Mo Ran felt that taking Chu Wanning as his master was a mistake.

His Shizun was just so similar to a cat, while he was like a silly dog.

Dogs and cats were biologically different. The silly dog hadn’t originally intended to put his furry paws out towards that cat.

He originally thought that dogs should be with dogs, like his senior brother, who was beautiful and docile, like a cute Japanese Spitz. They would look so good together.

But after dying and coming back to life, after living two lifetimes, the one he’d brought back to his den both times was that snow-white kitty Shizun that he didn’t even have his eye on at first.

Chapter 1

When the ink burned was not the emperor, there was always someone who told him to be a dog.

The treasurer licked his dog son, the guest licked his dog, the cousin licked his dog, his mother was the most powerful, and he was raised by his dog.

Of course, there have always been some dog-related descriptions, not too bad. For example, his dew love, always with a bit of anger, slap him on the couch like a male dog, sweet talk on the mouth of the soul, under the murder weapon to win the Qing life, but then go and Others show off, and everyone in the corrugated world knows that he is drizzling with a sneaker, and he has tried the fullness of his heart.

I have to say that these people are quite right, and the ink burning is really like a silly dog shaking his head.

It was not until he became the emperor of the real world that such a name suddenly disappeared.

One day, a fairy godmother sent him a milk dog.

The dog met gray, three fires on the forehead, a bit like a wolf. But only the melon is so big, it grows like a melon head, it is fat and round, but I feel that I am very prestige. I am running around the hall, I want to climb the high steps several times, to see it well, to sit on the emperor. The people, but because the legs are too short, they all ended in failure.

The ink burned and stared at the empty and powerful, but the real hairless group looked at the whiskers, and suddenly smiled, laughing and whispering, dog things.

The milk dog quickly grew into a big dog, the big dog became an old dog, and the old dog became a dead dog.

The burning of the eyes is sturdy, and the complex is opened again. His life, the humiliation of the ups and downs, or the ups and downs, has passed for thirty-two years.

He is tired of everything, feels boring and lonely, and there are fewer and fewer people familiar with him in these years. Even three fires have their lives, and he feels that it is almost the same. It is over.

Take a crystal and rich grape from the fruit bowl and slowly peel off the purple skin.

His movements were so skillful, like the smashing of the king in the account, stripping the clothes of Hu Ji, with some lazy. Bi Yingying's flesh trembled at his fingertips, the juice drenched, and the purple color was faint, like the geese Danxia came, like a sea otter spring to sleep.

It is like dirty blood.

As he swallowed the sweetness in his mouth, he looked at his fingers and then squinted his eyes.

He thought that the time was almost there.

He should also go to hell.

The ink burns and the word is light rain.

The first king of the realm of comprehension.

It is not easy to sit in this position. It is not only the extraordinary spells, but also the rock-solid cheeks.

Before him, the top ten martial arts in the comprehension circle resisted the courtesy. The sects are intertwined, and no one can change the land by one's own strength. What's more, all of you are full of classics, even if you want to seal your own title, you will also scrutinize the history of the official, afraid of carrying on the name of the millennium.

But the ink burns differently.

He is a rogue.

What others did not dare to do, he eventually did. Drinking the hottest wines in the world, the most beautiful woman in the world, first became the lord of the cultivation of the immortal world, "Tai Xianjun", and then to self-proclaimed emperor.

The people are crouching.

All those who did not want to kneel were killed by him. In those years when he dominated the world, the realm of cultivation was a * sorrow. Countless righteous people went to death, and the Confucianism in the top ten sects was even more difficult.

Later, even the indelible servant was unable to escape the claws, lost in the confrontation with the ink, and was taken back to the palace by the old lovers, no one knows where it is.

The great rivers and mountains of the original Qinghai River suddenly became smoky.

The dog emperor burned the book for a few days, and it was a person who had no taboos. So during his tenure, the absurdity was endless, and he said the year.

When he was the emperor's first three years, the year number "Wang Ba" was thought of when he was sitting at the pond feeding the fish.

In the second three years, the year number "呱", Gain heard the frog in the courtyard in summer, and decided that this is a godsend and can not be disappointed.

The folks of the school had thought that there would be no more miserable years than "Wang Ba" and "呱", but they still knew nothing about the ink rain.

In the third three years, the local community began to make a fuss. Whether it was Buddhism, Taoism, or spiritual repair, those who could not stand the violent violent/political affairs began to rush to fight for the uprising.

So, this time, the ink burned seriously for a long time, after drafting countless times, a year of the world of screaming ghosts and gods was born - "戟 ”.

The meaning is good, the two words that the First Emperor tried to figure out, and took the good intention of "striking." It’s just that the folks are a bit embarrassed when they say it.

Especially illiterate, it sounds even more embarrassing.

In the first year, I called the first year of the singer. How do I hear how it is like a chicken?

The second year is called chicken / / two years.

Chicken / / Pakistan for three years.

Someone closed the door and screamed: "It's ridiculous, why don't you come to an old age! After seeing a man, you don't have to ask the other person, Geng, ask the other person is a few years old chicken / / Ba! The hundred-year-old man is called A hundred years old chicken / / Pakistan!"

It’s been hard to get through for three years, and the year of “戟戟” has finally turned over.

The people of the world are waiting for the fourth year of the emperor's trepidation, but this time the ink burned but did not think about it, because in this year, the turmoil of the comprehension world finally broke out. He has swallowed up the rivers and lakes of the past ten years, and the heroes of the genius, finally joined together and formed a million-strong army of Haohao Tangtang, forcing the palace to emperor.

The emperor does not need the emperor.

Especially do not need such a tyrant.

After several months of * logging, the Rebels finally came to the foot of the dead mountain. The rugged mountains in the middle of the mountain are haunted all the year round, and the ink-burning palace stands at the top.

The arrow is on the string, overthrowing the storm / / politics only left the last blow. But this shot is also the most dangerous. Seeing the victory and the light again, the original allies with the enemy are beginning to be different. When the old emperor is destroyed, the new order will be rebuilt. No one wants to spend his own strength at this time. Therefore, no one is willing to be the pioneer of this battle and take the lead to attack the mountain.

They are all afraid that this savage tyrant will suddenly descend from the sky, revealing the bright white teeth of the beasts, and the people who dare to attack his palace will break open and bite into slag.

Some people looked at each other and said: "The ink is weak and powerful, and it is poisonous. We are still cautious and don't take his way."

The generals have joined together.

However, at this time, a young man with a very handsome face and a glamorous face came out. He wore a silver-blue sash, a lion's belt, a high-end ponytail, and a delicate silver hairpin at the bottom.

The young man’s face is very ugly. He said: “It’s all at the foot of the mountain. You’re still swearing and refusing to go up here. Is it because you want to wait for the ink to rain and climb down? It’s a waste of fear!”

He said this, the people around him blew open.

"What did Xue Gongzi say? What is it that is courageous? Every soldier is a family matter, and he is cautious. If you are not like you, who is responsible for the incident?"

Immediately someone ridiculed: "Oh, Xue Gongzi is the pride of the sky, we are just ordinary people, since the pride of the sky can not wait to compete with the people of the world, then you just go up the mountain first. We put wine in the mountains There is a banquet, so it’s good to wait for you to lift the head of the ink rain."

These words are agitated. An old monk in the Allied Forces quickly stopped the young people who were about to attack, and changed to a nostalgic face, and eloquently advised:

"Xue Gongzi, please listen to the old saying, the old man knows that you and the ink rain are very deep. But the matter of forcing the palace is of great importance. You must consider it for everyone, but don't be tempted."

The "Xue Gongzi" of the public is called Xue Meng. More than ten years ago, he used to be the young leader of the aunt.

However, when the time passed, the tiger fell to Pingyang, but he had to endure the ridicule and ridicule of these people, only to see the side of the mountain.

Xue Meng’s face was distorted, his lips trembled, but he tried to press his knees and asked, “When are you waiting for it?”

"At least look at the movement again."

"Yes, what if there is an ambush in the rain?"

The old monk and the muddy old monk also advised: "Xue Gongzi don't worry, we have already reached the foot of the mountain, or be careful. Anyway, the ink rain has been trapped in the palace, and it is not coming down. He is now the end of the strong, If we can't get into the climate, why should we act rashly in order to figure out this moment? There are so many people in the mountains, so many people are famous. If you lose your life, who can be responsible?"

Xue Meng suddenly angered: "Responsible? Then I ask you, who can be responsible for the life of my master? I burned his house for ten years! For ten years! Right now, my master is on the mountain. How can you let me wait?"

As soon as he heard Xue Meng mention his master, everyone's face could not be hanged.

"A decade ago, the smoldering self-sufficiency stepped on Xianjun, and it was not counted in the 72nd city of Confucianism. It was also necessary to annihilate the remaining nine sects. Later, the ink burned the emperor, and you must kill them, the two catastrophe, and finally Who is blocking him? If it’s not for me, I’m still alive, can you still live? Can you stand here and talk to me?”

In the end, someone coughed twice and said softly: "Xue Gongzi, you don't want to be angry. The things of Chu Zongshi, we... are very guilty and grateful. But as you said, he has been under house arrest for ten years, if There is nothing long..... So, you have been waiting for ten years, and you are not in a hurry for this moment. Are you right?"

"Yes? Go to your mother!"

The man opened his eyes: "How can you marry?"

"Why don't I marry you? The master respects him and dies. It is actually to save you... this..."

He can no longer say it, his throat choked: "I am not worth it for him."

At the end of the discussion, Xue Meng slammed his head, his shoulders trembled, and he held back tears.

"We have not said that we can't save Chu Master..."

"Yeah, everyone remembers the goodness of Master Chu, and has not forgotten that Xue Gongzi’s words like this are really deducting the ungrateful hat for everyone, so that people can’t afford it."

"But then, the ink is not the apprentice of Chu Zongshi?" Someone whispered, "I want to say that in fact, the apprentice is wrong, he should be responsible for the master, the so-called son does not teach the father, teach the teacher Indolence. This is nothing wrong, and there is nothing to complain about."

This is a bit mean, and someone immediately stops to stop: "What crazy words! Manage your mouth!"

Turned his head and greeted Xue Meng.

"Xue Gongzi, don't worry..."

Xue Meng suddenly interrupted his words and witnessed: "How can I not be anxious? You stand and talk without back pain, but that is my master! My!!! I have not seen him for so many years. I don't know if he is dead or alive, I don't know how he is doing, I am standing here, what do you think is for?"

He gasped and his eyes were red: "Don't you wait so long, the ink will rain down on your own, and beg you in front of you?"

"Xue Gongzi..."

"In addition to the Master, I have no one in the world." Xue Meng broke the corner of the old monk, and muttered, "You don't go, I go."

Throwing these words, he went alone on the mountain with one sword and one sword.

The cold and damp cold wind is mixed with thousands of thousands of sounds. In the thick fog, there are countless ghosts and ghosts whispering in the mountains and forests.

Xue Meng went to the top of the mountain alone, and the majestic palace where the ink burned was lit by the peaceful candlelight in the night. Suddenly he saw the three towers in front of the Tongtian Tower. He walked closer and saw the first grave with green grass. The tombstone was smashed with eight dogs and the eight tombs of the Queen of the Emperor Chuji.

The second grave, as opposed to the "steamed queen", is a new plaque. The seal is just covered. The monument is smashed with the tomb of the Song Dynasty.

If you change it more than ten years ago and see this ridiculous scene, Xue Meng will not help but laugh out loud.

At that time, he and the ink burned under the door of a master, ink burning is the most appreciative of the jokes, even if Xue Meng had long seen him not pleasing to the eye, but also from time to time will be amused by him.

This steamed Queen oil blasted the Queen, and did not know what the ghost was. It was probably the tombstone that Mo Dacai gave to his two wives. The style was similar to that of "Wang Ba", "呱" and "戟". But why did he take these two nicknames for his queen? It is not known.

Xue Meng looked at the third grave.

Under the night, the tomb was open, and there was a coffin in it, but there was no one in the coffin, and there was no ink on the tombstone.

Just a pot of pear blossoms in front of the grave, a bowl of cold red oil and a handful of dishes, a few dishes of spicy dishes, are all burning things that you love.

Xue Meng stared at it for a while, and suddenly he was shocked. Could it be that the ink rain did not want to resist, had already dug the grave and decided to die?

Cold sweat.

He does not believe it. The person who burns this person has never died until the end. He never knows what is exhausting, what is giving up, and what he is doing, will surely fight with the insurgents, how can it be...

In the past ten years, the ink has stood at the peak of power, what has been seen, and what has happened.

neither knows.

Xue Meng turned and fell into the night, striding toward the brightly lit Wushan Temple.

In the Wushan Hall, the eyes are closed and pale.

Xue Meng guessed it well, he is determined to die. The tomb outside is the one he had dug for himself. Before an hour, he dismissed the servant by means of transmission, and he took the poison. He is very high, and the toxicity of the poison/medicine is particularly slow in his body, so the pain of the internal organs being eaten and melted is becoming more and more vivid.

"Oh," the door opened.

The ink burned without looking up, only hoarsely said: "Xue Meng. It's you, are you here?"

Above the golden bricks in the temple, Xue Meng stood up, and the horsetails were scattered and flickered.

In the past, the same door gathered again. There was no expression on the ink, and he sat on his side, and the slender and thick eyelashes fell to his eyes.

Everyone said that he is a three-headed and six-armed demonic demon, but he is actually very good-looking, the nose is soft and the lip color is thin, and the sky grows a bit warm and sweet, and everyone looks like he is a good-natured person. .

When Xue Meng saw his face, he knew that he was already poisoned. I don’t know what it’s like, but I’m still trying to stop it. I’m still trying to squeeze my fist. I just ask, “What about the teacher?”

"……what?"

Xue Meng Li said: "I ask you, Master!!!! Yours, mine, our master?!"

"Oh." The ink burned and snorted, and finally slowly opened the black eyes with some purple eyes, falling across the layers of the years, falling on Xue Meng.

"Actually, since Kunlun stepped into the snow palace, you and Master, have not met each other for five years."

The ink burned and said, smiled slightly.

"Xue Meng, do you miss him?"

"Do not talk nonsense! Give him back to me!"

The ink burned him calmly, and endured the pain in his stomach, mocking his mouth and leaning against the back of the throne.

There was a burst of blackness in front of him, and he almost felt that he could clearly feel the viscera being distorted, dissolved, and turned into stinky blood.

The ink burns and lazy: "Return to you? Stupid. You don't think about it. I and the Master are so hateful, how can I allow him to live in this world."

"You-!" Xue Meng suddenly had no blood, no eyes, and step back. "You can't... you won't..."

"I don't know what?" The ink burned and laughed. "You are talking about it. I don't know why."

Xue Meng trembled: "But he is yours... He is your master after all... how can you get your hands!"

He looked up at the ink burning on the top of the emperor. There are Fuxi in the heavens, and there are Jurassic in the earth, and there is light rain in the world.

However, for Xue Meng, even if the ink burned into the human world, it should not become so.

Xue Meng was trembling, and he hated tears: "Mini is raining, are you still human? He used to..."

The ink burned lightly: "What happened to him?"

Xue Meng trembled: "How did he treat you, you should know..."

The ink burned and laughed: "You want to remind me that he used to beat me to the body, and let me kneel down and plead guilty in front of everyone. Still want to remind me that he used to be for you, for the irrelevant, to stop in front of me. How many times has it prevented me from doing good things, badly?

Xue Meng painfully shook his head: "..."

No, the ink burns.

Think about it, you let go of your awkward hatred. Look back at you.

He used to practice martial arts and protect you.

He used to teach you to read and read poems.

He used to cook for you, clumsy, and it hurts.

He used to... He used to wait for you to come back day and night, one person from dark...to dawn...

So many words are stuck in the throat, and in the end, Xue Meng only choked:

"He...he has a bad temper and is hard to talk, but even I know that he treats you so well, why are you... how can you bear it..."

Xue Mengyang started, and he endured too many tears, but his throat blocked him and he couldn’t say anymore.

After a long pause, the temple sighed with a soft sigh. He said, "Yes."

"But Xue Meng. Do you know?" The burning voice looked very tired. "He used to kill the only person I loved. The only one."

Long dead.

The stomach hurts like a burning fire, and the flesh and blood is torn into thousands of pieces of broken residue.

"However, it is a good mentor. His body is stopped at the Honglian otter in Nanfeng. Lying in the lotus, it is well preserved, just like falling asleep." The ink burned and calmed. When he said this, he was expressionless, his fingers resting on the long red sandalwood, and the knuckles were pale and blue.

"His body is all dependent on my spiritual power to keep it from rot. If you think about him, don't bother with me here, don't die, let's go."

There is a sweetness in the throat, and the coughing sounds a few times. When you open it again, there is blood between the lips and teeth, but the eyes are relaxed.

He said hoarsely: "Go. Go see him. If it is late, I will die, and if the spirit is broken, he will be gray."

After finishing this sentence, he suddenly closed his eyes, the poison attack, and the fire.

The pain is so heartbreaking, and even the sorrowful sorrows of Xue Meng’s grief have become so far away, as if from the water, across the ocean.

Blood can't stop from the corners of the mouth, the ink burns and squeezes the sleeves, and the muscles are bursting.

Blindly open his eyes, Xue Meng has run far, the kid's light work is not bad, from here to the South Peak, can not spend too much time.

On the last side of the Master, he should have seen it.

The ink burned up and stood up, staggering, and the * mottled fingers made a mark and sent themselves to the tower of the towering tower of life and death.

At this time, it is the late autumn, the thick and beautiful airflow of the sea otter.

He didn't know why he finally chose to end his sinful life here. However, the flower blossoms are so brilliant, and they are worthy of the glory.

He lay down in the open cockroach, looking up at the flowers at night, silently thanking.

Floating into the sputum, floating on the cheeks. They have been arrogant, as the past has withered.

This life, from the illegitimate child of nothing, has gone through countless times and has become the only emperor of the human world.

He is sinful, full of blood, loves and hates, what he wants, and in the end, nothing is left.

After all, he did not use his word to believe in the words of the horse to give a word to his tombstone. No matter whether it is a stinky "Emperor of the Ages", or ridiculous as "oil explosion" and "steaming", he did not write anything, and the tomb of the Emperor of the Emperor of the Realm, after all, the words did not stay.

A farce that lasted for ten years finally came to an end.

After several more hours, when everyone held up the open torch, it was like a fire snake. When they broke into the imperial palace, they waited for them, but it was the empty Wushan Temple. It was the death of no one, it was the red lotus. Next to it, fell to the ash of the earth, crying to the numbness of Xuemeng.

Also, in front of the Tongtian Tower, the corpse was already cold and drizzle.

The author has something to say: Wait a long time, although there should be someone waiting for it, hahahaha

Chapter 2

"I have already felt like a dead water, but I didn't expect the spring to shine through the spring. I am not afraid of the grass. I am afraid that the world will be cold and windy."

The ear is long and ah, the more the woman is clear and crisp, the jade-like words, but the ink that burns the brain hurts, and the frontal and meridian violent jumps.

"Noisy noisy! Where is the crying funer! Come here, give me this mess and go down the hill!"

After angering the sound, the ink burned was not right.

... Are you not already dead?

Hate and chill, pain in his mouth and coldness, his chest hurts, and his eyes burned openly.

Before the death, the wind was like a wind and snow. He found himself lying on the bed. It was not the bed of death. This bed was carved with dragons and painted with phoenix. The wood was full of heavy powder and the old quilt pink and purple. Embroidered with the scent of the water, it is the pillow that the woman will sleep.

The ink burns for a moment of stiffness.

He knows where this is.

This is a tile near the top of the dead.

The so-called tile is the brothel, which means "when it comes to whip, when it comes to disintegrate", so that the guests and the powder can be gathered together.

When I was young, there was a period of time when I was young. I spent more than ten days in the half-month sleeping in this brothel. However, this broth was set out when he was in his twenties, and later changed into a wine cellar. After I died, I actually appeared in a brothel that didn’t exist long ago. What happened?

It’s hard to make too many evils in my life, and I’ve been ruined by countless boys and girls.

The ink burned and thought, and turned over unconsciously.

He was on a sleeping face.

what's the situation! ! ! How is he lying next to him? ?

Still a man who is naked and naked!

The man's face is tender and tender, and the five senses are exquisite, and the jade is cute, and the male and female are indistinguishable.

There was no expression on the face, but the heart was choppy. I stared at the little white face that was immersed in my sleep and looked at it for a long time. I suddenly remembered it.

This is not a small puppet that I especially loved when I was young. It seems to be called Rong San?

Or just call Rong Jiu.

It’s not important, it’s not important. The important thing is that this little cockroaches later hurt the flowering willow disease. It has been dead for many years, and the bones are ruined. However, at this time he was alive, white and tender nest on the side of his bed, the quilt was exposed in the neck and shoulders, blue and purple, all traces of sputum.

The ink burned his face, picked up the quilt, and his eyes moved down.

"....."

This does not know whether the nine or three, let him count the nine, Rong Jiu Xiaomei is covered with whip marks, a sheep's fat white jade like the pink thighs have been finely, and several red ropes.

The ink burned and touched the chin and sighed secretly: good taste.

瞧瞧 This exquisite rope art, this skillful technique, this familiar picture.

This is not his mother's own? ? ! !

He is a man of immortality and has a taste of the rebirth. At this moment, he couldn't help but start to doubt that he seemed to be living back.

In order to further verify his own ideas, the ink burned to find a bronze mirror. The bronze mirror is very worn, but in the dim light, it is still blurred to see his own appearance.

When the ink burned to death, he was thirty-two years old. It was a year of standing, but at that moment, the face of the buddy in the mirror looked rather childish, and the handsome eyebrows showed a young man’s unique flying cockroaches. Fifteen or six years old.

There are no other people in this bedroom. So a generation of tyrants in the real world, the bully in the middle, the emperor of the human world, the lord of death and death, stepped on the immortal ink after burning for a long time, honestly expressed his inner feelings.

"Fuck..."

This exercise, I will wake up the sleeping cockroach.

The beautiful man sat up lazily, and the thin brocade on his body was slid down the shoulders, revealing a large, dazzling white body. He was wrapped in soft long hair and picked up a pair of peach eyes with drowsiness. Dyed red, yawned.

"Oh... Mo Gongzi, you wake up very early today."

There is no suffocation in the ink, and the time has gone backwards for more than ten years. He really likes the beautiful beauty of Rong Jiu, but nowadays, the 32-year-old stepping fairy, how to see how he suspected that his brain was When you scream, you will feel that this man looks good.

"Is it not a good night last night, a nightmare?"

This seat is dead, you say it is not a nightmare.

Rong Jiu saw that he had been not talking, but he was still in a bad mood, so he got up and got out of bed, squatting in front of the window, and smashing the ink from behind.

"Ink son, you reason about me, how do you marry, don't you?"

The ink burned him like this, his face was green, and he couldn’t wait to tear the little goblin away from his back. He shook his seventeen eight big ear scrapers on his blown face, but he still resisted. It is.

He still had a dizzy, not clear about the situation.

After all, if you are really born again, then yesterday, and Rong Rongji smashed the phoenix, and when he woke up, he swollen his face and his face was swollen. This kind of behavior is no different from suffering from mental dysentery. It is not appropriate.

The ink burned out the emotions and looked like inadvertently: "What day is it today?"

Rong Jiuyi, immediately smiled: "May four in May."

"Bing Shennian?"

"That was last year. This year is Ding Yinian. It’s really a good thing for the nobles to go back and go back."

Ding Haonian...

The ink burned in the dark, and the brain turned quickly.

Ding Yinian, who is fifteen years old, has just been recognized as a lost scorpion for many years. He has been a phoenix from a man who can be bullied.

So, is it true that you are born again?

Still, a big dream after death...

Rong Ji smiled and said: "Mu Gongzi, I am jealous that you are hungry, and you can't remember the days. You sit for a while, I go to the kitchen, give you some food, how about the spinner?"

The ink burned just now, and he still doesn't know how to deal with it. However, it is always wrong to follow the previous roads. So he recalled his own romantic appearance, endured nausea, and smiled on the nine legs.

"It’s very good, add another bowl of porridge, come back and feed me."

Rong Jiu put on his clothes, and soon he came back with a wooden tray with a bowl of pumpkin porridge, two oil swirling cakes, and a dish.

The ink burned just a little hungry, and was preparing to grab the cake to eat. Rong Ji suddenly opened his hand and said with amazement: "I will feed the son to enjoy."

Rong Ji picked up a piece of cake and sat on the ink-burning leg. He was wearing a thin robe, and nothing was worn underneath. The thin thighs and the thighs were separated, and the skin burned with the skin, and they couldn’t help but squat. And Yu.

The ink burned and stared at Rong Ji’s face for a while.

Rong Ji also said that he was so happy, he said: "You always do what I am doing? The food is cold."

The ink burned silently for a moment, remembering the good things that the old man had to carry on his own, and the corner of his mouth slowly opened a sweet silk, and the relatives smiled incomparably.

Disgusting things, he stepped on Xianjun to do more, as long as he is willing, and then he will do it with disgusting feelings. At this moment, it is just a play, and the children can't help him.

The ink burned comfortably on the chair and smiled. "Sit up."

"I don't... don't sit down."

"You know what I am talking about is sitting."

Rong Ji’s face was red and he took a sip: “So urgent, the son doesn’t wait until he finishes... Ah!”

When the words were not finished, they were forced to pick up by the burning of the ink. They moved forward and pressed again. With a handful of shakes, the porridge bowl knocked over to the ground, and he said in a panic: "Mu Gongzi, this bowl..."

"Don't worry."

"Then, then you should eat something first... um... ah..."

"Is this not eating?" The ink burned his waist, and the dark eyes flashed brightly, and the scorpion reflected the beautiful face of the neck.

In the last life, I was especially willing to kiss the blushing lips when I was lingering. After all, this boy is beautiful, and he is very clever. If he wants to say that he is tempted, he has to say that he has no emotion at all. It is a fake.

However, knowing that Rong Ji’s mouth is carrying something on his back, the ink burns that this mouth is not smelling, and there is no interest in kissing.

The 32-year-old ink burns and the 15-year-old ink burns are different in many places.

For example, at the age of fifteen, he still knows gentleness when he is in love, and at the age of thirty-two, there is only violence.

Afterwards, he looked at himself as he was dying, and Rong Ji, who had passed out of the past, had a pair of slanting waves, and he squinted slightly, and he took some sweet smiles. He smiled very well, and the twilight was very dark and deep. At some angles, he would smudge a layer of eccentric dark purple. At this moment, he smiled and glared at the hair of Rong Jiu, and put the comatose on the couch, picking up a piece of broken porcelain from the ground and hanging it on the face of Rong Jiu.

He has always reported, and it is the same now.

Thinking of how he used to take care of Rongjiu’s business in his previous life, and even wanted to give him a redemption, and Rongjiu was able to design himself with others. He couldn’t help but smile and bend his eyes, sticking sharp ceramic fragments. In the edge of Rong Jiu.

This person is doing a flesh-and-blood business. Without this face, nothing is gone.

This kitsch man will be like a dog on the street, crawling on the ground, being smashed by boots, being crushed and being thrown away, oh... I imagined it to make him happy. It’s just that the disgustingness of this person has just disappeared.

The smile is more and more cute.

With a handful of force, the blood of the blush oozes a trace.

The faint person seemed to feel the pain, the hoarse voice, and a low snoring, and the tears on the eyelashes seemed to be pitiful.

The burning hand suddenly stopped.

He remembered an old man.

"....."

Then he suddenly realized what he was doing now. After a few seconds, I finally slowly lowered my hand.

It’s a habit to do evil. He has forgotten that he has been born again.

Now, all the things have not happened yet, and the big mistakes have not yet been formed. That person... is still not dead. Why should he have to cruelly and ruthlessly go through the old road, he obviously can come back again.

He sat down, rested on the edge of the bed, and casually played the broken pieces in his hand. Suddenly I saw a greasy cake on the table, so I took it over, opened the oil paper, bite it with a big mouth, eat the mouthful of slag, and the lips are shiny.

This cake is a special feature of this tile. It is not too delicious. It is like chewing wax compared to the delicious taste that he has tasted later. But after the tile has fallen, the ink has never been eaten. The oil turns the cake. At this moment, the familiar taste of the cake, back to the tip of the tongue, is rolling back.

Every time you burn a mouthful of ink, you feel that the unreality of rebirth is one less point.

After the whole piece of cake was eaten, he finally slowly recovered from the original confusion.

He is really born again.

All the evils in his life, all things that cannot be turned back, have not yet begun.

Did not kill the aunt and aunt, did not slaughter seventy-two cities, did not bully the ancestors, did not get married, no...

No one is dead yet.

He licked his mouth and licked his white teeth. He could feel the tiny joy in the chest expanding rapidly, becoming a kind of turbulent fanaticism and excitement. When he was alive, he was involved in the three major bans. He is proficient in the other two bans. Only the last one is "rebirth". Even if he is extremely intelligent, he must not be able to door.

I couldn’t think of anything that I couldn’t ask for during my lifetime. It turned out to be true after death.

All kinds of unfortunate, mourning, and loneliness in front of them, all of them are still in the chest, and the scene of death and death is still in full swing.

At that time, he really didn't want to live. Everyone said that he was a lord, and he was rebellious. In the end, he also felt that he was walking dead, boring, and lonely.

But I don't know where it went wrong. People like him who are heinous, after self-satisfaction, can get a chance to come back again.

Why did he want to ruin the face of Rong Jiu in order to report a little bit of personal enmity?

Rong Jiu is the most greedy and love money. This is the time to sell meat, and then go with some money, and disciplining it on a small scale. Human life, he does not want to carry it for the time being.

"You are cheap, Rong Jiu."

The ink burned and said with a smile, the fingertips force, throwing the tiles out of the window.

Then, he emptied all the soft jewels of Rongjiu and collected them in his own pockets. This was a good thing, and he slowly packed himself up and Shishiran left the tile.

Uncle Aunt, cousin Xue Meng, Master, and...

When I think of that person, the burning eyes are soft and gentle.

Teacher, I am looking for you.

Chapter 3

Um... Since my soul is back, the solid cultivation of the past life, will it come back?

The ink burns the spell, and feels the turmoil of the inner spirit. Although it is abundant, it is not strong. That is to say, his cultivation has not been inherited.

However, this is nothing. He is talented and savvy, and he is not a big deal. It is nothing remarkable. Moreover, rebirth is a big happy event, even if there are some shortcomings, it is normal. The ink burned like this, and soon converges on his own darkness and fangs, like a fifteen-year-old boy, and happily prepares to return to the sect.

In the suburbs of summer, there is a strong concentration of cars and horses. The wheels are rolling, and no one will pay attention to the 15-year-old ink burning at this time.

Only occasionally there was a busy village woman in the field. She got an empty head and wiped her sweat. When she saw a special boy, she would stare at her eyes and stare at her eyes.

The ink burned and smiled, and looked back unceremoniously. He looked at the women who had husbands and looked at them with blushing eyes and bowed their heads.

In the evening, the ink burned to the town of Wuchang, where it was very close to the dying of life and death. In the twilight, a red sun was like blood, and the fire burned Yunxia lined with the peaks. When I touched my stomach, I was hungry. He then went to the restaurant in a familiar way. He took a black-and-white dish in front of the cabinet and knocked on the counter. He said: "The treasurer, come a stick. Chicken, a plate of husband and wife lungs, playing two pounds of shochu, and then cutting a plate of beef."

There are a lot of people who are at the tip of the mouth, and they are very busy. Mr. Shuo said that he is shaking the fan on the table. He is telling the story of the dead and the dead, talking about the dance of the eyebrows and the spit.

The ink burned a private room near the window, eating while listening to people's books.

"As we all know, we cultivate the real world according to the geographical division, divided into two areas of upper repair and lower repair. Today we will talk about the most outstanding martial art in the world, and the life and death. Oh, you know, let’s The town of impermanence was a desolate and ruined town hundreds of years ago. Because it was in the dark, the villagers were afraid to go out. If they had to go through the night, they must shake the exorcism bell and sprinkle it. The fragrant gray paper money, while shouting "people come to the mountains, ghosts to separate the heavy paper", quickly passed. But today, our town is bustling and prosperous, no different from other places, this can rely on the care of life and death. This fairy sing, it is unbiased, just repaired at the entrance of the ghost gate, between the two circles of yin and yang. Although it was built soon, but..."

In this history, the ink ignited the ears and the ears were rising, so the lack of interest began to look down the window. Coincidentally, there was a stall downstairs. The foreigners dressed by several Taoist priests carried a black clothed cage and were playing tricks on the streets.

This is much more interesting than the old man's storytelling.

The attention of ink burned was drawn to the past.

"Look at it, take a look, this is the ancient savage beast, the cub, and I am going to fall down. Now it is like a child, it will be juggling, arithmetic! It is not easy to go to the righteousness, you have money to hold a money field, If you don’t have the money, you can see the first good show.

I saw that the priests smashed the black cloth, and the cage was closed. It was a monster of several human faces.

Ink burning: "....."

With these low-browed eyes, the furry bears and scorpions? ? Do you dare to say yes? ? ?

This cow can really blow the sky, who believes who is brains.

But it didn't take long for the ink to burn, and twenty or thirty brains gathered around them to watch the play. From time to time, they applauded. The crowd was so busy that even the people in the restaurant couldn’t help but look at the probe and make a story. Not bad.

"The lord of the dead now, it is called a famous name, and it is famous."

"Good!! Come again!"

Mr. Shuo was greatly encouraged. He followed the sound and saw that the guest was full of red light and excited. However, it was obviously not his own, but the juggling stalls downstairs.

"Hey, what are you going to do?"

"Oh, it’s amazing!"

"Good! Wonderful! Let's play another piece of apple!"

The people in the building were laughing and laughing, and they all gathered at the window bar to see the excitement below. Mr. Shuo is still pitifully saying: "The most famous of the Lord is his fan, he..."

"Ah, hahaha, the lightest cockroach wants to grab the apple, you see it is still rolling on the ground!"

Mr. Shuo said that he wiped his face with a sweat towel and his lips were a little shaken.

The ink burned his lips, and Yan smiled. He shouted slowly behind the bead curtain: "Don't talk about the death of the dead, come to the "Eighteen Touch", and keep the people back."

Mr. Shuo Shuo did not know that the person behind the curtain was the ink of the dead man, and he was very arrogant and arrogant: "The thick, rough words, not up, not in the elegant."

The ink burned and laughed: "Is it too elegant here? You don't panic."

After all, I heard the noise of the building.

"Oh! Fast horse!"

"It’s the immortal prince!"

In the discussion, a black horse rushed in the direction of death and death, and lightning generally entered the juggling circle!

There were two people sitting on the horse, one wearing a black brawl, wrapped in a black cloak, sturdy, not looking at age and gender, and the other being a woman of 30 or 40 years old, with a rough hand and a frosty face. .

When the woman saw the bears, she cried. She even climbed the horse and climbed down. She stumbled and rushed over. She hugged one of the bears and slammed it: "Children! My children." what--"

The people around are all stunned. Someone scratched his head and muttered: "Yeah? Isn't this the youngest scorpion of the ancient gods? How does this woman call it?"

"This should not be a mother."

"Oh, that's great, this mother is all adult."

The villagers here did not know, and there was nonsense on the other side, but the ink burned it.

According to legend, some rivers and lakes priests will abduct children, then unplug the children's tongues, let them say nothing, then take the water to burn the children's skin, licking the flesh and blood, sticking the animal skin to them, After the blood has solidified, the fur and the child are glued together and it looks like the monster. These children can't talk, can't write, can only let people bully, and cooperate with the performance of "squatting", if rebellious, it is a whip.

It’s no wonder that he didn’t feel the slightest demon before. These “貔貅” are not demon, but live people...

Here, I was thinking about it. The black cloak over there whispered a few words with the priests. The priests heard the words, it was an instant anger, and they said, "Apologize? Your grandfather does not know." How do you apologize for these two words!" "What's so great about the dying of life?" "Do not hesitate, give me a fight!" It is necessary to encircle the black cloak.

"Ouch."

Seeing that the same door was hit, the ink burned and laughed twice. "So fierce."

He did not mean to help. In the past life, he hated the sect of the door, and the two gangs were rushing with the fool. The aunt’s cat scorpion’s cat scorpion climbed under the tree and asked them to help. Door to the chores, each lack of mind.

There are so many unfair things in the world, what is the management, and exhausted individuals.

"Get up and fight! Drink! A great fist!"

Up and down the restaurant, everyone will join the crowd in the past.

"So many people play one, don't want to face!"

"Xianjun is behind him! Oops! Good insurance! Wow!"

"This shot is well protected!"

These people love to watch fights, but they don’t like to watch. The * hurricanes he has seen have gone, and what happens under the eyelids is like a fly to him. He lazily licked the peanut crumbs on his clothes and got up and left.

Downstairs, the priests were fighting hard with the black cloak, and the sword was suffocating. The ink burned his arms and leaned against the door of the wine cellar. He only glanced at it and couldn’t help but snorted.

Shameful.

The shackles of life and death are all fierce and fierce. The black cloak fight is not terrible. Seeing that they have been pulled down by the rivers and lakes, they are smashing in the middle, but they are still not smashing their hands.

Instead, the text shouted weakly: "The gentleman does not move, tells you reason, why don't you listen?!"

Taoists: "....."

Ink burning: "....."

The Taoist thought is, eh? This person has been labeled like this grandmother, and the gentleman does not move? This is the brain of the hoe, and there is no stuffing?

When the ink burns, his face suddenly changes. At some point, he turns around. He grabs his breath and widens his eyes in disbelief. This voice...

"Teacher!" The ink burned low and rushed up, filled with the power of the palm of the hand, and the five rivers and lakes priests who were unscrupulous were all shaken! He sat on the ground and lifted the black cloak covered with muddy footprints, and the voice could not help but tremble slightly -

"Yes, is that you?"

The author has something to say: Although his name is Shi Yi, but people are really a teacher, is a teacher 23333

This teacher is not a sister.

The teacher is a man who has been replaced, and he is still a smoldering brother.

The reason why I took such an unfortunate name is that the lord of the dead and the dead has no knowledge.

The teacher was originally an orphan. He was brought back by the Lord in the wild. The child was weak and sick, and the Lord thought about it. He had to give the baby a name and be famous to feed.

The child's lips are red and white, like a little girl who is very lovable, so the Lord has racked his brains and asked people a name, called Xue Yu.

Xue Yu is getting bigger and bigger, the longer he is, the more handsome, the more sturdy, the eyebrows are the style of the eye, quite a bit of the charm of the genius.

The villager’s husband has no problem with the name Xue Yu, but has he seen the beautiful woman called “dog egg” and “iron pillar”?

The brothers and sisters of the same door felt that it was not appropriate. Gradually, they would not be called Xue Yan, but the name of the Lord was not good enough to change, so they half-jokingly called the teacher.

The younger sister and sister were short. Later, the lord simply waved his hand and said with a good understanding: "Xue Wei, you simply changed your name, so you can call it a teacher, what is it?"

I am still very embarrassed to ask how...Is the normal person receiving this name? However, the teacher had a good temper. He looked up at the Lord and found that the other party was eager to glare at him. He dared to think that he had done a good thing. The teacher can't bear it, and feels that even if he is wronged, he can't sweep the face of the Lord. So I am grateful, and I changed my name from now on.

"Cough." The black cloak snorted a few times before it slowed down, and looked up at the smoldering. "Well? Ah Burn? Why are you here?"

A layer of crepe curtains, the eyes are as soft as spring water, and if the stars are shining, they will burst into the bottom of the ink.

At a glance, those gentle feelings and little men who have been squandering for a long time have been unblocked in an instant.

It is a teacher.

Can't be wrong.

Ink burning is a rogue embryo. In the last life, I have played a lot of men and women. In the end, I didn’t die because of the death of the man. He was quite surprised.

But the only person he was fond of in his nest, he was careful and never dared to touch it easily.

In those years, he and the teacher and the two men squatted in the snow, but when they died, the ink burned the hands of others, and even the mouth only mistakenly hit the pro.

The ink burns feels dirty, the teacher is too gentle and pure, he can't match it.

This person has already made him so cherished, not to mention the death. Then it became the white moonlight that stepped on the heart of Xianjun. If he scratched his heart and scratched his liver, the people of Sri Lanka had become a loess. Under Jiuquan, the fairy tale was hard to find.

However, at this moment, the living teacher appeared in front of him, and the smoldering had to use all his strength to resist the emotion of his excitement.

The ink burned the man up and took the dust off the cloak for him.

"I don't want to be here, what do you have to be bullied by them? When someone hits you, why don't you fight back?"

"I want to make sense first..."

"What do you tell me about these people! Is it hurt? Where is it hurt?"

"Cough, Ah, I... I don't get in the way."

The ink burned his head and looked at the priests fiercely. "The people who are dead and dying, you dare to do it? The courage is very big."

"A burning... forget it..."

"You are not going to fight? Come on! Why not make a move with me!"

The priests were photographed by ink and they knew that this person was repaired far above themselves. They all ate soft and hard, and they dared to retire with ink.

The teacher sighed and sighed and persuaded: "A burning, you have to fight, you have to spare people and spare people."

When the ink burned back and looked at him, he couldn’t help but feel sour and sorrowful.

The teacher has always been so kind, and when he died in his life, he has no resentment and no hate. Even persuaded the ink to burn, do not remember to hate the teacher who can clearly save his life, but is sitting on his side.

"But they..."

"I am not good, is it okay? More than one thing is less, listen to the teacher."

"Oh, okay, listen to you, listen to you." The ink shook his head and glanced at the few Taoist priests. "Have you heard? My brother asked for your love! Don't roll fast? Hey here. , I want you to send you not?"

"Yes, yes! Let's roll! This is rolling!"

The teacher said to the priests: "Slow."

The few people thought that the teacher had just been violently stunned by them. I felt that he would not easily let go of himself. He squatted on the ground again and again: "Xianjun, Xianjun, we are wrong, we don't know Taishan. Seeking Xianjun Let us go!"

"I just told you to tell you, you don't listen." The teacher sighed. "You have taken the children of others and been sinned. Let their niece be cut, and the conscience can be overwhelmed." ”

"I don't want to go! I don't want to go! Xianjun, we are wrong! Never dare anymore! Never dare anymore!"

"You have to be a good person in the future, you can't do anything else, but you know it?"

"Yes! The secret of Xianjun is! We, we are taught, taught!"

"In this case, please ask a few to apologize to the lady, and then heal the children."

Even if this matter was settled, the smoldering supporter took the plunge, and he borrowed another one from the shack. The two men sneaked back and returned to the sect.

Wu Hook is high hanging, and the moonlight wears through the forest and leaves it on the forest path.

Walking and walking, the smoldering gradually became more and more beautiful: he thought that he would at least return to the death and death, and then he could see the teacher again. He did not expect the teacher to go down the mountain to help the road. He happened to let him hit, and the ink burned more and more, he believed. And the teacher is really fate.

Although at this time, the teacher has not been with himself, but the past life has been hooked up, this life is obviously also a familiar, water-filled thing.

The only thing he needs to worry about is to protect his teacher and not let him die in his own arms like he did in the past...

The teacher did not know that the ink was already a rebirth, and he chatted with him as usual. The two chatted and talked to the feet of death.

Who expected to be in the middle of the night, but in front of the mountain gate stood a personal, staring at them.

"Ink burning! Do you still know back??"

"Hey?"

The ink burned and looked up, oh, a good angry arrogant son.

This person is not someone else, it is Xue Meng when he was young.

Compared with Xue Meng, who was seen before his death, he was even more handsome when he was 15 or 6 years old. A light blue armor with a black bottom, a high ponytail, a silver hair buckle, a lion's belt with a strong waist and a slender waist, a hand-legged leg, and a small curved knife behind the cold arm. The upper sleeve arrow is silvery.

The ink burned and sighed, and I thought about it:

Uh, Sao.

Xue Meng, no matter when he was a teenager or a grown up, was really a sigh.

Look at him, good husband, don't sleep at night, wear a full armor of death and death, what to do? Is the performance of the pheasant courting peacock to open?

However, if the ink burns not to see Xue Meng, Xue Meng may not wait to see him.

Ink burning is an illegitimate child. When he was a child, he did not know who his father was, and he was playing in a music house in Xiangtan. It was not until the age of fourteen that the family was found back to life.

Xue Meng is the young master of death and death. Counting up, he is actually a cousin of ink. Xue Meng’s early childhood is a genius. He is known as the “Pride of Heaven” and “Phoenix”. The average person builds a foundation for three years, and it takes at least ten years to complete the spiritual core. Xue Meng is talented and talented. From the entry to the spiritual core, it is only five years before and after, which makes the parents happy and praised by all.

But in the eyes of ink, whether he is a phoenix or a chicken, a peacock or a duck, it is a bird anyway. The difference between hair and hair is short.

So the ink burned to see Xue Meng: bird stuff.

Perhaps the family inheritance, the talent of ink burning is also very amazing, and even can be said, more amazing than Xue Meng.

At the time when the ink burned, Xue Meng felt that he was particularly noble and glamorous, well-trained, knowledgeable, kungfu, and handsome, and he didn’t know a few characters like the cousin, and he was not a passer-by.

Then the narcissistic phoenix 指挥 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 随 凤凰 随 随 凤凰 随 凤凰 凤凰 凤凰 凤凰 凤凰 自 自 自He, just treat this person as a dog."

The followers will be flattering: "The Lord said that the ink burned is already fourteen years old. Now it is only beginning to cultivate the immortal. I think he has to spend at least ten years to build the foundation. It will take twenty years to bear the spirit. Nuclear. At that time, when we were less than the Lord, we were able to sneak up and he could only look at the ground."

Xue Meng sneered sneerly: "Twenty years? Hey, I see his waste look, I can't repair the spirit core in my life."

Whoever expected, the waste hahaha followed the teacher for a year, even the spiritual core.

When the phoenix was suddenly struck by lightning, she felt that she had been beaten and could not swallow the bad breath.

So he secretly slaps his villain, cursing the sword of the family's soles, slipping his tongue and knotting his tongue.

Every time I see the ink burning, Xue Meng Xiao Feng is even more persistent to reward the two big white eyes, the sound of the nose can be heard through the three miles.

I think of these childhood memories, I can't help but squint. He hasn't enjoyed such human fireworks for a long time. He has been alone for ten years, even the things he hated in the past. Now he is chewed and squeaky. .

The teacher saw Xue Meng, immediately dismounted, picked up the black gauze, revealing a stunning face.

It’s no wonder that he’s going out alone to wear it like this, and when the ink burns and squints, he feels swaying and thinking. The heart of this person is really a stunning pose, and the soul is taken.

The teacher said hello to him: "Less master."

Xue Meng nodded: "Is it back? The matter of the bear is handled properly?"

The teacher smiled and said: "It’s just right. Thanks to Ah Burning, it helped me a lot."

Xue Meng’s proud eyes were like a sharp blade, and he quickly swept it on the burning body. He immediately turned away. He frowned and looked disdainful. It seemed as if he had burned his eyes for a while.

"Teacher, you go back to rest first. After that, you don't want to mix with him. This is a thing that steals chickens and touches dogs. When you are with him, you have to learn bad."

The ink burns does not show weakness. He laughs and laughs: "I don't learn from you, can you learn from me? I am fully dressed in the evening, and I am stupid with a bird-like tail. I am still proud of the sky... Hahaha, I see it. Are you proud of the sky?"

Xue Meng was furious: "The ink burns, you put my mouth clean! This is my home! How old are you?"

The ink burns means: "I am your cousin. If you talk about it, you should be ahead of you."

Xue Meng seems to have been splashed with a shit, and immediately frowned at the disgusting, screaming: "Who has your cousin! Don't put gold on your face, in my eyes, you are just playing in the mire Rolling dog!"

Xue Meng is especially fond of swearing that other people are dogs, what kind of dog, son, dog, dog, dog, and dog are born, and the upper and lower mouths are called a skillful one. Ink burning has long been used to it, licking your ears and not thinking about it. However, the teacher was listening to the side and whispered a few words. Xue Meng finally snorted from the nostrils and closed his noble beak.

The teacher smiled and asked softly and softly: "The young master is so late, waiting in front of the mountain gate?"

"Otherwise? Enjoy the moon?"

The ink burned and smiled and said: "I said how you cleaned up so beautifully. It turned out to be waiting for someone to date. Hey, who is so unlucky to be missed by you? I sympathize with her, hahahahaha."

Xue Meng’s face is darker, and the nail can scrape three pounds of coal. He screams in a gruel: “You!”

"……I?"

"This son waits for you, how are you staying?"

Ink burning: ".....???"

Chapter 5

The heart of the Dan Heart Hall is brightly lit.

The teacher left and went, and the ink burned with Xue Meng into the temple, and saw the scene inside the temple, suddenly clear to the chest.

It turned out to be the nine sons of the nine.

He stole some of his silver before he left. He was courageous and actually found the shackles of life and death.

Rong Jiu squatted in the arms of a man who was a tall man, crying so badly that the pear blossoms with rain, when the ink burned and Xue Meng entered the temple, his crying was even higher than the three tune, it seems that the man is not Looking at him, he was afraid that he would sneak into the mouth of the court.

On the stage, behind the bead curtain, a delicate woman sat there, and she seemed a little overwhelmed.

The ink burned without looking at the pair of dogs and men, and first married the woman in the temple: "Aunt, I am back."

That woman is the lord of death and death, Mrs. Wang.

Unlike the female heroes who don’t want to be eyebrows, she is a woman who doesn’t know what to do with the window. Her husband is not there, and others don’t know what to do. She said, “A burning, you can come It is."

The ink burned and did not see the two complaints in the temple, and smiled: "So late, my aunt is still not sleeping, something to find me?"

"Well. Look, this Rong Gongzi said to you... Did you take his silver two?"

She has a thin face and is embarrassed to say that the ink burns people, and she has to avoid it.

The ink burned and blinked: "What, I don't lack silver, what do they do? What's more, these two are squatting, do I know you?"

The man of Gao Manda sneered: "The surname of the monk is often, and he is the leader in the family. The merchants are not in the bar, so I am always good."

The ink burned a little smile, but it was necessary to turn Changda upside down: "It turned out to be a big man, long-awaited and long-lost, and disrespectful and disrespectful. Then this other is..."

Dachang Gongzi said: "Oh, Mo Gongzi will really be crazy and sell silly. You and I are really seeing you, but you have been sleeping in the nine children’s room for 15 days this 30 days. Are you stunned? Will you know him?"

The ink-burning face is not red-hearted and does not jump. I smiled and looked at Rong Jiuyi’s eyes: "Why, you are me, I am a serious person, but I have never slept in anything about children."

Rong Jiu was irritated and blushing. He was still in the arms of his surname. The pears were raining: "Ink, ink son, I know that my identity is humble, I can’t be on the table. If you don’t bully me too much, I, I don’t. I will come to the door, but if you turn your face like this, you will not recognize people, I...I..."

The smoldering swearing said: "I really don't know you. I don't even know if you are a man or a woman. How can you see it?"

"You took care of my business last night, how can it be so cool? Chang Gongzi, Chang Gongzi, you have to be the master of me." Then he went deeper into the arms of the surname Chang, and he cried into tears.

Xue Meng was stunned by the side, and his eyebrows were twitching. It seems that if he was not bound by the cultivation of the young master, he had already taken the greasy dog male and female chasing down the mountain.

Da Changgong touched the head of Rong Jiu, and softly comforted a few words. He looked up and said: "Mrs. Wang, the sorrow of death is a sect of the righteous, but this ink son is despicable! Nine children earn hard money, Only for the early redemption of himself, he is good, not only ill-treatment of nine children, but also robbed his blood and sweat, if the nobles today do not give us a satisfactory explanation, although my hometown does not cultivate immortals, but the generations of business, wealth can pass the sky It will definitely make you feel bad in the Bab!"

Mrs. Wang panicked: "Ah... Chang Gongzi don't be angry, me, me..."

The ink burned in the heart and sneered, the salt merchant Chang's rich oil, this big Changzi can not even give Rong Jiu redemption, but also his family to make their own money, to say that there is no greasy, who believes.

But still smiled and said: "Ah, the original big brother is actually the son of the rich businessman of Yizhou, and it is really good atmosphere. See, admire, admire."

Da Changgong’s face is arrogant: "Hey, you still know that some heavens are thick and thick. If you do, you will quickly recognize each other and save yourself from being unhappy. If you take something of nine children, don't you come back?"

The ink burned and laughed: "It's weird, your family's nine children pick up so many customers every day, how can you not lose the baby, and you alone depends on me?"

"You!" Dachang Gongzi bit his teeth and sneered. "Well, I know you will be arguing! Madame Wang, you also saw it. The ink son is not reasonable, and he refuses to accept it. I will not tell him." You are a master, it’s up to you to make a decision!"

Mrs. Wang is a woman who is not worthy of the world. At this time, she is so nervous that she is incoherent: "I... Ah Burning... Menger..."

Xue Meng stood next to him and saw his mother's embarrassment. He stood up and said: "Changgongzi, the discipline of life and death is strict. If you say it is true, if the ink burns really violates the greed and obscenity, we will severely punish it. But you said nothing, you said that there is evidence to smack theft?"

Da Changgong sneered and said: "I know that the faction will have such a come out, so I quickly wrestle and deliberately come to the front of Mrs. Wang before the ink comes back."

He cleared his throat and said: "You listened well. Nine children lost two pearls, ten yuan ingots, a pair of plum blossoms, a pair of jade buckles, and a jade butterfly pendant. Just check You can have these things on your body, and you know if I am jealous of him."

The ink burns out: "Why are you searching for me?"

"Hey, I think you are a guilty conscience." Dachang Gongzi lifted his chin proudly. "Mrs. Wang, stealing and sinning, how to punish after death."

Mrs. Wang whispered: "This...the sect of the sect, has always been a coward, I really... don't know..."

"No, no, I don’t know Mrs. Wang, but I have a heart, and I want to protect my order. Oh, I don’t think that this life is so dirty and dirty."

"I have done it. My aunt has said that she doesn't know how to be the master. You bully a woman, but it's not finished yet?" The ink burned finally impatient, interrupted his words, and always laughed at hippie smiles. The appearance took a few points and stared at the pair of dogs and men.

"Well, I will search for you, but if you can't find it, you are full of swear words, what should I do?"

"Then I immediately apologize to Mo Gongzi."

"Yes." The ink burned very painfully. "But there is one point. If you are wrong, apologize, you have to climb down to death."

Da Changgong saw a full confidence in the appearance of ink, and could not help but be suspicious.

He has envied the people who cultivated immortals since he was a child, but his talent is too bad to be led.

A few days ago, he heard that the old man, Rong Rongji, had a smoldering love. The two agreed that as long as Rongji looked for an opportunity to take the ink-burning repair, the big Changzi gave Rongji a redemption, not only the redemption, but also Take Rong Ji into the house and keep him rich and worry-free.

Da Changgong seeks immortality, Rong Jiu seeks fortune, and the two are savage, and they hit it off.

In the last generation, they burned their traitors. Although they settled down, they also suffered a lot. In this life, the two men stealing chickens are not eclipsed, this ink does not know why suddenly turned the temper, a few days ago, still drunk and dreamed to lie in the gentle township, nine children, nine children short. This morning, after I took Rong Jiu’s two exercises, I actually rolled up the home of Rong Jiu as a soft road.

Da Changgong is called a mad singer, when the drop of the nine to come to death.

The trading abacus of the salt merchant’s son was screaming, and he figured out that once the ink was caught, the lady’s wife was forced to disperse the ink. To this end, he specially brought a piece of jade that was absorbed and repaired, and prepared to take some cheap back and integrate into his own sea of air.

But watching the ink burns like this, the big Changzi has come to the head and hesitates.

The ink burns and slips, and you may have sold it for a while, waiting for yourself.

However, after thinking about it, things have already arrived at this point. It is a pity to give up at this time. Maybe this is a bluff of this kid...

There is still a lot of pain in the mind, and the ink has begun to undress.

He took the robe apart and casually, and then smiled and made a gesture of asking: "You are welcome, slowly search."

After some tossing down, except for some broken silver, nothing was touched, and the face of the big Changzi changed.

"How is it possible!! You must be deceiving!"

The ink burned in the black and covered some purple scorpions, touched his chin and said: "You have touched the robe for ten times. I have touched you seven or eight times, and I will give you a light." You still don't give up?"

"Ink burn, you -"

The ink burned suddenly realized: "Oh, understand, big boy, you should not be coveted by my beauty, deliberately played this play, run to lick me oil, take advantage of me?"

Da Changgong was so dizzy, pointing to the burning nose, and couldn’t say a word for a long time, his face was red. Xue Meng on the side has long tolerated his head. Although he can't understand the smoldering of ink, he can't help others to humiliate.

Xue Meng unceremoniously stepped forward, raised his hand and folded the fingers of Da Changgong, and said with anger: "With your half-sitting, it turned out to be nothing to find!"

Da Changgong’s painful yelling, holding his finger: “You, you are good! You are a group! No wonder those things can’t be found in the ink, you must have hidden it for you! You I also took off my clothes, I searched you!"

Some people dare to order him to dress? ! Xueman suddenly became angry and angered: "Don't shave! Just your dog's paw, also with the clothes of the son's clothes? Not fast!"

The younger masters spoke, and the waiters who had endured for a long time in the Danxin Temple immediately swarmed and rushed the two mortals who had no power to fight back.

The anger of Dachang’s son came from far away: “The ink burns, you give me waiting! I will definitely not finish with you!”

The ink-burning station stood outside the Danxin Hall, looking at the distant night, squinting and sighing, "I am so scared."

Xue Meng gave him a cold look: "What are you afraid of?"

The ink burned heartily and sadly: "He sells salt at home, I am afraid that there is no salt to eat."

"....."

Xue Meng was silent for a moment and asked: "You really have nothing?"

"Not really."

"Is it really stolen?"

"Not really."

Xue Meng snorted: "I don't believe you."

The ink burned his hand and smiled: "If you lie, let me play five thunders."

Xue Meng suddenly raised his hand and held his arm in his ink. The ink burned him: "What are you doing?" Xue Meng snorted and quickly read a curse, only to hear the curse. Broken, a few inconspicuous soy-sized beads slipped out of the burnt cuffs and fell to the ground.

Xue Meng’s palm filled with spiritual power and waved toward those beads. The beads sparkled and became bigger and bigger, and finally became a pile of jewellery, plum armbands, jade earrings, and golden light.

Ink burning: "...is all the same door, why bother."

Xue Meng's face is gloomy: "Ink rain, you don't want to face."

"Haha."

Xue Meng angered: "Who laughs with you!"

The ink sighed and sighed: "Then I can't cry too."

Xue Meng blackened his face and said, "The darkness of the dead life, Chen Cangshu, you use it like this?"

"Well, let's learn and use it."

Xue Meng was angry: "The dog that sells salt is annoying, so it is only in front of him. I don't want to judge you well. But the dog has something to say right. If you have committed theft, pornography, and disorder, Which martial art is enough for you to drink a pot!"

The ink burned and was not afraid. He smiled and said, "What are you going to do? Wait for the uncle to come back and complain to him?"

He is not afraid of it, his uncle wants to succumb to his death, to say a few words at the top, where he is willing to beat him.

Xue Meng turned around and smashed the broken hair that was blown to the front by the night wind. A pair of eyes flashed with arrogance in the darkness.

"Oh? No, I went to Kunlun, I am afraid I will be back in a month or two."

The ink burned a smile, and suddenly there was an ominous premonition. He suddenly thought of a person.

but--

If he is, it should be him to receive the Chang Gongzi in the Danxin Hall tonight, instead of asking Mrs. Wang, who does not know.

That person... should not be...

Xue Meng saw the flicker in his eyes, and the contemptuous arrogance was more obvious.

"Hey, it hurts you, but, is this life and death, don't you have someone who doesn't hurt you?"

The ink burned back a few steps, and laughed hard: "Xiandi, you look so late, let's not bother him. The old man is quiet. I know it is wrong. I won’t steal it next time. It’s not enough. What? Let's go back to the room to rest, hey, I will give you tired."

Speaking of pulling the legs and slipping.

joke! Xue Meng is also a boy who is poisoned!

I am not a stepper now, not a human being, how can I be sent to that person? If you let him know that he has stolen something, he still stunned him, and he is expected to interrupt his two legs! Don't run at this time, wait for it!

The author has something to say: Why does Da Changgong have no brain?

Because of the brain full of large intestines (┘▽└)┌

The next chapter is the teacher’s appearance.

Chapter 6

After all, Xue Meng grew up in a small life, knowing the shortcut terrain, and finally burned the ink.

All the way to him, he came to the back mountain, the back mountain of the dead and the dead, is the closest place to the ghost world. Through an enchantment, the back is the yin.

At first glance, the mountain was terrible, and the ink burned immediately knew why the man was clearly at home, but still needed Mrs. Wang to treat people in the front hall.

The man didn't want to help, but he really couldn't get out -

The enchantment of the ghost world is broken.

At this moment, the whole back mountain is filled with strong ghosts. I have never materialized the devil to scream in the air, and at the entrance of the mountain gate, I can see a huge gap in the sky. The gap behind it is the ghost world, a thousand stone steps from the enchantment crack. In the middle, the evil spirits who have repaired the bleeding meat are following this step, swaying and swaying down from the underworld to the human world.

Changed to be an ordinary person, seeing this scene must be scared, the first glimpse of the smoldering is also a white sweat, but he is used to it now.

The enchantment between the two ghosts was set by Fuxi in ancient times. Nowadays, it is already very weak. From time to time, there will be broken places, and people who need to cultivate the immortals will come to repair. However, this kind of thing is not too much for improvement, but also very laborious, and it is a bitter job, so few scholars in the upper world are willing to take this job.

When the evil spirits are born, the first thing that will be difficult is the people who are going to repair the world. As the patron saint of the lower revision world, the dying of life and death has taken on the errands of repairing the enchantment. Their martial art is facing the weakest part of the enchantment. It is to be able to make up for the gap in time.

This breaks the enchantment, it will always miss four or five times a year, just like the pot that has been filled, it is not disabled.

At this time, the entrance to the ghost world, the long step of the bluestone, a man with a snow-colored clothing, wide-sleeve flying, surrounded by swords, golden light, is using his own power, clearing the evil spirits, repairing the enchantment loopholes.

The man was soaked in the face of Pan Wei, the sacred wind bones, the birth of very beautiful, far away, it is easy to reminiscent of the flower tree under the book, the literary literati. However, in the near future, he is a sword, a phoenix, a phoenix, a nose, a narrow and thin nose, and a long and graceful, but his eyes are slick and plain, which is particularly unappealing.

The smoldering look at him from afar, although he was prepared, but when it was true, once again, when he saw this person appearing in front of himself, he still had his bones shook finely.

Half is fear, half is... excited.

His master.

Chu nightning.

In the last life, Xue Meng finally came to the Wushan Temple, crying to see, this is the person.

It was this man who ruined the great cause of ink burning, ruined the ambition of ink burning, and was finally burned to death by ink.

For the sake of reason, to stumble the opponent, revenge and hate, the ink should be happy.

The sea is wide and the fish is flying, and the sky is high and the bird is flying. No one can make him. The ink burned originally thought that he thought so.

However, it seems that this is not the case.

After the teacher’s death, buried with hatred, there seems to be something else.

There is nothing to cultivate in the ink, and I don’t know that feeling is called chess and opponents.

He only knows that from then on, there is no longer his own enemy.

The teacher is alive, he is afraid, fearful, and chilling. He sees the willows in the hands of the masters, and they are like the dogs that have been used to the funeral. When they hear the sound of knocking on the scorpion, the teeth will be sore and soft. The leg is tense and twitching.

Later, the master died, and the most feared person died. The smoldering felt that he had grown up and had made a living, and finally made this scam.

Later, looking at the red dust, no one dared to let himself kneel down, and no longer slap in the face.

Celebrating the table, he opened the altar and sat on the roof and drank a full night of wine.

That night, under the influence of alcohol, when I was a teenager, the teacher’s scar on his back seemed to hurt.

At this moment, I saw the teacher respecting him in front of him, staring at him, fearing and hating, but there was also a distorted ecstasy.

Such an opponent, lost and recovered, can you not like it?

Chu nightning did not pay attention to the two apprentices who broke into the back hill, still concentrating on the unraveling of the undead.

His five senses are elegant, a pair of eyebrows are long, the phoenix is hanging coldly, the dust is clean, the temperament is outstanding, the look is unchanged in the * rain, and it looks very light, even if he sits down and burns the incense to play the piano.

However, such a gentle and elegant beauty man, at the moment, carrying a cold light, smashing the exorcist sword with red blood beads, wide-sleeved, swords and gas in front of the bluestone steps blasted open, Crushed stone bricks roll down, from the mountain gate all the way to the bottom of the mountain, thousands of long-term steps, when you are opened a deep bottomless gap!

It’s too fierce.

How many years have you not seen the strength of the Master?

This familiar and powerful hegemony, so that the ink burned inertia, the legs are soft, did not stand firm, and slammed into the ground.

When Chu Ning did not spend too much time, he killed all the ghosts and made up for the loopholes in the ghost world. After doing all this, he floated in the air and came to the ink and Xuemeng.

He first glanced at the ink burning on the ground, and then looked up to Xue Meng, a pair of Dan Fengyan eyes showed some chill.

"the fat is in the fire?"

The ink is suffocating.

Master has the ability to always make the most accurate judgments about things.

Xue Mengdao: "The teacher respects, slams down the mountain, commits theft, obscenity and sin, and asks the teacher to take responsibility."

Chu night Ning nodded silently for a while, coldly: "Know it."

Ink burning: "....."

Xue Meng: "....."

Both of them are awkward, then? Not then?

However, in the smoldering heart, he was lucky, and when he looked up to see the night, he was cold and could not see a fierce golden light. He slammed the air, and it sounded like lightning and thunder, and he smacked in the cheeks. ! !

Bloody splashes!

The speed of the golden light is so amazing, the ink burns not to say dodge, even the closed eyes are too late to close, the flesh on the face is cut open, hot and severe pain.

Chu night Ning took the hand and stood cold, standing in the night wind of Xiao Xiao, the air is still filled with the murderous spirit of the evil spirits, and at this moment it is mixed with the smell of human blood, making the back mountain forbidden land more sinister and horrible. .

It was the bunch of willows that did not know when it appeared in the hands of Chu, and the cane was narrow and narrow, and there were green and tender leaves on it, and it was hanging to the side of the boots.

It is so elegant and elegant, it should have been conceived of such verses as "fibre and willows, holding this lover".

It is a pity that Chu Yuning is neither slender nor lover.

The Liu Teng in his hand is actually a Shenwu, named Tian Wen. At this moment, Tian asked that the golden red light is flowing, and the whole piece of darkness is taken through, and the eyes of the late night of Chu’s lateness are reflected.

Chu night, the upper and lower lips touched, Sen Ran said: "Ink rain, you are very courageous. Really when I will not control you?"

If it is a fifteen-year-old ink, it may not take this sentence seriously, thinking that the Master is only saying to scare himself.

However, after the re-emergence of the ink rain, I have already thoroughly taught the master's "management bundle" with blood in the last life. He suddenly felt that the tooth sticks hurt, his brain was hot, and his mouth began to die and he refused to pay. .

"Master respects..." The cheeks are bleeding, the ink burns and raises the eyes, and the scorpion is dyed with a layer of water vapor. He knows that he is very pitiful now. "The disciple did not steal... not obscenity... Why did the teacher listen to Xue Meng, and if he asked, he would call me first?"

"....."

The ink burns against the uncle and has two great stunts. First, it is cute. Second, it is pitiful. Now he moved this photo to Chu Ningning, and his tears fell. "Is it so unfortunate that the disciple is in your eyes? Why does the teacher refuse to give me a chance to defend?"

Xue Meng is awkward at the side: "Ink!! You, your dogleg! You, you stink face! Master, don't listen to him, don't be confused by this stuff! He stole it! Still there!"

Chu nightning drops his eyelashes, his look is cold: "Ink burning, you really have not stolen?"

"No."

"...you should know what the consequences of lying to me."

The burnt goose bumps are all up, can he not know? But still the dead duck mouth is hard: "Please respect the teacher!"

Chu night Ning raised his hand, and the golden vines vines waved again. This time, they did not smoke on the face, but they burned the ink.

This taste is too familiar. Liu Teng "Heavenly Question" has a role in addition to daily smoking.

Chu Yuening stared at the ink burned by Tian Wen, and asked again: "Can you steal?"

The ink burns only feels a familiar pain and strikes the heart, as if there is a small snake with sharp teeth and teeth, suddenly plunged into the chest, and tumbling in the internal organs.

Accompanied by the pain is an irresistible temptation, the ink can not help but open his mouth, humming and hoarse: "I... never... ah...!!"

It seems that he is lying, the golden light of the day is getting more and more violent, and the cold sweat of the burning pain is still struggling, but still desperately resisting such torture.

This is the second role of Tian Qiao in addition to pumping people for trial.

Once * by Heaven, no one can lie in front of the Lord of Heaven. Whether it is a ghost, a death or alive, there is a way for them to open their mouths and tell the answer that Chu would rather know.

There was only one person in my life, and finally I relied on the strong cultivation, and finally I did my best to keep the secret in front of Tian.

That person is the ink rain that became the emperor of the human world.

After the rebirth, the ink burned with a trace of luck, thinking that he should still be able to resist the trial of Tianwen as he did in the past, but he bit his lip for a long time, and the big big sweat beads ooze down the dark eyebrows. He was trembling, and finally he still had a painful fall in front of the night of the night, and he suffocated.

"I... I...stealed..."

The pain suddenly disappeared.

The ink burned still did not slow down, and listened to the late night, asked the next sentence, the sound is colder.

“Can you be * or chaotic?”

Smart people don't do stupid things. Since they haven't resisted, it's even more impossible. This time, the ink-burning resistance did not resist. When the pain hit, he even screamed: "There are some!!!! The master is not! Don't!"

Xue Meng was green at the side, shocked and said: "How can you... that Rongji is a man, you actually..."

No one cares about him. The golden light that he asked in the sky slowly slammed down. The ink burned and gasped. The wet skin was just like fishing from the water. It was white as paper, and the lips could not shake and swayed. No.

Through the sweaty eyelashes, I vaguely saw Chu Xiening wearing a jade crown, a wide-sleeved and earthy figure.

A strong hatred suddenly rushed into my heart - Chu nightning! It’s true to you in your life, it’s true! ! Even if you live it again, how can you hate how you hate it! I am obedient to your ancestors for eighteen generations! !

Chu nightning did not know that the gangster had to fought his ancestors for eighteen generations. He stood in a gloomy place for a while and then said.

"Xue Meng."

Although Xue Meng knows that today's wealthy businessmen are more popular than men, many people play tricks just for the sake of freshness. They don't really like men, but he still has some incompetence. After a while, he said: "Master, disciple."

"Ink burns thieves, obscenity, and deceives the three precepts, and takes him to the Jurassic Temple to repent. When he is tomorrow, he will be sent to the good and evil, and he will be punished in public."

Xue Meng was shocked: "What, what? Public punishment?"

The public punishment means that the disciples who have committed the heavy punishment are brought to the disciples of the whole martial art. In front of everyone, even the aunts of the canteen are pulled over, convicted and punished on the spot.

It’s a shame to lose face.

It is necessary to know that the smoldering is the son of the dead, although the martial law is strict, but because of the special status of the smoldering, the uncle has pity that he lost his parents at an early age and has been displaced for the whole fourteen years, so he can’t help but protect himself. Even if he made a mistake, he only trained a few words in private, and he never even played.

However, the teacher can not give the face of the Lord, and he must take the treasures of the people to the good and evil, and when the whole door is smashed, he will wear the shoes and give them to the shoes. This is also Xuemeng's unexpected.

In this regard, the ink is not surprising.

He lay on the floor with a sneer in his mouth.

His master is much great, and he is selfless.

Chu's blood is cold. In the last life, the teacher died in front of him. He screamed and cried for him, pulling his clothes and kneeling on the ground asking him for help.

However, Chu night is rather rumored.

So his apprentice was so in front of him, and the ink burned so badly next to him, but he stood by and ignored.

Now, just send him to the good and evil, and talk about public disposal. What is so strange.

I only hate that I am too weak to repair myself. I can’t lick his skin, smoke his ribs, drink his blood, can’t humiliate his hair, and can’t torture him to destroy his dignity. Life is better than death...

The fierceness of the beast in the eyes did not hide for a while, and Chu Ning saw it.

He faintly licked his face, and there was no extra expression on the face of Sven's elegant.

"What are you thinking?"

Desperate!

Heaven has not recovered yet!

The ink burned again and felt the vines * with their own shackles, and the internal organs were screwed into the residue. He screamed with pain and gasped and pulled out the thoughts in his mind.

"Chu Ning, you can bear it! Look back, I don't * / die you!"

The bird is silent.

Chu nightning: "....."

Xue Meng was shocked: "....."

Tian Qiao suddenly recovered the Chu Xi Ning palm, turned into a little golden light, and then disappeared. The question of heaven is melted in the bones of Chu’s late night, and it is accompanied by the call.

Xue Meng’s face was white and some stuttered: “The teacher, the teacher’s master...”

Chu night Ning did not scream, hanging black and long eyelashes, watching his palms out for a while, then he raised his eyes, a face actually did not collapse, but his face was even colder, he used "孽The eyes of the dead, staring at the ink for a moment, then low:

"The day is broken, I am going to repair."

Chu nightning dropped such a sentence, turned and left.

Xue Meng is a stupid child: "Does Heaven and Heaven ask this kind of god, will it be bad?"

Chu Xiaoning heard it and used the look of "the gangster to die" and looked back at him. Xue Meng suddenly shudders.

The ink slammed on the ground and looked dull.

What he just thought was really looking for an opportunity to * and die. He knows that this person called "Night Yuheng, Beidou Xianzun" Chu Zongshi has always paid attention to the elegance and correctness, and he can’t stand being trampled under the feet. Stained and crushed.

But how can this kind of thing make Chu Xiaoning know!

The ink slammed the dog and slammed his face.

Thinking of the look of Chu’s late departure, he felt that he was probably not far from death.

The author has something to say: the master is always calculating the field~ Don't stand the wrong cp~ don't stand the wrong attack, the master is subject to, is subject to, is subject to == ink feeding fish is attack! This article focuses on!

Meat Pack: Why do you see the Master's legs will be soft, are you not attacking? What about the gas field?

Ink feeding fish: old age, rheumatism old cold legs

Meat Pack: Speak well

Ink feeding fish: Don't repeatedly emphasize my 32-year-old soul in the text! Laozi is very green after being born again! Laozi is a naive and lively young man!

Meat packet: Then you still continue to have rheumatism and old cold legs (?????)つ

Chapter 7

The hot sun is in the head.

The shackles of life and death are magnificent, and the corridors stretch.

As a rising star in the Xiuxian faction, it is quite different from those of the famous monks.

Let's take the most prosperous Linyi Confucianism door today. The main hall of the people is called the "Six Virtue Hall", which means that the disciples can "smart, believe, holy, righteous, benevolent, and loyal". The disciple's living area, called the “Six-Dollar”, warns the disciples to “filial piety, friendship, jealousy, marriage, responsibility, and shirt”. The place where the lecture is taught is called “Six Arts Taiwan”, which means that Confucian disciples need to be proficient in the six techniques of “ritual, music, shooting, imperial, book, number”.

All in all, it is elegant and endless.

On the other hand, the shackles of life and death are worthy of being poor. The name is a difficult word. "Dan Xin Dian", "Good and evil Taiwan", that is good, probably it is not burning a few days. The book, I thought that I couldn’t find a few words at the beginning, and started to make a fuss, playing a talent like “Xue Wei”.

Therefore, there are many names of plagiarism in the life and death, such as the dark room of the disciple's self-reflection.

The Yuqiao, which connects the rest area to the teaching area, is called the Naihe Bridge. The dining hall is called Meng Po Tang, the performance of the military field is called the Knife Mountain Fire Sea, the back mountain is called the dead ghost, and so on.

These are still good, and the more partial places are simply called "This is the mountain" "This is the water" "This is the pit", as well as the famous "Ah, Ah" and "Wow Wow" two steep cliffs.

The elders’ sleeping halls are naturally difficult to escape, each with its own nickname.

Chu nightning is no exception. He likes to be quiet and does not want to live with everyone. His home is built on the south peak of the dead and dying. He is hidden in a bamboo and blue sea. There is a pool in front of the court. Lotus Day, due to the abundance of spirituality, the pool is full of hibiscus all year round, can be red.

The disciples secretly called this beautiful place a place -

Red Lotus Hell.

The ink burned this point and laughed at it.

Who asked Chu tonight, one night, a mother's face, the disciples in the door saw him and saw the Shura and the ghosts, what is the place where the ghosts are not called hell?

Xue Meng interrupted his reverie: "You still laughed at the loss! I ate breakfast soon. After I finished eating, I went to the good and evil platform. Master is going to punish you in public today!"

The ink sighed and touched the whip marks on his face: "Oh... hurt."

"Live it!"

"Hey, I don't know if the sky has been repaired. If I haven't fixed it, don't take it out and judge me. Who knows what I will talk nonsense."

In the face of the burning heart and sincerity, Xue Meng’s face was red, and he said: “If you dare to speak out in public, be indecent, you will not pull your tongue!”

The ink burned his face and swayed his hand: "You don't need to pull it out, you don't need to pull it out, and the teacher will tie me with the willow, and I will confess it on the spot."

When Chen arrived, the ink-burning rules were brought to the good and evil, and he looked at it, and there was a deep blue sea below. The disciples of the dead and the dead are dressed in martial arts robes, the blue is almost black and the light armor, the lion's first belt, the silver edge of the guard and the hem of the placket shines.

The rising sun is rising, and the good and evil are under the stage.

The ink burned on the high platform, and the elders of the law read a long sin book in front of him.

"Yuheng elders are under the guise, ink rain, eyes and air, care for teaching, do not follow the rules, morality and sorrow. In violation of the fourth, ninth, and fifteenth commandments of the door, according to the law, the stick is eighty, copying the door It’s a hundred rules, it’s forbidden for one month. You can have something to argue with the ink.”

Ink burned a look at the white figure in the distance.

That is the whole life and death, the only elder who does not need to wear a uniform blue silver robes.

Chu night Ning snow satin is the clothes, the silver smog is a thin cover, like a nine-day frost, but people look thinner than frost and snow. He sat quietly, some distance away, and the ink burned to see the expression on his face, but I also knew that this person would have no waves.

Taking a deep breath, the ink ignited: "There is nothing to argue."

The elders of the precepts, according to the rules, asked the disciples below: "If there is any dissatisfaction with the judgment, or if there is a confession, it can be described at this time."

The following disciples began to hesitate and face each other.

None of them expected that Yu Heng’s elder, Chu Ning, could actually send his apprentice to the good and evil, and disciplinary in public.

This thing is good to say, called iron face unselfish, said it is ugly, called the cold blood devil.

The cold-blooded demon head Chu Ning faintly supported the chin and sat in the position. Suddenly someone shouted with amplifying: "The elders of Yu Heng, the disciples are willing to plead for the younger brother."

"……plead?"

The disciple apparently felt that the ink was the relative of the Lord. Even if he made a mistake now, the future will still be bright, so he decided to take the opportunity to please the ink. He began to talk nonsense: "Mr. Brother is a fault, but he loves the same door on weekdays, helping the weak, asking the elders to look at his essential evil, and deal with it wide!"

There is obviously more than one that intends to please the younger brother.

Gradually, the number of people who talked to the ink has increased. The reasons are all over the place, and even the ones who burned their own voices are all embarrassed—when did he “the heart of the heart, the world of the heart” passed? This is a disciplinary meeting, not a commendation meeting?

"The elders of Yu Heng, the younger brother of Mo has once removed the magic guard for me, and killed the tricky beasts. I would like to ask for the merits of the ink master, and I will pass the penalty and hope that the elders will reduce the sentence!"

"The elders of Yu Heng, the younger brother of the ink, helped me to dispel my heart when I was in danger. I believe that this time, the mistakes made by the younger brother are just a moment of confusion, and the elders are relieved of the punishment of the younger brother!"

"The elders of Yu Heng, the younger brother of the ink has given me a magical medicine to save my mother. He is a kind person and asks the elders to punish!"

The last person’s rhetoric was robbed by the former one. There was no time to edit it. Seeing the cold eyes of Chu’s late Qing dynasty swept over, and the eagerness of the students’ wisdom was unspeakable: “The elders of Yu Heng, the younger brother of Ms. helped me to double-education—”

"Hey." Someone couldn't help but smile.

The disciple suddenly blushed and fell back.

"Yu Heng, anger, anger..." The elders of the precepts were not good, and they were busy advising him.

Chu night Ningsen cold road: "I have never seen such a brazen man. What is his name? Whose apprentice?"

The commandment was slightly hesitant, and then the scalp whispered softly: "The little singer."

Chu nightning picked up his eyebrows: "Your apprentice? Face?"

The precepts elders are inevitably embarrassed, red-faced and old-fashioned: "He sings a good singer, and he can help when he receives the sacrifice."

Chu night, Ning snorted, turned his face, too lazy to talk to the shameless elders.

It is normal for thousands of people to go up and down, and a dozen or so dog legs.

When you look at the look of the brothers and sisters, you have to believe that you are really serious. You are good at squinting and talking about your own words, and you are talented in this sect.

After being recited numerous times, "Jade Heng elders please enlighten" Chu Yuening, finally made a speech to the disciples.

"Thank you for the rain?" He paused and said, "Yes, you all come up."

Those people were ignorant and trembled.

In the evening of the night, the golden light flashed in the palm of the hand, and Tian asked to come out. He slammed the dozens of people into a group and firmly tied it to the original place.

Come again! !

The ink burned quickly and desperately. He saw that the legs were soft when he saw it. I really don’t know where the late night Ning was made of such a perverted weapon. He lost his life and never kissed him. Whoever gave it to him was not alive. When you die, you have to be killed and asked to die.

Chu Jingning’s eyes were quite ridiculous. He asked one of them: “Is it necessary to help you get rid of the magic guard?”

Where did the disciple resist the torture of the heavens, he immediately shouted: "No! No!"

Ask another one: "Ink burning helps you get rid of the fire?"

"Ah!! Never! Never!"

"Ink burns you a panacea?"

"Ah-! Help! No, no! No, I have compiled it! It is my editor!"

Chu night Ning loosened the tie, but then he waved his hand and waved, and the fire splattered in the air, and the sky suddenly slammed out, according to the few lying disciples on his back.

Suddenly screams, blood splashes.

Chu night Ning twisted his eyebrows and angered: "What are you calling? Give me a kneeling! Commandment!"

"in."

"Give me a penalty!"

"Yes!"

As a result, those people not only did not get the benefits, but each of them was beaten by the deceitful rhythm, and each was beaten with ten sticks, plus the Yuliu who was accompanied by the Yuheng elders.

After entering the night, the ink burned on the bed. Although it had already been applied to the medicine, all the backs were staggered and scarred. Even the body could not be turned over. The tears of pain were so strong that they sucked their noses.

The cuteness of his birth, so sullen and shrinking looks like a beaten plush cat scorpion, but the content he thinks is really not like a blind man.

He licked the bedding, biting the sheets, imagining that this is the grandson of the late night, he bites! kick! kick! Tearing!

The only consolation was that the teacher had personally made a copy of the hand to visit him, staring at the gentle and pitiful eyes, and the tears of the ink burned even more fierce.

He doesn't care what the man is not tearing, who he likes, who he loves.

"Sore you so painful? Can you still get up?" The teacher sighed at his bed and sighed. "The master respects him... he is too embarrassed to start. He beat you... there are several wounds. The blood has not stopped yet."

The ink burned and he felt distressed, and the chest gradually rose up a warm stream. Mingrun’s eyes lifted from the beak and smashed.

"The teacher said that you care about me so much, I, I will not hurt."

"Hey, look at you like this, how can it not hurt? You don't know the temperament of the master, do you dare to make such a big mistake in the future?"

In the candlelight, the teacher was somewhat helpless and looked at him with some distress. The fascinating eyes and eyes were full of light, like a warm spring.

The ink burned under the heart, and he said: "It will never be. I swear."

"Why did you swear that it was true?" But after returning, the teacher finally smiled. "Put your hands and let them cool. Are you coming up? If you don't come, you will squat, I will feed you."

The smoldering had already climbed halfway up, and once I heard this, I immediately stumbled and did not squat.

Teacher: "..."

Regardless of the last life or this life, the most loved ones are the hand-picked by the teacher. The skin is as thin as cloud smoke, and the stuffing is tender, such as gelatin. Each one is full and smooth, soft and fragrant, and the entrance is instant. .

Especially the soup head, the milky white glutinous rice, sprinkled with green onion, tender yellow egg silk, and then poured a spoonful of garlic and stir-fried red oil and spicy toppings, eat into the stomach, as if to warm people for a lifetime.

The teacher took a spoonful and a spoonful and carefully fed him. While feeding, he also said to him: "There is no red oil on the day, you hurt badly, it is not easy to eat spicy, just drink bone soup."

The ink burned and stared at him. He couldn’t move his eyes and smiled and said: "Spicy and not spicy, as long as you do, it is delicious."

"I can talk." The teacher also smiled and picked up a poached egg lying in the soup. "Take you a heart, know that you like it."

The ink smirked and laughed, and the forehead was stunned and squirmed like a flower: "Sister."

"what happened?"

"Nothing, just call you."

"..."

Stay swaying.

"Teacher."

The teacher refused to laugh: "Is it called me?"

"Well, it’s just calling you, I feel so happy."

The teacher snorted and touched his forehead gently: "This silly boy, isn't it a fever?"

The ink burned out and laughed. He rolled a half and rolled his face, his face glaring at him, his eyes bright, like a tiny star.

"If you can eat the master's hand every day, that would be great."

This is not a lie.

After the death of the teacher, Mo-burning always wanted to try the dragon handwriting he had done again, but the taste was never able to come back.

At that time, Chu Ning had not completely broken with him. I don’t know if it was out of jealousy. I watched the ink burned and lingered in front of the teacher. Chu nightning quietly went to the kitchen, and stuffed with glutinous rice, and carefully wrapped it. A few hand-picked. But when I haven’t finished the package, I will let the smoldering see it. I can’t bear the pain of burning my love. I just think that this kind of behavior of Chu’s late sneer is ridiculing myself, is ill-conceived, and is stinging himself. .

The teacher died, and the night of Ning Mingming could be saved, but he refused to give him a helping hand. Afterwards, he still wanted to slap his hand for himself to eat. Did he think that this would make him happy?

He rushed into the kitchen and overturned all the utensils, and Xue Yu’s full hand was rolled over the floor.

He leaned toward Chu night: "What are you doing? Are you also equipped with the things he used? Also used as the dish he has done? The teacher is dead, are you satisfied? Do you have to take all your apprentices? Are you forced to die, you are willing? Chu night Ning! No one in the world can make that bowl of hand-written, you can imitate, can't seem to him!"

Now in this bowl, he is both happy and emotional, and slowly eats the back. Although he still smiles, his eyes are a little moist. Fortunately, the candlelight was dim, and the teacher couldn’t see his subtle look.

Ink burns: "The teacher."

"Ok?"

"Thank you."

The teacher sneaked a sigh, and immediately smiled softly: "Isn't it a bowl of hand? As for being so polite with me, if you like it, I will always give it to you."

I want to say that you are not only thanking you for a bowl of hand.

I still want to thank you, the last life, or all of my life, only you can really afford to see me, do not mind my origins, mind that I am outside the fight, unscrupulous for fourteen years.

I still want to thank you. If it is not because I suddenly remembered you, after I was born again, I am afraid I will not be able to kill Rong Jiu, and then cast a big mistake, and then embark on the old road.

Fortunately, in this life, rebirth before you die, I will definitely protect you well, if you have a flaw, Chu nightning, the cold blood devil is not willing to save you, and me.

But where can these words be spoken?

In the end, the ink burned, and the soup was all finished. Even the roots were not left, and then the lips were smashed, and the dimples were deep, and the little cats were very cute.

"Is there still tomorrow?"

The teacher is crying and laughing: "Don't change something else? Not tired?"

"I don't get tired every day, I am afraid that you are bothering me."

Shi Yan shook his head and smiled: "I don't know if the flour is enough. If it's not enough, I can't do it. If it doesn't work, can you see the syrup eggs? It's also what you love."

"Okay, okay. As long as you do, everything is fine."

In the burning heart, the grass grows and flies, and I am so happy that I can't wait to hold the quilt and hit two rolls.

Look at the teacher's many sages, Chu nightning, you smoke me! Anyway, I am lying in bed and there are beautiful people to care for, hehe!

Thinking of his master, just in the tenderness can not help but mix a anger.

The smoldering began to resentfully squatting on the bed, the heart, what night Yufeng, what Beidou Xianzun, all his aunt's shit!

Chu nightning, let's walk in this life! !

The author has something to say: the teacher slaps the hand

Ink feeding fish: eat and eat!

Master respects the hand

Ink feeding fish: throw and throw!

The death of the dead ink, the fish is wasting food, and the labor is ruined. Is this the annihilation of humanity or the demise of morality? Please see today's "Legal Forum".

The real reason:

Master's cooking is too unpalatable. As an apprentice, he has already had a deep distrust of the food safety of the chef's various dishes.

Chapter 8

The ink burned in the bed for three days in the same way as the dead fish. The wound just converge, and I received a message, letting him go to the red lotus water to make a coolie.

This is also part of the punishment. During the period when the ink is forbidden, it is not allowed to go down the mountain, but it cannot be idle. It is necessary to give the gang to help and do some hard work.

Generally speaking, these errands are such as: helping the mother-in-law of the mother-in-law to brush the dishes, scrubbing the 365 stone lions on the pillars of the Nahe Bridge, copying the boring archival files, and so on.

But what is the red lotus otter? It is the residence of the grandson of the late Qing Dynasty, known as the Shura field of Honglian Hell.

There are not a few people who have been there since the death, and everyone who has gone in has not interrupted his arm or interrupted his leg after coming out.

Therefore, the night residence of Chu Yuning, in addition to the red lotus hell, there is a more grounded nickname: broken leg otter.

There is a rumor in the pie: "The water is beautiful, and the beauty asks. I am in the broken leg, knowing that I have broken my legs. The elders of Yu Heng are the best choice to help you with your own meridians."

There were once female disciples who were not afraid of death. They dared to hang on to the beauty of the elders of Yuheng. They sneaked into the south peak and sneaked on the eaves, hoping to see the elders bathing and changing clothes.

As a result, it can be imagined that the female warrior was killed by the gods who were asked to fight, crying and crying, and lying in bed for more than 100 days.

And Chu Xiaoning also put a swearword, if you dare to commit again, directly smashed the eyes of others.

did you see? More unpretentious words! More incomprehensible behavior! More horrible man!

In the martial art, there were some innocent and innocent silly girls who looked at themselves as women. They thought that the elders of Yuheng should be pity and jealous, always laughing in front of him, trying to attract the attention of the elders. But since the elders handed the female hooligans, no one dared to hit his mind anymore.

The elders of Yu Heng, men and women are pumping, no gentleman's temperament, except for the good-looking face, where can't be anywhere - this is the evaluation of Chu Zhongning's disciple.

The younger brother who came to the communication was quite sympathetic and looked at the ink, and endured it, but still couldn’t hold back: "The ink brother..."

"Ok?"

"...The elders of Yuheng are so bad, and those who have gone to the red lotus water, no one can stand up, look at it, or else, say that their wounds have not healed, ask the elders of Yuheng to let you go. Brush the plate?"

The smoldering was very grateful to the younger brother of the Buddha, and then refused him.

Ask Chu tonight?

Forget it, he doesn't want to be asked by the day.

So he labored hard to wear clothes, dragging heavy steps, and reluctantly went to the southern peak of the dead.

The red lotus water scorpion, the red lotus hell, the Chu night ning's residence, can't see a living person in a hundred miles.

No one wants to be close to where he lives. The bad taste and the indecent character of Chu’s late night make everyone in the martial art respect him.

There is some embarrassment in the ink, I don’t know what the night will punish myself, all the way to the top of the peak of the South Peak, through the overlapping bamboo forest, a large piece of beautiful red lotus shines into the eye.

At this time, it was early in the morning, and the rising sun was rising, reflecting the brilliance of the horizon, the fiery red clouds and the red hibiscus that was connected to the lotus leaf in the pool, and the waves were bright and clear. The pool on the pool is full of water, and the water is covered by a waterfall. The crystal water drops smashed against the stone wall. The water mist is transpiration, and the smoke is condensed. The tranquility shows a few enchanting.

The feeling of ink burning is:

vomit.

Where the night of Chu’s stay, no matter how good it looks, he is vomiting!

Look, how arrogant and extravagant, how extravagant and wasteful, the houses of the disciples are closely connected one by one, the room does not occupy a large area, the elders of Yuheng are good, one person occupies a whole hill, and also dig three big Pond, planted with lotus, well, although these lotuses are special varieties, they can be made into holy products, but -

Anyway, it is not pleasing to the eye. Hate can't burn this broken leg water to a fire!

The abdomen was returned to the abdomen. In view of his own * and fifteen years of this year, he was unable to compete with the master of Chuzong. The ink burned before he came to the residence of Chu Yuning, standing at the door, narrowing his eyes and opening his grandson with sweetness.

"The disciple is burning and seeing the Master."

"Well, come in."

The house was full of chaos, and the cold-blooded demon head Chu Ning was a white robe. The clothes were stacked high and tight, quite a bit of abstinence. Today he was wearing a tall ponytail, wearing a black metal hand guard, sitting on the ground and slamming a pile of organs and a pen in his mouth.

Looking at the inkless expression, he bit his pen and said vaguely, "Come here."

The ink burned away.

This is really difficult, because there is nothing in this room that can make a difference, and the artwork and metal broken wood are scattered everywhere.

The ink burned his brow and twitched. In the last life, he didn't go into the room of Chu Yuning. I don't know the beautiful man who is well-dressed. The place where he lives is so chaotic... It’s hard to say.

“What is this about Master?”

"Night tour."

"What?"

Chu Xiaoning is somewhat impatient, probably because he has a pen and is inconvenient to speak: "Night tour."

The ink burned silently on a pile of messy parts.

His master is known as the Chu Master, not a name. In my heart, Chu Xinning is a very powerful man. Whether it is his three god-level weapons, his enchantment technique, or his organ manufacturing technique, he is not worthy of the word "topping the pole". This is also why his temper is so bad, so difficult to wait, but the major repairs of the sects still struggle to break the head to grab him.

For the "night god", the reincarnation of the ink is very clear.

That is a kind of mech that Chu Yuning created. It is cheap and has a strong fighting power. It can protect the ordinary people who are under the guardianship at night from the general ghosts.

In the past life, the perfect night tour * has become a must-have for every household. The price of each is equivalent to a pipa, and the effect is much better than that of the smashing door.

After the death of Chu night, these night gods still guard the poor people who can't afford to be long. This sorrowful and sorrowful chest is matched with Chu’s feelings for the apprentices... Oh, it’s actually making the ink burnt.

The ink burned down and looked at the "night tour god" of a pile of parts at this time. The former dust rushed past the bottom of my heart. He couldn't help but pick up a finger joint of a night * and grab it in his hand.

Chu nightning buckled the parts and shackles, finally freed his hand, took the pen that had been biting in the mouth, and slammed the ink: "The one just got tung oil, can't touch."

"Oh..." The ink burned down the joints of the fingers and adjusted the emotions. It was still a lovely appearance of humans and animals. He smiled and asked, "Is the teacher called me to come over, is it going to let me help?"

Chu nightning said: "Well."

"doing what?"

"Clean up the house."

The smoldering smile froze, and he looked at the general room after the earthquake: "....."

Chu late Ning is a genius on the sacred, and an idiot in life.

After picking up the fifth cup that broke the cup that was not swept away in time, the ink burned finally couldn’t stand it anymore: "Master, how long have you been in this house? My God, so chaotic!"

Chu nightning is looking at the drawings, and the words are not lifted: "Almost a year."

Ink burning: "....."

"Where do you usually sleep?"

"What?" The drawing may be a bit problematic. Chu Yuening was disturbed and seemed even more impatient than usual. He glared at his own hair and replied with anger. "Of course it is a bed."

The ink burned a look at the bed, which was full of all kinds of mechs that had already been completed, and a series of tools such as a saw axe and a sickle, each of which was cold and sharp.

Great, how did this person sleep without cutting his head?

Busy for a long time, the dust on the floor was covered with three cockroaches, and the white towel on the shelf of the bookcase was black more than ten pieces. At noon, it was half finished.

Fucking Chu night, this person is really poisonous than the poison woman.

Finishing the room does not seem to be a serious punishment. It is not like a coolie to say that it is going out, but who knows that it is such a ghost place that has not been cleaned for 365 days? Don't say that you are all scars, even if you are physically healthy now, you can get tired of half life!

"Master is ....."

"Ok?"

"You piled up the clothes..." It’s probably been piled up for three months.

Chu nightning finally put an arm of the night tour god, he took a sore shoulder, looked up and looked at the clothes on the suitcase on the mountain into the mountain, coldly said: "I wash myself."

The ink burned a sigh of relief, thank goodness, and then some curiosity: "Hey? Master will also wash clothes?"

Chu night Ning looked at him, after a while, cold and cold: "What is the difficulty? Throw it into the water, dip it, pick it up, dry it."

"....." I really don't know how to hear this sentence, those who are pregnant with the Spring Masters. The ink burned deeply felt that the man who couldn’t use it was really disgusting, saying how many springs and broken things went out.

"It’s not early, you go with me to the dining hall, and the rest will come back."

In Meng Potang, people came and went, and the disciples of the dead and the dying were eating in groups of three, and Chu Ning took a few dishes on the lacquered wooden tray and sat quietly in the corner.

With him as the core, within 20 feet, there is no one left.

No one dared to sit too close with the elders of Yu Heng, for fear that he was not happy, and asking for the day was a mad rush. Chu nightning himself is actually very clear about this, but he doesn't mind, a beautiful woman sitting there, Sven gracefully eating something in the bowl.

But today, it's not the same.

The smoldering is what he brought, and naturally he has to be with him.

Others are afraid of him, and the ink is also afraid, but it is a person who has died once, and the fear of Chu Xiening is not so powerful.

Especially after the fear of the first time has gradually subsided, the past life’s dislike of Chu’s lateness has slowly emerged. What about the late night of Chu? The last life is not dead in his hands.

The ink burned in front of him, calmly chewed the sweet and sour pork ribs in the bowl, biting it, and soon the bones spit into a hill.

Chu night Ning suddenly fell a chopsticks.

The ink burns.

"... can you stop eating, don't you pout?"

"I chew my bones, don't I chew my mouth?"

"Then don't eat bones."

"But I like to eat bones."

"Pow it and eat it."

The voice of the two quarrels is getting louder and louder, and some disciples are stealing them.

The ink burned the impulse to buckle the rice bowl on the head of the night, and licked the lips of the oily light. After a while, his eyes narrowed and a smile appeared in his mouth.

"The teacher refused to shout so loudly. Let others hear it, wouldn't you laugh at us?"

Chu nightning has always been thin, and the sound is light, and whispered: "Roll."

The ink burned and laughed straight.

Chu nightning: "....."

"Hey, Master, don't yell at me, eat, eat. I try to make a small noise."

The ink burned enough, and it began to be clever, and the sound of the bones was a lot smaller.

Chu night Ning eat soft and do not eat hard, see ink burning obedient, his face is slightly relieved, no longer so bitter and deep hatred, head down, Sisi Wenwen eat his own vegetables tofu.

It didn't take too long to settle down, and the ink burned again.

He did not know what was wrong with him. In short, he saw Chu Ningning in his life, and he wanted to make a heavenly place and make people angry.

So Chu Evening found that although the ink was not chewed, he began to grab the ribs and eat it. The greasy hands were full and the sauce was bright.

Chu night, Ning's forehead, blue veins, and forbearance.

He dropped his eyelashes, didn't look at the ink, and he managed to eat himself.

I don't know if the ink is burning because I am too happy to eat too much. I am too careful to throw the bones that have been smashed into the rice bowl of Chu.

Chu night Ning took advantage of the ribs of the wolf, and the surrounding air quickly condensed and frozen at a speed visible to the naked eye.

"Ink burning...!!!"

"Master respects..." The ink burns quite a bit of fear, and I don't know how many points are true. A few points are false. "That...hey, I didn't mean it."

It’s strange.

"..."

"Don't be angry, I will clip it out for you."

When I said that I really extended the chopsticks, I inserted them into the bowl of Chu’s late night and quickly picked up the ribs.

Chu Yuning’s face was blue and green, and it seemed to be fainting.

The ink burns the eyelashes, and the delicate face is quite a bit grievance: "Is this a disgrace to me?"

"..."

"Master, I am sorry."

It’s gone.

Chu night thinks.

Why do you have a general understanding with juniors.

He gave up the urge to summon the day to burn the ink, but the appetite had been swept away and he got up and said: "I am full."

"Hey? Just eat it so much? Master hasn't touched your bowl."

Chu night Ning cold and cold road: "I am not hungry."

The ink burned into a heart, and the mouth was still sweet: "I don't eat anymore, let's go, let's go back to the red lotus - cough, red lotus water."

Chu Xiaoning narrowed his eyes: "Let's we?" He was quite ridiculed in his eyes, and then said, "Who is with you? You are young and respectful, you give me a good talk."

The ink burner should be diligent, and the eyes are bent with a smile, so cute and cute.

However, this person is thinking, long and young and noble? speak politely?

Hehe, if Chu night would rather know what happened in his life, he should be clear - in the end, only the light rain in his world is respect.

Chu nightning is no longer cold and proud, can not be a lifetime, and finally is not a piece of mud at the bottom of his boots, relying on his charity, can live in peace?

Quickly follow the pace of the Master, and there is still a pretty smile on his face.

If the teacher is the white moonlight in his heart, Chu Yuning is the broken fishbone stuck in his throat. He wants to crush the thorn, or swallow it, and it is corroded by the stomach juice.

In short, this time rebirth, whoever he can let go.

But will never let go of the night.

However, Chu Xiaoning did not seem to have easily spared him.

The ink burned in front of the library of Honglian Hell, looking at the fifty-story, ten-story bookshelves, thinking that he had got it wrong.

"Master, you say... what?"

Chu night Ning faintly: "Take all the books here."

"After wiping, register again."

"..."

"I will check it tomorrow morning."

"!!!"

what! ! ! Is he going to stay in Honglian Hell tonight? ?

However, he also made an appointment with the teacher, and let the teacher change the medicine at night! ! !

He opened his mouth and wanted to bargain, but Chu night Ning was too lazy to care for him. He swung wide sleeves and turned to the agency room, and closed the door of the office room.

The ink burning of the dating bubble fell into the deep disappointment of Chu Yuning - he wants to burn the books of Chu Yuning! !

Do not!

With a brainstorm, he thought of a more damaging idea...

The author has something to say: the editing transfer has not been handed over, and I can't claim it. Can not claim to have a cute message on the wood, the package will be updated to be lonely like snow, including someone who does not want to be lonely like a snow. Therefore, during the National Day, I will take a break, and Jinjiang will handle the problem of group change. At 10:00 in the evening of 10.9, I will resume the update.

Save a lot of papers, rest assured that jumping (?????)つ

Chapter 9

The taste of Chu Xiaoning is really terrible.

tedious. dull. Desperate.

Hey, this is full of books, what are the broken books!

"The Ancient Enchantment Catalogue", "The Exotic Flower Sketch", "Linyi Confucian Musical Piano Score", "Grasswood Collection", the only thing that can be considered as a pastime, probably only a few "The Travel Notes" and "The Bashu Food" .

工具 上 dawn, it is Lampaos, and it is obviously not very often seen in the sill.

He thought while painting, hehe, there are no tens of thousands of books here, and there are eight thousand in the collection, so Chu Jingning found that several of them were changed to □□, and I don’t know what happened to the monkey year. At that time, Chu night Ning certainly does not know who is doing it, can only be sulking, it is wonderful, wonderful.

Thinking about it, I couldn’t help but hold the book and laughed.

The ink-burning has painted more than a dozen books, and I have imagined it. Whatever it is to paint, it can be said that the method of Caoyi is like a wind, and it is very elegant. If someone asks Elder Yu Heng to borrow books, and they have borrowed these books, it is estimated that such words will be circulated.

"Yu Hengchang old man face the beast heart, actually in the "Qing Xin Yu" privately clipped pictures of men and women!"

"The elders of Yu Heng are a teacher, and there are comic strips of Longyang broken sleeves in the sword spectrum!"

"What is Beidou Xianzun, the clothing of the beast!"

The more I burned, the more I laughed. Finally, I simply licked my stomach and rolled it on the floor with a brush. I was so happy that I couldn’t find any people walking to the door of the library.

So when the teacher came over, he saw a flash of burning in the pile of books, laughing into a heartless madness.

Teacher: "...A fire, what are you doing?"

When the ink burned, he sat up and hurriedly covered up all the yellow maps and put on a dog-like face: "Scratch, wipe the ground."

The teacher refused to laugh: "Wear the clothes?"

"Cough, this is not to find a rag. Don't say this, teacher, how come you in the big night?"

"I went to your house to find you. I didn't find it. I asked someone else to know that you are here." The teacher entered the library and helped the ink to collect the books that had piled up the floor. Seoul, "It’s okay, I’ll come over and see you."

The smoldering is very happy, and some are flattered, licking their lips, and those who have always slicked their tongues are actually speechless.

"That... um... then you sit!" Xing rushed to the ground for a long time, and the ink burned a little nervously, "I, I will help you pour tea."

"No, I am quietly coming over. If you ask Master to find it, you can be in trouble."

The ink burns and scratches the head: "It is also said..." Chu Yuning this metamorphosis! Sooner or later, he will trip over him, no longer succumbing to his arrogance!

"You haven't eaten dinner yet? I brought you some food."

The ink burns your eyes: "Dragon's hand?"

"Hey, you are really not tired. Without a copy of the hand, the red lotus water is far away, I am afraid to bring it. Oh, it is some cooking, you look right?"

The teacher opened the food box that was placed next to it, and it turned out to be a few red and bright dishes. A plate of windy ears, a dish of fish and shredded pork, a dish of uterus to keep chicken, a dish of cucumber, and a bowl of rice.

"Hey, what about the pepper?"

"Afraid of your panic, put a little more." Shi Yan laughed, he and the ink burned to eat spicy dishes, naturally know that there is no spicy and unhappy reason, "But your wounds are not so good, I dare not let too More, a little mention of taste, better than no red."

The ink burned happily and bite the chopsticks. The dimples were sweet like honey under the candlelight: "Wow! I want to cry!"

Shi Yan smiled and said: "When you are finished crying, the food is cold. After you finish eating, cry."

The ink burned and cheers, and the chopsticks smashed fast.

When he was eating, he was like a hungry dog. Chu Ning Ning always couldn’t understand the fact that he had seen the ghost, but the teacher would not dislike it.

The teacher is always gentle, smiling and letting him eat slowly, while handing him a cup of tea. The plate quickly saw the air, and the ink sighed and felt a sigh of relief. He sighed and sighed: "Meet..."

The teacher seems to inadvertently ask: "Is the dragon a good hand to eat, or are these dishes delicious?"

The ink burns on the diet, just like his attachment to the first love, it is very infatuated. Over the head, the black and soft eyes looked at the teacher and licked his mouth: "The dragon copied his hand."

"..." The teacher smiled and shook his head. For a long while, "A fire, I will help you change the medicine."

The ointment is adjusted by Mrs. Wang.

In the early years, Mrs. Wang was a disciple of the pharmacy Xianmen "Lone Moon Night". She was weak in martial arts and did not like to fight and kill, but she liked to study medicine. There was a drug in her life. She planted it there. Many precious plants, so there is no shortage of medicines in the martial art.

The ink burned off the top, and the back was facing the teacher. The scar behind him was still aching pain, but the gentle finger of the teacher rubbed the ointment and smudged it bit by bit. Gradually, he forgot the pain, but some hearted. stand up.

"Okay." The teacher gave the ink a new bandage and carefully knotted it. "Get on the clothes."

The ink burned back and looked at the teacher. Under the faint candlelight, the teacher smacked the skin and became deceived by the snow. He became more and more versatile. He looked dry and did not want to wear clothes, but hesitated for a while, or bowed his head and quickly put on his coat.

"Teacher."

"Ok?"

In such a secluded and secret study, the atmosphere of a lonely man is very good. I wanted to talk about the wind and snow, and I was able to make my own number of illiterates. Three words: "You are so good."

"What is there, it should be."

"I will be especially good to you." The tone of the ink is very calm, but the sweat of his hand is always sold out. He is actually in the heart of the waves. "When I am so powerful, no one can bully you. Master does not work." ""

The teacher didn't know why he suddenly said this, and he snorted, but still said softly: "Well, then, I have to rely on it."

"Hmm..."

The ink burned in the air, but it was even more anxious to be stunned by the sorcerer's eyes. So I didn't dare to look again, so I bowed my head.

For this person, he has been careful, and even clinging to some ribs.

"Ah, Master wants you to wipe so many books? Still have to make a book at night?"

The ink burned in front of the sweetheart or died to face: "Fortunately, catch up, have time."

Shi Yan said: "I will help you."

"How can it be done? If it is discovered by the master, it will not be punished with you." The ink is very firm. "It is not early, you will go back to rest, and there will be morning repairs tomorrow morning."

The teacher took his hand and whispered: "Nothing, he can't find it, we are quiet..."

When the words have not been finished, I heard a cold sound.

"What about quietly?"

Chu nightning did not know when it had come out of the office, and his face was cold, and the eyes of Danfeng were frosty and snowy. He was cold in white, and he stood at the door of the library, and looked at them with a blank expression. His eyes stopped a little in the hands of the two, and they moved away.

"The teacher is clear, the ink is light, you are so bold."

When the teacher was as white as snow, he suddenly let go of the burning hand, and if the mosquitoes screamed: "Master..."

The ink burns is also bad, and the head is lowered: "Master."

Chu nightning came in, not paying attention to ink burning, but looking down on the squatting on the ground, said faintly: "The red lotus otter is all over the enchantment, you think that without notification, I will not know."

The teacher suddenly beheaded: "The disciple is wrong."

The ink burned urgently: "Master, the teacher just came to give me a medicine, and I will leave immediately. Please don't blame him."

The teacher is also anxious: "Master, this matter has nothing to do with the younger brother, is the disciple's fault, the disciple is willing to accept the penalty."

Chu Xiaoning’s face is green.

He did not say a few words, and the two men rushed to excuse them, treating him as a beast and a beast. Chu nightning was silent for a while, reluctantly suppressed the twitching eyebrows, and said faintly: "It is really the same thing, it is moving, so it seems that there is only one of me in this room is a wicked person."

Ink burning: "Master respects..."

"...don't call me."

Chu night Ning has a wide sleeve and is unwilling to speak. I don’t know what happened to him, why is it so mad. It is only guessed that Chu Xi Ning always hates that others are pulling in front of him. No matter what kind of pull is in the sense, it probably dirty his eyes.

The three were silent for a long time.

Chu night Ning suddenly turned around and turned and left.

The teacher raised his face, his eyes were a little red, and he was helpless: "Master?"

"You have to copy the door rules ten times, go back."

The teacher squinted, and after a while, whispered: "...Yes."

The ink burned still in the same place.

The teacher stood up, looked at his eyes and burned, and hesitated again. He was still kneeling down again, begging for a late night.

"Master, the ink brother's scar has just healed, the disciple is daring, please also, don't be too difficult for him."

Chu nightning did not boo, he stood stunned under the ignited candlelight, and after a while, suddenly turned his face, only to see the sharp eyebrows, eyes like a torch, angry and rushing.

"So much nonsense, you still don't leave?!"

Chu late Ning grew up handsome and more than enough, gentle and lacking, the fierce is even more horrible, the teacher shook a little, only fear of angering the master, even more tired, and quickly quit.

There are only two of them in the library, and the ink sighs and sighs, saying: "Master, the disciples are wrong, and the disciples will continue to register."

Chu night Ning did not turn his head and said: "If you are tired, go back."

The ink burned and raised his face.

Chu night Ning ice cold road: "I will not leave you."

How could he let himself go so well? There must be fraud!

The ink-burning wit said: "I don't go."

Chu night Ning paused, sneer: "...well, follow you."

After talking about the wide sleeves, I turned and left.

The ink burned - no fraud? He also thought that Chu Yuning would have to reward himself with a willow.

Busy in the middle of the night, finally finished the matter. Ink burned a yawn and went out to the library.

At this time, the night was dark, and the night light in the night of Chu’s still reveals dim light.

Huh? That nasty devil hasn't slept yet?

The ink burned away and was ready to greet and leave with Chu. When I entered the house, I found out that Chu Ningning had already rested, but this poorly remembered person had forgotten to extinguish the candlelight before going to bed.

Or, he is halfway through the things he does, and he is so tired that he is so sleepy. The ink burned a look at the bed and put together the rudimentary night tour god, estimated this possibility in his heart, and finally saw the metal gloves that Chu Xiening had not taken off, and the half-body buckle still in his hand. This is the truth.

When Chu nighting fell asleep, he was not so cold and cold. He was lying on a bed full of mech parts and sawing axe. There are too many things to spread, in fact, there is no place to accommodate, so he is very small, bowed, long eyelashes hanging, it seems a bit lonely.

The ink burned and stared at him for a while.

Chu nightning today... What is it in the air?

Is it just that the arrogant is arrogant and arrogant, and wants to help organize the books?

The ink burned closer to the bed, turned a white eye, and gathered in the ear of the night, with a very small and very small voice, tried to shout: "Master?"

"...hey..." Chu nightning snorted softly and hugged the cold armor in his arms. He slept very hard and breathed evenly. The metal gloves that were not taken off were sharp and sharp, and they were placed on the face, like the claws of a cat or leopard.

When the ink burned, he didn't look like he was awake for a while, and when he felt a move, he narrowed his eyes and smirked at the corner of his mouth. He pressed the ear of Chu Xinning and lowered his voice to test: "Master, get up."

"..."

"Master?"

"..."

"Chu night?"

"..."

"Oh, I am really sleepy." The ink burned, and his arm rested on his pillow, glaring at him with a smile. "That's so good, I am here to calculate the general ledger with you."

Chu nightning does not know that someone wants him to settle accounts, still stunned, and a clear face looks very peaceful.

The ink burned out a majestic posture, but he was born in a music house since childhood. He had not read a few books for a few days. When he was a child, he was a squatter and a storytelling, so the words of the patchwork were particularly crappy. funny.

"Bold people, Chu, you bully the monarch, you have no king, you this... um, you this..."

Scratching his head, a bit of a poor word, after all, he later called the emperor, Zhang mouth shut up is not yours, this is your dog slave, but these seem to be inappropriate for the use of Chu nightning.

I wandered my brain for a long time, and suddenly I thought of a rhetoric that was often lingering in the small squares. Although it was not clear, it seemed to be pretty good. So the ink burned long eyebrows, and sighed:

"You are a little hoofed hoof, can you know sin?"

Chu nightning: "..."

"You don't talk, this seat is when you plead guilty!"

Chu nightning probably felt a bit noisy, snorted and snorted, holding the mech to continue to sleep.

"You have made such a big mistake, this seat is judged by the law... Well, sentence you to a sentence! Liu Gonggong!"

After the inertia was shouted, I realized that Liu Gonggong was already a former person.

I thought about it, and decided to grieve myself to decorate my father-in-law. So charmingly said: "Your Majesty, the old slave."

Then he cleared his throat immediately and said: "Immediately executed."

"I want to live my life."

Ok, the words are finished.

The ink burned and rubbed his hands and began to use the punishment of Chu Yuning.

The so-called mouth sentence, in fact, is not available, it is burned.

So how do you sentence this temporary sentence?

I saw a generation of tyrants burned, solemnly clearing his throat, his eyes cold and fierce, slowly close to the face of the cold night of the snowy valley of Ning Xuegu, a little closer to the pair of pale lips.

then……

The ink burned down, screaming at the late night, and swaying, and screaming in words:

"Chu Ningning, I / * / your mother, you are the world's unparalleled little, heart, eyes."

Snapped. Snapped.

The volley has two mouths.

Hey, the execution is successful!

Cool!

The ink burned, and suddenly felt a thorn in the neck, and noticed a strange, fierce bow, on the pair of phoenixes.

Ink burning: "..."

The sound of the night is like a jade broken ice lake. It’s not that it’s more fairy or deeper: “What are you doing?”

"This seat... Hey. Old slaves... Hey!" Fortunately, these two sentences are light and mosquito-stricken, and Chu night’s eyebrows are slight, and it seems that they have not heard clearly. When the ink burned the machine, he raised his hand and rubbed two palms near the face of Chu.

"..."

In the face of the unsatisfactory look of the Master, the former Emperor of the People’s Republic of China was very sly and laughed: “The disciples and disciples are playing mosquitoes for the Master.”

Chapter 10

Fortunately, the "mouth" that burned himself from playing was not completely heard by Chu. Nonsense, and barely let him get past the past.

When I returned to my bedroom, it was already very late. I burned my sleep and went to the morning for the next day. After the morning is over, it is his favorite thing in the morning: too early.

Meng Po Tang, the land of early breakfast, gradually dissipated as the morning repair disbanded.

The ink burned on the opposite side of the teacher. Xue Meng came late. The position around the teacher was occupied by other people. He had to be sullen and sullen, and he took his early morning and sat next to the ink.

If you want to smear the most subtlety of the heart and soul of death, he will say: This door does not need to open the valley.

Unlike the martial art that is floating in the upper circles, there is a set of practice methods for self-destruction. If you don’t quit, you don’t need to fast, so the food in the pie has always been rich.

The ink burned a bowl of spicy and fragrant oil tea, along the peanuts in the side of the scallions, crispy soy beans, in front of a dish of crispy crispy raw fried bag, was specially designed for the teacher.

Xue Meng squinted and looked at the smoldering, quite ridiculous: "The ink burns, I can't think of you entering the Red Lotus Hell can still stand out. Great."

The ink burner does not lift: "Then you don't look at who I am."

"Who are you?" Xue Meng said. "The Master did not discount your legs. You are mad and don't know which roots you are?"

"Oh, I am green onion, then you are jealous."

Xue Meng sneered: "I am the chief disciple of Master."

"Do you seal it yourself? Hey, I suggest you go to the teacher and drop a seal. Pick it up and hang it on the wall. Otherwise, you can't live up to the title of the chief disciple."

With a bang, Xue Meng pinched the chopsticks.

The teacher hurriedly stayed next to him and said: "Don't quarrel, eat fast."

Xue Meng: "...hey."

He burned his smile and learned him: "Hey."

Xue Meng angry and rushed to the crown, a table: "You are bold!"

The teacher saw that the situation was not good, and he was busy holding Xue Meng: "Less master, so many people look at it, eat it, don't argue."

These two people are not in line with each other. Although they are cousins, they will meet when they meet. After the teacher advised Xue Meng, they will bite in the middle to ease the atmosphere and talk on both sides.

I asked Xue Meng for a while: "When is the young master, when is the cat raised by my wife?"

Xue Meng replied: "Oh, you said A raccoon? My mother got it wrong. It has no arms. It is too much to eat. It looks like a big belly."

Teacher: "....."

After a while, I asked the ink to burn: "A fire, do you still have to go to the division to work today?"

"It should be no longer needed. The finishing is sorted out. I will help you copy the rules today."

Shi Yan smiled and said: "How can I still have time to help me? You have to copy it a hundred times."

Xue Meng raised his eyebrows and looked at the teacher who had always been loyal to himself: "How do you copy the rules?"

The teacher’s face was stunned and he hadn’t had time to talk. Suddenly, the conversation in the dining hall suddenly disappeared. The three men turned around and saw that Chu Yuning’s white clothes fluttered into Meng Po Tang, and walked to the front of the cabinet with no expression, and began to pick up the snacks.

The dining hall where more than a thousand people ate, and one more night, was suddenly the same as the cemetery. The disciples are all boring, and even if they want to communicate, they are extremely light.

The teacher sighed softly and looked at the night of Chu, holding the tray, sitting in the corner where he would normally sit. One person silently porridge, could not help but say: "Actually, I think that Shizun sometimes quite pitiful."

Ink burns up the dice: "How?"

"Look, where he is sitting, no one dares to approach. When he comes, others don't even dare to speak loudly. The former Lord is still okay, the Lord is not there, he doesn't even talk, not alone. Very?"

The ink burned and said: "That is what he asked for."

Xue Meng was angry again: "Do you dare to ridicule the master?"

"Where am I ridiculing him? I am telling the truth." The ink burned a squid to the teacher. "With his temper, who would like to stay with him."

"you--!"

The ink-stained hippie smiled and smiled at Xue Meng, lazily saying: "Not convinced? If you are not convinced, sit down and eat with the Master, don't sit with us."

In a word, Xue Meng was blocked.

Although he respects the late night, he is as fearful as other people. I couldn't help but feel irritated, but I couldn't argue. I could only lick my legs and legs, and I was sulking myself.

There was a hint of laziness on the burning face, and a little phoenix was glanced at the little phoenix, and the rear line of sight fell across the crowd and fell on the night.

I don't know why, looking at the only white figure in the dark blue silver plaque, he suddenly thought of the man who fell asleep in the cold metal last night.

The teacher said that it was right, Chu nightning is really pitiful.

But what about it? The more pitiful he is, the happier the ink is, the more he thinks, the arc that bends his mouth is noticeable.

The days are flying fast.

Chu Xiaoning later did not pass him to the red lotus water shovel, the errands of the ink burned every day became a dishwashing dish, feeding the chicken ducklings raised by Mrs. Wang, weeding the herbs, and it was also very leisurely.

A dazzling, one-month ban has passed.

On this day, Mrs. Wang called the ink to the Danxin Temple, touched his head and asked him: "A burning, can your wounds be healed?"

The ink burned and smiled: "Lao's mother is in the heart, all right."

"That's good, you should pay attention when you go out, don't make such a big mistake, and make your master angry, do you know?"

Ink is particularly good at holding grandchildren: "Aunt, I know."

"There is another thing." Mrs. Wang said from the letter of Huanghuali, saying, "It’s been a year since you got started. It’s time to take responsibility for the demon. Yesterday your uncle’s pigeons passed the book. After deliberately making you ban, go down the hill to complete this appointment."

The rules of life and death, the disciples will be involved in the demonization after a year of entry.

When the first demonization, the disciple of the disciple will accompany him. In addition, the disciple must also invite a fellow door to go with him, in order to let the disciples support each other, and why the dawn is "can be learned, not dead" .

The ink burned his eyes, and after receiving the letter of appointment, he hurriedly looked at it and immediately sighed.

Mrs. Wang worried: "Ah, your uncle wants you to become famous, so it is a heavy responsibility to appoint you. Although the elders of Yuheng are highly educated, but the sword is ruthless in the fight, he may not be able to protect you well. You must not be happy and look down on the enemy."

"No, no!" The ink burned and waved again and again, "Auntie assured, I must take care of myself." After I finished, I was ready to go.

"This child..." Mrs. Wang looked at his back, and the gentle and beautiful face was full of fear. "How can I be pleased to accept him as a delegate?"

Is the ink burning energy unhappy?

The demon thing that the uncle gave him, occurred in the town of Choi Butterfly, and was attached to a local Chen surname.

Regardless of the ghosts in the place where the trouble is, the key lies in the last life, that is, in this colorful butterfly town, he is enchanted by evil spirits, loses his mind, and forcibly kisses the teacher in the illusion, this is also a few times of ink burning. Close to the teacher, it is really ecstasy.

Moreover, because he is tempted, it is difficult for the teachers to care about. White pro! No one can find him to settle accounts.

The eyes of the ink-burning music are all bent into a hook. Even this appointment must be completed with Chu Yuening, he does not mind.

In addition to relying on Master, Yi Han relies on himself, this kind of beauty, why not?

Invited the teacher, the singer, and the three people all the way to the colorful butterfly town.

This is a town full of flowers. It is a flower field for dozens of miles outside the residential area. Therefore, the town always has colorful butterflies, so it has the name.

When the three arrived, it was night. The drums of the village were ringing and the music was very lively. A group of musicians wearing red clothes blew and smashed out of the alley.

The teacher said: "Is this a kiss? How come at night?"

Chu night Ningdao: "It is a marriage."

Marriage is also called yin marriage, with bones, is a post-mortem marriage that the people give to unmarried men and women. This kind of custom does not flourish in poor places, but the town of Choi Butterfly is very rich, so it is common for the boys and girls who have never married before eating to find a spouse.

The team of the marriage team is vast and divided into two columns, one with real silk satin and the other with paper and gold coins. In this way, surrounded by a red and white eight-lifted sedan, the entire golden light deacon, from the village.

They burned the horse's head and stood next to it, letting the marriage team pass. When the sedan chair approached, I saw that it was not a living person sitting in it, but a ghost bride with a paper. The ghost bride smeared the powder, the lips were bright red, and the two clusters of Danxia on the cheeks reflected the pale face. The look of smile was extremely embarrassing.

"What kind of habits this village has to break, there is money to panic." The ink whispered.

Chu Xiu Ning said: "The people in Choi Die Town are very particular about the art of martyrdom. They think that there should be no lonely graves in the house, otherwise the family will be implicated by the ghosts."

"...no such statement?"

"The town people believe it."

"Oh, too, the town of Choi Butterfly has been down for hundreds of years. Tell them that the evils of their faith do not exist at all. It is estimated that they can't accept it."

The teacher whispered: "Where is this team going to marry?"

Chu night Ningdao: "When we came, we passed through a clay temple. The temple was not dedicated to any * Buddha. The door was covered with a plaque. The desk was covered with red satin, and the satin was similar. In the message of 'Tianci Liangyuan', 'Spring under the good'. I think they should be there."

"I also noticed that temple." If the teacher is thoughtful, "Master, is there a ghost ceremonies?"

"Not bad."

Ghost master is a ghost * image that folks have come up with. People believe that the death of the soul also requires three media and six cards, exchange dragon and phoenix posts, and also need to have a master of ceremonies to prove that the two dead are married. Because of the great customs of the marriage, the colorful butterfly town has naturally molded a golden body for the ghost ceremonies. Before the graves outside the town, the people who are engaged in marriage will have to carry the ghost bride first. Worship before going to the temple.

Ink burning rarely saw this ridiculous scene, and I saw it with gusto. Chu nightning only looked cold for a moment, turned around and said: "Go, go to the haunted house and have a look."

"Three leaders, my life is really bitter! You can be counted! If no one is in charge of this matter, I, I don't even want to live!"

It is the richest merchant in the town to entrust the deceased to kill the ghosts.

What Chen Jia is doing is the powder business. There are four sons and one daughter in the family. After the eldest son married his wife, the wife did not like the noise at home, so the two thought about moving out to set up another portal. Chen Jiacai was very rough. He bought a large piece of land in the quiet place of Beishan, and also brought a natural hot spring pool. .

As a result, on the day of the opening of the ground, a few shovel went down and the shovel hit a hard object. The grandmother took a look at it and immediately stunned it. On the north mountain, she dug a new smashed red paint!

Choi Die Town has a group of burial grounds. After the death of the townspeople, they were buried there. This lonely but indecent cockroach is inexplicably appearing on the North Mountain, and there is no grave and no trace, and the body is blood red.

They dared to move again and quickly filled the soil back, but it was too late. Since that day, Chen’s family has been constantly surprised.

"First is my wife." Chen cried outside and cried, "I was scared, moved to the fetal gas, and harmed the small production. Later, it was my eldest son. In order to give my wife a body, I went to the mountain to collect medicine. As a result, my feet slipped. The fall fell to the bottom of the mountain, and when I went to fish, I was already out of breath... Hey!" He sighed and choked and couldn’t speak, just waved his hand.

Mrs. Chen also took the handkerchief and wiped her tears: "My husband said yes, after a few months, our sons went one after another, not missing, or lost their lives - four sons, three none Alright!"

Chu night Ning glared at her eyebrows, her eyes passed over Chen’s husband and wife, and she fell on the pale face of the scorpion. He looked almost as big as the ink burned. At the age of fifteen or six, he looked beautiful, but the fear made his face. Some distortions.

The teacher asked: "Can you talk about other children... Why didn't you?"

"Hey, Zhongzi is on the way to find his brother. He was bitten by a snake. The snake is a general grass snake. It is not toxic. No one cares at the time, but within a few days, he suddenly disappeared when he was eating. Straight down, then...oh, my child..."

The teacher sighed and couldn't bear it: "So, can the body show signs of poisoning?"

"Hey, where is the poison, our family must have been cursed! The first few sons have gone, the next one is the old man! The next one is the old man!"

Chu night Ning raised his brow and looked like a lightning bolt on Mrs. Chen. He asked: "How do you know that the next one will be the old man, why is it not yourself? Is this a ghost that only kills men?"

Chen’s youngest nephew was shrunk there, his legs were like sifting, his eyes were swollen like peaches, and his mouth was twisted and twisted: “It’s me! It’s me! I know! People in Hung Hom are looking for it. He is looking for it! The leader and the leader will save me! The leader will save me!"

Speaking of emotions began to get out of control, and I rushed over and wanted to hold the night and thigh.

Chu, Ning Su did not like to contact with the stranger, immediately avoided, looked up and stared at the Chen and his wife: "What is going on?"

The husband and wife looked at each other and trembled: "There is a place in this house. We, we dare not go again. - When the leader sees it, he will know that it is really evil. It is..."

Chu Xiaoning interrupted: "Where?"

The couple hesitated for a moment, reaching out and twitching into the room where the ancestors were enshrined: "It is there..."

Chu Yuning took the lead in the past, and the Chen family and the teacher later followed Chen’s family far behind.

Pushing open the door, inside and some of the big families will be like the incense of the gods to worship the ancestors, densely placed a few rows of spirits, burning pale and long candlelight on both sides.

The characters in all the cards in this room are inscribed, painted with yellow paint, the name of the deceased, and the ranking in the family.

These spirits are written very well, showing the ancestors of a certain Taifujun spirit, showing the spirit of a certain government.

But only the most middle of the spiritual card, the above words are not painted after the engraving, but the red and brilliantly wrote such a line:

The spirit of Chen Yanji.

Yang Shangren Chen Sunshi Li

Chen’s family, who was hiding behind the leader of the road, may have been lucky. He glanced at the white-eyed cockroach, and once again saw the words on the tablet that were painted like blood, and suddenly collapsed.

Mrs. Chen burst into tears, and her younger son’s face was white and not like a living person.

This card, first, the writing is not ceremonial, and second, the words on the card are seven twists and turns. It is like a ghostly character written by a person when he is drowsy. The scribble is almost indistinguishable.

The teacher turned and asked: "Who is Chen Yanji?"

Chen’s youngest son cried with a cry behind his back and said, “Yes, it’s me.”

Outside the Chen, he cried and said: "The road is like this. Since Zhongzi went, we found out... We found that the ancestors had a more spiritual card, and the name on the sign was actually the name of the living person of our family. As soon as it appears, within seven days, the man will suffer a disaster! When the third name appears on the tablet, I will keep him in the house, the door is covered with incense, and people are invited to do it. It’s over, but the seventh day! He is still dead... for no reason, it’s so dead!”

The more he said, the more excited he was, the more he said, the more he was afraid. He threw himself down again: "I haven’t done anything in my life, why should God be so against me! Why!"

The teacher looked sad and quickly went to appease the old man who was crying and robbing the ground. He looked up and shouted: "Master, you see this..."

Chu nightning did not look back, he still looked at the spiritual card with relish, as if the spirit card could produce a flower.

Suddenly, Chu night Ning asked: "Yang Shangren, Chen Sunshi, is it you, Mrs. Chen?"

The author has something to say: There used to be a cold-blooded demon master, and the demon master has three apprentices. They all have the title of Jack Su, the phoenix of the scorpion, Xue Ziming, the real dragon, the soul of the rain, the sleeping white tiger bright and clean.

Hey!

The above titles are all fake.

In fact, it should be: bird fun Xue Mengmeng, dog stuff ink feeding fish, and, white lotus little sister. The hand is helpless and laughs: -D

Chapter 11

"Yes, it is me!" said Mrs. Chen, crying. "But this is not what I wrote! How can I curse my children? I-"

"You can't write when you are awake, but you don't have to fall asleep."

Chu night Ning said, raised his hand, picked up the spiritual card, poured spiritual power into the palm, and suddenly there was a scream of sorrow and sorrow in the spirit card, followed by a thick blood from the card.

Chu night Ning eyes cold, sighed: "孽 孽 嚣 , 安 安 安 安 安 安 安 安 安 安 安 安 安 安 安 安

In the palm of the hand, the handwriting on the tablet was actually pushed back and down in the screams little by little, becoming bleak, and finally disappeared completely. Chu night Ning's slender and cold fingers were pinched again, and the entire tablet was shattered! !

The Chen family was shocked at the back. Not to mention the Chen family, even the teacher is shocked.

He couldn't help but sigh: "It's amazing."

I can't help but sigh in the burning heart, so fierce.

Chu Xiaoning side of the face of Zhang Junxiu's beautiful face, there is no expression on the face, only a few drops of blood on the cheek. He raised his hand and looked at the blood on his fingertips. He said to the Chen family: "You are staying in this yard today, don't go anywhere."

At this time, they dared to defy a little bit, and quickly said: "Good! Good! Listen to the commander!"

Chu nightning strode out of the day, swearing to wipe away the stains on his face, and the finger volleyed to Mrs. Chen and said: "Especially, you must never sleep. That thing will be upper body, even if you are sleepy again, Must be awake."

"Yes... yes!" Mrs. Chen replied in a row, and with tears, couldn't believe it. "Dao, my son... is it... is it all right?"

"For the time being."

Mrs. Chen stunned: "For the time being? Is it not always? Then, how can I keep my son's life?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Catch the demon."

Mrs. Chen’s heart was so anxious that she was inevitably a little rude, and she refused to be polite. She was anxious to ask: “When is that long-term plan to catch?”

"Immediately."

Chu nightning said, the person who swept Chen’s family glanced at him and asked: "Who do you know where the specific location of the red dragonfly was dug. Come to the individual and lead the way."

The eldest son’s wife, Yao, is a woman, but she is tall and grows quite a bit. Although her face is full of fear, she is calmer than others. When the next road said: "The place is chosen by me and my husband. I know the position. Let me take the lead."

Three people followed Chen Yao's, all the way north, and soon came to the land that Chen Jia bought.

There has been a martial law battle, there is no smoke around, the black hills are covered with grass, and there is no such thing as a worm.

Climbing to the mountainside, the horizon is wide open, Chen Yaoshi said: "The three leaders are here."

The place where the red dragonfly was dug was also pressed against the town's tombstone. When the ink burned, it laughed: "What can this rock be used for? What is it that the layman will do, move it."

Chen Yao’s panic: “The gentleman in the town said that the evil spirits in the town are pressed, and the evil spirits inside can’t come out.”

The ink burns the skin and laughs at the meat: "Mr.

"..." Chen Yao's way, "moving, moving, moving!"

Chu night Ning cold and cold road: "No need." After finishing raising his hand, the fingertips golden light little bit, the day asked to hear the call appear in his palm, followed by Liu Teng, the stone smashed into pieces! Chu night Ning noodles walked over without expression, standing on the pile of ruins, and the palms were lifted again, Shen Sheng said: "What are you hiding? Give me up!"

Underneath the strange noise of the grid, suddenly, a 12-foot-tall thick wood coffin broke out, and the sand was all dusty and dusty.

The teacher stunned: "This coffin is very evil!"

Chu night Ningdao: "Retreat."

After that, it was a backhand pumping, and the red dragonfly that was welded was asked by the sky. The golden sparks splashed all over the place. After the silence, the cover was bursting, the smoke was scattered, and the things inside were exposed.

There is a man in the coffin lying naked, naked, with a narrow nose and a handsome face. If it is not pale skin, he looks like he is asleep.

The ink burned a glance under the man's waist: blinking: "Oh, don't wear trousers, stinking."

Teacher: "..."

Chu nightning: "..."

Chen Yao’s exclaimed: “French!” He rushed past and wanted to get close to the coffin. Chu night Ning reached out and stopped, and asked an eyebrow: "Is this your husband?"

"Yes! My husband!" Chen Yao was shocked and sad. "How could he be here? Ming Ming has been buried in the grave. At that time, the shroud was well dressed. How could he..."

Halfway through, the woman cried and screamed: "How could this be! So miserable - so miserable! Master... sir!!"

Shimei sighed: "Mrs. Chen, please also mourn."

Chu Xiaoning and Mo-burning two people did not pay attention to this crying woman, Chu night Ning is not good at comforting people, ink burning is no love, two people staring at the body of the scorpion.

Although the past life has gone through this matter, there is no accident about what will happen, but the appearance still has to be loaded, so I touched the chin: "Master, this body is not right."

Chu nightning said: "I know."

"..."

The words of the burning of a stomach are the original sentences of the past generations of Chu and Ning and their analysis. In this life, I want to take out the earthquake and shock the night. As a result, the people are good, and the words "I know" are lost.

Shouldn’t Master be tempted to seduce people, encourage the disciples to express their thoughts, and praise and reward them? ?

The ink burned was not reconciled. I didn't hear the phrase "I don't know". I said, "There is no trace of decay on this body. Chen Dagong has been in trouble for more than half a month. According to the current climate, it should be festering and pus." The corpse in the coffin should accumulate a layer. This is one of them."

Chu nightning looked at him with a gaze of "Jun can continue to perform": "..."

"Second." The ink is not moving, and continues to recite the words of the confession of the late life of Chu. "Before the opening, the evil spirit of this red dragonfly is very heavy. After opening it, it is scattered. And this body is The evil is very small, and this is not normal."

Chu nightning: "..."

"The third, have you discovered that from the moment the coffin is opened, there is a sweet smell in the wind?"

The scent is very quiet. If you don't pay attention, you can't find it at all. When the ink burns, the teacher and Chen Yaoshi realize that there is indeed a faint sweetness in the air.

The teacher said: "Really."

Chen Yao’s smell smelled and his face changed: “This fragrance...”

The teacher said: "Mr. Chen, what happened?"

The voice of Chen Yao’s fear has changed: “This fragrance is the one hundred butterfly powder that my mother-in-law made!”

For a time, no one spoke, and the "Yang Shangren Chen Sunshi Li" written on the prophecy of the prophecy seemed to come to the fore.

The teacher said: "... Is this really what Mrs. Chen did?"

Ink burning: "Not like."

Chu Xiaoning said: "No."

The two talked almost at the same time and looked at each other after they finished. There is nothing wrong with Chu’s face: "Let's talk."

Ink burning is not polite to say: "As far as I know, Chen Jiafa is rich, relying on the old lady's special hundred butterfly powder, although the formula of this powder is not secret, but the finished product is not difficult to get. There are five or six girls in the town of Choi Butterfly. The smudges are all this spice. Not only that, but before we came to investigate, Chen Dagong himself seems to like the mother’s blended Bai Diexiang powder, often mixed in the soup bath. This fragrant bath, so it is not surprising that he has this taste on his body. The strange thing is..."

He said, turning his head again to the man who was naked and naked.

"People have been dead for half a month. This fragrance is actually the same as it was just smeared. I am right, Master?"

Chu nightning: "..."

"Tell me about it."

Chu nightning: "Well."

The ink burned and laughed: "I really cherish the word like gold."

He still didn't laugh twice. Suddenly, the robes flew, and Chu night yan took him back a few feet, and the golden light in his hands sparkled and the fire spattered.

"Beware."

The smell of the scented scented powder in the air suddenly became rich. As the scent drifted, the white mist appeared in the vegetation, and it began to diffuse at an alarming speed. In a moment, the whole mountainside was turned into a foggy sea, and suddenly it was impossible to reach out!

The ink burns in the heart.

The illusion is open.

"Ah!!" In the thick fog, the first scream of Chen Yao’s screams, "Dao Chang rescue -"

The last word has not yet been exported, and suddenly there is no sound.

Chu nightning fingertips ignited blue luster, hit a tracking spell on the ink burnt amount, said: "You take care of yourself, I will go and see the situation."

After that, I followed the sound and quickly disappeared into the dense fog.

The ink burned his forehead and whispered: "Well, even the position of the spell is exactly the same as the previous life. Chu nightning, you really haven't changed."

The fog came quickly and scattered quickly. It didn't take long for the fog to disappear, but the sight was even more amazing than the fog. At least the last year's ink burning is really scared.

After the fog was scattered, it was originally bleak and messy, and the grassy hillsides were gone.

Instead, it is a vast and elegant garden, pavilions and pavilions, water shacks, rockery and eucalyptus trees, and pebble trails.

When I burned this place, I was happy to roll it.

This tyrannical rumor is the illusion of the world. They were also lost in the past life. The smoldering first met the teacher, and in the case of being enchanted by the illusion, his first and only life kissed the other.

It was a pity that the teacher was probably frightened by the time, and he ran away with his ink and turned away. The swan to the mouth was removed from the plate without rubbing twice, and the taste was uncomfortable.

After the illusion was broken, the teacher did not care about him. The kiss in this illusion did not happen, and no one mentioned it. Sometimes at midnight dreams back, the ink burns will doubt whether it is too deep to conceive, the illusion of birth.

But whether it is a delusion, ink burns your lips, I thought, this time, I can't easily let the teacher run away! Must have one kiss enough!

The author has something to say: According to the history of the twenty words, the age of the ink has not yet been written, but this comprehension set the fifteen-year-old crown ceremony, the word. Because the selfishness really likes the three words of ink rain, I feel better than the ink burning, I want it to come out earlier, hahahaha

After walking for a long time in the magical territory, I could not find the direction.

However, the taste of the butterfly in the air is getting richer and richer. This smell will give birth to emotions and enlarge the senses, which will make many incredible things.

At the beginning of the burning of the ink, I felt anxious, and the stomach seemed to ignite a small flame, and the blood in the body was slowly heated.

Spring water, he needs to find a spring water, where is the spring water?

He knows that there is a living spring in this illusion. When he went to the spring water in his life, he was already dry and dizzy. There was no way. He had to hold a few mouthfuls with his hands, and he thought that poisoning would be better than thirst.

After drinking the spring water, he felt that consciousness was getting more and more blurred. He was found to be fainted by the faint sergeant. The teacher repaired the medicine and immediately detoxified him. The dizzy one was also poisoned at that time. Enchanted, the ghost kissed the teacher's lips.

The predecessor of the resolute and desperate empire was eager to relive the nightmare, strolling through the illusion, and wandering around for a long time, finally heard the sound of the spring, he was very happy, and quickly ran over and immediately drank.

Sure enough, the turmoil caused by the scent became more and more vivid under the stimulation of the spring water. He wanted to go to the depths of the spring water uncontrollably, and unknowingly buried half of the body.

Just as the smoldering consciousness is about to be blurred, just like the previous life, one hand slammed him violently, and the water splashed in the air, the air poured into the nose, the ink gasped, and the water was opened. The eyelashes of the beads, see the figure in front.

The figure gradually became clear from the blur, accompanied by an almost irritating voice.

"You dare to drink the water here, do you want to die?"

The smoldering dogs generally licked the water drops, and when they saw the people, they breathed a sigh of relief: "Sister 昧..."

"Don't talk, give me the medicine!"

A dark purple pill was handed to the lips, and the ink burned and opened the mouth. He ate the medicine slyly, and his eyes were still staring at the peerless face of the teacher.

Suddenly, just like in the last life, the enlarged anxiety in the heart made him unable to resist, not to mention that the ink was not a modest gentleman, so he seized the teacher’s wrist and quickly responded to the other party’s reaction. Kissed his lips.

In an instant, the sparks splashed and my mind was blank.

He is a man who has a lot of bad debts, but the fierceness between the mattresses does not require the contact of the lips, and does not require extra warmth. So the body is lingering a lot, and the number of kissing people is small.

The teacher did not expect to be attacked. He was stabbed in the same place, until his tongue came in, and he finally reacted and began to struggle.

"What are you doing... oh!" The words were half-finished, and they were rudely licked over their faces, and their lips were re-applied. The smoldering kiss was more intense than the previous life. The two men rolled into a ball in the spring. The ink is firmly pressed under the body, and the ink kisses his moist and cool lips, as stunning as the memory, as well as his cheeks and auricles...

"Don't move..." An open, hoarse voice made him himself surprised.

It’s over.

How does the effect of this spring feel stronger than the last generation?

According to the development of the past life, he did not have time to linger with the teacher for so long, no relatives, at that time, the younger smoldering was condemned by the conscience, the hand was loose, the teacher got up and worked hard, and escaped.

However, because of his own wickedness in this life, he was too shameful. Instead of being condemned by his conscience, he was driven by the shackles and directly kissed people on the shore.

The teacher was struggling under him, but he was already evil. He couldn’t hear what people were shouting. The only thing that swayed in his eyes was the fascinating, moist, open and close. Lips.

A group of fire in the abdomen burned, the ink burned down the heart, and the more violently kissed up, directly opened the other's teeth, the tongue straight into the mouth, taking the sweetness in the mouth.

The creaking of the heart is like a drum.

In the chaos, he has tore off the robes of the sorcerer's complex, tearing off the girdle, sneaking into the hand, touching the smooth and firm skin, the people underneath suddenly slammed up, and were slammed down by the ink.

He bit his aunt's ear and whispered: "Look at it, we can all be comfortable."

"Ink rain -!!"

"Oh, oh yeah, how can you yell at me like this? It seems to be a child." The ink burned and licked his earlobe, and he was not idle, and went straight to his waist.

The stinking rogue burned, and the 16-year-old hooligan was really more than the 32-year-old hooligan!

This person's face is growing day by day!

The sergeant tightly stretched his body, and the smoldering energy could feel the slight tremor of his body. Really, it seemed to be such a slender person. The feeling of touching it was a well-balanced muscle and a sharp line.

He is even more difficult to help himself, and can't help but pull the other's coat.

The teacher finally couldn’t bear it and broke out.

"Mini rain! You are looking for death!!"

With a bang, a powerful spiritual force slammed him apart! The spirit was fierce and overbearing, and the ink was too hot to be smashed. The entire cockroach slammed into the rock on the side of the spring, almost vomiting a blood.

The sergeant grabbed the messy clothes and stood up in anger. The palm of his hand squirmed with the madness of the golden spirit, the sizzling of the sparks, and the anger of his eyes.

Between the burning of the dizziness, there is a vague feeling that something is wrong.

"Heaven, call!"

With a sigh of anger, the teacher slammed the palm of the hand and smashed out a golden vine of the wind and the wind, and Tian asked to come out. The whole road was glaring, and from time to time, a fire was bursting, bursting out a golden light, willow Flying.

The ink burned.

When will the teacher call the day to ask?

However, this thought has not been left in the brain for a while, and suddenly he asked to tear open the air, and as he licked his face, he slammed it down! This willow is not soft, and the scent of the scent is smashing. The blood that has been beaten by Xianjun is flying and fleshy. If you want to come to a person like Rongji who has eaten ink and burned it, he will surely clap his hands and shout. It’s so good! Come again! Kill the people! Good day!”

The ink burned in this violent storm with no gaps, and it was finally awake.

The teacher is so gentle, how could he be beaten like this?

The technique of pumping willows is so mature that it is not who Chu Ning can still be! ! ! !

Chu night Ning pumping soft hands, this stopped to ease the tone, rubbed his wrist, is trying to fight again, the ink burned suddenly on the rock, wow cough a big mouthful of blood.

"... don't fight anymore, you will die if you fight again..."

The ink burned a few coughs, and the heart was desolate. This is definitely the strongest color in his bad luck.

Who knows who is coming from Chu Ning?

And I don't know why, this Chu Evening has also grown a face of a teacher, and even the sound sounds exactly the same as the teacher!

He wiped the mottled blood of the corner of his mouth, gasping, and looked up.

It may be a beating of an artifact, or it may be because the medicine that was given to him by the night of Chu had an effect. This time, the person in front of him was not a teacher.

At the end of the night, Ning Yin calmed his face, his face stood fiercely under the tree, his anger rushed to the crown, his eyes were like electricity, and he was angering and staring at the ink.

His fierce and fierce appearance is sturdy.

however……

The ink burned him for a few seconds.

I found myself... shamelessly hard.

Chu nightning has always been meticulous, and the cumbersome white robes, which are called abstinence, have been messy at this time. Only by his slender and white hands are tightly squatting, so that they will not slip off their shoulders. His lips were swollen and swollen, and there were sporadic hickeys on the sides of his neck. Although it is a disgusting look, it is even more irritating.

Past lives, memories of Chu Yuning, those memories of madness, bloodyness, hatred, coziness, conquest, pleasure, and accumulation.

Those who are too lazy to think about it, the memories that were not intended to be thought of, are in the air filled with blood and flowers, and instantly become shocking and difficult to hide.

The tides generally rushed into the heart.

To die, he still can't see how Chu Ning is like this.

Even if he hates him again, he hates him again, and he wants to pack him into a suede and cook it. The ink burns still has to be acknowledged.

In the past life, the most exciting emotions of his own, the most bloody, and the high/tidal tingling of the scalp were obtained from Chu Ningning.

It is one thing to hate him.

But for men, especially those who are particularly shameless, especially the beasts, the physical instincts of the body are another matter.

Chu night Ning slowed down, it seems that it was really mad, and the hands that were pinching the sky were shaking with care.

"Wake up?"

The ink burned in the next breath: "...Yes, Master."

Chu nightning seems to have not played enough, but he knows that there is a ghost in this illusion, and should not blame the burning of the body, squatting for a while, and finally took Liu Liu back.

"What is today..."

Before he finished, the ink burned and rushed: "Today's business, knowing that you know me, I will never say it! I want to say it, let me play five thunder!"

Chu night quietly silent for a while, sneer: "You swear that I have heard no less than a hundred times, no one is counting."

"This time is absolutely true!" The body responded with a reaction, but if you want to go to the late night, you would like to eat stinky tofu. In the eyes of the ink, it is not something that has a countertop.

Stinky tofu finds a corner where no one is, and saves it to others. It is the same reason that I want to go to bed with Chu.

The smoldering has always been disgusting with the late night, how can I tell others that he would hate people while puncturing and wanting to go to others? Is this not a disease?

There are also those bad things in my life and Chu Xiening. He really doesn't want to mention it anymore. Forgive him.

"This illusion is very confusing, and the people you meet in it will become the most wanted in your heart."

Chu Yuning said while walking side by side with the ink.

"You must be calm, not to be confused by illusions."

"Oh……"

Ok? and many more!

The ink burned suddenly a spirit, thinking of one thing.

If it is like this, then in the illusion of the last generation, the teacher he saw is not necessarily the teacher? Not sure if it is still -

He glanced at the Chu Ningning who was walking next to him, could not help but chill.

impossible!

If the last generation of the pro is Chu Yuning, it will definitely save a pump! At least have to slap!

Certainly not a late night! Definitely not him!

In the heart of the fiercely shouting, Chu night Ning suddenly stopped and pulled the ink to the back: "Beep."

"what happened?"

"There is movement in front."

Now that the development of things has completely different from that of the previous life, so the ink does not know what will happen next. When I heard this, I immediately said, "Is it a teacher?"

Chu night Ning frowned: "You are in this illusion, you must not go ahead and imagine who you are, if you can't help but think, what you see in a moment will become that person's appearance. ”

"..." The ink burned for a while and found that it could not be done.

Chu nighting looked at him, and when he did not know when to condense a dagger formed by spiritual power, he slid toward the ink-burning arm.

"what--!"

"Don't call." Chu Xiaoning had expected that the other hand would directly point to the ink-burning lips, and the fingertips would condense the golden light. When the ink burned, nothing could be heard. "Would it?"

"……"nonsense! Take a look at yourself and see if it hurts!

The ink burned with tears and nodded pitifully.

"It hurts, except for this pain, don't think about anything else, follow me, let's look at it."

The darkness of the ink burned all the way to the night, and followed him along the winding path. Whoever knows the closer to the place, the more you can hear the many words of the haha, it is particularly embarrassing in this empty place.

Bypassing a long, high wall, the two finally came to the place where the sound was heard -

It was a red-green building with bright lights and red yarn swaying. In the vast courtyard, there were more than 100 tables and banquets in the bustling courtyard. The fish and vegetables on the table were all-encompassing. The guests hailed the wine and mixed them.

In the hall where the threshold is wide open, a huge red "囍" word is particularly eye-catching, and it seems that there is a lively and extraordinary wedding feast.

"Master respects..." The ink burned low. "You see these people who drink wine... they don't have faces!"

The author has something to say: the dead dog has to ask questions, in the last life, who is the burning pro?

Chapter 13

No need to remember the smoldering, Chu nightning has long been discovered.

Those people talked and laughed, but the sound did not know where it came from. Those who were sitting or standing, punching and making a toast, one by one, were all blank, just like paper.

"What to do? Do we have to go in and drink with them?"

Chu night Ning was not teased by the untimely jokes of ink burning, bowed his head and meditated.

At this moment, there was a sudden sound of footsteps in the distance. Two long queues appeared from the misty fog. From far and near, they slowly came to the main building.

Chu nightning and ink burning subconsciously hide behind the rockery, the two teams approached, headed by a pair of clever smiles of the golden boy and girl, these two people have five senses, and the facial features are clear, The color is heavy, and in the night, it looks like the paper man who burns the boy and the girl used by the dead.

They held a red candle in one hand, and the body of the candle was as thick as a child's arm. The dragon and the phoenix were entwined. As the candle burned, the rich scent of the butterfly blossomed, and the ink burned almost fainted. The wound stabbed in his hand was still hurting, and he himself poked a bit on the wound, and finally kept the consciousness clear.

Chu nighting looked at him.

Ink burning: "...cough, this trick is quite useful."

Suddenly, and strangely said: "Master, why don't you need to hang on to the body to stay awake?"

Chu nightning: "This fragrance is not effective for me."

"Ah? Why?"

Chu night Ning cold and cold: "The strength is good."

Ink burning: "....."

Headed by the golden boy and the girl, the two teams picked up the ranks, and Chu Ning moved his eyes back again. After watching it for a while, he suddenly lowered his voice.

He was rarely surprised, so the smoldering was very curious, and he followed his gaze and was taken aback.

I saw those swaying in the team. They were dead bodies with closed eyes. The skin was pale and kept in the shape of life. Most of them were very young. They were less than twenty, both men and women, and among them. A figure is very familiar -

Chen Jiada, who was seen in the coffin before, did not know when he appeared in this team. He was closing his eyes and following the strange smell of the candle, and slowly proceeded. He is not the same as others. There is another body next to him. Only the side of him is floating and hanging a ghost bride.

If Chen Dagong is not a big deal, when the team goes to the end and sees the people who are at the end of the two teams, the ink is burning without blood.

Shi Yan and Chen Yao are hanging down their faces and following behind the dead bodies. Both of them are closed with their eyes closed. The face is like snow. The posture of walking is no different from those of the dead. I don’t know if there is any life. .

The burning scalp suddenly exploded, and when he jumped up, he wanted to rush up, but he was suddenly grabbed by Chu nightning: "And slow."

"But the teacher--!!"

"I know." Chu Yuening stared at the team that slowly moved forward, whispered, "You don't want to move, you see there, there is a martial law enchantment. You rushed over, the enchantment will whistle Call, I am afraid that the faceless ghosts of the yard will come over to you, and the scene will be out of control."

Chu Xiaoning is a master of enchantment. He has a strong enchantment and his eyes are poisonous. He looks at the past and finds that there is a nearly transparent film at the entrance to the banquet yard.

The golden boy and the female went to the front of the hospital, gently blew the candlelight that was touted, and made the fire tongue more prosperous, then slowly - through the enchantment, and walked into the yard.

The men and women who follow him followed them one by one, and passed through the transparent enchantment without any hindrance. The faceless people who drank the wine in the yard turned their heads at this time, and the men and women who entered the fish began to laugh and applaud.

Chu night Ning said: "Go, follow them. Remember to not breathe when you pass through the enchantment, close your eyes. Also, no matter what happens, follow the corpses and never speak."

Don't need him to say more, the ink burns and saves people, and immediately follows the Chu nightning into the corpse.

The number of the bodies of the two teams is equal. Chu Yuning stood behind the teacher, and the ink burned only stood behind Chen Yao’s. The team moved very slowly, and the ink burned several times to look over at the teacher’s side. All that came was a pale side face, and a white collar that was unable to pull.

Finally, before the enchantment, the two stunned and breathlessly followed the past and came to the courtyard. After I went in, I found out that the place there was far bigger than the outside. In addition to the three-story main building with lights, the two sides of the yard are a closely connected small room, which seems to have a hundred rooms. On the windows of each wing, there is a red plaque and a red lantern.

The full-faced guests suddenly stood up, the salutes rang, and the buzzing sounded.

A faceless tribute officer in front of the building sang in a wave: "Ji Shi has arrived, the bridegroom and the bride have entered the park -"

The ink burns, what? Dare to love them, these two dead bodies are the bride and groom?

Busy turned to help Chu night, but Beidou Xianzun brows tightly locked, is immersed in his own thinking can not extricate himself, simply do not have to look at the ink.

... Ink burning feels that the uncle's pains are really in vain, going down the mountain to practice, with such a master, it is more than self-esteem than without the master.

Suddenly a group of laughing coveted children rushed out of the yard, wearing red and bright clothes, but holding a white-headed rope tied with a small scorpion, they are like fish, surrounded by the two sides of the team, began to pull a person, lead them to Go to the wing on both sides.

I don’t know how to burn it. I’m going to do it in the late night: Master, what should I do?

Chu night Ning shook his head and pointed to the dead bodies in front of the tides that followed the boys and girls, meaning it goes without saying - follow them.

No way, the ink can only let a smuggling boy pull himself, stumble into one of the rooms, he just entered, the child volleyed the sleeves, the door slammed closed.

The ink burns the little man, not knowing what this faceless kid wants to do to himself.

In the last life, Chu Yuning first rescued the teacher, and then broke the illusion, and did not do it all the time. It was easy to remove the evil spirits, and then he went to the aftertaste to kiss the wonderful charm of the teacher. He didn't actually listen to it much.

So now the situation has changed, he is completely unaware of what will happen below, can only be * the scalp.

There was a dressing table in the room, and a bronze mirror was set up. The end of the wooden frame was properly supported by a black and red embroidered figure.

The child patted the stool a few times, indicating that the ink burned and sat.

The ink burned out that the ghosts here are not very clever, stupid, as long as they don't talk, the dead people can't tell the difference, so they sit in front of the dressing table according to the child's meaning. The little boy squatted over and began to help him groom and change clothes...

Suddenly, the window floated into a jellyfish flower, and fell into the water in the copper basin.

The ink burned in front of the eyes, and the name of the sea otter was called Yuheng at night. It was specially used by Chu Yuning for silent communication.

He picked up the sea otter from the water, and the jellyfish bloomed in his palm instantly, revealing the brilliance of a touch of gold in the flower.

He put the golden light on his fingertips and put it in his ear. The sound of Chu Xiaoning sounded in his ears.

"Ink burning, I have used the day to ask to confirm, here is the illusion created by the ghost master of the butterfly town. It was enshrined by the villagers for centuries of incense, and gradually became a positive result. As long as there are more people married, its power will The bigger it is, the more it loves to marry a marriage ceremony. The bodies that are lined up in two teams should be the ghost couples who have made up for them in the past few hundred years, and they like this kind of excitement. Every night, the bodies are called to the illusion, and once again, the marriage will be done, and every time, the power will be stronger."

Ink burning heart thought - metamorphosis! !

Other gods are free to come down, at most, the combination of boys and girls, this ghost ceremonies, talking about a fairy, but the brain has not yet grown, the only hobby is the combination of male corpse and female corpse, it will be considered once again, but also Every night, the bodies that are married are summoned from the tomb, once again, once again, and again.

The corpse group has such a good look?

This bachelor fairy is really mad.

Chu night Ningdao: "The true body is not here, you should not act rashly, and follow the instructions of the golden boy and the girl. After it has to seize the power of men and women to marry, it will inevitably show the original shape."

I want to ask, what about the teacher? How is the teacher?

"You don't have to worry about the teacher. Like Mrs. Chen, he was confused by the powder and temporarily lost consciousness." Chu Xiaoning considered the problem very well and said clearly what he could say. "Many yourself." Everything has me."

After that, the sound disappeared.

At the same time, the children also took care of the smoldering costumes, and looked up. The people in the bronze mirrors were clear-cut, the lips were naturally raised, the eyebrows were clean and fresh, the collars were overlapping, the kimono was fiery, and the long hair was Bunched up by a white hair band, it is indeed the appearance of a married bridegroom.

The child made a "please" gesture, and the closed door of the wing opened.

Under the cloister, standing in a row of corpses wearing a kimono, both men and women have it. It seems that the head of this ghost ceremonial mud has not been opened. Just grab a pair of worshippers, as far as men and women are concerned, or men. It doesn't matter if you worship with a man, a woman and a woman.

This side of the cloister only stood with a row of dead bodies, the other column was opposite, separated too far, he could not see Chu Yuning and the teacher came out.

The team is slowly moving forward, and from time to time can hear the voice of the praises of the officials in the building, and the one-on-one marriage is slowly being completed.

Chen burned and looked at Chen Yao’s who was in front of him. He always felt that there was something wrong with it. After a long time of pondering, the team gradually shortened. When the last few pairs were about to turn, this deadly stinking rogue finally opened up— - what! According to the team, the woman who is photographed in front of her is not going to be married to the teacher. Do you want to get along with the little monks of the late night? Where is it!

At the moment, the predecessor, the Emperor, was not happy, pouting, rudely pulling Chen Yaoshi, and he inserted a team and was in front of others.

The children who followed the glimpse, but the ink burned quickly and put down a pair of low-lying faces, half-length hanged ghosts, squatting and mixing in the corpse, those who were not high-ranking Jin Tongyu women stayed for a while, probably also I didn't understand what went wrong, so it was stupid, but nothing happened.

This is burning and burning. Embrace the team with enthusiasm, and when you are ready to come to an end, meet the teacher on the other side of the corridor.

at the same time.

Chu Xiaoning looked at the teacher standing in front of him and thought for a while, not knowing what danger he would encounter in front.

He has always been hard-hearted, although it is harsh and repulsive, but in fact, as long as he is, he will not let the apprentice take risks anyway.

So, he also pulled the teacher and pulled the faint little guy to the back, while he stood in the original position of the teacher.

It’s his turn.

Standing at the end of the corridor, the sneaky holding a black and red tray, seeing the late night of Chu came over, sneer, no facial features of the facial features to make the girl's crisp voice.

"Congratulations to the woman, He Xi Niangzi, dumped as it is, red and white."

Chu nightning's face was black.

Mother, lady...? ? Do you have no long eyes?

Looked at the sneaky face with a blank face and held back.

Still * really didn't have long eyes.

Ghostly smiled and picked up the red gauze cover in the tray, raised the jade arm and hand, covering the face of Chu Yuning. Then the cold hand reached over and gently supported Chu Xiaoning, Jiao smiled: "Yiang, please."

The author has something to say: Niangzi, please.

The next chapter is sent to the bridal chamber. Just ask if you are afraid of it!

In addition, to answer the question of yesterday [who is the one who burned the previous life].

First of all, Chu Yuning has not changed his position. The order of his work should be the same as that of his life. That is to say, since he saved the first rain in his life, the last generation is also the order.

However, in the memory of the smoldering, he [fighting on the master, relying on himself], Chu Xiening later settled everything, saved the teacher and then came to him.

The lines between the two people have different opinions here, so the following may be very big:

At that time, Chu Yuening actually looked for ink burning first, but for some reason, he left after the ink burned, and turned to save the teacher.

Combine the order of the work of Chu Xiening in this life, then. . . It was only at that time that the ink burned and the same as this time, mistakenly took Chu’s night as a teacher, and Chu Yuning immediately broke free after being kissed. Because the skin was too thin for a long time, he decided not to show up, but at the time After he was out of danger, he turned to save the teacher. After that, I took the teacher and asked me to calm down and smother the ink. At that time, the ink burned all my heart on the teacher, and the night was rather different. He could not see it.

This also explains why the teacher did not seem to have happened after the end of the illusion, because nothing really happened to him. . . . .

So that year, the person who broke away from you is actually a master, and this is a stupid attack! The first kiss of the poor teacher is planted in your hands for two generations. You think that you are your brother, and you can see you by hand. Cry.

Chapter 14

The red yarn is light and thin, and it hangs in front of the eyes. Although it still looks at things, it is still somewhat unclear. Chu night Ning eyebrows sullen, calm face, brought to the flower hall by ghosts.

Looking up the eyelids, across the soft red, seeing the people standing there, the temperature of the night of the night is much lower than a few degrees.

The ink burned too.

Isn't it supposed to be a teacher?

The "bride" in front of her eyes is bright and bright, and the tulle is covered. Although the facial features are slightly blurred under the cover of the shawl, how to see it is still the face of the late night of Zhang Jun, who is not sullen. That look is like killing people.

Ink burning: "..."

He was stunned first, and then the look gradually became extremely complicated. After all the emotions turned around in the face, it turned into a strange silence, and Chu Yuning looked at each other, and the atmosphere reached the extreme.

The golden boy who followed the two men laughed and made a slap in the face, clapping hands and starting to sing.

"White Emperor water, spray clear; sneaky, flower welcoming.

棺中合, the same hole lying; body front, after death.

From then on, Huang Quan was accompanied by two souls. ”

The word is sneaky, but it is lingering.

If you can make a sound, you can only say one word.

--"Pooh."

But can't talk.

There are a pair of men and women in front of the stage, although there is no face, but the clothes are rich and gorgeous, slightly loose and bloated, it should be the high church that refers to the middle age.

The tribute officer began to sing again and again: "The bride is shy and shy, the eyebrows are low and the eyebrows are soft, and the red yarn covers the face and smiles. Please come to Lang Jun to cover the head."

"..." The original burning of the ink was very reluctant, but when I heard it, I laughed and mad.

Hahahaha, the bride is charming and shy, ah hahahaha!

Chu Evening’s face was blue and blue, and he held his anger and closed his eyes. It seemed that he could lose his ears together with his ears.

The sneaky smirked and handed a piece of folding fan to the ink. The "fan" and the "good" were the same, and the marriage was a good thing.

"Please ask the groom to cover his head."

The ink burned and laughed, but it was good from the flow, holding the fan handle to open the veil in front of the night, and the eyelashes smiled and went to see the face of Chu’s expression.

Seems to feel the sneer of the other side, Chu night Ning for a while, did not hold back, slammed open his eyes, a pair of scorpions in the light and flint, full of arrogance.

Can be matched with him on the red yarn, the body is red and kiish, although the sharp can not be reduced, but because of anger and grievances and slightly reddish eyes, there is no unique romantic.

The ink burned and looked at such eyes, and I didn’t feel it, and the smile instantly condensed. The teacher in front of him suddenly overlaps with a certain moment in his previous life. He suddenly knows what is happening in the moment.

Although it was only a short moment, it was enough to make the ink burn cold.

He once had three anecdotes about Chu Ning:

First, killing, that is, the move to the late night of the Chu.

Second, insulting, forced Chu Yuning to rejoice with him.

Its three...

The third is the most happy thing he has done in his life, and it is the last regret.

Of course, the Emperor of the People's Republic of China will not admit that he has regretted anything, but the deep suffering in his heart will not escape in the end.

Damn it. How did he think of that crazy past, and remembered the late night of the time.

The ink swayed and shook his head, biting his lip, trying to get rid of the face of Chu’s memory, and looking at the person in front of him.

Chu nightning has been staring at him with the eyes of "I killed you." Ink does not want to provoke this thorn, but has to hold his grandson to make a smile, a helpless face.

Praise the official: "The bride and groom, the sorrowful ceremony."

The so-called Wo Wei, is to clean the hands of the newlyweds after they have to clean themselves.

The sneaky phase is filled with porcelain pots filled with water, and the pot is brought up to wash the hands. The water washed is followed by a basin underneath.

Chu night Ning is full of disgust, but he has to wash for the other party after washing. The ink burned because of some distraction, it seemed quite convergent, silently washed the hands of Chu nightning, Chu night Ning did not have a good temper, smashed a splash of ink to burn a whole pot, half of the sleeves were drenched.

"....."

The ink burned and stared at the half of the sleeves that he had wet. He didn't know where to swim, but there was nothing on his face. It was only in the darkness of the dark eyes, and there was some subtle luster in the faint.

He thought slyly.

Chu nightning has not changed, never changed.

What I did, what I thought, what I have done in the past and the present, is exactly the same, and I have not changed it...

He slowly raised his head, and even for a moment, he felt that he was standing in front of the Wushan Temple, and he was coming to him from the bottom of the ruins, and he would fall to himself in the next moment. In the past, the tall head of the skull will fall to the ground, and the straight spine will be humiliated and bent, and Chu will be able to lie in front of him and can’t afford it.

"Women Licheng."

The sneaky sings suddenly and sings, igniting the ink from the memories.

He jerked back to God, and he had a pair of eyes on the night of Chu, and the darkness of the scorpion was shining with the cold, like a machete covering the snow, which was shocking and chilling.

Ink burning: "....."

呃呃前前前

The sneaky singer sang: "The couple have a glass of wine, and they will never leave."

After the cup, they will share the world.

Chu nightning seems to be really mad, and his slightly slender Danfeng eyes are dangerously squatting. After the estimated burning, he will light the ghost priest into mud.

However, this kind of Chu Yuning, really can not be meticulous.

Even if you look at it again, you can re-enter those messy and dirty memories.

"One worship - heaven and earth -"

I thought that even if it was a play, Chu’s arrogant temperament would not be embarrassing, but I didn’t expect that in order to finish this set of steps, his eyebrows pumped his eyes and closed his eyes, but he still squatted. The individual is beheaded.

"Two worships - Gao Gaotang -"

If you succeed, you can slap those two-faced paper people. It can also be called Gaotang.

"Three worships - 跪 - husband and wife worship -"

Chu night Ning hangs deep eyes, do not look at the smoldering look, turned around, jingle, swallowed the mountains and rivers, quickly and incomparably squatted down, forbearing silver teeth to bite.

Who knows that the two are too tacit, relying on a little closer, and slammed into a head-to-head.

Chu Xiuning had a cold breath, licking his forehead, lifting his wet eyes, and fiercely licking the slightest rain on his forehead.

"..." The ink burns only has to say with a mouth shape, "I'm sorry."

Chu night, no words, gloomy face, turned a blind eye.

Then it was a gift, and the ceremonial singer sang "Becoming a husband and wife, and loving two are not suspicious". The sneaky sneaky hand-to-gold scissors, the ink can not help but shrink back, only fear that the night is rather unhappy, directly put yourself Killed alive. Chu nightning seems to have this intention, but in the end it is only cut off each other's hairpins, put into the golden sacs presented by the kit, and the "bride" Chu night Ning collected.

I want to ask him if you are burning, you will not take my hair to curse under the anger, tie the little man?

The tribute officer sang: "Rite - Cheng -"

Both were relieved and stood up from the ground. Who knows that the next time the praise officer screamed again:

"Good time has arrived, sent to the cavern -"

What, what, ghost! ! !

The ink burned instantly.

An old blood, almost squirted!

Just kidding, he has to dare to go to the cave room with Chu, and this wedding can be a * marriage! Although the peony flower is dead and evil, but he wants to be in this life... No, the people he wants in his life are all muddy and unstained, not the one who will tie him up. The cold-blooded demon head dyed and stained in the silt pool is late in the night! !

Is it too late to get married?

The author has something to say: Thank you 22415376, Ali's mine, what?

Hey, then the marriage word, originally wanted to check if there was a fixed custom singing method, and the results were not found in particular. And because it is a marriage that can't be completely in accordance with the normal wedding, so it is definitely not the same as the actual lyrics. The party should not pay attention to the problem, hahaha.

In addition, this lyric has deliberately added some details. When the full text is finished, if there is a sister who has the heart, you can look back and you will find that the marriage word is not completely sung, but it has meaning.

I ran away, I saw that I had to go to the house, and I didn’t broadcast it.

Chapter 15

Of course, what can be escaped from marriage can only be thought of. After all, the teacher is still here, and he can't go first.

It’s just this ghost ceremonies, the * is too responsible, right?

The ink burned his face and the nose was suffocating. The gift of the heart and the package of marriage is also considered, how can you still manage the other people's holes? Moreover! It’s a * corpse! The body is dead! How is the cave! ! !

As for the face of Chu Xiaoning at the moment, he did not dare to look at it, staring at the carpet and stupid. At this moment, he especially wants to look at the ghost ceremonies that do not know where to hide, and roar at him - * you, mom, you! Give me a hole to show me! !

The golden boy and the girl surrounded the two and pushed them to the back hall.

There was a coffin parked there, painted with bright red lacquer, and it was twice as large as the coffin, and it looked exactly like the coffin that was previously dug out.

Chu night Ning slightly sinking, understand it.

The ink burned immediately knew the meaning of the ghost ceremonies, and immediately relieved a big breath.

Of course, the dead can not be a house. The so-called caves and lanterns should be sealed in the same shackles, carried on and buried, and completed the so-called "death and the same hole."

At this time, Jin Tongyu also confirmed their thoughts: "Please ask the lady to enter the house first."

Chu night Ning wide sleeves, cold face lying down.

"Please ask Lang Jun to enter the cave."

The ink burned in the coffin mouth and blinked, see Chu nightning has occupied most of the position. Although the coffin was spacious, the two big men were lying in it, and they were still crowded. He lay in, and he was forced to sway in the evening dress of Chu, and he was screamed at the other party.

The pair of golden boys and girls sang around the coffin, or the sinister, but vaguely concealed song.

"White Emperor water, spray clear; sneaky, flower welcoming.

棺中合, the same hole lying; body front, after death.

From then on, Huang Quan was accompanied by two souls. ”

After singing, the child pushed the coffin board up and down slowly, and the bang was screaming, and it was dark when it was around.

Chu nightning and ink burning were sealed in the funeral.

This coffin is extremely thick and whispered. It can't be heard outside. Chu Ning raised his hand and set up a blocking enchantment to ensure that the sound inside would not pass outside. After doing all this, he opened his first sentence. ——

"Sleeping past, you pressed my arm."

Ink burning: "....."

Feeling that there should be a lot more important than "pressing the arm"?

Despite the complaints in the heart, the ink burned and moved to the side.

"After the past, my legs are not straight."

Moved again.

"Go again! Don't stick my face!"

The smoldering grievances: "Master, I have been attached to the coffin board. What are you going to do?"

Chu nightning finally snorted and did not speak.

The ink burned in the corner for a while, and suddenly felt the coffin vibrate. The outside person lifted the funeral shovel and staggered and began to move slowly in the direction he did not know. The ink burned his ears and listened to the movement outside. He thought that the teacher should be trapped in the burial coffin with Chen Yao at the moment, and could not help but be bored, but there is no way.

The enchantment of Chu Xiaoning is very powerful. The sound inside can't be transmitted. The sound outside can be penetrated. Through the coffin board, you can hear the sound of firecrackers and gongs and drums. The ink burns and asks: "The gangsters are really idle. Enough, where are they going to carry the coffin?"

The coffin is very dark, I can't see the other's face, I can only hear the sound: "Like the customs of Choi Butterfly Town, it should be carrying the coffin to the temple outside the town."

The ink ignited and nodded. He listened for a while and said: "...the teacher, the footsteps outside seem to be more and more."

"Hundreds of ghosts and nights, all the funeral plaques will be carried to the other side together. If I have not expected the mistake, and wait until the earth temple, the ghost ceremonies will appear in the original form. From each pair of married couples to draw 'goods '."

Ink burning asked: "There are so many coffins, hundreds of them, walking in the town, others can't find it?"

"I can't find it." Chu Yuning said, "The ghost is a golden child, a ghost girl. The things on the ghosts are not visible to ordinary people."

The ink burned and asked: "How do you know so clearly?"

Chu night Ning replied: "I was in the wing room, and I asked a ghost golden boy."

Ink burning: "....."

Silently and awkwardly, he asked: "What happened to Chen Gongzi lying in the red coffin that was dug out in the mountains before? Why did Chen family pick up the dead ones?"

Chu nightning: "I don't know."

The ink burned a little surprised: "Ghost Golden Boy did not tell you?"

Chu nightning: "Ghost Jin Tong said, it is not clear."

Ink burn again: "....."

After a moment of silence, Chu said: "But I think that there is something in the family that does not tell us."

"How to say?"

"You have to remember that although the things enshrined in this earth temple are very sinister, in the end, it has already gained the celestial body and needs to be enshrined by people to become stronger."

I have never listened carefully to Chu’s lectures in the past, which led to some things happening in the future. I always lacked the necessary common sense. In this life, I was still humbly asking for advice. So I asked, “What about the fairy body?”

"...What were you doing when you talked about the difference between the gods and demons last month?"

I hope that this seat is born again, and I still remember what I was doing in a class more than ten years ago! But nothing more than just squatting under the table, watching "Kowloon-Fengbo Upstream", either staring at the teacher's stunned, or staring at Chu's neck, how can I know what to do without knowing it? Cut the head of this person.

Chu night Ning cold and cold road: "Go back to the penalty for "six circles to see the record" ten times."

"……Well."

The cost of truancy is painful.

"The world is different, unlike God, God is free to act, and immortals are bound, and intervening in everything, will be thought of."

The ink burned a glimpse: "So Chen’s murder case is someone asking for it, is it going to do it?"

The sound of Chu Xiaoning looked very cold in the dark.

"I feel that people who ask for it are not necessarily those who are still alive."

The ink burned open his mouth, but he didn't have to worry about it any more. The golden boy who carried the coffin probably encountered a steep slope, and the coffin suddenly shook and slanted.

Unsatisfactory shaking, plus the smooth inside, there is nowhere to catch. When the ink burns down, it rolls over and slams into the arms of the master.

"Well……"

With a painful nose, the smoldering looked up without a mistake, just trying to figure out the situation, but the tip of the nose was a faint scent of sea bream, which smelled like a mist in the morning, and it was still smeared.

The coolness of the night, the fragrance of the world is more confusing, but the taste is clear and clear, and teaches people to be clear.

The ink burned first, and then suddenly stiffened.

This scent of scented flowers, he is familiar with it, is the breath of Chu Xinning, and for the ink burning, this breath is always intertwined with desire.

In the meantime, some kind of deep-rooted evil thoughts are like the forest fires evoked by the thunder, and when they slammed, they slammed into his brain.

The author has something to say: Caring for the older unmarried men's foundation president, No. 1 boss ghost ceremonial maiden, and soon went online.

The Siyi Niangniang has a special style of the cave, and puts your pair of dogs and men into the coffin, hehe! I want you to say that you love each other before you come out, not to let you out. Humph.

Chapter 16

This really can't blame the burning of animals, who is in such a claustrophobic space, and a person who has been in bed with countless times, whether it is true or false, whether it is revenge or out I like it, I smell the familiar taste of the other person, and I can’t help but think about it.

What's more, ink burning itself is a confusing thing.

The teacher is his white moonlight, he is absolutely unbearable to touch, not willing to destroy.

He will be ruined by the late night, only to the late night, all his darkness, beasts, desires, and violent anger in the bones can be vented unscrupulously.

The person was crushed and torn under him, forcing him to play all the tricks he would never play on the teacher.

In the past life, every time I saw Chu night, I looked up at my neck and my throat was rolling. He felt that he was going to be mourned into a beast that only knew that he was drinking blood. He had to bite the man’s throat, grind his teeth, and chew. Rotten flesh.

He didn't feel bad about the night, he could destroy the family.

At the end of the ruin, the body has developed a habit. As long as you smell the smell of Chu Ning, the fire in your belly, the heart is itchy, you want to tie this person to the bed.

The coffin is quiet for a while, and you can hear the heartbeat of a slightly burnt heart.

He knows that Chu’s face is very close, and he can feel the other’s breathing. At this time, if he bites it, Chu Ning will certainly not be able to get rid of it, but...

forget it.

The ink burned back and leaned back, and opened away from the night. This is really not easy, because there is really not much space in the coffin.

"Sorry, Master." The ink burned haha and pretended to be a grandson. "I didn't expect this coffin to be - shaking!"

As soon as the voice fell, the coffin was again oblique. The ink burned and rolled to the night of Ning Huai.

Chu nightning: "....."

The ink burned back, the coffin shook again, and it was repeated several times.

"My mother is still not convinced." The ink burned back.

The golden boy and the girl were probably on a slope, and the coffin did not slip in the wall. They did not persist for too long, and the ink burned and reluctantly rolled to the front of the night.

"Master..." biting his lip and grievous.

This guy had grown up to be a little cute, and he had to hide his wolf tail with a dog scorpion. In fact, it was still very similar.

Chu night Ning did not say anything.

The ink burned really didn't want to roll back, so I simply gave up the struggle: "I didn't mean it."

Chu nightning: "..."

The ink burned and whispered: "But the wound on the back hurts badly..."

In the darkness, Chu nightning seems to be a slight sigh, the outside gongs and drums are a bit noisy, and the ink is not sure if he really hears.

But in the next moment, the smoldering smelled a clearer sea scent, and Chu’s hand was behind him, blocking the gap he might suddenly slam.

Although it is not a hug, Chu Xi Ning's arm is empty, deliberately avoiding contact with the burning body, only the clothing and the ink burned together, but this position is somewhat intimate.

"Be careful, don't bump again." The sound is heavy, like the porcelain soaked in the stream, there is a kind of dignified dignity, without hate to listen, it is actually very good.

"……Ok."

Suddenly no one spoke again.

At this time, the smoldering is still a young boy who is squatting. It is not like the height of an adult. Therefore, he leans on the night of Ning Huai, and his forehead is just right to Chu’s chin.

This feeling is very familiar and strange.

Familiar with this person lying around.

The strange thing is that it is such a posture.

Once upon a time, the past and the past are all in the Wushan Temple where he was lying in the dead, and he has become a lonely and lonely monk. In the long, breathless darkness, he is holding the night of the night.

At that time, he was already taller than Chu, and his strength was greater than that of the master. His arm was like a steel tongs, which was like a cage. He locked the remaining warmth in his arms, like holding the last fire in the world.

He bowed his head and kissed the late-haired long hair of Chu, and then greedily attached his face, buried deep in the other's neck, biting and groaning without pity.

"I hate you, Chu nightning. I hate you."

There is some hoarseness in the voice.

"But I only have you left."

A fierce violent collision shattered the memories of the ink, and the drums suddenly stopped, and the four wilds were dead.

"Master respect..."

Chu Xiaoning reached out and put his lips on his lips. Shen Sheng said: "Don't talk, we are here."

The outside did not know the footsteps of Sosuo, and the four fields were dead.

Chu night, the tip of the fingertips ignited a cluster of pale golden fire, and made a stroke on the wall of the coffin, and made a narrow hole, just enough for two people to see from the mouth.

They were indeed carried to the suburbs of Choi Butterfly. The front of the temple where the ghosts and ceremonies were enshrined was filled with dense burial plaques. The fragrant flowers in the air were getting thicker and thicker, and they flowed into the coffin through the pores. .

The ink burned suddenly felt a bit wrong: "Master, do you think that the fragrance here, as well as the fragrance in the fantasy, seems to be a little different from the taste in Chen Gongzi's coffin?"

"……How to say?"

The smoldering is more sensitive to the breath. He said: "Before we were in Beishan, the coffin was blown out for a moment and the smell was very good. There was no place that made me uncomfortable. It should be that Baidiexiang powder is correct. However, since I entered the illusion, I always felt that the taste was similar, but there were some subtle differences, but I couldn’t figure out what was different, but now... I think I probably know."

Chu night Ning side looked at him and looked at him: "You don't like this taste?"

The ink burned against the gap, still staring at the outside, and then said: "Well. I didn't like smelling incense when I was young. Here, there is the smell in the fantasy. It is not a butterfly, but a person from the town of Choi. Come here for the special high-scented scent of the ghost ceremonies. Look there -"

Chu night Ning followed his eyes and looked at the past. In the clay pottery in front of the temple, it was burning three vertical fragrant incense sticks, and it was faintly moving in the wind with a sweet smell.

The people in Caidie Town are good at making all kinds of spices with flowers. Therefore, the fragrances that God uses for Buddhas are also made in the town, and they are not bought outside. Because the flowers used in the suburbs are used, the taste of the foreigners is not so big.

Chu Yuening contemplatively said: "Isn't the scent in Chen Gongzi's coffin have nothing to do with the taste in the fantasy?"

He was too late to clear the details of this new discovery, and the glare of the sudden appearance in the temple of the earth interrupted his thoughts. The two people hiding in the coffin looked at each other and saw the luster in the temple, reflecting the surrounding scene. On the edge of the temple is a row of iron shelves with red lotus lights for wishing. The lotus lights were originally extinguished, but they all lit up at this time.

The boys and girls who are guarded by each of the funeral squats squatted and screamed: "The ceremonial maiden is under the guise, pointing me out and waiting for the ghosts and souls to get rid of the sufferings, to meet the good people, to lie on the same side, and to be accompanied by Huang Quan."

In a loud sound, the ghost priest in the temple smashed out the golden fairy light, and then she lowered her eyelids and slowly moved her mouth to the corner.

The movements are quite handsome and the manners are elegant.

Unfortunately, the body is made of clay, too heavy, the girl's family, a slamming sound, hard to live on the ground and smashed a big pit.

Ink burning: "Hey."

Chu nightning: "..."

Ghost master also seems to be quite dissatisfied with his own feet. She stared at the big pit on the ground and looked at it for a while before she took out the pit and arranged the dress.

She squatted up to be a woman with a strong makeup, wearing red and green, quite happy. In the dark night, it turned his neck and went to the burial of the hundred people. The night wind was filled with the stench of the corpse. She seemed to be in a better mood. She slowly opened her arms and smiled. sound.

"I am waiting for me to be enshrined in me, to be able to meet the good fortune, to complete the lifelong events that have not been born before." The young voice was scattered in the night, and the ghosts began to look up excitedly.

"The ceremonial goddess bless -"

"Please ask the emperor to give a marriage -"

One after another, this is a pleading. The ghost ceremonies seem to be very enjoyable. They slowly shuttle through the rows of burial plaques, and the long red nails of bright red lacquer are scraped across the coffin board to make a sharp and sharp sound.

Ink burned curiously: "Master, I remember you said, demon ghosts, devils, each of the six worlds, but this immortal is not high for nine days, how can it be against the ghosts of the underground?"

"Because it is a marriage, the main thing is to eat the ghosts." Chu said, "Ghosts can make her skill increase, otherwise it will not be a fairy in a short period of 100 years. There is such a benefit, she I am willing to work with the 'friends' of the Cao Cao government."

The ghost ceremonies walked around the hustle and bustle, and returned to the front. The voice of the empty and quiet voice rang again: "Open a coffin and give a marriage. Starting from the left."

With its order, the first coffin on the left slowly opened, and the golden boy and the girl were welcoming, and the two bodies inside climbed out swayingly. The gorgeous flaming kimono lining the face of the dead became paler. * off.

The pair of married couples slowly came to the ghost ceremonies and squatted down.

Ghost master put his hand between them and said: "I am the name of the ceremonies, and I am married to the marriage. From then on, it is a couple, and men and women are matched."

The ink burns and turns white eyes: "Don't make a poem, don't do it. Just a vow to marry, how to listen to such a slutty."

Chu night Ning cold and cold road: "You are thinking."

The ink burned shut up.

It didn't take long for the ghost ceremonies to prove that it was not ink, but the * who was in charge of marriage was the true one.

I saw that the pair of corpses that had been given marriage seemed to have swallowed the spring medicine. It was already two dead ghosts, but suddenly began to tear the other's clothes, and they were madly kissed together, so they were so shameless in public. The ground is entangled.

Chu nightning: "....."

Ink burning: "....."

"I am the name of the ceremonies, and I am willing to be happy. Yin and Yang can be handed over and combined, and life and death can be!"

The shouts of ghost ceremonies are getting sharper and more and more expensive.

The movements of the two bodies were more and more exaggerated. After the male corpse got rid of the clothes, it was actually a wrath, and the spirit was paralyzed, and there was no difference between them and the living.

The smoldering was shocked: "...this...fucking...also?"

The author has something to say: Thank you for wanting to drink the grenade of the little angel who loves to tea, and send a ceremonial maiden brand rejuvenation pill to each child who reads the text, while watching and screaming, stunned, hahaha

This ghost ceremonies do ceremonies, the line sells spring medicine, and the other people's spring medicines let the sullen and lively people talk about the glory, this fairy is good, the small hand wave, the dead can harden. The real hand back to "Spring"!

He looked at it with relish, and suddenly Chu Ning reached out and grabbed the burnt ears.

Ink burning: "Hey?"

Chu night Ning looks very cold: "So the law of sinfulness, you have to go see."

"That should also be blinking, why are you blocking my ears?"

Chu night Ning no expression: "Don't listen, eyes close yourself."

Ink burning: "Hey. Master respects you really..." I don't look at my red face. It is also your own to close your eyes.

The ink can't help but a little bit of fun. Chu nightning, the person who made the ice and snow, didn't even see a picture of the * palace. At this moment, I saw the joy of the fish and water that was close at hand, and it was probably alive and dead.

The couple of the dead and the couple were together. Gradually, both of them had alive, and in the dead throat that couldn’t make a sound, they actually sent out a rough respite like a living person.

Chu nightning was obviously disgusted, and suddenly turned his face and refused to look again.

The ink burned to see the big music, teasing, smirking and licking his chin.

Chu nightning is like being stabbed to generally quickly go back and avoid: "What are you doing?"

"What are you doing?" The ink burns sweet and greasy, with some ridicule and teasing, and slaps him up and down.

How old is it, seeing this thing actually blushes...

Oh, no, it should be said that it is green and red. Very funny.

"You are not told to us, you must see the other side's ability before you start it? The ability of this ghost ceremonies, you can see it clearly."

"What can I see, don't look."

Ink sighed: "How is the skin so thin?"

Chu night Ning angered: "Oh, oh, really hurt your eyes!"

"That's all I have to look at." The ink burned, honestly squatting on the other side, and squatting out to the outside, while the side also issued "ah", "wow", "powerful", "哎哟" and the like. Sigh. It’s very violent to make a late night, and the coffin board can’t hold back. He whispered: "Look at it, what to say!"

The ink burned without saying: "I thought you wanted to hear."

Chu nightning finally couldn’t help it, grabbed the ink-burning neck and gnashed his teeth: "You scream again, I will throw you out to feed the zombies now!"

Funny is enough. This person, who is late in the night, can't push him too fast. He is anxious to wait for a day, so the ink burns and squats, squatting on the side, staring at the outside, not snoring.

As the couple of ghosts and sorrows reached the limit, the man’s body snorted and snorted on the woman’s body. The two of them suddenly burst out with a blue smoke. The ghost ceremonies opened their mouths and greedily smoked the blue smoke. Until the last sputum was swallowed into his stomach, this time wiped the corners of his mouth, and the bottom of his eyes showed the light.

It seems that it is the "goodness" that the married couple will give it, and it will be improved.

"Haha, hahaha--" Ghost masters tasted sweet, more radiant, and when they opened again, the sound of the emptiness of the emptiness became clear. It shouted and roared, and the sharp voice seemed to be this. It’s been worn for a long night, “Get up! Get up!” I’m waiting for a man and a woman! I’m waiting for the fish and the water! Let me believe in the virtues! Start! Get up!

The smoldering heart snorted: finished...

What is it doing? !

The tremors of hundreds of coffins around, confirming the idea of ink burning. This ghost ceremonies are to summon all the corpses in the funeral scorpion, so that you can absorb the "gongde" once!

I don’t want to make a joke, the ink burns straight and the night is late: "Shi Zun!!!"

"what happened again!"

"Fast! Go out! The sister-in-law is still stuck with the little daughter-in-law of Chen's family!" The ink burned and went crazy. "Let's save him!"

Chu nightning looked aside, and did not think that the ghost ceremonies actually taste so big, not a pair, and actually want to get a bite!

Next to the coffin, the sound of shaking is getting more and more intense. I think that every pair of married spouses are beginning to be inspired to start acting in the coffin. This idea made Chu a good night, and his face was even more ugly. At this time, the ghost ceremonies who stood in the same place and smiled suddenly felt something, suddenly turned their heads, a pair of black eyes with no focus, straight across the other, falling on the burial plaque of the ink burning and Chu nightning. .

Although it is mentally retarded, it can feel that there is no familiar emotion and color in the coffin.

Did not believe.

No……

Live people! ! !

Suddenly bowed, screaming and screaming, the ghost ceremonial robes flew, a pair of blood red claws straight into the body, the raw pierced thick coffin, straight into the body.

The attack was too sudden, and the ink was too late to retreat. Moreover, the space in the middle of the squad was extremely small, and there was no way to retreat. Seeing that the head was going to be poked out by the nine white bones, the body suddenly fell. Late Ning had already kept him in his arms, and he was in front of him. The five claws of the ghost ceremonies suddenly poked into the shoulders of Chu Yuning!

Deeply tangible!

"..."

Chu night, sighed with a sigh, but also forbearance, did not shout. The other uninjured hand still smothered the muffin, and burned it on the lips, blocking the sound that the ink would have been.

The claws of the ghost ceremonies were caught in the flesh and blood of Chu Xiaoning.

It is a muddy brain, and it is only by sound that the dead can live. Chu night Ning actually was in such a situation, no sound, the plasma ran down his shoulders, the ink burned him in his arms, can not see how his injury, but can clearly feel Chu Late Ning is shaking slightly...

Living people... or dead people? It is impossible for a living person to do this. Ghost masters were also inaccurate for a time, and the claws were not in the flesh and blood of Chu’s shoulders, and they were torn and scratched.

Chu night Ning was sore and trembled, sputum, cold sweat drenched the clothes.

But he still bit his lip, protecting the apprentice in his arms, as if he had become a dead body and became a dead person, against the coffin along the mouth, like the iron cast in the wall.

Ghost masters seem to have finally confirmed that the person inside will not be alive. It suddenly pulls out his hand and flies with blood. He can even hear the sticky voice of his fingers from the flesh and blood.

Chu night Ning's tight body seemed to suddenly lose strength, he released the ink burning, gasping low.

There is a strong * smell in the coffin.

The ink burns up and, through the glimmer of the leak in the hole, you can see the eyelashes of the late night, and the wet, but bare, eyes under the eyelashes.

The pair of phoenix eyes that are slightly picked up are fascinated with pain, but more are sturdy and stubborn, and a piece of water vapor is raging...

The ink burned and wanted to talk, Chu night Ning shook his head, and the silencer spell on his lips was not removed. After a while, a sigh of relief, trembling fingertips, wrote on the back of the burning hand:

The enchantment has been damaged and cannot be spoken.

The ghost ceremonies outside squinted, and did not seem to understand why it was not a living person, but did not obey its instructions, and did not feel any faith to offer.

Chu night Ning looked up at it from the crack, and the hand that was not injured was caged, and a vine that was flowing with flames was called out.

He held the day and asked, narrowing his eyes.

The next moment, break out! ! !

The whole body burst, and the night light of the Chu-Ning was generally flying. The question was both accurate and fast, and suddenly grabbed the neck of the ghost ceremonies, and the ghost ceremonies made a harsh whistle--

"Why are you! And dare!"

Chu Xiaoning’s answer is only one word: “Roll!”

Dahong Jijiao hunting and flying, like a cloud, he forbears for a long time only for a hit must be, immediately one-handedly, and asked to strangle! Break the neck of the ghost master!

A thick red mist with a strange smell, sprayed out from the broken neck. Chu nightning quickly retreated, avoiding the fog, and sighed: "Ink burning! Thousands of kills!"

The ink burned was already on standby. After hearing the order, the dark sword in the sleeve was buckled, and the spiritual power was poured into it, and the residual body that was groping its own head was rushed.

The clay body splits open, revealing a translucent body with red light flowing inside. Chu nightning and then Yang Tian asked, hard to give birth to the spirit of the ghost of the fairy body spirits. The headless fairy shouted from the body: "The mortal is dare! The mortal is dare! - Get up! Get up! Kill them! Kill them -!!"

The golden boy who had no facial features suddenly lit up a pair of blood-red eyes, and hundreds of screams screamed toward the ink and the night.

The coffins on the ground were also shattered, and the dead bodies lying inside stood up and flooded into the two.

The burning eyes rushed through the crowd and went to the shadow of the teacher. Chu night Ning Li said: "You are gazing at those zombies with deep affection! Don't get them all!"

The two of them and the ghost masters have already landed on a coffin, and the slow-moving dead bodies slowly gather around them. But there are too many ghosts, and one wave of another wave will soon come over.

Ink burning is almost crazy: "This butterfly has killed so many people in the town? How many married couples in the end?!!"

Chu night Ning anger said: "Look at the cultivation of this ghost ceremonies, there are so many young men and women who have died naturally! In all likelihood, it also confuses those who have never married to commit suicide! Call here!"

The ink burned again was an exorcism symbol waving toward the place where Chu Yuning gestured, and blasted a piece of white bone.

"How can this ghost ceremonies not kill?"

"Ordinary weapons can't hurt it."

"What did you ask that day?"

Chu night Ning anger: "You didn't see the sky asking for it! This ghost ceremonies act very fast, if I let go of it, I don't wait to pump again, I'm afraid I have already escaped!"

The more piles of corpses are piled up, the ink burns and drives, while also paying attention to see if there are any teachers in the crowd, so as not to be accidentally injured. A golden boy rushed over and bite his leg. He snorted, and an exorcism symbol was placed directly on the golden boy's face. He then slammed it into the corpse and exploded.

Chu night Ningdao: "Is seeing the teacher and Mrs. Chen?"

After the madness was looking for it, I suddenly saw two shaking figures in the distance, and said: "See!"

"Go over and pull them both! Stay a little farther away!"

"Good!" The ink burned, and immediately, "What are you going to do?"

Chu night Ning anger said: "My other arm can't lift, can't summon other weapons, can only rely on the sky to ask. After a while, I will let go of a ghost ceremonies, you will destroy this whole place, you don't want to If you die, you will get out early!"

Chapter 18

Tian asked that there is no dead angle killing, the name is very simple, only one word, "wind". Once launched, the film is not touched by a circle around it.

The smoldering nature has taught the "wind", and he is clear about the strength of Chu's late life. He does not need to worry, so he looks at the man who looks like a * dress and looks pale, and opens the last few exorcism symbols. Chu nightning won a little time, then flew to the outside, hugged the teacher in one hand, grabbed Mrs. Chen in one hand, and took two unconscious people to hide in the distance.

Chu nightning endured severe pain, barely moved another hand, and the day of the day asked a burst of dazzling golden light, Chu nightning suddenly rushed back to heaven.

Ghost masters took control and jumped up, and the face twisted and swayed toward the night.

Chu night Ning robes turned like a flame in the wind, rolling and dancing, he was full of anger and anger, half of his shoulders were soaked with blood, suddenly raised his hand, the golden light of the day asked more and more fierce, followed by Chu night Ning Yang takes off and spins.

Liu Teng suddenly stretched several tens of feet and danced into a golden wind, as if it were a whirlpool. He was surrounded by the ghosts, dead bodies, golden boys and girls, together with the ghosts and sorcerers twisted and twisted, all involved in the center of the "wind". Heaven asked to dance into the aftermath of the aftermath, and the twist of the twist! ! !

The "wind" is ruined, and the surrounding grasses are rising and cannot be spared.

A huge storm centered on Chu's late night made a dazzling golden light. For a time, the sky was dark and the sand was flying. Whether you are a cockroach or a dead person, they have become the fluffy grass in the wind.

I rushed in and was slashed by the fast-moving day.

Broken into 10,000 points of residue...

Waiting for everything to calm down, Chu Yuning is surrounded by grass, not desolate, desolate and empty.

In addition to his arrogance, the kimono is bright, like the beginning of Honglian, the sea otter falls, only one place smashes the bones, and there is a horrible "day question" that sways with golden light.

In this way, it is really polite to smoke the disciples in the evening.

Just rushing to his posture today, if he is willing, even if the disciples of the whole good and evil platform are smashed in an instant, it is not impossible...

The golden light is dying.

Tian asked to turn into a little bit of stars, into the palm of the evening.

He sighed, frowned, and endured the pain of his shoulders, slowly moving toward the disciples in the distance.

"How is the teacher?"

When they came to them, Chu Yuning refused and asked.

The ink burned down to see the faint beauty of the arms, still not awake, the nose is very weak, and the cheeks touched the ice and the cold. This scene is too familiar, it is a nightmare that has never been able to get rid of life.

When the teacher was lying in his arms like this, gradually, there was no breathing...

Chu Yuning possessed himself and explored the neck and neck of Mrs. Chen and Shi’s neck. They could not help but be low: “Well? How can poisoning be so deep?”

The smoldering suddenly looked up: "Poisoning? Don't you say that it's okay? You are not saying, are they just being tempted?"

Chu nightning frowned: "Ghost masters are tempted by the powder, that is a poison. I thought they were only one layer in the shallow, but did not think they were so deep in eating poison."

"..."

"First send them back to Chen Zhai." Chu said, "It’s not difficult to pull out the poison, it’s not dead."

The voice of his speech was cold, and there was not much turmoil. Although Chu said that he would speak like this on weekdays, but at this moment, it really makes people feel that he is understatement and does not care.

The smoldering fire suddenly remembered the heavy snow that year, and he was kneeling in the snow, and his arms were the ones whose life was lost. His face was full of tears, and he pleaded with enthusiasm and asked him to look back. He looked at his apprentice and asked him to raise his hand and save his apprentice.

But what did Chu nightning say at that time?

This is also the understatement of the tone, so unpredictable tone.

In this way, I refused to smother the only one in my life.

In the heavy snow, the people in the arms gradually fell to the shoulders, and the snow falling on the brows was as cold.

On that day, Chu Xiaoning personally killed two apprentices.

One is that he can save, but he has never saved the teacher.

One is lying in the snow, mourning more than the drizzle of the dead.

There was a sudden sorrow in my heart, a tyrannical, a snake that was generally rogue and not savage and violent.

For a moment, he suddenly wanted to violently hold the neck of Chu Yuning, and faded all the kind and disguise, revealing the evil spirits. As a ghost from the past, he bite him and question him. He is asking for his life.

In the two snows of Sona, the helpless apprentice's life.

However, the eyelids were lifted up, but they suddenly fell on the shoulders of the night when the night was full of blood.

The anger of the beast was suddenly blocked.

He didn't scream again, only staring at the face of Chu Xiaoning, almost the hateful eyes, Chu nightning did not see. After a while, he looked down again and went to stare at the teacher's face.

The brain is gradually blank.

If this time the division is going to have another accident, then...

"Cough and cough!!"

The person in his arms suddenly gave a rush of cough. The ink burned and the heart trembled... The teacher slowly opened his eyes, and his voice was extremely hoarse and weak.

"A... burning...?"

"Yes! I am!" The ecstasy of the ecstasy is full of sorrow, the ink burns and squints, the palm of the hand sticks to the gentleman's cheeks, and the brilliance of the scorpion trembles. "How do you feel? Is there any uncomfortable?" ”

The teacher smiled softly, still gentle eyebrows, turned his head and looked around: "...how are we here... how did I faint... ah! Master... cough, disciple incompetent... disciple ....."

Chu night Ning said: "Don't talk."

He sent a medicinal herb to the teacher: "Since you wake up, you will first have this poison, don't swallow it directly."

The teacher had a medicine, and suddenly there was no * face that looked more transparent: "Master, how are you injured? The body is blood..."

Chu nightning is still the kind of faint, not shocking, can suffocate the voice: "Nothing."

He got up and looked at the ink.

"You, think of ways to bring both of them back to Chen Zhai."

The teacher woke up, and the darkness in the darkness of the ink was suddenly suppressed. He nodded quickly: "Good!"

"I will take a step first and have something to ask Chen's people."

Chu nightning said that he turned and left, facing the dark night, the four fields of grass, he finally could not help but twist his eyebrows, showing a painful look.

The entire shoulder was pierced by five fingers, the veins were torn, and the ghost's claws even stabbed the bones of his flesh and blood. Even if you try to calm down, how to seal the blood, not to lose blood and coma, he is still human.

It still hurts...

But what about the pain?

He walked step by step, and the wedding dress was flying.

For so many years, people respected him, but he did not dare to stand by him, no one would care for him. He has long been used to it.

Late night Yuheng, Beidou Xianzun.

No one loves from head to toe, no one cares about life or death.

He seems to be born, he does not need the help of others, does not need any dependence, and does not need any companionship.

So crying is not necessary, crying, even more unnecessary. Go back and bandage the wound, cut off the rotten and torn meat, and apply the wound medicine.

It doesn't matter if nobody cares about him.

Anyway, he came over like this alone. For so many years, it is quite good. He took care of himself.

When I came to the door of Chen Zhai, I didn’t enter the yard, I heard a scream of heartbreaking inside.

Chu night Ning refused to crack his own wounds and immediately sneaked in - I saw Mrs. Chen’s wife shed her hair, her eyes closed, but she chased her son’s husband, and only the little daughter of Chen’s family was ignored. She stood by her side, curled up thinly, and couldn't stop shaking.

Seeing that the late night of the Chu came in, Chen Yuanwai and his nephew screamed and yelled at him: "Dao Chang! The road leader saved his life!"

Chu nightning kept them behind him, glanced at Mrs. Chen’s closed eyes and said, “I’m not letting you look at her, don’t let her sleep!”

"I can't see it! The cockroach is not good, and it sleeps early on weekdays. After you left, she was strong at the beginning, then she started to sleep, and then started to go crazy! ...squatting..."

Chen’s contraction was smashed behind Chu’s late night, and he did not notice that the head of the road actually wore a costume, and did not notice the wound on the shoulder of Chu’s shoulder.

Chu night Ning frowned: "What is it?"

Chen’s outside did not speak, and the mad woman rushed over and screamed, screaming in her mouth, actually the voice of a young woman.

"Thinhearted! We are so sentimental! I want you to pay for it! I want you to die for me!"

Chu nightning: "...the devil leaned over." Looking back at the Chen, he said, "Can you familiarize yourself with this voice?"

Chen’s upper and lower mouths trembled, his eyes rolled over, and he swallowed nervously: “I don’t know, I’m not familiar with it, I don’t know! Ask the Taoist for help! Seeking the Demon!”

At this time, Mrs. Chen had already rushed over. Chu Yuning raised the arm that was not injured. The volley was a little bit eager for Mrs. Chen. A thunder and lightning slammed her head and trapped Mrs. Chen in the enchantment.

Chu Xiaoning turned back and looked coldly: "I really don't know?"

Chen said outside the channel: "I really don't know! I really don't know!"

Chu nightning did not say much more, he asked out the day and tied the old lady Chen in the enchantment.

He should have been tied outside the Chen, more convenient and better, but Chu night has his own rules of conduct, his day asked, easily not ordinary people. So he abandoned the soft persimmon and went to cross-examine the devil in Mrs. Chen’s body.

The trial of ghosts and trials is different.

When you ask the judge, people will not be able to directly accept it and speak.

When the day is judged, the ghost will form an enchantment where only Chu Xiening and the ghosts coexist. The ghost will restore the front appearance of the enchantment and pass the message to Chu Yuning.

The sky suddenly ignited a fire, along the body of the cane, straight from his head, burned to the end of Mrs. Chen.

The old lady screamed and suddenly began to twitch, and then the original red-red flame on the willows instantly turned into a blue-green fire, and then from the old lady's head, burned back to the night.

Chu nightning closed his eyes, and the fire burned along the willow to his palm, but the fire did not hurt him, so he went all the way along his arm, burned to his chest, and then went out.

"..."

The Chen family was frightened and looked at the scene in front of them. They didn’t know what Chu Jingning was doing.

Chu Xi Ning's eyelashes are trembled, his eyes are still in harmony, but there is a white light in front of him. Then, he saw a small white foot like a jade in the light, and a girl of about seventeen or eight years old appeared in the field of vision.

The author has something to say: ink burning: Chu nightning, you have the ability to play the prestige, you have the ability to save people, you don't turn your head to wear deaf, I know you are listening!

Chu nightning:...

Ink burning: You have the ability to play temper, you have the ability to save people, your disciple you will not save, the end of the end of the uncle to inspect, this seat gives you a zero!

Chu nightning:...

Ink burning: You have the ability...

Chu nightning: You are enough! Mom sells Laozi to save people from shutting you down? Not saved! It’s so shameless! Not obedient!

Ink burning: QAQ

Chapter 19

The girl was very white, the face of the goose, the eyes of a pair of round, especially hooked. She was wearing a light pink apron and her hair was picked up. She was the first person to look like a woman. She blinked in the darkness and looked around.

"I am... where is it?"

Chu night Ning said: "You are in the enchantment that I set."

The girl was taken aback and said: "Who are you? How is it dark here, I can't see you, who is talking?"

Chu night Ning said: "Have you forgotten?... You are dead."

The girl opened her eyes: "I have... I..."

Slowly, she remembered.

Bowing her head, her hands folded over her chest, without any ups and downs, she whispered, muttering: "I... I am dead..."

"Only the soul can come to the real enchantment, where hatred will be eliminated, and the dead will be left behind as a devil or an ordinary ghost, and will retain the character and appearance of the past, which means ‘return to life’.”

The girl took out a moment and seemed to be thinking about the past, and suddenly she lowered her face and cried silently.

Chu Xiaoning said: "You... can you have a wrong?"

The girl cried: "Are you a prince? Or is it impermanent? Are you coming to sing for me?"

Chu night Ningfu Fudao said: "...I am not a prince, nor a white impermanence."

The girl whispered. Chu night was quiet for a while, did not speak, waited for her to cry a little more calm, and then said: "But I really came to help you."

The girl listened, twitched and raised her eyes, and sorrow and joy added: "Then you really are the adults!"

"..." Chu Yuening decided not to continue this topic with her, and instead asked, "Do you know what you did after you died?"

"I don't know... not very clear, just remember that I am very sad, very sad. I want to retaliate... I want to find them... I want to find him again..."

When the soul just awakened, many things could not be remembered for a while, but it didn't matter. Chu Xiaoning patiently asked her: "Who do you want to go to?"

The girl whispered: "My husband, Chen Bojun."

Chu night Ning Yi, Chen Bozhen - Is this not the name of Chen’s eldest son?

He asked: "What is your name? Where is it?"

In this illusion enchantment, the power of the heavenly question is poured, and the dead people who come to it will almost always talk to the Chu-Ning. The girl therefore replied: "It’s a slender man, and it’s the town of Choi."

"I have read the color butterfly town file before coming. There are more than 500 households in this town, and there is no family of Luo. Who is it?"

The girl slowly thought about the details, so she even mourned in her eyes: "My father used to be a scholar at Murakami. It was a friend of my father-in-law. A few years ago, he was killed and died. Later, at home, only me. A person."

"Then why are you dying?"

The girl snorted and then wept. "I have no other way than to die. They, they lied to the secret recipe of the fragrant powder that I left behind, and beat me to threaten me and let me leave the town of Choi. I ..... I am a weak woman, where can I go anywhere else? I am in this world, a relative is gone... Where is the world so big, where can I go? In addition to Huang Quandi, where else can there be? Next me..."

After recalling her life, she seemed to have infinite pains and sorrows in her heart. She was anxious to talk to people. Even when she was late, she did not ask again. She slowly talked about it alone.

It turned out that this Luo fidelity had lost her mother since childhood, and she said that she had a brother on her head, but her brother was separated from them in the chaos of the Xiujian world. Later, she never saw it again. She did not know whether it was dead or alive. When her brother was lost, Luo was still not full of age and was in the hustle and bustle. Later she tried to think back to her brother, but she still had no impression.

The Luo family was left with only the slender and the father. The father and the daughter were living together, wandering around, and finally covered the cabin in the town of Choi Butterfly and lived.

That year, Luo was fifteen years old. Chen’s eldest son, Chen Bojun, is two years older than her.

At that time, Chen’s family had not yet made a fortune. Several families lived in a two-bedroom bandit cottage. An orange tree was planted on the low wall of the small courtyard. When the autumn was full of fruit, the lush tree grows over the low wall. Detected in the courtyard of Luo family.

Luo Xianxian looked up at her head, and the oranges that were full of branches were like Lanterns in the Lantern Festival. Her temper was introverted and did not play with others. She always carried a small horse and licked the edamame. She looked up from time to time and took a look. The oranges that came from Chen’s yard.

Orange orange is very attractive, against the sun, can be associated with sweet and sour juice.

Luo fiber looked at his eyes, and he swallowed from time to time, and the * was sour.

However, she did not reach out and pick it up. He was an unsuccessful reader. He lost the exam, but he did not lose a bite. The sour show was about broken, and he always told his daughter to be a "gentleman."

Luo Sui fiber knows at the age of three that wealth is not lascivious and barren cannot move. Although she was blind, she never reached out and picked the orange that was close at hand.

One night, Luo Fibre used the moonlight to sit in the yard and wash clothes.

She was not tough and she had to rest early. The poor children were headed early, the little girl was carrying her sleeves, her thin arms were immersed in wooden barrels, and her face was serious.

Suddenly there was a hoarse cough at the door, and a young man with blood was squatting in and glaring at her.

The little girl was scared and even forgot to scream.

The young man was full of dirty and * eyes, but his eyebrows were very handsome. The two men and the two were so dead for a long time. Finally, the young man could not support it. He sat down slowly against the wall and gasped and hoarse. : "Come some water."

Xu is that the young man does not look like a bad person, but he is a good-hearted person. Although he is afraid, he still runs back into the house, picks up a cup of tea and hands it to the young man.

The young man was also polite, and he sipped and cleaned. After drinking, he wiped his mouth, raised his eyelids, and stared at Luo’s pretty face. His eyes were a little straight and he didn’t speak for a long time.

He didn't talk, and Luo didn't say anything, just squinting his eyes, away from some distance she thought she was safe, and squatting not far and close, looking at the stranger.

"...you look like I am an old man." The young man suddenly opened his mouth, smirked and smiled gloomyly, and the blood on his face was awkward. "Especially the eyes are round, It seems that people want to dig it out, poke on the finger and swallow it one by one."

The words of the horrible words were told by him in such a bland, even with a few laughs. Luo was more shocked and shook his eyes.

The young man said, "Oh, the girl is clever, you are so stunned, don't stare at me. I can't control my own hand."

He spoke, the accent of the north.

The moonlight sprinkled in the yard, and the young man licked the cracked lips and suddenly saw the orange tree in the yard. I don't know why his eyes were bright, and the brilliance flashed in the brilliance. The gloss was bright for a while, and then he raised his chin and gestured.

"Taro."

Luo Fiber: "..."

"Take an orange peel and give it to me."

Luo Fibre finally spoke, the sound was fine, with some trembling, but did not hesitate: "Big brother, this is not the fruit tree of my family, it is the home of others, can not pick."

The young man stunned, and when he remembered something, his face slowly sank.

"I said that I will pick it up, I will eat oranges, you will pick it up for me!" The last scream, like the smashing of the teeth and smashing it out. Luo fiercely shook, still stubbornly standing in the same place.

The little girl is soft, but her bones are the same as her decaying cockroaches.

"I'm not going."

The young man suddenly narrowed his eyes, bowed his nose, and changed his face: "The stinky girl knows who you are talking to!"

"You have to drink water, I, I will give you a fall, I have to eat, and there is still a family, but the orange tree is not my home. I can't pick it up. I said it, I don't sue for it. I am a gentleman, I want to be rich." Can't be lascivious, can't be barren, can't fish..."

When I was nervous, I turned it into a fish. The half-sized little girl blushes like a decent, insisting on teaching her own things, and finally smashing the words, but in the youth Under the gaze, I have already shaken, and my feet are swaying.

The youth is speechless.

If it is not out of date, listen to such a little guy, or a girl, say "not to sue and steal", "rich and not kinky, infertile can not move", and - and "I am a gentleman"? ? Hey, he really can't help but laugh out loud.

But he can't smile.

On the contrary, there is a strong anger that rushes in the chest and pushes his heart.

"I hate you this most, so-called..." He held the wall, swayed and stood up, squeezing out two words from his lips, "good man, gentleman, hero, benevolent."

Under the horror of Luo's fierce gaze, he slowly moved the injured foot, went under the orange tree, looked up, almost smothered the smell of the orange tree, and then suddenly gave the red light of hatred. Without waiting for Luo’s reaction, he climbed the tree, swaying, squatting, kicking, and slamming.

The full-bodied oranges shook all the way down, fell to the ground, rolled aside, the young smile twisted and shouted: "A good sneak sneak peeks, a wealthy one can not be lascivious! A good mighty can not bend !"

"Big brother! What are you doing! You stop! Oh! Hey!"

Luo Suixian did not want to shout, she was weak, and the scholars who had no strength in their hands could not help. But she was a little girl after all, and now she is finally scared and collapses.

"Call out what you call! You come out and I cut it with him!"

The little girl was scared, with tears, and there were water beads in the round eyes.

The people next door to Chen’s family went to neighboring villages to visit relatives. The whole family was not there. No one stopped this little madman.

The little madman shook the oranges all over the place, still did not hate, stepped on the ground with a few feet, smashed several fruits, and suddenly became stunned. I don’t know where the strength came from, jumped to Chen’s home. In the yard, I found an axe and cut the whole tree three or two times. Then turned back and laughed.

Laughing and laughing, suddenly he didn't smile, kneeling on the ground and screaming.

Suddenly turned his head and waved at Luo’s fiery: "Taro, come over."

"..." Luo fiery did not move, standing in the same place, embroidered with small flowers of yellow flowers on the ground.

When the young man saw her stunned, she slowed down her tone and tried to say kindly: "Come here. I have a good thing for you."

"I... I don't want to... no, not..." Luo was low and low, and before he finished, the young man suddenly became fiercely--

"If you don't want to come, Lao Tzu will enter the house now and give you a simmer!"

Luo fiercely shivered, and finally moved to him in a small step.

The young man squinted at her: "Hurry up, no time to see you twisting the song."

When Luo fidelity lowered his head and moved to him, there were still a few steps away. He suddenly stretched his hand and slammed the man over. Luo Sui screamed, but the voice went to the throat and was One thing was blocked rudely. The young man stuffed an orange into her mouth, without peeling or scrubbing, and went to the soil with her skin.

Where can Luo Zixian eat the next orange, the young man is stuffed, the orange is cracked, rotten, and her half face is puree, but the madman is still laughing and rolling the fruit on her face. Stuffed into the mouth she was trying to close.

"Are you a gentleman? Don't you not eat stolen things? What are you eating now? Well? What are you eating now!"

"Oh... no... I don't want to... oh... oh..."

"Swallowing." The young man squinted and put the last piece of flesh into Luo's mouth. The scorpion was shivering and chilling. "You swallow me!"

Watching Luo Suixian was forced to swallow the oranges, and the throat whimpered and called "爹爹". The young man was silent for a while and suddenly smiled.

That smile is more terrible than his awkward face.

He sat with satisfaction with Luo's slender hair, squatting there, and said softly: "What do you call screaming? Shouldn't you call your big brother? The orange that your brother gave you is not sweet, isn't it good?"

Said, and picked up one from the ground.

This time, he didn't have a hard plug. He peeled the orange peel finely, and cleaned the white silk that was stuck on it. Then he wiped his hand and rubbed it down. On the side, whispered in a whisper: "If you like it, eat some more."

Luo Fibre knows that she is experiencing an abnormality today. She has no way, she bows her head and silently eats the orange handed by the madman. The sweet and sour juice is opened between the throats, and the stomach is tumbling...

The young man was there, feeding her oranges in a petal, suddenly feeling like a good mood, and even began to gently pick up the song.

His voice was rough, very hoarse, like a windy scorpion, and he couldn’t hear it vaguely, and only a few words fluttered into Luo’s ear.

"There are three or four points in the pool, and one or two sounds on the shore. The weak crown is the best, the light hoof is fast, and the end of the world..."

He suddenly said: "Taro."

"..."

"Oh." He snorted and went to the slender little face. "Let me lick your eyes."

Luo fiery and trembling, no resistance, can only let the younger carefully carefully cut a real, * finger, touched her eyes one inch and one inch.

"Really," he said.

Luo fibrillated and closed his eyes. She is really afraid that this madman will rise up and pick up her two tricks like a fruit.

But the youth did not pick it up.

Just faintly and coldly said to her: "You are not teaching me a rich and not kinky, can't you be poor? Big brother also has a sentence, want to tell you."

"Hey..."

"You blink."

Luo fiber and eyes are tight. The young man laughed and hoarsely said: "Don't dig your trick, open it!"

"...Do you think that if you don't open me, you can't keep your beads!"

Luo Suixian had to stretch the round eyes, the long eyelashes trembled, the tears flowed down and down, her face was scared and pitiful, I wondered where to please the young man of unknown origin, he suddenly loosened Holding the hand on her cheek, hanging in the air, then gently patted her head.

He stared at her nephew, his mouth trembled with a trembling smile, his smile seven points twisted, two minutes, one point.

He said: "There are men in Linyi, and twenty hearts are dead."

After turning around, the figure did not enter the darkness and gradually disappeared.

Only the place is full of loneliness, indicating that such a person, staying in the middle of the night to bathe blood, have been here.

Chapter 20

Early the next morning, Chen’s people came back to see relatives and saw that the orange trees in the yard had fallen. The oranges were all over the ground. There were not many other households around them. Only Luo Jia and them were close, thinking Every day, Luo’s fiber looks like an orange, and Chen’s family is sure to

This orange must be stolen by the unlucky child!

Not only stealing, but also stunned, cut the orange tree of his house!

The Chen family immediately went to Luo Shusheng to complain. Where did Luo Shusheng feel such humiliation, immediately called her daughter and asked her if the orange was stolen.

Luo Wenfei cried and said no.

Also asked if she cut the tree.

Luo Fibre still said no.

Then she asked if she had stolen oranges.

Luo Fibre will not lie, but has to say that he ate.

She had no time to explain, and she was stunned by the arrogant swearing. In the face of Chen’s family, she beat her a ring and said, “When a woman is not as good as a man! How can I make a young age? So steal the chicken and touch the dog! It’s shameful! Lose the face of the father! Punish you for no food at the moment, face the wall for three days, reflect on remorse, repent and repent -"

"Oh, not me! Really not me!"

"You still dare to speak back!"

No one believes in her, although the turbulent world is turbulent, but the color butterfly town is an exception, the town has always been simple, the night is not closed, said that in the middle of the night came a * madman? Who is trustworthy.

A pair of small hands of Luo Fibre were beaten.

Chen Jia’s few people were cold-eyed, only the oldest boy, who pulled the mother’s clothes, and said nothing.

His mother did not pay attention to him, and he could not do anything. It was quite a small face wrinkled by Zhou Zheng, and he couldn’t bear to stand next to him.

In the evening, Luo Suifei did not dare to go back to the house, kneeling under the eaves, pitifully punished.

She is a scholar, and she can't tolerate theft. She is sour and sultry, and she talks to him. She does not listen to explanations.

After a day of hunger, Luo’s slender mind was dizzy. At this time, someone suddenly whispered to her: “Luo’s sister.”

Luo Fibers turned back and saw the head of the earth wall stalking her head, and it was Chen Bo, the eldest son of Chen’s family who tried to help her during the day.

Chen Bozhen looked at the left and right, and turned over the earth wall three or two times. He held a hot girl in his arms and could not help but say it was put in her hands.

"I think you have been standing under the wall for a whole day, and haven't eaten anything yet. Give you a * and hurry to eat."

"I..." Luo was fierce and shy. He lived here for several months. He didn't say a few words to his neighbor's brother. At this time, he suddenly slammed him so close, and he couldn't help but step back two steps. Hit the wall. But still screaming, "I can't take it... don't let me... he said..."

Incoherent for a long time, can't say a complete word.

Chen Bo said: "Oh, you will be all day long, what do you do with him? You are so hungry, you will be hungry, come eat, eat cold, and then cold if you don't eat."

The girl was white and tender, and she made a statement, and she was hot outside.

Luo Shifei looked down and looked at it for a while, and swallowed in his throat.

It is also really starving. Regardless of the gentleman who is not a gentleman, she grabbed the * and bowed her head and ate it, and soon she took a glimpse of it.

After she finished, she lifted her round eyes and directed Chen Bo's first complete sentence: "The orange tree is not cut by me, and I don't want to steal it."

Chen Bozhen glanced slowly and smiled slowly: "Well."

"But they don't believe me..." In such a contemptuous look, Luo's fiery heart slowly opened, and the grievances melted like ice and snow. She wowed, opened her mouth, wiped her tears, and burst into tears. Get up, "They don't believe me... I didn't steal... I didn't steal..."

Chen Bozhen patted her in a hurry: "I know you didn't steal, oh, you stand under the tree every day, never took an orange, you have to steal it early..."

"Not me! Not me!" The crying is even more fierce, and the nose screams together.

Chen Bozhen patted her: "Not you, not you."

The two children are so familiar.

Later, the neighboring village issued a murder case, saying that a gangster who was * in the night before entered a family, and he had to sleep in the room of the house. The male owner did not agree, and the gangsters drowned their family. Then, in the room full of dead bodies, I slept leisurely and took the time to go away the next day. Let’s go, but also specially stained the blood on the wall, and wrote a big article, and wrote down what good things I have done, lest the world do not know that there is such a wicked person.

This matter immediately went away, and soon passed to the town of Choi. A pair of time, it was Luo Siu said that she met the "Big Brother" night.

Luo Shusheng and Chen’s family are all speechless.

After the misunderstanding was solved, the two families had frequent exchanges. Chen’s husband and wife saw Luo’s cute and cute, a little beautiful man’s embryo, and hardworking and sensible. Thinking about the family according to his own family, it should be difficult to get a better wife, so he simply set Chen Bozhen and Luo Fibre. The dolls kissed and waited until the year of the weak crown and the shackles, and then officially set up a wine.

Luo Shusheng saw his daughter and Chen Bozhen two small and no guesses, childhood, and then readily agreed.

Days pass by, if it is not Luo Shusheng's love for elegance, loves the drums and fragrant roads, then Chen Luo and the two should be as poor as they had originally expected.

If it is bad, it will be bad. Luo Shusheng accidentally turned out the "Bai Diexiang Powder".

Although the taste of this scented powder is nothing special, it is not much different from the ordinary spices in the town, but it has the advantage that ordinary spices can't.

There are hundreds of days around the beam, and the aftertaste is endless.

Baidiexiang powder has a long time to keep fragrance, and the fragrance is not easy to dissipate. It is the cheap and good thing that ordinary people seek.

Luo Shusheng "everything is the best, only high reading." Although he transferred the powder, he was unwilling to sell it and thought that he had "fallen his identity."

He does not sell, naturally someone else will remember.

Mrs. Chen had several times wanted to talk to Luo Shusheng and Fang Shu, and Luo Luosheng opened the shop, but she was rejected by the other party. One by one, Chen’s face could not be hanged, and she would not mention it, but she kept it in her heart. Lived this pen.

Luo Fibre and the age of the year, the opportunity came. Luo Shusheng’s sick scorpion hurts his lungs and struggles for a few days. As a husband of Luo Sui, although the prostitute has not yet passed the door, but the friendship is always there, so help the funeral, busy.

Luo Shixian was grateful for zero, but did not know that Mrs. Chen had a heart, and quietly slipped away the fragrance powder while cleaning up Luo Shusheng’s relics.

On the evening of the same day, Mrs. Chen was full of excitement under a soybean oil lamp and went over to prepare for the recipe. The result was only a look, it was stupid.

Luo Shusheng's word dragon and phoenix dance, the grass written is called a elegant and chic, she stunned for a long time, he did not understand half a word.

No way, I can only quietly put the square back.

After a few months, when Luo’s feelings calmed down, she called the girl to eat at home, and in the chat, “unintentionally” mentioned the butterfly.

Luo Xianxuan thought that it would be useless to stay at home. The mother-in-law is so good to herself. If she wants, she will give her a good.

So I found the relics of the cockroaches, and also helped Mrs. Chen to identify the words. Little by little, the precise formula was sorted out.

Mrs. Chen was ecstatic and got a prescription. She began to share the powder shop with her husband.

Of course, at that time, she was still very rare and gentle and sensible. And the longer she was, the more beautiful she was. Although her family was unfortunate, her appearance was one of the best. Many young people in the town began to pay attention to her.

There are many long night dreams, and Mrs. Chen thought that she should do this quickly.

However, Luo Fibre just lost his father. According to the customs of Choi Die Town, his parents died, and they did not marry for three years.

Where did Mrs. Chen wait for three years, she thought about it - thought of a way -

On this day, Luo Fibre is giving Chen’s little sister a scorpion. Chen’s little daughter has a very good relationship with her. She is a long-term sister of Li Luo, and her sister Luo is short, and her little tail is usually wrapped around her.

Mrs. Chen went to the yard and called Luo Xuan to the inner hall. She said to her: "Slim fiber, you and your brother-in-law have a marriage contract. Now your father has gone. You are alone, and it’s not easy to live. It’s been here. You should have married the door this year. But the rules of three years of mourning are here, so tired that you can't get married, the aunt thinks, if you wait three years, how old should you be?"

Luo fidelity bowed, did not speak, but she was smart and smart, and most of them guessed the words behind Mrs. Chen, so her cheeks were slightly red.

Sure enough, Mrs. Chen went on to say:

"A person is too old, bitter and tired. You see it or not - you will marry first, let's close the door, worship the world, and the outsiders will not speak first, others will ask, you will say that you are following the aunt. Make up the days, there is a good care. This will not only complete the Zhou Gongli, but also not to be criticized, but also let your old father of the spring be safe. After the three-year period, let us have a wedding. ,good or not?"

Her words, all sounds are considered for Luo Suixian, Luo Sui fiber is a person who has no bad thoughts, and does not think of people in bad places, so they agreed.

Later, Chen Jia made a home by selling Bai Diexiang powder. They moved away from the old house, bought a large piece of land in the town, repaired the house and became a big family.

Luo Fibre has become a hidden existence in many large figures, a presence that does not often appear.

The people in the town thought that Luo Fibre was only sheltered by Mrs. Chen's kindness, so she lived in Chen's family. She did not know that she had become a husband and wife with Chen Bozhen.

In this day, although there are grievances, Luo Suizhi only wants to avoid the tongue of the population, but for the sake of himself, so there is no complaint. In addition, Chen Bozhen is sincere and sincere to her, and the two couples have also been moist and sweet, just waiting for three years, everything will return to normal.

However, Luo Fibre did not wait for the day when the media was right.

Chen’s business is getting bigger and bigger, and Chen Bo’s long-term success, not to mention the colorful butterfly town, even the daughters of the big families around the town, have begun to play the idea of Chen Dagongzi. After one or two visits, Mrs. Chen’s mind was alive.

At the beginning, she decided to kiss this doll, because she was thinking about her own farmer's house, and she couldn't find a good wife, so she was eager to bundle Luo.

Who expected the reincarnation of Tiandao, and his Chen family also had a day of glory. At this time, she went back to see Luo Suixian, and she felt that the girl was not full of atmosphere, her idea was not smart enough, and she was stupid with her sly scorpion Like the old man, how to see how not pleasing to the eye.

She regretted a bit.

The appearance of Yao Qianjin changed her "somewhat" into "very".

Yao Qianjin is the daughter of the county magistrate. She loves to dress up. One day she is riding a horse and hunting. She passes by the powder shop and picks up a few flavors of powder. Who knows that the powder is not selected, but she has a glimpse of the busy and handsome son in the hall. .

That son is not someone else, it is Luo Fibre, the real nameless husband, Chen Bojun.

The author has something to say: Chu Xiaoning (serious face): This matter educates us, it is not advisable to make a private appointment. The two sides have not made a deed, and ending a relationship is often very casual and irresponsible.

Ink feeding fish (no face): Hey? In the last few chapters, it seems that someone has privately visited me, but I can't remember. Who is he? I originally wanted to be responsible for him. Since he didn't want it, then forget it. (smile)

Chapter 21

Yao Qianjin has a temper, and when he goes back, he doesn’t want to think about tea. He is worried about Chen Bozhen. Although Chen Bozhen is already married, but it is the world where the door is closed. Who knows the ten miles and eight townships? In the town, even Luo Chen and his two parents decided to do things, they are not clear.

So Yao Qianjin learned that the Chen Gongzi "has not married his wife."

The county magistrate made several inspections and felt that Xiao Chen was able to do it, the temper was gentle, and the conditions at home were not bad. So he sent someone to talk to the Chen family and talk about this marriage.

Outside of Chen’s family, the intestines can be repented. They euphemistically told the county magistrate that they should first consider and close the door, and the two old things would be noisy.

Chen Yuanwai said: "Let you be anxious! That poor book is a life-and-death. Originally, his daughter should have been mourning for three years. If you didn't let them go to the church first, we will regret it later! You look at what this is called. thing!"

Mrs. Chen is also anxious: "I blame me? Was the person who was going to fix the doll in front of you not you? Now it is good, the county magistrate! It is that fiber... Is it that Luo fiber can compare?"

The two old kings closed their doors to fight for a red face, and they had no strength at the end of the quarrel. They gasped through the table.

Chen asked the outsider: "What should I do? Let us return the county magistrate."

Mrs. Chen said: "... can't go back. Let's Chen Jia pointed to Yao Qian's family."

Chen’s anger said: “Where can Yao’s daughter be able to do it? Can it? We don’t have one in our son’s house, how can we get it in? You see the little ones love!”

"..." Mrs. Chen didn't say anything, half awkward, and suddenly there was a light in her eyes, muttering. "Old Chen, I am thinking about it, Luo Suixian and our son's son, except for the people at our head, No one knows..."

A few silences, Chen squatted for a while, and suddenly understood the intentions of his wife.

He was a little trembling, half was fearful and half was excited.

"You, you mean..."

"No one knows, it is not married." Mrs. Chen said, "We thought that she would drive her away. If it is not soft, it will be hard. Ten miles and eight towns know that our son is not married yet, you still remember her." Did you steal the oranges when you were young? As long as all of us bite to death, she is a 17-eight-mouthed mouth, and it’s also a bit of a mouth!"

Chen members strode to the front door and confirmed that the door was closed. He was busy with the past. The two people who had just been arguing like a cockfighter, and then nestled together, learned to suppress the sound and discuss it.

Chen Yuan said: "You are afraid of this method."

"what happened?"

"Our son won't agree. He likes Luo Fibre, and you let him turn his face with others. How can he promise?"

Mrs. Chen thought for a while, patted her husband’s hand and said, “You can rest assured that this thing covers me.”

After a while, Mrs. Chen suddenly became seriously ill, and the illness was weird. Lang was in the same place, but she was full of epilepsy, full of nonsense, and she said that she was a ghost.

Chen’s eagerness to burn out, please come to a Taoist, and the bones of Xianfeng are carrying a dust, and the fingers are counting, saying that Chen’s family has something for Mrs. Chen. If it is not resolved, Mrs. Chen will not live for years.

Chen Bozhen was the most filial. He was anxious at the time and asked: "What rushed my mother?"

The Taoist priest pretends to hang around for a long time, saying that it is a "beauty who does not see the light."

Everyone in the room was stunned, and several sons of Chen’s family all turned back to look at Luo’s fierceness on the side.

Luo Fiber is also stunned.

She has been told many times that she has been killed. She is a lonely star. When she was born, she died of her mother. Then she died of her brother, and then she died.

Right now, she was pointed again, saying that she would kill her mother-in-law.

Chen’s people were in a hurry. Several brothers said to her, let her leave Chen’s family. No one knew that she became a pro, and her reputation was innocent. They would give her silver money and let her find another good family. .

Luo is fierce and scared, and I am really worried that I am aging Mrs. Chen, and she has lost her tears in the day.

When Chen Bozhen’s heartache, seeing his mother’s growing ambiguity, it’s also a dilemma on both sides. He is neither willing to leave, nor can he bear the mother’s suffering. People quickly lose weight and go down a big circle.

Chen’s brothers didn’t do it. One day, when they were not in the boss, they found the blind. Luo Fibre was holding a hundred butterfly powder in the greenhouse. When they rushed up, they overturned her utensils. The powder fell on her, and the taste of the scent was like immersing it in the bones, and it could not be washed.

Several brothers first surrounded her and said that they had a sensation, what "female virtues", "what is the "wife and daughter are humble, parents are respected", but Luo Suifei is very resilience, although timid, but stubborn, crying Saying that he is not willing to leave, ask them to think about other ways.

Chen Jia's second child was anxious. When she went up, she gave her a slap and said to her: "My mother must be killed by your lonely star. If you have a way, will you die? Your mother will die?" Is your brother's life and death unknown?"

He hit a dozen, and several other people rushed up, kicking and kicking around Luo, and shouting in the mouth, "fast rolling", "harmful" and "sacred star".

These sons are all in the same mood as the mother. In fact, they have already known the idea of the mother. At this time, the boss is absent, and she pulls out the fiber and drives her out of the house and threatens her. If she dares to come back, she will hit her every day. She didn't have her family and was killed. No one gave her a sigh of relief.

It was a snowy night. Luo Sui was thrown into the snow in the blue and purple, and the embroidered shoes on his feet also lost one.

She slowly crawled forward, her mouth whispering, like a cub before the death of the cub.

Late at night, in this snowy day, few people will go out. She crawls between the heavens and the earth, I don’t know where I am going, I don’t know where I can go.

Chen’s brothers are right.

She has no family, no father, no brother, no one can take her for her, no one can take her.

This piece of pure white red dust, there is no place to hide.

Her body bones are not tough in themselves. When they are thrown out, they are thin and frosty. They quickly become numb and have no intuition.

I climbed all the way to the suburbs and went to the earth temple where the ghosts and ceremonies were enshrined. She squatted in the temple to hide the snow, her lips were frozen and blue, and her heart was sad.

Looking up at the clay figure of the gorgeous red makeup, tears can't help but roll down. Think of the rules of the next revision, the couple get married, there should be a master of ceremonies.

At the time, she was just squatting on a safflower, smiling and squatting with Chen Bozhen.

This closed-door marriage is not a big dream. The red-faced painting in the faint mirror that day is not a slap in the depths of her dreams.

She squatted in front of the ghost ceremonies, dragging more and more heavy and cold body, three squats, crying and laughing.

"It’s a couple, love is not suspicious. Entertainment... In... Today..."

She gradually felt dizzy in front of her eyes and blurred things.

In front of the small courtyard, she cried and said, "I didn't steal it, I didn't steal it. I didn't steal the orange."

However, three people become tigers, and people are awesome. No one will believe her words.

To this day, she knows that even if she is going to pull someone to cry and say that she is really a wife of Chen Bojun, no one will believe her. She is still the wall of the year, the little girl who has nowhere to stretch.

Nothing has changed.

Only one person in the past, turned over the wall, carrying a steaming white hoe, stuffed into his palm and said to himself: "Hungry, eat a * and hungry."

Now... who is that, where is it...

He can't find himself when he comes back, will he be in a hurry, or will he be relieved because his mother will never be beaten again?

Luo Fibres in the temple, screaming with tears of gradual drying, whispered: "Siyi Niangniang, I want to be with him. I am his wife... When we are in the church, there is no ceremonies next to you, you are a ghost. Master of ceremonies, I can't manage people, but I also... I only have to talk to you...and tell you..."

She whimpered in tears, and the last voice in her throat: "I didn't lie..."

I did not lie.

The snow is silent and the night is still.

On the second day, the townspeople who passed through the suburbs of the temple discovered the cold body of Luo.

The author has something to say:

Chu nightning: Don't stop me, let me kill their whole family, and ask the Lord to count me!

Ink feeding fish: (a hug) The judge please calm down, the judge please go back to the judges!

Chapter 22

Chu Xiaoning heard this, it is already angry, hate can not immediately withdraw Liu Teng according to the Chen family and two people squatting. But he can't blink and swear. Once he winks, the illusion will disappear immediately. The enchantment lock can only be locked once. If it is interrupted, Luo Wenfei can't hear it anymore.

Therefore, he can only endure the anger of the sky and continue to listen to Luo Fibre.

After her death, her soul first entered the government, and she was unaware.

The only impression is that there is a woman wearing a red and green dress. The eyebrows are like the ghost ceremonies enshrined in the temple. The ghost ceremonies stand in front of her and whispered to her: "You and Chen Bozhen, can't be in bed, Dead, can you share the same hole?"

She rushed to promise: "I am willing... I am willing!"

"That will let him come with you immediately, okay?"

Luo Shifei almost rushed out, just want to say good, but suddenly remembered something, a glimpse: "I am dead?"

"Yes. I am a ghost priest in the house, I can give you a good marriage, but I am willing to wait."

Luo is fierce: "Then he will accompany me, he... will he die?"

"Yes. However, if there is love in the sky, the life and death are small, but what is the difference?"

Chu nightning heard this, the heart of the road, and sure enough, this ghost ceremonies will induce others to make a wish for it, this fairy, it is really a evil fairy.

Although Luo Wenfei’s grievances have not been turned into ghosts at this time, he has repeatedly turned his head: “No, you can’t kill him, it’s not his fault.”

Ghost ceremonies smiled and said: "You are so kind, and how do you return?" It is not reluctant to be a slender, as a fairy, to induce others to make a vicious wish, but persecution is not enough, its figure gradually It fades and the sound is getting blurred.

"Return to the soul on the 7th, when you return to the Yangs in the first seven days, go to see Chen Jiajing, then I will come back to ask you, see you, whether there is still no regrets."

Seven days later, I will return to the soul.

Luo Sui's soul returned to the gods and returned to the sun.

She drifted along the old road, with an eager mood, to Chen Zhai, to see her husband's last look.

Who knows that the Chen House has a lantern, and the courtyard is surrounded by fire and silver flowers. The head of the banquet was filled with the flower hall, and the big "囍" was placed in front of the hall. Mrs. Chen was full of radiance. Where there was a little bit of illness, she smiled and pointed at the servants, and told them to tie the flowers and put them on the red.

Who is it... what a happy event?

Who is it... to hire a gift?

Who is it? Three media and six hires, it is not good.

who is it……

She shuttled through the busy crowd and listened to the hustle and bustle of the sun.

"Congratulations to Mrs. Chen, Ling Lang and Yao County are getting married in the family. When is the wine?"

"Mrs. Chen is really blessed."

"Yao Qianjin is really the lucky star of Chen's family. This is just the next time, Mrs. Chen, your temperament is much better."

"Lang Lang and Yao Qianjin Jin Yu Liangyuan, the combination of heaven and earth, so enviable, hahahaha."

Ling Lang...Lang Lang...

Which lang is it?

Who is going to be married with Yao Jiajin?

She became more and more frantic after the familiar front yard, looking for the familiar figure in her laughter.

Then she found it.

In front of the peony in the back hall, Chen Bozhen held his hand and stood face-to-face, his cheeks deep. However, it is a red dress, although it is not a kimono, but it is the custom of the butterfly town. When the prospective son-in-law is going to raise a family, the butterfly show should be worn with red makeup.

He... is going to raise a kiss...?

That is full of courtesy, gold and silver beads, all of them... are Chen Bozhen, her husband, the daughter of the Yao family, the preparation of the bride price?

She suddenly remembered the time when they got married.

Nothing is missing, except for two people, one heart, nothing.

There is no ceremonies, no prime ministers, no bridesmaids. Chen was not rich at that time. He didn't even have a decent set of jewellery. He went to the yard and took a delicate orange flower under a pair of orange trees planted with two people. He carefully licked her hair.鬓。.

She asked him: "Well, look good?"

He said it was good-looking, silent for a while, and some sadly touched her hair and said to her: "It is wronged."

Luo Shixiao grinned and said that it doesn't matter.

Chen Bozhen told her that after three years he married her, she must make up a hot wedding banquet. I want to ask the characters from all directions to greet her with the eight-lifted sedan. I want to give her gold and silver, and the banquet is full. The entire flower hall.

The vows were still in my ear, and now I spend a good month and have a good time.

He wants to be jealous, but he has changed to someone else.

A raging anger and sorrow came from the sky, and Luo Suiji shouted in the room, tearing the red silk brocade.

But she is a ghost, she has not encountered anything.

Chen Bojun was faintly aware of what he had noticed. He turned his head and looked at the gauze that was not moving in the wind. His eyes were hollow.

The younger sister came over, and her hair was licking a white jade, and I wondered who was secretly wearing filial piety.

She said: "Big Brother. You go to the kitchen to eat something. You haven't had a good meal for several days. You have to hurry and go to the county magistrate to raise your family. You can't help yourself."

Chen Bozhen suddenly asked without a word: "Little girl. Have you heard someone crying?"

"...What? No, Big Brother, I see you are too..." She bit her teeth and didn't say anything. Chen Bozhen still stared at the place where the gauze flew.

"How can I be happy at the moment? Is the illness good?"

"...big brother."

"...she is ill, just fine." Chen Bo squatted for a while, muttering to himself, "I have no slenderness, no more mothers."

"Big brother, go eat it..."

Luo Wenshu cried, shouting, holding his head and mourning.

Don't... don't go... you don't want to go...

Chen Bojun said: "...good."

The tired figure disappeared into the corner.

Luo Shiwei stood alone in the same place, the transparent tears fell big and big. Suddenly heard the brothers who killed her Chen family, the second brother whispered in the voice of the brother.

"Mother is happy this time, hey, finally a stone fell to the ground."

"Isn't it? I have been ill for more than half a year, so I am forced to leave the sorrowful star. Can she be upset?"

The younger brother snorted twice and suddenly said: "How did she die? We dare to go out and don't think about killing her. Why are they so stupid, don't know how to find someone to help?"

"Who knows, the face is thin, like her sour cockroach. If you die, you can't blame us. Although the maiden is sick to earn her, our family has its own difficulties. Think about it, the daughter of the county magistrate and the poor girl. The fool will choose her. Besides, one thousand Yao Jin is offended, and we have enough to drink a pot."

"Also, she is stupid, don't live, she wants to freeze to death, no one can save her."

These words are poured into the ears.

After the death of Luo Fibre, he finally understood the so-called "Scorpio Lone Star", but because of the humble and poor, not comparable, the county magistrate, so honorable.

A fool will choose a poor girl.

Finally crazy.

She was full of grievances, hated the water, and returned to the front of the ceremonial temple.

She died there, she went back there, she was weak and helpless when she died, and she returned to resentment.

She used to be such a kind-hearted person, but at this time she used up her life's hatred, and the evil that she never released in her humanity, her voice screaming exhaustedly, her eyes red and her soul trembled.

She said: "Luo Fibre, willing to give up the soul, from the sorrowful ghosts, only to ask the ceremonial maiden, revenge for me! I want to let Chen family - not good to die!!! I want her to let her beast Not as good as the evil mother-in-law, killing her son by hand! All her sons!!! I want to let Chen Bojun go to * to accompany me!! Come and bury with me!!! I am not willing!! I hate! I hate!!! !"

The clay sculpture on the shrine swayed and the corner of the mouth slowly rose.

An empty voice echoed in the temple.

"Accept you believe, as you wish, today is a ghost - killing - resentment -"

A * red glare flashed through, and after that, Luo Fibre, can no longer remember.

However, Chu Xiening has already become clear, and then it is the ghost ceremonies who manipulated the devil's slender body, Mrs. Chen, and killed the Chen family one by one.

The red dragonfly on the top of the mountain, the reason why he will dig out Chen Bozhen, is naturally because the ghost master has completed the long-cherished wish of Luo Shiji--"Let Chen Bojun and me bury." Moreover, it also deliberately placed the coffin in the homestead of Chen Bojun and his newlywed wife, which is the most cursed curse and revenge.

As for the floral fragrance in Chen Bo's coffin, it is the taste of the hundred butterfly powder on the silk fiber before death. The grievances and aromas in the coffin are extremely rich, precisely because Luo’s fierce soul is sleeping with Chen Bozhen.

Luo Fibri has no family members. According to customs, such a person is dead, and the bones are to be cremated instead of being buried. Therefore, she has no flesh and can only be transformed into a funeral burial ritual. At that time, the late night of the Chu dynasty and the vine whip opened the burial plaque, Luo Sui fiber lost the coffin shelter, the soul scatters, temporarily difficult to gather. Therefore, there will be a situation in which "the coffin is not open to grievances, and the coffin has opened up resentment."

But at that time, in the illusion, why did other people have dead bodies as spouses next to them, but Chen Bozhen had only one paper-ghost bride?

Chu night, a little thought, think about this section:

The ghost ceremonies will not violate their own promises. The paper bride is the "physical body" that it gives to the fiber, or it is a carrier. Only Luo Fiber can be buried with Chen Bozhen.

Everything is clear.

Chu Xiaoning looked at the girl who was weak and helpless in the illusion. He wanted to say something but could not speak.

The elders of Yu Heng were too stupid, and the speech was always hard, so they were silent for a long time, or they said nothing.

The girl stood in the darkness of her eyes, staring at her soft round eyes.

Chu Xiaoning looked at her nephew, and suddenly she couldn't bear it. She wanted to leave and didn't want to take another look. He is trying to wink and leave this enchantment.

The girl suddenly spoke.

"My brother. I, I still have something to say to you."

Chu nightning: "... um."

The girl suddenly lowered her head, squinted and cried. She said softly: "My brother, I don't know what I did later. But, I... I really don't want to kill my husband. I don't want to be a ghost. I really..."

"I didn't steal the oranges. I am really the wife of Chen Lang. In this life, I am also true. I really didn't think about harming people."

"I really don't want to hurt people, beg you, believe me."

The voice whimpered and shattered.

"I did not lie……"

I did not lie.

Why have you never believed in me in this life?

She wept and screamed, and Chu’s voice was in the darkness, and it rang low. He didn't talk much, but he didn't hesitate.

"Ok."

Luo's slender body was shocked.

Chu Yuning said: "I believe in you."

Luo Shixian smeared tears with his hands, but still could not help, and finally covered his tears in the face, bowed his head, in the darkness, where she could not see, a deep ritual.

Chu nightning reopened his eyes.

After he blinked, he did not speak for a long time.

The time in the enchantment is not the same as in reality. He stayed in it for a long time. For the outsiders, it was just a moment, and the ink burned did not come back. The Chen family lived and looked at them. he.

Chu night Ning suddenly received Liu Teng and said to Mrs. Chen, "I am singing for you, you sleep."

Mrs. Chen’s eyes glared at her * eyes, and suddenly she fell down on the ground and fainted.

Chu night Ning raised his head again, his eyes first swept across the face of Chen, and then fell on the scorpion, the sound was nothing but chilly, still very cold.

"I asked last time." His mouth slowly touched, one word at a time, "You, did you really hear who the voice is?"

Chapter 23

Chen Jiazi squatted, two battles, looking up to his father.

Outside Chen’s eyes, his eyes drifted. After a while, he firmly said: “No... I don’t know. No, I didn’t hear it!”

If the night of the Chu night is nine feet frost, whisper: "Lie."

His original appearance was extremely fierce. At this moment, he lowered his eyebrows and angered, and he became more and more murderous. He was even more fearful than the ghost.

Chen members involuntarily regressed two steps, and Chu night Ning violently asked Tian to ask for a note on the ground, and the time was smashing in the fire, and the leaves were flying. The sly Chen’s member slammed into a porcelain.

"Hundred butterfly powder is your family's? Is your eldest son married? Who is Luo Fibre? Are you still facing a big age?!"

The mouth outside Chen’s mouth was closed and closed, and he was together and Zhang. In the end, he couldn’t say a word, and his face gradually turned red from pale.

However, Chen’s daughter, who had been shrinking to the side, was crying when she heard the words “罗纤纤”.

She rushed over and squatted in front of her mother, pulling the coma body: "Sister Luo! Sister Luo, is this all you? I know that you are not willing to go, but beg you, look at me. On the face, I beg you to let go of our house... Luo sister..."

Chu night Ning leaned over and held the day of the golden light, and used the cane handle to provoke the face outside Chen.

This is the psychological cleansing of Chu Xiaoning. He feels that people who are disgusting will not touch it with his hands. Goose bumps at the touch.

"Do you think, I don't know who is lying to me?" He was cold and stared at the face outside Chen, and he saw his face from the eyes of the horrified eyes.

Sure enough, it was unpleasant, so cold and mean, like a blade covered with frost and snow.

But what about that?

Yuheng on the night, never need the love of others.

"You are the leader of the dead, the leader of the road, I am the trustee, how can you steal my personal affairs, I-"

Chu night Ning said: "Well, I don't care. You wait to die."

"No! No, no! You can't-"

"I can't?" Chu Xiaoning narrowed his eyes, and the luster in Danfeng's eyes was dangerous. "What can I not?"

"I am... you are... you..."

"If you are such a person, if you are a disciple in my martial art." Chu night, Ning Mo asked the sky, and said, "I will open the skin of your skin today, and the bones are broken."

When I talked about this, Chen’s staff couldn’t put on the garlic anymore. He saw that the night of the night was so fierce and sinister, and the people who had no monasticism were soft and soft, and they couldn’t help but soften their faces, and they simply didn’t want to squat. Cried and said: "Dao Chang, I, we are also forced to do so, can not afford to punish the county magistrate! We, we also sleep hard, day and night are not good, the road leader -"

Said to go to the legs of the late night.

Chu nightning, this person's heart is very clean and heavy. When he sees Chen, he will meet himself. He doesn't want to, and Liu Teng shoots down. He hates saying: "Don't touch me!"

"Ah wow!" The back of the hand was violently asked by the sky. Even if there was no spiritual power, Chen’s wife was still crying and screaming, and his mouth was groaning. "Nothing to do, the Taoist priests of the dead are playing ordinary people." !"

"you--!"

When the ink burned the two wounds into the house, he saw Chen’s nose licking a tear and slamming it on the ground, shuddering at Chu’s late night, screaming in his mouth: “Which martial art has done this? You have received a commission for your death, no, don’t protect the client, and you will be beaten. This is true, this is really true – it’s so shameless! I, I want to tell the world! I want to preach! I, I want everyone to know that you are... this kind of attitude! Let you lose your name and you can't make a copper plate!"

Chu night Ning anger said: "How about money? If you can turn black and white with money, can you report it? If you have money, you can do whatever you want, and abandon your promise?"

Next to the Chenjia scorpion shouted: "That Luo is fierce, but we are not killed. We only beat her twice and drove her out. She didn't want to live. She didn't look for it in the snow. The place is hiding, can this blame us? We have no murder, you are the uncle, you can't blame the sinner."

His remarks are extremely savvy. In terms of law, Chen has not done anything more than the moment. Even if Chu Ningning turned them to the court, the Tuen Mun also blamed the Chen family for being ignorant, but they could not judge them at all. The guilt of any one person.

"I don't kill Boren, Buren is dying because of me. You, really pick it up."

Chu night Ning holds the hand of Liu Teng, because of his anger, shaking slightly.

The old tyrants of Chen’s family have already slowed down from the initial panic. He had previously worried that the ghosts would not be cleaned up, and Chu will rather leave them alone, but after thinking about it, this fierce road leader was sent by the dead. The shackles of life and death are the first big faction in the lower martial arts. They have already received commissions, and the Taoist priests sent to them must complete their trust. This is a thing that is well known in the country.

After thinking about this section, he was not so scared.

Holding his own hoof that had been smashed a small hole, crying and sneezing a tear: "Is it clean? My old Chen family has never done anything that hurts the world. It neither kills nor sets fire. If you don't want to live, you can rely on us. You, you don't want to clean this ghost away today. When I look back, I will tell you about the death of the dead. How can you have such a thing? I don't understand this point, you still --"

When I didn’t finish it, I saw that I had taken my own purse bag, my eyes were not stunned, and my anger was thrown out of Chen’s staff: “The door sent you, I will pay you back today. As for the complaint, you want to sue. !"

When the sky is light, the willow leaves are like a knife.

Chen’s nephew was out of reach, and he was beaten and shouted. He hugged his head and groaned, and he stunned his little daughter to block the willow.

It’s also a bad night, when I’m in the middle of the night, I’m getting used to it. I’m still in harmony with his mind, and I’m just taking advantage of it. I’m avoiding the Chen’s little girl, and then I’m going around, and I’m going to cross the face outside Chen’s face. The blood is splashing and screaming.

Chen’s external pressure did not expect that Chu Yuening would not eat him. The previous momentum became a bubble, and he fled and yelled, and shouted: “Don’t fight! Don’t fight! Dao, I am all nonsense! It is nonsense! Ah! The leader is forgiving! I beg you, I am old, can’t stand it! The compassion of the road is the fault of our Chen family! It is the fault of our Chen family. !"

When Chu Ning still listened to it, he was discouraged in the chest, Feng Mian, and asked the dancer to brush the shadows of the sky, and the Chen members were beaten all over the place.

The ink burned at the door was shocked: "....."

For the first time, he saw the night of Ning, and asked him to smoke ordinary people, and he was not soft. The posture was like that of a farm animal. The vines and vines were all in a shadow.

Is this still available? The client actually beat the client. This matter is enough to put the fairy in the upper or lower boundary, so that the fairy is famous, and the temper is strong, and then the temper is used again, and it will not be committed. Big mistake?

This is more sinful than his "stolen sin and chaos".

The teacher was also scared to pale, busy with ink: "Quick, go to stop the Master!"

The ink burns Chen Yao, who is still in a coma, that is, Yao Jia Qianjin handed it over to the teacher, and went forward to catch Chu’s wrist, and he was in a hurry: “Shi Zun – you – what is this doing? ”

Chu night Ning was not angry, Jianmei was angry and said: "Release."

"Master, you are a guilty -"

"I want you to say? Seven hundred and fifty of the rules of life and death, I still can't clear you? Release!"

The smoldering sound is high: "Then you still fight?"

Chu Xiaoning was too lazy to talk nonsense with him. He slammed his sleeves and was a rattan. He was pumping himself outside Chen.

"Master!!"

Chu nightning whispered in a low voice, and the frost in the eyes bullied the sky: "Roll!"

When Chen’s appearance was outside, he felt that the ink-burning and long-lasting demeanor was a good person. He quickly stumbled and climbed over, squeezing behind the ink, and holding his hand to smash the ink-burning clothes corner: “Dao Chang, you are persuading you to respect I, I have an old bone, even if there is a mistake, even if there is a mistake, I can’t help but fight like this..."

Whoever burns his head and turns to see his tears in his face, there is no pity, but he feels disgusting. "Ah" quickly slams away and dismissed: "Don't touch me."

"..." Chen said that this is unreliable, and his eyes turned to the teacher who was sitting on the chair of the Taishi. With the last glimmer of hope, he climbed over to the division, and when he climbed, he cried and cried.

"Daochang, Daochang, send good heart and send compassion, I am really wrong, I am not good, I am not good, I beg you, help me to persuade your teacher, I have Wrong, I plead guilty... I... I... You guys let me do anything, just don’t hit me anymore, I’m too old, I can’t hold my body... I can’t hold it...”

He cried so sadly that in order to survive, nature is also a sincere of 120,000 points. Climb to the side of the teacher, and reach out and go to the clothes of the teacher.

"..." The teacher saw him poorly, and looked up to the late night of Chu. "Master, the old man is known to be wrong, you will be merciful, let go -"

Chu night Ning said: "You give me away."

Teacher: "..."

Chu night Ning Li said: "Not allowed yet??"

The teacher shook and shuddered and let it go.

One day, he slammed the air and slammed it toward Chen’s outside. Chen’s hands clasped his head and shouted with tears. The voice was too loud, and the teacher stood next to him. He couldn’t help but come back again. He was hard to live, and blocked the rattan for Chen.

A brush.

The teacher’s flash is too urgent, and Chu’s late arrival is going to be closed, and it’s too late.

The blood was flying, and the teacher was weak. He smashed the attack and sat down on the ground, licking the white cheeks, but the blood could not stop, and he slid out along the fingers...

Chapter 24

For a time, no one spoke in the hall, only heard the sobs and sobbs outside Chen.

The teacher bowed his head and rubbed his cheeks. When he looked up and looked at Chu Ningning, his eyes were full of sincerity: "Master, don't fight again. You can continue to fight like this, and the responsibility is the life and death..."

The ink burns is even more so. Although he is a confusing person, he is stubborn and stubborn to the teacher. When he is born again, he secretly vows to hold the person and protect him. But this is not a few days later, the teacher is seriously injured and is Liu Liu, what is this thing!

He also refused to go to the evening with Chu, and was busy with the teacher to see the wound on his face.

The teacher whispered softly: "I don't get in the way..."

"You show me."

"It doesn't matter."

Even if he resisted, the hand holding the wound was still pulled by the ink.

The pupil collapsed.

A deep * smack, fleshy valgus, blood can not help but linger, extending to the neck...

The burning eyes couldn't help but red, biting his lips for a long time, suddenly turned his head and yelled at Chu night: "Are you enough?"

Chu night Ning Yin calmed his face, did not say anything, did not apologize or go forward, straight in the same place, still holding in his hand did not fill any spiritual power.

"..."

There are countless sorrows in the ink chest that are insane.

Who is the sweetheart who died in the past life, and was repeatedly tortured like this?

He and Chu Yuning were so staring at each other, no one gave in, no one was soft, and the eyes of the burning gas gradually burst into bleeding. He hated Chu’s hate for so many years, deep into the bone marrow, why did this man always miss him? plate!

When he first entered the sect, he did something wrong, and Chu Ning would take him as he died. Later, the teacher was injured. Chu Xiaoning had only three apprentices in his life, but he stood by and refused to help. Then the sergeant died, and the shackles of death and death were ruined. His drizzle became the overlord of the world of self-cultivation. Who would not accept him? Only Chu Yuening and him confronted him, ruined his great cause, stabbed his conscience - always remind him that stepping on the emperor is even more powerful, but it is just a madman who is dejected and ruthless.

Chu nightning.

Chu nightning...

After his death, he has always been him!

Both of them were still wearing matching suits, and the red shirts were facing the red shirts. They stood far apart, and there seemed to be a deep gap in the middle.

The question of Chu’s late days was finally collected.

Chen’s outside was greatly relieved, and he squatted in front of the teacher’s aunt. “Bodhisattva heart, Bodhisattva heart, Xianjun is a living bodhisattva to save lives. Thank you, Xianjun saved me Chen’s family, thank you Xianjun, thank you Xianjun "" always like this.

The evil spirit is his flat, but the poisonous willow vine is indeed his pumping. Chu night Ning did a clean internal affairs and also broke the strict strict ring, and finally Bodhisattva is someone else, he is a wicked person.

It has always been the case.

He is not good, he recognizes.

There is no regret.

It was just that the rattan whip lost his hand and took his own apprentice. After all, he felt uncomfortable in his heart, but his face was thin, and he was not willing to say a few words on his own words. He came to Chen’s daughter in front of him.

When the little girl saw him, she couldn’t help but scared her back two steps and shivered.

Chen family, only she is good. Chu Yu Ning has a mild tone and said: "Your mother has been stunned by the ghosts, and Yang Shou has been ruined for more than 20 years. If he still does not think about repentance, he will be mourned, and later he will be dying, and he will die sooner. After she wakes up Let her personally use the red peach for the Luo girl to stand the spirit card, the card must recognize the identity of Luo girl. Luo Fibre is the wife of Chen Bozhen Ming media, you have concealed the facts for many years, should also announce the wishes of her life."

After a pause, I handed it to the book:

"In addition, your family's three times a day, three times and nine miles, read the 'transfer curse', you can surpass Luo girl, you can also send away the ghosts entangled in your home. This curse needs to be ten years, can not be interrupted, if halfway Abolished, Luo girl will still come back to seek revenge."

The little girl trembled: "...Yes, more, thank you Dao..."

Chu Yuening again turned back, his eyes were sharp as snow-covered bayonet, sweeping over Chen Jiazi and Chen Yuan, and sighed: "When Chen Yao wakes up, you both need to inform her about the hidden things, to stay. She decided that if there was a slight concealment, I saw that you kept your tongue!"

Both of them were guilty and guilty, and they dared not agree, and even the gimmick promised.

"As for the hundred butterfly fragrant powder, this object is matched by Luo Shusheng, but it is said by your brazenness that it is your own prescription. You know what to do, you don't need me to say more."

"I, we must go to the shop to correct, to clarify, to tell the folks that this powder is Luo... Mr. Luo..."

After all the things were arranged properly, Chu nightning let the ink burned Chen Yao’s back to the room to push her blood and detoxification.

Although I hate in the heart of the burning heart, I know that when I was young, I was awed by the mentor, and therefore I was no longer snoring. He shook hands and shook hands. "You go to see your face, fast. The blood stopped. I helped her to go to the room."

The bedroom of Chen’s eldest son is still sticking to the double happiness of the red. I am afraid that it is a great life, and I am forgotten to pick it up. At the moment, Chen Bozhen has become a powder, so it is ironic.

Chen Yao’s in this ridiculous farce has become a victim of greed, and she does not know what to choose after she wakes up.

She is not more than a teacher, in the end is an ordinary person, Chu night Ning silently pushed her blood, and fed her to take the drug. During this process, the ink burned on the side of the water delivery towel, the two did not speak, and did not look at each other.

When he left, Chu nightning inadvertently went to the wall, his eyes faintly moved, but suddenly realized what, and then turned back, staring at a word hanging on the wall.

That is a few lines of straight book, the ink book should be in the near future, the paper edge has not been yellowed.

Written is -

Red hand, yellow vine, full of city □ 宫 palace wall willow.

The east wind is evil and the love is thin. A cup of lingering, a few years away. Wrong, wrong, wrong.

The spring is as old as the people are thin and the tears are red and clear.

Peach blossoms fall, leisure pool pavilion, although the mountain alliance, the Jinshu is difficult to support. Mo, Mo, Mo.

Chu night Ning suddenly suddenly blocked, the word of the book is neat, the word is correct, the place of the drop, Chen Bozhen's three-word end is glaring.

Chen Gongzi, who violated the Yao family’s money, couldn’t say in his heart. In the last days of his life, he could only stand by the window and smack the ink and ink to write this first-born parting of Shantou Feng. ?

Never want to stay in Chen Zhai again, he endured the pain of the shoulder wound and turned and left.

Both Chu and Ning and Wu Shi were injured. They could not immediately return to the death of the horse, and Chu Yuning especially did not like Yu Jian flying, so he went to the town to find an inn to rest, and the next day, I went to see it. What happened to the ghost ceremonies on the other side of the temple.

Although the ghosts and corpses of the ghosts were twisted into powder by the "wind" of Chu Xinning, the destruction was only the body controlled by the ghost masters. The soul would not be damaged. Leave it for a few more days to see if there is any fish that slipped through the net. it is good.

Chu Xiaoning walked silently in front, and the two apprentices followed.

The teacher thought of what he suddenly remembered and asked: "A burning, the clothes of you and the master... is... what happened?"

When the ink burned, it was only after I thought that I was wearing a good-looking suit with Chu, and I was afraid that the teacher would misunderstand and quickly take off.

"This...is actually the illusion before, you don't want to think too much, I..."

When I talked about half of it, I saw it again. I suddenly found out that the teacher was involved in the marriage of the ghost ceremonies. There was also one on the body, but the style was not the same as the two of them. Plus the worn and worn, I can't see the original look.

But well, that is also a good.

Standing side by side with the teacher, I can imagine that I was holding the hand of the teacher, and I went to the heavens and the earth in the illusion of ghosts and ceremonies.

For a time, I couldn't bear to take it off. Just look at the teacher.

Shi Yan Wen Xiao smiled and said: "What's wrong? Half said."

Ink whispered: "...nothing."

Chu Xiaoning was in front, a few steps away, and did not know how to listen to a few of their conversations. At this time, they stopped and came back.

The sky has been brightened, and after a night of ups and downs, the twilight smashed, and the sky suddenly burst into a glimmer of dawn. The bright red sun is like a broken and * heart, struggling from the dark abyss, and smashing the brilliance.

Standing in the late night of the late Qing Dynasty, standing at the end of the increasingly bright night, standing in the first rays of the sky.

His wedding dress was like blood, standing sideways, and the rising sun painted a vaguely rim of Phnom Penh on his face and could not see his face.

Suddenly, the spiritual output, the Jifu was shattered by the powerful force.

The red shards of cloth, like the red petals of the remnant flowers that fluttered when the sea otters fell, slammed into the wind and scattered around.

The kimono was broken, revealing the white robes below, rolling in the wind, with his long black hair.

Blood on the shoulders.

The coat of the wind.

The mottled bloodstains that burned the ink were particularly glaring on the white robe.

For a long time, Chu Xiaoning sneered, quite ridiculous: "Ink rain, between you and me, what can be misunderstood?"

When he is angry, he will charge ink to the ink, and he will be cold and welcoming, and will not take any heat.

The ink burned cold and couldn't prevent it, and he couldn't speak without his words.

At this time, there was no one in the four fields. He walked alone in front of him, as if he was in the sky, and he was alone.

His ridiculous ridiculous face, when he arrived at the inn and closed the door, could not stand.

Chu night Ning bit his teeth, his face showed a painful look, raised his hand to touch his shoulder.

The claws of the ghost ceremonies are the body of the fairy spirit. Counting them up, and asking the world to ask for more, they are extremely powerful weapons. His entire shoulder is torn and scratched, but he is not treated in time because he is eager to annihilate the evil spirits. At this moment, it has been infected and festered, and the pain is difficult.

Standing in the room, relieved, Chu night would rather remove the robes on his body, but the blood on his shoulders has already condensed, and the clothing and flesh are stuck together, and the pain is so bad.

Next door is the ink-burning room. The soundproofing of the inn is not good. He doesn't want people to know that he bites his lips and tears off the fleshy cloth.

"Uh……!!"

After a sigh, Chu nightning slowly released his lips, the lips and teeth were full of blood, he gasped with a big mouth, no blood on his face, cold sweat.

Hanging down the thick, thick eyelashes, he trembled a little and went to see his injury.

Fortunately.

Still able to handle...

He held the table and sat down slowly. Just let the small two-end clear water and the sun towel, endure the pain, use the uninjured hand, bit by bit, wipe the wound for yourself.

The sharp knife broke in and cut off the carrion.

Then, apply the wound medicine made by Mrs. Wang.

One more person, slowly and difficultly, wrapped himself in gauze.

He is not used to showing weakness in front of people. This kind of pain, he has experienced many times, each time a person is supported.

If the beast is injured, he will hide himself and lick the wound. He sometimes feels like the animal. In the future, I will probably continue to be so lonely.

He knows that he is not flattering, so he does not want to ask anyone for help. He has his own inexplicable dignity.

Just when I took off my clothes, I dropped a kit on the floor.

Red satin embroidered acacia, he took the painful trembling fingertips, slowly disassembled, inside is two entangled blue silk.

He and the ink burned.

Chu nightning is a moment of loss of God. I want to put the kite in front of the candlelight and burn it together with the ridiculous hair. But in the end, I still can't go.

It’s a couple, and there’s no doubt about love.

The fine laughter of the golden boy and the girl seems to ring in her ears.

He knew some kind of instigation in his heart, so he was more self-loathing. He held the soft tip in his hand and slowly closed his eyes.

He has been unable to accept his own thoughts on the burning of ink, and he can't wait to dig his heart out, and then cut the mourning inside, cut it and throw it away.

What did you commit?

It’s also a matter of ink and rain? Is there such a person to be respected? It’s really not a beast!

"Hey."

The door was suddenly ringed, and he was condemning his own night, and he suddenly picked up his eyelids and quickly put the kit in his wide sleeves, pulling Zhang Jun’s face, not very good.

"who?"

"...Master, it's me." The outside sounded a burning sound, and Chu Xinning's heartbeat suddenly went a little faster. "You open a door."

The author has something to say: the beginning of this chapter to the 73 chapter is inverted v, explain that the v is the meaning, that is, the chapters that were written earlier are free, now the vip chapter. Wood has a way, before the collection is very low, to the v line is late, the editor will ask for the v, the v has a word scale line, the chapter is mostly because the entry v is very late 300,000, almost fast is a lot of finished The number of words, please forgive me, 24 to 73 chapters all subscribe to about 6 yuan for the mobile app, if I really feel that there are more comments on the pirate, I have no opinion... but still hope that you can not see the pirates or not, after all, before The collection of 500,000 less than 300,000 days is still a bit of painstaking work, haha.

Oh, it’s almost like saying this to the big brothers who are new to the pit. Thank you for being a good friend.

Chapter 25

Chu Xiaoning "rolled out" three words stuck in the throat, gloomy face silence for a long time, and finally changed slowly: "roll in."

"Hey? You don't have a lock?" Cold war for a whole day, at this moment, the ink burned and reconciled with him, and as he spoke, he pushed the door in, as if nothing had happened. Chu Evening sat facelessly at the table, picking up his eyelids and glanced at him faintly.

In the heart, the ink is very good-looking. As soon as you walk into the door, the whole house is bright. He is very young, his skin is tight, and he seems to have a faint glow. The corners of his mouth are naturally filled with some curls. When there is no emotion, it is like laughing.

Chu nightning quietly left his eyes from the burning body, the slender eyelashes hang down, raised his hand to wipe out an incense on the table, and then asked coldly:

"What are you doing?"

"I am coming... look at your injury." The ink burned a few coughs, his eyes fell on the shoulders of Chu's late night, and he stunned. "Is it changed?"

Chu night Ning faint: "Yeah."

Incoherently speechless: "....."

He did remember to hate the late night, but also the temperament of the night. But after calming down, the ink is not completely unconscion, hate to hate, he did not forget how Chu night Ning shoulders are injured.

In the stuffy coffin, it was Chu Wanning who kept himself in his arms and blocked the claws of the ghost ceremonies with his own body. He was sore and trembling and did not loosen...

For the person who is late in the night, the burning of the ink is very disgusting.

But besides being disgusted, I don't know why, but I always have some complicated emotions.

He is a rude person. He didn't read a book when he was a child. Later, although he made up some literary knowledge, he is still easy to turn around in many delicate things, especially about feelings.

For example, in the case of Chu Xiaoning, the ink burned his head and pondered for a long time. The back of the head had to touch the vulture, and it was not clear what this feeling was.

He can only recognize a certain kind of feeling: like, hate, hate, happy, unhappy.

If you mix several emotions together, Yingming Shenwu’s stepping emperor will stare at Venus and completely faint.

Do not understand, do not understand, do not know, help, the head hurts.

So the ink burned too lazy to think again, anyway, no one except the teacher, he did not have time to study it.

In his heart, he gave the night to the night, and he secretly remembered the bad debts. While he secretly calculated that he had the opportunity, he must doublely repay it. While he was guilty, the heavens and the people fought, and finally they knocked on the door of Chu’s late night.

He didn't want to owe him a late night.

However, this person, who is late in the night, is more embarrassed than he thinks.

The ink burned staring at a pile of blood-stained cotton yarn on the table, the hot water stained with red blood in the basin, and the sharp knife thrown aside at random. The tip of the knife was still full of flesh and blood, and his head was big.

How did this person do his own healing?

Is he really able to cut off the rotten meat wounds like this? The scene is imaginative and numb. Is this guy still a human?

When I remembered that I had just cleaned the wounds for the teacher, the teacher had a painful licking/squeaking, and the eyes were tearful. I was so angry that I didn’t like Chu Ningning, and I couldn’t help but give him a whisper in my heart.

The elders of Yu Heng really were domineering pure men, and they served.

Standing for a while, the ink burned to break this silence. He coughed twice and rubbed his toes on the floor. He said awkwardly: "I was in Chen Zhai... Master, I am sorry."

Chu night rather does not speak.

The smoldering sneaked a sneak peek at him: "I shouldn’t be yelling at you."

Chu Xiaoning still ignored him. This person’s face is faint, as always, there is no expression, but the heart can be wronged, that is, no snoring.

The ink burned away, and when it was close, I saw that Chu Ning had messed up his shoulder bag, * the cotton yarn, and tied himself up like a bundle of crabs.

"..."

Also, a person who can't even wash his clothes can count on how good he is to tie himself?

Sighed, the ink burned: "Master, don't be angry."

"Your eyes saw that I was angry?" Chu night Ning angered.

Ink burning: "..."

after awhile.

"Master, bandaging is not such a package..."

I went back to it without any politeness: "Would you like to teach me?"

Ink burning: "..."

He raised his hand and wanted to help Chu Xiaoning to solve the gauze and repack it, but he looked at it and felt that if he dared to touch him, he was estimated to be able to smash a big ear and hesitated.

The hand was lifted up and put down, put down and lifted up, repeated several times, and Chu was rather annoyed. Squinting his eyes: "What? You still want to fight me?"

"....." I really want to fight, but not now.

Ink gas laughed, no matter what the three seventy-two, suddenly reached out and grabbed his shoulders, and floated the dimples at the corner of his mouth: "Master, I will help you repackage it."

Chu night Ning Yuan wanted to refuse, but the warm fingers of the ink had been covered. He suddenly felt that some of his mouth was dry and uneasy, so he could not speak, so his lips moved slightly, but he was allowed to go.

The gauze was peeled off layer by layer, and the blood was soaked. After the fall, the five holes were glaring.

Just watching, I feel chilling, many times more than the mouth of the teacher's face.

I don’t know what’s going on, but I’ve looked at it for a while and suddenly whispered a question: “Would it hurt?”

Chu nightning with long eyelashes, just said a faint voice: "Good."

The ink burned: "I am a little lighter."

Chu nightning did not know what to think of, suddenly the earrings were a little red. As a result, I was angry with myself. I felt that I was crazy. I didn’t know what to think about all the time, so my face looked stiffer and my temper was worse. I said dryly: "With you."

The candlelight in the room was peeled off. Through the dim light, I could see that some places did not apply the ointment at all. The ink burned was very speechless. I felt that it would be a miracle to be healthy and healthy tonight.

"Master."

"Ok?"

"What happened to you in Chen today? How could you suddenly hit someone?" Asked while applying the ointment.

Chu Xi Ning was silent for a while and said: "It is nothing but gas."

Ink burning asked: "What makes you angry?"

Chu Xiaoning didn't want to care about the juniors at this time. He simply said that the slender things were told to the ink. After listening to the ink, he shook his head. "You are too stupid. You are mad at this kind of thing." However, you shouldn't be in conflict with them in person. If you change to me, I will make a mess and lie to them that the ghosts have been removed, and then pat the * to let them go. Let's see you. In order to be such a rotten person, it made such a mistake, and I didn’t know how to change it. I also missed the teacher’s hand--"

Half of the words, the ink burned suddenly. Two eyes staring at Chu Yuning, no sound.

He tied the bandages carefully, and sometimes forgot about me, and the tone of talking with Chu Yuening, unconsciously became the look of thirty-two years old, no big or small.

Chu Xiaoning apparently noticed that he was leaning on the scorpion, screaming at the cold, and the eyes were familiar with the words - "I don't kill you."

"Uh……"

The brain has not yet thought of a response, Chu nightning has opened a respect.

He said very indifferently: "Is it clear that I want to fight?"

When it comes to the teacher, the burning of the original awake brain begins to break the axis, and the tone is hardened: "Is that person not you?"

The blow of the night was also regretted, but his face could not be hanged. At this time, he calmed his face and said nothing.

Chu nightning is a kind of cockroach, and the ink is a kind of infatuation. The two look at each other, and they are screaming with sparks. The atmosphere that has just eased slightly has become stalemate in hopelessness.

Ink burns: "There is no mistake in the teacher's sorrow. Master, you accidentally hurt him. Isn't it a sorry sentence?"

Chu Xiaoning narrowly raised his eyes: "You are asking me?"

"...I didn't." The ink burned. "I just feel bad about his innocence, but I don't get a apology from the Master."

Under the candlelight, the handsome young boy wrapped the last bandage on the wound of Chu Yuning, carefully knotted it, and it was still a very warm scene before the moment, but the mood of both of them has changed. Especially in the late evening, the chest is like a vinegar fried in a jar. The taste of sourness and sorrow can't keep up, and it is angry and annoying.

apologize?

How to write the word apology? Who will teach him?

The ink burned and said: "The wound on his face, all of them go back and say how long it will take half a year. When I just gave him medicine, he still told me not to blame you, Master, he does not blame you, but Do you think this thing you take care of?"

This sentence is tantamount to pouring oil on the fire.

Chu nightning for a while, after all, did not hold back, pressing the voice, Shen Sheng: "Get out."

Ink burning: "..."

Chu night Ning angered: "Roll!"

The ink burned out, and the door closed as soon as he slammed into his face, almost pinching his finger. The smoldering is also mad, look, see! Who is this? Isn't it just to apologize? What is the difference between a face and a gold, and what is the difficulty of touching the upper and lower mouths? This seat is to step on the emperor's seat and is not afraid to apologize to others. Also, Beidou Xianzun said that half of the inexplicable words were swallowed, and what was wrong with it!

No wonder that a long face is still rare!

White, and live alone for a lifetime!

Since Chu Xiaoning did not take care of him, he gave him a closed door to eat, and the high-ranking Emperor of the Emperor of the Emperor, of course, would not die and slammed his face to sleep. Although he was so tenacious, he couldn't get rid of the leather candy, but he was a teacher, not a master.

Immediately leave the person indifferently, go to the teacher to go.

"How come back?" The beauty of the teacher who had been lying down and rested, and the ink burned in. He squatted and sat up, and the long hair of the ink hanged down. "How about the master?"

"Okay, the temper is as big as peace."

Teacher: "..."

The ink burned the chair over, and sat there, sitting on the back of the teacher's chair with a lazy smile on his mouth, and looked back and forth with the soft long hair.

The teacher said: "Do I still have to go see him..."

"Wow, you can't think of it." The ink burned a white eye, "Furious."

"You made him angry again?"

"He needs people to provoke? He can be angry with himself. I see that he is a wood-made person, and he will burn it at all."

The teacher shook his head and laughed and laughed.

Ink burning: "You should rest early, I will go downstairs to borrow a kitchen and give you something to eat."

The teacher said: "What is it? You didn't close your eyes overnight, you don't sleep yourself?"

"Haha, I am in good spirits." The ink burned and laughed. "But if you can't bear me, I can stay with you for a while, until you fall asleep."

The teacher hurriedly waved his hand and said warmly: "No, you have to look at me like this, but I can't sleep, you go to sleep earlier, don't be tired."

The curvature of the corner of the mouth is slightly stiff and the ink burns a little sad.

Although the teacher-in-law is gentle to him, he always maintains some attitudes that are arrogant and arrogant. The people who are close at hand are like the moon in the mirror and the flowers in the water.

"...well." In the end, I just tried to cheer up, and I laughed. The smile of ink burns is very bright. When this person is not bad, it is silly and cute. "What needs to call me, I am Next door, or downstairs."

"Ok."

The ink burned his hand and tried to touch his hair. Finally he held back. The hand made a turn in the air and scratched his head.

"I'm leaving."

Out of the house, the ink burned and could not help but sneezed.

He sucked his nose.

Because of the fragrance, the price of all kinds of incense and incense is not expensive, so the inn is not awkward. Each room has a long special high-scented incense, one can avoid evil, and the other can dehumidify. Three can make the interior fragrant.

It can be uncomfortable to smell the incense, but the helper does not like it, he will endure.

Coming downstairs, the ink swayed to the front of the shopkeeper, stuffed a silver spindle for him, narrowed his eyes and smiled and said: "The shopkeeper, it is convenient."

The treasurer looked at the silver, and smiled more politely than the ink: "What do you want to tell Xianjun?"

Ink ignited: "There are not many people who come here to eat breakfast earlier. I have been negotiating for you. The kitchen is used by me this morning. I am troubled to bring other guests back."

Can you earn a few dollars early? Half a month may not be able to have a silver ingot to earn back, the treasurer immediately opened his eyes and smiled, full of mouths promised, led to the swaying ink drizzle, went to the inn's kitchen.

“Is it necessary for Xianjun to cook for himself? It’s better to let the cooks in our store do it, and the craftsmanship is very good.”

"No." The ink burned and laughed. "Is the treasurer’s heard of the drunken jade building in Xiangtan?"

"Ah... is that the famous building that went to the water more than a year ago?"

Ink burning: "Yeah."

The boss sneaked a peek out and determined that his wife was busy, did not eavesdrop, and snickered: "How have you heard of it? The most famous restaurant on the Xiangjiang River, a former music leader, a name It’s a pity that I’m far away, or I want to listen to her playing a song.”

The ink burned and laughed: "I am thankful for her praise."

"For her? For her?" The shopkeeper couldn't figure it out. "Do you know her?"

Ink burning said: "After knowing."

"Wow... I don’t see the prince, oh? But can you help the people who practice the Tao... um..."

Ink burned and interrupted him: "I don't know anything other than Le Kui?"

"Well... eating is said to be a must."

The ink burned his mouth and smiled more clearly. He skillfully picked up the kitchen knife and said: "I didn't practice the road, I was in the kitchen of the drunken floor, and I played for several years. You said that it was delicious for your cook. Or is it delicious for me?"

The treasurer was even more surprised, incoherently: "Xianjun is really... really..."

It’s really a half-day.

The ink burned and squinted at him, his mouth curled up with a calm and smug smile, and his attitude was lazy: "Go out, this chef has to cook."

The treasurer did not know that he was talking to the former Lord of Darkness, and he slammed his face: "I have a long time to dip in the jade floor, and I don’t know if Xianjun is doing it for a while. Can you enjoy a face and give it a taste? Daughter-in-law?"

He had thought that this request was not high, and the ink burned would promise.

Who knows that the ink burns his eyes and smirks: "Want to eat?"

"Ok!"

"Thinking beautiful!" The ink snorted, and the pride was lifted, screaming. "Is this seat a chef who will easily serve the people? This is what I specially do for the teacher, or why He, this seat will never cook for cooking..."

He turned over the radish and began to cut, muttering.

"..." The shopkeeper ate a cockroach and stood up with a slap in the face, laughing for a while, then went out.

He is also embarrassed in his heart.

Also this seat? At a young age, I am afraid that the spiritual core has not yet formed. Looking at his mouth, the younger sister is short, but there is no female Taoist in the people who walk with him today.

The shopkeeper turned his eyes.

It is expected that this person will be ill and not very sick.

The ink burned in the kitchen for a while, and stayed for two hours. It was nearly noon, and it was only after work, and rushed upstairs to ask the teacher to pick it up.

When he passed through the night of Chu, he stopped slowly.

Want to ask him to eat together...

I remembered the bad nature of Chu’s late night, and the ink burned his mouth and his face was scornful.

If you don’t call it, you’ll be a little bit better, no one!

Chapter 26

The sun is getting higher and higher, and more and more people come to the inn to make a point. The ink is burning and the building is noisy, so that Xiao Er will deliver the dishes to his room.

In the end, he still invited Chu Yuning, after all, the master is the biggest, he is not the human king, the rules still have to be kept.

There are three bowls of steamed noodle soup on the side of the coffin. The noodles are made by myself. Unlike the ones bought outside, the noodles are smooth and smooth. The top is covered with thick sliced beef slices, oily sausages, fresh pea seedlings, full. Green vegetables, golden egg silk, bright and attractive color, it is beautiful to look at.

But the best of the three bowls of noodles is not the water leaves, nor the bulk of the meat, the extravagant material, but the bone soup that has been slowed down for four hours, poured in the noodle bowl, and the milky white soup floats. Sesame red oil, ink-burning stone scorpion has developed a spicy and spicy seasoning, boiled in the soup, aroma, full of flavor.

He pondered that the teacher loves to eat spicy, and the red oil and the oily pepper are all quite enough. Seeing that the teacher buryed his head and ate it very fragrantly, the curvature of the mouth of the ink burner became more and more sorrowful, and he couldn’t help but ask: "Is it delicious?"

The teacher said: "It's delicious."

Chu night, Ning did not speak, still owes the gloomy expression of his 100 Jinshan Yinshan.

The ink burned some smug smugness: "Then you want to eat and talk to me, I will do it."

In the eyes of the teacher, there was a thin layer of water mist in his eyes. He smiled and burned his eyes, and the eyebrows were soft. The beauty is in front, if it is not sitting next to a snowy night, the late night, the ink burning must be somewhat uncertain whether he should eat the teacher, or should eat the noodles in the bowl.

The pea buds, the fat intestines, the priests did not eat much, but the beef and greens quickly saw the bottom.

The ink that has been quietly observed next to it stretches out the chopsticks, pulls the pea sprouts and the fat intestines into their bowls, and clips several pieces of beef from their noodle bowls to fill the gaps.

The disciples of the dead and the dead all eat at Meng Po Tang, and often change the dishes with each other. Therefore, the teacher did not feel anything strange. He smiled and said: "A burning does not eat beef?"

"Well, I love pea sprouts."

Said to bury his head and scream. The tip of the ear is slightly reddish.

Chu night Ning noodles with chopsticks picking the bean sprouts in his bowl, all thrown into the ink burning bowl.

"I don't eat bean sprouts."

I also threw all the beef in my bowl to the teacher: "Do not eat beef."

Then frowned, staring at the rest of the bowl, licking his mouth, silent and not talking.

The teacher carefully said: "Master is... is it not your appetite?"

Chu nightning: "..."

He did not answer, bowed his head, silently clipped a green vegetable, biting a small mouth, his face was even more ugly, and he slammed the chopsticks.

"In the rain, you knocked the jar of hot sauce in the soup?"

I didn't expect the hard-boiled breakfast to be greeted with such a white rush, and the ink burned and looked up. There was still a noodle in the corner of his mouth. He stunned his eyes in the evening, and some of them couldn't believe their ears, so they swallowed the noodles and said: "Hey?"

This is not to give face to this evening: "Do you do what people eat? Can people eat this?"

The ink burned and smashed the eyes several times. I finally decided that Chu Yuning was swearing at himself, and said: "Why isn’t it what people eat?"

Chu night Ning's eyebrows twitched, and sighed: "It's really hard to swallow."

The ink burned, and it’s a trick that the drunken jade sneak out.

"Master respects you too... too picky."

The teacher also said: "Master, you have not eaten in a day, even if you don't like it, you can eat some."

Chu night Ning got up, cold and cold: "I don't eat spicy."

After turning around, I left.

The two people who stayed at the table suddenly fell into a silent silence. The teacher was a little surprised: "I don't know how to eat spicy? I don't know... Ah, you don't know?"

"I……"

The ink burned and looked at the noodles that Chu Yuning had left on the table. It was almost untouched, and he stayed for a while, then nodded.

"Yeah. I don't know."

This is a lie, and the smoldering is that I know that Chu is rather not spicy.

Only he forgot.

After all, the past life and this person have been entangled for most of the life, Chu night Ning loves to eat what does not like to eat, he is clear.

But he doesn't care, he doesn't remember.

When a person returned to the room, Chu night Ning was lying down, facing the wall, squinting but could not sleep.

He lost more blood and lost his spiritual power. One night and the morning grain was not finished. In fact, the stomach was long gone, and it was very uncomfortable.

This person does not know how to take care of himself. If he is in a bad mood, he will simply not eat it. He seems to feel angry and can give his stomach full of gas.

He didn't know what he was mad at, or he didn't want to know.

Just in the silence, there was a face in front of the blur, a smile, a splendid mouth, a pair of eyes with a black translucent, shiny and flowing, is a gentle dark purple.

It looks warm and lazy.

Chu night Ning tightened the bed, because it was too hard. The knuckles are slightly white. He was not willing to fall into this, closed his eyes and wanted to get rid of this sly face.

However, after the eyes closed, the past events became more and more turbulent, and the tides poured into the heart...

He first saw the smoldering, in front of the towering tower of the dead.

On that day, the sun was shining, and the twenty elders were all in one, and they were whispering to each other.

The elders of Yuheng are an exception. He is not so stupid, and he is willing to stand there to roast the sun. Instead, one person has been hiding under the flower tree, holding a finger absently, and looking at whether the newly-made black iron nail cover is stretchable.

Of course, he himself has no need to use nail covers. This piece of iron-cut gold is forged for the low-level disciples of the dead and the dead.

It’s often dangerous to have a lower-level disciple’s death. The late-stage disciple’s death is not a rare thing. Chu’s night is in his eyes. Although he doesn’t say it, he always thinks about the solution and wants to make one. A lightweight, easy-to-use weapon.

Others talked about it in the side.

"Is it heard? The scorpion who has been lost for many years is rescued from the sea of fire. In the building where the water is going, everyone else is dead. If the Lord is to take another step, I am afraid that the little one will become one." It’s a blessing to make the ashes.”

"It must be that he cares for the child in the midst of it. Poorly he has been lost since childhood, and suffered so much, hehe..."

"Is the child called ink burning? Is it fifteen years old? The weak crown should take the word, does he have a word?"

"Hey elders, you don't know, this kid is a small kid, he grew up in the music hall, can have a good name, there will be words."

"I heard that the Lord has given him a few words, he is choosing it, and he does not know which one will be selected in the end."

"The Lord respects the little nephew."

"Isn't it? Don't say respect to the Lord, even the lady is distressed by him, and it hurts to be terrible. Hey, I see the only unhappy person in this life and death, probably only the pride of our heavens-"

"Elder Wolf! This can not be said!"

"Ha ha. Lost words, lost words! But our arrogant son of heaven is only arrogant, do not put the elders in the eyes, all day, fighting, walking, a natural and wealthy appearance, and indeed lost control."

"Elders of the wolf, you drink more today..." The person next to him gave him a wink, and the chin pointed to the late night, standing in the distance, the meaning is obvious.

Xue Meng, the proud son of Tian, is a disciple of Chu Yuning. He said that Xue Meng lost his control. Isn’t it just that he is ruthless in the evening?

This elder of Yuheng, do not look at the usual slow and reasonable, the bones of the fairy wind, as if floating in the world, a style of high school. But everyone knows that his temper is very bad. If anyone accidentally touches his scale, then wash his neck and wait to be killed alive.

Their words, Chu nightning has long heard.

But he was too lazy to pay attention. He asked his people how to evaluate his interest. He probably didn't have the thick pattern on his nail cover.

It is good to say that this set is good, but the toughness is not high enough. If you encounter a thick-skinned demon, you may not be able to tear open the other's flesh and go back and add a little keel powder. The effect should be better.

The elders saw that there was no reaction in the evening, and they relaxed a little and began to talk quietly.

"The Lord is calling us today, is it to give the ink son a master?"

"It’s strange, why don’t you respect the Lord?”

"It seems that the roots of the little nephew are not suitable for practicing the Lord's mind." Someone yelled, "But that wouldn't bring all the elders together, let the little son pick it up?"

Lu Cun elders sighed and sighed, dialing their own elegant and smooth long hair, and grievously said: "Under the next moment, I feel like a cheap cabbage at the moment, on the desk, waiting for the ink to pick."

Everyone: "....."

So can this sissy not say this kind of truth in such a way?

After waiting for a while, the Lord has finally arrived. He walked thousands of steps and came to the Tongtian Tower, followed by a teenager.

Chu nightning only glanced at it casually, and looked at it before he saw it. He turned his eyes away and continued to study his nail cover. I am too lazy to go to the second look.

When it comes to apprenticeship, you have to talk about the fact that there are many unconventional and ruthless deaths. Other sects are Masters who are tall and touch the head of a new disciple. They say, "You, I think you have a Huigen. From today, you are my apprentice."

The apprentice did not even have a chance to say "no".

Either Master is indifferent and disdainful, waving his sleeve and saying: "Youth, your skull is too high, your eyes are not god, your back is anti-bone, and you should have a look. You are not with me, I will not accept you as a disciple."

Then the apprentice did not have time to express himself, and the master slammed the sword and flew away, running faster than the dog.

The difference between life and death is different. Master and disciple choose each other.

What does that mean?

There are twenty elders in the dead and dying. After all the disciples are getting started, through a period of comparison, they can piously hand over the teacher’s post and express their willingness to follow the elder’s practice.

If the elders accept it, then they are all happy.

If the elders don't accept it, the disciples can soften their hard bubbles and stalk them until the elders soften, or the disciples give up.

As far as reason is concerned, Chu Xi Ning is highly skilled and handsome. He should be in the market, and all the disciples must break his head and worship him as a master. But this is not the case.

Chu’s face is long and beautiful, but his temper is horrible. It is said that he is annoyed to be able to beat a female disciple as a male disciple and to sink the male disciple directly. There are really few people who have the courage to worship.

Therefore, under the elders of Yu Heng, the horse was deserted.

Except for Xue Meng, the son of Heaven, and Xue Meng’s friend, he has never received it.

Everyone would rather respectfully call him: "Elders." I don't want to kiss him hot and call him a "master."

Chu night Ning said with a cold face that he was not upset, bowed his head indifferently and continued to smash the cold armor weapon. What sleeves and arrows are used to design for others. When you do it earlier, more people can get rid of the pain earlier.

So he did not think that the ink would choose himself without hesitation.

At that time, he was frowning, rubbing the thorns on his fingertips, thinking about how to improve, and not paying attention to what the Lord and everyone said.

I don't know when, but the surroundings are gradually quiet.

After thinking about the improvement of the recipe for the thorns, Chu Xiaoning suddenly realized that it was just too silent.

So he finally took his eyes off the fingertips, with some impatience and inquiries, picked up the eyelids.

Then he saw a face.

It’s almost dazzling in the sun.

It was a beautiful young man who was looking up at him. The young man’s mouth curled up with a hint of laziness. If there was a smile, the dimples on the cheeks were deep, some of them were smokey and innocent. A pair of black and purple eyes are staring at themselves with enthusiasm and enthusiasm.

He first came to see, did not understand the rules. The distance of the station, near can be called rude.

Suddenly, the person suddenly came out, and Chu was rather surprised. It seemed to be burnt, and he subconsciously stepped back. With a bang, his head hit the trunk.

The teenager slightly widened his eyes: "Oh..."

Chu nightning: "..."

juvenile:"……"

Chu nightning: "What are you doing?"

The teenager smiled and said: "Xianjun Xianjun, I have been watching you for a long time, why don't you ignore me."

The author has something to say: Every day, I feel that feeding a fish is like a second brain with a brain-like circuit, and the master is like a super-smooth, very gentle Satsuma...

Ah, suddenly I want to change my name to "Two Ha and his Satsuma Master"

Chapter 27

Chu nightning has completely dizzy.

I also blame myself for being too fascinated, and I have no alertness in my life and death.

what happened? Where are the children? Ah, it seems to be the ink. What is the ink? Ink burning? Ink cooking? Ink...fish?

He sorted out his expression and mastered his state in a state of "not getting close to people." The surprise and panic in the eyes of the eyes were quickly cleaned up by him, and he was used to the exquisite and mean.

"you--"

I was habitually trying to reprimand, but my hand was suddenly caught.

Chu night Ning was shocked.

He lived so big, and no one ever dared to grab his wrist casually. For a time, I was black and stiff in the same place, I don’t know how to deal with it.

Pull it out, backhand a slap in the face?

... It feels that with the word "indecent", it is no different from a woman.

Then take it out, don't slap it?

... Does it look like I’m going to talk too well?

Chu nightning hesitated for a long time without action, but the boy laughed openly: "What is this on your hand? Very good-looking, how do you teach this? They have introduced themselves, you haven’t talked yet, Which elder is you? Hey, you just hit the headache and it hurts?"

A lot of problems were thrown in the brain, and Chu Xiaoning felt that he had just had a headache, but now it hurts.

The brain is broken...

When he was annoyed, the golden light in his hand floated up slightly, and when he saw the sky, he would call out. The other elders were moving in a sigh of relief. He also dared to smoke this ink son?

The hand was suddenly caught by the ink.

The two hands fell into the boy's hand. The ink burned and did not notice the danger. He took him, stood in front of him, looked up at his face and smiled and said: "My name is ink burning, who is here? I don't know anything, but if I look at my face, I like you the most. Or, will I worship you as a teacher?"

The results were unexpected, and the people around them were even more stunned. The faces of several elders looked cracked.

璇玑 Elder: "Well?"

Broken Elder: "Wow!"

Seven killing elders: "Oh?"

Precepts elders: "Hey..."

Elder Wolf: "Oh, ridiculous."

Lu Cun’s elders are the mothers, rolling their hair, and the eyes are full of peaches: “Oh, this little son is so courageous, it’s a hero who is a teenager, and even the elders of Yuheng’s * dare to touch.”

"...I am pleased, can you not say so disgusting?" The seven kills are abandoning.

Lu Cun turned his eyes gracefully and said: "Well, then change a Sven statement. When a true hero is a teenager, even the elders of Yuheng are dare to touch."

Seven kills: "....." Killed him.

Among all the elders, the most popular is the elders of Wenrun Ruyu. His spells are easy to get started, and he is a modest gentleman. Most of his disciples are worshipping under his door.

Chu Jingning originally thought that this ink should be no exception. Even if it is not a slap, it should be a bright and active army. Anyway, it will not be his turn.

But the smoldering stood so close to him, his face was a kind of intimacy and affection that was unfamiliar to him. He was like a harlequin that was suddenly selected, and he had no reason to make a fuss.

Chu nightning only knows how to deal with "awe", "fear" and "disgust". As for "like", it is too difficult.

He didn't even think about it, and immediately refused to burn.

The young man was kneeling in the same place, under the long eyelashes, there was a bit of despair and unwillingness in his eyes. He looked down and thought for a long time. Suddenly he whispered unreasonably: "It is you anyway."

Chu nightning: "..."

The Lord looked interesting next to him. At this time, he couldn’t help but smile and asked: "A fire, you know who he is?"

"He didn't tell me, how do I know who he is."

"Haha, you don't know who he is, why must he be?"

The ink burned still stunned Chu's hand, turned his head, smiled and said to the Lord: "Because he looks the most gentle, it is best to talk."

In the darkness, Chu nightning suddenly opened his eyes, and there was a burst of dizziness in front of him.

... I really saw the ghost.

He didn't know what the eyes were like at the time, but he felt that he was gentle. Don't say him, this thing was known to the whole life and death, and they all expressed their deep greetings to the ink-burning son with the gaze of "Silly child."

Chu Xiaoning raised his hand and helped the horn of the faint beating.

Shoulder pain, confusion, starving, dizziness.

This seems to be asleep.

He was in a big shape on the bed and stayed for a while, sat up, and wanted to sip a scent of incense, and suddenly the door was ringing again.

Still ink burned outside.

Chu nightning: "..."

He did not agree, did not say that he did not say to roll out.

But this time, the door pushed away.

Chu nightning looked up somewhat gloomyly. However, the matches that had been drawn on the hand hovered in the air, but they did not get together on the incense. After a while, they went out.

Chu night Ning said: "Get out."

The ink rolled in.

He had a bowl of steaming noodles in his hand, just out of the pot.

This time it was simpler, there were not so many facets, the white soup was sprinkled with chopped green onion and white sesame seeds, a small ribs, green vegetables, and a slightly browned poached egg.

Chu Xiaoning was very hungry, but he still had no expression on his face. He looked at his face and looked at his ink. He turned his face away and did not speak.

The ink burned the face on the table and said softly: "I let the cook in the store make another bowl."

Chu Xiaoning lowered his eyes.

Sure enough, it will not be burnt.

"Eat some." Moburn said, "This bowl is not spicy, no beef, no bean sprouts."

After he finished, he quit and went to the door for the late night.

He apologized for the injury of the late night.

But it can only do this step.

In the house, Chu night is leaning against the window, I don't know what to think about. He held his arms in his arms and stared at the bowl of ribs until the heat of the noodles dissipated until it finally became cold and there was no heat.

He finally walked over and sat down, picked up the chopsticks, picked up the cold, and even licked the pasta, and slowly ate it.

The Chen Zhaixie case has been closed.

The next day, they took the foster black horse from the museum and returned to the sect along the way.

In the streets and alleys, tea stalls and restaurants, people in Caidie Town are talking about Chen’s foreign affairs.

This is not a big town, it is such a scandal, enough for the townspeople to talk about it for a whole year.

"I didn't expect that Chen Gongzi had already closed the door and Luo girl became a pro, hey, Luo girl is really pitiful."

"I want to say that if Chen has no riches, he can't get out of this thing. Sure enough, men can't have money. Once they have money, they can drown the whole city with bad water."

Some men are not happy, and said: "Chen Gongzi did not take the bad water, this is his aunt's wrong thiophene, Chen Yuwai this turtle son, the sons and grandchildren of the future will have no farts / eyes."

Someone said: "The dead person is pitiful, what is the living person? You look at Chen Yao's, Yao Qianjin, I am the most embarrassed to look at her. Chen's black-hearted mother, deceived the big girl You talk about it, what should she do now?"

"Marrying people again."

The man turned a white eye and shouted: "Remarry? Are you coming?"

The muddy leg that was ridiculed licked his mouth and grinned and smiled. "If the woman in my nest promises, I will be embarrassed. Miss Yao is so watery, I don't think she is too widowed."

"Hey, hey, he wants to eat swan meat."

The ink burns sitting on the horse's back, erecting his ears, listening to the left and listening to the right. If Chu Jingning closed her eyes, frowned, and wrote the words "noisy and extremely" on the forehead, and the ink burned, I would like to join in the past and the villagers.

And he walked, and finally came out of the main city and came to the suburbs.

The teacher suddenly snorted and pointed to the distance: "Master, you are there."

In front of the destroyed ghost ceremonial earth temple, surrounded by a large group of farmers dressed in brown shorts, they are busy moving bricks and mortars. It seems that they intend to repair the damaged earth temple and rebuild the golden body.

The teacher was worried and said: "Master, the ghost ceremonies were gone before, and they created another one. Will this be rebuilt into a fairy, why not?"

Chu nightning: "I don't know."

"Do you want us to persuade them?"

Chu nightning: "The marriage customs of Choi Die Town have been for generations, and you can persuade you and me in a few words? Let's go."

Speaking of riding a light hoof, it goes away.

It is already late in the evening when I return to the dead.

Chu Yuening said to the two apprentices in front of the mountain gate: "You go to the Danxin Temple to present the passage, and I go to the disciplinary court."

The ink burned and said: "What are you going to the disciplinary court?"

Shi Yan looked worried: "..."

Chu night Ning no expression: "Limit."

Although the emperor violated the law and the sins of the people, but which emperor would kill the individual, he would ask for a big jail after the fall? The same is true of the realm of comprehension.

The elders are guilty of sin and sin with their disciples - in most sects, they are just empty words.

In fact, it is a good for the elders to quit. It is not bad to write a sin book. Which idiot will really be punished and slap on a willow or dozens of sticks?

Therefore, the elders of the precepts listened to the lateness of the night, and their faces were green.

"No, Yuheng Elder, you really... really hit the client?"

Chu night Ning faint: "Yeah."

"You too..."

Chu night Ning picked up his eyelids and glanced at him gloomyly, and the precepts elders shut up.

"This one ring, according to the law as a rod of two hundred, fined the temple for seven days, forbidden for three months." Chu night Ning said, "I have no arguing, voluntary punishment."

Precepts elders: "..."

He looked around and hooked his finger, and the door of the disciplinary court touched it, and the silence was silent. Only two of them stood opposite each other.

Chu nightning: "What do you mean?"

"This, Yuheng Elder, you don't know, the commandment, it shouldn't be in charge of your head. This thing shuts the door, knowing it, you know, I know, That's it. If I hit you, the Lord knows, can't you worry about me?"

Chu nightning is too lazy to talk nonsense with him. He simply said: "I am bound by the law, and I am bound by the law."

Speaking in front of the church, facing the commandment.

"You are fine."

The author has something to say: how the new book title was born.

Me: I want to change the name to "Two Ha and his Satsuma Master."

Friends: ... Satsuma? Is Satsuma not a smiling angel? Master is a smiling angel? Will he smile?

I: ... seems to make sense.

Friends: Cats.

Then it became "Two Ha and his White Cat Master". When these words were written, the brain kept looping. Oh, black cat sheriff, oh oh, black cat sheriff~==

In the future, you can open an animal anthropomorphic theater~

Big white cat master, fox dog teacher, Husky cold, little peacock Xue Meng ~

Chapter 28

The elders of Yu Heng were punished for breaking the ring. It was like inserting wings. They didn't have to wait until the next morning. Almost everyone in the martial art knew that night.

Two hundred sticks, changed to ordinary people, I am afraid that they can be killed alive. Even the people who cultivated the immortals are enough to drink a pot.

After Xue Meng was informed, he jumped up and said: "What?! Masters go to the disciplinary court?"

"Less Lord, you are going to talk to the Lord, the Master has been wounded, two hundred sticks, where did he live?"

Xue Meng is mad: "I am not? I am still not coming back to the Snow Palace. The pigeons must be booked at least for the next day. Why don't you stop the Master?"

The ink burned and the teacher looked at each other.

Stop Chu nightning?

Who can stop him in this world?

"No, no, I will go to him." Xue Meng rushed to the direction of the disciplinary court. Before I entered the yard, I saw a group of disciples elders who were blocked at the entrance of the main hall and were whispering something.

"What are you doing? Give me away! Let go!"

"Little Lord!"

"Ah, the Lord is coming."

"Let's let, let the Lord come."

The disciples quickly separated on both sides and gave way to Xue Meng. The door of Qingtian Temple was open, and Chu night was sitting in it, his body was straight and his eyes closed. The ruler elders, the iron rod, are reading the law of the dead and the dead. After each one, the iron rod is on the back of the night.

"The 91st law of this door, can not be indiscriminate and innocent, can not be immortal to the common, under the stick, you can have complaints?"

"No complaints."

"The 92nd law of this door, you must not arbitrarily deliberate, you can't swear by yourself, under the stick, can you complain?"

"No complaints."

The precepts elders dare not be soft and can only be enforced. More than ninety sticks down, Chu nightning white robes have been dyed by blood.

Xue Meng is the most respectful of the late night, seeing the eyes straight and bloodshot, shouting: "Master!"

Chu night Ning Ruo Ruo Wen, still with his eyes, the eyebrows slightly wrinkled.

The elders of the precepts looked at the door and lowered their voices: "The elders of Yuheng, the Lord is coming."

"I don't want to, I heard it." Chu night, Ning mouth corners of the blood, but did not raise his eyes, "his child is noisy, do not go."

The precepts elders sighed: "... Yu Heng, why are you?"

"Whoever makes my disciples are always disobedient." Chu night Ning faint, "If I am not punished according to the law today, I will continue to discipline others in the future."

"..."

"You go on."

"Oh..." The precepts elders looked at his pale, long neck, and slid out from the wide collar of the collar, and slid softly like a thin smoke. "At least it is lighter?"

"...this is different from bullying." Chu said, "I don't worry, but two hundred sticks, I can afford it."

"Yuheng elders..."

"The commandment, you don't have to say more, continue."

The iron rod finally fell again.

Xue Meng’s voice is distorted: “The precepts elders! Are you * still not stopping? Where do you put this less? You are playing my teacher!! It’s my teacher!”

The precepts elders had to bite the scalp and did not hear.

Xue Meng is almost mad at the lungs: "Don't you hear the old man? You ordered that you stop! You, you have to dare to beat him, me, me, me-"

He has been for a long time, I can't think of anything to say. After all, it is only a fifteen-year-old boy. Even if he is "the pride of the sky", his strength and qualifications are far less than the elders, he can only blush and swear a rough sentence. if--

"I told me to go!"

Precepts elders: "..."

Chu night Ning slightly sighed uncontrolly.

Ninety-seven sticks. Ninety-eight sticks. Ninety-nine sticks. One hundred sticks...

工具s are soaked, and blood is glaring.

Xue Meng couldn't help it anymore. He rushed discovered his scorpion, and he slammed into it. He suddenly squinted at the night, and raised his hand, and an enchantment instantly slammed down, blocking the door, and moving Xue Meng back a few steps. Almost fell to the ground Trading.

Chu night, coughing blood, turning the eyes, a pair of fierce and fierce phoenix eyes squatting.

"Disgrace people, roll back!"

"Master!"

Chu night Ning Li said: "When can the young master of death and death be able to order the precepts elders to smuggle the law? Not to roll!"

Xue Meng stared at him, his eyes wide open, and there were water beads in it.

The ink burned and touched the chin, and the corner of the mouth was still playing with the kind of scroll that seemed like nothing: "Oh, not good, the phoenix is going to cry."

Upon hearing this sentence, Xue Meng jerked back and slammed the ink, and the eyes with tears were all red, but they could not let the tears roll down.

No complaints, no more talk.

He climbed up from the ground and lowered his head. He bit his teeth and wiped the dust off his body. Then he squatted toward the Qingtian Temple: "Master, the disciple is wrong."

Chu night Ning is still tortured by the iron rod, the back has not been bent, but his face is pale, his forehead is covered with fine cold sweat.

Xue Meng said: "But I don't go, I am with the Master."

Speaking of it, I look down on it.

The white eyes of the ink will turn to the sky. Xue Meng Xue Ziming, the pride of the sky, but humbled in the bones in front of the night. In front of others is a phoenix, in front of the master can become a cockroach. If it is not determined that Xue Meng does not like men, the ink burns must suspect that this guy is probably looking at the late night of the Chu, will be so dead and die of nine regrets. Master respected his left face, and this little cockroach could smash the right face.

Take it, take it.

It’s really enough for a dog’s leg.

Although my heart is scornful, but I don’t know why I’m so bitter, and I’m burning with Xue Meng. After a while, the more I look at it, the less I feel. I don’t think he can make him loyal.

Chu night Ning would not like himself, Xue Meng is so noisy, after the night, would rather not be more biased?

So simply smashed the past, kneeling beside Xue Meng.

"I am also accompanying the Master."

Of course, the teacher also followed, and the three disciples were all waiting outside. The disciples under the other elders heard the news in various names and rushed to the disciplinary court to see the excitement.

"God, how is the elder of Yu Heng..."

"I heard that I was beaten by ordinary people in a rage."

"Ah! So fierce?"

"Oh, whispered, I was heard by Elder Yu Heng and I was looking back!"

There are still people: "How are the young masters squatting?"

"Mo Gongzi is also stunned..."

The ink burned beautifully, and the mouth was sweet. I didn't know how many girls were doing good repairs on weekdays. At this time, some people couldn't help but pity. They whispered softly: "Good heartache, how to do it, do you want to ask for help?" ""

"Their mentoring, we still have less control. If you dare to go, you will go. Anyway, I am embarrassed. Do you remember the sister who was beaten by the elders of Yuheng for a few hundred whip..."

"....."

Two hundred sticks.

The enchantment was finally withdrawn.

Xue Meng quickly climbed up from the ground and even ran to the Qingtian Temple. He looked close to him. When he saw the appearance of Chu’s late night, he screamed "ah" and turned his head to hold the precepts. Collar: "You are the old man, you won't be lighter!!!"

"Xue Ziming." Chu nightning closed his eyes, the blood-stained lips opened and closed, and the hoarse voice revealed an invisible deterrent.

"..."

Xue Meng's knuckles creaked, slamming the precepts elders and letting people go. At this time, the ink burned also came. He was still smiling. He felt that the precepts of the precepts must take into account the identity of Chu Yuning and would not be heavy. But looking down at the injury of Chu Xiaoning, suddenly, the smile on his face condensed.

Chu night Ning actually did not tell the elders of the precepts that he had a shoulder injury? !

The two hundred rods were more or less, and the seven seven eight eight eight, all on the old shackles on his shoulders.

The new injury is stacked with old injuries.

Chu night, you...

crazy? !

The pupils shrank, and a strong grudge rushed into my heart.

I don’t know what I’m complaining about, or I’m angry, I just feel that there is a fire in my stomach, the five internal organs are burnt, and the six smolders are burning. He was accustomed to the dying of the night, and his smashing his self-esteem and tarnishing his whiteness. However, the ink can't stand the pain of Chu Xi Ning, but it is played by others!

It’s about not forgetting the reasons of the past, and the burning of the subconscious feels that this person is his own. This person is dead, alive, hateful or hateful, all of his own.

He did not care that Chu was late to be punished. That is, he thought that Chu Xiening was an elder, and the two hundred rods would certainly not be severe punishment.

At the very least, he will avoid the wounds that have not healed on his shoulders.

But Chu night Ning actually did not say! Actually don't say it! What is this madman? What are you forbearing? What do you insist on in a stupid position? ! ?

There was a chaos in his head, and the ink burned him to raise his hand to help him. However, Xue Meng had already taken his step, and he took it down and smashed it.

"..." The ink-burning hand hung in the air, and after a while, it was put down again.

He watched Xue Meng help Chu night to go far away, and I don’t know how it tasted.

I want to keep up, but I don't want to move away.

Everything in my life has passed.

Today, Chu nightning is only his master.

Between them, any confusion, hatred, and entanglement have not happened.

He should not have this idea. Who is playing in the late night, who is holding it, who is with whom he loves, even if he is killed, there is no relationship with him.

The teacher came to him: "Let's go, let's go see with the lesser."

"I don't go, there is Xuemeng. It's enough. I can't help much. If there are more people, it will add chaos." The ink burned on the surface, but the heart was a little chaotic.

He really does not understand what he feels now, what is it.

Is it hate?

Chapter 29

That night, lying on the couch of the dead and the dead, the burning hands were resting behind the head, looking at the beam, how could not sleep.

Before the dust, the scene slipped past the scene. At the end, every bit of it, the pieces were smashed, and it was the face of Zhang Junxiu who had a deserted face.

In fact, for this person, the ink has never been aware of what he really thinks.

The first time I saw him, it was under the flower tree in front of the tower. His wide robes and wide sleeves, more than 20 elders, only one of them, did not wear the silver blue mysterious armor of the deadly life.

On that day, he lowered his head and glared at the armor he was wearing on his hand. He was half-faced and focused and gentle, like a white cat in a golden warm sun.

The ink burned far away, and the eyes could not move.

He felt that his first impression of Chu Yuning was very good.

Can not withstand the subsequent two cold, blame, harsh. The white cat had fangs and claws, and he was hurt.

He was rescued from the fire by his uncle, dying, and hanging on the line. Originally thinking of coming to the death and death, there will be a teacher who treats himself with tolerance and sincerely loves himself.

However, his pleasing, his efforts, Chu nightning seems to be invisible. On the contrary, it was a sharp spurt, and when it was a little worse, the skin that he hit was fleshy and bloody.

Later, he knew that Chu’s late night was looking down on him.

"The quality is inferior and the quality is difficult."

The man who is under the white flower and snow, is this evaluation of him?

He once regarded Chu Yuening as a nine-day cold moon, sincerely revered and loved. But in the heart of the nine-day cold moon, what is his smoldering?

An apprentice who had to accept it.

A thin and inferior to the bones.

One grew up in the restaurant and was contaminated with a pickled and dirty man.

Although the smoldering is always a slap in the face, he does not care about it, but he slowly hates the late night, and the kind of hate is accompanied by a strong unwillingness.

He is not reconciled.

Once, he has been holding a growing sense of resentment, to provoke Chu nightning, trying to get the attention of this person, get the appreciation of this person, get this person's surprise.

During that time, if the teacher praised him as "very good," he was happy to go to heaven.

However, if he can change the night, he would rather boast him a "good", he is willing to die.

But Chu nightning never praised him.

No matter how hard he does, how much he cares, how good, the cold man will always be a faint place, and then he will turn his face away.

The ink burns must be mad.

God knows how much time he wants to take Chu’s cheeks and turn him over, forcing him to stare at himself, forcing him to look at himself and forcing him to swallow the phrase "poor quality, difficult quality" Go in the belly!

However, he could only squat in front of the night, like a dog with a donkey, and bowed his head, and respectfully said: "The disciple remembers the teacher."

In front of the Chu night, the ink rain is humble.

Long as the "son", still low.

He finally understood that people like Chu Zhongning did not see him at all.

Later, I experienced a lot of things.

The ink-burning power of the dead, and then the cult of the celestial world, became the hegemon of the ancients. Under the gloom of his darkness, everyone shudders, everyone is afraid, everyone mentions that his name is light and mosquito-stricken, who remembers his stains, who remembers his origins on the table?

From then on, there is no light rain in the world, only stepping on Xianjun.

Step on the fairy.

People hate him, hate to the extreme, ten evils and no light rain, thousands of times can not save the life, can not be overborn!

Stepping on the immortal ink, raining, stepping on the gentleman, ink, raining, stepping on the fairy king

... step, fairy, king.

But what about fear? The shackles of life and death are still rumbling and screaming, and thousands of people kneel in front of the Wushan Temple, and the dense heads are all pointing at him.

"Take the emperor to live in the sky, and the world will not be embarrassed."

He felt that he was very useful.

Until he noticed the face of Chu Zhongning in the crowd.

At that time, Chu’s late retreat had been abolished, and he was tied to the main hall and was imprisoned.

The smoldering is determined to kill him, but he does not want Chu Xiaing to go away quickly. He has imprisoned the limbs of Chu’s late Ning, and cut the blood vessels at the neck of Chu’s neck. The mouth is not big. The spell does not allow the wound to solidify, the blood slams out bit by bit, and life is lost a little bit.

The sun is shining, the coronation ceremony has been going on for half a day, and the blood of Chu nightning should be done.

When this person died, the smoldering was completely broken and the past was broken. Therefore, he specially arranged Chu Xianning to arrange blood on his own climax ceremony and execute it.

When he became the thirty-nine supreme of the realm of comprehension, Chu Xi Ning became a lifeless corpse.

Everything was planted yesterday, and the smoke disappeared.

It was really great.

But this person is going to die, why is it still so indifferent? Something so handsome... He was pale, but his expression was faint, and there was no praise or fear when he stepped on Xianjun.

Only disgust, inferior, and -

I think that I must be crazy. Either Chu is late and crazy.

There is still a trace of mercy.

Chu night, I have mercy on myself, a person who will die, one defeated! He actually pity a top-ranking person, calling for the hegemony of the rain. He, he actually will - he actually dare! ! !

The backlog of more than ten years of anger made the ink burned, and he was in the Dan Heart Hall. Of course, at that time, the name was called Wushan Temple. In front of thousands of fans, he stood up in the flattery and screaming of those people, and the black robe rolled and stepped down the steps.

In front of everyone, he grabbed Chu's chin, his face was distorted, and his smile was sweet and embarrassing.

"Master, today is a good day for the disciples, why are you still not happy?"

Thousands of people, when there is silence.

Chu night is not humble, and looks cold: "I don't have an apprentice like you."

The ink burned hahaha and smiled. The smile was indulgent, and the sound was like a hovering circle between the golden temples. The wild geese were cold.

"The teacher is so unrequited, but this is really cool." He smiled and said loudly, "Is there no apprentice like me? Who taught me my heart? Who taught me? My cold blood - Who taught it?! The whips of my body are still not enough - I ask you, who are these people!"

He converges with a smile, his voice is fierce and fierce, and his eyes are cold.

"Chu Ningning! Accept me as a disciple who lost you? Am I in the bones or the pickles in the blood can't be washed? I ask you, Chu Yuning, I ask you - what is it?" Poor quality, difficult quality??

In the end, he was also a little crazy, and his voice shook distortedly.

"You never treated me as an apprentice, I have never seen me! But I - but I used to - really took you as a master, really respected you, loved you, just like this to me? Why are you from I don't want to praise me, why can't I get half of you good no matter what I do?!"

Chu night Ning was shocked and his face gradually paled.

He squinted at the big phoenix eyes, and looked at the smoldering like that, his lips moving, as if he wanted to say something, but after all, he said nothing.

Things are the shackles of human beings, and the only two people who are still in the old place are opposite.

In such an embarrassing silence, the smoldering seems to have finally calmed down. When he closed his eyes and closed it, he was the smiling face of the gods, smiling, smiling, and chilling.

He said softly and kindly: "Master, you don't look down on me, don't you think I am mean?"

After a pause, his gaze patrolled the top of thousands of people. All of them were squatting and crouching in front of his temple like a dog. They all admitted that he was the lord of the realm of comprehension, above the red dust. .

The ink burned and smiled: "Now? Before you die, I will ask you again. In this world, who is the humble, who is the respect? Who is who stepped on the foot, who is the winner? Who? What is the loser?"

Chu Xiaoning looked down and seemed to be still immersed in the confession that had just burned, and did not return to God. Finally, the ink burned his chin, forcing him to lift his face.

But when he forced him to look at himself, the ink burned suddenly.

For the first time, he saw a deplorable look on his face.

The look was too strange, and the burning felt that he was suddenly burned, reflexively releasing the finger that held his face.

"you……"

Chu’s look is very painful. It seems to be holding back the pain of some cone-shaped bones and the pain of heartbreaking.

His voice is very light and almost hoarse.

Floating in the wind, only the burning of a person heard.

He said: "Sorry, ink burns. It is Master's fault..."

At that moment, everything around it lost its voice, the sound of the wind, the sound of grass and wood, and the sound of the robe of the robes all belonged to the silence.

Only Chu Xiaoning looked up at his face, the only clearness between heaven and earth. It is the only sight he can see.

At that time, there should be a lot of ideas. Happy, proud, ecstatic.

But not.

At that time, the thoughts were strange. In fact, there was only one -

I don’t know when... It’s already so much higher than Chu’s late night.

Time has really passed for a long time.

Many past events have changed.

The ink burned his lips and muttered: "What do you say..."

Chu Xiaoning smiled, and the smile was familiar and unfamiliar. The ink burned in the eyes of the pair of phoenixes and saw his almost distorted look.

Then, the eyes slowly closed, and Chu night fell to his face. The ink burned his shoulder almost at the moment he fell. He screamed wildly and annoyed, like the sound of a beast crashing. .

"Chu Ningning! What do you say about Chu Xiaoning? You say it again!!"

The person in his arms did not answer any more, his lips were pale like a pear, and the handsome face was always indifferent. Before he died, he was solidified in a somewhat bleak smile. The corner of his mouth was a little bit entangled. The first time the ink burned in front of the tower.

Smiling slightly, some gentle.

"Chu Ning!!"

Those gentle and broken, the sea otters are scattered.

He finally got what he wanted, stepped on the life of the master, and reached the top.

What is this? what is this! !

The pain and hatred in the chest are increasing, what is this?

The faint black mist in the palm of the hand ignited, and the fingertips flew, quickly passing through a few blood veins of Chu's late night, sealing his last heart.

"Do you want to die like this?" The eyes burned and the eyes looked stunned. "There is no end, Chu is late, the accounts between us are not clear, not finished! They are not finished yet! If you don't give me words, Make it clear - I will put Xue Meng, Kunlun to the Snow Palace, and crush the last few people you want to protect!! They are torn into slag!! You think about it!!"

The ceremony is no longer going on, and thousands of fans there are not worried about it.

He changed his mind. He does not want to die late.

He hates him, he wants to be alive and late - alive...

He picked up the man who had lost too much blood, plucked his temper and jumped onto the roof of his fangs. The robes fluttered like the wings of an eagle, and the figure quickly flew over the heavy eaves and went straight to Nanfeng. Go straight to the red lotus water, the place where Chu nightning once lived.

There is plenty of aura, and there are so many grasses. He wants to save him back.

If a person is alive, he can hate. If a person is dead, he will not even have a reason to hate. Before he was crazy, he thought about killing Chu Yuning himself?

If Chu is rather dead, then what is left in this world?

Lying in bed, humming memories alone.

The night is thick, but it can't be smashed anymore.

The ink burned up, washed his face, put on his clothes, and carried a hurricane lamp, and walked toward the temple.

Chu nightning must be just a random bandage, and went there to punish. He is a man who knows the ink, is stinky and awkward, and is very rigid. He never considers whether his body can withstand it. Even if Xue Meng wants to stop him, he can’t stop it.

Sure enough, to the outside of the Temple of Jurassic, I saw a green bean lamp burning in it, and the tears kept falling.

Chu night Ning is facing the temple door, his body is tall and straight, like a pine.

When I saw this back, the ink burned a little regrets. What happened in the middle of the night? Looking for Chu nightning? Crazy?

But when they came, they just turned away and felt silly.

He thought about it, took a compromise method, put the wind lamp on his feet, did not intend to leave, did not go in, then stood outside the window, elbows holding the window sill, holding the sly, watching from afar Chu nightning.

The copper bells of the horns sway gently, and the fragrance of flowers and plants is filled with the night.

The two stood up and separated, separated by a window of sapphire, separated by a quiet and quiet temple.

If it is before the rebirth, the ink burns enough position, you can go into the temple, let the end of the night, and then go back to rest.

If Chu is rather unwilling, he also has enough ability to seal Chu's hands and feet and violently take people away.

But now, he has neither position nor ability.

He didn't even have a late night.

The ink burned in a complicated mood. The people inside looked out of the window. The people inside did not notice it. He couldn’t see the five senses of Chu’s late night, and Chu Ning could not find his face.

So, the white cat squatted for a night and never looked back.

So, the silly dog also stood for a night, never gone.

The author has something to say:

Lose a small animal theater before going to bed today~

There used to be a little milk dog, because it was dirty and stupid, so no one liked it, only wandering around.

One day, the little milk dog was found by its uncle and returned to the nest. The new nest was warm and spacious, and the little milk dog was very happy, especially the big white cat that was sleeping on the cushion. It looked so gentle, the little milk dog snorted and happily got into the fluff of the white cat. .

However, the big white cat after waking up is not the same as the one imagined. It always looks at the little milk dog coldly, and ignores the other person’s spoiled. When it is not happy, even the claws do not remember to accept it. Just shouted on the face of the milk dog.

Slowly, the puppy grew up, and the white cat gradually became a little white cat in front of it.

The big dog wanted to teach the white cat a good meal, so he bit the throat of the little white cat, and the back of the toes slammed the snow white under his feet.

He thought it was a hard-boned and stinky stone-like animal. He suddenly realized that the white cat's body was so soft, which made him think that on the first night of the new nest, he hid in the warmth of the cat. The fluff gradually fell asleep.

But he would never know that the white cat opened his glassy eyes that night.

Where are the little things, so dirty...

The white cat thought, the pink tongue of the burr, silently cleaned the fur of the little milk dog.

The licked milk dog "snoring", blurring and blinking, thought it was a dream. His wandering in the dream is finally over, there is a big cat, very good for him.

Chapter 30

"Hey, hey, have you heard that? The elders of Yu Heng have violated the commandments, and they will be fined for the three days."

In the morning class, the disciples gathered in the good and evil stations to meditate. After all, they are all young people in their twenties and twenty years old. They can’t do what they want. When Master doesn’t pay attention, they start to whisper and whisper.

The late night of Chu’s punishment was quickly spread.

The disciples who witnessed the paws yesterday shared the gossip with others without hesitation.

"Wow, how come you know so late? Oh... It turned out that the elders of Lu Cun took you up the night to pick up the night dew? Well - then you really missed too much! Yesterday evening, in the Qingtian Temple, flesh and blood Cross-flying, terrible, Yuheng elders were beaten more than two hundred sticks! More than two hundred sticks! Sticks hit the key! No mercy!"

Every time the disciple said a paragraph, he made a particularly exaggerated look. With the exclamation of the teachers and sisters around you, don't mention how proud you are.

"Do you have a few accounts for more than two hundred sticks? You can be killed by the big man. You don't mention the elders of Yuheng. At that time, he couldn't stand it and fainted. This can give us less madness, rushing. Go up and fight with the precepts of the precepts, saying that no one can touch the fingers of the elders of Yuheng, and look at the scene-"

His facial features were wrinkled into a bun, and his eyebrows were squinted. Finally, he stretched his fingers and swayed from side to side, summing up three words:

"Hey."

Immediately, the younger sister was disappointed: "What! The elders of Yuheng passed out?"

"The young master and the precepts elders fight?"

"It's no wonder that I didn't see the elders of Yu Heng in the morning class... so pitiful... What did he quit?"

"I heard that I was beaten by the client in a rage."

"..."

Such gossips drifted into Xue Meng’s ears from time to time, and the temperament of the dead and the dying of the Lord’s life completely inherited his master’s respect and was extremely violent. It is a pity that there is more than one person who is discussing this matter. The good and evil are in groups of three and five, all of whom are screaming at the "Yuheng elders are punished", which makes him feel very noisy, but there is nothing to do.

Here Xue Meng's forehead is straight and blue, and there is no burning in the night, yawning again and again.

Xue Meng did not get angry elsewhere, and he screamed at the evil voice: "The day is in the morning, you are a dog thing, what is lazy in the morning! How does the teacher respect you on weekdays?"

"Ah?" The ink burned sleepy eyes, and another big yawn, "Xue Meng, you have enough to support it, and the teacher will respect me. Who are you, I am your cousin, talk to your cousin? Behave a little, don't be big or small."

Xue Meng swears: "My cousin is a dog, you should be a dang!"

The ink burned and laughed: "You are so embarrassed, don't look at your elder brother, Master knows how disappointed."

"You still have a face to respect the Master! I ask you, yesterday he is going to the disciplinary court, why don't you stop him?"

"Mengmeng, he is the teacher, the night night Yuheng, Beidou Xianzun, you stop one to show me?"

Xue Meng was so angry that he pulled up his sword and raised his sword. He said: "What the * are you calling me?!!"

The ink burned and laughed: "Meng Meng, sit down."

Xue Meng violently thundered: "Ink rain, I killed you!!"

The teacher was sandwiched between the two, listening to their daily noises, could not help but sigh, silently support the forehead, and tried to concentrate on watching his book: "Sun and Moon pot irrigation, spiritual core when the initial The heavens can't be seen, the dead and the participating merchants..."

In the blink of an eye, in the past three days, Chu’s thoughts ended.

According to the rules, he is faced with a three-month ban. During this time, he was not able to leave the shackles of life and death, and he needed to go to Meng Po Tang to mix and match, and to clean the columns of the Nai He Bridge, clean the steps in front of the mountain gate, and so on.

The elders of the precepts are worried: "Elder Yu Yuheng, to tell the truth, I don't think you can do these things. You are a generation of masters, doing this kind of dishwashing on the floor... it is aggrieved." Did not say a half sentence -

Mainly the old man is very skeptical about whether you will sweep the floor to cook and wash clothes!

Chu night, I was not doubtful about myself, and went to Mengpotang to report it.

Meng Potang went up to the general manager, down to the servant, and was shocked to hear that the night was rather to punish the hard work, and they were shocked and stunned.

Chu night, white clothes, floating, but still.

A handsome face is cold and calm, without any expression. If you add a piece of clouds to his feet, add a dust between his arms, and there is no difference between them and the immortals.

Meng Potang’s manager felt very embarrassed and very upset. He actually wanted to make such a beautiful man wash vegetables for cooking.

Chu nightning did not have the consciousness of being a beautiful man. He stepped into the kitchen and glanced at everyone. The people could not help but take a step back.

"..." Chu night Ning opened the door, "What should I do?"

The general manager squatted and thought about it for a while, and cautiously said: "How do the elders think about washing vegetables?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Good."

The general manager was greatly relieved. He originally thought that the late night of Ning Shi Ning did not touch Yang Chunshui. He may not be willing to do such a brush washing, but other work is not dirty, it requires some technology, he is worried about Chu Yuning. Can't do it well. Since Chu Xiaoning readily promised to wash the vegetables, he would not have to worry.

As it turns out, the manager is really naive.

There is a clear stream in front of Meng Po Tang. Chu Xi Ning, holding a basket of green vegetables, came to the stream and began to wash vegetables by rolling up his sleeves.

This area belongs to the jurisdiction of the elders of the elders. Occasionally, the disciples who passed by, when they saw that Chu Ning was actually washing vegetables, they were so scared that they couldn’t say the complete words. They took three or four times to make sure they didn’t look at it. Wrong, only to be shocked: "Jade, Yuheng elders - early, early."

Chu night Ning raised his eyes: "Early."

The elders of the elders shivered and fled.

"..."

Chu nightning is too lazy to yell with them, continue to control their own leeks, rinse, and throw them back into the basket.

He washed very seriously, and the leaves of each dish were opened, and they were brushed back and forth before and after. The consequence of this is that - seeing it at noon, a basket of green vegetables has not been washed.

The buddy was in the hustle and bustle, waiting for the head to go round and round: "What should I do? Why didn't the elders come back? He won't come back without returning green vegetables. How should the green beef stir-fried?"

The general manager looked at the sun and said: "Forget it, don't wait, change to braised beef."

So when the late night of Chu returned, Meng's beef had already been out of the pot, and the stew was so savory that it didn't need green vegetables at all. Chu nightning frowned, he was holding his dish, quite unhappy, cold and cold: "Why don't you want green vegetables, let me wash?"

The head of the cold hair was upright, and the cold sweat of the forehead was rubbed with a handkerchief. He said something that made him regret it: "Is this not, I hope the elders can make a pot of green vegetables stewed tofu?"

Chu Xiaoning had no expression, still holding his dish, and silently thinking about it: "..."

The general manager is busy: "If the elders don't want to, then it doesn't matter -"

The department has not said anything yet, Chu Yuning has already asked: "Where is the tofu?"

General manager: "..."

"Elder Yu Yu, you... know how to cook?"

Chu Yuning said: "Not knowing nothing. You can try it."

At noon that day, the disciples still entered the Meng Potang as usual, and found the location in groups of three and five, and went to the counter to play the dishes.

The life and death of the dead are not ruined, the food has always been rich, and today is no exception.

The braised beef is fat and thin, the fish-flavored pork is bright and full, the farmer's crispy meat is golden and crispy, and the pepper and fish are red and attractive. The disciples were busy rushing to grab the food they loved, lined up all the way, let the house master give himself a spoonful of sweet and sour pork ribs, pour some marinade on the rice, or add some oil and spicy.

The fastest runners are always the disciples of Lu Cun’s elders. The little guy who is at the head of the team is braving a big pox on his nose, but still remembers the Mapo tofu. He skillfully carried the wooden pallet to the last cabinet, and his eyes did not lift. He said, "Master, I want a bowl of tofu."

The master's ten fingers were long and white, and he handed him a full plate of tofu.

However, it is not the Mapo tofu he is familiar with. It is a plate of color black, and the food is indistinguishable.

The disciple was shocked: "What is this?"

"Green vegetables boiled tofu."

The voice of Meng Potang is full of enthusiasm. This disciple did not pay attention to the voice of the person. Instead, he said with anger: "Do you have alchemy? Can this be called green vegetables to cook tofu? I don't want it, you will go back!"

While squatting, I went to the house master. As soon as I saw the person standing behind the cabinet, the disciple was scared and screamed, almost knocking over the tray.

"Jade, Yuheng Elder!"

"Ok."

The disciples are crying. "No, what am I, I just didn't mean that. I..."

"If you don't eat, take it back." Chu night Ning no expression said, "Do not waste."

The disciple stiffly picked up the plate and handed it to Chu Yuning stiffly, then left with the same foot.

Not long after, everyone knows that the last cabinet is standing by the elders of Yu Heng, so the original Meng Po Tang, which is still busy, is silent.

The disciples were like a dog licking their hair, and they lined up in a hurry. They panicked and served the dishes. They respectfully came to the last cupboard, greeted the elders and then stumbled and ran away.

"Yuheng elders are good."

"Ok."

"Yuheng Elders Good Day."

"Good day."

"The elders of Yuheng are working hard."

"..."

The disciples were very disciplined and cautiously twelve points, so Chu Xiaoning accepted the nervous greetings of every disciple, but no one dared to try the green vegetables in his pot to cook tofu.

Slowly, the team is getting shorter, and the food in front of the other masters is almost finished. Only the night of the night is still full, and the pot of dishes is cold, and nobody cares.

There is no wave in the face of Chu Xiuning, but the heart is somewhat complicated. He washed it for a morning...

At this time, his three pro-disciples came. Xue Meng is still silver and blue, and it is very refreshing. He was a little excited to join in: "Master! How are you? The wound still hurts?"

Chu night Ning is very calm: "No pain."

Xue Meng: "That, that's good."

Chu night Ning looked at him and suddenly asked: "Do you eat tofu?"

Xue Meng: "..."

The author has something to say: Chu nightning: Do you eat tofu?

Disciple A: No, don't eat.

Chu nightning: Do you eat tofu?

Disciple B: Wowo Wo bean allergy!

Chu nightning: Do you eat tofu?

Xue Meng: Hey!..... (Suddenly red-faced) I am a straight man! I, I can eat the tofu of the Master!

Chu Yuning: ... What are you thinking about, go to the Qingtian Temple and think about it! Don't mix with the ink rain in the future! (Roaring table)

Chapter 31

In order to show my heartfelt heart in front of the master, I have to play three sets of tofu black tofu, and to ensure that I will not lose one piece, all have to eat.

Chu Xi Ning is very satisfied, showing a rare appreciation.

I was not happy with the burning of the back. Stepping Xiandi Jun has an inexplicable attachment to Chu’s identity, and immediately has three tofus. Chu night Ning looked at him: "Is eating so much, don't you support it?"

Inkburn and Xue Meng screamed: "Don't say three copies, that is, three more, I can eat too."

Chu night Ning faintly said: "Good."

Then I gave the six pieces of tofu and said: "You are the same, you can't waste."

Ink burning: "....."

The other two are all ordered, and the teacher is no exception. He laughs: "That... Master, I have three sets."

So on the first day of the confinement of the elders of Yu Heng, his three disciples had a stomachache because they had eaten something bad. The next day, the elders of the precepts found Chu Yuning, euphemistically expressed that Meng Potang did not lack helpers, please Chu Ning moved to the bridge, helping to clean the leaves and wipe the pillars.

The Naihe Bridge is a bridge connecting the main area of the dead and the scorpion and the disciple's resting area. It can accommodate five carriages and circulate. The pillars stand with white jade and nine beasts, representing the Longsheng nine sons, and another 366 lions. The short column is magnificent.

Chu night, quietly sweeping the ground, after sweeping, carefully rubbed the jade beast.

It’s raining for a long time, when it’s getting darker.

Most of the disciples who had scattered classes did not have oil-paper umbrellas, and squatted toward the residence with the otters. Raindrops lingered on the stone steps, and Chu night Ning Yao took a look and saw the young girls with a relaxed smile on their faces, and they were sowed and bright in the rain.

"..." Chu Xiaoning knows that if they let themselves see themselves, the kind of brightness and ease will disappear, so he thought about it and circled under the bridge.

Some disciples who ran in front of the bridge came to the bridge to see the scene and could not help but scream.

"Enchantment?"

"How do you put an enchantment on the bridge?"

"Probably the elders arranged." Some disciples guessed, "The elders are the best for us."

The translucent gold enchantment cage was stretched over the upper end of the bridge, and it was spread to the main trail of the disciple's resting area, covering all the roads they were going to follow.

"It must have been arranged by the elders. Is this place not under his control?"

"It’s good to be elders."

"This enchantment is so beautiful, the elders are really powerful."

The disciples shook their wet hair, and joked and sneaked into the enchantment. They talked about going to the rest area.

Chu Xiaoning stood under the bridge hole, listening to the sound of the bridge on the bridge, until there was no sound, the returning teenagers had gone far, he slowly took the enchantment and walked out of the bridge hole calmly.

"Master."

I was shocked to hear that someone called him.

Chu nightning suddenly looked up, no people were seen on the shore.

"I am here."

He looked up and followed the ink, and saw the ink burning on the white jade bridge, a silver blue light squat, legs lazily placed on the edge of the bridge.

The young man's eyebrows are black and amazing, and the eyelashes are like two small fans, hanging down. Holding a paper umbrella, I stared at myself with a smile.

One of them is on the bridge, and the leaves are rustling. One is under the bridge, and the rain is in the river.

Just squatting with each other, no one spoke for a moment.

Between the heavens and the earth, the mists and rains are lingering, and occasionally the deciduous bamboos are falling down with the wind and rain, and they are blowing up between the two.

Finally, the ink burned out and made some noises: "Hey elders, you are all wet."

Chu nightning is almost cold at the same time: "How do you know that it is me?"

The ink burned his lips, his eyes were bent, and the dimples were deep: "With such a big enchantment, can the elders not come out? Not a master, who else?"

Chu nightning: "..."

Mo-burning knows that he is too lazy to practice his own way to avoid the rain, and when the brain moves, he throws the umbrella down.

"This is for you, then."

The bright red oil paper umbrella fell, and Chu Yuning caught it. Birun’s bamboo and wood handles were dyed with some temperature. The crystal drops of water dripped down the umbrella. Chu night Ning looked up at him: “That What about you?"

The ink burned and laughed: "I will not be able to go back cleanly?"

Chu night Ning snorted, but still sloppy sleeves, the top of the ink burned immediately opened a bright golden barrier, looked up and looked at the smile, said: "haha, really beautiful, and peony pattern, thank you. ”

Chu night Ning gave him a look: "That is sea otter, only five petals."

After all, the white robes and umbrellas are gone. Keep a person standing in the rain screen and count the petals: "One, two, three, four, five... ah, really five petals..."

Looking up again, Chu nightning has gone far.

The ink burned the scorpion and stood under the enchantment. The childish smile on his face disappeared a little and gradually changed into a complex look.

Suddenly he didn't understand what he was thinking.

If you have a feeling of being alone, you can only have pure love or pure disgust.

The rain stopped for four days. When the clouds were raining, a group of cars and bells jingled, stepping on the clear water pool, stepping on the sky and shadows, and stopping in front of the dead mountain gate.

The bamboo curtains were picked up, and a folding fan with red stems was found inside.

Then, a pair of blue-skinned silver boots stepped out and stepped on the rut, and the slamming heavy land fell on the ground, dusty.

This is a strong-eyed, big-waisted, strong-skinned man with a blue-and-silk squat and a neat beard, about 40 years old. He looks very rough, but the big tower-like hand is shaking a literary fan with exquisite workmanship, and can't tell the weirdness.

The fan slammed open and saw the other side, writing -

"Xue Lang is very beautiful."

On the other side of the book is written -

"The world is very ugly."

The name of the fan is the name of the river, and the reason is that, besides the owner of the fan, the word written on the fan is too embarrassing.

Boasting yourself on the front and mocking others on the opposite side.

The fan handle is lightly shaken, and the radius of the fan can smell the taste of the fan owner's narcissism. No one knows the real world.

Who is the owner of this fan? It was the death of the Lord who stayed outside for more than two months. Xue Meng’s father, the unburned uncle, Xue Zhengyi and Xue Xianchang were also.

The so-called Longshenglong, Fengshengfeng, the son of the mouse will make a hole.

The opposite is true. The son is a peacock, and Laozi will certainly open the screen.

Although Xue Meng is so beautiful, it is very different from his old Kong Wu, but at least they are similar in their bones -

I feel that "Xue Lang is very beautiful, and the world is very ugly."

Xue Zhengyi stretched out a lazy waist, activities and muscles, twisted his neck and smiled and said: "Hey, this carriage is really exhausted, I finally got home."

In the Danxin Hall, Mrs. Wang is mixing powder, and she sits on the left and the right, respectively, and burns Xuemeng.

She softly said: "The hemostatic grass is four or two, and the first yang is one."

"Mother, I’m fine." Xue Meng sat next to her and handed the herb to her. Mrs. Wang took over and smelled the smell of the blood-sucking grass, and then said, "No, this grass and Guanghuo have been together for a long time, and the taste is skewed. The soup made will be harmful. Let's take some fresh ones." ”

"Oh, good." Xue Meng got up and went to the medicine cabinet.

Mrs. Wang continued: "Five spirits and three money, and a scorpion."

The ink burned the material and handed it to her: "Auntie, how long does this medicine take?"

"You don't have to worry about it, you can take it." Mrs. Wang said, "When I have finished the powder, can I burn the elders of Yuheng?"

I didn't want to send the ink, but I took a look at Xue Meng's back. I knew that if I didn't send it, then the person who sent the medicine must be Xue Meng.

I don't know why, he just doesn't like Xue Meng alone and stayed with Chu Ning, so he said, "Okay."

After a pause, I asked: "Is this medicine a bitter for my aunt?"

"Some bitter, what happened?"

Ink burned and said: "Nothing." But grabbed a candy from the fruit plate and stuffed it into the sleeve.

The people in the temple are concentrating on dispensing medicine, but suddenly there is a burst of laughter and loud laughter. Xue Zhengyi strode into the hall with a blissful radiance, and said: "Yes, I am coming back! Hahahaha!"

The head of the sect of the church, without a harbinger before coming in, shocked Mrs. Wang almost sprinkled the powder in the medicine spoon. She stunned her eyes: "French?"

The ink burned and also rose to meet: "Uncle."

"Ah, is the burning child?" Xue Zhengyi was arrogant and arrogant, but his talk was very harmonious. He patted his shoulders with a slap in the air. "Good boy, I haven't seen you for a while, and I seem to have licked some more." How is it? The trip to Choi Butterfly Town is still smooth?"

The ink burned and laughed: "It's still smooth."

"Good, good! There is a late night in Chu, I know that there will be no mistakes, hahahaha - yes, what about your master? Another person is boring in the mountains and banging his little things?"

The ink burns the words, some swear: "The teacher respects him..."

His uncle is as fierce as fire, easy to impulsive, and the death of his uncle in the past, a large part of the reason is attributed to such a character. Of course, the ink-burning is not willing to tell him directly that he has smashed two hundred sticks and was banned for three months. I was thinking about how to open it, and suddenly there was a "ah" behind me.

Xue Meng squatted out with a pile of hemostatic grass and saw his father, can't help but say: "Hey."

"Menger!"

The ink burned and sighed, and this time the father and son met, they must be a little charming, and praise each other, and they just thought about how to confess Chu nightning.

Sure enough, the peacock and son were standing on the tail feathers, and they spared no effort to praise each other.

"I haven't seen you in two months. I have a lot of good things. I am more and more like you!"

Xue Meng did not look like a cockroach, just like his mother, but he quite agrees, also said: "The sturdy figure is also a lot stronger!"

Xue Zhengyi waved his hand and smiled. "This time, I am in the Kunlun Snow Palace, I feel more and more like a young boy, not as good as my children! Oh, that group of girls can show me Tired, Menger, do you still remember Mei Hanxue?"

Xue Meng immediately revealed his disdain: "Is that the little fat man who has been practicing for more than ten years, is said to be the master of the Snow Palace? Is he going out?"

"Hahaha, my son is really good, it is him. When I was a child, I lived in our house for a while and I slept with you for a bed."

"...how don't you remember, fat like a dog, sleeping and kicking people, he has been squatting many times. You see him?"

"I saw it, I saw it." Xue Zheng was carrying a beard and seemed to be in a memory. Xue Meng is the pride of the sky, and he is so aggressive, so he asked impatiently: "How?"

Xue Zhengxuan smiled and said: "I want to say that it is not as good as you. A good boy, his master taught him what to play the piano, and he gave a light and flying petals. You can laugh at you, hahahaha!"

Xue Meng’s tip of the nose seemed to be disgusting.

A fat fat man, playing the piano, flying petals...

"How about his repair?" After all, Mei Hanxue retired for more than ten years. In the past few months, he has just cleared the sword and has not seen the sword on the rivers and lakes.

Since "the appearance" has already compared people, Xue Meng is more than "repaired".

This time, Xue Zhengyi did not answer immediately. He thought for a while and said: "Seeing that he doesn't have a lot of shots, it's a good thing. Anyway, when Lingshan is on the sword, Menger naturally has a chance to compete with him."

Xue Meng twitched his eyebrows: "Hey, that fat man, there is no chance to fight with me."

At this time, Mrs. Wang had already added the last bit of powder. She got up and smiled and touched Xue Meng’s head: "Menger should not be arrogant, be imaginative, and always fearful."

Xue Mengdao: "What is the use of the empty mind? It is all done by people who have no ability, I will be as happy as I am."

Xue Zhengyi laughed happily: "Look, can the tiger father have a dog?"

Mrs. Wang is not pleased: "You, this person, do not teach him, and teach him something bad, like what."

Xue Zhengxuan saw her face with a three-pointed anger, knowing that she was really upset, and she converges her smile and scratched her head: "Yangzi, I am wrong. The woman said how to teach how to teach, all said by the woman." Yes, don't be upset."

Ink burning: "....."

Xue Meng: "....."

Mrs. Wang was a disciple of the lonely moon in her early years. It is said that she was plundered by Xue Zhengyi. This rumor is not true or false, but the ink burns very clearly. The uncle is affectionate to the aunt, and the iron skeleton is turned into a soft finger. However, Mrs. Wang is not so passionate about her husband. She is a very gentle person, but she always sends a little temper to Xue Zhengxuan.

These years, the relationship between the husband and the wife is deeper, and the discerning person can see it.

Xue Meng naturally was too lazy to see his aunt flirting. He was disgusted, and snorted and turned away impatiently.

Mrs. Wang is quite embarrassed and quickly said: "Menger?"

Xue Meng waved his hand and strode out.

Ink burning is not willing to disturb the reunion of couples, and it is also possible to avoid the uncle's cross-examination. Chu nightning was punished for this kind of thing, let Mrs. Wang talk to him, he can't help himself. So he packed up the potions on the table and walked away with a smile. He also covered the temple door for them.

Holding the wound medicine, I swayed to the red lotus water.

Chu night Ning was injured. In the past few days, the body was weak. The enchantment that was originally wrapped around the otter was removed. So some people came, and he did not know.

So, by chance, the ink burned to see such a scene...

Chu nightning, at this moment is taking a bath in the lotus pond.

His own bubble is no problem, the key is that he has always been clean and self-made Yuheng elders, his royal lotus pond, there are actually two other people...

Chapter 32

Separated by heavy lotus leaves, when the ink burned, it was still struck by lightning. The horror was so stiff that it was on the spot, and the five-flavored bottle in the heart was broken and completely broken, and the face was cracked.

Thriller, anger, sour vinegar, violent, fireworks burst. He moved his lips, and he couldn’t say a word in his breath. He didn’t realize what he was angering. There was only one thought in his mind.

Can you touch people who have slept in this seat?

Chu night, you are the arrogant and extravagant in the table! You actually, actually...

He didn't react at all. In the rest of his life, Chu Xiening had no temptation to entangle with him. In a moment, the strings in his head were broken.

After all, for more than a decade, a lifetime, from birth to death.

When he was awake, he was able to work with ease.

However, under the circumstance, the soldiers were in a state of chaos, and the original form was revealed. He still subconsciously believed that Chu Yuning was his own. At this time, he clearly realized that he even remembered the feelings of his lips and kissed him. Not to mention the love of the ecstasy, the desire to entangle, the passion and harmony.

That is why he dared not think about it after he was born again.

Until I saw the back of the night, I saw the familiar figure, the shoulders were wide and the legs were long, the muscles were firm, and the waist was thin and powerful, soaked in clear water.

Those lingering that he deliberately avoided, tried to forget, and suddenly opened the seal, swept through.

The scalp is numb.

...he responded to this body.

And it is a strong reaction that can't be stopped at all, just watching, the lower abdomen is burning.

When he returned, he was already angry and shouted: "Chu Ning!"

Chu night Ning actually ignored him.

The two men supported his shoulders one by one, and the mist in the lotus pond was transpiration, and it was not possible to see the specific appearance of the two. But they are very close and the distance is tight.

The ink burned and slammed, and actually jumped into the lotus pond and slammed toward the water in the late night. When he approached, he discovered that

Then, it was actually a mech of two metals and a nanmu!

What is even more terrible is that they seem to be using the scent of the lotus pond water to convey the spiritual power to the Chu nightning, and the ink burns this headlessly, completely breaking the spiritual power field...

I don’t know what kind of circle is used by Chu’s late night. He is in a coma. He is supported by the golden light from the metal palm of the two mechs. The light is constantly rising and the wound is gathered behind his shoulder. It is obviously being healed.

The intrusion of the ink burned the golden light quickly, and what is even more unexpected is that this legal array will actually reverse!

I saw the golden light scattered, Chu nightning's wound began to be quickly eaten, he frowned, snorted, coughed out a blood, followed by the scars of the body began to tear, blood is like a haze, instantly dip the flower pool .

The ink burned.

This is Chu Yunning's "Flower Soul Sacrifice"!

He realized that he might...worried...

The spiritual flow of Chu's late Ning is a double-family system, and Jin Lingliu is like a "day question", majoring in attack and defense. Muling Stream is used for treatment.

Flower soul sacrifice is one of them, Chu nightning can mobilize the essence of flowers to heal the wound. However, during the operation, there must be no other people in the circle, otherwise the soul of the vegetation will be dissipated, which will not only have a therapeutic effect, but will intensify the injury. In serious cases, the night nucleus of Chu’s night is very likely to be robbed by the spirit of flowers.

Fortunately, the last generation of ink burned on the flower soul sacrifices, and immediately slashed and smashed the spirit. Chu Yuening, who lost the support of the FDC, was soft down now and was steadily supported by the ink.

The unconscious teacher is pale, his lips are blue, his body is cold and ice.

The ink burned him on the shore, and he couldn't wait to see a few more eyes. He took half of the night and took it back to the bedroom and put it on the bed.

"Master! Master!"

After several calls, Chu nightning never even twitched the eyelashes. Except for the slightly undulating chest, he looked just like dead.

Such a late night makes the ink burned to the past.

Inexplicably, I feel that my throat is awkward and my heart is in a hurry.

In the last life, there were two people who died in the ink.

Teacher. Chu nightning.

They are two, one is his lover who is convinced, and the other is the enemy who has been entangled with him for a lifetime.

After the teacher left, there was no light rain in the world.

What about Chu nightning?

I don’t know how to burn, he only remembers that day, the people in his arms are cold and cold, without crying or laughing, and joy and sadness are out of reach.

After the late night of Chu, the light rains, no longer knows what is human.

The lamp is bright and bright, according to the late night of Ning Chi and naked.

On the evening of the night, Yu Heng’s clothes were very tight on the weekdays. The collars were tight and high, and the waist was wrapped around three lines.

Therefore, no one has ever seen how his body hurts after two hundred sticks...

Although he was punished in the disciplinary court that day, the ink burned his eyes and saw the rod wound behind Chu Yuning. At that time, he only knew that the flesh and blood were vague and extremely fierce. But then he saw that Chu Ning had nothing to do and swayed around, thinking that he had probably not hurt his bones.

It was only at this moment that he discovered that Chu's injury was far more serious than he thought.

The five mouths left by the ghost masters have been opened, and the deepest part can clearly see the forest bones.

Chu Xiaoning probably did not help people to change the medicine, they are all hands-on, the ointment is not evenly spread, and some places that are not enough have been inflammatory and festering.

Not to mention the traces of the blue and purple. Covering the entire back of the ridge, almost no complete flesh is seen, plus the anti-phagosis of the ruins. At this moment, the wounds of the Chu-Ningning are completely torn, the blood is flowing, and the sheets underneath are quickly dyed. mottled.

If you don't see it with your own eyes, you won't believe that you will stick to the bridge pillars and open a huge rain-enhancement enchantment for the disciples. It will be the front of you – this can be classified as a serious injury in the category of "old and sick" Injury.

If it's not that Chu Ning has lost consciousness, I'm really trying to take a look at his collar.

Chu nightning, do you have self-esteem?

You are low, you are soft, who will stop you? Why do you have to twist your strength, you are so big, why don’t you know how to take care of yourself and be better for yourself?

Why are you not asking others to help you with your medicine?

You can let the two mechs help you to display the healing system, and wouldn’t you ask someone to help?

Chu night, you are stupid! !

Are you drowning?

He secretly cursed, and quickly pointed to the point of stopping bleeding. Then I took the hot water and wiped the blood behind it for Chu Yuning...

The sharp knife quenches and cuts off the flesh that has completely decayed.

First, Chu Xiuning was sore and sore, and the body bounced. The ink burned him, and he didn't have a good air: "What are you yelling! Owing, fucking? Then poke your chest with a knife, and it will not hurt if you die. One hundred!"

Only at this time, the ink burns to reveal the evil nature of the gods, and screams and drinks like him in the past life.

However, there were too many places where the white rot of the wound was ruined, and it was cleaned up bit by bit. Chu Xiaoning had been breathing low.

Even if this person is in a coma, he will try to suppress the forbearance, and will not cry out loud and cry, but his body is cold sweat, just wiped clean body, and is soaked with sweat.

After busy for half an hour, I finally applied the medicine and wrapped the wound.

The ink burned for the late night, wearing a coat, and holding a thick quilt, and put it on the hot teacher, this was a heavy relief. I remembered that Mrs. Wang’s medicine was still sealed in a paper bag, and she took the water and rushed the bowl of medicine, and ended up at the bedside of Chu’s night.

"Come, drink medicine."

He picked up the sleeping person in one hand, let him lean on his shoulder, pick up the medicine in one hand, blow it, and try to sip it first.

The ink burned immediately and frowned. The face was twisted into a buns. "Hello, so bitter?" But it was cool, and it was fed to Chu.

As a result, just half a spoonful was fed in, and Chu Yuening couldn't stand it. He repeatedly coughed and spit out the medicine, and most of them were splashed on the ink-burning clothes.

Ink burning: "..."

He knows that Chu Xi Ning does not like bitterness, and even some are afraid of suffering.

However, if it is awake, the elders of Yuheng who are dying will surely endure disgust, devour the medicine and drink it, and then sneak a face and sneak a sugar.

Unfortunately, Chu Xiaoning is comatose at the moment.

There is no way to burn the ink. It is not good to lose temper with an unconscious person. He has to bear the temperament and feed him a small mouthful of mouth. From time to time, he still needs to wipe the medicine at the corner of his mouth.

This is not difficult for the ink burning. After all, in the past life, for a while, he also used this medicine to drink Chu nightning every day, and at that time, Chu Ning also resisted, and the ink burned his head. Then he grabbed his chin and kissed him up, his tongue raging and invading, bloody...

I dare not think about it again. Some of the sloppy brooders that the last few spoonfuls of ink burned were spit out by the late night. Then he put the man on the bed and smashed the quilt rudely.

"I can do this in the best of my life. You don't want to kick the quilt at night, it's hot, if you don't care about it..."

He said half of it, suddenly tempered his temper and took a leg.

"Forget it, can't you keep me cool? I hope that the more you get sick, the more sick you are."

After turning around, I left.

Going to the door, I felt that a heart could not be placed, so I turned back and thought about it, and put the candle off for him. Then leave again.

This time, I walked to the waterside of Honglianchi Lake and watched the water lily that absorbed the blood of Chu's late night and became more and more beautiful. The irritability in the chest only increased.

He was angry and angry, but returned to the bedroom with his hands.

Like a rusty and aging mech, he walked around the house in a sly manner, and finally reluctantly stood on the bedside of Chu.

The moonlight is scattered from the semi-open bamboo window, and the silver glow is soaked in the face of the Qing Dynasty.

The lip color is light and the eyebrows are slight.

Ink burned and thought about it, closing the window for him. The sputum is very humid, and sleeping in the window at night is always bad for people. After doing this, the ink burned and swears:

Then fold back from the door, he is a dog!

As a result, he walked to the door and slammed, and Chu Ning actually took the quilt down.

Ink burning: "....."

So how can this person's habit of sleeping and kicking a quilt change?

In order not to be a dog, the 16-year-old stepping emperor was very patient and tolerated and left.

He said that it will never be folded back from the door!

So after a while.

- The emperor of the sacred gods opened the window and turned in from the window.

Picking up the quilt on the ground, and putting it on the night of the night, the ink burned and listened to Chu’s pain, which was unbearably low, and the twitching back, watching him curl up in the corner of the bed, no longer half a week. fierce.

With a "live" on his mouth, he also faintly moved his heart.

He sat on the bed at the night of Chu, and stood guard. Do not let people kick the quilt again.

Late at night, the ink burned for a day was finally unable to support, slowly tilting his head and sleeping.

This sleep is very bad, Chu nightning has been turned over and over, and the ink burns in confusion, it seems that he still heard him squatting low.

Shallow stunned, ink burning is also somewhat unclear on the eve of the evening, I do not know when it is natural to lie next to Chu night Ning, hugged the man who trembled. He groaned and slept, his subconsciously stroked his back, held the man in his arms, and softly dreamed: "Okay, no pain... no pain..."

The ink burned asleep, whispering, as if he had returned to the life and death of the previous life, and returned to the empty Wushan Temple.

After the death of Chu, he no longer embraced him.

Even the lingering nurturing of hatred, in the day-to-day coldness, makes him think that the heart is sore, and the ants who read it are heart-breaking.

But I want to read it again, and Chu Ning will not come back.

He lost the last fire in his life.

This night, the ink burned with the late night, half-sleeping and half-dream, and for a moment I knew that I had regained my life, and I was still in my life.

Suddenly, he did not dare to blink, fearing that he would wake up tomorrow, and only the empty pillows, cold and cold curtains. It’s a long life, and he’s left alone.

He is undoubtedly hating Chu Yuning.

However, when he was in his arms, his eyes were a little moist.

It was Thirty-two-year-old Teng Xianjun, who thought that he could never find the warmth.

"Good night, no pain..."

Consciousness, ink burns like the one before rebirth, stroking the hair of the man in his arms, whispering, a gentle sentence, so he blurted out.

He was too sleepy, didn't even realize what he said, called the other person, even when he said that he didn't have any thoughts when he said it, but it slipped naturally, and then the ink burned longer and fell deeper. Dream.

Early the next morning, Chu nightning eyelashes trembled and woke up.

He was a strong man and had a high fever overnight. He had already retired.

Chu discovered that he was sleepy and tired, and his consciousness was still vague. He was about to get up, but he suddenly realized that someone was lying on the same bed as himself.

... ink, ink rain? ? ?

Wherein the difference is wherein. Chu night, Ning, time was pale, but I couldn’t remember what happened last night. What’s more, he was able to wake up the ink.

The boy yawned, his clean and delicate face with some healthy blushing when he was asleep. He squinted his eyes and squinted at the night, and he was confused. "Ah... let this seat sleep for a while... ...when you wake up, go and cook me a bowl of egg-flowered lean porridge..."

Chu nightning: "....."

What a mess, dreams?

The ink burned still faint, seeing that the night was not moving, and did not urge people to get up and cook porridge, but lazily smiled, reached out, pulled the face of Chu’s late night, and cooked on the lips. A bit.

"I can't afford it, this seat has just had a nightmare, a dream... oh... no mention." He sighed, holding a man who had been completely sluggish and stiff. The chin rubbed the top of the man in the arms and muttered, "Chu Ning, let me hug you again."

The author has something to say:

Commonly made sugar, sugar, sugar you want!

As for why the ink burns him, [night Ning], this is not a slip of the tongue. In the last life, he really called the teacher like this. As for why he is so intimate, please listen... Hey, I don’t know how many times it’s broken down. ! Hey run away.

Chapter 33

Chu Xiaoning was shocked by the sudden kiss. Where did he still feel the smoldering in the mutter? He only thought that the words were sly, and the ear was like a rain.

The ink burned there, but the wind was light and dark, and after a few words, he went back to sleep.

"..."

Chu nightning wants to wake him up.

However, the window on the side of the bed was just outside, and the outside of the tree was just open. Not too late, when the night was lifted up by Chu, a fallen pale pink Begonia flower fell lightly on the tip of the ink.

"..."

The ink burned the nose somewhat uncomfortably, but he slept very sweetly and didn't wake up. Then he stretched out and pushed the hand of the man, and the ghost changed the direction. The night of the night, Chu Ning took off the sea otter and pinched it between his fingers.

While looking at the flowers, while being fascinated, slowly, he remembered it somewhat.

Vaguely remember, yesterday was the ink burned to clear his wounds, feeding him to drink the soup.

Later, the smoldering seemed to have hugged himself, groaning in his ear as he touched his hair and back in the long night.

Chu night Ning made a stay, he thought this should be his own dream?

The tip of the ear is not consciously red, like the jellyfish that stops at the tip of the finger, and the brilliant color of the flower.

The words of reprimanding were swallowed up.

It’s really... I don’t know what to expect.

"How come you sleep here?"

It sounds like a young woman.

"Get out of bed, who will let you sleep here!"

It sounds like a shrewd woman.

"Do you dare to kiss me?"

In fact, only the lips met, compared to the time in the illusion, it is really not a pro, if you care about it, but it seems to want to cover.

"..."

I don't know how to be good, the elders of Yu Heng can only play half a roll in the bed and bury their faces in the bedding. The slender ten fingers squatted at the horns, some irritated and irritated.

In the end, he chose to open his hands and feet, sit up and dress himself up first, then wake up.

So when the ink burned and slumbered, I saw the elders sitting on the edge of the bed, with an unpredictable look and a cold look.

When the cold sweat came, it came down.

"Master respects me -"

Chu night Ning indifferently said: "You broke my flower soul enchantment yesterday?"

"I did not do it on purpose……"

"But it." Chu night Ning is very cold, and he waved his sleeves like nothing. "Get up soon. Go to the morning class."

The ink burned down, and he looked at his hair with some anxiety: "How can I sleep here..."

"Tired." Chu Xi Ning is very calm. "Look at you like this, I should have been busy for a long time yesterday."

He said, looking at the medicines on the case, and said: "You can't rush into the red lotus water in the future. If you want something, please report it to me in advance."

"Yes, Master."

"Let's go."

Stepping Xianjun felt that he had returned a small life and hurried to run away.

When he left, Chu Xiening lay back on the bed, raised his hand and opened the palm of his hand. From the crack in his fingertips, he looked at the splendid flowers outside the window, and the wind and flowers fell.

The soft color of the jellyfish is like a sporadic memory last night.

Very light, but difficult to distinguish between true and false.

He decided not to take the initiative to mention yesterday.

Too bad! ! !

The elders of Yu Heng cherish their faces like gold, and they must face their lives. So a few days later, when the ink burned again to see the late night of the night, the elders of Yu Heng were still light and light, calm and calm, noble and cold, and white.

The cuddling of that night, none of them took the initiative to mention. Only occasionally when the eyes overlap, the sight of the ink burns seems to stay in Chu nightning for a while, and then habitually chasing the teacher.

And what about Chu Ning?

When he touches the smoldering sight, he immediately turns to the beginning coldly. Then, when the other party did not notice, it seemed to be inadvertently, and then glanced again.

Xue Zhengyi soon learned that Chu Yuning was punished.

Sure enough, the guardian of the dead and the dying of the Lord was short-lived, and immediately made a big fire. However, this fire is not suitable for anyone, so he can only close the door and suffocate himself.

- I knew that when I set the rules, I should add one: the law is not as good as the elders.

Mrs. Wang brewed a pot of tea and whispered to him for a long time. Xue Zhengyi only suffocated, but still said: "The elders of Yu Heng are stubborn. If he wants to do this again, the woman must help me. Something. He is the master of the martial art in the upper cults, but he is suffering from this kind of suffering in my place. How can this be my conscience?"

Mrs. Wang said: "I don't want to persuade him. You also know that the elders of Yu Heng are doing things."

Xue Zhengsheng said: "But it, the lady, the medicines that you have adjusted for myalgia and analgesia give me some, I will go see Yuheng."

"White oral service, red external application." Mrs. Wang handed two Xiaoyao small porcelain bottles to Xue Zhengxuan, and then said, "I listened to the burning children, saying that the elders of Yuheng have been rubbing the lions in the bridge for a few days. You Going there should be able to find him."

Xue Zhengyu then took a porcelain bottle and rushed to the vicinity of Yuqiao.

Chu night Ning was really there, at this time in the afternoon, the disciples were busy doing their own practice, and few people passed through the bridge. On the bridge of the jade belt, only Chu Yuning stood alone, standing tall and straight, and had a hurricane.

The forest leaves on both sides of the strait, the white clothes, the bamboo, the gentleman's posture.

Xue Zhengyi walked over and smiled heartily: "Yuheng elders, are you enjoying fish?"

Chu night Ning side face: "The Lord is joking, this river passes through the water of Huangquan in the ghost world, how can there be fish."

"Haha, make a joke with you. You are more elegant and less interesting, so you can't find a wife."

Chu nightning: "....."

"Hey, hurt medicine, my lady's tune. White clothes, red external application. It's very good. It's for you."

"..." Chu late Ning originally did not want to, but I saw that Xue Zhengyi was quite proud of it. It seemed that he was very cherished for his wife's pro-drugs, so it was not good to refuse. So he took it down and said faintly, "Thank you. ”

Xue Zhengxuan is a rough man, but in the face of Chu Ningning, it is also somewhat cautious. Many things dare not communicate easily. I thought about it for a while before I picked up a topic: "Yu Heng, after three years, Lingshan is on the sword. At that time, the young talents of all the factions will gather together and compete for the heights. What do you think of the children and the children?

Chu night Ningdao: "After three years, things are not good. I only see the moment, the ink does not seek advancement, Xue Meng is underestimated. It is not what it should be."

He speaks simply, meanly, and does not bend around.

Xue Zhengyi’s face could not be hanged, and muttered: “Hey, boy!”

Chu night Ningdao: "It has already been weak, it is not small."

Xue Zhengxuan: "It is true that the words are correct, but they are only less than twenty. After all, when I am an uncle, I will definitely avoid partiality, haha."

Chu nightning: "The child does not teach, the father has passed, the teaching is not strict, the teacher is lazy. If the two go backwards, it is your responsibility, how to be partial?"

"..."

Chu Yuening said: "The Lord can still remember, Linyi Confucianism has also had two days of pride?"

He said that Xue Zhengyi’s heart could not help but sink.

More than 20 years ago, the first large-scale school in the upper cult of the sect of the Confucianism, once had a pair of brothers, all of whom were young and talented. They were able to surrender a hundred years of great demon alone at the age of ten. You can create your own spells and open the fire.

However, one mountain is not allowed to be two tigers. Because both of them are middle-aged people, they are still brothers and sisters. In the same year, Lingshan argued that the younger brother had been sneaked into the sect of the sects of the elder brothers in advance. After the conference, the younger brother was immediately severely punished by his father. He was very proud and frustrated. From then on, he hated it, specialized in martyrdom, and finally fell into a devilish head.

Chu Xiaoning mentioned this old thing at this time, no doubt wanting to tell Xue Zhengyi: Xue Meng and Mo Yan are excellent, but more important than the spell, is the heart.

It is a pity that Xue Zhengxuan is harsh on himself and serious about his disciples, but he is confused in his son and nephew. He is at the point of love. Therefore, if he is late, he does not listen to it. He only says haha and says: The elders of Yu Heng pointed out that they would not take the old road of the brothers."

Chu nightning shook his head.

"Humanity is stubborn. If you are not determined to make a decision, it is easier to change it."

He said this, Xue Zhengyi could not help but feel a little uneasy. He didn't know if there was something in the late night. After a while, I couldn't help but say: "Yu Heng, are you some... Hey, I said, don't be angry, are you looking down on ignorance?"

Chu Xiaoning did not mean this. He did not think that Xue Zhengyi had been so misunderstood that he was somewhat stunned.

Xue Zhengxuan worried and said: "In fact, they can not emerge in three years. I am not particularly concerned. Especially the burning children, he has suffered a lot from snacks, and his temper is inevitably a bit awkward. I hope you don't because he is in the restaurant. He grew up and disliked him. Hey, he is the only blood left by my eldest brother in the world. I have something to him in my heart..."

Chu Xiaoning interrupted Xue Zhengxuan and said: "The Lord will misunderstand, I will not look down on him. If I care about the origin of the burning, how can I accept him as a disciple?"

Seeing his straightforwardness and tone, Xue Zhengxi said: "That's good, then it's good."

Chu nightning's gaze fell again into the river under the bridge, he looked at the flood of Hongbo, the waves screamed, no more words. It is a pity that the two people’s dialogue on the bridge and the confession of Chu’s late life are as easy as being swallowed up by the waves like the previous life.

His "not abandoning" the ink burning, no third person heard.

The March ban was passed by.

On this day, Chu Yuening passed three disciples to Honglian Shuiyu and said: "Your spirits have been stabilized. Today, you are called to come to Xuxufeng and try to call out your own weapons. ”

Upon hearing this, Xue Meng and Shi Yan both widened their eyes and showed a look of incompetence.

Xu Yingfeng is the sacred mountain of Shang Xiu, which is a thousand feet high and stands tall.

According to legend, Xu Yingfeng used to be the place where the gods and gods of Chenshang Palace were cast. Gou Chen Shanggong is a soldier of the gods, he is in charge of the north and south celestial poles, and he is the ruler of the world.

When the Emperor demoned the demon, the Chen Shanggong was based on the Chongshan Mountain. The lake and the sea were pools, and the blood of the gods was the fire. It became the first "sword" in the real world, and the sword was thoroughly attacked. Fallen, China is divided and the sea is back flowing.

The Emperor of Heaven held the "sword", and within two strokes, the Mozu was suppressed under the earth, and it was hard to rise again.

And the two strokes traversed the territory of the human world, splitting two deep squats. After this battle, Tian Yusu, ghost night crying, flooding thunder, heavy rain for thousands of years, the deep ditch of the two swords was filled with rain, and it became the Yangtze River and the Yellow River that gave birth to countless creatures.

As for the Xu Yingfeng, where the Excalibur was broken, it became the pilgrimage site for the later generations. The aura left by the ancient gods is very rich. Today, there are still countless mysterious charms in the mountains and mountains, and there are strange flowers and plants growing. Numerous monks also peeked at the avenue in Xu Yingfeng, and the robbers soared.

But for the world, the most attractive attraction of this incredible sword is the “Golden Pool”.

It is a pool of ice pools at the top of Xu Ying Peak, which is frozen all year round.

In the rumor, Gou Shanggong is a god-making sword, cuts the palm of his hand, and squeezes into his own blood, and one of the drops of blood falls on the low point of the peak. After millions of years, the blood of the * is still not exhausted. This piece of Jin Chengchi, which is clearly visible, is surrounded by future generations.

And no matter whether this rumor is true or not, the wonders of Jin Chengchi are not false. Although it freezes three feet all year round, there are very few Taoist priests who can use their own nuclear power to make the pool water temporarily, and the pool will jump out of an ancient animal, mouthpiece, and shore. man of.

Xue Meng couldn't wait to ask: "Master, when you take Shenwu, what is the ancient animal that jumped out?"

Chu night Ningdao: "鲲鹏."

When Xue Meng heard it, his eyes flashed with eager light: "Great! I can see Peng Peng!"

Ink burned and laughed: "When you start the lake, let's talk about it."

"What do you mean? Do you think that I can't open Jincheng Lake?"

The ink burned and laughed: "Oh, what kind of gas, I didn't say that."

Chu night Ningdao: "From the lake, the weapon will not necessarily be Kuangpeng. It is said that there are more than a hundred beasts in Jincheng Lake, guarding the spirit of Shenwu. If one of them likes you, it will find itself. The weapons that can be obtained are offered to the people on the shore. And these sacred beasts have different temperament and will ask you various demands. If you can't finish them, they will carry weapons and return to the bottom of the lake."

Xue Mengqi said: "Is this the case? That Master, what did you ask for at the time?"

Chu night Ningdao: "It says that you want to eat meat."

The three disciples took a moment to laugh, and Xue Meng haha said: "Scared me, I thought it was difficult."

Chu Evening also smiled a little and said: "It’s just good luck. The requirements of these beasts are bizarre and everything is there. I have heard that someone has summoned a mole. The little mouse asks the man to marry his wife. Give it, the man did not agree, the Mole took the weapon and left, and then the man would no longer have the opportunity to get the martial arts."

The teacher whispered: "That's a pity..."

Chu nighting looked at him and said: "What a pity? I respect him as a gentleman."

The teacher hurriedly said: "The teacher misunderstands, I don't mean this. It is natural that the wife can't change it with even more powerful weapons. I just regret that he missed such a weapon of the gods."

Chu night Ning said: "This is just a rumor, but unfortunately I have no chance to see such a person. Many years ago in Jincheng Lake, I have seen what is terrible and dirty, dirty my eyes."

He paused, seemingly remembering something, and there was a faint ambiguity between the eyebrows.

"But it, don't mention it. For thousands of years, Jin Chengchi didn't know how many Dan's heart did not change, and how many people were thin and cold. In front of Shenwu, how many people can give up the opportunity to become a fairy, Do not hesitate to stick to my heart...? Hehe."

Chu night Ning sneered twice, it seems that something in his memory touched his anti-scale, his look gradually indifferent, his lips finally tightened, and his mouth shut. The sword was slightly stunned, and looking at him looked like he felt sick.

"Master, all said that Jin Chengchi's Shenwu has a temper, then you used it with ease?" Xue Meng saw him unhappy, opened the topic, and asked.

Chu night Ning picked up the eyelids, faint: "There are three gods for the teacher, which one do you say?"

The author has something to say:

Today's small theater revolves around Mr. White Cat's last sentence, "Where are there three martial arts teachers, what do you say?", and various adaptations are launched!

If this is a campus text -

Disciplinary Committee member Xue Mengmeng: "Squad leader! I will not correct QAQ. I remember that you seem to be a perfect score. Your paper is borrowing me!"

The class leader Chu Xiaoning picked up his eyelids and said: "There are three volumes of my perfect score. Which one do you say?"

If this is a president's text.

Rich second generation Xue Mengmeng: "Chu Chu, my dad asked me to send this gift to your seaside holiday villa. Tell me about your address."

The overbearing president Chu Xiaoning picked up his eyelids and said: "I have three sets of beach villas. Which one do you say?"

If this is a harem species / Marvin (feed hi!)

Xiao Meng Xue Mengmeng: "Chu Huangshu QAQ you, your one after the world. She and she bully the nest! You don't scratch your nails!"

The uncle of the wind, the uncle, and the late night, picked up the eyelids, faintly: "Oh? There are three people after the king's death. Which one do you say?"

If this is a news broadcast: (...)

Ccgv reporter Xue Mengmeng: "Chu Shuji, under your governance, H City's urban appearance and residents' happiness index have all improved by leaps and bounds, urban sewage discharge has been greatly reduced, and urban traffic congestion has been significantly alleviated. On behalf of the city of zf, he gave you the “Moving the Knights of the Rotten State”. You can show us your medal. ?"

Chu Evening’s secretary raised his eyelids and said faintly: “This comrade, I have three medals that touched the Knights of the Rotten State. Which one do you say?”

If this is...

Chu nightning: "mmp Laozi has been on the show!! Played enough! Today, the box lunch has not been fed to me!"

Meat package: "...the last one, the last one."

If this is a gourmet text.

Rice bucket Xue Mengmeng: "Boss boss! I heard that your family's steamed buns on the tip of China! How much is a cage? Can you give me a cage?"

Chu nightning: "Human flesh, 30,000, can't."

Meat package: ".....Hey, you have to follow the script..."

Chu night Ning picked up the eyelids, faint: "I have campus, president, harem, ccgv, four scripts, which one do you say?"

Meat package: "....."

Chapter 34

Such a shocking cry of ghosts and gods, only Chu nightning can calmly and eloquently. The three disciples listened to their ears and each had a different taste in their hearts.

The simplest thing Xue Meng thinks is that there is only one interjection: Ah!

The ink burned more complicated. He remembered some things in his previous life, and he held his chin and thought that he would not want to see the third weapon of Chu Yuning in his life.

As for the teacher, he leaned his head, a pair of Jiangnan smoked apricot flowers, flashing a faint glow inside, like worship, and fascination.

"Does the day question come from Jinchengchi?"

Chu nightning: "Well."

"The other two..."

Chu nightning: "One is, one is not. The weapon temperament is usually not too strong, you can control it, you don't have to worry too much."

Xue Meng sighed with some envy: "I really want to see the other two gods."

Chu night Ningdao: "The general thing, the day is enough to deal with, the other two, I would rather they have no use."

Xue Meng reluctantly sighed, but the eyes still flashed, and Chu was rather in the eyes, knowing that his good nature is extremely difficult to suppress, but fortunately Xue Meng is not bad, as long as a little guidance, it also Don't worry too much.

The ink burned but touched the chin next to him, like laughing and laughing.

It is the murderer who knows that the sergeant has no choice but to use it. Chu Yuning... No matter what the past and the present, the loser is lost in this righteousness.

The evil invincibility is written in the book, but this fool must be taken seriously, and it should be so talented and powerful, but it is still a prisoner, and it has become a skeleton.

"Master." The voice of the teacher interrupted the smoldering thoughts.

"Disciples have heard that there are hundreds of thousands of people who seek martial arts every year on the Rising Sun Peak. There are only one or two people who can open the Jincheng Pool organically. Even for a few years, they have not seen the pool." The disciples are shallow... It is impossible...not possible You have to be married. A burning and a young master are all leaders in the world. If you don't, I won't go there. Stay here and practice basic spells."

Chu nightning: "....."

He didn't talk, and the porcelain-like face was covered with a touch of mist, and it seemed to be sinking.

The teacher of the last generation gave up the opportunity to go to Xu Yingfeng because of inferiority. When he saw it, he immediately smiled and said: "Just try it. If it is not, then it should be a tour. You are dead all day." If you are doing something, you should go out to the world."

The teacher became more and more embarrassed: "No, I am too weak, and there are so many people in Xu Yingfeng. If I encounter a disciple of other martial art, I want to learn from it. I will definitely not beat it. ..."

Chu night Ning raised his eyes and said: "Are you afraid of this?"

He asked this sentence very strangely, like a question, but like a question. The other two did not feel, but the teacher’s heart was cool, and his eyes were lifted, facing the sharp eyes of Ningshuanghuahua.

"Master respect..."

Chu nightning did not move, said: "You majored in treatment, this is not good at dealing with people. If someone is entangled with you, it will be good, not shameful."

The ink burned and grinned: "Don't be afraid, there is me."

So I packed up and three people got on the road.

This time I am going to go to the upper repairing circle. The road is far away and the horse riding is too tired. Chu nightning is still unwilling to fly with the sword, so the car and the horses rushed, and walked for more than ten days without delay, finally came to a town next to Xu Yingfeng.

The three disciples have already come out of the carriage. Only Chu Xiaoning is still too lazy to move. He opened the bamboo pole of the carriage and said: "Have a rest here, and go somewhere tomorrow, you can go to Xu Yingfeng."

The name of the city where they rested was called Yucheng. Although the city is not big, it is very prosperous, and the woman is wearing a cloak, and the men’s brocade shirt is a bit more luxurious than the most fertile place in the world.

Xue Meng said: "The dog things in the Shang Xiujie are really stinky, and there are frozen bones on the road."

I don’t like ink burning. It’s rare to not refute Xue Meng, but with a sweet smile, mocking the foreground: “Yes, I can see that I am so oyster, it’s no wonder that so many people have to smash their heads and move on. In the practice of the world, even if you don’t cultivate the immortal, being an ordinary person is much better than the days of the next revision."

Chu nightning turned out a silver-gray mask and put it on his face. This slowly took the carriage down and looked around the downtown, but he didn't know what he was thinking.

Xue Mengqi said: "Why should the teacher wear a mask?"

Chu night Ningdao: "This is the boundary of Linyi Confucianism. I can't show up."

Seeing Xue Meng is still puzzled, ink sighs: "Little Phoenix does not have a long brain, Master is a guest of the Confucianism."

He said this, Xue Meng just remembered it, but Tianzhi’s pride was not willing to admit that he had forgotten this point. He turned his face and turned his eyes. He said, “This, of course, I know, I am only surprised. Only the guest, but not sold to them, want to go and leave, is it true that the people of Confucianism can see that the Master can also tie him back?"

Ink ignited: "It’s stupid to say that you are stupid. Haven’t you heard of it? Since the departure of the Confucianism after the teacher’s departure, very few people in the upper circle know his whereabouts. If we go down the mountain, if anyone asks Starting from the teacher's door, we are not all talking about the life and death, not to mention the teacher?"

Xue Meng stunned for a moment, and then he later learned: "Is it true that the whereabouts of the masters are fascinating in the upper bounds? But the master is so powerful, why should you hide your whereabouts?"

"I have never deliberately concealed, but I don't want to teach people to bother." Chu said, "Let's go, stay at the store."

"Hey, four immortals want to live in the store?" The younger sister of the inn ran over with a face full of oil.

Xue Mengdao: "I want to go to the four rooms."

Xiao Erqiu smiled and said: "I really can't live with Xianjun. That, the rooms in Yucheng have been a little nervous recently. The four rooms are not able to come out. Do you want to confuse the immortals and put together to live together? How is the room?"

There is no way, they just make a difference.

Only when the room was allocated, there were some minor problems.

——

"I want to have a room with the teacher." Looking at the late night, the three disciples gathered together, and the ink burned powerfully.

Xue Meng did not do: "Why?"

Ink burned the road: "Do you not like sticking to the master?"

"That, then I don't want to-"

He is very respectful and late, but he is afraid of the word, and he can't afford a "fear". For Chu Xianning, he is more fond of it, or more fear, he can't say it himself.

Seeing Xue Meng's face blushing, the ink smiled and said: "Brother, I don't think you don't want to sleep with the Master, but don't dare?"

Xue Mengyi rounded his eyes: "The teacher will not eat people, I have nothing to dare!"

"Oh." The ink burned and laughed. "But the master is a good hit in the dream, do you know?"

Xue Meng: "..."

The face was blue and white for a while, Xue Meng, suddenly thought of something, angry and geological asked: "How is the teacher when he sleeps, how do you know? You slept with him?"

This statement is a bit embarrassing, although Xue Meng does not have any evil meaning, but the speaker does not intend, the listener has the heart. The ink burns the dark road, and this seat is only sleeping with him. He has slept with him in his life.

However, the hero did not mention the courage of the year, and still smiled on his mouth: "If you don't believe it, you can feel it tonight. Jinchuang medicine remembers to bring a bottle. If there is any bruise, you can save anxiously."

Xue Meng was about to attack, Chu Yuening had already paid the bill and came over.

He glanced at them and said, "Let's go."

Three teenagers with small tails followed the master and went upstairs. When standing in front of the room, the three people who had been victoriously began to look at the nose and nose, waiting for Chu’s opening.

In fact, their disputes are all in vain. When they are waiting for the row, they are not shutting up, waiting for the teacher to speak.

Chu night Ning paused and said: "There are only two rooms left, who of you..."

He is secretive and awkward.

How to say - "Who wants to be with me?"

It sounds like a little pitiful, and it’s too unlike the style of the elders.

What should I say?

"Ink rain, you go with me." Look like this?

... forget it, with a spit and a tiger skin, and the black winds of the young woman who is a good young woman is no different. I am a generation of masters, and my face is still a must.

What's more, since the red lotus waters have been hugging and sleeping, the two have consciously stunned and rarely get along alone.

Chu night Ning looked indifferent and peaceful, but his heart was rolling over countless thoughts. After a long time, he finally lifted his chin in a cold and self-sufficient manner and pointed to Xue Meng.

"Xue Meng and I are one."

Xue Meng: "....."

The original burning smile, but at this time it was not awkward.

He really hopes that Xue Meng and Chu Xi Ning live together and live with the teacher. But when this choice was made from the mouth of Chu, it was inexplicably boring.

He didn't know that he was like this, much like a little wild dog that didn't know how to be tall. The little wild dog meets a man. Although that person is not too good for him, he is willing to throw some bones to him for three meals a day.

But the little wild dog doesn't like this fierce guy, so although he licks his bones every day, he screams at the other side, and he does not regard this man as his master.

However, I don’t know why, one day, this man came out of the bowl, but it was not the bones that he was familiar with, but the glutinous rice, a beautiful bird with bright fur, falling on the shoulder of the man, with a round His eyes stared at him, and his crystal slyly looked at his face.

The man also leaned over and touched the rich wings of the birds and carefully fed him the grain.

His wild dog can't help but stay.

After all, he thought that Chu will rather choose his own...

The author has something to say: the pet and the arrogant dog will fall out of favor! The owner does not want you! The owner is diverted to play with the bird! (Hey to feed!) The owner is rather not playing with the bird! Cry!

Chapter 35

It was night, and the ink burned against the wall.

A wall is separated from the bedroom of Chu Yuening and Xue Meng.

The teacher loves to be clean, and the clothes and dresses that have been changed are placed neatly on the bed, and there are no pleats. Then I went downstairs to let Xiao Er send hot water to take a shower.

The soundproofing of this inn is not particularly good. When the room is quiet, you can faintly hear the movement next to it.

Chu nightning seems to say something, not very clear. But then Xue Meng’s voice rang -

"It seems to be tight."

The ear of the ink-burning dog scorpion slammed up and moved.

The little phoenix next door said: "Master, does it hurt?"

"...not in the way, you can continue."

"I am lighter, hurt you, you tell me."

"Hey, let's do it, don't do it."

Inflammatory eyes wide open: "???"

Although it is impossible to know the two people next door, what dialogue is this? What are they doing?

The ears of the dog's scorpion must be put on the wall, and you can hear the blurry sound of the clothes, and then carefully, even hear the suffocating sorrow of Chu.

This voice, how many times he heard in the bed that Chu was born in the night, when his master was very cool or very painful, he was not willing to snoring, always biting his lower lip, and the tail was wet with moisture. red. At this time, as long as you use your strength, you can hear the low asthma that Chu’s throat is broken...

"Wait, wait a minute." Chu night Ning voice hoarse, low, "Where... you don't touch."

"Okay." Xue Meng hesitated, whispered, "That Master respects you... come by yourself?"

"Ok."

where?

What is messy? Where do you not touch? What come by yourself? What are these two people doing?

The burnt face is dark.

After the reaction, he has already sounded the door next door.

There was a rush of noise in the room. The dog's face is even worse, and he evokes a breath: "Master, you guys-"

The door slammed open.

Xue Meng was well-dressed inside, holding a half of blood-stained gauze in his hand, squinting his eyes and staring at himself inexplicably.

"What? What is the big night's screaming and drinking. Hit the ghost?"

The ink burner was opened and stupidly closed. Looking over Xue Meng, I saw Chu Xi Ning sitting at the table, with new gauze and wound medicine on the table.

"You are here..."

Xue Meng slammed him: "On the medicine, the injury on the shoulder of the master is still not good. There have been no dressing changes in a few days, and several wounds have been boring."

Ink burning: "..."

He asked in a hurry: "That, that's too tight..."

"Too tight?" Xue Meng frowned, thinking for a while, "Oh, gauze, the tie was too tight before, some blood stuck to the wound, almost could not get down."

When he said half of it, he suddenly stopped, and some of them looked suspiciously and burned their eyes.

"You listened to us?"

The ink burned his eyes and barely picked up his already embarrassed face: "The partition of this inn is so thin, who overheard it, don't believe that you go to the side to listen to it, even if you stick to the wall, you can hear it clearly. ""

"Oh, is it?" Xue Meng nodded. After a while, he felt that something was wrong. "-Wait, how do you know? Have you heard it against the wall?"

Ink burning: "..."

Xue Meng was furious: "Ink rain, you are perverted!"

Ink angered: "Who knows if you will do something worse for the Master!"

Xue Meng is a pure person. He doesn't know this. He doesn't understand what the ink is saying, so he is even more angry: "What are you talking about!" Turning the head and blaming, "Master, you see him -"

Chu nightning put on his robe, and tied the loose clothes, while licking his hair, he walked coldly and faintly, and looked up and down.

"what's up?"

"I... I heard it next door..." The ink burned and smacked, "What, I thought Xue Meng bullied you..."

"What?" Chu Xiaoning did not understand, he narrowed his eyes, "Who bullied me?"

I can't wait to smoke my own ear: "..."

I was looking at each other and the teacher came up.

"A fire? How are you at the door of the master's room?"

"I...hey..." The ink burned even more. "That, some misunderstandings."

The teacher smiled and said: "Is that misunderstanding?"

"Solved the solution." The ink burned again and again. "Yi, don't you let Xiao Er send hot water to take a shower? Master has not washed it yet, I will go downstairs and let them send more."

Shi said: "No need." He took out four bamboo and wooden cards and smiled. "Small two said that there is a natural hot spring soup next to the inn. The store has built a special bathhouse. With this brand, you can Go wash, give you one."

I think that I have a broken sleeve, and I shouldn’t take a bath with three other people.

Xue Meng is also considered, the teacher is holy in his eyes, do not dare to think. But Chu Yuning, he knows, from the intimate contact after rebirth, he is very likely to see his brain off the clothes.

The ink burned and immediately said: "I am not going."

Xue Meng was shocked: "You sleep without taking a bath? So dirty!"

Ink burning: "I let Xiao Er send hot water up."

The teacher said inexplicably: "This inn does not burn hot water. All the guests are going to the hot spring bath."

Ink burning: "..."

There is no way, the ink burns only with them to take the change of clothes, go to the hot spring soup bath. This inn also knows how to make it easy. I understand that most of the visitors here are Taoist priests who go to Jinchengchi for swords. Therefore, they simply named the bathhouse "Jin Chengxu Ying" and asked for a head.

The ink burned for fear that he was faint, did not dare to collide with the other two, hurriedly changed the clothes, and wrapped his towel tightly around his waist. He ran to the bath first and found a quiet place to soak.

Because it is already very late, there are not many people in the bath. The scattered parts are still in a very distant place. There is a white towel on the head of the burning head, and the whole person is half-faced under the water. Exhaled, bubbling bubbles.

The first person changed clothes, and the red/naked/naked land came out with long legs.

The smoldering glanced at the eyes and let out a sigh of relief. Fortunately, it was Xue Meng.

Although Xue Gongzi is beautiful, but the horizontal and vertical is not the dish of Xianjun, the two look at each other, Xue Meng pointed at him: "You are farther away from me."

"What?"

"You are dirty."

Ink burning: "Oh."

The mist in the bathhouse was fascinating, and after a while, Xue Meng, who was scrubbing the body with a soap pod, suddenly said: "Master, here!"

The half-burning face was in the water, and the words were almost picked up. Although I understand that I should not look at it, my eyes are still involuntarily going to the shore.

This eye was really life-threatening, and the ink was too late to prevent it. He immediately took two baths of water and went in. He couldn’t care for nausea and quickly dive himself deeper, only revealing a pair of eyes on the water.

He did not expect that Chu Yuning and Shiyi came out together.

Two people, one slender and feminine, with long hair in the ink, wrapped in a bath towel, is the teacher.

The smoldering was supposed to be the one who wanted to peek at him most, but in the end he only hurriedly glanced at it. He really respects the teacher, such as the moon, and dare not stare at the audience.

But a tall and cold, wide shoulders and narrow waist, body firm and firm skin, it is Chu nightning. He has a high ponytail and a large white bathrobe. The cover is strict, but the robes are too wide, and the placket is still not tightened. The naked and exposed large and smooth chest. .

The ink burned him and felt that he was suffocated by the hot spring and cooked.

I want to look away.

But the eyes are not obedient, and the straight roots can't be moved a little, and the roots are slowly red.

Through the misty fog, Chu nightning seems to have looked at him, but he did not seem to look at it. He casually gave himself a layer of waterproof enchantment in the position of gauze, and then stepped into the hot spring, the clothes floated, and the action room could Seeing his legs, the end is the line is tight, straight and slender.

Ink burning: "....."

He couldn't take it anymore, and closed his eyes and sank to the bottom.

Even with the blocking of the waist towel, my reaction is too...

The smoldering felt that he was wronged.

He really does not like Chu Yuning, hate Chu nightning.

However, the body remembers the overwhelming rain, remembering those who can smash the iron bone into a tender feeling. I also remember all those blushing heartbeats between them, ridiculous things.

The throat is rolling, and the inner heart is fighting.

In the end, the ink burned and I almost cried.

He was afraid of scorning himself for the first time - how is this? The teacher is still in front of me, what is it about the sorrow of the night?

Even before the skin of the blind date, the joy of fish and water.

It is also a thing of the past.

I will remember the body of Chu’s late life, what is the teacher’s sister? More disrespect for others, how bad it is.

Seeing the nose and nose and suppressing the evil thoughts for a long time, the ink burning finally put a sinister fire on the lower abdomen. This slammed out of the water, rubbed the water drops, wiped the water off the face with a towel, and opened a pair of fascinating eyes.

Unbiased, facing the face of Chu’s late night.

And just the water at one end is on the face of Chu night. At this point, a drop of water was swaying down, smashing into his dark, sharp eyebrows, and then flowing down a little bit, almost dripping into the beautiful phoenix.

Chu nightning: "....."

Ink burning: "....."

This is really bad. I just had a potential underwater suffocation and could not see the surrounding situation.

Chu Evening also did not know the potential of this position, and came to take the incense box. As a result, the incense has not yet been obtained, and the person who suddenly came out splashed the water.

This hot spring is very deep, the buoyancy is not small, the ink is dizzy and dizzy, and it is ready to go backwards. As a result, the foot slips and falls into the night of Ning Huai.

"what!"

"..."

The author has something to say:

Today's small theater "The world in your ears is different from me"

Phoenix: It seems to be tight.

Little milk dog:! ! ? ? ! !

Phoenix children: Master, does it hurt?

Big white cat: Don't get in the way, let's go ahead.

Phoenix: I am lighter, I hurt you and told me.

Big white cat: 啰里啰嗦, do it, don't do it.

Small milk dog: Wang Wangwang! ! ! What are the muds doing! ! ! angry! ! Wang Wangwang!

Phoenix children: ... ah? I am giving the teacher a shoulder.

Little milk dog: That's tight, it means...

Phoenix: The muscles of the shoulders are tense, or what do you think is?

Little milk dog:.....

Years later.

Handsome and mighty second haha (does this kind of creature?): It seems to be tight.

Phoenix children:! ! ? ? ! !

Erha: Master, does it hurt?

Big white cat: Don't get in the way, let's go ahead.

Erha: I am lighter, I hurt you and told me.

Big white cat: 啰里啰嗦, do it, don't do it.

Phoenix children thought for a moment at the door and decided that Erha was giving the teacher a shoulder.

Hey~ Stupid, the hand is really big. Xiaofeng turned a blind eye, if he thought of it - pinch a shoulder, the teacher's voice seemed to be a bit hoarse, bad reviews, bad reviews.

He was shaking his feathers and didn't know that he had missed a chance to be a British bird savior (helpless)

Chapter 36

Chu night couldn’t think about it and reached out and held him. In the warm spring water, the two people's skin is close to each other, and the ink burns suddenly feels a spark current in the tail vertebrae, which makes the goose bumps.

Although he was in the red lotus otter, he also embraced the almost naked and naked Chu Xi Ning, but at that time the situation was critical. He didn’t care much about it, so he didn’t have much impression.

However, at this time, he put a hand on the chest of Chu Yuning, one hand still subconsciously supported the waist of the master, the underwater legs were all together, the other's skin became more slippery and warm in the spring, the ink burned The head banged and exploded.

He is late to Chu...

Just touched the other side's waist and did nothing, just...

The reaction was severe and the river surged.

"Master, Master, I-"

He struggled to stand up straight, but the already hot lower body had reached the other side in this rushed struggle.

Chu nightning’s eyes suddenly widened, and the beautiful face flashed with horror, and immediately retreated backwards. At the same time, the waterdrops hanging on his eyelashes broke into his eyes, and Chu’s night was so irritated. Quickly shut up, but did not have a bath towel with a wipe.

"Master use, use me."

The ink burned to death. He was red-faced, but he wanted to pretend that he was pretending to be okay. He took his own towel and wiped the water on his face.

When Chu was so happy that he opened his eyes, he was puzzled and confused. There was still a hint of panic. But these are all flashing, he quickly tried to calm down himself, and did not feel anything when he did anything, dumb voice: "Aromatherapy, hand me."

"Oh...oh, good."

The ink burned like a cooked crab and walked to the edge of the pool, picking up the aromatherapy box resting on the shore.

"What does the teacher want, what do you want?"

"casual."

The ink burned his head and swelled. He looked at the box blankly for a long time and turned his head sincerely: "There is no such thing as a casual spice."

Chu nightning: "..."

Suddenly, sighed: "Plum, sea otter."

"it is good."

The ink burned two pieces of fragrant pieces and handed them to the late night.

When the two touched their fingertips, they were again awkward.

Even if you don't want to, you still can't remember the memories of the past.

If it was before, he should have been entangled with him at the edge of the pool. In front of him, he even appeared that he was half-squatting in the night, squatting on the ground, bearing his own fiery heat, eager to be fierce and hot, and the master respected the stars. Half a sigh, not tremble, but still being climaxed by myself...

The ink burns can no longer stand, and the male instinctive desire makes his eyes red. He did not dare to look at Chu’s night again. He felt that even if he saw the teacher, he would be safer than watching Chu.

How could this be……

How can this be?

After hurriedly washing, the other three people are still soaking, and the ink burns vaguely that they are sleepy, and go back to sleep first.

Go back to the room and ruminant.

The ink burns can no longer be tolerated and relieves his own desires. He does not want to imagine the appearance of Chu Xi Ning at this time. He would rather the Tang Dynasty to imagine the teacher. This will also make his inner heart feel better.

But the body and thoughts are uncontrollable, and all the flashes in front of him are the joys of the neck and the night, and those passions that are bones are like being pulled open tonight, frantically rushing back into the brain. With a burst of turmoil.

He treated himself almost rudely, as if he was entangled in the man, and when he was on the verge of extinction, he raised his neck, and he was both unwilling and vague.

A name is subconsciously spit out of the throat.

"Late Ning..."

Speaking these two words, he snorted, shivering slightly, released without reservation, and the palms were wet...

After the vent, the ink burned his forehead against the cold wall. The eyes are full of confusion.

Shame, jealousy, disgust, and excitement.

He did not expect that he would have such a strong reaction to Chu Jingning after he was born again.

He suddenly hated himself very much.

Although, in the past life, he did not get a teacher, and his energetic energy was vented in the flowers. But the seemingly passionate love is actually nothing to him.

Turning off the candlelight is nothing but a cloud and rain, just like everyone else.

Even if it is a little bit of emotion, it is just because there is something like the eyebrows of the teacher.

But this kind of feeling for Chu Yuening is totally different. He can clearly realize that it is just imagination, not a true fusion, he can feel the strong pleasure that is not felt by those little monks, it is not physical, and...

He does not want to think deeply.

He loves the teacher, he used to be, and in the future, he will never change.

After repeatedly telling myself several times, the ink burned slowly and calmly, rubbing his brow and closing his eyes.

He is anxious and annoyed, and more is a kind of sadness.

He does not want this.

When he wants to come, he can't stop thinking about Chu Ningning. After the love and retreat, he is no longer willing to think of anything related to Chu Yuning, even if it is a hair, a look.

He is almost paranoid about what he likes and loves.

It’s a teacher...

In the same chaos, there is also Chu Zongshi.

After all, he intuitively and deeply felt the desire to burn, the young boy's body developed very well, it is very stunned, excited when it is hot and hot, like the iron ready to go.

Although Chu Xiaoning's face quickly returned to calm, and later did not mention it, but that feeling made his scalp numb, and could not believe it.

What made him more difficult was that he actually reacted at the time.

Fortunately, his face is thin, even if the hot springs are used to wearing a bathrobe, the whole body is blocked, there is no glimpse, or his face will have no place to rest.

Why is it possible to burn?

In the night, he was lying in bed, thinking for a long time silently, and did not dare to imagine - perhaps ink burning also likes himself.

This thought is too crazy and too shameful.

Just thinking carefully, "Maybe the ink burns like it too-"

The words "self" did not have time to show up in their minds, and Chu Ning would have slandered himself. A pair of phoenix eyes are bright and clear, but they are flashing and hiding.

He didn't even dare to think about this sentence.

After all, I am fierce and love to beat people, my mouth is poisonous and tempered, and I don’t look like a teacher. I am not too young. Even if I like men, I won’t look at myself.

He is so proud.

And his heart, in fact, has long been left out for too long because of being left out for too long. In such a long and lonely walk, he gradually became inferior to the dust.

Woke up the next day.

The ink-burning and Chu-nighting met in the inn of the inn. The two men looked at each other with a heart and looked at each other without talking to each other first.

In the end, it was the first thing that burned the ink, and smiled at the late night: "Master."

Chu night was relieved. He didn't know how to deal with it. Seeing that the ink burned and chose not to talk about yesterday's business, then he just happened to be good, as usual, nodded.

"Since it is up, let's call the teacher too. If we are ready, we can go to Xu Yingfeng."

Xu Yingfeng top snow all year round, very cold, even if it is a strong and strong person who cultivates immortals, it is difficult to be so cold. Chu Xiening went to the tailor shop to buy the cold cloak and gloves for the apprentices, so that they could wait until they were cold.

The proprietress who smoked the hookah bag squatted around Zhu Hong’s mouth and smacked it with a sigh of relief. “Small fairy is so good and heroic, you look at the black gold dragon and the water is big, this embroidery is good, the light is This dragon eye, I have been carefully crafted and embroidered for more than three months to complete."

The ink burned and laughed: "My sister's mouth is really sweet, but unfortunately I am going to the mountains to seek a sword. I don't have to wear such a serious thing."

The proprietress saw this and failed, and pulled the teacher: "Hey, this fairy can look so beautiful, and it is more beautiful than the most beautiful girl in the city. Xianjun, I want to say, this butterfly The red cloak of the peony is the best for you, give it a try?"

The teacher smiled bitterly: "The boss wife, that is what the daughter's family wears."

Xue Meng did not like to go shopping to see clothes, and he refused to come over and was only waiting in the same place. Chu nightning chose a cloak with a purple-purple edge for him, and the wind pockets were surrounded by white rabbits.

The proprietress said: "Xianjun, this dress is a little bit worn, and the shape of the boy is almost the same."

Chu night Ning faintly said: "I bought it for my apprentice."

"Oh, oh oh." The proprietress suddenly realized, and immediately smiled. "It's a good master."

Perhaps the first time in his life was called "good master", Chu night Ning body shape is stiff, although his face is stretched, but when walking, he has several steps with his hands.

Finally, the ink burned a gray cloak, the teacher was white, and Chu Ning took a piece of plain white, a black-purple purple edge, and settled, and went to Xuemeng.

When Xue Meng looked at his cloak, his eyes widened.

Chu night is not clear, so: "What?"

"No, nothing."

However, when Chu Ning turned his head and went far away, Xue Meng thought that he could not hear it. He looked at the rim of the cloak quite disgustedly and whispered: "Purple? I don't like purple."

However, it was unexpected that Chu’s voice was cold and cold: “Hey, don’t wear you naked.”

Xue Meng: "....."

Unhurriedly rushed to the last section of the road, the four people finally reached the foot of Xu Yingfeng before the sky darkened.

Xu Yingfeng is full of spiritual power, and there are many birds and beasts. Even if they are Taoist priests, they don’t have a few pounds and they don’t dare to go up the mountain.

However, there is a late night in the Chu, but this is not to worry, Chu nightning condensed three nights of sea bream out of the air, there is the effect of repelling evil spirits, wearing in the waist of the three apprentices, and then said: "Go. ""

The ink burned and looked up, and looked at the hidden peaks in the night, the ancient monsters were dead and lying, and the end of the thousand thousand feelings poured into my heart.

That year, he was in the sun and moon of Xu Yingfeng, the demon ghost, his ink is not satisfied with the cultivation of the real world, step by step, to be self-proclaimed the Lord of the human world.

Also in that year, at Xu Yingfeng, he also married a wife.

He still remembers the face of the wife, Song Qiutong, the beautiful beauty of the comprehension, the five senses look from a certain angle, like a very teacher.

He is not a person who cares about etiquette and shame. He did not follow the cumbersome rules of the three media. At that time, he took Song Qiutong’s fibrin hand and took the woman with the red towel, and climbed up the stairs. They have been gone for more than an hour.

Later, Song Qiutong’s leg hurts and he can’t walk.

Ink temper is also bad, smashing her hijab will murder her.

However, under the moonlight, Song Qiutong had a pair of grievances and sorrows, like the old man who turned into a nine-spring bone.

The disgusting words condensed in the mouth, trembling a little, and finally said that the export is:

"Sir, I will come back to you."

Song Qiutong is based on his seniority. If he is the same door as him, he is indeed his sister. Therefore, she is only a slight glimpse of this title. She also burned the door of Confucianism, and naturally put the Confucianism into the door of death and death. The teacher and sister are not uncomfortable, so they smiled and said, "Okay."

The last few thousand steps, stepping on Xianjun, the Lord of the Human World, the King of Darkness, is such a step by step, steady carrying the bride of the red dress and the peak.

He lowered his head and stared at the mottled figure on the ground, the weird posture, overlapping.

He smiled and his throat was dumb: "Sister, I am the human king in the future. From now on, no one can hurt you any more."

The woman who was behind him didn't know what to say, hesitated for a while, and whispered low.

The voice is very light, perhaps because it is too light, the female voice is not so obvious, it sounds a bit fuzzy.

The burnt eyes were red in the place where no one saw it. He said lowly: "Sorry, this day, let you wait too long."

Song Qiutong also said that she liked her for a long time, so she said softly: "The husband..."

The sound of the woman's voice, the clear and crisp, like the Guerlain, is very good.

The smoldering footsteps suddenly slammed.

"what happened?"

"……It's nothing."

Going forward, the smoldering voice is no longer hoarse, and the faint trembling is exhausted.

After a pause, he said: "It will be good to call me a fire later."

Song Qiutong was quite surprised. He was not very daring to call it Xianjun. He hesitated: "Fei Jun, this... I am afraid..."

The tone of the smoldering sound is fiercely fierce: "If you don't listen, I will throw you from the top of the mountain!"

"A, Ah Burn!" Song Qiutong was busy changing his way. "A burning, I am wrong."

The ink burns no longer speaks.

He lowered his head and silently kept on moving forward.

The shadow on the ground is still a shadow.

When you look at it later, you will find that it is really just a shadow.

The mirrors are all fake.

What he has, in the end, is only a phantom.

It is vain.

"Teacher."

"Well?" The person walking next to the ink burned his head. Wan Ye thousand sounds, the grass is rustling, the moon shines on his stunning face, "A burning, what's wrong?"

"You... are you tired?" The ink burned and looked at Chu Yuning and Xue Meng in front, and whispered, "If you are tired, I will take you back."

The teacher had not spoken yet, and Chu Ning had turned back.

He sighed coldly and sighed with a sigh of relief: "Is the teacher's leg broken? Do you need it?"

The teacher hurriedly said: "Master, A-burn is just a joke, don't be angry."

Chu night Ning lowered his eyebrows, his eyebrows were sharp, his eyes faintly glaring: "Silly, I have something to be angry."

After a long sleeve, let go.

Ink burning: "....."

Teacher: "....."

"Master is not happy..."

"He is a person who doesn't know you." The ink burned in the ear of the teacher. "The heart is smaller than the tip of the needle, and he is cold-blooded and ruthless. He does not allow other brothers and brothers to be respectful."

After wrinkling his nose, he lowered his voice and concluded: "Specially annoying."

In the front, Chu Ning suddenly screamed: "Ink rain, you can say one more word, believe it or not, I will drop you down the mountain!"

The ink burned like a smug shut, but he secretly squinted his eyes with a grin, and moved his mouth:

Look, I am not wrong?

The author has something to say:

Today, the teacher of the School of Comprehension has arranged an assignment for the students, using the phrase "no possibility".

Ink burning: I like a person, is it like his flesh? Body? Nothing is possible.

Chu nightning: I like a person, do you have to say it? Nothing is possible.

Teacher: Is my appearance similar to that of a girl? Nothing is possible.

Xue Meng: As a straight man, am I willing to wear a purple cloak? Nothing is possible.

Mrs. Wang: As a straight man, wouldn't you be naked and climbing with three bases? Nothing is possible.

Xue Zhengxuan: Yuheng elders are so calcium, will there be a straight man under his seat? Nothing is possible.

Song Qiutong: As a cannon fodder, will the emperor in this life marry me? Nothing is possible.

Meat package: Erha is so scum today, there will be no little angels in the comment area to marry him? Nothing is possible.

Chapter 37

"The cold moon reflects the frost snow, the cold mountain holds the ice pool. Eight thousand high sorghum is not allowed, and the end of the world is this time."

Xue Meng wore buckskin gloves, went to the snow on the boulder, read the cinnabar inscription on the top, and turned back and said: "Master, we are here."

The rising sun peaks all the year round, and at this time, a round of 婵 高 高 高 凛凛 凛凛 凛凛 凛凛 凛凛 凛凛 凛凛 高Falling down, the stars are plunging, and the end is magnificent. It’s really like walking to the end of the world.

A group of people came to the lake, and the smooth mirror-like lake was filled with magnificent light. There was a stone embankment that led to the lake. There is a stone monument standing beside the embankment. The frost on the monument is condensed, and the stone pattern is vertical and horizontal. Only the four scripts are difficult to make. paint.

Chu nightning stopped in front of the stone embankment and said: "Jin Chengchi asks for a sword. You can only enter one person at a time. Who are you going first?"

Xue Meng can't wait to say: "Master, I will go first!"

Chu night Ning looked at him, thought for a moment, and shook his head: "You act rashly, I don't trust."

At this time, the teacher on the side smiled and said: "Master, I will go first, anyway, I probably can't open the ice pool."

On the vast ice lake, the division walked slowly to the end along the stone embankment that only allowed one person to pass.

In accordance with the rules, he condensed a force in his hands, and then leaned over and put the palm of his hand on the ice. The spiritual power of the teacher continued to pass down the ice, and the white light in the distance was bright and dark. The ground is flashing.

The ink-burning screen is in the same place, and the ten fingers don't feel tight and fall into the palm of your hand.

However, the teacher tried it for a long time at the lake, and the ice lake still remained intact. He smiled and walked back, and said to him lately, "Sister, sorry."

"It's okay, try it for a few years."

The ink sighed slightly and was lost than both of them, but still comforted the teacher and said: "It doesn't matter, there is still a chance, I will come back with you next time."

Chu night Ningdao: "Don't talk so much, go up, it's your turn."

In the past life, the ink burned to seek the sword, it was a frivolous boy, and he was infinitely expecting for the gods. However, in this world, he only came to take the sword. He already knew what was waiting for himself in front of him. He did not have the kind of tension and expectation. But there is a kind of warmth that will reunite with old friends.

Walk on the stone embankment and kneel in front of the ice lake.

Bend down and touch the ice on the palm.

The ink burns and closes the eyes.

His non-sheathed knife...

The sinful blade that accompanied him to see the world of flowers and taste the blood of the world -

When I opened it, the ink burned against the lake and said: "No, I am coming."

As if perceived by the host of the fate, Jin Chengchi suddenly raised a huge black shadow under the ice, and the shadows hovered under the ice, becoming more and more clear and more vivid.

Suddenly, thousands of feet of ice smashed and cracked, and the ink burned away to hear Xuemeng’s exclamation on the shore, and his voice was far from smelling.

"Ice is gone!!"

The tide is raging and the pool is full of water. A blue-black dragon smashed out, each dragon scale was wide and seven feet wide. When the time came, the Jincheng pool surface flooded, the water mist smashed, and the dragon ran a brilliance under the moonlight, spurting a breath.

At the same time, an ancient enchantment fell on the edge of the pool, separating Chu and others from the ink.

Within the enchantment, one person looks at each other.

The ink burned his eyes, greeted the sky, and looked up at the dragon.

I saw that there was a dark knife in the mouth of the dragon. There was no scabbard. The blade of the ancient scorpion was thick but sharp, and it was broken. The dragon turned the Modao into a size suitable for mortals, slowly bowing down the radiant dragon body, and resting the knife in front of the ink.

But it didn't immediately look up, but stared at each other with the * eyes and the eyes of two adult men.

The eyes of the dragon are like bronze mirrors on both sides, clearly reflecting the reflection of the ink. The ink burned the screen and waited for it to speak.

If things don't change, then he just needs to go to the foot of the mountain and fold a plum to send it to him. The old dragon climbs the sturdy, but it makes the ink burnt and cheap.

Unexpectedly, after waiting for a long time, this dragon is not like a past life. It is easy to give him the weapon. Instead, the dragon must dance, a pair of big and sturdy jaundice will rise, then it lifts its front paw and burns in the ink. On the snow in front of you, write two words:

mortal?

The ink burns.

He clearly remembers that this dragon in the past life can speak. Why did this world become dumb?

Dumb dragon wrote these two words, and immediately denied himself, erased the handwriting with the fat scale claws, and wrote another string:

No, mortals will not have such a strong aura, then, are you Protoss?

Ink burning: "..."

The old dragon thought for a moment, put the pendulum, and wrote:

Not God, you have evil spirits. Are you a ghost family?

Ink burning heart, what a mess! This seat is just a rebirth, there is nothing to think about, just take the knife of this seat!

The old dragon seemed to see through his eagerness, and suddenly lifted the dragon claws of the scales, and suddenly smashed the knives under the claws, and the other claw wiped the original traces, adding another snow. Continue to write:

Don't be surprised. I saw two other ghosts in you, which is hard to see. Are you a ghost or a god? Is God a demon?

The ink burned and raised his eyebrows: "Of course I am a human. Is this still used?" It is just a person who has died once.

The old dragon paused and wrote: The soul of a person splits like this. This is really unseen and unheard of.

The smoldering of the smoldering head is dull and can't help but laugh: "What is so strange, but it is the predecessor, what is your knife, how can you give it to me?"

The old dragon looked at him for a while and wrote:

Then you stand still and don't move, let me cast a spell on your soul, I will give you the knife, okay?

"..."

I didn't expect it to raise such a request. Under the slightest smoldering, I was really hesitant.

He was thinking, what would happen if this old thing could see his life?

But it is not in the eyes. This is the weapon of the strange knife. It is a rare weapon of the world. If it is rejected, it will be impossible to think about it later.

I don’t have to worry about it, the ink burns up and asks: "It can be, but the predecessors, whether you look at me or not, will you be willing to give me the knife?"

The old dragon draws one stroke:

This is the rule, naturally it will not renege.

Is it good or evil in the past?

The old dragon paused for a while and then wrote:

Even if you are evil in the past, I can't stop it. I only hope that you will be good in the future.

The ink burned and smiled and said: "Well, since the predecessors said so, then I naturally have nothing to push. Please ask the predecessors to cast a look."

The old dragon raised his body slightly, and bowed the radiant dragon body, spurting a breath, followed by a bright red glow on the eyes.

The ink burned up and found that the red light was actually a mist. The blood is getting deeper and gradually concealing his reflection. After a long while, when the fog slowly spread, the old dragon’s eyes reappeared in his own standing figure.

Only this time, the ink burned and found that the longan, in addition to himself, also reflected two other vague shadows, right and left, secluded behind his back.

The ink burned and was shocked. He turned to look at it immediately, but he was empty behind him, and there was a white snow. Where are the other people?

Turning around again, the two people in the longan became more and more clear, like things sinking under the water slowly surfaced, and the ink burned and stared for a while, suddenly felt that the two shadows seemed familiar. He couldn't help but go up two steps, and the two illusions in the longan suddenly turned from a closed state to a blink of an eye!

Teacher!

Chu nightning? !

I didn’t expect that it would be them. The stun of the ink burns is not the same thing. Two steps, backwards backwards, I can’t say the complete words: “How—this is—”

The three people in the old longan stood quietly, calm and without any expression, so they stared at the distance in peace.

The ink burned extremely, and after a while, the red blood fog rose again, and the shadow in the dragon began to blur from clarity and finally disappeared.

The old dragon snorted, the dragon had to shake, and then quickly wrote:

I can't see through it. I have seen it all my life. I have never seen someone else's soul with the imprint of two other people. It’s really weird.

"I, my soul... have their mark?"

Yes.

After writing the word, the old dragon stopped for a moment and wrote:

I don't know what happened to you. How deep is the obsession, can you be entangled with others in the soul?

The ink burned and stared at the twisted lines on the snow, as if they were being shackled, and the face slowly rose red.

His obsession with the teacher's enthusiasm went deep into the bone marrow, even if he was engraved in the soul, even if the old dragon saw that he could even see the teacher, he felt that it was no big deal.

But Chu Yuning... What happened?

What do he have to obey Chu night?

Isn't excessive hatred a tangled thing?

This one person was immersed in meditation, so that the lake in Jinchengchi had a slight fold of strangeness, which they never found.

When the sky is breaking through the sky and the waves are breaking, everything is already late.

I saw the lake in Jinchengchi as if it had been cut into two pieces by a knife and axe, and it was sprayed directly into the sky. In the frenzy of the waves, the two black-pressed beasts rushed out. They were leopards, but they were not as good as the old dragon. The body is huge, but the skull on the skull is cold and the four claws are cold. Hundreds of people gathered together, but the old dragon was not afraid, and looked at Huang Wei.

Ink burning: "What happened?"

The old dragon paused and wrote: Gou Chen Shanggong.

As soon as you read these four words, you will be struck by lightning when you burn.

Gou Chen Shanggong's main killing, and the world's weapons. This first * created the first sword in the world, helping the scorpion to smash the konjac.

The predecessor of the prestige is actually these hundreds of cows?

It was too horrifying, and the ink was really unacceptable, and the outside was stunned and tender, and suddenly I heard a scream of the sky.

It is a very old instrumental music. In their time, not many people have played it. As the snoring gradually approached, the beasts that rushed to the stagnation slowly stagnated, and finally the first leg smashed the front legs and stood on both sides. When the tide of the beasts dispersed, a man wearing a Chinese costume and carrying a long sword rode on the unicorn.

The man's face was handsome, his eyes were clear, and he had a very gentle face.

He stood in the wind, night snow added, the clothes pendulum soft and fluttering, the instrument in the hands of the pottery color is dark, the ten fingers gently press the eyelet, and play it in the mouth.

As the last sound ceased quietly, a hundred cows suddenly turned into water, and they were actually condensed by illusion. I saw the man put down the pottery, looked back and forth, and then smiled softly: "It is indeed a strange person who has never met a million years. It is no wonder that the moon will be curious about you. In the lower hook Chen Shanggong, living in Jinchengchi. This pool The middle of the blade is made by me. The worm is a little skill, I laughed."

Although the old dragon wrote it again, the man said it himself, but the ink burn was still unbelievable, and the color changed: "Are you going to go to the palace?"

The man is not intolerant and smiles: "It is just down."

The ink burns is suffocating: "...is the Lord of the soldiers?"

"Yeah." Gou Shanggong gently raised his eyebrows and smiled in his eyes. "The later generations seem to call me like this. It’s really awkward, but it’s nothing to do, grinding a knife and wrapping a little whip or something. Read it."

Ink burning: "....."

It is really annoying to be a humble person. Chu nightning is calm and self-sufficient to say, "I have three martial arts." This hook is more annoying, and the weapons I created are called "small knives" and "small whips." How does he care that Emperor Fuxi is called "the little old man"?

The ink burned for a long time and then slowed down and said: "That, what, then you should not be in the realm of God? How is this in this pool..."

"I like to knock and beat, and often stir up the quietness of the Emperor. It is better to ask for it than to be in the eyes of God."

.....

The ink burned without words: "How long have you been here?"

Gou Chen Shang Palace was slightly contemplative, and then smiled: "It's okay, but it's only a few hundred years."

"...a few hundred years." The ink burned it over and laughed. "I don't think God is a little long?"

Gou Chen Shanggong cloud lightly smiles and smiles, not too carelessly waved his sleeves.

"It's not too long. What's more, after the sword was built by the Emperor of Heaven, I lost a lot of power. In the realm of the gods, it is also boring, but it is much better here."

Although the ink burning is quite curious about this legendary * of killing, it is not good to ask private matters. After thinking about it, I feel that another thing is more important. So I said, "God, you will come out to see me today, not Just because I see my soul special?"

"How can't you? Your spiritual power is rare, it is rare." Gou Chen Shanggong smiled. "I only give you this strange knife, I am afraid that it is a curse."

Ink burning: "Ha ha, okay, I am very good at this knife."

"At first glance, I think so." Gou Shanggong said with a smile. "After careful identification, I found out that it is not. Your qualifications are rare, which makes me curious, so I came out this time and wanted to invite you to the bottom of the lake. Syria. I want to be among the millions of soldiers, and it’s best for you."

"....."

This kind of shock can be described as a trivial matter. Even though it is more knowledgeable, it is also a bit embarrassing.

The Lord of the Armed Forces, actually ask yourself to go... pick weapons?

Gou Chen Shanggong saw that he did not speak, and thought that he was afraid of going to the heart, so he said: "You have to worry, although the underwater is very strange, but they all obey me, the decision will not hurt you. The moon can be a testimony ""

The old dragon did not say anything, and slowly began to stand on the side.

When I saw that he really was sincerely invited, he couldn’t help but jolt and said: "If I go, can God promise me a request?"

"any request?"

"The person who asks for the sword is my best friend." The ink burned, pointing to the shore after the enchantment, and showed him the teacher. "He just wants the sword, so I think if I am satisfied." With God's wish, can God also satisfy my wish and give him a weapon?"

"What I am, this is just a matter of raising my hand." Gou Shanggong laughed, and suddenly waved his hand, and the ancient enchantment of Tongtian disappeared.

"It's very easy. Let them all come over. If there is a fancy weapon, it will be taken."

The ink burned overjoyed, but I didn’t expect to break through the iron shoes in such a way that it would take no effort. The sergeant can get the martial arts, which is more exciting than the weapon he will get even more powerful. I immediately agreed to go to Chen Shanggong, and when they came to the teacher, they told the three people again. The eyes of the teacher and Xue Meng grew bigger and bigger, and even the night of the night was slightly moved.

Gou Chen Shanggong looked at it, suddenly realized what he was aware of, "Well?" and stunned, and stared at Chu Yuning.

"It's you?"

Chapter 38

The lateness of Chu’s lateness is the same as that of the gods. He faintly said: “God knows me?”

"Why don't you recognize it." Gou Shanggong said with a gentle smile. "A few years ago, you came to Jincheng Pool and asked for a sword. The spirit is so deep and pure. I almost couldn't help but come out to see you. How? Is it still easy to use?"

"Which is God saying?"

"... ah." Gou Shanggong slightly stunned, and then smiled. "Hey, I remember this, I forgot to give you two."

Chu night Ningdao: "No problem. Good question."

"Day to ask?"

"That is the willow."

"Oh. It turned out to be the case." Gou Shanggong said with a smile. "You named it Tiantian? Is there a hand? What is it?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Nine songs."

"How about the nine songs?"

"The cold is heavy and there is not much used."

Gou Shanggong sighed: "It's a little bit a pity."

Here, after the completion of the story, Gou Chen Shanggong turned his head back and said: "Look at the moon, I will take them down. The water is weak, it is not good for you, and you will go back earlier."

The old dragon nodded, and he screamed at the huge waves, the dragon scales shining, and the dragons came into the distance.

At the same time, Chu Evening had laid a water-avoiding spell on the other three, and Chen Chen went to see him in the palace. He couldn’t help but watch Chu’s eyes, his heart: the monk’s head, rarely seen the technique like him. So skillful. I don't know who he is?

However, Chu Yuning was not willing to talk with people about non-nonsense, and Chen did not want to ask for fun. When everyone was ready, they waded together and sneaked into the cold Jincheng pool.

With the spell, the action of burning their ink is no different from that on the shore. As they dive to the bottom, a vast underwater world is gradually revealed.

The bottom of the lake is covered with a large piece of soft white sand, and the water and grass are flying, and the buildings with exquisite structure are row upon row. Street lanes, strange spirits and fairy demon walks and walks, and some strange things that are impossible to live together in the mortal world are safe and sound here.

Gou Chen Shanggong said: "Jin Chengchi is rich in spirit and self-contained. The souls are here, and often the generations do not migrate. Therefore, there are many things that are different from human beings. If you are interested, you can look around."

As they spoke, they saw a white-skinned, white-eyed rabbit riding on a white-tailed tiger. The rabbit was dressed in a white robe, graceful and luxurious, and looked proud and arrogant, and kept yelling at the tiger and going faster. And then look at the tiger, but the eyebrows are low-eyed, and the eyebrows are blinking.

Everyone can’t help but be speechless: “.....”

Gou Shanggong took them to the main trail, the shops on both sides were crowded and dazzling, and the traffic was full of disenchantment, and a long way to go to the downtown area.

“Jin Chengchi rarely communicates with the outside world, and most of the items needed are exchanged here.”

Xue Mengdao: "The rumor that Jin Chengchi is your blood, so that they are all dependent on your spiritual strength, then you must be the owner of this place?"

"The master can't count it." Gou Shanggong faintly laughed. "The years have passed too long. I have been away from the realm for many years, and the spiritual power is no longer the past. The things that open up the world are now like a dream, with How much relationship do I have now? At this moment, you are just a small swordsman."

He said, taking everyone around in the downtown area. Those who lived at the bottom of the pool and go to the palace to go to the palace together, have gradually forgotten the identity of his first god, see him came, and there is no special reaction, only self-selling and selling.

"The fish is bloody, the fish is just out of the cage."

"The snake's snake, the top clothes, the last three feet, and the seller will wait for the slave to lick the skin next time."

"Selling the squid scorpion, this young master's ink that he just spit this morning, it's better to take a picture of it with a scorpion - oh, don't leave the little lady."

The screams in the market are endless, and the wonders of the wonders are even more dazzling.

The headless ghost is sitting in front of the stall selling the comb powder, a pair of long red nails with a long nail holding a corner comb, putting his * head on his knees, combing his hair while gently saying: "The bones of the best Comb, take the guest with you."

Xue Meng’s eyes widened and he looked around. He saw a pharmacy next to him. The people who came and went to work were all sluts. They sold all the rare medicines they had never seen before. They thought that their mothers loved to cherish the herbs. Going to see it in the near future, I heard a sharp and screaming voice behind me and shouted: "Let's let one let, let one let! Let me pass!"

Xue Meng's feet shrank and turned to look at it, but he couldn't see a half-personal shadow. Gou Shanggong smiled and said: "Be at your feet. You will be careful again."

Otherwise, Xue Meng looked at it again and saw a bunch of tiny stones walking on his own.

"It’s really open, the stone will walk. Is the stone fine?” Xue Meng said.

Chu nightning said: "Hey."

"Fuban?"

"..." Chu night Ning looked at him faintly. "It’s not a matter of ink burning, why don’t you even concentrate on it?"

Xue Meng Xi Wu concentrated on the subject, but the history of literature and learning is careless, only hindering the majesty of Chu Yuning, the style of the book is also sitting, but in fact, the left ear into the right ear, now the master has grasped a current, Suddenly red face.

The ink burns and smiles: "The teacher said this, I am not happy. I really listened carefully."

Xue Meng is not convinced: "Oh? Then what do you listen to?"

"Oh, it is a kind of worm. The nature is very greedy. If you see a beautiful stone, you want to go back to your body. In the end, it is often crushed to death by the stone scorpion that you have picked up."

The ink burned and smiled at the night.

"Master, you said that what I said is wrong."

Chu Xiaoning nodded, and then said: "Hey, the world has disappeared, I can't think there is still left."

Gou Chengong heard it and smiled: "This is because of a small pharmacy, so it can survive. You are, there is it."

I saw that a little bit of laboriously moved to the pharmacy's steps, suddenly shouted: "I can't stand it! Come and save a life!"

He quickly swam out a green scorpion. He apparently handled this situation countless times. He took a white porcelain bottle and poured some golden red potions on his body. He smiled and said: "Foolish. The public harvest today seems to be quite rich?"

It was only called Yugong’s snoring, and the voice was lazy. It was obviously very comfortable under the moisturizing of the potion: “Hey, it’s still good, it’s still good, and I will go back one hundred yuan tomorrow.

There are 400 million in the house. Eighty-five thousand six hundred and seventy-seven stones."

Ink burning: "....."

Chu nightning: "....."

The teacher whispered: "Is it so much?"

The green scorpion gave a potion and said: "You can remember to come here early tomorrow. I think if you are late, I will give you this booster dew, and I am afraid it will not work."

"Know it, I know. Come early, come early." He had two sounds in the perfunctory, and suddenly he took a fancy yellow stone and a beautiful stone. Ah--No, it’s a doctor, the stone on the other side is going up, I’m tired of picking it up on my back. So tomorrow I have 408,680 stones. ""

Xue Meng couldn't help but walked over and asked, "What do you want with so many stones? Make a house?"

The sound of the high-pitched voice of the toes was heard from the sarcophagus, and it was sharp and sharp: "What? Mortal? Hey, I have never seen a mortal for many years - what do you ask me to do with the stone? Of course not The house, I can be so boring!"

The teacher can't help but wonder: "What do you do with them?"

I am arrogant and arrogant: "Numbers!"

"....."

Everyone has nothing to say.

After a short walk, Gou Shanggong led them back to their homes.

In the corner of the street, a huge shell erected like a wall. After admission, I was admitted to the hospital. I saw that the hospital was divided into six entrances and was spacious. The ballroom hall, the porch garden, the bead curtain woven with seaweed and pearl string sway gently with the waves. Some of the rooms are dark, some are lit, and there is a dim candlelight inside, and there is still a faint sigh and a snoring.

Like the pharmacy, the servants in the upper house are also monks.

Some of the monks kept their tails, and some made the dragon tails into legs for the convenience of walking. They were still not used to wearing shoes, and they walked on the ground with their feet.

Gou Chengong sees the four people in the look of the strange, they smiled a little, like a cloud: "You must be strange, I am good with the moon, live together. He used to be the Prince of the East China Sea, these servants are him After he settled here, he came with him."

The moon is the black dragon.

Because the past life was from the black scorpion, it was the most gracious to the black scorpion. How much is the most affectionate to it. Listening to Chen Shanggong said, "Where is he?" When he is such a giant, he should be transformed after returning to the bottom of the water. Alright? Otherwise, you can live there."

Gou Shanggong nodded and said with pleasure: "This is natural, but when he is old, he has more physical strength and he has only taken a look at the water. He should have rested now. If you want to see him, you have to wait for him. Wake up and go."

When he spoke, a brown long-haired monk floated away. He bent down and bowed to the palace. The opening was an elegant and ethereal voice:

"God is coming back. His Royal Highness has told the story to him. Is God going to take the guests to the arsenal immediately?"

Gou Shanggong did not answer first, but gently looked at the guests first. When I saw four people without any opinions, I nodded. "So good, and you are bothering to make some small dishes in the kitchen, waiting for our arsenal. After the return, I will open a feast."

Everyone walked through the courtyard deep, and came to the last one. I saw a crown of giant willows in the center of the hospital. Xu was different from the mortal. This willow tree had only ten adult males, and the bark was thick. The old man is sturdy, and the wicker is falling, like a green gauze.

Xue Meng’s voice is dry: “Wow, how long has this tree been?”

Gou Chen Shanggong said: "It has never been measured, but there are always more than 100,000 years."

Xue Meng was shocked: "What kind of tree species can actually live for so long?"

"The age of the trees is originally longer than the people, not to mention that it is nourished by the aura of Jin Chengchi, so there is nothing strange about it. Please follow me, the entrance of the arsenal is in this willow tree hole." Chen Shanggong said, suddenly stopped to look at Xue Meng.

"Try not to touch the weeping branches. This tree is already fine, it will hurt."

But this is a bit late, Xue Meng has picked up the leaves.

I only heard his "ah" screaming, and at the same time there was a whisper in the air, and there seemed to be a hoarse voice sighing - "哎哟".

Xue Meng is like a lightning strike, quickly throwing out the leaves, lost color: "What is going on? How is this blood?"

Sure enough, the branches of the willow branches broke out of blood, and the leaves that he had left were like life. They twitched on the ground. After a while, they gradually calmed down, lying in the distance, and quickly scorched.

Gou Chen Shanggong reluctantly said: "All said that it has become fine. How can Xiaogongzi still..." He shook his head and looked up at the broken branch, urging the spiritual power to calm the coagulation of the willow.

Chu night Ningdao: "Xue Meng, come to me. Don't move again."

"Yes, Master." Xue Meng made a mistake and had to pull his head.

Fortunately, this episode did not cause much trouble. Chu nightning apologized to Gou Chengong, the other party was not the first god, but also generous, only smiled: "This little son's hands and feet are too fast. Something."

Xue Meng's face rose red, and he walked behind the night in the late night, and did not say anything. During the talk, a group of people walked through the lush weeping willows and came to the thick trunk. Looking closely at the front, they found that the willow tree was bigger and bigger than when it was far away. At first it was thought that ten men could hold together. At this time, it was discovered that it really underestimated its roughness.

There is a tree hole between the willows. It is not so much a tree hole as it is a huge arch. The width and height are enough for three strong men to pass at the same time. In front of the tree hole, there were several complicated enchantments. Gou Chen Shanggong solved them one by one, and then smiled back and said: "The inside is the arsenal of the gods. Some are small and messy, please don't laugh."

Instinct is curious, and he will go in after the Chen Shang Palace. Chu nightning seems to inadvertently take him behind, faintly said: "You are slower." He is the first to come.

He is so ruthless, and his burning is very familiar. When the four men and women in the previous life killed and blamed the sorcerer, Chu Xiening always walked at the forefront. At that time, he only had a temper and temper, and he was proud and unwilling to fall. Behind the younger generation. However, today's ink is alive and well, and the thoughts are not the same as before. He looked at the night of the night, and the white robes disappeared into the darkness of the tree hole, and suddenly there was a slight hesitation in his heart—

This person is rushing ahead, is it really because of sexual anger?

The author has something to say:

Start looking for weapons and add information on the three people's used weapons.

Chu nightning:

Have a day to ask, nine songs, Huaisha three gods.

Master is good at mech, enchantment, attack, and treatment. However, the individual defense is extremely poor. In exchange for the game, he is a crispy high-explosive dps mad dog.

Ink burning:

In the past life, there was no return to the gods. In this chapter, only the junior disciples broke the sword.

The emperor is good at the first major ban in the realm of cultivation, and the attack and defense are not low. In exchange for the game, he is a smooth output that will not make any noise.

Xue Meng:

Dragon City is not a martial art, but it is also a superb machete cast by Kunlun Tengxue Palace.

The young master completely inherits the master, and is a high-attack, high-breaking mad dog. Because he does not enchant, the defense is worse than the master.

Teacher:

The treatment relied on one hand and asked him if he had no weapons.

Chapter 39

Going into the cave, there is a narrow ramp. They stepped on the steps of the talc at the bottom of the lake, and the greasy touch permeated from the soles of the feet to the heart. Walking through this section of the road, the eyes are dark and bright, and suddenly bright.

The arsenal of the "small mess" in the mouth of Chen Shanggong is completely different from the size that seems to be there. This ancient wood is very broad. Who knows that the caves inside are even more important, and there is no land, and the truss is sturdy and towering. Everyone looked up and saw that they couldn’t see the dome. The rows of shelves that were placed on the world’s weapon were arrogant and arrogant.

In the center of the arsenal, a smelting pool with a heat wave rolling in it, with orange and red iron in it, and a razor blade that has not been cast is immersed in it. The weapons made by Chen Shanggong are better than the purple electric cream. The temperature of the monks can't destroy the half points. On the contrary, the blade is more and more fascinating, and the dragon shines.

The most wonderful thing is the various parts of the airborne whirlpool, which are influenced by the array of ancient woods and can shuttle themselves.

Those tiny flower pieces, inlaid jewels, are like the spirits of the demon spirits, flying all over the sky, occasionally colliding, rubbing out the sparks, pleasing to the ear.

Gou Chengong went back to the palace and smiled slightly: "The place is a little smaller, right?"

Teacher: "..."

Uh.

Xue Meng: "..."

small? What is big?

Ink burning: "..."

I have a sentence for you, my mother, I don’t know if I’m not talking about it.

Chu nightning: "..."

Gou Chen Shanggong ordered Xue Meng and Shi Yi to randomly choose among them. If there is a fancy, take one away. As for the ink burning, Gou Chen was very interested in him. He changed several soldiers to him, but he was not too good.

"Feng Ming Jiao tail." Handed the fourteenth weapon, and Chen Shanggong was not discouraged. "Try this."

Ink burning: "This... I can't pass the temperament."

"It's okay, just take two strokes."

The ink burned in the front section of the bright, the tail of the black guqin played a few times, who knows that the string tremor can not be condensed, turned into a sharp tone.

Gou Chengong immediately threw Fengming aside, and the curse cast the guqin back and changed a jasper.

Ink burning: "...this is all right." He is a big man, what is the mother-in-law's bombing, this kind of thing will also be done by the small white face of the Kunlun Snow Palace.

Gou Shanggong insisted: "Try."

"...well." The ink burned, but he had to pick it up and follow the instructions, but he seemed to be more resentful. He didn't play twice, but he actually broke the string.

"..."

Gou Chengong stared at the broken string and said for a long time: "Do you know what this string does?"

Ink burning: "...you don't want me to pay for it?"

"Wushan goddess's white hair." Gou Chen Shanggong muttered, "The sword is constantly, the fire is burning, it is the essence of earth spirit. You actually...you..."

The ink-burning head turned horrified: "Master! I have no money to pay for him!"

Chu nightning: "..."

Gou Chen Shanggong smashed the long strings and said to himself: "Mu Ke Tu, you can destroy the essence of the earth, is it suitable for your weapon, is the essence of wood spirit?"

"what?"

"I shouldn't..." Gou Chengong, I don't know why, I took a look at the night. Chu Xiaoning caught his gaze and asked: "What should not?"

Gou Shanggong did not answer immediately, but raised a hand and called out the pottery to slowly sing. As the snoring began to fall, the top of the scorpion suddenly split a blood red summoning circle.

"Ji Baihua, you come out."

The ink burned up and slammed his head, and Xue Meng and Shi Shi were also attracted by the excitement here. I saw the hook of Chen Shanggong's fingertips, running the complex array of zeniths, and then, a fox fairy with a fluffy tail stretched out, silver powder, Huaguang rogue.

The fox is hovering around in the air, and the money falls in front of the ink.

This fox fairy is very beautiful, close to it, only to find that it is a man, his eyebrows are red and Yin, the peach blossom eyes are slightly picked up, the anger is also three-pointed, the whole body is covered with colorful brocade, and a golden one is dragged in the hand. Jin box, looked at Chen Shanggong, and smiled: "God."

Gou Chen said: "Why should I call you, should you perceive it?"

"I know it."

Gou Chen asked: "How do you feel?"

Ji Baihua smiled and said: "Yes, you can try."

The two guys answered questions and did not put the rest of the four in their eyes.

Ink can't help but say: "What the * are you talking about?"

"Well? Xiaoxianjun can't wait?" Fox Xian Ji Baihua said, "It's fun, when I haven't appeared yet, I can tell you your spiritual power. I thought it was at least a white man." But I don’t think about it, it’s actually a handsome young man."

Ink burning: "....."

Gou Chen Shanggong said: "Ji Baihua, you first say serious."

"Well, I just made a joke." Ji Baihua narrowed his eyes and his tail swayed. "What is the seriousness? Oh, you don't want to stare at me like this. This is really a long story." ——"

Ink burned and said: "Can you make a long story short?"

Ji Baihua also smiled and said: "Well, okay, if you want to say short, it is actually very short." He spurred the spirit and floated the box in front of him.

"Come, let's take it."

... Sure enough, it is concise.

The ink is burned over the brocade box and taken in the hand to flip the amount.

The golden box of gold is full of brilliance, and there is no way to know what kind of gods are in the air. It’s just that the box has no gap opening. The only figure is a yin-yang fish pattern on the box. One black and one white two koi closes to form the gossip phase.

"How should this be opened?"

Ji Baihua: "Hey, open the law, out of my mouth, into the ears of the king, no one else can listen."

Xue Meng asked: "Do you mean that we want to avoid it?"

Ji Baihua smiled and said: "You don't have to shun the princes. I am offended by this little fairy." When he waved his hand, his eyes suddenly dimmed. I don't know when, the two were in a small secret room.

"Xiao Xianjun does not need to be nervous. This is the space-transforming technique that I use. The brocade box with weapons is the magic weapon of my own secret system. Therefore, you should not tell the open method to you in front of everyone. Don't be surprised. ”

Ink smirked: "No problem. But I would like to ask, what kind of weapon is there, need to be another box?"

"I can't tell you this." Ji Baihua said, "Shenwu is temperamental. This weapon is not willing to let people know what it looks like. If you get it, even if you finally open the box, it still doesn't recognize you. the host."

"..." The ink burned silent for a moment, only to smile bitterly, "What weapon? The temper is so weird. Ok, well, you tell me how to open this box?"

Ji Baihua saw that he didn't force him to ask questions. He added a few good feelings to his heart. He smiled and said: "Xiaoxianjun is so happy, then I am not ambiguous. This box is called Sauvignon Blanc. You have also seen it, it is seamless, if you want To open it, two conditions must be met."

Ink burning: "I want to hear the details."

Ji Baihua said: "My fox fairy family, the most faithful is really good. So first, in this world, only one person can be opened. This person is extremely important in your life, you need to love this person, and this People must also love you and be loyal to you."

Ink burned and said: "It turns out to be a strange request, but this is not difficult." He still believed in his friendship with the teacher.

Ji Baihua heard the words, but slightly evoked the lips: "How is it not difficult? Since the ancient people's heart is the most difficult to measure, what you think is not necessarily true. I have been in the world for a long time, I have seen too many people lost their hearts. I don’t know who I am, who I love. For thousands of years, there are very few people who can open Sauvignon Blanc. It can be said that there are very few."

The ink burned the road: "Why is this? Even if you make a mistake, you can continue to look for it. If you can try to get the people you know, you can always find the so-called "the most important person in life"?"

Ji Baihua said: "This is the second condition I want to say. Besides you, Sauvignon Blanc can only be touched by one person. That is to say, you only have one chance. If you find the wrong object, it will close forever. No one can get anything in the box."

The ink burned and laughed: "No wonder you have to separate everyone else. You have to let them hear it, and I can't handle it. If I hold the box and look for someone, they will know who I like, this is more. Hey." He paused and played with the box and said: "But your little things are really interesting. It turned out to be a keyhole that can only be used once. If you make a mistake, the box will be scrapped. It is."

"Nature can only be opened once, or do you want to open a few times?" Ji Baihua yelled at him. "Where are you tens of thousands of people rushing around in a hurry, how many bonds do you not know? You know, the world is like this Sauvignon Blanc, If you choose the wrong one, you will have a hard time turning back."

"Haha, Fox Daxian, you can rest assured that others can choose the wrong one, but I am very clear." The ink-burning palm smashed at him and smiled. "You can't live up to this lovesickness."

Ji Baihua glanced at him, his voice was low and slow, and he was extremely elegant. "Xiao Xianjun is too confident. I am jealous of you. Actually, I don't know Wushan, I don't know the right person."

The ink burned, and the smile was still on the face: "What do you mean?"

The beautiful and beautiful immortal who claimed to be "most faithful and true-minded" did not want to say more, only sighed and sighed: "No Acacia, breaking Yang Liuzhi. Hehe..."

There is no culture in the ink burning, I don’t understand the acidity of the schoolbag, but he always feels that the fox fairy is reminding himself of what he is doing, but unfortunately his brain is stupid, and he wants to break his head and can’t think of it.

Waiting to ask again, Ji Baihua smiled slightly, and the mission was completed. The sleeves were burned out of the secret room, and they suddenly condensed and became stiff and stiff. Then they burst into tears, leaving only one black piece falling. Come down, fall to the place where he had stood.

It’s a pity that this situation has not been seen. If he sees it, many things at the bottom of the lake will probably change.

When the ink burned back, I found that I had returned to the arsenal of God and held Sauvignon Blanc in my hands. The other four people are in the middle of the arsenal of the gods. When he comes back, he looks up and laughs at the palace. He looks at the bay and looks at it. "The little fox is really interesting. It is also mysterious to open a box." How about, how do you know how to open it?"

When I got to the bones of this section, I couldn’t help him think about it. The ink burned and thought, and smiled: "It’s easy to say."

He seems to be inadvertently walking to the teacher's side: "The design of this lock is subtle and interesting. I think you may not be able to figure it out for ten or eight years. Don't believe it?"

Said, it seems to inadvertently hand the box to the teacher.

The splendid streamer's box is in front of the teacher, and the golden light reflects the gentle and beautiful eyebrows of the teacher.

"Teacher, you should try it first." The ink burned clearly wants to pretend to be nothing, but the heart is entangled, and the palms sweat.

This is a chance to gamble whether he can have a new martial arts. He should be very cautious, but he feels that he is very cautious. He is a person who has died once. Does he still know who he cares most? ?

He is not stupid.

The teacher was hesitant, but eventually he took the Sauvignon Blanc from the ink.

The burning heart suddenly hangs in the eyes of the blind man, but after a long time, everything is as usual, there is no movement.

Ink burning: "..."

The teacher was holding the box carefully, carefully looking at it, and the fingertips stroking over the yin and yang fish lines, and then wondered: "There is no gap in the chain, and the chain eyes can't be found anywhere."

Why is there no response? !

Why did the teacher encounter Sauvignon Blanc, but Sauvignon Blanc did not move at all?

Could it be - ah! Yes! It is a glove!

The ink burned and looked at the cold buckskin gloves worn by the teacher's hand, and the heart was moving. He wanted to let the teacher pick it up and try again. Suddenly, without warning, a five-finger slender, well-proportioned hand stretched out, and took Sauvignon Blanc smoothly.

The ink burned like a thunder, and shouted: "Shi Zun -!!"

Chu night was shocked and almost dropped the box, but the calmness of the person has already penetrated into the bone marrow, so that the inner mess is not visible.

The ink burns like a mourning sorrow: "Master ah -!!!"

Xue Meng straight up the goose bumps: "Call out! Don't you take a box? What happened to you? Called someone who grabbed your wife."

"I----" The smoldering is almost fainting, and I can't say it clearly. I have to lick my face and say, "My God..."

Chu nightning! Why don't you wear gloves? !

You are so afraid of cold!

We are all wearing ice and snow, why is it alone?

Suddenly, the ink burned a bit.

Yes……

The exorcism sea otter who wears on them needs to reconcile with the soul of the night, so that Chu Yuning did not buy a pair of warm gloves from the beginning.

He does not wear gloves to protect them.

However, he did not care about him from beginning to end, so that until the opening of Sauvignon Blanc, he suddenly found that the most cold-blooded Chu-Ning-Ning was always frozen.

The ink burns really wants to cry without tears, and the heart is really unlucky, so it is lost with the gods. The sputum was boring from the chest, and it was unexpectedly unexpected. As Chu’s fingertips gently touched the yin and yang fish, the two metal-made fish were like alive, and they began to coil around the box flexibly. Wriggle up.

Slight pause.

I only heard the two sounds of "咔,咔", the yin and yang fish tangled and disturbed, and finally embossed, turned into two handles, Chu night Ning turned the handle again, and the long-term love split in half, revealing The golden things inside.

The smoldering was stunned.

Ji Baihua’s words are still in his ears.

"No one person can open it. This person is extremely important in your life. You need to love this person deeply, and this person must also love you and be loyal to you."

... This person is Chu nightning?

How could it be Chu nightning!

Impossible, absolutely impossible! ! How can he deeply love Chu, and how can he like him? Big joke!

This must be wrong. It must be that the box is wrong. This box is broken.

However, the surprise of this wave has not yet passed. When Chu Ning took up the martial arts in Changxiangsi, another thing that was even more shocking and shocking happened.

This time I was shocked not only by the burning of the ink, but also by the other three, even Chu Ning, whose face was slightly moved.

The scorpion reflects the brilliance of the weapon, and a bunch of radiant and soft willow illuminates the faces of the people.

Chu nightning: "..."

Xue Meng: "..."

Teacher: "..."

The two words stuck in the ink-squeezing throat for a long while, and they spit out hard. It was unbelievable.

"...day asked???"

The author has something to say:

If this is an online game, then let's study the cause of death of the three men and women:

Chu nightning: died of ot

Ink burning: dying in t

Teacher: Death from teammates and pigs

Xue Meng: died in the coquettish style

Chapter 40

The weapons contained in Sauvignon Blanc are the same questions, or a bundle of golden willows that are exactly the same as the ones in the sky.

No acacia, breaking the willow branches.

Chu night Ning looked uncertain, handed this bunch of willow to the ink, and the back of the palm condensed, summoned out the sky to ask, the two are compared, it is like a mirror, no difference.

Everyone did not expect such a thing to happen. Even the burning of ink could hardly believe in their own eyes. As a person who had been asked thousands of times in the past, he would not think of it anyway. Actually gave him an identical weapon.

what on earth is it?

Everyone’s eyes were on the side of the hall.

Gou Chen Shanggong looks very surprised, saying: "...and now there are two wood spirits in the mortal world?"

Xue Meng asked: "What does "Mu Ling Essence mean?"

"Ah, that's it." Gou Shanggong said, "There are five elements in this world. You are very clear. Everyone who cultivates the spiritual core will have one to two attributes. And the most talented person in a trait. It is the essence of that attribute, such as the former Wushan goddess, she is the essence of the earth. However, in general, within one generation, the same attribute may only have one essence - and the essence of wood spirit, now there is already I gave him the first weapon of Muling many years ago."

He said, his eyes fell on Chu Ning.

"When I was casting five top sacred martial arts, I originally planned to cast only one piece for each property. The other four pieces did not show any difference in the casting process, but Muling Shenwu, it was interrupted in the furnace."

"My way is God's will, so I made the two pieces of wicker into two weapons. But I still believe that these two weapons can never find the master at the same time, so I handed one of them to Ji Baihua, let He hit a box to prevent derailments. But I didn't think..."

Gou Shanggong shook his head and was about to continue his emotions. Suddenly, the willows in the ink-burning hands burst into a string of colorful fireworks. The golden luster that began to flow gradually began to change, and finally became a fiery red. The thoughts in the ink-burning mind are chaos. I didn’t even think about it. I said, "Oh! Hell!"

It’s too late for Chu’s staying to stop.

So Gou Shanggong and Chu Wanning looked at the ink burning with great pity, and the ink burned quickly knew why they would make this look. He actually thought about it himself:

The first time that Shenwu gave out the brilliance of different colors, it means that it has been returned to its own owner, and wants the owner to give it a name...

Unfortunately, it is too late. I saw the silver handle of Liu Teng, and slowly appeared three powerful and sturdy handwritings - what! Hell.

God soldiers "ah! See ghosts."

Ink burning: "..... ah ah!!!!"

Although Xue Meng and Shi Yan did not know the rules of this martial arts naming, but seeing the foreground image, I have already understood it. Xue Meng then laughed and laughed and tears flowed out: "This kind of name is really only you can take it out, hahahaha, good name, good name. Master has a day to ask, you have 'ah! Hell, ah hahahahahaha."

Since the ink burned the martial arts, Xue Mengshi also picked their favorite weapons - Xue Meng is a long sword, the teacher is a pipe piccolo, but the two men's weapons have never produced a different luster, apparently Not yet tamed, refused to surrender to the two.

But this doesn't matter much, you can always think of it.

So each of them was in a good mood. At night, the spring night, the building was opened, and Chen Shanggong never brought a mortal to Jinchengchi, and invited them to stay for one night. He first entertained the mortal, and he naturally did his best. On the table, I was staggered, and I was so sweet and sour, and the guests were very happy.

After the banquet was scattered, Gou Chengonggong waited to take guests to the room to arrange a sleep, and spent the rest of the night.

The guest went to the house next to the arsenal of the gods, and saw the giant wood of the sky. The ink burned and thought of the "devil" that he only got, so he couldn't help but summon Liu Teng and looked at it carefully.

No acacia, breaking the willow branches.

The fox demon named Ji Baihua was aware of something. Why did he say such a sentence, and what exactly did he mean by saying this?

In the evening, the wine was drunk, and even the thoughts were not so clear. He only thought it was very strange. If Sauvignon Blanc did not go wrong, why did he solve the lock of the box?

Of course, he does not like Chu Yuning. As for the late night, he loves him deeply... It is a big joke.

While thinking about it, I look back at the Master.

Unexpectedly, Chu Yuning was watching him behind him. The two looked at each other. The darkness of the heart burned and the heart trembled. It seemed to be stabbed by something small and sharp, and there was some subtle sweet and sour taste. He had already thought about it. Chao Chu night Ning grinned. But this feeling of the soul was only a moment, and he soon regretted it.

Obviously so annoying, why do you sometimes feel that he is very peaceful and comfortable?

Chu nightning is to describe indifference, but he saw the ink burned out of the devil, thinking for a moment, also called out the day to ask.

He walked toward the ink.

Hell seems to have a bad temper and feels the approach of another powerful Muling body. It stabbed the scarlet fireworks. From time to time, there were some bursts of splashing and falling on Xue Meng. It was a state of contending for strength.

On the other hand, the night question in the hands of Chu Yuning seems to have perceived the same kind of breath, but it has been very close to the evening of the night, so although it is full of war, the golden light is not as inciting. Uneasy, but gradually brighter, seeing the master did not stop, only to become dazzling and uncomfortable, as if to make up his mind to let the "ghost" insights, a good weapon should be in a steady posture.

The two gods of the gods were originally in the same breath.

Nowadays, it’s a fledgling one.

A red light splashed, like a yellow-haired boy who was on fire, jumping up and down; but a golden glow overflowed, like the top of the peak of Ling Feng, arrogant.

Chu Xiaoning looked at Liu Teng in his hand and indulged for a while. His eyes fell through the long eyelashes of the chamber and fell on the ghost. He said: "Ink burns."

"Master?"

"Take yours..." The word "Ghost" seems to be a bit shameful. Chu nightned and said, "Pick up your willow and look at me."

The ink burned his head and the paste didn't know how many rolls he had. He couldn't do anything. He pinched his eyebrows and smiled bitterly: "The teacher should not make a joke, spare me."

"I want you three tricks."

"I have never made a willow..."

"Ten tricks."

"but--"

There is no such thing as a late night in Chu, and a dazzling golden light with a wave of brushing will come! The smoldering was shocked. His fear of the sky was deep into the bone marrow. He immediately raised his hand and lifted it with a "ghost". Two willows were torn against the sky and snow, and they vacated as if they were wrapped around two dragons. Bucket, friction bursts out a string of golden and red sparks!

Although I have not learned how to use this special weapon, it may be that the late Qing Ning's moves have been for a long time. The ink burning is also a talented person, and even barely able to provoke the offensive of Chu.

The two met in the cold pool for dozens of rounds. Although Chu Evening had water release, but the ink burned well, it also unexpectedly expected him.

The gold of the day and the red of the ghosts waved into the wind in the waves of the sky. The moves were beautiful, the winds and shadows were splendid, the lake was shattered by the fierce rattan shadows, and the torsion was stirred - eventually the gold and red were wrapped in one place, evenly matched, hard to give up. Minute!

Chu night Ning eyes are appreciated, but the ink burned has been exhausted, tired and gasping, and did not see the look in the other's eyes.

Chu night Ningdao: "God, come back."

The golden vines that are still hard-working are soft and soft, just like the black ice is turned into spring water, scattered into a little spot, and gently tempered back to the late night of the palm of the hand.

The ink burns still bursts with the smoldering flames, and after a while, just sitting on the snow, the eyebrows are grievances: "If you don't play, don't play, Master respects you."

Chu nightning: "...all make you ten strokes."

The ink burned rogue and said: "Where are the ten tricks, you make me a hundred strokes, and my hand, my arm, will be broken. The teacher is a teacher, help me." He said that Barahubao generally said a bunch of words, accompanied by Xue Meng's ridicule and the teacher's persuasion.

Chu nightning did not say much, only quietly looked at them.

I don't know if it is an illusion. In the cold water pool, Chu's mouth is slightly picked up. It seems to be a soft smile. But it is just a matter of swaying the gods. He randomly turns his head and looks at the hand. I don’t know what I’m thinking about.

It was night, and the ink burned in the room belonging to oneself. The room was covered with soft and pure white sand. The walls were painted blue, and the curse was applied. The sea waves reflected the waves, the windows were half open, and the pearl curtains. Gentlely hangs in the evening breeze, a lamp made of a bright pearl on the table, so that the interior is warm and soothing.

There is a large shell in the middle of the room, which is covered with soft satin. The satin was very delicate and soft, and the ink burned down on the bed comfortably, and called out the ghost. He couldn’t hold it in his hand, but he might be too tired. He hadn’t played for too long, and he fell asleep.

Seeing the ghost on the chest, flowing with a faint red light, like a deep sleep with the owner...

I don’t know how long I slept. When I woke up again, the first thing I felt was a cold, and then I felt a strong pain in my inexplicable wrist.

He took a sigh of relief, squinted his head, and slowly sat up. The return of consciousness made the strange pain on his wrist more vivid. He was shocked to find that his wrist was not known when he was drawn a hole, and the blood had solidified. It is bloody.

what happened?

--This is where? ? !

The ink burned and widened his eyes.

As he gradually woke up, he found himself in a completely strange dark stone room. There was a small open mouth at the top of the stone room. The cold lake light squeezed in from this small mouth and barely illuminated the narrow room. The blue-gray stone wall is moist and slippery, with a thin luster under the faint light.

The author has something to say:

The bag is presented to the small theater of today:

Meat Packets: One day, the comprehensions of the real world got a mysterious weapon called "Gu Dou Vatican", and wrote their own names on it. It is said that you can see the proverbs from the distant Western Scorpio.

God: Tell people! !

Meat package: Google enter the role name, double click to view the English translation 666

So I did the following spoof experiment -

Chu nightning: Chunightrather (can be said to be very stupid b hahahahaha)

Xue Meng: XueMeng (Congratulations to Shaoxia to escape)

Teacher: Teacherignorant (...I am sorry, I laughed and spit, hahaha, ignorant teacher, hahahahaha)

Inkburning: Inkburning

Xue Zhengyi: XueZhengYong (know, surnamed Xue gave Google money)

Then let's try to see the original name of the teacher, remember that his original name is Xue Yu?

Xue Wei: XueAh (may, I saw the surname Xue and Google slept)

There are also two names that have been announced. I still have a supporting role in the character bar.

Mei Hanxue: Maycontainsnow (contain you a ghost!!!)

Ye Forget: Yeforgotthepast (... I have already admired the mitosis)

Finally, I think, Xue Meng’s mother, Mrs. Wang, should be translated safely?

then……

Mrs. Wang: Mrs.Wang

It seems that there is nothing wrong with it, but I don’t know why, I saw the figure of Li Lei and Han Meimei in the English textbook...

Chapter 41

The layout of the stone room is unobstructed, with walls on three sides and a fence with red spells on one side. There is only a thatched stone bed in the room.

He was lying on the stone bed, his hands and feet were tied by chains, and it was swaying, and even worse, he found that his spiritual power seemed to be contained by some kind of spell, and he could not cast it. . Full of anxiety, I heard a "squeaky" sound, looking at the side, came in two monks.

"You!" The ink burned and immediately angered, "You are a group of madmen! What the * is going on? What do you want to do? My brothers? Go to Chengonggong!...Hey! I ask you something. !"

However, no matter how screaming and screaming, the eyes are all deaf, and they both carry a piece of red fox velvet skin in tandem, licking the shape of the roll, which seems to be wrapped in a person. They put the red fox velvet on the stone bed with a blank expression.

Ink gas road: "You two small muddy -"

"Noisy noisy." One of the monks finally spoke, and the voice was very contemptuous. "You are the essence of Muling, you can't lose yours."

Another monk also sneered: "Where is it that you can't lose money, it's obviously cheaper."

The ink gas has to vomit blood: "What are you going to do! What are you doing to lock me here? What have you got to this bed?!"

"What have we got?" A monk asked.

"Nature is the person you like." Another humanity.

The fingertips of the smoldering are all cold, and I am extremely shocked: "...teacher?"

The monks did not turn it down and sneered: "Spring is too short, you have this good relationship, and you will be happy to make a good night tonight. After the event, you will know why God is so painstakingly arranged."

The words left.

The house was dead.

The ink burned hands and feet are kept, and the bombs are not allowed. The passage of time has become very vague, and it is difficult for him to know how long it has been, and even if he struggles, his wrists and ankles are worn out, but he can't get rid of it.

Slightly gasping, turned to look at the foxes wrapped around a living man, the suede bundled tightly, the man was wrapped from head to toe, only a long black hair from the quilt exposed, see It’s heartbreaking and flustered.

Although he does not know why Chen Shanggong’s metamorphosis is so arranged, if he can really get rid of his greed with his teacher...

Thinking of this, I can’t think of it anymore.

It seems that a little more evil thoughts are the embarrassment of that beautiful person.

The ink burned on the dome of the stone room, and the breathing was heavy and dull. It seemed that the chest was pressed with a heavy scale. It was obviously a long-awaited thing, but I really had the opportunity to do it. I felt that I was awkward and uncomfortable.

When the Wan Nian floated, the first violent excitement slowly subsided, and he gradually calmed down.

The design of Chen Shanggong is always fierce. If it is not good for yourself, it will be considered. If it is unreasonable, how can it be tolerated?

What's more, the matter is forced by others, and the teacher is not willing. He burns a scum, but for those who like it, he wants to protect, but does not want to hurt. Therefore, no matter what evil method used in the palace, when he wakes up, he will not bully others.

After a long silence, he suddenly felt that someone around him had moved a little, and the people around him finally woke up.

The ink burned and looked around, dumb voice: "teacher -"

I haven't said anything yet. I just had a spin on the tip of my tongue and swallowed it back. After the throat rolled up, I spit out the second half of the word.

"Respect?"

Master? ! ?

In the past moment, I was obsessed with obstinacy. When I saw the face exposed in the fox, I only felt that many of the high-rise buildings had collapsed. It’s cracked and clean.

What kind of protection, what will not bully people, what will not tarnish the other party, a slap in the face than a slap in the face.

The ink is burning.

He is now finally sure that this Jincheng pool is under the living, with the Gossip Palace as the first evil, all the * is a group of blinks! !

Does he like Chu Ning?

Pooh!

The fox or the swearing, I really don't know what the guys who determined that his ink is raining is Chu Xinning. Is it to see that he once slept, and still want to sleep late? It’s ridiculous! Do you like someone, just like to go to bed with him?

Mo Xiaoxian’s righteousness roared in his heart. But I couldn't say half a word on my mouth, just staring at Chu Evening slowly and slowly opened the pair of phoenix eyes.

.....

It’s gonna.

He seemed to hear a slam, and something broke in his mind.

After the shackles, there was another smog that burned out from the ruins of the heart, exuding stench, black ash, and distorted heat.

It’s hot.

Like a dead night, a sudden swim through a smoldering dragon, like a silent abyss bursting out of the rushing magma and rolling fire.

Those who say good reason and calmness are all in the light of this bullying, turning into an indistinguishable focal shadow...

He did not expect it to be like this.

Chu nightning, the pair of sharp and sharp eyes, with awkward sleepiness, looks lazy and embarrassed. It seems that there is a rain in the bamboo forest, and thousands of leaves are moist.

He slowly sat up, from the look of the face, he seemed to be controlled by what, the red fox slid down from the shoulder, he did not wear anything, so bare exposed a large piece of firm skin, and that The green and red on the shoulders are all traces of love -

How could this be……

I think that I am going crazy.

Who made it?

Who is against him...his...his master, did this?

He is a late night, ...

Every inch of bones trembles in detail, and the blood of hate is screaming.

That is the late night of Chu!

Who moved his people!

is his--

The ink burns so hate, and even no longer considers that Chu Xiening has not belonged to him in this life, and does not belong to anyone. In his eyes, he only saw the well-proportioned body of Chu, and the bruises that were not familiar with the body.

"Master!!"

Chu Xiu Ning did not seem to hear him hoarsely and distortedly, but fell off the eyelashes, like a puppeteer, who leaned over, stroked the face of ink, and looked at him for a while, then closed his eyes. Close to the lips with thin, water-permeable lips, the lips that burned with ink.

He was rarely kissed by Chu Xiaoning. At the touch, the four fields were scorched, and the eyes were crazy and gorgeous, and the heart beat wildly.

Chu nightning may be cold, the body is very cold, but the fierceness of the lips and teeth is not inferior, the ink is still extremely painful because of his humiliation, but he is tempted by this re-music man. It is stinging and stimulating.

After the end of a kiss, the ink burned heavily and opened his eyes, but when he saw the night, his eyes were bright and the skin was red and thin. It was a deep feeling of love and desire. He could not help but feel * and could not help but think. I want to hold his face.

However, he was bound by shackles, and his hands and feet could not move. Chu night looked at the iron lock and did not speak, but squatted and wanted to ride on. The ink burned the throat and swallowed it. When he swallowed, he cast a gaze on him, but he saw the night between the legs of the night, and the thickness of the man was clear and the movement was slowly falling.

When he was on the scene, his eyes were red and he was stunned. He suddenly slammed and sat down, but he was pulled back by the chain and fell heavily on the bed.

"who is it……"

Can't help it anymore, the ink burns almost unwisely, like a trapped beast.

"Who is this to you? I killed him! I killed him!!!!"

Whether he is Gou Shanggong or Tianwang Laozi, it is God is a demon, a ghost is a Buddha - he is stepping on Xianjun! Chu nightning is the person who stepped on Xianjun! Even now that he is trapped in the body of this boyhood, he is still a human king in the bones, who touched him - to your mother's master, who touched him? He was drizzling, and he stepped on the immortal! ! !

"Ink burning!"

It seems that someone is calling him.

He couldn't hear the anger of burning his endless anger. He seemed to hear it and couldn't hear it.

"Ink burn!!"

...have killed it. Not tolerated, hell? Why did you lose your spiritual power, why can't you summon a demon? He has to lose heart.

A shameful shame, a deep hatred and hatred - a shameful shame, a deep hatred!

Who dares to touch the night? After he was with Zhou Xining in the past life, even if someone looked at Yuheng at night, he could take the person’s eyes out and let him eat it himself! In the evening, I will sneak down on the night, and I will get both of them exhausted, but this one is -

"Ink rain!"

Who is calling him, so entangled.

But this sound is very familiar.

Seems like I heard it...

wrong.

It seems that wherever I can hear it from time to time, the owner of this voice seems to have accompanied him and walked through endless years...

"Ink rain, you wake me up! Are you crazy? What are you doing?!"

"!!!"

The ink burned and suddenly opened his eyes.

In the direction of his voice, he saw the outside of the cell, and the white clothes were triumphantly triumphant, the twilight was sharp, the expression was anxious, and the eyebrows were arrogant, and they were all in a state of killing, not who is the late night of Ning!

"Master!!" The ink burned out of color.

Then his bed is -

A fierce turn, the face that is close at hand can almost scare him! Where is this Chu Ning? It is clearly a dead monster of a human fox face!

To say dead demon, this death is not used to talk about decoration.

He was squatting, and he just kissed him passionately. It was really a dead thing.

This fox demon has empty eyes and blue skin, and there is no point in it.

The ink burned that he had just been under the temptation of the blind eye, and kissed such a thing, almost did not spit it out directly, his face was so bad that he said: "What the * is going on!"

Chu night Ning is outside the cell, with a charm between the two fingers, and then watching the dead fox demon no longer move at this moment, then know that this paper is a thousand hairs, Chu night Ning is empty, cast from the body of the fox of.

As soon as he made a fuss, the paper broke out with a large amount of black and red blood. With a scream of screams, the paper was instantly turned into a little bit of coke.

Chu Xiaoning spread his palms, and the scattered blacks slowly gathered in his hands, gradually condensing into a black piece. He stared at the piece and his face became very ugly.

"It really is a treasured chess game..." Chu night Ning whispered, suddenly raised his eyes and stared at the ink burning. "When you are sick, what is the most common cook for you?" Say!"

"Ah? Ah..." The ink burned for too many times in a short time. At this time, the mind was in chaos. "You, what do you ask this?"

Chu night Ning Li said: "Quickly say!"

"...put your hand."

Chu nightning, this look is a little slow, but the eyebrows are not showing at all, he said: "Ink burning, you listen, that hook Chen Shanggong is a fake, not the * of the gods. This person makes good use of virtual image, and I have mastered one of the three major bans, so I have to be careful, worrying that you are also the illusion he created."

The ink burned and grievances cried: "If I am a phantom, I am locked and doing something!"

Chu nightning: "...I will save you from this."

The ink burned and nodded again and asked: "What about the Master, Shi Yi and Xue Meng?"

"As with you, the drug in the drink is locked up elsewhere." Seeing the burning look, Chu night Ning said again, "You don't have to worry, they are all fine. But here is dangerous, I am making It waits outside, and after you go out, you can see them."

As for the Zhenqi chess game, Chu Xiening has no more explanations and does not have to explain.

The most powerful in the world of comprehension, and one of the most notorious three major bans.

As the name implies, Jane's chess game refers to taking others as chess pieces and laying them out for themselves. The operator often does not appear in the battlefield personally, but lives in the dark, laying a chessboard in front of him, and manipulating the opposite body of the chess piece, so that the living creatures of the world can sacrifice their lives for themselves. In the middle of the Jane chess game, the soul will be loyal to the dead, and if it is a dead object, it will be broken into pieces.

However, depending on the mana of the man, the things that can be driven are different. The easiest thing is to drive the person or animal that just died, and then the one that died for a long time. Then, it is the living beast and the flying bird. When you cultivate to the highest level, you can control the living person.

There are very few people in the world who can train the chess game to the extreme, but in the era when the ink burned the emperor, he has already trained the chess game to the point of ruin. In the same year, in the battle between life and death of Chu and Ning, he laid a hundred feet of long rolls, splashed ink as a chessboard, and sprinkled beans into soldiers.

In that battle, hundreds of thousands of pieces fell at the same time, so the bird feathers covered the sky, the golden crows sank, the dragons broke the water, and the sea turned over. The ink burns the infinite beasts and birds, and controls the endless army of the living. That kind of scene, even if it is difficult to see Shura hell.

At the moment, this fox corpse is obviously manipulated by the Jane chess game, but in addition to the Jane chess game, there is another layer of magic - the blind eye method.

According to legend, after the death of the ancestors of the Qingqi fox family, the fur left behind was made into seven hundred and forty-nine foxes of different sizes. As long as someone takes the blood, drops it on the fox fur, and then grabs something with the fur, even if it is wrapped in root wood, it can become the object that the person longs for.

It is this magic weapon that is wrapped around this fox body, but its changes can only be seen in the eyes of the blood master. In the eyes of others, what is still what, there will be no change.

Rescuing the ink burn did not take much effort. After successfully getting people out, Chu Xiening also made it clear to him.

The biggest puzzle of ink burning is: "Master, how do you know that Gou Shanggong is fake?"

The author has something to say:

The game I play today is to use the input method to score the first letter of each character, and see how the input method can jump out!

Chu Nightning: Pet Bird (???)

Ink Burning: Nobody (Nobody? Nobody likes it, hahaha)

Xue Meng: Below (hungry is not hungry, less the Lord will give you the following)

Teacher: S·M (...why is my input method so impure?)

Mei Hanxue: Pretty funny (what is funny! 掀 table)

Ye Forgiveness: Use WeChat (true foreign gas...)

Xue Zhengxuan: Writing homework (ha ha ha ha ha uncle)

Mrs. Wang: Weifang people (don't give Mrs. Wang a fixed birthplace!)

What breaks the input method, you can uninstall it, wave it

Chapter 42

Chu night Ningdao: "If it is the real Gouhang Palace, how can it only drive the dead, but not to drive people? Although this man's mana is not bad, but it is certainly not the same as the beginning of God."

This is quite reasonable, but there is still doubt in the ink burning: "When the Master respected this... this dead fox, did you know that the person was impersonating?"

Chu night Ning shook his head: "No."

"Then how do you see it..."

Chu nightning: "You can still remember when this hook appeared, he asked me what?"

The ink burned a little thought and said: "It seems to be asking about your weapon?"

"Not bad." Chu said, "I haven’t converged in my body, and I can detect it with a little bit of perception. But as the owner of the army, he did not immediately react. I have two weapons of Jinchengchi, and when I only have One. I was suspicious at the time, but I was so worried about the sword that I couldn’t say more, but I just left everything in my mind, so I didn’t have his way."

"But..." The ink ignited. "If he didn't hang up the palace, how could he forge the martial arts?"

"First, the hook-and-mortar sword is just a rumor. No one really knows why the bottom of the lake will sink a lot of weapons, so Shenwu may not be created by the hook. Second, this person just took the weapons of the arsenal of the gods to choose from, who I don't know if those things are his or not. Moreover, I have carefully seen the two knives of Xue Meng and Shi Shi – all false.

The ink burned the news: "Western goods?"

"Ok."

"..." The ink burned for a while before I thought of myself, "What the hell...?"

Chu said: "It’s true to see a ghost. But his purpose is not just to give you weapons."

"What do he want to do?" said the ink, and looked at the fox corpse lying on the stone bed in disgust. "First of all, it took us a lot of trouble to shut us into the secret room and got something like this." Disgusting people. What?

Chu night Ning Road: "Figure you."

"what?"

"Well, you only said that you are half right. That hook, the person who has spent a lot of time is not us, he ultimately wants you."

"He shows me what to do?" The ink burned and laughed. "I am just an idiot."

Chu night Ningdao: "I have never seen an idiot that can be spiritually repaired within a year."

The ink burned to be said, but it seemed to be aware of something and suddenly slammed it.

- Chu nightning, is this to praise him?

This cognition made his heartbeat speed up, widened his voice, stared at Chu Ningning, and after a while, he slowly blinked his eyes, and he always had a stubborn cheeky face, and he was slightly red.

Chu Xiu Ning was not looking at him, but he was sulking: "In addition, Tian Qiao and He Gui, it seems that there is a little connection with the willow tree in the court. I once read it in ancient books. When I went to the palace, I went to the palace. I have brought three sections of willow branches from Tianting. But the ancient books have lost a lot of power. I have been ignorant of what Chen’s three-section Shenliu has done.

He paused and continued: "But if the rumors are true, at the moment, perhaps the day, the hell, the old tree in the court, that is the three sections of the willow branch. The two sections became Shenwu, and a section of the Jincheng Lake became a bottom. Check out the powerful guards of Chen Huoku."

Ink burning said: "What does this have to do with me?"

Chu Xiaoning shook his head and said: "It doesn't matter, it is you who wake up."

The ink sighed and sighed: "I will say, really, hell!"

"I guess what he ultimately asked for is related to the willow in the court. But as far as I know it, I can only speculate on this step. More, I can't think of it for the time being."

Although most of these are the speculations of Chu Xiaoning, but the ink burns that Chu is rather so smart, he thinks that it is always eight or nine.

While thinking about this, I am rushing in the secret waters of the secret waters. Through the ramps of the seven turns and eight bends, and after a long walk, they finally came to the exit. They were not prepared for the round-trip inspections, and they fled and fled.

The hole in the underground darkroom was set in the yard where the giant willows were planted. When it came out, the sight in front of it made the ink burned and suddenly surprised.

I saw four coffins parked in front of the giant willows, one of which was empty. In the other three coffins, they were lying in the middle of the night, the teacher, and the Xuemeng.

The ink burns out of color: "What is going on?!"

Chu night Ningdao: "This is the corpse corpse, you see the edge of the raft, there is a vine climbing, and the other is connected with the giant willow. The only thing you need is the fake hook. After he puts the medicine on us, let the monk take you. Take the secret room, and put the three of us in this coffin. Through the corpse, he can transfer the life of the people in the scorpion to the giant willow. Just like bloodsucking."

Seeing the smudged face, ugly, Chu said: "You are relieved, and the teacher and Xue Meng are not injured. At that time, I was in a coma, waiting for the three guards who were watching the shackles. The three people you saw at this time are actually those. The body of the demon."

He said that it was simple and simple, but the ink burned but could not help but squint the lashes and sneak a look at each other.

How deep is the monk in Jinchengchi? The so-called "waiting for the opportunity to remove the shackles" of Chu’s late night would have to smother the three in a single blow.

How good is this person’s skill...

For too many years, I haven’t played well with Chu’s late night, so that when I heard this sentence, I was a little embarrassed in the moment. It seemed to flash past the wind and the snow in the past, the shocking figure, the face Side, such as Chen Xing.

When Chu Jingning saw him ecstatic, he asked, "What happened?"

The smoldering suddenly woke up and said, "Nothing."

"..."

"Just wondering how the Master respected the monks into such a thing."

Chu night Ning sneerly said: "The area is blind, the fake hook Chen Shanggong will, will I not? Leave the fake body here, save the muddy discovery. The so-called "path to the other side."

Ink burning: "..."

The danger is here, the two are inconvenient to stay for a long time, and immediately leave after a short break. However, when they ran to the place agreed with Xue Meng, they saw that there was no one left.

The ink-burning face brush is white: "What about the teacher?!"

The look of Chu Xiaoning is also a micro-motion. He does not answer, but picks up the ring finger and floats a golden light on his fingertips. Before Shang Xuyingfeng, he once had a Begonia flower in the three apprentices, which was used for tracking.

After a while, Chu Xiaoning whispered and sighed, and received the light: "Hu is here also has a change, probably to hide from the monks who went back and forth. The two people have escaped from this mansion and went to the market. Go, look at the past."

Both of them were very good at hand, and they quickly escaped all the * who patrolled. They flew out of the towering walls and rushed to the market where they passed through the palace.

Underwater, there should be no day and night fainting, but Jincheng Lake is different from other places, and it can sense the rising and falling of the moon. At this time, the long night has been broken, and the rising sun is rising.

The ink burned to see the Jinchengchi morning market has started, the bustling city is crowded with people, can not help but a little relieved. It seems that the teacher is innocent, otherwise it will not be so peaceful.

The feeling of Chu’s late night did not know why it was not particularly good, but he did not speak and pulled the ink over without saying a word.

"Master?"

"come."

"what's wrong?"

"Don't go far." Chu Xiaoning's voice seems to reveal some self-blame, even though he is as cold as the old, "Xue Meng and the teacher have lost, I am afraid that I will not be careful, you also..."

The ink burned to see that Chu Ning’s face was pale, and he seemed to be worried about himself. He was first stunned, and then he did not know what to think. His heart was actually a faint move. He opened his eyes to comfort him: "I will not lose, let’s go, Master, we are fast. Go find someone."

He said, while walking forward, while leaning against his arms, he casually took Chu's hand.

"..." Chu Xiaoning's fingertips seemed to be in his palm, shaking a little.

However, it was too fast and too slight. I was ignorant of the teacher in the burning heart, and I did not scrutinize it. It was my own illusion.

"The fish is bloody, the fish is just out of the cage."

"The snake's snake, the top clothes, the last three feet, and the seller will wait for the slave to lick the skin next time."

"Selling the squid scorpion, this young master's ink that he just spit this morning, it's better to take a picture of it with a scorpion - oh, don't leave the little lady."

The screams in the market are endless, and the strange sights are even more dazzling.

The ink burned and smiled and took Chu’s two steps. Suddenly, I suddenly understood that something was wrong. The footsteps suddenly stopped, and the eyes widened in an instant. The blood was cold in an instant.

Something is wrong!

Something is wrong here!

He looked around, and sure enough...

A headless ghost sat in front of the stall selling comb powder, a pair of long red nails with a long nail holding a corner comb, resting his * head on his knees, combing his hair while gently saying: "The finest Bone comb, take a go with the guest."

If so!

If so! In this downtown city, everyone's movements, everyone's words, and everyone's demeanor are exactly the same as yesterday when Chen Shanggong took them.

The ink burned back two steps, hitting the night of Ning Huai Li, he immediately looked up, dumb voice: "Master, this is?"

Chu Xiaoning seems to have thought of this festival for a long time, but when he confirmed it, his heart still sinks to the bottom of the valley, and he catches up with the ink.

"How could this be? - What is this? Mirage?"

Chu night Ning shook his head, but thought for a moment, suddenly slowly said: "Ink burned, you thought about it, Jin Chengchi is a lot of different animals, there are some of them, have seen the real hook Chen Shanggong. Then, for this pretend Why are they not recognizing?"

There is no blood on the face, and some are awkward: "It is true..."

Chu night Ning said: "I will ask you again, if you pretend to be Chen Shanggong, crouching in Jinchengchi, how do you let others say what you want to say, do what you want to do, only to be from, for you acting?"

The ink burned suddenly and understood.

Jane chess game!

Black and white fell, the world is back. No one knows more about the power of this ban. He almost blurted out, but when he saw the eyes of Chu Yuning, he immediately stopped his words.

How can you easily think of the three bans when you are sixteen?

Then the ink ignited: "This is very difficult."

"No." Chu Yuning said, "This is very simple."

He paused, and then said: "As long as they are dead people."

Chapter 43

When the ink burned and he didn't talk, he suddenly heard a sharp and screaming voice behind him: "Let's let one let, let one let me! Let me pass!"

What is that? !

The camel came with heavy stones and struggled to climb forward. It was before the pharmacy at the time, and shouted: "I can't stand it! Come and save a life!"

A white-haired monk swam out - but his other scorpions in the tail were very different. The whole body was filled with gold, sparkling with a lustrous luster. The head of Huafa was tied with a simple hairpin and hung over his shoulder. Although the face is covered with wrinkles, but the face is well-proportioned, the nose is straight and the curvature of the lips is also very suitable. A pair of golden eyes are soaking and raining. It can be imagined that this young man should be born very handsome.

The ink burns.

This was not the case before, what about the green?

The old monk looked at them with a glance, but did not speak, but came to the threshold, leaned over and bent down, and took the stones that came from the camel and took them one by one.

The last stone was removed, and the illusion was broken. The cockroach suddenly blew itself up, and the pus was splashed, like a fog. Almost at the same time, all the enchanting cockroaches in the market were in a stiff shape, and then the whole body was soft and pussy, and all became the stench blood in the lake.

The lake was immediately dyed red, and as the color of the blood became deeper and deeper, the ink burned and the Chu Ningning soon became difficult to see the distant things. After that, it was not clear in the vicinity, and finally the scarlet was in front of him. It is difficult to reach five fingers.

Chu night Ningdao: "Ink burning."

The ink burned too much to understand him, and even if he didn’t want to say anything later, he said, "Master, don't worry, I am."

Chu night is not too much, but also the mouth is too stupid, silent for a while, only said: "everything carefully."

The blood is blurred, and the burning does not see the face that the sky is falling and not changing, but it is easier to perceive the concerns in the voice of the teacher. He rarely felt the warmth of Chu Ning on weekdays. At this moment, he suddenly felt a hot chest and tightened his opponent's hand. He said: "Okay."

The two men got close to each other back and forth, although they couldn't see each other, they could feel the other's heartbeat breathing. The situation is embarrassing, Chu night Ning summoned out the day to ask, the ink burned at this time the spiritual power also replied, followed by summoning a devil.

Soon after the two men called out their respective gods, the ink burned suddenly: "Master, you look over there!"

Chu Xiaoning turned over, just at the door of the pharmacy where the old man picked up the stone, and suddenly there were dozens of white spots of different sizes on the ground. The two went hand in hand, and when they came close, they discovered that the spots were the stones left by them.

These dozens of stones were neatly arranged in three rows by the old monks, each of which exudes a soft glow.

Slowly, in front of the stone, a figure gradually appeared, and it seems that the white hair is still awkward.

The ink burned and tried to ask: "Who are you?"

This person did not answer, he looked at the night, and looked at the ink, then raised his hand silently and pointed to the stones on the ground.

Ink burning asked: "Do you want us to marry this stone?"

The white-haired monk nodded and then extended a finger.

"Yes... what does it mean?"

The white-haired monk nodded and shook his head, pointing to the ink burning, and pointing to the late night.

The ink burned and understood: "Is it one person?"

This time, the white-haired monk was beheaded hard, and then he did not move, staring at the two men with big eyes.

Ink burning asked: "Master, do you want to listen to him?"

"Just do what he said, anyway, there is no other way."

So the two chose a stone to pick up, whoever touched the stone at the fingertips, and flashed through the fascinating fascination, the heavens and the earth rotated, and the colorful colors rushed past. When everything is at rest, the blood red that is not at the end will suddenly disappear.

With a fixed eye, they were sent to the arsenal of God!

"Master!!"

"Master, Ah Burn!!"

Xue Meng and Shi Yan are actually here, seeing Chu Yuning, both of them are shocked and happy, welcome to come over. I didn't think that the glowing stone actually attached and sent a curse. Chu Xi Ning was still slightly disgusted by the rapid rotation of Fang Cai. He held his forehead in one hand, but still held the ink in one hand.

In the blood lake, the ink burns with his hands and does not separate.

Chu Xiaoning’s identity is such that there is very little organic edge that can be associated with ink burning. Most of the time, he can only stand not far away, watching the apprentices intimate.

Therefore, the warmth of the palm of your hand will make him give some cautious cherish...

"Teacher!"

However, for him, it is a precious warmth. In the eyes of another person, it may be as light as a slap in the face, perhaps not worth mentioning, and perhaps even not paying attention to it.

At the moment of seeing the teacher, the ink burned naturally and released his hand.

Chu’s fingertips moved slightly, and for a moment, seemed to want to hold him.

But what is the reason?

He has no courage to like others.

I don't want to lose even a little bit of pity.

Looking at the smoldering, I saw that the teacher smiled so happily, and naturally embraced the teacher and licked each other's hair.

Chu’s fingertips hang down.

With some sorrow, with some embarrassment.

Fortunately.

The face is always used to it, and the growth of emotions and sorrows is not so obvious.

Probably older, people are stiff, and the transmission has been turned for a long time, and my heart is a bit cold.

Fortunately, there is still a little bit of heat at the fingertips.

He relied on the remnant warmth that would soon dissipate, and slowly stood up straight, sorted out his look and eyes, and cleaned up.

"Master, are you okay? How is your face so white..."

At the end of the night, Xue Meng nodded and said: "No matter."

After a while, I asked: "Are you also sent by the monk?"

Xue Meng had not spoken yet, and he heard a burst of bubbling sound. Chu night Ning turned back, suddenly saw half of the fleshy face, followed by a sizzling in the boiling sword pool, even pulled out a staggered person!

This is by no means a mortal, or a living person. No mortal can soak in the burning iron water and still live. On the other hand, this person, although the skin is burnt and the flesh is fuzzy, it is obviously a gasp. The four chains locked his limbs and set him in the furnace, suffering.

He slowly opened his eyes and screamed at the crowds, revealing the color of pleading, and they gathered at the edge of the sword pool.

He can't talk, but there is no way to express it. I saw him waving the bones and the fleshy arms. The molten iron in the pool suddenly picked up a small wave, and the waves slowly twisted into several lines in the air. Ancient text.

Xue Meng was shocked: "What is this word? How can I not understand one?"

Chu nightning: "It is an ancient book of Cangjie, and has not taught you."

Ink burning: "That - what is this written?"

Chu night Ning went to the front to elaborate and said: "...he wants...for help."

According to the ancient book of Cangjie, it is a text of the heavens. It is scattered in the human world. There are very few people in the meeting. Even a generation of masters like Chu Wanning cannot identify all the words. But the general content is still unobtrusive.

Chu night Ning looked at it for a while and slowly translated: "He said that he is the reincarnation of this willow tree. The name is the heart-splitting willow. When he was still a seedling, he was hooked up to the palace and the seven heavens from the gods. Bringing the world. After that, I don’t know why, because of what reason, I’m gone, and I’ve never seen him in the heart, and I don’t know if he is dead or alive.”

"But regardless of the absence of Gou Shanggong, the heart-splitting Liu has been following the instructions he had commanded, hundreds of thousands of years, guarding Jin Chengchi, and guarding the arsenal of God. Gradually, it was nourished by the aura, and the human form was transformed. Then, Everything is as usual, until one day, there is one - "Chu Ning suddenly suddenly lived, did not go down.

Ink burned the road: "What's wrong?"

"...I don't know these three words. It seems to be a personal name." Chu said, he raised his hand and clicked on the complicated words. "In short, this person came to Jin Chengchi. His mana is strong and his heart is hot. Kill all the spirits in the pool and control them with the chess game. The heart will not be spared."

The ink burned immediately: "This person, eight achievements is the fake hook Chen!"

Picking the heart willows heard him say this, slamming the light, and immediately followed his head twice.

"...I really guessed it." The ink burned a little embarrassedly, and scratched his head. "Haha, I can't think I am quite smart."

Chu night Ning looked at him faintly and continued:

"In the past few years, the heart-splitting willows are in a state of dementia. They have never been awake for half a day. Fortunately, the other two pieces of wicker that once had the same temperament with them - Tian Qiao and He Gui, have both awakened. Through their Power, let the heart-splitting will temporarily restore the knowledge of God. Otherwise, I am afraid that it has been out of control at this time, and it is harmful to those present."

"The present" listened, or did not dare to believe, or have a heart, the three youngsters looked up at the spirit in the sword pool, I do not know how to chew it.

Ink burning: "Liu seniors -"

Xue Meng: "Liu senior?"

"Or what is it called, picking up the predecessors?" The ink burned out Xue Meng and continued, "I said that you may not like to listen. Your words are really difficult to justify."

Although he couldn’t speak, but he could understand the words of ink burning, he turned his face.

Ink ignited: "You first said that you were tempted by false hooks, and that you recovered your mind. It was influenced by the aura of heaven and after the awakening. But the * is a fake hook for me, don't he know What will happen to this?"

The topping of the willow shook his head, and the text in front of Chu’s eyes changed.

"I am a * tree species. He doesn't know much about me. I don't know that Shenwu can affect my mind. He studies the three major bans and needs my strength. In recent years, because my life is going to be exhausted, he is in a hurry. I have been seeking to renew my life. But I really don’t want to live again. I’m rather dead, and I don’t want to be a tiger again. Unfortunately, I am subject to people and I can’t help myself...”

Chu Yuening read here, slightly contemplative: "So he let the ink burn to the bottom of the water, the ink is the essence of Muling, the abacus of the fake hook Chen, must be the combination of ink burning and ghostly spirit , sacrifice to you."

Picking the heart willow nodded.

The ink burn still remains puzzled: "But the fake hook said, there are two Muling essences, and the master is one of them. Why did he shut me up alone?"

Topping Liu wrote: "Since the ancient sacrifices are better for the young, and for the use of the tree, it is even more unambiguous. In addition, the sacrifices need to be full and full of food, and the seven emotions and six desires are satisfied, and then the uninformed bliss In the illusion, the life is taken away. If not, the sacrifice of the heart is regrettable, and the grievance is too big, but it will speed up my withering."

He said this. When the ink burned, I thought of the fox demon that turned into a late night in the secret room.

It turned out that it was to satisfy his feelings/desires, just like the fat that pigs raised before the pigs were killed, so that they tasted delicious.

In this way, it makes sense why he saw Chu Yuning, not a teacher. He cherished and pity the teacher, he did not dare to play. In love/destination, his desire for Chu Xiaoning is indeed much stronger than that of Shishi...

Chu night, seeing the ink burns differently, but also tells him that he has a heart and wants to dispel his two sentences, so he asks: "What are you thinking?"

"No, nothing."

Seeing the blushing of the ink, Chu night lingered for a moment, suddenly understood, and suddenly stopped his mouth, after a long while, some turned angry and turned his head.

Where is this kid's heart? It turned out that I recalled the so-called ‘seven emotions and six desires, and I began to think about it.

Chu night Ning squats, cold face, whispered a sentence: "I don't know shame."

Ink burning: "....."

Fortunately, Chu night never knows who is the person who satisfies his feelings/desires in the illusion. If he knows, will he be so angry that he will be stripped of him?

Just thinking, suddenly, the ground of the arsenal trembled for a while, Xue Meng said: "What is going on?"

The author has something to say: the second is more complete, thank you again~ la la la~

Today, the bib has forwarded the fake car map of Shizun yesterday! Thanks for the illustration of the painting of Qingqiu’s big baby~ she really drives without a word...

I transferred the most serious one to the portal, and I went to the microblog of "Call for Qingqiu" to find all the original pictures~

Chapter 44

The topping of the willow spirit is not as good as the answer, and the complexion is distorted and deformed. He raises his hand and holds his head in pain, his mouth wide open, and his voice is silent. Although he couldn't make a sound, the expression, the violent eyes, seemed to make people hear the screams of heartbreaking.

Help.

Help! ! ! !

His lip-shaped disc twisted into an incredible arc, and the bloodshot quickly spread all over the eye. If there weren't those four chains squatting at him, he was afraid that he had to fly and sneak away.

"I beg you... fast... ruin me..."

It seems that the time limit for picking up the heart and reviving the mind has arrived. The heart-splitting Liu Ling body struggles but is ineffective. I only see a black gas in the sword pool, and constantly attacking the body of the willow spirit soaked in the pool. Time chain chain Ling Ling, fireworks splashed.

When Chu Jingning saw the situation change, he quickly swung his sleeves behind his disciples and looked sharp. He asked the heart to pick up Liu Dao: "How to save you?"

Although the action of picking the heart will be slow, it can drive the molten iron in the sword pool and form an old book in the blink of an eye.

"I will lose my knowledge immediately, and I will hurt my life. It is not my heart. The rest I can't help, and I can't talk about it. Only telling me about the spells I will be, I want to be careful..."

The hot metal is changing.

"I have three tricks. One of them, Nanke has a dream. This is a scorpion, the subject will be repaid in the drowsiness, and the dream will last forever. Because of this, even if some spiritual power is strong enough to perceive this is the field. Illusion, will still be willing to indulge in it, never awake.

Second, the fascination is tempted by the greed of the human heart, which makes it self-sacrifice.

Third, topping..."

However, his spiritual power has already been used at this time, and it is impossible to mobilize the molten iron and put more words.

It is not known what the ability of this topping is.

I was struggling with the heart, and suddenly burst into a * fog. He couldn’t move the hot metal, but he still took the blood from his fingers. A pair of eye-catching eyes stared at the night, and the eyes were sharp. Not reconciled.

"Master!" Seeing that the late night of Chu would go forward, Xue Meng was busy pulling him. "Don't go, fear of fraud!"

Picking the heart will not speak, just hanging the finger that is bloody, suddenly, tears flow out of the eyes.

Chu nightning: "...you want me to go?"

Picking the heart willow slowly.

"..."

"Master!"

Xue Meng wanted to stop again, but Chu Xiening shook his head toward him, and went forward alone, to the most edge of the Jianjianchi, and handed his hand over.

The topping of the heart seems to be quite touching. He looked deeply at Chu’s night, struggled and waved the arm with the flesh. It seemed to be a tribute, and then he endured great pain and caught Chu Yuning. The hand trembled in the palm of the other hand and wrote:

Lottery, breaking nightmare...

Don't -- lose... heart... wisdom...

Hey...breaking...robbing-extinguishing! !

The last word of the word has not yet been written, and the heart-splitting will suddenly resemble a pool of mud, quickly smashing, falling back into the boiling sword pool, disappeared.

At the same time, I only heard the loud noise of "嘭", and the Jianjianchi suddenly set off a huge red water wave, rolling in the molten iron, and the nine-way dragon-shaped fire column was vacated, and Chu Yuning was forced by this stormy wave. Had to retreat to the back, the fire reflected his dark eyebrows.

In the gushing molten iron flow column, suddenly four sets of signs were raised and hung in the air.

The teacher remembered the instructions he had just made when he was awake, and quickly said: "This is the lottery that the picking heart said?"

Seeing him approaching, Chu nightning stopped him: "Don't touch, go behind me."

Teacher: "Master..."

"If I am here, it will be fine." Chu said, "You can't take risks. When I finish, you will come again."

The ignorance of this statement seems to have no emotional ups and downs, but it sounds like a burning heart. I don't know why, the late night of the night, suddenly, and then overlap with the ruthless people who used to watch the apprentice's death.

He can say such a thing, why can he stand by and watch the death of his apprentice?

The smoldering suddenly felt that he himself had never understood the person who was late in the night.

He can't help but mutter: "Master..."

Chu nightning did not pay attention to them, raised his hand and picked one of the signatures. The sign was made of pale yellow jade pieces. He flipped through both sides of the front and back, "low?"

"What's wrong?" Xue Meng asked.

Chu night Ningdao: "This is not a word on the sign."

"Is this going to happen?" Xue Mengqi said, "I will try it."

The four signatures were each drawn. The situation of Xue Meng and Shi Yi is exactly the same as that of Chu Xi Ning. There is no text on the jade film. The ink burns over his signature and suddenly widens his eyes:

"Drinking ancient rain?"

The other three immediately cast their gaze on him, Xue Meng frowned: "What kind of ancient rain?"

The ink burned his signature: "This is written on it."

Xue Meng took a look at it and suddenly angered: "Hey! Are you reading the half that you can recognize?"

"...is a blood leak." Chu night Ning suddenly said.

Cangjie ancient books, he can know all the ninety-nine, if there is an uncertain word, it will not be nonsense, so since he said that this is written on the blood leak, it will never admit mistakes.

Ink burns: "What does blood drip mean?"

Chu night Ning shook his head: "I don't know."

However, like answering them in general, the towering dome of the arsenal of God suddenly came rumbling, a huge hourglass descended from the sky, and the whole body was rusted. However, unlike the rest of the hourglass, it has a cross-shaped copper frame on top of it, and I don't know what it is for.

Chu night Ning looked at the hourglass, and coveted the signing of the ink burning hands.

Blood dripping.

Between the electric and the flint, it is clear what the so-called "lottery plan" means. Chu nightning instantly changed color, and shouted: "Ink burn, throw the sign away!"

Although I don’t know what it means to be late in the night, the order that can’t be said is almost to let the ink burn down and follow his words.

I don’t want to throw it, I don’t know it. When I threw it, the ink burned and found that the jade signing did not know what kind of power was attached to the palm of his hand, but it was impossible to get rid of it.

Chu Xi Ning snorted and screamed, and he had to exchange his own signing with the ink. Unexpectedly, the rusting copper hourglass suddenly protruded dozens of sharp thorns and slammed into the ink!

"Get out!"

"Shi Zun!!!"

"Master!"

In an instant, blood splattered, and it was crucial. Chu nightning would push the palm of the ink away, and the thorns would be like wearing a forest feather arrow.

The ink burning is now a young man's figure. Naturally, it is not the result of the late night, but it was pushed back and fell to the ground. But the sound of the physical tear is so clear and horrible, Xue Meng and the teacher's almost distorted voice are so sharp and sharp.

impossible.

how is this possible……

That is the late night of Chu, who is the one who beat him and swears at him, never gives him a good look. He is the one who is trying to see his own brother who died in front of him. It is said that "the nature is inferior and the quality is difficult"

The ink burns up.

In the chaos, he saw that the person splashed three feet, the sharp and dense thorns penetrated from behind the man, and then smashed out from the front, where he was, and he was unbiased. The place to hit. The old wound did not heal, and the fascia was again devastated and the flesh and blood were blurred.

It’s that... It’s the one who took his own body in the shackles and guarded him, and he was also stunned by the claws.

It was that, hiding under the stone bridge, secretly releasing the array, sheltering everyone from the rain, but not dare to show up.

It was that, in the past life, after the death of the teacher, in order to let him have a mood to eat something, he was clumsy to go to the kitchen to copy the hand of the night.

It is that, the temper is bad, the mouth is bad, the medicine is afraid of suffering, the spicy cough, the person he is most familiar with.

It’s that person, he often remembers not to care, hate his teeth, but feels pitiful...

Chu nightning.

Late Ning...

"Master!!" The sizzling screamed, and he even climbed and stalked toward the late night, "Shi Zun!!!!"

"Your sign..." Chu Yuening shivered and raised his hand, his face was white, but his eyebrows were still sharp, "change it to me..."

He stretched out into the palm of his ink, and spread the wordless sign he had drawn, the arm that shivered slightly because of the pain, and it was difficult and slow to lift.

Chu nightning's eyes are very bright, very determined, covered with a layer of water vapor.

"Come, give it to me!"

The ink burned and didn't even get up. He climbed up to the night of Chu, and looked at the horrible wounds of his flesh and blood.

"No...master..."

"Master!!"

Xue Meng and Shi Yan wanted to come over. Chu night would rather hate the iron and not become a steel look. He waved an enchantment and shoved him apart. Then he sighed: "Day to ask!!!"

When the day comes out, it will smash the dozens of sharp canes of Chu’s late night!

But the cane is not a vulgar, and Chu will rather feel that they are swallowing his spiritual power between his flesh and blood. There is no other way, only silver teeth bite, raise your hand and hold the broken branch, smash your heart, and pull out the vine branch!

For a moment, blood rushed!

Chu nightning throws the broken branches, gasps, points to his own veins and acupoints, and stops blood loss. Then a pair of black, shiny eyes smothered with ink, and mute: "Give me."

"Master respect..."

"Change your sign-up to me! I will change it with you!"

At this time, the ink burned also understood what the so-called "blood drip" meant. It is similar to the method of smashing the law of the past millions of years ago.

Sure enough, no matter the devil, the vicious, and the idea of digging a hollow mind, it is so close.

Blood dripping.

It is to replace the fine sand with human blood, replace the running water, and fill it into the drip for timing.

The blood is running out and the time is over.

When he used to step on Xianjun in his life, he did not use Zhou Xiaoning to make a drip. He wanted to watch him step on the head of the door. He wanted the blood of Chu’s night to flow in front of him. What?

However, this world, before the blood leak under the hook.

Chu nightning is willing to take the initiative to exchange his safe signing, he is willing to take the copper frame for himself, he...

The whole heart of the ink burned up.

He can't even think.

How can it be...

How can it be! !

The copper drip missed a hit, not tied to the person, waving the vine branch again, wanting a second wave of attack.

Chu night Ning looked at him, and the wave of light in his eyes shook slightly.

He hurt the ground pale, and gasped slightly: "Ink, you... you obey, give it to me."

"..."

"Come a little..." Chu Yuening’s face was white like a new moon, "...Do you want me to block the second attack for you?!"

"Master respect..."

Fujiwa will come again.

At that moment, the ink burned and handed the sign, and Chu night never even thought about it.

Unexpectedly, in the palm of the hand, the whisker will be touched, and the ink burns in the eye. He almost quickly closes the palm, and the backhand will stop the unprepared Chu Xi Ning behind him, that is, at the same time, the second wave of cane When it hits, the ink burns up and the young man's body is swallowed up by the willow wrap, dragging it to the copper drip.

"Ink burn!!"

Dozens of willows were wrapped around him, and he was tied to a cross-strand and tied tightly. The side of the ink burned over the face, and looked at the night of Chu, and his lips moved.

Chu nightning's eyes suddenly widened.

The sound of ink burning is not too loud, but he can hear it clearly and never wrong.

Ink burns: "Master, I am really not... inferior and difficult to change..."

So, can you, don't give up on me.

——

But in the second half of the sentence, I can't say it anyway. In the past, he wanted to say that he did not say that this life is already late.

Chu nightning does not give up on him, he has seen it is no longer so important.

Just don't want to owe this person.

He is very stupid, and some people are still confused about their feelings for Chu Yuening. They don't want to be more confused.

In this life, I ignite my heart, I care about it, and I care only about it.

The reason why I don't want to exchange the signing with Chu Jingning, I just don't want to be blessed by this person for no reason, just don't want to...

I don't want to see it again.

His drizzle is not a heart, and the happiest thing in his life is that someone is willing to be good to him.

A little better, he can smile and spring.

If it is very good, then it is to let him die, but also willing.

In the dense rattan, suddenly a brilliant sword appeared.

The sword looked like a martial art. Although it was ancient, there was a heroic face. Two hoops on the left and right; the first tooth of the sword is like a thorn; the sword is narrow and narrow, inlaid with the floating plastic of the head of the dragon, the ornament is complicated, the blade is overflowing with blue brilliance, the hair is broken, and the iron is broken.

The ink burned only to see the word "hooking" on the sword, and even the "upper palace" was not perfect. This sword, which belongs to the * of the 10,000 soldiers, penetrated directly into his chest.

The blood is flowing out and sinking into the drip.

At the same time, the arsenal of God suddenly dropped a curtain and splashed the water curtain, separating the ink from the burning and the night. Everyone was blocked by this sudden torrent.

The teacher shouted: "A burning!! Ah burning -!"

The rushing water curtains obscured their sights, and they could not see the situation of the back of the ink. Chu was rather smashed into the water several times, but was repeatedly pushed by the savage stream. At the end, he was wet. Throughout, the dark eyebrows are on the anxious face, and the lips are all colorless.

Chu night Ningsha dumb road:

"Ink burning -!"

The sound was not too loud, but it was very trembling. He himself did not notice, but the teacher was suddenly shocked. He looked at him, but he was so calm and calm that the calm masters were stunned. The long and thick eyelashes trembled, and there was a lingering concern in his expression. .

Seeing that he called the day to ask, the eyebrows are violent, like a bowstring that stretches to the extreme. The teacher was uneasy, grabbed him and shouted: "Master, don't go! Can't get in!"

Chu night Ning was ignored, and a pair of eyes were sharp and sharp, and they held up an enchantment silently and insisted on moving forward. But the water curtain contains the heaven and earth spirit of Jinchengchi, but it can not be worn, but it is as sharp as a thousand arrows, and it stabs the musculoskeletal.

He was seriously injured before, and at this time, he was so strongly affected that he couldn’t stand it. Although he couldn’t help but hold his chest, he couldn’t help it. He squinted on his knees and his wound on his back. Bring out the bright red blood.

The teacher’s face can’t tell whether it’s splashing water or tears. It’s awful: “Master! You – why are you suffering...”

"What is the pain? If the person behind the water curtain is you, it is Xue Meng." Chu night is very strong, "I will..."

He really hurts a lot, tightens his eyebrows and can't say it.

At this time, suddenly a sword light came out from the water curtain, and it was like a tofu to tear this powerful curtain.

The sword was fierce and unusual, and the position was unbiased. It just happened to be in the position where the teacher was standing. Seeing that it was going to hit him, Chu nighting slammed his sleeves and made all the spiritual powers fall into a guardian enchantment. The sergeant is firmly guarded under the enchantment, and he consumes too much power and takes a sip of blood.

A high-clear and clear male voice sounded slowly and echoed in this arsenal:

"I am the soldier of the gods, and I am going to go to the palace, and I am so arrogant and arrogant, how frivolous!"

The author has something to say:

Chapter 45

Xue Meng shouted in the air: "Dog God! Is your dog's eyes smashed? Are we arrogant? We are being seen by you!"

Shi Shi said: "It's useless. This is the voice he left behind. His deity is not here. I want to come up with a false hook and confuse the judgment of picking the heart, let him think that we are squatters who are trying to misbehave."

That voice continues:

"When the world is worthy of the weapon of the gods, when you understand what is good, what is tough, not a dream, not a mind. If you come, you will be tested by me. If the test is over, then you will be innocent, and the gods will be blessed. If Dal, if it is selfish and self-sufficient, it will not be worthy of being the master of God!"

Chu night Ning licked the blood of the lips and teeth, Sen Ran said: "A good kindness ... take people to do blood leaks, is your so-called benevolence?"

He knows that Gou Shanggong can't hear it at all, but he is still angry. Even if he speaks a word, he breathes heavily, and the wound is more painful, and he can't control his own mean mouth.

The voice continues to reverberate in the arsenal of the gods: "To test the heart. Er will wait for the dream of the top of the heart. If you can't wake up from the illusion in time, you will be * and bury yourself here." ""

The three people heard that the blood was all gone.

The teacher whispered: "What..."

The meaning is that the three of them are about to fall into a dream.

If you can't be awake in time, the three of them will live forever in the dream, and let the ink burn in the reality and the blood will die and die?

Xue Meng dumbly screamed after a moment: "What kind of * are you! If Xiu Xian is to cultivate you like this, Laozi will not bother to touch the sword in this life!!"

Chu night Ning also angered: "It is ridiculous!"

"Master!" The teacher hurriedly persuaded him, "Do not be angry, beware of wounds."

And the grandson of Chen Shanggong, even at this time, picked up the poems and slowly said: "The effluent is flat, and the things flow from north to south. Life is also alive, and Aneng can sigh and sit on the wine to make it self-width. It’s hard to make a toast to sing a song. The heart is not a stone, and there’s no feeling.

Xue Meng is almost fainting: "What are you talking about!"

Shi said: "Bao Zhao's plan is difficult, meaning that people have their own lives, how can they blame themselves, the wine is wide, the song is interrupted by wine. The heart is not a stone, how can there be no emotion, want to say still , the words are still resting."

Gou Chen Shanggong sighed and said: "This is a floating world, there are a few people, can give up a lifelong dream, just to help others? The world is not only killing, but also fighting. If Shenwu falls into the hands of the traitor, it is my However, I am the guilt of creating a blade, how to be self-width..."

Suddenly, the arsenal of God was dark. The debris used in the flying castings in the air also stopped working. A layer of shimmer was slowly lit up at the top of the dome. It seems that there is a star-studded fascination that gradually fades and shines on the ground.

There is a voice in the air whispering: "Sleep..."

This soft and sparkling brilliance seems to have some kind of confusing effect. The teacher and Xue Mengxiu are not deep, and soon fall into a coma.

"Sleep..."

Chu night Ning clenched his teeth, strong self-resistance, but the power of the beginning of God is vast, he is finally unable to get rid of the drowsiness of the sinking, not into the dream.

God arsenal.

As a blood drip, the smoldering is the only person who is awake. He coughs and bleeds, and across the already weakened waterfall, he can see the three people who are trapped in the dream.

Chu Xiaoning, Shi Yan, Xue Meng, have been sleeping.

The ink burned the words of the hook, knowing that only one of them can wake up in time, the spell can be broken, and he can be saved.

However, time passed by, the mind became more and more dizzy, and the body gradually became cold. No one woke up from his dreams.

It can be said that it is unsatisfactory for retribution. In the past life, it was so good for Chu, and in this life, I also felt the taste of blood loss.

It’s funny.

Among them, who can give up the best dreams in life, what they want most, and come to save him?

Xue Meng is absolutely impossible.

Chu Yuning... It’s gone, I don’t want him.

If there is, that person should be a teacher.

He is thinking vaguely. But the blood has lost too much, and consciousness is almost unbearable.

The ink burned down and looked at the foot. The blood leaking to the bottom of the copper drip was diluted by the water in the leaking pot, with a reddish wave of light.

He suddenly wanted to know, if he himself fell into the illusion of the hook, what kind of scene can he see?

Does he dream of a crystal-clear copying hand, a gentle smile from the teacher, a tribute to Chu’s late night, and when the first come to life, the winds of the mountains and the wild...

"Ink burning..."

Suddenly I heard someone calling myself.

The ink burned still hangs his head, feeling that he should be losing his mind, so that he has already had an illusion.

"Ink burning."

"Ink burning!"

Not an illusion!

He suddenly raised his face.

The scene in front of him made his pupils close together -

He is almost a sigh: "Shi Yan!!!!"

It is a teacher!

The person who wakes up, throws away the happiness, abandons happiness, and remembers his people in the best of luck.

It’s a teacher...

The ink burned through the waterfall, the delicate boy who came towards him, and suddenly, his throat whimpered.

"Teacher...you..."

I don’t know what to say at the end. The ink burned closed eyes and hoarse.

"Thank you... can still be in a good dream... still remember me..."

The sergeant waded through the water, the clothes were soaked, and the eyebrows were dark, the appearance and the smoldering were as gentle as when he first saw him. It was as gentle as the dreams he had seen in previous life, and he talked with him when he was in the cold. The same gentleness.

The teacher said: "Don't be silly, say thank you."

He approached, and it was discovered that his feet were bleeding.

When the ground does not know when it becomes hot, Gou Shanggong seems to have an idea to test what a person can do for his companions, so after the temptation of the dream, it is a torturous torture.

The boots of the sergeant have been burned through. If he does not leave, the ground will remain as usual, but if he insists on going forward, every step of the way, there will be a cluster of fires at the foot, the temperature is not high, and people will not directly It can't be burned, but it can make people feel absolutely painful.

But this gentle person, obviously he has been so painful, but in the glance, his eyes are more and more determined, and he walks one step at a time.

"The ink burns, you can bear it."

He says.

"I will save you right away."

Touching his eyes, the ink burns knows that he does not have to say the phrase "don't come over."

This person's eyes are too determined and too persevering.

Such a look, he has never seen his face before.

If the mood of the ink burns is fixed, he will definitely feel embarrassed.

The teachers and sisters all call themselves "A Burning". When did they call him to burn?

He only said that he was good to him, but he did not realize that the person standing in front of him was not a teacher, but rather

It is Chu nightning.

The last skill of Gu Liu is called topping.

The so-called topping is to exchange the mind between people and people.

When Chu Ningning broke away from the dream, when he woke up, he found that he and the teacher changed their minds. Under the spell of the heart-splitting willow, his knowledge was transferred to the body of the teacher, and the same was true for the teacher. Only the teacher did not wake up, so from beginning to end, I did not know that I had changed my body.

Chu Xiaoning had no time to explain, but he did not know the truth of the ink, and he really thought that the person in front of him was a teacher.

He feels that the teacher will certainly endure the pains of suffering, just as he has experienced death and can't forget his good. People are very stubborn.

But it is too cruel.

When Chu Ning finally came to the copper drip, he went to climb the towering cane, and when he wanted to save the ink on it, the rattan will suddenly produce a fine thorn that burned the flame.

Chu nightning did not expect that the hand was suddenly spurred, and it was necessary to forcefully climb, but the physical training of the teacher was not strong. He suddenly fell, and the skin of the hand was instantly opened by the thorn.

"...!"

Chu Xiaoning snorted and painfully frowned.

Shi Mingjing this broken shell!

Ink burning: "Teacher!"

Chu Xiaoning wrestled on the ground, and the flesh that touched the ground was instantly burnt by the heat, but his eyebrows were tight, but he bit his lips in inertia, never shouting.

Such a look would be very embarrassing and arrogant on his own face, but replaced with a gentle face, but it was a bit pitiful.

People really can't compare with people.

"Teacher..."

The ink burned the opening, but the tears came down.

The heart is like a knife. In the vague vision, he saw that the man was thin and thin, so the weak man, but little by little, grabbed the cane and slowly climbed up.

The fine thorn pierced his hand, and the fire burned the bones.

The bright red stained a piece, and all the places that passed were mottled blood.

The ink burns and closes the eyes, the voice is bloody, and the words are trembled.

"Master...hey..."

The man was very close, and the smoldering saw a pain in his eyes. He seemed to be really hurt, and even the burning sound was a torture for him.

Therefore, the people in front of you are stubborn, but the gaze can be called a pleading.

"Don't call me again."

"..."

"Ink, you wait a second, I will... save you... next... come..."

Almost in the moment when the voice fell, the tough light of his eyes floated up, like a sharp-edged blade, and he couldn’t tell the good looks on the gentle face.

Chu night Ning robes are rolling, and they jump on the copper drip.

He is like a golden paper, crumbling, in addition to still breathing, it is no different from the dead.

At that moment, the smoldering felt that he was not as dry as blood, and it was better to let him suffer.

There is a broken voice in his throat: "I'm sorry."

Chu Xiaoning knows this sound is sorry, not for himself. He wanted to explain, but when he got the silver-blue sabre that was in the palace, he was stabbing in the ink-breasted ribs. The spiritual source of the veins might be on this sword. He was worried that the injury would be heavier and he was still in front of his "teacher" and asked:

"Ink burning, have you believed in me?"

"I believe in you." Never hesitated.

Chu Xiaoning raised his eyelashes and looked at him. He grasped the hilt. This sword is close to the heart, and it is a little careless. The ink burns will be killed.

"..." Chu Xiaoning's hand was shaking, holding, but not moving.

The ink-burning eyes were still red, but suddenly smiled: "Sister."

"……Ok."

The ink burned: "...I am going to die."

"……will not."

"If I am going to die, can... can I hold you?"

When he said this sentence, he was very cautious and his eyes were shining with light. Chu Xinning’s heart suddenly softened.

However, it is another person who thinks of the burning of the eyes. This softness immediately condenses into ice.

He suddenly felt that he was an insignificant harlequin on the stage, and no one noticed him after the sleeves of Tsing Yi Hua Dan’s small man.

He is superfluous in this resilience.

Or perhaps the only use is to look at the ugly face, drawing a smile drawn by ink, to lining the joys and sorrows of others, love and hate.

How ridiculous.

I didn’t know about this, but he saw the flashing of the eyes of Chu’s late night. He said that he was reluctant to say it. He immediately said, “Hold it. Just like it.”

A sigh of invisibility.

"actually, I……"

Ink burning: "What?"

"... forget it." Chu Yuning said, "Nothing."

He leaned over, not very close, afraid of moving to the sword, then he reached out and gently caught the burning shoulders.

He heard the ink burning in his ear and said, "Teacher, thank you for waking up, thank you for being in a good dream, still remember me."

Chu Xiaoning lowered his eyes, his eyelashes were like a butterfly fan, and then he smiled lightly: "No thanks."

After a pause, he said: "Ink burning."

"Ok?"

Chu Xi Ning is still in his dreams, hugs him, caresses his hair, sighs softly. "Do you know that if the dream is too good, it will not be true?"

He said, hugs like a little water, and immediately left.

When the ink burned up, he didn't quite understand the meaning of the teacher. He only knew that this little hug was a sweetheart from the teacher and alms to him.

Sour and sweet, when rubbed to the base of the tongue, it gives birth to a trace of cockroaches.

At the moment of the sword, the blood is flying like a sea otter that has been blown away by the wind.

The ink burned only felt pain in my heart, and I thought I was going to die in an instant. I was so unwilling to pay attention to my heart, and suddenly blurted out: "Sister, I have always loved you very much. You..."

As the sabre came to the ground, the cane will spread out in an instant, and the waterfall flowing down the sky suddenly ceased, and the arsenal suddenly returned to silence.

I have always loved you very much.

What about you...

The body has reached the limit, and the smoldering feels a black rush.

At the moment of falling, he was caught by a pair of blood-stained hands and fell in the arms of the teacher. I don't know if it is an illusion. I saw the teacher licking his eyebrows and slowly closing his eyes.

He seemed to hear the teacher gently said: "Me too."

Ink burning: "!"

It’s an illusion, otherwise why the teacher’s look is so sad, but still promises him.

"I also... love you."

The consciousness finally dissipated, and the ink burned into a coma.

Chapter 46

When I woke up, Mo was found to be still in the arsenal of God.

He seems to have slept for a long time, but when he blinks, he finds that time has not passed too long, and even seems to be just a blink of an eye.

I don't know if it was because the spell was broken. When he woke up, he found himself lying on the ground, but he was unharmed. The sly wound, the dripping blood, was like a nightmare, and there was no trace left on him.

The ink can't help but be surprised and happy. When I look at the teacher, he doesn't know when he is still in a coma, but it is not hurt in the autumn.

Could it be that after the trial of Chen Shanggong, the hooks not only removed the illusion, but also restored the injuries they suffered in the illusion?

.....

Although I think about it carefully, Gou Shanggong does not want to harm people. However, this is in line with the original intention of the trial, but it is not true, but even feels the rest of the life.

Among the four people, he was the first to wake up.

Then, the teacher, see the teacher slowly open the eyelashes, the ink burned overjoyed, and even said: "Sister! We are fine! Nothing! You look at me!"

In the division, there was a smear in the first place, and then it gradually became clear. He suddenly opened his eyes: "A burning?! You-"

If the words are not finished, they will be hugged by the ink.

The teacher couldn’t help but patted him on the shoulder gently: "What happened to you..."

"Sorry, I am hurting you so much."

The teacher said: "In fact, it is not a problem, I just have a dream."

Ink burning: "That's really hurt!"

Teacher: "...What really hurts?"

At this time, Xue Meng also woke up. He didn't know what he had dreamed of. He shouted: "Bold madman! It is even thinner than me!"

The teacher saw that he woke up and said in the past: "Less master."

"Ah... how are you? How come you?" Xue Meng thought he was still in a dream.

The ink burned in a good mood, and Xue Meng’s look was also very soft. He smiled and told him about it, and Xue Meng suddenly returned to God.

"It turned out to be a dream... I thought..."

In order to cover up the cockroaches, Xue Meng coughed and suddenly found that Chu Ningning, who had always been the most powerful, even fell asleep, and could not help but be shocked.

"How is Master still not awake?"

They walked over and looked at the wounds of Chu Xiaoning. Because Chu Xiaoning was injured before the opening of the illusion, according to the design of the Gou Chengong, only the damage in the illusion can be recovered. Therefore, Chu’s shoulder is still soaked with a lot of blood, which is shocking.

The ink sighed and said: "Let's wait a little longer."

After touching the time of a column of incense, Chu Ning finally finally woke up.

He slowly opened his eyes, and his eyes were cold when he woke up, like a white snow. After a long time, he turned his eyes and his eyes fell on the ink.

But he seems to be the same as Xue Meng. He was still not fully awake for a moment. He looked at the ink and slowly reached out his hand and muttered, "You..."

Ink burning: "Master."

Hearing him calling himself, Chu Xinning’s hand was condensed in the air, and the pale face seemed to have a trace of blood, and his eyes suddenly brightened: “Hmm...”

"Master!!"

Xue Meng rushed over and squeezed the ink to the side, holding the hand of Chu Xiaoning: "How are you? Is it better? Master respects you for so long, I am worried about death."

Chu Xiaoning saw Xue Meng, slightly condensed, and the mist in his eyes gradually dispersed. Then take a closer look at the ink burning, seeing the other side is holding himself, but it is pulling the hand of the teacher, and has not let go.

"..."

Chu nightning completely woke up, his face cold. Then it was like drying the fish in the pond, and finally it was dead.

The teacher is concerned: "Master, are you still okay? Should you hurt?"

Chu night Ning Ping said: "I am fine, no pain."

Under the help of Xue Meng, he slowly stood up. The ink burned with a sorrowful sorrow. The night of Chu’s injury was the shoulder. Why did he stand up when he got up, as if his foot was hurt?

The ink burned that Chu Xiaoning did not know what happened in the illusion, but briefly recounted it.

When the teacher just listened, he felt that something was wrong. At this time, I heard it again. I felt even more strange. I couldn’t help but say: "A burning, you said that I saved you?"

"correct."

The teacher quieted for a while and slowly said: "But I... I have been dreaming, I haven’t woken up."

The ink burned, but then smiled: "Don't be kidding."

The teacher said: "I am not kidding, I am dreaming... I dreamt of my mother, they are still alive. That dream is too real, I seem... I don't seem to be able to bear to leave them, I really-"

When he didn't finish his words, he heard that Chu was rather faint: "There is nothing strange about this. It is probably the illusion of Gou Chen that erased the memory of your rescue. In short, neither Xue and I have saved. He, since he said that you saved, you saved."

Teacher: "..."

"Otherwise, is it true that there is still a way to exchange people's minds?" Chu night Ning cold and cold.

He is not willing to make a wedding dress for others. He originally wanted to tell the truth about the ink. He also hoped that the ink would be aware of it. He could understand that the people in the illusion were not teachers, but he changed himself with the teacher.

However, the final confession of the smoldering of the sorcerer was too embarrassing for Chu Xiening.

When I wake up, I look at the shiny eyes of the black ink. For a moment, Chu Xiaoning felt that perhaps there was something in his heart that cares about himself.

Such humble expectations are also the soft thoughts that he dared to quietly explore after so long.

But that is nothing but his self-confidence.

He will not know the blood, the wounds, the burns, and there is no need to know.

He is not stupid, although he does not say it, but he can feel the smoldering of the gentle and beautiful people. How can I see myself, standing in the corner, like a puppet with gray.

But when I heard the smouldering out and said, "I always love you," Chu Xiaoning still felt that he had lost his wolverine and was defeated.

The hug in the illusion, in the view of the smoldering, was given to him by the teacher.

The smoldering will never know, the hug is actually his own, and the alms are given to another poor person.

Chu nightning never thought that the ink would love himself, so this feeling, he tried very hard to press, not to force, not to disturb, not to touch.

Those savage loves, passionate entanglements, are only growing on the soil of youth. When he was young, he also hoped that someone could accompany him and make a monthly decision, but he has been waiting, but he has not waited for this person. Later, the day passed, and his reputation and status in the realm of cultivation were getting higher and higher. Everyone turned to his high mountains and said that he was not close to human feelings. Later, he accepted such a high mountain and was not close to human feelings.

He seems to be hiding in a scorpion, and the years are spinning on his shackles. At first he could see a little light from the outside through the cocoon, but every year, the more silk, the thicker he is, the more he can no longer see the light. There are only myself, and darkness.

He does not believe in love, does not believe in the sky, but does not want to pursue something. If he had gone through all the hardships, he bit the scorpion and brutally climbed out, but no one outside waited for him. What should he do?

Although he likes to burn, this person is too young, too far away, too blazing, and Chu will rather not be close, fearing that one day will be burned to such an ashes by such a flame.

So, all the retreats he can take, he retired.

He didn't know what he was doing wrong.

As a result, he only had a little bit of delusion left, but he was still drowned by the cold rain that was enough to cover the sky.

"Master, look over there!" Xue Meng's screaming called back the feeling of Chu Xiaoning, and he followed the sound, only to see the raging melt in the sword pool, the flames surrounded, the ancient wood tree The spirit re-breaks the water. However, the tree spirits turned white, which is obviously a state of dementia. With both hands holding the silver sword of Chen Shanggong.

Chu night Ningdao: "Run! Hurry!"

Without him repeating the second time, the disciples immediately rushed to the exit.

The tree spirit that was controlled by the sky was screaming at the sky, and the chain of iron was shaken. No one spoke, but the four people heard a voice in the same place:

"Block them, one can't run away."

Xue Meng lost his way: "Someone is speaking in my ear!"

Chu night Ningdao: "Don't care about him, it is the fascination of picking the heart and willow! Run yourself!"

He said that other people have thought of it. When they were awake, they once mentioned them. The so-called fascination is to seduce people’s greed and make them kill each other.

Sure enough, the voice in the night of Chu’s ears squeaked: "Chu Ning, are you not tired?"

"A generation of masters, Yuheng in the evening. Such a character, but only secretly secretly loves his apprentice. You pay a lot for him, but he does not know how to be good, there is never you in the eyes, just like the gentle and pleasant teacher. Brother. How pitiful are you?"

Chu Evening’s face was blue and green, and he ignored the noise in his ears and swept away from the exit.

"Come to me, pick up this ancestor sword, kill the teacher, no one is between you. Come to me, I can help you get what you want, let your favorite people love you. Come by my side……"

Chu night Ning anger said: "So small, not fast!"

Others apparently heard the different conditions raised by the voice. Although their footsteps slowed down, they still resisted the temptation. As they get closer and closer to the exit, the topping of the heart seems to be getting more and more crazy, and the ears are almost twisted.

"I want to be clear! If you get out of this door, you will have no chance!"

The voices in everyone's ears are different, screaming screaming.

"Chu night, Chu, late, do you really have to be alone forever?"

"Ink rain, this world only knows where the dead medicine is coming, come to me, let me tell you-"

"Shi Mingjing, I know the deep desire in your heart, only I can help you!"

"Xue Ziming, the * Wu you picked is a fake! Jin Chengchi only has the last weapon that was made by Chen Shanggong. When you come back, this ancestor sword will belong to you! Are you not a peerless soldier? You Don't you want to be the pride of the sky? No gods, you are always better than others! Come to me..."

"Xue Meng!" The ink burned and suddenly found the cousin running around him disappeared.

Turning his head, he saw Xue Meng's footsteps slower and slower, and eventually stopped, looking back at the floating silver blue sabre in the sword pool.

The ink burns in the heart.

He knows how deep Xue Meng’s obsession with Shenwu. When the kid learned that the weapon he had obtained was a fake, he must have lost it. Picking up the heart and taking the ancestor sword to seduce him, it is really better.

"Xue Meng, don't believe him, don't go over!"

The teacher also said: "Less master, let's go, we will go to the exit!"

Xue Meng suddenly looked back at them, and the voice echoed in his ears became more and more confusing: "They scold you, don't want you to get the weapon of the gods. You think about the light rain, he has already obtained his weapons, he can't wait. You have nothing to gain. You are brothers, you are not as good as him, and the position of the Lord who is alive and dead, of course, will be his."

Xue Meng muttered: "You stay."

The ink burned in front of him seemed to be anxiously shouting at him, but he couldn’t hear clearly, just holding his head and repeating it: "You shut me up! You shut up!"

"Xue Ziming, the weapon of the arsenal of God has long been not suitable for your weapon. If you miss the sword of the ancestor, you can only surrender to the ink rain afterwards. At that time, he is your lord, you must be in front of him. Kneeling, listen to him at your mercy! If you think about it, killing him is not enough! The ancient brothers are not a few in the wall, let alone he is your cousin! How can you hesitate! Come over - let me put the sword here you are……"

"Xue Meng!"

"Little Lord!!"

Xue Meng suddenly stopped struggling, and he suddenly opened his eyes, and the twilight was red.

"Come to me...you are the pride of the sky...when you are with the respect of the soldiers..."

Chu night Ning Li said: "Xue Meng!"

"Come here... Only you are the lord of the dead and the dead, you can peace and peace in the lower world... Think about those who are suffering, think about the unfair treatment you have suffered... Xue Ziming, let me help you..."

Unconsciously, Xue Meng has come to the boiling sword pool, picking the heart of Liu Zhiling holding the ancestor sword of Chen Shanggong, and the white eyes of the Huanren are all bloodshot.

"Good, take this sword and stop them all!"

Xue Meng slowly raised his hand and trembled to receive the silver-blue sword.

"Kill them."

"Killed the rain."

"Go to... ah!!!!"

Suddenly, Xue Meng took out a long sword and pulled out a splendid sword flower in his hand. Then he smashed his backhand. The ancestor’s sword was flowing, and the handsome man of the sky was reflected in the snow. The swordsman reflected it, in his eyes. What is bloody, it is brighter and more pure than usual.

The sword did not stab the ink, but went straight to the heart of the willow, running through the belly!

For a moment, the earth shakes, and the ancient willow shakes.

The fascination is broken, and the arsenal of God is falling apart.

Xue Meng gasped heavily, and he exhausted his strength to break free of confusion. He stared at the topping of the heart, and the young face was full of the persistence and purity of the young man. In the burning eyes, arrogance and innocence can be easily seen.

The so-called phoenix chicks are more than just martial arts.

"You can't help me, don't think about harming others."

Xue Meng gasped and finished, slamming out the sword!

The heart-splitting will burst into a stinking blood, and between the dying, the gods returned to the body, and the suffocation on his body suddenly disappeared.

He rubbed his chest and barely held his crumbling body, raised his face and opened his mouth. Although there was no sound, the mouth was clearly legible.

"More...thank you...you...block...me..."

The body of the exquisite heart is the spirit of the ancients, which is equivalent to the power of the ancestor sword. The ancestor's sword in the hands of Xue Meng was also lost, and it was colorless.

At the same time, the Wannian tree spirit is scattered.

In an instant, 10,000 points of stream light scattered into the waves of water, like a firefly flying insects, flying around the crowd, brilliance, golden light, and finally faded one by one, disappeared.

The teacher said: "Less master, come over, here is going to collapse!"

The earth is shaking and cannot be left for a long time.

Xue Meng turned back and finally looked at the arsenal of God. "When he slammed", he threw the ancestor sword of the ruin and abandoned the sword. Behind him, the bricks collapsed, such as snow cracking.

Yesterday's update, so many big brothers have the idea of wanting to change the attack / abandon the pit / hand torn meat bag (feed to feed) ... 捂 face, really sorry. But I have a few words to say to the mud to listen to... I hope not to blame me...

First of all, we will not change the attack. It is accurate to say that all the texts will not be changed in the future. Because of my ability to limit, I will not write or write for the attack. Even if it is a * attack, I hope that he will turn back. Of course, it’s not a good idea to set the triangle at the beginning... And because the whole storyline has already been written well, the story has developed to the present, and many things are still sinking under the water. I don’t see the whole picture. I still want to put the complete plot into a good mood. The preset rhythm is spoken out. In fact, everyone can't see the whole picture of the characters. Please don't worry about the little ones, the teacher is good, the ink is good, and it is not the person who will easily change himself. So we only upgrade the * attack, don't uninstall it. Fish, this spicy chicken software is good 233

I can't guarantee that the process of change will not be too masochistic, but at least it can guarantee that most of the girls will not feel that the plot turns hard and the feelings change suddenly. It can also guarantee that HE will not be forced HE, let me explain slowly, please Dear brothers, rest assured ~ arched hands ~ arched hands ~

In addition, it is the * for feeding fish. This can't be completely changed for the time being. He has always been a very persistent person. He has to admit that he has to go to the black, so he will only go to the end and have no way to go, to kill himself. I also want to make him get better right away, but I can't do it now. I also said it in the text. I will summarize it again here for two reasons:

First, his obsession with the teacher has not been put down. Just like in reality, some people struggle to chase a person for years, sometimes it becomes a habit, and this kind of entanglement will end unless it is explicitly rejected or seriously changed. The teacher is still jealous with him. He will continue to moth and fire until he is burned to death, or he will never see hope again.

Second, the ink burns the hate master, except that because the master does not give him a good look, he is said to be "sexually bad." Moreover, because the Master is able to save the teacher, he chose to stand by. The favorite person in the past life is the teacher, and the teacher is dead in his arms. In the process, the ink has been asking for the late night to save people, and the life is not to be flat, just want to let the people who like it live. However, Chu Evening did not agree. Although people are not killed by him, Chu Evening has no obligation to save the teacher, but ink burns him. This is also the negative emotion that flesh-and-blood people will give birth.

There is a little baby who asks me when the ink is burning. In fact, it is very simple. As long as he can release the above two points, it is when he turns back.

Of course, everyone is not good at feeding fish, there is a problem with the wood! You can also spray the master when you are uncomfortable! What? However, if I really can't stand the abuse in the process, I have a small request, that is... If you can't stand the abandonment, can't you tell me, on the finger... I am really embarrassed...

Because I like to write, because there is a story to write, I try to write some words every day after work, but also want to insist on the original appearance of this story, what kind of friendship is what interaction, when to uncover a layer The mystery is unveiled when it comes to the water. I don't want to change it, so I am very grateful for the company that I used to, but if you don't want to give up, please be gentle, try to... Don't tell me hahahaha.

Because the author is a... glass heart... It’s still very sad to see such a message (dead corps)... Thanks for the gratitude.

Chapter 47

Chu night Ning was injured, and the other three were exhausted. After running into the martyrdom outside the arsenal of the gods, Chu night would make them take a break. For a time, no one spoke first, and each stood or sat, looking at the wounds on themselves or others, and easing their strength.

Only Xue Meng, he stunned, pulled his head, and did not know what he was thinking.

The smoldering mutter: "Xue Meng..."

Xue Meng did not pay attention to it. He walked to the late night of Chu, and looked up. He opened his mouth and his voice was broken.

"Master."

Chu Xiaoning looked at him and wanted to raise his hand and touch his messy hair. After all, he still resisted.

"Is the martial art I picked before, is it fake?"

Chu nightning did not speak.

Xue Meng’s eyes are redder, and the black-and-white eyes are like a * spider web. If it is not forced and self-sufficient to support him, I am afraid that I will immediately drop my tears.

"Is it right? I can't get the weapons in the pool anymore?"

Chu night Ning finally closed his eyes and sighed and fell.

The road was very quiet, only to hear the cold and cold voice of the late night.

"……Silly boy."

A silly child full of sighs and helplessness, Xue Meng finally collapsed, and he couldn't stand it anymore. He threw himself into the night of Ning Huai, holding the waist of Chu Yuning, and burst into tears.

"Master...Master..."

Missing Jinchengchi Shenwu is almost equal to missing the qualification to cultivate the peak of the fairyland. This is something that everyone knows well. The mortal man's mana is limited. If there is no help from the gods, it will be nothing but a flesh and blood.

The few masters of the martial art in the upper cults have left the martial arts passed down by their ancestors. Even if they do not fully fit their own spiritual power, they also have a powerful force that cannot be underestimated. Xue Meng alone, because Xue Zhengyi brothers started from scratch, did not get the weapons of Jin Chengchi.

Therefore, when he chose to use the ancestor sword and the topping of the heart, he chose to put down his past high-ranking people.

Chu Xiaoning did not ask anything, no matter how much, Xue Meng, who was crying in his arms, touched his hair. Xue Meng played a small spoiled habit, never suffered any grievances, so he never cried since he remembered, and he was arrogant and arrogant throughout the day.

However, at this moment, tears are intertwined in his young face, and the words are broken, like the gods he is destined to no longer possess, like the heroes he thought he had at his fingertips, all broken. It is.

"Xue Meng." Chu Xiaoning held the apprentice in his arms and comforted him.

The water wave at the bottom of the lake, blowing the white cloak of the night, the long hair of the ink, the moment the ink burned only to see his soft eyelashes falling down, underneath is the fine soft light. Then the water wave was a little bigger, and the clothes and long hair were chaotic. In the dark, I couldn’t see the side face of the night.

Just heard him say: "Don't cry, you are already very good."

The voice is not gentle, but it is said in the mouth of the night, it is a soft sentence.

In the secret road, four people are worried about each other, and no one speaks any more.

The ink burned against the icy wall, watching Chu nightning holding Xue Meng, patted his shoulder, and suddenly it was not a taste.

Jinchi trip.

When I came, I was dressed in anger.

When I went, Zhong Yong’s injury.

Xue Meng was the proud son of the fifteen years.

The scenery is infinite and the atmosphere is high.

Then one day, Zhulou collapsed.

From then on, he will spend a long life to forget these fifteen years of foresight.

When they ran out of the arsenal of the gods, everyone saw the heart-slung willows slowly fall in the water, like the giants of the ancient and ruined, exhausted, like the death of Kuafu, the shackles of Jinwu. The monks who stayed on the ground thus fled and fled.

The arsenal of the gods of millions of years ago was destroyed overnight.

The * tree crashed down and set off a frenzy in the Jincheng pool. Before the huge vortex, the monks changed their shape and changed back to the huge original body in order to resist the stormy waves. For a time, the scales in the Jincheng pool are tumbling, and the dragons are eager to jump.

The ink burned and shouted: "No, you can't get out!"

When talking, a thick dragon tail was shot, and the ink burned quickly and evaded.

At this moment, suddenly a black dragon was swept away, its shape was larger than the rest of the dragon, and the dark scales overflowed with gold.

The ink burned and said: "Watching the moon?!!"

Looking at the moon and shouting, he was originally a dumb dragon. At this time, he suddenly said something. He sounded like a Hong Zhong, and he shouted: "Catch my back, pick up the heart and ruin it, and Jin Chengchi is destroyed. Come on! I bring You are running out!"

At this time, there is no other choice, and they can’t look at the moon as a friend or a friend. Looking at the moon carrying four people in the stormy waves, Wanlong rumbling in the waves, running by water.

"Hurry up!"

The voice fell, and the old dragon burst into the waves and vacated. They burned only when they felt that the millennium rushed to the surface, and the water flowed like a thousand horses rushing on the road. They couldn't blink at all, they couldn't breathe, and their hands clung to the back of the dragon's back, so that they couldn't get back into the lake.

When they finally blinked, they had taken the dragon into the cloud, and they were on the top of Jincheng Pool. The thin water vaporization is used for 10,000-point fluorescence, and the huge dragon scales scattered from the mirror surface are scattered. In a flash, the clouds are like clouds and the mist is rainbow. The moon looks at the head of the moon, and the eight is deserted.

The smoldering hears Xue Meng’s voice coming from behind, and he is excited and far-reaching in the hunting blast. He is really young and young, and it is easy to forget the sorrow for some things.

"My God! I am flying! Fly on the dragon!"

Looking around the moon, Xu Xuanfeng circled several times, gradually narrowing his body shape and slowly descending. When he stopped at the Jincheng pool, he had already shrunk to the original half, and did not crush too many surrounding rocks. Grass. He was kneeling in the same place, quietly letting the ink burn them down the back of the dragon.

They went back to see Jin Chengchi, only to see the cold ice open, the waves flooded, the waves shattered the ice. At this time, the dawn was bright, the east was white, the sun was shining, and it flowed into the pool of Jincheng Pool.

The teacher suddenly said: "Look at those in the pool!"

The tumbling dragons fluctuated with the raging waves, gradually disappeared, and then collapsed and turned into a little bit of coke, and one black piece rose from the lake and gathered in the air. .

The ink burned and muttered: "Zhenzhen chess game..."

The dragons in the whole pool, the creatures, and even the toppings of the willows, all have the skills of the chess game. This whole scene of the conspiracy is actually a place where someone hides in the dark!

The smoldering suddenly shudders.

He realized that the world after the rebirth was not right, there were some things that were ahead of time.

When he was sixteen years old, there was absolutely no one who could play the Zhenqi chess game to this point. What is the fake hook?

Xue Mengdao: "Watching the Moon!"

The ink burned back and looked at the moon and saw no movement. There was no black piece on his body, but he looked very weak and his eyes were half-squatting.

"You...do well...I’m going to smash the golden pool of God, I’m ruined, and I can’t...can’t fall into the hands of wickedness...”

After he finished this sentence, he suddenly burst into the golden light, and when the light dissipated, he became a human figure with a smaller body.

"It's you?!"

The smoldering and Xue Meng open almost simultaneously.

The moon in front of us is the white-haired old man who led them to the spiritual place of the martial arts. Looking at the moon, he looked up and there was a tinkering in the middle.

"It is me."

Xue Meng was surprised: "Why, why do you want to lead us to the arsenal of God? Are you trying to save us or harm us? If it is harming us, why should we send us ashore? If it is to save us, we can't crack the heart." If Liu will rob, then you will not..."

Looking at the moon, hoarse and hoarse: "Sorry. It was only the situation at that time, I had to do this. The fake hook Chen was repaired as a deficiency, and all of them relied on the spiritual power of the heart to be banned. Only the cracked heart will be cracked, his spell will be Invalid. I have nothing to do but give you a try."

Chu night Ning shook his head and walked over, waving his hand to heal the wound.

Looking at the moon and sighing: "The longevity of the road, no need. I am like all things in the pool, the number of life has arrived, originally by relying on a little reiki of the heart of the willow. It has been lodging, I am also a short life."

Chu nightning: "....."

Wang Yuedao: "The order of death is orderly, can not be forced. Before the return to the silence, I saw Jin Chengchi's nightmare break, I am willing to be round. It is just a disaster in the pool. It is really difficult."

Chu night Ning said: "No problem. ... You know, who is the person who lies in the lie, what is the intention?"

Wang Yuedao said: "I don't know who he is. But his purpose should be to explore the three major bans by gaining the power of picking up the heart."

Chu nightning Shen Shen said: "The spiritual power required to perform the ban is very amazing. If the ancient tree spirit helps, it will do more with less."

"Yeah, that person said the same thing. He said that the ancient spiritual power is huge, but it is extremely difficult to find. The only thing in the classics that can be found is the topping of the heart."

"In fact, he also appeared not long ago. Since he took control of Jin Chengchi, he has been doing the cultivation of the two kinds of bans of 'rebirth' and 'zheng chess game' at the bottom of the lake. ”

Looking at the moon, he sighed and his eyes were a little hollow.

The ink burns and the heart slams.

Sure enough... The trip to Jinchengchi is completely different from the previous life. These variables have only happened not long ago. In the end, what went wrong, so that everything changed the track?

"He lacks the ability to control the living things, so he kills a large number of creatures in the lake and tries to control the dead. This time he did it, so in just a few dozen days, he killed almost all the spirits in the lake." I made it as a chess piece. I only left a few for testing. I am one of them."

Ink burned and asked: "So when I ask for the sword, you are out of the water. At that time, you were under the control of false hooks?"

"No." Wang Yue slowly closed his eyes. "He manipulated others, manipulated the fox demon, manipulated the heart of the willow, but could not manipulate me. I am the sacred beast that God tamed when he created the world, millions of years. Before, when I was willing to drive for God, my counter-scales engraved his curse, and I was loyal to my master."

"then you……"

"Be forced, it is disguise." Wang Yue sighed, "The intruder has no way to completely control me, but the curse of the gods has been millions of years, and the effect is not as good as the one at the time. I still have a part. /The body is affected by the false hook--when you see me, the reason why I am dumb is because my nephew is completely controlled by that person, and I can't hear my own call. Only when his spells are invalid. When I was able to reopen my mouth, I can speak."

Ink burning asked: "Is that fake hook Chen know that you are pretending?"

"I don't think he knows." Looking at the moon and watching the burning, he said, "According to his plan, today he will take your spiritual core and renew his life. But he did not expect that I will bring you again. Go back to the arsenal and destroy the ancient willow. He is not wary of me."

Chu nightning suddenly said: "He may not be wary of you, maybe it is more than enough."

"How do you say this?"

Chu night Ning said: "I vaguely think that the fake hook Chen Shanggong is another weird."

The author has something to say:

Today's small theater is a rewritten version of a plot. When the code is opened, I always feel that the ink burns a little bit of taste in this plot. Later, when I think about it, he is worse than the root 2333.

After the "Golden Pool is destroyed, the modern version" is turned on, toot!

In the secret road, four people are worried about each other, and no one speaks any more.

The ink burned against the icy wall, watching Chu nightning holding Xue Meng, patted his shoulder, and suddenly it was not a taste.

But the ink burned nothing, just bowed his head and touched the cigarette case, leaving the last cigarette in it. He bit it into his lips, and the lighter rang. A cluster of sparks was clear and dark, and it was reflected in his throat, like the poppy of the new spit.

He took a deep breath and slowly exhaled. In the addictive nicotine, the ink burned his eyes, not salty or light, and looked at them without looking at them lightly, then turned his face away.

He leaned against the wall and put his hand in his pocket.

No one talks, reason tells me to burn, give them a little time, there is always a time for a cigarette, the little peacock needs comfort.

He is a very addicted person, and he likes the rot of the tar in the lips and teeth.

But that day, he couldn't help but resent. This cigarette seems to be extraordinarily long. Damn, he has been pumping for so long, so heavier, but how can he fuck?

The smoldering suddenly raised an inexplicable temper, and he blamed the temper on the unsatisfactory smoking. So he smashed half of the smoke that had not been exhausted on the wall. Then he looked up and still stuck in his pocket with one hand, and it seemed to be justifiably going toward Chu.

"Chu Chu." He looked at the face of Chu Yuning, and reached out and slammed Xue Meng straight, and squatted to his side, and his lips were rolling out a lazy smile.

"You don't care about my brother, I can't feel it anymore. What's wrong, if you look at it, hello people do it..."

He was soaked and dumb, so he cleared his throat.

"I am also my brother."

Chu nightning is a slogan.

It’s ridiculous. What he thought at the time was: Is this grandson’s brother, I am a hooligan, or literally, that the relationship with Xue Meng is “a man who is older than his own and is older than himself”?

Chapter 48

He said this, the ink can not help but agree.

The teacher said yes.

There is a weak breath on the fake hook, and the ink burned originally thought it was his own illusion, but since Chu Xiaoning also felt it, the possibility of illusion was negligible.

The breath of the dead body.

- This hook is not the same as the palace, even he is not a living person!

That is to say, the hand behind the scenes only took the body, swearing for himself, disguised as the * of thousands of soldiers. He didn't even show up in person.

Thinking about it, suddenly a low-pitched sneer came from Jin Chengchi.

Then, a white body appeared like a sharp arrow, and the fake hook-up palace jumped into the air, but his description of the behavior became extremely horrible at this moment, and the skin of the whole body shrunk together. It seems that the snake is in the skin and the silkworm is in the ruin.

"Night Yuheng, Beidou Xianzun. Chu Zongshi, you really deserved the name."

The fake hook hanging over the water of the lake, like a peeling face, seems to be * out a nearly twisted smile.

"A character like you, when you were a Confucianist, how could you not keep you?"

Chu night Ning cold channel: "Who is you?"

"You don't have to know who I am." Falsely said, "I won't let you know who I am. You should be a * person, climb out of * and look for you." A gentleman is waiting for his life!"

Wang Yuesen said: "There is no shame in the afterlife! The heart has been ruined, and with your spiritual power, if you don't have the power of the gods, you can't ban it again, and you can't do it!"

False hook Chen sneered: "You are old and muddy, death is dying, and it is still a bad thing for me. Where is there to talk about you here? Not to roll!"

Chu night Ning suddenly said: "I have a white son, is there any part of it?"

The so-called "white child", as the name implies, is the most special kind of chess piece in the Zhenqi chess game.

When the surgeon finds a new dead body and pours a part of his soul into the body, that part of the soul will merge with the body to form a white white jade.

"White child" is different from the "black box" of ordinary pure listening. In other words, Bai Zi is actually a substitute for the surgeon. Besides the mana, the mind can be considered, and can act on their own, and what they see and hear is also Can be empathy with the body.

False hook Chen’s identity was revealed, but it was a big smile: “Good, good! Good!!”

After these three "good", the false hooks and cheeks became more and more sloppy and twisted. It seems that the spells of the body will be exhausted, and the action of the whites could not be maintained, gradually revealing the original shape of the body.

"Chu Ningning, you have to be self-righteous. Do you think that it is useful to stop me today? Even if the heart is destroyed, my body can go to find the source of spiritual power. It is you."

He said that the gradually turbid eyes suddenly passed over the night, and fell to the ink burning body.

Suddenly scared!

False hook Chen is quite ridiculous, one sentence at a time: "If you think that there are only three people in this world who know the three major bans, then I am afraid, you can't live for too long."

Chu night Ning long eyebrows low twist, sharply said: "What do you mean by this?"

However, the fake hook Chen suddenly did not speak, and he had to smash, and suddenly he burst into a smashing piece, and a piece of white jade was smashed out of his body. In the midair, he hit a few spins and fell. Into the fine broken waves of Jincheng Pool.

It seems that the body of the fake hook in the dark, and finally lost the help of the heart, Liu, completely exhausted.

At the same time, almost the same is the two steps of the moon, which survived by the exquisite Liu Lingli, and fell back to the ground with a splash, whispering: "Ah..."

Xue Meng was shocked: "Watching the Moon!"

The ink burned also said: "Watching the moon!"

All four people came to the old man's side, and when the moon had reached the end of the oil, his lips were bloodless. He looked at them, his throat hoarse like a sundeck.

"You, tens of millions... don't go to the letter to the gibberish of that person. What he said, fake, fake is far more than really..."

The teacher’s eyebrows are full of concern and sorrow. Wen said: “The older generation should stop talking, I will heal you.”

"No, no need. What your Master can't do... You...you are..." The moon violently coughed a few times, then gasped. "In these years, there are many people who come to Jinchengchi for swords. ..... After the traitor into the pool, the heart will not want to use the lord left by the master for his use, destroying tens of thousands of soldiers. The only thing left is... is a piece of willow with its strength, one Put a sword on the god..."

Referring to this section, Xue Meng's look is even more bleak, licking his lips and silent.

"Liu Teng... Liu Teng returned to the path." Looking at the moon, he looked at the ink. "At the lake, I told you that it was evil in the past, and I can’t stop it. I hope that you will be good in the future... but in fact ... In fact, in accordance with the owner's wish, Shenwu is finally, it should only be a good person to possess. So, I hope you can... you can..."

It was very laborious to see him talking, and he stopped his words and said: "Predecessors are relieved, I understand."

The monk murmured: "That's good... that's good... then I will... I will be relieved..."

He looked up at the sky and his lips trembled slightly.

"People say that Jin Chengchi asks for swords, underwater is strange, and will... ask for some requirements. Those who used to ask for it, most of them... are to test the character of the comers, but there are exceptions..."

The sound of the moon is gradually weak, and the eyes seem to have a long history, such as a lantern, and go through.

"I followed the master's agreement, since he left, he guarded Jincheng Lake, and he must not leave... It is millions of years... the scenery of the mountains and rivers that I saw when I was young... This is the life... actually... It’s never been there again... see you...”

He turned his head slowly, praying for the smoldering of the ink, and the old eyes flashed with a warm, moist luster.

At that moment, the ink burned suddenly knew what he was going to say.

Sure enough, Wang Yue gently said: "The path is long, the plum blossoms on the mountainside are bright all the year round. When I was a child, I liked it very much. You have the martial arts, you can... you can..."

I just want to say, I will fold it for you.

However, even the good news was too late to say, and the light in the golden brown eyelids of the moon was suddenly extinguished.

Jiangnan has nothing, chat and give a spring.

In the distance, the snow-capped mountains and the lake are golden, and a round of red sun shines into the pool. In the surging waves, it is broken into a little red.

Looking at the moon to return to silence.

He was the first dragon in the creation of the world. He was once shocked by the wind and the wind, and he also bowed to the surrender. Everyone said that he had a curse and could not abandon the old master. I don't know if he respects Chen, and for this reason.

In the world, there are very few people who remember the things that created the world. Looking at the moon, I know that although the real Gouhang Palace is a mixed race of the Mozu, the mother is forced by the Devil, not willing. Hook Chen hated the Mozu, and he fell under Fuxi, and created the first sword of the world between Fuxi and his own hegemonic blood. Helping Fuxi to smash the konjac and sweeping Kyushu.

However, after the reunification of the heavens and the earth, Fu Xi was suspicious of him because of the half of the magic blood of Chen Shanggong. Gou Chengong is not confused. After a hundred years, he asked himself to leave the realm of the gods and come to the mortal world.

Along the way, he saw the suffering of all beings, the blade of the army, and consciously should not create the "sword" and repent. So he collected a lot of weapons left by his own human beings, sealed them in the arsenal in Jincheng Lake, planted the heart-splitting willows, and told the people in the lake, but those who seek swords must be kind and have a god.

Nowadays, it’s gone, and the moon is gone.

Under the Jincheng pool, there has been no martial arts and no sin. Since then, all sin and remorse, distortion and perseverance have fallen with the smashing heart.

For a time, no one spoke. In the heavy snow, Jin Chengchi's four "red roads" were still the same as the first one. The water was peaceful and calm, and there was no catastrophe in the water. There is suffering.

Just as they first boarded Xu Yingfeng, they did not know that after this "difficult way to do", there was a story of how * and fuzzy.

The ink burned into the sky, above the cliff, the eagle flew through the snow.

He suddenly thought: In the past life, the moon will give him a knife, and the strange knife is powerful. However, in this life, the strange knife he saw is nothing but a fake. The knife that belongs to him really has been self-destructive. Among them, this life has no chance.

After a while, he remembered inexplicably.

At that time, he came to Jincheng Lake for swords.

On that day, the moon looked out of the water, and the golden eyes looked at him gently and friendly, and then said to him.

——

"The plum blossoms on the mountainside are shining brightly. Can you pick one and give it to me?"

The ink burns and closes the eyes, and the arm gently covers the eyelids.

I didn’t know what happened in the past, but I thought that I would like to ask for it, but I’m a good friend.

It’s been a long time since I returned to the dead.

Chu Xiaoning's shoulder injury was severe, and the three teenagers were also full of energy, so they rested in Yucheng for many days, and then they turned back.

Xue Meng did not say anything about seeking a sword with Xue Zhengyi and Mrs. Wang. He was as proud as him. Whether he was disappointed or comforted, he was salted on his knife. Chu Xiaoning looked in his eyes, and his heart was also unbearable. So he buried the first volume in the middle of the day, hoping to find another way to get a magical weapon for Xue Meng.

Or, is there still other way in the world that can make mortals match the weapons of the gods?

In addition, the fake hook, who is it, where is his deity now? Before the "white son" of the fake hook Chen blew himself, what was the last sentence said?

There are too many things to worry about. The candlelights of the Honglian Water Museum are full of nights and nights. The copper pots are dripping, and the cumbersome bamboo slips spread out. The depth of the case is the tired face of Chu’s night.

"Yu Heng, you have this hurt on your shoulders, don't be lucky." Xue Zhengyi holds a cup of hot tea and sits next to him. "The elders of the wolf are good at medical skills. You get empty, look for him to give you a donkey." Hey."

"No problem, it has begun to heal."

Xue Zheng snorted: "No, you look at you. After you came back, your face has always been unsightly. Ten people have seen you, and nine of them have said that you are going to faint at any time. I see the wounds." Maybe there is a poison or something, you still have a little heart."

Chu Xiaoning raised his eyelids: "I seem to be fainting?" He paused and sneered. "Who said?"

Xue Zhengyi: "..."

"Oh, Yu Heng, don't always use yourself as a metal, and treat others as paper."

Chu Xiaoning said: "I have a few in my heart."

Xue Zhengyi snorted without saying a word, looking at the mouth is like "you have a few farts." Fortunately, Chu Xiaoning concentrated on reading, and did not see his little movements.

After a while, Xue Zhengyi saw that the hour was too late, patted his * and stood up, ready to go back to accompany his wife. Before leaving, he did not forget the late night of Ning: "Yu Heng, you have to rest earlier. If you want to let Meng I know that he is not guilty of death."

Chu night Ning refused to ignore him.

Xue Zhengyi touched the cold nails, some awkward, scratched his head and left.

After drinking the medicine, Chu Jingning returned to the case and continued to check the scrolls. He saw some dizziness behind him. He supported the forehead and felt a little disgusting.

However, this kind of nausea is fleeting, and Chu Ningning is only tired when he is, so he does not care.

Late at night, he finally felt dizzy and slept with his sword. A wide-sleeve pillow was placed on the side of the filed pile of mountains, and the knee was still separated by a roll of unfinished shackles.

That night, he dreamed.

Unlike ordinary dreams, this dream is vivid and true.

He stood in the Dan Heart Hall of the dead and the dead, but this Danxin Temple was different from what he knew. Many of the furnishings were changed. He had not had time to look at it. The door of the hall suddenly opened, and the crimson account was ethereal.

Someone came in.

"Master."

The eyebrows are handsome, and the eyes are black and purple. Although they are already young, they look a little childish when they roll up their mouths.

"Ink burning?"

Chu Xiaoning stood up and just wanted to go over, but found that his wrist was buckled with four chains of spiritual power, bound himself, unable to move.

After the shock, I was so angry that Chu nighting was incredulously licking the chains on the ankles. The face of the gas was twisted, and I couldn’t speak. After a long time, I looked up and said: "Ink rain, do you rebel? Untie me. !"

The person came as if he had not heard his anger, his face was lazy with a smile, and the dimple was deep, coming over and pinching his chin.

Chapter 49

Chu Jingning's horror has been completely difficult to describe in words. He widened his eyes and looked at the ink in his dreams like a ghost.

The drizzle that has grown up is very British, the shoulders are wide, the legs are long, and the man is half a head taller than him.

When I look down on myself, there is some playfulness and ridicule at the end of my eyes.

"The good master of this seat, you really should look at what it is like today."

His fingertips ran down the cheeks of Chu, and stopped at his ear.

A few silences, he was cold, and then deceived, the soft and hot touch swept over, and he contained a late night lips.

Unexpectedly, Chu Jingning’s brain banged, as if there was a string... broken...

The ink burned and kissed him. His breath is encroaching on him, damp, anxious, full of sinful desires.

The lips and teeth are entangled violently, and the chest is turned upside down.

The late night of Chu is close to the hustle and bustle, the phoenixes are round and round, and the anger and anger in the mind are all there. However, in the dream, it seems that the spiritual power has been lost. Even the ordinary strength is difficult to gather. He can’t break free from the smoldering. Was firmly in the other's arms.

The ink in the dream is unknown, and it is totally different from what he knows.

There is no longer a good eyebrow in the past, selling beggars, but the momentum is sturdy and the power is intense.

He can even clearly perceive the sizzling scent of the smoldering breath, which is rushing and low. A hot beast. To be like a magma, he must melt his flesh and blood with bones and * into water.

Chu night, the face of Ning Qi is blue, and he wants to vomit blood. He couldn't imagine how he would be suppressed by ink and no resistance. What made him even more uncomfortable was that he felt the heat in his abdomen and the fingertips were soft in this crazy and wet kissing. He was trembling in his arms, his burning chest was so hot, as if he had to melt him through his clothes, to submerge him, he wanted to struggle, but he had no strength.

At the end of the kiss, Chu’s legs were soft, and the ink burned and hugged him, putting his face to his side and sticking it to his back. The damp heat breathed at the root of his neck and gasped. Then he heard the ink burned and said, "Are you not talking about the conditions with this seat?"

The sound of ink burning is very hoarse, hoarse to make Chu Xiaoning almost unfamiliar.

Chu night, coveted, seeing his throat rolling, is a forbearance, but can not help but swallow.

"You have no value for this seat, then talk about what you left last."

Chu Yuning’s voice is also dumb, I don’t know because of desire or anger, he whispers: “What...”

The ink burned him to the wall, suddenly raised his hand, slammed against the wall, and grabbed a wrist that was buckled by Chu.

He was all malicious, but he bowed his head and covered his earrings.

Chu Xiaoning instantly trembled fiercely, a horrible numbness from the caudal vertebrae to the scalp.

The burning sound is low, the breathing is very turbid, and it is very heavy.

"You let me do it once, I will promise you."

Chu nights and squatting eyes wide open, there is love in the sorrow. The color of the water to be dyed, but more is unbelievable.

The other hand has touched his waist, his lips licking his neck, gentle tone, vicious sentence.

"However, this seat is so disgusting to the Master, it is estimated that there is not much interest in the body of the Master. To be happy, you have to bother with your cooperation."

The ink burned, and continued to touch his waist, tightening people.

"So, you want to be clear, if you want, you will kneel down, take care of me, comfort me, then kneel on your own, kneel on the bed, beg me. Fuck. You."

"..."

Chu night Ning is going crazy.

Yuheng elders, clean and proud, innocent and chilly, not stained, male color, not close to the female color, do not listen to the * paintings, do not listen to the genre, and keep the cold and self-love.

To put it simply, he knows that there is a lack of knowledge.

Therefore, he is unfortunate. Although he is angry, he can only throw a helmet in front of such a fierce strange feeling, and he will not be defeated.

After the ink burned, I waited for a moment. It is estimated that he did not respond, he whispered a sentence, but he couldn’t help but start kissing him. He had enough of his lips, and the wet tongue withdrew from the mouth, bringing out a trace of crystal, and then slammed his neck. He kissed his neck and shoulders and auricles.

What makes Chu’s scalp numb is that the ink-burning hand began to tear the robe on his body violently, while tossing and muttering, “What kind of gentleman to pretend! What kind of saint!” When looking up at him, his eyes were hot. Crazy, the end of the eye is full of wonderful light, like the long-awaited hatred finally got vented.

It is also like the feeling of boiling under the rock. The magma is desperately sprayed after a long period of forbearance.

Chu night Ning is like a tiger-wolf-like look, and wants to remove his sight, but he is stunned by the ink, and he covers his face.

"look at me."

The hoarse voice was hot and shivering, I don’t know if it was because of excitement or something else. It sounds like the hunger and thirst of a beast.

"I let you look at me!"

Chu nightning shivered and closed his eyes.

This dream is too ridiculous...

"Master." The voice in the ear suddenly became soft and soft, and it was a familiar tone. "Master, you wake up."

Between the nights of Chu and Ning, I saw that the face of the burning ink was still in the air. I immediately thought about it, and a slap and a fan slammed the past, and the slamming slammed the cheeks.

The ink burned and caught, and was smoked. "Ah" a big eyes: "Master, how do you beat people?"

"....."

Chu night Ning sat up, a pair of phoenix slings, eyes with anger, was shocked.

His body is still trembling, dreams and reality are intertwined, driving him crazy.

"Master respect..."

"do not come!"

Chu night Ning pressed the low sword and shouted, and his overreaction made the ink burned. For a long while, be careful: "Do you have a nightmare?"

Nightmare...

Yes, it is a dream... it is a dream.

Chu night, staring at the people in front of him, slowed down for a while, then gradually returned to God.

He is still lying in the library of the Red Lotus, and the Danxin Temple and the youthful smoldering disappeared together, leaving only the face that is still young and childish.

"... um, my dreams... good to beat people." Finally, I woke up, and Chu night settled for a moment, finishing my expression, using a slender finger that was still trembling, and I was pretending to be dressed, and I was not scattered. Hot and upset, said.

The ink burned from the red cheeks and sighed: "What kind of nightmare did Shizun do? It’s so embarrassing to start..."

Chu nighting face flashed a trace of sputum, licked his lips, side by side Zhang Jun beauty, high cold did not speak.

There was no wave in his face, but his heart was filled with waves. He felt that his self-esteem was bursting: he had actually made such an absurd dream, so swearing, swearing, and shameless.

What made him even more collapsed was that his body did not live up to expectations in this humiliating dream...

Fortunately, the robes are loose and elegant, and others can't see them.

However, Chu nightning helped the frontal angle, and the face was still black.

He naturally can't breathe in the darkness of his dreams, but it's okay to send it to the door. Then he slanted his eyebrows and sullenly asked: "In the middle of the night, privately, my bedroom, you are a red lotus, is your home? You are the elder of Yuheng?"

"..."

First, it was inexplicably fanned, and the face was trained. Some of the grievances and whispers, "What temper is it..."

Chu night Ning Jianmei angered: "I have not lost my temper, I have to sleep, you give me out!"

Ink ignited: "But the Master, it is already the time."

Chu nightning: "....."

"If we haven't seen the Master in the good and evil Taiwan for a long time, I don't dare to come to Honglian Water to find you."

Chu night: "....."

The window of the library was hidden. He pushed open the window and saw that it was already rising from the sun, and the birds were worming.

Chu nightning's face is even more ugly.

When he goes up, he may call the day to ask people.

When he actually had a spring dream to do it, if it wasn’t for him to rush to call him, he might continue to do it. This cognition made Chu’s forehead’s forehead spurt, and the knuckles that held the window were jade.

I want to know that Chu Xinning’s practice of cultivating the mind has always been to curb desires. Before that, let’s not say spring dreams, even mourning has never happened.

Chu night is like this, just like a wood man, stupid, stupid and stiff, his own method of cultivation to the ruin of the realm, sever the desire, no matter, always like to despise the lover, and despise the pair of monks, At the end of the day, this person is still proud of himself and feels that he is particularly high.

Who expected the horse to lose its forefoot, planted...

And still planted in the hands of his own apprentice.

The wise and savvy Chu Zong, who is noble and glamorous, never dared to look at the ink, and angered and threw away the sentence: "Speed and me go to the good and evil Taiwan morning repair!" The sleeves went out for a moment.

Xue Meng and Shi Yi had been waiting for a long time. When Chu arrived, they were sitting under the shade of the trees.

The teacher is very anxious: "The teacher is never late, what is going on today? It’s already this time, and I haven’t seen his shadow yet."

Xue Meng is even more anxious: "Isn't the ink burning to ask the teacher to respect it? After I haven't come back for a long time, I knew I would go with him. Master will not be sick?"

The teacher said: "I see the wound on the shoulder of the teacher is so serious. Although the good student has been nursed back to health, his body is too boneless, but it is hard to say..."

When Xue Meng heard it, he became more and more restless and suddenly got up: "Don't wait, the ink burns the unreliable dog thing, I will go see it myself!"

Looking back, I saw a glimpse of Chu’s white dress and strode.

The two people under the tree are together: "Master!"

Chu nightning: "Some things are delayed. Take you to practice martial arts today, let's go."

The teacher looked at the late night and didn't pay attention to it. He whispered to the back of the ink: "Do you want to be strict? What happened?"

The ink burned a white eye: "Sleep over the head."

"what?"

"Hey, I don't know." The ink burned his cheeks. The slap was still hurting. He didn't want to be slap in the face.

The teacher’s eyelashes flickered: “How is your left face red?”

The ink burned low: "You have to ask again, my right face has to be red, don't ask, let's go."

Three people went to the cultivation field, and Chu Yuning let the ink burned and the teacher first went to learn and make a move, leaving Xue Meng alone.

Chu nightning said: "Sit down."

Xue Meng is not clear, but he has always been a teacher, and he immediately sits on his own.

Chu Xiening also sat down in front of him and said to him: "Three years later, it is the Lingshan sword. What are your plans?"

Xue Meng whispered, after a moment, bite his teeth: "Get the top spot."

If Chu Yuning asked him in front of Jin Chengchi’s trip, Xue Meng would answer his embarrassment and prestige.

However, at this time, to say this sentence again, but it is not able to put up the arrogance, hard to die.

He is not self-aware, but he is not willing to let the name of "the pride of the sky" be handed over.

After saying the words "to get the first prize", Xue Meng was stunned and sneaked at the sight of Chu.

But Chu Ning just looked at him, no sneer, no doubt.

He simply said a word.

"it is good."

Xue Meng’s eyes suddenly lighted up: "Master, you think - do you think I can still... I..." He was so excited that he was incoherent.

Chu night Ningdao: "Under my door, there are no disciples who have not spoken before."

"Master respect..."

"The ones who participate in Lingshan's swords are all young leaders of the various factions. Those who do not have Shenwu will naturally not be your opponents. If you have a martial arts, you don't have to be afraid." Chu Yuning said, "Shenwu is not going to be able to control it all at once. Although your Sabre Dragon City is slightly inferior, it is also the top grade that can be cast by the mortal world. If you have practiced and cultivated in the past three years, it is not impossible to take advantage of it.

Everyone knows that Chu Zongshi’s eyes are sinister and sinister in martial arts.

He is also a sensational person who will never say anything in good faith to motivate others. Therefore, Xue Meng listened to his words and suddenly felt very excited.

"What can the teacher respect this truth?"

Chu night Ning smashed the scorpion, understatement: "How old is Xue Meng? After five years old, I am not embarrassed."

He said this, Xue Meng was a little embarrassed, licked his nose and laughed.

Chu Evening said: "The outcome is impermanent, but pride can't be light, try to be it. As for the result, you don't have to be overly demanding."

Xue Mengdao: "Yes!"

Here, Xuemeng was relieved, and Chu Yuning came to the vicinity of the Linglimu people pile behind the performance battlefield. In order to prevent the disciples from accidentally hurting others when playing the wooden piles, this place was built to be somewhat remote and had to go through a long The cloister, turn a corner, to come to the pile.

The teacher and the ink burned his back to him, talking, not far from the distance, just to hear.

"You..." Chu night Ning was trying to call them over, but the scene in front of him made him suddenly stop talking.

The author has something to say:

Today's Little Theater:

"If this is a essay, then the respective people may be..."

Chu Xiaoning: Probably the worst temperate teacher in the school.

Teacher: Surgeon.

Xue Meng: A student at the Film Academy, reading... probably a performance major.

Xue Zhengyi: Coal boss local tyrants

Mrs. Wang: The first lady of the scholarly family who followed the local tyrants

Mei Hanxue: counselor.

Ye Forgiveness: Dedicated to the people's police.

Ink burning: ... racer. Don't ask me why, driving by him depends on him.

Chapter 50

As a person who loves weapons, such a scene makes Chu Yuning really utterly speechless.

He was afraid to see a fool.

I saw the flowers under the flower trees not far away. Shenwu can flex and control the size, but most people are willing to enlarge their weapons and become very prestige. If they are not good, they will retain their normal appearance like Chu Xinning. However, the ink burns will become very small, and the length of the hair rope is almost as long and thin, and the leaves are exquisite, and the gods are so arrogant that it is like a little poor child.

Everyone has different spiritual powers. The night of Chu’s night is golden after being filled with spiritual power, but the ghost is red.

So I don’t want to say that I will go to Liu Ye, and when I go to the swan, I will go to the old red line...

"Teacher, you put this in your hand. I want to know if the * is the same as the day, and there is also the ability to tell the truth."

"Hey... you want to take me to try?"

Ink burned and said: "Yes, because I am the best with you, I also believe that you will never lie to me."

The teacher is still hesitant: "It is true to say this, but..."

"Oh, I will never ask for anything to do. Do you believe me, let's pull the hook?"

Said, stretch out your little finger.

The teacher is crying and laughing: "How old are you, so childish."

"Looking at the hook, I can pull at the age of eight, and I can pull it at the age of eighteen. Even if I am eighty-eight, I can still pull it. This is naive." The ink burned, and the suede smiled and raised the right hand of the teacher. Out of the little finger. The teacher was teased and angry and funny, but there was no way to do it. In the end, he had to go.

Who knows that the ink burned the little finger of the teacher, but did not pull him, but squinted and smiled: "Hell, work."

Seeing the sneaky two times, the Thunder is not overwhelmed, and the little finger of the sergeant is tied, and the other one is holding the little finger that is still burning.

The handsome teenager laughed like a fox who had a good ascension. The dimple was deep and he said with joy: "Congratulations, be fooled."

The teacher is simply ridiculous: "You!... you will release me."

"No hurry." The ink smirked. "I will ask a few questions and let go."

In fact, since Jin Chengchi got Sauvignon Blanc, and the teacher did not open the box, the ink burned a little uneasy.

Although the teacher was wearing gloves and was not able to directly touch Sauvignon Blanc, the ink burned still could not be completely relieved, not to mention the last box was actually opened by Chu Jingning.

Chu nightning...how is it possible...

So the ink burned that it must be that Sauvignon Blanc was broken.

However, in order to confirm this, he feels it is best to use the ghosts to confirm.

He did not doubt his true intentions for the teacher, but he was very worried that in the heart of the teacher, he was actually insignificant. As for the words of Jin Chengchi, it is more likely to be his own illusion.

He feels that the teacher's temperament is mild, and it is good for everyone on weekdays. Unlike Chu Yuning, there is a late night. The face of a woman who owes him Jinshan Yinshan is especially suspected.

Don't look at the one who is a fairy, and when you miss your sweetheart, this guy can entangle himself with his life.

"First of all." Although the ink burned in my heart, my face still smiled, so it was easy and casual, and decided to throw out a few unrelated questions to pave the way.

"How do you think Xue Meng?"

When it hurts, the teacher can't help but be honest: "There are very good masters, that is, speaking too straight, sometimes unbearable."

The ink burns and smiles: "Hey? You can't stand him anymore? Hahaha, no wonder, after all, he is so annoying."

The teacher blushes: "...you are whispering, you have to be heard by the Lord."

"Good." Ink smiled. "But if you say him bad, I am very happy."

Teacher: "..."

The ink burned and asked: "What do you think of the master?"

"The teacher is very good, that is, the temper is some..." It seems that the teacher is very unwilling to comment on Chu Ningning, but he is helplessly bound by the ghost, biting his lips for a while, or grievances, "The temper is a bit violent."

"Haha, where is violent, it is very violent. It is angry every three or five. If you are angry, you still refuse to admit it. I think the noble lady is better than him."

Chu Yuning standing in the corner: "....."

Suddenly, the smoldering gas was a little curious. He asked: "So, since you know that the teacher has a bad temper, why should he worship him?"

Shi said: "The teacher is cold but kind, my talent is not as good as others, but he never doubts that I am dull. He said that there is no class. If I am not good at attacking, I will teach me how to recover. He, he I am very good."

The ink burned was originally happy, and when I heard it, I suddenly confessed my smile and gradually silenced.

After a while, the ink ignited: "Where is he to treat you? Not to teach you some spells, and occasionally take care of you, for any Master, you will do this."

"That's not the same -"

Suddenly, the smoldering is not pleasing, and it is screaming at the gang: "It is not good for him to treat you anyway! I can do it for those he treats you!"

The teacher did not speak.

In this embarrassing silence, the smoldering gradually subsided the smoldering fire of the heart, seeing the teacher pleading, and suddenly whispering, whispered: "Sorry."

"Nothing," said the teacher. But after a while, the teacher shouted a bit of awkwardness: "When you were not in the early years, when I was on the road, I was on the road and suddenly it rained."

"I didn't go to the teacher's door at that time. I met him when I was running in the rain. He held a red paper umbrella and saw me wandering, let me hide under his umbrella. I have heard him cold for a long time. Fame, when he walked side by side, his heart was very powerful."

"and then?"

The teacher looked gentle and said: "And then? Then we didn't talk all the way."

The ink ignited nodded: "He is so boring, and he really has nothing to say to him."

"Yeah." The teacher smiled. "The teacher has very few words. However, when he sent me to the door of the house, I thanked him. Suddenly I saw that his right shoulder was soaked, and I All the way to his left, no rain at all."

Ink burning: "..."

"The oil paper umbrella is very small. In fact, it is only enough for one person. He has blocked most of it to me. I watched him go far in the rain. After returning to the house, I wrote a teacher's post and asked him to accept me. Under the door."

"Don't say it." The ink burned suddenly. "Your heart is too good. If you go on, I will feel that you are very pitiful."

Shi Yanwen said: "A burning, don't you think that the teacher is pitiful? He only has such a small umbrella, because he has always been alone, no one wants to accompany him. So, sometimes, the teacher respects I am stricter, or more reprimanded, I don't care. Because I remember his wet shoulders."

The ink burned and did not speak, but the tip of the nose was reddish, and the heart flickered with a trace of sorrow and grief.

The sorrowful feeling was a little vague, and suddenly I didn’t know the feeling. I was born for whom.

"A burning, I ask you a question."

"Well, you said."

"Do you particularly hate the Master?"

Ink burns: "I..."

"Or, don't you like him?"

When the teacher asked this sentence, he had always had a calm and soft look. I don’t know why it seemed to be sharp. The ink burned on him without any precautions. Under such sharp gaze, he suddenly became speechless.

The ink burned his head, neither nodding nor shaking his head. After a long time, he barely smiled and said: "Oh, isn't I asking you a question? I was accidentally surrounded by you. How can this be?"

Seeing him avoiding it, the teacher is not thinking about it, but he does not insist. He just smiles: "I will ask casually, and you don't have to worry about it."

"Yeah." The ink burned and sighed, and then looked up, through the thick lashes, looking at the face of the teacher like the moon.

Originally, his third question was to ask the teacher whether he liked himself or not. However, after this conversation, the mood was abrupt and heavy, and the lips were silent, and the ink burned suddenly: "He is my teacher, but only a teacher, and I don't like it."

Smell him to say this, standing in the dark, Chu nightning eyelashes fretting, like the wing of a butterfly when injured.

Some things are like a mirror in my heart, but when I confirm it, I still feel that I am like a drifting heart. Perhaps the autumn was too early, and Chu Ning suddenly felt cold.

In the distance, the ink burned and the teacher was talking. He closed his eyes, and the slight nausea that emerged from time to time was on his head.

He suddenly felt exhausted and turned to leave.

However, after a few steps, the sound of ink burning was carried by the autumn wind, and if it was delivered to his ears. Let him stop involuntarily.

The third question asked: "Well, you said Xue Meng, but also said the Master, then let me say."

He lowered his intentional efforts in his voice to the lowest, cautiously, and even humblely asked:

"Teacher, what do you think of me?"

The teacher suddenly did not speak.

Like Tian Qiao, the ghosts obviously have the ability to force the truth to speak. The teacher refuses to answer, so the ghost is so brighter, the lock is on the fingertips of the teacher.

Teacher Emei said: "Pain..."

"I only ask you to say a word." The ink can't bear it, but this question is deeply buried in the heart. Past and present life has almost become his demon, so he still insisted, "How do you see me?"

Shi Yan shook his head and closed his eyes. It seemed to be a painful one. The long eyelashes could not shake, and the forehead gradually oozes sweat.

"..." The ink burned him like this, but in the end it was soft, and sighed, "But..."

He is about to withdraw from the ghost, but the teacher is tolerant to the extreme, his face is white like gold paper, hoarse: "I think you are very good."

The ink burned and widened his eyes.

After the teacher said this sentence, the pale face quickly rose red, it seems to be annoyed, and dare not look at each other.

Seeing the ghosts as a little red light, like the residual flower petals, they rushed back to recover the ink in the palm of the hand, the ink burned without pressing, bowed their heads, smiled softly, and then looked up at the teacher, the eyebrows and the tails were spring and blooming. mean.

There was some lazy laughter in his voice, but his eyes were a little moist. He said, "Okay, thank you. I also think that you are very good. Although Jin Chengchi has said it to you again, you can't remember it. So I want to say it again, you really... very popular."

Although he did not elaborate on what kind of like, but the teacher still has a red neck, can not say a word.

A pair of dark, lacquered eyes stared at him. The luster in the eyes is so clear, as if the stars are immersed in the sea, and the fine waves are on the Milky Way.

"I want to treat you very well and make you happy."

The teacher is not stupid, he looks at him, and he knows his heart well, and he can't help but bow his head.

The ink burned and looked at the heart, and couldn't help but want to raise his hand and touch the hair of the teacher. However, in the future, it was close to me. Suddenly, a golden light flashed over, and the vine whip of "啪" was actually drawn on the face.

"Ah!" The ink burned and the horror turned back.

I saw that the night of the night, Ning Bai, Sheng Xue, standing on the side of the green wall, looking down on them. The question of heaven is like a snake snake vomiting a letter, coiled to the ground, and the willow leaves are rustling, bursting out of a cluster of Mars from time to time, a golden light.

The teacher was shocked: "Master respects..."

The ink burned his face: "Master."

So what are you hate, don’t be liked, what about?

If you change to someone else, you may have to cry and cry, but change to Chu Ning... crying? absurd. Of course, it’s a painful fight.

Chu night Ning looks very cool, the model walks, the cold road: "I don't want to practice, what are you talking about here? In the light rain, do you think that you got the last piece of Shenwu great? You will win the battle, no one can rival Have you been so happy?"

"Master, I just want to..."

Chu nightning eyes are fierce, and the ink is shut up.

"Shi Mingjing went with me to the move, and the ink was light." He paused and disliked, "Cultivate. If I come to discuss with you, you can't walk ten strokes under my hand, and I will go back and punish my heart." Three hundred times. Let's go."

Ten strokes?

It’s better to think that you are still going to copy the heart directly.

The author has something to say:

The teacher’s shock is not necessarily because the fish is being smashed by the singer, but also the fish is being bullied. 2333

Chapter 51

For the next three days, Chu’s face was not very good and his temper was very violent.

The elders of Yu Heng wrote a disgrace on their faces. Wherever they went, they were all covered with a haze. The disciples saw him circling around the birds and beasts. Even Xue Zhengyi could feel the murderous murder of his body and he did not dare to overdo him. chat.

Although Chu Ning’s mouth is not willing to admit that he has any thoughts on the burning of ink, but he can still resist the anger and anger of seeing the two apprentices in front of the wooden pile.

He was a little disgusted.

Not only disgusting others, but more importantly, disgusting yourself.

Ink rain and himself are just masters and apprentices. Who does he love to stick to, who is entangled with who he loves, and what does he have to do with himself?

Why can't you get used to it? Who is happy with who is there, and what is it with you? What is wrong with you? Chu nightning, how is your heart smaller than the tip of the needle!

... well, retreat 10,000 steps, even if he has some unspeakable desires for ink burning? He has always been proud of his self-control and pride, enough to restrain his heart, enough to succumb to that terrible desire over time.

This kind of unseen feeling, except for myself, no one knows.

In addition to the acacia kite that fell on the side of the ghost ceremonies, entangled him and a black hair burned, nothing left.

Ink burning will not know his mind, just like ink burning will never know, Jin Chengchi bottom, endure the pain to save him, not a teacher, but with the teacher to temporarily change the soul of himself.

But what is this now?

Yes... Hey?

This thought made Chu Wanning sturdy.

After a few months, he tried to avoid contact with the ink, in addition to daily practice instructions, do not do more exchanges.

In the blink of an eye, the end of the year is approaching. One day, the night of the night, the Ning has returned from the mountain and went to the mountain gate. The sky suddenly began to snow.

Soon, the dying of life and death was shrouded in ethereal silver, and Chu night was cold and cold, so he tightened his robes and strode toward Danxin Temple.

There was a charcoal fire in the temple, and the firewood cracked and cracked in the copper basin.

Chu night Ning Yuan was coming to Xue Zhengxuan to return to life, but the Lord is not here, but instead collided with the ink.

There is no other person in Danxin Temple. This is the first time that Chu Yuning has been alone with him for several months. What's more, the absurd dream is happening here.

Speaking of that dream, later, Chu Ning actually went back and forth many times. Every time the picture was clear and vivid, at the beginning, Chu Ning would still tangled, and then I was used to it, from the dream of burning and a little madman. Like a mouthful of madness, he manages his own idle eyelashes, a two-three...

However, that dream always stopped at a certain critical time. After several times, Chu Zongshi believed that he must be self-sufficient and would not be so filthy.

In this way, the elders of Yuheng, who has a fragile glazed heart, have finally recovered some dignity.

However, the combination of ink burning and Dan Xin Dian still makes Chu Xining feel a little dangerous.

But the boy had no feeling, saw him, stretched his black eyes and grinned: "Master, you are back."

"……Ok."

"Looking for the uncle? He went to the aunt's house. The aunt's body was a little uncomfortable. He couldn't walk away. What do you have, I will tell him."

Chu night Ning licked his lips, faintly said: "No need."

After turning around, I want to leave.

The ink burned and called him: "Master waits."

"how……"

He said as he turned back, but he couldn't help but get rid of the black-browed hand.

The ink burned, and naturally said: "Look at you, it's snow."

Chu night Ning stopped.

By the young man, he was removed from the snow, and he took a white towel to wipe his wet hair.

Chu night is rather cold, can not catch cold, otherwise it is easy to get sick.

But this person never knows how to take care of himself. In the past life, after Chu Xiening was under house arrest, he often liked to sit in the courtyard and watch the Jin Yu Yue.

Then, if you don't move, you will have a cold and fever. After the abolition of the spiritual core, the masters will become weaker. The disease will often linger on the couch for more than half a month. It is not good to have one dose of the soup.

Therefore, when the smoldering saw his eyebrows and fell on the shoulders, he fell in half, half condensed, and the subconscious would give him a slap.

However, the hair was wiped in half, and suddenly it seemed that the behavior was too close, and looked up, just like a pair of Danfeng eyes on the night.

Chu night Ning is glaring at him: "..."

The ink-burning handcuffs were collected back: "Ah, haha, the disciples are smashing, the masters are wiping themselves, rubbing themselves."

As soon as he was in a hurry, Chu nightning turned his back.

Dreams are just dreams after all.

The apprentice is still the same temperament as before, and the guy in the dream who calls himself "the seat" is judged by two.

Chu Xiaoning was silent for a while, took the ink-burning handkerchief, took off the cloak, went to the fireside and baked the roasting hand, wiping the snow in the hair.

"When did you know how to get better?" The fire reflected Chu's face, and he squinted. "Isn't it always been out of place?"

Ink burning: "..."

No one spoke for a while, Chu night Ning wiped his hair, casually took the Pa towel, and faintly looked at the ink.

"But then, what are you doing here?"

The ink burned busy: "Is this not the end of the year? The file that has been accumulated for one year needs to be sorted out. I will help..."

Chu Xiaoning interrupted him: "I know that there is a year's dossier that needs to be sorted out, but isn't this a good thing for the teacher? Why are you doing it?"

Ink burning: "...the memory of the teacher is very good."

Chu nightning is not moved by this aunt: "What about others?"

"He said this morning that he had some headaches and was sweating." Seeing Chu’s eyes and ink, "I’m sorry, Master, I advised him to rest in bed. Don’t blame him for being lazy."

Such a return is like a sharp needle, and the sorrowful Chu night is a wrinkle, and Chu night is quiet for a while, asking: "He can be okay?"

When he saw that he had not blamed him, he let out a sigh of relief: "I just gave him medicine when I came out, and I saw him go to sleep before leaving. It was a little cold, and it would be good for two or three days. Thank you for your concern."

"I have something to care about for you, just ask."

Ink burning: "..."

"Go. Go and organize it."

Chu night Ning said, just walking away.

It is strictly forbidden for the disciples to act on behalf of each other. The ink-burning thought that they would be punished by the teacher, but did not expect that Chu Xiening would have let him go so easily. He did not react for a while, and he spent the rest of the day, waiting for others. It was far away, and it suddenly came back to God.

The people in the snow were alone, and the ink burned the umbrella leaning against the threshold, and the snow ran out.

"Master!"

"Master waits!"

Chu nightning turned back, ink burned in front of him to stop, shaking the snow on the umbrella, the end is being opened above the two.

"The snow is big, go back with an umbrella."

Chu nightning looked at him: "No need."

The ink burned the umbrella to his hand, but Chu Ning felt tired, insisted not to pull it, and pulled the umbrella to be pushed down in the snow. The wind blew and suddenly flew a few feet away.

Chu Yuening stared at the umbrella that fell into the snow. He looked at it for a while. It was a trivial matter. He wanted to be as indifferent as ever. But suddenly I can't move.

Just like the candle will eventually go out, the old well will dry up.

The people who are forbearing again have a time of collapse.

Chu night Ning turned his head and screamed: "Ink rain, don't you come to provoke me? I am not a teacher, I don't need to take care of you!"

He said, a sudden burst of golden light in his hand, the ink burned the consciousness back, and thought that he had to ask the sky to ask people, who knows that the late night of Ning raised a golden spring, caged in the air Enchantment, the time to cover the snow in his body.

Ink burning: "..."

The enchantment of snow and rain...

Chu night Ning Jianmei cross-cut, look cold: "Do you think I need an umbrella?"

He seems to be really angry, his fingertips are moving fast, the light of the enchantment turns from gold to red, from red to purple, from purple to blue, from blue to cyan.

Every time a color is changed, the effects attached to the enchantment are completely different. Some are pure snow shelters, some can shield the cold wind, and some can even turn the cold snow into the warmth of the enchantment.

These moves are too powerful. Of course, it’s impossible to spend the night to avoid the snow. This kind of sultry singularity is so naive that the ink burns for a while and is even speechless.

"Master, don't be angry..."

"Which eye do you see that I am angry?!" Chu night's face was green, "I still don't roll it for me!"

"Well, I am rolling me." The ink burned a look at the enchantment on his head. "But don't you spend so much energy..."

"roll!"

Chu night Ning waved, the enchantment suddenly gathered, became a thunder, and slammed in front of the ink.

The ink burned was almost stunned by the thunder and lightning that was called by the late night. He rarely cared for the other person, but he was reacted like this. He was also angry at the time. He wanted to talk. He looked up and saw that Chu Ning stood. In the snow, his face was pale and his eyes were reddish.

The ink burns: "You..."

"You and I are not only mentoring, why are there extra concerns? Take your umbrella and roll it for me."

The ink burned and suddenly understood.

"Master, I was playing in the martial arts that day, I spoke to the teacher, are you..."

heard it.

Chu nightning did not speak, turned and left.

This time, the ink burned did not call him again, and he did not look back.

Halfway through, suddenly I couldn't help but sneezed. Chu's footsteps were stiff and stiff, and the head went faster, like being angry and fleeing.

From the beginning to the end, the ink burns in the vast snow, staring at his back until he disappears, and I don't know what to think.

When Chu Ning returned to Honglian Water, he fell ill.

Although he can use the enchantment to avoid rain and snow, but this person encounters his own affairs, always lazy, and is even more willing to waste spiritual power. Otherwise, when it rains on a normal day, he will not be like an ordinary person, and he will walk with a paper umbrella.

After a few sneezes in a row, the headache was hot and I found the door. However, he became a doctor for a long time, and he was already eccentric about the cold. He took some medicine, washed and changed clothes and went into the quilt and slept.

Perhaps because of the cold, the kind of nausea that has been going on since Jin Chengchi’s injury has become very clear this night. He slept all night in a groggy way, his body was soaked in cold sweat and his body was hot. Like a stove.

The next day at noon, Chu nightning was only awakened, he opened his eyes and stayed in bed for a while, then he slowly jumped out of bed and prepared to wear shoes.

Then he stunned.

He suddenly found that his boots had grown bigger after a night...

Take a closer look.

.....

Rao is the elder of Yu Heng, and he can't stand this horror.

Not his boots are getting bigger.

Chu night Ning stayed and looked at his own hands, his own legs, his own bare feet, bare shoulders, and the shoulders from the slipping clothes.

Is it yourself... is it smaller? ? ? ?

The author has something to say:

Small theater (this is an adaptation of an online old paragraph~)

Xue Meng: I am testing you for the dog thing. What should I call the high-cold master?

Ink burns: Your Highness.

Xue Meng: What do you call the angry master?

Ink burning: Your majesty.

Xue Meng: What is the name of the teacher who sees the size reduction?

Ink burning: Come, brother kiss (/^▽^)/

Xue Meng: Failed, rolling.

Chapter 52

Xue Zhengxuan practiced swords in Beifeng, and suddenly there was a jellyfish flower falling in the sky. He slammed his voice and took a towel to wipe the sweat. He took the sea otter and said to himself: "Yu Heng's communication Haiyan? Something can't be done. Have you ever said it? When did he be lazy?"

Having said that, Xue Zhengyi still took out the golden light from the flower of the jellyfish and placed it in the ear.

A strange child's voice came out from inside: "Respect the Lord, please get empty, come to the red lotus water..."

Xue Zhengyi was originally unbelievers, but when he fell to the front of the night, he was completely stupid.

In the pavilion at the edge of the lotus pond, a child who was only about five or six years old was standing upright, staring gloomyly at the lotus leaf. From the side, this person's face is like frost and snow, like Xuanbing, and he is wearing a robes of Chu's late night, but this is too big for him, and the sleeves are all dragged on the ground, it looks like only Tow the pool fish with a flowing tail.

Xue Zhengyi: "..."

The child looks back, and when you dare to laugh, I will die to show you the pride.

Xue Zhengyi: "Hey, hahahahahaha!!!"

The child yelled at the scene: "What are you laughing! What a ridiculous thing!"

"I don't laugh. - Ah, hahaha, I can't do it. Yuheng, I let you go to the elders of the wolf to look at the wounds carefully. You don't listen, hahahaha, ridiculously kill me." Xue Zhengyi holds the belly "I have never seen a child who is so murderous, hahahaha."

This child is not someone else. It is the late night that I found that my body has shrunk after I woke up. Jin Chengchi pierced the cane of his shoulder and did not know what kind of spell, but it would make people become the shape of the body when they were five or six years old. Fortunately, the mana did not go backwards, otherwise Chu night would rather feel that he could really die. .

Xue Zhengyi laughed and went to find a dress for his little disciple.

After Chu’s change, I didn’t seem so funny. He sorted out the blue-brown handguards and looked up at Xue Zhengyi, then fiercely said: "You have to dare to say it, I killed you."

Xue Zhengyi haha said: "I don't say, I don't say it. But what do you do? I don't know how to do it. I always want someone to come see it? Or do I invite the elders of the wolf..."

Chu night Ning slammed his sleeves, but found that the younger disciple is narrow-necked, and he has no momentum at all. It is even more uncomfortable: "What should he do? Let him laugh at me?"

"Would you like me to let you see the jingle?"

Chu night Ning licked his lips and did not speak, and he went up to some wrongs.

"You don't talk, I will promise you?"

Chu night Ning turned around and took the back of his head to face him. Xue Zhengyi knew that he was depressed, but this wonder was too funny, and he didn’t hold it for a while, and he laughed again.

Brushed the day to ask for a call, Chu night Ning side screamed: "You laugh again!"

"I don't laugh, I don't laugh. I am going to find the lady, hahahaha."

Xue Zhengyi ran away from the smoke, and it didn't take long for him to bring Mrs. Wang, an anxious look. When Mrs. Wang saw that Chu Ning had been stunned, it was difficult to set a channel.

"Yuheng elders..."

Chu nightning: "..."

Fortunately, Mrs. Wang is more like a medical practitioner than Xue Zhengyi. She didn’t laugh at the late night, but she carefully looked at it and then whispered softly:

"The elders have a smooth flow of power and no physical condition. It seems that apart from being a child, it is no different from usual."

Chu night Ning asked: "Mrs. I know the method of cracking?"

Mrs. Wang shook her head: "The wounded by the elders was caused by the ancient Liuteng. I am afraid there is no second case in this case. So I don't know how to deal with it."

Chu night Ning 倏 垂 垂 垂 睫毛

Mrs. Wang couldn’t bear to see it, and said: "Yuheng elders, in my opinion, the reason why you become like this, it should be that the vines used to repair self-healing in the vine will invade your wounds, not evil. Curse. Otherwise, it won’t happen until now. I think that kind of sap is very small, because you have been too busy and worried in the past few days, so that the spell is left and right. It’s better to have a good time for you to watch for a while. Happening?"

Silence for a while, Chu night sighed and said: "It can only be like this. Thank you, Madam."

"You are Welcome."

Mrs. Wang looked at him carefully, and then said: "The elders are so ugly now, if they don't say it, no one can see it."

She said it was good. Chu nightning did not remember what happened when she was five or six years old, but at this moment she looked at the reflection in the lake. Apart from some facial features, she was not particularly similar to herself. My heart was a little wider, and I looked up to Xue Zhengyi:

"Respect the Lord, I have to retreat in Honglian Waters in these few days, Xue Meng, they also ask you to take care."

"What is this? Menger is my son. The child is my nephew. The teacher is a disciple of death and death. Of course I have to take care of it." Xue Zhengyi smiled. "You still care about yourself."

However, Chu Xiening had been meditating for three days, but he did not see his body returning to his original appearance. He could not help but worry more, and it was even worse than Mrs. Wang’s saying that “good life will raise”.

At dusk this day, Chu Evening finally couldn’t help but feel irritated, seeing that there was no fruit in the repairs, simply went to Nanfeng and walked around.

At this time, the dinner time has passed, and the night study has not yet begun. The empty valley trails in the dead and the bridges in the pavilion are all three or five groups of disciples, and no one has noticed him. Chu nightning strolled around a circle and went to a bamboo forest near the good and evil.

All elders have their own customary cultivation field, and often the apprenticeship will be fixed somewhere. Chu nightning is used to this bamboo forest.

Bamboo shadows are bleak, and Wan Ye is so loud. Chu nightning folded the leaves, and smacked on the lips, and the quiet music made his mind a little bit. It was not long before, and a footstep sounded far and near, stopping near him.

"Hey, kid."

Chu night Ning opened his eyes.

Xue Meng was standing in the middle of Xiu Lin with his thin legs and long legs. He was talking to him with a cold and sturdy Peper Dragon City.

"I have to practice the knife here, you go elsewhere."

"..." Chu Xiaoning slightly raised his eyebrows, this feeling is really wonderful, Xue Meng actually made a sigh of relief with him. He thought for a moment and said, "I blow my, you train you, don't bother."

Xue Mengdao: "How can that be? Going fast, my blade will hurt you."

"You can't hurt me."

Xue Meng was impatient, and snorted: "Then I can remind you that I will be over, if I am injured, I will not take care of you." The voice fell, the sword fell out, and the dragon city made a loud contend. For example, the Qianjinyuan Snake took the clouds and screamed.

In the middle of the forest, the light and shadows are mottled, and the sword is like a rainbow. Xue Meng makes a dragonfly dance in the bamboo leaves. Under the shackles, a bamboo leaf is broken into ten scorpions, and between the rafts, the bamboo is not tilted. There are many leaves. One point, one thorn, one touch and one horizontal, all like a wind and snow, in one go.

He is so arrogant that he is a five-year-old child. Even if he is a 50-year-old overhaul, he will be praised when he sees it.

However, Xue Meng’s ten-style dance, the child sitting on the stone still blew his leaves on his own, as if there was nothing to look at in front of him, nothing more surprising.

Xue Meng was a little angry, he took the knife and leaped down from the top of Zhulin, and fluttered in front of Chu Yuning.

"child."

"..."

"Give the child, say you."

Chu nighting put down the bamboo leaves, slowly opened his eyes and looked at him with a blank expression: "What? Your master didn't teach you to talk to people to be polite? Don't feed and feed. I have a name."

"I want to call your name." Xue Meng originally wanted to talk well. When he heard his mouth, he took a sting, and suddenly he was not angry. "Give me a flash, you also saw it, the sword is not long. Be careful, I cut your head with a knife."

Chu night Ning said carelessly: "You can't even avoid my head, what are you practicing?"

"You!" Xue Meng was so smashed from childhood to big, not to mention that the other party was still a junior disciple who was not taller than his thigh. He suddenly became annoyed and annoyed. "You talked to me so much." ,Do you know who I am?"

Chu night Ning faintly stunned him: "Who are you?"

"...I am the young master of death and death." Xue Meng was suffocating. "You don't even know this?"

Chu Xiaoning smiled a little, and the smile on his original face would be very ridiculous. In this childish and lovely face, it is even more ridiculous.

"Less the Lord, not the Lord. Why do you have to know."

"You, you, what are you talking about?"

"Put down your shelf and practice your knife."

After the completion of this sentence, Chu Yuning also succumbed to the long eyelashes, and slowly blew the bamboo leaves. The sound of the music was like the wind, and it was floating.

Xue Meng really wants to be mad, and shouted loudly, and actually slammed with a child. But even if he was angry again, he wouldn't want to beat the children, so he had to vacate the forest, brush his hair, and time the forest fell and fell, so he danced a fierce and violent knife in this empty song.

His knife was fast and sturdy, and the knives flashed, and the tips of dozens of bamboos were cut into blunt thorns. If it is to attack the enemy, these blunt thorns should be the sharp needles of the blown hair, but the younger disciples who teach their own sects will be fine.

Hundreds of blunt thorns went straight to the night of Chu, and when they saw it, they would hurt people. Xue Meng was plundered, ready to succumb, and took this ignorant little disciple to avoid it.

He really didn't really want to hurt this child, but he wanted to scare people. Unexpectedly, while he was flying down, the child stopped playing, and the green bamboo leaves of the fingertips were shot. The thin bamboo leaves were instantly broken into hundreds of filaments at his fingertips.

Almost instantaneously, the hundred filaments were precisely directed toward the blunt blunt.

The wind is like stagnation.

Chu nightning stood up, at the same time, a hundred paragraphs of blunt stabbing turned into a powder when he was around.

Gray smoke is gone!

Xue Meng was stunned, standing in the same place, his face was green and red, and half of the words could not be said.

The childish child in front of her eyes raised her eyelashes, and the silver-blue disciple dressed and fluttered. He smiled at Xue Meng: "Is it still here?"

Xue Meng: "..."

"The knife is fierce, but there is no rule. Too much arrogance."

Xue Meng opened his mouth and closed it.

Chu night Ningdao: "Re-come from the spirit of the past, you dance again according to my song, I blow a section, you hit a style, can not be faster."

Being pointed by the child, Xue Meng’s face is even more ugly. He bites his lips and is not moving. He does not urge him, but waits for him to wait until Xue Meng can lay down his body for practice. He would rather listen to one. The words of a half-child.

After waiting for a while, Xue Meng suddenly stunned and slammed his sword, turned his sword and turned away.

Chu night Ning sees him with a negative air, his expression is slightly dim. The heart, Xue Meng can not be taught with humility, it is a pity...

However, when I didn't finish it, I saw him pick up a branch of the ground. When I turned around, I had a bad tone: "That, then I used the branches, and I will hit you."

Chu night Ning paused, smiled with a lip, and he nodded: "Good."

Xue Meng took a piece of bamboo leaves for him, wiped it clean, and handed him: "Hey, little brother, give you this."

In this way, it becomes a "children" and becomes a "little brother"?

Chu nightning looked at him with a funny smile, took the leaves, sat back on the stone, and slowly blew it up. Xue Meng is anxious, and there is a move in the knife that empties and sweeps. When you turn around in the air, you can even stab six times and then hit it. However, Xue Meng always can not grasp the degree, often even stabbed more than ten, this only hit a blow, and that blow has missed the best time.

For five or six consecutive times, Xue Meng did not dance, the more urgent the heart, the more the eyebrows tightened.

He was worried, but he saw the child sitting on the stone and blowing bamboo leaves. When he was young, he was calm and relaxed, and he complained at all. He could not help but feel embarrassed.

So I got up and tried to practice it several times, and gradually found some feelings in the music. Xue Meng did not think that he was happy, and then pranced and spurred. When the moon was overhanging, when the time was too late, he could finally make no mistakes and completely cut the knife.

Sweat condensed in his dark eyebrows, Xuemen Napa wiped, and said with great joy: "Today's thanks to you. Little brother, who is your elder disciple? You are so powerful, why didn't I know you before?"

Chu nightning has long thought about it. There are so many disciples of the elders, and even he himself may not remember all the disciples. Therefore, he put away the bamboo leaves and smiled slightly: "I am a sergeant."

Xue Meng seems to be quite disdainful, and sighed: "Oh, that broken king."

"Tragic king?"

"Ah, I am sorry." Xue Meng misunderstood the accident in the eyes of Chu Xiaoning, thinking that it was because he scorned the teacher's respect and made the other party unhappy.

He smiled and said: "A private name. You have too many apprentices, and the people who come to it are not rejected. The tattered saying that he has received the talented apprentices, not that the elders are not good, small Brothers don't mind."

Chu nightning: "... In your private, often give the elders a nickname?"

The author has something to say:

Xue Meng: I met a child today, it is very powerful, but I always feel that something is wrong.

Xue Zhengxuan: (A panic in the heart) Where is wrong?

Xue Meng: Look at my eyes is not right.

Xue Zhengxuan: ...maybe you are provoked by others... It is normal to notice that you are...

Xue Meng (roaring table) no! He saw no worship in my eyes! Do you know the feeling that a child who is less than a meter can look down on the gas field?

Xue Zhengyi:.....

Chapter 53

"Of course, the nickname must be taken, whoever circumvents the sky." Xue Meng appeared to be enthusiastic and enthusiastically introduced to Chu Yuning, "I don't think you are young, should you be no more than five years old?" Then you are just born and dead, and you are still unfamiliar with everyone. If you are familiar with it, you will know that the twenty elders here have almost the nickname among the disciples."

"Oh." Chu night Ning looked at him quite deeply, "For example?"

"That can be said. But now is not early, my stomach is a little hungry. Thank you for your mention today, I will take you down the hill to eat some late night, eat and talk."

Chu Xiaoning looked down and thought, smiling: "Well, okay."

Xue Meng took up the Dragon City and pulled the hand of Chu Yuning. The disciples who were in the drums and the two men who had narrowed their bodies walked along the long bamboo stone steps to the mountain gate.

"Little brother, what do you call it?" Xue Meng asked as he walked.

Chu night Ning calmly replied: "My name is Xia."

"What about summer?"

"Xiaishi reverse."

Xue Meng did not realize the deep meaning, and was very happy to ask: "Yes, very nice. What two words?"

Chu nightning looked at him with a sloppy look: "...Situ’s division, counter-intuitive. Xia Shi reverse.”

"Oh." Xue Meng asked with a smile. "So how old are you? I guessed it right before, is it not more than five years old?"

"..." Chu night Ning black face, fortunately Xue Meng looked at the road, did not go to see his look, or was scared to be scared, "No, the Lord guessed wrong. ... I am six years old."

Xue Mengdao: "Then you are really talented, although it is a little worse than I was in the past. But a little adjustment / teaching, it must be a great afterlife. So, you don't have to learn under the door, you call me A brother, I am going to ask my teacher to accept you as a disciple. Are you looking good?"

Chu nightning endured hard to turn his eyes: "What do you want me to call you?"

"Master brother." Xue Meng smiled and bent down and played the forehead of Chu's late night. "This opportunity is not for anyone."

Chu night Ning looks complicated: "..."

"What's wrong, happy to say nothing?"

Chu nightning: "..."

The two were walking with laughter and laughter, at least Xue Meng thought they were walking with "speaking and laughing." Suddenly, I wore a voice behind me. After I finished this conversation, I might have a conversation with Xue Meng.

"Well? Meng Meng, how are you here?"

The whole life and death, will be tempted to take control of Xue Meng called Meng Meng, who else? Xue Meng and even his head have not turned around, and his mouth has already opened.

"Ink burns your dog thing, you call me that again, believe it or not, I pulled your tongue."

As soon as I turned around, I was swaying in the light clothes, standing under the bright moon and laughing at the two. He originally wanted to make a funny joke, and suddenly noticed that Xue Meng was standing next to a child with a beautiful Peugeot. He couldn’t help but say: "This is..."

Xue Meng pulled Chu Ningning behind him and set his eyes on the ink. "Can you manage it?"

"Don't stop, don't hide it." The ink burned around and grabbed Xue Meng's hand, and dragged Chu Yuening out. He knelt down and looked at it carefully. He suddenly snorted and muttered, "This child It’s a good life.”

Chu night Ning Xinsheng was alert: "..."

“I always feel like I have seen it.”

Chu nightning is not good, if the identity is known, then what other faces will he be? Thinking of the subconscious, I took a step back and turned to escape.

"Don't go!" The ink burned and smiled and grabbed him. He extended his finger and pulled it on the nose of Chu night, and whispered slowly. "Come, little brother, tell your brother what is your name?"

The nose that he touched was straight and greasy, and Chu Ning was guilty and guilty, and went straight back.

The ink burned that he was afraid, haha laughed and said: "What are you hiding, hey, tell your brother, are you surnamed Xue?"

Xue Meng: "???"

The smoldering pointed to Xue Meng and asked Chu Xiaoning with a smile: "This person, are you jealous? You have to tell the truth, so your brother will hurt you and buy sugar for you."

"You are sick, ink rain!!" Xue Meng Deng bombed, a face rose red, thorns and shouted, "You, you, what are you thinking? You, you! You, you Dirty! You and you are stinky!"

Chu nightning is also silent for a while, but my heart is slightly wider: "...my name is Xia, it is a disciple under the elders of the elders, Xia Shi reverse."

"Scared you?" The ink burned his eyes and smiled. He was not stupid. He heard the name of the name when he heard it. "Haha, it means something."

"..."

"You are sick!" Xue Meng pushed away the ink and angered. "He is my new friend, and it has nothing to do with you. We are going to eat late at night, you give me away."

"Oh." The ink burned away. But soon, both hands were resting behind their heads, and they smiled and followed them.

Xue Meng whispered to him: "What are you doing?"

"I also go down the mountain to eat late at night." The ink burned without a word, "No?"

Xue Meng: "....."

Impermanent town.

Since the establishment of the sect of the dead, the original ghost town has gradually recovered from the past, and now even a little bit of excitement.

At this time, the night market was opened. Xuemeng and his entourage walked between the stalls and found a shop selling antiques and sat in front of the open-air wooden table.

The “Antique 羹” is made of copper kettle and is placed on a charcoal pot. When you eat, the fire does not go out, and the soup in the kettle is cooked. The soup is often heavy and spicy. The fresh ingredients are full of tables, and what you want to eat is thrown in. Because the food falls into the boiling water, it will make a "squeaky" sound, so it is named antique.

This is a famous dish of Chuanxiong, but Chu nightning has never only eaten the soup pot that does not put on the hot pepper. He does not eat spicy food.

Xue Meng was born in the land, and the ink burned in Xiangtan area. Both of them are used to the spicy. Naturally, they also feel that "Xiaishi reverse" can definitely eat spicy.

When sitting down to order, Xue Meng cooked a variety of dishes, and went to: "There should be more pepper in the soup, and the red oil has to be put on hold."

Chu night Ning suddenly pulled his sleeves, faintly said: "I want to shabu-shabu."

"Hey?" Xue Meng thought he had got it wrong.

Chu night Ning black face: "You want to shabu-shabu, half spicy, half not spicy."

Xue Meng: "... are you not a monk?"

"Ok."

"Ah." Xue Meng nodded, showing a look of a sigh, but also a little surprised, looked at the night of the night, said, "Then you are so small away from home, it is also ... oh, forget it. "Forget it." He sighed and turned his head toward Xiao Erdao. "Well, shake the pot."

Chu Xiaoning did not know why he was unwilling to hear from Xue Meng’s tone.

Then he discovered that this was not his hallucination. Xue Meng was really unwilling. When he waited for the dishes, he was swearing: "Teacher, since you came to the shackles, you must learn to eat spicy. If you don't eat spicy, you can't mix with others. Get hot, do you know? You can't talk about Sichuan dialect, you can't eat chili. Right, where are you from?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Lin'an."

"Oh." Xue Meng thought for a moment and felt that he was not familiar with the water town in the south of the Yangtze River. He bit his chopsticks and asked, "Do you have a rabbit head in your hometown?"

Chu nightning has not yet answered, and the ink burned and said with a smile: "Of course, it is not eaten."

Xue Meng gave him a look, and Chu Ning also looked at him.

The ink burned a tripod on the long bench, the elbows were on the knees, and the chopsticks in the hands were fluently turned. I saw the girl and smiled. "What happened? I am not eating like this."

Xue Meng turned to ask Chu Yuning: "Do you really not eat?"

"Ok."

Xue Meng also burned: "How do you know? You have been to Linan?"

"I haven't been there." The ink burned a face. "But Xia Xiong and our masters are fellow villagers. Do you know that the master does not eat rabbit heads? When he takes cold dishes in Meng Po Tang, he does not mix with shallots. Tofu is to take the sweet-scented osmanthus sugar, don't believe you look at it next time."

Chu nightning: "..."

"Ah, I didn't pay any attention to it. Since I saw the teacher's breakfast last time, I easily dared not aim at his plate. It was terrible." Xue Meng touched his chin and slowly revealed a disgusting expression. "The taste of the Master is really hard to say. Do you know? He actually eats salty beans."

Chu nightning: "..."

Speaking of Xue Meng actually turned back and looked at him, his heart longevity: "Little brother, you must never learn from Yuheng elders, no one will be willing to eat with you in the future. Remember, rabbit head and peppers should eat. In the morning, eat beancurd, don't pour the sauce inside."

"There are also seaweed and dried shrimps."

"Yes, there are seaweed and dried shrimps." Xue Meng was hard to burn with the enemy. "It can't be tolerated."

Chu Xiaoning looked at the two fools and said with no expression: "Oh."

The dishes will soon be full, the frozen bamboo shoots are crisp, the green vegetables are green, the tofu is crystal clear, the fish fillets are tender, and the lamb slices become thin as a flapped roll, neatly coded in white porcelain dishes, crispy fried golden crispy Sewing the peppers, a pot of freshly ground soy milk was placed on the side of the case, and the short table was squeaky.

Friendship and daughters are all eaten at a meal, not to mention the sizzling antiques, three or two rounds of fat sheep simmering in the pot, one or two soy milk into the belly, Rao is the cold feelings of Xue Meng and ink burning, It is not temporarily relieved in the steam.

Xuemeng chopsticks rummaged in the spicy oil soup: "Hey, what about the brain I lost?"

"Your brain is not resting on your neck."

"I am talking about the pig brain!"

The ink burned and chopped the chopsticks and smirked: "Yeah, I am talking about the pig brain."

"Dog son, you dare to marry me-"

"Hey! Your brain is coming up! Eat and eat!"

Xue Meng was excited and was put in by him. He shouted: "Take your dog's claws away! Don't grab it with me, this is my brain!"

Chu Xiaoning sat on a small bench, holding a porcelain pot of sweet soy milk, while drinking a fragrant, while leisurely looking at the two childish ghosts. He is not eager to give in, anyway, the things in the half of the soup pot are his.

After drinking the soymilk, the child licked his lips and licked his lips. He smiled and asked him: "Is this younger brother like this?"

Chu nightning digested the title of "little younger brother", and silently estimated the possibility of getting rid of this title, and found that it was almost zero, so he had to say dryly:

"Well, not bad."

The ink burned and turned around: "Small two, this soy milk, give my younger brother another can."

Chu nightning then sat down with a second can.

He was born to eat sweets, but before he had eaten too many cakes and gave birth to fangs, it took a lot of effort to repair him. After that, Chu will rather face the face, not eating more every time.

At this time, it became a child, but it was convenient for him to eat dessert.

The ink burned and dragged him to eat and said: "Your taste and master respect is like."

Chu nightning was stunned, but his face was still very calm, quietly: "...the brother is the elder of Yuheng?"

"Yeah." Moji smiled and nodded. Pushed a steamer to Chu’s hand. "Come and taste this. I think you will like it too."

Chu Xiaoning picked up the leaves of the bamboo stalks in the steamer, biting a small mouth, soft and white skin revealing a mouth, the steaming bean paste stuffing inside is soft and sweet.

"It's delicious?"

Chu Xiaoning took another bite, and then nodded: "Yeah."

The ink burned and laughed: "Then you eat more."

When the three people ate and talked, Chu Xi Ning suddenly remembered the previous words. He did not care. After eating the fourth leaf, he asked Xue Meng: "Lord, you were in the mountains before." Tell me that every elder has a nickname. Since my elders are called the rotten king, what do you know about the nickname of the elders of Yuheng?"

The author has something to say:

The stem of the shabu-shabu comes from the joke "How to see how a Sichuanese is disappointed with you", and the following version of the adaptation of some of the characters in the article -

How do you see that the Lord of Death is disappointed with you?

Xue Ziming: Ok, let's shave the pot.

How do you see that the elders of Yuheng are disappointed with you?

Chu nightning: Yes. Don't put sugar without putting sugar.

How to see the sorrow of the dead and the handsome little brother is disappointed with you?

Shi Mingjing: Hey... Well, if you grow up, you will grow your mother.

How do you see that Lin Yiru Feng Menmen’s Ye Zizi is disappointed with you?

Ye Forgiveness: I didn't play without playing.

How do you see that the Kunlun Grand Master is disappointed with you?

Mei Hanxue: Oh, the same upstairs is upstairs.

How do you see that the protagonist of this article is disappointed with life?

Ink rain: Hey! Dashou male is a big scum male.

Meat packs: ...and so on, seems to have a personal self-destruction?

Chapter 54

“Master?” Xue Meng’s expression was a moment of solemnity. “Only he has no nickname, and no one dares to open his jokes.”

"Craping, it's just because others know that you like the Master, and don't tell you the truth." The ink burned a white eye, pulled through the night, and whispered with a voice that didn't whisper, "Don't listen." His, I tell you, the whole life and death, the most famous is the elders of Yu Heng."

"Oh? Is it?" Chu Xiaoning raised his eyebrows slightly and looked interested. "What?"

"For example, if you are polite, call him white."

"... Why is this called?"

"Because I wear white clothes all day long."

"……anything else?"

"Little cabbage."

"……why?"

"Because I wear white clothes all day long."

"anything else?"

"Big girl."

"why?"

"Because I wear white clothes all day long."

"anything else?"

"Little widow."

Chu nightning: "???"

"Do you know why this is?" The ink burned and stunned. In the eyes of the night, the murderous murderousness in the eyes of the night was still awkward. "Because he wears white clothes all day long."

"..."

If it’s not for the late night, I’m so determined that I can’t hold it anymore: “Yes, what else?”

"Hey." The ink burned and looked at Xue Meng's face, whispering. "I will say, my family cousin is afraid to smash the bottom of the pot on my head."

Xue Meng took a table and gnashed his teeth: "I don't like it! Who allowed them to be like this master? What little cabbage is a big girl, and there are still small widows? Are you tired?"

"Ah." Ink burned and said, "You are not happy? You don't listen to what some female disciples are calling, and they are very ugly."

Xue Meng's eyes widened: "What do they say?"

The ink burns lazy: "How can I say, girls, speeches are literary, what are the moon pears, Yangchun Baixue, Linan Chulang, Xizifu. My God."

Chu nightning: "..."

Xue Meng: "..."

"This is good, like the greedy wolf elders, the temper and the poor, the nickname is hard to hear."

The greedy wolf elder is the twenty elders, and the worst relationship with Chu Yuning, Chu night Ning asked: "What is his name?"

"Winter pickles or snow smashed, because black." The ink burned and smiled. "Meng Meng, you don't have this expression, you also have a share."

Xue Meng seems to have swallowed eggs: "Hey? I have it too?"

"Yes." The ink smirked.

Xue Meng did not care, cleared his throat and asked, "What do they call me?"

"Screen."

"...how?"

"What is the solution, this is not easy to solve?" The ink twitched his shoulders and said these three words, and finally couldn't help but laugh at the table. "The peacock opens the screen, hahahaha-"

Xue Meng jumped up and said with indignation: "Ink! I killed you!"

It’s already ugly for the three to eat and drink and return to the dead. Chu Xiaoning first sent himself to the land of the elders of the elders by the two stupid disciples, and told them goodbye. Xue Meng was asked to meet him again in Zhulin tomorrow, but Chu night never knew when he would change back to his original appearance, so he did not dare to answer, but if there is leisure, he will come.

When the apprentices went far, he took it lightly and stepped back on the red roof of the lotus.

Early the next morning, Chu night Ning got up and saw that he was still a child, and he could not help but feel bored.

He squinted and stood on the bench. The man in the bronze mirror was stunned for a long time. He didn't even have the heart to comb his hair. He thought about it and thought that he couldn't do it anymore. So he went to Xue Zhengyi.

"What? Did you see Menger and Burner yesterday?"

"Yes, I said that I am a disciple. They are not suspicious." Chu said, "If Xue Meng is looking for you, remember to help me to make a round. If I don't say this, I have been practicing for more than ten days." But it didn't improve. If I can't do this, I still have to look for a greedy wolf."

"Hey, we Yuheng's skin is so thin, but today is not afraid of shame?"

Chu night Ning looked at him coldly, but this look was placed on a child, but the momentum was weak, but it was a bit like a child being angry.

When he was a child, the Peugeot was lovely. Xue Zhengyi couldn’t help but was touched a bit and reached out to touch the head of Chu’s late night.

Chu night Ning suddenly said: "Respect the Lord, wait for my body to recover, trouble you to let the crepe hall give me a piece of clothes for death. Don't be white."

Xue Zhengyi completely stopped: "Do you not like to wear contempt?"

"Occasionally change the look." Chu night Ning black face and throw a sentence, go far.

Although the elders of the greedy wolf are not stunned with the late night of Chu, but because of the respect of the Lord, he also has to converge a few points, so he did not ridicule the late night, all written in his eyes.

Chu night Ning Hao raised his eyes and looked at the elders of the wolf with no expression.

The other party's eyes are bright, and the head is in the fireworks.

Chu nightning: "..."

"Mrs. Wang's diagnosis is generally good." After the elders of the greedy wolf broke the pulse, they loosed the wrists of Chu's late night, and Chu Ning immediately took his hand and put down his sleeves.

"Why is it ten days, and I still can't see recovery?"

The greedy wolf said: "The amount of juice of the ancient gods is small, but the effect is strong. If you want to recover, I am afraid it will take a long time."

Chu nightning asked with a question: "How long will it take?"

The wolf said: "I am not sure, but, about ten years."

Chu nightning instantly widened his eyes, although the elders of the wolf struggled to stretch, but the laughter in his nephew almost overflowed: "Yes, you may take ten years to restore the original appearance."

Chu nighting stared at him for a while, Sen Ran said: "You are jealous of me?"

"Don't dare, you are the elder of Yu Heng." The greedy wolf smiled. "I don't think you have anything like this. It's good. It's not that the body is getting smaller. The mind is slightly younger, but it's very small, not to mention the mana." Are you eager to recover?"

Chu Evening’s face was blue and green, and he couldn’t speak for a while.

The wolf said: "But in the past ten years, it is not that you will always be a child. The movement of this juice is in line with your spiritual power. If you are three or five months, no magic will be displayed. Can change back to the original."

"This method is feasible!" Xue Zhengyi looked bright and seemed to see the dawn.

Unexpectedly, the wolf smiled slightly and said: "Why should the Lord be so anxious? I haven't finished talking yet. After the elders of Yu Heng have returned to their original appearance, they still can't use too much spells. Once the spiritual loss is more, they will be juiced again. Left and right, change back to children."

"How much? How to call more?" Xue Zhengqi called.

"Well, the sap has spread all over him." The greedy wolf said, "There are up to two strokes a day."

Chu Xiaoning’s voice is as cold as iron, saying: “There are often missing gaps in the ghost world. The mechanics of the forging and forging also need spells. If I have a maximum of two strokes a day, I will not become a waste.”

"Then I can't do anything." The greedy wolf yin and yang grotesque. "After all, if the world loses the Beidou Xianzun, the Minger Sun may not be able to rise."

Xue Zhengyi was anxiously beside him: "Greeting wolf, don't say anything cool. The whole cultivation world, your medical skills are one of the best, you think about it. Yuheng is not affected by the mana, but it is a young child. The child's body is definitely not as good as the original. Besides, he was injured in Jin Chengchi, let other martial art know, and he will not be able to give birth to any thoughts. Ten years is too long, you can see if there is any medicine, can you ....."

The greedy wolf elders sneered and interrupted his words: "Respect for the Lord. The Beidou Xianzun is contaminated with the sap of the ancient gods, and it is not a common poison. What do you think I can come up with in a moment?"

Xue Zhengyi: "..."

"Well, I want to make alchemy." The greedy wolf is slow and sighing. "Please come back."

Xue Zhengxuan: "The wolf!" He still wants to say something again. Chu night Ning pulled his clothes and said, "Respect the Lord, go."

The two went to the door, and the voice of the wolf suddenly came from behind.

"Chu Ningning, if you are willing to ask me for nothing, I am willing to help you with the medicine? Although you have never seen this situation before, but you may not be able to cope, you think about it?"

"..." Chu nightning turned back and said, "How do you want to count on you?"

The greedy wolf leaned against the couch, and was lazily arranging the silver pin cushion bag on the table. The words were slightly raised, and the sarcasm flashed: "When others are nowhere to go, they are all for help. You and I are one, hoe. It’s free, you kneel down and say a few good words to me, I will help you.”

Chu night Ning did not say anything, looked at him coldly.

After a while, I said: "Winter pickles, I don't think you are awake."

After the words, the sleeves left. The greedy wolf was sitting alone in the same place, and did not think about the winter pickles for a long time.

As the days passed by, the elders Yu Heng said that they were retired, but in reality they were trapped in the body of children. This matter was known to Xue Zhengxi, Mrs. Wang, and the elders of the wolf. Later, in order not to reveal the stuffing, the elders also heard this strange thing.

After a few months of rushing, the red lotus water closed the door and thanked the guests for a long time. Xue Meng could not help but worry.

"The Masters have been retiring for more than 70 days. Why can't they still come out?"

"It may be that the spiritual power has to be refined." The teacher drank the Lingshan rain dew in the tea pot and looked up at the overcast sky outside the window. "It’s going to snow, and soon it’s going to Xiaohan, I don’t know. Master can go out before New Year's Eve."

Ink burning is lazily flipping through the swordsmanship and heard: "It is estimated that he will not come. He sent us a seaweed flower in the past few days. Isn’t it time to say that it is still a long time? I think it is quite mysterious."

This day is just the leisure day of death and death, and the disciples do not need to practice. The three people burned together to cook tea and boil the wine. The bamboo curtains in the small courtyard pavilion were half-volume, heavy and shallow, and the misty water vapor was leaking underneath.

Recently, they often mixed up with them, and there was a little disciple of Xia Si, who was under the elder’s door.

After he and Xue Meng got acquainted with him, Xue Meng pulled him over and went to practice and play. After a long time, he was inseparable from them.

The original three men of Yu Hengmen, the inexplicable one is a little smaller.

At this moment, Chu nightning, which was renamed as Xia Si, was sitting at the table and eating pastries. The appearance of his food is Sven, but the speed is not slow at all.

Xue Meng didn't mean to glance at it. He blinked a bit, and his eyes fell back to the plate. He said, "Wow, little teacher, who is this genetics?"

Chu night Ning slowly chewed the sweet-scented osmanthus cake, the flower cake is so delicious, he simply did not want to care about Xue Meng, after all, someone rushed to eat with him.

The hand of the ink burned and the hand of Chu Xiaoning fell to the last lotus fritter at the same time. The two men raised their eyes and looked at each other to wipe out the electric flint.

Chu nightning: "Let your hand."

Ink burning: "I don't."

"release."

"You have eaten eight pieces, this one is mine."

"Others can give you, lotus flowers can't."

The ink burned this little guy for a while, and made a killer: "Teacher, you eat too much sweets, and you will grow your teeth."

"No problem." Chu night Ning is very calm, "I am six years old, not shameful."

Ink burning: "....."

With a bang, Xue Meng slaps his companion with his complaint: "You can't hate the ink rain, you are such a big man, and you can grab something with your brother."

趁 哎哟 哎哟 哎哟 哎哟 哎哟 哎哟 哎哟 楚 楚 楚

Four people are busy, and suddenly, a sharp whistling sound penetrates the sky and echoes throughout the life and death. Chu nightning looks pale: "Set whistle?"

Xue Meng opened the curtain on the side and looked out the window. The disciples who walked outside also stopped to look around, showing a rather unexpected look.

When the whistle is heard, all the members of the house must gather in the square outside the Danqing Palace. This also means that when there is an urgent need, the whistle will sound. This kind of whistle was often blown up when the ghosts were broken before the martial art was added to the martial art. However, since the late arrival of Chu, the whistle has not been heard for a long time.

The teacher put down his books and got up and walked to Xue Meng: "It’s weird, what is so anxious?"

"I don't know, no matter what, let's go and see."

Only when the ink burned did not speak, he licked his lips, and the eyelashes fell, covering a trace of unnaturalness in the shackles. He knows what this whistle means, but the time when this happened and the slight difference between his impressions, he did not expect to come so fast...

Four people came to the death and death, and the disciples also arrived in succession. Soon, the huge Danxin Square gathered all the elders and disciples.

When the person is complete, Xue Zhengyi walked out from the Danxin Hall, which was closed at the gate, and stood in front of the jade belt. The bottom is the long-term bluestone stepped down. There are six bright women coming out behind him. The six women look very pretty or cold, and they are all very beautiful. They are standing in the wind. In the cold weather, there is only a thin layer of gauze. At the glance, they are red skirts like Xia, such as Chi Yan, 帛With flying, there is also a cluster of flame marks between the eyebrows.

Xue Meng Deng was shocked.

Not only him, but almost everyone in the scene saw a sudden change in the look of the six women.

Xue Meng lingered for a long time, only whispered and whispered: "Yu Minxian makes ... they, they are from Suzaku Wonderland?"

The author has something to say:

Small theater - "How to make you happy"

A new introductory disciple of death and death, want to worship under the night of Ningmen. But when I heard that the elders were very strict, they were determined to ask the three brothers for advice.

Disciple A: Nicholas Lord! I am a disciple! How can I get the elders of Yuheng happy?

Xue Meng: First of all, you must be strict with your morning bells and diligent work, then you have to reverse the wind and rain, do not change your mind and firm, and finally, you must wear and resist / exercise, the teacher respects your left face, remember to send your right face too, Master should cut your left leg and remember to extend the right leg to him.

The disciple was very desperate, so he asked the teacher to clear the net.

Teacher: Let the Master be happy? It's very simple, you just remember that he drinks, loves to drink, pear, white, eat fish, eats squid, glutinous rice dumplings, three, just good wine, ten bowls, not too much winter, cold, love, tea, tea, roses, more barbecue, you must sprinkle a pepper. put……

Disciple A:.....

He only had the last savior drizzle.

Disciple A "Mr. Brother, they are very long and complicated. I am stupid and can't remember QAQ.

Ink burning: Oh, nothing, my method is very simple.

Disciple A: What?

Ink burning: sleep him.

Disciple A:...

Ink burning: sleep twice when you sleep enough, sleep ten times when you sleep twice...

Disciple A: I am afraid that I will be soaked in a pig cage in the sinking pond the next morning.

Ink burning:? Who said that he would get out of bed the next day? Do you think that I have said that it is not enough to sleep for ten times?

Disciple A: What frequency?

Ink burning: one night.

Disciple A, swear, abandoned treatment.

Chapter 55

Although the name of Suzaku Wonderland is called Wonderland, it is not a * in it, but a kind of half-demon and half-devil.

They are the most similar existence to the immortals on the continent of comprehension, and they are also known as "feathers."

The Yu people have lived in the Jiuhua Mountain puzzle for generations, and have their own peach blossom source, which has less to intervene in human affairs. However, after all, they are not all the blood of the immortal, but also half of the common flesh and blood, so they are not completely detached. They often appear in the turbulent order of the comprehension, appear in danger, and help the mortal to overcome the difficulties with their powerful spiritual power.

When the ink burned in the past, the Yumin had appeared in large numbers. However, their strength is better than the martial arts practiced in the ruthless world. In the end, all the feathers were burned and killed. He stepped on the stinky blood and stepped on the broken Jiao Yu.

A fire, the Suzaku Wonderland was destroyed.

It was a very crazy memory, and even afterwards, it would be cold and sweaty, soaking the vest. I only felt that I was being possessed by evil spirits at the time, and I was cruel.

But for now, he obviously has not yet competed with the feathers. In fact, because of the racial superiority, the spiritual power of most people who cultivated the immortals is under the feathers. The whole life and death can be compared with them. At present, there are only a few elders who are outstanding.

Xue Meng accidentally saw the burning face and was shocked: "What happened to you? How is your face so pale?"

"Nothing." The ink-burning eyelashes are sloppy, whispering, "I just ran anxiously."

The feathers of the people are the beginning of the tragedy of the previous generation. The whole heart of the ink burns to the throat. He thought that this thing will happen again after a while, why is this world, so many things Progress has become different from the past?

In the winter's life and death, a weak remnant sun hangs in the sky, and a long burst of white light shines.

The ink-burning station stood under the sun and could not help but pull the hand of the teacher.

The teacher said: "What happened?"

"..." The ink burned without speaking and shook his head.

Xue Zhengyi’s voice rang in a timely manner, and what he said was not much different from his last life.

"Today's call is located in front of the Danxin Temple, only after more than 80 years, the feathers and immortals are once again in the world. As with 80 years ago, the immortal left the peach blossoms and came to the world because the human beings were in danger. , specially come to help."

He paused and turned his head and slowly looked around at the black-pressed disciples.

"All of you know that the ghost enchantment is set by the beginning of the world. But for millions of years, the enchantment has gradually weakened, and every few decades, the enchantment will be broken again. Over the years, the power of the enchantment of the ghost world has become increasingly Weak, despite all the help -"

Xue Meng whispered: "Hey, it’s a nonsense. It’s almost always a teacher who is helping each other."

"Despite the help of all of you, but the loopholes in the ghost world are getting bigger and bigger, it will be completely broken as it was decades ago. When the spirits come, the ghosts will pass, the world and the ghost world will break the boundaries, mortals In order to avoid such tragedies, Yu Minxian will select some of the most suitable candidates for spiritual talent in all the martial arts schools, and go to Taohuayuan to close the cultivation."

When this statement came out, everyone was lost.

Yumin wants to take people to Taohuayuan Wonderland for cultivation? !

All the disciples were amazed by the clumps of excitement, no matter how talented, they all gave birth to some dark expectations.

Only the burning of a person is not happy, and the corners of the eyebrows are still faintly revealing a layer of anxiety. He is a good pseudo-decoration on weekdays, and he can't tell the truth. But at this moment, he can't conceal his emotions.

This matter is related to the death of the teacher. At that time, the teacher was chosen by the feathers to go to Taohuayuan. Soon after he returned, there was a massive collapse in the loopholes in the ghost world, and a large number of undeads climbed from * to the world.

In that catastrophe, Shi Yi and Chu Yuning fought side by side, and they stood alone and stood side by side to repair the biggest flaw. However, the strength of the teacher’s sorrow is still unable to be peaceful with the late night of the Chu, and the countless ghosts will see that the Yangjie world will be closed, and the enemy will be rushed to the squad, and the army will be turned into a sigh of relief. In an instant, the division that strives to maintain the balance of enchantment runs through!

The evil spirits, the souls of the dead.

Chu nightning did not raise his hands and did not block each other. When he fell down from the top of the dragon column, he chose to use all the spells, and the enchantment of the teacher was not completed. Try to seal up!

It was snowing on that day, and the teacher fell from the high platform, just like a small piece in the thousands of crystals.

The snow is all over the sky, endless. So who cares which one of the six-sided ice crystals will melt, just like the infinite mortal generations, from birth to death for decades, except for the close relatives, who cares about the death of an ordinary person.

In the heavy snow, in the smoke, the ink burned the teacher who was weakened by breathing, and asked for a late night to look at the teacher and save the rescuer.

However, Chu Yuening eventually turned around and chose to invest in Qi Xueyuan. He chose to fulfill his own sentient beings, so he was annihilated.

How ridiculous.

What Chu loves likes, what he cares about, what he pursues are so ridiculous.

For example, Chu Yuning, who likes to listen to the rain and enjoy the lotus, likes the poems of Ai Ai of the Dugong Ministry, and is so eager to be a sincere and fearful.

For example, Chu Ning will care about the spring grass and live, and the autumn will die. It will care where there is smoke and smoke, and no one can live.

For example, Chu Yuning has always taught them, and there are people who are headed by all beings.

I can think of it, go to the * beings!

Those people who don't know, don't care, are dead or alive, what is it with him?

In the rain of the late night of Chu, there is a wild soul with nowhere to go. In the grass, there are tears in the grass, and he can’t burn it. His rain is the ordinary rain, and the vegetation is the usual vegetation. Cangsheng is the two words written on paper, who * cares.

Therefore, he thought that Chu Xi Ning was hypocritical, mean, full of morality and morality, as if he was in the heart of the world, but in his narrow mind, he even gave the position of an apprentice.

Later, he had asked Chu Jingning, asked him if you have a heartache? Are you upset? You said that all beings are headed for the end, but you are still alive, and you let the teacher listen to your words and die! It is you who killed him, you hypocritical, you liar!

Do you still have a heart?

When the teacher fell from the high platform, he was calling you, he was calling the teacher, did you hear it? Did you hear it? Why don't you save him... why don't you save him! !

Chu night, your heart is made of stone.

You have never...

Did not care about us.

You don't care... you don't care...

Later things are like that.

Chu late Ning became the innocent king of the true love of the real world. No one cares about the dead. The skeleton of the teacher is like a stone step that is not worth mentioning. The winner is stepping on the foot.

He took an insufficiency apprentice, in exchange for the river clear sea, the so-called world peace.

No one will say that he is wrong.

Only the ink burned and saw the crown of his forehead, so brilliant, it was made by the bones of the dead, and it was the death of the teacher who made him.

Hate the lungs.

"Hey, Xiaoxianjun."

"Hey--"

Suddenly there was a gentle hand that touched his forehead. The ink burned and stunned, and he got out of the black-eyed memories, and suddenly opened his eyes.

In front of it is Zhang Yan Ruofu, a delicate face like a stream. A feather fairy did not know when he had come to him, and he smiled at him.

"So a great opportunity, how is Xiaoxianjun going to God?"

"Ah, the fairy is blameless." The ink burned worried that people could see the difference, barely cheered up, and the feathers of the immortal smiled. "I love this person. I see that we are here, and I am looking forward to it." Can be selected, but also to see what Taoyuan Wonderland looks like, this can not help but immersed, lost instrument, lost instrument."

It turned out that at the time when the ink burned and lost, the Yumin had already begun to select the right person. It was also the most glimpse of his previous life, but it was full of entanglement, and even the surrounding movements were not aware.

The immortal ambassador made a sigh of laughter. However, when he opened his mouth, he said something that did not even come to mind: "I am jealous of your spiritual power, and it is rare to cultivate and qualify. If you want to go to the peach blossom source, then Let me go."

Ink burning: "..."

Ink burning: "!!!"

Go to the peach blossom source?

In the past, only the two teachers, Shi Yi and Chu Yu Ning, were selected. Why is this world--

His surprise was full of words, and it was a horrible thing to be fooled by the feathers. Therefore, the people around him were not surprised. They only looked at him with glamorous eyes.

The ink burned was brought to the Dan Heart Hall by the feathers. After the initial surprise, his heart beat vigorously and calmed down, but there was a glimpse of ecstasy in his eyes.

In this world, some things have changed.

Although at this moment he still does not know whether these changes are blessings or disasters, and the fate is changed, but at least he can also go to the peach blossom source, as long as he also followed the feathers to practice the technique, then the task of repairing the enchantment will be It may not fall on the teacher.

He is a rough man, has lived for two generations, and he does not know what is called the sentient beings.

But the teacher is the best person in the world to treat him. In front of this person, nothing is important.

Including this one with his own skin, half a return to the soul.

As long as the teacher is alive, he can not.

However, when the feathers were chosen by all the people and gathered in front of the Dan Heart Hall, the ink burned that the lineup was completely different from the previous life.

The teacher is still among the elected people. However, because of the practice of retreat, Chu Yuning missed the selection, so the last selected person did not have him. Instead, it turned out to be the little disciple of Xia’s elders.

What makes the ink more different is that Xue Meng was also invited by Taohuayuan. In the original words of Xian, he said: "You seem to have a sword on the body, and there are some meanings."

The sound of the bells from the bell tower is not far away, and it is long and deep, echoing in the whole life.

"Under the repair of the dead, the immortals are Xue Ziming, Mo Weiyu, Shi Mingjing, Xia Sisui, a total of four people." Yu Minxian led the communication with Xue Zhengyi, released a voice Brother.

She raised her hand and let the bright-eyed bird stop at the fingertips. The sound continued: "Today, see these four people, the talent is right, the nature is pure, and it is a good person. Specially, Ming Xian."

After all, the bird flies. The elder brother recorded her words, fluttering a strong wing, and soon disappeared into the sky.

Going to Taohuayuan to practice fairy tales is a rarer encounter than seeking for martial arts. No one will refuse. And because the refining of the immortals is to resist the massive collapse of the ghost world, this is the responsibility of the immortal, and no one can refuse.

The practice time is as short as several months and as long as three or five years.

Yumin is not inhuman, see the end of the year, specifically to let them have a good New Year's Eve, and then take them to Jiuhuashan Taohuayuan.

In the near future, the ink-burning thought will go to Taoyuan with the teacher to practice, and I can’t help but feel happy. But this joy did not last long, and it slowly subsided. He didn't understand what it was at first, until one day passed by Nanxun, who died of death, and he looked up at the enchanted red lotus.

The footsteps of the ink burned slowly, and finally did not move, stopped in the same place, looking up at the distant mountains.

The late retreat of Chu has been more than three months.

In this world, the hatred of this person seems to fade away... Even if I repeatedly tell myself, don’t forget that Chu’s face is abandoning him and the teacher’s face, but sometimes he still can’t help but hide. Such as hemp.

Xia Shi rebelled with him. At this time, he saw a different look. He saw him staring at Nanfeng, and his heart frowned. He asked, "What happened?"

"Little teacher, you said that before we left, he couldn't get out?"

"……he?"

"Ah." The ink burned for a moment, and returned to God. He smiled at Chu’s late night. When they got along with each other, he felt that this younger brother was very wise and sensible, and he was very fond of it. "I am talking about my master. Is the elder of Yuheng."

Chu nightning: "It turned out to be..."

The ink sighed and muttered: "He has never been closed for so long. Is it really hurt in Jin Chengchi?"

This is the first time he has taken the initiative to mention his master.

Chu night Ning Mingming is known to be impossible, but still can't help but ask: "You... can you think about him?"

The author has something to say: the dog, this is a sub-question, you answer the teacher. Today's plot is not an easy story, no small theater breaks the rhythm, scratching his head~

Chapter 56

The ink burned was asked like this, and the look was a bit embarrassing.

I miss him?

Despite the profound grievances of the past, there is no way to reconcile, but in this life, Chu Ning has never done anything that can't help him. Instead, he has been in the adversity for the second time, and he has fallen into a sickness.

He slowly said slowly: "Well... he was injured several times, all for me..."

Chu Xiaoning listened to him in this way, but he felt warm in his heart, just wanted to say something to the ink, but he heard him say the second half.

"This kind of kindness is too heavy. I just hope that I can help him get better soon. I don't want to owe him too much."

The warmth of the heart seems to be dead, motionless, and condensed into ice.

When Chu was quiet for a while, I felt that I was ridiculous.

The smoldering has long been said, but the apprenticeship is only his own. There is a little hope that he will faintly rush into the flames, and finally burn it to ash and no wonder others.

Chu night Ning smiled, the smile must be very ugly, touched a nose gray.

"You don't think too much. Since you are his apprentice, what are you owing? Everything is his own willingness."

The ink burned his eyes and stared at him: "You, little age, always talk to the adults." Then he smiled and licked his head.

Chu Xiaoning was squatted by him, and laughed at the beginning. Later, he slowly began to layer the water. He looked at the bright and young face in front of him and said softly: "I don't want to play with you." Now, let go."

The ribs in the ink-burning head were too thick, and he did not notice the strangeness of his expression. What's more, he used to laugh at the "Xiaishi reverse" on weekdays, so he still squeezed the cheeky cheeks on his cheeks and gently licked his mouth and made funny faces.

"Hey, how can the younger brother get angry again?"

Chu night Ning looked at the childish young child in the other eye, the smile that was made up was so ugly, like a sad and ridiculous monster.

"let go."

He didn't notice, as usual, teasing him: "Well, okay, not angry, don't you say that you are like an adult? Come, reconcile, call the voice brother~"

"You let go..."

"Oh, let's call a brother, and I will buy you a sweet-scented osmanthus cake for a while."

Chu night Ning closed his eyes, his eyelashes shivered slightly, and the voice was finally a little dumb.

"Ink burning, I am not kidding, I really don't want to play with you, you let me loose, you let go, okay?" His slender brows picked up, because he didn't shed tears, but the throat But it is already choked, "Ink burning, I hurt..."

It’s so painful, and my heart is full of people. He hides him carefully in the deepest part of his heart. He doesn’t like himself. As long as he can silently mourn and protect that person, he can’t get it.

But all the softness of that person is for others, leaving him with only one thorn. He held him in his heart, and when the person moved, his heart would be bloody, and day after day, the old ones did not heal, and the new wounds started again.

So he knows that even if he doesn't ask for it, as long as he still has this person in his heart, it will hurt for one day.

He doesn't know how long he can sustain in such pains, and he doesn't know when he will collapse.

The ink burned finally noticed that something was wrong. Some loosely loosened his hand and touched his slightly red face. He was so busy that he didn’t know what to do. Chu night Ning suddenly felt that it was actually smaller and better.

I can shout a pain without any scruples, showing a soft inch.

He can make him look at himself with concern.

That is something he never thought about.

In a blink of an eye, New Year's Eve is coming. This is the most lively and leisurely moment of the year of death. The disciples are sticking to the peaches and sweeping the snow. The master of Meng Potang’s master is busy from the morning to the evening, preparing for the end of the year’s feast, and the elders themselves The spells that are good at it add to the taste of the year. For example, the elders of the wolf will turn a pool of spring water into a fine wine. The elders of the elders released more than 3,000 fire-breeding rats that they had domesticated, and kept them in the various sects to warm the cold. Elder Lu Cun, he cast a spell on the snowman that everyone piled up, let them run around the mountains, and scream "Happy New Year."

Everyone does not expect what the elders Yuheng can do. In fact, Yu Heng is still in retreat. For a long time, he has never appeared in front of everyone.

Only Xue Meng stood by the window and looked up at the sky. I don’t know when to raise the falling petals of the sea otter. If I thought about it: "After today, we have to leave. It seems that we still have no time to see him when we leave. ... don't know what the Master is doing at the moment?"

"It must be practicing." The ink burned an apple and was confused. "It’s a pity that all the elders will play at night. If the master is there, he has to go. I don’t know if he can play. what."

After all, I laughed first: "Probably how to be 'angry'?"

Xue Meng yelled at him: "Why don't you play ‘Sucking in the rain?’”

When the New Year was over, Xue Meng opened a grin, and the ink was not angry. He suddenly remembered something and asked: "Right, have you seen the younger brother today?"

"You said Xia Shi reverse?" Xue Mengdao, "I didn't see you. People are good disciples. They are mixed with us every day. You haven't care about it. If you are mixed with us for the New Year, his master should be mad."

The ink burned and laughed: "That is also true."

The red lotus water ripples, the sun is late.

Chu nightning pinched a pill to look carefully. Xue Zhengyi sat opposite him. Chu had never asked him to drink tea. He himself filled himself with a pot and unknowingly ate a cake from a plate.

Chu night Ning gave him a look, he did not feel it, but chewed the pastry, said: "Yu Heng, you don't look at it, although the greedy wolf mouth is poisonous, but the heart is not bad. How can he harm you. ”

"...Where the Lord wants to go." Chu night Ning faintly said, "I just thought that since the elders of the wolf had worked hard to develop a drug that would allow me to restore the adult form of the day, why didn't he simply refine it? How many? If you need it, take it."

"Oh, how can it be so easy." Xue Zhengxuan said, "The medicine needed for this medicine is very rare. He has refining three pieces and it has already been consumed. It is not a long-term solution."

"This way." Chu nightning Shen Shen said, "It turns out, thank him."

"Haha." Xue Zhengyi waved his hand. "You two are actually quite like, they are all ugly, but their hearts are not bad."

Chu night Ning gave him a look and didn't talk. He gave himself a cup of tea and took the remedy that would make him return to the past.

Xue Zhengyi was about to eat another piece of flower cake, but he was held down by Chu.

"What?" The Lord is dissatisfied.

Chu night Ningdao: "My."

Xue Zhengyi: "..."

As night falls, the disciples of the dead and the dead are coming to Meng Potang. Each elder sat with their apprentices, and bread dumplings, snowmen and fire rats shuttled through the crowd to help them pass salt jars, paprika, chopped green onions, or other sundries.

Every table is lively and extraordinary, and laughs and laughs. Only the table of the elders of Yu Heng, the disciples are all gone, but the master is absent.

Xue Meng looked at the side and sighed: "I want the teacher to respect."

Shi Yanwen said: "Shi Zun did not write a letter in the past few days, let us have a good life, and practice hard in Taohuayuan. When he leaves the customs, will he come to marry us?"

"It is true that this is the case, but when will he leave the customs..."

He was sighing and sighing, his eyes stunned and passed through the hall. Suddenly, he sat up straight and looked like a cat, looking at the door of Meng Po Tang.

The blood color quickly faded and rushed up again. Xue Meng face was red and faint, and the light was shining. It was so excited that he could not speak: "Yes...Yes...Yes..."

When the ink burns, the rare and strange animals raised by the elders ran out of a helping, and felt that Xue Meng was shallow and fussed. I couldn’t help but laugh: "What's the matter? Look at you like that, see what the gods are like, what's so big and shocking-"

He turned his head with a smile and looked up casually.

The word "weird" in the back can't be said anyway.

Outside the open lobby door, in the twilight and snow, Chu Yuning was dressed in white, wearing a bright red cloak, and he was arranging the oil-paper umbrella sideways, shaking off the fine snow, and then curling the eyelashes. A pair of sharp and slender phoenixes came and gave them a glimpse.

In this regard, when the ink burned, he found that he was already experiencing rapid heartbeat, and his palms were sweating, and even breathing could not help but gently slow down.

Meng Po Tang gradually calmed down. At the end of the night, Ning Ping’s sunrise is now Meng Po Tang, and the disciples are not afraid to marry. What's more, he has been retiring for a long time. At this time, he appeared in the snowy night of New Year's Eve. The meaning of the frost and snow is so white that his face is more innocent and beautiful, and the eyebrows are dark and deep.

The ink ignited and muttered: "Master respects..."

Xue Meng stood up, like a cat scorpion rushing toward the late night of Chu, while shouting "Shi Zun!" while plunging into the night of Ning Huai.

Chu nighting clothes are extremely cold in the snow, but the expression of Xue Meng is like holding the peach in March, the charcoal fire in October, not warm enough, has been screaming: "Master, you finally came out, I I thought that I couldn’t see you before I left, and you still hurt us, Master respects..."

The teacher also greeted the past, and he was able to worship and smile: "Welcome to the Master."

Chu nightning shot the head of Xue Meng, and nodded to the teacher. "Be late for the teacher, let's go, stay with you."

He sat down at the table and sat next to Xue Meng, who was burning opposite.

After the late arrival of Chu, the original excitement and joy, the people resumed their habits in the past, and they were all in danger with the teacher. The table was quiet and weird.

On the middle table are various ingredients such as flour, meat and eggs, and a brand new copper plate.

Ink burning is the best among them, so everyone finally decided to be directed by him.

"Then, I would be more respectful than my life." The ink burned and laughed. "Would you like you?"

No one snorted.

"...well, I am coming to the face." Mo Yan said, "Yi, you can't make a copy of the hand, and the stuffing of the dumplings is no different. Let's adjust the stuffing."

The teacher hesitated for a while and said: "This... there are still some differences. I am afraid that I can't do well."

Chu night Ning faintly said: "You can eat, you don't have to worry."

The teacher smiled and said: "That's alright."

"Xue Meng, you will help hand a water, roll a sleeve or something. Don't help."

Xue Meng: "....."

"As for the master," said the ink, "Would you like to sit down and drink tea?"

Chu night Ning cold and cold road: "I make dumplings."

“Ah?” I was shocked and thought that my ears were violent. “What are you going to do?”

"I said, I make dumplings."

Ink burning: "....."

He suddenly preferred that he was violent.

The author has something to say:

There is a little baby to ask questions about the background setting of the article. Although the article is scattered, it will be written later, but there is no systematic introduction, because after all, the world view is rather boring, one time instilled for everyone, I am afraid that everyone will want to sleep 2333 ~ So I have a part of the introduction today, and I can look at it if I am interested.

First of all, about the upper and lower repairs, the "upper" of the upper repair boundary refers to the rise of clean air. In the coastal area of the map, near the Kunlun Tianchi, these are the upper repair circles. The "below" of the lower revision circle refers to the turbidity sinking, the spirit of the cross, and the ghost city as the core, mainly concentrated in the area of Sichuan and Guizhou. The Shang Xiujie is full of aura and is suitable for cultivation. Therefore, it has gathered the nine fairy gates, and the lower repair world has only one family.

Then on the practice: the article will not be divided into the clear stratification of the ancestors of Jindan. The introduction of the monk is called building foundation. After waking up the spiritual core, it is better to constantly strengthen itself. There is no complicated level to remember. The main purpose of the Taoist practice is to have a powerful mana, to be able to make a difference, and of course, like a master, who wants to do more good things with the power of the spell. Those who are strong and strong can live for centuries, face is not old, and they will become mortal after death, but those who fly directly when they are alive can say that there are very few people, and when they are old and sick, the reincarnation is the final outcome of most of the Taoist.

Chapter 57

Who knows that the method of making dumplings in the evening is rather clumsy, but the finished product is not bad. A round and lovely dumpling is pinched out by his even fingers and neatly on the desk.

The three apprentices could not help but stunned.

"Shi Zun actually will make dumplings..."

"Am I dreaming?"

"The bag is still very good."

"Wow……"

Their whispers are naturally unable to escape the earlessness of Chu Xiaoning. Chu nights licked his lips and lashes, although his face was still expressionless, but the tip of his ear was slightly twitched.

Xue Meng did not hold back and asked: "Master, are you making dumplings for the first time?"

"……Ok."

"How can it be so beautiful?"

"...just like doing a mech, but pinching a few pleats, what's hard."

The ink burned through the wooden table and looked at him, and gradually became fascinated.

In his last life, he only saw Chu Xiaoning's hands-on pasta. After the death of Shishi, he went to the kitchen on the day of the night, and slowly wrapped up the best hands of the teacher.

However, before he went to the pot, he was overthrown by the irrational ink, and Bai Shengsheng’s hand-splitting was rolled over.

Ink burning does not remember that those who copy the handbag are flat and round, and the beauty is ugly.

I only remember the look of Chu Xi Ning at that time, looking at myself without saying a word, the cheeks were still covered with flour, seemingly strange, somewhat awkward, and even stupid...

At the time, the ink burned that he would get angry and get angry, but Chu nightning did not say anything at all. He just leaned over and lowered his head and put the stuccoed hands, one by one, silently picked up and caged together. Then, dump it yourself.

At that time, what was the mood of Chu Yuning?

I don’t know if I burned it. He didn’t think about it. He didn’t want to think about it. In fact, he didn’t dare to think about it.

The dumplings were wrapped and cooked by the little snowman to the kitchen. Chu nightning, according to custom, sealed a copper plate inside, and people who ate would have good luck.

The snowman quickly brought the cooked dumplings back, and the hot and sour vinegar was placed in the wooden tray.

Xue Meng said: "The teacher will eat first."

Chu night Ning did not push it. He clipped a dumpling and put it in his bowl, but he did not eat it. Instead, he added three more, and gave Xue

Meng, Mo-burn and Shi Yan in turn.

"Happy Chinese New Year." Chu night Ning faint.

The apprentices stunned and immediately laughed: "Master, Happy New Year."

It was also a coincidence that it was just the first dumpling. The ink burned and slammed into the copper plate. He was really caught off guard and almost smashed half a tooth.

The teacher looked at his bitter face and smiled. "A burning new year will have good luck."

Xue Mengdao: "Hey, the dog is lucky."

The ink is tearful and tearful: "The teacher respects, and the dumplings are also too much to get caught. The first one is the first one, and the nest is played..."

Chu night Ningdao: "Talk well."

Ink burning: "I bite the toe."

Chu nightning: "....."

The ink burned the gang, and drank the tea handed by the teacher. He finally eased it and joked: "Haha, the master should not remember which dumpling has a copper plate, deliberately licking me?"

"What you think is beautiful."

Chu night Ning cold and cold, then bowed his head and managed to eat himself.

But I don't know if it is the illusion of smoldering. He saw that Chu's face was in the warm candlelight and seemed to be slightly red.

After the dumplings, the chef’s sumptuous dinner was quickly brought out by a plate, and the chicken, duck and fish were heavy and filled with tables.

Meng Po Tang is getting more and more lively, Xue Zhengxi and Mrs. Wang are sitting in the chief, let the little snowman smash the table and send a rich red envelope.

A little snowman kept hitting the knees of Chu Yuning, and the eyes of Shizi Ancheng stared at him.

Chu Xiaoning Wei Wei: "Why, I have it?"

I took the red envelope and opened it. There was a valuable golden leaf. He was speechless and looked up at Xue Zhengyi. But the vulgar man looked at himself with a smile and raised the wine cellar in his hand. A respectful drink.

So stupid.

But I think Xue Zhengzhen is really... really...

Chu Yuening stared at him for a while, couldn't help but scream a smile, raised his own wine, lifted up to the Lord, and drank it.

The golden leaves were later distributed to the apprentices. After three rounds of drinking, the performances on the stage continued, and the atmosphere of this table finally became active.

Mainly the three bear children seem to be less afraid of him.

As for the late night of Chu, it has always been a thousand cups.

"Master respects Master, let me show you the palm of your hand?"

The brain that took the lead to drink is a little unclear. It is Xue Meng.

He took the hand of Chu Yuning and took a closer look. If it weren’t for his three glasses of wine, he would not be afraid to offend him if he gave him ten courage.

"The lifeline is long and intermittent, and the body doesn't seem to be particularly good." Xue Mengzheng, "It's easy to get sick."

The ink burned and laughed: "It's quite accurate."

Chu night Ning gave him a look.

"The ring finger is long, and you are very wealthy."

"Three-line homology, the end of the love line hangs into the wisdom line, generally willing to sacrifice for love ..." Xue Meng looked at it for a while, suddenly looked up and asked, "Really?"

Chu night Ning's face is green, biting his teeth: "Xue Ziming, I think you are alive and tired."

Xue Meng, who was drunk, still didn't know it. He smiled and continued to look at it. Then he chanted: "Oh, there is an island line, and it is under the ring finger. Master, you see people. The eyes are not accurate... Xu is a blind eye..."

Chu nightning can no longer endure, slamming his hands and squatting.

Ink and laughter must laugh and die, holding the belly for a long time, suddenly on the cold night of the Chu night, the eyes of the cold, stunned, but the ribs hurt.

Chu night Ning angered: "What are you laughing at? What a ridiculous thing?"

Annoyed to leave, the sleeves were stunned by Xue Meng. Then, after the ink burned, he couldn’t laugh out. Xue Meng stumbled and pulled down the night, and buried his head in the night of Ning Huai, with his hand around his waist and his forehead against the clothes of the master. Unlimited relatives stunned.

"Master..." The soft voice of the young boy, with some spoiled meaning, "Don't go, come, have another drink."

Chu nightning looks like he is stunned.

"Xue Ziming!! You, you are just a mess, let me go!"

Unexpectedly, the little snowman on the stage suddenly ran down. It turned out that the dance performance of the elders of the wolf was over. In order, it should be the turn of the night.

This is not good, everyone's eyes are gathered on the Chu night Ning body, see Xue Meng drunk after actually dare to hold the waist of Yu Heng elders, buried in the other's arms to play rogue, the disciples have been wrong, some even The chopsticks were taken down and staring at the corner.

Chu nightning: "....."

For a time, the scene was bungee, and the Yuheng elders were not standing. They were not sitting. They could only hold their hands and let them hold Xuemeng.

After a long period of silence, the ink burned and suddenly smiled two times: "No, Xue Meng, are you so big, still spoiled?" When you reach out, you go to swear, "Get up, don't rely on Master." ""

Xue Meng is not a deliberate, this thing, if he is awake, he can still remember, he can smoke his own big ears.

However, this time, the drunkenness was thick, and the ink burned for a long time before he was torn from Chu Ning.

"Sit well, see how many?"

Xue Meng looked at a finger sticking out of the ink and frowned and said: "Three."

Ink burning: "....."

The teacher couldn't help but laugh and went to tease him: "Who am I?"

"You are a teacher." Xue Meng rolled his eyes impatiently.

The ink burns also joins in the fun: "Who am I?"

Xue Meng looked at him for a while and said, "You are a dog."

"....." Ink anger, "Xue Ziming, I am not finished with you!"

Suddenly next to the table, there is a disciple who does not know whether he is courageous or who drank too much. He pointed to Chu Yuning and smiled and asked aloud: "Less Lord, then look, who is he?"

The amount of Xue Meng wine is really not good, sitting and sitting unsteadily, kneeling on the table, dragging the cockroach, squinting at the night of the night.

Chu nightning: "....."

Xue Meng: "....."

Chu nightning: "....."

Xue Meng: "....."

The stalemate lasted for a long time, and everyone thought that Xue Meng was probably the top of the wine. When he had to sleep, he suddenly smiled and wanted to go to La Chu’s sleeves.

"God fairy brother."

The four words are clearly audible.

Disciples: "....."

"puff."

I don’t know who first laughed, but then everyone couldn’t help it. Even if Chu’s face was ugly, his temper was worse, but the law was not blameless. Everyone counted him. Even if he is not happy, he can’t use the sky. Ask everyone to take it all the time? So the lively and extraordinary Meng Po Tang sneered into a piece, everyone in the wine and meat are afraid to whisper in the world.

"Haha, * fairy brother."

"The elders of Yuheng are so beautiful, they are really like gods."

"If you want me to say, I have to come to the custom. Every time I see him, I can't help but think of a word."

Someone asked: "What is it?"

"Except for the three-footed snow, who is in the world with white clothes."

"...that you are really pretty."

Chu's face turned from white to green and turned from black to black. Finally, he decided to calm down and did not hear it.

After all, he is used to facing the alienation and awe of everyone. This festival atmosphere and the sudden enthusiasm of the wine, let him suddenly unable to parry, and retreat. In the face of such a situation, he really did not know what to do, but he had to be calm.

But the slight color of the haze at the root of the ear sold out his handsome face that seemed to be frozen.

The ink burned it, and licked his lips, didn't speak, but he didn't know why, and suddenly hesitated an annoying arrogance.

He doesn't know that Chu is rather good-looking, but like everyone else, he also understands that although Chu Evening is handsome, but the kind of beauty is more of a kind of sharpness, it is always frosty when not laughing. Cold, people dare not get close.

In his dark and narrow mind, Chu Xi Ning is like a plate of delicious meat, but it is placed in a broken and dirty food box. The only food in the world that opened the food box and tasted delicious inside. People, only themselves. He doesn't have to worry about someone discovering this dish, and he will know it from this.

But tonight, in the warm and melting fire, under the stimulation of shochu, so many eyes are staring at the food box that was once nobody.

The ink burned suddenly and it was a little nervous. He wants to hold the food box firmly, just like waving an annoying flies, and rushing to those who eat him.

But suddenly realized that in this life, this crisp meat is not his. With a crystal-clear copy of his hand, he couldn't spare any more, to get rid of the wolves who were coveted with flesh.

They did not expect that Chu Ning actually, like other elders, seriously prepared the Lunar New Year program. He presented the Guqin performance. The disciples were full of worship, and some people whispered: "I don't think that the elders of Yuheng actually play the piano..."

"And the bombs are especially good, I don't know the flesh."

The ink burned and sat in the same place, Xue Meng was already asleep, lying on the case, breathing evenly. The ink burned the jug on his hand and filled it with himself. While listening and drinking, he stared at the people on the stage.

The irritability in the chest is getting stronger.

In the last life, Chu Yuening did not play any music on the New Year's Eve party.

He played the piano and only a few people saw it.

At about that time, it was under house arrest by the ink. Chu nightning was really a stagnation in the heart. When I saw a paulownia guqin in the court, I sat down on the ground and closed my eyes.

The sound of the piano was long and empty, and the phoenix came to the butterfly. When the ink came back, I saw the silhouette of Chu’s sitting in the yard, and couldn’t tell the silence, the purity and the purity.

How did he treat him at that time?

Ah, yes.

It was he who pressed him to the side of the piano and made a direct violation of this month-like cold man in the courtyard. The smoldering only looked at the shudder and refreshment of the top of the ruin. I didn’t have to worry about how much pain I felt when I was in the late night. I didn’t even manage to have a winter. The master was so cold, but I was ripped off the clothes and was cold. The stone surface was self-sufficient and could no longer be tolerated.

After a few months of rehabilitation, I can't raise my spirit.

At that time, the ink burned and said to him coldly: "Chu Ningning, you will never play the piano in front of others. You know how much you look like..."

He picked up his lips and couldn't find the proper wording, so he didn't say anything more.

How is it?

Obviously, it is both dignified and peaceful, but I don’t know why.

Chu night Ning did not say a word, his lips were white, and his eyes were closed, and the eyebrows were chilled.

The ink burned his hand and hesitated for a moment, touching his tight eyebrows. The action of stepping Xianjun seems to be gentle, but the sound is still cold and ruthless.

"If you don't listen, this seat will lock you on the couch with a chain, so that you can't do anything except go to bed with this seat. This seat says it can be done."

How did Chu latening respond?

The ink burned and sipped, and looked at the people on the stage, thinking back.

It seems that nothing has been said.

It’s like opening your eyes and saying a word coldly –

"roll."

He can't remember.

His life, as long as the entanglement of Chu Yuning, is so long, many things are no longer so clear, no longer so angular.

In the end, he actually only recognized the animal to the extreme: Chu night is his man, even if he does not like it, it will be destroyed by him and shredded by him. He would rather smash the flesh and blood of Chu's late Ning in the palm of his hand, like a wolf, a tiger, a leopard, a chew, and a scorpion of a late night, to get dirty, and no one else touched him.

He wants to let his late thoughts grow in the blood of Chu, and his curse is in his bones, and his body is eager to see him.

Is he not clear?

and after? It is not necessary to open your legs, lying under the most evil wicked man in the world, the most violent tyrant bed, was killed by the man's hot and fierce blade. He soiled him, inside and outside, and it was dirty.

The shredded clothes are so easy to wear.

The ink burns closes the eyes, the knuckles are white, and the heart is ruthless.

He thought about the past, and he couldn’t hear the joy of the New Year’s Eve. He couldn’t hear the sound of the night.

There was only a cold voice in his mind that was almost crazy, and he rushed from the front, and hovered for a long time.

"Hell is too cold, Chu is late, you come to marry me."

"Yeah, you are God, the light of others, Xue Mengmei, snow, dawn, the people are waiting for you to illuminate them, Chu Zongshi, sages." The voice smiled sweetly, smiled and smiled, suddenly picked up, Like a two-and-a-half soul, anger like a thunder, "But me! Have you seen me? Warm me? I only have the sorrow you left! The sage, Chu nightning!"

"I want your people, I want your life. You want to be their fire, I want to bring you to my grave. Let you only take my bones, I want you, with me. Rotten."

"Death is not for you..."

The cheers of the earthquake shouted.

The ink burned fiercely, and the cold sweat drenched the back.

The performance was over. All the disciples were eagerly slap in the palm of their hands, and they sat in it. They felt that their eyes were faint and pale, and he looked at Chu Yuning and slowly walked down the wooden steps with the paulownia Guqin.

At that moment, for the first time in his life, he suddenly felt so ridiculous, and suddenly felt that his past life seemed to be crazy.

In fact, Chu Xi Ning is not bad... This is again... Why?

The spirits went into the throat, and they were completely at a loss. They ended up being ignorant and, after all, intoxicated.

The author has something to say:

small theater:

"Psychological activities of various actors"

Ink rain: I think my past life is like a madman, the script given to me by the director. How do I think it feels like I am causing a neuropathy? This script makes me embarrassed, but I have to.

Xue Meng: I feel that I am a straight man, but the director actually let me hold the teacher, and this script makes me embarrassed, but I have to.

Teacher: I think Ah changed. The director clearly said that he likes me, but he didn't even look at me today. This script made me embarrassed, but I had to.

Chu Xiaoning: I don't think I want to play. play. But the director said... I told him what to say, dragged it down, and killed me. Let him know what it means to have to.

Chapter 58

The amount of ink burned is actually not bad.

However, this New Year's Eve, he clearly felt in his heart, but in order to make nothing, smiled and drank five altar pears white. In the end, finally some confusion was blurred.

The teacher even dragged him back and took him back. When he fell on the bed, the ink burned his throat and he wanted to call the name of the teacher.

However, the habit is terrible.

For so many years in the past, the people who are with them are not the white moonlight in their hearts, but the mosquito blood that is tired of watching.

As soon as he said the exit, he still called the one he thought he hated.

"Chu Ning..."

Contains mixed impurities.

"Late...I..."

The teacher stunned and turned to see the late night at the door. Chu Xiaoning had just taken Xue Meng back to the bedroom. At this time, a bowl of sobering soup came in, and it just happened to hear the smoldering whisper.

After he was wrong, he immediately believed that he had got it wrong.

After all, the smoldering of the ink is to call yourself a master, so that the late night will be counted, as for the night -

He couldn't help but think of the time when he was in the lotus pond, and the two of them embraced each other. In the dark dreams, they vividly called the word "night", followed by a kiss on the lips.

Is there still a little bit left in the heart of the ink...

When this thought was too deep, he was annihilated.

Chu night Ning has always been bold, but only the feelings, he thought, he is a coward.

"Master." Shi Yi, a pair of soft eyes, with some suspicions, hesitated to look at him, "you..."

"Ok?"

"...In fact, there is nothing. Since the Master is here to take care of Ah Burning, then I, I will go first."

Chu Xiaoning said: "Wait a minute."

"Is there any other commander?"

Chu night Ning said: "You are going to Taohuayuan tomorrow?"

"……Ok."

Chu Xiaoning had no expression. After a while, he said, "Let's go to rest. Several people are outside, they have to take care of each other, and -"

He paused and said: "Remember to come back earlier."

The teacher left.

Chu Xiaoning went to the bedside, raised his face with a blank expression, and gave him a spoonful of scooping soup.

The smoldering does not like the sour taste. If you don't drink it for a long time, it will spit it out. After spitting out, the wine was a little awake, opened his eyes, half-awake and half-drinking, looking at the night, and muttered: "Master?"

"Yeah. I am."

"Oh." I don't know why I laughed again, the dimple is deep, and then, "God fairy brother."

Chu nightning: "....."

After I finished speaking, I fell asleep again.

Chu nightning worried that he was cold, staying by the side, and licking the quilt for him from time to time.

Outside the bedroom, many disciples have not yet slept. Everyone has a habit of obedience. Most people still have jokes in the room, playing cards, or changing spells.

When the high-hanging water leaking in front of the Danxin Temple, it means that the age of alternating years is coming, the disciples have come out of the door, and they start to put fireworks and firecrackers, and the night is full of silver fire trees.

The ink burned in confusion, and was awakened by the deafening sound of the outside.

Open your eyes and support the forehead of the pain, but see Chu Xi Ning sitting at his bed, there is not much expression on the calm and beautiful face, seeing him wake up, just faintly said: "Well you up?" ”

"Master respect..."

After waking up, I can't help but feel a spirit.

Why is it that Chu nightning is with him? What about the teacher?

In my sleep, I can't say anything wrong?

The ink burned and stunned, and looked at the look of Chu’s late night. Fortunately, the night of Ning was nothing but a slight relief.

The sound of the firecrackers outside, the two men squatted for a while.

Chu nightning: "Go and see the fireworks?"

Ink burning: "What about the teacher?"

The two sentences are almost always said at the same time.

It’s too late to regret it.

The ink burned a little surprised, slightly widened his eyes, like never knowing him, staring at his face for a long time.

After the silence, Chu Xi Ning seemed to rise up unconsciously. When he pushed out the door, he crossed his face: "It’s all to be old, he should haven’t slept yet, go find him."

Sure enough, my own bad temper, even if I gamble all the courage, leave him and watch the fireworks bloom overnight, and only get rejected.

I didn’t ask if I knew it early, so I’m shameful.

Back to the red lotus water, Chu nightning sat alone under the undefeated sea otter tree, a man, wearing a cold cloak, watching the sky in the sky.

In the faraway place, it was the warmth of the place where the disciples lived. The laughter and the words came and they didn't have much to do with him.

He should have been used to it long ago.

But I don't know why, my heart is very stuffy.

Probably after seeing the excitement of others, and returning to your own cold, it will be particularly uncomfortable.

He silently stared at the fireworks that followed each other, two flowers, people greeting each other on New Year's Eve, three sounds.

Chu nightning relied on the flower tree, and some eyes closed with exhaustion.

I don't know how long it took, and suddenly I felt that someone broke into the enchantment.

His mind was fretting, but he did not dare to look at it until he heard the breath of breathing slightly, and the familiar footsteps sounded, stopping at a distance.

The boy’s voice was a little hesitant.

"Master."

Chu nightning: "....."

"I will leave tomorrow."

"..."

"It will take a long time to come back."

"..."

"I think there is nothing tonight, and I have to get up early tomorrow. The teacher said that he should have slept and will not be alive."

The footsteps sounded again, and this time it was closer, and it stopped at a distance.

Ink ignited: "So if you still want, I..." He opened his mouth and the sentence behind it was covered by a huge array of lively fireworks.

Chu night Ning stretched his eyes and raised his gaze. He was seeing the galaxy in the night sky shining brightly, and the silver frost and fire were scattered. The young and beautiful boy stood in front of him, and he was pitiful and three-pointed.

"..."

Chu Xi Ning has always been proud, and has never been dismissed for the companionship of others because of sympathy. But at this time, he looked at him and suddenly felt that he could not say anything to refuse.

Probably I am also fascinated by shochu.

At this time, Chu nightning actually felt that the chest was sorrowful and warm.

"Since it is here, sit down." Finally, he said faintly, "I am watching with you."

He looked up at the sky, his expression seemed to be meager, but the fingers in his sleeves were secretly picked up by tension. He did not dare to go to the people around him, only watching the fireworks in the sky open, long nights, and colorful.

Chu nightning whispered softly: "Is these days good?"

"Yeah." Ink ignited, "I have met a very cute little teacher. In the previous letter, I have said it with Master. How is the teacher's injury?"

"No problem. You have to blame yourself."

A fireworks burst into pieces and shattered into brilliant colors.

That night, the fire tree silver flower is not night, the sound of firecrackers, the snow is filled with a thin layer of smoke. They sat under the flower tree, and they didn't like to talk. They burned and talked to him. When they talked about it, they were tired and fell asleep.

Early the next morning, the ink burned and found that he was still under the flower tree, his head was resting on the knees of Chu Yuning, and he was covered with a soft and thick fire fox cloak. The cloak fur was smooth and workmanship. It is the clothing of the late Qing Dynasty.

The ink burned slightly, and he raised his eyes. He saw that Chu Ningning slept against the trunk. His eyelashes fell, and the long and soft eyelashes trembled with the breath, like a butterfly in the wind.

Did they just fall asleep under the tree like this yesterday?

It shouldn't be.

According to the temperament of obsessive-compulsive disorder in the late night, even if you are tired, you will go back to the house and sleep again. Why would you be willing to make a mess under the tree, and this fox on your own body...

Did he cover it for himself?

The ink burned up, and the black hair was a little scattered, squinting at the eyes, wearing a robes of Chu's late night, and some were at a loss.

Yesterday, he was not too drunk, although some things can't be remembered, but they can all be recalled.

As for the later voluntarily ran to the Honglian otter, accompanied by the late night, he was also a choice made in a conscious state.

I used to hate this person so much, but when I heard him ask "Go to the fireworks?", when I saw him falling and turning around and heading alone.

Actually, I feel sad...

I think, anyway, I won’t see each other for a long time. The vengeance in this life is not so deep. I’m so lonely, I’m so lonely, and it’s okay to accompany him to Tianming.

I found it over the place.

Looking back now, I feel that I am really...

When I didn't finish it, Chu Ning also woke up.

Ink burns the road: "Master."

"... um." The man who just woke up frowned slightly, holding his forehead and groaning. "You...have not gone yet?"

"I, I just woke up."

Mo-burning found a delicate and exquisite tongue. Recently, every time he met the indifferent face of Chu, he was easy to smash and his tongue was knotted.

After a while, the ink burned and suddenly remembered that the night cloak of Chu was still on his own body, and quickly took it off and wrapped it in his shoulders.

When he was given a cloak, the ink burned that although the night robes were three layers outside the robes, but there were fewer warm coats, it was thin in the snow.

The thought couldn't help but make his movements more and more anxious. When he made the trick, he tied his fingers into the clums.

Ink burning: "....."

Chu Xiaoning looked at him and reached out to untie it. He said: "I will come by myself."

"……it is good."

Filled with a sentence.

"Sorry."

"It's nothing."

The ink burned up and hesitated for a while: "Master, I am going to pack things, go to have a breakfast, and then set off."

"Ok."

"...can you go down to eat together?" Hey! After he finished, he would not want to bite his tongue! What are you doing! What do you invite to Chu Ning together?

Perhaps it was the regret that immediately appeared on the face after the ink burned. After all, Chu nightned for a moment and said, "No. You go."

The ink burned for fear that he would stay with him for a while and would say something more shocking and eloquent, so he said: "Then I will go first and foremost..."

Chu nightning: "Good."

The ink burned away. Chu night Ning nodded and sat under the tree for a while, then supported the trunk and stood up slowly, but did not move.

His legs were burned with ink for a night, and he was unaware of it, and he couldn’t move his legs.

Dirtyly standing under the tree for a long time, waiting for the blood circulation to recover, Chu night Ning only dragged his leg and limped back into the house.

Sure enough, I sat in the cold for a night, even if there was no snow on the ground under the shadow of the sea otter tree, it was still cold.

"Ah!"

He sneezed, and the end of his eyes immediately became wet red.

When I took my handkerchief and covered my nose, Chu night thought, dying... It seems... I feel cold...

Yuheng elders.

Sitting on the three gods, the first master of the contemporary competition for the comprehension of the realm. When I asked the world, I was shocked, and the white clothes came to the world without color.

Such a powerful person can be said that he should be the strongest force owner in this generation.

It is a pity that there are also thinner people who are more powerful. The thinness of Chu’s late night is that he is afraid of cold. When it is frozen, it is easy to have headaches and brain heat. Therefore, on the day when the ink burned and the teacher left the dead, the Chu Zong division not only disappeared but also became smaller, and, without any suspense, began to sneeze and runny nose.

So at noon on this day, when Yumin came to pick up people, he received a healthy and healthy Xuemeng, a smoldering, a teacher, and a poor little brother who did not live in Auntie’s aunt.

The author has something to say:

The Little Theater "The Right Way to Fight the Jade Elders"

Xue Meng: Master respects Master! I wish you a blessing like Donghai Shoubi Nanshan, I will do it first! Humming...

Chu night Ning: Good, drink.

A cup down, Xue Meng, fluttering the street.

Teacher: Master, I also have a drink with you, first of all.

Chu night Ning: Good, drink.

Teacher: Master will have another cup.

Chu night Ning: Good, drink.

Teacher: Master is coming again...

Chu night Ning: Good, drink.

Teacher: Master...

Four cups down, the teacher, and the street.

Ink Burning: Master, Happy New Year, I will do it first.

Dionysus Chu night Ning: Good, drink.

Ink burning: What to drink?

Chu nightning: wine, don't you say that you should do it first?

Ink burning: (bright smile) Yes, first, respect, fourth.

Chapter 59

No way, even if the younger brother Auntie Auntie, the departure is still issued, Yumin took them all the way to the east, to the Yangtze River port, called a vessel that can sail on their own, escorting the enchantment and releasing the boat.

This night, the first time I got rid of the Master and the other side with the teacher, it is strange that it is not as exciting as I expected.

Both Xue Meng and Xia Si have already slept, and the ink burns on the deck alone, with their arms resting behind their heads and watching the stars.

The teacher came out of the cabin, took some fish and asked the fishermen to buy, and sat next to the ink-burning side. The two men chatted while holding the small fish.

"A fire, let's go to the peach blossom source, we may not be able to go to Lingshan on the sword, I don't care, but you and the Lord are very powerful people, lost the opportunity to show up, you do not regret?"

The ink burned his head and smiled. "What is there? What is famous is nothing. I have learned the ability to go to Taohuayuan and protect important people. That is more important than anything else."

The teacher looked at his eyes and said, "You can think like this, the master knows, and will be very happy."

"What about you? Are you happy?"

"Of course I am happy too."

The waves beat the boat and the canoe bumped on the sea.

The ink side lie down and watched for a while, trying to dial a few words, but I don't know how to open it. In his eyes, the teacher is really out of nowhere.

Perhaps it is because it is too pure, and the sinister thoughts that will be born when the night is late, will not be easily owned when facing the teacher.

The ink burned for a while.

The teacher realized that he was watching himself, so he turned his head and smacked the long hair that was blown by the sea breeze to his ear. He smiled slightly: "What?"

The ink burned red and turned: "Nothing."

He originally thought about the opportunity to come out this time, and carefully and confessed. But when I talked to my mouth several times, I couldn’t open my mouth.

Confession.

and then?

In the face of such a clean, gentle and gentle person, the ink can not be violent, not strong, afraid of being rejected, even if accepted, I am afraid I do not know how to get along with the teacher.

After all, in the past life, and the short-term love of the teacher, he also really handled it very badly... except for the relatives who were in the ghost ceremonies, he did not even kiss the people.

Not to mention the things that have gone through this life. He is even uncertain when the person in the illusion is actually Chu Ningning or a teacher.

The teacher still smiled: "But you, there seems to be something to say to me."

The smoldering heart is hot, and for a moment it seems to want to smash the window paper.

But I don't know why, suddenly flashed a white figure in front of me, my face is clear, not very funny, always lonely, very lonely.

Suddenly the throat was blocked and I couldn’t speak anymore.

The ink burned and turned, staring at the starry night sky.

After a long while, he silently said: "Yes, you are really important to me."

"Yeah. I know, you are also to me."

The ink burned and said: "Do you know? I had a nightmare before, in the dream you... you are gone, I am very sad."

The teacher smiled: "You are stupid."

Ink burning: "...I will protect you."

"Well, I thanked my good teacher first."

In the burning heart, I couldn’t help but say: "I..."

The teacher asked softly: "What else do you want to say?"

The sound of the waves seemed so loud, and the boat was bumpy. The teacher looked at him quietly and seemed to be waiting for him to say the last sentence.

But the ink burned and closed his eyes: "Nothing. Cool at night, go back to sleep in the cabin."

"..." The teacher calmed for a while and asked, "What about you?"

The smoldering is sometimes stupid: "I... watch the stars and blow the air."

The teacher did not move. After a while, he smiled: "Okay, then I will leave. You will rest earlier."

Turned around.

Walking in the sea, the sky is high and wide.

The guy lying on the deck didn't know what he had missed. He was actually a little absent-minded. He was trying to dig into the true feelings in his heart. He pondered for a long time because it was too lacking in roots. When he was white, he still didn't think about it.

He lived with the teacher and his wife, and his feelings were deep. When he thought that the two were alone, they would be eager to express their enthusiasm with the teacher. But when they arrived at the bridge, they found that it was not. About myself is still too bad. At this time, I rushed to confess with the teacher, and I will definitely scare each other. Even if I am not scared, I can’t talk about this feeling.

Between the teacher and the teacher, he seems to be more accustomed to such awkwardness. Sometimes I miss my heart, seemingly inadvertently holding the other hand, the gentleness in the chest is like a honey.

This feeling is very natural, he actually does not want to break immediately.

Very late, he returned to the cabin and everyone was already asleep. The ink burned back on the banquet, watching the night outside the narrow skylight, and slowly appeared in front of the eyes of Chu, and sometimes closed his eyes, sometimes sharp and sharp.

Of course, the ink burned also remembered that the person curled up and slept, docile and lonely, like a spring bathing jellyfish because it was too high.

Without hatred, the entanglement between Chu and his past lives is deeper than everyone in this world.

He took many first-times from Chu Ningning, regardless of whether the other party is willing or not.

For example, the first kiss, the first time to cook, the first tears.

There is also the first night of Chu Xiaoning.

To die, when he thinks about this, he will be hot and the blood will rush down.

In contrast, he also gave Chu late to some of his first time, regardless of whether the other party wants or not.

For example, the first time to apprentice, the first time to swear, the first gift.

For the first time, I was disappointed with one person.

And, for the first time, tempted.

Yes, first time tempted.

He came to life and death, the first person to look at is not a teacher, but a late night.

Under the sea otter tree that day, the white youth was so focused on the beauty that at first glance, the smoldering felt that except for this person, whoever came to be his master, he did not.

But which one is from, what has changed?

When did it start, the person he cares for became a teacher, and the person who hated became a teacher...

He thought about it carefully in the past few months, and then he felt that it should be after that misunderstanding.

It was the first time that he was beaten by Liu, and the fifteen-year-old boy returned to the dormitory with a scar. He was curled up on the bed alone, his throat was sobbing, and his eyes were wet red. The wound on the back is the second. The most sad thing for him is the cold and cold look of the teacher. It is like a beating of a dog who has lost his family. He has never been half-hearted and soft.

He was stealing the jellyfish from the medicine pot, but he did not know how much the sea otter cherished the value of the sea otter. He did not know how much effort Mrs. Wang spent, waiting for five years before he hoped for a full bloom.

He only knew that he returned from the moon and the night, and saw a glimpse of whiteness on the branches.

The petals are cold and the fragrant Philippine is light.

He looked up for a moment and remembered his master. At that moment, my heart did not know why there was an inexplicable incitement. It seemed that even the fingertips could not help but be slightly hot. Unsuccessful reaction, he has carefully folded the flowers, and the movement is gentle, for fear of touching even a drop of dew on the petals.

Through the thick lashes, he stared at the moonlit night in the moonlight. He didn't know, at that moment, the tenderness and tenderness he left for Chu Lingning was so pure, in the next ten years, Twenty years, until death, there will be no more.

The flower has not been given to the master, and it was met by Xue Meng who just happened to take medicine for her mother.

The young master angered him and sent him to the front of the master. Chu nightning turned his head back and heard the cold and sharp eyes. He passed the ink-burning face and asked him what to argue.

The ink burned: "I fold flowers, I want to give it."

He still holds the spring bathing sea otter in his hand, condensing the frost, and can't tell the cold and charming.

However, Chu nightning's eyes were too cold, and the lava-like heat in his chest was cold, and it cooled down one foot and one inch.

The word "you" can no longer be said.

That feeling, he is too familiar with him, before he is not dying, in his short, thin body, between the music and the enthusiasm, he spends every day in such a look - -

That kind of contempt, that kind of inferior...

The ink burned suddenly a chill, shuddering.

Is it true that the teacher respects him?

In the face of the cold and cold question of Chu Yuning, the burning of the ink only felt that the heart was cold. He bowed his head and said: "...I...have nothing to say."

The end is a foregone conclusion.

Just because of this sea otter, Chu nightning hit him forty vines. It was broken when the first hit to the burning of the ink.

But if at the time, Mo was burning to explain more, if Chu, would rather ask more questions, then everything would be different. This may not be the first step for the masters and apprentices.

However, there is not so much if.

And at this node, the warmth is like a teacher, appearing beside him.

After returning from the night of Chu, he did not go to eat. He was lying on the bed and did not light up.

The teacher slammed the door in and saw what it was like in the darkness. He put the red dragon in the hand and put it on the table, then went to the bed and whispered in a soft voice: "A burning?"

When the ink burned, he did not feel deeply rooted in the teacher. He did not return his head. The blood-filled eyes were still staring at the wall, and the voice was hoarse and heavy.

"Go out."

"I am here to send you..."

"You give me out."

"A burning, don't do this."

"..."

"The temper of Master is not good. If you get used to it, it will be nothing. You can get up and eat something."

The ink burns like a donkey that ten horses can't drag back.

"Don't eat, I am not hungry."

"...A good pad is a padded stomach. If you don't eat it, the master knows that it will be born--" The gas is too late to say it, and the ink burns up and sits up. The eyes with water vapor are wronged and angry. The eyelashes trembled slightly.

"Is angry? What kind of gas does he have? The mouth grows on my own face. What does it matter if he doesn't eat anything? In fact, he doesn't want me to be an apprentice at all. I am starving to death. I am starving to the teacher. Respect the peace of mind, so that his old man is happy."

Teacher: "....."

If he didn't expect himself, he would touch the pain of the burning of the ink. He was a little confused at the moment. I only looked at the little teacher in front of me.

After a long time, the mood of the burning of the ink was a little slow, he lowered his head, and his face was long and falling, covering half of his face.

Ink burning: "...sorry."

The teacher couldn't see his face, only to see his shoulders tremble with trepidation, pinch into a fist, and the back of the hand was light blue.

After all, the fifteen-year-old boy was still too childish. He endured for a while, and finally couldn’t help himself, sitting squatting and crying with his knees. The sound is broken and hoarse, intermittent, with madness and confusion, pain and sorrow.

He burst into tears and burst into tears, and his mouth turned over and over again, just a few words -

"I just want to have a home... I have really been here for fifteen years... I really just want to have a home... Why should I look down on me... Why should I look at me like this... Why do you look down on why? I……"

He cried for a long time, and the teacher stayed with him for a long time.

When the ink burned enough, the teacher handed him a white handkerchief, and then he came to the already cold red oil.

Shi Yan Wen said: "Don't say anything like starvation and not starvation. If you go back to life and death, worship under the teacher's door, you are my younger brother. I also have no parents since I was young. If you want, Just treat me as a family. Come and eat."

"..."

"This is my bag, you don't even appreciate the face, you have to reward my face, right?" The teacher bent his mouth slightly, licking a crystal full copy of the hand, handed to the burning lips Side, "Take a bite."

The ink-burning eyes were still red, and the eyes full of water vapor, looking at the people at the bed, finally let go of the mouth, and the gentle boy fed the food.

In fact, the bowl of hand-cranked has been cool, but also dip over the head, missed the best time to eat.

But at that moment, in the candlelight, it was the food that the bowl of cockroaches sent, accompanied by the glory of the wind, the gentle face of the eyes, inscribed in the moment. After his death, he will never forget.

It probably started from that night.

He is more and more deeply hated by the teacher, and it is from that day that he believes that the teacher is the most important person in his life.

After all, people are greedy and warm.

Especially the funeral dog that is dying, seeing the salt will tremble, fearing that the snow falls, fearing the winter is approaching.

Stepping Xianjun looks beautiful, but only he knows it.

In fact, he is really, but it is a stray wild dog. This wild dog has been looking for a place where he can be huddled, a place that can be called "home", but he has been looking for fifteen years, how can he find it? Not enough.

Therefore, his love and hate becomes very simple and ridiculous -

Someone gave him a stick and he hated it.

Someone gave him a bowl of broth and he fell in love.

Only a little bit of interest.

Chapter 60

The vessel was given a magical technique and the traffic was very fast. The next morning, it was at the Yangzhou Port. There are already a number of horses in the port of entry.

Everyone ate at the pier for breakfast, and the feathers did not need to eat, so they sat at the ferry and closed their eyes. At this time, dawn was dawning, there were not many pedestrians, but the boatmen had already started. They gathered together in groups of three to eat porridge and hoes, and they used their curious eyes to inquire from them from time to time.

The sturdy men in the brown dresses licked the porridge rice, and the discussion sounded into the ink burning ears.

"Hey, I know their clothes, this is the people in the lower world."

"The distance to the next revision is so far away, and it is not often with the sects here. How do you know?"

"Look at the coat of arms on their wrists. Is it exactly the same as the night tour?"

"What kind of exorcism wood you are talking about?" Someone glanced at Xue Meng's cuffs, biting the pickles, and exclaimed, "Oh, it's really true. Who did the night tour?" ?"

"I heard that it was made by the elders of Yu Heng who died of life."

"Who is this elder of Yuheng? Is there a ghost of our lonely moon?"

"Hey, that's not known, who did the cultivation of the immortal, who said it?"

The boatmen spoke to Su Yinzhong, and they didn't understand what they burned. Chu nightning could understand what these people were saying. He knew that his night tour * had been successfully streamed in the folks, and he couldn't help but feel relieved. Then I figured that after going back, I would like to make more light and easy to use wooden cows and horses to do some good things.

After a long time, the pedestrians quickly wrestled, and it was not until two hours before the arrival of Jiuhua Mountain. At this time, the morning light was still early, and the winter Xuyang was just hanging high. The golden light was like a crepe, and the snow was crystal clear. Glittering. On the peaks, hundreds of cypresses and cypresses of the cypresses of the whole year are standing, like the great hidden people of the bones of the celestial celestial winds, with the sleek sleeves converge and stand quietly on both sides of the mountain road.

Jiuhua Peak, mortal called it "non-human", but it is not a false statement.

Yumin blew three whistle at the foot of the mountain, and a feathery and colorful jinque fell from the snow-capped mountains. Everyone followed the guide of Jinque, all the way to the west, to the front of a rushing waterfall.

"Xiejun, please retreat first."

The head of the feathers stood up first, the five fingers smashed flowers, and a curse was silent. Suddenly, she gathered her lips and sighed softly in the wind. A fire dragon rushed out of the air and went straight to the waterfall, leaving the curtain of water in half!

Yumin suddenly looked back and smiled slightly: "I sincerely invite you to move the peach blossoms."

They followed the feathers to wear a water curtain, passed the enchantment, and suddenly opened their eyes, only to see that it was vast and innocent, and it seemed like another soft red. Taohuayuan is a hole that has nothing to do with the realm of comprehension. Although it is no more than the real fairyland, it can't be compared with the realm of the gods, but the aura is full. The scenery in the source is like ink and wash, the color is elegant and faint, and the road is a long way.

The pedestrians lead the way from Yumin, first through the wilderness, only to see the tides of the rivers, and the two sides scream. Then to the suburbs, I saw the squats and ridges. Finally, I arrived in the city, and I was at the corner of the building.

The main city of Peach Blossom is magnificent and magnificent. Its city Guozhi is well-equipped with the prosperity of the world. It is just that the sky is falling and dancing with the snow, the birds and the cranes are flying together, and the past feathers are Yanyan Junxiu. Wu belt is a wind, like a fairy who has gone down from the painting.

However, such a splendid scene, although Xuemeng and his party are quite fresh, but because they have already seen the different scenes of Jinchengchi, they will not be too fussed.

At a fork in the road, I saw a feathered man wearing a white embroidered golden phoenix squatting beside the towering giant wood. The flame pattern in front of her forehead is deeper than others, which means her mana is far away from other feathers. Above the people.

The guides led the way to bring the crowd to her, and then bent down and bowed, and said a courtesy: "The Great Immortal, the four immortals of the dead and the dead have arrived."

"It’s hard, you go back."

"Yes."

The feathered and beautiful feathered people smiled a little, and the sound was as moving as a young phoenix.

"My name is eighteen, and I am fascinated by my family. I live in the high place of Taohuayuan Daxian. The people are willing to show their faces to the Hanmen. I feel very fortunate. During the period, if you have a hospitality, please don , not blunt."

She is so amazing, her speech is polite, and she is very popular.

Although Xue Meng doesn't love men's looks better than himself, he knows the age of Shao Ai, naturally does not hate the beautiful woman, so he smiles: "The lord is polite, but the name of the 18 is really weird, I don't know. The lord respects the surname?"

Eighteen Wen Wei said: "I have no surname, it is called eighteen."

The ink burned and laughed: "You call it eighteen, is there someone called 17?"

He was a joke. Who knows that eighteen listened, and he couldn’t help but smile: "Xianjun is smart, and seventeen are me."

Ink burning: "..."

Eighteen explained: "Our feathers are born from the down feathers of the Suzaku gods. When they are shallow, they are often the shape of Zhu Xi. The earliest form is the immortality of my family, and the rest of the feathers are named according to the order of formation. One, two... I am the eighteenth, so I am named eighteen."

"..."

After the ink burned, he couldn't help but talk. He thought that Xue Zhengqi's name was bad enough. He didn't think there was a worse one here.

But then, the eighteenth said a news that would make him more violent.

"First talk about business. The first immortal monarchs came here, but they still don't know the rules of cultivation of peach blossoms." Eighteen, "Famous practice, most of the centuries are divided by martial art. But here is different. We Yumin It is clear that there is a division of labor, and there are three kinds of specialties: 'defense', specializing in 'explosion', and specializing in 'healing'. There are three kinds of cultivation. Your cultivation will also be carried out according to these three kinds."

Ink burned and said: "This is good."

He nodded in the 18th Dynasty: "Thank you Xiaoxianjun for agreeing. You need to know that the monks of the lonely moon and night in the past few days have come. Hearing this kind of refining method, it is a big frown."

The ink burns the road: "The defensive is defensive, the attack is attacked, the healing is healing, so simple and clear, not very good? What dissatisfaction do they have?"

Eighteen: "This is the case. On the night of the moon, there is a section of the son of the genus 'Yu Shou', who needs to live in the same place with the same genius, and his sister is a 'clashing', and must be attacked and slashed. They lived together with each other. Although I don’t understand the mortal feelings, I can see that the son is not willing to separate from the two sisters."

"Haha, what's the matter - wait, what do you say!" The ink burned half of it, and suddenly reacted and slammed his eyes. "Do people with different attributes have to live separately, but have to live separately?"

Eighteen did not know why he suddenly changed his face and said: "Yes."

The ink is green: "..."

What kind of joke?

After half an hour, the ink burned with the failure of the eighteen bargaining, and stood in a bright four-in-one courtyard, and fell into a long silence.

He, Xue Meng, Xia Si reversed, all three were attacked and divided into the east of Taohuayuan. The so-called east side does not refer to a small area, but is a place for the "cracking" of the immortals. There are more than 20 courtyards of four people, and there are other mountain lakes and lanes. The strange market, built to resemble the mortal, is about knowing that they have to live here for a long time, for them to talk about homesickness.

The teacher, because it is a "healing", went to the south of Taoyuan, far from the place where the ink burned them, and there was more enchantment in the middle, which relied on the token to pass. This means that although the ink-burning is in the same Taoyuan as the teacher, he has no chance to meet each other except for the daily introduction of the feathers of the three major attributes of the Xianjun.

This is not the worst.

The ink burned his eyes and raised his eyes. Through the dense eyelash curtains, he looked around in the yard and turned around. Obviously he was planning to pick the most comfortable place for him, and he couldn’t help the forehead.

Xue Meng...

Yes, his mother, he must live in a yard with Xue Meng every day from now! The love of life is bitter, and the resentment will be. In the future, he may feel very thorough...

The feathers have been selected from the upper revisions to the next revision, and the turn of life and death is nearing completion. Therefore, the people of other sects came earlier than them. Xue Meng soon discovered that there was a lodge in the courtyard of the four courtyards where they lived.

"Weird, I don't know who has lived here?" Xue Meng said as he snorted the blind man in the eye.

Ink burning: "No matter who it is, it should not be a person who cares about it."

"How do you say this?"

Ink burning: "I asked you, which room did you pick?"

Xue Meng looked alert: "You have to do it? I am already optimistic. It is mine when I am facing the north. If you want to grab me, I will..."

As soon as I hadn’t had time to figure it out, the ink burned and interrupted him: “I don’t like too big a room, I won’t fight for you. But I have to ask you if this room is still empty—” He said, he clicked on the hut that had already been moved in, and then asked, "Would you like to change with him?"

Xue Meng first looked at the plain and simple, and glanced at the ink: "Would you be stupid? I certainly don't change."

Ink burned and said: "So I said that the person is not a careless person. You see, when he came, the four rooms were empty, but he did not pick the best, only chose the low huts. If a person is not a fool, he is a modest gentleman."

"..."

This analysis is not bad, but Xue Meng feels like being smashed by the ink knife. People are gentlemen, they can't live in a good house, they have to sleep well, then aren't they stinking villains and stingers?

However, there was no mention of Xue Meng’s half-character in the ink-burning. He also taught Xue Gongzi to be unwilling, and couldn’t stand it, and his face rose to red.

"In any case... I used to live well." Xue Meng sighed and said, "I just lived in a place where I didn't live. Who should be the gentleman? I am not rare."

After the words, I left.

So in this other courtyard, there are four very different houses with owners.

Xue Meng chose the north side of the fine house, the powder wall and the tile, the threshold is gold, is the most transparent and luxurious. The ink burned the western stone cottage, and a peach tree was planted at the door. It was warm. Chu nightning wants a bamboo building in the east, the sun sets in the west, and the warm green bamboo is like a jade in the glow of China.

In the south, there is a squatting house, and the one who lives is the "gentleman" who has never met.

Chu night Ning typhoid fever, dizziness is very powerful. I went into the bamboo building early to rest. Xue Meng accompanied him for a while, but this younger brother would not be spoiled, nor would he like to listen to the story. Only one person wrapped up in a small scorpion and bored his head to sleep. Xue Meng sat on the edge of the bed for a while. The * is gone.

In the yard, the ink burned out and put the chair out. He was tilting his legs, his arms bent behind his head, and leisurely watching the golden crows sinking, and the afterglow flicked off.

When Xue Meng came out, he asked: "Is Xia Shi brother sleeping?"

"Ok."

"Is it hot?"

"You have to care about him. It’s not good to go in and see."

The ink burned and laughed: "I am afraid that the little guy is not sleeping, and he is awkward and awkward."

Xue Meng gave him a look: "You are rare and have some self-knowledge. I thought you would only be with my cat and dog, and take a ride in the yard and be lazy."

"Haha, how do you know that I am lazy?" The ink burned a peach blossom between his fingers, and smiled. "I was sitting in the yard for a while, and I found a secret." ""

Xue Mengxian didn't want to ask, but he was curious. He forbeared for a long time or was sullen, sorting out a look that he didn't care about, and said: "...What big secret?"

The ink burned and waved at him, narrowing his eyes: "You come with your ear, I quietly say to you."

"..." Xue Meng reluctantly refused to do so. The ink burned close, and whispered: "Hey, be fooled, silly."

Xue Meng’s eyes narrowed and he was furious, and he licked the smoldering clothes: “You lied to me? Are you young and childish?!”

Ink burned haha: "Where I lied to you, I really found a secret, but I really don't want to tell you."

Xue Meng black eyebrows said: "If I believe in you again, it is really a fool!"

The two birds, the dogs, the dogs and the ostriches, are clamoring, and the ink is about to say something else to make the other person more angry, but suddenly heard a strange voice behind him, a little doubtful "hmm?" And then said: "Is the two newcomers to repair?"

The voice of this person is clear and clear, and the sound of the younger is more natural.

The ink burned and Xue Mengqi Qi looked back, only to see the blood in the sun, a man dressed in a strong dress stood in the wind.

The man was born with a deep facial, dark-eyed, black-necked crown, a honey-faced face handsome and spirited. Although the body is not tall and sturdy, but the posture is very tall and straight, more than the pines and cypresses. Especially a pair of long legs, wrapped in black bundle pants, it seems to be narrow and powerful, straight and heroic.

The look of ink burned instantly, and it seemed that the blood and sin of the world had flashed.

He seems to have seen a figure in the * hurricane, the cheekbones were pierced, and the flesh of the half face was torn off, but he still refused to die and refused to yield.

The heart trembled, like a drop of clear white dew on the blade, the ink burned can not tell what it is.

If he has admired someone in his previous life, then this one is definitely one of them.

It turns out that the gentleman who wants to live with them... is actually him...

The author has something to say:

After school, the ink-feeding fish children came to Jiuhuashan Bird University and stayed in the happy quadruple bedroom~

Ink burning: muddy stuffy! I am the ink rain from Hunan Xiangtan! I am studying philosophy! Please advise!

Chu nightning: Chu nightning, I am from Lin'an, the pile of clothes and socks thrown on the balcony of the bedroom are mine. I will throw them all in the washing machine at night, but I will not cover the quilt. Busy, thank you.

Ink burning:.....

Xue Meng: Xue Ziming, Sichuan, don't provoke me. My father has mastered the economic lifeline of the whole Xiu Xiu. If you bully me, my father can stop all the stocks of your parents, including Maotai.

Chapter 61

The brothers stopped playing and both got up.

The people in front of me had a very solemn temperament. Xue Meng took a moment to react, and he said: "Well. It’s not bad. Who are you?"

He used to be self-sufficient, and although Mrs. Wang repeatedly taught him the etiquette, he did not care about it. Therefore, asking others to honor their surnames, without respecting them, did not first report their names, which is very rude.

But the ink burned knows that this person will not know the general knowledge of Xue Meng. After all, people are...

"In the Confucian disciples, Ye forgets." The youth is calm and not angry. Under his dark sword, a pair of eyes are like quenching stars, especially bright and sharp. "Dare to ask your high surname."

"Leaves the past?" Xue Meng frowned and muttered. "I haven't heard of it. It's not famous."

Although his voice is not loud, but the other party's ear strength is not bad, it can certainly be heard. The ink burned La Xuemeng's sleeves in the dark, let him converge, and then converge on the emotions in the shackles. He smiled slightly: "In the next life, the ink burns, and this is the younger brother Xuemeng."

Xue Meng broke him and glared at him.

"Don't touch me, who is your brother?"

"Hey, Xue Meng, you..." The ink sighed and then bent back, and the leaves sighed and smiled: "The brother is stubborn, and Ye brother laughs."

He did not suddenly turn his temper, and he was very polite to Xue Meng. It’s just because this leaf is a forgotten person, although he borrowed no name at this time, but in his life, the whole master is the second master in addition to Chu Yuning.

God knows how much bitterness has been eaten in the past. In this life, I will be a man again. For this sharp, knife-like, high-quality Yingjie, don’t talk about it, at least I don’t want to be an enemy of him.

A Chu nighting is enough for him to smash his head, and then come back with a leaf, then there is a comfortable life?

Ye had not forgotten a few words, and they were polite to each other and went back to the house.

As soon as others left, the ink burned back to the smiling face of the gods, and took the elbow and smashed Xue Meng. He smiled and asked, "How?"

"What is it?"

"This person." Ink asked, "I don't like it, can you look good?"

"...?" Xue Meng looked at him inexplicably, shouting, "neuropathy."

The ink burned and laughed: "We are all living in the same hospital. We will look down and see you later. You should be lucky to live with us."

Xue Meng said strangely: "Listen to your tone, do you know him?"

Of course, the ink-burning can't tell the truth, and he jokingly said: "I don't know, but I don't know, but I only look at people. I look at him beautifully, and my heart is very happy."

Xue Meng said: "Disgusting!"

The ink burned a haha, turned and waved, and turned back to Xue Meng, making a cursing gesture, and then lazily returned to his stone lodge, and once he fell the bolt, he closed Xue Meng’s cockroaches. Out of the way.

In the early morning of the next day, the ink ignited early.

In order to familiarize them with Taoyuan's life, Yumin specially extended the practice for three days. After the ink burned and finished, I saw that Ye Ye had already gone out, and the other two had not woke up, and they went to the street to hang out.

In the early morning mist, many Xianmen swordsmen walked lightly, drifting past, and rushed to their respective places of cultivation.

When the ink burned through an early shop, I saw a new pot of water and fried. I remembered that the younger brother was still sick, so I walked over and said: "The boss, I want eight fried pouches, and then I will take a bowl of sweet porridge and take it away."

The feathers of the stalls were not lifted and said: "Give me six feathers."

Ink burns: "What are six?"

"Six feathers."

"...Is it right now I have to find a chicken and pull a few hairs?"

The folk scorpion scorpion white and gave him a look: "I still want to eat without hair? Go and go."

The smoldering was good and funny, and I had to ask again. Suddenly a familiar voice came from behind, and a bandaged hand reached over, with six golden wings hanging between the fingers.

"The boss, porridge, I paid for him."

The feathers took over the mane, and they were too lazy to wander with them. They turned and packed and went early. When the side of the ink burns over the face, I will see that Ye forgets that he is standing beside him, and that the end is Qing Xiu Ying, and he is self-satisfied.

"Thank you for your help." With a steaming fried bag and sweet porridge, the ink burned and the leaves walked away and said, "If you don't meet you today, I am afraid we all have to go hungry."

"No problem." Ye forgets, "The 18 girls are not good at sex, always forgetting to give some feathers to newcomers. I also happened to pass by, and it’s just a matter of raising your hands. You don't have to be polite."

Ink burning asked: "When you buy and sell in Taohuayuan, you need to get feathers in exchange for it?"

"Not bad."

"Where did the feather come from?"

Ye forgets the road: "Pull it."

"Pull, pull..." The ink burns a little bit, is it really pulled from the bird? The birds here can't be pulled by them.

Seeing him in amazement, Ye forgets a little funny look at him: "What do you think? There is an abyss in the Taoyuan. It is said that the place where the gods were soaring and flying in the past, the bottom of the abyss is full of red flames. It’s hard to be hot. So you won’t be able to live in the grass.

The ink burned like he described it. He immediately thought of the sky-covered sky in the distance when passing by the suburbs yesterday. He said: "Is the abyss near the north of the city?"

"You are doing a good job."

"What does that have to do with feathers?"

Ye forgets: "This is the case. Although there are no other creatures that can survive near the ancestral abyss, there are a group of roars in the abyss. They are nested in real fire and they lie in the night. Their mane can help the people to repair Refined."

"It turned out to be the case." The ink burned and laughed. "No wonder you have to use feathers to change things."

"Yeah. But you need to be mindful. When you are at night, their feathers will become the same as ordinary nightingales. Even if you catch them, they have no use. Only when the rising sun rises every day, the roars return to the ancestors in groups. The abyss. The moment they are about to enter the abyss, the wings on them will change back to gold, and it will be useful to pick them up."

"Haha, isn't that a practice of lightness? If the kung fu is not home, if you fall, you can become a barbecue. If you don't pick it, you will starve to death." The ink can't help but sigh. "This is really human." distressed."

Ye forgets to ask: "Are you not doing bad work?"

Ink burned and said: "Generally average."

"That can't be done." Ye forgets, "The roaring action is fast, don't lose the eagle. If you don't practice hard, you will be hungry in a few days."

"such……"

Seeing the self-death of the ink, Ye Forgot sighed and said: "I have a lot of feathers, and I don't need it for a while. If you need it, ask me if you need it."

The ink burned and waved again and again, laughing: "How nice this is. These six feathers are what I asked you to borrow. I will go back to eat first. If I have feathers tomorrow, I will return it to you. Thank you."

Say goodbye to the leaves, the ink burned the porridge and returned to the other hospital.

There was no one in Xuemen’s room. He woke up and was idle, and went around. The ink burned and came to the bamboo building in Chu nightning.

Chu nightning has not yet woken up. The ink burned the porridge and the fried bag on the table, came to his bed and looked down at him.

Suddenly some kind of familiar feeling floated on my heart.

The little teacher is asleep... How is it like someone?

But I can't think of who I want to be, but the impression is that there is a person like this. When I am lying in bed, I always smash myself into a ball, and my hands are on my cheeks. Who is it?

At the moment he was in a daze, Chu night would wake up.

"Hey..." turned over, Chu nightning saw the person beside the bed, suddenly widened his eyes, "Ink burning?"

"I have said it a few times, I want to call my brother." The ink burned his hair, and then he went to the forehead and tried the temperature. "Hot back, come, get something to eat."

"Eating..." The children on the couch repeated dumbly, and the hair was messy, and the face became more and more lovely.

"You see that your brother doesn't hurt you, get up early to buy it early. Eat it hot."

Chu nightning went to bed with a white coat and went to the table. There is a tender lotus leaf on the table, and the inside of the fried bun is thin and crispy, with green chopped green onion and black sesame. There is also a small longan osmanthus porridge, boiled soft glutinous thick, is braving the heat.

The elders of Yu Heng, who have always been strong, have given birth to a certain uncertainty: "Give me?"

"what?"

"Is it... bought for me?"

The ink burned a bit: "Yes."

He looked at the way he was hesitant and he thought about it, and smiled and said: "Come on, or it will be cold."

Chu Xiaoning was so dead for many years, although everyone respected him, but because his character was stubborn and cold, almost no one would like to eat with him, let alone make a breakfast for him. Sometimes he looked at the interrelationships between the disciples, but although he didn't want to admit it, he couldn't help himself. Therefore, facing this bowl of porridge, a few buns, silent for a long time, actually reluctant to eat.

When the ink burned, he sat on the stool and stared at the food in front of him, but he did not move the chopsticks. He thought that he was not appetizing, so he asked: "What? Is it greasy?"

"..."

Chu night Ning looked back at him, shook his head, picked up a spoonful of porridge, blew the cold, and carefully drank.

If he is a handsome and cold Chu Zong teacher in the past, this kind of porridge will only appear to be well-conceived and elegant.

But it was awkward and pathetic to change to a child.

When the smoldering misunderstanding, he said to him: "You don't like the longan? Then you pick it up and throw it away, it doesn't get in the way."

"No." The younger brother didn't have much expression on his face, but when he looked back at the ink, the black scorpion was warm, "I like it."

"Oh...haha, that's good, I thought you didn't like it."

Chu nightning hangs down the thick curtain of the eyelashes and whispers repeatedly: "I like it. No one has ever treated me like this before."

He said, raising his throat and looking at the ink, he said seriously.

"Thank you, brother."

Mo-burn did not think that he would say this, and could not help but hold it.

He is not a good person, nor a child. The reason why he is good against Xia Shi is that he feels that his young age is extraordinary and he is a worthy future generation.

However, he has a utilitarian heart, but the other party treats him with sincerity. I couldn’t help but feel a bit stunned, but listening to the words of this younger brother, I felt so strange, so I waved my hand and asked Chu to rather not thank myself. He asked: "Isn’t anyone bought you earlier?"

Chu nightning did not have any expression, nodded.

"The people under the elders' door will not take care of each other?"

Chu night Ning said: "I don't often get together with them."

"Where did you get started? When you were in a vulgar family, you yell at the mother..." When the words were half, the ink burned.

The little teacher of his younger brother is so clear-cut, which parent's heart is tossing him to the mountains to practice, and never look at him from the door? Presumably his experience and his teacher are the same as himself.

Sure enough, Chu Xi Ning calmly said: "Parents have abandoned, no other relatives, no one took me."

The ink burned and did not speak. After a long silence, he sighed. Mind: I originally had a good relationship with this child. First, I saw him as a superb. Second, he was quite calm, and he was not the same as a child who was screaming. I don't want him to live with me.

He looked at the younger brother in front of him, and couldn't help but think of the time when his childhood was full of bitterness and pain, and there was a surge of blood in his chest, gradually becoming pity and relatives. Suddenly said: "No one has taken you before, but there will be. You will call me a brother, and I will take care of you from then on."

Chu nightning did not seem to expect him to say this. It seemed a little surprised. After a while, he slowly opened a smile and said, "You want to take care of me?"

"Yeah. You will follow me later, I will teach you the mind and teach you how to practice the sword."

Chu Xiaoning smiled even more: "You have to teach me the heart and teach me to practice the sword?"

The ink burned his misunderstanding and scratched his head. "You don't laugh at me. I know that you are very good at repairing, but you are still young, and you have to learn a lot of things. There are so many elders, he can't care." You. What are you doing with me? I still have at least one Shenwu person."

Chu night was quiet for a long time, and said: "I have never laughed at you. I... I think you are very good."

In this case, before he changed it, he could not say anything, but his body became smaller. It seemed that even the temper would be soft, just like hiding in the dark, and finally he could remove the hard-boned mask.

It was burned and lived for two lifetimes. For the first time, people were praised as "you are very good." Although the other party was only a child, it also made him feel helpless. The surprise was very good. It was a long time, and it was as thick as a city wall. The face of the skin turned out to be red.

He muttered and repeated: "I, I, I, I am fine... Am I good?"

Suddenly I remembered that when I was young, I really wanted to be a good person.

However, at that time, the humble but gentle desire was to "when I grew up, I wanted to discuss the fate of Li Zhi, who was a daughter-in-law." "If you earn enough silver, you should buy a biscuit every day." "If there are two meals in the future, there will be two." The block of braised pork, when the gods do not change, the same, and later became the memory of the wind and snow.

Chapter 62

The practice of smoldering them soon began. Of course, 攒 feathers are the things he is most keen to do. After all, he does not expect to learn too much from the past generations. The good days are serious.

They went to the ancestral abyss to rob the golden feathers before the dawn of each day, and then went to Zhu Rongdong to meditate, to fight against Zhu Rongdong and strengthen himself. After two hours, follow the method of the ghosts to practice the ghosts.

Two more hours, the Shura field confronted each other.

Before entering the night, go to the Taohuayuan Guanxing Cliff to listen to the Eighteen Girls to explain "Hundred Ghosts" and "Drive the Spirit".

Of course, the most favorite thing about ink burning is the evening view of the Stars and Cliffs, because it is the only class that will bring together three different specializations of monks.

He knows that the teacher is not good at light work, and he remembers that the other person does not eat a full stomach, so the feathers that are taken off will be divided into half for the teacher every day. However, in addition to this, it is difficult to have too much intersection with the teacher, but instead it is with the night of the night, and the two gradually become inseparable.

During this time, it is often that Chu Ning is sitting on the bridge bar and blowing the leaves. The ink burns sitting next to him and listening to the rising sun and the clouds.

Or Chu Xiaoning stood by the river to feed the fish, and the ink burned the umbrella and stood next to him and looked at Jin Yu Yue, Bibo Jin scale.

When the peach blossoms fell into the rain, the ink burned Chu's hand, and along with him, he walked along the cracked old bluestone trail. A paper umbrella was just right and opened on the heads of the two.

If the water is deep, the ink will burn up the younger brother, and the raindrops will answer. The little guy is quiet on his shoulder, and he doesn't talk much.

It’s just that sometimes the back is hot, and there is a thin sweat on the forehead, and the ignorant younger brother will wipe him with a towel. Napa is white and plain, and a sea bract is embroidered on the corner. The ink burns always feels familiar, like where I have seen it, but the thought of flickering is like the drizzle falling into the deep pool, and I can't find it anymore.

On this day, Chu Xi Ning rested in the courtyard, and the ink burned his blood and solved his hair and made him a tall pony tail. I was combing my hair, and I suddenly saw the leaves lingering on my left shoulder and looking into the courtyard.

The ink burns the tip of the eye and raises the eyebrow slightly: "Is the leaf brother injured?"

"Yeah." Ye forgets the moment and wrinkles his eyes. "It’s a small injury when you learn. It’s just that the person is really sloppy and embarrassing!"

"..."

It’s hard to believe that ink is burning: “Is anyone indecent?”

Ye forgets to glance at him, his eyes are sharp, cold and cold: "What do you want."

"Hahaha, make a joke." The ink smiled twice and couldn't help but curious. "Who is the person you said?"

Ye forgets the road: "Who else? It is not the romantic seed of the Kunlun Snow Palace."

As soon as I heard this description, the ink burned "ah" and my heart said: Could it be him?

These days, he often heard some female disciples whispering in Taohuayuan, Zhangkou "master brother", closed "master brother". It’s just a matter of age. Just yesterday, he also saw a 40-year-old woman standing on the side of the flower, and her eyes whispered: "No man in this world can stand shoulder to shoulder with the master. If he can really look at me and talk to me, I will fall into * and have no resentment."

Such a sorrowful state, let the ink burned at the time, and suspected that the "master brother" she said was the person she wanted, but there were many monks in Taohuayuan, and there was not much exchange between them. He never I only heard the name, I didn’t see anyone, and I was embarrassed and the female disciples were listening to the gossip, so I was not sure.

"I am drinking at the Linghu Building in the West City today," Ye said. "The * thing happened to be inside. I saw him carrying two women in his arms. It was very swaying, but others would like me." It doesn't matter to me, so I can't say anything."

Ink burned and agreed: "This is true."

"But later, the outside rushed into a female disciple under the door of a lonely moon, looking worried, looking around and looking for people."

Ink smirked: "Is looking for the ‘master brother’?”

"You also heard about the master?"

"Haha, then look at it, even the gentleman like you knows his bad luck. How can I not know if my parents are short?"

Ye forgets to glance at him silently and said: "The master is really not something. The woman who was alone on the night of the moon came to find him. It was because he exchanged the tokens with others some time ago and said that he would become a Taoist. From then on. No longer apart."

The ink burned and laughed again: "That is what I can't hear. I guess that there are seventeen or eight pieces of the master of the sentimental messenger. The same thing is the case. If you chase a girl, you will send a token. I am afraid that even the words of the vows will be No difference."

Chu Jingning, who had been quietly listening and didn’t talk, finally spoke up. He squinted at the ink and seemed to be dissatisfied and said, "You know it."

Who knows that Ye forgets the truth but stands on the side of the ink: "The ink brother said it is good, the fact is true. The woman repaired the original master, and listened to him saying so, he believed it was true, and he lost it tonight. he."

Ink burning: "Hey." Busy to go to the ears of late night.

Chu nightning does not move: "What are you doing?"

"Children can't listen to this. Listening to it is not good for practice."

Chu nightning: "..."

The ink burned the ears of Chu's late night, and immediately the eyes couldn't wait to ask: "And then?"

Ye Forgiveness is a righteous gentleman. Where is the desire to get a smoldering, this despicable villain is simply reading the narrative of his indignation as a peach-colored transcript. He is righteous and sighed: "What then? Masters are naturally reluctant to accept accounts, and are not willing to The woman repaired more entanglement. The female repair took out the Jiansui Sui, and expected that the master would hold one of the two women, and said that as long as he was a friend, he would give a sword ear, not It is to be sent to the Taoist."

"Oh, that's really shameless."

"Yeah." Ye said, "I don't understand, I talked to him."

He said here that his face is slightly different. After a while, I said: "If you are not happy, you will fight."

The ink burned and laughed: "This way."

But my heart said: I am afraid not. If the "master brother" is really the one he guessed, then the character of that person is definitely not going to be human because of this kind of thing. I am afraid that the leaves here are out of jealousy and concealed something.

However, since Ye did not want to say that the ink burned, of course, it would not be debunked, so he changed his words: "The master's skill must be good, if ordinary people, it will not hurt Ye brother."

Not to mention this is still good, once said this, Ye forgets seem to be more annoying, a pair of dark scorpions in the sparks of the fire, flashing with anger.

"Well? Good." Ye forgets the truth and says, "I have a mediocre spell, and I rely on women all the time - not something!"

"Ah? Hahahahaha." The ink burned him to say so, and fixed his eyes, only to see the leaves forget the wounds on the shoulders, there are three or four intermittent blood marks on the cheeks, apparently being scratched by a woman's nails. I can’t help but fall down with a smile. “The master is really worthy of the name, hahahaha.”

Chu Yuning did not speak. He began to think deeply when he said that he had said "when he was unhappy, he started playing."

Waiting for the leaves to return to the room to dress up the wounds, Chu night Ning said: "Ink burning."

The ink burned his head: "Tell the brother."

"..." Chu said, "I am a master, is Mei Hanxue?"

Ink burned and said: "I guess so."

Chu Xiaoning did not speak, and thought a little.

Suddenly, I figured out something, and suddenly I widened my eyes: "This leaf is forgotten, it will not be -"

"Hey! Hey!" The ink burned his fingers to his lips, stopped his words, and then squatted, kept flush with Chu Yuening, and smiled. "You are young, what do you think?" ?"

"...I heard about Mei Hanxue this time... especially unreliable, what ridiculous things have been done, I didn’t expect him to even dare the disciples of Confucianism..."

The ink burned and laughed casually: "Ha ha ha, he is quite unreliable. But other people's things we take care of. Come, the brothers continue to tie your hair. Before seeing a hairpin in West Street, it is pretty, not expensive. I bought it, I will show it to you."

Just like the burning of the ink does not like the taste of Chu Xiaoning, Chu nightning is also not flattering about the burning of the ink.

Chu nightning floated to the glamorous golden blue butterfly and fell into silence: "... Are you sure this is for me?"

"Yeah. Children will use gold and red, you see, how lively."

Chu nightning: "....."

It was very reluctant, but when I thought about it, it seemed that the first time I sent my own things, so I shut up and didn't talk. I calmed my face and let the ink burn the buckle to the top of his ponytail. Golden bluegrass and butterflies shine brightly on long black hair.

Chu nightning drops eyelashes.

Suddenly I feel that this is also very good.

Such a color, such an ink burns, such a self, if the body is restored, it will definitely not be there again.

This butterfly is like flying from a dream.

Baiyun Cang dog, the sun and the moon are like a shuttle.

The monks practiced in Taoyuan and have been in the blink of an eye for half a year.

According to the Eighteen Girls, after half a year, everyone needs to accept the test of the feathers in turn, and measure the progress of the practice.

"This is the first trial after you came here." At the rally, the 18th martyr said, "The content of the trial is divided into three major dangers according to the different methods of each of them. The sects enter the blood. In the river, the treatments entered the 'great tragedy' and the attackers entered the 'revolutionary environment'."

"The above three major dangers are based on the memories of the ghosts that have been invaded into the human world hundreds of years ago, and they will be restored to the virtual environment. You will not have any danger in it. After you crack the crisis in the virtual territory, you will return to Taoyuan. ”

"The virtual trial can only enter two people at a time, that is to say, the trials can challenge alone. If you want to invite your companions, you can only invite one. The trial order is based on the notice."

After the gathering, the trials began slowly. The smoldering does not know the situation of defensive and healing, but the attack has already measured six or seven people. Fortunately, those people have done a good job. It seems that this trial is not too difficult.

After the first ten days, it was the turn of the ink.

It was the 18th who was in charge of attacking the monks. She smiled and asked: "Mo Xianjun can go with his companion?"

Ink burned and thought: "If I pick a person to go with me, then does he have to take another trial?"

"This is natural."

"Then I will take the younger brother to go." The ink burned the finger to the late night, "He is young, and when I am alone, I am not at ease."

When the moon was empty, they came to a black cave with the 18th, which was covered with a thin layer of red and purple smoke.

Eighteen: "Please listen to the two sages, and the scene restored by Shura is the first rupture of the ghost world two hundred years ago. At that time, because the enchantment could not be repaired in time, a large number of sorrowful ghosts fled to the world and maimed. There are countless creatures. This virtual environment is based on the memory of a survivor in Lin'an that year. When you step into the cave, you will come to the battle of Lin'an City two hundred years ago. Kill the ghost king who led the army and break the virtual world."

The ink burned and looked at the night, and turned to smile at the 18th: "Fairy, you see that my skin is thick and thick, it doesn't matter. My brother is only six years old. You said that this sword is ruthless, in case he hurts him. ....."

"You don't have to worry, all the knives in the virtual world will not really hurt the two." Eighteen said, "If you are injured, you will have the spiritual power to mark it yourself. If it is the key point, it will represent two. If the injury is serious, the challenge will fail."

This is only reassuring, and smiled and said: "It turns out that the fairy is very thoughtful, thank you very much."

Since the fear has been removed, the ink-burning and Chu-night will go to the cave to try. The cave was black, and when they stepped forward, their bodies suddenly felt a vacant flight, followed by flashing blurred scenes, and numerous twisted faces gathered in the river to float underneath.

When the two fell to the ground and their feet were stable, they found that they had been transferred to Gu Lin'an and stood at the old road in the suburbs. At this time, it was noon, the sun was shining, and there was a strong smell in the air.

Two hundred years ago, the ancient city of Lin'an, which was the night of the ghosts, was accompanied by this rich suffocating suffocation. It was like a remnant of a yellow-colored war in the middle of the battle. In the eyes of the ink-burning and Chu-nighting, slowly and unfolding.

The author has something to say:

Chapter 63

At that time, Lin'an City was in a state of war, and it was full of blood and blood in the eyes. Under the smog of the devil, the suburbs of the suburbs, the woods are dry.

When the ink burned and he didn't return to the gods, he heard a strange noise. He looked up and saw a fresh belly hanging on a stubble stick that was not far away. More than ten black crows were looking around for food. Blood drops and meat * are constantly falling down.

Under the tree, the body of a middle-aged man fell, his abdomen was torn open by claws, and blood and organs flowed to the ground. No one can know whether he was blind or closed when he died. His eyes have been hollowed out.

Such a scene, ink burning is no stranger.

In his previous life, he had slaughtered the 72nd city of Confucianism. At that time, the blood was drifting, and the corpse was everywhere. It was also such a terrible situation.

I don't know why, the blood of the past life made him happy, and every flesh and blood in the body whispered. However, at this moment, I suddenly saw a similar horror. In his heart, he had a layer of Sen Han’s half-inch pity. Is it true that he has been pretending to be a long time, and he has gradually turned his mind?

I was thinking about it, and I heard a hoof sound, and there was a dust in front.

In this way, the world can still be rampant, and most of them are not good birds.

The ink burned immediately took Chu Yuning and took him behind him. However, there was no space to hide around the old road in Lin'an. In the blink of an eye, a group of light rides appeared in the dusty smoke. When I saw it, I realized that the horses were not strong. Some of them were hungry and even the ribs were clear. More than ten people sat on the horseback and pressed their heads.

Those people wore a uniform white background, and they wore red and white feathers, and they wore the double dragons to kill the ring. Although they are not very clean, they are very neat, and although they are extremely thin, they are still awkward. What is even more rare is that they all have a strong bow and a plump of arrows behind them.

In the troubled world of bonfires, the most valuable thing is two things: food, and weapons.

They are obviously not ordinary people.

The ink is burning is not known to be good or evil, is the enemy is a friend. I heard one of the fourteen-and-five-year-old teenagers shouting: "Hey! Auntie!"

The young man slammed down from the horseback, fell into the mud, and climbed up and rolled up. He stumbled and ran down the tree, slammed into the dying middle-aged man, and burst into tears: "Auntie Auntie!"

Others have also shown a pitiful look, but they have apparently seen too many lives and deaths, and even more numbness, so there is no second person to disappoint, except for the teenager who is crying and crying.

Someone noticed the ink burning and Chu Xiening not far away, and stunned, and asked the official language of Lin’s native voice: "Are you not a local?"

Ink burning: "Yes, ... we are coming from the ground."

"So far?" The man was taken aback. "This world, all night is a ghost, how did you survive?"

"...I will have some spells." The ink-burning heart will be lost, and when these people are not comfortable, they will pull out the late night and come out. "This is my brother. We passed by here and could not walk." I want to take a break."

The people in the team saw Chu Yuning, and several of them seemed to be slightly stunned, and two of them whispered aloud.

The smoldering alert said: "What is it?"

"Nothing." The young man headed, "Speaking seriously. You have to rest in the city to go to rest. Don't look at the scene there are no monsters. If it is at night, it can be ghosts everywhere. Xiaoman's adoptive father is going out for the day. Looking for food, the result was a heavy rain yesterday. I didn't have time to come back before dark. You can't see it..." He sighed heavily and never said anything.

It turned out that Xiaoman was the boy who was crying and dying. The father who died under the tree was his adoptive father. There is always such a thing happening in troubled times. A family goes out to find food for the individual. In the morning, the end-users go out and never come back at night.

Although it is known that this happened two hundred years ago, but the young boy cried heartbreaking, a few want to cry, the ink burned in his eyes, but still could not help but swell.

However, after a slight sigh, the surge was a sudden shock.

The past murder has not seen blood, why is it gradually softened?

Immediately took Chu nightning, and bid farewell to the young man.

The person headed said: "You went to Lin'an City and found a place to live first. Lin'an immediately moved the city to Putuo, where there is plenty of aura, and it has not been attacked by ghosts. You are alone, not as good as us. Walk together."

“Citywide move?”

"Yeah." The man said this, his eyes were burning, his face was like a radiant glow. "Thanks to the good tricks of Chu Gongzi, the whole city can return to life. Don't say, don't say Now, we have to find a circle in the suburbs before dark to see if anyone who survives can bring it back to the city - hey, Xiaoman, let's go, let's go."

He called Xiaoman, but Xiaoman still cried in the body of his adoptive father, and did not look back.

The ink sighed and pulled La Chu, and whispered: "Go. Let's go to the advanced city."

Chu nightning nodded, and suddenly asked: "You said that they moved around the city, in the end has become a failure?"

The ink burns his cool, tender little hand: "Do you want to hear the truth, or is it a lie?"

"Nature listen to the truth."

"Children are better off listening to lies."

Chu night Ning said: "They didn't make it."

"Yeah." Mohburn said, "Look, you know what the truth is, but you have to ask again. It seems like asking me again, the ending can change."

Chu night Ning ignored him and continued to ask: "Do you know why they didn't make it?"

"You see me asking me again, I am not an old goblin who has lived for two hundred years. How can I know this?"

Chu nightning did not say anything. After a while, it was only gloomy: "The people of Lin'an City in the past two hundred years have almost died."

Ink burning: "..."

Chu night Ningdao: "No escape."

"No, my brother, you are young, how do you know?"

Chu night Ning white gave him a look: "Elder Yu Yu has talked about it more than once in the old history. You don't listen to class, but instead ask me why I am so clear and hateful."

The ink burned a little speechless, and my heart was on my teacher's class. He didn't yell at me. You told me what to do, but I still don't think about it with children. I am happy.

The two said as they walked, and they passed the city gate unconsciously and came to the main city of Lin'an. The ancient city that stands on the bank of the Qiantang River has been solid and clear, and the exorcism works are all over the wall and the city.

There are countless corpses piled up outside the city, all covered with evil spirits scars. If the body is not treated, it will be corpse at night.

The Taoist priests took advantage of the noon yang, and came out to take the fragrant ash. For those who were particularly deep in the scars, they were drinking with cinnabar and painting.

The city gate refused to stand in front of the two guards. The dress was exactly the same as the young man who had just seen outside the city. It was also a red piping on a white background. The double dragon smashed the forehead, armed the bow, and the arrow behind it was full.

"Stand up, who?"

The ink burned and explained again according to the previous words. The two guards did not want to stop people from letting in, but to register, so they were placed in the case and they were put in.

Before the walk, I remembered the "Chu Gongzi" mentioned by the young boy who had just been riding. Since that person said that the migration of Lin'an City is a good idea for the "Chu Gongzi", the key to cracking the virtual array should be here. Chu Gongzi.

"Sorry, I want to ask a person about you."

The guards squinted: "You come from the shackles, and there are people you know?"

The ink burned and said: "No, it is the few lords who met on the road. They mentioned a son named Chu. He said that he would take the whole city to move to Putuo two days later. I don't know who the Chu son is. In the next few spells, if you can do what you can, you want to know the top."

The guard looked back and forth at him. Xu felt that the ink could come here with a small baby, and he should have some tolerance. He said: "The Chu Gongzi is the eldest son of the old guard. The ghost king came a month ago. The sorrowful master is unfortunately killed, and after that, the son of the son is leading us to defend the enemy."

"The son of Taishou?" Mo-burning and Chu-nighting looked at each other, and the ink burned and turned. "It’s so strange, is it too common for the son to keep the sword?"

"What's so weird!" The guards squinted at the ink. "Is it allowed to repair the door, not allowing the mortal to be repaired?"

"..."

There are some scattered repairs, but it has never been a climate.

The ink burns the heart, isn't this the slap in the half of the bucket of the Chu Gongzi, and the idea of killing the people in the safe city?

But according to the guidance of the guards, went to the Taishou House, and the ink burned and immediately found that he was wrong. The son of a man who happened to be a surname to his old man, apparently not a three-legged cat.

Because he saw the enchantment of the supernatant.

The upper enchantment is a very powerful net enchantment that can block all evils in the range. As long as this enchantment is open, it is not a common ghost. Even if it is a thousand years, it is difficult to step into half of it.

However, the scope of this enchantment must be visited by the practitioner as a glimpse. And the area covered is extremely small, and even the great masters like Chu Yuning can only use the upper enchantment to quit half of the dead.

At this moment, the two hundred years ago, the Chu Gongzi created a celestial enchantment that covered the ten-mile radius of the Taishou House. Although it is far less than the late Qing Dynasty, it is by no means comparable to ordinary people.

The two went to the gate of the Taishou government. The original thought was to try their luck. Let's tell you that there is a monk who asks for help. See if the master is too willing to see his face.

Unexpectedly, just turned around a corner, I saw the gate of the Taishou House and arranged three long queues. Six women waiters dressed up as guards of cavalry put out thick wooden barrels, and hundreds of old and weak women with yellow skinny skin gathered in front of the mansion, leading the porridge rice in turn.

The person who had finished the porridge came to a tree under the bud of the palace. Under the flower tree stood a white man, a long, dark-colored hair, and a bunch of painted papers were distributed to the people, and carefully asked for attention.

He turned his back to the ink, so he could not see his appearance.

However, those who had received the paper were grateful to him: "Thank you for the greatness of the Chu Gongzi, and thank you for the greatness of the Chu Gongzi..."

It turned out that this is the son of the Shoufu son?

The ink is burning and curious, pulling the little teacher around to look around.

With a glance, the eyes burned and the eyes were rounded like a five-thunder-top

This, is this not a late night? ? ?

Mo said that it was burned, even Chu Xinning himself was stunned, and it was far away from the end of the team. The singer Chu Gongzi looked clear, the eyebrows and the eyes were very soft, so even the white clothes, Similar to yourself!

Chu nightning: "..."

Ink burning: "..."

After a long period of stiffness, the ink twitched and said: "Teacher."

"Ok."

"Do you think that this Chu Gongzi looks extraordinarily like a person?"

Chu night is dry and dry: "Like Yuheng Elder."

Ink burns a thigh: "Isn't it! What happened? Who is this person? What is the relationship with Master?"

"...you ask me, how do I know."

"Are you not serious about listening to class?"

"I won't talk about it in this class." Chu is very angry.

The two did not speak again, and they were placed in the team, slowly moving forward, and staring at the son of the public.

After careful scrutiny, in fact, Chu Gongzi and Chu Xi Ning did not look exactly the same. The face of this son is more quiet and refined, the eyes are not so long, the barren is more gentle, and the eyes are much softer than the night.

The ink burned and looked at it. Suddenly, he snorted and went down to see the younger brother.

"You make me feel good."

"Why..." Chu Xi Ning could not help but feel guilty and turned his face away.

When the ink burned, he hid, and he became more and more unwilling, and reached out to pinch his face, forcing him to look back. He looked at it for a while and suddenly realized what he was, muttering: "Oh."

Chu night Ning forced to calm down: "How, what?"

The ink burned and narrowed his eyes: "It's no wonder that the people are outside the city. When those people see you, they will whisper, and I suddenly find out that you look a little like the master."

"....."

Chu night is quite busy to break him, but his ear is sharp red: "Nonsense."

"But it’s weird, why can those guards see them at a glance, but I can’t think of them for a long time?”

Chu nightning: "....."

I was puzzled, and suddenly there was a cry, and a child’s voice shouted: "Auntie."

Chapter 64

The ink burned and screamed, and the answer suddenly appeared, and stumbled from the stone steps of the house.

It was a child of three or four years old, holding a small windmill in his hand and squatting toward the Chu Gongzi. He wore a plain little shirt, with a jasper collar, a name lock, and a red silk amulet in front of him. It was a small brother who was narrowed down.

"..." This is the reason for knowing that the cavalry is whispering.

He couldn't help but mutter: "Teacher, you and the Master are both Lin'an, and the Master is also surnamed Chu. You said that the Chu family of these two hundred years ago should not be your family. You two should not. What a distant relative? I think this may be very big."

Chu nightning did not say anything, but also stared at the two people.

He never knew his own life, and he didn't remember much when he was young.

Is this Chu Gongzi really a certain ancestor of his own...

Thinking about it, the team was discharged into the ink.

Chu Gongzi raised his cockroach and was originally going to give the ink a piece of paper. However, when he saw a face-to-face person, he couldn’t help but smile gently. “A stranger, first came here?”

His voice is mellow and refined, and it is different from the cold and cold chill of Chu.

"Ah... ah, yes."

Suddenly there was a man who looked so much like a teacher, and he talked with himself so amiably. It was really a feeling of ink burning, and he was at a loss for a moment.

Taishou Gongzi smiled a little: "In the next Chu, dare to ask your name?"

"I, my name is ink, my name is ink."

"Where did the ink son come to Lin'an?"

"Far, far away, in the hustle and bustle." Even if the Chuzi son is gentle, but the ink still feels that he has to be seen by this person.

Chu Yu Wei Wei, and then modest smile: "It is a good far." He paused, his eyes fell a few inches, and saw the night of the late night, the face of the elegant face showed a hint of surprise.

"Who is this……"

"My name is Xia Shi reverse."

The ink burned him to his side, touched his head and smiled and said: "This is my brother."

It looks like me, like you.

Perhaps the war is imminent, the situation is urgent, and Chu Yu has no idea. Or maybe because he is just a character in a illusion, it is difficult to react too strongly to things that do not belong to this illusion. In short, he frowned, and he sang for a while, then handed the two painted papers to them.

"There is a visitor in the distance, not to mention the fact that the people are not happy now. These two papers are also accepted by the two. If there is no other arrangement, it is better to live in the city for two more days."

Ink burning: "I have heard that the son is going to bring the city people to Putuo? What is the paper used for?"

"This paper is a destructive soul." Chu Yu explained, "People can hide the breath of life."

The ink burned immediately: "Oh, I know. If the breath of the living is sealed, the ghost will not be able to detect that the other person is dead or alive. So even if we walk in the face of the devil, they will not understand the mind. I don't know what to do."

Chu Yu smiled and said: "This is the case."

When the ink burned, he was busy, and he couldn't ask more questions. So he thanked the son of Chu, and took the younger brother to the side.

The two sat on the wall and burned their faces. When the younger brother was holding the piece of paper, he asked, "What are you thinking?"

"I was thinking, this is really a good way." Chu said quietly and quietly, "but I don't know why they didn't finish."

"I didn't write this book?"

Chu night Ningdao: "The disaster was robbed two hundred years ago. It is recorded in the "Lin'an Collection" as the most detailed. But it is only a few lines."

Ink burned and asked: "How do you say in the book?"

"The Lin'an siege, the scene in the city is not known. When the Yijun army breaks down, see the corpse pillow leaning on the road, ten rooms and nine empty spaces. There are hundreds of people in the Taishou government and beheaded 740 households, all dead."

"..." The ink ignited, "Is there a death cause?"

"There was no record. At that time, Lin'an City was besieged, and there were very few people who survived. Later, several survivors were rescued by the Yumin, but the Yu people often did not care about the world, and they thought differently from the mortal. In the eyes, it doesn't matter how the truth is. Even if it is clear, it will not be confessed to the world without any reason."

Chu night Ning paused and continued: "However, since they have to leave after two days. What happened at that time, it will soon be seen. We are better off walking around, maybe we can explore what Clue."

The two collected the sorcerer and were about to leave.

Suddenly heard a footstep, followed by Chu nightning's sleeves were pulled.

"Little brother."

Chu night Ning turned back, it turned out to be a little son who looks quite like himself. The little son is very young, and his voice is milky: "Little brother, Auntie said that you have no place to live here, if you don't dislike it, I can stay in our house tonight."

"This……"

Chu nightning and ink burning face.

Ink burning asked: "Is it convenient? You are already so busy."

"It doesn't matter." The little guy showed a gentle smile. "The family has lived a lot of people who have no place to stay. Everyone lives together. There are squats, no fear at night, no ghosts."

There are still many inconsistencies in his speech, but his simplicity and enthusiasm are also very painful.

Ink ignited: "Well, then we will come to the house to disturb at night, thank you, little brother."

"Oh, don't thank me, don't thank me."

Watching him jump and run away, the ink burned the hand of La Chu's late Ning, saying: "Hey, I am really saying."

"I know what you are going to say, you shut up."

"Ha ha ha. You know it?" The ink smiled and licked his hair. "When I go back to the mountain, I really have to go to the teacher to ask, you two are like big ones, one is like small." I don’t believe that there is no blood relationship with Chu Taishou."

Chu nightning: "...what is the blood?"

"what?"

Chu night Ning faintly looked at the father and son under the tree, and then said without any waves: "It is all two hundred years ago. It is dead."

Turned away and turned away.

The ink burned in place for a while, only to catch up with him, and walked and whispered: "Hey, you said this little child, how old is it, how is it so heavy? If you die, you die, and you die." The ancestors. Changed to me, I am sure to go back and give them a shackle, to make a nine-foot-high gold body, and to smoke the spices and hang the jewels, and the incense is not broken every year. I also count on the ancestors Me... Hey, don’t go so fast.”

The two walked around the city and found that each household was collecting rice straw and tying the scarecrow.

Under one question, I knew that this was also what the Chu Gongzi told the city people to do. Residents of the city, regardless of their age, need a relative scarecrow, and the grass is wrapped in paper and dripped with their own blood. Make a so-called "fake".

This principle is like the river * wants to eat the head, some people made the hoe, wrapped in meat stuffing into the river to offer the * of the river.

To know that some ghosts are rooted in the roots, the mind is not alert. A little bit of a blind eye can turn the group they cheated, such as Chu Yuning, the ghost ceremonies they had contacted before, the muddy brain, extremely flickering.

In this way, Chu Wei made at least two preparations for the city people. The first priority is to destroy the soul, so that they will not be discovered by ghosts during the flight.

The second is straw bales, because once the ghosts discover that the people in the city suddenly disappeared, they will be extremely arrogant, leaving behind a cover to temporarily stabilize them and delay the migration of the city.

The more so, the heavier the doubts in the minds of the ink-burning and Chu-night.

Why are the Chuxi sons already arranged so well, and will they fall short?

With such doubts, they returned to the Taishou House. It was already dark at this time. Many of the remote people who lived were reluctant to go home, and they dragged their homes and rolled them over to cover the enchantment overnight.

The Taishou House was closed at night, leaving only the white guards seen during the day to patrol.

When the ink burned them in the past, there was no room available in the house, and people were crowded everywhere. At least three or four families in a wing were curled up and there was no place to stand.

The last two people had to pick a corridor to rest. The beggars were definitely not there. The ink burned the guards and asked for some straw. They were soft in the underground and took Chu nightning up.

"Grievated you to sleep here today."

Chu night Ningdao: "It's good."

"Is it?" The ink burned. "I think so too."

He fell to the side of Chu Ning, stretched out, and then put his arm behind his head, looking at the top of the corridor.

"Teacher, you look at the artificial dreams of those birds. It's really good. Although this dream has the memory of the surviving people as the cornerstone, it is rare to be able to refine the wood grain on the vault."

Chu night Ningdao: "The feathers are the body of the half fairy, after all, although the mana has not reached the peak, but there are always some mortal abilities."

"Also." The ink burned and blinked, turned over, and looked at Chu Ningning with his head. "I can't sleep."

"..." Chu night Ning gave him a look, "I told you a story."

He was originally a ridiculous joke, and he was so angry that he was so thick that he said, "Oh, okay. The younger brother told a story about the Seven Fairies and Dong Yong."

Chu Xiaoning didn't expect him to take it seriously, and then he turned his face away: "You think it's beautiful. It's not too shameful for such a large number of people."

Ink smirked: "Then you look at it, in fact, people, things that are not available will always be remembered, this has little to do with the age. When I was young, no one said that the story yelled at me, I always thought, I think, if you want someone to be able to marry me, then I will have no such person to appear. I have grown up and I don’t want to. But my heart always remembers."

Chu nightning: "..."

"No one told you stories when you were young?"

"Ok."

"Haha, so you don't really know what Dong Yong and the Seven Fairies tell, right?"

Chu nightning: "..... This kind of blasphemy, there is nothing to say."

"It won't be no, don't say what is wrong. When you grow up like this, you must be like a teacher, become a particularly boring person, no one cares for you."

Chu night Ning anger said: "If you don't take care of it, you will not take care of it and sleep."

Finished lying down and closing your eyes.

The ink burned and laughed straight, rolled around, rolled to the side of Chu nightning, he looked at the little teacher's eyes closed, the eyelashes black and long, very cute, so he stretched his hand and pinched the face of others.

"Is it really sleeping?"

"Fell asleep."

"Haha." The ink burned. "Then you fall asleep, let me tell you a story."

"You will tell a story?"

"Yes, just like you will talk in your sleep."

Chu nightning shut up.

The ink burned lying beside him, the two men were sleeping on the straw, and their heads and heads were very close. Ink burned for a while, seeing the younger brother ignores himself, and gradually does not laugh so exaggerated, but the eyes are still bent, looking at the top of the gallery, the tip of the nose from time to time on the rough taste of the grain, the sound is calm and peaceful.

"The story I told you was compiled by myself. No one told me about the story before. I am envious, but there is no way to lie on the bed every day, telling stories to myself. I am telling you this. It is my favorite, I gave it a name, called 'cow eating grass.'"

The author has something to say:

Small theater [sleeping story]

Feeding the fish tells the story before going to bed like this: a long time ago, there was a child...

Chu Yuening’s storytelling begins with this: Dao Dao, very Tao, telling stories. No, it’s a lecture.

Xue Meng: I don’t listen, Wang Wannian... Hey! I listen! I am listening.

Xue Meng said that the story before going to bed is like this: I told you, I am a schoolmaster. I have taken countless times since I was a child. I will tell you today how I got the 14th juvenile knives. The first place in the championship

The teacher told me that the story started like this: ... um... I am not very good at speaking, not good at speaking, don’t mind.

The story of the leaves is the beginning of the story: Do you want to hear the story? Ok, wait for me to get a book, you should lie down first, cover the quilt, don't catch cold.

Mei Hanxue tells the story like this: telling a story? Well, the master will tell the story of two male tigers, one male and one mother will also speak, which version do you want to listen to?

Chapter 65

The ink burned and smiled here, and then continued: "A long time ago, there was a child."

Chu nightning closed his eyes: "Is it not a cow to eat grass? How is a child?"

"You listen to me first." Ink burned and smiled. "There was a child who was very poor. He didn't have a mother, doing child labor in a landlord's house, washing dishes and washing clothes, and going out to put it. Cattle. The landlord’s house gives him three cakes a day to eat. The child can fill his stomach and feel satisfied.”

"One day, he went out to release cattle as usual. On the road, he encountered a dog and bitten the leg of the cow. For this reason, the child was beaten by the landlord without any accident. After the landlord finished playing, let He went to kill the evil dog. Otherwise, he would not give the child a cake."

"The child is very scared. He can only take the dog back and kill him. But after he got home, the landlord found out that the dog who had bitten his own cattle was actually the county dog."

Chu night Ning opened his eyes: "What should I do?"

"What can I do? That dog is the most favorite of the county magistrate. The * is fascinated by the martial arts. Who knows that it was so ruined, if the county lord knows, it will not be light. So the landlord wants to The more angry, the children still did not eat the cake, but also threatened that if the county magistrate came to the door, he would send him out."

Chu nightning: "...what is messy, I don't know anything, I don't listen."

"A lot of things have no reason to talk about." Ink burned and laughed, "There is more money than anyone else, who has a hard fist and who is a big official. The next day, the county magistrate really came to find someone. The child was given Going out. Because the age is too small, the county lord is also embarrassed to shut him, beat him ten sticks, and then let him out."

Chu night Ning asked: "When the child comes out, will he escape?"

Mohburn said: "Haha, no escape, the children still returned to the landlord's home, raised the wounds, and continued to give them cattle. Every day still take three cakes to eat."

"Is he not angry?"

"He just doesn't get angry if he eats well." Ink said, "It's a fight for a meal, and it's passed. It's been like this for more than ten years. Later, the baby was grown up. With him." At the same age, there was also the son of the landlord's family. One day, the landlord's family came to a few guests. The landlord's son saw one of the guests, and brought a very beautiful agate snuff bottle. When he liked it, he stole it. ”

"The snuff bottle is ancestral and very expensive. The guest was very scared and looked for his house. The landlord’s son couldn’t help but put the snuff bottle in the hands of the cow and told him if He dared to tell the truth, he would never give him food, let him starve to death."

"..." Chu Xiaoning heard this, it is speechless, but the heart of the ink burned out of childhood, lost the orphan, but the good is grown up in Yuefu, the mother is also the governor of Yuefu, the days Although not happy, but not to suffer, how to compile is such a gloomy story.

The ink burned with gusto: "The snuff bottle was quickly found, and the cow cow was only able to confess in order to eat, and waiting for his nature was a beating. This time, they beat him. I couldn’t get out of bed for three days. When the landlord’s son escaped, he secretly sneaked it to the yak with a pork belly. The child gorged and ate, and he did not hate the person who harmed him. I haven't tasted such a delicious taste, so he held the * and said to the landlord's son, thank you, thank you."

"Don't listen." Chu Xiaoning was really angry this time. "Why don't you hate it? A gimmick doesn't hate it? Thanks, what's the thank you!"

"No." The ink burned innocently. "You didn't listen carefully."

"How come I didn't listen carefully?"

The ink burned in the right direction: "That is a steamed bun."

Chu nightning: "..."

"Haha, look at your expression, don't understand it. The child can only eat one or two pieces of fat on New Year's Eve. He thought that he would never know what the taste of the five-flowered sandwich is. So of course you have to thank everyone."

Seeing that the younger brother was stunned by himself, the ink burned with great brilliance and continued: "This is the case anyway. He still has his three cakes and lives every day. one day……"

Chu Xiu Ning is the number of ways to understand the story of ink burning, as long as "someday" appears, there is no good thing.

Sure enough, the ink ignited: "One day, the landlord’s son has committed another crime."

"This time, he was indecent as a girl in the mill, and the girl who happened to let the unlucky cows meet."

Chu nightning: "...Is it not for the child to pack?"

"Oh." The ink burned. "That's it, congratulations, you will tell the story."

"……I am going to bed."

"Don't, it's finished soon." Ink ignited, "This is the first time I tell a story to someone else, you will appreciate your face."

Chu nightning: "..."

"This time it is necessary to let the cows pack the top. Because the girl is uncomfortable and commits suicide. But the cow is not stupid, and the dead is to pay for it. He can't beat the landlord's son." Burning, "He didn't want to, the landlord's son locked him and the dead girl in the mill, and ran to the official."

"This cow is inferior. When I was a child, I killed the dog of the county magistrate. I later stole the snuff bottle of the guest. This time, the woman is actually guilty. No one wants to hear his excuse. He was arrested and he was arrested."

Chu night Ning wide eyes: "...and then?"

"Then he stayed in prison for a few months. In the fall, he was sentenced to death and sent to Xingtai in the suburbs. He followed the execution team in the ridge and suddenly saw someone killing not far away. Niu. He looked at it at a glance, that cow, that is, the one he had been from childhood, is old, has no strength to go down. But the old cow has to graze, only eat grass and do nothing, how can the landlord be willing Raise it. They have cultivated them for a lifetime. In the end, they will kill it and eat its meat."

Speaking of such cruel things, the burning of the ink is not sad, laughing: "But the cow is grown up on the back of the cow. He told him a lot of whispers, fed it with cattle grass, when he was wronged. He cried over his neck and he regarded it as his only relative in the world."

"So, he kneels down and asks the prisoner to put himself to say goodbye to the old cow. But the prisoner naturally does not believe in the relationship between the person and the beast. He feels that he is playing a slippery head and has no permission."

"……and then?"

"And then? Then the cow was hanged. The cow was also killed. The blood flowed to the ground, watching the lively people cold and cold, the landlord's family had a beef at night, but the beef was too old. The total stuffing was broken. They ate a little, didn't like it, they fell."

Chu nightning: "..."

The ink burned over and looked at him with a smile: "It’s over. Is it nice?"

Chu night Ningdao: "Roll."

"When I first edited it for myself, I cried. You have a hard heart and no tears."

"It's too bad for you..."

Ink burned and laughed twice, took the shoulders of the younger brother and touched his hair: "There is no way, your brother is doing this. Well, the story is over, let's sleep."

Chu night Ning did not say anything, after a long time, suddenly asked: "Ink burning."

"Call the brother."

“Why do you want cows to graze?”

"Because people and cows have to eat, in order to eat, they have to do a lot of things. If one day they can't move, no one will be alive."

Chu Xiaoning did not speak.

In the hospital, it was the small sound of the refuge, and occasionally one or two ominous ghosts whistling from outside the enchantment.

"Ink burning."

"Oh, I don't know anything, call my brother."

Instead, he ignored him, but asked: "Do you really have this child?"

"No." The ink burned for a while, and suddenly laughed, and the pear vortex was very beautiful. He broke the little guy into his arms and said gently, "Of course, it was compiled to lie to you to play. Hey, sleep."

Who knows that it didn't come out for a while, and suddenly heard a lot of noise in the courtyard.

Someone yelled: "Looking for a son to find a son! The son is busy, how can I have time to take care of you? Give me the body to clear it out! Do you know that there are blue spots on the body to start the corpse!! Kill us?"

The sound was like a thunder in the dark night. When I heard the word "the corpse", everyone burst into flames. The people who slept for a while sat up and went to the noisy place.

The ink burned the younger brother behind him, took a look, frowned and whispered: "Well? Is that the noon?"

It was the boy named Xiaoman who was scorned on the ground. He still wears the strong clothes in the day, but his spirit is completely different.

The whole person is like taking the time to go out, only to slay the body of the adoptive father. The corpse nails have grown a lot. It is the precursor of the corpse. Others have seen it and have to avoid it. The management of the Taishou government is screaming at him.

"You are my colleague. I am also uncomfortable when he is killed. But what can it be? You were hungry last night, and he ran out to find food for you. You are so tired that you are dying. Are you still tired now? ?"

Xiaoman is on the ground, his hair is unkempt, his eyes are red: "No, no, I am not... Hey, aunt. I beg you, let me see the son, the son has a way to prevent me from picking up the body, I want to I’m so buried, please don’t... don’t dismember him... oh...”

When he said the word "dismemberment," he was already sobbed. The face was buried in the palm of my hand, and my lips groaned: "I beg you... let me wait for the son to come back..."

"It’s time to go, the son is outside, how can you get your things? You know that the corpses can be purified, but your blue spots and nails have changed. How can you still get back to the son?"

"Don't... Yes, Liu Shu... I beg you, I will give you a cow, I, I will find a way to repay you, I beg you, don't touch me, ask me... I please……"

Seeing that he was so begging, the middle-aged man who was in charge of the incident sighed and his eyes were red, but he still said, "Hey, you know, you have the life of all of us - come!"

"Don't! Don't!!"

But it is too late, no one will help him. Everyone knows that if the body is kept, it will be a murderous spirit when it arrives.

The body of Xiao Man’s father was forcibly dragged and smashed away, and went to the outside to tear and dismember. Xiaoman was made by a few people, blood and tears, and the face was dirty, and the mouth continued to scream like a beast, and eventually he was dragged halfway.

After such a storm, the courtyard was discussed in a small amount, and gradually calmed down.

Chu Xiaoning did not sleep, he looked down and meditated.

The burning side looked at this little teacher and asked: "What are you thinking?"

"This person has lost his loved ones and made such a confused thing. His father's body was taken away, and it is inevitable to resent others. I have a certain uncertainty. I am thinking, Linan City has failed to migrate, will it be because of him? ""

The ink burns the knot: "I think so too."

Chu Xiaoning shook his head and said: "But everything is still early, and it is not necessary to make a final decision. Pay attention to him first."

Chapter 66

On the second day, there is no difference.

Chu Yu has sent people to check whether the number of scarecrows in the city is sufficient. Every household has begun to do some poor burdens. After preparing for tonight, Ming Er will go out to the Putuo Mountain to take refuge in the early afternoon under the arrangement of Chu.

The ink burned at the entrance of the palace and looked at the crowds. He sighed: "There is a careful arrangement of Chu Yu. If no one is whispering, it is difficult to quickly identify the left behind in the city." Human. It seems that it is a leaked person. Teacher, what do you say?"

No one cares.

"Hey? Teacher?"

When the ink burned, the younger brother did not know when he went to see a row of ready-to-go cavalry. Instead, the son of Chu Gongzi came silently to him and sat down.

"Big brother……"

The ink burned was shocked by his sudden appearance: "What happened?"

The little guy pointed to an old tung tree next to it, and the kite hung on the head, and the mouth was not clear: "Mother left it for me, flew up, couldn't get it. Big brother help me?" ”

"Let's say something." The ink burned lightly and flew up the treetops. The butterfly butterfly kite was taken off, and it fell back to the ground. He handed the kite to him and smiled. "Get it, don't lose it." It is."

The little guy ignorantly nodded.

When the ink burned, he saw him swaying everywhere. When he wanted to come to Chu, he didn’t have the time to manage his son. He asked him, "What about your mother? There are so many people here, I will take you to your mother."

"A Niang? A Niang is in the back mountain."

Ink burns the road: "What to do in the back mountain?"

"Sleep." The little guy licked his round eyes and said softly, "Auntie has been sleeping there. It will bloom in spring, and Auntie often takes me to see her."

The ink burned "ah" and it was silent for a moment.

It’s the little guy who doesn’t care, it’s because he’s still young, he still doesn’t understand the so-called life and death, happily fiddles with the kite in his hand, looks up and looks at the ink, suddenly squats and succumbs: “Brother, Thank you, I will give you... I have something for you."

He said, just squatting in his pocket, oh oh yeah, licking out the small half of the cake wrapped in cilantro.

These days, people in Lin'an City are hungry, unable to eat enough, and do not know how this little thing is saved. He took the cake in half, and left the big one, and the small one gave it to the ink.

"Big brother, you eat... Hey, don't tell others, I don't have more."

The ink burned just to reach out and the little guy suddenly changed his mind. After thinking about it, he took the small one back and handed him the big one.

"It's delicious, there is bean paste."

This small move made the ink burning heart suddenly and sour, he was always used to others to treat him bad, but did not know how to deal with the sudden good. He reached for the flower cake and thanked him. The little guy was so happy that he smiled and smiled, his black lacquered eyelashes curled up.

The ink burned the flower cake, and he was not willing to eat. He went to pick a piece of paulownia on the side, wrapped the flower cake and collected it in the pot. I have to say a few words to the little guy, but the child is a child after all, a place can't stay too long, and has already turned and ran away.

At this time, Chu Ning came over and saw the ink burning standing in the original place, then raised his brow slightly and asked: "What?"

The ink burned the back of the little guy and sighed: "I was thinking, so many people are so good, they are all dead."

It is night, the sky is overcast, and from time to time there are blue-violet lightning to tear the sky. In the middle of the night, the wind was violent, and the storm was rushing.

Rain is yin, which makes the power of ghosts stronger. So this evening, Chu Yu let all the survivors of Lin'an gather near the Taishou House, and they must not step out of the Qing Dynasty enchantment.

Due to the heavy rain, many places that were barely able to sleep were abolished.

At the beginning of the smoldering, I was able to keep an eye on Xiao Man’s whereabouts, but as more and more people rushed into the rain to avoid the rain, Xiao Man’s cat waist disappeared.

Ink whispered: "Not good."

Chu night Ning was small and immediately said: "I chased it."

Among the crowds who talked about it, the dense crowd who was immediately rubbed by the shoulders could not see the back.

After a while, Chu nightning came back, his eyes were cloudy, and Sen coldly said: "Escape."

"Out of enchantment?"

"Ok."

The ink burned and did not speak, watching the pouring rain outside, and the busy Taishoufu people in the rain.

These are just two hundred years ago, and everything has become a reality.

Suddenly, I felt a bit bleak. The women and children around me had eager hopes on their faces. After thinking about breaking, Chu will take them away from this sneaky scorpion and go to Putuo to take refuge. The guards of the red and white pockets in the heavy rain are doing the final defense wholeheartedly, and are planning for the migration when the dawn arrives.

They don't know that they are living soon.

The night was deeper, and the people who were originally boiling were sleeping with each other.

Chu nightning and ink burned without sleepiness, what they have to do is to kill the ghost king after it appears. Since Xiaoman has already ran out of enchantment, it is necessary to change tonight.

The side of the burning side looked at the night of Chu, and said, "You sleep, I wake you up."

Chu night Ning said: "I am not sleepy."

The ink burned his hair: "Then eat something? I haven't eaten since I came here."

"I..." is not hungry. After seeing the flower cake that was burnt out, it was replaced by the action of silent swallowing.

The ink burned the flower cake to him: "You eat."

Chu Evening took over the cakes and became two halves. The big one gave the ink and the small one took it. The ink burned and looked at his actions, and did not know what he was thinking.

After taking a bite of the pastry, Chu Ning suddenly whispered, and then asked: "Is this bought at Taohuayuan? How is the taste different from what I used before?"

"what happened?"

"Osmanthus fragrance is very good."

The ink burned and smiled: "Is it? This is what my son gave me, about Linan."

"It is indeed Linan flavor." Chu night Ning silently went to bite the second mouth, but the lips opened a little, suddenly froze, like suddenly realized what, the face suddenly faded.

"wrong!"

Chu night, Ning, suddenly got up, the scorpion was so big, and his face was extremely ugly.

I don’t know what went wrong with the ink: "What is wrong?"

Chu night, rather than answering, but got up and came to the hospital, braved the heavy rain around to look around, picked up a sharp edge of the sharp stone, slashing a hole in his arm, smashing blood.

The ink burned him: "Are you crazy?"

Chu nighting stared at the blood on his arm and looked at it for a while. He looked up sharply, and his eyes were bright and fierce. "You still don't know what happened?" He screamed, "Someone wants us!"

The blood continued to squat down his arm and was washed away by the rain into a pale pink.

In the rainstorm, Chu, a late-night, a pale face, the darkness of the eyebrows was so deep, and the raindrops were tightly stitched, which made him wet.

With a bang, the thunder was broken, and the dark night was like a white night.

The ink burned in this thunder and suddenly reacted, and could not help but step back.

He also knows where it is wrong.

The so-called virtual world, even if it is done in real life, it is also fake.

Pastries can't really taste, and the weapon can't really hurt people. In a word, something in the virtual world cannot have any effect on them.

"Someone made the virtual reality real." Chu nightning said softly.

Virtual reality is a very difficult method to display, also known as "virtual and virtual." The one that is best at this kind of spell is the "Gone Moon Night" among the top ten sects. The purpose of this martial art is "hanging the pot and helping the world, the holy hand to heal the heart". The latter part of the sentence says that some of them specialize in virtual reality and make a real Void environment. We must know that there are many people in the world who are unable to accept the death of relatives, and through the "virtual truth" can make the virtual environment of the survival of the dead, accompanied by the living.

However, since this real virtual environment is extremely difficult to make, usually only a small scene can be made. For example, with the old people, discretion, sleep, etc., at most one thing.

However, the virtual environment made by Yumin is huge and prosperous, and it has a long history. It is necessary to implement all these things. I am afraid that the head of the lonely moon night may not be able to do it.

Ink burning immediately thought of a person, the heart of the mind - will it be the fake hook in Jincheng Lake?

However, after thinking less, I suddenly heard the noise in the sky.

Those who are asleep wake up like a frightened bird, looking around with horrified eyes, and then they see the sky.

Half a sigh of silence, the screams are like a splash of water splashing in the oil.

The crowd fled, but found nowhere to go, screams everywhere. A slit in the sky splits, and a huge * red eye is stunned above the enchantment.

The eyes were so close that they were almost attached to the enchantment.

A murky and chilly voice rumbling sounded: "Chu, you are so daring, the body is a child, and you want to fool this seat."

The ink burned and muttered: "It is a ghost king..."

There are nine kings in the ghost world, and the mana is far away. At this time, he has not yet appeared, and he does not know that he is the first king. There is only one * eyeball in the sky, and it looks at the house below: "I don't care, it's ridiculous! The ridiculous mortal - you want to save them? I might not have tried the people in the city, but you have to rebel For me - I will kill the whole city! Chicken dogs don't stay!"

With a scream, the ghost eye burst into a glaring red light in the center, straight toward the upper enchantment!

In the blink of an eye, the sky is discolored, and the gold and red are connected! In the storm, the sand fluttered in the sand, and the trees in the courtyard were smashed, and the people under the enchantment made a mess, crying and crying.

The upper enchantment resisted the first attack, but then it was a red light, and the squad hit the same position again. The enchantment once again caught the heavy machine, but there was a split.

"Not self-sufficient - really hate!!!"

A bunch of red lights crashed down and burst into clusters of fireworks. Seeing that the enchantment will be split, Chu will rather not know well - since this virtual reality has been realized, then the opponent's attack is no different from that in the present world. If the move is degenerate, I am afraid that I will die in the virtual world!

Chu night thinks, the finger is already golden.

At this time, if the big move is made, the identity will be seen through the ink, but there is no other way. I am going to call out the sky to ask for a quick fix. Suddenly, a splendid Huaguang is like a fierce arrow, breaking through the clouds, and stabbing the enchantment!

When the people looked back, they saw the top of the limestone house, and Chu came to the rain.

He armed a phoenix scorpion and slammed his fingertips. The sound of the piano is as loud as a stone, and the beam of Huaguang is drawn away and gathered in the sky. Only in an instant, the original enchantment that was at stake was re-reinforced.

"It's a son!"

"The son!"

The following people are yelling, and there are more people who are so happy. Chu Yu and the ghost king's eye technique are not inferior to the wind. In the blink of an eye, the ghosts are not close to the enchantment.

The cold voice in the air became more and more gloomy.

"Chu Xi, with your ability, you can't hurt you if you escape yourself. Why do you have to do more business and be enemies with my ghosts!"

"You want to hurt my Lin'an city people, why come to me?"

"It’s ridiculous! Ghosts are always eaten by the souls of the souls, and my family swallows the soul, just like you eat meat and eat, what is the difference! When you die, you will see clearly!"

Chu Yu responded freely, and the sound of the piano was not stopped: "That will see if you have the ability to take my head."

Between the words, the more stringy the lower string, the higher the sorrow, and finally the long light is shining, reflecting the sky, and stabbing the * eye in the rainy night!

"what--!!!"

The horrible and horrible snoring shook the world like a tremor.

The eye was burned by the Chu 洵 腥 腥 腥 腥 腥 腥 腥 灼Under the anger of the other party, a beam of light that was several times stronger than before, fell from the blood and the wind. Chu Yuzheng sleeves out of the box, but this blow is the violent temper of the ghost king. Under the two sides' countervailing, the swells of the Chu 洵 振 振 振 振 振 振 振 振 振 振。 气 气 气 气 气 气 气 气。 。 。 。 。 。 。 。 。 。 。

"The son -!"

"Crack! There are cracks! The enchantment is going to break!"

"A Niang - A Niang -"

The porridge porridge was panicked, and some relatives cried and hugged to make a group. The lonely ones shivered in the corner.

Chu Yin silver teeth bite, eyes like a torch, but do not want to give up easily. Difficult to glue, there is a light shining around the side. He looked at his eyes, seeing the burning of the ink and the late night of Chu, and the golden light and the red source of light continued to rush to merge with him, and once again sealed the enchantment.

There was a violent violent drink in the sky.

The ghost eyes have disappeared.

The three fell on the ground, and the stinky blood in the sky continued for a while before slowly returning to transparent rain.

Chu Yu was pale and greeted the two people in the ink: "Thank you for your help."

"You're welcome." The ink swayed and waved. "You take a quick break, your face is so ugly."

Chu Hao nodded, he did have consumed a lot of mana, so the ink burned him to rest under the gallery. The people who were shocked were very grateful to see that Chu Gongzi had replenished the gaps and saved them in the fire. They have been surrounded by people who have handed over water.

Someone said: "Chu Gongzi, your clothes are soaked, go to the fire and roast it."

Chu Yu had thanked them one by one, but because of the exhaustion, they really did not want to move any more, they refused the invitation of the other party. Those people were not discouraged. They simply took some pine branches and raised a fire pit beside Chu.

The surrounding area gradually calmed down, leaving only the sound of bursting between the fire. Suddenly the city people asked him: "The son, we are so well-planned, how can we still be seen by the ghost king? Hey, how is this good?"

"Yeah yeah."

"How do you know that we have to move? The son clearly said that this ghost can't distinguish between the deaf and the living. What is going on... will it be..." The voice of the speaker gradually fades and turns And stealing a sneak peek at it. Obviously I want to say if Chu is wrong, is it not clear?

This look was stunned by the white guards of the Taishou House. Someone immediately screamed and angered: "What do you think! There must be a lack of wind in the population, and the ghost king knows!"

The man shouted: "Who will go to the ghosts and leak the wind? There will be no benefit..." But the people around him are glaring at him, and they are no longer swearing.

Silent for a while, someone asked:

"The son, the old man will not be willing to give up, what should we do next?"

Chu Yu was very tired and didn't blink, but he still said in a warm voice: "It's good to stay through the sky. After dawn, you can go out of the city and you can't do it in the daytime."

"But we are so many people, there are old and young, and some have been injured. Can we get Putuo Mountain in one day?"

Chu Yuwen said: "Don't worry, let's rest. You just have to hurry the way tomorrow, I have to think about it."

All the time, the sons have been protecting them. Since he said so, everyone has promised to do so. There are children who come over and hold a small piece of hemp sugar to eat. Chu Yu shallowly opened his eyes, smiled and touched his hair, was about to say something, suddenly a guard panicked and ran over, shouting: "The son! The son is not good!"

"what happened?"

"Little son, little son - Xiaoman - outside the Chenghuang Temple -" The man was greatly stimulated, but he could not say a whole sentence. I burst into tears.

Chu Yu suddenly got up, and the original * color disappeared, and ran toward the heavy rain.

Chapter 67

The Chenghuang Temple is the edge of Chu Yu's mana. The steps of the Chenghuang Temple can still be protected by the enchantment, but the temple itself cannot be enchanted.

In the temple, the lights are faint.

More than a dozen ghosts that have been rebuilt in the flesh are separated on both sides. A woman in red is tied up, facing away from the crowd, looking up at the statues enshrined in the case.

By her side, Xiao Mang stood up and made a young child.

Chu Yu lost the voice: "Hey!"

This child is not someone else, it is the son of Chu Yu, Chu Yu. The ink burned in the heart, and the taste of the half flower cake still seemed to be between the lips and teeth. He saw the little son controlled, and he wanted to go forward, but he was stopped by Chu.

"do not go."

"why!"

Chu nighting looked at him and whispered: "They are all dead two hundred years ago. Now this illusion has turned into reality, I am afraid you will be hurt."

"..." This is what it is like to remember this. No matter what you do, the dead people are dead, and nothing can change.

Xiao Gongzi cried outside the enchantment, ambiguously blunt: "Auntie! Auntie save me! Auntie saves the child!"

Chu Yu’s lips shivered slightly and screamed at the small one: “What are you doing? I have not treated you badly, you let him go!”

Xiaoman turned a deaf ear, and squinted his face as if he had not heard anything. He just grasped the hands of Chu Yu but could pull out his inner hesitation. His left hand was a little black, and his hands were blue and violent, and he could not shake.

At this time, the city people who had gathered in the refuge of the government had also chased them. Everyone saw the scene inside the temple, and they were both surprised and angry. They whispered:

"That is the son of the son..."

"How could this be……"

The small hand fell from the knife and loosened the rope of the woman in red. The woman returned to God and slowly turned her head. She was extremely glamorous, clear and sturdy, and she was just plain and pale, but her lips were red. Blood, looking at the smile of Chu, smiles, it is actually a big man.

The illusory candlelight illuminates the face of her eagerness to look forward to life. When she sees her face, Chu Yu is also a good old man. Some people who are older and younger in the crowd are all froze.

The woman smiled with a sigh of relief, and she softly said: "Fei Jun."

Ink burning: "!!"

Chu nightning: "..."

This woman is not someone else, it is Chu’s late wife!

Mrs. Chu’s eyes flowed and she had to take her son from Xiaoman’s hand. When she was young, she refused, but Mrs. Chu was a ghost. After she was disarmed, her strength was far better than that of her. She took the child with a little effort. It is a pity that she died of the epidemic when her child had not had a full moon. Therefore, Xiaogongzi had never seen her mother-in-law, and she was still crying for a while. She shouted in her mouth and asked Chu to save him.

"Hey children, don't cry, mother-in-law takes you to find you."

Mrs. Chu’s jade arm of Qiu Ruoqiu picked up the child, picked him up, slowly walked out of the temple door, along the bluestone steps soaked by the rain, all the way to the Qing Dynasty before the enchantment, standing in front of the Chu, eyebrows It seems like a joy, like a sorrow.

"Fu Jun, don't look at the years, you... are you doing well?"

Chu Yu was unable to say a word. His fingertips were trembled, and a pair of phoenixes looked at the woman behind the enchantment. The eyes gradually became red.

Mrs. Chu whispered: "The children are so big, you are a lot more calm, and I am different from what I think.... Let me marry you."

She said, reaching out and sticking it on the enchantment, but because of the ghostly body, can not cross, only a layer of barrier flowing through Huaguang, silently glaring at the people behind.

Chu Yu closed the eyelids, but the eyelashes were already wet.

He also raised his hand, and across the enchantment, he was attached to the palm of Mrs. Chu, and he blinked again and again.

Chu Yu pharynx: "Mrs...."

The family has been separated from each other by yin and yang many years ago, but the day of the family is also clear.

"Can I live the sea bream that I planted next year?"

Chu Yu smiled, but the eyes were tears: "The pavilions are covered."

Madame Chu seems to have a happy color, Wen said: "That's good."

Chu Yu also tried his best and said: "The dear child likes the sea buck tree most. In spring, he always plays under the tree. He likes you like Begonia every year, every year...clear every year..." He said here, However, it is no longer possible to make a happy face again. The forehead is against the edge of the enchantment, and the tears are constantly rolling down. It is already crying. "Every year, Qingming, he picks one of the best, and wants to put it in front of the tomb." Have you seen it? Every year... Have you seen it every year?"

In the end, the choked and broken, the words weeping blood, actually burst into tears, no more gentleman.

Mrs. Chu is also red-eyed, but she is a ghost, no tears, but she looks sad, but it also makes the viewers feel awkward.

Silence for a time, no one spoke, and silently looked at the foreground, and someone was weeping.

However, at this time, there was a chilly voice in the air.

"Of course she knows, but soon, she won't know."

The burning face suddenly changed: "It is a ghost king!"

The late night of Chu is also very gloomy: "The shameless villain is not afraid to show up!"

The ghost king laughed and smiled, like a sharp nail to tear the bottom of the pot, and heard the creeps.

"Lin Xiaoer is already a ghost of my family. I didn't want to hurt her, but you have to be against me and ruin me. I have to dig your heart and make you hurt better than me!"

When the voice fell, more than ten ghosts in the temple, Sensen, opened their minds.

"The heart is dead, the dust is annihilated -"

Mrs. Chu stunned her eyes wide and shivered: "Fu Jun, nephew, took care of you!!"

"The heart is dead, the old man is annihilated-"

"Hey! Come on! Go to you there!"

Mrs. Chu shoved the child and wanted to hand him over the enchantment, but the little son was actually blocked by the film with the ghost, and it was not allowed to return.

Xiao Man stood in front of the temple bar and looked down on them from top to bottom. His face seemed to be sad and happy. The face that was still pretty handsome was almost twisted.

"It's useless. According to the command of the ghost king, I made a ghost mark on him. He is now like a ghost. He can't get into the enchantment for half a step."

The curse behind him is like a tidal wave, constantly undulating: "The heart is dead, the ignorance is annihilated-"

"French!!" Mrs. Chu is already in a panic. She squats in the arms of her child and beats outside the enchantment. "Fr., you withdraw the enchantment, you remove the enchantment, let the scorpion enter, you protect He, you protect him - I - I am going to... I..."

"The heart is dead, the compassion is annihilated-"

"Fu Jun -!!!"

Madame Chu slammed down, her eyes rounded, and she could not help but tremble. The blood red curse on her face gradually climbed up. "Children - nephew... You promised me, take care of him... Got... I beg you...removed...Falun!!"

Chu Yu has been heartbroken, and he has to raise his hand several times to apply his skills, but he will fall again and again.

Chu Hao was crying outside, tears up his head, and stretched out his hand and cried: "Auntie, don't you be a child...? Auntie, hugs... Hug... ..."

Mrs. Chu kept glaring at him, kissing the child’s cheek, and the mother and the child were squatting and crying. They were asking Chu to open the upper enchantment and let the children pass.

Suddenly someone shouted in the crowd: "The son! Can't! Can't withdraw the enchantment, the remaining hundreds of city people in Lin'an will die - this is the ghost of the ghost world! Son! You can't withdraw!"

"Yeah, the enchantment can't be withdrawn!" The desire to survive has caused one after another to squat down to Chu, and it is also a period of mourning. "The son, beg you, the enchantment cannot be withdrawn! Will die!"

"Madam, please, please..." Someone bowed to Mrs. Chu. "Madam, you are compassionate, your bodhisattva is heartfelt, we will all be grateful to Dade for a lifetime, beg you, don't let the son withdraw the enchantment, you are compassionate, Rescue and rescue, beg you..."

In an instant, except for the guards of the Taishou House and the few people who did not plead, the rest of the people cried, and the momentum immediately covered the request of Mrs. Chu and the little son outside the enchantment.

Chu Yu will stand on the tip of the cone, and if it is smashed by thousands of sharp knives, the blade will produce a reverse thorn in the flesh and blood, and smash the internal organs.

In front of him is a wife and children, behind him is the life of hundreds of people.

In such a torment, he seems to have died, swallowed by fire, and the bones are gray.

The sound of the ghosts of the ghosts kept on, but it became more and more sharp.

"The heart is dead, the seven emotions are annihilated-"

"The heart is dead, the six want to be annihilated-"

There are more and more tattoos on Mrs. Chu’s face, climbing up from her white neck and covering almost the entire face. Immersed into her eyes.

It seems that it is difficult to make a complete voice in her throat, only looking at her husband desperately, muttering in a broken way.

"If you are... I... I will... hate you... you... I will... I hate... I..."

The curse dipped, her weak body trembled, it seemed to be a painful pain, and she closed her eyes.

"I hate!!!"

Suddenly screaming, the tail sounds like a beast!

Madame Chu suddenly opened her eyes and smashed a * sputum. In the original soft apricot eyes, four scorpions were born, and they were squatting densely, squeezing out all the white spots.

"婉儿!!"

Chu Yu was extremely sad. For a time, he forgot that the enchantment of the Qing dynasty must be settled by the cursor. He only wants to meet with his wife. However, just after he is about to take the enchantment, he suddenly breaks. The empty, squeaky sound slammed into his shoulders and slammed his movements.

It was actually a young man in the Taishou House, still maintaining the position of archery and archery.

The young people are hunting and hunting, and they are revered in the Chu Dynasty. "You son! You wake up! You teach us the people, the sentient beings, the end, are these empty words? Things fall on your shoulders." On, you have to pay for hundreds of lives for a life and death!"

Next to the youth, an old man twitched and said: "You, you are going to let go of the bow, how can you hurt the son? Everything, everything is the choice of the son, the son has done his best, and how can you... you are ungrateful!!"

However, there was no dispute here, and I heard a scream in front of me.

Madame Chu has been completely mad, she was so kindly licking her own child, but at this time it is no different from the beast. She screams in the sky, her mouth is flowing, her teeth grow sharply.

Chu Yu was already crying and dumb in her arms, but broken and choked, but intermittently shouted: "A Niang..."

Responding to him is Mrs. Chu’s * claws, and the whole punctures his throat! ! !

There is no sound in this place between heaven and earth.

The blood is flying in a single flower.

As if that year, the sea otter blossomed, and Mrs. Chu was holding a newborn child, standing in front of the window and watching the Fangfei in the courtyard gentle and blushing.

The mother gently shook the baby in her arms and sang softly: "The Red Sea, the Yellow Sea, the wind is blowing more and more melodious. The child is in the distance, it is worrying about her mother."

Red Sea 棠... Yellow Sea 棠...

At that time, she touched the hand of Chu Yu with affection, but at the moment she was tearing the skull, limbs and flesh of Chu.

The wind is blowing more and more melodious.

The rain was pouring down, the blood was flowing, and the mother ate the belly of the child.

The child is in the distance.

The temple is in the corner of the temple, the treasure is solemn, and the law is compassionate.

In that year, the children were born, and the mother was kneeling in front of the Chenghuang Pavilion. The warm and slender hands were in ten, the bells rang, the birds were scattered, and she was squatting down in the incense, wishing her children a good life and a long life. One peace...

It is worrying about 爹 and mother.

The flesh and blood were broken, and the heart of Chu was thrown out. It was greedily chewed by Mrs. Chu, and the fresh blood slid down the corner of her mouth.

"Ah, ah!!!!" Chu Yu was finally broken. He was kneeling on the ground. He chopped his heart and cried, and he cried in the rain, lingering in the blood, kneeling in front of his wife and children, kneeling in front of the people in Lin'an City. He was kneeling under the statue of God and squatting in the mud.

He is in sin and is in holiness.

In gratitude, you are in hatred.

He plunged into the dust, and the souls were torn apart, and they were all annihilated.

With the sorrow of the ancient dust.

After a long time, someone finally trembled.

"The son..."

"The Son of the Son is sad..."

"The son of a big man, big deed, no teeth is unforgettable..."

"Chu Gongzi is righteous, it’s a good person! It’s a good person..."

Someone clung to his child and stared at the child's eyes, not letting him see this scene. At this moment, I dared to let my hand hang down. I said to Chu Yu with a pale face: "The son, our lives are all saved by you, the lady and the little son, you can... can be promoted to bliss..."

Another person retorted: "Hold your child to go far! Why don't you go into bliss with your child?!"

The man slammed back.

It’s just that these quarrels are so far apart, and Chu Yu feels that he is dead. Listening to their voices is like passing through the front of the ocean.

The man in the rainstorm was dirty, and the transparent film separated him from his wife and children. The ink burned and looked at the scene in front of me. Suddenly remembered the last life, when he killed the innocent, he gave birth to more than one Chu, more than one Chu, more than one Mrs. Chu...

He suddenly bowed his head to see his hand.

For a moment, I saw the blood full of hands.

But in a blink of an eye, it was found that it was still cold and cold, falling in the palm of the hand and gathering into a stream.

He shook a little.

The next moment, the palm of your hand was pulled.

He seems to be awakened from a nightmare, and he sees that the younger brother is looking at himself with concern. The appearance of the child is so similar to the dead Chu.

The ink burned slowly and was flush with him. It seems that the sinner pleaded with sin in front of the soul, and a pair of scorpions contaminated with rain and tears looked at him.

Chu night Ning did not speak, raised the tender little hand, touched his head.

"It’s all gone." Chu nightning said softly, "It’s all past."

"Yeah." After a long while, the ink burned and smiled. He lowered his eyes and muttered. "It’s all past."

But even the past. But he also did it. Although he did not kill Chu, but how many people with Chu Yu died because of him?

The more you burn, the more you feel, the more you think, the more painful you want.

Why is it so ruthless? Why do you want to go so far?

The author has something to say: Today, the ash machine, reply and thank you will not be timely, I am really sorry, I will make up tomorrow, thank you for your understanding (^3^) ╱~~

Chapter 68

The young Chu Yu died. The virtual world is not over.

The dawn is still far away, and the nightmare-like night has not yet passed. The lucky citymen returned to the palace and prepared to leave for Mount Putuo after the dawn of the day.

It is hard to believe that someone can continue to keep things going after such pains. In fact, Chu Yu seems to have only one body left to walk, and the soul is long gone.

The ink burned in the city and heard a lot of people worrying about it. After all, Chu Yu was so tortured, not to mention whether he would resent, even if he is still willing to take everyone out, but with this Mind, fear is also fierce.

However, not everyone has only oneself in their eyes. It is really sad for Chu, but there are not many, but at least there are.

The crowd groaned in such a hustle and waited for the dawn.

However, earlier than the Rising Sun, it was the familiar cold voice that burst open in the heavy night, and the rumble echoed at the upper end of the enchantment.

This time, the ghost king was not talking to Chu, but to the people in the city.

"The sky will soon be bright, and this seat knows that you want to take advantage of the day and leave the city. However, you really want to be clear? Putuo is far from this, and it is impossible to arrive within one day. Wait until the day. Black, you have to rely on the power of Chu, you can shelter. But can you really protect you?

"Nanny--"

Some children heard this terrible voice, scared to cry, and broke into the mother's arms. Everyone looked up at the sky.

Chu Yu stood in front of the government, but he did not hear it. He leaned back against the flowering tree and hung his eyes.

"His wife and children died because of you. Do you think that he will really protect you? I am afraid that if he plans another plan, it will make you die better than death, so that you can avenge your wife and children. This is human nature... This seat is also I have lived and been a human being. Although there are benevolent people in the world, but only for the sake of making a good name, the human nature is evil, the so-called good people are all figured. If it is forced to a dead end, what is the life and death of others? Hanging teeth?"

The voice of the ghost king is constantly echoing.

"This seat has said before, I did not want to take your life in the city. I know that even if I am a living person, I can also work for my ghosts. If you don't believe, look at him -"

As his voice fell, a dark cloud rushed outside the enchantment, but Xiaoman stood at the top. There was a man standing beside him, the appearance of forty or fifty years old, and the kindness of his life was loyal.

Someone exclaimed: "It’s a small man!"

"It’s a small man! Isn’t he dead?”

"The body was dismembered. At that time everyone saw it. How could this be?!"

Ghost King: "This seat is one of the nine kings of the Ghosts. Although it can't control life and death like the Emperor of the Jurassic, it can also restore the dead to the front. If you work for me, you can accompany your lost relatives." If you are disobedient to me, you will see your wife killing the child, and you will be unable to return to heaven.

There is a dead inside the enchantment.

"Do you really want to believe in him? Believe that he will not harm you and avenge his wife and children?"

"Do you really believe that he can take you to escape from birth and go to Putuo?"

Someone looked at Chu, and the eyes began to leap into the gloomy luster.

Chu Yu finally looked up, he stood alone under the flower tree, and gave them a quiet look. He really didn't know what to say. After a long time, he said: "It is already here, what is the use of you?"

"Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha --" Ghost King's creepy shouts echoed over the enchantment. "Great, great, he won't hurt you. If you believe him, go with him. But if it is a letter I--"

His voice is getting higher and higher, almost tearing the human eardrum and straight into his heart.

"If you believe in me, you will be rewarded immediately. I can let your deceased relatives come back to you, as long as you hand over Chu, as long as you give him - give me out! I am deeply vengeful with him. I have nothing to do with you, and I will hand over Chu, you don’t have to leave your hometown and hand over Chu, you can reunite and call him out, and everything will be over."

The ghost king is secluded.

"Before dawn, I am waiting in the city hall."

The sound has disappeared.

From the dead, the crowd slowly gave birth to a strange noise, and everyone looked to Chu Yu. And Chu Yu also looked at them, calm, and even can be said to be peaceful.

Someone began to mutter helplessly: "What to do..."

"What to do, husband, I am so scared..."

"Auntie, I am afraid, I don't want to be eaten!"

What's more, lowering the voice: "The ghost king said it is also good... The so-called good people have pictures. We have seen such a disgusting dog officer before, Chu... Chu Gongzi did nothing at the moment, but You look at him, the soul is not guarded, who knows if he will make any madness afterwards!"

Someone heard his words, but he did not refute it. Instead, he should sneak up: "You said it is good. When he doesn't, he retaliates and swindles all of us! It's not against the water. ”

Suddenly a man rushed out and shouted: "Catch him! Grab him and we will survive!"

There was no one ringing in the air. After a long time, a young woman stood up and stopped in front of him. The voice was soft but firm: "How can a husband be able to report this to the enemy?"

"Get out of the way!" The man slammed the girl down on the ground and screamed at her face. "You stink with a man sleeping, □ no hang, there is a share of your voice? Laozi There are old and young, Lao Tzu can't let his family be wronged! Chu Gongzi, can't help it!"

I am going to go to the hustle and bustle.

Unexpectedly, I didn't take a step, and my legs were stunned. The man bowed his head and was furious: "Do you dare to stop the skunk/you? You want everyone to accompany you to die?"

The girl said indignantly: "Although I am a woman, I can also distinguish between right and wrong. Cats, dogs and dogs know how to repay, let alone people?"

"Go to your mother!"

The man was a few feet on her face and kicked the person straight. At this time, other people are also coming to the Chu, although there are a few people in the crowd who want to block like this brothel girl, but after all, they are weak. Like a floating leaf in the rapids, it was quickly washed away.

"The son - the son, you are going!"

There were also old trembles yelling at Chu: "Chu Gongzi, go! Go! Don't keep it for this group of animals! Go!"

There are also young children's voices: "You don't want to fight, Auntie, aunt, don't hurt the son, don't hurt the son-"

A crowd of people swayed and thundered.

Chu Yu stood alone in the rain, as if he saw a lot of ghosts crawling out of the depths of hell. For a moment, he wanted to leave.

But the eyes fell on the living people who were crying, watching the children who were swearing to discourage the mother, watching the girl who had stood up at the earliest, and had a swollen face, watching the old woman’s white hair shaking in the wind and rain, and More than a dozen sporadic people are facing away from him, trying to stop the city people.

I want to leave, but I stopped.

They are not wrong. If they withdraw the enchantment, these people will die.

It turns out that the most disgusting thing in the world is not the devil, but the weak beasts. They have no ability. In order to live alive, they are covered with human skin and mixed in the crowd. As long as they can survive, they will do everything and say everything. Export.

At the end, I will say: "I just want to live, I am very pitiful, very helpless, and I have any sins."

He used to think that he was sheltered by the kindness of the hand, but he was wrong.

Today, the animals have taken off their own human skin, revealing a bright red, ugly, smirkful face...

Hiding well... hiding deep.

He didn't want to shed tears for the clothes and beasts, but they were so cunning, hiding among the good people, a smile on their faces and a smile, and the powerlessness of laughing and laughing.

- You must save us. If you withdraw the enchantment, we will take the person you want to save, take the person who is grateful to you, and go to * together.

There is no way you can die of nausea.

It is you who want to be a gentleman yourself. You must be a good person.

Since you have made such a choice, then giving your life to save everyone is what you should do. If you don't do it, you are a hypocrite, a liar. You are a fake high, and your pigs and dogs are not as good.

He seems to hear those people screaming and laughing at the loud voice:

You have no choice. You have no choice!

In the tidal quarrel of the tide, Chu Yu slowly looked up and looked at the sky in the wind and rain.

The sky is finally going to shine.

After a night of heavy rain, the blood on the stone steps of the Chenghuang Pavilion has been washed away. Chu Yu and those who guarded him were * with their hands and feet and walked toward the temple.

This scene is really sad and ridiculous. Those people will be as strong as Chuan, and they are so complacent that they have reached such a powerful role. But I don't know, in fact, Chu can destroy these ropes into ashes with only one spell.

But he did not do that. He did not eventually remove the enchantment.

The blood of Lin'an has already been enough. He does not want to report his own enmity, and then the innocent people will die.

Then the film, the person who will be envious of the enemy, the person who really treats him, is protected. Before he came to the temple, the ghost king did not show up. Only a candle fire exudes a black smoke, and the disk twists into a human form.

"Why - do not withdraw the enchantment!" At the moment of seeing Chu, the voice was out of anger, "Remove the enchantment!!"

Chu said calmly: "Unless I die."

The black gas made a screaming scream, hoarse and mute: "Chu, you are crazy! You... killed him - killed me - otherwise, after the night, I want all of you to live!"

Dawn is coming.

The layers of white light ignited the endless night.

The ghost king couldn't support himself in the light. He fled into the darkness, and the burning candlelight slammed and ignited.

Chu Yu returned to God, and the Chenghuang Pavilion was built quite high. From afar, the river cage was in the rain and the rain, and the scars could not be seen. It was like the old wind and the spring of Jiangnan.

"Chu Gongzi, can't help."

"It’s not that we are ruthless. It’s really a ruin of the ghost king. He is too deep with you... we have to...”

"I still say so much! After a while, the whole family is waiting to live. Is it important for him alone, or is the life of the big guy important? There is a person who is headed by all beings, he is the end, he said!" ”

Chu night is standing in the distance, watching the man who doesn't know what it is, and his heart is complicated and difficult.

Suddenly his hands covered his eyes.

Chu night Ning whispered: "What?"

"Don't let you see."

"...why?"

"It will be uncomfortable."

Chu night was quiet for a while, and the eyelashes trembled in the palm of the burning heart: "No, it is said that it was two hundred years ago."

The sound of ink burned from behind, gently sighed: "...small fool, then my palm, how is it wet?"

I don't know how long it took, a scent, an hour, or a moment.

Time is ambiguous in this madness and chaos.

When the night of Ning blinked, the enchantment of the Qing dynasty had already dispersed. Chu 洵 fell in a pool of blood, surrounded by people and ghosts. It was a fascinating cloak of human skin, smelling fresh blood.

The rest of the life after the joy of robbing, the sinful heart is like a beast.

The air is filled with the smell of death.

Human, or hell.

It is not so clear.

The crowd slowly dissipated, there will be no ghosts in the white scorpion, they are anxious to go to the belly, anxious to rest, anxious to wait for the ghost king to come again in the night, to examine the dead man in the temple, and then return them to their loved ones. The reward.

In the temple, there are only a few more living people who are weeping.

There is a woman in the brothel, the old man who is full of Huafa, a couple who are dissuaded by the child, a nephew, a scholar, a storyteller, a former rich family, a widow with a young son, and a teacher. ,farmer.

Nothing else.

However, when they were crying, the dead man in the pool of blood, but the eyelashes trembled, slowly opened his eyes.

"The son!"

"Chu Gongzi!"

The smoldering heart trembles, can't bear to say: "Useless... this is..."

This spell has been lost in the world, but it can be seen again in this virtual world.

"This is a curse. He is already dead. He applied this spell to himself before he died." Chu night Ning paused, said, "He has not done anything, and he is still worried about it in the world."

Chu Yu really looked empty, no focus, only said faintly: "Ghosts are sinister, their words are not credible, after the night, they lose the enchantment of the Qing dynasty, and they must be enchanted and smothered. They hope to be able to escape from here. Go to Putuo."

"The son..."

"I have died, I have no chance to accompany you, but I have already condensed my spiritual power, and I have cursed it in the nucleus. You take my spiritual core, and the ghosts can't be close."

The crying is even worse, almost crying.

The ink burning and the Chu nightning are even more discolored.

Spirit nuclear...

That is the crystallization of the same heart...

Business squash slowly lifts up the not yet straightened hand, and according to the business squash, I took the blade and I took it.

then--

Disposed around the "King!!!!", the voices are screaming and vomiting, soaked in blood and tears. "What do you do for the son--!"

The fingers of the dead tear open the cracks of their chests, plunge into their own flesh and blood, hold the heart that is no longer beating, slowly, one inch and one inch, pull out.

The heart is bleeding, and it is beating a golden red flame.

That is the power of Chu Ling Ling, the light that burns the candle to the end.

"Take...and..."

He lifted the burning heart and straightly handed it to the front, not repeating: "Hold...take...to..."

The blood beads rolled down, but they all became a red sea otter flower, and those flowers were burning and dazzling.

"The long road is long, the danger is unpredictable, Chu Yu's life is shallow, can't be as thin as you can, and you can hope for all the kings...

The ink burned and looked at all of this, and suddenly the thorn was on the back, cold sweat.

Scars... this scar! !

He suddenly remembered that Chu’s chest was close to the heart’s position —

There is also a yo!

That is the extremely sensitive place of Chu Xi Ning, how can he forget? Every time I linger on the bed, when he licks the faint scars, Chu’s face will show a fascinating * desire on his cold face. The burning look feels so exciting, so I always like this. Bullying the people under him.

It was only at that time that he never cared about the past of Chu Xiaoning. He did not ask for the whereabouts of this scar.

In this life, I have to ask, and I am not qualified.

Chapter 69

Is it coincidence? still is……

Now the chest of the master is not what he wants to see. He can only recall the wound by memory. The faint crescent color should be purely a scratch of the blade, not like Chu Wei, Wu Zhiju Forced into the blood, leaving the blood of the blood.

After all, it is different.

In this way, the ink burns a little relieved. Although Chu and Chu Xiaoning are people who are very different in character, they have too many similarities, from appearance to "the way, the beings are headed, For the end, and then to the scar on the chest, coincidentally stacked together is really doubtful.

I don’t know why, maybe it’s because Chu Yu is too gentle, and it’s totally different from Chu’s temper, or maybe because Chu Yu is a wife and son, so if Chu Yu is the reincarnation of Chu Yuning, or It’s Chu’s late night, and the ink burns that he will not stand it and will collapse.

Fortunately, this is not the case.

There is no need to say much about the catastrophe that Lin’an City, which has lost the protection of Chu, will face it.

Of course, the ghost king will not keep his promise. After the night, the blood is hurricane, and the world is stunned. The moat was dyed red with blood, and the roar of the living man after the loss of wisdom rang through the night.

The city is full of zombies that are wandering around, eating fresh blood sausages and chewing brains.

The ink burned with Chu nightning to avoid being in a broken hut, the owner of the house had already died, and the furniture utensils were covered with a thick layer of gray.

The ink burns tightly closes the door, and it is tightly sealed. Only a small window in the kitchen can be left to explore the situation outside.

From time to time, there were sharp screams and ominous swallows.

The ink burned Chu nightning to the corner of the small woodpile and touched his head: "According to the 18th girl, we can leave the ghost king. So you are here, don't move."

Chu night Ning heard the words, suddenly raised his head: "You want to go out?"

"Now don't go, wait for the ghost king to show up and go out."

"But the outside is very dangerous. The virtual environment has been realized. How can you resist it with your own strength?"

"Then I can't take a kid to fight."

Chu night Ning shook his head: "I am going with you."

"Ha ha ha, the younger brother is really cute, but you are still small. Going out with me will drag me down. When you are older, I will not stop you when I encounter such a thing, but this time you have to Listen to the brothers."

"I won't drag you down."

"Generally, you will say this on the hind legs." The ink ignited, "You are jealous, don't be fooled, okay?"

"..."

Seeing that Chu Ning finally stopped talking, the ink burned a little, and his eyes looked out through the ribs of the wooden window, and the look gradually sank.

Why is this virtual reality used for trials suddenly realizable? The younger brother said it was good, and someone wanted to harm him. There are countless people who want to let him die in his life. In this life, he has not sinned any powerful role. He thought about it. The only thing that might have his life was the fake hook that he encountered at Jincheng Lake.

But who is the original body of the fake hook? Can you skillfully use the Jane Chess to this point, why didn't you have a good life in the past?

Could it be that he is born again in this world, not just him alone...

This thought made him chilling and even showing fierce light.

After the rebirth, he only wanted to bury the past. If there is a second reincarnation, it would be awkward.

His brows grew deeper and deeper, but he suddenly heard that he was late and said: "...burning, I..."

"what happened?"

Chu night Ning secretly gritted his teeth, after weighing the pros and cons, he put his heart in a hurry and wanted to tell the truth to him.

"You listen to me, actually I can help you, I am..."

I can hear "I can help you", only that the younger brother wants to struggle with himself again, so he interrupted his words and said, "Okay, let's not let you go out, it won't Will let you go out. Don't be reluctant and obedient."

"No, you listen to me -"

The ink burned up, and said: "Do not listen, do not listen, Wang Ba Nian Jing."

"..."

Seeing that the night of the night is ugly, the ink burns about that he feels a little worse, and he pokes his eyebrows with his fingers. He laughs again and again: "You are so young, how so hard, and not love." Listen to the words of the elders. Then, I told you, since you called me a brother, let's get out of the same door. When I encounter such danger, I have to protect you, can you understand?"

Chu night Ning closed his eyes and whispered: "... understand."

"I understand it, then you -"

"But I am worried about you."

The ink burned, and the tip of the finger hanging in front of his forehead seemed to tremble slightly, but it was impossible to speak for a while. He has lived for two lifetimes, and the words "I am worried about you" have never been heard. Even though the teacher is waiting for him to be gentle, he has never said so much about his concern.

He looked at the little child on the woodpile in front of him, and his heart mixed.

After a long time, his eyes gradually became very gentle, and then he poked Chu nighting's fingertips gently to the top, fell to the soft top of the other side, smashed.

"Don't worry, the brothers promise you, you will come back and forth."

"Ink burning, can you listen to me to finish the words first..."

The ink burned and smiled: "Well, what are you going to say?"

"Actually, I am --"

"Oh!", the door was knocked open.

A man with a shawl screamed and rushed in. He was covered in blood, and a thigh had been smashed and smashed, followed by a group of corpses that had been smothered by blood.

The man dragged his rotten leg into the room, copied everything that could be caught next to the roaring zombie, and threw it away: "Go away! Don't come over! Get it! Get it! ”

The ink burned and slammed, and the night was stopped behind him, the red light in his hand lit up, and the ghost was held in front of him, halfway through the face:

"Teacher, you are hiding, don't come over!"

Saying that Titan will go up and kill them with the corpses that broke into the house. Although the ghost is similar to the heavenly question, the movement of Chu Yuning is not completely taught in the ink, and the weapon of the last generation is the knife. It is not suitable for the soft weapon. Therefore, although it does not fall into the wind at the beginning, it can gradually Some power is not enough.

I was going to confuse the ghost dance, and I heard the sound of the child behind me, and it was crisp and cold: "The left side is wound around the wrist three times, then it vacates and wanders around."

When the ink burned for a while, he thought about it. He hit a set according to his instructions. Liu Teng smoked on a zombie on the left. Only the zombie was beaten by the gods. The ordinary people would never be bored until again. It is pumped twice more. But since the younger brother said it, then it’s okay to try it out, and immediately hit the zombie twice, then squatted up, his back softened, and turned straight to the back of the vine whip—brush!

It was not too late or late, just in time for the next wave of corpses, and accumulating three strengths, the smoldering smoldering of a burning flame, rushing toward them, the corpse was suddenly violent Shenwu stopped his waist, and the zombies were in the same position. The head that fell on the ground was still smoking black smoke.

The ink burned and stunned, and looked at the little teacher who was sitting on the firewood.

This guy... can you?

"How do you fight next?" The ink burned hard and was ecstatic.

Chu night Ning no expression: "Next... take your left hand and take a picture of your right side."

"Oh, this road is unpredictable, what is it?"

Chu night Ning faintly said: "There is nothing inscrutable, you just swung too proud, your sleeves were shackled by weapons."

The ink burned "ah" and looked down. Sure enough, I quickly smashed the fire that had been smashed out. This man's face is also really thick, actually not at all, but also raised his head with a smile, said to the other side: "My family is very good, I like it."

Chu night Ning lightly coughed, silently turned his face away, facing the gray and bare walls, the ears were a little red.

At this time, there were only six zombies that could still be moved in the house. Chu Yuning was not willing to smother the ink again. He still twisted his head and directed against the wall: "When the wrist is relaxed, the cane will swing to the top of the sky and rotate. After six times of accumulating power, the word is awkward."

The ink burned according to the words, but when I turned to the fifth lap, I suddenly remembered: "How is the word?"

"...what do you want to do with your sword on weekdays."

"Ah, it turns out!" The ink burned and realized, a blow, a fire, and the soft vines seemed to be instantly tempered into an indestructible long knife, brushing six zombies across the board!

"Wow--"

The eyes of this smoldering eyes were rounded up.

"Where did you learn? How do I feel that you use the rattan whip, you must be familiar with my teacher? No, you are better than him. You taught me, he never told me."

"..."

The ink burned and smiled: "It's so good, it's great, I don't have to look at the teacher's face anymore, I will learn from you, isn't it happy?"

Chu night Ning gave him a look: "Do you think that the elders of Yu Heng give you a look? Why don't you give me a look at your face?"

The ink burned the rattan whip, re-blocked the door, and dragged the table over the entrance. He smiled and said: "You give me a face, that is also good for me. Let's both, this is also an adversity and a total, you are waiting The brothers are good, the brothers can remember, I will take you as a younger brother to hurt you later. Do not say that you are licking my face, that is, I am not happy to beat me twice, I am not angry."

Chu night Ning black face: "Who wants to be your brother."

Speaking of jumping off the woodpile, I don't want to pay attention to the burning of the ink, but to see the injury of the man who came in.

Under the circumstance, Chu Xining was slightly wide-eyed: "...how is he?"

"who's that?"

The ink burned his head and looked at it. He was also stunned: "That... that little?"

Lying in a pool of blood, □ 啜 啜 正是

正是 正是 正是 正是 正是 正是 正是 正是 正是 正是 正是 正是 小 小 小 小 小 小 小 小 小 血 血 血 血 血 血 血 血 血This person is really..."

Ink ignited: "Sin deserves it."

Chu nighting looked at him. The ink burned a haha, and suddenly there was some guilty conscience. To say that sin deserves it, should the person who should be retributed the most should not be himself?

The ink burned the subject and asked: "Yes, what did you just want to tell me? What are you actually?"

Chu Xiaoning dropped his eyelashes and paused. He whispered: "In fact, I am --"

When the words were not exported, I suddenly felt the wind behind. Chu night Ning was shocked and turned back to meet, but he was a child’s body after all, and his strength was far less than that of adults. He was unable to escape and was locked by the other side!

I don’t know when I was struggling, and I got up from the pool of blood in one breath!

His hand with a blue-stretched violent death stuck to the neck of Chu’s late night, and the other hand reversed the arms of Chu’s late night. The dirty face had a crazy flame burning, and he wanted to make him whole. Distorted, like a waxed statue, deformed under hot flame baking.

He was full of blood and sighed at the ink: "Take me... leave here..."

"You let him go!"

"Take me out of here!!" Xiaoman screamed, and witnessed it. "Otherwise, I have his life! Go!"

"You want me to save you, I will save you, what do you do with a child? You put him first-"

"You say that I will kill him now!! Anyway, I have done a bad thing, no shortage of this! You can't go!"

Chu Xiaoning was stunned by his voice, and a delicate little face rose red. The smoldering is in a hurry, although at the moment, a small full life can be achieved in the past, but in this virtual reality, if the small full is really angry, I am afraid that the other party may have been seriously injured before killing himself. Teacher.

Ink ignited: "Well, I listen to you, don't be excited, you loose some hands, I will..."

The voice is not falling, the blood is splashing!

The author has something to say: ink burning: the younger brother is good to me, the younger brother is smart and cute ^o^ is completely different from the teacher!

Chu nightning: Oh. blind.

Chapter 70

Where is the late night of Chu, the soft persimmon that can be subject to people at will, only seeing the golden light flashing, the ink burns vaguely to see that there is a certain weapon in his hand, but the weapon is very fast, only in an instant, it will be small Strangled with both hands, even the wrist is cut off!

Xiaoman screamed and went backwards. This time, except for one foot, he even abandoned his hands.

The hand that cursed Chu Xiaoning fell to the ground, and Chu Ning stood up. It seemed to be angry. His face was as ugly as ever. He seemed to want to say something at a time, but his lips moved and he seemed to be angry. Silent, only the iron blue face, turned around.

The ink burned and quickly picked him up: "Teacher, how are you? Are there any injuries?"

Chu Xiaoning shook his head in his arms, and he did not say anything. He was disgusted and could not speak.

But how to say it again, this Xiaoman is also alive more than two hundred years ago, and this is just a derivative of it. Chu nighting wiped the blood stains on his face, and whispered to the ink: "You have also seen it, I am staying here, not necessarily comprehensive, it is better to go out with you to fight. With my technique, it will not drag Your hind legs."

The ability of the younger brother, before the ink burned, only heard Xue Meng said, did not see. However, the change of the genius actually opened his eyes.

"You are amazing, but..."

Chu Xiaoning said: "I am familiar with the use of various weapons, but I can also point you at the side."

"but……"

Chu Xiaoning raised his eyes: "You believe me this time."

"..."

"Brother."

Chu late Ning Yuan intended to deepen the tone of the sincere, unexpectedly the child's crisp voice of the voice, actually soft and lovely, as if to be spoiled, I heard that Chu Ning himself was somewhat surprised.

When the ink burned, it was also a glimpse. Then I squinted and squinted my head. After burying my face in my palm for a long time, I said, "This, mainly I am afraid... what are you..."

Lived for two lifetimes, the first time I was so softly called by a little guy, so that the ink burned really felt that this person was with him, like a brother.

If Mo Xianjun wants to hate a person, he will hate the bones, but he is especially soft to the people who cherish it. Therefore, he scratches his hair for a long time, then raises his eyes and looks at the night, and the silent ear is red.

If you really have a younger brother, you will never be so lonely.

Partially born in the late night, I saw the ink reaction, hesitated for a while, and tried to whisper: "Master."

The brother is not the same as the brother, it is more cordial.

I burned my forehead and felt that I couldn’t help myself: "..."

Chu night Ning looked at him meaningfully, and he was weak in this person. Anyway, he is now a child, and he does not know who his deity is, and he is not too shameful. Called: "Brother."

"....."

"brother."

"....."

"Ink burning brother."

"Ahhhh

Originally, I saw the thing of Chu, and Chu’s mood was very bad, but at this time he felt that the haze in his chest was gradually faded. I heard the ink burned and asked: "Oh, yes, what did the younger brother just tell me?"

Chu nightning turned around and said very calmly: "Ah. That."

"Ok?"

"I forgot."

"..."

"When I think about it later, I will talk to my brother who burns..."

"Ah, ah, don't! Don't call! Just call the brothers! It's enough to call the brothers!"

Chu night Ning eyes like a deep pool, with a smile on his lips, faintly said: "That's good. Brother, the time is almost, this illusion is formed by the memory of the surviving people, now those people have left Linan, I think this The illusion can't be supported for too long. The ghost king should come out soon."

"Also... beat him, you can go out? I have to check it out to see who is actually realizing the illusion, to take our lives!"

Chu Xiaoning nodded. "Fortunately, before the ghost king and Chu Yu, it is obvious that this ghost king is not a very powerful character. It may be the weakest of the nine ghost kings. Although it has been solidified here. But I think that the opponent may have treated me as a normal six-year-old child. He did not expect that I could help to settle this illusion."

The ink burned and nodded, saying: "Not bad."

Chu night Ning said: "So it is better to say that people behind the scenes want to harm us, he did not count me from the beginning. The person he wants to harm is actually only one of you."

Ink burning is nodding like garlic: "You said it makes sense."

"After going out, the brothers must make this matter clear with Xue Meng. There may be sinister things in this peach blossom source. Everything should be taken care of. Well, let's not say this, let's go, I don't drag my brother's hind legs, still Please ask my brother to take me out of trouble."

Chu nightning is expected to be good.

When the time comes, the massacre in the city has come to an end.

The edge of the sky suddenly split a * gap, and the blue smoke broke into the market and became a sly man.

The man's eyes were red, his skin was white, half of his body was covered with flesh and blood, and half of it was all white bones. He dragged the black shackles and walked through the ancient city of Lin'an, where the corpse was everywhere, absorbing the grievances and pains of the new dead along the way.

The ink burned away from the dark and saw his appearance.

"It's him?"

There is a hint of luck in the voice.

Chu Xiuning understands why this is fortunate, but since he does not intend to show his identity at the moment, as a six-year-old child, he can’t know too much.

Then he did not know, looked up and asked: "What?"

"You guessed it is very reliable, the ghost king is nine kings, the strength is disparity, the weakest of which should be this one." The side of the burning side stood by the Xuan window, watching the figure from far and near, whisper, " We are not bad luck."

“How many chances does the brother have?”

"90%, then, you can't always say too much."

Chu nightning smiled.

Of course, he knows that there are nine ghost kings in the ghost world. The "骷髅皇" is the weakest, but the strength is relative. In this year of experience, even if there is a martial art on the side, it is still a little more difficult to deal with it alone.

Only those who want to conceal the ink burning, countless calculations, or not counted to accompany the ink burning side is not a deadly sorrow, just a casual child, but Chu nightning.

"help me……"

The two were about to break out of the door, killing each other and being caught off guard, but they heard a faint sigh behind them.

"Ah, is he still alive?" The ink burned his eyes wide open and looked back at the small manchus curled up into a ball.

"I don't want to die... Auntie... I don't want to..."

Chu Xiu Ning looked at the boy who was like a rag of rags and shook his head. "In that year, this person should die when he entered the house, but in this illusion, he is still alive, probably because of us. Hiding here, removing the zombies who chased him, changed things in the illusion."

"Oh... if he hasn’t rebelled, you said that two hundred years ago, will Chu Yu not die? Linan may not be a ruin..."

"Maybe."

But both of them understand that no matter what they say, the past has passed. At this moment, it is important to defeat the king and escape from the illusion. No need to worry again, the ink burning and Chu Yuning swept out of the hiding place, killing all the way, never showing weakness.

It is easier to get out of the virtual world than they think.

The target of ink burning was clear, and he soon made a fortune with the king. But looking at the two men fighting hard, Chu nightning is faintly uneasy.

The uneasiness is not because the ink has fallen from the wind. In fact, the ink burns under his guidance and has always been stable, but Chu Jingning is more and more clearly aware of it -

The person hiding in the dark controls the situation too accurately.

That is to say, the person clearly calculated that if the illusion is only ink-burning and another person with moderate qualifications is trapped here, it is extremely difficult to escape. However, the other party did not use more powerful means to smother the ink, and apparently did not want to let people know that this was a murder case. Instead, I want to create a kind of smoldering because of the illusion of an accident in the trial and the death of the illusion.

Who is so carefully arranged to go to the end of life?

Was it really the fake hook of Jincheng Lake?

Chu nightning looked at the battle between the ink and the ghost king. As time went by, the ink burned at this time. The sky will gradually light up, and the ghost king's mana will gradually weaken, and soon it will not be able to hold it. The outcome is already divided.

But at this moment, Chu Xi Ning suddenly saw a face belonging to a living person in the ghost zombie that was blocked by the ink burning spell!

"Who!!"

The man was far away, mixed in the corpse, wearing a hooded hood, half a face caged in the shadows, only a pointed chin, sweet lips, and a soft curved nose.

At a glance, Chu Xiening would have noticed that this person’s behavior is not like the illusory scene two hundred years ago. This person did not make any attack, but only secluded under the hood, facing the night With the direction of ink burning. Seeing the late night, he noticed him, he smiled a little, then raised his hand and pulled it around his neck and neck, making a movement similar to "killing."

Chu nightning slammed and slammed over, to hold on to this person.

But the man still smiled, under the hood, his lips were red, and his white teeth were stunned. He looked at him with a mouth shape and looked like a "declaration."

Did not go.

"stop!"

It is useless, the sky is bright, and the layers of fish belly are white and white.

The smoldering of the smoldering and the ghost king has ended in the final blow. When the head of the ghost king was smashed by the smoldering in the hands of the ink, the blood was raging, and the scene in front of him quickly swept away. The body was suddenly thrown up, and the sunrise and broken walls of Lin'an two hundred years ago became a illusory illusion.

"Hey!"

When Chu Xiaoning fell back to the ground, he returned to the trial cave.

The ink burned has also come back, and is falling beside him, all of which are the mottled blood left behind during the fight. But he was injured but not heavy, lying on the ground with his face on his face, apparently still unable to get up, only a pair of dark eyes looking at the side of the night.

After a while, raise your hand and touch your forehead with your fingertips.

"Come out."

Chu night, a voice, but his face is very difficult to see: "... I just saw a person inside."

"what?"

"It's suspicious, it should be the man who casts the spell."

The ink burned and climbed up, wide-eyed: "You saw it? You saw it! Then you see who he is? What does it look like?"

Chu night Ning frowned and said: "He wears a hood, I don't see it clearly, but the body shape should be a famous man. The age is not big, he is thin, his chin is very sharp..."

There is still a half sentence that has not been said.

He felt that this half of his face looked faintly familiar and seemed to have seen him a long time ago. However, I feel that it is just my own illusion. After all, it is only the lower half of the face. The similar people have gone more, and he is difficult to judge for a while.

I was sinking, and I felt that the ink burned his shoulder.

"Younger brother."

"what happened?"

"...you look over there."

The sound of the ink burned was a bit low, with a slight coolness.

Chu nightning looked up and looked in the direction he pointed.

It is eighteen.

At the entrance of the trial cave, the eighteen girls violently hang over the top of the cave, and a pair of feet wearing silk satin embroidered shoes swayed in the air.

She is already dead. There is no wind here. Seeing the extent of her shaking, the person who killed her should have just left.

But the most letting the night of Ning and the ink burned, it was the weapon that was tightly tied between her neck.

It is a willow.

The leaves are like a knife, and the whole body is flowing with red light. From time to time, there is a fire tongue bursting, and the sparks and blood flowers splash together.

Hell.

Strangled eighteen, and hung her at the top of the cave, it is actually a ghost!

The author has something to say: vest: Hey? Are you still eager to take off my last chapter? Now I will take you off...

Chu nightning: I haven’t lived in this village, you are waiting for me (indifferent face)

Chapter 71

The ink burned pale, incredulously summoning the weapon that had just been gathered, watching a cluster of fire light up in his palm, and the ghost was called out, lying in his palm.

In comparison, the weapon that killed the eighteenth, except for the one without the handle, is exactly the same as the ghost. It is like a twist from the ghost. Is there a second * in this world? !

Not as deep as thinking, suddenly footsteps from far and near, flying at a very fast speed. Chu night Ning is quieter than the ink, slightly indulgent, his eyes suddenly awkward: "Ink burning, first collect the ghosts!"

"what--?"

That's too late.

A group of people have already plundered to the entrance of the trial cave. There are feathers, there are monks who practice in Taohuayuan, and there are even Xue Meng, Ye Xijun, and Shi’s figure in the crowd... It seems that some people are aware of the trial cave. The stranger here, gathered almost everyone, came here.

So when the people arrived one after another, they saw the 18th outside the hole of the tragic death, and the willows were pulled around the neck and squeezed into the flesh and blood. The ink burned and the half-children were so embarrassed that they had experienced a bit of fighting, and the ink burned into the blood, and the hand held in it was the scream of dangerous fire.

The bird is silent.

I do not know who suddenly shouted: "fierce, murderer!"

The crowd slowly became noisy, panicked, angry, whispering into a stream, and the earthquake shook the periosteum. "Killing", "murderer", "Where is the heart", "sadness and madness", "crazy" broken words are repeated repeatedly, and the crowds are like the corpse in the illusion, which gives the ink a illusion, just like a fantasy It is not over yet, and the nightmare is still going on.

The blood of Lin'an City two hundred years ago seems to be still flowing.

"No..." He dried his throat and took a step back. "Not me..."

A footstep, someone pulled his clothes.

In the smoldering chaos, he bowed his head and saw a pair of clear eyes.

He muttered unconsciously: "Not me..."

Chu Xiaoning nodded and wanted to protect him behind him. But what can he do with a small child at the moment?

Being anxious, suddenly felt the ink burned and took a step forward.

More and more people are shouting: "Catch him! And the child! Grab it! The murderer!"

"Can't let them escape, it's too dangerous! Get it!"

The ink burned back and moved to Chu, and brought him behind him, blocking him, then lowered his head for a while and gradually calmed down.

"The 18 girls are not killed by me. You listen to me."

The faces in the crowd are so vague that they overlap with some of the past life when he couldn't bear to remember. He barely saw Xue Meng in those figures, Xue Meng looked incredulous, then he saw the teacher, the teacher's eyes widened, his face white and terrible, could not help but shake his head.

The ink burned and closed his eyes, Shen Sheng said: "People are not killing me, but I have no plans to escape. You should always listen to me before you arrest me?"

However, even if the ink burns so, no one will listen to him. Unrest and anger are permeated in the crowd, and there is a female crown. "You, your murder has been caught, what is arguable!"

"Yes!"

"Get them both up anyway! If you really yell at them, it’s not too late to release them!"

"Catch it! Grab it!"

Xue Meng recovered from the initial horror. He came out of the crowd and faced the angry and distorted face, facing away from the ink, and said loudly: "Please calm down and listen to me."

"Who are you!"

"Why listen to you!"

"Wait, this seems to be a phoenix?"

"Phoenix? The pride of the sky? Is that Xuemeng?"

"It's him..."

Xue Meng's face was very ugly, almost pale, he sighed and said slowly: "Please listen to me. These two are my disciples, I believe that they will never do it. Let’s kill the innocent things. Please calm down first, so let’s listen to their explanations first.”

"..."

After a moment of silence, some people shouted: "Why do we believe in you? What about the disciples of the dead and the dead, you must know them well, know them well?"

"That is, the human heart is separated from the belly, even if it is the same door, how much can you know!"

Xue Meng's face is getting worse and worse, her lips are close, and her fingers are unknowingly clenched into fists.

Behind him, the ink burned and held the night, and he actually felt a little surprised when he came out from Xue Meng. The past life and the cousin did not have deep friendship, and they always couldn’t look at each other. Later he became a human being. The emperor respected, burned and looted and ransom, and naturally entered the two camps incompatible with the "Phoenix".

Therefore, he did not expect that, in the circumstances of such a thousand people, Xue Meng would actually be facing away from him and facing others.

The ink burned my heart and said: "Xue Meng, you... believe me?"

"Hey! Dog stuff, who believes in you?" Xue Meng half-faced, no good air. "Look at what you are doing! I am still one year older than me, but I want to give it to me." You clean up the mess!"

"..."

After the smashing, I turned to the more fierce voice and said to those people: "What? I don't know them? One of them is my younger brother, the other is my cousin! Do you understand, or do I understand? ”

"Xue Meng..."

"Do you listen to a few sentences that will die? So many people look at it, can it be delayed for a while, can they just fly their wings and fly?"

At this time, the teacher also came out, but he did not appear to be more imposing, soft and weak, and stunned: "You can also protect the two of them, the eighteen girls must not be hurt by them. Please listen to the explanation, thank you..."

Ye forgets that he has come forward too. Although he does not guarantee the two, he is much more calm than those who are smoldering.

Ye forgets: "Even if you want to temporarily detain them, you should give them a chance to argue. If not, isn't it cheaper for the real murderer, and what if the person is hiding in you and me?"

He said that other people suddenly looked at each other and had a little more vigilance in their eyes.

"...all! Then let me explain!"

"But still catch it! Be cautious!"

"It's better to catch the mistake, can't let go!"

The ink sighed and raised his hand. After a long while, he laughed.

"I didn't expect to be surrounded by all the songs. Some people even wanted to believe in me. Ok, good, even if you are caught, you will be rushing to three of you, and I am not angry."

He simply said the virtual environment, what happened in the country, and after seeing it, he saw the eighteen victims.

It is a pity that after the destruction of Shura, it is completely new illusion for others to go in, so it is impossible to test whether the smoldering is true or false, but if he fabricates it, he will piece together such a story in a short time. It is also really difficult.

Therefore, after he finished speaking, there are already a large number of people in the crowd, which seems to be somewhat shaken.

A relatively noble feather whisper and subordinates whispered a few words, and then said: "Ink burning, Xia Shi reverse, although you have two words, but after all, there is no evidence. Before everything is checked, in order to complete the peach blossom source, Still have to be wronged that you have been detained for some time."

I don’t want to laugh at it: "I know that it will be like this. You give me food and drink, and I will not say anything."

"This is natural." Yumin paused and said: "From now on, the monks in Taoyuan need to be strictly guarded to avoid regenerative accidents. The monks who did not arrive in time, I will send people one by one to ask questions. I will sue the suspects. In addition, I will inform the heads of the factions about this matter, especially the most deadly life, and if so, I would like to ask the two teachers to come to the scene."

"Master!?" When the ink burns, the face changes.

There is no snoring in the silence of Chu.

"I don't want to ask the teacher to come! Can't I change my uncle?"

"The disciples have awkwardness and should be clear about their divisions. This is the rule of the realm of comprehension since ancient times. Is it true that your life and death are different?"

"not me……"

The ink burned and shook his head, sighing again and again, and I don’t know what to say.

There are rumors of disciples, and there is nothing wrong with this.

But I thought of the late face of the night, the cold and cold eyes. In the case of ink burning, he felt that even if he came, he would definitely be indiscriminate. If he had to teach himself a lesson, it would be better not to see each other.

But no matter what he said, things are hard to change.

He was shut down with the younger brother.

The imprisoned land of Taohuayuan is a small cave. The ancient thorns of the mouth of the mouth are only heard by the feathers. The inside is dark all day long. Fortunately, there is a fire pond, which is burning a flame that will not be extinguished.

Everything in the cave is simple, only a large and rough stone bed, covered with gold-red cushions woven by wings, a stone table, four stone benches, a bronze mirror, several sets of dishes and tea sets.

The ink-burning and Chu-nighting were placed under house arrest.

Although the matter has not been finalized, the Yumin who is responsible for supervising the two seems to have a good relationship with the eighteen. She has lost her life without any death. The feathers have angered and burned two people, so she has made some scorpions in her daily life.

On the first night, the people knew that they would send some meals. The dishes were not good, but they were enough. However, on the second day, I just left some raw meat and vegetables in the hole, and the rice noodles were salted. I said that I had no time to take care of their food and let them want to eat and take care of themselves.

"If you take care of yourself, you can take care of yourself and cook. Who will not?"

When the ink burned, he slammed on the ground and picked up the delicious ingredients.

"What do younger brothers want to eat?"

"...all."

"Hey, the most difficult dish in the world is called 'all can'. Let me see, there are pork belly, cabbage... Hey, this bird can be really a trick, the cabbage is all scorpion. Give some flour and There are a lot of glutinous rice, and I don’t know how many days it is.” He counted it, and looked up and asked if he wanted to eat or eat noodles?

Chu night Ning was resting on a stone bed, heard a little thought, and then said: "face."

After a pause, I added another sentence: "The ribs."

"...haha, haha, this is hard for me, where is the ribs?"

"That's just fine, you can."

The ink burned his legs sitting on the ground, his hands on his knees, dragging his shackles, and he thought for a while and said, "There is not much material here. Can I make a bowl of rice dumplings for you?"

"saozi noodles?"

"Like it?"

"Alright, is it hot?"

The ink burned and smiled: "Look, there isn't even a shadow of the pepper in the bird's gift."

Now that we have negotiated what to eat, the ink will start to work. Chu night is short and the strength is not enough. He is too lazy to help, just kneeling on the bed, lazily watching the ink burning with soft white dough, and gradually his eyes are soft.

Suddenly I feel that this is also very good. I don’t know who he is. He can always stay in the ink-burning side. When cooking, he will ask him what he wants to eat. It’s really good.

Even some uneasiness, I feel that I have gotten too much, like stealing from a child named "Xia Si Kong".

The ink is cooked and the fried meat is coded. Yumin gave a poor amount of condiments, and he couldn’t do anything that was full of flavors and flavors, but the noodles were very strong, and the hardness was just right. Pork belly cut a layer of fat and simmered pork, Zla slammed hot on the surface, and it was very fragrant.

"Teacher, eat..." He looked up and saw that Chu Ning had fallen asleep, still in a squatting posture, his head was in his arms, his face was sideways, his eyelashes were long and his face was peaceful.

"Meal..." He muttered the last half of the story, then walked over to the bed and touched the hair of Ning Moyu.

"It seems that you are really quite like a teacher. I don't know what you and the teacher respect, what is the origin of the Linan Chu family, and I don't know who is going to harm us, oh... I don't know the master. What are you doing, knowing what is going on here, will you blame me for not knowing what to do?"

Speaking of this, the darkness of the smoldering of the ink is dim, and the tip of the finger is curled up with a black hair of Chu Yuning, and sighs with a sigh.

"You don't know him. Whenever there is something, it always counts me... He doesn't particularly like me."

It is a pity that Chu sleeps asleep. This sentence is like past and present. They have entangled decades of misunderstandings. They floated silently and silently, no one answered.

The smoldering and other noodles are almost cooler, and when they are not hot, they will be called up.

"Teacher, eat."

Chu night Ning yawned and yawned, sleepy for a while.

"Oh, eat..."

The ink burns the noodles. He loves to cook, but he doesn't like to wash the dishes. In order to wash a small dish, he simply puts the noodles in the pot that has just been fried.

Chu nightning was a little surprised at the unconventional meal, so wide-eyed, and looked at the big pot of noodles incredulously: "This... how to eat?"

"Let's eat together." Mo-burning handed him a pair of chopsticks, and he folded his hands together and smiled. "Beyond who is fishing fast, start right away! Who can eat more? Let us wait and see." ”

"..."

The ink burned and finished, and smiled more happily. Chu Yuening stared at him for a while and said: "You seem to eat as much as you can."

“Specially happy, right?”

"Ok."

"Haha, the people are eating for the sky."

The ink burned and said, you are welcome, first fished a large chopsticks noodles, sucking and sipping the gangsters straight to the sac: "The ugly is ugly, but the taste is still cool and good."

"..." Chu Evening's face is not good-looking, "Dinner, don't suck."

"Ha ha ha!" The ink burned his thigh and smiled. "You, this child, is too much like my teacher. He also let me not suck, but guess what? I once ate with him, deliberately stunned. The bones are in his bowl, so angry that he is jealous, hahahahaha-"

Chu nightning bites his teeth and cuts his teeth: "You are really arrogant!"

"Right right! This is the reaction, how do you know? I still learn a lot. I think you may be a distant relative, really, wait for the teacher to come here, you can ask him to ask." Hey - don't grab the half omelette with me -"

The author has something to say:

Feeding fish: Does the younger brother want to eat or eat noodles?

Big white cat: It’s cold, it’s better to eat dog meat (sneer)

Chapter 72

It was night, two people lying on the spacious stone bed, the time under house arrest was really difficult, the work was also practiced, the rice was eaten, and nothing else could be done.

Walking around, it is such a large cave, Chu Jingning is quiet, but it is still good, but the ink is not the same, he really feels like a year.

"Oh, bored, bored, what to play? What to play?"

Chu night Ning closed his eyes: "Sleep."

"It’s still very early." The ink burned a drip and shook his head. "It’s very early."

Chu night Ning ignored him.

The ink burned a few rolls on the bed and suddenly pulled his face.

"Younger brother."

"..."

"Teacher~"

"..."

"Teacher!!"

Chu night Ning slammed his eyes and angered: "What to do!"

The ink burned and brazenly pulled his hand and swayed back and forth: "Play with me."

"...In the end, are you a younger brother or I am a younger brother?" Chu night was so unbearable, he opened his hand. "Who is accompanying you!"

The ink burned sweetly, and it was very shameless. He said: "Of course you are accompanying me. Otherwise, who else?"

Chu nightning: "..."

The hair band is removed from the ink burner. The narrow red one is tied at both ends and stretched between the fingers to form a unique knot.

In the end, Chu Jingning still sat up from the bed. Nothing tempered to ask: "What is this? How to play?"

"This is a flower rope. Girls play more, boys usually don't play this, but I didn't grow up in Lefang before? There are so many girls there, so I learned."

"..."

"In fact, it's quite interesting. You look at it, you come to hook this line to your finger... No, it's not this, it's a little finger, um, that's it. Then the thumb and forefinger hook the two lines over there... ..." The ink burned slowly and whispered, very patient and very peaceful.

The candlelight slammed, the warm yellow halo reflected their figure, big and small, bowed down around the red line that was wrapped around the hairline, and each other's expression could not withstand the gentleness.

Chu Xiaoning's hand stretched the line. He walked around the pattern under the smoldering fingertips. The cold line was not wrong. When the red line changed hands, it did not pull out the new style as expected, but it was again turned into a prototype. Simple and simple.

He looked at it, his hand still in the air, but he muttered inconspicuously: "How is it scattered? How can this be..."

"Haha, you are wrong again."

"... come again."

"If you don't come, you can't come." The ink burned and laughed. "It's always boring to play, change something else."

"No." This time, I wouldn't be happy to change the night, "I will come again."

"..."

The two stayed in the cave for three days. On the fourth night, the smoldering was routinely prepared to give Chu Yuning something delicious. In these few days, he has already figured out some doorways. His younger brother and master are really fellow countrymen, and the joy of eating is exactly the same.

Tonight, the feathers are sent by a hen and a few mushrooms. Ink burning is going to cook a pot of fresh mushroom chicken soup, plus some of the noodles that you have made, the taste will not be too bad.

"Drinking chicken soup at night?"

"Yeah." The ink burned and he went to see the night. Although this child has a talent in martial arts, but he is completely unable to find the doorway of the flower rope, but a rib is particularly dead-hearted. If you have nothing, take the root rope on your hand and the stubborn look is also I can’t help but laugh.

Ink burned and said: "You sit and play slowly, but I am afraid that my soup is stewed, but you have not studied the rope."

Chu night Ning coldly slammed, paused, faintly said: "There are ingredients left in the left, can have ginger?"

"I look at...hey, some, especially, I gave a bunch of * yesterday."

Chu Xiuning said with satisfaction: "Let's put some more in and go."

The ink burned his chin: "Oh... wouldn't you have to put some dice?"

Chu night Ning shines: "Is there?"

"Oh. Of course not. I just think that you are really like the taste of the master. He also loves to put * on the soup and let it go."

"...Do you remember what he loves?"

"Haha, yeah yeah, I am smart." The ink is too lazy to explain. I can't talk to the younger brother about past and present life. Then I followed the pole and said, "I am a twenty-four filial piety brother. Unfortunately, the master can't see my heart, and I admire it."

When the ink burned, he began to deal with poultry meat, so he missed the look of Chu Yuening perfectly. He pulled the hair out of the organ and was preparing to boil water to the blood. At this time, he heard the younger brother whisper: "He may not know it."

"What?"

Chu night, seeing the ink burned his head, suddenly the red tip of the ear, turned his head and coughed a few times, said: "I said that you are waiting for the elders of Yu Heng, he may not know."

"Oh, this is okay, it doesn't matter. Anyway, I am used to it, although sometimes I have thought that he can talk to me like someone else's master, or occasionally like me know what he likes to eat. Just like, knowing what I like is fine. But that's all in the past. When I first got started, I was blinded by his beautiful skin and thought he was a gentle person. Now think about it... oh, His old man is unattainable, and I dare to enter his eyes, haha, hahaha."

Chu night Ning heard the words, this is a bit angry, but think carefully, although he is concerned about the ink burning on weekdays, but he always puts on an alienation posture, and he is angered and becomes embarrassed, and he silently whispers. After a while, jumping off the bed, silently went to the side of the ink.

"doing what?"

"You have been doing it for a few days, and today's is simple, let me do it for you."

When the ink burned, he smiled and said: "How come suddenly? You are a little man, how do you cook? Even the stove is not enough. Not to mention I am your brother, since you have called me like this, a few What is the meal?"

Chu Xiaoning moved over the bench and stood on the stool without any sound, looking at him stubbornly.

Ink burns: "...what do you want me to do?"

"You see that I am not enough to get the stove."

"..."

"The elders of Yuheng don't know what you like to eat, but I don't have the same conscience as he is." Chu night Ning no expression, "Let's take a break, I will cook for you."

Busy for a long time, Chu nightning does not let the ink burn hands, but the momentum of the eyes of the corpse of the knives of the knives of the knives, the expression of the hens, the method of rigidity, the scene is unbearable.

I still want to take the handle, but the younger brother’s stench and temper are also very similar. When I concentrate on doing things, I hate people’s interruptions. After a few hours of self-deprecation, the smoldering has to scratch my head and lie in bed. It is.

The chicken finally got out of the pot, and Chu Yuning put on the mud cover of the soup pot, and turned around and just wanted to say something to the ink, and suddenly heard a soft voice from the door of the hole.

"A burning, Xia Shidi, are you there?"

When the ink burned and heard the sound, if it was struck by lightning, he jumped out of bed and rushed to the door. Through the gap, he first saw a feathery person standing outside, but his eyes turned slightly and he saw behind her. The teacher was white, and stood sullenly, and couldn’t help but overjoyed: "Yi! You... how come you?"

"I have something to say to you." Shi said, "The Lord has received a singer and came to Taohuayuan. At the moment, he is negotiating with the Yu people. How are you, can these days suffer?"

"I am so good, I can eat and drink and jump." The ink burned and asked, "What about the Master? Where are others?"

"I said that I am still in the process of retreating and not coming."

"Oh..." The smoldering eyes flashed, and he sighed at random, muttering to himself, "If you don't come... don't come."

"But when the elders arrived, they said that they were to guarantee Xia Shidi." Shi Yan asked, "Is Xia Shidi sleeping?"

Ink burning: "No, he is stewing. Teacher - you are coming over!"

Chu Xiaoning put down the small bamboo fan of the campfire, went to the door, looked at the two people outside, and there was no unexpected expression, faintly said: "What happened?"

When the teacher did not speak, he listened to the first snoring and asked: "It’s not the people who died in your life. Your master said that you want to protect you, and we are doing business with our sages."

"...I am Master?"

"Hey elders."

"Oh." Chu night Ning paused, no expression, "very good."

The pop-up mouth said, "You two come out, everyone has been gathered in the drinking hall, waiting to listen to the two explanations."

Chu Xiaoning looked back at the stewed chicken soup and said, "I don't go, the soup is half cooked, I can't walk. The ink burns, you say it for me."

The people heard that the heart was really a child who was still stinking. The speech was so unreliable, so he sneered and scared him: "If you don't go, you will miss the opportunity to defend. If you sentenced you to kill the 18 girls, That is to kill people and save their lives."

Unexpectedly, Chu Jingning listened a little bit not afraid. Instead, he looked indifferent, and gave him a cold look. He turned and left.

The teacher was waiting to stop him, but the ink burned and smiled and shook his head: "Let him, I will go."

"But the elders came from afar. He didn't greet him. He lost the number of gifts..."

When the ink burned was not yet opened, I heard that the night of Ning was far away: "Mr. Brother, you will say hello to the Master on my behalf."

"..." The whispering of his own words was actually heard by him. The teacher couldn’t help but feel awkward, clearing the scorpion, and when the feathers opened the thorns outside the prison hole, they pulled the ink and prepared to leave.

At this time, Chu nightning turned back and called him: "Brother."

"The younger brother changed his mind and wanted to go with me?" asked the ink.

Chu night Ning small short hand waved the sleeves of the dress: "I don't want to go. Come over and scream at you, remember to come back earlier, the soup is cold late, not good."

The ink burned for a moment, and laughed and said: "Okay, then you wait for me."

"Yeah." Chu Yuening stopped talking, but the ink burned away, and the figure disappeared at the corner. He turned his head and concentrated on the soup.

The drink and the pavilion are not far from the prison hole. On the way to the past, the teacher asked the intentionally or unintentionally: "A fire, you seem to be familiar with Xia Shidi these days?"

The ink burned and laughed: "Yes, I am also suffering with him. How can the teacher not eat the vinegar of the child?"

"……nonsense."

"Ha ha ha, the teacher does not have to worry, my favorite, or the teacher, will not change."

"...no more nonsense, I just think that Xia Shidi is a bit strange..."

"Strange? Oh..." The ink burned and thought, nodded. "He is very strange."

"Do you think too?"

"Yeah." Ink smirked. "Small age speeches are like the adults, and the mana is not to be underestimated. In addition, the things I encountered in the illusion are even more bizarre. I haven't had time to tell you. Do you know?" I suspect that he and our teachers are distant relatives."

The teacher twitched and asked, "How do you say this?"

"We saw a person in the illusion. It was the son of the Guardian of Lin'an City two hundred years ago. It is also surnamed Chu. It looks like a special statue. He has a son and looks like..."

I was about to talk about the key points. Suddenly I heard the sound of a curse in front of me. I looked up and saw that Xue Meng’s face was full of anger and struggling. The mouth kept cursing: “The beast! The beast! Dog stuff!"

The author has something to say:

Feeding the fish: Why is the Master still not falling off? I want to restore the master version to the adult version.

Meat package: He can return to the adult version of the body type, can I still carry out the plot? I am keeping you and him in a small black house, and he is a shell of Zhengtai. Otherwise, wouldn't I have to simmer Nima's 10,000 words of meat? You still want to eat meat in this performance? Dream of you, spicy chicken.

Chapter 73

Cold did not collide with the ink, Xue Meng stunned, this is still the first time the two people face after the ink is burned.

Thinking of Xue Meng’s return to himself in front of everyone, the ink could not help but reveal a smile to him, but Xue Meng was shocked by this smile, showing a disgusting expression, and said, “What are you doing? Look at what! What's so good! Smile! What's funny!"

"...I will say hello to you."

"nausea!"

Ink burning: "..."

He came here and interrupted the words of ink burning. The teacher sneaked thoughtfully for a while, but did not ask for more. Instead, he smiled and smiled at Xue Xue: "There are few masters, who is provoking you?"

"Who else can there? Who else can be!! Smelly shameless! Oh shameless! Wretched and mean, shameless!"

Ink sighed: "Not enough rhymes."

"You control me! You have the ability to come!"

"I didn't have the skills, not a cultural person." The ink burned and laughed. "Let's say, who has provoked you?"

The teacher smiled and said: "I guess it is a master."

"What * master! Beast! Dengzizi! He is so casual, how can he not get sick with flowers?! My mother is willing to spend ten years of life wishing him a sore on his head, pus under his feet, rotten nose and rotten eyes. I can't help him, this shameless, stinking, shameless..."

Ink burning: "....."

Seeing that Xue Meng was going to be in an endless loop of incessant, the teacher rushed to stop him and pointed at the back and shouted: "Hey, look, the ladies who love the masters are coming -"

"Scared!" Xue Meng was shocked. The face of the arrogant arrogance actually appeared a bit stunned. He whispered a sigh of "□□ dirty", and he even smashed his head and did not return to the ground. At the end, I still have to say something in a face: "I think of something else to do, take the first step!"

The smoldering watched him sneak out of the smoke and screamed, "Wow, ah, this master, can actually make him afraid of this."

Shi Yan smiled and said: "From the day before yesterday he accidentally bumped into the restaurant in the restaurant and started some conflicts. He came back like this, and he met the nemesis."

"I admire and admire, I have to have a chance to see it." Although he said this on his mouth, there is probably a few accounts in his heart, which can make Xue Meng hide like this. Presumably this "master" is his guess. That person is right.

But at this time, it was not when Xuemeng was busy. In the drinking hall, Xue Zhengxuan and He has already arrived. They are talking with the owner of Taohuayuan, Yumin’s singer, about the 18th murder case.

Yumin is close to the fairy body, surrounded by Yingying Lingguang. Although she looks like a girl with a cardamom, God knows how old she is.

She is slowly talking to Xue Zhengxuan about the cause of the matter, and she walked in to a nearby waiter, whispering: "On the fairy, people brought it."

"Please come in."

The ink burned along with the division and entered the warming room. After looking around, I saw Xue Zhengyi shaking the famous literati fan and talking with people. He immediately shouted: "Uncle!"

"Child, child." Xue Zhengyi turned his head and his eyes lit up. He greeted him and patted him on the shoulder. "Come, sit down next to his uncle..."

"People are not killing me..."

"Of course it won't be you, of course it won't be you." Xue Zhengyi sighed again and again. "I don't know how to give birth to a misunderstanding. I just said it to me. I came here, I want to prove that you are innocent. Hey, see you poorly, look at your face."

He pulled the ink, and the feathers did not stop the fairy, only faintly glaring at the two.

The elders burned and greeted the elders, and immediately sat next to Xue Zhengxuan. But what makes the ink burnt strange is that he didn't immediately notice that his apprentice, Xia Shi, was not in the air, only naturally and nodded with ink.

On the contrary, Yumin Shangxian asked: "Hey? Another child? That name is Xia."

"Ah, yeah." Hey, this is the time to come back, "...What about my apprentice?"

When I saw that he was not satisfied with Xia Si, he was dissatisfied and said: "My younger brother is still in Dharma. He asked me to say hello to him on his behalf."

"This way." He nodded. "How can he not come?"

There is no good air in the ink: "cooking."

"..."

Xue Zheng stunned a bit, haha smiled: "It is more important to cook than to clarify yourself?"

He also said, "I am really arrogant, I will go to marry him after the meeting."

"No, we have to eat after it has been scattered." Mo-burn said, "How do you want to judge, and quickly review it."

Xue Zhengyi said: "On the immortal, we followed the words of the party. You see this, there is another elder in this house. Before I came here, I specially asked him to refine several red pills."

"Xiazi Pills?" Shangxian heard a slight glimpse of the words, dyed the fingers of the cardamom Danxia and tapped his lips. "Is that the Dan Pill that allows the mortal to spit out the truth?"

"exactly."

Shang Xian was slightly surprised: "The material required for this Dan is complicated and extremely difficult to refine. It is in my peach blossom source that it takes less than half a month to make this Dan. I don’t think there is such a drug in the door of Xianjun. How can I not take him? Come together?"

"His temper is lonely, and he doesn't like to walk with people." Xue Zheng said, "Dan medicine has been refining, and pigeons can be sent to Peach Blossoms within 10 days. When you go to Xian, you can use the efficacy of the drug. Give the little ones the truth, and the truth will be white."

"..." On the first thought of Xian Si, the first time, "this law is feasible."

Xue Zhengyi sighed and smiled. "In that case, I will go to the prison and pick up another disciple."

"Slow."

"what happened?"

Shang Xiandao: "Before the matter was not identified, the ink rain and the Xia Shi reversed the suspicion. Even if there is a sovereign guarantee, this seat can not let him free."

Xue Zhengyi heard the words, and the slamming sound was combined with a folding fan. Although his face was smiling, his eyes were cold. "There is something wrong with Shangxian doing things like this."

Yumin Shangxian raised his eyes and a pair of red-red scorpions stared at him: "Shu Zunzhu is dissatisfied with the resolution of this seat?"

"Yeah, since the two men under my door have not been convicted, and I have a guardianship with the elders of the elders, it is justified that Shangxian will insist on holding them."

"I can't talk about it." On the cold, "I have not treated them badly, and the daily food has not been broken. It is only limited to the activities of the two of them. It is not excessive."

Xue Zhengyi is still laughing at this time, but it is already sneer.

"Not too much? As far as I know, the hole does not see the sun and the moon. It is the place where the prisoner is confined. It is really terrible to go to the upper lip and touch the lips."

Immediately next to the feather guards screamed: "Xue Zunzhu, please pay attention to words!"

"What's wrong, is there anything wrong with my words? I haven't insulted your family, and the things that are said are true, but they are less respectful and not too much."

The folks listened to Xue Zhengyi saying so, can not help but be more angry: "You -!"

A plain white jade hand extended and stopped him. Shang Xian raised his head and smiled at Xue Zhengxuan: "I have heard the rumors of the world. The Xue Zun, the singer of death and death, is a dagger. Although the mana is strong, the knowledge is slightly lacking, and it is even less fun to play. When I saw it today, I felt that the rumor had deceived myself. Xue Zunzhu, it makes sense."

Xue Zhengyi also smiled at her, but there was no smile in her eyes: "There is a rough person, and I don't mind the fairy."

The fisherman, the fairy, lifted his hand and took an orange. He peeled it off and handed it to Xue Zhengxuan: "Then you and I will take a step back. It is impossible for him to be free, but he will live in prison." It’s really not right. This seat immediately brings people out of the summer, the ink rain and the summer reversal in the Lingxiao Pavilion, that is the place to entertain guests. I just have to send someone to stare, can not let him two out Half step. How is this?"

Xue Zhengyi was silent for a few moments, raised his hand, and smothered in midair, eventually taking over the orange.

Although Lingxiaoge is a place of hospitality, Taohuayuan does not always have guests. Therefore, the pavilion has been deserted for a long time. Since Shang Xian was willing to let them move here first, Mo-burning plans to clean up the house first. Wait for the cleaning, and then go to pick up the night.

Xue Zhengxuan and He also had something to talk about. The ink burned under the stalks of several feather people, and went to Lingxiaoge together with Shiyi.

Lingxiaoge is located in the northwest of Taohuayuan. The outside is full of flowers, and the haze is like a brocade.

"Good place, so staying in this way is not wronged."

The teacher sighed: "How can you not be wronged? People are obviously not killed by you, but they are good people. Unfortunately, the master can't come. If he comes, use the day to ask for a trial, and there is no need for a red pill. The truth is It’s clear that it’s revealed.”

"Haha, the teacher thinks too simple. Heaven is a god, although there is a role in the truth, but the play does not work, all depends on whether the practitioner has a heart to interrogate. You think those birds will be willing to let my master Come to judge me? Will they believe?"

"...this is also true."

Seeing that the sun was coming, the ink burned and began to clean up the house, and the teacher helped me.

It is strange to say that when the ink burned the house, sat down and drank a little bit of tea, he suddenly realized that he was not stunned by being able to get along with his sister alone, and he did not give birth to any thoughts.

This cognition did not cause the ink to burn, and the tea almost did not spurt out.

Shimei was shocked: "What happened?"

"No, nothing." The ink burned and waved again and again, but my heart was bitter.

Did you follow Chu nightning for a long time and become a Liu Xiahui?瞧瞧 霄 霄 霄 , , , Sitting for a while, the idea of ink burning and hollowing out talked to him again, but found that there were fewer days to meet, and there was nothing to mention.

Raising his eyes, he suddenly saw the fine sweat that he had pulled out to help him manage the house. He couldn’t bear it, and took the piece from his arms and handed it to him.

"Scratch the sweat."

"..." The teacher glanced down and saw the ink-squeezing handkerchief, and couldn't help but smile, "Thank you."

Then he took the handkerchief and gently wiped his forehead.

Napa is soft and soft to the touch. It is an excellent silk weaving. After the teacher used it, he said: "I will take it back, wash it and return it to you."

"Good." The ink burned a stack of sounds. His welcoming to the teacher’s singer went deep into the bone marrow and became an instinct. "If you like it, you will not be able to."

Shi Yan smiled and said: "That's not right, you see how good this pup is..." He said as he unfolded his handkerchief and prepared to smooth the pleats and re-stack.

However, the slender and tender fingers wiped the body that had just been unfolded, and the teacher shook it, and gently slammed it.

"what happened?"

The teacher paused and raised his eyes and smiled: "Is it really necessary to give this parch to me?"

"You like to take it. Mys is yours." The ink burned very generously.

The smile of the teacher’s eyes is faint: “By giving flowers to the Buddha, you are not afraid that the master knows to smoke you.”

“Hey?” This time it’s time for the ink to burn. “What is the use of flowers to offer Buddha? What does this have to do with the Master?”

"You see it yourself." There is something in the teacher's voice that can't tell the truth. "A big sea bream flower, when did the master give you his own parcel?"

"..."

The ink burns like a chicken.

After a long time, he scratched his face and squinted back and forth, and waved his hand again and again. "No, that, I don't know. This is not my handkerchief. Where did my handkerchief go?... I, I, 唉I really jumped into the Yellow River and couldn’t wash it..."

He stared at the silk handkerchief embroidered with a hint of jellyfish, but he couldn't remember how he would have such an object. Anxious to get angry for a long time, suddenly patted his head.

"what!"

"……what happened……"

"I remembered!" The ink sighed and took the handkerchief from the teacher's hand and smiled. "Sorry, this is really not mine, can't give it to

you."

Teacher: "..."

I didn't say anything.

"But this is not a teacher's respect. Don't see the sea otter is the master." The ink-burning handles are folded, and they are back in their arms. Obviously, they feel very relaxed and relieved because they have not mistakenly taken the teacher's sacred. "This is a summer teacher."

The teacher is thoughtful: "Xia Shidi?"

"Yeah, I live with him these days, maybe it is a wash, I took it wrong in the morning, haha, I am embarrassed."

"... um, it doesn't matter." The teacher still smiled softly and then got up. "It's not early, let's go, let's pick up the summer brother."

The two went out of the house and went straight to the prison.

However, it was not too far away, but the footsteps of the teacher’s sister gradually slowed down. At the beginning, it was not obvious. However, it was cold and it was a fall of a piece of gravel. It was a slammed drop. Fortunately, the ink burned away and caught it in time. he.

When the ink burned, he was pale and bloodless, and he couldn’t help but be surprised: "What happened to you?"

"It's a good thing." The teacher relieved his temper. "It's less to eat at lunch, no effort, rest for a while."

The more he wants to mix and confuse, the more he cares about the ink, the more he thinks about it, the lesser he is, the more difficult it is to eat, the consumption of this peach flower source needs to be replaced by feathers. He was given to him, and he was shut down these days. Xue Meng didn’t have a brain and didn’t know the caretaker...

The more I want to burn, the more I don’t feel at ease, I said, “You used to be in the martial art, and you often didn’t eat lunch, but you never saw you.” Where are you eating a meal? Tell me the truth, how long have you been hungry? ?"

"I……"

Seeing him swearing, the burning face is getting more and more gloomy, pulling him and going in the opposite direction.

The teacher hurriedly said: "A burning, where are you going?"

"Take you something to eat!" The ink burns badly. When you look back, your eyes are very distressed. "I am not here, will you not take care of yourself? Every time you remember others, do something first!" What about you? Have you considered yourself?"

"A burning..."

All the way dragged the division to the wine cellar, and it is reasonable to say that the teacher is attached to the healing system. Without the token, it is impossible to come to the place where the invading department is used. However, since the 18th accident, people are worried. In order to cope with the unexpected situation, Yumin has long cancelled the prohibition between the departments.

"What to eat? Tell yourself."

"You can eat whatever you want." The teacher looked a little guilty. "I'm sorry, I thought it was to help, and finally dragged your hind legs..."

"I am sorry for you and me." The ink burned his hand and bounced his forehead, slowing down the tone. "A la carte, I will pay the money after you finish it. You sit and eat well."

The teacher said: "What about you?"

"I have to pick up the summer brother, the murderer has not caught it. Although there are guards near the prison, I am still not at ease."

Hearing the smoldering to leave, there seems to be a flash of light in the division, but he quickly said: "Buy two buns, I will go with you and eat while walking."

Ink burning is trying to discourage, and suddenly heard a burst of snoring in the wine cellar, more than a dozen young female repairers dressed up in a slap in the haha.

"The treasurer, I am asking you something." A woman headed and asked with a smile, "Master brother... Did you set the banquet for this restaurant tonight?"

"Yeah, yeah." The shopkeeper's eyebrows opened his eyes and smiled. These feathers have been clarified these days. The masters love to drink and love to listen to the music. Every night, they will find a wine cellar to open a feast. As long as the "master brother" is in the place, there will be a group of awkward female practitioners flocking in advance.

Sure enough, those female practitioners became more and more excited at once, and they were too busy to set the table. From time to time, there were three or two sentences floating into the ear.

What are you talking about? "Xiaofang, look at my eyebrows today, can you look good? Will the masters be happy?" "Good-looking, then you look at my eye makeup, but he will not be more beautiful. I feel that I am thin?", and what "you are so beautiful, the master will like you, I saw him licking you a few eyes yesterday." "Oh, hate, how is it possible, or the sister is temperament, the master likes it." It’s a talented woman with a poem in her sister.”

"..."

In such an extraordinary period, these people can still be intoxicated by a man like a haze. The ink burns the mouth of the mouth and turns to the teacher. "The buns are buns. We buy and leave, leaving you alone in this tiger wolf's cave. I am also not at ease."

The teacher looked at his expression and couldn't help but smiled and shook his head.

The best taste in this building is that I can't stop the big meat bag, and I bought ten cigarettes in one breath, all of them gave the teacher a sigh. Walking on the road, from time to time glanced at the sweet teacher, the ink burned finally relaxed.

But no one thought that it was this buns that hurt the teacher.

He had a weak stomach and stomach. The grain rice was not long, and the stomach was empty. He suddenly ate this heavy oil bag, and soon the stomach could not stand the pain.

This ink burned completely unable to pick up the late night, and quickly rushed the painful face of the sweaty shouting back to Ling Xiaoge, placed on the bed of the newly packed bedroom, went to the outside to ask the doctor.

I opened the medicine, fed the warm water, and burned it on the side of the couch. I looked at the teacher’s appearance and blamed myself: "I still hurt? I will help you."

The voice of the teacher is very soft and weak: "Don't...it's a good thing..."

However, the slender, slender hand of the burnt bones has been taken over, pressed against his stomach by the bedding, and gently pressed.

Xu is that he is just right, it is very comfortable, after all, the teacher did not say anything, he gradually relaxed his breath under the body's own care, and fell asleep.

The ink burned until he sank, and he was ready to leave.

However, he has not yet got up, but his hand has been caught.

The ink-burning scorpion is suddenly big, and the black light flashes with a faint glow: "Shi...?"

"Pain... don't go..."

The beauty on the couch is still closed, it seems to be a nightmare.

The ink burns in a dull position, and the teacher never asks someone to help him with anything. He has always helped others without paying attention, and only when he is asleep, will he be so soft and not burned.

Then he sat back on the couch and looked at the face of the nightmare with a focus on his face, while continuing to help him slowly lick his stomach. Outside the open window, the peach blossoms fell, and the sky was dark.

When I remembered that the ink burned and I finally agreed to the dinner of the younger brother, it was already midnight.

"It’s over!" The ink burned and jumped up, and patted his head. "It’s over!!"

At this time, the teacher also had a deep sleep, and the ink burned a step and went outside to want to go to the prison hole. In the sky, a blue light suddenly appeared, and the elders held a child in their arms. The children were carrying a small crock in their arms, and the two descended from the sky.

"Elders!"

I slightly blamed the ink and glanced at it: "What happened? Didn't you say that you picked him up? If I didn't feel relieved, I looked at it in the past, jade... cough, I am afraid I will be in prison. Wait until tomorrow is bright."

"It is the disciple's fault." The ink burned his head down. After a while, he couldn't help but look up at Chu Yuning. "Teacher..."

放 Put Chu nightning down, Chu nighting holding a crock, quietly glanced at the ink: "Have you ever had dinner?"

Why didn’t he expect that the first sentence he opened was actually this, and the ink burned: “No, not yet...”

Chu night Ning came over and gave him the earthen jar. He said plainly: "It's still hot, drink some."

The ink burned in place, and it didn't move for a long time. When he reacted to himself, he had already hugged the little guy and the earthen jar and hugged it in his arms.

"Okay, I drink."

The silly boy was afraid that the soup was cold, and he put the robe out of the can, so the little body was slightly colder.

The ink burned against his forehead, and he snorted gently. The truth that had never been said in his life blurted out: "I'm sorry, I am not good."

Say goodbye to the two, the two returned to the house.

The robe has been rumpled and can no longer be worn. The ink burns the child cold, and goes to the inner room to turn a small blanket to the night. Chu night Ning yawned, holding a small crock to climb to the bench, is preparing to take two small bowls of soup. Suddenly my eyes narrowed twice, and my eyes fell on the meat bag left by the teacher.

"..."

Jumping off the stool, Chu night Ning squatted into the bedroom, looking at the beautiful woman lying on the couch with no expression, no anger or snoring, just feel that the bones in the seams are a little bit of coldness, so that the party is still warm A heart diameter freezes directly to the cold and waves.

When the ink burned back to the kitchen, Chu nightning still sat by the window by the window, one foot on the bench, one foot hanging down, and the arm was free to sit on the window.

Hearing the movement, he faintly turned back to his face and glanced at the ink.

"Come on, find a piece of firefox blanket, you are draped first, cool at night."

Chu nightning did not speak.

The ink burned away and handed the blanket to him. Chu did not pick up the night, but just shook his head and slowly closed the scorpion.

"What's wrong? Don't you like it?"

"..."

"Then I will look for you again and see if there is anything else."

The ink burned and laughed, and licked the hair of the late night, turned and prepared to find another piece, but suddenly found the crock on the table disappeared. Can not help but sighed: "My soup?"

"Who said it is yours." Chu Yuening finally spoke, the voice is cold, "my."

The ink burned the mouth of the mouth, thinking that he had a childish temper: "Well, yours is yours, then your soup?"

Chu night Ning indifferently said: "Throw it."

"Throw, throw...?"

Chu nightning ignored him again, leaping down the bench lightly and turned to push the door out.

"Hey? Teacher? Brother, where are you going?" The ink didn't take the blanket, the murderer was unclear, and the outside was not safe. He quickly followed.

But under the peach tree, the small crock with the stew was still stupidly stuttered and not thrown away. The ink burned a sigh of relief, and I thought that it was always wrong to do it myself. The younger brother who was just not angry might be forbearing. He couldn’t help but find that he couldn’t help but anger.

So I walked over and sat next to the night.

Chu Yuning was under the peach tree, picked up his small crock, and ignored the ink. A person opened the cover and took a spoon larger than his face. He wanted to reach into the soup and found that he could not stretch. Going in, I couldn't help but be more angry. I smashed the spoon and smashed it, sitting there holding the jar in a daze.

The ink burned his cheeks and his side was on his side to give him an idea: "You are drinking directly. Anyway, we are here, we are not shameful."

"..."

"Don't drink? Don't drink me, this is the first time that my brother gave me soup, not to waste." He teased him and said that he would go to win the jar with a smile.

Unexpectedly, Chu Xi Ning slaps his hand and slaps his hand: "Go away."

"..." The ink burned his eyes and always felt that the feeling of this conversation was familiar, but then he smiled and smiled. "Teacher, I am not good, don't be angry. I originally wanted to come." Pick you up, but your Ming brother suddenly became unwell, so I was delayed. I didn't mean to keep you waiting."

Chu nightning is still holding his head down and not talking.

"Then look, I am busy till now, I haven't eaten dinner. I am really hungry." The ink burned his sleeves poorly. "Teacher, kind brother, my good teacher, beg you, just Appreciate your brother's soup and drink it."

"..."

Chu night Ning moved a bit, finally put the soup jar on the ground, slightly raised the head slightly biased, still turn away. It means letting the ink burn to take it.

The ink burned and laughed: "Thank you, my brother."

The small crocks filled with the fullness of the coffin, only a glance at the younger brother to eat very little, but left most of the meat to him, so much meat, soup is rare.

The ink burned for a while, the eyebrows bent, and Wen said: "Where is the soup, it is clearly a pot of stew. The younger brother is kind."

"..."

Not much to gossip about, gossip to take care of the teacher for a long time, is really hungry, not to mention the younger brother of the mind, but can not be wasted. He folded the twigs of the two peach trees, and gathered the gas to trim the rough branches neatly, filling them into chopsticks and stuffing a piece of chicken into his mouth.

"Wow, it's so sweet."

The ink burned with chicken and the eyes were stained with mist. He smiled and said: "It's delicious. My family can really do it."

In fact, this canned soup is not delicious, too salty, but for the sake of the younger brother, the ink is still very hard to squat, and soon eats most of the chicken, and Chu Yuning did not go to see him from beginning to end. At a glance, sit next to me in silence.

He snorted and drank a large soup. The soup was salty than the meat. The entrance was even bitter, but it could be tolerated.

The ink burned and picked up a chicken leg, and was about to put it in his mouth. He suddenly slammed it: "How many legs does a chicken have?"

Naturally nobody cares about him.

The ink burned itself and replied: "Two."

Then he looked at the chicken legs sandwiched by chopsticks and looked at the remaining bones that he had just eaten.

"..."

The dull man finally looked up and asked Chu Yuning: "Teacher, you... is it..." The second half of the sentence did not have the courage to ask for an exit.

Are you waiting for me, not having dinner?

This can of soup is meat. Are you waiting for me? When the soup is almost dry, there is only meat left. After playing it, it is only a little bit pitiful, and I thought...

I thought you had eaten it... I left some for it... I thought it was your craftsmanship, and made a good chicken soup and made a stewed chicken...

The ink burned down the crock.

But he found it too late, there is no more meat left in the jar.

Chu nightning finally spoke.

The sound is still calm and nice, with some tenderness and clarity.

"You said, I want to come back to eat. So I waited." He slowly said, no joy or no sorrow, "If you don't eat, at least ask someone to bring a letter, don't let me be a fool." ."

"Younger brother..."

Chu nightning still does not go to see him, sideways, ink burned and did not see his look.

"You bring someone a letter to me, tell me that you are going to accompany the teacher... Tell me that you are going to accompany Ming Jing brother. Is it difficult?"

"..."

"You take my crock, before you drink the soup, you talk so much, you ask me if I have eaten. Is it difficult?"

"..."

"Before you eat, you can see that there are several chicken legs in this jar. Is it difficult?" The last sentence is a bit funny. It sounds ashamed and still can't help. However, the burnt pear vortex has not yet melted, and it will condense.

Little teacher, crying.

If it is an adult form, he will not shed tears because of such small things, but everyone does not know that picking the heart will cause him to become smaller, but his mind will not be greatly affected, but it will eventually spread. If the qi is physically weak, it is more accessible to the child's heart.

This hidden nature is extremely difficult to detect, so neither Mrs. Wang nor the elders of the wolf were found.

"I will be hungry, and I will be uncomfortable. I am also a human being..." Even though the child’s heart has prevailed, Chu’s lateness is still suppressed. He silently whispers, but his shoulders tremble, tears. The cockroach rolled down and the eyes were wet red.

So many years, when the elders of Yuheng are forbearing, no one loves them, no one is accompanying them, they always do not care, and walk away in a desperate crowd.

However, only when the heart is infected with a few children's ideas, will the truth be told, then it will collapse, and the stagnation that has accumulated for so long will be spoken.

He is not not good to others, but many things are done silently.

But silently, no one saw, no one cares, time is long, it is also suffering.

The smoldering saw the little brother's shoulder tremble slightly, his heart was uncomfortable, and he reached out and touched it, but he was unconsciously opened by the other party without touching it.

"Younger brother..."

"Don't touch me." Chu Yuening is strong after all. Whether he is old or young, he wipes his tears and suddenly stands up. "I went to sleep, and you will accompany your younger brother. Give me a little further."

"....."

When he was angry, even the teacher was actually more forgotten than the age of the ink.

The ink burned open his mouth and wanted to say something, but Chu Xiaoning had already left his hand and quickly entered another bedroom, and slammed the door.

But in this Lingxiao Pavilion, there are only two bedrooms in one courtyard.

The original intention of the smoldering was to let the teacher sleep with himself, and he and the younger brother squeezed one, but the younger brother was so angry and lost the lock. It seems that the younger brother’s room could not go.

He is not willing to sleep on the bed of the teacher. What's more, he was accused by Chu Ningning, and he cried the other party. He was in a chaotic mood. He didn’t have the heart to think about those winds and snows. He just sat in the courtyard full of peach blossoms, holding the Chu in his hands. The night can bring the earthen jars to yourself. After a long time, he sighed and raised his hand to give himself a slap in the face, whispering: "Not something."

So this night, the ink burned simply with the sky as the cover, the ground as a seat, lying on the ground covered with peach blossoms, staring at the sky.

The younger brother... the teacher... the teacher... Xue Meng... The fake hook of Jin Chengchi, the murderer who has never appeared... The Chu and his sons in the fantasy...

Many vague shadows crossed his eyes, and he vaguely felt that something was wrong, but the feeling was too weak, and even if he had not noticed himself, it disappeared.

Recipe, Shining.

Raised his hand to catch a fallen peach blossom, and the ink burned against the moonlight and looked at the dark soul.

For a moment, it seems to be back to the end of the previous life, and I lie in the shackles that I had built before, and that day the flowers of the mountains are fading and dying.

It’s just the sea otter.

Sea otter...

Why he clearly knows that in the past and present, he loves the teacher, but before he died, he made a difference, buried himself under the jellyfish tree, buried in the tower of the Tongtian Tower, and buried it in the place where he met with Chu. .

Many things that I have done in my previous life, now I want to be shocked, live alive, and live longer, the more I can't understand why I was so cruel.

The massacre, the bully, the sorcerer... also forced Chu tonight and himself to do such things...

The ink burned away the peach blossoms, and covered his hands with his hands, slowly closing his eyes.

The younger brother just said, "I will be hungry, I will be sad, I am also a human." This sentence has been lingering in my ear. The person who spoke is a younger brother, but for a moment, the other person’s mind is reflected in the mind. Figure.

It was a man in a snow-colored coat. In a blink of an eye, the white robes turned into a twilight phoenix robe, like a ghostly ceremonial illusion with his worship.

"I am also a human..."

It will be sad and it will hurt.

Ink burning...

I will also hurt.

The smoldering suddenly felt a violent sorrow in the heart. It seemed that something was going to come out, and the forehead oozing fine cold sweat.

He closed his eyes and gasped slowly.

Muttered: "...sorry..."

I don't know who to apologize to, the younger brother, or the old man of the robes and robes...

In the bedroom, the teacher sat up.

He didn't light up, and the crystal-clear feet came quietly to the window, through the window slits, and looked far away from the petals lying on the outside, one hand still holding the ink of the earthen jar, the twilight was dull, I don't know Think about something.

The next morning, the ink lying between the flowers and the wrinkles wrinkled the nose, breathed a swig of fresh air, stretched out and prepared to get up.

However, the lazy waist did not stretch half, and the steep scream screamed through the silence of Ling Xiaoge.

"what--!!!"

The ink burned and blinked, and when he got up, the sight in front of him was so cold that he was cold and stunned!

The fifteen feather elites who were in charge of the Lingxiaoge were all strangled overnight, and the death method was the same as that of the 18th. Each person had a red vine in the neck.

- Hell!

The fifteen people were hung in the peach blossom forest in the Lingxiaoge. The red sleeves fluttered, the long skirts and the ground, and the body swayed with the wind blowing through the forest. It looked like fifteen dried flowers. It is 凄 诡谲 诡谲, yin and exquisite.

It was the low-ranking feathers who sent the breakfast. She was trembling with trepidation. The bamboo basket in her hand had already fallen to the ground, and the porridge noodles spilled over the ground.

Seeing the burning in the yard, the people shook even more, and slammed their hands and squatted something behind them.

The ink burned subconsciously: "No, you listen to me..."

It was too late, and the feathers touched the bruises on his back. The collapse of the curse is the first important way of communication for the Yu people. It is almost a moment, and the feathers of the peach blossom forest have turned their fiery wings down from the sky and black.

Everything in front of me made everyone stunned.

"A sister!!"

"sister--!"

After the death, there were screams and crying in the feathers. This vast movement has brought the monks of Taohuayuan to one after another. Exclaimed and questioned, anger and jealousy, and soon surrounded the entire Lingxiao Pavilion.

"Ink burning! What do you have to say now!"

"The murderer! The heart is mad!"

Those feathers are already angry and rushing to the crown, and they screamed sharply and screamed: "Kill the man! Kill him! Kill him!"

The smoldering of the ink is really a hundred words. He said: "If I am a murderer, I can kill them all, and why should I stay in this ridge? Don't you wait for you to catch?"

A feathery red feathered man screamed in a row: "Hey! All, it’s already like this, you actually, you actually have a face..."

Some people also angered: "If you are not a murderer, why did the murderer kill all the defensive, but not kill you?"

"Yes!"

"It’s really a matter of knowing people and knowing what to do!"

"If the murderer is not you, it is definitely someone who has something to do with you! Otherwise why he doesn't kill you! You say it!"

"eye for eye!"

The ink is really angry.

In the past life, he killed people like numb, and few of them dared to ask him "blood debts to pay for blood". In this life, he was not killed by him. Instead, he was smashed. This world is really... he closed his eyes and was What to say, suddenly a red glow of the sky flew over.

The feathers of the people fell from the clouds, and they looked around and looked very ugly.

"Ink rain."

"On the fairy."

Yumin Shangxian stared at him for a while, and went to one of the dead bodies, picking up the willows with blood-stained neck and neck.

"What about your weapon? Take it out and see."

"..."

"You don't want it?"

The ink sighed and his sword was a ghost. During this period of cultivation, I did not know how many people had seen it. When there were 18 incidents, there were a large number of people glimpsed. At this time, I took it out and compared the ghosts with the wickers on the neck of the dead feathers, which undoubtedly added another hammer to his guilt. But if you don't take it, then it is even more guilty.

The sound of "嗖", a fiery red light appeared in his palm, and the ghosts turned out from his bones, and the red brilliance bursting with smashing bursts. "Look at the fairy, then let's see."

Chapter 75

Everyone stared at the hell, and then looked at the flaming vines on the neck of the dead feathers, and they were more and more excited.

"It's you! It's exactly the same as when you killed 18!"

"Why are you going to take this hand?"

"kill him!"

Yumin Shangxian seems to be so troubled by such noises. She held the forehead and said coldly: "Mini rain, I finally asked you again, man, are you killing?"

"No."

"Good." Yumin nodded on the fairy, and the original burning thought that she would let go of herself, was relieved, and prepared to thank her for her deep understanding. Unexpectedly, the next moment, the feathers on the immortal will be lightly lifted, cold and cold.

"This person is also wicked and wants to argue and arrest."

The priest was dressed and neatly dressed from the house. When he came out, he saw that the ink was burned by more than a dozen high-ranking feathers. Some people were tying the sacred ropes to his wrist.

"What are you doing?!"

The color of the teacher was lost, and he rushed to the front of the ink: "What happened?"

No one answered him, but the corpse fluttering in the forest of Taolin had told him the answer accurately and silently. The teacher took a breath of air and took a step back and was hitting the ink chest.

"A burning..."

"Don't worry, calm down." The ink stared at the feathers and the fairy, and lowered the voice and said to the teacher, "Go to the uncle and the elders."

At present, these feathers may not be able to maintain their senses. If the Yu people do not care to tear him apart, he has no chance of winning with his current strength. He must drag Xue Zhengyi and Yan to rescue the field as soon as possible.

After the sergeant left, the ink burned and stood still, and his eyes swept over the anger-distorted faces one by one.

"Pooh!"

Suddenly a spit of spit from the crowd, the ink burned sideways to avoid flashing, but the feathers who spit at him were very close, and he was still inevitably splashed.

He slowly turned back and stared at the pair of red eyes.

"You killed so many people, but also want to rescue the soldiers? I am going to kill you now!!"

Speaking of the palm of the hand suddenly gathered a burst of yang fire, throwing away toward the ink burning!

The ink burned to the back side, and the hot flame burned through his horns and squatted on a peach tree behind him, instantly burning the thick trunks.

boom--

The peach tree fell, and the flowers fell like snow and snow.

The ink burned and looked at the fallen tree, and turned to look at the feather people: "I will say it again, people are not killed by me. After 10 days, the red fruit is refined. If you want to seek revenge, then you will not late."

"After ten days? I am afraid that the whole peach blossom source will be killed by you after waiting for ten days!" The man roared, "You change my life!"

Once again, the ink burned away from his attack, but his eyes fell to the feathers of the feathers who stood by and watched. The other side did not mean to help. Ink burning is a sigh of anger in my heart, shouting loudly at him: "Hey! Old birds! You are the one who manages you!"

"..."

"Mom." The ink burned and she still couldn't move. She couldn't help but swear. "In this section, you are pretending to be dumb. Do you want to see if I am burned to death? I know that you are a bit of a stinking bird." I don’t have any ability, I don’t come to any * peach blossom cultivation! I have to be wronged for no reason!”

Shangxian listened to these words, and moved slightly, only to see her lift her sleeves, and the clothes swayed like a color, and she slammed and slammed.

But it was drawn on the face.

Although the feathers are similar in appearance to mortals, they are still different in thought.

In the realm of comprehension, it is said that the head of a family, even if it is a small martial art, its head will not make a final conclusion when everything has not yet been conclusive evidence. However, after half of the feathers, the blood is a beast, and there is still a strong animality in the bones.

I saw that the black hair on the fairy had become red, and the roots were like the hot air that radiated, and she looked beautiful and said:

"Who is your master? I have taught such an unscrupulous apprentice! And put my mouth clean!"

She said that other feathers have screamed high-pitched, a pair of scarlet eyes filled with murderousness, approaching the ink.

A bang!

An orange arrow smashed into a flame broke through the air and stabbed the ink to burn the heart.

The ink does not dare to scorn, shakes the fire and smashes the ghosts, but the arrow is actually just a shackle. When he is biased to resist, a fat man who crosses the sword is out. Jianguang is like water. Go hand in the back of the ink!

There was an arrow in front and a long sword in the back. It was originally decided that I could not escape.

The people who know these half-beasts are finally killing their hearts, and they have a heart-thinking mind. They think of Chu’s previous use of the script of the day, and raise their hands.

The ghost was smashed in the air, and then slammed tightly. The blood-red willow was danced with a vague shadow, forming a powerful air mass with lightning speed, and the willow on the rattan became a sharp turn. A sharp sharp knife that inhales and splits the surrounding air and objects.

One of the tricks of Chu Xiaoning - "Wind!"

Take the vine as the wind blade, and absorb all things around you with spiritual power.

Involved in the wind, all are powdered, buried in the wind, the wreck is hard to leave!

"Ah!!!" The screaming of the people, the arrow that had been thrown before had already been smashed into slag, and her long sword was swept in because it was too close to the ink.

"Hey!" The sound of the metal break was sharp and harsh, and it was not reflected. She was sucked to the scarlet edge of the "wind". She screamed: "Let me go! Crazy! You crazy!"

Seeing the suffering of the people of their own people, the feathers of the people were furious, and the red clothes were on display.

In her palm, she had a very pure crimson crystal, and her sleeves were agitated, and the spiritual power poured into it. The peach blossoms suddenly surged and the vegetation fell.

A vain fire phoenix is faintly behind her, and the scorpion of the sacred sacred red is like a drip, and the original bright and unparalleled face is even distorted.

"The beast," she muttered. "I still can't stop?"

"You have summoned the phoenix virtual shadow. I am waiting to die now?" The burning face was reflected in the shadow of the fire and the phoenix. "You stop and stop me!"

"you--"

The feathers of the people rose slowly to the air.

"No--"

She sang a word, * staring at the ink.

"qualifications--"

"with me--"

"On the request!"

As her voice fell, a loud bang broke out in the air, and the phoenix illusion cleared and screamed, circling toward the ink and swooping away!

"boom!!"

Another roar, more terrible than just now, as if a dragon has ended its sleep since ancient times, and broke through the depths of the earth.

A golden light and a fire phoenix violently struck each other, and set off a layer of horrible storms. The ordinary feathers with weak strengths screamed and fell to the ground by this storm. Some of them directly vomited blood and were thrown out dozens of feet away.

Ling Xiaoge once flew in the sand, and the wind was raging, and the tree planting in the house was razed to the ground!

When the dust smoke spreads out, a familiar slender back appears in midair, blocking the front of the ink.

"Master, teacher respect...?!"

The man smashed the snow in the white, the wide sleeves rolled in the wind, and the sound was slightly over half of the cool and clear face, and a pair of phoenixes swept over the ink burning.

The sound of the late Qing dynasty is so cool, like the clear water in the ancient well in the midsummer.

"Can you hurt?"

The ink burned and widened his eyes, but he couldn’t react for a long time. He just kept his mouth open: "....."

Chu nightning looked back and forth around him and saw that there was no obvious scar on his body. He turned his head and said to the feathers: "You just asked him who his master is?"

He lowered his powerful spiritual power and slowly fell to the ground.

He is even lazy to say a word, only icy and extremely simple: "The dead and the dead are late, ask your boss."

"What, what?"

Chu night, Ning, raised his eyebrows, and looked like Shen Yu.

It seems that the birds can't listen to them if they are polite. That's right. Anyway, his patience is running low.

"I said that his master is me." Suddenly, "You hurt my apprentice, can you get my approval?"

Although Yumin Shangxian is respected as a fairy, but because of its noble lineage, it is far from the true immortal. Under this attack, the phoenix illusion was crushed by Chu Xiening, and his arm was also scratched by Tian. She licked the wound, and could not see the thick black blood in her fingers. The face was very ugly.

"You, your mortal in the district, dare to be so arrogant! Also, who allows you to privately peach the flower source! How come you come in!!" She is a little crazy, "You don't know how to be tall and thick -"

"brush!"

The day asked to come out and smacked on her face, and she suddenly ruptured her mouth and blood.

"I don't know what is high in the sky?" Chu Xiaoning sneered, and the square was only slightly messy sleeves when he swallowed Liu Teng. Then he slammed the ink collar with one hand and stood up with his eyes, but his eyes never left the feather. The people are half an inch. "You said, I am not knowing what is so high?"

"You, you dare to do this, you -"

"Why don't I dare." Chu night Ning looked at her faintly. "I don't dare." After a pause, he passed the ink burning next to him. "You listen, this person is mine, I took it away." ""

The ink burned has not been reacted from the horror of Chu Xiaoning suddenly descended on the gods, and it was smashed by "this person and me".

"Teacher... Master..."

"Close your dog's mouth." Although Chu Evening still has no expression, but the ink can clearly see that his eyes are full of anger, "There is more than enough to make things worse, give me a mess."

Speaking of a slap in the back of his head, with him vacated, and then a few tens of feet away, when the ink burned back, he and Chu nightning have come to the suburbs of Taohuayuan.

"Master! My brother is still there -"

Chu night Ning gave him a look, seeing him look anxious, coldly said: "Teacher? The name of the summer?"

"Right right, he is still in Lingxiaoge, I am going to save him..."

Chu night Ning raised his hand and interrupted him: "I have already cast a spell to pass him to you, you don't have to worry."

Listening to him, the ink burned, and he lifted his black and white eyes and looked at Chu Xiening: "How do you respect the teacher... Come here?"

When Chu was born in Ningyuan, he was awakened by the shackles outside the house. When he saw the situation, he swallowed a medicinal medicine given to him by the greedy wolf and was temporarily restored. But at this moment, he was inconvenient and explained with ink, only coldly said: "How can I not come." Then he raised his fingertips and gathered a golden sea otter.

“The west floor curtain is full of flowers and thin, and the spring breeze goes to Qiantang.”

The eyelashes are drooping, and Chu Yuning gently blows at the sea otter that is to be placed, and the bones bloom in an instant. Chu night Ning's slender and cold white fingertips, whispered: "Go to explore."

The jellyfish flower drifted away with the wind and quickly disappeared between the mountains and forests.

Ink burned curiously: "Master, what is this spell?"

"Throwing flowers."

"What?"

"Throwing flowers." Chu night Ning looked solemn, not at all joking, "There is no name, you ask me, I took it."

Ink burning: "..."

This person is lazy, isn’t it like this?

"Your thing, the Lord has said to me." Chu nightning looked at the direction of the sea otter, the sound is as cold as the pebbles of the river, "this matter should be the same person with Jincheng Lake at the time. This In the peach blossom source, I am afraid that I have already laid out the chess game."

“How is it possible?” The ink burned.

The Zhenqi chess game is the spell that he used to make his peak in the past. After the 18th accident, he has tried to perceive whether there is any trace of this spell. Because this ban is often accompanied by the killing of blood, once launched, it is inevitable. Killing, so if you look closely at the inexplicable grievances, you will know if anyone has a chess game around you. If the mysterious man really uses the ban again, unless he does the ultimate, there is no reason for the ignitance to be unaware.

Seeing the late night, the sceptical eyes of Ning slightly swept over, and the ink burned and explained: "I mean... This is a half-scented scent in the peach blossom source. How can people easily set up a ban on it without knowing it. ”

Chu nightning shook his head: "At that time, at the bottom of Jincheng Pool, the mysterious man manipulated all the ancient spirit beasts. Although the combat power of the ancient spirit beasts could not be compared with the beasts, it was not much better than the scattered fairy. Since it was possible to control Jinchengchi at that time, it is very likely that it will be re-applied in Taohuayuan."

"such……"

"Ok."

The ink burned up and smiled quite shyly, revealing a deep dimple: "Master, don't you want to let it mean?"

Chu nightning: "....."

Chapter 76

Chu Xi Ning has always been a kind of master who is very tempting and seductive. The ink is not a five- or six-year-old Kai Mengzi. Asking this kind of juggling problem, Chu Xi Ning is too lazy to take care of him, coveting and whispering.

The jellyfish flower he threw out exerted a blast spell and quickly explored the entire peach blossom source. Not a moment, a golden spell descended from the sky and fell into his hands.

"The ancestor abyss?"

The ancestor abyss is the place where the roaring out every day and the monks rushing to pluck the hair. Yumin said earlier that the abyss is an endless red flame. In addition to the roars that have lived in the abyss since ancient times, no matter who loses and falls, they will be melted and not even left.

Chu Yuening applied an enchantment to himself and his burning body to hide the traces and prevent the feathers from being aware.

The two went to the abyss of the ancestors, and they saw that there was no bottom in the bottom, and there was a red light. The cliffs were densely packed with thousands of different birds. At this time, these birds and beasts were sleeping, and their heads were buried in their wings. From a distance, it has become a myriad of intensive dots.

According to the meaning of Chu Yuning, if the Zhenqi chess game is set in the abyss, then what the feathers of the Yumin said, if they fall into it, they will burn even the gray, and they should all be compiled.

"How can you be sure that the fire below will not burn people?" The ink stared at the crouching light underneath, muttering. "How to look like it is true."

"First throw something down."

"Then I am going to play a rabbit."

"No need." Chu night Ning got up and flew, the white dress exhibition room was far away in the Taolin next to it, not a moment, he floated back like a nine-day 谪 immortal, with a peach in his hand.

The ink burns it. The peach blossom is naturally more delicate than the rabbit. If the peach blossom can withstand the so-called "flame", it is obviously no danger to enter the living.

Chu night Ning pointed to the peach branch, silently cursing, only to see that the burning peach was covered by a layer of soft blue light, he clicked on the abyss, whispered: "Go."

The peach blossoms slowly fall, one foot, two feet, ten feet, and one hundred feet.

The shadow of the flower branch is long gone, but the curse of the night of Ning Shi can make him feel the peach blossom situation. He stares at the eyes. After a while, the eyelashes reopen their eyes.

"Peach blossoms are innocent and feasible."

Since Chu Xiaoning was so sure, there was nothing to say. The ink burned with him and flew to the abyss of the ancestors. Both of them were not bad, and they went all the way to the bottom. When I saw the situation under the Great Abyss, even though the mind was prepared, the ink burned still felt a bit cold.

He knows what the red light in the abyss is.

I saw only a large number of wooden frames in the depths of the abyss. Each wooden frame was hung with a feather. The feathers were naked and bare, and the body was bloody. Each of them has a lingering red fruit with a glaring red light in his mouth. Thousands of red lights come together and look down from above. It is easy to believe that this is the red flame under the abyss.

Chu’s face is very unsightly. He knows widely about it. Naturally, this red fruit is the forbidden fruit of the color change in the realm of comprehension. Put it in the mouth of the dying person and you can take the last breath. Extended for 365 days.

That is to say, people who can be liberated in an instant can experience extremely long deaths. The original heart blinking will become endless torture, which is called Ling Chi.

The ink burned and stared at the jungle-like layers of feathers and dead people, muttering: "...lock the soul."

Taking the living thing as a human column, the grievances are forbidden. Even if the tens of thousands of dead souls are trapped in the chess game, they will not leak out!

It is no wonder that he has explored all kinds of things, but he is not aware of the swearing grievances of a few chess games.

The ink can't help but grow up, he is thinking, the fake hook in the last time in Jin Chengchi, and the behind-the-scenes black hand of Taohuayuan is the same person?

From the experience of Jin Chengchi, it seems that the fake hook can only use the Jane chess game to simply control the essence of the water. It should only learn some fur, but this time the fake feathers outside the peach blossom source, except for the stupidity, the intelligence is not High, and the deity is no different, and even the performance of the feathers of the people, the level of the ban is completely high in the middle, is it true that the fake hook Chen Jing is so fast?

Chu Xiaoning came to the center of the lock soul array, where there was a stone pillar made of spar.

There is also a feathered man tied to the stone pillar, but this feather is dead. The lingering fruit contained in her mouth has already shrunk and the body has begun to rot. However, from her bright yellow gold silk embroidered robes, as well as her eyebrows with a star-shaped curse, can see her previous identity.

"this is……"

The ink burned and said: "This is the real feather people!"

"Not bad." Chu night Ning looked at the untidy column of people, and the thin lips whispered. "There are not a thousand people who have been arrested to make the soul locks. If the feathers are still alive, then How can I endure such a * sea enmity. Not to mention that I only played against the outside of the fairy, but I feel that her strength is not as good as that of the colorful butterfly town. If I did not guess wrong... I am afraid that the plum people of Taohuayuan have already been destroyed, and those outside are It was a corpse controlled by the Jane Chess Board."

"!" Sure enough! Chu night would rather coincide with him! When the ink burns, he will return. Chu night, a wide-sleeve wave, stopped him.

"where are you going?"

"I want to tell my uncle about this. If it is, it would be too dangerous."

"I don't want to act rashly." Chu nightning shook his head. "Now people are in the dark, I am in the clear. There are many monks in Taohuayuan. We don't know who the people behind are. It will only make the situation more difficult." ""

"Hey. For a long time, Chu Zongshi is still so cautious."

A smirk with a few traces of playfulness came from the air, but it blew in the abyss of the ancestors like a thunder. The two changed their heads, and a fleshy, feathery young child swayed his legs and sat on a branch of the cliff. Seeing them turning back, the dead child passed his head, and a pair of eyes with blood and tears turned a few laps, and the corner of his mouth showed a smile.

The ink burned and said: "Zhenzhen chess game!"

Chu Xiaoning snorted, and said: "It is a white child."

"Oh, yes, it’s a white child." The child’s child smirked. "Otherwise, do you think I will be here with my true body? I am not stupid."

Ink burning: "You really are the fake hook of Jincheng Lake! You crazy, what do you want to do?"

"Hey, what are you, a minor repair in the district, and asked me about it? Ask your master to ask."

"you--!"

Chu night Ning wide sleeves light swing, stretched out long fingers, smothered the gas burning of the head of the smoke. Lifting his eyes, he asked coldly: "What is your dream?"

The people swayed their legs, obviously a dead person, but because of the control of the ban, like a marionette, they could not make all kinds of tricks.

"What I am trying to do is not a big deal."

Chu Yuning’s voice is even cooler: “Why did you sing three times to take my life?”

"Although it is not a big deal, it may happen that you need to complete the spiritual core of your little apprentice." The child smiled and said, "It’s weird, blame him for being very good. Even better than the master. You are in Jincheng Lake. I know that he is a wonderful essence of wood spirit. If not, I am afraid that I am more interested in the master."

His speech was greasy, so young and tender, and the words were adult accents. He couldn't help but make the ink burned disgustingly. He said: "I have to pour eight years of blood mold and you are caught by it. Nuclear, don't even think about touching me!"

"I didn't want to touch you." The child is still the sweet voice of the mad man. "I am also forced to chase you. The men in the world love beauty, and your teacher looks better than you. I am more willing to touch." he."

"You!!!" The ink is going to be blown up. "You don't dare to show up in a face, you will take the white ugly ugly thing all day, you also touch my master?"

But the little boy gave him a blank look. It seemed that he was too lazy to take care of him again. He turned his head and stared at Chu Yuning:

"Chu Zongshi, when I was at Jincheng Lake, I advised the Master not to pursue it again. But the Master did not listen, and told me to be so sad."

"Since I know this, even if you no longer burn the ink, I will investigate it and never tolerate it."

"Hey, I know you will say that." The child was silent for a while, smiled. "How do you guys, such a big master, have such a rib?... Well, since the master of Chu is not listening, then let me go, I In fact, I also want to see if your day is so powerful, or if my ban is strong."

Chu night Ning Jianmei angered, sullenly said: "Your picture, really have to kill innocents to this?"

"The people of the world are like the top of Huainan."

"what for?"

"Sour." The little child giggled. "Sick and dead, these dead and smashing people, one is sour, I hate it, I can't pinch it, I smash it all."

Ink burning: "....."

The sound of Chu Xiaoning is full of murderousness: "You are serious, no medicine can be saved."

"The master thinks that I have no medicine to save. I still think that the master can't be treated. The original morality is different, why bother to hang on it." The child shook his head and shook his head. "The master will be playing with me in the next game, and Jincheng Lake will count you." Win, Taohuayuan this game, the master has already found the abyss of the ancestor, I saw this white child, I am also a poor man, can not get the little apprentice around you, naturally you still win."

He paused, his eyes screamed, and he was laughing, but he squeezed out more plasma.

"However, you can protect him. I want to see if the master can protect him for a while, but can protect him for a lifetime."

"..."

"As for the secrets of this ancestor's abyss, it is best not to miss the two." The child said that the fingertips did not know when to pull out a golden and red wing.

The ink burned and said: "This is the golden feather of Taohuayuan as a currency?"

"Not bad." He smiled. "This kind of golden feather has been scattered throughout the peach blossoms. If the two secret secrets, they will leave on their own. Everyone in Taoyuan can be safe, but if the two are not guilty, take my trail. Public to the public, these feathers are attached to the grievances of the feathers. Although they cannot be ordered by the monks, they can also dissipate them.

The ink burned and angered: "You designed it from the beginning?!"

"Is that not the case?" the child said with amazement. "Do you think everyone is as stupid as you are?"

Ink burning: "..."

Really, really mad at him! ! He admits that he does not know how to do things, and he does not understand the truth of so many advances and withdrawals. He can be said by this small animal. He would like to call out the ghosts and let the other side see. What is really stupid and rude.

"Chu Zongshi, if you say or not, you should be very clear in your heart. Even if they know the truth, but at that time they will be greatly damaged, I am afraid that they will not be grateful to Chu Zongshi in addition to the magic guard."

Chu night Ning cold and cold road: "You only heard it, I did not intend to disturb them now."

"Now? Haha, it seems that the guru was going to say it later, but it would be useless later." The child smiled and said, "When the monks leave, Peach Blossoms will be completely destroyed by me like Jincheng Lake." When there is no evidence of death, you see who believes you."

Chu night Ning eyes cold and cold: "You are doing this, what is the face, saying that the ink is rude and ignorant."

The child did not care about the sneer of the late night, and turned up a few laps in the same place, suddenly a blast of flames under his feet, slowly burning the flesh and blood.

"When you catch me, tell me this sentence again. Chu Zongshi, I respect you as a gentleman, and today I will finally mention you, don't want to intervene again, you have to listen, let's... Will see you again..."

With a bang, the flame burst into bursts.

The kidnapped child was burned out, and a crystal clear white piece fell in the sky, rolling twice on the ground and stopped.

For a long time, I am dead.

"..." Mo-burn knows that the mysterious man behind the scenes is not vocal, but he is really reluctant to ask, "Master, really just go so? Can you have other ideas?"

"Be cautious, first leave the peach blossom source." Chu Yuning's face is also not good-looking, Yu Yudao, "Since that person has worked hard to make a lock-up, in order to prevent others from detecting that he is controlling the chess game, At least he can tell that he doesn't want to make things happen to everyone. I will pass on to him, and let him try to bring Xue Meng and Shi Shi to leave as soon as possible. Don't be amazed. As for you..."

Chu night Ning paused and continued: "Golden Lake and Taohuayuan two incidents, he is directed at you. This time he designed to plant you, it is hoped that you can get into isolation. This thing you Do not care, the Lord is the master of a faction, it is better to mediate him."

"What can I do?" said the ink. "You can't always push things to others, and you can do nothing."

"What can you do at this time? The purpose of the mysterious person is very clear. After Jin Chengchi's * wood fell, he was always looking for the essence of the spirit to replace. You are the essence of Muling, the most suitable, but if you have not been able to get you He will also retreat to the next best, to find other alternative top spirits." Chu night Ning paused, said, "If he was found, I am afraid it is a * hurricane, you have to stop him. ""

"It is true that the words are correct, but the master, the essence of the spirit is not so easy to be found, even if he wants to find a substitute, he must also..."

When the ink burned here, suddenly suddenly stopped, and suddenly raised his head, a pair of silky black eyes glared at the night, and said: "The little animal wants to find out who is the essence of the spirit, you have to Go to each sect to explore, and the monks will not release their own spiritual roots for no reason, only when they choose weapons or refined stones, they will perceive with the roots. So the easiest way to test the spirit is to sell weapons and spirits. Stone. We only need to observe more of the weapons market in front of the major mountain gates in recent days, and it is possible to discover the traces of the animals."

After saying this, he saw that Chu Ning was staring at himself with a thoughtful look, and he could not help but feel guilty.

"Oh... I guess."

"You guessed it well." Chu night said slowly, after a while, suddenly felt that he knew something more, so he narrowed his eyes and asked, "Ink burn. Do you have anything to me?"

"I, I can have something to swear to the Master." Having said that, the ink burns but the cold hair behind it is erected. I only think that the nightly glazed glazed scorpion seems to be separated by myself. A reborn skin that locks the true soul that curls inside.

Fortunately, the silence of Chu night is a moment, there is no more to say.

He faintly hangs his eyes, Shen Sheng said: "From now on, you will go with me to scrutinize the major sects. Not to return to life."

The author has something to say: Taohuayuan boss: I look at the face of this person, your teacher looks better than you, so I have a better attitude toward him.

Ink burning: mmp, does the author say that I am the best looking?

Meat package: Yes, but ah, first, you are still a young person, no long open. Second, although the boss is a straight man, but if he is a foundation, the attributes are the same as you, do you think he will look at you this pleasing to the eye, or the master is pleasing to the eye?

Ink burning: Is there a boss full of gas?

Meat package: Yes.

Meat bag (turned head): Xue Mengmeng, your cousin invites you to be a boss! ! !

Chapter 77

After Chu Ning and Mo-burn left the Peach Blossom Spring, they went around to explore when the market of the big and small sects opened, and after a few days, they fell in a small town inn.

From Taoyuan, I finally got a rest, and the ink burned back to my room. Chu Ning was sitting at the table, lit up the candle, and carefully looked at the bright yellow halo. a porcelain bottle.

In the white jade porcelain bottle, there are more than 30 pieces of golden pills.

Fortunately, when he came, he brought the bottle of medicine to him, otherwise he really didn't know where to live with the ink.

"This is a new medicine for the greedy wolf. There are about thirty." At that time, in the Taoyuan cave, he said this to Chu Xiening. "He checked the books and changed some ingredients. One can support you to recover." On the 7th, the normal body, this bottle of medicine is enough for you to use for a long time, hold it."

"Thank you for the greedy wolf."

"Don't say thank you." He waved his hand and smiled. "I see the seriousness of the greedy wolf's face. I can't tell you how much you are curious about your condition. Right, he told me to swear you, this medicinal drug is not yet Stable, don't be overjoyed, or it's easy to fail, you can remember."

Chu night Ning was thinking about what he said, and suddenly heard that the door of the inn was slammed, and immediately closed the porcelain bottle and extinguished the incense that was burning in the celadon furnace. This slowly said: "Come in."

The ink burned just after the shower, draped in a fine robes, and wiped a black jade-like hair into the room of Chu's late night.

"..." Chu night Ning coughed, but fortunately his face is still faint, "What?"

"My room is not good, I don't like it. Master, can I make a floor shop for you tonight?"

Seeing the smoldering words vague, Chu Yuning is not stupid, naturally feels embarrassed, asks: "What do you like?"

"Reverse, anyway, it is... it is not good." He said that he secretly took a look at Chu’s night, and said, "The sound insulation is too bad."

Chu late Ning has always been used to high purity, frowning actually do not understand what is meant by ink burning. He draped himself in his robe and went to the ink-burning room with bare feet. He couldn't stop the ink, and he had to follow him.

"Although it is simple, but it is not easy to sleep." After seeing a circle in the house, Chu Xiaoning blamed, "How are you so delicate?"

The voice did not fall, and suddenly there was a fierce percussion from the wall. It seemed that it fell heavily on the ground.

The ink burned without face, and the matter was not worse. I took the Chu Ning's sleeve corner and said: "Master, let's go soon."

Chu night Ning raised his eyebrows: "What happened to you? Is there anything wrong?"

The ink burned open his mouth, but before he finished his wording, he heard a smile from the next door: "The Changgong is so annoying, I will deceive others, um, don't, don't do this... ah!"

"Hey, baby, the peony on your chest is so beautiful, let me smell it and smell it."

The wall panels are really thin, and even the ragged voices are clearly audible. The rough breathing of the man and the sweetness of the woman are mixed together and it is simply unbearable.

Chu Xiaoning didn't understand it at first. After a while, he reacted. A pair of beautiful eyes were widened, and then his face turned from white to red, from red to green. Finally, Tieqing said with a sigh: "I don't know how to be shameful!"

"puff."

The ink burned and did not hold back, and the low voice laughed behind him. Fortunately, the late night of Ning was very embarrassing, and even the same walks were the same, and did not hear the sneer of ink burning.

When he got back to the room, he quietly finished a cup of tea, which was barely pretentious, and nodded to the ink: "So swearing is really bad for practice. You will stay with me tonight."

"Oh." In fact, when Taohuayuan suddenly saw Chu Xiaoning appear, and the other party did not doubt him, he still protected him in a hundred ways. The ink burned was a surprise. At this time, he settled down and could not help but feel good. It seems that the cold face seems to be a lot more cute.

The ink burned his eyes, sitting cross-legged on the ground, holding his chin and looking up at the night.

"...what do you see?"

"I haven't seen the Master for a long time. I want to see more." The voice of the boy was full of smiles and his eyes were warm.

Carefully, Chu nightning... really looks like Xia Shidi.

Chu night Ning slammed him: "If you have time to look at me, it is better to wipe your hair, how to sleep when you are wet."

"The towel is forgotten next door." The ink burned and laughed, "Wang Shibang help me?"

"..."

Xue Meng had suffered an injury before, and his arm could not be lifted for a few days. During that time, he washed his head and all the helpers wiped it. The master wiped his hair very quickly, because he can control the spiritual power very well. The towel in the handle is quickly evaporated to dryness.

Chu night Ning coveted a look at the all-embracing ink, coldly said: "No disease, no pain, why should I help you?"

But still beckoning to let him come.

The candlelight is warm at night, reflecting the innocent young face of the ink.

The ink burned on the bed and was reborn for almost a year. It was the time when the boy was a child. In the past few months, he has grown up a lot without knowing it. Few.

This height makes it impossible for Chu Yuning to wipe his hair for him, so the ink burns his hands back, short and short, and Chu Ning is standing on the edge of the bed and staring at him. Long hair.

The ink burned with satisfaction and yawned and squinted to enjoy this rare peace.

There are occasional frogs in the window.

"Master."

"Ok."

"Do you know that I am in the illusion of the Yumin, I returned to Lin'an two hundred years ago and saw a man named Chu."

The action of wiping does not stop: "How can I know."

The ink burned his nose and smiled: "He looks like you."

"...there are more people in the world who are similar in appearance. What is so strange."

"No." The ink burned seriously. "He was almost a model carved out with you. Master, you said he would be your ancestor?"

Chu night Ning faintly said: "It is also possible. However, this is more than two hundred years ago, and whoever said it."

"He still has a son." The ink burned himself. "It looks like the younger brother of Xia, I think this is too coincidental. Master, do you say that Xia Shidi will be your lost relative?"

"I don't have a loved one."

"All said that it is lost..." The ink burned, he relied on Chu night rather close, can smell the reassuring jellyfish flowers.

It’s so good, no matter the life or the whole life, the breath of Chu’s body seems to have a calming effect on him. In his previous life, he returned in the * hurricane, only to bury his face in the neck of the master. In order to earn that moment, let's breathe.

Whether he wants to admit it or not, he has become addicted to the atmosphere of Chu Xiaoning, and he can’t stop it.

He closed his eyes, and in such a familiar silence, he gradually let go of the gods, and some did not know what day and night.

In the last life, in the empty Wushan Temple, he killed the people back, drenched the rain, it is so sinful, but it is a homeless abandoned dog.

At that time, he sat down and hugged Chu's waist, buried his face in the other's abdomen, and asked him to caress his hair over and over again. Only in this way could he barely keep his inner madness.

Those old dreams have been separated from the front, and the past is like the sea.

It can be combined with the scorpion, and it seems to be yesterday.

Chu nightning sees this guy who has been chanting not talking, so he looks down and sees a quiet face in a dimly lit candle.

Although there are still some lush and tender children in the eyebrows, they are not childish, but the five senses have been opened and can see the handsome figure. It is like a flower bone that is vaguely revealed in the cloud steaming Xia Wei, with the freshness and vitality of young people.

Chu Xiaoning’s hand was slightly stunned, and the heartbeat seemed to be a little faster.

The ghost made a difference, he screamed softly: "Ink burns."

"Ok……"

The fascination of the ink is also vague, it seems a little tired, put the face over, and the same as the last life, leaning against the waist of the night.

Chu nightning: "..."

Boom. Boom. Boom.

The intensive heartbeat was like a drum on the battlefield, which made him feel dizzy.

Chu night Ning licked his lips, I do not know how to be good, but have to continue to wipe the ink burning hair, the last bit of steam evaporated.

After a long time, he lost his towel and smashed the smashed pieces in front of the burning amount. He said, "Okay. Go to sleep."

The ink burned open his eyes, and the black and purple scorpion had a shackle, and then gradually became clear.

He finally recovered, remembering that he had just relied on Chu’s waist in inertia, and Chu Yuning did not push him away. He couldn’t help but be surprised, his eyes widened like a Just a stupid dog.

Chu late Ning originally had some uncomfortable feelings. Seeing him like this, he couldn’t help but smile.

When the ink burned, he actually laughed. Although his smile was light, he really laughed. He couldn’t help but his eyes were more rounded. He sat up straight, with a slightly messy hair, and suddenly he was very serious. Say: "Master, you have a scent on your body, very good smell."

"..."

When he paused, he suddenly frowned. He seemed to be trying to think about something. Then he thought of it. He looked a little blank and muttered: "It’s so strange, Xia Shi is against him... How do you have this taste?"

Chu Xiaoning’s face suddenly changed.

Before waiting for the ink to react, he put the towel on the burning head and dropped the person directly to the bed. He said coldly: "I am tired, go down and sleep."

The ink burned cold and was not lost. He was lying on the floor for a long time, only to sit up, licking his nose, not angry, and got up and hit the floor.

Chapter 78

This evening, Chu nightning and ink burned together in a room, the ink burned heartless, and soon fell asleep on the ground, but Chu Evening could not help but some of his mind drifting over and over for a long time before he barely slept.

Closing your eyes, there seems to be a whistling sound of strong winds blowing snow.

Chu night Ning opened his throat and found himself lying in the snow.

……dream?

But why is it so real, as if I have experienced it at some point?

This is a winter season, the sky is lead-gray, the clouds are thick and heavy, coming from the distant mountains, all the way into the earth. The snow has accumulated a lot of feet, enough to have no ankles, cold in the cold, even though he is wearing a big cockroach, still stunned by the chill of the cheekbones.

Chu nightning looked down at the azure crepe, embroidered with delicate silky lines on the silver thread. He felt that this big cockroach was familiar, but this familiarity was fleeting and could not be captured very quickly.

"..."

I don't understand why I would do such a dream of living a sin. Chu nighting is ready to stand up, but the body is not like her own. He is still squatting on the ground until the frost and snow fall on his shoulders, and the eyelashes are condensed with ice. Still did not mean to get up.

"Chu Zongshi, the sun is dark, I won't see you tonight, let's go back."

There was a trembling old voice that sounded behind him.

The self in the dream did not look back, the footsteps sounded after themselves, and some people stepped on the snow and hit the umbrella around him.

Chu nightning heard himself saying: "Thank you Liu Gong. When you are old, you should go back to the water and rest, I will stay."

"Gentle..."

The old voice still wants to say something again, Chu said lately: "Go back."

The faint voice sighed, dragging heavy steps, and learned how to take a few steps, and then folded back, holding a umbrella for the night.

"The old slave is with the master."

Chu Xiaoning felt that he was blind in his dreams and stopped talking.

He couldn't help but be more and more strange. This is really a very absurd dream. Both the self and the old man are talking about an incomprehensible conversation.

What is "Kneeling", what "Liu Gong" is not the familiar comprehension world, it is like the deep palace courtyard.

He tried hard to look through the body and look at the scene in this dream from the eyes of the drooping. It seems to be like a dead or alive, but it is a little different.

The house is still almost the same, just adding a lot of extravagant little things. The cloister around the courtyard is filled with snow-blue embroidered stars, and the beasts are covered with octagonal bells. The wind blows like a ring, and the ringing sounds seem to come from Hongmeng.

He faced the main hall and squatted. There was a row of guards in front of the temple. It was also a dress he had never seen before. I don’t know which martial art person.

The sky is getting darker and darker. The fishermen go out to a row of high-pitched palace ladies. They are fine-handed, and they ignite the two left and right bronze lamps. The lampstands are one person high, a total of nine floors, each floor spreads out. Seventy-seven forty-nine 盏盏铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜铜七七七七七七七七七七七七七七七七七七七七七七

When I lit the light, the head of the Omiya woman took a look at Chu’s night, and the yin and yang sneered in a sneer: "This big night is freezing cold, and who is so bitter? Who is the next time, you are enjoying yourself, even if you are in the wild, No one sympathizes with you."

How to let it go!

Chu Xiaoning lived to the present, who would dare to talk to him like this, could not help but anger, but opened his mouth, the voice is his own voice, but he could not help but say something else.

"I came here this time, but to stir up his Yaxing, there is something to talk about, and I want the girl to be wanted."

"Who are you, what do I want to do for you?" The majestic woman said, "When you are under the sorrows of the majesty, who would dare to disturb them? If you want to see your majesty, you will continue to squat, tomorrow. Get up, maybe you can still look at you with your heart, hehe."

The old slaves behind Chu’s night can’t listen, and trembled: “Knowing that your mother is a pet, but you don’t look at who is speaking with you? Is there no three-point German?”

"Who am I talking to? Who is the life and death? Who knows the most annoying thing about him is him? I need to be respectful when I talk to him! You have the courage to teach me this old thing!" , angry, "come!"

"What are you going to do!" The old man couldn't help but step forward in the first two steps, squatting in front of the night.

The lady of the palace gave him a look, and she sighed: "Turn out the two pots of charcoal fire outside."

"Yes!"

Someone immediately came over and poured out the charcoal pot that was born in the courtyard.

Chu night Ning thought, although this palace girl is hard, but it is not a stupid person. This day, the ice is strong, she does not need to directly interact with the other side, falling into the tongue. As long as the two pots of charcoal are destroyed, the yard is the same as the ice cave. Even the good body bones may not be able to withstand half a night.

The night is deeper, and the temple is warm and spring, and the songs are bursting.

Chu nightning is still squatting, legs and feet have been numb.

"Guru... Go back..."

The voice of the old slaves has been brought to the crying.

"Go back, your body is tight, you know the sire. If you are frozen, I am afraid that you will not send a medical officer to take a trip. You should treasure it yourself."

Chu night Ning whispered: "There is a residual body, why not hang it. If you can stop him from entering the Kunlun Snow Palace, I am not enough to die."

"Guru! You, why are you suffering..."

Chu nightning in the dream has been extremely weak. He coughed a few times, but his eyes were still clear: "He has today, I have been. I... cough."

The words were not finished, but it was a shocking cough. Chu nighting covered his sleeves and licked his throat. When he put down his sleeves, he saw blood and blood.

"Chu Zongshi!"

"I……"

Chu night Ning still wants to say something more, but the front is black, can no longer support, plops fall in the snow.

There was no confusion in the ears, like a sudden squad, and like a sea of water across the layers, so that he could not hear the hustle and bustle around him.

He only vaguely heard the old slave shouting in panic, a few words floating into his ears.

"Your Majesty! Your Majesty - I beg you..."

"Chu Zongshi, Chu Zongshi, he is going to die, ask you to see him, the old slave is willing to die-"

In the four times, the set was gradually messed up, the steps were complicated, and the lights were bright.

The sound of drums and the sweet voice of the woman suddenly stopped. It seemed that the temple door was wide open, and a burst of warm air wrapped in the warmth of the room rushed out. Chu Xiaoning felt that someone had picked him up and took him to the warm palace. A big hand touched his forehead and only probed it, and he was stabbed and plucked back.

Then, a familiar low male voice was in danger.

"Why not take this seat?"

No one answered.

The man was suddenly furious, and the screaming seemed to smash a heavy object. He groaned angrily and accumulated the thunder of the thunder.

"Are you against it? He is the master of the Honglian otter, the master of this seat! He is here, you have no one to come to this house? Why not!!"

Some people slammed down and shivered. It was the big maid who used to glory.

"The slaves are guilty of death, and the slaves see the majesty and the maidens, and they dare not bother..."

The man stalked back and forth for a few laps, but the fire did not increase. His black gilded robes swayed on the ground like a black cloud, and finally stopped, and the voice was twisted to the extreme.

"He is not good, afraid of cold. You don't come to report me, let him wait in the snow, you still... you also extinguished the charcoal fire in the courtyard..."

His voice shook with too much anger, and finally he took a deep breath and rumbling in his throat.

The sound of that sentence is not loud, and the killing of it is full of cold.

"You want to let him die."

The palace woman was so scared that she was eclipsed by the head, grabbed the ground with her head, and the front of her face was blue and purple, shaking her lips and screaming: "No! No! How can the slaves have such a mind! Your Majesty! Your Majesty!" ”

"Take it down. There are great crimes in the good and evil."

"Your Majesty! Your Majesty -"

The sharp voice was like a * nail scraping across the auricle, and the dream began to sway and disintegrate in her screams, and the surrounding scenes were scattered like snow flakes.

"How much thought spent on this seat, only to take him back from the gate of the ghost. In addition to this seat, no one can hurt him even a finger..."

The hoarse voice is very cold, but it is because of the extreme coldness, which gives rise to some crazy madness.

Chu Xiaoning felt that the man was approaching and stopped before him.

One hand pinched his chin.

He opened his eyes in confusion, trying to see the person's appearance. In the dazzling light and shadow, he saw a vague face, the man had dark black eyebrows, his nose was straight, his eyes were black. Such as satin, the candle in the vaguely revealing silky purple.

"...ink burning?"

"Master!"

The sound suddenly became clear.

Chu night Ning倏 suddenly opened his eyes and saw that he was still lying in the inn's room, the sky was still dark, and a solitary lamp trembled on the candlestick.

The ink burned on the side of the couch, one hand was covering his forehead, one hand was on the bed, and he looked at him anxiously.

"how do I……"

For a time, it was awkward, and the dream was too real, so that he could not return to God.

"You have a nightmare, and you have been shaking." The ink burned for him. "I see you look very cold, afraid that you have a fever, but fortunately."

Chu night Ning snorted and turned to look at the slightly open window. The sky outside is still heavy and dark, and the night is still heavy.

"I had a dream, and there was heavy snow in my dreams."

He muttered a word and said nothing.

Chu Xiaoning sat up and buried his face in the palm of his hand. After a while, he sighed and said: "It’s about tired."

"I am going to cook the bowl of * tea for the master." The ink burned his pale face with a worried look. "Master, your face is so bad."

"..."

Seeing that the night of the night is not snoring, the ink sighed and did not think much, habitually taking his forehead against his cold and sweaty forehead.

"If you don't talk, I will be willing to do it."

Chu nightning was slightly shocked by such a sudden relative, and leaned back subconsciously: "... um."

The smoldering was also a fool of sleep. He licked his hair like a previous life, and then he ran his coat and went downstairs to borrow the kitchen. Not a moment, I came up with a coffin tray.

The ink burns is not the heart of the people, Chu night Ning came to Taohuayuan to save him, but also protect him Zhou, no matter how much resentment he had before this person, but at this moment, always grateful.

There is a pot of steaming * tea in the tray, and a small jar with Tujia brown sugar inside. He remembers that Chu night would rather not eat something that gargles, but he likes sweetness.

In addition to * tea, he also asked for a white noodle with the kitchen. The taro is sliced, soaked in fresh milk and fried in a frying pan, sprinkled with a layer of frosting, which is a simple but tasteless snack.

Chu Evening held the * tea slowly, and his face gradually became bloody. The white fingertips of the porcelain tires picked up the milky fragrant hoe, and looked at it for a while. "What is this?"

"I don't have a name when I do it." The ink burned and scratched his head. "Teacher tastes it, sweet."

Chu night Ning did not like the fried food, tired of greasy, but heard the word "sweet", hesitated a bit, took a piece close to the lips, took a bite.

"Well……"

“Is it delicious?” The ink burned and asked.

Chu night Ning looked at him, did not speak, and then took a piece of * tea slowly eating.

A pot of tea and a dish of snacks soon saw the bottom, and the nightmare was also like this in the warmth of the snow. Chu nighting yawned and lay back on the bed: "Sleep."

"Wait a minute." The ink burned and suddenly raised his hand, and his fingers licked the lips of Chu’s late night, "Dessert residue."

"..."

Looking at the young man in front of him, he smiled openly, and Chu night couldn’t help but some of his ears were hot. He turned his face and said "Hm", he no longer cares for him.

The ink burned the dishes, went downstairs and fell off, and when I came up, I saw the night, and I fell asleep on the wall, and I didn't know if I was asleep.

He stepped forward and let go of the gauze with a light hand. He suddenly heard that he was late and said, "It’s cool at night, don’t sleep on the ground."

"that……"

Chu night Ning has a long, narrow eye, and wants to let him stay with him, but "sleep next to it" tangled for a long time and can not say, the tip of the ear is getting hotter.

Distressed, he didn't want him to sleep on the floor, he liked him not wanting him to leave.

However, a thin face is so thin that it is clear that even if it is open, the other party will only refuse himself. When the face is completely lost, it is only sad to imagine.

It is better when the summer is reversed. The appearance of the child is always more arrogant.

——But it’s not bad to burn him today. I even remember that when he was drinking * tea, he liked to put on brown sugar. Can he think that it is actually his care?

This kind of thought made Chu Wanning unable to hold back some of his heart was hot, his head was dizzy and blurted out.

"You come up to sleep."

"Then I went to see if I stopped at the next door. I stopped going back to my room."

Almost at the same time, I said this sentence. After the ink burned, I realized what Chu Yuning said and slightly widened her eyes.

"That's better."

Chu Xiaoning almost answered without hesitation, as if he was in a hurry to cover up the previous sentence.

"Go back."

"Master respects you..."

"I am lacking, let's go."

"...well, the Master will rest earlier."

The youth left, and the door slammed open and closed.

Chu nightning opened his eyes in the dark night, his heartbeat was fast, his palms were sweaty, and he couldn’t help but scream for his own gaffe.

If you are alone for a long time, someone else cares a little bit, and he will make him think that it is a rare warmth.

Just like a fool.

He turned over annoyedly, buried his face in the pillow, and fell into a deep self-abandonment. I know that the ink burns like Shi Mingjing, and he is just a teacher and apprentice who is a colder, but...

The person in the dream seems to be clearly in front of me.

The same five senses, just more than the current ink burning seems to be older.

When I looked at myself, my expression was paranoid, and the water was so deep that it was unclear.

"Oh," the door opened again.

Chu nightning instantly froze, his back stretched tight, like a corner bow pulled to the extreme.

When a person walks to the bed and feels silent, he feels that the man is sitting down on the couch and returning to the place with some unique breath.

"Master, are you sleeping?"

No one cares about him.

The ink burned and he said it himself. The voice was very calm. It was like a family: "The next door is still screaming." He smiled softly, leaning over his side and lying on the side of Chu’s night, his eyes. Passing over the person's obviously stiff and stiff back.

"Master has just let me sleep, do you still count?"

"..."

"Masters don't always care for people. If you don't talk, I will be a teacher and I will."

"……Humph."

Hearing the depths of the bed, the man’s cold voice was not light, the ink burned his eyes, and the black-eyed eyes were full of smiles.

If it is a habit to pamper the teacher, then it is a game that he is not tired of.

For the feelings of Chu’s late life, there is never a clear definition of ink burning. However, when I see this person from time to time, I will tickle my heart. I want to show my teeth, licking my teeth and licking it. I can’t help but cry or endure. I don’t want to laugh - although most of this time it’s just a vain wish.

But as long as the cold and snowy face, there is such a slight change in emotion, it is because of their own, the ink will feel extra excitement and excitement.

"Master."

"Ok."

"Nothing, I will call you."

"..."

"Master."

"There is something to say, nothing to roll."

"Ha ha ha." Ink burned up, suddenly thought of something, half is a joke and half seriously asked, "I just thought about it, I think Xia Shidi and the teacher are too much like, Master, is he your son? ?"

"....."

Chu nightning is probably too much mood for a night, and it is full of anger. I was so angry that I was so angry that I couldn’t help but feel angry.

"Hey, I am a master, I don’t have to be a master."

"Yes." Chu night Ning responded coldly. "He is my son."

The ink burned and smiled: "Oh, I said, it turned out to be a son - wait! Son??!"

When it was struck by lightning, the ink burned his eyes sharply and opened his mouth in disbelief.

"Children and children - son?"

"Yeah." Chu night Ning simply turned to the side, turned to look at the ink burning, a face is serious and fierce, not like a fake.

There are too many wrong things to do tonight, which may be suspicious. Since the ink burns to make this joke, it is better to make a bad thing. Anyway, the decision cannot make the ink burn to see that he likes him.

Thinking this way, Chu Xi Ning calmly picked up the dignity that he had just dropped, and Sen Ran said: "Xia Si is my illegitimate child. This matter is even in his own way. As you know today, you know me. Know, if a third person knows, see if I don't want your dog."

Ink burning: "....."

The author has something to say: 咩QAQz is really cold recently, don’t worry about the package.

Then let's see how everyone is warming up~

Ink burning 0.5: Chu nightning, you come to this seat for a while.

Chu Xiaoning: Do you have a queen?

Ink burns 0.5: Come, drag the queen down and blow it up.

Chu nightning:...

Ink burns 0.5: Now you are only here, to warm your seat.

Chu nightning: cold blood devil, roll it.

Ink burning 1.0: It’s so cold, I want to warm up, no one cares about me... then I still drink more hot water.

Feeding Fish 2.0: Nothing, I can bear it.

Xue Meng: Cold? I don't exist, I am young and strong.

Teacher: It’s so cold... You don’t wear a little more, you call...

Chu nightning: [This person is afraid of cold, nest in the quilt refused to come out] ... said what to do under the heating, liar, shameless!

Chapter 79

If it wasn’t for Chu’s late arrival, and looking at his serious appearance, he felt that he would really believe his nonsense.

Xia Shi is the son of Chu Ningning?

What kind of joke, is he really stupid?

However, the face of the master is always unsatisfactory, so in the following days, from time to time, the ink will be accompanied by Chu Xiening’s acting, making a pair of “Scorpio” and “this is actually the case”. “I don’t think that the master is so bohemian. Man", such a reaction.

I have to say that although I don't know what Chu Ningning wants to do, this experience is quite interesting.

The ink burned him three times, and he teased him. The sun was in the teahouse, and the ink burned it, screaming at the round and clear eyes: "The teacher respects the master."

Chu night Ning swallowed a Yangshuo tea and squinted at him: "Well?"

"Why don't you recognize Xia Shidi?"

Chu night Ning said: "It is not recognized, the fate has not arrived."

"When is it time to get the fate?"

"Look at him for creation."

The smoldering look of his inscrutable appearance, the ribs of the smirk are hurting, and he has to make a pity: "Xia Shidi is really pitiful."

For example, when the road is hurrying, the ink burns and folds a branch of willow. On the way, the cat is ridiculed and beaten, and it is boring, and it calls the night.

"Master respects Master."

"What is it?"

"I quietly ask you something." Smacked and said with a smile, "Women...who are you? Are you beautiful?"

Chu night Ning stunned, and immediately covered the past with a light cough.

"Yes."

"Hey? Can you only get it?" The ink burned and surprised. "I thought that I could make the teacher's eyes clear, and it would definitely be a beautiful woman."

"..."

The ink burned according to the hoe, and the dark horse of his own was close to the white horse of the late night, and he slammed it and asked: "Is there a relationship between Shizun and Shishen?"

"...What is the exchange?" Chu night Ning Yin glanced at him coldly, touched the upper and lower lips, and said, "Your teacher is dead."

Did you kill your wife and children in two sentences? The ink burned almost by the saliva: "Dead, dead?... How did you die?"

Chu night Ning no expression: "Difficult to produce."

"..." Hey, hahahaha.

If it is not the case, the ink burns that he must laugh and fall from the horse back to the ground.

This is an interesting topic, and the burning of the ink will not be easily let go. The next day, before the road, I washed a bag of fresh and full cherries, and I packed it in the hustle and bustle to eat on the night road in Chu, and then I talked to myself again.

"Master, can I know who the teacher is, what is the name?"

Chu Xiaoning picked up a syrup cherries and ate it quietly, then chilled: "The deceased has been stunned, knowing what her name is."

The ink burns from the goodness of acting: "The monarch has passed the path of filial piety, and the teacher-in-law is even more ruthless. When the apprentice should also remember his surname, the winter solstice is clear and clear, and worship is required."

Chu nightning continued to eat his cherries, faintly said: "No. Your teacher is not such a laity, do not like incense."

The ink burned and licked, and turned a big white eye. My heart said: It is obvious that you can't arrange the life of your own lady for a while. Actually, there is still a face that says that the teacher is floating out of the dust and not eating the fireworks. The face is still smiling: "The teacher is so refined, presumably also the person who cultivates the fairy?"

Chu night Ning paused, white-like frost snow fingertips took another cherry, chewed slowly, and said: "Good."

The ink burns with curiosity: "Which martial art is it?"

Chu Xiaoning estimated the age of Xia Shi’s rebellion. When he was still in Linyi, he did not waver: “The Confucianist Gate.”

"Oh..." The ink burned slightly. This is to give Chu latening a hole, Confucianism has always been respected by male disciples, although the female disciple has no ill-treatment on the martial arts professor, but never has the opportunity to show up, and never leave a name, so Although the Confucianism women's training is quite capable, but the rivers and lakes only know the four words of "Confucianism and female repairs", but no one knows their respective names, so they are not made to be verified by the late night. .

However, the smoldering is a person who is easily abolished. Immediately reorganize the spirit and perseverely ask: "When did the Master and the Master know each other, and how did they know?"

"This……"

Chu Xiaoning could not be compiled for a while, hesitating, his eyes touching the bright and sparkling eyes, suddenly realized that he did not have to answer his questions, immediately licked his lips, wide sleeves, cold voice, " For the private affairs of the teacher, have you ever asked so much?"

Speaking of the engine, the white clothes went away, and the ink burned far behind.

The two wandered outside for more than ten days, ran several small fairy doors in succession, and searched around the market's weapons and spirit stone stalls, but did not find any clues.

On this day, Chu Evening used the letter to send a letter to Xue Zheng, and after communicating with Xue Zhengxuan, he and the ink burned out of the inn, and went to the market under the gate of the lonely moon to check the situation.

Solitary Moon Night is the world's largest drug sect, and is also the teacher's door to Mrs. Xue Mengsheng's mother.

This fairy gate was built on an island called "Lingling Island", but in fact Lin Lingyu is not a real island, but a giant basaltic back. The Xuanwu Shou, a million years old, had set a * deed with the elders of the ancestors of the Lonely Moon Night, and humped the whole fairy to swim the sea, with its unique scent to nourish the island's tens of thousands of flowers.

The disciples of the lonely moon night have always been mysterious and uncontested. The martial art itself communicates with the outside world very often. Only in the first fifteenth of each month, the Xuanwu will be hugged around the Yangzhou port. At this time, other sects will come to the island to purchase drugs, and there will be businessmen. They sell weapons and stone, as well as some goods that are not available on the island.

However, the most famous one on Linling Island is not the lonely moon night, but the “Xuanyuan Pavilion”. Xuanyuan Pavilion belongs to the lonely moon night gate. It is a well-known business firm in the realm of repairing.

The firm opened twice a month, selling the top drugs on a lonely night, as well as the rare treasures of various sellers. Although commodities often touch the taboo of the comprehension, no one will eat empty and lonely moon nights. After all, the whole spiritual medicine of the whole comprehension is produced from this martial art. From some perspectives, the strength of the lonely moon night Not less than today's first big school "Confucianism."

"There are a lot of people here, you put on the cloak."

More and more people came to Linling Island, and Chu Ning himself lowered the hood of the cloak and whispered the ink.

Although Xuanyuan Pavilion respects the table, it has set up a box for each major martial art in the bidding market. However, since it is a trading place for selling and selling gray, in most cases, the monks often do not show the true face, lest people find out Some of the bottom, or plain white to get rid of the disaster.

The ink-burning and Chu-night-nine entered the Xuanyuan Pavilion. The pavilion is divided into three floors. The center of the first floor stands a nine-petal lotus white jade platform, covering the indestructible protective enchantment of Jiuzhong. This is where the exhibition will be shipped.

With Baiyutai as the core, hundreds of benches made of red rosewood are extended in four directions to the southeast and northwest. It is the most common seat.

The second floor is a compartment, each with a golden nanmu window in front of the compartment. There is a layer of gauze in front of the window. The curtain is woven by silver moon yarn. It is clear from the inside, but outside. I can't see the scene inside, which protects the privacy of the guests. It's just expensive, nine thousand gold each time.

Chu nightning does not like to be crowded with people, holding the golden leaves sent by Xue Zhengyi, the flowers are not a little bit sad.

The servants of Xuanyuan Pavilion serving the guests are all set aside with the owner of the house. They will not leak a little bit of private affairs, but even then, Chu Ningning is still not assured that he wants the best position in the compartment and let the servant end Two pots of snow and cold fragrance, eight fresh fruit and eight candied fruit, four cakes and four sweets, and then people let go.

In the compartment, only he and the two were burned. Chu night Ning raised his hand and fell into the cloak. He stood at the window and looked at the moving head below.

"Listen to the Lord, this time Xuanyuan will sell the same weapon, the name is called back."

"Return?" The ink swayed and shook his head. "I have never heard of it."

"It is a god."

The ink burned and was shocked: "Shenwu? But Jinchengchi is not already-"

"I know what you mean. But it is said that this return was discovered in an unknown tomb in Wanshenling. It should be that when the predecessor of his predecessor died, there would be no children to pass, so that Shenwu would be buried."

"...It turned out to be the case."

However, Shenwu only recognizes the name of the Lord. When the name-giving Lord dies, Shenwu will recognize his son. Even if other people get the martial arts, it is difficult to exert their strength. In the case of ink burning, it does not make much sense to buy such weapons.

Chu Xiu Ning saw the thoughts of ink burning, and said: "Although Shenwu does not recognize the Lord, he can not exert his true strength, but in any case, the power will still be several times stronger than the ordinary weapons. These people will still be eager."

The ink burned my heart: "I understand the meaning of the teacher. Ordinary people rarely see a * in a lifetime. Since it is said that this 'return' was discovered in the unknown tomb, and it is a long time, then everyone Most of them will lead to their own spiritual temptations, in case they are descendants of the original master? Try it and it won't be."

"It is true."

Insinctive thoughts: "There is a hard time seeing God, but at this time there is an unowned out bidding. How do you look like the number of fake hooks, take a high imitation fake to deceive everyone to release spiritual power, so that he can I know that everyone in the room has the essence of what he is looking for."

Chu night Ning Shi Shiran sat down on a soft chair, took a sip of cold snow, and slowly finished drinking. He looked at the crowd of people below, whispered: "It is true. Whether this martial art is true or false, is it a fake bureau, it is always wrong to explore."

The voice fell, and I heard the next generation.

Chu nightning and ink burning down, all are slightly怔

I saw the Golden Gate of Xuanyuan Pavilion, a bonnet-covered monk, two rows of blue clothes flying, the young boy with the head of the jade crown came down, the head of the man was slender, the heroic and handsome, not for the black market. The path is covered.

The ink burned and wondered: "Leaves forget?"

The author has something to say: The small theater "Welcome to the Sotheby's auction, what do you most want to see at the auction?》

Ink burning: a medicine that can make people no longer dream.

Chu Xiaoning: I don't have anything I want. I heard that there is a famous black gold knife next door next door, which can be used to give Xue Meng a god, then the black gold knife. (Oh, I know that you are Zhang Qiling’s wrong place, the next one.)

Xue Meng: Black gold ancient knife (Zhang Qiling, you can't go!!)

Teacher: Black...

Meat bag: Shut up! !

Teacher: Black pot eliminator, I haven't finished yet.

Meat pack: ...oh.

Mei Hanxue: Selling beauty? Since the ancient black market trading line will sell a variety of beautiful people, I have to look good, take it back and put it in the palace as an ornament.

Ye Forgiveness: (Tuen Mun) ... all against the wall, kneel down. Policemen.

Chapter 80

The comer was the sorrowful gentleman who had lived in the same hospital in the past.

Today, he wore a crane with a blue silk embroidered in the blue of Confucianism, with a blue-brown hair band and a silver bead with a beast and a bead. Perhaps because of the unloading of the armor, although the British eye is still in the eyebrows, Added a bit of elegant meaning.

The general manager of Xuanyuan Pavilion will come up and bow down and say: "Ye Xianjun."

Ye forgets to nod and said: "I came to bid for the same thing in the life of the righteous father, and the troublesome general led me upstairs."

"The owner of the cabinet knows that Xianjun is here, and the private room of the Confucianist Gate has already been prepared, and this will take you up."

The leaves of the past took the ten disciples of the Confucianism to go upstairs, leaving a crowd of people in the hall whispering.

"The Confucianist people are here today?"

"Who is that fairy? I have never seen it before..."

The ink burns one side of the heart. You have never seen him. Naturally, there are reasons for not seeing it. I couldn't help but wonder, all the way to see the back of the leaf disappeared at the corner, this said to Chu night Ning: "Master, you used to wait for the Confucianism, know this Ye Xianjun?"

"I don't know." Chu Xiaoning frowned slightly. "But I always feel that there are some good things..." He paused, closed his eyes and thought for a while, still shaking his head. "I can't think of it."

The ink burned and screamed: "This Ye Xianjun was in the same hospital with me in Taohuayuan. The strength is not bad. Now I am replacing the Confucianism to bid for things. I want to be in the martial art. The teacher does not know him?"

"The Confucianism Gate has a total of seventy-two cities, and the staff is scattered. I don't like to move around, and I don't bother to ask about things inside the door, so it's not surprising that I don't know him."

The two are talking, the third floor of the Confucianism door box lit up the bright yellow candlelight, presumably the Ye forgets the pedestrian has already entered the seat. The highest level of this Xuanyuan Pavilion is reserved for the major sects, but there are very few times when it is used on weekdays. Therefore, everyone has looked up and looked very strange.

With the open participation of Confucianism, everyone’s expectations for this bidding conference have been raised several times. After the scene of a cup of tea, the central white jade lotus table suddenly shines brightly. The Xuanyuan Pavilion has a red satin on the top of the dome, a snow-colored crepe, and a pretty girl with only eleven or two years old. With bare feet, pulling the ribbon from the air, it fell lightly on the cool white jade lotus platform.

"You have been waiting for a long time, I am the second cabinet owner of Xuanyuan Pavilion." The pretty little girl smiled and said, "Because the people can see it, they have come to the meeting from all corners of the country. Xuanyuan Pavilion has always adhered to the convention, the best treasures. Give back to you."

The ink-burning ear is good. I heard someone talking about it below: "The second cabinet owner of Xuanyuan Pavilion turned out to be a little girl who was not stinky?"

"Hey, brother, you really haven't seen it. How many years old do you know this little girl?"

"Ten?15? There can't be twenty years old."

"Oh, silly eyes, you are more than a hundred people, you call her too grandma is almost the same, but also a little girl."

"What?! Liu brother, are you teasing me? How can this little thing be a hundred years old!"

"This is a lonely moon night, the world's first drug, what is impossible, but it is a young man who is always young."

"Wow--"

The low-pitched person must have come for the first time. After listening to these words, he excitedly stretched his neck and couldn’t help but carry his purse. He couldn’t wait to know that Xuanyuan Pavilion would come up with something. What medicine treasures are available for sale.

The second cabinet owner did not disappoint everyone. With one of her fingers, the center of Shilian cracked a hole, and a small piece of rosette slowly rose, with five palm-sized velvet boxes on each, each box They are all opened in a broad manner, revealing pills with a mother-of-pearl glow inside.

Someone immediately shouted with a smile: "Is this not an infatuation? What is unusual?"

"That is, even if the first one is sold out, it is not a rare treasure, and you can't use the infatuation pills to make up the number."

The second cabinet owner heard the following embarrassment, and he was not angry. Instead, he smiled and bent his eyes. Lang said: "You are really good eyesight. This is indeed a good love. But as everyone knows, the infatuation is difficult, but it is not what. Very rare things, it is impossible for my Xuanyuan Pavilion to take ordinary items to entertain guests."

She said, picked up one of the boxes, held it in the palm of her hand and slammed the box off.

Although the distance between the people was far and near, but the mirror was prepared in front of them, the details of the treasures could be seen in the autumn, and then the snake-shaped coat of arms on the lid was noticed.

"The cold scale holy hand?!" Someone took a breath of air.

The second cabinet owner smiled and said: "Yes, these five boxes of infatuation pills, each box is out of the self-study elders - the cold stove sage in the Dan furnace. The ordinary infatuation pills can confuse people, so that the users are obsessed with themselves, but the utility It can only last for half a year, and it is very easy to prepare the corresponding antidote. But these five..." Her delicate fingertips will hold up the box and be careful. "It can be used for ten years and there is no medicine to solve." ""

"what?"

"Scorpio, how is this possible..."

"The cold scales are really terrible..."

The second cabinet owner waited for the following snoring to calm down a little, and then smiled again: "In order to distinguish it from the ordinary infatuation pill, the cold scale sage hand will name these five medicinal herbs to love the pill. Just buy the next one and integrate it into the water to persuade people. Drink, for ten years, keep the other side in love with you, and never waver."

A female repairer asked in a loud voice below: "Is there really no antidote after this meal can be solved? I don't like him after ten thousand years, I don't want him to keep entangled me. ?"

Everyone was eating and laughing. The second cabinet owner also smiled politely and said: "The girl said very much, so Xuanyuange reminded everyone here that there is no medicine in the world, unless the ten-year period expires, otherwise it can be broken. If not It’s not hard to get along with it, or you have to give the other person a good medicine."

After the introduction of the book, it began to bid for price. The people who burned and looked at the price of the following ones were mostly women, and they couldn’t help but swear.

"It's terrible."

"Not bad. The feelings earned so much are really boring."

Hearing the response of Chu Yuening, the ink burned back and looked at him back and forth. He smiled and said: "You must be careful when you are respected. You are so good-looking. I am afraid that there is a woman who has mixed up in the dead, buy it and sneak it down. You want to love her in the water you drink. But you are a married woman, but you can't be better with others."

"..."

This person said a joke to him, Chu nightning wants to be angry, but for the first time in his life, he heard that he was good-looking, and he could not get angry. He then turned his lips into a cold line, and he was too lazy to take care of him.

"But I really ate this medicine for the other party. I definitely liked the other person's disappointment." The ink burned, and the five boxes of medicinal herbs were quickly bought. They sighed and shook their heads. "It's pitiful." ”

Chu Yuening stared at the white wall for a while, then calmly said: "If you really like each other, how can you bear to give him such a medicine. You are still small, some things, you do not understand."

I'm still young?

The ink burned over the head and smiled deeply. "I don't understand, the Master understands it. Is the Master still planning to talk to me about the teacher?"

"Go away."

"Ha ha ha ha ha ha."

In the middle of the laugh, the second item was placed on the booth.

“貘香露.” The second cabinet owner introduced it to the cold. “It’s still from the furnace of the cold scale sage. This is the latest medicine made by the cold scale. The disciples of the lonely moon have tried it, very easy to use.”

The monk is quite cultural: "Ink fragrance?"

Monk B is a little hungry: "馍香露?"

The monk is fascinated by the cyan: "Touch the dew?"

Chu night Ning slightly thought, the eyelashes trembled, and went to the five porcelain bottles on the stage: "Xiangxianglu... What are you eating?"

The second cabinet owner did not deliberately drop the meaning of everyone's appetite. When everyone saw it confused, he immediately explained with a smile: "The reason why it is called 貘香露 is because the medicinal material uses the claw-tip blood of the nightmare of the exotic animal food. Drinking in the tea can last for seven days, and it is a good dream for the day. This is of little significance to ordinary monks, but because of the influence of the mind and the cultivation, some of the fairy dreams are constant and rare, and it is easy to stay in bed. It’s a fire, so this fragrance is the best choice.”

Chu Xiaoning listened, and suddenly thought of the realistic dream that he had done before. Although it was not a nightmare, it did make him vaguely uneasy...

The second cabinet owner is still sparing no effort to push her medicine: "In addition, this scented scented scent also has the effect of conditioning the aura and helping the practice."

Chu nightning is still thinking deeply, not moving.

"If there are children in the family who are practicing, the fragrant dew is also very good for them. The cold scale sage thinks that there should be a teacher to buy for the child repair, and the five bottles of musk dew are made into five flavors. The red bottle is Lychee flavor, yellow bottle is orange flavor, white bottle is lactose flavor, purple bottle is grape flavor, black bottle is mulberry flavor. These sweet taste is very pure, tastes better than ordinary candy, and once, the taste can stay between the lips and teeth It was wonderful all day long."

The voice just fell, and a silver sign was placed on the second floor.

Because the second floor and the third floor are far away, the price is inconvenient. Therefore, the price is written on the silver sign, and then the sign is thrown away. Those silver marks are covered with the spell and will be accurately floated in front of the owner.

The two cabinet owners seized the floating sign and took a look: "....."

At the same time, in the room, Chu nightning casually put the used brush off, sipping tea leisurely, the ink burning next to him, could not help but pumping the mouth.

The voice of the second cabinet downstairs sounded up: "The second floor of the Tianzihaoya seat, bidding for 500,000 gold, is there a fare increase?"

This statement came out, and it’s all four.

This fragrant scent is good, but obviously there is no popular love. The five boxes of love have sold a total of 300,000 gold, and the five bottles of dew have to be 500,000. This price is already high.

"Which is the little son of the little son who wants to buy it." Someone shouted.

"It must be bought for the rich family to cultivate."

Some of the crowds who have suffered from the ravages of the fire have stunned their hearts: "The five bottles are packed, I am out of 550,000."

"Xiang Xianglu, the price is now 550,000, and there is not -"

The words of the second cabinet owner were not finished, and a silver sign was floated in the air, which was still left on the second floor of the Tianzi. She glanced at it and couldn't help but widen her eyes.

"Sorry, I have misunderstood it before. Correct it here. The guest on the second floor of the party said that a bottle of him out of 500,000, a total of 2.5 million..."

This price will not be robbed with Chu after the fool, watching the attendant send five bottles of fragrant dew, and I feel that the whole person is not very good.

Two hundred and fifty thousand...

Chu night, he bought a dessert...

Feeling smoldering in a ghostly look, Chu night never asked quietly: "What?"

"Ah, haha, nothing, just think that Master will like this kind of thing."

"How can I like children's toys?" Chu night Ning An Ran said, "Buy to Xia Shi reverse."

"..."

Installed.

I burned my eyebrows and I saw how you can hold it.

The items sold are taken out one by one, and the latter is a rare elixir or treasure, but it has no value for both the ink and the Chu Ning. The two will drink tea while waiting for Shenwu. The appearance of "return".

The ink burned against the window, and the black shirt wrapped around his thin waist. He looked more shoulder-length and long-legged. He looked at the lively situation below and looked up at the Confucian door box on the upper floor.

"To the Master, how is the uncle of Peach Blossoms settled? You haven't told me carefully yet."

"It's not a flat. It can't be too big, it's going to be a stunned snake. The Lord knows the truth but can't stretch it, but he and Yumin turned their faces and brought the teacher and Xue Meng back to the dead." Noisy, a few disciples of the disciples are in the eyes, some people think that the peach blossom source is not reliable, has left. This leaf must have been like this." Chu nightning finished eating a piece of Dan Guihua cake, and reached out Go and get the second one. "The Lord said that you have made a fuss, and you are closing your door after the death, so you can cover up your whereabouts for a while."

The ink burned and scratched his head: "It sounds very troublesome, it’s really hard uncle..."

Just squatting, the Xuanyuan Pavilion on the nine-fold lotus platform suddenly cleared the scorpion with amplifying sound, and the sound of Kunshan's jade-like sound spread instantly through every inch of the gap.

“The next sale is an extremely rare top prize, and it can be ranked in the top ten of the three-year auction illustrations.”

Only this sentence, four dead.

After a long while, like pouring a spoonful of water into the hot oil pan, the sizzling sound will blow up. Almost everyone is exposed to the light and whispering.

Xuanyuan Pavilion can be ranked in the top ten in three years of sales. How is this level of baby? This kind of thing is not to say that it is bought. For many people, it is a great fortune to see it once in a lifetime. Buyers are getting more and more excited, and the tension in the air is even within reach.

The following people are looking forward to the eagerly awaiting, and the people in the box have also squinted and gaze at the lotus platform.

Ink burns and whispers: "Is it a return?"

Chu Xiaoning did not speak.

As the center of Shitai was cracked again, the clear voice of Xuanyuange’s second cabinet reverberated.

"Please take this treasure, the skeletal beauty seat."

"what?"

The ink burned and shook the window with a hand: "Not a god?!"

Chu nightning did not expect that it would be like this. He suddenly got up and came to the side of the ink, and looked downstairs with him. I saw a stone couch slowly rising from the center of the lotus platform. On the couch, there were eight thick wrist chains that locked in a struggling living thing. But the living thing was covered with felt. No one could see what was going on underneath.

But this does not affect the atmosphere of boiling and excitement.

"Butterfly Beauty Seat", regardless of appearance, has already become famous in the world.

During the period of Hongmeng, the heavens and the earth were not divided, and the Mozu and the Terran lived together on the continent of comprehension. At that time, there was a demon called "Sphenoidal", and their strength was not high, but the body contained a great aura. Directly eating the flesh and blood of the 蝶骨族, or with them, can help people to cultivate greatly, people without roots can build the foundation in an instant, and people with roots can even advance to the master. Because of this, the sphenoid bones were devastated in the early days of the war between the heavens and the earth. They were not arrested as slaves, but directly killed meat and blood.

Nowadays, there is no real sphenoid bone in the world, but there are still squats in the sea, and most of them have no effect on bone blood, which is no different from ordinary monks. However, there are still very few people who will return to their ancestors. The flesh and blood of those people are not as strong as the ancestors of the flood, but they can still greatly enhance the monk's endowment.

These people are called "Sphenoid Beauty", and this "seat" has two meanings.

pillow mat. Or a banquet.

It means that you can put them in the pillows, or eat them lively. The former, the latter, depends on the buyer's good.

Those who have returned to the ancestors of the sacred bones do not regard them as "people". Although they are no different from ordinary people, they are defined as "commodities" by the realm of self-cultivation. Therefore, although the sale of the skeletal beauty seat is horrible, it has not violated any taboos.

It’s just a master who is as clear as Chu’s late night, and his face is hard to read.

"This sphenoidal beauty seat is not a lunar month, but it is commissioned for sale. Therefore, Xuanyuan Pavilion will charge 30% of the transaction price as a commission. Please count the amount when you are bidding, and do your best."

After the second cabinet owner said, he made a crisp finger and the felt cloth covering the couch fell.

In the pavilion, the moment is silent.

Everyone was staring at the body locked by the chain on the stone couch, the large Xuanyuan Pavilion, and even the breath and heartbeat were almost audible.

It was a young woman with a satin and a skinny snow. She wore silky long hair, covered in red/naked, wrapped in a layer of transparent crepe, and the full-bodied body shivered slightly, like a frozen new snow, soaked in jelly, shining in the light. luster.

The eight-way chain clasped her delicate body, and as she struggled, she squeaked, but it was easy to locate the beasts/desires of men. Even if you read countless people, you will not hesitate to admit that this woman is a wonderful man in the world.

"Excellent top grade. It is the female sphenoidal beauty seat of the cardamom." The second cabinet owner smiled and laughed, stepped forward to unlock a chain, and before the woman resisted, she flashed her wrist and lifted it into the air. "The ceremonial sand under the cold scale sacred hand is good to teach you to see. She is a virgin."

The girl’s mouth was covered with white cloth, and the poor voice of the sly voice could not be said. Only the big tears rolled down the corner of the eye. The golden tears undoubtedly showed her sphenoid Return to the ancestry.

Some people are snoring and some are swallowing hunger and thirst. This kind of atmosphere makes Xuanyuan Pavilion not so full of monks, but like a hungry wolf, swearing, greedily Staring at the prey.

"啪".

Chu night, the cold eyes of the cold back, fell to the ink burning body.

But seeing the ink burning pale, nails fell into the raft, actually broke the corner of the window sill.

"what happened?"

"No, ... nothing." The ink burned a deep breath, only barely calmed down, and shook his head at the night of Chu, "I feel so good at buying and selling people... very disgusting."

He did not tell the truth.

Yu Guang quietly returned to the skeletal beauty couch.

This woman is the first beauty in the comprehension of the world after his predecessor, the emperor.

Song Qiutong!

The author has something to say:

Meat package: Xuanyuan Pavilion has a slap in the cat, give you a bunch of small pills ~

Feeding fish: But this medicine is not a dream.

Meat package: Xuanyuan Pavilion has the ambiguity to be a cat, give you the black gold knife you want.

Chu nightning: What about the knife? Nothing to see.

Meat package: Xuanyuan Pavilion has the ambition to be a cat, to give you the best beauty you want.

Mei Hanxue: She is the ex-wife of the man, are you teasing me?

Meat package: The auction is over.

Ye Forgetting: Too good, a bunch of people who are obstructing the social order, sealed Xuanyuange to me... huh? Secretary, are you also?

Chapter 81

At the same time, in the box of the Confucianism in the third floor, the leaves are forgotten and stand in front of the carved plaque of the paulownia pattern, and the brows are tightly locked and the lips are thin.

"Ye Gongzi, Xu Elder let us buy the martial arts. If you really want to price the skeletal beauty, I am afraid that the time is not enough..."

"No problem, I am out."

Left and right, seeing the leaves, forgetting to do so, secretly look at each other, they will no longer be angry.

The director of the Xuanyuange Second Pavilion is very glorious: "The skeletal beauty seats are 10 million gold, and you can buy a price."

"One million one million."

"One million two million."

The hustle and bustle of the first floor was higher than a while, and the price soared.

"19 million!"

"I am twenty-five million!"

The six million that was pulled up in an instant made many monks sigh and sighed and shook their heads. At this time, the silver medals of several elegant seats on the second floor fell to the front of the Xuanyuan Pavilion. She quickly picked them one by one, and then sandwiched them between the fingers. It was like opening a folding fan and opened the silver medals that wrote the price.

"The highest in the world." After reading the second cabinet, he said clearly and clearly, "Xuanzi No. 1 seat, bid for 35 million."

"35 million?!"

Everyone took a sigh of relief and went back to see the second floor of the Xuanzi No., but when they saw the lights, the silver yarn fluttered, but they couldn’t see who was sitting inside.

"Three thousand five thousand are enough to buy a palace on Xiandao."

"Who is out of the price, this is too outrageous..."

"With such money, it must be the top ten sects. I don't know which one?"

Chu night Ning squinted and heard the offer, he asked the ink: "You can bring enough money on your body?"

"I didn't bring enough!" I don't think I will see Song Qiutong here. The ink is extremely shocked. When I listen to him, I will call him, and I will be eager to return to God. I am alert, "What do you want to do?"

"Buy her."

The ink burned with big eyes and waved again and again: "You can't buy it, you can't buy it. This woman is a burden. I bought her. Where do we put her in? I have to rent a horse in the future, and I have to book a room for sleep. No, don't buy."

"Who said that he wants to hurry with her? After she bought it, she was free." Chu Yuning opened his eyes and looked at him indifferently. "Get money."

The ink burned tightly on the purse: "No, no!"

"Go back to me and return you."

"This is the money to buy Shenwu!"

"You are not a ghost? What do you want to do with God? Take money!"

"....."

The ink burns is just the first two big, this Song Qiutong, when he saw her for the first time in her previous life, she had worshipped under the Confucianism. At that time, she burned the massacre, and she looked quite like a teacher. After a move, she spared her life. Later, she saw her well-being and smoothness. The temper was also very similar to the teacher, and she finally sealed her.

However, this is one of the last regrets of ink burning.

At the moment, Chu, a gentleman who is cold-hearted, wants to buy her, which makes how the ink can be promised. This woman does not say 40 million, even if the four copper plates are burned.

wrong! It’s not rare to post him 40 million!

The two are deadlocked, and suddenly they see a sign on the third floor, but it is golden.

The top sign!

The highest price tag of Xuanyuan Pavilion is this kind of gold sign. There is no need to write on it. One is equivalent to 50 million gold. Once this price is reported, it is almost impossible for someone to have the strength to compete again. So it is also called “capped”. sign".

Everyone stunned and stunned.

"The Confucian Gate!"

"The Confucianist Gate has a seal sign!"

Chu nightning is no longer going to take care of the ink burning of the money bag, but turns his head and squats to the outside. From his point of view, I can see the first compartment on the third floor. Ye forgets that he is a lazy person. He used the Xuanyuan Pavilion to ensure that the private snowy yarn is bundled up. On the side of the carved bar.

He looked calm and had no superfluous expression on his handsome face. He looked at the noisy scene below and seemed to be speechless. He turned and walked into the depths of the box.

The ink burned a sigh of relief, and said to the late sister of the Chu: "The master can rest assured that this Ye Gongzi lived with me in Taohuayuan. I know a little about him. He is kind, and the skeletal beauty is bought by him. He can't do anything that is devastating."

On the third floor of the Confucianist Room, the leaves were forgotten to sit on the table with gold and silver leaf embroidered satin, and sipped a cup of fragrant tea. When the tea was finished, the sound of the door came from outside.

The leaves are gentle and correct in the past: "Please come in."

"Ye Xianjun, the sphenoidal beauty seat brought you, please check."

"I have to work for you, let's go."

The Xuanyuange maid retired and the room was quiet. The skeletal beauty hands and feet were bound by the curse, squatting on the ground, showing panic, shivering, a pair of peach eyes, because of the crying miserable, the tail tip dyed a faint blush, it is heart-warming.

However, Ye had for a moment to look at her, and there was no distracting thought in the clear and clear eyes.

"The ground is cold, the girl is shocked. Sit down and have a cup of hot tea."

"..." The skeletal beauty trembled, glaring at the twin-glazed crystal eyebrows, still squatting, not daring to speak, not even dare to move.

Ye forgets the sigh, let the left and right attendants take a cloak, and handed it to her in the past.

"The girl has to worry, Yemou redeemed the girl, not for cultivation. You wear this dress first, what will happen and say."

"you you……"

Ye forgets to see her still does not move, looking up and looking very pitiful, so he smiled and shook his head, kneeling down, kneeling with her.

"My name is Ye Forgive, dare to ask the girl's name?"

"I... my name is Song." She hesitated and looked at the leaves for a moment, and screamed, and was very wronged. "Little girl Song Qiutong, thanked Ye Gongzi..."

Downstairs, the ink burned in the dark.

When she saw Song Qiutong in her previous life, she was already a disciple of Confucianism. She wanted to come to her and was saved by Ye Xie in this Xuanyuan Pavilion bidding.

The sphenoidal beauty seat will not be treated as a normal person, but once you enter a certain fairy school and become a disciple, it is another matter.

The ink sighed in his heart, and his understanding of Ye Yexi was not too deep. He only knew that this person was very clear, and he was the most powerful person in the whole world except Chu Jingning. When the ink burned the seventy-two cities of Confucianism, there was a fight with Ye Yexi, and the imposing swordsmanship and the graceful appearance of the clouds were truly unforgettable.

The mighty city of the seventy-two cities, the rest of the city of the city of the burning of the effortless effort, those long and famous, the legendary city of Confucianism in his eyes is not a mustard.

Only this leaf has been forgotten. Only this leaf has forgotten the past, and the seven cities he guarded have been burned for a long time. Even if the last city was broken, this person was * in the bones of his body, and his eyes were clear, and his heart did not change.

At that time, the head of the Nangong Palace of the Confucianist Gates fled, and many people were asking for mercy in the gimmicks, asking for ink to put them alive.

But the leaves are forgotten, but they have long eyebrows and shackles. They look at each other and look cold.

I still remember that before I killed him, I had a heartfelt question: "Can you drop?"

"No drop."

The ink burned and laughed, sitting on the chair of the Confucius Gate Lord's 鎏金龙凤, the eyelashes trembled, the eyes swept over the black crowd, and the ordinary disciples did not say, six or seven city owners, more than ten guardians, they all 匍匐In the dust, the trepidation shook.

In the lead-gray sky, there are jackdaws in the hoarseness, blood-red flags, hunting, and the ink burned and raised their hands, saying: "All kill."

Before the death of Ye Ye, he said a word: "There are no one in the seventy cities of the Confucianism."

Blood is bullying.

In the ink-burning arms, holding the new beauty Song Qiutong, the generation of beautiful women like gold paper, looking at the Shura * in front of him, the soft body can not hold the chill.

"Oh, don't be afraid. Don't be afraid. Later, you will follow this seat." The ink burned her hair and smiled. "Come, tell me again, what is your name? What was originally done in this Confucianist door?" I only listened once, but I didn’t remember it."

"Little girl... Song Qiutong." She stunned. "It was originally... it was under the door of Ye Xianjun... the maid..."

The leaves are the maids under the door. At that time, she answered the ink burning.

However, as a sphenoidal beauty seat, Song Qiutong is due to the opportunity to enter the door of the Confucianism, and how it was accepted as a maid by Ye Xing, and the ink burned did not know. Until today, after the rebirth, I went to Xuanyuan Pavilion, and the ink burned it. I realized that it was originally Ye Ye’s fortune, and she saved her from the tiger’s wolf.

It can be seen that the leaf forgetting was eventually defeated by the ink knife, and a large part of the reason was actually given by Song Qiutong.

Thinking about this festival, the ink can't help but frown. For Song Qiutong's disgust, it is a bit more. I was probably a ghost in my heart, and I felt that this woman was like a teacher.

"The last trade item of this bidding meeting is a godless martial art." The second cabinet owner screamed and interrupted the thoughts of ink burning. "This is not a single moon night, but also a consignment." ”

The finale of each bidding meeting will reveal some winds before the start of the conference. Therefore, compared with the fierce reaction that just heard the "Butterfly Beauty Seat", the following monks are eager to try, but calm down a lot.

The white jade lotus flower opened again, and Shitai held a sun and moon mountain river pattern silver satin box to slowly float.

The brocade box is long and narrow, and the surface embroidered is very fine. The person who knows how to understand can see that the gold line totem above is the most famous embroidered square in Gusu. Open the * of the gods, only this box has been worth a hundred dollars.

"This is the discovery of Shenwu in the mass grave of Junshan. The master of his first generation has been defamed. After my Xuanyuange certification, Shenwu did not recognize the new master." The second cabinet chief paused and continued. "As everyone knows, Shenwu There are engraved inscriptions on the body. But this one has been worn for many years because of the owner, and the words on the weapon have been worn out. The only thing that can be distinguished is a word."

Someone is yelling: "Say so much, don't open the box first."

"Oh, let's get used to it. Habitually, Xuanyuange's consistent style is not like this. Let's talk a few words, then show it to everyone."

"makes sense."

The ink burned and felt funny. He turned to think about a few words with Chu Yuning. However, he turned around and saw that Chu’s Ning Jianmei was tight, and the cold jade-like slender fingers supported the forehead, and his face was pale like a frost. He was shocked and asked: "Master, what happened to you?"

"Suddenly... I feel uncomfortable."

"How can it be uncomfortable, is it cold again?" The ink burned in and touched his forehead. "There is no heat."

"..." Chu Xiaoning shook his head but did not speak, and looked awkward.

I don’t know how to burn, but I have to say: "I will pour a cup of tea for you." He said that he was full of hot tea, thought about it, and poured a little of the fragrant dew that had just been photographed inside.

The medicine of this cold-scale sacred hand is famous all over the world. After Chu Xiaoning finished drinking the tea mixed with fragrant dew, it was better, and his face was not so ugly. He raised his eyes and went back to the bidding downstairs. The ink burned the tea set next to him and gave him a second cup.

“Xuanyuan Pavilion could not know the full name of the * Wu, but because of its coincidence, it returned to the world, and there is a word in its inscription. Therefore, it was temporarily drafted as a ‘return’.”

Finally, people who are in a hurry can't stand it. They shouted at the following: "The owner said that there are so many, you also hang on our appetite, open the box, let us look at the appearance of this god."

Xuanyuange second cabinet owner smiled slightly: "Xianjun Moxue. According to the rules of the repairing realm, after the death of the * Wuyuan, the weapons should be separated according to the blood, and then belong to the rest. 'Return' was discovered in the mass grave, the cabinet I can't know the original identity of the original. But after the box is opened, you can release the spiritual power to perceive it. If there is a sympathy with the gods, it is the blood of the original owner of the weapon. Then there is no need to bid, and 'return' is owned by Angelica."

"Ha ha ha, there are such wonderful things in the world."

Most of the monks on the court laughed.

"Yeah, this is almost impossible."

"But don't try it, don't try it, it's good to try your luck."

The two cabinet owners smiled and looked at the people under the stage. They said: "Yes, it’s always good to try luck. Please seduce the gods, this will open the cover."

She made a snap, and the two disciples who were on the left and right nights were all fifteen or sixteen-year-old girls. They were flying on the lotus platform, and the tender and lush-like hand was put on the sun and moon box. There is a crystal exquisite key in the hand, carefully inserted into the keyhole in the box.

I only heard the sound of "咔" and "咔", and the lock buckle fell.

When the smoldering saw this unlocking, he inexplicably thought of the scene of ‘happiness’ in Jin Chengchi. At that time, it was clearly said that "only the people who love the world" can play a long-term love, and I don't know why the final box will be opened in the hands of Chu.

The people around me were holding their breath, and countless pairs of eyes hidden under the hood were staring at the narrow box. The lid of the silk thread is slowly opened, and the tense atmosphere in the air is stretched to the extreme, like a full string. In the pavilion where thousands of people gather, the sound of even the hair can be heard.

Everyone was staring at the old edge of the box. Or greedy, curious, or appreciate...

Only the ink burned, and when he saw the weapon inside the box, he slammed his eyes wide, and the blood color was faded.

He has lived for two generations. He has had two martial arts in his previous life and has played with more than ten Shenwu masters. For the Xuanyuan Pavilion to take out the bidding, he thought he would have no waves.

But he was wrong.

"The return of the gods." The quiet voice of the second cabinet broke the silence. "The shape of the knife is four feet long and three inches wide. There is no sheath, the whole body is dark, and there is no reflection during the day."

The fingertips of the smoldering are shaking slightly, and the two words are almost blurted out between the lips.

"Not return……"

Not return……

When Biye Zhuqiao was in the past, he would not return for another year.

——

"Ink burns, you got the gods, but why should I let it cover its spirit, don't give it a name?"

"禀师尊, the disciple has no knowledge, this name can only be used once. I am afraid of hearing, and I will not use it in the future."

"A fire, your strange knife, why haven't you thought of the name yet? You can't always call it ‘knife’, ‘knife’.”

"Nothing, think about it slowly. This is the * Wu, I want to give it the title of the world's first good, this is worthy of it, hahaha."

Later, the teacher died.

Mo-burning wanted to let Chu Xiening unravel the seal, and wanted to give his own * Wuming the name "Mingjing."

But at that time, Chu nightning said that he was competing with the ghost world, and his spiritual power was detrimental. There was really no spare power to loosen the curse on the blade, so this thing was gone.

Later, the ink burned and Chu Yuening completely broke, and the ink burned unwilling to ask him to unblock, so the one was dyed with blood and a knife, so many years of vertical and horizontal, but has been no name. But this is no longer important. At that time, no one in the world knew the slightest rain, and no one knew the Shura knife in his hands.

To the end.

Chu nightning is also dead.

Dissipated with him is the forbidden mantra that has been locked in the blade of ink for more than ten years.

That night, the ink burned a lot of pears and whites, some drunk, and stroked the cold blade, I do not know whether it is comfort or sadness. He played the blade and listened to the drums in it, and the sea otters were cold. He was lying on the roof of the Wushan Temple, laughing and laughing, from the pain to the madness.

He didn't remember whether he had tears in the night, but when he woke up in the morning, he had engraved two cold words on the strange knife that had been unknown for more than ten years.

"Not return."

Jun does not return.

No longer return.

However, this weapon that has been used in his life to become a magic weapon, why will it appear in the world after rebirth, and why will it appear in the bidding meeting of Xuanyuan Pavilion? !

Not many people have thought about it, and thousands of monks in the field have released their own spiritual streams, rushing to and from each other.

Ink burning: "....."

It’s useless, since it’s not returning, then since the ink burns here, there is absolutely no second person in the world who can call this strange knife.

But does it appear to be related to the little animal that has been hiding behind the scenes? If there is a relationship, the person will not release it at this time. It is clear that knowing that Mo-burn and Chu-Linning are tracing his traces, then his purpose is not to test who is the essence of the spirit.

What exactly does he want to do? !

Also, is this true? Still like the fakes of Jin Chengchi, just a bait?

With such doubts, the ink burned a little bit of spiritual flow.

If it is not forgery, then it will definitely produce some echo with yourself. This response should not be too obvious, otherwise it will be perceived by people, as long as it is a little...

However, he had just released a very weak sense of spiritual power, and he suddenly heard a slight sigh.

"...Master!?"

The ink burned back, seeing Chu night, his eyes were tight, his lips were blue, and he fell on the table. His snow-colored clothes were covered with smoke, and a handsome face was paler than frost and snow. Falling down, his eyes closed, it seems that there was a dysentery episode, and he was in a coma.

I didn’t expect such a thing to happen, but I couldn’t help but be shocked. I took back the spiritual power of the temptation and ran back to the side of Chu’s lateness and picked him up: “Master, what happened to you?!”

Chapter 82

Outside the Luxiang Inn of Linling Island, the proprietress wears red and green, the snowy wrists are on the wrists, and the waist is like a willow.

Every time Xuanyuange auctions, the people who come to her shop are always the most, because she looks smart and will come, and the black and white eyes will be able to guess what the guests want.

At this time, the sun was high. After the noon, the boss took a sip of melon seeds. It is estimated that the bidding will end after another hour. The price of Lin Lingyu is high, and the general monks will not stay more. Not too much. However, it is a matter of course, the heroes of Xianjun always have to eat dinner and then go, and the meal can be used for another.

The proprietress licked the stained dandruff on the skirt and shouted back to the guy in the store: "Two blessings, rubbing the tables and chairs in the lobby again, and then taking out the basket of the old-fashioned snake-like melon seeds, each table Put a plate on it. Let's prepare for the evening business."

"Well, let's get the treasurer." The buddy ran away.

The proprietress smiled with satisfaction, her sun was enough, and the melon seeds were finished. I wanted to go back to the store to supervise the work. I suddenly saw a black and white shadow coming from the end of the road. It was close, and I found it to be a handsome face. The black sinjun, holding her own in her arms, rushed into her inn.

"Stay in the store, stay in the store and stay in the store!"

"..."

It’s about his awkwardness and his behavior is strange. The second child in the store was shocked, and his mouth was closed for a long time.

Ink angered: "Stay in the store! Is it smashed? The treasurer!!"

"哎哟仙君." The voice of a young woman rang behind him, three-pointed smile and apologize, it sounded like people couldn’t make a fire, and the ink burned and turned, facing the boss’s slick smile. “No. I am so sorry, I am slowing you. My second is new, you have something to find me, I am the treasurer."

The ink burned the dark and handsome eyebrows, and hurriedly said: "Stay in the store!"

The proprietress looked at him quickly and quietly. Seeing this man wearing a cloak, he wanted to come to the Xianjun of the Xuanyuan Club, but because he was very anxious, the hood had fallen, revealing a jug. The handsome and handsome face of the boy, but this is not the most important thing. The most important thing is that he has a brocade bag embroidered with Xuanwu totem on his wrist. It is the sacred bag that Xuanyuange sells to the guests and sells the goods.

rich.

The boss’s eyes flashed in the eye.

Very rich.

Another look at the person in his arms, because the outside is covered with a big cockroach, his face is leaning against the inside, and can not teach people to see the appearance, but the boss's eyes are so poisonous, she quickly swept the snow 绡The gauze robes, the eyes fell on the hand that fell from the wide-sleeved cuffs.

It is even and thin, and if the skin is porcelain, the fingertips are sharp and the bones are distinct.

beauty.

The boss is suddenly at heart.

Although it is a handsome man, it is not uncommon for a man to repair in the real world. It is nothing strange.

"Dafu, open the house." The proprietress reacted quickly, and there was not much to ask. He gave a loud finger and told him, "The most comfortable day and month."

Chu nightning this disease is coming, no warning. Fortunately, here is the boundary of the lonely moon night, the good hand of the good medicine grabs a large number, and the ink burns to the doctor to give the letter to the late night.

The doctor who had been repaired for a long time closed his eyes, and his fine fingers were on the wrist of the night, and he didn’t say anything.

I can't help but burn: "Doctor, how is my teacher respecting him?"

"The problem is not big, but..."

The most annoying thing is this kind of person who speaks nine bends and eighteen bends. The ink burns with big eyes: "How about?"

"But the old man thinks it is strange, so that the teacher is a high-strength, rare in the world. But only after careful diagnosis, his spiritual core is very fragile, even the little monks who just built the foundation are better than that."

If the repair is compared to water, the nucleus is the container for carrying water.

The spiritual nucleus is innate, and cultivation is slowly cultivated the day after tomorrow. Therefore, the stronger the congenital nucleus, the easier it will be to cultivate. However, when it is repaired to reach a certain realm, it will feed back the spiritual core, so usually the two are complementary.

For a master like Chu Yuning, the spiritual core must be very powerful, so the general practitioner will not pay special attention to this when he is diagnosed.

The ink burned and said: "How is this possible?!"

"The old man also feels impossible. Therefore, he has been repeatedly diagnosed many times, but this time."

"I have a spiritual core that is even more than a foundation. This is how it is possible, it is a joke! The doctor will take a closer look, will it be wrong?"

"Old doctors have always been cautious, and if they export, they must have a 10% grasp. If Xiaoxianjun does not believe it. Seeking someone to come to see a doctor's nucleus, the result is the same."

The ink burned.

The doctor said: "It is precisely because the teacher's spiritual core is very fragile that he should be perceived by some powerful weapon. The weapon attribute should be somewhat echoed with him, but not by him. So he was countered, spirit. The nuclear is unbearable, and this is unconscious. The old man gave him some soup, and after taking it, he rested a lot and soon became innocent."

The doctor was sent away, and the ink burned sitting on the bedside of the bed in the night, holding the squatting ground, and he couldn’t return to God for a long time.

Is the core weak?

How is this possible?

However, the old man did not know what happened at Xuanyuan, but he could accurately say that Chu Lingning had encountered a powerful weapon before, and it was not like saying something in Zhangkou.

In addition, there is also "no return", only at the Xuanyuanhui, ink burning only released a little spiritual power, Chu night Ning suddenly emerged, coma. Therefore, he did not have time to judge whether the knives were really the martial arts of their past lives. If so, why does "no return" react with Chu Xiaoning? Will there be a counter-attack on Chu Wanning?

He thought about it in a chaotic manner, and looked at Chu Yuning on the sidelines. I don't know how long it took. The people on the bed seemed to be stunned by nightmares, and they set off a good-looking brow, and the eyelashes did not tremble.

The ghost made the difference, even I didn’t know why, the ink burned out and gently stroked his eyebrows: "Master..."

"..."

"Master...I am a late night... I have lived for two lifetimes. Is it a secret that you don't know?"

The treasurer quickly took the medicine in the kitchen and gave it to the ink.

I tasted it, and it’s really bitter, it’s the most hateful taste of Chu’s late night. The ink sighed and screamed at the woman who was about to leave.

"The treasurer, is there candy?"

"Oh... the sugar in the store is now smashed, and today's has been used up. But if Xianjun wants it, I will go to the street to buy it."

The ink burned and looked at the hot soup, and shook his head. "That's it. When the medicine is cold for a long time, it doesn't work. It's thank you."

"Ah, Xianjun is not polite, what is it to call me again."

When the treasurer finished speaking, he left the room with enthusiasm and took the door.

Put the medicine end to the bed, put the ink on the back of the bed, put one hand on the knee, and go to Fuchu to get up in one hand: "Shi Zun, take medicine."

Feeding him to drink medicine is also a matter of familiarity in the past life. He burned him up, let Chu Yuning lean in his arms, took a spoonful of medicine, put it on his lips and blow it cool, and then slowly handed it over. Chu night Ning mouth.

It is already the second time after he was born again to take care of Chu Yuning. I don’t know how to do it. Although I hate this person, I still feel so nervous when I see him sick.

"bitter……"

Although the people in the arms are not awake, they also have perceptions. They are half-awake and frowning, turning their faces away and not drinking.

The ink burning is simply familiar and can no longer be familiar. He lifted him back with a spoon and said with patience: "There is a bite, just drink it, come."

Said and handed a spoonful.

Chu Xiaoning had half coughed half of his drink, but his brow was wrinkled even tighter.

"so bitter……"

"Sweet sweet, the next spoon is sweet, come and come."

"Uh……"

"The next spoon! Guarantee! Sweet to your unbelievable! The world's first sweet sugar juice found in this block!" I don't know who I am, and I swear by the words of the past life. Pulled out and sneaked around. "It's very tasty. If you don't open your mouth, you will regret it."

In this way, even the scams scammed the whole bowl, and the last spoon was fed. The ink burned out and was ready to get up and clean up. Suddenly, the white shadow flashed, and the face was "squeaky". A slap in the face.

"Cheat, you roll!"

Chu nightning screamed and said this sentence, the first one was partial, and went to sleep. Leaving a blank slap in the face without any reason, half a mouth screamed and screamed at the cheek. Just wanting to attack, the person in his arms snorted, it should be something that was particularly uncomfortable, and his face became more and more ugly.

When the ink burned him, he did not have any temper. There was no candy on the left and right. When he saw the Qiankun sac still resting on the bed, his heart moved and took a bottle of musk. He patted Chu’s cheeks, not light or heavy, and he was revenge.

"A person lays for a while, I go to the water and give you sweet sweet dew."

"..."

Seeing that the night is quiet, the ink burns him, and he intends to let him back on his pillow. Who was close, but he heard his low-pitched and vague breath, and then muttered: "Yes...thin you..."

Ink burns: "What?"

Chu night Ning double eyes closed, fan-like eyelashes can not help but tremble, it seems to press the great pain, the blood color faded clean. He apparently fell into another dream, another horrible, more awkward dream, he shook his head slightly, and it was rare to have a sad face.

"I am me……"

For a moment, the smoldering suddenly felt the heartbeat stall, a strange feeling rushed to the chest, as if a secret was in front of me, only the last layer of tulle covered, he will immediately penetrate. He couldn't help but stare at Chu Xinning, whispering: "What are you?"

"It's me...thin...you..."

I don’t know if the candle is too bleak, and I’m misunderstood.

I am thin you.

These four words, the mouth of the monarch, light smog, into his ear, shocked if thunder.

The ink burned from the bed and the whole person froze instantly! His pupils contracted, and he incredulously stared at the face of the Qingren on the couch. His face was suddenly shocked, and his heart was shocked like a thousand horses rushing past, his hands were pinched into fists, and the blood seemed to be boiling on the eve of the night. In the evening, it was condensed into mysterious ice.

"What are you talking about?...you..."

Shocked for a long while, the ink burned fiercely to the throat of Chu's late night, the twilight tyranny, the childish innocence after the rebirth was gone, "Chu Ning, what did you say?"

"You say it again! You can tell me again!!"

It’s me who is thin, and I don’t complain.

This is a curse that he never forgets in his life. It is a nightmare that has suffered for his two generations.

How many times he closed his eyes, the four words with sighs in his ears, but the people who spoke were no longer in the world.

But this sentence is clearly that the past life Chu was rather dying to speak out, why now he will - why he will -

Could it be that the late night is also born again? !

The author has something to say: I updated it earlier today, because I found that I accidentally wrote a branch bug when I saved the manuscript. It is better to change the text before changing the text, so I have to fix the previous article. I usually don't have the habit of revising texts during non-update times. I am afraid that jumping out of the update will bother everyone, so it is better to change 23333 earlier. The modified content is not important. It is just a small detail. You don't have to look back, it does not affect reading. Zha~

Crazy thoughts make the ink burn a blood red. He trembled, lost his senses, and clutched the throat of Chu’s late night, screaming and asking himself.

As long as he speaks the second sentence, as long as he says the phrase "death and no complaints." That must be... sure it is...

"Well!"

A sigh of suffocation sounded in his ear, Chu nightning could not breathe, his face rose red, and his struggle ended in faintness.

The ink burned for a moment, the red scorpion smashed, and the madness and the clearness were flashing inside. Suddenly he reacted, and he loosened his hand. Chu night Ning fell heavily on the couch, and the neck and neck were scarred. Gradually call back the soul of the ink burning.

"..." He opened his mouth and wanted to call a teacher, but he couldn't call it. He wanted to call Chu Yuning, but he couldn't make a sound. He was hesitant and hoarse, "You..."

The throat is thirsty like a fire, and the ink burns hard to swallow the saliva, slightly slowing down the consciousness. Everything is swept in front of the eyes yesterday. In this life, Chu Ning has never been different, and will never be born again.

Then why did he say at this moment, the sentence before the death of the previous life, "I am thin you."

Isn't this sentence originally a sin of the late Qing Dynasty to save Xuemeng, in order to keep the monks who are false and false, to be forced to say something to him?

He has never believed, and he has never been willing to believe that Chu Ning will really admit his mistakes and speak soft words to himself. Anyway, Chu Yuening must be cheating on himself and must not like himself. Anyway, this master has always looked down on him, and he has never really been to him.

Yanshi, he does not regret it at all.

not at all……

Don't let your face burn, and slowly close your eyes.

He didn't want to stay here for a while, and Chu Ning was born and died, and had something to do with him!

He turned and wanted to go.

I want to go.

But how can you not move your footsteps.

I am thin you.

The cold-blooded face of the blood in the memory, in the end, seems to be somewhat gentle. On the edge of the Kunlun Tianchi, the man was in the pool of blood, slowly raised his hand, and his fingertips had his own forehead. The finger was already cold, but there was some temperature in the phoenix. But at the time, the ink burned that he should have read it wrong.

Nothing to complain about.

Chu night Ning whispered, blood and tears slowly squat down the eyelids.

"Ink burning..."

The man on the couch whispered in his dream, and the slight two sounds made the person being called trembled. When he returned to his own eyes, the ink burned and stood by the bed, holding the bed wall with one hand, leaning over and staring at the pale face of Chu.

The thin, watery lips, slightly open and close, are again in the ear.

"Ink burning..."

At the same time, the ink burns and locks the long eyebrows, and the fingertips snap into the hard and cold pear plate, which seems to be pressing hard. In the end, I still couldn’t help it, hoarsely said: "Chu night, are you really sincere?"

"What are you talking about, are you really..."

The chest seems to be hurting and bursting. Since Chu will never be born again, then he will say this now, only because he feels that he is not thick and hearty from this time.

Is it true?

Chu night Ning is a nightmare, naturally he will not answer him, but the ink burns still wants to wait for an answer.

"..."

After waiting for a long while with his eyes closed, there was still no movement, and the ink sighed and sighed, and some unwillingly lifted the curtain.

But I was caught off guard, and I was on the top of a pair of smoke and rain.

Half a mile and a half, will wake up.

Chu nightning did not know when to open his eyes, but from his expression he could see that his consciousness was not clear, but he was temporarily awake in the torment, and the eyes of the night were still empty and empty. Chitose.

On the evening of the night, Yu Heng is always as sharp as a thunder, and there are few times when it is so bleak.

Less to the usual edge, the person lying there is so beautiful, the end of the eye is smashed, dyed with some thin red, so he looked at him undefended.

The heart trembled a bit, and the smoldering felt that the throat was a little tight, whispering: "You..."

This kind of scene is too much like the past life and his love. The smoldering thoughts are shaking. For a time, I seem to feel that I am still in the Wushan Temple. Chu Xiening is his prisoner. It is his imprisoned male pet. Thinking, I couldn't help but dry my mouth and my breathing gradually became heavy.

I can not……

I do not like him.

Don't touch him anymore.

The embarrassment of the past has passed. This world is just a mentor.

The ink burned like this, holding the bed board with one hand, looking down at the late night of Chu, and forbearing it. The long hair that he bundled into a ponytail hangs down his shoulders, and the end is on the other side of the pillow.

Chu night Ninghe was lying down, long hair scattered, and his expression was still numb at first. After a while, his eyes gradually reflected the reflection of the ink burning. Chu night Ning slightly stunned, and then it seems that the nightmare has not disappeared. I don't know what time this evening. He slowly reached out and stopped in the air for a moment, and finally touched the burning eyebrows.

"I am thin you..."

When he said this, as in previous life, it was rare to be gentle.

The ink burned only a bang, and there was something in my mind that suddenly collapsed.

The heart surged and the mind was hot. The gods that he couldn't easily recall fell apart. Nothing could be thought of. The familiar desire had made him lean over and pressed on the night, and kissed the lips that were slightly open. The hand trembled and uncontrollably tore his clothes. In an instant, the past is like a sea of waves, everything around it seems to be melting snow. It seems that in the Wushan Temple where the soft red is a thousand feet, the dragon and the phoenix are red and the candle is shining. This person is struggling with roar under him, breathing and being humiliated.

"Well……"

The hot and humid glue, the suffocating scent of Chu Yuning makes the ink burn more and more crazy. What doesn't like it, what hate it, what doesn't touch him anymore, it's all broken.

The smoldering only felt that he had not died, and the body that was slightly trembling under him was still his.

I want to kiss him, I want to hold him, I want to tear it through him, let this unattainable, cold and celestial person whimper under him and ask for mercy, and he will go to the climax.

"Chu Ning..." he murmured hoarsely.

The thrill of the topping has washed away the soul, and even the fingertips are hot.

Retaining the slightly cool and soft lips again, the bitterness of the medicinal juice is still between the teeth, but it makes him feel like a drum and a heart. He is too familiar with this person. After reborn, because of resentment, I have been reluctant to go to be intimate with him. But when he kissed him, only the ink burned himself to know that it was such a kind of ecstasy and comfortable, as if the deserted traveler would taste the nectar, like the cold night, wrapped in the fire pond. Hot clothes.

Originally thought to be alive, I should be cut off from him.

Unexpectedly, after all, it is still difficult to control himself. He was so stunned that he could not hold it, so he kissed him without permission.

If it wasn’t for a long time, the clothes of Chu’s body would not tear open, and something that suddenly fell out of the clothes hangs into the ink. Maybe his mind is faint, and he will directly ask his own master. Not known.

"When it is!"

The metal that burned the finger and the metal that fell on the pillow rolled twice, and stopped in the same place.

The ink burned on the head, and I didn't care about this little injury. I only glared at the thing with anger and continued to go back to the hard clothes of Chu Ning. If you don’t hold it, it’s okay, and the feeling of the last life is back. Just recalling the slender and tight touch on the waist of the night, he has a kind of excitement.

But the night of the velvet white clothes on the body of Chu, like the curse, even if it was pulled for a long time, it could not be opened!

The ink slammed into the bed and got out of the bed. He got up and went to take the blade and cut the three waistbands.

When I sat up, Yu Guang swept the metal object that fell next to it. At the beginning of the smoldering, I didn’t care, but suddenly there was a glimmer of clearness in my mind.

He glanced and jerked back to see the thing.

It was a radiant golden blue butterfly hairpin. When he was at the peach blossom source, he spent a few days buying feathers for Xia Shi.

At that time, he personally buckled the hairpin to the top of the ponytail bundle of Xia Shi, and the younger brother who was unhappy, said: "Children will use gold and red, you see, how lively."

The ink burned the hairpin and only felt that the pocket was splashed with cold water. The whole person was shocked.

No... What is the situation?

What did he give to Xia Shi, how could it appear in the night of Ning Huai? !

Could it be that……

A terrible thought gradually emerged in the ink-burning brain. He slowly turned his head back, and the gaze of lust/desire fell to the body of Chu, and the master was already faint, and his ink stared at his face. The lips that were kissed by myself were a little red, and my heart skipped a few beats.

Impossible, never possible.

He felt that he was going crazy...

Didn't Chu latenight lie to him?

Is it not, ... Xia Shi reverse - really is the son of Chu nightning?

This conjecture made the ink chilling, only to feel that his scalp had to be blasted!

The author has something to say: feeding the fish: (lifting hands) can not be all-base? I protest.

Chu Xiaoning: The protest is invalid, let your dreams go.

Xue Meng: The protest is invalid, let your dreams go.

Meat Pack: The protest is invalid, let your dreams go.

Jinjiang Auditor: The protest is invalid, let's go to your dreams.

Chapter 84

When Chu Ning wakes up, he sees the ink burning and sitting on the table in a daze, a bean lamp is reflected in his dark eyes, and some hollow.

"..."

I want to sit up, but I have no strength, and Chu Ning has to give up.

The snow-blue back-printed curtains fluttered gently. He leaned over and stared silently at the ink, but the two fools were still immersed in self, and did not find that their masters had woken up.

This does not blame him, whoever knows his lover, has long had a son with other women, the stimulation will not be small.

Is Xia Shi’s rebellion really an illegitimate child? How is this possible... Chu nightning, he is so high-spirited, which woman in the world can get his eyes?

What's more, if the illegitimate child is true, the last generation of the child, Chu Ning, certainly has this child, but they have been with each other for so many years. Whether it is the words and deeds of the weekdays, or the bed affair / things, they are all with the "four husbands" The word is completely untouched.

But what is this Kingdee hairpin?

The ink burned his forehead and hit the table with his forehead, and it was mad!

He was not smart at all, and he was the least good at thinking about this kind of swaying. The more he thought about it, the more he finally held his head and squatted on the table.

"Ink burning, what to do?"

A Kunshan jade-like sound of good voice sounded in the house, with a bit hoarse.

Bounced and slammed, and the ink burned and said: "Master, are you awake?"

"Yeah." Chu night Ning lightly coughed a few times, raised his eyelids and looked at him. "Is this in Linluyu's inn?"

"Yes, yes." The ink burned up and walked over to the bed. Suddenly, it seemed that Chu’s lower lip seemed to be a little bit broken. Wrong, the face brush will be red.

Seeing that he is not a god, Chu said: "What happened?"

"Nothing is nothing." The ink burned and waved again and again, and opened the subject. "This is the case. The teacher suddenly fainted in Xuanyuan Pavilion. I hugged... cough, took you to rest here. I went to Langzhong to prescribe medicine, and then ....."

I heard you talking in my sleep, thinking about the past, I couldn’t help but kiss you.

But where can these words be spoken, the burning sound is gradually getting lighter, and the eyes are rarely confused, and it seems more and more embarrassing.

Chu Xiaoning heard him look for Langzhong, and he saw him look different, his heart snorted, fearing that he already knew that he was poisoned and his body would become smaller. Can not help but quietly pinched the beggar, mute asked:

"What does the doctor say?"

"The doctor said that the master was affected by the gods, so he could not support it." The ink burned hesitant for a while and continued, "Master, your spiritual core..."

"It's fine, it's more fragile than ordinary people."

When the ink burned, he was still thinking about the fact that Chu Yu and Chu Xiaoning had scars on their chests. They speculated that there was a connection between the two, but it was not like this. He couldn't help but ask: "How can this be? The master is so powerful, the spiritual core will certainly not be born weak, when did it start?"

"It’s been a long time. It’s been like this since it was hurt a few years ago.” Chu Xi’s casually waved his hand, and he didn’t care about it – “Does the doctor say anything else?”

The ink burned and shook his head: "Nothing else."

After the candlelight, Chu nightning looked at him deeply and said, "Where are you, what do you do when you hit the table?"

"..." The ink burned for a while, and couldn't hold it anymore. He simply went out and took out the Kingdee hairpin from the sleeve and spread it in his palm.

"I found this."

"..."

"On yourself."

The hairpin flashed with golden light, but Chu Xinning’s heart continued to sink.

Sure enough, he still knew it. In the end, he still couldn’t hide it.

Sigh a sigh, silence for a long time, neither of them talked. In the end, Chu Jingning closed his eyes and was about to tell the truth, but he heard the sigh of silence: "Master, Xia Shidi... Is it really your son?"

Chu nightning: "..."

When you open your eyes, the blood that freezes into ice seems to flow again. For a moment, Chu Nighting only stared silently at the bedside with a complex face of ink and rain, and his eyes gradually became two clear words: "idiot."

"Yes." Chu Xiaoning raised his hand indifferently, and waited for the reaction of the ink to take the gold butterfly out of the buckle. "I haven’t told you about it before, why ask again."

The ink burned and said: "I am just... sure again..."

Although Chu Xiaoning acknowledged that Xia Shi reversed his flesh and blood several times, but the ink burned after all, he was still skeptical. He endured a strong discomfort and secretly made up his mind. When he saw the Xia Shi reverse, he must interrogate the other side. Don't give them a * kiss, he will not believe in death!

After a while, Chu’s physical strength gradually recovered and he got up from the couch.

"my clothes……"

He stroked his clothes, rubbed it and frowned. "How can it be so messy?"

Ink burning: "Cough."

I was afraid that he remembered some sporadic clips before, and the ink burned to talk: "Master, are you hungry? The dishes in this store have been heard well, and the text of Tofu is especially delicious. Let's go on and taste it? I treat you. ""

Chu night Ning coldly glanced at him: "Not my money for you?"

Even so, but still wide-sleeved, pushed the door down the stairs.

Lin Lingyu's dishes are similar to Yangzhou. They are fresh and chic, and the taste is quite sweet. This is the combination of Chu and Ning.

At this time, the Xuanyuan Club has ended, and most of the monks have left. They asked for a box, but they didn't have to deliberately put on the cloak to hide their identity. After the two were seated, the store gave two cups of Biluochun, and the menu was retired.

"The teacher will look at it first."

"You pick, the food in the Jiangnan area, I have gotten into the mouth." Chu night Ning said, pick up the cup and drink a cup of tea.

However, as soon as the tea touched his lips, he frowned slightly: "..."

Ink burning: "What's wrong? Is it hot?"

"...no problem. Xu is the weather is too dry, the mouth is a little chapped." Chu night Ning said, some doubts touched his lips.

Strange, when is it broken?

"..."

The ink burned and immediately lowered his head.

It takes a while for the dishes to be cooked. Chu and Ning will talk about the Xuanyuan Pavilion with the ink burning. The two leave the scene early, and they don’t know who the gods are, but this is not in the way. When you go out to inquire about it. All right.

Between the chats, the table gradually filled with a variety of Yangzhou dishes, Chu nightning felt that there would be no more information when asked again, so I stopped talking about it. His eyes swept over the bowl of cups and saucers at the table. After a while, his eyes lifted a few inches, and his eyes fell on the face of the young man who smiled a little.

Chu night Ning asked: "Have you been to Jiangnan before?"

Before the reburning, it was natural to go through the apricot flower and rain, but he did not forget that he was only seventeen years old, and he entered the life and death for two years, so he immediately shook his head: "I have never been here before."

Chu Xiaoning squinted, his face was dull, his voice was clear, and he said, "But you ordered a good dish."

"...!"

He said that the smoldering of the ink was swiftly reflected, and his own cuisine was based on the preference of Chu Yuning. It was originally intended to make him eat better, to restore his physical strength, but he forgot that he should not know Huaiyang cuisine so well.

“When I was a child, I used to cook in the back kitchen of the Lefang. Many dishes have not been tasted, but I have heard it.”

Chu night Ning did not pay attention to it: "Eat."

Jiangnan draughts, Linling Island is a crab in the basket, shrimp in the bamboo cage, and fish in the wicker. Therefore, the coffin is on the square table, and the river seafood is everywhere. Liangxi crispy, fried, sour sauce, sweet and sour squirrel squid, squid prawn, chrysanthemum conch, split squid head fragrant four.

As for fresh vegetable meat and cold dish desserts, it is also a delicate and meticulous study. It is very elegant.

Stewed crab powder lion head, crystal meat, chicken juice boiled silk, soup dumplings, Wensi tofu, too many to mention.

The ink burned and dragged, and the second one put the last dish of sweet-scented osmanthus cake on the table, and then quietly looked at the night. Mind: I don't know how many dishes he will eat today?

After thinking about it, I secretly bet with myself:

It must be a crab lion head.

This is Chu's favorite Yangzhou dish, and it is not a problem. When the dishes are well prepared, his chopsticks first explored there without any suspense.

The ink burned in my heart and sighed, this person, always so good to guess, eat and do things, all are not...

Hey. A rounded and lovely lion head fell into a burning bowl.

……change?

The ink burned up, and the face gradually had some flattering look: "Master, Master."

"I have been ill for a few days, and I am bothered to take care of you."

Did he not hear it wrong? ? The ink burns more and more.

Chu night Ning actually told him - tired of your care? ?

This sentence has never been spoken in his life! !

Chu nightning sees the face of the young man slowly rising red, his eyebrows stretched, his eyes slowly curled up, his hair on his forehead curled, shaking twitching. There was no way to help, but the face was still necessary, and Chu Zong Shi took a sip of tea.

The lips are sore...

In fact, in the days when Xia Si rebelled with him, Chu Jingning had already vaguely had some self-blame. In the middle of the night reflection, I will feel that I am too harsh, and it is not a false statement. Since then, he has told himself that if he is to recover, he must not do anything more, and he must change some.

When he came to Peach Blossom Spring, Chu nightned and coughed for a long time, barely asked him, how to make the apprentice not so afraid of himself.

After a moment of sighing, he said: "First of all, you should properly express your love for the apprentice."

Express care...

Chu nightning thought of ink burning may have never eaten crab lion head, so faintly open, swearing: "clear stewed crab powder lion head, the above-mentioned pork belly finely chopped, and shrimp seeds, crab meat, crab yellow, full Rolling round. Pinch the fat and thin lion's head, squatting in the clear soup, floating in the soup, emerald green vegetables, in the red mud casserole, the color is very beautiful."

"..."

The ink burned.

Eat and eat, what do you do with the recipe?

However, Chu Ning felt that this was a patient introduction and a kind of care for the apprentice. So after a meal, the ink burned a dish and tasted it all over the place. He also listened to a bunch of sounds like "Jianghuai food." The story of the dish on the back.

If it’s not the late night, the sound of Ning’s voice is so cold and sound, I’m afraid that the ink will burn off the table.

"Hey, have you heard that? The last lot of Xuanyuange was taken by the people of Linyi Confucianism!"

The curtains were separated by bamboo curtains, and the slamming door that was talking next to them rang, and they were stunned by the ink.

Chu night Ning suddenly stopped the introduction of "crystal meat", and looked at each other with ink and burned.

A rough man is talking: "How have you not heard? Is it a god? The price of 300 million gold is paid off on the spot. It is really a high price. I have never seen so much money in my life."

"Oh, your point of interest, don't you know, except for this * Wu, the Confucianism Gate also spent 50 million to buy a sphenoidal beauty seat!"

"God, isn't the skeletal beauty seat used for raw food or double repair? This is a sacred practice, and the world's first big faction is so arrogant, it's too ugly!"

"Su brother said that the sphenoid bones are a reasonable method of cultivation, not a ban. The beauty seats are similar to me, but they are not mortal. It is like eating the fruit to help the fine, nothing. A good place to get sick."

"Oh, I can't agree with each other..."

The other is ridiculously said: "It seems that a beautiful disciple who is a Confucianist is a young disciple who is a simple disciple. It is called a leaf. It’s a long time to hear that it’s quite a human dog. I didn’t expect it to be a sleepy woman. People. I see that the Confucianist Gate is also at dusk."

Someone next to me laughed and said: "What is there, there is something for everyone who loves beauty."

The neighbors argued around ethical morality and are not worth listening to.

Chu Xi Ning whispered repeatedly: "Shen Wu was bought by Confucianism?"

"It sounds like this."

Chu nightning is not to be sorrowful by the ground: "It is difficult. If this matter is followed, it is necessary to go to the Confucianism Gate to check what..."

He said that the ink burned and he remembered it. "Ah," he said softly, "The teacher is the person who is the Confucianist."

"Ok."

"Don't want to go back?"

When it comes back to the Confucianism, Chu’s lateness is tired and his eyebrows are drawn. He said: “This is a big school in the upper class, but I used to...”

He said half of it. Suddenly there was a crowd of people in the hall. Someone shouted: "The boss, give you five hundred gold, and immediately clear the scene. These guests are all driven out! Today, our little son wants to be a gift!"

The author has something to say: the crabs in the basket, the shrimp in the bamboo cage, and the fish in the wicker. This description comes from Zheng Banqiao, because it is not a special public's excerpts, in order to avoid misunderstanding, affirmation of non-original, and attach the source.

Chapter 85

The voice of the proprietress was lost and laughed: "Hey, Dao is very lavish, and the shot is five hundred gold. You can really call the slaves happy and dead. But when the shop opens to do business, it is necessary to talk about it. How can you catch up?" Are you leaving? You see it is so good, the biggest one in the fog is the special room for the nobles like Dao. I quote you in the past-"

There is also a "瞧" that has not yet been exported, and the sound of the bench and chair is screaming.

"What are you doing! I am in charge of whether you are a foggy house or a turtle house - your grandmother's, this name is getting worse. Don't, don't, give you a thousand dollars, drive them away!"

"Don't give a problem to the slave family. If you look at it, it is the person who knows the truth." The boss did not hesitate to blink and talk, and she smiled crisply. "There are customers, you or not. Satisfied with the return to the fog, I can also give you another room, the place is smaller, but elegant and beautiful, and then send you a song and dance for free, can you see this?"

"Not good! Not good! One thousand five! Let people roll!" The rough voice roared, "Don't grind! After a while, my son has come to be angry!"

"Wow -" Qianjin may be more for others, but for the ink burning of the emperor, it is really funny to listen. It is necessary to know that he used to send some songs to Song Qiutong in his previous life. It is worth the price. Therefore, he bit his chopsticks, his eyes rolled round and swaying, and he whispered and smirked at night. "The teacher respects the master, you listen to this person, and you want to drive us away in the next thousand."

Chu night Ning looked at him, opened the elegant bamboo curtain, and looked downstairs.

I saw a large group of people in the hall of the dining hall. Although they were dressed in uniforms, they couldn’t see which martial art, but each person’s waist was accompanied by a cold-colored top-grade knives. Only a snarling demon wolf. The value of the sword may not be judged well, but the demon wolf is priceless and there is no market. It is not easy to get one of the ordinary comprehension factions, but they all have one, obviously apparently born very prominent.

The guests who were originally eating were all horrified at these people, and the hall was silent.

Suddenly, a white snow flew into the inn. After everyone saw it, it was a glimpse. Then all the bangs were shrunk. There was a timid and screaming: "There are big demon, big demon." !"

The leap forward comes from a snow-white wolf demon with three feet high. The twilight is red and bloody, the hair shines like silk, and the pair of wolf teeth are cold and sturdy. It is as long as an adult man's arm.

However, on the huge body of this beast, there is a handsome and eye-opening young man who is sitting on his legs and leisurely. The young hunting squad is a bright red dress under the armor, and the cuffs are embroidered with a strict gold thread. He wore a pocket, a soft red scorpion fell from the top of the silver lion's crown, and a jasper bow on his lap should be his weapon.

When the monks who were arrogant and arrogant saw him, they kneeled down on one knee and hammered their hands on the chest. They said, "Welcome to the son!"

"Okay." The young man looked impatient and waved his hand. "I want you to do something to grind, and welcome, welcome your dog!"

"Hey." The ink burned and laughed, and the voice was low and Chu said. "He said that they are welcoming the dog's head. Doesn't he become a dog's head?"

"..."

The young man sat in the soft neck of the demon wolf, and looked at him: "Where is this shopkeeper's shopkeeper? Who is it?"

Although the proprietress was afraid, she still took the battle calmly and stepped forward, and said with a smile: "There is a disgrace to the immortal, the shopkeeper of this shop is a slave."

"Oh." The young man looked at her. "This son wants to live in the store, but he is not used to people. You talk to them, I will pay for the loss."

"But Xianjun..."

"Knowing that you are embarrassed, this is for you, apologizing for my desk. If you really refuse, then forget it." The youth threw a gift to the proprietress, and it was a pile of golden nine-turned yuan. pill. This ball can be repaired in the first ten days of the increase, the market will have more than two thousand gold, the boss took over, first because of the width of the other side, and then quietly relieved.

No monk will refuse such a good thing, so please let people go, always say the past.

The proprietress apologized for the gift, and the young man yawned. He looked down on the group and said: "It’s all waste, it’s not for me to come."

I looked at each other from the left and right, and even said: "...the son is wise, the son is mighty."

The people quickly dispersed, except for the late night, and the burning of the ink did not care about money and medicinal herbs. Others took things and left the inn without complaints and went to live in other places.

The proprietress said: "The son, they are gone, but two guests said that the night is deep, one of them is physically hugged, and they don't want to find another place, you see..."

"Forget it, don't worry about sickness." The youth waved his hand, "Don't bother me."

Sick child, late night, ":....."

The proprietress immediately smiled and said with enthusiasm: "The son is really a good person. When the time is late, does the son want to rest or eat something first?"

The young man said: "Hungry. Don't rest, I want to eat."

"The son wants to eat, the shop must have the best dishes to treat, our cooks are best at making crab powder lion head, crystal meat..."

“Breaking the lion head?” The youth is obviously not a southerner, nor does he like to eat southern dishes. He listened to the name of the dish and then frowned and waved his hand. “No, I don’t understand. What is messy.”

Originally thought to be a child of the family, it seems that it may be an outbreak of wealthy businessmen.

The proprietress: "...the son wants to use something, as long as the store will do it, you can do it."

"Good to say." The youth pointed out that he was following the class. "Give them five pounds of beef, and give me ten pounds of beef, one kilogram of shochu, two leg of lamb. It’s almost like this. It’s too late. Eat too much and put a little bit on your stomach."

Ink burning: "Wow..."

Looking back and trying to laugh at this young man's barrel-like meal, but seeing the late night, he stared at the young man, and his eyes looked like some unpredictable thin smoke.

The ink burned and asked: "Master seems to know him?"

"Ok."

He was just asking about it. He didn't expect Chu Ning to really know it. He couldn't help but be shocked: "What? Then, what is he?"

"The Confucianist door is the only son." Chu night Ning whispered, "Nan Gong Temple."

"..." Ink burns the heart, it is no wonder that Chu will rather know, and later, after the night, is the guest of the Linyi Confucianism, the son of the head, he must have seen it. It is no wonder that he did not know that when he was a * Confucianist in his previous life, this Nangong Temple had already died of illness.

At that time, he still said that the son of this head was a sick and half-dead. I didn't expect to see it today. It turned out to be such a sturdy young man who was alive and kicking.

...how did you die? Turkic disease?

Nangong Temple was happy to eat downstairs. In a short while, the two sheep legs and ten pounds of beef were smashed in the light, and they drank a few bowls of wine, and they couldn’t help but sigh.

"Master, is the Confucian style not the most elegant? What is this lesser? It looks like we are not in tune with Xue Mengmeng."

Chu nightning turned his head back, and he still leaned his face and stared at the following scene: "You can't give you the same name."

I laughed twice, and I was trying to say something, but because of the lateness of Chu’s fingertips, his sleeves were falling on his face. The fabric was light and sinuous, like satin non-satin. The touch is warm and cool like water. I didn’t think of anything for a moment, and I stumbled.

Only in the house, I was in a hurry to pull the night clothes, and I didn’t pull it apart for a long time. He thought it was the strictness of Chu’s wearing.

But at this moment, looking at the material of the clothes, the ink burned and suddenly recognized that this is the "ice smog" produced by Kunlun.

The Kunlun Snow Palace is the most chilly sect of the Shangxian family. Every disciple, who is five years old, must enter the Kunlun Holy Land to retreat after one year, until he can produce his own spiritual core. Although the nucleus itself is self-contained, practice is only to summon it. But this time is very long, often for ten to fifteen years, and no one has to wait for it to enter. Therefore, the disciple's eating and wearing has become a nuisance, and it is okay to eat, because the Kunlun Holy Land is adjacent to Wangmu Lake. The disciples of the Snow Palace can eat in the lake every day, but the clothes can't be woven by themselves?

Ever since, "ice smog" came into being.

The clothes cut out of this kind of scorpion are not only soft as smoke, but also attached to the dust-proof curse. The dust is not contaminated. Unless it is stained with blood and water, it does not need to be cleaned.

But the most wonderful thing is that the "ice smog" will change with the change of the body shape of the master. This is indispensable for the disciples of the Snow Palace. When they enter the forbidden land at the age of five, they may have to be fifteen or twenty. After the long period of time, from the coveted children to the Yuli youth, the clothes woven by the ice and fog can grow with them, eliminating the embarrassment of the clothes.

——Would it be better to wear clothes made of this kind of material?

The ink burned and narrowed his eyes, and suddenly there was a cluster of sparks in his mind. He suddenly felt that something was wrong. It seemed that something had been wrong from the beginning. What is it...

"Is it disturbing, what is the treasurer?"

A sigh of anger, but the sultry youth of the singer interrupted the thoughts of ink burning.

Looking down, it was actually the group of Confucian disciples who appeared in Xuanyuan Pavilion during the day. The headed crane fluttered and held the sword. The sword handle opened the curtain and explored half of the body.

"Isn't this the follow-up of the leaves?"

Confucianism has seventy-two cities, and disciples usually do not know each other. As for Nangong Temple, he sat alone in an elegant room and turned his back to the door. Therefore, the group of teenagers swept their eyes at the in-house disciple wearing uniforms and did not recognize Zhang’s face.

The leaves are forgotten to the Shangnan Palace, which can be seen.

"It's really unstoppable, and the store was wrapped up tonight." The proprietress hurriedly greeted the past, while secretly swearing that she had forgotten to close the door. "Several sages go to other places to see it, sorry." ,I'm really sorry about it."

The young boy who was headed showed a difficult face: "Hey, how can this be? Other stores have only seen it. The blacks are all people. We have a skinny girl here. She has not rested for a long time, thinking about looking for it. A better place to let her sleep. The treasurer, trouble you to ask the uncle of the private field, can you give up a few rooms?"

"This... I am afraid that people are not willing."

The teenager made a courtesy and politely pleaded: "Just ask the boss to ask, if he doesn't want it, then forget it."

The proprietress also had time to talk in the future. The table at the door suddenly had a table of Nangong’s entourage standing up, and angered: "Why ask! Go out, go out! Don't bother my family to eat!"

"Yes! The clothes on the body of Confucianism are so good to bring a girl to sleep, and I don't want to send a shame to myself!"

The teenager didn't expect them to be so misunderstood. When they were stunned, their faces rose red and they said: "Why does this friend have blood-sucking people? My Confucian style is just right, and naturally I will not do this. This girl is my son. I am saved by kindness, and you are so gibberish?"

"Your son?" Nan Gongyi's entourage glanced at the elegant room. Seeing that the young master still casually sipping shochu, he seemed to default to his own rushing behavior, so he relaxed his heart and sneered. "All people know Confucianism." The son of the damper is one, who is your family?"

"In the lower Confucian style leaves forget." A gentle voice rang from the curtain.

The teenagers turned back: "Ye Gongzi-"

The leaves are in black, and the handsome face is a little more delicate in the candlelight. He enters the inn with his hand, followed by a veil wearing a veil, revealing a woman who is uneasy and soft, is Song Qiutong.

"..." The ink burned and saw her, and suddenly the forehead violently jumped twice.

The road is narrow, how is it her...

The people who saw the Nangong Temple’s entourage were the leaves of the past, first of all, and then there were a few unsettled, and the face showed a disgusting color.

This leaf is the adopted son of the first elder of the Confucianism, and belongs to the "dark city" of the 72nd city of Confucianism. As the name suggests, the dark city is bred to the dark guard, and the head of the Confucianism Gate originally taught him to become the next leader of the dark guard. However, because the leaves of the roots are not suitable for the defense of the mind, they gradually turn to the main city and become the honor. The right arm of the Lord.

Because Ye had forgotten his identity as an early guardian, he acted in a low-key manner, and there were very few people who knew his name. However, the Lord is very important to him. In these years, the faction has even spread that the leaves are the rumors of the illegitimate children. Perhaps because of this reason, the original card is not the mainstay of the South Palace.

The Lord does not like him, and where can the following followers have a good impression of Ye Gongzi?

Originally as a junior, they could not offend Ye Gongzi, but this group of people are all confessed by Nangong, directly ordered by Nangong, so the atmosphere is stagnant for a long time, or the savage person sneer twice, opening: " Ye Gongzi still please come back. Today, in this inn, I am afraid I will not be able to give you a place."

"The son, since they said that there is no space, then, let's find another place." Song Qiutong stretched out the slender jade fingers, and took the leaves of the forgotten clothes, and said, "What's more expensive here, I really don't." Dare to teach the son to spend more..."

The ink burned upstairs and heard these two words, and rolled his eyes. The heart of this guy was really a weak and pitiful tone. When he pitted him, he now came to the pit.

The leaf was forgotten to talk. Suddenly, a huge white shadow came out from the inside and slammed into the back of the leaf.

Song Qiutong lost his voice and said: "The son is careful!!"

"Hey! Hey!!"

With the bright hustle and bustle, a white-faced demon wolf rushed wildly, and circling around the leaves for a moment.

"....."

In the silence of everyone.

The leaf forgets to hang down the eyelids, and there are three people who are high in the foot. At this moment, the white-haired demon wolf sticking to the ground is different: "Nau Platinum?"

This demon wolf is the mount of Nangong Temple, because it is like a red agate, white hair is like snow, and the tip of the claw is a touch of gold, hence the name Naobai.

Since Nauru Platinum is here, Nangong Temple must have been here. Ye forgets to raise his hand and touched the white velvet brain door that Naobai Platinum came over, and looked around.

sand--

The bamboo curtain was opened by one hand, the sleeves were bright red, and the gold wire was wrapped around the mouth.

Half of the impenetrable face was exposed. Nangong squatted with his arms in his arms and rested in the elegant room. He still had a pot of shochu in his palm. He looked at the leaves and said, "Fun, How can I meet you everywhere? You are so close to me, if you are screaming others about the gossip, where do you let my face go?"

The author has something to say: Wolf Scorpion: Give you five hundred, go.

Dog scorpion: Do not go.

Wolf Scorpion: Give you a thousand, go!

Dog scorpion: Don't go!

Wolf Scorpion: Give you one thousand five! You can't walk away!

Dog scorpion: This world is the seat of the whole life, you can shut up the dead ghost!

Wolf Scorpion: You dare to curse me! *! &*嗷呜呜呜! ! ! !

Dog scorpion: Wang Wanghao! !

Boss: What? Wildlife Epidemic Prevention Station? There are two mad dogs in my store, quarreling, yes, one is Husky and the other is Alaska... Right, that Alaska also carries a Samoyed called Naobaijin... Yes, it looks like three It’s dangerous to get a vaccine...

Chapter 86

"..." Ye forgets what he said is obvious, but he is not angry, and he forbears a moment, "You misunderstood. I don't want to follow you, but the life of the Lord, come to Xuanyuange to buy something." go back."

Moeburn and Chu Xiening heard this and looked at each other.

- Shenwu.

Nangong swayed the red clay jug in his hand, and his face was more gloomy: "My father wants to buy something, what trouble do you do? Is it that I have no hands and no feet, will not do it for him?"

"...Auntie, I don't mean this."

"Who told you to call me like this?" Nangong Emei Yu was extremely low pressure, his eyes were like electricity. "Ye Gongzi, don't think that his father blinked and kissed you, you can be unscrupulous in front of me... Do you want to be yourself?" Not disgusting?"

"I call you this, it is the meaning of the Lord. If you dislike, you can tell him by yourself." Ye said that he was silent and said, "What is the use of anger?"

"Don't take my father to pressure me!"

Nangong sighed and took a sigh of relief. The black scorpion was very cold, just like the silver moon hanging high and the wolf smoke filled.

"Ye Gongzi." He seems to have lengthened these three words. "My father asked you to call me aunt. I am afraid that he will be wrong with your position in the party, but you have to be a little self-aware in your heart. Don't give If you are three-point color, you will start the dyeing house. You know, even if you are dyed in a big red and purple, you can't stand with me if you are born here."

On the face of the wind, the face of the gentleman seems to have flashed a faintness. His scorpion-like eyelashes hang down and quietly said: "The young master said, but Yemou... never thought about it. Lesser than the Lord."

The switch on the title made Nangong a little more comfortable. He raised his hand and drank a few spicy shochu, but he was not drunk, and stared at the leaves for a while, snoring from his nose and waving his hand. : "You don't dare to measure, you yell at you like this, where can you be..."

He suddenly realized that there were many people here, and he almost said something he shouldn’t say, and he licked his lips and stopped talking.

"..."

In contrast, Ye forgets the past, even if he is so humiliated, he still looks down. No one can see whether his eyes are angry or humiliating. He only gives everyone a flat and gentle face, three-pointed, Seven points are restrained.

The atmosphere was at its peak.

Nan Gongyi looked awkwardly for a while, and his eyes fell on the woman behind the leaves. It seemed that in order to cover up the mistakes that had been made, he coughed and chin rushed to the woman and asked Ye Yexiu: "You Saved?"

"Ok."

"Where is she from the original? If the road is unknown, don't save it."

"Nothing, it was taken by Xuanyuan Pavilion."

Nangong Yu did not care about the bidding of Xuanyuan Pavilion, and did not bother to ask, but he was shocked when he heard that Song Qiutong was actually photographed. The original lazy and perfunctory eyes suddenly sharpened and stared at Song Qiutong’s face. He said halfway: "Is this thing a slave bone, or a sphenoidal beauty seat?"

There are only two kinds of people in the comprehension continent that can be publicly sold. In addition to the skeletal beauty seats, there is also a slave bone.

The slave bones are the sons of the human race and the demon. Because people are afraid of the demon nature of such aliens, once they are aware, they will destroy their true elements and put a slave curse on their cheekbones to make them a servant.

However, the price of the slave bones is not high, and there is nothing unusual. Usually, the tea is poured into the door, or it is bought by the wealthy merchants to play home. Since it was sold by Xuanyuan Pavilion, it should not be such a grade.

Sure enough, Ye forgets to say: "It is a sphenoidal beauty seat."

Nangong Temple became very interested, bypassing the leaves, and went to Song Qiutong to see the goods around her for a circle. Then he frowned and said: "How is this thing licking? Product?"

"...when she was caught, she was injured and coated. It was not so good." Ye forgets the news. "So we are not far away and want to stay here for one night."

Nangong was undecided, and narrowed his eyes. Suddenly, he sniffed at the neck of Song Qiutong and screamed like a wild untamed wolf. Song Qiutong was frightened by his act like a disciple, squatting in the same place, crumbling.

"It doesn't matter if it smells like an ordinary person." He licked his nose and sneezed. "There is also a powdery powder..."

Putting a wave, Nangong asked casually: "How much?"

"Fifty million."

"silver?"

"gold."

Nangong squats with big eyes: "Leaves the past, you are crazy? Five million gold, do you know how many top grindstones are enough to be tempered? Does the mother buy me a woman back? You are not the money of my Confucianism? ”

"I don't have the money to spend the martial art." Ye forgets to stop for a moment, then goes on, "I don't buy it for you."

"You-!" The fire that just descended came up again. The Nangong 驷 目 目 , , , , , , , , , , 南How to see how uncomfortable, immediately ordered, "You, the rag on the face, take it off!"

Song Qiutong was frightened, clutching the sleeves of Ye’s forgotten, and shrinking a little behind him. His voice was extremely pathetic: "Ye Gongzi, I... I don’t want to..."

The leaves are rejuvenated and slender, but they are not as strong as Nangong. But when they look at Nangong, they are not afraid: "She is not willing, and the Lord will not force her."

"Luo Luozhen, she is yours to save, that is to owe me a life of Confucianism, must listen to me. Pick it up!"

"She was saved by me. From the time I saved her, she was still free." Ye forgets, "Please also ask the Lord, it is difficult to be strong."

"Ye is a forgotten! You are a good thing!" Nangong sighed and slammed the doorframe. "What do you think of me? Today I am still on the line with you. I said that she would pick her up. I picked up the veil and let you live here. If you don’t pick it, my mother will roll it for me!"

Ye forgets that the sigh is slightly undetectable, turning to Song Qiu Tong said: "Let's go."

This time, it was not only the Nangong who was picked up, but Ye Hao’s body was carrying Shenwu. He said that he could not let him go. Chu night would immediately say: "Go and stop him."

"Good." The ink burned also had this intention, but for a long time, suddenly a glimpse, "Master, stop to let him live, but people want to stay in the store to rest."

"Give us half of our room."

"...hey." I don’t know why, but suddenly the look has become awkward. "I’m afraid this is not appropriate."

Chu nightning raised his eyelids slightly: "What's wrong?"

"The Master does not know, we are best not to stay in a room with him, and he will not agree, because this leaves forget, he is actually a..."

When I heard the key, I heard the following Nangong smashing the table, the cup and the bowl smashed, and slammed the bench, with a tripod on it, angered: "Who allowed you to say Just leave?! I think you are the opposite! You are going to roll me back!"

"..." This is even awkward on the faces of Nangong's relatives.

This is not... little master, do you let people roll quickly?

Ye Yexi seems to have been accustomed to Nangong’s unreasonable troubles. He planned to sing and did not hear his roar. He shot Song Qiutong’s shoulder and motioned her not to go to the back of the heart.

"Leaves forget!"

"..."

"Leaves forget!!"

"..."

"Leaf - forget - the past!!!"

Ye Forget the forehead of the forehead, the blue ribs couldn't help but jumped twice, and finally couldn't help but look back. It was a sip of a jug, and the pupils shrank, and the leaves were forgotten, and suddenly the white shadow flashed.

"what--!"

A delicate pain called everyone to be surprised at the place, and Ye Yexi and Nangong were even more discolored.

Originally, between the electric and the Flint, Song Qiutong was in front of the leaf forgotten. The heavy red clay jug was smashing her forehead, and her blood was rushing, and her pair of white jade hands trembled. After the blood, I immediately fell into tears.

"Don't touch, I look at the injury."

"I'm fine, I don't hurt the son..."

"When you talk, you talk, what kind of bottle are you throwing?" Ye said that he was so angry that he looked at Nangong with a sigh of relief and immediately followed his own servant. "Get the medicine."

"The son, the golden drug is used up." The waiter whispered, "If you don't want me, I will go outside and buy some more."

Nangong Yu did not think that there would be this out. Although the work was calm, there was still a apology in his eyes. He squinted his face: "I, I have it here.... Alan, take my sachet."

Ye Yexi was a little angry, licking his lips and not taking care of him.

Holding a small pill bottle, it was stiff for a long time in the same place. I couldn’t see the leaves and looked back at myself. Nangong’s face couldn’t pass, and the bottle was rudely smuggled to Song Qiutong: “Give it to you, love it.”

Song Qiutong is like a frightened deer. He trembles toward the leaves and forgets that he has never stopped. He is only silent. This is why he has taken the gold medicine and he has lowered his head and hurt his own. He whispered: Thank you, Nangong Gongzi."

I didn't expect that the girl who was almost opened by herself would be thankful. The Nangong sneaked a sigh, and then I turned back to sway and coughed: "It doesn't matter."

It’s the night, and the leaves of the party are finally staying here.

An inn, a few candlelights, clearly extinguished, and the stars are chaotic.

The ink-burning squatting sits by the window, quite a bit absent-minded. Rebirth has been nearly two years, and the progress of many things is very different from that of previous lives. It is always subtle to see the same people doing different things.

Song Qiutong, Ye forgets, does not return...

These people and things that were familiar to the past are appearing in his life again as time goes by. Only in this life, he will never marry Song Qiutong as a wife. As for Ye Zhixi, this person will soon become famous in the world, becoming the second master of the comprehension world after only Chu Yuning.

There is still no return.

When he thought of this strange knife with his previous life, he was in a state of turmoil.

"Master."

"What is it?"

"You have been painting this charm for half an hour, why haven't you finished painting?"

"It's just fine." Chu Yuening said, by a solitary lamp, carefully took the last few strokes of the cinnabar's nib, an extremely complicated Tenglong jumped on the paper.

The ink burned in the past.

"what is this?"

"Chenglong enchantment."

"What do you do?"

"You can see all the traces of the spells around you. If the mysterious man wants to test the essence of the spirit with the gods, he must print on the weapon. Whether the weapon appears coincidentally or his design, you will know immediately. It is."

"Wow, there is such a good thing, why is the Master not used in the Xuanyuan Pavilion?"

"...I wake up the Ascension of the Dragon, you will understand it when you look at it."

I saw that Chu Ning pierced his fingertips and smeared it on one of the dragon scales. The little yellow dragon on the paper overflowed with golden light, and the eyes and tail began to swing flexibly.

Chu night Ningdao: "You are a real dragon?"

There was a sharp scream on the paper: "Yes, yes, this seat is a real dragon."

"How come you can see."

"Stupid mortal! How do you not believe!"

"If you can jump out of the paper, I will recognize you as a real dragon."

"What is the difficulty! You are waiting for this seat! Hey!"

The golden light flashed, and a slap-sized mighty dragon leaped out of the paper, shaking his head and swaying his tail, screaming and clawing, triumphantly flying around the night of Chu, and screaming: "Ha ha ha, ha ha ha, I am a I only have big dragons, big dragons, I have many small secrets, little secrets. I have many secrets, I will not tell you, I will not tell them, I will not tell you, complain, you!"

Chu nightning used the eyes of the pair of Qingruo icy lake to glance at the little muddy coldly, covered it with his hands and covered it on the table, and said to the inkless expression: "Do you understand?"

"understood……"

"Let me go! You stupid mortal! You have to mess with this seat!"

Chu Xiaoning raised his hand and took a look at its reverse scale, which was the blood-stained scale: "Shut up, work."

Chapter 87

Xiaolong came to the wind like a wind, only a cup of tea kung fu, he slammed back from the window, his mouth shouted: "Check it, find it, there are many spell marks in this inn, wow hahaha."

"Small loach, you shout so loudly, are you not afraid that you can't hear what you are talking about next door?" The ink burned to the table and stretched out his fingers to lick the dragon's body. The dragon tail sneaked and patted on the back of his hand. But after all, it is made of paper, not only does it hurt, but it is itchy.

"You are annoying little white face, don't touch this seat, this seat is not yet married, let you touch it, how do you do the dragon in the future?"

The ink burned and laughed: "What? You have a dragon made of paper, but also a wedding?"

"Wow-! Hey! You are the one doing it! Dog stuff!"

"How come you also call me a dog thing, you should not be the surname Xue?"

"This family name is Xue? 哼, the boy is ignorant, this seat is the dragon of the title that is unprecedented in the world. It is the day of the eye, the eyes are closed for the night, the breath is for the summer, and the breath is for the winter. , the candle nine yin is also!"

"...I don't understand."

"Wow, yeah!" Xiaolong gasped straight, took his two-finger wide head to hit the candlestick, hit the lights, and the red tears swayed. The ink burned and helped, and the partial hand was stretched over by the dragon. Unfortunately, the paper teeth were not painful, and the candle was thrown aside by the ink and the tail was slammed into the night. , hoes and brains.

"Chu Ning Ning." Xiaolong softly lifted a whisker, and poked the poem of Chu Yuning with anger. "The dog thief beat me."

Chu night Ning was too lazy to talk nonsense with him, took him down and took it on the table: "What are the enchantments outside?"

"Hey, can you dare to call the three-headed dragon prince? You call this seat-"

Chu night Ning stared at him coldly: "said."

"..."

The dragon was slain, the body of the gas swelled, the dragon had to rush to the sky, and a pair of mung bean eyes stunned and scorned Chu, and the noble dragon mouth was half-opened, screaming out, and after a while, wow spit out A big mouthful of ink comes.

Chu nightning narrowed his eyes: "You have to waste your pen and ink, I will burn you." Then he went to mention its tail, and made a move to bring it to the fire, "Let you become a real candle dragon."

"Good! You are amazing! You are amazing! I said! I said that it is not enough? Really!"

The dragon screamed for a few times, and spit out some ink stars, and did not whisper: "It’s murderous, it’s no wonder that for so many years, every time I see you, there is no wife!"

"Hey?" The ink burned and blinked, and I stole to see the night of Ning, and smirked with a bad intention. "Isn't the Master respected a teacher?"

"..." Chu nightning does not blame him, the sword eyebrows sink, yelled at Xiaolong, "I have more words, not fast!"

"Hey! Stinky man!"

On the rice paper that had been laid out long ago, Xiaolong used the ink to condense the ink on the claws, and smashed the dog crawler on the paper end.

No wonder he can't directly dictate which spells he saw, because the paper mind bag has limited intelligence, and it is impossible to distinguish the original curse by just the remaining marks. He has to wipe out what he saw by the gourd painting. Fortunately, Chu will be able to recognize and discern, and sighs and squints, and slowly names the name of each spell.

Xiaolong painted a crescent moon.

Chu nightning: "Anzheng. There is insomnia here."

Xiaolong painted a seven-star array.

"Star Yu. Here someone has set up a guardianship defense."

Xiaolong drew a rouge box.

"...rejuvenate."

The ink screamed and laughed. "I know this, the little curse of the little girl's beauty at night, is that sphenoidal beauty seat?"

Chu late rather did not comment, it seems that because even a few paintings are so indifferent to the traces of the curse and some heart, his slender fingers smashed twice on the wooden table, squinting: "Draw the next one."

Xiaolong painted another heart.

Ink burns: "What is this?"

"Clear heart." Chu night Ning annoyed, "useless, someone is meditating. Next."

Xiaolong painted another dog's head.

".....Tame of the beast..." Chu nightning held his forehead. "You, pick an important painting, this kind of face, teasing, sleeping, don't draw. Next ""

Xiaolong looked up and said, "You are really picky!"

"painting!"

Afraid to be thrown into the candlestick to become a real "candle dragon", the paper-headed dragon was only arrogantly holding two small soft claws and smeared it on the paper. This time, he painted a very complicated formation, and at first glance People feel very mysterious and profound.

"It looks like two circles, then another fork, and then another vertical bar straight down. A little yin and yang gossip." The ink burns his eyes, "Master, this will not be a mysterious person to stay." On the weapon..."

"No." Chu Xiaoning only glanced at it, and the forehead had some pain, "transmission."

"Oh? What?"

"Someone is naturally dissatisfied with their voice, or for other needs, want to change their voice, the sound can be done, it is not a very difficult technique." Chu night Ning paused, said, "but The use of transliteration for a long time is detrimental to the throat, and it is often difficult to revert to the original voice... This spell is awkward and I don't know who is using it."

The ink burned, but he smiled: "This way, that's not surprising."

Chu night Ning sighed, just want to say the next one, suddenly a glimpse, seems to think of something, the fog in the eyelids, suddenly suddenly went to see the ink.

"Why not strange... Do you know anything?"

"I can know what, I just feel that someone is dissatisfied with his voice. This is normal. Maybe it is the Song girl. Maybe she was originally hoarse, especially ugly, want to be pleasing to the ear?"

"....." Chu night Ning squats, "I think about it all day." Turning head and said to Xiaolong: "Look at the next one."

Xiaolong drew another heart.

Ink ignited: "Oh, the Master does not say that the heart is not painted?"

"Hey, little kids, what do you know?" Xiaolong glanced at him with anger, took a sharp shot of his tail, took an ink print on his heart, and then grinded it, turning the whole heart Blackened.

"What is this? Black heart?"

Chu night is rather awkward, silent for a while: "No. It should be love."

"what is that?"

"It’s similar to the kind of love that will be sold by Xuanyuan." Chu said, "I am tempted by people, and they make people feel love for themselves, and so on. They are generally used by women."

The ink burned his eyes sharply: "No? It won't be Song Qiutong..."

"How do I know this kind of thing." Chu Xiaoning looked very embarrassed, and looked at the wide sleeves. "Those things about other people’s feelings, how to do so, they have to mess, they have to go."

"But it’s late in the night, is this love you really not interested?" Xiaolong said with a happy tail. "I think this spell is interesting. If you are willing to call me three dragons, I will..."

Chu Xiaoning lowered his eyes and murdered his breath: "Shut up and draw the next one."

"Hey! You will regret it!"

"Do you draw or not?"

The dragon did not draw, and sat down and scratched his belly with short claws.

Chu night Ningyin cold road: "Why, is it not ink?"

"Stupid, no more." Xiaolong rolled his eyes. "I have painted so many spells. You are not enough. Nothing is gone. It’s so much. In addition to these, this inn is clean, what? There are no spells."

Listening to it, Chu nightning and ink burning look are slightly changed, ink burning: "This is gone?"

"Nothing."

Chu night Ningdao: "There is no curse to measure the roots?"

"No."

The mentor and the teacher looked at each other and had an unbelievable look on each other's faces. You must know that if the mysterious person wants to find a new spiritual essence through Xuanyuan, he must leave a measurement curse on Shenwu. But now it seems that the * is clean and there is no curse. Attachment - Could it be that they misunderstood from the beginning, and the emergence of this strange knife, in fact, has nothing to do with the mysterious people?

Xiaolong saw that the two were silent, and they slammed into the air, and circled left and right. They said, "Hey, you are the reasoning of this seat. The paintings are very tired. Does anyone give this seat a hand?"

Xu is a late night in the heart of Chu, and he is so annoyed, seeing it is so noisy, simply swinging his sleeves and raising his hand, the volley calls out a yellow charm, Xiaolong sees it, screams, shouting again and again: "I don't want me not to want me not to I don't want to!!" But in the blink of an eye, I was sucked in by the spirits and became a picture on paper. Chu night, the tip of the finger was clicked again, and the dragon on the painting slowly disappeared.

Before it disappeared, it succumbed to the humiliation of Chu.

Chu night Ningdao: "I will call you again."

Xiaolong burst into tears and said: "There is nothing to do with the clock, no matter what summer Yingchun, Chu nightning, Chu nightning, you are so sweet..."

"Go back to you!" Chu Jingning, who was still talking to it, heard the words, the black-browed anger was vertical, and the slamming of the spell was folded flat and the sleeves were retracted.

At night, Chu night is sleeping in bed, and the ink burns to sleep.

Both of them have some problems.

I didn't think that there was no spell on the gods. It was the mysterious person who mastered the method of measuring the roots that they did not know, or was the man not in a hurry, and did not intend to find all the most powerful people now?

"Ink burning."

In the dark night, he called him.

The ink burned naturally and said: "Well?"

"We will return to the top of life tomorrow."

I suddenly opened my eyes.

"what?"

"That people can even miss the Xuanyuan meeting. It should be another way to find it. This will not lead to a result. We will return to the top of life, and I will let the Lord’s secret letter to the other nine sects. Check if there is any spiritual essence under your own door. If it is, then it will be protected first. It is better to wait for the rabbit."

"How is this going? In case the mysterious person is one of the top ten sects?"

"It may be very small. Even if it doesn't matter, he already knew that we were tracing him, not bad."

"How can the Master teach those heads to listen to the uncle's words?" The ink burned and said, "Is it difficult, the Master must tell them everything?"

"This is not necessary, and they may not believe." Chu night Ning faintly said, "I have his own law."

Ink burned curiously: "What method?"

"Accepted."

"!!"

"I will tell the Lord that I will tell the other nine sects. There are often gaps in the ecstasy of the ghost world, which is harmful to the Quartet. Yu Yuheng of the dead will receive up to five disciples and teach the enchantment and killing. Enchantment and other methods." Chu night quietly, "Those sects have repeatedly invited me to the singer, for these enchantments. If I go out and are willing to teach, I am not afraid that they will not come. I only In order to pick up talents, those who are in charge of the selection of talents will inevitably have to test the roots of all the disciples under the door. Our goal is achieved."

The ink burned but did not agree. In the darkness, the face was green: "You, are you going to accept the apprentice?"

"Follow the edge."

Chu night Ning turned over, it seems that finally a little sleepy, the voice went down.

"I asked them to report their names first, and then let them practice ordinary enchantment. After three years, if some of them can persist, then accept it..."

In the darkness, I heard the words of the person on the couch gradually getting confused. The ink burned only when the chest turned over a vinegar jar, so his heart hurt.

Also accepting?

You only received three in the past life, and you are very picky. Why didn’t you pick this life? How can I collect it?

I wanted to talk to him several times, but when I got to my lips, I became silent.

Chu night Ning suddenly did not know the flaming vinegar sea waves, and finally fell asleep.

It was very cold at night, and the smoldering cloak got up and called him three or two times. When he saw that he did not respond, he quietly pushed the door out of the bedroom.

The inn's walkway was quiet, only a few red silk lanterns were quietly shimmering, reflected on the wooden floor, a round rim-like orange reflection.

Although Chu Evening has already experienced Shenwu.

But the ink burned, but he has not yet tested his return.

You must know that if you are within a hundred feet of the master, you can cast a spell to recall yourself. At that time, there was no time in the Xuanyuan Pavilion to perceive whether this was a weapon of his past life. At this time, how can I miss this opportunity?

A layer of blood red light floats on your fingertips.

Slowly, the ink burns low: "No return, call!"

A few blessings, a dull squeaking sound rang in the distance, the sound was extremely light, but it was a direct shock to the eardrum, like a heavy hammer licking his heart.

The ink burned openly and squinted: "No return!"

It is not returning, the knives are arguing, crying in the blood, and the low-pitched drinking is like a heavy * wave, rolling red dust, running toward him. He could hear no crying, screaming in hoarseness, it was trapped, and was banned by something that was not known to burn.

It can feel that the master is calling him, but he can't come, he has something missing, and he is connected with it.

However, they once had a contract. They had seen the high mountains and rivers embroidered together, and they had waited together to die, and heard the last temperature of the Wushan Temple.

The human and the gods are broken, and the flesh and blood are torn apart by some kind of force, but the veins are still connected.

The ink burns his eyes wet red, muttering: "No return..."

It's you.

Why can't you come back.

Who is blocking you.

Yes……

"Oh,"

Gently push the sound.

But in this unstoppable darkness, it is like a thunderstorm.

The author has something to say: Master: I wish you all a happy Christmas Eve.

Dog: The Year of the Rooster!

Peacock: What is upstairs! I am here to give you a good old age!

Teacher: I haven’t arrived yet, let’s say Merry Christmas first~

Wolf Scorpion: With the same white gold, I wish you a happy Year of the Dog!

Ye Forgiveness: How do I feel that the Year of the Dog is pleasant to sound like a monk...

Mei Hanxue: I wish you all the best every day. ^_^

Little Paper Dragon: There is nothing to do with the fact that there is nothing to do with Xia Yingchun! Chu night, you are a thin lover! You will let me out! ! !

Chapter 88

Look up and look at the sound.

A man in a black brocade with a golden cloak appeared at the end. He was tall and tall, covered in cloth, and even his face was covered with black gauze, revealing only a pair of eyes that could not be seen too clearly in the dark.

The man’s hand holds a knife.

The narrow-cut blade is dark and unacceptable.

Not return.

"Who!"

"Who I am, it doesn't matter." The man said coldly, the voice was very weird, like a deliberately distorted one. "You just know that I know you."

The ink burns, but still calms and squats.

"I am just a disciple of death and death. Do you know what I am doing, is it interesting?"

"Don't be a disciple of death and death? Oh, yes, but you have forgotten, you are also stepping on the immortal king, the emperor of the human world, the devil who killed the teacher, and the soul of the escape from Huangquan."

Every time he says a word, the blood that burns his body is even more ice-inch.

The whole person is like falling into an ice cave.

Step on the fairy.

Slaughtered in the 72 cities of Confucianism.

The Emperor of the People.

He married the most beautiful woman in the world, killing the teacher and killing the pro, and reaching the top.

The man said coldly: "You are, ink is raining."

Light rain.

Ten evils, eternal death can not be super-born.

In the light rain, the corpse will be smashed in the dead and dying, and you will dig your eyes and die.

"who are you!!"

The ink-burning eyes are red, and the childishness of the face is gone. The only remaining evil spirits are like the evil spirits. The man at the end of the walkway is screaming, and the next moment will lock the other’s throat. Shred the names that he never wants to hear, in the throat!

The man lifted the hand wrapped in black crepe, the long walkway, and the layers of ice crystals were condensed in a moment, completely separating the space between them.

"You can't summon this knife now." The man slowly walked over and stopped in front of him for more than ten steps. "The emperor of the world... Maybe it’s better to call you now? It’s ridiculous, you can Have you seen yourself now?"

"A heart is no longer as cold as iron, and it is really good for him to follow him."

"Rebirth, rebirth, the person who said in the past to protect, where is he?"

The smoldering face changes: "What is your teacher?! What did you do to the teacher?!"

The man did not answer, just sneered: "Know why you can't recall it?" His fingertips slowly stroked the thick blade. "Only, your soul will change, hate, will dissipate...you Before you die, you can't keep your life innocent, and you can't help him if you have a future.

The pair of sharp eyes suddenly lifted up.

"Ink burn, have you done it?!"

"I--"

"The ghost world will be broken. In the past, you have to repeat the same mistakes. You have to look at him again and again, and then ask for a late night." You are living the opportunity to return to this world. You don't deserve to return."

"You don't have to say it!" Ink angered, "I am not involved with the teacher, I can't take it by others! You know that I am the body of rebirth, who are you? Falsely Chen? Or which one is as dead as I am? Old ghost!"

"Oh..." The man chuckled, "The old ghost who died and resurrected... Yes, I am the old ghost who died and resurrected. Otherwise, you think that nowadays this world, you have to be the one who cares about the rebirth, is there only one?" ?"

who is it!

There was a faint face in the brain.

Those who died before his death in his previous life.

Xue Zhengyi, Mrs. Wang, Chu Xinning, Song Qiutong, Ye Forget...

Or the people who forced him to bury the Wushan Temple in the past.

Xue Meng, Mei Hanxue, the dagger of the top ten sects...

Who is it... who is it! ! !

Who knows his secrets and grabs his seven inches. These are separated by a life-and-death disenchantment. Who is going through Huang Quan and is going to push him to the road! who is it!

It was only in a moment that the moment was suddenly moved, and the man’s clothes fluttered and flew to him. After this person was born again, the strength was still so strong, and the ink was suddenly shocked.

The blade that does not return is already on his chest, and a little force can pierce the flesh and blood and damage the heart.

"Ink rain, I thought you were a kind of infatuation, but maybe you are a good brother, you are alive, you still haven't put him in your eyes."

Ink burns the teeth: "nonsense."

"I gibberish?" The man sneered, sneering into the burning throat, slowly sliding down and falling to his chest. "How much position can you leave for him in your heart? You miss it a little, I am afraid It’s already gone, is there any left?”

Ink burned and said: "Who is in my heart, can't I know more than you? If you have so many words, why don't you take the veil and see it!"

"If you want to see me, you are not in a hurry." The voice of the man was like a smoke, and his eyes were very ethereal. He seemed to be ridiculed with some ignorance. "When you are going to die in this life, I will Give you something."

"You are going to die, you -"

When the words were not finished, I suddenly felt a bit of cold and biting. When the ink burned down, the man’s ice thorn did not know when he had climbed his body.

Ice curse, ice thorn...water attribute...

Who is it, who in the past will apply such a spell...

There are too many opponents, and when I am anxious to remember, my mind is a mess.

Xue Meng, fire.

Chu night, gold, wood.

Leaves forget, earth.

Xue Zhengyi, soil.

Who is it, how can you not think of who has such a powerful force to control the ice.

"You said it is good, I am also dying. However, the ink is raining, it must be a long time and a long time."

Xuan Bing quickly frozen the whole body.

The strength of this man is terrible. The ink burns a little bit of spiritual power against the ice, and he feels a arrogant force rushing toward him.

In front of this person, the strength is not even under the night of the night! !

Water properties.

Who! !

Between the electric and the flint, it seems to have flashed a vague face, but he still has to think about it, and the throat is caught by the man.

The tip of the finger covered with black yarn rubbed his throat, and the person's eyes were dark and not bright.

"My life count, I will not worry about the Emperor," he said slowly. "Or let me call you back some life and friendship, lest you not do business, bad me."

"Well--!"

Slamming.

Not sorrowful and sorrow cut through the flesh and blood of the former master.

"The wound is not deep, just take your blood and make a seal."

The man really only had some blood on his wound, and then he clicked on his eyebrows and muttered.

The ink burns only feels a sharp pain in the head, and swears loudly: "Fuck, you, mother! Have you been stuffed with me for the rest of your life or was your mother killed me by the ancestors? You are awkward, what are you going to do!" ”

"Oh, don't move. Good heart curse."

"I am a mother who is a good mantra or a disgusting mantra. Can you not disgust me? Go away!!"

"The ink burns." The man slowly sighed in his eyebrows and sighed softly. "How can you bear to let me go away." After a pause, he muttered the curse. "The heart is not water, meaning Can't stop, the heart...opens."

Sudden cramps in the chest!

"you……"

The ice curse is lifted, the ink burns and is unstable, and the face is white and slowly squatting on the ground.

"You still don't thank me." The black man lowered his eyes and looked indifferent. He glared at him for a while, faintly said, "I will expand your heart's emotions and expand them. If you love it, you will be more distinct. So, you Can you always see your heart? If you don’t know how to do it for you, you can’t stop, then you...it’s really useless, but just abandon!”

It turns out that this kind of charity is to make the love and hate in the heart stronger and more vivid.

Why is this person so bothered to save his life?

Water properties...

This is the last few confusing thoughts that flashed in his mind before his consciousness returned.

"Plop", the ink fell to the ground, and the two curtains were thick and deep. The black man looked at him coldly for a while, then slowly leaned over, first explored his pulse, and after a moment of indifference, he raised his hand again, and his palms condensed a blue glow.

"All forget."

The black man whispered out these two words. The blue light is even worse, and the ink-burning eyebrows are slowly loosened.

When he wakes up, he will only remember to go out and summon the gods, but the gods will not come. The rest of the matter will never be remembered. He will not know that there is another person born again in the world.

The utility of the Charity Mantra can only last for a few days, but it can well point the way to the people in the confusion.

"Emotions are expanding. I am afraid that when you wake up, you will find yourself more and more like Shi Mingjing. I like to want to dig out my heart and give it to him." The black man said coolly.

"See you, step on the emperor."

After a night of turmoil, everything was fixed. On the second morning, the ink burned open and found that he was still lying on the bedside of the night. He turned his head and the window of the room seemed to be blown away by the wind in the middle of the night. It was half-opened and half-closed. As the morning breeze gently opened and closed, the slap on the wooden edge.

The room was very quiet, and the ink did not look into the bed, but I knew that Chu Ning should not wake up yet.

Outside the window, it is the sky of crab blue, the sun has not broken the clouds, the morning is often pale and lack of blood, the sun has never given it too much warmth, there are not many people getting up early, she is too lazy to dress, lazy My own tiredness is heated.

In the wind that blows in, there is a little bit of grass and dew.

The ink burned for a while, let the consciousness return, and then sat up, but there was a pain in the shoulder.

Strange, when the clothes broke a hole, there was some dry blood underneath.

He stayed for a long while.

Didn't you go out to find out last night? Just remember that no return does not respond, it should be a fake. Later, it seems like...

Oh, I can't think of it.

Look around, the dark brown floor highlights a thick nail, Xu is the nail that is drawn, do you sleep so hard? Actually unaware.

The cloak got up and looked at the bed.

Chu night Ning is still high lying, although he has long been accustomed to his high, enjoying a good position, he can only pick the rest of him, such as the bed floor, and will be one night. But today it is inexplicably very hot, taking advantage of the person's silhouette, some teeth itching.

"Why do I always sleep on the floor and sleep in the bed, respecting the teacher is correct, but there is no child to say?"

The ink burn is very unpleasant.

I thought that there was a protruding nail on the floor, and I was even more unscrupulous when I scratched myself without any reason.

When the time is still early, he does not want to grieve again on his own ground, and simply lie down on the bed, close his eyes and sleep.

Two people, one facing left and one facing right, the big bed, will not touch each other.

Once I was in a dream, I now sleep.

It is clear that the skin of the last generation is separated by limbs. In the most crazy days, even after he loves him every night, he is not willing to quit. And the two people who have been relatives, now lay at the very end of a big bed, so sleep.

Chapter 89

When the ink burns again, it is already a great day, and the sun is very high.

The ink burned over and blinked, and I saw that Chu Ning was still asleep.

Perhaps it is the reason for drinking the scented dew, or maybe he is not very good recently, always dreaming, and this time is gone, but he still dreams of deep, he is facing his back, a long dark hair, hooligans Between the pillows, a good night's color.

Ink burning: "....."

Since the master can't get out of bed, when the apprentice is no longer necessary to work hard, the bed is very comfortable, not as high.

But lying and boring, the ink burned in the past and played the night hair of Chu.

There is always a touch of floral fragrance in the hair of the teacher. It is soft and smokey, and it is one of the things that the ink burns most like.

The fingers passed through the smog and thin stream, and the silky and delicate touch felt around the fingers to scratch the heart.

The ink-colored back bed curtain oscillates slightly as the window leaks into the wind.

Picking up your eyes, the energy in the morning is always a bit strong, not to mention the taste of the fingertips is so good, so cooked, then...

He plucked a long hair from Chu’s late night and sniffed.

This soft long hair will take the past and slowly come over from past lives.

Although he was born again, he tried to remember as much as possible that he had been too fragrant with the scent of the night, but I don’t know why.

There seems to be some thirst in the throat.

I don't want to touch the body of the predecessors, but the hair is always OK. He closes his eyes and gently kisses the ink between his fingers.

This ink color...

The Wushan Temple, which is the root of life and death, is also such an ink color. It hangs down inexplicably and burns the ink in it. He holds the man's thin waist, and there is a thin layer of muscle under his fingertips, which is completely different from the woman's touch.

The ink burns with the status of the winner, so that he is ruthless, and he commands him all maliciously.

"Move it faster."

"..."

"So slow, are you not working?"

(There is a car flying, there is no time to explain it.)

"You are really kinky/swinging." The ink whispered, "I knew that when you were an apprentice, you should be engaged."

He is a blind man, he is not knowledgeable, and he is not influxed.

Such a rough sentence is like a knife blade, tied to the heart of Chu Yuning.

He suddenly looked up and closed his eyes, and the hoarse voice rang for the first time.

He says:

"The ink burns, you kill me."

The man holding the hand on his waist trembled inconspicuously.

Then the ink burned, the smile is still sweet and lovely, and the pear nest is deep.

"Okay."

Chu night Ning Yi suddenly opened his eyes.

The ink burned in the wet scorpion that made him want/fire, and saw some distorted smiles.

"You ask to die, I don't stop. It's just that you can't choose the law of death. I want you to be riddled by thousands of people in front of your good teacher Xue Meng. Oh, it is best to let Xue Meng also participate." You said, is it good enough?"

"you--!"

The slender and cold fingers grabbed the ground, but they couldn’t catch anything.

Chu nightning is ultimately helpless, and he can only be left at his mercy, and the light in his eyes gradually dissipates.

Suddenly, he raised his hand and covered his eyes.

Chu nightning gently said: "Ink burning..."

"Ink burn, if you have a little bit of love... there is a little bit of conscience..."

His eyelashes trembled slightly under the back of his hand.

"Just ask you... don't do it again..."

"Ink burning..."

The voice whimpered.

It was burned, the past life, the first time I heard him cry.

"The ink burns, I can't stand it..."

"pain……"

Suddenly, Chu nightning turned over and stunned the ink from the sweet memories. The past was like a bird, but only the heart.

The long hair between the fingers had slipped away, but the man slept sideways, and his face was close at hand, and the ink burned and even cleared the long eyelashes.

So lovely. he thinks.

In all fairness, Chu Xi Ning is not the kind of feminine appearance. His five senses are quite good, and he has a strong knife and axe. In fact, he is more masculine than ordinary people.

The more you can be biased, the more it is itchy.

The ink burns too much to see this iron skeleton, the unspeakable man under his body, ecstasy.

The heartbeat is getting faster and faster.

He stared at the face of Chu Xiaoning, his eyes moving in an inch, falling to the light color, because he was asleep and slightly opened his lips.

Involuntarily approaching.

As long as you are closer, you will be able to meet.

A nectar-like taste.

The ink burns the throat and feels endless thirst. Closer, a little closer... I’m about to run into it.

Suddenly, there was a glimmer of clearness in the mind of the desire/fire, and he froze and his face was white.

What is he doing! !

Squatting up, the man smoldering and staring at the man on the bed—Chu Yuning, Chu Yuning, and getting used to lingering with him, it's all in the past! What is this for yourself? crazy?

Do you really like him?

Suddenly, I was shocked by this thought. The ink burned and the face was blue and white.

In the end, he took a deep breath and buried his face in his palm, snoring, and fleeing like a cloak.

The author has something to say:

Boss: I am going to open my mind to you. I haven't thought of the teacher at all. Is it all about you and your little theater? I see that I am a Santa Claus, come here to give you this fool to send the car keys! Angry!

In the past, there was a car that was bound to accompany the glass slag. I didn’t warn the past knife. I said that it’s all the turning tool, the knife, haha, and seeing the number of words is not afraid 23333

Chapter 90

When Chu Yuning finally wakes up, it is already noon.

Musk dew is really a good thing. I slept last night and had no nightmare. He yawned and sat up slowly.

"Ink burning?"

The apprentice who has always loved bed more than he did not even sleep in the night last night.

No one cares.

He got up, rectified the dress, and smoggy long hair, while walking to the compartment of the wing. The Su embroidery screen depicting Yunyan Mountain is steamed with thin water vapor, and it seems that someone is bathing in the back.

"...burning."

Chu night was standing outside, and it was called again.

Still not responding.

Undoubtedly suspicious, Chu night Ning smashed the edge of the screen, after many times without fruit, he frowned and turned to the back of the screen.

This is the place where the head of the room is specially used for bathing, and there is a big eucalyptus bath in the middle. Chu night Ning glanced at the inside, the water inside was full of heat, but also sprinkled the traditional Chinese medicine flowers and plants already set up in the store, but only those who did not see the bath.

Can be left and right again, the ink burning the guy's clothes is off the stack on the wooden frame.

Shouldn't he take a shower and run out without clothes?

Chu nightning's forehead was pumped, and the horrible thoughts were smashed down, and the lips were thin, and his face was quite ugly.

I was turning around and I was going to hear the sound of "snapping" behind me.

Chu Xiaoning turned back and saw only a few bubbles in the large wooden barrel covered by petal herbs.

- Is there someone inside?

When the singer came out, he heard the sound of "哗". A red/naked youth, like a dragon, came out of the bucket and was shocked by the late two steps.

The young man seemed to be suffocating under the water, so he didn’t hear the outsider’s call to him. He couldn’t stand it until he stood up, revealing the upper body, slamming the water on his hair, like a dog on the shore. The splash of water splashed on the night clothes of Chu.

"Ink burning!"

"Ah!" The man with his head squinted and squinted his eyes. He did not expect to see him when he came out. He was shocked. "Master!"

"you……"

The line of sight sweeps through the youth's well-prepared body shape. The shoulders that have gradually opened up are already wide, the lines are fluent and tight, and the young tension is very strong. The water drops gather along the muscles of his chest and muscles, and slowly squat down. The sun shines with dazzling luster.

He is like those beautiful monks, half floating on the water, hair and eyes are wet, and even a few petals are spread between the hair.

The ink burned a pair of waterdrops on his face, laughing and smashing toward the night of Chu, and his hands were stacked on the side of the bucket. The shoulder blade was as relaxed as a leopard, looking up at him.

Chu nightning felt dizzy and hot, and subconsciously said: "What are you doing?"

"Bathing."

"morning?"

"Oh." Some guilty. In fact, I started to suppress the evil fire, so I wanted to make a cold. Later, the fire was suppressed, but I felt that the clothes were off. It would be better to take a shower. After washing and washing, I sneaked into the bottom of the water to practice the breath, and I was forced to hit the night.

"What a smirk?" Chu nightning frowned, his tone gradually became cold, and he used his picture to cover up his brain heat. "I don't know how to wake me up early, I am here in a mess, and I throw a piece of West in the clothes." One piece, fit together -"

"Master. You... there is water here."

He slammed his hand and went to the side of Chu’s late face.

"Unification."

The ink burned, he forgot that his hand was wet, and he wiped his face with the night, only the more he wiped.

Chu nightning is standing in the same place, the air around it is cool, the face is very close, and the lips are slightly squatting, only the eyelashes may tremble.

It felt like I was training a hound, but I was lifted up by the sly dog scorpion and arched.

"...dress and get out. We have to prepare to go back to the door."

In the end, Chu’s cold face was so cold that he left his face and went away.

It was just a place where there was no glimpse of ink, and his ears were red.

Just like where he didn't see, there was also a pair of wet, complicated, but still eager eyes that couldn't make him go home until the corner disappeared.

The cute smile on the face of the burning face disappeared, but it turned into an annoyance.

He shot the water in anger and picked up a face.

It’s a hell.

What is going on today?

I only saw him in the bath, just raised his hand and touched his face.

It’s hard to press the desire to go down, it’s harder...

"How did your clothes last so long?"

By the window, Chu night Ning returned to his face, his clothes fluttering, the fine hair shattered through the jade cheeks, and blamed for being impatient.

The smoldering cough is a few times, and it is vague: "I use steam to dry my hair, use it, use it, and slow down. Master does not blame."

It’s rare to see him speak so well, and Chu Evening looked at him unexpectedly and said: “When it’s been groomed, I’m going to pack things up. We’ll rent a fairy boat back later. I don’t want the sword, the horse is also tired. Walk the water, it’s quiet.”

"Oh, okay." The ink burned, didn't dare to look at him, and coughed a few times.

Chu night Ning frowned: "What happened to your throat?"

"……It's nothing."

Turned to the whole baggage, the two bought some dry food snacks in the store, and then went to the dock to rent a boat.

When the boat took the Yangtze River and went to the place where it could not work, it started the wooden wing and took the magic as a reference. Although not fast, but the victory is comfortable and secluded.

Eight days later, the two arrived at the death and death, and the boat stopped in front of the mountain gate.

The ink burned and opened the bamboo curtain, so that Chu Yuning first came out of the cabin, and then followed him. At this time, the moon was high, it was late at night, and the elders of Yu Heng had written in the letter that Xue Zhengyi did not have to send people. Ying, so the two climbed up the ranks, and at the entrance to the main entrance, they met four disciples.

"Yuheng Elder!"

"Ink son!"

The four disciples saw them, and somehow they flashed a glimpse of their faces. When the two of them reacted, these people slammed down and screamed: "Elders, sons, and people in the eyes are looking for Two enemies! The deity sent a flying pigeon to pass the book and let the two evade. It seems that this fat pigeon is still flying slowly, but it has not been sent! Elders, son, you go to the impermanent town to hide the limelight, you can Never go in!"

Chu night Ning narrowed his eyes and asked: "What happened to this?"

"It’s the people who are in the upper bounds, saying that the elders want to repair evil spirits, they will take you to Tianyin Pavilion for a trial!"

“Tian Yin Ge?” The ink burned and said, “Isn’t that the prison of the ten sects formed together to judge the unscrupulous?”

"Yeah! They rushed to the scene of Choi Butterfly Town!" One of the female disciples said, "Is the elders still remembering? It was the time you were blamed by the rod!"

"That is the most abused sorcerer and mortal. The Master has been punished. How can I suddenly turn up the old account and actually alarm the Tianyin Pavilion." The ink burned and frowned. "And, the evil is what happened?"

"The specifics are not clear to us, but the people who heard it said that the townspeople of Choi Die Town died in the evening, and the murder was a half-sex and half-ghost thing, as if instigated by someone. The ghost fairy is so strong that ordinary sporadicity can never drive her, so those who are in the upper cult are suspected... suspect that this is what the elders Yuheng did!"

Chu nightning: "..."

"Hey." The ink burned. "I am still what it is. This misunderstanding is just fine. Why do you hide?" Except for a mob, you say that you and the younger generation are in the limelight. You are a big demon, and you suspect that you are practicing evil spirits and raising ghosts to hurt people. Then let’s not do it, learn to concentrate on meditating at home. It is best to cultivate the immortals."

Chu Xiaoning did not laugh, he looked ugly, silent for a while, asked: "The people in Caidie Town are dead?"

"It is said that this is the case, no one is alive."

"..."

Chu nightning closed his eyes.

The female disciple saw him look different, and he was uneasy: "Elder?"

"This incident is not what I did, but it may be caused by my incomprehension. I am responsible, I can avoid it." Chu nightning slowly opened his eyes, "burning, follow me."

In the Wushan Hall, twelve entangled bronze lamps are lined up on both sides. Each of them is ten feet high. The nine layers of copper branches are stretched out. From top to bottom, from short to long, a total of 356 candles are fired. The lights of the halls of the dead and the dying are bright, like white.

On the temple, Xue Zhengyi was installed, and the leopard looked like a ring. Like a statue of iron, he was staring at the people below.

"Li Zhuangzhu, I will tell you the last time. The elders of Yu Heng are not in the party at the moment, and Xue Mou can be guaranteed by the head of the people. The matter of Choi Diezhen is not his deliberate. You are not convinced... That one……"

Mrs. Wang covered her sleeves and whispered something: "Yellow."

"Cough, you don't trust the mouth of the female that yellow!" Xue Zhengyi waved his hand, and the momentum was awkward.

Mrs. Wang: "....."

In addition to the guardian disciples of the dead, there are more than 30 people standing under the temple. Almost all of them are dressed in bi-colored robes, arm-armed and dusty, and wearing silkworms into the sacred crown. It is the new beginning of the past years. The disciple of the show "Bi Tan Zhuang". The headed man is about fifty years old. Two beard-shaped squid, floating in the wind, isn’t Bitan Zhuang’s owner Li Wuxin?

Li Wuxin took a long beard and sneered: "Xue Zhangmen, my honourable faction is also the right way, so I will reason with you. Choi Butterfly Town is amazed after the elders of your party Yuheng and his disciples have demonized the demon." In addition to the three of them, Chen’s family has not had any dealings with any of the people who have cultivated the immortals. The evidence of the person’s identity is there. You must recognize it and you will recognize it if you don’t recognize it.”

Xue Meng, who was standing beside his father, couldn’t help himself. He shouted and said: "You * and having a face? How many times have you been in the process of repairing the world? I watched one by one and watched myself ascended to heaven, and planted me when something happened. Master respects, where is the truth!"

"Xue Gongzi." Li Wuxin did not anger, but looked at him with a deep look. He smiled. "I heard the son of the phoenix being outside, and the person who called the phoenix was seen today. Oh, it was so conceived. I really let the old man open his eyes."

"you--!"

Li Wuxin leaped over his eyelids and turned to Xue Zhengxuan: "Xue Zhangmen, I am a stricter in the practice of the world. Once I intervene in this matter, I will thoroughly investigate it. If you insist on surrendering Yuheng, ink burning Waiting, the old man had to go to the world's largest school of Confucianism, to come to preside over justice!"

Xue Zhengyi's temper is fierce. Listening to him, he is quite arrogant: "Hey. I know that you are in good contact with the Confucianism, but even if Nangong Liu himself stands in front of me, I still have that sentence - no Paying people, this matter has nothing to do with Yu Heng."

Xue Meng also said: "Li Zhuang Lord please return. Go well and do not send."

"Is it a glimpse? I have seen it! They are so unreasonable and filthy!" The crowd suddenly burst into a man’s trembling voice. "At the time, the surnamed ink, stole my friend, we are polite. Gas up the mountain to find a saying, they also ruthlessly let us go! Li Zhuang, you have seen it? If it is continued by the dead and the death, the next revision can be finished!"

As soon as his voice fell, he heard a soft laugh at the entrance.

When the people turned back, they saw the darkness of the light and shadow. A young man with a scornful blue dress leaned against the lacquer carving door, and looked at the scene in the temple lazily.

The young man is very handsome, and the skin is still tight and delicate under such a candle, as if it will shine.

"Changgongzi, when did I steal your friend's things?" The young man smiled softly and lovelyly. "You told me that the three are... No, maybe Rongji, I can't remember. In short, the wonderful person, is it your friend, or your hoe? You are so honest, he is afraid to be sad."

It wasn’t someone else who cried over there. It’s the Yizhou rich businessman who said that he had to end up with the dead and dead.

Chang Gongzi jerked back and saw the ink burned out. The first thing was that the look changed, and then the light flashed in the eyes, and then suddenly screamed:

"Ink rain, you are a beast, nine children and I are the singer, and I am clear and white, and now he is poisoned by your group of demons, and you are dying to death. You - actually squirting blood, framing him!"

"What?" The ink burned and the eyes were slightly enlarged. "Is the nine dead?"

Chang Gongzi was angrily, and his eyes were tearful: "He is also a man in the town of Caidie. He went back to his hometown to visit relatives a few days ago. If he didn't go, how can I know that you and your teacher are respectful? These evils! I will not go to Li Zhuang to seek justice!"

However, the ink burned against Rongji. He was surprised and then waved his hand with impatience: "What is the friendship, you are jealous, he is jealous? Hey, where are you innocent?"

"Ink, ink burning!" Chang Gongzi did not expect him to say this, horrified, "You, you do not know the turbulence of the big words! You, you -"

"Cough..." Mrs. Wang’s face could not be hanged.

However, Xue Zhengba’s eyes didn’t say anything. Hey, it’s not a good word to listen to. He thinks that the nephew said it is very reasonable, and there is nothing wrong with it.

Suddenly a sigh in the night, the sound is like Kunshan jade, the ice lake begins to solve, the indescribable low-pitched, and then a long bone, the line of beautiful hands...

Uncertainly fanned on the face.

"Spoofed slang, the singer's confession is the public Shamu Wuyou no matter how poor friendship." Chu nightning black face appeared at the door, not very angry, "will give me a shame, squat at the door Even, don't roll in!"

"Master!"

"Master!"

Xue Meng and the teacher were cold and could not see him. They were all shocked and happy, and they came to meet each other.

Xue Zhengxuan has wide eyes, but is annoyed and helpless: "Yu Heng, how come you suddenly came back?"

"If I don't return, how long do you plan to stay alone?" Chu late Ning step into the Wushan Hall, a graceful face in the candlelight more like a fairy-like elegant and innocent. He stood in front of the Golden Temple in the main hall, nodded with Xue Zhengxuan, and then turned around, wide sleeves and scorn.

"The death of the dead, the night of Ning, the residence of the elders of Yu Heng, I heard that you have something to ask, but it is disrespectful." On the eyes of Li Wuxin’s shocked, the night of Ning Feng’s eyes was like a smoke, passing by, faint .

"Teach me to see you."

The author has something to say: Yesterday, if you didn't get on the boat, you can board the ship today. Weibo [Muscle is the big devil], delete the ticket tomorrow morning~

I don't know if anyone has forgotten Rong Jiu and Chang Gongzi, that is, the little donkey who bullied after the fish was born again, and the little girl who was bullied.

Chapter 91

On the main hall, this person is dressed in snow, holding hands, crepe like clouds, wide sleeves and ground. The look looks dignified and cautious, but the eyes are slightly lifted, the eyelashes are drooping, and the three-pointed and thin, three-point arrogance.

Li Wuxin did not think that the elders of Yu Heng turned out to be him, and he suddenly changed: "Chu, Chu..."

Chu night Ning Anran said: "Li Zhuang, don't come innocent."

"How is it!" Li Xiaoxin, who was so clever, couldn't speak for a long time. The face was like a wax. "You have no news after you leave the Confucianism. We still say that you are going to the Four Seas. Who is going? Knowing that you are actually, you are actually casting a bright pearl!"

Chu night smiled and smiled, his eyes were very cold: "Because you can afford it, I feel that I am a pearl."

"..."

"Well, gossip doesn't have to talk too much, let's talk about business. I heard that you think that I am practicing sorcerer and killing 500 households in Caidie Town. This fact is not what I did, but Li Zhuang has come from here, must have Misunderstandings. I still have something to do, Tianyin Pavilion will not accompany the owner, and the owner has something to ask, just ask here."

He said that he was too lazy to stand, wave his sleeves and seat himself on the elders. Wushan Temple has a special seat for each elder. Chu Xiuning’s seat is on the left side of Xue Zhengyi, with a fine bamboo basket and a half-rolled bamboo curtain. It is filled with fresh and sturdy flowers. The seats in the flowers are too low.

Although these years, Chu Ning did not deliberately hide his name, but it was indeed low-key. Therefore, although the young people of Bitanzhuang heard it, they did not know how powerful he was. However, Li is not the same. He has been in the rivers and lakes for many years. I don’t know the name of the late night Yuheng.

His fists were pinched in his sleeves, and the light could not help sweeping the Changzi.

If I have not collected the money from my family, why bother to take this hardship. The elders of Yuheng who thought that they were dead and dead were just an unknown monk. Who knows that it will be a long-lasting Chu nightning!

If you know that it is him, you will not be able to come here to take advantage of this beach. You can’t advance or retreat, how can you ride a tiger?

Li Wu has no change in his heart, but his heart is bitter.

However, a pro-disciple disciple is unclear, and he thinks that this elder is too unreasonable. Therefore, Master did not know how to deal with it. He actually made his own cleverness: "Chu elder, you have been to the butterfly town in the past." ?"

Chu night Ning squinted and looked at him: "Not bad."

"So, the ghost bride, is the evil of your town?"

"What are you talking about?"

"I..." The boy was aphasia. He only knew that the evil charm of the butterfly town was a ghost bride, but he didn't know more. Therefore, Chu Xiaoning asked him a little, he couldn't answer it, only red face equator, " In short, it’s a female ghost! You ask so much to do? Very young, fifteen or six years old, how many can you marry a new bride in a town?"

Chu night Ning sneer: "The color of the butterfly town is a vulgar marriage, the ghost bride does not have a hundred and fifty, I really don't know which one you are talking about."

"you--"

"What are you, me, no rules. The anti-subjects are not going back!"

Li Wuxin changed his face and looked forward to Yan Yue’s face. He said to Chu, the master of Chu, the first time I went out of the mountain, I don’t know the rules. Don’t be surprised. He said the ghost bride really It’s that it’s fierce.”

Chu nightning slightly frowned: "Luo's fierce scorpion has gone away?"

"Yeah." Li Wuxin sighed. "The female ghost lost her mind, killed Chen's door and said nothing, and then slaughtered in the town. When I went to suppress the disciples, there was almost no color butterfly town. Live people."

Chu night Ning whispered: "How can it be..."

"I have heard that the elders who have been involved in this matter are the elders of Yu Heng who lived in the dead, so they came to the door. In addition, in the town of Choi Die, I also got two things. Chu Zongshi, I hope you look carefully. Look, is it related to you."

He said, first take a piece of blood-stained yellow silk scorpion from the sleeve, and want to hand it to Chu.

Unexpectedly Xue Meng stepped in front of him, no good air: "Give me!"

"This……"

"My teacher has a cleansing, and the things that outsiders have touched don't touch him!"

Xue Meng said that it is really exaggerated. In fact, Chu Xi Ning is nothing more than a thing that people who don’t want to touch the disgusting people, but it’s really nothing clean. However, Chu night Ning had to see Li Wuxin is not pleasing to the eye, so it is also because of Xue Meng's troubles, not much to say, only coveted a hot tea served by the teacher.

Li Wuxin was sulking, but there was no way. He had to sneer and give Huang Wei to Xue Meng.

Under the candlelight, the public witnessed.

Chu night Ning shakes open, only a glance, his face changed.

"Transfer curse..."

"This is exactly the case. Chu Zongshi, according to my investigation, Luo Fijian soul has been temporarily sealed by you. Before you leave, you handed a curse to the Chen family's only daughter, let them copy the daily copy. , reciprocating ten years, is it not?"

"Not bad."

"That is the sentiment curse, it is the handwriting of Chu Zongshi, is it right?"

"...this is true."

"But Chu Zongshi, you have a curse for this, and there is a curse rune at the end of each chapter. What does that mean, you won't understand it!" Li Wuxin's voice suddenly screamed.

"Wan Tao's return to the wave pattern is a curse! - Everyone who has a copy of the curse of the Chen family will draw a counter-curse symbol, which will become a curse of the victim. The seal was broken, and Luo was fierce and fierce! The Chen family was full of people who knew nothing. In addition to handing over the shackles to their Yuheng elders, the old man couldn’t think of the second person and could teach them to draw such a powerful spell!"

"The old man is going to have blood-sucking people!" Xue Meng was furious. "If my master wants to kill them, why should I wrap around such a big bend! What is the curse of the curse, can't the handwriting be imitated? You suspect that it is my teacher." Respecting the painting, I still suspect that your turtle son is stealing and painting on the side, used to frame people!"

Li Wuxin's skin smiles and laughs: "Xue Menggongzi, the elders talk, what is your junior's mouth?"

Xue Zhengxuan spoke up: "Li Zhuangzhu, you just said that Yu Heng is doing this at the same time, and it is biased. The child said yes, the handwriting can be imitated, in case anyone wants to plant jade Heng, painting his runes several times, it is very similar."

"Then, ask, where is the Chu Zongshi’s enemies, and he has spent so much thought to kill him."

The ink burned for a long time, and suddenly I laughed twice.

Li Wuxin looked at him and thought of the rough remarks he had just made, and he frowned. "What are you laughing at?"

"I laughed and you talked for a long time, but forgot one thing."

Xue Zhengqi said: "What? What did you think of burning?"

"Although I don't have a lot of books, I happen to have some understanding of Wan Tao's return to the waves. I just want to paint." The ink burned and laughed. "Hey, look, this is not."

He said, his fingertips condensed a touch of red-lighted spiritual power, leisurely leaning against the pillars, volley smeared, and in a short while, a subtle Wan Tao back wave curse was reflected in the air, fireworks Generally good looking.

Xue Meng was shocked: "Dog things, great, when did you learn?"

Ink burned and laughed: "There is a book on Master's book. I feel fun and write it down."

Say casually click on the bright red spell, let it slowly rise to the sky, over the top of everyone. The red echoes are blurred and flashing with a little bit of shatter.

"How about it, it's better to compare it with you. Look at the symbol I painted, and whether it is also the structure of the gesture, it is exactly the same."

The disciples of the dead and the dead are the least afraid of the excitement. Seeing the night of the night, the face of the night is thrown at the table with a blank expression. It is the default of the practice of ink burning, and immediately rushed to the past and carefully compare them in a circle.

The people in Bitanzhuang were still stretched at first, and later they couldn’t help but be curious, or hold a picky attitude and look around.

So many people squatted for a long time and finally came to a conclusion.

The ink-painted paintings and the cursing spells on the skull are not bad, almost from the hands of one person.

The only unscrupulous idiot of Li was open again. He pointed to the smoldering, and he was shocked and said: "Okay! Ok! Don't make a move! It seems that you are killing you!"

Ink burning: "....."

Chu night Ning suddenly said: "This little brother, what is it called?"

"Well? You ask me?" The stupid glimpse, and immediately stood up, and all proud, "I have no intention of sitting down to the thirteenth disciple, Yu Ming."

Ink burning: "Hey."

Chu nightning is a faint reaction to "true cleverness". After all, he also has a name called "Frighten You", only indifferent: "When the elders speak, the juniors must learn to shut up."

This sentence is obviously ridiculing the criticism of Li Wuxin's previous ink burning. Li Wuxin listened, his face rose into pig liver color, he was very annoyed but he couldn't do anything about it. He had to pay attention to him, "哼" one voice: "Chu The disciple's disciple is really a hero, and he is very capable. This curse is actually painted like a master."

"Li Zhuang, it’s me, if you paint this spell, it must be like the one I painted."

Li Wuxin screamed at the ink: "What do you mean by this?!"

Ink burned and laughed: "Wan Tao returns to the waves, the brushwork is complicated, the strength is deep, the ink is dark, and there is no difference in half-day. So no matter who draws it, it will be no different from the founder. This has nothing to do with the handwriting. If there is a little difference in the painting, this curse will not take effect."

"A nonsense!" was a late mention of such a public opinion, Li Wuxin could not help but be angry and angry, and the beard was blown four times. "Which curse in the world is required to be so smashed! Although the old man has never learned this technique, he knows that this is nonsense. Talk, you guys don’t want to make a fool!"

"He has no rumors."

Li Wuxin had some towns at this time, and he said: "Chu nights, you can't say anything! How can you know! How can you know that the characteristic weakness of a curse is often only the most obvious, you Do you dare to say that you are the founder of Wan Tao's return to the waves?!"

Chu night Ning picked up his eyelids and looked at him with no expression. He took another sip of tea, which was slow.

"Why don't you dare. I will tell you now."

Li Wuxin: "???"

"Wan Tao's return to the curse is what I created."

Li Wuxin: "....."

Chapter 92

When this statement came out, it was full of surprises.

In particular, the disciples of Bitan Village are like thunder and look very different!

Need to know in the realm of comprehension, the three-way warlock's death spell, the second-rate warlock's enlightenment spell, the first-class warlock transformation spell.

But there is another kind of person who is not in contact with this second and third stream. The kind of people are often out of reach. They don’t need to memorize, they have already realized, they are not satisfied with the transformation, but they have mastered the last step:

Create a living.

They are either good at refining the unique elixir, or growing up to make a peerless armor, or able to draw a map of the ancient curse of the ancients.

These masters, for the minors of Xianmen, are often the ones that live on the scrolls, or one of the coats of arms on the treasure. The young disciples of Bitanzhuang thought about the people who did not know that they wanted to arrest the Tianyin Pavilion for sin.

Li Wuxin’s forehead has been covered with cold sweat, but as a master of the village, the hard support will continue. He barely squeezed a smile, and the face of the husk-like sallow was a shine.

"I didn't expect it to be so clever. This Wan Tao's return to the waves was actually created by the master. The old man is really...hehe, it is a misunderstanding of the master of Chu. However, when the town of Caidie and Luo Sui smashed the soul, the old man got another Something, this thing, I don’t know if it has anything to do with Chu Zongshi."

Chu night Ning frowned: "What?"

Li Wuxin waved his hand, and "True Smart" immediately took a box.

"It's a weapon."

Chu night Ning did not speak, looked at the box, after a while, suddenly said: "Is it a willow?"

"!!"

This time, I don’t even say that other people have even opened their eyes and are unbelievable.

Li Wuxi trembled: "How do you, how do you know - is it really you, no... what the * is going on here?"

A golden light shines in the palm of the night, and the inch is spread, coiled on the ground, and as the light softens, a piece of wicker with branches and leaves is in front of everyone.

Chu nightning is not shocking. He has already made sure that the scene of Choi Die Town is inevitably the same as that of "Jincheng Lake" and "Peach Blossom Spring". It is said by one person: "Li Zhuangzhu, in the box, is this weapon. Wrong?"

"Positive, exactly." Li Wuxin was almost dumb.

The box was opened, and it turned out to be a bunch of identical veins.

Chu night Ning narrowed his eyes.

At the time of the peach blossoms, the "devil" that killed the feathers and planted the ink burned him, and it seemed to be true.

"Li Zhuang, this willow, can you let me see?"

Li Wuxin thought for a moment, wondering if the situation is not good today, or not to offend the late night, so he said: "Chu Zongshi is polite, I was here to ask a situation, you are willing to look carefully, the old man is too happy to come. And how can there be a stop?"

Next to the Chang Gongzi, I was not happy. He spared no expense to ask Bitan Zhuang to support himself and find a place. Seeing that the situation is not good, this old thing is the rhythm of going to the reverse?

Li Xiaoxin repeatedly glared at him and glared at him.

Where is Li Wuxin still willing to take care of it, but it is clearly seen by the side of the ink, and the fun is said: "Changgongzi, are you uncomfortable eyes? What are you squeezing?"

Over there, Chu Yuning took the willow in the brocade box and looked at it carefully.

Sure enough, Liu Teng and the "Heavenly Question" and "Hell" are the same in appearance, but the breath is very weak. Unlike the confession of the master, it is obviously a "dead."

"Extreme heart willow..."

Xue Meng pointed the ear, heard these three words, a glimpse: "What?"

"This willow branch, as well as the section that killed the feathers in Taohuayuan, was all folded from the top of the heart."

"Ah!" the teacher screamed. "Is this the case?"

"At the beginning of Jincheng Lake, before the death of the old dragon, a certain spell of the fake hook Chen needs to be maintained with a strong wooden spirit. Presumably, before the destruction of Jincheng Lake, he left a few sections of the willow. After the wood fell, although the spirit The force is weakened, but it can also last for a while."

Chu nighting's slender fingers stroking the golden leaves.

"And if this spiritual power is exhausted, he will not waste it. If he can frame it, he will use it to frame it. If he can give it to his men, he will use it as a weapon."

He said, suddenly a fire came from the fire, and the willow that looked like "Tian Wen" was spotted, and the flame immediately burned up, and it was reflected in the eyes of everyone or in fear or stunned eyes.

"This thing is not my weapon." Chu nighting burned a little branch, and annihilated the fire, throwing Liuteng, faintly said, "Heaven is full of spiritual power, not to say ordinary curse, even if it is Sancha is really a fire, and he can't burn him."

Li Wuxin opened his mouth and closed it. After a while, he was unwilling and reopened.

"The peach blossoms, the old man also heard a little, I heard that the dead son of Mo Gongzi accidentally killed Yumin Xianjun..."

"Hey, I haven't killed it." The ink burned again and again.

Xue Zhengxuan’s face is not pleasing, and his attitude is even more determined: “I have explained this matter to the public, not what I did. Li Zhuangzhu, if you mention it again, I’m welcome you.”

When I saw him like this, I didn’t know what touched my heart, and suddenly I saw a thing that seemed to have something deep in my eyes. He murmured: "Uncle..."

Chu night Ningdao: "Peach flower source, the original conspiracy misunderstood. But at that time, I could not argue for my disciples. But today, everyone came to the door to ask for it. I am willing to tell the story to Bitan. Zhuang Zhujun."

The light shadows, Chu nightning will be Jin Chengchi, Taohuayuan's things are deleted and simply said again. When he finished speaking, the disciples of Bitanzhuang were already stunned. Li Wuxin was sweaty and heavy, and he was awkward. He said: "The meaning of Chu Zongshi is that there is one person in the world who has almost mastered the three majors. One of the banned 'Zhuo chess games'?"

"Not bad."

"How is this possible! That is forbidden! Even the Confucianism Gate of the world’s largest school, their heads are impossible to get a forbidden scroll-"

Chu night Ningdao: "I am not imaginary in this sentence, but believe and not believe, by the princes themselves."

"Impossible." Li Wuxin's face was white, shaking his lips and laughing. It seems that as long as this is a joke, he can convince himself. "If someone can really master the game, the world is not going to mess, up and down. Do not rewrite everything in the world of revision!"

As a predecessor of the Emperor, the ink burned a little unhappy: "The guy is just a ‘will,' and it’s not a 'proficient.' If he is really proficient, can this world still be so peaceful?”

Li Wuxin had to shake and wait for something to say. Suddenly a sword flashed through the doorway. A disciple of Bitaozhuang, who was covered in blood, rolled off the sword. Wow spit a big mouthful of scarlet, then lifted it up. The face of the tears shouted to Li Wuxin: "Zhuangzhu, it’s not good, it’s not good. Your enchantment above the town of Choi Die is broken! The fierce spirits are pouring out, the brothers and sisters are building with the flesh and blood, temporarily I was able to keep the ghosts from fleeing in the town, but... I have 30 brothers and sisters in Bitao Village who have all died. I will survive and come to report..."

He gasped a few breaths and suddenly lost his voice.

"Zhuangzhu! Quickly quoted all the martial art in the revision circle! All the dead people in the town were controlled, it was forbidden, it was forbidden!"

"what!!"

Li Wuxin slammed back and slammed into the wallpost. The whole person was as pale and dry as the body that had just been poured out of the coffin.

"Let's not hold on to us..." The disciples' faces were smothered with tears and bloody, "the owner!"

Suddenly saw Xue Zhengyi, and Xue Zhengqi again and again.

"Xue Zhangmen, please go with you! My brothers... I... can't live..." He said incoherently for a while, then suddenly closed his eyes and looked up.

"They are all...all dead!!"

The hall was dead for a moment, and suddenly it was awkward.

Xue Zhengyi was in danger. Immediately, Mrs. Wang went to the letter to inform the remaining eight sects of the Shang Dynasty, and asked Xue Meng to gather the elders.

"Chu night?"

"There is no time to delay, I will go first."

"But you can't be a sword..."

I didn’t wait for Chu’s reply, and the ink burned over. He really wanted to know the guy who “mastered” the chess game.

"The uncle doesn't have to worry, I control the sword and the master."

Chu night Ning looked at him, did not speak, it is acquiescence.

When the two of them came out of the hall, the teacher squinted in the spot for a while, and suddenly returned to Shinto: "I, I also..."

But they ran out of the Wushan Temple, and they were already far away from the sword. It happened that Xue Zhengyi called him back at this time. Don't run alone. The teacher had to return to find Xue Meng, waiting for Xue Meng to go with them.

Looking at that Bitanzhuang, Li Wuxin’s pampering has been good for a long time. He once had such a big event, but the old man had to face his face and took a sigh of relief. He immediately told people to take care of the messenger and the other elders of the school. At the point, I am going to go to the town of Caidie to do a great job and save the majesty.

A group of people walked out of the dead, such as a hundred miles of meteors, flying to the town of Choi Die. Li Wuxin stood in the head of the sword and walked in the clouds. He couldn’t help but use his left eye to quietly look at the disciples of the first big school in the next round.

He couldn't expect it. He would fight one day and fight with him. It would be a complicated time with the "Uhwa people" that he couldn't miss.

However, the swords are thousands of miles away, only in the blink of an eye, the current party is breaking through the clouds, and a blood red evil light is flying in the sky. Li Wuxin will no longer have to worry about what is going on in the Xiujie world.

In the sky, a red light array with the size of the whole color butterfly town is constantly shining. The giant array is divided into neat checkerboard grids by the light beam. On the chessboard, the shadows of the dead townspeople are like woodcarving clay sculptures. Five hundred families, thousands of residents, looking over the past with a lush human jungle.

Li Wuxin lost his voice: "This, this is really... Jane Chess!"

Xue Zhengxuan's face is also extremely ugly. He said to Li: "Li Zhuangzhu, I am taking people to the southeast, and I am bothering you to go to the northwest. The other eight sects have not yet come. The butterfly town has to rely on us first. A while."

Li Wuxin also really did not care about this "we" and he nodded. "Good, good."

Xue Zhengyi shook his fists toward him, and the sword fell. The people descended from the sky and fell to the southeast of Choi Ting Town. The protective enchantment of the disciples of Bitan Zhuang Township with flesh and blood was at stake at this time. Weak, through the translucent enchantment barrier, you can see the riots inside.

"Chu night Ning!"

Seeing a man in white flying and a blue-silky young man standing in front, Xue Zhengyi shouted: "What? This enchantment can't make up?"

Chu nightning has been coming for a long time, the world's first enchantment master is here, but this array is still a state of damage, so Xue Zhengzhen is completely puzzled.

Unexpectedly, Chu Xiening ignored him, Xue Zhengyi was about to call again, but the ink burned and turned back, and he gestured toward him.

"Hey, my uncle doesn't say anything. Come over."

Xue Zhengyi passed: "How do you say?"

"Don't disturb him."

Ink burning refers to the late night of Chu.

I saw that although he stood, he did close his eyes, his lips were pale, and there was no blood.

Xue Zhengyi was shocked. He took his finger and explored his neck. He said: "Divorce?"

"Yes, there are ghosts inside, a few thousand, but I don't see Luo Fibre, it should be in the innermost. Things have not been ascertained. He doesn't know what the people behind him want to do this time, so he wants to go to Luo in person. Fibre interrogation."

"It’s all ghosts, what are you asking!” Xue Zheng’s slap in the thigh, “Strengthen the enchantment!”

"Never!" The ink burned out loudly. "The teacher respected the soul and separated the soul for a while, and entered it because it was all dead, so that it would not be a stunned snake. If it is reinforced at this time, it will kill the murderer. Respect!"

"What?!" Xue Zhengyi was busy, "Hey, you are here, I am going to talk to Li Wuxin!"

The ink ignited nodded and said: "If the teacher respects the soul, I will immediately ignite in the air with the blue spell. By then, the northeast and the north will be sealed together. But if I don't ignite, my uncle will not let them mend. Enchantment, otherwise the ghosts are swallowed up, and the Master is only a soul in it, and there is no possibility of self-protection."

"I know I know!" Xue Zhengyi's voice has not yet fallen, and people are plucking out.

The ink burns up the eyelids and looks at the enchantment that will collapse.

"The time is almost up, Master, you should also find Luo Fibre."

He turned his face and naturally held the hand of Chu Xiaoning's cold because of his worries, but he did not notice it. He stared at Chu Yuning and whispered.

"Soon……"

At this time, Shi Yi and Xue Meng and others descended around and stood in the crowd. Whoever expected to look up, they saw the two hands clasped before the enchantment. He was stunned first, and then his face gradually paled, then he clenched his lips and slowly twisted his head.

Chapter 93

The soul of Chu Xiaoning is now walking through the enchantment.

Everything you go through is ghostly, wandering. But what is embarrassing is the fleshy body. Everyone is dug out before death. Their chest is empty, or there are blood vessels hanging outside, and some can see Baisensen's ribs. .

Chu night Ning knows differently, but the defensive boundary around the colorful butterfly town is getting weaker and weaker. He can't stay more, only quickly rushing to Chen's house.

Going outside Chen Zhai, but seeing the four directions of the southeast and northwest, each with a half-man high. Four tripods, each of which is drifting away with more and more smoke. But the smoke is not pure white, but the colors are red, blue, brown and gold.

Ding down the fire, filled with blood, but recently looked, but found that the tumbling blood under the pile of red meat piled up.

People!

The four mouths of the furnace, each mouth is full of stuff, is the heart of the lost people in the town!

“Gathering sand into a tower...”

Chu nightning muttered.

He suddenly understood why he and the ink burned for many days, but he did not see that the mysterious man continued to pursue the essence of the spirit - the heartbreaking guy, he could do this trick!

The so-called poly sand into a tower is to dig up the heart of the same attribute, hundreds of piles together, although not as powerful as the essence of the spirit, but because of the sorrow of the people who swear, the short-term can also stimulate the power of extraordinary.

Why is it the color butterfly town?

Why is it that it is a slender fiber...

In the hall of Chenjia, where the table fell into the chair, in the hall, Chen Yuanwai and Mrs. Chen had both succumbed to Liang. Their hearts were also smashed out, but they did not have a corpse like the outside town.

Below the waist, they were torn into pieces by some powerful force. They could not see the original appearance of the legs.

In the hall, I patrolled the circle, but I didn’t see Luo’s figure. Then I went into the brothel and saw a bowl of meat mud in front of Chen’s ancestral tablets. Finely smashed, half of the eyeballs in the meat, a finger...

Chu Xiaoning saw a nausea and was about to leave. Suddenly, he heard a burst of laughter from his head.

Squatting, the white paper lanterns fluttering, and the extinguished candlelights light up in turn.

Luo Fibri sat on the beam, wearing a pair of white feet like jade, wearing a big red wedding dress, swaying sideways, while hoeing to the night.

"Oh, find me."

She smiled, although it was the appearance of the memory, but the eyebrows danced in the dance, but it was quite different from the shy soul that Chu Jingning saw at the time. She is arrogant, the flames are generally hot, her eyes are round and round, but she is shining with a demon blood.

Luo is fibrillated and demonized.

There is only one chance to ask the ghost. When Chu Ningning came to Fudie Town in the past, she had already tried her with the day, and this law could not be done for the second time. The only way is to suppress her magical spirit, call back her heart, and then cross-examine.

Chu night Ningdao: "Luo Fibre, why are you here?"

The sleeves are already dark and the pattern is ready to go.

"Hey." The petite and delicate girl is crisp and said, "I am happy, I want you to manage."

Chu night Ning shook his head, his brows were deeper, and there was a trace between the eyebrows, like it was engraved.

"The one in the bowl is the brother of Chen Bojun?"

"Oh, you said him." Luo was too tired to talk about it. "The one on the left is the one on the right. It is the little lady who is surnamed Yao."

"...!"

"Who wants her to die, not to look at other people, but she is a county magistrate, and she must rob her husband with her old lady. It should be good!"

At this time, Luo Fibres was completely demented, and the temperament and the two were stunned during his lifetime. He even couldn’t recognize the "Jiro brother" who had already sang for himself.

Chu Xiaoning heard that Chen Yao’s was also divided, and his heart was colder. He asked: “That... Chen Jiaxiaomei...”

"She treats me well, I don't thin her."

Luo Sui said, smiled, and his lips were delicate and bright, like blood stained.

She touched her stomach and said:

"So she is here."

"I ate her in. If the little girl is with me, she won't be bullied."

"...you are really crazy."

The voice did not fall, the flames of the hands were light, and the golden fronts were full of bright eyes. Chu night Ning flew up and shot a curse on her forehead in the scream of Luo.

Screaming!

The soldiers are very fast, and Chu Ningning has a fierce hand. Only in a moment, he has drawn ten golden chains, which will bind Luo.

He had a long, cold white tip and pointed her eyebrows. The flash of light in the eyes is like a smoldering electricity, and the face is gloomy and cold, sinking like a thundercloud.

The water is thin and the lips are light, and the spell is silent.

Luo's fibrillation eyes burst, the mouth is flowing, and a beautifully beautiful face becomes distorted in the mourning: "Stop, let me go! I have blood debts, what's wrong!"

Chu nightning does not pay attention to it, a pair of cold scorpions fall, the fingertips shine even more.

"Ah-!" Luo screamed hysterically, "Let me go! Let me go!! My head hurts! I can't stand it!!!"

She screamed and screamed, and suddenly the shout stopped, her eyes filled with blood, and her mouth curled up.

Two sly smiles shook.

"You want me to call this? This fairy?"

"!"

At the end of the night, Ning Feng’s eyes were stunned, almost at the end of his hand.

The white shadow is swift, and it is easy to avoid the broken soul of Luo Fibre, standing on the veranda, and between the white clouds.

Luo Fibre slowly straightened up, and the pain of the work disappeared. She did not suffer the influence of the curse of the night, but the spiritual power was even worse than before!

"I want to hurt me by the curse of district purification."

Luo is sneer.

"The old lady has swallowed up the thousands of living people in this town. The refining of the mortal body is only on the last night. At that time, I can save Chen Lang from the land, and we will stay away from the red dust. How can I? It may be a loss, and it will be destroyed in your hands!"

Her nature is annihilated, and the only obsession in her heart is that she is not separated from Chen Bozhen forever.

Chu night, Ning Xin moved, Shen Sheng asked: "Who is talking to you, so that you can refine the mortal body?"

"What to do with you!"

Chu night Ning coldly said: "This person has a nonsense, your original body has been smouldering, and you have to rebuild the tires, you must re-enter the reincarnation. What can be learned from the thousands of living people can regenerate the truth. He lied to you Everyone in the town is killed, just to get together, to get together and do what you want to do."

"...!" Luo fiercely widened his eyes. "Impossible! He won't lie to me!"

"'Who is he?"

"He...he is..." A few Shen Ning, Luo fierce and screaming, holding his head and shouting, "I don't know! I don't know! I want to be physically! I want to live! I don't want to die!!!! He didn't lie to me... he didn't lie to me... you lied to me... yes, it's you!!!"

Hung Hom, the female ghost screamed and stretched out his claws.

At the same time, an ominous thunder came suddenly in the sky. Chu nightning avoided the attack of Luo Fibrin and raised his eyes. However, seeing the defensive enchantment has been torn open by a smashing sigh of the butterfly town. The atmosphere of the living people is coming in, the four fields, the zombies!

The enchantment is going to break.

That's too late!

If you can't call back the scorpion, you can only choose to kill it.

Then all the clues are broken...

Outside the enchantment, Li Wuxin looked at the crack in the air, and Xue Zheng screamed: "Isn't it enough? Make up! If the world breaks, thousands of dead bodies flock out, you and me Do you live?"

"Let's wait!" Xue Zhengxi's face is also not good-looking, and the sweat on the forehead is soaked out. "Don't make up, Yuheng is still inside. Wait a second."

Li Wuxin snorted and saw that the enchantment had broken the chicken eggs. The heart slammed and angered: "If the enchantment is damaged later, it must be a fight, bloody, I See how you explain to the whole comprehension community!" Yan Bi turned to the disciples and asked aloud, "Is the fuze sent? When will the other eight factions arrive?"

The disciples who were in charge of the communication were anxiously sweaty: "The eight sects said that they are important at this time, and they must first play their respective heads. After the elders negotiated a referendum, they can come to the chaos."

"..." Li Wuxin suddenly turned black as the bottom of the pot. "What about Confucianism? Nangong Xianchang has always been amazing, how can he be so a mother?"

"This..." The disciple did not know how to respond. Suddenly, the sound of the melody flashed. After reading it, he was overjoyed and even heard. "The Confucianist door is coming! The Confucianist door only communicated, saying that the disciples would immediately send the disciples to the evil! ”

Sure enough, not a slap in the tea, the horizon suddenly burst into a cloud of clouds, close, where is the cloud, but the black pressure on thousands of people, all blue and blue cranes, uniform, such as the empty geese Yu Jian came.

For the first two people, it is the Nangong Temple and the Ye Forget.

Nan Gongyi rode his demon wolf white gold, arm-armed jade bow, backed the quiver, prestige, and the young man's arrogance was written on his face.

The leaves are still in the black, wrapped in a shawl embroidered with the crane totem of the Confucianist, with a handsome seven-pointer and a beautiful three-pointer.

"What is this?!"

When Nangongyi saw the ruined defensive enchantment, it exploded, and took a glimpse of the crowd in the circle of sight, directly skipping the group of people who died in the world. It fell to the only Bitan Zhuang owner who was also associated with him.

"Li Wuxin! This enchantment has broken into this way. You are stupid, don't you know how to make up?!"

Although Li Wuxin is far older than Nangong, but the family is the only son of the world's largest head of the world, the old face that was trained is red, but hard to squat, and smiles.

"The South Palace is the Lord, you don't know, don't make up the knot, it is the meaning of Xue Zhangmen..."

In a word, the hot potato was thrown to Xue Zhengyi.

"What is the life and death?"

Nan Gongyi looked at Xue Zhengyi and snorted. I don’t know if it’s sneer or something else.

Then he waved his hand and said to himself: "Go to his mother to make up the broken pot, and he thought it was a little more."

Ye Forgive wants to stop him: "Little Master -"

Nangong驷 did not look at him at all. What is even more strange is that Song Qiutong also came. But today she did not stand in the leaves of the past, but served in the South Palace, left and right, still white gauze cover, low and sturdy, extremely smooth.

The disciples of Confucianism did not drag on the water, and only listened to the instructions of the sects of their own sects. Especially the relatives of the wild horses of Nangong Temple, the ones did not listen to dissuasion and explanation, and they began to print out before they brushed.

"stop!"

Xue Zhengxuan only interrupted the moves of four or five people. When he turned back, he saw another disciple who had already made a patch of repairs. A blue light hit the crack in the enchantment.

Xue Zhengyi suddenly lost color and shouted: "Yu Heng!!"

"Oh!", the fire splattered.

At the beginning of the millennium, suddenly there was a * red thunder, and the hard-pressed man killed the patch of the seal in front of the crack!

Everyone looked up and saw a young man holding Liu Teng Yu Jian standing in the air, guarding the position of the enchantment. The youth eyebrows were originally very bright and radiant, like being born with warmth, but at this time his eyes were sharp, his eyes were like a torch, and the willows in his hands were bloody, and every leaf was splashed with flames.

The ink burned the eyebrows at a very low pressure. In the air, Sen Ran said: "I said, my mother said, no one is allowed to move this enchantment. Are you new to this? Are you ignorant?!"

Although he is disgusted with the late night, but how to say it is the personal grievances of both of them.

Regardless of the past and present, except for himself, whoever wants to move a night with a hair, the ink will want the life of that person.

He said that he hates people, he can only kill, he comes to destroy, he comes to bully.

Under his anger, he couldn't help but reveal a few violent temperament in his life. What is the whole popular field? What is the usual slap in the face?

Do not say that the Confucianist door, even Xue Zhengxuan, Xue Meng, and even the teacher, are watching this kind of ink burning, and temporarily stunned.

The author has something to say:

At the end of this chapter, the dog 1.0 was simply the upper body of the dog 0.5, and picked up his king's anger, hahahaha, then he is a dog 0.75~

Chapter 94

Nangong is not happy, his eyes are rustling, like rolling iron.

His gaze patrolled and stopped for a moment on the fiery red martial arts, and then moved away.

"Who is this?"

Ye forgets the truth: "He is the son of a dead child, surnamed ink."

"Ink?" Nangong creased and frowned. "The one who just came back a few years ago?"

"Ok."

Nangong stunned Ye Yexi Shi: "Do you know him?"

“Tahuayuan once lived in the same hospital.”

Nangong sneer, I don't know what it means. It’s just that Ye forgets to see him react like this. Qing Jun’s face is pale and a few points, the eyelashes fall, and then the lips are not spoken.

"Since he has to wait, buy him a face." Nangong said, "The young age is the master of the gods, I would like to see what he can do."

The ink burned but did not care about the Confucianism, he turned back, and the robes hunted in the wind. The enchantment has broken and the rest of the time will not be too much -

Chu, late, are you still not good?

Hey! Luo's filigree claws broke the gauze, the white fluttering, the plain satin was shocked into thousands of pieces of snow.

Chu nightning only felt a very familiar atmosphere, and reacted with a big look: "Heaven?!"

Do not.

It’s not a question.

He played against her, and she had a kind of spiritual power that seemed to be extremely heavenly.

The accounts in the Chen family's house are like a thin, locked in a soul, a devil. Candidly fight more than ten strokes, Chu night Ning heart mystery group gradually clouded and scattered, suddenly think of a section, 醍醐 醍醐 top, suddenly understand.

"Extreme heart willow..."

Luo Fibre had already died, and it was ignited into ash. At that time, it was only possible to rely on Mrs. Chen’s body. There is no reason to turn it out now.

The mysterious man took a section of the vine that picked the heart and gave her a temporary home for the sake of the soul.

The heart of the person cooked outside, the smog of smoke. Gold, water, fire, and soil are waiting for the "wood" of Luo Fibre.

What the man is going to do!

Did he try his best, just to let Luo Fi Fi able to regain the flesh, killing the ghost world and Chen Bojun double flying? Who can do this for her?

Her relatives have long since died.

Relatives...

Loved ones! !

Chu night Ning's heart moved, blood surged. He suddenly thought of a passage she had said to herself when she saw Luo Fibre.

She has a brother who lost a lot of years ago...

is it him?

"Block me, don't live!"

Luo Fibre is an entity, and Chu Yuning is a soul. Although her spiritual power is far less than that of him, it is difficult to distinguish it.

In the blink of an eye, her bright red finger claws stabbed straight into his heart chamber, fearing that the soul was damaged, and Chu nightly shunned away, and the backhand was at her forehead.

"It's useless, how many times you try it! The purging spell can't hurt me!" She sneered, and shouted in the sky, calling for the corpse of the colorful butterfly town in all directions.

"Well, wait for the ghosts, why don't you listen to me! Salt is here, drink blood and kill!"

The terrible humming sound suddenly sounded, and the colorful butterfly town was chaotic, and the unintentional zombies who ran into turmoil heard her call and rushed toward Chen Zhai.

Zombies are like tidal waters, one after another, like a storm, quenching in the wind. This chilling scream is like a shout in the sand, and it can be heard all the time, no matter inside or outside the enchantment.

Outside the world, the fairies are all in vain.

In the world, Chu nightning is alone.

He only shadows one person, the soul, and a white dress stands opposite the fiber. She is laughing and laughing, her eyes are crazy and fierce. His gentleman is like a bamboo, and he smells a hundred ghosts without changing his color, but his eyebrows are very low pressure, and there is a haze in the day.

"Roofy, do you remember some words that you said to me?"

"Well?" She didn't seem to think that he would ask this question, and couldn't help it.

In the night of her ecstasy, Chu Yuning was already in white, and plunged into the top of Chen Zhai's courtyard. A pair of dusty silks fell on the edge of Tanhewa.

"You said that you never thought about being a devil. You also said that you didn't want to harm anyone."

After the sound falls, the four wild winds linger.

Chu night steadily looked up, the black pressure of the corpse surged from all directions. He raised his eyebrows slightly, and suddenly he swung his sleeves, and the wind blew the sorrow of the soul.

Between his hands, he lit a golden glow.

"excuse me."

Suddenly, Wan Dao Liu Teng got up! !

The color of the butterfly town is flowing, the ground of the dead body is smashed, and the cracks of the worms are instantaneously cracked, and one and a thick willow tree breaks out! They all overflowed with dazzling golden light, like thousands of chains, smashing the corpses that rushed!

Chu nightning eyes are sturdy, and long hair blows in front of the cold snow-like face of the creek.

He whispered: "God asks, people are jealous."

I looked up and looked like a flame.

The row of golden weeping willows, suddenly bright and blazing, numerous dense branches and leaves were born, trapping the zombies who were still roaring and struggling, and then each willow tree cracked a gap, with cracks open, trees Wrap all the dead in it and seal it.

Mass graves.

The largest weeping willow, pulled up from the center of the Chenjia House, is like a wind and arrow, chasing the fluffy Luo fiber.

But Na Luo's fibrillation is the body of the topping of the willow, the heart of the willow, the heavens, the hell, the one, is the tree that the Chen Shanggong brought to the mortal world from the gods, and the people who have been asked for a time I can't catch up with Luo Wei's petite and quick-minded figure.

Her bright red embroidered golden robes are rolling in the wind, and the giant willows are getting higher and higher, piercing the enchantment and rushing to the Han.

The people outside the enchantment were stunned by the cracked wood, and they were weak and weak, and they could not support it. They were so strong that they were weakened by the master's level and they threw their knees.

As the willow tree grows taller and taller, it can be connected to the moon. The spiritual power of Chu-nighting has been released to an unprecedented level. Some monks around the town of Caidie have already bleed, even Such a cultivation of Nangong Temple is difficult to breathe, and the chest is stuffy and flustered.

Nangong licked his teeth: "There is such a character in the dying of life and death? Yuheng elder?"

Li Wuxin set his heart beside him. After all, he was the master of a village, but he was able to support it. He said: "Nangong Gongzi, this person is Chu Yuning!"

"what?!"

Under such a strong pressure, Nangong was suddenly shocked and spit out a blood.

"Is it Chu...master?"

"Less Lord, don't say anything more."

Seeing that he was injured, Ye forgets to raise his hand, points to the two points of Nangong, and loses a little spiritual power with him.

Unexpectedly, Nangong弧 did not appreciate, violently broke him, licking the blood on his lips and said: "Don't touch me."

"..."

"Ye Gongzi, or I am coming." Song Qiutong is a sphenoidal beauty seat, but the impact is not big, she is full of profit, a pair of scorpions look at the leaves and forget the past, whispered.

Ye Yexi was not as friendly as she was when she first saw it, and she did not care about her.

Song Qiutong touched the nails here, and turned his head to look at the Nangong Temple. Nangong’s attitude towards her was much better than that of the beginning, but he also said: “I don’t need your help. I just haven’t seen it for many years. I was surprised at the moment. Not so weak, you have to have leisure and take care of others."

Here, Song Qiutong and the Confucian scholars did not notice the ink.

He has fallen back to the body of Chu Yuning, and looked up at the soul of the late night, and the fierceness of Luo’s fierceness. Then look at the corpse that was temporarily sealed by thousands of willow trees, and could not help but be scared.

It is necessary to know that such a spell, even under normal conditions, is extremely consuming. What's more, Chu Ning is still in the soul?

How strong is this person’s strength?

When I didn't finish it, I heard a burst of exclamation.

The vines of the topping willow are the enemy, but the silk is tied by the willow under the high moon. The lush foliage quickly swallows her to the invisible, and the giant trees wrap her in the cracked tree hole. Then, the ancient Liu Liu, who was directly in the sky, slowly descended and slowly descended, eventually reaching the ordinary ancient wood trees.

At this point, the enchantment has been broken, but the tens of thousands of people who have turned into a shackle are locked with the zombie, so there is no danger for a while.

Xue Zhengyi did not dare to relax, and the rest of the people who commanded the death of the dead were kept in front of each willow, just in case. Others went straight to the Chen Zhai compound. Because of the urgency of the situation, I didn’t think much about it. I hugged the body of Chu’s cold and cold, and went over there.

When the crowd arrived, the ancient Liuliu, which locked Luo’s fiber, had become a real coffin. She lay in it, her face was sometimes embarrassing, sometimes mournful, her eyes were sometimes fierce and sometimes sad.

There are two kinds of voices in her mouth, one is crazy, shouting: "Why stop me!! Why stop me! You should die! Damn!!"

One is weak and helpless: "Jero brother, is that you... Is the person coming from you? Please... save me... I don't want to hurt... I beg you..."

The two voices alternated alternately. After a long time, the inside of the scorpion was dead.

At this time, the spiritual power of the soul of the late night of Chu was near the limit and could not be supported, but he relied on his mind and finally went to the woman's eyebrows.

"Who is it?"

The ghosts of the female ghosts slowly opened, and there was still a scarlet inside.

Li Wuxin lost his voice: "Not good!!"

Just wanting to squat on the body, took the life of Qingqing, but was emptied by the night of Chu, and a thunder fell, blocking his way.

"Chu night, you -!"

Chu nightning did not care for him, staring at the delicate girl who was sitting slowly in the middle of the squat.

She opened her eyes and blood, but there was no half-inch murder inside. Instead, she was flustered and whispered: "It’s all over, it’s fierce."

Chu Xiaoning heard her answer, and finally she was relieved, her eyelashes fell, and her soul went away.

After a while, the man in the ink-burning arms flicked a little, and the ink burned him down, letting him lean against the pillar, kneeling on one knee, and aligning with him, saying: "Master, you are back. ?"

Chu Fengning's Fengmu had an instant loss of consciousness. After a while, he slowly gathered the focus.

He glanced at the ink, and the spiritual power was much more. He was a thin man with a spiritual core, so he looked a little weak, his face was not much better than when he was born, but still so pale.

"Well..." Chu was rather okay, and it took a while to get up, and this slowly helped the colonnade to get up.

He walked slowly to the front of Luo Fibre and looked down at her.

Luo fidelity slightly opened his mouth and looked at him slyly: "Jero brother... How can I be here? Send, what happened?"

"It’s not too much to say." Although Chu Yuening was a little weak, but his eyes were sharp and sharp, he asked straightforwardly. "Tell me, who is this person who gave you this body? This matter is very important, you can still remember?"

"I……"

Chu nightning waited, nails because of tension, and almost cut off on the stone pillar.

"Not very clear, but some impressions..." Luo fieryly muttered. "It's a man, he...he..."

Xue Meng on the other side is also anxious: "Think about it!"

Luo fiber fiercely recalled: "I was confused at the time, I really didn't see his face, but I heard his voice, a bit of a northern tone... It seems... it seems..."

"Ah!!" She suddenly exclaimed, showing the color of fear, "I remembered! It is him! It is him!!! Orange!! Steal orange!"

"What oranges steal oranges, messy..." Xue Meng said.

But Chu Xiaoning immediately understood - she said that she was the madman who cut the orange tree when she was a child!

There are men in Linyi, and twenty hearts are dead.

who is it……

Linyi, is it difficult to be a Confucianist?

Yes……

However, at this time, the sky suddenly burst into a thunder, and the chess game that was hovering over the town of Choi Butterfly suddenly burst into red.

Xue Zhengxuan said: "Not good!" immediately shouted high. "I look close to the masses around me!! It is fear that the people in the chess game have already discovered that they must move!"

When the town of Caidie was flying, the sand was flying and the smoke was everywhere.

The monks are waiting in a row, with their backs and long swords.

Chu night Ning was dark and dark, and he said: "Get up! There is a white person left by the person in your body. You have to be restrained by him again. I will drive you out. The reincarnation of the local government must never stay in the mortal world forever!"

Speaking of the palm of my heart, I shot it at the volley of Luo.

However, the spiritual power did not feel the power of the white game.

Chu night, a sigh of relief, suddenly a chill came to my heart, between the electric and the flint, he was almost subconsciously aware of the danger, Chao Luo fiber said: "Go!"

That's too late.

"what!!!!"

Only heard a sharp scream.

The treasures of the sky are in the heart of the game, and a * shot down, with the thunder of the body on the body made of Luo Sui Liu Liu.

"boom!"

Fire and bully!

"Roofy!"

The figure of the girl quickly became distorted in the sea of fire, and suddenly, the incense soul rose to the sky and mixed with the smelly smoke.

The soul and the smoke tremble, and the smoke and the soul condense.

Originally, Luo’s position stood suddenly, and suddenly a blue light array emerged.

"Mu Ling Essence?!"

At the end of the night, the blood was faded and clean, and his eyes were extremely fierce. He thought wrong - he was wrong! ! Presumably, Luo Fibre must be a person with a high spirit of wood. The behind-the-scenes pusher is not in the heart of the golden fire and water, but is waiting for the grievances to become a thunder, smashing on the slender body and let her complain. Soul, become the source of temporary living and picking the heart!

Jinmu water and fire, all five.

What he has to do, can do it now...

Chu night Ning looked up at the sky, everyone looked at the top, the leaves were bleak, and the time was calm and terrible.

Then, suddenly, between.

Great earthquake! !

It is almost the same as the ancient city of Lin'an that they once saw in the fantasy of Taohuayuan.

Above the butterfly town, a huge purple-black split was torn open. The inside was like a hurricane wrapped in countless blood and rain. It was like a devil's eye and slowly opened.

Li Wuxin pointed at the crack and shouted: "Infernal * - the enchantment of hell! - broken, broken!!!!"

"The sky above the town of Choi Butterfly has been cracked, and the door of the ghost world has opened!!"

The author has something to say:

Chapter 95

The film of the yin and yang circles has not been stable as in the ancient times. Small breaks and small leaks are common things, and will not cause the monks to panic.

However, at this time, a * slanted across the sky, and the world changed in a flash, and the sand flew away.

It was a vast expanse in a hundred years!

All the people present, except the ink-burning, did not really experience such innocent disasters. Therefore, whether it is Li Wuxin, the head of the sky, or Xue Zhengyi of the Baijing battlefield, it is the Confucianism gate of the Shang Xiu Jie, or the death and death of the Xiu Bianjie, thousands of people in the porridge porridge, all of them are at a loss, I do not know how to respond.

And the ink burning is like a thunder, a thick * suffocating seems to have come from his previous life, grinding blood, killing people like 麻 -

It is this day!

In the past life, the teacher was killed in this crack. He was with the late night of the Chu Dynasty, but because of the lack of spiritual power, the ghosts swarmed out and rebelled, falling from the sky...

But that is clearly what happened three years later! The smoldering is so clear that the snowy night, the New Year's Eve, the air is still filled with a touch of smoke, and there are still shredded firecrackers on the snow. He stayed with everyone for the night before and drank the Tosu wine.

The ink burned and drunk, and raised his eyes.

Under the warm candle, the eyes of the teacher seem to be full of Ying Ying Chun Shui, no matter from which angle, it is affectionate.

The hustle and bustle of life and death is so lively, staggering, laughing and cheering.

At that time, he thought, this is really great, even if you don’t disturb the people you like, it’s good to watch it all the time.

Hua Tuo dispersed, and the disciples brought home. He and Meng Shi went to Meng Po Tang to go back. The frost and the snow were flowing through the moon. He saw that the teacher was a little cold, so he took off his robe and could not help but say that he was on the other side. With a little drink, he carefully looked at him.

Beauty is like a new snow.

"A burning."

"Ok."

"You drink a lot today."

"Haha, is there?" The ink burned and laughed, and there were no more than two laughs. Suddenly, I couldn’t laugh.

The gentleman's hands were gently holding his face, so the hot cheeks became hotter, the ink burned and widened, and there was some tremor at that moment.

The teacher smiled and said to him, "Why didn't you, you see you, three cups of hot wine into the throat, and the face is red."

"Yes, it's hot."

The ink burned awkwardly, but his face burned even harder.

At that time, how satisfied he was, like a person, don't have to get it, don't dare to think about it.

The man just touched his face, and he felt that he was already favored by God. He couldn’t say more words, only he was embarrassed.

The darkness of the black ink is full of surprises and gratitude.

The two did not pass before the bed, when the priest's cloak left, he slammed against the snow, and smiled at him.

"A burning."

He had wanted to leave, and the words were like a gyro. The warehouse was hurriedly turned around, lest he missed something.

"Yes, I am!"

"Thank you for your clothes."

"Nothing! Anyway, I am hot!"

"There is still." The teacher's eyes became more and more gentle, almost the kind of warmth that could make the winter go. "A burning, actually me..."

Oh.

There is a fireworks in the distance.

The ink burned did not hear what he said, or maybe the teacher did not say it at the time.

When the silence was around, the teacher had already pushed the threshold of his bedroom.

The ink was burning, and he was busy yelling at him: "Wait, what did you just say?"

The other party was hard to tease, and blinked: "Tell me only once."

"Teacher--"

However, the person who took the photo of the soul was still ignoring the wish, leaving only half of the beautiful face exposed under the warm curtain.

There is also a smile that makes ink burn for a lifetime.

"Not too early, I went to sleep. Wake up tomorrow morning, if I still want to tell you."

He paused and the soft eyelashes fell like a mimosa.

"I will tell you again..."

Unexpectedly, the sky cracks and the dawn comes one after another.

After all, the ink burned still did not wait for the teacher's words, the softest old dream of his life, was dyed scarlet.

How many times to dream back at midnight, he still remembers the smiling face of the teacher after half a roll of warm curtains, so good-looking, so gentle, he does not know whether it is his own illusion, and even think that it is infinitely affectionate.

He continued the long dream in the rest of his pain.

The dream teacher said to him, he woke up with a smile, very happy, even happy to forget the teacher died, forgot to go back in a hurry.

He smiled so happily, thinking that from now on, to do something good for the beloved, what is so important is that it is worth worrying about.

But always, laughing and laughing, tears are falling.

He buried his face in his palm.

That year's New Year's Eve snow night, scattered in the wind, he will never know again.

Thousands of miles are broken, and * is infinite.

Numerous evil spirits rushed out of the cracks, like a thousand troops rushing to the city. The screams around him stunned the ink from the memories.

He was almost mad, and he shouted anxiously in the chaotic and chaotic crowds.

"Teacher!!"

"Shi Yan -!! Shi Mingjing!!"

"Where are you? Where are you?"

I don't know why the crack in the three years will suddenly come ahead.

I don't know if I can protect you now.

But I can't see you hurt again, can't see you die again...

I beg you to live...

It’s not good for me. I am not strong enough to shelter you. It’s too stupid, I don’t think about everything, where are you...

"A burning..."

In the overlapping of the soldiers, there was a vague voice, and it was heard.

"Teacher!!"

He saw him, and beside Xue Meng, he was using the water spirit as a screen to stop the evil spirits from culling. The smoldering almost went to him indiscriminately, and his voice whimpered and his eyes were red.

"Dog stuff you, you come over and take the handle!" Xue Meng took ten, but the wave of corpses was like a stream of water, his forehead gradually oozing sweat, silver teeth biting, "Come on!"

Why did he say that the ink burned and the red light flashed, and the ghost was called.

The hand fell from the vine, and a row of ghosts in front of him was smashed by the gods, and it was broken into powder. The ink burned and turned to the teacher and shouted: "You don't go far, come behind me!"

"I want to help the teacher..."

"Don't go!!!" The ink burned the words, almost stunned!

He must not let the sergeant approach the late night in this melee.

The images of past lives are constantly overlapping with the scenes in front of them.

- In the same year, it was the same sentence.

"I want to help the teacher..."

"Well, you are going to pass, the Master will be safer, don't leave him, let him protect you."

How ridiculous...

Let him protect you.

Chu nightning, Chu nightning, ink burned everything, but forgot that the person is Chu nightning!

Ruthless, cold-blooded.

The world full of hearts is full of life, but his disciples are dead but they don’t care!

"Don't go to him! He can handle it himself!"

The overlap of the two worlds made his scalp numb, his eyes burning red, and he yelled at the teacher. "Where you don't leave, leave!"

"But just the master's mana loss is so big..."

"Can't die! Take care of yourself!"

He said, his eyes were raging, and the zombies that were coming in the roll were slamming. Suddenly flesh and blood, the brain is splashing.

Although the spiritual power is not as good as the previous life, but one stroke and one style is all skillful. This body of battle has once confronted the masters of Ye Shixiu and Chu Wanning. Even if the murderer is a million, there is no fear.

The cracks in the sky are getting bigger and bigger.

In the hell, the ghosts that have been floating for hundreds of years will be like the torrential rains, and they will be mixed into the colorful butterfly towns and zombies that have broken the willows. The scene is getting more and more crazy and more and more horrible. . It seems that the water is poured into the oil, and the pot is boiling in the sky, so it is not lively. It is also like a locust rushing to the valley, and the evil spirits are holding on to the living, and the people who are dying of life are still able to cope with the small troubles of the past. However, Confucianism and Bitanzhuang were completely ravaged. How many monks screamed and screamed, and the blood was a few feet high!

Chu nightning is far away, and the ink burns temporarily cannot see his condition.

However, I accidentally saw Ye Jingxi and Nangong Temple in the rolling sea. Although the two men did not match the dishes, they were astonishingly struggling.

I saw that Ye had forgotten the long sword, and the blue light came from the hand, and a long bow was called. The Nangong Temple was also the arm of the month. The two looked at each other and walked over to each other. At the most dense place, take the arrow and stretch the string.

Hey!

The two men almost fell at the same time, the white feathers were cracked, and the sound was like a geese.

The arrow smashed the spirit, and the wind blade was scattered all over the place. Wherever they passed, the evil spirits were torn and strangled...

Nangong’s face was smug, and the backhand went to the back of the arrow to draw arrows.

The food was touched.

"Gone?"

"Here."

Before he was annoyed, Ye had forgotten to give him a bunch of white feather arrows.

"You don't want to bring more."

"……Humph!"

Nangong snorted, but the situation was critical. He did not have this thought and leaves to forget the score, took the arrow, and they sank into their own fights.

Half an hour has passed, and the evil spirits have repelled much, but more from the ghosts.

Li Wuxin killed more than ten souls with a sword, and turned to Xue Zhengxuan and shouted: "Nothing like this, you can't stand it. People make up the world!"

Xue Zhengyi glanced at the distant place of Caidie Town, with four golden lights in each of the four directions.

He gasped and angered: "It's easy to say, can you make up this enchantment? Are there any people left in the world?"

"I--" Li Wuxin said with a black face. "The enchantment is a technique, and I am not the leader."

"Then you * shut up! Do you have a few jade balances? Chu nightning is guarding the four positions, otherwise these dead ghosts will rush out of the encirclement, and will soon kill the whole squat, the cultivation of the immortals can not support If you don’t cultivate the immortal, don’t you just finish it?”

"It’s better to finish the battle than to repair the real world. You won’t let people come to make up the cracks. I’m afraid this will be difficult to end!”

Xue Zhengyi heard the anger, the iron fan slammed, and when the hurricane slammed into the ghost, it also seemed to unscrupulously smashed Li’s cheek: “If you are in the upper class, it’s natural for you to be in the world. Dead?"

"You don't want to talk nonsense! I am talking about abandoning the car and protecting the car! If this crack occurs in my Bitanzhuang, I will sacrifice the whole door to protect the world!"

"A big tone, Li Zhuang is really standing and talking without back pain." Xue Zhengyi's tiger eyes are round and angry, and he laughs aloud. "The entrance to the ghost world is in my mind, and the world will not move to your Bitan Village." Going, it seems that the shackles of death can be destroyed thousands of times, to protect a world of peace! Li Zhuang, you can really say."

The two men were fighting and fighting, and when they couldn’t hold on, they suddenly saw a radiance of snow shining from the western horizon.

I didn’t see what the enemy was, but I heard the sounds of the wind and the showers, the dense and compact sounds of the sounds, the quarrels, the strings, the shadows, like the heavens and the waves, and the likes of the arrows, clearly I didn’t see the blade, but I felt that the sword was everywhere, and the iron rider was raging.

“Kunlun Snow Palace!”

Xue Zhengxuan looked up and looked at the snow that was rolling in. It was close to it. It was a group of swords, dressed in snow and fog, and the fairy with the petals of peach blossoms. They are extremely feminine in both men and women, and for the sake of their own methods, their appearances are still in their early twenties.

The people who walked in the snow palace were standing or sitting, half of them were holding their cockroaches in their arms, and half of them were squatting in front of the guqin. The music that was cut and slashed and clear was so sloppy, so that the zombies in the land could not help but Sending pain and sorrow, but if you are caged by the sky, you can't get out.

For the first man, light blonde, jasper, and five senses are profound. He was wearing a snow coat, lined with a drop of water, and a slender neck was found in his collar, like Fang Fei in the porcelain bottle. Cool by Kunlun, there is a fox in the outside of Suyi, which is more calm and graceful.

This person also holds an exquisite sly in his arms, rubbing his brows, sharpening his fingers and picking up the strings, and numerous burning peaches dance around him in his piano.

"The four seas are swayed by the wind, the millennium is clear, and the clothes are even worse. Today is a great achievement."

The sound of the piano was slight, and he coveted Xue Zhengyi and others. He wanted to speak a little. He heard a distant man yelling: "Mei Xuexue! How is this dog thing!"

The person who shouted was Xue Meng. While sulking, he plunged under the plum-bearing sword, and looked up and said: "How did Kunlun's Snow Palace send you such an unreliable thing to help?"

Ye Yexiong heard the sound and turned back, and saw the man who was flying the snow, and there was also a thin anger.

"……It's him?"

Nangong said: "What? You know this?"

"I don't know." Ye Hao was not happy when he met Mei Hanxue, but Xue Meng was rushing to swear. He turned his head and left, just throwing a sentence, "I have only played one."

Nangong has some interest: "Oh, how is his skill?"

"Oh." Ye forgets the sneer, "He fights by women, how do you say."

Nangong Temple: "..."

The author has something to say: Come on!

In the past, the dog was turned from an ordinary person into a battle of the gods of the stepping king. The dog sticks his head out! Falling knife!

Chapter 96

No wonder the leaves are forgotten, this plum snow is at that time in Taohuayuan, the "master brother" who attracted countless women to fight for jealousy.

I thought it was awesome. Who knows that it was a small white face that relied on skin to eat. Nangong suddenly lost interest and turned around and killed the enemy.

Mei Hanxue glanced at Xue Meng, his eyes were full of helplessness, but he did not pay attention to him. Instead, he lowered his eyebrows and shook the strings several times. He walked through the snow palace and heard the sound of the piano, and then spread out— -

"The piano department, playing Yao Guangqu; the crotch, breaking the dance."

With his orders, those who swayed the strings of the piano instantly changed their movements, and countless rushing sounds of the golden stone gathered in the air and resounded through the clouds.

For a time, the ghosts were fascinated, and they all stopped to kill. They stretched their necks in the same place and looked forward.

Li Wuxin saw this situation. People who think of Kunlun’s Snow Palace are not only good at music, but also understand the way of enchantment repair. They are very happy, and they yelled: “May Yin, can you make up this day?”

Mei Hanxue also did not care about his "May Yin Seng" calling for disgusting, and only replied: "There is no time for hell, but my strength can be completed."

"Ah, this..." Li Wuxin’s face was white and white, and he finally sighed, "Oh!"

"With snow, Choi Die Town is surrounded by four sides, can you live in harmony?"

The person who spoke was Xue Zhengxuan. Because of the goodness of life and the marriage of the Snow Palace, Mei Hanxue met the familiar elders, first holding a ritual, and then said: "You can try."

"Great!" Xue Zheng slammed the knot. "You are going to guard the enchantment of the four sides, don't let the ghosts go outside. Call the jade back again -"

"Yuheng Elder?"

"Ah, oh my memory, I forgot that you have never seen Yuheng. But it doesn't matter, you know it in the past, that is the one who is guarding the enchantment."

"Good." Mei Hanxue is quite calm, and the sword is biased, just like stepping on a meteor and flying to the edge of Caidie Town.

Nangong 驷 搭 三 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 驷 南 南 南

Although the soul of the dead on the ground was stagnant due to the sound of the piano in the snow palace, there were more fierce spurts in the eyes of the ghost world. All the people in the Snow Palace are standing in the air, and they can't separate their hands from the protection when they play music. Therefore, those evil spirits have rushed to the square of the clouds and the ancient music array.

The people in the Snow Palace had to split a part and play the music of the Royal Array. Therefore, the songs of the repulsed exorcism were weakened a lot, and the fierce spirit on the ground suddenly surged like an ant.

What is even more frightening is that as the door of the ghost world grows bigger and bigger, some of the high-ranking ghosts who wear shackles, because they have absorbed a large number of people, Yuanyang, actually broke the barriers and rushed into the mortal world.

These ghosts are different from the previous ones. Their corpses are united with resentment. They are more violent and more spiritual. The ordinary monks can't block them alone. The disciples who are single are turned over by them. The fingers of the bones are fierce. Insert live human chest lungs -

A bang!

The blood of the monk splashed, and the monk's aura-filled heart was chewed by these high-ranking spirits, and the blood and water ran down the face of the evil spirits.

The mouth is full of broken meat and blood, and the strength of the evil spirits is even worse. It slams into the crowd and looks like a cheetah to find new prey to bite.

Time is a mess!

Xue Zhengxuan shouted: "Stop the group, don't run around, don't order!"

But there were still panicked people crying and fleeing. The blood smell in the air is getting heavier and heavier, the tide-like evils, the tides of the dead...

Nangong Temple was opening the bow and pulling the string smoothly. Suddenly there was a hanged ghost spitting blood red tongue, stalking his waist and slamming his claws.

The leaves are far away, and when they look back, they always have a quiet face, and when they turn, they become pale.

"Auntie!!"

"The son!"

At a critical juncture, Song Qiutong took the sword and plunged into the arm of the hanged ghost. But she didn't even kill anyone before, not to mention such a ghost. When a sword stabbed, she could loose her hand and the long sword fell to the ground.

Under the wrath of the savage ghost, she slammed a blow at her. Nangong smashed her sword and changed her sword. She blocked her and shouted at her: "You hide away, go quickly."

Song Qiutong’s tears and Yingying said: “The fate of Qiu Tong was saved by the Confucianism, how can he leave at this time...”

Nangong is not good at dealing with women, but she is weak in her body, her eyes are firm, and her heart is moving, but she can’t help but scream, “Leaves forget!!”

"Leaves forget! You roll me over! Give her care!"

The leaves were forgotten, and the handsome face was stained. He grabbed Song Qiutong’s arm and said harshly: "Look for Qin brother, don't run around."

"I don't want to go, I can still help." She pleaded, "Lord, I want to stay with you."

"Leave the past, you protect her!"

When the face of the forgotten face is ugly, it becomes very difficult to see. The person with such a gentleman's posture will have such an angry look.

"Nan Gong Temple." Every word between the teeth is trembling, broken, "I see you are faint."

After that, they ignored the two of them, and they took the sword and plucked it, hiding in the rushing corpse.

There are more and more high-level fierce spirits, they are mixed in the crowd, like a sharp knife cut through the fish belly, peeling off the scales, sticky and shiny scales dyed with red blood, floating and sinking.

Everyone has become self-satisfied, evil spirits surround the living, want to take each of them into the belly, dragged into hell. The three people, such as ink-burning, Xuemeng, and Shishi, resisted each other and resisted the Quartet. However, the circle became narrower and narrower. The Xueman smashed a fierce arm and the blood was high.

The sneaky sneaks of this attack saw this person tyrannical, and they circumnavigated past, and they all rushed to the side of the priest, and the priests and their hands were sealed, but because of the weakening of the spirit, the light and light were dark and clear...

Seeing it is hard to resist, and the ink burns the heart, saying: "Sir, you open a guard, Xue Meng hides."

"What?" Xue Meng heard a big anger, "Do you want me to be a shrinking head?"

"Listen to me to hide in! When are you still struggling, so many ghosts we killed?"

The teacher said: "What do you want to do?"

"Don't ask, do what I said." The ink burned in a slow tone. "It's okay."

The encirclement is gradually squeezing, and the ink burns and urges: "Hurry up, it will be too late."

The teacher had to transform the mantra, raised a blue defensive light array, and caged himself and Xue Meng. When the ink burned, he saw him bursting out, and suddenly he pulled out his sleeves and arrow, and wiped the palm of his hand and sprinkled blood on the line to leave his own spiritual power. Then he looked down and sighed: "Not working yet?!"

Seeing the ghosts, the flames are flourishing, and each piece of willow is wrapped in a * red aura, like a sharp knife falling on the vine. The whole section of the willows suddenly grows out of the captain, and the ink burns closes the eyes. Several times to make the appearance of the killing move, and then blink of an eye, the face reflected in countless enchanting faces.

He took a hit with a sneaky volley, Mars burst, and splashed.

The ink burned and raised, and the clothes hunted.

At that moment, his figure seemed to overlap with the figure of Chu Ningning in his mind. The movements of the two people were almost the same, no different.

"wind."

Destroy the dead! Clouds are low!

The two people behind the ink burned, only saw a huge scarlet light array like the * red lotus burning, strong winds across the ground, like a million pieces of shadowless knife, the ghost in the ink burning hands into a virtual shadow, the Over the place, flying sand and gravel, countless evil spirits were wrapped in the air of this cracking shore, and instantly twisted into pieces of minced meat! !

Chu night Ning Tian asked the group to kill the "wind."

The ink burned has been learned nine points similar...

The wind is fading, and there is nowhere to be seen.

Looking back, Xue Meng and Shi Yan’s face are full of horror, and the ink is too late to be happy. I only feel that I have learned far enough in the weekdays. If I can immediately respond to the repairs in the past, the ghosts in this area will be missing, and where will they be? Let them be so stretched.

"Look over there!"

Suddenly someone shouted in the distance.

Everyone looked up, but saw several directions in the sky, each with different clothes, and several swords of different auras came.

The Heavenly Crack of Infernal Hell finally alerted all the martial art of the upper martial arts. With the stalk of the light sword landing, or the Lin Lingyu people are beautiful and beautiful, or the masters of the sorrowful temple are solemn... all these kinds, Should not be overwhelmed.

The people of the top ten sects have finally arrived.

More powerful evil spirits are still being born, and the tide is endless, but as the monks suddenly increase, the scene is no longer at a disadvantage.

At the same time, the spiritual power of Mei Hanxue and Chu Xinning was finally completed, and the enchantment in the four directions of the southeast and northwest changed from gold to blue.

The edge is handed over by Mei Hanxue, and the night is swaying by the wind, and it floats to the core of the fierce battle.

He looked up at the scorpion rip that had been fully opened, and there was some kind of huge, sinister power behind it.

Chu nightning can almost feel the power of the madness, like drinking thousands of plasma, drinking the brains of hundreds of millions of souls...

I will not seal the enchantment again, I am afraid that some kind of super evil spirits that are suppressed in * will break free from the crowd and come to the world!

Chu night can't help but think, is it that the people behind the scenes are struggling with hardships, and want to put a giant in the purgatory in the red dust?

But what about him?

"Master!"

The teacher shouted at him anxiously.

Chu Xiaoning heard the sound and turned his face.

The scenes of past lives have coincided.

"Master!"

At that time, the teacher also called him.

Chu Xiaoning heard the sound and turned his face.

工具 pleated in the gaze of the gaze: sturdy look is very strong?

"Ok."

"But this... This is not a general day mark. This is a crack in hell. How can the Master respect you?"

"..."

"I came to help the teacher to give up the strength. I am so eager to learn the defensive skills in Taohuayuan, will not drag the teacher to respect the hind legs ..."

After two years ago, the two decided to talk about life and death as if they were in the ear.

The ink burned and stunned, and the scalp was numb. He slammed the teacher behind him and slammed it to Xue Meng. The loud voice: "Xue Ziming, you look at him! Look at him!"

Xue Meng's eyes wide open: "Where is the dog thing you are going to?"

"I……"

The wind is rising, and the four fields are sweet.

There is no snow in the sky, and everything is different from the past.

The smoldering eyes fell on the ignorant teacher, and there was a sore relief in my heart.

This enchantment, it is impossible to make up for it alone.

But apart from a few of their apprentices, no one knows that the late night is so good to be able to work with him to be seamless, so this robbery must have someone to go.

The hurricane is angry and smashes.

The ink burned and swayed the heart, and took over the teacher. For the first time, he held him directly into his arms, paused and shook, and then suddenly pushed away.

Teacher.

This dead person is probably me.

"I went to the assistant to seal the seal and enchantment." The ink burned, and there was an irresistible refusal in the tone. He narrowed his eyes and looked at the teacher.

Suddenly, he didn't want to care about what other people think. He didn't care if Xue Meng was there. He didn't care if he would be rejected. He waited for two lifetimes and loved his two life. Now he has to go, maybe he can't come back. He stood in the wind and wanted to say a few words with the person he loved.

"Sister, actually, I..."

However, when he opened his mouth, the roar of the evil spirits and the beasts covered his voice.

The impulse of the lava-like tumbling chills in this stagnation, and finally stops.

"A burning, what do you want to say?"

The ink burned before the eyes suddenly passed the reflection of the past life, under the half-roll warm curtain, is the gentle smile of the face.

Cruel.

He remembered his life, from birth to death, and fell to Huang Quan.

The ink-burning eyes were slightly red, but they laughed.

"Nothing, don't talk about the second time."

Teacher: "You..."

"I am going to help the Master, after I come back... If I still want to tell you." He was deep and gaze, "I will tell you again..."

After that, he turned and rushed toward the night.

The teacher will not die.

At least not in front of him.

The ink burned and felt that the sky was wide and wide, and the white figure flying in front of him was the end of this life.

His master, has always been the world.

When the teacher died, in order to complete the final vacancies, in order to eliminate those sorrows, Chu Yuening chose to leave.

This time, people who have been cultivating the world have changed themselves. Chu nightning is so inferior to himself, hates himself, and will not let his own Beidou Xianzun's reputation not to come to fulfill the life and death of an insignificant little person.

"Master."

He stood before him. Ghosts in your hands.

"This is hard to make up, I will help you."

The situation was at stake, and Chu Yuning looked at him. It was the default.

He flew up to the sky and stood in the corner of Chen’s head. The ink burned and jumped up.

Chu night Ningdao: "Looking, watching."

The ink burned according to his intentions, and he raised his hand at the same time. The two men left and right, and the fingertips condensed on the curse of the enchantment and slowly lifted up.

"Array open!"

The spiritual power of the two men rushed out of the body with this low voice. They stood in their positions and joined hands to form a golden and red enchantment.

The enchantment touched the fierce spirit that had just emerged. The fierce spirit was like being burnt by the fire. It was screaming and returning to the eyes of the ghost world. The enchantment became more and more clear, and the light ray became more and more glaring. At the foot of each of them, two dragons were erected, and the two men were dragged to the top of the sky.

The ghost eyes slowly closed under the pressure of the golden red light array, but they seemed unwilling, and the grievances were even worse.

Every time I closed an inch, the suffocating suffocating inside became more and more intense. When the two men were only a few miles away from the enchantment, the evil spirits in the area were almost as solid.

The body after the re-emergence of the smoldering gradually felt like a million weight on the shoulder, and the chest was better like a thousand boulder.

On the other hand, Chu Lingning's spiritual power is steady and powerful, and it is continuously exported.

One inch, another inch.

The evil wind between heaven and earth has been brought together, turned into a sharp knife blade, and Ling is every bit of his skin.

"Master respect..."

As the consciousness gradually blurred, he seemed to see the scene of the year.

Shi Yan and Chu Wanning worked together to repair the squad. The yin and yang were closed only in the shackles. Those who could not return to the yang had weak strengths, and they all gathered in one place and rushed toward the sergeant.

"Hey!"

Just in an instant, you will try your best to maintain the balance of the enchantment!

Replaying in general, almost nothing has changed.

Only this time, the people who are sorrowful are changing their ink.

At the crack of the sky, the black evil smashed through the heavy clouds, and in a moment passed through the ink-burning chest. The ink burned only felt a blush in front of the eyes, and returned to God to understand that it was the blood of his chest.

In such a boring airflow, he leaned over his face in a difficult way, but he saw that the night of Ning was like a snow, and his face was cold, but he was not given to himself.

There are countless resentments in the chest.

In the end, it is hateful.

He fell from the dragon on the platform, the bleeding of the lips and the redness of the chest.

It is very quick to fall, but suddenly it feels so long, it is like a dying person gradually sinking into the sea, and then can't hear the whispers of the world.

Chu nightning, did not raise their hands.

No block.

Even, there was no distraction to look at him.

When he fell, the red spiritual power suddenly disappeared. As soon as he was a past life, Chu Jingning chose to use all the spells to burn the enchantment that had never been completed.

Blastly sealed!

But the evils left in the human world have lost the nourishment of the ghosts of the ghost world. The instinct feels anxious, more and more violent, and angers the monks to fight against each other. The body of the flesh and blood is only in the blink of an eye, and the array of many sects must be defeated.

Chu nightning fell from the sky. When the ink burned down, the bottom of the dragon column was covered with a layer of light to protect him, and fell to the ground without breaking the bones.

But the entire chest was penetrated by evil spirits, and the blood flowed to the ground, but it was no different from that of the teacher.

Chu nightning strikes and retreats toward the evil spirits that come from the ink. The backhand falls down an enchantment and burns the ink in it.

"Master respect..."

The person behind him seems to mutter like this slightly.

"Do you want to go..."

The ink burns and coughs blood, but the face is smiling.

"Do you want to go again?"

Excited by the golden glory of the enchantment, the figure of the man is still standing against him, the ink burns open his mouth, but the throat suddenly rushes into a big mouthful of sweetness.

"Chu Ningning, are you a wood man? You will not be sad, not selfish, right?"

"Chu Ning..."

"Chu Ning..."

He felt more and more blurred in front of him. When he was in a fierce battle, he had already suffered from injuries. His forehead didn’t know where to smash, and the blood flowed down into his eyes. As he smiled and smiled, he almost laughed wildly. In the blood, tears are falling.

He choked: "Chu Ning, you look back! Look at me... you still have to go..."

Look at me again.

I am going to die.

In the same year, you were so embarrassed, and finally married him again.

you……

Is it real……

Don't like me at all? Don't look at me at all?

Otherwise why don't you even look at me at the last glance, why are you no longer willing to look back?

"Master respect..."

Blood and tears are full.

In the final impression, outside the golden enchantment, the man was white and stunned.

He went to town.

It turned out that in his heart, anyone in the world... is more important than the light rain.

Chapter 97

"Ink burning, ink burning."

It seems that someone is calling him.

He opened his eyes in confusion, reflecting a white shadow in the faint field of vision. He vaguely felt that this person was very similar to Chu, but could not believe it. He only thought that the man folded his hands on his chest and kept going to him. The blood flows across the stream.

So warm...

who is it?

He tried to look at the shadow that was too vague.

"Ink burning..."

"Master, Master?"

He swallowed his throat and asked him.

There were warm drops of water dripping on his cheeks. Gradually, he cleared his eyes. The people in front of him had a pair of phoenixes like Jiangnan apricot flowers. Their faces were pale and blood stained. The ink looked at him steadily, and he never saw such a look on the face of Chu.

His master has always been meager, but the people in front of him are crying.

The ink burns out and wants to touch, wanting to know if this is true, or the illusion of seeing the dead. But the fingertips were a few inches away from the man's cheeks and stopped again.

Sometimes hating a person is a habit. If you shouldn’t hate him suddenly, you will become very upset.

He didn't dare to run into it.

I am afraid that it is true.

I am afraid that it is a fake.

He saw that after the night of Chu, he was full of blood and sea. I don’t know if it was the town of Choi Butterfly after the war, or he was already in Shura. He knows that he is doing a lot of evil, and he has a lingering death.

Can be late in Nanjing...

He is a good person.

How can I come with myself and sleep forever?

"There is one last point." Chu Yuening's voice is like coming from the deep sea, so hey, "You can't sleep, otherwise..."

He saw blood leaking from the corner of Chu’s mouth.

The golden light was growing more and more, and suddenly the person in front of him was caged by the halo, and turned into a child.

"Otherwise, if I am under the jade, I will not have your apprentice."

"Xia Shidi!"

I saw that Chu Ning became a Xia Shi reverse, and the smoldering was extremely shocked. The wound suddenly became very painful, and I couldn’t think too much. I was faint again.

"Ink burning."

The gentle, almost sighing voice, I don’t know the illusion of the past, but the whisper that he left in his ear.

"Sorry, it is Master's fault..."

This is another sentence! This is another sentence!

Chu night, I don't want you to admit mistakes, I want you -

how?

Suddenly, I didn’t know what I was thinking.

Don't admit his mistakes, what about him?

Suddenly opened his eyes and gasped fiercely. The ink burned sweaty heavy shirt, looked up and saw a neat and clean room, not too much decoration.

He is already lying in the dorm room of the dead.

He is still alive...

I looked around incredulously, raised a slightly cold hand, and touched the place where my heart hurt. There was a thick bandage wrapped there, and the blood stained through the gauze. It hurts a bit, but under the gauze, the heart is still beating, so powerful, surging the ecstasy of the rest of the robbery.

He is still alive.

He is still alive! !

The blood flow rushed wildly in the young body, shaking his soul and shaking his fingertips.

Suddenly I heard the sound of the warm curtain rolling, the ink burned on the couch and looked up, facing a beautiful woman who came in the curtain, or a little cold outside, he was wearing a white robe, black hair hanging With a slight soft eye, the tail is self-stained with three-point thin red, but it wins a lot of rouge.

The teacher didn't expect the ink to wake up, and he was shocked, and then he said: "A burning? You, you..."

"Teacher! Teacher!"

The ink burned him several times, his eyes were very bright, and the black stone shone like a light. He jumped out of bed, and he did not care for the pain of the wound. He licked his mouth and smacked his mouth. He rushed over and took the teacher’s head full of happiness. From the resort one channel.

"Great! You are not dead! I am not dead! It has passed, it has passed!"

This cleavage was a catastrophe in his previous life. The sorrowful sorrows from the sky, took away the sergeant, and pushed the ink to the abyss of sin.

After he was born again, he was uneasy. This is the chaos. He will repeat the same mistakes. In the end, he will once again be alone, stepping on the beloved bones and walking alone to the empty Wushan Temple.

But God did not thin him. When he stood up and was willing to die for the teacher, everything changed.

He will not be alone, he will not be rebellious, he will not be forced to rush to Liangshan at night, and become a loyalist. From now on, evil will be broken.

He really got rid of the nightmare of his past life, he really reborn.

The ink burned with the teacher, and it took a long time to separate. The fireworks in the eyes overflowed, so bright, like the twinkling stars.

The teacher still stood in the same place until the ink burned his shoulders, and looked at him with a low smile. After watching it for a long time, he gradually returned to his forehead and explored his forehead. Chin.

"A burning."

"Hmm."

When the teacher raised his face again, with a light smile, his eyes were a little wet.

"Fortunately, you are still alive."

Ink smirked and grabbed his head, grabbed his hand and said, "A fool, how can I have something? I..."

I want to say more, and suddenly there is another smashing curtain outside, big stepping.

"Xue Meng?"

"..." Xue Meng was really a careful eye. It was about to be robbed of the limelight when the film was exorcist. His face was gloomy and his lips were tight. Seeing that the ink was awake, it was just a pause, and then turned to the teacher and shouted, "When did he wake up?"

The teacher was hesitant to speak for a moment, and there was some worry in his tone: "Just."

"... um." Xue Meng responded, still not willing to see the ink.

The child who burns the heart is a child. When compared to the limelight, he is robbed of candy. He has no good face for a long time.

However, he was in a good mood, and he did not want to compare with Xue Meng. He smiled and said: "It seems that I have been sleeping for a long time. Who brought me back?"

"Who can still be there." Xue Meng's sleeves are hand-bearing and his face is very poor. "Isn't it a master?"

"what."

It’s a glimpse of the burning of the ink. When the coma was a little fragmented, it flashed from the front, but after waking up, I was shocked and happy. The things I saw at that time became more and more uncertain. It was true or false.

He meditated: "The teacher respects... Xia Shidi..."

Listening to him, Xue Meng’s body couldn’t be checked for an earthquake, and then he said: “Are you glimpsed?”

"what?"

"Xia Shidi is a teacher."

The smoldering was originally a guess. At this time, I suddenly felt shocked and could not help but eclipse: "What!!"

Xue Meng turned his head and looked strange. It seemed to be trying to swear: "What? I thought you already knew it."

The ink screamed and shouted: "How can I know! I was just in a coma... blurry as if the two of them were alternated... I..."

Thinking of Xia Shi and his own companionship in Taohuayuan, the two sleep together, and think of their own feelings when they are in Linling, and the golden hairpin that falls out of his clothes when he is entangled with Chu.

Jellyfish handkerchief.

Will change the size of the clothes with the shape.

Clay soup in the hands of Xia Shi counter.

He turned his head and shouted at his brother, and he touched his head and smiled and said that we are brothers in the future, and the brothers hurt you.

The piles were scattered like smoke in front of the eyes. For a moment, it was the face of Chu Xiaoning who was too faint, and in a moment it was the appearance of Xia Si’s lips.

He once said that he was not good at the late Xia Si, and he did not like him.

He also patiently combed Changsha for Changsha.

The hair is so soft that it flows like a piece of ink between the fingers.

Think about it, it’s really like it...

The ink burned only felt that the head was going to be blown up. He made a few laps in the same place and muttered: "The teacher is the Xia Shidi... The teacher is the Xia Shidi... The teacher is..."

He slammed down, almost madly.

"What a joke! How can the Master be a Xia Shi!!"

"A burning..."

The ink burned and cried: "He, although they have a lot of places, but ... but they are always different. What about the good people of Xia Shidi, how?"

"What do you mean."

Xue Meng suddenly interrupted the words of ink burning, and a pair of sharp eyes fixed on the other's face.

"A good person like Xia Shidi? Why, then a good person will not be a teacher?"

Ink ignited: "I naturally don't say that the teacher is not good. It's just that Xia Shi's brother is sincere to me. I have already taken him as a younger brother. You suddenly told me that he is a teacher, how can you let me? accept……"

Xue Meng angered: "Xia Shidi is sincere, the teacher is on vacation?"

Hearing the smell of rain and tear in his voice, the teacher was busy pulling his sleeves.

"Less Lord, you think about what your uncle has said! Ah, he just woke up, still..."

Xue Meng slammed the hand of the teacher, and the brown eyeballs were still staring at the burning face. The blue veins of the neck even shook like it because of anger. It was like a vomiting letter, ready to bite the prey and quench it. Very poisonous snake.

"Ink rain, you made me clear today, how can the master not be Xia Shi reversed? How can he not match the word of sincerity, eh? You tell me how he faked in your heart. ?!"

The ink burned by his brain's persuasion made some troubles, Xue Mengtian anger and resentment, he is not the first time to see, in his life he became a fairy emperor, and later every time I saw Xue Meng, every time it is such a I ate a temper like a peony.

Involuntarily and annoyed, squinting: "I am with him, you do so much."

"What about you and him?" Xue Meng said, "Do you have him in your heart?"

The ink burned and laughed: "You are sick, Xue Ziming, I have nothing to do with your madness. After leaving the teacher, we went to Danxin Hall to find the uncle and the teacher to ask clearly." Then he pulled the teacher and Xue. I am wrong and want to go outside.

Xue Meng stood there for a while, and seemed to be trying to suppress what he was doing. He couldn’t hold back, and he still couldn’t hold back. He turned back and said: “In the rain, do you have his master in your heart?!”

"..."

The ink burned by him was not upset by a burst of distraction. He paused, and the original stretch of the eyebrows gradually faded.

The teacher squeezed his palm and whispered uneasily: "Don't ignore him, he has a bad temper these days. Let's go."

"……Ok."

The hand touched the warm curtain, but it didn't open yet. Xue Meng's voice rang, and the boring, hot and hot, like coming out of the flame.

"Ink rain, you fucking, really not a thing."

The "sand" sounded and the curtain fell.

The ink burned closed and closed, then opened.

"A burning..."

The teacher wanted to hold him, but he was gently blocked.

He turned his face and turned around. The two young people are of average age, but their physical strength is already high. The chilly look of this person is really horrible.

The ink burned and suddenly smiled, but the black eyes were heavy and there was no smile.

He said: "A good one is not something."

"Xue Ziming, I have never despised the Master in the weekdays. I didn't stand by and watched when I was in the sky. He was leaked in the hell. He couldn't fix it. I asked him to help him. I asked you, as his apprentice, I made a mistake. What?"

"..."

"I have a great disparity with him. I can't support the enchantment. I fell from the dragon column, but he never even looked at me. I will leave you alone. I will ask you again, you are not chilling. ?"

"Ink burning..."

The two worlds, when it comes to the pain, the burning of the handsome five senses is inevitably somewhat distorted. He said one word at a time: "I think I have done my best, and I am innocent. I don't know what face you are standing in front of me, saying that I am not something.... Xue Meng, do you think I have never cared about him? You are wrong. I have cared about it."

"But this person is made of stone." The ink burns low, every word is like a machete in my heart, bloody, "Xue Meng. You listen to me, I don't care how good he is in the eyes of the world." Daochang, a powerful master, is the night of Yufeng Beidou Xianzun, these are not important."

"The important thing is that when the sky breaks, my life is hard to protect. Ask him to look back, but he doesn't even give it to me."

It is so cold, so angry.

But when he said it, he was calm, but his eyes were a little red.

"And, Xue Meng, I can tell you. No matter who is falling from the dragon column, it is not me, it is you, or a teacher. He will not save you."

Because I have seen it with my own eyes.

In the heavy snow, he turned and left his apprentice's bones cold.

"Nothing is more precious than the good name of his Beidou Xianzun." The ink sneered, I don't know if the light is dim, his smile is a little bit bleak.

"Life is a big life, life is thin, and death."

The last word has not been received, and suddenly the light and shadow are moving, and the wind is coming.

The room was narrow, but the smoldering was already noticed, but because the teacher was behind him, at this time, the flashing would hurt the innocent, and he stood in the same place, and he was hard to stop him.

Xuemeng cheetah rushed over and slammed the smoldering robes, only to hear a bang, and Xue Meng had a slap in the face.

The ink burned and was beaten, and it was also burned in anger. The backhand grabbed the violent youth, and the silver teeth shattered: "Xue Ziming! What are you doing?!"

Xue Meng did not answer, only roared: "Ink rain, you are a beast!"

He is unreasonable, and he doesn't know what medicine he has taken wrong. He has no sense of wisdom at all. He fights with ink in this empty hut. It is like two trapped beasts. He wants to tear the skin of the other body and put bones and blood. Chew and remove it into the abdomen. A bean solitary lamp swayed and swayed the silhouette of their fury on the stone wall, like a shadow play of a ruthless blood, like a ghost totem.

Suddenly, the ink burned and heard Xue Meng’s whimper.

Not too loud, he felt that he was probably wrong.

Just after thinking about it, a few drops of tears fell on the back of his hand.

Xue Meng suddenly let go of the ink, and violently pushed him back, so he hugged his knees and sat down on the ground, unable to burst into tears.

The smoldering cheeks were still red and swollen, but he was ruined by this. I thought that I didn’t have any killings. I didn’t make him so painful. Besides, he was also the cousin who first shot him. How suddenly...

When I didn't finish it, I heard Xue Meng crying and groaning, groaning.

"How can you say that he will not save you! How can you say that he will not save you!"

Tears rolled down and it was hard to breathe.

When the teacher saw Xue Meng, it was difficult to temporarily suspend the matter, and he could not help but sigh, and he was still coveted.

Xue Meng whispered: "You said this, he heard how sad it was in the underground..."

This sentence came out too abruptly, and the ink did not react for a while, only slammed the ground: "What?"

Xue Meng just cried, his fangs were quenched into the neck of the ink, but he also injured himself.

He cried so sadly that Ai Ai was broken, and he could not help but wipe his face, his eyes, and his eyes were sometimes fierce and sometimes mournful.

He is not on the ground.

The face was buried in the arm for a long time.

The smoldering gradually felt a numbness from the bottom of the foot and gradually cooled the whole body.

He felt his lips moving and heard himself asking.

"Xue Meng, what do you say..."

Xue Meng cried for a long time, but it may not be that long. It was just that the smoldering felt that he had waited for the thunderous answer and waited for too long.

"Master..." Xue Meng finally snarled. "He is gone."

The ink burned for a moment, but it was silent, and it was cold, only listening to it, and did not seem to understand what he meant.

Not there?

What is gone?

Where are you going?

Who is gone... Who is not there! !

Who is gone! ! !

Xue Meng slowly raised his head, and his eyes seemed to have hate, ridicule, and deepest sorrow.

"Do you know why he didn't look back at that time?"

"..."

"I said, after the completion of the crack, he has been mentally exhausted. Do you think that the suffocation of the ghost world is only on one of you? The enchantment is a twin! How much damage you suffered, he also suffered the same Only he supported it, and he didn’t say it."

The ink burns only feels a "squeaky" in the brain.

Didn't he save the teacher in the past life, it is also...

I don’t dare to think about it anymore, and my fingertips are shaking slightly.

"Impossible... he is so self-confident..."

"When was he not pretending to be in front of people?" Xue Meng said, his eyes were red and his tears fell. "After he came down, he was already exhausted and gave you a defensive charm. He left you, not watching." You, what do you think is because?"

Xue Meng’s words are sobbing blood.

"Shi Zun knows that he can't hold it for too long. He has a high spirit. Once he reveals a flaw, it will lead to a lot of evil spirits... ink burning, ink burning... You think he is leaving, don't you?"

Ink burning: "..."

"He is going to not bother you! In the rain! He is afraid of dragging you!"

"The innocent * is closed after the corpse violently walks away, the top ten sects are * to the dusk, and there are countless deaths and injuries. Who can care for you? I am all with the seriously injured elders who have returned to the dead, and found that you have disappeared. Xuemeng gasped for a while, groaning, "Mini rain, you brought him back... It was he who took the medicine to restore his body shape, then dragged you out and climbed out of the blood of the corpse, it was his body." Injury, I also gave you the last spiritual power..."

"impossible……"

"I brought you home. At that time, you still didn't wake up. He was so fascinated that he was no different from mortals. He couldn't use the spells any more. He couldn't pass the sound. He could only carry you and step by step to climb the dead. The steps..."

"Do not……"

"Three thousand-level long-order...he is one...a person who is exhausted by spirit..."

The ink burns and closes the eyes.

He saw that under the moonlight, the still-lived Chu-Ningning carrying his dying self, crawling slowly on the endless stage, bloody, white mottled.

That person, once was so unattainable and unclean.

Beidou Xianzun, late night Yuheng.

The ink burns the throat and whispers, "I can't...how...do it..."

"Yeah." Xue Meng said here, but also stunned, red eyes.

"When I saw him, I felt that I was crazy. I saw the illusion. Because I was thinking too." He was almost sighed. "How... can you get it..."

"Impossible..." The ink sighed and whimpered, hugged his head, muttered helplessly, "Impossible..."

"The long-term blood is not exhausted, that is the way he takes you home." Xue Meng was extremely cruel because of hate, "Go look, ink burns. Go see."

"impossible!!!"

Extremely stunned and uncontrollable, the ink burned suddenly and angered. He slammed Xue Meng, picked people up from the ground, and reached the wall, and the face changed.

"Impossible, never possible! How can he save me? He never loves me, can't look down on me!"

"..."

Xue Meng did not speak, and he was quiet, and suddenly smiled.

"Ink rain, not that he looks down on you."

In the flowing candlelight, Xue Meng's wet eyelashes lifted up, and he looked at him with all his hate.

"I missed you."

Ink burning: "..."

"I look down on you, the elders look down on you, the elders of the greedy wolf look down on you... what are you?" Xue Meng almost shredded and smothered these words into his face, "贱."

"you--!"

Xue Meng suddenly smiled, he looked up at the dark roof: "Incinenation, this life and death, to say that someone who can best see you, is him. But you will repay him."

He smiled and smiled, and suddenly closed his eyes, and tears fell.

This time it was a soft choked.

"Ink burned, your Xia Shidi, my master, died."

The smoldering was really bitten by the most vicious snake in the world. He was burned and stunned and slammed his hands. He stepped back two steps, as if he had understood this sentence for the first time.

He started to shake his body.

Xue Meng suddenly called him: "Brother."

The ink burned back, but the back slammed into the cold wall, and there was no way to escape.

Xue Meng finally stopped crying.

It’s just a tone, like a dead, calm and waveless.

"Brother, we have no masters anymore."

The author has something to say:

Two dogs: "..."

Forget it, the second dog 1.0 is now facing a collapse, the 1.0 system is completely disordered, let him digest the truth alone. Meng Meng, you come.

Xue Mengmeng: Thank you, "Zhou Fang Li", "Little Black", "Ukrainian Ukrainian", "Frost One Sword", "Thinking of Really Trouble", "Jinnian", "Lin Feng" Throwing Landmines, "Zz Cool Life" Throwing Grenade~

Chapter 98

There is a peak in the life and death, and the name is quite funny, called "ah."

Regarding the origin of this name, there are many kinds of sayings in the martial art. The most common one is that because this peak is steep and steep, people often fall down accidentally, so they are named "ahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh

But the ink burns knows not.

The peak is soaring into the clouds, and the mountains are covered with snow all the year round. It is extremely cold. If someone is dead, you will stop here and wait for the funeral.

I have only been here once in my life.

That time, it was not much different from the situation today. It was also after the infernal hell, a * battle took away countless lives, and the teachers also lost their lives. He did not want to accept this reality, so he was kneeling on the side of the teacher and watching the face of the man in the hail. It was a lot of days...

"The reason why it is called ah, it is because that year, you went." Former life, Xue Zhengyi accompanied him, in the cold frosty temple, said to him.

"I only have one brother, the dead and the sorrow is created by the two of us together, but you are... he is like you, is a very self-willed person. Qing Fu enjoyed a few days, about tired, in one time and evil I lost my hand in the confrontation and left."

Frost Temple was too cold, Xue Zhengyi took a pot of shochu, and he smothered himself, and handed the sheepskin wine sac to the ink.

"Give you a drink, but don't tell your aunt."

The ink burned did not pick up and did not move.

Xue Zhengyi sighed: "This peak, ah, ah, because of that time, I am also very uncomfortable, my heart is like being dug out, the whole person is watching you in the mountains, thinking of sadness, I couldn't help but cry loudly. I cried hard, always ah, ah, so I have the name."

He glanced at the ink and patted the other's shoulder.

"Uncle has not read a few books, but I also know that life is like a dew, and there is no shadow in a blink of an eye. You should be a step ahead and be a brother again in your next life."

The ink burns slowly and closes your eyes.

Xue Zhengxuan said: "There is nothing in empty talks. If you want to be sad, you will cry. If you don't want to go, just stay with him here. But eat rice, drink water. Go to Mengpotang for something to eat." Come back. After that, you have to swear, I won’t stop you."

Frosty Temple is silent and silent, and the white room is gently floating in the cold room, like a gentle finger licking the forehead.

The ink burns slowly and opens your eyes.

It is still the kind of hail in memory, Kunlun Xuanxue casts into it, and it is crystal clear and sleek.

Just the person lying inside, changed to a late night.

Ink burned and said nothing, in this life, in this day, the dead will be Chu nightning.

He was too late to defend, and he couldn't even react.

In the face of this man's cold body, there is not much fluctuation, no joy of death of the enemy, no sorrow of the master.

The smoldering is almost a little doubtful. The mouth of the night is long and cold. The face of that person is cooler than usual. Now it is covered with a layer of frost. Even the tight eyelashes are condensed with ice, and the lips are The white, the skin is almost transparent, can see the light blue blood vessels, like the tiny cracks on the white porcelain.

How can someone who is walking be him?

The ink burned his hands and touched the cheeks of Chu’s late night. The tentacles were very cool.

All the way down, throat, neck, no pulsation.

Get it again.

He held his hand and the knuckles were already stiff, but the feeling was rough.

The burning of the ink is strange. Although Chu Xiaoning has a small flaw in his fingertips, his palm is always soft and delicate. He can't help but look at it. The glimpse is the broken and broken scar, although it has been wiped, but The wound will never heal again, and the flesh will still open.

He remembered Xue Meng said.

"He has lost his spiritual power and has nothing to do with mortals. He can't use his spells any more. He can't pass the sound. He can only carry you and step by step to climb the steps of life and death..."

Can not support, can not stand up, kneeling on the ground, squatting, dragging, until the fingers are worn, full of blood.

Also take him home.

The ink snorted: "Is you carrying me back?"

"..."

"Chu Ning, is that you..."

"..."

"If you don't nod yourself, I won't believe it." The ink burned to the people in the scorpion and said that the face was calm, as if the person in front of him would wake up. "Chu Ning, you nod. Nod. I will believe you, I don't hate you... you nod your head, okay."

But Chu Ning still lie like that, his expression is faint, his eyebrows are cold, it seems that he does not hate him, he does not care, he asks for a clear conscience, leaving others uneasy in the world.

This person, living or dying, is annoying, far better than teaching people to hurt.

The ink sneered and laughed: "Yes." He said, "When did you hear me?"

He looked at Chu Ningning and suddenly felt ridiculous.

For a long time, he was hated because he was not able to marry him at the end of the night, because Chu Yuning had not saved his teacher and hated it.

Going around, this kind of hate has lasted for more than ten years, but one day, someone told him that

"Chu Ningning turned and left at the time, I don't want to drag you down."

Someone told him that -

"Viewing enchantment is twin, you have suffered multiple injuries, and he is the same."

He is exhausted, he can't help himself, he...

Ok, it’s really great. Chu nightning is right, then what about him?

In the dark, like a fool, I don’t know anything. I’m like a harlequin. I’m being smacked and screaming for a long time.

What kind of? !

Misunderstanding this kind of thing, if it is short-lived, it is like a stain on the wound when it is healed. It is better to find it in time, wash it off and re-apply the plaster.

However, if it is a misunderstanding, and continued for ten or twenty years, the people trapped in the net have invested a long hate in this misunderstanding, devoted a long time to care, and invested a long embarrassment, even a fate.

These emotions have been crusted, and they have grown into new flesh and skin, and they are completely combined with the body.

Suddenly someone said: "Not like this, everything is wrong."

What should I do then? The dirt of the year has been growing under the skin and growing into the blood.

That is to tear off the intact flesh to release the suspicion.

A misunderstanding of one year is a misunderstanding.

The misunderstanding of ten years is embarrassing.

From birth to death, misunderstanding for a lifetime, that is life.

They are thin in their lives.

The heavy stone door of the Frost Heaven Hall slowly opened.

Like the past life, Xue Zhengyi carried a sheepskin wine bag full of shochu, and walked heavily to the side of the ink, sitting on the ground and shouldering with him.

"Listen to people saying that you are here, uncle to accompany you."

Xue Zhengyi, a pair of leopards, was also red, showing that he had just cried a while ago.

"Come to accompany him."

When the ink burned, he did not speak. Xue Zhengyi unscrewed the jug and sipped a few mouthfuls. Then he slammed down and smeared his face. He made a strong laugh: "I used to drink, Yuheng saw it. I’m always upset, now... oh, stop, don’t say, don’t say it. My age is not big, but the old people who sent them are one by one. Burning, do you know what it feels like?”

"..."

The ink burned down the curtain.

In the past life, Xue Zhengyi also asked him this question.

At that time, he only had the flesh and blood of his teacher, and what was the life and death of other people? He doesn't understand and doesn't want to understand.

But now, how can he not understand?

Before the rebirth, the only Wushan Temple was left alone.

One day, he woke up from the shallow sorrow, dreamed of the situation under the old Yuwen door. When he woke up, he intended to return to his own bedroom and look at it. He could push the door in. The narrow disciple room was deserted for a long time. Dust.

He saw a small smoker knocking over the ground, but he didn't know who overturned it and when it was overturned. He picked up the smoker and subconsciously wanted to put it back in its original position.

But the years were in a hurry, he held the small stove and suddenly caught it.

"This stove, where was it originally placed?"

He doesn't remember.

The eagle-like gaze passed over the fans behind him, but those people had a vague face, and he couldn't even tell who was called Zhang San.

And they naturally don't know where the incense burner of the emperor was in the room.

"This stove, where was it originally placed?"

He does not remember, but those who can remember such past events are dead and scattered.

How can you not understand the feelings of Xue Zhengyi at this time?

“Sometimes I suddenly think of a joke when I was young, and I didn’t consciously say that I’m exporting, but I’ve found that people who can understand this joke are gone.”

Xue Zhengyi took another drink and smiled.

"You see, those old robes... you are respected..."

He shattered and asked, "Well, do you know why this peak is called?"

Ink burns what he wants to say, but he is upset now, and he is not willing to listen to Xue Zhengyi talking about his father, so he said: "Know. Uncle is crying here."

"Ah..." Xue Zhengyi squinted, slowly blinking, and the tail tip was deep, "Is your aunt telling you?"

"Ok."

Xue Zhengxi wiped his tears and took a deep breath: "Good, good, then you know, the uncle wants to tell you that if you are uncomfortable, you will cry, it doesn't matter. The man has tears for the bullet, not shameful."

The ink burns but never sheds tears. Perhaps it is because the two worlds have passed, and the heart is as hard as iron. Compared with the heartbreaking of the teacher, the present is so calm. Calm until he even felt horrified for his numbness. He didn't know that he was so cool.

After drinking the wine, sitting for a while, Xue Zhengqi got up, I don’t know because it’s been a little numb for a long time, or it’s a little bit too much.

His wide hand was shot on the shoulder of the ink: "The sky cracks it, but the people behind the scenes are still not coming out. Maybe this is the case, and maybe there will be a second battle soon. Burning, almost go down the mountain to eat something, don't be hungry."

He said, turned and went.

At this time, it was at night, and there was a round of remnant moons outside the frosty day. Xue Zhengyi stepped on the snow that was not going to be used all the year round. He took half a pot of turbid wine, and the rough and squeaky sounds began to sing. A short song.

"I worship the deceased half-ghost, but now I can get a lot of fun in the drunk. The total angle is hidden under the laurel tree, and the smoldering of the drinking surface has been spotted. The skylight dreams are broken and the people are far away, and I am abandoning my old body." With Zhou Gong, let the king hold the wine and go back."

In the end, it is not the same as the previous life. It is not the teacher who died, but the night of the night, so Xue Zhengyi will have more emotions.

The ink burned back against the door opened by the frosty temple, listening to the hoarse throat and screaming, the man was awkward, but the road was desolate. The sound of the song is like a eagle, and it is gradually swallowed up by the wind and snow.

The heavens and the earth are stunned, the moon is high, and everything is washed away very lightly and lightly, leaving only one sentence to reciprocate.

"Abandoning my old body, tears and tears... abandoning my old body and tears..."

I don't know how long it took, and the ink burned slowly down the frosty temple.

The uncle said yes, although the sky cracks, but things may not stop. Chu Xiaoning is no longer there. If there is another battle, he will resist himself.

When I came to Mengpotang, it was already late, except for the old man who cooked the night, no one.

The ink burned a bowl of noodles and found a place to eat slowly by the corner. The surface is spicy, and it is very warm to eat into the stomach. He is looking up and swaying, and in the hot air, Meng Potang is dimly lit and the image is blurred.

I remembered that after the death of the teacher of the previous generation, he was far more self-willed, and he refused to leave for three days and three nights, nor did he eat.

Later, I was finally persuaded to leave the Frost Heaven Hall and go to eat something, but I saw a busy back in the kitchen. The man's hands and feet were awkwardly licking the dough, and the stuffing, the case was covered with flour and water, and there were a few rows of hand-picked hands.

"Dangdang."

The things on the case were swept down, and the tyrannical voice passed through the dust. It is difficult to cast the current ink burning, and the food can not be swallowed.

At that time, he felt that Chu was rather mocking him, and he was not willing to sting him.

But at the moment, I want to come. Maybe Chu Jingning was really just thinking about the dying teacher, and then cooking a bowl for him.

"What are you doing? Are you also equipped with what he has used? Is it also a dish he has done? The teacher is dead, are you satisfied? Do you have to kill all your apprentices, you are only Willingness? Chu nightning! No one in the world can make that bowl of hand-written, you can imitate, and can't seem to be him!"

Word cone heart.

He did not want to think again, he ate his face.

But how can he win him? Memories will not light him.

He recalled Chu's face more clearly than ever, without joy or sadness. He recalled every detail more clearly than ever before.

I remembered a slight tremor on the tip of my finger, a little bit of flour on the cheek.

I remembered that the full-bodied hand was rolled over the floor.

I remembered that Chu Ning dropped his eyes, leaned over and slowly picked up the food that could no longer be eaten, and then dumped it by hand.

Drop it by yourself.

There are still half of the bowls left in the groats.

The ink burned and could no longer be eaten. He pushed the noodle bowl away and fled away from the place that would drive him crazy. He rushed to the road of death and death, like to leave behind the misunderstanding of more than ten years, like to recover this ridiculous rolling years, catch up with the man who left Meng Potang alone.

Catch up with him and say a word.

"Sorry, I hate you wrong."

The ink burned in the darkness without any order, running... but there is a broken figure of Chu nightning. Good and evil, teach him literacy, practice swords. Naihe Bridge, with him umbrella, peer. Qingtian Temple, who is responsible for the rod, is far away.

He became more and more embarrassed at night and became more and more helpless.

Suddenly, I ran to a cheerful place, and suddenly I saw the clouds smog and the moon was high.

The ink burned and stopped.

Tower of Babel……

The place where he died in the past, the place where he met with Chu Jingning for the first time.

His heart was like a drum, and his eyes were chaotic. He was chased by the tides of the past, and he couldn’t do it. He finally forced it here.

The white wind was clear and the time was met with Jun.

The ink burned no longer ran. He knew that he could never escape from birth. In his life, he was destined to owe Chu Ningning.

He slowly walked up the steps and walked under the swaying sea bracts. Reaching out, stroking the dry tree, the hard state is like a heart.

At this time, it was nearly three days away from the death of Chu.

The ink burns up and suddenly sees the flower trees gentle and vague. It was not until this time that there was an endless sorrow. He put his forehead on the trunk and finally burst into tears and tears.

"Master, Master..." He whimpered and whispered in his mouth. It was the first time when he saw Chu Ning, "You reasoned me, okay... you reasoned me..."

But things are human beings. Before the tower, only one person left, no one cares about him, no one will come.

Although the ink burning after the rebirth is a young figure, the shell is carrying the soul of the 32-year-old stepping fairy. He has seen too many lives and deaths, tasted the sweet and sour in the world, since the resurrection, he The joys, sorrows and sorrows in my heart are not so vivid and vivid, always like a layer of false covering.

But at this moment, his face suddenly showed such confusion and pain, red/naked, tender, pure, and green.

Only at this moment, he really looks like an ordinary boy who has lost his master, like a child who has been abandoned, like a lonely dog who has lost his home and can no longer return.

He said, you reason about me.

You reason about me...

However, in response to his, after all, only the mother-in-law leaves, lush flowers and shadows.

The man who had a good eyebrow under the sea otter did not, and could not raise his head again, to see him, even the last glance.

The author has something to say:

The white cat of the murderer: Thank you, "Zhou Fang Li" for throwing grenades, "Yu Yong", "I will send lovesickness to the moon", "I want to name the real trouble", "Flesh fan soup", "Frost one sword", "Jiayan", "Jailbreak rabbit" "Xingning Xiaogongju" "Winter Song" throwing mines~

Two dogs: "QAQ"

When the two dog programs continued to collapse, the white cat glanced at him and sighed and took the manuscript in his hand.

Chapter 99

This evening, the ink burned against the sea otter tree.

There are many places in the life and death, and there are traces of life in the night. If you want to hang it, you can go to the Honglian otter, but he only relies on this flower tree, and the heart is not so painful. A little bit of human atmosphere.

Once he thought that it was a great misfortune for him to be a teacher at night, and this worship was wrong from the beginning.

But today he realized that the unfortunate person was not his drizzle, but he stood in the flower garden and bowed his head and thought about it.

"Xianjun, Xianjun, you rationalize me."

He vaguely remembers the first sentence he said with the master. It seems like this. Maybe there are some deviations in the words. It takes too long, and he remembers not to be so clear.

But he can clearly recall the sudden and faint face of Chu’s evening when he raised his eyelashes.

Between the eyebrows, it is very gentle.

Nowadays, the ink is lying under the flower tree. He thinks that if the time can be returned to the day of choosing a teacher, he should not entangle him in any case, let him accept himself.

Because the moment of the embarrassment, the price to be sent, is the endless entanglement after the death, is the life of Chu Yuning.

For two lifetimes.

He is ruined in his own hands.

For two lifetimes...

His throat was twitching, he choked and closed his eyes. He spent a long, long time in the pain of the ants.

Then, since the rebirth, he never dared to touch the memory, he broke his shackles in his sleep, held a knife and dug his heart.

At that time, he had already reached the top of the people, and Chu Ningning had already been abolished, and the house of imprisonment was not free.

He has been subjected to several assassinations in succession. The last assassination was even the combination of Xue Meng and Mei Hanxue. Although the ink was forced by the mana, there was no fate on the spot, but he was also seriously injured. He raised a full foot in the palace. More than a month, this has restored energy.

It was rainy in the middle of the day, and it was a long time.

The ink burned with thick robes, the jade-colored five fingers pinched the robe, stood under the porch and looked at the outside, the sky was dark, the look on his face was a little bit mad and he was mad, he didn’t say anything, but anyone could feel his body twisted. Human nature, he clearly has a very handsome face, but the light in his eyes is often sullen and violent, without a little warmth.

The longer he sits in the high position, the more obvious this gloom.

There was a footstep behind him. He didn't look back and said, "Come on?"

"You are going to kill the Kunlun Snow Palace?" The sound of Chu Xiaoning sounded in the hall.

Ink burns: "What is it."

"...you forgot what you promised me? You said that you will not hurt Xuemeng."

The ink burns the heart and calmly: "The teacher is coming, don't ask me how the injury is, standing here blowing the cold and not cold, just care about who I kill, who will not kill?"

"Ink rain, I am here to tell you, I have to do something that I regret."

"Oh, regret? The person who regrets is the teacher, you are the master. When I was a fan of the Confucianism, you and I were killed and killed. Now that I am going to kill the Snow Palace, you are no different from the mortal. The ability to confront is no longer there. Do you regret your own nosy?

After the ink burned, I turned my face and looked back. There was a cruel smile on the corner of my mouth. The bottom of my eyes flashed with fine light. "Chu Ningning, you are now a waste, can you take anything to stop me?"

Perhaps it is because there is nothing left, and Chu Ning has been unable to speak for a long time.

A thunderous thunder burst, heavy rain, and leaked down the beam of the roof.

Chu Yuening finally closed his eyes and then opened his mouth and whispered a sentence: "Don't go."

The black robe flew and the ink burned.

Behind him is a lead-gray day, it is a hurricane, he looks at the night in the temple, and then says, "Why don't you go? I gave Xuemen a chance, that year you are willing to be under me for him. Female, I kept my promise, and asked your people to let him go. Now he wants to kill me. You said, why should I not go?"

"..."

"How? Can you say nothing?" The ink sneered, "Reprimand me, insult me, Chu nightning, are you not very resistant? I know that Xue Meng is your heart, you are the most proud." Disciple, you think he is the heart of the heart, I am a piece of mud on his sole."

"Enough." Chu Evening was pale and his eyebrows were tight, as if he was pressing hard.

"Not enough! How is it enough?" When the ink burned, the cruelty of the heart was more and more successful, anger, ecstasy, hatred, jealousy, all kinds of fierce emotions like the fire cooking oil, suffering his heart.

His eyes are very bright, revealing the light, and he paces back and forth.

"There is no second chance. Chu Jingning, he has no second chance. I want to kill him, peel off his skin and step on his feet, take his skull and drink it! I will take his liver. , smashed his flesh and blood to stew! You can't stop me! - Chu nightning, you can't stop me!"

His eyes are red, and the more he talks, the more he is happy.

Suddenly one hand grabbed his robes and a slap in the face.

"Is it crazy enough?"

Chu’s face was so close, he saw the other’s eyelashes tremble and tears in his eyes.

"Inflamm... you wake up, you wake up..."

"I am awake!" The burning pain in his cheeks made him more and more crazy. He looked at the face of Chu Xiaoning, and suddenly he was angry. "I am awake! The person who sleeps is you! Are you jealous?"

He pushed open the other side and pulled open his robes, revealing the gauze that was * underneath.

"You are 瞎 楚 晚 晚 晚 宁 ”!" He roared, poked his chest, and felt that it was not enough, actually made a slap to tear the gauze down, picking up a vague flesh...

"Who did this? Your good apprentice! Xue Meng! His Dragon City is a little bit worse, I am dead! You tell me, I let him go!"

"In your eyes, only his life is life, my is not, right?!" Under the hate, the ink burned and grabbed the hand of Chu Yuning, and posted it on his * wound. "You Don't you want to stop me? Well, I will give you the opportunity to take my heart out! - Chu nightning, you * has the ability to pull out my heart!!"

"..." Chu Xiaoning's fingertips are shaking, so ice, so cold.

The ink burned staring at him, furious, violent, and the blue veins of the neck could not keep shaking.

He said dumbly: "You are jealous."

It’s raining outside, knocking on the tile, it’s crazy.

Dead.

No one is moving.

I don't know how long it took, the ink burned and finally released the hand of Chu Yuning, gasping low and sinking, "Shu Ziming and Mei Hanxue's life, I have to fix it."

"..."

"You hate me, Master." Ink said, "In any case, my life is like this. In our life, it is like this. We can't go back, then the black light goes on fire. On Huangquan Road, I am dragging some of my old companions."

That day, Chu Xiaoning looked at the black back of his far away and finally said a word.

He said: "Ink burning, if you destroy the snow palace and kill Xue Meng, I will die in front of you, I have nothing to exchange with you, but I can at least choose to die."

The ink burned, and paused, then crossed half of the handsome face, and smiled in the gloom.

"There is a seat, you can't die."

"..."

"If you run out of blood, I can take you back from the temple of Jurassic. If you are disgusting in my life, you have to go with me." After the release of the madness, the face gradually recovered from the cold. Calmly, he said, "My good teacher, you will be waiting for death, waiting for me to catch Xue Meng back, I let him take a good look, the * he cares about day and night, what is under me now? It’s a slutty look. It’s a good time to have a door, I should always let him die clearly and clearly.”

However, the ink burned did not think of it, Chu Zongshi is still Chu Zongshi.

A month later, the ink burned the rhetoric that he had said. He stood proudly in front of the Kunlun Mountains and in front of Tianchi Lake. Mei Hanxue and Xue Meng had been shackled by him, and they were tied to the icicles. Then they were controlled by the Jane Chess to go to the Snow Palace for thousands of people, and let them kill themselves in front of Mei and Xue.

The white snow-capped mountains are dyed as Xiahong, and the blood is stained with red sky and soaked in the mountains.

The ink burned and sat in front of the palace gate of the Snow Palace. While eating the grapes handed by the servants, he smiled and looked at the foreground.

He asked Xue Meng, who was almost out of focus, and he said, "Meng Meng, can't you look good?"

"..." Xue Meng did not react, as if he had lost his hearing.

Mo was very satisfied with this, and he smiled more and more relatives. He asked: "Do you like the performance of the cousin? Do you like it?"

"...you let go of the snow palace."

Suddenly I heard such a faint whisper, and my eyes burned and asked, "What?"

"You let go of the snow palace." Xue Meng's burning eyes no longer have light. "Let them pass, let go of Mei Xuexue... That assassination, the person who wants you to kill is me, you killed me. Don't even connect with others."

The ink burned and laughed: "Are you talking about conditions with me?"

"No." Xue Meng glared at the eyes, he said, "I am asking you."

The pride of the sky said, I am asking for you.

The demon in the heart was violently pleased, and the smoldering eyes were radiant. It seemed to be interested. He pinched Xue Meng’s chin, forcing the other person to look up at himself, what he was trying to say, and suddenly he saw the sky lit up. From the bluish brilliance.

"what happened?"

The entourage he brought has not yet had time to answer, and he saw the top of Cui Wei Xuefeng, a Huaguang overflowing array of thousands of miles, covering the entire Kunlun Mountains.

Above the array, the night of the night, the white clothes are like snow, and the clothes are flying, standing in the clouds.

In front of him, a strange guqin was hung in his body. The whole body was black and black, and the tail of the piano was rolled up and rolled up, and the branches and leaves were scattered. The sea was soaking and the brilliance was scattered.

——The third martial arts of Chu Yuning, “Nine Songs”.

The author has something to say:

Although the dog is devoid of heart disease and can't be saved, but the inexplicable is very fond of writing 0.5 related story, hahahaha~

Fraud

Chapter 100

The ink burns.

In this life, he only saw the nine songs of Chu Xiening once, that is, the life and death confrontation that one time, Chu night Ning summoned the Guqin nine songs, the sound of the piano cracked empty, the sound into the cloud.

The living creatures controlled by the Zhenqi chess game, the strange beasts, were recalled to the gods in the sound of the nine singers, a long song, and a mess of millions of chess pieces.

It can summon Shenwu to mobilize the nucleus, which requires a lot of spiritual power.

Chu night Ning even his usual days of questioning can no longer be recalled, how can he suddenly summon a "nine songs" that are even stronger than Tianwen?

The fierce battle above the Tianchi was no less than the match between the mentor and the disciples of the year.

But the ink burned but he didn't remember so much detail. After the * battle, his side finally had no more people to talk to.

In fact, before the death of the previous world, he did not understand why Chu nightning can use his own soul to summon nine songs.

This is any tie that neither the gods nor the masters will have, but Chu Ning did it.

On that day, the cherished pieces made by the ink-burning smashed into ash in the sound of the piano. The power of the nine songs was more pure and powerful than that he had seen for the first time many years ago, and he was so strong that he even suspected the nucleus of the late night. It’s not broken at all. So for many years, it’s all Chu’s dressing, and it’s a shame to bear the burden of shame.

He couldn't even think about it later, if that's the case. If Chu Xiaoning is really loaded, then maybe things will not go to the last step.

that would be nice.

The nine songs destroyed the ban on ink burning, and the monks who were killed in mutual killing suddenly woke up and even shattered the icicles of Xueman and Mei Hanxue.

The ink burned to the clouds, the robes hunted, and the eyes were filled with anger and joy. He wanted to see how many astounding moves were made in the late night.

He stepped on the upper end of the enchantment, approached, and stood in front of Chu.

He saw the pale, slender hands slow down, stroked the strings of the nine songs, and the piano stopped.

Chu night Ning raised his head, his face white like the snow and ice under the sunlight.

He said: "Ink burns. Come over."

When the ghost made a difference, he walked over to him.

Chu nightning fingertips lightly moving, a few 缕 缕 华 华 华 朝着 朝着 朝着 华

But that Guanghua is not painful, it lingers on his chest, slowly infiltrating into the skin texture, it is unspeakable warmth.

"Xue Meng hurts your sword, I am treating you for it." Chu night Ning sighed softly. "Let him go, burn, if he is not there, you will find someone to talk about the past. Who else can I find..."

What is the meaning of this sentence when the ink burns have not yet reacted, the enchantment of the strong sole of the foot suddenly disappears, and the one that is not seen together is the nine-song guqin that Chu Ning called.

He immediately raised his hand and called for a strange knife to return, this is standing in the clouds, but Chu nightning is falling like a leaf, like a piece of music, has exhausted the last strength of his life.

"Late Ning!"

He was discolored, and the sword plunged down, and he was robbed in his arms before the man would fall into the cold Tianchi.

"Chu Ning! You - you..."

Chu nightning closed his eyes, nose and mouth, eyes, and blood in his ears could not be seen.

Dignity is extremely important to him. Even if he is imprisoned in Wushan Temple, he still has a backbone that is not bent. He will rarely show himself embarrassing appearance, but at the moment he is bleeding, and the appearance of the Qing Dynasty is so embarrassing. Loss.

Chu night Ning swallowed a * foam, hoarsely said: "You said ... dead life can not help me ... but you see, ink burning ... you are still a small smack of your master, if I am determined to go, you are blocking... ...can't stop it..."

"... Master... Master..." The ink burned at him, only to feel a chill in his heart, and the scalp was numb, and he was so shouted.

Chu Xiaoning smiled and looked a little bit happy: "The original has been alive, there is a hint of unwillingness, always thinking, thinking about to accompany you for a few years, to teach you... don't commit more sins... ...but now...now..."

The ink trembled and held the man in his arms. He suddenly felt very scared.

Scared.

This kind of sentiment has not belonged to him for more than ten years. Now it has suddenly come, ruined and ruined, and almost dug his heart.

"Now I know that only if I die, can I change you... no longer evil..."

He said that it seems to be painful. Forced to call out the nine songs, so that his body can not be loaded at all, the body is broken, and the blood of the big mouth is coming out, the ink is burning and he is falling on the edge of the Tianchi, his face is crazy and painful, and he keeps sending it to his chest. Spiritual power.

However, the strength of the majestic force came to the body of Chu, but it was like a mud cow, and it would not go back.

The smoldering is really panic, and the people who are in the arms of Xianjun are screaming and dying, failing again and again, but trying again and again to give him the spiritual flow.

"Useless... ink burning, I finally summoned nine songs with my life, life and death have been fixed, if you... there is still a clear line in your heart... I will ask you... let go..."

Who passed it?

Xue Meng, Mei Han Xue?

Kunlun Snow Palace, or the entire real world?

Yes, yes... he can let them go! As long as Chu is rather alive, as long as this person hates people, don't die like this.

Chu night Ning trembled and raised his hand, the cold fingertips seemed to be merciful, and it seemed to be relatives. In front of the burning of the ink, he gently positioned a little.

He said: "Just ask you... let go... let go of yourself..."

The cockroaches on the face of the ink burned in this moment.

Who let it go...

Who was hanging before he died?

Let go of... yourself...

Did he say this?

Teng Xianjun holding him, seems to be a bit stunned, and some comfort, seems to be a pain, but also seems satisfied.

"Let me let go of yourself? Your last wish is to let me let go of myself?"

The smoldering murmur, his eyes filled with bloodshot eyes, he suddenly laughed, the laughter was like a fierce fire, piercing the clouds, burning all the reason and the gods.

"Ha ha ha - ha ha ha ha ha - let go of myself? Chu night, you are crazy than me! Hello naive - hahahahaha -"

The entire Kunlun Mountains echoed his sneer and sneer, distorted, unrecognizable, and chilling.

Chu nightning in the crazy laughter, swallowing blood, if he still has strength, look is extremely painful, but he does not even have the strength of frowning, only a pair of Fengmu... that pair It used to be sharp, or decisive, or severe, or gentle, and full of sadness.

Pure as snow in the sky, like a frost on the tile.

Chu Yuning's nephew gradually lost focus, and gradually dissipated. The eyes that once had the essence and the sharpness of electricity, gradually nothing is really true.

He finally whispered to the ink and said: "You don't laugh, you are like this, my heart is very uncomfortable..."

"..."

"Ink burning, this life, no matter what happened later... I didn't teach you at first. I said that you are inferior... I am thin, you don't blame..." Chu nightning's pale face On the top, there is no more blood color. His lips are all white. He tries to look up and look at the burning face. He is licking his throat. He wants to shed tears, but the eyes are slowly overflowing. It’s blood, running down the cheeks.

Chu nightning cried, he said: "But you... really hate me... to the end... for a moment of peace, don't want to give it to me..."

"Ink burning... Ink burning... Don't do this anymore, wake up, go back... you look back..."

You wake up...

He let him wake up, but he himself, but stared blankly, so he slept.

The ink burned and did not believe, he did not want to believe that Chu Xiening would die like this.

A generation of masters, the mountains are up, their own masters, and those who hate them very much, so they die.

Lying in his arms, in the blood of the Tianshan Tianchi.

Little by little, the cold became frost and snow, and it became ice.

Chu night Ning's face is blood, and the ink burns down for a while, lifts up the sleeves, and wipes it cleanly.

But the blood flow is too much, the more he rubs, the dirtier and cleaner the face is. The ink burned his lips and rubbed it hard.

But got a * face.

The five senses can no longer be seen too seriously.

He finally didn't smile.

He closed his eyes and said softly: "This time you won, Chu nightning. I can't stop you from dying."

After a pause, he had to open his throat, where the head looked dark and cold, but burned the fire of the Great Abyss.

He said: "But you are too small to look at me. You don't want to live, I can't stop, but if I want you not to die, you can't stop me."

Moeburn did not announce the life and death of Chu Yuning, he brought people back to the death and death.

At that time, he had a magical spell that could protect the body from immortality. He saved Chu Lingning’s body in the red lotus water, and he forced him to be "live".

It is too difficult for him to admit that he killed the last person in the world who missed him.

As long as Chu’s body is not ashamed, he can see him every day.

He can think that Chu is rather not dead.

Whether he is crazy or hateful, there is still a place where he can vent, and where he can be pinned.

Stepping on the fairy, finally getting mad at the end.

After the late night of Chu, he went to Honglian Water to see his corpse every day. In the first day, his eyes flashed with a vicious scent. Before the corpse, he kept screaming. He said, "Chu Ning, you deserve it." ”

"You do not cross the world, but you are not hypocritical."

"What kind of master are you? I just blinked and worshipped you as a teacher!

Later, he would bother to ask every day: "How do you sleep for so long? When do you wake up?"

"Xue Meng, I have already let go, you can almost, give me up."

Every time he said this, the servant around him would think that he was irrational and crazy.

His wife Song Qiutong also felt that he was crazy. She was very scared, so after a rare joy, she said to him at his pillow: "A burning, people can't resurrect, I know you are sad, but you..."

"Who is sad?"

"..."

Song Qiutong is a person who will thoroughly observe and observe the color. In these years, he is carefully watched as thin ice. When he sees his face is not good, he immediately shuts his mouth and swears: "It is a mistake."

"Don't." The ink burned this time but did not let her go easily. He narrowed his eyes. "You spit it out, swallow it and do it? You tell me, who is sad?"

"His Majesty……"

In the dark black scorpion, there was a backlog of thunder. He suddenly sat up and grabbed the slender neck of Song Qiutong, and picked up the woman who was still lingering with himself, and squatted down the bed.

His face turned leopard, a face of a hot, wolf and tiger leopard.

"Who can't be resurrected, who is dead? Who wants to resurrect?" The ink burns a word and bites, so hey, then force, "No one is dead, no one wants to live, no one is sad!"

Song Qiutong’s lips trembled and wanted to struggle, but she just said “Red Lotus Water...” This half of the words, the ink burned and the eyes were red and violent.

"The red lotus otter has only one sleepy Chu Xinning, what do you want to say! What do you want to mention in this seat! 孽 动物!"

Song Qiutong saw that his anger was out of bondage, and he was so sorrowful that he would do something crazy, so he would go out and make a high-pitched voice. People, you are indulging in this, all over the world... How can you not worry?"

She said ingeniously, in order not to blame the blame, and finally to say that her own * is a concern for ink burning.

The ink burned on her, and the breathing gradually stabilized. It seemed that she had listened to it and no longer yelled at her.

He slowed for a while and said, "It will make you feel worried."

Song Qiutong sighed with relief and said: "Being in a hurry to be healthy, you can ignore life and death. Your love is deep, but you should not be so depressed."

"So what do you say about this seat?"

"There is a lot of words, all of which are meant to be good. According to the whole body, the Japanese will be Chu... Chu Zongshi is buried.... Others are gone, the body is kept empty, and it will only teach you to look down. pain."

"What else? You can't say it, don't say it today."

Song Qiutong saw him look slower and his heart was slightly wider.

She put down her half-fold eyelids and turned her head slightly. She knew that she was the most like the teacher.

She believes that the teacher is the soft underbelly of the ink, although she does not understand why she finely embellishes the details of the teacher's appearance, but she can't afford the interest of ink.

Although this sultry man loves to accompany himself, he will be able to touch himself unless he is extremely depressed or drunk. Song Qiutong thinks that it may be because the ink burning is not so much a favorite of women, in short, it is obviously not related to Shi Mingjing.

Not to mention her, the whole life and death knows that the man who died many years ago is the love of the emperor.

What is the night of Chu?

Song Qiutong thinks that it is just a man who is used to vent his * desires and is fucked. Although Chu Xiuning exchanged his life for the death of the ink after the death, day and night, but she understood that this is just a temporary embarrassment, a moment of not used to.

She is confident that with a face like a teacher, the living dead in the red lotus water will not be his opponent.

But the ink can no longer be so crazy, such as today's chaos, the soldiers are all four, she is afraid to follow the wrong master, if the ink is burning, she is no longer young and young, and she can no longer find the trees that can be attached. Therefore, she sincerely hopes that the smoldering will rekindle the spirit and stop being so crazy.

Therefore, she thought about it, weighed the pros and cons, and still braved the courage, saying: "After the departure of Chu Zongshi, there is no more matching red lotus water."

Ink burning: "Yes. You go on."

"I think, in this case, if you go down to the water, you will only touch the scene, it is worse than..."

“Not as good as?” The ink burned and narrowed his eyes.

"It’s better to seal the red lotus otter. It’s a good story to live alone."

The author has something to say: Song girl is a big death.

Song girl's graduation thesis "On the miserable nature of death through the phenomenon"

Chapter 101

The ink burned without talking, and after a long time, he smiled.

"A good one can only live one master. It's a good story."

He applied his bare feet to his feet, stepped on the cold stone surface, and concealed his insteps and stopped in front of Song Qiutong.

Then the ink burned up one foot and used the toe to point Song Qiutong's chin, so that she looked up at herself.

"These words, you are in your heart, have been squatting for a long time?"

He looked at her panicked face and smiled: "The Queen of Songs, there are many things in the past, I haven’t asked you well yet, since you said something to me today, I’m not as good as we are. To be honest, come, I will talk to you."

"Let's talk about it from the recent events. On the day of going to the Snow Palace, I obviously locked Chu Yuning in the palace. You told me how he would appear in Kunlun Mountain? Who gave him a ban, let He came to me?"

Song Qiutong suddenly trembled and said, "I don't know!"

She was too anxious to justify, even forgot to say that she was covered, but used "I".

The ink burned and he laughed. He said, "Well, you don't know this one. Then I will ask you the next one. That year, I will seal you up, let you associate with the dead, then I will go to Yinshan and go. At that time, Chu Yuening was being held in the dungeon because of disobedience..."

He mentioned this matter, Song Qiutong's face could not help but white, and his lips couldn't help but scream.

"You went to visit him by exploring the prison. But he was innocent by him..."

"Yes, yes." Song Qiutong was busy. "But my Majesty... Ah, I told you about this incident. Chu Zongshi let me get out of the dungeon, and there are many insults in words. He is not only jealous." I, I still scolded with my majesty, I was angry at the time...I..."

"This seat knows." The ink smiled slightly. "You were not angry at the time, but Chu Ningning is a felony. You can't punish you without your permission. So you will punish and punish you." Pulled out his ten nails and nailed the thorns at each of his fingertips."

Song Qiutong was full of horror and arguing: "You are coming back, you are boasting that I am doing well!"

Ink burning smile: "Oh... is it?"

"You...you said that people who are not doing anything right, just treat it like this. At that time, you said that you said that the penalty was lighter. If he is not rude next time, he can be broken... His ten fingers..." The more she said the lighter the voice, the last she looked at the smile of the smoldering man, and she fell softly on the floor, tears in her eyes, "A burning..."

The ink burned and sighed softly. He smiled and said: "Qiu Tong, the days have passed, and what I said in the past, I have forgotten what I said."

"..." The woman clearly guessed the burning mind, but when she heard this sentence, the body still violently shakes.

"This seat has always been a dream for these days. I dreamed that the day I came back from Yinshan and entered the dungeon. I saw his hands festering and bloody..." The ink burned slowly, and finally, the voice slammed Tighten, the eyes are lit with cold light. "This seat is not happy."

Song Qiutong did not take care of it: "Your Majesty, Your Majesty... No, Ah Burning... You listen to me... You calm down and listen to me..."

"This seat is not happy."

The ink burned as if nothing was heard, and the face was lowered with a blank expression, and the woman who was huddled on the ground was coldly looked at.

"You marry me, okay?"

His frosty look, coupled with such an arrogant beggar, even though Song Qiutong accompanied the king with the tiger for so many years, could not help but straighten the goose bumps, even the scalp is hemp. She smelled the squally shower, lifted the dark brown scorpion, and looked up at him in the low low. She climbed over and fell on the ankle of the ink.

"Well, Ah Burn said everything is good. Ah, I want to be happy when I want to do something? I must be good... well..."

The ink burned over, grabbed her chin and lifted her face.

He smiled, very cute and innocent.

It was as if he first saw her at the Confucianist Gate, and he barely revealed two deep dimples, pulling her sleeves and the central channel: "Little sister, what is your name?... Oh, don't be afraid, I don't. I hurt you, you talk to me, okay?"

shudder.

After a long period of time, he almost used the same look, the same tone, but said something else.

He said sweetly and softly: "Qiu Tong, this seat knows that you are sincere, and in order to be happy, you are willing to do anything..."

His fingertips rubbed her soft lips.

Her whole face, the place where the teacher is very clean.

The ink burned the eyelashes and trembled, looking at the two petals of the lips, and finally said: "Then, go to Huangquan Road, wait for the first seat."

"!"

He asked all the questions slowly: "Well?"

Song Qiutong's tears suddenly overflowed his eyes, not because of sorrow, but because of fear. She knew that Mo-burning now mentions that she had abused Chu’s night, and she would never have any good end, but she could only think of her at most, and she thought that she had exhausted all her courage and could not think of ink. Burning will actually...

He will! He has a heart!

He He……

madman.

Crazy... crazy...

The ink burned his head and smiled low. He smiled more and more arrogantly and became more and more arrogant. He smiled and kicked the threshold of the palace and smiled and strode outside the hall.

He stalked the wind, stepping on the lives of thousands of people, and now it is her turn.

Crazy... crazy! !

Ink rain is crazy!

Song Qiutong fell on the icy golden brick stone. The enthusiasm of Yaner in the palace was not dissipated. The fire of * had already burned up. She opened her mouth and looked up, struggling to see the skylight from the temple. .

When dawn dawns, the sky is blood red.

Dyeed her with red eyes.

She heard a sigh of relief and sighed, casually as if to order what to use for today's dinner.

"Come, pull the queen out."

"Your Majesty -!" Outside is the reaction of the panic-stricken people, "Your Majesty, this..."

"Throw it into the stove, fry it and cook it."

Song Qiutong suddenly couldn’t hear anything. The whole person was like sinking into the ocean and couldn’t hear anything.

"Lively cooked, cooked and lively, cooked and cooked, haha... hahaha..."

As he goes farther and farther, only laughter and drink are like eagle eagle, coiled in the shackles of life and death.

The Chaoyang dragged his shadow for a long, lonely trace, squatting on the ground, and he walked slowly and slowly.

At first it seemed to be standing next to the shadow of two young Hummers, and a tall, tall white man.

Later, the two ghosts disappeared, leaving only the white dress to accompany him.

Going back, the white man disappeared into the golden morning.

The rising sun is pure and holy, taking away the same pure and holy people, leaving him alone in hell, in the * sea, sinking in the enchantment.

Only one person left, he went more and more lonely, and went colder and colder.

At the end of the day, he suddenly felt as if he was dead. He was already dead...

The more you go crazy.

Remember, the last year before he squandered himself, sometimes looking at the bronze mirror, he would not recognize what a monster was reflected there.

He even remembered the night before his death, he leaned on the bamboo pavilion in the red lotus, next to an old slave.

He asked the old slave and said lazily: "Liu Gong, you talked to this seat, what kind of person was this seat?"

Before he waited for the other party to answer, he looked at the reflection in the pool and took care of himself.

"When I was young, it seems that I have never had such a hairpin. So I haven’t touched it. You said it right?"

Liu Gong sighed and replied: "Your Majesty said it is good. This is awkward and worrying. After you ascended the throne, Song Niangniang will give you some thoughts."

"Oh, you said Song Qiutong." The ink burned and laughed. He looked up and sipped his pear. "Is it actually I heard her instructing?"

Perhaps it is not much time, not afraid of Jane in the emperor's heart, a little unsatisfactory will have his own head, and the old man is also telling the truth.

Liu Gong’s squatting sleeves said: “Yes, when her first time in the emperor’s position, the Song Niangniang was greatly favored. For a while, what did the goddess say, what did the majesty do, what do you want to do?

"Forget?" The ink burned and laughed. "I haven't forgotten, how can I forget it..."

After I married Song Qiutong, I did not know who was exposed to the wind and told her that she was favored by her, only because her appearance was similar to that of Shi Ming, who was deceased.

She is a clever person, and she will always behave in the manner of the teacher's demeanor. If there is nothing in the husband's life, it seems to be the old man.

How can I forget it?

The ink burned and smiled, and suddenly he took off the sputum and looked at it. He threw it into the pool and stunned a piece of koi, and the figure in the lake became more and more twisted.

In this piece of scorpion, he took off his hair and smeared his hair, and slanted his side to the lake, letting the water shine his face.

"Well, the crown is lost, the hair is also scattered, Lao Liu, you can help me think about it, what else is worse, can this seat return to the appearance before the throne?"

"This……"

"Is it a hair band?" The ink burned and looked at the reflection, saying, "The most common kind of blue hair band for a disciple of death. Is there still in the palace?"

"Yes, when you took the first year of the throne, you took down the old slaves when you took off the disciples of the dead and sorrow. If you want to kneel down, the old slaves will help you get them."

"Great, let's go, except for the hair band, the other ones are also taken together."

Liu Gong went back and returned, holding a stack of old clothes in his hand, and the ink burned and sat up, his fingertips touched the texture of cotton and linen, and the flickering past turned up, like a dead leaf, falling on a sore The heart of the hundred holes. He was on the rise, picking up a robe at random and trying to put it on his body.

However, the clothes of a teenager are already too small, and no matter how he plays, he will never wear it again.

Suddenly angry.

"Why can't I wear it! Why can't I go back!!"

He is like a trapped beast in a circle in his cage, his face is crazy, his eyes are shining.

"This is the clothes of this seat! Is this the clothes of this seat??!! You have been wrong! If it is the clothes of this seat, why can't you wear it! Why can't you wear it~!!"

The old slave has become accustomed to the appearance of the master crazy.

I used to think that this is very horrible, but today I have no reason to think that this man is very pitiful.

Where is he looking for clothes, he is clearly looking for himself who can never come back.

"Your Majesty." The old man sighed sighingly. "Let's go, you are no longer a young man yesterday."

"..." The ink was burning with the anger of the sky, and he turned back and stared at the dead face of the old man, but he was like being shackled. He couldn’t say anything, but his eyes were red and he couldn’t stop breathing. I was angry, and I said after a long time, "No longer...?"

"Is no longer."

"……Can not go back?"

"Can not go back."

The face of the 32-year-old man first appeared when he was a child. He closed his eyes, his throat was swaying, and the old slave who stood beside him thought he was opening his eyes. Will violently expose the caries and fangs, tearing everything in front of you.

But when the ink burned and the scorpion was opened, the eyelids were a little moist.

Perhaps it was such a moist, quenching the fire of his heart.

The ink burns the opening, and the voice is hoarse and tired: "Good... good... can't go back... can't go back..."

He put down his robes indefinitely, sat down at the stone table, and buried his face in his palm.

After a long time, he said: "Take a hair band."

"...Your Majesty... Why are you here again..."

"This life is already a must. When you die, you don't want to be too lonely." When the ink burned this sentence, he still didn't put down his palm. No one could see the look on his face. "I want to change my body and feel that I still have There are old people to accompany."

Liu Gong sighed: "That is fake."

"Fake is good."

The ink burned.

"Fake, it is better than nothing."

Long hair bundled up and wrap around, then he picked up a faded hairpin from the pile of old clothes. He wanted to buckle on the hair side as a teenager, but looked at the reflection in the water, his hand The action stopped again.

Is it left or right?

I haven't used this hairpin for too long, the memory has become so vague, and the ink has closed my eyes. He said, "Old Liu, do you know how my hair was combed?"

"Back, the old slave is the second year after you step into the throne, only to come to the palace to serve, the old slaves do not know."

The ink burned: "But I can't remember, I want someone to tell me."

"..."

"You said, there is such a person, you can tell me." The smoldering muttered, "Who can tell me what I looked like..."

Old Liu Chang sighed, but couldn't say anyone's name. In fact, the ink burned that the old man had no answer to give him. He doubtfully held the black hairpin, left, right, and finally buckled. On the left.

"It seems like this." Ink said, "I will ask him."

He went to the depths of the otter and came to the edge of the Honglian Pool. The corpse of Chu Yuning lay there, and there was no difference between sleeping and sleeping.

Sitting on the ground, he held a squat and said, "Master."

The wind sent the lotus, he looked at the pool full of red and drunk, the man who closed his eyes, suddenly felt that there are many words to say, but did not know what to say.

For Chu Xiaoning, he always seems to have a very full emotion, but the emotion is too mixed, so much sour and bitter, he can't taste that he hates this person a little more, or other feelings a little more, he really I don't know how to treat this person.

He once told himself that he stayed with him late, just to vent his hatred, in order to satisfy his lust, but later he died, but he left behind the body that could not be entangled with it. The tombs have been established. Ok, but not willing to bury.

In fact, what is the use of this cold, non-moving, non-speaking body?

He is not aware of himself.

Too much experience, the first little clean thing, has been completely overwhelmed.

When Chu Xiaoning was alive, he and his two had very little peace of mind and stay together.

Now Chu is rather dead, and there is some cruel gentleness between the dead and the living. The ink often comes to visit him, holding a pot of pear white, just watching, not much.

At this moment, the Yijun Waishan, he knows that his life will be exhausted, and the body of Chu Xiaoning is the life and death of the human being, the only old man who is always with him.

Suddenly, I really want to chat with this cold body. Anyway, Chu Ningning is already a dead body. I can’t resist it. I can’t blame it. No matter what I say, he has to listen.

But he moved his mouth and his throat whimpered.

At the end, I only said one sentence.

"Master, you rationalize me."

The author has something to say: heart disease and madness 0.5, daily madness, face... Who dragged this dog down to fight a rabies vaccine 233333

Chapter 102

Master, you rationalize me.

This is the first sentence that they burned when they first saw the Tongtian Tower.

At that time, Chu nightning closed his eyes, ink burned him, he picked up the eyelash curtain.

This is also the last sentence of the ink burning when they are separated from the red lotus.

At that time, Chu nightning closed his eyes and ink burned him, but he never looked up again.

In a word, from the Tongtian Tower drifted for half a lifetime, floated to the lotus pond, and finally the dust settled.

These years of hate or love, they are all gone, they are all cold.

The ink burned the last altar of pears, and walked down the Nanfeng of the dead and dying, and went to his last days. On the second day, the Rebels attacked the Wushan Temple, but found that the elders who had been in trouble for ten years were self-destructive and died at the age of thirty-two.

Until now, two generations have passed.

The ink burns open your eyes.

He slept for a night under the flower tree in front of the Tongtian Tower. When he woke up, the whole person was still at a loss, and he did not know what time it was.

He just muttered subconsciously: "Master... you justify me..."

Then he remembered that this life, Chu Yuning, is no longer there.

He used to live a hard life in the past life. Chu nighting was the one who accompanied him to the end. In this life, he did not want to be a wicked person again, but Chu Ning could not see it.

Probably the gods are also unbearable in their hearts, or they may have their own self-containedness in the past. The past life, Chu Ning, has already been distasteful to him, so in this life, he made the first person to leave.

The ink burns his arms to cover his eyes and endures the throat of the throat.

He heard an anxious shout from Xue Zhengxuan in the distance, and the uncle was looking for him. The uncle was shouting: "The burning child - where are you? Burning!"

The teacher is also calling him: "A burning, where are you... you are coming out..."

"Fire, you come back to accompany Yu Heng! You don't want to do anything stupid, burn!"

Accompanied Yu Heng.

Stay with him...

The ink burned from the ground, squatting, and stumbled.

He can't get rid of it, he can't get rid of it - he still has a lot of things to do, and he hasn't done anything behind the scenes, and he doesn't say that the change of the sky may be repeated again at any time, and he said that it was a disaster, and the loss of life and death was heavy. Everything is going to happen... Xue Meng has lost his mind and hurts, and he can’t climb again. He can’t get rid of it.

He endured and groaned.

He told himself that it was painless and not painful.

The death of Chu Xiaoning, he experienced more than once, no pain.

No pain……

But how can it not hurt!

More than 3,000-level long-term, he carried him back and crawled back, how could it not hurt...

Exhausting the last little spiritual power, giving the whole body the spiritual flow to himself, how can it not hurt...

Obviously, I have suffered the same injury. In order not to drag the apprentice, I will make a look of desperate feelings and leave on my own...

How can I not hurt?

There is also the past life, the injury suffered by Chu Xi Ning is actually the same as that of the teacher, but he does not say it. He does not say that the ink will not know.

He still screamed at the night of Chu, and vented his endless hatred towards Chu, and he turned the chasing of his bag to the ground when he was injured.

Chu night Ning stumbled in front of him, bowed his head, went to pick it up one by one, and all lost.

How... maybe... no pain...

How could it not hurt? !

He dug the heart of Chu nightning! How could it not hurt? ! how is this possible……

The ink could not go down. He had endured for a long time in the same place. He had been calm for a long time, and his body was shaking and he was shuddering.

it hurts.

He buried his face in his palm, clenched his lips, and swallowed the crying and dripping blood.

After a long, long time, he barely smoothed his mind.

He looked up, his eyes flushed, and then took a deep breath, slowly, and walked down the endless long steps.

Can't fall.

"uncle."

"Fire, where have you been? You have to die in eagerness. If you have three long and two short, what will you see in the next nine springs?"

"I am not good." Ink burned, "I am fine, let my uncle worry."

Xue Zhengxuan shook his head, I didn't know what to say, only patted the shoulders of the ink, and said after a long while: "Do not blame you, don't blame you, you are much stronger than Menger... oh..."

The ink burned hoarsely and asked: "What about Xue Meng?"

"Sick, high fever does not retreat, just took a medicine to sleep, but fortunately, I fell asleep, he cried and cried, how to persuade can not persuade." Xue Zhengyi looked very tired, "infernal hell, crack in the real world The uprising was stirred up. The Shang Xiu community also began to send people to pick up the matter, but the people behind the scenes were extremely clean. The color butterfly town was almost flattened in the * battle, and it was not a half-point clue."

When I heard the news, the ink burned did not feel anything strange. The person’s ability was obviously beyond the expectations of the people, even outside his expectations.

Those who can have a good life in the late Qing Dynasty will easily drop their handles when doing things.

"Upper practice, what are they going to do?"

Xue Zhengxuan said: "For this matter, they decided to set a good example and negotiated at Lingshan. I will start tomorrow... But Menger looks like this, I really can't worry..."

He said that it is a good thing, the color of the town of the butterfly, even the world's first great master, Chu, Ning, all of them are in the midst of life, even if the upper repair world is indifferent, it is impossible to sit idly by.

"Who is the person who opened the enchantment by the law?"

"Why is he doing this."

"What is this person's next move?"

These three questions are as if they are in the hearts of everyone. Everyone wants to know the answer. But after a long period of investigation, it is still impossible to do anything. There is no way, only to join hands.

Ink ignited: "Uncle, don't worry, send everything, I will help my aunt to take care of it."

"That's good, then it's good... oh... you have suffered."

Xue Zhengxuan left, and Xue Meng was not obsessed with the whole day. The backlog of the backlogs all fell on the shoulders of the ink.

The ink burned all over the body, and did not dare to have a moment of burnout, because as long as he stopped to think and stopped to take a break, the intense pain and regret would drag him down the abyss and torture him to be broken. The soul of the soul. He hates to go to the front of the day and night before, so as to get rid of the heart and endless shackles and torture.

When there is no hell, the yin is full of yin. Many of the sorrowful demons have returned to the rivers and lakes by the East Wind, which is harmful to the Quartet. These days, the letter of request for help from the dead and the dead has piled up into a hill. The ink burns busy, sleepless nights, often rushed to Danxin Temple at dawn, and went back to rest in the middle of the night.

However, even in this way, he will still be in the sea of Wang Yangshu, cold and unprotected, by the pieces left by the late night of Chu.

"... Qing Zhuangxing makes waves, and Fengling Village has 82 families who are old and weak. They are fortunate to have the armor of the Elders of the Elders, and they can temporarily slay evil. But it is not a long-term policy, please also... ..."

The tears of the candle slowly slipped, and the lamp core burst into a string of fireworks.

When the ink burned back to God, I was shocked that I had already stayed in this book for a long time, and my fingers rubbed the words "night tour god". I remembered that the red lotus water 榭 榭 楚 晚 晚 晚 晚 晚 , , , , With a sickle, focus on the appearance of the tung oil on the mech.

The ink burned and sighed, and the fingertips were placed on the forehead and gently licked.

I heard someone knocking at the door.

"What is the teacher?"

The beautiful young man in the pale white dress came in, put the tray in his hand down next to the ink burning case, curled up the candle, and then sighed: "A burning, busy for a day, eat something."

"...just fine."

The ink burned and smiled, put the file down, and pinched the faint painful eyebrows.

"I stewed a bowl of ginseng chicken soup and fry a few dishes and stir-fried." The teacher sifted the dishes and tried the temperature across the bowl. "Fortunately, they are still warm."

The two of them ate the meal, and the teacher saw his forehead smashed and scattered, lining up a handsome face quite a bit, and then reached out and licked for him.

"A burning."

"Ok?"

"Last... what do you want to say to me?"

The ink burned in the head, and I didn’t respond. I looked at him and asked, "Which day?"

"..." The teacher licked his lips and hanged his way. "It was the day of the day."

"..."

"You said that you are going to help... the helper respects the sky, there is a saying, if you wait for you to come back, I want to tell me, then..." The voice gradually went down and the head went down.

In the bonnet of the lamp, the earrings that are crystal clear like snow seem to be a little red.

The ink burned for a long time, but he couldn’t speak for a long time.

For the teacher, he feels that he is undoubtedly deeply loved, but he really does not have this mind at the moment, not at all.

He is indeed stinky and shameless. He does not care about the world's criticism. He does not know what the number of gifts is.

But this does not mean that he has no heart.

"I can't help it." After a long silence, the ink burned softly. "I feel bad in my heart. I think... It's not the time to talk about it, so I will tell you later, okay?"

The teacher raised his face, and a pair of beautiful eyes were full of sorrow.

The ink burned and smiled, reaching out, hesitating for a moment, and licking the hair of the teacher: "I am always stupid, and there are so many things to deal with these days, I... I don’t know when I can be quiet. Let's make everything clear. I am afraid I am too hasty."

Rao is warm with candlelight, and can't cover the teacher's face and gradually pale.

"Sloppy?"

After a pause, he suddenly laughed.

"A fire, when life and death parting, life is critical, I thought you have to say, is a well-thought-out thing."

"Yes." The ink burned and frowned. "I have been in my heart for a long time. I have never changed it, but..."

"can?"

"...but not now."

The hand squeezed into a fist between the sleeves, and the ink burned.

"Not now, Shi Yan. You don't know, that's a very important thing. I don't want to tell you in such a difficult situation, I..."

"Little Lord!"

Suddenly a subordinate sneaked in and found that the person who handled the martial art in the Danxin Hall was smoldering, and he was busy bowing his head and saying: "Ah, Mo Gongzi."

Suddenly interrupted, the thin red on the face of the teacher also retired, and the sleeves were folded, and the body that leaned forward sat back again. The whole person became faint and looked very plain.

The ink burned did not notice his emotional changes, and raised his eyes: "What?"

"There are VIPs visiting outside the mountain gate, special and special to play."

“Guest?” said Mohburn, “The top ten sects have face-faced figures who are now in Lingshan. Where are the guests?”

The disciple seemed to be afraid of fear, and the whole person was incoherent. After a long while, he blushes and says, "Yes, is the master of nostalgia!!"

"what?!"

Even when he stepped on the emperor, the ink burned and stood up, and the teacher was shocked.

"Master of guilty?"

No wonder that the ink is so shocking, this master of guilty conscience is a person like a legend in the realm of comprehension.

This person has already been cultivated as a positive result and should be promoted. However, when the door of the day was opened to him, he stood up and said that he could not break the red dust, and he couldn’t put his life to obscurity and could not clean the sins of his early years. Eventually the skylight disappeared, the lotus blossoms withered, and the master of sinfulness smashed the old, and the awnings were light, and they drifted away, and they never became immortals.

After he refused to fly, he went to the Wushou Temple to retreat and meditate. It has been a hundred years since the eyes turned.

A hundred years later, the realm of comprehension only heard its name and did not see anyone. He has seen his predecessors on the rivers and lakes, and there are only a handful of them.

In the last generation, the smoldering of the world has made a lot of troubles in the world, but it has nothing to do with the master of sin. Because the crime of sin is really too old and too old, the year before the end of the burning of the extreme, he has been in a spring rain, no one knows that he enjoys the birthday.

After the rebirth was born, the master of guilty crimes would visit in the middle of the night.

For a time, there were countless thoughts flashing through my mind, though I don’t know what he was going to do. But for a time, the ink burned back to those rumors about the master of crime.

I am guilty... I am guilty!

How did he forget the master of guilty!

When the former teacher lost his life, he was so shallow that he did not know that there was such a thorough predecessor in the realm of comprehension. After he went to the throne, he listened to the following people’s reports and learned that one of the three major bans was reborn. There are people practicing in the world.

That person is guilty.

He was anxious to go to the Temple of Nostalgia and invited people to come back. He wanted to return to the soul for the teacher. But when the returning person returned, he told him that the master had already passed away. He missed the last chance to make the teacher reborn.

But this legendary figure is still alive! Still alive! !

How did he forget it! How can I forget?

The smoldering heart trembled, and the whole person started to shake. He slammed up and his eyes lit up. He said, "Come on, please come in!"

The disciples who came to the pipa had not had time to promise, and the ink burned again: "No, I still go outside to meet him." Without taking two steps, I suddenly saw a yellow flash outside.

The candle did not move and the fire did not move.

The wind did not rise.

No one saw it, and even his eyesight was like a smoldering, and he did not see how he came in. A monk wearing a brawl, a pipa, and a half old man was standing in the Danqing Hall.

He is like a thunderbolt, and the stop position is just in front of the ink, and the distance is a bit awkward.

"Late the night, don't try to move the donor."

A low and gentle voice slowly came out from the bamboo mouth, and the ink burned and the teacher heard it. They were all shocked.

This voice, where is it like a centenarian?

When I was not thinking about it, I saw that the monk was in addition to the greenery. In the lights of the hall, I saw that it was a man who was about thirty years old. His life was clear and clean, his eyes were burning, his eyes were burning, but he was not forced, but he was peaceful. Clear, as if the river is condensed.

"……you are……"

The monks clasped their hands together and bowed a low ceremony: "Amitabha, poor and guilty."

No one expected that the guilty master was at least a hundred years old, and he was even younger than Xue Zhengyi, and he was dumb.

But ink burning and practice are not stupid. He thought that the crime of sin is to give up the people who are flying up and keeping the mortal. Except for the last birth and catastrophe, this is no different from the gods, so my heart is slightly slower. But the eyes are even more unable to move away from him.

I don’t want to disturb more people, so only three of them sat in the Dan Heart Hall. Ink burning personally gave the master a hot tea, took over the guilty, thanked, but did not drink, only put the tea on the rosewood small, and then slowly looked up.

Although he is very gentle and polite, he does not bend around, but he goes straight into the road:

"Ink donors, please forgive me, but the poor are coming today for an old man."

The ink burned heartbeat quickly, and he felt dizzy in front of him, and the knuckles snapped the corner of the case. The strength was so big that he almost crushed the table.

He stared at the face of the master of sin, and the words of his predecessors came again like snowflakes.

"It is said that only one person in the world has succeeded in making the rebirth of the three major bans, but the rumors are rumors after all, and I don't know if it is true or false..."

"Where is the master of crimes? Even if I pay more, I will save the teacher and come back!"

"I don't know, I don't know, I have been guilty... I have lost my mind many years ago. He hasn't written anything in his life. About rebirth, he only left a sentence of "reverse life, sinister." Words are not saved..."

Those piecemeal words rushed through the auricle.

"The master of guilty sins knows how to reincarnate."

"In the rumor, he can communicate with the ghost world. If he is still in the world, the Mingjing brother may be able to repay the soul, but unfortunately, hehe..."

"The master of guilty crimes is the ghost that is still in the sun, and the yin and yang things are not around."

The ink burned a deep breath, and I was shocked to see that my voice was a little trembling.

"The old man...the old man..."

He muttered, his eyes squinting at the clear eyes of the master of guilty.

When the ink burns lightly, the mosquitoes lick and even ooze out the fine sweat. He whispers: "Who is the old man?"

The monk slowly stood up, and there was no shadow under his feet in the dim candlelight.

The thin yellow robe sleeves hang down, the clothes are half old, but there are no folds, and it is like a ghost in the wind. This master really taught people to look down on the road.

The ink burned can hear his own heartbeat, and he couldn't help but stand up with the guilty sin. The two looked at each other.

"Master." If there is a mirror hanging high at this moment, he can see his own eyebrows, but he does not consciously give birth to a little extravagant hope, and because of this extravagant hope, he again asks, "Who...for the sake of..."

is it him?

is it him?

Suddenly, I lay down my eyelashes and sighed in a sigh: "The little girl is late in the night, and he is seven days ago. Tonight is his night of returning to the soul. The poor can't bear the white hair to send the black hair, especially to the death of the dead, and seek the mercy of the donor. I still have a child."

The author has something to say:

Xue Mengmeng: "..."

Chapter 103

Actually...so...

Disciple...

I didn’t think of the smoldering of the smoldering. The sorghum that was indifferent to this person’s ghost would be the teacher of Chu’s late life. I couldn’t say anything at the moment.

On the contrary, the teacher responded quickly. He immediately made a solemn gift and said: "I didn't think that the master had this trace with the first division. The younger generation had seen the sinner."

The master of guilty crimes said: "The ancestors do not have to say that Chu Xi Ning has already been expelled from the poor by the poor."

"Ah!" The teacher was slightly surprised, but he was surprised. "This..." He was cautious, though he was very surprised, but he saw that the master of the crime of guilty was thin and sorrowful, and he knew that people did not want to mention more, so he Did not ask any more.

But the mind of ink burning is not here, his heart is like a fire, and he is anxious: "Master, you only said that you are coming for the teacher, then you...you have a way to let the master return to the soul?! ”

"A burning..."

"Do you have a way to let him return to the soul! You don't want to marry me! Are you...is it..." He was so excited, and he was tired all the time. He was dizzy for a while, half a sentence squatting in his throat. I can’t say it anymore, but my eyes are red.

The master of guilty sighed: "Mr. Shi’s cherished his own importance, yes, the old man did come for this."

The burning face was pale and like a piece of paper. He smelled a layer of blood. He looked straight at the master of sin, his lips were white and shivering for a moment, and he said: "You... you can... seriously... ”

“The old lady’s late night visit is not always to tease the two donors.”

What the ink burns wants to say, the throat is agitated, but only hoarse and choked.

Silence for a long time, the master of guilty sin: "The technique of rebirth, change the life against the sky, extremely hard, if the old man owes a lot of Chu Zongshi, it will not be rash. Visiting the dead and the sorrow is also a lot of thoughts." Make a choice."

"Reversely change your life...?" The smoldering muttered, chewing these four words between the lips and teeth, and then stunned, "Reversely change the life... Like me, the wicked, have the opportunity to change their lives." How can he be a good person like him?"

At this time, he was almost half-mad, so he said that he had changed his life from the sky. Fortunately, his words were vague, and no one heard that he had the meaning of "self-rebirth".

Shi Shudao said: "Since the ancestors, since it is a change of life, and the technique of rebirth is a forbidden surgery, it is very difficult to display it. It may not be successful... right?"

"Not bad." He said, "This technique involves not only the operator and the deceased, but also the individual, to find the soul of the dead. It is difficult to be born again. If you are not careful, it will be ruined. The soul flies."

Teacher: "..."

"So the old man came here, and the other people don't need to be disturbed. They only ask the three disciples of Chu Zongshi. If you are not willing to go through the fire for him, and if you are exposed to this risk, then even if the old man starts the rebirth, Chu Yuning is not going back. Come."

In fact, before the guilty of sin has not been said before, the smoldering has already guessed the eighty-nine.

The reason why the three bans are forbidden is that you need to sacrifice something that is not needed for ordinary spells, and take the risk of taking some unusual spells.

He has long been clear in his heart. In the past, he could not kill his own life for the sake of his teacher. In this life, he would not hesitate to report his lateness.

The smoldering is intentional, but in the last life, he never gave up his heart and gave him a little bit of a late night.

Under the candlelight, he looked at the face of the master of guilty sins and said: "The master does not have to ask Xue Meng anymore. The master will die because of me. This matter does not have to involve others. If there is any danger in the operation, the ink will be burned. Force to bear."

"A burning..." the teacher murmured, and then turned to ask for sin. "The teacher and the ancestors are heavy, I don't know what the so-called disaster, what would it be?"

I am guilty: "Although the Mohist is willing to bear it, the first step in this technique is that the more people are willing to dedicate themselves, the easier it is to succeed. Still waiting for Xue Shizhu, the old man will tell you clearly. Well, when Dad was on the mountain, he was already going to invite him."

He paused and smiled at the teacher.

"In addition, remember that if you want to call the old man a teacher, you have already said that the old man is no longer in the position of the master of Chuzong."

At the moment, the ink burned down a little, and asked: "Why did the masters go out of my way?"

The teacher said without words: "A burning..."

"It's no problem, it's something that can't be said." Sigh with sighs. "When the barren is young, I have been taken care of by the benefactors. However, the benefactors are short-lived, and in a big robbery, the souls of the others are lost. In the past 100 years, the poor are thinking. This is still uneasy. Therefore, there is a commandment under my door. The most important one is that the disciple must concentrate on spiritual practice.

The ink burned for a long while and said: "The teacher can't do it."

"Yeah." He smiled bitterly. "My little singer, and my kindness, a temper. He grew up in the temple to young age, and the world is not deep and the talent is extremely high. He could have been repaired to the ascent. It was only the weak crown that year. He went to the mountain to collect the ore and happened to bump into the refugees who had taken refuge..."

The teacher sighed: "If this is the case, the Master will not stand by."

Nostalgia for nostalgia: "But instead of watching, after setting up the refugees, I left the mountain without permission and went to the lower circle to see."

"..."

At that time, the dying of life and death was just beginning to open the mountain. The Xiu Xiu boundary was far more chaotic than this moment. Chu night would rather see what I don’t have to say.

"After returning, he told me that I want to finish the repairs for the time being, and go to the red dust to help the wounded."

The teacher asked: "Are you promised?"

"No."

"..."

"He was only fifteen years old at the time, his nature was pure, his temper was fierce, and it was very easy for people to lie. How can I promise that he would go out of the mountain without authorization? Moreover, although he was repaired as high, his constitution was weak, and the world was sinister. The master is like a cloud, and being poor as his master is really unreliable."

Ink ignited: "But he still didn't listen to you in the end."

"Yes, after he heard it, he had a big fight with me. It is said that the suffering of the world is in front of him. Why does the master sit taller and close his eyes?"

"Ah!" The teacher was shocked.

This is even if other people are guilty of sin, it is also extremely mean, let alone Chu Ning was his close disciple, it is simply a big mistake.

I feel a little guilty, but there is some sadness in my eyebrows. "In the midst of poverty, the mood was not empty. When I was angry, I said to the little ones, you can’t do it yourself, how can you treat people?"

"What did the Master say?" asked the teacher.

"I don't know how to spend, how to spend myself."

As soon as this statement came out, the hall was quiet.

Because these eight words are not from the mouth of sin, but the smoldering light. Hearing that he suddenly said the sentence that Chu Yuning had said in the past, the master of guilty sinful eyes, silently looking at the young man in front of him, only a long sigh.

"He still teaches you this way? He... Hey, he really is... no change, no regrets."

The guilty conscience is complicated, but the ink is not much quieter than him.

It should be noted that he had always sneered at the eight words of Chu Yuning, and felt that it was a false morality and a big talk. But now I can say it again, but I feel like I’m burning and suffering.

After a long time, the voice of guilty sin was re-emerged in the Dan Heart Hall.

"Speaking of it, on the same day, I was also mad, and I said to him, if he is stubborn and stepped out of the temple door, I will end up with his master and apprentice." He paused and seemed to be past. He stunned his throat, wanted to elaborate, and didn't want to talk about it. After hesitating, he shook his head.

"Now you are also clear, Chu Xi Ning finally broke off the righteousness. Over the years, I have been different from him. Although I am in this red dust, I never see each other again."

The teacher said: "This is not a teacher... This is not the fault of the master."

I am guilty of sin: "Yes, right and wrong, it is Yefiye. This is not something that can easily be taught. But Chu Yuening and I have a teacher and a teacher. He is poor and smells that he died in the * battle on the eve, remembering the past. I can't be jealous day and night. So I want to come here, do my best, try my luck and see if I can save my master's life-"

"Dangdang."

The lacquer carving door was pushed hard.

Xue Meng is outside, I don’t know when it came, but he has heard the most important sentences thoroughly. He only heard that the master of sin has come. He doesn’t know what the old monk is going to do, so he only Holding a pot of Chinese medicine, I slowly walked over while drinking.

At this point, he heard the words of guilty, the utensils in his hand had been smashed, and the hot soup was splashed.

Phoenix did not feel hot, lost the voice: "Save back? Save it back? Master can still - can come back?!"

He rushed into the house and succumbed to sin.

"Vulture, what are you talking about? Are you kidding?"

The teacher is busy: "Lord, he is..."

"No... It’s me who is out of order. It’s my state of disobedience.” Xue Meng didn’t know that the person in front of him was the teacher of Chu’s late life, but he thought that this person was coming to save the teacher’s life, and he hurriedly loosened his hand. “Master, as long as you Can let the master respect. If there is a need in the future, Xue Meng goes to the fire, and he will die. Just ask you... just ask you not to marry me."

I am guilty: "There is no need for Xue Shizhu. If you visit in the middle of the night, it will be a special trip for your master."

He turned his face and smashed the moonlight outside the window: "The hour is almost the same. Since the three small donors have come together, it will be poor, and you will elaborate on the method of rebirth, and it is difficult." ”

The teacher said: "The master of the cut is clear."

Xue Meng was anxious: "There is nothing to talk about! Save people! Save people first!"

I am guilty of sin: "Xue Shi is anxious, but you need to know that if there is a difference in the pool, but the main loss of life, I am afraid that the soul of the night will be overflowing. When the six reincarnations can not enter, can you bear it?"

"I..." Xue Mengqi's time rose to his face, and he tightened his sleeves. After a while, he slowly loosened and said, "Okay, I heard the master say it..."

In the sin of crime, three white silk lamps were taken out from the storage sac. The silk lamp was fused with fine gold thread, and the center was embroidered with a plethora of scented lines with thirteen colored silk threads. The spider's net, to catch the soul who left.

"This is the soul-collecting lamp." The master of guilty guilty gave three silk bags to three young people. "Get this, and if you are poor, then you must remember."

The ink burned the lantern and held it in his hand.

"There are three souls and seven souls. The three souls are the soul of the earth, the soul of the soul, and the soul of the soul. After the death, the three souls fall into the yellow spring, and each is separated. This is clear to you, but after the death, every soul goes where, I guess You don't know."

The teacher said: "Please also tell the master."

"The soul of the earth, the soul of the soul into the government, the soul remains in the body. The first seven souls of the mortal world, in fact, can reunite with the sun and the soul, but only the soul of the soul. People come back, often have a wish However, when it is a wish, it will be combined with the remaining souls in the body, and then return to the land, reunite the soul, waiting for reincarnation. Many people know half of the solution, seeking the method of rebirth, but the last resort is only Half a skeleton, the nature will soon dissipate."

After the death of the former teacher, the ink has also tried to seduce the soul. However, as the guilty words are said, only the thin shadow of the man in the shadow of the moon is instantly turned into a little bit of fire.

The ink burned and muttered: "This is actually the case..."

I am guilty: "The soul of Chu Yuning is still in his body. The donors don't have to worry about it. It is important to find his soul and soul."

Xue Meng was busy asking: "How to find?"

I am guilty: "Use this to illuminate the light. This light can only be illuminated by the spiritual power. After you infuse each of the spiritual streams, take it to the death of the dead. If the night is not resisting the three donors, this is not the case." The light of the Spiritual Light can reveal his soul."

The ink burned the words, and it was a cold heart: "Where, if the Master does not want to see us?"

"This is the first difficulty, and why the more people are willing to find him, the easier it is to succeed. It is necessary to know that if he is unintentional, he will decide to go." He can't take care of his figure. Therefore, if you want to display the technique of rebirth, you will be indispensable. If you go to find someone, the dead will not fall in love, and you will not return to the red dust. No one can force it."

"..." The ink can't help but clench the soul lamp in his hand.

Xue Meng hurriedly said: "The teacher is the most distressed of us, how can I not want to come back? Master, after using this soul-light to find the master, how to do it?"

"After finding the soul, you need to go to a place."

"Where?" Xue Meng asked.

"Ground house."

None of the three people thought that they would really go to the government, and they were shocked.

The teacher slammed "ah" with a sigh of relief, and asked in a low voice. "How can a living person go to hell?"

"This is my own way, the donor does not have to worry."

I was guilty of sin and looked at him and continued: "But the three of you, no matter who first found the soul of Chu Yuning, must be eagerly looking forward to returning to Yang, wishing for it. Bilu, down to Huangquan. If the mind is not determined, the soul of the night will be scattered, and no longer can be gathered."

Teacher: "This..."

Xue Mengdao: "The teacher respects me and is very important. Even if I want to go to * in the hell, I have nothing to say."

"...Shi Zun died because of me." The ink burned his eyes and said, "I owe him a lot, and there is nothing to say."

I am guilty: "Okay. Then you will remember that after the first person was found by the first person, the other people could not see him again even if they went. And the person who found him needs It is necessary to ensure that the soul-lighting lights are not extinguished before the dawn, and have been following his soul."

Xue Mengdao: "How difficult is this?"

"Difficult." He said, "After the separation of the three souls, each soul will often lose something. It may be hearing, it may be the mind, it may be the memory... In short, if the luck is not good, the master you see is not I will listen to you so easily, and I have to think about him."

Xue Meng: "..."

The ink is burning in the heart, and it is very uneasy: "... want to marry him? But what if you say something wrong? It is hard to guess his mind when he is a human being, not to be a ghost."

He was originally a sincere concern. Xue Meng and him did not stay for a long time. He thought that the smoldering was ridiculing Chu and later, so he glared at him and then turned his head and said: "What is difficult, anyway, clearly, no Let the Master leave the Spirit Light around."

The teacher asked: "After the dawn?"

"After dawn, the soul of Chu Xiening will float into the soul-lighting. At that time, the barren will prepare the bamboo poles and wait for the two at the bridge. It is located at the entrance of the ghost town, and the water flowing under the bridge is just connected with Huang Quan. The bamboo raft will carry the person who has found the remnant soul and go to the ghost world."

Xue Meng: "Sit on the bamboo to go to the ghost world?"

The teacher asked: "Can only go alone? Can anyone else help me?"

"No, so whoever found the soul of Chu Yuning, whoever is going to go into the ghost world to find his soul. If the person is half-way, or retreating, the soul of Chu-night will be swallowed up by the soul-sounding light. It is no longer possible to reincarnate."

Xue Meng was shocked and almost immediately turned to the ink and said: "You don't go, I believe you!"

The ink burned silently, only he questioned it and did not go to dispute.

The teacher saw him and advised: "The Lord, Ah, he is not the kind of person who escapes, you..."

"Not what?!" Xue Meng Li said. "He has killed the Master once. Why do I believe that he will not kill Master for the second time? He is a god!"

The teacher whispered: "The master is still here, how can you say that?"

"How can I not say it? Isn't it? How many times the teacher is injured because of him! Every time he is there, there is no good thing." Xue Meng said, his eyes were red, his lips were groaning and his hair was shining. Shaking, suddenly there is some out of control, reaching out to smother the light of the soul in the hand, "Give me the light, don't look for the teacher to look up."

"..."

"give me!"

Xue Meng squatted, and the ink burned without paying back. For the first time in his life, Xue Meng said it was right.

In front of the ghost ceremonies, Jin Chengchi Lake bottom is also good, which time Chu nightning is not because of his injury, how many scars on the body of Chu Xiaoning, is left for him?

God.

Ah……

Yes, that’s right.

Even so, even if he knows that he is a master, even if he knows that he is not worthy to ask the teacher to return from Huang Quan, he still does not want to put down the light of the soul in his hands, so stubbornly, holding the pale lantern. By Xue Meng retorted himself and tore himself. The back of the hand was caught with blood marks, still holding his head down and not moving.

In the end, Xue Meng gasped and finally let go of him, his eyes reddened: "Ink rain, when do you want to harm him..."

The ink burned did not go to see him, just lowered his head and looked at the empty lights, silent.

When he was silent and everyone thought he would not answer again, he suddenly said softly: "I want to take him home."

His voice is too low.

Being shackled and shy is so low, so humble.

So Xue Meng didn't hear it at first. After a while, he suddenly realized what the ink burned. He sneered at the "hehe".

"You take him home?"

"..." The ink burns and closes the eyes.

Xue Meng smashed out, and every word was torn apart between the teeth: "How do you have a face?"

"Little Lord--"

"Don't pull me, let go!" Xue Meng violently pulled the sleeve out of the teacher's hand, his eyes flashed with sorrow and resentment. He stared at the ink and hoarse, "How do you match?"

The ink-burning hand seemed to tremble slightly, and his eyelashes hang down.

At that moment, suddenly a subtle illusion was born, as if Chu Ning was still alive, Chu will rather say the next moment: "Xue Meng, don't mess around."

It turned out that he has been sheltering himself from the wind.

It was his own temptation to think that it was justified.

I don’t know what to say, just holding the soul-light, like holding the last straw.

He lowered his head and repeated: "I want to take him home."

"Do you only say this sentence, you! I see you -"

"Okay, Xue Shizhu."

The master of guilty crime finally couldn’t stand it anymore. He sighed and said, “The ink donor has the heart, and you let him do it. If it’s really embarrassing, then it’s not too late. Now there’s no fixed number, why should Xue Shizhu be aggressive. ”

Xue Mengyu calmed his face, wanted to say something, and finally looked at the face of guilty, and held back.

I have to bear the burden and drop another sentence.

"If the Master is awkward, I will kill you to sacrifice him."

Sigh with sighs: "The grievances of the two donors, count again in the future, there is not much time, and it is important to find people."

Ink burning: "Please also cast a master spell."

"The spell of the soul of the soul has been applied." When the sin sees the ink, it will pour into the spirit of the soul light, raising his hand to stop him, "the donor is slow."

Xue Meng hurriedly said: "What else?"

"The poor want to say it again, if someone finds the soul of the late night, then the person has no way to retreat, and must go to the land. Although the poor will lay a curse on that person, but the living person will enter the dead. The land is extremely dangerous. After a little carelessness, I am afraid that it will be difficult to survive." The master of crimes looked at the faces of the three people in a meaningful way.

"The so-called sinister, is not an empty talk. It may not be difficult to find the soul of the late night in the land, but it is difficult to go to * alone, facing the unknown. If luck is good, the soul will soon find it, if luck is not Ok, if something goes wrong, it will..."

"Is it going to die?" asked the teacher.

"Death is light, I am afraid that when the time is late, the Ning is good, the donor is good, it will be smouldering, and there will be no reincarnation."

I am guilty: "So, if the three donors hesitate, they will return this soul lamp to me. There is no one in this world who is sure to pay for death, and it is not a shame to pledge. ,You still have time."

"I don't regret it." Xue Meng is the youngest and most enthusiasm, and he is even more passionate. He immediately said, "Whoever regrets his grandson."

But after all, he didn't understand the smoldering. His cousin was not the same as him. Perhaps it was because of the humiliation of the small, the burning love and hate was ground into sharp fingers, if anyone If he hurts him, he will dig the man's intestines, but if someone treats him well, even if he only has a little bit of affection, he will never forget.

The ink burned his eyes and Xue Meng, and he looked back and sinned: "I don't regret it either."

Nostalgia for nostalgia, and then said: "Well, after the ghost world, find his lost 'land soul' as soon as possible. When the soul and soul of the soul merge into the light, the soul light will light up. Yangzhi Road. The next thing, it will be good to be old."

He seems to be fairly easy to say, but everyone knows this series of things, every link is very easy to change, extremely sinister, especially after the land, if you can not find the soul of the late night, or because of the soul Without a mind or a memory, if you don't want to be integrated, then those who are afraid of looking for him will have to pay for it.

Therefore, before the three people lit up the soul-lighting lights, they finally asked them again.

"If the light is on, there will be no more time to turn back. This is not a child's play. If you ask me poorly, can you have remorse?"

Three people answered: "No regrets."

"Well...good..." The crime of slowly opening a smile, half bitter, half is gratifying, "Chu Ning, you, you are better than my teacher..."

He silently cursed the curse, the soul lamp flickered twice and faintly lit up, only to see the lantern in the hands of Xue Meng, burning almost two red flames at the same time, immersing the white silk lantern in red. After a while, the lamp of the division’s men’s hand was also faintly lit, and the light of the watery stream was blue.

"Go."

I am guilty.

"The success or failure, whether it returns or not, is visible tonight, if it is not tonight... that... oh..."

The smoldering thought of Chu’s good life before his death, his heart faintly hurts, but he couldn’t bear to listen to his sins and said: “The master does not have to say much, I am squatting, crawling, liver and brain, and also the teacher. Respect to bring back to the world."

As long as he is willing.

As long as... he is willing to come back with me.

The three radiances were separated from the Danxin Temple, and soon they were swallowed up by the vast nights, and disappeared.

The author has something to say: Today, there are so many people in the hospital, I will be home at 6 o'clock in the evening, and my face will be...

It’s often a couple of hours to comment back recently, and I’m busy with work, so sometimes I can’t come back. Please don’t feel that I’m perfunctory, hehe.

In addition, when I reply, some things can't be said, so it will be very difficult to return. I just want to say one sentence. Although I have limited level, I still don't want to write silly white sweet text, so the process seems to be a bit painful. I am so sorry 23333

In short, some of the truths in this article are buried very deeply. Some characters also wear more than one mask. When everyone thinks that "thickness, the true face of this little rabbit's nephew has finally come out," he may have revealed it. Two masks. Therefore, I hope that all of your friends will have the patience to wait for each character to wash off the oil on their faces, revealing the final appearance of each person and restoring every secret~

Then at the end of the year, if there is a time when I didn't comment back, it should be that I am really busy but TT or that I wrote a key turning point in the following text, I am afraid that I will be emotionally infected in the comment area, so I will not do it at that time. Reply, please bear with me! thank!

The second thing is yesterday, the comment area seems to have a cold wood to understand why the dog still likes the teacher. it's actually really easy.

First, the death of the Master has nothing to do with the teacher.

Second, the dog only knows how to treat himself, and I don’t know that the teacher respects himself.

Third, no matter how the teacher is actually, at least the dog does not feel that he has any changes.

Think carefully, with his people, in the case of maintaining the above three conditions, he will have doubts about the feelings of the teacher? The answer is obviously no.

If this is handled as a dog because the master is dead and falls in love with the master, then the character is completely collapsed and becomes a character who loves whoever dies. What is the dog's heart? It is a sorrow and regret, it is a late respect and love, anything can be there, but there will be no love at this stage.

In other words, his love for the teacher can not be awakened because of the death of the master. If so, who is not dead for him, will he love who? That is actually an insult to the teacher.

The dog is obsessed with thinking that he likes the teacher. How can he understand that he is not in love with the teacher when there is no change in the teacher's school and there is no other reference?

The variables brought about by the death of Master will affect his three views and future actions, and will make him regard the Master as the closest person, but will not let him think of love. At this moment, he feels that his life’s house arrests and other things are extremely disgusting. Therefore, at this time, he wants him to associate the teacher with love and love. He is not willing to, without knowing the true love of the teacher.肖肖肖

In the case of the new mourning of the teacher, the three views are broken, and the self-blame can not be pulled out, how can he think of love so easily, whether the teacher respects him or not, and Xiao thinks that "Master died for me, it must be Because I secretly love me, I only want to think that "Master is dead for me, he is the best master, I am sorry for him."

As for the teacher and the teacher, it will not, the teacher has done a good job of standing outside the contradictory vortex in this matter, no matter how it is seen from the perspective of God, the death of the teacher in the text is not directly or indirectly with him. The relationship, this matter can not be affected by him, in other words, the ink is burning now and then regret it, it is the matter of him and Chu nightning, and does not involve the third person.

"Because the master is dead, the ink burns and suddenly finds that he loves the master, and he wants to wave with the teacher." This is simply poisonous == hahahaha. If this is done, it is entirely from the perspective of God. Write a character, the role is no longer a self, but a shackle of standing outside the acting.

So I know that some of my friends are very angry, but I also have a way to do it. Respecting readers and comments is very important, but respecting the role is the first thing that people in the codeword should do. QAQ Sorry, sorry.

Today's ink rain, his other ideas have been broken, but his love concept still needs a blow.

This is the reaction that I try to stand in the direction of the ink rain, so that this explanation can not satisfy all the small partners, but ... the explanation is still to explain, snoring.

patient! patient! patient!

This article is full of face!

How many people stood up for crimes and masters yesterday? Was beaten 23333333, guilty is the poorest person who is the easiest to guess and reverses the lead of the full-text card, and the row of the protagonist's supporting column, each person has more than one card in his hand, waiting for Hit hahahaha

Ok, I’m done... Thanks to the old aunt’s broken scorpion, quietly sneak away and continue to go to the code.

Chapter 104

A gust of wind faintly wanders around the dead, looking for the half-bone soul that comes back.

After the soul-lighting lights are on, the living person will never see the ink burning again. He seems to have become a half-ghost. He walked through the small steps of the bluestone and walked through the corridors and looked at Zhang.

Honglian Water Margin, Frost Heaven Hall, Sanshengtai...

I have traveled all over the place, but I can’t see him.

I can't help thinking about it. Will it be that the teacher is exhausted before he is alive, and he will never want to see him again after his death?

This thought made him fall like an ice cave. The more urgent his feet were, the clothes slid across the grass, and the cold did not prevent the glimpse of the bridge. There was a person standing on the bridge. It was cold and cold, and he was sweating, his heart was like a drum, and he was anxious to The man ran.

"Master -"

Looking back is a soul that is not known, and is also a disciple who lost his life in the crack of the sky. He is half-faced, bloody, and staring at the ink.

"...I'm sorry, I admit it." The ink burned and hurried past him. The soul of the dead lost his mind, and only slammed the ink and burned him in front of him. There was no movement. The body of the corpse was condensed in the same place, like the cocoon left in the world.

The ink can't help but feel tighter.

If the soul of the master is like him, become a corpse, what is it? Even if he finds him, can he keep him until dawn?

In the heart of the Jin Ge Tie Ma Cang Huang stepped over, the footsteps are getting faster and faster.

Raised his eyes and suddenly realized that he did not know when he had already reached the door of Meng Potang.

The ignorance of the ignorance of the mind, the master respects the diet has no obsession, after wanting to come back to his soul, will not deliberately come to this kitchen.

I was about to turn away, but I heard a sigh in Meng Potang.

The voice was very thin, but it was like a thundering explosion in the ink skull.

He almost slammed into the door and trembled to raise the light in his hand. The light of the soul lamp is like a newborn sun, but the warmth is subtle, showing a silhouette of a white coat.

The joints are dead and the nails are almost out of the palm.

The smoldering mutter: "Master respects..."

The late night of the Chu Dynasty was solitary and lonely, standing alone in the vast kitchen. The figure is lighter, like the ink marks that have been eclipsed for a long time, but it is his appearance.

He wore a smoky white dress when he was dead, and his clothes were stained with large blood stains. He was extremely radiant, so he even said that his skin was pale and smoky. It seemed that only a gust of wind was blowing, and his soul would disappear. .

The ink burned the lamp and looked at the mirror in front of the eyes.

I want to go faster, I am afraid that it will be late, and he will leave.

I want to go slower, and I am afraid of urgency, and the dream will be broken.

Wan Nian intertwined, but the eyelids could not help but slightly reddened, how much rushed to the heart, he only felt that he owed him, standing near him, the end is nowhere.

The lantern swayed gently.

It was close, and I saw him busy, seemingly anxious, so clumsy.

What is Chu nightning doing?

He came behind him and wanted to help the poor soul. But when he saw the scene, he was like a thunder. After the huge horror dissipated, he burst into a * mouth. He bit his neck.

The ink burned back two steps and slowly shook his head, but he couldn't say half a word.

At this moment, it is to take the awl into the chest, throwing out the heart, and even the blood vessels together, it will not hurt more.

He saw that Chu Xi Ning had two hands, because he had dragged himself before his death, and the hands that had climbed over 3,000 steps, the hands that had already been skinned and bloody, were slowly smashing on the case.

In the case, there are flour, seasonings and stuffing.

Next to a pot of boiling water, the water has already boiled, Chu night Ning this fool does not know that the fire is extinguished weaker, the mist of the mist soaked everything around it very vague...

Or maybe it’s not the steam that blurs the eyes of the spectator, but the ink that burns one's own eyes is moist.

Chu Yuning’s soul is slowly picking up the handkerchief. He used to have a pair of extremely dexterous hands. The weapon of the gods went down from his slender fingers, and the enchantment began from his palms.

But now the hands are broken, shivering, carefully wrapped one after another rounded hand.

"..."

The ink burned his arms violently, struggling to rub the red eyes, but still couldn't say a word.

Chu Yuning turned his back to him. It seemed that he finally remembered the water in the pot for too long. If he didn't care, he would have to dry up, so he went to the pot.

He is stunned.

Yes, he is stunned.

The ink burned back in the pain that could kill him. He walked quickly and walked around the master.

He is clear.

After the separation of the three souls, each will have something missing. Or memory, or wisdom, or flesh and blood.

And this soul that returns from the underworld loses part of the perception.

The late return of the land of Chu, the eyes are blurred, the hearing does not seem so good, knocked out things, and even can not tell where it is. But even so, he still worked hard to make this bowl of ordinary, ordinary hand-to-hand. As if this was his favorite thing to do during his lifetime, he could get a moment of gentleness in this vague water vapor.

Looking at the ink, I only felt distressed and cracked. I only felt that I couldn’t think about it. I just couldn’t think about it. I just stood still and looked at everything in front of me.

"Dangdang."

The eyes of the eyes have been near, because they can not see clearly, accidentally knocked down the salt pot of Meng Po Tang.

Chu night Ning seems to be shocked, silently withdrawing his hand, the face stained with mottled blood reveals such an uneasy look.

"What are you going to take..."

A hoarse voice rang on his side, almost choked, stunned, and the liver was inseparable.

"I help you, okay?"

Chu nightning is slightly amazed, but perhaps because the soul is incomplete, the mood will not be too turbulent, and soon it will be quiet again.

Every time the ink burns, it is almost difficult and almost pleading.

"Master, let me help you, okay..."

The water is boiling in the pot, the dead things in the kitchen are warm, lively, but the living people are awkward and silent.

After a long time, I finally heard the familiar voice of Chu Xi Ning, Kunshan jade, slow and steady.

"You came?"

"……Yes."

"When you come, just wait a moment, wait a moment. Wait until the pot is cooked, and the ink is burned."

"...!"

The ink burned, and I didn’t understand what Chu Ning was saying.

However, I saw that the night of the night, I would rather put a dragon with a full snow jade in the pot, and the face faded in the water vapor, which was extraordinarily soft. Then he said: "I was so severely punished yesterday that I hate me. Listening to Xue Meng said that he has been reluctant to eat. When you send it to him, don't say that I did it. He wants to know, I am afraid I will not be willing to eat."

There is a chaos in the mind of the ink, and there seems to be some hidden shackles of half life, and it is about to move out of the ground.

"Master respect..."

Chu night smiled bitterly: "I am afraid that it is too strict with him. But he always wants to do what he wants to do, and he always has to change it.... No, don't say it, you can help me find it. The bowl is coming, it must be thicker. The outside is cold, and the end is not cold."

Will break the ground and will break the ground.

As if I heard the slight broken sound in my mind, a certain memory finally broke the shell with its sharp claws, screaming and screaming to the smoldering!

Time is faint and dark.

Copy your hand.

Teacher.

Master.

.....

That was the first time he had eaten the handcuffs that the teacher had done. On that day, he was blamed by Chu’s lateness for the misappropriation of the famous flower planted by Mrs. Wang, and he asked him to play with his skin, and his heart was ashamed.

He refused to get up when he was lying in bed. He only thought that he had to pick up the flowers. He wanted to give him a respect, but he was unwillingly whipped. He felt that he had just blinked before he would see Chu’s late night. The heart will feel that Chu is rather gentle, and I feel that Chu Ning cares about him.

That is, the day, the teacher took a bowl of steaming red oil and handed it into his room, soft voice, warm tone, and hot-hearted dragon slapstick, let him disappointed with the master. All of them have become a good feeling for the teacher.

Who knows...

Who knows! !

The soul of the dead is standing beside him, and the souls of every deceased are different when they return. Some, such as Luo Sui, are to see a story that I don’t know after death. Some people who are just like the bridges are not involved, but only go to the place where they lived before they lived.

Chu Yuning, the soul of this singer, lost his eyes, and could not discern the voices of the people around him, not even knowing what night.

He returned to the mortal world. He felt that one thing was not good when he was alive. He did something wrong and felt sorry.

Want to make up.

Therefore, Chu Yuening finally made a decision that was no longer the same as before.

The hand was put out and placed in a bowl. Green onion, milk soup, red oil toppings.

He handed the bowl to the "teacher", but suddenly stopped at the end.

"I am waiting for him, too unpopular." Chu nightning muttered.

A few silences.

"But. Don't send it to you. I went to marry him and apologize to him."

The ink burned and looked at, and his face was as pale as the soul.

Originally thought that the teacher is too cold, cold as cold iron, so that his heart is frozen into ice. But whoever had expected the Master to be good to himself...

The regret that he can't put it down in the world is actually himself.

- Again with him, apologize.

It became ice and became a sea.

Slowly raise your hand and bury your face in your palm.

The shoulders are slightly trembled.

Hard as iron? Hard as iron?

no……

The ink burned his throat and choked, and he cried again. He knelt down. He squatted in front of the soul that couldn’t see himself. The soul-light was on his feet. He interrupted Ai’s period. He screamed and screamed, and he finally returned. Can't help but scream.

He was kneeling in front of Chu.

no……

He leaned into the dust, and he caught Chu's * clothes.

Jun is not like a cold iron, I am also difficult to be a stone. It’s just that the mistakes are wrong, there are so many mistakes... just...

"Master, Master..." He was mournful and curled up. "I can't help you. I beg you... I beg you to go back with me..."

"Master... Please come back with me, I am wrong, it is not good for me. I don't blame you, I don't hate you, I am not right, always make you angry, you will beat me later, I also Never give up, Master, as long as you come back, I will listen to you everything...respect you, hurt you, treat you well..."

However, Chu’s clothes were so sloppy as they were, and they were pinched in their hands at any time.

Ink and hate can't cut his chest and exchange his heart for him, as long as he can hear his heartbeat again. Hate can't run out of blood, rushing to his blood, as long as he can see the color on his face.

He hates not doing everything to make up for the mistakes he has made.

"Master." He was finally crying.

"We have come over again, okay..."

In front of the Tongtian Tower, under the sea otter tree.

Gentle as a white cat's master raised his head, the phoenix eyes slightly wide, the branches humming three or two, the teenager in front of him was laughing.

"Xianjun Xianjun, I have been watching you for a long time. You are not paying attention to me."

In the blink of an eye, twenty years, two lifetimes.

It's in the past.

The end is brazen, wolf ambition, but also to say this sentence -

Master, we have come back.

good or not.

Please, you reason about me, okay...

Chapter 105

The lights are stunned and shine as a double.

At this moment, it is not in Meng Po Tang, and Chu Yuning has already burned to the ink. He couldn't figure out the way, and the ink burned his hand and took him away.

The second soul of Chu, Ning, has been lost. I don’t know who is on the eve of this evening. I don’t know who is the person who has been detained with her fingers. She is led by him, and he burns him into the house and wipes the tears on his face. Closed the door.

Chu nightning put the bowl of the hand down. I groped and came to the bed and asked softly:

"Ink burning still asleep?"

"..."

When Chu Jingning saw no response, he was still asleep when he was still burning. He sighed and seemed to be a bit stunned.

The ink burned in the heart, and he was afraid that he would leave. He sat down at the bed and said, "Master, I woke up."

Hearing him calling himself, Chu night Ning's brow slightly moved, and then "hmm", he hesitated, did not speak again.

Mo-burning knows that his face is thin, if he feels that the teacher is present, he can't say more than two sentences, so he picks up a hairpin on the table, volleys on the door, and makes a teacher to cover the door. After the movement, then the following: "How did the Master come? Who brought you?"

Sure enough, Chu Xiuning under the half-soul is more deceiving than usual. He took a moment and said: "When Shi Ming took me, did he go?"

"gone."

"Ok……"

After a moment of silence, Chu nightning finally said: "The injury on your back..."

"The injury on the back, don't blame the master." The ink burned softly. "I am good at folding the grass, and the teacher should punish me."

I didn't think he would say that, Chu night Ning Wei had a sigh, and the last two soft eyelashes trembled and sighed: "Is it still hurt?"

"It doesn't hurt."

Chu night Ning raised his hand, the cold fingertips groped, touched his ink and burned his face, and said: "Sorry, don't you hate the Master."

At that time, he could never say such soft words, but after he died, the soul of the dead floated in the sinister house, and looked back on the past. He only felt that the rest had no regrets, but the apprentice was too inhuman. Therefore, once again, the opportunity to reproduce the old scene, which once ruined the face can not be said, so naturally whispered out.

The smoldering felt that the heart was like a warm spring water. The hatred that had survived since the birth, the old wounds of the years, the unwillingness of the dying, was originally broken into powder, and was now washed away in this sincere apology. Do not have any remaining.

In the light of the soul, he stared at the face of the master, the blood was like a glimpse, and the pale face seemed to be angry again. He seems to have seen the soft face of the first time in his life when he saw the night.

The ink can't help but raise his hand, and the warm hand covers his cold hand.

"I don't hate you," he said. "Master, you treat me well. I don't hate you."

Chu nightning, the gods must be embarrassed, and suddenly laughed.

Even the dead person, even if his face is mottled and dirty, he laughs is still the beginning of the ice spring, full of spring, his eyes are closed, but there seems to be beads, shining between the eyelashes. It was a smile that put aside the wish after death. Pride is not vertical, bright and not demon, like the most luxuriant and stable one, the sea otter has opened flowers, branches and treetops, solemn and cautiously put on thousands of gentle and thin colors, 璀璨芳菲, stars like leaves between.

The ink burned it and couldn’t help but watch it...

This is the first time in his life, the first time I saw Chu Xiening so relaxed and bright. The ink burned stupidly, and suddenly thought of "smile like a flower", and felt unsuitable, and then thought of "a smile and a hundred students", I feel even more absurd.

In the end, he racked his brains and couldn't think of a half-word to describe the beauty of his glimpse.

I only know that I repeat and sigh, look good.

So good-looking people, how did you ever... never found out?

Blessed to the soul, the ink burned and whispered: "Master, there is something I want to tell you."

"Ok?"

"Mr. Wang’s sea otter, I didn’t know it was so expensive. I picked it up that day and wanted to give it to you.”

Chu nightning seems to be a little surprised. The smoldering sound is light, some stunned, and even some isolated and repeated: "Yes... is for you."

"What do you give me a fold?"

The burning face can't help but red: "I don't know me, I just think it looks good. I..."

He didn't say anything more, but his heart was faintly surprised. It turned out that he remembered the feeling of picking up flowers for the late night.

Chu Xi Ning, who lost the rest of the two souls, was really gentle, just like the cat lost its nails, leaving only the delicate and soft skin belly, and the full snow claw print.

He touched the burning head and smiled: "It's stupid."

"... um." The ink burned and the eyes were hot. He looked up at him and sucked his nose. "It's stupid."

"Don't commit it again next time."

"No more crimes next time."

Ink burned and thought about it. After recalling his past life and self-destruction, he was guilty of all things, bullying men and women, and he was not too light in the night, until the last teacher was disheartened, and he was thrown to him for a lifetime. The verdict of "the character is inferior, the quality is difficult," and the heart is even more mixed. Said: "Master, I promise you, will not teach you to be disappointed in the future. To be good, not to do bad."

He didn't read much, and he couldn't say too many powerful promises, but he only felt a burst of blood in his chest. The soul that was once simple and simple at a young age seemed to finally wake up from sleep.

"The teacher is respectful, and the disciples are dull. Even today, I know that you are waiting for me."

His eyes were burning, he climbed up from the bed, kneeling in front of the night, and squatting down.

When raised again, the youth eyebrows are solemn and solemn.

"From now on, ink burns no longer teaches you to be embarrassed."

The mentor and the apprentice talked about each other, but most of them were talking about ink. When he had a heart to be distressed, it was actually very cute. He listened quietly and quietly, shaking his head and smiling from time to time. Unconsciously, the fish belly white gradually appeared outside the window, as if the thick Huizhou ink was diluted.

Long night will be central.

The master of guilty sin was standing by the stone bridge, and the rushing river splashed the clothes of his coat, but he was unaware of it and waited only silently.

A round of the rising sun slowly rises to the east, and the light shines through the leaves of the forest, shining on the rushing yellow spring water. In an instant, the river became golden, and the waves were just like the fine scales on the dragon's body. The waves were radiant and overflowing.

At this time, he is already in a state of nothingness. Only when he finds someone who has lost his soul in the late night, can he see him. Both Shi Yi and Xue Meng have been here, but they have not seen the old man on the river. He does not seem to be in a hurry, but the rosary in his hand is not getting faster and faster.

"哗-"

Suddenly, the rosary coils that have been encircled by countless rounds are scattered. The stars and moons bodhi fall like rain, and the hustle and bustle is scattered all over the floor.

Sinful eyes, lips, eclipse.

So ominous. He rubbed the broken lines of the beads with his hands, and the beads in the river splashed on the shore. The beads on the shore rolled into the river... It was a long time, and his face was pale.

"Grandmaster!"

Suddenly someone called him.

"Grandmaster!!"

Capable, warm.

I was guilty of sin and immediately followed the precepts. I saw the smoldering lights of the golden light and the red light, flying in the distance.

The dawn of the morning is dazzling, but the young man’s nephew is brighter than the first yang, and the crystal is shining. He ran to the face of sin, his cheeks were reddish, he gasped slightly, but he could not help but be excited.

"Found it." The ink burned and broke the hair on the forehead, and held the lantern carrying the soul of the late night, in his arms. "He didn't want to see me, he was here...here." The light in my arms seemed to be unwilling, hesitated for a moment, and wanted to hand the light to the sin, but the hand stretched out a few inches and received it back.

I was relieved to sigh and sighed. I looked at him up and down. He laughed and said: "Since you found him, you can hold it, don't give it to me."

The ink burned carefully and continued to hold.

I was guilty of picking up the sticks that leaned against the trees, and gently swayed into the river. A bamboo raft with a green body and a white line on the squat appeared on the shore.

"If you don't want to be late, please ask the donor to board the ship."

The spring water of the dead and the dead passes through the ghost world. This is a well-known thing, but because of the enchantment, it does not mean that you can successfully go to the underworld along the river.

The bamboo scorpion of the master of sin has applied a spell to make it pass through the yin and yang, so the boat is thousands of miles away, and the one who sits alone is sitting on top of it, not half a day.

Huangquan Waterfall.

This waterfall is on the side of the hustle and bustle, and the next is the nine secluded, it is boundless, vast and vast. A roll of bead curtains flows down, and the water mist splashes like a thin smoke.

The ink burned was not carefully seen, and the bamboo raft carried him straight and swooped toward the huge curtain of the prehistoric behemoth. Not responding to him, the powerful water column in an instant like countless sharp knives seems to tear the flesh and blood of the living! breakdown!

"Master -!"

At the time of the crisis, the ink burned only in the heart of the soul, he held the soul lamp in his arms, letting the whirlpool whirl, the sky was dark, and never released...

I don't know how long it took, and the deafening waterfall sounded suddenly.

The sudden rain of the same time suddenly took over.

The ink burned slowly and opened his eyes. It was only a relief when the soul-lighting lamp was safe and sound. Looking up, it was shocked by the prospect of the eye.

The waterfall that traversed the yin and yang of the two worlds disappeared. A bamboo raft floated on the vast and tranquil lake. The lake was dark blue, with a little bit of starlight, and countless faint souls were like fish, swaying through it. The reeds on both sides of the strait are surrounded by the reeds that linger on the glory of Huaihua.

At the left and right ends, deep in the leaves, there is a male and female singer dreams floating in the air, seemingly mourning, but also like peace.

"I am in Leiyuan, my limbs are all muddy. I am crying in the world, my eyes are dry and dusty. I am eating my heart, red ants are brilliant. My stomach, oh... the soul comes back... The soul is coming back..."

Huang Quan Bishui flows eastward, and all kinds of things in front of him cannot be chased.

The ink burned on the bamboo raft for a long time. Suddenly, a tower that towered into the darkness appeared in the heavy night.

Closer, he saw that the archway was a huge, grand and magnificent. But the small places are awesome, flying gold and color. It is like a beast covered with beeswax beads, a golden stone jade piece, brilliant but sullen, it squats in the darkness, open the stinking blood, waiting for the numerous ghosts and ghosts sent to the stomach.

Closer, I saw the corner of the building, such as the fangs wearing the sun, the animal head is majestic, like listening to the world.

Closer. The remnant of Chu’s lateness seems to be uneasy, and the golden brilliance of the lanterns is dark and swaying.

"Nothing." The smoldering felt his uneasiness, holding the lamp, his lips close to the paper, whispering comfort, and sending his spiritual power to accompany him more.

"Master, don't be afraid, have me."

The lamp was trembled, and after a while, it was quiet.

The ink burned down the deep eyelashes, glanced at the lamp, couldn't help but smile, reached out and touched the edge of the lamp, and then hugged it tighter.

In the dark night of the black scorpion, the three characters of "Ghost Gate" slammed into it, and it was bright and dazzling, as if it had just been written with the blood of a living person.

The bamboo poles were docked, and the ink burned on the road of Huangquan, where the soil was full of blood and smell.

He walked forward, and there were more and more people around him. The male and female, the old and the young, and the dead infants who died shortly after birth, were crying and crying. They all drifted to the depths of the land.

Whether it is the emperor's life before the birth, wealth and prosperity, or the cloth dagger, one is poor. No matter how many windings, with funeral.

At this point, I am here. This road, only their own hard-headed singly walked alone.

The ink burns along with the bustling souls and comes to the entrance of the ghost world.

There was a man sitting there, shaking the fan in his hand and looking at the clothes like a soldier. When he died, his stomach was cut open, so the intestines would flow out from time to time.

The goalkeeper soldier impatiently used his fan handle to pick up his belly and lift his eyes and ask the new dead ghost lazily.

"What is your name?"

"Sun 25."

"How come to die?"

"Hey, you are old."

The goalkeeper took a big poke and casually put a stamp on the ghost world to stamp "old death" and handed it to Sun 25: "Do not throw away the brand, lost it to go to the 17th Hall to reissue, go, the next ""

Sun Erwu is very nervous. About every person who just died, Rao is more heroic and more versatile during his lifetime. "Would you like to go to trial?" Hey, he is a good person. Even before he was a chicken, he was stupid. Can you steal a good baby from a cup of tea? At least you have a room for a wife. ”

The old man is not finished, he is uneasy.

The goalkeeper listened to his ears and waved his hand and said: "Judgement? Didn't go to the sun? There are so many souls in the ghost world. You have to wait for ten or eight years to queue up for a tire. When you are not your turn, you are in the ghost world." Waiting, there is not much difference between Yang and Yang. When it is your turn, you will go to the judge and tell you that you killed the chicken before you died, and you haven’t married the wife. Next.”

Sun Erwu was stunned, stunned, and a local accent: "Ten years and eight years?"

I was surprised to see that the ink was not far away: "What? It will take so long to be retrialed?"

"Of course, but if the sin is extremely evil, or the soul is not quite right, then another thing." The goalkeeper heard it, smiled reluctantly, he smiled, the intestines flowed out again, and he stuffed it again. Going back, "It’s never been a long time to enter the 18th floor of Purgatory."

Ink burning: "..."

Sun Erwu’s two or five eyes, I still want to ask again, but the patience of the officers and men seems to have come to an end, and they can’t help but say: “Go away, the soul goes. Everyone is rushing to reincarnate, you don’t block the old man, One, the next one."

Sun Erwu was driven by his fan.

The next one is a young woman with a face powder and a face. It is still beautiful. When she opens her mouth, she has a certain kind of self-confidence and style in her eyes. She said: "Grandfather, little girl, Jinhuaer, is Killed by bullies..."

Everyone has a way to die, everyone has the mind of everyone.

All kinds of chaos are frozen here. Nothing is more lively and more mixed than this. But the ink burned only the light in his arms.

He owes him a master, and he doesn't care about anything.

He only needs to find the lonely soul left by his master.

"first name?"

The goalkeeper yawned and looked up at the ink.

The ink burned and wanted to open, but the guard suddenly looked at it. It seemed that he was not quite right. He suddenly stood up and stared at his face.

"..."

The darkness of the darkness is not good, and he does not say that he is a dead person. I don’t know if there is any eccentricity in his soul. Even if he doesn’t, he has another person’s remnant in his arms, which is also worthy of interrogation. There is no second entrance to the ghost world, which is destined to escape.

So I had to bite my head and look at the guard.

The guards narrowed their eyes.

The ink burns and calms, and self-reported the door: "Ink burning."

The guard does not say anything.

The ink is burning like a drum, but the surface is not moving: "The monk is ruined, so it is dead. Please ask the official to send me a photo."

Chapter 106

"Going into the dead..." The guard slowly repeated his words and then snorted, "Do you practice?"

"Ok."

"The age of the monk is here, you are so embarrassed."

Guarding the skin and laughing at the meat, many people in the mortal media did not have Huigen, can not bear the good fortune, ridicule the Taoist priests, there are always some people who can not eat grapes to say sour.

"I am jealous of you, the soul is not right, not pure."

The master of guilty crimes cast a spell on the burning body, let him cover the living atmosphere, and can contact with the soul, so the guard can not see him, but how much is always uncomfortable, so Shiran sat down again, tilting the legs I found a black ruler from the drawer.

"The sin rule." He said triumphantly, although he did not know what he was proud of, the ruler was not his, but the smaller the official, the more he loved to play, the guards slammed the ruler to the table, and rolled up the eyelids. Staring at the ink, "Hands out, let the official test your merits."

Ink burning: "..."

The merits of his yang?

Will it be measured directly to the side of the great gods to be crushed into slag?

But in full view, he had nowhere to escape. He only had to sigh and hold the light of the soul in one hand and stretched out.

The guard put a ruler on his veins, almost just hit it, and the sinister screamed and screamed, and the black body appeared with blood, accompanied by thousands of people crying.

"I don't know what to do..."

"Ink rain, you can't live forever!!"

"Auntie! Nianga!! Dog stuff why you!! Why!!!"

"Don't kill me... beg you, don't kill me-"

The ink burned his hand back suddenly, and his face was pale as paper.

The ghost in that circle was looking at him in a secluded position. The guard's gaze was particularly embarrassing. He and the tiger wolf stared at the ink, and after a while, he looked down at the ruler.

The red light on the ruler disappeared, and the blood seemed to be the illusion of the genius. I didn't know where it was going, the table was clean, and only the ruler gradually floated a line.

——

There is nothing wrong with sin, escorting the first...

The first few layers of hell?

Because the ink burned before the measurement of the ruler was finished, the upper end did not finish.

The guard slammed his arm, and he was fierce and awkward, staring at him with sinister anger. It was like a boring hunter who finally caught a rare bird. His nose flickered, his eyes flashed with strange light, and the intestines almost flowed out, but this time he was too lazy to plug back.

"Don't move, you give me another test."

He is impatient, greedy, and almost has been asking for the face of Miluo.

His ghost claws smothered the ink-burning wrist and forced him to come over, and ruthlessly poked his sin.

If he is allowed to catch a ghost who can go to the 18th floor of hell, that is a great credit. He can at least sit on the ground and rise to the third level, and no longer need to write every lonely at the gate of the city every day. The soul is coming.

"Measure! Good test!"

The rule of sin is bright again.

Still bloody, crying and shouting.

The smoldering people, the shackles that have been created, seem to have been squeezed into the narrow black ruler, and the swearing blame almost broke the ruler.

"Good hate..."

"Ink rain, I will not let you die..."

The smoldering face is getting more and more ugly. He hangs his eyes, his lips are close, and he doesn't know what color it is.

"You have no conscience!! You turn the world into purgatory!"

"I will not let you go to ghosts!"

"Ah, ah-!"

Weeping, groaning, cursing, resentment.

Suddenly in so many voices, I heard a faint sigh.

"Sorry, it’s Master’s fault..."

The ink burned fiercely and the eyes were sorrowful.

He heard the voice of the past life of the late Qing Dynasty, so soft, so sad, but like a sharp knife into his skull, almost to open his soul.

The voices are getting weaker and the sinfulness is calm.

The above line of small characters reappears:

There is nothing wrong with sin, escorting to the first...

This time, the ink burned without the handle removed in advance, but this line still has not been written!

Guarding a slap, patted the black ruler: "Bad?"

Under the slap of the shot, the black ruler trembled slightly. After a while, the line of words actually dissipated on its own, and a thin scent of scent fluttered on the ruler, and the infinite brilliant glow flashed out.

There was no crying in this ruler, but a hundred birds rushing to the phoenix, and the sound of the sound into the clouds, as if the sound of the nine heavens was coming to the land, the enchantment was full of Taoran, and even the guards could not help but follow the spirit.

When the fairy sounds stop, the guards will return to God.

Looking at it again, six characters have been dropped on the rule of sin -

Ordinary soul, feasible.

The guard lost the voice: "This is impossible!"

Isn’t it just sin? Why are you so ordinary?

He was unwilling, and he took the ruler many times, but each time he had the same result: first, screaming, then good news, and finally, no exceptions, all written with ordinary soul, feasible.

The guard was extremely disappointed, and there was no reason for him to stop an ordinary soul from entering the government.

He began to smother his intestines again, and said, "Well, I think you are really dying."

The smoldering was quite unexpected. I didn't know why. He thought about it. He guessed that the curse of the master of sin was confused with the ruler and he was relieved.

"Get it, take it with you, and delay your grandfather for a long time, don't roll it!"

"..." The ink can't be burnt, and is holding the soul-lighting light to go, suddenly guarding the eyes, and screaming at him -

"stop!"

The ink burned heartbeat quickly, but his face was still calm, seemingly helpless: "What happened?"

The guard lifted his chin: "What is in your arms?"

"Oh, this is ah..." The ink burned the soul light, and the thoughts in his heart flashed quickly, and turned to smile. "It's my funeral."

"With funeral?"

"Yes, it's a device."

"Oh. Something." The guard pointed to the table, and the light flashed in his eyes. "Take your burial here and test it again. I am afraid that this is your instrument and confuses the sin."

"..."

The smoldering heart has already smashed this scorpion all over again, but there is nothing to be done. He has to put down the soul lamp and stretch his wrist again and again.

The guard seems to have a well-thought-out, and can't wait to get the ruler up again.

.....

The result is still the same.

It is still six words, clear and clear: ordinary soul, feasible.

Don't say guards, even the ink is burning, I don't know why, but this way, the other party is completely dead, and I am too lazy to wave his hand in.

The ink does not dare to stay for a long time, picking up the soul-light, passing through the long ramp, until the end, the light changes.

The ghost world is in full swing before his eyes.

This is the first layer of hell, and you can't see the end at all. The sky is scarlet, like a burning glow. Chitose rises from the ground, and the house is close to the roof, and the palace is far from the far side. At the entrance of a huge stone, the book "Er Caopi is dust, the soul is returned to Nanke Township". Next to it stands the red-painted archway, and Jinshui melts the three characters of “Nan Kexiang”, each of which is as tall as an adult male.

It turns out that the first layer of * is called Nanke Township. If the dead are not different, they will all stay here for ten or eight years, waiting for the judge to call themselves, and then go to the second level of trial and fall.

The ink burns and takes the lead light, and walks side by side.

In the eye, there is not much difference between the layout and the human world. The streets, the residents, the corrugated, a total of 18 streets, nine horizontal and nine vertical. Ghost men, ghost girls, and ghost children walked through the line, laughing and whispering, crying and mourning, and the end is the group of devil dances, and the hundred ghosts walked at night.

The east side heard a new woman twitching: "What to do, what to do, said that the remarried woman has to be cut in half, head and feet, each of the two dead ghost men, this is true Who can tell me, is this true?"

There was also a cloak around her, and the messy girl was tearing her tears: "I don't want to be the secret door. It is really life. Before I died, I went to the temple to donate a threshold and wanted thousands of people to step on the tens of thousands of people. I made a redemption for me. But the village chief said that I had to pay him four hundred gold to allow me to put the threshold on. I have to have so much money, why bother to do the flesh business..."

There are also men in the west who count: "400 days, 420 days, 403 days... I said, let me go, she will go, I will be lyrical, how can I stay here four? After a hundred and four days, she still did not follow. Hey, she is so weak, it will not be lost on the road in Huangquan, if it is really lost, how should it be?"

The newly-dead sneaks, all three or five in groups, are gathered at the gate of Nanke Township. They are still unwilling and unable to go.

But going forward, they are all old ghosts who have already returned to the soul and recognized their lives.

They are more calm, more calm, some of their own business, poor life, taking advantage of that long time, waiting for the trial.

When you get to the third street, you can see the downtown area, not the red dust.

In the end, there are no ghosts that have broken the meat and bones. Meng Po Tang did not drink, and it is still a ghost. During his lifetime, he was a pear garden. He still played juggling on the streets. He lived as a embroidered mother. When he died, he also pulled the clouds of * to weave clothes. The butcher does not dare to kill any more, but he can always pick up some knives and scissors to make a living.

Selling sounds, screaming, one after another, bustling.

The ink burned to a ghost who sold the calligraphy and painting. The ghost was probably not sold before the painting, and starved to death. Therefore, the face was yellow and thin, the cheekbone was high, and the ribs were sunken.

Seeing someone sitting in front of his stall, the thin scholar raised his dim eyes, but his expression was eager: "The son, buy a painting?"

"I want you to draw an image for me."

Scholars seem to have some regrets: "The characters are more than the landscape, the total lack of artistic conception, you see this Taishan cloud map..."

Ink burning: "I don't like landscape painting, just work for you to paint me."

"I don't like mountains and rivers?" The scholar looked at him with his eyes. He was not very happy. "The benevolent Leshan, the wise man is happy, the son is young, and he should cultivate the sentiment, and smell more Danqing fragrance. My pair of Taishan smoke clouds, originally I am reluctant to sell it, but you have asked me before I come to the booth. I don’t want to come to Huijin, so I am cheaper with you-"

"I want to paint a person."

Scholar: "..."

The two eyes looked at each other, and the scholar was his opponent. He was later stunned, but after he was stunned, he was quite angry. A dead ghost face seemed to have some angry blood.

"I don't paint people. I want to paint, ten times the price."

Ink burning: "Do you want money in the ghost world?"

"Family friends, there are always money," the scholar said coldly. "There is money to make the ghosts grind. Although I don't like the smell of copper, but the gentleman loves money, it is a good way. You I am not a relative or friend, and I have no knowledge of the period of my son. Why am I being involved for you for no reason?"

He said a bunch, but he couldn't help but burn a few people who read a lot. Immediately, he frowned. "I just came, no one has burned me."

The book says: "No money, no selling."

When I thought about it for a moment, I thought of an idea and pointed to the Taishan cloud. "Well, I don't sell it without selling it. But I am idle and idle, can you listen to me telling me about this landscape painting?"

The scholar gave a glimpse and turned to be happy: "Do you want to hear this?"

The ink ignited nodded: "Listen to your knowledge, don't you pay?"

"No." The scholar is very proud, and his face has some ridiculous and pitiful brilliance. "If you don't speak money, you will be dirty. If you read a book, you can't get cheesy."

The ink burned and nodded, and he thought that he was starving to death. Although I feel funny, but my heart is somewhat unbearable, but unfortunately, I am ashamed of it, or I really want to give him some silver.

The scholars rushed to take the good paintings from the shelf, set the posture, clear the ghosts and throats, and said with pride: "Then I started."

Seeing the small bookworm hooked up, the ink burned and laughed: "Teach me to see."

The author has something to say: This chapter has many settings and lines. It pays tribute to the young man of the middle class, Lu Xun, who is arrogant and arrogant. The prototypes of the ghost women and ghost scholars and some of the prototypes are from Xianglin and Kong. B, here, marked, to avoid misunderstanding.

Chapter 107

When the scholars say that it is two hours, the person who is also Confucius and Meng Zeng Zhu, who is so dizzy and tired to sleep, has to make a deep interest, but also hard.

For the listening class, there is a set of ink burning.

At the beginning, I heard a "Oh?", frowning, seemingly puzzled and doubtful.

Waiting for the other party to talk for a while, then another "Oh...", the eyebrows are slightly extended, as if slightly slightly, and gradually understand.

In the end, remember to keep your eyes wide open, your eyes burning, and a "oh~" is essential. What you want is to let the person who speaks understand that he is open to the top after he has taught him.

Three "Oh", he did not use it in the evening class.

It is a pity that Chu would rather not eat this set, always look at him coldly and let him shut up.

Where can the little bookworm be treated like this, when it comes to the back, the two eyes are shining, and the leaps and bounds are overwhelming, and there is a sense of hatefulness with the ink burning, and there is still a little bit of arrogance.

"I understand." The ink burned and laughed. "Listen to your reading, and then look at this landscape map, you will know that Danqing is valuable, and the money is not changed."

If the bookworm is still a living person, he must be red-faced, but now he is blushing, but the other excitement is not bad. He is happy to know how to put it, just like a child, laughing, thin face It is light.

The first time I saw the ghost, I was so happy.

Almost, he got up and bowed to the other side and said, "It's not early, I will go around and find a place to stay. If you have time tomorrow, I will come back to you."

The scholar is cold and can’t be called Mr., but it’s a happy expression. Half of it’s fear is half bliss: “No, no, no, dare not, I’ve been tested many times, even a show is not allowed, I...hey...”

The ink burned and laughed: "The quality of learning is not in Lilu, but in the heart."

The scholar was greatly surprised: "You, did you say such a thing?"

"This is what my teacher said, and it’s just a matter of picking up people."

Scholar: "... pick up the teeth."

"Is it? Hahahaha." The ink smirked and scratched his head. "I remember it wrong."

When the scholars saw that the time was not early, no one would come to ask the painting again today, and they would pick up the basket and said: "There is nothing left to do, and it is rare to meet someone who can talk. Although the gentleman’s friendship is as light as water, but also pay attention to it. I have a thousand cups of wine, I see..."

Seeing that he started to sorrow off his schoolbag, and inked and laughed and cut off his words, said: "Do you want to say, I don't think it's early, why don't we find a place to have a drink?"

"Ah, yes, yes, drink, love, okay?"

"Good." The ink nodded, "Mr. pay."

Scholar: "....."

On the greasy little table, there is a plate of peanuts, pieces of ten pieces, two small wines, and a half cup full. There was only one candle in the wine cellar, and it was burning with sorrow. The boss of the pointed monkey licked a bowl of mouth after the cabinet.

"The place is broken." The scholar seems to be a little uneasy. "But I haven't received any paper money. I have been to a few stores before, and this is a good place to go..."

"It's very good." The ink burned the wine cellar and carefully licked it. "Ghost still eats?"

"It's all imaginary, it's the same as the sacrifice." The scholar gave a sip of peanuts, but the peanuts did not disappear. He said, "Look, like this. Try it."

The ink burned down the wine cellar. He was not a dead person, and eating would reveal flaws.

The scholar’s wine was over thirty years old, and the mood of depression and sorrow seemed to be better. He chatted with the ink for a while. He asked: “Before Mo Gongzi asked Xiaosheng to help draw a character, is it the right person?”

The ink is burning and waving: "No, it is my master."

"Ah." The scholar gave a glimpse. "I have been standing in the underworld for many years. I have seen the pictures of Somé, but I have never seen my artist respect. Is it good for you to treat you?"

The ink sighed and said: "Good, especially good."

"No wonder." The scholar nodded. "Draw what he does?"

"Find people."

The scholar also screamed and was surprised: "He is also in the land?"

"Yeah." Ink burned, "I heard that the dead person has to stay in Nanke Township for ten or eight years. I can't worry about him, I want to find him and be a companion with him."

The scholars are suspicious, and even a little moved, indulge in a long while, and finally sigh: "It’s rare to see Tao Li. Deep! Mo Gongzi, I will help you this busy!" Then he got up and went out of the box, take Painting tools.

The ink burned overjoyed, and thanked him again and again, and asked his name and surname, secretly remembering it in his heart. He wanted to focus on returning to the sun and he would definitely burn more gold and silver to the poor brother.

The two of you are feeling, I am excited, and I am busy making paper and ink.

After the start of the project, there were no more than two sentences.

"My teacher respects him...he..." The ink burned his hand into a fist, and after knocking on the lap, he still didn't knock it out. So for a long time, the poor man finally said, "He In short, it is a beauty, you draw."

The scholar is staring at him.

Ink burning: "Drawing."

"...How is a beautiful child?"

"It's not very simple, it's beautiful, look good."

"I know to paint in good looks, but... forget it, you said, what is his face?"

"What face?" The ink burned and shouted, "...the face is the face."

The scholar was a little annoyed: "Papaya almond wood word goose egg, do you say one?"

"I don't know if there is something that is not there, but it is quite good."

Scholar: "....."

Ink burning: "Forget it, you don't know how to paint according to my face, and the face is not too much."

Scholar: "....."

Then there is the eye.

"What eyes?"

Seeing the burning of ink, suddenly stopped him, added.

"Don't say that the eyes are the eyes."

The ink burns the hand: "I know what you mean, his eyes are growing... This, how do you say it? It’s fierce...mei? Indifferent and gentle."

The scholar fell off the pen and angered: "I don't paint! You please ask Gao Ming!"

"Don't!" The ink burned and pulled him. "No one else painted."

The scholar endured forbearance and stared at him, but when he saw his face burned with sincerity, he would hardly say: "Then you say it well, what do I ask, what do you answer."

The ink burned and he was wronged. He thought that he had not answered well yet. Isn't it also asking people what he answered? But there was something to be soft, so I had no choice but to nod, and pitifully hugged the light of the soul in my arms.

The book said: "It's still the eyes. Is he a leopard? Three white eyes? Apricot eyes? Eyes? Or..."

The ink burned and fainted, shaking his head: "Sewed eyes? That's not very small, no, his eyes are picking up, I don't know what to call, in short... oh, it's flying up, it's pretty good. of……"

"That is the eye of the eye."

The ink burned open the mouth, but the book was unhappy, so he closed his mouth again: "Well, you can seam your eyes."

The scholar then asked: "Is the nose high and short?"

"high."

"Is the lips thin and thick?"

"thin."

"Is the eyebrows thick or light?"

"concentrated."

"Thickness?"

"Fortunately... I know that I should be a sword eyebrow."

"Okay." The scholar added a few more questions and asked, "Can there be a seal on the face?"

The ink burned his head and thought about it. Thinking about it, his face was red, and he said: "There is..."

"where is it?"

"Left to the ear." The ink burned slowly. "Small, the color is very light, then..."

Then when you kiss him here, it will be extra sensitive.

The scholar raised an eyebrow: "And then?"

"No." The ink burner shook like a rattle, and his face was redder. "No then."

The scholar looked at him quite strangely. Fortunately, the light was dim, and he could not see the blood on his face. The tip of the pen runs on the ink, and asks: "Continue to wear the dress?"

"He likes to wear white clothes. A bunch of blue jade crowns, or a high ponytail." The ink burned and thought, added the road, "sometimes also draped, when draped, especially..."

"Don't say goodbye!" The scholars can't stand it.

"Well, then it’s pretty."

Scholar: "....."

It’s hard to grind for a long time, and it’s finally finished. The ink burned and blown the ink, and when I looked up, I felt that although it was not as good as Chu, I was not very similar, but I couldn’t use it very much, but I laughed and said: "Thank you, Mr. It’s good."

"I only painted Pan Anfan, Xizi."

"Ha ha ha." The ink burned and said, "When I find the teacher, I must thank you again."

I also accompanied the scholars to drink some wine, and chatted for a while, until the sky was darker. The two separated in front of the wine cellar, and the ink burned the portrait of Chu Yuning. According to the scholar, there is a building on the fifth street of Nanke Township. It is called "Shunfeng Building" and is dedicated to the new ghosts and ghosts to inquire about various news.

He is going to see it.

The red plaque outside the SF building is faintly floating, with a black serpentine totem on the top. The ink burned the door and saw the long counter in the hall. The ghost behind the counter was wearing a blushing robe, and they all wore a wooden paint mask with a rushing crown. They could not see the true appearance. These masks are in front of each other, each with a long queue, and they are all dead people who have different looks and do not ask for anything.

Hundreds of white candles floated on the top of the building, and the overlapping lights reflected the overlapping of the dead. The ghost is coming to the ghost, and the end is busy.

"Little Master, can you help me find out where my brother is? He is Zhang Yiyi, Gusu, twenty-one years old when he died..."

“Can there be a portrait?”

"No, no."

“You can find it without a portrait, and the cost is ten times more expensive.”

"Big Brother -"

The mask coughed and the sound was crisp.

"Ah, I can't help it. It turned out to be a big sister. The big sister, this is the case. When I was dying, the head of the family said that she would never remarriage, but I always looked at her brother and brother for a long time. You can't swallow this breath, you can help me check it out, see if she is really ruthless in the Yang, or with her brother!"

"Chayang affairs, the price is this, you are squatting first."

"I’m disturbed, Xiaosheng liked a girl in her life, but she was so precious that she couldn’t get a lesser reader. She was timid and never showed her heart. Later she married, and Xiaoshengyuan also replaced She is happy. Whoever expects her to be a non-person, is a man who has become a pro.... Hey, later, she changed... She is one step ahead of Xiaosheng. So Xiaosheng wants to check two things. The first is this. Where is the girl now, the second is... want to know the fate of my next life..."

"If you want to make a living, you can check it, but you don't collect the money. You need to exchange for life. As for where the girl is, I am tired of the name of the son and the portrait."

"Oh, good, good. The portrait is there, here. The girl surnamed Yao, the single name is a blue..."

In front of each cabinet is a slang word, the body is rotted, but the obsession is still not allowed.

The ink burned the lamp, walked around and looked around and found out what was asked. The people in the downwind building either collected money or collected Yangshou.

He has no money. If he is allowed to receive Yangshou, he will be aware that he is a surviving person who is mixed into the Yin Cao government. For a moment, I don’t want to be a guilty master. I don’t know how to put some paper money ingots in my pocket.

But looking at the price, it doesn't seem expensive to ask the individual. The ink burned the heart and ran back to the vicinity of the wine cellar. It was hard to catch up with the scholar. Say, I said that I borrowed some meager silver and returned to the Shunfeng Building.

After a long day of teaming, it was hard to turn him.

The ink burned and said: "I am looking for people. This is a portrait."

He handed the portrait of Chu Xiaoning to the other party and was about to go down. After the man looked at it, he even chuckled and asked the picture to be combined. "What do you want him to do?"

"Ah?" The ink burned. "Look at the painting, you know where he is?"

"Yeah. But tell me first, what do you want him to do?"

"He is an old man."

The other person gave him another look and said: "You wait." Then he leaned over and whispered a whisper with a colleague. When he turned back, he had a lot of tone and goodness.

"Since it is the old man of Mr. Chu, the money will not be collected." The man got up and waved at him. "You go upstairs with me."

The author has something to say: the deposit box is wrong, today only. . . Two more. . . . . cry. . . .

The first three oh, from the rotten stalks of the bib segments and pieces, non-original stalks, but because of too much use, I want to find the origin, can not find. . . . At first, it seems to be appearing in the Spring Festival Evening essays? Stunned, is this kind of local interest? To avoid misunderstanding, hereby declare QAQ

Chapter 108

The ink burned up and followed him upstairs, and his feet groaned on the wooden ladder that was in disrepair. He couldn't help but ask: "Do you call him Mr. Chu?"

"Yeah, he was sent by the Jurassic to take care of this building. It is our honor."

"..."

There was no snoring in the ink, but my heart was a little surprised.

"Come on." The mask man stopped and stopped in front of a half-moon-shaped arch on the second floor, gently slamming the sinister red-carved door. "Mr. Chu, have your old man to find you."

The first thing was to calm down, and then I thought of a gentle voice, like a warm wine on the stove, and a soft hair between the pillows.

"The old man? Is it him? I said, I don't want to see him again. You let him go."

The mask man coughed softly: "No, Mr. Chu misunderstood, this time is not him."

"Who can it be?" Silently inside, said, "But, please come."

The warm interior is very light and elegant, and the table and chair furnishings are even simple and somewhat cold. But the ground is covered with rich soft felt, and the ink burns in. Half of the feet are immediately immersed in it, and there are some smells of wild beasts in the air. What is incompatible with this breath is the man who is trimming the flower branches by the Xuan window.

He was covered in long black hair, white sleeves, and scarlet buds twitching at his sharp fingers. Perhaps because of the consistent rules of the SF Building, he also wore a navy face mask on his face, and his teeth were violent. Even if such a mask is worn on his face, it is also inexplicably gentle.

He cut off the excess sticks, gathered them in one place and then turned them around.

The smoldering felt that the throat was dry, and the dialogue between the mask man and Chu Yuning made him feel puzzled and vaguely worried. He didn't know what the soul lost. If Chu night would not remember him...

Just thinking like this, the man put a flower cut and walked toward him.

I was not afraid of the burning of the ink, I felt a little flustered, and the vest had a thin sweat.

"Master."

The man stopped and the distance was a little closer. The ink burned and he seemed to laugh.

"What teacher?" He said, "Can the little son admit the wrong person?"

really……

I am afraid of what comes.

There was a bang in the burning heart, and there seemed to be a huge stone in the chest that drove him into the endless abyss. He looked at the man in front of him and didn't know what to say for a while.

When the man saw that he did not respond, he covered the long white hand on the mask and gently picked up the thick and colorful face to reveal the face of Zhang Qingjun.

The smoldering felt that the huge boulders disappeared.

He was surprised, but looked at the man with the mask without any doubt, blurted out: "Chu?"

No wonder the little master downstairs will mistake the portrait. Chu Yu and Chu Xi Ning grew up with eight points similar, but Chu Yu is soft, Chu night Ning cold. But only people who are extremely familiar can distinguish the difference between them.

Such as ink burning.

The man in front of him is the son of Lin’an, who was seen in the illusion of more than two hundred years ago, so he gave his name without thinking.

But the real Chu Yu did not see him, so he was a little surprised and smiled: "...Do you really know me?"

The ink burned and waved: "No, I am looking for the wrong person. But I do know you..." He said, looking at the other side with curiosity, Chu is a person who died a hundred years ago, but now there is no In the past, it was apparent that Jurassic had tasked him and let him take off his reincarnation.

Unexpectedly, I can still see the ancestors of Chu Yuning, and the ink is only very mysterious.

Chu Hao nodded: "It turned out to be like this." And laughed again, "Who is the person that Xiaogongzi is looking for? Since there is a fate on the floor, I will help you find it. Otherwise, Minnan Kexiang, thousands of ghosts, I don't know what time to go to find the horse."

The ink burning original intends to explain two sentences and go downstairs to find someone again. Who knows that Chu is so enthusiastic, did not change the ghost, and was willing to help him personally, could not help but be very happy, said: "That is really too Ok, there is Mr. Lao Chu!"

When he said it, he handed the portrait to Chu Yu.

Chu Yan took a look and smiled: "It is no wonder that the people underneath will make a mistake. It really looks like me. What is his name?"

"Chu night Ning." Ink ignited, "He called Chu Yuning."

"Is it also Chu?? It is a coincidence."

The ink burned in the heart and asked: "Is it a gentleman's relative?"

"It's not good. If you want to see the temperament of the sun, you need to go to the ninth king of the ghost world. I...have life and death with the Nine Kings. I don't want to ask him, the red dust has not been asked again."

What he said was naturally the ghost king who broke the enchantment of Linan and killed his family. Poke to the scab, even if he is such a self-sufficient person, his look is not only awkward.

In this case, the original burning of the ink can confirm the connection between Chu Yuning and Chu Yu, but it was unexpectedly like this. He just shook his head: "It is a pity."

Chu Xiao smiled, did not speak again, went to the museum to take a sheet of gold and yin-yang compass, please burn the seat.

"With this, I can know where he is?"

"Ten eight or nine."

"What is the situation?"

"Some people's soul power will always be a little strange, it is possible to find it." Chu said, "but not common, the young son should not be so unlucky."

Bu settled, the golden needle in the compass pointed to the north, but after a while, turned to the south, then suddenly to the east, and then to the west, and finally turned up and down.

Chu Wei: "..."

The ink burned carefully: "How?"

"Cough." Chu Yu lightly coughed, and his look was awkward. "The little son...is really unlucky."

Ink burning: "..."

In fact, the burning of luck is often not good, you know that it will not be so smooth. He sighed, thanked Chu, and prepared to re-enter the sea and continue to find the whereabouts of Chu.

At this moment, the crazy rotation of the compass suddenly stopped, the pointer pointed in a certain direction, and the twitching seemed to be not so certain. After a while, it pointed to a certain position.

Chu Hao busy calling him: "Little son, you wait."

The ink burned immediately, and at the table, I watched the compass and the pointer swung left and right. It didn't stop, but it pointed out a direction.

Chu Yu frowned: "What is going on..."

"Does this represent a vision?"

"The vision is not, but it is very strange." Chu Yu looked at the compass, his eyebrows deeper and deeper, "I seem to have his figure in both directions?"

The ink burned and stunned.

how is this possible?

Now that the soul of the soul is in the body of Chu Ningning, the soul of the soul is in the soul-collecting light. The rest of the ghost world should have only one soul. How can Chu Xiaoning appear in two places at the same time?

Chu Yudao: "In short, one southeast, one northeast, the younger son is looking for a search. If you look at it, you may be affected by some spells. It is not easy to say."

The ink burned very hearty, thanked Chu Hao, and hurriedly went out to the windy building and ran to the east.

After running for a long time, I suddenly encountered a fork in the road, and the ink burned and stopped.

Southeast or Northeast?

He took the lead light and was in a hurry, but after a while, he looked at the lantern that gathered the soul in his hand, and suddenly there was a vague and strange feeling in his heart.

Following this kind of detached feeling, he walked in a narrow street that was staggered and staggered.

The more you go forward, the more obvious this feeling is.

He even thought that the soul of the late night, in the invisible call, summoned the light of the soul in his hand, or summoned him to go to a place.

The ink burned in front of a two-storey old wooden building.

"Sick Soul Hall."

He looked up and his eyes swept over the huge heavy hang. The plaque was blown out by the sun all day, and the black lacquer had been peeled off. The red embossed text on it was a large piece of color, revealing the mottled wood underneath.

The ink burned and frowned, and my heart was so sad that I felt very uneasy about these three words.

Sick soul... What do you mean?

The failure of Chu's compass is not because of this reason?

He pushed the door open, crossed the high threshold and walked in.

He soon knew the answer.

There are hundreds of beds in the sick soul hall, and there are some unconscious souls lying on them. More than a dozen ghosts with white masks shuttled through them to deliver aura to the sickbed.

The so-called sick soul hall is the medical hall of the ghost world.

The smoldering found the ghost doctor in the middle of the overall situation, and arched his hand, saying: "Doctor, I think..."

The doctor was very busy and quite impatient: "Pick up the second floor and diagnose the left side of the queue."

"What about finding people?"

“Looking for people...?? Looking for people?”

The ink burned the picture to him: "Did the doctor ever see this fairy?"

The ghost medical officer took the picture and smashed it. He looked up and looked at the ink. The black hole was under the hole of the mask. The eyes seemed to have some pity: "Your relatives?"

"Oh, yes."

"He has a terrible soul." The ghost medical officer pointed to the stairs. "Let's lie down in the uppermost compartment of the upstairs. This kind of illness is not good for us, we can only drag and drag, you go find him."

The ink burned: "The soul is damaged? How can it be damaged?"

"Who knows? The six reincarnations are extremely painful. Maybe the soul is damaged when he reincarnation in the previous few times, but he has been practicing the Tao in his life, and he may have gone to the magic to hurt the soul. In short, it is not complete. You Ask me who I ask."

The ink burned anxiously: "So... what harm will the earth's soul affect?"

"Impact?" Ghost medical officer thought for a moment, "It's okay, after all, it's just that one of the three souls is incomplete, and it doesn't affect his reincarnation. What do you really have... probably the next life is short Some, luck is worse, or the body is weaker."

"..." The ink burned, although it was quite unwilling, but it was hard to do anything, but had to thank the ghost medical officer first, then went upstairs.

The top layout is not as compact as the one below, and it is breathless.

Perhaps because the parked are the remnants of the soul museum can not be awake, do not need too much care. Only one medical officer slept quietly in the cane chair in the foyer.

The ink burned did not wake him up, and went straight inside.

In the vast empty space, only ten sheets of 20 sick beds were placed, and a red rosewood window was used to pull a plain screen between each other.

Four silences.

The foot on the floor made a squeaky sound, and the burning gaze fell on the innermost compartment. There was a half-moon arch, and the arch outside was an open-air platform. The thin gauze curtain came in and the breeze swayed.

It is clear that there are more than 20 sick souls here, but there is a strong perception of the eclipse of the ink.

Perhaps the sorcerer's lamp led him all the way forward, and he had no side to her, and went to the innermost one, and went to the pure moonlight.

He raised his hand and opened the curtain.

The last lone soul of Chu Xiaoning was lying there. He closed his eyes and his face was very pale. It was so similar to the body parked in the Frost Heaven Hall.

Rao is finding him, Rao is born again, and seeing such a bloody, cold and thin figure, still can't help but feel pain in his heart, his nose is sour.

He walked over and put the lead light on the bed.

Then I sat down on the bed of the soul of the night, and wanted to gently hold the cold hand of the other party.

But this remnant soul is different from the previous person's soul, perhaps because of the loss of power, his spirit is actually nothing, the ink-burning fingertips can't touch him, then it passes through the emptiness of the soul of the late night. Shadow, fell to the white bed.

Because of this nothingness, the ink burned some bitter and unbearable loss.

If there is a slight difference in the pool, if the master of guilty sin does not appear, if the soul of Chu Yuning is broken more, if the teacher is disheartened, the heavens will not meet each other...

He lowered his body and knew that he couldn't resist Chu's forehead, but he couldn't help it. He shared his voice, as if he wanted to hold the earthly soul, and leaned over the banquet.

"Master."

He overlaps with his dead soul, and the moon shines, regardless of you or me.

The ink burned and sighed, and he sighed with a sigh of relief, but his heart was bitter and heavy.

He has seen the body of Chu Xinning, and has seen the soul of Chu Yuning. Now he has seen the soul of this disease. Every time he sees one, the feelings are different. He squats in front of the corpse, and sin and jealousy almost tears him apart. He repents in front of the human soul, holding hands and pleading for a late night.

And the soul of the earth.

He tried to get together, but he couldn't catch anything. He couldn't touch anything. He suddenly felt a boundless innocence in his heart. He thought that this was the ending he deserved to have.

He is full of grievances and * hands. He can't be with him, can he stay with him?

The ink burns together, and the eyelashes seem to be a little moist, soaking the thin pillow.

I thought that I was too thin to treat him, but now it seems like a joke. It turned out that this was not the case. It turned out that he was very thick, but his heart was too thin to see what was dark.

It is not good for him.

He was shocked that he had gone so far, and he wanted to go back. He wanted to use the rest of his life to make up, and he would use it for the rest of his life. I don’t know if I can do this, but I can’t get back to the original point.

What step immortal, what is the deity of the people.

Don't want it anymore.

He just wants to come here and be a correct person who has always wanted him to do it.

Some people say that knowing the mistake can improve Mo Dawei.

But his fault is too deep.

He didn't know how long it would take to pay back. Maybe on the day of his death, he still couldn't get rid of this endless remorse. After all, the traces drawn in the water can return to calm, and the wounds that are tied into the wood are always three-pointed.

"Master." After a long time, he was immersed in the moonlight, immersed in the soul of Chu’s almost transparent, he said, the voice is like a child, "Go, we go back."

He straightened up and brought up the soul light.

Cursing meditation, the soul of the soul into the light, the thin shadow, quickly sank into the lamp core and disappeared.

The ink burns waiting.

But after waiting for a long while, the local soul and the soul of the soul are completely integrated, and after a long time, there is still no movement.

The burning face was pale and pale.

what happened? !

Isn't it true that after the soul of the earth and the soul of the human being merged, can he return to the world with Chu Xianning?

Isn’t the spell of the master of sinfulness invalid? !

The author has something to say:

Chapter 109

There was a chaos in the brain, and the cockroaches were numb. The ink burned only felt cold in the hands and feet, and hugged the soul of the late night, and went downstairs.

"doctor……"

"Is it you? What happened?"

"You are sure that the one upstairs... is the soul of my master, is there anything wrong?"

Some of the ghosts are intolerant: "Of course, can I still be wrong?"

I was not willing to burn, and asked: "Will it be a soul, or..."

"Or what?" The ghost snorted. "One person has three souls, earth, knowledge, people. I have been here for 150 years. These three souls are unclear." Didn't you let me go back early?"

The ink burned his lips and suddenly gave birth to an uncertain thought.

"Doctor, you have been practicing medicine for 150 years. Have you ever seen a person... There will be two souls?"

"You are sick!" said the man in the anger. "I don't think your brain is good. If you don't stay, let me give you the number!"

Of course, he can't let the ghosts give himself a pulse. Although the master of sinfulness has applied a spell, if he is not careful, he will probably be embarrassed. The ink burns and apologizes, holding the soul and the soul. Lanterns rushed out of the sick hall.

The sky in the ghost world has always been dim, to distinguish the morning faint, only to look up at the sky. If the red cloud is behind a half-temperature and a half-cool sun, it is awkward. If the cold moon is high, it is night.

It was already night, and the road was getting colder.

Ink burning with the soul of the light, head down, walking alone in the street. The more you walk, the more you feel overwhelmed. The more you walk, the more you feel isolated.

This helplessness and sorrow have always been with him when he was very young, which makes him very bad. He even remembered some people who knew him while he was still in the sky. When the drunken building was a big fire, people were dead, only he survived...

Calculating the age, in addition to his mother, other people should not have a reincarnation, he does not know who to go on like this, who may meet.

Then he thought of Xue Meng.

He remembered that Xue Meng was dying to take the light of the soul in his hand. He yelled at him: "God!"

- "How do you match, how do you have a face."

The ink burned the soul lamp, the slower and slower, and finally stopped at the wall, the eyelids could not help but red, and he looked down at the gentle golden light, whispered:

"Master, are you... don't you really want to go back with me?"

The lights didn't answer, but they burned silently.

He stood there for a long time before he gradually calmed down.

This place, he did not know where to find someone he knew, suddenly remembered Chu Yu, as if he had caught the straw, and hurriedly ran to the SF building.

When I ran there, it was just that the SF Building was going to fight. The ghost wearing a mask was about to close the door and lock it. The ink burned and stopped him. He said, "Sorry, please wait!"

"It's you?"

The mask man was the one who led him upstairs. He stumbled and said, "How come you are here?"

"I am in a hurry, I am bothering you..." The ink burned and rushed, panting, his eyes bright and anxious, and he swallowed and hoarse. "I want to see Mr. Chu Hao again."

In the pavilion, Chu Yu was stunned by a sea bream flower inserted in a small white porcelain bottle, and it was very surprised to see that the ink burned and returned.

"How did the little son come back? But can't find anyone?"

Ink burning: "Looking for it, but I... I..."

When Chu Yu saw him in a hurry, he seemed to have a hard time saying that he would enter the house and cover the door. He said, "Sit down and talk."

Because of the fear that the ecstasy lamp is in the hand, the ink will be seen by the Chu, and it will be included in the sac.

He does not think that Chu is a evil spirit, but it is not a last resort to let people live in the land, or let the ghosts here know better.

“Does the little son go southeast?”

"Ok."

"..." Chu Yu said slightly, said, "Is it in the sick hall?"

The ink nodded and thought for a while. "Mr. I saw him in the sick soul hall, but it is an incomplete soul. It will not move, nor will it speak. It is even different from other ghosts. It is translucent. You can't see it, but you can't touch it."

"The soul of the earth is detrimental, and it will be like this." Chu Yu’s look is a bit bleak. "Some of the stunned undead will also be separated, and it will be difficult to reunite."

The ink burned and bite the lip and squinted at the opening: "The medical officer of the Earth Soul Museum said that people who are incompletely insulted will have some weaknesses in their reincarnation. But the person I am looking for...the ones that are clear before the end, so I I wonder if there will be something wrong."

He said here, for a while, looked up at Chu.

"Mr. Chu, will there be someone in this world who has two souls?"

A glimpse of Chu: "Two souls?"

"Ok."

He did not immediately go to the medical hall of the Soul Pavilion to swear by the ink, but he pondered and thought for a moment, saying: "I don't think it is impossible."

The ink burned and jerked up, his eyes brightening in the faint candlelight of the room.

"Mr. seriously?!"

Chu Yushou: "Ordinary people have only three souls and seven scorpions, but I used to be a woman, she has two souls."

"Appreciate further details."

Chu Yu shook his head, the eyelashes fell and shivered. He calmed for a while before he said, "The things that have been going on for a long time, I don't want to mention them again. Now the woman has sunk into the seventh layer of * and suffers from suffering. Those who have a sorrowful soul, once discovered by Jurassic, are sent to the seventh prison and slowly stripped."

Listening to him, the ink burns more heart and the light is dim. He did not find that there was a pain in Chu Yu. He asked: "Why is that woman more than a soul? Three souls and seven scorpions, if someone has more souls, is it necessary to gather the four souls together, then that is useful?"

"It should be."

"The girl that Mr. said..."

"After she died, she was forced to go to the sun because she was used by the Nine Kings." Chu Yu paused, and the slender fingers resting on the knees slowly became a fist. "Going to the sun, eating raw children."

"!" The ink burned up to the old things in Lin'an that I saw in the peach blossom source. Only then did I realize that the "woman" in Chu's mouth was actually his wife, which should be the most painful part of Chu's heart.

Then Chu Yu is now staying in Nanke Township, not going to reincarnation. Isn’t he waiting to send his wife to strip away the extra souls, returning from the seventh floor, reuniting with them, and going to reincarnation?

When the ink burned, I couldn't bear to ask again.

Chu Yu did not say any more, "The raw food of the child of the child" is a short sentence, and after two hundred years, it is also an understatement. Rao is the ghost body, and the throat can not suppress the trembling.

He closed his eyes.

"The woman's soul disorder is torn apart, and it is integrated with the child's soul." After a long time, he slowly said, "So what she got out is actually the child's soul, stuck in her three souls. Between the seven scorpions, slowly assimilated with her, and finally completely derived from her appearance, difficult to separate."

This person will always endure pain and try his best to help others, no matter how many people ask for help after he dies.

It’s even more uncomfortable to see the ink burnt. He’s not good at it. He only said: “Mr. I don’t have to elaborate, I’m already clear.”

"I mean to say these words, I want to tell you, if the Chu Gongzi you are looking for really has two souls, there is one, it is not his."

Insufficient thoughts for a while, asked: "I can't be a soul, divided into two?"

"Possibly, but you can't do this."

"why?"

Chu Yudao: "A soul is divided into two halves. I have seen this kind of thing. That is another story. This kind of person is often guilty of sin and killing people. If the three souls cannot bear it, they will be broken. But In this case, the shattering is the soul of the humanity, and it is impossible to be the soul or the soul."

"...It turned out to be like this."

Hearing sin and sin, killing people like numbness, ink burning feels that he has no relationship with Chu night, but he is himself, he thought, waiting for this life to be really dead, come to the land, will not be split For the second, get the due retribution?

Chu said again: "Not to mention, if it is really a soul, then the other half of the soul can certainly not walk, it will be sent to the sick soul hall. Since the young son only saw a damage in the soul museum The soul of the earth, I think, the other one should be a complete soul, there will be no embarrassment."

The ink burned him so much, and he felt that he was squatting and busy: "Thank you Mr. Chu! Then I... then I will look for it again!"

"Well, only in the direction of the sick soul museum, but also in the direction of the northeast of the disease, Xiaonanzi is better to go to the northeast to see, but Minnan Kexiang, come and go, bustling, are waiting for the death of the soul... ”

Chu Yan sighed.

The ink burned in his gentle eyes, revealing compassion, and he knew what he wanted to say.

In the south of Kexiang, thousands of people are separated from ghosts.

Even if you know that you want to go northeast, it is so easy to find a soul.

If people don't have a chance, they will be brightly lit. They will not pass the night, and the two will pass by, one to the east and one to the west. They will not see each other and look at each other.

It’s easier to talk about silence now.

However, Chu Yu was still gentle after all. He raised his hand and patted the shoulder of the ink-burning shoulder: "The heart of the small son is sincere and will reunite with it."

His appearance is very similar to that of Chu, and when he said this, the tears of the candle flowed and the candle swayed, and his face was even more blurred.

In this ambiguity, the ink burned like a glimpse of the face of Chu’s gentleness when he was gentle, as if he heard Chu’s saying to him, he would meet again.

The ink burned for a while, and the eyelids were covered with a layer of moisturizing water vapor.

He was busy bowing his head and muttering, "Mr. Thank you."

Chu Yu did not make a sound, until the ink turned and left, and covered the door for him, he was still standing in the same place, the bottom of the phoenix flashed a trace of gloom.

He... just saw the boy’s eyes... seems to have tears?

The ghost is not going to cry, is he wrong? still is……

He looked back and looked at the bunch of quietly blooming Begonia flowers in the vase. It was extremely difficult to press the * of the mortal flowers. Even though he was carefully cared for, he still floated a petal and landed on the ancient wooden case.

Chu Yu walked over and picked up the fragrant Philippine. The leaves quickly shattered, and they fell into mud, which was crushed into powder and scattered from his fingertips.

"Come on."

"Mr. Chu." Immediately, a masked person pushed the door in and stood on the side.

Chu Yu did not look back. He looked at the sea bream and asked softly: "Is that person, have you recently come to SF Building?"

"No, it's still the same, once in ten days, with a sea bream flower. He didn't dare to enter the SF building, he was only sent from far away."

"..."

"Sir, what's wrong? Is there something wrong with the son who came to the party? If the person dares to send someone to disturb Mr., Mr. can go to Jurassic..."

"No." Chu Yu returned to God, interrupted his words, turned his head and smiled a little, and sighed. "Nothing, he should not be sent by that person, even if that child only Looking for someone is not related to me."

"But if he is sent to the ghost world, why should he--"

"Sin is not tiring with others." Chu Yu is like a snow, standing quietly on the branches of flowers, "Go by him."

The streets were clear, and the ink burned out of the SF Building. He went northeast. He took the portrait of Chu Yuning and asked him from house to house, but he couldn’t ask why.

Most of those who saw the portraits waved their hands, and even some of them didn’t want to be jealous, they avoided him.

"This portrait is this person? I have never seen it."

"I have never seen it before, don't bother me to do business."

"Don't stop! I'm sick! I didn't see it so late! Get out and get out! What portrait? Don't want to see it! Take it and take it away!"

Although Nanke Township is a ghost, these ghosts have never been broken, and they have lived together, and most of them have gradually returned to the human world. They will also find some friends and relatives during the long wait in this decade and eight years. If you don't want to raise a dead cat, you will be alive. Therefore, although they do not need to sleep, they will lie back on the bed when they are on the willow.

As night falls, no one is willing to take care of him, and no one can give him a message, a clear road.

On the long and endless streets in the northeast, he visited the house by door, and bowed his head, losing his smile...

"I said it!! I got it wrong! I thought about it for a moment and didn't seem to paint this person at all. Can you not bother!"

This bearded man is ready to rest with the wife and children of the ghost world.

He had come back from the outside and met him on the street. He asked if he had seen the person on the portrait. He thought for a while and said that he had seen it near the east market a few days ago, but his wife gave it. He gave a wink, and he immediately stopped his mouth, as if he realized something, immediately waved his hand and said no.

Mo-burning felt that he was clear, so he was unwilling to give up, asking him all the way and coming to the door with him.

The man violently put him outside the door, pulling the wooden bolt, and the ink burned anxiously: "Can you think about it again? Where is the East Market? The person who painted, where did you go later? Please, please..."

"I do not know!"

A group of ghosts around heard the noise, looked at it here, and the man roared with a thick scorpion, and regardless of the burning hand, he was still on the door frame, violently closing the door.

The five fingers were caught by the sputum, and the heart of the heart was broken. But he couldn’t help it, he only stayed dead, and he didn’t want to pull his fingers out of the gradually sloping door, but tried to push it again, then go to it.

"Excuse me, please think about it again, I just want to know where he went after..."

However, the man opened the door violently, did not notice that the fingers of the burning fingers were pinched out of the blood, and pushed the people heavily, and then shouted: "I don't know if I don't know, I don't know! Roll!"

Chapter 110

The ink burned alone on the street, there are still ghosts on the road, fluttering, and sorrowful resentment. At the foot of the bluestone steps, I gave birth to some lonely green scorpions, stepping on the soles of the feet and getting wet and slippery...

After fierce disputes, calm down, only to find that the fingers have been worn out, the door frame is made rough, a lot of burrs, tied in the flesh and blood, a blur, fortunately, the surrounding is dim, not detected by ghosts.

He looked at his eyelashes silently for a while, probably because his heart was uncomfortable, so he didn't feel pain.

He looked back at the closed courtyard door and knew that the man behind the door would not say a word to him again.

This kind of rejection, he is actually no stranger. Ink burning is a person who is accustomed to malice, which allows him to know whether his request is useful from one other's eyes and two or three words.

In fact, when a man changed his mouth and said to him that he had "not seen", the ink burned instinctively understood that this person would not tell me even half of the truth, but it was only about the soul of the night, so he did not Be willing to be pushed out of the door until the door is closed.

He has not been so rudely rejected for a long time, but sometimes, the length of time can not determine what, when the machine can not change the fundamentals, some things are engraved into the skeleton.

Xue Meng once scolded him and planted it.

It’s funny to say that the two toxic words of the arrogant son of the sky do not hurt his self-esteem.

Yes, he was originally a kind of cockroach among the people. He was more irritated than this, and he was not used to it.

He finally looked back at the tight wooden door and slowly walked away from the ghostly eating and laughing.

Laughing, humming, standing, and hanging.

It’s rare that it’s such a helpless scene, and it’s overlapped with the childhood memories of the middle-aged, and the old-fashioned memories of the middle ages. The ink burns and walks. It’s because the situation is too much, so he can’t help but slowly think of himself and his mother. The days that depend on each other...

During those days, they were still not in the music house, but they were on the streets of Linyi, and they were near the Confucianism Gate.

During that time, he had at least a mother.

The mother loves him and is unwilling to let such a small child go out for food. He always settles him in the abandoned wood house and goes to the streets to sell art and sing.

She has a good foundation. With a bamboo pole, she can do the dance on the squat. Every day, she can always earn some copper plates, buy a cake, two bowls of porridge, and the mother and the son are divided. The mother-in-law always wants to let the children eat more, but the ink burns always bite a few mouthfuls and says that the cake is too hard, the porridge has no taste, and the stomach is filled, and refuses to eat.

But she didn't know, in fact, every time she sighed and ate the half-cake and half bowl of porridge that burned the "leftover", the young child who curled up next to her sleep would squint at her. Seeing that she was full after eating, he finally felt relieved, even if he was hungry, his heart was stable.

She did not know, in fact, every day she left, after going to Linyi East City to sell art, her children would climb out of the firewood pile and secretly go to the place where they were separated by two streets.

The mother sang in the street, singing ten feet high, and the thin body was on her head. The following is covered with gravel and porcelain. If it falls accidentally, these tiles will be tied to her flesh and blood, but the people who see it feel stimulated and feel fresh. She used a commandment and tried her best to win a smile that was too wide and too wide.

On the two-street fare, her children begged along the street, grinning in front of each household, grinning face, saying auspicious words, want to discuss something to eat. But there is no, not often.

One day, a rich family and a younger grandmother were pregnant, boring, and in a bad mood, they strolled on the street and saw the mother of the burning flame dancing.

She felt interesting. After a while, let the followers say to the woman who danced: "There are some gravel on the ground, broken porcelain, which is actually a look, not sincere. My wife Say, if you are willing to replace these broken stone and porcelain into knives, erect on the ground, and then you jump again, my wife will reward you with twelve gold."

Faced with such harshness, it is almost a request for the lives of the poor.

The mother’s reaction was just saying: "But I don't have money, I can't afford a knife to shop."

Mrs. Fu Jia laughed happily, and immediately ordered people to go to the iron shop to buy a hundred sharp knives, standing on the ground.

"Jump."

The jeweled woman caressed her own belly and said with great interest.

Soon after, a group of people watched the hustle and bustle of the hustle and bustle. The brilliance of silk and pearls blazed in the sunlight. They smelled the * smell like the corpse of the corpse, so they stretched their necks and their eyes were shining.

"Jump, jump."

"It’s good to jump and reward you."

"Give money, give money."

The land of the Confucianism Gate, the most indispensable is the rich, the most lacking, is the stimulation and excitement of such a life.

Those silk satin, gold and silver beads surround, will be surrounded by mothers holding bamboo poles. Surrounded by this impoverished, ragged woman.

The woman who was like a mustard, she smiled like this, and made a blessing to the succulent scorpions, thanked them for their support, and then, with the poles, the swallows generally leaped lightly.

On the tip of the knife, use your life to make a song and dance.

Use your life to please you.

However, although she had a good time, when she landed, she looked down at the row of knives and looked amazed. So the bamboo poles were a few inches away, and as the crowd exclaimed, she fell –

I avoided the blade and the secret, but still rubbed the edge, scratched the leg, and the blood splashed in an instant, causing a lot of exclamation.

The woman refused to take pain, and she stood up in a hurry, lost her smile and bowed her head.

Those who watched the excitement laughed: "The woman’s hard work is not at home, and she needs to work harder."

"Yeah, come out to eat and eat, there must be two brushes, the ability of the three-legged cat will be a good thing."

There are a few people who are kind, with tears in their eyes, and they can't bear it: "Hey, let's not say it, look at this, this poor girl, hurt so badly, go to the medicine shop and get some medicine, put it on."

The woman shouted: "I don't have... no money to buy medicine..."

Those people sighed, some sighed, and some raised their hands and touched their own bead, but did not speak, and some wiped their eyes, it seems to be a lot of feelings.

"It's pitiful."

"Yeah yeah."

"Look at your life so sad, I will give you some money." A old woman with a big belly said, she found her own bulging purse, took out a golden leaf from it, pinched it in her hand, and then continued to the purse. Underneath, I took out three copper plates, smashed them in my hands, put them back in two, and solemnly placed a copper plate in the hands of women.

The old woman gave her money, and she uttered two lines of tears in a proper way. She said with all mercy: "Girl, this is what you deserve, and it will be collected soon."

The woman took a copper plate that she had exchanged for her life and muttered: "Thank you..."

Thank you...

And the one who said that she would give her ten gold? Already roaring away.

The woman with * legs and legs squatted and tried to catch up and ask her for money, but she was pushed down by the accompanying ones she was carrying, and the sound of her voice could be heard across a street.

"It’s awkward!"

"When the wife wants to have a baby, how can she see the * disaster, so that the master can hear it, can't feel bad?"

"You are still very embarrassed to ask for money. What is the thing you jumped? It is also because your blood has not splashed on your wife, otherwise - you can't eat it!"

"roll!"

The woman was pushed to the ground, because that family was a big copy of Linyi, and no one was willing to give her a head. Her pain twitched on the ground, and the mean ants squirmed.

No one wants to help her...

No one wants to help again...

She danced her life and exchanged only a cold, stinky copper plate.

The good woman who gave her the copper plate said that this is what she deserves.

She is not wronged for herself, but today she only earns a copper plate. What can I buy? I can only change to a cake without stuffing. I can't afford to eat more bowls of porridge. I can't afford to dance with my legs. I can't dance tomorrow. What should her child do? He is still so small, so thin, he has to Hungry...

When she thought of it, she couldn't stand it anymore. She screamed and screamed in the mud, her voice sneered and hoarse, and listened to people who couldn't bear to listen. The people around me sighed and they were all ready to disperse.

At this time, the crowd suddenly rushed over to a dirty, scented child.

The ink burned over and cried like a sleepy animal: "A Niang! A Niang!!"

He hugged her.

Despicable child, hug the despicable mother.

Like the ants cuddling the grass mustard, the dog hugged the duckweed.

The woman saw him, his eyes flashed with horror and surprise, the woman was weak, and the mother was just, she didn’t cry anymore, the days were too hard, she slept like * in the day, woke up in purgatory, She did not want to show a weak and helpless appearance in front of her children.

The tears on her face were not dry, but she hurriedly made a smile and said, "Oh, look at you, how come you? Auntie is fine, a little bit hurt... you see..."

She gave him the sweaty copper plate in his heart.

The ink couldn't help but shook his head, and the small face was washed out of the watermark.

"Enough you buy a cake, go... you buy it, A Niang is waiting for you here, let's go home."

Family?

Where is the home?

That run-down firewood house?

Still a sheepfold that was driven out after two days of sleep...

The ink burned and swallowed, and there was a hot flash in his eyes. He said, "A mother, you are sitting, you are waiting."

"What are you going to do - don't mess around -"

The ink burned to the side, picked up the knife, and the tender voice shouted loudly and loudly, attracting everyone who was about to disperse.

"Everyone, my uncle, Miss Gongzi, please don't leave! Please don't go! There is also a unique skill. Please ask your nobles to appreciate your face and take a look -"

He has aura from his childhood. Although he has never practiced, he is much stronger than ordinary people who are not qualified.

The ink burned the strong and sharp blade in his hand, and his hands were strong. With a low drink, he folded the knife in half and threw it on the ground.

The people around him were shocked. Some monks in the onlookers felt strange.

"This kid can be."

"One more!"

The ink burned, and this time I took two of them. It was also done in the same way, and the two blades were cut off together.

"Good!!" Someone applauded.

"Three!"

The children are stacked one by one, the blade is getting thicker and thicker, and it is more and more difficult to break, so the crowd is full of fun.

"Let you, my uncle, my sister, give me a reward, and I will go up."

Those who want to watch the fun, throw the least valuable copper plate to the ground in front of him.

The ink burns for these copper plates, adding a knife with one handle and another handle. At the end, the blood is full and can't be folded anymore. The rotted scorpions smashed the black lacquered wings and dispersed them.

The ink burned all the money, and carefully held it with dirty hands, and walked to the mother with tears.

He smiled: "A mother, enough to buy medicine for you."

The tears of the woman can no longer be restrained, rolling down: "Children... Good boy... Let A-Nan look at your hand..."

"I'm fine..." His smile was brilliant, pure, and it hurt her heart.

She held him in her arms and groaned: "It is Auntie who has no ability to take care of you... so that you are so small, you will suffer and suffer..."

"It doesn't matter." In the mother's arms, quietly said, "Auntie, with you, I don't feel bitter... I will accompany Auntie well, and when I grow up, let A Mother has a good life."

The woman smiled and wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes: "It doesn't matter if you have a good life. As long as you grow up in Ankang, that's fine... enough."

The ink burned his nod and suddenly said softly: "Auntie, if I have a future, you will no longer have to be wronged. No one can bully you. Only those people, I have to let them come. Apologize to each other one by one, if they refuse, I will let them dance on the knife, I..."

"Stupid child, don't think so." This kind and gentle woman touched his hair and murmured, "Don't think so, don't hate anyone, Auntie wants you to be a good boy, promise A Mother, be a good person, okay?"

At that time, the ink burned too small, like a seedling of young and young, with only a little bit of external force, he would pour in that direction. His literary knowledge was not deep, but the mother of the heart was his first lighthouse, so the little ink burned at that time, ignorantly thought for a while, and finally said seriously: "Good."

He said: "Aunt, I promise you."

"That, then, if later, I... I can make some money, I will make a lot of houses, I will live for those who have no family, and I will plant a lot of food, and I will eat it for those who have no food..." He said to his mother, "A mother, then there will be no more people, like we are today."

The woman came out of the meeting, and finally she sighed and said, "That's good."

The child also nodded and said, "That's good."

They didn't think of it at that time, the people who said such words, in the end will be full of blood, stepping on the bones of the earth, walking in the hurricane of the black crows hovering in the sky, becoming the emperor of the evil.

There is very little, and even will not be willing to go back to this past event, he will never go to the mother’s arms, use the tender voice, clear eyes, and seriously Promise of.

At that time, the ink burned because of the mother's persuasion, even if it was hard to live, there was never hatred, but how much, there will always be some unwillingness.

The days are still so day by day, juggling and selling, watching once is lively, watching twice is boring, the third time, it is tired. They gradually couldn't get a copper plate, and they could only rely on begging for a living.

I remember that there is a rich and sturdy child who is about the same age as him. There is a huge black scorpion in the corner of his mouth. The child is sitting at the door of the courtyard, holding a bowl in his hand. It is about chopsticks, so it is not good. Take the golden crispy fried dumplings inside. The child is very picky, picking up the dumpling stuffing inside, then spitting out the skin and throwing it on the floor to play with the dog.

He walked carefully and stood by and looked.

The child was stunned by the stench and dirt of his body and shouted: "Who?!"

The ink burned and asked him gently: "Little son, this dumpling skin... can you give me?"

"Give you? Why should I give it to you?"

"You...you don't eat, so I want to ask..."

"I don't eat, we have to eat in the family." The child pointed to the two furs on the ground, a fat dog, and screamed, "Does the dogs live, how can you give it?!"

The ink burned as much as possible and sold a smile, saying: "If the dog can't eat..."

"How can I not eat it! They don't have enough braised pork every day, just dumplings, and the two are gone, without your share, walk around."

The ink burned the braised pork, and the eyes fell on the two dogs. Suddenly, the dog that felt so fat, if it was cooked and eaten, it must...

He couldn't help but lick his mouth at the two dogs.

This move fell into the eyes of the child. The child was first stunned and then shocked: "What is your idea?"

"I don't have... I just..."

"Do you want to eat Wangcai and Wangfu?"

The ink burned and said: "No, no, I am just too hungry, can't help but think about it, sorry..."

Where did the little son tell him what he said, and when he heard "can't help but think about it," he changed his face.

How can a child of such a wealthy family understand that someone will be watching a cute puppy at the door, can you think of food? He was so upset that he only screamed and shouted when he felt that the person in front of him was perverted and terrible.

"Come on! Come on! Get him away!"

The servant gathered around and couldn’t help but say that he would burn his fists and kicks. He tried to grab a few pieces of fried dumplings on the ground in those hands that were not light and heavy, and held them in his hands, letting others kick and catch. Also did not loosen.

Xiaogongzi is astonished, and the rest of the dumplings in his hands are not needed. They are thrown together on the floor with bamboo sticks and then run away.

The ink burned and climbed hard. The thin body was beaten purple, and one eye was kicked. The pain could not be opened, but when he reached out and grabbed the remaining dumplings, he smiled happily. .

There are two left.

It is wrapped in stuff...

Eat oneself, one to the mother...

Or both of them give birth to a mother, and it’s good to eat dumplings...

However, he had no time to take the dumplings. In the chaos, there was a foot of the family, and the dumplings on his bamboo sticks were crushed. The meringue was broken and the meat was melted into mud.

He was holding the dirty and broken sign, and the rain-like fist fell on him. He didn't feel pain, but when he looked at the dumplings, he couldn't eat it. His tears flowed down from the swelling. In the eyelids, I found the dirty face that could not see the facial features.

He just wants to eat some other children to eat the rest, what you don't want.

Why waste it, break it, become mud, and can't belong to him.

Later, the ink burned into the son of a dead child. Many people in the martial art greeted him and pursued him. Even at the birthday, there were people who couldn’t talk a few words to give gifts and congratulations.

The children who once smashed the dumplings on the ground finally harvested the heavy praise and beauty. Before he stood in front of a bunch of carefully selected gifts, he gave birth to a vague fear.

He is afraid that these gifts will soon disappear, fearing that they will be smashed. I am afraid that I will not be able to fly a disaster. Everything in front of me will be the same as the dumplings I held in my hand. Stepped on the rotten. So he quickly used all the things in that pile of things, and they could eat them. They couldn’t eat them. They couldn’t eat them. He dug a small dark room in the disciple’s room and put those beautiful The gifts are carefully hidden, counted once a day, and counted again.

Xue Meng also pointed at him at that time and laughed at him. He laughed at him and said, "Ha ha ha, but a box of Linan Qingfengge snack shop is just a waste of food. If you waste it, you will be wasted. You are jealous, just like a hungry ghost. If you have a meal, you will be in your stomach. Who will grab it with you?"

At that time, he had just come to the bottom of his life. In fact, there was a great uneasiness in his heart.

So in the face of the cousin's ridicule, he just licked his mouth, licked the corners of his mouth, and then buried his head to continue to take another box of cakes to eat.

Xue Meng was very surprised: "Do you have a big appetite, don't you support it?"

He only cares about eating.

"...I don’t want to eat if I can’t eat it. I can get a lot of cakes every year, and I can eat a lot of cakes...”

The smoldering cheeks were bulging, and he ate too fast. In fact, some of them were stunned. The dark, dark eyes looked at the opposite teenager.

At that moment, he suddenly thought of the little son he had met when he was young. He could be unscrupulously picky, eat the stuffing of fried dumplings, and take the skin to feed the dog.

Xue Meng is also growing up like this, so you can understate the words "I can't eat it and throw it away" "No one is robbing you."

He is real, really, really envious of them.

Nowadays, he has finally become a famous son who can be a jade food, and he should be comfortable and squandered.

But he didn't dare.

What he did last was just grabbing the water cup next to him, snoring and drinking a few mouthfuls of water, swallowing the sipping snack into his stomach and continuing to hold on.

Later, he became the emperor.

The four wilderness of Shenzhou is his bag.

At that time, beauty, wine, food, gold and silver beads, Hua Cui treasures, there will be people from all over the world, and they will be sent to him.

One day, Linyi came to a copper mine giant, saying that when he was digging, he got a very rare Wannian Xuanyu, which was presented to the Emperor.

There are so many ordinary people who hold treasures to seek an official and a half-rank, or ask for a shade, and there is nothing to be interested in.

But that day, it happened that I was sick and late, cold syndrome. The ink burns and frowns, thinking that the fire Xuanyu is the best to dispel the cold, it is better to save the sick scorpion as soon as possible, save the day lying in bed, look at the suffocating eyes... So the ghost is so bad, met The rich businessman who came to send treasures.

The businessman was almost the same age as him, and he was born with a little fat, and there was a huge black scorpion under his mouth and hair.

The ink burned on the throne of the Wushan Temple. The long hands overlapped, and the fingertips pointed to the chin. He glared at him silently, and looked at the fat businessman with his legs and feet soft and sweaty vest.

After a while, my lips twitched, my lips shook, and I suddenly slammed down and slammed my head, screaming: "The emperor squats, the small people... the small people..."

He was a small man for a long time, but he didn’t know what to say. The fat body was swaying under the shirt made of gold thread.

The ink burned and suddenly laughed.

Even if he has only one side to this person, he will not forget.

In the glory of the rich mansion that year, the child with a black skull in his mouth, with a kind of ink, thought that he could not have the luxury of his life, eating the golden dumplings that the bamboo sticks were poked. Oily mouth, oily meringue.

He smiled and said: "Do you know that your family's fried dumplings are especially delicious."

Although he did not taste it at all, he missed his life.

The ink burned on the throne, and looked at the man from the horror to the horror, from the horror to the stunned, and from the stunned to the flattering, and sighed in the mouth to please himself, saying that he would immediately bring his own chef to death. After that, donate to the emperor.

At that moment, the ink burned more clearly than ever before, and there were many people in the world who would rather go to the sturdy uppers and refuse to bow their heads to give the weak a little pity and goodwill.

The ink swayed and shook his head, trying to get rid of these past events in his mind.

In fact, he has rarely returned to recall these things in the past. It is his weakness. He does not want to want it again.

However, the door-to-door inquiry asked that the situation in which the door-to-house was rejected was as it was in the past, and the shackles in the depths of the mind were untied, and he was temporarily buried in the dark past.

He stayed a little for a while.

He thought that when he was young, he had promised his mother, "I will not remember to hate", and promised her, "And you have a lot of people in the world, and you are all in the world."

He did not do it.

In the end, the world was killed, and the last person who was good to him killed Chu Lingning and killed his master.

Chu nightning...

When I think of him, the bottom of my heart is a pain. He subconsciously touches the thin paper that depicts the night of Ning Xiao. The paper was a little wrinkled. He licked his lips and raised his hand silently. He wanted to smooth the paper, but when the hand touched it, the blood stuck to the top.

He almost immediately took his hand, fearing that the portrait would be dirty and would not dare to touch it again.

From Fifth Street to Third Street, he continued to be unwilling to ask one by one, but those ghosts said "I have never seen such a man in the portrait."

He walked alone in the endless night, the night was so thick, so long, as if he tried to walk hard, and he could never go to dawn. The ink burned finally got a little tired. He didn't drip in the water, and the grain didn't eat. It was really unsupportable. When I was rushed to see the mouth of the tooth, there was a Wonton stall. When someone was selling it late at night, he went to buy a bowl, and the monks did not pay attention to sneak into the stomach.

The food in the ghost world is cold, and even the swallow does not take the heat.

The ink burns out the sacred light, takes a spoon, and sends it to the ecstasy lamp: "Do you eat or not?"

Of course, the Master will not respond.

When you burn yourself, you eat it and eat it: "But you always don't like wonton, you love sweet. Go back and find you, let's go back, I will make you a pastry every day."

In the silent night, a person sitting in front of the lonely nightingale stall with a lamp, the evening wind and sand, occasionally a few pieces of dead leaves chasing and passing, the land is actually very peaceful at this time.

"Peach blossom cake, sweet-scented osmanthus sugar, walnut cake, cloud cake cake..." He is the same as the soul lamp, as if Chu heard it, he will be willing to take care of him, count for a while, ink burns, "Master, your other soul, where is it?"

The young slender hand stretched out and gently touched the silk surface of the soul-lighting lamp. Just like when he was thirty years old, Chu night was rather dead. He hugged the body in his arms, and he was embarrassed. He said, "Chu Ning, I hate you," but bowed his head and kissed his face.

"Wa, have you been here?"

Suddenly, a broken cockroach sounded. The old man who sells the old man is dizzy, groping and sitting next to him, he should be dead at the end of his life, and a dark face like the poplar wood in the desert is dry and shrinking. He took a cigarette from his shroud and bit it in his mouth. Then he took the old-fashioned kindness and affair with the old man and chatted with him.

The ink burned and sucked the nose, and smiled back: "Well, the first day."

"Yeah, you are very angry. Ask, how do you leave at a young age?"

"Get out of the fire."

"Oh..." The old man was licking the smoke without fire. "It’s a fairy."

"Yeah." The ink nodded and looked at him. He didn't have much hope, but he still took out the picture in his arms and said, "Old man, I want to find someone, this is my master, and it is not long ago. I don't know if you have seen him?"

The old man took the picture, squatting under the lamp, licking the eyes of the haze, and slowly looked at it for a long time.

The ink sighed and tried to take back the painting: "Nothing, I asked a lot of people, you don't know it doesn't matter, anyway, everyone is like this..."

"I have seen him."

"!" The ink was shocked, and the blood rushed almost instantly, and he was busy pulling him. "Old man, have you seen him?!? You, are you not mistaken?"

"No mistakes." The old man sat on the bench cross-legged and slammed his feet. "Looking like this, I can’t see a few in a year. I can’t run, it’s your master.”

The ink burned up and stood up. He felt awkward and bowed to the old man. He looked up and said: "The old man pointed me."

"Oh, little dolls don't have to be so polite. Everyone made a ghost, and they have to go to reincarnation in a blink of an eye. The memories that can last in life can be left for only ten or eight years. The old man’s son went early, seeing your dolls are distressed. "He wiped his tears and licked his nose with his sleeves. This is the way: "The first street in front, the special style palace, have you seen it?"

"See you, where is the master?"

"Yes, it is there."

"What is that place?"

"It is the fourth house of the fourth ghost king." The old man sighed. "The four ghost kings do not live here, but they deliberately let their men repair a palace in Nanke Township. Nothing else, just to collect the beauty of the Yin Cao government. They are under house arrest. The four kings are sexually kinky. After a while, he will come to the palace to pick the acolytes, and men and women will not be jealous. The selected ones will be taken directly to the fourth floor of Hell. If they are not selected, they are said to be rewarded for their hands. Hey, you said this world-"

When he didn't finish his words, he saw that Xiaoxianjun, who was next to him, was holding the lantern next to him, like a wolf dog.

The old man stunned, and then he was envious. He whispered slowly: "Young is good, running really fast..."

Chapter 111

There is only one entrance to the Four Ghost Palace, and there are guards outside. Ink burning naturally will not be stupid to go to the main entrance, he plundered the beam, and worried that the light of the sacred light would attract unnecessary attention, so the lights were hidden in the sacs of the shackles, flying over the top of the criss-cross roof tiles The figure is as fast as a black lightning.

This palace looks very grand from the outside, and it is a corridor of the courtyard, overlapping. The ink burned and flew to the top of a tower, gently squatting down, blending with the ochre bricks. He looked up and looked down. The whole palace was like a small town, but it was hard to see.

In the burning heart, there is infinite anxiety.

He finally knows why the former man refused to tell his master the place to go, and he was afraid to offend the ghost king. But at this moment, although he knows that Chu is rather in this palace, he still has nothing to do -

There are no more than one thousand and nine hundred in the palace here. Where is the night of Nanjing?

He seems to be a person who is about to find a treasure, and his heart and hands are more tremble than the first time.

Master respect...

where are you?

Thinking about it, I suddenly saw a group of people carrying a red wind lamp at the corner, kicking and kicking. They are all dressed in golden armor and boots. One of them took a trip from the East Gate to the main trail, and after a bend and a turn, he came to a room that was not eye-catching.

There was a towering old man in the partial chamber, which just covered the sight of the ink burning. He could only see half of the courtyard, and half of it was hidden behind the prosperous foliage.

The sinister soldiers entered the inside, first came a table and chairs ping pong, screaming and drinking, messing up. Suddenly, a screaming screaming through the sky, a woman with a sloppy head was thrown into the yard, her robes were half-open, and most of them fell in the rough push of the sinister, revealing the snowy skin.

"Let you escape! I let you * escape!"

The whip is sucked on the woman. It should be the torture tool of the ghost world. Even the ghosts will be so painful that they will die and die.

The woman crawled on the ground and shook. She seemed to want to run, but there were officers and soldiers everywhere. She had no place to go.

"Smelly girl, into the four royal palaces, you still want to go out?"

"I am clear when I am alive! I am not guilty! Why are you doing this to me!" The woman screamed. "Let me go out, I am going to reincarnation, I don't want to stay here!!"

It was another whip, and she screamed again and again.

"Serving the four kings can avoid suffering from reincarnation! You can really shame your face!"

"He didn't miss me! Why can't I go? I-----"

Another whip greeted her face, and the woman burst into tears, but she still wanted to climb outside.

Her beastly sleep seems to be more pleasing to the sinister soldiers of the four kings, and the men are laughing. The "tributes" in the indoors were smashed one after another.

The sinister soldier who led the head: "The hard work of all of you is the same. The four kings in this yard are all left and left. I know that you are uncomfortable on weekdays, picking up some favorite ones to play with. I want to have a special favorite, come to me. Register here and bring back to your home."

The * ghosts under the four kings screamed and smiled arrogantly, picking up the very beautiful things in the room. The woman outside was naturally not spared. She was surrounded by several people under the tree. The hungry wolf generally rushed to her, as if she wanted to chew her soul.

There was a wave of breathing in the room, some people were crying, some were calling, and some were begging for mercy.

Some people really can't stand the torture like this. If they want to be free, they will open up the soul to go to the music and welcome it. The ugliness of all beings, whether in * or in the world, is the same.

The ink burned lightly from the tower, and dive to the roof of the temple through the night. His heart said, according to the old man's statement, Chu night Ning just came, should not have been chosen by the ghost king, and will not be here, but still a little worried, then open a small half of the tile, quietly looking down.

The desires in the house are steaming Xia Wei, and there is a mess in the image. He sees a person's face.

Rong Jiu.

He was quite fond of the past life, but he counted him through his favor, and he wanted to take the little sister he had cultivated.

He is the most intelligent, and knows how to die.

Many people in this house are struggling and are unwilling to get along. Some dead people are in the confusion of chaos, and the mouth also calls the name of Yang Shi’s own lover, while others are taking care of the famous festival and constantly resent. But Rong Ji is different. The ink burns this person clearly. He loves money and loves life. Of course, he can live without love after he dies, but he also cherishes his own soul and does not want to be abused again.

On the messy and spacious bed, the unsuccessful "tributes" around him were almost screaming, struggling, but he stared at him, letting the man gallop, the soft call in the mouth and the cat were generally soft.

The ink burned his face full of spring tide, and he couldn't help himself from the bottom of his heart.

He thought of the late night of Chu.

Rong Jiu is around the finger, and the night is rather a hundred steel.

At first glance, as if the black iron is generally chilly, no one can destroy him. However, under such circumstances, Rong Jiu will be pleased, will meet, will be willing to lean down and use his softness to build an indestructible battle for himself.

Can Chu be late?

I don’t have to think about it, I can know what the person will be, I would rather be a ghost, and would rather fall into the 18th floor of hell. Who can move him?

The running water never breaks, only the steel knife is folded.

"boom!"

The end is a shock, so that people in the house and people on the roof are in vain.

The ink burned his face and looked white.

The raging woman was stabbed in the chest by the sinister, her soul gradually became transparent, and tears flowed down her eyes.

Then, the need to smear.

Suddenly scattered into a little dust.

The soul flies.

The sinister cursed who ruined her soul stood up and had a whip mark on his face. He thought that the woman had just taken his town's soul whip and took it on him. The insidious soldier said: "It’s really his mother’s, suffocating! I’ve done ghosts, I still can’t think of it, oh! Smelly old ladies!”

The ink burns like an ice cave.

He felt that he was not the woman who had never met before. He seemed to see the choice that Chu will rather make.

Rong Jiu is still bumping down with the * ghosts. This is the unique life of his survival.

The tributes in the house gradually began to succumb, and the scent of the smog was so tight that the throat was tight and he was vomiting.

I don't know how long it took, a slap in the face of a big show.

Rong Jiuguo really taught people to reluctantly. When officers and men put on their clothes, they went to the head to register. When the four kings passed their eyes, they could take people back to their homes.

These people are the ghosts of the four kings. They are not in the reincarnation. It is better to follow them than the four kings, but they are always a place to avoid humiliation and to live comfortably.

Rong Jiu is very lame for this.

The sinister who was going to take him back and laughed at him again. It was not early, but he had to change his post, so he left. The demon in the line gradually went far, and the hall was clear and messy. It was like a feast, and the residual wine and human feelings were spilled on the ground, slowly and coolly.

He sat up lazily, being a man, but it was the most calm of these people.

After finishing the dressing, I looked at the bronze mirror and felt that my face was stunned after death. It was not as white as alive, not lining his eyebrows.

So Rong Ji ignored those women who were sobbing, in a daze, and shivering, and he happily put together the dress, put on the silk, and went to the yard.

In the hell, the rouge is also opened, even more brilliant than the mortal. He folded a string of fine fingertips with a flower juice, smudged at the tip of his lips, and wiped it off.

Everyone cares about something different. He is hard to come when he is born. In his opinion, the so-called friendship is something that can only be pursued by the expensive people who are full of food. He is the kind of dirty soil in the earth. He can't care what kind of ritual and shame. He only has his own life in his arms. If his life is gone, he will take his own soul.

Suddenly there was a slight squeak behind him, and it seemed that someone had encountered the mosaic.

He thought that he was going to return with the official who was happy with him, so he donated the spring love in his eyes, and it was all expensive. Only spring did not want money.

He suddenly looked back, and the end is the genius of the wind, the male and female.

Just when you know the people standing in the cold of the flowers, Rong Jiu suddenly stepped back, the scorpion is big, the lips are light, and it seems to have been thundered.

"It's you?!"

"It's me."

Rong Jiu, a soft face, changed his attitude, surprised, hesitant, gloating, angry, jealous, pretentious relaxation.

Finally set in a cold and cold look.

He is used to smiling people, the kind of arrogance that is too arrogant, wearing on his face is too heavy, he does not want to be too out.

"How did the ink son come?" The last time they met was very unpleasant. Rongji stood up straight and looked very indifferent.

Ink burning: "Looking for people."

Rong Ji seems to have snorted: "I can't think of the likes of Mo Gongzi. I can't put it in the ghost world."

Mo-burn does not want to talk too much to him, take out the picture and hand it to Rong Jiu: "Have you seen him?"

Rong Jiuyan looked at Mei Xing, glanced at him, and sneered: "But it’s so beautiful, who is the nephew?"

The ink burned and frowned: "Whatever you don't want, you said you have seen him."

"No." Rong Ji faintly said, "I don't want to tell you."

"..."

"I am lacking, go back to rest. Where does the ink son go to go, don't send it."

The ink burned and shouted at him: "Rong Jiu!"

The slender figure was paused, and I was half-faced with a flattering face, with some pride: "What?"

"I want to save him. If you want, I will save you. There is no way, you can't really mix with those sinisters." Mo burned, "Go back early."

Rong Ji has missed more than half of his face, and he said: "There is no way to say that there is no way in this place. Which one has a way? Rong Ji’s life is hard, and the world is twenty years old. I feel no different from here. , but the difference between being a guest and being a ghost, and not having a reincarnation, what is the difference?"

"...you are here at the tip of the knife."

Rong Jiu really laughed this time. He smiled and looked back, and looked at the ink: "When I am not at the tip of the knife to discuss the day? People are slashing me for the fish, meet some good people, can enjoy more silver. If you meet the ink son 'Great people', money is not a small matter, rolled up some soft and ran, and turned around and didn't know me. Mo Gongzi, you first stabbed me, then turned back and advised me to be careful about the knife, you are really kind."

Chapter 112

What he said was the first day of ink-burning and resurgence, and what he did under his grievances.

I want to come at this time, although Rong Jiu’s past life is sorry for himself, and he has to work with Chang Gongzi to make his own life, but that is the last thing in his life. Rong Ji of this life has not yet done this with Chang Gongzi. It is unclear to explain that he was taking silver at the time.

"I am not good." Under such circumstances, the ink is not willing to fight with him, just said, "I took yours at that time and will come back to you later."

“How do you pay me back?” Rong Ji asked. “Furthermore, what is the use of gold and silver jewelry for me now?”

Ink burning: "..."

"Those pearls are handcuffs, can you give it back to me, then what about my life?"

"What?" The ink burns, "Your life?"

"Yes, my life." Rong Ji seems to have touched a certain pain in his heart, and his expression gradually sinks.

"You know, how did I die?"

"..."

He was suppressed for a long time. At this time, he suddenly uncovered it. The steam that was underneath was madly coming out. He couldn’t hold it anymore. When he didn’t burn his ink, he continued to scream and the look suddenly changed. I was so angry that I became more and more distorted.

"The surname is often poisonous. When he sees that you no longer like me, I feel that I am not worth anything. I lied to me - he treats me to be sincere, but he has no choice but to be a person in the restaurant. It’s clean, and it’s better to come and go in the future. I was blind and thought that he was very affectionate. The decision was only forced by his parents and forced to help... Hey! I believe his nonsense!”

Ink ignited: "Then you should also complain about the surname, complaining about what I do."

Rong Jiu got a three-point anger: "How can you not blame you? The money that I originally saved is enough for my own redemption. But I have taught you to take it away. I was disheartened and didn't want to continue in the restaurant. Waiting, but without money, you can't go straight, you have to sneak out. If you don't take me, why am I so embarrassed!"

"...had you escaped?"

"Yes, I fled, I fled to his house." Rong Ji hated, "But the surname often refused to open the door for me, and the people in the restaurant chased it up. Finally I struggled with uselessness, or they were brought with them. Go back, torture and turn it off again."

The ink burned and said: "But the surname often says that when you go to the town of Choi Butterfly to visit relatives, you will be killed when you encounter a ghost."

"Ha!" Rong Jiu yin and yang are inextricably smeared with a sneer. "He can really say something. Relatives? I am in the town of Choi Butterfly, what are the relatives!"

"..."

"You are not telling me, is this living under the knife? I am going to tell you what is the real life under the knife!" Rong Ji is getting more and more excited, the facial features are almost distorted, he is really like some ghosts at the moment. "I will tell you how I died! You are these friends! Haha - Enke!"

"I stayed in the restaurant for so long, I was locked, I didn't eat, I suffered. No one came to take care of me. After many days, I was desperate. The surname was suddenly found back, crying. Tell me that the reason why he didn't open the door that day was because his aunt was losing his temper, and he was afraid that when I entered, I would be killed by his family's servant!"

Such a lie, the ink burned and shook his head: "You will never believe."

"No." There was a radiance in the eyes of Rong Jiu. "I believe."

Ink burning: "..."

"I believe it." Rong Jiu grievances in the sky, a smile came out, and the corner of his mouth was distorted. "Why don't I believe it? Believe it or not, someone who has a retreat can talk. What am I? A person who sells flesh, others throws What do I believe in, or not even a lifeline."

He slowed down and continued.

"The surname often tells me that he will honor his promise and take me into his house. But he said that his parents can't accept me at the moment, let me go to a nearby town to stay with him."

"Color Butterfly Town?"

"Yes. Choi Butterfly Town."

The ink burned has faintly guessed what happened, and the look sank.

Sure enough, Rong Jiudao said: "I am packing things with joy and joy, oh yes, there is nothing to clean up. The money I have sold for selling meat and meat these years has been stolen by you for a while. But it doesn't matter, I At that time, I thought, I have a good son."

"...hehe." He was a little quieter, twitching like a smile, and chewing these three words between the lips and teeth, "every son."

"Is he cheating you to the town of Choi Butterfly, where did you kill you?"

"...No." Rong Jiuxiao smiled and looked sad and resentful. "Not that he killed me. You are one of the roads that blocked me. I am with the thief boat on him. It is you, it is yours." I am dead."

Rong Ji took a breath and continued: "After arriving at Choi Die Town, I followed the surname and entered a big house, but the inside was cold and cold, and there was no servant. He told me that he had not come to the office. Let me rest in the house, he went out to buy something. I stayed there and waited. After a while, I saw him walk into the courtyard with a man-"

The ink burned here, and the color changed: "Can you see the man's appearance?"

"No." Rong Jiudao, "The man is wearing a mask and a cloak. I can't see anything.... Then I saw the surname often squatting in front of the man, and a face smiled more than me. It was still charming. He should have looked at his appearance at that time and taught people to be disgusting. He told the man that there was a remnant of the essence of Muling in me, saying that I had been intimate with you before - it was a good sacrifice. Who knows, I don’t want to cultivate immortals, I don’t want to cultivate immortals, I don’t understand what they are saying.”

The ink burns but the scalp is numb.

He is clear that he is close to Rong Jiu, and there are some wood spirits in his body. The fake hook Chen has been looking for a suitable substitute. Although the aura of Rong Jiu’s body is very small, it is pure and clear, and it is really suitable for casting.

"There is nothing to say about the later things." Rong Ji’s frivolous face was a rare coldness. "As the son of the ink, I am dead."

If it is the burning of past life, or the burning of the newly born, it must be scornful and ridiculed: "When you die, what is the relationship with me?"

But at this moment, the ink burned but some laughed.

He is a disgusting nine, and Rong Jiu does not do anything. His past life even wanted to find his life. However, although he had a physical joy with Rong Ji, he never had a candid speech. Suddenly, in this yin and sect, I heard Rong Ji’s confession, but the ink burned with some mixed feelings.

After thinking about it, I feel that it is innumerable, so I don’t think so.

He sighed and said: "Rong Jiu, this thing, can't help."

Rong Ji lived for a lifetime. No one ever said to him that he couldn’t hold it. He suddenly felt like he was totally ignorant. He looked at him back and forth, and then said: "Even if you say so, I I won't tell you where the person is on the portrait."

Ink burning: "It has nothing to do with portraits."

Rong Jiu lowered his head and paused for a while. Suddenly he said: "Mu Gongzi, do you know that Chang Gongzi was calculating with me before, saying that he wants to kill you and win you?"

"I know."

"You... you know?"

The ink nodded: "I know."

Rong Ji has a good time, hate and hate: "It must be the missing message of the surname!"

He looked up again and his eyes flashed with resentment: "I know that I am better than listening to him and killing you. There are still some good days to pass, not so bad."

Ink burned at him: "What do people ask you to do, what do you do?"

"How can that be?" Rong Jiudao, "I only want to live a good life. For example, if I sell my body, is it wrong? Just like selling fish and selling meat, I want to eat it. I know that you guys can’t look down on me. I don't care if I look at it, self-respect, face, what's the use? It's not like a good wine, a piece of meat. So if you kill you, I will survive, why don't I do it for you?"

The ink burned his lips and it was refuted, but he suddenly remembered what he had done in his previous life. He couldn’t say the words of denial.

Rong Ji said with indignation: "Why can't people kill people in order to live and kill birds and eat meat?"

The ink sighed and muttered, "Is it interesting to be alive?"

It’s like asking for nine.

It is also like a red dust, to ask the self on the upper seat of the last generation.

"I don't know. I don't know what is interesting." Rong Jiu said indifferently, "I was sold to the restaurant from the age of sixteen. The first guest was an old Taoist in his fifties. You asked me what is interesting. I don't know. When I am alive, I want to have money. If I have money, I can redeem my body. I don't have to smile and serve others. But I have no free body when I die, and all of you are harmed by these animals."

I didn't talk, and after a long time, I asked him: "Give you another chance. You choose to join the surname, kill me?"

"Not bad."

Ink burning: "Okay, give me another chance, I will still look back, roll all your money, so that you have no good fruit to eat."

"you--!"

Rong Jiu was indignant, and the thin red dyed on the face of the rouge flower seemed to be more beautiful. He staggered for a while, and then slowly stabilized.

After a little bit, he knew that he was dying. He raised his hand and rubbed his hair over his forehead. He reluctantly re-attached his usual soft smile, but his eyes still flashed with anger.

"What do you say? I am nine, there is a living method that I have nine."

"I hope that you can live happily in the ghost world."

Rong Jiu narrowed his eyes: "That must be very comfortable. As long as you lie down on the bed, you can exchange for the reincarnation, no longer suffer, I am more clear than the idiots in the house, I am very willing."

Ink burned and smiled and said: "But Rong Jiu, these people are under the hands of the four ghost kings. You are dead or alive, you are going to stay, in fact, you have to rely on the above sentence."

Rong Jiuzhen shocked, random vigilance, a pair of eyes staring at him.

"What do you mean."

If this is not the case, the ink-burning is really reluctant to tear it apart with him. However, although the nine-sexual temper is weak, the hate is not the oil and salt, but he has to sink into the air and say to him: "You think that on the portrait. People are just like this, but I think he is very good. Everyone has different eyes. No one can say that the ghost king will not hit him."

"Who can look like him in such a cold look?"

"That may not be." Ink burns, "If the ghost king likes soft people, why didn't you pick you up?"

"..." Rong Ji does not say anything, but the look is a bit ugly.

The ink burns hot and hits the iron: "He is a man, his temper is fierce. If he is chosen, I am afraid that this ghost world will be ruined. When the time comes to sin, the four ghost kings can’t escape, killing a few sinisters. That's something that didn't run. You have to be silky, you have to set it up safely. If you just wrap it up for a few days, the tree will fall, no dependence is a trivial matter, even if you pick up the vines and vines, then It’s the ending of the soul.”

Rong Ji’s pale face seemed to be getting paler.

But he still said with all his flirtatiousness and viciousness: "I don't believe in this evil."

Ink burning: "..."

"Ink son, I bet, I can't live without you, I am better than me."

A few silences, the ink burned suddenly, and he stared at Rong Ji’s face: "I don’t gamble with you. Rong Jiu, I must save this person, you have to play like this, I will play with you."

Rong Jiu looked up, his eyes burned, and his snakes licked his hand and burned his chest: "Who is you? How long have you been with you? Have you been a long time? He is in bed, is there me? Is it a trick?" More, or is it better to listen?" He paused, and the eyelashes fell down. "Ink son, you are not the kind of infatuation that will kill people. You are not in love at the bottom of my heart, but I am not."

The voice did not fall, and the cheeks were burned by the ink.

The ink burned him open, the black eyebrows stood upright, and the fireworks jumped in the middle of the fire: "There was no heart in the past, now there is."

Rong Jiu raised his eyes sharply and confronted his face. He suddenly found this person to be hot and even strange.

People seem to be the light and rainy screaming, but the soul seems to be different.

He seemed to be burned by such an ink, and he could not help but tremble. He wanted to turn around and run away, but he was stunned by the other party.

"There is still." The ink burned, "I am with him... from now on, clear and innocent, I respect him and love him, no mourning. You must humiliate him."

He said, this only pushed Rong Jiuyi, and Rong Ji hit the column, looking incredibly at the people in front of him. I didn’t even ponder how this eccentric expression was “from now on, clear and white”. If he is clear-minded, he will be able to figure out the subtleties.

From today's innocence, that is to say, it has never been clear, and there is love and color.

But Rong Ji did not think about it.

"He is not yours... not yours..."

Ink burning: "No, he is my teacher."

Rong Jiu will not scream, but people like him can always sniff out some subtle friendships from the lines of the word. The kind of friendship may not be noticed, but Rong Jiu can smell it.

He can almost certainly confirm that the smoldering is the one who loves the portrait. This thought makes him unable to get any love, and can not help but give birth to a bitter and comfortable.

The most popular is the son of the ink, and it will also be a fire for a person.

He suddenly thought, if the original heart of the ink son is really awkward, what is the true heart, will the ink burn? Will it reveal some pure love for himself?

However, he didn't have time to finish it. He listened to the ink and burned it again. His voice was cold and cold. It was not a joke: "Rong Jiu, I finally asked where he was, if you still don't know. I am a monk. It’s still clear how to administer a drug or a spell to confuse a person’s mind. Believe it or not, I will go out and see the ghost king myself.”

This is a complete stunned: "You..."

"I have been working for a lifetime. Now I want to come here. But if no one is fulfilling me, I will still be the rain." He whispered, "Rong Jiu, you want to be clear, I am not afraid of death, not afraid. The soul is flying. You have to be so absolutely, I can do whatever."

Neither of them talked anymore.

Just looking at each other, resolutely grievances. Perseverance is unwilling. It’s cold and it’s cold.

After the ice in the nine eyes, he was almost defeated under the gaze of such a ruthlessness. His hatred is deep, and the obstinacy of ink burning is not shallow. The two are relatively embarrassing, he will not be the opponent of the emperor.

If the face is dead, even if the rouge is delicate, it can't cover the face, such as the broken wall.

"Why are you doing this for him?"

"He treats me the best, but I bully him as the most hated person. I owe him."

"..."

"I did, I have never seen this person." After a long while, Rong Ji whispered, but seeing the ink and burning, and slowly added a sentence, "I did not lie to you. However, the newly caught ghosts are locked in the east. The one in the temple. One person, a small room, is no different from a cage, with a lock. There is a squad guarding the patrol. You should be able to find it when you go there."

Where can I wait for the ink to burn, he will turn to the night. Rong Jiuyi stood in the same place and looked at it. I don’t know what kind of bitter emotions rushed into my heart. He suddenly couldn’t stop shouting toward the back of the ink-burning: “Mini rain, you – you want to come here? Who can come here! We are all people who have been soaked in the mud! No one can come again!"

"Ink rain! You are squatting, I am convinced that I want to live a good life. It is better to die than to live. I sell my body and sell my soul. I am ruined. I have to wear gold and silver! You are squatting. Do you think that you can wipe the smell off by rubbing your mouth in the dirt? You think beautiful! You are good from you, I am my beggar, see who can live well! !"

He groaned until the back of the burning ink disappeared, and he suddenly raised his hand and slammed his face, squatting and choking.

"Why can you come back, why are you so bad people, and some people are waiting for you... Why?"

Chapter 113

The first courtyard in the east, as if it were the words of the nine, the upper and lower floors, each floor is a room next to the room, although the field is the largest, but also the most messy, an old tree in the courtyard, Sui Tang, surrounded by countless dead crows Each crow has an eyeball in his mouth, squirming and screaming, sweeping the four abnormalities.

The two teams of squadrons shuttled back and forth, kicking and kicking, guarding the "tributes" that were prepared for the four ghost kings.

The side of the burning side is hidden behind the corner, while counting the roads of these ghosts, while looking at the dead corner of the palace.

The small rooms in the plaid are lit with lights. From time to time, there are ghosts crying, sighing, vomiting and taunting, and the night is like a cockroach from the ancient times. It makes people erect and shudder.

There are more than three hundred rooms in the head here. The next patrol is repeated for each round of tea. He can’t easily find Chu’s night in the tea, especially the stairs. There is also a ghost guard, holding a broken whip, with a stern whistle on his neck.

The darkness of the ink burned out. At this time, I saw a ghost in the distance alone. He had a red-red token on his waist and wore the same clothes as the guards. The ink burned in the dark, and watched him walk from himself to the step.

The ghost and the guard at the side of the ladder nodded. The night was very quiet, so the ink burned their conversations with ease.

"Seven brother, are you coming to the third officer's post?"

"Yeah. You are too fast."

"I have to wait a little longer, people haven't come yet. When he comes, I will rest."

The servant who changed the post went to the upstairs. The guard on the first floor yawned and yawned and continued to stay in the wind.

Seeing that they were so handed over, the ink burned suddenly and they thought of a somewhat dangerous idea...

There were three or two squeaks in the distance, hehe.

The branch crow "wow-wow-" shouted twice and seemed to have noticed something changed.

The guards who guarded the entrance were awake, looking around, glimpsing the thin night fog and walking slowly to a figure.

Closer, I found out that he was a young man he had never seen before, and the guards became more vigilant.

"who?"

"To change the job," the man said.

The red clouds drifted past, revealing a moonlight in the sky, illuminating his face, a handsome ghost guard.

But his five senses are straight and straight, and the eyebrows are full of love. This "ghost" who is changing jobs is not a smoldering person. Who is it?

He didn't know where to get a sinister armor, and put it on his body. The black and red tokens on his waist couldn't sway, and the stern whistle was hung on his chest, emitting cold and cool silver.

The guard said: "I have never seen you before."

"newcomer."

The guard will raise his hand in disbelief: "The brand?"

The ink burned the sign and handed it to him. The face is not moving, but the heart has been stretched to the extreme.

Fortunately, the guard turned the token over and over and looked at it many times. When he didn't notice what was wrong, he was too lazy to take another shot and patted his shoulder: "The second half of the house depends on you, I went home."

"Predecessors are good."

This predecessor called Shu Tan, the ghost screamed and laughed twice, and waved his hand: "Good boy, will meet again."

"Hey... seniors, wait a minute!"

"What?" The guard turned back.

The ink burned and smiled. It was natural to ask: "In this tribute, how many surnames are Chu?"

Ghost guards are wary: "What do you ask for this?"

“Mr. Chu from Shunfenglou asked.” Ink burning, “He has a distant relative, saying that he is also down. But Shunfenglou can’t find him, I don’t know if it’s here.”

Sure enough, Chu's reputation was still a bit shocking. The guard hesitated a bit and pointed to the second floor: "The three most in the middle, the three are all surnamed Chu. You can go and see."

The ink burned and smiled and said: "Thank you for your guidance."

"You're welcome." The predecessors were very stupid, "should be."

When the guard finished, he took a leisurely walk with Xiaoqu, and when he passed the corner, he did not find that the true colleague who was supposed to change his post had been * with a forbidden spell and was thrown into the gutter. The poor ghosts were all lighted up, revealing a thin single, full of anger, but the mouth was blocked completely, but it was not stunned, only sulking.

Ink burning is not reassuring, although those who have lost the "tribute" have been turned into a group in the partial hall, no one is watching, only the outside of the curse enchantment, but it is not good to have squad patrol. With Rong Ji’s dislike of himself, he will inevitably take his own whereabouts.

Without further ado, you must make a quick decision.

The ink burned in place for a while, and the wave of soldiers who walked back and forth immediately went straight to the second floor. On the second floor, there was also a guard standing, crossing the □ to stop the ink.

"Stand up, what?"

"I am new to change the job today, on the first floor."

The guard frowned. "Then you are waiting on the first floor, what are you doing on this floor?"

The ink burned or lifted Chu to come to knock on the door bricks. Unexpectedly, this guard not only did not buy his account, but sternly said: "Even if Mr. Chu of Shunfeng Building is doing it? As long as he enters the palace, he will be owned by the four kings. If he wants to save his relatives, he will go and find the four kings. I can't take it!"

The ink burned secretly, and this guy was more intelligent than the one downstairs. He had to swear by his head: "I don't have to take him away today. But I have to take a look at whether I have found it wrong. People?"

"This is not easy? You told me the name, I will help you check. Why do you need to go in."

"..." The smoldering felt anxious, screaming with anger, and said, "Chu Ning. He is called Chu Ningning."

The guards were supposed to check the roster. When they heard the three words, they dropped the roster.

When the ink burned him, he suddenly felt a bunch of uneasiness in his heart and asked, "What's wrong? What's the problem?"

"What's the problem?" The guard sneered and asked, and then said, "You are really new and don't know how to be high. The four kings are coming to the palace today to enjoy the beauty. I have already seen this Chu Xianjun. If it is not the first seven people, The three souls have not yet gathered, and can't be brought to the fourth floor of Hell. I am afraid that he will be offered to the Ghost King this evening. You want him with me? You have any questions."

When the ink burned half of the time, he was already stunned. When the guards finished speaking, he said for a long time: "Is the four ghost kings watching him?"

"how?"

"...nothing. Then forget it, harass." The ink burned and turned over, and went downstairs for two steps. Then when the other party did not react, the martial arts had already condensed in the palm of his hand and suddenly turned over. Guard the neck!

Red light glare, flashing past.

The so-called Shenwu, can hurt the ghost can kill God, the guard only had time to see the scarlet willow leaves in front of the eyes, heard this newcomer all resentfully said: "You really do not dare to rob people with the ghost king! "There is a sudden loss of wisdom and coma."

The ink burned his hands and cast the method, and tied him tightly. The mouth was sealed and kicked to the side, and he rushed to the end of the walkway.

At the end of the three, each is a solitary soul of Chu.

But I don’t know why, but I don’t know why it’s in my heart. I don’t even know how it feels like he has such a strange feeling. He slams open the door because he runs too fast and gasps. Standing in front of the second small pavilion.

He gasped, and a long, shattered ink hangs in front of his eyes. He forgot to open it, only to lie inside -

Rong Jiu said it was good.

This is a single room of the same size as the animal cage. The walls are clear and everything is dead gray.

The man in Wei Litou looked very warm, like the flame in the cold white.

Not every "tribute" is locked, at least not late. Perhaps because he has been seen by the four kings, the guards did not dare to offend. On the ground of his room, there was even a white fur felt, thick and soft, like a new snow in the winter.

Chu nightning is lying on the felt and sleeping. This person seems to kill and dare. In fact, there is always some restlessness in the heart. This is most obvious when he is asleep. He is always used to squatting and shrinking himself very small.

It seems that I am warming myself, and I seem to be afraid of who owns the empty space. The thin person seems to be pitiful.

This soul is different from the human soul. There is no blood on his face. The clothes on the body were also changed. They wore a red silk dress with a brocade, a wide robe, a large sleeve, a dragon and a phoenix, and a golden butterfly.

The smoldering was almost squatting forward, falling beside him, stretching his trembling hand, and stroking the face of Chu.

"Late Ning..."

It’s not the teacher’s respect that comes out of it, but the last time he used to call him.

Hate the blood of the sea, into the bones.

Chu Xiaoning was picked up by him, faint, and only woke up for a long time.

Open your eyes, but I saw that I was leaning against my ink, and the young, childish face in front of me had such concerns. He thought it might be a dream, so he frowned, half sighed, and closed his eyes again.

"Master!"

Someone called him in the ear.

This is not a late call.

"Master! Master!"

Chu night, Ning 蓦 睁 open the eyes, although the face has not changed, but the fingertips have betrayed him, shivering slightly.

In the next moment, the ink burned his hand and put it on his face. He was crying and laughing. The handsome five senses became so embarrassing and rude.

"Master," he whimpered, his eyes staring at him as if he couldn't say anything, and he couldn't stop repeating it. "Master..."

Chu nightning was held tightly by him, and finally he came back to the gods. He felt uncomfortable in the subconscious, so he broke his ink and got up and stared at him.

For a long time, I don’t speak a word.

Suddenly angry.

The ink burned and did not react. Chu’s hand was taken away, and then the backhand was slap in the face of the ink, and the black-browed anger was vertical and the sword was arrogant.

"Bick, how are you dead?!"

The ink burned open his mouth, just want to explain, but suddenly saw the moonlight, Chu night Ning angry but Sheng, but the eyes under the long eyelashes are forbearing, sad, seems unwilling, there seems to be a touch It’s the endless water color. After he finished, he bit his lower lip and locked the choking that made him feel humiliated and embarrassed.

Some people broke a hole, and they wanted to let the whole world know that he was injured.

However, some people are arrogant and arrogant. Those who suffer from grievances and pains, even if they will be full of throat and blood, will also be swallowed up and not told.

He did not say that the ink burned was not known before.

I know it now, I only feel very distressed.

He wants to hold the night.

But Chu Xiaoning pushed him away, hoarsely: "Roll."

Chu night Ning side face, a layer of chills to cover the heartache.

"You died at a young age, what face to see me."

"Master respect..."

"Get out." Chu nightning turned his face even more. "You and my mentoring have been broken. I am under the jade, not to accept the waste of the dead."

In the prime of life...

I was saddened by the burning of the ink. I listened to him so seriously and reprimanded himself. Suddenly, I felt that my heart was warm, and it seemed that there was spring water flowing out. He took a picture of his forehead and then covered his eyes. He couldn't help but bitter and sweet, and smiled sourly.

Chu Xiaoning heard his chuckle, but he was very angry. He turned back and said: "What are you laughing at, you--" He was angry and went to fan and slap, but his hand was caught by ink.

The young, warm eyes slowly groaned, did not speak, but took his hand and solemnly covered his chest.

Chapter 114

thumping. thumping. thumping.

The heartbeat is both heavy and slow.

Chu Evening also blinked and blinked, his eyes surprised and delighted, and the shackles and flashes passed. The elders of Yu Heng are really elders of Yu Heng. They have been cold for ten years. It is more calm than anyone else to clean up their faces. Soon they will accumulate too much emotion. It seems that the person who is disappointed by the disappointment is not him.

"You are not dead, what to do down."

When I asked for the export, Chu Jingning regretted it.

It’s true that you are burning yourself like this. However, if the ink burned his mouth and said this to himself, Chu Xi Ning felt that he would be afraid of a heartbeat stall.

Under his nervousness, he forgot that he was dead and could have a heart.

I can burn it straight and stare at him, but I don’t speak like this.

He probably understood that if he said "I am coming for you", it would make Chu late and feel helpless.

So he was slightly indulged, and finally licked his lips, but instead hangs his eyelashes and gently asks: "What do you think me do?"

"...you can't find yourself down."

"When did the teacher change his name and he was uncomfortable?" The ink smiled. "I don't tell me."

Chu night Ning seems to have been tempered by the gentleness he has never had before, and he quickly took another hand and was very angry and angered: "The nonsense is really arrogant."

Ink burning finally found a secret.

He found that the anger of Chu Xiaoning was a mask of his. This person is too awkward, and is willing to cover the face of this tooth dance with the oil mask on the face, covering all the waves, whether it is gentle, happy, open, shy, sad.

So stupid.

Chu night Ning silly, fake face wearing a lifetime, not too tired.

I am also stupid, and I have lived for two lifetimes from the beginning.

But when you say something like this, the atmosphere is no longer as dignified as it is. The four souls of Chu, Ning, have been found, and they are born again.

The ink burns in a good mood, and pulls the night, but he doesn’t let go. He tells me why he came to the local government and talked about the master of sin. When he talked about some things, he couldn’t help but stop. The throat whimpered and dissipated, and then red eyes, continue to say. In his explanation, the three most words appearing inside are "not right."

Chu night Ning really does not know what to say.

He treats people well, not because he wants to take this kind of good in exchange for anything, but also that others have received his good, and he is uneasy.

In fact, he was afraid that he would be passionate about himself, offering a steaming heart and lungs, but he was left behind by the other side.

Therefore, although he is bright and upright, he is hiding from the festival of human beings.

He wore a mask for a lifetime.

But one day, the person he liked reached out and straightened the anger of his face, as if he had taken off his crab shell.

He stood in the same place and suddenly did not know what to do.

In the midst of ecstasy, the ink burned down before him, and one hand still held his hand, as if he was afraid that he would disappear.

Chu nightning has a moment of ridiculous and shameful thoughts.

His apprentice has always been timid, and he does not follow the common sense. He is suddenly treated with ink and his hands are treated like this. He actually feels that the other person seems to want to do something.

"..." He was a little bit stunned by his own thoughts, his face became more and more gloomy, he didn't know what face to face, he had to habitually cold.

But the ink did not do anything, he just took him, like the treasure that was lost.

That was the man who had been abandoned in his previous life.

"Master."

All hatred is behind, he is kneeling before him, sincere, respectful, and even hot.

"I used to be wrong. I said that I will go east in the future. If you say West, I will go west. I just want you to be good." Xu is deep in love. Although the ink is still laughing, his eyes are a little moist. "You go back with me. Okay?"

Chu night Ning did not speak, his face was as light as water, and his heart was smoldering.

"Master."

The voice of the youth is soft, soft, with some youthful charm.

When ink burns a person, it is true hate.

But to be a good person, it is good to be attentive.

He has always been paranoid and has always been extreme.

"Go back with me, you promise me, okay?"

Chu night Ning still did not move, only faintly looked at him, I do not know what to think.

I was afraid that he was not happy, so I was saddened in my heart, but my face was still laughing, trying not to make myself too embarrassed, and to add to the teacher. He took his hand and shook it, teasing him and yelling at him: "If the teacher is willing, he will nod."

"..."

I was afraid that he would never nod, and thought again: "I count three times, can I?"

"..."

"If you don't talk to the teacher, I will promise you." The ink burned softly and said softly, and he slowly counted.

"one two Three."

But Chu Jingning is like a person who has been frozen for a long time. He suddenly put him in warm water. He doesn't feel warm, but hurts.

He used to be a rare person, so he didn't feel uncomfortable when he was frozen. Once someone was waiting for him, and wrapped him warmly, he seemed to have finally had a painful power. Suddenly every inch of flesh and blood hurts. Every inch of skin is splitting.

I feel so painful.

His fingertips shook slightly in the palm of his burning sweat.

When the ink burned, he didn’t say anything, and he became more and more nervous. He was afraid that he would be disheartened and didn’t want to go back to the sun.

But he did not dare to move, afraid of a move, Chu will rather abandon him. He maintained a happy smile and said: "The number is too fast, you should not be ready, I will count it again."

"one two Three."

Chu nightning: "..."

The ink burns his throat and he is shaking. He almost smiled and pleaded: "Master, have you heard that?"

The phoenix of the late night of Chu seems to have finally had some gods, but it still looks stunned and looks at the burning face without any indication.

"I will count it again and again, I am afraid that you can't hear it." The ink burned, "One, two, three."

"..."

"I will count the last time..."

"one two Three."

"It’s really the last time."

"one two Three……"

Chu night Ning seems to be ruthlessly squatting in front of him, over and over again, and fools generally count the number one, two, three, two, three, as if this time again and again, can make time back, Let the dead wood bloom, so people resurrect.

The apprentice in front of him, stubbornly and forcefully counted, clumsy and stubbornly counted, he seems to be counting his sin, counting the master to treat him well.

In the end, the sound is trembling, and the smile is awe.

"Master."

The ink burned his head and his eyes were red, but he had already suffered from the lateness of Chu, and he didn't want to cry in front of the conscious Cu Yuening, and then he was saddened.

So he endured, still laughing, negotiating a relaxed tone.

"I will count it again, you rationalize me, okay?"

Chu night Ning was suddenly pleaded by him, stabbing his heart like a knife.

He was almost stunned, and he had to pull his hand out of the fingertips.

But this time the smoldering gripped him and said nothing to let go.

The young man is firm, slow, and his eyes are staring at him, like a dog's attachment.

He said: "One, two, ..."

Suddenly, the outside came a rush of footsteps, shouting, cursing, and Chu Ning suddenly looked up and looked down to the downstairs like a sea. The mighty squadron chased over and rushed to where they were.

After all, Rong Ji still caught the opportunity to inform.

"Where! Upstairs! Upstairs!"

"Catch the little thief!"

"It’s the opposite of the sky!"

The rushing and rushing, the torches and the ghost imagery are rolling from a distance, and they are going to be swallowed up and killed by two of them.

The ink burned but did not look back. At that moment, he held the hand of Chu Xiaoning, and suddenly it was very quiet.

Although Chu Xiaoning is not his lover, but he is loved, respected people, who love him, treat him well. He looked at him and his heart was steady.

Chu night reprimanded him: "Are you fainting?! What are you doing?"

He said, holding back the ink-burning hand and picking him up from the ground. His eyes were burning in the light of the lights, and he was no different from the time of life. Chu night Ning frowned and said: "Go!"

The ink burned a bit: "Are we?"

Chu night Ning is extremely annoyed: "Who can be?!"

When the ink burned, he shuddered and closed his eyes, and then he opened it again, and then he smiled. The smile was very good, and the eyes were still stained with water, like the flowers of the dewdrops, and the splendor.

Finally, he finally breathed a sigh of relief and clasped Chu’s fingers.

Ten fingers are handed over.

He resisted the forehead of Chu Yuning, whispered and solemnly said: "Three."

"Three three! Go!"

There was no end to the end of the devil, and the ink burned back. I was a little anxious: "Master, first open an enchantment block! Then I will take you to the soul-light!"

"will not."

“...啥?!” The ink burns like a chicken.

Chu night Ning cold face, but still a little embarrassed, angry and angry: "If I still have mana, can you be trapped in this broken cage?"

"..."

Got it.

The soul of Chu Xiaoning, the missing is "repair".

Because the soul is in the soul of the soul, you need to sing a curse undisturbed, although it is not long, but this situation is absolutely impossible, the ink can only pull the night run.

Fortunately, the late night of Ning Xiu was lost, but his skills are still there, and he will not drag his legs. The two men took the road and ran, followed by a savage savage savage, ran to the entrance of the main hall, Chu night Ning asked: "Do you recognize the road?"

Ink burning: "I don't know."

Chu nightning: "..."

The ink burned but not discouraged, referring to the towering palace wall: "Go above and see clearly."

Fortunately, the late night of Ning was light and solid, and even if it was not repaired, the flying raft was still not a problem. He floated on the tile and looked down at the corpse and roared and smothered it. He said to the ink: "You will see the ghost!"

The ink burned according to the words, the palms rubbed together, and a glaring scarlet radiance was like a snake screaming, and suddenly slammed out, the red willow leaves twirled, and the sacred willow was coiled around his feet.

"Aura is over five miles, enter the pool, gather Shangyang, and pump down."

brush!

Chu night Ning seems to suddenly think of something, added: "Less less spiritual power."

The ink burned and heard a word, and it was too late to wait for the news.

Only heard the loud noise of the bang, the snake smashed at the moment of the smashing, like a dragon that swallowed the flame, and roared from the ink to the palm of the hand. The flames of the flaming raccoon almost wiped out the entire corridor, with the fire moving to the stars, and the clouds rose out of Dinghu. In the blink of an eye, dozens of soldiers who will bite at the forefront will be attached to the bricks and trees, and they will be burned clean!

Chu nightning: "..."

Ink burning: "..."

"It's not for you to inject less spiritual power!"

"When you said, I have already..." Suddenly I thought that I couldn’t talk to the Master, I would respect it, and I would shut up my voice. "The teacher respects the lesson."

"But it." Chu night Ning a smack of sleeves, "I am too late to say."

Ink burns a glimpse - the original teacher must be soft, just take the trouble to take it over yourself?

He blinked and smiled.

Chu night Ning slammed him: "What a smirk, still not going?"

Chapter 115

"Walk away." The ink burned, and suddenly thought of something, the face was sorrowful, "Master, I killed so many sinisters, the ghost world is afraid to play with us."

"No problem." Chu said that "the trick is not to make the opponents fly away. They just broke the soul, and they will gather again in a few days."

The ink burned the words and looked at it carefully. Sure enough, I saw a little bit of soul and shattering in the smoldering smoldering, floating like a firefly. Not too many, Chu nightning has already pulled him and said: "Run."

After the wreckage of the wall was a group of more violent rags, and the night of the dynasty and the burning of the ink on the Biva scorpion, the ink ran while asking: "Master, since they will not die, Can't offend the ghost world, why don't you let me inject more spiritual power to knock them back?"

Chu night Ning said coldly: "You can only try again."

Although the ink burned did not know why he said this, but still tried it. Unexpectedly, this time it was only a small cluster of fireworks. It seems that the ghosts are very tired, and there is still the momentum of the towns and rivers.

"The more you have the energy, the longer you need to rest." Chu said, "I can't pass it. Can you remember?"

"remembered."

After a pause, the ink burned.

"Master. I suddenly remembered one thing, guess what I thought of?"

"what?"

"I think in the Taoyuan illusion, you also taught me to make the vine whip. At that time you were particularly short." The ink burned and grinned, and he took a hand and gestured. "I can't even get my waist."

Chu night Ning heard the words, suddenly was stunned.

"Be careful!"

"Get out of the way." If he is still alive, Chu's ear roots should be red, and he is angry and angry. "You will be so good, and you are taller than Xia Shi, why not compare with me?"

He burned and laughed. He didn't compare with him. Now he is taller than his body. It is no longer as high as the color of the butterfly town, but it is just a flat.

He Yu Guang took the teacher's respect and secretly wrote down a note. After a few years, his heart was completely finished, and he must compare and compare the nights.

Here, the emperor is playing a small abacus, and the jade balance is complicated in the evening.

Although he probably guessed that the ink was already clear that he was the subject of Xia Si, he listened to him and said that he still felt a big face and had no place to rest.

After all... he was screaming at his head and shouting at the "Shi Ge".

The more I want to be more and more sorrowful, the more I want to be more angry, Chu nightning runs faster, and burns the ink behind.

The ink burns his mind, and he is not in a hurry to chase. He only keeps half a step away and firmly follows him. They fled against the whistling night wind, watching the man who was close at hand, red clothes bullying, such as 堕枫流霞, the gold jewels on the robes embroidered vividly, with the robe swaying more and more colorful.

There was a bitter bitter and sweet lame in his heart.

At this moment, he was grateful. He could still see Chu Yuning, and he was also taught by Chu Xiening as he used to.

In a few years, if he is smooth, he can still lower his head, smile and sigh with sorrow and sigh: "The disciple is taller than the teacher, and the disciple stands, and the master can step on the foot."

His heart is very warm and hot, just thinking that God really wants him not to be thin.

Not everyone has made a mistake, can have the opportunity to start all over again, and not everyone is hurt, can be tolerant and forgiving.

His master is a cold-hearted person, and it took him so long to know.

It also drove two chasing soldiers, and the front entrance of the palace was in sight.

Looking back, the soldiers were far away and could not catch up with them. The ink burned a little loosely, and then the tone was not loose, so I heard a thunder in front.

In the thunderstorm, there was a huge shoulder, and the eight muscles entangled in the shoulders were sturdy. A little fat man wrapped in a white beast, with long hair and lazy behavior, lay on his head, and there was a beautiful woman on the left and right. One was giving him a shoulder and the other was feeding him cherry fruit.

Although this man with a big belly is a soul, but has been cultivated in the flesh, so the fruit is actually eaten with the living, not just to go through and taste.

The man licked his lips, grabbed the beautiful chin, and kissed him with a grin. Then he narrowed his eyes and looked at the night and sighed with a sigh of relief.

"This is really not good. The baby in this king's phase has actually robbed him."

He said, leisurely.

"Xiao Xianjun, who gave you the courage?"

Chu nightning face is blue and green, and his look is extremely ugly.

In fact, he was called "baby" by such a greasy slut. If his mana is still there, he would probably have smashed the scum into a slag.

The burning face is also not good-looking, but knowing that he is now cultivated is not enough to protect the Chu-Lingning while fighting the Ghost King, so he can only talk.

He stepped forward and hugged his fist: "Wang Ye, I can't help but ruin so many of your palace roof tiles, but this person, I want to take it away."

"Oh, what do you take with you when you take it away?" The four ghost kings smiled. "What do you wear on him? I teach you a beggar, that one, called the robe of marriage, in other words, The costumes of our ghosts. He wore my kimono, the ghost of my men, he is not going to the door of the palace, do not believe you try."

After a pause, add a sentence: "If you take him out, I am afraid that the spirit of the robes will be smashed in the ceremonial ceremonies, but you have to think clearly."

The ink burned this and suddenly understood why Rong Jiu said that everyone was tied in the main hall, but Chu Xiening did not. It turned out that this red dress on his body...

Pinching into a fist, ink ignited: "I want to take him away, naturally I can't let the prince suffer. What Wang wants, I try my best."

"This king only wants beautiful people. And recently, the gentle and smooth food is tired, and the king still likes you next to it. It doesn't like to care for people, so it has a taste."

"..."

Seeing the burning of the ink and the late night of the color, the four ghost kings also found it interesting. They sat up slowly and said: "However, to be honest, the king has been in the government for so many years. The first time I saw someone, I will break into me. There is some meaning in the palace. It is a bit interesting. Can you ask curiosity, who are you?"

Ink burning: "He is my teacher."

"The teacher is respected." Ghost Wang spread his hand and smiled. "I thought it was a relationship to die."

Ink ignited: "...he doesn't like you, what is your use?"

The ghost king is lazy and waving: "Childish, like not to like, how important it is. The king is in his flesh and does not want his heart."

"..."

"There is another one." Ghost Wang smiled. "He doesn't like me. Do you like you? If he is your person, I really have no interest. Although the king loves beauty, he really doesn't love it." It’s a drink, but it’s a pity that he’s just your master.”

In this case, the ink burned and heard it first, then suddenly laughed.

"Wang Ye is serious?"

"The Lord of the fourth floor of the king's palace, lie to you a little devil to do."

"Then I ask one more question, if the master has a wedding license, and then put on the prince, this can still be used effectively?"

"Nature is useless. The king never likes to play with people, husbands, and wives." The four ghost kings frowned. "But what do you ask for this? Are you a master?"

Chu night Ning wants a face and says: "No."

The ink burned a shameless face and said: "It is."

Four ghost kings: "..."

When he was not late, he said more, and the ink burned his hand suddenly. He took him and went to the main entrance. While walking, I turned back to the four ghost kings: "Wang Ye, you don't care about him, my teacher is not good at remembering. You see that you just said, if he becomes a pro, this Jifu will not work. We don't grind the skin. I brought him out. If I walked out smoothly, I asked the prince to let us live a path. If I lie, it is life and death."

Chu night Ningdao: "Ink burned - you are crazy? At the beginning of the butterfly town, but it is a play, not at all -"

"How can it be counted?" The ink-burning resolutely decided, but it was very calm. "The wine is also drunk, and the head is also smashed. There is a back soil under the high hall. Why not?"

"Ink burning...!"

The Ghost King has been in the land for thousands of years, and he has been a bit tired. He suddenly saw such a dispute and felt very funny. He sat down and held it up. He patted the beautiful woman's thigh next to her, let her feed her own fruit, and chewed and said: "Cheng, you go. If you go out, I will stop you. If it is dead, it is also ask for it."

Ink burning: "Thank you."

The main entrance of the palace is covered with a layer of enchantment that flashes a faint purple light. It is obviously used by the ghosts. The closer Zhou Chuning is to the enchantment, the more reluctant it is. How can the half-brieze marriage be done...

But the ink burned near him at this time, and whispered to him: "The teacher must be worried, you and my marriage, it will work."

"How is it working?!"

"You listen to me once. I have a lot of things in this matter." He said, the backhand clasped the fingers of Chu's late night, and there was sweat in his palm.

"If it is unfortunate, I will accompany the Master."

Chu night Ning was shocked, and his eyes widened, and he stared at him, as if he had never cleared his eyes.

The ink burned and smiled at him, and the pear vortex melted: "I owe a lot to the Master. This time, I will not stay in the Master."

"..." Chu Xi Ning is silent for a long time, whispering, "Why."

"What about the Master? Why?"

Chu night is stunned, and then sighs gently, and finally no longer pushes. The two joined hands in the enchantment of the purple current ,, behind them are sitting and watching the lively charm.

"go?"

"go."

I don't know who first tightened the hand, then the force, the cold stack of hot, sweaty wrapped in dry, pale against the wheat.

The skyfire is on the rush, and the thunder and lightning are lingering.

The enchantment is like a huge torrent of water and a waterfall. They are almost at the same time. The electric phoenix flutters down and smashes the mountains and rivers like bamboo. It seems that the next two seconds will tear the two people who dare to step on the dead door and smash them into pieces. , burned to ash.

The thunder burst into flames, dazzling to almost white.

When I see it, I will fall on the two people. Although the ink burns before this, my heart always thinks that I should respect the teacher and love the teacher from now on. I can’t rebel, and I can’t have any mourning and defilement.

However, at this moment of extinction, he suddenly turned his head, and suddenly he would like to see the face of Chu Yuning again.

However, it was discovered that in the turbulent rain formed by the enchantment, Chu Nighting was also looking at himself.

The eyes of the two phoenixes have been fierce, decisive, deplorable, hateful, and forbearing... and this moment seems to have the tranquility that everything will go out.

Also, I don't know if it is his illusion.

There is also deep feelings.

The smoldering has never seen the eyes of Chu Xiening, his head screaming and screaming, and the buildings in the city are all collapsed. There is a burning love in his chest, and a solid gray rock formation is opened. , broke out of the ground. He didn't even have time to think about what kind of feelings it was. He only felt that the heart was hot and the blood was boiling.

Thunder and lightning, he reached out without thinking, holding Chu night Ning tightly in his arms.

The frantic heartbeat slammed into the trembling soul.

The chest hit the chest.

Before he was in the ghost world, he did not have the idea of dying with Chu Jingning. He always felt that the person he loved was a teacher, and he would die with his life, and he would only be a teacher.

But when the robbery really fell.

He couldn't help thinking, and put him in his arms. He seemed to want to smother the flesh and blood of his opponent into his flesh and blood and hide his soul into his own soul.

Chu nightning.

I'll be with you.

I……

"Oh, I didn't expect it to be a bitter life." Suddenly there was a screaming sound in the ear. "Is this king actually caught the wrong ghost? This Xianjun is actually the soul of the Lord who has been married and worshipped." ?"

The ink burns and blinks.

The lightning that should have shattered them did not know when it turned into thousands of dandelions, and they fluttered around them and floated back to the snow.

The four ghost kings stood up and smiled, standing still not far from the palace gate, and clap their hands slowly: "It’s boring for hundreds of years, but today I saw a good show."

Chu nightning: "..."

The ink has not returned to God, and his head is still faint. Look at the four ghost kings and turn to look at the people in your arms. Suddenly realized that he was holding a teacher like this, he took over his hand. Chu nightning also returned from the shackles, he turned his face, I do not know how it looks.

After a while, I rectified the dress and stood aside without saying a word.

In order to break the shackles, the ink burned and asked the four ghost kings: "How, never swindle the prince."

"No, never."

The four ghost kings shook their heads like a smile.

"One day after another, how long have you not seen such a hustle and bustle. After all, I will let you watch a good show and go on your own. There are so many beautiful people in Wang, and there is no shortage of souls that have already become married." ""

The ink burned immediately and the heart was cheerful. I thought: These four kings can be more frank than the nine kings that had been met by Chu. Although it is a * demon, but a good rumor is a must, there is a prince looks like.

He thought so, pulling Chu will rather go.

At this time, the clouds in the sky were scattered, and the moonlight was burning on the body, and it was quietly cast a dark shadow.

The four kings did not react at the beginning, but they were still smiling. Because they looked at a rare and lively self-satisfaction, he turned and gestured to the beauty next to him and fed him a grape.

The beauty fingertips peeled off the purple purple peel, and handed the sweet and sweet flesh to the lips of the four kings. The four kings wanted to open their mouths and suddenly felt that they were wrong. They suddenly turned back and said: "Stop!"

His eyes fixed on the shadow of the ground, his eyes lifted one inch and one inch, and finally fell to the face.

"...you look, what is on the ground?"

The ink burned coveted, and this suddenly found that there was still a vague shadow in his feet!

The four kings’ playful expressions were swept away, and he picked up his narrow eyes, which shimmered with the luster before the food.

"You have a living flesh and blood, can you get hell?"

Chapter 116

Chu Xiu Ning saw the ghosts in the hands of the ghost king, immediately pushed a piece of ink, said: "Run!"

Where is the use of him to talk about the second time, the ink burned the arms of the late night, and the two rushed to the palace gate.

The direct sigh of ink gas: "The curse of the Master of Sin is really not meticulous. How can I leave a shadow for me and teach people to see the handle!"

When I heard my apprentice yelling at my master, Chu Evening did not know why there was not much reaction. Only Yu Guang took a look at the ink and wanted to say something, but he did not say it.

"Want to escape?" The four kings yelled at the back. "Which is so easy."

Both of them were very good at both, and they saw that the palace gates would be completely closed. The two men stepped on the wall and swayed. At the same time, the four kings summoned the thunder. He waved his hand and thundered in the sky and landed at the palace gate. On the top, in the meantime, the palace wall, which was originally only a few tens of feet high, suddenly rose up and seemed to be connected to the sky.

The palace gate was also closed at a very fast speed, and it was sealed down.

The ink slammed and slammed, and pulled the night of the night, and turned around, and couldn’t get out of the palace door. It’s just not caught by the four ghost kings.

This can be counted as he is beating, the kings of the ghosts have their own strengths, each has its own shortness. Although the four ghost kings are powerful, they are probably ridiculous for thousands of years. The body bones are really no stronger than other kings. Don’t let him run one mile. Let him run fifty steps, he can snoring and panting.

Upholding the ability to sit and never sit, can sit and never stand to enjoy the iron, the four ghosts lazy for thousands of years, lazy to become a light work waste.

He saw that Chu Ning and the ink burned farther and farther, and could not help but be furious, but because this goods often searched the beauty of other kings in hell, the relationship with other eight kings was not too good, so something went out. Not willing to inform the kings to join forces.

"There is nothing to run fast, this king is full! But you can't escape the palm of your hand!" The four ghost kings touched their own intestines, and some of the grievances were aggrieved, and they looked back and shouldered for themselves. The eight brave husbands are still unmoving and even more unhappy. "What are you standing on? The king's legs are noble and inconvenient to chase. Don't you chase?"

"..."

These four ghost kings are said to be a beautiful man when they are thin. Because they haven’t tasted the deliciousness of the human body for a long time, they are overeating after eating the body, sitting and eating, lying down, eating, eating and eating, even if the land is the busiest time. It’s too late to write, and it’s too late to write. It’s not about being responsible for grinding the paper, but for giving him fresh fruit and feeding the cake.

In this way, a good-looking man, a beautiful man, is hard to make himself a fat man. Although he has a good foundation, how to eat it will not be too fat, but it always goes away. After that, the four ghost kings threw all the mirrors in the palace. The most unhappy to hear on weekdays was the words "fat" and "fat". It is said that there was a pretty acolyte who sang a little song to him. The sentence is "month and a half, half moon, half moon..."

The last bend has not been said yet, and he was smashed out by the four ghost kings. He also said: "Fat fat! It is not enough to bear your two fats, but also to sing a third one. Don't think that you have opened it. The king can't hear you being derogatory and derogatory, and daring!"

Therefore, although these ghosts who carried the sedan chair were brave, they did not dare to chase after the night and the ink burned. They bowed their heads one by one, complained by the four ghost kings, and finally one of them was smart. They said: "Wang Ye is strong, Wang Ye Those who can't catch up, where can we catch up?"

The four ghost kings took a breath and simply did not chase them. They turned their heads to accompany the servant: "Well, this is a bit sensible... you have a self-knowledge. If you do, just go, pass the king, and go to the palace." The gates are all closed, the palace walls are covered with the curse of the ban, and no flies should be released."

He snorted and spit out the grape seeds that had been contained in his mouth. He said: "I see where they can go."

The ink-burning and Chu-nighting were quick-moving, and the palace was bent around, and soon the ghosts that hunt them were left behind. The two were hiding in a narrow alley, and Chu was rather a ghost. After running for a long time, he would not feel tired. Instead, he burned the flesh and leaned on the wall to breathe.

Chu night, Ning Yu looked down and said: "He sealed the palace."

The ink burned slowly and waved his hand: "It doesn't matter, Master, you come into the sacred light, so that we can return directly to the yang, he must have no way to stop."

Chu Xiaoning nodded, but did not know why, but there was some worry in the eyebrows.

The ink burned without paying attention, and the spirit light was taken out, and the curse was silently recited. However, the golden light flashed several times, and it was quickly extinguished. The soul of Chu Yuning was still standing in front of him, and it was not moving.

“What happened?” The ink burned. “How is it useless?”

The sorrowfulness between the night and the night of Chu was even more obvious. He sighed and said: "As I thought, it is ineffective to transmit the spell here. We are afraid that we can get the palace and then cast the law back to the sun."

"..." The ink burned the words, clenched his lips, his eyes were stubborn, and he was dumb, "I will take you out anyway."

Chu night Ning looked at him and said: "It's faster, the palace is vast, the ghost is not easy to find you, but there is no water, no food, no power, no support, you can't support too many days."

The ink burned: "I can stand up to hungry and come from childhood."

After a while, wait until the surroundings are completely quiet, the two out of the alley, walking on the empty bluestone long street, the cool moon is like water, soaked and returned. One has a shadow, one has no shadow, and walks side by side.

"..."

"Just at the door, offended you, can't help."

Chu nightning seems to squint, then drop the eyelashes, his eyes are cold: "Nothing."

"The situation is forced, and in words... there are also offenses and they can't help."

Chu nightning: "..."

"It’s wrong to say that you are married, or you can’t help it."

Chu night Ning suddenly stopped, cold and cold: "When you want to apologize to when? Will not say something else?"

"Other?" The ink burned, thinking quite seriously for a while, and carefully changed the word, "That... I am sorry?"

"..."

Chu night, Ning squatting away.

Poor ink burned and didn't know that he was upset by the other words, but he was afraid of disturbing him, and he was afraid to say more to make the teacher more annoyed. He scratched his head in the same place and honestly followed up.

"Master."

"Ok?"

The ink burned away halfway and couldn't help but ask: "Have you ever had any karma?"

Chu night, a meal, turned back and asked: "How to say?"

"I found another soul in your ghost world. That is to say, you have more souls than ordinary people... I used to see Chu in the SF Building, I asked him, he said that it is more The soul that came out should not be what you originally had." The ink burned some hesitation. "But with the human body, I did see four masters, so I think... the master is It’s not what happened before..."

Chu Xiaoning was silent for a while, and seemed to think of something. The bottom of the light was bright and moving, but then he closed his eyes and said, "It should not."

He paused. It seemed to be somewhat doubtful and hesitant. He then asked: "I really have four souls?"

"Ok."

"..."

Chu Evening did not know why this was. He thought for a while and sighed: "This is not something I can answer, and it has no effect on the left and right. Let him go."

While continuing to walk carefully along the path of the secluded path, the two explored the magical power of the four ghost kings to seal the entire palace.

"Where the enchantment is, there must be a loophole in the soft."

Chu said that when he came to a tower, his fingers stroking the rough wall, and the wall was covered with a shredded blue luster. He captured the flowing stream under the masonry, but because of him There is no magic ability at the moment, and it feels very laborious. After a long while, Chu Xiing has some sorrowful hands and shakes his head.

"I am incomplete and weak, and I don't know how to break through for a while."

Ink ignited: "Would you like to teach me, I will give it a try?"

"If you don't, the enchantment technique is complicated and you can learn it in a day or two."

Ink burning asked: "Where is the general point of weakness of the spell enchantment? We have to try one by one."

"...the weaknesses of each enchantment are not the same. Nothing is usually not normal. If one is measured one by one, I really don't know when to wait."

"Don't try to know." The ink burned and laughed. "Is it possible that my luck is particularly good?"

Chu night Ning is trying to say something, suddenly Yu Guang smashed into the corner of a shaking white shadow, his eyebrows pressure, habitually will summon the day to ask, the result of reaching out, nothing can not summon, can not help but face worse , Li said: "Who?!"

The white shadow is about to escape.

Where did the ink burn give him this opportunity, immediately flew past, slammed the ghost, and blinded the ghost and nose, so that he could not call, and then twisted his hands to the back and slammed it on the ground. He fixed his eyes and couldn't help but anger.

"Rong Jiu...!"

The young and delicate white squatting on the ground, such as the willows of the wind, but the eyes are stunned, he does not care, he does not say anything.

Ink burned and said: "You want to tell the secret again? You really shouldn't I kill you?!"

Chu night Ning came over, he did not see Rong Jiu, looked down and asked the ink: "Do you recognize him?"

I don’t know what to say when I burned my heart. My heart was guilty of stealing and swindling in the past. I was taken to the court of good and evil by the late night. It was because of Rong Ji’s case that he only felt that Chu’s heart was so hot that he complained. It was quite deep, but the old account book was now in front of him, but he was self-confident.

Chu nightning did not feel the same, but said that this person is an old knowledge of ink burning, said: "Since you are coming with you, then don't leave him in this palace, wait for the way to go out, take Let him go together."

He said, and carefully looked at Rong Jiuyi: "It's a good person, and the early reincarnation is the right thing."

Ink burning: "..."

Rong Jiu was still somewhat flustered. He heard what he said. He first glimpsed and then smiled. He leaned over the soft eyes and went to swear: "Is this the teacher?"

"What teacher respects, is the teacher respected by you?" The ink gas is gone, "I am a teacher!"

Rong Jiu’s heart was filled with resentment, and he was relieved of his heart. He slowly said: “Oh, my master.”

"you--!"

This is the second time, Chu night Ning smashed out something wrong: "Ink burn, you have a holiday with him?"

"I……"

Rong Ji smiled and said: "Good teacher, you can not murder him, I am not a holiday with him, and some old friendships."

He said that the ambiguity, but the tone is extremely exhaustive, Chu night rather did not make a sound, the eyes are slightly stunned, the lips are gradually picking up, squatting up very indifferent, but the gloom between the eyebrows is impossible to hide. The size of Rong Jiu is soaked in the head of the corrugated, the most meticulously observing the color, Chu Yuning this pure temper, the emotion between the eyes and the tip, how can escape his eyes?

The heart was slightly surprised. He used to burn this romantic seed. He was daring to cherish his own master. He saw the real person, but he did not seem to be a single-hearted unrequited love.

... The life and death are really dirty.

Even if the situation is in jeopardy, Rong Ji still can't help but sigh, and feels disgusting and amazed. The men's double repair in the comprehension world is not anecdote, but it is also very incompetent, and the ink rain is the son of a dead child. Actually, he was engaged with his own teacher. If it was passed out, Xue Zheng’s face would not know where to go.

Rong Jiu took a pair of charming and charming peach eyes, and looked up and down the night, and was preparing to say a few more words to add fire, but the other side spoke first.

"Death is dead, there is nothing to talk about in the old friendship."

"Isn't this the fairy king asking me?" Rong Ji smiled. "I answered the truth."

"Whoever asks you." Chu night Ning cold and cold, "I asked him from the beginning."

"He" refers to who is naturally self-evident, and the tone of the sparkling spirit in the tone, the meaning of the line with Rong Ji can not be clearly defined. The ink burned and listened to Chu’s night, leaning on himself, his heart was wide and his chest was hot. He wanted to say a few words to him. He was not close, and Chu Ning was angry and looked back.

"How do you deal with it yourself and do it yourself."

But the ink is burning in my heart, but I haven’t let it go. I’m afraid that this person will give them a scorpion when they turn back, and ventilate the letter, don’t let him go, take it with a fire/medicine bucket. As soon as I said something that should not be said, I am afraid that I can kill the night. After tangling for a while, see Chu Yuning went to the side to see the enchantment of the four ghost kings, and burned a plaque that smashed up the ninth, and lowered the voice:

"What do you want?"

"My heart is blocked, not calm." Rongjiu's eyelashes trembled thinly, and there was a shimmering light inside. "I just can't understand you. This wicked person can come from the beginning."

The ink burned knows that Rong Ji is not the kind of damage that hurts others. This guy has only done things that hurt others' self-interest. Even if they resent, it is the most important thing for him to live in comfort. He has no reason to run out and follow them at the risk of smog.

His eyes swept away and fell to the feet of Rong Jiu.

The pair of shoes that are too slender and white are wearing shoes, one is not wearing, and the mud is stained on the feet, which is obviously the result of rushing to escape.

The ink burns your eyes: "To tell the truth."

Rong Jiu: "I didn't say it? The truth is that I can't understand it--"

"You have to make another idea to lie to swear at me. I immediately blocked your eyes and blocked them. I was thrown into the hole. You are already a soul. You are hungry and hungry in the air. You can’t escape. If you are lucky, Three or five days have patrolled to find you, bad luck, you are ready to stay in the well for ten years and eight years." Ink burned, whispered, "you look at it."

Rong Jiu really changed color.

For a long while, he said: "I changed my mind. I don't want to stay here. You have to take me out."

"Why, don't you want to be your ghost?"

"..." Rong Ji bite his lip and then raises his head in angrily. "I have to live a normal life and start again." He took a deep breath and said, "I want to reincarnate."

"Okay. Then I will ask you again. Did you tell me the secret of the patrol before, let them know my trace?"

"..."

"You don't say, I have a way to judge you." The red light flashed in the hands of the ink, whispered, "said."

"Yeah, it’s my whistle, but what about it." Rong Jiu raised his chin and his eyes were filled with grievances. "If I don't want to give them directions, can I run out?"

The smoldering fiercely loosened his clothes, and he smirked with anger: "You will fall into the grave, your uncle."

"I will still have blood-sucking people." Rong Ji slowly refreshed his dress, and glanced at the night of Chu, rather than far away, "Mo Xianjun, who cares about that person? You used to How do you treat me with me, I will tell him carefully, I don’t need to add any vinegar, what do you think he will do?"

Chapter 117

The meaning of Rong Ji’s saying this means that Chu will rather feel uncomfortable and will be jealous and will not be able to stand it.

However, the ink burned but did not know that the feeling that Chu Ning had always had for him was actually love. He pondered these words and felt that Rong Jiu had to explain his own accounts to Chu Xiening, and the apprentice was so ridiculous. I listened to Master one by one, and the Master’s face still hangs? Not mad at death?

Immediately said: "Don't hit his idea!"

Rong Jiu smiled, very charming, obviously a man, but with a cloud of flowers, he said softly: "Then you even protect me, take me away, I will swear, guarantee nothing, but also No mess."

There is no such thing as ink burning, and a slamming sound, turn around and leave. Rong Jiu knew that he was acquiescence and he followed it with joy. The ink burned without taking two steps, jerked back, and the finger volleyed at him. He whispered: "Rong Jiu, if you are not honest, I promise you that even if you turn back to the well, you will not be able to touch it."

Rong Jiuyan looked at Mei Xing and said: "You don't commit me, I don't commit you, you don't bully me, I promise to be honest. Mo Xianjun, what kind of person am I, you still don't know? You are my old Have you been a guest?"

"..." It is said that the previous generation of ink burned a set of soft soft words. How disgusting it is now, but he has no choice but to go to the end of the night, and then go to the end of the night. It’s puzzling –

Was it awkward at first?

Song Qiu Tong Rongji... These are all things, how can you see it, can you like it?

If he can be born again in front of his life, he really wants to step on the neck of Xianjun, take a look at the guy’s head and see how much water is soaked in it. This one is called what's up?

Fortunately, Rong Jiufang didn’t say anything, and Chu Yuning’s person was a blank piece of paper on his feelings. Rong Ji’s veteran explained to him with a smile, and Chu’s frowning brows slowed down. Released slowly.

He even thought that the original way was that his mind was not pure, and he misunderstood the meaning of the "old friendship" of this young talent. Although his face did not change, his heart was quite awkward.

Since Rong Ji has come in, he can’t help but he is familiar with this palace. He said: “This street is small, but it is not hidden. If you want to detect the enchantment, please take it to you. a place."

Another place he said was actually a warehouse for storing ghostly woven fabrics. The white linen piled up very high to cover the whereabouts.

The three men found a remote location, and Chu’s fingers seemed to touch the wall of the patient’s veins, trying to feel the enchantment that was full of the palace at the moment.

However, after a long time, it was still impossible to detect. On the contrary, Chu’s soul became weaker and weaker. The ink burned over the back of his hand and removed his palm from the wall. He said, “You take a break.”

Chu Xiaoning was annoyed and helpless, staring at his palm and sulking: "Why is this soul less spiritual?"

"My share is for you, can you?"

"Can't use it." Chu Xiu Ning looked at Rong Jiuyi in the distance and slightly lighted his voice. "You are a human being, I am a ghost, and the yin and yang are blocked."

The place was closed for a while, and Chu Ning began to try again. If he had all three souls and spells in his body, then he could only see the powerful spirit flow into the enchantment, and he could see that the evil spirits of the four ghost kings were weak. Where is it, but he is now very insignificant and barely fits into the enchantment, just like fishing a floating leaf in the ocean, it is too difficult.

After waiting for an hour, Rong Jiu became a little anxious.

He ran over and pulled the ink: "Is it out?"

Ink ignited: "Don't worry, sit here honestly."

"I have to die in a hurry. You give me a word of approval. I can't get out."

"Immediately useless, wait."

Rong Jiudao: "You shouldn't be a very good teacher? Why is it so half a day, there is still no movement."

"His three souls are not gathered, this soul is missing a spell. Can you be quiet?"

Rong Ji listened, it looked a little sad, the eyelashes flickered, and sat back on the pile of white linen.

After another more than one hour, Rong Ji stood up and walked to the side of Chu Yuning: "Xianjun, do you have any other way?"

Chu nightning did not blink, his fingertips still stuck to the wall and said: "No."

"Then, is there any other way to let you recover some spells?"

Chu Xiaoning listened, and for a moment, he asked: "Do you have spiritual power?"

"No..." Rong Jiuwei, "Why did Xianjun ask this question..."

"You have to, pass me some to use."

Rong Jiuxi said: "Is it so easy? Then let the ink fairy..."

Chu nightning interrupted him: "His useless."

Of course, Rong Ji did not know that the ink was not a ghost. He could not use the ink, and the smile on his face immediately froze: "Why?"

"No reason, the attributes are different." Mo-burn knows that Chu is rather not good at lying, he is not the ghost of the truth, let's not let Rong Ji know, so he immediately interrupted his words, "Excuse me if you can go outside to guard If someone comes, please run back and send a letter."

Rong Ji stunned him with a look of anger, but the three men were now a grasshopper on the boat. He had to go to the warehouse door and reluctantly leaned against the door while peeling his fingernails while carrying the doubles. The peach blossom eyes of the smoke and rain swayed out.

The ink burned him and then sat down next to him.

After hesitating for a while, I still felt that I didn’t want to be fooled by the late night, and I said: "Master, I think... I want to recognize you wrong."

"What's wrong with you?"

"That is, you still remember that one year you sent me to the good and evil station to discipline, because I made a crime..." The ink burned, and there was no good intention to say obscenity. The human face is really a very delicate thing. When it doesn't matter, it can be as thick as the Great Wall. Once you care about it, it is as thin as paper.

The ink burned low, very stunned, whispered, "because I made the fourth, ninth, fifteenth commandments."

The fourth ring, theft.

The ninth ring, * / chaos.

The fifteenth ring, scam.

Of course, Chu will rather not remember, he opened his eyes, but did not look at the burning, only said: "Well."

Taking advantage of the face of Qing Jun's abstinence, the ink burned more and felt nothing, and half a sigh of eyelids hanged down, whispered: "Master, sorry."

Chu Yuening actually faintly guessed what he was going to say. Although he was annoyed in his heart, he had always been clear in the face of his major events. What happened to him was that he hadn’t known it at the moment, he was cold and cold: Haven't all been fined for you? I haven't made it anymore, and now I'm taking it out and doing something."

"Because the outside is the nine...he actually..."

The ink burned no longer, and Chu Ning has not made a sound for a long time.

For a long while, the ink burned and heard the night of Ning Xiaoning sneered: "Is it his?"

"Ok."

He did not dare to look up to see the late night of the Chu, although the death of the sorrow can not help the disciples, the young monk double repair or have a good lover outside, it is normal, but the night is not the same, Chu night Ning Xiu is the way of pure heart, he has always been inferior to the love of the love of men and women.

What's more, when I was not looking for a regular rule to find a lover, I was going to visit the tile...

Xue Zhengyi is a child who may feel indifferent. Anyway, the ink is burning in the year of the weak crown. The repair is not the way to clear the heart. It’s not good to be clear-minded. However, Chu nightning can't stand it.

He would be disgusting. When this kind of reaction was disciplined by the good and evil in that year, the ink burned clearly and clearly saw disgust, inferiority, and disgust from the eyes of Chu.

Even though I have not done the same thing for so many years in the past, nowadays, Rong Jiu actually ran into the ghost world and Chu Ningning. Can Chu Ning’s heart be comfortable? I think this is really a sentence:

Not not reporting, time has not arrived.

He was not afraid that he would beat him at night, even if he couldn’t wait for him to take another day and ask for a meal, as long as he didn’t make any mistakes, as long as he didn’t want to find this old account, it’s hard to find it. The soul of the earth ran away, and if the night of Chu was rather negative, the smoldering might really kill himself.

Therefore, the more he wants to be more uneasy, instead of keeping the fire/drug of Rongji, it is better to go to the late Qing Dynasty and recognize the wrong one.

He thought about it. When he said this, the position of the station was in the direction of the door. If Chu Jingning listened to him and left, he immediately took the big fuss and hugged the people. It doesn't matter if you get angry. In short, you can't let this person fall and disappear.

Here, the ink-burning head is practicing how to block the road of the late night, and the night of the night, the clothes are slightly moving, and the golden red silk forging shines slightly under the dim light.

The burning heart is shaking, he whispered: "Master respects..."

Chu night Ningdao: "The penalty has also been fined, and things have been going on for so long. What do you tell me about this?" He leaned over his eyes, his eyes were cold, his mouth was open and closed, and even some irony, "With me." What?"

I didn't expect him to say something about me...

The ink burned.

Chu night Ning that full of vinegar taste, he did not taste it, he only felt very confused, thought that the master was disappointed with him, unwilling to take care of him again, no longer care about him, when he was anxious, said : "Master, I used to be bad, you don't want to be angry..."

"Why should I be angry and have something to be angry about." Although the words are spoken like this, the more I think about it, the less happy I am. In the end, I will be angry at the end of the night. "I know that you are not so clean, what is old, and still Thinking about getting me?...Give me out."

"..."

"Go out!" Although I know that there is a sour taste in the export, I know that this is an old account, but Chu Ning still whispered unconsciously. "I don't know shame."

The ink burned and did not roll, sitting next to him, a pair of black and white clear and translucent eyes, so straight hooked and stared at him.

Half a sigh said: "I don't go."

Chu night Ning angered: "Go! I don't want to see you at this moment!"

"I don't go." The ink whispered, he insisted, like a broken stone, there was a hateful person, but he looked at the night, but his eyes were red, that hateful, Unprovoked and gave birth to some faint pity and stubbornness.

"I am afraid that I am gone, you will run... Master, don't leave me."

"....."

Chu night Ning did not know that he would think like this.

This matter, although it is a nausea once, but he is not the first time to know it. He knows the culture of the real world. After the weak crown, everyone who does not cultivate a heart, a man, a woman, almost a person People are inevitably a little romantic, nothing strange.

The smoldering is not Xue Meng. Xue Meng was the best cultivated and cared for since childhood. His parents are correct and his family is strict. This is not the case with other family members. But what about ink?

A casual and casual character.

Growing up in the corrugated fence.

Without a father, the mother is a musician.

He is a dog scorpion that nobody cares. Every day, he is so fierce that he is fifteen years old. He was taken back from the muddy pool by his uncle, licking his hair and muddy water.

To say that he is clear and white, a piece of jade, Chu nightning will not be a letter unless it is stupid.

But clearly and clearly, I really saw that the Rong Jiu-nong, who was in the middle of the year, was still being beaten.

He couldn't keep away from the smoldering, and he turned his head and closed his eyes to test his enchantment.

After measuring the test, I couldn't help but think of the small face of Rong Ji's white and delicate melon seeds. Is it very delicate to touch? There is also a pale pink mouth that talks and greets, the ink burns that grandson is bound to kiss, and the waist, the body... He can’t help but think about how the ink burns in the bed and the girl. The stuff is tangled up, it’s disgusting!

Some things sound like one thing, but a real glimpse is totally another matter. If you see it, you can't help but think, the more you think, the more you can't stand it. Chu night, narrowly open his eyes, the end is anger burning, he got up and pushed a piece of ink: "Get out."

"Master respect..."

"roll."

There is no way to burn the ink. I have to lower my head and slowly come out of the warehouse.

Rong Jiu, he came, some strange.

"Hey, Mo Xianjun, how come, have you quarreled with your master?"

The ink burned the roots and didn't want to care for him. At this time, he saw that Rong Ji had a headache. He loved him in his life. It was because Rong Ji was similar to the teacher. After he was born again, he was entangled with him. It was a resentment and thought. It is uncomfortable to give Rong Jiu.

But no matter what, the way you walked is just like the traces on the stakes.

Ink burning: "Don't sit here, I want to be alone, go to somewhere else."

The entrance to the warehouse is the most dangerous, and Rong Jiu Le has to leave.

But he took two steps, but couldn't help but look back and look at the ink. He suddenly became curious. He didn't know how the ink burned. How did he not see it for a few years? The temper seems to have changed so much, like what was affected. It’s really irritating.

The long eyelashes flicker and flicker, this wonderful person will look up and down on the back of the ink, suddenly felt that it is not right, and then carefully rubbed it again, his eyes will fall on the shadow of the burning foot .....

Rong Ji suddenly stopped.

Chapter 118

There is a shadow in the ink.

He... is not a dead person?

In the mind, the electric flint is flashing a lot of details. If Rong Jiu has flesh and blood, then he must be shocked by the truth, and then the blood will flow into the skull, and the brain will be chaotic.

Rong Jiumu stood stiff for a while. The reaction of a person to a major event often has a lot to do with the environment in which he lives. For example, some people are usually scared birds. When they encounter a change, they are very easy to scare their courage, and like Xue Meng’s pride. I have always been calm, and ordinary things simply can’t surprise him.

And Rong Ji, a person who lived in the mud for a lifetime, experienced the hardships that he experienced in front of the big things. The first thing that comes to mind is whether this will harm himself. If not, how should he do it? Get some benefits.

He soon realized that ink burning is a living person who is mixed into the ghost world. This is really good for himself. It is really too big.

He only shook his smoldering identity, and that was a great achievement. He was sure to find an official and part-time job in the local government. When he was elated, he was so angry that he was eager to wait for his life. After death, I can still pacify, not the body of this man.

This is really a pie that falls from the sky.

What else does he need to do to reincarnate? I will be able to live the most comfortable days, completely turn over the dishes, wash my shame, and come back again.

The peach blossom scorpion picks up slightly, and the inside is shattered, and Rong Jiu can almost see his own official seal. Like the official difference of the ghosts, he sits in the bamboo shoulders of the green gauze, and the old * is there. Take it easy.

Rong Jiuyu wants to be more gratified, but he turns to thinking and thinking that his own life is weak and weak. It is almost impossible to slip away from the ink-burning eyelids to inform the secret. Need to find a way to let the ink burn yourself?

His brains moved, his eyes fell on the body of Chu Xinning wearing a golden red suit.

"Chu Xianjun."

Rong Ji was seated next to Chu’s late night, holding a donkey and greeting people.

Chu nightning only managed to explore the enchantment, no sound, double eyes cold and cold, eyelashes are like a frosty snow.

"I haven't explored yet?" Rong Ji tried to ask.

After waiting for a while, I saw that Zhou Ning still ignored him, but did not rush him away. Rong Jiu sat on his own, some did not say a few words, then whispered: "Chu Xianjun In fact, just now, I have not told you the truth, I am afraid that you will not look down on me, I will not pity me, I will stay there alone."

Chu nightning's dark eyebrows are very strict. Although he has never spoken, there is a fire between the eyebrows, but now he is still squatting, still restrained, and does not intend to vent.

But this fire, where did you escape the eyes of Rong Jiu?

Rong nine soft and soft voice, soft and weak said: "I just thought about it outside, I feel that I should not lie with Xianjun. I don't want to go to the heart, so I want to come up with Xianjun to recognize a mistake..."

It’s a coincidence that he started this game. The beatings are just like the ink burns. They all want to “make a mistake.”

Chu night Ning was not so disgusting, but once he heard this, he finally opened his eyes, but did not look at the nine, coldly asked: "Which restaurant was in your life?"

Rong Jiuyi: "Xianjun... Did you know?"

He subconsciously glanced at the direction in which the ink burned. The dark passage was not good. The surnamed ink did not intend to sing with the late night of Chu. He was confessed one step at a time. He added a fire at this time and could still move. ?

"I and Mo Xianjun..."

When he didn't finish his words, he was interrupted by Chu Jingning: "I ask you, which restaurant was in your life."

Rong Ji bite his lip: "Xiantaolou in Zizhu Town."

"Well, Xiantaolou." Chu nightning repeated, sneer, and did not make a sound, his face was very powerful.

Rong Ji sneaked at him several times, licked his lips and tried to say: "Chu Xianjun, you will not look down on me?"

Chu nightning: "..."

"I am suffering, my body is weak, and I am being sold to the restaurant. If there is a choice, I don't want to be like Xianjun. I am cool and heroic, except for the konjac." Rong Ji said, sighed, like He muttered, "If after the reincarnation, I can become a hero like Xianjun, that would be good."

"The soul character will not change because of the reincarnation." Chu night Ning faintly said, "Sorry, but we are not all the way."

Rong Ji was blocked by him, and his face was not shaken. He bowed his head and said: "I know that I can't compare with Xianjun. It's just a matter of hope. If you don't give yourself to someone like us. I don’t want to give myself a little thought. I’m afraid I’m in the restaurant for a year and a half, and I’m thinking about killing myself.”

Seeing that the night of the night is indifferent to the song, Rong Jiu first glanced at the ink with Yu Guang, and estimated that he should not hear the dialogue between himself and Chu Yuning, and then sighed softly: "After all, the guests coming from the restaurant, They are often rough and fierce, and we are not treated as human beings. At that time, it was a dazzling job to be able to pick up a friend like Mo Xianjun."

Chu Xi Ning still said nothing in a single sentence, but the back of the hand against the wall is like a meridian burst. If he has spiritual power, I am afraid that this wall can be poked out by five holes.

He forbeared for a while, still couldn't hold back, said very lowly: "What can be seen."

On the face of Rong Ji’s soft and charming face, there is a hint of affection, not much more, just right.

"Mo Xianjun is a good person. Although he ended up being confused and took my money, I thought that it was probably that I had never served him before. He was always reasonable in the past, and his temper was also pleasing. ”

Chu night Ning looked cold and listened in silence.

"In our building, everyone who has accompanied him is thinking of his goodness. Many nephews are looking forward to seeing him come again."

"...Does he go often?"

Rong Jiuyi made a bitter smile: "How do you count it often? If you ask me, I don’t know how to count it."

"Then you said how often he went once, who he was going to find, and when he went last time." Chu Xiaoning's thin lips and the knife hit the next touch, all the problems are splashing cold, can you The burning of life.

Rong Jiu can't see the snow in the eyes of Chu's late eyes, and replied with grievances: "How long does it take, I don't remember this, but for 30 days, I can always see him in ten days. Who to look for...not fixed, hey, but this is a thing of the past, Chu Xianjun would have to blame him again..."

"I asked you when you last went." Chu’s face was almost frozen, "say."

In fact, after the day when the ink burned itself, I never went to the meeting again, and I never went to the restaurant kiln again.

However, Rong Jiu’s face was late, and the mind couldn’t answer a truth. He was confused and added a firewood: “This is also true of me... but it’s not until I die, occasionally in the restaurant. I can see the figure of Mo Xianjun... It should be not far away."

The voice did not fall, Chu night stood up, and the long five fingers were withdrawn, and the wide sleeves fell.

In the darkness of the night, the whole person was shaking slightly, and his eyes were splashed with a hot spark.

Rong Jiu’s heart sneaked out, and the secret sect was simply deceived. He was a little sly in the wind and the moon. He knew that he could pinch the minds of others. As long as he opened his mouth, Chu Zhongning’s decent person would be hooked.

However, Rong Jiu’s face was already prepared, and he was busy. “Chu Xianjun, what’s wrong, is it what I said wrong? For example, now this is a past life, but don’t blame it again. Xianjun...he...he is not a wicked person..."

"Is he a wicked person who needs you to tell me?" Chu night trembled and sighed, "I learned the apprentice, and I got you in charge?!"

"Chu Xianjun..."

Chu Xiaoning simply ignored him. His eyes were full of coolness, but the coolness was splashed with blazing anger. He pushed open the nine in front of him and strode toward the door of the warehouse. He picked up the collar of the ink and picked him up.

The ink burned and was shocked, and turned back: "Master?"

Chu night Ning took over his hand and seemed to feel that his collar was dirty. He looked like a cheetah who was screaming and waiting to catch up. He stared at the burning face, and he was so angry that he said a word. Not coming out.

What else can he say?

The punishment of the evil and evil Taiwan did not make the ink burned, and clearly recognized the fault. In front of him, a pair of people-like gestures...

Who knows what else will be secretly going to the peach floor and the small sleeves? !

I don’t know that I’m yin, but I’m seeing that the night is full of twilight, and my expression is indignation and disgust. I don’t know if I’m wrong, but there is still a series of repressed grief.

"Ink rain, what you said, how many sentences are true, a few sentences are fake?"

Chu Xiaoning’s voice is hoarse and hoarse, and the eyelashes are sloppy.

"...you...what is the bad character, the quality is difficult...!"

This sentence is like a meteorite falling into the sea, stirring up the water.

The ink burned and shook, stepping back two steps, shaking his head and staring at him.

wrong……

wrong……

This is the story of Chu Yuening’s disappointment to himself in his last life.

Why is it so good, will he say it again?

The ink burned did not know what happened, and he was anxious when he arrived. He wanted to speak, but he was interrupted by Chu Ningsheng. The hatred of Chu’s eyes was like wildfire, and he seemed to burn his eyes.

He hoarsely said: "How long do you have to lie to me?!"

The burning mind is in chaos.

What deceive? What did Chu Xiaoning know?

He had too many dirty and unfortunate past events, and he couldn't take out the countertops. So he saw such a terrible look at Chu's late night, and he didn't even think of it as a ghost. Chu night Ning step by step, ink rain slowly step back, until the retreat, the back is attached to the wall.

Chu Xiaoning stopped, he looked at the burning face, a few dead, and the sound of his master's voice was so swallowed.

"What do you want me to do back? Continue to be cheated by you, be mad at you, turn around in your drums... I thought you were good at burning - I thought that my nephew could teach me that you are getting better. I thought I could teach you..."

He slowly closed his eyes, half a sigh, and whispered.

"The dead wood can't be carved."

"Master -"

"roll."

"..."

"Can't you understand the roll?!" Chu nights and squatting, the inside is cold, "Mini rain, you let me down too much. You let me know what to pretend, and then return with you. Yang?"

The ink burned heart was tight, regardless of his annoyance, grabbed his wrist under the wide sleeves, shook his head, and his eyes were wet red: "Master, don't be angry, what happened, you told me, no. Ok? If I am wrong again, I will change, okay? You don’t want to drive me away...”

Changed... At that time, the ink burned and said that it had to be changed, changed? If you don't meet Rong Ji, can you know these broken things? !

It is said that care is chaos, Chu night Ningyuan is the most calm person, but his temper is fierce, emotionally more arrogant, plus Rong Jiu and ink burned the previous relationship is really unbearable, Rong Jiu played like, so Suddenly, he scammed Chu Xiening into it.

Chu nightning was burned by ink and could not get out of it. Under the wrath, he raised his hand to call for heaven, but where can he call it?

His temper is crumbling, and if he is a living person, he should vomit and bleed.

Suddenly, a red light flashed from the glare, and the ink burned to the devil. He handed the ghost to the hands of Chu Yuning, and he kneels in front of the master, but the other hand is still holding the night. Wrist, for fear that he will leave at any time. Ink burning: "Master, I know myself... I have done a lot of things that make you angry and make you sad... But after coming to the ghost world, what I said to you is true."

He looked up and held his tears and looked at him: "It's all true, I didn't lie to you..."

Chu night Ning groaned with a ghost, and his heart was burning with anger, but he felt very uncomfortable. The power of holding his own ink was so big, he could not stop shaking, almost desperate, but he refused to let go. His pain seems to be so deep in his soul, how can he not feel it?

Ink burning: "If you don't want to forgive me, if you don't want to forgive me, then you can beat me, you can. If you really don't want to see me again... I feel like... I feel bad... Oh..."

He said here, he choked.

The ink burned down and squatted in front of the night.

"If the Master really doesn't want to... want me again..."

He didn't want Chu to rather see him crying, but his shoulders could not help but tremble, tears fell, dripping on the ground, silently tainted.

"I will, after that, leave the dead and alive...more... no longer appear in front of the master... but beg you...please beg you..."

He groaned, his forehead almost stuck to the muddy ground, but the hand that held the wrist of the late night, but the shackles were so tight, so stubborn, the death did not loosen.

"I beg you, don't go."

"..."

"Master respect..."

Chu nightning closed his eyes.

"You promised me, go back with me, beg you, don't go..."

The heart is painful and sour, obviously it is just a smashing soul, why is it like a knife cut, the fire is burning.

Chu night, Ning 蓦 蓦 , , ,

His repeated questioning made Chu late Ning more and more dizzy, trying to open him, but could not open.

The ink burned suddenly felt that something was wrong, and suddenly turned his head and looked into the warehouse -

Rong Ji’s guy, screaming at the two men in full swing, and when they couldn’t get into the second person in their eyes, they sneaked out and ran away! !

醍醐 醍醐 , , ,

one of the main alleys to one place, like a fire snake that vomited letters, and smacked them.

On the surface of Rong Jiu, there is brilliance. The body that has been weakened by the bullying in the past is trying to chase after the night and the burning of the ink. It is like a hungry wolf chasing the prey. He feels that he is doing his first job. Extremely beautiful, I actually sent out some heroic enthusiasm.

"Catch them - catch the living person who is good at ghosts!"

Halfway through, the arm was suddenly screwed. Looking back at the nine anger, but seeing the former captain who was detaining himself, could not help but feel guilty, but still angered: "Catch me what to do! Still not to catch the people in front?"

"They ran away without authorization. Don't you want to run without it?" The captain of the guard squinted and looked at him with ill will.

Rong Jiu was shocked and said: "I, I want to run for the four kings, I am the living person I found... I found that the ink is not a ghost, you don't want to catch me, so for four. The king rushed in front of him!"

The captain of the Guards was first stunned, and then he pondered over, and he laughed: "What did you find first? You have merit? Hahaha, I rob you of your credit?"

That pleasant smile is tightened.

"I think you want to be crazy in the first place! The living man is personally picked up by the four kings! Otherwise, you think that in order to stop an ordinary devil, the four kings used to seal the entire palace with enchantment? Ha, Still robbing, I see you squint, and you have to grab the four kings!"

The Rongjiu earthquake, a squat at the foot, suddenly fell to the ground.

In front of him, the squadron of the squadron rushed past, chasing the back of the ink burning and Chu Xiaoning, Rongjiu lips trembled, unable to tremble, muttered: "I have already discovered it? The ghost king has long been... I came out ?I...I am not the first one? No, no credit? I..."

The singularity of the wind and the rich scenes that seemed to greet each other seemed to crash into the ground, and they were smashed by the yin of the surrounding savage.

Rong Jiuyi for a while, suddenly mad, struggling to fight forward, his figure is weak, like a humble but unwilling to admit his life, like a mosquito moth that died.

His life has never been easy, there is only one bed, man, rich, and often come.

A small house that is not seen in the sky, the reed brain golden beast, the morning faint is difficult to distinguish, that is his life.

It’s too dark, the night never ends, he wants tomorrow, he is willing to for tomorrow, for the hope of the first line of life, to exude his dignity, body, face, goodwill, conscience... These are his only things.

In order to get the light, I only have fire.

"Wait! Wait for me! Chu Xianjun, save me -!"

"Catch him up! Debt privately, and then give it to the four kings to review!"

"No - don't!" Rong Jiu's pale, bloodless fingers clung to the ground, his hair was struggling, and a pretty face with a flowery appearance was particularly horrible under the horrible moonlight. His eyes were violent and tumultuous. Kneeling, "Don't! Chu Xianjun, save me!" He muttered hysterically for a while. "I found it first! The living person I discovered first! It is me! You can't do this to me! Without me, you are looking for it." Not both of them! You have to grab my benefits, you have to grab my credit!"

He was towed, pulled away, and the mad scream was quickly overwhelmed by the rumbling footsteps...

The author has something to say: Go out of the ghost world tomorrow~~

Regarding Rong Jiu, I will not write the end. He is on the road and no one gives him a beacon. He also lacks the opportunity to be good. Finally, he will come here, and he will be distressed by his sister. The interaction of the four ghost kings 23333

Chapter 119

Although Chu Evening did not hear what Rong Ji shouted at the back, he did not need more explanations. He also understood that it was only in the warehouse that Rong Ji deliberately provoked him, asked him to be angry, and look good on time. Escape to inform.

I think that I will think twice about things I have encountered, but now I have become more concerned about the things related to ink burning, but I have been able to make a second idiot swindle in a few words, and Chu Ning is somewhat embarrassed.

He looked at the burning place in front of him and couldn't help but ask: "Are you later... Have you ever visited Xiantaolou?"

I can't help but hear the name that I am almost forgotten by myself. I burned my feet and sighed with anger. "Yongjiu is a beast! He said that I went to Xiantaolou again later! How can I go there again! Master you Is it because I am angry with me, saying that I lied to you?"

"..."

"I have never been to those who have never been to me after the good and evil.... In those places, I have never deceived the Master. If the Master does not believe it, I will use the ghosts to tie me up and interrogate."

"……no need."

Chu Xiuning lowered his eyes and looked at the ghosts in his hands. He thought that if he didn’t ask, he would use the Liu Li, who was filled with spiritual power, to burn his skin, and it was really...

Wait a minute, Shenwu? !

The glaring fire illuminates his eyebrows in the night, and Chu nighting stares at it for a moment, and his heart has turned up the storm, trying to infuse the spirit in the ghost into his palm, and feels awkward at the time. Enthusiastic power is constantly coming.

Chu Xi Ning suddenly understands where to get the source of spiritual power -

Between the living and the dead, although they can no longer pass each other's spiritual flow, but the spiritual power of Shenwu does not matter, the ghosts and gods, as long as the weapons themselves do not resist, then they are common!

The ink burned halfway, and suddenly Chu stayed in the footsteps. He immediately turned back and asked anxiously: "Master, what happened?"

There was still color on his face, bloody, and the black eyes were more and more pitiful.

Chu night Ning licked his lips, both awkward and somewhat intolerant, but the self-respect and pride in his bones made him feel that although he was smashed, this kid was indeed entangled with Zhang Sanrongji.

So thinking for a moment, Chu nightning did not know what tone he should use, what face to face him, so he had to be simple, continue to have no tone, and no expression:

"The ink burns, you stand, and go back to the palace wall."

"……doing what?"

Chu night Ning faintly said: "Give you a trick."

"..."

I still haven't responded to what the teacher said. It is the source of the red light source that flows to the ghost of Chu's late life, and the whole soul is covered with a hot flame. The ink burned with big eyes, and the night of Ning and the ghosts echoed for a moment. Suddenly the flame disappeared. The man in the golden red robe rushed to the willow, and turned back to himself:

"Ink burning, the next order to hell."

The ink burned vaguely knew what he was going to do. Although it was unbelievable, he immediately shouted: "Hell, the teacher is like me, listen to his orders."

Liu Teng smashed in the hands of Chu, and burst into a string of sparkling red sparks. The willows on the vines were full of sparkling light.

Chu Xiaoning raised his other hand, and his fingertips wiped the vine body in an inch and an inch. Wherever he passed, Guanghua surging. Thousands of yin soldiers have already arrived at the front of the two people. They are behind the towering towers, and the palace walls that have been sealed up by enchantment have no way to retreat.

However, Chu Xiaoning did not intend to retreat.

I only saw a gleaming splash in his gaze, floating a thousand layers of scorpion, the hurricane swelled, the robes danced wildly, and Chu nightning held a sway of Liu Teng volley, and the ghosts rushed out like a dragon. , shine through the night!

Hearing the instructions of the ink-burning, and no longer rejecting the late night, but the spiritual power of his own strength, continuously gathered in the soul of the late night.

In the late night of the Chu Dynasty, there was a dazzling brilliance of the brilliance, and the voice was calm and steady: "Hell, people!"

"Boom--" In the blink of an eye, countless golden and red interlaced willows broke through the ground, tearing the majestic temple into pieces of broken bricks, and the thick ancient vines clung to the ghosts and ghosts, dragging them to Liu The center of the vine is sealed.

The ink burned and glared at all of this, watching the martial arts and the remnant of the soul echo, blending.

Looking at the Chu night Ning robes flying, the ink is like a cloud.

After the death of his life, it was the blazing glory of this earth-shattering, unstoppable.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Chu Xi Ning slammed back and put his hand on the palace wall. It was only a closed-end effort, and immediately broke the weak point of the enchantment.

"Up to nine feet, four inches to the right, you use fire attack!"

The ink burned immediately as he said, and when the ghosts in the palace had not yet come to the reaction, the curse of the fire was gathered in the palm, and it slammed down to the position pointed by Chu Yuning!

In an instant, the earth moved to the mountain, and the palace wall of the sky quickly collapsed and restored to its original high appearance. The seal enchantment that guarded the surrounding area was also instantly split and collapsed into powder.

"Go out!"

Needless to say the second time, the ink burned to the wall, and the body will pull back the late Chu Ning, who came out from the four ghosts and palaces. The figure is extremely fast and disappears into the night...

In the narrow lane, Mo’s night and the smoldering one leaned against a wall and looked at each other. Nothing was said. In the end, the ink did not hold back. He laughed first: “The old ghost is afraid Exhausted... Hey!" He licked his mouth and the wound on his cheek hurt.

"..." Chu Yuning said, "Don't laugh."

I don’t laugh when the ink burns. In the dark alley, his eyelashes move lightly, and the black and warm eyes look at each other: "Master, you are not angry with me?"

If he said "Master, you yell at me", then Chu will rather feel uncomfortable listening, but he asked himself if he was still angry, and Chu nightned for a moment, silently circumvented the topic: "... ...you are quick to cast spells. We escaped from the four ghost kings' palaces. He has no face to talk to other ghost kings for a while, but it may not be long after dragging."

When he heard this, he knew that Chu would rather not leave, and he would not leave. The heart that had been close to him from the moment was finally relaxed.

The ink burned and couldn't help but laughed: "Well." He smiled and hurt, and could not help but lick his face.

Chu nightning: "....."

The ink burns out the soul-collecting lamp, holding it in the hand, bowing his head and silently chanting the curse. After three rounds of reciprocation, the soul-lighting lamp suddenly emits dazzling brilliance, and the person who shines can't open his eyes.

He seems to have heard the screaming voice of the master of sin, passing through the rushing water of Huang Quan, passing through the quiet and peaceful forgetting of the river.

"When will it come back... When will it come..."

The voice was very far-reaching and almost impossible to distinguish. After a while, the humming of "When to return" seemed to be closer, and then the voice of the master of sin was ringing in the ink.

"Why are there two souls?" There is a trace of doubt in the voice of the master of guilt.

When the ink burns and closes the eyes, he will say things to his sins in his mind.

The voice was quiet for a moment and said: "Have you seen the Chu of the SF Building?"

"Ok."

"..."

"Grandmaster?"

"Nothing, since Chu Gongzi said that there are two souls that are normal, that should be the case." He said, "It’s just that barren has never tried to recall two souls from the ghost world at the same time. It will be a little longer, and the troubled ink donor will wait a little longer."

The ink burned the four kings palace and asked: "How long will it take? We will come out from the four ghost palaces, I don't know when they will catch up..."

"It won't be too long, please ask the donor."

When the crime is dropped, the voice is even more faded. After a while, it is completely overwhelmed by the humility of "when to return."

Chu Xiaoning couldn’t hear the voice of guilty, and frowned slightly: "What?"

“The teacher’s soul is special, the master said that he needs to wait a second.” Mo burned, “It’s too close to the palace, let’s go further.”

Chu Xiaoning nodded, and the two went to a corner. At this time, the sky was already bright. The old man who was guiding the road was preparing to collect the stalls. When he saw the ink, "Oh," he was very surprised.

"Looking for someone?"

The ink burned did not expect to hit him again, and stunned, and then said: "Looking, looking for it, thank you."

"What is thankful for this is that Xiaoxianjun is good for himself. Hey...has your face broken?"

"Oh, it was whipped by the ghosts of the sinisters."

"No wonder, I said that ordinary things should not hurt ghosts, oh... this should hurt."

The old man thought for a moment, put the packed drawers down again, cooked two bowls of small oysters, and gave them to them. "There are no sales left today. Please eat some and leave."

The ink blew the road, thanking the old man and picking up the burden, and going far away, this put the soup bowl on the small stone bench next to it.

Chu nightning does not like to eat green onions, the old man’s soup sprinkled some chopped green onion, the ink burned the bowl of green onion in front of him, and then confronted the night in front of Chu, and said: "Master, eat this Bowl."

"..." Chu night Ning took a look at him, did not push it, picked up the spoon and slowly tasted it.

The ink burned and he watched him eat. The cold soup head of the ghost world touched his pale lips, and the soup and the soup were all divided, and the authentic ghosts were eaten.

"Tasty?"

"It's still."

"The dragon that you didn't do is delicious."

"Cough!" Chu night Ning couldn't get out of defense, as if he had been picked up, he looked up slyly, squinting at the person holding his eyes and smiling at him, and suddenly felt like a strong shell. The rivers that were exposed to the sun in the hot sun were gone.

"...What dragon is a copy?"

The elders of Yu Heng squinted and looked solemn, trying to fill the stupidity and hide the teacher who had fallen to the ground.

"Don't pretend." But when the teacher Wei hadn't picked it up, he was smashed by the smoldering out of his hair.

Chu Yuening was very angry and frustrated.

"I know it."

"..."

The smoldering lantern that took the human soul was taken out of the sacred sac, and placed on the side of the stone bench. He said: "When the teacher is alive, he is awkward and comes to the land, and only the soul is honest."

"I am doing it for you, but it is..."

The ink burned his eyebrows and looked at him like a smile.

But what is it?

What is your heart? Are you afraid of being hungry? Quite regret?

He can't say these words.

Chu Xiaoning felt that his heart was hidden. He always had more self-esteem than ordinary people. He regarded "good for others", "loving one person" and "attaching" as a shameful thing. In the wind and rain, he was used to it, and became a towering towering giant.

This kind of giant wood, never like a flower, trembles, irritating, and does not sway like vine snails, swaying in the wind, itching.

He was only so silent and solemn, very steady, and very reliable. He silently sheltered the passing people from the wind and rain, and let the people who leaned under the trees enjoy the cold.

Perhaps it is because the birth is too high, too lush, people must deliberately look up, only to find - ah, the original gentle shade, he cast.

But those who came and went, no one raised their heads and no one found him.

People's vision is always used to seeing places lower than themselves, to be more than their own, so he gradually gets used to it, and getting used to it becomes nature.

In fact, no one in the world is born to be a dependent, born to be dependent.

Those who are always attached to the strong will become more and more charming, softer and softer, stretch the boneless waist, and seek a world with welcoming, flattering, sweet words.

Another kind of person, such as Chu Yuning, has been a dependent person since he came out of the mountain. Such people will become more and more resolute and stronger, and later they will become iron and their hearts will become hundreds. Steel making. These people are used to the weakness of others, and they are so eager to reveal the softness of a star and a half.

They are the ones who hold the sword and must be fully armed and ready to go.

Do not expose the soft ribs, but do not know what is gentle township.

After a long time, it seems to have forgotten. In fact, when I was born, I was affectionate and tender. When I was a child, I would cry and laugh when I was a child. I would fall and climb myself. I also longed to have a hand to help myself. .

He may have looked forward to expecting a person to help him. But I waited once, no, the second time, still not, he gradually got used to it in the loss of time and again. When someone really comes to help him, he will only feel that it is unnecessary and feels shame.

Just fell for a while.

If the legs are not broken, why bother.

If the leg is broken, this kind of person will think again.

Oh, it’s just that the leg is broken, and it’s not dead. Why bother.

If it is dead.

When you are a ghost, you have to think about it. Hey, anyway, he is dead. He said that there are more emotions.

They are trying to get rid of the temperament of being a weak person, but unconsciously, they fall into another kind of temperament, one by one suffering from self-esteem and incurable.

The ink burns this incurable person and sees what he wants to say.

After all, Chu Xiaoning did not say anything, licked his lips and put the spoon down.

He is very unhappy.

So after a long while, he stood up and said, "You try to apply a method, I will go into the sacred light."

"Ah..." The ink burned and smiled. "Is the soul-lighting a conch shell? If you are embarrassed, you will hide in."

Chu night Ning looked majestic and looked at his sleeve: "Sorry? You talk about it, what am I embarrassed?"

"The teacher is sorry, of course, because..."

"!" I didn't expect him to be able to talk thickly, and Chu Ning was like a needle, and he said, "You stay."

"Because it is good to me."

"....."

The ink burned and stood up. The red clouds of the ghost world floated across the sky, and the faintly crooked moon that covered it covered the head, sprinkling a layer of frost on the ground and illuminating the burning face.

He no longer laughs, his expression is solemn and solemn.

"Master, I know that you are good to me. I said these words now, I don't know if you can remember after returning to the soul, but... I want to tell you anyway. From now on, you will It is one of the most important people in my world. I have done a lot of ridiculous things in the past. I have the best masters in the whole world, but I still feel resentful. Now I just want to come, I just regret it."

Chu night Ning looked at him.

Ink burning: "Master is the best and the best, and the disciple is the worst and worst."

Chu Zhongning was originally a little uneasy in his heart, but he was so clumsy when he heard the ink burned with his pitiful words and tried to express himself and did his best.

For a long time, I couldn’t hold back, and finally I smiled.

"Oh." He nodded and repeated. "Master is the best and best teacher. The apprentice is the worst and worst apprentice. You finally have some self-knowledge."

Chu Yuening is never a greedy person. He gives a lot to others. He always asks for very little. Although he does not get the feeling of burning, he can be the most important person and be the best teacher. That's not bad either.

He was a man who was emotionally poor and screaming, so poor, but not willing to beg.

Someone is willing to give him a small piece of hot biscuits.

He felt very happy, and he was very satisfied with a small mouth and a small mouth.

It was this stupid guy who burned this piece of soul, and he was laughed at by this piece of soul. He was so happy that he couldn’t tell the joy. He said, "Master, you should smile more, you laugh more than not. Laugh and look good."

Chu nightning did not smile.

Self-esteem. I feel that "good-looking" is the praise that wildflowers and weeds have to show off in style. For example, he does not want to.

I can't burn the eye-catching meditation and praise his good teacher: "You know, you know, you laugh... oh...only that word can describe..."

He is trying to figure out what kind of words can express the beautiful scenery that he only saw.

Related to laughter.

The scorpion of the local government rang three times.

This person is blessed to the soul and blurted out: "Yes! With a smile!"

"..."

Chu nightning is really angry this time, he is no longer willing to pay attention to ink burning, suddenly waved his sleeves, took the lead light, and sighed: "Ink rain, you still do not cast spells? You If I talk more about nonsense, I will go back to the four royal palaces on my own, and it will be better to return to the world and listen to your nonsense all day long!"

The ink burns.

Happiness Jiuquan... Is he using it wrong?

In the Yin Cao government, there is a particularly nice smile, no, no problem...

After the dispute at the intersection, there was some publicity. I didn’t know where I was wrong, but since the master told him to shut up, he shut up. Thinking this way, the ink burned his head and pulled the night to a corner. At this time, the slow singing in his mind has become more and more loud, and the ink burned and tried to ask for sin: "Master, is it alright?"

There was a moment of silence, and the sound of the wooden fish came, and the voice of sin seemed to be in the ear, and it became very clear.

"It’s right now."

When the guilty voice is falling, a little golden light is scattered from the second soul of Chu’s late night, and the soul standing in front of it becomes more and more faded with the golden light, and finally turns into a ray of fire, Galaxy. All of them broke into the soul light.

The ink burned the sound of the master's voice, passing through the rushing water of Huangquan, passing through the quiet and peaceful forgotten reed.

"When will it come back... When will it come..."

All the bitterness is gradually washed away into paleness in this long Buddha's voice that is close to sigh. The ink burns with the spirit of the soul, only the body is getting lighter and more vain.

"Boom!"

A crisp and hard wooden fish ring.

Like a sharp blade, suddenly smashed this stunned temper.

The ink burned and blinked, and seemed to be awakened!

Everything in the ghost world has dissipated, just like a big dream made not long ago. He found himself lying on a bamboo pole, and the bamboo poles docked at the bridge of the dead and the dead. Under the bamboo film, the flowing water was flowing and the waves were splashing.

The sky is crab blue, but it has been stained with some thin red. The bamboo leaves on both sides of the river are flying, and the thousands of leaves are fresh and tender.

Dawn seems to be coming.

He blinked openly.

Suddenly I found that the light of the soul in my arms was gone, and I was so shocked that I suddenly sat up.

"Master -!"

"Don't shout."

Someone said faintly.

The ink gasped, like a person who had experienced a nightmare, turned pale face palely, and saw the sinful sitting on the shore, knocking on the wooden fish resting on the bluestone, picking up the eyelids.

"You shout, he can't hear it at the moment."

The soul-inducing lamp rests on the edge of the wooden fish, overflowing with colorful light, Jin Huizhen, Chu Xinning's soul power, can not tell the beautiful.

I was guilty of sinning and igniting the light. I stood up from the rock and nodded to the ink: "Ink, you are doing very well."

The ink burned up and jumped from the bamboo pole to the shore. Pulling the guilty suspicion and asking: "Master, let's go to the Frost Heaven Hall to find the servant's body? Come a little faster, I am afraid that the soul will be scattered again."

I couldn’t help but smile: "Which is so easy to disperse?" Then he said, "You don't worry, the poor has already let Xue Shizhu go to talk with your head. The night of the night is supposed to have been Move to the red lotus otter, where the barren is going to retreat and cast the law, and the soul of your master will be once again into the body."

Inkburn said: "Let's go, let's go!" I saw the look of guilty sin and laughter, and said: "The master is slow, no hurry, no hurry."

Can be divided into eyebrows wrinkled, feet consciously marching forward, and some want to reach out to pull the sleeves of sin, how can there be a little bit of anxious appearance.

He shook his head in guilty sigh and smiled and said: "The little donor is also useless."

The ink burned and waved again and again: "No hurry, no hurry, no hurry, it is important."

"Yeah, it's important to be secure, the soul is inseparable, and you can't immediately return to the flesh. Otherwise, you can go against the sky and it's easy to fly. The barren nature is slowly coming."

"Right right, good, come slowly." The ink burned and echoed, but still couldn't help it, hesitated and asked carefully, "How long will it take for the Master to resurrect?"

The crime is very calm: "Five years."

"It turns out that five years are five... five years??!!"

The smoldering was shocked and I felt that I was hit.

"The fastest five years."

Ink burning: "....."

The author has something to say: When the Master is officially awake, what he sees will be the Burning 2.0~~ Come on! Prepare for system upgrade!

Chapter 120

The beginning of the pilgrimage, the red clouds are all over the sky. Although the time is still early, there are already a large number of disciples gathered in the lotus pond. They are dressed in sorrow, they are all coveted and stand on both sides of the road.

"咚-咚-咚-"

The sound of the morning bell came from the Tongtian Tower, and several people in the distance carried the coffin slowly. The first is Xue Zhengyi, the elder of the wolf, the back row is ink, Xue Meng. Left and right, the teacher and a monk who is half-old and old. They stepped on the slippery bluestone road and gradually came from the mist.

The monk carried a lantern and it was bright tomorrow, but the brilliance of the lantern was still not lost in the daytime. The golden brilliance was like a summer flower, and it was dazzling.

The disciples have bowed their heads and sighed. They have heard that the master of guilty sins of the Temple of Nostalgia has made a special trip for the elders of Yu Heng, and it is sure that this sinister singer is. For this legendary figure, the younger generations are still awe and overwhelmed by curiosity. On the long mountain road, no one dared to look carefully, only to hear the scepter, and saw a pair of smashing shoes in the hanging field. After that, the master went so far, leaving everyone standing.

The coffin was steadily carried all the way, because it was a resurrection, not buried, and no one was crying. When I arrived at the Honglian Water Margin, I was guilty of guilty and said: "Just put it in the lotus pond, where there is plenty of aura and it is easy to cast spells."

"Well, listen to the master!" Xue Zhengxuan led the rest of the people and put Xuan Bingyi there. "There is still a need for the master, even though the opening is. You saved Yuheng, it saved me. Xue is a half-life, and Xue Mou will try his best to help!"

"Thank you for the good intentions of Xue Zhangmen." He said with sin, "There is no need for poverty. If it is in the future, it will not be late."

"Cheng, the master can be very welcome."

He was guilty of sinning his hands and smiling. He smiled at Xue Zhengyi and then turned to look at other people: "Being poor, not for the elders of Chu, it takes five years. In order to avoid confusion, since the day From then on, the Honglian Shuiyu will close the door and thank the guests. After five years, the resurrection of the Elder Chu will be reopened."

Although Xue Meng had already heard about it before, but once again confirmed from the guilty mouth that the teacher would wake up five years later, he could not help but still be blind. Silently lowered his head.

"If the donors want to say goodbye to the elders of Chu, please go to the side. After today, it will take more than a thousand days to meet again."

Everyone went in turn.

First, Xue Zhengxuan and the elders, they all said goodbye before the embarrassment, Xue Zheng said: "I wish to meet soon."

Greedy Wolf Road: "Wake up early."

Ruan said: "May everything go smoothly."

Lu Cun sighed: "Some envy of you, five years of freezing, and it will not appear old."

The rest of the elders were more or less short, and each had some rhetoric. Soon it was Xue Meng’s turn. Xue Meng originally wanted to endure it, but he used to be used to it. He didn’t hold back, and finally he fell in tears on the night of the night. .

While wiping his tears, he whimpered: "Master, you will practice the knife if you are not there. After the Lingshan Conference, I will never give you a face. When you wake up, I will tell you my good name. Under the command of my teacher, there is no disciplinary disciple."

Xue Zhengyi walked over and patted him on the shoulder. Xue Meng did not take his father as usual, but turned his nose and reluctantly turned away. He does not want to be a young boy who relies only on his father in front of the master.

Then I went to the teacher, and the teacher’s eyes were moist. I didn’t say anything. I looked down at Chu’s night for a while and retreated to the side silently.

After he left, a pale pink Begonia flower was gently placed in the coffin. The hand that was resting on the flower still had some juvenile forms, but it was already very slender.

The ink burned on the side of the lake, and the wind blew gently across the lake, sending the lotus sweet and sweet. The shredded hair on his forehead was blown a little, but he raised his hand and sorted out the face of Chu Xiaoning.

The ink burned his lips, and there seemed to be a lot of words to say, but in the end, it was just hoarse and gently said: "I am waiting for you."

Waiting for you?

He did not say. He felt that he should want to say that when you wake up, it seems that he only said this sentence and felt that it was not enough. It seems that he can't express his inner feelings of fullness and crowdedness. His heart is like a hot magma. When the magma can't find an accurate exit, he runs rampage in his heart and hits him with a panic. .

He felt that one day his heart would be broken, and when the lava would run out, he would be ash in the wrath of the sea.

But now, he is still not sure what the hot feelings are.

So he only said "wait for you."

The red lotus water is finally closed.

The huge enchantment falls like a door that divides life and death and keeps everyone out.

Since then, Xia He's fragrance, winter snow and silence, for five years, no one else can enjoy in the water.

The bamboo leaves are bleak, the sea otters fall, and from the outside of the red lotus rafts to the front of the mountain gates, the disciples have fallen, and the three burning, Xue Meng, and Shi Yi are at the forefront of this endless river.

Xue Zhengzheng Sheng Zhenlinmu, ringing the line of clouds: "Send, Yuheng elders retreat."

The disciples sighed and said: "Gong Gong, Yu Heng elders retreat."

Thousands of people's voices were mixed and flowed into the stream, bursting into the lingering death of the smoke, and the crows were screaming, screaming and screaming, and daring around the treetops. The rumbling voice is like a thunder, rolling over the clouds, straight through the Han.

"Gong Gong, the teacher retreats." The ink whispered.

Long down.

Shoujun five years.

After Yu Heng retreats, the three prostitutes under his seat are not willing to temporarily work on the rest of the elders.

Due to the qualifications, the mind and other reasons, the teacher and Xue Meng stayed on the mountain, and the ink burned the choice.

However, the reason why he made this choice, in addition to his own suitable for the experience, but also because of the heavy life, there are many things that are different from the past, and do not say the change of Chu Yuning here, the most worried about him is the fake hook Chen.

There is a speculation in his heart that the person who has been hiding behind the scenes is also born again. After all, this person can say that there is a total of eight or nine for the mastery of the chess game, and until the last life until he died, there is no second person in the world to play this access control to such a degree.

Investigating the identity of the person is not his strength. After experiencing the battle of Choi Butterfly Town, the entire comprehension community is concentrating on it, waiting for the old man in the dark night to reveal the fox tail. This does not require him to intervene too much. .

Ink burning knows that he is not smart, only abundance and abundance, and his talent for cultivation is amazing. Since he is destined to have another battle in the future, what he can do is to return himself to the powerful strength before rebirth.

He was a destroyer in his previous life.

In this life, he is going to be a protector.

Soon after the late retreat of Chu, the ink burned in front of the mountain gate of the dead.

He carries his bag and will travel.

There are not many people who come to send him, Xue Zhengyi, Mrs. Wang, and the teacher.

Xue Zhengyi patted him on the shoulder and said awkwardly: "Menger does not come, he said..."

The ink burned: "He said that he wants to practice the knife in the forest, no time to send me?"

"..." Xue Zhengyi was even more embarrassed, and he could not help but swear. "The kid is really ignorant!"

Ink smirked: "He wants to take the lead at the Lingshan Conference. It is okay to practice diligence. It is up to him to give him a face."

Xue Zhengyi hesitated to look at his eyes and burned his eyes. "The Lingshan Conference is the peak of the orthodox sect of the orthodox sorcerer. It is a great enthusiasm for the singularity of the sacred sorcerer. Although it can be very strong, I am afraid that the conference will not recognize the mixed efforts of the three religions. If you miss it, it is a pity."

Ink burning: "I have my cousin."

"You don't want to take a place?"

The ink burned this time is really laughing.

Ranking?

In the last generation of the Lingshan Conference, he was wronged and was sentenced to no past, and there was resentment in his heart. But now, what is this little thing? He has experienced many deaths and deaths. In the torrent of catastrophe, he never wants to eager, from eagerness to resentment, from resentment to relief, from relief to embarrassment.

Up to now, what he is looking for is no longer a good wine, a good pilgrimage, not a revenge complaint, a spurt.

The infinite prosperity of the cloud, the drunkenness of the paper, he has seen it, and he has already become tired of it. He does not want to go back. He only feels that it is very cold, and no one is with him.

They are all people who have stepped on the emperor's emperor. They used to call for the rain in the mountains of Mount Tai. Where will I care about the applause of the Lingshan, cheering in three or two.

As for ranking...

Who loves to row and who to go.

"I still want to do something else." Ink smiled. "Xue Meng is a son, the son has a son, and I am a gangster, and there is a mix of days."

Mrs. Wang couldn’t help but pity: "Stupid child, what do you say, you are the same as Menger, and there is a difference between the sons and the sons."

The ink burns and smiles, but it is bitter.

Born to be rich and born to be humble, that is, good luck has come to this life and death, but the first ten years are all over, how can it be the same?

But seeing Mrs. Wang’s feelings of tenderness and concern, naturally it’s hard to say anything, nodded: “The aunt said, I didn’t say good.”

Mrs. Wang smiled and shook her head and gave him a small kitu with a small sac, with a thorn on Du Ruhua, saying: "You are traveling outside, no one is taking care of it. You are holding this kit, there are a lot of wounds in it, all of them are Mother-made, better than the average store to buy, carefully close, do not want to fall."

The smoldering is very grateful: "Thank you aunt."

The teacher said: "I don't have anything for you, only this jade, you wear it, it is used by Wen Yangling."

After the ink burned, I saw that the white jade was like gelatin, and the tentacles were warm, which was extremely rare. He was busy re-entering Yu Pei back to the teacher's hand and said: "I can't take it away, it's too expensive. What's more, my spiritual core is the fire system. I have to raise it again... I am afraid I have to go to the fire."

Shi Yan smiled and said: "What is messy, how can it go into flames?"

"I won't accept it anyway." The ink burns very much. "You are weak and your body will be better."

"But I was the one who took it to you at the Xuanyuan Meeting..."

I heard him say so, I feel very warm, but more is distressed: "The things of Xuanyuan will be high prices. This jade is really not very useful for me. It is very good for you. Teacher, mind, me. I’ve got it, but you’re taking it for yourself. Remember to wear it on weekdays and raise a spirit.”

The teacher also wants to say something more, and the ink has already circumvented Yupe’s string and placed him in front of him.

"It's pretty good," he said with a smile. He raised his hand and patted the shoulder of the teacher. "You wear more than I wear. I am so rough, I am afraid that I will take things in two days. I got a touch."

"The burning child said it is good. Although everyone can wear it, it is still the most comfortable for the people of the water core. You can keep it yourself."

Since Mrs. Wang has opened her mouth, the teacher is naturally listening to her words. She nodded and said to the ink: "They take care."

"Don't worry, I will always write to you."

The farewell was just around the corner, but the teacher was a little sad, but listening to him said, he couldn’t help but laugh: "The words you write are only understandable by the master."

When I mentioned the late night of Chu, I didn’t know what it was like in my heart.

The hatred of the bones has dissipated, and the cockroaches are still there. It seems that the scars are scarred, and the whole heart is painful and itchy.

He took advantage of this feeling, alone, and went down the mountain.

"one two Three……"

He lowered his head and walked, silently counting in his heart.

"One hundred one, one hundred two, one hundred and three..."

When he reached the foot of the mountain, he couldn't help but look back and look at the misty life and death. The long stone steps couldn't be seen, and he muttered, "Three thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine."

He walked all the way and counted down all the way.

This is the number of steps leading to the mountain gate. On that day, Chu nightning carried the number of steps he climbed.

He felt that he could never forget the hands of Chu Yuning in his life, cold, full of blood, and damaged.

A person who is good or evil is often not his nature. Everyone is like a field, some people are fortunate, the stalks are scattered with the wheat and rice seedlings, and in the autumn, the grain is full, the rice is fragrant, everything is good, it is commendable.

But there are still fields that don't have such a good path. The seeds of the poppy are planted between the soil, and the spring breeze blows, giving birth to the sin of bliss, and the sky is full of gold and red blood. People blame it, swear it, fear it, and they are all drunk in their shackles, decaying into scum.

In the end, the Yishi Renren will gather together, throwing a fire into the field, twisting the rising smoke, they said that he is a hotbed of industry, saying that he is a devil, saying that he eats people and does not spit bones, saying that he is damn, No conscience.

He twitched in pain in the fire, 呻/吟, and the poppies quickly distort and turned into stinky soil.

But he used to be a good field, and he also longed for sunshine and sunshine.

Who cast the first dark seed, and later the sin became a disaster, and it was out of control.

This piece of land, warm and good, splendid, and fired, became gray.

Abandoned.

No one wants it anymore. He is an abandoned old land.

So he never thought about it, and there will be someone who came to his life and gave him a chance to turn over and plow and start all over again.

Chu nightning.

He wants to meet him five years later, today is the first day of five years.

He suddenly realized that he had already begun to miss the face of Chu Yuning, harsh, annoyed, gentle, solemn, and upright.

The ink burns slowly and closes your eyes.

He is carefully thinking about past and present life, how many past events are blowing, and he gradually realizes that the original ghost of the sky is actually the biggest watershed in his life.

He loved a person deeply in his previous life.

Later, the man gave his life and he went to hell.

In this life, another person loves him.

Later, the man gave his life and crossed him back to the world.

Chapter 121

On the eighth day after the ink burned, Xue Zhengyi received his first letter.

The enamel paper, the writings are twisted and twisted, and I want to correct it, but it does not help.

"Uncle, don't read, I am in the flowering day today, everything is fine. There is a sinister evil here, but fortunately there are no casualties. The children have already cleaned up the water ghosts who made trouble. Now the ferry ships are very peaceful, and they have received the ship boss. Five hundred silver tickets, attached with the letter. Ask the aunt and the teacher to be well."

The 120th day, the twenty-second letter.

"Uncle, don't read. My nephew has recently had a chance to be a good spiritual stone. If it is set in Xuemen's Dragon City scimitar, it can be a weapon of the world. Although it can't be compared with the gods, it is very rare. Ask the aunt and the teacher to be well."

The thirty-third day, the twenty-fourth letter.

"The uncle does not read. The children have been practicing in the snow valley in recent days. The snow valley is cold all day long, and it is easy to produce exotic flowers. Among them, the frosty snow lotus is the most rare, but unfortunately there are thousands of demon guards in the flower fields. Low and low, hard work is not deep, can not be picked. These days are greatly improved, but they can also break their defenses, took more than ten flowers, and sent them back together. Ask the aunt and the teacher to be well."

.....

There are often some playful objects, the elixir wood stone, sent by the letter.

In addition to the letter to Xue Zhengyi, the ink will also be written to the teacher in private. The content is about a glimpse of the sea, asking for trivial things like warm clothes.

The ink pen was stained on the paper, and there was a typo from the beginning. Later, although it was not good to see the word, but the horizontal and vertical, the structure gradually became mature and mature, and the wrong place was less and less. .

Looking around the past year.

On this day, Xue Zhengyi sipped a new spring tea and received a letter from the ink.

He smiled and finished reading, and handed the letter to Mrs. Wang. Mrs. Wang groaned and smiled: "The word of this child is getting more and more beautiful."

"Like a person?"

"who?"

Xue Zhengyi blew the tea, and found a copy of the "Ancient Enchantment Collection" from the desk scroll: "Do you see if Yuheng has a similarity?"

Mrs. Wang took the book and flipped it over and said: "It’s really like it."

"When he first came to life, he worshipped Yu Heng as a teacher. Yu Heng asked him to read the book first, but he did not know a few words. Then Yu Heng taught him some time, from him. His own name, then simple, then difficult." Xue Zhengyi shook his head. "At the time, he didn't study carefully. It was always a gesture, but now it looks like a decent."

Mrs. Wang smiled and said: "He should go down the mountain and walk more. I think he is outside, it is really calm."

Xue Zhengyi also laughed and said: "I don't know what he will look like after five years of travel. How old was he? Twenty-two?"

"twenty two."

"Oh." Xue Zhengyi sighed and seemed to have some emotions. "I thought that Yu Heng would take them until the age of twenty. People are not as good as days."

People are not as good as days, and ink burning is like this.

He walked through the north and south of the sea, from the rainy land of the south of the Yangtze River to the Dasan Pass in Saibei. In the summer, I took a bite of wine by sitting on the river, and I heard a whistle around the fire pond in the winter snow.

After the emperor called the emperor, the world is his, but he never went through thousands of mountains, to see the fishing boat lights in the east, the Kaner well in the west, did not carefully pass the black feet of the footman who took the burden on the stone road, the flesh Cleft palate, the sole of the foot is as hard as iron. I haven’t heard of the squatting squatting of the Liyuan in the Litangzi Lili, the sound of the sound is like a crack:

"It turns out that it’s red and purple, and it’s like paying for the broken wall...”

He is no longer stepping on Xianjun, and he will not be stepping on Xianjun again in this life. he is--

"Big brother." This is the crisp voice of the children in the workshop. "Big brother, can you help me save this bird? It has wings folded, I, I don't know what to do."

"Xiao Xianjun." This is the voice of the old village chief of Shijie Village. "Thank you, thank you, if you are not relying on you, we are all lonely and old in this village. We are only chaotic and we can only leave our homes." Xian Jun Da En Dade, old aging ... old and unforgettable."

"Good-hearted people." This is the nephew on the road, the trembling voice. "Good-hearted people, our mothers have not eaten enough food for many days, beg you to do well, and send compassion..."

The ink burns and closes the eyes.

Repeatedly opened again.

Because someone called him.

"Mo Zong Shi."

He was somewhat stung by this name, looking up at the dark man who called him like this, quite helpless: "I am not a master, I am a master. Don't call me like this again."

The man scratched his head thickly: "I can't help it. Everyone in the village calls you so much. I know you don't like it, but I can't change it."

In recent days, the ink has lived in a village in the lower boundary of the Xiujian border. There are a snow-capped mountains standing outside the village. There are often snow ghosts going down the mountain. They are all low-spirited demons. The night machine armor is enough to deal with it. It is a pity that this small village is too remote. The night traveler did not benefit this place. He couldn't help but tried to do it according to the map left by the teacher.

After many failures, I finally made the first one. His night travel is far less beautiful than the teacher's respect, and it is not as good as the teacher's spirit, but the wood man can be used.

This novelty can please the villagers of these backcountry people to be happy, and one of them, a master of ink, calls him to smother the ink.

But even more embarrassing is still behind.

It was an evening, and the sunset glowed red half the sky. He came back from the Taishan Academy and walked on the bustling Xinglin Trail. Someone shouted.

"Chu Zongshi!"

Hearing this title, the ink burned and even thoughtless, he immediately turned back, and then he was really funny. There are so many warlocks in the world. He now listens to the wind and rain, and thinks that his master is waking up early.

how can that be possible.

He shook his head with a smile and was about to turn around. He suddenly heard a cry: "Chu Zongshi!"

"..."

The ink burns a stack of books and squints at the crowd. Suddenly someone was beckoning with him, but unfortunately he was too far away. He couldn’t figure out the person’s face. He could only see his dress. He was a young man with a blue robe carrying a bow and followed by a Wolf dog.

The man quickly approached, but when the ink burned and he could see each other clearly, they were all in one another.

"you are……"

"Ink burning." He reacted earlier than the other party, holding the book roll, inconvenient luggage, he simply nodded, his eyes curiously stopped for a moment on the young face. "I didn't expect to meet Nangong son here. Clever."

The person who originally called him "Zhu Zongshi" is the nephew of the Confucianist Gate.

Because this guy died early, the previous life has never been photographed with him, but Chu night is not the same, Chu nightning was once a guest of the Confucianism, Nangong must be familiar with him. The ink burned him up and down, his eyes stopped for a while on the archery that Nangong’s hand was holding.

It is a very old cloth quiver, embroidered with the ornamentation of camellia on the top. Because there are too many times, the pattern has faded, and the bright leaflets are slightly yellowish, like the fragrance embroidered on the cloth. It can't last for a long time, and it will fade in a day.

Nangong is full of brilliance and brightness. Only this sac is very broken. It can even clearly see the traces of sewing. The smoldering heart knows that this sac must be a precious thing for him, but whoever has no two or three 敝帚 敝帚 敝帚What about it? Those who have unlimited scenery will also have a memory that they will stay with for a long time.

No one is as simple as going up, no heart.

Nangong was frowning: "The ink burns... remember it. The apprentice of Chu Zongshi?"

"Ok."

In this case, Nangong’s attitude was slightly better. He said, “I’m sorry, I’ve been separated. I’m dressed up, I thought it’s a master, he’s out early, and I don’t know.”

The ink burned his eyes away from the quiver, and did not carelessly ask, but replied calmly: "I just heard you shouting, I thought it was the teacher's honor to go out in advance, I don't know."

Nangong laughed, perhaps because he was born expensive, even when he was laughing, his handsome eyebrows still had some arrogance. And his arrogance and Xue Meng's arrogance is not the same, Xue Meng is the pride of arrogance, and Nangong 驷, seems to be a bit more arrogant, a bit arrogant, violent.

But he was born very well, this kind of suffocation did not make him terrible, but more wild.

Ink burning can not help but think in the heart, Nangong Temple, Nangong Temple, it is really a free horse.

He was arrogant, and he listened to Nangong. He said: "Before the ghosts were cracked, the master of Chu was unfortunately miserable. I was saddened for a long time. Fortunately, there was a master who could make the master resurrect and return. He woke up and I must die. After the visit."

"Then wait for the son to drive."

Nangong swayed his hand and suddenly saw the book in the ink-burning hand. He said: "What is the ink brother doing?"

"reading."

Nangong Suiyuan thought that he should read the books, and he should read some arduous and difficult articles. When he looked closely, he found that they were all classics such as "Easy Travel" and "Book of Rites", first and foremost, then Dao: "These are all basic volumes. I used to carry them out when I was young. What is the use of these?"

I didn't feel ashamed when I was burned. I looked calmly and said: "When I was a child, I couldn't even write my own name."

"Cough..." Nangong was a little embarrassed. "Will you report to a college?"

"Well. These days just happened to collect some spiritual stones for the practice on Mount Tai. I saw that the Xinglin Academy opened a new lecture and left nothing to do. Come and listen."

Nangong nodded and looked at the time. He said, "Look at this, the brother-in-law has not eaten dinner. Since you came to the Confucianism, you are the apprentice of Chu Zongshi, and I naturally want to do the friendship of the landlord. It happened that my companion was waiting for me at a nearby restaurant. How about going for a drink?"

I think about it, and I feel that there is nothing wrong with it anyway. Then I said, "It’s disrespectful."

"Dance Tower. One of the most famous restaurants in Linyi, the nine-turned intestines are delicious, but have you heard of it?" Nangong asked him while walking.

"How have you not heard of it." Ink smirked, "The number of restaurants in the upper division is one of the best. Nangong Gongzi, you really will pick the place."

"The place is not my pick."

"Oh, is that?"

Nangong said: "My companion picked it."

As a person who has lived alive, how much ink burns is also clear about the complicated relationship of Confucianism. Although he doesn't say anything, his heart is a bit strange, and he secretly thinks: Ye Yexi has also come?

But as he climbed up the restaurant with Nangong, he stepped away from the bead curtain of the wing. The people inside let him almost pick up -

I saw Song Qiutong wearing a light Luo Su clothing, the pavilion in the window, the outside of the peach blossoms bright, she heard the sound back, the side of the golden step swaying and flashing, more lining the skin if the fat, lips if Zhu, can not tell Look good.

The half of the ink burned in and consciously shrunk back.

He was thinking, this time with Nangong, he said that he does not like to eat Lu cuisine, especially not to love the nine-turn fat, but still have time?

The author has something to say: Today's bib has a "flow" handsome evil charm dog 1.0 ~ society your dog brother, people talk more 233333 ~ small chin wants to lick ~ ~ and teacher respect personal ~ I swear I really Seeing Xiaoyan, can this picture be regarded as a picture of a dog in the ghost world? Hahaha~

"Come on, brother, introduce you to the introduction, this is a small sister under my door, called Song Qiutong."

In the end, I sat down with a hard scalp, and I was introduced to the wine table by Nangong. Song Qiutong Song Qiutong, he even has a scorpion on her back, where the birthmarks of the legs have a clear understanding of the place, where you need to say more.

But the face was still stretched, and the restraint nodded: "Song girl."

"This is a pro-disciple of Chu Zongshi, the ink rain of the dead and the dead. You should have seen him in the town of Choi Butterfly before, but at that time there were many people, I guess you can't remember."

Song Qiutong Wen Xiao smiled and got up and said: "Little girl Qiu Tong, I have seen Mo Xianjun."

"..."

The ink burned and did not get up. The deep scorpion looked at her for a long while, and then said: "Polite."

For the wife of his previous life, the smoldering is actually disgusting in his heart. This kind of nausea is not only after the reincarnation, but the past life has been deep into the bone marrow, and it is indelible.

When I met him a few times ago, he never looked at her directly, so although he was disgusted, he did not feel so happy today.

She is a soft and weak woman, talking and talking, always whispering. She is like the green fruit of the tree in the early autumn, hidden behind the lush leaves, the smell is not as fragrant as the flowers, the color is not compelling, but it is very popular, the slim and full body, filled with endless Green and gentle, like a light sip, you can taste the sweet and sour taste of the juice.

Only when you get to the depths, you will find a rotten stinky insect lying inside, dead in the core, the insect body pus, with mildew.

It is true that compared to him, Song Qiutong, the last generation, seems to have never done anything evil. Nothing is to betray the Confucianism that saved her life. Nothing is when the ink burns the massacre, and the tribute leaves the forgotten to protect themselves. Nothing is that when she was in the blood of the sacred mountain, she was overwhelmed by the reward of smoldering, wearing gold and silver, dressing herself up and waiting to serve the new owner.

Nothing, that is, after the end of the massacre, she expressed her heartfelt heart and cried in front of the dead body who would never speak again. She said that she would treat her evil and never give her a good day, if not The ink burned, and I was afraid that she would give the horse of the surname Ye a horse for the rest of her life.

anything else?

The ink burned silently.

What else?

Nangong Temple is an acute child. There are several dishes that have not been delayed. He has urged the dishes to go. So there are only two couples in the room.

"Mo Gongzi, I respect you a cup." She sipped for him, half of the arm from the sleeves, a little blush on the wrist.

The ghost made the difference, and the ink burned his hand and caught her wrist.

She sighed softly, lifted her throat, and stared at him with horror, her eyes soft and tender as if she were with water: "Mu Gongzi, you are..."

The ink burned on her face, looked at it for a while, and her eyes fell, stopping on the delicate hand of her jade fingers.

"It’s really a good hand." For a long time, he whispered, his face was cold, "Song girl can play chess?"

"Slightly, slightly pass one or two."

"So good with both hands, when you can get a good game." He said coldly. Outside the footsteps of Nangong Temple, and his domesticated wolf dog, he called at the door.

"Unbelievable." The ink burned Song Qiutong's fine wrist, and then took a piece of towel, carefully wiped his fingers.

Outside the head of the sun shines on the long light shot, here the spring night building banquet opens.

The ink burned as usual, as if nothing had happened. Although Song Qiutong was despised for no reason, she was able to endure it, and she got up again and burned a glass of wine for the ink.

He didn't drink her awkward wine, so he never touched the cup again.

Nangong martyr said: "Mu brother, not long after the Lingshan Conference, you are the apprentice of Chu Zongshi, you can not tell him to lose face. Can you be ready?"

"I'm not going."

"... are you not really talking about it?"

"Really." The ink burned and laughed. "My cousin is enough. The martial art all over the world goes to Lingshan. I am afraid of excitement and don't want to go."

Nangong Temple does not seem to believe at all. He picks up brown eyes and looks like an eagle eagle.

But the ink burned a pair of scorpions and looked at him without reservation.

The eagle stared at the rock for a while and found that the rock was really just a rock. There was no hiding rabbit or a snake.

He leaned back on the back of the chair and turned the chopsticks. He suddenly grinned. "Somewhat it means, then I can't see you at Lingshan Conference?"

"I can't see me."

Nangong Yu added a hand and sneered: "The apprentice of Chu Zongshi is awesome, so it is rare to participate in such a grand event."

"..."

It’s hard to say, how to explain it? Is it not like this, saying that he is a 30-year-old deceitful old ghost, letting Teng Xianjun fight with a group of fledgling children, and sitting on the stage again, killing and playing in his life. The head of the fight, this group of directors will also give him a small sign, playing a small point.

... it’s just a mess.

Coughing, he said: "It is not rare to participate, but I am not good at orthodoxy. I don't know how to learn. If I go, I will give it to the master. If Nangong is so good, I will have the cost. Don't laugh at me."

This made Xue Meng, an innocent little chick, listen to it. He would probably be very happy. He felt that the ink was burning against the hair, but Nangong was in the intricate Confucianism of the faction. He had no mother since childhood. The days are actually not so simple, so I listened to the compliment of ink burning, but also smiled, and did not float without knowing.

He sipped a few bites of wine, rolled his throat, and then took a sleeve and said: "Since the ink son does not participate, the onlookers are clear, it is better to guess, the leader of the conference, who will eventually fall?"

"..." Ink ignited, you * really asked the right person.

Who else can spend more than he knows? In addition to the false hook that is very likely to be born again, the world will certainly have his ink rain to know the result of the Lingshan sword.

The winner is...

"Nan Gong Temple."

Suddenly, the bead curtain was brushed open, and in the faint halo, the half-cageed face in the shadow. The two men in the room had not responded yet, but Song Qiutong was still in a slap in the face, and his face was full of pitiful sorrows. He apologized and said: "Ye, Ye Gongzi."

The body of the person is quite straight, and the black dress embroidered with dark gold rims is tied with a wristband, and the waist is extremely thin.

The three-pointed beauty between the eyebrows and the handsome seven-pointer is not the leaf forgetting who is it?

"I didn't call you." Ye did not look at her for a moment, she opened the bead curtain and walked into the house. His eyes were always on the same person. It looked very cold, but it flashed some other shreds of light. Hey, I am calling you. You have to hear it and raise your head."

Nangong Temple did not look up, but instead said to Song Qiutong: "What are you doing up? Sit down."

"No, Nangong Gongzi, my generation is humble, I still stand."

Nangong was suddenly furious and shouted: "Sit down!"

Song Qiu Tong shivered and held the table, hesitating.

Ye forgets not to be so stiff, cold and said: "You listen to him."

"Thank you, Ye Gongzi..."

Ye Qingxiu no longer cares about Song Qiutong, but said: "Namiya, what time do you have to make trouble? The head is mad. Get up, go back with me."

"That's best. I will be crazy when he is. He will die when I am back! I haven't talked about going back. Before he recovers, I won't step back to the Confucianism." Nangong slammed a word. "Ye, Gong, Zi, you please come back."

"You--" Ye forgets the handcuffs into a fist, the whole person is shaking slightly, and the ink burns beside him. He feels that he seems to take a table of banquets at any time and pull it straight away, but the leaves are forgotten. After all, he was a gentleman, and he was so hard to suppress the anger of the sky.

"Nan Gong Yu." He silenced a few times, then opened his mouth, his voice was hoarse, with some exhaustion that was contrary to his straight face. "Do you really have to do this?"

"What is it?"

Ye forgets to close his eyes, sighs incomparably, and slowly opens. He stood at the table and finally turned his head and looked at the ink.

They all said that the ugliness of the family cannot be exalted. Of course, the things in the martial art do not want others to know. The ink burned and stood up, and said that they had forgotten the past, saying: "I just remembered, I still have to go to the ready-to-wear store in the evening.

Clothes, go to the late and let the shopkeeper wait a long time, then take a step."

Ye Jingxiu nodded to him: "Thank you for the son of Mo."

"I don't thank you, you talk."

The ink burned away from the leaves, and when he was wrong, he looked at him intentionally or unintentionally. When he was close, he discovered that although Ye Yexi was still tall and straight, like cypress, his temperament was steady and deep, but his eyes were slightly reddish, and he seemed to have just cried before coming.

The smoldering of the ink suddenly felt that the forbearance of the leaves had been so awful, and it was similar to that of Chu.

He was in a hurry and couldn't help but turn back and said to Nan Gongyi: "Nan Gong Gongzi, although I don't know what entanglement between you and Ye Gongzi, but I think he treats you very well. If you want to, Have a good talk with him, don't hide and talk about something."

Nangong Temple did not appreciate it. He was on the head and did not care about his relatives. He said coldly: "Don't take care of you."

"..." This short-lived ghost!

The ink burned away. Before going downstairs, I heard the anger of Nangongyu in the room. The young dog-wolf was tearing the soul of the leaves with his sharp teeth. He is questioning him -

"Leaves the past! What kind of ecstasy soup did you give to my father? Let him see you more important than me!! Go back? What do I go back to with you? From small to big, what can I do for myself? Ah? Ye forgets me, I ask you, what are you... what do you do for me!!"

When the table fell down, the dishes and cups smashed into the ground.

The maids standing in the aisle were all scared and chilled, and more guests came out from their own compartments.

"what's wrong?"

"Hey, who is so tempered, smashing this posture, don't give up the restaurant."

The ink burned his lips and looked back at the end of the walk.

He heard the sound of the leaves forgetting, like the dry leaves of autumn, dry and dry, and lifeless.

"Nangong, if I let you stay at home unhappy. Then I will go, no longer appear in front of you."

"..."

"You go back." Ye said, "Please."

If you don't hear it, you can't believe it in any way. A person who is as straight as a leaf will say a weak word like "seeking."

In his impression, Ye Yexi is a gentleman who is unstoppable. He is an invincible * of war. He can imagine that he is bleeding, but he can't imagine him crying. He can imagine his death, but he can't imagine that he will kneel.

But today, he was actually in the restaurant, in front of Song Qiutong, said to a man, beg you.

The ink burns and closes the eyes.

It is unclear how many things a person has lived for a lifetime.

No one is red or bare naked in front of people. People hide their bodies with clothes and hide their emotions with words and expressions. People wrapped themselves in their arms, and the neck looked like a flower branch. The whole person gave the world a happy face, singing Tsing Yi's singing green clothes, singing a small student's singing singer, the world is like a play, and the world is pure. Ugly, it should be clear.

After singing for a long time, who can accept the sleeves of the sleeves, the eyes of the phoenix, and sang again?

But when the shackles stopped, the harps were silent, and the night was quiet. Everyone washed away the heavy oil paint, and the greasy water and dirt took away the sharp and angular faces in the day, revealing the strange facial features.

It turns out that Hua Dan is a heroic man, and Wu Sheng has a pair of gentle eyes.

The ink burned back to his hut, and he was thinking, he lived for two lifetimes. In the end, he saw the sentient beings? Have you seen yourself a few points?

A late night, let his heart die and die, die and resurrect, Chu nightning...

So he remembered that Nangong Temple actually mistaken him for being a late night, some funny, how could this be wrong.

But when I washed, I suddenly found the man in the bronze mirror, wearing a high ponytail, wearing a simple white warlock gown.

The ponytail was arbitrarily tied in the morning. The sorcerer’s gown was because the old clothes were a little smaller a few days ago. He went to the shop to pick clothes. He turned around and found a white dress very beautiful. He didn’t think much, didn’t think about it. Why do you think that this dress is beautiful, I bought it and put it on my body.

Looking at the mirror, he suddenly understood.

It turned out that this white dress is so similar to the one that Chu nightning once had.

The bronze mirror is dim, the past life is like a dream, and the person who looks at the mirror in the ink is like the heavy color of this dream, seeing the fragments of Chu Xiening and seeing his phantom.

The wash water has not been dried, and the chin that has gradually hardened along the lines has fallen.

He stood in front of the mirror, and some of them understood it, just as his night-time * was imitating the night-time * of Chu-Lingning, and he himself was imitating his own master.

The ink burned subconsciously in the red dust to find Chu night Ning's figure, could not find, he actually became him.

Years are like a shuttle. I am remorse, or something else.

I can't see you, thinking about how you would do if you encounter such a thing. You will smile when you see something, and you will be annoyed when you see it.

I think of you before I do everything, I want to make you happy when I do everything.

I thought, "If you are, I will do this, will you nod? Will you be willing to boast me a little and say that I have not done anything wrong."

I think this way every day, buried in the bone marrow, became a habit. So later, I didn’t even realize it myself.

It turns out that I have lived in my mind, your appearance.

The author has something to say:

Chapter 123

"Zhao Daochang, Li Daochang, you can all read the list? The black horse that was killed at the Lingshan Conference this time is really amazing!"

In the Pearl Beach Tea House, a few scattered pieces of peanuts, a pot of hot tea, are talking about this hotter than the hot tea.

"Of course I have been watching it for a long time! The winner is actually the sorrow of the dead, the martial art of the lower cult, can suffocate the old gangs of the upper cults. Especially the Confucianism, oh, the coffin board of their ancestors I am afraid I can't hold it anymore! Is the little fairy who won the game called Xue Fenghuang?"

"Ah? Hahahaha, Xue Fenghuang? Lao Zhao, you really want to laugh at me, Phoenix is his nickname, his surname is Xue, Mingmeng, Zizi Ming, his father is Xue Zhengyi. Tiger father no The dog, this Xue Ziming, is very good!"

Sitting next to the fire pond, a man in a cloak, tall and tall, is drinking tea from his own. I heard them say this, the man suddenly lowered his voice, "Hmm?", the tea pot stopped at the lips and did not move.

"All said that he is the phoenix's chick, this is not a virtual one. Other lessers have sacred martial arts, he is good, a machete is broken and others are retreating, really God."

"Then you don't look at who is his apprentice? Can you be vegetarian when you are a disciple at the night of Yuheng?"

"But I think that Xue Ziming is a victorious victory. You haven't heard of it. When the two are against each other, Xue Ziming and Nangong are beaten up. If the girl who was in Nangong is dragging her legs, hey, ask me. Say, the outcome is not yet known."

The man who had been listening to God listened to this and finally put down the hanging tea.

He turned his head back, and the end was sharp and violent, and Qiu Shui Shen Huahua, a very good skin. He smiled at the monks and said: "Several same/repair, harassment. I practiced in the mountains a few days ago, I don't know the sun and the moon, so I missed the Lingshan Conference. I just heard you say it." Xue Meng got the leader... Some curious, I wonder if I can ask a few more words?"

Those people who wished to have an audience, quickly greeted the ink, gave him a place, and let him sit with them.

The ink is not rude, he is now much more stable than when he was just down the mountain. He asked the owner of the teahouse to add six pots of Lingshan Miaoyu, and then sent candied dates, sourdocks, yak-yellow cherries, snake-like melon seeds, and everyone, and then smiled and said: "Xue Zi tomorrow's pride, even without Shenwu It’s not too surprising to be the first one. It’s just to listen to you, when the two men confronted each other, the Nangong of the Confucianism Gate brought a girl...?”

This circle is a man, always willing to talk about things related to girls, even though the girl is not theirs.

"Isn't it? It's really a beautiful town to bury the heroes, or else the magic of the Nangong Temple, can not let Xue Ziming take the upper hand is not necessarily."

"This is a bit of a meaning." It is not the same as the results of previous lives. The previous Lingshan Conference was the first place in the past and the Nangong Temple. The smoldering originally thought that the death of Chu Xiaoning spurred Xue Meng and let Xiaofeng start it, but now it seems that the variables are not only on Xue Meng.

"I don't know what identity the girl is?"

"Nani son surnamed Song, what is Tong's... I don't remember, in short, it looks good. I see that the mentality of the brother of the Confucianism is completely for her."

"It’s just beautiful, it’s just a national color. For me, it’s Nangong, I’d rather not want this Lingshan first, but also to be beautiful.”

Ink burning: "..."

it is as expected.

The Lingshan Conference is divided into single competitions, doubles against each other, and group killings, and three rankings are neutralized to reach the final leader.

In the past life, Xue Meng and Shi Yi formed a two-person confrontation, and the battle was the Nangong Temple and the Ye Forget. The Ye Forgiveness was later the most powerful person in the world except Chu Xi Ning. The result of this game can be imagined. However, I didn’t know where the problem was in my life. Nangong’s sorrow did not cooperate with Ye’s forgetfulness. Instead, she brought Song Qiutong’s woman to her hind legs...

The ink burned down the tea pot and raised his hand to rub his own forehead.

I really don't know what the guy thinks.

"Women, women, even the wild horse of Nangong, isn't the clothes that have been cleaned up?" Someone sighed like this, and everyone else sneered.

The ink burned and couldn't help but ask: "What about the leaves?"

"what?"

Ink burning: "Leaves forget."

Seeing everyone in a stunned, smoldering in the heart, I feel that some are not taste. That was the * of war that gave him a lot of pain in his life... How can you not know?

So he said with a stroke: "It is another son of Confucianism, the legs are very long, the people are tall, the temper is very good, not so much love to talk, make a sword, and..." See everyone's sluggish look The ink sighed and he had vaguely known the result, but he still finished the last few words.

"There is still a bow."

"do not know."

"Not famous, this person."

"Brother, who do you listen to? At the Lingshan Conference, there are 16 disciples in the Confucianism, and none of them are surnamed leaves."

Sure enough, this world, Ye Forgiveness did not participate in the war.

The ink burned silently for a moment, thinking of the last leaf of the restaurant and Nangong said: "You come back, I am going." He suddenly felt a little unbearable and somewhat uneasy.

Isn't this true?

Ye forgets, does it really leave the Confucianist door?

Thinking of past lives, Ye forgets to say to the executioner before his death that he wants to be buried in the heroes of the Confucianism after his death, and together with the tomb of Nangong Temple. I can't help but sigh, how can things become like this? A little subtle change has expanded into an infinite embarrassment.

Then it turned upside down and the sea became a mulberry field.

It turns out that the change of fate can be raging, and it is necessary to sacrifice hot blood and painful tears to change the prodigal son.

For example, he is in the late night of Chu.

But the change of fate can be quiet, such as the leaves of the past in the Nangong Temple.

Maybe it was only in the inn that day, Nangong Temple took the leaves and forgot to settle down. At night, Nangong was thirsty, and got up and went downstairs to get a pot of tea. It happened to meet the poor Song Qiutong.

Perhaps Song Qiutong poured a glass of water on him, and maybe she was inconvenient in her legs and feet. When she went upstairs, she accidentally fell, who knows.

Even, maybe he just slammed into the water and licked some to the broad chest. She was careful and handed him a handkerchief.

At that time, the clouds were light and windy. About Nangong, I simply said thank you.

But none of them knows. In fact, the business has been turned around and the Beidou has been rotated. Their lives have changed because of a handkerchief, a glass of water, and a thank you. It’s just the parties, no one heard the loud noise of fate:

Nangong yawned and went upstairs.

Song Qiutong fidelity looked at him.

And Ye forgets to illuminate the candle in the room and read a book that has not been read.

In the past, the ink burned the past and I didn’t know how to be tall and thick. I thought that I had thoroughly passed through the cycle of life and death.

Now I know that they are all duckweed in the world, and the wind blows away overnight, and the rain falls all night. When a person on the shore throws a stone, he can crush the blue spirit.

He is so lucky, far away, and can return to the end of the night.

I can still filial piety in front of the master, but I can also say to Chu Yuning: "I am sorry, I have failed you."

Drink tea and say goodbye to everyone.

The wind is coming out, and it will soon rain.

The ink burned up the cloak and went to the deep forest.

His figure became more and more distant, more and more vain, and gradually became a small point in the twilight, like the ink stains in the wash basin, and finally disappeared into invisibility.

"Booming up!!"

The gloomy sky burst into thunder, purple electric blue light, and sudden showers like a thousand troops.

"It’s raining." Someone in the teahouse looked out and saw that the thunder was amazing and shrank back.

"It’s so big rain... It’s really... no one in the house is getting too much, but I’m afraid it’s going to be broken.”

"Forget it, boss wife, come back to a pot of tea. Wait until the weather is fine, then go home."

The ink burned in the rain, ran in the rain, fled in the rain, and escaped from the rain for thirty-two years that he had spent in the past.

He didn't know if such a heavy rain could wash away his evil. Chu nightning forgave him, but he didn't. His mind is heavy and he is forced to breathe.

He is willing to use his later life to do good deeds to pay.

But the pouring rain of the rest of my life can really wash away the sins in his bones, the dirt in the blood?

He hates not letting this rain fall for five years.

I just want to wait for the night when I wake up, I stand in front of the master, can be a little cleaner, and then clean a little.

He didn't want to be there, it was as dirty as it is now, dirty like sand, like dust, like the dirt on the soles of the feet, the ash inside the nails.

He just wants to do better before he wakes up, and better.

In this way, the worst and worst of the world, perhaps with some faint courage, call for the best and best master in the world.

This night, the ink burned down.

His body has always been tough and strong, and once such a person is ill, it is often like a landslide and is out of control.

He lay in bed and fell asleep with a thick quilt. In the night, he dreamed of the things of his life. He dreamed of how he would torture the late night, and dreamed that Chu Yuning was struggling under him. Chu nighting died in his arms. He woke up from his sleep, and he was screaming at the outside. He fumbled for Flint to light the candle, but no matter how he played, the flint did not shine.

He threw himself into the side of the fire, and his face was buried in the palm of his hand. He licked his hair in pain, his throat rolled, and the beastly sorrow in his throat.

He escaped death, escaped condemnation, but eventually escaped his heart.

He is very scared, sometimes unable to distinguish between dreams and reality, sometimes he will constantly confirm whether he is awake or asleep.

He is very painful. He feels that his soul has split into two halves. In the past and in this life, these two souls are biting each other, one is reviling, the other is full of blood, mad, and the other is not to be outdone. Nothing is like everyone else, and there is a face in this world.

The soul of this life is angering the soul of past lives:

In the light rain, step on the fairy, you are not something, why do you commit such crimes! How do you let me repay in my life!

I want to start from the beginning, why are you struggling, in the dreams, in the drunkenness, in the dim light, when I can't catch up, I jump out and curse me with twisted faces?

Cursing me can't be over-life, cursing me and wicked people will have bad news.

You curse all this is a dream, one day will be broken again, you curse I will wake up one day, you will find yourself still lying in the Wushan Temple, you laughed and said that I have no pity in this life.

The only person who is willing to die for me is that I killed him.

Can that person be me? !

No, it’s not me, it’s you, step on the fairy! It’s your rain! !

I am different from you, I am different from you...

I have no blood in my hand, I am -

I can come over from the beginning.

The other half of the soul is also screaming, it opens its sharp mouth, and its face is distorted:

Are you not apologetic?

Are you not doing it wrong?

Then why don't you die? Why don't you use your blood to pay homage to the people who were hurt by your unprovoked life?

brute! hypocritical!

How is your difference from me? I am a little rain, are you not? You take the sins of past lives, you carry the memories of past lives, you can never get rid of me, I am you, my dreams are your heart, and the gods and gods ask you your disgusting soul.

Have you ever been through?

Why? What is your face and what qualifications do you have to come over? You keep the world in the dark, and you keep the person who loves you in the dark.

You do the best, just to smooth out the little guilt in your heart! what! Ink rain! Do you dare let them know who you were in your previous life?

You dare to let Chu Xiaoning know that the past life is you! The knife stabbed him on the neck, letting his blood run out, and he was better than death! It's you! Let the world become hungry and devastated!

It is you.

Hahahaha, swearing, I am you, you are me, you can't escape, I am you, ink rain, do you dare say no?

The ink burned was almost crazy, and he went to the bed to touch the fire knife. He tried to light the candle and dispel the dark night of the claws.

But even the candles don't want him, and the candles don't bother to save him.

He was thrown into the darkness, his trembling hand rubbed the flint at once, and for a moment, nothing, nothing.

He finally fell to his bed and burst into tears. He kept apologizing. In the night, his bed was surrounded by people. The stunned figures were cursing him. They were all asking for his life. They all told him that he was evil for the world, and he did not know how to burn. What to do, he suddenly became very helpless, he could only keep saying: "I'm sorry... sorry..." but nobody cares about him.

No one forgives him.

His forehead was hot and his heart burned.

Suddenly, he seemed to hear someone sighing gently.

In the enchanting sorrow, he opened his eyes. He saw that Chu Ning came, and Chu Ning was still the same as before. The white clothes were stalking, the wide-sleeved robes, and the eyebrows were as good as the past.

He came over and walked over to his bed.

The ink burns the pharynx: "Master...I am not... I don't deserve to see you..."

Chu nightning did not speak, but picked up the fire knife and flint, and burned the ink from the candle that had not been lit.

Where there is a teacher, there is fire.

There is a late night in the place where there is light.

He stood in front of the candlestick, with long eyelashes on his back. He looked up and quietly looked at the ink, then smiled quietly and smiled very lightly.

He said: "Let's sleep, you see, the light is on. Don't be afraid."

The burning heart is like a blunt thing. He feels that his brain is hurting. He feels that this sentence is very familiar and seems to have been heard.

But he can't remember it.

Chu night Ning opened the sleeves and was placed along his bed. The cold rain Lianjiang night into Wu, but the house is warm. The night is gone.

Chu night Ning said: "I am with you."

He heard this sentence, the heart was awkward and painful, almost twisted into a ball.

"Master, you don't want to go." He took the hand of Chu Yuning's wide sleeves.

"it is good."

"When you are gone, it will be dark."

The ink burned and cried. He felt a little shameful. He lifted the other hand and covered his eyes. "I beg you, don't leave me... I beg you... I really... I really don't want to do it anymore. Emperor, Master... Don’t want me..."

"Ink burning..."

"I beg you." Perhaps it was because the heat made him feel a little stunned, making him extremely vulnerable. Or perhaps he knows in his heart that this is actually a dream of his own. He knows that he will disappear when he wakes up, so he muttered, "Please, don't want me."

This night, outside the window, the iron horse glaciers, countless grievances knocked on the window, like to enter the house to kill his life.

But in the burning dream, Chu nightning lighted up the light, and a little faint light dispelled the boundless chill. Chu night said: "Well, I don't go."

"Don't go?"

"Don't go."

The ink burned and wanted to say something, but the throat made a whimper. When the dog wanted to be careful, he had some grievances.

"You all said that you won't go, saying that you won't leave me." When I was about to fall into a dream, the ink burned and squinted, and suddenly muttered. "But in the end, don't want me. No one is rare, I am. When I have abandoned my dog for half a lifetime... whoever adopted me for a few days, then I abandoned me... I am so tired... really... Master... I am really tired, I can’t stand it, I can’t walk. ....."

Like a windy meal, a homeless stray dog, the hair is dirty, the claws are broken, in order to survive, have to fight with the cockroaches, and wild cats to grab food.

After being bullied for a long time, I don’t trust anyone. When someone sees someone kneeling down, the dog may think that it is feeding him, but abandoning the dog will only make someone else take the stone to slap him. He rushed to the emperor, and he walked uneasily, and walked away. He was grinning at anyone, this is his life.

"Master, if you don't want me any day, kill me, don't throw me away."

He choked and said softly.

"It feels too uncomfortable to be abandoned once and for all, preferring to die..."

He was really burnt.

In the end, he didn't know where he was, and he couldn't remember who the dream appeared.

"Auntie." Before he slept, he finally said a word, "It’s dark, I’m so scared... I want to go home...”

The author has something to say:

The title was taken from Du Fu, "The old man entered my dream, and I remembered it, and I am in the net, why is there a wing", which is a mistake.

Chapter 124

Flowers bloom, the enchantment outside the red lotus water, no matter the morning faint, are flowing with fine brilliance. The people inside are not coming out, and the people outside can't get in.

Five years have passed, and people are like a lantern. Every day, every night is changing. Every tenth and every month is changing.

In the teahouse, in the history books... those years, eventually became a line of small characters, became a period of storytelling.

Past events, look back -

In the first year of Chu’s retreat, his disciples burned down the mountain, and Xue Meng’s teacher stayed in the dead and died and repaired himself.

This year, the word of ink burned a little better than in the past, Xue Meng broke through the ninth weight of the knife of silence, and the teacher went to the lonely moon night to learn from the end of the year, and benefited a lot.

During the period, the ink burned to Yizhou Salt Merchants Changjia, and I met the Changgongzi for private affairs. However, I learned that Chang Gongzi was violently killed before the day. The ink burned in the ghost world and learned that Chang Gongzi and the fake hook Chen had collusion. I wanted to listen to one or two. Who knows that the other party has already killed people, and even the bodies have burned to ashes.

The clue is interrupted.

In the second year of the retreat of Chu, the rehearsal of the Lingshan Conference, Xue Mengde was the first, Mei Hanxue was the second, and Nangong was the third. The sergeant squats in the lower pot and hangs the pot of Guangji, and the ink burns through the deserts of the south of the Yangtze River, all the way to demonize the good, and then return to the forest to practice, where to go.

The third year of the retreat of Chu’s late reign, every year, the glory. In the past, the * battle at the Butterfly Town was declining, and the cockroach was born. The wild ghosts cried at night, and Xue Meng led the disciples to death. Although it did not reproduce the scenes of the devils in the past, the subordinates still lived in the disaster year.

Due to the vast territory and numerous daggers, the upper cults of the nine sects of the nine sects guarded the borders of the upper and lower sides and built a refusal wall to prevent ghosts from passing through.

Those who are homeless to the poor are all rejected from the wall, and the city is defended against ghosts and defenders. Therefore, the sea in the wall is clear, and the corpses outside the wall are everywhere. Xue Zhengyi has repeatedly negotiated with the Shang Xiu, and failed. At that time, the blood of the disciples who died in the town of Choi Die was put to the east.

At the end of the year, the ink burned in the mountains was received by the uncle's letter, and it was learned that the middle of the chaos was in chaos and re-entered the red dust.

Chu nightning retreats for the fourth year.

The ink burns and Xue Meng fight side by side, and the two sons of the dead and the dead lead the people to sweep the disenchantment in the lower bounds. In the end, in the old town of Choi Die Town, the peak matchup was provoked. Xue Ziming killed more than a thousand evil spirits, and drove the ghosts. The ink rained heavily to repair the sky and cracked the evil spirits with one's own strength.

After this battle, the upper repair circle removed the city defense and allowed the people in the repair circle to enter the customs.

Xue Meng ink burning is famous, the former phoenix chick prestige is unparalleled, the latter due to the remedy of the sky, the enchantment technique and the Chu night Ning is very similar, so it is called "Mo Zong Shi" by the world.

Baiyun Cang dog, blink of an eye.

After the Battle of Lingshan, Xue Meng had a good name, but he was not as self-satisfied and self-satisfied as he was when he was a teenager. As long as he had nothing to do, he worked diligently in the bamboo forest, and he practiced in the winter. I am sick and never stop.

He remembered the words of the Master, even if there is no Shenwu in hand, the pride of the sky is still the pride of the sky, just to pay more blood and sweat, he is no longer born, but the endurance can make up.

Sometimes he used a set of knives, and he fell lightly and gracefully from the end of the bamboo forest. In the sunshine wearing the forest, he turned his head and occasionally felt a glimpse of it, as if he saw the sitting on the rock and played A small figure of the leaves.

This made him reluctant to think of the day again. Chu Xiaoning, who was getting smaller and smaller, saw him practice his knife in the forest. His song was melodious, pointing out when he was in a hurry and when he should be slow.

Xue Meng looked at his head and recalled it, and the sound of the song seemed to be in his ear.

So he closed his eyes and calmed down. When he opened it, he saw a piece of dead bamboo falling and falling. He slammed his knife at the bottom, and the dragon humming, the knife shadow relaxed, and when it started, it sounded like a wave. Hey, it’s a long way to go.

When the Dragon City was withdrawn, he stood up straight, and the dead leaves had been cut into thousands of pieces, silently falling on the side of the boots.

When I bowed, it seemed to be a young, unsatisfied young man.

Looking up again, the eyebrows are straight and straight, and the eyes are clear and steady, like a rushing stream that finally rushes into the lake and becomes peaceful and broad.

Five years.

Xue Meng took the knife and wiped the frost blade with a white cloth. He was about to take the knife back to the sheath. He suddenly heard a rush of footsteps in the distance. Some disciples rushed over and shouted: "Less Lord! Little Master!"

"What's wrong?" Xue Meng frowned. "There is nothing in the panic, nothing. What?"

"Red lotus water 榭 -" The man ran out of breath, his face was red and screaming, panting, "The guilty, the master of sin is gone! Jade, Yuheng elders - wake up, wake up!!"

"When you slam", the Dragon City of the Battle of the World was lost by the owner and fell to the ground.

Xue Meng’s face was pale when he was a beautiful white face, and then immediately rose red, his lips opened and closed, and eventually he couldn’t even remember his own blade, and he flew like a dead man. Nanfeng, almost halfway through the stone, stumbled and stumbled.

"Master!! Master!!!!"

Xue Ziming, who had just taught others that he had no way of saying anything, had not left any scum left in his blink of an eye.

When I ran to the outside of the Honglian Water Margin, I didn't enter the main hall door. I saw Xue Zhengyi striding out of the inside and seeing his son and desperately going to the inside. Xue Zhengyi smiled and covered him.

Xue Meng is dying: "Hey!"

"Well, know that you want to see Yu Heng." Xue Zhengxi smiled. "But he just recovered, lacked energy, and said a few words to me, he fell asleep. You are always embarrassed to disturb your master's rest."

Xue Meng stayed: "This is true, but..." But the five-year time is too difficult. He has a lot of words to say to the teacher. The first place in the conference, I want to tell the master that I have suppressed the ghosts, myself...

"Be sensible."

"..." The sensible word is like the seven inches of a snake, and it is pinched. Xue Meng will also obey. He almost sighed for a long time, but his foot stopped and his neck stretched forward. It seemed that he could pass through the burly father, the hidden door, and the person lying on the couch.

Xue Meng licked his lips, some were not willing: "I will go in and see the teacher, I don't talk."

"I still don't know you? I yelled when I was happy." Xue Zheng gave him a look. "The Lingshan Conference won back. The outsiders were in front of a cold shelf and went home for four or five days. Seeing people tells you how you have made Nangong 踹 from the demon wolf's back. Now even the Li Po of Meng Potang can recite the original words you said. You said that you are not snoring, who believes?"

"……OK."

Xue Meng’s.

"My father taught."

"That is, when did you miss it?"

Xue Meng grinned, still could not help but wonder: "Hey, how about the Master?"

"It's very good, and the master of the crimes has been removed from the poison left by the heart."

"Ah, that is to say that the Master will not become a younger brother in the future?"

"Haha, no."

Xue Meng scratched his head and thought that he would never see Xia Shi reversal.

"Then, is that else okay? Is there anything uncomfortable?"

"Don't worry, no, really have to say, that is, he knows that after five years of sleeping, his face is a bit ugly." Xue Zhengyi thought of the look of Chu's late night, smiled. "Fortunately, he still has not much strength. Otherwise, I can ask a lot of things. Oh, yes—"

He suddenly thought of something, to Xue Mengdao: "Menger, arrange a thing for you to do. Your teacher respected him for so long, and missed a lot of things. We rely on us to tell him, we are tired He also sounds exhausted. In this way, you ask your mother to ask for some money and go back to the impermanent town under the mountain to buy some books. Isn't there a kind of booklet that has a year-old story? He is jealous."

Xue Meng heard, not right, this old fox is suspected of being noisy, he has to kick him down to do the coolies.

But I think again, this hard work is done for the master, it seems that it is not so difficult to accept. Anyway, the teacher has gone to sleep again, and he is really not sure whether he will get out of control after entering the house, and rushing to wake people up.

Then he sighed, and he was very reluctant to say: "Buy books and buy books."

"Buy more, talk about the repairs, and buy the lower ones, buy some, Yuheng itself loves to read."

"Oh, good." Xue Meng was very depressed, and a man went silently.

Xue Meng didn't like to read books. When he came to the book stall in Wuchang Town, he looked around and thought that he couldn't find any tricks from the name. He asked him to ask the stall owner: "Old man, you are here to talk about the truth." Are there any books that have changed over the years? Give me a few books."

The stall owner saw the dead man, although he did not recognize this is the phoenix chick Xue Ziming, but he was very excited. He said with warmth: "Xianjun wants to talk about the changing book, of course. There is a history of history." , biography, chronicle, regional ambition, demon spectrum, the manuscripts of the most famous ten storytellers on Lianjiang Lake. Which kind of fairy does you like?

When Xue Meng heard his brain hurt, he waved: "All, I have come over, not bad."

For businessmen, the most pleasant words in the world are not "love you", "worry you" and "want you", but "buy" "not bad money" and "every one."

The stall owner immediately smiled and smiled. He slammed his hand and Xue Meng, and turned and picked him from the pick-up book. Xue Meng was idle, and he flipped over the stalls. He suddenly found a thin booklet that was very interesting. The page he spread spread out:

Comprehension

First: Jiang Yan. Identity: Lin Lingyu, the head of the lonely moon night

Second: Nangong Liu. Identity: Linyi Confucianism

Third: Ma Wei. Identity: West Lake Taobao Villa

.....

Such a cloud, with a small head of the fly to write a whole face.

Xue Meng immediately came to the fore. He especially wanted to know where he was, so he went back and forth on this page for four or five times. He saw it as a cross-eyed eye and did not find the word "Xue Meng".

He was very frustrated, and then he was a little angry. When he thought about it, he felt that he was not willing. After turning over one page, he planned to continue to look for it, but he saw only three or four names in the back, and one sentence:

"The compilation of energy is limited. All the rankings are counted in only one hundred, and the next one is a little bit worse."

Xue Meng’s book: "Is this young master so poor??"

The stall owner was shocked by him. When he saw his book in the hustle and bustle, he picked up and calmly said: "Xianjun don't want to be angry. This folk booked ranking booklet is always in a mess, and ah, every land is spread. They are all different. You have to buy a book in Linyi. The first place on the gentleman's list is definitely the head of Nangong. It is a pastime to see this pure, and you have to be angry, you have to be angry."

Listening to him, Xue Meng thinks that there are some truths, and he is still very curious about the other contents of this booklet, so he snorted and took it from the hands of the stall owner and flipped two pages.

This time, he saw a more eccentric ranking.

Chapter 125

The handwriting on the list is very neat, and it’s very penalized.

First: Nangong Temple

Identity: Confucianism Master

Second: Xue Meng

Identity: The Lord of Life and Death

Xue Meng: "....."

He slammed the book, and the muscles on his face were shaking. It seemed that if he relaxed a little, he would not be able to stop the flood of beasts in his heart.

"Yes." Xue Meng sullenly sullenly, took the book and patted the horrified stall owner, and each word was broken from the teeth and smashed.

"This book is wrapped up separately for me. I took it back and studied it."

The "Unknown Clouds" was rudely smashed into the robes, and Xue Meng held a book reel that he had picked up to him, and staggered back to the mountains.

He is very angry.

It’s going to be mad.

The family of the family is ranked second in the list?

Pooh! Which one has smashed the list of dog eyes, let him know, he had to take the man out and press the hundred fists on the ground to get rid of the gas! Go to your pride! Dog stuff!

This kind of anger is to neutralize the ecstasy in his heart to a little bit. When returning to the red lotus water, Xue Meng's mood is finally normal, and will not burn again, and it will burst. Although he is still very excited, but because he has just been angry, one to two, the brain is still awake, not confused.

At this time, two high-ranking disciples were guarded outside the otter, and others were not allowed to let go, so that the elders could rest.

But Xue Meng is a young master, who dares to stop?

So Xue Meng Shun Shun went in the local area.

At this time, the sky is dark, and the window of the main hall of the otter is half-open, revealing the soft light of honey. Xue Meng didn't know if the Master had woken up, so he took a light footstep and took the book and pushed the door in.

It was so quiet around, he could hear his heartbeat, like a bird that jumped on the branches.

For the time being, he left the "Unintelligible" list, calmed his breath, and looked brightly on the bed.

"..."

For a long time, Xue Meng was stunned.

"Hey?"

How is nobody in bed?

He was about to look further, and suddenly a cold hand rested on his shoulder.

A voice screaming with wet and cold water vapor screamed behind him: "Hello you are good at red lotus water, what is your intention?"

"..." Xue Mengqi turned his head in a stiff and incomparable manner. On the pale face, the light was dim, he couldn’t see it clearly, and he was scared "Wow-" and shouted, his arms raised. Mamming towards each other!

Unexpectedly, the other party is faster than him. His skill is like a violent wind. He squats in the neck of Xue Meng, and then he squats on Xue Meng’s abdomen. According to him, he is quite straight, and the books in his arms are scattered all over the floor. It’s not awkward.

Xue Meng was only suddenly shocked, but when he was kneeling on the ground, he was really shocked!

I have to know that he is not the same as it used to be. He has been working hard in the past five years. Nangong is not his opponent, but this person who has not even seen his face has nothing to do with his two tricks. ,who is it?

The skull creaked and the blood rushed into the skull.

However, at this time, I heard the person said extremely coldly: "I have been retiring for five years, and now everyone is willing to go to the place where I live. Who is your disciple, your master? Didn't teach you the rules." ?"

When the voice fell, Xue Meng had already leaned over and hugged him.

"Master! Master!!"

Chu nightning: "..."

Xue Meng looked up, originally wanted to endure, but still couldn't hold back, tears collapsed, he could not help but whimpered: "Master, it is me... you are... I am..."

It turned out that Chu Ning was just awakened, went out to take a bath, so his hands are still cool, with some water vapor. He stood in the same place, but the lights were dark, but it was enough to see it at the moment.

What is in front of you is a young man of about twenty.

His skin is very white, his eyebrows are dark and dark, and the distance between the eyes and the eyebrows is slightly closer than that of ordinary people, so it looks deep and eyebrows. As for the lips, it is full and moist, and the lips look good. Such a face, even when it is angry, carries some pampering. In fact, people who look like this are very easy to get along with the word "beauty", but he will not.

The most divine/rhymatic place on a person's face is the eye. Xuemeng's eyes are like spirits. Forever, the spicy, warm, and radiant light is very pressing.

With these two pools of wine, even if you wear the ice-white and soft jade pot, you will never teach people to admit their mistakes.

After all, five years have passed. When Chu was born in the night, Xue Meng was only sixteen years old. Now he is twenty-one.

The age of sixteen or seven is the time when men change the most. One year looks like a figure. After half a year, Chu Ning missed five years, so he suddenly met and did not recognize him.

"... Xue Meng."

After a long while, Chu nightning stared at him and slowly screamed.

It is like calling him, but also like telling himself.

This is Xue Meng, Xue Meng is no longer the childish boy in his memory, he grew up, his shoulders are wide, his height is also...

Chu nightning quietly pulled him up.

"What are you doing, get up."

"..."

There is not much difference between height and self.

The years lost in young people will be extraordinarily fast, and three children will sculpted a child into a mature appearance. When I was awake, the first person I met at the end of the night was Xue Zhengyi. I haven’t felt how long the five years have been. But when I saw Xue Meng, I realized that it was a lot of people and things. It has changed.

"Master, Lingshan Conference, I..." Xue Meng was not so calm, but he took Chu and said that he said West, "I took the first."

Chu night Ning first looked at him, and then had a smile on his lips: "It should be."

Xue Meng blushes and says, "I, I am beaten with Nangong, he, he has a martial arts, I don't have it, I...", speaking, I feel that the meaning of my invitation is too red/naked, but I am embarrassed. , bowed his head and licked the cloak.

"I didn't give the Master a shame."

Chu night Ning smiled lightly, nodded and said: "I think I have suffered a lot."

"Do not suffer or suffer!" Xue Meng paused and said, "Sweet."

Chu night Ning reached out and tried to touch his head as usual, but thought that Xue Meng was not a child now. It was actually inappropriate to do so. He turned over and patted his shoulder.

The books on the ground were scattered everywhere, and the mentor and the master picked up the books one by one and placed them on the table.

“Buy so much?” Chu said, “When do I want to see?”

"Not much, the master looks at ten lines, and finishes it one night."

"..."

Even after so long, Xue Meng’s admiration is still unabated. However, Chu Xiening is somewhat speechless. He didn't know what to say, he ignited the candlelight and flipped a few books.

"Jiang Dongtang changed his head?"

"Changed, the new head is a woman, it is said that the temper is particularly bad."

Chu Yuning went on to see it again. The page he read was about Jiang Dongtang’s notes, and he spoke a lot of articles. Chu’s night was very focused and looked at him, facing the “Jiangdongtang’s new head life”. Suddenly, I asked the sentence casually: "Ink burning... How about these years?"

He asked very restrained, very shallow.

Therefore, Xue Meng did not feel too awkward and honestly said: "Not bad."

Chu night Ning squinted: "What does it mean?"

Xue Meng took a wording and said: "It is like a person."

“He used to be unlike an individual?”

Not waiting for Xue Meng to open, Chu night Ning nodded again.

“It’s not like an individual. You go on.”

"..." Xuemen is best at telling his story very long and wonderfully. It is very short and simple to tell others, especially the burning stories.

"He has been running around for years, and he has learned something." Xue Meng said, "There is nothing else."

"He didn't go to Lingshan Conference?"

"No, he was practicing in Snow Valley at the time."

Chu night Ning did not ask again.

The two talked about some other things, Xue Meng was afraid that he was tired, although there are still countless words to say, but still hold back, first retire.

After he left, Chu night Ning was lying on the bed.

He still remembers what happened in the ghost world, so he is not surprised by the change in ink burning. It’s just a slap in the face, and in the spring and fall, Xue Meng is now out so that he almost can’t recognize it. He doesn’t know what it’s like today.

He still remembers that Xue Zhengyi said to him when he left today: "Yu Heng, you will have a banquet in Mengpo Hall tomorrow to celebrate your departure. You must not push it, I will send the letter to the flaming child, you can not let He rushed back, and he didn’t eat, drink, drink?”

Chu nightning did not refuse, although he does not love the excitement, but the ink is always his weakness.

Listening to Xue Zhengxuan, the last time the colorful butterfly town was cracked, many villages at the foot of Baitou Mountain were destroyed. Now the people who survived are injured and wounded. Because of the depletion, the stockades are still run down. Unbearable. The entire snowfield is like a * on earth.

Burning these days, there are help to rebuild the village.

He looked at the book under the light of the candle, still couldn't help but get up, waved his sleeve and brought a voice of Haitang, thought about it and said: "Respect the Lord, work hard to repair a book, and say with the ink, let him Don't worry, I can get back to the best. If I can't come back, I won't blame him. The weather is getting colder. Every winter in Baitou Mountain is very cold and difficult to make him settle down in the village. Don't deal with it."

After throwing away this jellyfish flower, Chu nightning sighed and re-slid back to the bed, picked up half of the compendium of the comprehension and continued to read it.

Although his eyesight is not as exaggerated as Xue Meng said, he can read these voluminous volumes overnight, but reading a few annals is still very easy.

Late at night, the lights in the candlestick flow into a secluded pool. Chu Xiaoning closed his eyes and frowned slightly.

He has read all the stories about the five-year revision of the real world. At the beginning, the contents of the book were still not floating, but when it was written that the town of Caidie was once again cracked, there was a lot of description about the ink burning.

Chu Xiaoning was originally lying on his side, with one hand supporting his hand and lazily turning the page. After reading this, I couldn't help but sit up and take a closer look.

"Under the repair of the people and the east, to the side of the border, encountering the construction of the wall and sticking to it, do not let it in. Every day, the sky is overcast, and the evil spirits are everywhere. The daggers are thousands of dead in front of the wall, and the blood is drifting. By September, the grain road is broken. The people are not allowed to eat for 17 days.

What is written here is that the lower cult is ruined by ghosts. Many people want to escape to the martyrdom of the upper cult, but they are rejected. In the end, there is no food in the abdomen, and they kill each other to eat meat.

The hurricane and blood of the sky, and now it has become a few words on paper, and Chu’s late reading is not a taste.

"The sorrow of the dead is the son of the younger son, the son of the son is burned as the head of the celestial being, and the sword is out of the shackles. The dragon knives are riddled with evil spirits before and after, and the enemy is broken, and Xue Meng’s name rises. The ink burns the singularity of the sky. The land government, its enchantment technique, the teacher Chu night Ning, actually nothing worse, the world shocked."

Although Chu Xiening knows that the crack described here is not as serious as it was in the past, but he was somewhat surprised and slightly widened his eyes: "Can he cover the sky with his hands and fill the cracks?"

Looking down, I read a lot of essays that ignited the world and smashed the evil spirits.

"...Hedong has a shackle, and Bitanzhuang refused to do this for some reason. The ink burned and went, met the Yellow River and sneaked, and on the 3rd, the dagger burned it, and suffered. However, the son was severely wounded and penetrated the rib. Fortunately, there is a lonely moon in the night, Jiang’s..."

Chu night Ning fingertips are cold.

The son is heavily wounded and traversing the ribs.

Whose belly, who's rib? Ink burned?

He clearly said that he would never read the wrong words. At this time, he did not want to believe it. He repeatedly read it four or five times. He put his finger on it in the sixth time, and looked at it one word at a time.

The ink is burning and going... Three days of war...

Chu Jingning seems to have seen the back of a black Xiao Yu in front of his eyes. The boots are stepping on the huge waves of the Yellow River, holding one hand and holding the shining sacred willows in one hand.

Daggers burned and suffered. However, the son is heavy.

His hand was tightened on the paper, and the joints were jade.

He saw that the ink burned in the stormy waves, and the willows were smashed out, and the fire-like ghosts screamed and shouted, and the skulls of the skulls were cut down. In a flash, the blood was splashed, and at the same time, the claws of the dragons rushed through. The burning ribs!

The giant beast that had lost his head swayed and eventually crashed into the ground. The huge body cut off the flow of the Yellow River. The ink burned down on the riverside. He stood still again and his clothes were instantly immersed in blood...

Chu nightning slowly closed his eyes.

For a long time, for a long time, they did not open. It’s just a trembling eyelash, it’s slightly moist.

Then, without exception, those books said that the ink was burned as "Mc Master."

Chu Xiaoning saw these three words, only felt strange, can not tell the strange.

He couldn't relate the smile, the lazy teenager, to the name "Mo Zong Shi". He missed too many things about ink burning, and suddenly felt that if the man returned tomorrow, would he still be able to recognize the apprentice?

The disciples who had more scars became the apprentices of the Mo Zongshi.

Thinking this way, my heart could not help but give birth to some vague uneasiness.

He really wants to see the ink, but he is not very daring to see the ink.

In such a heart, Chu Xiaoning went to the middle of the night to sleep vaguely.

Even if the person who died once, still do not know how to take care of himself, lying in a pile of files, the quilt is not covered. He is really weak, his energy has not yet fully recovered, and there are few people who dare to swear by the red lotus water. No one wakes him up. This sleeps dark and dark, when Chu nightning wakes up, it is already The second day was late.

Chu night Ning opened the window and looked at the next day, and fell into a long silence.

"....."

The red clouds reflected the lake, and a wild crane flew over the sky, and the tired birds returned home.

It’s time...

Did he lie in bed for a day and a night?

Chu nightning face color iron blue, hands on the window sill, slamming, almost pinched the wooden strip.

It’s really awkward, the feast that the Lord has set for him will soon begin, but he still has sleepy eyes, his clothes are not well-dressed, his hair is scattered... What should I do? What to do? What to do? What to do? !

He is secretly anxious.

"Yu Heng!" At this time, Xue Zhengyi came up the mountain, he shoved into the house, saw a sitting on the couch, an unpredictable Chu nightning, could not help but live.

"How come yet?"

"Started." Chu night Ning Dao, if it is not a forehead with a broken hair, his appearance is really majestic, "what is the Lord? You need to kiss."

"Nothing is okay, I haven't let you go down in a day, and I'm worried." Xue Zheng slammed his hand. "When it's up, it's groomed and washed. Go to Mengpotang for a while. When the guilty master walks, he has to explain it. You can only eat after an hour. You haven’t eaten anything since you woke up yesterday. It’s just over twelve o’clock. I’ve prepared a lot of dishes you like. What kind of crab lion head, sweet-scented osmanthus, go, go together."

"There is no need to work hard." Chu nightning listened to the crab head lion head, sweet-scented osmanthus sugar, too lazy to take care of it, ready to change clothes and follow Xue Zhengyi.

After all, the crab lion head is hot, and it is boring when it is cold.

"Should, it should be." Xue Zhengyi watched him stay in bed and put on his shoes, and then he took a moment and suddenly remembered something. He said, "Oh, yes, there is one more thing."

Chu nightning was originally not good at life, slept for five years, but it was a moment of dullness. He put the shoes and socks on the opposite side. After a long period of time, he found that it was wrong, and he changed it back.

He concentrated on wearing a sock, so he didn't lift his head. He said: "What?"

Xue Zhengxuan smiled and said: "The burning child sent an urgent letter this morning, saying that he must rush back tonight. He also brought you a gift, this child is really bigger and more sensible, I am... 哎, Yu Heng, you What did you take off your sock?"

"Nothing, this is yesterday."

Chu Xiaoning said: "Some dirty, change the set."

"...that's why you just changed?"

"I just didn't remember."

Xue Zhengyi is very straightforward. He doesn't do what he wants. He just looks around in a circle and sighs with emotion: "Speaking of Yuheng, you are also a big boss. I think, you are the time to find a Taoist, you see you. This house. The masters of the crimes are still neatly arranged. As a result, you wake up and live without living. Just a piece of paper in the east, a piece of robe in the west... Do you want me to pay attention to you?"

"Please ask the Lord to go out."

"Hey?"

Chu night Ning Yin calmed his face, nothing good temper: "I change clothes."

"Haha, okay, go out and go out, but what about the buddy...?"

Chu night, Ning slammed his head, looking like an icy lake, glaring at Xue Zhengyi’s eyelessness.

Xue Zhengyi finally felt a bit of a taste, and laughed twice: "...I just asked, Yuheng this condition, generally you can not see."

Chu Xiaoning dropped his eyelids and looked like a white Xue Xingyi.

Xue Zhengyi sighed and said helplessly: "Is it wrong? I know you are picky."

Chu night Ning faintly said: "I just have no such thing, just how to be picky."

"Since you don't pick it, then you can say, what kind of look can you win your eyes? I don't want to insist on it, but at least I can help you pay attention."

Chu Xiaoning disliked him and was too lazy to talk to him, so he casually said: "Living. Woman. Respect the Lord to pay attention, don't send."

When he said that Xue Zhengyi was pushed out of the door, Xue Zhengyi was unwilling to go through a life and death. He was sincerely concerned about the lifelong events of Chu Xinning.

When Xue Ning was in the middle of the same year, Xue Zhengyi especially regretted that he wanted to have a child staying in the late night, just like his brother. Then he had a thought, and someone can take care of it and can compensate.

However, Chu Xiaoning has neither children nor brothers, and he is alone.

Xue Zhengyi was very upset at that time. He felt that he was very sorry. He felt that he was lonely and lonely.

"You asked to say that it is not the same as saying it... Yu Heng, really, I said seriously - hehe!"

Xue Zhengyi was struggling, and Chu Ning had already pushed him out, and he slammed the door.

By the way, he also fell into an enchantment and kept him out.

Xue Zhengyi: "..."

Update the small theater "The requirements for men and men to meet the requirements of the Taoist"

The head sends down a small test paper, which asks everyone to write their own requirements for the Taoist.

Chu nightning: How come again? The text has said that women, living people. That's it.

Ink burning: (sigh)... In fact, I don't know what the requirements of the Taoist are, but I feel that it is not suitable for falling in love with my IQ.

Xue Meng (seriously, thinking hard): height can not be lower than my chin, weight can not be higher than my weight, waist can not be thicker than my thigh, preferably almond eyes, I like almond eyes, looks can not lose to the division昧(师昧:.....), force can't lose to ink burning (ink burning: handing over, no such woman), loyalty, will give priority to cooking, focus: must be spicy, I can't stand 鸳鸯pot. Although there is no emperor in my family to inherit from me, I feel that I am not an old man, and I don’t care if I am married. After all, the career of a man’s husband is more important, so if there is any dissatisfaction in the above conditions, then I will not ask for my talk and avoid waste. Time to each other.

Teacher: It’s good to be kind, and it’s not very important to be beautiful.

Nangong Yu: First, honest. Second, beautiful.

Ye Forgiveness: ... no interest.

Mei Hanxue: Can you find someone who can improve my play, can you? Director, the two men's boat play need no substitute?

Chapter 126

The elders of Yuheng are out of the customs and naturally deserve to be celebrated. However, Xue Zhengyi knew that Chu Xi Ning did not like the excitement and his mouth was stupid, so he should have arranged it in advance. Chu nightning was originally afraid that there would be some embarrassment at the dinner, but later found that his fears were completely redundant.

Although Xue Zhengyi is a five-and-three-thick man, he has a brilliant mind and makes the scene very accurate. In front of all the elders and many disciples, he said a few words about his heart, but he did not say much, did not appear sensational, but was very touching. Only Lu Cun elders had no eyesight and laughed and shouted:

"Yu Heng, happy today, how are you still cold face? You also say a few words, here are some new disciples, have never seen your face."

Xue Zhengyi stopped for him: "Lu Cun, Yu Heng wants to say, I will help him to say it, you have to pull him and talk about something that I have not done."

"That's not the same, you have to say a few words."

"But him -"

"No problem." Xue Zhengyi still wants to say something, but he was interrupted by a cold, cold voice. "Since there are new disciples, I will say two words." Chu Yuning said, standing from the seat. When he got up, he looked around Meng Po Tang, and thousands of people were watching him.

But the ink has not come yet.

Chu night Ning thought for a moment, said: "Nanfeng Honglian Shuiyu, multi-agent armor, in order to prevent accidental injury, please introduce your new entry disciples, nothing to be arrogant."

The crowd fell silent.

Lu Cun couldn't help but say: "... finished?"

"Tell it out."

Chu night Ning said, coveted and bowed, and sat down.

The people fell into a longer silence.

Most of the new disciples are thinking, they think, die and resurrect, five years after the world, is this the experience of mortals? Then let me talk about the feelings in my heart, or thank my savior, and so on.

But how can this person follow the dogma, and it is too much to be sincere to lose such a sentence.

The older disciples couldn’t help but laugh, and several people whispered to the companion next to them: "It’s the elder of Yuheng, it hasn’t changed."

"It’s still so few."

"Oh, yeah, temper is bad, except for the good looks, where can't be anywhere." Anyway, there are many people who are too far apart, but they can't hear it when they are far away. Some people are so ridiculous. Everyone said that they were smiling and laughing, and went back to see the white man in snow who was sitting next to Xue Zhengyi.

The banquet opened, in addition to the spicy and spicy Sichuan cuisine, there are many exquisite cakes, and the Jiangnan cuisine with a delicate taste and sweet taste makes a table.

Xue Zhengyi opened a hundred pears on the altar and distributed it to each table. The amber liquor was smashed and boiled. Chu nightning was eating the fourth crab lion head, suddenly a deep sea. The bowl "when" slammed under his eyelids.

"Yu Heng! Have a drink!"

"...this is a bowl."

"Oh, is it a cup or a bowl, drink it! Your favorite pear is white!" Xue Zhengyi's deep eyebrows are dyed with joy. "To say your amount of alcohol, I am the first to be convinced by Xue. It’s a thousand cups that don’t fall! A million cups are not drunk! Come here – this first cup, I respect you!”

Chu Xiaoning laughed, he picked up a big bowl and touched Xue Zhengyi.

"Since the Lord said this, this first bowl, I drank."

After talking about it, drink the bowl and show it to Xue Zhengxuan. Xue Zhengyi was overjoyed, but his eyes were a little red: "Good, good! Five years ago, you asked me to ask for a pear in the jar. I refused to give it to you. Later I regretted it. I I thought that again...more..." His voice gradually faded, and he looked up and sighed, and he sighed again. "Don't say it! Say what to do! You will like it later, the whole wine cellar's pear white It’s all for you! I will control you for a lifetime of good wine!”

Chu night Ning smiled and said: "Okay, earned."

Here is saying, Xue Meng and a person in the corner for a long time, suddenly Xue Meng stunned the man to move over, the two Qi Qi in the late night with the front end of a ceremony.

"Master!" Xue Meng looked up, a youthful face device Yu Xuan.

"Master." The man also looked up, and the end of the scent of water, the light cloud out, not the teacher and who?

The teacher said: "The disciple is in the doctor's office in Wuchang Town today. He can't get away from it. At this time, he came to see the Master. It is really embarrassing. Please respect the sin."

"...nothing."

Chu Xiaoning fell down and looked at the teacher for a while. Although his face was faint, his heart suddenly gave birth to a loss that made him feel strange.

This kind of ink-burning favorite person is too far from the wind.

If five years ago, the teacher was still a beautiful embryo, now, he is completely open, like a bunch of silk flowers blooming in the night, the green flower buds can no longer hide the white inside, Fang Fei trembles Come out, it’s eclipsed by everything around you. He has a pair of peach eyes that look forward to life, and the spring water is soft and not a good grip. The curvature of the bridge of the nose is extremely soft, and one point is too sharp. It is too weak to lose one point. The lips are red and full, just like the cherry immersed in the clear dew. The words spit out are sweet and soft.

"Master, I miss you very much."

He rarely expresses his emotions in such an explicit manner, so he can't help but sigh, and he doesn't know what to say.

The teacher’s eyes were red and red, and it was very affectionate, which made Chu’s late birth a little bit.

Why is he jealous with Shi Ming? They are so many years old, they are in the position of respect, why should he be jealous with Shi Ming?

Thinking this way, Chu Xiaoning nodded and said indifferently: "Get up."

With permission, both apprentices stood up.

.....

Chu late Ning had already smoothed his mind, but he glanced at the teacher and suddenly caught it.

"..."

Is the teacher higher than Xue Meng?

This comparison made Chu Xiaoning somewhat stunned, coughing twice, and could not help but look at his eyes.

It’s more than a little bit higher.

However, the body of the teacher is better, the shoulder width, the waist is thin, the legs are long, the soft steel strip, the delicate and elegant can not be said. He was born with a pumping, and there was a weak appearance when he was a teenager.

Chu nightning face and involuntarily sinking.

He felt that he had lost a bit.

But... nothing more.

Anyway, his thoughts on ink burning have not been said to death, and it is even more impossible to say it in the future. As for the burning of the ink, the guy chased him on the poor blues and fell into the yellow spring, but did not see that he liked him, and later, it is even more impossible to see.

The two of them will be masters and apprentices for a lifetime, and they will have a deep friendship and a good taste.

Others, if you can’t come, you’ll be fine.

Xue Meng suddenly blushes, took his elbow and smashed his sorcerer, and made a look.

The teacher is helpless and whispers: "I really want me to go?"

"Yes, you are more suitable."

"But these things have been prepared by the Lord for five years..."

"Because it’s all I prepared, you go, let alone others are you brought back today?"

"...well." The teacher sighed. He couldn't help Xue Meng. He had to take a huge rosewood raft from Xue Meng's back. He held it in both hands and went to sit down to eat crab powder. The head of the lion's head is in front of Chu.

"Master, less master and me... these five years have prepared some gifts, are some ... small care, but also please respect the teacher."

Xue Meng listened at the back, his face became more and more hot. In order to conceal his panic, his arms clasped his arms to his chest and looked like a leisurely turn, and suddenly he became interested in the carved pillars of Meng Potang.

The gift from someone else, it is reasonable to say that it is rude to open the face, but Chu Yuning, as the master of his two, is not willing to accept something too expensive, so he thought about it and asked: "What is it?" ?"

"Yes... some small things bought around." Shi Yanbing is smart, and he will not understand the feelings of Chu Yuning, so he said, "It’s not worth the price. If you don’t worry, you can’t worry about it. Go back and open it.” That's it."

Chu night Ning said: "Going back is no different from the present, and it opened."

"No no no!! Don't open!" Xue Meng stunned, and quickly rushed over to grab.

Chu nightning has already opened the box, and at the end he still looked at him.

"Run so urgently, you are not afraid to fall."

Xue Meng: "..."

The head there was full of stuff, and it was all small and interesting little things, some embroidered hair bands, the ingenious hair ring buckle, the ghostly jade hook, and Chu Ningning picked up a bottle of peace and tranquility. Medicine, under the candlelight, the coat of arms of the cold scales is shining.

This box of things is worth the price.

Chu night Ning really did not know what to say, lifted the Phoenix, and scolded Xue Meng. Xue Meng’s face is redder.

Xue Zhengyi looked funny next to him and said: "Since Menger has a heart, Yu Heng, you will accept it. Anyway, other elders have given you a gift, and the value is not light, and there is nothing more."

Chu night Ningdao: "Xue Meng is my apprentice."

The implication is that he does not want to receive so many things from the apprentice.

"But this is what I have seen in the past five years." Xue Meng heard him say this, anxious. "I use the silver I earned. I don't spend half a minute, the teacher." Respect, if you don't accept it, I...I..."

"He will be uncomfortable and will not sleep." Xue Zhengyi said to his son, "Maybe there will be a hunger strike."

Chu nightning: "..."

He really didn't know how to talk to the father and son, so he looked down at the box and suddenly saw a bunch of things inside, lying in a smaller wooden box.

"This is..." He took it out and opened it to see four clay dolls lying inside.

He didn't understand it. He narrowed his eyes and looked at Xue Meng. He saw Xue Meng's face flushed. He almost dripped bleeding. He saw that Chu Ning was watching him. He quickly lowered his head. He was a man, and he was a hairy man. Like a kid, he was stared down by the teacher and bowed his head. He couldn’t tell the shame.

Chu night Ning asked: "What is this?"

Xue Zhengyi is also curious: "Take it out and see."

"No... want..." Xue Meng held his forehead and muttered weakly. But his old man has happily put the four little clay figurines out. The four clay figurines were extremely ugly, and apart from one taller and three shorter, they barely saw the difference between them. This hand, at first glance, is from Xue Meng's not running.

I want to know that Xue Meng originally wanted to learn the mechs with Chu, and he learned a day. Chu Xiening let him change the knife. There is no other reason, because this kid has nothing in the red lotus in the afternoon. Made out, but with a sickle almost removed the machine room.

It’s really hard to pinch the clay man with such a “small heart”.

Xue Zhengyi grabbed one of the clay figurines and looked upside down. He did not understand and asked his son: "What is this you are doing?"

Xue Meng said: "With, just play, nothing."

"This black lacquered person is really not good to look at, it is still pretty higher, the brush is white paint." Xue Zheng said, the thumb touched the villain's head.

Xue Mengdao: "Don't touch!!"

But it is already late, the villain speaks.

"Uncle, don't touch."

Xue Zhengyi: "..."

Chu nightning: "..."

Xue Mengyi’s slap in the face, his arms blocked his eyes and he did not want to see it.

Xue Zhengyi reacted for a long time, he laughed: "Hey, Meng, this is your burning child? This is too ugly, hahahaha."

Xue Meng angered: "That is because he was originally ugly! You look at the teacher I am holding! Looks so good!" He said, rising his face and pointing at the white paint clay figurines.

The white lacquered clay figurines were swept to his head by his fingertips, and a cold voice was said, "You can't let go."

Chu nightning: "..."

"Ha ha ha ha ha ha!!" Xue Zhengxiao's tears will come out. "This is good, this is good, have you put some soul sounds in it? This little thing learns Yuheng's tone of speech, really Pretty, hahahaha!"

Chu night Ning 拂 sleeves: "Noisy."

But still took the four little clay figurines gently back, put them back in the box, and put them around. There was no expression on his face during this process, and it seemed very indifferent and calm, but when he looked up again, there was some unfaded gentleness at the bottom.

"I have accepted this, and the rest of you take it back. You also use these things. Master is not missing."

"but……"

"Less Lord, the Master will let you take it back, you will take it back." The teacher smiled and whispered to him, and lowered his voice. "In any case, the Lord wants to send it, isn't this box of clay figurines?"

Xue Meng’s head was almost smoked. He stunned the teacher with a sigh of relief, kicked his kick and bit his lip and did not speak.

Xue Meng, a person who has been held from a very young age, has never had anything to say, and can't do anything. Therefore, his way of expressing likes and dislikes is often very warm and straightforward.

Chu Xiu Ning therefore feels that he is very rare. This kind of rate is something he never had. It is one of Xuemen’s most valuable and valuable qualities. He is somewhat envious. Unlike myself, I have always been a person who is not honest. I am very missing in my heart, but I don’t care about it.

Rebirth comes back, although it is a little better, but it is like this, it will not change much. It’s not a cold day, he feels that he will probably use the whole half of his life to change it, and he can’t change too much. Changed a lot, probably he is not him.

When the banquet arrived, the ink burned still did not return.

Chu Evening was actually very boring, but he didn’t say a word. Although he really wanted to ask Xue Zhengyi, I would like to ask how the letter of today’s letter was written. I want to ask Xue Zhengyi. I don't know where the ink burns.

But he squeezed the wine cellar, drank a cup and a cup, and the knuckles were pale, the wine burned through the lungs, and he did not burn his heart to the heat. It was enough to gather enough courage and turn to ask. When does he come back.

Chapter 127

Chu late rather than asked, Xue Zhengyi did not mention.

The dignity of the dead and the dead is a little high, dizzy, and speech is not good.

He suddenly got close, staring at Chu Yuning and said: "Yu Heng, you are not happy."

"No."

"You're angry."

"No."

"Who is making you unhappy?"

Chu nightning: "..."

Ask?

Asking, I will feel a lot of happiness in my heart. Maybe the ink is not going to come back tonight. Maybe he is going to come back tonight, but Xue Zhengzhen’s retelling is wrong, or Xue Zhengxuan wrong……

Chu night Ning Yao looked at the door, the night was dark.

The feast will be gone and the seats will be cold.

On the first day of his departure, the ink did not come back.

The disciples of the whole life and death are all gone, even those who he can't name, even those who have never seen him, come, but he is worse.

If he is worse, the feast is broken.

A lot of crab powder lion head, sweet-scented osmanthus fragrans, pear flower white fragrant snow wine, are not filled with dissatisfaction.

Chu night Ning closed his eyes and suddenly heard the distance. With the place where Meng Potang was in the main entrance hall, some disciples picked it up.

"Oh--! Look! What's outside?"

"What is it in the sky!"

More and more people gathered in the past, and everyone in the room heard it, and the buzzing hustle and bustle, the spring and thunder of the one after another.

People walked out of the house and stood up on the grassy lawn in front of Meng Potang. They looked at the fire tree and the silver flowers were not night, the stars and rivers shattered into little fire, and they bloomed in the air and scattered.

"Show fireworks!" The young disciples smiled and smiled, and the youthful and tender faces were illuminated by the flashing fire, and the stars were scattered in the eyes.

"It’s so beautiful, I’ve never seen such a big fireworks, I haven’t seen it in the New Year.”

Chu Yuning also slowly sneaked out of the hall. He was not in a good mood. Even though Xue Zhengzhen had prepared such a splendid fireworks event, he was grateful, but he still could not get rid of the boring heart.

"call out--"

A sharp whistle rang through the clouds.

He faintly looked up, a golden red stream of light like a string of arrows, ingesting the sky.

So lovely.

If that person is also...

"thumping!"

The dazzling starburst was blasted when it was raised to the level with Wu, and thousands of crystal golden huis converge into the stream, so the Galaxy is eclipsed, and the moon palace is dull.

Fireworks like a tree sea otter blows like snow, like a million rivers and rivers. In the hustle and bustle of the night, Chu Yuning slowly closed his eyes.

"The disciple is burning, and I wish the Master a clear exit."

Suddenly someone said behind him that the words were clear and the words were like needles.

Chu night, swaying, trembled like a thorn in the back, like a charcoal fire in the throat. His heart beats fast, the blood is screaming, and he can't breathe, suddenly looking back -

Behind him stood a few disciples who had just come out of Meng Potang, and they all looked at the sky with surprise. Some people read this.

Gradually, the person who reads is no longer one.

Everyone feels fresh, those little disciples, men and women, one standing, three or five in groups, all staring at the brilliant night, read this sentence.

The disciple is burning.

I wish the Master a good pass.

A soft voice is like a tide, like a proverb in a dream. A sentence is as determined as a rock, like a thousand mountains. Chu night Ning suddenly looked up, the night sky fireworks flowed by the spiritual power, flashing, with such a splendid battle to form this sentence.

The fireworks are condensed into a dazzling tide that can be seen from hundreds of miles away. The colorful stars are separated from the mountains by the Wanyue Mountains. They have never rushed to him from the night, and the people's joy and sadness. Oh, I also ran to him in this long night.

He felt that he suddenly became a driftwood in the sea. The sea was his eyes in the sinister house, in front of the Ghost Hall, and the eyes that suddenly ignited him, warm, hot, and decisive.

He has nowhere to run.

It was surrounded by the whisper of that person, the laughter of that person, the affection of that person.

Chu nightning does not want to manage what kind of affection, master and apprentice, or something else.

As long as there is love, it is enough.

There was no time for the ink to burn, and I came back before the dinner.

Even if the stars wear the moon, even if the horse does not stop, it is still close to the mountain.

Fortunately, there is also a communication firework made by the elders in the rucksack. He is afraid that he will be jealous outside, use emergency equipment, and be skillful. He can write on the paper and put it into the shaft to ignite, then he can put the written sentence into a vast The fireworks, even if they are far apart, can be seen in the dead.

This pyrotechnic price has a lot of money, which is extremely difficult to make, but the ink does not care, just ask his master to be angry.

Even if it is separated by thousands of miles, even if it is drowned.

He also wants to hear this sentence later.

"The disciple is burning, and I wish the Master a clear exit."

After two hours, the banquet dissipated. When I returned to the red lotus water, the night was deep.

Chu night Ning has a taste of wine, feels uncomfortable, wants to take a bath, but the sky has turned cold, the lotus pond of the red lotus water is too cold, washed once yesterday, almost did not freeze the body. He thought about it, went back to the house and took a few pieces of changing clothes, a tub, and went to the sound pool.

Wonderful Sound Pool is a bathhouse shared by all parties. He only took a shower here in the first few months after he came to the death and death.

It was already late, and few people would bathe inside. Chu night Ning raised his hand and smashed the fine curtain of the shower. Many places have been rebuilt, and the sound pool has not changed. It is surrounded by high walls and steps into the gate. It has to go through a veils floating in the gauze. At the end, you can see the six-level brush with tung oil varnish. The narrow wooden steps.

Anyone who goes to take a bath will take off their shoes and socks before going down the wooden steps, so just look at it here and know how many people are in the pool.

When Chu Ning took off his shoes and took off his socks, he also noticed that he had only put a pair of boots here. The boots were quite big, some were dirty, but they were neatly placed in the corner, and they were not littered because of the space. .

Chu night, Ning Xindao, who is it? It’s too late to take a shower...

But he didn't think much. He held his small tub and walked down the steps with bare feet. He opened the last shackle at the end of the walkway and went down to the yard.

The mist in the courtyard is filled with clouds, and there is a huge hot spring pool. According to the ups and downs of the ground, a wide waterfall is created, which makes a rumbling sound. The hot air and the white smoke stretched out the soft waist from the pool, and suddenly rose into the air, scattered into every corner, every inch of the gap.

Because the fog is too heavy, in fact everything is blurred here, people and people must be very close, in order to clear the other's face.

Chu nightning stepped on the smooth rain stone path and crossed the heavy peaches to the nearest bath. There is a short frame made of bluestone, which is specially used for changing items. He put the small tub and robes on the top, then took off his clothes and slowly walked into the pool.

It’s really warm.

He couldn't help but sigh with satisfaction.

If you don’t want to bathe with so many people and don’t want to take a bath every night in the middle of the night, he’s really a bit chilly and rude.

After all, Xue Zhengyi is a person who has nothing to consider and considers very well. The sound pool is made by his supervisor. There are flowers at the poolside, Huasheng is the end of the year, and the waterfall at the end is used for washing. If you are tired, you can lie down in a small wooden pavilion and press the meridian points with geothermal pebbles.

It’s too comfortable compared to the sloppy bath that was rushed in the red lotus water yesterday.

Chu nightning was forgotten for a while, and some of them were pleasant. When they saw no one, they stretched out the slender figure and went straight to the waterfall.

"Hey!"

He just emerged from the water, wiped his face, his lips were light and smiled, and he suddenly saw a man in the distance, a man was facing him, taking a shower under the fierce waterfall, the sound of the waterfall It was so loud that Chu’s late night was so close that he did not hear the movement of another person.

I am afraid that if he floats up a little later, if he continues to swim forward, the tip of his finger can touch the man's leg.

Fortunately, the cliffs and horses got up and did not touch people, but the distance is still somewhat rude. He almost stood behind the man, the man was very tall, much higher than the late night, and the skin was tanned and looked very wild. The shoulders are wide and quite, and the shoulder blades sway with the movement of the arms, like the golden mountains, which contain the power of destruction.

His muscles are not exaggerated, but they are well-proportioned, and the water rushes against his body. Some of the water flows in the masculine wide field, and some splash around, and some are like crazy. This body, willing to turn into a thin layer of water to cover him, is difficult to distinguish with him.

Chu nightning is a cold-spoken person. When I saw such a hot body, I was red when I arrived, and I was busy turning around.

But I don't know if the bottom of the pool is too slippery, or if his footsteps are somewhat unstable, it is actually a cockroach, slamming into the pool water, splashing a large splash of water!

"Cough!!"

This time, the night of the night, even the face was flushed, because of the flusteredness, even a few mouthfuls of water, thinking of the water or the bathing water of the guy behind him, it was even more angry and disgusting, he also refused to accept anything calmly. , rushing to stand up from the water.

He is a majestic elder, he can

Suddenly a smooth line, a strong hand to hold him, and the hands of the late face of the lost night, from the rushing water, the man was obviously shocked by his movements.

"Are you OK?"

The man clutched his arm, his voice was low, and their height was different. Just when the man bowed his head, he breathed in the ear of Chu’s late night. "The stone here is very slippery, be careful."

Chu Xinning’s ear is redder. He can almost feel that the man’s chest is behind him. It’s a long way away, ups and downs, ups and downs, when he’s volts, his heart is soft, he spares his life, but when he starts, he’s so arrogant. It is almost attached to his back.

Chu nightning was so angry and angry, how often did he come into contact with people?

Suddenly opened the man's hand, Chu night Ning face gloomy, but his eyes flashed: "I am fine."

The sound of the waterfall is very loud, and the sound of Chu’s lateness is not clear.

But somehow, after hearing him talking, the man slammed and the whole person suddenly stopped. He raised his hand slightly, as if he wanted to say something, but he did not have the courage to say...

In the meantime, Chu Xiaoning has already gone a little further, stepping in, or hiding in the bottom of the lively curtain of boiling back.

The author has something to say: Today, the bib has a "Frost, a sword, a simmered meat bag", the wife of the forgotten little prince, knocking soft and cute, hahaha~ can't help but want to touch the back of the little prince~~ Hey~~Thank you big baby~~

The small theater comes from an old joke, scratching his head

Ink burning: 唔... The title reminds the teacher to slide carefully, how does the master still slip? (laugh)

Chu nightning: ...Does this not be careful?

Chapter 128

Chu Xinning’s heartbeat is very fast, and his face is a little red.

Yu Guang swept the man, still standing in the same place as the mountain, and his body seemed to be a little stiff. Chu night never looked at him, but he could feel his naked, unconcealed gaze, staring straight at himself. Like the sword that has just been raised from the sword pool, it is still screaming at the amazing heat, stabbing the waterfall, and the water is steamed into smoke by the body of the sword, stabbing himself.

Chu nightning felt that he had been greatly offended, and his face became more and more ugly, biting his lip and hiding deeper into the waterfall.

Unexpectedly, the man was actually an infatuation, and Chu Ning went to hide in it. He also walked like a marionette and followed a step forward.

"..."

Chu night Ning was furious, which made him think that there were always a few perverted demon people in the dead and the dead. In the past, there was even a woman who didn’t sleep at night, climbed to the top of the red lotus pot, secretly squatted, etc. Watching yourself take a shower. This memory made his scalp numb, and the arm that the man had grabbed seemed to be unable to hold the goose bumps.

Fortunately, he hid in the deepest part of the waterfall and ate the water beads for a long time. The man finally let him go, and returned to the water in one step and three, and continued to take a shower.

Chu nightning endured the flames of the heart, and did not want to bubble more. I plan to leave as soon as possible after washing.

He reached for his bath towel on his shoulder, but suddenly found that the bath towel, as well as the scented scent of the scented scent in the bath towel, fell into the water because of the stone drop.

At this moment, I am afraid that it has melted away...

Going ashore again?

Naked, walking from the man's eyelids?

Chu nightning is not blushing now, his face is blue. Thin lips are tight, very humiliating.

He does not go.

Then he held his arms with his hands like a fool, and leaned back against the rocks, and continued to rush at himself in the deepest part of the waterfall.

Chu nightning: "....."

the man:"……"

Suddenly, the man raised his voice in the distance and hesitated and asked: "Do you want a scent?"

"..."

"There is incense."

"..."

"It’s not always going to be like this."

Chu night Ning closed his eyes and still did not go out, cold and cold: "You throw it over."

The man did not throw it over. He seemed to feel like a stranger, too rude, too disrespectful. Chu nightning waited for a while under the waterfall, saw a peach leaf, applied spiritual power, carrying a saponin, two incense, and drifting toward him.

Chu Xiaoning picked up the things, and took a closer look and stunned.

There is nothing in the saponin, everyone uses it, but the scented person picks up the plum and sea bream, which is his favorite.

He couldn't help but see the tall figure hidden in the distance through the crystal curtain.

The man asked him: "Do you want these two?"

Chu night Ning said: "Make it."

The man did not speak again, and the two men were separated by a long distance, and they were flushed with silence. Chu nightning washed and washed, a little more comfortable, then carefully from the depths of the waterfall, and stood up again. After all, the place where the original was standing was too urgent, and he was really uncomfortable.

But when he came out, the man sneaked over to him. If he came over, he would have thought that this night was so strange that he seemed to be screaming. He wanted to talk to him and hesitated. I don’t know if I should go forward, and I’m going to stare at Chu’s hair.

After washing for a while, I can't stand it, Chu nightning intends to leave first.

Unfortunately, the clothes were placed in the mouth of the pool. He had to return to the original road to be able to put it on. No way, Chu nightning had to bite his head, sink his face, bite his back molars, and walk to the place where the man stood.

Unexpectedly, I walked to the front of the man. The two of them said that they were not long. When they said that the distance was short and short, the man suddenly moved. He bundled his long hair and took the wet hair, followed by After Chu night, he is also ready to go out for a bath.

Chu night Ning's forehead spurs and jumps, speeding up the pace, who knows that the man is so brazen, but also to speed up the pace.

Chu nightning: "....."

The golden light that had been asked by his fingertips was flowing. The reason why he refused to call weapons was not afraid of injuring others, but he felt that no matter what, he always had to wear the clothes first.

Then I walked faster.

This time the man did not follow him again, and the man stopped.

Chu night Ning loosened his breath, but the tone was loose to half, and even the sigh did not completely sigh. I heard the man say behind him: "You have hair on your hair... and foam."

"..."

"Don't go clean?"

At the time when Chu’s heart was burning, the man walked slowly again. This time he walked very close and his voice was very clear, just behind him.

If Chu Xiaoning is not so angry, it should be able to hear that the voice has changed, but it is still familiar. It is a pity that his heart is blazing and mad.

"You..." The man still wants to say something more.

Chu nightning finally couldn't help it. He turned around and shook his hands. The golden light in his hand slammed up and brushed his face toward the other side. The eyes were thunder and lightning, and the snow was like a knife. Chu night Ning anger can not be suppressed, hate can not rise and kill: "Do you have a disease?"

The light of heaven asked to open the mist and rushed toward the chest of the man.

In an instant, the fluorescent light illuminates the man's face.

Chu Xiaoning saw a pair of eyes, bright, gentle, and shy. It was like a star river and a firefly. It was accompanied by wind and clouds, and it was like a deep stream of water, hiding the past.

... ink burning? !

It’s too late for the men to wait for the situation, and Liu Teng squeaks, screaming at the sturdy and smooth chest. The ink burned and snorted, but it no longer sounded. It was only a low head. When you raised your face, the scorpion still had no grievances. It was just wet, like a lingering Linan first rain.

The late night of the Chu Dynasty retracted the heavenly question and stood stiff in place.

Awkward, hoarse: "... Why don't you hide?"

Ink burning: "Master, Master..."

Chu Xiaoning is almost awkward. He thought about the scene where the two met again, but he never thought of meeting him in the pool of hot springs. "What are you doing here? When are you coming back?" !"

"Just." The ink burned softly. "Hurry, the body is too dirty, can't see, so I want to take a shower first, then go to see Master, I didn't think..."

"..." Chu Yuning could not speak for a while.

They did not think of it.

They all want to be right and right, and they will meet again and again.

The ink burned about still wants to be well-dressed, and appeared in front of Chu-night.

The results of it?

Not only is it not correct, it is ridiculous.

Not only is it not solemn, it is still ridiculous.

Not only is it not well-dressed, but also red/body/naked/body.

It’s barely fit to be clean.

If it's not clean enough to even have clothes, don't worry about it.

"Master, really... really is you..." The ink is not too concerned about these. In the past five years, Chu nighting has fallen asleep. He is awake. It’s just a dream time for Chu Yuning. He is a thousand days of heart and soul.

His mood is far more complicated than that of Chu Yuning. His eyes are reddish and strong and affectionate: "It’s been a long time, I, I just... I don’t dare to recognize it. I feel that I admit the wrong person, I I thought……"

"..." Chu Xiaoning felt that he was screaming in his brain. For a time, he did not know what to say. He said: "If you are not sure, you will not be able to ask me if you are not sure. What to do?"

"I want to ask." The ink burned softly. "But for five years... Suddenly... It seems that I saw the Master in front of me. I actually... I feel that I am dreaming..."

The situation in the neighborhood is even more embarrassing, and I dare not ask people.

Generally, when watching his silhouette, it is such a mood.

I have been dreaming too much in the past five years. I am afraid that I am a crazy madman. I wake up with tears on my pillow. The so-called meet, but it is a happy occasion.

Chu night, the chest is flustered, but it is hard to calm down, but it is really difficult for him. The bottom of my heart is moist, and the mouth still has to say dryly: "...what dreams can be ridiculous."

I heard that Chu Yuning answered this question. The ink burned first, and it seemed to think of something. He licked his lips and had a halo. In fact, he didn't intend to talk about it when he met, but he thought that if he didn't take advantage of the fact that he wouldn't build a wall at the moment, he would have a chance.

So he paused and said: "... Does the Master remember?"

"Can't remember what?"

The smoldering scorpion is dark, and the depth is not at the bottom: "It was what you said to me before, too good dreams, often not true."

"That was just because..." said that half of the stunned, Chu nightning suddenly realized that this sentence was said when he saved the ink in Jinchengchi, because it was really uncomfortable at the time, so he said such depression. The sentence, after so long, can still easily think of it.

But how do you know that the person in Jin Chengchi is actually himself? Did the teacher tell him?

Chu night Ning looked up at him, but he saw the ink burning and looking at himself. At this time, I realized that the smoldering is not sure of the truth at all. The reason why I say this is just to observe my reaction.

The ink burns softly: "Sure enough, it is a master."

Chu nightning: "..."

The ink burned his hand, the skin of his chest was cut open, and the blood stained. He smiled bitterly: "In these years, I always think about some past events, and I want to know what Master has done for me. I thought. A lot, and later I also thought of the illusion of Jin Chengchi - the teacher never directly called my name."

He paused, and then said: "Those memories are more and more eager to suffer, so I want to wait for the teacher to wake up, see you, many things, I have to ask you."

"..."

"One of the things I want to ask most is... Master, the person who saved me at the bottom of the pool, is actually you."

The ink burned and said, walking toward him, Chu night would rather go back.

Because he suddenly found that the ink burned is so high, Yue Lu is generally, every inch of the body is like the power to have human life. He suddenly found that the burning eyes were so bright, like the Asahi sunset into the two pools of Lingming, sparkling, all the sunshine.

Chu Xiaoning felt flustered when he did not come. He said, "Not me."

There is obviously no letter in the burning of the ink.

Chu night Ning caught another confession, just like grabbing the straw of life, but he was too shocked, too nervous, too embarrassed, even forgot the question he had just asked again, and the ink burned Answered him.

He looked at the man whose chest was blinded by a blood mark and said: "I just injured you, why don't you hide?"

The ink burned for a moment, and suddenly fell dark eyelashes and smiled.

"You said that the dream is too good, it won't be true." He also answered again, and paused. It seemed to mutter. "I want to feel pain. If it hurts, it will not be fake."

He has come over and stood in front of Chu Ningning.

It is mainly because of sudden encounters, the joy and tenderness in the heart, the pity and the sorrow and sorrow exceed everything, and the smoldering does not make any thoughts on him, and there is no imaginary thinking. He even forgot that he should keep a proper distance from Chu Jingning, a distance between a master and a teacher.

But he didn't.

When you are in love, you always remember that the person in front of you is late, not a master.

The ink-burning eyelids became more and more wet. He smiled and raised his arm: "It seems that it has been splashed by water." He wiped his face and rubbed his eyes.

Chu night, looking up at him, because he was longing for the ink to come back, he was slightly more awake than the ink, but because of this sober, he had extra thoughts to notice the state of their eyes. - Nothing is worn, standing and talking face to face. The ink burned was so close to him, and almost a little further forward, he could hug him like a ghost.

He didn't want to look up at the handsome and innocent face again. He could look down a few inches. He saw the straight shoulders and the broad chest. The blood of the sky was slowly opened, and the dried water beads burned with the ink. Breathing and shivering slightly, Chu Evening didn't even know if the firm chest was hotter or the water was hotter.

I only felt that I was surrounded by a smoldering atmosphere, which made him lose his soul.

"Master, I..."

What am I?

There was nothing to do with the ink burning, and I saw that Chu Ning suddenly turned around and ran away.

"..."

He was shocked.

Really running.

For the first time, he saw that Chu Ning was so rushed that he was anxious to run away. It seemed that he had something to eat and he would have his life to chew his soul.

"I really miss you."

The ink burned in the original place, because of inertia, he finished the whole sentence and then licked his lips.

Why are you going to escape...

The ink burns some grievances.

On the shore, I saw a face of green and a burst of red, and I was anxious to wear clothes, and I was even more wronged.

"Master," he muttered.

Chu night Ning ignored him.

"Master respect..."

Chu nightning still ignores him, wrapped in a waist.

"Master is ....."

"What?" Chu Su Ning, who finally put on his clothes, finally breathed a sigh of relief, feeling that his face and reason, with the cover of his robes, returned to the flesh and blood.

His sword and eyebrows were raging, and a pair of fierce phoenixes screamed at the counter-attack who dared to be taller than himself.

"What can't you go out and say? You talk to me naked, like what!"

The ink burned a little, the hand rolled into a fist, and coughed on the lips: "... I don't want to be naked."

"Then you still don't wear it again?"

"..." The ink burned, and his eyes turned away. He looked at a peach tree next to him and said, "...this is..."

He took a deep breath and finally made up his mind to say:

"Master, what you wear is my clothes."

After finishing this sentence, the ink burned staring at the swaying peach blossoms, and his face was a little red.

Chapter 129

In a short moment, Chu Xi Ning’s brain turned over the river, and the wind and rain increased, the thunder and lightning flashed, and the black cloud splashed ink.

Take off, still not off.

This is a terrible question.

It doesn't seem to be appropriate. He already knows that he has worn the wrong clothes. He can't pretend that he hasn't heard the ink burning.

Take off...

How come face? The clothes he wore hard to wear, and he would never be in the face of ink burning, and then take off one by one.

A few sighs are silent.

Ink burning: "However, this piece of clothes I wash is very clean, if the master does not disappoint, just wear it."

Chu nightning: "Well."

The ink burned a sigh of relief. He was a bit blunt, and he said that he had never said that Chu Ningdu had already worn his clothes. He would mention him at this time. Is it forced to persuade the Master to wear himself in front of himself? Untie?

The picture only ignited a spark in my heart, and it burned the ink.

His face is redder. Fortunately, he has been rushing outside in these years. He is no longer as fine as tender meat. The skin of wheat is not easy to see, but he feels that his heartbeat is a bit loud. He To be a guilty conscience, I am afraid that Chu will hear it later. So I was busy looking down to get the clothes of Chu’s late night, and stuffed my head.

When the clothes were sorted out, the two looked at each other, but they fell into another heavy burden.

does not fit.

The ink was immersed in the evening robes of Chu, and it was obviously tight. The placket could not be folded. The mouth was wide open, revealing a tight large piece of honey-colored pectoral muscles. The legs were exposed and half-baked out, and they were stretched out and could not be said. The grievances.

The situation in the late night of Chu was not good. He was wearing a robe of smoldering robe, and his robe was covered. He covered the whole foot and said it, and dragged it to the ground. A piece of white smoke was covered behind him. It looks pretty good and pretty, but it means that he is now much shorter than the ink.

Chu nightning was hurt.

He calmed his face and said, "Go away."

It means "I am leaving."

The ink burned did not understand right. When he invited himself to go together, he nodded and took the initiative to take the tub and change the clothes for the master, and eagerly followed him.

Chu nightning: "..."

The two walked to the entrance of the bath and opened the curtain. The outside was not near the hot springs, and some were cool in autumn. Chu night, I couldn’t help but hit it, and I saw it, and asked him: "Cold?"

"not cold."

When the ink burns now, I don’t know if he is a hard mouth, so he smiles and says: “I’m a little cold.” He said that he raised his hand and volleyed, and the palm of his hand leaped out of the red glow, and the layer of cold enchantment instantly caged the two. In it. The enchantment is very beautiful, the brilliance is flowing, and the top has fine floral marks.

Chu Xiaoning looked up and looked at it. "It’s good, it’s growing."

"Not as good as the Master."

"Almost, the cold enchantment I made is not necessarily better than this." Chu nightning looked at it for a while, looked at the light traces of the light on the light, and said, "The peach blossom is very beautiful."

"It’s a sea otter."

Chu night Ning's heart trembled a little, and broke into the bottom of the scorpion.

Ink burning: "There are five petals in the flower."

"..." Chu smiled and laughed happily, habitually wanting to cover the shaking of his own eyes, so pretending to be calm, even some ridicule, "learn me?"

Unexpectedly, the man’s eyes were pure and straightforward, and he looked at him like that in a frank manner. He nodded. “It’s not good to learn, let the teacher smile.”

Chu nightning is somewhat speechless.

The two walked side by side silently, and walked for a while, Chu nightning did not want to stand next to him, so the pace was a little faster, the ink burned behind, suddenly asked: "Master, my dinner did not have time to come back, you ... is it angry?"

"No."

"Really?"

"Cheat what you do."

"Then why are you walking so fast?"

Of course, it’s impossible to say that "because you are too tall", he was silent for a while, looked at the sky and said: "Because it seems to be raining."

As a result, he was the crow's mouth. It didn't take long after he finished speaking. In the sky that was originally gloomy, the water beads that had been smashed in the air were really dropped, and they were scattered into the wet curtain of the bead curtain.

The ink burned.

His smile is still as good-looking as it was five years ago, and even because of the fact that it is more than a few points, it seems to be particularly dazzling.

Chu night Ning glared at him: "What a smirk?"

"Nothing." The ink-burning dimple is deep and sweet.

The youth is very tall, but the eyelashes are very embarrassing when looking back at him, and there is no slight temper.

He was even a bit shy and said: "It’s only a long time since I didn’t see the Master. I’m very happy when I see you.”

"..."

Chu night Ning glared at him, licking the pear vortex on his cheek, I thought that these two pools of sweetness will always belong to Shi Mingjing, but later found that it is not, as long as they only pay for their lives, they can also be lucky.

Chu night Ning smashed him: "Stupid."

The ink-burning eyelashes hang down, slender and long, and it really laughs like a fool.

Such a forgetful shape, ink burned inadvertently stepped on the clothes that have been carefully avoided, Chu night Ning looked down at the ground, and then looked at him, looks majestic, but did not speak.

The ink burned very straight: "The clothesman is wearing a bigger dress."

"..." It is really which pot does not open which pot.

The ink burned all the way back to the red lotus water. Chu Evening is actually not used to it. He is used to being alone. He rarely has an umbrella with others, whether it is a paper umbrella or an enchantment umbrella.

So when he was halfway through, he stopped and said, "I will come by myself and open an enchantment."

The ink burned a bit: "Well, why..."

"Where is Master's reason for his disciples to play umbrellas."

"But the Master has done a lot for me." The ink burned for a while, and the voice was low. "In the past five years, I have hoped that I can become better every day, because the Master can do anything, and everything can be done by myself. I just want to know a little more than the teacher, so that the teacher can use it to me, and I can repay the teacher. I have been tempering for so long, I still feel that the mountains are up, maybe the respect of the teacher, for a lifetime. It’s still not clear. So...”

He lowered his head and unconsciously held a fist in his leg.

The rain on the ground gradually gathered into a stream, and the blossoming water blossoms opened and smashed.

"So, in the future, let me do the little things like umbrellas."

Chu night Ning did not speak, looked at him quietly.

"I want to give the division a lifetime umbrella."

"..." Chu Xiaoning felt that his heart was very hot, and it was so warm-hearted. He listened, but suddenly felt that he wanted to tears.

It is obvious that after experiencing so many pains, it will not be easy to show weakness.

He seems to be a traveler who has been away for a long time, and finally found a place to accommodate, a place where you can lie down and rest.

He fell, and the bones seemed to fall apart.

this life.

The smoldering is 22 years old this year. Some people have said that when people are over twenty years old, the time they see is different from that of the past twenty years. Twenty years ago, three years and five years, it seems to be long. lifetime.

But after the age of twenty, I will start to feel that time is running, the deceased will not return, everything is in a hurry.

He said that he would stop in such a hurry and take the umbrella for him.

Chu Yuning had received too little warmth, and the chest was suddenly filled with such kindness, only to feel the pain. He looked at the ink and looked at the man with his head down. He suddenly said: "The ink burns, you look at me."

The man raised his face.

Chu night Ning said: "You say it again."

Ink burned at him, this face is still somewhat unfamiliar to Chu Ningning, and in the memory, and the people who were once ridiculous in the drunken dreams.

He is gentle, calm, resolute, with a warm fire, iron hard, the two eyes greeted straight to the late night, no hesitation, no flicker.

Ming Ming Chu Ning finally looked at him five years ago, he is still a childish boy.

A dazzling man became such a strong and determined man.

The man kneels down in front of him and leans his head and says, "Master, I want to hold you a lifetime umbrella."

Chu night Ning looked at him stunnedly, looking at his dark eyebrows, handsome face, looking at his bright eyes, tall nose.

He has grown into an excellent cypress, and he is equal to him, and then surpassed him. One day, the night of Ning, this rainy and rainy tree suddenly stood still for a long time. Suddenly, I was awakened by a dream. I saw the rain stopped, the clouds were foggy, and there was a taller than the first in Yangyang. The more resolute tree, standing next to him, the wind blows, the golden light is a little bit, Wan Song Song Tao.

The tree said to accompany him for a lifetime.

Until they fell, the diseased wood became dry and the branches were no longer. In the future, he will no longer be alone in every spring, summer, autumn and winter.

Chu night Ning looked at him and suddenly understood that the ink burned was no longer five years ago. He was back from the town of Choi Butterfly, the * and lesser-looking apprentice.

He stood in the rain, standing under the enchantment of the jellyfish. For the first time, he carefully examined the ink and burned it, and examined the man’s life for him.

Then Chu Xinning’s heartbeat suddenly rose.

Suddenly he realized that the appearance of the ink burned today is such a slap in the face, from the arc of the bow that rises from the nose to the lips, from the sturdy chin to the throat.

If it is said that the burning of ink is only a deep love, it can still hide the cover. Today, I reunited, but I feel that this man has become a fire. It is easy to ignite him with the dry wood, and the fire that covers the sky can be awkward.

He felt that the lava that had been sleeping in his heart was waking up, and he was living in the abyss, ready to violently erupt.

The lava, to be proud of his arrogance, arrogance, abstinence...

They are all burned to ashes.

Burned into residue.

The author has something to say: today's bib has welfare ~~

Chapter 130

Chu Xiaoning’s breathing was a bit heavy and his throat was a little thirsty.

He was not willing to admit defeat, so he was so sad that he pressed his heart and fired, still faintly asked: "A lifetime?"

"lifetime."

"...I may go very fast, not in charge of you."

"It doesn't matter, I am chasing."

"I may also stand and don't want to go."

"I am standing with the teacher."

Chu Yuening was very anxious by his unthinking answer. He said, "Would you like to go?"

"I am holding you."

Chu nightning: "..."

The ink burned for a moment, and it seemed that there was some disrespect, some abrupt, so I opened my eyes and waved my hand and said, "I am carrying you away."

Chu Xinning’s heartbeat was getting more and more urgent. He had to do all his efforts to hold on to the instigation that he was eager to lift the man and want to touch him. This incitement made him frown. He looked anxious and annoyed: "Who wants you to carry it."

The ink burned open his mouth, but he didn't know what to say.

His master is so difficult to serve, his back is not good, he is not good, he can't carry it, he can't drag it. He is stupid. He doesn't know how to be happy.

So some lost their heads, like abandoning dogs.

He whispered: "Then I will not go."

"..."

"You want to rain, I will accompany you."

Chu Yuening was so stalked by such entanglement that he was so indifferent that he was almost independent of the idea: "I don't want you to accompany you."

The ink burned finally did not speak. From the perspective of Chu Yuning, he could only see his broad forehead, dark eyebrows, and two rows of long eyelashes, falling like a fog curtain, shivering slightly, as if there was wind blowing. The curtain starts to blow off the curtain.

"Teacher respects..." The refusal of Chu Yuning's esoteric sorrow made the ink burned his mind, and the ink burned, "Are you still angry with me..."

Chu nightning is still immersed in the instigation of his heart, can not get rid of, so did not hear clearly, only said: "What?"

"When I was in the ghost world, I said it to the Master. I have said many times that I am sorry, but I don't know enough. In the past five years, I have spent all my time, I know I owe you."

Chu nightning: "....."

"I also want to do better. I want to be at least standing in front of you. I don't feel that I am too dirty. I don't feel that I can't lift my head. But I... I can't catch you... I almost Woke up every day, I am worried that this is a dream, worrying that the dream is awake, you are gone. My ears always ring in the golden pool, when you save me, if you said to me, you said that the dream is too good. Really, I am... I am very sad..."

The sound of ink burns is a little hoarse.

He still has some words to say, but he does not want to say that he feels that he has no face to continue to talk about this in front of Chu, and how can he make him know what happened in the past five years?

He... Sometimes a person stays in the snow valley, can't tell the difference, and can't tell where he is. At that time, I took the needle and tied myself. One needle and one needle stabbed in the bones of my fingers. It was very painful. When I was so painful, I knew that my gods were still awake, knowing that I still stay in this world.

Knowing that this is not a big dream he had made in his life. If he wakes up, he will not see that the object is the life and death of the human being. The Xuemeng, who is full of hatred, will be razed to the Confucianism, and will not see the red lotus in the water. Chu night Ning Heyi is lying like a living.

It is like living before life.

There are four more words that can be more * than this.

Strange to say, when I knew that Chu Ningning died to save him, when he went down to the ghost world to save people, his heart hurts, but he did not have such unstoppable despair.

However, with the stagnation of life, as time goes by.

As the days of the late night of Chu’s awakening approached, the ink burned more and more painful, and more and more heart was like a knife.

It seems that the years when a person is alone, let him have more free thinking, but it seems that because he was so hysterical in the days when he was not late, he tried his best to imitate that person, hate to break himself down. Changed to the reflection of Chu Yuning.

In short, many things that he had not paid attention to, did not think deeply, and gradually forgot, returned to his mind. Those past events, like the wet tidal flats exposed after the tides faded, stood alone at the beach, and the waves had already extinguished.

Everything is so clear.

He remembered the past life, the smoke was everywhere, and the end of the road.

Xue Meng found the shackles of life and death, in the face of the Wushan Temple, Xue Meng had tears, asked him geography.

Why do you want to be respectful to yourself?

Xue Meng had forced him to force him to turn back before he died -

He said that the ink burned.

Think about it, you let go of your awkward hatred. Look back at you.

He used to practice martial arts and protect you.

He used to teach you to read and read books and poems.

He used to cook for you, clumsy, and it hurts.

He used to... He used to wait for you to come back day and night, one person from dark...to dawn...

At that time, the ink burned did not listen, and refused to go see it.

Right now he went to the shore of destiny and ebbs. He looked down at his feet and saw a lost heart. The heart used to be so good to him. He was so eager to die that he was about to die.

It was he who used it for himself, didn't glimpse, and stepped on his feet.

He just put the heart of Chu Yuning at his feet!

Every time I think about it, I feel that it is cold and bloody, what have he done in the end... What have you done? For two generations, sixteen years, why did he once again repay the late night? Why did he have such a day - the first one to put Chu nightning in his heart? !

brute! ! !

Is it true that I used to be the heart of wood and stone? Why didn’t it hurt? !

In the past five years, how many times in the sleep, I saw the return of the white evening clothes, and the face was as old as the old one.

He woke up, the pillows were all wet, and he said every day, Chu is late, teacher respect, sorry, it is not good for me, it is not good for me.

Every day, I can’t reduce my guilt.

Later, when he saw Fang Fei in the spring, he would think of him and see the snow in the winter and he would think of him.

Later, every morning was golden, just like the soul of Chu Yuning. Every night is black, like the eyes of Chu Yuning. Later, every month, Huaying Bai was like his sleeves and snow, and every round of the sun was like his eyes. Later, he was in the red sky of the horizon, in the morning of the blue crab, in the raging sea of clouds. I saw the figure of Chu Xiaoning.

He is everywhere.

Because of this pain and thoughts, he even faded away from the humble hatred of his origins, and faded his love for the teacher.

One day, he saw snow outside the snow valley, and found a snow-covered spring flower.

He calmly squatted for a while, just as if he wanted to think in general, he thought, ah, this flower is so beautiful, if the teacher sees it, he will definitely like it.

Just thinking so faintly, thinking about the simplest and most casual little thing.

When those who died in the night, they didn't drive him crazy. The sorrow that killed him was rushing to him in the blink of an eye. The embankment of a thousand miles was destroyed by the ant, and he suddenly collapsed.

He burst into tears, the deep valley was stunned, the wild geese were chilling, his voice was so hoarse and ugly, and he was ashamed to cry the golden flower that was born with arrogance.

Five years.

He never forgave himself.

"Master...I am sorry... I am desperately trying to get back today, I also brought you a gift. When I want to see you, I don’t have to start..." The calmness of those strong support is finally annihilated, those The calmness of the work finally fell apart.

The ink burned in front of Chu, and he finally got into trouble. Now, only in the late evening, he will be self-defeating.

"I... still stupid. After you resurrected, I promised you the first thing, and I can't do it. It's not good for me."

Chu Xiu Ning sees him like this, and his heart is already unbearable. He has always loved the ink burning. Now he hasn't reunited for a long time, and he has the heart to let him be so wronged.

But after listening to him, he hesitated and asked: "Why are you late today?"

"The original... is also too good. But in Caidie Town, I encountered some evil spirits, I..."

"Is it wrong?"

"I can't help it." The ink burned his head down. "Not only was it delayed, but even the gift for the master was destroyed. It was almost ruined, so I rushed to take a shower. ....."

Chu night Ning's heart is soft.

Mo Zongshi.

This ink burns, and it is no longer the same as it was five years ago.

Five years ago, I was still selfish, but now I know how to be light and heavy. Chu nightning is not a person who is thinking about the wind and snow. If the ink burns the ghosts of the butterfly town, he will be angry, but now he is honestly asking himself to forgive the man, he is awkwardly asking for forgiveness. I feel that it is really stupid and somewhat cute.

Chu nightning slowly moved forward, and the heart was warm and tumbling. He reached out and tried to help the ink, but he suddenly heard the smoldering voice: "Master, please don't go out of the door."

This time it was the turn of the night, and he didn’t know how deep the sorrow and uneasiness were, so he didn’t expect the ink to burn. He hesitated: “How...”

"When it rains, I am accompanying you, chasing you, guarding you, carrying you, don't want to, don't be satisfied, and beg you, don't chase me."

The ink burned and finally raised his face, and Chu’s heart trembled.

He saw that the man's eyes were slightly red, and there was fog in it.

Chu Xi Ning has always been neat and decisive, but suddenly he has no idea, and he is helpless: "You...you are 22 this year, how are you still..."

After a pause, he sighed and said: "You must get up first."

The ink burned his arm violently, wiped his eyes and rubbed his eyes, and said: "The teacher does not want me, I will not get up."

... really is a rogue!

Chu Xiaoning had some headaches, picked up his lips, grabbed his wrist and pulled him up.

Under the touch of the fingertips, I only felt that the muscles were strong, and the flesh and blood were hot. This young and strong body was no longer the same as that of my childhood. Even when I was in the middle of the night, I felt that my chest was shaking and I was stunned. , violently release your hand.

Fortunately, the ink burned was sad, and I didn’t notice the strangeness of Chu’s late night. But Chu Ningning stared at his hand in disbelief for a while, and his heart was raging.

This is how it is... What happened?

Didn't I sleep in the past five years, and I have lost my heart and mind, and I am proud of myself?

Look up again, stunned with ink.

Or is this person too big to change, so that he is no longer self-sustaining?

The ink burned and bite the lip, biting for a while, it seems to be the kind of heart that wants to squat down, and can’t catch up: "Please don’t take me away."

I have to say it again.

Where is the late night of Chu, who would dare to help him again? Busy and screamed: "You lie again! I really don't want you!"

"..." The ink burned for a moment, his eyes smashed, and suddenly he understood it. The scorn was suddenly brightened. "Master, you haven't blamed me...not because I lost my life today? You....."

Chu night Ning angered: "Why have I been so small?"

The ink is burning and the heart is excited. I can't help but want to hug him. This can scare Chu nightning. He takes a step back and his sword is full of anger: "What do you do? What is it?"

"Ah." The ink burned, and I suddenly lost my mind and said, "I am sorry, I am forgotten."

Chu Xiuning’s ears are red and strong, and he is very cold. “There are more than twenty people, and there are still no rules.”

The tip of the ink-burning ear is also red, and muttered: "I am not good."

It’s that I don’t seem to be his mantra. Chu is rather listening, some kind of good, some funny, some pity, and some warm.

He picked up the lashes and looked at the phoenix's tail. If there was nothing, then he sipped his eyes.

This eyelid sees a handsome and straight-eyed man. The face of the wheat color is unknown because the hot spring heat is not scattered, or other reasons, slightly red, hot, and the moist water around it seems to be evaded by his sunshine and vitality. The eyes are dark, bright and bright.

Boom.

Chu nightning felt that his heart was trembled, and the fingertips seemed to have arisen before he touched the burning heat. He suddenly swallowed his throat, did not dare to look at the burning, and sighed: "Idiot." He turned and left.

The enchantment on the head was not offset, and the smoldering was really chasing him as he promised.

Chu Xiaoning lowered his eyes and didn't dare to look back. He knew that his current eyes were always filled with love and desire that could no longer be hidden. It was like the hot fire of the fingertips and could not be wrapped.

He finally ruined him.

Five years ago, the ink burned did not happen. Five years later, this man did it. He got his heart and sank into the sea.

Since then, the late night of the Chu is rather a mortal, the flesh and blood, the color of the soul, and live in the net, not to take off.

The author has something to say: the cover is replaced by Mrs. Jiayan.~~ Actually, the wife has already done it well, but I always wanted to change Ink burning: a ... cough, eight meters a.

Chu nightning: OK, the exam passed, and you will not go out of the door.

Chapter 131

This evening, Chu nightning was lying on the bed of the red lotus water, and turned to the opposite side, unable to sleep.

He is thinking about how the ink burns will grow into what it is today. The ink master, the ink rain, and the closed eyes are the heroic faces of the man, his eyes are blazing, his fortitude and gentleness are lingering inside.

Chu Xiaoning snorted and kicked the quilt. The quilt slipped down the bed. He was lying on the bed in a big shape, looking up at the beam and looking at the beam.

He did his utmost to make himself break free from the sea and cut off his love until he was exhausted.

"Ink rains you this beast," he muttered.

Turning his head, but unable to get rid of the trend of thought, the hot and tight body seen in the sound pool seems to still shake in front of him, he saw wide shoulders, lines of sharp back, turned around, hot spring water along the mermaid The line is slowly flowing down...

He slammed up from the bed, his face was blue, and he never dared to think about it.

Grabbing a book at hand, like grabbing a life-saving straw.

Poor Chu night Ning Yingming I, nowadays actually fell to rely on books to get rid of the demons. The book that was spread out did not know which one was Xue Meng bought. When I opened it, I saw a dense row of flies and heads. When Chu Ning was at the beginning, I couldn’t see it. After a while, I suddenly realized what I was reading.

I saw a thin line of paper, and wrote a line of words:

"The Age of the Entrepreneur in the Year of Compilation"

Every word is known, but piled together, but I can't understand it.

Sheng Nian Yingjie... Size... Ranking?

what size?

Body size?

Looking down, a little small handwriting is also prepared next to it: because this row is involved in Yinghao, there are never bathers outside, not close to the flowers, so the list is not complete, Confucianism Yingjie lacks Nangong Temple, Xu Shuanglin size, lonely moon night The lack of size of the ginger, the lack of Xuemeng, Xie Fengzhen, Chu Yuning...

"...?"

Chu night Ning took a look.

What do you mean? Their size also needs to be bathed outside, to go to Hualiu Lane to see it?

I actually saw my name...

He frowned, pointed to the famous fingertips and continued reading. Unfortunately, the first name made him stunned.

Light rain.

Identity: The son of a dead child, Mo Zongshi

Chu nightning recalled the shape of the ink burning, this kid is indeed a high prestige, but it is not always ranked first?

Looking down, it’s written, “De Yutang’s view during bathing is not a vulgar thing, it’s amazing.”

"..."

Deyutang bathing...

Not a vulgar thing...?

Chu Xi Ning faintly felt that something was wrong, but his thoughts were purely used, so he pondered for a long time, and did not figure out what was wrong with him. He had to continue reading.

The second one is a piece of sanitation that he has not heard of. He also wrote a "When the wild forest bathing, it is very good."

"What is messy." Chu nightning has some resentment. "Although the shoes can increase or decrease the size of the crown, but it is not too much difference. Why do you have to wait for someone to take a shower and peep into it? Now how can folks popular such books? ....."

See the third place -

Mei Hanxue

Identity: Kunlun Teng Xue Palace teacher

This time, the small characters next to it are different. The writing is not about the bathing concept, but the "Spring Yinglou's nephew, and the other women in the realm of comprehension. Mei Gongzi can make the woman soft into water. The ossification is mud, and the night is ten people, not to mention."

Chu nightning: "....."

After a few deaths, Yu Heng’s head slammed and blew. He threw the book from the head of the bedroom like a hot potato, and he slammed it to the other end, and his face was red and his eyes flashed, and the whole person was discouraged.

What did he see?

what size! Rao is he is slow again, and at this time he feels that the taste is coming. What size can this be? Oh, no shame! Widowed! Oh dirty! I don't know how to be ashamed! ! !

Sitting in bed for a long time, Chu nightning still feels incomprehensible, and gets out of bed to pick up the booklet, the force between the fingers, the paper was suddenly shattered into pieces of debris...

However, "it is not a vulgar thing, it is amazing" eight words, but like a red soldering iron, slammed into his heart, making him red and red, if the heart is thunder.

He is an extremely positive person, only in the wonderful sound pool, the purpose of the lithography moves up, there is no place to look at it, and the steam in the pool is swaying, the body is ambiguous in it, he even looks at it. Unclear, but at this time, this dirty book used eight words to present this picture to his eyelids. The text is often more lively and fragrant than the picture, which is convenient for Xiaoxiang.

It’s not a vulgar thing...

Chu night Ning smeared his face, half a squat, grabbed the quilt and covered his head.

On the first day of customs clearance, what happened to him in the end... Chu night Ning no regrets and thought - the world has changed, he hates not to lie back and die again!

However, the elders of Yuheng have always been strict with themselves, even if they have not had a good night's sleep, even if they are so horrified in their hearts, how can they feel uncomfortable? On the second day, he still gets up on time, grooming and dressing neatly, still a majestic and abstinent face, floating Under the death of the South Peak.

Today is a monthly inspection. The good and the bad are awesome. Thousands of disciples are there to play the military. The elders are on the high platform.

In the absence of five years, the position of Chu Yuening has not changed, and it is still located on the left side of Xue Zhengyi.

I only saw him stalking in the white, stunned, from the bluestone long-term line, and then wide-sleeved, sitting straight in the empty space, gave himself a pot of tea, drink and watch.

Xue Zhengxuan saw that his face was not good. He thought that there was no feast in the ink, and he was so angry that he was so angry that he attached the past, with some pleasing meaning, and whispered: "Yu Heng, the fire is back."

Who knows that Chu’s eyebrows are pumping, and his face is even worse: “Well, I’ve seen it.”

"Ah? Have you seen it?" Xue Zhengyi stunned and nodded. "That's good, how? Is it getting a little more?"

"Ok……"

Chu Xiaoning did not want to continue to chat with Xue Zhengyi. After all, since yesterday, he has always had the sorrow of "not a vulgar thing". He did not intend to look for the burning figure in the bottom of the crowd, only bowed his head and looked at the table.

“A lot of fresh fruit snacks.”

Xue Zhengxi smiled: "Isn't it too early? I like to eat more."

Chu night Ning was also welcome, took a piece of lotus cake, and ate it with hot tea. The color of the lotus flower is gradual and orderly, from the bottom of the petals to the tip of the flower, the scent of the cardamom, the meringue is distinct, the entrance is crisp, and the bean paste wrapped in the scent of sweet-scented osmanthus is sweet.

"The craftsmanship of Lin'an Qingfeng Pavilion..." Chu night Ning whispered, turned to ask Xue Zhengyi, "Isn't the master of Meng Potang do it?"

"No, it’s a singer who brought it back to honor you." Xue Zhengyi smiled. "You don't see any other elders on the table."

"..." He said that Chu night Ning discovered that only the wooden case in front of him was full of local colors, cakes and candied fruit, and even a jasper-colored celadon bowl opened. The little cover of the squatting, there are not many more inside, holding three sweet dumplings.

The dumplings are not made of ordinary white glutinous rice. Instead, they use the enamel of Lin'an, and the crystal-clear one in the dough, the color of jade.

"Oh, this is a little thing that I went to Mengpotang in the morning to borrow the kitchen. The red one is the moon-filled bean paste stuffing, the yellow one is the peanut sesame stuffing, and the green one says that the dragon powder is ground with fine powder. The tender tea skins that are made are all very fresh things, that is, there is a little less..." Xue Zhengyi said, "Busy one morning, fine, and made three."

Chu nightning: "..."

"Yu Heng, are you enough to eat?"

"Yeah." Chu night quiet for a while, nodded.

He eats the dumplings. In fact, he only eats three, the first sweet, the second sweet, the third lame, and if he eats the fourth one, it is a bit greasy.

The ink burned just three pieces, but it was also a coincidence, not much more, just in line with his mind.

The white porcelain spoon licks the round and lovely glutinous powder soup pill, and sends it to the lips. It feels that the size is just right. It can be eaten in one bite. It is not like the one made by Meng Potang’s cook Yuanxiao, so big, it tastes sticky. Still laborious.

The person who makes the dumplings seems to know very well. He knows how much his mouth can hold, and what kind of food is in his mouth is not uncomfortable. The soft stuffing seems to be wrapped in endless relatives.

I don’t know why this thought made the late Ming Dynasty’s inexplicable heart sprout, and then died of shame and calmed down.

"His craftsmanship is not bad."

"Unfortunately, I only give you one person to do, others can't eat, even my uncle has no share." Xue Zhengyi sighed, very sorry.

Chu night Ning listened, faintly rubbed his lips, not snoring, only the spoon to stir the hot water in the bowl, the dumplings have been eaten, sweet just right, slowly melted in his heart.

After eating a snack, and no matter the hot and busy performances below, Chu Xiening took a file on the desk and went to see some rectifications and changes in the past five years.

These things are all sorted out by Xue Zhengyi, and the words are simple and concise. Chu Xiaoning quickly finished reading the file. Raised his hand to cover up, but saw that there was still a booklet underneath.

"This is..." He took it out and was a thick, thick wire-bound book. Xue Zheng glanced at him and smiled: "It is also a gift for you. I said yesterday that I was on the way back to fight with evil spirits. The book was accidentally splashed with blood, and many pages were torn. I am sorry to give it by myself. You, so I asked you to put it on your desk this morning."

Chu Xiaoning nodded and opened the book. The slender hand stroked the head of the scroll. The above-mentioned neatly written script, which read four words:

With my book.

His eyes were slightly enlarged and somewhat surprised.

Is this a letter written to him?

His heart suddenly seemed to be burnt by charcoal fire, and it was hot and painful. He narrowed his eyes and wanted to go to the bottom of the sea to find the figure of ink burning. He saw the armor, such as the fish.

When he could not find someone, he continued to look down at the letter.

It turns out that every day after the retreat of Chu, the ink burns will miss his master. There are many words in his heart. If he is afraid of time, he will forget it. So he found someone to make a solid book, a thick one, and there were 1,825 papers inside. He was fine. In five years, he wrote a letter to the teacher every day. From eating a particularly unpalatable leaf 耙, to today's cultivation, what is the experience, written on paper.

He originally counted 1,825 sheets of paper, not much more. After writing, the master should be out.

But sometimes I can't stop, the words are squeezed into a small group, eagerly rushing on the paper, I can't let Chu Xiening also take a look at the sea buckthorn flowers of Mobei, the haze of Changbai Mountain, hate the dessert that I tasted today. Hide in the paper slits, waiting for the night to wake up and enjoy the same.

The line of small characters, from beginning to end, does not stop, there is no sensational statement, nor write any sad, sad things, only honestly remember every bright moment of five years, he only puts good things, and He shared.

So once a good page every day, in the end is naturally not enough, he attached a thick stack of letters, behind the booklet...

Chu nightning slowly flipped, his eyes were a little moist.

He looked at the ink-burning handwriting from childish to straight, from straight to handsome.

The latest ink stains seem to have not dried up, but the earliest handwriting has gradually become green.

The words "and my teacher's book", each one, each one is different, slowly... Time flies from the light hoof to the snowy white head.

In the end, the 翎毛丹青, 屈铁断金, the end is the hurricane flow, horizontal screen vertical hook.

Chu night Ning turned to the last page, fingers rubbing the four words of the head.

With my teacher's book, and my teacher's book.

He looked at the dignified ink, as if he had just seen the ink-burning nib just hung up, and the man put it down, the man looked up, no longer a teenager.

From the first to the last one, he seems to see that the ink burned from the age of sixteen to twenty-two, and his body gradually drawn, and his eyebrows gradually deepened.

Just every day, I will sit in front of the case and write a letter to him.

"Master!!"

I don't know when the performance of the military was over. Chu Xiaoning heard someone shouting at him, so he raised his head slyly and saw him at the forefront of the good and evil platform. Xue Meng excitedly waved at him.

Next to Xue Meng, a man with a wide shoulder and a narrow waist, his legs are long and standing, standing still, the face of the man after the performance of the martial arts exudes heat, sweat on his forehead, and the crystal shines in the sunlight, like the bright fur of the cheetah.

When I saw the ink, I saw that he was watching him. He stunned and smiled. In the golden morning light, his smile is so charming and splendid, like the pines and cypresses soaked in the sun, swaying in the sand, his eyes are eager, the eyelashes are gentle, the tough and straight face seems shy, lively and blazing, dazzling God fans.

Good boy's son.

Chu night Ning quietly hugged his arms and sat on the high platform. He looked down at him proudly. Other people only saw that his expression was still cold, but no one knew that he had already been confused and lost his helmet.

In the crowd, the ink smiled and smiled, suddenly raised his hand, pointed to his own clothes, and pointed to the late night.

"..." Chu nightning did not react, Feng Xiao slightly picked up, looked at him doubtfully.

The ink burned more clearly, and his hands were on his lips, quietly making a few mouth shapes.

Chu nightning: "?"

The leaves are rustling, the morning breeze, the ink burns like some helplessness, the lips are rolling with a smile, shaking his head, and ordering his own clothes.

Chu nightning bowed his head, and after he had to squat, he smashed his ears.

"..."

Under the guidance of the apprentice, the elders of the prestigious Yu Heng finally found out that the morning was too hasty, and the red lotus water was piled up in a mess. He was casually, and he was still wearing the wrong one. Pieces.

Chapter 132

In the evening, tired birds homing. The disciples of the dead and the dead ended the day and went to Meng Potang. The ink burned but did not go, standing on the side of the wooden pile, seems to be waiting for someone.

Xue Meng has had a lot of relationship with him over the years, especially after the inspiration for the inspiration of the best stone to his dragon city knife, the gap between the brothers is no longer so clear. So Xue Meng turned to ask him: "Did you eat?"

"I will be there again."

The teacher stood in the setting sun, and even more lining the skin, such as gelatin, unparalleled. He smashed his hair and asked, "A burning is waiting for the teacher?"

"Yeah." Rao was seen in the morning when he was burned, and Xue Meng joined hands to fill the day of the crack. He also glimpsed that the teacher’s posture is about to surpass Xue Meng.

But this time, when the sun sets, he and Xue Meng stand in front and behind, still let the ink burn a little awkward. Of course, he does not think that the teacher is not good-looking, just...

I can't say it, I don't know what it feels like. It's about getting used to seeing the teacher's posture is weak. He was always covered by Xue Meng. He didn't think it would turn over now.

In the end, the ink burned and smiled at the teacher: "I missed the dinner yesterday and wanted to accompany the teacher to accompany him. I asked him to go to the mountain to eat dinner, so I won’t go to Meng Po Tang today. If you want to go, let's go together."

Xue Meng and Shi Yan were not accustomed to eating together in the evening, and looked at each other and left. There was nothing to do with the ink burning, squatting on a large bluestone, and folding the dog's tail grass to play with it, while waiting for the Chu night to go down the mountain.

When the sunset was very dark, the crescent looked out in the purple-red cloud, and the Nanfeng bamboo trail slowly came alone. The man had changed a piece of refreshing white clothes, holding a parcel in his hand and seeing the burning of the ink. After a moment of sighing, there is a moment of uncomfortable feeling.

"I am trying to find you something... How are you here?"

"Wait for the teacher to eat." The ink burned, jumping from the stone, holding the dog's tail grass in his hand, and smiling very brightly. "The town of Wuchang opened a new restaurant. I heard that it was the previous practice." The famous chef, the pastry made is a must. I want to ask the master to try it."

Chu night Ning did not salty and looked at him from head to toe: "There is nothing, rich?"

The ink burns and laughs, and does not speak.

Chu night Ning snorted and threw the cloth bag to him. The ink burned and asked, "What is this?"

"Your clothes." Chu nightning said, people have gone forward. The ink burned up and chased him. He stood shoulder to shoulder with him and smiled. "This dress is good, light, but warm. If the teacher likes it, I can change it to a smaller one. It can also be..."

"I don't wear clothes that others have worn."

The ink burned slightly, and then there was some embarrassment: "I don't mean this. I am... I saw the teacher wearing it this morning, thinking that the teacher likes it... I didn't think about it. I asked someone to go to that store. Cut a new one."

Chu night Ning asked: "Do you know how much clothes I wear?"

Ink ignited, how could he not know the size of Chu Yuning?

Surrounded by his arms, he can estimate the waist of Chou Ningning. He knows that Chu’s night is a stepping foot, and his chin can just reach his shoulder. When they were lingering, Chu nightning couldn’t help but bite him. The two rows of pointed teeth are printed near the collarbone and can't be regressed for a few days.

He certainly knows how long Chu’s legs are, obviously it’s such powerful legs when fighting, but when he wraps around his waist, he is so helpless. The thin and slender legs will tremble slightly, and the rounded toes will be tight. Stretching...

How could he not know how wide his shoulders are, and how the curvature of his hips is full and full.

Partially born in the late Qing dynasty, I didn’t know what I asked. I thought that this question was very high and I was stumped by his good apprentice.

Chu night Ning 拂 sleeves said: "I don't know what clothes you are still cutting."

"..."

It’s hard to argue with ink.

He can't say that he knows that when he even licks the dumplings, he will not pay attention to the figure of Chu Xiaoning yesterday. The sound of the sound pool is well-balanced and looks as good as the memory.

So I was so eager to swim, and I thought that Chu's lips were light and thin. When I was forced to swallow myself, I was always very painful. I couldn't open it. The throat was tight and I wanted to retching.

The ink burns and closes the eyes, and the throat is rolling, but it hides its own beast.

Respect him, love him, and not reproduce.

Respect him... respect him...

Taking a deep breath, the hot * desire is barely pressed down, but the dumplings that have been pulled out always feel a little bigger. The master should eat it and stick it, so he has to do it again. This time, all three are exquisite and small. The ink burns in the ratio between the fingers, pondering for a while, thinking about the late night, the thin lips lightly open, the soft mouth wrapped in the sweet dumplings...

The tip of the tongue rolled over, like a cluster of warm fires, and the burning of the seven passions and desires, the life of the ink burned.

He even knows how the size of the dessert can be accommodated in his mouth, but the guy who is late in the night, even asked him - knowing the size of his clothes.

The problem is like a cat's soft tongue, licking his chest.

Where do you dare to think more about it, and bow down: "Before cutting clothes, it is natural to ask the teachers to respect them."

Chu Xiaoning was a bit strange, and gave him a look: "Have you caught a cold?"

"No."

"The throat is so dumb."

"... get angry."

Chu night Ning stunned for a moment, did not know what to think, suddenly turned to his face, close to his lips, his eyebrows were a haze, but the back of his ears was somewhat red.

This shallow red until the two of them came to the town of Wuchang, sitting in the newly opened Zhongqiu Building window room, it was finally faded.

For the first time, Mo-burning solemnly invited Chu tonight to eat. Although he had asked for it before, it was not for coping, but for helplessness, and his mood was very different.

The younger brother of Zhongqiulou first dunked a pot of Lushan clouds, sent the seeds of the seeds, and then handed the two rolls of bamboo with the name of the dish to the two immortals. The ink burned over the bamboo slips, and the younger brother smiled naturally and said, "Thank you."

Chu nightning slightly lifted the sputum and looked at the ink.

This person used to have no habit of thanking.

"What the teacher wants to eat, just pick it up, but I recommend the pineapple squid in this store. I heard that it is sour and sweet, and it looks very good."

Chu night Ning nodded: "Then come to one, the other you look at it."

The ink burned and laughed: "Then I come according to the taste of the master."

Chu night Ning faint: "Do you know what I love to eat?"

"...well, I know."

I used to know it, but I always forget it.

I will not do it again.

Looking at the bamboo slips, I heard the footsteps coming from the stairs, and the bead curtains creaked. The voice of Xiao Erge came over: "Ah, Xianjun here, please, the two you are looking for are sitting in the elegant room... Right, the wine is not yet on."

Ying Lu's greasy hands gently open the green gauze, agate bead curtain.

A very beautiful man with soft black hair and red lips and white teeth, holding a pot of wine, with a breezy smile on his eyes, appeared at the door. When the ink burned back, it was obviously awkward: "Sister? How come you?"

"Meng Potang met with the Lord. He heard that you came down to eat here. I thought that this shop is newly opened. The dishes are good, but there is no aging. I sent a pot of pears and whites." Shi Yan said, shaking The red clay jug that swayed in the hand, the jug wrapped around with bamboo and rattan, it was so cute, and the wine was sizzling. It seemed that the wine could be smelled through the seal.

The teacher smiled and said: "Fortunately, I have caught up. Otherwise, if you order it, I will be a bit more."

Chu nightning asked: "What about you? Have you eaten yet?"

"I will go back and eat again. Meng Potang will not close the door so quickly."

"Come on, come, what else to go." Chu Yuning is a gift-giving person, said, "Sit down together."

"This... I am afraid it will cost A."

Ink burned and laughed: "How can it cost, add a chair." Then let Xiao Er go to get a pair of tableware, this Zhongqiu Building is really a pen, the end of the room is the end of the gold The fineness of the silver filaments, the candlelight shines, and the brilliance.

The teacher fell to the ground and gave the three people a full drink in the luminous cup. The aroma of pear blossoms was filled with a whole table in an instant. This wine is very familiar. After the death of the previous masters, the ink burned and burned. When Chu was rather dead, the ink burned on the roof for a night.

Now that the disaster has passed, they are still alive.

The smoldering suddenly felt that the possession or the love in the past seemed to be less important. The two people who are the best in his life are still in the world. He earns money and can ask them to have a meal and drink a drink. This is enough.

Three cups and two gongs, worthy of the previous Wanli River.

"Small two, tired of you, want a pine nut squid, then crab lion head, crystal hoof hoof, cherry ham, three fresh soup, oyster leaf steamed pork, these are a little bit spicy. Then come a water Boiled fish, Mapo tofu, husband and wife lung tablets, Kung Pao chicken, these should be heavy and spicy. Salty snacks should be jade shrimp dumplings, oyster sauce steamed pork ribs, scallop money belly and oyster sauce chicken feet. ....."Ink burned a look at Chu Yuning, closed the bamboo slip, "I will not look carefully, every one comes."

Chu Xiaoning's eyelids are not raised: "Can't eat."

Ink burning said: "Bring it back."

"Bring it back cold."

"...Let Meng Po Tang be hot."

Chu Xiaoning felt that the appearance of ink burning today is somewhat like the kind of merchant who dug the mine for a night of riches. The extravagance was a waste of words. It was too lazy to sneak with him. He opened the bamboo slip in front of him and looked at it and said: I want a kidney bean roll, a leaf 耙, three bowls of glutinous sweet bean paste, thank you."

The dishes soon came up one after another. The teacher loved to eat spicy food. The night was not red, so the ink burned and separated. The half table was fresh and refreshing. The table was red and strong, and the color was so matched. The accident was very beautiful.

"Come on, the last one, our signature dish, pine nuts squid -"

As the younger brother screamed, a plate of brightly colored squid was smashed by two waiters. The fish bream has a weight of five pounds, and the fried golden crispy is placed in a huge azure porcelain plate. The fish body is made into thick and even flowers, and the bright red sweet and sour juice is poured on the top. Sprinkled with green peas, finely broken clouds and legs, crystal shrimps on the head, smashed up to make people shine, appetite is wide open.

Chu nightning is sweet, especially sweet and sour. When I see this fish, my face is not angry, but my eyes are not bright.

This bright, it was seen by the ink.

Xiao Er looked at their table and saw that there was still space in front of the teacher. They had to arrange the dishes to make them stand out.

But one hand is faster than him, and he has begun to adjust the desktop. The ink ignited and put a few meats that Chu nightning did not touch, and put them on the side of the side, and then put a few delicious spicy dishes in front of the teacher. In this way, the position in front of Chu’s late Ning was empty, and the ink smiled and said to Xiao Er: “Put the fish here.”

"Oh, okay!"

In the case of such a guest who would help to adjust the table, Xiao Erge was of course happy, and immediately took the dish from the two waiters with a smile and put it to the empty place, nodded and bowed down.

This adjustment of the ink is very natural, others will only think that he is helping a little brother, but the teacher is aware of the favor. He was a little surprised at the ink burning, and the smashing light and shadow in his eyes, after a long time, his eyebrows looked low.

Shi Yan felt that the return of the ink after five years, but the appearance of the whole person has changed, and even waiting for his good, seems to fade a lot.

He loves to eat pine nuts and squid. Why is it so far away from him? Don't know? still is……

Still the heart has changed, not as good as the beginning.

The teacher is not a smug person. His appearance and temperament are all on the night of the night, and even the entire realm of cultivation, and few people are better than him.

But at this time he suddenly gave birth to a few hesitations.

He knows that when he is young, he loves to go to the heart, and loves those beautiful skins as if he loves to be in the bones, but that is just an illusion. For ink burning, the most precious thing is friendship.

If someone else gives him one or two, he will pay back thousands of dollars.

Now that Shi Zun and his former suspicions are released, Chu Xi Ning is good at ink burning, not what he can match. Thinking about this, the teacher suddenly felt a cold breeze on his heart, and he raised his face violently to see the faces of the two people under the light.

Drinking with a low head, the phoenix is like water, the eyelashes are like smoke, and the look and look are very faint.

And one who smiles and looks at the people who drink, and the hustle and bustle is reflected in the lights. There are springs and snow in the lights, and the pears are reflected in the moonlight. When the eyelashes are light, it seems that the lake is falling, and the stars are swaying. The affection, I am afraid that the masters of these eyes have never noticed.

The teacher lost his mind for a moment, his elbow touched the chopsticks, and he only heard the sound of "squeaking" and fell to the ground. He returned to God, and he was so sorry that he leaned over and picked it up.

Bent down, but stunned.

The chopsticks are unbiased and are falling on the side of the ink-burning boots. The color is faint, lying quietly, waiting for him to pick and choose.

He could have let Xiao Er come to the pair again, but the teacher never loves to bother others, and perhaps face such a gap. Rao is a gentle and temperamental person who will give birth to a little unwillingness and a little bit of sorrow. Or it's not that complicated, what a person does, sometimes it's just a matter of thought.

For the teacher, at this moment, it is a coincidence that he really wants to know that the ink is burning now and he still has a few friendships... So he hesitated, and he still looked down and stretched. Finishing the long white hands, to pick up the pair of chopsticks that rely on ink to burn their legs.

The chopsticks fell too close, naturally, when picked up, the back of the hand of the teacher, inevitably touched the calf burned calf.

"When I have money"

Ink burning: look at the text.

Chu nightning: Impossible, it is very expensive to buy all kinds of mech materials, I can't have a lot of money.

Ye Forgiveness: Things outside the body, enough to use, donate.

Mei Hanxue: Buy jewelry, sister.

Nangong Yu: Do you think you are happy with money? You simply don't know the pain of my wealthy people.

Xue Meng: When I have money, the first one to be humanely destroyed is the two fools upstairs. I am very happy to understand your pain. Come and give me your vault.

Chapter 133

At the time, the ink was drinking pear white, and suddenly felt that something had touched his leg. He subconsciously wanted to let it go, but before he could move, the feeling of touching was more obvious, and it was almost past him.

He was a little embarrassed and did not understand what happened. Until the teacher re-sit straight, he looked at the face of the fascinating brilliance and dyed thin red, and the look of his lips and low eyebrows seemed to have a heart, and the ink burned and reacted violently.

Just that is...?

"Cough and cough!!" The ink burned for a moment.

In his heart, the teacher has always been like a spring snow, a new moon, and can only be seen from a distance. Although he loves him very much, he can't die for him, but he rarely does anything to do with the love of the teacher, let alone put it into practice.

Can such a pure and innocent person, just in the ... touch him?

The idea really shocked the ink, because it was too intimidating, he shook his head like a rattle, and Chu was rather seen, frowning: "What happened to you?"

"Nothing!"

Still touch him in the face of the master! ……how is this possible? !

This is not like what the teacher will do...

The burning face is more complicated, not so much a surprise, but rather a shock.

He slowed down for a long time, and heard the teacher shouted warmly: "The chopsticks are dirty, the second child, please bother you to change a pair."

Xiao Er Ying Sheng came, and the voice went again. The ink burning heart turned to the side, and the face of the guru was clear and faint. The man’s eyes were still peaceful and his face was gentle. It seemed that the blushing and shyness that the ink was burning was an illusion. I felt that someone was licking myself, and the teacher lifted the peach eye a few inches, and with a smile that was utterly eclipsed, it fell on the ink.

"what happened?"

"Nothing, nothing."

The teacher said: "The chopsticks are not the place, just at your feet."

"Oh..." The ink burned and sighed, and my heart was slow. Sure enough, I think more. He was about to say a few words to the teacher to ease the atmosphere, but he saw that the teacher had turned his face away and got up to take the soup spoon and soup.

I was embarrassed by the idea of ink burning, and said, "I will help you."

"No, I will come by myself."

When I talked about it, I rolled up my sleeves and took up Sansheng soup for myself.

The soup was burnt, and the position was close to the late night of Chu. It was far away from the teacher. I didn’t feel anything when I sat down, but he stood up and simmered. It’s very distinctive in the distance, he almost stretched out. The arm can reach the soup from the other end of the table.

One spoonful, two spoons, slow and reasonable.

Ink burning: "..."

The teacher looked at his uneasy eyes and did not speak. He just smiled and coveted himself.

The smoldering felt a little embarrassed. When the teacher finished, he asked if Chu would rather not, and Chu said that he would not, he would transfer the soup to the middle position, not too close to anyone, not too far, just Good location.

His mentor and his favorite people.

There should be no bias.

During the dinner, the teacher suddenly said: "A burning, you really have a lot of sensible things now, no longer the apprentice who would provoke the teacher to be angry. So there is one thing, today we are all three people, I want to tell you Aloud, I will say sorry to the teacher."

The ink burned him to see the solemnity he said, not to condense the god: "What?"

"Do you remember the first time I sent a copy of the hand to you?" Shi Yan said, "The bowl of hand is not what I did, I will never cover it, that is..."

The ink burned and laughed: "I thought it was something. It turned out to be this one, I already knew it."

"Ah, have you already..." The teacher stunned a little, and turned a big eye, and turned to look at the late night, who was drinking a good wine. "Is it told you?"

"No, I saw it before I went to the ghost world." The ink burned and said, suddenly Chu nightned down the wine cellar, coughed, and looked at him, his expression was very cold.

Mo-burning knows that his face is thin, naturally he is not willing to let others know his softness, so he said to the teacher: "In short, five years ago, I already understood the cause and effect, and said that the conversation was too long, or not. ”

The teacher nodded and said: "This is also good." And on the late night of Chu, "Master, you refused to copy the hand to Ah, and let me send it to him. I didn't think it was serious. But Later, I saw that the misunderstanding between you was getting deeper and deeper. I was very uncomfortable in my heart. I wanted to find a time to explain it to Ah, but I couldn’t open my mouth when I was in the mouth... In fact, I was also selfish at the time, I was In addition to the younger ones, the dying of life and death is also a good friend. I am afraid that he will know that his heart will be a little unpleasant, so..."

"It doesn't matter, it turns out that I won't let you say. What is wrong with you."

"But I didn't want to go, I felt that I had robbed the teacher's mind. Master, I can't help you." The teacher said, he lowered his eyes and asked, "A burning, I can't help you."

Ink burning has never been blamed for the teacher, although his initial good intentions to the teacher, the yin and yang is caused by a copy of the hand of Chu, but the warmth of the teacher is true, and the teacher is only According to the lateness of Chu’s late life, there is no intention to take care of it.

The ink burned: "No, no, don't care about this. How long has it been..."

He looked at the teacher under the light. This face was never seen in his previous life. Because in the last life, the teacher had already died at this time. Fang Hua was disappointing, but he was dying in the wind and became his life. Pain.

He didn't even have a chance to know, ah, the original teacher would live to be twenty-four years old, and it would be like this.

The figure is tall, his face is as white as jade, and a pair of peach eyes are full of spring water. It looks so gentle, I am afraid that it will be soft when it comes to life.

His tight, wrinkled heart slowly loosened, and he sighed and suddenly felt very happy, his heart was warm and steady.

Although I always feel that compared with the 19-year-old teacher, the twenty-four-year-old, there are some strangers, not as familiar as they used to be, perhaps because of this strangeness, they just gave birth to the "teachers will take the initiative." The idea of touching his calf is simply ridiculous, but it seems that it will take a little longer, and I will gradually get used to it... As for the feelings, now I don’t want to force it any more, just let it go.

He has been wandering for five years, and the trail is hard to find. There have been several distresses, and I don’t know if it’s deliberate, but in short, the black hands behind the scenes have not been extended and have not been caught. Ink burning feels that the future will not be too peaceful, he can not be taken lightly.

The two people around him, even if they want to throw away their own lives, he must also protect them all the time.

The smoldering side temporarily put down the demons, but he did not know that the demons were never idle, let him go, but turned to another person.

Perhaps it was because I ate too much at night. After I went back to Chu, I soon got a little sleepy. He originally wanted to draw the new mechs drawings overnight, but only half of them were yawned. He stayed strong for a while, didn't hold it, and finally snorted and blinked his eyes. Even if the clothes didn't change, he lay down on the bed and fell asleep.

Sleeping in the air, dreaming of a lot of messy things.

First of all, the "Spirit of the Year of the Compilation of the Age of Heroes", and then to the handsome and strong body seen in the wonderful sound pool.

In the candlelight, Chu nightning’s eyebrows wrinkled slightly, seemingly trying to get rid of such a dream of shamelessness, but he couldn’t help himself and gradually got deeper...

Then he did the dream he had done before.

The dying of life and death, the object is the heart of the human heart.
