A SCIENTIFIC DISCLAIMER

By
Professor Gaylord M. Sneedly

The book you hold in your hands contains many scientific errors and stuff.

For example, dinosaurs and cavemen did not live at the same time. Dinosaurs lived more than 64 million years BEFORE cavemen.

And I should know! In 2003, I was the recipient of The Most Brilliantest Science Guy of the Whole Wide World Award.

So there!

Professor Gaylord M. Sneedly

A SCIENTIFIC DISCLAIMER DISCLAIMER
BY George and Harold

Scientists Think
They Know everything!

BUT They don't!

They Just make guesses based on evidence They've already discovered.

I call my guesses
"Theories" so
They sound important!

← "Genius"

BUT There's all kinds of new evidence
discovered every day!

So the "Truth" is always changing!

Forchenately,
we have a
Time machine.

We've Been To The Future and the Past!

So we discovered Lots of evidence That scientists dont
Know About...

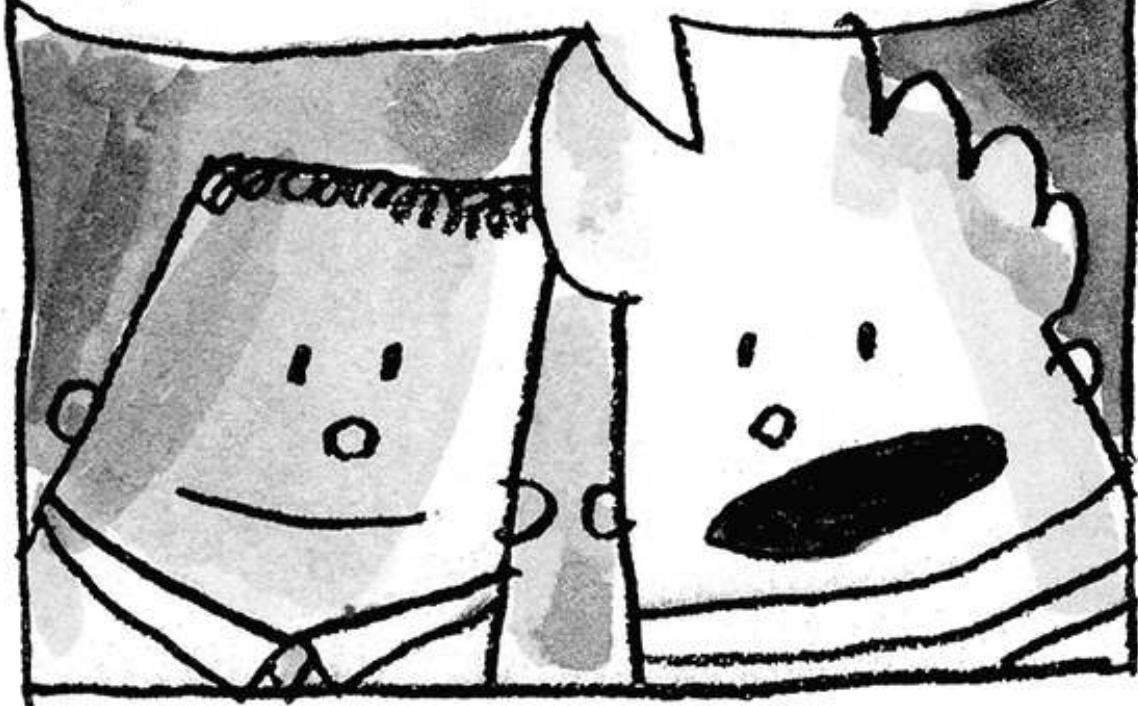

YET!!!

For example: Some dinosaurs Did Live The Same Time as cavemen!

BUT Scientists
wont discover That until the year 2073!

So if your Looking for guesses, There are plenty of science books To choose from.

Or you can Read
The Worlds First Book Based on SCIENCE FACTS!!!

Those who Truly

For the simple

Bread also cuts
Flesh.

The Lowley axe
That chops wood
also chops bones.

The Best fighters

They also studied important Things, too.

HAW-HAW!

The Adventures of OOK AND GLUK
KUNG-FU CAVEMEN
FROM THE FUTURE

BEHIND THE BLACK BELTS

PAGES FROM DAV PILKEY'S SKETCHBOOK

Here's a behind-the-scenes look at the creation of this book. Every illustration begins with a rough sketch. Dav Pilkey says that his rough sketches sometimes look like stick figures. The sketches are refined again and again until Dav is ready to create the final line art for each page. To complete each illustration, Dav adds an ink wash that provides shading and tones.

Check out the steps Dav went through to create one of the scenes of Master Wong teaching Dok and Gluk.
