everything, you can save it, right?"

The black image is able to see through his heart, laughing and whispering.

"You are back, the death and death are not destroyed, although the Confucianism Gate is turned into a scorched earth for the second time, but it is not what you do. Ye Yexiu did not die, Shi Mingjing did not. You saw your mind, you fell in love with Chu. Late Ning, you became the Mo Zongshi. He finally accepted you. You thought you were free. Now that you are the first of the righteous army, the Qingzheng Dao is the younger generation of young people in the mountains who want to take the leader of the bully, Xu Shuanglin."

A few deaths.

The blood vessels in the neck of the neck swelled in a sudden motion, along with a fierce heartbeat.

The shadow didn't look good, but it was looking at him, and he knew it was glaring at him.

"You want to be beautiful."

The cold sword wears the heart and the fangs pierce the neck.

The smoldering can hear the despair spread in one's own body, the toxins generally spread, and like the deadly poison that he took under the age of 32, spread... immersed in the liver and gallbladder... immersed in the heart...

"You are not born again, you are dead, everyone is dead, Xue Meng is still alive but he hates you." The shadow said, "Now the dream is awake, blink of an eye, step on the fairy, you, Still the Lord of Darkness."

"No..." The smoldering heard someone talking, the voice was so weak and broken, as if it had been defeated countless times and then glued together, and then he was surprised to find that the person who said this voice was actually himself," no……"

He spurred the courage of every drop of blood in every inch of his bones. He stared at his eyes, and there was a madness in his eyes.

"You lie! Nothing! Nothing!!"

He gathered swords and sighed in anger.

The smoky smoke has dispersed.

But its voice did not scatter, it smiled in a low voice: "Lie? But kneel, you might as well look down, what is in your hand, what is it?"

Chapter 218

He bowed his head.

He slammed down -

The blood is almost backflowing, the brain creaking, he saw... no return.

Holding in his hand, it is actually the blade of the hundred wars, and the gods will not return!

The dark knife is lying in the middle of this night, the handle is slender, hard, Tang knife, no sheath, very similar to the sword.

At the handle of a gold ring, there are two very strong words:

Do not. Return.

Biye Zhuqiao, when things happened.

After another year, Jun will not return.

The ink burns like a thunder, and the light in his scorpion is as thin as a needle. The color on his face is paler than the dead.

"No... no... no... no!"

He was almost desperate, and he did not return to the ground, but Shenwu and his heart were automatically at the waist.

"No!" In the hysterical smoldering, he tried to summon the devil. He wanted the red willow, and he summoned it over and over again, but he didn't come.

No ghosts, no * whip.

Only not to accompany him.

"Do you believe now?" The shadows of the ghosts are gathering again. This time, the gathering is faster than before. It quickly has shapes, limbs, waist, and head...

The ink burns and refuses to believe.

He refused to believe.

He stopped paying attention to the black smoke, and he ran to the end of the bright light.

This is the fantasy of Xu Shuanglin... This is just a fantasy...

Go to the place where the light is, and everything is over.

He ran to the other side and ran away.

But the arm was once again tightly held.

The ink burned and refused to pay attention to it. He opened it and he angered: "Get out! Go away! What is true? Can you know more than me? What is true? I know what is true! He treats me. Ok, it’s true! He’s not dead, it’s true! How can he and I have been faked in the past few years?! Jin Chengchi’s peach blossoms, the ghost town of Caidie, we’ll end up –”

The voice interrupted him softly, almost sighingly: "A burning, the person who is with you is me, why don't you remember?"

He looked back and saw that the black fog had been formed, and a face was so beautiful that it was a fascinating thing. It was really a human being. She gently leaned over and wore a head full of pearls and plaques. Bright red attire.

"Xu Yingfeng, I can't walk, you are carrying me up. You make me not want to call you down, from now on, only call you Ah, have you forgotten?"

Her smile was soft and weary, but the strength of her hand was amazing.

The ink burned and broke away from her, this is not Song Qiutong, his wrist has been smashed, he continues to move forward, the white light is getting closer...

He seems to know that it is the way out.

Go over there... just go there...

He heard Song Qiutong smile behind him and said, "Your Majesty, where are you going? Chu nightning is already dead, you are alive and dead, do you really want to go there?"

"..."

"There is..."

He didn't understand it. He broke free from the shackles of those ghosts who were desperately screaming. He ran wildly. He threw her voice behind his head. The white sky was brighter and brighter in front of his eyes. He was like a man who was about to die on the bottom of the sea. He tried his best to squat on his feet and swam toward the broken light and shadow of the sea.

suddenly!

He slammed into the grand white light and the darkness disappeared.

He gasped, his feet were faint, and he couldn't help but sigh. Like a person who had just started from the water, he greedily breathed. He couldn't adapt to such glare for a time. He raised his arm to cover his eyes and passed it for a while. He heard the bird's humming and smelled the faint fragrance of Xifu Haitang.

He slowly opened his eyes.

……where is he?

The first thing I saw was the luxuriant Begonia tree, which was full of thin red and smashed, just like the brocade.

Not in the ancestral temple of Confucianism.

This illusion... is it still not over?

But his heart has gradually fallen apart, and he suddenly did not know who he is, where is the dream, and where is the truth.

He sat up, and a residual flower of the sea otter that had fallen on his nose was floating on his knees.

……sit up?

He discovered that he was actually lying down, just like he had just finished a nightmare. He looked around and was in front of the tower of the towering life, while he himself sat in a black lacquer and was open. In the coffin.

In an instant, the ink burned and the fingertips seemed to be cool.

He had been stunned for a while, then squatted up and squatted out of the coffin. He saw a monument in front of the coffin. There was no word on it. Instead, he put a bowl of hand-picked, a few dishes, and he liked it most. food. He stared at the things and he stared at the coffin.

Do not……

Do not.

The nightmare is not over.

He fell into a deeper nightmare, or is he now sober?

Is that what the black shadow said is true?

He really only served □□, lying down in front of the tower, made a long and long dream? Everything in the dream is...

He didn't dare to think about it anymore. He climbed up insanely and ran straight to the south peak of the dead.

But unlike his dying in his memory, he remembered that he had squandered everyone all the time, but he ran halfway, and a line of palace people rushed out. The one headed by him was Liu Lao who had served him for many years. Liu Lao holds a box, and the wrinkled face is full of joy: "Your Majesty, regenerate the fairy medicine, find it! This is the reborn fairy medicine!"

He stopped in a hurry.

He bowed down to congratulate him, Liu Lao also kneels down, a pair of withered hands are presented in a brocade box, twitching and handing to the ink, hoarsely said: "Fairy medicine, the medicine that has been seeking for the sacred, has finally touched the gods. This one is..."

The ink burned and said: "No... I, haven't I all chased you down the mountain?"

The servants were as earthy, and they were beheaded again and again. Liu Lao was extremely frightened: "Why did you want to drive us away? But where do the old slaves serve? The old slaves-"

"What about the top ten sects?"

Liu Lao was confused and looked up: "What ten sects? Your Majesty, what happened to you?"

When the ink-burning knowledge was unclear, he pulled him to the Tongtian Tower to see him. When he came out of the jungle, he pointed to the tomb in front of the tower: "Look over there, I just slept there, I-"

He turned his head and found that his coffin and tomb had disappeared.

Only the tombs of two solitary queens and nephews stood on the top of his head, and his dog crawled.

Ink burning: "..."

Liu Lao worried: "Your Majesty, what happened to you?"

"I..." The ink stared at the two graves. His consciousness was already chaotic. For a moment, he could clearly realize that all of this was fake, but the next moment he felt that the real thing was intertwined. I can't tell where I am, what the year is.

Liu Lao sighed and said: "Your sorrow is too deep, dreaming?"

"Not a dream..." The ink snorted, but then shook his head again, pale face. "No, of course it is a dream..." He said indecently for a long time, then he turned his face and stared at Liu Lao. What about the rebirth?"

Liu Lao put the box up.

He didn't pick up the box, he opened it straight, and there was a white jade-like pill, which exudes a warm luster.

He picked it up in a trembling motion, his throat twitching, and then headed for the direction of the red lotus.

However, Liu Lao suddenly took him, and the ink burned back. His nerves had been stretched to the extreme and he was about to break the string. He asked, "What happened?"

Liu Lai, who was still happy with Yan Yue, suddenly fell into a sullen face, his eyes flashing with a sly luster, and he said with sullenness: "Your Majesty, but in the wrong direction?"

"What went wrong?"

"The place where you should go is the soul-seeking platform." Liu Lao said slowly, and the servants also slowly came up, surrounded the ink-burning group and slowly approached. "Your Majesty has always been thinking about it." Isn't it necessary to resurrect your brother, is the teacher clear?"

"I……"

"Now the rebirth of the fairy medicine is in hand, why did you leave the soul-stricken platform, but instead ran to the red lotus water?" Liu Lao secluded, "Your Majesty for this rebirth, killing thousands of people, stepping on the Confucianism, let the world The sorrows and sorrows of the wild, the blood flow into the river, is it necessary to do all of this under the arm, and finally it is necessary to violate the original intention, and turn this medicinal medicine into another population?"

The ink burned in a mess, and he held the fairy medicine tightly. He said, "You don't understand."

"Your Majesty must go to the soul station, not to the red lotus water." All the people have a terrible light shining in their eyes, the ghostly face, they are around him, repeating, "Your Majesty must go to the soul platform, not to go to Honglian Otter!"

The smoldering will protect the fairy medicine, and his face is pale and white, saying: "Give me away."

"Your Majesty must go to the Souls -"

"Step aside!"

He pulled out and held the cold handle. Those people seemed to be shivering, and then the eyes became as narrow as a snake, and each one showed a distorted smile.

"You will be retributed..."

"What do you think you can change?"

"There is no word."

"Towards three."

"Oh, how can such a person with a sense of ignorance possess a fairy medicine."

"Get back! Take it back!"

The ink burned the fairy medicine, slammed open a * road, and ran to the southern peak of the dead. Whether it is a dream or a real thing, he knows that Chu is rather there... Whether it is life or death, he has to go there, he wants to be around the night, and he can be safe.

He ran into the enchantment of the red lotus.

Liu Lao and others have been blocked from the border.

He looked back at them and then closed the blue bamboo poles. He didn't want to see the extra people again. Here is the red lotus water, only if he has himself, and...

"Master?"

He was slightly surprised by the surprise. He saw that Chu Ning was standing under a bractal tree, wearing a high ponytail and wearing metal gloves. He was concentrating on debugging a night machine that was about to be completed. . The wind is blowing, the pale pink petals are blowing, falling in front of the snow in the first place, on the table, gentle and gentle.

The ink burns the end of the eye and it is wet red, and it has already choked.

"Master respect..."

Chu Xiaoning heard his voice and looked up. Because he was busy, he also bit a small sickle and saw the ink burned. He was very surprised and took the sickle. Then he straightened up and nodded at him. :"How did you come?"

Chapter 219

The ink burned without answering words, or he couldn't answer the words. He stepped forward and couldn't help but hug Chu.

"……what happened to you?"

The arms are cool clothes and warm body.

"How come you cry?"

He doesn't know, dream, true?

He is no longer clear, but in the red lotus water, there is no body that is cold and cold in the evening. His master is still alive, and he is still worried that the joints of the night * are not flexible enough. He is considering whether to brush the tung oil or the varnish.

This seems to be enough.

He was indulged in this moment and didn't want to wake up again.

Together with Chu Yuening, he completed the mech, and it was already late, so he pulled Chu and returned to the room, as if he had been born before, and he was stalked with his neck.

Chu Xi Ning in the dream is not so docile, he always has such a slap in the face, so that can not be put down.

Even if you are happy in the bed, you often bite your lower lip when you vent it. The phoenix contains water vapor, but it doesn't scream, but it is heavy and can't be contained.

The candlelight did not go out, the melting lamp reflected the face of the person underneath, and the ink burned almost obsessively gazing at his fascinating appearance. He stared at the facial features of Chu’s late night, his eyebrows, staring at the black scorpion of Chu’s late night. The shadow of the candle is immersed in the scorpion.

The shadow of the candle sways, like a petal in the deep pool.

When the ink burns, the petals sway and float in the pool, and the wheel is opened. Finally, the moist water vapor falls from the end of the night, and is kissed by the ink.

He knows very well what kind of person is late at night. If he does not need medicine, it is difficult to be in love. His self-control is really regrettable.

But what about it?

Tears are uncontrollable, and the rapid breathing is also the same. It doesn't matter if you don't call it. Watching him be sobbed by himself, dry to the flushed eyes, the strong chest can't keep ups and downs, and the gasps are good.

After a night of sorrow, I went to sleep when I arrived.

The smoldering person embraced the person in his arms, and each other was sweaty. The hot and hot body was attached to the hot and hot body, and even the hair was stuck on the buccal side.

He kissed Chu's earlobe and neck with tenderness and lingering, and he held him tighter in his arms.

"That's fine, Master, now you are by my side, that's fine."

He slept.

He opened his eyes and was shocked that Chu Ning was not on his side.

"Master?!"

Sit up.

Then he saw that Chu was standing in the semi-open Xuan window, it was already dawn, and there was light rain outside the window.

The ink sighed and he reached out to him: "Master, come here..."

However, Chu nightning did not move, he was dressed neatly, white snow, quietly looking at the man on the bed. The ink burned on him, and suddenly a strong uneasiness rose from his heart.

Chu night Ning said to him: "The ink burns, I should go."

"Go?" He groaned, the mattress was still hot, there was a broken hair on the pillow, and there was a faint obscenity, but Chu nighting stood in front of his eyes, but it seemed to be separated by a lake and a sea. Thin, ink burns, "Where are you going? Here is the red lotus, it is your home, we are already at home, where are you going?"

Chu night Ning shook his head. He turned his face and looked at the paleness that gradually appeared outside the window. He said: "Without time, the sky will be bright."

"Late Ning!!"

Just a wink.

The room was empty, and nothing left.

He rushed from the bed, and the shoes and socks were not allowed to wear, so he rushed out the door.

The wind blows away in the night, and the snow falls to zero. Last night, the splendid crabapple flower has been knocked down. The residual flowers are covered with steps and tables and chairs. The stone table is also filled with a finished night god, metal gloves and sickle. Just thrown aside, it seems that Chu Xiaoning has just left, as if Chu will rather come back at any time.

"Night? Late Ning!"

He madly ran in the red lotus water, looking for, but he has been around the lotus pond, he did not dare to go to the lotus pond in the subconscious, he did not dare to go...

But he eventually went to the past with a lost soul.

With bare feet, step on the cool bluestone road.

He was able to stand still a long distance from the lotus pond. From the pale toes all the way up, the last thing I could see was an unmanned face.

He was wide-eyed, and he looked at the man lying in the lotus pond, and the last two years before his death, almost every day.

Lying in the depths of the flowers, the body is not decaying, the collar is clean, and what is the difference when living?

……What's the difference! ! !

He walked over step by step.

Nearly.

More recent.

As long as you go further, you can come to the pool and you can see each of his eyelashes. After his death, he seems to be a slightly squinting eyebrow, no longer the open eyes.

But he slammed down.

Kneeling on the slate, he groaned, trembling and shuddering for a while, he suddenly thought of the fairy medicine that Liu Lao gave him, and he could resurrect the fairy medicine. He was so ecstatic, his fingers were trembling and trembled. Looking for the Qiankun bag, he pulled out the pieces inside.

"The fairy medicine... the fairy medicine... I want the fairy medicine that can be brought back to life... The fairy medicine? What about the fairy medicine?!!!"

Everything was all over, and he turned the entire Qiankun bag to the bottom, and he refused to let him go through the inch of the needle.

But no.

The fairy medicine is gone, and the fairy medicine is not inside.

Maybe it’s only a time to hit Liu Lao and get the fairy medicine. Is that a dream?

No, this is a dream, it’s one after another...

He collapsed, his consciousness was chaotic, and he raised his hand in desperately rubbing his cheeks and eyelids. He murmured: "No, yes... I clearly put it inside... Fairy medicine... There is a fairy medicine ...some...some..."

He once again frantically searched for it, so he looked around in the hysterical form of Chu’s body, and his eyes twitched with horrible glow, but the voice was more and more sobbing, more and more desperate, he finally leaned over. Cried in tears.

"I put it in, I put it in!!"

As soon as he opened his hands and smashed the debris in front of him, countless jingling porcelain bottles rolled down and even shattered. He crawled forward and smashed in a piece of debris, and the pieces plunged into his flesh and knees. He didn't care, he climbed over to the man lying in the lotus pond.

He finally took him out of the pool and held the cold body in his arms.

- That was what he had always wanted to do before he had never done.

He was holding the body of Chu Xinning, the drizzle was still lingering, and the sky was lit up layer by layer, but it had nothing to do with him. He was holding Chu’s body and crying, he was sticking to his cheek. Kissing his nose, eyelashes, lips.

"Master...I beg you...justify me...please beg you..."

At that moment, his figure and the body that had been ruined by his mother on the mass grave, and the orphans who pleaded with the gentleman to bury him with his mother, overlapped.

That year, he was only five years old. A five-year-old child vowed never to see someone who loves to be close to him. In front of him, the musculoskeletal bones rot and fall into the mud.

A dazzling, so many years have passed, the 32-year-old Teng Xianjun holding the body of his master, sometimes laughing and laughing, sometimes crying.

It was a body that was the same as before, and he did it. He could make the dead as a living person. The skin of the body even seemed to have a pale blood color, and it looked like a peaceful sleep.

This time he did not beg anyone to bury him with Chu Yuning.

But Stepping Xianjun himself has buried himself alive. On the day after Chu’s death, he drank a jar of pears and white flowers. Later, every day, every day, he was in a tomb of a living dead named Honglian Water Margin. In the drunk, dreams of death. From that day on, he has buried himself.

"Master, you rationalize me..."

"Ink burning!"

"You...justify me..."

He vaguely heard someone calling him, a familiar voice. The surrounding area was dark again. He then grabbed a piece of driftwood like a dying person. Someone reached out to him. He choked and held the man tightly. "You don't want to go, I don't do anything bad or bad." No longer make you angry..."

He climbed the man's finger and handed him a finger.

He smelled a touch of floral fragrance and the aroma of sea otters.

"I have a dead medicine that I am still alive, but I... I don't know why, I can't find it... I can't find it, but can you not go, please?" He followed without hesitation. The place where the warm body is, he hugged the body. "Please, I would rather..."

"The person I would rather die is me."

"Ink! I wake up!"

But he can't wake up, the pain is deeper than the sea, he is going to die, he can't wake up.

His throat whimpered, and he hugged the man who called him. The ciliary was so moist: "I would rather die than me, Master..."

"Dog stuff! What are you doing! Hello!"

Suddenly a man rushed over, grabbed him, and then surrounded a mess, someone poured a cold water between his lips and teeth.

The ink burned and chilled, and the water was cold like the millennium ice, almost freezing his lungs.

He blinked sharply!

"..."

The first thing that caught my eye was Jiang Yan’s gloomy face, holding a blue-colored jade bottle in his hand, and apparently he was given what he was in the bottle.

"I……"

As soon as he spoke, he found that his throat was hoarse and he couldn't say more.

Then he looked around and found himself back to the Zongtang Tiangong. The cold sweat had drenched the heavy clothes. The people around him looked at him strangely, especially Xue Meng. His face was white and white, very unsightly.

I was lying on the knees of Chu night, and my hands were tightly holding the waist of Chu’s late night. The nightly dress that Chu’s original dress was so sloppy, had been pulled in his dreams, and the robe of the robe was Sliding to the shoulder.

Ink burning: "..."

He didn't... he didn't say anything that shouldn't be said?

Chu’s face is not good-looking, but it’s still quite calm. He said: “Why is it so fast for a person to run forward?”

"Master, I... I am..."

"You are stunned." Jiang Yan collected the jade bottle, and then stood up again, coveted. "Here, I will give you a cold dream, you will feel very cold, after a cup of tea. Just fine."

The ink burned has not recovered from the horrible dreams of that layer. His eyes are still a little confused. After a long time, he muttered, "Hold it?... But I have been very careful, and No... I didn’t notice any traces of the technique...”

Jiang Yan has some sly claws showing his edge: "How is the stupid thing?"

Everyone present: "..."

"The world is the most embarrassing, the most murderous invisible, do you think it is a technique?" The medicinal squad squinted at the door and shook his sleeves. "The wrong thing is the most powerful thing in the world."

"In this day's palace, a kind of fragrance is smoked in advance, called 'the 19th floor prison'. This kind of spice is colorless and tasteless, but it can make people feel the illusion and fall into the greatest fear of life." Jiang Yan said When I got here, I paused, and then I looked at the ink. "The bigger the fear, the deeper it is. I have saved a few people who were jailed by the 19th floor and gave them four to five dreams." They wake up in the cold water - but do you know how much you drank?"

"……How many?"

Jiang Yan seems to be somewhat unhappy, saying: "The big half bottle. It is enough to save more than one hundred people, and then call back your consciousness.... I am a little curious, Mo Zongshi, you are young, why is this so? Deep fear, what are you afraid of?"

Chapter 220

The ink burned out.

If it weren't for this big dream, he didn't know that there was such a terrifying fear in his heart. He was afraid of the death of Chu, and the fear of the teacher's emotions. The fear of this life is actually nothing but himself. A dream of Huang Qi.

He lowered his head, I don’t know if it’s the role of breaking the cold, or another reason.

He felt cold and shivering cold.

Chu nightning stood up from the ground. There are too many eyes here. He can't have a more intimate move with the ink, but he can't stop holding him in his nightmare and call his name. If he didn't try to clamp it, he was afraid that he would be burnt down on the ground in front of everyone - even though it didn't happen, the mood of ink burned was so fierce that he didn't know how many people around him were aware of it. The strange clue.

Chu Xiaoning slowly got up and sat for a long time, his legs and legs.

Xue Meng raised his hand subconsciously, but he did not know why, but he did not come forward. Instead, the teacher shook his hand and whispered: "Master, you slow down."

Low eyelashes, Chu night rather than talking, do not explain, only the original robe has been removed, the white clothes smashed, and floated on the shoulders.

"Drap, wait for the cold of the medicine to disappear, and return me."

I don’t dare to go to see him more, but whispered: "Yes, Master."

Others are carefully looking at the scene inside the temple, or seeing if there are still hidden organs, they are scattered. Xue Zhengxuan asked a few words of ink burning, seeing the innocent children, patted his shoulders, and strode to the place where the heads of the people were.

Xue Meng did not leave, and when everyone went away, he suddenly leaned over and looked around, then pressed his voice and screamed: "What do you dream of?"

Ink burning: "..."

Xue Meng gritted his teeth: "Ask you."

"It’s just a dream."

"That's all what you think in your heart!" Xue Meng's eyes were a little messy. He was very worried. "What are you thinking about? Are you...you are not..."

"I dreamed that I killed someone." The ink burned because of the coldness of the bones, and it shook slightly, and the lips were white. "I dreamed that I killed the master."

"you--!"

"There is nothing else..."

Xue Meng’s lips seem to be trying to ask again. If you can listen to the ink, then it’s not like lying, but he said that he dreamed of killing the master...

Not to mention the ink burning now respects the teacher, I do not know why there is such a fear, but he only clung to the late night, such a look - is a disciple should have? Is there something more? More... Xue Meng didn't dare to think about it anymore.

It seems that one step further is the abyss.

The medicinal power gradually dissipated, and the ink burned slowly from the ground. Xue Meng hesitated for a while and still held him.

Ink burning: "Thank you."

Then he looked at the monks who were walking in front of him: "Is other people still fascinated by incense?"

"No, only you, you run too fast." Xue Meng still had a lot of trouble, but finally the mood was not as intense as it was at the beginning. "When we entered the temple, Jiang Yan realized that I had ordered the 18 ghosts here. Fragrance."

"...not 18 ghosts, 19th floor prison."

"It's this thing anyway, the name doesn't matter." Xue Mengdao, "He did disperse, we come in again, it's okay." He paused, suddenly remembered something, and said again, "but this is also a coincidence, if it is only If something goes wrong, it will be troublesome."

"What do you mean?"

"You walked fast, didn't see it. On the way to the Heavenly Palace, there were several poisonous snakes in the rattan baskets of Nangong Liu. Many people were bitten by the sham. Those people were resting in the same place. The snake venom is so toxic. Jiang Yan originally let us go first. I stayed there and took the poison for them. After I pulled it out, I followed it up.... If this is the case, I am afraid that all the people who arrive in the Temple will be in the middle. "Ten Xuedao," he was so a bottle of dreams, but he couldn’t help so many people."

The smoldering vaguely felt that something was wrong, and asked: "Why didn't he stay there for the purpose of poisoning everyone?"

"He has a little apprentice who says he will solve, so Jiang Yan left his apprentice there, and he came up with us first."

The burnt brow wrinkled deeper.

He looked at the back of the group of people on the night of the moon, and patrolled the crowd, but did not find the figure he was looking for.

If the apprentice of Jiang Yan does not solve this kind of snake venom, then there are only two people left in the original place. One is Jiang Yan and the other is Hua Bi Nan.

"Hua Bi Nan?"

Xue Meng snorted: "Do you doubt the cold scale sage?"

"Just ask."

"There is nothing to be suspicious. Hua Binan himself has been bitten. He is meditating below. However, he has more poison in his body. He said that it is better to adjust his interest for a while, and then he will come up with us."

The look of ink burning is even more gloomy.

The cold scales are injured and can't move, so only Jiang Yan can be cured. There is also a disciple under Jiang’s seat, which happens to solve this snake venom. If there is no such person, then at this moment, Jiang Yan may still be poisoning the injured monk below.

When he comes back, what kind of scene will it be in this palace? A bottle of cold dreams, can you save the situation?

"Xue Meng."

"Ok?"

"Beware of Hua Bi Nan."

This sentence fell, and suddenly felt the ground suddenly shocked, and then a long dragon smashed the sky, came from outside the temple.

Someone has been like a bird of surprise, and stunned: "What happened? Just what was the movement?"

A courageous monk said: "I will go see."

He quickly swept to the door of the temple, looked down, and looked at the sky, and then turned back: "Nothing, it should be just some of the sounds that this mountain occasionally has. After all, it is the evil spirit of the dragon."

He finished, is preparing to go back.

But at this moment, his ankle was suddenly caught by something. The monk bowed his head and saw a pale white hand. He did not react at the moment and was still in the distance.

Xue Zhengyi’s eyes are sharp, but he has already shouted in the distance: “Be careful!!”

But it was too late, and a dead body leaped up. The body was wrapped in a crane of the Confucianism, and the silk was blindfolded. A sword pierced the chest of the monk.

"I..." The monk squinted with a big eyes, raised his hand and consciously touched the long sword that had been poked out, and then spit out a large mouthful of blood, and fell to the ground and never moved again.

After a few silences, the ground rumbling again. Everyone looked out of the temple door, and saw a rough dragon ribs rising from the ground, wearing the clouds and up, each * dragon ribs were holding the body of a Confucianist disciple. Looking at it in the distance is like gathering a dense group of bees in midair, ready to rush into the hall to make everyone into a meat.

Ma Zhuangzhu screamed and blinked: "Oh my God, my god, I am going to die, I am going to die."

Xue Zhengyi was vomited by the merchants, and a slap in the back of his brain let him shut up, and then shouted to the crowd: "Go to the temple door! All the mothers are going to block the temple door! Don't let them rush in. !"

He said that he took the lead and greeted the zombie who was swaying with the * sword. He slammed the folding fan out of the hall, rolled his legs and rolled the long steps, and then grabbed the Lingshi gate. I am going to push it up.

But the door doesn't know what's going on, it's convenient to push it from the outside, and it's as heavy as a rock from the inside. Xue Zhengxuan’s blue-stranded violent violent, but the force is like a mud cow into the sea, seeing that the zombies are getting closer and closer by the dragon ribs, Xue Zheng screamed: “What happened? Didn’t Nangong Changying’s seal them all? The * dragon is not obedient! Do it with your own master!"

Inkburn and Xue Meng also immediately rushed to Xue Zhengyi to join hands, Nangong said: "Useless! These two pieces of Lingshi are my grandfather to let four thousand feet brought in, just because you can never move Got it."

Huang Xiaoyue was mad at the smoke, and cursed beside him: "You are too grandfather!"

However, Nangong Temple simply ignored him. Nangong驷 was a group of people who were trying to resist the group of zombies at the door of Confucianism at the doorstep: "From the inside of the temple, you have to stop at the end. You must stop for a while, let me go. machine."

Xue Zhengyi danced into a black shadow with an iron fan. In the past, three or four zombies that had been forced to fly in front of the fan, black blood immediately splashed with fans, and fell on the words "Xue Lang is very beautiful", but these zombies also It was a brave man. When he rolled down the steps, he immediately climbed up and continued to move forward.

Xue Zhengxuan turned his head and said: "Come on! More and more! I fucked, ... what the * is going on?"

The ink burned out to meet the devil. He knew that the temple door was the last line of defense, so he rushed out to kill the zombies on the long stage. However, the long-term narrowness, he can not exert his full strength, but also be careful not to step on the air for nine days, so it is very laborious to fight.

He swept a row of corpses to climb up, but there were more monsters around him who had been stung by the stinking dragon ribs from the distant ground. In the end, he was almost enemies, and he could not get out of the sea.

However, the ink burned did not intend to get out immediately. These zombies are smelling popular. He is standing here as the closest target. Almost all the dead bodies are coming in his direction.

Ma Zhuang screamed and hid behind Jiang Yan. At this time, he said with a sigh: "Oh, Mo Zongshi is really righteous, arrogant, arrogant."

Jiang Yanqiu, however, turned his head and said: "Can you send something other than doing business?"

"I will all need to spend some time to delve into things, such as the formation method, skills, weapons assembly, I am really not good at short-handed..." Ma Zhuangzhu on the cold eyes of Jiang Yan, stunned Twist and squat, try to find out, "Would you like... I will give you a drink?"

Jiang Yan: "..."

However, this guy said that it is also good. Each sect has its own strengths and shortcomings. At the moment, this kind of * battle is a matter of blocking people. If you rush to go, you will save your life. So others will die in the past, even Jiang Yan can't be close, and the powder is useless to the body.

Xue Meng held the dragon city at the door of the temple, staring at the black figure floating in the crane, seeing a * vine rising from the ground, holding a high-level disciple of the Confucianism to the ink past. Xue Meng couldn't help it anymore. He slammed the sword and brushed the arm of the corpse. Then he leaned back against the ink, and another sword broke the twisted dragon.

In a flash of * arrogance!

Xue Zhengyi lost his voice: "Menger! Come back soon!"

"Nothing! I am with him!"

He is referring to who, naturally, is self-evident.

The side of the ink burned over the face, and Xue Meng said: "You are going back, there is me here, you are the second line of defense, I can't hold you back again"

"Shut up!" Xue Meng's hand in the Dragon City screamed, no good airway, "You are the first in Lingshan, or I am the first in Lingshan? Are you the Lord of the Dead, or are you the Lord of the Dead? You are amazing Or am I amazing?"

"..."

The ink burns in the chest, no longer speaks, and concentrates on fighting with Xue Meng back, welcoming the zombies that rise in the square.

At this moment, I heard the stone doors on both sides swaying and slowly closing toward the middle. Xue Zhengyi was overjoyed and busy: "Good, move! The door is closed, you two, come back! Come over here!"

The combination of ink burning and Xue Meng, the red light of the ghost and the red light of the dragon city danced to the shadow, only to hear the jingle, how many dead bodies fell nine miles, the dragon ribs ruptured blood.

They slowly moved closer to the door and the door was closed a little.

Xue Mengdao: "You are advanced."

Ink burning: "Go in together."

"..."

"Go! What are you doing!"

Xue Zhengyi hurried in the inside: "Come on! Come back soon!"

The ink burned a pair of Xue Meng's clothes, Xue Meng angered: "You let go! Don't come to me with this hero, you -"

"Who is going to marry your hero? Go away!" said the ink-burning, one hand rubbing Xue Meng, one foot on the stone steps, the backhand falling and sneaking, knocking back a group of zombies that will be rushed up, and then Xue Meng rushed toward the gate.

The door was closed for most of the time. In fact, it was not in a hurry. The ink burned Xue Meng to Xue Zhengyi. He leaned against the door of the temple and held the star-shaped whip against the wind. The eyebrows smashed and slowly retreated.

Suddenly, the two huge stones that were closing were stopped.

Xue Meng said: "Why don't you move?"

He turned back and saw Nangong’s face pale and white. He came out from the stone pillar of Tiangong, which was held by ten adult men. He said extremely sullenly:

"The central axis of the machine has been destroyed. When it is halfway closed, the chain will break and it will not be picked up."

When Nangong was finished, he raised his hand. In the heart of the bruised palm, he held a half-bronze lock and shook it.

Chapter 221

Xue Meng had to be smothered with blood. The ink burned but there was not so much leisure time. When he heard this sentence, he turned back to the corpse and blocked the first line of defense.

At the end of the night, Ning Fang had been helping Nangong to debug the obvious machine that had been hand-footed. At this time, he saw the ink burning in front of him, and immediately flew to the door of the temple, and sighed: "Ink, come back!"

"Master respect..."

Chu night Ning fell a golden enchantment, the enchantment light up, violently smashed the corpse a few feet, followed by him in the long steps, the front of the temple, the gap between the stone gates, three places respectively fell into the guardian enchantment Then I burned the ink back.

"You stop first."

The ink burned the heart and said: "The enchantment of the masters in the Laoshan Mountain can't last for too long! Why is this master!"

Chu night Ning eyes such as blue frost purple electric, he gritted his teeth, pushed a piece of ink, and pushed him back to the temple: "You are all hurt and go to death, go back to meditate! Shi Mingjing!"

"Master, I am."

Chu night Ning Ling smashed a bit of ink burning: "healing for him."

The teacher beheaded: "Yes, Master."

The ink burns and presses the hand that the teacher has stretched over, facing the back of the Chu who has already turned his back. "It’s all skin trauma, Master, your enchantment here can only support a fragrant martial arts. It will also cost you a lot of spiritual power, you..."

Chu night Ningtou did not return, standing in the skylight: "Then I will support this musk."

The ink burned and wanted to talk again, but was dragged by the teacher. The gentle hand touched his skin, rolled up his sleeves for him, began to heal the wounds, and burned his eyes on him. He silently turned toward him. The ink swayed and shook his head, then coveted and focused on his own spells.

Chu night Ning Road: "Xue Meng."

"At, Master."

"I can't support it, you will go up. Don't hold it hard, feel that some power is not enough, then change the Lord."

Xue Zhengyi was busy: "Well, it will be better to turn around."

Chu night Ningyuan constantly continually transported his spiritual power to the three-tiered enchantment, and said: "There is another thing that bothers the Lord."

"You said."

Chu nightning bites his teeth and cuts his teeth: "Ask the group of wastes hiding behind, except for those who are not good at short-term encounters in the Snow Palace and the lonely moon night, let them come!"

"...What if they didn't come?"

Chu night Ning said: "Then the temple door is broken, sit and wait for death. You can see that they can't come."

Xue Zhengyi passed by, and Nangong was staring at the half-locked buckle on his hand. I don't know how to be good. I don't know why the ban under the head of the first generation will suddenly be broken.

As far as reason is concerned, as long as it is ordered by Nangong Changying, no matter who can change the spirit of evil spirits, how can it suddenly happen...

Xue Zhengyi let the people who can cope with it in the past, Ye said, "I am coming."

When Nangong stood up, he returned to God. He pulled her: "How can you be a girl?"

Ye forgets to stare at the group of Jiang Dongtang, but his disciples are cold and succinct: "If there are only two people in the Confucianist Gate, they are not greedy and afraid of death."

The middle-aged female practitioners who had previously ridiculed her daughter’s body were still not snoring. They all looked away from other places and did not look at Ye’s forgotten face.

In this way, Xue Zhengyi assembled some people and suddenly stunned: "With snow? How are you... No, no, you are not good at this kind of thing, you go back."

Mei Hanxue seems to be cold and cold today. He said: "Uncle is relieved, I have a lot in my heart, I will not play."

Xue Zhengyi looked at the owner of the Snow Palace, and there was no way to see the people in the palace. There was no way to let Mei Hanxue enter the people.

Jiang Yan frowned: "Is it always resisting? Keep some people who are suitable for short-handedness. It is better to go to the apse to see the situation."

Xue Zhengxuan said: "First respond to a while, see if you can fix the machine, go together is the best policy, it can not be repaired, then you can only split two, one to resist, one to go to the apse to check the situation. ”

Jiang Yandao: "...so is it. But who will repair the machine?"

At this time, one hand twitched and raised. Just now, Jiang Yanzhuang, who was just like Jiang’s head, looked out of his head and weakened: "This, this organ technical work, me, I I think I can still try something."

Jiang Yan is both angry and funny: "Then you are not going to go?"

The horse pulled the Nangong Temple and stumbled. Xue Zhengyi also led the team to leave.

Jiang Yan turned back and looked around and this was divided into two, and turned into a hall of purgatory and nine days, and fell into deep thought.

His gaze swept through the precious pieces that were still laughing, talking, or tortured on the other side. The final gaze fell on Nangong Liu, who had been lying next to a basket of oranges.

He felt very strange.

Why is Nangong Liu, or other pieces in this hall, and they are not as violent as the outside bodies, and get up and kill?

If Xu Shuanglin controlled the precious chess in the temple at the moment and began to attack, they were destined to be stretched and caught in the internal and external difficulties.

Why is he not doing it?

Don't want to do it?

Still... can't do it?

Jiang Yan accident, ink burning is not unexpected.

He can clearly perceive that the treasures in the temple have completely preserved these temperament, obsession, and even some memories before the birth, which is completely different from the corpses that are controlled by the "concentric array". Inappropriate metaphors, the zombies outside are marionettes, and all of them are living mortal people with independent temperament.

Xu Shuanglin does not manipulate these living dead people. Obviously there is only one reason - his spiritual power has reached the limit.

"Chu Zongshi, take the handle!"

Suddenly a faint scream came from the stone steps, and Chu nightly looked up and saw that Hua Binan led a dozen monks, and the positive was struggling from the stone steps.

They were previously bitten by poisonous snakes, and they were trimmed in place. They did not expect to have suffered the second violent corpse of the corpse. Twenty of the monks were instantly halved. At this moment, they struggled with this and they were seriously injured. When Chu was late, he raised his hand, and then fell to an enchantment. They were protected under their cages, and the day after tomorrow they asked to smash the zombies that they killed.

"come!"

Chu night Ning Chao Hua Bi Nan reached out.

The ink burned but the heart was alert. He also refused to take the medicine to the upper half, and immediately got up and blocked: "The master is careful!"

However, Hua Binan did not have any abnormalities. He shook and held the hand that Chu Yuening had extended. He was stunned by Chu to Ning, and he was more powerful in the protective enchantment. Chu nightning turned back and said: "Come a few people to help! ”

The survivors were pulled back one by one and they were put in the hall. They were all squatting, panting, and the blood was on the surface, and the expression was extremely painful.

Jiang Yan led a group of disciples on the night of the moon, and he fell down in front of Hua Binan, revealing a rare anxious color: "How to hurt so heavy..."

"I am still innocent, and the Lord will go to see other people first." Hua Binan leaned on the pillars, his fights and veil have been cut, and the robes are stained with blood. Jiang Yan wants to give him The pulse, he raised his hand to stop, "Nothing, but it is a small injury, but the little one who respects the Lord... cough, he, he hurts too much, and the Lord is going to heal him, don't care about me... ..."

This wave of people's injuries are very heavy, and some people have even been twisted off the whole leg. Compared with them, Hua Binan, who can still speak completely, is indeed light.

Jiang Yan whispered quietly, and looked at Hua Binan, and returned to help others heal.

Hua Binan trembled and found a bottle of hemostatic powder from the Qiankun bag. He was about to spill it on his injured area. Suddenly, he took the porcelain bottle in his hand and inked it: "I will help you."

"...not necessary."

The ink burned his eyes and looked at him: "Paint a powder, just raise your hand."

Hua Binan won the porcelain bottle and whispered: "I am not used to touching me. Not to mention that you are not healing the monks at all, adding chaos."

"Then I will help you."

"Sister?" The side of the ink burned over the head. Seeing that the teacher had put down the medical pouch with his hands and feet, Hua Binan saw the medical pouch and licked his mouth, no longer snoring, and did not resist.

The teacher smashed the silver needle cloth bag, and whispered: "The predecessor of the sage, the younger generation may have a bad week, please forgive me first."

Hua Binan: "..."

His injury is heavy, and it is useless to directly stop the spell. It must be blocked with a needle. Only the cold light flashes, and the edge flashes. The brilliance of the silver needle flashes between the eyes of the teacher. There are more than ten needles in the blink of an eye. .

"The veil and fight of the predecessors..."

The scales of the cold scales flashed a gloom, but I also knew that there were several acupuncture points that must be tied to the face, and they said with a smile: "I pick it myself."

The gauze stained with blood fell, revealing the face of the cold scale, never showing the face.

It was an extremely eccentric face, and the first half was still pretty, but from the bridge of the nose, the entire face was twisted and burned, like a echinoderma.

Hua Binan looked up, and there was some hint of hatred and embarrassment in his eyes: "What is it? The ink master is still not leaving, stay here, look good?"

"……Sorry."

Hua Binan sneered behind him: "I haven't been here before, you don't listen to it. At this time, you said sorry on your mouth, I don't know what I am thinking about. I am thinking about this cold scale. It’s really ugly to grow up, huh, huh.”

The ink swayed and shook his head. He couldn’t say anything more and left.

The Ma Zhuang master still tossed the broken iron lock, and in front of the Tiangongmen, Chu Lingning’s spiritual power was almost lacking. He leaned toward Xue Mengdao: “Xue Meng, take over!”

Xue Meng immediately took the lead and met the knife. The handover of the two of them was extremely smooth, and there was not even a zombie to squeeze in at the moment of replacement.

When Chu Ningyi withdrew from the enchantment, he could not help but step back. The ink burned him pale and felt very distressed, but he could not do anything in front of everyone. Even Chu’s hands could not be held. Repressing himself, he asked: "Late... Master, are you okay?"

"No problem." Chu night Ning gently coughed, "more energy is spent."

However, the ink burned that the Linguin of Chu’s night was originally very fragile. It’s probably not a big deal for others, but for Chu’s lateness...

The ink burned and closed his eyes.

In the last life, they were both sinister and sinister, and the disintegration was divided. Chu Xiening was in that battle because the mental power was exhausted, and the spiritual nucleus shattered instantly. From then on, it became the same as the mortal, and even the body was more mortal. Be weak.

How could it be...

The ink burned in his heart, his eyes were reddish, and he silently put the clothes that he had given him to his shoulders. Only at this time, he could pinch the shoulders of Chu’s lateness through the clothes.

All his heavy love for him can only be hidden in this momentary touch.

He helped Chu late to go to the side, he specifically found a place where there were few people, hidden quiet places, and then sat down with Chu nightning.

No one found out that the ink burned quietly holding the hand of Chu Yuning.

Very cool.

And that year, Chu nightning lost under his knife, he leaned over his chest and reached the same chin when he reached his chin.

The ink burned down and the tip of the finger trembled slightly.

Chu night Ning originally wanted to pull out his hand. After all, there were too many eyes here, but he felt a slight tremor, so he took his hand and turned it with him.

"Let me see." Chu Xiaoning raised his other hand and let the smoldering face lift up his face. There were wounds on his cheeks and nose. "Is it painful?"

The ink swayed and shook his head. He stared at Chu's face and looked at the person who knew that he had his lips pale, but he was still concerned about him.

He felt very painful.

Not a wound.

It is the heart.

He finally learned the lie of the late night, and said: "No pain."

"Don't hurt, what are you shaking?"

He didn't say anything, he couldn't snoring, so Chu Xiaoning misunderstood that he still trembled because of pain. His fingertips lingered in the light of the brilliance of Huaguang, and the ink burned his pupils, and he grabbed the night. The hand on his cheek: "Are you crazy? Still using spiritual power?!"

"This is nothing." Chu said, "It’s just the tiniest healing curse. It hurts."

His fingertips touched his scar.

Painful.

But his heart is like a knife, and his car is cracked, but it is not the case.

Ink burns naturally knows that this is just a little spiritual power, like a drop in the ocean, a cup of Wang Yang, Chu nightning gave almost all the spiritual power to everyone, and only gave him a little bit.

In the past life, he gave too much to the world because of the lateness of Chu, and he gave himself too little, so he complained about the lateness of Chu.

But at that time he would not know.

In fact, Chu Xiening gave him a bit of a drop, although it was pitiful, but that was all he had left, the only thing, the last thing.

"Okay! It’s fixed and repaired!"

Suddenly, the monk under the Mazhuang master rushed to the door, and his cheeks became red. He shouted: "Get ready to retire, close the door! Immediately ready to close!"

At this time, the person who resisted the corpse had changed to Mei Hanxue. Xue Meng was also injured after he retired, but the injury was not heavy. He did not check much when he wrapped the gauze himself. He bit his gauze. The belt is tied to oneself, while watching Mei Xuexue retreat.

It is strange to say that he remembers that Mei Han Xueming is the spiritual core of the water system and the wood system, but he does not know why he has exhibited the fire system tricks. He was alone, with a broken water lying on his back, his fingers licking his face, his face cold, and his shot was a flame-red barrier flame, which forced all the corpses that were trying to get close.

"Closed! Mei Gongzi!"

Mei Hanxue let the squat hang, step by step as he stepped back and retreated to the door. Xue Meng suddenly found it wrong. He turned his head and said: "Can you open the door again? This piano is too wide, can't enter-"

"No need to."

Mei Hanxue succinctly interrupted Xue Meng’s words, and suddenly he took the shackles into the music, lost the sound of the piano, and a group of zombies rushed up. Xue Meng knew that he was not good at fighting, and his face suddenly changed. When you pull out the Dragon City, you have to go out to help.

Unexpectedly, the singer did not pass, and he saw a flash of silver. Mei’s snow palm did not know when a silver sabre appeared. The sword was suffocating and smashed, only to see his sword dance and shadow. And retired, slammed the sword out, and before the door was about to close, Mei Hanxue raised his hand and screamed: "Hurricane, come back!"

The sword was turned into a snow light and shadow, and it was worn from the cracks. Mei was caught in the snow, and the arm of the sword was brought to the side.

The gate of the Tiangong Palace was closed.

There was a muffled sound from the outside, and it was the sound of the corpse and the dragon ribs on the door, but it seemed that it was far and far away, and the palace gate of the Nangong family’s large-scale construction was not so easy to break.

Everyone was relieved, and there were several disciples who had never seen the big world. They were directly on the ground with a soft leg. They even screamed, "Mom...this is all What is it..."

After the break, Mei Hanxue was slightly relieved, but his sigh of relief was not significantly different from that of the weekday. If Xue Meng had been staring at him, I would not find that he slightly opened his lips and spit. This tone.

Suddenly I found the eyes of two * next to me. Mei Hanxue turned her head: "...how? Why do you see me?"

Xue Meng’s throat is dry: "...you are this sword..."

Mei Hanxue glanced at the long sword flowing with silver light: "Hurricane."

Xue Meng’s face was uncertain for a while, and he said: “When will you make the sword?... Is it right? Should you have a martial arts?”

"there is always."

Xue Meng said: "Why didn't you use it at the Lingshan Conference?"

"..." Mei Hanxue was silent for a while and said, "I don't want to use it."

Xue Meng seems very puzzled, and even some anger: "Do you look down on us? You take out the martial arts, maybe you are the first... second?"

Mei Hanxue turned his eyes. It seemed to be a bit ridiculous in the cold eyes. He looked at Xue Meng, who was slightly angry because of his anger, and then said: "The third place is very good, first... ..." He licked his lips and rubbed Xue Meng over, and he fell to Xueman's ear in an understatement.

"The first is too stupid."

Chapter 222

Xue Meng was stunned for a while, only to feel the strength, and angered at Mei Hanxue: "Dog stuff, who are you stupid?"

Xue Zhengyi pulled him: "Menger!"

"This person said that I am stupid!"

"Okay, you got it wrong, and Xue Mingming didn't say anything."

"That's because he lowered his voice in my ear!!"

Noisy here, Jiang Yan is counting the wounded and checking the situation. The result of the review is that Jiang Yan let everyone fix the moment in the same place, the healing of the healing, the meditation of the meditation. No way, the most fierce fighting power is consumed a lot, just like the bow is not yet full, the arrow has been blunt, so rashly continue to move forward, if there is a sudden change, I am afraid not to cope.

After telling them, Jiang Yan walked to Nangong Temple: "Nangong, I have something to ask you."

"Gui Jiangmen please speak."

Jiang Yan did not speak, but first looked at Ye Yexi Shi.

Nangong said: "She doesn't have to evade."

"It's better to avoid it." Jiang Yan said, his eyes fell, and he stopped at the heart of Nangong. It was the location of Nangong's spiritual core.

After the leaves have been forgotten, Jiang Yan sat down next to Nangong Temple.

"What about your spiritual core? Are you planning to squat?"

Nangong’s eyes fainted: “I don’t know how to tell her.”

"Are you afraid that she will dislike you? In fact, you think too much, Ye girl is not -"

"No." Nangong驷 interrupted Jiang Yan’s words. "I am not afraid that she will dislike me. I am just afraid that she will be sad."

"..." Jiang Yan was silent for a while, and seemed to be stabbed by the inexplicable pride of Nangong. He laughed. "You are really confident."

"Ginger palm is wrong. I am not confident, I believe her."

When Jiang Yan listened to his tone very hard, he faintly said: "You are now in the Pingyang, but you still talk to me in this tone, I am not afraid that I will find you trouble later?"

"you will not."

Jiang Yan paused: "Is this letter to me?"

"Along the way, I also know what kind of person Jiang Jiangmen is." Nangong said, "So I thought I would tell you when I thought my life was cut off."

"..." Jiang Yan has been staring at Nangong, until he mentions it, he turned his eyes away. "Now you are still alive, are those words still counted?"

"Doing a number." Nangong said, "When I defeated Xu Shuanglin, I will speak with everyone."

Jiang Yan did not speak. After a while, he said: "Nan Gong Yu, I regret that I can't see the Confucianism Gate in your hands. Otherwise, it can be regarded as a higher opponent."

Nan Gongyi answered very calmly, but he also had his arrogance: "The head is still wrong. The best thing about the Confucianism, I have fortunately learned."

When Jiang Yan rarely refutes others, there are few times when he is not sneering, and there is little time to admire or agree with others. However, he has not been trying to deny Nangong’s words for a long time. He finally said: “Don’t say this, ask you a more important thing.”

"...I know what the head is going to ask." Nangong squatted on the naurus in the quiver, and the wolf was injured. The forehead smashed the fur and was still bleeding. "But why Lushan suddenly loses control." It is not my knowledge of the willingness to violate the head of the door. I also feel that it is impossible."

Jiang Yandao: "There is no trace of clues? You think about it again, is there any secret about the Confucianist Gate, is it about this mountain?"

Nangong驷 shook his head and said: "No. The Nangong family has known for generations to listen to the orders of the family, but the first place must be the ancestor of Changying."

“Absolutely no one else?”

"Absolutely not. The first master recognized by the dragon's soul is too much, and will never change."

In the eyes of Jiang Yan, the face is indefinite, and a face becomes more and more sullen because of the stalemate: "How did Xu Shuanglin do it?"

"I don't want to understand." Nangong suddenly paused. Jiang Yan thought that he thought of something. He turned to look at him. He found that he looked straight at a person in the distance and followed his eyes. Jiang I saw the Nangong Liu who was eating orange peeling.

Nangongyi has been trying not to look at his father who was made into a pawn, but when he touched it, his expression was immediately unstoppable and extremely painful. Jiang Yan is actually a very old man with Xu Shuanglin and Xue Zhengyi. It is just because the cultivation method is different, so he still looks young and handsome. But this has nothing to do with his mentality. His mentality has not been so fascinating. He looked at Nangong, and he couldn’t bear it for a while. He said, "Don’t watch."

"..."

"Don't look again."

Nangong Temple seemed to have spent all his efforts to tear his eyes away from his father. When he fell down, his shoulders seemed to tremble slightly, and finally he buried his face in his palm, but he could not cover the sob in the voice.

He muttered hoarsely and tried to stagger the subject: "I don't want to understand how Xu Shuanglin did it, but it was a dragon that was too tamed..."

The shoulders are getting more and more violent.

Jiang Yan has been stiff and his face has been very faint, but he finally reached out and patted Nan Gong's shoulder. He seems to want to comfort Nangong's two sentences, but he has never comforted him. In the end, he only said: "It doesn't matter, people have their own lives. Although you and your father have troubled this situation, they still have fathers and sons. One, you see me, the year of the destiny, no child. I want to open."

After talking about Nangong, of course, he did not care about him. He also felt dry and said that it was worse than not saying it.

Jiang Yan got up and said a little: "I will go somewhere else and you will rest for a while, and I will continue to move forward later."

"..."

"Right, what is the front?"

Nangong sighs the channel: "Dragon soul pool."

"What is this for?"

"That is the blood pool of the spirit of the evil dragon." Nangong said, "The * of the dragon is sleeping in the pool. Every year, people of the Confucianism must worship it."

When Jiang Yan listened, he frowned. Finally, he said, "I hope there will be no more situation there."

Everyone in this vestibule rested for half a hour, and the wounded and the spiritually depleted people were gradually recovering with the help of the healing monks.

Jiang Yan looked at the "good" and "bad" that Xu Shuanglin had made on both sides. The two extremes, the eyebrows wrinkled more and more tightly.

What kind of thing is this non-competitive thing, what does Xu Shuanglin do? Is it good to look at?

Listening to Nangong, who was made into a chess piece, a squatting one, it seems that Xu Shuanglin regarded himself as an emperor, and divided these into black and white and good and evil, as their own subjects?

He walked all the way to see the past, and finally came to Nangong Liu, who was sitting on his bamboo basket and slowly peeling the oranges.

Jiang Yan paused for a moment, suddenly leaned over, and did not give up on the sentence before he had already asked him: "Can you take us to kneel there?"

Nangong Liu is still the same answer as before: "There are things to do under your Majesty. How can you see and see you?"

"..." Jiang Weishou is not pleased. "There is no use at all. The pustules of waste are waste pustules. Whether they are alive or made into pieces, they are all waste pustules."

Nangong Liu was smashed by him, and his neck shrunk and narrowed his neck. A very weak look hugged his orange vine basket. After a while, he cried and cried: "How are you so fierce? I am useless or not. Use, I was originally a waste pustule. What can you do if you are fierce?"

He cried loudly and attracted everyone around him.

Chu Xiaoning also tempered and meditation at this time, he frowned. "This Nangong Liu is strange."

Ink burning asked: "What?"

"I can't say it." Chu said, "I feel that this person is Nangong Liu, but it is not right, it seems that it is not the Nangong Liu I know."

The ink burned and stared at the other side. Jiang Yan’s positive color was blue and the Nangong Liu was smashed, while Nangong Liu twitched, and from time to time he took two hands and squinted his eyes.

"..." The ink burned his actions, and he did not feel right. He couldn’t tell the violation. He seemed to see a child with a middle-aged head, which made him goose bumps. Suddenly, the ink burned a bit and muttered, "Children..."

"what?"

When the ink burned, he turned his head and asked: "Master, do you think that he is like a child?" He said that he saw the Nangong Liu for a while, and saw Nangong Liu actually began to take his sleeves and snot. "There is still a child who is only five or six years old."

He said this, Chu Jingning looked again, and sure enough.

Although Nangong Liu is still in his forties, he has revealed this kind of stupidity.

Chu night Ning whispered: "What did Xu Shuanglin do to him, let his gods remember, only to be five or six years old?"

Ink burning: "Master is waiting, I will try."

"How do you try?"

The ink burned and he did not answer. He was in the eyes of the public, walked to the side of Nangong Liu, picked up an orange and handed it to him, and tried to say, "Don't cry, eat an orange."

"I don't eat, I have already eaten it, this is dedicated to His Majesty."

The ink burned the oranges back into the basket and asked, "Who is your majesty?"

Jiang Yandao: "What use? I have not tried this sentence long ago."

Sure enough, Nangong Liudao: "Your Majesty... Your Majesty is your Majesty, who else you can."

The ink burned was not discouraged, but then asked him the second sentence: "Well, your majesty is your majesty, you are so loyal and sensible, you know, you will be very happy. Yes, I have been asking you about your majesty. The matter, haven't asked you yet, little brother, what is your name?"

Huang Xiaoyue was impatiently beside him. He was sneering and talking twice. Jiang Yan stopped him and shook his head. He also implicitly felt that something was wrong.

Nangong Liu, holding a basket of oranges, looked at the ink for a while, and then said a little, "My name is Nangong Liu."

The ink burned and smiled and touched the head of Nangong Liu, and asked quietly: "I know, my name is ink burning, I am twenty-two this year, what about you?"

"I, I am five years old..."

"!!"

For a time, the birds were silent.

Nangong Liu’s answer was not sound, but the people around him were quietly looking here, so his fierce “I’m five years old” was like a thunderstorm, and it exploded in the hall.

Almost everyone was shocked.

If it is not the situation, I am afraid that many people in the room will laugh, laughing and tears - five years old? Five years old?

Three years ago, I wanted them to believe that the head of the first martial art in the world would be shrunk in a basket of oranges and muttered: "I am five years old." These people probably would rather believe that the sow will go to the tree.

Can Nangong Liu clearly said this sentence clearly at this moment, a group of people are listening to stupid, zombie in the same place, you look at me, I look at you, do not know what this is.

Jiang Yan stepped forward and asked: "What do you do in this house every day?"

Nangong Liu quickly went to the ink and retracted, slamming the ink sleeves: "Big brother, I don't want to talk to him, this uncle is so fierce..."

Jiang Yan: "..."

Nangong Liu is bigger than his age. He dreamed that he would not think that Nangong Liu would call him an uncle one day.

There is some sorrow in the smoldering. If it is really a five-year-old child, he is still used, but at this time he is holding a man who is full of pleats. The mouth of the ink burner was pumped, and the coughing two comforted: "Well, you don't care about him, then I will ask you, what do you do in this house every day?"

Jiang Yan's eyes widened - he was somewhat admired at this time, can this kid, can this endure?

"I pick oranges every day, pick up the oranges and wash them, then give them back and wait for him to come out to eat." Nangong Liudao, "His favorite tea, he can eat a whole basket a day. This mountain What was originally grown at the foot was a tree that only blossomed and did not bear fruit. When you said it was boring, all of them were replaced with orange trees. I also think that the orange trees are good and the fruit is sweet."

He whispered and whispered, and suddenly his eyes were a little bleak: "Unfortunately, these days, the body is always not very good. After picking a basket, he can only eat half of it..."

Jiang Yan grabbed the key: "Is my body recently bad?"

Nangong Liu is very revengeful, pouting, drumming and helping: "I hate, I don't talk to you."

Jiang Yan endured for a moment, couldn't resist, quickly turned his head and took his face and nose.

Huang Xiaoyue asked with concern: "What happened to Jiang Jiangmen?"

"Don't talk to me." Jiang Yan frowned in disgust, no longer willing to see the giant child Nangong Liu, who was pouting over there. "I am a little disgusted."

Ink burning: "How bad is your body?"

"That is... it is always coughing, the blood is coughing out, he is very thin, so thin and willing to eat, there are many places on his body are rotten..." Nangong Liu said, tears replied Like a broken column, I cried in tears. "I am worried about him. If he is gone, what should I do? No one will accompany me anymore, talk to me, feed me to eat oranges." ""

"He...he still feeds you to eat oranges?"

However, as seen from the Confucianism Gate last time, the two brothers Nangong Liu and Xu Shuanglin were simply * and enmity. Xu Shuanglin did not continue to take Lingqi fruit live. His brother is already a miracle, feeding the oranges?

I can't imagine it.

Jiang Yan is indulged in depression: "Many places are rotten..."

Xue Zheng said: "It sounds like a counter-attack of the chess game?"

The smoldering is also very clear about this. The three major banned games, if the practitioner is not enough, and forcibly manipulates the pieces too many times, the body will begin to fester slowly.

When he first started practicing in the past, he also rotted. Starting from the toes, when he was burning, he was afraid of being discovered by Chu, and he never dared to act rashly. Later, he invented the "community of the heart" and continued to cultivate. Later, he became the emperor of the emperor, and he was full of spiritual power. He could control a thousand horses without a concerted heart, but the necrotic left foot and small toe could no longer be restored.

The ink burned and felt strange.

The zombies outside are obviously manipulated by the unity of the heart. Only the corpses that can move freely in this hall are completely controlled by Xu Shuanglin’s spiritual power.

Since Xu Shuanglin can't support so many pieces, why do you have to pay for it?

It’s useless to be trapped here, Jiang Yan said: “Go ahead.”

The gate leading to the Dragon Soul Pond also needs to be opened. This machine has not been smashed. After the start, the front door of the seven-star squadron is inlaid with a rumbling sound. The stone door is shrunk into the wall. The nave of the Temple of Heaven slowly showed his appearance in front of everyone.

It is a hexagonal closed palace, the walls are wet and damp, and there is a rough Tenglong relief at the top of the zenith. The bones are distinct and the eyes are roaring. This dragon has an oil lamp in it, and I don’t know it. What oil, the light that burned out is actually blue and blue.

In the center of the temple, there is a pool of blood red floating foam, and it is steaming outside.

Nangong said: "This is the Dragon Soul Pool, and the Dragon God's God is sealed in this blood pool."

Some people want to get closer to seeing it, Nangong said: "Don't look at it, this pool is very evil. If you stare at it for a long time, your mind will be scattered. Let's go."

The group walked by the side of the blood pool under the leadership of Nangong Temple. They walked into the corridor behind the nave. Although there was no day, there was no reference, but the ink burned them and they were always going uphill.

In this section of the road, there was a fragrant scent of light, and then Nangong Liu stopped. In front of him was a door narrower than the front, but decorated with jewels.

"After the door is opened, take another road, which is the exit of the ramp." Nangong said, "After going out, it is the last place in the Temple of Heaven, called the Soul Taiwan, and Xu Sulin should be on the Soul."

Huang Xiaoyue suddenly asked: "How many places does the Confucianism Gate Temple go to? The front hall, the dragon blood pool, and the soul-hunting platform?"

"Not bad."

"Is there no secret room?" He was anxious and almost said to be a secret room. Fortunately, he responded in time. "I mean, Xu Shuanglin may also be in the secret room."

Nan Gongyi looked at him meaningfully, and that kind of vision really looked at Huang Xiaoyue a little embarrassed. Finally, Nangong said: "Go ahead and go to the soul station and read it."

Opening this last door, you need the blood of the Nangong family. Nangong 驷 wiped his blood on the eye of the stone door dragon. The organs on the door moved and turned, and then heard a faint sigh.

Huang Xiaoyue stunned: "Who is talking?!"

Then he pointed to Nangong and said: "You kid will not be swindling? Please join us?"

Nangong Yu said indifferently: "If you can't believe me, I can still go out now, sit in the hall and wait."

Huang Xiaoyue certainly refused, but he left his mind before he entered. This way, he found that all important thresholds need the blood of the Nangong family to open, and the legendary treasure house must be the same. So before Huang Xiaoyue entered the door, his hand intentionally or unintentionally wiped a hand on the longan, secretly stained some of the blood of Nangong...

Suddenly, an empty voice rang in the dark road.

"Where are you, who?"

Huang Xiaoyue made a guilty conscience, and he almost jumped up. Others also looked around and looked forward. Nangong said: "There is the seventh generation of the Confucianism, Nangong Temple."

"Don't leave... Welcome... Master..."

After the voice slowly said this sentence, it turned out to be awkward.

"The separation is the name of the dragon." Nan Gongyi said to Jiang, "Ginger, please."

Jiang Yan looked at the front of the road, about a hundred feet away from the place, revealing the white light, presumably there is the soul-stricken stage, Jiang Yan walked a few steps forward, suddenly the earth slammed again, the ethereal The voice of the voice rang again.

"Don't leave, welcome... Lord... people..."

"What happened to this dragon?" Jiang Yan frowned. "Do you say it twice in the same sentence?"

However, the face of Nangong Temple has changed. He immediately turned his head to see the direction of the soul-striking platform. The light and shadow suddenly flashed slightly. He had not had time to see it clearly. He had already heard the screaming voice in the ear, followed by the skylight. There was a flood of water.

Nangong’s pupils gathered and screamed: “Run!!”

Chapter 223

Where is the flood of them coming to them? It is clearly a snake that gathers into a stream!

When you are in a small squat, you can do it in a mess. You push me and I squeeze you. In a flash, it’s not a small number of people who are trampled to death. Jiang Yan will push Nangong forward: “You go first, here I will respond. ”

He said that the Yingying powder had been scattered in the sleeves, and the snakes smelled the powdery breath, and they all stood up in shape and did not dare to go forward.

Jiang Yan screamed in front of him: "Come calm down, go back to the nave, don't squeeze!"

He lived in the snake tide, and then quickly caught up with the big troops. When he retired to Shimen, he found Nangong Temple to look at the Tamron relief. He asked Nangong: "What is going on?"

"The magic dragon must have been controlled." Nangong said, "I want to go back and check the situation of the Dragon Soul."

He said that he was going to go. Jiang Yan grabbed him: "What about the snakes behind? I didn't bring too much dispersing powder. After the drug has dissolved, they will definitely come again."

The leaf standing on the side said: "I am coming."

She was taught in the dark city of Confucianism at an early age, so she is better at fighting in the dark and narrow places than everyone else.

Although Nangong驷 did not want her to stay, she was reluctant to look at her, and she did not except her. There was no more suitable choice, so in the end, Nangong had to shoot her shoulder.

"It's too dark, I know you don't like it, keep it for a while, I will be back soon."

Jiang Yan and Nan Gong Temple were the last to go out of the way. When they came out, Huang Xiaoyue swooped forward. The fierceness of the scene was really not the appearance of an old man who had to be white.

"Nan Gong Yu! You dare to say that you are not a ghost?"

Nangong’s forbearance for a long time, and finally reached the limit at the moment, he angered: "I am a ghost, can you still stand here now? Go away, don't block the road!"

Huang Xiaoyue was shocked first, then he pointed his nose: "Look, look, the mask has been torn off? The fox tail is coming out? I have been carrying my grandson, and now I am in your land, and even the door is ringing. Do you think that you are still the windy Confucianist scorpion? How dare you be so arrogant!"

"Huang Xiaoyue."

In addition to the Nangong Temple, there are other people who endure the limit.

Jiang Yan really can't see the sand in his eyes. He touched his teeth and said: "Don't think that I don't know if you are aggressive, what you want to do."

Huang Xiaoyue’s hand was smashed, his face changed, but he still insisted on calming: “Jiang Jiangmen may not be able to understand the feelings of the old man. I have a brother-in-law with the Confucianism, I...”

"I really can't understand the mood of Huang Daochang." Jiang Yan turned his eyes and looked at him coldly. "I have no interest in the treasure house of Confucianism."

His gaze was like a two-handed blade. Huang Xiaoyue slammed back two steps, staring at Jiang Yan, his lips opening and closing, but he was ashamed, and he couldn’t say a word.

Jiang Yandao: "Nangong, you can check it."

However, the Dragon Soul Pool was on one side of the pool, and there were no gaps in the wall. After careful observation for several laps, no abnormalities were found. Nangong swayed and shook his head and said, "I will go to the front hall and see."

The furnishings of the front hall are much more complicated, not to mention that there are so many precious pieces, Nan Gongliu was previously left in the temple, and when Nangong entered, he was holding the basket of oranges and slumbering.

He stood in front of his father for a while, his eyes were blank and empty, but his eyes were involuntarily red. He didn't dare to stand for a long time, nor did he wake up the shackles that were made into pieces, but looked at them one by one, hoping to get a little clue.

When everyone was in the front hall, he didn't have any leisure time. He only knew that it was divided into two parts, "bliss" and "purgatory". At this moment, one by one, but found a lot of old people, he saw The four uncles who have always had a relationship with Xu Shuanglin are deeply immersed in "Purgatory" and are grilled on a fire. They see that the maids in the Sanshengyuan are in the "bliss" place, catching butterflies and catching butterflies... ...

He even saw his grandfather.

However, Nangong Temple did not have much time to feel sad because he suddenly felt that he was about to see a person, one...

Then he heard it.

He heard it in the tide of muttering.

a trembling, light mosquito-like

"Hey..."

The Nangong Temple is like a thunderous thunder, but it has not turned back, and the tears have been wet.

He turned and slid into the fog. He only saw a vague azure figure. He rushed to the figure, and he shouted hoarsely: "A Niang! A Niang!!"

Tears stunned and fell, and they cleared up.

In the "bliss" world, Yu Ting stands alone, and it is the mother of Nangong. Like Nangong Changying, this woman also has an extremely powerful force. In addition, Xu Shuanglin retains the heart of the hall, so even if Nangong is different from childhood, she can still rely on her own body. After Nangong broke into her vision, he recognized him.

She trembled to the Nangong, and it was extremely difficult to reach out the stiff fingers: "Hey... child..."

The clothes that Rong Rong wore were exactly the one that Nan Gongyi had when she finally saw her. He was kneeling in front of her, as if he had returned to the same year, and returned to the night of Confucianism, which seemed to be unusual. The mother went to the child's study to find him, and the moon was round.

Nangong was in front of her. He looked up at her. There was a lot of words to say, but in the end, it was a trembling thing: "Auntie... It’s known in the world without persuasion, it’s not the world. Without adding jest..."

Time is wrong.

The stern mother of the past stood by the window of Xuan Xuan and asked her: "The world is not a disappointment, what is the last sentence?"

The child is arrogant, but he can't answer it.

Later, she left too suddenly. When he was kneeling in front of her dark shackles, he still couldn't completely carry out the last volume of his mother's life.

This sentence "is acclaimed by the world without persuasion, and the world is not added without disappointment." After more than ten years of shackles, the dust finally settled.

He was kneeling in front of her, and it was still the same posture as the moonlight night. Their figure finally coincided with that year, but they were full of grievances, but now they have broken their livers and intestines, and at that time, they have become others. piece.

Rong Rong stroked the hair of Nangong, her cheeks, and finally caught his * mottled hands. She shivered and narrowed her eyes.

"Hey, my mother is now charged with the body, such as the meat on the sputum, and I will lose consciousness at any time... but, oh, you have to believe... the words of the maiden are all true... they are all thinking when they leave. Although Niang hates your uncle so much... but the mother is also grateful to him..."

"A mother..."

"If it weren't for him... I made a piece of chess, how can I see you again... and... tell you..." Rong Rong leaned slowly and leaned over, she trembled, reached out, and then moved to Nangong.驷 tightly embraced in my arms.

"Auntie before she left, the last thing she regretted was..." She choked and cried, but not because she was once again controlled by Xu Shuanglin. She hugged her child so tightly, she said, "I am the most What I regret is that I have never been, I have never held you so well. I have never held you like this... I am..."

"Auntie also loves you."

Nangong Yu has been crying: "I know... I know, mother, I already know."

Suddenly, the earth began to vibrate again, and he slammed his eyes and opened his eyes. He muttered: "The * contract will be torn apart..."

"what?"

"The * contract is torn apart! I am here, I can see it every day!" Rong Hao suddenly nervous. "Hey, you can't have something, I want to stop him... I want to stop Nangong... ..."

Nangong rubbed her tears and pulled her: "Aunt, what have you seen here? What * contract is torn?"

"You listen." Rong Rong paused, his eyes contracted, and it seemed to be subject to people at the same time, but she was biting the roots, and with the flesh and mind, the life blocked the control of the Jane Blacks. "You listen, Nangong Fushi collected five martial arts martial arts. These five martial arts have consumed a million people of blood. Together they can break the bond between the dragon and the Nangong family."

"Break the tie?!"

"Yes, Dragon Barn is the first to be cut off."

Nangong stunned: "So the zombies that suddenly burst up outside are actually because the dragon ribs were cut off, so they got rid of the control?"

"This is exactly the case." Rong Yu hoared, "The second one is the dragon scale."

Nangong’s thoughts on the snakes that he had encountered were all made by dragon scales.

"Third, is the dragon tail."

Nangong’s eclipse said: “The shock that was just that was the break of the dragon’s tail?!”

"Yes, then the dragon head, and finally the dragon body." Rong said, "Once Nangong is successful with the fifth magical weapon, the whole mountain will lose control...more... no longer recognize too The head is the main..."

Her expression was painful again. She couldn't say more words at the moment. Xu Shuanglin seemed to have noticed her actions and was trying to embezzle her body.

Tolerance and low mourning, the long, pale fingers are tightly buried between the hairpins: "No...no..."

"A Niang!"

"Hey, hey..."

His voice made her suddenly wake up again. She was like a thirsty person who got Ganquan. She held him tightly and looked a little helpless.

That was the helplessness he had never seen on her face.

Nangong’s heartache was like a cut. He held her in his arms. Before he was a child, Auntie was always very cold, very serious, and rarely hugged him.

Now he can finally protect her mother.

Although it is only a mirror of the water, but in a body, hiding some of the consciousness before life, even the soul is no longer there.

It is enough.

With her body in her arms, she shivered slightly in the arms of Nangong. After a long time, she raised her face again, and her face was full of blood and tears as a precious piece.

Nangong licked his throat and raised his hand to help her wipe it, but how to wipe it was dirty, how to wipe it, those bloodstains could not be wiped off, and he closed his eyes in pain.

Rong Rong said: "I can feel him... He has already noticed me... I don't have much time... Listen, he cut off the blood, for... It is to be able to re-define with the dragon. At that time... ah!!"

She is confused and difficult to continue.

However, Nangong Temple has already understood it. The last bit of blood on his face has disappeared: "At that time, he was only listening to his own orders. We were in Lushan - one could not escape?!"

"Never be so..."

"Never!"

The mother and the child actually spoke in unison.

Nangong驷 looked down to see her mother: "Auntie knows what to do?"

"Nangong florist is not home..." Rong Yan's face flashed a chill. "He...he couldn't keep the precious pieces...so he was rebellious, so I can...recognize his inner heart... I know what to do - you listen to me."

With the arm of Nangong's arm, her eyes swept over an inch and then fell on her husband.

Because of the earthquake, Nangong Liu was awakened, holding his own basket of oranges, looking around in confusion, a look of unknown.

She stared at him like an eagle staring at the snake in the hole.

"You need to die alone." Zhu Lip Kai Qi, Rong Shudao, "Hey, you go kill him."

Chapter 224

"!" Nangong stunned, "A Niang?"

"The deed of the dragon, only by the Nangong family blood sacrifice, can be reinforced." Rong said, "Only you, or him. So of course he is ... he is already a chess piece, walking dead... not to mention, Why is he alive? He is unfaithful to his husband, he is not strict with his father, he is not respected by the king, and he is worthy of being a man. Who knows why Nangongbu’s thoughts solved his lingering fruit, only let him do it. fool?!"

Nangong is in the same place as the original place. It seems that he has also become a chess piece, which is stiff and difficult to move.

"Hey, it’s hard to do it for the sake of the mother. It’s only you...you can only put him into the dragon soul pool, blood into the pool...he... a commandment, you can change everyone’s peace, but also count him ...dead after death!"

He hasn't reacted yet. Suddenly, someone in the Dragon Soul pool is yelling: "What happened? Where did these beetles come from?"

Beetle...?

Then there was a scream of screams in the temple, as well as the sound of drinking by Xue Zhengyi and Jiang Yan. Rong Rong anxiously said: "As soon as possible, the dragon's blood contract has been broken, and the last two contracts, and so on, completely thrown away, even if he is thrown into the blood pool, it does not help."

Nangong was awake by her head.

"What's so hesitant?!" Rong said. "It's all about him. It's the reason for the Confucianism to the present day. Hey! You wake up! There is no other choice, you-!"

She suddenly lost her voice.

Then, her eyes turned up slightly, her pupils contracted sharply, and Xu Shuanglin seemed to finally endure the inability to control her with the most awesome spiritual power.

Rong Rong no longer has his own consciousness.

Her face reappeared as a dreamlike look. She slowly got up and walked towards the side of "Blur", returning to the inconspicuous position she had been at the beginning, her eyes emptied and whispered: " Hey... tell A Niang that the world is ruined without adding a disappointment. What is the previous sentence?"

Nangong is shaking.

He trembled on the ground, he was not controlled by anything, but he felt that there was no way out there.

The world's reputation is not persuaded, and the world is destroyed without adding disappointment.

This is what he asked her to do, and it is so difficult.

It's really hard.

When I was a child, I couldn’t understand the embarrassing tour, or let him hit the nine hearts with ten arrows. It’s too difficult and too difficult.

Today, she told him to use his father's blood to reinforce the * relationship of Lushan.

He listened to the sorrow and screams outside, only to hear the sound knows how horrible the beetle that the awakened dragon tail becomes. He thinks of the leaf forgetting, and still faces the snake tide alone in the dark, waiting for him to check it as soon as possible. Ming leaves everything back to the past.

"驷儿..." Behind him is the mother's mutter.

He slowly took out his long sword and walked toward Nangong Liu.

hate.

How can you not hate?

He looked at the man -

Why don't you hate him?

Lively digging the mother's heart, privately arranging the head of Jiangdongtang, and murdering the Lizhuang Lizhuang master, letting the Confucianism door be destroyed, leaving a pile of mess and showing a stigma that makes him and Ye Yexis nowhere to go. The dog who lost the family is not the dog who lost his family. How can he not hate him! !

The sword was lifted, and the snow reflected the face of Nangong Liu.

The face that is no longer young, with a few sons will have peace and calm.

Nangong Liu looked at Nangong Temple, so Nangong’s hand shook. He didn’t go too far. He said, “You get up.”

"Who are you? Why do you want me to get up? I have to sit here, I have to wait for you..."

"What is your majesty!" Nangong screamed at him, his heart screamed, blood flow in the blood vessels, arrogant, "That is your brother! Nanlu Liu?! That is your brother!!"

"It’s the younger brother who is also your majesty." Nangong Liu was shocked and shrunk into a ball. "You don't want to be so fierce, you... you... why are you crying?"

Did I cry?

Nangong thinks.

I... I cried?

The bitter and salty tears fell and fell to the ground with the sword.

Nangong suddenly fell to the ground, it is already awkward.

Why is this happening?

He hates him. He thinks that he can really hate to force his father to go to the Dragon Soul Pool with himself, and recast the * relationship between Lushan and Pei.

Why can't he hate? It’s just that this person’s own person is homeless, and his family is broken. Why don’t he hate it?

but……

But I really can't go.

When the sword illuminates the person's face, when he sees the wrinkles in the corner of the person's eyes, what he thinks is actually --

It turned out that when he was still very young, he stumbled and chased Naibaijin in Xiaoyue Caochang.

The legs and feet were unstable and finally fell.

Rong Rong stood in front of him and said to him who was crying, "Get yourself up."

It hurts.

But it hurts. He struggles and works hard, but he can't stand up.

He reached out and begged the mother to hold him once and pull him.

However, Rong Rong did not reach out and never reached out.

Finally, another warm big hand, picked him up from the ground, hugged it into his arms, and the sun shone, and he saw a face.

A young, gentle, like a gentleman, always a loving face.

"Oh, our nephews occasionally want someone to help." The man touched his soft hair and his eyes were very gentle. "If you climbed up yourself, what do you want to do?"

That was the earliest and earliest impression of his father at the beginning of Nangong’s memory.

In this secluded, full of living dead, the only living man groaned, stumbled and climbed up on his own.

He got up, but he quickly fell.

In the direction he was in the direction of Rong Rong, he had three long heads, and then he got up again and turned to leave.

Suddenly, the sleeves were pulled.

The person who held him was actually Nangong Liu.

"..."

Nan Gongliu took out an orange from the basket and handed it to him. After thinking about it, he peeled another piece and handed it directly to his lips.

"Don't cry, though I don't know what you are going to do. But the oranges are sweet and especially delicious. I picked them, you try them."

Nangong don't want to eat, but the orange is on the lips, and Nangong Liu handed him him, just like he fed him many times when he was a child.

The sweet and sour juice spread out between the lips and teeth, and Nangong smeared his tears. He finally made up his mind to throw the long sword and turned and walked out of the front hall.

He came to the pool of the Dragon Soul.

The beetle that was made by the dragon was too fierce. There were already many monks who died and the blood flowed into the river. Because the insects are too small, the great masters such as Chu, Ning Jiang, and so on can only protect a small number of people behind them. The scene is a lot of miscellaneous, just like in the boiling soup.

No one noticed that Nangong came in.

He entered the temple.

A few hours ago, he lost his spiritual core, thinking that he would become a mortal, and live forever.

At this moment, I suddenly felt that the fate knew that his heart was high. Although he was not thicker than him, he was not thinner than him at the end.

The only owe...

His gaze fell to the cave leading to the soul-stricken platform.

Leaves forget.

Nangong Yu suddenly smiled and smiled.

Fortunately, I didn’t have time to tell her at the end of the day, thank you for her persistence, thank you for her unwavering commitment. Fortunately, I didn't have time to tell her that he finally understood her good, her affection, and she was willing to stay with her ever since.

Otherwise, if you are ignorant of the girl, then...

"thump."

So what?

He didn't finish it. If he thought about it, he would probably never have the courage. He didn't finish it, so he swallowed the boiling blood pool. When he didn't finish it, he turned into a skeleton and became ashes.

The last thing he had to do before he was to untie the arrow in his waist, embroider his mother's needles and needles, and throw the white wolf in the wolf.

Nan Gongyi felt that he was still conscious at the moment he was in the ashes, but it was not painful. He seemed to hear clearly the sound of the quiver safely falling on the ground, and the call of Naobaijinjin seemed to still listen. When he arrived in Chu, he called his name, and he rarely lost it.

He thought it should.

He wants to respond:

Master respect...

I recognize you.

How can I not recognize you?

In fact, I always remember that under the flower tree that year, I fell down and worshipped the teacher.

But you don't want me.

I also have my self-respect and pride. I am afraid that you will not see my roots, so I have been working too young and too old.

Later, you are willing to recognize me, but I am afraid that I will be tired of you...

it's good now.

I have a teacher, I gave A Niang a happy tour, Ye Yexiu and Naobaijin are all right.

By the way, I didn’t expect to have an orange before I died.

It’s that person... peeling it by hand...

It’s a taste of the orange that I tasted when I was young.

So sweet...

The soul of Nangong Temple was scattered, everything faded, everything became a phantom of the past, and the old dreams of the past were gone.

Belongs to the blood deed.

The Dragon Soul Pool suddenly shoots out the dazzling light, where the light shines, the dragon screams and screams, destroys the dead, and puts all the dragon-tailed beetles, dragon-scale snakes, and lifts the dragon ribs of the corpse. Broken into ashes, left as a powder.

When Ye Yexixi rushed out of the cave and rushed out of the blood, the glimpse was the moment that Nangong 驷 finally fell into the pool, saw the blood pool of the long light, and all the monks looking at the blood pool, the poolside Naobaijin, who is sobbing and helpless, leaned over and hugged Naobaijin’s Chu nightning...

Her sabre fell to the ground with a bang.

"Auntie!!!!"

The hoarseness is exhausted, and the cracks are gone!

At this time, Ye Yexi was covered with scars. She staggered forward and walked a few steps. She had not had time to walk to the blood pool. She had not even had time to cry. The heavy injuries and crazy emotions finally broke. Her. The snake venom spread on her, her bones were cold and her body was cold.

"Auntie..."

She stepped forward and ran over, her lips blue and purple, swaying, choked, and tears slid down. But she couldn't support it anymore, she fell heavily on the cold brick.

She was faint in front of her eyes, but she was still squatting on the ground with * mottled fingers, trying to move forward and move.

Obviously know that it is too late.

Ming Ming saw the Nangong 跃 jumped into the Dragon Soul Pool.

It is clear that everything is over.

But I am not willing, how can I be willing... How can I be willing! !

It seems that as long as he insists on climbing to the edge of the pool, he can return the person. It seems that as long as he persists for a moment, Nangong will be able to return to her side.

He said it.

Before the snake cave, he clearly promised -

He said that it is too dark, I know that you don't like it, you insist on it for a while, I will come back soon.

Tears are rolling.

She insisted that the silver teeth bite and stick to it, so little, stunned, squatting, crawling to the edge of the Dragon Soul pool that has already been extinguished.

I'm coming.

What about you?

The eyes are very dark, the surroundings are very cold, is there any ghosts to come, is there a poisonous snake to commit, can you, like the past, a piece of magical spirits, and the wind and wind back.

Tell me again: "Go with me, I will protect you."

"Nangong Temple... Auntie..." She choked, and eventually became a sly, crying loudly. "You are coming back! The gentleman said, you have to keep promises, you are coming back!"

But the cry didn't last long. The fierce toxins and wounds finally engulfed her. Before she lost her consciousness, the last thing she did was to reach out and touch the pool wall of the Dragon Soul Pool, as if to catch the people in the pool and leave him in the pool. By the side.

Everything has to be better... Aunt’s spiritual tyranny can be tried to stop it, and everyone hasn’t hated them so much... It’s going to be in the first place.

But the darkness is coming again. This time, for her, there may be no more days.

"Auntie..."

The leaves whispered, and finally closed their eyes slowly.

The evil spirit of the dragon was finally suppressed. Nangong’s sacrifice was made with flesh and blood, and the broken bond was reinforced, and the dragon blood pool of Nangong’s soul was merged. Xu Shuanglin was hard to destroy.

It’s over.

There is no longer a grass and a tree in Lushan, which can be used by Xu Shuanglin. Nangong Temple does not have the ability to go through the Nangong Changying, but in the end it is him, and cut off the most sharp minions of Xu Shuanglin.

Everyone did not speak, only to hear the subtleties of those who were previously injured.

The light of the dragon blood pool gradually dissipated, and the ink burned to the side of Chu nightning. Chu night Ning lowered his head and squinted. The hand holding Naobai Platinum was pale and cold, because of the forbearance, the light blue blood vessels under the skin were slightly convex. Out.

"Master respect..."

Chu nightning did not say anything, he finally put Naobai Platinum beside Ye Xie, along with the Nangong Temple's quiver.

He got up and had water vapor in his eyes, but when he looked at the ramp leading to the Souls, the water vapor became frost.

He said nothing, and he asked the golden light in his hand, and he went to the dark road.

The ink burns with him, and the disciples of death and death are silently keeping up.

No one asked, no one spoke.

What they mean by the beginning is clear in their hearts, but they keep up with them, and no one is shrinking. Then it is the Snow Palace, the lonely moon night...

Before Jiang Yanjin’s martyrdom, he ordered several doctors who were healed and guarded. He said, “You stay here, and you will take care of the wounded, especially the girl. If these are not dead, if you lose your life, go back to the whole year. Stone, all buckled."

"Yes, the head."

The door to the soul-striking platform has been opened, and this road has lost its way. They came to the last place of the Confucianist ancestral temple.

Finally arrived, sacrifice the land of souls.

Calling the soul.

Chapter 225

Chu Yuning was the first to walk out of the ramp. Unlike the narrowness in the ramp, he took the last level of stone steps. The pure land above the nine.

At this time, the moon was empty, the high platform was stunned, and the grass was not born. Looking up, but seeing the hurricane, the shadow of the clouds, and the most central place of the high platform, sitting alone.

Xu Shuanglin.

The people behind came out one after another, but they all saw Xu Shuanglin’s moment stunned. Xue Zhengyi was even more shocked: "How... This is... What is going on?"

Another person took a sigh of relief and whispered: "Oh my God, how could this be?"

"Is he dead or alive?"

The ink burned toward him, the closer he was, the more the scene in front of him was chilly, and the cheekbones were cold--Xu Shuanglin sat cross-legged on the ground and closed his eyes. The right half of his body has completely rotted, and there is no human form at all. The body is constantly pouring out pus and black water, and the stench is pressing. In front of him, he was surrounded by five fierce martial arts.

The fingertips of the burnt ink could not help but smashed--he saw that he did not return.

Not resolutely stabbed to the ground, the pale green glow climbed all the way from the ground, and finally merged with the rays of the other four weapons into the stream, pouring into the heart of Xu Shuanglin, and shosing Xu Shuanglin’s face It is sunny and bright.

Behind Xu Shuanglin, a group of black lacquered haze whirls in a hovering motion, which seems to be some kind of enchantment that is about to be formed.

Others followed.

Huang Xiaoyue murmured in disbelief: "This is... is this the martial arts?"

Xue Meng didn't know what the martial arts technique was. He just wanted to ask his father, but he turned his head and saw Xue Zhengyi's face pale. Obviously, he did not believe that someone would use this technique.

"What exactly is this?"

I don’t know that the martial arts technique is more than just Xue Meng’s, and the juniors are whispering.

Chu Yuening stared at Xu Shuanglin's face and said: "The martial arts technique is to dedicate your soul to Shenwu, which is stained with blood, to make a contract with Shenwu, and swear that after the death, your soul will be weapond by Shenwu. Shredded and swallowed, and became a sacrifice for the martial arts."

"The living sacrifice weapon?" Xue Meng said, "Why do you want to do this?"

"Because his spiritual power is not enough." Chu said, "This is a way to quickly and substantially increase your strength. He dedicated his soul to Shenwu, and Shenwu, lend his strength to him."

As I spoke, I suddenly heard a sigh of sigh.

Almost everyone can't help but take a step back, Xue Menglong City is out of the sheath, staring at Xu Shuanglin's face.

Xu Shuanglin slowly opened his eyes. Under the moonlight, he raised his face, half of which was still normal, and half of it was a stinking mud.

"Chu Zongshi...Jun Jun, you still find it."

He stood on the ground with one hand and stood swaying, his eyes sweeping over or alert, or disgusting, or a fearful face.

He didn't care, and the normal eye turned, and there was even a malicious trick and evil. But he swept a circle and swept again. He did not find the existence of that person. The smile of his face was frozen and disappeared.

Xu Shuanglin sighed lowly and said: "What about leaves?"

Xue Meng angered: "Do you also mention her name?"

"What happened to you?"

Xue Meng is even more angry: "Do you have it? You are a person who has no heart and no lungs, no blood and no meat. What other faces do you have to miss the leaves?"

The word "suspended?" seems to have provoked Xu Shuanglin. He first glimpsed and then narrowed his eyes. It seemed to calm down. "No, how can I miss? It’s ridiculous..."

Jiang Yansen said: "What do you do with him nonsense? Kill him!"

Speaking of the right hand lifted up, Xue Huang Pei Jian is now in the palm of his hand, he will fall to Xu Shuanglin, expecting a black shadow as lightning, and actually cut off his offensive.

Jiang Yanmei raised it and gnashed his teeth: "Why did the Mo Zongshi stop me?"

"I have something to ask him!" The ink burned and turned around. His eyes flashed with complex light. He licked his lips. He seemed to want to say a few more words, but only four of them spit out. Word, "What about your associates?"

Xu Shuanglin is slow--he is actually like this, but he can still slow down and lick his toes.

So the ink burned that he did not wear shoes today.

"I said it was my accomplices." Xu Shuanglin showed his white teeth and smiled. The smile on the half of his face looked very fascinating. With a hint of ridicule, "then you should know that I will never say. I Xu Mou Ren, this point of view is still understandable. You heroes, gentlemen, and heroes, you should not pay more for this."

He deliberately glanced at the ghost in the hands of the ink, and said: "There is no need to use other methods of interrogation. It is a big deal to get rid of your tongue and cut off your tongue. I always have a way to not tell the truth."

Xue Meng looked very wrong: "You, someone like you, is still very embarrassed to say what rivers and lakes are loyal..."

"Weird, why can't I say Jiangyue loyalty?" Xu Shuanglin said, "Friends help each other, brothers and sisters Christine, teacher Ci filial piety, good people enjoy Qing Ning, evil people get disciplinary, this is what the world should have." Do you think that this is the only reason you can understand?"

Xue Meng was shocked by his thick face like a city wall, pointing at him: "Brother and brother, Christine? Teacher, filial piety?...you?"

Xu Shuanglin said slowly: "Yes, how?"

"Do you want a face? The person who is dying with the brothers and sisters is you. The people who eat Luofeng Hualing's core in Weinan Gongliu are also you. You have done all the bad things, you actually... you can still say so confidently-- - This is what the world should look like?"

In the face of Xue Meng's series of questions, Xu Shuanglin grinned and laughed, but did not turn it down, but suddenly said: "Little brother this year Geng?"

"What do you ask for this?"

"You don't tell me." Xu Shuanglin looked at him up and down and said, "I think you are twenty years old. Twenty-year-olds are always bloody, full of innocence, and stand tall and high. Between heaven and earth, I feel that nothing in the world can't be done by myself."

He paused, and Xiao smiled: "It’s a good age."

The glory of the gods on the ground continued to flow, and continued to give him a powerful spiritual power. He used this spiritual power to maintain his manipulation of thousands of rare pieces, against the counters of the chess pieces, but Rao did. The skin on his body is still festering bit by bit at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Xu Shuanglin didn't care. He didn't seem to see the body he was being swallowed by. He walked back and forth before the entangled enchantment: "Twenty years old...you know that when I was about the age of you, I was doing it. what?"

"What else can you do?" Xue Mengyi said with indignation, "Who is not clear about the broken thing you did? You have won the ring of the teacher and replaced your brother as the head of Confucianism, in just two months. You even killed two of the Lords in the upper world, and later someone asked you to ask for a statement, and you dug out their eyes - you are dead, unrighteous, incompetent, closed ears, you It’s all! If I am like you, doing these things at the age of twenty, then I would rather be violent at the age of twelve!”

Xue Zhengxuan saw his excitement, fearing that he had caught the attention of Xu Shuanglin, could not eat and walked away, whispered something: "Menger, you say a few words."

"Don't." I don't know if this sentence was heard by Xu Shuanglin. He waved his hand with a smile. "Well, why don't you say a few words?"

Xue Meng saw that he actually laughed. The look on his face was like watching a parrot sing on the shelf and singing. It was full of playfulness. He couldn’t help but scream and become angry. "You, you are really shameless! No cure." !"

"There is nothing to be ashamed of, what you said, this is nothing." Xu Shuanglin said, "You said that I have won the ring of the teacher - since ancient times, there are capable people. My brother, that waste, nothing will happen. By relying on a three-inch slippery tongue, it can also be mixed with the wind and water. No one who has actually competed with him has thought that he is one of the best figures, calling us a Confucian double son. The technique is not the same – don’t you think it’s ridiculous?”

"I, and him?" Xu Shuanglin smirked his forehead and smirked. "Don't tease. I can take advantage of him when I take one hand from an early age. Do you want me to go with him? I am only doing it all the time, he only I know that in his old lady's arms, I will spoil the oranges! I am practicing in the summer and practicing in the summer. I am not studying in the spring, but I am sleeping in the summer. Later, in order to seek a good name at the Lingshan Conference, he is behind the Yin. I asked for a seat to enjoy it! Later? You gave the hard-working person the name of the pick, but gave him a good reputation for the world’s first handsome, is this fair?”

Xue Meng hesitated, but still insisted: "Then you will not do this to the point..."

"Crap! Stand up and talk without hurting, empty mouth and blame others are easy to get very good, it is their turn to turn into another face, the Lingshan Conference, you can bear it for you?!"

Xue Meng was not prevented from being an army by him, but he was stunned.

Change him, can he bear it?

"Hundreds of people at the meeting pointed at you and said that you are not ashamed. The rankings and applause are all his, leaving you with only a lifetime of insane sins, your hard work and hard work, in front of his tongue. It’s not a battle – is this fair?”

"I……"

Seeing Xue Meng screaming and unable to speak, Xu Shuanglin sneered: "I will kill the two heads. They are two people, one knocking a wooden fish all day, and no Amitabha in the south is better than anyone else. Another prestige is good." Hey, the gentleman who is just right is famous all over the world, but they have pushed me down into the abyss for the sake of self-interest. I would like to ask Zhu Jun, why should I spare my dog?"

The two martial people on the scene heard him say that the first generation of the head, the face is a burst of purple for a while, want to argue, but can not argue any sentence of stagnation, and finally the master of the mysterious temple without the sad temple Take a breath and close your eyes: "When you report, when is it..."

"Yeah, when you say it, you can't wait to understand the enemies. Why is it?" Xu Shuanglin said the anger in a word, but his face was still smiling, and his smile was light and light. There are even some ridicules, "I slap you a slap, and then say when the slogan is reported, don't let you fan back, are you willing, vulture?"

Someone was annoyed: "Nangong smudges your mouth and puts it clean! How can you talk to your predecessors!"

"My mother is also your predecessor." Xu Shuanglin smiled. "Small, your mouth is also clean."

"..."

Huang Xiaoyue needs to say: "Nangong floe..."

After the words have not been finished, the other party has made a gesture of holding, holding half of the sound, half of the rotten mouth: "Under the discussion, can you call me Xu Shuanglin? I don't like the name of Nangong."

Huang Xiaoyue, a sleeve: "If you want to get a fair, kill the two heads, you should have paid off, and then dig up the eyes of so many people, what is the reason?"

Xu Shuanglin is pleased to say: "I used to make sense to you. But no one listens to me."

He paused and laughed. "Later, Laozi became a madman, but you have to take a madman to talk about black and white. You guys are gentlemen... interesting." He slaps and slaps. "It's so interesting."

Standing next to it, there was no ink burning. At this time, I suddenly asked: "So, you are asking for a fairness, right?"

"..." Xu Shuanglin's gaze moved up one inch and moved to the face.

The two of them looked at each other on the steep stone platform.

In the eyes of the ink, Xu Shuanglin's shadow gradually blurred, and he saw that it was not the man in front of the body that was rotten and lingering.

Through Xu Shuanglin, he saw another shadow, wearing a beaded robes and wearing a black gold robes. He saw the emperor and saw his past life.

"We came across Nangong Liu on the way. He called you a squat, and you sealed yourself." Ink burned, "You become the emperor in this celestial palace, and you are in charge of the power of judgment. What do you say is right?" What is right, what you say is wrong, what is wrong is outrageous, and it’s up to you to kill and kill. Is this your fairness?"

Xu Shuanglin was silent for a moment and then sneered.

So the ink burned to see the stepping sin in the sneer, pale and handsome face covered with ridicule.

"What is it? You have seen it. Once I also believed in being a gentleman, I believe that the world is fair, what can be the result?"

He paused and walked back and forth in front of the martial arts. His eyes flashed with agitation: "It's you, the coward is regarded as a hero, and the hero is stepped on his feet. It's you, making efforts as dung and making the latrine Altar. It is you, look charming as friendly, and regard arrogance as a shelf--you have done evil to step me into the mire!! Then tell me, even if I have been sinned again, even if my brothers suffer from the wall Planting, even if the clothes are not covered, they are humiliated - that is my own business, and no matter how to vent their grievances to innocent people - ha, it’s a joke!"

The sneer of the smoldering of the singer is becoming more and more exaggerated and gradually becomes a sneer.

"It’s not you who is referring to you. It’s not you who bear the crimes. You can of course say the best things in the world! And I, I’m just in my own way, asking for a world.”

"...There is a way in the world?" The ink burned on the opposite side of the emperor. He asked, "For your own world, how many people have been killed. You are self-proclaimed as emperors, and your feet are full of bones, blood, do you? Have you ever had a one-and-a-half-point remorse?"

"There is nothing to confess. I killed them, but I will give them a chance to be born again. They will all become the pieces of my majesty. From then on, I will control everything. From then on, the black and white will be clear, and the good and the evil will be distinct. This is the fairness of the world."

The ink burned for a while and said: "It seems that you really think of yourself as a ruler for measuring the world."

"I am this ruler."

Xu Shuanglin hunt in the wind.

He is the Nangong floe in the eyes of everyone.

It is the stepping stone in the eyes of the ink.

He said: "When you look at the front hall, don't you feel beautiful? The good people live and work in peace and contentment, the ugly people are burned by the fire, and the Ding Hao cooks. Whoever passes through other people's knives, let him lead the neck and make up for it. Is it wrong to make a written account clear and bloody?

Ink burning: "You can really see yourself."

Then he heard Teng Xianjun answer: "Why should I look down on myself? In my opinion, this is the best karma."

No one talks for a moment.

Everyone was shocked by Xu Shuanglin’s crazy remarks.

Before they came, many people felt that Xu Shuanglin did all this, probably for power, for private vengeance, and so on.

None of them thought that Xu Shuanglin actually felt that he was doing everything right, in order to be fair and fair.

But who can do the fairest ruler in the world? Even the gods and the Tianyin Pavilion may not be able to do it.

The ink burned in the same place. After a while, his heart finally recovered some calm. He looked at the stepping prince who stood against him.

The cockroach disappeared, and the handsome face sag and became dark.

He blinked and the person in front was Xu Shuanglin, not the emperor. Just because Xu Shuanglin was too similar to his previous life, he actually gave birth to an illusion of talking with himself through time and space.

"Well, then can I understand that the pieces in the hall, even if the spiritual power is insufficient, let them keep their minds before you, you built your own territory in this temple, and you are God is a Buddha. It’s the emperor’s majesty, you divide the world into two, good and good, and evil to evil. This is what you want to be fair.”

He said this paragraph.

At the same time, his mind was like a blast of snow, and quickly swept through many memory fragments related to Xu Shuanglin.

- Former life, in order to save the leaves, forget the past, the difference between a thought, died under the sword of Xu Shuanglin.

Standing in Sansheng's courtyard, barefoot, laughing and teasing Xu Yulin of the parrot.

Jin Chengchi, asked his brother to ask for a piece of orange to talk about Xu Sulin.

The orange tree of Lushan Mountain, the mind returned to the Nangong Liu of the childhood, and Luo Fenghua, who was robbed back in hell... One pile was piled together, and the mountain shouted into his thoughts.

The ink burned up the dark eyes, and there was no ridicule or contempt in the eyes, just looking at him quietly: "Is right, Nangong?"

"Call me Xu Frost..."

"No, you are called Nangong." The ink burned step by step. He looked at the man with the skeletal muscles. He knew that there would be no one in the scene who knew more about Nangong. At this moment, they used to be The person who forced the road to death, the stepping fairy of the previous life, the Xu Sulin of this world, the same.

He looked at the fire, he stared at the most subtle changes in Xu Shuanglin's face and did not misplace.

He stopped and suddenly coveted.

"The sky is so cold, the ground is so cold." The ink burns softly, "Nan Gongxu, why don't you wear shoes?"

The smile on Xu Shuanglin's face suddenly froze, but he quickly re-frozen his twinkling eyes: "I don't wear my wish-"

"Do you really like the words Ye Yexiong asked you?"

"..."

"I went to the Sansheng Bianyuan that day. I saw you for the first time. You didn't wear shoes." The ink burned. "It is she who later told you to let you wear it. I am satisfied with your face. I am afraid that you have no one." Awareness."

The smoldering stared at Xu Shuanglin's face.

That is when he is on Feihua Island, watching the blazing fire on the other side, when the smoke is rolling, the heart is guessing the answer.

"Nan Gongxu, you always hope that someone will notice your bare feet, I hope someone will tell you -"

Xu Shuanglin’s face, which had been smiling all the time, suddenly flashed a trace of fear. He took a step back, wrinkled his nose, and said: “You shut up.”

Ink burning naturally will not shut up, he looked at Xu Shuanglin, originally a speculation, in the sudden and intense reaction of Xu Shuanglin, turned into reality.

The ink burned at him. He felt that he was not seeing Xu Shuanglin, but the one who had nowhere to escape in the darkness.

"Put the shoes on, the floor is cool."

As the cheetah jumped, the light and shadow swayed and screamed, and Xu Shuanglin suddenly violently rushed to grab the smoldering robes. The normal man and the stinking ghost claws held him at the same time. Xu Shuanglin’s eyes were full of bloodshot eyes. He gnashed his teeth. Road: "Give me shut up! You shut me up!"

"Well, I will say a little more before I shut up."

"Don't say -!" Xu Shuanglin is almost desperate. He is like a dragon that has been pulled out of the scales. His blood is like a note. "Don't say..."

"Leave the past, it really looks like Luo Fenghua."

This sound understatement, but in an instant took the time to take all of Xu Shuanglin's strength.

He was dumb and stood on the ground.

Some people around who have seen Luo Fenghua and have seen Ye Forgiveness are a glimpse. They think back to these two very different people in their minds. They are not related, even in the red dust, one is dead, and the other is dead. One was born... But under this point, they suddenly realized that - ah, it was.

Ye Yixi's every move, one stroke and one style, even the character temper, voice look, are exactly the same as Xu Shuanglin's teaching teacher Luo Fenghua.

Xu Shuanglin withdrew his hands and smashed his ink, his fingers twisted, and he buried his face in his palm, his shoulders trembled slightly.

Xue Meng muttered: "He... is he crying?"

cry?

Will not.

Xu Shuanglin was buried in the palm of his hand. After a long time, the jitter on his shoulder became more and more obvious. The squeaky smile in the fingertips: "Ha..." The smile widened like a cockroach. He suddenly put his hands down and laughed wildly. Get up, "Ha ha ha ha ha, like? Simply nonsense! Mo Zongshi, have you seen Luo Fenghua? You just saw the body of his body when Hell was opened, just by this eye, you said they are like You are too confident and too confident."

"Since you have made your own hell, mention the body of Luo Fenghua." Ink burned, "So I ask, where is he?"

Xu Shuanglin’s eyes narrowed and smiled: “Where is he?”

"In your territory, good and evil punishment, or Shen or Rong, you are in control. But you even have Nangong Liu, and finally did not want to kill, you also solved his Ling Chi curse - I don't know This is why, however, since he is there, Luo Fenghua has no reason to be abandoned by you. You are not able to give your soul to Shenwu, but Jinchengchi Taohuayuan has been fighting with you several times. I know that your strength will not decline."

Xu Shuanglin: "..."

"The reason why I can't hold it, except for the use of the chess game is too much, there is another reason, that is the second ban on your hard work in these years."

The ink burned, and the knife finally stabbed: "Your rebirth, finally rescued Luo Fenghua from the 18th floor purgatory?"

The voice did not fall, Xu Shuanglin was as plastery, he was about to say something, and suddenly, the black lacquered method that had been circulating behind him vacated a white smoke.

Xue Zhengyi's hundred games in the sand field, the response is the fastest: "No, there is something behind the circle!"

The author has something to say: fat friends, the nest is still on a business trip, like a sea laborer, but the nest is watching comments every day~ I found that everyone has a misunderstanding... Before you say it depends on carefully, the characters in the supporting column are not Will die, (marked) but except for the boss group (marked), that is, as long as it is a boss, there is no chance to live in the supporting column, face licking face

Chapter 226

The weapons of everyone have been brushed out, Xue Zhengyi will protect Xue Meng behind him, his face is very poor: "Meng Er, don't go over, you are standing behind you!"

Only when everyone sees the martial arts array, naturally will not think of going to break, because once the martial arts squad is broken, Xu Shuanglin’s spiritual power will quickly succumb, and it is likely that he will die soon, and they still have to ask him.

No one expected that Xu Shuanglin was actually under the martial arts, and there was still a line of law.

What would it be?

Is it a space crack used to escape? It is still a fierce blood curse that is broken by the fish.

Chu Xi Ning raised his hand and laid a barrier between the crowd and the array.

Nangong dying in front of his face, he did not want to see more young monks in front of him.

Chu night Ningdao: "Be careful, don't take it."

The sky is steep and dark, and the cloud gas is concentrated. The original high moon is covered by thick clouds like ink, and the time flies away from the sand and the dust is blurred.

Xu Shuanglin sneaked into a white dress, standing in the wind blowing up, suddenly yelling at them: "Thank you for listening to my gossip for so long, thank you, everyone, the law is open."

When he spoke, the rotten ghost claws pointed back, and the black formation was like a dragon flying through the waves, madly pouring into his palm. After this layer was taken back, the following road was revealed. There is a curse of colorful Huaguang.

Xue Meng was shocked: "What is this?"

"Is it a rebirth?" This is Xue Zhengxuan who turned to ask the master of the mysterious temple of Wuxi Temple, but the master shook his head. "I have a sinful reunion, but he never plays before, so he is old. I don't know."

Everyone was staring at the array, and they all seemed to pull the bowstrings of the extreme. They waited for Xu Shuanglin’s singular action, and the air was quiet to the extreme. Only the gale whistling and screaming.

They are a pot of seemingly calm, actually burning very hot oil.

Just a drop of water -

"It’s a corpse!!"

Suddenly violently.

The stone was shocked and the boiling was blown up.

It was the cold-scale sage Hua Binan who first recognized the phalanx. He shouted: "The corpse!! Xu Shuanglin This is to call out Luo Fenghua's corpse, and let us go with it! Fast! Never let the formation form! !"

When I heard the words of the corpse, almost everyone was in a mess. They all know that it is a secret method that is second only to the three major bans. It is a medicinal sect, as the world's first medicinal master. The words of the cold scales are not wrong.

The same person who is good at medication, Jiang Yan from childhood, the words of the soul of the soul of the array of words, such as thunder, so he reacted faster than ordinary people, almost a stealth before the enchantment, the silver phoenix burst out, the spirit is full,击 击 狠狠！结！!!

"Hey!"

The sword collided and the fire broke down. Xu Sulin immediately flashed in the moment before the enchantment of the corpse, and the knife smashed the weapon of Jiang Yan, and his eyes were cold.

"The rest of my life is here, you don't want to be closer to half a step."

Jiang Yan’s anger: “What do you want for the rest of your life, is the fish dead network broken?”

Xu Shuanglin gnawed his teeth: "The nonsense!" The hand of his sword could not keep shaking, the blue veins burst, and his cheeks rose red.

Jiang Yandao: "You have been bruised and bruised, even if you become a corpse, how can you do it? Do you have a few funerals?"

"What corpse? What funeral?! You open your eyes and show me clearly, where is this-"

"brush!"

Just when Jiang Yan held down Xu Shuanglin, I did not know where to shoot a feather arrow filled with spiritual power, and quickly assassinated toward the enchantment behind the two.

"Don't-!"

Xu Shuanglin, who has always been in the old gods, made the most screaming scream for the first time tonight, "Stop!!"

Almost at the moment of his distraction, Xu Shuanglin was smashed by Jiang’s sword. In a moment, his blood was mad, and his pain suddenly fell to the ground, but his eyes were crazy and desperate, but he did not see himself being cut off. The bones of the bones, he witnessed the crack, but the direction of the enchantment.

There was a little blood on his face, his eyes were violent, his lips were not stunned.

Such a fearful expression, whether it was the face of the former Nangong floe, or the face of Xu Shuanglin later, did not appear.

He trembled, his palms maintaining a spiritual position.

This blow, he almost exhausted all his strength, just to keep the cold arrow in front of the battle.

He succeeded.

Xu Shuanglin gasped, and the arm that was cut by Jiang Yan could not stop pouring blood. The corner of his mouth could not stop bleeding, but he saw that the feather arrow was successfully blocked and shattered under his spiritual power. When his blue lips shook, he burst into a smile.

At this time, the smoldering heard the teacher whispering around him: "This... this is not a corpse."

He was heard by Huang Xiaoyue, and Huang Xiaoyue was cold and shouted: "You are not harmful when you are young? The cold scale saint says that the corpse can still be wrong?"

The teacher shook his head resolutely: "The corpse is not like this."

"I said that you are a poisonous medicinal sage, or is your eye poisonous?"

The teacher is trying to say that the ink is burning and holding him down.

"Teacher, don't talk nonsense with this old man." Ink ignited, "Do you know that this is not a corpse?"

"Just like it, but definitely not, the corpse of the corpse is fishy and shiny. Although there is light in this array, it is coherent, not flaky."

At this time, Jiang Yan before the array of anger said: "Nan Gongxu, what medicine is sold in your gourd?!"

Xu Shuanglin simply ignored him, and the law exudes a dazzling brilliance. He dragged his ruined body and walked all the way to the front of the squad, and the blood replied to the ground.

The smile on his face became more and more obvious. The Huaguang of the Factional Light illumined his face, and he gave birth to some temperamental flavors.

He muttered: "It's going to be..."

Raise your hand and touch the surface of the array. The fingertips fall and the ripples rise.

He seems to be seeing a friend who has been separated for many years, a relative who has been away for a long time, his wounds and rotten flesh can not stop his comfort.

His eyes were bright and he couldn't help but chanted: "It's going to be fast... It's going to be fast, a little bit..."

The violent wind that rushed around suddenly stopped, and the thick clouds dispersed, and the moon was empty. Xu Shuanglin widened his eyes with hope, and he was shaking again, but this time it was not because of fear, but because of excitement and unstoppable excitement.

"Master..."

Everyone found that the golden light floated in the enchantment, and then a crystal clear nucleus emerged. The enchantment continuously conveyed the brilliance to the center of the spiritual core, which gradually became condensed into adult form.

"Is Luo Fenghua?!"

"It’s Luo Fenghua!"

Luo Fenghua, who has been dead for many years, appeared on the soul-hunting platform of the Confucianist Gate! There was a blossoming orange tree in the enchantment flowing through the golden light. The white petals were falling and falling. Luo Fenghua was a blue-bellied crane in the Confucianist door. He was sitting under the tree and closing his eyes.

He is still a phantom, a vague, mirror-like scene. Only the regenerative ghost nucleus that came from the land was real, and it radiated under the emptiness of the body.

"There are three or four points in the pool, and one or two sounds on the shore."

The faint voice of the man was heard from the center of the spirit.

Luo Fenghua under the flower tree continued in the letter procedure, whispering a tune in the middle of the song.

"The weak crown is the best, the light hoof is fast, look at the end of the world..."

Suddenly, there was a hoarse voice and Luo Fenghua’s imaginary voice. It was Xu Sulin’s chorus to cater to the chorus. The voice was sobbing, too ugly, as if it was broken, like a rotten iron, but still stubborn, so there should be no one else. .

"This, this is the corpse?" Xue Zheng screamed. "What the * is going on?"

Obviously, there is more than one person with the same doubts. Even Jiang Yan’s brows are slightly wrinkled, his lips are not talking, and his eyes seem to have doubts.

Golden light floated, Luo Fenghua slowly formed, eyebrows, nose, lips, more and more clear, in this far-sighted song, Hua Binan suddenly shouted: "Fast! The corpse will be formed!!"

The teacher was very low-key all the way. He probably knew that he was whispering and didn't talk. At this time, he suddenly turned his head and shouted at Huabi Nan. "The sages are wrong, this is not a corpse! It is..."

It is a rebirth.

The burning heart is already clear.

Yes, there is nothing wrong with the teacher, this is not the battle of the corpse, this is the rebirth!

But a group of people get together, do you believe in a nameless minor repair, or believe in a well-known medicinal sage? Hua Binan said that the corpse must be formed, even if the teacher replied, for the most part, it is their own life. Immediately, a dark blue shadow that flew over quickly swept past them, and when Xu Shuanglin reacted, the shadow would be filled with a spiritual dagger and stabbed toward the enchantment.

"Do not!!!""

The blow smashed Luo Fenghua’s nucleus, and the golden light of the enchantment flashed for a moment, and it suddenly vanished and collapsed.

"No! Don't! Master! Master!!"

Xu Shuanglin climbed up and screamed and knocked down the man's volley. He flew out of the ruler and opened it. It was a lonely moon night monk who was instructed by Hua Binan at a critical juncture. He vomited a large amount of blood - Xu Shuanglin’s use Tens of ten strong, even if he is now the end of the strong, that person was also beaten by him, can not stand on the ground, and soon there is no breath.

It is already late.

The death of this monk does not change anything.

Xu Shuanglin tried his best, and the Luo Fenghua ghost spirit core recovered from the 18th floor purgatory had split a boulevard. He climbed all the way to Luo Fenghua and tried to hold Luo Fenghua's clothes, but the gathered human form has begun to scatter. Luo Fenghua's clothes are in his hands, like the sand between the fingers, the water in the basket, how can not hold.

"Master...Master..."

He shouted like this first.

Then it was almost crazy, and the eyes shimmered with dizzying light.

"Luo Fenghua! Luo Fenghua!!"

Useless.

No matter how he shouts, what to call.

Luo Fenghua's afterimages are quickly dissipated, and in the end, it turns into a 10,000-point fluorescence and blows into the wind...

Nothing is left.

Xu Shuanglin was lying in the same place, straight and straight, and the whole person looked very stiff.

He does not move.

Don't cry.

No longer shouted.

On the soul-seeking stage, in the midst of the wind, a cracked spiritual core lost its light and fell to the ground, dull and colorless.

Those who had to be aggregated into Luo Fenghua's reincarnation limbs, such as thousands of catkins, are constantly flying and spinning, the stars are a little bit, floating and sinking.

Xu Shuanglin was in this dream of dying.

After a long time, he seemed to mutter and sneer, and he seemed to laugh at himself. He said: "The weak crown is the best, light hoof, and look at the horizon?"

What a good song.

When he was a child, he often listened to Luo Fenghua singing.

The eye-catching spirits have become the past years. In the flying golden catkins, he saw the scene when he first saw his master in his childhood.

At that time, he and his brother were still young. His father brought them to the Confucian Academy. At that time, it was autumn. There was a pale old orange tree in the academy. The tree was full of heavy fruits, under the fruit trees, two A man is talking, a look that looks ugly, looks pale, and is quickly overwhelmed in the crowd.

The other is a heroic and cool place.

The father took them over and said, "I have seen your master."

His brother immediately rushed to worship and said to the man with extraordinary temperament: "The little Nangong Liu, see the Master."

The man waved his hand and said: "I just came to ask Mr. Luo for some knowledge. It is not your master, two young sons, you have mistaken people."

The father also smiled and led them to the man who didn’t seem to have anything to say. “This is your master, Luo Fenghua is long.”

He looked up and was smiling at Luo Fenghua. At that time, Luo Fenghua was originally young. When he was nervous, he looked even more immature. A pair of round eyes reflected the reflections of two little people, and his cheeks were slightly red. . The old master pulled his hand and said to him: "Xian Chang, my two children are very poor in temperament, and the suitable practice path may not be the same. I will ask you to give more advice in the future. ”

Luo Fenghua was holding an orange in his hand. He seemed to try to pick up the majesty that a division commander should have, but kept turning the hand of the orange, but exposed his youth and sorrow.

Nangong Liu is a ghost elf, and immediately goes up and screams: "Master Luo, Master Luo."

Luo Fenghua’s face immediately turned red, and even the tip of his ear was encroached by blood. He waved his hand: “I... No, I don’t have to be so polite, I am also a teacher, I still don’t understand anything... I’ll ask two young sons later. A lot of advice, I..."

He "I" for a long time, do not know what to say, Xu Shuang Lin clearly remembers the sunshine of Linyi that day, this is not so much a "master", it is better to say that Luo Fenghua like "Little Brother" stands in an orange-filled Under the tree, standing in the sky.

His ear edge is thin and backlit, and you can see the light blue blood vessels under the flesh, and the thin ear edges are reflected in a crystal-clear orange color.

Xu Sulin Lin then told Luo Fenghua the first sentence of his life.

"Luo Xianchang, is this year 20?"

This was originally a mockery. Even the father standing next to him heard it, but Luo Fenghua couldn’t hear it. He actually smiled and answered sincerely: "I am not full, I am seventeen this year."

"..."

Xu Shuanglin moved his mouth and wanted to say something, but in the end he did not say it. He simply left.

His father pulled him back and pulled it to a corner, sternly saying: "How can you only look at the age of the matter?"

"He is not much bigger than us."

"Wang Xianchang, who was previously invited to you, you are too old!"

"Isn't it old?" Xu Shuanglin rolled his eyes. "Ninety-seven, I think he is going to be a corpse."

"Thirteen is not good, and ninety-seven is not good. What are you going to do?"

Xu Shuanglin lazily said: "Hey, can you not find someone twice, is it 80 years old?"

"..." The old man came to the fire and was stunned by his son. He gnawed his teeth for a long time, and finally said, "He is not the best, but he has a wide range of knowledge, and he has learned a lot, and his skills are called high, in short. You honestly follow him, and if you are not satisfied after one year, let's change!"

It’s a long time to say that for a long time, the two came out from the corner. When they returned to the college, Xu Shuanglin saw that his brother actually had a good talk with Luo Fenghua. He looked at his brother’s face and seemed to have known him for more than ten years. Like.

However, this is not too strange. After all, Nangong Liu has a capable ability, that is, as long as he is willing, and anyone can cover it.

However, Luo Fenghua, still a bit embarrassed and cautious in his manners, he looked at Xu Shuanglin, and the kind of embarrassment and restraint became more and more obvious.

He looked at Xu Shuanglin's face, and came to himself under the pull of his father.

He hesitated for a while, almost appreciating this arrogant little apprentice in the most inferior way, like a child.

He handed Xu Shuanglin the orange that he had never eaten.

Xu Shuanglin: "..."

"It's very sweet, you try it."

The seventeen-year-old little master looked helpless and panicked, and even seemed pitiful.

Xu Shuanglin noticed the corners of his clothes and even had a patch that was flush.

So poor?

It is no wonder that he is able to find the position of the teacher of the Confucianism and the double son. He is uneasy and asks him.

"I don't like to eat oranges." Xu Shuanglin said, "Since Master Luo wants to stay here, then this is the first thing I asked Master Luo to remember."

"Float!"

The old head was to be blamed. Luo Fenghua waved his hand and quickly took the orange back and said: "It doesn't matter, the Lord does not care."

"Oh, my child is rude, I don't know how to respect the teacher, and let the fairy grow aggrieved."

"It doesn't matter." Luo Fenghua showed a smile, and looked back at Xu Shuanglin. His eyes were warm and friendly, and he was somewhat cautious. "In fact, it doesn't matter if you don't worship the teacher. I don't have much knowledge. You can learn with me. Don't necessarily recognize me as a master."

The old head is busy: "How come that..."

"The names are all virtual." Luo Fenghua's cheeks are red, and some of them are scratching their heads uncomfortably. "Actually, I also feel that I am too young..." He turned his head and said to Xu Shuanglin, "If the younger son minds, Call me my name in the future."

Xu Shuanglin quietly looked at him for a while, suddenly smirked out, and when Luo Fenghua, the poor honest man, was confused by him, he became more and more embarrassed, but he rectified his dress and made a slap in the face. Then lifted his face.

The orange tree is fragrant, and the light and shadow are moving.

Xu Shuanglin smiled, his eyebrows fluttered, his mouth was slightly arrogant and evil, but he was still young after all, and when he laughed, he naturally had a hint of peachy tenderness and sweetness.

The same is true, the names are all virtual.

So, what is the other party, why should he care so much?

So Xu Shuanglin was lazy and called him slowly: "Master."

The orange tree leaves are lingering, and the ground is mottled.

got windy.

Well, that is to make up for a master, after less than a year and a half, it is time to find the next one, he thought.

At that time, Xu Shuanglin really thought that everything is as old as usual, and this day is just a day in his life.

The author has something to say: Luo Fenghua's songs are adapted from Mengjiao's "spring breeze and horseshoe disease, and one day sees Changan flowers", which is already in the words to indicate the source.

Chapter 227

Two years have passed.

Two years later, on the autumn day, Xu Shuanglin was lying on the roof of the hall of the Confucianism Hall, staring at the sky with red eyes and a dog's tail in his mouth.

Few people on the top of the hall would go up. It was originally his place of solitude, but at the moment he was sitting around with two people.

One is his brother Nangong Liu, and the other is Master Luo who is not much different from their age.

Xu Shuanglin feels that he sometimes looks like some fangs and beasts. He does not easily allow others to invade his territory, so he does not know why, from what time he would like to bring these two people to the ridge and stay with him. Look at the clouds, watch the low flying, and the catkins float to the heights.

"Liuer! Bud! Where are you?"

Under the gallery, his father was anxious and slightly angry.

"Really, every time they let them clean the courtyard, they ran faster than rabbits. These two little sisters."

"Oh." Nangong Liu quietly poked a head from the corner of the corner, revealing a pair of eyes, watching himself rushing past, and then retracting his head, "haha, go."

"The old man is also stupid." Xu Shuanglin slouched his legs and squatted. "I never knew to go to the roof to find us."

However, Luo Fenghua is a little uneasy: "Would we not be so good... Hey, or, if you want to go down, don't let the Lord be anxious."

"What's the relationship? Anyway, the sky is falling down, there are both of us holding it." Nangong Liu made a face with him. "Worried, Aba, are you right?"

Xu Shuanglin did not say anything right, spit out the dog's tail in his mouth, stretched out and sat up straight: "Give me a melon."

Nangong Liu dumped the melon seeds that he brought up in his hands. Xu Shuanglin squinted slowly and squinted, and some of them laughed at Luo Fenghua.

He licked off a piece of melon skin stuck to his lips and smiled: "Master is afraid?"

"I just think this is not very good..."

"What is not very good." Xu Shuanglin said, "If the old man blames you, I will give him a look."

Luo Fenghua: "..."

Xu Shuanglin also reached out to Luo Fenghua: "The orange gives me one."

"You don't love to eat..."

Xu Shuanglin's brows are screwed up: "Is it for you, don't you give it? Don't give your ankles and throw you down."

His brother will come to be a good husband: "A Feng, talking to the teacher is not so fierce."

"Masters are screaming, they are called to outsiders to listen to." Xu Shuanglin said, "Which teacher will sneak up on the roof with the apprentice?"

Luo Fenghua was very embarrassed by what he said and slowly lowered his head.

Xu Shuanglin loves to watch him like this. Every time he sees it, he has a kind of bully bullying and a small pleasure. He glared at Luo Fenghua for a while, screaming and revealing a white tooth.

"Master, brother, what do you say right?"

Shi Zun's brother is the name of Xu Shuanglin's sudden whimsy. He respectfully took relatives and kissed him in relatives. So Luo Fenghua was very anxious and sad: "No, don't call me like this."

"The title is just a form. This is what the master said."

Luo Fenghua: "..."

After teasing him, Xu Shuanglin reached out again and once again died and asked: "Orange."

"You don't like it, I only brought one, it is for Aliu."

Xu Shuanglin’s eyes widened, but it’s not Luo Fengfeng, but he turned his head and licked his brother.

Nangong Liu is sipping a pastry into his mouth, slamming it, and confusingly waving: "That, I don't want to eat oranges today, Master, you give him."

Luo Fenghua thought for a moment and said, "You are half of them."

He said, he rubbed the orange on the sleeves, then peeled off the skin, and wanted to split it in half, but it was still big and small.

So Luo Fenghua seems a bit distressed.

About because of his poor and unrecognized origin, he always worries about such an insignificant little thing.

"Ugh……"

"Give me the big one." Xu Shuanglin was unceremonious. The Golden Knife took the oranges and made a choice for Luo Fenghua, who tried a bowl of water. "Small to him."

Luo Fenghua said: "You don't always bully your brother..."

Before the words were finished, the mouth was filled with a delicious orange juice. He suddenly smashed his round eyes and looked at Xu Shuanglin with ignorance.

"What to say." Xu Shuanglin sneered, his attitude was sloppy, his eyes were very gentle. "My half, I have to divide it with my master."

Nangong Liu also came over and took over the other half of the oranges. Counting the number of petals and dividing them into pieces, they were handed to Xu Shuanglin and Luo Fenghua.

The later Confucianist door smirked, and under the sunset, his soft hair was like a velvet, slightly covering the forehead. Xu Shuanglin looked at him with a funny smile: "What are you doing?"

"There are oranges to eat together."

He divided the seeds, the cakes, and the fruit into three piles.

"I have a snack to taste."

"You...you are really..." Luo Fenghua seems to want to pick up the majesty of his own star and a half, but Xu Shuanglin or Nangong Liu, they seem to have no feelings about it, but some kind, and some stubborn Holding him.

Luo Fenghua felt happy and ridiculous in this kind of friendly eyes. He whispered for a long time: "It’s really a mess..."

Nangong Liudao: "It’s not a noisy, noisy, noisy three people together."

Xu Shuanglin listened, and finally he made a sound, and with one hand on the ridge, the other hand smiled and said: "Okay, let's swear, there will be oranges together, and there will be a snack."

He paused and looked up at the magnificent scene of the Confucianist House, and snorted: "There is a roof, crawling together."

The scene flashed.

In that year, the Lantern Festival will be lighted.

Xu Shuanglin was barefoot, with a branch of leaves in his mouth, and was lazily walking on the main path of the Confucianism, and he pointed at it from time to time: "The lantern is hung up a bit higher, saying you, you hang so low dry stuff. The legs are short for a person to go up."

There was an anxious voice coming from behind: "Abu, you wait."

Xu Shuanglin turned back and saw Luo Fenghua coming over with a pair of shoes. His eyebrows groaned and said, "Why don't you wear shoes and run around?"

"This road is a refining stone, no shoes, so absorb the power."

"It’s so cold, what kind of spiritual power is it? Come on, look at you, your toes are frozen red."

"Hey, you guys are in trouble."

Having said that, Xu Shuanglin still put the shoes on the sluggish, without wearing the rules, arbitrarily pulling, and then squinting, asked Luo Fenghua: "What is it, is it free? Do you want to go outside with me? city?"

"Aliu’s work has not been finished yet, I have to finish him again..."

When the voice fell, it was interrupted by Xu Shuanglin.

He raised his chin and his eyes were proud: "My brother is stupid, you have to stare at him to write, then the whole Lantern will be consumed at night, don't go over."

Luo Fenghua smiled temperedly: "But just, I don't like the fun."

Xu Shuanglin stared at him, squatting for a while, suddenly angered his feet and smashed his shoes, and flew far away, Luo Fenghua said: "What happened to you?"

"Do not wear, don't wear! Rolling."

"Wearing shoes, cold."

"Don't wear! Roll!"

"……You're angry?"

Xu Shuanglin looked disgusted: "I am angry? I have a good life, you and my brother, you two are stupid and poor, it is better to have a holiday together. Go, don't take care of me."

He said that he waved his hand and went forward with great enthusiasm.

In fact, at that time, he hoped that Luo Fenghua could catch up.

Even if the feet are frozen, they don’t care.

He just wants to smash the shoes of both feet, waiting for someone to call him behind him, anxiously angry and told him that he wants to catch cold.

Xu Shuanglin walked with expectation.

But after waiting for a while, Luo Fenghua did not catch up and did not call him.

When he paused, he could not help but slow down.

Until he walked out of the 100 meters, he would go to the gate of the city, and no one would call him. He pinched his fingers and joints, and his heart was gone. Anyway, he had no playmates since he was a child. How many years of smashing lights are all alone, what a big deal.

He stepped down the steps.

Level one.

Two levels.

Finally, I suddenly turned back, my nose was high and wrinkled, and I changed my face. I couldn’t help but say: "Luo Fenghua!"

Luo Fenghua did not actually go, he stood in the same place, the shoes have been picked up, it is difficult to do it, do not know what to do. At this time, I heard Xu Shuanglin’s violent screaming, like a head-on, slamming back to God, widening his eyes and swearing: “Ah...”

"..."

Forget it.

Really served him.

So that year, Lantern Festival, he and Xu Shuanglin, accompanied by Nangong Liu.

Nan Gongliu’s distressed extremes screamed at the reel of the technique, and turned his eyes and said: “The heart is five inches in length, for the giant acupoints, for the heart, and when the fight is not, the personnel are not saved. ...under...the next one?" He scratched his head. "I don't remember."

"Stupid! You are stupid!"!

Xu Shuanglin took the bamboo slip to knock on his brother's brain, and his face was full of suffocation. "The lower half is divided, and the arm punch is used to wake up. If you wake up and heal, then you will die for more than one hundred days. The umbilical water hole is a small stomach. After the serious injury, he died on the 28th....The ninth time!!! Why didn’t you give it to stupid death?!”

Nan Gongliu looked very frustrated. He sighed at the table and sighed, but squinted and blew his soft hair falling in front of his forehead.

"I also feel that I am stupid...it is as smart as you are."

"Impossible." Xu Shuanglin smashed the railroad, "Dream."

Luo Fenghua, who had only gone out to cook the Yuanxiao, came back.

He was covered in a thick cloak, and the dark hair and the curled eyelids were covered with a bit of fine snow. Under the fire, a plain face also gave birth to some taste.

It’s like a small spring, but it’s snowy.

"Take it for a long time, eat some yuan, rest for a while."

Luo Fenghua brought the wooden pallets over, three bowls of yuan, one bowl and one bowl.

Nangong Liu cheered and immediately rushed to the case, just wanting to reach out, but was caught by the people behind him.

Xu Shuanglin’s sullen face: “What’s rushing, no rules, thank you?”

Nangong Liu smashed his tongue, and it seemed that he was somewhat surprised by his most unruly younger brother. He actually licked his nose on his face in this section.

"What?"

Seeing his brother squinting at some danger, Nangong Liulian even waved his hand, and bought a shackle by the way. The sleeves were smashed and a big gift was made. He looked up and joked: "The little slave thanked the master for giving me a gift~"

Luo Fenghua: "..."

Xu Shuanglin looked at this guy who was naughty and felt that it was both good and funny. He also thought that this person probably learned from which language, and said: "Okay, eat snacks."

Luo Fenghua licked some frozen red hands and put them on his lips. He smacked the cloak for him. He was somewhat flattered: "Oh, don't bother."

Xu Shuanglin was too lazy to care for him. He asked not to be salty or not: "Is it snowing outside?"

"Well, just down, I don't know if the heap will pile up tonight, and I can play snowballs the next day."

"...Master." At this time, the sudden name is not respectful, but ridicule. "How old are you."

Luo Fenghua laughed, and the eyelashes were soft. Xu Shuanglin looked at the bottom of his heart, but when he was shocked, he felt uncomfortable and angry. He hurriedly searched for any reason for venting. Luo Fenghua did not let him down. He I found it very quickly, so I lit a patch on the cloak:

"Are you poor? Come to the Confucianism for so long. How can you not throw this broken? Wear it outside and think that we are bullying you, are you stupid!?"

Luo Fenghua immediately picked it up: "This, even if it is broken, it can still be worn by the supplement. I think there are so many people suffering in the Xiujian world. I can't eat and drink well. I have a cloak. Money, you can buy ten spirits and give them to those who need them. How good."

"..." Xu Shuanglin still pokes on the patch and screams at him with anger.

Luo Fenghua carefully sought the approval of his own high-ranking person: "Do you not think?"

"I think you are sick! Poor!"

But to put it this way, the cloak was hung back on the shelf.

Three people gathered around the stove and ate the dumplings.

Lantern Lantern Lanterns can't be seen, but the three young people who are similar in age are also talking and talking, not boring.

There was snow outside the window, and the frost covered the edge of the red window sill, crystal clear.

The firewood in the house is full of fire.

After drinking some wine, the atmosphere was even better. Luo Fenghua didn't even marry them. He took the sputum from Nangong Liu, his cheeks were red, some drunk, fiddled with three or two, and sang a hometown minor.

"There are three or four points in the pool, and one or two sounds on the shore. The weak crown is the best, the light hoof is fast, and the sky is spent..."

"Master respects, this is good, you teach me, what is it?"

"Youth tour." Luo Fenghua said gently, "I am a short song, I think it is very good."

Nangong Liu Yangtou laughed, his smile has always been overheated, and there is always a bit of arrogance, but when he drinks too much alcohol, he has a certain rate of truth: "Ha ha ha, the teenager is good, we are not the young Hummer. Is it arrogant?"

Xu Shuanglin hugged his arms and said: "A book can't be backed up after nine times. Which teenager is so stupid."

"Oh, people are short, people have their own lengths." Nangong Liu Xiaoyu, actually there are also spirits to refute their younger brothers. "You are a talented person, but I may also have my own talent." ”

"...you drink too much."

Luo Fenghua also laughed and picked up the wine cellar and said: "I hope that all of you will be a weak-hearted person in your life, and you will be a gentleman by your own strength."

Nangong Liu will handle the palm of his hand, hooking his brother's shoulder, causing Xu Shuanglin to be uncomfortable, pushing him away, Nangong Liu did not care, haha laughed: "Shi Zun said this, I suddenly remembered, let's not let River lights, but the wishes are always to be promised."

Xu Shuanglin took a slap in the mouth: "I think it is disgusting to make this kind of thing."

Luo Fenghua said: "When you write on paper, when you finish writing it, throw it into the fire and it will come true."

Finally, they wrote their wishes. What is Luo Fenghua's, so there is no need to say more, he only already said when he toasted.

Nangong Liu has a reading disorder, and likes to write and read: "Look... eat well, have a big break, and hey, reunion."

Xu Shuanglin was disgusted, but the nausea was mixed with subtle emotions that could not be explained.

He is a blind man, and there are never too many people at home who will pay attention to him.

After Luo Fenghua came, he had a companion. He and Nan Gongliu, as well as three masters, often played together and practiced together.

Rather than saying that Luo Fenghua is his master, it is better to say that he is the first best friend in his life.

Because Luo Fenghua is there, he doesn't even hate his brother for nothing, but he pays attention to his identity. They get along with each other in the morning and evening, but they can also pick up the cuteness of Nangong Liu.

"What did Abu write?"

Xu Shuanglin did not answer, and threw his own good paper into the fire pit.

The wish was quickly swallowed up by the light and the heat, and the splashing fire reflected his eyes.

"Nothing to write, white paper."

Luo Fenghua and Nangong Liu will be disappointed, showing some lost look.

Xu Shuanglin smiled and smiled, and there was some sweetness in the evil spirits. After the kind of teasing, he was born with self-satisfaction.

Lie to you.

The writing work in the paper group is complete, the end is right, and the stroke is a stroke. Written is -

Hope, Luo Fenghua, Nangong floe, Nangong Liu three people, can be friends for a lifetime, oranges to eat together, cakes together, roof, climb together.

From the weak crown, to the white hair of the twins.

Chapter 228

On the sacred platform of the Confucianist Gate, Xu Shuanglin looked at the little golden stream in the night, and suddenly felt like the year of the Lantern Festival, he put the paper into the hearth.

Instantly burned to ash, only a little spark is still there, scalding him through the years.

Wang Luofenghua, Nangong floe, Nangong Liu three.

I can be friends for a lifetime.

However, the South Palace has long since disappeared. Now it is Xu Shuanglin, a madman who is a demon who climbs from the depths of * and returns to the world for all the righteous gentlemen.

There is no more than Nangong.

Like his name, he floats in the sky between heaven and earth.

The years have passed, and the rock is also staggered.

What's more, this is a small catkins.

So many years have passed, the willow tree is old, the maple tree is dying, and the wandering is wandering. It’s not the end of the world, it’s the blood of the mountains and the overwhelming hate.

But why, still involuntarily put Luo Fenghua to teach him the things that year, spared no effort to give the leaves to forget, why do you see the real gentleman and good people, can not help but feel guilty, can not stop squatting.

why……

Why do you cry?

Xu Shuanglin squatted on the soul-studded stage and finally lost his voice. The tears followed his ugly, distorted face and could not fall down. He rubbed the nucleus of Luo Fenghua, and finally cried so hoarsely and heartbroken as if One inch of sound is dug out of the throat and blood.

"Teacher... Luo Fenghua..."

His organs are exhausted, and he is full of madness and hatred, distortion and longing, and a life-long game.

Is it ruined?

After he thought of Lingshan's sword, he was so full of resentment that his father was transferred to Nangongliu. He was unwilling and angry.

——

He still remembers the aging and pale face of his father's illness, and stared at him incredulously.

"The position of this head is mine." His hand was in the throat of his father, and he gathered it little by little. His expression was cold and awkward, and his eyes flashed with light. "The Confucianism is a hundred years old. If the father does not want to destroy, I have been taken care of by myself. You are old enough to rest."

"Float..."

He closed his eyes and did not allow his father to continue. Hearing the meridians in his hands, he only heard the heartbroken "squeaky", which was the abnormal sound of the broken pipe.

He took off the ring of the Confucianist door and put it on his lips.

The finger was cold, but it was cold but his face.

"I just want a fair, you don't give it to me, I will take it myself. Father, under Jiuquan, you don't have to hate me."

Turned around.

The scene changes in the memory.

It was the first night after he seized power. The servant was cleaning up the blood of the land after the war. His father was dead. The Nangong Liu family was also locked in the dungeon. All those who tried to resist him were suppressed. Everything was fixed, and he did not know what to do at the moment.

He gave birth to a stove in the yard and made tea from his own place. There was only one person in the court, and he rubbed the ring of the ring on his thumb.

Since then he has been the Lord of the Confucianism.

Lingshan Conference, those who calculate his outsiders naturally do not have to say more, look for opportunities to smash and kill, but he does not know how to put his big brother, but do not know how to put Luo Fenghua.

The twilight is getting deeper and the golden crow is sinking.

Seeing that the sky was getting dark, Xu Shuanglin finally made up his mind to see the detained brother and the master in the prison.

He took a few followers and walked halfway. The last trace of sunshine was swallowed up by the night. He snorted and suddenly felt a little cold, his head, and he was a little dizzy.

"Respect the Lord, what happened?"

Swinging to help his servant slave, Xu Shuanglin said: "No problem, suddenly remembered that something was not handled properly, I will go back to the hall first, you do not have to follow."

He suppressed the more and more obvious pain, put the hood of the cloak on, and strode toward the main hall of the Confucianism. In the end, I couldn’t hold it anymore. Rao was able to endure it again, and he couldn’t help but ran a section of the road, slammed the door in, and then closed the door.

"Respect the Lord?"

"You stand at the door and keep it, don't come in, don't move, if there is any abnormality, feel free to report to me."

After the guards told him to go down, Xu Shuanglin gasped and squatted to the depths of the hall and violently took off his hood. He looked down and found that his skin had been cracked and he was acne.

His first reaction was that his father cursed him.

Then I felt that it was impossible. The old man had already become ill, and he did not even have the strength to cast spells. How could God do this without knowing it?

That is how the matter?

It was too painful, the bones were broken, and the flesh was smashing. He shivered at the window, the knuckles were pale and twisted, and he squatted on the ground and grabbed the red marks.

It’s really painful...

He did not dare to shout, nor dared to call the medical officer. The situation was not stable. How can he, as the owner of the rebels, reveal a half-inch weakness?

He kept on breathing in the hall, □□, painful, rolling, convulsions. Kneeling, under the pain, he did not intend to tear down one side of the curtain and landed on him.

The moonlight outside the window was covered.

Suddenly he felt a sudden pain. He was cold and sweaty, shrinking under the curtain and gasping for a while. After a while, he thought that the pain had passed, and then he pulled off the curtain and sat up straight, trying to stand up.

Who knows that the moonlight is shining, but it is actually skin-opening, painful and painful.

Xu Shuanglin suddenly realized that he might not be able to shine on the moon. So he squatted and climbed, struggling to close the window, hiding in the darkest place in the hall, reaching out and not seeing five fingers.

His breathing gradually calmed down.

The pain disappeared, and the * flesh of the blood was also healed at a speed visible to the naked eye.

Xu Shuanglin felt guilty, so he draped his cloak tightly, and he didn't expose his flesh. He rushed to the library and looked through the middle of the night to find a record in his grandfather's book.

It turned out that the first generation of Confucianism, the head of the South Palace, Chang Ying, once fought with the shackles, although the final victory over the evil beasts, the town under the Golden Drum Tower, but in the midst of evil.

The ancient evil beast is yin, and it is closely related to the night and the moonlight. It curses the head of the Confucianist door. As long as the moonlight is seen, the flesh will be torn and painful.

And every moon night, the yin is the most prosperous, even if not in the moonlight, hiding in the darkest, it will be full of suffering.

So for centuries, this has always been the biggest secret of Confucianism, and the heads of all generations have been ignorant of it, lest anyone take the opportunity to take advantage of it, even if it is a biological son, it will not reveal the truth until the last moment.

It’s ironic.

He has spent a lot of time, and he got a bit of a sinful power.

On the second day, Xu Sulin came to the dungeon.

Nangong Liu and his wife Rong Rong were both inside, and another dark room was imprisoned by Luo Fenghua.

He did not go to see Luo Fenghua, first came to the prison of his brother.

"Ao! Abu! What are you doing? What are you doing?" When he saw him, Nangong Liu was extremely excited, but his hands and feet were sealed by curses. He couldn’t move at all. Kneeling on the ground, tears toward the younger brother, "Are you crazy? For a head position, do you want to do this?"

After a night of torture, Xu Shuanglin was still weak, and he smiled coldly: "I just took back what I deserved."

"..."

"You took my sword and destroyed my name. I was only twenty years old, Nangong Liu." He paused and his eyes were cold. "I am only twenty years old, and you let me see my life."

He slowly walked over and robbed his face, then leaned down and stared at his brother's face.

"Nan Gongliu, a waste like yours, has the power of ambition, wants to get ahead, what about me?" He said slowly, "I am more diligent than you, more talent than you, I have compared anything." You are nothing more than your tongue."

He pinched the chin of Nangong Liu, and pressed his fingers to open the closed mouth.

He stared at the slippery, sticky, reddish thing there.

"It’s a weapon to kill people without seeing blood. Cut it."

Nangong Liu stunned her eyes wide, but because her mouth was stuck, she couldn’t speak, she could only mourn and sigh.

"Do not cut?" Xu Shuanglin sneered, "You can also cut your tongue. Look at you, I am a brother, a painful killing of you, but also my hands."

When he slammed his hand, Nangong Liu burst into tears: "Don't kill me! Don't kill me! No, isn't that the Lingshan meeting? You, take me out, I am in the face of the whole world, me, I am still fair to you!"

"It’s late." Xu Shuanglin pulled out a white towel, rubbed his hand, and gave him a faint look. "What do you say now, everyone in the world will only reluctantly admit when you are under pressure from me?" The sewage that you poured on me can no longer be cleaned up."

Nangong Liu had not had time to talk, and he heard the voice of a woman next to her sharp knife.

"Nan Gongxu! I know that you have been wronged, but what are you doing now? Killing your father, robbing the head ring, now you have to marry your brother, you... how can you be so worried?"

"Oh, Rong Shijie." Xu Shuanglin smiled slightly. "If you want to talk, I have forgotten that you are here."

Although Rong Rong was shackled by the curse, her look was stunned, but her eyes were tearful, but she was not weak: "I was at the beginning... I really misread you."

"You can't see what I can do?" Xu Shuanglin smiled. "The person who gave me the sachet was you. Later, the person who married Nangong Liu is also you. You are the one who took me first. Hey, now you have He Yan noodles told me about the old things? I would never want to tell me that you are involuntarily, is he forcing you?"

Rong Rong looked white and seemed to have something to say, but eventually he bit his lower lip and slowly closed his eyes.

Tears fell down her cheeks.

The knife is already in the hand, with a cold light.

"No... no... Abu, anything can be said, I can talk to you about anything... Don't kill me... Please, don't kill me..."

"Would you make a mistake in your position?" Xu Shuanglin wiped the blade, and there was still a sinister smile in his mouth. "Nan Gongliu, now I am the head, you are a prisoner, you have nothing in your hand, you want to follow me." Talk about the conditions? What is your chip, is your dog life?"

"I can give you a cow! You can... you can get a grass ring, I, I am willing to do anything! If you like, you can return it to you!"

Rong Rong suddenly opened his eyes and suddenly turned his head. It was extremely angry: "Nan Gong Liu!"

Nangong Liu was scared to be sifted. He ignored his wife, but he whimpered at his younger brother. "As long as you let me go... please let me go..."

"Get it." Xu Shuanglin lazily took a knife and patted his face. "Do you think that you have touched the orange, will I touch it again?"

"Then I can still - I can still -" Nangong Liu searched the intestines, but he couldn't think of anything. Only the tears and snots flowed, and finally he burst into tears. "Ax, we said, There are cakes to eat together, and there are roofs to climb together... We practice together, and we will go through the Yuanxiao with the teacher and learn to play the piano. In those days, you, have you forgotten?"

Xu Shuanglin’s face was so heavy that he only sneered and did not answer. The knife had been lifted, and he was half-squatting and swaying.

"what!!"

"Wait!!"

The cold blade hung from the neck of the Nangong Liu neck. In fact, Xu Sulin was not sure. Even if there were no such two calls, could his knife swing a few more inches.

But his face did not change, it was still faint: "What happened? The two last words are really much."

Chapter 229

Rong Rong did not go to see her husband, but took a moist apricot, straight back, and choked: "Look at the past sentiment, can you let me, give birth to the child."

"..." Xu Shuanglin's gaze slowly moved down and fell on the belly of Rong Rong. At first glance, it was no different, but when it was carefully picked up, it was already slightly raised.

Rong Rong has been squatting down, but his face is cold.

"Please."

"..."

"Father is guilty and irrefutable. But Nangong, I want to beg you, spare your own life."

Xu Shuanglin stared at the woman for a while and only felt ridiculous.

Rao the kind of cockroaches in her belly? The smashed meat that has not yet been formed, whether it is a scorpion or a prostitute, has something to do with him?

Between the haze, but suddenly remembered the pain of the bones last night. Xu Shuanglin suddenly slammed, suddenly realized that this was a very good thing - the head of the Confucianist door can only be inherited by the young master after the death of the old master, or by rebellion. Others, abdication to the sage, retreat or listen, are useless.

Therefore, it is impossible to give way to Nangongliu, but after a hundred years, he can pass to the child of Nangongliu, let the child taste the pain of sitting in this position, is not a beautiful thing. .

It’s great that the father’s debt is paid.

He was in a good mood for a moment, and his eyebrows were full of laughter, but then the two of them reacted, and they threw their swords and turned and laughed out of the prison.

He did not kill Nangong Liu later, nor did he kill Rong Rong. Instead, he was placed under house arrest in a small courtyard. He planned to wait for the child to be born, and immediately sealed him as the next head and set a * agreement with himself.

I am afraid that by the time of the whole world, I would also like to praise him for being a big man, regardless of the suspicion?

But he could not wait until that day.

Shortly after he succeeded to the throne, he committed atrocities and violent grievances inside and outside the sect. Later, the city owner resented him, and he refused to prepare him. He secretly released Nangong Liu and Luo Fenghua.

Luo Fenghua did not know the hidden feelings behind him. He only thought that he had made such a kind of madness for the high position of the head, and that Nangong Liu Qiao's tongue was so hot, he became more and more disheartened. So he and Nan Gongliu joined hands to win the position, wanting to take Xu Shuanglin out of the throne of the hot head.

That night, the Confucianist Civil War, 100 people were killed and wounded, and in the midst of the war, Luo Fenghua was the first to find Xu Shuanglin who took refuge in Xiaoyue Campus.

It was a full moon night, and Xu Shuanglin's pain was hard. He was covered in blood and fell in the leaves of the forest. It was like a snake that had been smashed and peeled, and all the bright red meat was revealed.

When Luo Fenghua saw him, he thought that he was injured by the spell of the war. Although he had complaints in his heart, he was described as miserable by his love, and he could not help but be confused.

Xu Shuanglin raised his face in the woods, showing a sneer: "You are here."

"..."

"I am fighting with him, and you always help him in the end."

Luo Fenghua said: "This time you have done too much. Is Master Zen Zen killing you?"

"Not bad."

"What about Lin Dao?"

"He * it."

"...that is your father..."

For a moment, Xu Shuanglin said: "He is unfair. He believes me as a thief. He asked for it."

Luo Fenghua closed his eyes and the eyelashes were a little moist: "You... how can you get to such a situation..."

"Oh." Xu Shuanglin Sen smiled. "Only allow others to take me, don't allow me to take other people? Only allow others to lick a knife on me. I don't allow me to draw swords. This is what you call a gentleman?"

The look on Luo Fenghua's face was extremely broken. He wobbled in place for a while. He walked to Xu Shuanglin and did not speak. The tears were first smashed down.

"What are you crying? What are you crying?" Xu Shuanglin was not annoyed by the ground. "If you want to kill, you must listen to your respect, why should you fake a few drops of tears in front of me, in your eyes, in the eyes of the old man, In the eyes of everyone, the pustule of waste is always more important than me!"

Luo Fenghua shook his head. He did not speak, raised his hand and read the curse.

"...I banned the spell that you learned from me since childhood." Luo Fenghua said, "Since then, Nangong, you and me, no longer a mentor."

"..." Xu Shuanglin, but the pain of the cone heart, the guilty evil, really hurts.

He stayed in the same place for a while, and he said, "Don't be passionate. I have never treated you as a master."

Luo Fenghua looked at him timidly. After a long time, he seemed to want to say something more, but there was a screaming voice behind him, and the soldiers were approaching, and the sword was shining.

Nangong Liu rushed over: "Master!"

He saw Xu Shuanglin and Luo Fenghua talking, his heart was fierce, and immediately anxiously said: "Master, he said nothing, you should not listen to him! They are lying to you!"

Xu Shuanglin smiled casually.

This brother, always, is so innocent and cute.

He thought that he would still bite Luo Fenghua's clothes bitterly, explaining the beginning and end of the matter, the cause and effect? Not anymore.

For him, life is like a chess game. When a move falls, the previous ones are going back thousands of times, and the wind is surging. It is no longer important. The only thing that matters is the result.

The person who killed it is killing, and the dyed blood is dyed.

He can't wash it, and he doesn't want to wash himself.

Luo Fenghua will never forgive him.

No need to say anything.

He held the tree next to him and stood up.

The moonlight was on his face, and the flesh was open and bloody.

Nangong Liu and the surrounding monks saw a step back, and some people misunderstood, and suddenly said: "This, this is the hand of Luo Daochang? It is a thousand knives... This is too embarrassing..."

Xu Shuanglin grinned and revealed a white tongue.

He stared at the woods, his own brother, and suddenly felt that he did not want to misplace the masters and apprentices. So he turned his head and said to Luo Fenghua: "Let them get out, I have something. I want to tell you personally before I die. I just want to tell you alone."

He supported the pines and moved slowly, and Luo Fenghua came to a dark place.

The moonlight was covered by dense shades, and Xu Shuanglin’s face followed with a slight slowness. The cleft skin began to heal bit by bit. Although there were many tiny flaws, it was not so horrible.

Xu Shuanglin did not look back, facing Luo Fenghua, first asked: "You alone, with me alone, I am not afraid that I will kill you?"

"you will not."

"..."

"If you want to kill me, or kill Aliu, you can do it a year ago."

Xu Shuanglin turned back and his eyes flashed with a twisted light: "It’s ridiculous, do you think you know me?!"

Luo Fenghua suddenly slammed into his face and widened his eyes: "Your sly..."

"Not as terrible as it was, right?"

Xu Shuanglin laughed.

"What do you think is this? The spell is cursed? Ling Xiaoguo?"

He slowly raised his hand, and in his palm, he held a ring of shining light. He touched his mouth and mouth together, and he said with scorn and maliciously: "This ring is attached to the spirit. In you and Nangong Liu When I drove me down from the high position, it fell from my thumb. It knew that I was not the Lord of the Confucianism. But there were two leaders who tried to raise their troops, so it didn’t know. Who should it recognize?"

"You take Aliu's position and return to him from Angelica."

Xu Shuanglin grinned and said: "I really think so."

He stuffed the ring into Luo Fenghua's hand, and at the end he took two serious shots and said: "Get it, keep it steady, and when you go out, give this good thing to him, remember, always I personally helped him to wear it. He is the true lord of this door."

He paused and stared at Luo Fenghua's face that was painful.

Then he leaned over and lowered his voice. He said in his ear: "Next, I want to tell you a secret. Don't be afraid, this secret is nothing dark, a heroic past, nothing more."

He slowly and inferily surrendered Nangong Changying, and attached a curse to the Confucianism of the generations of the Lord, one hundred and forty, with malicious infiltration in the teeth, quenched into fangs, plunged into Luo Fenghua In the flesh.

He saw Luo Fenghua's face getting more and more ugly, and the double rounded scorpion became bigger and bigger.

He saw Luo Fenghua being hit by him on the tree and shivering slightly.

He felt very happy.

what.

Are you not petting him?

You... one or two, don’t you all take out Nangong Liu as a treasure?

I want you to send your hand to his hand.

Xu Shuanglin's mouth slowly expanded, and then he pulled out a sly smile. He raised his hand and touched Luo Fenghua's cheek: "Master, the story is over. Go out." He paused and looked. Even more dazed, "Go to the gnome door, the sixth generation of the head - Nangong Liu, go."

That day he was covered in blood, and the sword fled the Confucianist door, wandering around for half a night, exhausted his energy, and fell to the town of Caidie.

He met a little girl and sat in the yard.

The little girl saw that he was injured, he lost blood, and his face was white and snoring, but he poured a bowl of water from the house and handed it to him. He drank water, stared at her, and then did not know what happened. Suddenly he felt that the girl looked like his best friend, his teacher, his deadly enemy, and her eyes looked like Luo Fenghua.

He saw the orange tree in the yard full of fruit, and suddenly he thought about it, and he wanted to eat it very much, but the little girl was full of sorrow and odor, and Zhangkou’s gentleman closed his mouth, causing him to get bored. As if to see Luo Fenghua’s ridiculous thing, really said:

"I hope that you will be a weak-hearted person in your life, and you will be a gentleman by your own strength."

A gentleman.

... It’s ridiculous.

He smashed the full orange, cut the orange tree, and then went away, leaving the little girl crying in the courtyard, but he still didn't get rid of it. In the evening, he killed several villagers and started up. The knife fell, and the gentleman and the word became farther and farther, he felt more and more happy.

Then he left, and he planned to hide his name, but he was still alive.

But at that time, he heard about Luo Fenghua’s position in the teahouse and became the news of the Confucianist generation.

The tea merchants who are coming and talking are saying, "Oh, I can’t think of it. This is really a confidant."

"Poor Nan Gongliu rebelled this time, but did not expect to be a wedding dress for others."

"He should hate his master?"

"This Luo Fenghua is really a fascinating heart, not something."

Xu Shuanglin sat at the greasy little table and held a cup of tea to be sent to the lips, but he never went to drink, so he listened so slyly.

There was a burst of blackness in front of me, and it turned out to be a whirlwind.

But he said nothing, and finally Luo Fenghua would make such a choice.

I would rather bear the misunderstanding and hate, preferring to be referred to by thousands of people, and cast aside.

I would rather suffer from the evil, and every moon night is not as good as death until the end of life.

Luo Fenghua, it is impossible to put this sword into the heart of his apprentice.

After all, chess is a step away.

"Hey. Hey. Hey."

The footsteps sounded slowly.

Xu Shuanglin got out of his memory. He opened his eyes and blurred his vision. A young man's face appeared.

On the empty stage of the soul, the ink burned to him, half-squatting down and staring at him.

At that moment, Xu Shuanglin felt that the young man’s eyes were very strange. There were too many things hidden there, not like a young man in his early twenties.

Ink burning road: "...Nan Gongliu, you plan to do all this, want to bring him back to life?"

"You don't have to."

"You left Nangong Liu and resurrected Luo Fenghua. From then on, there are no idlers who can come in. You have to spend the rest of your life here. Am I right?"

Xu Shuanglin screamed: "You don't have to!!"

The ink burns and picks up the broken spiritual core on the ground, and there is still a bright stream in the spiritual core. He said: "You disguised as easy, and returned to Nangong Liu as Xu Shuanglin, so that he will once again send troops to seize position, because you can't bear to see Luo Fenghua suffering from cursing night and night, it is better to die."

"Why do you want to spend my heart?!" Xu Shuanglin's eyes are red, and the inside is flashing with a moist and sly light. "Do you think you know everything?!"

"I don't know. I can only guess." Ink ignited, "But when I look at you, I feel that I guess, and it is not wrong."

Xu Shuanglin smashed the words between the teeth and took out four words: "After life, arrogance."

"It's the same. When you were twenty years old, didn't you go crazy?" The ink burned quietly at him. "Nan Gongxu, that year you helped your brother to regain the respect, but you didn't expect him to After being convicted, it is already a slap in the face of respecting the Lord. You did not expect that he would smash the roots and kill him after taking the position of Luo Fenghua. You did not expect his death."

"You messed up your mind, you are at a loss." He stared at Xu Shuanglin's face.

He understands the desperate state of mind more than anyone else.

He is reading Xu Shuanglin's heart and reading his heart.

"What do you do in despair?"

Chapter 230

If it is him, what should he do?

Rebirth.

I want to make that person reborn.

Xu Shuanglin, who was huddled on the ground, whispered: "You didn't expect Nangong Liu to smear poison to kill Luo Fenghua directly. Under desperation, you will simply count, saying that the curse on the ring is left by Luo Fenghua. In the wrath of Weinan Gongliu, according to the rules of the Confucianism, Luo Fenghua’s body was put into the blood pool and was taken to the 18th floor of Hell.

"Is it crazy?" Xue Meng stunned. "Since Luo Fenghua is resurrected, he must be cherished by this person. Then why should he be pushed into the 18th floor of hell?"

"Because the soul enters purgatory, it can't be super-born." The ink burned at him, and there was pity in his eyes. "So Luo Fenghua will not reincarnate immediately. You can study the method of rebirth and let Luo Fenghua come back. Then, build an ideal. Bang, a place where you are a god, fair and just."

Xu Shuanglin: "..."

A few silences, the face of the festering people laughed a lot, he stared at the burning face: "Mo Zongshi, I found out today that you are a madman."

He paused and said in a very light voice: "Because there are only madmen, you can understand me."

After the words, I laughed indulging.

The laughter is like a winged ape. Although it is already drooping, it is still fiercely attached to the cliffs, and it will not reveal a weak point of death.

The ink burned and closed his eyes, and he whispered to him: "Nan Gongxu, you listen, there is still someone in the world of reincarnation. If you want, I will do my best to plead for the nostalgia. Master of sin, also with your master."

"..."

He spread his palm and handed the broken spiritual core back to Xu Sulin. "But please, tell me..."

He tried to catch the last floating grass to save his life.

He was stunned, and in a place that no one could see, there was a trace of helplessness in his eyes.

"Please tell me who the person who has been helping you is behind." Mo Yan said, "Who told you the reincarnation of such a evil door? Who taught you to treasure the chess game?"

Memory coincides with the past life.

In the smoky smog of the Confucianist Gate, Xu Shuanglin was in front of the leaves, and died under the chaos.

In this case, before the death of Xu Sulin in the past, there must have been no specific plan. But in this life, everything is different. Xu Shuanglin laid a mystery in Jinchengchi early, designed the peach blossom source to be amazed, the color butterfly town cracks, and after using the method of living sacrifices, it can quickly change the means and collect everywhere. Shenwu finally took Luo Fenghua out of purgatory.

This method of rebirth is certainly not what he himself thought of.

"Do you want to know?" Xu Shuanglin's eyes flashed with no bad intentions. "I am a man of skill, but I don't want to tell you."

"Do you prefer to die, do you have one of his pieces?"

"Chess?" Xu Shuanglin smiled. "You think too much. He knows me. I can understand my heart. He is the same person as me. Mo Zongshi, you are dead, I will never tell you. Who is it? You have to go to Lushan with great expenses, and you are satisfied with the road, but what about it?"

"..."

"In the end, the world will still be in chaos, and there will be a lot of smoke. The war will be disputed. He will still razor the upper and lower repairs to the ground and return to the scorched earth. Then, the good man gets paid, the wicked get the report, the person can live high, the mediocrity is slave "The smile of Xu Shuanglin's eyes is getting brighter and brighter. "It's really a good scene."

Xue Mengwen's furious: "What kind of good people have to pay for the evil people to report! What can live in Gaoyong as a slave! Others are good and evil, can be mediocrity, it is up to you to talk about it? You make a chess piece outside Those people...and Nangong Changying...and...and..."

He sneaked a glimpse of Chu's face, and could not help but lower his voice: "There is still Nangong." Xue Meng looked very unscrupulous and very wrong: "Is they willing to control it for you? Are they damn?"

"The sacrifice is always necessary." Xu Shuanglin gave him a faint look. "Xue Gongzi, you are still too young."

There was a kind of embarrassment in his expression. It seemed that he was not very willing to talk to people like Xue Meng who were so fierce. He turned his head back to ink.

"It falls into your hands, you want to kill it." He even said in an understatement. "There is still a lingering fruit in my Qiankun bag. You have to feel that you don't hate it. It doesn't matter if you feed me." ”

He said, coldly ridiculed: "In any case, at the age of twenty, I have already been overtaken by you, and you will come back this time."

Huang Xiaoyue said: "Who is Lingling over you? It’s shameless to open your mouth and say something!"

But the ink burns clearly the meaning of Xu Shuanglin.

The twenty-year-old is not in the body, but in the soul.

Nangong has also devoted himself to practice, and he once had a good heart. He also listened to the teacher and respected him. He wanted to be a gentleman and a sword.

And that Lingshan Conference, but he will be a thousand.

The ink burned closed his eyes and saw that Xu Shuanglin was miserable and could not live for too long. Perhaps because he is too similar to his predecessor, even if there is hatred and resentment, at this moment, he is somewhat unbearable. He said: "... Luo Fenghua soul core is still there, you should not be the reincarnation curse If you use it again, you may see him again."

“Let’s show again?” Xu Shuanglin smiled. He looked at the nucleus in his hand with great interest, and looked at his own flesh that was lacking in spiritual strength and was rapidly festering. He lazily said, “I am going to die. I am dead, there is no fairness in the world, what is the use of his return? It is not a crime, it is bullied by your big door."

He said, suddenly his eyes sank, and he personally crushed the soul core, the pieces plunged into the palm of his hand, full of blood.

Ink burning: "!"

Xue Meng: "Are you crazy?!"

Everyone is ignorant, some are stunned, some are gray and some are full of vigilance, and they all stare at the man on the ground who is not a ghost or a ghost.

Xu Shuanglin did not care, he looked at the last trace of Luo Fenghua in this world, watching it completely smouldering, finally burst into tears and burst into tears, laughing and horrible.

From now on, no one can see anyone, no one can hate anyone, they have become soil, become gray, very good, very good.

He slowly got up, staggered and walked under the eyes of the crowd, and walked to the front of the gods, where there was a weapon, it was awkward.

He sat down and used a smashed finger to sway a few strings.

The rebellion of the Zhenqi chess game became more and more serious. His seven scorpions began to bleed, his fingers began to burn, and eventually the whole person was swallowed up by the fire, but he still played in the fire.

His look seems to be a little comforting, some relaxed, but those who are comforting and relaxed can no longer be seen, his flesh is rapidly shrinking, distorted, and dry.

The fire is bullying.

Xu Shuanglin’s sloppy voice was heard from the fire. The voice was faint and calm, and it was still unruly. It seemed that the pain of the big one could not control him, and the death that was near could not coerce him.

"The weak crown is the best, the light hoof is fast, look at the end of the world..."

There are many elderly people in the crowd, who are all in this lazy, light and light tone, and suddenly remembered the young man at the Lingshan Conference.

Cranes and Tsing Yi, the eyebrows are upright.

The young man came out of the dark martyrdom and walked out of the memory of the wasteland. He entered the stadium with confidence and carried his sword with his battles. His hands were filled with the old swordsman who practiced swordsmanship.

He is so young, so handsome, so flamboyant, and even some people. He passed through the ten sects of the sects and the spectators who sang in the mountains, and suddenly smiled and smiled. The young man in his early twenties stopped, his waist was straight, facing the sun-drenched field, and holding his fist in the bright future of his eyes:

"Confucianism Gate, Nangong Fushi. Today's first battle, please also ask your predecessors, I have enlighten me."

Finally live up to the youth tour.

After a long time, the fire was extinguished, leaving only five unarmed gods on the soul-studded stage, and another rebirth that has not completely disappeared and is circling in the air.

Luo Fenghua or Xu Shuanglin is not there anymore.

Xue Zhengyi was a little unbelievable, squinting his eyes and muttering: "Is this all over?"

"Amitabha, the cause and effect of reincarnation, are retribution." The master of the mysterious temple of Wushou Temple closed his eyes and sighed. "Daddy hopes that all hatred in the world will be attributed to the dust."

Xue Meng blinked at him, this old vulture, there is not much power on the way, but it is quite a fight.

"What should I do next?" he asked, "Is it going down the mountain? But he still has a colleague, we don't know who that person is."

Just talking, suddenly Jiang Yan screamed: "Beware! Go back!"

Everyone slammed into his gaze, only to see that the rebirth of the air in the air narrowed to half a slap in the palm of his hand, and it was re-spreading at an alarming rate. The sky was like a crack in the sky. There was a twist of blackness inside.

Xue Meng was shocked: "What happened? Xu Shuanglin died, should this re-enactment disappear with it?!"

Jiang Yan pinched his fingers and stared at the eyes for a moment, whispering a curse: "No, no! This is not a corpse! It is not a rebirth! We are good, Xu Shuanglin, I am afraid I have been cheated!"

"What?" Xue Meng was shocked. "Not a corpse, not a rebirth? What will it be!"

Jiang Yan said: "It doesn't matter at all. It is imperative that this formation cannot be completely formed."

In addition to him, several other masters are also very responsive, between the electric and the Flint, the most non-nonsense Chu nightning has been asked to go out and hit the enchantment center! Unexpectedly, although he was the first to take the lead, some people followed closely. The crowd suddenly plucked a dark blue shadow, like a cheetah culling, flashing the dagger in the sleeves, slamming toward the back of Chu’s late night, actually Seems to stop his actions.

"Master!"

"Master -!!"

The two exclamations are Xue Meng and Shi Yi, but they are far away, and it is too late to help.

A bang.

It was the sound of the blade that fell into the flesh and blood. Xue Meng suddenly closed his eyes, and when he opened it, it was already unmanned. He looked at the direction with his white face.

He is stunned.

The author has something to say: Some people don’t understand the problem that Luo Fenghua and Ye Yexi are not like:

The image of the leaf before the crowd is not the same as that of her in Nangong and Xu Shuanglin. This is also a soft explanation of why some people think that the leaf has changed. She likes her in front of others who like it. On the side of her daughter's side, she is not a fixed masked man with a gentleman's label.

Besides, Luo Fenghua, Luo Fenghua in the mouth of all outsiders are respectful and courteous, and there are a lot of advances and retreats. Now Luo Fenghua, who is now seen, will be ashamed, hesitant, and as soft as it is, why? One is because of age. The Luo Fenghua age group in the memories I saw was in his younger age, and the monks in the text felt like them. It was because the monks knew him. He experienced two changes in the martial art and finally became the Confucianist. The mature age of the Lord. If Luo Fenghua, who was a young man at the beginning of his age, had a later demeanor, he was a person who had never seen a poor person in the world. I think it was totally inconsistent with the logic... The second reason is that Luo Fenghua in the memory is from From the perspective of Xu Shuanglin, Luo Fenghua is the closest person to the most close to him, and he is relatively relaxed. He will cry and laugh and be soft. Of course, he couldn’t be in front of the crowd when he was still in front of the crowd, and he looked like a temper. If he treated the Quartet as a disciple, it was waiting for the Confucianism to be slaughtered...

Therefore, before Xu Shuanglin walked, Luo Fenghua was the soft master.

After Xu Shuanglin left, Luo Fenghua was the head of the gentleman's wind in everyone's mouth.

Just like Xu Shuanglin’s transformation in this life, Ye Yexi is the gentleman of the gentleman in the eyes of everyone.

Later, Xu Sulin Lin revealed the true face, the Confucianism door was ruined, and the Nangong Temple was lonely and unrecognizable. Ye Yexiong became a soft woman who was willing to help him.

He changed from softness to resoluteness, she changed from softness to softness, and the lives of two people were reversed. Because it is a supporting role, I will not write about each of their stages, and I will not be able to detail them in the eyes of each group. Many of these supporting roles are left to be understood by everyone, and I am thinking that I have some Explain the plot of the necessary explanations, explain my own thoughts, and crappy

Chu Evening was not injured. In the midst of a thousand miles, the ink burned quickly and blocked the figure in the dark blue cloak. The man’s dagger had fallen into his shoulders, leaving only a handle with a silver serpent. The clothes on the shoulders of the ink were instantly stained with blood. He lowered his eyebrows and bite his teeth. His eyes flashed with sharp edges.

That was the hot eyes when the eagle finally smashed the rabbit.

"Hua Zongshi." He slammed the hand of Hua Binan who still held the dagger, endured the pain, and pulled the short blade out of his flesh and blood. He had a thin cold sweat on his forehead, but he gnawed his teeth. Tao, "You are attacking my master behind me, when I am dead?"

The night wind blew, shaking Hua Binan to wear it again, covering his ugly appearance, and Hua Binan was silent for a moment, saying: "How long has the Mo Zongshi doubted me?"

"From your venom, stay on the mountainside."

Hua Binan chuckled: "Oh... that's no way. After all, I was counting on a group of people in the hall."

Ink burns the teeth: "You used to stop Xu Shuanglin, what is it for?"

"Otherwise, by the change of the law, let him find that the reborn array that he has worked hard is fake. It is not too much trouble."

At this time, Chu Jingning had shot down the sky and asked the center of this mysterious battle. But when it fell, he was shocked that the Aura of the law was not easily able to contain it. Then I went back to see the ink block behind me, my shoulder was hurt by Hua Binan's dagger, and I couldn't help but attack the heart: "Ink burning -"

"Don't worry about me." The ink ignited, "It’s important to destroy the array. I am here."

There is no way for Chu’s late night. There is a kind of murderous spiritual flow that he has never touched before. Even the once cracked of the butterfly town is far behind, and he keeps his spiritual power flowing into the sky. In this, we can only prevent this formation from continuing to evolve, but there is absolutely no way to make it smash and disappear.

On the other hand, Jiang Yan also understood it at this time, but he said that he could not believe that the first holy hand under the door actually carried his own picture, and he could not help but face his face. "Hua Nan, you... ..."

Hua Binan’s hand was being squeezed by the ink at this moment. He didn’t look back. He heard Jiang’s voice, but he smiled slightly: “Hey, don’t act rashly. There is a door training on the lonely moon night. I naturally remember it in my heart, so this way, I am looking for opportunities on many people, and I have fallen into a heartworm that I have carefully nurtured for many years."

"!"

Everyone was eclipsed, silent, and suddenly made a pot of boiling porridge.

The cold scale holy hand put bugs on them?

It is clear that it is neither painful nor itchy, or even a feeling at all, but they suddenly feel that the whole body is very itchy, as if every corner of the horn is hiding a heartworm that can only kill people.

"Hua Binan, you crazy!"

"You are so poisonous!"

Someone cried out in a hurry and rubbed his body: "Where? Where? I am in the middle? I have no contact with him at all, I should not have it..."

There are also people who are temperamental and straightforward. They are the most incapable of using the means of Hua Bi Nan. They will be angry and say: "You are surnamed Hua! You don’t want to confuse people here, and talk indiscriminately! There are so many monks in the field, all of them are countless. The good hand, do you think you will be afraid of this threat?!"

The words did not fall, Hua Binan waved his hand gently.

The man who provocatively stunned suddenly swayed, and then his eyes violently slammed into his throat, slamming his throat, screaming in his mouth: "Ah! Ah-!"

The pus quickly rushed out of his nose and eyes. He rolled his eyes and violently twitched. His incontinence was full of suffocation and a stench. He quickly did not move, softened to the ground, and his skin quickly lost. Under the water, the mouth is still open, and there is a red worm that has been sucked up by human blood. It is like a spider, but there are ten thin legs on each side.

This shock has caused many people who are still indignant and filled with indignation. The people who want to confess Hua Binan have changed in color. They are all gray-faced and silently squinting at all this.

"The bugs are small, but they can kill people's lives in an instant." Hua Binan and Wen Wenwen said, "If you don't want to repeat the tragedy of the Confucianism, it is best to stand in the same place, don't worry, also Don't make trouble, just listen to me, especially those who are alone."

His gaze fell on Jiang Yan, and he looked at the group of medicinal sects who had a light-colored costume behind Jiang Yan. He smiled and said: "Look at the same sentiment, Huamou does things, absolutely Will not hurt you."

Jiang Yantie is face-to-face: "Hua Bi Nan! Do you have such a wolf ambition?"

"The wolf ambitions don't dare to be." Hua Bi Nan seems to suddenly think of something, and Jiang said, "Yes, the head, you also have a heartworm on it, others are shallow, and the insects are only in the blink of an eye. Between, but the head is deep, I think I can always last for ten days and a half."

Ginger's cold tooth: "The lonely moon has not been treated with you for more than ten years. What are you doing?"

"Of course I have my purpose, but I don't have to tell you."

He looked back at the night, and looked at the ink burning against him, then turned his face again.

"Well, you can't figure out who has worms on the body, and who has no worms, but this is half possible, it's a matter of life and death. I think if you are smart enough, you should know who you stand on."

Dead.

Then the crowd suddenly sounded a warm and clear voice.

The teacher stood by Xue Meng and said: "The heartworms are blazing fire. As long as you ignite the spells or fires in your hands, you can see that there is a bulge under the flesh. That is the insect curse. The rest. People are safe."

"..." The cold scales squinted and squinted. "Shi Mingjing, are you stealing my scriptures?"

Shi Yan’s face seems a bit red, but the blush is not obvious. He is a person who is not used to being the focus of the public. Now he is watched by so many people, and his expression is somewhat stiff.

"In the past five years, I asked for a five-year retreat, and I was studying for a lonely night. I didn't read the scriptures of my predecessors, but I accidentally discovered this kind of bug, so... I did some research..."

Hua Bi Nan angered: "You steal the income, you don't want to face!"

Xue Meng stood with a black eyebrow and immediately helped the teacher: "What kind of face can you talk to with you?" Then he immediately did it according to the teacher, and he saw that there was no difference under his skin. Pulling the teacher shouted: "Great, thanks to you, you see, there are no bugs on my body!"

Others have followed suit, and one time they are on the stage, "I don't have it!" or "What to do, I have a heartworm!"

Hua Binan closed his eyes and then sneered: "Even if you can tell which people are there and who are not, then how? Those who have been infected with insects have listened to me! Come to me. For me, I won the late night, and beat the ink rain. I naturally wouldn’t wait for the wait, otherwise—"

He pointed to the warlock who had been bitten by the heartworm on the ground.

"There are such people."

Under the deterrent, the first tragedy was a female repair on a lonely moon night. She plunged into the side of Huabi Nan in the eyes of the public. She looked up slightly and looked a bit arrogant.

The smoldering is also amazed. The person who has become a traitor has a face and arrogance.

"I am sorry for Jiang’s head." She said, "I am standing on the side of the saint, not all for self-protection, but I have always admired the sage. The reason why I studied in the lonely night is also the name of Mu. Today Not to mention that there are no locusts in the middle, even if I am not in the middle, I am also a * of the sage."

She said, glanced at the expression of Hua Bi Nan, seeing that Hua Bi Nan was fighting with the ink, but his face was smiling, apparently quite satisfied with her words, and could not help but sigh. "The predecessor of the saints has already said that he will not be embarrassed when he is on the same door. You should know how to make a choice."

She waited for a while, but only three monks came to the moon on a lonely night.

Others glared at them with anger, and they were cold.

The three monks each had a saying: "In these years, the Jiangmen goalkeeper is getting worse and worse, and the rivers are going down. If it is not for the cold scales, I have already left."

"The sage has the ability, we only follow the people who have the ability."

People who have a lonely moon night can't stand it, and they are angry: "The traitor! You can really say it!"

"Yes! Traitor!"

“Nothing to do, get out of the moonlight night!”

I didn’t expect that there would be so many people who wouldn’t give up even if they had a heartworm. The woman’s face was extremely embarrassing, but she still blushes and insists on calmly saying: “You don’t have to say that we have not planned to stay here. Break the door. You follow Jiang Yan, it is a ghost and a ghost!"

She turned her head again and stared at her forefoot.

"I am very embarrassed, and since then, with the moonlight night, with Jiang Yan, I have a knife -"

When the two breaks had not come out, they were interrupted by Jiang Yan.

Jiang Yan no expression, his eyes are very cold, he yelled at her: "Don't cut a knife, who are you?"

"I - I am very good -"

"You can't remember your name every day before I read it a hundred times." Jiang said, "Go."

The female drug sect was extremely annoyed, biting her lower lip for a long while, still indignant: "Oh, I can’t think of a sect, it’s this kind of demeanor."

"You see me today?" Jiang Yan sneered. "But it’s said that there are thousands of disciples on the night of the moon. I am seeing you for the first time. To tell the truth, if it is not today, it depends on you, maybe in this life. There is no chance to speak to me."

It is said that the sleeves have fallen, and a fragrant mist has risen. Jiang Yan has already shot with Hua Binan.

Huabi Nan had a hard-burning ink in front of her eyes. At this moment, there was another * scorpion. Obviously, she couldn’t eat it. In a hurry, he spurred a wave of heartworms. All the people who were hiding locusts immediately wormed. Heart, pain is difficult.

"what--!"

"Save, save lives!"

Jiang Yan’s figure is also a meal, but he is not the head of the lonely moon night, immediately fell on his own several points, delaying the pain, still white face with the ink burning with the war.

Hua Binan was not stupid. He hooked his fingers and threw the three people who had been betrayed to him by the lonely moon night to solve the pain of the heartworm, and sighed: "The war."

Under the pain, some people who are not determined by the mind can see that the return of Hua Bi Nan can be protected from this crime, and they all come in abruptly. In the crowd of time, there is a small part of the crowd, and Huan Nan is shouting: "Seeking the Holy Hand!" Curse! I will wait for the sage!"

"I can't stand it, it hurts too much... I want to be a senior of China..."

Hua Binan smiled a little in the fierce battle, squinting at his eyes, and screaming at his own enthusiasm: "So, Master Mo, you see. The most powerful thing in the world is, after all, the medicinal sect."

His voice has not fallen, Jiang Yan has taken out the snow phoenix, he sighed: "The word medicinal sect, is this the person you used to use the next three means of indiscriminate?" The words and the ink said: "You go Helping your master before the formation, I am blocked here."

Hua Binan sneered: "Do you want to be an enemy of me today?"

"Without further ado."

"I am dragging the body of the locust, and I still have to fight with me. Jiang night sinks the * head, you are really alive and dead."

Jiang Yanyin's face: "Is your life long-lived? You can't stop it today? If you don't stop you today, you will destroy the world's medicine."

To put it bluntly, two people who are good at using poison drugs have seen the move, and there are more toxic powders between the swords and swords. When the ink burned, Jiang Yan was not unable to compete. He immediately turned around and rushed to help him. He knew that he was on the road halfway, and a dark yellow shadow was rushing.

Ink burning teeth: "Huang Xiaoyue -!"

These people are the more than ten high-ranking disciples of Huang Xiaoyue and Jiang Dongtang. Huang Xiaoyue's wide-sleeved robes stand in the wind, and there is no need to say: "Mo Zongshi, the heartworm is not a joke, and the man is a knife for me to fish. In front of life and death, he has to be an enemy of the master and offended."

Not only he, but also the masters of other sects can't stand this kind of pain, they are all coming to this side.

At this time, the soul-studded stage is already mixed with fish and dragons.

The sects of the monks of the sects, the locusts and the locusts, the rebellious and not rebellious, everyone is fighting against each other.

For a time, Jiang Yan and Hua Bi Nan were all fighting against each other. The ink burned as the last line of defense before Chu’s late night, and it was the enemy of the back, fighting with waves of monks such as Huang Xiaoyue. Flow, and the mysterious battle is glued against each other.

On the other side, Xue Zhengxuan and the people of death and death are guarding the front line, not letting more rebels approach the Chu nighting, which is sealing the mysterious formation. The division is also a monk who rushes to death in those who have died. In the middle, try to unlock the insects for them.

"It hurts... kill me, beg you to kill me!" The teacher leaned over and picked up a young man who was rolling around. The young man grabbed his hand and cried. "It's really painful." I don't want to drop, I don't want to drop, you kill me! I beg you, kill me! Kill me!"

"Forbearance and forbearance." The teacher asked him to comfort him while putting his fingertips on his veins.

"I can not stand it any more--"

"You look at me, look at my eyes."

But the young man couldn’t listen to the teacher’s words. His fingers were squatting tightly. The whole person was like a fish caught in the water, and he couldn’t help but twitch and sigh: "I can’t stand it..."

The teacher had no choice but to force his cheek to come over and raise his hand to lick his closed eyelids. This is really not easy, because the young people are constantly struggling to fight, and they have scratched a red stamp on the back of the teacher's arm.

"Look at me, look at me!"

The man was reluctantly called back to some mentality, panting his eyes and panting, looking at the teacher with tears in his eyes. The teacher chanted and cursed, staring at each other's eyes. Suddenly, the young man was excited and felt that there was something in the waist rib that climbed up quickly, and soon climbed to the chest, throat, and eyes.

"vomit--!"

He jerked over, and with a strong nausea, he vomited a large vomit of vomiting, smashing his nose to the extreme, and a red heartworm inside could not hold back.

The teacher smashed a little and immediately split the worm into a powder.

He squatted up and said loudly: "The heartworm can be controlled by sputum therapy, but it can be solved! I can help you solve it!"

He ran around, anxiously shouting: "Don't fight! Can be solved, don't kill each other again, you can solve it - you can unlock it!"

However, not many people listened to him during the melee. His voice was not loud, and he was soon drowned in the words of drinking and smashing, explosions and collisions.

Jiang Yan heard the shout of the teacher, he sighed: Healing?

Just like a lot of worms tend to blaze, some poisonous worms do not enter the body, as long as the corresponding sputum therapy is used as a guide, they will be seduce out like the moths, and the locust poison can be solved.

Hua Binan apparently heard it. He snorted and his eyes flashed with fierce cold light.

"On this way, I killed all the monks who had a cure for the night of the moon. I didn't think of a ruined life and death. There are still people who would like this high-ranking medicine. It is really --"

The knife in his hand slammed through the snow phoenix of Jiang Yan, and the grid collided with a little spark.

Hua Binan bites his teeth and cuts his teeth: "After life, awe!"

Suddenly, the sword was withdrawn, and the whole person plundered like a bat and jumped toward the crowd.

"Not good!" Jiang Yan suddenly shocked, has seen the intention of breaking Hua Binan, is about to raise the gas to keep up, but because of the heart attack, the chest is stagnant, wow spit out a large mouth of blood, the sword is half-smashed to the ground.

He infiltrated the blood of the lips one by one, looking at the place where Hua Bi Nan went, trying to remind other people, but he could not make a louder voice, "When... heart..."

The teacher was detoxifying the monk who had locusts in the snow palace. After the monk vomited the heartworm, he could no longer feel the pain of the cone, and he got up and shouted.

"Don't hit it! Come and solve it, you can unlock it!"

Xue Meng was also busy with persuasion. He took ten people and went to the teacher's side. He couldn't help but scream: "Well, let's endure, don't cry, just untie it for you, right away. Just give it to you, who is my teacher? Who is one of the best, no worse than the disciple of the lonely moon, I-"

Xue Meng said, to call the teacher, and at the moment he looked up, the voice was broken.

"Teacher!! Behind -!!!"

Chapter 232

Almost a scream of distorted, Xue Meng fiercely rushed to the teacher's side, but it was too late, Hua Binan was like a scorpion, and the * of death was smashing from the air, suddenly slamming the teacher from behind. Neck.

"Teacher!"

"Shi Mingjing!"

The elders of death and death are also good, Xuemeng is good, and they all look back. Hua Binan has brought the sword to the sword and rose to the air. Under the bright moon of the round, the cold eyes The people who are doing the same thing below.

Xue Meng was going crazy, stepping on the dragon city and catching up, but in the middle of the way, the killer bee that was taken out by Hua Bi Nan forced him to move forward. He couldn’t wait, and he had to return to the ground and fall.

Hua Bi Nan made the neck of the teacher, and the slender finger wearing the ring of the snake snake slowly stroked the other's throat. Suddenly,

"Oh!", a long thorn on the ring of the snake snake, flashing 凛凛Cold light.

"The treatment of sputum is extremely difficult to repair." Hua Binan said slowly, "This young friend is young and not a lonely moon, and he can use it so easily. It is also a gift of talent."

He can do this, who can still not notice the people fighting on the ground?

For a time, Xue Zhengyi was also good, and the ink burned well. Even the late night of the junction of Chu, Ning, clearly saw that the teacher was taken by Hua Binan.

The smoldering of the ink burned out, and the anger was anxious. When the ghosts and scarves were red, they actually smashed the life of more than ten people, such as Huang Xiaoyue, and several unlucky ones were even directly hit by the edge of the sacred platform. If you fall down and there will be no echoes, you will be swallowed up.

"Hua Bi Nan! Let me go!"

The teacher looked pale and looked down at the ink and looked at Xue Meng.

He licked his lips and finally said, "Go to help the Master, don't worry about me."

"Teacher!"

Before the law, Chu’s night was also like a white paper. A pair of hands against the eyes could not shake and tremble. On the back of the hand, the blue veins burst, and a heart was hung to the throat.

Shi Yan’s gaze turned and fell on him, and there was a trace of sorrow in his eyes.

"Master respect..."

"So smart." Hua Binan snorted and smiled. "I grabbed it, and I caught the apprentice of Chu Zongshi?"

Chu nightning: "..."

"It is no wonder that at a young age, I have already learned something." Hua Binan is not praised. "So a good apprentice, when you are a master, don't you feel bad?"

"Hua Binan, if you hurt him, I will ask you to pay it back!"

"The implication is that today's guru is going to stand by?" Hua Binan smiled and yelled at the teacher. "Have you heard, save you, or seal the law, he chose the latter."

The teacher looked at the eyes, his lips trembled, but he did not speak.

Hua Bi Nan laughed and said: "In this way, I really feel a little bit distressed by this little friend. By worshipping a teacher, it is more important to see the righteousness than the apprentice's life. You are really pity." ”

Surrounded by hunting, there was no answer for a long time.

Xu is because the life is hanging on the line, the teacher squats in this silence, slowly open his eyes, he said: "Master, I am sorry."

"..."

"I know... you all remember that I used to do something because of my own desires. Those things, I still don't know whether it is right or wrong... I don't really deserve to be a disciple of the teacher. Many times, I do. I don’t want to give up my life.

"Teacher..."

On the high platform, Xue Meng listened to him and said that he couldn't help but think of the night when he was dead. He was guilty and sent them to the local government to save the teacher. However, the teacher was slightly embarrassed and did not agree quickly.

The ink burned thought of the bowl of the year, and thought of the inn, the teacher made a glimpse of it, and apologized to tell him that the bowl was gentle, originally made by Chu.

And what about Chu Ning?

Chu Xi Ning thinks of Jin Chengchi’s sigh for the sword before he asks for the sword.

In addition, I can't think of his more regrets.

This person has always been gentle, perfect, and straightforward. He is like a snow in the winter, white and clean, so the dust on the snow and the one-and-a-half plum blossoms will be particularly eye-catching and extraordinarily embarrassing.

His mistakes, his hesitation, his occasional selfishness, a little bit of eyes, are so clearly visible and unforgettable.

But he is also a very ordinary person, not a stone statue, a pair of paintings, he also has an affair.

But no one really knew him.

For Xue Meng, the teacher is a friend. He feels that this friend should be behind him, accompany him, affirm him and support him.

For the former ink burning, the teacher is the object of admiration. He feels that this object is of course holy, tolerant, warm, and flawless.

For Chu Yuning, the teacher is a disciple. He is gentle and approachable, with tolerance and tolerance for envy and appreciation.

At this time, they suddenly realized that the teacher had been quietly in front of Xue Meng’s best friend and follow-up class, and in the ink of the former cinnabar, the later mosquito blood, in the night, the most inconspicuous, The most outrageous apprentice.

He has not been seen before, it is himself.

Hua Binan smiled coldly: "Do you have a last word to say?"

"Hua Binan, let him go!"

"Don't hurt him!"

"Don't hurt him to say it." Hua Binan said, "You all have a hand, you are sitting, waiting for you, I naturally do not need his life."

"..."

The law in front of Chu’s eyes was dark and clear. Obviously, when the law had reached the stage of survival, it was sealed or burst, and it was again. His hand was unrelenting, but he was shaking slightly -

This is not a ghost of the sky, the choice is only between the beggars, and even there is no time to think more.

This is to put the knife on his apprentice's neck, hesitate to him, and show him his own eyes, making him painful and thorny in the back.

Hua Binan slightly lifted his chin and smiled lightly: "How, the formation is open, you can fight again, but if this knife falls, it will be difficult to live again. The master can think clearly. ""

Just then, the teacher spoke.

His voice is not very loud, but it is still clearly audible.

“Actually, I don’t like to eat candied haws.”

"..." Hua Binan stared at him, seemingly did not understand what he meant.

The teacher did not cry, and the teacher was slightly smiling. He looked at the friends on the ground, the old people, and the master.

"I don't like to eat candied haws, but I don't like the Lord. When you were a child, you always let me help you. The most I want to repair is actually enchantment. Unfortunately, Master thinks that my talent is not enough, I will not give me too much, I... ..." His gaze fell on the ink-burning body. "A-burn, I actually know what you want to say on the day of the butterfly town."

The ink burned and stunned, staring at him.

The teacher still smiled softly and peacefully: "...but then the master came back, and you never finished the words that were not spoken. In the restaurant, I saw you eating together, I look at your eyes, I know that you will not talk about the second half of the sentence in your life."

Ink burning: "..."

"I actually admire the lesser, I also... I also admire the Master." The teacher whispered, "Can you not because I am envious, I feel that I hate..."

"I never thought you hated it!" Xue Meng yelled, his eyes could not help but red. "I, I don't know if you don't like sugar gourd, I really don't know... Shi Yi! Teacher! ”

Hua Binan was impatient. He grabbed the neck of the teacher and stared at the night, and said: "I count to three. If you don't stop, I will ruin him!"

"Don't!" Xue Mengcang looked back and shouted at the late night of Chu. "Master, stop first! Don't look at the teacher's eyes in front of us! Stop!"

"One."

The trembling of the tip of Chu’s fingertips has been invisible and is clearly visible to everyone.

He looked at the teacher, and the consistently fierce phoenix eyes were on the usual soft peach eyes, and the phoenix eyes were moist.

"two!"

"吵-"

At this moment, the blood is splashing.

The shouts of Xue Meng and Mo-burning have almost become a sharp sword: "Shi Yan!!!"

"...not counting three." The blood slammed down and the teacher raised his hand and covered his eyes.

He has never cried since the beginning.

But at the moment, there was blood in his eyes, and his fingers slid down his cheeks.

When he was counting up to two in Huabi Nan, he ran into the cold thorn that Hua Binan had hung in front of him. Hua Binan seemed to be able to close his hand when he was shocked. The spike was a few inches away. The sharp edge that had to be applied to the neck of the teacher had wiped his eyes and wiped his eyes. In an instant, the eyes were full!

"Under the jade balance, there has never been a drop, and... there has never been... weak."

"Teacher!"

"Teacher!!!"

The sound is broken.

Chu late Ning is also a big shock in his heart. He had already tried his best. At this moment, he saw the apprentice’s self-destructive eyelids, * face, and could not help but soften the hand. The law suddenly slammed in this moment, crack In the middle of the madness, there was a wave of turbulence, and he actually hit him all in the chest and shook it out.

Chu night Ning violently took out a blood, but he was self-satisfied, and the backhand had to make up the tactics, but it was coming again. Under Hua Bi Nan’s sigh, he laughed. He picked up the shackles of the sergeant and pulled him up. His eyes sparkled with joy.

"I don't think you are so useful? It seems that if you kill you, it's a pity."

"What do you want to do with Hua Binan?!"

Hua Binan did not answer, only scolded Xue Meng, and then turned his eyes to the black mysterious enchantment that was rapidly splitting. He smiled and said: "This method combines the power of so many people, and finally it is going to open. The leader of the road, Yingjie hero, this is the first time that Huamou opened his life, and he tried to talk about it. What will happen next, I don’t know."

He said, the sword quickly fell, with the teacher, rushing down the martyrdom of the soul-striking platform, and disappearing in front of the martyrdom, he threw the last sentence to everyone -

"You will stay here, have fun, this magnificent mountain, used to be buried in the bones, is not lost in a beautiful thing."

Almost at the same time, the sky came with a loud bang, which was like the ink on the rice paper, quickly opened, and swallowed most of the sky in the blink of an eye, even the moon was covered in a dark black back.

"what happened!"

"What is this in the end?!"

"Is it a ghost?"

"But the ghost world is not this color!"

At this moment, the people who had just played incompetently became a grasshopper on the ship. They all looked up at the black curtain of the sky.

This may not be called a rip. Above the sacred platform, most of the scorpio has been split, and the darkness of the bottom is faintly faint and rushing.

Huang Xiaoyue's face is sallow, his nose is swaying: "This is... Is there any monster behind this? Is there such a big movement?"

The ink burned and took the lead, and the hand held the ghost at the forefront. Suddenly, a thunder was passed through the night.

Rumble -!

Thunder is broken!

"Cracked!!"

"There is something behind! Something comes out!"

"Is it a ghost?!"

Xue Meng saw ink burning and Chu nightning was too close to the dark crack, rubbing the tears on his face, and ran towards his cousin and his master, but he was Xue Zhengyi. Lived, and pulled tightly behind him.

"father!"

"Don't go, stand here!"

"I don't want to! I want to be with the teacher, to be with my brother!"

Xue Zhengxuan’s eyes are actually fierce than ever. He can’t let it go: “You don’t want to die?! Do you know –”

The rest of the words are like a dead branch, and he doesn't say anything more.

Xue Meng cried.

Almost squatting: "Hey, I am going to help them, the teacher has been taken away, I can't hide behind you and see that any one of them is hurt! Please!!"

Xue Zhengyi had not yet answered, and the darkness of the array was braving the smoke and thunder, and there was only a layer of rolling clouds coming from there.

Closer, I found out that a group of monks dressed in black and covered with masks!

They stepped on the sabre, relying on the virtual wind, from the thunder and lightning, descending from the sky, a group of one by one, can not see the martial art, can not see the road, the headed man wearing a luxurious cloak embroidered with gold silk wire, wear With a hood, he also covered his face with a silver-gray skull mask. He held his hands in the air, and the winds of the eight sides converge, and the clouds are condensed. Even if they don’t say a word, they all have immeasurable enthusiasm.

"What exactly is this?"

Xue Zhengxuan was shocked.

Others who have seen the world are few, but they can’t say a word. They only look at the sky with a blank look.

Is it a ghost?

But not right, there is no such ghost.

There are more and more people from the black cloud in the sword, dozens of people, hundreds of people... Finally, the black scorpion stands on the sky, and it is not like the monks on the ground, nearly a thousand people!

Xue Zhengqi Li Ran, half a sigh of gas and sighed: "Is it a man who is a ghost? Why not self-reported?"

"..." When the man turned his eyes and his eyes fell on Xue Zhengyi, it seemed to have some meaning.

"Speak! You can understand what we are talking about?" Xue Meng also shouted.

The man did not say much, paused, raised a pale, slender hand and settled in the air.

Then, a wave of words, concise and concise.

"kill."

The author has something to say: The enemy who is not a rival is finally playing, and you must know who he is, and give him a face tomorrow.

Chapter 233

In the blink of an eye, those black-faced monks swooped from the clouds and swayed like swords, stalking for the gulls who were hunted for food, and rushed toward the camp where the casualties were heavy.

The ink burning has already reacted at this time. As the predecessor of the emperor, the atmosphere of these people being controlled by the precious pieces is too obvious. These pieces are exquisite, perfect, strong, and the half-hanging that Xu Shuanglin does. different.

It can never be their opponent.

The smoldering of the smoldering is almost a sigh of relief. For those who have never learned the true wisdom of Jane Chess, he said: "Run!!"

He clung to the wrists of Chu Xiaoning, and another Jiang Yan, who was sitting on the ground, pushed the crowd along the way, and the pupils contracted sharply.

"Run! Get out of here! Leave the soul station! Don't leave! Don't hit! Can't beat!!"

You don't have to say it more and more. When the first piece of chess landed on the sword, everyone was shocked by the strength of his monks and they were rushing toward the ramp.

At the forefront, he was a timid horse owner. He first rushed to the stone gate of the ramp and stopped.

The people behind them stopped one by one, one by one, and they slammed together. Some people roared, "What happened?! Why stop?!"

The voice of Ma Zhuang’s master came from the forefront of the darkness with obvious horror and crying.

"Off, closed..."

"What is it closed?"

"When Hua Binan escaped, he closed the stone door..." Ma Zhuang said, his feet were soft, and he squatted desperately on the ground. It was full of tears and sifting. "This is the mountain." Stone, commonly closed, there is no blood of the Nangong family, yes... definitely can’t open it.”

Someone hurriedly said: "Although Nangong Temple is not there, but there is Nangong Liu! Isn't he who is made into a chess game on the mountain? What about others?"

"In the front hall, I felt that he was useless, and he did not bring him over..."

工具好 Panel filled the whole thorax.

"What should I do?"

"Going out hard?"

There are still people who are still unclear in the outside, and there are more people who disposed in the inside. There are more people who can’t get in, and they can only fight * the scalp and export the mysterious pieces from the sky.

In the dim, Huang Xiaoyue suddenly yelled: "Let me go! I can open this door!"

He struggled to push the crowd apart, like a fish on the way to the front of the stone gate.

Ma Zhuangzhu raised his tearful face and said: "Yellow Road?"

"Get out, let me come!"

"But your name is Huang, you are not surnamed Nangong..."

Huang Xiaoyue ignored him, and the golden knife came to the horse. He waved wide sleeves. Fortunately, he still kept a little blood from Nangong, which was originally secretly saved in order to steal the secret room. He also deliberately applied a spell to the blood, not letting it dry up immediately.

However, this spell can't last too long. At this moment, he can't help but glad that all this shock happened in a blink of an eye. I hope this blood is still useful.

Huang Xiaoyue took his own thin old hand and pressed it on the broken stone.

The voice of the dragon was heard in the martyrdom: "Where are you, who?"

Heartbeat.

Huang Xiaoyue said: "The Confucianism is the seventh... the seventh generation of blood clan, Nangong, worship."

Set a few moments.

The magic dragon hoared: "Don't leave... Gong Gong... Master..."

"boom--"

When Shimen lowered, Huang Xiaoyue made the first martyrdom. The disciples of Jiangdongtang followed up one after another. The Mazhuang owner quickly climbed up and raised his hand. "Wait for me! I came out and I came out to me-"

A sword fell on his chest.

Ma Zhuang’s face was stagnation and looked up: “Huang Daochang, what are you doing?”

Huang Xiaoyue sneered: "When I was in the heart of the worm, I was opposite to the camps of all of you. If you let go out at this moment, I am afraid that the war will be calmed down in the future, and those who are looking for Huang will be like ants, and Huang is old. I can't afford it."

Ma Zhuangzhu said in a panic: "No, no! What do you want to do! Don't mess around! Have something to say! Oh, what kind of hate you are looking for, all are doing business, Huang Daochang will let us go out, the goods of Taoyuan Villa Give your party half price - no, half price at half price!"

Huang Xiaoyue’s old face on the dead wood reveals a trace of embarrassment. He ridiculed: “Half-price? You have the treasure of the Confucianism Gate Mountain. How can the wealth of the world still enter my eyes? The Taoyuan Mountain Villa in the district is nothing but a thing!”

When talking about the husband and the customs, the Ma Zhuang master will be pushed.

The horse fell to the ground, and all the people who were huddled together in the group were all thrown up.

While they struggled to get up, the last scene they saw was that Huang Xiaoyue and Jiang Dongtang stood outside, and Huang Xiaoyue seized the organ that had fallen down the stone. His face flashed with greed, hunger, gloating...

The people behind him in Jiangdongtang are even more like a villain. Some people even bluntly say: "Let's take it, let you look down on people along the way."

"We have no faults in the ecliptic, but they are all stunned by the squad, and they are all wronged. He risked the blood left by his life. Why should he help him?"

boom!

The stone gate was sealed again.

This time, the road was plunged into endless darkness and embarrassment.

A dead silence.

In desperation, the female repairs that have finally collapsed are sobbing, and the sad emotions are contagious. Soon most people are discouraged, fighting and losing, and staying in it, neither can go forward nor want to go out. .

"Oh... I don't want to die..."

"Master..."

"Auntie, let's go out and fight a battle, it's better than being trapped here."

The human voice creaked.

At this time, suddenly there was another voice that had been silent for a long time, with a hint of trembling, and more decisive.

He said: "I am coming."

The gray-smelling Ma Zhuang twitched and turned, and saw a beam of fire lit up. He slightly widened his eyes and said: "Mo Zong Shi?"

The ink burned the fireworks in his hand, reflecting his handsome face, and he walked to the front of the stone and stood still.

"You, have you left the blood of Nangong?"

The ink does not answer. He knows that although some people are resisting the entrance to the road, they will certainly not support it for too long. Those pieces will soon come in.

When he was on the way to the mountain, when Nangong was in danger, he had many times his heart and wanted to do it, but he did not make it.

He had thought that he had been taken care of by the heavens, and this time he could escape the public eyes and escape the hit.

But at this time, he was troubled by the back, and he knew that he had no choice at all.

There is no way to go back.

"Ink Master...?"

He did not take care of the Ma Zhuangzhu. He took out the silver short knife with his waist and rubbed it in his palm.

In an instant, blood was full of palms.

At this time, Xue Meng or Xue Zhengyi, have already arrived, and Chu Yuning is also there. They stopped after the ink burned. Xue Zhengyin’s voice is full of sorrow: "Fire, what are you doing? Useless, Lushan will only obey the orders of the Nangong family, and your bloodshed will not help."

The ink burned and did not look back, his * hand shivered slightly.

After all, it was still shot on the stone.

The tentacles are cold and squatting.

He closed his eyes.

The distant sound of the demon dragon once again echoed in this darkness.

"Where, who?"

The throat is moving.

The ink burned under the watchful eyes of all, in a repressed silence, slowly and slowly answered -

"The Confucianist Gate... the seventh generation of blood clan."

Xue Meng stunned and took a step back and shook his head: "What..."

Xue Zhengxuan’s face is more ugly than he is. He’s a tiger’s eyes, screaming at the tall black and straight black back, muttering: “How could it...?”

A word is like a sharp knife.

Knowing that the blood flow is like a note, there is no choice but to make it out of control.

He whispered the last half of the sentence: "Ink burns in the rain, worship."

Xue Meng’s voice was hoarse and shouted with bare eyes: “Impossible!!”

However, the door is still open.

Leaving the thin, smoke-like snoring, it is like a snowy bayonet, piercing the heart of the eardrum.

"Don't leave... Gong Gong... Master..."

"Fired..."

Xue Zhengyi has completely lost his mind and can't say a word.

Chu nightning is also a mess, he promptly grabbed Xue Zhengyi, looked up at the front.

The stone door banged, one inch, two inches, and fell into the ground again. The orange fire of the outer dragon soul pool poured into the darkness, and the ink burned against the light. The light shook his back and the edges were blurred and almost illusory.

"Ink burning! Ink burning!! How can you play it? What is the seventh generation of Confucianism? How can this be?! How could this be!" Xue Meng seems to be a bit mad and crazy, "How come you and Nangongjia Have blood? You are obviously... you know..."

The ink burned, and he finally whispered in the swaying light and shadow: "Everyone goes out first."

"Ink burn!!"

The hoarseness is exhausted.

For a moment, the ink burned off the cheek and seemed to want to go back and say something, but after all, he still said nothing, did not stop, no longer hesitate. As he moved forward, the light and shadow moved with his tall figure, and he eventually disappeared at the end of the ramp.

After him, the people of the major sects rushed to escape, and when they came, they were imposing, unstoppable, and when they went, they were like fish.

The ink burned in this torrent of torrents, walking alone in this escape like a river.

He did not look back, he did not dare to look back.

He saw the leaves in the hall of the Dragon Soul, and he walked over and set her up and took her away.

In fact, jumping into the Dragon Soul Pool, the person who sacrificed the sacrifice can not be Nangong, but he can be.

Although at that time, the ink burn did not know that this would protect the stability of the mountain, but he did not have the confidence -

If you know it yourself? Will it really replace Nangong to go to die?

He has lived for two generations, but he can succumb to sin, but Nangong is only 20 years old. The long road of life has not been halfway through, and it has turned into dust and smoke, and nothing is left.

Intellectally, he knows that Nangong is far more worthy of staying in the world than him, but he is still eager to live.

Suddenly there was someone screaming behind him: "The monsters, those monsters are chasing!!"

"how is this possible?!"

The ink turned and turned.

The broken stone has fallen again when the last person comes out of the ramp, and the pieces cannot be played unless unless

His face went pale.

Unless, among those pieces, there is also the blood of the Nangong family.

Between Wan Nian, he recalled the black mysterious sky that he had just seen, and suddenly thought of the third access control, time and space.

The ink burns only feels a strong chill and spreads straight to the bottom of the foot.

Is it true that the people who came out are?

No, it is impossible.

Nothing is possible.

It’s ridiculous, even in the past, no one can do this... Who can do it? ! !

At this moment, Mei Xuexue retreated to his side, and the ink burned the leaves to him, and the eyes flashed with frantic light, rushing toward the opposite direction of the crowd.

"Ink burning!"

"Fire!"

Among the torrents, Xue Meng and Xue Zhengyi saw him, they were all yelling at him, but regardless of the ignorance, he really did not know how to face these two people.

Paper can't hold fire.

For the rest of my life, they are all the same.

Suddenly the arm was caught, and the ink burned and turned: "...master!"

Chu night Ning said: "You can't go, those people are resisted by me. Since you can open the Lushan Faction, in order to protect you, you should stay with other people and take them out of here."

"..."

"Go!"

During the talks, the black man headed by him had taken the road out of his way. Behind him, the black robes of the black robes appeared one by one.

Chu night Ning Li said: "Come on! Take them away!"

There is no choice.

Even if there is more uncertainty in the mind, it will be unstable, and after all, it can only be withdrawn from everyone. Xue Meng refuses to go, and is being pushed forward by Xue Zhengwei. The dragon soul pool is finally left. A late night in Chu, and a mysterious monk who gathered more and more.

The dragon soul pool melted and the orange light shone through the cool stone wall.

Chu night, Ning was standing still, and Tian asked the flame current, reflecting his pair of bayonet-like eyes.

He looked at the mysterious black man headed.

And the man, also across the heavy cover, looked at him faintly.

The man stood still, and there was someone who couldn't stand the temper. He wanted to grab the pioneer and shouted: "You dare to block the way of so many people alone? Why is it arrogant! Come, let me teach you how to teach you!"

But the man has not yet plucked a slap, but he was slammed by a black man.

The man exclaimed: "Your Majesty?!"

The man in black didn't pay attention to him, and he didn't even turn his head. He still stared at the face of Chu's late night, but his hand was violently violent, and he heard a "squeaky" sound. The person who grabbed the pioneer had already been born by him. Twisted the neck and then left it on the ground.

Chu nightning subtle color change -

This man, even his own people are killing?

"What do you count, it is also a good idea to teach Chu Zongshi." The man underestimated, slowly walked toward the late night.

Behind him, no one dares to move.

Chu night Ning crossed the sky and asked, "What is your lord?"

The man listened to him and stopped.

He stood in a place not far from Chu’s late night, and there was a strange emotion in his eyes that could not be explained. After a while, he chuckled:

"I haven’t thought of you for many years, I can’t think of you, I will meet again, you The first sentence I said to this seat is actually not so salty."

"...when did I know you?"

"Oh, don't you know? Chu nightning, you are always so ruthless." The man went further, this time he did not stop. However, it is impossible for Chu’s late arrival to come back.

So the man went straight to him, and the distance was extremely dangerous and extremely abrupt.

Chu night, the hands of the cold light, lifted the palms and fallen.

So good skills, fast, but the man easily grasped the wrist.

"Actually, I have already learned this trick many times." The man bowed his head and stared at the face of Chu Yuning. He put all the details on this face into his eyes. His eyes were almost greedy. "But you seem to forget." It is."

Chu Xiaoning was stared at him like this, only to think that the cold hair was upright.

He was never a man who feared the strong, but the things in his eyes were too complicated and too embarrassing, as if hiding the earth-shattering truth and secret: "Who...who is it?!"

"Do you want to remind you of this one?" The man sighed, his strength was great, and Chu Ning could not break away.

"For the first time, you made this move, when I was sixteen years old. You taught me to fight with me. You told me that this attack seems simple, but it is difficult to learn. Let me practice well, don't slack off. ”

Chu night, he narrowed his eyes and looked at him incredulously.

There are smiles in the eyes of men, and there are also faint light.

"The second time, you made this move. When you and I decided to fight in the past, I was caught off guard, and I was hit by you and suffered a very serious injury."

He took the hand of Chu Xiaoning, and he couldn’t take it to his heart.

Chu night Ning suddenly found this man, did not have any heartbeat.

Just like a body.

"You...what is it?"

"Don't worry." The man immersed each word in his lips and teeth, and then gently and gently fed his deafness. He was getting closer, almost against the face of Chu.

He said in his ear: "The third time, you make this trick, it is in my bed."

"..."

"I want to go to you, you said that it is enough, refused to agree." He sighed, the strength of his hand was so big, next to the wrist of Chu Lingning, forcing his hand along his chest All the way down, I finally have to take it to a very private place.

When Chu is late, it will be like a snake, and it will change color dramatically. If you send it, you will fight with him.

The man seems to be familiar with all his body routines, and easily dismantled the move, and then he hugged his whole person in his arms, not innocent, not ruthless/color whispered: "What do you say, Chu night Ning. This seat was supposed to kill you, to destroy you, but I have not thought of it for so many years, you have changed, I have changed, but I saw you, smelling your body, or soon hard."

"You, you give me a hand!!" Chu Xiaoning did not expect that things would become like this, his face was white and red, red and white, the whole person seemed to be fainting, but earning life and earning Do not open the person's clamp.

He is like a net, like a spider, sticking to him, staring at him.

Under the eyes of the public, he held him all in his arms, forced, overbearing, awkward, crazy.

Narrow and wet.

"It’s so hard, it’s hard to swell.”

"I will kill you!!"

The man seems to be amused, sneak a smile, release his hand, Chu night Ning kills his heart, the action is hot and fierce, it is really a blow to kill.

The cloak was soaring, he retired, fluttering like a paper basket, and steadily on the blue brick surface.

However, the face was not spared. He was smashed into two halves by Chu, and fell to the ground.

The man did not look up and his face was hidden in the shadow of the hood.

He was silent for a moment in this shadow, and then sighed: "You can't move and scream and kill the temper, you can't change it. It's the same everywhere. But Chu Ningning, Chu Zongshi..."

The man in black raised his hand and a dark wind came from behind.

He took advantage of it.

Chu Xiaoning saw it at a glance. It was actually the Shenwu Mo knife that was previously seen at the Xuanyuan Club auction. It was also one of the five battles that Xu Shuanglin collected.

The man is not guilty, he is slow, and he is very vicious.

"You really, can you be willing to kill me?"

He finished the sentence and looked up.

The hood falls.

Chu nightning only felt a basin of ice water, the bones of the ice cold body soaked in frost and snow, the brain was stunned, it was numb...

In the cold hall, the black man was handsome and pale, and his smile contained evil and lingering. He was a scourge and a enchanting man. He licked his mouth and revealed a white tooth.

"Take the emperor, the ink burns with light rain."

Not returning to the sheath, the frost illuminates his black and purple eyes.

Stepping on the fairy smiles like a ghost, like a tiger wolf.

"Please ask the teacher to be high."

The author has something to say: 2:0 is the soul after the death of 0:5, has always been a person, this is nothing to say, otherwise how to call the rebirth, so do not expect to dream of the development of the gods, other Don't worry about the details, you will talk about it later. About the soul has been in 2.0, and lost the soul at 0:50, it should not exist, but why can he still come out, can still say that can move and think? Chapter 234

At the same time, at the foot of Lushan Mountain, all the monks have successfully escaped except for the people in Jiangdongtang who have disappeared. At the moment of stepping out of the enchantment, although I know that I have not left the danger, many people have been exhausted and soft.

The horse yelled at the big stone and screamed on a large stone: "If you can't do it, you can't stand it. Friends, go to the government and fight for it. You really have no strength to toss."

Jiang Yandao: "The people who came out of the mysterious circle and the squad have not yet fully checked, are you going back now?"

"What can we do? If we have the energy to fight against them, we will not be so embarrassed."

Master Xuan Jing also said: "Ginger Palm Gate, this time I still listen to Ma Zhuangzhu, and instead of being recalcitrant here, it is better to go back and reorganize and prepare."

Ginger licked his lips and did not speak, looking at the people who died. However, Xue Zhengxuan and Xue Meng looked very distracted and looked at the main trail of Lushan until the one who was rolling in the dust.

"Ink burning..." Xue Meng muttered.

The smoldering was the last one to go out of the enchantment of the Lushan Mountain. He took a dark eyebrow and glanced at the crowd. He said, "It is a chess game. It may be related to the first ban on life and death. If so, the head will come out. I don't know what character it will be, you are going fast, don't wait here to die, and keep your life."

He paused and said to Jiang Yan: "Gang Jiangmen, you are bothered to bring you to Linlingyu, where you can be protected by Xuanwu enchantment, you can resist Huabi Nan for a while. The other is the medicine, the middle Those who have a heartworm can also easily solve the poison."

Jiang Yan asked: "What about you?"

"The Master is still on the mountain. When you leave, I will go back and help him. After all this has been settled, I will meet again."

Jiang Yan did not speak for a long time. At the end, he raised his hand and hugged his arm. He actually made a glimpse of the ink and said: "When you are alone, you will leave."

A group of injured wounds, tired and tired, disabled, ready to leave this right and wrong with Jiang Yan. The ink burned and stopped him again.

"Ginger head!"

"What about the ink master?"

Ink burning said: "Ye girl..."

"Know, Jiang will not let people hurt her half."

This is the only thing that burns the ink. Jiang Yan, they have gone far, but the people who died in the dead have not yet moved. Xue Zhengyi has been patrolling for a long time. He turned his eyebrows and hoarsely and said: "Fire, what is going on here?"

The ink burned and looked at the uncle, and looked at the cousin again. The heart was steep and sorrowful, but he laughed and said: "It’s a story when you talk long. Uncle, you lead Xue Meng first, then I will take things from the beginning. I will tell you all."

Xue Meng was not willing to wait for so long, his heart burned and said: "No, how can you be a Confucianist? You have been growing up in the dead, you - you -"

He "you" for a long time, and finally red eyes, actually squeezed out a sentence: "You are my brother, right?"

The smoldering stared at him.

Xue Meng was shuddering, and although he tried to restrain himself, he was still shuddering.

His sorrowful and sad look is too pitiful, and his throat is sour, he doesn't know what to say.

Finally he stepped forward and patted Xue Meng's shoulder.

"When I first came to life, you are not willing to recognize me." The ink burned bitterly, and he dared not go to see Xue Meng's eyes, the eyes of the water vapor.

The eyes are too clean and too hot.

And he is dirty.

He fears.

Xue Meng was silent for a long while, and his voice was hoarse: "... Can you give me a sentence?"

He clung to the Dragon City, and the ink burned him to the spar, the scimitar he set for him.

He grabbed it like a life-saving grass.

Just one night, he saw Nangong 驷 驷 殉 , 南

He couldn't breathe, he only felt that he was going to die.

The ink burns in the heart: "...well. I will give you this."

He holds Xue Meng's shoulder. He has no idea who is shaking, Xue Meng or himself, but it is no longer important. He looks at Xue Meng's eyes and makes a word.

"You listen, I have never been a Confucianist. I have never done anything to hurt the life and death of my life. If possible, the rest of my life will be for the martial art."

Xue Meng moved his lips and seemed to want to say something, but the words had not been spoken yet, but the tears rolled down first. He struggled to bite his lower lip and bite for a while, but collapsed: "The teacher said that I never understood him. Actually... Actually, I never understood you... I used to be too self-willed, never thought about it for you, I don’t know anything, I’m all in the air... but... but...”

He paused and his tears fell to his knees.

"But I really care about you. I won't marry you anymore, no longer bully the teacher... I think everything is the same as before... as long as things can be the same as before." In the end, he is already crying. "Brother, don't lie to me..."

He is like this, where the ink burns and he can bear to watch it again. He pushes Xue Meng to Xue Zhengyi, his voice is low and moist, like a thick water on the dawn.

"Be obedient, let's go with your uncle, wait for things to settle here, I will come to you right away."

After that, he turned and returned to the Lushan enchantment, dropped the seal, and never looked back.

The bricks and tiles in the hall of the Dragon Soul Pool are broken, the stone pillars are falling, and a battle has passed, but the smoke is filled with smoke. Stepping on the fairy knife of the singer in the neck of the night, the strength of the smashed a little bit, the glaring blood color picked up from the skin, dyed on the black lacquered blade.

Chu night Ning eyes, lips do not say.

"Master, this field, you are too absent-minded."

"..."

"You are not attentive." Stepping Xianjun picked him up from the ground, lifted his finger, and the strange knife did not return to the moment, but he also fell the strongest curse on the night, and the streamer of the clear He was firmly bound, and he held Chu's chin, forcing him to look up.

"Tell this seat, what are you thinking about?"

Chu Xiaoning slowly opened his eyes and his eyes were reflected. It was the familiar face that was extremely strange.

He feels pretty.

He knew that this was not a smoldering, but this man's tricks were similar to the ink burning. What is even more terrifying is that he suddenly found this face as if he had seen it in his dream.

How many times have been entangled in the dreams with the ink burning, it seems to be this slightly pale and thin face, handsome in the sinister evil, dark in the blind can not see the warmth, only fierce, only mad.

"In fact, even if you don't say it, this seat knows." He whispered slowly. "The teacher is thinking, who am I, what is my nonsense, and where do I come from?" ""

His fingertips smacked the cheek of Chu Yunning.

"No hurry. These... this seat can tell you slowly. By the way -" His eyes moved down and fell on the left hand of Chu Yuning.

"Nine songs and Huai Sha, you don't think about summoning. This seat has been wary, and will not repeat the mistakes of the year."

Hearing the name of his other two martial arts, Chu Xinning's face became more and more ugly. Although his phoenix eyes were gloomy, but the inside was also confusing. Stepping on the singer was largely pleasing by his stubborn and awkward look, and he even laughed softly.

He touched the face of Chu's late night: "What's wrong, I think I know Jiu Ge and Huai Sha, you are very surprised? But it's no wonder that this seat has already got news before coming, and I know this world. I know this. This time-space 'I' has not yet stepped into the blood of the corpse, forcing you to face his sword. 'He' has never seen the two gods."

"This world... you?"

Step on the fairy, but laughed and did not answer.

Chu night Ning suddenly had a very creepy feeling. I felt that this ink burned and looked at my own look. It was like watching a corpse, a dream, his eyes were too red and naked, too crazy, and it was full of lush Emotions, the emotions are so flamboyant that they will drive any normal person crazy.

"Time and space are dead and dead." He slowly said, "This ban, the master must be very clear."

"!"

"In another field of comprehension, Master, you have been dead for many years."

He looked at Chu's more and more pale face, watching the last blood color disappear under the other's skin. Stepping on the fairy looking at him, his eyes flashed with light.

Suddenly, as Lipe took out the sheath, the dragon broke the water.

The person’s calm mood seems to be stretched to the extreme. He stunned Chu’s night and gradually became crazy: “That is... this is the face.”

"..."

"It's this face... I look at your face, I look at you like a living dead man lying in the red lotus water, every night and every night... there is no blood on your face, your body is rot, but then I can't talk or blink. In the realm of comprehension, you are already dead - you retaliate!"

He took a breath and his eyes were shining.

Desperate, the flames are raging, and the dragon snakes are flying.

"Chu Ning, I hate you. You leave me alone."

He said this, but raised his hand and hugged him, and the whole embraced his arms.

So hot.

It is like a fire.

He was stabbed by the long-lost warmth. He gave a low sigh in his throat. He clung to him and stared at him. He hated to smother him into the bones, swallow him into the lungs, and live forever. Whether it’s dead or warm, it’s cold.

He is accompanied by shackles and no longer hangs in shape.

no no--

However, Chu night Ning scalp numb, black eyes in front of him, he did not know what happened, he did not understand, who died? Who is leaving someone?

The temple door of the Dragon Soul Pool was once again opened.

In the swaying light and shadow, one person rushed, and the man anxiously called: "Master!"

The soldiers are on alert, blocking the front.

When I heard this voice, I first heard it, and then I smiled and said: "Who I am, it turned out to be 'he'." He waved his hand in a slouchy and lazy way, saying to those who followed him: "both Dissipate it, nothing, let him in."

On the road of ink burning, I want to cherish the chess pieces and the time and space of life and death. He thinks that Hua Bi Nan is by no means the last hand. If all this is designed by Hua Bi Nan, there is no reason to hang it in front of the Soul Taiwan. Xu Shuanglin will recognize him.

So who is the last hand?

Zhenzhen Bureau, life and death, no return, two ancient legends twisted together, a pile of scenes together, he had a crazy thought in his heart, this thought made him all over the body, but he did not believe He ran all the way, he did not believe that all this would be true.

Until he broke into the Dragon Soul Hall.

Until he saw that person.

The smoldering sound only felt a scream in the brain, and the blood rushed into the skull. He was so angry that his lips were swaying and his eyes were cracked.

Do not……

Do not!

How can this be true?

The man in the temple, under the crowds of the crowd, looked so contemptuous, cold, and his eyes were so innocent and playful.

He faintly stared at the ink.

The same eyebrows, nose, lips, the same face, charm, body.

The difference is only between a few millimeters. He seems to be looking in the mirror, and it seems to be a torrent of years. Seeing that yesterday is like a ghost, the ghost is not scattered.

Stepping on the singer’s mouth, he opened a bloody, extremely rich smile.

He took Chu’s night in front of him, his fingertips smacked in the lips of Chu’s night, and he screamed and screamed, and then the man smiled at the door:

"Hey, Mo Zongshi, this seat has long been known as a master, very curious. And this life is a big death, you and I finally got a see."

He paused, his eyes flashed, and the white teeth slammed and knocked out two sweet, cold words.

"Fortunately."

Chapter 235

"How..." The ink burned back and shook his head. "How is it possible? Is it really you...?"

"Yes, it is this seat."

Stepping on the fairy slowly looked at him, and then smiled and said: "Hey... I thought about your rebirth, probably I don't remember too many past lives, but it seems that you are still very clear?"

"..."

"And look at your expression, you seem to have guessed the existence of this seat. In this case, it is not too stupid."

The ink burns, he has a lot to say, those words are rushing out of the throat, but in the end it is an incredible anger: "You can be clearly dead!!!"

"Oh?"

"You have taken it as early as in the Wushan Temple." The king of poisonous poisons, there is no possibility of survival! You died in the bottom of the flower tree before the Tongtian Tower, you are dead!!"

Stepping Xianjun chuckled: "This reason is not enough."

He said, slowly picking up his eyes, revealing a bitter smile, his eyes are like the sharps of a raptor, to smash the body of the ink master and break through.

"It's better to say this one for you?" He whispered softly, and he calmly laughed at the palm of his hand. "Yes, this seat is indeed dead, and it is the best proof that this seat has already been driven." People, standing at the moment."

Ink burning: "..."

"Because you are the soul of this escaping birth." Stepping Xianjun laughed. "The most is the master of the benevolent ink, through the red dust, there are people who often come to tell this seat, your...how to say, Heroic charity?"

He grinned.

"You are so interesting. I thought you didn't remember too many past lives, so you can pretend to be like nothing. But you actually remember."

"..." The ink burned and tightened the back molars.

"Hey, Master Mo Zong, do you think that as long as you are silent, no one will know the truth? Do you think that you can start from scratch as long as you put down the butcher knife? The most important thing is, do you think that..."

Stepping on the squadron, the underground hand is even more embarrassing, licking the neck of Chu's late night, the nails are deeply immersed in the flesh, and the sly Chu nightning skin is blue and purple, and the eyebrows are angry, but can't say a word.

"Do you think that there is no fire in my world, will I be kind to this, let you enjoy the light alone?"

"You don't want to move him!"

Stepping on the fairy sneer: "Don't move him? You don't think this sentence is up to you to say to you, is it ridiculous?"

He glared at the late night, slowly, and circled.

He and the ink are burning in the opposite direction.

Stepping Xianjun is staring at the ink master.

The ink burned in the rain.

The past life is staring at this life.

Stepping Xianjun is ridiculing him: "How did you move him in this seat? Don't you know? Now it's time to make a statement, what a good person."

"Don't say!"

"Well? Why don't you say? Do you think that those things are not interesting, don't care? For many years, the dead and the twinkling, don't you think you should come up with a pleasant talk?"

The ink can't keep shaking his head. His face is probably more ugly than Chu's late night. He is angry and helpless. He is also desperate: "Don't say."

"Oh, why do you want to shut up this seat? It's very interesting. Our wise and honest Mo Zongshi seems to be..." Stepping on the fairy, he spoke out three words. "I am afraid."

The ink burned can no longer wait, he looked at Chu Yuning was tightly held in the arms of the stepping fairy, and his heart was arrogant. He didn't know what to do. He just wanted to stop the tongue of the devil in front of him. He just wanted to sink all the ugly pasts underground and seal them in the embarrassment.

Seeing the ghosts, the slamming slams into the sacred prince, the red sparks are smashing, and the brilliance is more fierce than ever before.

Avoiding the attack, stepping on the fairy looks slightly changed: "...day asked?"

No, after he finished speaking, he has already got the answer. This willow is not a day.

"...Your new * is very interesting." Teng Xianjun's face is slightly complicated. He stared at the rattan whip and looked at the whiskers. Then he looked up and looked at the ink and burned a little colder.

"If this is the case..."

He said that after drifting away, he handed Chu Xiening to one of his men behind him, and then lifted his hand and called him to return. "Come, confront this seat. It is curious, I am holding it." It’s awesome, it’s fierce when carrying a rattan whip.”

Said, stepping on the fingers of Xianjun, one inch inch wiped the strange knife, not to the blue light, the spiritual force quenched to the peak.

At the same time, Mo Zongshi's fingers swept through the willows, and the ghosts were red and the flames burned fiercely.

"Fire attribute?" Stepping on the fairy snoring, "Although I am the spiritual core of the dual attributes of wood fire, but I clearly remember that I use wood instead of fire. Why did you turn the temper?"

The ink burned silently, he looked cold, and his lips were close, his eyes were a bit stern.

It was a pair of eyes standing on the edge of the cliff and crumbling.

"Hey!"

The two almost identical high-profile postures jumped up and slammed against the air in the air.

Seeing ghosts and not returning to silently, flowing out of the turbulent stream, like a dragon encountering a giant whale, flooding to the beast, smashing the time of the dragon soul temple, splashing stone, flying stone, sand, their turbulent madness even picks up The magma of the Dragon Blood Pool was sprayed several times high and fell to the ground.

Everyone is attached to the spirit, not to let the overflowing lava water burn to himself.

Teng Xianjun and Mo Zongshi are no exception. The two of them have a fierce battle, and they are arguing with each other. The black shadow flutters toward the black, the * eyes are staring at the desperate, one stroke and one style is the peak, the flame power is surging!

Another sharp whistling of a weapon, the two feet point a little, in the air, the rattan whip and the strange knife touch, the splash of spiritual power reflected two pale faces.

A dead and resurrected.

A life is like death.

During the struggle between the forces, there was a thousand piles of snow in the sacred priests, and shouted: "No return, quenching!"

Mo Zongshi gritted his teeth and sighed slowly: "Hell, quench."

In an instant, their own spiritual powers rushed into the martial arts, and the two sacred martial arts each released Huaguang, and the violent red and the singularity of the singer--the only sound of the bursting sound of "砰", not blamed. The shoulders of the ink burned, and the ghost pierced the left arm of the fairy.

Both of them were snoring, one left and one right, each falling on the ground, breathing, and did not feel the pain of the wound, all the attention on the other side. They are like beasts in the cage, not you die, but I live.

Stepping on the fairy eyes: "You make the trick of the rattan whip, it is too much like him."

"He" refers to the nature of Chu nightning.

Mo Zongshi is not willing to do more entanglement with stepping Xianjun, and his eyes are killing: "You are not going to roll?!"

"Let this seat roll?" Stepping on the fairy sneer, "Mini rain, what qualification do you have? Wearing sheepskin for a long time, you should not forget that your lips are still stained with sheep blood."

If you can't say one thing, you will start again and fight. Stepping on the fairy rushed, the lava was boiling and the sparks were splashing, but his one-in-one ink burned would be unclear. He was like watching his reflection in the lake, on the eve of the stepping of the sword. After violently withdrawing a few feet, the foot is also hot and hot, and the fire is flowing.

The two of them went forward and retreat, and they raised their hands and thrown their hands. They did not expect the other party's surprise. In the blink of an eye, there were more than a hundred rounds of confrontation, and it was not the same.

The burning of the forehead was full of sweat, and the stepping of the fairy was also low and breathing, they are still entrenched, staring, circled in a circle.

Between the sweat and the black eyebrows, the sweat blew for a moment and suddenly fell.

The smoldering teeth whispered: "What are you doing for this?"

"I have said that the world of this seat has no sorrow, and you don't want to think about the last fire."

The ink burned and angered: "That is your last fire!!"

"But I can't get him in this seat." Stepping Xianjun said, "Why don't you have a difference between me and me? Is this seat full of blood, you are clean? Why can you only have one person in the night to be drunk, you are But I can guard the teacher, keep the night, and guard your ridiculous uncle and cousin - why is it?"

The ink burned him to say so, suddenly stunned, and he said, "You got it."

"..."

The ink burned on his own life. He kept saying in his heart, but he had never said anything, and he murmured: "What you have got is that you stepped on him under your feet.... You put it out by yourself. he."

The expression of Teng Xianjun suddenly became extremely dangerous. His nose was slightly wrinkled, and there seemed to be a sinister wave in the water. He was so gloomy that he even changed his mind and said: "I ruined him. It’s ridiculous. How do you know, isn’t he ruining me?”

"You don't even know the truth about the day!"

"I don't need to know." Stepping Xian Junsen said, "Mini rain, everything is already late. I think this is very good, as long as he is alive, it is my person, I can be pinched in my palm, he is happy." If you are unwilling, hate me or blame me. It doesn't matter."

He paused: "I can only see him."

The smoldering voice was fried by anger and pain, and was torn apart by the sorrow and trepidation of the sun. He shivered slightly: "You have ruined him once. You have to destroy yourself and destroy it. He in this world... the second time..."

Stepping on the fairy to show his face, his pear vortex is deep, and he looks back and forth with his burning face.

Then he said: "What is ruined? Don't you think so? It doesn't matter if this person is dead or alive, as long as it can be squeezed in the palm of his hand, how can it be?"

The ink burned his head, closed his eyes, and hoarsely said: "You are wrong. You shouldn't be like this to him, he...he is the best person in the world to treat you."

"It's ridiculous." Teng Xianjun's smile was tightened. "He is the best person in the world to treat me? What about the teacher? You don't think you are ridiculous? You guys should always be gentle." When you are never slow to your teacher, you tell me that Chu is rather the best person in the world? Do you know what you are talking about?"

"The person who doesn't know what he is talking about is you!"

They are close to each other, and the spirits are smashing and colliding.

The burnt eyelids are red.

"He wants you to use your heart, but he is stupid, many things... Many things are so stupid, he doesn't tell you. Sober, the person you like is not a teacher, how have you been for years? Has the heart been born to the mourning of the teacher? When you are lying on the empty bed of Wushan Hall, who is the person who thinks?"

"... This seat does not deny that he is very cool." Stepping Xianjun is indifferent. "But what about it. He can never replace the teacher."

When I burned it, he said that he was a self-predecessor, but he was angry with the blood, and he was gnashing his teeth. He gnashed his teeth and said: "You don't humiliate him."

Stepping on the fairy eyes: "Why, you are protecting him now, is he with him?"

"..."

"You have been to him in this life?"

His narrow eyes are like snakes.

The strength and spiritual power of the two hands did not stop. The powerful technique even made other pieces impossible to support. Some people even collapsed to the ground.

Stepping Xianjun first stared at the ink for a while, then the eyeballs were skewed and fell on the night of Ning, and he whispered: "Mo Zongshi, this seat heard that in this world, the teacher is still alive, but you This is for him."

I didn’t know how to deal with such a guy who came from the door of life and death and didn’t know how to resurrect.

Finally he said: "What about you? Now you come to this world, the teacher is still alive. But when I came in, why do you hold my master?"

"Your master respects?" Stepping Xianjun turned his eyes and looked ironic. "Oh, your master is who in this seat, and you have your own heart."

"..."

"You said I can hold him."

The ink burned one heart and wanted him to let go of the night, and said, "Why are you right?"

"The teacher is so pure, he can't be embarrassed." Stepping Xianjun is not fooled, lazily, "but Chu is rather different, he looks cold, can't be alive, strong and conceited, but he * What is the look of the waves, have you forgotten?"

The smoldering did not think that he would say so □□ straight and white, it was a glimpse.

Then he couldn't help but think of Chu Yuening's sullen look under his body. What's more, although he didn't want to, he thought of the most violent and maximum dose of the previous life. Under the medicine, I finally succumbed to desire, entangled with myself, took the initiative to cater, sweaty, and the animal's general sexual love.

The pair of phoenix eyes with unwillingness and shame, but confused with water vapor, slightly degenerate, Chu nightning eyes are out of focus, lips are slightly open, can not help but gasp...

He slammed his eyes shut and he opened it again. It was full of anger: "I am not the same as you! I have been in my life...all..."

"How are you still?" This time, it is impossible to step on Xianjun.

He felt that he had never pity on the late night, so he could not imagine the love and restraint of burning in the bed.

After a while, he suddenly realized from the angry and embarrassed eyes of the other party, but after he realized it, he was more embarrassed.

"You are joking?"

"..."

"Don't you still have him..."

The smoldering silver teeth are broken, and the ghost red light is almost solidified, tearing up the entire Dragon Soul Hall.

Step by step, Xianjun suddenly laughed: "Mr. Mozong, at this moment, I suddenly feel that you and I are not related. Are you still me? Um?"

They are two people, one is like a mad dog, and the other is like a loyal dog.

Crazy in the fangs, screaming and laughing.

The loyal, silent and stunned, stubbornly and firmly confronted him.

It’s just that he is facing the overwhelming look of the loyal dog’s face. It’s really pitiful and unhelpful.

Under the battle, the winners and losers can't be separated.

Stepping Xianjun gradually got a little tired.

He suddenly said: "Okay, play with you enough. Mo Zongshi, see the real chapter."

He said, with a wave of his hand, the cherished pieces that had previously listened to his orders to stand on the edge of the sleeves were rushed to the ground, and the ink burned when the enemy was attacked.

"This is your true chapter?"

Stepping out of the Guild Circle, stepping on the battle circle, and walking toward the late night, he walked back and sneered and said: "The chess pieces made by this seat are naturally the combat power of this seat. How can it not be true?"

The ink burned and watched him carry it away. He took the blood-stained blade and patted Chu’s cheek, and then raised his hand to cover the face of Chu’s late night, all of whom were talking sweetly.

He couldn't stand it anymore. Under the wrath, he forgot that there was a connection between Chu and Ning and he did not return. He said: "No return!!"

The handle of the knife was flashing, and it was really shaken in the palm of the step. It seems to be hesitating and struggling.

It doesn't know who to follow.

Stepping on the fairy, he raised his brow and looked down at his knife: "Oh? Do you want to listen to him?"

However, this is the sound, Chu night Ning suddenly sudden intracranial pain.

The dreams that have been done, the messy pieces, are like sand and gravel, covering my mind.

Scarlet bills, pungent hides.

Limbs are intertwined.

The foreign minister of the main hall looked down, and the arrogance of the palace lady was ridiculed.

Stepping Xianjun noticed his strangeness and raised his hand to solve his swearing curse. He said, "What happened to you?"

Chu late rather than answer, he is already suffering, the whole head is like to split -

He saw the ash that covered the sky, the blue sky of the crab floating in the dead gray, a man with black sleeves standing between the heavens and the earth, the corpse was everywhere, and the soul was coated with charcoal.

"Master." The man turned back, his face burned, his mouth smirked and he laughed evilly.

He squeezed a bright red thing in his hand.

Looking at it carefully, it is a cockroach, still beating heart.

"You are finally here, are you coming to stop me?"

His hands were weak, and the heart burst open in his hand, revealing a crystal-clear nucleus inside, and the ink burned the nucleus into his palm.

He walked over to him and approached.

"I can't think of you, my master and my half-life. In the end, I still can't escape this matchup."

"!"

Chu night Ning suddenly closed his eyes, the frontal angle of the blue veins suddenly jumped, blood flow surged.

Stepping Xianjun felt that he was not looking right, raised his fingertips, touched his cheek, and then picked up his chin: "What's wrong? Pain?"

"..." Chu Yuening shivered slightly under his fingertips.

Stepping on the fairy will become more and more misunderstood, and said: "I haven’t hurt you so much. How did you become so unfettered?"

Seeing that the night is still not talking, he twisted his eyebrows and seemed to want to say something more, but if he didn’t speak, he heard a heavy cracking sound outside.

Stepping on the fairy is slightly changed: "Someone forcibly broke the enchantment of the mountain?"

He was as hard as electricity and turned his head.

But seeing an apricot-yellow shadow flying over, the momentum is astonishingly fast, and the number of roads is sinister and sinister.

In the blink of an eye, Chu nightning has been taken over by the man.

Ink burning: "Master!"

Step on the fairy road: "Late Ning!"

"..."

Two men who screamed at the same time looked at each other and felt disgusted in each other's eyes, but soon, the ink burned and stepped on the princes, and they turned their heads again, staring at the uninvited guest who floated in the air and smashed.

Master of guilt.

The face of guilty is not so good-looking. Compared with five years ago, his look has dried up a lot, but the sharpness in his eyes is not reduced by half, still like the condensation of the river and the waves.

When the ink burns, the heart is loose. He doesn't know why the sin suddenly appears here, but since the individual is willing to use the technique of rebirth to save Chu, he will not be unfavorable to the teacher.

But when Teng Xianjun never saw him, his expression seemed very dangerous: "A small vulture, where did you get it out? You must also be an enemy of this seat."

He took a look at his sin and his eyes fell on the ink.

He didn't seem to be surprised by the appearance of two inks and rains. On his face, more of a look at the moment is not a shock, but a worry.

"Ink lord." With a wave of sinful sleeves, there are too many people here. In order not to let the singer hear it, he will pass the sentence to the ink in the voice. "I can't stay here for a long time." You are coming to Longxueshan to see me."

He paused and added three words: "It must be fast."

As it was when it came, it went like a blast and disappeared instantly. These cherished chess games are also good, and the enchantment of Lushan is also good, and it seems that he can't stop him.

Even for a moment, the smoldering saw that there was a monk who had already held his arm, but the next sinful figure was far outside the temple. The monk had nothing in his hand, only a small group of cold. air.

Stepping on the singer wants to grab the catch, but suddenly there was a sharp whistle in the sky, and his face condensed, and he snorted: "This time?"

The whistle was sharp and sharp, his eyebrows were twisted into Sichuan, and his eyes burned. Although he was unwilling, his fingers were still volley: "Let your life be big, and you will have the chance to play against you."

Speaking of the rolling chess pieces, quickly withdraw to the direction of the soul.

The fierce battle of this fierce battle is also anxious.

For a time, the guilty sin disappeared, and the stepping fairy was also gone. There was no more left in the Dragon Soul Hall. The center of the array was swept away, and the cherished pieces followed, one by one, and were instantly swallowed up by the boundless darkness.

And that method was also shrunk and twisted after the last wave of monks entered, and disappeared in the night sky, leaving only a round of Emei in the sky, with a scarlet scarlet.

Time and space are closed.

The ink was standing on the screaming stage of the hurricane flying. He looked at the boundless night, watching the land swaying, only feeling cold and cold, and he could not return to God for a long time. It’s like a dream, but he knows it’s not. He knows clearly in his heart that everything today is just the beginning.

He... is a ghost born out of death.

Some things are not too late, there is no way to escape.

The sinful crimes he once committed, such as the sword hanging over his head.

Finally asked him sin and asked him for his life.

He seems to see the eyes of the immortal to the eyes that seem to be red, sneer: "Atonement? How to redeem? You are the same as me. You, never think about washing your blood."

He saw Xuemeng in his previous life screaming at him: "Mini rain! I hate that you can't make you a thousand knives! I won't forgive you if I live in the world!"

He heard that Song Qiutong fell into the horrible sound of the oil and screamed for a moment. He heard Ye Yexi said that the Huang Dynasty Confucianism door seventy-nine city Ning no one is a man, he saw Xu Shuanglin blocking the face in front of Ye Forg, only Decisive and heart--

"Father of the Father!!"

The sound is like a pointed cone into the ear.

Blood flow is like a note.

Finally, in the swaying light and shadow, he saw a figure in the nightmare of yesterday.

White, peaceful.

Standing under the sea banyan tree, and then turning his head, Tianguang Yunying, he smiled slightly.

"Ink burning."

"..."

"I am thin, you don't complain."

He squatted down and experienced the * battle all night. At this moment, he was dressed in a wolf, and he was full of blood. In the shadow of the blue sky, he made a sigh for a while, then it was like a singer, and the whole person was The ground bowed and shuddered.

"Master...Master..."

He mourned, he choked: "Not like this... that is not me... I beg you... I beg you... that is not me..."

"I want to go back, I want to come back again, I can ask for the price. I beg you..."

"I can take my heart out, as long as you don't let me die with the name of the immortal."

"I really... I really don't want to be that person anymore... I beg you..."

He thought of Xue Meng and thought of the teacher.

He thought of the string of candied fruit that Xue Meng had handed over when he was a child. He said to him that he loved to eat and eat.

He thought that he would not lie to me if he had to shed tears in front of him and tell him, brother.

He thought of the young man who was looking at him with a steaming copy of his hand, and told him that Ah Burn, I have no parents, and we are a family in the future, okay.

He thought that the teacher on the stage of the soul was self-satisfied, blood and tears flowed down, he said, in fact, you have never understood me.

Then he thought of Xue Zhengyi and thought of Mrs. Wang.

Thinking of how they died in the past life, I thought of Xue Meng's face immersed in the * sea.

He thought of Chu nightning.

He choked slyly.

His fingers clung to the ground, so hard, the knuckles were worn and the skin was fleshy.

"What to do... what to do..."

He was like a beast that was whipped to the skin and the bones were blurred, and he whispered in despair and mourning.

At this point, he suddenly understood that he had previously thought that stepping Xianjun was the one who had more red dust. Then what about him? Why not? He suddenly did not know the size of the world, where is the peace, he suddenly did not know that the old friend is still, who can forgive him.

He is extra.

He curled up and he trembled.

He mourned, he hugged himself.

It was like a place of burial many years ago, next to the rot of the mother.

He shed tears, don't know where to go to stop, don't know where is his home.

At this moment he was even more miserable than he was when he was younger -

He was suddenly not so sure, he, who was drizzling, who is it?

Stepping on the emperor, Mo Zongshi.

The blood of the seventh generation of the Nangong family is the second son of the dead and the dead.

A wicked devil.

Qingzheng master with good people.

Suddenly he became a fragment of debris. The edges and corners of each piece were so sharp enough that he was devastated by thousands of times and once he was ruined.

died.

Alive.

He is all alone.

"I am not stepping on Xianjun..." He muttered, cold. The soul-striking platform is too cold, every inch of the musculoskeletal is shaking, he closes his eyes, tears fall, and he chokes. "I am not stepping on the fairy... what to do... I really don't know what to do... ...raised me...raised me..."

But who should beg for mercy? Chu nightning? Past life yourself? Countless ghosts and sorcerers who died under their own hands? Still to the fate of the displacement.

No one can give him forgiveness, no one can give it.

He buried his face in his palm, and in this empty world, he finally choked his voice:

"I am in the end... what else can I do..."

Chapter 236

After coming out of Lushan, the ink burns like a clay sculpture, his eyes are straight and straight, and a person walks silently.

Standing in front of a fork in the road, he was stunned.

The war has passed, and the rising sun is rising at this time. The morning glow washes away the lead of the night. Only the forests have the dew and the grass, which is like a greasy powder, floating in the morning sun.

He turned back and looked at the towering peaks. Then look at the road ahead. Straight away is Lin Lingyu, Xue Meng and uncle are waiting for him there, waiting for an explanation, an answer. But he can't go, he wants to go to Longxue Mountain.

In the burning heart, I vaguely understand that the master of guilty knows more than he imagined, otherwise he will not be as calm as when he saw the emperor. Perhaps because of this, he became more and more at a loss, not knowing what he was waiting for in front of him.

In fact, his mind is now in chaos, and he has no more mood to think about. In the end, he is only numbly clear -

He must go because the master is there.

Longxue Mountain was entangled in the vicinity of Wushou Temple. In the early years, there were occasional monks who went to the mountains to meditate, practice meditation, and enlighten, but this mountain often became obscured. Many people said that they had encountered ghosts hitting the wall on the mountain. If you go in, you will not be able to come out, so gradually, it will become a barren hill.

The ink burned the sword and the road, and after a day's road, finally came to the foot of the Dragon Blood Mountain at sunset. He had no food and no water all day, and he was very tired. So when he saw a stream of clear spring flowing from the cypress wood, he walked over and took a handful of water and washed his face.

The first thing to wash down is the mud, then the blood that melts, and finally reveals his face, and the reflection is on the surface.

It was not an ugly face, but the ink stared at it for a while, only to feel the disgust and disgusting, he slammed the water, broke the reflection, and then smashed the scorpion, almost painfully The face is buried in the palm of your hand.

Is there any perfect law in this world that can completely separate a person's past from the present? Is there any weapon to remove the rancid memory from my mind?

Is there anyone who can save him? He can tell him that you are not stepping on Xianjun, you are just burning, you are just drizzling.

But when he opened his eyes, the water was calm and calm, and the man inside still stared at him with such resentment and despair.

He knows that he has no way to go.

Get up and go up the mountain.

When I was halfway up the mountain, I suddenly got fog, there was no sign of thick fog, and I couldn’t see my fingers.

At the beginning of the smoldering, it was thought to be a ghost, but under the guise of it, there was no evil.

It was not too late at this time. The sound of Du Fu’s blood was occasionally heard in the forest, and the surrounding area became cold. The sun disappeared a little, and the four fields darkened.

"Grandmaster?"

His voice was hoarse, and while he was rubbing, he walked forward.

"Master of guilty?"

No one should be him.

But strangely, he climbed all the way, almost blindly, but did not receive any blockage. This road was horrible, as if someone had already laid a game in the depths of the fog, waiting for him to go to the meeting. , since the investment network.

"anyone there?"

The fog gradually dissipated.

The scenery in front of us became more and more clear, and the mountains and the vines all appeared in front of him.

He found that he had come to a flat and open place unconsciously. When he turned around, the road when he came was still covered by fog. However, only this place was a sloppy, moon-star.

He walked down the grass with the condensation of water, and all the way forward, then he heard the back of a person.

The ink burned for a moment, then rushed forward, and hurriedly said: "Master respect?!"

Chu night Ning back to him, is kneeling beside a cave covered by the wisteria, in front of him, the master of guilty squatting, looking stunned and silent.

"Master! You -"

He was aphasia, because he saw that Chu Ning had turned his back and was actually wet with lashes and tears on his face.

The ink burned: "What happened to you?"

Chu nightning did not speak, he has been suppressing himself. From a long time ago, he was high and majestic. It seems that when he was born, he was an elder, a fairy, when there was no young and weak.

"Ink burning..."

But this time, he exhausted all his strength, but only spoke two words, and he couldn't suppress it anymore, spilling over his lips.

The ink snorted forward, walked over to him, leaned over and held him tightly: "...what is it? Why are you crying?"

As he spoke, he bowed his head and stroked the hair of Chu. Chu Xiaoning's body is very cold, but at the moment he found him, but he can still hold him in his arms, but he feels very hot in his heart.

Every moment of his stability is stolen, and every sentence he has said with Chu Xiening has become a wrong charity. He can get a little more. He regards it as a treasure and dare not bear it.

"Okay, okay." Ming Ming is so helpless, but he will also stay in the broad warm chest between the night, and comfort. "Nothing, there is me, I am here, I am here." ""

The ink burned and kissed Chu’s forehead. At this moment, he suddenly found that he was restrained in his arms, but he still trembled and shed tears, and his fingers were close to the clothes, and he was like a little brother who would never appear in Taohuayuan.

No one is born to be a strong, Chu Yuening should also have a young look.

In the heart of the burning heart, he vaguely understood what he was holding. He held a slight trembling, and he kissed him, stroking his hair and looking at the master of sin.

The old man sat on a icy rock, his eyebrows were wrinkled, his eyelashes were low, he was half-closed and his eyes closed, his eyes were devoid of sorrow, his hand was holding a sea bract, and he leaned forward, seeming to give it away. Who. But that person must have rejected his kindness, the flower has been defeated, and only a few sporadic pieces have not fallen from the branches.

The crime is gone.

There are many myths and many mysteries hidden in this body. At the last moment, there is no relief on the face.

His look is painful.

What is even more uncomfortable is that after his death, his face no longer retains a young look of more than 30 years old. He has become a thorny old man completely, and for some reason, his face is being seen at a speed visible to the naked eye. A golden worm is eaten and eaten.

"This bug..."

"It's a righteous worm." Chu Yuening finally opened his mouth, but his voice was hoarse and terrible. "A person who hates his own appearance, some will set a * relationship with this worm. The worm can change the host face, in return, to On the day the host dies, the worm will engulf the host."

He listened to his efforts to maintain the tone of the tone, and slowly said that the ink could not help but hold him tighter. The person in the arms has been here for a long time, and his hands and feet are cold.

From past lives to this life, Chu Ningning has always been his beacon, his flames, to dispel his dark night to give him the warmth he can.

But the ink burned him at this moment, only that the people in his arms were made of ice.

Really cold.

His cone hurts.

"I am here, I am here."

"He has already let me come to Longxue Mountain." Chu Xiaoning looked exhausted, as if someone had taken all his warm blood and poured it into the endless pain and suffering.

"He knows that I don't want to talk to him in person, I don't want to listen to him any explanation, so I have left a letter to me. I have a lot of words in my letter, but I just used it myself. I don't believe him... I guess he ""

The ink burned his cheeks, and he had never seen such a late night.

Plus no previous life.

This can not help but make him feel awkward, he asked: "What happened?"

But Chu Ning is just empty and replied: "I guess he is..."

This person who has been calm and has always been sensible has finally been fragmented.

He is like a corner bow, and the strings are stretched to the extreme. He shivered in his ink, and shivered, so desperate, so poor.

Chu night Ning huddled and curled up, and once the person who had stretched for half a lifetime collapsed, the kind of sorrow that still accumulates is enough to break the levee: "I should have been here... If you listen to him, many things will not happen, Nangong It won't die, the teacher will not be blind, it would have been enough... all are within reach."

"Master."

"If I listen to that letter, it won't be like this..."

It took a long time for the ink to burn and appease him slightly. After a long time, Chu Ning finally stopped crying, but his eyes were out of focus, and his ink burned his fingertips, but he found out why he didn’t Heat, just as the slight trembling, can't stop.

"Why don't I want to believe him again..."

The ink burned silently. In fact, this road came over. Because of the reason of stepping on the emperor, the ink burned in anticipation of countless scenes where Chu and Ning had met again, and thought a lot of explanations and requests.

But he found that he could not use it.

He did not expect to see him again, it would be such a situation.

"He...had left a reel of memories..." Finally, Chu Yuening finally calmed down, his ink burning his cheeks, his cheeks were cold, "...he had hoped before he left. You can come and give it to you."

Hearing his own, the fingertips of the ink burned.

Memories scroll?

What will be written there? What do the masters of guilty know?

The smoldering felt that his hand was also cold, and the cold hair was upright, and he was so cold.

Chu night Ningsha dumb said: "But he can't wait, his life counts up." He said, he seems to have been touched by an extremely painful sore, eyebrows, no more words.

He is probably afraid that if he says more, he will collapse again.

Chu nightning covered his eyes with his arms. He calmed himself and slowly picked up his own calm, calm, cold and reliable. He picked up the pieces and slowly wore them.

After all, he is not used to being a weak person.

In the end, Chu Xiaoning lifted the wet Fengmu, took the reel out of his arms, and handed it to the ink.

"There are all the secrets he knows."

The smoldering voice has a slight whistle: "... Did he see it for you?"

"seen it already."

The ink burns my heart.

He looked at the eyes of Chu Xiaoning, and at that moment he had a terrible thought.

He felt that Chu Jingning seemed to have everything clear.

Take the picture of the sapphire as the axis.

Suddenly, he was so upset, so he held the finger of Chu’s late night and rubbed it.

"Late Ning..."

"..."

"If you are in Lushan, that person... is true to you, will you hate me?"

Chu nighting face was originally very pale, this time is even more bloody, even the lips are slightly green.

"Do you hate me?"

The ink burns his hand, the strength is so big, stubborn, and even brutal. What is different from that of Lili is the pleading of his soft eyelashes.

"can you?"

Chu night Ning shook his head, did not answer, he closed his eyes, "... look at the scroll."

The scroll left by the master of guilty is very heavy, and is not similar to the curse of the mortal, but it is close to the dreamland of the Taohuayuan Yumin.

The ink burned and looked deep into the night, and then opened the drawing axis, and the picture of the shining jade was on the eyebrow.

The scene of the Dragon Blood Mountain disappeared, and the first thing that followed was a darkness that was bottomless. In the darkness, the guilty sin of the sin sounded with a bit of sigh and echoed in the ear.

"Chu Zongshi, Mo Shizhu, Laojiao knows that there is not much time, but seeing that today is going to change, the disaster will come. If you don't do everything you can, you will know the two and tell the two to help you back. In purgatory, you will also regret it."

The voice paused and then slowly came.

"In this scroll, the past events are incredible, and even the old man has made mistakes in the past. There is nothing to hide. I know that I am half-baked, and the former is deeply sinful, and the dull and shallow, narrow-minded, counted for two hundred years. The days of stealing and waking up are actually a handful of things, and the good things done are also very pitiful. I have no life to sin, I can’t redeem it, and I will fall into * when I die. I will never be super-born. Just, I I still have a lot of hope. I hope that after seeing the two, I don’t want to give up on the old man’s heart. I feel that the old man is not as good as the beast.”

The ink burned in front of the eyes, and he blinked his eyes. As far as he could see, it was the broken wall, the old tree faint, and the birds that ate the eyes and licked the intestines.

He was awkward and inexplicably felt that the scene was very familiar, but he couldn't remember it again.

Until the city gate was dusty, a group of people gathered, holding the front ring, carrying feather arrows, riding a thin horse. One of the young men slammed the reins and rolled down from the horse. He rushed toward the gate of the city and couldn’t help but scream: "Hey! Auntie!"

The ink burned and was shocked, and felt that the back was cold.

this is……

Peach Blossom Yuan Yumin Vision?

Is this the ancient Linan in the war? !

Chapter 237

Unlike the peach blossoms, this time he is no longer involved. He is just a bystander. Anyone in the memory can’t see him. He walks to the cavalry. He looks down and looks at the crying cry. juvenile.

A blue vein in the skull is constantly twitching and beating.

He felt the chill of the bones and the chicken skin picked up.

Seeing this scene again, he was very clear about the role that the boy played in Linan’s horror. He sold the Taishou Gongzi Chu, and revived his father’s death, and he don’t hesitate to donate the entire city.

"Xiaoman, people can't resurrect, you don't feel too sad, here can't stay for a long time, let's go back soon."

"No... No... I don't go anywhere, I want Auntie... He, he is looking for food for me, so I will die, I am sorry for him, hehe! Hey!"

The ink burned and stared at the boy.

Who is this guy?

Is it a father who is guilty? or……

His eyes fell on Xiaoman's left hand, and at the mouth of his left hand, there was a black scorpion of rice grain size.

He suddenly thought of the hand of the master of guilty crimes, and this position, exactly the same place, there is such a flaw, not too bad.

The smoldering was horrified.

At this time, the sound of the distant voice slowly sounded.

"I was born in Lin'an at an early age. Without parents, I was adopted by a groom from the Taishou government. At the age of fourteen, the ghost world was cracked, Linan suffered, and there was no rice and no food at home. I was hungry and difficult to take care of. I went out to eat in the city and I didn't come back in the evening."

Frightened and screaming -

Is it really a little full of two hundred years ago? !

I was guilty of sin: "When I am out of town, when I find him, he has been killed by evil spirits, his belly is overflowing, his eyes are hollowed out by the crows. That scene, I will never forget this life."

In the ink-burning ears, he followed the Xiaoman into the city. When Lin’an was in the midst of a * storm, the ghost king wanted to marry the people. He has seen these things once again, and once again, he still feels miserable and sad, and his heart is sinister.

He saw the night of the incident, and he was begging all the way. He asked everyone not to disarm his father. He asked the housekeeper to let him wait until Chu to return to see if he could leave his father a whole body.

"I beg you, wait a second, and then the son will come back. I must look at his body. If the body is dead, I will stop and ask you..."

"You can't stop the corpse, you need to be clear!"

"No! Don't tear him apart, please don't tear him apart..."

The torrential rain lingered, and the small man couldn’t help but slammed his head. The cockroach’s face was full of blood, but he still couldn’t stop it. His father’s body was still violently pulled out of his arms and was dragged to the house by the management of the shoufu government. In addition, they surrounded the corpse that could change at any time.

Xiaoman’s gaze was blocked. After a while, he saw blood flowing out of the crowd’s feet and was instantly washed away by the heavy rain into a faint pink.

"I was selfish at the time, I only felt disheartened and full of resentment against everyone, so I renegade Linan and recommend myself as a ghost king. I want to retaliate against them."

With his self-report, the ink burned once again the picture that once shocked him.

The mother ate the child's stomach.

The city people betrayed their heroes.

On the stone steps in front of the Chenghuang Temple, Chu Yu went to the mud and cried.

He saw that the mob escorted Chu Yu to the temple, as if he was eating rot, and the black scorpion was surrounded by a group. In order to survive and survive, he did not hesitate to sacrifice his life.

He saw that Chu Yu took out his heart and the nucleus and handed it to the hands of the sporadic people who were crying for him, let them leave here as soon as possible, and stop staying...

Some of these, Xiaoman are also in the eye.

"Later, I went to the ghost world. When I was alone, I would think of the horror of Chu Gongzi at that time, thinking of his heart, thinking of his past...waiting for us. Every time I think about it, I am I feel more and more difficult, I am more and more unable to escape the inner condemnation."

I was guilty of crimes.

His voice became extremely painful.

"I am a traitor."

There is no such thing as a burning heart.

Good and evil sometimes only between one thought, and some people have regretted the moment when they fell, but what about it?

There is no way to retreat.

"After a while, I heard that the soul of Chu Yu was put into the government. He was a good man. Although he did not reach the peak, he could not be corpse into a fairy, but he was also enough to stand in the reincarnation. He was rich and glory in the afterlife, and he finally enjoyed his life, but he did not go. He The child, his wife, because of the catastrophe that year, the soul is confused, and it is divided, he went to the place of the pleading, willing to use his own three Fulu, in exchange for his wife and children free. But the end result is not so smooth."

The smoldering saw that he was running around in the ghost world. He was always shy and confused because he was ashamed and difficult to face. He tried to pull the ghosts and ghosts and asked: "That What about your wife and children? What did you say in the end? Can you find a way to piece together their souls and let them re-enter the reincarnation?"

"Can you think of a solution? Please."

"I want you to help Chu Yuzi to think of a way, you can negotiate what kind of price you can pay..."

There was a ghost who laughed at him and said: "I have heard about your glorious deeds. I didn't help you with the Nine Kings. I killed the Chuxi family. How did you get to the land, you suddenly turned the temper, you are afraid of Chu Got a ghost, come and settle with you?"

The ink burned behind the guilty, watching him ask a lot of people and married a lot of people. Maybe it shouldn't be called, it should be called a ghost. But in many cases, the nature of people and ghosts is actually the same.

As Chu Yuning said, the soul may change character, change hobbies, change temperament, but the essence will never change because of the cycle of life and death.

I was guilty of inquiring about the reincarnation of my wife and children, and I was quickly known by the Nine Kings.

At that time, the Nine Kings and Chu Yu played against each other and ruined one eye. They had already hated the birth of Chu, and heard the little man full of their hands. They were full of help and the old master secretly asked the law of reincarnation, and they were furious.

He took back the token of freedom to return to the ghost world, took him back to the world, and took away the eternal life of the ghost as a ghost.

"Go back to the sun, when all the gas in your body dissipates, you will die. After death, you will never be infernal, and your soul will not be super-born." The nine kings used the only eye that could still be used, and Sensen stared. I am guilty, "This is the price for you to work for the old master."

The darkness of the land has disappeared.

The smoldering sound of the rain is the spring, the rain is like a crisp, moist and green sprouts.

He saw that he was guilty of sin and walked in the spring rain.

"I have returned to the world. At this time, the world has passed for a hundred years. Although the ghost king took my token, but the residual yin in my body can make me return to the ghost world when the child is full of yin, but After staying for a long time, the loss is great. I am actually... I am still very afraid of death, so I don’t dare to stay in the ghost world for a long time. Only when I need some clues, some of them will sneak back into the underworld."

The ink burns his low self-report, looks at the front of the stick, and swears in the bamboo forest, the winter plum lies in the snow, Xiahe listens to the rain, he walks alone, from Wan Muchunsheng, to the frost Lin dyed through.

Hemp shoes broke through a pair of pairs.

I am looking for a sin, looking for it, hoping to get a one-and-a-half-point record, and give the pair of mothers who have been ruined by him a chance to reincarnate.

I am guilty: "That is also my chance to redeem a little sin."

Others may feel nothing, just think that it is ridiculous to sin, but you can hear it here, but your eyes are wet.

Atonement.

Everyone who commits a mistake and wants to repent is as thirsty as a fish, eager for atonement.

He is like this, and so is the crime.

They are not good people, they have dripping blood on their hands, and their heads are broken heads.

How to redeem.

With the hand that once killed people, returning to life in the merit pool, can sin be written off? He hopes that the world's good and evil, the cause and effect of blessings, can be as simple as this.

But he knows not.

"I have been in the world for nearly a hundred years." He sighed with sorrow. "This hundred years, the victims will help, and the hardships will be saved. I know that it is useless to do so, no matter how many good virtues, I After death, I will still be purgatory and suffer from suffering. But I just want to make my heart feel better. I just thought that if the son is still in the world, he must... worry about people, but harder?"

How many past events have passed by in the past 100 years.

He saw the orphans carrying the blind eyes walking in the mountains and seeing him helping the work in the fields. He saw that he was guilty of sewing the old clothes under a solitary lamp, but donated the money for the repair. A village destroyed by evil.

"Chu Gongzi, there has been no reincarnation. I later picked a branch to the splendid sea otter, thinking that this is his favorite flower with his wife, I was dizzy, and took the courage to go to the ghost world to see him once, the result is Needless to say, he turned me out of the door and made me unable to come again in the future."

On the screen is a sin between the ghosts of the lanes, the clear back.

At this time, his back is hidden.

"I didn't dare to bother him, and he never appeared in front of him, but the bunch of sea otters, he did not discard. I think he may still like this human thing, he can't see it in the land, I will pick it up. Give it to him. I hope that his hate for me can be less, even if it is a little bit better."

"Afterwards, I heard that Mrs. Chu’s soul can be restored. It only takes time, but the three souls and seven scorpions of Xiaogongzi have been crushed. It is feared that the poor blues will fall to Huangquan, and in the future, there will be no more. After knowing this news, I was even more difficult and remorseful - until one day, I got one thing."

Moonlight spring mountain, smoke on the river.

Sitting in the cabin, the fishery in the stars reflected in the river, and also reflected the objects in his hands.

The ink burned and walked over. He sat down next to the crime, and he was close, and found it was a piece of wood. The wood grows strange. Other branches of trees have rough bark and fine lines, but it does not.

It is only one palm, the bark is smooth and delicate, and it has a faint luster. Even in the illusion, the ink burns as if it feels that the piece of wood seems to be flowing with a fragrance.

"Yan Di Shen Mu."

"!"

The ink burned his eyes wide open, and he looked incredulously at the broken branch of the brilliance.

This is... Yan Di Shen Mu? !

Legend has it that in the extremes of the East China Sea, where no one has arrived, the kind of sacred tree that grows for thousands of years? The ink burned the two worlds and walked the rivers and lakes for many years. How could you not know the legend of Yandi Shenmu?

Can live dead human bones.

Can be tempered into a weapon that is stronger than Shenwu.

It can even help the mortal to fly, and directly escape the suffering of the reincarnation.

It is obvious that guilty is also aware of these rumors. He whispered: "There is a spirit, a spiritual nucleus, and it can be ascended into a fairy.... I will never have to be cursed by purgatory. From then on, I can be free."

The smoldering slammed the rumors about sin.

Fang said that he refused the invitation of the heavens and has since stayed in the world.

Is the truth actually that he failed to refine the Yan Di Shen Mu, failed?

"I am really... I really want to use this Shenmu for my own use. For a while, I even thought that this is God's will. It is God who pity me, forgive me, don't want me to fall into hell, so I only It will make this Shenmu come to me because of chance."

In the cabin, he was guilty of the sacred wood, his eyes flashed with eagerness and confusion, and his expression was as contradictory as the echoing voice of the ear.

"But I have read it in a volume of ancient books. The Yandi Shenmu and the Nuwa's remains are the same. With this Shenmu, you can create a living person."

Chapter 238

"what?!"

The smoldering was shocked and he took a half step back. If he was not a vain person in this memory, he might have knocked over the fishnet rope next to him.

Can Yandi Shenmu recreate a living person?

"Yan Dimu, female soil, Fu Yuqin, these three original artifacts of the Three Emperors, the spirit is extremely pure, and the first batch of immortal celestial beings between heaven and earth is said to have been created by these artifacts. I got a paragraph Yan Dimu, even if there is no magic power of Shennong, it is not difficult to mold people. Just like the death of Tongtiantai, his mother rebuilt his body with lotus roots. I finally made up my mind to decide to take this piece of wood and paint. Carved into the appearance of Chu Xiaogong."

The ink burns only feels whirlwind, and the eyes are dizzy.

Carved into... Chu Xiaogongzi... Chu Yu’s appearance?

I am guilty: "I want to be a son of Engong."

The ink burned the throat to the extreme, as if something was blocked, and for a long time he muttered: "Impossible..."

In the picture, the nostalgic temple bell rings and the twilight is four.

The tired bird also returned to the nest, and the monks fluttered in their clothes, and the wide-breasted sleeves passed under the gallery.

The master of guilty sin is sitting in the Zen room, the doors and windows are closed, accompanied by the ancient Buddha of the Qing Dynasty, carefully carved a little bit, he does not dare to slash his sword, before he took the Yandi Shenmu to reshape the living, he has already carved it. Hundreds of thousands of people, until the vivid, exactly the same as Chu in memory.

That night, he finally carefully took out Yandi Wood. After a long period of attention, he carefully and carefully dropped the first knife.

The sawdust has been raised, and it has been scattered on the ground.

Every time he fell, he did his best, and every moment he fell, he was the figure of the two old people. The centuries-old time was in the fall of the knife, and the old man buried his head very low, and his neck seemed to have been crushed by sin.

"I am retreating here. In the temple, it took a full five years to finally finish the 'Chu Yu'."

The ink burned and walked toward the guilty sin. He looked at the scorpion and slowly put down the knives. It was the last one, and the ash of the stars was sinned.

The trepidation of the sinfulness of the face of the woodcarving son, the crown, he cried, kneeling on the ground, and constantly bowed to the statue of the wood.

The ink burned and looked at the case and placed the little elephant.

Shenmu is the body, and it is the blade.

The little body is the appearance of Chu’s childhood.

At this time, it was late in the evening, the bell rang, and only the last bit of the dead sun was left between the heavens and the earth, and it was poured through the window and photographed in several cases.

The sundial bells spread throughout the temple, and monks in the courtyard burned cedar and pine leaves, and the scent of the scent was still contaminated with bitterness and coldness.

The night is approaching and the temple is peaceful.

"Just call you, Chu night, stop."

The last blow of Hong Zhong fell, and guilty whispered to the wooden statue.

He bit his fingertips and dripped a drop of blood with a metallic spirit. In an instant, the house was covered with light.

In this piece of Huaguang, the ink trembled with eyelashes and smashed his eyes. His eyelids were not shaking. He tried to see everything in the light, but he was blinded by tears, and his eyes were dazzling. Nothing can be seen.

When the spurt is completely closed, what the ink burns is -

Chu nightning has also known all this, his heart, how much pain?

Not a living person.

No father or mother.

Just a piece of dead wood, a drop of blood.

I have lived for more than 30 years without knowing it between heaven and earth.

"After the gods have a spirit, after the blood is a human being, it is exactly what I want, and it becomes the appearance of the little son of Chu. I put him in the temple to raise the big, accept him as a disciple, slowly, he grows up. Now, start asking myself about my own life and ask me where I came from."

When I saw Chen Xiaoning, a child, sitting next to the master of sin, while eating candied fruit, he asked: "Master, you always said that I was taken back from the snow, then where are you from? What am I holding back?"

The eyes of guilty smuggled into the distant mountains, he went out for a while, and then sighed and said two words.

"Lin'an."

"So I am Lin'an?"

"Ok."

"But I have never been to a monastery. What kind of Linan is like, I don't know." Chu Xiaoning looked a little frustrated. "Master, I want to go down the mountain to see the outside. I... I want to see Lin'an. ”

The illusion faded away, and the temple of no sorrow was far away, followed by the bright summer scenery of the south of the Yangtze River.

It was in June that the lotus flower in the lotus pond was beautiful and straight, and Fang Fei was screaming. Chu nighting, who was a little smaller than the Xia Shi counter, kicked and walked on the bluestone road, and the crime was behind him.

"Late, you slow down, be careful."

Chu night Ning smiled and looked back.

It is a tender, green, and carefree smile that has never been seen before.

"Okay, I am waiting for the Master."

At that time, Chu Yuening, wearing a blue-gray robes, did not fall, tied a small pimple, with a lotus leaf on his head, the lotus leaf was still stained with some crystal clear dew, lining the night The face is more pure and clear.

He was guilty and walked over to him and took his hand: "Well, I have seen Xizi Lake. Where do you want to go next?"

"Would you like to eat something?"

"That..." The crime was overwhelmed. "Go to the city."

They brought them into the city, and the ink burned and walked beside them. He looked at the late night of the Chu, and even his own knees, and his heart was pity and sad.

He reached out and knew that he couldn't touch the people in the illusion, but he still stretched out and touched the head of Chu Ning.

"Ok?"

Under the guise of this, Chu nightning suddenly stopped.

I was guilty and slyly asked: "What happened?"

Chu night Ning raised his head and looked up at his face. The eyes were in the sun, clear like two springs, and they were on the ink.

The ink burns almost in vain, only the heart beats and the blood flow is rushing.

He felt incredible, but looked forward to it secretly...

"what is that?"

Chu nightning released his hand of guilty and walked toward the ink.

The more he looked at the ink, the more uncomfortable he felt. He had never seen such a late-night sorrowful, and he couldn’t help but lean over and couldn’t help but open his arms and wanted to hug him.

However, Chu Xiaoning walked straight through his illusion.

The ink burned for a moment, turned back, and saw the child walked to a snack shop behind him. He looked up at the stall owner and opened the bamboo cage. The smoke rose and steamed, and there was a pale pink flower cake.

The ink burned under the heart, and then there was a trace of sorrow.

It really is just a coincidence.

He walked with the guilty sin, and Chu was rather guilty of sin. He smiled and said: "Master, this pastry looks delicious."

"Would you like to taste it?"

"May I?"

The look of guilt is a bit embarrassing: "You really like it..."

Chu Xiaoning heard it, and opened his eyes slightly. He asked innocently: "Who likes it?"

I sweared and licked my lips and said, "...nothing. Master thought of an old man."

He paid for three glutinous rice cakes, and looked thoughtfully at Chu’s bite, steaming up, blurring the child’s face.

The past is like Sichuan, rolling over.

I sighed with sin and closed my eyes.

Suddenly the sleeves were scorned. He looked down and saw the two-and-a-half cakes. The red bean paste was delicate and soft, and it smelled of heat and dessert.

"The teacher is half, I am half. The big one is for the master."

"Why are you giving me big?"

"It's tall, you eat more."

"..." The ink burned and watched the guilty take over the pastries, and the two people in the night were standing at the stall and eating snacks and talking. He was quiet for a moment, standing under the bright sunshine of Lin'an, smiling slightly.

It hurts.

However, he felt that there was a lingering spring in his heart. He felt that no one would be uneasy and would not like it.

That is the best child in the world.

The prosperous sunshine in front of you has faded.

This new picture did not immediately emerge, the ink burning stood between the darkness, and the ear was a sin of the sin of the ghost.

"I am getting along with him all the time, teaching him to read, read, and telling him, Ming Li. But what I care most about is his spells - I still haven't forgotten that I made such a child for the ultimate He returned to me. I have planned from the beginning. When Chu Ning grew up and was able to withstand the spiritual and physical, I will take him to the ghost world."

The crime was overwhelmed, and the voice became more and more low.

"Take the past and smelt the remaining souls of Chu Xiaoxiaozi into his body."

Ink burning: "!"

He was guilty and hoarse: "I didn't think it was wrong at that time. What is Chu Ning? He is not a real living person. He is just a piece of wood, a wood carving. I gave him life and taught him. It is the truth of human life, but after all, what is flowing in him is not real blood, and the muscle bone is not covered with real meat."

The ink burned was already in my arms, and I couldn’t help but listen to it. He shouted: "No!"

But what is the use?

He couldn’t hear his resentful resentment, and the voice of the monk was still like a whirlpool, blowing the ink into a deeper and more painful whirlpool.

"Chu Ning is superfluous, he has no life, no soul."

"No!! Why does Shenmu have no soul? He has life, he has a soul! He is not anyone! He is not like anyone!" In the illusion, it is like a sleepy beast, "I am guilty, you are Raise him, you look at him every day... Is he not a living person? What is the difference between him and you, and me?"

But the sin is still whispering to himself, just like the numbness of the chanting of the Buddha before, the words of the temperament are forged from the lips and teeth, I do not know whether it is really a heart-felt Buddha, or just want to paralyze the heart that is too intense pain.

"He is a flesh that I carved for Chu Yu. Only the soul of Chu Yu lived in it. Chu will rather be a complete person."

The smoldering is almost creepy. He doesn't know what happened behind him, but he feels that he is going crazy, almost crazy, he is running in the darkness, but everywhere is the abyss, where there is no source, he can't help but whisper. Mumbled again and again: "No! You can't ruin him, he is guilty, he has a soul in his body, he is a living person..."

He knelt down.

He was so scared, even more afraid than the exposure of the past.

Suddenly, he was afraid that he would see the sin of bringing the late night to the ghost world, splitting his chest, and integrating the spiritual core with the soul of Chu.

What about the original Chu nightning?

The spirit of the * of the night will be left, and the six reincarnations, he cut a piece of wood, where can I go?

Heaven, underground, clouds, yellow springs.

I won't ask him anywhere.

"No... I am guilty... You can't..." The ink burns and the lips are white. "You can't..."

How can there be no soul?

Why are you not living?

The child who was running on the road with a smile on the road.

The child who is careful to eat the cake, the big one to the teacher, the small one to eat.

He is still so small, but he is more affectionate and vocal than many people.

He is no worse than any * life.

How can it be, not a living person...

However, the screaming and crying of the desperate ink is not awake.

He is here for a hundred years, and he feels that he owes a family to Chu, who has experienced many hardships to create such a righteousness. How can he misplace it.

"Days live day by day, Chu nightning grows up slowly, he is the body of Chu Fu's resurrection, I am worried that his life and well-being is far better than worrying about himself. So for many years, I was only when he was five or six years old. He took him to Lin'an for a few months, and later, he never made a half-step of the Wusi Temple."

Sighing with sigh, then said: "Sometimes I will think, the human weather that I have seen him, is not pitiful, he lived to fourteen years old, except Linan, wherever he has not been, he has everything from beginning to end They are just the world of the No.1 Temple of Nostalgia, the size of the spring and autumn."

It finally lit up again.

It was the moonlit night, and the first thing I saw was that I was standing at the door of the Zen house and looking out of the courtyard.

He also walked over, like the frosty moonlight, he saw the fourteen-year-old Chu nightning is dancing swords, sea bream flowers flying, the white boy in the shadow of the petals and the cold moon.

The voice of sin is still not scattered, and the fierce sword breaks the sound of the sky and lingers in the ear.

"But I feel that it is not a good thing to see less. There is too much suffering in the world. If this spirit of the gods is destined to be only a short life of more than ten years, then it will be replaced by Chu, then lively and relaxed. Is it true, honest, and ignorant, will it be more benevolent?"

Dance sword.

The residual flowers fall.

Chu nightning closed the long sword behind the arm, and the other hand raised his fingers and calmed.

He calmed down the slightly breathing, raised his head, and saw that he was looking at himself with guilt, so he smiled.

The dinner blew his forehead, some itching, he blew a bit, trying to blow the broken hair that kept scratching his cheek, but it was obviously useless, so he finally had to take the hand, the black phoenix Smiling and looking back at the crime.

That is also the direction in which the ink burns.

"Master."

"Well. Not bad." Nostalgia for nostalgia. "You come over, I test how your spiritual core is now cultivated."

Chu Yuening would not hesitate to come over, open the white sleeves and hand the hand to the crime.

Under one test, I was guilty: "It's very strong, but it's still a little unstable. Let's practice more. Before winter, you should be able to make a big success."

Chu Xiaoning smiled and said: "Thank you for your respect."

When he said this sentence, I don’t know if it was an illusion. The ink burned the shoulder of the guilty sin. It seemed to tremble slightly.

However, after all, there was nothing to say about the crime. Nothing was said or changed.

He turned and went into the house.

The ink burned in the same place, he no longer went to see the guilty in the house, he was extremely eager to eagerly look at the eager cherished youngsters who would disappear when they did not know.

It is still clean, pure and even gentle.

How can such a person have no soul?

His gaze fell, and he did not intend to see the undulating chest of Xi’an’s white clothes.

The ink burned suddenly remembered something. Suddenly, the five thunders thundered, and there seemed to be a huge stone falling between the chests.

"no no……"

He took a step back.

But what about it?

The memory has stretched out his fingers and broke into his internal organs.

He remembered, Chu nightning has a flaw in his chest.

...he was driven through the heart! He He……

The ink trembled, and the night of the night, Chu Ning, danced the sword under the moon and stepped on the flying flower.

So handsome.

But he felt that his stomach seemed to fall into a bucket of ice, and he only felt chilling.

He was cut open by...

So did the crime last really do?

He really took Chu Ning to the ghost world and melted the soul fragments of Chu Yu into the heart of Chu Yuning, so the original Chu night Ning was long gone, so -

He hugged his head and he sat down on the ground.

He shook and didn't dare to think about it anymore.

pain.

The heart hurts.

Those who would rather be dug out of the heart are themselves, and those who would rather be usurped of the original soul are themselves.

Chu nightning.

He is so good.

Why do you have to suffer so much, and finally end up with a "not a living person" judgment, as a lifeless person to bear another life?

Who is the master of his worship?

Is it Chu, or is it late?

I only felt that I was going crazy, my head was sore and I felt dizzy and disgusting. He didn't know how long he had been sitting in the same place.

Later, the sky was dark, and the Zen room and the flower tree disappeared.

Chu nightning also faded.

The voice of sin is slowly flowing in the darkness.

He said: "The time when Chu was late at the age of fourteen, the time has come to maturity. I plan to take him to the ghost world for another year and to enchant the soul with Chu."

Chapter 239

The ink burned empty and listened to it.

He has not shouted, he is sitting in the same place, staring straight, staring at the front.

"Everything was very smooth, but for a while, the down-cutting world was severely cracked, the people were overflowing, and the wild was hungry."

The light is re-lighted in the early winter. There is fine snow falling in the lead-gray sky. A mountain road slowly appears in front of the ink burning. There is a layer of hoarfrost on the road, covered with fresh snow, and a staggered cross-country car.

"I didn't expect that one day, on the way I went to the foot of the mountain to take Lingshi back, we would meet a child who was about to starve."

The ink burned still looked numbly.

Chu nightning and guilty sin appeared on the mountain road. There was a basket behind the night, and there was a stone of spiritual power inside. He wore a cotton cloth and a cold cloak, and walked next to the crime.

"Master." Suddenly, Chu Xiaoning stopped and turned to look at the grassy slopes. "Is there someone?"

"Go and see."

The two walked together, and Chu’s slender, white fingers plucked the grass, and he was taken aback. Wei Zhangfeng: “It’s a child...”

He immediately turned back and said to him: "Master, you are coming, you are screaming at him, what is wrong with him?"

what happened?

Whether you are guilty or smoldering, you can see it at a glance.

The child was dirty and smelly, and his clothes were thin. When the clothes were taken off, they were definitely not worn. The silkworms were all holes. It’s hard to say that the dogs in the temple are eating cruel and cold meals, and they are more radiant than the children.

If the child is still licking, and breathing, it is no different from a smashed rotten meat.

what happened? What else can you do?

In the face of every major disaster, the manpower is so small and small, let alone die a child, and it is not a rare thing to eat.

Only Chu Jingning, who grew up in the temple from a young age, can ask such a stupid question.

Wrinkled with guilt, said: "Don't worry, go back first. I will come to see him."

Chu Xiaoning trusted the master, so he immediately got up and obediently, but he had not had time to go, but the cloak's clothes were caught by a dirty hand.

The hand was so weak that the strength of the cockroach was so small that it was like a small milk dog scratching gently.

Chu nightning bowed his head and looked at the little dirty face that could not distinguish the facial features.

The child’s voice was as light as a mosquito, as if a snow fell in the sky, he would be crushed and crushed.

"rice……"

Chu night Ning stunned, did not respond: "What?"

"...meal..." The child choked, his face was black, and there were only two whites in his eyes. He shuddered and made a gesture of risotto, mournfully, "eat..."

Outside the picture, the ink burned his eyes and returned half of the god.

But his mind is still numb, he can't react quickly, but the shadow of the heart feels that the scene seems familiar, like where he has seen it.

He looked straight.

In the picture, Chu Xiaoning has already stopped.

He suddenly rounded his eyes, and finally understood that he had come to the point, first of all, unbelievable, unbelievable, and then he was in a hurry and was in a hurry.

He only knows that the world is good, but he has never seen a skinny child with only skin, like a kitten and cat that is going to starve. The snowy sky is shivering in the grass. The only thing that can keep out the cold is a summer dress. A cold rag. Hold him, only two words in his mouth.

Rice, and eat.

Sinful and stern: "You go back first."

But this time, Chou Ning did not listen again. He looked at the little dirty dog-like child, and he was very distressed. He took off his cloak and wrapped it on the child.

He was in a hurry. It seems that this child is not suffering, but he himself. He said, "Hungry? You wait, I have rice porridge here, I have rice porridge."

He went to ask for sin, but he frowned.

"I let you go back, this is not something you should manage."

"Why shouldn't it be?" Chu night Ning stunned, "He... he is so poor, Master, have you seen it? He just wants to ask for something, and then he will starve to death."

He said that he was a bit ridiculous, and he murmured: "What is going on here? Isn't it true that the world is flat? Why?"

"go back."

Chu Xi Ning was wrong. He didn’t know why he was suddenly guilty of sin. He finally bit his lip and said, “I want to feed him some rice soup...”

"I can't help but still promise him." The voice of guilty sin was with some sighs, and with the hurricane blowing snow, floating in the ear of ink, "I gave him a pot of rice soup, allowing him to go in person." I was going to treat the child who was not coming. I didn't know at the time, this would make Chu Ningning feel something, and let him make a choice. I didn't know anything at the time."

The ink burned and stared at the night of the night, and opened the pot to the child's mouth.

The child eagerly rushed over but couldn’t move.

He is already starving to death, without any extra strength.

The ink is burning and the knot is moving.

He suddenly felt that there was a seed in the skull that buds and arched out of the mud.

He suddenly felt that all this was so familiar...

He looked at it.

He is returning to God.

Then, at a certain point, the dragon and the dragon break the waves, and the clouds roll.

He stood up and pointed into a fist -

He remembered it!

"Is it you?" He hurriedly rushed toward the night in the picture, and the pupil contracted sharply. "You are him? Is he? You are... you are..."

He couldn’t say it anymore, and he covered his eyes with his arms.

The throat is full of bitterness.

He did not think of it.

It turned out to be Chu Ningning.

- The child who was about to freeze to death between the grasshoppers, after burying the mother that year, climbed down from the mass graves, nowhere to go, and begged themselves! !

The illusion coincides with the memory, and the ink has never forgotten the snowy day, taking off the teenager wrapped in the cloak.

Chu night Ning worriedly asked: "What's wrong? Can't you drink?"

Little ink burned no more words, only a weak whimper from the throat, picked up the dark eyes, and glared at him with powerlessness.

"Then I will give it to you, don't mind."

The spout was unscrewed, and the rice porridge was in the palm of the juvenile. He carefully held it. He looked hesitant. He probably felt that it was dirty. Maybe the child would not want to drink.

But he really wants more.

dirty?

From Linyi to Wusi Temple, this road burned the river, the rain, the shovel in the pool. When he had eaten wild fruits, leftovers, and most helpless, he even swallowed ants and ate the soil.

He squatted on the ground and leaned over to drink rice soup. At that time, he only felt that Yang Zhigan was in his throat, and the person who gave him soup was nine days.

"Slow, slow, not enough." Chu Yuening was surprised and sad, he looked at the dirty little head buried in his palm, miserable and embarrassed, greedy and pitifully licking rice porridge, The whole volume of the tongue is like a small animal drinking water.

"Where did you come from?" He asked this question.

But the ink burned and whimpered without answering. The rice syrup was finished. Only the palm of the hand still had a little bit left. He refused to let go, and kept holding the little brother's palm, and he was so late and itchy.

Itching is the hand, and the pain is the heart.

"Nothing, still, I will pour you a little more."

Chu nightning was full of smashing, and the ink burned all the time in the process. When he reached out, he went up again and couldn’t wait to continue. He squatted and sipped.

That is full of a pot of rice syrup, Chu Xi Ning holds a handful, so he feeds him to drink.

The ink has never been forgotten.

In fact, in his later ups and downs of life, he thought about it many times - if he did not meet this person at the time, what would happen to him.

He has deduced many possibilities, and there have been many ideas, but in the end they can't escape a word.

dead.

Starved to death, frozen to death, was taken away by wild wolf wild dogs, opened up the belly and eat the heart, liver and spleen and stomach.

If you don't meet this brother, you should have gone to Huangquan to meet your mother.

So later, when the ink burned on Xianjun, he had specially searched for the old benefactors in the Temple of Nostalgia, but because the time passed, it was too long, he could not remember the face of the benefactor, and he only felt that he was facing the full house. Unspeakable irritability, and finally waved away.

At that time, the abbot was frightened and frightened. I don’t know where the Temple of Sorrow was offended, and I have been waiting for it to rise and fall. On the second day, the Emperor ordered the people to carry hundreds of scorpions, and when they opened, they were full of glory.

"If you don't know who you are, you will treat everyone like you, and you will reward the monks of the Temple of Nostalgia for the sake of living."

It turned out that he was a benefactor who couldn’t find it when he turned around. He was trapped in the life and death, and was under house arrest by him all the time. Was he bullied?

In the past, the little brother, in addition to the warm cloak, wrapped in his thin body.

Fate teasing, but he violently tears the shirt of the little brother that night, and puts him between the stunned bed and smashes the phoenix.

He went to the benefactors all over the world.

Without knowing it, the benefactor was forced to kneel between his legs, humiliated and bowed.

The ink burned in front of the scene, and the blood was covered with a little bit of blood.

"How... how could it be you?"

In this life, these two lives. The edge of the encounter with the king, the shallow is wrong.

It’s all life.

Everything in front of him is dark again. Only the sound of snow and snow is endless, and the voice of sin and emptiness is echoing in the distance.

"I asked the child if he would like to live in the Temple of Nostalgia, but the child said that he would give him a kindness for his mother, so he must go back to Xiangtan anyway. I left him and gave him. Dry food and a little silver." He said, "When the child swayed down the snow slope, Ning Ning stood in the same place until his back was completely swallowed by the wind and snow, disappearing into the wilderness, he only Turned back to the temple. I went to take his hand, I remember his hand at that time, cold like ice."

He was quiet for a while, but the pain in his voice was still not suppressed.

"After that day, I was told by several times that I would go down the mountain to help me. I didn't even allow him. I even blamed him for his unstable heart. When a stone came into the water, he moved his Zen heart. So I punish him for the dragon blood. The mountain wall thought, and he was embarrassed for a hundred and sixty-four days."

"He originally asked me to let him out, but then I was so disappointed that I would never want to scream again. One hundred and sixty-four days, every day, I will ask him what his enlightenment, I hope every day. Can change his attitude, but the answer he gave me is always two words." Long sighs, like snow and silence.

"WTO accession."

Everyone was clear and repaired, but he only fell into the adversity because he had seen a child.

"Later, he put me and his scriptures on the torch and rebelled against it. I am worried that this is not the way to end this. I ended the house arrest against him. I intend to change some methods to teach him, wait a year, his spirit. The nuclear is stable, I can take him to the ghost world, and this is all over."

"...I didn't expect that, on the evening of the end of thinking, Chu Yuening would leave without saying goodbye. I only found a letter in his Zen room. The letter said that although he had been away for a long time, he always thought about it. The child I met was still suffering, so I wanted to go down the mountain for ten days. He was afraid that I would lock him again. He left with a starry night. I was holding the letter, and it was both annoying and anxious, but there was no way. ""

Sighed with a sigh: "I don't know where he went."

The new scene is lit up again.

This time it is still in the Temple of Nostalgia, in the courtyard.

Chu nightning has come back. He is covered with dirty blood, but his eyes are extraordinarily bright under the moonlight, and there is a god.

At this moment, he is like a sacred soldier who has been forged for a long time, and no one can stop his edge.

I was guilty of standing in front of him, neither of them spoke.

However, the voice of sin in the ear of ink is still slowly telling: "After ten days, he really rushed back on time. My heart was loose, and I was glad that I had not changed. I wanted to rebuke him and let him go back to the house. I have to rest well. But I didn't think that I was waiting for a knife without a sheath."

In the picture, Chu night was stunned and bowed to the ground.

I am guilty of grief: "What is this?"

"The teacher respects or shuns the world for a long time. Now the outside is really different from the teacher. The disciples are respectful, don't stay in the mountains, look down the mountain. This is a sea of nowhere, it is not a teacher." The source of the peach."

I am angry with sin: "Is it ridiculous! Do you know what you are talking about?"

Chu Jingning originally thought that if he saw the truth with his own eyes, he would certainly be able to change his attitude towards listening to the ear. He did not expect that the guilty conscience would be this reaction. He took a moment to say: "Shi Zun has always told his disciples to worry about the worries of others, and it is difficult for others.... In these ten days, the disciples went up and down to cultivate a total of 20 In the villages of the three villages, the scenes that were seen were shocking, and if the masters saw them down the mountain, they would..."

When his words were not finished, he was interrupted by anger and anger: "Who made you leave the mountain without permission?!"

"There is no sun and moon in this mountain. You should be a good fruit soon, and you will rise to the ground. Why did you rush out of the mountain and manage the red dust before you have broken through the sky?!"

"The human sufferings are endless, and you are a small repairer who can manage it! Why do you look so high!"

The more angry the guilty sin, the more the eyes of Chu Evening are getting bigger.

He watched his master's squatting in the moonlight, squatting on his sleeves, screaming at his nose, screaming, and the sea otter tree cast a heavy shadow, cutting the guilty sin. The ink burned and looked at Chu’s face, first of all, and then lost, and then became a horror, turned into disappointment, and finally settled as pain.

Chu nightning closed his eyes.

I am angry with anger: "Do you know what is wrong?!"

"..."

"say something!"

"Disciple." Chu night Ning paused, his voice was as hard as iron, "I don't know."

I am guilty of sin: "You are arrogant!"

Chu’s cheeks immediately floated red, but he immediately turned his face back, his eyes flashing with incomprehensible and resentful light and shadow: “Master, you have taught me to do things righteously, worrying about the world, Why did you really encounter a catastrophe, but you want me to stand by and ignore it?"

"...this is not the same thing at all." He sinned and gnawed his teeth. "You...what is going out at the moment, what can you do? You really have a good endowment, but the sinister world is not what you can imagine. What are you going out for? To live up to the teacher’s 14 years of parenting, and to donate money for the sake of anger?"

He paused, the words swear, the golden stone fell.

"Chu Ning, you can't get away with yourself, what do you want to do?"

And Chu Yuning, at this time, is angry and sadly looking at his master.

He raised his chin slightly, and there was a fascination of water vapor in the eyes of the phoenix.

I have never seen the appearance of tears in the night of Chu, but the water in his eyes has quenched the evil fire in his heart. He stunned and hesitated: "You... oh, it’s only to fight. It hurts you?"

But the onlooker's ink burns clearly knows, no.

Chu night, where is the pain of the slap, he is a teacher who respects the respect of the child, and he will say something that is inconsistent with the tall image in his heart.

Chu nightning slowly closed his eyes. After a while, the ink burned the words that were familiar.

He said: "I don't know how to spend people.

The sinfulness of the sin is stabbed, and the figure is like a clay sculpture that is so impressed and protected.

The sound of the late night of the Chu dynasty is hoarse and hoarse: "All the sufferings of the world are in front of you, and the disciples are dull. I don’t know why the masters sit high all the time and close their eyes."

He finished and slowly got up.

In the moonlight, the dress he was when he went was no longer white, and there was mud and blood.

But it is so straightforward and solemn.

"This fairy, no repair."

He was horrified and stunned, his eyes were dim, and he screamed: "Counter, do you know what you are talking about?!"

"I just want to do what you taught me from childhood." Chu Yuning is also a sword, but between Zhang, he is shaking slightly, his eyes are full of sadness. "You taught me, is your morality only in On paper?! Is it that millions of victims are homeless, and there are orphans dying day and night. What I should do is not to go out of the mountain, but to accompany the ancient Buddha, to practice Zen?!"

I’m so guilty of sin and swearing: “After you fly, you can do a lot of good things!”

Chu night Ning glared at him, as if he had never seen this person like him.

His chest was undulating, his palms were pinched into fists, and his eyes were flowing in the river. The original thought that he would rush to the ground in the next moment, such as the smashing of the dragon, breaking the water, smashing the waves, and swearing the guilty throat to let him know the sin.

However, Chu Xiaoning trembled for a while, and finally did nothing.

At the end of his eyes, he was red and hoarse and said: "Master, I am comprehending, not for the sake of being free and detached. Is it true that it is only for immortality? If so, I would rather not. I would rather halfway, I I would rather have nothing, I would rather stay in the world."

"Pour me all and die."

"..."

"The Master will fly up. When I finish all the people I can cross, I will come with you."

"Chu Ning!!"

Even in the illusion, the ink can feel the wrath of the day when the crime is sinned, the secret of the heart, and the disappointment of the bones.

This wood carving clay sculpture, why dare to face the fate of the person, "it", what is it? !

The guilty conscience is red, and the blood is hidden in the eyes.

He is unwilling, he is angry and angry, who should he say in his heart of hatred and secrets?

He has nowhere to vent.

In the end, he shouted at the late night of Chu, who was about to step out of the courtyard. The sound of the ice was cold to the extreme: "Counter, you stand for me."

Chapter 240

This sound stood like a late night clock.

The ink burned almost know what to see next. He was covered in cold hair and his bones were violent. He wanted to get out of the illusion and escape the road. He wanted to plunge into yesterday and he would protect him.

"No... I am guilty... you can't..."

But he can't stop anything, all of this has already happened.

He could only look at the situation in front of his scalp, and watched the night of Ning, twisting his dark sword, his eyes bent and unyielding, and he greeted his guilty eyes.

The ink can't be self-proclaimed and yelling at him: "Run! Run!"

Juvenile Chu Xi Ning has always trusted to sin, trust this teacher who respects him as a sacrifice, and trusts his adoptive father and benefactor. So even if he was extremely disappointed, he did not see the killing of the dead from the eyes of the guilty. The ink burned in front of him - knowing that it was useless, but he still couldn't stand by.

"I beg you, run fast..."

Chu night Ning did not go, he was like a pine and cypress, step by step toward the crime of sin, and finally stood, the high horsetail behind him was blown by the wind, the * dyed robes were also blown by the wind.

I am guilty of sinning lips and smashing the words: "You have to go down the temple, you can."

"Master?" Chu nightning's phoenix eyes are slightly large, he is not sinister, only the knife lifted by the scorpion as a window of the moon, for a moment, he is even grateful and delighted.

He thought that he finally understood him when he was guilty.

However, the butcher's knife is chilly, killing the heart has been expressed, and guilty: "When you walk out of this courtyard tonight, you are no longer a person without a temple. You and I have fourteen years of mentoring and friendship, and this is a cut."

"..." The phoenix is still huge, but the content inside is changed from joy to sorrow and sorrow.

Chu Xiaoning probably did not expect that the guilty conscience would be firm until now, and the stupidity stood in the place for a long time before he moved his lips. The ink burned aside, and he kept whispering: "Please, please go, leave here, stop saying, leave here."

The lips are moving, but there is no complete words.

I stare at him with guilt, this is the most important bet he has put down, and he is very late. For the past fourteen years, only the two of them have been companions. If this teacher’s friendship is broken, he will cut his heart with a knife. He should will not--

Chu night Ning down.

"..." is guilty of guilt.

He still thought numbly, no, how could he refuse to do so, and he would do it alone.

Chu night is rather sturdy and long.

One, two, up to nine.

He raised his face again, his eyes clear, no water vapor, but his cheeks were moist.

"The disciple is late in the night, thanks to the teacher's grace to raise the teaching. From then on..." He was agitated, what happened? He didn't know, he couldn't go on.

Perhaps it was cold and cold, and the body that was guilty of swaying slightly in the wind, his cockroaches were blown up, the wind filled the sleeves, his face was getting more and more heavy, colder and colder, and his lips were bloodless. He stared at the person who was kneeling before him.

That paragraph...

wood! wood! !

He carved and carved, and gave blood to his life. He carefully taught and tried his best.

He has done so much for fourteen years to send the piece of wood to the ghost world to become the body of the soul of Chu, not to see it here today and talk about worrying about the country and the people. What is it?

- a piece of scrap!

firewood!

The fire in the chest burned into the eyes, destroying the earth, and impulsive.

This kind of guilty is too dangerous. The ink burned and leaned over and tried to hug Chu, but he couldn’t catch him. He couldn’t touch him. Chu Ning was still so stubborn, so stubborn and sturdy in the same place, barely because There is a way in the heart, and harmony is because there is a flaw in the heart.

In the eyes of Chu, Ning’s eyes reflected the more sinful face, and his chest was licking his blood.

He is born for others, this chopping wood, wood, there is no soul thing.

He was kneeling on the ground, but he did not think about it. He himself.

"Late..." The ink whimpered, and he raised his hand to touch the face he couldn't touch. "Please, please... let's go... let's go..."

The sound of "When you slam" is the sound of metal landing.

The ink burned slowly, and a machete lay on the blue brick floor.

Under the moonlight, the butcher had an inexhaustible blood in his eyes. He kicked a knife and kicked the scimitar straight to the knees of Chu.

"No, no, no, no."

The ink burned and panicked. He went to grab the knife, but the tip of the knife passed through his fingers. He couldn’t catch it. How could he try to stop?

The last slender hand stretched out and held the knife that couldn't hold the ink.

At this time, Chu’s eyes were calm, and the initial horror had disappeared. The pain of the greatness was gradually subsided when he sinned to throw the scimitar to him.

He seems very relieved.

"If the Master wants my life, I am still." Chu said, "I have lived for 14 years, and lived for 140 years. If I only sit in this world, there is no difference."

The eyes of guilty suddenly became nothing like the sorghum of the transcendental world. For a moment, the ink burned clearly on his face and saw the shadow of Xiaoman.

That Lin'an rainy night, the shadow of the boy on the eve of the rebellion.

"Chu Ningning." He said, "You have to break with me, I don't want to stay. I haven't taken care of it for 14 years. But you have to return what you have learned to me." ""

"..."

I have eyes closed: "I want to take your spiritual core."

The nucleus is the most condensed crystal of the monk, and it is the same as the sacred wood. As long as there is a nucleus, it may be possible to reshape a Chu night.

This time, he can no longer teach him morality, and he can no longer be taught to be kind.

He wants the core of the night.

The heart of the living.

Chu night Ning looked at him for a while, the light and shadow in the Buddhist temple swept, the Daxiong Hall had a monk who did the evening class, and the sound of the grandeur came from a long distance, like a sandalwood Buddha.

The voice of guilty screams in the air, but this time, he only said two sentences, these two words, as if exhausted his life's courage and strength.

His voice seems to be in an instant, and he is a hundred years old.

"He was kneeling on the ground and looking at me. I suddenly felt that when the Buddha forgives and hurts his mortal, is that kind of look."

"He is merciful to his executioner, the soul under the knife, the butcher who has mercy on blood."

"Don't!!!" the ink snorted.

The knife light flashed, and he closed his eyes slyly, a clear and audible squeak, and the ink burned on the ground.

"Don't..."

The blood is spewing and the flesh is separated.

The ink burned and mourned to climb over and climbed to the side of Chu's late night. He couldn't help but shake his head and squat, and he hurriedly blocked the wounds of Chu's late night, trying to perfuse the spirit to stop bleeding.

Nothing works.

Nothing works.

He watched the night of Ning Qiang's reluctance to pain, and he did not let himself faint in the instant. He watched the night of Ning's knife, poked into the chest, blood, and blood everywhere.

Hot, rushing, hot.

How can it be not a living person?

Meat, the meat is torn apart.

Bright red, sweet, broken.

How could it not be a living person? ! how come! ! !

He was standing in the same place, his look was still fixed at the last moment, and he looked cruel and cruel, but the light of his eyes shone, trembling, shuddering, stunned...

What he hopes, is that really the case?

At that moment, the picture suddenly became turbulent and blurred, and the situation in front of the ink became distorted by the emotions when the crime was made.

He saw how many old things appeared in the blood, and everything was soft and true.

Mo-burning saw that the eleven-year-old Chu Yunning was called to leave after Jin Chengchi’s call to the day, but there was another guqin in the lake water. At the moment of its floating water, Chu Ning’s body also shines brightly, which seems to complement it. He was surprised and puzzled by the string of the Guqin: "What is this going on?"

I was immediately guilty of guessing that this guqin was also smashed by a section of Emperor Yanmu. It would have a pulse with Chu, and would naturally have mutual perception. His expression looked very excited, some accidents, and some delights: "This should be your destiny."

"Definitely sacred?"

In addition to sinful surprises, my eyes are a little dodging: "...well, some people are born with a strange root, and students come from a relationship with God."

Chu Xiaoning laughed: "I am a strange bone?"

"..." shunned and refused to answer, only rubbed the wooden body of the nine songs and sighed, "This guqin has a relationship with you, I am afraid that it can be summoned without a nucleus... it is connected with your blood. ”

As soon as the picture turned, the ink burned and saw two people walking outside Lin'an City. He was guilty of being behind Xiao Ning, and stopped him from slowing down.

He saw the steaming flower cake, Chu night Ning separated from the steam heart without the smile of the city.

He saw the inn, Chu night, holding a small Pu fan, drumming a bit, trying to help the sin of the meditation fan.

He saw that Chu Yuning had eaten sweet-scented osmanthus for the first time, and the sweet juice was full of mouth, and he opened his mouth and laughed at the guilty conscience.

Finally, the illusion is fixed on the edge of the lotus pond in a certain summer, and the lotus leaves are infinitely beautiful. The flowers in the pool are extremely bright, and the red dragonfly is high and low, and it is a good evening.

Wu and Ning, who are five or six years old, smiled and learned to sit cross-legged and meditate. A pair of black and warm eyes looked at his master: "Master respect, play again, play again."

I am guilty: "If you don't play, Master will go to Zhaitang to recite the scriptures, and for the sake of the old man."

"Play once and go again, the last time, really last time."

Then, before the big monk spoke, the little guy had already rolled the sleeves of the blue-gray robes, and the lotus swayed. He held out his small hand and went to sin with enthusiasm and did not want to take care of his hand. The child voice was sweet and crisp. It is like a sweet linger.

"You are right, I am right, what is blooming in the water? The lotus blossoms in the water.

You are right, I am right, what is a bunch of flowers? The eucalyptus blossoms in a string. ”

I couldn't help but look at his smiling face. In the end, I had to shake my head, smile and clap my hands and play a naive game.

"You are right, nine, I am nine, what flowers go with the wind? Dandelion blossoms with the wind.

You are ten, I am ten, what is flowering without leaves? The plum blossoms have no leaves. ”

The blood is dyed and the red lotus is soaked.

In the temple, he closed his eyes with sin.

Yes... a piece of broken wood.

In the past, Lang Lang laughed and was still in the ear.

Yes, no soul.

"What is blooming in the water? Hahaha, the master is stupid, the lotus blossoms in the water."

It is an empty shell. The body that he wants to sacrifice to Chu Yu is the wood of redemption that he has exhausted for hundreds of years! Not a living person! No soul! !

"Master, the flower cake is divided into half, you eat big, I eat small."

The tears of guilty sighed down.

He trembled and trembled fiercely, and he groaned. He had already plunged the knife into the heart, and the nucleus had begun to rupture, and the child to be dug up ran.

He knelt down, he was so painful, he was so screaming, he was holding the night with Ning, but he could only be like the ink burning of Chu’s lateness.

The crying in his throat was like a * knife, like a knife. It is not the heart of Chu Yuning, but his jealousy, his soul.

How can there be no souls...

It is he who does not look at his eyes and does not listen to it.

He always knew, he always realized in his heart.

From Chu Xiaoning's smile, from the seriousness of Chu Xinning, from the tolerance and gentleness of Chu Xinning, from the reluctance and persistence of Chu Yuning, he has always seen the soul of that person.

But for his own self-interest, for the so-called redemption, he pretended to be dumb, and he paralyzed himself.

Chu nightning, never a wood-plastic, an empty shell.

He is a man of blood and flesh, who will cry and laugh...

"When I was a child, I watched him grow up day by day. When he was a child, he was like Chu, bigger, and like Chu, but I never missed him and any of them."

The guilty sin is ashamed and hoarse.

"It is he who divides me half of the pastry, and pulls me to call me a master. It is that he secretly took the fan of the fan to give me a cool ride. I thought I didn't notice it. He was with me at the Nos. Temple for 14 years and laughed at me. Trust me and say that I am the most benevolent teacher in the world."

Such as pharynx.

Innocently muttered: "The most benevolent teacher..."

In the picture, the crime of sin has curbed the hand of Chu Yuning, and curbed his spiritual power. Chu Yuning almost fainted at the moment when the spell was invalidated.

I am guilty of holding a living, * body. It’s like holding a hundred years ago, when Lin’an was cracked, he dug his heart to illuminate the people who escaped.

But not the same.

Chu night Ning Hao, proud, Chu night Ning has such a small shackle like this, such as not sleeping with a quilt, such as eating and eating tired, can not help but bite chopsticks in a daze, such as never love to wash clothes, only Immerse them together.

That is his own habit, his own love.

Not the same as anyone.

The picture is dark again.

If it is black, if this is the case, if you look at it again, I am afraid that it will be crazy.

In the darkness, it is a sigh of sin.

"In fact, he was cold and right, telling me that he wants to go down the mountain and he is not willing to sit on the ground. I know that he is a living person."

"I am weak and selfish. I almost ruined my child."

"He is not Chu, he is not a sacrifice for my atonement."

"He is Chu Yuning, because the time when I wake him up is a quiet and peaceful evening. The bell of the Zen Temple is ringing. He was born under the watchful eyes of the solemn gods of the treasures. I gave him his name."

"But what I gave him was actually just a name. I have always lived by creating him, and therefore I believe that he should be used by me, for me, let me sacrifice. But until I look at him, and Like Chu Gongzi, for his own morality, he will not hesitate to self-certify..."

It’s hard to say anything when you are guilty of sin. For a long time, you are dumb.

"I finally understand that I have never given him a soul and gave him life. It is his own, because... because a dirty and weak sinner like me can never create such a life of purity and fortitude. ”

"It is never possible."

Chapter 241

The scrolls are lit up again, it is a morning of rain and rain, sitting in the Zen room with guilty sins, hand-picked Xingyue Bodhi beads, muttering the Buddhist scriptures in the mouth. Suddenly there was a flash of light at the door. He didn't look back. He just fell a wooden fish and sighed: "Wake up?"

The ink burned back and saw that Chu Ning stood outside the door, and Qing Jun’s figure seemed to melt into the thin sky.

"Why should the Master save me?"

"No sad temple, see no blood."

"..."

"You have been self-certifying, and I understand what you mean. You go down the mountain yourself. From now on, you have to come back."

Chu nightning did not go to get any luggage, he looked at the familiar back in the sacred candle, and said: "Master."

Master.

Then what to say? Don't you ever? Thank you, Da En?

The gauze on the chest is still bleeding, the knife is pulled out, but the heart is still hurting.

In the last fifteen years of trust, I finally got a sentence of "I want your spiritual core." This is nothing. For fifteen years, he always thought that he was guilty of being guilty, and he would be worried and ruthless. He always thought that this is just as peaceful and stable as Lin'an City and Shang Xiu.

But that's all fake, it is a crime to lie to him.

This is a tens of thousands more times than the nuclear fragmentation.

Chu nightning closed his eyes. In the end, he said to him: "Don't go over... Master."

He left his tenderness, trust, and innocence in this solemn temple. It was the thing that had been given to him by sin, and was later taken away with the broken spirit and the blood that rushed.

He turned and walked far.

"I know that he will hate me, even if I follow him down the mountain, the hurdle in his heart is always unable to pass." With guilty guilty, "I let him go, and since then he has lost an injustice in his impression. The image of selfishness and ruthlessness, he did not recognize me again, and I no longer have the identity of his master."

"At that time, his birth was just over, he was fifteen years old. The fifteen years of duckweed, spring, summer, autumn and winter, joys and sorrows, from that day, no longer look back."

I was guilty of sweeping the steps in the courtyard. The leaves turned pale green from the green, and there was no more life on the last branch. It was another year of winter snow.

The monk was wrapped in a thick robe, standing under the eaves, staring at the snow.

His face is still young, but his eyes are full of old age. Like all ordinary people who are drooping, he likes to be in a daze. If he sits for a while, he will unconsciously fall into the shallow.

"I am very old, two hundred years old. The things in my youth have slowly faded in my mind, but I have more and more vividly remembered the years when I was late to me. I sometimes think that my elders are for my son. The concern is whether this feeling... But what kind of elders do I have? I am just a butcher who has no courage."

I am guilty of sin: "The yin in my body is getting thinner and thinner, and atonement is not expected in this life. I don't want to go anywhere, I can't stay in the Temple of Nostalgia all the time, only when the flowers are blooming. The best one to watch, take the ghost world, as usual, trust people to hand over to Chu."

"I have never been a broad-minded person, so I can only do a little bit of things in the end. If I have more, I will not be able to do it well. I will not know right or wrong when I meet the choice. I intend to do this again. Until one day. - In my yard, I suddenly came alone."

It was late at night, and the door was hurriedly screaming.

I was guilty of getting up and opening the door, squatting.

"……It's you?!"

The ink burned behind and immediately saw the man's face.

It is Chu nightning.

Chu Xiaoning looked very anxious and his face was very poor. The strangest thing was that he was wearing a thin summer shirt.

The first reaction of the smoldering was that he gave the jacket to the emigrant who was about to freeze to death, but then he found out that it was not. The dress of Chu’s dress was very correct. He entered the bedroom with the permission of guilt. The trapped beast that was forced to the ruin was given a sinful curse.

I was guilty of guilty words in the throat, and finally only asked: "What are you...?"

"My mana can't support it for too long, and I can't explain it to the master one by one." Chu Yuening's speed is very urgent. "This incense burner is very important. I really don't know who to give it. This world is too much unknown. I I don't know what the next 'he' will be, I don't know who will survive, I can protect this secret, so I can only disturb you."

"...What are you talking about? Are you sick?"

There was no reaction to the crime, but the ink standing next to it burned his head and slammed, and it was dark! He suddenly realized that there was something wrong with "Chu Ningning".

Ear hole! !

This Chu Xinning has a pierced ear on his left ear, wearing a tiny scarlet earring, like a small cinnabar.

It’s just a tiny detail, but it makes the ink burn like a thunder, and can’t speak again.

This is not a late night of Ning... or, this is not the earthly night of this world!

He... He came from a previous life, from the era of Emperor Xiandi, otherwise he would never have this mark. The ink burns clearly remembers this earring, which is made by the blood of his own, and the attachment of the curse will make Chu Xinning more sensitive to his own touch and aggression.

Never wrong! !

He can even clearly recall what he was full of at the time, made this nail, and then, when he was so guilty, he glared at his left ear and felt under his body. The man trembled and released, while screaming at the night of Chu, he could not help but pierce his earlobe with a needle.

Chu Xiaoning was sulking, squinting at the bedding, but could not get rid of the man who was on his body.

"Is it painful?"

He glared at the blood of his ear, and his eyes flashed.

“Is it pain or irritation?”

The ear pin plunges in and breaks the soft flesh, just like another degree of conquest for this person. It is always painful for a foreign body to * into the flesh, no matter what it is.

Seeing that the night of the night, Chu Ning was sore and trembled, the ink burned and felt more and more hot and excited. He rubbed the chin of Chu’s late night, and he came over and kissed himself on the hot and wet side, while breathing:

"Wear a earring, why are you shaking?"

He knows what he wants, and uses his hand to force the needle to violently break the earlobe, without any pity, fierce and rough.

"You see, it pierces you." He stroked the earrings that Ningxin put on the night, and he muttered, "Go in."

"..."

"It's in your flesh and blood, and you are my person ever since."

——Chu Ningning of the previous life, has come to the world of this life.

This cognition made the ink burned and stunned. His scalp was numb, his eyes were dim, and he felt that he couldn’t even breathe. He looked at everything in front of him, what is going on?

He tried hard to concentrate and listened to the dialogue between Chu and Ning and the crime of sin, but this stimulus is too big. He has no way to return to God immediately. He only vaguely knows what happened to Chu Ningning and his guilt, from time to time. The ground drifted into the "time and space life and death" "destruction ban" "can not stop" these broken words.

He saw the sinful sitting on the chair, his face sallow and his eyes tightened.

“How do you prove that what you said is true?”

"... can't prove it." In the end, the ink ignited Chu Zhongning said, "I can only ask the master to believe me."

"...this is ridiculous. You said that you came from another world through the door of life and death. In that world, there is one called tread... step..."

"Take the fairy."

"There is a stepping fairy, destroying the earth and destroying the earth, almost subverting the entire realm of truth, you found his secret, so I tried to open the door to life and death, come to this world? In order to rewrite everything?"

"It’s not rewriting, it’s blocking. If you go on like this, they will sooner or later grasp the spell of life and death. It’s not just our world that ends.” Chu’s night was settled, his eyes reflected the candlelight. No one can escape."

"It’s ridiculous." muttered in guilty. "How could it be... this is simply... nonsense..."

From time to time, Chu Jingning was watching the water leak in front of the sin. He was screaming at the hour, and his eyes gradually gathered into anxiety: "Even if the master does not believe it at the moment, he will understand it later. Before that, please only seal this incense burner. In the cave of the Dragon Blood Mountain, I set the most crucial spell in the incense burner, let it slowly evaporate inside, the master does not care about it. The only thing to do is..."

Looking up at the crime, almost watching a madman, a dreamlike look, watching Chu nightning.

"The only thing to do is not to let anyone approach the Dragon Blood Cave. Until the master believes what I said, I will find a way to bring the 'I' of the world and the man named Moburn to the Dragon Blood Mountain. - The latter thing, the spells in the incense burner are already arranged, no need to worry."

I was guilty of sinfulness and moved my mouth. I seemed to want to say something, but this was a screaming whistle.

This kind of whistle sounds exactly the same as when the stepping fairy disappears.

Chu Xiaoning heard this movement, his face became paler, and he almost stared at the eyes of guilty: "Please, except you, no one in this world can help me, and there are no other people who can entrust." ”

Hearing the two words, he was guilty of sin.

In his scorpion, it seems that there is a turbidity and vicissitudes of the old man.

Finally he took the incense burner and nodded slightly.

The whistle is sharper. Chu night Ning looked back at the night outside the window, and then said to the guilty: "Please master must keep the Dragon Blood Cave, and if there is a step in the world, or... as I said, there is a ghost When the world breaks, the situation is bound to change. At that time, the master should be convinced that what I said today is not false."

The whistle screamed and almost tore the eardrum.

Chu nightning turned and ran into the night, and finally only had a deep look at the guilty look. He originally wanted to be a teacher, and he could hold it in half and he stopped. He closed his eyes and looked at him.

At that moment, I didn’t know where the courage came from, and stood up, shouting at Chu’s late night: “You...you know what I have done? I didn’t do the same thing for you in that world. ?? You won’t believe me again!"

Chu nightning just shook his head, his face was blurred in the night.

"Master..." His figure is getting farther and farther. "I don't have time... Please, think about it..."

"No matter what method you can use, this matter is too important. Please be sure to persuade me to listen to you and let me come to Longxue Mountain with him."

He finally disappeared.

The night is dim and the stars are permeable.

I was chased out of the yard, only to see that the farthing was more heavy than the night, and Chu Ning had disappeared. Only the incense burner in his hand was still full of spiritual power, and he was firmly gripped by him. In the palm of my hand, I have confirmed that this is not a dream I have made.

The scene in front of the smoldering eyes swayed violently. The scene of a pile that I saw before was like an avalanche, scattered bricks and broken tiles.

"He said that no matter what method can be used, but what can be done?" sighed with sighs. "He has no longer trusted me, and has avoided me. Besides, I have reservations in my heart, I am not sure about it." Is it a conspiracy?"

"Until the butterfly was cracked and the night passed away, I decided to rehabilitate him and repair the book with him."

"That letter, I have been thinking about it, because I don't know how many people behind the scenes have a lot of magical powers, so I dare not tell the truth in the letter. I really have no other excuse to find him. What's more, he has strong mana, and he is also a dead-hearted jade. I have no choice but to take him away. Finally, I think that he has not completely repaired his spiritual core in the past few years. It is probably very inconvenient. I took this as a reason and asked him to come to Longxue Mountain."

"But I lied to him for fourteen years. So no matter how eloquent my words are, he still does not want to believe me..."

A sigh of sigh, the sound is almost stunned.

"I have been waiting. Just like when I was imprisoned on the mountain nearly 20 years ago, I came to him every day, looking forward to seeing him change. Later, I went to Longxue Mountain every day to find him, I hope he can come back. ”

"If he can give me another chance, that would be great."

The old voice of the old man is like a broken paper, drifting away: "My time is not much, I know that I can't wait too long. So in the end, I made this scroll. In this, I have all kinds of Thinking about it, after a few changes, I put in a little bit of memories that I didn't want to put in. But I am a coward, this scroll, I don't really want him to see me when I am alive... I can't stand his sad eyes. When he was fourteen years old, that kind of look, I already saw enough."

"So, late Ning..." He sighed softly, as if he had fallen down. "When you get here, I... should have been gone."

"I am still very selfish. In order not to see you hate me, I will dare to hand over all the truth to you before leaving, and give it to the child you said. I am sorry, that year, It’s Master’s fault. You are a living person, always.”

He was stunned for a long while, and he was hoarse. He said the last sentence left in the world.

"Chu Gongzi, can you forgive me?"

A singer, I don’t know if it’s the Tao and the late Qing Dynasty, or the Tao and the hundred years ago.

After the sound is over, the wind is raging, and countless pieces of memory are like snow, just like flying, and they are rushing past. Those two hundred years of sin and punishment, fourteen years of joy and sorrow, are all at the moment -

The child is laughing: "You are right, I am right, what is blooming in the water? The lotus is blooming in the water."

The teenager is fighting: "I don't know how to spend people, why do you have to do it yourself. This fairy, no repair."

In the end, Feng Feng fell: "Don't go over... Master."

All of this overlapped and overlapped, such as the flashing lights, when the light was the brightest, the back of the sinful eyes appeared in front of the ink, and before the case, the last stroke was carved for the gods.

The night bell rings.

"Just call you, Chu night, stop."

After the sound, Hongbo surged, and the ink burned in this mad-like memory. Then he was suddenly pushed out of the reel scroll and fell on the gravel ground in front of the Dragon Blood Cave.

The time inside and outside the scrolls has been different. At this moment, the world is worth dusk. There is a magnificent red sky between the heavens and the earth. The sunset is peaceful. The ink burned down, as if he had returned to the night many years ago, and he was guilty of sin in the wood. From then on, there was a child named Chu Yuning.

He lay on the ground and his eyes were out of focus.

"Shi Zun...night Ning..."

He finally knew why he was so strong and strong at that time. Why did he cry in his arms and he finally knew it.

Just knowing that the price is too big, it is like a thousand knives.

Is it his fault?

It was the fault of the predecessor of the emperor, and the late Qing Dynasty was trying to stop him from chaos.

Chu Lingning’s spiritual core was dug.

An uncle who saved his life before the temple.

Not a person... is the spirit of the gods...

Every hit is like a brick and stone fall. Only one truth can make people's bones and bones broken, and the flesh and blood is blurred, let alone so many pieces pile up.

There was a moment of smoldering, and I felt that I was lying on the ground, and the bones of my body seemed to be broken, and I could not do anything else.

It’s all messed up.

He turned his eyes and saw Chu Jingning, who was sitting on the side and closed his eyes. He suddenly had regrets and gathered into bones. He loved to gather into meat, and pain became blood. Want to protect this person's desire, let him struggle from the extreme difficulties and stunned, get out of the mud.

He slowly stood up and walked to the night of Chu.

Chu night Ning opened his eyes and looked at him.

Two people, no one spoke first.

In the end, the ink burned over and hugged him: "Master, * wood, people, as long as you still want me..." He is still holding back, but he still choked, "I have been..."

How are you?

Standing next to him?

He is not worthy.

So he finally inferior and painfully said: "I will always be, standing in front of you."

I can't accompany you, I can't deserve you, I am so mean and dirty, destroying the earth, but you are white.

I can't stand by your side, late Ning.

Let me stand in front of you, blocking the blood and the sharp knife for you.

Until the day of death.

Chapter 242

Chu nightning did not confirm the matter of stepping on the emperor, nor did he talk much.

In fact, the look of restlessness on the face is the best answer. Nothing else needs to be asked. What's more, he is already extremely tired at the moment, and his mind is numb after being hit in succession.

After a long time, he broke away from the smoldering embrace and slowly got up. He didn't look at the burning of the ink, closed his eyes, and then opened his mouth, but the voice had a chilling calm. He said: "I want to go to the cave."

"..."

"Since another me, I have to set up this game, I want to see."

"...Do you know the truth, will you hate me?" It was almost a naive question, but the ink burned and asked, and after asking, he muttered again, "You will hate me."

Chu night Ning's eye movements, finally turned around and looked at him: "Take the emperor... What did you do?"

He did not ask "you", he used to step on the emperor.

Mo-burning felt alive because of this title, but this line of life is too embarrassing, he wants to try to hold on to one hand, but on the other hand, he is scared.

Chu night, the lips are light, and the scorpion picks up slightly.

"kill?"

The ink does not answer.

"Tucheng?"

The ink burns and closes the eyes, still not speaking.

Chu nightning thought of the dreams that he had done before, those spring dreams that once felt ridiculous and embarrassing, and thought of the man’s words and demeanor about the man in the Dragon Soul Hall. He had already understood the original reason, but the words were in the mouth, but they I can’t ask, but I finally said, “What about me? What am I with by his side?”

The throat is rolling, I want to answer, but I can't answer it.

The ink burned and fled for so long. If the net is not leaking today, he feels that he is a sinner standing on the torture platform and waiting to die. He is kneeling on the ground and can see the shadow of the executioner lifting the knife.

When did the people land? When do you land?

He suddenly didn't want to wait any longer, and he didn't want to escape any more. The process of waiting for the knife to fall was too long. He would rather touch the wall and die of blood.

The ink burned and opened, saying: "Go into the cave."

He moved his fingertips and seemed to want to take the hand of the late night, but in the end it was still hanging down, only licking his own clothes and walking in front.

Before he stepped into the Dongfu, he hesitated, then turned his head and smiled at Chu.

"Master."

Chu night Ning looked at him, and the man suddenly smiled so brightly, so warm. It seems that all hope and happiness must be squandered at this moment.

The rest of my life will never be used.

Chu night Ning suddenly was stabbed by this smile. He walked over, but he didn't know what to say. He was so confused that he raised his cold hand and touched the same cold face.

"..." The ink burned and slowly widened his eyes.

Chu night Ning sighed and sighed, holding the ink burning and then dare not take the initiative to hold his hand, like saying to the ink, but also like to say to himself: "I ... is watching you grow into today Looks like. So you, not him."

"You are not the same as stepping Xianjun."

The ink burned still, and it was stiff for a while before he smiled and his throat choked: "Well."

It is moistened before the eyes.

How can it be different?

He is the most evil person in the world, a ghost that escaped from the past.

But before all of this, I can get a kind of approval like this, and I think that God is really not thin. No matter what happens after Chu Xiaoning recovers his memory, he has no resentment.

He closed his eyes and took Chu's hand, took a deep breath and walked to the Dragon Blood Cave.

After stepping in, everything outside could not be seen.

The two looked around the cave and found that it was very small and almost the same size as the disciple's bedroom. In the empty cave house, there is only one small case with a rusty mottled stove on the top, which is the one that appeared in the picture. Smoked stoves are scattered with smoke, and ink does not like smelling incense, but the taste in this stove is not pungent, only the taste of Xifu Begonia is hidden.

"What is this spell?"

Chu night Ning shook his head: the voice was low: "...I don't know. This 'I' is not me today. He may not be clear because of some spells he will learn from the edge. Just like you, step on the fairy It is not necessary to use Liu Teng as a weapon."

He turned his eyes to the smoker that smoked the smoke: "Maybe you have to touch it to check out the person?" He said, raising his hand and tapping the shaft with his fingertips, but still no movement.

Since the ink burned into the cave, he has been watching Chu Ningning with enthusiasm and sorrow. Although he does not hope that Chu Ningning will restore his memory, he still said: "Since it is the illusion that "Shi Zun" leaves us two people, Maybe it’s useless to touch one person. You have to tell it, we both have come.”

"... um. Give it a try."

The two men turned to the left and right, and touched the finger on the fine wrap pattern of the smoker. The flowers in the cave were so full of time that the smoke was like a wave, and the whole cave was filled with instant, and the fingers were not seen. The ink burned did not think that the difference was so rapid, and was preparing to detain the hand of Chu Yuning, but the cloud was immediately swallowed up.

The ink burned: "Master!"

It’s too late, there is a spiritual power in this cloud, which is not the same as the power of the ordinary spiritual core, but it is extremely pure and powerful. He seems to be floating nine feet, and then all the limbs seem to be frozen, no Be controlled by yourself. Before even the sound was out of his own name, he tried his best to scream: "Master, how are you?"

The export is only a vague statement, and then it can no longer move.

The situation of Chu Yuning’s side is not much different from that of him. He evoked the name of the ink in the fog, and initially heard some responses, but it soon became dead.

"Ink burning?"

Chu night Ning was rubbed in the haze, trying to touch the edge, but there seemed to be some kind of spell in the incense burner, which made the space here infinite, and could not touch the end.

"ink……"

Suddenly, the throat was a glimpse, and Chu Ning was also like the smoldering. He was shocked that he could no longer make a sound, and soon he found that he was restricted not only by the voice but also by the action - he could not even Your own body. This feeling is like a dream before, he is still him in the dream, but the action and talk are no longer free, can only watch all the things in front of you, can not make any changes.

He couldn't help but be confused. If something is going to be said, it is not enough to set up a memory drawing axis. Why do you have to do this.

After a long time, the smoke gradually dispersed.

He opened his eyes and found that the original scene had disappeared. The swaying red candle was reflected in the shackles. He sat in front of a familiar table of sassafras, the table was clean, there wasn't too much, and there was a deep mark on the table - that was when he used to make the night god, he accidentally scratched it with a saw. .

... The cave actually turned into a red lotus.

Sitting in the night, he was still uncontrollable. It seems that this is like the virtual reality of Taohuayuan. The only difference is that he can't control the development of things. He can only be in it and repeat some past events that have already happened.

Why set this spell? What did you want to let him see in his previous life, and what do you want him to repeat?

It was too late outside, and two servants he had never seen before stood behind him, helping him comb his hair.

He was manipulated by the illusion, raised his hand, stopped their movements and said, "Don't comb, I come by myself."

The voice fell, only to listen to "Dangdang!", the door suddenly violently pushed away, Chu night would rather feel that he seems very reluctant to see this person pushing the door, so only sitting on the back of the table The head did not return, and even closed his eyes.

"Go out all."

A familiar voice came from behind.

The two servants immediately put down the comb on their hands, the basin, and the face was respectful and bowed.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

The two went out with the waiter, and Chu Ning still didn’t look back and didn’t blink, but of course he knew who the person was, the voice, how could he be wrong.

Chu Xiaoning has a beast-like alertness. He feels that the person is approaching himself, step by step and two steps... Suddenly breathing is in the ear, with a strong alcohol, hot and hot.

"How come you haven't slept yet?" The ink burned behind him and asked dumbly.

Chu Xiaoning heard that he was cold and answered: "I am going to sleep."

"Oh... I saw it." The ink burned in his ear and chuckled. "The robe is off, and the crown is also removed. So I don't like this bundle. It's all the best in this life." Gold silk sewn, embedded with the best Yuhua stone, this seat gives you something better than the Queen, how can you not see?"

"..."

"Whether it is worth mentioning." I don't wait for Chu tonight to speak, and the ink burns on my own. "In any case, I don't like everything you give to you. You can't get me from the bottom of my heart." He said here, slamming Laughed, "But what about it? You see, you still have to be my person."

The ink burned and said, slamming out his hand, and smashing Chu’s body into his arms from behind, Chu’s body could not withstand such stimulation and anger, and finally opened his throat, so he could finally continue to watch. Everything before the eyes -

In front of him was a bronze mirror, and the reflection in the bronze mirror was inked and his figure. The ink-burning gold-red flamboyant dress, wearing a nine-pronged bead, is actually a wedding dress system. The man embraced him behind him, his face plunged down and began to kiss his earrings and neck.

Chu nightning shivered slightly, because of anger because of other.

"You don't move."

"Oh, don't shake it, how can the master want me to move?"

The threat is useless, and it is ridiculed. Chu nightning has to bite his teeth and say: "孽畜!"

The ink burned and laughed. His look was very obsessed. His handsome face was half-awake and half-drunk, and his lips could not help but grind the side face of Chu Yuning. The mouth muttered: "What about the animals? You see You are not completely at the end of the day... are you all..."

I don't know where the murder came from. Chu Xiaoning felt that his body had picked up something from the front of the case, and the reflexive rushed toward the back of the burning hand.

The ink burns and hurts.

He took the opportunity to break free and glared at the man in the lamp.

"Get out."

Chu Xiu Ning under the body saw it clearly, and it was a golden hair bun that he had brought to him. It was a charm of a man when he became a relative.

"Oh..." The ink burned his hand and looked at his * wound. He first sneered, then sticked out his tongue, as if the poisonous snake spit, and licked the blood of the vertical and horizontal, and rolled into the lips and teeth.

There was a flash of light in his eyes, and the luster was full of animal nature. For a time, his face was no longer so handsome, but it was a bit sneaky.

"I can't think of your spiritual core is abolished, but you can also hurt this seat." The ink burns his lips and stains the blood, and he laughs out loud. "Chu Ning, you have sharp fingers, this seat is really small."

"……roll."

"Going around, do you only say this sentence?" The ink burned down the back of the hand, but he was not in a hurry to bandage. He seemed to enjoy the pain. His expression was quite abnormal. "You are so I like to spit on my seat. Today, in front of the guests in the hall, why don’t you say anything?”

"..."

"This seat is blocking your actions, but it does not seal your voice. You can swear aloud and let this seat not touch you." The ink burned again toward him, standing in a remote place. Ding, hold a handful of wrists that hold the hair of the night, and the strength is so distorted.

He grinned and there was bloodshot between the teeth.

"But what you did, that is, when the hands and the shackles were untied, the water of the scorpion was used to pour the half-sleeve sleeves of the seat."

The ink burned, and laughed out: "Master, you are so angry. At that time, why not call?"

"You... shameless!"

"This seat is shameless, but who is a gentleman? Xue Meng? I gave him an invitation today, but he did not want to come. If he came, what do you want?" "Would you like to ask for help when you go to the church, let him take you away?"

Although Chu Xi Ning, who was caught in this restoration scene, still heard the clouds, but his body obviously understood the ink burning, and he hated silver teeth and refused to scream.

The smoldering look at his anger, suddenly sticking out the * tongue, facing his face and gently rubbing his ear.

"...!"

"Chu Ningning, do you know when you are the most owed/fuck? It’s time to use this kind of grievance and anger, and look at me." He glared at his hand and went down. "I don't believe you touch, Is it very big and very hot? Master, Yu Heng elders, Chu Zongshi - "a title is more respectful than one, but finally wrapped in dampness.

"Look, it wants you."

"Get out!"

"This sentence, you have already said the third time." The ink burned him like this, and his eyes were more malicious. "Today is a day of great joy, the top of the crowd, the same wife and beautiful wife... Ben The seat even hangs with the emperor and then accompany you. How are you still so fierce."

He paused, immersed in the evil, and finally quenched two words:

"Chu?"

"!!"

The night in the body is like a thunder, and his body is not so good. He seems to be disgusted by the two words, and the whole person is constantly shaking.

But the ink burned in laughter, and his eyes flashed with the light: "What's wrong? This seat calls you, are you happy to say nothing? Well, I have slept you for so long, if you are a woman, I am not like this. I'm going to play around every night, I'm afraid I'm pregnant, I'm pregnant, and I'm giving birth to a child. If you don't give you a name, how can you make it to be served in bed again? This seat is not a good one. A reasonable person, hahahaha."

Under the wrath of Chu's late night, he couldn't say a word, and his eyes were black.

Is this anger and nausea that is this body?

The controlled body and the free spirit are strongly resentful, and Chu Yuning is almost disgusting and vomiting, and he is unbelievable.

Step on the emperor...

The burning of past life.

What have you done in the end? !

madman! madman! ! !

The ink burned enough, and suddenly caught the chin of Chu's late night, and kissed like a kiss, full of blood and smell. He rudely made the two wrists of Chu Ningning with one hand and brought Chu Yunning to the couch. Push it down and then lean over -

Chu nightning closed his eyes and shivered.

The hot and strong male body pressed down like a rock and pressed him tightly.

"Take your servant's responsibility." Ink ignited, "You and I are married now, you are my person, and you can't escape."

Chapter 243

The golden red pillow is squatting underneath, and there is a sputum in the nose.

Chu Xiaoning looked at the burning face, and the dream he once did finally overlaps with reality at this moment. It turns out that these are not dreams, they are true.

He and the ink have already had a close relationship with the skin. They have already been married. He was imprisoned by ink and squatted in the snow and ice to plead for the ink side...

It's all true.

At this moment, Chu Xiening did not know how he felt, or perhaps under the scent of the fragrance, his wisdom gradually coincided with the other world's Chu night.

Feel the feeling.

Know what it knows.

When the clothes were torn off and the thick kisses fell, Chu night Ning was on the eyes.

He felt very painful. Who is he?

Is it the Beidou Xianzun of the red dust of the sword, or the ridiculous Chu Yu under the female? Is it the late night of the sect of Mo Zongshi, or is it the master of hatred of Xianjun?

Everything is no longer so clear, and the past is floating in the past, like the falling flowers in the stream. He tries to catch those memories, but he can't really see it.

In the end, only the □ between the mattresses is clearly visible.

[There are abridgements here, please move the collar]

They were intertwined with each other. When he was in a climax, he was humming, and he screamed under him. Such a fierce sentimental desire for the sea, I do not know because of the most aphrodisiac in the world, or because of the heart of the two, even the * that they are not aware of...

After a long time, the knowledge of Chu Xiaoning slowly returned.

I don’t know why, for example, it’s not just perception, but also memories of past life.

After he and the combination of ink and burn, they all came.

When he remembered the crack, the division died and the ink burned in the snow.

He remembered that the blood of the Confucianism was flowing into the river, the heavens and the earth were discolored, and the ink burned and laughed, and the sacral bones of the leaves were broken.

He remembered that he was made into a blood leak, remembered that the red lotus water smoldered him to wake him up, but he put him under house arrest and could no longer make a difference.

I think of it all by piece.

The stone cave has been restored to its original appearance. He can detect himself lying on the cold ground, his clothes are removed, his body is smashed, and the ink is burning tightly behind him. The young man’s arms are shaking and they are all sticky. Greasy sweat, the air is filled with the smell of □.

I remembered it.

Chu nightning did not move, did not speak and was not angry.

His head was very painful and almost cleft. He felt that in the process of combining the two, there was something that could not be seen, from the burning body, to his body.

It was that thing that restored his memories of his previous life.

But what exactly is that?

There were too many memories to be received at the moment, and Chu’s brain pain in the brain was so strong that he felt that he must know what it was, but he was unclear.

"Master." The sound of ink burned in his ear, it was so cautious, like the tender core of the branches in the early spring, where there is a tyrannical appearance, "I'm sorry..."

He was burned in his arms, and he did not look back, but he could imagine from his voice that the ink burned the wet red eyes, the distressed and apologetic look.

"Sorry, I am still... I still hurt you..."

Just under the control of the smoker, the ink burns is the same as that of Chu Xinning. Although the consciousness is clear, it is impossible to do it by itself. He was painful when he violently clamped Chu’s waist and hurriedly and encroaching on the man.

He didn't want to do this at all... He looked at Chu Ningning's red eyes under his body, just wanting to lean over and kiss him gently, comfort him, and tolerate him. But the words on the mouth are so mean, and the movements on the hands are so fierce.

His heart is very painful. But what about it? He can't control himself at all.

Chu night is resting on the cold stone surface, the headache is cracking, and the strength of moving the finger is not. He listened to the apology of ink burning, but he only felt awkward in his ears, and his eyes were dizzy, and he might lose consciousness at any time.

He spoke, because it was too terrible to call the land, so the voice was hoarse and sullen: "You first... you go out first..."

The ink burned his lips and there was no snoring.

He recovered his consciousness earlier than Chu, but when he was able to control his body, he had already withdrawn, but Chu Xiening was torn so badly that he still felt that the weapon of the flesh and blood was in his own hands. In the body.

The burning heart is even more uncomfortable.

Before stepping into the cave, he thought he would see a spell similar to the reminiscence scroll, but he did not expect that he would return to the death and death of the year, the wedding night. He was a golden red singer and pushed the door of the red lotus.

Of course, ink burning knows what he has done, but he never thought that in this way, he would reproduce the situation at the time.

He didn't want to do anything to hurt Chu's late night, and he didn't want to be a fairy emperor - but he couldn't help himself. Even worse, he can clearly feel that he is doing such a tyrannical thing, and his heart is actually inciting and excited.

Whether it is stepping on Xianjun or him, in fact, they are eager to bite and conquer the late night.

What about how to endure, he is still the slightest rain.

Can't change. Can't escape.

When I violently invaded, the ink burned and listened to the painful sorrow of the person underneath. The brain was the thrill of destroying the top. The thrill of the topping and the strong smashing, the splashing of water.

He suddenly couldn't tell who he was, whether he was a monk or a master of ink. It was good or evil and loyalty.

Between the mattresses, he rubbed the cheeks of Chu’s late night and said the idiots that he had personally said... Chu Yu?

Yes, his previous life had done the three most excessive things for Chu, and he killed it, that is, he used the killing trick, and his second disgrace was to force him to be happy.

Third, it is. That is, to seize his identity, sleepy for his life, Biyue Huangquan, for him. Because of this selfish desire, he made the sacred sage of the sacred lord into his own abbot.

Although there are not many people in the world who know exactly what the "Chu Yu" of Emperor Junner was, but forced him to cover his face with red cover, and in the eyes of the public, he and his family, and they are in the second place. fact.

He does not know what it means to do so in the past.

In fact, if he really wants to be late and uncomfortable, he can make a big noise, let the world know that he has burned his master, so that everyone knows that Beidou Xianzun is now a person in the emperor’s account. .

Why not do this?

Instead, the secret was carefully kept, and even for a long time, even the Queen Song Qiutong did not know what the mysterious "Chu Yu" was. He was revengeful, and he made a heavenly scene. In the end, he only played a scene without a visitor.

He sings with gusto.

why?

He even remembered that after Chu Ning died, he wanted to set a monument for him, but he was afraid that the world would see him and laugh at him, so he could only hold a donkey himself and dig a tomb in front of the Tongtian Tower. The one that was buried was the wedding dress worn by Chu Xiening when he married himself.

Stepping on the emperor, sitting in front of the monument, holding the delusion for a long time, he would like to write:

Tomb of the late teacher Chu Yuning

But I feel like writing this way, as if I have been defeated, like a sorrowful woman who has nothing to regret. The scene is really ridiculous.

He did not return to grinding for a long time, and finally his eyes lit up, thinking of a narrow and intimate practice, he then happily laughed, using a knife as a pen, wrote a stroke:

Tomb of Chu Ji

After writing these four words, he felt that the sigh of the chest seemed to be out, but he still felt that he was not enough. He thought that the night of Ning was so cold and lonely, he always did not like to look at his face, and his heart was annoyed. It is lingering - he will never see such a look in the future, so he is still hopelessly in front of his grievances, and he thinks viciously in his heart.

Chu night Ning abandoned him.

Leave him alone.

In the late night, Chu’s heart was so good that he retaliated with death.

Excessive.

He groaned with a grin in his eyes.

Yes, it’s too much.

Therefore, he wants to humiliate Chu Xi Ning, bully Chu Yuning, to let Chu Yuning die under Jiuquan, and wait for his own hundred years later to go to hell, but also indulge in laughing and ridiculing the guy, and the white win Snow, the innocent person said -

You didn't win, I won.

You see, you are dead, I can still □ you.

Stepping on the emperor, holding the knife, thought for a long time in front of the grave, thinking of the sun setting, the twilight, and thinking of the night, the silver hook.

In the moonlight, such as the water, such as white, the ink burned finally picked up, and one stroke was added, and four words were added to the tombstone:

Qing Yugui

The lime is simmered and carved. He smiled and laughed, thinking that this is a good nickname, confirming that Chu Ning is his person, and that he is willing to do it, he must be guilty of himself, perfect. . If Chu is rather able to survive by himself, then it is even better.

With such expectations, he turned his eyes brightly and ran to the red lotus water.

Chu nightning's temper is the biggest.

How can such a humiliation be willing to suffer?

So wake up, wake up and compete with him. On the high and low level, this time he can make him a trick if he is seriously injured.

If it doesn't work, the ten tricks are not negotiable.

Wake up.

He stood in front of the lotus pond and looked at the corpse of the musculoskeletal inside.

This seat has made you ten strokes, you have to be interested. You look at the monument that I have given you, are you not angry? I don't want to hold my clothes and yell at me. You are willing to be famous for a lifetime. Finally, it becomes a ridiculous eight words - Qing Yugui, the tomb of Chu Ji?

wake up.

wake up.

He looked from the faceless expression to the look.

But Chu night is lying down, not talking, not moving.

A long time later, the ink burned finally understood that he was able to get what he wanted and won the taming he had always hoped for.

His master, his enemies, his lingering companion on his bed, his late night.

Finally obeyed.

In the still cold and cold Dragon Blood Cave, the ink burned the scarred lover, and no one spoke at all.

Then, he suddenly thought of the rainy night. In the inn of the town of Wuchang, the people in his arms were so green and eager, tumbling with him, his ears tipped red, and he whispered him uncomfortably.

At that time, he had sweared in his heart and swears that this life can no longer hurt Chu and Ning, and he wants to be gradual, slow and slow, he wants to let Chu Xiening adapt to it a little bit, and finally give Chu Xiaoning The shudder of the combination of spirit and flesh.

He has made many plans and has had many ideas.

Even imagined countless times, their first real combination, when and where, the horizon is the sun or the stars, the window is filled with sea otters or apricot flowers.

But he did not expect it to be like this.

□□□ blending, skin is attached, their first combination in this life is so ridiculous, painful, and crazy.

Both of them were exhausted, and the ink burned lying beside him. There was a very special feeling in the chest. It seemed that there was something in the heart that was violently trembled, and then the ground cracked like a giant, and the giant wood was uprooted. The mud and sand broke out.

The pure thing seems to wrap something dirty and horrible in his heart, frantically struggling outward, and a black and white thing quickly breaks free from his body.

He didn't know what these two things escaped from his heart. He didn't have time to think more, because Chu nightning said: "You go out first."

The ink burned did not speak and did not know what to say.

He silently endured the pain in his mouth, slowly picked up the clothes scattered all over the place, and silently put it on again.

These clothes have been worn for a long time, because he barely dared to move to the position below the waist of the night, and the traces of the blue and purple mottled thighs undoubtedly showed what he had just done, and also showed how much pain Chu will have at the moment.

He did not dare to look at the face of Chu Yuning.

What will happen to those eyes at the moment?

Disappointment, resentment, emptyness...

He does not want to think anymore.

It took a long time for the ink to burn, and I wore the clothes of Chu Xiaoning. At this time, his head was already hurting, and his body was covered with cold sweat.

He didn't know why the pain came from, and it was probably related to the two things that were missing in the heart. He endured the pain and took the cold hand of Chu.

I really didn't have the courage to look at the face of Chu Yuning, so he stared at the hand like that for a long time and whispered, "Is the Master respected?"

"……Ok."

The ink burned for a while.

There was a stunned look on his face, and the kind of abandoned dog that looked like a homeless person, he sneaked out for a while and then closed his eyes.

There have been countless times of fear of this happening, but when the trial really came, he was surprised to find that he was such calm and tranquility.

It seems like a restless fugitive who was finally escorted into jail.

He stood in the cell where the party was clear, and looked around. The nightmare that was feared and escaped was finally a reality, and it seemed like a stone fell to the ground.

There is never a night when you flee.

After breaking into the net, I finally fell asleep.

No more to escape.

There is no hope, no embarrassment.

It was relieved.

"I am very chaotic now, a lot of things ... are still unclear." Perhaps it is because the party is called too fierce, or perhaps because of the exhaustion of the past, Chu nightning sounds hoarse, face is also more ugly than ink burning, "too messy."

The ink burned up with courage and raised his hand to rub his pale cheeks.

Although his own hands were shaking too much.

"Ink burning..." He almost murmured in a hollow, "Take the emperor..."

"..."

Squinting eyes, eyelashes tremble, eyebrows into Sichuan.

"Then don't think about it, just sleep for a while." The ink burned red, his fingers slid across his face and burst into tears. "I am with you."

Chu nightning seems to tremble slightly.

The ink burns only feels like a heartache.

"Master, don't be afraid. It's me, not stepping on the fairy... I won't hurt you anymore, never again."

Chu night Ning Wei Wei eyelashes thick shade, the dark under the eyelashes have a moist luster flashing, ink burning for a moment, I think he seems to want to say something to himself.

However, there is still no exit.

Chu night Ning squinted his eyes, turned his face at the last moment, and his body subconsciously curled up.

"Master respect..."

"I have a word, I want to ask you."

"..."

"...if...you know that the person who gave you a pot of rice pulp outside the Temple of Nostalgia was me." The sound of Chu Yuning was extremely exhausted. "...Whether the years of Wushan Temple, will you let go?" I?"

This question is like a sharp-edged knife, straightforward to listen to the lungs. The whole person trembled, and he choked. I don’t know how to answer, but just reached out and wanted to hold the person in front of me. But when the hand touched, I felt that Chu Ning’s shoulder was shaking slightly.

He is crying.

But Mo-burn knows that he no longer wants to see himself.

After a while, the ink burned could not be supported. Although he did not know why the former Zhou Xining had to set up such a puzzle, the strange feeling of the heart was more and more vivid.

At this time, he suddenly found that there seemed to be a thin smoke in his chest, which floated straight between the chest and back of Chu's late night. The thin smoke was too light, so that he was not aware of it.

A closer look reveals that the smoke is black with a while, and then white as jade, flowing from his heart to the heart of Chu Yuning.

What is this?

He noticed that the black things were constantly blocked by Chu Xinning's body, gradually gathering into a group of ink, and was absorbed into the incense burner next to him.

what exactly is it?

He wants to remind Chu Jingning, but he found that Chu Xi Ning did not know when he was already in a coma. The huge memories of the past lives are overwhelming, not to mention the memory is still messy, to re-coil and reorganize in the mind of Chu Xinning.

"Master."

It hurts... How can it hurt? It seems that there are two forces in the heart who are doing sawing. Black and white, pure and dirty.

The black-browed eyebrows were close, struggling to stand up, walked to the smoker, and twitched to reveal the lid.

Before he lost consciousness, what he saw at the last sight was the black gas that rushed out—in the incense burner, it gradually became a black double-flowered flower.

Chapter 244

Lonely moon night.

The monks who escaped from Mount Lushan pulled out the heartworms under the treatment of the medicinal disciples and wrapped the wounds. But the smell of sorrow is hard to clean up, and there is a deadly taste in the air.

Xue Meng sat on the beach of Lin Lingyu. He placed the dragon city scimitar on his leg and watched the tides rise and fall together.

Suddenly behind the footsteps, he turned back and his eyes were round and full of ardent hope. After seeing the people, he immediately disappointed and re-opened his eyes to the sea.

Mei Hanxue sat down beside him.

"You received a message and you went back to death. He went so fast, let me come over and tell you."

"..."

"You don't seem to be in a good mood with you."

"Know it."

Mei Hanxue didn't roll, and gave him a sheepskin pot: "Drinking?"

Xue Meng was angry and looked back like a hedgehog with a sharp needle: "Drink your head! I am not so depraved!"

Mei Hanxue smiled, and the golden soft hair was extraordinarily gentle in the sea breeze. His eyes were like light jasper, and it was like two pools of green water and falling flowers.

"When you drink, how can you fall?" Mei Hanxue raised his hand and licked the broken hair, the silver bell tied to his wrist. "I heard that the dead and the dead don't make people □□, but get drunk Always ok."

"..."

"I heard that Chu Xianjun loved pears and whites. You are his apprentice. How to learn will not be half his size."

Xue Meng gave him a look, Zhang mouth seems to want to lick something, but in the end nothing was embarrassing, grabbed the wine bag to untie, and drank a big mouth.

"Good spirit. This is the shochu of the Snow Palace, the taste is the most -"

"Hey!" The good-spirited Xue Shaozhu squirted a big sip, his face, "cough, cough, cough, cough, cough!!!"

"..." Mei Xuexue licked his lips and seemed to be a little surprised. "Can you not drink?"

Xue Meng's face could not pass, pushed away the hand he tried to get back to the wine sac, and slammed his head and slammed it. This time it was even more powerful. After swallowing, he turned his head and shouted "wow" and spit it out.

Some of Mei Hanxue’s rare things are incomprehensible: “I don’t know about you... forget it, don’t drink it.”

"Get out!"

"Give me the jug."

"Roll!" Xue Meng was under the focus, whoever yelled at him, he screamed at Mei Hanxue with anger. "You told me to drink and drink, you told me to stop, I stopped, my face? I want to face ?"

As I said, I patted my cheeks hard and I was already drunk.

The sorrow of death and death has been rumored: a thousand cups are not drunk Chu master, a cup of Xue Shaozhu.

Mei Hanxue is not a dead person. Naturally, he does not know this sentence. He knows that he will not use spirits to fill him.

After Xue Meng spit out, he held the wine bag and drank it. This time, he snorted and drank four or five mouths before he took a breath, and then his face became more ugly.

Mei Hanxue immediately took back the wine sac and frowned: "Don't drink, go back to rest, you have been blowing the sea breeze for a long time."

But Xue Meng insisted: "I have to wait for someone to come back."

"..."

"I...I..." Xue Meng looked at him straight and stared for a moment, suddenly burst into tears. "You don't understand, you don't understand, I wait for my brother, I wait for my teacher, I wait for the division." Uh... do you know? Four people, one less is not right, and one less is not the same..."

Mei Hanxue knows how to comfort a woman.

It’s nothing more than a few words of self-satisfaction, and the next month before the flower is promised, the right medicine, the medicine to the disease.

But he has never comforted a man.

Xue Meng does not need to be comforted. He just stayed for a long time. When the wine came up, he finally broke the levee. He just wanted to vent.

"Four people, only one of me, now I am left alone - my heart is uncomfortable. Mom, you don't understand?!"

Mei Han Xue sighed and said: "I understand."

"You are a liar, you know there are ghosts." Xue Meng cried, suddenly buried his head, he held the dragon knife, like holding the last dead wood, a floating grass.

The liar didn't know how to persuade, so he said again: "That's good, I don't understand."

"The dog thing that doesn't have a heart, why don't you understand?!" There is no reason to talk to the drunkard. Xue Meng slammed his face fiercely and glared at him, but his tears were sullen, "I don't understand anything." Isn't it easy to understand?"

He extended his finger: "Four!!"

Remove one, then remove one. When the third one is removed, he collapses again. It seems that the third finger is his lacrimal gland. Xue Meng said: "There is one left, I still have one. You understand. ?"

Mei Hanxue: "..."

He didn't want to be a liar, and he didn't want to be a dog thing, so he couldn't answer if he didn't understand it. He just didn't talk.

Xue Meng took advantage of him for a while, then turned his head: "vomiting!!!!!"

The most popular is Mei Gongzi. In the past, others were staring at his face and making a fool. This is the first one. I stared at him for a moment and actually gave it a shot.

Mei Hanxue has some slight headaches: "What happened to you? When I was a child, I gave you Houttuynia, you spit. When you grow up, you can drink Kunlun wine, and you spit. It is really harder to wait than the girl. ”

He looked at the man who leaned over and stunned and couldn't breathe. The light blue eyes were full of helplessness: "Okay, when you are finished, spit it out, go back and rest. Your brother, you. Whether you are a teacher or a friend, you will not like to see you like this."

He said, got up and went to help Xuemeng.

Xue Meng’s spit is probably a little vain, his footsteps are floating, and he has never tried to break the arms of others.

Mei Hanxue took him from the long coast, from the back door of the lonely moon night, ready to send him into the house to rest.

But before entering the flower hall door, Mei Hanxue felt a heavy killing in the air.

He slammed Xue Meng, and the two men immediately hid behind the corridor. Xue Meng couldn't help but scream, but he was stunned by Mei Hanxue.

"Don't say anything."

"Hand... hand open... I... want to vomit..." I can barely hear it.

Mei Han Xuedao: "Swallow it."

Xue Meng: "..."

Afraid of the troubles caused by this drunk, Mei Hanxue raised his hand on Xue Meng's lips and applied a curse, then he turned his face and turned, and looked into the flower hall.

The scene in front of him made him instantly shocked.

- ink burning? !

At this time, most of the heads and elders have returned to their respective sects. The mountains are amazed, and they need to strengthen the enchantments of their respective territories.

However, there were still a lot of injured monks in the lonely moon night. At this moment, they gathered in the flower hall and stared in horror at the man standing in the center of the flower hall.

"Hey." The ink burned in black gold and the cloak of the earth, squinting at the eyes and looking around. "Looking at this familiar face, I can't think of it for years. I can see you here again and again."

Someone braved the courage to say to him: "Ink, ink rain! What crazy you suddenly!! Are you caught?!"

"Go crazy?" The ink burned thin lips and sneered, "Speak like this, the person who is crazy is yourself."

After saying that everyone saw a black light flashing, the man stayed in the same place, and a blood splattered from the chest and went straight to the zenith.

"Kill, kill!"

"What do you do with ink?!"

Someone shouted and shouted: "Fast, go find the * head! Go to the * head!"

"Oh?" The ink burned slowly and squinted. "Ginger, Jiang Yan?"

"..."

"This person's level is good. In the top of the people who have killed this place, there is always no problem."

"What the * are you talking about?!"

Mei Hanxue also felt that something was wrong. This is not the Mo Zong teacher he has ever seen. This man is resentful, and there is a sigh of relief on his body.

No matter how you look at it, it looks exactly like the ink burns, and the sound is not bad. Who can completely reproduce the look and tone of another person in such a short period of time?

There is a lonely moon in the flower hall: "Mr. Mozong, I am afraid that you are cursed by the dragon of Lushan. You should sit down and wait for the old man to give you a pulse..."

If the words are not finished, they will be interrupted.

"What do you mean?" The ink burned and narrowed his eyes. "The old man, turning around, is it sick?"

Elder: "..."

"Since I want to cure this disease, this seat will help you. There is no patient in the world, starving to be a doctor, this reason understands this." He said, the black shadow plundered, and the flower hall screamed again and again, * splashes.

Waiting for the ink to burn a black robe, calmly back to the center of the hall, standing on the dark red Du Ruo carpet, the entire hall has been missing arms, broken legs, broken legs, and some people are even more miserable, directly He took out the heart, liver, spleen and stomach, and died.

The ink burned and looked at the elder who had fallen to the ground and said, "How are you sending so many patients to you for treatment? Are you happy?"

"Ink... ink rain..."

“Opening a good life, congratulations on making a fortune.” The ink-burning show smiled, and then walked out in the group or the whole body, or the dead body, “Oh, yes.”

When he was in front of the hall, he turned his face and said to those people: "I almost forgot to say that it has been a few hundred years since I was in the upper world. I remember to speak with you at the head of the branch - this seat will be repaired sooner or later. All the sects in the world are all flattened."

Sexually hard people are hoarse and hoarse: "The ink burns, you don't plant! You dare to come to the flower hall where the monks are seriously injured. You are afraid to face the other heads!"

"Afraid of them?" The ink burned and narrowed his eyes. "Even if you join hands again, the army will press the border. As long as you don't want to die, who can hurt you?"

"Ink burned, are you crazy?! Are you and Hua Binan a group?! You, what do you want to do?!"

The ink-burning dimple is deep and clear, and after a while it is slow: "...What do you want in this seat?"

His handsome face seemed to flash a strange brilliance, and then he closed his throat.

"What I want in this seat is not even clear to myself. In short, no one in this world can give it, no one can win this seat again." He faintly, "The body has been walking for so many years, there is no desire." But, if you have to ask one -"

He smiled awkwardly.

Opening your eyes, the black scorpion seems to have a scarlet glow.

"Look at you dead."

Full of stunned. The smoldering eyes swept over the face of Zhang Baibai, and couldn’t help it anymore. He laughed and said: "I have never seen such a interesting scene for a long time, it is very lively."

"Ink burning... you are really crazy..."

"You have said this for the second time." Suddenly the smile tightened and only heard a loud noise! In the blink of an eye, the ink burned and rushed to the person behind him. One hand slammed down and smashed his brain! !

"what--!"

In the screaming voice, the ink burned the stunned face of the * stain, revealing a pair of extremely embarrassing, extremely animalistic eyes, swept past the crowd like a bird.

"If you are not crazy and crazy, I am afraid that you will marry your Excely."

The man who was called your lord was shattered, his blood was full of faces, his ink was burning, but he was too lazy to take a look, as if he had eaten a meal that was unusual, calm and cold. Everyone.

"Well, the idiot who killed today is enough." He slowly picked up his smile and gently pushed the body and kicked it to the side. "People, it’s always boring to kill once. It’s much worse. When the seat is lonely, leave you to live for a few days."

After a pause, I continued: "When is itchy? When will you crush your head and play?"

In a * mottle, he slowly pulled out the hall and came to the door, and he squatted again and again: "Before that, remember to keep your head."

He said that he laughed loudly, wrapped his cloak, and slammed the ground, and the figure quickly disappeared behind the arch.

Three days later.

In the stone chamber of the Dragon Blood Mountain, the ink-burning and Chu-nighting are still affected by the spell, and they are in a coma. The sizzling stove suddenly creaked, and black smoke and blood poured out inside, followed by a scream of screaming and screaming out from inside, echoing in the cave.

The ink burned openly and woke up.

The heart has not hurt, and there is no injury. The mysterious thin smoke that was previously connected between him and Chu Yuning has also been exhausted.

"Master!"

He immediately got up, but suddenly saw the third person in the cave.

The man stood facing him at the stone table, and was carefully measuring the incense burner that exudes a burnt smell. The figure was slender and beautiful, and he couldn’t say good-looking. He uncovered the furnace cover, and a long, greasy hand clipped out a thousand petals from the inside, and held it in the palm of his hand.

"It’s really ruined." He whispered, and then pressed the black flowers to powder.

In the ashes, there was a bright white brilliance. The man looked at the white light with his hand, and he was quite fortunate: "Oh, fortunately, when I refining this flower, I melted my own soul inside. It’s not that piece of soul that gives me directions. It’s not easy to find this cave.”

The white light seemed to understand his words, slowly winding around the person, but the color was getting weaker and thinner, and finally disappeared completely.

The ink burns hoarsely: "You are..."

When I heard the movement, the man put down the smoker and sighed: "Wake up?"

"who are you?"

The man faintly said: "Who do you think I can still be."

His voice sounded familiar, but the ink burned just awakened, and the consciousness was still a little faint. It was like having a big dream, but it didn't react for a while.

Who can this person be?

Listening to him only speaks, it seems to be related to the mysterious black flower, refining flowers and grasshoppers is the best thing for the lonely moon night... is... Hua Binan?

When I thought of Hua Binan, I immediately thought of the teacher, and the ink burned a bit of hatred, but before I spoke, the man came back.

The light and shadow in the cave was faint, but as the man turned his face, it was full of brilliance, and his birth was really beautiful.

This person is used to the long hair that is laid down. At this moment, the high-end of the word is embellished with a fine-grained towel. The end of the person is perfectly placed in front of the forehead. The whole person’s mental appearance is very different. A pair of peach eyes contain emotions, clear and clear.

It’s such a beautiful woman, but the ink is shocked like a thunder, and the two words are coming out like a sharp arrow.

"Teacher?!!"

The one who came is the teacher... The one who came is actually a teacher!!

The beautiful man of this genius has smashed his hair and faintly said: "A burning, seeing me, so surprised."

The blood flow collided with the periosteum, the intracranial creaking, the burning brain could not turn around, and it was impossible to guess why the teacher would suddenly appear here, why would it be such a strange expression.

His whole person is stiff, and all the words are in the throat. In the end, hesitantly said: "...your eyes..."

"No injuries." The teacher smiled and rushed toward the ink. "I am coming to see the people I admire. If I am blind, I am ugly, who would like me?"

"..."

The smoldering slowly returned to God from his ridiculous manners, but he couldn’t speak for a while. The horror was like a black cloud, and there was a blank in his mind.

"You...how would it be you...the cold scale holy hand!!"

The anger in my heart suddenly surged.

At this moment, the ink burned finally understood the feelings of the previous Xuemeng. Nothing was more painful than the betrayal of the old people who were getting along with each other.

"The cold scale holy hand!"

"Oh, he." The teacher smiled. "I am coming to Japan and I am not in a hurry to explain."

He said, step by step, until it is close to the ink burning.

Shi Yan smiled and said: "I have experienced such a big twist compared to talking about the cold scale sage. I still want to talk to my admired person first."

The smoldering is extremely angry and chilling, and his face is more and more blue: "Between you and me, there is nothing to talk about."

The handsome man's man chuckled: "Well?" His eyes were soft, like a haze, staring at the burning face: "...you and my temper are repelled, there is really nothing to talk about."

He said that the robe was swaying from the ink-burning side and went to the front of Chu. The ink burned still did not respond, and the teacher had not stretched out a delicate and even hand, and looked down at the cheek of Chu.

"..." The ink burned in the air, but still did not understand what it meant.

The teacher gaze at Chu Yuning, and no one can softly say: "Master, the coward is hurting you? It's pitiful... But then, are you going to restore your memory?"

The squid-like fingertips point to the lower lip of the sleeping person, and the teacher narrows his eyes, but the beauty is still the same, but like drinking.

"Recovering the memory is also good. Some of the hands and feet that you moved, some of me still can't think of a reason, you wake up, we can also ask each other for advice."

He paused and smiled: "In the last life, your organs counted, and the sky was over the sea, and the disciples were bullied. If you change to others, you will toss me. It’s not enough to die a hundred times, but you are doing it with me, I am still It hurts you to love you."

He said, looked at the ink and glanced, then actually leaned over and kissed him on the cheek of Chu, and sighed and sighed: "Whoever makes me like you. My good teacher."

Chapter 245

"....."

It is like a thunderous thunder, and it is in the same place.

Unbelievable... Unbelievable... What is the teacher talking about? What is the teacher doing? ! This, what is going on here?

The ink burned for a moment and couldn't swallow this shock. He didn't even think that the teacher would be kissing Zhou Xining. This picture was too horrified. He saw that he thought he was born with an illusion.

He covered his hand with his hand, and the temple suddenly jumped. His heart flashed through the warm smile of the teacher, and he softly called: "A burning."

Can this person be in front of him...he actually... actually...

It’s just cold and vertical.

Shi Yan likes... Master?

how is this possible? ! !

The teacher has never shown any emotions that love the teacher's respect. To say that Xue Meng likes Chu Xi Ning, it is more convincing than the teacher who likes Chu. How can the teacher like it? He has always been cautious and respectful, and he has said very little, not even sticking to the Master.

After finishing the class, doing things, and leaving the rules and regulations...

how is this possible.

The teacher straightened up and leaned over, and Yingying looked at the ink, and chuckled out: "Is there a person here that I was scared?"

"You...simply... absurd..."

"A ridiculous?" The teacher squats and squats. "My little teacher, who is ridiculous in the end? Is it a memorable person who bullies the teacher? Is it me?"

The burning face was red, and the eyes were angry and stunned.

In exchange for anyone appearing here, he can murderously repel it, but it is not someone else who is here, but the teacher who mistakenly thought that he loved his life for two generations.

He couldn’t speak for a moment.

The teacher is more cheeky, he said faintly: "However, it is not absent to say that I have done ridiculous things. For example, pretend to like you, treat you for so many years, even under the murderous trial, hard life I’ve got a pain and lie to you... I like you.”

After a pause, there was a hint of ridicule in his eyes: "Don't make trouble, if I would like someone who has nothing to do except the face, I can really poke my eyes and die."

Ink burning: "....."

"Why don't you talk, don't convinced?" The teacher's grace in the city, even if it is sneer, is extremely beautiful. He squints at the ink and touches the chin of the late night.

When the ink burns and burns in anger, it is necessary to summon the devil.

However, only a scarlet flash in the palm of his hand, the spiritual flow disappeared immediately.

The sergeant's eyelids are too lazy to lift, saying: "Don't waste your time. In the past, I used to sneak out this game. With half of his soul, I finally pulled out the flowers for you. You are no longer under control, but now It takes ten days for the body to recover the spiritual power. At this moment, I have to fight with me again.

"Who are you late?!"

"You are a good person, do you only allow you to bully the ancestors, but do not allow me to love the Master?"

"you--!"

"You have been on the top, and the taste has been tasted countless times." The teacher chuckled. "It should be my turn? Fuck/you/fuck/over, I actually have some grievances. But watching is For his part, I will bear it."

The smoldering anger is extremely violent, there is no martial arts, and it is also close to each other.

"Oh... so I said, what I hate the most is that you are killing and killing things that don’t know Sven." The teacher released the night, and burned in the square stone room.

The stone cave was faint, and the figures of the two tall men's demolition were cast on the wall, just like the double dragons smashing and smashing, the flames were surging.

The sergeant is not good at attacking, and the close-fitting melee will not be an opponent of ink burning anyway. His eyes are not good, and he shakes his sleeves, and there is a rolling snake in his head, and the lock is burning. However, he took the opportunity to pluck aside, and picked up Chu Yuning and flew away from the cave.

"Master -!!"

The ink burned barely to open those cold and sticky snakes, followed closely, but the teacher stood at the top of the treetop, and a bright moon was shining behind him.

Shi Yan smiled and said: "Don't chase, you just recovered, even if you don't want to give up your life, you can't catch up with me."

"Why are you clearing the net... Why are you doing this?!"

"A burning." Shi Yan smiled. "I have told you about the teacher, I hate the teacher, the teacher, and the two addresses?"

"..."

"So if you don't mind, from now on, you can call my real name."

"……what."

"In the lower name, there is no word, no name."

Hua Bi Nan! ! ! ?

Seeing the burning eyes wide open, the teacher squinted and smiled and bent: "Yes, look at your brothers and sisters, give you a very important message - don't go Lonely moon night, you are going to the lonely moon night, and will be torn into pieces by Jiang Yan. Don’t try to follow me, hey, let’s go back to life earlier.”

The ink burned for a moment, and then his face turned pale: "What do you want to do for the dead and the dead?!"

"You are not stupid in this life." The teacher smiled. "The teacher gave you a small surprise. You will know when you go."

The ink is burning sweet in the throat, and the burning eyes are burning. He doesn't even know that he is sad or angry. He shouted: "Sir, what do you want to do?! What are you doing?! Not that you told me, is the home of death and death your home? Not that you told me... The ex-employer saved you from the exile... Not telling me, is the most important person for you is us?! ”

His voice was trembling at the end, pinching into a fist and clinging to the palm.

"...Is this all you are cheating on me? Is it so many years, two generations--" Mo-burning said here, stunned.

Bone chill -

"Is it for two generations... are you calculating?!"

The teacher did not make a sound, wide robes and sleeves, standing in the treetops, smiling at him. The peach blossom eyes are bent, and the squats are pointed. In this foggy mountain, it is like a midnight fox.

"You..." Every word and every sentence trembled between the teeth.

The smoldering brain is in chaos, and his eyes are crazy.

"Sir, you talk..."

From that side of the candlestick, gentle and persuaded, and later accompanied by peers, inseparable.

"say something!"

From the sturdy young boy who used to be as fine as jade, and then swayed in the snow, lying in his arms, telling himself, don't hate, don't blame the master.

The smoldering is almost broken: "You are obviously dead... I saw it with my own eyes... I took your body back to the dead... You can't be a teacher... You... How could it... ..."

"Because you are stupid."

The elegant voice rang, and the teacher finally opened his mouth, but it was not without sarcasm.

"You cowards, you only know that you are practicing spiritual nucleus, you can't get medicine. You are good, respect the Lord... even our wise master." He said here, smiled. "The foreword is wrong. The teacher is not a coward. But people like you are all invisible to the medicine."

The smoldering mutter: "Pharmaceutical 蛊..."

"It is very difficult to make a dead person alive." The teacher is slow and reasonable. "But let a living person die, my method is more."

If you are awake at this time, you should hear the mistakes in the sentence.

Even if the medicine can make a living person die, but in the past life he stayed in the Frost Heaven Hall for seven days, and then he saw the teacher's burial. At that time, the three layers were covered with longevity nails, and the seal was even thicker. In the absence of alarming the guardians, which living person can drill out of such a grave?

So there are only two possibilities: First, the teacher is lying. Second, in the past life, there was a person who sneaked into the tomb of the dead and the dead, opened the seal and coffin from the outside, and released the teacher who revived the corpse.

But when the ink burned, the whole person was chaotic. There was an invisible hand that turned his visceral heart and spleen and stomach into the wrong position. He didn’t think about it at all. He heard the teacher say this, and immediately appeared in the memory. Pale lost the * face -

In the midst of heavy snowfall, Shi Ming was dead. From then on, he hated the helpless self. He hated Chu Ningning, who stood by and watched it. He entered the abyss and slandered...

Who knows! !

Fake... is actually a fake! !

He was a fake man, crazy for half a lifetime, obsessed with his life, killing the world, and finally killed the man who loves him the most in the world.

absurd.

absurd! ! ! !

Anger and pain stabbed his scalp and his pupils tightened. He was almost violent: "You... can be safe!"

"I am very happy." The teacher smiled. "It is you, step on the emperor."

"..."

Four characters are out, such as seven inches.

"No matter what reason you hold the butcher's knife. It's because of resentment, because you are not willing, your hands are full of blood at this moment."

He said that Chu nighting, who deliberately stunned his arms, was tighter, almost like a gesture to show off the spoils.

"When you are full of * steps, how do you spend time with the innocent Beidou Xianzun?"

The last bit of blood on the face of the ink burned back.

The teacher was very clear about his weakness, so he waved his cheeks and stabbed the venom into the other person's body. He narrowed his eyes and pressed hard.

"Do you match?"

"Do you not feel dirty?"

"You are stealing."

The wind has risen, the fog has dispersed, and a round of bright moons has vanished.

The teacher smiled and smiled, but the word was better than the sharp knife. The knife saw the blood: "Take the fairy, all the days with him are stolen. What kind of goods are you, you know best, you don't need it. I will mention more."

The lips are all white, and the anger, sorrow, fear, regret, self-blame, and no one can accept so many emotions, will be crazy.

"I……"

"Don't be me." The teacher sighed sighingly. "What am I? Do you think that you have been a molder for half a lifetime, and saved so many lives, is it enough to write off your sins?"

He looked at the burning face and chuckled: "You think so beautiful."

The ink burned out.

"Now, the Master has the memory of the past life, the ridiculous things you did, the people you killed, the city of the butcher, the ancestors who destroyed the teacher--you hurt his heart, he will remember all of them. All will think "He paused." He seemed to be looking at the look of his face with great interest, and then smiled with satisfaction: "Mr. Mozong, you should bow your head, you confess."

Bow down.

Plead guilty...

It’s ridiculous, poor and fierce, all wrong.

The ink-burning throat rolled up, red eyes, and stared at the man on the treetop, but his eyes touched the Chu-nighting in his arms, and he couldn't make himself painful. His eyes were like the stalks of the grass.

He jerked his head away.

"You think about it, wait for him to wake up, know that you lied to him for so long, how angry would he be?" The gentleman gently stroked Chu’s cheeks, and the soft, slender fingers swept Lips, "The sage of the master is violent, you know this - do you think he will forgive you?"

The speaker pierced the key, and the listener fell into the ice.

forgive……

He never had the luxury, but he never wanted the trial. He never dared to imagine this day.

The ink slammed into the eyes and the eyelashes shivered.

The voice of the teacher’s voice is so quiet and quiet in the misty and empty mountains. It seems to be a * Buddha who advises people to return to the sea. “Don’t chase it, go back to death. When you go there, you naturally know that the surprise I said is what."

Resounding.

"Take the surprise, don't resist." When he paused, he seemed to think of something, his eyes turned, and the peach blossoms stared at the people under the tree.

"In addition, Ah Burn, we both said that it is totally different people. You are not able to get what you want." He sighed, as if in his former disciple room, he asked if his hand was delicious, and whether the spicy oil was enough. "I am not so sick and sick, you don't want to frame friends and relatives around you. But --"

He turned his head, but he did not say much.

The ink burned back suddenly: "What do you want?!"

The sergeant saw his gaze swept over the night, and couldn’t help but smile. “You don’t have to worry, the master is here, I will only hurt him, not hurt him. He is such a white jade person. I know how to pity than you..."

Each cavity is soaked in the lips and teeth, and it is lightly spit out.

The smoldering of the smoldering body is shaking. If he is still spiritual at the moment, I am afraid that the sergeant has already been torn into fragments and broken into pieces.

But he has no spiritual power, and the teacher is also correcting that he has no spiritual power at this moment, and he will do whatever he wants.

The teacher chuckled: "But the brothers and sisters of the dead, even the uncle, the aunt...and the Lord." He waved his eyes and said the words without hesitation. "If you didn't handle the surprise well, You will kill them for the second time. Look, if the master wakes up, know that you have hurt everyone again, knowing that you are selfish, and stealing a life - he will not look at you, Even the last glance?"

Chapter 246

The ink burned almost the silver teeth, and the eyes were cracked: "Shi Mingjing!!!"

The sergeant's robes are squatted, and under the shadow of the moon, the clothes are flying.

He stood on the top of the forest, facing his face, and the handsome face was on the Huaguang slogan: "Walk, don't leave the teacher to wake up. If he wakes up and sees us standing here quarreling, I am afraid that I am not happy. of."

After a pause, he smiled and added a sentence: "Yes to Ai. Next time I meet, remember to call me Hua Binan, or call me a teacher - if, there is the next time."

This time, he finished, vacated, and his toes were light, and his time disappeared into the dense forests of Longxue Mountain, and he could no longer see him. The only laughter that is fascinating but cold is like a spider web falling down, with a faint glow, long-lasting.

"Teacher! - Shi Mingjing!!"

In the fog between the branches and the mountains, the priests did not look back at the smoldering, but the people in their arms, swiftly passing through the undulating cliffs, the cloaks flying, and the robes hunting.

He couldn’t tell the joy in his heart, and the eyes were bright. It is like a hunter who is full of rewards, waiting to return to the fruit of victory. But in the low-flying ground, I suddenly heard the people in my arms screamed in a hoarse voice because of the previous nightmare: "Ink burning..."

The sorrowful look of the teacher was slightly stiff, and then he narrowed his eyes, and his eyes were cold and seven points.

"...he has something good, it is worthy of you to do this for him."

But Chu Xiaoning couldn't hear it. He had a high fever, a clear and heroic face. At this moment, it was like a icy lake. He even taught people to clear some of the light blue blood vessels below.

Chu nightning said softly: "Ink burning..."

The teacher stopped and tried to stop. It seemed that because he had been for too long, he was anxious and depressed, but he took a moment to restrain himself.

In front of the unconscious Chu nightning, he was not as comfortable as he was in front of the smoldering. He stared at Chu’s face for a while, and he said, "Don’t remember, soon there will be no more smoldering. Later you Just follow me."

After a pause, he said again: "But I know that you are deeply in love. If you can't forget him for a while, it doesn't matter. After I have done something big, I will have enough energy to slowly kill you."

After saying this, he once again plunged into the ground and summoned the sword in midair, flying straight in the direction of the hero of the mountain.

The night was deep, and the place where the Confucianism gate was buried was quiet, and the moonlight sprinkled on one tomb. Those who were previously made into a cherished piece by Xu Shuanglin lost their spiritual power and never moved. They only stabbed in their position and did not move.

The teacher opened the door of Mount Lushan with the blood of the Nangong clan stored. He turned his eyes and saw that Nangong Liu stayed on the foothills.

Nangong Liu can not be considered a complete piece, just a semi-finished product, how much is still a bit of vitality. But this person has now completely lost his mind, but his mind is just a five-year-old child. The teacher does not have the leisure to kill him, not to mention how much he can use.

"My best friend, you are coming back." Nangong Liu Yizhen saw him, and he smiled, and the slightly fat face was really sincere.

Xu Shuanglin once recognized Shi Ming as his own friend, so Nan Gong Liu also followed him as his brother.

This title made the teacher slap a little, and then narrowed his eyes: "Do not scream."

"Ah..." Nangong Liu was stunned at him. "You don't like me to call you that?"

"I don't like it, just call me Hua Bi Nan." Shi Yan sullenly face, "Go, go forward, open the way for me."

"Where is your brother going?"

"..." There is nothing to be said about this five-year-old man. The teacher is impatient. "Take me to the secret room where Xu Shuanglin lived."

Nangong Liu took him away.

In fact, the secret room is not a secret to the teacher, but there are too many places where the blood of the Nangong family needs to be sprinkled along the way. Although he has storage, he holds a late night in his arms, and it is really troublesome to make it out. Not as good as Nangong Liu.

After going one after the other, Nangong Liu suddenly turned back and couldn’t help but be curious. He asked him: “Is my friend’s brother coming back with friends today?”

"Overnight?" The teacher was liked by these two words. The eyebrows relaxed slightly. He smiled. "Almost, it is overnight, but he will spend a lot of nights here. It should be said that he lives."

Nangong Liu will become more curious: "Who is he?"

The teacher thought for a moment and suddenly smiled: "Do you really want to know? Children may not sound inappropriate."

Nangong Liu will round his eyes, so that a middle-aged man's face has a childlike look, which makes people feel a little disgusting and somewhat funny.

They walked all the way to the front of the secret room, the door opened, and the inside was burning with a bright light. The room is quiet and simple, only picking up a bed, covered with thick saber-toothed tiger skin, with a snow crepe. There is a small table next to the bed, a shackle, and the other walls are empty, nothing else.

The teacher squatted Zhou’s night on the bed, and he sat on the side of the couch, staring at the face of Chu’s late night. The candlelight is bright and illuminates this familiar face.

When awake, the sword eyebrows enter the scorpion, and the phoenix eyes are born.

At this moment, the face is awkward, and a line is pulled to the lower jaw like a stubborn smoke...

Shi Yi didn't care about this. He only felt that he had survived for two generations, and Chu Ning and Mo was finally defeated in his hands. At this moment, Chu nighting lies next to him, and the ink-burning power is temporarily lost. He will soon walk into his own step, and his plan will finally be realized.

I was seeing God, and I heard that Nangong Liu had said it together: "Hey? This person is familiar."

The teacher yelled at him and said, "Who do you think he is?"

"Can not remember."

The teacher said: "This brother used to reprimand you and gave you embarrassment."

“Hey? Where?”

"It is on the hall of the Confucianism."

Nangong Liu Yanran said: "Ah, really?? But why don't I remember it?"

The teacher was silent for a while and smiled softly: "I don't remember it."

Nangong Liu did not know that he was profound, and when he slammed his head and licked the night, he suddenly said: "But he looks so good. He looks good with his eyes closed and not smiling."

The teacher smiled and said: "He is the favorite of the emperor, do you think it is not good?"

"What do you mean by pet..."

The smile in the eyebrows of the teacher is getting deeper and deeper: "When you grow up, you will know. Now, you can help me pick some oranges, and then burn some hot water... He has a bad temper, if he wakes up, Nothing to eat, I am afraid I will be even more angry."

Nangong Liu will be ready to go.

But when I walked to the door, I was a little embarrassed. When the teacher saw it, he asked him, "What happened?"

"Oranges..." Nangong Liu hesitated biting his fingers. "Do you know when your brother is coming back?"

His majesty in his mouth refers to Xu Shuanglin.

Shi Yan would naturally not say that Xu Shuanglin was dead with Nan Gongliu. He smiled and said: "You are obedient and do things well, and it will take a long time to come back."

Nangong Liu’s eyes lit up, and immediately picked up the small bamboo rafters beside the secret room door and went out to pick the oranges.

When the teacher looked at the place where he left, he smiled for a long time: "It's interesting. When there is a god, when the brothers smashed the wall, they didn't have the wisdom, but the brothers and brothers were congratulated... I really have a lot of things in this world, only clean when I was a child. Once grown up, it’s dirty when it’s a dispute.”

He said, looking back, stroking Chu's cheeks.

"You see, most of the people in the realm are people like him. It's not worth your care." The fingertips traced the face of Yingying, and the teacher sighed. "Why are you suffering for these people, swearing, cutting off the soul, tearing? Cracking time and space, bearing the burden of humiliation... Fighting with me for two lifetimes?"

Chu Yuening in the sleep of nature will not answer him.

The pain and the nightmare of the past life blew him, making his cheeks hot and his eyebrows close. The teacher squatted for a while and took out a bottle of silver bottle filled with musk dew from the sacred sac.

"This is for you to drink a little." Shi Yan opened the fragrance. "I know that you will dream about the past life. I also knew that you would come at Xuanyuan Pavilion, so I specially let them take the musk dew to sell." ..... I want you to be better, but I don't want to teach people to be suspicious. So you see, follow me than to burn with ink? This kind of priceless gadget, as long as you make me happy, I am every day. I can give you a taste of it. But what can he give you, he will only fight."

The fragrant dew drops into a small white porcelain, and it is close to the lips of Chu.

He was fed with medicine and went to his hard-won battle for a while. The teacher suddenly thought of something and his eyes lit up. He rummaged through the Qiankun bag and finally found a dark sash. He covered the shackles on the eyes of Chu Yuning and applied a curse to completely cover the other's eyes.

After doing all this, he slowly got up and picked up the chin of Chu’s late night and looked around. He was very satisfied.

"Well, it really looks good. It's no wonder that the last generation of ink burns like you are tied to you. It is not bad to learn a student occasionally, at least he is quite interesting in this regard."

The smile of Shimei has always been very gentle, and it has never been different. His fingertips slowly licked Chu's chin, his lips, his nose, and finally fell on his blindfolded black belt.

He used the kind of chilling soft voice to say: "Master, wake up soon. I... I just thought of a very interesting trick. When you wake up, it’s better to play together, okay? ?"

Chapter 247

Chu nighting is lying on the bed, his mind is groggy, his consciousness is sometimes clear, and sometimes he is very vague.

He seemed to hear the quarrel between the two people. It seemed to be a teacher and a smoldering sound. Later, the sound of the quarrel disappeared, and there was only a whistling wind in his ear.

Later, he seemed to be lying in the warm bedding. Someone was talking to himself. The broken voice was like passing through the ocean. He couldn’t hear clearly. He only occasionally drifted into three or two sentences. What kind of past life, what master respects— - He vaguely felt that this seemed to be the voice of the teacher, but he did not have much effort to digest, and these sentences quickly dissipated like the fog in the morning.

His memories became complete little by little, and became clear little by little. The memories of the past life were like rainwater flowing into the river and eventually rushing to the sea.

The first thing he dreamed of was the deep corridor, which was built in the red lotus waters of the dead and the dead. The gallery was covered with vines, and the wind was blowing and the snow was falling.

He sat down at the gallery and was writing a letter at the stone table.

The letter can not be sent out, stepping on the Emperor Xianjun does not allow him to contact with outsiders, and he is not allowed to raise pigeons or any animals, even the red lotus water scorpion has been overlapped and countless whistling curses.

But Chu Yuning still wrote.

Too lonely, one person, one world, probably has to live like this for a lifetime.

To say no trouble, it is fake.

The letter is written to Xue Meng, and there is not much more than nothing. It is nothing more than asking about the recent situation, whether it is safe, and asking about the external sun and the moon, what is it?

However, there is nothing wrong with it.

So a letter slowly wrote an afternoon and there was not much content. At the end of the writing, some of them were fascinated, and they remembered the days when the three little apprentices were around, and they taught them to write poetry and painting.

Xue Meng and the teacher drop out of school very quickly. Only the ink burns. It is wrong to write a word three or four times. It is always necessary to teach him.

What was written at the time?

Chu night, Ning Hao Shendi, pen and ink slowly spread on the rice paper.

He first wrote "Being a Bodhi tree, the heart is like a mirror table", and then wrote "Life has no roots, floating like a dust", a stroke, a whole workmanship.

Write a book or write a letter, his words are always clear and correct, afraid of reading people can not understand, but also afraid that disciples follow their own learning.

The words are like people, and the backbone is very proud.

He wrote "Where is the old man" and wrote "Hai Kuo Shan Yao".

Later, the wind blew the wisteria flowers and rested on the crepe paper basket. He was reluctant to look at the faint and magnificent purple. The pen tip turned and wrote, "When the dream is awake, the river is still old and gentle." ”

Ping Ping.

May I be like a star, like a moon, night and night.

Written and written, his eyes could not help but soften, as if returning to the original quiet years.

The wind was blowing, the paper was blown, and the paperweight was not pressed, and it was blown up. In the afternoon, the mottled and fragrant sunshine filled the ground.

Chu Xiaoning put aside the brush and sighed to pick up the letters and poems of the place.

One after another, falling on the grass, on the side of the stone steps, falling on the residual flowers, between the dead leaves. He was about to pick up a piece of paper floating in the fragrance of the fall.

Suddenly a long, well-balanced, well-defined hand appeared in the field of vision, and before that, he picked up the page.

"what are you writing?"

Chu night Ning a glimpse, straight up, standing in front of a handsome and handsome man, is not knowing when to come to the water in the sacred emperor Jun ink rain.

Chu night Ningdao: "...nothing."

The ink burned a black gold robe, wearing a nine-crowned crown, and wearing a dragon-scaled finger on the narrow-skinned fingers, apparently just coming back from the hall. He first stunned Chu Yuning with a cold look, then flattened the crepe paper in his hand, read two paragraphs, and his eyes smashed: "See the letter as a meeting, the exhibition letter Shu Yan..."

Silence for a while, raise your eyes: "What does this mean?"

"Means nothing."

Chu said that he wanted to take the letter back, but he was easily blocked by the ink.

"Don't," he said. "What are you nervous about?" After reading this sentence, he carefully looked down and looked at the line, silently, "Oh. To Xuemeng?"

"With the handwriting." Chu nightning would rather not be tired of others, said, "I have no plans to send it out."

The ink burned and sneered: "You don't have the ability to send it out."

Chu Xiaoning had nothing to say with him, and turned back to the table to clean up the pen and paper basket at that table. Unexpectedly, Stepping on the fairy followed, and the black gold robe sleeves were displayed, grabbing the piece of stationery he was trying to close.

The phoenix eyes lifted up, and the narrow face on the stepping on Xianjun.

"..."

Then he will give it to him.

So he withdrew his hand and went to take another one, and the result was burnt with ink.

In this way, he took one, and the ink burned a piece. At the end, Chu Yuening finally got some intolerance. I don’t know what madness and madness in this man’s yin and yang, squinting, and sullen: “What do you want?”

"Seeing the letter as a meeting, the exhibition letter Shu Yan, what does it mean?" The ink burned in the dark and looked at him deeply, and the thin lips whispered, "Say."

The flowering branches and the vine leaves are swaying, and the light and shadows are mottled. Chu nighting can't help but think of the ink burning just under his door. The smile and the words are very soft. He smiled and asked him: "Master, body. It’s Bodhi, and the heart is like a mirror. What does this mean? Can the teacher teach me?”

In contrast, at this moment, the aggressive attitude of stepping Xianjun made Chu late Ning’s heart sorrowful. He bowed his head and stopped talking and blinking.

He did not say anything, and the smoldering began to become gloomy. In this silence, he picked up the stationery on the table and read it one by one. The more he looked back, the more dangerous his eyes were. He muttered thoughtfully, a man who could make the year number "snap", find a sentence at the stone table, and rack his brains.

In the end, the face was hazy and slammed the stack of stationery on the ground.

He calmly raised his eyes.

"Chu Ning, you want him."

"……No."

He didn't want to entangle with him, he said that he was going to leave, but he didn't take two steps. The sleeves were shackled, and then the violent and fierce strength of the chin slammed into the chin, and it was pushed to the stone table. on.

The burning power of the hand is so big, so oh, in the blink of an eye, he has a cyan red mark on his cheek.

The sun shone through the vine flower and shone in the eyes of Chu’s late night, which reflected the face of the emperor’s almost mad and distorted face.

Handsome, pale.

hot.

Stepping on the fairy, I don’t know the shame, and the curtains began to tear the clothes of Chu’s late night. If there is anything else that can be pushed on the stone table, then it is obvious that there is nothing to return to the ground. Chu nightning is almost irritated and sulking: "Mini rain -!"

The tone of anger and disappointment did not extinguish the evil fire of the ink, but instead the hot oil fell, splashing the flames.

When he rushed in, Chu nightning only felt extreme pain.

He didn't want to touch the back of the ink, only grabbed the edge of the stone table with his backhand, and gasped in a low voice: "Hey animals..."

The ink-burning eyelids are covered with a layer of blood, and the word "small animal" is not judged, but it is sullen: "You don't explain it. You really shouldn't ask you again. You can't count it now." The teacher is respected."

His movements were fierce and fierce, and he only sought his own pleasures and comforts.

"What is Ning Ning now?" He was almost gnashing his teeth: "It’s just a side squat, it’s banned... the legs are separated from the seat."

During the entanglement, the ink burned him over, the paper and ink on the table were all smashed, and the brush fell to the ground. Chu nightning was shackled at the table, and there was endless pain under his eyes. There was boundless sky in front of him.

He looked at the word and looked at the stroke.

As a bodhi tree, my heart is like a mirror...

What is the old man?

Haikuo...shanyao.

Words are hearty.

There was still a teenager in front of his eyes, and he smiled at him. The dark curtain of the ciliary feathers trembled softly, like a black butterfly.

The deafness is the low breathing of stepping on Xianjun. In the humiliation, he is bullying him, and he said in a hoarse voice: "Chu night Ning... Oh, will Chu’s heart in this seat still remember others?"

"Would you like me to be like a star, like a moon, night and night, and the glory of the night." There was a killing in the voice. "Do you think I really don't understand?"

Chu nighting bites his teeth and lie on the stone table. The body is bitten, and the bedding is a wet red mark. The Fengmu is awkward: "You don't understand."

Ming knows that the words will be exchanged for more fierce treatment, but still obsessively say, you do not understand.

You don't know who the old man is, and you don't know why Haikuoshan is.

You won't know who Jun is, and who the month means.

You... won't understand.

After a ridiculous ridiculous, the ink burned finally let him go.

Chu nighting clothes are messy, lying in the wisteria flowers, lying in the poems of ink, his eyes have red marks, like the bright colors of the rouge flowers when they are fallen on the fingertips.

The lips have been bitten, all blood.

He got up, dressed slowly... He was under house arrest for so long, from the initial heart and bones, to the present, the mourning is greater than the death.

What can he do now with the destruction of the spiritual core? The so-called dignity, but only after the event, always stubbornly wear their own clothes, not willing to be artificial.

When he did all this, the ink burned and sat at the stone table, holding the letters he had written, and watching them one by one.

When he saw the dream of seeing the rain, his hand seemed to sink slightly, but soon he turned the paper over and then sneered with a sneer: "The bones are soft, and the words are still pretty. ""

He put the stack of letters into his robe and stood up.

The wind blew through his clothes, and the golden thread on the black collar smashed with brilliance.

"gone."

Chu nightning did not speak.

The ink burned through the eyes, and the wisteria flower lining his dark eyes deeper and deeper: "Don't send this seat?"

The shade of the trees was flowing, and the sound of the late night was low and dumb, and slowly said: "I have taught you."

Ink burns: "What?"

"See the letter as a meeting, the exhibition letter Shu Yan." He finished this sentence, finally raised his eyelashes and looked at the man who was very impressive. "I taught you to write, you forgot."

"You taught me to write?" The ink burned and frowned. This is not a deliberate attempt to tease Chu Xiening. Looking at him, he really has no impression at all.

The person who wants to go has stopped.

Ink burning asked: "When is the matter."

Chu night Ning looked at him and said: "A long time ago."

After he said this, he turned and walked to the room where the red lotus water was smashed.

The ink burned in the same place, and did not leave for a while, nor did it come in. Later, Chu Lingning saw him from the window and returned to the stone table, and read the remaining stack of letters under the paper.

Chu nightning closed the window.

That night, he was tortured and didn't know how to clean himself, so he felt cold.

It was not a big deal, he didn’t think it would be known. But I didn’t know why, I heard Liu Gong said that it was Song Qiutong who cooked a bowl of hand-picked hands. I don’t know why I was so angry that I was not angry with the emperor’s residence. Go and walk away.

It was late at night and it began to rain. At this time, the red lotus water came in.

"There is a flaw in your majesty, please ask Chu Zongshi to move to the palace."

These dears are clearly aware of the relationship between the ink-burning and the Chu-Ningning, but they are also required to be called the master.

If there is still a trace of goodness, it is mean and vicious.

Chu Xiuning’s body was very uncomfortable, his face looked pale and his face was very gloomy. He said, “Don’t go.”

"Your Majesty -"

"There is nothing going on."

"..."

It is not an interesting thing to go to bed with a patient. When he was particularly unwell, his ink burned basically wouldn’t force anything.

However, it didn't take long for the palace man who was sent back to come back. He entered the red lotus water scorpion and performed a ceremony in front of Chu Cunning, who had a cough and cough. Then he looked indifferently and said: "There is a squat, small If you are sick, ask the guru to go to the Wushan Temple to serve."

Chapter 248

Chu nightning knew that he had no choice. He finally put on a thick fox cloak, propped up a paper umbrella and went to the Wushan Hall.

In the hall, the wrong silver and bronze lamps ignited the brilliance, and the ninety-nine lights were as dark as the galaxy, and the entire Wushan Temple was brilliant. It’s commonplace for the accomplices on both sides to accompany the sect of Chu Zong. When he comes in, he is coveted. Chu night Ning no expression through the side of the veranda, go to the back hall to rest - before the lacquer Zhumen, he reached out and pushed the threshold.

The house is very warm, unlike the cold rain outside the river, and there is a fragrant wine. The ink burned lazily on the couch, and the white jade fingers held the red mud pot and were drinking.

"You came."

"..."

"sit."

Chu Xiening went to the bamboo seat farthest from him, sat down and stared.

The ink did not force him to approach, he was already drunk, and his pale face was covered with thin red. He squinted his eyes, and there were some shimmering brilliance in the black-to-purple eyes. I was bored again, and the ink burned up and looked at the top beam of the carved dragon, and the finger tapped on the knee.

He suddenly asked: "Is it still a hand?"

Chu nightning's eyelashes moved slightly, but he still said: "No."

Some of the ink burns: "You did it. That year... the year he left."

"I can't do it well." Chu Xiaoning didn't have much look on his face. "You said it's good. It's a good effect."

The ink burned and narrowed his eyes: "Are you in this book?"

"No."

"So if this seat is now letting you do one?"

Chu night, Ning did not speak, and his eyes burned with enthusiasm, glaring at him: "Ask you. If you want to do one now, you still want to."

"Even if I did." Chu nightning finally opened his eyes and looked at him coldly. "Will you eat?"

I didn’t expect to be defeated by an army. When the ink burned on the cheeks, it floated a layer of blood. It seemed to be a surge of alcohol, and it seemed to be anger. In short, the emotion in his eyes suddenly became very stunned, and it took a while to react. He then gnashed his teeth and violently slammed the wine cellar before the case, and the fine pears were spilled over the ground.

The ink burned in the shadows and stood like a mountain. He walked through the broken pottery and strode to the front of the night, and grabbed the clothes.

"You are good, Song Qiutong is also good." Stepping Xianjun gnashed his teeth, "You, all have to find the seat to be not happy."

He let go of the late night, like a eagle, squatting in the same place, walking back and forth -

Suddenly, the pace stopped.

He turned his head and looked at the night, and asked: "When did you teach me to read this letter?"

Stepping Xianjun has been drunk half-time at this moment, and he has no reason to talk at all. He wants to talk about where to talk.

"I don't remember anything at all."

The wrist was caught by a cold hand, and the ink burned him and took him to the book. Spread the paper and spread a pile of books. Ink burning: "Write it to me. Teach me again."

Chu night Ning had a low-grade fever, and he was forced to do so. Under the anger, he became more and more depressed, and his face was coughing up.

The ink burned the pen into his hand, saying gloomy and gloomy: "Write."

Impatience urged: "Quicker."

Chu Lingning’s spiritual core has been broken in the previous mentoring confrontation, and the body has always been bad, so coughing and coughing, there is * blood in the throat -

The ink burned, and he stared at the little blood on the star, then slowly loosened his hand.

"It’s just that the letter is cold, and what can be said." Finally, Chu nightning stopped coughing, he sighed and took the pip to wipe the blood off his lips.

He raised his eyes, sighed and looked at the ink: "Every letter of the past, you will write this beginning. But you may not have been writing for too long, so I forgot."

"I... write a letter?" The black-painted scorpion stared at him. "Who is it for?" He was almost angry: "Who do I write to? Who can I write to in this world? Hu Composing and messing up... arranging and messing up... a nonsense!"

When the ink burned these words, it was awkward and mournful, and the eyes were full of fascination.

At that time, Chu Xiening was vaguely feeling that there was something wrong there. But he didn't think much at that time, only when the ink burned was drunk, and his memory was not good. So I only frowned and didn't answer.

In the study room of Wushan Temple, there are letters, and all the letters of the dead and the dead will be locked in a Qiankun 归档 file. The ink burns like a trapped beast in a cage. After a few rounds of thinking about the existence of the letter, the dusty scorpion is taken out and the letter of one long and one long is taken apart.

Those letters were written by disciples who were sent by the disciples, and they were classified according to the elders of the division. Most of the people who wrote letters had died in the year of the rebellious rebellion. Among them, the elders of Yuheng are the least disciples, only three, and it is especially convenient to find. The ink burned quickly and turned to a thick letter.

He shivered and disassembled.

It is his handwriting that is good, tender and skewed, but he is extremely serious. A seal looks at the past, and every letter says, "See the letter as a meeting, and show your letter."

Every one has it.

The ink-burning fingers are shaking, and the eyes are shining with strange colors.

——

"A Niang, see the letter as a meeting, the exhibition letter Shu Yan."

"My sister, see the letter, the exhibition letter Shu Yan."

Those long-standing names are shuddering and make him jealous. His cockroaches were narrow and small, and the clouds overwhelmed him in his face.

Chu night was standing next to him, and he still didn't care at first, but the more he came back, the more he looked like him. He couldn't help but lock his eyes in front of the desk, and the old man turned his old letters and manners. A man who is crazy.

A small horror sticks out the sharpness and slams the atrium of Chu.

What is wrong.

He walked slowly and watched the ink burned in the letter, but it was crazy.

... Where is it wrong?

"My mother is dead..." Suddenly, the ink snorted and opened his eyes and looked at Chu Ningning. "Why would I write to her?"

Chu nightning looked at him every move, the horror was smashing in his heart, as if there was any stormy darkness coming out of the shell.

The clouds have come to the world.

It is strange to forget the words "seeing the letter as a meeting" and writing many times, but it is not impossible.

But forgetting so many letters I have written, I have no impression at all. This is too much.

The ink burned still looked at one by one: "Exhibition letter Shu Yan... Exhibition letter Shu Yan..." The gloss that shines in the black and purple enamel is so painful, so contradictory.

It seems that there is a missing piece of important memory.

The ear seemed to hear the sound of the hard shell breaking.

Chu nightning condensed in breathing, the spine was almost numb. In addition to the two of them, there is no other person in the study. In this piece of silence, Chu night moved his lips and then whispered: "You don't remember? You said that although your mother could not receive the letter, but You still want to write to her."

The ink slammed up.

Chu nightning only felt that his blood was cool and cold, and he became angry.

"The first name you learned to write is not your own name."

The ink burned and whispered: "What is that?"

"The first name you asked me to teach you is Aunt."

The outside of the electric lightning thunder, the wind screamed fiercely, as if countless ghost claws slammed on the window, shaking the window paper slamming.

A flash of lightning fell, and the human world was shining.

Stepping on the emperor, I muttered: "...is you teaching me?...why don’t have any impressions...nothing at all."

The wind blows down the woods, the shadows are shaking, and the ghosts and spirits of the mountains are full.

Chu Evening’s face was white, and he stared at the ink, and he looked like an eagle: “You don’t remember?”

The heart is like a drum.

A few silences, answering him, is a smoldering almost inconsequentially asking: "What do you remember?"

Drum stop.

The tiny fears finally smashed the outer shell, and the horrible rush of the earth rushed and swept toward the only awake person in the house.

Chu nightning's scalp is numb - he does not remember? How could you not remember? !

At the beginning, the ink burned to write a letter to the mother, and wrote more than three hundred copies, saying that it was necessary to make up a thousand seals. Then, when the Bon festival was held, it was burned and burned with the mother of the land...

More than three hundred letters, how could it be easy to forget!

His lips shivered a little, and suddenly there was an extremely terrible conjecture. Chu night Ning mute: "You... can't remember the first time you saw the sky, what did you say?"

"What have I said?" The ink ignited, "How long has it been, how can I still remember it."

"You said that you also want such a god." Chu said, "You want to have a day to ask..."

The drunk man asked him, and his eyes revealed a sarcasm: "I want to ask what to do? Is it killing or interrogation?"

Chu night Ning whispered: "Hey."

When the red lotus water was smashed, the young boy was tender and green, and he smiled and held a paper umbrella and said to him: "You can save it."

But at this moment, stepping on the emperor's scorpion, like a wolf-like scorpion, is incomprehensible: "What?"

Outside the sky thunder broke, purple electricity night.

The bang of the rumble.

Chu night, licking his lips, the brown eyelids shivered slightly.

The chill of the cheekbones.

That night, the smoldering did not actually do anything to Chu. He really drunk a bit, and later he was holding those letters in a daze.

Later, the ink burned asleep before the case, and he was still muttering while he was asleep: "What?? Nothing..."

Suddenly, the wind blows open the window, and a bang sounds. The mountain wind is mixed with heavy rain, and the lights are extinguished by the window.

The house was dimmed.

Chu night Ning stood beside the ink burning, lips and teeth cold, looked down at this sleeping man. The uncertain thoughts in the brain are becoming clearer and clearer – why can't you remember these scattered pasts? Why did you selectively forget some pure past?

Is it because I am drunk? Because of coincidence? Or... Who deliberately erased the good thoughts in his heart?

Stepping on the table, Shen Xianjun whispered softly: "Cold..."

The blood of Chu Xiaoning was cool, and the whole person was numb. Hearing the coldness of the ink, he instinctively walked slowly to the window.

Raise your hand and close the window, blocking the wind and rain outside.

After doing this, Chu Xiening did not go, he slammed his forehead against the Xuan window with the deer pattern, and the knuckles were white jade.

After a while, he slowly took out a crumpled charm from the placket.

Shenglong Fu.

He has no psychic nucleus, and the smoldering feels that he can no longer use any spells, so those who have been used by Chu’s birthday, he is too lazy to take away.

In fact, it is not wrong to burn this ink. Chu nighting bites the tip of his finger and drops more than ten drops of blood. Almost all of them have passed through the dragon's paper, and the little dragon on the top floated out of sloppiness.

It was full of weak light, and looked up at the airlessly: "Ah... Chu nightning... I haven't seen it for a long time..."

Xiaolong Li was somewhat unstable, and the dragon paw took a few steps on the paper, and then slammed back to the paper. It has some grievances and some sorrows: "Why have you not been looking for this seat for so long? Why do you only give this seat a little aura... Hey, it’s really aura... Even the spiritual power is not... What happened to you? ?"

"Speaking long, still don't say it." Chu night Ning gently caught it and put it on the palm of his hand, "Please, help me a favor."

"There is nothing to do with the clock, nothing to do with Xia Yingchun." Xiaolong sighed, but its power is closely related to Chu Xi Ning, so it didn't even have much strength to complain, and he said, "You say, this. What do you want to do for this seat?"

Chu nightning took it and placed it on the side of the sleeping ear.

Fingering into a fist, not into the palm. Chu Xiaoning's face, which was difficult to see, looked paler and paler: "Try to try it and see if there is any curse that should not be there."

In fact, at that time, the boy who was brilliant and docile, and even the cockroaches were reluctant to kill, eventually became a devil.

As a teacher, how can he have no suspicion?

Watching the apprentice kill Xue Zhengyi, Mrs. Wang, killing Jiang Yan, and forgetting the leaves.

Tulu has been exhausted.

Stepped on the bones.

He looked at the smoldering and killing, watching the ink burned with blood in his hands, his face was full of blood, standing in the dead heap and smirking at himself.

He was distressed, why didn’t he feel weird?

The original burning is not such a person.

But when the little paper dragon tried his best, when Chu Xinning struggling to paint a shape of a spell on the paper, despite the preparation, Chu nightning was shocked.

Love is awkward.

What is the love of the burning body? ! !

After Xiaolong finished the spell, he lost his last strength. It turned into a blue smoke and disappeared into the dragon. Chu nightning is attached to the thin piece of paper, and the skull seems to have cracked mountains and stones.

However, after reluctantly calming down and repeatedly watching it many times, Chu Ningning found that the image of this love is wrong -

It turned out to be upside down.

Chapter 249

On the second day, the ink ignited, and remembering what happened after drunkenness is not so clear.

But he does not remember, Chu nightning will not forget.

After that day, he knocked on the side and confirmed that the smoldering was really a memory of many past events, so he became more and more uneasy. He spent a long time, and finally found a record of this formation from a medicinal scripture in the library of the dead.

The light spilled out of the window: "Eight bitter hate..."

The fingertips rubbed the dark black lines depicted on the scrolls, and Chu Xiening took out the charms of the dragon paintings. The two were exactly the same.

It is a black heart, which is easy to recognize as a love affair, but the love is that the heart will have a sesame-sized white space to the left, and this is reversed, on the right.

The traces of the spells displayed by Xiaolong correspond to the spell effects. So it seems that this is a flower pot that is similar to the bell, but has the opposite effect.

In the empty and uninhabited hall, the ancient books are mixed with the ancient magic, not so well understood. Although Chu Xiaoning is somewhat involved in the magic, it still looks very difficult.

He read slowly word by word, but whenever he reads a word, his heart is even worse.

"Eight bitter long hate flowers, magic species." The water color thin lips lightly open, Chu night Ning whispered, "It is said that thousands of years ago, the hook Chen Shanggong brought the world into the world."

The book is painted with a pair of seeds, with a drop of blood and a thin smoke.

"This kind of cultivation is very difficult. It needs to be drenched with magic blood for ten years, and then it can be scented with a stalk of the owner."

Chu night Ning whispered: "Need the magic blood and the soul of the owner to grow out? But this world...where there is pure magic."

However, the literature does not necessarily have to be all right, and it is not necessary to study it.

He then looked down and saw a heart painted on the plaque, with a double-flowered flower on the right side of the heart. Beside this interpretation, there is another complex magical text: "This magic flower, the soil is not alive, the hydroponics is not alive, seeing the sky is not alive, seeing the earth is not alive, only someone can raise it."

Chu night Ning was shocked, this is actually a flower that can only be opened in the heart?

Looking further down, it is even more shocking.

What I mean by transcript, roughly speaking, once someone has been planted with eight bitter long hate flowers, they will go through three stages.

In the first stage, the host is not much different from the past, but it will gradually start to feel emotional, easy to maliciously speculate on others, and begin to gradually forget some good memories. At this stage, although the eight bitter long hate flowers are difficult to remove, as long as they are discovered in time, the effectiveness can be slowly suppressed. If the situation is good, the last hate flower will fall into dormancy and it will be difficult to work.

But if this time is not discovered, then according to the host itself, the slowness is ten or eight years, and soon, only the emotion of a big event needs to be intensified, and the eight bitter long hate flower will grow to the second stage.

At this stage, the host will quickly forget all the pure memories related to "pure", "gentle" and "hope", and will repeatedly recall the frustrations and frustrations in life, malicious and bullying.

Life is bitter, life, illness, grievances, love will not be separated from the five sinister, will be remembered by the host.

Go deep into the bone marrow.

Chu Xiaoning read here, his face is white and frosty.

Ink burning... Isn't that true?

He forgot his childhood wish, forgot a letter that he had written, and even no longer had a clear impression of his mother.

He continued to look down. In the third stage, the host became bloodthirsty and irrational.

It will retaliate back thousands of times of suffering that has been suffered before.

Chu Xiuning seems to have sneaked in the blood of the Confucianism in front of the eyes of the Confucianism. One hand was filled with spiritual power and slammed into the monk.

Full of blood, the heart will be pulled out and crushed.

How many people mourn and swear, the corpse is the body of the corpse, but the smoldering is just a long laugh, the eyes are flashing with agile and crazy luster, and the mouth keeps saying a word:

"You hit a three-footer, you can't ask for a slap... You can't ask for a sigh!"

Awkward, crazy, evil, awkward.

Why does the ink burn like this?

I didn’t have any doubts at the time, but the effect of eight bitter long-sentimental flowers was progressive and deepened, and the most crucial point was that it was written on the transcript – this magic flower would not be plain. The land breeds tyranny, but it expands the hatred and desire of the host itself.

In other words, these hatreds and desires are indeed true to the ink, and no one has blasphemed him.

I did not want to think about the Confucianism of the Tucheng, I really thought about going to the world, and I really hated the resentment of Chu, but this kind of emotion may be just a moment, maybe just buried deep in my heart, even I have forgotten myself. A period of madness.

It’s just that the eight bitter long hate flowers will dig out all the hatred of his heart and put it into practice.

In this way, in the eyes of outsiders, although the host of long hate flowers is crazy, but hateful, it is justified, rather than suddenly temperament, has become another very different person. People will think that "he is slowly becoming like this because of hatred", and will not think "he is slowly becoming like this because of cursing."

For this reason, almost no one can easily detect the eight bitter long hate flowers in the body of the burning body, and when others discover it, it is often in the second and third stages. If you want to remove or want to contain it, it is impossible. .

After reading the passage of this paragraph, Chu Jingning was unable to return to God for a long time.

What kind of feeling is in my heart?

Surprised? regret? anger? fear? Or deplore...

he does not know.

He sat on the floor of the bookstore that was slightly damaged due to his disrepair. At this time, it was afternoon, the sun was still warm, but it was sprinkled on him, but he could not call back the heat of a star and a half.

Chu Xiaoning sat in the book scroll for a long time. He felt that there seemed to be a person who couldn’t see or touch him. The man smiled faintly, and the ghosts and the dead were generally squatting, watching them from behind the scenes. One move, one word.

He looked down again and went to see the sentence written on the plaque -

"In the first stage, if we find out in time, it is difficult to remove the long-sucking flower, but it can contain it, and the host will not lose its heart."

In this sentence, Chu Xi Ning came back and forth, and repeatedly recited countless times.

In the end, he found that there were drops of water and slowly smudged on the transcript. He held out his cold hand and tried to wipe the water stain.

But the hand has not touched the face, and instinctively turned to the face, covering the wet eyelashes, covering the trembling eyelids.

It is not good for him, it is his loss. It is he who has always been proud, and his face is more important than anything else. He is not willing to speak openly.

If you find out in time...

Not to lose the heart.

But for so many years, he did not notice anything. The so-called night-time Yuheng Beidou Xianzun, but even the apprentice became the host of the magic flower, he was not aware of it. It was his solitude and incompetence, which eventually led to the burning of the ink on his own. Long night, involved in * seas and enmity.

How can he have a face-to-face position, how can he face his face with ink and call him a "master"?

If you find out in time.

A sentence is like a nightmare, like a curse, and his thorns are screaming at him. He is shocked. He is a teacher.

Looking back at this time, how long has the ink burned? It’s not a year or two, and so many years of time, the ink burned from the beginning of the somewhat awkward and somewhat brilliant teenager, was swallowed up by the darkness little by little, and was soaked by the * hurricane little by little.

As a master of his own, even until today - until everything is irreparable, it is difficult to look back, until this time, he knows afterwards that he knows how to sneak inside him. Hate the pole - he is a teacher! !

On that day, Chu nightning did not know how to pick up the emotions, how to slowly step out of the library, and walk in the dead bamboo forest.

I don't know how I returned to the red lotus water, and under the wisteria flower stand, everything was chaotic. He sat alone, from the sun to the sun.

Later, he entered a person in his vision.

The man has a wide shoulder and a narrow waist. He stepped on the sunset, his hands carrying a glimmer of light, slowly and slowly rushing toward the water.

Chu nightning because of the ecstasy, a moment of reaction, but who is coming, what the year is. The tall, handsome man overlaps with the boy in his memory in his eyes-

He remembered that it was a month when the teacher was full, and the ink burned a small clay pot wrapped in bamboo and rattan, and rushed to the red lotus to find himself.

The teenager ran too fast, his cheeks were reddish, gasping, and his eyes were bright.

"Master, I tasted a particularly good wine at the foot of the mountain, hit a little, I invite you to drink."

Chu night Ning asked: "You have not received the appointment, where is the money?"

The smoldering grin and laughed: "Ask the uncle to borrow."

"... why bother to pay."

"Because the master likes me." The ink burned and laughed, holding the jug in both hands and handing it to the front of the night, "I like the teacher."

Chu nightning still remembers the embarrassment and sorrow of his time.

The young man's show is too blazing, he feels like a hot potato, can't hold it.

He screamed: "There is nothing to say. I don't like it. I won't say it in the future."

"Oh... that's okay." The teenager scratched his head. "But I have a good meal. If I drink well, I will definitely think of the Master. I want to try it with the Master."

"...I have not drunk."

The ink burned and laughed: "Is always going to try it? Maybe the Master is a huge amount."

Chu night Ning licked his lips, took the jug, opened it, and tried to smell it, his eyes wide open.

"Scent?"

"Ok."

"Haha, let's have a look."

Chu nightning took a sip, although it was strong, but the taste was mellow, and the lips and teeth were soaked with fragrant and fragrant, and Chu Ning couldn’t help but take a sip: "It’s good, what is it?"

The ink burns his mouth and stuns: "This is called pear white."

This is the first time in his life, he murmured: "Pear blossom white... it is a good name."

The smoldering is very happy: "If the teacher respects it, I will be able to accept the appointment and earn money. I will buy it every day."

Chu Evening took another sip and leaned over the phoenix to see him. His face was still faint: "Then your silver money is afraid to survive."

The ink burned and smiled: "You don't have to save it, and all I earn is used to buy things for Master and Uncle."

Chu night Ning does not say anything, but the heart faintly feels cracked, and the sweetness of the silky oozing out. In order to prevent his ink from burning his own joy, he would not feel that "the elders of Yuheng could buy through a glass of wine", and they continued to hold the jug quietly, drinking coldly and faintly.

Beside him is the newly recruited little apprentice, and Chu Evening sometimes feels amazed that his indifference is a wall for anyone.

Only this guy happily turned over the wall, and no one else touched the back of his head and looked around.

I am afraid to be a fool.

Here, the ink burning disk counts to buy a filial master, and then asks: "Does the teacher like to eat sweet-scented osmanthus cake?"

"Ok."

"What about lotus flowers?"

"Ok."

"Osmanthus sugar?"

"Ok."

The darker dimples became more and more sweet. He smiled and said: "Master is really like sweet things."

Chu Xiaoning was not good this time, and he probably finally realized that the sweet food was not consistent with his usual cold and cold appearance.

He took another sip of alcohol, because he was annoyed, so the drink was quite heroic. Although this wine is sweet and mellow, it is still a bit rushing. He was picked up.

Helpless face, Chu nightning feels that drinking is being embarrassed to be such a thing, so it is hard to resist, not to cough, endure the pain, the throat is more intense, so that his eyes can not help but some red.

The teenagers around me are still ambitions, saying that he is not a magnificent future. Some heroes are short-lived: "Then I will buy them back to the Master. I will collect the delicious food from all over the world and compile them into a booklet. The Master is eating all over the South, and then..."

He smiled back and suddenly jumped.

"Master, you, what's wrong with you?"

Chu nightning: "..."

As a teacher, if it is the drink brought by the apprentice, is it a joke?

Hold on, can't cough.

Then the tail of the eye became more red, and even a layer of misty water vapor was created.

There is something left in the ink: "Is it wrong? Master, how are you crying?"

"..."

Chu night Ning glared at him, long eyelashes trembled slightly, some anger.

The ink burned did not feel his anger. After a while, it seemed that he understood it somewhat. His tone became very gentle. "Is there anyone who bought it before the teacher?"

The anger of Chu Xiaoning is even worse.

The ink burned from the ground: "In fact, I have been eating for a while, and I still can't eat anything. I am starving to death. Later I met a little brother on the road and gave me a pot of sweet rice porridge... I also like it. Sweet, but no one can buy it for me before."

This young boy has a lot of talents to push himself and others. In the end, he believes that Chu Xiaoning is red because of his emotions.

He took the hand of Chu Yuning.

This is really unexpected. Chu is so long, and he has to deal with other people's spells. He only has to take his hand. It was so cold that he was caught by a newly recruited disciple who was unruly and unruly. He felt very surprised.

He was angering, but he raised his eyes and saw his little accident. He was looking up at a handsome and childish young face and said seriously:

"Master, wait for me to come out, I will buy you sugar to eat."

The eyebrows of the teenager's brow are soft.

"I will buy you the best candy, and I will manage it. I have taught me to give me a reward."

I didn't go to school very well. I have been in the music hall for a long time. The speech is always so strange and strange. There are always some words that are unsatisfactory.

However, Chu Xiaoning knew that he was burnt at that time. He stared at the ink and saw the whiskers. He suddenly fell down and no longer snorted.

After a long time, the wine strength finally slowed down, and Chu Ning had some uncomfortable light coughing a scorpion, faintly: "Don’t talk about it later. And..." is also a sudden curiosity, he asked "I have something, I want to ask you."

"Master Shi said."

Chu night, rather than squatting, he finally asked some questions: "At that time, there were so many people in front of the tower, why worship me?"

The teenager burned his mouth and spoke -

But at this time, the memories were interrupted.

Stepping on the jug with a jug, Tienjun stood in front of Chu Yuning, who had been worried, raising a finger and poked his forehead.

"what happened?"

Chu Yuning’s nephew slowly got the focus at this time, and he looked at the ink in front of him.

His face was pale and his face was dark, although he was still handsome, but it was difficult to cover up the tyranny. A pair of eagle eyes like a beast.

It was no longer the hot boy.

It's in the past.

He suddenly felt very tired and very tired. It has been a long time since the house was under house arrest, and it has never been so extreme.

He is very contradictory, and he doesn't even know how to face this man.

Chu nightning turned his face.

A small, cool hand grabbed his chin and licked his face. In the eyes of the phoenix, the light and shadow flow, reflecting the last red glow of the horizon, but also reflected in the dark and dark, stepping on the face of Xianjun, a slightly gloomy face: "Are you still angry?"

Chu nightning closed his eyes for a long time, and his throat was hoarse: "No."

"Hot out?" After the evening, he answered the words, and the ink burned his chin, explored his forehead, and then took care of himself. "Well, back."

He sat down and patted the seal of the wine jar and said: "Since the illness is good, the gas is gone. Today, I will accompany my seat to drink a bar."

"..."

Ming knows that there is an invisible behind-the-scenes black hand behind the stepping fairy. It is clear that the seemingly calm life and death at this moment is in danger, and knowing that it should not be a surprise, should not be different.

But when the wine poured out, the ink burned lightly: "Pear blossom white, your favorite wine." When he was still stunned.

The aroma floats out, like the world, like a illusion.

That was also the first wine he had ever had in his life.

I will never forget it in my life.

Chu Xiaoning raised his eyes and looked at the person who poured the wine. He knew that the burning of the ink must not remember this past. Suddenly his heart was dull and his throat was sore, so he picked up the wine cellar and drank it.

The wine is too strong, so booze will be picked up.

But this time, Chu Yuning no longer has no scruples, even as if he caught the floating grass in the rapids, coughed up sharply, his eyes were red, his eyelashes were wet, and even tears fell.

The ink burned slightly, and there seemed to be a moment in the middle.

However, he quickly narrowed his eyes and grinned unhurriedly: "What happened to Master? How did you cry?"

Chu night will endure, even if it is tormented, even if it is known, even if the truth is known, nothing can be done.

Or remove long hate flowers.

Or find out the black hand behind the scenes.

Or die by yourself.

Before that, he knew that he had to bear it.

I don’t know what to pretend to pretend to be hateful, and I’m so late, I’m so embarrassed, I’m struggling with my back and hoarse: “Wine.”

The ink burned slowly and slowly: "Is the wine too rushing?"

Chu night Ning did not answer, and filled a cup, drinking into the lungs, all the way to burn.

"Why did you worship me?"

He opened his eyes and looked at it. Between the two, the Tongtian Tower stood still solemnly. It was just that smile that said: "Because I like you, I feel that you are kind." The teenager can never come back.

There are eight sufferings in life.

Old and sick. Love is not to leave. Can't ask. Resentment will. Five sinister.

It is long hate.

There have been many opportunities to perceive the truth, but he has missed it, and when he finally perceives the real cause of the distorted ink, he has become a waste man and can't do anything.

In the night, Chu nightning looked at the ink burning on his pillow and slept, the once pure face was covered with a layer of cold, white-like paper.

He hated and blamed.

When the ink burned and he broke his knife, he was also chilling. When the ink burned his own female, he also died.

It can be long in the long night.

He is lying next to the emperor, and finally knows the truth of the Chu nightning only feels that the past hate or grievances, chills or death, it is so absurd.

The smoldering of the smoldering has already been poisoned, and all this has not been his original intention.

The singular Fengdi Emperor, who had already been imprisoned by the iron lock, was bound by the iron chain. As a teacher, you can't do anything.

Because he doesn't know how many eyes are behind him, he can't tell the truth to anyone.

He can't even show a half-hearted pity and relief to the ink burning. He can only hate, resent, and his heart is cold and dead.

Only when the night is quiet, in this Wushan Temple, in the depths of the Sumu, when the ink burns and sleeps, Chu Ning can get up and put on the pale face.

I can say it softly: "Sorry, Master is not protecting you."

Chapter 250

Only when the night is quiet, in this Wushan Temple, in the depths of the Sumu, when the ink burns and sleeps, Chu Ning can get up and put on the pale face.

I can say it softly: "Sorry, Master is not protecting you."

I have not protected you.

Let you become someone else's chess piece.

Become a tyrant of tens of thousands of people.

No one in the world knows your true meaning, I don’t know if you have been good, you have been pure, I don’t know if you have been troubled by the rainless days. You have laughed at the opening of the lotus pond.

Everyone in the world complains that you are cold-blooded, but I don’t know if you shyly scratched your head and said, "I, I have nothing to bear.

If there is some spare money in the future, I will cover the house more and give me the same people as I used to." It’s good to settle down."

Everyone hates you for killing and killing, but I don’t know if you told me: "Master, I want a * like Wu. It can distinguish between black and white, but it can save lives."

Everyone is cursing you, everyone is guilty.

I know the truth, but I can't keep your dignity.

About the person who burns this kind of eye is always very sensitive to his eyes, even if he falls asleep. His eyes were slightly moving, and he did not react with the late night, and the blind man opened it: "You..."

The end is four-eye relative.

"What are you looking at?"

Chu Xiaoning’s emotions have been stretched to the extreme. He didn’t know how to deal with it, so he turned over and avoided talking with the ink, and then said: “Nothing.”

The ink burned without speaking. After a while, a warm body embraced him from behind, and the strong chest was attached to the back of Chu.

In the dark night, Chu night Ning opened his eyes, the breeze blowing in front of him, behind him is the hot chest of the Emperor. The man’s voice is not ridiculous or lazy. It’s faint: “You are cool and sweaty.”

Say, go down and sniff on the neck.

“Is it a nightmare?” The ink burned lightly, with some leisurely people waking up, “smelling some scary taste.”

Chu night never answered, but he did shiver in detail.

Not afraid, because sadness and self-blame almost destroy him. He almost exhausted his strength and only calmed down to keep this last point.

In the end, he succeeded in making a pass from the ink-burning eyelids. The ink burned did not notice his strangeness. After he yawned, the person gradually became awake. He went to sniff and sniffed the shoulders and hair of the late night, and he snorted with satisfaction.

"But then, your body, how do you even have some floral fragrance?" He smiled and laughed. "It's the same shape as a man."

If you usually ridicule this way, it will be a sorrowful sorrow.

But this night, the ink burned for a while, but did not wait for the response of Chu Yuning. He had some accidents, so he just got up and turned over the whole person, and re-tightened him. The broad figure completely shrouded the people under him.

His eyes looked into his eyes.

He lay under him, and he only had each other in his eyes.

The candlelight that had never been extinguished in the temple penetrated through the overlapping stacks of gauze. In such dim light, the ink burned against the handsome face that was close at hand.

Still the sword is sharp, the eyes are flying, the nose is high, and the eyebrows are naturally proud.

But I don't know why, I always feel that something is wrong tonight.

"What happened to you?" He reached out and touched Chu’s cheek. The fingertips came from a shudder, and the people underneath squinted at the eyes, all the emotions, and they could not bear it.

The smoldering is completely awake from the shackles.

He is thrilled.

Chu night Ning's eyebrows are also good, the thin lips of water, or the thin and fragile face of the tires... All of this makes the conquest in his chest greatly satisfied.

But there was a vagueness of uncertainty, and the ink burned and patiently asked him again: "What the * are you doing?"

Chu night Ning opened his eyes, and the half-baked scorpion flashed with shimmering luster.

The pain and depression in his heart was nowhere to be vented, and he became a hoarse voice: "How do we get to this point today?"

"..."

"If you stop early, it will not be the same."

The ink burned did not answer. He felt that Chu’s late night was quite ridiculous. He had already lost his own hand for so long. He became a pro, sealed up and became a ban.

Everything is a foregone conclusion, why do you think about it tonight, and have this idea.

There is no one in the Wushan Temple at night, only the pair of grievances on the bed. The scent of flowers floating outside the window of Xuan makes the feeling of burning soft, and I don’t really want to get angry with this man who doesn’t know how to be good.

His patience with Chu is better than the patience of the Queen.

Therefore, he happily glared at the lateness and pain of Chu Yuning, groaning, his heart itch, and the heat was like a flame and ignited.

So he rarely laughed with it, with some laziness: "If you find the head of the emperor earlier, how do you want to stop this seat?"

Fingertips are adjusted. Stepping on the fairy is * and tired: "Do you take your body?"

Looking at the layer of the moment in the middle of the night, I couldn’t tell the unclear complex emotions. The burning eyes were so cold and sullen.

After a moment, he cursed in a low voice.

He couldn't stand any temptation from him, whether it was intentional or not.

There is no excessive explanation and no foreplay.

Just like the beasts, he lifted the long, firm legs of Chu’s late night, and some of them rushed down –

If it is the eight bitter long hate, it will be born because of desire. Is it possible for this kind of residual body to ignite the heat of its own?

he does not know.

[There is a small river crab crawling over, it’s really small, if you don’t mind, see the old place.]

Very messy.

Everything is messy.

Chu nightning listened to the ink burning in his own ears and kept asking, kissing, breathing, the enthusiasm of pain and eroticism is like a rush of wind and rain.

For the first time in his life, he felt that he was like a duckweed. He couldn’t grasp anything. He couldn’t control anything and couldn’t change anything.

This night, he was so vulnerable for the first time.

Even worse, although he did not answer, the ink burned quickly from his trembling and his look to see the angle and position he could not stand.

[There is a small river crab, very small and small, it doesn't matter if you don't look at it. If you want to see it, see the old place.]

So the sky was overwhelming, and the bed was almost overturned. The pillows were all wrong and slipped to the ground, but the two people who were entangled in the fierceness could not care.

This kind of blending can even be said to be lingering.

The palace man who even swayed the night, and saw the night of Ning, the cheeks were a little reddish, and there were some flaws in his eyes.

He lost it to him, and he was also stimulated by him to dispel the gods, and the blind man was smashed.

In fact, this should be regarded as the second time that Chu Xiaoning was under house arrest. For the first time, he was directly released by ink burning without being used.

In the daytime, he heard the ink burning in a low voice and said: "We have come to this point today, it is a matter of course, do you know why?"

"..."

"I wanted you very early." The fingers of the burning ink did not enter the long hair of the late night of Chu. "I hate that you are tall and look indifferent. No matter what I do, I can't ask you a good sentence."

Chu Xi Ning is a tingling feather, almost stinging.

The man was still mumbling on his hair. It is him who is obviously bullied. The man who gets the cheap thinks about the past but is like a blame: "No matter how much I do, I will not look at me."

no.

There has been a gentleness between you and me. There has also been a pot of wine in the flower room. There is an umbrella in the rain, and a moon in the Mid-Autumn Festival. But you have forgotten it, and I can't mention it now.

"So, look. Only when you break your hands and feet, your bones are pulled away, your claws are pulled out, and you will lie down under me." The ink burned and kissed him, his voice was crazy and warm. "I only have to step on the emperor." In order to bully you, torture you, force you, trample on you."

The released place is still hot, pulsating between flesh and blood.

"You can see what you are like now." The ink burned softly. "Even if you are inferior to hell, you are judged to be incapable of being super-existent. It is worthwhile. It is enough to stimulate."

He touched the night hair of Chu, and he did not withdraw at the end.

That is, from this day on, the beginning of the ink burning has this habit - even if I know that Chu will rather become sick, knowing that there is such a bad, he is not willing to come out.

There is a hot fire in his heart, and his desires are splashing, and the beast is awkward.

Only Chu Xi Ning is his water, his jealousy, the man he wants to tear and tear and want to kiss the residual limb.

And what about Chu Ning? After the initial pain, he finally began to sink slowly, slowly starting to be alone, combing all the known clues, thinking about the people behind the scenes to plant the long-sucking flowers, what to plot, and ultimately want What is it?

On the other hand, although the book wrote that the long hate flower is in the third stage, it is impossible to pull out, but Chu Ning is still reluctant to give up.

He has never been convinced and lost.

He does not accept his life.

In this way, after a day and a day.

After the lack of spiritual power, Chu nightning is very difficult to do, not to mention the second person.

It’s hard to find out the black hand behind the scenes. It’s even more awkward to remove the long-sucking flower, but the purpose of the person’s control of ink burning is becoming more and more obvious.

Because the ink burns began to practice in the air.

"Rebirth, this seat can not be practiced."

I still remember the day when the ink burned, standing in front of the window, looking at the sly scorpion outside, faintly said, "Look at the file, saying that it is necessary for the yinful talents to learn." He said, he looked back and saw Chu night Ning glanced: "I intend to repair the first ban."

“Time and space are dead and dead?”

"Or what else."

"...you can't learn."

The ink burns and smiles: "I always try to bow again. Nothing is done, what may be impossible."

Chu nightning shook his head and said: "This first ban was changed against the sky, tearing two irrelevant red dust, never being for heaven -"

He has not finished speaking, and the words are interrupted.

The look of ink burning is very lazy: "What is Tiandao? Why do you want it to accommodate me? The most unbelieving in this life is life."

He then began to put into practice. The first ban had been lost for a long time, and the ink burned for the sake of the ninety-five. It was hard to receive a roll of ancient early extensions, and the most important chapter was missing. There is no complete secret, even if the ink is burning and even fierce, it can only be built into a space door, and it can not really tear the time and space.

And that is, since then, Chu nightning began to understand what it is like to be the one who burns the ink on the ink.

Certainly not for the unification of the world. What he suspects is that the ultimate goal of that person is to open the door to life and death. And it is not a small crack, I am afraid that I want to thoroughly integrate the two red dust.

Only a very small number of people, such as the burning of this natural and powerful hegemonic talent, can do this.

Chapter 251

"What do you want to do with the first ban?"

I don't know if he asked this question several times. When he was in a good mood, he finally replied slowly: "Go back to the past."

"and then?"

Stepping on the eyes of Stepanjun: "Save him back."

Who is "he", it is self-evident.

Chu night, white clothes like snow, standing in front of the ink: "If you carefully turn over the books related to the first forbidden, you should know that no one who can reverse the time and space can get a good end. The last master tried to put the daughter Bring back to yourself from another time and space, killing yourself from the time and space, what the end of the matter, you will not know."

The ink burned his brow, changed his sitting position, folded his legs, and looked at him with his cheeks: "I really don't know this seat."

"..."

"There are examples of such failures that can be seen."

Chu Xiaoning said: "No one has succeeded."

Ink burning: "The seat is the first successful person."

Chu Yuning said again: "If time and space are disordered, you don't know what the consequences will be."

The smoldering is almost ridiculous: "Even if the world is in chaos, the flood is soaring, what is it with this seat?"

Chu Xi Ning is still not reconciled: "Even if you really bring Shi Mingjing back from another time and space, what about the other you? How to be self-sufficient. If the two masters seized one person again, you thought about it. What should I do?"

The ink burned and smiled: "It's just another red dust myself. If he stops me, kill it."

Chu night, Ning slammed his mouth, and suddenly felt creepy.

The smoldering is really crazy.

"If that is..." is almost a stupid ground, Chu night Ning slowly said, "The masters robbed women of the same mistakes. In the process of robbing you and you, you have an accident, the earthly teacher is afraid of the net. Will be broken in the cracks of time and space, you..."

If this is not finished, I will hear a bang.

The ink burned out and he got up and turned the case of the fruit plate in front of him. Grape citrus lychee, at this moment, like the person he killed, the head cut, the bones rolled all over the floor.

Stepping on the fairy stepped over, embroidered dark dragon pattern red scorpion stepped on the ground, broken fruit, the grape cracked like blood, the lychee broken like a brain - he is filled with sweet and fruity corpse blood In the middle of the sea, I slammed the clothes of Chu’s late night, and my eyes were like tigers.

"I know that you can't look at him, I hope he will die." The ink burned in vain. "But you are too wicked. He said that he is also your apprentice. He once worshipped you and believed in you. Chu nightning, you curse." he."

"I didn't curse him, and what you said is true."

The ink burned and sighed: "Who wants to listen to your facts? The person who wants this seat, tearing time and space to turn around the Qiankun will also be saved back! Red dust stopped tearing red dust, I stopped and killed me - if you Stop, then..."

He gasped for a while, but his eyes were mad and a little damp. So what is it? trample? But he has already cut off the backbone of Chu Yuning. Domineering? Chu nightning has long been a man who married him.

So, kill? Suddenly, my heart was stuffy, but I couldn’t say it. I didn’t know the following.

The ink burned away, leaving the night of Ning, standing alone in the empty hall, and the four fields around him were dark. He knew that the darkness was a bureau that was laid down by one person, and it was good to go to Xianjun or Beidou Xianzun. trap.

But what should he do?

Once the first ban is applied, it is not a big deal if you just tear a crack. Just like a human scar can scar, time and space can heal itself. However, if the tearing mouth is large, the variables are much more, and the two red dusts are intertwined, and in the end it may become recorded in the ancient books.

crack.

"The red dust is orderly, and if the order is broken, the punishment will come, and all will be returned to Hongmeng."

——This sentence Chu Evening does not remember where he read it, but the impression is extremely clear. It is about the consequences of losing control of time and space.

The so-called daily punishment is coming to Hongmeng, that is to say, the gods will punish the mortal world, and the two disorganized time and space will be crushed into powder and returned to zero.

The first ban is out of control, and the price will be the complete destruction of two time and space. So in any case, this kind of thing can't happen, and you can't let the ink burn again.

That night, the ink burned to deal with the Kunlun movement and chaos, and did not find Chu nightning to ponder. So Chu Xiaoning took the wind lamp and went to the library.

This is also a bit of heartburn. He knows that it is hard to become a climate in the late night, so when it is angered, it will not be blocked in the ordinary days. What is the library, the back mountain, even the * arsenal, he does not mind Chu nightning.

The reason is the same as raising a cat.

The fangs are smoothed and the claws are cut off, which is enough. If you want to discount your legs, let the cats move, and there is no wildness, it is too boring.

Chu Yuening combed all the veins he had obtained in the collection, combined with the current situation, and finally concluded two things: First, the people behind the scenes are extremely good at medication, but the spiritual power must not be strong. This is very understandable, because if the person's spiritual power is very strong, there is no need to fake people to do these things. Second, the death of the teacher must be planned by the people behind the scenes. The purpose is to promote the hatred of the ink.

This point is also late in the ancient books.

"Eight bitter hate can erase all the warmth of the people, but it can also retain the warm memories of a certain person." The complicated magic text is deciphered by words. "Therefore, the surgeon often makes the long hate flower owner retain normal memories of himself. That makes the long hate flower owner agree with the operator, relying on the operator, willing to be born and died."

The teacher has already passed away, and he saw it with his own eyes. There will be no leave. Therefore, the teacher should not be the person who applied the technique, but the ink burned clearly remembered all the good memories related to the teacher, and the people behind the scenes took advantage of the pure and warmth of the only burning ink, and tempted him to touch the three. The ban.

From the control of the world of chess games. Rebirth to the resurrection of the dead. To reverse the time and space of life and death.

The ink burns have indeed been tried one by one, whether successful or not. Who is so eager to control the three-door ban at the same time? Who would want to tear the time and space, risking the return of two red dust to zero, to satisfy their own lusts?

Chu night never thought that the answer to this question is not the most important at the moment. What is important is how he should stop this incident before the ink burns the death gate.

After thinking about it for a few times, he finally saw that there was only one road in front of him - he must kill the emperor, and then go back to the past, and the eight bitter hates in the burning heart have not been deeply planted and contain it. Try to get rid of it. It’s impossible for a person who has been bitter and hate once in the second time. In this way, even after the death of Stepan, the black hands still manage to open the door to life and death, and there is no way to get the strongest force. .

Kill the emperor...

In the night, the library has a moth and a fire, and it is thrown into the wind light brought by Chu Yuning. It is instantly swallowed by the fire tongue, and the remains are not left, only a stink.

Chu nightning looked at the candle alone and looked at the stupid moths.

The fire is very bright and the heart is very cold.

Killing the emperor of the emperor... killing the emperor...

Killed the ink. Kill the poor man who is controlled, used, and has fewer days.

From the predecessor, he was a teacher, and he did not protect him. Now he has to plan his own hands and make him fussy.

Chu night Ning squatting eyes, slightly back to the head, pillows between the bookshelves. The wind light flashed, and he would throw a moth like a moth.

Must kill the rain.

It's raining.

It’s light rain, and it’s lingering.

Chu Xiaoning is his male pet, waking up from the shallow.

The desire and energy of ink burning have always been amazing. I don’t know if this person is so entangled in Song Qiutong’s endless entanglement. What is he venting is simply a beast or a person’s own Thirsty.

unimportant.

The ink burned at his side and was already asleep, not much different from the many nights before. During this time, he became more and more ridiculous, and he wanted more and more. It is a common thing not to go out after finishing the work. On the second day, he will wake up again before the temple. kill him.

But the difference in power is so disparate, Chu night rather does not feel that he will have a chance of winning, even if it is on the pillow.

Wait a second time. He told himself this way.

After all, there are two things to do. One is killing. The other is to grab the time and space behind the scenes. First, open the door to life and death, and block the past ink burning and be swallowed up by the long hate flower. Since the first piece cannot be completed immediately, he will go to the second one. - Open the first ban, life and death.

Regarding this ban, there is always some impression in his mind. Combined with the roll of the founder of the ink burning, after numerous failures, he finally restored the original curse. However, because there is no spiritual core, it is extremely difficult for Chu to be able to cast spells. Fortunately, he and the nine songs are naturally acquainted, even if there is no spiritual core, they can summon. Therefore, although it is very difficult to find out, it is natural to go through the setbacks. But all in all, Chu Yuening finally used the power of nine songs to tear open a tiny gap in time and space.

That is the gap that can really lead to the past.

He was close, and heard a whistle from the crack --

Time and space are dead and dead, the door whistle sounds, and the whistle closes. It is exactly the same as the rumor.

He heard a long and empty voice asking him: "Where is the king going?"

At first, the heart was like a drum, but the boat really came to the bridge, and suddenly it was calm.

"Where is the king going?"

When the voice repeated the inquiry again, Chu Yuening looked at the Wushan Temple where the song and dance had started. Today, he provoked the smoldering of the thunder. At this moment, the ink burned has called Song Qiutong to accompany him, and he should not find himself again.

He took a deep breath, and Feng Feng had a light: "I want to go back to the year when the ink burned just eight long and hate flowers."

He tried to make the words clearer.

"That is, the year when long hate flowers are still in the first stage, everything can be recovered. ... Do you understand?"

No one in the crack promised, but when Chu Ning would be disappointed, a radiance suddenly lit up, and the space-time tunnel slowly opened.

Step in and step in and out. When everything came back to calm, he opened his eyes and there were just a few petals falling in front of him.

He...he really went back many years ago!

At this time, the white winds of the dead and the dead are the late spring season.

"..." Chu Xiaoning stood for a while, tried his best to calm his own mood, and then set aside heavy flowers and walked out of the crack.

He found himself coming to the back of the martial art. It was the fragrance of flowers and plants planted by Mrs. Wang, and the lights in the distance were lit up by the lights of thousands of disciples. They gathered in the night to form a quiet galaxy.

Revisit the place, if you dream.

Chu night is standing in the same place, although there are not many expressions on his face, but there are mixed feelings in his chest. He slowly walked all the way, watching the young disciples screaming and screaming, and glimpsed the elders of the martial arts martial martial arts and the elders of Lu Cun were trying to learn from each other, passing a corner, and even seeing the lady named Wang The fat cat is kneeling on the wall and stretches a fluffy head to sniff the rose flowers in the wall.

He is wrong, not a dream. In these years, even in the best dreams, he has not been able to return to such a life.

Chu Xiaoning looked at the scene in front of him and walked alone.

He knew that he did not have the habit of leaving the red lotus in the night, so he was not too worried about meeting himself in this time and space.

Walking and walking, I suddenly saw two teenagers on the front, one bright and beautiful, one dazzling. He was already very slow, and finally could not help but stop.

It was Xue Meng and the teacher of the boyhood.

Chapter 252

The two of them were chatting about something interesting. They had a relaxed smile on each other's face. Xue Meng even raised his hand to the teacher's hair and released a small flower of a yellow goose. He was picked up by the teacher and laughed. He Haha laughed out loud.

"Ah, Master?"

It’s too late to get out of the way. When Xue Meng turned his head, Yu Guang saw him. He first glimpsed it. Then he said with joy: “It’s rare to see the Master so late.” As he spoke, he greeted him.

The teacher also smiled and followed, gentle and rude: "Ask the teacher respect."

When he was late, he couldn’t say anything. He wanted to calmly agree, but he hadn’t opened his mouth yet, and his eyes were red. Fortunately, the night was deep and there was enough darkness to cover him.

Xue Meng is quite curious about some cats: "Where is the teacher going?"

"With..." The voice was exported, but it was hoarse. He was busy with his mouth, coughing, and for a moment, "just walk away."

After a while, I couldn't help but ask more.

"what about you?"

"My sister and I have just returned from the town of Wuchang. I bought a lot of delicious food." Xue Meng was very happy when he mentioned this. "There is a temple fair today, and it is very lively."

In exchange for the late Qing Dynasty of this era, this dialogue should stop here.

Chu nightning will not have too much interest to understand what these young people have gathered together, what to eat, why are they so happy.

At that time, he was faint, and if he was away from anyone, he would not like to take a look at the trivial matters of others.

But now Chu Jingning, but I feel that Xue Meng is also good, and the teacher is worthy. Every word, every look, and even every light and shadow in the eyes is precious.

He wants to look at it a little more and listen to a few more words.

This is something in his own red dust that he can never get.

So he asked: "What did you buy?"

“Is the teacher respected to see it?” Xue Mengxing went to his own Qiankun bag with great enthusiasm, and the treasure was general. “Godan skin, pine nuts, sweet-scented osmanthus...”

Counting a lot of things, suddenly holding a sweet-scented osmanthus sugar, all in the hands of Chu Yuning.

"Buy more, these are for the Master."

The teacher also rummaged through his bag, but he didn't seem to buy a few things. He turned it over and couldn't find anything to get his hand. The ear was a little red.

"..."

Chu night Ning said: "No need to give me any more." He picked two or three candy, and returned the rest to Xue Meng. Under the moonlight, his eyes were almost moist and gentle.

"It's enough."

He knows that time and space will close at any time. He has overdrafted the power of nine songs, and it is not easy to open it. What's more, there is only one night light there, and it is too late to go back.

Holding on to the difficult mood, he asked: "Is it burned? Not with you?"

The two face each other, Xue Meng said: "I didn't see him after lunch."

Shimei also said: "He hasn't been with us for a few days. Maybe he has something to do."

Chu Yuning went to the disciple room, but no one in the room went to the temple to find it. Seeing the time and space consumption, not only the more heart and soul.

Thinking about it for a long time, suddenly, he remembered one thing.

He thought of it.

The ink will not go away...

After thinking about half of it, I didn't think about it any more. The thought of this flame-like squatting made him not very comfortable. His face slowly sank and the knuckles were involuntarily pinched.

——

He remembered a place where ink burned when he first went astray.

After half an hour, Chu Ningning stood outside a red and purple lacquered wooden building, hanging Zhu Xi, and writing the four characters of Xiantao Huijun.

This is the nearby famous Liyuan Xiantaolou. At this time, the night is deep, but the Huahuazhang of the flower building begins. There are passengers flowing in from the left and right, most of them are greasy men, smeared with powdered powder, and Chu nighting is cold, with a straight back and standing out of the crowd.

"Guest officer, please be inside."

"Let's take a look and see, today there is a famous * play, Xiangtan's famous Dan, the song does not lose the hurricane of the year, the dance is not inferior to the past, the clothing is cold. Eighty-one text, the front row plus ten texts - ”

At the door, Xiao Yan was screaming at the scorpion, and there was a son who was shaking the literati fan. He happened to pass by and mocked: "It’s really a big word, what a big name, and dare to scream with the two paragraphs of the year."

"That is, the 80-year-old one has a face and a weak hurricane, and the hurricane is not enough for a play of eight hundred gold."

"This breaks the garden and swindles the money!" There was a passer-by, and he smiled at the armpits.

Chu night, I don’t understand, and I have a headache. He simply raised his hand and went into the building. There is a high knot in the silk lamp there. Some people are listening to the drama, some are drunk, and some people are ups and downs in the charm and gentleness of the rouge oil paint.

The play of Jin Sheng Yu Zhen, Xiao Yu Yu muscle spring.

On the first floor of the stage, the nobles are drunk and have a lot of flowers. The play was full of soft mourning, and the audience was touched with endless enthusiasm.

"Good -! Good!"

"A little more!!"

Chu Xiaoning was scented with a pungent fat powder and his eyebrows were wrinkled and his face was gloomy. The phoenix swept over and patrolled the circle, not seeing the young man.

He thought, isn't he guessing the wrong place?

At this time, the nephew who was too busy to take off the body noticed him, just like a colorful and colorful butterfly, he walked toward him, opened a pair of mouths with Zhu Hong Danxia, and smiled and solicited:

"This son, please come to the audience and listen to the eaves."

Chu nightning looked at her: "Find people."

"Looking for..." The child was condensed, and the smile fell, and his eyes were cold for three points. "Looking for people."

Chu night sighed and sighed, and took the waist ring to take it down. It was the beautiful jade that was given to him by the Emperor Xian, and the tentacles were warm. He handed the jade to his nephew and repeated: "Find people."

The nephew took it, and looked around, and the color of the stream was shining, and her eyes were bright.

She coughed up the jade and re-appeared her smile. It was fuller and fuller than before. "Who is the son looking for?"

"A young man who looks fifteen or six years old." Chu Xi Ningdao, "named ink."

The third floor of the Rongrong Pavilion is decorated with rugs. It's no wonder that many people are willing to buy drunkenness all night, just throwing the money into it, and the beautiful girl will make up a poppy-like dream. How many heroes are there. If the night can be spent like this, being sent gently, who is willing to face the scars of life, the pain of reality?

"This is the place." The nephew raised the narrow fingers dyed with the cardamom and turned over the wooden sign with the word "Rong Jiu" on the door.

She raised her eyes and exquisitely thought. If she looked thoughtfully at the late night, she said: "The son is not busy, wait for the slaves to call out the nine children, and then ask the son to go to the house to talk with the friends."

"..."

Even Lian Niang can see that he cares about him.

Chu night Ning closed his eyes and closed his eyes: "I am bothering you."

She went in, and there was a language in the house that was unclear.

After a while, she came out again, followed by a handful of squats, and Chu night squinted. The cheeks named Rong Ji still had blush on their cheeks, and the side squatted on them quite familiar, seemingly like someone. When Rong Jiu and his low salute, he left with the nephew. Chu Xiaoning shoved in, and the eyes were red, purple and purple, and the scalp was numb. There is no incense in the house, but there is a wine smell. The ink burned on the cheek, lying on the bed, and the slender fingers were still playing with the red tassels tied on the small clay pot. The bed was also red, very messy. It is best not to think about what has happened on this.

He walked over, frost and snow, standing in this spring with his own incompatibility.

"Hey... is the Master coming?"

"..."

"Sit down and drink a glass of wine? Pear white, good wine. Guaranteed has not tasted."

Chu night Ning said: "You are drunk."

The ink burned and smiled, seeing the white man walked to his bed. He was really drunk, and suddenly reached out and dared to cover the sky.

"It’s so drunk, I’m not afraid of being drunk, I’m not afraid, come and come, long nights, it’s better to have a fight.”

Chu nightning did not scream again, but the young boy’s ink was lifted from the bed that was generally floating in the sea, and the blue veins were slightly convex. He is a man with a master's demeanor. At this time, he is still solemn, and only the trembling of the fingertips sells his heart.

He closed his eyes and whispered: "Ink burns."

The stunned teenager "snapped" and still was unclear, even with some heartless laughs.

Chu night Ningsha dumb said: "I am late."

He put his forehead in the past, his fingertips moving lightly, and it was extremely painful -

In this pain of tearing flesh and blood, a * is born in the world, sea otters, flowers, tails rolled up, seven-string streamer. A good * wood guqin.

Chu nighting bites the back molars, let Shenwu put his strong spiritual power on him. This kind of spiritual power against the Emperor is simply a joke, but it is enough for him to cast many spells.

He pressed his inked forehead against himself and closed his eyes.

Then he felt... The body of the burning body did have the breath of eight bitter long hatred flowers. It seemed as if I saw a black double-flowered flower, rooted in the heart, and the roots were buried deep along the veins.

It is this long hate flower.

It is the source of all sin.

Chu night Ning took a deep breath and recorded the curse in accordance with the ancient books. Then he sang a word and almost did his best to drink:

"The soul is broken!"

Chu night, Ning Yu opened his eyes, and the bottom of the bottom suddenly floated cold.

The long-sucking flower can only be suppressed by the power of the soul. As he said in the book, he will split his own half of the soul and pass it from the forehead of the two men to the inside of the ink.

When the sun was blowing, the nine songs were actually phoenix sounds.

Aura is blazing.

Ink burning... ink burning...

Once upon a time, Master did not protect you.

Now, I am here to save you.

I am crossing you.

The shredded soul turned into a white dusty smoke, and it kept flowing.

The smoldering is disappointing, and the late night is very painful.

The amount is constant.

I am crossing you...

The last glare disappeared and the two slammed away. Chu night Ning loosed his hand, and the ink burned heavily back to the bed.

The nine songs were gone, and they were hidden in the bones of Chu’s late night. He has lost half of his soul, and it is extremely difficult to maintain the stability of Shenwu.

Chu Xiaoning sat on the couch, slowly squinting his eyes, his face pale and pale, and even his lips were bloodless. But his heart is relieved and easy.

He finally made the first step to change his life.

Use the power of the soul to interfere with the eight bitter long-soul flowers that have not yet been deeply swayed, and not let the ink burn again.

Time back. He finally protected him.

Chu nightning can't stay for a long time. The first thing he has to do is to prevent the ink burning from being swallowed up by the long-sucking flower. This has already been done, and then he will do the second thing.

He didn't know what the ability of the people behind the scenes was so big. Although the man can't tear the cracks in time and space, the caution is always right.

- He wants to ensure that once the disaster starts again, he can restore the memory of his previous life and resist it in time.

So the second thing is to find yourself in the past.

All the screaming curses of the red lotus otter were useless to him, and he came in easily. He stood in front of the semi-open window and looked at the white man who was already sleeping on the table.

Halfway through the night, God is still painting.

... If the troubles of the world are just to deal with these little devils.

Chu nightning has crossed the half-soul soul that he has torn to the red dust.

Originally, this soul was his own, so the person who fell asleep would not have a slight discomfort. He looked at the white and bright light and floated over it, and surrounded a gentle glow around himself. Slowly, the brilliance was extinguished, and the wind blew over, blowing the drawings on the hand of "Chu Ningning" on the ground.

"If there is another major disaster, the ink will not be an enemy of you." He stood by the window and said softly to the people inside. "Now I have broken the core and separated the soul. I can only do this. One step can't change our time, but you can."

The people in the house are not awake.

"I divided the weakest souls of the three souls into two halves, half of which gave you, and half gave it to the ink. If you have a smooth life, these two halves of the soul will not have much impact on you. If you hate to invade, or if there is chaos in the world, then I will try to get this soul together again."

If he does not predict the mistake, the moment when the soul coincides, the eight bitter hatred in the burning body will be completely destroyed and removed. And he will also restore the memory of past lives after the soul of the earth is combined.

Chu night Ning said: "Do not blame me for giving these things to you. If you can, I hope you don't have to think about it, but..."

He didn't say anything more, only sighed in a low voice.

Then he went to do the third thing.

This is the last barrier - he went to find a crime. I gave it to the incense burner that I had already begun to refine.

In that incense burner, he applied the technique of healing the soul. This mystery will capture the deepest memories of his subconscious mind, to stimulate the two torn apart souls to merge again.

Chu Xiaoning is not very clear about what his deepest memories are. He thinks there are too many. Perhaps it was a big battle when the mentoring division broke down. Perhaps it was the experience that was made into a blood leak after being burnt down by the ink-burning hand. Perhaps it was the first time that the pain was humiliated under the ink. Too much. Sometimes people don't even see themselves.

He sinned and sealed the incense burner in the Dragon Blood Cave. If you see red dust, you must bring yourself and the ink to the place.

After doing all this, the time of Chu Xiaoning has arrived. Time and space are self-healing. If it is not a destructive tear, the gap will be closed.

He actually wants to stay here, staying in this peaceful, nothing that has not happened yet.

However, Chu Xiaoning knows that he does not belong here. He will not do anything against the forbidden morality in order to be self-sufficient and to be greedy for warmth.

he left.

Liu Jiangshan dreams are far behind, no longer look back.

"Chu Zongshi."

Returning to his own time, Chu Xiening just came out from the cracks in Houshan, masking the traces of spiritual power, and saw that there was a Zhuyi man on the Bluestone Trail. It is the old slave Liu Gong who is serving the ink.

"Where did the guru go? Teach me to find it."

Chu night Ning asked: "What about others?"

"In the red lotus water."

Looking for the past, the ink burned and sat down under the wisteria flower stand, and when he saw him pushing in, he slowly raised his face. Slightly waved at him.

"come."

Chu night, Ning licked his lips, and his look was indifferent: "The songs didn't sound too good? It was so early."

"There is nothing to be unsatisfactory." Ink ignited, "Listen to listen, so few toned. Tired."

The sleeves of the robes were opened, and Chu Xinning lifted his hand into his arms. The ink burned did not go to ask him where he went. After all, Chu Xi Ning has always been untamed, and it is strange to stay in the water.

He forced him to sit on his own lap and kissed the man's cheek, then buried it in the man's neck.

"There was a dream in this seat." "Well?"

"...in the dream, you are teaching me to write."

Chu night Ning Yi, the heartbeat suddenly stalled. But at this moment, Teng Xianjun indulged in self-remembering, but he was unable to extricate himself. Therefore, he did not notice his strangeness. He only continued to speak, his tone was light, but he was not saddened by his own unconsciousness.

"One word, I haven't written it four or five times. You are angry, but you have not given up on me." Mo burned, "Then you held my hand, there was a flower coming in the window, I saw..."

He was too indulged in that big dream, not even calling himself a seat.

The ink burned, and the look was naive.

"I saw it on the paper, seeing the letter as a meeting, and showing the letter."

When he said it, he suddenly grinned. That smile can't be said to be comforting or embarrassing.

"This kind of thing can only be seen by dreaming."

He looked up, and the eyes that were filled with thoughts on the night of Chu, gradually recovered the coldness of the son who belonged to Xi Xianjun: "Do you know why this group suddenly wants to see you?"

"..."

The hand reached up and touched the cold cheeks of Chu.

"In that dream, your appearance is very good." Stepping Xianjun faint, "I can't even forget to see this seat. So I want to see the real you."

Chu Xiaoning lowered his eyes.

"I'm afraid I don't hate you, I want to hate you." Ink said, "Otherwise I..."

Suddenly, what is it?

Otherwise, I will never be able to self-width, otherwise I will not know how to go forward, otherwise I will not know how to continue this broken life.

I have to hate you, I have not changed, and I have not hated it.

"Late Ning." He finally sighed. "There is only me and you left in this world."

For a time, my heart was like a knife, and Chu was rather awaiting to talk. Suddenly, I felt that I had to step on the edge of the cliff, and I fell asleep and suddenly woke up!

Chu night Ning stunned his eyes, and it was dark in the middle of the shackles. He could hear his own drum-like heartbeat, cold sweats, and the face of the emperor’s sullen and cold face seemed to be still in sight.

He shivered and gasped slightly, and the influx of past life reminded him of the cold hair behind him, causing him to tremble, and the memories were not stopped, and he continued to madly rush toward him.

The throat is agitated, he... Where is it?

where is he……

Why can't I see it? Why is everything in front of me black?

Consciousness, come over for a while, Chu night Ning finally finally remembered the Dragon Blood Mountain thing.

He slowly reacted back to God and muttered: "Ink burning..."

At this time, the cheeks were suddenly touched by a cool, soft palm.

The hand held his chin, stretched out his thumb, and rubbed his lips. Chu Xiaoning heard a sonar that was obviously applied to the sound-changing technique, and smiled at him gently.

"Wait for a long time, you are finally awake."

Chapter 253

"Wait for a long time, you are finally awake."

In the quiet room, this voice is weird and distorted. If Chu night can see it, he will find that the teacher is sitting on the couch and staring at him with a smile, like a spider squatting into the soul of the net.

"How, sleep well?"

Chu Xiaoning did not answer immediately. He moved a little and found that he had only recovered 20% of his spiritual power at the moment, and he was * with his hands and tied his eyes with black silk.

"..."

At this time, there was no use for panic. Chu nightning was always fearless. He knew exactly what kind of results he wanted, so he also knew how to deal with it calmly. In his two lifetimes, he was alone in front of one person.

Except for that person, no one will let him go wild.

So Chu Xi Ning was silent, slowly smashing the broken memories and the situation before the coma. Before the consciousness was floating, he had intermittently heard some movements around him, and now he tried his best to piece together those words.

At this time, the door of the Chamber of Secrets opened and the Nangong Liu came back. He held a bunch of fresh oranges and, as soon as he entered the door, he said, "My brother, the oranges are picked up. I have a small circle underneath. This is especially sweet to eat..." I didn't finish talking. I saw Chu nightning on the bed, "Ah? Pampering my brother woke up?"

Hearing this name, Chu night Ning had a pale face that became more and more gloomy.

Pamper... Chu Yu?

So the so-called brother is...

The teacher took over the oranges handed by Nangong Liu, smiled and touched his head and said, "You did a good job. But I have a saying with the Chu Guizhen, you should go out first, play with yourself. For a while."

"Can't I stay here to play? I can help you peel the oranges."

"You don't have a good time." Shi said, "Some words can be heard by adults, and children can't listen."

Nan Gongliu snorted and snorted and turned away.

The room was very quiet for a while, only to hear the sound of breathing, or the sound of a candlestick.

The teacher picked an orange, peeled off the skin and peeled off the white silk. When he was doing this, he chatted with Chu Jingning as usual: "Listen who was the person who was just?"

"..."

"His voice, you should be no stranger."

Peel the oranges and hand them to the lips of Chu’s late night: "Taste and see, the oranges on this mountain are hand-planted by Xu Shuanglin. He is very proficient in this and should be very sweet."

Chu night Ning turned his face.

The teacher screamed slowly: "You look at you, and when you wake up, you lose your temper."

Chu nightning is silent for a while, cold and cold: "What about others?"

"Who?"

"You know who I am talking about."

The teacher slightly raised the eyebrows: "Do you want to ask about the burning?"

"..."

Seeing his silence, the teacher smiled softly: "You are really worried about him. The first thing to wake up is to find him, even if I am who I don't ask first. For a person who practices your life, no. It's worth it."

The lips of the man who was blinded by the blindfold licked, and the lines of the chin became more and more embarrassing.

The teacher stared at it for a while and felt that the evil fire in the chest was getting stronger. But he is self-sufficient and will not be too hasty to do anything.

People should eat elegantly, without teeth and no residue. It’s too hasty to eat the flesh and bones like Teng Xianjun. The delicious food has not been chewed, and only one empty bowl is left.

That is a hungry dog reincarnation, the teacher can not see.

So he was on fire underneath, but he slowly gave his own dish with fresh juice and succulent texture. Just cook the crispy, then sip into the belly.

"Also ask a gossip. Don't you want to eat the oranges that are sent to your lips?" The teacher chuckled. "You are so embarrassed, how did you serve the Emperor?"

"take away."

"I think it's better to eat it. If you don't get into the water these days, your lips will crack."

Chu nightning only bites his teeth: "Is it burning?"

The teacher stared at him for a few moments, slowly, no longer laughing.

"Whether it is this life or the last life, whether it is memory or no memory, you only have ink burned in your eyes. Teacher..." The word has not been exported, known aphasia, and immediately stopped.

But it has missed a trace of trembling in the late night.

The teacher narrowed his eyes: "You tell me, where is the burning of him?"

He looked down at Chu Yuning and saw that the last bit of blood on his lips was slowly receding.

"That person, impulsive, no mind, thoughts are innocent and ridiculous, and character is not superior. What do you think of him?"

"..."

"Face? Spiritual? Sweet mouth?"

In the end, it is the animal/desire that has been forbearing for so long. The more we say later, the more suffocating the tone is.

In particular, when Chu Xinning began to bite his lip and seemed to try to suppress certain emotions, the teacher became more and more dry.

Words began to move in a more awkward direction.

"Is his ability to be in bed?"

Chu night, the pale cheeks floated with anger, and rose with anger: "Stop."

The teacher did not intend to stay in the mouth. The man who finally got it, don’t play it thoroughly, why stop? He smiled and said: "Chu Wei still does not know that after you died in the past life, the ink burned you a nickname."

He was interested to capture any trace of subtle expression on the face of Chu Yuning, and the eyebrows were more and more curved.

"It sounds a bit funny, but it's quite appropriate. After all, in the rest of your life, you are really clean, only by him." However, there is no comparison. Slowly, "You have never tried others, and naturally you will only think that he is the best."

The fingertips are falling.

Tip of the nose, lips, chin, throat.

Chu nightning trembled in detail, the wrists were brutally violent, and they wanted to break free from the bindings of the sacred ropes, but they were not allowed to move.

"Don't waste your time. Chu Guizhen wants to loosen it. I want to know the whereabouts of the burnt ink. I can satisfy you." The front turned. "But, you are my trophy. I have to accompany me first." Play a game?"

"……What do you want to do."

The teacher smiled and said: "I want your mind to be a little bit out of that person. Don't think about him, think about me, how?"

"You are the squatter of the past life. What else to think about."

If you listen carefully, you can hear the sinking and pain in the voice of Chu Xiaoning.

Chu nightning seems to be trying to suppress one of his own emotions, but if he can’t suppress it, he will blow out.

Shi Yan smiled and said: "Yes, it is me. But why don't you guess Chu, my true identity, who is it?"

"If you want to say it, just say it, don't say it."

"Hey, when can you not be fierce?" The teacher sighed and said, "So, Chu Guizhen once said, big gambling hurts, small gambling, but it is coming to hurt. Not as good as us. Come and bet on it."

"..."

"However," the teacher paused. "Before I started, I had to offend a little. I first glanced at how many clothes you wore."

Seeing that the late night of the Chu is not snoring, but the exposed half of the face is involuntarily taut, the look of the teacher is softer, he counts the past, and finally counts out the robes and the waist. .

"That will give you five chances. If it is within five times, you are right, I will tell you the whereabouts of the smoldering." Suddenly, continue. "However, every time you answer the wrong one, I will remove you." A piece of clothing. If you wait for five pieces of clothes to be finished, Chu Hao has not yet answered, then..."

He didn't say it, just smiled, and the pale pink tongue licked his lips subconsciously. Then he sat quietly, waiting for Chu’s guess. Chu night rather does not speak, he is not in a hurry, so I continue to wait.

He is very busy at the moment, he has time.

However, with the passing of time, Chu Ning still did not respond. The eyebrows of the teacher's eyebrows are raised - he has time, but may not have patience.

"You guessed it."

Chu night Ning finally said: "Roll."

Shi Yan’s face was gloomy: “...now you are in my hands, what can be done, what can’t be done, you should be clear.”

"..."

"Chu Ningning. You didn't talk to me about the conditional chips. It's not good to go to the emperor's brain. Maybe the accountant is not you, sometimes it's up to you, but I am different."

The teacher said coldly and coldly: "You are in my hands, it would be better to be a little better."

He waited for a while, and he saw that the night was still not snoring, and the tone was harder: "You don't want to toast and not eat fine wine. Don't think that you haven't talked, I will take you no way."

Said, the slender and cold fingers have been put up, and caught the waist seal of Chu Yuning. Then slowly stroked the band, the fingertips slipped past, as if the blade was cutting the fish.

"Listen, I counted three. If you don't open your mouth again, you will be responsible for the consequences." Shi Yan said, leaving a thin light in his eyes.

He didn't really know that he was hoping that Chu would rather guess it, or he wouldn't want Chu to rather guess. But guess it, this time is no longer important. Everything can't go back, and he just thinks about how to uncover his true face in a way.

It must be stimulating enough to be bloody. After all, this man has been playing with himself for two lifetimes. Now he wins, he must carefully smash the fruits of victory.

"One."

There seems to be a glimmer of victory in front of you.

"two."

What will happen to Chu Xining? anger? Grief? Fear?

He will wait and see, his lips will lightly open.

"Three... well, Chu Yu is really very strong, and it is no wonder that stepping Xianjun will want you to be addicted." Shiji half-joking is half serious. "Since you don't guess, then we will be rough. You... ..."

"Hua Bi Nan."

The hoarseness is cold.

The teacher’s fingers were slightly stunned, and the original action to solve the night’s waist was condensed, and then he smiled: “Guess the right half. Continue?”

"..."

He reveals a kind of fox-like shackles, which may seem cumbersome in others, but the sergeant is so elegant, whenever the water is like a lotus flower.

He believes that Chu will rather not guess the last layer of truth, he is full of ambition, he -

"I would rather you are really dead."

The smile on the face of the teacher was frozen. After a while, he asked: "What are you talking about?"

The man on the bed was very cold and didn't have a bit of heat.

"In the last life, that day, the snow, that snow. I would rather you are really dead."

The teacher stared at him, prepared a singer, and suddenly nowhere to pour, turned into aphasia.

He had lifted half of his hand and hung in the air like this. He didn't know where to go, and suddenly he was at a loss.

"Shi Ming net." A sigh of light, but like a bee stinging a sly person, "Is it you?"

"..."

Although it is a questionable sentence, there is no one-and-a-half-point voice.

The teacher squatted down the curtain, and no one could clear his look. After a while, he chuckled: "I didn't die, I was disappointed."

He didn't want to lose, but there was something in his tone.

Shi Shi said: "I am really the teacher of Ming dynasty. I came from your past life, the world that stepped on Xianjun. The child who has been with you all the time is not the same person." Suddenly, " Speak and count, give you loose."

He said that he untied the bundle of fairy ropes, and then he covered his hand on the silk ribbon that was covered by Chu, and took it off with a little force.

Peach eyes are on the eyes of the phoenix eye, and the two are opposite each other.

"Ask the teacher, respect."

Chu late Ning had prepared in his heart, but at this time it was more and more gloomy. He looked at him: "You still know that I am your master."

Listening to him, the teacher smiled softly, only then knowing his gentleness, what a sharp dagger is hiding.

"Well, of course I know. Jun is the umbrella for me, I have never forgotten."

Chu Xiaoning looks weak, but it can't change the natural flaws between his eyes. He stared at the teacher for a long while, his lips and teeth, and the words were crushed, very cold: "You are confusing."

Shi Yan smiled and said: "Carrying." After a pause, he asked again. "But when did Master Zhai guess my identity? Last life?"

Chu did not answer, but looked at him coldly and coldly.

There is resentment in the eyes, but the most lush is disappointment.

The teacher said: "No, it won't be a lifetime. If you have known in the last life that I am Hua Binan, you should tell the crime when you tear the time and space."

He lifted the eyelashes: "It's this life. Or, is it not long ago?... When you were in Longxue Mountain, how many times I heard a conversation with me?"

"..."

"Forget it, it doesn't matter." The teacher smiled. "No matter what, now you are in my palm, and I can't escape."

Chu night Ning became more and more silent.

In fact, among the three apprentices, the most incomprehensible is the teacher. He was willing to accept this apprentice because the teacher was gentle, gentle, able to worry, worry, and be kind to others. These are the courtesy of Chu Xiaoning. He couldn't do it himself, so he appreciated it, so he accepted this apprentice.

But sometimes, he always felt that something was wrong. For example, Xue Zhengxuan said that the teacher is an orphan who has been in the war, but when the teacher talks about his life, he occasionally has some prefaces. That gesture is like someone lying a lie and forgetting the details.

In some cases, the attitude of the teacher to the things revealed suddenly is a bit strange - like a domesticated dog, seemingly smooth, but as long as you smell the blood, you can't help but see the fierce light.

However, after observing for a few years, I have never seen any injustices in my teacher's work. Chu Xiuning feels that she is blind to her own eyes. She is a group of flowers and she is seen as a green face.

He is like a hedgehog, his body is very sharp, only the abdomen is soft.

He took his apprentice and hid all the people who were good to him under the soft stomach.

Regarding the teacher, he had passed between trust and distrust. He also had reservations and temptations, but he chose trust. Then the knife plunged from the belly of the hedgehog and flowed the blood of the ground.

The teacher asked: "What happened to you in the past?"

"..."

Also asked: "Would you not stand by and watch it? Why bother me."

"..."

There are too many annoyances in the past life. Finally, I can ask in this life. The teacher is not willing to stop, and there is no end to it: "Why didn't you kill the Emperor and help him reincarnate?"

Upon hearing the last sentence, Chu Nighting finally raised his eyes: "He is different from you."

Shi Yanwei: "There is something different. If I say that my mind is poisonous, why is he not full of blood?"

Chu nightning stared at him: "You are down, you know yourself."

"What about that? Even if it is my embarrassment, isn't it the one who killed him?" Shi Yan said, "You have seen it in the past life, half of the life of the mountain, Xue Zhengyi, Wang Chuqing, Jiang Yan, Ye Forg... Who are these people who died?"

He raised his hand slowly, licking his fingers and narrowing his nails.

A pair of delicate and clean palms, delicate and delicate, no stains.

The teacher blinked and smiled: "Is it me?"

"..." The anger ignited, and there was no speech for a while.

"I don't want to kill the Confucianism, I didn't think about killing Xue Zhengyi. So I shouldn't look for me if I want to collect debts." Shi said, "What did I do? But just planted a flower for him." I live so big, I haven’t killed anyone myself.”

The teacher continued to smile and said: "So in the end, the knife is what he took, and the person is his awkward. It doesn't matter much to me. The eight bitter long hate flowers will not bring him any new hatred. All his desires are Belong to himself, the curse can only magnify it. If this account is counted on me, I am wronged."

Every time he said a word, Chu Xining’s nausea added a point. Finally, he heard that he felt wronged. Chu nightly looked up and looked like an ice: "What can you be wronged?"

"It is his moving hand. What does the teacher blame me?"

"What kind of person is he himself? You don't know!"

Shi said: "Who is he himself is of course clear, I am afraid that it is the Master who respects you."

The orange had a white silk stuck in the fingertips. The teacher was too dirty, and the white panther was wiped out, and then one by one: "Why does the ink burn the Confucianism? Because he has hatred in his heart." Why can the ink burn kill Xue Zhengyi? Because he is fearful in his heart. Why does the ink burnt and humiliate you? Because he has desire in his heart."

The teacher said, lifted the eyelashes and glanced at the night of Ning: "Others scold him for a knife, he can't do forgiveness. Others give him the benefits, he can't refuse. The beauty is currently, he can't do it." It is his nature."

Chu nighting bites his teeth: "Shi Mingjing. You erased him to pure good thoughts, and expanded his heart's hatred to 10,000 times. Then he said that what he did is his own desire. Don't you think that you are ridiculous? Whose hatred will not destroy the earth after the magnified, you?"

"Who then makes him hate? Who makes him have ambitions in his own bones? Who makes him have desires?" Shi Yan smiled. "There is a skill, his heart is like a child, and no bad eyes have ever passed. Long hate flowers can't look down on any storms. So it's still blaming him for not being clean. But it's just a laity."

It’s very ugly to hear the face of Chu’s late night, just want to speak again, and listen to the teacher to make up a sentence.

"People are responsible for their own desires. There is nothing to argue about."

"..."

If I said that I had wanted to talk to him before, I suddenly found that there is no need to say anything, and it is not worth saying. Chu night Ning turned his face away.

The teacher saw his look and shook his head: "Master, you are too partial to him."

"..."

"In your eyes, there are reasons for him to do something, and it is understandable."

"Then tell me, I should understand who." Chu night Ning is extremely cold, "Are you?"

"..." The teacher calmed down for a moment and smiled. "So the Master still likes him?"

Chu nightning's gaze is like a icy lake reflecting the moon.

"So, in the past and present, I have been playing with Master for two generations. Even if I win, it is still better than him."

Chu night Ning coldly: "What do you compare with him."

The teacher narrowed his eyes: "Do you have only a few comments on me? Is there nothing else?"

Chu night Ning did not immediately return to him, look at his look, he seems to seriously think for a moment, then he picked up the eyelash curtain, very cold and quiet.

"Have."

The teacher smiled: "What is it?"

Chu night Ning no expression: "You don't have to burn with ink, you are even better than Xu Shuanglin. He is at least in love, dare to recognize. He is not like you, Hua Binan."

In the end, he didn't even call him a teacher.

Chu night Ningdao: "You are a confidant."

Chapter 254

The teacher slammed his mouth, and the white cheeks twitched slightly, similar to the shame of being slapped. But he still licked his lips: "You really have no face left for me."

As he said, his hand touched the lower jaw of Chu’s late night, but he was avoided by the night of the night.

The teacher narrowed his eyes, and for a moment his face was raining, but in the end it was extinguished as a sea of no waves.

"Don't say this." After restoring calm, the younger sister is still a gentle face. "You are a dead brain anyway. You used to want to kill him in the past life? But when you come to the head, you have no heart. You Even before the death, he put his own broken soul into his heart."

The teacher did not make a mistake. In the year of Kunlun Snowy, the life and death of the Kunlun Snows, Chu nightning touched the forehead with his fingertips for the last time. In fact, he was actually a remnant of his own.

In his life, in the end, the soul overflowed, and he stayed in the past in the burning of the body, and left it to the past himself. All that remained, he held the hope of the sorrow and gave it to the emperor.

Chu Xiening does not know how to break the flower in the third stage, but since the flower needs the soul of the curse to be able to bloom, then injecting his own soul may change.

He is not a disability, he has done his best to do it. He has always killed and decided, the only soft heart is the slight rain.

Because there is still a glimmer of hope that can be redeemed, so in the end, he still did not kill him. He did not hesitate to sacrifice his own broken soul, only hope to bring the former ink to the world.

Although he was not sure if it was useful at the time.

It seems that he saw his inner thoughts. The teacher smiled and said: "If you do that, you can't remove the mites in the ink-burning chest, but it can really disturb his mood, make him good and bad, and eventually become crazy. I will die from my death."

"..."

Chu night Ning looked slightly moving and raised his eyes.

In fact, when he contacted the stepping fairy who had no heartbeat in Lushan, he had already guessed the ending of the previous life, but when he heard the words "death and death", his heart was still dull. of.

The teacher looked at him and continued: "Master, you did it, you did protect him, and I didn't even know what happened. His soul was still born again. Oh, I still don't understand, you also It’s a waste person. How did it ruin my plan? You... I’m really surprised.”

His soft, grassy eyelashes fell, close, and seemed to want to kiss Chu.

Chu night Ning slammed back to the gods, raised his hand like a power, grabbed his throat, and his hands were violent.

The teacher did not change his look at half a point. He casually pinched Chu’s wrist, and seemed to have expected Chu’s reaction.

He laughed: "How? Master still wants to ruin me for the second time, the third time? It's a pity that it is too late, it is impossible."

When the voice fell, only the snake sounds, and a golden snake snakes out from the wide sleeves of the teacher, and bites a bit at the arm of Chu.

The snake did not know how to be fed, only a glimpse, the pain is difficult. Chu Xiaoning took off his hands and was held by the teacher's wrist, tied to the bedpost in a more humiliating position than before.

"You don't have to worry, this snake is not poisonous." The teacher tied his hands and then sat down. The cold white fingers touched the snake body of the golden ring snake, and the peach eyes were skewed. "This snake is specialized." Feeding for you, you will be weak when you take a bite. I am afraid of the Master, and I can only do it."

As soon as the teacher raised his hand, the snake sneaked into the sleeve and disappeared.

"Speaking, the past life is forced to helpless, let you stay with the ink rain for so long, I am actually very reluctant." He stood up, his fingertips calmly, actually began to remove his cloak, then the robe, and then... ...

Chu Xiaoning’s face changed abruptly, but it was disgusting: “Shi Mingjing –!”

The teacher is only a soft smile, approaching the late night of Chu: "Tell you a little secret. When you were married in the past, I went to the banquet as Hua Binan."

"!"

"Tai Xianjun has his selfishness and puts you in red silk, so that guests can't see your looks. I only know that he has a slap in the face, but I know that it is you. So after that day, I didn't have it. Go, I went to the Honglian otter - he came in later."

The teacher’s eyes flashed in the eyes.

"At that time, although he was controlled by a locust, I was able to think independently, so I can't let him find me. I hid and didn't leave."

Chu nightning shivered in detail, because of anger, but also because of extreme nausea.

The teacher sat down, and a pair of cool, cool hands slowly stroked his chest: "Do you know?"

His voice was hoarse and his eyes were greedy.

The fingertip moved down one inch and one inch, stopped at the abdomen of Chu night, and began to solve the girdle.

"You were lying under him that night, and he was painted with medicine, and he went to the waves and called... Hey, really." The eyes of the teacher were red, and they wanted, "Let me be thirsty for two lifetimes." ”

Chu nightning only felt shame, but the memory of the two worlds was extremely disappointing, and he was bitten by the golden ring snake. He had no strength at all. He broke his silver teeth: "Shi Mingjing, you fuck, give me a roll." Go out!"

The teacher sneered out loudly: "On the last bed, why is it so fierce, anyway, you have already been slept by your own apprentice. Do not pretend to be reserved?"

"Get out!!"

"Kneeling down to serve an apprentice, or two, is the same." The teacher is calm and unwilling. "I don't mind, why don't you enjoy it? Maybe my technique is not worse than him."

"you give me--"

When the voice did not fall, I heard a cold voice coming from the door.

"You get out of me."

Chu night Ning was like a thunder, slamming his head, Shimen did not know when it had been opened. An unrecognizable man embraced the black gold knives and stood against the semi-open secret room door. He went up to Mori, and his back was quite straight.

The teacher narrowed his eyes: "Is it...? So fast?"

The man's heavy steps stepped in, wrapped in chills, and the interior lights swayed, and the candlelight was cold on his black slim leather armor. At this time, I can finally see his appearance. He has a pair of narrow legs, wrapped in boots, and a thin silver belt with a silver dragon head cover, a sterling silver weapon, a sharp hand guard on the wrist, and black dragon scale gloves.

Going up again, it is a handsome face, and the heroic spirit between the eyebrows is almost extravagant - step on the emperor!

The emperor's body exudes a chilly and * sigh, as if he had just returned from the battlefield.

He raised his eyes, and even pale blood on his cheeks, his eyes like a bayonet, staring at the two people on the bed.

To be precise, he should only have a look at the night of the night, and then his eyes are straightforward and clear.

"Roll." The teacher saw him enter the house, first cold on his face, then straightened up and slowly sat up.

"Are you going to kill someone who is going to be alone in the moon?"

"No killing." Stepping on the side of the fairy, while walking to the white teeth, biting the edge of the glove, pick it up, revealing the hands of the bones below. He threw the blood-stained gloves on the table, staring at the teacher, and yelling, "I know each other. You don't have one of your souls."

The teacher’s face is also not good-looking, saying: “You better figure out who you are talking to.”

"This seat only knows if you are unhappy." Stepping on the cold and cold, "You got into the wrong bed and started."

"When is it your turn to call me three?"

Stepping on the dangerous king: "This seat has always been like this."

The teacher seems to be a little angry, and the scales in his eyes are flashing: "...I am your master!"

"How is it? The mountain is the land of this seat, and the person on the couch is the one in the seat." Stepping down the eyes of the fairy, the teacher is clear, the mouth is even with some ridicule, "Master. Please roll."

Stepping on the emperor and the teacher Ming net you say a word, * for tat, the fire is splashing. Chu Xiu Ning, some do not know what the situation is, silently watching.

Shi Ming Jing Fang said that stepping Xianjun is dead, so what is this person in front of him? piece? Live?

Also, what he managed to suppress in the past was clearly the locust on the "burning" of this life. The Emperor of the last life, because it was too deep, could not be restored. Therefore, in theory, he should love the teacher and love him so much that he can't extricate himself. I can listen to this tone, and I didn’t take the teacher’s net as a thing.

...and, what is the so-called master, what is going on?

The teacher stared at Teng Xianjun for a while, then laughed and got up.

He did not know anything about Chu’s late night, but he was very clear.

——The last generation was burnt and self-destructive. When he suddenly lost his minions, he refining the dead body with the soul of the body and making a living dead. This living dead is very similar to Jane Chess, and is willing to listen to him and retain all the consciousness of life.

But I don't know where something went wrong, maybe because the damage suffered during his lifetime was too great, or perhaps he had suffered too many reversals in his life, and his body was already broken. In short, in this living dead, in the heart of Xianjun - about the recognition of the teacher Knowing is extremely confusing. He feels that the teacher is alive for a while, and then he will think that the teacher is dead, and sometimes he even forgets who the teacher is. Therefore, even if you face Hua Binan's face face to face, stepping on the fairy will not realize that this is the teacher, but simply think that this is the "master." And he is not very willing to listen to the owner's words.

"I really can't help you."

The sergeant stepped forward and poked the forehead of Xianjun: "Soul!"

After a sigh of energy, after this action, the stepping of the fairy was a stiff, the original sharp eyes suddenly became scattered, and lost the focal length in an instant.

"It is obviously what I am doing, I am more and more disobedient, I always sing against me, and I want to retaliate against me." The teacher patted his cold face. "But forget it, I don't blame you, you are Not a complete 'person'."

Step by step: "..."

"That's forbearing," said the teacher. "I will get that kind of thing after a few days, reinventing you, and you will be embarrassed."

After he finished this sentence, the control of stepping Xianjun reached the limit. This recovery speed made Shi Yan's face more and more gloomy. He didn't think that it was only for such a short time. The Huanren who stepped on Xianjun returned to Guanghua, even more determined and colder than before.

This kind of cold-cold gaze focused on the teacher's body, stepping on the fairy, awkward eyes, and then the nose bridge wrinkled, looks like a cheetah with a waiter: "Well? Why are you still not rolling?"

Say, the narrow fingers are pinched on the handle.

"Looking at the target for this seat?"

The teacher did not say anything more to him, or said that the embarrassment of stepping on the king was deep, and Rao was the "master". Shi Mingjing also knew that he could not hold the reins on his neck.

This dark Lord is terrible if it is crazy.

The teacher left.

After he left, Teng Xianjun stared at the night on the bed and looked at it for a while. His expression was subtle and quirky. He seemed to be trying to restrain something and couldn’t help but craving something.

Finally he sat down, reached out and grabbed the waist of Chu Yuning.

"I……"

I paused and didn't know how to continue, so I licked my lips and changed my mouth.

"you……"

Chu night Ning looked at him, but the four eyes were relatively long, and there was still no following. He slowly and stunned his eyes.

"Cough, this seat has an important thing to tell you."

"You said."

Stepping on the fairy prince for a moment, he said that "it is not very important, or it is not said."

"..."

After a while, I opened my mouth with a more determined attitude: "It doesn't matter whether it matters or not. Since you want to know, telling you is no problem."

Chu nightning: "..."

"In fact, this seat wants to say..." Stepping Xianjun took a deep breath, closed his eyes, and spoke extremely violently. "This seat wants to say that after so many years, it seems... there are some who miss you..."

He quickly added a sentence, "But I don't think much, just a little."

He only spoke these two words, and the handsome and pale face immediately showed a regretful expression.

Chu night Ning looked at him, the soul and memory of his two generations intertwined, he did not even know what kind of state of mind to face this man.

But stepping Xianjun did not give him time to think.

He seemed to be a little annoyed. He simply untied the ropes on the night of Chu, and pulled the man over. A big hand touched the back of the night, and touched it, and then a thick kiss was impressed and lingering.

Stepping on the lips is cold, but the desire is fiery.

In this anxious and anxious kiss, the past is overlaid.

Chu Xiaoning was kissed by him. These two men, two broken souls, finally kissed together and entangled each other through the dust of their two lives.

When I was stepped in the arms and kissed in the arms, Chu Jingning seemed to think a lot, and it seemed like there was a blank in the brain, and nothing could be caught.

But in the end, he knew that his eyes were wet.

Right or wrong, good or evil, everything is difficult to define, everything is no longer clear.

But when he kisses a man who no longer has a temperature, he knows.

Stepping Xianjun did not lie to him.

The ink burned did not lie to him.

He really missed him.

Chapter 255

I don’t know how long a kiss lasted, and I stepped on him to let him go. Chu night Ningyuan thought that he would stop here, but he did not expect the lips to leave, and then touched.

Repeated this many times, stepping on the fairy is finally enough, he licked his lips, dark eyes staring at the face of Chu Xiaoning.

"No change, it is you."

There are too many things to ask, and the changes that are encountered are too great. After a quiet moment in Chu, I finally hoarsely said: "...the past things, you still remember?"

"natural."

"Do you remember how you died?"

The look of the emperor’s emperor is somewhat gloomy: “The ten sects have joined forces to besiege, and this seat is very sick.”

"Then you remember how I died?"

The sin of the stepping fairy eyebrows faded slightly, but it was caged with another layer of ashes: "You are blocking the big things in the snow palace, this place hates."

Chu Evening asked: "So, do you remember how you died and resurrected?"

"Hu Binan rescued."

“How specific?”

"This self..." but did not say anything again, stepping on the face of Xianjun gradually revealed a trace of embarrassment. But this kind of embarrassment did not last long. He closed his eyes, and when he opened it again, it was already clear.

Stepping Xian Jun frowned: "What did you just say?"

Chu nightning will not scream.

He almost knows what the teacher has done to this body. It is the most difficult to control from the ancient people. After the ink burns, the teacher can't fully control the emotion of this body, and he dare not beat the memory of the ink. To be more divisive, so I have to choose a few parts that will affect the important things of obscuration and eradicate them.

In front of this, I am afraid that it is just a weapon for walking dead.

Chu night Ning closed his eyes. After a while, he seemed to want to say something, but the words were not exported, and the throat was filled with sweetness. He coughed hard.

"Ink burning..." He dyed his blood between his lips and raised his eyes with water mist. "Don't do anything for others. You are already a body, and you should rest in peace. You... cough."

The front of the line burst into black, and the scattered pieces began to rise again.

You should go back to the past, you have been sleeping, and it is not yours.

However, this sentence is no longer enough to say, Chu nightning only moved his lips, and consciousness began to scatter again -

In the end, he only saw that Stepanjun was frowning and talking to himself. The handsome and pale face seemed to be a little anxious.

"Chu Ning," he vaguely heard that he was calling him, just like a past life, "Late..."

He closed his eyes, and the pain of the soul's reintegration invaded again. He didn't know the next thing.

Outside the mountains, the forest is bleak.

In the past few days, there have been drizzling rains in the middle of the day. Even the rafts with the rafts have produced a layer of mildew. They look out from the small window of the station, and the strings of water drops from the bamboo leaves, falling in the pool, and opening a little. ripple.

Suddenly, a pair of shoes stepped into the water, and the sky and clouds were broken.

Mo Zongshi appeared in front of the Qufu Mountain Road.

After the sudden change of the Dragon Blood Mountain, his spiritual power has not recovered, and he is unable to defend the sword. He was worried about his death and death, and he rushed back from the dragon blood horse, and spent a total of four days.

On the way, he actually thought a lot of things.

For example, why should he be born again? For example, why did the late Qing dynasty of the late Qing Dynasty lay this mystery in the Dragon Blood Cave, such as the teacher.

I have been thinking for a long time, but I can't find any clear answer.

He was not a smart person. Now he is suffering and worrying. He is more and more unable to calm down and think carefully. After all, he understands him. Chu is rather a soft rib of his life. When I think of it, I will undoubtedly pronounce his death sentence. He is in a mess. The rain gradually grew bigger, and the smoldering wind stood at the entrance to the mountain of the dead and dying. He looked up and his silvery cream fell on his face. In front of it, a stone step twists and turns, leading to the mountains of the clouds steaming Xia Wei.

This mountain road, the life has also passed, the death has also passed, the sorrow has also passed, the joy has also passed, the two have been countless times, from the younger times of less things, to the dust settled, the guilty return today.

It was very cold, and the rain mixed with snow seeds fell, wet his black clothes, and stained his hair.

The youth should have no worries, and the wind blows the snow...

The ink burned closed eyes, stepped on the long steps, and walked up the mountain.

A sinner who has thrown himself into the net has finally "opened up" the door of Zhu paint, the heart of the dead.

The door, slowly opening, his two years of madness and glory, nightmares and darkness are all here.

He remembered his past life. At the age of twenty-two, he changed his mind to Wushan, and his smashing and smashing, the dust and smoke dispersed. Before he stood in the old days, he vowed to go all over the world to honor the world. That life has fallen here, and this life is here to end.

In the heart of the Dan heart, there are people, and the people with heads and faces gather more than the mountain to attack Xu Shuanglin.

When I heard the opening of the door, everyone looked back, but saw a tall black man standing in front of the threshold, his face pale, and a few wet black hair in front of his forehead. The skylight is behind him, and the cockroaches are lead-gray, rainy and snowy.

No one thought that the ink burning would suddenly appear like this.

He is the hero who changed his life to Anping on the mountain, or is he the murderer who sees no blood on the night of the moon? What kind of person is he?

No one was snoring for a moment, and every pair of eyes stared at the returning man.

The person who trusted him felt that he was poor, wet and cold, like a dog who came home in the rain. People who don't trust him only think that he is terrible, dark and deep, like a ghost who climbs out of hell.

The rain continued to strike the ridge of the ridge, infiltrating the stone in front of the step, and the moss on the tile.

The ink burns up the black-painted eyelids, the fan-like eyelashes, and the eyes moisturize. He whispered: "Uncle, I am back."

"Fire! How are you - how are you alone?"

Xue Zhengyi sat in the position of honor, his face was very poor, and the rare ones were not trimmed. The iron fan was randomly spread on the table. The words "the world is very ugly" glimmered like a farce.

"Yu Heng?"

When the ink burned into the temple, he fell like a drop of water in the rolling oil that burned to the sun, causing it to sizzle. Almost everyone shouted a big step when he entered.

"Ink burning!"

"Devil, you have a face!"

"You killed so many people in the lonely night, you actually dare to show up!!"

The ink burned without paying attention to these sounds. This way, he had already heard about the * case that happened before the lonely moon night. He is also very clear that there will be more heartbreaking madness. What are dozens of people? Hundreds of thousands and tens of thousands of people, the world is a dead body in his eyes, a lonely moon night, stepping on the immortal will not be in the eyes.

"Maniac... You and Hua Binan are just a bunch!"

"What else do you want to do? Today's masters are here, and the Tianyin Pavilion will soon come. Even if you are scheming, you can't escape this day!"

"Ink burn, you are too cunning, you sing / red face for a while to sing a white face, make everyone confuse and then your * will be successful, how vicious you are!"

Surrounded by tidal slams and sorrows, an angry face is surging. No one cares about the ink, he continues to move forward, he has already understood the meaning of Hua Binan - forgive him for not wanting to call him a teacher.

Hua Binan gave him a grave. Even the inscription on the tombstone was written, and Huabi Nan was very clear, he would jump in himself.

Because, at the moment when Chu Jingning recalled his predecessor, Mo Weiyu had already sentenced himself to a dead body that could not be saved.

ended.

"Whether you wear a few fake masks on your face, today's heroes gather, you must dismantle your true face."

"You must be sent to Tianyin Pavilion!"

Noisy and loud people. The three words that pierce the eardrum are the most: "Tian Yin Ge."

The ink burned did not think that Hua Bi Nan would also bring in the Tianyin Pavilion. Coincidence? Still planning?

The mighty sound of the heavens is an ancient sect that has been handed down for thousands of years in the realm of cultivation. The head of this martial art was first known as the son of the gods and mortals, and later generations were passed down by blood. In the past generations, the blood of the Tianyin Pavilion has been thin, but it is still very aura. Although Tianyin Pavilion is not involved in red dust, but like a mortal believe in monks, monks also believe in the justice of Tianyin Pavilion.

The authority of a hundred years has been difficult to overthrow, not to mention the millennium. Therefore, even if I used to go to the world to win the world, I finally left the pure land of Tianyin Pavilion. The teacher is very clever, and it is better to put the ink on to the Tianyin Pavilion. No one will disobey the judgment, and no one can disobey the judgment.

There was a lot of noise in the hall, and the ink burned along the carpet embroidered with Du Ruo, went to the front, and then stood still.

"I……"

The man only said one word, and the human voice suddenly went out. They stared at him, and many people’s eyes were hatred and alert.

They waited for his arguments and other ills to wait for his fault. They stretched their necks and prepared to rush to smash the sly demon into pieces.

This person is difficult to distinguish between good and evil, unpredictable, but rather kills, can not let go, must - "I come to sin."

The bird is silent, even more silent than it is.

It’s like honing a knife and fighting for a big fight. The golden drum is ringing and killing, but suddenly it is known that the enemy generals have been self-selling.

It is ridiculous.

"what did he say?"

Only a few people responded, but couldn't believe that this demon confessed so easily, so he whispered to the person next to him: "Does he say that he is coming to sin?"

The ink burned down the curtain, kneeling down, facing the uncle and aunt, and Xue Meng, who was pale. The light shadows reflect his handsome and thin face.

He really wants to lead the neck, but Hua Binan counts him so much, and he won't let the person be so comfortable. Before he blasphemes, he still has one thing to do -

He will do his last bit of power to protect those who can no longer be protected.

Then the ink burns slowly and the voice is blazing.

"I am really full of blood, because I have personally hatred and killed a lot of people. Although I want to repent in these years, I still have no guilty sins. This matter is also known to me, and I am known as a prince today. Chen has shown his guilt and has another matter to declare."

He paused, and the words fell, like a knife: "I have no friendship with the teacher."

When I heard this sentence, most of the people present were shocked: "What happened?"

To know that the mentoring of the mentoring is a great scandal in the realm of cultivation, this kind of thing, whether it is a master or an apprentice, is very difficult to face. So as long as there is no blood and deep hatred, even if the relationship is not bad, the surface kung fu will always do enough.

After the horror, many people whispered: "Isn't it good before? How come suddenly, it won't be tempting."

"I don't look like it, will it be what happened to them later in Lushan?"

"It is possible... Chu Xianning does not seem to put the apprentice in his eyes. When Shi Mingjing was shackled by Hua Binan, did he not let go to save it? The people later even stunned their eyes... I am his apprentice, and I am also chilling."

People's voices rise and fall like tides.

Among these voices, the ink burn continues: "He can't resist me. It's small to kill people and set fire. But all the time, he treats me indifferently, and humiliates my dignity. This person is full of the world, but he treats disciples everywhere, how hypocritical! If it weren't for him, I wouldn't have come to this field at all."

It hurts too much.

He stopped his voice, his lips and teeth trembled slightly, but he still had to finish it word by word. Will be thousands of knives.

"It is him who harms me. He mistaken me. I have nothing to do with him. I have been worshipping him as a teacher. Now, I have completely broken with Chu, and I will treat me as his disciple in the future..."

He lifted his cockroach and stepped on the eyes of Xianjun.

"That is disgusting me, I hope that the kings will not mention it!"

Xue Zheng stunned: "Fire children -!"

Xue Meng is even more unmanned: "Brother, are you crazy?! Do you know what you have said!"

The ink burned and closed his eyes. He didn't want to go to see anyone in the Xuemeng family. The "brother" had pierced his heart like a claw.

The ink burned and said: "In addition to this, I still have something to watch."

"If you plead guilty, you will plead guilty. Where is one, two, three things, you --"

The man had not complained yet, and was stopped by Jiang Yan, the head of today's cents. Jiang Yan looked at the ink: "...please say."

Ink ignited: "I have a deep sorrow and a good confession. But the moonlit night is not what I did."

Many of them were here to discuss blood debts. The mood was originally very exciting. At this time, he was denied the murder of the lonely moon night. There have been a lot of words:

"Hah! Joke! This is a fact of ironclad, what else can you argue!"

"Yes, not who you are?"

Ink burning: "I was not at the end of the night, when I was in the Dragon Blood Mountain with Chu night. It was someone else who did this. And that person, if I did not make a mistake, it should be..."

He hesitated, did not immediately report the identity of the emperor.

He is not afraid of the wrath of everyone, but he believes that no one in the scene will believe that the door to life and death has broken open, and there is another escaping such ridiculous thing.

"who is it?"

The ink burned his lips and decided to take the time to step on Xianjun later. So he did not answer immediately. Instead, he said, "Who is after me?" In short, the man colluded with Hua Binan, one was in a lonely moon night. Planting the other, the other took away the late night."

After he finished this sentence, the crowd divided two voices.

The first wave of sound is weak, but it is also clearly identifiable. Most of the disciples who are dead and dying are shouting: "What happened to the elders of Yuheng?!"

"Where did the elders take?!"

Another voice is the group of people who came to the house to ask for sin.

"Ink, do you think we will believe you?"

"You don't know what medicine to sell in your gourd! What other people, I am jealous of you and Hua Binan is a group! On the Lushan Mountain, you both colluded to play a play!! You do not hesitate to die Many people, even ignoring the friendship of the same brothers and brothers, have harmed the teacher, you, you are a liar!!"

Hearing the name of the teacher, the ink burned slowly and looked up at Xue Zhengyi on the seat. He looked at Xue Meng again: "The teacher yelled at him..."

Xue Meng cares about chaos, grabbing the next step: "What happened to him? How is he?"

You can't look at him at all.

Seeing a person's broken appearance, just one time is enough.

The ink burns the road: "The teacher is Hua Binan."

Dead and silent.

For a long while, Xue Meng slammed down and sat back on the seat, muttering: "What a joke, how could it be..."

Yes, if you don’t see it with your own eyes, you will hear it, and you will want to say how it is possible. The teacher is so gentle, so beautiful, the three of them have experienced many storms together. For him, the teacher is the first true friend of his life.

But this friend is fake, but it’s just a mirror.

So ridiculous.

The people around have talked about it: "What is messy?"

"Insane, then a little monk, will be the first holy hand in the world?"

"If the teacher is Hua Binan, he helps us to solve the heartworm in Lushan."

There are also people who have been saved by the teacher in Lushan. They are especially grateful to the teachers. At this moment, regardless of 3721, they angered at him: "Ink burns, you actually say this big to cleanse your sins." The word of sorrow, you are bloody!"

At this time, I kept frowning, and Jiang Yan, who did not speak, also spoke.

"Do you have any evidence that Hua Binan is Shi Mingjing?" Jiang Yan said, "Hu Binan has been under my door for many years and has never left the lonely moon night. If you say that he is Shi Mingjing, then how can he do it at the same time? Two locations?

Chapter 256

"The cold scales are covered with black crepe all day long, and they are not closed in the alchemy room all the year round. They are in contact with the outside world. Therefore, as long as you control a person of similar size, it is difficult for others to detect."

Jiang Yan frowned: "What do you mean, Hua Binan on a lonely moon night is fake?"

"Sometimes true, sometimes fake. To be undetected, it is the most comprehensive."

Jiang Yansi said: "As a result, Shi Mingjing should use Zhenqi chess, but our medicine is not strong, and it is unlikely to master this technique."

"Jiang Jiangmen said that it is a good thing. The wisdom of the chess game needs to be worn out. Hua Binan knows the theory, but it is weak because of the weak mana, and he can't use it alone. So he had to collud with Xu Shuanglin before."

Jiang Yan shook his head: "No. Xu Shuanglin once said that the person behind the scenes is his friend. Because he does not want to sell his friends, he did not tell us who the identity of that person is. If you say it, the teacher is Hua Binan and Xu Shuanglin should have recognized him. So why did Xu Shuanglin still have no rebellion after the reincarnation of ecstasy was destroyed by Hua Bi Nan?"

Ink burning: "Because Xu Shuanglin does not know that the teacher and Hua Binan are the same person."

The master of the mysterious mirror next to him said: "Since they are each other, how can such a big event not know..."

"It’s Xu Shuanglin who treats the teacher as a friend." Mo Yan said, "But the teacher can't really get along with him. On this board, Xu Sulin is just an important piece, and that's it."

He paused and continued: "When I was in the Lushan Hall, Hua Binan was injured and took off the veil. The face was so ugly, like a echinoderma, now I want to come, it should be just a delicate piece. People/skin mask. For Xu Shuanglin, he may have only seen his first face of this 'friend' in his life, that is, the face belonging to the teacher. He will not touch the face of Huabi Nan. It is connected with the teacher. So he didn’t think that he was framed or used by his friends until he died. Naturally, he would not shake the truth behind him."

Jiang Yandao: "According to your point of view, at the time of Lushan, Shi Mingjing and Hua Binan appeared at the same time. One of them was a controlled piece of chess?"

"I guess so. But there is a second possibility."

"what?"

The ink swayed and shook his head: "The second kind I want to wait a little longer."

Master Xuanjing said: "Even if the first kind of ink donor may be right, the poor still feel that there is still a place to say no way - Hua Binan has no reason to interrupt Xu Shuanglin's rebirth. Does he have a hatred with Xu Shuanglin? Is it possible for Xu Shuanglin to repay his wish and let Luo Fenghua be born again, what harm has he done to him?"

The ink sighed and said: "Did the master forget the final result of Xu Sulin's cast?"

The old vulture did not respond for a moment and shook his head.

Ink burning: "From the perspective of the crack that opened that day, the teacher did not teach Xu Shuanglin the real rebirth."

"what……"

"He has been deceiving Xu Shuanglin. Xu Shuanglin has spent a lot of time on Zhou Zhang, thinking that he is arranging the rebirth method, but in fact he is making a wedding dress for Hua Binan who is not spiritually strong."

"What is Hua Biannan teaching..."

"It is the world's largest ban." The ink burned and finally said, "He taught Xu Shuanglin that it is time and space."

"!"

When I participated in the Battle of Lushan in the field, I couldn’t think of the black hole that broke open in the sky, and there were thousands of mysterious monks inside...

Is that the time and space of life and death?

Ink burning: "This is the second possibility that I just said. As long as there are sometimes empty doors, both Hua Binan and Shi Yi may be true, but one belongs to this red dust, and one one comes from another. Comprehension."

After listening to the silence, everyone immediately patted their legs and laughed: "Mr. Mozong, do you sleep with your child? Take the forbidden technique in this mythology to swear. Two teachers are clear... Hahahaha! Laugh me. It is."

"That's how it is possible, but it was a ban that was lost thousands of years ago... Who can learn?"

"The most important volume of time and space, the legend has long been sealed in the emperor's wood, even if someone is studying this curse, can learn the most space, it is impossible to be time and space. Otherwise one earth and another earth Overlapping, the world is not a mess!"

I don’t want to argue with them, but to talk about all my thoughts. He knows that this is probably the last confession of himself as a Mo Zong teacher. After today, these people may not give him any chance to explain anything later.

He used confession as a bargaining chip in exchange for a little calmness of those who ordered the fate, only wishing to tell the people who were guessing what he knew. Regardless of whether they believe it or not at the moment, he said it, it is an alarm. If there is turmoil in the future, how many people will remember his reminder today, it may not be too late.

"Thinking about it, if I am Hua Bi Nan, I have the essence of the chess game and the time and space, but I am not born with enough spiritual power and I have no position to act. What should I do?"

Most of the people in the room are ruthless about the ink, and are not willing to listen to his advice.

However, Jiang Yan was still appreciative of the ink burning because of some previous things, not to mention the * case of the lonely moon night. He was also suspicious in his own heart. Therefore, he pondered for a while and said: "...will find someone to help."

"Who will help you?"

"no one."

Inkburn said: "Yes, there really is no one, so I can only lie. I deceive a person like Xu Shuanglin who has a great desire in his heart to help him complete the plan step by step."

Master Xuanjing said: "The ink lord is ridiculous. The ruling is not likely to be something else. Time and space are not something that ordinary people can learn. For thousands of years, no one has ever. The most important one is the essence. They have been lost, who can practice it?"

"That is, this is simply a fantasy."

"You simply said that Fuxi Dashen came to the world, and this is no different from the opening and closing of time and space."

"It's really ridiculous, and the storytelling doesn't dare to say that."

In the heart of the Danxin Temple, in the end, some people sneered: "Mo Zongshi, paving the way for so long, you should not want to tell us that the people who killed the heroes in the lonely moon night are coming through the door of life and death. The other one in the world?"

Ink burning: "..."

Seeing him not snoring, some people in the hall laughed: "It’s amazing. It’s really amazing. In order to excuse himself, the ink masters have compiled everything."

"Dare to spend a long time, do you want to wash your own crimes?"

Jiang Yan couldn't stand such a noisy. He turned to his sleeves and yelled at the few people who took the lead: "Speaking, what does yin and yang do?"

The master of the mysterious mirror is in line with the tenth: "Jiang Jiangmen, it is not the yin and yang of others, it is really the words of Mo Zongshi. It is too ridiculous. According to Laojiao, it is better to invite it to Tianyin Court for trial. ""

"Yeah, the Tianyin Pavilion owner will arrive soon, wait for her to come, let the Mo Zongshi take a trip with her."

Jiang Yan also had a chance to speak in the future. Xue Zhengxuan spoke. Although he had a complicated mind, he still said: "I think the words of the child can be explained. Maybe the time and space door has really been torn. Tianyin Pavilion is Before the trial of the heinous, he can't go with you until things are clear."

"Yes!" The disciple who has died of life and death stood up. "Heshan lives and dies. If it is not for the Brothers of Mercy to save you, can you stand here with great enthusiasm? If he wants to subvert the upper and lower circles, he will be completely trapped. It’s not good on Mount Lushan!”

Master Xuan Jing glanced: "This..."

Someone said: "It is true. At that time, everyone was trapped in the mountains. It was the master of Mozhao who managed to let us out. He wanted to harm people. Then he could start."

This is true. Many people have pondered this problem and are silent for a while.

But silence does not mean recognition. Many people present at the moment are still wearing filial piety, and their relatives and friends are newly mourned. The mood is extremely sad. What's more, the survivors of the Lushan Flower Hall at that time were witnessing the murder of the murderer. In addition to Mei Hanxue, the witnesses expressed doubts about the situation at that time. Others confirmed that it was the smoldering deity. Under such circumstances, it is easy for them to give up looking for ink to burn their debts, but to believe in the time and space that has occurred in mythology.

So soon, some people replied: "But I think this is very uncomfortable. Don't you remember? On the Huangshan Mountain, Mo Zongshi's control over the whole situation and the chess game is extremely accurate. He said that Shi Mingjing will Jane Chess, but I think that the person who knows a lot about this ban is his own."

"Yes." After the rebuttal, there was another person immediately. "There is one more thing. Don't you feel embarrassed? Why can you burn the enchantment?" He is not the back of the Nangong family. ""

The voice fell, this time, a heart of Lang Lang, a Lang Lang female voice.

"This is nothing to be embarrassed. Because the Mozong master is in the blood of the Nangong family."

Everyone looked back, but saw a squadron dressed in silver-colored attire with a silver medal on the waist. The head of the squad was a woman who was squatting up to 2,800 years old. The birth is extremely glamorous, and even comparable to Song Qiutong, the first beauty in the comprehension of the year, but her beauty is beautiful, but the whole person's temperament is very cold.

When everyone saw her, most of them were discolored, and even a few faces had awe.

Only Jiang Yan did not respond too much, nodded: "The owner finally came."

This hard-wearing woman is the main smoke of the Tianyin Pavilion in the rivers and lakes.

The wooden cigarettes lead the Tianyin Pavilion, and the case of the ups and downs of the crimes will fall to her hands. She will preside over the trials - but there are not many cases that need to be dispatched by Tianyin Pavilion, so the leaders of Tianyin Pavilion often Ten or twenty years will not appear in front of everyone.

Because it is not often out, the skin of the wood smoke is extremely white, showing the light green blood vessels under the hidden skin. She walked into the temple and stopped, faintly said: "Sorry, let you stay for a long time."

Master Xuanjing asked: "The cabinet owner is a little late than the appointment, but what happened in the cabinet?"

The wooden cigarette shook his head and shook his head: "It is not the case. Tianyinge has never arrested anyone. So before I came here, my cabinet was thoroughly examining the past events of the dead masters."

She paused, and a pair of apricot eyes looked coldly and smoldered. Zhu Lips lightly said: "Under this investigation, I found out that the matter is not so simple. The identity of the Mo Zongshi... actually involved a lot of Xiangtan years ago. Old case."

Everyone looked at each other and had some doubts: "What old case?"

Only the whitening face is whiter, and the palms are sweating.

He did not expect this to be said at the moment.

The wood smoke is like a scorpion, and the man who squats in front of the temple indifference, said: "Mo Xianjun, gossip does not speak. Your own life, you have your own heart, is your mouth public, or ask me to invite witnesses into the temple ?"

"..." The ink burns and closes the eyes.

As early as the beginning of rebirth, he knew that if there was no worries in the world, there were several people in this world who must kill the eternal suffering. But at first, he has no strength and no chance. Later, with strength and opportunities, they are no longer willing to take the lives of others for their own personal gain.

In order to conceal his own life, the chips in the handshake, the number of people he killed was enough.

When the wooden cigarette saw him silent, he said: "It seems that Mo Zongshi does not intend to confess himself."

When she finished, the cold and beautiful face showed a touch of indiscriminate inferiority, and then the sleeves turned and faced the guests, and the voices were like bells.

"That would be for me. You and listen - this famous master is already a murderer who has carried dozens of lives before he succumbs to death. These wicked people, early The rope is in order!"

"what?!"

"Have he killed dozens of people before the entry?"

Xue Meng’s eyes widened and he was full of anger. He murmured: “Brother...?”

This sound is not light, but it just falls into the wood smoke from the ear. The wood smoke leaves the young master of death and death, and faintly said: "Brother?"

Xue Meng: "..."

The rain and snow outside became bigger and bigger, and the sky was getting heavier and heavier. Even though the candle in the hall was bright, he could not breathe.

The look of the wood smoke from the smoldering is full of inferiority, and the look of Xue Meng is immersed in sneer. Her lips are like Danxia, saying: "Revenge is a brother, and Xue Shaozhu is really pitiful."

Xue Meng Ming Ming did not respond to the meaning of this sentence, but the skull has already thundered, as if the ground cracked. He took a clear look and stepped back: "What... what is a brotherhood?"

He trembled all over his body: "What are you talking about..."

The wood smoke no longer cares about him, and turned to say: "Ink rain, not the scorpion of Xue Zhangmen. What's more." She paused, a pair of beautiful and ruthless eyes like a sharp knife, passing Xue Zhengyi and Mrs. Wang’s face is not without justice, not without cruelty:

"The relatives of Xue Zhangmen, already eight years ago, have already died in the hands of ink!"

Chapter 257

"what?!!"

Full of color!

Only a person who burns a person closes his eyes and calms like water.

Everyone made a mess: "What the * is going on?"

"What was the old case of Xiangtan that year?"

"Why is he killing..."

The wooden cigarettes left the road: "This is a long story, and because of the age, many people who know the inside are gone. But if you don't know, unless you have nothing to do, Tianyinge has found some evidence. ""

In this smoke, which is intertwined by human language and horror, the wooden smoke is calmly looking back: "The few witnesses Xiangtan found, have you brought it?"

With the door of the servant, he replied: "Returning to the lord, all waiting outside the hall."

"Then go and ask the first witness to come in."

The first witness entered the temple. He was a veteran artist. He was very old. He was carrying his back and squatting. He was only interested in Nono. He saw the full house of Xianjun. The first reaction was actually a slamming on the ground, and even the beheaded dagger. In the mouth, I was anxious: "By the singer, Grandpa Sinjun... I have been to you, Grandpa Sinjun..."

The wood smoke has slowed down from the tone: "The old gentleman has a hard time, and there is a lot of hard work along the way. You don't have to be nervous. I only ask some questions. One answer, one answer is two."

The old man couldn't stand, and the monk of the Temple of Nothing walked over and gave him a seat to help him sit up, but he was very scared. He only took a small half of his * and tried to shrink himself to a minimum.

The wooden cigarette left the mouth: "The first two questions. Where is the gentleman? What to do?"

The old man’s teeth trembled, and when he opened his mouth, it was a thick accent: “I...I’m from Xiangtan, just paste the lantern on the street...”

Everyone was very curious to look at him, from sparse cranes to broken shoes. They don't know what the lanterns can shake and what they are going to do.

The wooden cigarette leaves the question: "How many years have you sold the lantern?"

"For most of my life... there are always fifty years, and I can’t remember it..."

"For a long time, I have to ask you something that is not as far as fifty years." The wooden cigarette said, and he showed him the ink. "Does this person, the husband do not recognize it?"

The old man looked up and looked at the ink, and saw that this person was tall and handsome, and he was so eager to look at it. He immediately turned his eyes away. After a while, he hesitated to steal him, and snorted and said: "I don't know."

The wooden cigarettes left the road: "I don't know how to be surprised. Then I will ask you again. When you were selling lanterns next to the drunken jade building in Xiangtan, did you always have a small child, and you would like to stand by your booth and watch your paste lanterns?"

"Ah..." The old man’s eyes were murky, but he was very clear about this matter. He sighed and nodded. "Yes, there is such a child, almost every night, he likes the lanterns I made, but poor. Ah, I can't afford it... I talked to him at that time, and he didn't like the snoring, the courage was very small."

"Do you remember his name?"

"Oh, it seems to be called... ink... ink burning?"

Everyone is still listening to the old man's words. At this time, the sights are all on the ink.

The old man sinks into the memories of the past and swears: "I don't know if I have this ‘children'. I only know that he is the one in the drunken building...”

Xue Zhengyu interrupted his face with a calm face: "The burning child was originally the son of the first brother and the Louzhong mother. The wooden cabinet owner asked the old gentleman to prove it again. What do you mean?"

"嬷娘?" The old man snorted and waved his hand. "Oh oh, no. The son of Sang Niang is also a surname of ink, but he is called Mo Nian. He was a famous bully at the end of the street." The old man said, Licking his head down, he pointed to an old scar on his head.

"I was still smashed by bricks, and the child was fierce, wild and skinny."

Xue Zhengxi’s face has changed: "Ink... read?"

Mrs. Wang anxiously said: "Is the old gentleman remembering the mistake? After all, it is also a word difference. Is the child of the mother-in-law called the ink burning, or the ink?"

"...is the ink." The old man thought for a moment and nodded again. "I can't go wrong. How can I remember it? It is called Mo Yan."

Xue Zhengyi’s own child leaned forward slightly, and he heard this sentence for a moment, then he was on the seat and his eyes were worried.

"Ink..."

The wood smoke continued to ask: "The child who came to see your light lamp, he is doing in the drunken building, do you know?"

"Hey, I don't know the specifics. I know it is the head of the house to help me with the cooking." The old man said, "The reputation is not so good. It is said that the hands and feet are not clean, and the guests are always stealing things." He tried hard and then seemed to think of it. What happened, his face changed a bit. "Ah, think of it, the little child can't do it. After growing up, it gets worse and worse. Later, he also insulted a yellow flower niece. The prostitute couldn't stand it and finally committed suicide."

"what?!"

If it is said that the civet cat has changed the prince, then it is even more irritating to smear the girl before the smoldering.

There are a lot of parents who are parents, immediately angered and rushed to the crown, gnashing their teeth: "I don't think... the Tang Mozong master is such a beast with a human skin!"

"too disgusting!!!"

"Death is not enough!"

There was no snoring in the ink, only quietly watching the old artist.
